Note.- For the recruitment of the teachers of attached primary section, the minimum qualification shall be in accordance with National Council for Teacher Education.

Recruitment will be excluded and the fraction of posts to be filled through promotion will be increased by one to create one post.]"

(Emphasis added)

6. Rule-11 of the Rules, provides for determination and notification of vacancies. The intimation/requisition that is to be sent to the Board, according to Rule 2(a) of Rule-11 of 1998 Rules, is to be only in respect of direct recruitment whether the posts are vacant or likely to be vacant by the last date of year of recruitment. Rule-11 (2) (a), which is relevant for the purpose is reproduced hereunder:-

"11. Determination and notification of vacancies. -

(1) ----------

(2) (a) The statement of vacancies for each category of posts to be filled in by direct recruitment including the vacancies that are likely to arise due to retirement on the last day of the year of recruitment, shall be sent in quadruplicate, in the pro forma given in Appendix "A" by the Management to the Inspector by July 15 of the year of recruitment and the Inspector shall, after verification from the record of his office, prepare consolidated statement of vacancies of the district subjectwise in respect of the vacancies of lecturer grade, and group wise in respect of vacancies of Trained graduates grade. The consolidated statement so prepared shall, along with the copies of statement received from the Management, be sent by the Inspector to the Board by July 31 with a copy thereof to the Joint Director :

Provided that if the State Government is satisfied that it is expedient so to do, it may, by order in writing, fix other dates for notification of vacancies to the Board in respect of any particular year of recruitment :

Provided further that in respect of the vacancies existing on the date of the commencement of these rules as well as the vacancies that are likely to arise on June 30, 1998, the Management shall, unless some other dates are fixed under the preceding proviso, send the statement of vacancies by July 20, 1998 to the Inspector and the Inspector shall send the consolidated statement in accordance with this sub-rule to the Board by July 25, 1998."

(Emphasis added)

7. Rule-12 of the 1998 Rules, provides procedure for direct recruitment and Rule-14 provides procedure for recruitment by promotion. Rule-14 is reproduce hereunder:-

14. Procedure for recruitment by promotion. - (1) Where any vacancy is to be filled by promotion, all teachers working in Trained graduates grade or Certificate of Teaching grade, if any, who possess the qualifications prescribed for the post and have completed five years continuous regular service as such on the first day of the year of recruitment shall be considered for promotion to the Lecturers grade or the Trained graduates grade, as the case may be, without their having applied for the same.

Note. - For the purposes of this sub-rule, regular service rendered in any other recognised institution shall be counted for eligibility, unless interrupted by removal, dismissal or reduction to a lower post.

(2) The criterion for promotion shall be seniority subject to the rejection of unfit.

(3) The Management shall prepare a list of teachers referred to in sub-rule (1), and forward it to the Inspector with a copy of seniority list, service records, including the character rolls, and a statement in the pro forma given in Appendix 'A'.

(4) Within three weeks of the receipt of the list from the Management under sub-rule (3), the Inspector shall verify the facts from die record of his office and forward the list to the Joint Director.

(5) The Joint Director shall consider the cases of the candidates on the basis of the records referred to in sub-rule (3) and may call for such additional information as it may consider necessary. The Joint Director shall place the records before the Selection Committee referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 12 and after the Committee's recommendation, shall forward the panel of selected candidates within one month to the Inspector with a copy thereof to the Management.

(6) Within ten days of the receipt of the panel from the Joint Director under sub-rule (5), the Inspector shall send the name of the selected candidates to the Management of the institution which has notified the vacancy and the Management shall accordingly on authorisation under its resolution issue the appointment order in the pro forma given in Appendix 'F' to such candidate."

(Emphasis added)

8. Upon bare reading of rules one can very safely conclude that criterion for promotion is seniority subject to rejection of unfit and the management is required to prepare a list of teachers working in substantive vacancy in trained graduate grade and then forward the same to the District Inspector of Schools, who in his turn shall forward the same to the Joint Director of Education. The Joint Director thereafter shall place the record before the Selection Committee, which is to be constituted under Sub Section 1 of Section 12 of the U.P. Secondary Education Service Selection Act, 1982, which consists of Regional Joint Director of Education, senior most Principal of government intermediate college and the concerned District Inspector of Schools as member Secretary and it is thereafter that recommendations shall be made to the Regional Selection Committee with its advance copy to the management and then the management would adopt a resolution to make such appointment then in all circumstances, it is the Regional Selection Committee, which is lawfully entitled to consider the candidature of the candidates from amongst the list forwarded of eligible candidates for promotion on the post of lecturer in the order of seniority but subject to rejection of unfit and the management is to identify the vacancy as per Rule-1 of Section 10 and then to notify the vacancy, which deserves to be filled up by direct recruitment. It is the rule that in the matter of fraction, in order to assess 50% of the vacancy, the division falling in fraction to be taken as a whole number and, therefore, one vacancy will be taken to be in promotion quota and direct recruitment shall be ignored. The proviso of Rule-10 clears this position.

9. So far the plea of reservation as taken by the respondents is concerned, I find the legal position to be very clear that reservation is applicable to the post falling in a particular category like direct recruitment or promotion. The posts falling in both the categories cannot be clubbed together to apply rule of reservation. Relying upon the judgment of Division Bench of this Court in the case of Smt. Pholpati Devi vs. Smt. Asha Jaiswal and others; 2009 (2) ADJ 90 (DB), a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Tejveer Singh vs. State of U.P. and others, has held that clubbing of vacancies, which were to be filled by promotion along with the vacancies to be filled up by direct recruitment was impermissible in law. In the case of Smt. Pholpati Devi (Supra), the Division Bench of this Court has considered the direct recruitment and promotion quota separately for the purposes of application of rule of reservation. Relying upon the authority of Supreme Court in the case of R.S. Garg vs. State of U.P. and others; (2006) 6 SCC 430, vide paragraphs-7 and 8, the Court has held thus:-

"7. In the case in hand, there were only seven sanctioned posts of Lecturers wherein 50% were to be filled in by direct recruitment and 50% by promotion.

Therefore, at the best four posts would have been available for one source of recruitment, ie., direct recruitment or promotion. The reservation for scheduled castes is 21%. If we treat one of the vacancies in either of the source of recruitment in the institution as reserved for scheduled caste, it would be more than 21%. The Apex Court in R.S. Garg v. State of U.P. and others, 2006 (6) SCC 430, has held as under:

"40. We are not concerned with the reasonableness or otherwise of the percentage of reservation. 21% of the posts have been reserved for Scheduled Tribe candidates by the State itself. It, thus, cannot exceed the quota. It is not disputed that in the event of any conflict between the percentage of reservation and the roster, the former shall prevail. Thus, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, the roster to fill up the posts by reserved category candidates, after every four posts, in our considered opinion, does not meet the constitutional requirements."

8. Thus, it is clear that in no manner a vacancy can be filled in which would exceed the prescribed limit of reservation as the extent of reservation is maximum and it cannot be exceeded thereto. In the case in hand, one of the vacancy if treated to be reserved for scheduled caste candidate out of four vacancies, the reservation would come to 25%, which would exceed the maximum extent of reservation prescribed for scheduled caste candidates under the Statute. That being so, such reservation could not have been upheld and the appointment and promotion of respondent No. 1 treating one post of lecturer reserved for scheduled castes in promotion quota, therefore, was illegal and has rightly been set aside by Hon'ble Single Judge."

10. Thus, there can be no reservation in respect of the vacancy in question which falls in promotion quota and the total number of vacancies in promotion are only three.

11. Nothing has been pleaded in the entire counter affidavit as to in what circumstances, out of five vacancies of lecturer sanctioned in the institution, the management came to determine that the post of lecturer Economics to be falling under direct recruitment quota. It is not the case that eligible candidate was not available, inasmuch as, the management on its own could not have ignored the candidature of the petitioner except forwarding the same to the District Inspector of Schools for onward transmission to the Regional Selection Committee as prescribed for under Section 12 (1) of the Act No. 5 of 1982, complying the procedure as prescribed under Rule-14 of the 1998 Rules. In the circumstances, therefore, the requisition sent by the Committee of Management impugned herein this petition is held null and void. Accordingly, the requisition sent by the Committee of Management and uploaded on the official website of the Board for direct recruitment on the post of lecturer Economics dated 09.07.2019 and 05.10.2019, annexure nos. 1 and 6 to the writ petition, are hereby quashed. The Committee of Management is directed to forward the papers of the petitioner and entire record in relation to his service career as Assistant Teacher L.T. grade, to the District Inspector of Schools within a period of three weeks from today, who shall in his turn forward the same to the Regional Joint Director of Education within a week thereafter. The Regional Joint shall make queries, if necessary, otherwise place the papers before the Regional Selection Committee, who shall do the needful in the matter as per Rule 14 of 1998 Rules. In any case, final decision shall be taken by the Regional Selection Committee within six weeks from the date of receipt of papers in the Office of Regional Joint Director of Education from the District Inspector of Schools. It is further provided that in case, the Management does not comply with the directions issued hereinabove in forwarding the papers of the petitioner for promotion, it will remain open for the District Inspector of Schools to take appropriate measure in the matter to ensure that the papers are forwarded within the time to the Regional Joint Director of Education.

12. With the aforesaid observations and directions, the petition stands allowed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 610
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 16.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ-A No. 12683 of 2023

Mohd. Ikram & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
Smt. Shamshana ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Firoz Haider, Sri Abu Bakht

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Komal Mehrotra

Tenancy Law – U.P. Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972 – Section 21(1)(a) – U.P. (Regulation of Urban Premises) Tenancy Act, 2021 – Section 46 – Maintainability of Release Application – Petitioners (tenants) challenged appellate order dated 23.05.2023 setting aside Prescribed Authority's order dated 05.03.2022, which dismissed landlady's release application under Section 21(1)(a) of U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 as non-maintainable – Held, release application filed on 22.01.2021 was not maintainable, as U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was repealed by U.P. Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 (effective 11.06.2020, lapsed 31.03.2021) and U.P. Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 (effective 11.01.2021), followed by U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 (retrospective from 11.01.2021) – Section 46(2) of U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 protects pending proceedings under U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972, but release application filed post-repeal lacks jurisdiction – Appellate Authority's reliance on landlady's prior notice (01.07.2020) erroneous, as no notice required for Section 21(1)(a) application unless filed within three years of property purchase – Krishna Kumar Singh Vs St. of Bihar followed, clarifying Ordinance's legal effect and lapse – Prescribed Authority's dismissal upheld, appellate order set aside. (Para 9-11)

Writ petition allowed.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Krishna Kumar Singh Vs St. of Bihar; (2017) 3 SCC 1

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Shri Abu Bakht, learned counsel for the petitioners and Shri Komal Mehrotra, learned counsel for the sole respondent/landlady.

2. The instant writ petition, at the instance of petitioners/tenants, has been filed assailing the order dated 23.5.2023 passed by the learned District Judge, Saharanpur in Rent Appeal No. 15 of 2022 whereby and whereunder the rent appeal has been allowed the order of the learned Prescribed Authority dated 5.3.2022 has been set aside and the matter has been remanded back to the learned Prescribed Authority for considering the release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972, afresh.

3. The facts giving rise to the controversy involved between the parties lies in a narrow compass. A release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was filed on 22.1.2021 by the respondent/landlady against the petitioners setting up a need for her son to expand his business and augment his income so as to meet out family liabilities for the shop 'A' and 'B', respectively under the tenancy of the petitioners. The release application was registered as PA Case No. 6 of 2021. The petitioners appeared and filed their objections. The learned Prescribed Authority framed an issue as to whether the release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was maintainable and proceeded to hold that since the release application was filed on 22.1.2021 after the Uttar Pradesh (Regulation of Urban Premises) Tenancy Act, 2021 (U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021) had come into effect and the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 had been repealed the release application registered as PA Case No. 6 of 2021 was not maintainable and no relief could be granted to the landlady/respondent under the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972. The Prescribed Authority accordingly dismissed the release application vide judgment and order dated 5.3.2022. Aggrieved by the dismissal of the release application as non maintainable, the respondent/landlady preferred an appeal under Section 22 of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 which has been allowed by the impugned order dated 23.5.2023, the order of the Prescribed Authority dated 5.3.2022 has been set aside and the matter has been remanded back for consideration of the release application, afresh.

4. Shri Abu Bakht, learned counsel for the tenant/petitioners submits that the order of the learned District Judge, Saharanpur in allowing the rent appeal by the order dated 23.5.2023 is patently erroneous and is liable to be set aside inasmuch as the release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 filed on 22.1.2021 was not maintainable as U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 had come into effect from January 11, 2021 as provided under Section 1 (4) of U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. It is further contended that sub section 1 of Section 46 of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 provides that the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 and the Uttar Pradesh Regulation of Urban Premises Tenancy (Second) Ordinance, 2021 and U.P. Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 stand repealed.

5. Shri Komal Mehrotra, learned counsel for the landlady/respondent, on the other hand, submits that the proceedings of U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 under which Act the release application under Section 21 (1) (a) was preferred was very much in force inasmuch as U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 has been made operative with retrospective effect from 11.1.2021. Earlier, the Uttar Pradesh Regulation of Urban Premises Tenancy Ordinance, 2021 (U.P. Ordinance No.2 of 2021) was operative. However, it lapsed on 31.2.2021. Consequently, the provisions of U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 revived and in such view of the matter, the Appellate Court was justified in treating the proceedings initiated under the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 to be maintainable. He further submits that Section 46 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 which relates to repeal and savings provides that all cases and other proceedings under the U.P. Act

No. 13 of 1972 pending at the commencement of this Act shall be continued and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as if that Act had continued to be in force and the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 had not been enacted. He, thus, contends that the release application filed on 22.1.2021 would be deemed to be pending on the commencement of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 which has been made retrospective in operation w.e.f. 11.1.2021. It has further been argued by Shri Komal Mehrotra, learned counsel for the respondent that the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 contemplates existence of a tenancy agreement between the parties as is evident from Section 38 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 and in the absence of any tenancy agreement between the parties the provisions of the Act No. 16 of 2021 would not be applicable.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners in rejoinder submits that on 22.1.2021 i.e. the day on which the release application was admittedly filed, the U.P. Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 was very much in force and as such, the appropriate action against the petitioners ought to have been taken under the Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 as provided under Section 46 (4) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. It is further contended that the U.P. Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 was promulgated by the Governor on January 9, 2021. Due to the sudden adjournment of the first session of 2021 of the State Legislature on March 4, 2021, proceedings of which was determined from February 18, 2021 to March 10, 2021 replacing Bill of the said Ordinance could not be passed by the House of the State Legislature. Consequently, the Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 promulgated on January 9, 2021 lapsed on March 31, 2021 as the replacing Bill therefore could not be enacted within 06 weeks of reassembly of the State Legislature as required under Article 213 of the Constitution. After the lapse of the Ordinance No. 2 of 2021, it was decided to bring a new tenancy law to keep the provisions of the Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 in force even after March 31, 2021 to establish Rent Authority and Rent Tribunals to regulate the renting of premises, to protect the interests of landladys and tenants and to provide speedy adjudication mechanism for resolution of disputes. Since, the State Legislature was not in session, the U.P. Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 was promulgated on April 9, 2021. The Bill was subsequently presented and the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 was enacted w.e.f. 11.1.2021.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioners further contends that though the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 contemplates on existence of a tenancy agreement between the parties, the sub Section (3) (b) of Section 4 of the Act deals with a situation wherein no agreement in writing is found to have been entered between the landlady and the tenant. In such an event, a tenancy agreement shall be entered into by the landlady and tenant and present the same before the Rent Authority within 03 months of the commencement of the Act. The proviso to the said section provides that where the landlady or tenant fails to present jointly a copy of the tenancy agreement or fail to reach an agreement within specified period, the landlady and tenant shall separately file the particulars about such tenancy with the Rent Authority within one month from the date of expiry of the period mentioned in Clause (b) in the form specified in First Schedule of the Act. The landlady/respondent did not discharge this burden.

8. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record.

9. The moot question for consideration by this Court is as to whether the U. P. Act No. 13 of 1972 stood repealed by virtue of the Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 or Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 so as to render the application under Section 21(1)(a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 non maintainable.

10. Before this Court dwells into the above aspect, it would be apt to understand the significance of an Ordinance. Article 213 of the Constitution of India confers power to the Governor to promulgate Ordinances during recess of Legislature. An Ordinance promulgated under Article 213 of the Constitution of India shall have the same force and effect as an Act of the Legislature of the State assented by the Governor. An Ordinance must be changed over into law within six weeks of the reassembly of the Legislature or it will lapse. Once an Ordinance lapses the law brought in the system ceases to operate and will not be treated as legal law anymore. An Ordinance can be re-promulated just thrice. The consequence of lapse of an Ordinance in cases where these existed an old law which was over ridden by the Ordinance then it will again become the valid piece of law. A Seven Judges Bench of the Apex Court in the case of Krishna Kumar Singh Vs. State of Bihar reported in 2017 (3) SCC 1 while dealing with various aspects regarding promulgation of an Ordinance amongst other issues held that an Ordinance which has ceased to operate is not void. As an instrument it is not still born. During the tenure of the Ordinance it has the same force and effect as a law enacted by the Legislature.

11. Now coming to the case at hand, the Court finds that the U.P. Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 was promulgated on 11th June, 2021. Under the said Ordinance the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was repealed. The release application dated 22.01.2021 was filed when the U.P. Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 was very much in force. The release application under the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was certainly not maintainable as the Act stood repealed. The subsequent lapse of the Ordinance No. 2 of 2021 would be of no significance inasmuch as the U.P. Ordinance No. 3 of 2021 was promulgated on 9th April, 2021 w.e.f. 11.01.2021. There is no merit in the submission of Sri Komal Mehrotra, learned counsel for the respondent that the release application would be deemed to be pending on the date of the enforcement of the U.P. Act No.16 of 2021. The entire proceedings under the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 are without jurisdiction. The learned Prescribed Authority was justified in rejecting the release application under Section 21(1)(a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972, as not maintainable. The Appellate Authority appears to have been misguided by the fact that the landlady/respondent had served a Notice dated 1.7.2020 terminating the tenancy of the petitioners and as such, had already initiated the proceedings for eviction of the petitioners from the tenanted premises and, therefore, stood covered by the provisions of Section 46 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. The Court is afraid that such erroneous assumption by the learned Appellate Authority cannot be sustained inasmuch as there is no legal requirement of issuing a notice for filing a release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 except when a release application is filed within three years of purchase of the tenanted premises from the erstwhile landlord/owner, which is not the case at hand. The requirement is only when filing a suit under Section 20 of the Act. In the absence of any proceedings initiated by the landlady/respondent under Section 21 (1) (a) prior to enforcement of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 or the U.P. Ordinance No. 2 of 2021, the findings recorded by the Appellate Authority cannot be sustained. The Appellate Authority in Rent Appeal committed manifest error of law in setting aside the order of the Prescribed Authority and directing fresh consideration of the release application under Section 21(1)(a).

12. For the reasons recorded above, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned order dated 23.05.2023 passed by the learned District Judge, Saharanpur in Rent Appeal No.125 of 2022 is set aside. The order of the Prescribed Authority dated 5.3.2022 passed in PA Case No.6 of 2021 is sustained.

13. Parties to bear their own costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 614
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Writ-A No. 61632 of 2013

Pramod Kumar Paswan ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Manoj Kumar, Sri Adya Prasad Tewari, Sri Manish Kumar Nigam, Sri Munna Tiwari, Sri Sheo Shankar Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri A.K. Tiwari, Sri Ashok Kumar Tiwari

Service Law – Intermediate Education Act, 1921 – Regulation 31 – Disciplinary Proceedings – Termination of Class IV Employee – Petitioner challenged termination order dated 23.10.2013 and enquiry report dated 29.06.2013 – Held, disciplinary proceedings flawed due to non-compliance with principles of natural justice – No evidence of oral enquiry conducted despite petitioner's denial of charges, as required per Sahabuddin Ansari Vs St. of U.P. and St. of U.P. Vs T.P. Lal Srivastava – Enquiry report silent on fixing date, time, or place for oral enquiry or petitioner's participation, rendering it unsustainable – No proof that enquiry report was supplied with show-cause notice, denying petitioner opportunity to defend, violating Managing Director, ECIL Vs B. Karunakar – Second show-cause notice mandatory in disciplinary proceedings – Allegation of biased Enquiry Committee (inclusion of Manager's son and complainant clerk) not sustainable, as petitioner did not object during proceedings – Termination order by Principal, not Committee of Management, upheld as per Regulation 31, but procedural lapses invalidate enquiry and termination – Enquiry report and termination order quashed, respondents permitted to proceed afresh in accordance with law. (Para 11-19)

Writ petition allowed.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Sahabuddin Ansari Vs St. of U.P.; 2008 (4) ADJ 158

2. St. of U.P. Vs T.P. Lal Srivastava; 1997 (1) LLJ 831

3. Managing Director, ECIL Vs B. Karunakar; (1993) 4 SCC 727

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Adya Prasad Tewari, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Ashok Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for the respondent nos.2 and 3 and learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. Petitioner who was duly appointed and working in institution as Class IV employee was subjected to disciplinary proceedings with the issuance of the chargesheet dated 26.12.2012 leveling as many as six charges to which petitioner did submitted reply on 10.07.2013. The enquiry report was submitted by the Enquiry Committee on 29.06.2013 and, thereafter, it appears that Committee of Management proceeded to adopt resolution considering the enquiry report and possible action on that basis. In its resolution adopted by the Committee of Management on 28.07.2013, it accepted the enquiry report and on the basis of findings returned by the Enquiry Committee, proceeded to resolve to dispense with his services by way of punishment and so the consequential order came to be issued by the Manager of the Institution on 21.07.2013. Papers were forwarded to the District Inspector of Schools who disapproved the action of Committee of Management on the ground that the powers to dispense with the services of the petitioner as prescribed under Regulation 31 of chapter III of Intermediate Education Act lay with the Principal of the institution, petitioner being a Class IV employee and only appeal could be preferred before the Committee of Management and therefore, Committee of Management acceded in its authority in passing the order of termination of service of the petitioner.

3. The Committee of Management challenged the order before this Court vide Writ A No.54458 of 2013 which though was entertained but it was directed that the petitioner shall be paid salary, however left it to the discretion of the Management to take work from the present petitioner who was respondent no.4 in that petition. This petition subsequently came to be dismissed for want of prosecution and so the challenge to the order of District Inspector of Schools dated 24.09.2013 came to an end.

4. It is argued that while petitioner was getting payment of salary in terms of the order passed by this Court, the Principal of the institution on his own proceeded even during pendency of the said writ petition to pass order on 21.10.2013 dismissing the petitioner from service on the basis of the enquiry report. It is this order which is under challenge before this Court.

5. Assailing the order passed by the District Inspector of Schools, learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that:

(A) The District Inspector of Schools proceeded to pass order without giving any show cause notice to the petitioner and also without supplying the enquiry report so as to enable him to furnish his explanation against the Enquiry Committee's findings;

(B) The entire Enquiry Committee was illegally constituted as the son of the Manager of the Committee of Management was made one of the members of the Enquiry Committee and other member was Clerk of the institution himself who has leveled allegations upon which charge no.4 was based.

6. Thus in view of the above two grounds, it is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the order passed by the Principal of the Institution is clearly unsustainable.

7. Sri A.K. Tiwari, learned counsel though has sought to defend the order on the score of first argument regarding opportunity by way of show cause notice by taking the Court to Annexure CA-2 to the counter affidavit which is a photocopy of the envelope which bears the postman's remarks that the recipient refused to accept the registered letter. This registered letter is addressed to Pramod Kumar Paswan who is petitioner in the present case. It is stated to have been sent by registered post on 11.10.2018 containing the show cause notice. However, no copy of the show cause notice has been annexed so as to demonstrate that the letter did contain the show cause notice and that copy thereof came back to the Principal of the institution upon being not delivered for refusal.

8. On the question of findings returned by the Enquiry Committee and the constitution of the Enquiry Committee, learned counsel for the respondents submits that there was no application ever moved by the petitioner to question the constitution of the Enquiry Committee, instead he submitted reply to the chargesheet on 10.10.2013 (Annexure-4).

9. Learned Standing Counsel submits that the State-respondents are not in picture for the simple reason that neither there is any representation made by the petitioner to the District Inspector of Schools, nor there is any order by the Education Authorities otherwise adversely affecting the interest of the petitioner and in so far as the District Inspector of School is concerned, he had been paying salary to the petitioner uninterruptedly pursuant to the directions issued by this Court in the earlier writ petition.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the respective parties and their arguments raised across the bar, the question that arises for consideration before this Court is, whether the petitioner was permitted to participate in an enquiry if held in the face of the fact that he had denied in reply to the chargesheet and secondly, whether the petitioner was supplied with the enquiry report to offer his explanation to the findings returned by the Enquiry Committee.

11. The other argument regarding constitution of the Committee does not hold merit for simple reason that there was no application filed by the petitioner raising objection to the constitution of the Enquiry Committee in as much as the reply to the chargesheet also does not contain any such recital.

12. Coming to the first argument regarding the first point on the question of participation of the petitioner in oral enquiry, the law is well settled by this Court as well as Supreme Court in the judgments that where the charges are denied by the delinquent employee, it is incumbent and imperative for the enquiry committee to hold an oral enquiry (Sahabuddin Ansari v. State of U.P. and Ors, 2008(4) ADJ 158, State of U.P. and Ors. vs. T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831). The legal position to this effect being sound enough and settled now it is to be examined whether petitioner was ever given any notice to participate in the oral enquiry. For this purpose I have thoroughly examined the enquiry report and find that the enquiry committee has dealt with all the charges in detail but there is no recital to the effect or even otherwise any whisper that any date, time or place was fixed by the Enquiry Committee asking the petitioner to remain present for oral enquiry or asking the petitioner otherwise whether he wanted to cross examine any departmental witness. The only paragraph that starts, before the enquiry committee examines the charges, only contains one recital that during the course of enquiry, the Committee had asked the concerned parties to give their oral statements and written replies and thereafter it proceeded to examine the same. The Enquiry Committee in its finding part or in its discussion part qua each charge, does not refer to any oral testimony either of the delinquent employee or any departmental witness.

13. Learned counsel for the petitioner has sought to support the procedure adopted by the enquiry committee and its report on the basis of the averments made in paragraph 8 of the counter affidavit and annexing also a notice of the Chairman of the Enquiry Committee, Sri Avitendra Jain dated 13.06.2023 and that petitioner did appear on 30.06.2023 before the Principal of the Institution. This document in the form of notice is stated to have been sent by registered post and plea taken is that on the basis of reply of the petitioner, it would be taken to have refused. In the Enquiry report there is no reference to any such letter being ever sent to the petitioner by the Chairman of the Enquiry Committee inasmuch as the Enquiry Committee does not record in its final report that any such date was fixed in the matter of holding oral enquiry. It is also well settled law that no amount of affidavit or a document filed alongwith counter affidavit will approve upon the order to fill up the lacuna. The Enquiry Report is absolutely silent about fixing date, time and place for holding the enquiry and so it is liable to be taken and also be presumed that no such oral enquiry was ever held. Even in the discussion part of the Enquiry Report, there is no recital to the effect that at any point of time petitioner was examined. Thus the procedure in the matter of departmental enquiry while the employer proceeded to impose major punishment is de hors settled procedure and principle of law qua oral enquiry of the delinquent employee permitting his due participation. The Enquiry Report on this count is not sustainable.

15. Coming to the second argument regarding non supply of the enquiry report alongwith the show cause notice, the allegations are in the form of affidavit and rebuttal of the same is also in the form of affidavit. So it is an affidavit against the affidavit. But looking to the order impugned dated 23.10.2013 passed by the Principal of the Institution, I do not find anything coming forth so as to hold that at any point of time petitioner was supplied with the enquiry report. It could have been presumed that the ex officio Principal of the Institution was Member of the Committee of Management while earlier decision was taken against the petitioner, had report been supplied to the petitioner and had it called the petitioner to appear before it.

16. The resolution is absolutely silent as I have already discussed above and, therefore it was imperative for the Principal of the Institution to have supplied Enquiry Report to the petitioner seeking his explanation. The delinquent employee has a right to receive a copy of the enquiry Officer's report before the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusions with regard to the guilt or innocence of the employee with regard to the charges levelled against him. That right is a part of the employee's right to defend himself against the charges levelled against him. A denial of the Inquiry Officer's report before the disciplinary authority takes its decision on the charges is a denial of reasonable opportunity to the employee to prove his innocence and is a breach of the principles of natural justice. (Managing Director, ECIL v. B. Karunakar and Ors. (1993) 4 SCC 727)

17. Learned counsel appearing for the Principal of the Institution as well as Committee of Management, Mr. Tiwari has sought to refer the order by annexing the photocopy of the envelope which showed that it carried the show cause notice and the enquiry report but neither the show cause notice has been annexed alongwith counter affidavit, nor the order impugned refers to any such service of enquiry report seeking explanation.

18. The law is also well settled that the second show cause notice is a must in the matter of disciplinary proceedings and departmental enquiry in view of the judgment of the constitution Bench of Supreme Court in the case of Managing Director, ECIL (Supra).

19. In view of the above exposition of law and discussion held, the order passed by the Principal of the Institution dispensing with the services of the petitioner on the basis of the Enquiry Report is held unsustainable. Since I have already held the enquiry report also to be unsustainable both the enquiry report dated 29.06.2013 as well as the order passed by the Principal of the Institution dated 23.10.2013 are hereby quashed.

20. Writ petition succeeds and is allowed.

21. Consequences to follow.

22. Respondents will be at liberty to proceed afresh in accordance with law.

(2024) 2 ILRA 618
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK CHAUDHARY, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA J.

Writ Tax No. 228 of 2023

Grs Hotel Pvt. Ltd. Lko. ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Manish Misra, Dileep Pandey, Gaurav Upadhyay

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., Kushagra Dikshit

Income Tax – Income Tax Act, 1961 – Sections 148A & 144B – Reassessment Proceedings – Validity of Notice Service – Petitioner challenged order dated 26.03.2023 under Section 148A(d) and notice dated 29.03.2023 under Section 148 for Assessment Year 2019-20, alleging non-service of notice under Section 148A(b) on registered email ID – Held, notice sent to outdated email ID (gmkca1993@gmail.com) instead of current registered email ID (taxmohit56@gmail.com), updated since 2020-21, invalidates service – Section 144B mandates service on registered email as per defined alternatives, with residual clause (vi) applicable only if primary options fail – Valid service of notice under Section 148A(b) is a jurisdictional requirement, non-compliance vitiates subsequent proceedings – Commissioner of Income Tax Vs Chetan Gupta, Chitra Supekar Vs Income Tax Officer, Lok Developers Vs Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax, and Jyoti Narang Vs Income Tax Officer followed –

Impugned order and notice quashed, matter remanded for reply to Section 148A(b) notice within four weeks. (Para 12-27)

Writ petition partly allowed.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Commissioner of Income Tax (Central-1) Vs Chetan Gupta; 382 ITR 613

2. Chitra Supekar Vs Income Tax Officer; Writ Petition No. 15580 of 2022

3. Lok Developers Vs Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax; Writ Petition No. 1983/2022

4. Jyoti Narang Vs Income Tax Officer; Writ Petition (C) No. 9289/2023

5. Commissioner of Income Tax Vs Eshaan Holding (P) Ltd.; (Delhi High Court, not fully cited in judgment)

6. Commissioner of Income Tax Vs Avtar Singh; (Punjab and Haryana High Court, not fully cited in judgment)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) The petitioner challenges the correctness of the order dated 26th March, 2023 passed by the Assessing Authority under Section 148-A (d) of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act, 1961') for the Assessment Year 2019-20 and the consequential notice dated 29th March, 2023 issued under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2019-20 as also the consequential proceedings undertaken subsequent thereto.

(2) Shorn of unnecessary details, the brief facts, which led to the filing of this writ petition, are that the petitioner, a private limited company bearing PAN No. AAFCG0658J, is engaged in the business of developing and Managing hotels, motels, resorts, restaurants, cafes and other similar activities.

(3) It is the case of the petitioner that for the purpose to achieve its business goal, the petitioner's company has entered into an agreement to sale/lease dated 18.10.2011 with one Jayveer Singh in respect of his property, namely, 'Deorhi Darwaza, Purna Mahal' situated at Khasra No. 1533 in Village Maharaj Nagar, District Mahoba, U.P. (hereinafter referred to as the 'property') in distress sale. By the aforesaid agreement for sale/lease deed dated 18.10.2011, the petitioner has also been given possession of the said property from the year 2011-12 onward. The petitioner has also paid the amount of the property as per the agreement for sale/lease deed to the owner of the property. According to the petitioner, the said agreement for sale/lease deed dated 18.10.2011 was exempted from payment of stamp duty in terms of U.P. Tax and Registration Adhiniyam, 2013 and as per Tourism Policy, 2017 of the State of U.P. However, ultimately, after receiving sale consideration of the said property, the owners of the said property had executed sale deed of the property in favour of the petitioner on 16.04.2018 i.e. relevant for the Assessment Year 2019-20. This execution of sale deed dated 16.04.2018 and ownership of the said property are pending adjudication in WPIL No. 418 of 2022 : Mool Chand Anuragi and another Vs. State of U.P. and others, before this Court.

(4) Noticing the transaction made in respect of purchase of the said property in the Assessment Year 2019-20, a notice under Section 148A(b) dated 07.03.2023 had been issued by the income tax department to the petitioner on the ground that there had been a heavy financial transaction during the said assessment year for the sale/purchase of a property amounting to Rs. 6,31,10,000/- as per section 56(2)(x) of the Income Tax Act.

(5) It is the case of the petitioner that for the first time, they received a notice dated 12.10.2023 under Section 142 (1) of the Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2019-20, which was sent to the petitioner on its previous mail address registered on the portal of the Income Tax Department, namely, gmkca1993@gmail.com, which according to the petitioner, is no more registered for the PAN No. AAFCG0658J of the Company. According to him, since the aforesaid notice dated 12.10.2023 was also sent as a copy to the petitioner's registered email address on the portal of the Income Tax Department i.e. taxmohit56@gmail.com, which according to the petitioner, is presently his registered email I.D. with registered phone no. is 8874271081, on the portal of the Income Tax Department as well as its PAN, he came to learn about the said proceedings. It is also pleaded that the petitioner had been using the present registered email I.D. and registered phone, for filing of their income-tax return for the last three years.

(6) According to the petitioner, the petitioner's company has changed its Chartered Accountant w.e.f. 01.04.2019 as per Chartered Accountant Act, 1949 and Companies Act, 2013 and engaged the new Chartered Accountant for company. Thereafter, the New Charted Accountant has updated the portal of the income tax department with its new mail ID as well as phone number in the year 2019 itself and started using the same since Assessment Year 2020-21 for filing return etc. as is evident from the acknowledgment for the year 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23 etc. It has been further stated that as per Explanation (b) of Section 139 (1) of the Act, 1961, 'Acknowledgment' is recognized as 'intimation' from the department, hence the 'acknowledgment' is automated/ computer generated and does not contain any such secondary mail on record as claimed by the department.

(7) Thus, it has been contended by the petitioner that on coming into the notice of the aforesaid proceeding with respect to some proceeding for the assessment year 2019-20, he immediately contacted his earlier Chartered Accountant, who was working with the petitioner's company till 2019 and requested him to scan through his mail ID gmkca1993@gmail.com and it was only after confronting him about any notice or information from income-tax department with respect to the petitioner, the previous Chartered Accountant informed the petitioner about the notice under Section 148A and subsequent notice under Section 133 of the Act, 1961. The petitioner, thus, have submitted that although these notices were received on the earlier registered mail but it was not informed to the petitioner as the previous CA was not having any professional or personal relation with the Company. According to the petitioner, for the first time, a notice under Section 148A (d) of the Act, 1961 came into the notice of the petitioner only after the final order under section 148 of the Act, 1961 along with the notice under Section 148 had already been issued. Further, it was only after the receipt of notice under Section 142 by the petitioner on 12.102023, now the petitioner could find out in the hindsight about the issuance of notices under Section 148A of the Income tax Act to them.

(8) In the aforesaid background, it has been stated by the petitioner that after getting information with respect to re-assessment proceedings initiated against the petitioner under Sections 147/148 of the Act, 1961, the petitioner also came to know a notice under Section 148A(b) dated 07.03.2023 was issued to the petitioner, suggesting that income chargeable to tax for the assessment year 2019-20 had escaped assessment within the meaning of Section 147 of the Act, 1961 and called upon the petitioner to show cause as to why notice under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 be not issued. The basis for reopening was the information, which reads as under:-

"As per information in department data base, you have made following financial transactions during the relevant financial year 2018-19;

1. Sale/Purchase of property-s.6,31,10,000/- (56(2)(x).

The above information is flagged in 'Insight Portal' under High Risk CRIU/VRU information category in your case for the relevant assessment year in accordance with the risk management strategy formulated by the CBDT, New Delhi."

(9) According to the petitioner, since the aforesaid notice dated 07.03.2023 was not received by the petitioner because of the mistake committed by the department, the petitioner was not able to file any reply to the same and unfortunately in the absence of any reply from the side of the petitioner, as per procedure, the department of Income Tax has passed an order under clause (d) of Section 148A of the Act, 1961 on 26.03.2023, stating that the same has been passed after getting approval of the specified authority on 25.03.2023. According to the petitioner, this order dated 26.03.2023 indicates that the email of the assessee/petitioner is gmkca1996@gmail.com, which is admittedly the previous email I.D. of the petitioner registered on the portal of the income tax department, although it is also a matter of records that presently the registered email ID of the petitioner on the portal of the income tax department is taxmohit56@gmail.com. Consequently, a notice under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 has also been issued on 29.03.2023, by which the Assessing Officer has proposed to assess or reassess the income for the assessment year 2019-20 and required the petitioner to file his return in the prescribed form.

(10) Feeling aggrieved by the aforesaid order dated 26.03.2023 and notice dated 29.03.2023, the petitioner has filed the instant writ petition before this Court.

(11) Heard Shri Manish Mishra, learned Counsel representing the petitioner and Shri Kushagra Dikshit, learned Counsel representing the respondents no.2 and 3.

(12) Learned Counsel representing the petitioner has submitted that the Finance Act, 2021 has inserted a new chapter of enquiry and opportunity of hearing in reassessment proceedings and as such, Section 148A of the Act, 1961 has been inserted with effect from 01.04.2021. This section has been introduced with the legislative intent to provide opportunity of hearing to the assessee before issuing notice for re-assessment under section 148 of the Act. Clause (b) of Section 148 of the Act provides the right of hearing to the assessee by serving him a show cause notice. Thereafter, the Clause (c) of Section 148 of the Act, 1961 mandates the assessing authority for consideration of reply submitted by the assessee and thereafter the final order/ decision with respect to the finding that whether the case in hand is fit case for issuing notice under section 148 or not be passed is provided under clause (d) of Section 148 of the Act, 1961. In order to complete this entire procedure, the service of notice/procedure for service is provided under Section 144B of the Act, 1961. According to the learned Counsel, Section 144B of the Act, 1961 was also inserted by the Taxation and Other Laws (Relaxation and Amendment of Certain Provisions) Act 2020 w.e.f. 1.4.2021. This section provides that after 1.4.2021, all the assessment, reassessment or re-computation under the Act, 1961 shall be made in a faceless manner. The amended provisions entail that every notice or order or any other electronic communication shall be delivered to the addressee, being the assesse, by way of (i) placing an authenticated copy thereof in the assessee's registered account; or (b) sending an authenticated copy thereof to the registered email address of the assesse or his authorized representative; or (c) uploading an authenticated copy on the assessee's mobile App, and followed by a real time alert.. Further, the Explanation (t) provided that the registered email address means the email address at which an electronic communication may be delivered or transmitted to the addressee. Explanation (r) defines the words 'real-time alert' means any communication sent to the assessee, by way of short messaging service on his registered mobile number or by way of an email at his registered email address so as to alert him regarding delivery of an electronic communication. Further the Explanation (u) defines the registered mobile number, which means the mobile number of the assessee or his authorised representative appearing in the user profile of the electronic filing account registered by the assessee in designated portal.

(13) Pointing out the aforesaid provisions of law, learned Counsel has submitted that an elaborate and rigorous process has been provided under the law for service of notice to the assesse and in case the said notice is not legally served on the assessee, the whole process of assessment falls flat. According to him, if initial action is not in consonance with law, subsequent proceedings would not satisfy the same. The legal maxim sublato fundamento cadit opus, provided that in case the foundation is removed, the superstructure falls. In the present case, the impugned order under Section 148A(d) and the notice under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 has been passed on the premise that notice has been sent on the registered mail ID of the petitioner but he failed to respond the same. While it is evident from record that the notice has never been served on the registered e-mail address of the petitioner. Thus the order impugned has been passed on wrong foundation and, accordingly, having no value in the eyes of law. Thus, it has been prayed that the order dated 26.03.2023 passed by the assessing authority under Section 148A(d) of the Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2019-20 and all the consequential notices including the notice dated 29.03.2023 may be quashed.

(14) Per contra, learned Counsel for the respondent No.2 and 3, explaining the elaborate provisions for issuance of notice for re-opening of assessment, has argued that substantial safe-guard has been provided under Section 148A of the Act, 1961 itself for service of notice to an assesse, which was duly followed in the present case. It has been contended by the learned counsel that notice under Section 148A(b) has been issued to the petitioner on 07.03.2023 by the jurisdictional assessing officer by uploading the same on the income tax e-filing portal of the petitioner and also intimated on the registered email id available in the database of the department, which is gmkca1993@gmail.com, through an automated system and which email is still reflecting as the email id of the assesse on the e-filing portal. Thus, it has been submitted that, since no response was submitted within the time as provided in the notice under Section 148A (b) of the Act, 1961, there was nothing wrong on the part of the Assessing Officer to pass an order under Section 148A(d) of the Act, 1961 dated 26.03.2023, which again was served in the same manner, by uploading on the income tax e-filing portal as well as through an automated system to the registered email id as available in the database of the department.

(15) The learned Counsel has emphatically stressed on the point that the order under Section 148A(d) of the Act, 1961 dated 26.03.2023 was also uploaded on the Income Tax Portal of the petitioner, which was also reflected in the e-proceeding column on the Income tax portal of the petitioner under heading- 'Last used email ID by current user-gmkca1993@gmail.com' and, as such it has been argued that the petitioner was duly aware of the notices and re-assessment proceedings.

(16) It has also been contended by the learned counsel appearing for the respondents No.2 and 3 that although the petitioner appeared to have added an additional email id–taxmohit56@gmail.com on the income Tax Portal, but has till date not deleted the old email id-gmkca1993@gmail.com as the same is still reflecting on the portal and at no point of time, the petitioner had informed the I.T. department regarding the change of email id. Thus, it has been pointed out that since the notice and the consequent order were duly uploaded on the given Email Id on the Income Tax Portal though an automated system, there was no error on the part of the Assessing Officer in serving the notice or the order under Section 148A(b) and 148A(d) of the Act, 1961 respectively. As an alternate argument, the learned Counsel has submitted that the reassessment proceedings under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 have already been initiated and the petitioner had been duly participating in the said proceedings and has infact also field his reply to the notice dated 12.10.2023 issued under Section 142 (1) of the Act, 1961 on 04.11.2023 and according to him, the grounds of non-service of the impugned notice/orders can be very well taken by the petitioner in the said proceedings and the said issue can also be considered by the assessing officer at the time of passing the Assessment Order.

(17) In rejoinder, the learned counsel for the petitioner has denied the contention of the department and has submitted that at the time of issuance of notice on 07/03/2023, the e-mail ID taxmohit56@gmail.com was the only mail registered on the database of the department against the PAN number of the petitioner company. The email sent by the Income Tax Business Application from the mail ID of ITO, Lucknow has been sent to the earlier mail ID gmkca1993@gmail.com and the concerned officer never tried to find out what was the actual email registered on the online portal against the PAN of the petitioner. According to him, inspite of the updation of the web portal of the IT Department from the Assessment Year 2020-21 till date, if the correct information has not been picked by the jurisdictional Assessing Officer from the profile account of the petitioner, then it was a mistake committed by the respondent No.2 and 3 and the petitioner cannot be faulted.

(18) Having scrutinized the rival submission of the parties and going through the record available before this Court in the instant writ petition, this Court is of the view that there is no denial of the fact that there exists two email ID of the petitioner-Company. The petitioner termed email ID: gmkca1993@gmail.com, as the earlier email ID having been used till 2019 and email ID: taxmohit56@gmail.com, has been termed as the present Email ID having been in operational after the year 2019. Although, the respondents have not denied the email ID: taxmohit56@gmail.com, however, they have contended that email ID: gmkca1993@gmail.com continues to be the registered email ID of the petitioner. The respondents have also not denied the fact that the notice under Section 148A (b) of the Act, 1961 dated 07.03.2023 and the consequential order dated 148A (d) of the Act, 1961 dated 26.03.2023 has been sent to the email ID: gmkca1993@gmail.com. Therefore, the issue now boils down to as to what is the registered e-mail address of the petitioner as on 07.03.2023 i.e the date of issuance of notice under Section 148A (b) of the Act, 1961. Having said so, that immediately brings this Court to explanation (t) of Section 144B of the Act, 1961 which defines registered email address as follows :-

"registered e-mail address" means the e-mail address at which an electronic communication may be delivered or transmitted to the addressee, including—

(i) the email address available in the electronic filing account of the addressee registered in designated portal; or

(ii) the e-mail address available in the last income-tax return furnished by the addressee; or

(iii) the e-mail address available in the Permanent Account Number database relating to the addressee; or

(iv) in the case of addressee being an individual who possesses the Aadhaar number, the e-mail address of addressee available in the database of Unique Identification Authority of India; or

(v) in the case of addressee being a company, the e-mail address of the company as available on the official website of Ministry of Corporate Affairs; or

(vi) any e-mail address made available by the assesse to the income-tax authority or any person authorised by such authority"

(19) From the aforesaid definition of registered e-mail address, this Court finds that there are several alternatives provided for considering any email address as a "registered e-mail address". It has been argued by the learned counsel for the respondents that the notice under Section148A(b) of the Act, 1961 had been sent to the petitioner on the available email ID on the portal of the Income Tax department, but the question is as to whether the said available email ID can be construed to be a registered email ID in view of the explanation (t) to Section 144B of the Act, 1961. Although it has been contended by the learned counsel for the respondents that the said e-mail address was the email ID made available by the assessee, so as to satisfy the sub-clause (vi) of the aforesaid definition, however, this Court is unable to countenance as to why the respondents without resorting to the various sub-clauses from (i) to (v) has pressed sub-clause (vi) into action. No doubt, all the sub-clauses are alternative to each other and each of them indicate independent mechanism for determination of the registered email address, but the Court cannot be oblivious to the fact that sub-clause (vi) has been inserted by the legislature as a residual provision to determine the registered email address, when the registered email address of the assessee cannot be determined by the mechanism as provided from sub-clauses (i) to (v). Thus, if the registered email address of the assessee cannot be determined from (a) e-filing account of the addressee registered in designated portal or (b) from the last income tax return furnished, or (c) from the permanent Account number data base relating to the addressee or (d) from the official website of the Ministry of corporate affairs, etc. then only the authority may resort to any e-mail address made available by the assessee. Further, the word "available" is of significance as it records a positive action on the part of the assessee in making available the e-mail ID, so that the same may be construed as the registered email ID of the assessee.

(20) As far as the present case is concerned, it has been the consistent stand by the petitioner that he has used or made available the e-mail ID: taxmohit56@gmail.com for e-filing of his income-tax return even since the Assessment Year 2020-21 and the same has been used by him even for filing of the latest income-tax return for the Assessment Year 2022-23. Further, the said email ID has been also mentioned by him in the income-tax return and the same is relatable to PAN data base and also mentioned in the master data of the petitioner's Company as available from the official website of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs at the relevant time. Therefore, taking a holistic view of the matter, it has to be held that the e-mail ID: taxmohit56@gmail.com is the registered e-mail address of the petitioner company and it is the e-mail ID, which has been made available to the Authority by the assessee.

(21) Further, there is another aspect of the matter, in as much as this Court finds that a notice issued under Section 148A(b) of the Act, 1961 to the registered email ID of the assessee is not an empty formality as the issuance of the notice and service of such notice upon the assessee are jurisdictional requirement that must be mandatorily complied with as it provides an opportunity to the addressee to satisfy the Assessing Officer with his reply, even before the issuance of the notice under Section 148 of the Act, 1961. The said right of the assessee has to be understood in the context that before the issuance of the notice under section 148 of the Income Tax Act, the Assessing Officer is enjoined upon as per section 148A (d) of the Act, 1961 to decide, on the basis of material available on record including reply of assessee, whether or not it is a fit case to issue a notice under Section 148 of the Act, 1961, by passing an order.

(22) In the present case, the notice under Section 148A(b) of the Act, 1961 has not been issued on the registered email address of the petitioner's company. However, as pointed out by the learned Counsel for the respondents that the said point was not raised by the petitioner in the re-assessment proceedings presently pending before the Assessing Officer and in a way has contended that the said issue stands waived by the petitioner. In this context, it would be profitable to quote the conclusion of a judgment passed by the Delhi High Court, wherein the Division Bench had examined an Appeal from the ITAT (Income Tax Appellate Tribunal), which was challenged on similar grounds. The Division Bench after recording the contention of the parties, not only dismissed the appeal of the department, but also held in the said judgment reported as "Commissioner of Income Tax (Central-1) Vs Chetan Gupta": 382 ITR 613, inter-alia that

"46. To summarize the conclusions:

(i) Under Section 148 of the Act, the issue of notice to the Assessee and service of such notice upon the Assessee are jurisdictional requirements that must be mandatorily complied with. They are not mere procedural requirements.

(ii) For the AO to exercise jurisdiction to reopen an assessment, notice under Section 148 (1) has to be mandatorily issued to the Assessee. Further the AO cannot complete the reassessment without service of the notice so issued upon the Assessee in accordance with Section 282 (1) of the Act read with Order V Rule 12 CPC and Order III Rule 6 CPC.

(iii) Although there is change in the scheme of Sections 147, 148 and 149 of the Act from the corresponding Section 34 of the 1922 Act, the legal requirement of service of notice upon the Assessee in terms of Section 148 read with Section 282 (1) and Section 153 (2) of the Act is a jurisdictional pre-condition to finalizing the reassessment.

(iv) The onus is on the Revenue to show that proper service of notice has been effected under Section 148 of the Act on the Assessee or an agent duly empowered by him to accept notices on his behalf. In the present case, the Revenue has failed to discharge that onus.

(v) The mere fact that an Assessee or some other person on his behalf not duly authorised participated in the reassessment proceedings after coming to know of it will not constitute a waiver of the requirement of effecting proper service of notice on the Assessee under Section 148 of the Act.

(vi) Reassessment proceedings finalised by an AO without effecting proper service of notice on the Assessee under Section 148 (1) of the Act are invalid and liable to be quashed.

(vii) Section 292 BB is prospective. In any event the Assessee in the present case, having raised an objection regarding the failure by the Revenue to effect service of notice upon him, the main part of Section 292 BB is not attracted"

(23) To the same effect is the judgment of the Bombay High Court in Chitra Supekar Versus Income Tax Officer, (Writ Petition No. 15580 of 2022), wherein the Division Bench concluded as herein under :-

"7. We have heard both counsels at length and have perused the proceedings. we agree with the view taken by the Delhi High Court in the case of CIT vs Eshaan Holding (P) Ltd. 5 upholding the view of the ITAT that if there is no valid service of notice under section 148, the reassessment proceedings are null and void as also the decision of the Punjab and Haryana High Court in the case of CIT vs Avtar Singh 6 which held that service of notice under section 148 is a condition precedent for making reassessment or re-computation under section 147 of the Act.

8. In our view, before issuing the notice under section 148A (b) it was imperative for the AO to have checked if there was a change of address. A condition precedent for any proceeding including a proceeding u/s. 148A, is a valid service of notice, lest it would be a jurisdictional error. With regard to, the first notice dated 20th March 2022, it is the case of the petitioner that they had not received any notice dated 20th March 2022 and the revenue contended that it was served through speed post at the last known address. It is evident that though the respondents had the new address of the petitioner as evinced from the ITR filed on 10th January 2021, the respondents chose to send the notice to their old address. We also find no averment or proof of the service of notice dated 20th March 2022 on the petitioner in respondent's affidavit in reply dated 14th November 2022. The cascading effect of non-service was the petitioner did not get an opportunity to respond to the notice. Consequently, the notice dated 20th March 2022 and the proceedings thereafter are void. Apropos section 151(ii) of the Act the sanction from the PCCIT ought to have been taken when order was sought to be passed beyond the period of three years i.e. beyond 31st March 2022 on 5th April 2022. Consequently, the notice dated 20th March 2022 and order dated 5th April 2022 deserves to be set aside on account of jurisdictional error i.e. for want of service and consequently, for non-compliance with the provisions of the Act."

(24) Further in the judgment passed in Lok Developers Vs Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax Circle (Writ Petition No 1983/2022), wherein the issue before the Bombay High Court was as to whether subsequent proceedings initiated by the revenue authorities for non-compliance of notice under Section 148 under the Act would be vitiated on account of notice under Section 148 of the Act being served on the secondary email id registered with PAN instead of the registered primary email id or updated email ID filed with the last return of income. The Division Bench, after hearing both the parties, concluded inter-alia:

" .... In our view the AO clearly erred in issuing a notice u/s 148 to both the primary address and the email address mentioned in the last Return of Income filed to pre-empt a jurisdictional error on account of valid service; there was neither cost to it or any prejudice to any party for sending it on more than one email in a given circumstance as in the present case.

This Court in the case of Mrs. Chitra Supekar v/s ITO in Writ Petition No. 15580 of 2022 has held that it was imperative for the AO to have checked if there was change of address before initiating a proceeding: and that a valid service of notice under section 148 is a condition precedent lest it would be a jurisdictional error."

(25) Recently, the Delhi High Court in the case of Jyoti Narang Vs Income tax Officer, (Writ Petition (C) No. 9289/2023) has also set aside the penalty and demand notice on the ground that the show cause notice was issued on a wrong E-mail ID.

(26) For all the aforesaid reasons, the order dated 26th March, 2023 passed by the Assessing Authority under Section 148-A (d) of the Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2019-20 and the consequential notice dated 29th March, 2023 issued under Section 148 of the Act, 1961 for the Assessment Year 2019-20 as also the consequential proceedings undertaken subsequent thereto cannot be sustained in the eyes of law and, as such, the same are quashed and the parties are relegated to the stage of reply of notice under Section 148A(b) of the Act dated 07.03.2023.

(27) Needless to say, the petitioner-company shall have an opportunity to file a reply to the said show cause notice dated 07.03.2023 within a period of four weeks from today and for that purposes, the Assessing Officer shall provide necessary opportunity to the petitioner for uploading the response of the petitioner on the designated portal and thereafter the Assessing officer shall pass an order in terms of section 148A(d) of the Act.

(28) In view thereof, the writ petition is partly allowed, subject to the aforesaid terms and conditions. There shall be no order as to cost.

(2024) 2 ILRA 628
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 21.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Second Appeal No. 73 of 1993

Hublal ...Appellant
Versus
Kalloo & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
B.K. Saxena

Counsel for the Respondents:

U.P. Zamindari Abolition & Land Reforms Act, 1950 - Section 168-A The Allahabad High Court held that Section 168-A of the Act, 1950, which prohibits transfer of fragmented land in consolidated areas, does not apply to agreements to sell, as they do not transfer title. The appellate court erred in dismissing the suit for specific performance by applying Section 168-A to the agreement dated 22.07.1986. (Paras 6, 9, 12)

Effect of Deletion of Section 168-A Section 168-A was deleted by U.P. Act No. 27 of 2004, removing the embargo on executing sale deeds for fragmented lan The court ruled that the law prevalent at the time of decision applies, allowing execution of the sale deed post-deletion without legal impediment, even for agreements predating the amendment. (Paras 9, 11-12)

Specific Performance and Subsequent Vendee The court upheld the appellant's right to specific performance of the agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986, directing both the original vendor (respondent no. 1) and subsequent vendee (respondent no. 2) to execute the sale deed, as established in precedents like Lala Durga Prasad Vs Lal Deep Chand (1953) and Rathnavathi Vs Kavita Ganashamdas (2015). (Paras 7, 13)

. Reversal of Appellate Court's Judgment The first appellate court's judgment dated 13.10.1992, which set aside the trial court's decree for specific performance, was held erroneous and set aside. The trial court's decree dated 24.12.1991 was restored, directing execution of the sale deed within one month, failing which the appellant could execute it through the Civil Judge. (Para 13)

Cases Cited:

1. Ram Pratap Vs Gulab, Second Appeal No. 352 of 1993 (All HC, 25.07.2013) (Para 6)

2. Lala Durga Prasad Vs Lal Deep Chand, (1953) 2 SCC 509 (Para 7)

3. R. Chandiok Vs Chuni Lal Sabharwal, 1970 (3) SCC 140 (Para 7)

4. Rathnavathi Vs Kavita Ganashamdas, (2015) 5 SCC 223 (Para 7)

5. U.O.I. Vs Indian Charge Chrome, (1999) 7 SCC 314 (Para 9)

6. New India Assurance Co. Lt Vs Padma, 2003 (7) SCC 713 (Para 11)

7. Yadlapati Vs Venkateswarlu, 1992 Supp 1 SCC 74 (Para 11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the appellant.

2. Despite the service of notice, no one appears on behalf of the respondents.

3. Present appeal has been filed against the judgement and decree dated 13.10.1992 passed by the Court of 11th Additional District Judge, Lucknow, in Civil Appeal No.22/92, Sri Ram Versus Hublal and another allowing the appeal of the defendant/respondent no.2 and dismissing the suit for specific performance of a contract of the plaintiff/appellant vide regular suit no.284/88 Hub Lal Versus Kalloo and another dated 24.12.92 by the Court of Munsif Hawali, Lucknow on the following amongst others.

4. This second appeal was admitted on the following substantial question of law:

(1) Whether the learned Appellate Court below has committed manifest error of law in applying the provisions of Section-168-A of Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition & Land Reforms Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act, 1950') to the facts of the case?

5. The crux of the matter is that a registered agreement to sell was executed by respondent no.1 in favour of the appellant on 22.07.1986 regarding two biswa land in Khasra No.671, Village-Dehwa, Post-Mohanlalganj, District-Lucknow, after taking advance money of Rs.5,000/-, remaining Rs.1,000/- was payable at the time of execution of sale deed. Despite repeated requests, respondent no.1 did not execute the sale deed in pursuance of the sale agreement dated 22.07.1986. Then, the appellant came to know that respondent no.1 had executed the sale deed dated 29.02.1988 in favour of respondent no.2 regarding the entire land in Khasra No.671. Thereafter, the appellant had filed a suit no.284 of 1988 for specific performance of an agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986 with a further prayer that both the respondents may be directed to execute the sale deed in pursuance of the agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986. This suit was decreed by judgment and decree dated 24.12.1991 in favour of the appellant. Feeling aggrieved by the judgement dated 24.11.1991, respondent no.2, the subsequent vendee of respondent no.1, had filed an appeal registered as appeal no.22 of 1992. The appellate Court allowed the above appeal by judgement dated 13.10.1992 and judgement and decree dated 24.11.1991 of Munsif Hawali, Lucknow, was set aside on the ground that the agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986, will amount to fragmentation of the land, hence violating Section-168-A of the Act, 1950, is void. Feeling aggrieved by the above judgement dated 13.10.1992, the present second appeal was filed.

6. Learned counsel for the appellant contends that Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 applies to the transfer of land through a sale deed, gift deed or exchange and not on the agreement to sell. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the appellant has relied upon the judgement of the coordinate Bench of this Court in Second Appeal No.352 of 1993 (Ram Pratap and Others Vs. Gulab) vide order dated 25.07.2013. In that judgement, the learned Single Judge observed that Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 would not apply to the agreement to sell and further observed that the provision of Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 has been deleted by the UP Amendment of 2004, therefore, there is no bar for execution of sale deed as on date.

7. Learned counsel for the appellant further submits that it is an established legal position that after execution of the agreement to sell, if the vendor transfers the land to another person, then the vendor, as well as the subsequent purchaser, will have to join in executing the sale deed if a suit for specific performance of the agreement is allowed. In support of his submission, learned counsel for the appellant has relied upon the following Apex Court judgements in Lala Durga Prasad And Others Vs. Lal Deep Chand And Others reported in (1953) 2 SCC 509; R.C. Chandiok And Another Vs. Chuni Lal Sabharwal and Others reported in 1970 (3) SCC 140 and; Rathnavathi And Another Vs. Kavita Ganashamdas reported in (2015) 5 SCC 223.

8. After considering the aforesaid submission and on perusal of record, the followings facts are undisputed that respondent no.1 had executed registered agreement to sell in favour of appellant on 22.07.1986 regarding two bigha of land in Khasra No.671 and, subsequently, without executing the sale deed of that part of the land, respondent no.1 had executed a sale deed dated 29.02.1988 in favour of the respondent no.2 regarding entire land of Khasra No.671. The sole question for determination is whether rigour of Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 will come into play for the agreement to sell part of land in Khasra no.671, and further question arises that once respondent no.1 had transferred the entire land of Khasra No.671 through sale deed dated 29.02.1988 in favour of respondent no.2, then still the respondents could have been directed to execute the sale deed in specific performance of agreement dated 22.07.1986 executed by respondent no.1 in favour of the appellant. The consequence of the violation of Section 168-A of the Act 1950 has been provided under Sections 166 and 167 of the Act, 1950. For ready reference, Sections-166, 167 as well as Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 are being quoted as under :

"166. Transfer made in contravention of this Chapter to be void. Any transfer made by or on behalf of [bhumidhar with non-transferable rights] or asami [in contravention of the provisions of this [Act] shall be void.*

167.(1) The following consequences shall ensue in respect of every transfer which is void by virtue of Section 166, namely-*

(a) the subject-matter of transfer shall with effect from the date of transfer, be deemed to have vested in the State Government free from all encumbrances;

(b) the trees, crops and wells existing on the land on the date of transfer shall, with effect from the said date, be deemed to have vested in the State Government free from all encumbrances; and

(c) the transferee may remove other moveable property or the materials of any immovable property existing on such land on the date of transfer within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) Where any land or other property has vested in the State Government under sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Collector to take over possession over such land or other property and to direct that any person occupying such land or property be evicted therefrom. For the purposes of taking over such possession or evicting such unauthorised occupants, the Collector may use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary.]

168-A. Transfer of fragments. - Notwithstanding the provisions of any law for the time being in force, no person shall transfer whether by sale, gift or exchange any fragment situate in a consolidated area except where the transfer is in favour of tenure-holder has a plot contiguous to the fragment or where the transfer is not in favour of any such tenure-holder [the whole or so much of the plot in which the person has bhumidhari rights, which pertains to the fragment is thereby transferred.]*

(2) The transfer of any land contrary to the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be void.

(3) When a bhumidhar has made any transfer in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) the provisions of Section 167 shall mutatis mutandis, apply.]"

9. From the perusal of the above sections, it is clear that where the title in any fragment situated in a consolidated area is transferred either by way of a sale deed, by way of a gift deed or by way of exchange, then Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 will apply but not on the agreement to sell of a fragment of land because agreement to sell to transfer a land does not transfer the title. In the judgement of Ram Pratap and Others (supra), the coordinate Bench of this Court had observed that Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 would not apply to the agreement to sell to transfer the land because the agreement transfers no title. It was also observed in the above judgement that Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 has already been deleted. Therefore, there is no legal impediment to executing the sale deed for part of the land. Apex Court in the case of Union of India & Others Vs. Indian Charge Chrome & Another reported in (1999) 7 SCC 314 has observed that law prevalent on the date of decision will be applicable.

10. Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 does not completely prohibit the transfer of fragment of a land situated in consolidated area. It prohibits only that transfer of fragment of land where the vendee does not have any land adjoining to the purchased land. Therefore, Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 does not create or extinguish any right regarding agreement to sell but it simply imposed prohibition for execution of sale deed where the purchaser does not have any land adjoining to the fragmented part of the land which is subject matter of sale deed.

11. The Apex Court in the case of The New India Assurance Company Ltd. Vs. C. Padma & Another reported in 2003 (7) SCC 713 observed that benefit of amended provision applicable on pending cases, even though, a cause of action arose prior to enforcement of amendment Act. The Apex Cout in the case of Yadlapati Vs. Venkateswarlu Vs. State of Andhra Pradesh & Another reported in 1992 Supp 1 SCC 74 observed that amendment in a statute must be read as if the word of the amendment had been written into principle act unless that leads to any inconsistency. Therefore, on deletion of Section 168-A of the Act, 2004 by the amendment Act 27 of 2004, embargo imposed under Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 on execution of a sale deed of fragment of a land has been removed. Therefore, sale deed in pursuance of agreement to sell executed prior to deletion of Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 can be validly executed after deletion of Section 168-A of the Act, 1950, without any legal impediment.

12. Based on the above analysis, this Court holds that even if the agreement to sell is executed regarding a fragment of land in any consolidated area even then the same will not be hit by Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 because the agreement to sell does not transfer the land but it is simply the agreement between the parties to transfer the same in future through execution of sale deed. Though, Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 was deleted from the Act, 1950, therefore, till the deletion of this Section in 2004, no sale deed was executed in pursuance of an agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986. Now, if the direction is made to execute the sale deed considering the present law, there will be no legal impediment based on deleted Section 168-A of the Act, 1950. Even the U.P. Act No.27 of 2004, by which Section 168-A of the Act 1950 was deleted from the statute itself, permits regularising the sale deed executed within a particular time even before the deletion of Section 168-A of the Act, 1950. Therefore, this Court decides the substantial question of law framed in this appeal in favour of the appellant by holding that the appellate Court has committed a manifest error of law by applying Section 168-A of the Act, 1950 to the agreement to sell to transfer the fragment of land in Khasra No.671.

13. Therefore, the judgement of the first appellate Court is absolutely erroneous, being contrary to the aforesaid legal position. Hence, the order of the first appellate Court dated 13.10.1992 is hereby set aside, and the present appeal is allowed. The order of the Munsif Hawali, Lucknow, passed in Suit No.284 of 1988 is hereby confirmed. Both the respondents are directed to execute the sale deed in favour of the appellant in pursuance of the agreement to sell dated 22.07.1986 within a period of one month, failing which the appellant will be free to execute the sale deed through the concerned Civil Judge.

(2024) 2 ILRA 632
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 21.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

First Appeal From Order No. 52 of 2024

Indra Bahadur Yadav ...Appellant
Versus
Harkhas And Aam And Anr. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Ram Milan Yadav, Om Prakash Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:

Civil Law - Indian Succession Act, 1925 - Code of Civil Procedure,1908-Petition filed u/s 278 of the Act-amendment application-dismissed-impugned-challenged in Appeal-on combine reading of Sectiontions 299 and 278 of the Act, 1925- it is clear that contentious proceeding u/s 278 of the Act, 1925 will proceed as regular suit -appeal against any order, passed during the proceeding u/s 278 of the Act, 1925, will be in accordance with the C.P.C.- appeal u/s 299 of the Act, 1925 will lie only against those orders that are appealable as per Order 43 Rule 1 C.P.C.- rejection of the amendment application under Order 6 Rule 17 C.P.C. does not find place in Order 43 Rule 1 C.P.C.- Appeal not maintainable-Appeal dismissed with liberty. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the appellant.

2. The instant appeal has been filed to set aside the impugned judgement and order dated 22.12.2023 passed by Additional District Judge, Court No.3, Pratapgarh, in M.N.R./203/2014 (Indra Bahadur Yadav vs. Harkhas Aam & others) whereby the amendment application of the appellant was dismissed.

3. The contention of learned counsel for the appellant is that the appellant had filed a petition u/s 278 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1925") for grant of letters of administration and during its pendency, he filed an amendment application which was rejected by the impugned order. It is further submitted that the impugned order is absolutely erroneous as if the amendment was allowed that would not change the nature of the suit as he simply wanted to add the date of the will dated 4.6.1996 in the plaint.

4. After considering the aforesaid submission, a question arises as to whether against the rejection of an amendment application under Order 6 Rule 17 of C.P.C. by the District Judge, while hearing the suit u/s 278 of the Act, 1925, an appeal lies under Section 299 of the Act, 1925.

5. On that issue, learned counsel for the appellant submits that as per Section 299 of the Act, 1925, every order passed by the District Judge in the proceeding under Section 278 of the Act, 1925, is appealable.

6. From perusal of Section 299 of the Act, 1925, it appears that under this Section only those orders are appealable which were passed by the District Judge in exercise of power, conferred upon him under the Act and same will be in accordance with the provision of CPC. For reference Section 299 of the Act, 1925 is quoted as under:-

"299. Appeals from orders of District Judge.?Every order made by a District Judge by virtue of the powers hereby conferred upon him shall be subject to appeal to the High. Court in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), applicable to appeals."

7. The provision of appeal against an order is provided under Order 43 Rule 1 of C.P.C. For reference the Order 43 Rule 1 of C.P.C. is quoted as under:-

"1. Appeal from orders.- An appeal shall lie from the following orders under the provisions of section 104, namely :-

(a) an order under rule 10 of Order VII returning a plaint to be presented to the proper Court 1[except where the procedure specified in rule 10A of Order VII has been followed];

(b) []

(c) an order under rule 9 of Order IX rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside the dismissal of a suit;

(d) an order under rule 13 of Order IX rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte;

(e) []

(f) an order under rule 21 of Order XI;

(g) []

(h) []

(i) an order under rule 34 of Order XXI on an objection to the draft of a document or of an endorsement;

(j) an order under rule 72 or rule 92 of Order XXI setting aside or refusing to set aside a sale;

[(ja) an order rejecting an application made under sub-rule (1) of rule 106 of Order XXI, provided that an order on the original application, that is to say, the application referred to in sub-rule (1) of rule 105 of that Order is appealable;]

(k) an order under rule 9 of Order XXII refusing to set aside the abatement or dismissal of a suit;

(l) an order under rule 10 of Order XXII giving or refusing to give leave;

(m) []

(n) an Order under rule 2 of Order XXV rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside the dismissal of a suit;

(na) an order under rule 5 or rule 7 of Order XXXIII rejecting an application for permission to sue as an indigent person ;

(o) []

(p) orders in interpleader-suits under rule 3, rule 4 or rule 6 of Order XXXV;

(q) an order under rule 2, rule 3 or rule 6 of Order XXXVIII;

(r) an order under rule 1, rule 2, [rule 2A], rule 4 or rule 10 of Order XXXIX;

(s) an order under rule 1 or rule 4 of Order XL;

(t) an order of refusal under rule 19 of Order XLI to re-admit, or under rule 21 of Order XLI to re-hear, an appeal;

(u) an order under rule 23 1b[or rule 23A] or Order XLI remanding a case, where an appeal would lie from the decree of the Appellate Court ;

(v) []

(w) an order under rule 4 of Order XLVII granting an application for review."

8. From perusal of the Order 43 Rule 1 of C.P.C., it is clear that against the rejection of an amendment application under Order 6 Rule 17, no appeal lies. Appeal is creation of statute which cannot be inferred without statutory provision. Section 295 of the Act provides that if the proceeding u/s 278 of the Act, 1925 is contentious, the same will proceed in the form of regular suit, according to the provision of C.P.C. Section 295 of the Act, 1925 is quoted as under:-

"295. Procedure in contentious cases.?In any case before the District Judge in which there is contention, the proceedings shall take, as nearly as may be, the form of a regular suit, according to the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) in which the petitioner for probate or letters of administration, as the case may be, shall be the plaintiff, and the person who has appeared to oppose the grant shall be the defendant."

9. On combine reading of Sections 299 and 278 of the Act, 1925, it is clear that contentious proceeding u/s 278 of the Act, 1925 will proceed as regular suit and appeal against any order, passed during the proceeding u/s 278 of the Act, 1925, will be in accordance with the C.P.C. Therefore, this Court holds that the appeal u/s 299 of the Act, 1925 will lie only against those orders that are appealable as per Order 43 Rule 1 C.P.C. and rejection of the amendment application under Order 6 Rule 17 C.P.C. does not find place in Order 43 Rule 1 C.P.C.

10. In view of the above analysis, this Court is of the view that against the rejection of amendment application under Order 6 Rule 17 C.P.C. during the proceeding of Section 278 of Indian Succession Act, 1925, no appeal lies u/s 299 of the Act, 1925 and the same can be challenged by the appellant either in revision u/s 115 C.P.C. or under the supervisory jurisdiction of the High Court, under Article 227 of Constitution of India.

11. Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed with a liberty to the appellant to challenge the impugned order in appropriate proceeding.

(2024) 2 ILRA 635
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 20.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. SANGEETA CHANDRA, J.
THE HON'BLE AJAI KUMAR SRIVASTAVA-I, J.

Government Appeal No. 1000144 of 2013

State of U.P. ...Appellant
Versus
Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:

Govt. Advocate

Counsel for the Respondents:

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code-Sectiontion302-Acquittal-Accused/ respondent acquitted of the offence u/s 302 IPC-cause of death of the deceased/ infant/ child is reported to be asphyxia as a result of ante mortem strangulation-co-accused, Hori Lal is the husband of the accused- respondent-he is convicted-even if acquittal is recorded in respect of some of the co-accused- yet conviction can be recorded in respect of the other accused-Respondent acquitted -based on proper analysis of evidence available on record- possible view of the matter on the basis of evidence adduced-Appeal dismissed. (E-9)

Cases cited:

1. Balraje alias Trimbak Vs St. of Maha., (2010) 6 SCC 673

2. Ramesh & ors. Vs St. of Har., (2017) 1 SCC 529

3. Anwar Ali & anr.Vs St. of H.P., (2020) 10 SCC 166

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra, J.
&
Hon'ble Ajai Kumar Srivastava-I, J.)

(Oral)

1. By means of the present application under Section 378(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure1, the State has sought leave to appeal to challenge the judgment and order dated 16.05.2013 passed by the then Special/ Additional Sessions Judge, Lakhimpur Kheri in Sessions Trial No.52 of 2007 titled as State of U.P. vs. Hori Lal and another arising out of Case Crime No.77 of 2006, under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code2, Police Station Pasgawan, District Kheri, whereby the accused/ respondent herein, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati has been acquitted of the offence under Sections 302. However, the co-accused, Hori Lal has been convicted and sentenced to undergo life imprisonment with a fine of Rs.5,000/- for the offence under Section 302 I.P.C. and in default of payment of fine, he has further been directed to undergo two months' simple imprisonment.

2. We have heard the learned Additional Government Advocate appearing on behalf of the State-appellant on the application for grant of leave to appeal and perused the record available before this Court.

3. The brief facts are that Hori Lal submitted a written application on 10.01.2006 at Police Station Pasgawan, District Kheri saying that his wife Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati was all alone in the house on 09.01.2006 in the night and at around 01:00 PM, Mewa s/o Dwarika and Pramod s/o Natthu inquired about the whereabouts of Hori Lal from Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati being unaware of the whereabouts of her husband could not tell Mewa and Pramod about the whereabouts of Hori Lal. Mewa and Pramod started beating up Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati, as a result of such attack on the person of Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati, the foetus that was inside her womb as she was 8 months' pregnant died and the baby was still born. Some villagers who had heard the noise came to the house of Hori Lal and saved the life of Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati from the attack of Mewa and Pramod. As a result of such application dated 10.01.2006, an F.I.R. as Case Crime No.77 of 2006 was registered under Sections 316 & 452 of the I.P.C. initially against Mewa and Pramod at Police Station Pasgawan, District Kheri at 10:45 AM. During the course of investigation, an Ultrasound and Medical Examination of Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati was done. The postmortem of the deceased/ child was also conducted by P.W.-3, Dr. S.P. Verma. On the basis of such investigation, the Charge-sheet was filed by the Investigating Officer against Hori Lal and Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati under Section 302/34 I.P.C. Mewa and Pramod, who were initially named in the first information report were exonerated.

4. It is contended by the learned A.G.A. for the State/ appellant that the impugned judgment and order dated 16.05.2013 is against the weight of evidence available on record.

5. His submission is that the learned trial court, while convicting the co-accused, Hori Lal, has recorded finding of acquittal in respect of another co-accused, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati, the sole respondent herein, on the basis of same set of evidence, which is legally impermissible.

6. Learned A.G.A. for the State/ appellant, thus, submits that the impugned judgment and order dated 16.05.2013 is perverse and, therefore, the application seeking leave to appeal deserves to be allowed.

7. Having heard the learned A.G.A. for the State/ appellant and upon perusal of record available before us, we find that according to postmortem report, Ex. Ka-1, following ante-mortem injuries were reported on the body of the deceased/ child :-

"1- खराश दार नीलगू निशान 2 सें०मी० x 1 सें०मी० गर्दन पर दाहिनी तरफ दाहिने कान से 3 सें०मी० नीचे।

2- खराशदार नीलगू निशान 2 सें०मी० x 1 सें०मी० गर्दन पर बायीं तरफ बायें कान से 1 सें०मी० नीचे। चोट का विच्छेदन करने पर गर्दन के सब कुटेनियम टिशूज एमाईमोप्ड पाये गये तथा ट्रैकिया कन्जेस्टेड पायी गयी।

3- नीलगू निशान 1 सें०मी० ग .5 सें०मी० ऊपरी हाथ पर दाहिनी तरफ।"

8. We also find that the cause of death of the deceased/ infant/ child is reported to be asphyxia as a result of ante mortem strangulation. The fact that the co-accused, Hori Lal is the husband of the accused-respondent, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati is not disputed. It is borne out from the record that the co-accused, Hori Lal, who has been convicted by means of impugned judgment and order dated 16.05.2013, was in jail for a period of about one and a half years and when he was released from jail and returned to his home, he came to know that the accused-respondent, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati was pregnant and was carrying eight months' foetus. He, thus, was having motive to commit the crime-in-question in order to get rid of the child, who, as he thought, was conceived by the accused-respondent, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati during the period when the co-accused, Hori Lal was in jail. The entire prosecution case was based on circumstantial evidence. As stated above, motive to commit the crime was with the co-accused, Hori Lal only. It is relevant to mention that ante-mortem injuries reported on the persons of the deceased/ child are of such nature, which could not have been inflicted in the manner as stated in the first information report. The cause of death of the deceased/ child also suggests that the child was done to death after her birth.

9. It is apposite to mention that even if acquittal is recorded in respect of some of the co-accused, yet conviction can be recorded in respect of the other accused if evidence indicating complicity of such convicted co-accused is found cogent and reliable against him. In this regard, a judgment rendered by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Balraje alias Trimbak vs. State of Maharashtra3 may be usefully referred to.

10. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Ramesh and Others vs. State of Haryana4 in paragraphs 24 and 26, has held as under:-

"24. We have duly appreciated the submissions advanced by the counsel for the parties on both sides. No doubt, the High Court was dealing with the appeal against the judgment of the trial court which had acquitted the appellants herein. The scope of interference in an appeal against acquittal is undoubtedly narrower than the scope of appeal against conviction. Section 378 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 confers upon the State a right to prefer an appeal to the High Court against the order of acquittal. At the same time, sub-section (3) thereof mandates that such an appeal is not to be entertained except with the leave of the High Court. Thus, before an appeal is entertained on merits, leave of the High Court is to be obtained which means that normally judgment of acquittal of the trial court is attached a definite value which is not to be ignored by the High Court. In other words, presumption of innocence in favour of an accused gets further fortified or reinforced by an order of acquittal. At the same time, while exercising its appellate power, the High Court is empowered to reappreciate, review and reconsider the evidence before it. However, this exercise is to be undertaken in order to come to an independent conclusion and unless there are substantial and compelling reasons or very strong reasons to differ from the findings of acquittal recorded by the trial court, the High Court, as an appellate court in an appeal against the acquittal, is not supposed to substitute its findings in case the findings recorded by the trial court are equally plausible.

26. This legal position is reiterated in Govindaraju v. State [Govindaraju v. State, (2012) 4 SCC 722 : (2012) 2 SCC (Cri) 533] and the following passage therefrom needs to be extracted: (SCC p. 732, paras 12-13)

"12. The legislature in its wisdom, unlike an appeal by an accused in the case of conviction, introduced the concept of leave to appeal in terms of Section 378 CrPC. This is an indication that appeal from acquittal is placed on a somewhat different footing than a normal appeal. But once leave is granted, then there is hardly any difference between a normal appeal and an appeal against acquittal. The concept of leave to appeal under Section 378 CrPC has been introduced as an additional stage between the order of acquittal and consideration of the judgment by the appellate court on merits as in the case of a regular appeal. Sub-section (3) of Section 378 clearly provides that no appeal to the High Court under sub-section (1) or (2) shall be entertained except with the leave of the High Court. This legislative intent of attaching a definite value to the judgment of acquittal cannot be ignored by the courts.

13. Under the scheme of CrPC, acquittal confers rights on an accused that of a free citizen. A benefit that has accrued to an accused by the judgment of acquittal can be taken away and he can be convicted on appeal, only when the judgment of the trial court is perverse on facts or law. Upon examination of the evidence before it, the appellate court should be fully convinced that the findings returned by the trial court are really erroneous and contrary to the settled principles of criminal law."" (emphasis supplied by us)

11. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Anwar Ali and another vs. State of Himachal Pradesh5 in paragraph 14.1, has held as under:-

"14.1. In Babu [Babu v. State of Kerala, (2010) 9 SCC 189 : (2010) 3 SCC (Cri) 1179] , this Court had reiterated the principles to be followed in an appeal against acquittal under Section 378 CrPC. In paras 12 to 19, it is observed and held as under : (SCC pp. 196-99)

"12. This Court time and again has laid down the guidelines for the High Court to interfere with the judgment and order of acquittal passed by the trial court. The appellate court should not ordinarily set aside a judgment of acquittal in a case where two views are possible, though the view of the appellate court may be the more probable one. While dealing with a judgment of acquittal, the appellate court has to consider the entire evidence on record, so as to arrive at a finding as to whether the views of the trial court were perverse or otherwise unsustainable. The appellate court is entitled to consider whether in arriving at a finding of fact, the trial court had failed to take into consideration admissible evidence and/or had taken into consideration the evidence brought on record contrary to law*. Similarly, wrong placing of burden of proof* may also be a subject-matter of scrutiny by the appellate court. (Vide Balak Ram v. State of U.P. [Balak Ram v. State of U.P., (1975) 3 SCC 219 : 1974 SCC (Cri) 837] , Shambhoo Missir v. State of Bihar [Shambhoo Missir v. State of Bihar, (1990) 4 SCC 17 : 1990 SCC (Cri) 518] , Shailendra Pratap v. State of U.P. [Shailendra Pratap v. State of U.P., (2003) 1 SCC 761 : 2003 SCC (Cri) 432] , Narendra Singh v. State of M.P. [Narendra Singh v. State of M.P., (2004) 10 SCC 699 : 2004 SCC (Cri) 1893] , Budh Singh v. State of U.P. [Budh Singh v. State of U.P., (2006) 9 SCC 731 : (2006) 3 SCC (Cri) 377] , State of U.P. v. Ram Veer Singh [State of U.P. v. Ram Veer Singh, (2007) 13 SCC 102 : (2009) 2 SCC (Cri) 363] , S. Rama Krishna v. S. Rami Reddy [S. Rama Krishna v. S. Rami Reddy, (2008) 5 SCC 535 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 645] , Arulveluv. State [Arulvelu v. State, (2009) 10 SCC 206 : (2010) 1 SCC (Cri) 288] , Perla Somasekhara Reddy v. State of A.P. [Perla Somasekhara Reddy v. State of A.P., (2009) 16 SCC 98 : (2010) 2 SCC (Cri) 176] and Ram Singh v. State of H.P. [Ram Singh v. State of H.P., (2010) 2 SCC 445 : (2010) 1 SCC (Cri) 1496])"

13. In Sheo Swarup v. King Emperor [Sheo Swarup v. King Emperor, 1934 SCC OnLine PC 42 : (1933-34) 61 IA 398 : AIR 1934 PC 227 (2)] , the Privy Council observed as under : (SCC Online PC : IA p. 404)

'... the High Court should and will always give proper weight and consideration to such matters as (1) the views of the trial Judge as to the credibility of the witnesses; (2) the presumption of innocence in favour of the accused, a presumption certainly not weakened by the fact that he has been acquitted at his trial; (3) the right of the accused to the benefit of any doubt; and (4) the slowness of an appellate court in disturbing a finding of fact arrived at by a Judge who had the advantage of seeing the witnesses.'

14. The aforesaid principle of law has consistently been followed by this Court. (See Tulsiram Kanu v. State [Tulsiram Kanu v. State, 1951 SCC 92 : AIR 1954 SC 1] , Balbir Singh v. State of Punjab [Balbir Singh v. State of Punjab, AIR 1957 SC 216 : 1957 Cri LJ 481] , M.G. Agarwal v. State of Maharashtra [M.G. Agarwal v. State of Maharashtra, AIR 1963 SC 200 : (1963) 1 Cri LJ 235] , Khedu Mohton v. State of Bihar [Khedu Mohton v. State of Bihar, (1970) 2 SCC 450 : 1970 SCC (Cri) 479] , Sambasivan v. State of Kerala [Sambasivan v. State of Kerala, (1998) 5 SCC 412 : 1998 SCC (Cri) 1320] , Bhagwan Singh v. State of M.P. [Bhagwan Singh v. State of M.P., (2002) 4 SCC 85 : 2002 SCC (Cri) 736] and State of Goa v. Sanjay Thakran [State of Goa v. Sanjay Thakran, (2007) 3 SCC 755 : (2007) 2 SCC (Cri) 162] .)

15. In Chandrappa v. State of Karnataka [Chandrappa v. State of Karnataka, (2007) 4 SCC 415 : (2007) 2 SCC (Cri) 325] , this Court reiterated the legal position as under : (SCC p. 432, para 42)

'(1) An appellate court has full power to review, reappreciate and reconsider the evidence upon which the order of acquittal is founded.

(2) The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 puts no limitation, restriction or condition on exercise of such power and an appellate court on the evidence before it may reach its own conclusion, both on questions of fact and of law.

(3) Various expressions, such as, "substantial and compelling reasons", "good and sufficient grounds", "very strong circumstances", "distorted conclusions", "glaring mistakes", etc. are not intended to curtail extensive powers of an appellate court in an appeal against acquittal. Such phraseologies are more in the nature of "flourishes of language" to emphasise the reluctance of an appellate court to interfere with acquittal than to curtail the power of the court to review the evidence and to come to its own conclusion.

(4) An appellate court, however, must bear in mind that in case of acquittal, there is double presumption in favour of the accused. Firstly, the presumption of innocence is available to him under the fundamental principle of criminal jurisprudence that every person shall be presumed to be innocent unless he is proved guilty by a competent court of law. Secondly, the accused having secured his acquittal, the presumption of his innocence is further reinforced, reaffirmed and strengthened by the trial court.

(5) If two reasonable conclusions are possible on the basis of the evidence on record, the appellate court should not disturb the finding of acquittal recorded by the trial court.'

16. In Ghurey Lal v. State of U.P. [Ghurey Lal v. State of U.P., (2008) 10 SCC 450 : (2009) 1 SCC (Cri) 60] , this Court reiterated the said view, observing that the appellate court in dealing with the cases in which the trial courts have acquitted the accused, should bear in mind that the trial court's acquittal bolsters the presumption that he is innocent. The appellate court must give due weight and consideration to the decision of the trial court as the trial court had the distinct advantage of watching the demeanour of the witnesses, and was in a better position to evaluate the credibility of the witnesses.

17. In State of Rajasthan v. Naresh [State of Rajasthan v. Naresh, (2009) 9 SCC 368 : (2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 1069] , the Court again examined the earlier judgments of this Court and laid down that : (SCC p. 374, para 20)

'20. … An order of acquittal should not be lightly interfered with even if the court believes that there is some evidence pointing out the finger towards the accused.'

18. In State of U.P. v. Banne [State of U.P. v. Banne, (2009) 4 SCC 271 : (2009) 2 SCC (Cri) 260] , this Court gave certain illustrative circumstances in which the Court would be justified in interfering with a judgment of acquittal by the High Court. The circumstances include : (SCC p. 286, para 28)

'(i) The High Court's decision is based on totally erroneous view of law by ignoring the settled legal position;

(ii) The High Court's conclusions are contrary to evidence and documents on record;

(iii) The entire approach of the High Court in dealing with the evidence was patently illegal leading to grave miscarriage of justice;

(iv) The High Court's judgment is manifestly unjust and unreasonable based on erroneous law and facts on the record of the case;

(v) This Court must always give proper weight and consideration to the findings of the High Court;

(vi) This Court would be extremely reluctant in interfering with a case when both the Sessions Court and the High Court have recorded an order of acquittal.'

A similar view has been reiterated by this Court in Dhanapal v. State [Dhanapal v. State, (2009) 10 SCC 401 : (2010) 1 SCC (Cri) 336] .

19. Thus, the law on the issue can be summarised to the effect that in exceptional cases where there are compelling circumstances, and the judgment under appeal is found to be perverse, the appellate court can interfere with the order of acquittal. The appellate court should bear in mind the presumption of innocence of the accused and further that the trial court's acquittal bolsters the presumption of his innocence. Interference in a routine manner where the other view is possible should be avoided, unless there are good reasons for interference." (emphasis supplied)" (emphasis supplied by us)

12. Thus, having regard to aforesaid overall facts and circumstances of this case and in view of the law laid down by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Balraje's case (supra), Ramesh's case (supra) and Anwar Ali's case (supra), we are of the considered view that the impugned judgment and order dated 16.05.2013 insofar as it relates to the respondent, Smt. Phoolan Devi @ Phoolmati, who has been acquitted of the charge under Section 302 I.P.C., is based on proper analysis of evidence available on record. It is a possible view of the matter on the basis of evidence adduced before the learned trial court, therefore, the same cannot be said to be perverse.

13. On the basis of foregoing discussion, we are of the considered view that the application for leave to appeal lacks merit and is, accordingly, rejected.

14. Since the application for leave to appeal has been rejected, the appeal also does not survive and the same stands dismissed.

15. Let the record of trial court, if any, be transmitted forthwith to the learned trial court concerned.

(2024) 2 ILRA 641
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 22.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 9161 of 2023

Dinesh Tiwari @ Dhirendra Kumar Tiwari ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Anshumali Srivastava, Mayank Srivastava

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 100(4) & 482 – Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 - Sections 2(f), 3, 4, 4(1), 5, 7, 7(1)(a), 7(1)(b), 8, 9 & 15(2) - Application under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. - for quashing of the entire criminal proceedings – Police Raid – search & Seize - applicant found in an intimate position with co-accused lady, who was allegedly involved in in prostitution – FIR – Investigation – Charge-sheet – order of Cognizance – instant Application – applicant taken plea that the search violated Section 15(2) of the Act due to the absence of two local witnesses, and that the applicant, being merely a customer, cannot be penalized under the Act unless actively involved in the prostitution business – court examined - whether the applicant, found as a customer in a brothel, could be prosecuted under Sections 3 to 9 of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, and whether the search violated Section 15(2), which mandates the presence of two respectable local witnesses including a woman – court held that – (i) a search conducted in violation of Section 15(2) of the Act can be said to be irregular but this ground cannot be the basis for quashing the impugned proceeding u/s 482 Cr.P.C. Still, this ground is available during trial, which can be decided on the basis of evidence, - (ii) a customer who visits the brothel will not be liable u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act – consequently, the court quashed the criminal proceedings against the applicant.

(Para – 23, 24, 25, 27, 29, 31, 32)

Application Allowed. (E-11)

List of referred Cases: -

1. Shivaraj Vs St. of Karn. (Criminal Petition No. 200782 of 2016),

2. Raghavendra @ Raghu Vs St. of Karn. (Criminal Petition No. 8055 of 2016),

3. Mahesh Hebbar @ Mahesh Vs The Station House Officer, Banaswadi, P.S. Bangalore (Writ Petition No. 56504 of 2015),

4. Babu S. Vs St. by Kengeri Police Station Bengaluru (Criminal Petition No. 2119 of 2022),

5. Barath S.P. Vs St. of Karn. (Criminal Petition No. 1757 of 2022),

6. Suraj Vs St. of Karn. (Criminal Petition No. 7110 of 2011),

7. Salapu Venkateswara Rao Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 2156 of 2022),

8. Korada Subrahmanyam Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 6182 of 2022),

9. Goenka Sajan Kumar Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 4161 of 2014),

10. Nartu Rambabu Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 4289 of 2022),

11. Padala Venkata Sai Rama Reddy Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 6733 of 2021),

12. Vinod @ Vijay Bhagubhai Patel Vs St. of Guj. (Criminal Misc. Application No. 8156 of 2017), 13. Naman Laddha Vs St. of M.P. (Misc. Criminal Case No. 34970 of 2022).

14. Pratibha Vs Rameshwari Devi, (2007) 12 SCC 369,

15. Bai Radha Vs St. of Guj.; (1969) 1 SCC 43,

16. Kalpnath Rai Vs St. (through CBI); (1997) 8 SCC 732,

17. Sahib Singh Vs St. of Punj.; (1996) 11 SCC,

18. D. Vinod Shivappa Vs Nanda Belliappa; (2006) 6 SCC 456,

19. Heydon's Case (1584) 76 ER 637.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, and Sri Arvind Kumar Tripathi learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The instant application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed seeking quashing of the entire proceeding of Case No. 426 of 2007 (State vs. Rashmi Srivastava & others), arising out of Case Crime No. 137 of 2006, under Sections 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as "Act"), P.S. Sarojini Nagar, District Lucknow, including the charge sheet No. 7 of 2006 dated 7.8.2006, pending before Judicial Magistrate-III, Lucknow.

3. Though the present application has been filed after a considerable delay, this is being entertained because question of law is involved here.

4. The facts, giving rise to the present impugned proceeding, are that on 11.6.2006, the police conducted a search of a house that belonged to one Haji, on the information received from an informer that some of the persons were conducting prostitution. During the search, the applicant was found in an intimate position with co-accused lady "S" (name changed), who was allegedly involved in prostitution in a locked room. As per the police, S.H.O. had seen the present applicant and one lady "S" in an intimate position through cracks in the door. Based on this search, an F.I.R. dated 11.6.2006 was registered against the accused persons, including the present applicant, as Case Crime No. 137 of 2006, under Sections 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act. The police, after investigation, had also submitted a charge sheet against the applicant and five other co-accused persons, u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act on 7.8.2006, whereupon the learned C.J.M. also took cognizance on 10.8.2006, and the proceeding was registered as Case No. 426 of 2007.

5. The contention of learned counsel for the applicant is twofold:-

(i) that while conducting the search of the house in question, mandatory provision of Section 15(2) of the Act, which requires the presence of two local witnesses, was not followed, and there was a violation of Section 15 (2) of the Act; and

(ii) that as per the prosecution case, the applicant was simply a customer, and simply being a customer at any house that is being used for prostitution will not attract any penalty under the Act unless there is the involvement of the customer in the business of prostitution.

6. In support of his first contention, learned counsel for the applicant has relied upon the judgement of High Court of Karnataka, Kalaburagi Bench in the case of Shivaraj vs. State of Karnataka (Criminal Petition No. 200782 of 2016) and in support of his second contention learned counsel for the applicant has relied upon the judgements of Karnataka High Court in Raghavendra @ Raghu vs. State of Karnataka (Criminal Petition No. 8055 of 2016), Mahesh Hebbar @ Mahesh vs. The Station House Officer, Banaswadi, P.S. Bangalore (Writ Petition No. 56504 of 2015), Babu S. vs. State by Kengeri Police Station Bengaluru (Criminal Petition No. 2119 of 2022), Barath S.P. vs. State of Karnataka (Criminal Petition No. 1757 of 2022) and Suraj vs. State of Karnataka (Criminal Petition No. 7110 of 2011), the judgements of Andhra Pradesh High Court in Salapu Venkateswara Rao vs. State of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 2156 of 2022), Korada Subrahmanyam vs. State of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 6182 of 2022), Goenka Sajan Kumar vs. State of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 4161 of 2014), Nartu Rambabu vs. State of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 4289 of 2022) and Padala Venkata Sai Rama Reddy vs. State of Andhra Pradesh (Criminal Petition No. 6733 of 2021), the judgement of Gujarat High Court in the case of Vinod @ Vijay Bhagubhai Patel vs. State of Gujarat (Criminal Misc. Application No. 8156 of 2017) as well as the judgement of Madhya Pradesh High Court in the case of Naman Laddha vs. State of M.P. (Misc. Criminal Case No. 34970 of 2022).

7. Per contra, learned A.G.A. submitted that as the applicant was caught red-handed during the search of a house that was being used as a brothel, therefore an offence under the Act is made out against him. It is further submitted that the applicant cannot be said to have committed no offence on being a customer because it is the customer who procures the prostitute for consideration of money to satisfy his lust. Therefore, ingredients of the offence u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act are attracted.

8. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the record, two questions arise: (i) whether there was a violation of Section 15(2) of the Act while conducting a search of the house in question where the applicant was found as a customer of a prostitute. If yes, then as to what will be its effect on the impugned proceeding; and (ii) whether a person who was found as a customer at a place that was being used as a brothel can be held liable u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act.

9. So far as the first question is concerned, it would be appropriate to quote Section 15 of the Act as follows:-

"15. Search without a warrant.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, whenever the special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, has reasonable grounds for believing that an offence punishable under this Act has been or is being committed in respect of a person living in any premises, and that search of the premises with warrant cannot be made without undue delay, such officer may, after recording the grounds of his belief, enter and search such premises without a warrant.

(2) Before making a search under sub-section (1), the special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, shall call upon two or more respectable inhabitants (at least one of whom shall be a woman) of the locality in which the place to be searched is situate, to attend and witness the search, and may issue an order in writing to them or any of them so to do:

Provided that the requirement as to the respectable inhabitants being from the locality in which the place to be searched is situate shall not apply to a woman required to attend and witness the search.

(3) Any person who, without reasonable cause, refuses or neglects, to attend and witness a search under this Section, when called upon to do so by an order in writing delivered or tendered to him, shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 187 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860).

(4) The special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, entering any premises under sub-section (1) shall be entitled to remove therefrom all the persons found therein.

(5) The special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, after removing the person under sub-section (4) shall forthwith produce him before the appropriate magistrate.

(5A) Any person who is produced before a magistrate under sub-section (5), shall be examined by a registered medical practitioner for the purposes of determination of the age of such person, or for the detection of any injuries as a result of sexual abuse or for the presence of any sexually transmitted diseases.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, "registered medical practitioner" has the same meaning as in the Indian Medical Council Act, 1956.

(6) The special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, and other persons taking part in, or attending, and witnessing a search shall not be liable to any civil or criminal proceedings against them in respect of anything lawfully done in connection with, or for the purpose of, the search.

(6-A) The special police officer or the trafficking police officer, as the case may be, making a search under this Section shall be accompanied by at least two women police officers, and where any woman or girl removed under sub-section (4) is required to be interrogated, it shall be done by a woman police officer and if no woman police officer is available, the interrogation shall be done only in the presence of a lady member of a recognised welfare institution or organisation.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section and section 17-A,"recognised welfare institution or organisation" means such institution or organisation as may be recognised in this behalf by the State Government.

(7) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), shall, so far as may be, apply to any search under this Section as they apply to any search made under the authority of a warrant issued under section 94 of the said Code."

10. From the perusal of above-quoted Section, it is clear that Section 15 provides if any place is searched without a warrant, then before searching, a special police officer or trafficking police officer is required to call upon two or more respectable inhabitants of the locality where the place to be searched is situated and at least one of the persons shall be a woman who may be from the same locality or any other locality.

11. In the present case, it is admitted case in the F.I.R. as well as in the search memo that no person was ready to accompany the Special Police Officer during the search of the house in question and even at the time of preparing the search and recovery memos, no public witness was ready to sign, and the police party signed it. Therefore, the provision of Section 15(2) regarding the presence of two witnesses of locality, including a woman, was violated. Thus, the entire search, recovery and arrest in the present case become doubtful. But a question arises whether the violation of Section 15(2) of the Act is itself a ground for quashing of the proceeding.

12. Though in the judgement of Karnataka High Court in the case of Shivaraj (Supra), relied upon by learned counsel for the applicant, the Hon'ble Single Judge quashed the entire proceeding. Hon'ble Apex Court, in the case of Bai Radha vs. State of Gujarat; (1969) 1 SCC 43, observed that in the absence of any prejudice, having shown by noncompliance with the provision of Section 15(2), proceedings or trial cannot be quashed. However, the Court has to be very careful and cautious in weighing the evidence where there has been such failure on the part of the investigating agency. Paragraph 10 of the above judgement is quoted as follows:-

"10. In conclusion it may be observed that the investigating agencies cannot and ought not to show complete disregard of such provisions as are contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 15 of the Act. The Legislature in its wisdom provided special safeguards owing to the nature of the premises which have to be searched involving inroads on the privacy of citizens and handling of delicate situations in respect of females. But the entire proceedings and the trial do not become illegal and vitiated owing to the non-observance of or non-compliance with the directions contained in the aforesaid provisions. The court, however, has to be very careful and circumspect in weighing the evidence where there has been such a failure on the part of the investigating agency but unless and until some prejudice is shown to have been caused to the accused person or persons the conviction and the sentence cannot be set aside. It may not be out of place to reiterate what was said in H.N. Rishbud and Inder Singh v. State of Delhi [1955 (1) SCR 1150] that a defect or an illegality in the investigation, however serious, has no direct bearing on the competency or the procedure relating to cognizance or trial of an offence and that whenever such a situation arises, Section 537 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is attracted and unless the irregularity or the illegality in the investigation or trial can be shown to have brought about a miscarriage of justice, the result is not affected."

13. Section 15(2) of the Act is pari materia with Section 100(4) of Cr.P.C., which also prescribes that before making a search, two or more independent and respectable inhabitants of the locality must be there. Section 100(4) of Cr.P.C. reads as under:-

"100(4). Before making a search under this Chapter, the officer or other person about to make it shall call upon two or more independent and respectable inhabitants of the locality in which the place to be searched is situate or of any other locality if no such inhabitant of the said locality is available or is willing to be a witness to the search, to attend and witness the search and may issue an order in writing to them or any of them so to do."

14. Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Kalpnath Rai vs. State (through CBI); (1997) 8 SCC 732, while interpreting Section 100(4) Cr.P.C. observed that there can be no legal proposition that evidence of police officer is unworthy of acceptance in case of absence of a witness during police raid. At the most, it would cast a duty on the court to adopt greater care while scrutinizing the evidence of the police officer. If the evidence of a police officer is found acceptable, then it would be the erroneous proposition that the court must reject the prosecution version, solely on the ground that no witness was present. Paragraph No. 88 of the above judgement is quoted as under:-

"88. There can be no legal proposition that evidence of police officers, unless supported by independent witnesses, is unworthy of acceptance. Non-examination of independent witness or even presence of such witness during police raid would cast an added duty on the court to adopt greater care while scrutinising the evidence of the police officers. If the evidence of the police officer is found acceptable it would be an erroneous proposition that the court must reject the prosecution version solely on the ground that no independent witness was examined. In Pradeep Narayan Madgaonkar [(1995) 4 SCC 255 : 1995 SCC (Cri) 708] to which one of us (Mukherjee, J.) was a party, the aforesaid position has been stated in unambiguous terms, the relevant portion of which is extracted below: (SCC p. 261, para 11)

"Indeed, the evidence of the official (police) witnesses cannot be discarded merely on the ground that they belong to the police force and are, either interested in the investigating or the prosecuting agency but prudence dictates that their evidence needs to be subjected to strict scrutiny and as far as possible corroboration of their evidence in material particulars should be sought. Their desire to see the success of the case based on their investigation requires greater care to appreciate their testimony."

15. Similarly, in the case of Sahib Singh vs. State of Punjab; (1996) 11 SCC 685, while interpreting Section 100(4) Cr.P.C., the Apex Court observed that the absence of independent witness during the search would affect the weight of the evidence of police officer, though not its admissibility. In the present case, non-presence of independent witnesses, as required u/s 15(2) of the Act, was clearly explained by the police as no one was ready to accompany them to search the house which was being used for prostitution. Therefore, unless a prejudice is shown to be caused to the applicant during trial by the applicant, the prosecution story merely on the violation of Section 15(2) of the Act cannot be thrown out.

16. Therefore, this Court is of the view that lacuna in search is a question that should be decided during trial and proceeding cannot be quashed only on the ground that there is irregularity or non-compliance of Section 15(2) of the Act while conducting the search of a house, being used for prostitution because in practical, none of the persons of locality comes forward to accompany the police in case of search of a brothel. If such ground is considered for quashing the proceedings under the Act, then most of the proceedings will be quashed without going to trial. Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of D. Vinod Shivappa vs. Nanda Belliappa; (2006) 6 SCC 456, also observed that in interpreting a statute, the Court must adopt the construction which suppresses the mischief and advance the remedy. This rule is laid down in Heydon's Case (1584) 76 ER 637. Therefore, this Court also holds that the direction of Section 15(2) of the Act is directory in nature and not mandatory despite the use of the word "shall" in Section 15(2) of the Act.

17. So far as the second question of whether a customer found in the brothel is liable to be prosecuted under Sections 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act is concerned, Section 3 of the Act provides punishment for keeping or managing or acting or assisting in the keeping or management of a brothel. For reference, Section 3 is quoted below:-

"3. Punishment for keeping a brothel or allowing premises to be used as a brothel.—(1) Any person who keeps or manages, or acts or assists in the keeping or management of, a brothel shall be punishable on first conviction with rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than three years and also with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, with rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than two years and not more than five years and also with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

(2) Any person who—

(a) being the tenant, lessee, occupier or person in charge of any premises, uses, or knowingly allows any other person to use, such premises or any part thereof as a brothel, or

(b) being the owner, lessor or landlord of any premises or the agent of such owner, lessor or landlord, lets the same or any part thereof with the knowledge that the same or any part thereof is intended to be used as a brothel, or is willfully a party to the use of such premises or any part thereof as a brothel, shall be punishable on first conviction with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, with rigorous imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years and also with fine.

(2-A) For the purposes of sub-section (2), it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that any person referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of that sub-section, is knowingly allowing the premises or any part thereof to be used as a brothel or, as the case may be, has knowledge that the premises or any part thereof are being used as a brothel, if,—

(a) a report is published in a newspaper having circulation in the area in which such person resides to the effect that the premises or any part thereof have been found to be used for prostitution as a result of a search made under this Act; or

(b) a copy of the list of all things found during the search referred to in clause (a) is given to such person.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, on conviction of any person referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (2) of any offence under that sub-section in respect of any premises or any part thereof, any ease or agreement under which such premises have been leased out or are held or occupied at the time of the commission of the offence, shall become void and inoperative with effect from the date of the said conviction."

18. From perusal of Section- 3, it is clear that a customer cannot be said to be keeping or managing or acting or assisting in the keeping or management of a brothel because he simply comes and pays money to get a woman to satisfy his lust and nothing more.

19. So far as Section 4 is concerned, this Section provides punishment for a person who knowingly lives on the earnings of prostitution. For reference, Section 4 is quoted as under:-

"4. Punishment for living on the earnings of prostitution.—(1) Any person over the age of eighteen years who knowingly lives, wholly or in part, on the earnings of the prostitution of any other person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both and where such earnings relate to the prostitution of a child or a minor, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term of not less than seven years and not more than ten years.*

(2) Where any person over the age of eighteen years is proved—

(a) to be living with, or to be habitually in the company of, a prostitute; or

(b) to have exercised control, direction or influence over the movements of a prostitute in such a manner as to show that such person is aiding, abetting or compelling her prostitution; or

(c) to be acting as a tout or pimp on behalf of a prostitute, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that such person is knowingly living on the earnings of prostitution of another person within the meaning of sub-section (1)."

20. From the perusal of Section 4(1), it is clear that only those persons who either live on the earnings of prostitution or themselves prostitute or work for prostitution to attract customers as a tout or pimp or exercise control, direction or influence over the movements of a prostitute to aid, abet or compel for prostitution. Therefore, a customer will not in any manner fall within the Section 4 of the Act. As a result, any customer who is not earning money from prostitution or helping or abetting the prostitution for money will not be liable to be punished u/s 4 of the Act.

21. So far as Section 5 is concerned, to attract the liability under this Section, a person either procures or attempts to procure a person for prostitution or induces a person with the intention to make him an inmate of a brothel for prostitution or takes or attempts to take a person from one place to another place to carry on the prostitution or induces a person to carry on prostitution. For reference, Section 5 is quoted as under:-

"5. Procuring, inducing or taking person for the sake of prostitution.— (1) any person who—

(a) procures or attempts to procure a person, whether with or without his consent, for the purpose of prostitution; or

(b) induces a person to go from any place, with the intent that he may for the purpose of prostitution become the inmate of, or frequent, a brothel; or

(c) takes attempts to take a person, or causes a person to be taken, from one place to another with a view to his carrying on, or being brought up to carry on prostitution; or shall be punishable on conviction with rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than three years and not more than seven years and also with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees and if any offence under this sub-section is committed against the will of any person, the punishment of imprisonment for a term of seven years shall extend to imprisonment for a term of fourteen years:

(d) causes or induces a person to carry on prostitution;

Provided that if the person in respect of whom an offence committed under this sub-section,—

(i) is a child, the punishment provided under this sub-section shall extend to rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than seven years but may extend to life; and

(ii) is a minor, the punishment provided under this sub-section shall extend to rigorous imprisonment for a term of not less than seven years and not more than fourteen years;

(3) An offence under this Section shall be triable—

(a) in the place from which a person is procured, induced to go, taken or caused to be taken or from which an attempt to procure or take such person is made; or

(b) in the place to which he may have gone as a result of the inducement or to which he is taken or caused to be taken or an attempt to take him is made."

22. From the perusal of the above-quoted Section 5, it is clear that a person can be held liable under the said Section only if he procures, induces or takes a person for the sake of prostitution. Section 2(f) of the Act defines the word "Prostitution". For reference, the same is quoted as under:-

"2(f). "prostitution" means the sexual exploitation or abuse of persons for commercial purposes, and the expression "prostitute" shall be construed accordingly"

23. From the definition of "prostitution", it is clear that if a person is sexually exploited or abused for commercial purposes (for earning money), only then will there be prostitution. If a person comes to a brothel and pays money for the satisfaction of his lust, then, at the most, it can be said that he procures a woman to satisfy his lust and not for commercial purposes. Therefore, even if a person procures a woman who is involved in prostitution by paying money to satisfy his lust, he cannot be said to procure or induce the woman for prostitution. Therefore, merely being a customer will not attract the liability u/s 5 of the Act.

24. Section 7 of the Act provides the liability if a person carries on prostitution and the person with whom prostitution is being carried on in the vicinity of any public place. For reference, Section 7 is quoted as under:-

"7. Prostitution in or in the vicinity of public places.—(1) Any person, who carries on prostitution and the person with whom such prostitution is carried on, in any premises, —

(a) which are within the area or areas, notified under sub-section (3), or

(b) which are within a distance of two hundred metres of any place of public religious worship, educational institution, hostel, hospital, nursing home or such other public place of any kind as may be notified in this behalf by the Commissioner of Police or magistrate in the manner prescribed, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months.

(1-A) Where an offence committed under sub-section (1) is in respect of a child or minor, the person committing the offence shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which shall not be less than seven years but which may be for life or for a term which may extend to ten years and shall also be liable to fine:

Provided that the court may, for adequate and special reasons to be mentioned in the judgment, impose a sentence of imprisonment for a term of less than seven years.

(2) Any person who—

(a) being the keeper of any public place knowingly permits prostitutes for purposes of their trade to resort to or remain in such place; or

(b) being the tenant, lessee, occupier or person in charge of any premises referred to in subsection (1) knowingly permits the same or any part thereof to be used for prostitution; or shall be punishable on first conviction with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with both, and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and also with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, and if the public place or premises happen to be a hotel, the licence for carrying on the business of such hotel under any law for the time being in force shall also be liable to be suspended for a period of not less than three months but which may extend to one year:

(c) being the owner, lessor or landlord, of any premises referred to in sub-section (1), or the agent of such owner, lessor or landlord, lets the same or any part thereof with the knowledge that the same or any part thereof may be used for prostitution, or is wilfully a party to such use,

Provided that if an offence committed under this sub-section is in respect of a child or minor in a hotel, such licence shall also be liable to be cancelled.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section, "hotel" shall have the meaning an in clause (6) of section 2 of the Hotel-Receipts Tax Act, 1980 (54 of 1980).

(3) The State Government may, having regard to the kinds of persons frequenting any area or areas in the State, the nature and the density of population therein and other relevant considerations, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that prostitution shall not be carried on in such area or areas as may be specified in the notification.

(4) Where a notification is issued under sub-section (3) in respect of any area or areas, the State Government shall define the limits of such area or areas in the notification with reasonable certainty.

(5) No such notification shall be issued so as to have effect from a date earlier than the expiry of a period of ninety days after the date on which it is issued."

25. From a perusal of Section 7, it is clear that this offence can be said to be committed by a person if he carries on prostitution or he is helping in carrying on prostitution in any premises which is in the vicinity of public places. As mentioned above, a customer cannot be said to carry on prostitution or help the prostitution because he does not get involved in running the business of prostitution. Even otherwise, if prostitution is not being carried on in a premises which is in the vicinity of any public place, Section 7 will not be attracted. Word "Public Place" has also been defined u/s 7(1)(a) & (b) of the Act that either the area has been notified as public place or that place is within a distance of 200 meters of any religious worship place, institution of education, hostel, hospital or nursing home, but in the present case, there is nothing on record, showing that the brothel, where the applicant was found as a customer, was in the vicinity of public place as mentioned u/s 7(1)(a) & (b). Therefore, no offence u/s 7 is made out against the present applicant who was simply a customer..

26. So far as Section 8 is concerned, this Section provides punishment for a person if he attempts or endeavours to attempt or attract the attention of any person for the purpose of prostitution in any public place. Therefore, this Section is for the person who is either a prostitute or pimp or touts or attracts in any manner the other person (customer) for the purpose of prostitution. For reference, Section 8 is quoted as under:-

"8. Seducing or soliciting for purpose of prostitution.—Whoever, in any public place or within sight of, and in such manner as to be seen or heard from, any public place, whether from within any building or house or not—

(a) by words, gestures, wilful exposure of his person (whether by sitting by a window or on the balcony of a building or house or in any other way), or otherwise tempts or endeavours to tempt, or attracts or endeavours to attract the attention of, any person for the purpose of prostitution; or

(b) solicits or molests any person, or loiters or acts in such manner as to cause obstruction or annoyance to persons residing nearby or passing by such public place or to offend against public decency, for the purpose of prostitution, shall be punishable on first conviction with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, and in the event of a second or subsequent conviction, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, and also with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees:

Provided that where an offence under this Section is committed by a man, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a period of not less than seven days but which may extend to three months."

27. From the perusal of Section 8, it is clear that this Section does not attract any liability on the customer found to be in any brothel. In the present case also, there was no allegation against the applicant that in any manner he was seducing or soliciting any person for the purpose of prostitution at any public place.

28. Section 9 of the Act provides punishment for those persons who have authority over any person, including a woman, and they aid or abet such person for prostitution. However, in the present case, it is undisputed that the applicant was not in the custody or authority or care over the lady "S", who was involved in prostitution. Therefore, Section 9 also does not attract any penalty for the person who was simply a customer without having any authority, charge or custody over the person who was involved in prostitution.

29. In the judgements mentioned above, relied upon by the applicant in support of his second contention, the Gujarat High Court, Karnataka High Court, as well as Andhra Pradesh High Court also observed that merely the presence of a person as a customer at a brothel would not attract the ingredients of offence u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act. Paragraph No.5 of the judgement in Goenka Sajan Kumar (supra) reads as under:-

"5*. None of these sections speaks about punishment to the customer of a brothel house. Admittedly, the petitioner does not fall under the provisions of Sections 3 to 7 of the Act, as the petitioner was not running a brothel house, nor did he allow his premises to be used as a brothel house. The petitioner is not alleged to be living on the earnings of prostitution. It is also not the case of the prosecution that the petitioner was procuring or inducing any person for the sake of prostitution, nor is it the case of the prosecution that any person was earning on the premises where prostitution is carried out."*

30. Similarly, the Andhra Pradesh High Court, in the case of Nartu Rambabu (supra), relying upon the judgement in Goenka Sajan Kumar (supra), observed in paragraph No.8 that when a person visits a brothel as a customer, then he is not liable for prosecution for the offence u/s 3/4/5 of the Act.

31. In view of the above analysis, this Court is of the view that if a person visits a brothel, then, at the most, he may be said to be a procurer of a prostitute to satisfy his lust but not for the purpose of prostitution because acquiring a person for prostitution means sexual exploitation or abuse for commercial purposes and not for any other purpose which does not have any commercial purpose or earning money. Therefore, this Court answered both the questions raised in this case. First, a search conducted in violation of Section 15(2) of the Act can be said to be irregular but this ground cannot be the basis for quashing the impugned proceeding u/s 482 Cr.P.C. Still, this ground is available during trial, which can be decided on the basis of evidence, which may ultimately make the search doubtful. Second, a customer who visits the brothel will not be liable u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act.

32. In view of the above analysis, this Court holds that no case u/s 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act is made out against the present applicant, therefore, the impugned proceeding of the Case No. 426 of 2007 (State vs. Rashmi Srivstava & others), arising out of Case Crime No. 137 of 2006, under Sections 3/4/5/7/8/9 of the Act, P.S. Sarojini Nagar, District Lucknow, pending before Judicial Magistrate - III, Lucknow, is hereby quashed.

33. Accordingly, the application is allowed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 653
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal No. 1 of 2024

Bank of India, Mumbai & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
Sahajanand Rai & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Ms. Vatsala

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., Sri Sanjay Kumar Rai, Sri Vijay Chandra, Sri Ashok Khare

A. Service Law – Pensionary Benefits – Bank of India (Employees') Pension Regulations, 1995 – Memorandum of Settlement, 2002 – Respondent, a Cashier-cum-Clerk, removed from service under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, claimed pensionary benefits – Clause 6(b) allows superannuation benefits (pension, provident fund, gratuity) to employees removed for gross misconduct, contrary to Regulation 22, which mandates forfeiture of past service upon removal – Held, Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, overrides Regulation 22, entitling the respondent to superannuation benefits, including pension, if otherwise eligible with 10 years of qualifying service – Supreme Court's ruling in Bank of Baroda followed, affirming that denying pension would render Clause 6(b) a fraud settlement – Respondent entitled to pension and leave encashment. (Paras 6, 7, 12, 15, 22, 27, 29, 30)

B. Service Law – Settlement, 2010 – Option to Join Pension Scheme – Settlement, 2010, extended an option to join the pension scheme to employees who served before specified cut-off dates, retired, or died in service – Respondent, removed under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, exercised option to join pension scheme – Bank's Circular dated 24.08.2010, excluding removed employees from the pension option, challenged – Held, denying the pension option to an employee entitled to superannuation benefits under Clause 6(b) is impermissible and arbitrary – Respondent, treated at par with other employees entitled to superannuation benefits, eligible to opt for pension under Settlement, 2010. (Paras 9, 10, 17, 24, 26, 27)

C. Service Law – Interpretation of Settlements – Beneficent Construction – Settlements of 2002 and 2010 are binding agreements between the bank and employees, intended to benefit employees – Narrow interpretation excluding removed employees from pension benefits under Settlement, 2010, would contravene the intent of Clause 6(b) of Settlement, 2002 – Held, settlements must be liberally construed to ensure superannuation benefits, including pension and leave encashment, are extended to employees removed under Clause 6(b), consistent with Bank of Baroda – Bank's reliance on UCO Bank distinguished as it predates Settlement, 2002. (Paras 17, 23, 27, 28, 29)

Special Appeal Dismissed – Respondent Entitled to Pension and Leave Encashment.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Bank of Baroda Vs S.K. Kool (Dead) through Legal Representatives & anr., (2014) 2 SCC 715

2. UCO Bank & ors. Vs Sanwar Mal, (2004) 4 SCC 412

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. This intra-court appeal arises out of an order passed by the learned Single Judge, dated 22nd March, 2023, in Writ-A No. 53237 of 2014 whereby the writ petition has been allowed and the respondent-petitioner is held entitled to retiral benefits in light of Clause 6(b) of Memorandum of Settlement, dated 10.4.2002 (hereinafter referred to as 'Settlement, 2002'), notwithstanding a contrary circular issued by the Bank. Reliance is placed upon the judgment of the Supreme Court in Bank of Baroda Vs. S.K. Kool (Dead) through Legal Representatives and another, (2014) 2 SCC 715, to allow the claim of respondent-petitioner.

2. Facts admitted on record are that the respondent-petitioner was employed as Cashier-cum-Clerk in the appellant Bank of India. He was proceeded with departmentally on various charges and ultimately an order of punishment came to be passed against him on 19.9.2002, directing his removal from the service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002. This order of punishment was unsuccessfully challenged by the respondent and ultimately his Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) No. 30627 of 2010 got dismissed on 15.11.2010.

3. Pensionary benefits to the employees of bank were governed by the provisions of Bank of India (Employees') Pension Regulations, 1995 (hereinafter referred to as 'Pension Regulations, 1995'). Regulation 2(t) of the Pension Regulations of 1995 defined 'pension' to include the basic pension and additional pension referred to in Chapter VI of the Pension Regulations, 1995. Pensioner meant an employee eligible for pension under the Pension Regulations, 1995. Qualifying service has been defined under Regulation 2(w) and together with Regulation 14 provides it to mean a minimum of 10 years of service in the Bank on the date of his retirement.

4. Regulation 22 of the Pension Regulations, 1995 provided that resignation or dismissal or removal or termination of an employee from the service of the Bank shall entail forfeiture of his entire past services and consequently shall not qualify for pensionary benefits. Regulation 2(y) defined retirement to mean cessation from Bank's service on (a) attaining the age of superannuation specified in Service Regulations or Settlements; (b) voluntary retirement in accordance with provisions contained in Regulation 29; (c) on premature retirement by the Bank before attaining the age of superannuation specified in Service Regulations or Settlement.

5. In terms of the provisions of Pension Regulations, 1995, an employee who is removed from service would have his entire past service forfeited under Pension Regulations, 1995 and shall not qualify for pensionary benefits.

6. It transpires that the Settlement, 2002, entered into between the bank and its employees however provided for a course distinct from the scheme contemplated in the Pension Regulations, 1995. Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, is relevant and is reproduced hereinafter:-

"6. An employee found guilty of gross misconduct may;

(a)……

(b) be removed from service with superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and /or Provident Fund and Gratuity as would be due otherwise under the Rules or Regulations prevailing at the relevant time and without disqualification from future employment, or."

7. Appellant was punished vide order dated 19.9.2002 in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, and, therefore, notwithstanding his removal from service the respondent became entitled to superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity as would otherwise be due under the Rules or Regulations prevailing at the relevant time and without disqualification from future employment.

8. At the time of removal of respondent from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, there existed a scheme of Contributory Provident Fund for the employees of the Bank. An earlier Memorandum of Settlement, dated 29th October, 1993 was arrived at, as per which, pension in lieu of Contributory Provident Fund was introduced, in respect of the employees who opted for the said pension scheme.

9. A representation was made by the united forum of Bank Unions for an option to be extended to those employees who were in the employment of Bank prior to 29th September, 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks and 26th March, 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India. The talks between management and Union ultimately lead to a fresh settlement notified on 27th April, 2010 (hereinafter referred to as 'Settlement, 2010'). Settlement, 2010 gave another option to the employees of Bank to join existing pension scheme to the specified category of employees. Clause 2 and 4 of the terms of settlement are relevant and are reproduced hereinafter:-

"(2) Another option for joining the existing Pension Scheme shall be extended to those employees who:-

(I) (a) were in the service of the bank prior to 29 September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks/26 March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India and continue in the service of the bank on the date of this Settlement;

(b) exercise an option in writing within 60 days from the date of offer, to become a member of the Pension Fund and

(c) authorise the Trust of the Provident Fund of the bank to transfer the entire contribution of the bank along with interest accrued thereon to the credit of the Pension Fund.

(II) (a) were in service of the bank prior to 29th September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks/26th March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India and retired after that date and prior to the date of this Settlement;

(b) exercise an option in writing within 60 days from the date of offer to become a member of the Pension Fund and

(c) refund within 30 days after expiry of the said period of 60 days, the entire amount of the banks contribution to the Provident Fund and interest accrued thereon received by the employee on retirement together with his share in contribution towards meeting 30% of Rs.3115 crores which is estimated and reckoned as the funding gap for those eligible under Clause 2(II), 2(III) and 2(IV) of this agreement. On an individual basis, the payment over and above the bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon has been worked out at 56% of the said amount of bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon received by the employee on retirement.

(III) The family of those employees who were in the service of the bank prior to 29th September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks/26th March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India retired after that date and died will be eligible for family pension, provided-

(a) the family of the deceased employee exercises option in writing within 60 days of the offer to become a member of the Pension Fund and

(b) refund within 30 days after expiry of the said period of 60 days, the entire amount of the bank's contribution to the Provident Fund and interest accrued thereon received by the deceased employee on retirement together with his share in contribution towards meeting 30% of Rs.3115 crores which is estimated and reckoned as the funding gap for those eligible under Clause 2(II), 2 (III) and 2(IV) of this agreement. On an individual basis, the payment over and above the bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon has been worked out at 56% of the said amount of bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon received by the employee on retirement.

(IV) The family of those employees who were in the service of the bank prior to 29th September 1995 in case of Nationalized Banks / 26th March 1996 in case of Associate Banks of State Bank of India, but have died while in service of the bank after that date will be eligible for family pension, provided –

(a) the family of the deceased employee exercises an option in writing within 60 days of the offer to become a member of the Pension Fund and

(b) refund within 30 days after expiry of the said period of 60 days mentioned above, the entire amount of the bank's contribution to the Provident Fund and interest accrued thereon received upon death of the employee together with his share in contribution towards meeting 30% of Rs.3115 crores which is estimated and reckoned as the funding gap for those eligible under Clause 2(II), 2(III) and 2(IV) of this agreement On an individual basis, the payment over and above the bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon has been worked out at 56% of the said amount of bank's contribution to Provident Fund and interest thereon received on death of the employee."

10. The petitioner invoked the provisions of the Settlement, 2010 and submitted an option to receive pension vide his letter dated 1.10.2010. He also claimed benefit of leave encashment. Such claim of the respondent-petitioner came to be rejected by the Bank of India vide its order dated 13.10.2010. Clause 3 of the Circular, dated 24.8.2010, has been relied upon by the Bank for rejection of the claim of respondent, which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"3. It also may be noted that the employees who have ceased to be in the service of Bank on account of Resignation / Voluntarily retired under officer's Service Regulation 19/ Incapacitation / on medical grounds/any other type of cessation on account of penalty proceedings are not eligible to opt for joining the Pension Scheme. Also existing Pension optees cannot revoke their option from Pension to CPF"

11. Aggrieved by the rejection of his claim to opt for pension scheme the respondent filed Writ Petition No. 53237 of 2014. Orders passed by the authority rejecting petitioner's claim dated 13.10.2010, as affirmed by the Regional Deputy Manager on 11.8.2014, were challenged. Para 3 of the Circular, dated 24.8.2010 also was put to challenge. A prayer was made to direct the Bank to release pension from 20th September, 2002 alongwith arrears within time to be specified by this Court.

12. A question arose as to whether pensionary benefits would be admissible to an employee of the Bank, who has put in 10 years qualifying service, if an order of removal has been passed against him in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002. This was because Regulation 22 of the Pension Regulations, 1995 clearly dis-entitled an employee from pension whereas Clause 6(b) protected superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and/or Provident Fund. The issue was specifically examined in para 13 to 17 of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Bank of Baroda (supra). The Court examined the intent of the Bipartite Settlement and emphatically held that if Regulation 22 of the Pension Regulation, 1995, providing for forfeiture of service is to prevail then Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002 would clearly be a fraud settlement. Para 13 to 17 of the judgment in Bank of Baroda (supra) are reproduced hereinafter:

"13. Regulation 22 of the Regulations, which is relied on to deny the claim of the employee reads as follows:

"22. Forfeiture of service.—(1) Resignation or dismissal or removal or termination of an employee from the service of the Bank shall entail for forfeiture of his entire past service and consequently shall not qualify for pensionary benefits."

From a plain reading of the aforesaid Regulation, it is evident that removal of an employee shall entail forfeiture of his entire past service and consequently such an employee shall not qualify for pensionary benefits. If we accept this submission, no employee removed from service in any event would be entitled for pensionary benefits. But the fact of the matter is that the Bipartite Settlement provides for removal from service with pensionary benefits "as would be due otherwise under the rules or regulations prevailing at the relevant time". The consequence of this construction would be that the words quoted above shall become a dead letter. Such a construction has to be avoided.

14. The Regulations do not entitle every employee to pensionary benefits. Its application and eligibility is provided under Chapter II of the Regulations whereas Chapter IV deals with qualifying service. An employee who has rendered a minimum of ten years of service and fulfils other conditions only can qualify for pension in terms of Regulation 14 of the Regulations. Therefore, the expression "as would be due otherwise" would mean only such employees who are eligible and have put in minimum number of years of service to qualify for pension. However, such of the employees who are not eligible and have not put in required number of years of qualifying service shall not be entitled to the superannuation benefits though removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Bipartite Settlement. Clause 6(b) came to be inserted as one of the punishments on account of the Bipartite Settlement. It provides for payment of superannuation benefits as would be due otherwise.

15. The Bipartite Settlement tends to provide a punishment which gives superannuation benefits otherwise due. The construction canvassed by the employer shall give nothing to the employees in any event. Will it not be a fraud Bipartite Settlement? Obviously it would be. From the conspectus of what we have observed we have no doubt that such of the employees who are otherwise eligible for superannuation benefit are removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Bipartite Settlement shall be entitled to superannuation benefits. This is the only construction which would harmonise the two provisions. It is well-settled rule of construction that in case of apparent conflict between the two provisions, they should be so interpreted that the effect is given to both. Hence, we are of the opinion that such of the employees who are otherwise entitled to superannuation benefits under the Regulations if visited with the penalty of removal from service with superannuation benefits shall be entitled for those benefits and such of the employees though visited with the same penalty but are not eligible for superannuation benefits under the Regulations shall not be entitled to that.

16. Accordingly, we hold that the employee's heirs are entitled to superannuation benefits. The entire amount that the respondent is found entitled to along with interest @ 6% per annum should be disbursed within 6 weeks from the date of receipt/communication of this order.

17. In the result, we do not find any merit in this appeal and it is dismissed accordingly with costs of Rs 50,000 (Rupees fifty thousand) to be paid by the appellant to Respondent 1 along with other dues and within the time stipulated above."

13. In view of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in Bank of Baroda (supra), the superannuation benefits in the form of Contributory Provident Fund have been paid to the respondent. A supplementary affidavit has been filed by the Senior Manager of the Bank clearly acknowledging the payment made to respondent of contributory pension scheme.

14. From the facts brought on record it is, therefore, admitted to the appellant Bank that in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, as interpreted by the Supreme Court in Bank of Baroda (supra) the respondent was entitled to superannuation benefits and such benefits in terms of the earlier scheme i.e. contributory provident fund was actually paid to the respondent.

15. The short question that then arises in the facts of the case is as to whether the option extended in the Settlement, 2010, to opt for pension would be available to the respondent, or not?

16. Ms. Vatsala appearing for the Bank submits that the Settlement, 2010, restricts the benefit of scheme only to retired employees or to those who have voluntarily retired from service. The option to be exercised for pension was not available to an employee of the Bank who had been removed from service. Clause 3 of the Circular of the Bank is also relied upon, as per which, the benefit to opt for pension would only be available to those who have retired and not to those who have been terminated or removed from service by way of punishment.

17. Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Counsel, per contra, submits that Cause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, clearly extends superannuation benefits also to an employee who has been removed from service. It is, therefore, submitted that the status of a removed employee would be at par with any other retired employee who is entitled to superannuation benefits. It is urged that there is no cogent reason to exclude an employee from the benefit of the Settlement of 2010 who has been removed from service under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, when superannuation benefits have otherwise been extended to him under the Settlement.

18. Learned Senior Counsel submits that if the Settlement of 2010 is interpreted in the manner suggested by the appellant then an employee removed under Clause 6(b) would be dis-entitled to superannuation benefits like Pension/Provide Fund which are otherwise protected under the Settlement of 2002. Sri Khare, therefore, submits that the judgment of learned Single Judge suffers from no infirmity in law and the instant special appeal lacks merit.

19. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the provisions of the Pension Regulation, 1995; Settlement, 2002 as well as Settlement, 2010. Circular issued by the Bank on 24.8.2010 interpreting the Settlement of 2010 has also been perused by us.

20. It is undisputed that respondent was removed from service under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002. Clause 6(b) clearly provides that an employee found guilty of gross misconduct may be removed from service with superannuation benefits i.e. Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity as would be due otherwise under the Rules or Regulations prevailing at the relevant time and without disqualification from future employment. Clause 6(b) is unique, inasmuch as, it empowers the employer to remove an employee without natural consequences of it allowed as per service jurisprudence i.e. forfeiture of past service. But for the Settlement, 2002, the Pension Regulations, 1995 would have applied and consequently on account of removal from service the respondent would have been denied superannuation benefits. However, in view of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement, 2002, the respondent has been held entitled to superannuation benefits. Such superannuation benefit in the form of contributory provident fund alone was payable since the respondent had not opted for pension, etc. In the event he had opted for pension earlier he would have been entitled to it. The entitlement of respondent to superannuation benefits is thus admitted to the Bank.

21. It is in this context that we are to examine as to whether the right created in a bank employee to opt for pension could be denied to an employee who has been removed from service under clause 6(b) of the Settlement of 2002?

22. In Bank of Baroda (supra), the Supreme Court has clearly held that the employees who are otherwise eligible for superannuation benefit, if are removed from service in terms of Clause 6(b) of the Settlement of 2002, shall be entitled to superannuation benefits.

23. We have perused the Pension Regulations, 1995, which contemplates payment of pension to an employee who has retired from service. Retirement has been defined under Regulation 2(y) of the Pension Regulations, 1995 to mean cessation from Bank's service on attaining the age of superannuation specified in Service Regulations or Settlements; on voluntary retirement in accordance with provisions contained in Regulation 29 of the Regulation; on premature retirement by the Bank before attaining the age of superannuation. Under the Pension Regulations, 1995, no pension is payable to an employee, who is removed from service. The right to receive pension to an employee removed from service flows from the Settlement of 2002. The Settlement of 2002 will have an overriding effect, inasmuch as, the settlement mandatorily binds the employer and employee alike. The settlement of 2002 cannot be read in a manner so as to deny its benefit to an employee contrary to the express stipulations made therein.

24. Once the Settlement of 2002 allows superannuation benefits in the form of Pension and/or Provident Fund and Gratuity to an employee removed from service under Clause 6(b), it would not be open for the employer to contend that option to opt for pension can be denied to someone who is otherwise entitled to superannuation benefits.

25. The Settlement of 2010 extends option to opt for pension scheme to the employees; (i) who were in employment on the cut-off date and were in service of the bank on the date of settlement; (ii) were in service of the bank on the cut-off date and retired after that date and prior to the date of settlement; (iii) to employees who were in service of the bank on the cut-off date and retired after that date and died would be entitled to family pension; (iv) employees in employment of Bank on the cut-off date but have died while in service of the Bank after that date are also entitled to family pension.

26. Clause 4 extended the benefit of pension to those who voluntarily retired under special scheme provided they had worked for 15 years. This clause apparently will not apply in the case of the respondent-petitioner since his period of working is less than 15 years and he has otherwise not retired voluntarily. Clause 2(ii) of the Settlement, 2010, however, would be applicable in the present case as the respondent had completed the requisite qualifying service and became entitled to superannuation benefits in terms of Settlement of 2002. The Settlement of 2010 is otherwise a beneficent provision introduced for the advancement of the cause of employees of the Bank and its provisions will have to be liberally construed. The option to opt for Pension Regulations under the Settlement of 2010 is seen to have been extended to all category of employees who are otherwise entitled to superannuation benefits. Denial of the option to the respondent to opt for pension virtually eliminates him from the category of persons who are entitled to superannuation benefits. This would be impermissible and arbitrary.

27. Once Clause 6(b) of the Settlement of 2002 allows superannuation benefits to an employee removed from service he will have to be treated at par with any other employee of the Bank who is entitled to superannuation benefits. Any other construction would clearly go against the express terms and intent of the settlement arrived at between the Bank and its employees. Such construction would also go contrary to the spirit of the rights recognized in an employee removed from service under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement of 2002 by the Supreme Court in Bank of Baroda (supra).

28. Ms. Vatsala has placed reliance upon a judgment of the Supreme Court in UCO Bank and others Vs. Sanwar Mal, (2004) 4 SCC 412. This judgment although interpreted Regulation 22 but had not taken note of the settlement of 2002 which subsequently came to be arrived at between the employees and the Bank. Clause 6(b) of 2002 Settlement, with which we are concerned, did not fall for consideration in UCO Bank (supra). The ratio of law laid down by the Supreme Court in UCO Bank (supra) relying upon Clause 22 of the Pension Regulations, 1995, would thus not have any relevance in the present controversy.

29. Having examined the respective submissions advanced at the bar, we are of the considered view that the superannuation benefits including pension, etc., made admissible to an employee removed from service under Clause 6(b) of the Settlement of 2002 ought not to be interpreted in a narrow sense. It ought to be given a construction consisting with the nature of settlement i.e. beneficent for the employee. Any narrow construction would not subserve the objective of the Settlement of 2002. We, therefore, find ourselves to be in agreement with the view expressed by the learned Single Judge in extending offer to the respondent to opt for pension upon terms indicated in the Settlement of 2002. The appeal filed by the Bank, accordingly, fails.

30. We are inclined to take similar view in the matter of leave encashment also as under the applicable regulations and circular of the Bank leave encashment is admissible to an employee who is entitled to superannuation benefits and pension. Once we hold that the respondent is entitled to opt for pension under the Settlement of 2010, and has otherwise been extended superannuation benefits in the form of Contributory Provident Fund, there would be no good ground to deny the benefit of leave encashment to the respondent. No applicable provision of law is shown which dis-entitles the respondent to payment of leave encashment notwithstanding the Settlement of 2002.

31. For the reasons and discussions held above, this appeal fails and is, consequently, dismissed. Costs made easy.

(2024) 2 ILRA 661
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 08.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal Defective No. 57 of 2024

Bhagwan Singh ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Akash Khare

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Seasonal Collection Peon – Denial of Engagement – Appellant, a Seasonal Collection Peon, challenged the dismissal of his writ petition seeking restoration of services and payment of salary – Respondents allegedly overlooked his seniority (serial no. 187) and engaged juniors based on a complaint against him – Learned Single Judge dismissed the writ petition, relying on unverified allegations in the complaint – Held, allegations in a complaint cannot be treated as adjudicated facts without verification or formal inquiry – No counter affidavit was invited, nor was the appellant's appointment legality examined – Learned Single Judge's findings on appellant's minority or criminal antecedents unsustainable without evidence – Writ petition dismissal set aside. (Paras 2, 3, 4)

B. Service Law – Natural Justice – Adjudication Requirement – Denial of appellant's engagement as Seasonal Collection Peon based on unverified complaint violates principles of natural justice – Held, competent authority must examine the appellant's claim regarding denial of work and seniority – No conclusion can be drawn from a private complaint without formal adjudication or verification of allegations – Respondent no. 3 directed to consider appellant's claim and pass a reasoned order within two months. (Paras 4, 5)

Special Appeal Allowed – Writ Petition Order Set Aside – Matter Remanded for Consideration.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.
&
Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

Order on Delay Condonation Application

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. Reasons for delay in filing the special appeal have been satisfactorily explained. Delay Condonation Application is consequently allowed. Office is directed to treat the appeal as having been filed within time. Regular Number would be allotted to the appeal.

Order on Special Appeal

1. Appellant filed the writ petition before the learned Single Judge with the prayer to direct the respondent authorities to restore his services as Seasonal Collection Peon in Tehsil Kiraoli, District-Agra and pay his salary month to month within some period to be fixed by this Court. In the writ petition, the petitioner stated that he was placed at serial no.187 and the authorities by ignoring his seniority have proceeded to engage others who were much junior to him, overlooking his claim. It was alleged that on account of some motivated complaint, the authorities were not allowing the petitioner to work.

2. Learned Single Judge has dismissed the writ petition after taking note of the contents of the complaint made against him. Learned Single Judge has observed that the allegations made in the complaint since are not disputed, as such the ouster of the name of the petitioner from the list of Seasonal Collection Peon seems to be justified.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the allegations made in the complaint cannot be treated to be an adjudication on the charges levelled against him and without adverting to the veracity of the allegations made in the complaint, the petitioner cannot be held dis-entitled to continue as Seasonal Collection Peon.

4. We find substance in the argument advanced on behalf of the appellant that in the absence of any adjudication, the allegations made in the complaint cannot be treated as correct. There is nothing on record to show that any of the authorities have examined the legality of the appointment offered to the appellant nor the appellant's claim regarding denial of work has so far been attended to by the competent authority. Learned Single Judge could not have drawn conclusion from the allegations contained in the complaint even if the petitioner had not elaborately explained the allegations in the writ. Further, the findings returned by the learned Single Judge holding appellant-petitioner to be minor at the time of appointment or having criminal antecedents could not be returned on the basis of a complaint made by some private person. Neither any counter affidavit was invited in the writ nor the averments made in the complaint were verified. Consequently and for the reasons narrated above, the judgment and order passed by learned Single Judge on 17.08.2023 cannot be approved. The order of learned Single Judge dated 17.08.2023 is set aside.

5. The writ petition and the Special Appeal both are disposed of with a direction upon the respondent no.3 to accord consideration to petitioner's claim with regard to denial of engagement as Seasonal Collection Peon overlooking his seniority, by passing a reasoned order within a period of two months.

(2024) 2 ILRA 663
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 16.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Writ - A No. 265 of 2024
And
Writ – A No. 268 of 2024

Sunil Kumar Pandey PNR No. 062018210 & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
M.P. Raju

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Service Law – U.P. Police Regulations – Rule 523 – Transfer and Relieving Orders – Petitioners challenged transfer orders dated 05.06.2023 and 27.05.2023, and relieving orders dated 14.11.2023, 06.11.2023, and 15.12.2023, alleging non-compliance with Rule 523 requiring relieving within 10 days of transfer – Held, delayed relieving orders violate Rule 523, reflecting arbitrariness and non-uniform policy application – Param Singh Vs St. of U.P. followed, emphasizing adherence to transfer policy unless justified by recorded reasons – Judicial restraint in interfering with policy decisions reiterated, but non-compliance with regulations warrants intervention – Director General of Police directed to investigate non-compliance with Rule 523, report district-wise violations within 60 days, and propose punitive actions – Relieving orders stayed until 30.04.2024, petitioners to join new postings within a week thereafter – Uniform transfer policy implementation emphasized for transparency and accountability. (Para 12-28)

Writ petitions disposed of.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Sardaj Ali PNR No. 012642278 Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

2. Head Constable Harendra Kumar Ram Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

3. Head Constable Ravindra Kumar & ors. Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

4. Ainuddin PNR No. 912412830 Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

5. S.I. Surendra Kumar Dwivedi & ors. Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

6. Abhay Ram & anr.Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

7. Head Constable Shubhash Chandra Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

8. Anil Kumar & ors. Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

9. Ali Ahmad Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

10. Vitaralli Vs Seaton; (not fully cited in judgment)

11. A.S. Ahluwalia Vs St. of Pun.; (not fully cited in judgment)

12. Sukhdev Vs Bhagat Ram; (not fully cited in judgment)

13. Param Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P.; (not fully cited in judgment)

14. Breen Vs Amalgamated Engineering Union; (not fully cited in judgment)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. The facts of both the petitions are similar, and the prayers made thereof are also similar; therefore, both the petitions are being decided by this common judgment.

2. I have heard Shri M.P. Raju and Shri Anupam Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents in respective petitions, and perused the records.

3. The Writ-A No.265 of 2024 has been filed with a prayer to quash the impugned relieving order dated 14.11.2023 passed by the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Lucknow, as well as the transfer order dated 5.6.2023 passed by Deputy Inspector General of Police (Karmik), Lucknow. A further prayer has been made to direct the respondents to allow the petitioners to work on the present place of posting and pay their salary regularly every month.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners in the aforesaid writ petition submits that the impugned order dated 14.11.2023 passed in pursuance of the transfer order dated 5.6.2023 is illegal and arbitrary. The relieving order dated 14.11.2023 has been passed in defiance of Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations. The petitioners have also raised certain personal reasons for not complying with the impugned order dated 14.11.2023. He further submits that while issuing the transfer orders and thereafter relieving orders, no uniform policy has been adopted by the Department, and that is why the favoritism and non-application of mind are reflected in the impugned order. Learned counsel further states that Chapter XXXIV, Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations mandates the issuance of a relieving order within 10 days after the passing of the transfer order.

5. Another Writ-A No.268 of 2024 has been filed with the prayer to quash the impugned transfer order dated 27.5.2023 as well as relieving orders dated 6.11.2023 and 15.12.2023. A further prayer has been made to direct the respondents to permit the petitioners to discharge their duties at the present place of posting till academic session 2023-24 (April 2024).

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that the impugned order dated 14.11.2023 passed in pursuance of the transfer order dated 5.6.2022 is illegal and arbitrary. The relieving order dated 14.11.2023 has been passed in defiance of Chapter XXXIV, Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations. He further submits that while issuing the transfer orders, and therefore relieving orders, no uniform policy has been adopted by the Department, and that is why the favoritism and non-application of mind are reflected in the impugned order. Learned counsel further states that Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations mandates issuing a relieving order within 10 days after passing the transfer order.

7. In both the writ petitions, the learned counsel for the parties has drawn the attention of this Court to the Rule 523 of the Chapter XXXIV of the U.P. Police Regulations. Rule 523 contained in Chapter XXXIV of the U.P. Police Regulations is outlined herein under:

"On receipt of an order of transfer of a subordinate officer to another district the Superintendent will arrange to relieve him to his duties within.

Officers transferred are entitled to joining time, but the Superintendent may not grant leave to an officer under order of transfer.

An inspector relieved on transfer from another district is entitled to sign a certificate of taking over charge from the date of arrival in the new district. If the officers to be relieved cannot be present at headquarters, the charge certificate should be signed for him by the Superintendent of Police, or, in his absence, by an Assistant Superintendent of Police or Deputy Superintendent of Police. The effect of this will be that an officiating officer will be considered to have been reverted, and permanent incumbent's joining time or leave or discharge, will be counted from the date on which the relieving officer takes over charge"

8. Learned counsel for the petitioners has also relied upon the office order dated 7.6.2023 being no.9/2023/262/General/47-Ka-4-2023-(1/3/96) issued by Chief Secretary, Government of Uttar Pradesh and letter dated January 14, 2022 issued by the Director General of Police, Uttar Pradesh in which the parameters to regulate the transfer of the police officers/Head Constables/Constables have been discussed.

9. To fortify their argument, both the learned counsels for the petitioners have relied upon the series of orders passed by the co-ordinate Benches of this Court, whereby the transfer order has been either struck down by this Court on the similar ground of non-compliance of Rule 523 or because of the reasons that the transfer orders have been issued in the mid academic session of the petitioners' children. The details and gist of the orders annexed with the instant petitions are outlines hereinafter for illustrative purpose; (i) Sardaj Ali PNR No.012642278 v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary, Department of Home and others1; (ii) Head Constable Harendra Kumar Ram v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Home and another2; (iii) Head Constable Ravindra Kumar and 33 others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home and others3; (iv) Ainuddin PNR No. 912412830 v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home and others4; (v) S.I. Surendra Kumar Dwivedi and 2 others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow5; (vi) Abhay Ram and another v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow6; (vii) Head Constable Shubhash Chandra v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow and others7; (viii) Anil Kumar and others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow and others8; and (ix) Ali Ahmad v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow and others9.

10. The above-stated writ petitions have been disposed of/decided mainly on the ground either for non-compliance with the transfer policy issued from time to time by the government or floating of various government orders issued in this regard. For example, in *Sardaj Ali PNR No.012642278 v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary, Department of Home and others*1, the co-ordinate Bench of this Court stayed the transfer order apparently for non-compliance of the prior approval of the Chief Minister in pursuance of the government order dated 16.8.2022; in *Head Constable Harendra Kumar Ram v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Home and another*2, the transfer order has been kept in abeyance till academic session of the petitioner's son is over; in *Head Constable Ravindra Kumar and 33 others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home and others*3, the liberty was granted to 34 petitioners to file a fresh representation to the Director General Police Establishment for reconsideration of the transfer which was done in the mid academic session of the children even though the petitioner's had completed their postings ranging from 10-15 years at a particular station. Likewise, the co-ordinate Bench of this Court disposed of the case S.I. Surendra Kumar Dwivedi and 2 others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow5 in the following terms:

"Heard learned counsel for parties.

All the writ petitions have been clubbed together as the issue involved in these petitions is the same as to whether the authority was justified in relieving the petitioners after two years of the transfer order having been passed. The transfer order in all cases were passed in the year 2014, in spite of it, on account of administrative exigencies, the need for adequate number of personnel at Lucknow, which is the State capital, they could not be relieved. Normally considering the lapse of time the appropriate course for the respondents was to re-consider the matter and pass a fresh order of transfer as has been held by this Court in the judgment dated 6.7.2016 passed in writ petition no.15148 (SS) of 2016 which has been followed by a co-ordinate bench in writ petition no.15961 (SS) of 2016, therefore only for this reason while granting liberty to the respondents to have a fresh look at the matter and pass a fresh order expeditiously say within a period of 2 weeks, the impugned orders are hereby quashed.

All the writ petitions stand disposed of in the aforesaid terms."

11. Similarly, the case of *Anil Kumar and others v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary Department Home, Lucknow and others*8 was disposed of with the underlined observations:

"Be that as it may, since there is statutory prescription for relieving of a police officer within a period of ten days and this Court has condemned the delayed relieving of the police officers in various orders being passed by this Court in identical matter, therefore, the instant writ petition is disposed of finally quashing the impugned order dated 04.03.2020, so far as it relates to the petitioners, however, with liberty to the opposite parties to pass a fresh order of transfer, if exigency of service so requires, strictly in accordance with law and the transfer policy, particularly considering the aspect of mid session."

12. On perusal of the order passed by this court, it transpires that such non - non-compliance is frequent, and it seems the department has no concern to the orders passed by this Court. There seems to be no effect on the working of the department so far as the transfer of the police officers is concerned, and such non-compliance is frequent. The reasons for not giving adherence to the orders passed by this Court may be best known to the officers, but its apparently reflected that this is adversely affecting the working of the police force and impacting the State's interest.

13. The executive authority is bound by the norms, standards, and procedures laid down by it to regulate the police of the State. In this regard, Mr. Justice Frank Furter in Vitaralli v. Seaton10, enunciated the Rule as under:

"An executive agency must be rigorously held to the standards by which it professes its action to be judged..... Accordingly, if dismissal from employment is based on a defined procedure, even though generous beyond the requirements that bind such agency, that procedure must be scrupulously observed... This judicially evolved rule of administrative law is now firmly established and, if I may add, rightly so. He that takes the procedural sword shall perish with the sword."

14. The Supreme Court accepted the Rule as valid and applied in India in A.S. Ahluwalia v. State of Punjab11 and in the subsequent decision given in Sukhdev v. Bhagat Ram12. It may be noted that this Rule though supportable also as an emanation from Article 14, does not merely rest on that Article. It is an independent existence apart from Article 14. It is a rule of administrative law that has been judicially evolved as a check against the exercise of arbitrary power by the executive authority. It is indeed unthinkable that in a democracy governed by the rule of law, the executive government or any of its officers possesses arbitrary power over the interest of the individual. Every action of the executive government must be informed with reason and should be free from arbitrariness. That is the very essence of the rule of law and its bare minimum requirement13.

15. This Court in Param Singh and others v. State of U.P. and others14 has discussed the legal framework with regard to the transfer of the government servant. Transfer is a condition of service, and a government servant has no vested right to remain posted at the place of his/her choice. The court should not interfere with the transfer order, which is made in the public interest and for administrative reasons, unless an order of transfer is shown to be the outcome of a malafide exercise or stated to be in violation of statutory provisions prohibiting any such transfer. For clarity, para 18, 19, 26, 28 & 31 of the judgement are extracted herein under:

"18. Guided by the settled principles of law, referred above, we find that the appellants are members of a disciplined force, therefore, they are not expected to disobey the order of their transfer and if they have some personal problem or the transfer has been passed against the transfer policy, it is open to them to move a representation to the appropriate authority for redressal of their grievance. In case it is found that they have some personal problem, the authorities ought to consider their grievance and pass appropriate order and shall make an endeavour to address the same. In the cases of genuine problems the representations of the Government employees should not be rejected mechanically.

19. It is true that if a transfer order is passed in violation of administrative order/transfer policy, it does not confer a vested right to the Government employee to challenge it but at the same time, as observed by the Supreme Court in the abovementioned cases, while transferring the Government employee the authority concerned should keep in mind the transfer policy and the executive orders.

*****

26. A policy/policy decision/policy matter is made by Government after considering all the points from different angles, while framing the policy the Government also takes into consideration the administrative efficiency and other incidental matters. Once the Government takes a policy decision, it is obligatory on its officials to execute its policy in the right earnest and to achieve the objects of the policy. The rule of the law casts a duty on the administrative functionaries to act within the framework of the law, be it law made by the legislature, subordinate legislation or executive orders issued under Article 73 and 162 of the Constitution. They are also obliged to follow the circulars/memos and instructions issued by the Government. In the matter of policy decision of the Government, it is trite that Courts, in exercise of their jurisdiction, will not transgress into the field of policy decision. Court's interference is called for only on limited grounds, when it suffers from unreasonableness, arbitrariness or it is beyond legislative power or is beyond constitutional limits or public policy or against statutory provision. If the Courts have treated the policy/policy decision/policy matter on such a high pedestal then Government's own employees/officials cannot be allowed to breach and ignore its order with impunity.

*****

28. In our view, the Government is bound by its policy. However, if for some reasons due to administrative exigency or public interest it becomes necessary to deviate from it then proper course is to record brief reasons at best on the file to justify the deviation from the policy. Earlier, the traditional view in England was that executive is not answerable where its action was attributed to administrative functions. Lord Denning MR. in Breen v. Amalgamated Engineering Union (now Amalgamated Engineering and Foundry Workers Union)15, observed thus:

"The giving of reasons is one of the fundamentals of good administration."

*****

31. In the light of above discussion, it is demonstrably clear that even if a transfer order is found to be in violation of executive instructions or orders, Courts ordinarily should not interfere instead the affected party may approach higher authorities in the department. But if a transfer order is passed in administrative exigency or public interest and is in violation of transfer policy of the Government, then the competent authority must record brief reasons in the file for deviation from transfer policy. It is not necessary to mention said reason in transfer order. The recording of reason shall check arbitrary exercise of power and will help the judicial process and by superior administrative heads if the order is challenged by affected person."

16. Government policy decisions are often formulated after extensive deliberation, taking into account various considerations such as public interest, administrative efficiency, and legal framework. Once a policy is formulated, it becomes imperative for government officials to adhere to and implement it diligently.

17. However, administrative discretion is not absolute and must be exercised within the confines of legal principles and constitutional constraints. The rule of law imposes limitations on the exercise of administrative discretion, ensuring that government actions are consistent with statutory provisions, constitutional norms, and principles of fairness and reasonableness. Thus, while government officials enjoy a degree of autonomy in decision-making, they are bound by legal norms and are accountable for their actions.

18. There is another aspect of this case: this Court is flooded with similar nature of petitions every day, wherein transfer orders are challenged on the ground of contravention of Rule 523 of the Uttar Pradesh Police Regulations by the officers, and this is affecting the working of the police and undermining the morale of the police force.

19. In a State like Uttar Pradesh, which has the largest single police force in the country, covers an approximate area of 243.286 square kilometres and a population of over 20 crores approximately (as per Sensex 2011). The State has a force of approximately 3.10 lakh personnel spread over 75 districts and 33 armed battalions. The transfer and posting of police officers within the Government Department is crucially an administrative decision that significantly impacts law enforcement agencies' efficiency and effectiveness. These decisions are often subject to the discretion of the higher authorities, keeping in view the operational and administrative requirements, and the absence of a uniform and consistent approach in making such decisions may lead to various legal, administrative, and operational challenges.

20. The uniformity and consistency in the transfer and posting of police officers are essentially for promoting transparency, fairness, and accountability within the police force. When decisions are standardized, it helps prevent favoritism, nepotism and other arbitrary considerations that could compromise the integrity of force. Additionally, a uniform approach fosters a sense of trust and confidence among the rank and file, attributing to a more coercive and disciplined police force.

21. The inconsistency in the transfer and posting of police officers can have a detrimental effect on the administrative and operational capabilities of the police. Arbitrary transfers and non-compliance with rules, regulations and policies formed by the Government by the Officer-in-charge and responsible for making such transfers hinder effective community policing and diminish morale among officers.

22. This Court noticed that the provisions of U.P. Police Regulations have been regularly either ignored or violated to protect the interest of desired or chosen candidates. It is also noticed that over a period of time, in many cases, it has made a practice that the provisions of U.P. Police Regulations are not followed in many aspects; one of the potential reasons could be either the officers are not aware of the provisions of Police Regulations and government policies issued time to time or the officers have sometimes vested interest.

23. Administrative discretion is vital for effective governance; it must be exercised within the bounds of legal norms and constitutional principles. While judicial review serves as a crucial mechanism for upholding the rule of law and ensuring accountability in government actions. However, courts should exercise restraint and deference in reviewing government policies, recognizing the expertise and autonomy of the executive branch. Ultimately, striking a balance between administrative discretion and the rule of law is essential to maintain the integrity and legitimacy of government decision-making processes.

24. Courts are hesitant to interfere in matters of policy formulation unless there are compelling reasons to do so. Grounds for judicial intervention typically include instances where government actions are arbitrary, unreasonable, ultra vires, or contrary to public policy or its own circulars and regulations. Courts may also intervene if government policies infringe upon fundamental rights or violate statutory provisions.

25. Therefore, in view of the foregoing discussions, the Director General of Police, U.P., Lucknow, is directed to examine the reasons for non-compliance with Rule 523 of U.P. Police Regulations and place a report before the Government to take immediate and effective steps to issue appropriate directions or circulars to the police officers responsible for issuing the transfer and relieving orders. The Director General of Police shall indicate in its report, the number of cases- district-wise, wherein the compliance of Rule 523 of U.P. Police Regulation has not been observed by the Officer-in-charge in letter and spirit in the last one year, and shall also propose potential punitive actions against the erring officers. The said exercise by the Director General of Police shall be concluded within 60 days from the date of the order and submit a report to the Government, accordingly, then after that the Government shall issue well-structured directions/regulations to the police officers in a time bound manner to ensure that Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations is uniformly and consistently followed.

26. The Director General of Police shall also prepare a comprehensive list indicating the details of transfer orders passed by the Officer-in-charge in their respective jurisdiction in which no relieving order has been passed till date. The fate of such transfer orders, if any, shall be decided in accordance with Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulations, and if need be, a fresh transfer order be passed in accordance with the transfer policy and government orders issued from time to time in this regard.

27. Needless to say, if, for all practical and administrative reasons, Rule 523 of the U.P. Police Regulation cannot be implemented in letter and spirit, then the same shall be examined at the State level and needful be done accordingly. The consistently and uniformly implementing a transfer policy by executives would enhance transparency, accountability, and responsibility within police force.

28. Reverting back to the prayer made in (i) Writ-A No. 265 of 2024, it is directed that the impugned relieving order dated 14.11.2023 shall remain stayed till 30.4.2024, and the impact of the impugned order shall be revived immediately thereafter. The department shall be at liberty to proceed further in conformity with the transfer order dated 5.6.2023. The petitioners are further directed to report to the new place of posting as delineated in the transfer order within a week from 31.4.2024; and also in (ii) Writ-A No. 268 of 2024, it is directed that the impugned relieving order dated 6.11.2023 and 15.12.2023 arising out of transfer order dated 27.5.2023 and 4.11.2023 shall also remain stayed till 30.4.2024, and the impact of the impugned order shall be revived immediately thereafter. The department shall be at liberty to proceed further in conformity with the transfer order dated 27.5.2023 and 4.11.2023. The petitioners are further directed to report to the new place of posting as delineated in the transfer orders within a week from 31.4.2024.

29. The Registrar (Compliance) is directed to send a copy of this order to the Director General of Police for necessary compliance and take note of the observations deliberated herein above. A copy of this order will also be sent to the Chief Secretary, UP, for effective supervision and compliance.

30. The present petitions stand disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

(2024) 2 ILRA 671

APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: LUCKNOW 30.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ATTAU RAHMAN MASOODI, J.

THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Special Appeal No. 332 of 2023
Connected with
Special Appeal No. 330 of 2023
And other connected cases

Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University & Ors.
...Appellants

Versus

Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava & Anr.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Atul Kumar Dwivedi

Counsel for the Respondents:
Vijay Dixit, C.S.C.

Service Law – Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University (For Differently Abled) U.P. Act, 2009 – Sections 25 & 44 - U.P. Government Servants (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 – Termination of Services – Appellants challenged Single Judge's order dated 08.05.2023 and 24.05.2023 quashing termination/cancellation of respondents' appointments for lack of qualifications – Held, termination proceedings violated principles of natural justice and statutory provisions – University's adoption of Rules, 1999 mandated compliance, but no charge-sheet issued, no full enquiry report provided, and hearing by one committee with decision by another vitiated process – Whirlpool Corporation Vs Registrar of Trade Marks, Harbanslal Sahnia Vs Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd., and Godrej Sara Lee Ltd. Vs Excise and Taxation Officer followed, affirming writ maintainability despite alternative remedies due to natural justice violations – Section 44 protects selections despite procedural defects in committee constitution – Long service (7-8 years) without fraud or misrepresentation precludes cancellation, per Mohd. Abul Lash Vs St. of U.P., Nahar Singh Vs St. of U.P., and Sivanandan C.T. Vs High Court of Kerala – Termination tantamount to misconduct penalty, requiring adherence to Rules, 1999 and Statute 9.07 – Respondents' qualifications (e.g., M.Sc. equivalence to MCA, API scores, experience) upheld as sufficient – Back wages justified per Pradeep Vs Manganese Ore (India) Ltd. due to illegal termination without fault. (Para 16-59)

Special Appeals dismissed.

List of Cases Cited:

1. Whirlpool Corporation Vs Registrar of Trade Marks; (1998) 8 SCC 1

2. Harbanslal Sahnia Vs Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd.; (2003) 2 SCC 107

3. Godrej Sara Lee Ltd. Vs Excise and Taxation Officer; 2023 SCC OnLine SC 95

4. Union Public Service Commission Vs M. Sathiya Priya; (2018) 15 SCC 796

5. M.VS Thimmaiah Vs Union Public Service Commission; (2008) 2 SCC 119

6. Mohd. Abul Lash Vs St. of U.P.; Civil Appeal No. 37 of 2020, decided on 07.01.2020

7. Nahar Singh Vs St. of U.P.; Civil Appeal No. 3904 of 2013, decided on 14.07.2017

8. Savitri Devi Vs St. of U.P.; SLP (Civil) No. 14907/2009, decided on 07.01.2020

9. Tara Prasad Mishra Vs St. of U.P.; 1990 Vol. II UPLBEC 905

10. Nisha Devi Vs St. of H.P.; (2014) 16 SCC 392

11. Mahipal Singh Tomar Vs St. of U.P.; (2013) 16 SCC 771

12. M.P. St. Cooperative Bank Ltd. Vs Nanuram Yadav; (2007) 8 SCC 264

13. St. of Bihar Vs Lal Krishna Advani; (2008) 8 SCC 361

14. Deepak Anand Patil Vs St. of Mah.; 2023 SCC OnLine SC 34

15. Kuntest Gupta Vs Management of Hindu Kanya Mahavidhyalaya; (1987) 4 SCC 525

16. Bhavnagar University Vs Palitana Sugar Mill (Pvt.) Ltd.; (2003) 2 SCC 111

17. Tungabhadra Industries Ltd. Vs Government of Andhra Pradesh; AIR 1964 SC 1372

18. Dr. M.S. Mudhole Vs S.D. Halegkar; (1993) 3 SCC 591

19. Rekha Chaturvedi Vs University of Rajasthan; 1993 Supp (3) SCC 168

20. Gujarat St. Dy. Executive Engineers Association Vs St. of Gujarat; (1994) Supp (2) SCC 591

21. Buddhi Nath Chaudhary Vs Abahi Kumar; (2001) 3 SCC 328

22. Girjesh Shrivastava Vs St. of M.P.; (2010) 10 SCC 707

23. Vikas Pratap Singh Vs St. of Chhattisgarh; (2013) 14 SCC 494

24. Md. Zamil Ahmed Vs St. of Bihar; (2016) 12 SCC 342

25. Sivanandan C.T. Vs High Court of Kerala; 2023 SCC OnLine SC 994

26. Pradeep Vs Manganese Ore (India) Ltd.; (2022) 3 SCC 683

27. K.C. Joshi Vs U.O.I.; (1985) 3 SCC 153

28. Samsher Singh Vs St. of Pun.; (1974) 2 SCC 831

29. Anoop Jaiswal Vs Government of India; (1984) 2 SCC 369

30. Basavaiah (Dr.) Vs Dr. H.L. Ramesh; (2010) 8 SCC 372

31. Saurabh Pal Vs The Chancellor, Veer Bahadur; Civil Appeal No. 596 of 2008, decided on 22.01.2008

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

A. INTRODUCTION

(1) The present bunch of Special Appeals have been filed under Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952. The following five Special Appeals have been filed against a common judgment/order dated 08.05.2023 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ-A Nos. 4293 of 2022, 4316 of 2022, 4310 of 2022, 4307 of 2022 and 4312 of 2022:-

(i) Special Appeal No. 332/2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others V/s Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava & Anr.) ;

(ii) Special Appeal No. 333/2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others Vs. Dr. Adya Shakti Rai & Others);

(iii) Special Appeal No. 334/2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others V/s Avanish Chandra Mishra & Ors);

(iv) Special Appeal No. 335/2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others V/s Vipin Kumar Pandey & Ors); and

(v) Special Appeal No. 336/2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others V/s Mrutyunjaya Mishra & Ors).

However, Special Appeal No. 330 of 2023 (Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National rehabilitation University & others Vs. Alok Mishra & Anr.) although has been filed against judgment/order dated 24.05.2023 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ-A No.7046 of 2022, but on close scrutiny of the impugned judgment/order 24.05.2023, subject matter of Special Appeal No. 330 of 2023 would reveal that the impugned judgment/order daed 24.05.2023 is wholly premised and based on the common judgment/order dated 08.03.2023 (supra). Thus, all these Special Appeals have been taken up for hearing together and are being disposed of by this common order as the issues involved are common except to the aspect pertaining to their respective educational qualifications.

(2) The precincts of these special appeals lie in the challenge laid by these individuals to the termination/cancellation of their services/selection vide order dated 06.07.2022 by the appellants/University on common grounds of lack of essential qualification at the time of their selection with regard to their educational qualifications and/or experience in the year 2014.

B. FACTUAL MATRIX

(3) The facts delineated from the records would reveal that all the individual respondents are teachers having been selected in the Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University pursuant to the advertisement dated 17.02.2014. Apparently, these individuals/respondents submitted relevant documents with regard to their qualifications and experiences and also appeared before a Screening Committee, and subsequently appeared in the interview before the Selection Committee which recommended their candidature for appointment. The recommendations, thereafter, were placed before the Executive Council of the University, pursuant to which they were appointed and after being in probation, their services were confirmed and ever since then these private respondents have been continuing to render their services until their selections were cancelled by means of an order, which was impugned by these private respondents in the respective writ petitions filed before the learned Single Judge.

(4) According to the appellants/University, the orders of cancellation of selection have been passed by the Vice- Chancellor of Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University, Lucknow primarily for the reason that in the meeting of the General Body of the University, an enquiry was instituted against the previous Vice-Chancellor Dr Nishith Rai and all the charges against him were proved and he was found guilty of administrative and financial irregularities. As a consequence of that, the appellants/University after seeking legal opinion, decided that all the appointments made during Dr. Nishith Rai's tenure would be enquired on a case-to-case basis. It seems thereafter the Executive Committee of the University had appointed a three-member Committee, which has submitted its report, where it has been found that the appointments of the private respondents were made without following the rules of qualification, reservation etc. and most importantly, no approval was sought from the Visitor for appointment of the panel of experts and that these people were appointed despite the fact that they did not have the requisite qualification, experience, API score etc. which was contrary to the rules on the date of their selection.

(5) It has been further averred that the Executive Council in its 35th meeting held on 07.10.2021 decided to constitute a two member committee consisting of two retired Judges of the Hon'ble High Court to enquire into all the appointments made by the erstwhile Vice-Chancellor. The enquiry was conducted by the said Committee, who submitted their report, which was placed before the Executive Council and was duly approved in its 38th meeting. Pursuant to the aforesaid acceptance of the report, show cause notice was given to the individuals/respondents seeking their response. The response was placed before another committee consisting of a retired Hon'ble High Court Judge and subject specialist. The Committee, thereafter, made its recommendations on 9.6.2022 to the University, which was accepted by the Executive Committee. The Committee concluded that these private respondents apparently did not fulfil the prescribed qualifications on the date of the advertisement and hence their services were cancelled/ terminated. It was further provided by the University that on considering that all the private respondents have worked for a period of 6–7 years, they would be eligible to apply in the fresh advertisement which would be issued and in case they are selected, their pay and allowances would be protected. The said individuals termination/cancellation of selection letter was interdicted by the respondents/writ petitioners before the learned Single Judge, which passed a very detailed impugned judgment, discussing every aspect of the matter and concluded that the cancellation/ termination of these private respondents by the appellants/University was wrong and as such after quashing the individual impugned order of termination, also directed for reinstatement along with all consequential benefits including back wages from the date of termination vide a common impugned judgment/order dated 08.03.2023 (supra). It is this common judgment/order daed 08.03.2023 and of course, the judgment/order dated 24.05.2023 (supra) passed in the sixth special appeal, which are subject matter of these appeals.

(6) Heard Shri Sudeep Seth, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Atul Kumar Dwivedi, representing the appellants/ University, Shri Sandeep Dixit, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Vijay Dixit, representing the private respondent in Special Appeal No. 332 of 2023, Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned Counsel representing the private respondent in Special Appeal Nos.330, 333, 334 and 336 of 2023 and Dr. L.P. Mishra, learned Counsel representing the private respondent in Special Appeal No. 335 of 2023 as well as learned Standing Counsel representing the State.

C. ARGUMENTS

(7) The impugned judgment has been attacked by the learned Senior Counsel Mr. Sudeep Seth on multiple grounds. According to him, writ petition was not maintainable on the ground of availability of suitable efficacious remedy. It has been argued that the learned Single Judge has returned an incorrect finding/reasoning relating to (i) the applicability of U.P Government Servants (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 (hereinafter referred to as "Rules, 1999"), (ii) decision making process of the University on the pretext that decision was taken by the Executive Council, whereas hearing was afforded by another Committee, (iii) constitution of selection committee to be in violation of Section 25 of the Dr. Shakuntala Mishra National Rehabilitation University (For Differently Abled) Uttar Pradesh Act, 2009 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 2009"), (iv) selection of the writ petitioners having been cancelled as they lacked essential qualification required in the advertisement, (v) merely continuation in service for 6 to 7 years would not mean that the writ petitioners fulfilled the mandatory essential qualification, (vi) contradictory stand of entertaining the writ petition although accepting the availability of statutory remedy before the Visitor, (vii) finding returned in the impugned judgment relating to lack of qualification for appointment being a misconduct, so as to apply the procedure as prescribed under the UP Government Servants (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999, (viii) erroneous adjudication of the writ petition on the ground of termination from service rather than cancellation of their selection, (ix) incorrectly holding that in case of illegal selection of a candidate, charge-sheet, evidence and names of witness are required to be mentioned and detailed procedure of departmental enquiry has to be followed, (x) wrongly holding that complete enquiry report of two members committee (retired Judge of the Hon'ble High Court) was required to be given and supply of extract amounted to violation of principles of natural justice, (xi) the petitioner having been illegally appointed cannot be allowed to enjoy the status of member of the staff, so as to claim observance of the Rules, 1999 or the university statute or Article 311 of the Constitution, (xii) wrongly held that the University enquired the legality of the selection only to annul all actions of the former vice chancellor and ignored that the general Council of the university has decided to conduct the enquiry in selection on the case to case basis. (xiii) the appointment of the writ petitioners being a scam committed by the then Vice-Chancellor and the appointment of the writ petitioners being established as procured/illegal, there was no question of long period of service or absence of complaint. (xiv) Ignoring the settled law that whenever any procedural defect if found in the enquiry, liberty should be granted to the university to remove the said defect and either hold the fresh enquiry or proceed from the stage of the defect, (xv) incorrect holding in the impugned order that the defect in selection committee as being protected under section 44 of the Act, 2009, (xvi) non-appreciation of the fact that lack of essential qualification prescribed in the advertisement to not a trivial irregularity but a blatant one, which cannot be allowed to perpetuated, (xvii) failing to appreciate that not only the constitution of selection committee was in contravention of the statutory provisions even the writ petitioners did not possess the minimum qualification prescribed in the advertisement on the date of their application, (xviii) grant of all consequential benefits including back wages without appreciating that since 06/07/2022 the writ petitioners have not discharged any work in university, (xix) finding of the learned Single Judge being perverse on the aspect of qualification possessed by the individual writ petitioners.

(8) Per contra, learned Counsel representing the writ petitioner/respondent in his erudite manner has premised his arguments on the point that (a) a person selected and appointed though not having some prescribed essential qualifications and having been allowed to continue in service for a long period of time have acquired such essential qualifications and as such the selection and appointment cannot be interfered with. To stregthen their submissions, they relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court rendered in Union Public Service Commission Vs M. Sathiya Priya & Others : (2018) 15 SCC 796, M.V. Thimmaiah & Others Vs. Union Public Service Commission & Others : (2008) 2 SCC 119, Mohd. Abul Lash V/s State of U.P & Ors. (judgment dated 07.01.2020 passed in Civil Appeal No. 37 of 2020), Nahar Singh and Others V/s State of U.P & Ors. (Judgment dated 14.07.2017 passed in Civil Appeal No. 3904 of 2013), Savitri Devi & Others V/s State of U.P & Others (Judgment dated 07.01.2020 passed in SLP (Civil) No. 14907/2009).

(9) The learned Counsel has also argued that Visitor of the University being supreme authority of the University in regard to its affairs and having held that the writ petitioner/respondent were fully eligible for appointment, the Executive Council or any other authority of the University could not hold otherwise. In this regard, they relied upon the decision of the Full Bench of this Court rendered in case of Tara Prasad Mishra Vs. State of U.P : 1990 Vol. II UPLBEC 905.

(10) Further argument of the writ petitioner/respondent was led by Mr. Gaurav Mehrotra, learned Counsel representing on behalf of the respondent in Special Appeal Nos. 330, 33, 334, 336 of 2023, who defended the impugned order by formulating his arguments on eight different aspects. Mr. Mehrota submitted that the learned Single Judge was absolutely right in holding that no opportunity of hearing was given and the principles of natural justice was not followed. In support of his submission, he relied upon the decision of the Apex Court rendered in the case of (i) Nisha Devi Vs State of Himachal Pradesh & Others : (2014) 16 SCC 392, (ii) Mahipal Singh Tomar V/s State of U.P & Others : (2013) 16 SCC 771, (iii) M.P State Cooperative Bank Ltd. V/s Nanuram Yadav & Others, (2007) 8 SCC 264.

(11) Shri Mehrotra has submitted that any action taken in deviation of principles of natural justice is non-est in the eyes of law. In support of this contention, he relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court in State of Bihar & Others Vs. Lal Krishna Advani : (2008) 8 SCC 361. The learned Counsel has also submitted that an adjudicatory body cannot take any decision on a material unless the person against whom it is sought to be utilized has been apprised of it and given an opportunity to respond. In this regard, he has relied on the decision of the Apex Court in Deepak Anand Patil Vs State of Maharashtra and Others : (2023) SCC Online SC 34.

(12) Shri Mehrotra has further stressed on the point that an authority cannot review its own order, unless the power of review is expressly conferred on it by statute under which it derives its jurisdiction. In support of this contention, he relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in Kuntest Gupta Vs. Management of Hindu Kanya Mahavidhyalaya, Sitapur (U.P) and others : (1987) 4 SCC 525.

(13) The learned Counsel has vociferously argued that availability of an alternate remedy is not an absolute bar for this Court to entertain a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution, wherein there is an apparent violation of principle of natural justice. According to the learned Counsel, in a case where the contention of a party has not been recorded or argued before the Court, then the appropriate remedy would be to file a review application before the same Court. In support of this contention, he relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in (i) Bhavnagar University Vs Palitana Sugar Mill (Pvt.) Ltd. & Anr : (2003) 2 SCC 111 and (ii) Tungabhadra Industries Ltd. Vs Government of Andhra Pradesh, AIR 1964 SC 1372. The learned Counsel on the proposition of that once a candidate has been appointed and had continued for long, even if, on question of law, the matter is decided otherwise, the appointment of such persons need not be annulled and should be protected, when there is no fraud or misrepresentation on part of the candidate.

(14) Besides the judgment already relied by Dr. L.P. Mishra, learned Counsel, Mr. Gaurav Mehrotra has also relied on the decision of the Apex Court in (i) Dr. M.S Mudhole and another Vs S.D Halegkar and others : (1993) 3 SCC 591, (ii) Rekha Chaturvedi V/s university of Rajasthan and others : 1993 Supp (3) 168, (iii) Gujrat State Dy. Executive Engineers Association Vs State of Gujrat and others : (1994) Supp (2) 591, (iv) Buddhi Nath Chaudhary and others Vs Abahi Kumar and others : (2001) 3 SCC 328, (v) Girjesh Shrivastava Vs State of M.P and Ors. : (2010) 10 SCC 707, (vi) Vikas pratap Singh and Ors. Vs State of Chhattisgarh and others, (2013) 14 SCC 494, (vii) Md. Zamil Ahmed Vs State of Bihar and Others, (2016) 12 SCC 342 and Constitutional Bench Judgment of Sivanandan C.T and others Vs High Court of Kerala and others, 2023 SCC Online SC 994.

(15) As to the proposition that in case of illegal termination, an employee is entitled for all the consequential benefits including 100% of back wages, the learned Counsel relied on the judgment of the Apex Court in Pradeep Vs. manganese Ore (India) Limited & others : (2022) 3 SCC 683.

D. FINDINGS & ANALYSIS

(16) Having regard to the contentions of the parties and going through the record available before us in the above-captioned special appeals, this Court, at the outset, is of the view that basically the proceedings conducted by the appellant/ University, which is the subject matter of these appeals, shows its overzealousness to annul the decision of the former Vice-Chancellor, which is writ large in the manner they have acted against the private respondent/writ petitioner, which has to be taken with a pinch of salt. The University ought to have been careful and circumspect in their approach and should have followed the procedure and norms, especially when these private respondents have been in service for more than 7/8 years and the University being an educational institution meant for higher learning which also deals with special students who require much more care, attention and sensitivity than any other University. This Court does not wish to sound sermonically, however, the fact of the matter remains that the issues, which are being agitated by the University in the present special appeal, could have been easily averted, had the appellant/ University acted without any prejudice to the rights of these private respondents.

(17) The learned Senior Counsel representing the appellant/ University has trained his guns on the first ground of availability of alternative remedy. The learned Senior Counsel representing the appellant has submitted that the writ petitioner had suitable, efficacious and statutory remedy and as such the writ petition field by these private respondent were not maintainable in the first place. According to him, Rules, 1999 was applicable on the appellant/University, which provides for an alternative remedy of appeal against the order of termination, however, the writ petitioners failed to avail the said remedy and further, these writ petitioners had also another alternate remedy under Section 7 of Act, 2009 before the Visitor, which was also not availed and as such the writ itself would had been dismissed on the ground of availability of equally efficacious alternative remedy.

(18) On perusal of the impugned judgment/order passed by the learned Single Judge, what we find is that the learned Single Judge has very extensively dealt with the said issue raised by the appellant/University, wherein it held at paragraphs 10 and 11 of the impugned judgment as under :-

"10. To consider the preliminary objection raised by the respondent with regard to the maintainability of the writ petition on the ground of availability of an efficacious alternative remedy of an appeal under the Rules of 1999, it is undisputed that the respondent University itself did not adhere/follow to the Rules of 1999 while proceeding against the petitioners. Once the proceedings have not been initiated or conducted in terms of Rule of 1999, by the University itself then it does not lie upon them to raise an objection, that the petitioners should be required to follow the said rule. An appeal would lie under the Rules of 1999 when the proceedings are conducted under the said rules. When the proceedings are conducted under some other provision then the petitioners cannot be asked to follow the Rules of 1999 and resort to the remedy of an appeal under Rule 11 of the said rules. Learned Counsel for the respondent University fairly submitted that the proceedings against the petitioners were not conducted under the Rules of 1999, then the natural corollary would follow, and remedy of Appeal under the Rules of 1999 would not available to the petitioners and hence the preliminary objection of the respondent with regard to availability of alternative remedy in this regard fails.

11. Secondly, the law with regard to maintainability of writ petition despite existence of alternate remedy has been well settled. The High Courts can entertain a writ petition despite the existence of an adequate alternative remedy where there are allegations of breach of fundamental rights, or violations of principles of natural justice or that the order under challenge is wholly without jurisdiction. In the present case, the ground of challenge to the order of termination is that no proper opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioners, the enquiry was done in various stages by different set of persons for which there is no provision either in the rules or the regulations of the University and apart from that the entire proceedings were vitiated by mala-fide as merely because the petitioners have been appointed under the regime of the erstwhile Vice Chancellor who is alleged to have conducted certain misconducts, as a retaliatory measure, all the appointments made under him was sought to be scrutinised. It is stated that such exercise of police power is not vested under the provisions of the act or rules of the University, and accordingly in regard to such facts writ petition under Article 226 would be maintainable."

(19) The learned Single Judge has also extensively quoted paragraph 14 to 36 of the judgment of the Apex Court passed in Whirlpool Corporation. v. Registrar of Trade Marks : (1998) 8 SCC 1, wherein the Apex Court taking cognizance of the phrase "any other purpose" used in Article 226 of the constitution interpreted the expansive horizon of the High Court in issuance of prerogative writs and a self-imposed restriction for the issuance of the same when an effective and efficacious remedy is available.

(20) This court finds that the learned Single Judge, after considering the submission of both the parties, returned a finding that the allegations as enumerated in the writ petitions related to the proceedings having been conducted against the writ petitioner in gross violations of principles of natural justice, as hearing was afforded by one Committee while the decision was taken by the Executive Council, which the learned Single Judge found to be contrary to all cannons of the decision-making process. The hinge of the observation by the learned Single Judge appears to be based on the fact that since the writ petitioner has been working pursuant to the selection by a duly constituted Selection Committee for last 6 to 7 years, the termination of the services, on the face of it, appeared to be illegal and arbitrary and accordingly the learned Single Judge held that the bar of alternate remedy does not operate against the writ petitioner.

(21) Herein, the appellant has merely repeated the arguments on availability of efficacious remedy and this Court does not find any ground for arriving at a different view as has been already held by the learned Single Judge. Adding to the observation as has been returned in the impugned judgment, this Court finds that in Harbanslal Sahnia v Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd : (2003) 2 SCC 107, the Apex Court held as herein under:

"In an appropriate case, in spite of availability of the alternative remedy, the High Court may still exercise its writ jurisdiction in at least three contingencies: (i) where the writ petition seeks enforcement of any of the fundamental rights; (ii) where there is failure of principles of natural justice; or (iii) where the orders or proceedings are wholly without jurisdiction or the vires of an Act is challenged."

(22) Further, recently, the Apex Court in Godrej Sara Lee Ltd. v. Excise and Taxation Officer-cum-Assessing Authority & Ors., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 95, has held that availability of alternative remedy does not operate as an absolute bar to the maintainability of the writ petition and that the rule which requires a party to pursue the alternative remedy provided by the statute is a rule of policy for convenience and discretion rather than a rule of law. Undoubtedly, entertainability and maintainability of the writ petition are two distinct concepts. The question of entertainability is entirely within the discretion of the High Court and writ remedy is a discretionary remedy. Further, a writ petition, despite being maintainable may not be entertained by High Courts for many reasons or relief could be refused to the Petitioner despite setting up a sound legal point. Thus, the settled law is where an alternate remedy is available, the writ courts should not normally entertain a writ petition if the Petitioner has not availed the alternative remedy without examining whether an exceptional case has been made out for such entertainment.

(23) In view of the aforesaid, since this Court is of the view that on the facts of the present case, the private respondent/writ petitioner has made out an exceptional case for entertainment of his individual writ petition before this High Court, the present objection of the appellant relating to the maintainability of the writ petition is over-ruled.

(24) As to the ground agitated by the appellant/University relating to availability of alternative remedy before the Visitor is concerned, this court finds that the learned Single Judge has dealt with the said objection at paragraph 14 of the impugned judgment in the following words :-

"14. The other objection regarding the petitioners having an alternative remedy before the Visitor, is also bereft of merits in as much as the proceedings which are being assailed before this Court have already been subjected to the scrutiny by the Vice Chancellor at the behest of one Dr Abhay Krishna. The Visitor by means of order dated 11/03/2016 has already held that the procedure adopted by the respondent University and the constitution of the selection committee resulting in the appointment of the petitioners is valid. The order of the visitor has been challenged before this Court, and the writ petition is pending consideration. Once the order of the Visitor is already on record, no useful purpose would be served by relegating the petitioners before the Visitor on the same issue. It is also urged that the respondent University is itself opposed the decision of the Visitor, which itself cannot be appreciated. In the present case no useful purpose would be served by relegating the petitioners to the remedy before the Visitor. The objection raised by the petitioners have force and the plea of dismissal on ground of availability of alternative remedy before Visitor is accordingly rejected."

(25) This Court does not find any argument addressed by the learned Senior Counsel representing the appellant to be attractive, so as to persuade this Court to observe otherwise. Thus, this Court is not inclined to return a finding adverse to the conclusion arrived by the learnd Single Judge on the issue of maintainability of the writ petition.

(26) The next major issue raised in the above-captioned appeals is 'as to whether the services of the writ petitioner has been terminated or his appointment has been cancelled'. Although the consequential effect of both the cancellation or termination leads to severance of the relation between the writ petitioner and the University, however, the learned Senior Counsel representing appellant has tried to draw a distinction by arguing that the said question is of great significance as an answer to the said issue would determine the applicability of the provisions of Rules, 1999 on the writ petitioner.

(27) At the very outset, this court observes that one of the star argument addressed by the learned Sennior Counsel representing the appellants/University against the maintainability of the writ petition was the existence of an alternative efficacious remedy under Rules, 1999 for the writ petitioner in the form of appeal before the Visitor. Having observed so, this Court finds that the appellants/University have themselves admitted to the applicability of the provisions of the aforesaid Rules, 1999 and have also admitted that the termination order could had been impugned in an appeal before the Visitor by the writ petitioner, which consequently also meant that the provisions of the statute of the Act, 2009 ought to have been also followed by the University in its letter and spirit. The appellants cannot pick and choose and say that certain provisions are applicable and yet another provisions are not applicable to the facts of the case.

(28) Apparently, this Court finds that the appellants/ University have adopted the Rules 1999 in its meeting dated 07.10.2021, where provision for termination is provided. Once the Rules, 1999 have been adopted by the University concerned, it was bound to follow the said Rules. It is the case of the appellants/University that the Rules,1999 would be attracted only when there are allegations of misconduct by the employee, while in the present case the entire selection was de hors the Rules, as the writ petitioner did not fulfil the minimum prescribed educational qualifications and hence his services were dispensed with and their selection cancelled. A further alternative argument has been addressed by the appellants/University to the effect that, whether it is cancellation or termination, in either case the writ petitioners were afforded full opportunity of hearing before cancelling their selection and consequently submitted that the enquiry proceedings as well as the order of cancellation was correct and the impugned order is liable to be set-aside.

(29) In the first blush, the argument of the learned Senior Counsel representing the appellants/University seems to be very attractive, however, this Court finds that the provisions regarding power to proceed against an employee of the appellants/University can be found in the first statutes of 2009 enacted by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh in exercise of powers under sub-section (1) of Section 32 of Act, 2009 itself. Statute 9.01 is an all-inclusive clause, which says "except in the case of an appointment in a vacancy caused by the grant of leave to a teacher for a period not exceeding 10 months, teachers of the university of the University shall be appointed on a written contract in the form set out in Appendix 'A'". Thus, in case an appointment is made on vacancy caused by grant of leave to a teacher, a written contract is not needed or else it is required mandatorily that a written contract is entered between the University and the teachers of the University. Apparently a relation is established with the written contract, which can be extinguished as per the provisions prescribed under the said statute only. Further, Statute 9.04 provides that a teacher at the University may be dismissed or removed or his services terminated on one or more of the following grounds, which include wilful neglect of duty, misconduct, breach of any of the terms of the contract of service, incompetence or abolition of post. Further Statute 9.07 provides as under: -

"9.07.(1) No order dismissing, removing or terminating the services of a teacher of the University on any grounds mentioned in clause (1) of statute 9.04 (except in case of a conviction for an offence involving moral turpitude or of abolition of post) shall be passed unless a charge of been framed against the teacher and communicated to him with the statement of the grounds on which it is proposed to take action and has been given adequate opportunity: - a- of submitting a written statement of his defence;

b. of being heard in person, if he so chooses; and c- of calling and examining such witnesses in his defence as he may wish

Provided that the executive Council or an officer authorised by it to conduct the enquiry, may for sufficient reason to be recorded in writing refused to call any witness.

(2) the Executive Council may, at any time ordinarily within 2 months from the date of the enquiry officer report pass a resolution dismissing or removing the teacher concerned from service or terminating the services mentioned in the grounds of such dismissal, removal or termination."

(30) The aforesaid provisions contemplate a dismissal, removal or termination of service of a teacher, however, cancellation is conspicuously missing in the said provision. Since, cancellation is not defined anywhere in the Act or the statute, the meaning of the word 'cancel" has to be construed in common parlance. In Black's Law Dictionary, cancel has been defined to be – to obliterate, strike, or cross out; to destroy the effect of an instrument by defacing, obliterating, expunging, or erasing it. In legal context, to cancel is to render something otherwise valid as void or no longer in effect. Thus cancellation presupposes an existence of a document, a relation, an instrument or a contract. Generally, termination happens when the contract has been completed and is a bilateral phenomenon, whereas cancellation is an event which may happen unilaterally or parties have agreed that a particular breach may result in cancellation of the contract. Therefore, cancellation of contract is a sub-set of termination of contract, wherein cancellation of contract can also be used as a ground for termination of contracts. Therefore, the availability of grounds for contract termination are much more than the grounds available for cancellation of a contract. Specifically, the parties may terminate a contract upon an agreement or the contract may automatically terminate when the parties fulfil their obligations without any breach or damage. Meanwhile, the cancellation of a contract mostly is a result of the parties' breach of the contract. Specifically, the parties may cancel a contract in case one party breaches the contract, which is a condition for contract cancellation as agreed upon by the parties; or seriously breaches the contractual obligations; or one party is late in the performance of the obligations, or inability to perform. Thus, the edifice of cancellation is breach on the part of either of the parties and the moment breach becomes a ground for cancellation, the same needs adjudication as per the rules and due observance of the principle of natural justice. Thus, this court finds that whether it is cancellation or termination, the same has to be pass the test of principle of natural Justice. It is settled law that even a contractual appointment cannot be terminated without affording an opportunity of hearing, if founded on allegation and/or misconduct, which casts a stigma on the employee. The Supreme Court in K.C. Joshi v. Union of India and Others, (1985) 3 SCC 153, held that contract of service has to be in tune with Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India and if it is to be suggested that one can dismiss anyone without a semblance of inquiry or whisper of principles of natural justice, such an approach overlooks the well-settled principle that if State action affects livelihood or attaches stigma, punitive action can be taken only after an inquiry, in keeping with the principles of natural justice. In Samsher Singh v. State of Punjab and Another, (1974) 2 SCC 831, the Supreme Court held that form of an order is not conclusive and the Court can lift the veil in a given case to find out the actual reason and true character of the order terminating the service of an employee. Relevant part of the judgment is as follows:-

"80……..The form of the order is not decisive as to whether the order is by way of punishment. Even an innocuously worded order terminating the service may in the facts and circumstances of the case establish that an enquiry into allegations of serious and grave character of misconduct involving stigma has been made in infraction of the provision of Article 311……."

To the same effect is the decision of the Supreme Court in Anoop Jaiswal v. Government of India and Another, (1984) 2 SCC 369, where the Supreme Court held as under: -

"12. It is, therefore, now well settled that where the form of the order is merely a camouflage for an order of dismissal for misconduct it is always open to the court before which the order is challenged to go behind the form and ascertain the true character of the order. If the court holds that the order though in the form is merely a determination of employment is in reality a cloak for an order of punishment, the court would not be debarred, merely because of the form of the order, in giving effect to the rights conferred by law upon the employee."

(31) Thus, this Court is of the view that the cancellation of the selection of the private respondent/writ petitioner is an aspect of termination only and as such the same has to be dealt as per the provisions recognised in the statutes of 2009 enacted by the state Government of Uttar Pradesh.

(32) As far as the Rules, 1999 is concerned, the Executive Council of the University in its 35th meeting held on 07.10.2021 had resolved to adopt the said Rules and the memorandum was issued on 25.10.2021 indicating the said rules having been adopted for conduct of enquiry against the officer and employees of the University. It has been the sole contention of the appellants/University that these rules were not applicable to the writ petitioner/respondent and was not required for them to be followed because there was no misconduct by the writ petitioner. A perusal of the Rules of 1999 indicates that according to Rule 6, the appointing authority of a Government servant may impose any of the penalties specified in the said rules. Section 7 provides for a detailed procedure to be followed for imposing major penalty. Major penalties include withholding of increment with little effect, reduction to a low post or grade, removal from service, dismissal from service as provided in Rule 3 while minor penalties include censure, withholding of increment etc.

(33) This Court, after considering the submissions of the parties, is in agreement with the observation of the learned Single Judge that the Rules of 1999 were applicable in the present case and were required to be followed by the respondents as in any case, whether it is cancellation or termination, the principle of natural justice has to be followed and the safe-guard mentioned in the Rules of 1999 are merely a limb of the principle of natural justice.

(34) This Court is also in agreement with the observation of the learned Single Judge relating to the perusal of the impugned order, which reveals that the Executive Committee had recommended the termination of services of the writ petitioner and the Vice-Chancellor has merely complied with the recommendation/order of the Executive Committee and had set- aside the selection of the writ petitioner. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge has given a very well-reasoned and detailed observation for treating the order impugned to be an order terminating the services of the writ petitioner and holding that the services of an employee can be terminated only as a measure of penalty as provided in the Rules of 1999, or the statutes of the University as allegedly the writ petitioner lacked the educational qualifications at the time of the selection. At this stage, it would be gain worthy to quote the observation of the learned Single Judge, while holding that the said allegation on the writ petitioner tantamount to be included in the category of misconduct entailing termination in the following words :-

"22. This allegation is directly attributable to the petitioners, and such conduct would be liable to be included in the category of misconduct, which would be the act of obtaining employment without being duly qualified for the same. It is the conduct of the petitioners in submitting their educational qualifications, which according to the respondents they did not fulfil the criteria as laid down in the advertisement or the guidelines published by the University Grants Commission, for which their services have been terminated. On both these counts, this Court is of the view that it was imperative that the procedure established and accepted by the respondents, which is the Rules of 1999 were to be followed, and in not doing so the respondents have acted in the most arbitrary and illegal manner, and the impugned termination is not in accordance with law.

23. In order to impose the punishment of dismissal or removal, the Rules of 1999 will have to be followed. In order to impose major penalty facts constituting the misconduct on which it is proposed to take action shall be reduced in the form of definite charge contained in the charge-sheet, where the proposed evidence and the name of witnesses are required be mentioned. The employee is required to file his response to the charges mentioned in the charge-sheet and in case he denies the charges, the enquiry officer shall call the witnesses to the proposed the charge sheet to record oral evidence, and after recording of evidence submit his enquiry report to the disciplinary authority, who may either accept the same, or differ with the report or order re-enquiry as the case may be. In case he does not order re-enquiry, he has to give a show cause notice to the employee giving him a copy of the enquiry report, and finally conclude the proceedings either exonerating the employee or awarding punishment.

24. The aforesaid procedure is also envisaged in Statute 9.07 of the respondent University. In the present case no charge sheet was given to the petitioner nor was any oral evidence of the prosecution recorded in presence of the petitioners and they were not handed over the relevant documents sought by them on the ground of confidentiality and even the copies of the enquiry report of the committees were never given to the petitioners and only a extract was given along with the show cause notice and, therefore, the procedure as provided in Statute 9.07 was not followed, and consequently the entire proceedings were held in violation of statutes of the University as well as in principle of natural justice."

(35) The learned Single Judge has painstakingly examined the validity of the proceedings conducted by the University/ appellants culminating in the order of cancellation of selection of the writ petitioners to be vitiated and this court finds that no substantive grounds have been submitted or argued by the learned Counsel for the appellants/University, which would enable this Court to upset the findings arrived by the learned Single Judge in the impugned order. The learned Single Judge recorded that apparently there were several allegations against former Vice-Chancellor, against whom action was taken after enquiry was instituted. Apparently, the Executive Council decided to initiate an enquiry against the former Vice-Chancellor in its 35th meeting held on 07.10.2021 and constituted a Committee consisting of 2 retired Hon'ble High Court Judges. Thus, as rightly held in the impugned order, as far as the present bunch of matters are concerned, the entire controversy has its roots in the resolution passed by the General Body of the University on 25/01/2019, wherein in the said meeting an enquiry report against the former Vice-Chancellor Dr Nishith Rai conducted by Justice (Retd.) Shailendra Saxena was considered. In the said meeting, while accepting the said enquiry report, the General body also resolved that action would be taken with regard to all the irregularities including technical, administrative or financial committed by the former Vice Chancellor after seeking legal opinion. Thus, the General Body of the University in its meeting held on 16/09/2021 decided to enquire into the appointments made by the former Vice-Chancellor, in pursuance to which the Executive Council in its 35th meeting dated 17/10/2021 had resolved to have the matter relating to the appointments inquired by a committee consisting of 2 former judges of the Hon'ble High Court and accordingly a committee consisting of Justice (Retd) S.V.S Rathore and Justice (Retd) Pratyush Kumar was constituted for the purpose. The General body in its resolution dated 16.09.2021 had limited the scope of enquiry only to the procedure followed in making the appointments to the academic and non-academic posts.

(36) Apparently, it is available from records that the aforesaid Committee was of the opinion that according to clause (iv) (a) of section 25, three experts had to be nominated by the Visitor on the recommendation by the Academic Council approved by the Executive Council, and this condition can be dispensed with only where the Academic Council and Executive Council have not been constituted. However, the Enquiry Committee arrived at a decision that at the time of appointment of the Expert Panel, the Executive Committee and the Executive Council had been constituted and consequently the Vice-Chancellor could not have exercised his power as provided in the proviso to Section 25(iv)(a) of the Act, 2009. Although, the said Committee noted that according to Section 44 of the Act, 2009, the proceedings of any authority, committee or body of the University shall not be invalidated merely for the reason that the General Council, Executive Council, Academic Council or any other authority or body of the University was not duly constituted or there was defect in its constitution or re-constitution, however the Committee came to a conclusion that appointments to the teaching post in pursuance to the advertisement nos. 17 of 2014 and 19 of 2015 were not in consonance with the statutory provisions, as the selection committee was constituted without taking approval of the Academic Council and held that constitution of the Selection Committee was illegal. This court finds that the aforesaid contradictory stand taken by the Committee was surely uncalled of, especially when the protection of Section 44 of the Act, 2009 was available to the Vice-Chancellor.

(37) Thus, this Court is of the view that the sole ground for observing that the appointments pursuant to the advertisement Nos 17 of 2014 and 19 of 2015 were not in consonance with the statutory provisions was that the selection committee was constituted without taking approval of the Academic council. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge has also considered this aspect in the impugned judgement, which related to whether the Selection Committee was duly constituted or not. The learned Single judge has observed that the said aspect had been duly scrutinised by the Visitor vide order dated 11.03.2016 while deciding a complaint made by one unsuccessful candidate namely Dr. Abhay Krishna, wherein one of the grounds of the complaint was that the Selection Committee was constituted by the Vice-Chancellor without referring the same to the Executive Council in terms of Section 25 (2) (A) (iv) (a) of the Act, 2009. Thus, the learned Single Judge has recorded that the said contention and non-compliance of the statutory provisions was duly considered by the Visitor, who dismissed the complaint of the said unsuccessful candidate Dr. Abhay Krishna on the ground of availability of section 44(1) of the Act. Therefore, the learned Single Judge concluded that since the Visitor is the highest authority of the University and once a decision has been rendered by the Visitor, that decision was binding on the University and in any view of the matter, the decision of the Visitor cannot be reviewed by any other authority subordinate to Visitor either by the General Body or the Vice Chancellor.

(38) The learned Single Judge has gone on to hold that the order of the Visitor was undoubtedly binding upon the University, and only with a view to unsettle

the order of the Visitor, the University resorted to the adventure of constituting a committee consisting of 2 former judges of the High Court, who in turn recorded a finding that the selection committee was not duly constituted, which was accepted by the University. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge in these peculiar facts has rightly concluded that the procedure adopted by the University was illegal, arbitrary and malafidely done only with the intention to override the decision of the visitor and the manner in which the University has proceeded in the matter clearly indicated that to achieve their objectives, and to annul all the actions of the former Vice-Chancellor, they chose not to follow the rules and basic principles which guide their actions.

(39) This Court finds that there could not be any doubt about the manner in which the committee consisting of 2 former judges of this court came to be formed, however the fact of the matter remains that the constitution of the committee by the University is not an issue in the present bunch of matters, rather the actions taken by the said committee, which has taken the centre stage of relevance is the issue, in as much as the recommendation of the Inquiry Committee were placed before the Executive Council which duly considered and accepted the said recommendations in its 38th Meeting dated 19.04.2022 and also further stated that appointments made during the tenure of former Vice Chancellor Sri Nishith Rai suffer from various illegalities, however it was decided that persons who were not holding requisite qualifications at the relevant time be asked to submit their response and the said response be placed before the two members Committed consisting of a retired High Court Judge and subject Specialist and only then final decision would be taken regarding their selection. Accordingly, show cause notices were given to the writ petitioners on 22.04.2022. It is noted that some of the writ petitioners responded to the notice while the others sought copies of relevant documents and also the entire report of the Enquiry Committee. In any case, the response submitted to the show cause notice dated 22.04.2022 were considered by a committee consisting of Justice Harsh Kumar, retired High Court Judge as well as Subject Expert and after consideration of the response to the show cause notice submitted by the petitioners, the said Committee submitted its report on 09.06.2022, which was placed before and considered by the Executive Council in its 39th Meeting held on 13.06.2022, who decided to accept the recommendations made by the said Enquiry Committee and a decision was taken to terminate the services of the petitioners. It was further resolved that order would be communicated by the Vice Chancellor of the University and accordingly selection of the petitioners has been cancelled by means of impugned order dated 06.07.2022, which was challenged by the Writ petitioners before the Ld. Single Judge on various grounds.

(40) The learned Single Judge noting that no charge-sheet was ever given to the writ petitioners and only show cause notices were issued to them on two occasions i.e. on 21.1.2021 and 22.4.2022 where they had submitted reply, but again the copy of the inquiry report was never given to them and as such observed that in absence of charges being framed against the petitioners, they were unable to adequately defend themselves which was in gross violation of provisions of Statute 9.07 of the respondent-University. Accordingly, the learned Single Judge concluded that by not following the mandate provided in Statute 9.07, the respondents have acted in most arbitrary and illegal manner and termination of services of writ petitioners were not sustainable in law and deserved to be set aside. The learned Single Judge also noted that merely only extract of the enquiry report was supplied to the writ petitioners and although on a direction of the said court, the University provided a copy of the enquiry report to the writ petitioner, however the learned Single Judge, noting the judgment passed in the case of Mahipal Singh Tomar v. State of U.P. : (2013) 16 SCC 771 concluded that non-supply of entire enquiry report to the writ petitioner has prejudiced his defence and consequently, vitiated the entire proceedings, which were conducted in gross violation of principles of natural justice and thus the court concluded that the proceedings were arbitrary, illegal and liable to be quashed.

(41) The learned Single Judge went on to observe that the procedure followed for conducting enquiry cannot be sustained as apparently the procedure which has been followed for cancellation of selection of the writ petitioners is not prescribed in the Act of 1999 or in the Statute framed by the University which in fact provide for the procedure to be followed wherever the services of a teacher are to be removed/dismissed. It was observed that once a procedure has been duly adopted which provides for termination of services of teachers, then, the University was under mandate to follow the said procedure. Thus, the learned Single Judge observed at paragraph-52 of the impugned judgment as follows:

"……Firstly, entire proceedings are de-horse the prescribed procedure and therefore same could not be validated or sustained. Secondly, it is noticed that to proceed against an employee is right of the employer whenever there are allegations of misconduct of breach of contract of employment. To make an enquiry into the matter and enquiry officer can be appointed, but after receiving the enquiry report the essential aspect of decision making cannot be delegated to any other authority. In the present case, response received to the show cause notice were directed to be placed before a Committee which consisted a former Judge of this Court and a Subject Specialist. They looked into the response as to whether the petitioners fulfilled all the qualifications prescribed and its recommendations were placed before the Executive Council which had duly accepted the same. This delegation of power of looking into the response to the show cause notice, and affording personal hearing is essential feature of the enquiry conducted against a delinquent employee and such a procedure which has been followed in the present case is neither been provided in any Rule, Statute or Act, could not have been delegated to an outside agency. Needless to say, hearing is to be afforded before an authority who has to take a decision on the matter. In case hearing is done by one authority and the order is passed by another, the hearing in such a case becomes illusionary and merely camouflage with regard to following the principles of natural justice. The hearing was afforded by the committee, while the decision was to be taken by the Executive Council before whom no hearing took place, and consequently the proceedings were held in violation of principles of natural justice. Even the procedure followed was arbitrary and not prescribed and accordingly entire proceedings are illegal and arbitrary and violative of natural justice and liable to be quashed on this ground alone."

(42) This Court finds that the learned Single Judge has very objectively dealt with the aspect of termination of the writ petitioner and no ground has been urged in the appeals, which could lead to upsetting the conclusion arrived by the learned Single Judge. Further, this Court finds that the writ petitioner was recruited in the year 2015 and he has been continuing on the said post for the last 7-8 years till the passing of the order impugned issued by the appellant cancelling his selection. Besides the fact that the selection of the writ petitioner was made by a duly constituted Committee consisting of subject specialist from various fields and after examining the qualifications of the writ petitioner and recommendations having been duly accepted by the University, it is noted that the entire matter could not have been reviewed by the University after such along lapse of time, especially when there is no allegation of fraud, suppression of material facts or misrepresentation on these writ petitioner. It can be profitably noted that these writ petitioners have not only completed more than one year in probation but their services were also confirmed by the University. This Court finds that the said analogy drawn by the learned Single Judge is also in conformity to the Act of 2009, which also indicates that once selection has been made by a duly constituted selection committee then even if there is any lacunae, the same deserves to be ignored and the selections made are to be preserved and protected to that effect as per section 44 of the Act, 2009.

(43) This Court finds that the fate of the writ petitioners are hanging fire between the cross-fire between the erstwhile Vice-Chancellor and the current Vice-Chancellor. Merely because the present administration of the University was adamant to inquire into the appointments made during the regime of former Vice-Chancellor against whom there were several allegations, cannot be the main consideration for proceeding against the teachers appointed during the tenure of former Vice Chancellor. Although, the learned Single Judge has relied on two judgments to fortify the aforesaid proposition of law, this Court would quote only one judgement passed by the Apex Court in the case of Md. Zamil Ahmed v. State of Bihar : (2016) 12 SCC 342, which clinches the issue in hand. In the said judgement, it has been held as under: -

"15. In these circumstances, we are of the view that there was no justification on the part of the State to wake up after the lapse of 15 years and terminate the services of the appellant on such ground. In any case, we are of the view that whether it was a conscious decision of the State to give appointment to the appellant as we have held above or a case of mistake on the part of the State in giving appointment to the appellant which now as per the State was contrary to the policy as held by the learned Single Judge, the State by their own conduct having condoned their lapse due to passage of time of 15 years, it was too late on the part of the State to have raised such ground for cancelling the appellant's appointment and terminating his services. It was more so because the appellant was not responsible for making any false declaration nor he suppressed any material fact for securing the appointment. The State was, therefore, not entitled to take advantage of their own mistake if they felt it to be so. The position would have been different if the appellant had committed some kind of fraud or manipulation or suppression of material fact for securing the appointment. As mentioned above such was not the case of the State."

(44) This Court finds that all set and done, besides the aforesaid facts, the most crucial and significant issue for determination in this bunch of petitions is as to whether the writ petitioners did actually fulfil the minimum eligibility qualifications for recruitment to various posts to which they were appointed as it has been submitted by the learned Counsel for the appellants/University that in case these writ petitioners did not fulfil the essential qualification itself, it would have been empty formality to give them due opportunity of hearing, and consequently even if there is some infraction of the principle of natural justice the same would not vitiate the impugned order of termination.

(45) This Court finds that the learned Single Judge has not only scanned through the various qualifications possessed by these writ petitioners, but has in a very objective manner dealt with the allegation of not possessing the essential qualification in the impugned order. It is available from the records that as far as the case of Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava (Appeal No. 332/2023) is concerned, the learned Single Judge has dealt with the said aspect of essential qualification at paragraph No 64 of the impugned judgment. This Court finds that the essential controversy with Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava was as to whether M.Sc. in Computer Science was equivalent to MCA or not, so as to be qualified for appointment to the post of professor in Computer Science in the University. The learned Single Judge has while recording the fact that the contention of the writ petitioner was although recorded in the impugned order but the said contention was rejected by virtue of a cryptic order without assigning any reasons and without any application of mind by the authority, tasked onto itself to examine the said allegation and went on to hold that a perusal of the clarifications notification dated 01/06/2016 issued by the AICTE does not leave any room for doubt about the equivalence of MCA with a M.Sc computer science. The learned Single Judge went on to observe that as the notification issued by the AICTE was only a clarification, it would relate back to date of initial prescription of the qualifications. Further, not only has the AICTE issued the clarification, but even prior to the same the Indian Institute of Technology Madras recognised the said equivalence when they had published an advertisement for recruitment in the year 2013-2014 was also observed by the learned Single Judge, while dealing with the said aspect of equivalence between MSc and MCA. The learned Single Judge also recorded that the said aspect of the matter was also considered by the Apex Court in the case of Saurabh Pal Vs The Chancellor, Veer Bahadur and others (Appeal (Civil) 596 of 2008 decided on 22/01/2008). Thus, the learned Single Judge held as follows:

"65. The above judgements clearly resolve the dispute that M.Sc. has been held to be equivalent to M.Sc. Computer Science much prior to issuing of the clarification by the AICTE in 2016 as noticed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. It indicates that the petitioner was fully eligible and qualified for being appointed on the post of Professor in Computer Science and fulfilled all the eligibility conditions in this regard. The respondents have acted in most illegal and arbitrary manner and did not even consider the contention of the petitioner when he responded to the show cause notice issued by the University.

66. The procedure adopted by the respondents, as well as the decision making process adopted by them where the personal hearing was given by the committee and the decision taken by the executive Council indicates that proper or opportunity of hearing was not given to the petitioners before passing of the impugned order of termination. This aspect of the matter would have been duly considered by the selection committee at the time of selection of the petitioner, and that is why an expert members of the panel is included as per the norms prescribed by the UGC, but the enquiry committee did not have any expert member and therefore could not appreciate the stand taken by the petitioner. It is in this regard the Supreme Court has also held in the case of Basavaiah (Dr.) v. Dr. H.L. Ramesh, (2010) 8 SCC 372…"

(46) Thus, the learned Single Judge arrived at a conclusion at paragraph-67 that the writ petitioner/Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava was fully qualified for being appointed and did not lack any qualification as alleged and as such set-aside the impugned order of cancellation of his selection. This Court is in full agreement to the said observation of the learned Single Judge. The grounds taken by the learned Senior Counsel for the appellant/University relating to M.Sc. Computer Science being not equivalent to MCA at the time of selection and it came to be recognized as equivalent vide notification dated 09/06/2016 is concerned, the same has been already dealt with the learned Single Judge, who has returned a finding not only on the basis of the said AICTE Notification but also on the basis of the judgment of the Apex Court Saurabh Pal Vs The Chancellor, Veer Bahadur and others (supra). In any case, it is not a case that the writ petitioner has misrepresented, or committed any fraud or suppressed any facts. The aforesaid fact of possessing M.Sc. in Computer Science was very well in the knowledge of the University and therefore after 7/8 years, they cannot now be permitted to turn back and cancel the selection of the writ petitioner on the ground of lack of requisite experience. Further, as per the own contention of the University, the writ petitioner came to be recognised to be possessing a degree equivalent to MCA in 06/01/2016, when the regulation was notified in the Gazette of India. Therefore, to contend at this belated stage of after 7/8 years, would be a misnomer in the eyes of law. In the case of Mohd. Abul Lash Vs. State of U.P. and others (supra), the Apex Court, while considering a case where a person was not qualified at the time of appointment, but he acquired the requisite qualification later on, refused to interfere with the appointment and set aside the judgment and order dated 19.12.2014 passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal (Defective) No.701 of 2014. In another case of Nahar Singh and others Vs. State of U.P. and others (supra) and Savitri Devi and others Vs. State of U.P. and others (supra), the Apex Court in Civil Appeal No.3904 of 2013 held that once a person has continued in service for a long period, his continuance should not be disturbed. Thus, this Court does not find any infirmity in the case of Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava.

(47) Similarly, it is available from the records that as far as the case of Vipin Kumar Pandey (Special Appeal No. 335/2023) is concerned, the learned Single Judge has dealt with the said aspect of essential qualification at paragraph No 68 of the impugned judgment. This Court finds that the controversy with Vipin Kumar Pandey was that he had applied for the post of Assistant Professor (English) and the only ground on which the services of the selection of the petitioner was cancelled is that while offering his candidature details given in regard to API score indicated that he did not have score of 300 as prescribed under the UGC Regulations. The allegation was that the writ petitioner claimed API score of 304.5 points under category III by awarding 50 points in category III sec IIIE (i) whereas a maximum of 30 points can be claimed under that section, and hence the petitioner came down to 284.5 which is less than the minimum required API score as per the stand of the university. This court finds that the Ld. Single Judge after dealing with the concept and calculation of API as applicable in the present case, returned a finding as follows:

"……The petitioner had produced articles authored by an prior to the date of advertisement which were duly accepted by the selection committee. The panel of experts constituting the selection committee are the best to judge the qualifications of a candidate, who after due examination found the petitioner was fully qualified to be selected. There are no allegations of malafidely or bias against the panel of experts, hence their decision could not have been substituted by another body lacking the minimum/basic expertise in the matter. This Court is of the considered view that the petitioner fulfilled all the qualifications and the decision of the respondents' authorities to the contrary is arbitrary, illegal and is liable to be set-aside."

(48) The only ground taken by the appellants/University in the appeals seeking interdiction of the aforesaid judgment is that the writ petitioner did not append the documents to get the minimum API score of 300 points on the last date of submission of application form on 22/03/2014 nor did the said writ petitioner could produce any documentary evidence to prove that any document/publication had been produced before the selection committee to get the minimum API score of 300 points. This Court finds that at serial No.21 of the general Instruction issued by the university it was specifically provided that final decision in regard to eligibility of the candidate shall be that of the appointing authority/ administration of the university and the same shall be binding on the candidates. Further, it has been specifically averred by the writ petitioner in his petition that while appearing before the selection committee, he submitted his additional API score together with evidences in the prescribed format and claimed 40 additional points which were not claimed by him while submitting his application form and as such he claimed the fulfilment of minimum score of 300 points. It had also been contended in the writ petition that the selection committee after being fully satisfied with the API score as also the educational qualification and other requisite conditions selected and appointed him as associate professor in English and also attached the said requisite document as annexure 8 to the writ petition. This Court finds that there is no contrary averment to the said factual matrix of the writ petitioner. Thus, this Court besides being in absolute agreement with the observation of the learned Single judge also conclude that the writ petitioner had the requisite API on the date of selection and as such the learned Single Judge has rightly held that he fulfilled all the qualifications and found the decision of the Appellant/University to be arbitrary, illegal and liable to be set-aside.

(49) Further, it is also available from the records that as far as the case of Dr. Adya Shakti Rai (Special Appeal No. 333/2023) is concerned, the learned Single Judge has dealt with the said aspect of essential qualification at paragraph No 69 of the impugned judgment. This Court finds that the essential controversy with Dr. Adya Shakti Rai was that she had applied for the post of Associate Professor in Department of Visual Impairment, Faculty of Special Education, which required 5 years of experience. The allegation against Dr. Adya Shakti Rai is that she only had experience of 4 years and 7 months, although she had been working on the post of Lecturer/Asst. professor in the Department of Visual Impairment since 2009 in the appellants/University itself. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge after appreciating the facts of the said case, returned a finding as follows:

"(iv). Considering the rival contentions, it is noticed that the petitioner was appointed on the post of Assistant Professor in Department of visual impairment in the faculty of special education in their 2009, and at completed 4 years and 7 months of the said post, when she applied for the post of Associate Professor in the year 2014. Even though at the time of her appointment there was shortfall of certain period of experience, but admittedly she has been working of the said post for last 7 years and there are no complaints against, and she even fulfils all the requisite qualifications as on date. This court has also considered the fact that on 2 previous occasions the respondent University had advertised the post for appointment to the post of Associate Professor, but no applications were received, which clearly indicates that firstly, there were very few people taking up the said course and due to the paucity of individuals of the required academic qualifications, and secondly, that the approval given by the Rehabilitation Council of India was subject to appointment of adequate faculty. The respondent University more because of their immediate requirement appointed the petitioner on the post of Associate Professor appointed her to the said post after duly considering her experience. It is not a case that the petitioner has misrepresented, as even an application forms clearly indicates that she has experience of four years and seven months on the post of Assistant Professor. They cannot now be permitted to turn back and cancel the selection of the petitioner on the ground of lack of requisite experience. In the case of Mohd. Abul Lash Vs. State of U.P. and others, the Hon'ble Apex Court while considering a case where a person was not qualified at the time of appointment, but he acquired the requisite qualification later on, refused to interfere with the appointment and set aside the judgment and order dated 19.12.2014 passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal (Defective) No.701 of 2014. In another case of Nahar Singh and others Vs. State of U.P. and others and Savitri Devi and others Vs. State of U.P. and others, Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No.3904 of 2013 held that once a person has continued in service for a long period, his continuance should not be disturbed. Following the aforesaid ratio of law laid down by Supreme Court a Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal No.313 of 2015 had held that after long continuance in service, the appointment of a person to his service should not be disturbed.

(50) The only ground taken by the appellants is that the writ petitioner has herself mentioned in the application form that she had 4 years and 7 months as experience in place of the required 5 years at the time of Application and as such it has been argued that since the requisite experience was not available to the writ petitioner on the date of application, the order of the University cancelling her selection was right in the eyes of law. This Court finds that the said issue stands settled by the Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Abul Lash Vs. State of U.P. (supra), wherein the Apex Court held as herein below:

"…..Though the appellant was not qualified at the time of appointment, he acquired the requisite qualification later. He cannot be said to be ineligible to hold the post of Assistant teacher. Taking into account the fact that he has been working continuously since the date of appointment i.e 1995, we are inclined to grant relief to the appellant as prayed for in the writ petition in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case".

(51) This Court is of the view that the post of Associate Professor Department of Visual Impairment, Faculty of Special Education remained vacant in the year 2010 as no one applied and similarly the said post remained vacant in 2012, wherein again no candidates applied. Dr. Adya Shakti Rai was already working in the Department of Visual Impairment, Faculty of Special Education of the appellant/University and had experience of 4 years and 7 months. It is not the case of the University that she supressed her actual experience, rather it is the other way round and inspite of the said declaration, Dr. Adya Shakti Rai was selected for the said post, apparently as permission of the Rehabilitation Council of India was subject to appointment of adequate faculty by the University. It seems the University has after giving consideration to various factors has duly selected Dr. Adya Shakti and now merely there is a change in guard/ Vice Chancellor, her selection is sought to be cancelled on the ground that she as a shortfall of five months of experience at the time of her selection. Evidently, Dr. Adya Shakti has been continuously working on the said post for the last 7/8 years and there had been no complaint nor it is the case of the University that Dr. Adya Shakri is inefficient. Having said so, this court does not find any cogent and plausible grounds to differ from the reasoning appended by the learned Single Judge in granting relief to the said Dr. Adya Shakti. The learned Single Judge has rightly held that the impugned order cancelling her selection and terminating the services to be illegal and arbitrary and liable to be set-aside.

(52) As to the case of Dr. Mrityunjay Mishra (Appeal No. 336/2023) is concerned, the Ld. Single Judge has dealt with the said aspect of essential qualification at paragraph No 70 of the impugned judgment. This court finds that the main controversy with Dr. Mrityunjay Mishra was that he had applied for the post of Associate Professor in Department of Hearing Impairment, Faculty of Special Education, which required 5 years of experience. The Allegation against Dr.

Mrityunjay Mishra is that he only had experience of 4 years and 7 months, although he had been working on the post of Lecturer/Asst. professor in the Department of Hearing Impairment since 2009 in the Appellant University itself and prior to his joining the Appellant University in 2009, he was working as Course Coordinator, a post which is equivalent to the post of Lecturer, in Research Education and Audiology Development Society, which is a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 and recognized by Rehabilitation Council of India from 15.9.2003 to 24.8.2009. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge after appreciating the facts of the said case, returned a finding as follows:

"72. Considering the aforesaid facts this Court is of the considered opinion that the period the petitioner worked i.e. from 2003 to 2009 as Post Coordinator in READS is required to be counted as his experience as Lecture. The panel of experts having examined the said issue found the petitioner to be possessing the requisite experience. It is not subsequently open for a body not having requisite qualification or expertise in the subject to test the validity of the decision taken by expert body/selection committee and also considering the fact that on the date of passing of the impugned order the petitioner has the requisite qualifications there was no occasion for the respondent-university to have terminated his services after 7 years of his working in the respondent university as Associate Professor."

(53) This Court notes that the writ petitioner, who was already working in the appellants/University since the year 2009, when he was appointed on the post of Assistant Professor/Lecturer, in the department of Hearing Impairment, and as per the career progression scheme of the Rehabilitation council of India, the writ petitioner would have already been appointed on the post of Associate Professor, after rendering five years of satisfactory service on the post of lecturer in the year 2014 itself. The only ground taken by the Appellant is that the writ petitioner has himself mentioned in the application form that he had 4 years and 7 months as experience in place of the required 5 years at the time of application and as such it has been argued that since the requisite experience was not available to the writ petitioner on the date of application, the order of the University cancelling his selection was right in the eyes of law. This Court finds that the said issue stands settled by the Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Abul Lash Vs. State of U.P. (supra) and as such this Court is of the view that the writ petitioner had joined the appellants/university in the year 2009 itself i.e the year of establishment of the University and all the records were lying in the custody of the University. It is not the case of the University that there is a challenge to his candidature from any third person, or that he supressed any material from the selection committee. Apparently, his selection is sought to be cancelled on the ground that he has a shortfall of five months of experience at the time of his selection. Evidently, Dr. Mrityunjay Mishra has been continuously working on the said post for the last 7/8 years and there had been no complaint nor it is the case of the University that he is inefficient. Dr. Misha had been working in the university for the last 13/14 years, initially as lecturer and then as associate professor. Having said so, this court does not find any grounds to differ from the reasoning returned by the learned Single Judge in granting relief to the said Dr. Mrityunjay Mishra and as such the present Appeal filed by the University fails as being without any substance.

(54) As far as the facts of Avanish Chandra Mishra (Special Appeal No. 334/2023) is concerned, the learned Single Judge has dealt with the said aspect of essential qualification at paragraph No 73 of the impugned judgment. This court finds that the controversy with Avanish Chandra Mishra was that he had applied for the post of Professor in Department of History which required 10 years of teaching experience in University/college, and/or experience in research at the University/national level institution, including experience of guiding candidates for research at doctoral level. The Allegation against Avanish Chandra Mishra is that although he worked on the post of Associate Professor from 01/01/2004 till 15/01/2014, which is a period of 10 years at Jagatguru Rambadrachara Handicapped University, Chitrakoot on permanent basis, however the controversy stems out from the fact that Avanish Chandra Mishra while working as Associate Professor in the Jagatguru Rambadrachara Handicapped University, Chitrakoot, he was also given additional charge for the post of Registrar. The Appellant/ university has cancelled the appointment of the petitioner on the ground that when the petitioner worked on the post of Registrar, he could not have been involved in teaching and the period for which he worked as registrar should be deducted from his teaching experience. This court finds that the learned Single Judge has dealt with each & every contention raised by the University before the learned Single Judge and after appreciating the facts of the said case and both on the ground of being merely a registrar with additional charge and no material to substantiate that Avanish Chandra Mishra functioned as a whole time registrar as well as on the ground relating to publication of research papers as per the UGC norms has returned a finding as follows:

"77. From the aforesaid discussions it is clear that the petitioner was fully qualified, his qualifications were duly looked into by the selection committee recommended his candidature for appointment to the post of Professor in History. There is no reason for a review of his qualifications after a period of 7 years, in absence of any allegations of fraud and misconduct have been having been committed by the petitioner, the cancellation of his selection is clearly illegal and arbitrary and libel to be set aside."

(55) As regards the other deficiency pointed out, this Court notes that the learned Single Judge also returned a clear and reasoned finding that the research papers authored by Avanish Chandra Mishra, which have been accepted for publication were required to be considered, which although were duly taken into account by the Selection Committee but arbitrarily not considered by the inquiry committee and consequently there was no infirmity/deficiency in the qualification of the petitioner. Even the API score was wrongly calculated as Avanish Chandra Mishra possessed 469.5 API marks and the said score was calculated as per the UGC Regulation, 2010 as could be also found in the writ petition itself annexed along with the present Appeal. This court finds that besides repeating the same ground in the present Appeal, there are no new grounds which have been agitated by the Appellant/university in the present Appeal. Very recently the Constitution Bench of the Apex Court in a recent Judgment dated 12.07.2023 reported in 2023 SCC Online SC 994 in Re: Sivanandan C.T and others V/s High court of Kerala and Ors., which was a matter relating to selection of Judicial officer in the state of Kerala, the Apex Court in the said judgment although held that the procedure adopted was arbitrary for selections but refused to unseat these candidates on the ground of public interest, who had been working for more than 06 years. This Court finds that the said Avanish Chandra Mishra had been working for more than 08 years and there had been no complaint relating to his inefficiency, nor there is any allegation of fraud or misrepresentation on his part. Thus, this Court is not inclined to disturb and unsettle the findings already arrived by the learned Single Judge.

(56) Further, as far as the case of Alok Mishra (Special Appeal No. 330/2023) is concerned, this court finds that although the order impugned in the present Appeal is not a part of the common order dated 08/05/2023, however it is seen that the impugned order passed in Alok Mishra case heavily relies on the common order dated 08/05/2023. Moreover, as to the fact of Alok Mishra is concerned, it is available from records that the controversy was relating to having eight years of legal practise as a registered Advocate in the High Court to be appointed as Law officer of the University. According to the University Alok Mishra did not have the said requisite experience nor did he annex a copy of the experience certificate while filling the application form. This Court finds that the learned Single Judge vide the impugned order dated 24.05.2023, has specifically dealt with the said controversy and returned a finding on facts in the following words:

"4. The Counsel for the petitioner draws my attention to the registration of the petitioner with the Bar council, being of the year 2003. He also places reliance on a certificate issued by a senior Advocate of this court, the said certificate relied upon by the petitioner, has not been denied in the counter affidavit nor is the same said to be a forged and fabricated document.

5. In view thereof, I have also perused the records and l am of the view that the petitioner possesses the minimum qualification. The other grounds on which the judgment has been delivered in the case of Dr. Rajendra Kumar Srivastava (supra) are squarely applicable to the facts of the present case."

(57) This Court finds that merely general grounds have been agitated by the appellants in the appeals, which have already been dealt with this court in the aforesaid paragraphs. Thus, this Court does not find any plausible grounds agitated by the appellants/University to have any substance and as such this court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned judgment passed by the learned Single Judge.

(58) The next issue raised by the learned Counsel for the appellants is related to grant of consequential relief including back wages to the writ petitioner/private respondents by the learned Single Judge. This Court finds that the learned Single judge has returned a finding that the private respondent/writ petitioner was not at fault and yet he was visited with illegal termination merely because there had been selected during the tenure of a Vice Chancellor, against whom certain allegations have been made. Besides the fact that no charges-sheet or inquiry was conducted as has been envisaged under the relevant rules of the University, the principle of Natural Justice was also not followed by the University while passing the termination order. Since, this Court has upheld the findings of the learned Single Judge and has found the said to have been passed on sound legal principles, this Court does not find any reasons as to why the consequential relief, including back wages should not be granted to private respondent. The Apex Court in the case of Pradeep vs Manganese Ore (India) Limited and others; (2022) 3 SCC 683 has held at paragraph 12 of the said judgment, which reads as under:

"12. It is, undoubtedly, true when the question arises as to whether the back wages is to be given and as to what is to be the extent of back wages, these are matters which will depend on the facts of the case as noted in Deepali Gundu Surwase [Deepali Gundu Surwase v. Kranti Junior Adhyapak Mahavidyalaya, (2013) 10 SCC 324 : (2014) 2 SCC (L&S) 184] . In a case where it is found that the employee was not at all at fault and yet, he was visited with illegal termination or termination which is actually activised by malice, it may be unfair to deny him the fruits of the employment which he would have enjoyed but for the illegal/malafide termination. The effort of the Court must be to then to restore the status quo in the manner which is appropriate in the facts of each case. The nature of the charges, the exact reason for the termination as evaluated and, of course, the question as to whether the employee was gainfully employed would be matters which will enter into the consideration by the Court."

(59) Thus, this Court is of the view that once a selection is duly made, then in case there is any shortcomings in the said selection which is of such a nature that the same cannot be condoned, action has to be taken expeditiously. In the present case, there is no allegation that the writ petitioner/private respondent had misrepresented about their educational qualifications or their experience or where in any manner misconducted themselves in obtaining selection in the University. In absence of any fraud or misrepresentation having been committed by the writ petitioner/private respondent, the selection cannot be cancelled after long period of seven years.

E. CONCLUSION

(60) For all the aforesaid reasons, this Court is not inclined to interfere in the findings arrived by the learned Single Judge in the impugned common judgment/order dated 08/05/2023 passed in Writ-A Nos. 4293, 4316, 4310, 4307, 4312 of 2022 and the impugned judgement/order dated 24.05.2023 passed in Writ-A No.7046 of 2022.

(61) As a sequel to above, all the above-captioned appeals are dismissed. However, in the aforesaid facts and circumstances, there shall be no orders as to cost.

(2024) 2 ILRA 698
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ - A No. 580 of 2023
with Special Appeal Defective No. 187 of 2022
With
Special Appeal Defective No. 257 of 2022
With
Civil Misc. Review Application No. 398 of 2023

Geetanjali Tiwari (Pandey) ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Alok Kumar Yadav, Sri Digvijay Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., Sri Ankur Agarwal, Sri Dhananjay Awasthi, Sri Kshitij Shailendra, Sri Kunal Ravi Singh, Sri Saumitra Singh, Sri Vinayak Mithal

A. Service Law – Appointment to Assistant Professor – UGC Regulations, 2018 – Short-listing Criteria – Petitioners challenged non-inclusion in the short-list for Assistant Professor interviews, alleging improper denial of marks for teaching/post-doctoral experience under Clause 7, Table 3A of UGC Regulations, 2018 – Respondents applied Regulation 10(f)(iii), requiring past teaching experience to have emoluments not less than a regularly appointed Assistant Professor – Held, Regulation 10 applies to counting past services for direct recruitment or promotion under Career Advancement Scheme (CAS) for Associate Professor/Professor posts, not for short-listing Assistant Professor candidates – Clause 7, Table 3A, does not mandate Regulation 10's salary condition for awarding marks for teaching experience – Respondents' interpretation erroneous, as teaching experience in recognized institutions with requisite qualifications suffices for 2 marks per year. (Paras 17, 23, 24, 30, 33, 36)

B. Service Law – Constitutional Validity – Regulation 10(f)(iii) – Petitioners sought to declare Regulation 10(f)(iii) ultra vires Article 14, claiming it arbitrarily excludes teaching experience with lower emoluments – Held, since Regulation 10 is inapplicable to short-listing for Assistant Professor under Clause 7, Table 3A, the challenge to its constitutional validity is unnecessary – Teaching/post-doctoral experience under Clause 7 should be given ordinary meaning, covering full-time teaching in recognized institutions without salary or appointment nature restrictions – Respondents' reliance on Regulation 10(f)(iii) misconceived, as it distorts the purpose of short-listing meritorious candidates. (Paras 11, 17, 33, 34, 36)

C. Service Law – Short-listing for Assistant Professor – Interpretation of UGC Regulations – Clause 7, Table 3A, awards 2 marks per year for teaching/post-doctoral experience without defining the term – Held, applying Regulation 10's restrictive conditions (e.g., salary equivalence, exclusion of guest lecturer roles) to Clause 7 is unwarranted, as it creates anomalies, particularly for post-doctoral experience – Teaching experience as a full-time teacher in a recognized university/college with requisite qualifications entitles candidates to marks under Clause 7, regardless of appointment type or salary – This interpretation promotes the objective of selecting the best candidates for interview – Existing selections unaffected, but future short-listing to follow this judgment. (Paras 31, 33, 35, 36, 37)

Writ Petition, Special Appeals, and Review Application Disposed – Respondents Directed to Short-list Candidates per Judgment.

List of Cases cited:

1. Gambhirdan K. Gadhvi Vs St. of Guj., (2022) 5 SCC 179

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. These bunch of cases raise similar questions of law and fact and have been heard together. They are thus being disposed of by this common judgment. Writ Petition No.580 of 2023 filed by Geetanjali Tiwari (Pandey) is taken as the lead case.

2. All the petitioners/appellants in this bunch undisputedly possess minimum qualification prescribed for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor in a recognized university or the degree colleges affiliated to it. The qualification for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor is prescribed by the UGC regulations notified on 18.7.2018, titled as University Grants Commission (Minimum Qualifications for Appointment of Teachers and other Academic Staff in Universities and Colleges and other Measures for the Maintenance of Standards in Higher Education) Regulations, 2018 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Regulations'). The post of Assistant Professor as per the regulations is to be filled by way of direct recruitment. Clause 4 of the regulations, in so far as it deals with appointment on the post of Assistant Professor, is extracted hereinafter:-

"4.0 Direct Recruitment

4.1 For the Disciplines of Arts, Commerce, Humanities, Education, Law, Social Science, Sciences, Languages, Library Science, Physical Education, and Journalism & Mass Communication.

I. Assistant Professor:

Eligibility (A or B):

A.

i) A Master's degree with 55% marks (or an equivalent grade in a point-scale wherever the grading system is followed) in a concerned/relevant/allied subject from an Indian University, or an equivalent degree from an accredited foreign university.

ii) Besides fulfilling the above qualifications, the candidate must have cleared the National Eligibility Test (NET) conducted by the UGC or the CSIR, or a similar test accredited by the UGC, like SLET/SET or who are or have been awarded a Ph.D. Degree in accordance with the University Grants Commission (Minimum Standards and Procedure for Award of M.Phil./Ph.D. Degree) Regulations, 2009 or 2016 and their amendments from time to time as the case may be exempted from NET/SLET/SET:

Provided, the candidates registered for the Ph.D. programme prior to July 11, 2009, shall be governed by the provisions of the then existing Ordinances/Bye-laws/Regulations of the Institution awarding the degree and such Ph.D. candidates shall be exempted from the requirement of NET/SLET/SET for recruitment and appointment of Assistant Professor or equivalent positions in Universities/Colleges/Institutions subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions:-

a) The Ph.D. degree of the candidate has been awarded in a regular mode;

b) The Ph.D. thesis has been evaluated by at least two external examiners;

c) An open Ph.D. viva voce of the candidate has been conducted;

d) The candidate has published two research papers from his/her Ph.D. work, out of which at least one is in a referred journal;

e) The candidate has presented at least two papers based on his/her Ph.D. work in conferences/seminars sponsored/funded/supported by the UGC/ICSSR/CSIR or any similar agency.

The fulfilment of these conditions is to be certified by the Registrar or the Dean (Academic Affairs) of the University concerned.

Note: NET/SLET/SET shall also not be required for such Masters Programmes in disciplines for which NET/SLET/SET is not conducted by the UGC, CSIR or similar test accredited by the UGC, like SLET/SET.

OR

B. The Ph.D. degree has been obtained from a foreign university/institution with a ranking among top 500 in the World University Ranking (at any time) by any one of the following: (I) Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) (ii) the Times Higher Education (THE) or (iii) the Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU) of the Shanghai Jiao Tong University (Shanghai).

Note: The Academic score as specified in Appendix II (Table 3A) for Universities, and Appendix II (Table 3B) for Colleges, shall be considered for short-listing of the candidates for interview only, and the selections shall be based only on the performance in the interview."

3. The regulations also provide for selection committee for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor. The procedure for selection is also specified in the regulations. Assessment criteria for determining merit as also its methodology are specified in the regulations. Clause 10 of the regulations then provide for counting of past service for direct recruitment and promotion under career advancement scheme. This clause though does not appear to have any relevance for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor, by direct recruitment, but since clause 10(f)(iii) is applied for short-listing of candidates to be called for interview and is also challenged in some of the petitions, therefore, it has become necessary to refer to it. Clause 10 of the regulations is extracted hereinafter:-

"10.0 Counting of Past Services for Direct Recruitment and Promotion under CAS

Previous regular service, whether national or international, as Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Professor or equivalent in a University, College, National Laboratories or other scientific/professional organisations such as the CSIR, ICAR. DRDO, UGC, ICSSR, ICHR, ICMR and DBT, should count for the direct recruitment and promotion under the CAS of a teacher as Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, Professor or any other nomenclature, provided that:

(a) The essential qualifications of the post held were not lower than the qualifications prescribed by the UGC for Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be.

(b) The post is/was in an equivalent grade or of the pre-revised scale of pay as the post of Assistant Professor (Lecturer), Associate Professor (Reader) and Professor.

(c) The concerned Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor should possess the same minimum qualifications as prescribed by the UGC for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be.

(d) The post was filled in accordance with the prescribed selection procedure as laid down in the Regulations of the University/State Government/Central Government/Institutions concerned, for such appointments.

(e) The previous appointment was not as guest lecturer for any duration.

(f) the previous Ad-hoc or Temporary or contractual service (by whatever nomenclature it may be called) shall be counted for direct recruitment and for promotion, provided that:

(i) the essential qualifications of the post held were not lower than the qualifications prescribed by the UGC for Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be.

(ii) the incumbent was appointed on the recommendation of a duly constituted Selection Committee/Selection Committee constituted as per rules of the respective university;

(iii) the incumbent was drawing total gross emoluments not less than the monthly gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be; and

(g) No distinctions shall be made with reference to the nature of management of the institution where previous service was rendered (private/local body/Government) while counting the past service under this clause."

4. The regulations also specify the criteria to be followed for applicants to be shortlisted for interview for the post of Assistant Professors. Table 3A of the regulations, describing the criteria for short-listing, is extracted hereinafter:-

Table: 3A

Criteria for Short-listing of Candidates for Interview for the Post of Assistant Professors in Universities

S.N.	Academic Record	Score
1.	Graduation	80% & Above = 15	60% to less than 80%= 13	55% to less than 60%= 10	45% to less than 55%= 05
2.	Post-Graduation	80% & Above = 25	60% to less than 80%= 13	55%(50% in case of SC/ST/OBC(non-creamy layer)PWD) to less than 60%=220
3.	M.Phil.	60% & Above = 07	55% to less than 60%=05
4.	Ph.D.	30
5.	NET with JRF	07
	NET	05
	SLET/SET	03
6.	Research Publications (2 marks for each research publications published in Peer-Reviewed for UGC-listed journals)	10
7.	Teaching/Post Doctoral Experience (2 marks for oner year each)#	10
8.	Awards
	International /National Level (Awards given by International Organisations/Government of India/Government of	03

	India recognized National Level Bodies)
	State-Level (Awards given by State Government)	02

#However, if the period of teaching/Post-doctoral experience is less than one year then the marks shall be reduced proportionately.

Note:

(A) (i) M.Phil + Ph.D Maximum- 30 marks

(ii) JRF/NET/SET Maximum- 07 marks

(iii) In awards category Maximum- 03 marks

(B) Number of candidates to be called for interview shall be decided by the concerned universities

(C) Academic Score -80
Research Publications -10
Teaching Experience -10

Total -100

(D) Score shall be valid for appointment in respective State SLET/SET Universities/Colleges/Institutions only.

5. All the petitioners/appellants have applied for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor pursuant to the advertisements issued by the University of Allahabad or its constituent colleges. The petitioners/appellants are aggrieved by non-inclusion of their names in the short-listed candidates to be called for interview. The petitioners apparently have not been awarded any marks on account of their teaching/post doctoral experience in terms of clause 7 of table 3A as their teaching experience is not in consonance with regulation 10(f)(iii). Petitioners consequently urge that regulation 10(f)(iii) be not applied while computing marks admissible against clause 7 of table 3A of the regulations or else regulation 10(f)(iii) be held ultra vires. It is also submitted that in the event proper marks were accorded to them for their teaching experience in terms of clause 7 of table 3A then they would qualify to be short-listed for interview.

6. The petitioners assert that though they have requisite teaching experience yet ten marks available to them, as per clause 7 of table 3A have been denied to them by misreading and misapplying the provisions of the UGC regulations, inasmuch as the criteria specified for counting past services for appointment or promotion under career advancement scheme has no applicability while calculating marks as per clause 7 of table 3A. It is thus urged that clause 10 of the regulations apply in entirely different eventuality and has erroneously been applied in the facts of the present case.

7. In leading writ petition no.580 of 2023, the petitioner has sought a declaration that regulation 10(f)(iii) of Regulations be declared ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution of India. Clause (B)(viii) of the General Instructions issued by respondent no.4, in that regard, is also assailed. Prayer is also made to command the respondents to consider the candidature of the petitioner on the post of Assistant Professor in Sanskrit pursuant to advertisement dated 28.11.2022.

8. Special Appeal Defective No.187 of 2022 is also filed by the petitioner in the leading case challenging a judgment of learned Single Judge dated 20.5.2022 dismissing her writ petition no.7114 of 2022. Learned Single Judge had refused the prayer made for award of marks for teaching while short-listing the candidates to be called for interview relying upon regulation 10(e)&(f)(iii) of the regulations. The petitioners working as guest faculty at Allahabad University has been overlooked in view of regulation 10(e) while her working in PG College affiliated to Deen Dayal Upadhyay Gorakhpur University has not been counted towards teaching experience as her contractual appointment did not allow her salary in terms of regulation 10(f)(iii) of the regulations. Learned Single Judge also observed that the relevant regulations, in that regard, were otherwise not challenged. It is apparently to get over this observation that the lead case has been filed challenging the regulations.

9. Special Appeal Defective No.257 of 2022 has been filed by petitioner Brahma Deo claiming marks on account of teaching experience. Learned Single Judge vide his order dated 20.5.2022 dismissed the writ relying upon the judgment of the date rendered in Writ-A No.7114 of 2022 filed by the lead petitioner Geetanjali Pandey. The judgment of learned Single Judge is thus assailed in the special appeal.

10. Lead petitioner had earlier filed Writ-A No.16585 of 2022 challenging regulation 10(f)(iii) as also the consequential clauses (iv) and (v) of the General Instructions contained in the advertisement dated 10.9.2022. This writ has been dismissed on the ground that the judgment of learned Single Judge in Writ-A No.7114 of 2022 was already challenged in special appeal defective no.187 of 2022 and leave was also sought, therein, to challenge regulation 10(f)(iii). Writ Petition No.16585 of 2022 accordingly was not entertained. Liberty, however, was granted to the petitioner to press her special appeal or the application for grant of leave. A review application no.398 of 2023 has been filed to review the judgment and order dated 2.8.2023 dismissing writ petition no.16585 of 2022. This review is also connected in this bunch of petitions.

11. Clause 10(f)(iii) provides that only such services shall be counted where the incumbent was drawing total gross emoluments not less than the monthly gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor. The benefit of past services would not be extended if the salary drawn by the teacher/Assistant Professor is less than the gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor. It is for this reason that petitioners/appellants have challenged regulation 10(f)(iii) of the UGC regulations, 2018 and a declaration has been sought that it is ultra vires Article 14 to the Constitution of India. A prayer has also been made to quash clause b(viii) of the General Instructions issued by respondent no.4 Ishwar Saran Degree College. Clause b(viii) is reproduced hereinafter:-

"(viii) Minimum Educational Qualifications: (a) The applicant must fulfil the essential requirements for desired post (Assistant Professor and College Librarian) and other conditions stipulated in the UGC REGULATIONS ON MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS FOR APPOINTMENT OF TEACHERS AND OTHER ACADEMIC STAFF IN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES AND

MEASURES FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS IN HIGHER EDUCATION, 2018 with subsequent amendments made from time to time, before the first date of publication of Advertisement.

(b) Applicants are advised to satisfy themselves before applying, that they possess the essential qualifications laid down for the posts, as on the last date of submission of Online Application Form. No enquiry asking for advice as to eligibility will be entertained."

12. In the leading writ petition of Geetanjali Tiwari (Pandey), it is asserted that petitioner has applied for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor in Sanskrit in Allahabad Degree College, a constituent college of University of Allahabad. The petitioner has graduated in Sanskrit as one of the subjects in 1996 and possesses a post-graduate degree in Sanskrit(ved). She has also done her Phd in the year 2003-2007 from Deen Dayal Upadhayay University, Gorakhpur and has also qualified NET in Sanskrit. The petitioner asserts that she has teaching experience of contractual post from Jawad Ali Shah Imambara Girls P.G. College, Gorakhpur where she was appointed on 15.10.2004 and she has served in the said institution upto 21.7.2010. The petitioner also claims that she has teaching experience as a guest faculty at the University of Allahabad for the academic year 2017-2018.

13. Respondent no.4 Ishwar Saran Degree College issued an advertisement No. ISDC/01/2022 dated 10.9.2022 inviting applications for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor in various subjects. Petitioner's name has, however, not been included in the list of eligible candidates to be called for interview apparently on the ground that she does not satisfy the condition laid down in regulation 10(f)(iii) of the 2018 regulations for her past teaching experience to be counted in terms of clause 7 of table 3A.

14. Writ petition No.71141 of 2022, filed by the petitioner, challenging her non-inclusion in the short-listed candidates to be called for interview came to be dismissed on 20.5.2022 on the ground that regulation 10(f)(iii) had not been challenged. Aggrieved by the said judgment the petitioner has preferred Special Appeal Defective No.580 of 2023 by moving an application for grant of leave. The petitioner has also challenged the vires of regulation 10(f)(iii). A separate petition has also been filed with the prayer to declare 10(f)(iii) of regulations as ultra vires.

15. Counter affidavits are filed by the respondents contending that UGC regulations are binding upon the institutions and the petitioner-appellants were not entitled to award of marks for their teaching experience since the salary paid to them was below the salary admissible for the post of Assistant Professor by virtue of regulation 10(f)(iii). Respondents contend that the salary received by the petitioner as a guest lecturer and as a teacher of the PG college at Gorakhpur was much below the salary admissible to a Assistant Professor.

16. We have heard Sri Alok Kumar Yadav and Sri Alok Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner-appellants and Sri Dhananjay Awasthi for the University Grants Commission; Sri Kunal Ravi Singh and Sri Ankur Agarwal have appeared for the University of Allahabad and its affiliated colleges and have perused the materials on record.

17. The short question raised in this bunch of petitions is as to whether regulation 10(f)(iii) would be applicable while awarding marks for the teaching/post-doctoral experience, in terms of clause 7 of table 3A for short-listing of candidates, to be called for interview for the post of Assistant Professors in universities? As a sequel, it has to be seen as to whether regulation 10(f)(iii) is ultra vires Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

18. It is undisputed between the parties that qualification and criteria for direct recruitment to a university, duly established as per law, would be determined by the UGC regulations. It is otherwise settled in law that UGC regulations would prevail in the matter of recruitment of teaching staff in a recognized university. (see Gambhirdan K. Gadhvi vs. State of Gujarat, (2022) 5 SCC 179)

19. Regulation 4 provides the qualification for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor. Since the appointment of Assistant Professor is an entry level appointment as such no past/previous experience on such posts is required towards eligibility under the regulations. A candidate having requisite academic qualification as per the regulation can thus be appointed as Assistant Professor even if he/she has no previous teaching experience.

20. For appointment to the post of Associate Professor or Professor the regulations require specified length of requisite previous teaching experience on the post of Assistant Professor in case of Associate Professor and Associate Professor in case of appointment to the post of Professor. This requirement is specified in regulation 4.0 (II) & (III) of the regulations.

21. Regulation 10 specifies the nature of past services to be counted for direct recruitment and also for promotion under the Career Advancement Scheme. Clause (e) & (f) of regulation 10 are already extracted above which provide that teaching experience as a guest lecturer or previous working where the total gross emoluments was less than the gross monthly salary of the Assistant Professor would not be counted towards past services for direct recruitment to the post of Assistant Professor.

22. A combined reading of clause (e) & (f) of regulation 10 undisputedly reveal that past services to be counted for direct recruitment or promotion must not be as guest lecturer for any duration; the essential qualifications of the post held was not lower than the qualification prescribed by UGC for Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be; appointment was on the recommendation of a duly constituted selection committee as per applicable rules of the university; the incumbent drew total gross emoluments not less than the monthly gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, as the case may be.

23. The counting of past services under regulation 10, however, would be relevant and directly co-related to the post on which direct appointment or promotion under CAS itself is sought. Since, past services are required for appointment to the post of Associate Professor and Professor only in the regulations, the relevance of regulation 10 would be restricted to these posts alone.

24. No previous teaching experience (including Assistant Professor) since is required as eligibility condition for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor, as such regulation 10 would have no direct applicability/relevance for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor.

25. Eligibility for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor is distinct from the criteria to be followed for short-listing of candidates to be called for interview for the post of Assistant Professor.

26. Table 3A appended to the regulations lays down the criteria for short-listing of candidates to be called for interview for the post of Assistant Professors. Clause 7 of table 3A talks of teaching/post-doctoral experience and for each such year a candidate is entitled to two marks.

27. From the stand taken by the respondent-university/colleges it transpires that teaching/post-doctoral experience for award of two marks for each such year the respondents have applied regulation 10 of the regulations. Two marks towards teaching/post-doctoral experience for each year has been allowed to a candidate only if such teaching is consistent with regulation 10. Even where a candidate has taught for a year in a recognized institution yet he would not be entitled to two marks unless the incumbent drew total gross emoluments not below the monthly gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor.

28. Teaching/post-doctoral experience occurring in clause 7 of table 3A has not been defined. It is for this reason that the respondents have referred to and read the provisions of regulation 10 of the regulations into it. This interpretation of the respondents is the bone of contention in the present bunch of petitions.

29. Regulation 10 specifically deals with a defined exigency i.e. counting of past services for direct recruitment and promotion under CAS. This exigency is not attracted in the present set of cases. Regulation 10 has a direct nexus with the object sought to be achieved i.e. direct recruitment and promotion under CAS. Since past services are mandatorily required for appointment to the post of Associate Professor and Professor only, therefore, regulation 10 would have relevance only for appointment and promotion to such posts.

30. Reference of past services on the post of Assistant Professor for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor appears to be a surplusage since the eligibility for the post of Assistant Professor does not require any teaching experience. Counting of past services as Assistant Professor for appointment to the post of Assistant Professor serves no purpose in the scheme contained in the regulations. Regulation 10 of the regulations, therefore, has no applicability in the case of direct appointment to the post of Assistant Professor.

31. We are persuaded to take such a view as reference to teaching experience in table 3A has to be read in conjunction with post-doctoral experience as they constitute a composite class in itself. In the event regulation 10 conditions teaching experience, as is suggested by the respondents, the term post-doctoral experience would also have to be necessarily conditioned by regulation 10. This, however, does not appear to be the intent of the scheme contained in the regulations.

32. Limiting teaching experience to the experience of teaching as an Assistant Professor, by drawing emoluments not less than the monthly gross salary of a regularly appointed Assistant Professor would clearly be reading something more than what is specified in the regulations itself. Counting of past services for direct recruitment or promotion under CAS to the post of Assistant Professor otherwise is not contemplated. Such a construction would also be unworkable once a condition of the kind is attached to the post-doctoral experiences also.

33. Post-doctoral experiences can be of different kinds, including research activity, teaching activity etc. If the provisions of regulation 10 are applied while awarding marks in clause 7 of table 3A then an anomalous situation may arise, inasmuch as teaching experience gathered by a post-doctoral candidate would entitle him to two marks if teaching by him is considered as post-doctoral experience but such marks would be denied if it is treated as teaching experience only. It is for this reason that table 3A of the regulations does not refer to or rely upon regulation 10. The interpretation drawn by the respondents to read regulation 10 in table 3A, which specifically lays down the criteria for short-listing of candidates for interview for the post of Assistant Professors, therefore, cannot be approved.

34. In our opinion, regulation 10 of the regulations would be attracted only where past services are required to be counted for direct recruitment and promotion under CAS. It cannot be transposed to be made applicable in criteria for short-listing of candidates to be called for interview, to the post of Assistant Professor, by any recognized process of interpretation. Such construction otherwise is not culled out from the scheme contained in the regulations nor it helps in short-listing of candidates to be called for interview.

35. Table 3A specifies the marks to be awarded to a candidate on different parameters specified therein. Apart from awarding marks for graduation; post-graduation; M.Phil.; NET with JRF or NET; SLET/SET the table provides for teaching/post-doctoral experience of two marks for each year. Since the term teaching/post-doctoral experience is not defined in the regulations the ordinary/commonsensical meaning would have to be assigned to it.

36. Teaching experience as a full time teacher in a recognized university or its affiliated or constituent colleges with requisite qualification as per regulations for the post of Assistant Professor would sufficiently entitle a candidate to award of two marks for each year of teaching experience in clause 7 of table 3A. Nature of appointment i.e. substantive/adhoc/guest lecturer etc. or the amount of salary paid having not been specified in clause 7 of table 3A are not relevant for the purposes of award of marks in clause 7 of table 3A for short-listing of candidates. Regulation 10 would otherwise not be applicable for the reasons recorded above. This construction would obviate the need to examine the challenge laid to the regulation 10(f)(iii) and the general instructions appended to the advertisement in that regard. It would also effectuate the cause of calling best candidates for interview, inasmuch as teaching experience of a candidate would be counted towards his merit for short-listing.

37. The interpretation assigned in this judgment to clause 7 of table 3A would subserve the object of short-listing the best candidates to be called for interview to the post of Assistant Professors. The selections already made, however, would not be reopened or challenged on the ground that short-listing of candidates was not done in the manner indicated in this judgment. This is so as the selected candidates are not a party to this bunch of petitions nor their selections otherwise have been assailed. The respondents would, henceforth, short-list the candidates to be called for interview for the post of Assistant Professor in the manner indicated in this judgment. On these terms the writ petition, special appeal and the review application are disposed of. No order is passed as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 709
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 25.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, A.C.J.
THE HON'BLE DONADI RAMESH, J.

Special Appeal No. 637 of 2023

Amity University, NOIDA & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri Rahul Chaudhary, Sri G.K. Singh (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Ajal Krishna, Sri Rijwa Ali Akhtar, Sri Siddharth Khare, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

A. Education Law – Disciplinary Proceedings – Principles of Natural Justice – Second respondent, a B.Tech student, was rusticated for six months (later reduced to three months) for marking unauthorized "On Duty" (OD) attendances – Writ Court quashed rustication orders, citing violation of natural justice due to lack of formal charge-sheet, non-supply of adverse material, and enquiry report – Held, the enquiry was not vitiated as the student was aware of charges, participated in multi-level enquiries, and admitted to marking fake ODs – No material prejudice shown, as per ECIL Vs B. Karunakar and "useless formality" theory – Enquiry upheld, as procedural lapses did not invalidate the process given the broad-based investigation involving multiple students and faculty. (Paras 3, 14, 25, 28, 30, 32, 33, 34, 40)

B. Education Law – Rustication and B+ Grade Cap – Reformative Approach – Student's rustication led to shortfall in attendance, resulting in a B+ grade cap under Regulation 10(2)(h) – Writ Court directed removal of B+ cap and deletion of disciplinary references in mark sheet, adopting a reformative approach – Held, while B+ cap was a consequence of rustication, the court declined to interfere with the Writ Court's lenient view to avoid lifelong adverse impact on the student's career – Reformative approach upheld, balancing discipline with student rehabilitation, as supported by Shivam Kant Vs U.O.I.. (Paras 3, 38, 39, 42)

C. Education Law – Suspension and Examination Bar – Procedural Fairness – Student claimed the University arbitrarily barred him from filling the End Semester Examination form on 14.11.2019, before his suspension on 15.11.2019 – Held, no prejudice caused, as evidence of fake OD marking justified suspension, and the student could not have appeared in the examination post-suspension – University's action during ongoing institutional enquiry (initiated 11.11.2019) was not mala fide, as prima facie evidence existed against the student. (Paras 14, 41)

Special Appeal Dismissed – Enquiry Upheld, but Relief on B+ Cap and Mark Sheet Upheld.

List of Cases cited:

1. Bihar School Examination Board Vs Subhash Chandra Sinha & ors., AIR 1970 SC 1269

2. ECIL Vs B. Karunakar, (1993) 4 SCC 727

3. Aligarh Muslim University & ors. Vs Mansoor Ali Khan, (2000) 7 SCC 529

4. M.C. Mehta Vs U.O.I., (1999) 6 SCC 237

5. Shivam Kant Vs U.O.I., (2015) 13 SCC 477

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Kumar Gupta, A.C.J.)

1. The instant intra court appeal under Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Rules of the Court is directed against the judgement of learned Single Judge dated 02.08.2023 by which the writ petition filed by the second respondent (student) was allowed and the order dated 25.02.2020 rusticating him for six months, the appellate order dated 16.03.2020 passed in appeal reducing the period of rustication to three months, were quashed. The appellant-University was also directed to issue a fresh mark sheet to the student treating him as a regular student and to evaluate him out of 100 marks, which had the effect of removing the 'B+' Cap and also not make any reference to the disciplinary action taken against the student in the mark sheet and delete the endorsement "reappearance in September, 2020".

Facts:

2. The second respondent (student) was admitted to B.Tech Course (Computer Science) in the appellant-University in the academic session 2016-2020. He cleared six semesters till April, 2019. While in 7th Semester, he was suspended by order dated 15.11.2019 with immediate effect by appellant no.4 for act of indiscipline by indulging in marking of unauthorised and fake "ODs" (on duty) attendances. Thereafter, the University conducted disciplinary proceedings against him and several others. By order dated 25.02.2020, the second respondent was rusticated from the University for six months w.e.f. 15.11.2019, the date of his suspension. Aggrieved thereby, the second respondent preferred an appeal to the Vice-Chancellor. The appeal was disposed of by reducing the period of rustication from six months to three months. The second respondent thereafter preferred the writ petition before this Court, which has been allowed by the impugned judgement.

Findings of the Writ Court:

3. The Writ Court has held that there was violation of principles of natural justice, as the student was not supplied the adverse material nor the enquiry report. He was also not served with any formal charge-sheet containing statement of charges and, therefore, the order of rustication and the appellate order were held to be illegal. The Writ Court also took into consideration the period of rustication of three months already undergone, while under suspension and taking a lenient view, with the object of reformation, concluded that the punishment imposed was disproportionate. Consequently, the order of punishment was held to be arbitrary and illegal and was set aside. In consequence, further reliefs, as noted above, were also granted.

Submissions of learned counsel for the appellants:

4. Sri G.K. Singh, learned Senior Counsel for the appellant-University submitted that the findings recorded in the impugned order of the learned Single Judge that there was no proof of service of notice or intimation of charges to the student and the punishment awarded is disproportionate, are perverse and contrary to the material available on record. In support of the said contention, reliance has been placed on the written statement of the student addressed to the Enquiry Committee dated 06.12.2019, the whatsapp chat of the student, the minutes of the Disciplinary Committee meeting dated 11/12.02.2019, the statement of other students- Aabhushan Verma, Riya Agarwal and Lina Gupta; various correspondence between the University and the second respondent. It is submitted that the student was well aware of the charges against him and he never complained, even at the time of filing appeal that he was not aware of the charges or the nature of enquiry or that he was not associated with the enquiry. It is submitted that the student has not suffered any prejudice, as the University had taken action not only against the second respondent but against various other students involved in the marking of unauthorized "ODs" as well as against faculty members, who were found guilty of dereliction of duties. It is further submitted that under the Regulations a minimum of 75% attendance was essential and if a student falls short of attendance, he is not permitted to appear in End-Semester-Examination. In the present case, the student being under rustication, was not having the requisite attendance, therefore, in terms of Regulation 10(2)(h) of R-01 B+ Cap was rightly imposed. It is further submitted that in any event, since the rustication order has been set aside on the ground of violation of principles of natural justice, the appellant should have been given option to provide opportunity to the student and pass fresh order instead of allowing the writ petition in toto. This was all the more important as the enquiry proceedings related not only to the second respondent but a large number of other students as well as faculty members, who were involved in the racket. It is submitted that in most of the cases, the punishment orders have already been implemented or are being implemented and the adverse finding recorded by learned Single Judge touching upon the validity of the enquiry proceedings, without liberty to hold fresh enquiry, will have very wide ramifications.

Submission of learned counsel for the second respondent:

5. Shri Ashok Khare, learned Senior counsel appearing for the second respondent submitted that the findings recorded in the impugned judgement are perfectly valid. The enquiry stood vitiated, as no formal charge-sheet was ever served on the second respondent; that he was not given opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses; that adverse material was not supplied to him; the enquiry report was also not made available to him. He further submitted that regulation relating to imposition of B+ Cap was applicable only to a case where a student reappears in an examination i.e., where he has failed in the main examination and not to a case where a student could not appear in the main examination because of rustication, as such, the direction given by learned Single Judge to remove B+ Cap is fully justified. It is also urged that the action of the University in not permitting the student to fill examination form of VII Semester Examination even before he was placed under suspension on 15.11.2019 was wholly illegal and malafide.

Analysis:

6. The appellant is an autonomous University constituted under the Amity University Uttar Pradesh Act, 2005. Under the said Act, the University has framed "Regulations on Conduct of Examinations, Scheme of Evaluation and Discipline Among Students in Examinations". Regulation 10 of R-01 deals with attendance and the relevant part thereof is extracted below:

"10. (1) ATTENDANCE

(a) Students are expected to have 100% attendance.

(b) Relaxation of maximum 25% may be allowed to cater for sickness or other valid reasons beyond the control of the students for which written permission of HoI/ HoD is mandatory.

(c) A student whose attendance is less than 75%, whatever may be the reason for shortfall, will not be permitted to appear in the End Semester Examination (ESE).

However, Student may be permitted by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor with B+ cap, by condoning attendance up to 5% in a course, under the following circumstances:

i) If student falls sick for a certain period during the semester.

ii) If student participates in any events, nationally/internationally, representing the University.

(d) Under extreme special circumstances, Vice Chancellor may condone attendance upto 5% below 75% without B+ Cap on grade on the recommendation of HoI and Committee constituted for the purpose.

(e) Every teaching faculty handling a class will take attendance till the last session of the course as per LTP and session plan. The percentage of attendance upto this day will be calculated and forwarded to Examination Department by the HoI for issue of Admit Cards.

(f) If a student is continuously absent for a period of two weeks without permission, a notice will be sent to the student and to his parents / guardian by the Course Faculty, Programme Leader and HoI/HoD, with a copy to the Office of Pro VC (A)/Dean. Online system for better monitoring must be developed.

(g) Attendance will be continuously monitored. Students falling short of 75% attendance will be counseled/warned with intimation to parents by HoI /HoD.

Fornightly basis - Course Faculty

Monthly basis - Programme leader

Mid-Semester - HoI/HoD

End-Semester - HoI /HoD.

(h) If a student remains absent continuously for 30 days without permission, his name will be struck off by the HoI. Such a student may apply for re-admission. The HoI will examine his performance in all semesters and back log of papers and forward recommendations to Pro VC(A)'s/Dean office to decide as to whether he should be given re-admission or not. Based on the recommendations, decision for re-admission and the semester in which re-admission is to be given will be taken. The student granted re-admission will be required to pay the prescribed readmission fee and will be governed by Academic Regulations given above. The attendance will be calculated from the commencement date of the semester and not from the date of re-admission.

(i) "A student whose attendance is between 70-75% and who does not fall under Para 10 (1)(d), may be allowed to appear in the End Semester Examination (ESE) after obtaining written permission of Vice Chancellor subject to the condition that he/she will be awarded letter grade not exceeding B+." This provision will not be applicable to late admissions, lateral admissions and transfer cases. If a student's attendance is more than 75% in majority of the courses and has attendance between 70 to 75% in few courses then his/her case will be considered for special permission of Vice Chancellor. The admit card should indicate "Specially Permitted with B+ cap/ without B+ cap".

A Sub-Committee constituted as under will decide the category of student whether his/her case falls under 10(1)(d) or 10(1)(i).

(a) Pro Vice Chancellor / Dean/Sr. HoI : Chairman (Nominated by Vice Chancellor)

(b) One Dean of Faculty : Member

(c) One Sr. Head of Institution : Member

(d) One Sr. Professor : Member

(e) CoE : Member Secretary

Recommendation of the Committee will be placed before Vice Chancellor for approval before issue of Admit Card clearly indicating the two categories."

7. A student, whose attendance is below 75%, is not permitted to appear in the end semester examination. Regulation 10(2), which relates to action in cases of shortfall of attendance is extracted below:-

"(2) Action in Cases of Shortfall of Attendance

(a) A student, whose attendance is below 75%, will not be permitted to appear in the ESE and will be awarded 'DE' grade in that paper and treated as Fail in that subject..

(b) 'DE'/F grade students (Debarred due to shortage of attendance or Fail in a course unit) are required to repeat the course unit in the next corresponding semester and reappear in the normal schedule of ESE of that paper i.e. 'F' grade student of 3rd semester may reappear in that course unit in the 5th semester.

(c) 'DE' grade students will have to apply to the HoI for re-appearing within the first week of the commencement of the corresponding semester. The HoI will assign Guided Self Study Courses & assignments under the faculty for the concerned courses, of which, regular assessment records will be put up by the faculty to the HoI. HoI will forward the recommendations for grant of permission to re-appear in that course unit. Only on grant of permission, a student will be allowed to reappear.

(d) A student whose attendance is 75% or above but is unable to appear in a paper/papers due to valid unavoidable reasons and with proper written permission from HoI will be awarded 'I' grade. Students absent without valid reasons will be marked 'AB'.

(e) 'I' grade students other than those of Final Semester should apply to the HoI within seven days after the last paper for re-appearing for which the examination will be held within 30 days of the last paper and 'I' grade will be converted to appropriate letter grade not exceeding B+.

(f) The final year students who have obtained 'DE' grade may apply to re-appear in those Courses of final two semesters only in the Special Supplementary Examinations to be held within 30 days of the declaration of Results.

(g) The final year students who have obtained 'I' grade may apply to re-appear in the subjects of Final Semester only in the Special Supplementary Examination to be held within 30 days of the declaration of Results.

(h) In all cases of re-appearing ('DE', 'AB', 'I' & 'F' grade students), the marks obtained by the students who have re-appeared will be converted to the appropriate letter grade not exceeding B+.

(i) The 'I', 'DE', 'AB' & 'F' grade students are allowed only one chance to reappear.

(j) A student who has qualified in a course unit is not allowed to re-appear in that course unit subject to conditions as given in para 20 (4).

(k) Students will make up academic deficiency by attending extra classes organized by the institution for Guided Self Study Course (GSSC) during PAP/PAW/ YB period as applicable.

(l) 70% attendance will be of the actual class attended by the student excluding the official duty period. The attendance including OD should not be less than 90% for allowing student to appear in End Semester Examination."

8. Regulation 11 deals with computation of attendance, which is as follows:

"11. COMPUTATION OF ATTENDANCE

(1) Attendance at lectures, tutorials, practicals, clinicals, sessionals, if any, held during the academic session shall be counted.

(2) Attendance at NCC/NSS camp, Amity Cadet Corps/ Amity Military Training Camp, seminars/ workshops organized by other Institutions/ Universities as approved by the University or any such other training organized by the University during the session shall be taken as full attendance at lectures/ practicals/ tutorials on each such day of camp/ training and the days of journey to such camp/ training (excluding the period of holidays/vacations).

(3) Participation as a member of the University/ Constituent Unit team in any inter-University competition games & sports and/or other extra curricular activities shall be taken as full attendance on the days of such competition and the days of journey for participating therein.

(4) Participation as a member of a recognized/approved team in any competition shall be taken as full attendance. The period will also include the days of actual coaching, competition and the days of journey for participating therein.

(5) In determining the exact number of minimum requisite attendance in lectures, tutorials, seminars, moots, practicals, sessionals etc. fraction shall be ignored.

(6) For re-admission of a student whose name was struck off from the rolls due to continuous absence from the classes without information, attendance in lectures, tutorials, practicals etc. in that semester/ trimester/year prior to re-admission shall be counted.

(7) "Attendance for the normal admission cases will be counted from the date of commencement of the programme of that semester. However, for late admission/lateral admission/ transfer case, the attendance will be counted from 4th day of the payment of fee or the date of registration whichever is earlier".

(8) In case of International Students of 1st Year (1st Semester), attendance will be counted from the date of Registration."

9. A perusal of Regulation 11 reveals that attendance is also awarded, when a student participates in any training camp, seminar/workshop, sport event etc., apart from the attendance obtained in usual course in attending lectures, tutorials, practicals, clinicals and sessionals.

10. The attendance earned by a student, while participating in trainings, seminars, workshops etc., or while participating in extra-curricular activities are called "ODs".

11. The respondent-University had developed a procedure for marking of "ODs" attendances by an online system, which was accessible through the login ID and password of the authorized faculty members. The charge against the second respondent was that of marking unauthorised "ODs" for other students, although not entitled, having not participated in any of the permissible activities on the relevant date.

12. The respondent-University initially constituted a departmental committee to hold preliminary enquiry. It identified the second respondent and one Bhanu Sharma of the Amity School of Engineering and Technology involved in marking of fake "ODs". During course of enquiry, names of other students from other departments of the University also surfaced. The Departmental Enquiry Committee recommended for a proctorial enquiry, as it was a cross institutional matter. The Proctorial Board consequently held the enquiry. After the names were identified, the matter was handed over to the Institutional Committee constituted on 11.11.2019 consisting of:

Dr. Manoj Kumar Pandey – Chairman
Dr. Abhay Bansal – Chairman
Members
Dr. Nitashhasteer
Dr. Madhuri Kumari
Prof. Vivek Kumar
Dr. R.K. Kapur
Dr. Basant Singh Sikarwar
Dr. Abhilshekh Singhal
Dr. H.P. Singh
Dr. R.K. Tomer
Dr. Sai Savita

13. The Committee interrogated the second respondent and another student Bhanu Sharma on 13 Nov 2019. These two students gave the name of three more students and one faculty and one staff member who were sharing HOI Password with them. Further, the second respondent gave names of three faculty members who were also involved in the fake OD cases. Based on the above inputs, the Committee interrogated the following students, staff, and faculty members:

Students:
1. Mr. Prakhar Nagar
2. Mr. Bhanu Kumar
3. Mr. Tushar Puri
4. Mr. Prabal Gupta
5. Mr. Srijan Sharma and Faculty and Staff Members:

a. Dr. Divya Upadhyay
b. Ms. Shanu Sharma
c. Dr. Sumita Gupta
d. Mr. Dev Kumar

e. Mr. Satish Kumar.

14. On 15.11.2019, the second respondent was placed under suspension for indulging in act of indiscipline, namely, (a) indulging in or encouraging any form of disruptive activity connected with tests, examinations or any other activity of the University or the college or the institution, (b) indulging in undesirable activities.

15. The Committee submitted its report on 02.12.2019 and recommended for action being taken against various students including the second respondent and also certain faculty and staff members.

16. The case of the University is that the second respondent and his parents thereafter sent various e-mails to different authorities of the University and started meeting them. The University, in order to ensure fair-play and transparency, decided to go for enquiry by a University level committee which was constituted on 11.12.2019 to enquire into the facts leading to marking of fake ODs. The following were the members of the said Committee:-

1. Dr. D.K. Bandyopadhyay, Chairman

Members

2. Dr. Sujata Khandai
3. Prof. R.K. Kapur
4. Dr. Alpana Kakkar
5. Dr. Manoj Kumar Pandey
6. Dr. Shefali Raizada
7. Ms. Mala Dev

Invited Member

8. Dr. Manohar Sajnani

17. The said Committee called various students for interrogation on 12th and 13th December, 2019. The second respondent as well as 31 other students appeared before the Committee for interrogation and based on the interrogation, submissions made by the students and analysis of whatsapp chats, the Committee recommended for action being taken against the second respondent, various other students and certain faculty members.

18. According to the enquiry report, the name of the second respondent was mentioned by the students – Apoorv Goel, Riya Agarwal, Shambhavi Sharma, Naina Gupta and Aabhushan Verma. The Committee found evidence of the second respondent having copied password of Amizone of Head of Institute from Mr. Satish. He was also found guilty of putting attendance at night from his residence by using the password. The Committee was of the opinion that the misconduct was of a serious nature and amounted to a criminal offence, but taking a sympathetic view, to protect the interest of the students, it recommended for different punishments for different students, based on the seriousness of misconduct. It recommended for rustication of the second respondent for a period of one year. Dr. Abhishek Singhal, Faculty Member, who failed to perform his duties as Deputy HoD with utmost care, was replaced by another person. Dr. Upadhya, who had given full attendance without teaching was separated from the Department and Dr. Nidhi and Ms. Shanu Sharma from PL ships immediately. The Committee also concurred with the recommendation of the Institution Committee Report dated 2.12.2019 for separation of Mr. Dev Chaudhary, AP-I, Department of CSE, Mr. Satish Kumar, Executive Secretary, Department of CSE.

19. Thereafter the Students Disciplinary Committee held its meeting on 11.02.2020 and taking a lenient view, it decided to rusticate the second respondent only for six months. The findings of the Students Disciplinary Committee in relation to the second respondent are as follows:-

"He has accepted that he had been marking OD's of other ASET student. However, he has claimed that the login ID and password was given by an ASET Faculty every time as the Faculty had asked him to help in marking the large number of authorized OD's of ASET students. However, he has not been able to explain the unauthorized/false OD's he marked for his friends."

20. Based on the recommendation of the Students Disciplinary Committee dated 11.02.2020, the second respondent was rusticated by order dated 25.02.2020 for six months starting from his suspension date i.e. 15th November, 2019. He was required to submit an undertaking of future good behaviour signed by him and his parents.

21. The second respondent aggrieved thereby preferred appeal before the Vice Chancellor. The Vice Chancellor, taking into consideration the career of the student and other facts presented before her during personal interaction, reduced the rustication period to three months from the date of his suspension i.e. 12th November, 2019.

22. It is evident from the facts narrated above that the University having regard to the seriousness of the matter got the enquiry conducted at three different levels - initially by a Departmental Committee; thereafter by a Proctorial Board; and finally by University Level Committee.

23. The second respondent was well aware of the fact that all the aforesaid enquiries were in relation to marking of fake and unauthorised ODs. It is also an admitted fact that the mobile phone of the student was seized by the University in connection with the enquiry. By e-mail dated 23.11.2019, the second respondent was informed that effort was made to contact him for returning his mobile phone, but he had not turned up. He was, therefore, advised to come and take back his mobile phone. The e-mail is to the following effect:-

"Your mobile has been seized for doing further investigations for finding the fact related to fake official duty (OD) …… by you against payment received by you in cash from Kumar Bhanu Sharma.

We are trying to give your mobile phone since last one week but you have not collected till now.

You are advised to collect your mobile phone as early as possible."

24. The second respondent responded to the said mail on the same date and alleged that he came to the University to get back his mobile phone. However, he and his parents were told by the Faculty that they would prepare a letter signed by all Committee members by 21.11.2019 relating to return of mobile phone and would then return the mobile phone. He returned, as the said letter was not ready.

25. It is evident from the aforesaid exchange of e-mails between the second respondent and the University that he was aware of the specific charge that enquiry was being held against him in relation to marking of fake ODs. The second respondent admittedly appeared before the Enquiry Committee on 16.12.2019 and gave the following letter in writing:-

The Committee
Sector-125, NOIDA
Amity University

6th December 2019

Respected Sir,

Prakhar Nagar of batch 2016-2020 of B. TECH CSE would like to state that I got password from Dev Sir. Dev Sir used to get the password from Satish Sir.

One or two times. I have marked OD of a student who are not present in the university.

In 2016 when I came to college seniors used to sit with Dev Sir to mark ODs, so the students used to sit with Dev Sir and mark OD's.

Last sem I have complained regarding this to Dev Sir and given the clips of Akash Gupta and Bhanu Sharma and Satish Sir as they were involved in taking money. During the last sem Satish Sir was absent for 15 days approx. so during that time they didn't have the HOI login password.

Thank You
Your Sincerely
Prakhar Nagar
7 CSE 44
A2305216644
Sd./ illegible
16.12.2019

26. In the appeal preferred by the student before the Vice Chancellor, he stated as follows:-

To,
Honourable Vice Chancellor
Amity University, Sec 12, U.P>
6th March 2020
Subject : Review Appeal Respected Madam,

I Prakhar Nagar would humbly request you to review the office order released by the university authorities dated on 25th February, 2020.

Madam I am your student my career and life is on intake. I once again with my folded hands would like to request you to review the decision.

I have already submitted the information to the enquiry committee regarding the indiscipline.

Thank you
Yours sincerely,
PRAKHAR NAGAR
2016-2020
A2305216644

27. In para 12 of the writ petition, the student admits that between "6.11.2019 to 25.02.2020 his parents were called by the University and he alongwith his parents met the Dean, Students Welfare, Proctor and Members of the Enquiry Committee constituted for such purpose on several dates."

28. It is evident from the facts narrated above that the second respondent was aware of the gravamen of the imputations against him; he participated in the enquiry which was held at three different levels and during pendency of enquiry, he never complained of any fault in the enquiry proceedings or violation of any principle of natural justice as may have caused prejudice to him.

29. It is not disputed that the charge against the second respondent would fall under the act of indiscipline (quoted in paragraph 14) which were clearly specified in the suspension order.

30. The statement of the student himself admitting that he had on some occasion marked fake ODs of other students and that money was being realised from students for marking of fake ODs; the statement of other students in which also his role in the entire episode was clearly mentioned and the whatsapp chats from his mobile phone, the correctness of which was never disputed by him, constituted material evidence before the Committee to arrive at the finding of guilt. Concededly, the standard of proof in such an enquiry is not the same as in a criminal trial. Some of the relevant portions of whatsapp chats are extracted below:-

"Payment can be done via cash or through PayTM.

15/10/18, 20:00 - Prakhar Nagar : Bhara tune yeh??

15/10/18, 20:00 - Z Kartik jain : Nhi

15/10/18, 20:01 - Z Kartik jain : Bharta hu abhi

15/10/18, 20:05 - Prakhar Nagar : Haa

15/10/18, 22:35 - Prakhar Nagar : Kal cash ya paytm dediyi

15/10/18, 22:40 - Z Kartik jain : Okayy

15/10/18, 22:40 - Z Kartik jain : 350 cash dedunga

15/10/18, 22:40 - Prakhar Nagar : Haan

29/10/18, 10:13 - Z Kartik jain : Aaj 4-5 ki od lag sakti hai?

29/10/18, 10:13 - Z Kartik jain : Please

29/10/18, 10:14 - Z Kartik jain : Attendance varna kam ho jaayegi

29/10/18, 14:19 - Z Kartik jain : Bhaiya 4-5 maths ki hai please lagwa dena

30/10/18, 12:30 - Z Kartik jain : Kal ki od lag jaayegi naa?"

19/12/18, 13:40 - Z Vansh Passi : OD form maine bhar diya hai

19/12/18, 13:40 - Z Vansh Passi : Aapko kaha aakr du?

19/12/18, 13:46 - Z Vansh Passi :

19/12/18, 17:16 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya lagwado OD plss

19/12/18, 17:16 - Z Vansh Passi : Date :- 18/12/18

20/12/18, 09:10 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya plss lagwa dijiye

20/12/18, 09:23 - Prakhar Nagar : haa

20/12/18, 09:25 - Z Vansh Passi : Aaj lag jayegi na!

20/12/18, 09:25 - Prakhar Nagar : haq

20/12/18, 09:34 - Z Vansh Passi : OK

20/12/18, 22:30 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya abhi tk nhi lagi hai attendance aap plss dekhlo ek baar

20/12/18, 22:30 - Prakhar Nagar : yaar wo miss time pura hogaya tha isliye kal lag jayegi.

20/12/18, 22:30 - Z Vansh Passi : OK bhaiya Thankyou

21/12/18, 09:24 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya aaj yaad se lagwa dena plss

21/12/18, 10:12 - Prakhar Nagar : laga di

21/12/18, 10:31 - Z Vansh Passi : Thankyou so much bhaiya

16/01/19, 10:18 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya??

16/01/19, 10:18 - Z Vansh Passi : Aap abhi free ho meko aapse milna h kuch imp hai

18/01/19, 17:30 - Z Vansh Passi : Thursday->BEE tute (9:15-10:10)

Law (10:15-11:10)

Maths (11:15-12:10)

Chemistry (12:15-1:10)

18/01/19, 17:31 - Z Vansh Passi : Vansh-A2305218407

Rishi—A2305218408, bhaiya dono ki laga dena

18/01/19, 17:34 - Z Vansh Passi : Friday - > Law(9:15-10:10)

Chemistry (10:15-11:10)

Maths (12:15-01:10)

Engineering graphics (1:15-2:10)

Engineering graphics (2:15-3:10)

18/01/19, 17:36 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya pls laga dena

20/01/19, 23:59 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya kal lagwa dena plss

21/01/19, 13:01 - Prakhar Nagar : lagadi khush reh

21/01/19, 15:21 - Z Vansh Passi : Thankyou so so so much bhaiyaa!

07/03/19, 11:51 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya abhi free ho?

11/03/19, 15:22 - Z Vansh Passi :

11/03/19, 15:22 - Z Vansh Passi :

11/03/19, 15:22 - Z Vansh Passi : EVS ke alawa baaki sbki od lagwa do !

14/03/19, 15:00 - Z Vansh Passi : Monday-> 9-11 Technical comm. Wednesday - > 2-5 Basic electrical engg.

14/03/19, 15:13 - Z Vansh Passi : Bss yeh do lagwaa do plss

26/03/19, 22:55 - Prakhar Nagar : Sun

26/03/19, 22:55 - Prakhar Nagar : Sogaya Kya

26/03/19, 22:56 - Prakhar Nagar : Pool party rakhi hai

26/03/19, 22:56 - Prakhar Nagar : 4 ko 12 baje se

26/03/19, 23:06 - Z Vansh Passi : Kaha pr hai?

26/03/19, 23:07 - Prakhar Nagar : 15 min dur amity se

26/03/19, 23:07 - Z Vansh Passi : Kal milke batata hu

26/03/19, 23:07 - Prakhar Nagar : Haan 1400 price

26/03/19, 23:07 - Z Vansh Passi : Meri class k bachhe aa skte h?

26/03/19, 23:07 - Prakhar Nagar : Haan

26/03/19, 23:07 - Prakhar Nagar : Koi dikkat nahi

26/03/19, 23:07 - Z Vansh Passi : Ohkk

26/03/19, 23:08 - Prakhar Nagar : Bas class ke laiyo

26/03/19, 23:08 - Z Vansh Passi : Hn hn

26/03/19, 23:08 - Prakhar Nagar : Red label piyenge

26/03/19, 23:08 - Z Vansh Passi :

26/03/19, 23:19 - Prakhar Nagar : Kal tak batadiyo

22/04/19, 13:34 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiyaa! Yeh ntcc kya hai?

22/04/19, 13:34 - Prakhar Nagar : Hai ek chutiyapa amity ka

24/04/19, 21:56 - Prakhar Nagar : Fbl kaunsi hai

24/04/19, 22:14 - Z Vansh Passi : German

24/04/19, 22:15 - Z Vansh Passi : Shreya ki class m hi hu

24/04/19, 22:15 - Prakhar Nagar : Acha

25/04/19, 00:01 - Z Vansh Passi : Bhaiya ??

25/04/19, 00:01 - Prakhar Nagar : Hanji

25/04/19, 00:01 - Z Vansh Passi : German ka ppr leak hua hai kya?

25/04/19, 00:01 - Prakhar Nagar : Raat mein patah chalega

25/04/19, 00:01 - Z Vansh Passi : Shivam keh rha hi ki leak ho gya hai

25/04/19, 00:02 - Prakhar Nagar : Nahi hua abhi german ka kisi ke pass nahi hai

25/04/19, 00:02 - Z Vansh Passi : OKK

25/04/19, 00:02 - Z Vansh Passi : Jb bhi kuch pta chle toh bta dena

25/04/19, 00:02 - Prakhar Nagar : Haa

25/04/19, 01:36 - Prakhar Nagar : Mila phir

25/04/19, 01:36 - Z Vansh Passi : Nhi

25/04/19, 01:36 - Z Vansh Passi : Shivam isn't responding!

25/04/19, 01:37 - Z Vansh Passi : Btao hua bhi hai leak ya nahi?

25/04/19, 01:37 - Prakhar Nagar : Hua toh hai frnch ka kisi ko chaiye ho

25/04/19, 01:37 - Prakhar Nagar : Toh 500 mein toh

25/04/19, 01:37 - Prakhar Nagar : Lelo

25/04/19, 01:37 - Prakhar Nagar : Baki german

25/04/19, 01:37 - Z Vansh Passi : Poochhaa maine ekdo se mana kr reh hai

25/04/19, 01:38 - Z Vansh Passi : Baki german?

25/04/19, 01:38 - Prakhar Nagar : Ka Bhi Keh diya hai nikalgaya hai

25/04/19, 01:38 - Z Vansh Passi : Achha

25/04/19, 01:38 - Z Vansh Passi :

25/04/19, 01:38 - Z Vansh Passi : Yeh aya hai kahi se

25/04/19, 01:40 - Prakhar Nagar : Abe chutiyapa ignore

25/04/19, 01:40 - Z Vansh Passi : German ka kitne ka hoga??

25/04/19, 01:40 - Prakhar Nagar : Yaar wo jab niklega tabh

25/04/19, 01:40 - Z Vansh Passi : ohkk

25/04/19, 01:40 - Prakhar Nagar : Patah chalega

25/04/19, 01:40 - Z Vansh Passi : Genuine hoga na?

25/04/19, 01:40 - Prakhar Nagar : Haan

25/04/19, 01:41 - Z Vansh Passi : Bta dena jaise bhi ho

25/04/19, 01:41 - Prakhar Nagar : Ok

25/04/19, 01:50 - Prakhar Nagar : German chaiye

25/04/19, 01:50 - Z Vansh Passi : Kitne?

25/04/19, 01:50 - Prakhar Nagar : 2k

25/04/19, 01:50 - Z Vansh Passi : 500 ka aya hai ek se offer!

25/04/19, 01:51 - Prakhar Nagar : Yaar mein agey se ata hai puchta hoon

25/04/19, 01:51 - Z Vansh Passi : Hn bhaiya

25/04/19, 01:51 - Prakhar Nagar : Agar esa hai

25/04/19, 01:51 - Z Vansh Passi : Hosteller h ek keh rhi hai 500! Same aya toh ok nhi toh paise vapis

25/04/19, 01:52 - Prakhar Nagar : 500 ka offer hai ab

06/09/19, 08:36 - Z Shreya Amity : 3-5 od laga doge

06/09/19, 08:36 - Z Shreya Amity : dad ka bday h

06/09/19, 08:36 - Z Shreya Amity : jaldi ghr jaana h

06/09/19, 11:29 - Z Shreya Amity : batado pls

06/09/19, 11:32 - Prakhar Nagar : Ok

02/11/18, 16:15 - z manav asija : Bhai laga do please 5 k badd nahi lag paegi

02/11/18, 16:16 - Prakhar Nagar : laga di

02/11/18, 16:24 - z manav asija : Thankyou

03/11/18, 16:13 - Prakhar Nagar : arush tera bhai hai?

03/11/18, 16:13 - z manav asija : Asija?

Family friend

05/08/19, 16:09 - z manav asija : Bhai laga do please

05/08/19, 17:34 - Prakhar Nagar : Laga di

05/08/19, 18:11 - z manav asija : Thanks bhai

02/11/18, 13:38 - Z Akash Nigam : Jasmine ki 1st nov ki nhi lgi bhai

02/11/18, 13:56 - Z Akash Nigam :

02/11/18, 13:57 - Z Akash Nigam : Jasmine enrollment no. A2305218432

02/11/18, 13:57 - Prakhar Nagar : lagadi

31. It is now well settled that violation of natural justice is not a straight jacket formula but depends on facts of each case. Where enquiry is not against any particular individual but broad based and involves a large number of persons, it is not always necessary to hold detailed enquiry against each individual. If on examination of facts, it emerges that a fair procedure has been adopted without causing any material prejudice to any person then the courts have declined to interfere. Thus, in the Bihar School Examination Board vs. Subhash Chandra Sinha and others1, where enquiry was on charge of mass-cheating, it was found not necessary to give opportunity of hearing to individual candidates. The relevant observation in this regard is as follows :-

13. This is not a case of any particular individual who is being charged with adoption of unfair means but of the conduct of all the examinees or at least a vast majority of them at a particular centre. If it is not a question of charging any one individually with unfair means but to condemn the examination as ineffective for the purpose it was held. Must the Board give an opportunity to all the candidates to represent their cases? We think not. It was not necessary for the Board to give an opportunity to the candidates if the examinations as a whole were being cancelled. The Board had not charged any one with unfair means so that he could claim to defend himself. The examination was vitiated by adoption of unfair means on a mass scale. In these circumstances it would be wrong to insist that the Board must hold a detailed inquiry into the matter and examine each individual case to satisfy itself which of the candidates had not adopted unfair means. The examination as a whole had to go.

32. Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court in ECIL v. B.Karunakar2, considered the effect of non-supply of enquiry officer's report to the delinquent. While it was held that non-supply of the enquiry report would result in breach of principles of natural justice, but in every case, non-supply of report would not ipso facto result in the proceedings being declared null and void, unless the delinquent is able to show any serious prejudice to him. The majority view in para 30(v) is extracted below :-

"30. (v) The next question to be answered is what is the effect on the order of punishment when the report of the enquiry officer is not furnished to the employee and what relief should be granted to him in such cases. The answer to this question has to be relative to the punishment awarded. When the employee is dismissed or removed from service and the inquiry is set aside because the report is not furnished to him, in some cases the non-furnishing of the report may have prejudiced him gravely while in other cases it may have made no difference to the ultimate punishment awarded to him. Hence to direct reinstatement of the employee with back wages in all cases is to reduce the rules of justice to a mechanical ritual. The theory of reasonable opportunity and the principles of natural justice have been evolved to uphold the rule of law and to assist the individual to vindicate his just rights. They are not incantations to be invoked nor rites to be performed on all and sundry occasions. Whether in fact, prejudice has been caused to the employee or not on account of the denial to him of the report, has to be considered on the facts and circumstances of each case. Where, therefore, even after the furnishing of the report, no different consequence would have followed, it would be a perversion of justice to permit the employee to resume duty and to get all the consequential benefits. It amounts to rewarding the dishonest and the guilty and thus to stretching the concept of justice to illogical and exasperating limits. It amounts to an 'unnatural expansion of natural justice' which in itself is antithetical to justice." (emphasis supplied)

33. The same principle came to be identified in the "useless formality" theory. It provides a yard stick for judging whether a particular violation of any principle of natural justice would render the action illegal and void. It stipulates that if no real prejudice is evident then it would be empty formality to strike down the action on ground of violation of principles of natural justice. In Aligarh Muslim University and others vs. Mansoor Ali Khan3, "useless formality" theory has been explained thus :-

"25. The "useless formality" theory, it must be noted, is an exception Apart from the class of cases of "admitted or indisputable facts leading only to one conclusion" referred to above, there has been considerable debate on the application of that theory in other cases. The divergent views expressed in regard to this theory have been elaborately considered by this Court in M.C. Mehta4 referred to above. This Court surveyed the views expressed in various judgments in England by Lord Reid, Lord Wilberforce, Lord Woolf, Lord Bingham, Megarry, J. and Straughton, L.J. etc. in various cases and also views expressed by leading writers like Profs. Garner, Craig, de Smith, Wade, D.H. Clark etc. Some of them have said that orders passed in violation must always be quashed for otherwise the court will be prejudging the issue. Some others have said that there is no such absolute rule and prejudice must be shown. Yet, some others have applied via media rules. We do not think it necessary in this case to go deeper into these issues. In the ultimate analysis it may depend on the facts of a particular case."

34. In the instant case, we do not find any such violation or unfair-play which may vitiate the entire disciplinary proceedings albeit there may have been certain procedural lapses. One fact which has a material bearing is that the second respondent has already passed the course, therefore, even if we think of doubting the correctness of the procedure, in normal course, the matter requires to be remitted to the concerned authority for resuming the enquiry from the stage it stood vitiated. This would visit the student with far more serious consequences.

35. One of the concerns of the University expressed during course of the hearing of the instant appeal, was that the episode involved a large number of students and also Faculty members. The University, as noted above, had taken action not only against the second respondent but against several other students and also Faculty members. In most of the cases, the punishment orders have been duly implemented without any challenge. The indiscipline was of such great magnitude that the University despite having taken very lenient view in the interest of students could not have absolved the students and given them clean chit as it would have sent a wrong message.

36. In order to buttress the submission that the University had taken lenient view in the matter, it is pointed out that the following steps were taken in respect of the second respondent –

(a) Waiver of readmission charges of Rs.15,000/- which are payable for late registration.

(b) special permission for registration for VIIIth semester.

(c) permission for registration for major project (in absence of which that would gone to next academic year and the complete year of the petitioner would have been wasted).

(d) Viva of minor project of VIIth semester

37. Moreover, in appeal the Vice Chancellor also taking a lenient view reduced the rustication period from six months to three months.

38. The student had undergone the rustication period of three months and on account of which he could not appear in the 7th semester examination when it was due.

39. We feel that it would be impracticable as well as inequitous to direct holding of fresh enquiry. In Shivam Kant vs. Union of India5, the direction of this Court to hold fresh enquiry against the student of IIT Kanpur, as previous enquiry was found to be violative of principles of natural justice, was not approved by the Supreme Court taking into consideration the fact that the student had already suffered and any further enquiry would prolong his agony. The relevant observations in this regard are as follows :-

"4. Remand of the case by the High Court to Senate in such case is uncalled for as would prolong the agony of students. They have already suffered for sufficient period. No further action need be taken by the Senate as against the students. However, we direct that the students involved in the case to maintain the good behaviour and in case they again involve in any kind of similar misconduct, let the matter be reported to this Court. We will direct appropriate action against them, if considered necessary."

40. In view of the above discussion, we do not agree with the conclusion arrived at by learned Single Judge that the enquiry stood completely vitiated and should be treated as non est in the eyes of law. We having considered the facts of the case and the present enquiry in the broader context, feel persuaded to uphold the same.

41. One of the contention of Sri Ashok Khare, learned counsel appearing for the second respondent was that the suspension order was passed on 15.11.2019 but the University even on 14.11.2019 did not permit the second respondent to fill the End Semester Examination Form for which it was the last date. Therefore, it had acted arbitrarily. However, we find no force in the submission. It is evident from the facts noted above and the manner in which the enquiry proceeded that the suspension order came to be passed while the Institutional level enquiry in respect of marking of fake ODs against the second respondent and other students was in progress. It has come on record that the Institutional level committee was constituted on 11.11.2019. It interrogated the second respondent and one more student on 13.11.2019 and they disclosed name of three more students, one Faculty member and one staff member, who were involved in the racket. Thus, there was, prima facie, evidence in possession of the University linking the second respondent with the marking of fake ODs and it seems that the University had already decided to place him under suspension so as not to permit him to appear in the end semester examination. The actual order of suspension was issued a day later on 15.11.2019 but this had in no manner caused any prejudice to the second respondent because after passing of the suspension order, in any case, he could not have appeared in the End Semester Examination. Thus, there was no change in the ultimate result.

42. The issue which remains to be considered is regarding imposition of B+ Cap by the University, the effect of which was that the second respondent was not granted Grade above B+, irrespective of his actual performance. The learned Single Judge had directed the University not to impose B+ Cap on the student taking a lenient view and with the aim of adopting a reformative approach. Although strictly speaking, imposition of B+ Cap may be a necessary consequence of the rustication of the second respondent but in exercise of power in intra-court appeal, we are reluctant to interfere with the relief granted to the student in this regard by the learned single judge. We agree with his view that in matters relating to students, while on one hand, the University has to ensure maintenance of discipline to ensure a conducive academic atmosphere, but at the same time it is also obliged to adopt reformative approach which is critical for bringing back indisciplined students to the main stream. We, therefore, decline to interfere with the ultimate directions issued by learned Single Judge for removal of B+ Cap and from not making any reference to the disciplinary proceedings in his mark sheet as it would definitely visit him with evil consequences all through his career.

43. In the result, the appeal is dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 725
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal No. 734 of 2023
Connected with
Special Appeal Defective No. 707 of 2023
With other connected cases

State of U.P. ...Appellant
Versus
Dr. Javed Bahar & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
C.S.C., S.C., Sri Ashok Mehta (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Rakesh Kumar, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

Service Law – U.P. (Krishi Evam Prodyogik Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam), 1958 –U.P. General Clauses Act, 1904 – Sections 2(k) & 6 - Age of Superannuation – Appellants challenged Single Judge's order dated 14.08.2023 holding respondents (Research Assistants) as teachers entitled to superannuation at 62 years – Held, respondents, initially appointed as Research

Assistants, were granted 'Teacher' status under unamended Section 2(k) for conducting/guiding research, reinforced by Executive Council resolution (25.02.2000) and Government Orders (04.01.2008, 16.02.2010) granting Assistant Professor pay scale – Amendment to Section 2(k) via U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019, redefining 'Teacher' as Assistant Professor appointed per UGC/ICAR norms, operates prospectively as no retrospective intent expressed – Vested right to 'Teacher' status protected under Section 6 of General Clauses Act, per St. of Rajasthan Vs Trilok Ram, St. of Gujarat Vs Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni, and Punjab St. Agricultural Development Bank Ltd. Vs Registrar, Cooperative Societies – Respondents covered under unamended Section 2(k)'s first part, not requiring statutory declaration, per P.S. Rama Mohana Rao Vs A.P. Agricultural University – No change in superannuation age (60 for non-teaching, 62 for teachers) under Statutes; issue Ltd. to status, not employer's right to alter superannuation age – Division Bench judgment in Writ-A No. 7847 of 2022, upheld by Supreme Court (02.02.2024), supports vested right protection – Appellants' reliance on Bishnu Narayan Mishra and K. Nagraj misplaced as case not about changing superannuation age – Single Judge's finding upheld, respondents entitled to continue till 62 years with consequential benefits. (Para 12-46)

Special Appeals dismissed.

List of Cases Cited:

1. P.S. Rama Mohana Rao Vs A.P. Agricultural University; (1997) 8 SCC 350

2. St. of Rajasthan Vs Trilok Ram; (2019) 10 SCC 383

3. St. of Gujarat Vs Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni; (1983) 2 SCC 33

4. Punjab St. Agricultural Development Bank Ltd. Vs Registrar, Cooperative Societies; (2022) 4 SCC 363

5. Bishnu Narayan Mishra Vs St. of U.P.; AIR 1965 SC 1567

6. K. Nagraj Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh; (1985) 1 SCC 523

7. St. of Raj. Vs Mangilal Pindwal; (1996) 5 SCC 60

8. Koteswar Vittal Kamath Vs K. Rangappa Baliga & Co.; (1969) 1 SCC 255

9. Railway Board Vs C.R. Rangadhamaiah; (1997) 6 SCC 623

10. B.S. Yadav Vs St. of Haryana; 1980 Supp SCC 524

11. Qudrat Ullah Vs Municipal Board, Bareilly; (1974) 1 SCC 202

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. This bunch of special appeals are filed by the State of Uttar Pradesh as well as Chandra Shekhar Azad University of Agricultural and Technology, Kanpur, challenging the judgment and order dated 14.08.2023, passed by learned Single Judge in a batch of writ petitions with leading Writ-A No.10622 of 2022 filed by Dr. Rajendra Prakash Vyas and others.

2. The issue before learned Single Judge was as to what would be the age of superannuation of the respondents-petitioners. The respondents-petitioners contended before learned Single Judge that they are to be treated as faculty member of the Agricultural University at Kanpur, against teaching positions, and hence are entitled to continue in service till the age of superannuation i.e. 62 years. The case of the appellants-respondents before learned Single Judge, on the other hand, was that the respondents-petitioners were member of non-teaching staff and were to retire at the age of 60 years under the Statute. Learned Single Judge upon consideration of the cause has held that all the respondents-petitioners are members of teaching faculty and would be entitled to continue in service till they attain the age of superannuation of a teacher i.e. 62 years. All consequential benefits have been allowed to the respondents-petitioners. Thus aggrieved, the appellants-respondents have filed the present bunch of appeals.

3. Chandra Shekhar Azad University of Agricultural and Technology, Kanpur (hereinafter referred to as 'Agricultural University at Kanpur') is a university established under the provisions of the Uttar Pradesh (Krishi Evam Prodyogik Vishwavidyalaya Adhiniyam), 1958 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act of 1958'). Section 2(k) of the Act of 1958, as it stood prior to its amendment in 2019, defined 'Teacher' in following words:-

"2(k). "Teacher" means a person appointed or recognised by the University for the purpose of imparting instruction or conducting and guiding research or extension programmes and includes a person who may be declared by the statutes to a teacher; and

1. (University means the Govind Ballabh Pant Evam Prodyogik Vishwavidyalaya or the Narendra Deva Krishi Evam Prodyogik Vishwavidyalaya or the Chandrashekhar Azad Krishi Evam Prodyogi Vishwavidyalaya, as the case may be)."

4. Section 28 of the Act of 1958 provided for framing of statutes subject to the provisions of the Act which were to provide for:

(a)……..
(b)……..
(c) The designation, manner of appointment, powers and duties of the officers of the University.

5. The manner of making statutes is specified in Section 29. Statutes have been framed accordingly. Chapter XXI of the Statutes contain terms and conditions of service of employees of the University (Agricultural University at Kanpur) other than Vice Chancellor. Clause 7(i) of the Statutes provides the age of superannuation for all employees of the University to be 60 years. Clause 7(a)(ii) of the Statutes provides for the age of superannuation of the teachers/scientists as 62 years. The provisions, in that regard, are reproduced hereinafter:-

"7. Age of Retirement

(i) The age of superannuation for all classes of employees of the University shall be 60(sixty) years. In no case extension or re-employment will be given to any of its employees.

7(a)(ii). The age of superannuation of teachers/scientists of the university shall be 62 years after 1.7.2003. In no case extension or re-employment will be given to any of its employees."

6. Section 2-A of the Act of 1958 provided for establishment of Agricultural Universities at Faizabad and Kanpur. We are concerned in this bunch of appeals with the Agricultural University at Kanpur. The other University established under the Act of 1958 was Narendra Dev Krishi Evam Prodyogik Vishwavidyalaya, Faizabad (hereinafter referred to as 'Agricultural University at Faizabad'). Before establishment of these two Universities there existed an earlier Agricultural University in the erstwhile State of Uttar Pradesh namely Govind Vallabh Pant Krishi Evam Pradyogik Vishwavidyalaya, Pantnagar (now in Nainital, Uttaranchal). A Government Order was issued by the State of U.P. on 06.06.1981 granting pay scale of UGC (University Grants Commission) to the Research Assistants of Agricultural University at Pantnagar. Admittedly, all the respondents-petitioners were initially appointed on the post of Research Assistant in the University.

7. It transpires that a Writ Petition No.1082 (SB) of 1995 came to be filed before Lucknow Bench of this Court by Rajitram Verma and others, who were the Senior Research Associates in the Agricultural University at Faizabad claiming salary of Teachers/Assistant Professors in the pay scale of Rs.2200-4000 on the ground that other Research Assistant are already getting such benefits. An ad-interim mandamus or show cause was issued in the writ on 07.05.1999. The State of Uttar Pradesh choose to abide by the interim mandamus and issued a Government Order on 22.07.1999 granting pay scale of Rs.2200-4000 to the Senior Research Associate of the Agricultural University at Faizabad. The aforesaid writ petition thereafter was dismissed as not pressed on 03.03.2000. The grant of benefit of UGC pay scale of Rs.2200-4000, admissible to a teacher was, however, restricted to 19 petitioners of the aforesaid writ petition.

8. The Research Assistants of the Agricultural University at Kanpur, who had already filed a Writ Petition No.836 (SB) of 1994, claimed parity with the petitioners in whose favour the ad-interim mandamus or show cause was issued on 07.05.1999. The Writ Petition No.836 (SB) of 1994 was disposed of on 18.08.1999 with the observation that once the State has granted benefit of UGC pay scale of Rs.2200-4000 to the Senior Research Associates of the Agricultural University at Faizabad, there is no reason why such benefits be denied to the Research Assistants of Agricultural University at Kanpur.

9. The Executive Council of the Agricultural University at Kanpur in its 117th meeting held on 25.02.2000 took up the issue of declaration of Teacher to the 52 Research Assistants, and vide resolution no.6, the Executive Council resolved to declare the Research Assistants as a Teacher.

10. Minimum qualification for appointment to the post of Teacher in University and its colleges got prescribed by the UGC on 24.11.1998. Since the respondents-petitioners were working from much prior to such date, as such the University at Kanpur extended the UGC Regulations to direct recruitments only. Relaxation was given to the teachers working from before and had research experience for a period of five years.

11. A Government Order was issued on 04.01.2008 sanctioning pay scale of Assistant Professor to the respondents-petitioners. This Government Order also provided that Research Assistants be adjusted/absorbed against the posts created/existing of Assistant Professor or equivalent posts. This decision of the State was reiterated vide Government Order dated 16.02.2010. The respondents-petitioners accordingly state that as they were initially appointed for conducting and guiding research and were also granted pay scale of the post of Assistant Professor by the Agricultural University at Kanpur, as such they are to be treated as member of the teaching staff and thus entitled to continue in service till the age of 62 years.

12. Learned Single Judge in the judgment under challenge, dated 14.08.2023, took note of the previous litigation and the passing of orders, therein, which resulted in the grant of declaration of 'Teacher' to the Research Assistants of the Agricultural University at Kanpur.

13. The issue of respondent-petitioners being teacher apparently would have been given a quietus but for an amendment introduced in the Act of 1958 vide U.P. Act No.9 of 2019. The definition of 'Teacher', contained Section 2(k) of the Act of 1958 was substituted vide Section 2(k) of the UP Act No.9 of 2019, which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"2(k). 'Teacher' means a person not below the rank of Assistant Professor duly appointed as per the norms and guidelines of UGC and ICAR in this regard by the University."

14. The authorities took the view that as respondents-petitioners were not appointed as Assistant Professor as per the norms and guidelines of UGC and ICAR, as such they cannot be treated as 'Teacher" and, consequently, they are to superannuate at the age of 60 years treating them to be non-teaching staff. The Director (Administration and Monitoring) of the Agricultural University at Kanpur, however, sought guidance from the State on 05.10.2020 in view of the fact that Research Assistants were already granted the status of Teacher/Assistant Professor. The State Government vide order dated 16.06.2022 opined that in view of the amended definition of 'Teacher', contained in Section 2(k) of the Act of 2019, the respondents-petitioners cannot be treated as 'Teacher'.

15. It may be worth noticing at this stage that the Agricultural University at Faizabad had also established various Krishi Vigyan Kendras. An issue arose as to what would be the age of superannuation of Research Assistants engaged in such Krishi Vigyan Kendra. The matter ultimately came before a Division Bench of this Court at Lucknow in Writ-A No.7847 of 2022, in the context of amended Section 2(k), substituted vide U.P. Act No.9 of 2019. Although the Amending Act was challenged in the writ but at the time of its hearing such challenge was given up. The amended definition of 'Teacher' in Section 2(k) was noticed in para 3 of the Division Bench judgment dated 17.05.2023. Taking aid of Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, the Co-ordinate Bench observed as under in paras 14 to 18:-

"(14) Thus prior to amendment, Section 2(k) provided that anyone appointed or recognized by the University for the purposes of imparting instructions or conducting and guiding research or extension programmes will be a teacher which will include any person who may be declared as such by the University. However, after the amendment, the teacher in the University is now a person not below the rank of Assistant Professor appointed as per the norms and guidelines of UGC and ICAR. Thus, the persons appointed for conducting and guiding research or extension programmes have been excluded from the purview of 'teacher'. The Government by means of the order dated 14.06.2022 directed that action be taken in terms of the provisions contained therein in respect of the employees appointed in Krishi Vigyan Kendras treating them to be non-teaching staff and accordingly, the impugned orders have been issued retiring the petitioners on their completion of age of 60 years treating them to be non-teaching staff.

(15) It is to be noticed that U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 does not make a mention as to from which date the said amendment shall take effect. It was published on 05.08.2019 and in absence of any specific date when the U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 would come in operation, it will be deemed to have come in operation w.e.f. 05.08.2019. It is settled principle of law that any statutory prescription, which will include a legislation as well, will operate prospectively unless the statute itself provides for its retrospective application expressly or by implication. U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 does not expressly provide its operation to be retrospective. There is no implied provision in U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 which can be taken aid of to infer that the said amending Act will be operative retrospectively.

(16) In view of the provisions contained in the amending Act, namely, U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019, since there is no express provision of its applicability from a retrospective date, it will thus operate prospectively. In our considered opinion, since U.P. Act No.9 of 2019 has not been made applicable retrospectively, if a particular category of employees has already been classified or recognized as "Teachers", they will continue to be treated as "Teachers". We have already noticed that as per the powers vested in it in Chapter XII of the First Statutes of the University, the Board of Management in its 28th meeting held on 30.09.1980 has already recognized the Subject Matter Specialists as "Teachers" and thus by operation of U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 their status as "Teacher", in our opinion, will not change for the reason that U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 has not been made effective with effect from any retrospective date.

(17) At this juncture, we may refer to Section 6 of U.P. General Clauses Act, 1904 according to which if any U.P. Act repeals any enactment, then unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed. Section 6 of U.P. General Clauses Act, 1904 is quoted hereunder:-

"6. Effect of repeal. Where any Uttar Pradesh Act repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) affect any remedy, or investigation or legal proceeding commenced before repealing Act shall have come into operation in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such remedy may be enforced and any such investigation or legal proceeding may be continued and concluded, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment imposed as if the repealing Act had not been passed."

(18) Thus, by substituting new definition of 'Teacher' in Section 2(k) in the Principal Act by way of Act No. 9 of 2019, the old definition of the word "Teacher" stands repealed, however, since there is no express or implied provision in U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019 for its retrospective operation, those employees who were already recognized as "Teachers" will continue to be "Teachers". In the unamended Section 2(k), the words occurring are a person "appointed" or "recognized". Thus before U.P. Act No. 9 of 2019, if a person was appointed as Teacher, he will be a "Teacher" and if any employee though not appointed as Teacher, but is recognized as "Teacher", he shall also be a "Teacher". At the cost of repetition, we may again refer to the decision of the Board of Management of the University taken in its 28th meeting held on 30.09.1980, wherein the Subject Matter Specialists have been recognized as "Teachers". Thus in the aforesaid view of the matter, the amendment in the definition of the word "Teacher" as occurring in Section 2(k) will not affect the status of the petitioners as "Teachers". "

16. Learned Single Judge in the impugned judgment has relied upon the aforesaid judgment to conclude that notwithstanding the amended definition of 'Teacher' the status and pay scale already granted to the respondents-petitioners cannot be withdrawn and they are entitled to continue in service at the age of 62 years.

17. The Division Bench Judgment of the Lucknow Bench dated 17.5.2023 was challenged before the Supreme Court in Special Leave Petition (Civil) Diary No(s). 32010 of 2023, which has been dismissed vide following orders on 2.2.2024:-

"Delay condoned.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

We see no reason to interfere with the impugned orders.

The Special Leave Petitions are, accordingly, dismissed.

Pending applications stand disposed of."

18. Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Counsel for the appellants submits that the respondents-petitioners were not appointed as per the norms and guidelines of UGC and ICAR on the post of Assistant Professor and, as such, they cannot be treated as 'Teacher'. He further submits that the amendment incorporated vide Act No.9 of 2019 is not challenged and, therefore, the respondents-petitioners cannot claim themselves to be 'Teacher'. It is further submitted that Section 6 of the General Clauses Act will have no applicability in the facts of the present case, since it is not a case of repeal of statute but is a case of amendment introduced in the definition of 'Teacher'.

19. Sri Mehta has placed reliance upon the judgment of Supreme Court in Bishnu Narayan Mishra vs. State of U.P. and others, AIR 1965 SC 1567, to submit that employer has the right to reduce the age of superannuation. Reliance is also placed upon the judgment of Supreme Court in K. Nagraj and others vs. State of Andhra Pradesh and another, (1985) 1 SCC 523, for the similar proposition. It is further argued that change in the age of superannuation does not take away any vested right, inasmuch as the age of superannuation fixed at the time of initial appointment can always be changed by the employer. Submission is that though the pay scale of Rs.2200-4000 admissible to a teacher would continue to be available to Research Assistants, as per the scale of UGC, but they cannot claim continuation in service beyond the age of 60 years.

20. Per contra, Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Counsel for the respondents-petitioners submits that the effect of amendment in the definition of 'Teacher' would have the same consequence as that of repeal, inasmuch as the previous definition stood substituted by a new provision. The effect of amendment is thus similar to repeal and the spirit underlying Section 6 would clearly be applicable.

21. Sri Khare, has placed reliance upon judgment of the Supreme Court in State of Rajasthan vs. Trilok Ram, (2019) 10 SCC 383, wherein the effect of substitution of provision was examined. Reliance is also placed upon judgment of the Supreme Court in P.S. Rama Mohana Rao vs. A.P. Agricultural University and others, (1997) 8 SCC 350, in order to contend that a similar definition of 'Teacher', as it previously existed in the unamended section 2(n) fell for determination before the Supreme Court. The Court took the view that the definition is in two parts. The first part included a Professor, Reader, Lecturer or other Professor appointed or recognized by the University for the purposes of imparting instructions or conducting any guiding research or extension programme. The second part included any person declared by the Statutes to be a Teacher. Learned Senior Counsel, accordingly, submits that the case of the respondents-petitioners fell in the first part and, therefore, they are covered by the definition of 'Teacher' even without a declaration granted under the Statutes.

22. Learned counsel further submits that the status of 'Teacher' since has already been granted to the respondents-petitioners, by the University, and the pay scale etc. is otherwise protected by the State, as is urged by Sri Mehta, the status of 'Teacher' cannot simultaneously be withdrawn for the age of superannuation and retained for the purposes of payment of salary. It is further argued that vested right since has been created in favour of respondents-petitioners on account of grant of declaration of 'Teacher', and the pay scale of Assistant Professor is granted to them, therefore, they cannot be treated as non-teaching staff in the matter of other service conditions. Sri Khare, submits that the right of the employer to change the age of superannuation is not doubted but that, in fact, is not the issue here. The issue rather is as to whether a vested right already created in favour of the respondents-petitioners to the status of 'Teacher' can be retrospectively withdrawn. Reliance is also been placed upon the judgment of the Supreme Court in State of Gujarat vs. Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni, (1983) 2 SCC 33, as well as the judgment in Punjab State Agricultural Development Bank Ltd. vs. Registrar, Cooperative Societies, (2022) 4 SCC 363.

23. We have heard Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Sri Rakesh Kumar, Sri M.P. Sahi, Sri Ankit Gaur, Sri C.P. Yadav and Sri Pradeep for the State and Agricultural University at Kanpur, and Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Sri Om Prakash Tripathi for the respondents-petitioners and have perused the materials brought on record.

24. It is not in dispute that all the respondents-petitioners were initially appointed as Research Assistants. As per the unamended definition of 'Teacher' in Section 2(k) of the Act of 1958, it meant a person appointed or recognized by the University for the purposes of imparting instructions or conducting a guiding research or extension programme and included a person, who may be declared by the Statues to be a 'Teacher'. The term 'Teacher' has been employed in a wide sense to include a person appointed or recognized by the University for the purposes of imparting instructions or conducting a guiding research or extension programmes. It is undisputed that all the respondents-petitioners were appointed by the Agricultural University at Kanpur for the purposes of conducting and guiding research. We are, therefore, of the view that in the first part of the definition contained in Section 2(k) itself the respondents-petitioners would qualify to be a Teacher.

25. In P.S. Rama Mohana Rao (supra) a similar definition of 'Teacher' came up for interpretation before the Supreme Court. Para 5 of the judgment contains definition of Teacher in section 2(n), which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"5. For the purpose of deciding the above issue arising between the parties, it is necessary to refer to the relevant provisions of the Act and the Regulations. Clause (n) of Section 2 defines "teacher" as follows:

"2. (n) 'teacher' includes a professor, reader, lecturer or other person appointed or recognised by the University for the purpose of imparting instruction or conducting and guiding research or extension programmes, and any person declared by the statutes to be a teacher;"

The definition does not say what the word "teacher" means but includes certain categories within the meaning of the said word."

While considering the status of Physical Director to be a Teacher or not, the Court clearly countenanced two distinct eventualities to subsist in the definition of 'Teacher' under Section 2(n). The first part of the term 'Teacher' included a Professor, Reader, Teacher or other person appointed or recognized for the purposes of imparting instructions or conducting and guiding research or extension programme , while the second part included a person to be declared as a 'Teacher' under the Statutes. In Para 16 and 17 of the judgment in P.S. Ram Mohan Rao (supra), the Supreme Court observed as under:-

"16. In the impugned judgment of the High Court it has been said that merely because Physical Directors are paid the same scales as the teaching staff that does not confer on them the status of a teacher. There is also no discrimination if Physical Directors are retired at the age of 58 years and other teachers are allowed to retire at the age of 60 years. The High Court further said that while it was true that Section 2(n) of the Act contained an inclusive definition of "teacher", the Physical Directors did not come within the categories mentioned in the inclusive definition. They are neither Professors nor Readers nor Lecturers nor were they persons appointed or recognised by the University for the purpose of imparting instruction or conducting and guiding research or extension programmes.

17. In our view, the learned Judges did not go into the meaning of the word "teacher" in the main part of the clause nor assessed correctly the effect of the material evidence on record. The learned Judges observed that assuming Physical Directors imparted instructions to their students, unless the University recognised them as teachers they could not claim the benefit of Section 2(n) of the Act. Obviously the learned Judges were referring to the last part of Section 2(n) which includes persons other than those enumerated in the inclusive part if so recognised by the University. As we have held that the Physical Directors come within the main part of the definition of "teacher", it is in our opinion not necessary that they should be separately recognised as teachers by an order or statute of the University."

26. In the facts of the present case, the State legislature had enacted the Act of 1958 for establishment of two agricultural universities in Uttar Pradesh at Faizabad and Kanpur. A similar University already existed from before at Pantnagar. Government Order was already issued on 06.06.1981 allowing UGC pay scale to Research Assistants of the Agricultural University at Pantnagar. Pursuant to an ad-interim mandamus issued on 07.05.1999 by the Lucknow Bench in Writ Petition No. 1082 (SB) of 1995, the State Government on 22.07.1999 granted the benefit of UGC pay scale of teacher to Senior Research Associate of the Agricultural University at Faizabad. They were also granted declaration of Teacher and were adjusted against such posts. We have already noticed that the Lucknow Bench of this Court in Writ Petition (SB) No.836 of 1994 had extended the benefit, granted to Senior Research Associate of Agricultural University at Faizabad, to the Research Assistants of Agricultural University at Kanpur. The Executive Council clearly granted declaration of Teacher to the Research Associate in its resolution dated 25.02.2000.

27. A Government Order dated 04.01.2008 has also been issued extending the pay scale of Assistant Professor to the Research Assistants of the Agricultural University at Kanpur i.e. respondents-petitioners. These Research Assistants have already been absorbed on the vacant posts of Assistant Professor or equivalent post. Subsequent Government Order dated 16.02.2010 is also on record granting the benefit of post and pay scale of Teacher to the respondents-petitioners.

28. Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Counsel for the State and Agricultural University at Kanpur has referred to and relied upon the Government Order dated 18.02.2000, whereby the previous Government Order dated 22.07.1999 has been modified. While granting the benefit of promotional pay scale of UGC to 19 petitioners, their post was re-designated as Senior Research Associate and no further post with such name was to be created henceforth. Relevant portion of the Government Order dated 18.02.2000 is extracted hereinafter:-

"मुझे यह कहने का निदेश हुआ है कि उपर्युक्त विषयक आपके अर्द्धशासकीय पत्र सं०-1914/स्था०/99, दिनांक 12 नवम्बर, 1999 के संदर्भ में तथा कृषि विश्वविद्यालय फैजाबाद के शौध सहायकों के वेतन पुनरीक्षण के संबंध में शासनादेश जारी होने के तिथि से यू०जी०सी० वेतनमान रू० 2200-4000 प्रदान करने के कारण शासनादेश जारी होने की तिथि व उच्चीकरण वेतनमान देने की समान नीति को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए। कृषि विश्वविद्यालय, फैजाबाद

के 19 याची सीनियर रिसर्च एशोसियेट को भी यू०जी०सी० वेतनमान देने के संबंध में पुर्नविचार करते हुए शासनादेश सं०- 1138/12-8-99-400(157)/90, दिनांक 22 जुलाई, 1999 में आंशिक संशोधन करते हुए श्री राज्यपाल महोदय उक्त शासनादेश के प्रस्तर-4 को निम्नवत संशोधित करने की सहर्ष स्वीकृति प्रदान करते हैं:-

"वर्णित तथ्यों के परिप्रेक्ष्य में एवं माननीय उच्च न्यायालय में दायर रिट याचिका सं०-1082(एसबी)/1995 में दिए गए निर्देश दिनांक 7-5-99 को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए सम्यक विचारोपरान्त री राज्यपाल कृषि विश्वविद्यालय फैजाबाद के उक्त रिट के 19 याचीगण से सीनियर रिसर्च एशोसियेट को शासनादेश जारी होने की तिथि 22-7-1991 से यू०जी०सी० का प्रोन्नत वेतनमान स्वीकृत किए जाने के आदेश प्रदान करते है। इनका पदनाम वरिष्ठ अनुसंधान सहायक कर दिया जाए तथा इस उद्देश्य और कार्य हेतु किसी भी नाम से कोई पद भविष्य में सृजित नहीं किया जाय।

2- उक्त संशोधन के फलस्वरूप शासनादेश दिनांक 22.7.99 को पूर्व प्रस्तर-4 निरस्त करने की भी राज्यपाल महोदय स्वीकृति प्रदान करते है।"

29. The argument of Sri Mehta that initial benefit granted in 1999 was modified in the year 2000 cannot be accepted in view of the Subsequent Government Order issued on 04.01.2008, which categorically held as under:-

"अतः उक्त को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए शासनादेश दिनांक 7.8.2002 को संशोधित करते हुए दिनांक 8.1.2001 से याचीगण को सहायक प्राध्यापक का वेतनमान शासनादेश दिनांक 20.10.05 द्वारा प्रदान कर दिया गया है। इस संबंध में यह भी उल्लेखनीय है कि विश्वविद्यालय से प्राप्त सूचना के अनुसार विश्वविद्यालय में सृजित/रिक्त सहायक प्राध्यापक एवं समकक्षीय पदो पर याचीगण को समायोजित कर लिया गया है।"

30. The Government Order dated 04.01.2008 has been reiterated vide Government Order dated 16.02.2010. Operative portion of the aforesaid Government Order is extracted hereinafter:-

"अतः उक्त को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए शासनादेश दिनांक 7.8.2002 को संशोधित करते हुए दिनांक 8.1.2001 से याचीगण को सहायक प्राध्यापक का वेतनमान शासनादेश दिनांक 20.10.05 द्वारा प्रदान कर दिया गया है। इस संबंध में यह भी उल्लेखनीय है कि विश्वविद्यालय से प्राप्त सूचना के अनुसार विश्वविद्यालय में सृजित/रिक्त सहायक प्राध्यापक एवं समकक्षीय पदो पर याचीगण को समायोजित कर लिया गया है।"

31. In view of the specific stand taken by the State Government, by issuing the aforesaid Government Orders, various proceedings initiated before the Writ Court as also the contempt proceedings were dropped. The appellants-respondents clearly admit that the benefit of pay scale of 'Teacher' granted to the respondents-petitioners is not proposed to be withdrawn. It is admitted to the appellants-respondents that the pay scale admissible to an Assistant Professor under the UGC scale would continue to be paid to respondents-petitioners. Their entitlement, in that regard, is not doubted or disputed.

32. The only issue raised by the appellants-respondents is with regard to the age of superannuation of respondent-petitioners. According to the appellants-respondents, it is open for the employer to change the age of superannuation, and that age of superannuation is otherwise not a vested right and, therefore, the plea that it cannot be retrospectively amended is misconceived.

33. It is worth clarifying at this stage that there is no change in the age of superannuation under the Act or the Statutes. The age of superannuation has been fixed under clause 7 of the Statutes and there is no amendment in it. For the non-teaching staff the age of superannuation from the very beginning is 60 years and continues to remain the same. Similarly, in the case of teaching staff the age has remained at 62 years. We are, therefore, not required to answer the question as to whether any change in the age of superannuation is permissible or not.

34. In the facts of the present case, we are only concerned with the issue as to whether the amendment in Section 2(k) can be given a retrospective application, so as to deny the benefit of designation of 'Teacher' to the respondents-petitioners?

35. In State of Rajasthan vs. Trilok Ram (supra) the Supreme Court has considered the effect of amendment in a legislation. What exactly happens in a case of amendment and as to what extent the repeal would be applicable in such a case has been dealt with in para 18 and 19 of the judgment which are reproduced hereinafter:-

"18. We are in this case concerned with the effect of amending Act which brought about the substitution of a provision. An amendment which brings about substitution of a provision essentially does two things. In the first place, the provision which is substituted undergoes a repeal. At the same time, there is a re-enactment through the newly inserted provisions.

19. We may only refer to a decision of this Court in State of Rajasthan v. Mangilal Pindwal [State of Rajasthan v. Mangilal Pindwal, (1996) 5 SCC 60 : AIR 1996 SC 2181] , therein this Court inter alia held as follows: (SCC pp. 63-64, paras 9-12)

"9. As pointed out by this Court, the process of a substitution of statutory provision consists of two steps; first, the old rule is made to cease to exist and, next, the new rule is brought into existence in its place. (See: Koteswar Vittal Kamath v. K. Rangappa Baliga & Co. [Koteswar Vittal Kamath v. K. Rangappa Baliga & Co., (1969) 1 SCC 255 : (1969) 3 SCR 40] , SCR at p. 48.) In other words, the substitution of a provision results in repeal of the earlier provision and its replacement by the new provision. As regards repeal of a statute the law is thus stated in Sutherland on Statutory Construction:

'2042. The effect of the repeal of a statute where neither a saving clause nor a general saving statute exists to prescribe the governing rule for the effect of the repeal, is to destroy the effectiveness of the repealed act in futuro and to divest the right to proceed under the statute, which, except as to proceedings past and closed, is considered as if it had never existed.' (Vol. I, Para 2042, pp. 522-23.)10. Similarly in Crawford's Interpretation of Laws it has been said:

'316. Effect of Repeal, Generally.— In the first place, an outright repeal will destroy the effectiveness of the repealed act in futuro and operate to destroy inchoate rights dependent on it, as a general rule. In many cases, however, where statutes are repealed, they continue to be the law of the period during which they were in force with reference to numerous matters.' (Para 316 pp. 640-41.)

11. The observations of Lord Tenterden and Tindal, C.J. referred in the above-mentioned passages in Craies on Statute Law also indicate that the principle that on repeal a statute is obliterated is subject to the exception that it exists in respect of transactions past and closed. To the same effect is the law laid down by this Court. (See: Qudrat Ullah v. Municipal Board, Bareilly [Qudrat Ullah v. Municipal Board, Bareilly, (1974) 1 SCC 202 : (1974) 1 SCR 530] , SCR at p. 539.)

12. This means that as a result of repeal of a statute the statute as repealed ceases to exist with effect from the date of such repeal but the repeal does not affect the previous operation of the law which has been repealed during the period it was operative prior to the date of such repeal."(emphasis supplied)"

36. The import of amendment in an Act has been examined in the above case as a result of which a substitution is incorporated in the provision. The consequence is two fold. The first part indicates repeal of the earlier provision, whereas in the second part there is re-enactment of provision. Relying upon the previous judgments of the Court in State of Rajasthan vs. Mangilal Pindwal, (1996) 5 SCC 60, and Koteswar Vittal Kamath vs. K. Rangappa Baliga and Co. (1969) 1 SCC 255, the Court in Trilok Ram (supra) interpreted such amendment to result in repeal of the earlier provision and its replacement by the new provision. In a case where there was no saving clause or a general saving statute to prescribe the governing rule for the effect of repeal, is to destroy the effectiveness of the repealed act in futuro and to divest the right under the Statute, which, except as to proceedings past and closed, is considered as if it had never existed. In such eventuality, the repeal would not effect the previous operation of law for the period it operated prior to repeal.

37. In State of Gujarat vs. Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni (supra) an issue arose with regard to status of ex-municipal employees, who had previously been granted status of government servant in view of amendment subsequently introduced whereby such benefit was withdrawn. After referring to the legislation the Court recognized the vested right created in the employees to the grant of status of government servant to them and protected it notwithstanding the amendment introduced by the legislature. Para 52 of the judgment in State of Gujarat vs. Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni (supra) is relevant and is reproduced hereinafter:-

"52. The legislation is pure and simple, self-deceptive, if we may use such an expression with reference to a legislature-made law. The legislature is undoubtedly competent to legislate with retrospective effect to take away or impair any vested right acquired under existing laws but since the laws are made under a written Constitution, and have to conform to the dos and don'ts of the Constitution, neither prospective nor retrospective laws can be made so as to contravene fundamental rights. The law must satisfy the requirements of the Constitution today taking into account the accrued or acquired rights of the parties today. The law cannot say, 20 years ago the parties had no rights, therefore, the requirements of the Constitution will be satisfied if the law is dated back by 20 years. We are concerned with today's rights and not yesterday's. A legislature cannot legislate today with reference to a situation that obtained 20 years ago and ignore the march of events and the constitutional rights accrued in the course of the 20 years. That would be most arbitrary, unreasonable and a negation of history. It was pointed out by a Constitution Bench of this Court in B.S. Yadav v. State of Haryana [1980 Supp SCC 524 : 1981 SCC (L&S) 343 : AIR 1981 SC 561 : (1981) 1 SCR 1024 : (1981) 2 SCJ 137 : 1981 Lab IC 104] . Chandrachud, C.J. speaking for the Court held: (SCC headnote)

Since the Governor exercises the legislative power under the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution, it is open to him to give retrospective operation to the rules made under that provision. But the date from which the rules are made to operate must be shown to bear either from the face of the rules or by extrinsic evidence, reasonable nexus with the provisions contained in the rules, especially when the retrospective effect extends over a long period as in this case.

Today's equals cannot be made unequal by saying that they were unequal 20 years ago and we will restore that position by making a law today and making it retrospective. Constitutional rights, constitutional obligations and constitutional consequences cannot be tampered with that way. A law which if made today would be plainly invalid as offending constitutional provisions in the context of the existing situation cannot become valid by being made retrospective. Past virtue (constitutional) cannot be made to wipe out present vice (constitutional) by making retrospective laws. We are, therefore, firmly of the view that the Gujarat Panchayats (Third Amendment) Act, 1978 is unconstitutional, as it offends Articles 311 and 14 and is arbitrary and unreasonable. We have considered the question whether any provision of the Gujarat Panchayats (Third Amendment) Act, 1978 might be salvaged. We are afraid that the provisions are so intertwined with one another that it is well nigh impossible to consider any life-saving surgery. The whole of the Third Amendment Act must go. In the result Writ Petitions Nos. 4266-4270 of 1978 are allowed with costs quantified at Rs 15,000. The directions given by the High Court, which we have confirmed, should be complied with before June 30, 1983. In the meanwhile, the employees of the panchayats covered by the appeal and the writ petitions will receive a sum of Rs. 200 per month over and above the emoluments they were receiving before February 1, 1978. This Order will be effective from February 1, 1983. The interim Order made on February 20, 1978 will be effective up to January 31, 1983. The amounts paid are to be adjusted later."

38. The concept of vested and accrued right of an employee to be divested, with retrospective effect, by the rule making authority, has recently been examined by the Supreme Court in Punjab State Agricultural Development Bank Limited (supra). The issue was noticed in para 44, which is quoted hereinafter:-

"44. The question that emerges for consideration is as to what is the concept of vested or accrued rights of an employee and at the given time whether such vested or accrued rights can be divested with retrospective effect by the rule-making authority."

39. After referring to a series of judgments including judgment of Supreme Court in Railway Board vs. C.R. Rangadhamaiah, (1997) 6 SCC 623, the principle of law has been culled out in paras 49 to 51 of the judgment in Punjab

State Cooperation Agricultural Development Bank Ltd. (supra), which are extracted hereinafter:-

"49. The exposition of the legal principles culled out is that an amendment having retrospective operation which has the effect of taking away the benefit already available to the employee under the existing rule indeed would divest the employee from his vested or accrued rights and that being so, it would be held to be violative of the rights guaranteed under Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution.

50. In the instant case, the bank pension scheme was introduced from 1-4-1989 and options were called from the employees and those who had given their option became member of the pension scheme and accordingly pension was continuously paid to them without fail and only in the year 2010, when the Bank failed in discharging its obligations, the respondent employees approached the High Court by filing the writ petitions. The Bank later on withdrew the scheme of pension by deleting Rule 15(ii) by an amendment dated 11-3-2014 which was introduced with effect from 1-4-1989 and the employees who availed the benefit of pension under the scheme, indeed their rights stood vested and accrued to them and any amendment to the contrary, which has been made with retrospective operation to take away the right accrued to the retired employee under the existing rule certainly is not only violative of Article 14 but also of Article 21 of the Constitution.

51. It may also be noticed that there is a distinction between the legitimate expectation and a vested/accrued right in favour of the employees. The rule which classifies such employees for promotional, seniority, age of retirement purposes undoubtedly operates on those who entered service before framing of the rules but it operates in futuro. In a sense, it governs the future right of seniority, promotion or age of retirement of those who are already in service."

40. A close examination of the facts of this case would reveal that all the respondents-petitioners were granted the benefit of Teacher as per the pre-amended definition. The status of Teacher carried with it the benefit of pay scale and other conditions of service. The State also does not dispute the entitlement of respondents-petitioners to the pay scale of a Teacher even as per amended Section 2(k) of the Act. A person under Section 2(k) can either be a teacher or can be a non-teaching staff. He cannot simultaneously be a teacher for the purposes of payment of salary and non-teaching staff for other purposes including the age of retirement.

41. In the present case also the definition of 'Teacher' as originally stood in the Act of 1958 has been amended vide U.P. Act No.9 of 2019. The amendment in the definition of 'Teacher' brings about two consequences i.e. repeal of the earlier definition and secondly its substitution by the later definition. Though it is a case of amendment in the Act of 1958, as rightly contended by Sri Mehta, but its consequences of repeal of previous definition with substitution of later are similar to a case of repeal covered under Section 6 of the General Clauses Act. In that view of the matter, the principles of repeal, contained in Section 6 of the General Clauses Act would get attracted. The vested right of grant of status of 'Teacher' would continue to remain protected notwithstanding the later amendment in the definition of 'Teacher'. It is also undisputed that all those Research Assistants, who retired prior to the amendment in section 2(k), worked upto the age of 62 years.

42. The status of 'Teacher' since is a vested right, it would continue to be protected notwithstanding the amendment introduced in section 2(k) of the Act. We are in respectful agreement with the view expressed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court at Lucknow Bench in Writ-A No.7847 of 2022 that the status of 'Teacher' is a vested right and cannot be retrospectively taken away on account of Amending Act. Special Leave Petition filed against this judgment has also been dismissed by the Supreme Court on 02.02.2024. It is noticed that a Government Order was also issued on 24.06.2004 as per which teachers of Agricultural University were continued in service uptill the age of 62 years.

43. Sri Ashok Mehta, learned Senior Counsel for the appellants-respondents has lastly placed reliance upon the Division Bench judgment of Lucknow Bench in Special Appeal No.75 of 2022, decided on 21.03.2022, to submit that the Division Bench has set aside the judgment of learned Single Judge in Writ Petition No.327 (SB) of 2000, filed against the Government Order dated 18.02.2000, as a result of which the status of respondents-petitioners remained that of Research Assistant and not a Teacher.

44. We have considered the above submission of Sri Mehta but are not impressed by it. The Government Order dated 18.02.2000 has already been referred to above, whereby the Government Order dated 22.07.1999 has been modified. The appeal has been allowed by the Division Bench at Lucknow after noticing that the decision taken by the Board of Management in its 86th meeting, held on 30.01.1993, was ignored by learned Single Judge, inasmuch as the previous decision taken in the 85th decision was not noted. It was in the 85th meeting that the declaration of Teacher was granted to the respondents-petitioners.

45. Unlike the facts of Special Appeal No.75 of 2022, in the facts of the present case, the benefit of post and pay scale has been granted to the Teachers of the Agricultural University at Kanpur vide Government Orders dated 04.01.2008 and 16.02.2010, which have neither been withdrawn nor have been modified. We have otherwise held that the claim of respondents-petitioners for grant of status of 'Teacher' in the pre-amended Section 2(k) was covered in the first part itself as they were engaged in research facility and did not require any specific declaration under the Statute. The judgment of the Division Bench in aforesaid special appeal is thus distinguishable, and would not come to the rescue of the appellants.

46. We have already held that the respondents-petitioners were granted the status of 'Teacher' under unamended Section 2(k) and were receiving salary of Teacher, which otherwise is protected and is not proposed to be withdrawn by the appellants-respondents. Once the status of 'Teacher' has been bestowed under the unamended provision, it constitutes a vested right in respondents-petitioners and cannot be withdrawn retrospectively on account of amendment in the definition of 'Teacher'.

47. In view of the deliberations and discussions held above, we find no error in the reasons contained in the impugned judgment and order of learned Single Judge. The special appeals, consequently, fail and are, accordingly, dismissed. No order is passed as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 741
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 25.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SALIL KUMAR RAI, J.
THE HON'BLE SURENDRA SINGH-I

Special Appeal No. 777 of 2023

Chandrajeet Kumar Gond ...Appellant
Versus
High Court of Judicature at Allahabad & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Amit Kumar Tiwari, Sri Akash Yadav, Sri Shyam Dhar Gupta

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Ashish Mishra

A. Service Law – Cancellation of Candidature – Non-Disclosure of Criminal Case – Appellant's candidature for Class-IV post (Orderly/Peon) was cancelled for failing to disclose a pending criminal case (Case Crime No. 166 of 2020 under Sections 307, 323, 504, 506, 325 IPC) in the application form – Appellant claimed the error was inadvertent due to a computer operator's mistake and disclosed the case in an affidavit post-selection – Held, deliberate non-disclosure of a pending criminal case, despite opportunity to correct the application, justifies cancellation of candidature under High Court guidelines and Avtar Singh Vs U.O.I. – No special circumstances warranted leniency, as appellant's claim of inadvertence was unconvincing given his computer literacy and delay in disclosure until directed by authorities. (Paras 4, 5, 9, 16, 17, 20, 22)

B. Service Law – Application of Avtar Singh Guidelines – Avtar Singh Vs U.O.I. mandates truthful disclosure of criminal cases, with cancellation of candidature permissible for suppression of material facts – Appellant's case falls under para 38.1 of Avtar Singh, as he falsely declared "No" to pending criminal cases, despite a correction window (15.11.2022–16.11.2022) – Disclosure only after authorities' directive (20.05.2023) does not mitigate deliberate suppression – Employer's trust in candidate's credibility is paramount, and non-disclosure undermines suitability for appointment, as reinforced by Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Prasaran Nigam Ltd. Vs Anil Kanwaria. (Paras 11, 14, 15, 17, 22)

C. Service Law – High Court Guidelines – Procedural Fairness – High Court guidelines (para 6) require candidates to submit an affidavit declaring no pending criminal cases or convictions, with cancellation of candidature for non-disclosure – Respondent no. 2 (District Judge) issued a show-cause notice and considered appellant's explanation before cancelling candidature – Held, the process complied with natural justice and High Court guidelines – Learned Single Judge's dismissal of the writ petition upheld, as no illegality or irregularity found in the cancellation order dated 03.08.2023. (Paras 10, 18, 19, 23)

Special Appeal Dismissed – No Illegality in Cancellation of Candidature.

List of Cases cited:

1. Avtar Singh Vs U.O.I. & ors., (2016) 8 SCC 471

2. St. of M.P. & ors. Vs Bhupendra Yadav, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1181

3. Daya Shankar Yadav Vs U.O.I., (2010) 14 SCC 103

4. Rajasthan Rajya Vidyut Prasaran Nigam Ltd. Vs Anil Kanwaria, (2021) 10 SCC 136

(Delivered by Hon'ble Surendra Singh-I, J.)

Heard Sri Shyam Dhar Gupta assisted by Sri Akash Yadav representing the appellant and Sri Ashish Mishra representing the respondents.

2. This special appeal has been instituted against judgement and order dated 18.09.2023 passed by learned Single Judge of this Court in WRIT- A No. 15566 of 2023, Chandrajeet Kumar Gond Vs. High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and Another). Vide impugned order, learned Single Judge had rejected the writ petition filed praying for quashing of the order dated 03.08.2023 passed by learned District Judge, Sultanpur, whereby the candidature of the petitioner for Class-IV post in District Court, Sultanpur, has been rejected.

3. The aforesaid writ petition was filed by the petitioner, Chandrajeet Kumar Gond, with the following prayer to :-

(a) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari to quash/set-aside the impugned administrative order dated 03.08.2023 passed by the respondent no. 2, i.e. District Judge, Sultanpur, where learned District Judge, Sultanpur, has rejected the candidature of the petitioner for the post of Orderly/Peon/Office Peon/Farrash (Group 'D') conducted by High Court of Allahabad with respect of Advertisement No. 01/Sub.Court/Category D/2022.

(b) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding and directing the respondent no. 2 to appoint the petitioner for the post of Orderly/Peon/Office Peon/Farrash (Group 'D') within some stipulated period in pursuance of the Advertisement No. 01/Sub.Court/Category D/2022, by which the petitioner may discharge his duty for the said post.

4. The averment made by the appellant/petitioner in the writ petition is that the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad had issued an advertisement bearing Advertisement No. 01/Sub.Court/Category- D/2022 on 30th October, 2022 (30.10.2022) at official website of High Court of Judicature at Allahabad. The petitioner applied to the post of Orderly/Peon/Office Peon/Farrash: Category- D bearing Advertisement No. 01/Sub.Court/Category- D/2022. The essential qualification for the appointment for the post of Orderly/Peon/Office Peon/Farrash : Category- D was that the candidate must have passed Junior High School (Class-VIIIth). The petitioner had passed Class- VIIIth examination from Nav Bharat Junior High School, Sevapuri, District- Varanasi in the year 2010. The petitioner finding himself eligible for the said post filled the online application form on 13.11.2022. As per him, against the column of "Whether any criminal complaint case have been registered against you ?", the petitioner inadvertently filled in the reply column as "No". The selection was held in two rounds of which the first round was held on 17.12.2022 in which the petitioner qualified. The second round of selection was held on 02.04.2023 in which the petitioner again qualified and he was declared as successful. An order was received by the petitioner from the respondents on 20.05.2023 requiring the petitioner to complete various formalities including submission of an affidavit as to whether the petitioner has got any criminal case pending against him or whether he has ever been proceeded against in a criminal case in which he has been acquitted or found guilty. In pursuance thereof, the petitioner claims to have submitted an affidavit on 02.06.2023 in which he has disclosed about pendency of a Case Crime

No. 166 of 2020 u/s 307, 323, 504, 506 & 325 I.P.C. registered in Police Station- Mirzamurad, District- Varanasi. Learned District Judge vide impugned order dated 03.08.2023, considering the guidelines issued by the High Court, more particularly paragraph 6 of the guidelines that where a candidates has not disclosed information of criminal case/proceedings then his candidature is liable to be cancelled, has cancelled the candidature of the petitioner.

5. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the appellant that the learned Single Judge without applying proper judicial mind by misreading the true facts and also not correctly applying the judgement of Hon'ble Apex Court in Avtar Singh Vs. Union of India and others, (2016) 8 SCC 471, cancelled the candidature of the appellant. It has also been submitted that the appellant had filled his online application form with the aid of computer operator. By the mistake of the computer operator in the column of disclosing criminal case against the candidate, "No" was mentioned in place of "Yes" . Although a criminal case had been registered against the appellant about two years ago. It has also been submitted that the appellant could not detect the mistake done by the computer operator. The appellant appeared in the examination and was declared finally selected. Vide letter dated 20.05.2023, the District Judge, Sultanpur directed the appellant for document verification and to file an affidavit regarding various particulars inter alia non-pendency of and conviction/acquittal in any criminal case against him. When the appellant was making preparation for document verification and for the affidavit, at this very stage, he noticed the mistake occurred in his online application. It has also been submitted that without any delay on 27.05.2023, the appellant/petitioner submitted an affidavit correctly admitting that a criminal case bearing Case Crime No. 166 of 2020 u/s 307, 323, 504, 506 & 325 I.P.C., Police Station- Mirzamurad, District- Varanasi, is registered against him in which charge-sheet has been submitted before the court. It has also been submitted that the appellant disclosed about the pendency of criminal case against him on 27.05.2023 i.e. before issuance of the notice of District Judge, Sultanpur dated 07.07.2023 calling upon an explanation from him why his candidature must not be cancelled for concealing the criminal case pending against him. It has also been submitted that in reply to the aforesaid notice, the petitioner had explained the reasons for not mentioning the criminal case pending against him but in an arbitrary and illegal manner without applying judicial mind, the District Judge, Sultanpur vide order dated 03.08.2023 cancelled his candidature. It has also been submitted that paragraph no. 38.1 of the judgement of Avtar Singh (supra) is not applicable in the case of appellant and the case of appellant is covered with paragraph nos. 38.2 and 38.3 of the judgement of the same case which has not been considered by the learned Single Judge and he illegally dismissed his writ petition. It has also been submitted that due to pendency of a criminal case registered against him, his candidature should not be cancelled but an undertaking should be taken from the selected candidate that if the judgement in the criminal case goes against him, he shall be dismissed from his service and the candidate shall have no objection.

6. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents has argued that the appellant filled the online application on 13.11.2022.

Against the column regarding pendency of criminal case, the appellant deliberately filled in "No". In the advertisement, it was provided that the particulars of the online application form could be corrected within the period from 15.09.2022 to 16.09.2022. However, the appellant did not make any effort to correct the erroneous entry made in the application form. It has also been submitted that the appellant was asked vide order dated 20.05.2023 by the District Judge, Sultanpur to file an affidavit regarding pendency of the criminal case against him and whether he has been convicted or acquitted in any criminal case. Only thereafter on 27.05.2023, he filed affidavit mentioning that a criminal case is pending against him. Therefore, the appellant did not disclose the pendency of criminal case against him within the prescribed period but after a gap of more than 10 months. Therefore, it cannot be presumed that the error in the application was not deliberate but inadvertently made. It has also been submitted that the learned Single Judge, after going through the facts and circumstances of the case and the law applicable thereto, had rightly dismissed the writ petition filed by the appellant.

7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. From the perusal of the record it transpires that the High Court has issued an advertisement on 30.10.2022 inviting applications for appointment to the Class-IV post of Orderly/Peon/Office Peon/Farrash. The appellant submitted in his application form against the column 'whether any criminal/ complaint case have ever been registered against you?'. The appellant gave reply as "No". The appellant appeared in two rounds of selection process held on 17.12.2022 & 2.4.2023 and qualified for being appointed as a Class-IV Post.

9. The office of Respondent No.2 vide letter dated 20.5.2023 required the appellant to fulfil certain formalities prior to his appointment to the aforesaid post. One of the formalities was of submission of an affidavit in the shape of undertaking that no criminal case is pending against the appellant neither in any case he has been convicted or acquitted. It is only then that the appellant submitted his affidavit on 2.6.2023 indicating about pendency of a criminal case i.e. Case Crime No. 0166 of 2020 under Sections 307, 323, 504, 506 & 325 IPC registered in Police Station, Mirzamurad, District-Varanasi. In his affidavit dated 2.6.2023, the appellant has indicated that while filling in the online application form he had inadvertently filled the column against the criminal case as "No" which as per the appellant is incorrect as a criminal case i.e. Case Crime No. 0166 of 2020 is pending against him and his reply should be treated as "Yes".

10. The competent authority, respondent no.2 after considering the appellant's affidavit dated 2.6.2023 as well as paragraph no.6 of the guidelines issued by the High Court regarding concealment has cancelled the candidature of the appellant.

11. A three Judges Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court in Avtar Singh Vs. Union of India and others, (2016) 8 SCC 471, after examining different views expressed by the Bench of Hon'ble Apext Court from time to time, has laid down the broad guidelines as yardstick to be applied for verification of disclosure made by a candidate to the employer for deciding as to whether the cancellation of candidature or termination of service of the incumbent should be done or not? In this context, it may be useful to extract the following observations made in Avtar Singh (supra);

32. No doubt about it that once verification form requires certain information to be furnished, declarant is duty-bound to furnish it correctly and any suppression of material facts or submitting false information, may by itself lead to termination of his services or cancellation of candidature in an appropriate case. However, in a criminal case incumbent has not been acquitted and case is pending trial, employer may well be justified in not appointing such an incumbent or in terminating the services as conviction ultimately may render him unsuitable for job and employer is not supposed to wait till outcome of criminal case. In such a case non-disclosure or submitting false information would assume significance and that by itself may be ground for employer to cancel candidature or to terminate services.

36.What yardstick is to be applied has to depend upon the nature of post, higher post would involve more rigorous criteria for all services, not only to uniformed service. For lower posts which are not sensitive, nature of duties, impact of suppression on suitability has to be considered by authorities concerned considering post/nature of duties/services and power has to be exercised on due consideration of various aspects.

"38. We have noticed various decisions and tried to explain and reconcile them as far as possible. In view of aforesaid discussion, we summarize our conclusion thus:

38.1 Information given to the employer by a candidate as to conviction, acquittal or arrest, or pendency of a criminal case, whether before or after entering into service must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of required information.

38.2 While passing order of termination of services or cancellation of candidature for giving false information, the employer may take notice of special circumstances of the case, if any, while giving such information.

38.3 The employer shall take into consideration the Government orders/instructions/rules, applicable to the employee, at the time of taking the decision.

38.4 In case there is suppression or false information of involvement in a criminal case where conviction or acquittal had already been recorded before filling of the application/verification form and such fact later comes to knowledge of employer, any of the following recourse appropriate to the case may be adopted : -

38.4.1 In a case trivial in nature in which conviction had been recorded, such as shouting slogans at young age or for a petty offence which if disclosed would not have rendered an incumbent unfit for post in question, the employer may, in its discretion, ignore such suppression of fact or false information by condoning the lapse.

38.4.2 Where conviction has been recorded in case which is not trivial in nature, employer may cancel candidature or terminate services of the employee.

38.4.3 If acquittal had already been recorded in a case involving moral turpitude or offence of heinous/serious nature, on technical ground and it is not a case of clean acquittal, or benefit of reasonable doubt has been given, the employer may consider all relevant facts available as to antecedents, and may take appropriate decision as to the continuance of the employee.

38.5 In a case where the employee has made declaration truthfully of a concluded criminal case, the employer still has the right to consider antecedents, and cannot be compelled to appoint the candidate.

38.6 In case when fact has been truthfully declared in character verification form regarding pendency of a criminal case of trivial nature, employer, in facts and circumstances of the case, in its discretion may appoint the candidate subject to decision of such case.

38.7 In a case of deliberate suppression of fact with respect to multiple pending cases such false information by itself will assume significance and an employer may pass appropriate order cancelling candidature or terminating services as appointment of a person against whom multiple criminal cases were pending may not be proper.

38.8 If criminal case was pending but not known to the candidate at the time of filling the form, still it may have adverse impact and the appointing authority would take decision after considering the seriousness of the crime.

38.9 In case the employee is confirmed in service, holding Departmental enquiry would be necessary before passing order of termination/removal or dismissal on the ground of suppression or submitting false information in verification form.

38.10 For determining suppression or false information attestation/verification form has to be specific, not vague. Only such information which was required to be specifically mentioned has to be disclosed. If information not asked for but is relevant comes to knowledge of the employer the same can be considered in an objective manner while addressing the question of fitness. However, in such cases action cannot be taken on basis of suppression or submitting false information as to a fact which was not even asked for.

38.11 Before a person is held guilty of ?suppressio veri? or suggestio falsi?, knowledge of the fact must be attributable to him."

12. In paragraph no.16 of the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in State of Madhyra Pradesh and Ors. Vs. Bhupendra Yadav, 2023 (SCC Online) SC 1181 has given credence to of the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in Avtar Singh case (supra) which is as follows:-

16. As can be discerned from the above decision, an employer has the discretion to terminate or condone an omission in the disclosure made by a candidate. While doing so, the employer must act with prudence, keep in mind the nature of the post and the duties required to be discharged. Higher the post, more stringent ought to be the standards to be applied. Even if a truthful disclosure has been made, the employer is well within its right to examine the fitness of a candidate and in a concluded criminal case, keep in mind the nature of the offence and verify whether the acquittal is honourable or benefit has been extended on technical reasons. If the employer arrives at a conclusion that the incumbent is of a suspect character or unfit for the post, he may not be appointed or continued in service."

13. In Daya Shankar Yadav Vs. Union of India; 201014 SCC 103, the Court has held that where the candidate has given correct or false or half backed information with respect to his antecedents, the following consequences will take place.

"15. When an employee or a prospective employee declares in a verification form, answers to the queries relating to character and antecedents, the verification thereof can therefore lead to any of the following consequences:

(a) If the declarant has answered the questions in the affirmative and furnished the details of any criminal case (wherein he was convicted or acquitted by giving benefit of doubt for want of evidence), the employer may refuse to offer him employment (or if already employed on probation, discharge him from service), if he is found to be unfit having regard to the nature and gravity of the offence/crime in which he was involved.

(b) On the other hand, if the employer finds that the criminal case disclosed by the declarant related to offences which were technical, or of a nature that would not affect the declarant's fitness for employment, or where the declarant had been honourably acquitted and exonerated, the employer may ignore the fact that the declarant had been prosecuted in a criminal case and proceed to appoint him or continue him in employment.

(c) Where the declarant has answered the questions in the negative and on verification it is found that the answers were false, the employer may refuse to employ the declarant (or discharge him, if already employed), even if the declarant had been cleared of the charges or is acquitted. This is because when there is suppression or non-disclosure of material information bearing on his character, that itself becomes a reason for not employing the declarant.

(d) Where the attestation form or verification form does not contain proper or adequate queries requiring the declarant to disclose his involvement in any criminal proceedings, or where the candidate was unaware of initiation of criminal proceedings when he gave the declarations in the verification roll/attestation form, then the candidate cannot be found fault with, for not furnishing the relevant information. But if the employer by other means (say police verification or complaints, etc.) learns about the involvement of the declarant, the employer can have recourse to courses (a) or (b) above."

14. In Rajasthan Rajya Vidhut Prasaran Nigam Limited Vs. Anil Kanwaria (2021) 10 SCC 136 where the respondents after qualifying for the post was appointed as a probationer trainee, technical helper in the course of his police verification it had transpired that he had been convicted by the trial court for the offences under Sections 323 and 341 of IPC but was extended benefit under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and released on good conduct. The respondent withheld these facts in his application form for appointment. After distilling the law on appointments obtained by fraud or misrepresentation/ by suppression of material facts. The Hon'ble Apex Court proceeded to quash the appointment and set aside the order passed by the learned Single Judge and upheld the order passed by the Division Bench of High Court stating that the decision of learned Single Judge directing the reinstatement of the respondent- employee was unsustainable in view of the fact that the employee had not disclosed/suppressed the fact that he has been convicted by a competent court and had filed a false declaration in this regard. In this case, the Hon'ble Apex Court expressed its view that even where there is a subsequent acquittal, the employee having furnished false information/indulged in suppression of material fact of his conviction in a criminal case, cannot claim appointment as a matter of right. Following observation was made regarding credibility of such an employee from the perspective of the employer:

"14. The issue/question may be considered from another angle, from the employer's point of view. The question is not about whether an employee was involved in a dispute of trivial nature and whether he has been subsequently acquitted or not. The question is about the credibility and/or trustworthiness of such an employee who at the initial stage of the employment i.e. while submitting the declaration/verification and/or applying for a post made false declaration and/or not disclosing and/or suppressing material fact of having involved in a criminal case. If the correct facts would have been disclosed, the employer might not have appointed him. Then the question is of trust. Therefore, in such a situation, where the employer feels that an employee who at the initial stage itself has made a false statement and/or not disclosed the material facts and/or suppressed the material facts and therefore he cannot be continued in service because such an employee cannot be relied upon even in future, the employer cannot be forced to continue such an employee. The choice/option whether to continue or not to continue such an employee always must be given to the employer. At the cost of repetition, it is observed and as observed hereinabove in catena of decision such an employee cannot claim the appointment and/or continue to be in service as a matter of right."

15. From considering the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Avtar Singh (supra) and Rajasthan Rajya Vidhut Prasaran Nigam Limited (supra) it can be concluded that the information given to the employer by a candidate as to the conviction/acquittal or arrest or pendency of criminal case whether before or after entering into the service must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of required information. Any contravention made by the candidate shall cause cancellation of his candidature, dismissal from service if already appointed.

16. The discloser made by the appellant while applying for the Class-IV post regarding pendency of criminal case was clearly false as he had mentioned/replied "No" to the query regarding the criminal case pending against him. The advertisement itself provided space for correction of error between period 15.11.2022 to 16.11.2022 but no efforts were made by the appellant for correction of the said reply/answer in his online application form. The appellant appeared in two rounds of selection process and despite having been qualified in the same, no effort was made by him to indicate the pendency of criminal case to the respondent no.2 competent authority. It is only when on 20.5.2023, the appellant was asked to furnish an affidavit/undertaking regarding his conviction/acquittal or pendency of criminal case against him. The appellant submitted his affidavit on 2.6.2023 indicating the pendency of criminal case. Thus, the appellant from the date of the submission of application form i.e.

13.11.2022 until 02.06.2023 persisted on giving wrong information about the pendency of criminal cases against him and for the first time on 02.06.2023, he disclosed the criminal case pending against him. The competent authority respondent no.2 after considering the said affidavit as well as paragraph no.6 of the guidelines issued by the High Court has rightly cancelled the candidature of the appellant.

17. From the above discussion, it is obvious that the appellant has deliberately furnished false information about the non-pendency of criminal case against him, therefore his case is squarely covered under the paragraph no. 38.1 of Avtar Singh case (supra). There is no special circumstances in favour of the appellant which may extenuate him from his aforesaid mislead. The appointing authority- respondent no.2 has taken into consideration the guidelines of High Court before passing impugned order. There is no substance in the plea of the appellant that his case is not covered under paragraph no. 38.1 and it is covered under paragraph nos. 38.2 and 38.3 of Avtar Singh case (supra) and his candidature should not be cancelled. Therefore, his plea cannot be taken into consideration in favour of him.

18. The High Court had issued guidelines for verification of antecedent testimonials of the candidate and if required cancelling of his candidature. The paragraph No. 6 of the guidelines is as follows:

"An undertaking on affidavit shall be taken from the selected candidates declaring that neither any criminal case/proceeding is pending against him/her nor he has been convicted/acquitted by any Court. In case any criminal case/proceeding is found pending against him/her in any court which has not been declared by the candidate in the application form, a show cause notice shall be issued to such candidate by the appointing authority as to why their candidature be not canceled. The decision of the appointing authority about the candidature of such candidate shall be treated as final. Further, if such a candidate has not disclosed the information of criminal case/proceeding in the Undertaking on Affidavit submitted at the time of joining, the candidature/appointment of such candidate shall be forfeited/cancelled by the appointing authority at their end."

19. The respondent no.2 appointing authority after following procedure provided in the paragraph no.6 of the aforesaid guidelines after giving the appellant opportunity to explain false statement regarding pendency of criminal case in his application for appointment has rightly cancelled the candidature of the appellant.

20. From the discussion of the aforesaid facts it is thus, obvious that the appellant had given false information regarding pendency of criminal case in his application form and he did not make correction within the time prescribed in the advertisement and also he did not disclose the facts regarding pendeny of criminal case till declaration of the result. For the first time he made disclose regarding pendency of criminal case against him. When on 20.5.2023, the appellant was directed by the respondent no.2 to give undertaking by an affidavit regarding pendency of criminal case. Apart from this, from the testimonials filed by the appellant, it is clear that he is computer knowing person and has done C-Grade course of computer in June, 2017 i.e. before submitting an online application for appointment.

21. Thus, the explanation given by the appellant that he has no knowledge about the online filling form and he gave all the relevant information/documents to the person who filled his online form and inadvertently error crept in by the person filling the application form regarding non pendency of criminal case against him, cannot be accepted.

22. Thus, considering conduct of the appellant and in light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Avtar Singh (supra) and Rajya Vidyut Prasaran Nigam Ltd. (supra), it can be concluded that the appellant deliberately made concealment of fact regarding pendency of criminal case in his application form.

23. Considering the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the aforesaid cases, and in the facts and circumstances of the case, we do not find any illegality or irregularity in the impugned order 18.9.2023 passed by the learned Single Judge in WRIT - A No. - 15566 of 2023.

24. There is no merit in the Special Appeal. It is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 750
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 06.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal Defective No. 791 of 2023
Connected with
Special Appeal Defective No. 790 of 2023
And
Special Appeal Defective No. 84 of 2024
And
Special Appeal Defective No. 803 of 2023

C/M, Sri Durga Ji (P.G.) College Chandeswar, Azamgarh & Anr.
...Appellants
Versus
Ambrish Kumar Gond & Ors.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri Ravindra Nath Yadav, Sri Akhilesh Kumar Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Alok Mishra

A. Service Law – Appointment of Class-III Employees – Validity of Selection Process – Appellants challenged the reinSt.ment of four Class-III employees (Lab Assistants, Routine Clerk, Library Clerk) whose appointments were cancelled due to the participation of an Officiating Principal in the selection committee instead of the regular Principal – Held, the regular Principal was under suspension, and the Officiating Principal, Dr. Phool Chandra Singh, was duly authorized to participate in the recruitment process – The selection committee was validly constituted under the statutes of Veer Bahadur Singh Purvanchal University, and the objection to the Officiating Principal's participation was baseless – Cancellation of appointments by the Director and Authorized Controller was erroneous, as no disciplinary enquiry or opportunity of hearing was provided, violating natural justice. (Paras 4, 9, 10, 11, 12)

B. Service Law – Natural Justice – Cancellation of Appointments – The appointments of Class-III employees, approved by the Regional Higher Education Officer on 25.11.2004, were cancelled without conducting a disciplinary enquiry or providing an opportunity of hearing – Held, such cancellation was impermissible and arbitrary, as it lacked procedural fairness – Learned Single Judge rightly set aside the cancellation orders dated 26.3.2009 (Director), 2.6.2010 (Principal), and 18.6.2010 (Authorized Controller) – ReinSt.ment of employees upheld, as the selection process was valid and cancellations were not based on any substantive grounds. (Paras 5, 6, 12)

C. Service Law – Back Wages and Continuity of Service – Employees sought back wages for the period 2010–2023, during which they were not allowed to work due to wrongful cancellation of their appointments – Held, denial of back wages was not illegal, as employees did not work during this period – However, employees are entitled to continuity of service and notional fixation of salary from 2004, ensuring uninterrupted service benefits – Authorities directed to reinSt. employees forthwith and fix salaries accordingly, without back wages for the unworked period. (Paras 6, 13, 14)

Special Appeals (Nos. 791, 790, 803 of 2023) by Committee of Management Dismissed – Special Appeal (No. 84 of 2024) by Employees Disposed with Directions for ReinSt.ment and Continuity of Service.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.
&
Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. Delay in filing of the appeals has been explained to the satisfaction of the Court. Applications are allowed. Delay in filing of appeals is condoned.

2. These four appeals are in respect of appointments offered on Class-III posts to four Class-III employees of Shri Durga Ji Postgraduate College Chandeshwar, Azamgarh. The writ petitions filed by the four Class-III employees have been allowed by the learned Single Judge and they have been held entitled to reinstatement without back wages. Since all the appeals have been heard together and common questions of fact and law are involved, as such, with the consent of learned counsel for the parties all the four appeals are being decided by this common judgment.

3. Shri Durga Ji Postgraduate College Chandeshwar, Azamgarh (hereinafter referred to as the 'institution') is duly recognized educational institution, affiliated to Veer Bahadur Singh Purvanchal University, Jaunpur. It is governed by the provisions of the U.P. State Universities Act, 1973, as well as the statutes of the Purvanchal University. In the concerned institution process of recruitment was initiated on the post of Lab Assistant and Library Clerk. An advertisement was issued by the institution for appointments to be made on 3 posts of Lab Assistant, one of which was reserved for Scheduled Castes candidate; 1 post of Routine Clerk and 3 posts of Class-IV employees. The advertisement was issued by the then Manager Kanhaiya Singh as well as Dr. Phool Chandra Singh, who was the Officiating Principal of the institution. The selection committee was constituted for appointment to Class-III posts consisting of the Officiating Principal Dr. Phool Chandra Singh. Bharat Singh and Manoj Kumar Yadav were appointed as Routine Clerk; while Satyendra Kumar Singh was appointed as Library Clerk. Ambarish Kumar Gond, and Ravindra were appointed as Lab Assistant. Certain other persons were appointed on Class-IV post. These appointments were approved by the Regional Higher Education Officer, Varanasi on 25.11.2004. The candidates, who were duly appointed, started working after their appointments were approved by the Regional Higher Education Officer and also started receiving salary. No issue in that regard was apparently raised.

4. An Authorized Controller came to be appointed in the institution in January, 2008. It is thereafter that some doubts were raised with regard to legality of the appointments offered to the aforesaid persons on the ground that regular Principal of the institution had not participated in the selection proceedings and that the Officiating Principal had no right to take part in such proceedings.

5. It appears that the Regional Higher Education Officer proposed cancellation of the appointments offered to Class-III employees, wherein the Officiating Principal Dr. Phool Chandra Singh had participated as a member of the Selection Committee. The Regional Higher Education Officer, nevertheless, sought guidance from the Director, Higher Education, U.P. The Director, Higher Education on 26.3.2009 directed cancellation of the appointment of such employees. In compliance of the orders passed by the Director, the Principal of the institution passed an order on 2.6.2010 suspending the payment of salary of the concerned employees. The Authorized Controller subsequently passed an order on 18.6.2010 cancelling the appointments offered to the Class-III employees in compliance of the orders passed by the Director on 26.3.2009. The aforesaid orders came to be challenged before this Court in separate writ petitions filed by the concerned employees.

6. Writ Petition No.49802 of 2010 came to be filed by Bharat Singh, who was appointed as Routine Clerk. Writ Petition No.54687 of 2010 was filed by Satendra Kumar Singh, who was appointed as Library Clerk. Writ Petition No.47780 of 2010 came to be filed by Ambarish Kumar Gond and Ravindra. The writ petitions were initially dismissed by learned Single Judge, but those orders were reversed in appeal on the ground that facts have not been correctly adjudicated. The orders passed in Special Appeal No.1748 of 2012 filed by Ambarish Kumar Gond and another has been produced before us, which would go to show that the Division Bench was of the view that facts have not been correctly appreciated by the learned Single Judge, and therefore the dismissal of writ petitions was not proper. The special appeals were, consequently, allowed and the matters were remitted back for a fresh consideration of cause. It is pursuant to such orders passed in the year 2013 by the Division Bench that the abovenoted three writs have now been finally decided by the learned Single Judge vide orders dated 25.4.2023 and 22.5.2023. Learned Single Judge has come to the conclusion that cancellation of appointments offered to Class-III employees was not based on any proper enquiry report and opportunity of hearing has also been denied to such persons. It is for this reason that the writs filed by Class-III employees have been allowed. They have been held entitled to reinstatement and continuity in service. Salary, however, has been denied to them on the ground that they have admittedly not worked from 2010 to 2023. Aggrieved by these orders of learned Single Judge, Special Appeal Defective Nos.791 of 2023, 790 of 2023 and 803 of 2023 have been filed by the Committee of Management, whereas on behalf of Class-III employees Ambarish Kumar Gond and Ravindra, Special Appeal Defective No.84 of 2024 has been filed, insofar as back wages have been denied to them.

7. We have heard Sri R.N. Yadav for the Committee of Management, whereas Sri V.K. Singh, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri S.M. Mishra has been heard on behalf of Satendra Kumar Singh. Bharat Singh and two appellants Ambarish Kumar Gond and Ravindra are represented by Sri Alok Mishra. We have examined the materials placed on record.

8. It is undisputed that the institution is a recognized institution and certain vacancies of Class-III and Class-IV posts had arisen in the institution. The advertisement was duly published in that regard, which is on record of Special Appeal Defective No.791 of 2023 at page 158. The advertisement has been issued jointly by the Manager Kanhaiya Singh and the Officiating Principal Dr. Phool Chandra Singh. Pursuant to this advertisement selection committee has been constituted and all four Class-III employees were duly appointed. Their appointment was also approved by the Regional Higher Education Officer, Varanasi on 25.11.2004. These employees started working and receiving salary from State Exchequer. There is no denial of such facts in any of the appeals.

9. The dispute with regard to appointments offered to Class-III employees originated on the report of Regional Higher Education Officer, as per which the selection committee itself was flawed, since regular Principal of the institution was not associated in issuing the advertisement nor was he a member of the selection committee. This is the only objection on which the appointments offered to Class-III employees were set aside. In such view of the matter, it would be necessary to examine as to whether a valid person had participated in the selection proceedings as Principal or not?

10. It is undisputed that Dr. Durga Prasad Dwivedi was the Principal of the institution. He was placed under suspension by the Committee of Management on 3.9.2024. The suspension of Dr. Durga Prasad Dwivedi was stayed by the Vice Chancellor on 19.10.2004. On 16.12.2004 the suspension order was set aside by the Vice Chancellor. The order dated 16.12.2004 came to be challenged by the Committee of Management before a Division Bench of this Court in Writ Petition No.55955 of 2004. The Division Bench of this Court quashed the order passed by the Vice Chancellor after holding that he had no jurisdiction to set aside the suspension of the Principal. The suspended Principal Dr. Durga Prasad Dwivedi thereafter filed Writ Petition No.51603 of 2005 challenging his suspension. This writ petition was disposed of after holding that in view of the previous order passed by the Co-ordinate Bench in Writ Petition No.55955 of 2004, there was no occasion for this Court to interfere with the order of suspension. The enquiry, however, was directed to be concluded within a period of three months.

11. The order of the Division Bench dated 3.1.2005 in Writ Petition No.55955 of 2004 has attained finality. Once that be so, it remains undisputed that regular Principal Dr. Durga Prasad Dwivedi continued under suspension. The plea taken by the educational authority and the Committee of Management that Dr. Durga Prasad Dwivedi ought to have participated in the recruitment as the Principal of the institution is clearly impermissible. A suspended Principal cannot take part in the recruitment proceedings, nor can he be expected to form part of the selection committee. The objection taken by the Committee of Management as well as the educational authorities in this regard is, therefore, found bereft of merits.

12. It is otherwise undisputed that Dr. Phool Chandra Singh was authorized to officiate as Principal and his signatures were attested. The officiation of Dr. Phool Chandra Singh as Principal has not been challenged by anyone. It is undisputed that Dr. Phool Chandra Singh had participated in the recruitment exercise and was also a member of the selection committee. Being the Officiating Principal he was entitled to be a part of the selection committee, since the statutes of the University contemplates a selection committee for appointment to Class-III post to consist of Principal. As the regular Principal was under suspension, the Officiating Principal had to take part in such proceedings. We find that there was absolutely no occasion for anyone to doubt the recruitment of Class-III employees on the ground that an incompetent person had participated in the recruitment proceedings, as the Principal. The educational authorities as well as Authorized Controller clearly fell in error in doubting the correctness of the recruitment proceeding culminating in appointment of Class-III employees, who were duly approved by the Regional Higher Education Officer. We otherwise find substance in the reasoning assigned by learned Single Judge to interfere with the order of the authorities, inasmuch as at no stage, any opportunity of hearing was given to the selected employees. No disciplinary enquiry was otherwise held. The services of Class-III employees, who were duly appointed and approved by the educational authorities, could not have been set aside, merely on a misconceived apprehension that selection committee was incompetent. We, therefore, fully endorse the view taken by the learned Single Judge that the cancellation of appointment of Class-III employees was impermissible. Learned Single Judge, therefore, has rightly set aside the order passed by the Director dated 26.3.2009 as well as the consequential orders passed by the Principal dated 2.6.2010 and the order passed by the Authorized Controller dated 18.6.2010. The Special Appeal Defective Nos.791 of 2023, 790 of 2023 and 803 of 2023 filed by the Committee of Management, in that regard, are dismissed.

13. So far as the claim for back wages put forth by the two employees are concerned, we find that they have not worked since 2010. Although we find substance in the argument of Sri Alok Mishra that it was for no fault of these employees that they were not allowed to work, yet, in the facts of the case we find that denial of back wages to these two employees cannot be said to be illegal or arbitrary. All these employees, however, would be entitled to continuity in service and their salary etc. would be notionally fixed by granting them the benefit of uninterrupted continuance since their appointment in the year 2004 without any back wages for the period 2010 to 2023. The authorities shall ensure that all the four Class-III employees would be allowed to resume their duties, forthwith, if it has not already been done, and they would be entitled to salary in terms of the above directions.

14. Subject to the observations made above, Special Appeal Defective No.84 of 2024 stands disposed of.

(2024) 2 ILRA 755
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 08.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal No. 818 of 2022

Food and Civil Supply Pensioners Welfare Association, Meerut ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Kumar Ashutosh Srivastava, Sri Bhupendra Pratap Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Implementation of Sixth Pay Commission – Food and Civil Supply Department – Appellant-association, representing retired employees of the Food and Civil Supply Department (2008–2011), challenged the rejection of their representation seeking implementation of the Sixth Pay Commission report notionally from 1.1.2006 – Held, the Sixth Pay Commission report was uniformly implemented across all St. departments, including Food and Civil Supply, from 1.1.2006 vide Government Order dated 8.12.2008 – No illegality or perversity shown in the finding of the learned Single Judge – Appellant's primary grievance regarding non-implementation of the Sixth Pay Commission from 1.1.2006 rejected. (Paras 3, 8)

B. Service Law – Upgradation of Pay Scale – Rectification of Anomalies – Appellant sought retrospective application of upgraded pay scales (effective 30.6.2011) from 1.1.2006, alleging arbitrariness – Held, the upgradation of pay scales, based on the Tenth Pay Committee Report, addressed anomalies considering work performed and equivalence with other departments – This potential claim was recognized only on 30.6.2011, and benefits were rightly granted prospectively from that date – No existing right to upgraded pay existed prior to 30.6.2011, rendering retrospective application untenable. (Paras 4, 9, 10, 11)

C. Service Law – Potential Claims – Prospective Application – The claim for upgraded pay scales was a potential claim, not based on pre-existing rights, and required determination through appropriate proceedings – Held, such claims are ordinarily implemented prospectively from the date of recognition (30.6.2011) – No evidence showed that the appellant's claim was recognized earlier or that their circumstances mirrored Central Government employees – Learned Single Judge's refusal to interfere with the St.'s order upheld as no illegality found. (Paras 10, 11, 12)

Special Appeal Dismissed – No Merit Found in Challenge to Single Judge's Order.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.
&
Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. Appellant before this Court is the Association of Food and Civil Supply Pensioners, which is aggrieved by the judgment of the learned Single Judge dated 4.10.2021, passed in writ petition nos.68856 of 2015 and 57952 of 2014.

2. The appellant-association by filing the writ petition had primarily challenged the order passed by the Principal Secretary, Department of Food and Civil Supply, State of U.P., Lucknow dated 12.2.2015, whereby representation made by the appellant-association was rejected. A further prayer has been made to issue a writ of mandamus commanding the respondents to implement the sixth pay commission report from 1.12.2008 notionally from

1.1.2006. The members of the appellant-association are those employees of the department of food and civil supply, who had retired between 2008 to 2011.

3. Learned Single Judge after examining the claim of the appellant has returned a finding that the recommendation of the sixth pay commission report was uniformly implemented in all departments of the State, including department of food and civil supply, with effect from 1.1.2006 in terms of the Government Order dated 8.12.2008. The finding returned in that regard is not shown to be illegal or perverse. Learned Single Judge has also observed that the rectification of anomalies in the pay scale vide tenth report of pay committee got implemented with effect from 30.6.2011 and upgraded pay was granted from the date of notification dated 30.6.2011.

4. Learned Single Judge has opined that the grant of benefit of up-gradation of pay consequent upon rectification of anomalies in the pay scale has nothing to do with the implementation of the sixth pay commission report. With this finding, writ petition filed by the appellant-association has been rejected.

5. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the benefit of rectification of anomalies ought to have been extended from the date when sixth pay commission report itself was implemented i.e. 1.1.2006 and restricting its benefits with effect from 30.6.2011 is wholly arbitrary.

6. The appeal is opposed by learned State counsel.

7. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the materials on record.

8. The appellant has essentially prayed that the benefit of sixth pay commission report be extended in the department of food and civil supply with effect from 1.1.2006. This is the primary grievance raised in the writ petition. Learned Single Judge upon evaluation of respective pleas put forth by the parties has returned a categorical finding that the sixth pay commission report has been implemented in the department of food and civil supply with effect from 1.1.2006 vide Government Order dated 8.12.2008. Though the judgment of learned Single Judge has been challenged but the appellant has not been able to show that in the department of food and civil supply the benefit of sixth pay commission report was not implemented at par with other departments with effect from 1.1.2006. The grievance of the appellant in that regard is, therefore, rejected.

9. The claim raised by the members of the appellant-association apparently was in the nature of a potential claim as the employees of the department were claiming parity with employees of other departments on the basis of work performed by them. The recommendations made by the pay committee report (tenth report) was based upon the nature of work performed by the appellant-association and upon consideration of the plea of equivalence of status viz-a-viz posts of other departments and got implemented vide notification dated 30.6.2011. Such potential claim since was recognized, for the first time, on 30.6.2011, the recommendations got enforced in the department from that day.

10. In the order of the State Government a categorical finding has been returned that the grant of upgraded pay scale was on the basis of consideration by the pay committee with regard to anomalies in the pay scale, with reference to the work performance and status of the employees viz-a-viz posts of other departments of the State. Since claims which were potential in nature got recognized vide notification dated 30.6.2011, for the first time, the grant of benefit of upgraded pay only from 30.6.2011 cannot said to be illegal or arbitrary.

11. Potential claims since are not based on any existing rights, such claims would require determination first. It is only after determination of such potential claim in appropriate proceedings that the benefits found due can be extended. Ordinarily grant of such benefits would be prospective.

12. It is not the case of the appellant that their claim for upgraded scale stood recognized from before nor is it their case that they were similarly circumscribed as the employees of the Central Government. We, therefore, find no error in the judgment of the learned Single Judge refusing to interfere in the writ petition.

13. The special appeal lacks merit and is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 757
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 04.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NEERAJ TIWARI, J.

Writ - A No. 848 of 2019

Firoz Khan ...Petitioner
Versus
Bank of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sharad Malviya, Sri Yogendra Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri R.V. Pandey

A. Service Law – Compassionate Appointment – Financial Condition Assessment – Petitioner sought compassionate appointment after his father's death, which was rejected by the Bank of India – Held, under Para 17, Sub Para (iii) of the Bank of India Scheme for Compassionate Appointment, the financial condition of the deceased employee's family, including assets, liabilities, and terminal benefits, must be assessed – Family received Rs. 44,43,178/- (after deducting liabilities of Rs. 5,97,000/-) and a monthly pension of Rs. 24,718/-, which was sufficient to avoid financial crisis – Rejection of compassionate appointment upheld as the family was not in a penurious condition. (Paras 3, 5, 8, 9, 17, 19)

B. Service Law – Bank of India Scheme – Interpretation of Para 17 (iii) – The scheme mandates a balanced and objective assessment of the family's financial condition, considering terminal benefits (e.g., gratuity, provident fund, leave encashment) and liabilities – Held, compassionate appointment cannot be rejected solely on the ground of receiving welfare scheme benefits, but the quantum of benefits (Rs. 44,43,178/- and Rs. 24,718/- monthly pension) justified denial, as the family could meet financial liabilities without appointment – No illegality found in the impugned order dated 15.11.2017. (Paras 4, 8, 18, 19)

C. Service Law – Precedents on Compassionate Appointment – Judgments in General Manager (D & PB) Vs Kunti Tiwary, Punjab National Bank Vs Ashwani Kumar Taneja, St. Bank of India Vs Jaspal Kaur, and others consistently hold that terminal benefits and pension amounts can be considered to assess financial hardship – Held, amounts comparable to or less than Rs. 44,43,178/- (terminal benefits) and Rs. 24,718/- (pension) in prior cases justified denial of compassionate appointment – Petitioner's case aligns with these precedents, and no interference warranted. (Paras 6, 10–16, 17)

Writ Petition Dismissed – No Illegality in Rejection of Compassionate Appointment.

List of Cases cited:

1. General Manager (D & PB) & ors. Vs Kunti Tiwary & anr., (2004) 7 SCC 271

2. Punjab National Bank & ors. Vs Ashwani Kumar Taneja, (2004) 7 SCC 265

3. St. Bank of India Vs Jaspal Kaur, (2007) 9 SCC 571

4. St. Bank of India Vs Ajay Kumar, Special Appeal No. 14 of 2007

5. Punjab National Bank Vs Deepak Pandey, Special Appeal No. 867 of 2006

6. Smt. Nanda Tambe Vs U.O.I. & ors., Writ-A No. 54592 of 2004

(Delivered by Hon'ble Neeraj Tiwari, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri R.V. Pandey, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. Present petition has been filed with the following prayers:-

"(i) Issue, a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari to quash the order dated 15.11.2017, which was communicated on 24.11.2017, rejecting the application of petitioner on compassionate appointment.

(ii) Issue, a writ order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondent Bank to provide employment to the petitioner on compassionate ground as per his qualification."

3. Brief facts of the case are that father of petitioner was working as Branch Manager at Mahoba Branch. During the course of service, he died on 19.1.2017. After his death, mother of petitioner has received Rs.10,000,00/- as Gratuity Fund, Rs. 15,160,00/- as Provident Fund, Rs. 6,24,178/- as leave encashment, Rs. 17,000,00/- against TDR and Rs. 2,000,00/- from LIC insurance amounting to a sum of Rs. 50,40,178/-. Father of petitioner had liabilities to pay Rs. 5,97,000/- towards bank. After deduction of the same, total amount paid is Rs.44,43,178/-. Mother of petitioner is also getting family pension of Rs. 24,718/- per month.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that in light of Para 17 of Sub Para (iii) of the Bank of India Scheme for Compassionate Appointment, application for appointment on compassionate ground cannot be rejected on the ground that family of employee has received the benefits under the various welfare schemes, therefore, order is bad and liable to be set aside.

5. Per Contra, Sri R.V. Pandey, learned counsel for the respondents vehemently opposed the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner and submitted that Para 17 of Sub Para (iii) of the Bank of India Scheme for Compassionate Appointment clearly says that while deciding the application liability has to be taken into consideration. In the present case, undisputedly, total liability upon the father of petitioner was of Rs.5,97,000/- towards bank, therefore, after deduction of the same, apart from monthly family pension of Rs.24,718/-, mother of petitioner has received Rs. 44,43,178/-, therefore, there is no illegality in denial of compassionate appointment to petitioner.

6. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance upon the judgments of Apex Court as well as this Court in the cases of General Manager (D & PB) and others vs. Kunti Tiwary and another (2004) 7 SCC 271, Punjab National Bank and others Vs. Ashwani Kumar Taneja 2004 (7) SCC 265, State Bank of India Vs. Jaspal Kaur (2007) 9 SCC 571, State Bank of India Vs. Ajay Kumar (Special Appeal No. 14 of 2007), Punjan National Bank Vs. Deepak Pandey (Special Appeal No. 867 of 2006) and Smt. Nanda Tambe vs. Union of India and others passed in Writ-A No. 54592 of 2004.

7. In rejoinder argument, learned counsel for the petitioner could not dispute the factual as well as legal submissions so made by the learned counsel for the respondents.

8. I have considered the rival submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the parties and perused the judgments as well as record. The main issue is before this Court that about the interpretation of Para 17 of Sub Para (iii) of the Bank of India Scheme for Compassionate Appointment, which is being quoted hereinbelow:-

"iii An application for compassionate appointment should, however, not be rejected merely on the ground that the family of the employee has received the benefits under the various welfare schemes. While considering a request for appointment on compassionate ground a balanced and objective assessment of the financial condition of the family has to be made taking into account its assets and liabilities (including the benefits received under the various welfare schemes mentioned above) and all other relevant factors such as the presence of an earning member, size of the family etc."

9. From perusal of the same, it is apparently clear that while considering the application of petitioner for appointment on compassionate ground, it is required on the part of Bank to consider the liability of petitioner. Further, after deduction of the same, mother of petitioner was paid Rs.44,43,178/- alongwith family pension of Rs.24,718/-.

10. The very same matter was came up before the Apex Court as well as this Court in the cases of General Manager (D & PB) and others (Supra), Punjab National Bank and others Supra), State Bank of India Vs. Jaspal Kaur (Supra), State Bank of India Vs. Ajay Kumar (Supra), Punjab National Bank Vs. Deepak Pandey (Supra) and Smt. Nanda Tambe (Supra).

11. Similar issue came up before this Court for adjudication in the matter of General Manager (D & PB) and others (Supra). The employee Kunti Tiwary was working in the State Bank of India and died in-harness on 16.01.1998. Application for compassionate appointment was made when deceased's son was minor. He attained majority on 25.02.2000. Thereafter he applied for compassionate appointment. Financial condition of family was examined by Bank and it was found that deceased employee's family was paid Provident Fund of Rs.3,33,410/-, Gratuity of Rs.1,73,987/- and Leave Encashment of Rs. 1,01,344/-. The deceased employee had an investment of Rs. 66,000/- in share of State Bank of India, etc. Family was paid a pension of Rs.5,583/- per month. The application, therefore, was rejected on the ground that possessed assets and monthly income was such as not to hold family in penury condition. The family also consisted of a widow, two sons and a daughter.

Rejection of application was challenged in Writ Court and a learned Single Judge dismissed writ petition. In intra Court appeal judgment of learned Single Judge was set aside and direction was issued to Bank to give compassionate appointment. This order came to be challenged in Supreme Court, who allowed appeal and restored judgment of learned Single Judge.

12. Again similar issue came up before this Court in the matter of Punjab National Bank and others (Supra). Father of Ashwani Kumar Taneja, a Class IV employee, died in harness on 03.12.1999 leaving behind his mother, widow, two sons and one daughter. Request for compassionate appointment was declined by Bank, whereagainst writ petition was allowed by learned Single Judge of Rajasthan High Court and Letters Patent Appeal was dismissed by Division Bench. The High Court held that for considering application for compassionate appointment, amount paid towards gratuity, provident fund etc. cannot be looked into. The matter went in appeal to Supreme Court and it held that the said amount can be taken into consideration and judgment of High Court was reversed holding that benefit paid after death can be considered for judging financial hardship.

13. This issue was again adjudicated in the matter of State Bank of India Vs. Jaspal Kaur (Supra). One Sukhbir Inder Singh, husband of Jaspal Kaur died in harness on 01.08.1999 while working as Record Assistant. An application for compassionate appointment of widow was rejected by Bank. In writ petition filed by Jaspal Kaur, High Court directed Bank to reconsider the application, which was again declined. The matter again came to High Court, which took a view that retiral benefits of Rs.4,57,607/- paid to the family as terminal benefits cannot be said to be a sufficient amount to bring away family from financial hardship. Supreme Court found that family of deceased consisted of a widow, two daughters and a son. Terminal benefits were paid as Rs.4,57,607/- and monthly pension was Rs.2,055/- and held that in the above facts and circumstances denial of compassionate appointment on the ground that family was not in penurious condition was justified.

14. Division Bench of this Court has also considered the very same issue in the matter of State Bank of India Vs. Ajay Kumar (Supra) and Court found that terminal benefits of Rs.3.79 lakhs, Rs.1 lakh from LIC policy and gross monthly income of Rs.4,000/- justify denial of compassionate appointment on the ground that family is not in penurious condition.

15. In the matter of Punjab National Bank Vs. Deepak Pandey (Supra), this Court found that family pension of Rs.4,807/- per month after death of deceased employee justify denial of compassionate appointment on the ground that family is not in penurious condition.

16. In the matter of Smt. Nanda Tambe (Supra), petitioner has received terminal benefits of Rs.2,38,975/- alongwith family pension of Rs. 4,969/- and further application was filed for compassionate appointment which was rejected by this Court vide order dated 28.3.2019 after considering the relevant provisions as well as law laid down by the Court.

17. In the present case, petitioner's father died on 19.1.2017. The amount of family pension payable to petitioner is Rs.

24,178/- per month and terminal benefit paid to Rs. 44,43,178/-. The above amount is such which has been considered in the cases referred to above and denial of compassionate appointment has been held valid.

18. This Court is also of the view that while deciding the application for appointment on compassionate ground, Para 17 of Sub Para (iii) of the Bank of India Scheme for Compassionate Appointment has to be taken into consideration in letter and spirit. It is to be seen as to whether terminal benefits is sufficient to meet liabilities of family or not. In case authority is satisfied that without providing appointment on compassionate ground, family would not be in position to meet the financial crisis, only then appointment may be given to family member subject to fulfillment of required qualification and eligibility, etc.

19. So far as present case is concerned, family of deceased employee has received sufficient money alongwith family pension to meet the financial liabilities, therefore, there is no occasion for this Court to interfere with the impugned order dated 15.11.2017. Respondents have rightly rejected the application for grant of compassionate appointment.

20. Accordingly, writ petition lacks merit and is dismissed. No order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 761
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Writ - A No. 907 of 2024

Rakesh Tripathi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Indra Raj Singh, Sri Adarsh Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Regularization of Ad-hoc Teacher – Procedural Fairness – Petitioner challenged the rejection of his regularization claim by the Regional Selection Committee, which cited the conversion of a short-term vacancy (1997) into a substantive vacancy (2008) as the reason for denial – Held, the Committee's order was based on incorrect facts, as the vacancy arose due to the ad-hoc promotion of another teacher, who was reverted in 2003, and the cancellation of petitioner's appointment in 2005 was quashed by the Additional Director of Education in 2008 – The Committee's failure to verify records or consult relevant authorities rendered the order dated 29.12.2023 arbitrary and unsustainable – Matter remitted for fresh consideration with directions to verify records and involve the Committee of Management and petitioner. (Paras 2, 3, 4, 7, 16, 17)

B. Service Law – Duty of Regional Selection Committee – Due Diligence – The Regional Selection Committee acted negligently by not verifying critical documents, including the order dated 5.12.2008, and relied on contradictory facts – Held, such committees must thoroughly examine records, verify facts with the Committee of Management and Director of Education, and provide reasoned findings on vacancy existence, candidate eligibility, and approval status – Casual or cursory orders affecting teachers' careers, especially those serving for decades, are impermissible and may warrant reprimand – Director of Education directed to ensure committees adhere to these principles. (Paras 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 15)

C. Service Law – Protection of Ad-hoc Teachers – Supreme Court Precedents – Relying on Radhey Shyam Yadav Vs St. of U.P. and Chief Engineer, M.S.E.B Vs Suresh Raghunath Bhokare, the court held that ad-hoc teachers serving for decades cannot be terminated merely due to irregularities by the Committee of Management unless the teacher is complicit in fraud or ineligible – Held, petitioner's appointment, approved and continued for over two decades, cannot be summarily rejected without evidence of misrepresentation or collusion – Petitioner entitled to continue in service with salary pending fresh adjudication by the Committee. (Paras 9, 10, 12, 17)

Writ Petition Allowed – Order Dated 29.12.2023 Quashed, Matter Remitted for Fresh Consideration – Petitioner to Continue in Service with Salary.

List of Cases cited:

1. Radhey Shyam Yadav & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., AIR 2024 SC 260

2. Chief Engineer, M.S.E.B & anr. Vs Suresh Raghunath Bhokare, (2005) 10 SCC 465 (AIR 2005 SC 1622)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Indra Raj Singh, learned counsel representing the petitioner, Sri J.N. Maurya, learned Chief Standing Counsel assisted by Sri R.S. Umrao, learned Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents and perused the records.

2. Petitioner has questioned the order dated 29.12.2023 passed by respondent no.2 - Regional Selection Committee chaired by the present Regional Joint Director of Education, Secondary, Prayagraj rejecting his claim for regularization of the petitioner only on the ground that short-term vacancy upon which he was appointed in the year 1997, later on got converted into a substantive vacancy in the year 2008.

3. This Court earlier, however, noticed this above reason and found to be highly misplaced and, therefore, had directed the Regional Joint Director of Education, Secondary, Prayagraj as well as the District Inspector of Schools concerned to remain present today in the Court along with their affidavits. Sri Sacchidanand Yadav, who happens to be the District Inspector of Schools, Kaushambi and Sri Dibya Kant Shukla, the Regional Joint Director of Education, Secondary, Prayagraj both are present. Both the officers have filed their personal affidavits in support of their application seeking exemption from personal appearance and have stated that as a matter of fact, the earlier Assistant Teacher Manmohan Pandey upon whose ad-hoc promotion as a Lecture (Sociology), the vacancy in L.T. Grade had arisen on a short-term basis, later on got reverted to the said position on 4.12.2003 and consequently the approval of the appointment of the petitioner on that short-term vacancy came to be cancelled on 30.9.2005. This stand taken in the affidavit and the order annexed runs contrary to the reason assigned in the order of the Regional Selection Committee while refusing to grant benefit of regularization to the petitioner that the vacancy had became substantive and so petitioner had no claim. In the reason assigned in the order passed by the Regional Selection Committee, it has clearly come in black and white that the said Manmohan Pandey had retired on 30.6.2008 while working as Lecturer (Sociology) in the Institution. Thus, the stand taken by the Regional Selection Committee which was chaired by the present Regional Joint Director of Education, Secondary, Sri Dibya Kant Shukla and of which Sacchidanand Yadav was the ex-officio Secretary, is contrary to this individual stand taken before the Court in their affidavits by the officers present in Court.

4. Today, another order has been placed before this Court by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner which was passed by the Additional Director of Education on behalf of the Direction of Education (Secondary) on 5th December, 2008, whereby the order passed by the District Inspector of Schools dated 30.9.2005 was held to be erroneous and illegal and was accordingly cancelled. It is the order dated 30.9.2005 upon which the affidavits filed today by Sri Dibya Kant Shukla and by Sri Sacchidanand Yadav, present in court, depend.

5. Upon a pointed query being made, both the officers have shown their ignorance of the order dated 5th December, 2008 and submit that this order was not available in their records.

6. In the total circumspect of the case as discussed above, it transpires that the Regional Selection Committee did not apply its mind to the correct facts available on record, nor could even search out the documents available in the Institution or in the office of the District Inspector of Schools. Sri Sacchidanand Yadav, who is present in court, submits that earlier report, which has been discussed by the Regional Selection Committee was submitted by earlier District Inspector of Schools and not by him and, therefore, he can not say much about the same.

7. It is unfortunate that the Regional Selection Committee has proceeded in the matter and passed order in a cursory manner without completely looking into the available records and without verifying its correctness, in consultation with the Committee of Management and the Office of the Director of Education, Secondary. This approach of the Regional Selection Committee in passing orders is a casual one and cannot be approved of.

8. This Court takes this to be a solitary case to condone the arbitrary act at the end of the present Regional Selection Committee headed by the Regional Joint Direction of Education, Secondary Sri Dibya Kant Shukla and the present District Inspector of Schools, Sri S.N. Yadav as its Secretary and their conduct in accepting mistake before the Court, but in future it is expected that such Regional Selection Committees will not play with the career of such teachers who have been teaching in the Institutions for more than two decades and have been drawing salary. Orders rejecting regularization would have adverse civil consequences and, therefore, not only the Regional Selection Committees are required to have seriously look into documents, but in the event of any confusion regarding the same, they may get it clarified from the concerned Committee of Management, the teacher concerned and also in consultation with the office of the Director of Education Secondary.

9. A teacher should not be axed simply because the Management did commit some irregularity unless and until such a teacher is found to have colluded with the management in securing appointment for which he was not eligible or found back door entry to the disadvantage of others in matters of open selection. In a recent judgment in the case of Radhey Shyam Yadav and another Etc. Vs. State of U.P. and others (AIR 2024 SC 260) decided on 3rd January, 2024, Supreme Court relied upon its earlier authority in the case of Chief Engineer, M.S.E.B & Anr. Vs. Suresh Raghunath Bhokare (2005) 10 SCC 465 (AIR 2005 SC 1622), in which paragraph 5, it was held thus:

"5. The entire basis of the dismissal of the appellant depends upon the factum of the alleged misrepresentation attributed to the respondent. The Industrial Court in its impugned order has noticed the fact that the respondent was appointed in April 1994 pursuant to the selection procedure followed by the competent authority and that he was selected by the panel of Selection Committee consisting of 6 members which included the very same Social Welfare Officer who had sent the proposal including the name of the respondent for appointment. It also noticed the fact that the selection in question was made after an oral interview and the required test as also the medical examination. The Industrial Court also noticed the fact that the appointment of the respondent was confirmed after one-year period and thereafter the respondent has been working without any complaint. The said Industrial Court also noticed the fact that the termination of the respondent was based on a showcause notice issued on 5-7-1999 which was replied to by the respondent on 17-7-1999 and the termination was made in a summary procedure permissible under Rule 90(b) of the Service Regulations.The Industrial Court after perusing the pleadings and the notice issued to the respondent came to the conclusion that the alleged misrepresentation which is now said to be a fraud was not specifically pleaded or proved. In the show-cause notice, no basis was laid to show what is the nature of fraud that was being attributed to the appellant. No particulars of the alleged fraud were given and the said pleadings did not even contain any allegation as to how the appellant was responsible for sending the so-called fraudulent proposal or what role he had to play in such proposal being sent. It also noticed from the evidence of Mr Waghmare, Social Welfare Officer who sent the proposal before the Labour Court that he did not utter a single word as to whether the said supplementary list was ever called for by the department concerned or not. Thus applying the basic principle of rule of evidence which requires a party alleging fraud to give particulars of the fraud and having found no such particulars, the Industrial Court came to the conclusion that the respondent could not be held guilty of fraud. The said finding of the Industrial Court has been accepted by the High Court. Mr. Bhasme though contended that the fraud in question was played in collusion with the Social Welfare Officer and 2 other employees of the Board and action against the said 2 employees of the Board has been taken, but by that itself we are unable to accept the argument of Mr. Bhasme that there is material to support the contention of the Board that the appellant had also contributed to making the misrepresentation at the time of applying for the job with the Board. In the absence of any such particulars being mentioned in the showcause notice or at the trial, attributing some overt act to the respondent, we do not think the Board can infer that the respondent had a role to play in sending a fraudulent list solely on the basis of the presumption that since the respondent got a job by the said proposal, the said list is a fraudulent one. It was the duty of the Board to have specifically produced the material to prove that the respondent himself had the knowledge of such a fraud and he knowingly or in collusion with other officials indulged in this fraud. Since there is no such material on record, on the facts of the instant case, the Industrial Court and the High Court have come to the right conclusion that the alleged fraud has not been established by the appellants, hence, this is not a fit case in which interference is called for. This appeal, therefore, fails and the same is dismissed." (emphasis added)

10. Thus, the Court took a view that if the beneficiary is not liable to be charged with any misrepresentation or any kind of involvement in any conspiracy for securing such appointment, such an employee cannot be dismissed from service for such irregularity in appointment. Once, the appointment has been made and the teachers have been made to continue for a very long time like two decades or more, now to fire them by one stroke of pen only on the ground that Committee of Management was not fair enough in holding selection, is not justifiable. It has been held that if there is no cancellation of appointment order or cancellation of approval order then such teachers are liable to be treated in service. The Court in that case has also held vide paragraph 34 which reads thus:

"34. We feel that the appellants were not at fault and the State could not have abruptly stopped their salaries. Accordingly, we set aside the judgments of the High Court dated 15.09.2021 in Special Appeal Nos. 1435/2013 and 1445/2013 and direct that the State shall pay the salaries of the appellants for the period from 25.06.1999 till January, 2002 in full. We also direct that insofar as the period from October, 2005 till today is concerned, the State shall pay the appellants 50% of the backwages. Since the appointment order and the approval order are still in force, we declare that the appellants have always been and are deemed to be in service. Apart from 50% backwages, as ordered above, we direct that all consequential benefits, including seniority, notional promotion, if any, and fitment of salary and other service benefits due, be granted to the appellants. We direct the State to comply with these directions within four weeks from today. We also direct that the appellants be allowed to commence work within the said period of four weeks."

11. Supreme Court, however, permitted respondents to recover the amount after holding management to be guilty for such illegality/impropriety in making appointments. Vide paragraph 35, the Court held thus:

"35. We notice from the record that the Committee of Management, Junior High School, Bahorikpur was arrayed as fifth respondent in the writ petition before the High Court. They are also arrayed as fifth respondent before us in these appeals. Before us, even though notice has been served on the Committee of Management, Junior High School, Bahorikpur, nobody has entered appearance. It appears that even before the learned Single Judge and the Division Bench, the Committee of Management did not appear. We grant liberty to the State to issue a show-cause notice to the Committee of Management (R-5), after setting out clearly the charge pertaining to the alleged manipulation of the sanction order and altering of the figure from two to three. After receiving reply, if any, and after holding an inquiry with an opportunity of personal hearing, the State will be at liberty to pass an appropriate order. In the event of the Committee of Management being exonerated, no further question will arise. In the event of them being found guilty of the charge, in view of any finding that may be arrived that the manipulation prior to the recruitment was done at the level of the employees of the school (whether by themselves or in collusion with the officials), we grant liberty to the State to recover from the Committee of Management one-third of the arrears, as ordered to be paid, hereinabove. This direction will serve the ends of justice in the matter."

12. In view of the above, such teachers are held entitled to be paid salary until their claim is finally rejected.

13. The Director of Education (Secondary), Uttar Pradesh is directed to ensure that the Regional Selection Committees do not pass orders at their whims negligently without looking into the records and without verifying truthfulness of the same.

14. In future, if such orders are passed by any of the Regional Committees constituted for the said purpose, such orders will not only be unsustainable but act of conduct of the authorities concerned will also deserve reprimand.

15. The Director of Education (Secondary) U.P. shall, therefore, ensure that Regional Selection Committees while rejecting claim of Ad-hoc teachers for regularization must returned findings of fact with reason broadly on following points:

(i) Existence of vacancy on the date of selection.

(ii) Eligibility of candidate selected on the date of selection.

(iii) Approval by the District Inspector of Schools;

(iv) If approval under the orders of this Court, justification for such disapproval or withholding of approval prior to intervention of Courts;

(v) Status of vacancy as on date;

16. In view of above, writ petition succeeds and is allowed. The order passed by the Regional Selection Committed headed by the Chairman namely the Regional Joint Director of Education, Prayagraj dated 29.12.2023 is, hereby, quashed.

17. The matter is remitted to the Regional Selection Committee to pass orders afresh, after looking into and verifying the entire records and after verifying the order dated 5.12.2008 from the office of the Direction of Education, Secondary and also, if there is any confusion, getting it clarified by issuing notice to the Committee of Management and the teacher concerned namely the petitioner herein. Copy of the order dated 5.12.2008 has been supplied to the Regional Joint Director of Education, Secondary, who is present in the Court. The appropriate orders now will be passed in the next six weeks from today. The petitioner would, therefore, be entitled to continue in the service and shall be paid salary without any further break.

18. The petitioner shall ensure that he along with the Manager of the Committee of Management appears before the Regional Joint Director of Education on or before 28.2.2024 and the Committee of Management shall submit the entire material available with it before the Regional Joint Director of Education.

19. In the circumstances, the personal appearance of the officers concerned stands exempted. Notices issued to them stand discharged.

20. Let this order be communicated to the Director of Education (Secondary) Prayagraj, U.P. by Registrar (Compliance) within a week.

(2024) 2 ILRA 767
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.12.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Writ - A No. 3031 of 2021

Keshav Das Head Constable PNO-842580177 ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sanjay Maurya, Sri Manish Kumar Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Disciplinary Proceedings – Procedural Irregularities – Petitioner, a Head Constable, challenged his dismissal from service for alleged robbery, arguing procedural lapses in the disciplinary process – Held, the disciplinary authority's reliance on a preliminary enquiry to justify punishment, despite the enquiry officer's finding that charges were not proved, was untenable – Issuance of a second show cause notice (10.06.2019) proposing a harsher penalty (dismissal) without statutory backing under Rule 14 of the U.P. Police Officers of Subordinate Rank (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1991, and without reasoned disagreement with the enquiry report, rendered the process arbitrary – Dismissal order dated 19.03.2020 and appellate/revisional orders (20.08.2020, 30.12.2020) quashed for violating procedural fairness. (Paras 14, 16, 17, 19, 20, 22, 32)

B. Service Law – Departmental Enquiry Vs Criminal Trial – Impact of Acquittal – Charges in the departmental enquiry mirrored those in a criminal case (robbery under Section 392, 120B IPC), relying on the same evidence and witnesses – Petitioner was acquitted in the criminal trial (31.07.2023) with the court disbelieving the complainant's evidence and initiating proceedings under Section 344 Cr.P.C. for false testimony – Held, where charges, evidence, and witnesses are identical, and the criminal court finds the prosecution's case disproved, allowing contrary findings in departmental proceedings is unjust and oppressive, as per G.M. Tank Vs St. of Gujarat – Enquiry officer's finding of unproven charges further invalidated the disciplinary authority's decision to impose punishment. (Paras 7, 14, 18, 26, 28, 30)

C. Service Law – Scope of Judicial Review – Disciplinary Proceedings – Courts under Article 226 do not reappreciate evidence but can intervene if the disciplinary process is procedurally flawed or arbitrary – Held, the enquiry officer's recommendation of punishment (reversion to basic pay) despite unproven charges, and the disciplinary authority's reliance on a preliminary enquiry without independent reasons, constituted arbitrary exercise of discretion – The absence of statutory provision for a second show cause notice to escalate punishment, coupled with mechanical affirmation by appellate/revisional authorities, warranted interference – Matter remitted to the disciplinary authority for reconsideration based on the enquiry report. (Paras 10, 19, 23, 32, 34)

Writ Petition Allowed – Dismissal Order, Appellate/Revisional Orders, and Show Cause Notices Quashed – Matter Remitted for Reconsideration.

List of Cases cited:

1. U.O.I. & ors. Vs Subrata Nath, Civil Appeal Nos. 7939-7940 of 2022 (decided on 23.11.2022)

2. St. of U.P. Vs Kharak Singh, (2008) 8 SCC 236

3. G.M. Tank Vs St. of Gujarat & ors., (2006) 5 SCC 446

4. State Bank of Hyderabad & anr. Vs P. Kata Rao, (2008) 15 SCC 657

5. Ram Lal Vs St. of Raj. & ors., Civil Appeal No. 7935 of 2023 (decided on 04.12.2023)

6. State Bank of India Vs A.G.D. Reddy, (2023) 11 Scale 530

7. United Bank of India Vs Biswanath Bhattacharjee, (2022) 13 SCC 329

8. Deputy Inspector General of Police Vs S. Samuthiram, (2013) 1 SCC 598

9. Vijayee Singh Vs St. of U.P., (1990) 3 SCC 190

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sanjay Maurya, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri P.K.Srivastava, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the Stat respondents. .

2. The petitioner is aggrieved by the order of disciplinary authority imposing major penalty of dismissal from service vide order dated 19th March, 2020 and appellate order dated 20th August, 2020.

3. It is submitted that on the point of findings returned in the enquiry officer's report bringing home the charge against the petitioner regarding alleged incident where one Kanhaiya Lal was robbed by the petitioner of Rs. 4 lacs and odd that he was carrying in pocket. Except for the statement of his friend, namely Bobby @ Gopal Sharma who accompanied him, there was no other evidence available to the enquiry officer, intrinsic enough, on the touchstone of principles of preponderance of probability, to hold petitioner guilty of the charge.

4. It is next submitted that charges the were levelled against petitioner were same as alleged in the first information report lodged by the victim Kanhaiya Lal five days after the alleged incident.

5. It is also submitted that except the statment of Kanhaya Lal , the main victim and Gopal Sharma his friend no other statement got recorded by the Inquiry Officer so as to corroborate charge leveled in the chargesheet, inasmuch as Gopal Sharma showed his innocence regarding alleged loot conducted upon complainant Kanhiya Lal for a specific sum of Rs. 4 lacs and odd.

6. Besides above, the argument advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner is that second show cause notice that was issued on 30.12.2018 based upon the enquiry report, was in respect of proposed punishment for reverting the petitioner to the basic pay of the pay-scale as admissible to the post of constable. The petitioner did question the enquiry report, but his reply was keeping in mind the proposed punishment, however, instead of awarding punishment of reversion, a harsh penalty of termination from service has got awarded by the disciplinary authority, which according to him is an arbitrary exercise of power that too without assigning any special reason as to why the authority acted contrary to its earlier show cause notice. He submits that there was no further show cause notice issued to him for change in the proposed punishment and departmental appeal was decided in a routine manner affirming the decision of the disciplinary authority without considering this aspect of the matter.

7. Learned Advocate appearing for the petitioner has further argued before this Court that since charge levelled in the departmental enqury was based upon the allegations made in the first information report, the departmental enquiry ought to have awaited for the outcome of the criminal trial but instead, it proceeded on its own relying upon the statements of those very persons whose testimony was to be recorded in the criminal trial. He submits that the trial court virtually disbelieved the statements made as it did not find there to be sufficient evidence in support of charge, and thus gave him a clean chit by acquitting him in the criminal case vide final judgment and order dated 31st July, 2023 and even directed for proceeding against Nagesh @ Kanhaiya , the main complainant to be proceeded with under Section 344 of the Cr.P.C., 1973.

8. Learned Standing Counsel on the contrary has argued that merely because accused has been acquitted in criminal trial, he could not be said to deserve automatic exoneration in the departmental enquiry as well. He submits that principle that evidence be such that guilt is proved to the hilt as required in criminal law, is not attracted in the disciplinary proceedings and enquiry officer is not required to go for such a sound and strict proof of evidence. He submits that the principle of 'preponderance of probability' is the guiding principle in matters of departmental enquiry and enquiry officer after evaluating and appreciating evidence before it, can conclude that charges were made out to hold delinquent employee guilty.

9. Learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel has cited many authorities on the point of interference by this Court in matter of disciplinary proceedings.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the respective parties and their arguments raised across the bar and having perused the records, I find there to be no quarrel regading scope of interference in the matter of departmental enquiry but the issue is whether prescribed procedure has been followed or not. The law is also well settled that while exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of this Court would not ordinarily go for appreciation of evidence recorded by enquiry officer and wherever the question arises as to evaluation/appreciation and assessment of evidence it will not be done by either court or tribunal. This Court will certainly not act like an appellate authority to form a different view by reappreciating evidence. The enquiry officer of course, would be examining only evidence produced before it and the statement of witnesses. While it is true that the departmental enquiry could have been deferred in view of regulations 498 of of the U.P. Police Regulation to wait for the outcome of criminal trial but in case if departmental enquiry has proceeded with, it cannot be said to be bad on this count alone. Very recently the Supreme Court in the case of Union of India and Others v. Subrata Nath (Civil Appeal Nos. 7939-7940 of 2022) decided on 23.11.2022 has taken this view and speaking for bench, Justice Hima Kohli summed up legal position as under:

"22. To sum up the legal position, being fact finding authorities, both the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority are vested with the exclusive power to examine the evidence forming part of the inquiry report. On finding the evidence to be adequate and reliable during the departmental inquiry, the Disciplinary Authority has the discretion to impose appropriate punishment on the delinquent employee keeping in mind the gravity of the misconduct. However, in exercise of powers of judicial review, the High Court or for that matter, the Tribunal cannot ordinarily reappreciate the evidence to arrive at its own conclusion in respect of the penalty imposed unless and until the punishment imposed is so disproportionate to the offence that it would shock the conscience of the High Court/Tribunal or is found to be flawed for other reasons, as enumerated in P. Gunasekaran (supra). If the punishment imposed on the delinquent employee is such that shocks the conscience of the High Court or the Tribunal, then the Disciplinary/Appellate Authority may be called upon to re-consider the penalty imposed. Only in exceptional circumstances, which need to be mentioned, should the High Court/Tribunal decide to impose appropriate punishment by itself, on offering cogent reasons therefor."

11. Thus in the event findings are not perverse, only area open for interference would be where issue is relating to procedure whether followed or not during departmental enquiry and in the process of finalization of a disciplinary proceeding.

12. Supreme Court in the case of State of U.P. v. Kharak Singh (2008) 8 SCC 236 vide paragraphs 18 and 19 have held thus:

"18) Another infirmity in the report of the enquiry officer is that he concluded the enquiry holding that all the charges have been proved and he recommended for dismissal of the delinquent from service. The last paragraph of his report dated 16.11.1985 reads as under:-

"During the course of above inquiry, such facts have come into light from which it is proved that the employee who has doubtful character and does not obey the order, does not have the right to continue in the government service and it is recommended to dismiss him from the service with immediate effect."(emphasis supplied)

Though there is no specific bar in offering views by the enquiry officer, in the case on hand, the enquiry officer exceeded his limit by saying that the officer has no right to continue in the government service and he has to be dismissed from service with immediate effect.

19). As pointed out above, awarding appropriate punishment is the exclusive jurisdiction of the punishing /disciplinary authority and it depends upon the nature and gravity of the proved charge/charges and other attended circumstances. It is clear from the materials, the officer, who inspected and noted the shortfall of trees, himself conducted the enquiry, arrived at a conclusion holding the charges proved and also strongly recommended severe punishment of dismissal from service. The entire action and the course adopted by the enquiry officer cannot be accepted and is contrary to the well-known principles enunciated by this Court."

13. Thus the enquiry officer could not have proposed a punishment and, so to that extent, enquiry report is liable to be held bad.

14. Now coming to the enquiry report on the question of guilt being proved, I find that enquiry report was sought in respect of the charges that were levelled in the chargesheet, which was based upon the same allegations as contained in the first information report regarding robbering of Kanhaiya Lal Mishra for Rs. 4,25,000/- on the fateful day i.e. 17.12.2016. Besides the fact that petitioner stood finally acquitted in the criminal trial in the matter of offence punishable under Section 392 and 120B of IPC in connection with criminal case no. 422 of 2016, I find that in the departmental enquiry as charges were not proved. After holding detailed deliberation upon charges and the oral statements recorded by the enquiry officer during course of the enquiry, the enquiry report categorically records that the statements of the departmental witnesses and charged constables that they gave in their defence, nothing intrinsic as concrete and relevant facts has come out from which it can be held that charged officials were guilty of the charges. The finding part of the enquiry report is reproduced hereunder:

"विभागीय कार्यवाही के मध्य अभियोजन पक्ष के बयानात एवं आरोपीगण आरक्षियों द्वारा अपने बचाव पक्ष के साक्षियों से जिरह में किये गये प्रश्नोत्तर से कोई विशेष एवं ऐसा ठोस/ लाभदायक तथ्य दृष्टिगोचर नही हुआ है, जिससे स्पष्ट हो सके कि आरोपीगण मु०आ०प्रो०/ आरक्षीगण के उक्त कृत्य के अनुकूल हो।"

15. From further reading of the enquiry report, I find that in the penultimate paragraph of the report , the enquiry officer has simply referred to the various dates when the first information report was got registered, when the varies of registration of the first information report, arrest of the delinquent employee and then his release and consequential absence from the duty. Further in the concluding part of the enquiry report which is final finding which can be said instead of holding the petitioner to be guilty of charges, the only opinion has been expressed by the enquiry officer that petitioner deserved to be reverted to the basic pay on the admissible post for three years and no payment of salary for the period they had remained absent from the duty on the principle of 'no work no pay'. The relevant conclusion part of the enquiry report is reproduced hereunder:

"निष्कर्षः-

इस प्रकार सम्पूर्ण विभागीय कार्यवाही से मैं पीठासीन अधिकारी आरोपी आरक्षीगण 1. आरक्षी चालक 030680946 मुकेश कुमार, यूपी 100 जनपद आगरा, 2. आरक्षी 2778/112623050 भानूप्रताप सिंह पुलिस लाइन्स आगरा 3. एचसी 340/842580177 केशव देव पर्तमान नियुक्ति थाना टूण्डला, जनपद फिरोजाबाद, 4. आरक्षी चालक 065020035 अशोक कुमार, यूपी 100 आगरा, हाल मथुरा को उ०प्र० अधीनस्थ श्रेणी के अराजपत्रित पुलिस अधिकारियों/कर्मचारियों की (दण्ड एवं अपील) नियमावली 1991 के नियम 14 के उपनियम 4 में वर्णित दीर्घ शक्तियों के अनुरूप 03 वर्ष के लिए निम्नतर वेतनमान पर अवनत करने एवं हे० कां० 340 केशव देव दिनांक 22.12.16 से 22 दिवस 21 घण्टा, (कुल 23 दिवस) आरक्षी 2778 भानु प्रताप सिंह दिनांक 22.12.16 से 26 दिन 01 घण्टा 40 मिनट (कुल 27 दिवस) तथा आरक्षी चालक 065020035 अशोक कुमार दिनांक 23.12.16 से 89 दिवस 06 घण्टा 30 मिनट (कुल 90 दिवस) गैर हाजिर होने के 'काम नही तो दाम नही' के सिद्धान्त पर बिना वेतन अवकाश स्वीकृत किये जाने का दण्ड प्रस्तावित करता हूँ।"

16. Thus, it is very much clear that charges could not be brought home by the enquiry officer, however agreeing with recommendation made by the enquiry officer in his report for the punishment, the said punishment in the nature of reversion of three years to the basic pay of post was agreeing by the disciplinary authority and accordingly show cause notice was issued. Reason to agreeing with proposed punishment of enquiry officer has been disclosed to be the findings arrived in the preliminary enquiry report held in the matter prior to issuance of chargesheet. Even though, the petitioner submitted his reply to the show cause notice which was detailed reply, however in one line, it was held to be not satisfactory and the disciplinary authority has proceeded to refuse punishment by decision taken on 10.06.2019 on same day show cause notice was issued to which again petitioner had replied and then reply was rejected and final punishment dismissal from service was ordered on 19th March, 2020.

17. Looking to the finding part of the enquiry report, I am not able to sustain the show cause notice not only the subsequent one but even the earlier one. Once findings could not bring home the charges in the final enquiry report, the disciplinary authority could have ordered either for fresh enquiry or it could have recorded the reasons to disagree with report, but disagreeing with report on the ground that there was preliminary enquiry holding petitioner guilty is absolutely untenable. Preliminary fact finding enquiry is always a summary enquiry which lays basis for full fledged enquiry for the major penalty if the disciplinary authority so decides and the moment a final enquiry comes after holding detailed enquiry, preliminary fact finding enquiry becomes absolutely insignificant and irrelevant. Thus, even the first show cause notice for proposed punishment is not sustainable for want of valid reasons.

18. I may also here consider the case of the petitioner from the point of view that charges of alleged robbery by the police officers in conspiracy against victim was pure criminal charge, which required strict proof under criminal law . The evidence that could have been led in the criminal trial by the prosecution in the form of oral testimonies were the same as in the departmental enquiry. Petitioner has been acquitted in the criminal trial and even in the departmental enquiry also after examining those witnesses, crucial of them was the Gopal Sharma @ Bobby who denied about money robbery in his statement and even recovery of Rs. 20,000/- that was shown from him was in the absence of any independent witness and so offence of robbery could not be proved. In total circumspect of events that have taken place with lodging of the first information report, then criminal trial and also departmental proceedings I find, except for the witness Gopal Sharma who was the only eye witness account, there was no intrinsic material to establish the charge and even this eye witness account did not corroborate the incident.

19. Some evidence was led in departmental enquiry and enquiry officer was not able to bring home the charge. Thus in my considered view, the disciplinary authority was not justified in issuing show cause notice without recording its independent reasons for disagreeing with findings on charges recorded in enquiry report in which petitioner was not found guilty. The first show cause notice, therefore, was not sustainable. The appellate authority and revisional authorities have proceeded to affirm order of disciplinary authority without holding all those aspects of the matter as discussed in the judgment.

20. There is no such finding returned in the order dated 10.06.2019 to justify the action of respondent disciplinary authority to revise punishment to the prejudice of the petitioner and resultant second show cause notice. In my considered view, therefore, the second show cause notice dated 10.06.2019 stands vitiated. The penultimate paragraph of the order in which view has been expressed regarding reply of the petitioner to be not found satisfactory and then to consider imposition of higher degree of punishment is reproduced hereunder:

" मेरे द्वारा इनके स्पष्टीकरण एवं पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध अभिलेखों का सम्यक रूप से अवलोकन किया गया तो पाया कि तथा पुनः पत्रावली का अवलोकन करने पर मेरे द्वारा इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुंचा गया, जिस प्रकार का आपराधिक कृत्य इनके द्वारा किया गया उसके लिए प्रस्तावित दण्ड अपर्याप्त है, जिस कारण इनके द्वारा स्पष्टीकरण पर बिना गुण-दोष पर विचार किये ही निर्गत किया गया कारण बताओ नोटिस निरस्त किये जाने एवं सेवा से पदच्युत किये जाने का पुनः कारण बताओ नोटिस निर्गत किये जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है। अतः (पीएनओ नं० – 112623050) आरक्षी 2778/1791 भानूप्रताप सिंह, थाना-एत्माद्दौला, जनपद आगरा के स्पष्टीकरण पर बिना कोई गुण दोष पर विचार किये ही इनके उक्त कृत्य के लिये उ०प्र० अधीनस्थ श्रेणी के पुलिस अधिकारियों (दण्ड एवं अपील) नियमावली 1991 के नियम – 14(1) के सपठित नियम 4(1)(क) के उप-खण्ड (3) के अन्तर्गत तीन वर्ष के लिये आरक्षी के पद के न्यूनतम वेतनमान पर प्रत्यावर्तित किये जाने का कारण बताओ नोटिस दिनांक-30.12.2018 को निरस्त किया जाता है तथा इनके उक्त कृत्य के लिये इनको सेवा से पदच्युत किये जाने का कारण बताओ नोटिस अलग से पारित किया जायेगा।"

21. Thus, there is no independent finding for revising the punishment and yet the appellate authority has acted mechanically in the matter and so also revisional authority while affirming the order passed by the disciplinary authority, whereas it was required to examine correctness in the approach of the disciplinary authority concerned in the matter of imposition of punishment. The authority to issue second show cause notice was itself to be seen with reference to provision through which it could have traced administrative power for this purpose . It is necessary to go into relevant provision as contained under of U.P Police Officers of Subordinate Rank (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1991. Rule 14 of Rules, 1991 reads as under:

"14. Procedure for conducting departmental proceedings.- (1) Subject to the provisions contained in these Rules. The departmental proceedings in the cases referred to in sub-rule (1) of Rule 5 against the Police Officers may be conducted in accordance with the procedure laid down in Appendix I.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) punishments in cases referred to in sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 may be imposed after informing the Police Officer in writing of the action proposed to be taken against him and of the imputations of act or omission on which it is proposed to be taken and giving him a reasonable opportunity of making such representation as he may wish to make against the proposal.

(3) The charged Police Officer shall not be represented by Counsel in any proceedings instituted under these rules."

22. From a bare reading of the aforesaid provisions, it is clear that once a show cause notice has been issued , there is no further provision to issue a second show cause for imposing higher degree of punishment.

23. Coming to the argument advanced by learned Standing Counsel and the judgments cited by him, I do not find there to be any doubt to form a view regarding proposition of law laid down by the Supreme Court in the matter of scope of interference by this Court in departmental proceedings under Article 226 of the Constitution, but question remains regarding arbitrariness if detected in the exercise for discretion by authority and that too a discretionary exercise without applying procedure prescribed and rendering of due application of mind. If such an action is sustained in law, it would lead to miscarriage of justice. This Court in exercise of equitable jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, therefore, will certainly not hesitate in interfering in matter of such exercise of discretion by the authority which is arbitrary or at whims. Wade and Forsyth in their celebrated work "Administrative Law" refer to the everlasting Halsbury's principle on administrative law qua exercise of discretion and quotes Coke's words " For discretion is a science or understanding to discern between falsity and truth, between wrong and right, between shadows and substance, between equity and colourable glosses and pretences, and not to do according to their wills and private affections; for as one saith, talis discretio discretionem confundit." (Administrative Law Wade & Forsyth 10th Edition P. 294)

24. The State authorities while acting under statutory rules have to be very careful in exercising their discretion and every of their actions must be well informed one and well fortified within the four corners of procedure prescribed under the relevant rules. And I find the orders impugned to fail on the above test.

25. Now coming to the issue of penalty in the departmental enquiry, I find that in matters of departmental enquiry where the charges are same as in case of criminal trial and evidence led is also same, there has been departure from the settle principle of law that even in cases of acquittal, departmental enquiry may go on.

26. Discussing various authorities on the point in the case of G.M. Tank v. State of Gujarat and Others (2006) 5 SCC 446, Supreme Court has very categorically held that where witnesses were examined as in the criminal case and the criminal court held that after examination of such witnesses that prosecution failed to prove the guilt beyond reasonable doubt and acquitted the accused by way of judicial pronouncement, it would be unjust and unfair and rather oppressive to allow contrary findings recorded by the departmental proceeding, to stand. Vide paragraph 30 of the judgment, the Court held thus:

30. The judgments relied on by the learned counsel appearing for the respondents are distinguishable on facts and on law. In this case, the departmental proceedings and the criminal case are based on identical and similar set of facts and the charge in a departmental case against the appellant and the charge before the criminal court are one and the same. It is true that the nature of charge in the departmental proceedings and in the criminal case is grave. The nature of the case launched against the appellant on the basis of evidence and material collected against him during enquiry and investigation and as reflected in the charge-sheet, factors mentioned are one and the same. In other words, charges, evidence, witnesses and circumstances are one and the same. In the present case, criminal and departmental proceedings have already noticed or granted on the same set of facts, namely, raid conducted at the appellant's residence, recovery of articles therefrom. The Investigating Officer Mr V.B. Raval and other departmental witnesses were the only witnesses examined by the enquiry officer who by relying upon their statement came to the conclusion that the charges were established against the appellant. The same witnesses were examined in the criminal case and the criminal court on the examination came to the conclusion that the prosecution has not proved the guilt alleged against the appellant beyond any reasonable doubt and acquitted the appellant by its judicial pronouncement with the finding that the charge has not been proved. It is also to be noticed that the judicial pronouncement was made after a regular trial and on hot contest. Under these circumstances, it would be unjust and unfair and rather oppressive to allow the findings recorded in the departmental proceedings to stand.

27. The above authority has further been relied upon by the Supreme Court in the case of State Bank of Hyderabad and Another v. P.Kata Rao (2008) 15 SCC 657, wherein the appeal was filed by the State Bank of Hyderabad against the judgment of the division bench of Andhra Pradesh High Court which upheld the judgment of the Single Judge in which learned Single Judge allowed writ petition against order of dismissal from service. Learned Single Judge while deciding the matter and directing for notice had observed that findings in criminal trial may not be binding but required reconsideration. Supreme Court in SLP filed by State Bank of Hyderabad referred the judgment in G.M.Tank case and affirmed this view of the High Court.

28. Very recently in the case of Ram Lal v. State of Rajasthan and Others being in Civil Appeal No. 7935 of 2023 (arising out of SLP © No. 33423 of 2018) decided on 4th December, 2023, the Court observed that where the charges in criminal trial , the departmental proceedings based upon the same allegations and same evidence the case is liable to be led as criminal case in the departmental proceeding the matter acquire different dimension. Discussing legal position, Vide paragraphs 11,12, and 13, the Court held thus:

"11. We have examined both the questions independently. We are conscious of the fact that a writ court's power to review the order of the Disciplinary Authority is very limited. The scope of enquiry is only to examine whether the decision-making process is legitimate. [See State Bank of India v. A.G.D. Reddy, 2023 : INSC : 766 : (2023) 11 Scale 530]. As part of that exercise, the courts exercising power of judicial review are entitled to consider whether the findings of the Disciplinary Authority have ignored material evidence and if it so finds, courts are not powerless to interfere. [See United Bank of India v. Biswanath Bhattacharjee, (2022) 13 SCC 329: 2022 : INSC : 117]

12. We are also conscious of the fact that mere acquittal by a criminal court will not confer on the employee a right to claim any benefit, including reinstatement.*

(See Deputy Inspector General of Police v. S. Samuthiram, (2013) 1 SCC 598).

13. However, if the charges in the departmental enquiry and the criminal court are identical or similar, and if the evidence, witnesses and circumstances are one and the same, then the matter acquires a different dimension. If the court in judicial review concludes that the acquittal in the criminal proceeding was after full consideration of the prosecution evidence and that the prosecution miserably failed to prove the charge, the Court in judicial review can grant redress in certain circumstances. The court will be entitled to exercise its discretion and grant relief, if it concludes that allowing the findings in the disciplinary proceedings to stand will be unjust, unfair and oppressive. Each case will turn on its own facts. [See G.M. Tank v. State of Gujarat, (2006) 5 SCC 446, State Bank of Hyderabad v. P. Kata Rao, (2008) 15 SCC 657 and S. Samuthiram (supra)]"*

29. Further discussing disciplinary proceedings in respect of the case in hand, the Court discussed the prosecution witnesses testimony led in the departmental proceedings and then also discussed the effect of acquittal in the criminal case and the ultimate findings returned by the trial judge and then held that in the face of findings returned on the charges, the departmental disciplinary proceedings and the orders passed therein could not be sustained in law. Vide paragraph 28, 29 and 30, the Court held thus:

28. Expressions like "benefit of doubt" and "honorably acquitted", used in judgments are not to be understood as magic incantations. A court of law will not be carried away by the mere use of such terminology. In the present case, the Appellate Judge has recorded that Exh. P-3, the original marksheet carries the date of birth as 21.04.1972 and the same has also been proved by the witnesses examined on behalf of the prosecution. The conclusion that the acquittal in the criminal proceeding was after full consideration of the prosecution evidence and that the prosecution miserably failed to prove the charge can only be arrived at after a reading of the judgment in its entirety. The court in judicial review is obliged to examine the substance of the judgment and not go by the form of expression used.*

29. We are satisfied that the findings of the appellate judge in the criminal case clearly indicate that the charge against the appellant was not just, "not proved" - in fact the charge even stood "disproved" by the very prosecution evidence. As held by this Court, a fact is said to be "disproved" when, after considering the matters before it, the court either believes that it does not exist or considers its non-existence so probable that a prudent man ought, under the circumstances of the particular case, to act upon the supposition that it does not exist. A fact is said to be "not proved" when it is neither "proved" nor "disproved" [See Vijayee Singh v. State of U.P., (1990) 3 SCC 190].

30. We are additionally satisfied that in the teeth of the finding of the appellate Judge, the disciplinary proceedings and the orders passed thereon cannot be allowed to stand. The charges were not just similar but identical and the evidence, witnesses and circumstances were all the same. This is a case where in exercise of our discretion, we quash the orders of the disciplinary authority and the appellate authority as allowing them to stand will be unjust, unfair and oppressive.*

This case is very similar to the situation that arose in G.M. Tank (supra).

30. In so far as criminal trial is concerned in respect of present petitioner being sessions trial no. 381 of 2018 not only the accused persons including petitioner were acquitted giving them benefit of doubt but the Court has proceeded for institution of a case under Section 344 of the Cr.P.C. against complainant Nagesh @ Kanhaiya. The proceedings under Section 344 are to be instituted against a person who gives false evidence. The entire criminal case got instituted against petitioner and other persons only on the complaint of one Kanhaiya Lal and so also on that basis disciplinary proceeding was instituted. In the criminal trial, the Court having rejected all false evidence led by the prosecution witness Nagesh @ Kanhaiya directed for issuance of notice to him vide judgment dated 31st July 2023 Enquiry Officer in the departmental proceeding has also found charges not proved against the petitioner. Thus there was no occasion for the disciplinary authority to have issued notice for major penalty.

31. Having not discussed anything on facts to justify disagreement with findings arrived in the enquiry report, the disciplinary authority is not justified in taking the view that petitioner deserved punishment of dismissal/termination even without charges being proved. Thus, I am not able to sustain show cause notices issued to the petitioner on 30.12.2018 and 10.06.2019 and so also the final order of punishment.

32. In view of the above, writ petition succeeds and is allowed . The order of dismissal dated 19th March, 2020, and the appellate authority and revisional order dated 20.08.2020 and 30.12.2020 as well as first and second show cause notices issued on 30.12.2018 and 10.06.2019 respectively are hereby quashed.

33. Consequences to follow.

34. The disciplinary authority is directed to reconsider the matter to take decision afresh on the basis of enquiry report, if it so wishes and desires.

(2024) 2 ILRA 777
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 4338 of 2019

Mahendra Nath Sharma ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ashutosh Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Girijesh Kumar Tripathi (Addl. C.S.C.), Sri O.P. Singh (Sr. Advocate), Sri Sushil Kumar Rao

A. Service Law – Disciplinary Proceedings Post-Retirement – Lack of Jurisdiction – Petitioner, a retired Senior Warehouse Superintendent, challenged the order dated 12.05.2010 imposing a recovery of Rs. 12,60,586/- from his post-retirement benefits for alleged negligence, and the appellate order dated 13.06.2019 – Held, under the U.P. St. Warehousing Corporation Staff Regulations, 1961, there is no provision akin to Regulation 351-A of the Civil Service Regulations allowing continuation of disciplinary proceedings against a retired employee – The employer's disciplinary jurisdiction ends upon superannuation, and no statutory provision extended the Corporation's authority to penalize the petitioner post-retirement on 31.07.2009 – Impugned orders quashed as nullity for lack of jurisdiction. (Paras 5, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16)

B. Service Law – Statutory Regulations Vs Contractual Employment – The employment relationship in the U.P. St. Warehousing Corporation is governed by statutory Staff Regulations, 1961, framed under Section 42 of the Warehousing Corporations Act, 1962, not by contract – Held, in the absence of a specific provision in the Regulations permitting continuation of disciplinary proceedings post-retirement, the Corporation lacked authority to impose penalties after the petitioner's superannuation – General principle that employer's disciplinary jurisdiction ceases upon retirement upheld, as no statutory fiction extended such jurisdiction. (Paras 10, 11, 12)

C. Service Law – Precedents on Post-Retirement Disciplinary Proceedings – Relying on Dev Prakash Tewari Vs U.P. Cooperative Institutional Service Board and Rishi Pal Singh Vs St. of U.P., the court held that without explicit provisions in the governing regulations, disciplinary proceedings cannot continue post-retirement, and any penalty imposed is invalid – Held, the Corporation's failure to cite any enabling provision in the Regulations, coupled with judicial precedents, confirmed that the disciplinary proceedings lapsed upon petitioner's retirement, entitling him to full retiral benefits. (Paras 12, 13, 14, 15)

Writ Petition Allowed – Orders Dated 12.05.2010 and 13.06.2019 Quashed – Petitioner Entitled to Full Retiral Benefits.

List of Cases cited:

1. Rishi Pal Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr., Neutral Citation No. 2017:AHC:73316-DB

2. Dev Prakash Tewari Vs Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Institutional Service Board, Lucknow & ors., (2014) 7 SCC 260

3. Bhagirathi Jena Vs Orissa St. Financial Corpn., (1999) 3 SCC 666

4. U.P. Coop. Federation Ltd. Vs L.P. Rai, (2007) 7 SCC 81

5. Chatter Sen Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2015 (33) LCD 2724

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition is directed against an order dated 12.05.2010 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. State Warehousing Corporation, punishing the petitioner, a former Warehouse Superintendent post retirement, with recovery of a sum of Rs.12,60,586/-.

2. The facts giving rise to this petition are:

The petitioner was a Senior Warehouse Superintendent with the U.P. State Warehousing Corporation (for short, 'the Corporation'). He retired from the Corporation's employ upon attaining the age of superannuation on 31st July, 2009. He had joined the service of the Corporation in the year 1971 as a Clerk and was a permanent employee. In course of time, he was promoted to the post of a Senior Warehouse Superintendent. Disciplinary proceedings were instituted against the petitioner with the issue of a charge-sheet dated 08.11.2005. It carried allegations marshalled into five charges, all about negligence in the matter of maintenance of records and storage of rice, leading to loss sustained by the Corporation.

3. The petitioner submitted his reply to the charge-sheet on 18.11.2005, denying the charges. He offered his explanation to each of the charge. The Inquiry Officer submitted an inquiry report dated 17.01.2006, holding the petitioner guilty of all the charges and finding him negligent in taking care of the stored stock at the Centre, laxity in control, deficiency in upkeep of records, storage of substandard rice and detection of damage to the stored rice beyond the approved limits by the Food Department.

4. The petitioner superannuated from the service of the Corporation on 31.07.2009 without any final orders being made in the pending disciplinary proceedings. The Managing Director of the Corporation passed the order impugned dated 12.05.2010, notifying a decision of the Executive Committee dated 19.04.2010, holding the total loss occasioned to the Corporation on account of misfeasance charged against the petitioner and three other employees in the sum of Rs.25,21,171.38. Apportioning the liability between the petitioner and the three other employees, the petitioner was held liable to make good a loss of Rs.12,60,586.19 from his post retirement benefits and other assets. It was also resolved that the petitioner's subsistence allowance, that he had received during the period he was under suspension, that is to say, between 16.09.2005 and 17.05.2009, alone would be payable. This decision of the Executive Committee was notified and enforced through the order impugned passed by the Managing Director on 12.05.2010. It was directed that in order to realize the sum of Rs.12,60,586.19 to be recovered from the petitioner's post retirement benefits and other dues, the sum of money payable to him on account of four increments that he had earned between 1st March, 2006 to 1st March, 2009, would be adjusted.

5. It appears that the petitioner preferred an appeal dated 06.07.2010 and a supplementary appeal dated 10.02.2011, challenging the order of the Disciplinary Authority dated 12.05.2010, raising a ground that there is no jurisdiction with the Corporation under the U.P. State Warehousing Corporation Staff Regulations, 1961 (for short, 'the Regulations') to pass the impugned order, inasmuch as there was no provision in the Regulations to continue disciplinary proceedings against a retired employee. As such, the proceedings lapsed and the impugned order was a nullity.

6. The petitioner has raised a grievance that this appeal preferred on 06.07.2010 has remained pending for years together – as long as nine years – with no result or information about its disposition being conveyed to the petitioner. It was in these circumstances that the petitioner invoked our jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution, praying that the impugned order be quashed on the basis of grounds raised.

7. A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent No.2 dated 08.04.2019, to which a rejoinder has been filed by the petitioner. A supplementary counter affidavit has also been filed on behalf of the Corporation on 20th January, 2023.

8. Heard Mr. Ashutosh Triptahi, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. O.P. Singh, Senior Advocate assisted by Mr. Sushil Kumar Rao, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Corporation and Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State.

9. This Court must remark that the petitioner's appeal carried to the Board of Directors of the Corporation was kept pending for an unpardonably long period of time, that is to say, from 06.07.2010 to 13.06.2019, a period of almost nine years. Departmental remedies are meant to be remedies of convenience; not inconvenience or a trap for the indefinite postponement of determination of an employee's rights. Now, that the departmental appeal has been rejected by the order dated 16.06.2019, a copy of which has been brought on record through the supplementary counter affidavit dated12.01.2023, this Court is of opinion that there is no impediment for this Court to hear this writ petition on merits. Even if the appeal had not been decided, there was no impediment, because an alternative remedy after all does not oust the jurisdiction of this Court. If this Court finds that the remedy is being utilized as an abuse of the statutory process, it can and ought to be ignored in the interest of justice.

10. The short question involved in this petition is: If it was within the jurisdiction of the Corporation to continue pending disciplinary proceedings against the petitioner post retirement and pass the order impugned, punishing him in the exercise of their disciplinary jurisdiction? The general principle is that the disciplinary jurisdiction of the employer comes to an end with the end of the employer-employee relationship, upon the employee's superannuation. Generally, therefore, the employer ceases to exercise any kind of the employer's authority, vis-a-vis his quondam employee upon the latter's exit from service in consequence of superannuation. The relationship of an employer and employee in case of the Government or Government owned corporations, like the Corporation, which have a constitutive statute of their own, is more often than not governed by statutory rules, generally called service rules. The relationship between the employer and the employee in such establishments, that have statutory service rules is not governed by contract, which is otherwise invariably the case. In case of any other private employer or even a State employer, where there are no statutory Service Rules governing the terms and conditions of employment, the rights, liabilities and duties of the employer, vis-a-vis the employee, are governed by contract. However, wherever there are statutory Service Rules governing the terms of employment, the relationship between the employer and employee is not governed by contract. It is a status.

11. Here, there are Regulations in force governing the terms and conditions of service for the petitioner. These Regulations are framed by the Corporation in the exercise of powers conferred upon them by Section 42 of the Warehousing Corporations Act, 1962 (No.58 of 1962). If these Service Rules were to provide in terms akin to Regulation 351-A of the Civil Service Regulations, which permit the employer to hold/ continue pending disciplinary proceedings, after the employee's retirement and impose penalties, it would have been a different matter. A provision of that kind in the Regulations would then, by fiction of law, extend the employer's disciplinary jurisdiction over a retired employee, against whom proceedings were initiated prior to his retirement. Some regulations invest employer with powers to initiate proceedings against their employees post retirement up to a certain period of time, of course, with permission of some higher authority. It is, thus, only by dint of statute that the employer can enjoy extended disciplinary jurisdiction over his retired employee; not otherwise.

12. There is hardly cavil on the issue that the Regulations do not empower the Corporation any kind of disciplinary jurisdiction over their retired employees, enabling them to continue disciplinary proceedings post retirement. Reference in this connection may be made to the decision of this Court in Rishi Pal Singh v. State of U.P. and another, Neutral Citation No. 2017:AHC:73316-DB, where it has been held:

"We have considered the submissions raised and having heard learned counsel for the parties, no provision has been pointed out to be available under the U.P. State Warehousing Corporation Staff Regulation, 1961, that may permit the Corporation to proceed to hold disciplinary proceedings and impose any penalty on its employees governed by the aforesaid Regulations under the same after retirement. There is no such provision pari materia with Regulation 351-A of the Civil Services Regulation. The Division Bench in the case of Dhananjay Prasad Pandey (supra) has held as follows:-

"The petitioner was to retire on 31 October 2014 and it appears that for this reason action was taken against the petitioner because the Rules do not permit initiation or continuance of disciplinary proceedings after retirement. The action of the respondents is clearly arbitrary and against the principles of natural justice."

The aforesaid case was in relation to the Warehousing Corporation itself. The same ratio has been followed in the case of Surendra Singh (supra) decided on 22.02.2017, as referrred to hereinabove.

Consequently, since there is no such provision available under which the disciplinary proceedings can be continued or penalty imposed, as a consequence there of, the writ petitions deserve to be allowed." (emphasis by Court)

13. In Dev Prakash Tewari v. Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Institutional Service Board, Lucknow and others, (2014) 7 SCC 260, the issue that is involved here came up before the Supreme Court in the context of the Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Societies Employees' Service Regulations, 1975. In those regulations also, there was no provision at the time for initiation or continuation of disciplinary proceedings against a retired employee. The employer in Dev Prakash Tewari (supra) initiated disciplinary proceedings against an employee of theirs, whose earlier punishment order was quashed on grounds of violation of principles of natural justice with a direction to reinstate. Liberty was, however, was granted to pursue fresh proceedings. Pending those proceedings, the employee retired. It was in the context of these facts that in Dev Prakash Tewari, it was held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court:

"5. ..... There is no provision in the Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Societies Employees' Service Regulations, 1975, for initiation or continuation of disciplinary proceeding after retirement of the appellant nor is there any provision stating that in case misconduct is established a deduction could be made from his retiral benefits.

6. An occasion came before this Court to consider the continuance of disciplinary inquiry in similar circumstance in Bhagirathi Jena case [Bhagirathi Jena v. Orissa State Financial Corpn., (1999) 3 SCC 666 : 1999 SCC (L&S) 804] and it was laid down as follows: (SCC pp. 668-69, paras 5-7)

"5. Learned Senior Counsel for the respondents also relied upon clause

(3)(c) of Regulation 44 of the Orissa State Financial Corporation Staff Regulations, 1975. It reads thus:

'44. (3)(c) When the employee who has been dismissed, removed or suspended is reinstated, the Board shall consider and make a specific order:

(i) Regarding the pay and allowances to be paid to the employee for the period of his absence from duty, and

(ii) Whether or not the said period shall be treated as a period on duty.'

6. It will be noticed from the abovesaid Regulations that no specific provision was made for deducting any amount from the provident fund consequent to any misconduct determined in the departmental enquiry nor was any provision made for continuance of the departmental enquiry after superannuation.

7. In view of the absence of such a provision in the abovesaid Regulations, it must be held that the Corporation had no legal authority to make any reduction in the retiral benefits of the appellant. There is also no provision for conducting a disciplinary enquiry after retirement of the appellant and nor any provision stating that in case misconduct is established, a deduction could be made from retiral benefits. Once the appellant had retired from service on 30-6-1995, there was no authority vested in the Corporation for continuing the departmental enquiry even for the purpose of imposing any reduction in the retiral benefits payable to the appellant. In the absence of such an authority, it must be held that the enquiry had lapsed and the appellant was entitled to full retiral benefits on retirement."

7. In a subsequent decision of this Court in U.P. Coop. Federation case [U.P. Coop. Federation Ltd. v. L.P. Rai, (2007) 7 SCC 81 : (2007) 2 SCC (L&S) 598] on facts, the disciplinary proceeding against employee was quashed by the High Court since no opportunity of hearing was given to him in the inquiry and the management in its appeal before this Court sought for grant of liberty to hold a fresh inquiry and this Court held that charges levelled against the employee were not minor in nature, and therefore, it would not be proper to foreclose the right of the employer to hold a fresh inquiry only on the ground that the employee has since retired from the service and accordingly granted the liberty sought for by the management. While dealing with the above case, the earlier decision in Bhagirathi Jena case [Bhagirathi Jena v. Orissa State Financial Corpn., (1999) 3 SCC 666 : 1999 SCC (L&S) 804] was not brought to the notice of this Court and no contention was raised pertaining to the provisions under which the disciplinary proceeding was initiated and as such no ratio came to be laid down. In our view the said decision cannot help the respondents herein.

8. Once the appellant had retired from service on 31-3-2009, there was no authority vested with the respondents for continuing the disciplinary proceeding even for the purpose of imposing any reduction in the retiral benefits payable to the appellant. In the absence of such an authority it must be held that the enquiry had lapsed and the appellant was entitled to get full retiral benefits.

9. The question has also been raised in the appeal with regard to arrears of salary and allowances payable to the appellant during the period of his dismissal and up to the date of reinstatement. Inasmuch as the inquiry had lapsed, it is, in our opinion, obvious that the appellant would have to get the balance of the emoluments payable to him."

14. In similar circumstances, a learned Single Judge of this Court in Chatter Sen v. State of U.P. and another, 2015 (33) LCD 2724 has held in the context of the Regulations that the Corporation have no jurisdiction to initiate or continue disciplinary proceedings against an employee after his retirement.

15. The decision of the Supreme Court in Dev Prakash Tewari clinches the issue. It has not at all been suggested or urged by the respondents that there is indeed any provision in the Regulations empowering them to continue proceedings against a retired employee. This Court on a perusal of the said Regulations has not found any provision enabling the Corporation to continue pending disciplinary proceedings against a retired employee.

16. In the result, this writ petition succeeds and is allowed with costs. The impugned order dated 12.05.2010 passed by the Managing Director of the Corporation, the appellate order dated 13.06.2019 passed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation are hereby quashed.

17. The consequences shall follow. Costs easy.

(2024) 2 ILRA 783
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.12.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 4628 of 2023
Connected with
Writ – A No. 12441 of 2023

Mahendra Pal Sharma ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri R.K. Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Abhishek Srivastava, Sri Kaushlendra Nath Singh

A. Service Law – Disciplinary Proceedings – Forfeiture of Pension – Major penalty imposed without holding regular inquiry – No witness examined – No copy of inquiry report furnished – Violation of principles of natural justice – Punishment unsustainable.

Held, before imposing a major penalty like forfeiture of pension, it is imperative that the disciplinary authority establish charges through oral and documentary evidence in a duly convened inquiry, where the delinquent has a right of defence. Mere reliance on preliminary inquiry report or interrogatories put by the Inquiry Officer cannot substitute a valid inquiry. (Paras 13–17)

B. Service Law – Appellate Authority – Power of enhancement of punishment – Must be exercised after fair procedure – Enhancement of punishment from 3% to 100% forfeiture of pension – Not sustainable when inquiry itself is vitiated.

Held, when the foundation of punishment itself is unlawful, the order of enhancement also falls. (Paras 9, 17)

C. Departmental Inquiry – Nature of proceedings – Quasi-judicial function – Inquiry Officer must act as independent adjudicator – Cannot assume role of investigator.

Held, proceedings conducted without examination of witnesses and without proof of documents vitiate the inquiry. (Paras 14–15)

D. Consequential Orders – Recovery of Pension already paid – Orders of Accounts Officer and Treasury Officer – Having no independent basis

– Quashed as consequential to the main disciplinary orders. (Para 18–20)

Held :
The disciplinary and appellate orders forfeiting pension are vitiated, being founded on no valid inquiry. Both writ petitions allowed. Impugned orders dated 18.01.2022 and 23.02.2023 quashed. Consequential orders dated 25.05.2023 and 23.06.2023 also quashed. Respondents at liberty to proceed afresh from the stage of charge-sheet in accordance with law. Petitioner entitled to full pension and arrears unless fresh proceedings are validly concluded. No order as to costs. (Paras 17, 19, 20)

Case Law Discussed:

1. Roop Singh Negi Vs Punjab National Bank & ors., (2009) 2 SCC 570

2. St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772

3. St. of U.P. & anr. Vs Kishori Lal & anr., 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB)

4. St. of U.P. & anr. Vs T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831

5. Subhash Chandra Sharma Vs Managing Director & anr., 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541

6. Subash Chandra Gupta Vs St. of U.P., 2012 (4) ADJ 4 (NOC)

7. Salahuddin Ansari Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2008 (3) ESC 1667

8. Imperial Tobacco Co. Ltd. Vs Its Workmen, AIR 1962 SC 1348

9. Uma Shankar Vs Registrar, 1992 (65) FLR 674 (All)

10. Mahesh Narain Gupta Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2011) 2 ILR 570

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This judgment will decide Writ-A No.4628 of 2023 and connected Writ-A No.12441 of 2023. Writ-A No.4628 of 2023 has been heard as the leading case and facts, therefore, will be noticed from the said petition. Both the petitions have been filed by Mahendra Pal Sharma, a Technician Grade-II in the employ of the U.P. Power Corporation, who functioned for sometime as the In-charge Junior Engineer and for sometime as the Draftsman. The petitioner has risen from the ranks, being appointed a Coolie on 29.09.1978. He was promoted to the post of a Technician Grade-II vide order dated 30.05.2010 and on the same day, given the charge of Junior Engineer, 33/11 KV Electricity Sub-Station Bankapur. He discharged those duties, as he says, ably. In the month of July, 2017, the petitioner was the In-charge Junior Engineer. On 16.07.2018, he was given the charge of the Revenue In-charge by the Superintending Engineer, apart from his regular charge of Junior Engineer, managing the the 33/11 KV Sub-Station. In addition to both these responsibilities, he was also given charge of the draftsman.

2. It is the petitioner's case that on 10th October, 2018, the Executive Engineer, Jewar directed the petitioner to take care of the duties of accounts along with the Junior Engineer. The petitioner was transferred to Burhana, Saharanpur and then to the Electricity Distribution Division, Greater NOIDA. He retired from service on 30.06.2019, while posted at the Electricity Distribution Division, Greater NOIDA. He retired from the post of Technician Grade-II, which was the post substantively held by him. Post retirement, the petitioner was paid his general provident fund and dues on account of leave encashment, but no other retiral dues, including the several of his arrears and pension were paid. This happened in the manner that when the petitioner was on the verge of retirement, a charge-sheet was served upon him on 05.05.2019, carrying charges to the effect that some tubewell connection had been illegally sanctioned and an inquiry was conducted vide order dated 30.10.2018 passed by the Managing Director, Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited. This was a preliminary inquiry and the Inquiry Committee by their report dated 05.11.2018 indicted the petitioner.

3. The sole basis of the charge-sheet was whatever material the Inquiry Committee entrusted with the preliminary inquiry gathered and submitted through their report of 5th November, 2018. The petitioner upon service of the charge-sheet submitted his reply dated 15.05.2019 to the Inquiry Officer, who was the Executive Engineer, Electricity Urban Test Division-II, NOIDA, stating all relevant, true and correct facts in his defence, as the petitioner says. It was pleaded, amongst other things, that the petitioner had no concern with Village Kani Garhi and he was posted at 33/11 KV Sub-Station Bankapur. He was detailed to revenue duties, where his assignment was to issue receipts. He was the Revenue In-charge.

4. It is the petitioner's case that after his reply, the Inquiry Officer did not proceed with the inquiry until the petitioner attained his superannuation. It is also the petitioner's case that the Inquiry Officer submitted some inquiry report that he sent to the Managing Director. He did not find the petitioner guilty. The Managing Director was not inclined to accept the report and by his order dated 26.05.2020 directed the Inquiry Officer to conduct the inquiry again and submit a fresh report. The Executive Engineer (Hydel), Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited vide letter dated 19.10.2020 asked the Inquiry Officer to complete the inquiry within 15 days. The Inquiry Officer put certain questions to the petitioner and also asked him to appear for personal hearing. The petitioner appeared before the Inquiry Officer and answered questions, that were put to him on 05.09.2020. No decision by the Inquiry Officer was rendered in the form of a report, but the pendency of the inquiry proceedings was prejudicing the petitioner. He was deprived of his various post retiral benefits, that were lying withheld.

5. It is for that reason that the petitioner instituted Writ-A No.10388 of 2021 before this Court with a prayer to direct the respondents to pay his retiral benefits and pension, and further direct the respondents to take a final decision in the matter of the disciplinary proceedings pending against him. This Court vide order dated 19.08.2021 disposed of the writ petition last mentioned with a direction to examine the records and ascertain if the inquiry had already been finalized. It was further directed that it is incumbent upon the competent Authority to pass appropriate orders in the matter, so that the petitioner gets appropriate relief. The Authority concerned with the matter was directed to take all remedial measures, so that substantial justice would be ensured. The respondents were directed to complete all proceedings within two months of the date of production of a copy of the order passed in Writ-A No.10388 of 2021. A copy of this order was served upon the respondents by registered post on 23.08.2021. A reminder was sent on 01.11.2021. These evinced no response from the respondents.

This compelled the petitioner to institute Contempt Application (Civil) No.5432 of 2021 against M. Devraj, Chairman, the U.P. Power Corporation Limited and the other contemnors.

6. It is in the contempt proceedings that along with a compliance affidavit, the Executive Engineer produced a copy of the impugned order dated 18.01.2022, by which the Disciplinary Authority had punished the petitioner with forfeiture of pension by 3%. After the said order was passed, retiral dues were paid to the petitioner with pension reduced by 3%.

7. Aggrieved by the forfeiture of his pension by 3%, the petitioner preferred an appeal on 07.04.2022 to the Chairman of the U.P. Power Corporation Limited. The petitioner was served with a notice dated 09.05.2022 by the Chairman asking him to represent against a proposed enhancement of punishment by the Appellate Authority. In compliance, the petitioner submitted his representation through registered post dated 25.08.2022 with a prayer to annul the order, ordering a 3% forfeiture of his pension. The petitioner claimed parity with the matter of a similarly circumstanced employee, Anil Kumar Sharma, who was awarded the punishment of forfeiture of 1% of his pension alone.

8. The appeal was not decided by the Chairman and the petitioner again had to approach this Court instituting Writ-A No.803 of 2023, with a prayer to direct the Chairman of the Power Corporation to decide his appeal within a specified period of time. This Court disposed of the aforesaid writ petition with a direction to the Chairman of the Power Corporation to decide the petitioner's appeal within two months. A certified copy of the said order was sent to the Chairman by registered post on 17.01.2023. By his order dated 23.02.2023, the Chairman, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow has passed the order impugned, by which he dismissed the petitioner's appeal and enhanced the penalty, ordering a 100% forfeiture of his pension.

9. This writ petition has been instituted assailing the orders of the Appellate Authority dismissing the appeal and enhancing the forfeiture of pension from 3% to 100%, as also the order of the Disciplinary Authority holding the petitioner guilty and ordering a 3% forfeiture of his pension.

10. At this stage, it would be apposite to say that in consequence of the appellate order dated 23.02.2023, the Deputy Chief Accounts Officer, arrayed as respondent No.4 in Writ-A No.12441 of 2023, passed an order dated 25.05.2023, directing the recovery of pension paid to the petitioner. A further order dated 23.06.2023 was passed by the Chief Treasury Officer, Gautam Budh Nagar, arrayed as respondent No.5 to Writ-A No.12441 of 2023, asking the petitioner to refund the pension paid to him.

11. Writ-A No.12441 of 2023 has been instituted by the petitioner challenging the order dated 25.05.2023 passed by the Deputy Chief Accounts Officer, Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Meerut and the order dated 23.06.2023 passed by the Chief Treasury Officer, Gautam Budh Nagar, directing recovery of pension already paid to the petitioner.

12. In the supplementary affidavit, that has been filed by the petitioner, it is averred that without proper and appropriate opportunity of hearing, the Inquiry Committee have submitted their report, on the basis of which the impugned orders have been passed. It is also averred in Paragraph No.6 of the supplementary affidavit that the respondents have not produced any witness on behalf of the Corporation to prove the charges detailed in the charge-sheet. It is next averred in Paragraph No.8 that the petitioner was never furnished a copy of the inquiry report and no opportunity of submitting a representation against it was given.

13. In the counter affidavit, that has been filed on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4, it is evident from a perusal of Paragraph No.7 that what the respondents call full opportunity afforded before imposition of a major penalty, was the opportunity given to the petitioner to appear before the Inquiry Committee for a personal hearing. There is a reference to letters from the Inquiry Officer dated 20.07.2020 and 26.08.2020, asking the petitioner to appear and participate in the inquiry. There is also on record proceedings before the Inquiry Officer held on 05.09.2020. It carries eleven questions that were put to the petitioner. Apparently, in this inquiry, which has led to the imposition of the most drastic penalty that one can suffer after retirement, to wit, a 100% forfeiture of his pension, no witness was examined on behalf of the establishment to prove the charges. The requirement of holding a formal inquiry before the imposition of a major penalty is salutary and this Court thinks that forfeiture of the entire pension is a major penalty of the most drastic kind. In the case of imposition of major penalty, it is imperative for the establishment to prove the charges by examining evidence, both documentary and oral before the Inquiry Officer. The Inquiry Officer has to formally convene inquiry proceedings, sitting as an impartial arbiter. The establishment have to lead evidence, both documentary and oral through a Presenting Officer. This issue is no longer res integra in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank and others, (2009) 2 SCC 570.

14. In order to elucidate the point, it would be apposite to refer to the holding of their Lordships of the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, where it has been observed:

"27. A bare perusal of the aforesaid sub-rule shows that when the respondent had failed to submit the explanation to the charge-sheet it was incumbent upon the inquiry officer to fix a date for his appearance in the inquiry. It is only in a case when the government servant despite notice of the date fixed failed to appear that the inquiry officer can proceed with the inquiry ex parte. Even in such circumstances it is incumbent on the inquiry officer to record the statement of witnesses mentioned in the charge-sheet. Since the government servant is absent, he would clearly lose the benefit of cross-examination of the witnesses. But nonetheless in order to establish the charges the Department is required to produce the necessary evidence before the inquiry officer. This is so as to avoid the charge that the inquiry officer has acted as a prosecutor as well as a judge.

28. An inquiry officer acting in a quasi-judicial authority is in the position of an independent adjudicator. He is not supposed to be a representative of the department/disciplinary authority/Government. His function is to examine the evidence presented by the Department, even in the absence of the delinquent official to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to hold that the charges are proved. In the present case the aforesaid procedure has not been observed. Since no oral evidence has been examined the documents have not been proved, and could not have been taken into consideration to conclude that the charges have been proved against the respondents."

15. In State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another, 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB), which is a Bench decision of this Court, it has been held:

"14. Now coming to the question, what is the effect of non-holding of domestic/oral inquiry, in a case where the inquiry officer is appointed, oral inquiry is mandatory. The charges are not deemed to be proved suo motu merely on account of levelling them by means of the charge-sheet unless the same are proved by the department before the inquiry officer and only thereafter it is the turn of delinquent employee to place his defence. Holding oral enquiry is mandatory before imposing a major penalty, as held by Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subhash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

15. In another case in Subhash Chandra Gupta v. State of U.P., 2012(4) ADJ 4 (NOC), the Division Bench of this Court after survey of law on this issue observed as under:

"It is well-settled that when the statute provides to do a thing in a particular manner that thing has to be done in that very manner. We are of the considered opinion that any punishment awarded on the basis of an enquiry not conducted in accordance with the enquiry rules meant for that very purposes is unsustainable in the eye of law. We are further of the view that the procedure prescribed under the inquiry rules for imposing major penalty is mandatory in nature and unless those procedures are followed, any out come inferred thereon will be of no avail unless the charges are so glaring and unrefutable which does not require any proof. The view taken by us find support from the judgement of the Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P.Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

16. A Division Bench decision of this Court in the case of Salahuddin Ansari v. State of U.P. and others, 2008(3) ESC 1667, held that non holding of oral inquiry is a serious flaw which can vitiate the order of disciplinary proceeding including the order of punishment has observed as under:

" 10..... Non holding of oral inquiry in such a case, is a serious matter and goes to the root of the case.

11. A Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541, considering the question as to whether holding of an oral inquiry is necessary or not, held that if no oral inquiry is held, it amounts to denial of principles of natural justice to the delinquent employee. The aforesaid view was reiterated in Subash Chandra Sharma v. U.P.Cooperative Spinning Mills and others, 2001 (2) UPLBEC 1475 and Laturi Singh v. U.P.Public Service Tribunal and others, Writ Petition No. 12939 of 2001, decided on 6.5.2005."

17. Even if the employee refuses to participate in the enquiry the employer cannot straightaway dismiss him, but he must hold and ex parte enquiry where evidence must be led vide Imperial Tobacco Co. Ltd. v. Its Workmen, AIR 1962 SC 1348, Uma Shankar v. Registrar, 1992 (65) FLR 674 (All).

18. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Mahesh Narain Gupta v. State of U.P. and others, (2011) 2 ILR 570, had also occasion to deal with the same issue. It held:

"At this stage, we are to observe that in the disciplinary proceedings against a delinquent, the department is just like a plaintiff and initial burden lies on the department to prove the charges which can certainly be proved only by collecting some oral evidence or documentary evidence, in presence and notice charged employee. Even if the department is to rely its own record/document which are already available, then also the enquiry officer by looking into them and by assigning his own reason after analysis, will have to record a finding that hose documents are sufficient enough to prove the charges.

In no case, approach of the Enquiry Officer that as no reply has been submitted, the charge will have to be automatically proved can be approved. This will be erroneous. It has been repeatedly said that disciplinary authority has a right to proceed against delinquent employee in ex parte manner but some evidence will have to be collected and justification to sustain the charges will have to be stated in detail. The approach of the enquiry officer of automatic prove of charges on account of non filing of reply is clearly misconceived and erroneous. This is against the principle of natural justice, fair play, fair hearing and, thus, enquiry officer has to be cautioned in this respect."

19. The principal of law which emanates from the above judgments are that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case of procedure adopted for inflicting major penalty, the department must prove the charges by oral evidence also.

20. From perusal of enquiry report it is demonstrably proved that no oral evidence has been led by the department. When a major punishment is proposed to be passed the department has to prove the charges against the delinquent/employee by examining the witnesses and by documentary evidence. In the present case no witness was examined by the department neither any officer has been examined to prove the documents on the basis of which charges are levelled on the claimant in the proceedings.

21. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice.

22. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

16. A reading of the impugned orders and the record of the inquiry leaves no manner of doubt for a fact that the establishment never examined any witness in support of the charges or formally produced evidence, documentary or oral, before the Inquiry Officer, who was an Executive Engineer. What is more intriguing in this case is that beyond the preliminary inquiry report dated 05.11.2018, annexed as Annexure No.3 to the writ petition, a copy of the inquiry report has not appeared on record or seen light of the day. This Court is, therefore, constrained to hold that the two Authorities, that is to say, the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority, have proceeded to punish the petitioner, either on the basis of the preliminary inquiry report or some other inquiry report, that was never furnished to the petitioner. Surprisingly, the inquiry report was never produced before this Court as well, though a counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4. The proceedings, on the basis of which the impugned order of punishment was passed by the Authority of first instance, are surprisingly elusive about the date of the inquiry report. There is no date of the inquiry report mentioned in the order passed by the Disciplinary Authority. In this connection, reference may be made to the following remarks in the order of the Disciplinary Authority, where he has discussed the Inquiry Officer's report. These read:

"जांच अधिकारी इं० दिनेश अग्रवाल, अधिशासी अभियन्ता, विद्युत नगरीय परीक्षण खण्ड-द्वितीय, नोएडा द्वारा प्रेषित जांच आख्या के मेरठ डिस्कॉम स्तर पर किये गये परीक्षण में श्री महेन्द्र पाल शर्मा के विरूद्ध अधिरोपित आरोपों के सम्बन्ध में प्राप्त निष्कर्षों के सापेक्ष साक्ष्य प्रमाणित नहीं पाये जाने के दृष्टिगत नैसर्गिक न्याय के सिद्धांत के लिए पुनः पत्र दिनांक 26.05.2020 को जांच अधिकारी इं० दिनेश अग्रवाल, अधिशासी अभियन्ता, विद्युत नगरीय परीक्षण खण्ड-द्वितीय, नोएडा को सन्दर्भित किया गया जिस पर जांच अधिकारी द्वारा सम्बन्धित साक्ष्य एकत्र कर अपने पत्रांक - 2626 / वि०न०परी० खं०- द्वि० - नोएडा दिनांक 10.12.2020 द्वारा पुन नियमानुसार मौखिक सुनवाई का अवसर प्रदान करते हुए जांच व विवेचना कर सुसंगत साक्ष्यों एवं निष्कर्ष सहित अपनी जांच आख्या उपलब्ध करायी।"

17. A perusal of the order of the Disciplinary Authority, and in particular the relevant part quoted above, shows that the order of the Disciplinary Authority is conspicuous by its non-mention of the inquiry report's date. It does speak of an inquiry report, but when it was submitted, is not to be found across the length and breadth of the Disciplinary Authority's order. Likewise, there is no mention of the date of this report in the Appellate Authority's order impugned, by which he has enhanced the punishment. Before this Court, one would expect that a copy of the report would be produced by the respondent along with their return, but that has not been done. During the hearing, all that the respondents could show, was a copy of the preliminary inquiry report dated 05.11.2018, annexed as Annexure No.3 to the writ petition. One of the documents annexed to the counter affidavit, also shows that the manner in which the Inquiry Officer held inquiry, was to put questions, like interrogatories to the petitioner. Therefore, what was apparently done by the Inquiry Officer, sans training or guidance how to hold disciplinary proceedings, was to interrogate the petitioner like an Investigating Officer, rather than adjudicate the matter, requiring the establishment to prove the charges by evidence. This Court, therefore, holds that the orders of the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority, are either founded on no other inquiry report, except the preliminary inquiry report or some surreptitious kind of a report that cannot qualify for valid findings of an inquiry held in disciplinary proceedings on the foot whereof a major penalty may be imposed. Since this Court proposes to quash the impugned orders with liberty to the respondents to proceed afresh, if they so desire, the other issue raised by the petitioner about violation of Article 351-A of the Civil Service Regulations, is left open to be examined, should occasion arise.

18. The orders impugned in Writ-A No.12441 of 2023 are consequential to those impugned in the leading writ petition. Therefore, the orders impugned in Writ-A No.12441 of 2023 would fall as well, once the orders impugned in Writ-A No.4628 of 2023 are quashed.

19. In the result, both the writ petitions succeed and are allowed. The impugned order dated 23.02.2023 passed by the Chairman, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow and the order dated 18.01.2022 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow, are hereby quashed. Unless the respondents elect to take fresh proceedings from the stage of the charge-sheet against the petitioner and pass orders afresh, after holding an inquiry in accordance with law and the guidance in this judgment, the petitioner shall be entitled to receive his full pension, including arrears and other post retiral benefits. If fresh proceedings are taken, the entitlement to receive pension, including arrears and other post retiral benefits, not yet paid, will abide by the result of orders to be made in those proceedings.

20. The impugned order dated 25.05.2023 passed by the Deputy Chief Account Officer, Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Meerut and the order dated 23.06.2023 passed by the Chief Treasury Officer, Gautam Budh Nagar in Writ-A No.12441 of 2023 are also quashed. The respondents are restrained from recovering from the petitioner pursuant to the said orders, in any manner.

21. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 791
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 22.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ - A No. 4914 of 2022

C/M Rahat Janta Inter College & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Ramesh Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Constitution of India, Arts. 29, 30, 226 — U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921, Ss. 16-FF, 16-D — Regulation 101, Ch. III — U.P. Secondary Education Services Selection Board Act, 1982, S. 30 — Minority Institution — Appointment of Clerks — Whether prior permission of DIOS required — Held, No.
Regulation 101, Ch. III of the U.P. Intermediate Education Act has no mandatory application to minority institutions. Even if construed as regulatory, it does not envisage prior approval. Mere non-obtaining of such permission from DIOS cannot vitiate appointments.

B. Minority Educational Institutions — Administrative Autonomy — Scope of St. Interference.
The St. Government cannot under the guise of regulation interfere with the administrative autonomy of a minority educational institution. Appointment of teaching or non-teaching staff by a duly constituted Selection Committee of the Management cannot be annulled by the authorities except on the ground that the selected candidate lacks requisite qualifications.

C. U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 — Ss. 16-FF, 16-D — Scope of scrutiny by DIOS.
Powers of DIOS qua minority institutions are limited only to verifying whether selected candidates possess the prescribed qualifications. Objections relating to prior permission, joint advertisement or alleged ban on recruitment are beyond jurisdiction.

D. Principles Reiterated.
(i) Statutory provisions apply to minority institutions only if expressly made applicable.
(ii) Once candidates fulfill qualifications, appointments in minority institutions cannot be cancelled on administrative objections like combined advertisement or non-mention of pay-scale.
(iii) Orders passed without affording opportunity of hearing are unsustainable.

Held (Paras 17, 18, 20, 21, 26):
— Prior permission under Regulation 101 not required in case of minority institutions.
— St. authority cannot interfere in method of appointment of teaching/non-teaching staff of minority educational institutions.
— DIOS has limited jurisdiction to verify qualifications only.
— Impugned orders cancelling appointments of Clerks without hearing petitioners and without statutory basis, liable to be quashed.

Result: Writ Petition Allowed — Impugned orders dated 14.03.2022 (Director of Education, Secondary, Lucknow) and 30.03.2022 (DIOS, Bahraich) quashed — Matter remitted to DIOS to decide afresh after hearing petitioners within 4 weeks.

List of Cases cited:

1. Mohd. Faizan & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2013 (5) ADJ 471 (All)

2. Jagdish Singh Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2006) 2 UPLBEC 1851

3. St. of U.P. Vs Manager, C/M Islamia Inter College, 2022 (4) ADJ 531 (DB)

4. T.M.A. Pai Foundation Vs St. of Karnataka, (2002) 8 SCC 481 (Const. Bench)

5. P.A. Inamdar Vs St. of Mah., (2005) 6 SCC 537 (Const. Bench)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

A. Introduction

(1) This writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioners with the following main reliefs :-

i. Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned letter dated 14-03-2022 passed by the opposite party no.2 to the extent of cancelling the appointment of two post of Clerk after summoning the original from the opposite parties.

ii. Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari, quashing the impugned order/letter dated 30-03-2022 to the extent of cancelling the appointment on the post of Class-III post which is contained in as Annexure no.1 to the writ petition.

iii. Issue a writ, order or direction in nature of mandamus, commanding the opposite parties to approved the two appointment of Clerk made by the petitioner's Institution on the basis of submitting the papers regarding the appointment of Class-III post by letter dated 22-10-2021 which is contained as Annexure no.15 to the writ petition."

B. Factual Matrix

(2) The facts, in nutshell, are that Anjuman Talim Dargah is a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. It is a minority organization and has established and is presently running private college, namely, Rahat Janta Inter College situated at Nanpara, District Bahraich (hereinafter referred to as 'the Institution'). The Institution is managed by a 'Committee of Management (petitioner no.1)' (for short 'the Management') as per the Scheme of Administration. The institution is an aided private minority institution and is governed by the provisions of Uttar Pradesh Intermediate Education Act, 1921. Petitioner No.2-Arshad Khan is said to be the Manager of the Institution.

(3) It is the case of the petitioners that in the Institution, there is one sanctioned post of Principal, 6 sanctioned posts of Lecturer, 15 sanctioned posts of Assistant Teacher L.T. Grade, 10 sanctioned posts of Assistant Teacher C.T. Grade, 3 sanctioned post of Routine Grade Clerk and 12 sanctioned posts of Peons. According to the petitioners, the State Government had issued a Government Order dated 15.02.2007, providing that in case of minority institution, no prior permission from any authority is required before publication of advertisement for filling up of vacancies of the approved/sanctioned post of teachers/lecturers. Again, the State Government had issued another Government Order dated 21.08.2014 in relation to one Smt. Shaista Ali on the post of Assistant Clerk, wherein the State Government had relied upon the earlier Government Order dated 12.02.2007, which specifically stated that in respect of minority Institution, Section 18 (Cha-Cha) of Intermediate Education Act, 1921 is applicable and further there is no provisions for taking prior permission or restriction for minority Institution for making appointment on Class-III posts.

(4) It has been stated by the petitioners that after the Government Order dated 21.08.2014, the Director of Education has issued a letter on 29.10.2014, directing all the District Inspector of Schools saying that the Government Order dated 21.08.2014 is related to minority institution of Ashashkiya Sahayata Prapt for appointment on Class-III post and the Director of Education has further directed all the District Inspector of Schools to proceed on the basis of the Government Order dated 21.08.2014.

(5) Further case of the petitioner is that on the basis of Government Orders dated 15.02.2007, 21.08.2014 and 29.10.2014, petitioners' institution had advertised three posts of Class-III (Clerk) and three Class-IV posts on 04.09.2021 in two newspapers, namely, Rashtriya Sahara and Daily Shahafat (in Urdu Language). In pursuance of the said advertisement, number of eligible candidates have submitted requisite applications for the aforesaid posts. The Manager of the Institute (petitioner no.2), vide letter dated 21.09.2021, had informed the District Inspector of Schools regarding the vacancy, advertisement and other relevant facts.

(6) Apparently, on receipt of the aforesaid letter dated 21.09.2021, the District Inspector of Schools, vide letter dated 23.09.2021, informed the Manager of the Institution (petitioner no.2) that no prior permission under Regulation 101 of U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 has been taken and further in respect of Class-IV posts, there is a process of outsourcing. In this regard, the District Inspector of Schools had stopped the interview which was fixed for 24.09.2021.

(7) It is stated by the petitioner that as per Government Orders dated 05.02.2007, 21.08.2014 and 29.10.2014, there is no procedure prescribed for taking prior permission for appointment from the District Inspector of Schools for appointments on Class-III posts and as such, the Institution had proceeded with the interview and the Selection Committee took interview of the eligible candidates and the procedure for appointment was done for two Class-III posts only on 24.09.2021, whereby one Geeta Srivastava, who got 62.40 marks and one Dilbagh has got 55.91 marks, were selected. Thereafter, the Manager of the Institution (petitioner), in response to the letter of the D.I.O.S. dated 23.09.2021, has sent a reply letter dated 13.10.2021, placing reliance upon the Government Order dated 29.10.2014 and 21.08.2014 stating inter-alia that the Institution is a minority institution and provision of Regulation 101 of Chapter-3 of the Intermediate Education Act is not applicable and as such prayed that interview, which was held on 24.09.2021, be legally recognized and the letter dated 23.09.2021 be declared as in-effective. Subsequently, vide letter dated 22.10.2021, the Manager of the Institution (petitioner no.2) has forwarded the necessary papers regarding the appointment of Class-III posts to the D.I.O.S. for its approval. Thereafter, the D.I.O.S. had sent the aforesaid letter of the petitioner no.2 to the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow vide letter dated 25.02.2022. In furtherance thereof, the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow, vide letter dated 14.03.2022, had raised two objection viz. (i) in the advertisement in question, there is no detailed description of pay-scale etc. of the Junior Clerk and post of Class-IV together with post of Junior Clerk were advertised, which is contrary to the established arrangement/order; (ii) there is ban on making appointment of Ashashkiya Sahayat Prapt Madhyamik Vidyalaya and the State Government has also introduced the new procedure for appointment, hence appointment was found to be irregular and was liable to be cancelled.

(8) Noting the aforesaid two objections, the D.I.O.S., vide letter/order dated 30.03.2022, cancelled the appointment made by the Institution on the post of two Class-III posts and required the petitioners to show cause as to why action under Sections 16 (d) (8) of Intermediate Education Act, 1921 for disruption of the Management be not taken and the same be not sent to the State in term of Section 16 (d) (v) of the Intermediate Education Act, 1921.

(9) In response to the aforesaid show cause notice, the petitioner no.2 had sent a letter dated 20.05.2022 to the D.I.O.S., stating that insofar as point no.1 relating to non-mentioning of the pay-scale for Class-III employee in advertisement is concerned, in the advertisement dated 04.09.2021, it was noted that after joining, the incumbent will get the pay-scale fixed by the State Government and further qualification will be according to the qualification prescribed under the Intermediate Education Act, 1921 and the joint advertisement of Class-III and Class-IV post was made only in order to save the Government money. It was contended that even the Public Service Commission and other agencies are also advertising the joint post of various category and in so far as point no.2, the petitioner no.2 had mentioned that there is no mention of any Government Order regarding the ban for appointment in minority institution and further no specific rule and regulation has been mentioned in respect of introducing new system by the Government regarding the appointment for Class-III posts. Thereafter, the petitioner no.2 had forwarded the original file of appointment of two posts of Clerk vide letter dated 22.10.2021.

(10) Feeling aggrieved by aforesaid two letters/orders dated 14.03.2022 and 30.03.2022, the petitioners have filed the instant writ petition.

C. Contention of the Parties

(11) Heard Shri Ramesh Kumar Srivastava, learned Counsel representing the petitioner and Shri Vivek Shukla, learned Standing Counsel representing the State/respondents.

(12) Learned Counsel representing the petitioners has submitted that impugned letters/orders dated 14.03.2022 and 30.03.2022 to the extent of cancelling the appointment on two posts of Junior Clerk in the Institution is erroneous inter alia on the ground that petitioner no.2 has already mentioned in the advertisement dated 04.09.2021 that after joining by the selected candidates, the selected candidates will get pay-scale and allowances fixed by the state Government and further there is no violation of any regulation of the Act making joint advertisement of Class-III and Class IV posts. Moreso, there is no ban on appointment on Class-III posts in the minority Institution and no new notification for making appointment on Class-III posts has been made by the State Government.

(13) Elaborating his submission, learned Counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there is no provision relating to providing for prior permission from the D.I.O.S. to fill the post of Junior Clerk (Class-III) in minority Institution such as petitioners. In the advertisement published by the Management in two newspapers all information were there and no one has challenged the selection proceedings. According to the learned Counsel, a minority institution enjoys certain privileges in terms of Article 30 of the Constitution of India and enjoys unfettered right of choice, hence it is not open for the D.I.O.S. to question the right of the Management for appointment of the selected candidates on the post of Junior Clerk. It is submitted that the provisions under Chapter II, Regulation 101 of the Intermediate Education Act do not apply to the minority institutions mandatorily as held by this Court in the case of Mohd. Faizan and others Vs. State of U.P. and others reported in 2013 (5) ADJ 471.

(14) Learned Counsel for the petitioners has further submitted that the District Inspector of Schools has very limited role to play in functioning of minority institution, which is evident from perusal of Section 16 (FF) and the provision of Chapter II Regulation 17 of U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921, which clearly states that District Inspector of School can question the appointment in the minority institution only on the ground of lack of qualification by the candidate and not on any other ground. However, in the present case, there is no such objection.

He has placed reliance upon the judgment of Division Bench of this Court rendered in State of U.P. Vs. Manager, Committee of Management Islamia Inter College 2022 (4) ADJ 531.

(15) Per contra, learned Standing Counsel has submitted that in view of Article 30 of the Constitution of India, the State-respondents may not interfere in the administration of the minority institution but the petitioners being an aided institution, the State-respondents, who not only sanctioned the strength of teaching and non-teaching staff but has to also pay salary to them from the State Exchequer. Thus, according to him, the Government has every right to regulate the things and to see that after due sanction and approval, the appointments are made in accordance with law, which shall ultimately help the institution in achieving the object for which it is established and ultimate beneficiary would be the students, who are builder of the nation.

(16) Learned Standing Counsel has further submitted that the matter of selection/appointment of two Clerks in the Institution in question submitted by the petitioners/institution to the D.I.O.S., has been referred to the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow for providing guidelines. In pursuance thereof, the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow, after examining the records, vide letter dated 14.03.2022, has provided the guidelines mentioning that in the advertisement published by the Management, there is no mention about the pay-scale and selection/appointment on the posts of non-teaching employee (Group-C) in non-governmental aided secondary colleges has been banned by the State Government till a transparent standardized process for filling up the said posts is made. Thus, there is no illegality in cancelling the appointment of the selected candidates by means of the impugned orders.

D. Analysis

(17) Having regard to the submissions advanced by the learned Counsel for the parties and going through the record available before this Court, this Court deems it appropriate to mention that in the case of Mohd. Faizan and others (supra), a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court has clearly held that there is no specific provisions for applying Regulation 101, Chapter III of the Intermediate Education Act to the minority institution and as a corollary mere non-obtaining of permission from the DIOS would not be fatal. Even assuming that it is regulatory in nature, it does not mean prior approval as explained by the Division Bench of this Court in the case of Jagdish Singh vs. State of U.P. and others, (2006) 2 UPLBEC 1851. Thus, apparently it seems to this Court that prior permission for conducting the selection process in the minority institution was not required in terms of Regulation 101, Chapter III of the Intermediate Education Act.

(18) The Constitutional Bench of the Apex Court in the case of T.M.A. Pal Foundation Vs. State of Karnataka, reported in 2002 (8) SCC 481 and another constitution Bench Judgement in the case of P.A. Inamdar Vs. State of Maharastra, reported in 2005 (6) SCC 537 has laid down certain guidelines with regard to the functioning of a minority institution. A perusal of the aforesaid pronouncement of the Hon'ble Apex Court would indicate the fact, that, inter alia it has explicitly been held that the State Government is not empowered to interfere with the functioning of the minority institution in the matters relating to appointment of teaching staff as well as non-teaching staff.

The State Authority cannot under the garb of adopting regulatory measure destroy the administrative autonomy of a minority educational institution or start interfering with the administration and the management of the institution so as to render the right of administration of the institution concerned nugatory or illusory. The State Government cannot regulate the method or procedure for appointment of teachers and non-teaching staff of a minority educational institution. Once the teacher or non-teaching staff, as the case may be, possessing the requisite qualification prescribed by the State or the University has been selected by the Management of the minority education institution by adopting the procedure of selection, the State Government or the University, as the case may be, would have no right to vitiate the selection of such teacher.

(19) Even the U.P. Secondary Education Service Section Board Act, 1982 is also not applicable upon a minority institution in terms of Section 30 of the U.P. Intermediate Education Act.

(20) A perusal of Section 16-FF of the U.P. Intermediate Act, which is a provision meant for appointment of teaching staff in a minority institution, would show that the said provision provides the District Inspector of Schools with limited power of examining the qualification of the candidates who have been selected in a minority institution. The power of the District Inspector of Schools in so far as the appointment of teaching and non-teaching staff in a minority institution is concerned, is quite limited and the power is only to the extent that whether the candidates who have been selected by a minority selection committee possessed requisite qualification or not.

(21) In any case, there is no gainsaying that the position of law is clear, in as much as, if there is a doubt as to whether any order or statutory provision would apply to a particular set of institution or not, the law says that there ought to be a specific mention in the Statute itself that it shall apply upon a minority institution and that a provision ipso facto shall not be deemed to apply upon a minority institution in terms of Article 29 and 30 of the Constitution. The learned counsel for the State was unable to show any order or provision of law from the records, which would entail the Director of Education (Secondary) or the DIOS in taking a stand that the advertisement for appointment of Junior Clerks or Class-IV post is in any manner contrary to the established arrangement/order. Apparently, nothing has come on record to show as to what was the established arrangement/order as has been mentioned by the Director of Education (Secondary) in its impugned letter dated 14.03.2022.

(22) Further, it is not in dispute that the petitioners/Institution is a minority institution and was included in the list of grant-in-aid. The institution had advertised three posts of Junior Clerk (Class-III) and three posts of Peon in two newspaper on 04.09.2021. Thereafter, on 21.09.2021, the petitioner no.2 wrote a letter to the D.I.O.S. regarding the aforesaid recruitment in the Institution. On receipt of the aforesaid letter dated 21.09.2021, the D.I.O.S. wrote letter to the petitioner no.2 saying that no prior permission had been taken by the Institution regarding the aforesaid process of selection. In response, the petitioner No.2, vide letter 13.10.2021, informed the D.I.O.S. that on the basis of the Government Order dated 05.02.2007, 21.08.2014 and 29.10.2021, no prior permission for Class-III posts for appointment in the Institution was required as the Institution is a minority institution. Thereafter, the Institution had completed the selected procedure and appointed two eligible Junior Clerk and vide letter dated 21.10.2021, the petitioner No.2 forwarded the papers regarding the appointment of the said two Junior Clerks to D.I.O.S. for its approval along with the relevant documents. On receipt of the aforesaid letter dated 21.10.2021, the D.I.O.S. has forwarded the same to the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow, seeking guidelines for proceeding further. Thereafter, on reference, the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow issued letter dated 14.03.2022 to the D.I.O.S. for cancelling the aforesaid appointment of two posts of Junior Clerk in the Institution and informed as under :-

"I. in the advertisement in question, there is no detailed description of pay-scale etc. of the Junior Clerk and post of Class-IV together with post of Junior Clerk were advertised, which is contrary to the established arrangement/order; and

(ii) there is ban on making appointment of Ashashkiya Sahayat Prapt Madhyamik Vidyalaya and the State Government has also introduced the new procedure for appointment, hence appointment are itself irregular and are liable to be cancelled."

(23) Pursuant to the aforesaid, the D.I.O.S. has cancelled the appointment of two selected candidates made by the Institution on the post of Junior Clerk by the letter/order dated 30.03.2022 without affording any opportunity of hearing to the petitioners.

(24) So far as aforesaid first objection of the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow regarding no detailed description of pay-scale made in the advertisement and making advertisement for combined posts i.e. three posts of Junior Clerk and three posts of Peon, the contention of the petitioners is that in the advertisement dated 04.09.2021, it was mentioned that candidate(s) will also get the pay-scale as provided by the State Government. According to the learned Counsel, although common advertisement of Class-III and Class-IV was made but the Management had decided to make two Class-III appointments and after adopting due procedure of selection, two eligible candidates were given appointment on the post of Class-III, however, the Institution has not made any appointment in respect of Class-IV employee. Thus, the first objection raised against the Institution is erroneous. Another submission in this regard is that the letter dated 14.03.2022 has not been supplied to the Institution and the same has been issued without affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

(25) So far as second objection made in the letter dated 14.03.2022 regarding ban on making appointment of Ashashkiya Sahayat Prapt Madhyamik Vidyalaya and also introduction of the new procedure for appointment, the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that there was no ban regarding the appointment Class-III post in the minority Institution. More so, in the letter dated 14.03.2022, neither date of ban is mentioned nor the detailed new system of appointment is mentioned and it has been simply mentioned that appointment was itself irregular and liable to be cancelled. Thus, the contention is that the letter dated 14.03.2022 itself and consequent letter dated 30.03.2022 are non-speaking and are erroneous and, therefore, the same are liable to be quashed.

(26) The facts of the present case clearly indicate that it is not in dispute that the selected candidates has possessed requisite qualification for appointment on Class - III post on the date of occurrence of vacancies and that no such findings have been returned by the District Inspector of Schools or the Director Education (Secondary) with regard to the lack of requisite qualifications of the selected candidates. Thus, it can be concluded that the impugned letters have been passed without any application of mind and the Director of Education (Secondary) and the District Inspector of Schools has clearly ignored the distinction between a minority and non-minority institution and has neglected the privileges which are enjoyed by the institution in question in terms of Articles 29 and 30 of the Constitution of India. Thus, the impugned orders/letters passed/issued by the Director of Education (Secondary) and the District Inspector of Schools cannot be sustained and are liable to be quashed.

E. Conclusion

(27) In view of the aforesaid, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned letters dated 14.03.2022 issued by the Director of Education (Secondary), Lucknow and consequent letter dated 30.03.2022 issued by the DIOS, Bahraich are hereby quashed. The District Inspector of Schools, Bahraich is directed to look into the matter afresh and pass appropriate order, in accordance with law, after affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioners, expeditiously, say, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order. The decision so taken shall be communicated to the petitioners forthwith.

(2024) 2 ILRA 799
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 04.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 7198 of 2023

Vijay Kumar ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Jitendra Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., Sri Yashwant Singh

A. Service Law – Compassionate Appointment – Regional Rural Banks – Applicable Scheme – Date of death of employee decisive factor.

Held, right to compassionate appointment is not an inherent right but one conferred by Rules/Scheme in force on the date of death of the employee. Subsequent schemes cannot be applied retrospectively unless expressly provided. (Paras 13–16)

B. Regional Rural Banks – Adoption of Ministry of Finance Scheme dated 07.08.2014 – Applicability.
Scheme of Ministry of Finance dated 07.08.2014, though effective for Public Sector Banks from 05.08.2014, applied to Regional Rural Banks only upon adoption by the concerned Bank. Prathama U.P. Gramin Bank adopted the scheme vide circular dated 10.05.2019, with effect from 08.02.2019 (for erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank staff). Death prior to this date governed by SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, which confined compassionate appointment to two contingencies alone. (Paras 12–13, 16)

C. Service Law – Compassionate Appointment – Principle settled by Supreme Court.
Date of death of employee is the determinative criterion, not the date of application or its consideration. Pending applications cannot be decided under a subsequent scheme unless the scheme itself provides. (Para 14, 15; Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, AIR 2022 SC 402 relied on)

D. Result.
Petitioner's father having died on 25.08.2018, prior to enforcement of 2014 scheme in the Bank (08.02.2019), petitioner not entitled to claim compassionate appointment.

Held: Petition dismissed. No order as to costs. (Paras 16, 17, 18)

List of Cases cited:

1. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited & ors. Vs Tata Communications Limited, Civil Appeal Nos. 1699-1723 of 2015, decided on 22.09.2022

2. Secretary to Govt., Deptt. of Education (Primary) Vs Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, AIR 2022 SC 402 (Paras 14, 15)

3. Bechan Giri Vs U.O.I. & ors., 2023 SCC OnLine All 441 (Para 15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Jitendra Kumar, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Yashwant Singh, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent-Bank.

2. The petitioner, Vijay Kumar, is the son of a deceased employee of the Prathama U.P. Gramin Bank. His father died in harness. The petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment has been rejected by the respondent-Bank by the orders impugned dated 30.06.2018 and 29.12.2022. He has, therefore, moved this Court, praying that the orders aforesaid be quashed and a mandamus issued to the respondent-Bank to consider his case for grant of compassionate appointment.

3. The facts giving rise to this petition are these:

The Regional Rural Banks Act, 1976 (for short, 'the Act of 1976') was enacted to incorporate and regulate Regional Rural Banks in the country. This was done for the purpose of developing the rural economy, particularly, that relating to agriculture, trade etc. One of these Banks was the U.P. Gramin Bank established under the Act of 1976. The U.P. Gramin Bank was a Regional Rural Bank, and, subsequently, incorporated as the Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank, Meerut. Still later, the Prathama U.P. Gramin Bank came into existence by amalgamation of the existing Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank and the Prathama Bank. The Prathama U.P. Gramin Bank is a Rural Bank, which is an undertaking of the Government of India and sponsored by the Punjab National Bank. It is the petitioner's case that all rules and regulations made by the Government of India for Public Sector Banks are applicable to the Prathama U.P. Gramin Bank (for short, 'the Bank').

4. The Ministry of Finance, Government of India by an order dated 07.08.2014, bearing DOF No.18/2/2013-IR made a scheme for compassionate appointment in Public Sector Banks and this scheme is applicable to all Public Sector Banks, including the Bank. The petitioner's father, the late Om Prakash was a permanent employee of the Bank. He was a Clerk-cum-Cashier in the erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank. He died in harness on 25.08.2018. At the time of his demise, the petitioner's father was posted at the Gangdhari Branch of the erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank, Meerut, which, as already said, later on amalgamated with the Prathama Bank, giving rise to its successor, the Bank. The petitioner submitted an application for compassionate appointment to the Bank on 29.10.2018 and followed up the matter with a reminder dated 22.11.2018.

5. The petitioner's claim, however, for compassionate appointment was not considered by the Bank and no result whatsoever of the decision taken, if any, was communicated. The petitioner, therefore, moved this Court by instituting Writ-A No.19314 of 2022, seeking a direction to the Bank to take a decision on the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment. This Court by an order dated 24.11.2022 disposed of the aforesaid writ petition with a direction to the petitioner to make an appropriate application to some functionary of the Bank, described in this Court's order as respondent No.3. The specified functionary of the Bank was directed to consider the petitioner's application sympathetically and pass appropriate and reasoned orders thereon within a period of four months of the receipt of the petitioner's application.

6. In compliance with this Court's order dated 24.11.2022, the petitioner made an application along with a certified copy of the order. The date of this application is not mentioned by the petitioner; nor is it shown on the face of the document, annexed as Annexure No.7 to the writ petition. In compliance, on their part, the Chief Manager of the Bank passed the order impugned dated 29.12.2022, whereby the petitioner was informed that his claim already stands rejected by his predecessor (the then General Manager, Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank) by the impugned order dated 30.10.2018. Thus, the petitioner's application was rejected.

7. A perusal of the impugned order dated 30.10.2018 shows that the General Manager of the Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank, the Bank's predecessor, held that according to the scheme enforced in the Bank for appointment, the dependents of a deceased's employee are considered eligible in two contingencies alone: "(a) where the employee dies in harness while performing his official duty, as a result of violence, terrorism, robbery or dacoity; or, (b) the employee dies within five years of his first appointment or before reaching the age of 30 years, whichever is later, leaving behind a dependent spouse and/ or minor children." It is said in the order impugned that according to the records of the Bank, the late Om Prakash, the petitioner's father's date of birth was 22.06.1961 and he was employed with the Bank since 13.08.1986. It was observed that on the date of his demise, the deceased employee was aged 56 years and had been in the Bank's service for the past 32 years. Also, his death was not on account of any act of violence, terrorism, robbery or dacoity, while performing his official duty. For the said reason, the petitioner was held ineligible for consideration of compassionate appointment for him, under the existing scheme. By the latter order impugned, that is to say, the one dated 19.12.2022, the same position was taken, but it was clarified that the rule for consideration of compassionate appointment, applicable to the petitioner's case is the one laid down by SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, which provides for only two contingencies, where a claim for compassionate appointment is maintainable. These are the same two contingencies, which have been mentioned hereinabove.

8. It was further stated that the petitioner's claim would be governed by SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, inasmuch as subsequent orders, circulars or schemes would not apply with retrospective effect, as held by the Supreme Court in Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited and others v. M/s. TATA Communications Limited, Civil Appeal No(S).1699-1723 of 2015, decided on 22.09.2022. There is no mention in this order about what subsequent scheme for compassionate appointment is being referred to, but apparently what the Bank intend to say is that on the date of death, the scheme that was enforced relating to compassionate appointment would apply and that was SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, above referred. This circular provided for compassionate appointment only in the two contingencies of an employee's death on duty as a result of violence, terrorism etc. or within five years of his first appointment or before reaching the age of 30 years, whichever was later, leaving a dependent spouse and/ or minor children. Since these contingencies did not apply, the scheme in force at the time of the petitioner's father's demise would not entitle him to compassionate appointment.

9. The petitioner in the writ petition says that SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013 has not been provided to the petitioner and non-provision of compassionate appointment has been pleaded to be arbitrary and discriminatory. The petitioner relied upon the scheme for compassionate appointment in Public Sector Banks issued by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India vide order 07.08.2014, which he says would apply to the Bank w.e.f. the said date. The attention of the Court is drawn to Paragraph Nos.8.1 and 8.2 of the scheme issued by the Ministry of Finance. This provides for compassionate appointment, according to the learned Counsel for the petitioner, to all eligible dependents normally to be considered up to five years from the date of death or retirement on medical grounds, with an obligation upon the employer to take a decision on merits in each case. He has further drawn the attention of the Court to the meaning of an employee under Clause 1.2 of the scheme to show that the petitioner is eligible under it.

10. The submission, in substance, by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, therefore, is that the scheme issued by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India applies to the Bank w.e.f. 05.08.2014 as it has been made effective from that date by the Ministry proprio vigore, with no adoption necessary by the Bank to make it applicable in their establishment. He submits that since the petitioner's father died on 25.08.2018, the scheme for compassionate appointment issued by the Ministry of Finance, must be held to govern his rights; not SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, that was earlier applicable and provided for a limited right to compassionate appointment in two contingencies alone. The learned Counsel for the petitioner emphasized that since under the scheme dated 07.08.2014, the right to consideration for compassionate appointment is an open right, not restricted to certain contingencies and the petitioner has applied within five years of his father's demise, in fact promptly, his case could not have been rejected by the Bank, falling back upon the old scheme.

11. In the counter affidavit, the Bank has raised a plea that the scheme for compassionate appointment issued by the Ministry of Finance was adopted by the Prathama U.P. Bank for the staff of the erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank w.e.f. 08.02.2019, and, in case of staff of the erstwhile Prathama Bank, w.e.f. 01.03.2019. Since the petitioner's father died on 25.08.2018, his rights would not be governed by the scheme for compassionate appointment issued by the Ministry of Finance, that was enforced in the Bank's establishment for the staff of the erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank w.e.f. 08.02.2019.

12. Upon hearing learned Counsel for the parties, the first question to be determined, therefore, is if the scheme for compassionate appointment dated 07.08.2014 (w.e.f. 05.08.2014) issued by the Ministry of Finance by their order bearing DOF No.18/2/2013-IR would apply to the Bank proprio vigore or become enforceable upon the Bank adopting and enforcing it by their circular dated 10.05.2019. There is apparently nothing to show in the scheme issued by the Ministry of Finance, Government of India that it would apply to the Bank proprio vigore. Rather, it has been adopted by the Bank in terms of their circular dated 10.05.2019 with distinct and different dates for its enforcement for the erstwhile staff of the Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank and erstwhile Prathama Bank. Both the dates are retrospective. In case of the erstwhile staff of the Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank, the date of enforcement of the scheme is 08.02.2019 and in case of the erstwhile staff of the Prathama Bank, it is 01.03.2019.

13. The petitioner's father was on the staff of the erstwhile Sarva U.P. Gramin Bank and, therefore, the scheme or the model scheme framed by the Ministry of Finance, as adopted by the Bank by their circular dated 10.05.2019 would apply w.e.f. 08.02.2019. This Court finds on the material on record and the way the scheme has been adopted by the Bank that the Ministry of Finance had proposed a model scheme to be adopted by the Nationalized Banks. It was extended to Regional Rural Banks incorporated under the Act of 1976. In either case, the model scheme would be applicable upon an adoption by the concerned Bank's Board, on such modified terms, subject to which it was adopted. The date of enforcement of the scheme in a Bank, as is the case with the Bank, would be the date of its enforcement according to the Bank's decision to adopt it. Here, the circular dated 10.05.2019 adopts the scheme proposed by the Ministry of Finance for staff of the category to which the petitioner's father belonged, w.e.f. 08.02.2019. Therefore, it is held that the scheme for compassionate appointment providing for a general right to compassionate appointment for the dependent family member of a permanent employee of the Bank dying in harness, would be effective in the Bank for the class of an employee that the petitioner's father was, w.e.f. 08.02.2019. Prior to that, the rights would be governed by SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013. It would be well to remember that under SUPGB HRD Circular No. 16/2013, there was no general right for compassionate appointment to a dependent family member of a permanent employee. It was restricted to two categories of death in harness mentioned in the impugned orders and the petitioner does not fall in either.

14. Now, the other issue is if the right to compassionate appointment would be governed by the scheme or the rules in force regarding compassionate appointment on the date of death of an employee or the rules or scheme in force on the date the dependent's application for consideration was moved, or actually considered by the employer. This issue has been the subject matter of much division of opinion in authority, which was considered by the Supreme Court in Secretary to Government, Department of Education (Primary) and others v. Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, AIR 2022 SC 402. In Bheemesh alias Bheemappa (supra), it was held by the Supreme Court:

"19. The important aspect about the conflict of opinion is that it revolves around two dates, namely, (i) date of death of the employee; and (ii) date of consideration of the application of the dependant. Out of these two dates, only one, namely, the date of death alone is a fixed factor that does not change. The next date namely the date of consideration of the claim, is something that depends upon many variables such as the date of filing of application, the date of attaining of majority of the claimant and the date on which the file is put up to the competent authority. There is no principle of statutory interpretation which permits a decision on the applicability of a rule, to be based upon an indeterminate or variable factor. Let us take for instance a hypothetical case where 2 Government servants die in harness on January 01, 2020. Let us assume that the dependants of these 2 deceased Government servants make applications for appointment on 2 different dates say 29.05.2020 and 02.06.2020 and a modified Scheme comes into force on June 01, 2020. If the date of consideration of the claim is taken to be the criteria for determining whether the modified Scheme applies or not, it will lead to two different results, one in respect of the person who made the application before June 1, 2020 and another in respect of the person who applied after June 01, 2020. In other words, if two employees die on the same date and the dependants of those employees apply on two different dates, one before the modified Scheme comes into force and another thereafter, they will come in for differential treatment if the date of application and the date of consideration of the same are taken to be the deciding factor. A rule of interpretation which produces different results, depending upon what the individuals do or do not do, is inconceivable. This is why, the managements of a few banks, in the cases tabulated above, have introduced a rule in the modified scheme itself, which provides for all pending applications to be decided under the new/modified scheme. Therefore, we are of the considered view that the interpretation as to the applicability of a modified Scheme should depend only upon a determinate and fixed criteria such as the date of death and not an indeterminate and variable factor.

20. Coming to the case on hand, the employee died on 8.12.2010 and the amendment to the Rules was proposed by way of a draft notification on 20.06.2012. The final notification was issued on 11.07.2012. Merely because the application for appointment was taken up for consideration after the issue of the amendment, the respondent could not have sought the benefit of the amendment. The Judgment of the Division Bench of the Karnataka High Court in Akkamahadevamma on which the Tribunal as well as the High Court placed reliance, was not applicable to the case of compassionate appointments, as the amendment in Akkamahadevamma came as a result of the existing rule being declared to be ultra vires Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution."

15. Following the decision in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, I had occasion to consider the issue in Bechan Giri v. Union of India, 2023 SCC OnLine All 441. In Bechan Giri (supra), I held:

"29. Here, there is no issue that in the Scheme in question, there is no provision at all about consideration of pending applications for compassionate appointment made prior to the introduction of the Scheme w.e.f. 15th March, 2019. This is logically so because the present case is not one where there was apparently an older scheme granting some kind of limited right to a consideration for compassionate appointment in force or a right to an ex-gratia payment, whereunder an application could be made by the dependent of a deceased employee. What appears from the facts here is that prior to 15th March, 2019, there was no scheme at all in the establishment of the respondent Bank in force extending any kind of a right to compassionate appointment, howsoever limited or circumscribed. The right to compassionate appointment upon introduction of the Scheme w.e.f. 15th March, 2019 was a new found right. In the absence, therefore, of any provision in the Scheme for whatever reason to provide rights for dependents of an employee, who died prior to its introduction, asking for compassionate appointment, there could be no right to compassionate appointment. It has already been pointed out that the right to compassionate appointment is not an inherent right, but one that flows from a Rule or Scheme being in force at the time of the death of an employee in harness. There could be more reason to supply in aid of that interpretation. Once it is held that the right to compassionate appointment is not inherent, but the creature of a Rule, the right of whatever kind it is, originates and culminates on the date of death of the employee in harness. There is no fact surviving the death of an employee in harness on the foot of which, a Scheme or Rule for compassionate appointment introduced at a later date, may afford the dependent a right to consideration. Of course, that kind of a right may arise if the Scheme provides for that right on its own terms. Here, the words employed in Clause 8.1, or for that matter Clause 8.2 of the Scheme, do not envisage cognizance of cases of dependents, where death of an employee in harness has taken place before the Scheme was enforced in the Bank. The employment of the expression in Clause 8.1 "normally be considered upto five years from the date of death" refers to the period of five years of death on a date when the Scheme was already in force in the Bank; not five years or a little short of that time antedating the introduction of the Scheme."

16. Like the case in Bechan Giri, in the scheme, that was introduced vide circular dated 10.05.2019, the retrospective operation for an employee of the petitioner's father's class is limited to 08.02.2019, whereas the petitioner's father passed away on 28.08.2018. On the date that he died, therefore, the scheme providing for a general right to compassionate appointment had not come into force. On that date, the scheme in force provided for compassionate appointment in two contingencies mentioned in the impugned order, which are not attracted to the petitioner's case at all. The petitioner's father having died before the date on which the new scheme for compassionate appointment enforced through circular dated 10.05.2019, had become effective i.e. 08.02.2019, the petitioner cannot claim a right to compassionate appointment under the Finance Ministry's scheme or the circular dated 10.05.2019. He had, in fact, no right to compassionate appointment, as rightly held by the Bank.

17. In this view of the matter, there is no force in this writ petition. It is, accordingly, dismissed.

18. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 806
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 7942 of 2023

Ram Prasad Dwivedi ...Petitioner
Versus
The State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mr. Girish Chandra Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Mr. Vimlesh Kumar Rai, Mr. Suresh Singh

A. Uttar Pradesh Government Servants (Medical Attendance) Rules, 2011 – Adoption by U.P. Jal Nigam – Medical reimbursement claim for cancer treatment at Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya Cancer Centre (a unit of Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai, a Govt. of India grant-in-aid institute) – Denial on ground of being "private hospital" – Whether sustainable.

Held: Para 9–13
The 2011 Rules stand adopted by the Board of Directors of U.P. Jal Nigam through office memorandum dated 28.06.2016. The said Scheme permits reimbursement even for treatment in private hospitals recognized by the St./Central Government, subject to certain conditions. MPMMCC being a unit of Tata Memorial Centre (grant-in-aid by Department of Atomic Energy, Govt. of India) cannot be treated as a private hospital for denial of claim.

B. Interpretation of Office Memoranda vis-à-vis Statutory Rules –
Whether a subsequent memo dated 13.07.2020, prohibiting reimbursement for private hospitals, overrides adoption of 2011 Rules and memo of 2016.

Held: Paras 6, 9, 14–15
Once the Board has adopted the 2011 Rules and framed the 2016 Scheme accordingly, a later office memo by the Managing Director cannot defeat statutory adoption. The binding scheme remains the 2016 memorandum.

C. Scheme of 2016 — Requirement of Referral & Prior Permission – Non-Compliance — Effect.
Held: Paras 11–13
Although the Scheme requires referral from Government hospital and prior permission of Chairman, such technical lapses cannot defeat genuine claims, particularly of senior citizens suffering from life-threatening diseases like cancer. Rules must receive a liberal construction to advance their purpose.

D. Writ Jurisdiction — Objection that impugned rejection order not challenged — Sustainability.
Held: Para 6
Mandamus being a writ of widest amplitude, relief cannot be denied merely because specific order not challenged. Writ jurisdiction is essentially equitable and technical objections cannot bar relief where justice demands.

Writ petition partly allowed.

Petitioner directed to resubmit his claim in prescribed proforma under 2016 Scheme. Respondents to process and dispose of claim within one month, bearing in mind Court's directions and affidavit of Principal Secretary dated 16.07.2023. No order as to costs.

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Girish Chandra Yadav, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Vimlesh Kumar Rai, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4 and Ms. Monika Arya, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for respondent No.1.

2. The petitioner, Ram Prasad Dwivedi is a retired Assistant Engineer. He was employed with the Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam, and after its division, is regarded a part of the Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam (Urban). He retired from service on 30.09.2008, when the Nigam was still a unified entity. The petitioner is now a 70 year old man, and as he says, lost vision in both his eyes to Glaucoma. The petitioner consulted an E.N.T. Doctor for a problem with his throat, who, after a clinical evaluation and consideration of pathological reports, referred him to the Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya Cancer Centre, Varanasi (for short, 'the MPMMCC') on 07.11.2021. The petitioner went to the MPMMCC, where after a thorough check-up from 13.11.2021 to 11.01.2022, he was diagnosed with Lymphoepithelial Carcinoma, a cancer. He underwent surgery followed by radio and chemotherapy, that was necessary to treat the deadly disease. The petitioner says that his treatment is still continuing. It is averred in Paragraph No.11 of the writ petition that the petitioner informed the Personal assistant/ Executive Engineer in the office of the Chief Engineer, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Prayagraj Zone, Prayagraj through an application dated 13.01.2022 that he was undergoing treatment for his cancer at the MPMMCC and Homi Bhabha Cancer Hospital, Varanasi. The petitioner then submitted his treatment plan and record of admission for the purpose of surgery at the MPMMCC to the Personal Assistant to the Chief Engineer aforesaid, whereupon the Personal Assistant is said to have written a letter to the petitioner on 31.01.2022 that the MPMMCC is not a government hospital. A copy of this letter is not on record.

3. Nevertheless, it is the petitioner's case that he posted the office of the Chief Engineer with details of his treatment, that includes his treatment file, card etc. on 22.02.2022, that were duly received by the office of the Chief Engineer, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Prayagraj on 23.02.2022. The petitioner indicated that the MPMMCC is a government hospital, being a grant-in-aid institute of the Department of Atomic Energy, Government of India. Upon receipt of the said letter dated 23.02.2022, the Personal Assistant to the Chief Engineer, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Prayagraj Zone, Prayagraj responded vide memo dated 24.02.2022, bearing No. 550/ चिकित्सा प्रतिपूर्ति/ 18, declining the petitioner's claim on the ground that the MPMMCC is a private hospital and a Branch of the Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai. It was indicated that the petitioner's claim for medical reimbursement cannot be paid in accordance with the office memo No. 966/ एसी-लेखा सामान्य/ चि0प्रति0/309/20, dated 13.07.2020 issued by the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam, Lucknow, which prohibits reimbursement of medical claims for treatment availed in private hospitals. The material part of the office memo aforesaid reads:

"प्रायः यह देखा जा रहा है कि उ0प्र0 जल निगम के कार्मिकों एवं सेवानिवृत्त पेंशनरो द्वारा सामान्यतः निजी चिकित्सालयों में ही उपचार कराया जा रहा है, जबकि सरकारी चिकित्सालय अपेक्षाकृत अधिक सुविधा सम्पन्न है तथा उपचार भी बेहतर होता है। निजी चिकित्सालयों में कराये जा रहे उपचार अत्यधिक व्ययभार आता है तथा विभाग की वर्तमान वित्तीय स्थिति ठीक न होने के कारण निजी चिकित्सालय में करायी गयी चिकित्सा की प्रतिपूर्ति किये जाने में कठिनाई उत्पन्न हो रही है सम्यक विचारोपरान्त यह निर्देश जारी किये जा रह हैं कि सामान्यतः सरकारी चिकित्सायों यथा के0जी0एम0यू0, एस0जी0पी0जी0आई0, डॉ0 राम मनोहर लोहिया मेडिकल इन्सटीट्यूट, बलरामपुर चिकित्सालय, श्यामा प्रसाद मुखर्जी जिला चिकित्सालय आदि सरकारी चिकित्सालयों/ संस्थानों में करायी गयी चिकित्सा की ही प्रतिपूर्ति की जा सकेगी। यदि अत्यन्त विषम स्थिति में निजी चिकित्सालय में चिकित्सा कराना इस लिए अपरिहार्य हो कि वह उपचार इन सरकारी अस्पतालों / संस्थानों में उपलब्ध नही हो तभी उसकी स्वीकृति हेतु प्रस्ताव मा0 अध्यक्ष जी को स्वीकृतार्थ अग्रसारित किया जा सकेगा।"

4. It is the petitioner's case that his claim has been rejected solely on the ground that he took treatment to cure his cancer at the MPMMCC, which the respondents regard as a private hospital. It is also the petitioner's ground to assail the denial of his claim that the view that for treatment taken at a private hospital, no medical reimbursement can be claimed, is based on a mere memo issued by the Managing Director of the U.P. Jal Nigam, whereas the right to claim medical reimbursement flows from The Uttar Pradesh Government Servants (Medical Attendance) Rules, 2011 (for short, 'the Rules of 2011'). The petitioner has prayed for a mandamus ordering the respondents to reimburse his medical expenses to the tune of Rs.3,64,303/- spent on his treatment within a stipulated period of time.

5. When this petition came up for admission on 07.07.2023, this Court passed a detailed order, requiring the Chief Engineer to file his personal affidavit, which would be read as a counter affidavit. The Chief Engineer (Prayagraj Zone), U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Prayagraj filed a counter affidavit dated 12.07.2023, where the stand taken, that would shortly be noticed, seem to be very obstructive, rather than fair and facilitative in a matter like the one in hand. This Court, therefore, passed a further order dated 12.07.2023, requiring the Principal Secretary, Ministry of Urban Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow to file his personal affidavit. The material part of this Court's order dated 12.07.2023 reads:

"A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent nos. 2, 3 and 4, where the stand maintained is strikingly bureaucratic. The respondents insist that be it cancer and howsoever a killer disease it might be, the scheme for reimbursement of medical expenses would require the petitioner to be treated at a Government Hospital. The respondents have refused to acknowledge the Mahamana Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya Cancer Centre, Varanasi as a Government Hospital, though an establishment of TATA Memorial Centre, which is a grant-in-aid institute of the Department of Atomic Energy, Government of India.

Before proceeding to hear the matter, this Court considers it appropriate to know the stand of the Government. In this regard, let the Principal Secretary, Ministry of Urban Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow file his personal affidavit by Monday i.e. 17.07.2023, answering all that is said by this Court in the order dated 07.07.2023 extracted above."

6. In compliance, the Principal Secretary, Ministry of Urban Development, Government of U.P., Lucknow has filed his affidavit dated 16.07.2023, where a seemingly reasonable stand has been taken. Before proceeding further, this Court must remark that the Chief Engineer's stand in the counter affidavit filed on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4 is far from one that can be commended. He has raised an objection that the petitioner has not challenged the order dated 24.02.2022 and has merely sought a mandamus. A writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution is essentially an equitable remedy and if a case is made out, it does not much matter which particular writ has been sought by the petitioner, unless, of course, the remedy sought is misconceived. A writ of mandamus is a general writ of the widest scope, which may be issued to remedy injustice wherever found. The objection taken by the respondents, under the circumstances, is one stated to be rejected. It is then averred in the counter affidavit that the Rules of 2011 do not automatically apply to the Nigam. These have been adopted by the Board of Directors of the U.P. Jal Nigam in its 164th Meeting, and, with permission of the Chairman of the U.P. Jal Nigam, an office memorandum dated 28.06.2016 was issued by the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam in order to give effect to the Rules of 2011. A copy of the office memorandum dated 28.06.2016 has been referred to.

7. We have perused the office memorandum dated 28.06.2016 issued by the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam. It would be profitable to refer to the aforesaid memo (relevant parts), which read:

"उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम के आदेश संख्या 55 / चिकित्सा प्रतिपूर्ति दिनांक 09-02-1995 द्वारा चिकित्सा व्ययों की प्रतिपूर्ति तथा इस हेतु अग्रिम की स्वीकृति के सम्बन्ध में पुनरीक्षित प्रक्रिया लागू किये जाने हेतु दिशा निर्देश निर्गत किये गये थे। जल निगम के ज्ञाप संख्या 138/ ए.सी. लेखा (सा0)/ चि0 प्रति0/309/354/12 दिनांक 18/01/2012 द्वारा पूर्व निर्गत ज्ञापों के क्रम में शासन के आदेश द्वारा जारी 'उत्तर प्रदेश सरकारी सेवक (चिकित्सा परिचर्या) नियमावली 2011' को उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम के समस्त कार्यरत एवं सेवानिवृत्त कार्मिकों हेतु प्रक्रिया एवं चिकित्सा प्रतिपूर्ति स्वीकृत करने के अधिकार की सीमा तक लागू किया गया। अग्रेतर उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम के ज्ञाप संख्या 2883 / ए.सी. लेखा (सा0)/चि0 प्रति0/309/354/14 दिनांक 22/08/2014 द्वारा 'उत्तर प्रदेश सरकारी सेवक (चिकित्सा परिचर्या) (प्रथम संशोधन) नियमावली 2014' के कतिपय प्राविधानों को ज्ञाप दिनॉक 18/01/2012 के क्रम में प्रतिस्थापित किया गया।

उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम निदेशक मंडल की 160वीं बैठक में लिये गये निर्णय के अनुपालन में ज्ञाप संख्या 1114 / ए.सी. लेखा (सा0)/ चि0 प्रति0 / 309/520 / 13 दिनांक 06/06/2013 द्वारा चिकित्सा प्रतिपूर्ति किये जाने के सम्बन्ध में निजी चिकित्सालयों में इलाज एवं कतिपय विशिष्ट बीमारियों को छोड़कर अन्य पर हुये व्ययों की प्रतिपूर्ति पर प्रतिबन्ध लगाये गये। अग्रेतर ज्ञाप संख्या 2729/ ए.सी. लेखा (सा0)/ चि0 प्रति0/309/520 / 13 दिनांक 31/12/2013 एवं 2145 / ए.सी. लेखा (सा0) / चि0 प्रति0 / 309/520/15 दिनांक 18/09/2015 द्वारा प्रतिबन्धों को शिथिल करते कुछ और गम्भीर व विशिष्ट बीमारियों को प्रतिपूर्ति हेतु सम्मिलित किया गया।

उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम निदेशक मंडल की 164वीं बैठक (मद संख्या 164.34) में निदेशक मंडल की 160वीं बैठक में लगाये गये प्रतिबन्धों को समाप्त किया गया है तथा मद संख्या 164.32 द्वारा स्वीकर्ता प्राधिकारी का पुर्ननिर्धारण किया गया है। जल निगम द्वारा

चिकित्सा व्ययों की प्रतिपूर्ति तथा इस हेतु अग्रिम की स्वीकृति के सम्बन्ध में पूर्व में निर्गत समस्त कार्यालय ज्ञापों / आदेशों को अतिक्रमित कर उनमें दी गई व्यवस्थाओं को समेकित कर अध्यक्ष, उत्तर प्रदेश जल निगम की अनुमति से जल निगम के सेवारत / सेवानिवृत्त कार्मिको हेतु चिकित्सा प्रतिपूर्ति की निम्न व्यवस्था लागू की जाती है:-

"3.3 विशिष्ट उपचार

3.3.1 जटिल और गम्भीर बीमारियों के उपचार के लिए, जिनके लिए सरकारी चिकित्सालय या संदर्भित करने वाली संस्थाओं में चिकित्सा सुविधा उपलब्ध नहीं है, संदर्भित करने वाली संस्था के आचार्य या विभागाध्यक्ष या सरकारी जिला चिकित्सालय के मुख्य चिकित्सा अधीक्षक या जिले के मुख्य चिकित्सा अधिकारी से अन्यून श्रेणी के उपचारी चिकित्सक द्वारा विशिष्ट और चिकित्सा परिचर्या के लिए रोगी को ऐसे निजी चिकित्सालय या संस्था को जिसे राज्य अथवा केन्द्र सरकार द्वारा मान्यता प्राप्त हो संदर्भित किया जा सकता है।

3.3.2 ऐसे निजी चिकित्सालय या संस्था में उपचार पर व्यय की प्रतिपूर्ति वास्तविक व्यय या राज्य के भीतर उपचार के लिए संजय गाँधी स्नातकोत्तर आयुर्विज्ञान संस्थान लखनऊ की दरों या राज्य के बाहर हुए उपचार के लिए अखिल भारतीय आयुर्विज्ञान संस्थान, नई दिल्ली की दरों तक, जो भी कम हो, सीमित होगी।

3.3.3 ऐसे उपचार या जॉच जिनके लिए संजयगांधी स्नातकोत्तर आयुर्विज्ञान संस्थान, लखनऊ या अखिल भारतीय आयुर्विज्ञान संस्थान, नई दिल्ली में सुविधा विद्यमान न हो, पर हुए व्ययों की प्रतिपूर्ति वास्तविक आधार पर की जायेगी प्रतिबन्ध यह है कि उपचार देश के भीतर कराया गया हो।

3.3.4 उक्तानुसार निजी चिकित्सालयों में उपचार कराये जाने हेतु अध्यक्ष, उ0प्र0 जल निगम की पूर्वानुमति आवश्यक होगी।" (emphasis by Court)

8. This Court is of opinion that it would also be of relevance to refer to Paragraph Nos.1.11 and 1.12 of the Scheme for reimbursement framed vide memo dated 28.06.2016. These read:

"1.11 संदर्भित करने वाली संस्था, का तात्पर्य सभी राजकीय चिकित्सालय / चिकित्सा महाविद्यालय, KGMU लखनऊ संजय गाँधी स्नातकोत्तर आयुर्विज्ञान एवं अनुसंधान संस्थान (SGPGIMS) लखनऊ, डा0 राम मनोहर लोहिया आयुर्विज्ञान संस्थान लखनऊ, ग्रामीण आयुर्विज्ञान एवं अनुसंधान संस्थान, सैफई, इटावा, इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ मेडिकल साइंस वाराणसी (बनारस हिन्दू विश्वविद्यालय), जवाहर लाल नेहरू चिकित्सा महाविद्यालय (अलीगढ मुस्लिम विश्वविद्यालय). अलीगढ और सरकार द्वारा इस रूप में अधिसूचित किसी अन्य संस्था से है,

1.12 "राज्य" का तात्पर्य उत्तर प्रदेश राज्य से है,"

9. What we find from a reading of the Scheme framed by the Managing Director vide memo dated 28.06.2016 is that the Rules of 2011 have indeed been adopted by the Board of Directors of the U.P. Jal Nigam. The earlier restrictions that were imposed regarding non-provision of medical reimbursement for treatment availed at private hospitals have also been relaxed and expenses incurred in treatment availed at private hospitals, can also be reimbursed. A perusal of Paragraph No.3.13 and its sub-paragraphs shows that for the treatment of complicated and serious diseases, where treatment is not available with government hospitals or the referring institutions, an employee or a retired employee or other beneficiary under the Scheme, may be referred by the specified functionaries of a government hospital or the referring institution to such such private hospital for treatment, which the State or the Central Government has recognized. This is provided specifically in sub-Paragraph No.3.3.1 of the Scheme carried in the memo dated 28.06.2016. Sub-Paragraph No.3.3.2 provides the rate of reimbursement, which shall be limited to the rate at which costs would be incurred at the Sanjay Gandhi Postgraduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, if the treatment is taken in a private hospital within the State of Uttar Pradesh. The rate, according to which reimbursement would be made, if the treatment is taken in a private hospital outside the State, is one that would be in accord with the rates, the treatment would cost if availed at the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi. Sub-Paragraph No.3.3.3 of the Scheme provides that if the treatment necessary is not available with the SGPGI or the AIIMS, the expenses incurred in the treatment would be reimbursable to the extent actually incurred at the private hospital. Sub-Paragraph No.3.3.4 stipulates that for the purpose of the Scheme in order to avail treatment (which really means reimbursement) at a private hospital, prior permission of the Chairman of the Nigam would be necessary.

10. This Court must remark that the contention on behalf of the respondents founded on their stand in the counter affidavit filed on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4 that no reimbursement claim can be entertained unless the Head of Office/ Drawing and Disbursing Officer is informed of the treatment being taken within 30 days of its commencement as required by sub-Paragraph No.3.1.2, is not at all tenable. The reason is that Paragraph No.3.1 of the Scheme, of which sub-Paragraph Nos.3.1.2 is a part and envisages a limitation of 30 days regarding intimation to be given to the Head of Office from the date of commencement of the beneficiary's treatment, is one which deals with treatment during emergencies. It has no application to the case of special treatment, that is the subject matter of Paragraph No.3.3 of the Scheme. Special treatment relates to complicated and serious ailments, as already noticed. In Paragraph No.3.3 of the Scheme and all its sub-Paragraphs, there is no rule of limitation envisaged, upon which learned Counsel for the respondents has much harped to discredit the petitioner's claim.

11. This Court does notice that there are certain matters, which indeed have not been observed in compliance by the petitioner to claim reimbursement. There is no recommendation by a government hospital or a referring institution envisaged under the Scheme, recommending the petitioner's case for care in a private hospital. The other is, that there is no prior permission of the Chairman of the Jal Nigam obtained by the petitioner. This issue about non-referral by a competent doctor representing the referring institution or a government hospital was also a point much canvassed on behalf of the respondents. This submission is not altogether without force. At the same time, we think that though in many a case, strict adherence to Paragraph No.3.3 may be necessary, but the rules there are not inflexible. After all, the respondents do not dispute the fact that the Board of the Jal Nigam have adopted the Rules of 2011 conferring the benefit of medical reimbursement upon their employees, the retired employees and their families. The regulation of that right through the Scheme that has been framed vide memo 28.06.2016 by the Managing Director with the Chairman's permission, cannot be construed in a manner that palpably genuine claims are defeated for the non-observance of a technicality. Many a time, a genuine claimant may not be aware of the requirements of this Scheme tucked away in an office memo issued by the Managing Director of the Jal Nigam. After all, it is not a statute or a notification of the Government, of which constructive knowledge may be attributed to one and all. Even if it were, the Rules of 2011 being adopted by the Jal Nigam and the Scheme being one to regulate and effectuate the rights of an employee or ex-employee to claim medical reimbursement, the terms of the Scheme must receive a liberal construction that advances its purpose. It cannot and ought not to be construed strictly against the employee denying him/her the benefit of its coverage. The true test is if the employee's or the ex-employee's claim by evidence and upon verification is a genuine case, where the facility of medical reimbursement ought to be extended.

12. The present case is one where the petitioner is a 70 year old retired Assistant Engineer and if the papers of his treatment that he has annexed at Pages 15 to 49 of the paper-book, are to be believed, he appears to be a cancer patient, who has been extensively treated at the MPMMCC, a unit of Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai. There are documents of the expenses incurred in the treatment as well. These are always open to verification by the respondents, which they could and must do before they accept the petitioner's claim for reimbursement. In a situation like the present case, if the petitioner is indeed a cancer patient, who in his old age, has incurred substantial expense for treating cancer, this Court does not think that the few technical lapses in adhering to the requirements of Paragraph No.3.3 of the Scheme, carried in the memo dated 28.06.2016, should result in the rejection of his claim.

13. This Court must also remark that apart from the other technicalities envisaged under Paragraph No.3.3, there is also a stand taken on behalf of the respondents that the petitioner has not demonstrated the non-availability of treatment for his disease in any government hospital or referring institution. This Court thinks that faced with a disease, as dreadful as cancer, where there are no second chances that can be taken, trusting oneself to the care of the MPMMCC, which is a unit of the Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai is an unexceptionable course. The formality of proving that the treatment is not available in a government hospital, must also be considered liberally and dispensed with, where facts warrant. Once the respondents accept the liability for medical reimbursement, and there is a reasonable safe treatment available with a reputed specialized institution, treating cancer, which is a unit of the Tata Memorial Centre, Mumbai, to say that there is no certification about treatment for the disease not being available with a government hospital, is a stand that can hardly be accepted.

14. This Court is also mindful of the fact that ex facie the petitioner has not come up with a claim for his treatment, that is extravagant or inflated. It seems to be a reasonable expense for treatment of the deadly disease. This Court would not have hesitated to issue a mandamus straight away, ordering the respondents to reimburse the medical expenses, but happily in the personal affidavit filed by the Principal Secretary, Urban Development Department, Government of U.P., Lucknow, there is a very candid stand taken, which we do appreciate. In Paragraph Nos.9 and 10 of the personal affidavit, it is averred:

"9. That it has also been assured in the attached report of the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban) that if the claim of medical reimbursement is submitted again by the petitioner on the prescribed proforma, its examination will be done as per the provisions of office 28.06.2016 dated 28.06.2016 thereafter, further memorandum dated proceeding will be initiated.

10. That after proper consideration of the documents of the case, answering respondent no.1 is of the opinion that while the office memorandum dated 28.06.2016 regarding the permissibility of reimbursement of medical expenses with the approval of the Board of Directors of U.P. Jal Nigam is effective, then the entire reimbursement claims should be examined under the provisions of the said office memorandum and not under another office memorandum dated 13.07.2020 issued by the Managing Director without making any reference of the said office memorandum dated 28.06.2016. As assured in the report of U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), examination of the petitioner's claim will be done under the provisions of the office memorandum dated 28.08.2016, if submitted again, necessary instructions have also been given to the Managing Director, Uttar Pradesh Jal Nigam (Urban) by the Government on 14.07.2023 itself. Copy of the instruction issued by the Government is being filed herewith and marked as Annexure No. PA-2 to this affidavit."

15. There is also on record memo No. 246/9-3-2023 issued by the Special Secretary, Government of U.P. and addressed to the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Lucknow. This memo has been issued specifically with reference to the petitioner's case and in deference to the directions issued by this Court in the present writ petition at interlocutory stages. The relevant part of the memo dated 14th July, 2023 reads:

"3. प्रकरण से सम्बन्धित अभिलेखों के अवलोकनोपरान्त यह स्थिति सामने आई है कि याची (श्री राम प्रकाश द्विवेदी) के चिकित्सा व्यय प्रतिपूर्ति दावे का परीक्षण उ0प्र0 जल निगम के निदेशक मण्डल के अनुमोदनोपरान्त निर्गत का0ज्ञा0 दिनांक 28.06.2016 के प्रावधानों के अर्न्तगत किया जाना अपेक्षित है। अतः तदनुसार आवश्यक कार्यवाही कराने का कष्ट करें । साथ ही चिकित्सा व्यय प्रतिपूर्ति के परिप्रेक्ष्य में प्रबन्ध निदेशक, उ0प्र0 जल निगम के हस्ताक्षर से निर्गत कार्यालय ज्ञाप दिनांक 13.07.2020 की अद्यतन प्रासंगिकता पर भी समग्र रूप से विचार कर आवश्यक कार्यवाही कराई जाय, विशेष रूप से यह देखते हुए कि कार्यालय ज्ञाप दि0 28.06.2016 में निजी चिकित्सालयों में भी चिकित्सा की अनुमन्यता की गई है।"

16. Looking to the stand of the Principal Secretary and the Government in the matter, this Court is of opinion that ends of justice would be met by requiring the petitioner to submit his claim afresh in the prescribed proforma, annexed as Schedule 'ख' to office memo No.2126/एसी.लेखा. (सा.)/चि.प्रतिपूर्ति/309 dated 28.06.2016, issued by the Managing Director, U.P. Jal Nigam, Lucknow within a month of the date of receipt of a certified copy this judgment to the Chief Engineer (Prayagraj Zone), U.P. Jal Nigam (Urban), Prayagraj. The same shall be transmitted forthwith to the competent Authority, who will take appropriate steps to consider sanctioning medical reimbursement to the petitioner, bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment and the stand taken in Paragraph Nos.9 and 10 of the Principal Secretary's affidavit dated 16.07.2023. The petitioner's claim shall be disposed of within a period of one month of the date that it is submitted by the petitioner to the Chief Engineer, as directed hereinabove.

17. This writ petition is allowed in part in terms of the above orders.

18. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 814
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 8963 of 2023

Anjesh son of Late Radhey Giri ...Petitioner

Versus

F.C.I. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Pankaj Kumar Asthana, Sri Pradeep Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
Hari Narayan Singh, Sri Santosh Kumar Mishra

A. Compassionate Appointment — Dying in Harness — Date of death relevant — Later declaration of "dying cadre" irrelevant — Scheme applicable is one in force on date of death.
Held: The dependent's right to be considered for compassionate appointment crystallizes on the date of death of the employee in harness. The subsequent declaration of the employee's cadre as a "dying cadre" cannot extinguish that right. The relevant scheme is the one in force on the date of death, not one subsequently introduced or modified.(Paras 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, 22, 25)

B. Food Corporation of India — Departmental Labour System — Declared dying cadre w.e.f. 03.01.2020 — Father of petitioner died in 2009 — Claim already recommended by Committee in 2010 — Petitioner's case must be considered under scheme applicable on 21.01.2009.

Held: Since the employee died much before the cadre was declared dying, and the Compassionate Appointment Committee had already found the petitioner's case fit in 2010, the declaration of the cadre as dying in 2020 cannot defeat petitioner's claim. Respondents' refusal on this ground is unsustainable.(Paras 21, 22, 24, 25, 26)

C. Appointment on Compassionate Ground — Object — To provide immediate succour to bereaved family — Economic crisis relevant — Cadre classification irrelevant.
Held: The essential object is to relieve sudden financial hardship of dependents. The fact that the deceased employee belonged to a cadre later abolished or declared dying is wholly irrelevant. What matters is that a scheme for compassionate appointment was in force at the time of death. (Paras 17, 19, 20, 26)

RESULT

Writ Petition Allowed — Mandamus issued to respondents to consider petitioner's case for compassionate appointment within six weeks in accordance with law and guidance contained in this judgment. No order as to costs.

List of Cases cited:

1. Secretary to Government Department of Education (Primary) Vs Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, (2021) 20 SCC 707.

2. Court on its Own Motion Vs U.O.I., (2016) 2 Mah LJ 647.

3. Food Corporation of India Workers Union Vs U.O.I., SLP (C) No.19218 of 2016, order dated 31.07.2017 (SC).

4. Bina Devi Vs St. of H.P., 2010 SCC OnLine HP 4642.

5. Bechan Giri Vs U.O.I., 2023 SCC OnLine All 441.

6. St. of M.P.Vs Amit Shrivas, (2020) 10 SCC 496.

7. St. of M.P.Vs Ashish Awasthi, AIR Online 2021 SC 1047.

8. Indian Bank Vs Promila, (2020) 2 SCC 729.

9. N.C. Santhosh Vs St. of Karnataka, (2020) 7 SCC 617.

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. The petitioner, Anjesh is a son of the late Radhey Giri, an employee of the Food Corporation of India. Radhey Giri died in harness on 21.01.2009, leaving behind him his widow, his son and two daughters. Upon demise of Radhey Giri, the petitioner's mother Smt. Sona Devi, moved an application before the District Manager, Food Corporation of India, Allahabad, seeking compassionate appointment for her son on account of the sudden demise of her husband. The petitioner himself made an application, seeking compassionate appointment, to the General Manager, Food Corporation of India, Lucknow on 15.06.2009. The petitioner says that he is a graduate and has earned his degree of Bachelor of Science in the year 2014. The petitioner submitted his claim in the prescribed format in the month of September, 2009 before the Food Corporation of India, District Office Agra, a copy of which is annexed as Annexure No.5 to the writ petition. The Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, Lucknow, who is respondent No.3 to this writ petition, by a letter dated 17th December 2009 directed the petitioner to get his health certificate from the Chief Medical Officer, Allahabad. The medical examination was done on 23.12.2009 and a certificate of that date issued.

2. The Committee, competent to assess the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment, examined his case and submitted a report dated 13.01.2010, opining that the family are living in hardship and a compassionate appointment is very necessary. It appears that taking into account the petitioner's claim, the recommendations of the Committee, besides similar claims by others, a roster was drawn up by the District Manager, Food Corporation of India, District Allahabad, placing the petitioner's name at serial No.15, showing the date of his application as 25.02.2010. The roster serial number indicated was 14. The roster aforesaid was forwarded by the District Manager to the Assistant General Manager (Industrial Relation), Food Corporation of India, Lucknow for necessary action on 18.06.2013. A reminder dated 24.02.2014 was sent by the District Manager, Food Corporation of India, Allahabad to the Assistant General Manager (Industrial Relation), Food Corporation of India, Lucknow.

3. It is the petitioner's case that vide letter dated 20.10.2014, the District Manager, FCI, Allahabad intimated the Assistant General Manager (Industrial Relation-Labour), Food Corporation of India, Lucknow about the roster position of claims pending before him for compassionate appointment. It is averred that in the office of the District Manager, Food Corporation of India, Allahabad, no compassionate appointment was given to any candidate. An information was secured by one Satyapal Singh from the Manager (IR-L), acting on behalf of the Assistant General Manager (IR-L), Food Corporation of India, Regional Office, Lucknow, that there were two posts available to be filled up on compassionate ground with the Food Storage Depot, Naini, Allahabad. At the same time, vide a letter dated 21.12.2016, the Manager (IR-L) in the office of the Assistant General Manager (IR-L) informed the petitioner that for the present, there are no posts available to be filled up on compassionate basis in the Corporation's depot at Naini, Allahabad.

4. The petitioner has specifically pleaded in Paragraph No.21 of the writ petition that on account of his father's sudden death in harness, the family is in distress and sent a representation dated 27.12.2016 to the Chairman, Food Corporation of India, New Delhi, as well as a representation dated 08.03.2017 to the Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, Lucknow, requesting that the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment be considered. The petitioner then received a memo dated 11.01.2017 from the Assistant General Manager (IR-L), Food Corporation of India, Lucknow, informing him that for every depot at the depot level, a roster had been prepared for compassionate appointment. Out of the available vacancies, 5% are set apart for compassionate appointment, to which appointments are made according to the roster. The letter also says that at the Naini depot of the Corporation at Allahabad, the petitioner's name stands at the 14th place of the roster. It is also said in the memo that in the entire State, a roster for compassionate appointments for the DLS/ DPS labourers was being drawn up. After the process was over, the compassionate appointments would be made according to the new roster against the available vacancies.

5. The respondent General Manager (IR-L) reiterated his stand about the petitioner's roster position at the FSD, Allahabad by his memo dated 23.03.2017. The petitioner again received a memo dated 09.08.2017 from the Regional Office of the Food Corporation of India at Lucknow, saying that there was a 5% ceiling on the total number of available posts against which compassionate appointment could be made, and that considering the petitioner's roster position, there was no post available for him. The petitioner then represented the matter further to the General Manager (IR) on 03.04.2023, sending the communication by registered post with a request that his case had already been recommended by the Committee, but no action taken, which may now be considered. Finding inaction and the stand of the respondent, Food Corporation of India (for short, 'the Corporation'), to be destructive of the purpose of compassionate appointment, the petitioner instituted the present writ petition on 16.05.2023, praying that a mandamus be issued, commanding the respondents to appoint the petitioner on compassionate grounds.

6. In the short counter affidavit that was filed in Court on 12.07.2023, a stand was taken that the Departmental Labour System has been abolished, of which the deceased Radhey Giri was a member.

7. This Court required the respondents to file a detailed counter affidavit, which was filed on 19.07.2023. A rejoinder was filed to it on 30.07.2023.

8. The respondents, Corporation have taken a stand that compassionate appointment in their establishment is governed by the 'Scheme for Compassionate Appointment' enforced by the Government of India, Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions (Department of Personnel & Training) vide memorandum, bearing F No. 14014/02/2012--Estt. (D) dated 16th January, 2013. This office memorandum has been issued by an Under Secretary to the Government of India. The Scheme for Compassionate Appointment (for short, 'the Scheme') has been pleaded by the respondent Corporation to say that compassionate appointments can be made up to a maximum of 5% of the available vacancies, falling under direct recruitment quota, in any Group-C posts. The position in this regard will be considered in moreful detail with reference to the Scheme during the course of this judgment.

9. In Paragraph No.5 of the short counter affidavit, it is said that the Nagpur Bench of the Bombay High Court had taken cognizance of a news item, published in the Times of India, that the Departmental Labour System workers were being paid salary, running into more than Rs.4 lacs a month. The public interest litigation, which was assigned PIL No.84 of 2014 [Court on its Own Motion v. Union of India and others, (2016) 2 Mah LJ 647], was disposed of by the Nagpur Bench of the Bombay High Court vide judgment dated 20.11.2015, issuing a slew of directions to the Government of India to consider phasing out the Departmental Labour System in order to spare the public exchequer of money wasted on the system, that could 'be utilized for better purposes', to borrow the words of their Lordships. The following directions were issued by the Division Bench to the Government of India:

"(i) The Government of India is directed to decide the representation made by the Food Corporation of India for grant of exemption under the provisions of Section 31 of the said Act within a period of one month from today, in the light of observations made by us hereinabove within a period of one month from today.

(ii) The Government of India shall decide the issue regarding denotification of the depots of the Food Corporation of India, in respect of which notification is issued u/s.10 of the said Act, within a period of six months from today, in the light of observations made by us hereinabove and the report of M/s.Deloitt Consultancy and the report of High Level Committee appointed by the Government of India itself.

(iii) We clarify that the respondent/Food Corporation of India would be entitled to transfer the services of departmental labourers from one depot to another subject to protecting their salary and all other service conditions.

(iv) We also clarify that the respondent/ Corporation would be at liberty to implement its policy of change in the Scheme of incentives.

(v) The Government of India shall also take a decision regarding abolition of system of departmental labourers in a phased manner or absorbing their services in other establishments as recommended by the High Level Committee."

10. A petition for special leave to appeal bearing SLP(C) No.19218 of 2016, Food Corporation of India Workers Union v. Union of India, was preferred against the judgment, about which it is said in Paragraph No.6 of the short counter affidavit that it was dismissed by the Supreme Court vide order dated 31.07.2017. It is further on pleaded in Paragraph No.7 of the short counter affidavit that in compliance with the orders of the Bombay High Court, the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India have granted exemption to the Corporation from the applicability of the prohibitory notifications issued under Section 10 of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, and, in consequence, permitting the Corporation to engage contract labour in the notified depots. The exemption notification is renewed by the Government after every two years, as the pleading goes.

11. It is further said that acting on the judgment of the Bombay High Court, last mentioned, the Ministry of Labour & Employment are actively considering de-notification of the notified depots of the Corporation. It is also pleaded that in compliance with the judgment of the Bombay High Court, last referred, the Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution, Government of India vide O.M. No.18013/2/2018-FC-3 dated 03.01.2020, have declared the Departmental Labour System a dying cadre. The Corporation Headquarters had communicated the said decision to the Field Officers vide circular dated 08.01.2020, clearly saying that there shall be no further employment under the Departmental Labour System.

12. In Paragraph No.10 of the short counter affidavit, a specific case has been pleaded to the effect that in view of declaration of the Departmental Labour System, a dying cadre, appointment of family members of a deceased employee, who was part of that system, on compassionate ground, has been placed in abeyance vide Corporation Headquarters circular dated 28.09.2020. It is then said that vide Circular No. IR(L)/4(9)/2021/ dated 28.07.2021, it was clarified by the Corporation Headquarters that while appointment on compassionate grounds to dependents of deceased employees, serving under the Departmental Labour System, would continue to be in abeyance, but appointment on compassionate basis in regard to Direct Payment System workers may be considered as per existing policy. About the petitioner's father, it is said that he was employed under the Departmental Labour System and died in the year 2009. The petitioner's name was registered in the compassionate appointment roster at the Divisional Office, Allahabad. However, the petitioner could not be appointed for want of vacancies. It is then said that as the Departmental Labour System has been declared a dying cadre, there exists no vacancy in the said system. The workers, already inducted in the said system, are functioning on supernumerary posts and the system will die out or vanish with the retirement, death or resignation of the existing workers in course of time. The Board of Directors of the Corporation have already approved the voluntary retirement scheme for workers in the Departmental Labour System, and the same will be implemented immediately after receipt of approval of the Government of India. It is pleaded that there is no scope for inducting or appointing any new worker under the said system, since such an appointment would mean that the system would never die out and the object of declaring it a dying cadre defeated.

13. The stand further taken in Paragraph No.14 of the short counter affidavit is that the Corporation are examining the possibility of considering the pending applications of the family members of deceased employees, functioning under the Departmental Labour System as on 03.01.2020 under the 'Direct Payment System' or the 'No Work No Pay System', subject to fulfillment of necessary conditions under the policy for compassionate appointment. The said system is also a regular labour system, which is current in the Corporation, and not being phased out.

14. In the counter affidavit subsequently filed, the basic stand taken is the same as that in the short counter affidavit, apart from certain pleadings in answer to the writ petition, of which due note would be taken during course of this judgment.

15. Heard Mr. Pradeep Kumar Srivastava, Advocate, holding brief of Mr. Pankaj Kumar Asthana, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. S. K. Mishra, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents.

16. It is submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that compassionate appointment had to be considered for him by the Corporation, according to the rules or the scheme in force when his father passed away, and not the scheme or rules that have been later on introduced. He has placed reliance for the purpose on the decision of the Supreme Court in Secretary to Government Department of Education (Primary) and others v. Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, (2021) 20 SCC 707, where it has been held in the context of the date of applicability of a scheme for compassionate appointment or a modified scheme, that it ought to apply with reference to the date of death of the employee in harness and not any other date, like the date when the dependent moves for consideration or the application is considered. It is also argued by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Pradeep Kumar Srivastava, that the fact that the deceased employee was a member of the Departmental Labour System, which has now been declared a dying cadre, is not at all relevant to the consideration of his right to compassionate appointment. He submits that the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment has to be considered against one or the other post in the establishment of the Corporation, suitable to his qualification that is part of a living cadre. In the submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioner, it is misconceived on the respondents' part to relate or identify the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment to the cadre to which his father belonged and then refuse to consider it by saying that his father's cadre is a dying one.

17. The object of compassionate appointment is to bring immediate relief to the dependent family members of an employee, who dies in harness. The fact that the deceased belonged to a cadre, which was declared dying, even on the date of his demise, would not affect the rights of the dependents under the Dying in Harness Rules or the scheme in force in the establishment to seek compassionate appointment, because the purpose of such an appointment is quite unreferable to the fact of abolition of the deceased employee's cadre.

18. Mr. S.K. Mishra, learned Counsel for the respondents, on the other hand, has refuted the submissions advanced by the learned Counsel for the petitioner and submits that his case was considered according to the scheme after his father's demise. He was placed on the compassionate appointment roster, but within the ceiling limit, no posts were available to appoint him. Later on, the Departmental Labour System, to which the petitioner's father belonged, has been declared a dying cadre, and under the schemes subsequently declared, dependents of employees of that cadre, who died in harness at whatever time, have limited avenues of consideration for appointment on compassionate basis. The petitioner can only be considered, according to the Corporation's policy for compassionate appointment, under the Direct Payment System as he is the dependent of a deceased employee of the Departmental Labour System, whose claim was there on 03.01.2020.

19. Upon hearing learned Counsel for the parties, this Court thinks that there is no force in the stand taken by the respondents that because the Departmental Labour System, of which the petitioner's father was a member, has now been declared a dying cadre, the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment cannot be considered for that reason alone. The fact that the employee, whose dependent claims appointment, belongs to a dying cadre, is completely irrelevant to the object of compassionate appointment, provided there is in force a scheme for such appointment on the date of death of the employee in harness. Why this is so, can be understood like this. The purpose of compassionate appointment is to extend an immediate helping hand to members of a deceased employee's family, who passes away in harness, plunging them into an unforeseen economic crisis. It is a mechanism to enable the survivors to swim through the tragedy.

20. The other principle of equal force is that compassionate appointment is not an inherent right, but the creature of a statutory rule or a scheme framed for the purpose and enforced in the employer's establishment. Now, if the deceased on the date of his demise in harness was the holder of a post that was already a dying cadre, the deceased would have certainly survived the abolition of the cadre until the time of his retirement, resignation from service or termination of employment in some other manner known to law. He would, while a member of a dying cadre, stay in service until the determination of his employment. He would continue to support his dependent family members until he exited employment. Therefore, the fact that an employee belonged to a dying cadre, when he died in harness, is quite irrelevant to his dependents' right to seek compassionate appointment, provided, of course, it is there under a scheme framed for the purpose or rules. In this connection, reference may be made to a Bench decision of the Himachal Pradesh in Bina Devi v. State of H.P. and another, 2010 SCC OnLine HP 4642. In Bina Devi (supra), V.K. Ahuja, J., speaking for the Division Bench, observed:

"2. It appears that the petitioner is on the third round of litigation. The application was rejected on the only ground that the husband of the petitioner was an employee of Nahan Foundry and the same had been declared as a dying cadre. For one thing, it has to be seen that policy regarding compassionate appointment as promulgated by the government on 18th January, 1990 and clarified thereafter on several occasions, does not make any difference as to whether a government servant is in a dying cadre or not. The only expression used in the policy is 'government servant'. There is no dispute that the husband of the petitioner was a government servant at the time of his death. In other words, it is a case of an employee dying while in government service. That apart, it is seen from Annexure P-8, order, dated 23rd December, 1989 in the matter of taking over of Nahan Foundry that "The employee taken over from erstwhile Nahan Foundry will be integrated in the cadre of corresponding categories of employees of PWD/IPH subject to provision of para-7."

21. There is another feature added to this case, different from one where a member of a cadre, that is declared dying, dies in harness, leaving behind an eligible dependent for compassionate appointment under a scheme or rule in force in the establishment. The feature in this case is that when the petitioner's father died, that is to say, on 21.01.2009, the Departmental Labour System was not at all a dying cadre. It was declared so by the Government of India O.M. dated 03.01.2020 pursuant to the judgment of the Bombay High Court in Court on its Own Motion (supra). The petitioner had claimed compassionate appointment promptly and his case was found fit by the Compassionate Appointment Committee by the report dated 13.01.2010. This was a time when the Departmental Labour System was not at all a dying cadre. The petitioner's right, if it can be called that, to be considered for compassionate appointment, would, therefore, crystallize on the date of his father's demise and the date when he was found fit to be appointed on compassionate ground by the Compassionate Appointment Committee. The supervening declaration of the Departmental Labour System, under which the petitioner's father was working when he died, would, therefore, not affect the petitioner's right at all. Therefore, the contention put forward on behalf of the Corporation refuting the petitioner's claim for consideration of appointment on compassionate basis on ground that his father belonged to the Departmental Labour System, later on declared a dying cadre, has to be rejected on double count.

22. Now, the other question that particularly survives for consideration is: If the petitioner's case is to be considered according to the Scheme, that was in force w.e.f. 16th January, 2013, or one that is now in force in accordance with the Corporation Headquarters Circular dated 28.07.2021, which the respondents say would apply to the petitioner's case; or, the petitioner's case is to be considered according to the scheme that was in force when his father died in harness? There is absolutely nothing said by parties about the Scheme that was in force governing compassionate appointment prior to the one dated 16th January, 2013. At the same time, it is not the respondents' case either that there was no scheme for compassionate appointment in force at the time when the petitioner's father died. The question whether the dependent of an employee, who dies in harness, would be entitled to have his case considered according to the scheme or rules in force on the date when the employee died, or according to the scheme or rules that are in force at a later date, say when the application for appointment is moved by the dependent, or when it actually comes up for consideration by the competent Authority, fell for consideration of this Court in Bechan Giri v. Union of India and others, 2023 SCC OnLine All 441. In Bechan Giri (supra), this Court had the guidance of the Supreme Court in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa (supra), which has clinched this issue. It would nevertheless be of profit to refer to Bechan Giri, where I held:

"24. The issue whether the claim of a dependent under the dying in harness rules would be considered in accordance with the Rule or the Scheme in force on the date of death of the employee in harness or at a subsequent date, like the one when a dependent makes an application, or the application comes up for consideration, was the subject matter of very elaborate guidance by their Lordships of the Supreme Court in Secretary to Govt. Department of Education (Primary) v. Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, AIR 2022 SC 402. The facts giving rise to what was held in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa (supra) may best be recounted in their Lordships' words, which read:

"8. Admittedly, the appointment on compassionate grounds in the State of Karnataka is governed by a set of Rules known as Karnataka Civil Services (Appointment on Compassionate grounds) Rules, 1996, issued in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 3(1) read with Section 8 of the Karnataka State Civil Services Act, 1978. The Rules as they stood, on the date on which the sister of the respondent died in harness, did not include an unmarried brother, within the definition of the expression "dependant of a deceased Government servant" under Rule 2(1)(a) of the said Rules vis-a-vis a deceased female unmarried Government servant. But it was only by way of an amendment proposed under a draft Notification dated 20.06.2012 which was given effect under the final Notification bearing No. DPAR 55 SCA 2012, Bangalore dated 11.07.2012 that an unmarried brother of a deceased female unmarried Government servant was included within the definition. There is no dispute about the fact that the sister of the respondent died as an unmarried female Government servant, but on 8.12.2010, before the amendment was made to the Rules."

25. In answering the issue whether the amended rules that came into force after the death of the government servant involved, would have retrospective operation to enure for the benefit of the dependent unmarried brother of the deceased unmarried female government servant in that case, or the amendment would apply prospectively with effect from the date when it came into force, it was held by their Lordships:

"9. To hold that the amendment will have retrospective application, the High Court as well as the Tribunal relied upon a Judgment of the Division Bench of the High Court of Karnataka in State of Karnataka v. Akkamahadevamma, decided on 18.11.2010 in Writ Petition Nos. 20914 of 2010 etc. : (Reported in (2011) 2 AIR Kant R 118). But it should be pointed out at the outset that the Judgment of the High Court in Akkamahadevamma arose out of an amendment to the Karnataka Civil Services (General Recruitment) (57th Amendment) Rules, 2000. By the Amendment made on 30.03.2010 to the said Rules, grandson, unmarried granddaughter, daughter in law, widowed daughter and widowed granddaughter were included within the definition of the expression "members of the family" under Explanation-2 of Rule 9. But the amendment so made on 30.03.2010 expanding the definition of the expression "members of the family" was triggered by an Order of the Tribunal which held the unamended rule to be unconstitutional. It is in that context that the amendment made on 30.03.2010 to the Rules issued on 23.11.2000 was held by the High Court to be retrospective in nature. It must also be remembered that the expanded definition was with respect to project displaced persons. The right conferred upon a project displaced person stands on a different footing from the entitlement of a person to seek appointment on compassionate grounds. In any case an amendment brought forth, on the basis of a Judgment of a Court or Tribunal, holding the exclusion of certain categories of persons to be violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution, may receive an interpretation such as the one proposed by the High Court in Akkamahadevamma. But the same may not be applicable to amendments of the nature that we are concerned with in this case.

10. x x x

11. Be that as it may, Sh. Jayanth Muthraj, learned senior counsel appearing for the respondent pleaded that there are two lines of Judgments of this Court, one taking the view that the Rules/Scheme in force on the date of death of the Government servant would govern the field and the other holding that the Rules/scheme in force on the date of consideration of the claim would govern the field. Unable to reconcile this conflict, a two Member Bench of this Court, by its Order dated 08.02.2019 in State Bank of India v. Sheo Shankar Tewari1, has referred the matter for consideration by a larger Bench. Sh. Jayanth Muthraj, learned senior counsel therefore made a request that the present appeal may either be placed along with the reference or await a decision on the above reference.

12. But we do not consider it necessary to do so. It is no doubt true that there are, as contended by the learned senior Counsel for the respondent, two lines of decisions rendered by Benches of equal strength. But the apparent conflict between those two lines of decisions, was on account of the difference between an amendment by which an existing benefit was withdrawn or diluted and an amendment by which the existing benefit was enhanced. The interpretation adopted by this Court varied depending upon the nature of the amendment. This can be seen by presenting the decisions referred to by the learned senior counsel for the respondent in a tabular column as follows:

26. There is an elaborate tabulated reference to six cases decided by the Supreme Court, where seemingly varying views have been expressed on the issue whether the scheme in force at the time of death of the deceased employee would apply for the purpose of consideration of the dependent's claim for compassionate appointment or the Rule/Scheme in force subsequently enforced, after the death of the government servant, at the time when the application for compassionate appointment is made or comes up for consideration. For brevity's sake, the table set out in Paragraph No. 12 of the report in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa is not being quoted.

27. Two other cases after the tabulated analysis have been considered in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa, where it is observed:

"13. Apart from the aforesaid decisions, our attention was also drawn to the decision of the three member Bench in *State of Madhya Pradesh v. Amit Shrivas*2. But that case arose out of a claim made by the dependant of a deceased Government servant, who was originally appointed on a work charged establishment and who later claimed to have become a permanent employee. The Court went into the distinction between an employee with a permanent status and an employee with a regular status. Despite the claim of the dependant that his father had become a permanent employee, this Court held in that case that as per the policy prevailing on the date of death, a work charged/contingency fund employee was not entitled to compassionate appointment. While holding so, the Bench reiterated the opinion in Indian Bank v. Promila.

14. The aforesaid decision in Amit Shrivas (supra) was followed by a two member Bench of this Court in the yet to be reported decision in the State of Madhya Pradesh v. Ashish Awasthi decided on 18.11.2021 : (Reported in AIR OnLine 2021 SC 1047)."

28. After noticing these seemingly divergent opinions on the issue, the Court has proceeded to observe in Bheemesh alias Bheemappa:

"15. Let us now come to the reference pending before the larger Bench. In State Bank of India v. Sheo Shankar Tewari (supra), a two member Bench of this Court noted the apparent conflict between State Bank of India v. Raj Kumar and MGB Gramin Bank on the one hand and Canara Bank v. M. Mahesh Kumar on the other hand and referred the matter for the consideration of a larger Bench. The order of reference to a larger Bench was actually dated 8.02.2019.

16. It was only after the aforesaid reference to a larger Bench that this Court decided at least four cases, respectively in (i) Indian Bank v. Promila; (ii) N.C. Santhosh v. State of Karnataka; (iii) State of Madhya Pradesh v. Amit Shrivas; and (iv) State of Madhya Pradesh v. Ashish Awasthi. Out of these four decisions, N.C. Santosh (supra) was by a three member Bench, which actually took note of the reference pending before the larger Bench.

17. Keeping the above in mind, if we critically analyse the way in which this Court has proceeded to interpret the applicability of a new or modified Scheme that comes into force after the death of the employee, we may notice an interesting feature. In cases where the benefit under the existing Scheme was taken away or substituted with a lesser benefit, this Court directed the application of the new Scheme. But in cases where the benefits under an existing Scheme were enlarged by a modified Scheme after the death of the employee, this Court applied only the Scheme that was in force on the date of death of the employee. This is fundamentally due to the fact that compassionate appointment was always considered to be an exception to the normal method of recruitment and perhaps looked down upon with lesser compassion for the individual and greater concern for the rule of law.

18. If compassionate appointment is one of the conditions of service and is made automatic upon the death of an employee in harness without any kind of scrutiny whatsoever, the same would be treated as a vested right in law. But it is not so. Appointment on compassionate grounds is not automatic, but subject to strict scrutiny of various parameters including the financial position of the family, the economic dependence of the family upon the deceased employee and the avocation of the other members of the family. Therefore, no one can claim to have a vested right for appointment on compassionate grounds. This is why some of the decisions which we have tabulated above appear to have interpreted the applicability of revised Schemes differently, leading to conflict of opinion. Though there is a conflict as to whether the Scheme in force on the date of death of the employee would apply or the Scheme in force on the date of consideration of the application of appointment on compassionate grounds would apply, there is certainly no conflict about the underlying concern reflected in the above decisions. Wherever the modified Schemes diluted the existing benefits, this Court applied those benefits, but wherever the modified Scheme granted larger benefits, the old Scheme was made applicable.

19. The important aspect about the conflict of opinion is that it revolves around two dates, namely, (i) date of death of the employee; and (ii) date of consideration of the application of the dependant. Out of these two dates, only one, namely, the date of death alone is a fixed factor that does not change. The next date namely the date of consideration of the claim, is something that depends upon many variables such as the date of filing of application, the date of attaining of majority of the claimant and the date on which the file is put up to the competent authority. There is no principle of statutory interpretation which permits a decision on the applicability of a rule, to be based upon an indeterminate or variable factor. Let us take for instance a hypothetical case where 2 Government servants die in harness on January 01, 2020. Let us assume that the dependants of these 2 deceased Government servants make applications for appointment on 2 different dates say 29.05.2020 and 02.06.2020 and a modified Scheme comes into force on June 01, 2020. If the date of consideration of the claim is taken to be the criteria for determining whether the modified Scheme applies or not, it will lead to two different results, one in respect of the person who made the application before June 1, 2020 and another in respect of the person who applied after June 01, 2020. In other words, if two employees die on the same date and the dependants of those employees apply on two different dates, one before the modified Scheme comes into force and another thereafter, they will come in for differential treatment if the date of application and the date of consideration of the same are taken to be the deciding factor. A rule of interpretation which produces different results, depending upon what the individuals do or do not do, is inconceivable. This is why, the managements of a few banks, in the cases tabulated above, have introduced a rule in the modified scheme itself, which provides for all pending applications to be decided under the new/modified scheme. Therefore, we are of the considered view that the interpretation as to the applicability of a modified Scheme should depend only upon a determinate and fixed criteria such as the date of death and not an indeterminate and variable factor.

20. Coming to the case on hand, the employee died on 8.12.2010 and the amendment to the Rules was proposed by way of a draft notification on 20.06.2012. The final notification was issued on 11.07.2012. Merely because the application for appointment was taken up for consideration after the issue of the amendment, the respondent could not have sought the benefit of the amendment. The Judgment of the Division Bench of the Karnataka High Court in Akkamaha-devamma on which the Tribunal as well as the High Court placed reliance, was not applicable to the case of compass-ionate appointments, as the amendment in Akkamahadevamma came as a result of the existing rule being declared to be ultra vires Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution."

29. Here, there is no issue that in the Scheme in question, there is no provision at all about consideration of pending applications for compassionate appointment made prior to the introduction of the Scheme w.e.f. 15th March, 2019. This is logically so because the present case is not one where there was apparently an older scheme granting some kind of limited right to a consideration for compassionate appointment in force or a right to an ex-gratia payment, whereunder an application could be made by the dependent of a deceased employee. What appears from the facts here is that prior to 15th March, 2019, there was no scheme at all in the establishment of the respondent Bank in force extending any kind of a right to compassionate appointment, howsoever limited or circumscribed. The right to compassionate appointment upon introduction of the Scheme w.e.f. 15th March, 2019 was a new found right. In the absence, therefore, of any provision in the Scheme for whatever reason to provide rights for dependents of an employee, who died prior to its introduction, asking for compassionate appointment, there could be no right to compassionate appointment. It has already been pointed out that the right to compassionate appointment is not an inherent right, but one that flows from a Rule or Scheme being in force at the time of the death of an employee in harness. There could be more reason to supply in aid of that interpretation. Once it is held that the right to compassionate appointment is not inherent, but the creature of a Rule, the right of whatever kind it is, originates and culminates on the date of death of the employee in harness. There is no fact surviving the death of an employee in harness on the foot of which, a Scheme or Rule for compassionate appointment introduced at a later date, may afford the dependent a right to consideration. Of course, that kind of a right may arise if the Scheme provides for that right on its own terms. Here, the words employed in Clause 8.1, or for that matter Clause 8.2 of the Scheme, do not envisage cognizance of cases of dependents, where death of an employee in harness has taken place before the Scheme was enforced in the Bank. The employment of the expression in Clause 8.1 "normally be considered upto five years from the date of death" refers to the period of five years of death on a date when the Scheme was already in force in the Bank; not five years or a little short of that time antedating the introduction of the Scheme."

23. Much unlike Bechan Giri, in this case, there was definitely a scheme about which there is no cavil between parties regarding compassionate appointment to dependents of employees of the Corporation, including those working under the Departmental Labour System when the petitioner's father died on 21.01.2009.

24. A perusal of the writ petition shows that the petitioner had made very early and consistent efforts to seek appointment and his case was found fit for appointment by the Compassionate Appointment Committee on 13.01.2010. In the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the Corporation, the contents of Paragraph No.13 of the writ petition have not at all been denied. In Paragraph No.18, all that is said is that these are matter of record. In Paragraph No.13 of the writ petition, it is asserted that the economic condition and source of income of the deceased's family and the petitioner are such that they live in hardship, making compassionate appointment for them a necessity. This fact has been endorsed, according to the petitioner, by the report submitted by the Compassionate Appointment Committee. These facts are not in dispute. The respondents say that the petitioner was placed in a roster for compassionate appointment for the Allahabad Depot and placed at Roster Sr. No.14. It is also the respondents' case that the petitioner could be considered for compassionate appointment subject to availability of posts under the 5% vacancies for direct recruitment and set apart for compassionate appointment. This percentage of vacancy is, according to Paragraph No.7(b) of the Scheme, introduced by the Government of India vide Office Memorandum dated 16th January, 2013.

25. To the understanding of this Court, this restriction of 5% out of the vacancies is meant for Group-C posts under the Scheme of 2013, and, in any case, that is not the scheme that would govern consideration of the petitioner's case. His case has to be considered according to the Scheme that was in force when his father died on 21.01.2009. No later scheme would govern consideration of the petitioner's case. On merits, the petitioner's case has already been recommended and found fit for consideration by the Compassionate Appointment Committee, a position admitted to the respondents.

26. At the same time, it is true and that is verily the law that the right to compassionate appointment is not a right strico sensu. An employer can consider many factors before deciding to grant compassionate appointment. The most predominant of these is the economic crisis that the death of the breadwinner has brought on the bereaved family. Here, however, the petitioner's case has been found fit by the designated Committee for consideration, but the petitioner has not been offered an appointment on the pretext: firstly, that there was no vacancy available, and, later on, on ground that now the Departmental Labour System, to which the petitioner's deceased father belonged, has been declared a dying cadre. These considerations we have already dealt with and do not find them to be relevant, particularly, the one about the 'dying cadre'. The question of availability of vacancy would be a matter that would depend on the scheme, as already said, in force in the respondents' establishment on the date of the petitioner's father's death.

27. In conclusion, it is the respondents, who have to consider the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment, but they have to do so on a correct understanding of his rights in this regard and what the law is, that would govern their decision. This Court has clarified the principles by which the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment has to be considered by the respondents. Since, the respondents, till date, have not taken a decision about the petitioner's claim for compassionate appointment, they ought to do that now; and do that strictly according to law and the guidance in this judgment.

28. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed. A mandamus is issued to the respondents to consider the petitioner's case for compassionate appointment within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment, in accordance with law and bearing in mind the guidance here.

29. There shall be no order as to costs.

30. Let a copy of this order be communicated to the Assistant General Manager (Industrial Relation), Food Corporation of India, Lucknow, the Regional Manager, Food Corporation of India, Lucknow and the District Manager, Food Corporation of India, Allahabad by the Registrar (Compliance).

(2024) 2 ILRA 828
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 01.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 9872 of 2023

Ram Sewak Yadav (Retired Pump Attendant) ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Puneet Bhadauria

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Saurabh Tiwari

A. U.P. Nagar Palika Non-Centralized Services Retirement Benefits Regulations, 1984 – Reg. 2(m), 3 & 13(2) – U.P. Qualifying Service for Pension and Validation Act, 2021 – Applicability. Employees of Nagar Palika Parishad (Non-Centralized Services) are governed exclusively by Regulations of 1984, framed under Ss. 297(2) & 300(2) of U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916 – Act of 2021 has no application.

B. Pension – Qualifying Service – Ad hoc/Daily-wage service followed by Regularization – Whether reckonable. Regulation 2(m) of 1984 Regulations substantially pari materia with Rule 3(8) of U.P. Retirement Benefit Rules, 1961 – Supreme Court in Prem Singh Vs St. of U.P., (2019) 10 SCC 516 read down restrictive provisions and held continuous service in work-charged/non-pensionable establishment followed by regularization to be "qualifying service" – Principle extended to daily wagers/ad hoc employees later regularized (Kallu Ali Vs St. of U.P., 2022 (4) AWC 3840).

Held : Para 17 – Petitioner's services from 02.09.1988 (ad hoc appointment) till 25.03.2006 (date of regularization) must be reckoned as qualifying service along with regular service for determining pension, gratuity and other post retiral benefits. Non-consideration of such service is manifest error.
Mandamus issued – Respondents directed to revise and re-determine pensionary dues including arrears, within 2 months; arrears to be paid within 1 month thereafter, failing which interest @ 6% p.a. payable.

Writ Petition Allowed with costs.

List of Cases cited:

1. Prem Singh Vs St. of U.P., (2019) 10 SCC 516

2. Dr. Shyam Kumar Vs St. of U.P., 2023 (3) ADJ 138 (LB)

3. Kallu Ali Vs St. of U.P., 2022 (4) AWC 3840

4. Hari Shankar Asopa Vs St. of U.P., 1989 (1) UPLBEC 501

5. Yashwant Hari Katakkar Vs U.O.I., (1996) 7 SCC 113

6. VS Sukumaran Vs St. of Kerala, (2020) 8 SCC 106

7. Indian Aluminium Co. Vs St. of Kerala, (1996) 7 SCC 637

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition has been instituted, praying that a mandamus be issued to the respondents to grant post retiral benefits to the petitioner, a Pump Attendant in the Water Supply Division of the Nagar Palika Parishad, District Etawah, after taking into consideration his ad hoc services.

2. According to the petitioner's case, he was 'appointed' as a Pump Attendant in the Water Supply Division of the Nagar Palika Parishad, Etawah on ad hoc basis w.e.f. 02.09.1988. His services were regularized on 26.03.2006. He retired from service on 31.07.2022, upon attaining the age of superannuation. It is the petitioner's case that upon retirement, he claimed his post retiral dues, which were verified by the Deputy Director, Local Fund Audit Department, U.P., Kanpur on 13.02.2023.

3. The grievance of the petitioner is that despite the said verification and his entitlement, he has not been paid his post retiral benefits. It is averred in Paragraph No.7 of the writ petition that the respondents have reckoned the petitioner's entitlement to post retiral benefits from the date of his regularization and not the date of his appointment. It is the petitioner's case that though he is entitled to receive pension and other retiral benefits, reckoning his entire length of service from the date of his initial appointment, the respondents have declined to grant him pension and other commensurate benefits, taking into consideration the entire length of his service; not just the period of service post regularization.

4. Respondent No.4, that is to say, the Executive Officer, Nagar Palika Parishad, Etawah has filed a counter affidavit and the stand taken is that the petitioner's right to receive pension would be governed by the Uttar Pradesh Nagar Palika Non Centralized Services Retirement Benefits Regulations, 1984 (for short, 'the Regulations of 1984'). It is averred that the petitioner was initially engaged as a daily-wager on 02.09.1988, which was not a pensionable post. His services were regularized on 26.03.2006 i.e. after 1st April, 2005. As such, the petitioner is not entitled to receive any retirement pension in accordance with Regulations 3 and 4 of the Regulations of 1984. It is also urged that the petitioner did not hold a 'pensionable post' as defined in Regulation 2(k) of the Regulations of 1984 nor has he rendered 'qualifying service' under Regulation 2(m) of the Regulations last mentioned.

5. The thrust of the fourth respondent's case, set up in the counter affidavit, is that the petitioner did not hold any substantive or pensionable post prior to 26.03.2006, when his services were regularized. His services rendered earlier were ad hoc in nature and not services rendered against any pensionable post. The petitioner's appointment to a post came after 01.04.2005, and, therefore, under Regulation 3(4) of the Regulations of 1984, the petitioner is not entitled to pension and gratuity by virtue of Regulation 13(2). It is also pleaded that by an order dated 13.02.2023 passed by the Deputy Director, Local Fund Audit Department, U.P., Kanpur, the petitioner has been rightly denied sanction of pension and gratuity in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 13(2) of the Regulations of 1984, an order that the petitioner has not challenged. The said order has become final and in the absence of a challenge to the said order, no mandamus can be issued to pay the petitioner his pension and gratuity.

6. Heard Mr. Puneet Bhadauria, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Saurabh Tiwari, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Nagar Palika Parishad, respondent Nos.3 and 4.

7. The relief in this writ petition, though rather vaguely worded as one seeking grant of post retiral benefits, after computing ad hoc services rendered by the petitioner, is one that seeks the grant of pension and gratuity upon reckoning the petitioner's period of engagement as an ad hoc employee together with the period of service post regularization. It is common ground between parties that the petitioner's entitlement to receive his pension and gratuity, in fact, all retirement benefits, are governed by the Regulations of 1984. This commonality of stand is evident upon a conjoint perusal of Paragraph No.15 of the writ petition and Paragraph No.9 of the counter affidavit. The respondent-Nagar Palika Parishad, go as far as saying that the Uttar Pradesh Qualifying Service for Pension and Validation Act, 2021 (for short, 'the Act of 2021') will not apply to employees of the Nagar Palika Parishad, belonging to the Non-Centralized Services, for whom the Regulations of 1984 have been framed by the Nagar Palika Parishad in exercise of powers conferred by Section 297(2) and sub-Section (2) of Section 300 of the U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916 (for short, 'the Act of 1916').

8. It is the submission of Mr. Puneet Bhadauria, learned Counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is entitled to reckon his services on ad hoc basis rendered in the establishment of the Nagar Palika Parishad together with his services rendered post regularization. To support the aforesaid submission of his, Mr. Bhadauria relies upon the interpretation of Section 2 of the Act of 2021, which he submits, has been read down by a learned Single Judge of this Court in Dr. Shyam Kumar v. State of U.P. and another, 2023 (3) ADJ 138 (LB). The issue before the learned Single Judge in Dr. Shyam Kumar (supra) arose in the context of different categories of employees, such as work-charged employees, daily-wagers, ad hoc employees and seasonal collection peon/ amin. All these various categories of employees were not regular employees in their various establishments, appointed on either temporary or permanent posts. All of them were engaged on one or the other kind of terms of employment, such as work-charged employees or daily-wagers or ad hoc with the common genre being that the appointment was dehors the Rules and not an appointment temporary or permanent on a sanctioned post in the establishment. They were regularized in service later on, but wanted their services for the period that they were not part of the establishment, in one capacity or the other, to be counted for the purpose of granting them post retiral benefits, treating it as qualifying service. Their claim was inspired by the decision of the Supreme Court in Prem Singh v. State of Uttar Pradesh and others, (2019) 10 SCC 516.

9. Now, Prem Singh (supra) was a case, where their Lordships of the Supreme Court were confronted with the validity of the Uttar Pradesh Retirement Benefit Rules, 1961 (for short, 'the Rules of 1961') and the Civil Services Regulations, which did not entitle payment of pension to such employees, who had been part of the work-charged establishment, but not temporary or permanent employees, appointed against a post in accordance with Rules. It was in the context of the said Rules that the Supreme Court held in Prem Singh, of which note has been taken by the learned Single Judge in Dr. Shyam Kumar:

"30. We are not impressed by the aforesaid submissions. The appointment of the work-charged employee in question had been made on monthly salary and they were required to cross the efficiency bar also. How their services are qualitatively different from regular employees? No material indicating qualitative difference has been pointed out except making bald statement. The appointment was not made for a particular project which is the basic concept of the work-charged employees. Rather, the very concept of work-charged employment has been misused by offering the employment on exploitative terms for the work which is regular and perennial in nature. The work-charged employees had been subjected to transfer from one place to another like regular employees as apparent from documents placed on record. In Narain Dutt Sharma v. State of U.P. [CA No. _____2019 arising out of SLP (C) No. 5775 of 2018] the appellants were allowed to cross efficiency bar, after '8' years of continuous service, even during the period of work-charged services. Narain Dutt Sharma, the appellant, was appointed as a work-charged employee as Gej Mapak with effect from 15-9-1978. Payment used to be made monthly but the appointment was made in the pay scale of Rs 200-320. Initially, he was appointed in the year 1978 on a fixed monthly salary of Rs 205 per month. They were allowed to cross efficiency bar also as the benefit of pay scale was granted to them during the period they served as work-charged employees they served for three to four decades and later on services have been regularised time to time by different orders. However, the services of some of the appellants in few petitions/appeals have not been regularised even though they had served for several decades and ultimately reached the age of superannuation.

31. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, it was unfair on the part of the State Government and its officials to take work from the employees on the work-charged basis. They ought to have resorted to an appointment on regular basis. The taking of work on the work-charged basis for long amounts to adopting the exploitative device. Later on, though their services have been regularised. However, the period spent by them in the work-charged establishment has not been counted towards the qualifying service. Thus, they have not only been deprived of their due emoluments during the period they served on less salary in work-charged establishment but have also been deprived of counting of the period for pensionary benefits as if no services had been rendered by them. The State has been benefitted by the services rendered by them in the heydays of their life on less salary in work-charged establishment.

32. In view of the Note appended to Rule 3(8) of the 1961 Rules, there is a provision to count service spent on work-charged, contingencies or non-pensionable service, in case, a person has rendered such service in a given between period of two temporary appointments in the pensionable establishment or has rendered such service in the interregnum two periods of temporary and permanent employment. The work-charged service can be counted as qualifying service for pension in the aforesaid exigencies.

33. The question arises whether the imposition of rider that such service to be counted has to be rendered in-between two spells of temporary or temporary and permanent service is legal and proper. We find that once regularisation had been made on vacant posts, though the employee had not served prior to that on temporary basis, considering the nature of appointment, though it was not a regular appointment it was made on monthly salary and thereafter in the pay scale of work-charged establishment the efficiency bar was permitted to be crossed. It would be highly discriminatory and irrational because of the rider contained in the Note to Rule 3(8) of the 1961 Rules, not to count such service particularly, when it can be counted, in case such service is sandwiched between two temporary or in-between temporary and permanent services. There is no rhyme or reason not to count the service of work-charged period in case it has been rendered before regularisation. In our opinion, an impermissible classification has been made under Rule 3(8). It would be highly unjust, impermissible and irrational to deprive such employees benefit of the qualifying service. Service of work-charged period remains the same for all the employees, once it is to be counted for one class, it has to be counted for all to prevent discrimination. The classification cannot be done on the irrational basis and when respondents are themselves counting period spent in such service, it would be highly discriminatory not to count the service on the basis of flimsy classification. The rider put on that work-charged service should have preceded by temporary capacity is discriminatory and irrational and creates an impermissible classification.

34. As it would be unjust, illegal and impermissible to make aforesaid classification to make Rule 3(8) valid and non-discriminatory, we have to read down the provisions of Rule 3(8) and hold that services rendered even prior to regularisation in the capacity of work-charged employees, contingency paid fund employees or non-pensionable establishment shall also be counted towards the qualifying service even if such service is not preceded by temporary or regular appointment in a pensionable establishment.

35. In view of the Note appended to Rule 3(8), which we have read down, the provision contained in Regulation 370 of the Civil Services Regulations has to be struck down as also the instructions contained in Para 669 of the Financial Handbook.

36. There are some of the employees who have not been regularised in spite of having rendered the services for 30-40 or more years whereas they have been superannuated. As they have worked in the work-charged establishment, not against any particular project, their services ought to have been regularised under the Government instructions and even as per the decision of this Court in State of Karnataka v. Umadevi (3) [State of Karnataka v. Umadevi (3), (2006) 4 SCC 1 : 2006 SCC (L&S) 753] . This Court in the said decision has laid down that in case services have been rendered for more than ten years without the cover of the Court's order, as one-time measure, the services be regularised of such employees. In the facts of the case, those employees who have worked for ten years or more should have been regularised. It would not be proper to regulate them for consideration of regularisation as others have been regularised, we direct that their services be treated as a regular one. However, it is made clear that they shall not be entitled to claiming any dues of difference in wages had they been continued in service regularly before attaining the age of superannuation. They shall be entitled to receive the pension as if they have retired from the regular establishment and the services rendered by them right from the day they entered the work-charged establishment shall be counted as qualifying service for purpose of pension.

37. In view of reading down Rule 3(8) of the U.P. Retirement Benefits Rules, 1961, we hold that services rendered in the work-charged establishment shall be treated as qualifying service under the aforesaid rule for grant of pension. The arrears of pension shall be confined to three years only before the date of the order. Let the admissible benefits be paid accordingly within three months. Resultantly, the appeals filed by the employees are allowed and filed by the State are dismissed."

10. After the decision of the Supreme Court in Prem Singh, the State Legislature of Uttar Pradesh enacted the Act of 2021, which is castigated to have attempted a brazen legislative overruling of the Supreme Court's judgment in Prem Singh, without removing the defect or the vices that were read down by the Supreme Court in Prem Singh to save the Rules of 1961 and the Civil Services Regulations from being struck down as ultra vires. It was in the context of the aforesaid fact that Section 2 of the Act of 2021 was read down by my esteemed Brother Vivek Chaudhary in Dr. Shyam Kumar in terms of the following remarks:

"6. .....

Thus, the Supreme Court held that since the State Government has proceeded to take work on long term basis from the work charge employees, without there being a rational classification between the work performed by such work charge employees and the regular employees of the State Government, the Rules are required to be read down, as otherwise they would be arbitrary and, thus, gave benefit of the services rendered as work charge employees in counting the period of qualifying service for pensionary benefits.

7. Now, by the Act of 2021, the effect of the aforesaid judgment of the Supreme Court is attempted to be undone by the State Government. It has come up with Section 2, which provides:

"2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any rule, regulation or Government order for the purposes of entitlement of pension to all officer, "Qualifying Service" means the services rendered by an officer appointed on a temporary or permanent post in accordance with the provisions of the service rules prescribed by the Government for the post."

Thus, as per section 2 of the Act of 2021, if a person was not appointed on a temporary or permanent post as per service Rules, his services would not be qualifying service for the purposes of pension. Law with regard to the manner in which the Legislature can nullify or modify the impact of a judgment is settled since long. Suffice is to refer to the case of Indian Aluminium Co. and others vs. State of Kerala and others (1996) 7 SCC 637. In the said case, after considering the entire law on subject, the Supreme Court in Para 56 of the judgment enumerates the principles, which read:

"56. From a resume of the above decisions the following principles would emerge:

(1) The adjudication of the rights of the parties is the essential judicial function. Legislature has to lay down the norms of conduct or rules which will govern the parties and the transactions and require the court to give effect to them;

(2) The Constitution delineated delicate balance in the exercise of the sovereign power by the legislature, executive and judiciary;

(3) In a democracy governed by rule of law, the legislature exercises the power under Articles 245 and 246 and other companion articles read with the entries in the respective lists in the Seventh Schedule to make the law which includes power to amend the law.

(4) Courts in their concern and endeavour to preserve judicial power equally must be guarded to maintain the delicate balance devised by the Constitution between the three sovereign functionaries. In order that rule of law permeates to fulfil constitutional objectives of establishing an egalitarian social order, the respective sovereign functionaries need free play in their joints so that the march of social progress and order remains unimpeded. The smooth balance built with delicacy must always be maintained;

(5) In its anxiety to safeguard judicial power, it is unnecessary to be overzealous and conjure up incursion into the judicial preserve invalidating the valid law competently made;

(6) The court, therefore, needs to carefully scan the law to find out: (a) whether the vice pointed out by the court and invalidity suffered by previous law is cured complying with the legal and constitutional requirements; (b) whether the legislature has competence to validate the law; (c) whether such validation is consistent with the rights guaranteed in Part III of the Constitution.

(7) The court does not have the power to validate an invalid law or to legalise impost of tax illegally made and collected or to remove the norm of invalidation or provide a remedy. These are not judicial functions but the exclusive province of the legislature. Therefore, they are not encroachment on judicial power.

(8) In exercising legislative power, the legislature by mere declaration, without anything more, cannot directly overrule, revise or override a judicial decision. It can render judicial decision ineffective by enacting valid law on the topic within its legislative field fundamentally altering or changing its character retrospectively. The changed or altered conditions are such that the previous decision would not have been rendered by the court, if those conditions had existed at the time of declaring the law as invalid. It is also empowered to give effect to retrospective legislation with a deeming date or with effect from a particular date. The legislature can change the character of the tax or duty from impermissible to permissible tax but the tax or levy should answer such character and the legislature is competent to recover the invalid tax validating such a tax on removing the invalid base for recovery from the subject or render the recovery from the State ineffectual. It is competent for the legislature to enact the law with retrospective effect and authorise its agencies to levy and collect the tax on that basis, make the imposition of levy collected and recovery of the tax made valid, notwithstanding the declaration by the court or the direction given for recovery thereof.

(9) The consistent thread that runs through all the decisions of this Court is that the legislature cannot directly overrule the decision or make a direction as not binding on it but has power to make the decision ineffective by removing the base on which the decision was rendered, consistent with the law of the Constitution and the legislature must have competence to do the same."

8. The law long settled is that the Legislature can render judicial decision ineffective by enacting valid law on the topic within its legislative field by fundamentally altering or changing its character retrospectively. The changed or altered conditions should be such that the previous decision would not have been rendered by the court, if those conditions had existed at the time of declaring the law as invalid.

9. Therefore, the question now before this Court is whether by bringing Act of 2021, the State Government has done away with the vice pointed out by the Supreme Court in case of Prem Singh (supra). In the said judgment, the Supreme Court found that the State Government has adopted exploitative labour practice by taking work of regular employees from work charge employees on long term basis without any rationale classification while refusing them benefits available to regular employees. Supreme Court specifically held that the State Government can not get involved in corrupt labour practices. On the aforesaid grounds, the Supreme Court read down the provisions of Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961 and struck down Regulation 370 of Civil Services Regulations and Para 669 of the Financial Handbook.

10. It is the duty of State to create new temporary or permanent posts as per its needs and make appointments on the same. Law also permits State to appoint daily wagers or work charge employees, but only when the work is for short period or is in a work charge establishment for fixed duration. Law does not permit the State to take work for long period, extending even for the entire working life of a person, on temporary or work charge basis. In such cases, it is the duty of State to create new posts and make appointments, giving all benefits of regular employees. Otherwise, State would be found to be adopting exploitative labour practice. This is the vice pointed out by the Supreme Court in Prem Singh's case (supra), and instead of removing the same, the State by Section 2 of the Act of 2021 has extended the sphere of its illegality. By Section 2 of the Act of 2021, it desires to take benefit of its own failure of creating posts in time and making appointments on the same, by not counting the said period of such service for pensionary benefits. State still fails to explain the rationale on the basis of which it has created this new classification and the manner in which, by the amended provision, it has removed the irrationality.

In case Section 2 of the Act of 2021 is given a literal meaning it would mean that services rendered by a person on a temporary or permanent post alone can be counted for pension. The same would again be an exploitative device and labour malpractice, as by this, the State Government is again attempting to use persons to work for it on long term basis, just like regular employees, without giving them benefits they are entitled to as regular employees. The very vice pointed by the Supreme Court in the judgment of Prem Singh (supra) with regard to work charge employees is, in fact, now made applicable to even larger number of employees and extended to daily wagers and other persons not working on a temporary or a permanent post including, work charge employees.

In case of V. Sukumaran vs. State of Kerala (2020) 8 SCC 106, the Supreme Court held:

"22. We begin by, once again, emphasising that the pensionary provisions must be given a liberal construction as a social welfare measure. This does not imply that something can be given contrary to rules, but the very basis for grant of such pension must be kept in mind i.e. to facilitate a retired government employee to live with dignity in his winter of life and, thus, such benefit should not be unreasonably denied to an employee, more so on technicalities."

Thus, again to save Section 2 of the Act of 2021 from the vice/arbitrariness, in the spirit of the judgment of Prem Singh (supra), the word 'post' is required to be diluted to save it from arbitrariness and hence, the word 'post' used in Section 2 of the Act of 2021, be it temporary or permanent, has to be read down as 'services rendered by a government employee, be it of temporary or permanent nature'.

11. The other case laws cited by learned counsel for the petitioners as well as by learned Standing Counsel, as noted above, are not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the present cases, as in none of the above cited cases, interpretation of Section 2 of the Act of 2021 is considered.

12. In the light of aforesaid, since Section 2 of the Act of 2021 also suffers from the vice pointed out by the Supreme Court in the case of Prem Singh (supra), hence, to be brought out of arbitrariness, it is read down and services rendered on temporary or permanent post is read as services rendered by a government employee, be it of temporary or permanent nature. Therefore, it is held that the petitioners are also entitled for the benefit of the judgment of Prem Singh (supra). All the impugned orders are set aside."

11. It must be observed that the above remarks, though on principle ones that cover the case of all kind of employees, who were not part of the regular establishment, selected in accordance with the Rules, were made in the context of work-charged employees. But, the case of the daily-wager was also considered on the same touchstone by his Lordship and in regard to them it was observed:

"14. It is settled since long that daily wager employees are entitled to pensionary benefits counting their services from the date of their initial appointment and not from the date of their regularization. Suffice would be to refer to the judgment in cases of Hari Shankar Asopa vs. State of U.P. and another, 1989(1) UPLBEC 501; Yashwant Hari Katakkar vs. Union of India and others, 1996 (7) SCC 113; and Prem Singh (supra). In fact earlier they were covered by Rule 2 of U.P. Retirement Benefit Rules, 1961 and other Civil Services Regulations.

15. Now learned Standing Counsel submits that in view of Section 2 of the Act of 2021, since petitioners were not appointed on a temporary or permanent post initially, therefore, benefit of said services cannot be granted to them.

16. The said aspect of the matter is already discussed above at length. Section 2 of the Act of 2021 is already read down and it is held that the word 'post' used in Section 2 of the Act of 2021, be it temporary or permanent, has to be read down as 'services rendered by a government employee, be it of temporary or permanent nature'."

12. This Court would think that the doctrine of reading down may not be attracted at all in a case where the vires of the statute is not under challenge. Apparently, in Dr. Shyam Kumar, there was no challenge raised to the vires of the Act of 2021. This Court would think that the doctrine of reading down is a principle devised to save a statute, otherwise ultra vires and fit to be struck down. And, that too can be done if the words of the legislature are not so clear as not to admit of any ambiguity. If the legislative intent is unmistakable by its words, the constitutionality thereof upon a challenge raised has either to be upheld or the challenge sustained with a striking down of the offending portion. However, in cases where the statute is capable of being ascribed two or more meanings, reading down affords a less intrusive alternative to the striking down of a statute, which the Court finds otherwise must be. A statute in order to be struck down requires the person challenging its vires to specifically plead that case and come up with a prayer for the purpose. It is only in a case where that kind of a prayer is there, which the Court on hearing finds fit to be granted that the milder alternative to remedy the legislative flaw, may be resorted to by reading it down. If there is no prayer to strike down a statute or a provision thereof, we do not think that it can be resorted as a principle of statutory interpretation or construction, while judging rights of parties affected by the statute.

13. Nevertheless, this Court leaves this issue open in the matter, inasmuch as this case may be decided effectively on a different point altogether. The principle laid down by the Supreme Court in Prem Singh can be said to be negated by the Act of 2021, in cases where the said Act applies. In the present case, it is common ground between parties that the Act of 2021 does not apply; rather, the entitlement of the petitioner is governed by the Regulations of 1984. It is true that the Act of 2021 would not affect the petitioner's rights, but the decision in Prem Singh was rendered in the context of Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961 and Regulation 370 of the Civil Services Regulations of U.P. in case of work-charged employees, who had worked for a long period of time, holding that non-consideration of long service in the work-charged establishment would be discriminatory in view of the note appended to Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961, which says that 'If service rendered in a non-pensionable establishment, work-charged establish-ment or in a post paid from contingencies falls between two periods of temporary service in a pensionable establishment or between a period of temporary service and permanent service in a pensionable establishment, it will not constitute an interruption of service'. This note appended to Rule 3(8) (supra) was regarded as creating a class without an intelligible differentia bearing nexus with the object of classification, and, therefore, discriminatory when compared to a case of continuous work-charged establishment. It was in the context of Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961 and Regulation 370 of the Civil Services Regulations of U.P. that continuous service in the work-charged establishment was held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court to entitle the employee to a reckoning of the work-charged period with service rendered in the regular establishment.

14. Regulation 2(m) of the Rules of 1984 reads:

"2. Definition.– …..

(m) "qualifying service" means service which qualified for pension, in accordance with the provisions of Article 368 of the Civil Service Regulations, as amended from time to time, excepting the following:

(i) periods of temporary or officiating service in a non-pensionable establishment under the Municipal Board concerned;

(ii) periods of service in a work-charged establishment; and

(iii) periods of service in a post paid from contingencies:

Provided that period of continued, temporary or officiating service under the Municipal Board concerned shall count as qualifying service if it is followed by confirmation on the same post or any other post without any interruption of service.

NOTE-If service rendered in a non-pensionable establishment, work-charged establishment or in a post paid from contingencies falls between two periods of temporary service in a pensionable establishment or between a period of temporary service and permanent service in a pensionable establishment it will not constitute an interruption of service."

15. Now, the definition of 'qualifying service' in Regulation 2(m) of the Regulations of 1984 is almost cast in the same terms as that in Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961, that were read down by the Supreme Court in Prem Singh to hold that services rendered in the work-charged establishment would be treated as 'qualifying service' under the last mentioned Rules for the purpose of grant of pension. The principle in Prem Singh, to reckon continuous service in the work-charged establishment as 'qualifying service' under Rule 3(8) of the Rules of 1961, has been extended in its application to continuous service of any kind, such as those rendered on daily-wages or ad hoc basis, followed by regularization, on the same post and in the same capacity. These principles have been adopted, particularly, in case of long retention in service on daily-wages or ad hoc basis or work-charged establishment, followed by regularization. Without reference to much authority on this point, it would suffice to refer to a decision of this Court in Kallu Ali v. State of U.P. and others, 2022 (4) AWC 3840, a case relating to an employee of a Development Authority, who had worked for a long time on daily-wages and then regularized in service. The issue had arisen in Kallu Ali (supra) in the context of his qualifying service for the purpose of entitlement to pension. After a copious review of authority on the point in Kallu Ali, it was held:

"28. The authorities referred to herein above and those of this Court clearly hold that if an employee has discharged duties whether temporarily or as a daily wager or on ad hoc basis on a post for which requirement was there and services of such an employee have come to be regularized on the said post or in the same capacity, the period spent before regularization should be considered and added to pensionable services. The courts have not approved the act and conduct of the employer to deny pension to its employee if he has rendered a number of substantial year of continuous service in an establishment leading to his / her regularization if such an establishment holds a pensionable service. The State Government has been taken to be a model employer and a State being a welfare State, the courts have shown serious concern in the event an employee who has spent all his life in the service of such establishment, stands denied pension on his attaining the age of superannuation and being retired as such."

16. The line of decisions noticed in Kallu Ali and the extension of the principle to various classes of employees, who had worked outside the regular establishment followed by regularization, asking their service rendered dehors the rules to be reckoned for the purpose of their qualifying service, entitling them to pension etc., are all based on the principle in Prem Singh. In the opinion of this Court, this line of decisions would pose some difficulty in cases of employees of establishments of the State Government, to which the Act of 2021 applies and which, as said earlier, virtually upturns the principles laid down by the Supreme Court in Prem Singh. This would, however, not be the case about establishments, to which the Act of 2021 does not apply. It has already been noticed that there is no issue in this case that the Act of 2021 does not apply to the respondents. What, therefore, follows is that the law laid down in Prem Singh would govern the rights of employees in the respondents' establishment. The decisions that have followed and extended the principle in Prem Singh to classes of employees functioning dehors the rules followed by regularization for the purpose of reckoning their qualifying service, entitling them to pension, would squarely apply to the petitioner's case.

17. In the opinion of this Court, therefore, the petitioner is entitled to the reckoning of his services rendered on ad hoc basis w.e.f. 02.09.1988 until his regularization in service on 26.03.2006 for the purpose of determining his post retiral benefits. The respondents have committed a manifest error in not taking into account the period of service rendered on ad hoc basis prior to regularization for the purpose of determining the petitioner's pension, gratuity and other post retiral benefits. These have to be determined taking into account the entire period of service, including that rendered on ad hoc basis prior to regularization.

18. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed with costs. A mandamus is issued to the respondents, ordering them to revise and redetermine the petitioner's post retiral benefits, including pension and gratuity, taking into account his services rendered on ad hoc basis from 02.09.1988 to 25.03.2006, followed by regularization. The necessary re-determination shall be carried out within a period of two months of the date of communication of a copy of this judgment to the respondents. Arrears on account of the revised post retiral benefits shall be paid to the petitioner within a month of the determination thereof by the respondents. In the event of delay in making the revised determination or the payment of arrears as per schedule indicated above, the petitioner would be entitled to simple interest at the rate of 6% per annum on the due arrears.

19. Let a copy of this order be communicated to the Principal Secretary, Local Bodies, Government of U.P., Lucknow, the Director, Local Bodies, Lucknow, the Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Etawah, District Etawah and the Executive Officer, Nagar Palika Parishad, Etawah, District Etawah by the Registrar (Compliance).

(2024) 2 ILRA 839
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 21.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ - A No. 9908 of 2023

Rajendra Dhar Dwivedi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sameer Kalia

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Abhinav Trivedi

A. Service Law – Central Service Regulation – Reg. 351-A – Post retiral benefit – Initiation of inquiry – Matter relate to an events taken place four years prior to retirement – Earlier, High Court quashed the notice granting liberty to the Governor to proceed under Reg. 351-A – No order has been passed – Mandamus sought – Held, since matter relates to the event which took place four years prior to the retirement of the petitioner, so no action can be taken against the petitioner and inquiry cannot be initiated hence, there is no occasion to consider the matter relating to grant of any approval under Regulation 351-A of C.S.R. – There exists no impediment in making the payment of post retiral benefits to the petitioner. (Para 13 and 15)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. R. Sundaram Vs Tamil Nadu St. Level Scrutiny Committee; (2023) SCC OnLine SC 287

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard.

2. With the consent of the learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel representing the respondent nos. 1 and 3 as well as Shri Abhinav Trivedi, learned counsel for the respondent no. 2, the present writ petition is finally adjudicated at the admission stage itself.

3. Present writ petition has been preferred for issuing a direction to the respondents to release the post retiral benefits of the petitioner i.e. an amount of Rs. 20 lacs towards Grautity, Rs. 33 lacs approximately towards commutation of Pension and further pay regular pension to the petitioner with interest in view of paragraphs nos. 49, 50 and 51 of the writ petition as no order has been passed either by the Governor or the State Government.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner after attaining the age of superannuation had retired from the post of Director (Agriculture) on 31.10.2019 but in place of making payment of post retiral dues to the petitioner, the petitioner was served with a show-cause notice dated 04.09.2021 under Rule 10 (2) of the Uttar Pradesh Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules,1999 (hereinafter referred to as, the Rules, 1999) for minor punishment. The said notice was challenged by the petitioner by filing a Writ Petition No. 23536 (S/S) of 2020 which was allowed in part by this Court vide its judgment and order dated 02.12.2020 and quashed the notice under challenge. The relevant extract of the said judgment is being reproduced hereunder:-

"For these reasons the issuance of show-cause notice to the petitioner for imposition of a penalty under Rule 10(2) of the Rules 1999 is apparently beyond the scope of the Rules and the jurisdiction vested thereunder with the opposite parties. The appropriate course, if at all i.e. if the conditions mentioned in Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations were satisfied was to proceed against the petitioner under the said provision in accordance with law, however, even in this regard the learned counsel for the petitioner says that the allegations pertain to an incident which took place more than four years earlier and, therefore, any action under Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations stands excluded by the provisions/prohibitions contained therein as no chargesheet was or has been issued to the petitioner within the said period of four years nor was he ever under suspension, nevertheless, it is for the State Government to see as to whether the contingencies mentioned in Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations are satisfied for any action against the petitioner or not, but so far as the impugned notice is concerned, same is clearly unsustainable and liable to be quashed. It is accordingly quashed subject, however, to the observations made hereinabove.

Considering the fact that only provisional pension has been sanctioned to the petitioner and has been granted which orders are also under challenge, instead of interfering with the same at this stage and quashing the same, it would be appropriate if the State Government examines the matter as to whether the petitioner is amenable to any action under Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations in the facts of the case or not, but, within a period of six weeks from the date an e-copy of this order downloaded from the official website of this High Court is submitted before the opposite party no. 1.

The consequences as to entitlement of post-retirement dues to the petitioner shall depend upon the same, meaning thereby, if the State Government comes to the conclusion that the mandatory prerequisites mentioned in Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations are not satisfied and no action can be taken against the petitioner under the same, then the petitioner shall be entitled to all the post-retirement dues otherwise admissible as per law, which shall be paid to him within 3 months therefrom. However, if the State Government finds that contingencies mentioned in the said provision are satisfied and the petitioner can be proceeded under the said provision, then, appropriate initiation shall be made within one month and the consequences as to entitlement of the petitioner to post-retirement dues shall follow accordingly as per law. The impugned orders sanctioning and granting provisional pension shall abide by such decision which is to be taken by the opposite party no. 1 as aforesaid.

The writ petition is allowed in part."

5. It is further contended that after the said judgment, an another notice dated 23.02.2021 was issued by the Additional Chief Secretary (Agriculture) to the petitioner for the same charges as mentioned in the earlier notice issued under Rule 10 (2) of the Rules 1999, mentioning therein that the Show-Cause notice dated 04.09.2021 has now been converted into notice Under Regulation 351 (A) of the Civil Services Regulation (hereinafter referred to as, the C.S.R).

6. The said notice was again challenged by the petitioner by filing Writ Petition No. 8799 (S/S) of 2021, which was partly allowed by this Court vide its judgment and order dated 22.06.2021. The relevant extract of the said judgment is quoted hereinebelow:-

"14. Learned Senior Advocate on the other hand has submitted that a perusal of the notice dated 29.11.2018 filed at page 126 of the writ petition would show that it was not issued with regard to any preliminary enquiry or with regard to any disciplinary proceedings to be initiated against the petitioner. It had only called for an explanation and such a notice cannot be termed to be an order initiating disciplinary proceedings because disciplinary proceedings are said to be initiated as per the Explanation given under Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations, only when the employee concerned is suspended or a charge-sheet is issued to him.

15. Be that as it may, this Court is only concerned with the careless manner in which the order impugned has been issued by the respondent no.2. He has not referred to the conditions mentioned under Article 351-A of the Civil Service Regulations nor the specific directions issued by the Court in its judgment and order dated 02.12.2020. He has merely converted the earlier show cause notice dated 04.09.2020 which was already quashed by the Court, into a show-cause notice under Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations. The order impugned dated 23.02.2021 deserves to be quashed on this ground alone. It is hereby quashed.

16. His Excellency the Governor of Uttar Pradesh in exercise of power under Article 351-A may pass a fresh order as expeditiously as possible. The post retiral benefits of the petitioner shall be subject to order passed by His Excellency the Governor of the Uttar Pradesh as already been observed by this Court in its judgment and order dated 02.12.2020.

17. If the Government comes to a conclusion that no case under Article 351-A of the Civil Services Regulations is made out for proceeding against the petitioner, then the post retiral benefits of the petitioner shall be released within three months.

18. The writ petition stands partly allowed."

7. It is further submitted that the judgment was passed on 22.06.2021 and now more than two and a half years have passed but till date no order has been passed by the Governor while exercising its power under Regulation 351 A of C.S.R. and depriving the petitioner of his lawful claims of post retiral benefits which is neither a charity or a bounty as per the law settled in the case of R.Sundaram Vs. Tamil Nadu State Level Scrutiny Committee (2023) SCC OnLine SC 287.

8. It is further submitted that in the show cause notice dated 04.09.2020 issued under Rule 10 (2) of the Rules, 1999 and the Show Cause notice dated 23.02.2021 (both are quashed by this Court, as mentioned above), the allegation or the explanation which were sought from the petitioner related to the period of four years prior to the retirement of the petitioner and as per Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R., no inquiry can be initiated against the petitioner for the charges which relate to for the period of four years of retirement.

9. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel on the basis of instructions received has submitted that the legal opinion has been taken and the matter is under consideration but unable to dispute that the charges which were alleged in the earlier two show cause notices were related to the period four years before retirement of the petitioner.

10. Learned counsel for the respondent no. 2 on the basis of instructions has submitted that the Office of the Governor has not received the complete file from the Department for consideration under Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. and till date no such order under said regulation has been passed against the petitioner.

11. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the record, it is found that the petitioner has retired on 31.10.2019 and as on today, there is no inquiry pending against the petitioner. Earlier two proceedings i.e. first Show Cause notice dated 04.09.2020 issued under Rule 10 (2) of the Rules, 1999 and thereafter a second Show Cause notice dated 23.02.2021 issued by the Additional Chief Secretary (Agriculture) converting the earlier show cause notice issued under Rule 10 (2) of the Rules, 1999 to Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. had already quashed by this Court as mentioned in the preceding paragraphs.

12. The petitioner had earlier also approached this Court by filing writ petitions against the show cause notices issued against him with a prayer for payment of post retiral dues. Both the petitions were partly allowed by quashing of the notices issued against the petitioner and giving liberty to the respondents to look into the case of the petitioner as to whether any approval is required under Regulation 351-A of C.S.R.

13. This Court vide its judgment and order dated 22.06.2021 had granted liberty to proceed under Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. but more than two and a half years have passed but the department has not forwarded the complete file to the Governor to pass an order under Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. , as informed by learned counsel for the respondent no. 2-Additional Chief Secretary, Hon'ble Governor Secretariat, Raj Bhawan, Lucknow and it has also informed that no order under Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. has been passed so far.

14. Under these circumstances as mentioned above, next it may be examined whether Regulation 351-A of C.S.R. is attracted or not for that the necessary questions which may require attention of this Court are as follows:-

firstly, any order has been passed by the competent authority under Regulation 351-A of C.S.R. or not;

secondly, and most importantly whether Regulation 351-A is applied to the present case or not; and thirdly, as to whether there is any impediment existing in payment of post retiral benefits to the petitioner.

15. The questions framed above are being dealt with as below:

Firstly, it may be seen whether any order has been passed under Regulation 351-A and it is to be found that so far, no such order has been passed as would be clear from submission made by the learned counsel for the respondent no. 2-Additional Chief Secretary, Hon'ble Governor Secretariat. Learned counsel for the respondent no. 2 informed this Court on the basis of his instructions that complete file was never made available by the department to the office of Governor so till date no order under Regulation 351 A has been passed against the petitioner.

Secondly, perusal of the show-cause notices show that the allegations relate to 24.07.2015 and the petitioner has retired on 31.10.2019, so the allegation is more than four years prior to the retirement of the petitioner. This fact is not disputed by the learned counsel for the respondents. Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. Regulation 351 (A) of C.S.R. is reproduced hereinbelow:-

" 351-A. The Governor reserves to himself the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, whether permanently or for a specified period and the right of ordering the recovery from a pension of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to Government, if the pensioner is found in departmental or judicial proceedings to have been guilty of grave misconduct, or to have caused pecuniary loss to Government by misconduct or negligence, during his service, including service rendered on re-employment after retirement.

Provided that :-

(a) such departmental proceedings, if not instituted while the officer was on duty either before retirement or during re-employment-

(i) Shall not be instituted with the sanction of the Governor,

(ii) shall be in respect of event which took place not more than four years before the institution of such proceedings, and"

It is thus clear that since matter relates to the event which took place four years prior to the retirement of the petitioner which is an undisputed fact as accepted by Counsel for respondents, so no action can be taken against the petitioner and inquiry cannot be initiated hence, there is no occasion to consider the matter relating to grant of any approval under Regulation 351-A of C.S.R.

And lastly, it is found that there exists no impediment in making the payment of post retiral benefits to the petitioner.

16. After retirement, an employee is dependent upon his/her post retiral dues but in place of getting the same the petitioner had been compelled by the arbitrary action of the respondents to approach this Court time and again. In place of getting any dues the petitioner is spending the cost of litigation from his life long savings. The petitioner has been deprived from getting his lawful claim due to wrong actions, inaction and non action by the authorities at different stages which is making the petitioner to suffer great hardship.

17. In view of the discussions made hereinabove, the writ petition is allowed.

18. Respondent no. 1 is directed to make payment of all post retiral dues to the petitioner including computation of pension within a period of two months from the date of production of certified copy of this order. In case, the payment is not made in the period mentioned hereinabove, the respondents will liable to pay the simple interest at the rate of 7.5% from the date of retirement till actual payment is made.

(2024) 2 ILRA 844
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Writ - A No. 10260 of 2023
With
Writ – A No. 10256 of 2023
and other connected cases

Rachana & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Vineet Kumar Singh, Sri Rishabh Srivastava, Sri H.N. Singh (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Smt. Archana Singh

A. Service Law – Basic Shiksha Parishad Teachers – Inter-District / Mutual Transfer – G.O. dated 02.06.2023 – Clause 4 – Interpretation.

Clause 4 limits inter-district transfers to maximum 10% of teachers working as on 30.04.2023 vis-à-vis sanctioned posts – Calculation made by considering both sanctioned strength and actual working strength – If working strength exceeds sanctioned posts, incoming transfer may be declared "zero" though outgoing transfer permitted – Not arbitrary, but in tune with policy language.

B. Transfer Policy – Judicial Review – Scope.

Transfer is not a vested right – Teachers appointed district-wise with open eyes – Inter-district transfer is change of cadre, not a matter of right – Court can interfere with transfer policy only if found to be arbitrary, discriminatory, or contrary to law – Policy framed on rational criteria of sanctioned vis-à-vis working strength held valid.

Held : Para 13 – St.'s decision to exclude certain districts (where teachers are surplus) from incoming transfers and to allow only outgoing transfers, based on clause 4 of transfer policy dated 02.06.2023, cannot be termed arbitrary – No interference warranted.

All writ petitions dismissed. No costs.

Case Law Discussed:

1. Shraddha Yadav Vs St. of U.P. (Allahabad HC, 2024 : AHC : 4085)

2. Devesh Sharma Vs U.O.I., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 985

3. Satyadev Bagur Vs St. of Raj., (2022) 5 SCC 324

4. Krishnan Kakkanath Vs St. of Kerala, (1997) 9 SCC 495

5. Sher Singh Vs U.O.I., (1995) 6 SCC 515

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. In the present bunch of writ petitions, interpretation of clause 4 of a transfer policy for inter district and mutual transfer issued by a government order dated 02.06.2023 for teachers working in school run by Basic Shiksha Parishad is under consideration. The said clause is reproduced below -:

"जनपद में स्वीकृत पद के सापेक्ष दिनांक ३० अप्रैल २०२३ तक कार्यरत अध्यापकों की संख्या के १० प्रतिशत की अधिकतम सीमा तक अंतर्जनपदीय स्थानांतरण किये जायेंगे। किसी जनपद से स्थानांतरित होकर जाने तथा आने वाले शिक्षक एवं शिक्षिका की अधिकतम सीमा १० प्रतिशत होगी।"

2. Sri H.N. Singh, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Rishabh Srivastava, learned Advocate for petitioners along with S/Sri Seemant Singh, Rakesh Kumar Pandey, Manoj Kumar Singh, K.R. Singh, Sikhar Trivedi, Neeraj Shukla, Kamal Kumar Kesharwani, O.P.S. Rathore, Vibhu Rai, Navin Kumar Sharma, Pratik Chandra, Man Bahadur Singh, Vinod Kumar Singh, Sanjay Kumar Mishra, Shashi Kant Mishra, Prathamesh Upadhyay and Suresh Singh for petitioners have submitted that petitioners have been denied from consideration of their applications to transfer at desired district on the ground that there are no vacancy for incoming transfer. Crux of their argument is that interpretation and determination of calculation of 10% of vacancy and to declare zero vacancy for incoming transfer in certain districts is not only contrary to the object of transfer policy but based on incorrect interpretation of referred clause also.

3. Learned Senior Advocate has further submitted that in a district, if teachers are working more than sanctioned strength, they are also included for determination of 10% of posts available for transfer and accordingly, State has calculated that since there are already surplus teachers, therefore, there will be no incoming transfer but they have allowed outgoing transfer. In a way they have tried to accommodate illegal appointment above than sanctioned posts.

4. Above arguments have been opposed by Sri Shashi Prakash Singh, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel along with S/Sri Ravi Prakash Srivastava and Manvendra Dixit, learned Standing Counsel for State and Ms. Archana Singh, learned counsel appearing for Board of Basic Education, U.P. at Allahabad and they have supported the calculation and stressed upon a word used in the above referred clause i.e. "जनपद में स्वीकृत पद के सापेक्ष दिनांक ३० अप्रैल २०२३ तक कार्यरत अध्यापकों" that both aspects have to be taken into consideration i.e. number of sanctioned posts and number of teachers working in a district and they have submitted that there is no infirmity in the calculation.

5. Before adverting to the rival submissions, for example the calculation in regard to primary rural School where in 11 districts, incoming transfer has been declared as zero is mentioned hereinafter-:

Sl. No.	District	PRIMARY SCHOOL RURAL
		Assistant Teacher			10% of Working at	Incoming	Outgoing
		Sanction	Working	Vacant
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
1	BAGHPAT	1576	1640	-64	164	0	164
2	CHITRAKOOT	2181	2290	-109	229	0	229
3	G.B. NAGAR	13 67	14 24	-57	142	0	142
4	GHAZIABAD	890	1183	-293	118	0	118
5	HAPUR	1178	1200	-22	120	0	120
6	KANNAUJ	3054	3374	-320	337	0	337
7	KANPUR NAGAR	3081	3110	-29	311	0	311
8	LUCKNOW	2531	2677	-146	268	0	268
9	MAU	2670	2880	-210	288	0	288
10	MEERUT	2490	2505	-15	251	0	251
11	MUZAFFAR-NAGAR	2509	2565	-56	257	0	257

6. It will be apposite to refer the law in regard to interference with policy decision of a State as held by this Court in a recent judgement in the case of Shraddha Yadav and 6 others vs. State of U.P. and 10 others, Neutral Citation No. 2024:AHC:4085 and relevant paragraph from 15 to 20 are quoted below-:

"१५. शिक्षकों व शिक्षिकाओं के वर्ष २०२३-२०२४ की अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण नीति को उत्तर प्रदेश शासन के शासनादेश दिनाँक ०२, जून, २०२३ द्वारा निर्धारित की गई। इसके खण्ड १६, १७ व १८ पूर्व में उल्लेखित किये जा चुके हैं, के अनुसार परिषद को इस स्थानान्तरण नीति के ' तकनीकी चरण एवं प्रक्रिया के निर्धारण का दायित्व सौपा गया और उसी क्रम में, और स्थानान्तरण नीति के क्रम में अग्रतर कार्यवाही हेतु सचिव, उ.प्र.

बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद ने परिपत्र दिनांक १६.०६.२०२३ व २८.०६.२०२३ को निर्गत किया, जिसके अनुसार ऑनलाइन आवेदन के सत्यापन व परीक्षण की प्रक्रिया को निर्धारित किया। इन परिपत्रों के माध्यम से एकल अभिभावक, दिव्यांगता, असाध्य या गंभीर रोग, सरकारी सेवा का लाभ, निलम्बन की स्थिति आदि के विषय में प्रावधान बनाये गये। इसी क्रम में परिपत्र दिनांक २८.०६.२०२३ द्वारा अन्तर्जनपदीय स्थानान्तरण प्रक्रिया के अन्तर्गत स्थानान्तरित शिक्षक एवं शिक्षिका (१६,१६४ शिक्षक एवं शिक्षिका) को कार्यमुक्त किये जानें की कार्यवाही की, विस्तृत प्रक्रिया को भी निर्धारित किया। इसी परिपत्र के खण्ड (५) को निरस्त करने की प्रार्थना याचिकाकर्तागण ने की है। उक्त खण्ड पुनः निम्न उल्लेखित किया जा रहा हैः-

"५. प्रोन्नति पद पर कार्यरत शिक्षक एवं शिक्षिका के स्थानान्तरित जनपद में बैच की पदोन्नति वर्ष/मौलिक नियुक्ति तिथि के आधार पर कार्यमुक्त करने की कार्यवाही की जायेगी।"

१६. स्थानान्तरण नीति के खण्ड १६, १७ व १८ के अन्तर्वस्तु से स्पष्ट है, जो परिषद के उक्त परिपत्रों को, जो उक्त नीति के ' तकनीकी चरण व प्रक्रिया के निर्धारण', इसकी समय सारिणी व कार्यमुक्त कराने के सम्बन्ध में है, निर्गत करने के लिए स्पष्ट रूप से परिषद के सचिव को अधिकृत करते है। अतः उक्त परिपत्रों को निर्गत करने का अधिकार सचिव, उ.प्र. बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद को पूर्ण रूप से था। अतः परिपत्र वैधानिक है व विधिक रूप से संधारणीय भी है। यह परिपत्र स्थानान्तरण नीति के क्रम में उसके कार्यवाहन के लिए है, न कि उसकी प्रकृति के विरोध में निर्गत किये गये है। स्पष्टता व संदर्भ के लिए स्थानान्तरण नीति के खण्ड १६, १७ व १८ पुनः निम्न उल्लेखित किये जा रहे हैः-

"(१६) अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के लिए निर्गत शासनादेश के अनुसार उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद द्वारा अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के तकनीकी चरण एवं प्रक्रिया का निर्धारण किया जायेगा तथा शासनादेश के क्रम में अग्रतर कार्यवाही की जायेगी।

(१७) अन्तर्जनपदीय स्थानान्तरण हेतु समय-सारिणी सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद द्वारा अपने स्तर से पृथक से निर्गत की जायेगी।

(१८) अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के उपरान्त शिक्षक/शिक्षिका को कार्यमुक्त करने तथा कार्यभार ग्रहण करने की कार्यवाही मध्य शैक्षिक सत्र में नहीं की जायेगी। शिक्षक/शिक्षिका को कार्यमुक्त करने तथा कार्यभार ग्रहण करने की कार्यवाही अवकाश के दौरान ही की जायेगी।"

१७. अब न्यायालय को यह निर्धारित करना है कि परिपत्र दिनाँक २८.०६.२०२३ के खण्ड (५) में उल्लेखित 'स्थानान्तरित जनपद में बैच की पदोन्नति वर्ष/मौलिक नियुक्ति तिथि के आधार पर' कार्यमुक्त करने की कार्यवाही का कोई न्यायोचित कारण है अथवा नही। यहां यह ध्यान रखना होगा कि याचिकाकर्तागण के संबंध में अंतर्जनपदीय स्थानान्तरण का आदेश पारित हो गया था परन्तु उपरोक्त खण्ड (५) के कारण उनको कार्यमुक्त नहीं किया गया है।

१८. उपरोक्त वर्णित खण्ड (५) के अन्तःवस्तु के मात्र परिशीलन से स्पष्टता प्रतीत नही होती है परन्तु परिषद के द्वारा दायर प्रतिउत्तर पत्र व उसके विद्वान अधिवक्ता के कथन से स्पष्टता प्रतीत होती है, कि अगर याचिकाकर्तागण जो पदोन्नति पद पर है स्थानान्तरित जनपद, जहां उनके बैंच के शिक्षकों की पदोन्नति नही हुयी है, कार्यभार ग्रहण कराया जाता है तो वो अपने संवर्ग मे निम्नतम वरिष्ठता पर रहेंगे। फिर भी वो उनके बैंच में कार्यरत शिक्षक/शिक्षिका जिनको पदोन्नति नहीं की गई है, से वरिष्ठ हो जायेंगे और उनके पदोन्नति होने के बाद भी याचिकाकर्तागण ही वरिष्ठ रहेंगे। जिससे असमंजसता की स्थिति उत्पन्न हो जायेगी, चाहे वरिष्ठता सूची मूल जनपद

के स्तर पर ही क्यो न हो। यह स्थिति सहकर्मी को साथ कार्य करने के लिए प्रतिकूल होगी। उपरोक्त वर्णित कारण एक नीतियुक्त कारण है जो उपरोक्त खण्ड (५) को वैधानिकता प्रदान करता है। अगर परिषद उक्त खण्ड (५) के अन्तःवस्तु में और स्पष्टता ला पाते तो अच्छा होता। अग्रिम स्थानान्तरण नीति में स्पष्टता का ध्यान रखना चाहिये।

१९. मा० उच्चतम न्यायालय के एक नवीन निर्णय जो देवेश शर्मा प्रति भारत संघ व अन्यः २०२३ एस.सी.सी. ऑनलाइन एस.सी. ९८५, के प्रकरण में पारित किया गया है, में पुनः यह प्रतिपादित किया किः-

"७३. हमारे मस्तिष्क में निश्चित रूप से कोई संदेह नही है, कि साधारणतः राज्य के नीतिगत निर्णयों में संवैधानिक न्यायालयों द्वारा उसके पुनः निरीक्षण अधिकारो के अंतर्गत हस्ताक्षेप नहीं किया जा सकता है। इसी के साथ अगर नीतिगत निर्णय स्वयं में ही विधि के विरूद्ध और वो मनमाना व तर्कहीन हो तो पुनःनिरीक्षण के अधिकार का उपयोग करना ही चाहिये।"

२०. मा० उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा एक अन्य प्रकरण सत्यदेव बागुर प्रति राजस्थान शासन व अन्य (२०२२)५ एस.सी.सी. ३२४, के प्रकरण मे पूर्व मे पारित कृष्णन्न कक्कनाथ प्रति केरल राज्यः (१९९७)९ एस.सी.सी. ४९५ व शेर सिंह प्रति भारत संघः (१९९५)६ एस.सी.सी. ५१५ के निर्णयों का संदर्भ लेते हुए यह निर्णीत किया किः-

"१५. यह अतिसामान्य है कि न्यायालय नीतिगत मामलो में हस्तक्षेप करने में मन्द रहेंगे, जब तक कि नीति स्पष्ट रूप से पक्षपाती और मनमानी न स्थापित हो जाये। यह न्यायालय राज्य की नीतिगत निर्णय में हस्तक्षेप नही करेगा, जब राज्य यह इंगित कर सके कि नीति के कार्यविहन में युक्तियुक्त अंतर है और वो युक्तियुक्त अंतर, उसके उद्देश्य की प्राप्ति से संबंध रखता है।"" [emphasis supplied]

7. Learned Senior Advocate for petitioners has not disputed number of sanctioned posts viz.-a-viz. number of working teachers in above districts. The only dispute is that in a case where working strength is more than sanctioned strength, whether applications for incoming inter district transfer could not consider as it was declared 'zero' and whether permission was correctly granted only for applications for outgoing transfer from said district and thereby some districts are completely excluded from incoming inter-district transfer and petitioners are aggrieved that no transfer is allowed to their desired district.

8. In this regard, following paragraphs of counter affidavit would be relevant -:

"9. That here, it is also necessary to make it clear that respect of para 02 (04) of the Transfer Policy framed by the State Government vide Government Order dated 02.06.2023, it has been provided that the cadre of Board's Teacher depends upon the local area (Rural or Urban) in any district and as such the nature of Inter District Transfer is the change of cadre and accordingly claiming transfer is not a matter of right for any teacher because at the time of appointment, a teacher like the Petitioners on her own wishes opted her cadre and after the appointment, she is bound to follow all the service conditions during his/her entire services.

10. That the strength of Board's teachers who come on inter-district transfer and go on inter-district transfer are not the same in all the districts and in such a situation, in the so-called backward districts, the strength of assistant teachers who on inter-district transfer is negligent and in case percentage of 10% is enhanced, then there is great possibility that there shall be scarcity of Assistant Teachers in backward districts which obviously affect the educational interest of the students and taking into the aforesaid situation, the aforesaid decision has been taken.

11. That in the light of the provisions contained under point no. 2(4) of the Transfer Policy framed vide Government Order dated 02.06.2023, as a result after calculating the 10% strength of Assistant Teachers as against the working teachers, vacancies in the so-called districts were declared "Zero". For the kind perusal of this Hon'ble Court a photo copy of the chart showing the details of vacancies in those different districts are being filed and marked as Annexure-CA-2 to this counter affidavit."

9. In order to interfere with a decision taken by the respondents in pursuance of referred clause of transfer policy, petitioners have to show that such decision is arbitrary and absolutely contrary to the transfer policy.

10. The figures mentioned in regard to sanctioned strength and working strength are not in dispute. In some of the districts, working strength is more than sanctioned strength. Therefore, State's decision not to allow incoming transfer cannot be said to be arbitrary since these group of districts have been created on the basis of comparison of sanctioned strength and working strength which is in tune of referred paragraph that 10% has to be considered in terms of sanctioned posts and strength of working teachers.

11. In case of a particular district, where there are surplus working strength, if by process of inter-district transfer more teachers are allowed to join, the strength may further increase Ratio of working teachers viz.-a-viz. sanctioned strength will remain high which cannot be done by way of transfer.

12. In the policy, words are carefully used that transfer will be allowed upto 10% only in comparison of sanctioned posts viz.-a-viz. working strength.

13. The teachers have joined a particular district (being selected district wise) with open eyes. They have no right to work at their desired district. The transfer policy is a policy of a welfare State and in absence of any evident arbitrariness or a clause contrary to law, there is no scope to interfere with any clause of a transfer policy. As discussed above, there is no arbitrariness in framing of concerned clause or its interpretation.

11. In the above background of analysis and taking note of the judgement passed by this Court in Shraddha Yadav (supra), this Court does not find any substantive material which could warrant interference with a decision taken by the State in pursuance of the referred clause of transfer policy, therefore, no interference is warranted and accordingly, all writ petitions are dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 849
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANJIVE SHUKLA, J.

Writ - A No. 11555 of 2019
With
Writ – A No. 15498 of 2019
And
Writ – A No. 20414 of 2019

Govind Raman Tripathi, Assistant Teacher ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Prabhakar Awasthi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Deepak Kumar, Sri Santosh Kumar

A. U.P. Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978 – Rule 10(5)(iii) – Deemed Approval – Scope.

Held : Deemed approval comes into play only where there is total inaction by the District Basic Education Officer. If DBEO communicates a decision within one month – whether to approve, disapprove, or withhold approval for reasons recorded – the deeming fiction does not apply. (Paras 25, 26, 27)

B. Assistant Teacher – Appointment without approval – Effect.
Where DBEO withheld approval citing low student strength and referred matter to Director of Education (Basic), subsequent appointment order issued by Committee of Management before expiry of period reckoned from last communication (30.7.2018) – Appointment cannot be treated as validly approved. Petitioner not entitled to salary from St. exchequer. (Paras 26, 27, 28)

Writ Petitions Dismissed. No interference warranted in orders dated 22.5.2019, 17.7.2019 and 19.9.2019.

Case Law Discussed:

1. Prem Singh Vs St. of U.P., (2019) 10 SCC 516 – distinguished.

2. Relevant provisions of Rule 10 of 1978 Rules examined.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manjive Shukla, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Respondents No.1 to 3 and learned counsel appearing for the Respondent No.4.

2. Petitioner through Writ-A No.11555 of 2019 has challenged the order dated 22.5.2019 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur, whereby petitioner's case for payment of salary of the post of Assistant Teacher has been rejected.

3. Petitioners through Writ-A No. 15498 of 2019 have challenged the order dated 17.7.2019 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur, whereby direction has been issued to Manager of the Committee of Management of Sri Vishwanath Junior High School, Shahjahanpur to cancel the appointment of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher.

4. Petitioner through Writ- A No. 20414 of 2019 has challenged the order dated 19.9.2019 passed by the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow, whereby it has been provided that appointment of the petitioner on the post of Assistant Teacher cannot be approved.

5. Since the aforesaid all the writ petitions are related with the approval of the appointment of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher in Sri Vishwanath Junior High School, Shahjahanpur and all the writ petitions have been connected by the order passed by this court therefore, they are being decided together.

6. Facts of the case, in brief, are that one post of Assistant Teacher in Sri Vishwanath Junior High School, Shahjahanpur (hereinafter referred to as 'the school') fell vacant on 30.6.2015. The District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur vide order dated 1.4.2016 granted permission for making appointment on the aforesaid vacant post of Assistant Teacher. An advertisement for the selection and appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school was published on 7.6.2018 in the Newspaper 'Spasht Awaz', on 8.6.2018 in the Newspaper 'Divya Prakash' and on 10.6.2018 in the Newspaper 'Pioneer'. The District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur vide order dated 2.6.2018 has appointed Sri Suresh Chandra, Block Education Officer as his nominee in the selection committee for the appointment in question.

7. The selection committee conducted interviews of the candidates and prepared merit list and thereby recommended name of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi for appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school. The Committee of Management of the school considered the recommendations made by the selection committee in its meeting held on 29.6.2018 and accepted the recommendations. The Manager of the Committee of Management of the school vide his letter dated 2.7.2018 forwarded the papers relating to the selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi to District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur for his approval. The District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur vide his letter dated 23.7.2018 responded to the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school and informed that since the strength of the students in the school is very low therefore, the matter has been referred to the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow for his guidance and only after the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow provides guidance in the matter, the decision over the matter of approval of selection will be taken.

8. The Manager of the Committee of Management of the school vide his letter dated 30.7.2018 submitted his explanation in response to the letter of the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur dated 23.7.2018 and requested that selection in question be approved so that appointment may be made against the vacant post. Since there was no response by the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur after the letter dated 23.7.2018, the Manager of the school issued appointment order on 14.8.2018, whereby Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi was appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school. Pursuant to appointment order dated 14.8.2018, Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi joined on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school on 16.8.2018.

9. Since in spite of working of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school, his salary was not released, he submitted representation to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur and in response thereof, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur passed an order on 22.5.2019, wherein he has stated that since appointment of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher has been made without there being mandatory approval of the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur therefore, the said appointment is illegal and accordingly, it has been held that Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi is not entitled for payment of salary from the State exchequer.

10. The order dated 22.5.2019 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur has been challenged by Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi by filing Writ-A No.11555 of 2019.

11. While the aforesaid Writ-A No.11555 of 2019 was pending before this court, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur has passed another order on 17.7.2019, whereby he directed the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school to cancel the appointment of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi. The Committee of Management of the school as well as Mr. Rajiv Kumar, Manager of the Committee of Management of the school have filed Writ-A No. 15498 of 2019, whereby they have challenged the aforesaid order dated 17.7.2019.

12. This court while hearing Writ-A No.11555 of 2019 passed an order on 19.8.2018 in the following terms:-

"Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for the respondent no. 1 and Sri Santosh Kumar, learned counsel for the respondent nos. 2 and 3.

It appears that the approval sought with respect to the appointment of the petitioner by respondent no.4 has not been granted by the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur on an opinion that the Director of Education (Basic) has yet not issued any directions with respect to the clarification that had been sought from him.

In view of the above, matter requires consideration.

Issue notice to the respondent no.4 returnable within four weeks. Steps be taken within one week.

In the meantime, respondents may file counter affidavits.

List this case on 20.09.2019.

In the meanwhile, it is provided that the petitioner may serve a copy of this order to the Director of Education (Basic) within a period of two weeks from today. Upon service being made, the Director of Education (Basic) shall pass appropriate order/directions to the District Basic Education Officer with respect to the clarification that may have been sought by that authority from the said Director with respect to the petitioner's appointment.

It is expected that the such direction may be placed on record on the next date fixed."

13. The Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow in compliance of the aforesaid order dated 19.8.2019 passed in Writ-A No.11555 of 2019 has passed an order on 19.9.2019, whereby it has been held that strength of the students in the school is very low therefore, as per standards prescribed under Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, there is no requirement of appointment of the Assistant Teacher in the school, accordingly petitioner's selection/appointment cannot be approved.

14. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has pointed out that the school in question is being run by a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 through a validly elected Committee of Management. The school is receiving grant-in-aid from the Government of U.P. The terms and conditions of the appointment and service of the teachers working in the school are governed by the U.P. Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Rules of 1978').

15. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has submitted that Rule 10 of the Rules of 1978 provides the procedure for selection and appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher. He has further submitted that under the aforesaid Rule 10 of the Rules of 1978, after selection, the papers of selection are to be forwarded to the District

Basic Education Officer for approval and Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 categorically provides that if the District Basic Education Officer does not communicate his decision within one month from the date of receipt of papers under Clause (4), he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the selection committee.

15. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has argued that the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school forwarded papers relating to the selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur on 2.7.2018 and since he has not communicated his decision within one month from the date of receipt of papers, the selection in question stood deemed approved and therefore, after expiry of period of one month from 2.7.2018, the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school has issued appointment order on 14.8.2018 and in pursuance thereof, petitioner has joined on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school on 16.8.2018.

16. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has vehemently argued that since selection of the petitioner for appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school stood deemed approved as per provisions made in Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 and petitioner with effect from 16.8.2018 is continuously discharging duties of the post of Assistant Teacher in the school, he is entitled for payment of salary form the State exchequer with effect from 16.8.2018. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has further argued that the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur while passing orders dated 22.5.2019 and 17.7.2019 denying payment of salary to the petitioner and directing the Committee of Management of the school to cancel petitioner's appointment, has acted in gross violation of provisions of the Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 accordingly, the said orders are not sustainable in the eyes of law.

17. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has also argued before this court that the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow has passed order on 19.9.2019 without even considering the fact that the petitioner's selection on the post of Assistant Teacher stood approved as per provisions of the Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 therefore, the said order dated 19.9.2019 cannot sustain in the eyes of law.

18. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has thus concluded his arguments and has submitted that since petitioner's selection for appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher in the school stood approved by operation of law i.e. under provisions of the Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 therefore, the orders impugned in the writ petitions, are not sustainable in the eyes of law and writ petitions filed by the petitioners are liable to be allowed by this court with a direction to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur to release petitioner's salary forthwith along with arrears of salary.

19. Per contra, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the State respondents has submitted that Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 provides that if the District Basic Education Officer does not communicate his decision within one month from the date of receipt of papers under clause (4), he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the selection committee and in the present case, papers relating to the selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi were forwarded to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur on 2.7.2018 and immediately thereafter the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur communicated his decision on 23.7.2018 to withhold the approval of the selection for the reason that strength of the students in the school is very low and he has sought guidance in the matter from the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow therefore, provisions of Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 are not attracted and accordingly, selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi for appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher cannot be considered to be deemed approved.

20. Learned Standing Counsel has further invited attention of this court that papers of the selection were forwarded to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur on 2.7.2018 and in response thereof, he communicated his decision to withhold the approval and reasons thereof, vide his letter dated 23.7.2018 and thereafter, the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school vide his letter dated 30.7.2018 submitted his response to the reasons given in the letter dated 23.7.2018 and thereafter, without even waiting for expiry of the period of one month from 30.7.2018, the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school straightaway issued appointment order on 14.8.2018 therefore, selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi on the post of Assistant Teacher cannot be treated to be deemed approved under Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978.

21. Learned Standing Counsel has also submitted before this court that since after submission of the papers on 2.7.2018 relating to the selection, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur vide his letter dated 23.7.2018 communicated his decision to withhold the approval of selection for certain reasons and in response thereof, the Manager of the school submitted more information vide his letter dated 30.7.2018 therefore, if the provisions of deemed approval are to be attracted, one month time shall be counted with effect from 30.7.2018, whereas even before one month time appointment order was issued on 14.8.2018 therefore, there is no scope for applying provisions of Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 and treating the selection in question to have been deemed approved.

22. Learned Standing Counsel has vehemently argued that since strength of the students in the school is very low and there are sufficient number of teachers working in the school as per norms provided under Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009 therefore, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur as well as the Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow have disapproved the selection in question and have denied the payment of salary to Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi from the State exchequer.

23. Learned Standing Counsel has thus concluded his arguments and has submitted that provisions of Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 are not applicable in the present case and the writ petitions filed by the petitioners being absolutely misconceived are liable to be dismissed by this court.

24. I have considered the rival submissions advanced by the learned counsels appearing for the parties and I find that the case of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi is that since papers of his selection on the post of Assistant Teacher were forwarded to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur on 2.7.2018 and since within one month he did not take decision in respect of approval of the selection therefore, in view of the provisions of the Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978, his selection stood deemed approved and therefore, petitioner is entitled for payment of salary from the State exchequer with effect from 16.8.2018. For arriving at a conclusion it is necessary to have a brief look of the provisions made in Rule 10 of the Rules of 1978. Rule 10 of the Rules of 1978 is extracted as under:-

10. Procedure for selection. -(1) The Selection Committee shall, after interviewing such candidates as appear before it on a date to be fixed by it in this behalf, of which due intimation shall be given to all the candidates, prepare a list containing as far as possible the names, in order of preference, of three candidates found to be suitable for appointment.

(2) The list prepared under clause (1) shall also contain particulars regarding the date of birth, academic qualifications and teaching experience of the candidates and shall be signed by all the members of the Selection Committee.

(3) The Selection Committee shall, as soon as possible, forward such list, together with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee to the management

(4) The Manager shall within one week from the date of receipt of the papers under clause (3) send a copy of the list to the District Basic Education Officer.

(5) (i) If the District Basic Education Officer is satisfied that-

(a) the candidates recommended by the Selection Committee possess the minimum qualifications prescribed for the post;

(b) the procedure laid down in these rules for the selection of Headmaster or Assistant Teacher, as the case may be, has been followed he shall accord approval to the recommendations made by the Selection Committee and shall communicate his decision to the Management within two weeks from the date of receipt of the papers under clause (4).

(ii) If the District Basic Education Officer is not satisfied as aforesaid, he shall return the papers to the Management with the direction that the matter shall be reconsidered by the Selection Committee.

(iii) If the District Basic Education Officer does not communicate his decision within one month from the date of receipt of the papers under clause (4), he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the Selection Committee."

25. This court finds that Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 provides that if the District Basic Education Officer does not communicate his decision within one month from the date of receipt of papers under clause (4), he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the selection committee. The word 'decision' used in Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 can be the decision to approve the selection or the decision to disapprove the selection or the decision to withhold the approval of the selection for certain reasons.

26. This court further finds that papers of the selection of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi for appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher were forwarded by the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school to the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur vide his letter dated 2.7.2018 and in response thereof, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur promptly communicated his decision to withhold the approval of the selection for the reason that the strength of the students in the school is very low and further he has sought guidance in the matter from the head of the department i.e. Director of Education (Basic), U.P., Lucknow. Once the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur after 2.7.2018 has communicated his decision to withhold the approval of selection vide his letter dated 23.7.2018, the question of selection having been deemed approved under the provisions of Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 does not arise. Even further pursuant to letter of the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur dated 23.7.2018, the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school has provided certain information in respect of reasons given in the letter dated 23.7.2018, vide his letter dated 30.7.2018 therefore, even if one month time for the purposes of deemed approval is to be counted that will start with effect from 30.7.2018 and before that, the Manager of the Committee of Management of the school has issued appointment order on 14.8.2018 in favour of Mr. Govind Raman Tripathi therefore, the said selection cannot be treated to have been deemed approved by operation of law as provided under Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978.

27. It is worth consideration that the intention of the rule making authority in providing for deemed approval of the selection under Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 is crystal clear that there may be a situation of complete inaction on the part of the competent authority in the matter of approval of the selection, then in that case if one month time has passed from the date of submission of the papers of the selection, the competent authority shall be deemed to have approved the selection, but in the present case after submission of the papers of the selection on 2.7.2018, the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur considered the entire matter and communicated his decision to withhold the approval for certain reasons therefore, there did not appear any inaction on the part of the District Basic Education Officer, Shahjahanpur, accordingly the deeming clause provided under Rule 10 (5)(iii) of the Rules of 1978 will not come into play.

28. In view of the aforesaid reasons, this court does not find any illegality in the impugned orders dated 22.5.2019, 17.7.2019 and 19.9.2019 therefore, any interference by this court is not warranted.

29. In the result, the writ petitions are dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 856
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Writ - A No. 12652 of 2023
Writ – A No. 11530 of 2023
Writ – A No. 12873 of 2023
Writ – A No. 17354 of 2023
Writ – A No. 13399 of 2023

Archana Taliyan ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Rajat Aren, Sri Raj Kumar Singh, Sri Rishi Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
Mrs. Archana Singh

A. Service Law – Basic Education – Transfer Policy dated 02.06.2023 – Clause 12(4) – Weightage Marks for Inter-District Transfer – Scope.
Petitioners, Assistant Teachers, claimed weightage on ground that their spouses are serving in Delhi Police – Contention that Delhi Police is under Ministry of Home Affairs, U.O.I., hence falls under "regular employees in service of U.O.I." as referred in Clause 12(4) of transfer policy – Held, Delhi Police is confined territorially to NCT of Delhi, not an All India Service – Services expressly included in clause are those of All India character (Army, Navy, Air Force, CAPFs, etc.) or St. of U.P. – No other St. services are included. Petitioners' claim rightly denied. (Paras 2–6, 8, 9)

B. Transfer Policy – Judicial Review – Scope.
Transfer policy is only an administrative guideline, not statutory in nature – Courts can interfere only if policy is arbitrary, discriminatory or violative of law – Explanation afforded by St. for excluding Delhi Police is rational and not arbitrary – Reliance on O.M. dated 01.09.2006 misplaced. (Paras 1, 5, 7, 8)

Writ Petitions Dismissed. No costs.

Case Law Discussed:

1. Shradha Yadav & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Neutral Citation: 2024:AHC:4085

2. Devesh Sharma Vs U.O.I., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 985

3. Satyadev Bagur Vs St. of Raj., (2022) 5 SCC 324

4. Krishnan Kakkanath Vs St. of Kerala, (1997) 9 SCC 495

5. Sher Singh Vs U.O.I., (1995) 6 SCC 515

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

CORAM : HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

1. In present bunch of writ petitions an issue with regard to interpretation of Clause 12, sub-clause (4) of transfer policy dated 02.06.2023 is involved. It is well settled that a transfer policy is only an administrative policy without any back up of statutory provisions.

2. Petitioners before this Court are Assistant Teachers in different Primary Schools at different districts of State of U.P. run by Board of Basic Education, Uttar Pradesh. They claimed that their respective spouses are working in Delhi Police, which is under the supervision of Ministry of Home Affairs, Union of India and their services would fall within the terminology "regular employees working under service of Union of India", as referred in above transfer policy for purpose of granting weightage marks for consideration of their respective applications for inter-district transfer.

3. The claim of petitioners for inter-district transfer was rejected and petitioners were not granted any weightage marks on basis that services with Delhi Police would not fall within the service of Union of India.

4. In the counter affidavit a categorical stand has been taken by State as decided in a high level meeting of State Authorities that nature of employment of Delhi Police is akin to State services, i.e., the working area of said employees is only within territory of State of NCT and not as a All India Service, whereas other services mentioned in sub-cause (4) of Clause 12 of transfer policy are the services having nature of All India Services as well as services which are within the State of U.P. No service of other State is included in said clause of transfer policy. For reference relevant part of transfer policy dated 02.06.2023 and circular dated 16.06.2023 is reproduced hereinafter:

Transfer policy dated 02.06.2023

12. अंतर्जनपदीय स्थानांतरण प्रक्रिया में वरीयता हेतु देय भारांक

क्रमांक	मानक	अधिकतम अंक
1	Xxx	Xxx
2	Xxx	Xxx
3	Xxx	Xxx
4	शिक्षक/शिक्षिका जिनके पति या पत्नी सरकारी सेवा (भारत सरकार/भारतीय थल सेना/भारतीय वायु सेवा/भारतीय नौ सेना/केन्द्रीय अर्ध सैनिक बल एवं उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार व उ०प्र०, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद के अधीन) में नियमित रूप से कार्यरत हो।	10
5	Xxx	Xxx
6	Xxx	Xxx
7	Xxx	Xxx
8	Xxx	Xxx

Circular dated 16.06.2023

"(8)- सरकारी सेवा का लाभ ऐसे शिक्षक/शिक्षिका जिनके पति या पत्नी भारत सरकार/भारतीय थल सेना/भारतीय वायु सेना/भारतीय नौ सेना/केन्द्रीय अर्ध सैनिक बल एवं उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार व उ०प्र०, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद के अधीन नियमित कार्यरत सरकारी सेवक होंगे, को ही देय होगा। भारत के संविधान के अनुच्छेद 309 के परन्तुक के अधीन जिन कार्मिकों का सेवा विनियमन होता है, वे सरकारी सेवा की श्रेणी में माने जायेंगे। सरकारी सेवा में अद्यतन कार्यरत होने का प्रमाण पत्र जो सक्षम नियुक्ति प्राधिकारी द्वारा निर्गत किया गया हो, ही मान्य होगा।"

5. Learned counsel for petitioners have argued at length and invited this Court to enter into a controversy, whether the service of Delhi Police will be a service under Union of India or not. However, since it is not a lis between parties to decide this large issue as neither Delhi Police nor Union of India being not necessary party to this dispute are before this Court nor the controversy could be decided by this Court in present writ petitions, being beyond territorial jurisdiction, therefore, despite various arguments raised touching Act and Rules which govern the services of Delhi Police as well as Articles of Constitution and office memorandum dated 01.09.2006 including some judgments, this Court in present writ petitions cannot go to consider the above issue to extent of deciding an issue not before this Court.

6. In above background, within limited scope of this Court in present cases considering explanation afforded by State, I am of the view that Delhi Police is a service having jurisdiction within National Capital Territory of Delhi, whereas services mentioned in sub-clause (4) of Clause 12 of transfer policy, i.e., Army etc. are within the ambit of All India Services. No other services of other States are included in that clause except services of State of U.P.

7. Recently this Court in a bunch of writ petitions leading being Writ-A No. 15163 of 2023 (Shradha Yadav and others vs. State of U.P. and others), Neutral Citation :2024:AHC: 4085 has dealt with the issue of scope of interference in a policy decision of State and relevant paragraphs thereof are reproduced hereinafter:

"१६. स्थानान्तरण नीति के खण्ड १६, १७ व १८ के अन्तर्वस्तु से स्पष्ट है, जो परिषद के उक्त परिपत्रों को, जो उक्त नीति के ' तकनीकी चरण व प्रक्रिया के निर्धारण', इसकी समय सारिणी व कार्यमुक्त कराने के सम्बन्ध में है, निर्गत करने के लिए स्पष्ट रूप से परिषद के सचिव को अधिकृत करते है। अतः उक्त परिपत्रों को निर्गत करने का अधिकार सचिव, उ.प्र. बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद को पूर्ण रूप से था। अतः परिपत्र वैधानिक है व विधिक रूप से संधारणीय भी है। यह परिपत्र स्थानान्तरण नीति के क्रम में उसके कार्यवाहन के लिए है, न कि उसकी प्रकृति के विरोध में निर्गत किये गये है। स्पष्टता व संदर्भ के लिए स्थानान्तरण नीति के खण्ड १६, १७ व १८ पुनः निम्न उल्लेखित किये जा रहे है:-

"(१६) अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के लिए निर्गत शासनादेश के अनुसार उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद द्वारा अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के तकनीकी चरण एवं प्रक्रिया का निर्धारण किया जायेगा तथा शासनादेश के क्रम में अग्रतर कार्यवाही की जायेगी।

(१७) अन्तर्जनपदीय स्थानान्तरण हेतु समय-सारिणी सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद द्वारा अपने स्तर से पृथक से निर्गत की जायेगी।

(१८) अन्तर्जनपदीय एवं पारस्परिक स्थानान्तरण के उपरान्त शिक्षक/शिक्षिका को कार्यमुक्त करने तथा कार्यभार ग्रहण करने की कार्यवाही मध्य शैक्षिक सत्र में नहीं की जायेगी। शिक्षक/शिक्षिका को कार्यमुक्त करने तथा कार्यभार ग्रहण करने की कार्यवाही अवकाश के दौरान ही की जायेगी।"

१७. अब न्यायालय को यह निर्धारित करना है कि परिपत्र दिनाँक २८.०६.२०२३ के खण्ड (५) में उल्लेखित 'स्थानान्तरित जनपद में बैच की पदोन्नति वर्ष/मौलिक नियुक्ति तिथि के आधार पर' कार्यमुक्त करने की कार्यवाही का कोई न्यायोचित कारण है अथवा नही। यहां यह ध्यान रखना होगा कि याचिकाकर्तागण के संबंध में अंतर्जनपदीय स्थानान्तरण का आदेश पारित हो गया था परन्तु उपरोक्त खण्ड (५) के कारण उनको कार्यमुक्त नहीं किया गया है।*

१८. उपरोक्त वर्णित खण्ड (५) के अन्तःवस्तु के मात्र परिशीलन से स्पष्टता प्रतीत नही होती है परन्तु परिषद के द्वारा दायर प्रतिउत्तर पत्र व उसके विद्वान अधिवक्ता के कथन से स्पष्टता प्रतीत होती है, कि अगर याचिकाकर्तागण जो पदोन्नति पद पर है स्थानान्तरित जनपद, जहां उनके बैंच के शिक्षकों की पदोन्नति नही हुयी है, कार्यभार ग्रहण कराया जाता है तो वो अपने संवर्ग मे निम्नतम वरिष्ठता पर रहें। फिर भी वो उनके बैंच में कार्यरत शिक्षक/शिक्षिका जिनको पदोन्नति नहीं की गई है, से वरिष्ठ हो जायेंगे और उनके पदोन्नति होने के बाद भी याचिकाकर्तागण ही वरिष्ठ रहेंगे। जिससे असमंजसता की स्थिति उत्पन्न हो जायेगी, चाहे वरिष्ठता सूची मूल जनपद के स्तर पर ही क्यो न हो। यह स्थिति सहकर्मी को साथ कार्य करने के लिए प्रतिकूल होगी। उपरोक्त वर्णित कारण एक नीतियुक्त कारण है जो उपरोक्त खण्ड (५) को वैधानिकता प्रदान करता है। अगर परिषद उक्त खण्ड (५) के अन्तःवस्तु में और स्पष्टता ला पाते तो अच्छा होता। अग्रिम स्थानान्तरण नीति में स्पष्टता का ध्यान रखना चाहिये।*

१९. मा० उच्चतम न्यायालय के एक नवीन निर्णय जो देवेश शर्मा प्रति भारत संघ व अन्यः २०२३ एस.सी.सी. ऑनलाइन एस.सी. ९८५, के प्रकरण में पारित किया गया है, में पुनः यह प्रतिपादित किया किः-*

" ७३. हमारे मस्तिष्क में निश्चित रूप से कोई संदेह नही है, कि साधारणतः राज्य के नीतिगत निर्णयों में संवैधानिक न्यायालयों द्वारा उसके पुनः निरीक्षण अधिकारो के अंतर्गत हस्ताक्षेप नहीं किया जा सकता है। इसी के साथ अगर नीतिगत निर्णय स्वयं में ही विधि के विरूद्ध और वो मनमाना व तर्कहीन हो तो पुनःनिरीक्षण के अधिकार का उपयोग करना ही चाहिये।"

२०. मा० उच्चतम न्यायालय द्वारा एक अन्य प्रकरण सत्यदेव बागुर प्रति राजस्थान शासन व अन्य (२०२२) ५ एस.सी.सी. ३२४, के प्रकरण मे पूर्व मे पारित कृष्णन्न कक्कनाथ प्रति केरल राज्यः(१९९७) ९ एस.सी.सी. ४९५ व शेर सिंह प्रति भारत संघः (१९९५) ६ एस.सी.सी. ५१५ के निर्णयों का संदर्भ लेते हुए यह निर्णीत किया किः-

" १५. यह अतिसामान्य है कि न्यायालय नीतिगत मामलो में हस्तक्षेप करने में मन्द रहेंगे, जब तक कि नीति स्पष्ट रूप से पक्षपाती और मनमानी न स्थापित हो जाये। यह न्यायालय राज्य की नीतिगत निर्णय में हस्तक्षेप नही करेगा, जब राज्य यह इंगित कर सके कि नीति के कार्यावहन में युक्तियुक्त अंतर है और वो युक्तियुक्त अंतर, उसके उद्देश्य की प्राप्ति से संबंध रखता है।"

8. Heavy reliance placed by learned counsel for petitioners on office memorandum dated 01.09.2006 will also not be helpful since the word used therein is 'treated' only. Otherwise also, as referred above, territorial area of service under Delhi Police is only limited to N.C.T. of Delhi, not beyond.

9. In above background as well as taking note of an explanation afforded by State, I do not find that there is any arbitrariness on the part of respondents in not granting any marks to petitioners on strength of their spouses being working in Delhi Police.

10. The writ petitions are accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 860
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 14750 of 2020

Ashok Kumar Yadav ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Samarath Singh, Sri Ajay Kumar, Sri Sankalp Narayan

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Jagannath Maurya

A. Service Law – Dismissal – Departmental enquiry – Right of cross-examination – Recovery of lost money from charged-employee was also directed – Charge of embezzlement was leveled – Burden of proof, on whom lie – Neither solitary witness was examined on behalf of the establishment nor any kind of evidence was led before the Inquiry Officer – Effect – Inquiry officer, how to act and proceed enquiry – Held, Inquiry officer must convene himself as an impartial arbiter, an Inquiry Tribunal, before whom the establishment must, in the first instance, lead evidence, both documentary and oral, through a Presenting Officer to prove the charge – When the establishment produce their witnesses in support of the charge/ charges, the employee has the right to cross-examine them – Manner in which disciplinary proceedings have been held by the Inquiry Officer are manifestly illegal and the order impugned, founded on such proceedings, cannot be sustained. (Para 15, 16 and 22)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. St. of U. P. & ors. Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772

2. Roop Singh Negi Vs Punjab National Bank & ors.; (2009) 2 SCC 570

3. St. of U.P. & anr.Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB)

4. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)

5. St. of U.P. Vs Aditya Prasad Srivastava & anr.; 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition is directed against an order of dismissal from service and recovery of the price of wheat said to be embezzled by the petitioner. This order has been made against the petitioner by the Executive Director, U.P. Rajya Karamchari Kalyan Nigam, Lucknow on 22.09.2020 and shall hereinafter be referred to as the impugned order.

2. The petitioner was a Centre Superintendent in the employ of the U.P. Rajya Karamchari Kalyan Nigam, Lucknow (for short, 'the Corporation'). He was appointed a Centre Superintendent at the Wheat Purchase Centre, Vijay Nagla, District Badaun in the month of March, 2018. The petitioner was transferred from District Badaun to District Agra on 13.07.2018. On 16th of July, 2018 in a quick movement of events, the petitioner was transferred from District Agra to District Sambhal and posted as a Salesman/ Accounts Clerk by the Managing Director, Uttar Pradesh State Food and Essential Commodities Corporation Limited, Lucknow. The petitioner joined the station of transfer on 16.07.2018. On 24th July, 2019, a little over a year after his preceding transfer to Sambhal, the petitioner was transferred back to District Agra, where he joined on 19.08.2019.

3. It is the petitioner's case that while posted as the Centre In-charge, Wheat Purchase Centre, Vijay Nagla, District Badaun, an incident took place on 15.06.2018, where records relating to purchase of wheat were forcibly taken away by one Harish Shankhdhar, a government contractor. The petitioner made a complaint regarding the incident to the Executive Director of the Corporation as well as the District Magistrate through registered post on 12.07.2018. Another complaint regarding the incident was addressed to the Director of the Corporation on 23.07.2018. The petitioner says that no action was taken by these Authorities upon his complaints. The petitioner was served with a show cause notice instead, by the Eecutive Director last mentioned on 03.08.2019, where it was claimed that the petitioner was guilty of short-deposit of wheat in the stocks of the Corporation, compared to the quantity purchased while posted at Badaun. The short-deposit was alleged to be a quantity of 2411.60 quintals.

4. The show cause notice was answered by the petitioner on 09.08.2019. The allegation was denied. In his reply, the petitioner said that he was transferred from Badaun on 13.07.2018, handing over charge to one Ashok Kumar Saxena. He joined the station of transfer on 14.07.2018. The stand of the petitioner was that he had no information regarding any embezzlement or shortage of wheat, which took place afterwards.

5. The Executive Director of the Corporation placed the petitioner under suspension pending inquiry vide order dated 31.10.2019. He was served with a charge-sheet on the day he was suspended. The charge-sheet says that the petitioner was prima facie found to have caused a loss of Rs.46,38,592.02 to the Corporation in that, that out of a total procurement of 11000 quintals of wheat at the Centre during the Rabi Season of 2018-19, the petitioner had deposited with the Food Corporation of India 8588.40 quintals, leaving a shortfall of 2411.60 qunitals. It was said in the charge that calculating the worth of the shortfall at the rate prescribed by the Food Corporation of India, which was Rs.1923.45 per qunital, the petitioner was guilty of embezzling a sum of Rs.46,38,592.02, and thus, causing serious financial loss to the Corporation. It is also said in the charge that the petitioner was required to show cause, but his reply did not clarify the position. He was summoned by the Executive Director vide his memo dated 11.09.2019, requiring the petitioner to appear before the Director aforesaid on 13.09.2019 in his office and clarify matters.

6. The petitioner, upon appearing before the Executive Director of the Corporation, had sought a month's time to make good the shortfall of wheat, but did not keep his word. The petitioner was, therefore, charged with serious financial irregularity and the resultant act of misconduct punishable under the Model Conduct Discipline and Appeal Rules framed by the Corporation. The petitioner was required to submit reply to the charge-sheet, which carried a solitary charge as aforesaid. The petitioner submitted his reply dated 19.11.2019 denying the charge.

7. It was the petitioner's case in his reply that the embezzlement was done by government contractors, Santosh Mishra and Harish Shankhdhar, regarding which information had already been conveyed by the petitioner and permission also sought to lodge a first information against the said contractors. It was pointed out that further action was not taken due to want of instructions from the Authorities of the Corporation. A First Information Report was nevertheless lodged by the petitioner on 23.09.2019 against government contractors, Santosh Mishra and Harish Shankhdhar on 23.09.2019, which was registered as Case Crime No.238 of 2019, under Sections 406, 420, 341, 506 IPC, Police Station Vinawar, District Badaun.

8. The petitioner challenged his suspension from service by means of Writ-A No.2731 of 2020, which was disposed of by this Court vide an order dated 18.02.2020, directing the respondents to complete departmental proceedings expeditiously. This Court's order was observed in breach, compelling the petitioner to move Contempt Application (Civil) No.3699 of 2020. Pending these contempt proceedings, the petitioner was issued with a show cause notice by the respondents on 17.07.2020, requiring him to submit a reply to the inquiry report, a copy of which was supplied to him along with the show cause. This was followed by the impugned order of dismissal from service dated 22.09.2020, which further directed that a sum of Rs.15,46,197.33/- shall be recovered from the petitioner and that he will not be paid any sum of money for the period of his suspension, except the subsistence allowance. Amongst other pleas, that are urged, it is averred in Paragraph No.32 of the writ petition that after receipt of his reply to the charge-sheet, no date, time and place of inquiry was fixed and intimated to the petitioner, where he could appear and cross-examine witnesses in support of the charge or answer other evidence led. It is averred that a namesake of inquiry was held without giving the petitioner a fair opportunity of hearing.

9. In the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the Corporation in Paragraph No.22, Paragraph No.32 of the writ petition, along with a host of other paragraphs, ranging from 26 to 38 of the writ petition, have been answered. All the averments in the relative paragraphs have been 'not admitted'. Paragraph No.22 of the counter affidavit reads:

"22. That the contents of paragraph nos. 26 to 38 of the writ petition are not admitted. In reply thereto it is submitted that for the aforesaid embezzlement of Rs.46,38,592.02, departmental enquiry was initiated against the petitioner and vide order dated 31-01-2019 he was placed under suspension and Finance & Accounts Officer, Uttar Pradesh, Rajya Karmchari Kalyan Nigam, Lucknow was appointed as Enquiry Officer. It is further submitted that the Enquiry Officer after conducting enquiry into the matter submitted enquiry report dated 07-08-2020 in which the charge of embezzlement levelled against the petitioner was proved. On the basis of enquiry report dated 07-08-2020 submitted by the Enquiry Officer, the Executive Director, Uttar Pradesh, Rajya Karmchari Kalyan Nigam, Lucknow(respondent no.2) after affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioner/delinquent employee, passed order dated 22-09- 2020 whereby the petitioner was dismissed from service with further direction to recover an amount of Rs.15,46,197.33 from the petitioner."

10. Heard Mr. Sankalp Narayan, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. J. N. Maurya, learned Counsel for respondent Nos. 2 and 3 and Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for respondent No.1.

11. The thrust of the petitioner's submission is that the inquiry held was a slipshod affair, where no date, time and place was fixed and intimated to the petitioner. Elaborating his submissions, the learned Counsel for the petitioner has urged that in matters involving the possible imposition of a major penalty, it is incumbent upon the Inquiry Officer to fix a date, time and venue, which should be intimated to the delinquent. It is also imperative that in the inquiry held, some kind of a formal proceeding be undertaken, where the Inquiry Officer should hear evidence on behalf of the establishment, requiring them to prove the charge by evidence, both documentary and oral. It is, particularly, urged that in matters involving the likelihood of imposition of a major penalty, it is imperative for the establishment that they examine witnesses in support of the charge with opportunity to the delinquent to cross-examine them. It is after the establishment have led evidence to prove the charge/ charges, that the delinquent is to be afforded opportunity to produce evidence in his defence, both documentary and oral.

12. The learned Counsel appearing for the respondents are in unison to say that the petitioner has been given adequate opportunity in the sense that he was served with a copy of the charge-sheet, to which he submitted a reply, and further was given a copy of the inquiry report with opportunity to show cause at that stage. In the submission of the learned Counsel appearing for the respondents, there is no procedural lapse or unfairness, causing prejudice to the petitioner, calling for interference by this Court.

13. Upon hearing learned Counsel for the parties and going through the record, what this Court finds is that the inquiry indeed has been held in a slipshod manner by the establishment without following salutary principles for proving the charge they have laid. A copy of the inquiry report is not available on the record of the writ petition, but surprisingly it has not been annexed to the counter affidavit as well. The best material to know about the proceedings of the inquiry and what happened before the Inquiry Officer is the order impugned itself. It is recorded about the proceedings of the inquiry in the order impugned as follows:

"तत्पश्चात प्रकरण में कार्यालय पत्र सं0-18 स्था0 / बत्तीस - 2020 दिनॉक 08.01.2020 द्वारा अपचारी कर्मचारी की व्यक्तिगत सुनवाई / बयान अभिलिखित करने हेतु दिनॉक 13.01.2020 की तिथि नियत की गयी, अपचारी कर्मचारी व्यक्तिगत सुनवाई हेतु नियत तिथि को उपस्थित हुआ तथा अपना बयान अंकित कराया गया। अपचारी कर्मचारी के विरूद्ध निर्गत आरोप पत्र प्राप्त अभिलिखित कथन, अपचारी कर्मचारी का अंकित बयान तथा अभिलेखीय साक्ष्यों का परीक्षण एवं विवचनोपरान्त, विधि सम्मत जॉचोपरान्त जॉच अधिकारी द्वारा अपनी जॉच आख्या दिनॉक 07.08.2020 को प्रस्तुत की गयी, जिसमें मात्र 01 आरोप लगाया गया है, जो कि सिद्ध पाया गया है।"

14. A perusal of the aforesaid proceedings of the inquiry shows that 13th January, 2020 was the date fixed before the Inquiry Officer that was intimated to the petitioner by the respondents through their memo dated 8th January, 2020. This date was described as a date for the petitioner's personal hearing. A perusal of the description of proceedings, above extracted, would show that on 13.01.2020, the petitioner appeared before the Inquiry Officer and his evidence or statement was recorded. The Inquiry Officer then proceeded to hold the petitioner guilty looking into the charge-sheet, the employee's reply to the charge-sheet, the evidence or statement of the petitioner and the documents. The Inquiry Officer looked into this material and held these proceedings as above described and nothing else. In his report dated 07.08.2020, as the impugned order would show, he found on the aforesaid material the solitary charge proved against the petitioner.

15. Now, in doing all this, the Inquiry Officer fell foul of the most salutary principle governing the procedure to hold departmental inquiries. Wherever the charge/ charges is/ are serious and there is likelihood of imposition of a major penalty, the most salutary principle that applies to departmental inquiries is that charges are not to be regarded as proofs of themselves and it is the establishment's burden to prove them before the Inquiry Officer. The Inquiry Officer must convene himself as an impartial arbiter, an Inquiry Tribunal, before whom the establishment must, in the first instance, lead evidence, both documentary and oral, through a Presenting Officer to prove the charge. It is also of the most salutary importance, in matters where the charge is serious that the establishment do examine witnesses to prove it in the first instance. The Inquiry Officer cannot just look into the charge-sheet and the delinquent's reply, besides documents on record that are idle papers, to form his opinion. The documents have to be produced before the Inquiry Officer as evidence and proved by witnesses. It is after the establishment have discharged their burden of proving the charge by producing both documentary and oral evidence that the employee may be called upon to produce evidence in defence.

16. Also, when the establishment produce their witnesses in support of the charge/ charges, the employee has the right to cross-examine them. The course of proceedings before the Inquiry Officer, as extracted in the order impugned, shows that what the Inquiry Officer looked into was the charge-sheet, the petitioner's reply and took down the petitioner's statement, holding the charge proved. He also did look into some documents of his own that were never produced before him by a Presenting Officer and proved by witnesses. The Inquiry Officer seems to have proceeded on the supposition that the charge was proof of itself and the petitioner's statement was virtually considered like an explanation in a preliminary inquiry that was not satisfactory. This kind of a disciplinary inquiry is no inquiry in the eye of law. The petitioner's defence to the charge was also based on the incident dated 15.06.2018, where records relating to the purchase of wheat were forcibly taken away by Harish Shankhdhar, a government contractor. The matter was complained by the petitioner, but no action was taken as he says. The defence is further based on the fact that the petitioner had left charge of the Centre during the relevant year and his successor in office, to whom he had handed over charge, was responsible for the shortfall. Now, the charge in the very nature, would require the establishment to prove it by the testimony of witnesses on their behalf, apart from the principle that witnesses must always be examined in a charge involving the possible imposition of a major penalty.

17. Here, as already remarked, not a solitary witness was examined on behalf of the establishment nor any kind of evidence led before the Inquiry Officer. Far from functioning as an impartial arbiter, the Inquiry Officer seems to have functioned as a servant of the establishment to endorse the charge-sheet blindfoldedly. The salutary principles in regard to a departmental inquiry have been laid down by the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, where it is observed:

"27. A bare perusal of the aforesaid sub-rule shows that when the respondent had failed to submit the explanation to the charge-sheet it was incumbent upon the inquiry officer to fix a date for his appearance in the inquiry. It is only in a case when the government servant despite notice of the date fixed failed to appear that the inquiry officer can proceed with the inquiry ex parte. Even in such circumstances it is incumbent on the inquiry officer to record the statement of witnesses mentioned in the charge-sheet. Since the government servant is absent, he would clearly lose the benefit of cross-examination of the witnesses. But nonetheless in order to establish the charges the Department is required to produce the necessary evidence before the inquiry officer. This is so as to avoid the charge that the inquiry officer has acted as a prosecutor as well as a judge.

28. An inquiry officer acting in a quasi-judicial authority is in the position of an independent adjudicator. He is not supposed to be a representative of the department/disciplinary authority/Government. His function is to examine the evidence presented by the Department, even in the absence of the delinquent official to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to hold that the charges are proved. In the present case the aforesaid procedure has not been observed. Since no oral evidence has been examined the documents have not been proved, and could not have been taken into consideration to conclude that the charges have been proved against the respondents."

18. To the same end, is the decision of the Supreme Court in Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank and others, (2009) 2 SCC 570, where it was observed:

"14. Indisputably, a departmental proceeding is a quasi-judicial proceeding. The enquiry officer performs a quasi-judicial function. The charges levelled against the delinquent officer must be found to have been proved. The enquiry officer has a duty to arrive at a finding upon taking into consideration the materials brought on record by the parties. The purported evidence collected during investigation by the investigating officer against all the accused by itself could not be treated to be evidence in the disciplinary proceeding. No witness was examined to prove the said documents. The management witnesses merely tendered the documents and did not prove the contents thereof. Reliance, inter alia, was placed by the enquiry officer on the FIR which could not have been treated as evidence."

19. Dealing with the same issue, a Division Bench of this Court in State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another, 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB), held:

"14. Now coming to the question, what is the effect of non-holding of domestic/oral inquiry, in a case where the inquiry officer is appointed, oral inquiry is mandatory. The charges are not deemed to be proved suo motu merely on account of levelling them by means of the charge-sheet unless the same are proved by the department before the inquiry officer and only thereafter it is the turn of delinquent employee to place his defence. Holding oral enquiry is mandatory before imposing a major penalty, as held by Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subhash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

15. In another case in Subhash Chandra Gupta v. State of U.P., 2012(4) ADJ 4 (NOC), the Division Bench of this Court after survey of law on this issue observed as under:

"It is well-settled that when the statute provides to do a thing in a particular manner that thing has to be done in that very manner. We are of the considered opinion that any punishment awarded on the basis of an enquiry not conducted in accordance with the enquiry rules meant for that very purposes is unsustainable in the eye of law. We are further of the view that the procedure prescribed under the inquiry rules for imposing major penalty is mandatory in nature and unless those procedures are followed, any out come inferred thereon will be of no avail unless the charges are so glaring and unrefutable which does not require any proof. The view taken by us find support from the judgement of the Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P.Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

16. A Division Bench decision of this Court in the case of Salahuddin Ansari v. State of U.P. and others, 2008(3) ESC 1667, held that non holding of oral inquiry is a serious flaw which can vitiate the order of disciplinary proceeding including the order of punishment has observed as under:

" 10..... Non holding of oral inquiry in such a case, is a serious matter and goes to the root of the case.

11. A Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541, considering the question as to whether holding of an oral inquiry is necessary or not, held that if no oral inquiry is held, it amounts to denial of principles of natural justice to the delinquent employee. The aforesaid view was reiterated in Subash Chandra Sharma v. U.P.Cooperative Spinning Mills and others, 2001 (2) UPLBEC 1475 and Laturi Singh v. U.P.Public Service Tribunal and others, Writ Petition No. 12939 of 2001, decided on 6.5.2005."

17. Even if the employee refuses to participate in the enquiry the employer cannot straightaway dismiss him, but he must hold and ex parte enquiry where evidence must be led vide Imperial Tobacco Co. Ltd. v. Its Workmen, AIR 1962 SC 1348, Uma Shankar v. Registrar, 1992 (65) FLR 674 (All).

18. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Mahesh Narain Gupta v. State of U.P. and others, (2011) 2 ILR 570, had also occasion to deal with the same issue. It held:

"At this stage, we are to observe that in the disciplinary proceedings against a delinquent, the department is just like a plaintiff and initial burden lies on the department to prove the charges which can certainly be proved only by collecting some oral evidence or documentary evidence, in presence and notice charged employee. Even if the department is to rely its own record/document which are already available, then also the enquiry officer by looking into them and by assigning his own reason after analysis, will have to record a finding that hose documents are sufficient enough to prove the charges.

In no case, approach of the Enquiry Officer that as no reply has been submitted, the charge will have to be automatically proved can be approved. This will be erroneous. It has been repeatedly said that disciplinary authority has a right to proceed against delinquent employee in ex parte manner but some evidence will have to be collected and justification to sustain the charges will have to be stated in detail. The approach of the enquiry officer of automatic prove of charges on account of non filing of reply is clearly misconceived and erroneous. This is against the principle of natural justice, fair play, fair hearing and, thus, enquiry officer has to be cautioned in this respect."

19. The principal of law which emanates from the above judgments are that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case of procedure adopted for inflicting major penalty, the department must prove the charges by oral evidence also.

20. From perusal of enquiry report it is demonstrably proved that no oral evidence has been led by the department. When a major punishment is proposed to be passed the department has to prove the charges against the delinquent/employee by examining the witnesses and by documentary evidence. In the present case no witness was examined by the department neither any officer has been examined to prove the documents on the basis of which charges are levelled on the claimant in the proceedings.

21. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice.

22. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

20. The same principle has been reiterated by the Division Bench of our Court in Smt. Karuna Jaiswal v. State of U.P., 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB), where it has been held:

"15. The law in this regard is very well-settled and does not need a reiteration, however, we may refer to a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, wherein it has clearly been held that Enquiry Officer acts as a quasi judicial authority and his position is that of an independent adjudicator and further that he cannot act as a representative of the department or disciplinary authority and further that he cannot act as a prosecutor neither he should act as a judge; his function is to examine the evidence presented by the department and even in the absence of the delinquent officer, has to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to bring home the charges.

16. Hon'ble Supreme Court has further held in the said judgment of Saroj Kumar Sinha (supra) that it is only in case when the Government servant, despite notice, fails to appear during the course of enquiry that Enquiry Officer can proceed ex parte and even in such circumstances it is incumbent upon the Enquiry Officer to record the statement of witness.

17. In the instant case, no oral enquiry was held, neither the petitioner was given any notice to participate in any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for oral enquiry. It is only that the Enquiry Officer after noticing that despite sufficient time having been given to the petitioner, she did not furnish her reply to the charge-sheet, he proceeded to submit ex parte report without conducting any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for such an oral enquiry. Accordingly, the Enquiry Officer, in this case, has violated the aforesaid principles, which clearly vitiates the enquiry proceedings and any punishment order based on such a vitiated enquiry, is clearly not sustainable."

21. In State of U.P. v. Aditya Prasad Srivastava and another, 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB), again a Bench decision of this Court, it was held:

"14. Recently the entire law on the subject has been reviewed and reiterated in Chamoli District Co-operative Bank Ltd. v. Raghunath Singh Rana and others, AIR 2016 SC 2510 and Court has culled out certain principles as under:

"(i) The enquiries must be conducted bona fide and care must be taken to see that the enquiries do not become empty formalities.

(ii) If an officer is a witness to any of the incidents which is the subject-matter of the enquiry or if the enquiry was initiated on a report of an officer, then in all fairness he should not be the Enquiry Officer. If the said position becomes known after the appointment of the Enquiry Officer, during the enquiry, steps should be taken to see that the task of holding an enquiry is assigned to some other officer.

(iii) In an enquiry, the employer/department should take steps first to lead evidence against the workman/delinquent charged and give an opportunity to him to cross-examine the witnesses of the employer. Only thereafter, the workman/delinquent be asked whether he wants to lead any evidence and asked to give any explanation about the evidence led against him.

(iv) On receipt of the enquiry report, before proceeding further, it is incumbent on the part of the disciplinary/punishing authority to supply a copy of the enquiry report and all connected materials relied on by the enquiry officer to enable him to offer his views, if any."

15. The principal of law emanates from the above judgments is that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case where inquiry is initiated with a view to inflict major penalty, department must prove charges by adducing evidence by holding oral inquiry.

17. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

22. The said principles would show that the manner in which disciplinary proceedings have been held by the Inquiry Officer are manifestly illegal and the order impugned, founded on such proceedings, cannot be sustained.

23. It goes without saying that the charge being serious, involving allegations of embezzlement of valuable goods of the Corporation, it would be open to the respondents to hold proceedings afresh against the petitioner from the stage of the charge-sheet, in accordance with law and the guidance in this judgment. The respondents would be at liberty to pass fresh orders, if they elect the aforesaid course.

24. In the result, this writ petition succeeds and is allowed in part. The impugned order dated 22.09.2020 passed by the Executive Director of the Corporation is hereby quashed. A mandamus is issued to respondent Nos.2 and 3, ordering them to reinstate the petitioner forthwith in service and pay him current salary from the date of this judgment. The payment of arrears of salary will abide by the result of disciplinary proceedings, if taken afresh. Else, 50% of the due emolument will become payable to the petitioner, that is, if the respondents chose not to pursue fresh proceedings. It would be open to the respondents after reinstating the petitioner to assign him duties at such station as they wish and pay him current salary or place him under suspension pending inquiry, in which event the petitioner shall be regularly paid his subsistence allowance, without asking him to furnish a non-alternative engagement certificate. If fresh proceedings are taken, the entitlement of the petitioner to receive emoluments for the period of his ouster from service will abide by the final result of those proceedings. If the petitioner is finally reinstated in service at the end of proceedings, with whatever punishment is meted out to him, other than a terminal punishment, he will be entitled to all benefits of seniority and continuity.

25. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 870
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 04.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 14972 of 2023

Arbind Kumar ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Ritesh Srivastava, Ms. Shweta Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Abhishek Srivastava

A. Service Law – Disciplinary proceeding – Punishment – Demotion – Award of a censure and stopping one increment with cumulative effect – Quantum of punishment – Scope of interference – Charge of travelling on a air ticket purchased by the Firm, where the petitioner was going to inspect quality, was leveled – Defence of cancellation of earlier flight, for which petitioner purchased the ticket, and further of paying the price of ticket upon destination was taken – Though no witnesses were examined by the establishment, but there was admission of the petitioner to travel on Firm's ticket – Effect – Held, the finding of the Disciplinary Authority is not bad, based on the petitioner's admission about his impropriety of conduct or the misconduct in travelling on a ticket purchased by the Firm's representative, where he was going to inspect, as also the finding in not believing the evidence about paying off the Firm's representative upon arrival at destination, the quantum of punishment imposed, may still be the subject matter of some scrutiny by this Court on settled parameters – High Court can interfere with the quantum of punishment only if we find it to be shockingly disproportionate – Given the totality of circumstances, where the conduct of the petitioner appears to be indiscreet and highly irregular, but not dishonest, or one that has caused any kind of a loss to the Corporation, the punishment of demotion by the Revisional Authority, to this Court's conscience, is indeed shockingly disproportionate. (Para 12, 14, 21 and 23)

B. Service law – Violation of natural justice – Punishment – Revisional authority enhanced the punishment – No notice of enhancement was served upon the petitioner – Effect – Held, the requirement to serve a notice before enhancement of punishment is also a requirement under the Regulations, and, in any case, its non-service would be a violation of the principles of natural justice. (Para 20)

Writ petition partly allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. St. of U. P. & ors.Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772

2. Roop Singh Negi Vs Punjab National Bank & ors.; (2009) 2 SCC 570

3. St. of Uttaranchal & ors. Vs Kharak Singh; (2008) 8 SCC 236

4. St. of U.P. & anr. Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB)

5. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)

6. St. of U.P. Vs Aditya Prasad Srivastava & anr.; 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB)

7. U.O.I.& ors.Vs Subrata Nath; 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1617

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition is directed against the order dated 24.01.2023 passed by the Chairman, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow, revising the order of the Disciplinary Authority suo motu, enhancing the penalty and punishing the petitioner with demotion to the post of a Junior Engineer. Also under challenge is the order dated 28.05.2022 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow, the Disciplinary Authority, punishing the petitioner, after disciplinary proceedings, with the award of a censure and stopping one increment with cumulative effect.

2. The facts giving rise to this petition are these:

The petitioner was a Junior Engineer in the service of the U.P. Power Corporation Limited. He was appointed as such in the year 2007. He was promoted to the post of an Assistant Engineer in the year 2014. After suffering the orders inflicting penalty, the petitioner is working as a Junior Engineer (Meter) with the Electricity Test Division, Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Pratapgarh. The charge, in relation to which disciplinary proceedings were drawn against the petitioner, relates to the time when he was posted as an Assistant Engineer (Meter) in the Electricity Test Division, Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Varanasi (for short, 'the Distribution Corporation'). By an office memo of 11th January, 2021, the petitioner was directed to inspect Single Phase Two Wire Meters (10 – 60 Amperes) at the establishment of a certain M/s. Secure Meter Limited, Ahmedabad (for short, 'the Firm'). It appears that the purpose of the aforesaid inspection was to inspect meters that were to be purchased by the Distribution Corporation for installation at the premises of consumers. In order to travel to the destination, the petitioner booked an air passage from Varanasi to Ahmedabad on board Wise Jet Flight (SG-072), bearing PNR No. DSQ FVA, scheduled on 23.01.2021. There is on record a photostat copy of the said air ticket.

3. It is the petitioner's case that due to bad weather, the flight was cancelled. The fact, about cancellation of the petitioner's air ticket, was apprised to the representative of the Firm. As the inspection of meters was urgent and the petitioner was finding it difficult to book an air passage at short notice, the representative of the Firm booked a ticket for the air passage on 23.01.2021 from Varanasi to Ahmedabad via New Delhi. A copy of the said air ticket too is on record. Upon reaching Ahmedabad, the petitioner inspected the meters along with one of the representatives of some entity called NPCCL. The petitioner has described that entity as NPCCL with no clue to the abbreviation. It is asserted that he refunded the air fare and cost of the hotel accommodation paid by the Firm's representative. Upon an inquiry made by the Director (P.M. & A.) vide letter dated 03.11.2021, the authorized signatory of the Firm vide letter dated 25.02.2022 confirmed that no costs of the petitioner's travel were borne by the Firm. It mentions the fact that the air ticket the petitioner had booked was cancelled due to bad weather and the Firm had to facilitate his journey, besides lodging at Ahmedabad, for which the Firm were paid a sum of Rs.23,902/- by the petitioner, that is to say, for the air ticket and the hotel arrangement. This conduct of the petitioner was found against the service regulations and he was charge-sheeted vide charge-sheet dated 23.07.2021 issued by the Inquiry Committee, that was constituted. The charge-sheet aforesaid was issued to the petitioner by the Inquiry Officer after approval by the Managing Director. The charge-sheet carried the following charges:

"गोपनीय सूत्रों से डिस्काम स्तर पर प्राप्त सूचना के आधार पर पाया गया कि आपके द्वारा फर्म M/s Secure Meters Ltd., E-566, Sanand-II, Sanand Ahmadabad के सामग्री की निरीक्षण एवं गुणवत्ता के समय निम्न विवरण के अनुसार आचरण किया जो कि सेवा नियमावली के विरूद्ध है :-

1. सामग्री निरीक्षण हेतु कार्यदायी संस्था के माध्यम से यात्रा टिकट प्राप्त किया गया जो विभागीय नियमानुसार अनुचित है ।

2. आपका यह व्यवहार, आचरण एवं कार्यशैली एक जिम्मेदार अधिशासी अभियन्ता स्तर के अधिकारी से स्वीकार योग्य नहीं है। कूटरचित आचरण से सामग्री की गुणवत्ता पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव पड़ने की सम्भावना से इनकार नहीं किया जा सकता। आपके द्वारा सामग्री निर्माता को अनुचित लाभ पहुंचाने के उद्देश्य से यह कृत किया गया ।

अतः आप अपने कर्तव्यों एवं उत्तरदायित्वों के निर्वहन में घोर शिथिलता बरतने, कदाचरण बरतने एवं कारपोरेशन की छवि धूमिल करने तथा उ0प्र0 सरकारी कर्मचारी आचरण नियमावली-1956 (यथा संशोधित) के संगत नियमो के उल्लंघन करने हेतु प्रथम दृष्टया दोषी पाये जाते है।"

4. The petitioner submitted a reply to the charge-sheet. He denied the charge with a plea of confession and avoidance. He admitted getting the ticket through the Firm, but assserted that he inspected the meters according to the prescribed parameters on 23.01.2021 and upon reaching the destination, paid the price of the air ticket purchased by the Firm to their representative in cash. He denied the charge, explaining the circumstances in the following terms:

"उक्त निरीक्षण के सम्बन्ध में मैने दिनांक 23.01.2021 को हवाई जहाज से यात्रा करने हेतु दिनांक 19.01.2021 को आन लाइन टिकट क्रय किया था जिसका पी0एन0आर0 सं0 TFQFVA है। (टिकट की छायाप्रति संलग्न) मौसम की खराबी के कारण फ्लाइट निरस्त हो गयी। फ्लाइट निरस्त होने के सम्बन्ध में मैने मेसर्स सिक्योर मीटर्स लि0 के प्रतिनिधि को फोन द्वारा सूचित कर दिया था। मेसर्स सिक्योर मीटर्स लि0 के प्रतिनिधि ने अपनी आवश्यकता के अनुरूप टिकट कराने का प्रयास करने हेतु कहा। उन्होने अपने प्रयास से दिनांक 23.01.2021 का वाराणसी से अहमादाबाद वाया दिल्ली का टिकट कराकर मुझे सूचित किया। मैने दिनांक 23.01.2021 को अहमदाबाद जाकर NPPCL के प्रतिनिधि के साथ समस्त पैरामीटर्स को ध्यान में रखते हुए मीटर की टेस्टिंग की । अहमदाबाद जाने पर टिकट की धनराशि रू0 6590.00 का नगद भुगतान मेसर्स सिक्योर मीटर्स लि0 के प्रतिनिधि को मैने कर दिया था। इस प्रकार मेरे द्वारा सामग्री निर्माता को किसी भी प्रकार का अनुचित लाभ नहीं दिया गया।"

5. The Inquiry Committee submitted its report dated 14.09.2021, holding the charge proved. The Inquiry Committee returned the following finding:

"जाँच समिति का मत :-

आरोपित सेवक द्वारा सामग्री निरीक्षण हेतु कार्यदायी संस्था के माध्यम से यात्रा टिकट प्राप्त करना स्वीकार किया गया है, जो कि विभागीय नियमानुसार अनुचित है। इनके आचरण से सामग्री की गुणवत्ता पर प्रतिकूल प्रभाव पड़ने की सम्भावना से इन्कार नहीं किया जा सकता साथ ही इनके द्वारा कार्यदायी संस्था को अनुचित लाभ पहुॅचाने की सम्भावना से भी इन्कार नहीं किया जा सकता। इनका कार्य-व्यवहार सरकारी लोक सेवक के लिये निर्धारित आचरण नियमावली का उल्लंघन है। अतः इनकी सत्यनिष्ठा संदिग्ध प्रतीत होती है।

उपरोक्त के आलोक में आरोपित सेवक पर लगाया गया आरोप सिद्ध पाया गया।"

6. It is averred in Paragraph No.16 that during the course of inquiry, no oral evidence was led to prove the charges and only on the basis of the air ticket, the petitioner was held guilty. It is also pleaded that in the absence of any witness being examined to support the charge levelled against the petitioner, he has been condemned unheard. The Inquiry Committee have neither recorded any oral evidence nor provided opportunity to the petitioner to adduce any evidence in his defence.

7. It is emphasized that on 12.10.2021, the Director (P.M. & A.) of the Distribution Corporation issued a show cause notice to the petitioner. The petitioner responded to the show cause by his reply dated 28.10.2021, where the petitioner again mentioned the fact that the air ticket booked by him was cancelled due to cancellation of the flight. Since, it was necessary for the petitioner to reach Ahmedabad at the earliest and test the meters, bearing in mind the interest of the Corporation, the petitioner travelled on an air ticket booked by the representative of the Firm. The further case was that the petitioner conducted the inspection of meters in accordance with norms, and after being satisfied with the quality, drew up an inspection report, signed by the representative of the NPCCL as the Inspecting Officer and the petitioner a witness. The petitioner has further said in his representation that he has not extended any undue advantage to the Firm.

8. It appears that the petitioner was again given a show cause notice along with a copy of the inquiry report by the Disciplinary Authority, the Managing Director of the Distribution Corporation by his memo dated 31.01.2022. The petitioner submitted his reply dated 14.03.2022. The petitioner enclosed three documents along with his reply dated 14.03.2022, which are directed to show that there was no compromise with his duties in inspecting the quality of meters. It is the petitioner's case that without considering the relevant material and his representation, the Disciplinary Authority acted on bald allegations of the possibility of adverse effect on the quality of material (meters) and the possibility of extending undue advantage to the Firm. It is also said that the Disciplinary Authority has remarked that there is no refund of the price of the air ticket, which the petitioner says, is a perverse finding. He says that it is perverse, because in response to the letter dated 31.11.2021 by the Director (P.M. & A.) of the Distribution Corporation, addressed to the Firm, the authorized signatory of the Firm, had conveyed vide a letter dated 25.09.2022 that no cost of travel for the petitioner was borne by the Firm.

9. The Director of the Distribution Corporation, by his order dated 28.05.2022, awarded the petitioner the punishment of censure and stoppage of one increment with cumulative effect. The Chairman of the U.P. Power Corporation Limited, in exercise of his revisional powers under Section 13(c) of the Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited Employees (Discipline and Appeal) Regulations, 2020 (for short, 'the Regulations'), enhanced the penalty by the impugned order dated 24.01.2023 and demoted the petitioner from the post of an Assistant Engineer to that of a Junior Engineer. The petitioner pleads that the impugned order dated 21.04.2023 was passed by the Director of the Power Corporation, who acting on his own motion under Regulation 13 and finding it a fit case for enhancement of penalty, after calling for the petitioner's representation vide his notice dated 28.09.2022, enhanced the punishment. The petitioner has averred in Paragraph No.27 of the writ petition that the aforesaid letter dated 28.09.2022 was never served upon the petitioner, but when he went to appear in a case in Court at Varanasi, the said letter was handed over to the petitioner on 27.04.2023 in the office of the Electricity Test Division, Varanasi. It is averred in Paragraph No.28 that since the petitioner was transferred to Pratapgarh, he could not receive the letter dated 28.09.2022 issued by the Director of the Power Corporation within time and represent his case against the proposed enhancement of penalty.

10. In the counter affidavit, the respondents have refuted the petitioner's allegations, where the necessity of witnesses has been denied for a proposition of law in Paragraph No. 4(vi) of the affidavit last mentioned. It is averred in Paragraph Nos.4(ix), 4(xii) and 4(xiii):

"4. ix. Further the petitioner himself in his reply had admitted the fact of travelling on the air ticket provided by the firm. However, in reply to the said charge, he was not able to give any cogent evidence of refunding the said amount of Air Ticket to the representative of the firm.

xii. Further when the matter of the petitioner was duly examined by Respondent authority after taking into account the material evidence on record along with enquiry report and reply given by the petitioner, a situation of enhancement in punishment was found and a show cause notice was issued on 28.9.2022 to the petitioner to submit his reply within 15 days in regard to the fact as to why the punishment should not be enhanced and said show cause notice was duly served upon the petitioner which was also confirmed from the petitioner on his Mobile Number. Copy of proof of service of show cause notice dated 28.9.2022 provided to the petitioner is being annexed herewith and marked as Annexure- CA-4 to this counter affidavit.

xiii. Further when the petitioner had not submitted a reply to the show cause notice dated 28.9.2022, the Respondent No.2 had passed a detailed, reasoned and speaking order dated 21.4.2023 enhancing the punishment and had awarded the censure entry along with demotion of the petitioner to the post of Junior Engineer."

11. Heard Mr. Ritesh Srivastava and Ms. Shweta Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Ujjwal Srivastava, Advocate holding brief of Mr. Abhishek Srivastava, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Power Corporation and Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State.

12. It is, no doubt, true that the Corporation, once again in this case, as often noticed, have failed to adhere to the salutary procedure of examining witnesses in support of the charge before their Inquiry Officer, as laid down by preponderant authority to be the requirement of a valid inquiry in a disciplinary case, which may result in the imposition of a major penalty. But, the facts here are slightly different. The charge against the petitioner is about travelling on a ticket purchased by the Firm, from whom the electricity meters were to be procured by the Distribution Corporation and whose establishment the petitioner was to visit in order to inspect the quality of those meters. The charge labels this conduct as one contrary to rules of the Corporation.

13. It is also mentioned in the charge that the petitioner's behaviour, conduct and method of work does not show him to be a responsible officer of the rank of an Executive Engineer. The forged (described as 'कूटरचित' in Hindi) conduct could have a possible impact on the quality of the materials purchased. The inference, therefore, is that he did the act, subject matter of charge, with a view to extend undue favour to the manufacturer. For one, the charge appears to be rather casually worded, in that, that the petitioner was never an Executive Engineer. He was an Assistant Engineer. Even if that be regarded as a mere irregularity, not impacting the proceedings, the same is true of the choice of words for the charge, where the petitioner's conduct has been described as forged, said in Hindi by the words 'कूट रचित आचरण'. Possibly, there cannot be any kind of a 'forgery of conduct', which is an act associated with tampering of documents or electronic record. Nevertheless, reading the charge to be that it was improper conduct on the petitioner's part, this Court has proceeded to understand the matter, the way it has been dealt with by the Disciplinary Authority and the Revisional Authority.

14. So far as the submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioner, that in support of the charge, no witnesses were examined by the establishment, is concerned, it is true for a fact that the aforesaid salutary procedure to be adhered to in all inquiries, where a major penalty may be imposed, has not been followed. This is against the settled authority of the law. In this connection, reference may be made to the decisions of the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank and others, (2009) 2 SCC 570, State of Uttaranchal and others v. Kharak Singh, (2008) 8 SCC 236 and the Bench decision of this Court in State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another, 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB), Smt. Karuna Jaiswal v. State of U.P., 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB) and State of U.P. v. Aditya Prasad Srivastava and another, 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB).

15. The aforesaid salutary requirement is attracted to a case, where the delinquent denies the charge or so much material part of it, which the employer has to establish. Here, the charge is about the conduct of the petitioner in travelling on a ticket purchased by the Firm, whose meters he was going to inspect for their quality, and the charge further is that the conduct of the petitioner aforesaid, leads to the possibility of the quality of material purchased being compromised, as the petitioner might have favoured the Firm. The petitioner has no doubt denied the fact that he has compromised his position in any manner, affecting the quality of the material purchased after his inspection, which in any case was held in the presence of another Officer of higher rank. The charge is, therefore, reduced to the propriety of the petitioner's conduct in travelling on a ticket purchased by the Firm, whose materials he was going to inspect. This part of the charge about the fact of purchasing the ticket, the petitioner does not deny. Rather, he says that on reaching destination, he paid the representative of the Firm the money spent on purchasing the ticket.

16. The petitioner has also explained the circumstances in which he had to purchase the ticket through the Firm's representative. Therefore, so far as the petitioner's conduct in travelling on a ticket purchased through the Firm's representative is concerned, the said act is admitted. The entire charge, if understood, is only about the propriety of the petitioner's conduct in purchasing a ticket through the Firm's representative. There is no imputation that, in fact, the quality of the meters was compromised, in consequence of the petitioner's act. If that were the charge, the employer would have to establish it by leading oral evidence in support of the charge. But, that is not at all the case. The case is only about the propriety of the petitioner's conduct in travelling on a ticket purchased by a representative of the Firm, where he was going to inspect.

17. The petitioner's defence that on arrival at destination, he paid the Firm's representative, has not been accepted by the Disciplinary Authority, because there was no evidence aliunde to show that the petitioner, in fact, paid the Firm, such as a cash receipt or payment in account. The letter written by the Firm about receiving the entire price of the air ticket and the arrangements for lodging made with the hotel has not been accepted as reliable evidence. This view of the Disciplinary Authority cannot be said to be manifestly illegal or perverse, that may be interfered with in the exercise of our jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution.

18. The Revisional Authority, however, has enhanced the penalty, exercising power suo motu on a revision under Regulation 13(c) of the Regulations. The Revisional Authority, no doubt, has that jurisdiction under the Regulations, but two questions do arise in this case. The first is that the petitioner says that he was never served with the notice for enhancement by the Revisional Authority, as he has pleaded in Paragraph Nos.27 and 28 of the writ petition. He has, particularly, said that he could not be served with the Revisional Authority's notice dated 28.09.2022 proposing enhancement, because by that time, he had been transferred to Pratapgarh.

19. In the counter affidavit, a copy of the notice for the proposed enhancement has been annexed, as also a photostat copy of the registered postal receipt, which shows the petitioner to be posted as an Assistant Engineer with the Distribution Corporation at Varanasi. The petitioner says that at the relevant time, he was posted at Pratapgarh and not Varanasi. There is nothing said or shown in the counter affidavit, which may establish that the notice, in fact, was directed to the petitioner's correct place of posting or residence at the relevant time. The assertion in Paragraph No.28 of the writ petition that he was posted at Pratapgarh, and, therefore, never received the notice for enhancement, remains undisputed. The petitioner's case in Paragraph No.27 that he received the notice of enhancement much later on 27.04.2023, when he went to Court to appear in a case there and while visiting the Electricity Test Division, Varanasi, too has not been denied. Rather, it appears that the notice sent to the Assistant Engineer (Meter) of the Distribution Corporation, was served upon the petitioner, as he says, on 27.04.2023. The order was passed by the Revisional Authority on 24.01.2023.

20. This Court is, therefore, of opinion that the petitioner was never served with the notice of enhancement by the Revisional Authority in good time to enable him to answer. The requirement to serve a notice before enhancement of punishment is also a requirement under the Regulations, and, in any case, its non-service would be a violation of the principles of natural justice. For the said reason alone, the revisional order impugned cannot be sustained.

21. There is another reason, which has been spoken of as the second to merit consideration. While this Court has opined that the finding of the Disciplinary Authority is not bad, based on the petitioner's admission about his impropriety of conduct or the misconduct in travelling on a ticket purchased by the Firm's representative, where he was going to inspect, as also the finding in not believing the evidence about paying off the Firm's representative upon arrival at destination, the quantum of punishment imposed, may still be the subject matter of some scrutiny by this Court on settled parameters. This Court is mindful of the fact that the quantum of punishment is a matter that primarily lies within the domain of the Disciplinary Authority and a fortiori the Revisional Authority. We cannot substitute our view simply because we think that the punishment imposed is disproportionate or excessive. We can interfere with the quantum of punishment only if we find it to be shockingly disproportionate; something revolting to the Court's conscience given the charge, the evidence and the entirely of circumstances appearing against the delinquent. In this regard, reference may be made to the decision of the Supreme Court in Union of India and others v. Subrata Nath, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1617, where it has been held:

"21. To sum up the legal position, being fact finding authorities, both the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority are vested with the exclusive power to examine the evidence forming part of the inquiry report. On finding the evidence to be adequate and reliable during the departmental inquiry, the Disciplinary Authority has the discretion to impose appropriate punishment on the delinquent employee keeping in mind the gravity of the misconduct. However, in exercise of powers of judicial review, the High Court or for that matter, the Tribunal cannot ordinarily reappreciate the evidence to arrive at its own conclusion in respect of the penalty imposed unless and until the punishment imposed is so disproportionate to the offence that it would shock the conscience of the High Court/Tribunal or is found to be flawed for other reasons, as enumerated in P. Gunasekaran (supra). If the punishment imposed on the delinquent employee is such that shocks the conscience of the High Court or the Tribunal, then the Disciplinary/Appellate Authority may be called upon to re-consider the penalty imposed. Only in exceptional circumstances, which need to be mentioned, should the High Court/Tribunal decide to impose appropriate punishment by itself, on offering cogent reasons therefor."

22. Upon a perusal of the circumstances here, what this Court finds is that though the petitioner may be guilty of the impropriety of travelling on a ticket purchased by the representative of a Firm, where he was going to inspect quality, there is some explanation about the circumstances how the indiscretion happened. The petitioner had booked an air ticket for himself from Varanasi, but the flight was cancelled. The petitioner, mindful of his duties to reach destination and inspect as an Officer of the Corporation, where another superior was joining him, committed the indiscretion of securing the ticket through the representative of the Firm. While it is true that there is no evidence aliunde that he repaid, there is also no reason to believe that he was saying falsehood altogether. The Disciplinary Authority has thought it fit not to believe him and we do not interfere with that finding, as already said. But, the fact remains that there is no charge, let alone a finding, that the petitioner actually favoured the Firm in any manner or compromised his employer's interest. The Disciplinary Authority, on the totality of circumstances, thought fit to impose the major penalty of stopping one increment with cumulative effect. This, however, was enhanced by the Revisional Authority, acting suo motu to a demotion to the post of a Junior Engineer. The punishment awarded by the Disciplinary Authority is also a major penalty.

23. Given the totality of circumstances, where the conduct of the petitioner appears to be indiscreet and highly irregular, but not dishonest, or one that has caused any kind of a loss to the Corporation, the punishment of demotion by the Revisional Authority, to this Court's conscience, is indeed shockingly disproportionate. Nevertheless, going by the settled law, this Court refrains from reducing the punishment ourselves and instead think that it would be appropriate to send back the matter to the Revisional Authority, the Chairman of the Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow, who would be under a command to pass a fresh order, in accordance law, bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment.

24. Quite apart from the remand to the Chairman of the Power Corporation on the issue of quantum, the matter, in any case, has to go back to the Chairman, because we have held that the petitioner was not given any opportunity of hearing. Therefore, the Chairman has to take a decision afresh after providing the petitioner adequate opportunity of hearing in the manner hereinafter directed by this Court.

25. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed in part. The impugned order dated 21.04.2023 passed by the Chairman, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow is hereby quashed. The Chairman of the Power Corporation is commanded to pass fresh orders in the exercise of his revisional jurisdiction. After furnishing the petitioner time to submit his reply to the notice of enhancement, which shall be three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment, the Chairman shall pass his orders within six weeks of receipt of the petitioner's reply. The order passed by the Chairman shall be communicated to the petitioner at his current place of posting within a week of the orders being recorded. Needles to say that the impugned order being quashed, in the interregnum, the consequences shall follow and the petitioner reinstated to his position forthwith as an Assistant Engineer and paid his current salary accordingly. The question of consequential benefits, pecuniary and otherwise shall abide by the decision of the Revisional Authority.

26. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 879
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Writ - A No. 15229 of 2019
Connected with
Writ – A No. 4223 of 2022
and other connected cases

Urvashi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Mushir Khan, Sri Amit Saxena (Senior Adv.), Sri Ashok Khare (Senior Adv.), Sri Himanshu Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Akhilesh Kumar Singh, Sri Amaresh Yadava, Sri Chheda Lal Verma, Sri Nand Kishore Singh, Sri Shivendu Ojha, Sri Sunil Kumar Srivastava, Sri Vishnu Kumar

A. Service Law – Post of Assistant Teacher – Cancellation of appointment – Re-valuation of answer booklets – It was found that the petitioners were granted more marks above than their merit, i.e., marks granted on basis of their answer booklets – Authority of re-valuation was challenged – Held, petitioners were granted benefit and were awarded more marks than their merit in tabulation chart, i.e., fairness and merit was compromised – Less meritorious candidates are not allowed to continue in service at the cost of meritorious candidates and in order to maintain fairness, the procedure adopted by respondents could not be said to be illegal – High Court imposed cost of Rs, 5000/- for each petitioners. (Para 14, 15, 18 and 20)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Omveer Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2016:AHC:9510-DB

2. Ram Naresh Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2017:AHC:185314

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. Fairness is the soul of any competitive examination. Any compromise of merit would betray confidence and trust of meritorious candidates on examination system and in case some irregularity is detected during process of examination and there is a scope to cure it, in the interest of justice and to maintain fairness, an endeavour has to be taken to cure it. This is what happened in facts and circumstances of present cases.

2. Petitioners have participated in selection for recruitment of 68500 Assistant Teachers in Basic Education Department in the year 2018. After examination, petitioners were in the list of selected candidates (41556) in a result declared as 16th August, 2018. Petitioners thereafter appeared in counselling, their documents were verified, they were appointed and later on they joined in September, 2018 on probation of one year. Petitioners appointments were cancelled by means of similarly worded orders impugned in writ petitions and one of such impugned order dated 07.09.2019 annexed in leading writ petition, i.e., Writ-A No. 15229 of 2019, is reproduced hereinafter:

"कार्यालय- जिला बेसिक शिक्षा अधिकारी, हमीरपुर

आदेश सं०: वे०शि०/ 236 /2019-20 दिनांक 07:09 2019

आदेश

शासनादेश संख्या/1267/68-5-2018/2013 दिनांक 18-08-2018 एवं शासनादेश सं०/1321/68-5-2018 दिनांक 28.08.2018 के क्रम में सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद उ०प्र०, प्रयागराज के स्तर से निर्गत पत्रांकः बे०शि०प०/7263-7507/2018-19 दिनांक 19.08.2018 के द्वारा 68500 स०अ० भर्ती के अर्न्तगत लिखित परीक्षा में उत्तीर्ण 41556 अभ्यर्थियों के सापेक्ष जनपद हमीरपुर हेतु 263 उत्तीर्ण अभ्यर्थियों की सूची उपलब्ध कराते हुये जनपद के ग्रामीण क्षेत्र में संचालित प्राथमिक विद्यालयों में पदस्थ किये जाने हेतु निर्देश प्रदान किये गये थे। प्राप्त निर्देश के समादर में, प्राप्त सूची के अनुसार अभ्यर्थियों के शैक्षिक अभिलेखों की जांच किये जाने हेतु दिनांक 01-09-2018 से 03-09-2018 तक जिला शिक्षा एवं प्रशिक्षण संस्थान भरूवा सुमेरपुर-हमीरपुर में काउन्सिलिंग आयोजित की गयी, आयोजित काउन्सिलिंग में प्राप्त 263 की सूची में से शैक्षिक अभिलेखों की जांच करवाये जाने हेतु 259 अभ्यर्थी उपस्थित हुये, उपस्थिति 259 अभ्यर्थियों में से सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती एवं सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार का भी नाम सम्मिलित था, जोकि परिषद कार्यालय से 263 की प्राप्त सूची के कमांक 125 पर सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती व 205 पर सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार का नाम अंकित था। शैक्षिक अभिलेखों की जांच हेतु आयोजित काउन्सिलिंग में 04 अभ्यर्थियों द्वारा प्रतिभाग नहीं किया गया। शैक्षिक अभिलेखों की जांच करवाये जाने हेतु दिनांक 01-09-2018 से 03-09-2018 तक आयोजित काउन्सिलिंग में उपस्थित 259 अभ्यर्थियों को विद्यालयों में पदस्थ किये जाने हेतु संबंधित अभ्यर्थियों से विकल्प लिये जाने के निमित्त दिनांक 04-09-2018 को चयन समिति के समक्ष काउन्सिलिंग आयोजित की गयी।

उक्त आयोजित काउन्सिलिंग में 259 अभ्यर्थियों का चयन समिति के अनुमोदनापरान्त व विद्यालय में पदस्थ किये जाने हेतु चयन समिति के समक्ष सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती एवं सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार द्वारा प्रस्तुत किये गये विकल्प के आधार पर कार्यालय के आदेश सं०/307/2018-19 दिनांक 05.09.2018 द्वारा सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती की नियुक्ति कन्या प्राथमिक विद्यालय, रीवन विकास खण्ड, मौदहा में एवं सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार की नियुक्ति कन्या प्राथमिक विद्यालय बेरी, विकास खण्ड, कुरारा में सहायक अध्यापक पद पर ग्रेड पे० 4200/- में नितान्त अस्थायी रूप से एक वर्ष की परिवीक्षा काल अवधि में की गयी थी जिनका नाम कमशः 220 व 226 पर अंकित किया गया था। निर्गत किये गये नियुक्ति पत्र में इस बात का स्पष्ट उल्लेख कर दिया गया था कि यदि नविष्य में कोई अभिलेख त्रुटिपूर्ण/ फर्जी पाया जाता है

तो सम्बन्धित की, की गयी नियुक्ति स्वत निरस्त समझी जायेगी।

शासनादेश सं० 1498 (i)/68-4-2018 दिनांक 05.10.2018 के बिन्दु (छ) में दिये गये निर्देश के क्रम में सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद उ०प्र० प्रयागराज के स्तर से निर्गत पत्रांकः बे०शि०प०/ 8564-8642/2019-20 दिनांक 16.08.2019 के द्वारा सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा 2018 के दिनांक 13.08. 2018 को घोषित परीक्षफल में उत्तीर्ण 49 ऐसे अभ्यर्थी जो पुर्नमूल्यांकन के पश्चात अनुत्तीर्ण घोषित किये गये है, जो वर्तमान में सहायक अध्यापक पद पर नियुक्ति है, को सेवा से पृथककरण किये जाने हेतु शासनादेश सं०: 522/अरसठ-4-2019 दिनांक 29.07.2019 में दिये गये निर्देशों के अनुपालन में अग्रिम कार्यवाही किये जाने हेतु निर्देश प्रदान किये गये हैं तथा सचिव, उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद, प्रयागराज के पत्रांक बे०शि०प०/8756-89/2019-20 दिनांक 19.08.2019 के द्वारा अनुत्तीर्ण 04 अभ्यर्थियों की सूची उपलब्ध कराया गयी है। सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद उ०प्र०, प्रयागराज के पत्र दिनांक 19-08-2019 के साथ सलग्न अनुत्तीर्ण घोषित अभ्यर्थी की सूची में सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती एवं सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार का नाम अंकित हैं, जोकि उक्तवत् जनपद में कार्यरत है।

अतः शासनादेश सं० 1498 (i)/68-4-2018 दिनांक 05.10.2018 के विन्दु (छ) में दिये गये निर्देश के क्रम में सचिव, बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद उ०प्र० प्रयागराज के स्तर से निर्गत पत्रांकः बे०शि०प०/ 8564-8642/2019-20 दिनांक 16.08.2019 एवं पत्रांक वे०शि०प०/8756-89/2019-20 दिनांक 19.08.2019 तथा शासनादेश सं० 522 / अरसठ-4-2019 दिनांक 29.07.2019 के द्वारा प्राप्त निर्देश के अनुपालन में उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद कर्मचारी वर्ग नियमावली 1973 में अंकित वृहत खण्ड के बिन्दु (6) एवं उ०प्र० सरकारी सेवक (अनुशासन एवं अपील नियमावली 1999) के बिन्दु (ख) दीर्घ शास्तियाँ (4) में निहित प्राविधानुसार तत्काल प्रभाव से सुश्री ज्योति साहू पुत्री श्री जगदेव प्रसाद देहाती सहायक अध्यापिका कन्या प्राथमिक विद्यालय, रीवन विकास खण्ड, मौदहा एवं सुश्री उर्वशी पुत्री श्री राजेश कुमार सहायक अध्यापिका कन्या प्राथमिक विद्यालय, बेरी विकास खण्ड, कुरारा जनपद-हमीरपुर में की गयी नियुक्ति को तत्काल प्रभाव से एतद् द्वारा निरस्त करते हुये सेवा से पृथक किया जाता है।"

3. Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Himanshu Singh, Advocate and Sri P.K. Upadhyay, Sri Umesh Prasad Singh, Sri Bashisth Narayan Pandey, Sri Sanjeev Kumar Singh, Advocates for different petitioners, submitted that above referred impugned order does not discloses any reason(s) for cancellation of appointments of respective petitioners as well as Government Order dated 05.10.2018 and subsequent Circular dated 16.08.2019 would not provide any power to concerned respondent to pass impugned orders. On basis of pleadings they submitted that respondents have no power to re-evaluate the answer booklets of petitioners as relevant rules and procedure does not permit to do so. Learned counsel have submitted that in absence of any procedure prescribed, entire exercise to recheck answer booklets was illegal and impermissible, therefore, impugned orders cannot survive.

4. Learned counsel further submitted that both Government Orders dated 05.10.2018 and 16.08.2019, referred in impugned orders, do not deal with issue of re-examination of answer booklets, rather details mentioned in said Government Orders would indicate that exercise undertaken was contrary to procedure prescribed. For reference both Government Orders are reproduced hereinafter:

Government Order dated 05.10.2018

"प्रेषक,
चन्द्रशेखर,
विशेष सचिव,
उ०प्र० शासन।

सेवा में,
सचिव,
परीक्षा नियामक प्राधिकारी
उ०प्र०, इलाहाबाद
बेसिक शिक्षा अनुभाग लखनऊ, दिनांक 05 अक्टूबर, 2018
विषय- सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा - 2018 मे हुई अनियमितताओं की जांच के सम्बन्ध में।

महोदय,
उपर्युक्त विषय के सम्बन्ध में मुझे यह कहने का निदेश हुआ है कि बेसिक शिक्षा विभाग, उ०प्र० द्वारा 68500 पदों पर सहायक अध्यापकों की सम्पन्न हुई भर्ती परीक्षा-2018 में हुई अनियमितताओं की जांच हेतु श्री संजय आर० भूसरेड्डी की अध्यक्षता में गठित तीन सदस्यीय उच्चस्तरीय जांच समिति की जांच आख्या एवं सचिव, परीक्षा नियामक प्राधिकारी द्वारा समस्त 1,07,865 उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं की करायी गयी स्क्रूटनी के आधार पर शासन द्वारा निर्णय लिये गये है, जिसमें तात्कालिक प्रभाव से कार्यवाही किये जाने की अपेक्षा की गयी है:-

(ख) राज्य विज्ञान शिक्षा संस्थान के 07 अधिकारियों जिन्हें भर्ती परीक्षा का मूल्यांकन सुचारू रूप से संचालित करने की जिम्मेदारी सौंपी गयी थी, के द्वारा अपने कार्य में न केवल लापरवाही बरती गयी, उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं का उनके द्वारा पर्यवेक्षण नहीं किया गया जिसके कारण उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं के मूल्यांकन में कतिपय कमियां हुई एवं परिणाम प्रभावित हुआ। अतः इन सातों के विरुद्ध शिथिल पर्यवेक्षण एवं अपना कार्य नियमों के आलोक में उत्तरदायित्वपूर्ण ढंग से न करने के कारण इन सभी के विरूद्ध अनुशासनिक कार्यवाही किये जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है।

(ग) सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा-2018 का परीक्षा परिणाम तैयार करने वाली एजेन्सी मैनेजमेन्ट कंट्रोल सिस्टम प्राइवेट लिमि०, 29 विधान सभा मार्ग, लखनऊ द्वारा परीक्षा परिणाम घोषित करने में असावधानी बरती गयी तथा परीक्षा परिणाम में विसंगतियां तथा गम्भीर त्रुटियां भी की गयी। एजेन्सी की लापरवाही से त्रुटियां होने के कारण घोषित परीक्षा परिणाम में भी त्रुटियां हुई, जिसके लिए इस एजेन्सी को तात्कालिक प्रभाव से ब्लैकलिस्ट करने की कार्यवाही के साथ-साथ सभी विभागों को इस आशय की सूचना दी जाए कि भविष्य में वह इस एजेन्सी से कार्य न कराये। इसके अतिरिक्त यदि एजेन्सी को कोई भुगतान किया जाना अवशेष है तो यह भुगतान न किया जाय एवं अनुबन्ध की शर्तों के अनुरूप एजेन्सी के विरूद्ध अन्य दण्डात्मक कार्यवाही भी सुनिश्चित किये जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है।

(घ) पारदर्शिता के दृष्टिगत यह निर्णय भी लिया गया है कि कोई भी अभ्यर्थी यदि अपनी उत्तर पुस्तिका का पुनर्मूल्यांकन करना चाहता है तो उसे निःशुल्क पुनर्मूल्यांकन का अवसर प्रदान किया जाय। पुनर्मूल्यांकन के लिए निःशुल्क आवेदन करने हेतु दिनांक 11.10.2018 से 20.10.2018 के मध्य ऑन-लाइन आवेदन प्राप्त करने का निर्णय लिया गया है। कृपया इस सम्बन्ध में एन०आई०सी० के साथ मिलकर आवेदन पत्र का प्रारूप डिजाइन करते हुए दिनांक 11.10.2018

से 20.10.2018 के मध्य ऑन-लाइन आवेदन प्राप्त करने की व्यवस्था करें तथा उससे पूर्व समाचार पत्रों के माध्यम से विज्ञापन प्रकाशित करते हुए इसका समुचित प्रचार-प्रसार करायें।

(च) जांच समिति को प्राप्त कुल 725 शिकायतों में से मात्र 285 अभ्यार्थियों की शिकायते ही मूल्यांकन में अनियमितता से सम्बन्धित थीं। जांच समिति द्वारा उक्त कुल 285 शिकायतों के गहनतापूर्वक परीक्षण के बाद यह पाया गया कि कुल 110 अभ्यार्थियों के प्रकरणों में परीक्षाफल में कोई परिवर्तन नहीं पाया गया तथा 17 प्रकरण सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा से सम्बन्धित नहीं थे। इस प्रकार कुल 285-(110+17)=158 प्रकरणों में भी शासन द्वारा स्वयं पुनर्मूल्यांकन कराए जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है।

(छ) कुल 1,07,865 उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं के स्क्रूटनी में कुल 343 प्रकरणों में मिलान करने पर अन्तर पाया गया, जिसमें से 239 प्रकरणों में परीक्षा परिणाम अप्रभावित है शेष 51 प्रकरण ऐसे हैं जिनमें जो अभ्यर्थी अभी अनुत्तीर्ण है तथा अनर्ह है वे उत्तीर्ण तथा अर्ह हो जाते है तथा 53 प्रकरण ऐसे हैं, जिनमें जो अभ्यर्थी अभी उत्तीर्ण तथा अर्ह हैं. वे अनर्ह तथा अनुत्तीर्ण हो जाते हैं। शासन द्वारा इन 53 उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं का भी पुनर्मूल्यांकन कराए जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है तथा जो 51 अन्यर्थी अर्ह हो गये हैं उन्हें काउंसलिंग की अनुमति देते हुए अग्रिम कार्यवाही किये जाने का निर्णय लिया गया है।

(ज) स्क्रूटनी में जिन 343 प्रकरणों में अन्तर पाया गया है उन 343 उत्तर पुस्तिकाओं का मूल्यांकन करने वाले परीक्षकों को कारण बताओ नोटिस निर्गत करते हुए उनके विरुद्ध दण्डात्मक कार्यवाही किये जाने का निर्णय भी लिया गया है।

अतएव कृपया तद्नुसार तत्काल अग्रतर आवश्यक कार्यवाही करते हुए कृत कार्यवाही से शासन को भी अवगत कराने का कष्ट करें।" (Emphasis supplied)

Government Order dated 16.08.2019

"प्रेषक,
सचिव,
उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद,

प्रयागराज।
सेवा में,
जिला बेसिक शिक्षा अधिकारी,
समस्त जनपद, उत्तर प्रदेश।

पत्रांकः- बे०शि०प० /8564-8642/2019-20 दिनांक- 16-08-19

विषयः- सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा-2018 पुर्नमूल्यांकन के सम्बन्ध में निर्गत शासनादेश दिनांक 05.10.2018 के बिन्दु संख्या (छ) में दिये गये निर्देश के अनुपालन के सम्बन्ध में।

महोदय,

कृपया उपर्युक्त विषयक सचिव परीक्षा नियामक प्राधिकारी उ०प्र० प्रयागराज के पत्रांक गोप०/स०अ०म०प०-18/9414-17/2019-20 दिनांक 01.08.2019 का संदर्भ ग्रहण करने का कष्ट करें जिसके द्वारा अवगत कराया गया है कि शासनादेश संख्या-522/अरसठ-4-2019 दिनांक 29 जुलाई 2019 द्वारा सम्यक विचारोपरान्त सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा 2018 पुनर्मूल्यांकन हेतु निर्गत शासनादेश दिनांक 05.10.2018 के बिन्दु संख्या (छ) में दिये गये निर्देश के क्रम में पुनर्मूल्यांकन पश्चात उनुत्तीर्ण पाये गये 49 अभ्यर्थियों का परीक्षाफल घोषित किये जाने एवं उक्त 49 अभार्थियों, जो पूर्व घोषित परीक्षाफल दिनांक 13.08.2018 के अनुसार उत्तीर्ण एवं वर्तमान में सहायक अध्यापक के पद पर नियुक्त है,

को सेवा से पृथककरण कराये जाने हेतु निर्देश दिये गये है।

सचिव परीक्षा नियामक प्राधिकारी उ०प्र० प्रयागराज द्वारा अपने पत्र दिनांक 01.08.2019 के साथ सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा 2018 के दिनांक 13.08.2018 को घोषित परीक्षाफल में उत्तीर्ण 49 ऐसे अभ्यर्थी जो पुनर्मूल्यांकन के पश्चात अनुत्तीर्ण घोषित किये गये है, का संशोधित परीक्षाफल घोषित करते हुए घोषित परीक्षाफल की सूची (कुल 49 अन्यर्थियों की सूची) जो वर्तमान में सहायक अध्यापक के पद पर नियुक्त है, को सेवा से पृथक्करण किये जाने हेतु शासनादेश दिनांक 29.07.2019 में दिये गये निर्देशों के अनुपालन हेतु संलग्न की गयी है।

उक्त के सम्बन्ध में आपको निर्देशित किया जाता है कि शासनादेश दिनांक 29.07.2019 का अक्षरशः अनुपालन एवं उ०प्र० बेसिक शिक्षा परिषद कर्मचारी वर्ग नियमावली, 1973 व उत्तर प्रदेश सरकारी सेवक (अनुशासन एवं अपील नियमायली 1999) में दी गयी व्यवस्थानुसार कार्यवाही करना सुनिश्चित करें।

उक्त प्रकरण के सम्बन्ध में आप द्वारा कैविएट माननीय उच्च न्यायालय में दाखिल किया जाना सुनिश्चित किया जाय।" (Emphasis supplied)

5. The above referred Government Order and Circular have declared that:

(i) Total 1,07,865 answer booklets were examined.

(ii) On examination of 1,07,865 answer booklets difference was found in 343 answer booklets.

(iii) Out of above referred 343 booklets-

(a) despite difference result of 239 candidates was remained unaffected;

(b) due to rechecking 51 candidates, who were earlier declared failed, were found successful; and,

(c) remaining 53 candidates, who were earlier declared successful, were found failed on rechecking.

The petitioners before this court are from above referred batch of 53 candidates.

6. Learned counsel for petitioners have placed reliance on judgments passed by this Court in Constable 979 Civil Police Omveer Singh and others vs. State of U.P. and others, Neutral Citation No. - 2016:AHC:9510-DB and Ram Naresh Singh and others vs. State of U.P. and others, Neutral Citation No. - 2017:AHC:185314. Relevant paragraphs of the judgments are reproduced hereinafter:

Omveer Singh (supra)

"10. In the judgment and order dated 17.02.2012 impugned in Special Appeal No.839 of 2012, the learned Single Judge has observed and recorded finding to the effect that Petitioner-Appellant Rajveer Singh and petitioner non-appellant/intervenor Suresh Chandra have secured 53 marks in first evaluation while in the second evaluation Rajveer Singh Yadav has got 46 marks and Suresh Chandra have got 45 marks.

11. Relevant part of judgment and order impugned reads as under:

"... Answer sheet in question has not at all been checked as not even a single mark is there which would reflect that at any point of time same have been objectively checked by the examiner concerned and examiner has proceeded to award marks looking into the performance as put in by the petitioners.

Confronted with this Examination Controller who is present in person contended that specific instructions have been issued to the examiner and examiner was only required to fill up front page and in view of this it has been stated that transparency has been maintained in evaluation.

Evaluation process which has been so adopted is not at all been approved of as answer sheets in question bears no mark whatsoever which would reflect that mind has been applied by the examiner while evaluating the said answer sheets as each and every answer sheet has been left blank without any sign of any evaluation exercise having been carried out except that on the cover page of answer sheet marks has been awarded and that too on two occasions. Evaluation is an act or process to ascertain the quality of performance put in by the candidate who has undertaken the examination. Such type of evaluation of examining body cannot be approved of as under the Right to Information Act, 2005 any incumbent can get answer sheet in question to satisfy himself/herself as to whether it has been properly evaluation or not.

Here in the present case answer sheets have been left blank and and it has not at all been shown and demonstrated before this Court as to in what way and manner said answer sheets in question have been evaluated and on cover paper on first evaluation 53 marks have been awarded to both the petitioners and on second evaluaton same have been reduced to 46 and 45 marks respectively. Except for awarding marks, no other record of evaluation has been maintained. The examiner has purportedly evaluated the answer sheet on first occasion and on second occasion marks have been reduced. Once answer sheet would have been examined, then this Court could also examine the action of examiner in reducing the marks and specially when in the Rules there is no provision for re-evaluation. Evaluation exercise in effect are reasons given by examiner for awarding such marks. Exercise undertaken is not at all subscribed by rules."

12. In the facts of the case as purported evaluation of answer sheet is not at all being approved of and it does not indicate any application of mind vis-a-vis marks given and on the basis of above, learned Single Judge has allowed the writ petition Nos. 38563 of 2011 and 38676 of 2011 with direction to afresh evaluation of the answer-sheets of petitioner-appellant Rajveer Singh Yadav and petitioner- non appellant Suresh Chandra.

13. Though learned standing counsel has tried his best to counter the observation and findings recorded by learned Single Judge as referred in detail in predecesing paragraph, despite repeated querries by the Court about second evaluation of answer sheets, learned Standing Counsel could not show for specific provision which was authorising the Board for second evaluation of answer sheet and award marks to appellants on the basis of average marks of two evaluated these answer sheets of Hindi Essay Paper except to submissions made on the basis of above referred paragraph No.15 of the counter affidavit filed in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No.38563 of 2011 by Shri Habibul Hasan, Deputy S.P., U.P. Police Recruitment and Promotion Board, Lucknow.

14. In these circumstances, we find no occassion to take a different view as observed in the findings recorded by the learned Single Judge except of modification in direction regarding reevaluation of answer sheets afresh.

15. It is clear from the averments of paragraph nos. 15 and 16 of the counter affidavit of Shri Habibul Hasan, Deputy S.P., that answer-sheets of Hindi Essay Paper of the candidates have been subjected to evaluation twice and the candidates were finally awarded marks in Hindi paper on the basis of average of the marks of the two evaluations. The writ court has allowed the Writ Petition Nos.38563 of 2011, Rajveer Singh Yadav and Writ Petition No.38576 of 2011, Suresh Chandra Vs. State of U.P. with direction to evaluate of answer sheets of Hindi Essay Paper of above petitioners afresh.

16. In view of observations and finding recorded by the learned Single Judge in respect of various discrepancies in evaluation of the answer sheet of Hindi Essay Paper and impermissibility of evaluation process of answer-sheet by the Board, and due to non-satisfactory answer for second the evaluation of answer-sheets and any specific provision or authority for permission of second evaluation of answer sheets. We are of considered view that manner of the second evaluation of answer sheets of Hindi Essay Paper adopted by the respondents is arbitrary, violatiave of concerned recrruitment rules, unauthorised and illegal." (Emphasis supplied)

Ram Naresh Singh (supra)

"93. Both in the case of the Rajesh Kumar (supra) and in the case of Vikas Pratap Singh (supra) almost on similar facts, the Supreme Court has held that candidates, who were selected earlier due to erroneous decision of the Selection Board and who continued to work for sometime on the said post, could not be allowed to suffer because of the error on the part of the Selection Board. At the same time, no candidate could be allowed to earn an undeserved advantage over others by an application of a erroneous Answer Key.

94. In balancing the equities the Hon'ble Supreme Court directed that candidates later on selected by application of rectified Answer Key were to be given appointment and such candidates would earn their seniority from the date the wrongly selected candidates were first appointed in accordance with their merit position. The appointments of such correctly selected candidates after reevaluation of their Answer Scripts should relate back to the date when wrongly selected candidates were first appointed with continuity of service to them for the purpose of seniority, but without any back wages or other incidental benefits.

95. Such candidates, who could not make a grade after reevaluation, i.e. candidates like the petitioners herein should not be ousted from service, but should figure at the bottom of the list of the selected candidates based on the first selection in terms of the advertisement issued, and also all such selected candidates, whose results had been announced after the second selection pursuant to a later advertisement.

96. This Court in respectful deference to the observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Rajesh Kumar (supra) and in the case of Vikas Pratap Singh (supra) and in Civil Appeal No. 367 of 2017 (Ran Vijay Singh and others vs State of U.P. and others) may also issue such directions for the case of writ petitioners herein.

97. The writ petitioners therefore cannot be ousted from service altogether and shall be kept at the bottom of the rectified Select List issued for Advertisement No. 1 of 2010, and also any other Select List on the basis of any later advertisement issued by the Selection Board, selection on the basis of which has been completed and recommendations made for appointment. The petitioners shall be offered fresh appointments on the posts of Hindi Teachers L.T. Grade in Institution, which have determined such vacancies in direct recruitment quota and intimated them to the District Inspector of School concerned and further notified to the Selection Board, but on which vacancies selection has not been advertised or finalized by the Selection Board till date.

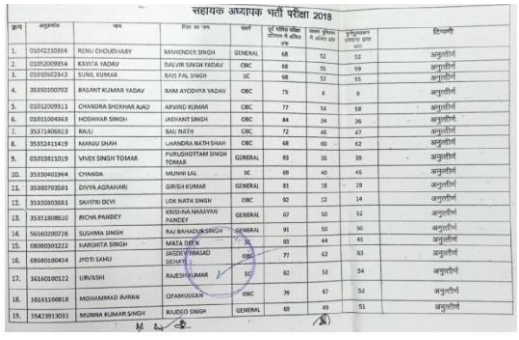
98. If need be then supernumerary posts be created for the petitioners as directed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No. 367 of 2017 for similarly situated appellants therein, who were ousted as a consequence of rectification of result of selection held for Trained Graduate Grade Teachers in Advertisement No. 1 of 2009 of the Selection Board." (Emphasis supplied)

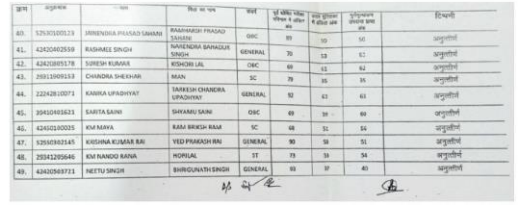
7. Per contra, Sri Ashish Kumar Nagvanshi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel, Sri Manvendra Dixit, Sri Brijesh Narayan Srivastava, Sri L.M. Singh and Sri Suresh Srivastava, learned Standing Counsel for State-Respondents and Sri Chandra Shekhar Singh, Sri Akhilesh Kumar Sharma, Sri Sanjay Singh, Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, Sri Shivendra Singh Bhadauria and Sri Shashi Prakash Singh, Advocates appearing for respective District District Basic Education Officers, have placed reliance on counter affidavit and orders passed by this Court during hearing that after re-evaluation it was found that despite petitioners got very less marks, as mentioned in their respective answer booklets, in tabulation chart they were granted much more marks. They referred the tabulation chart annexed alongwith counter affidavit and scanned copy of the same is pasted hereinafter:



सहायक अध्यापक भर्ती परीक्षा 2018

क्रम	अनुक्रमांक	नाम	पिता का नाम	वर्ग	पूर्व लिखित परीक्षा में अर्जित अंक	अंक पुनरीक्षण में अर्जित अंक	पुनर्मूल्यांकन उपरान्त प्राप्त अंक	टिप्पणी
1.	01042310864	RENU CHOUDHARY	MAHENDER SINGH	GENERAL	68	52	52	अनुत्तीर्ण
2.	01052009854	KAVITA YADAV	DALVIR SINGH YADAV	OBC	68	55	59	अनुत्तीर्ण
3.	01010502843	SUNIL KUMAR	BAS PAL SINGH	SC	68	52	55	अनुत्तीर्ण
4.	35350200702	BASANT KUMAR YADAV	RAM AYODHYA YADAV	OBC	75	8	9	अनुत्तीर्ण
5.	01012009911	CHANDRA SHEKHAR AJAD	ARVIND KUMAR	OBC	77	54	58	अनुत्तीर्ण
6.	01011004363	HOSHYAR SINGH	JASVANT SINGH	OBC	84	34	36	अनुत्तीर्ण
7.	35371406923	RAJU	BAU NATH	OBC	72	46	47	अनुत्तीर्ण
8.	35352414419	MANJU SHAH	LAXNDRA NATH SHAH	OBC	68	60	62	अनुत्तीर्ण
9.	01013811519	VIVEK SINGH TOMAR	PURUSHOTTAM SINGH TOMAR	GENERAL	93	36	39	अनुत्तीर्ण
10.	35350401964	CHANDA	MUNNI LAL	SC	69	45	45	अनुत्तीर्ण
11.	35380703581	DIVYA AGRAHARI	GIRISH KUMAR	GENERAL	83	18	19	अनुत्तीर्ण
12.	35330803681	SAVITRI DEVI	LOK NATH SINGH	OBC	92	12	14	अनुत्तीर्ण
13.	35351808610	RICHA PANDEY	KRISHNA NARAYAN PANDEY	GENERAL	67	50	52	अनुत्तीर्ण
14.	56560200726	SUSHMA SINGH	RAJ BAHADUR SINGH	GENERAL	91	50	50	अनुत्तीर्ण
15.	08380303222	HARSHITA SINGH	MATA DEEN	SC	85	44	45	अनुत्तीर्ण
16.	08580100434	JYOTI SAHU	JAGDISH PRASAD DEHATI	OBC	77	63	63	अनुत्तीर्ण
17.	16160100122	URVASHI	RAJESH KUMAR	SC	62	53	54	अनुत्तीर्ण
18.	16161106816	MOHAMMAD IMRAN	QEAMUDDIN	OBC	79	47	52	अनुत्तीर्ण
19.	35421913031	MUNNA KUMAR SINGH	RUDEO SINGH	GENERAL	69	49	51	अनुत्तीर्ण

क्रम	अनुक्रमांक	नाम	पिता का नाम	वर्ग	पूर्व लिखित परीक्षा में अर्जित अंक	अंक पुनरीक्षण में अर्जित अंक	पुनर्मूल्यांकन उपरान्त प्राप्त अंक	टिप्पणी
20.	35360304524	PRACHI SAHU	ANAND KUMAR SHASTRI	OBC	78	45	47	अनुत्तीर्ण
21.	49490100260	KM PREM LATA	VEDABRAS SHUKLA	GENERAL	83	54	56	अनुत्तीर्ण
22.	49491507054	KM SUMAN YADAV	DHODHAI YADAV	OBC	75	27	28	अनुत्तीर्ण
23.	49501707870	KM SANGITA YADAV	DOODH NATH YADAV	OBC	69	59	61	अनुत्तीर्ण
24.	59680401801	KM SHALU	SATISH KUMAR	SC	99	43	43	अनुत्तीर्ण
25.	10280503028	SANJIV KUMAR SINGH	CHANDRA BHAN SINGH	GENERAL	80	51	57	अनुत्तीर्ण
26.	59680607912	BINDU KALA VERMA	MUNNI LAL VERMA	OBC	69	59	62	अनुत्तीर्ण
27.	16171208549	POOJA YADAV	V S YADAV	OBC	90	55	61	अनुत्तीर्ण
28.	59591507149	USHA SINGH	LATE MAN SINGH	OBC	68	21	25	अनुत्तीर्ण
29.	42420704968	FILLIA SINGH	VIJAY NARAYAN SINGH	GENERAL	83	43	43	अनुत्तीर्ण
30.	39410602847	ASAD AHMAD	MAHMOOD AHMAD	OBC	82	57	58	अनुत्तीर्ण
31.	12130100621	DINESH KUMAR	RAMCHARAN SINGH	OBC	74	63	65	अनुत्तीर्ण
32.	63630503325	JITENDRA KUMAR SAHU	HANUMAN PRASAD SAHU	OBC	69	59	65	अनुत्तीर्ण
33.	22221407174	RUBY RATHI	MAHAK SINGH	SC	89	36	42	अनुत्तीर्ण
34.	52520301746	NIDHI RAI	NAGENDRA RAI	GENERAL	74	64	65	अनुत्तीर्ण
35.	42430302524	MD ESAHAR	IDRISH ANSARI	OBC	84	8	8	अनुत्तीर्ण
36.	39390100180	AKHILESH YADAV	MANSINGH YADAV	OBC	84	61	61	अनुत्तीर्ण
37.	39430903888	GULAB DEVI	MULAYAM SINGH	OBC	84	4	4	अनुत्तीर्ण
38.	42440100187	PRAMOD KUMAR	RAJ BAHADUR YADAV	OBC	89	49	54	अनुत्तीर्ण
39.	52530100253	ARVIND DHAR DWIVEDI	PREM NARAYAN DWIVEDI	GENERAL	74	24	24	अनुत्तीर्ण



क्रम	अनुक्रमांक	नाम	पिता का नाम	वर्ग	पूर्व लिखित परीक्षा में अर्जित अंक	अंक पुनरीक्षण में अर्जित अंक	पुनर्मूल्यांकन उपरान्त प्राप्त अंक	टिप्पणी
40.	52530100123	JITENDRA PRASAD SAHANI	RAMHARSH PRASAD SAHANI	OBC	89	60	60	अनुत्तीर्ण
41.	42420402559	RASHMEE SINGH	NARENDRA BAHADUR SINGH	GENERAL	70	53	61	अनुत्तीर्ण
42.	42420805178	SURESH KUMAR	KISHORI LAL	OBC	69	61	62	अनुत्तीर्ण
43.	29511909153	CHANDRA SHEKHAR	MAN	SC	79	35	35	अनुत्तीर्ण
44.	22242810071	KANKA UPADHYAY	SURESH CHANDRA UPADHYAY	GENERAL	92	61	61	अनुत्तीर्ण
45.	39410403621	SARITA SAINI	SHYAMU SAINI	OBC	69	59	60	अनुत्तीर्ण
46.	42461100025	KM MAYA	RAM BRIKSH RAM	SC	68	51	54	अनुत्तीर्ण
47.	52530302145	KRISHNA KUMAR RAI	VED PRAKASH RAI	GENERAL	90	50	51	अनुत्तीर्ण
48.	29341205646	KM NANDO RANA	HORILAL	ST	73	53	54	अनुत्तीर्ण
49.	42420503721	NEETU SINGH	BHRIGUNATH SINGH	GENERAL	69	37	40	अनुत्तीर्ण

8. Learned counsel also submitted that on basis of complaints marks given on answer booklets were compared with tabulation chart and 343 cases were found where there was difference between two. All 343 booklets were re-examined and finally 53 cases were detected where there was huge different and merit was compromised. These candidates were wrongly selected, therefore, their appointments were cancelled. Original booklets were summoned by this court and above discrepancies were found. The petitioners were allowed to get photocopy of booklets also. On facts, judgments cited by petitioners are distinguishable.

9. Heard learned counsel for parties and perused the material available on record.

10. Before adverting to rival submissions, it would be relevant to quote relevant orders passed by this Court during hearing as under:

Order dated 07.11.2019

"Heard Sri Amit Saxena, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Mushir Khan, learned counsel for the petitioner, learned standing counsel for respondent Nos. 1, 2 & 4 and Sri Nand Kishore Singh, learned counsel for respondent Nos. 3 & 5.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that petitioner had appeared in Assistant Teacher Recruitment Examination- 2018 in which he was declared successful and accordingly he was appointed. Pursuant to that, he has submitted his joining but all of sudden, without providing opportunity of hearing, impugned order dated 07.09.2019 has been passed by which his services were terminated on the ground that after re-evaluation, he was awarded lesser marks than the cut-off-marks required for appointment. It is next submitted that once petitioner has joined his services, he can only be terminated in accordance with service rules applicable in the case of petitioner.

Put up this case on 15.11.2019 in the additional cause list.

Learned standing counsel is directed to produce original answer book, model answer key as well as records/complaints which leads to re-evaluation of answer book of petitioner on the next date fixed.

Learned standing counsel as well as Sri Nand Kishore Singh, learned counsel for respondent Nos. 3 & 5 shall also inform the Court that whether any notice has been given to the petitioner or not and in case any such notice is given, they shall also produce the copy of the same."

Order dated 15.11.2019

*"Pursuant to order of this Court dated 7.11.2019, learned Standing Counsel has produced two sealed cover envelops, one sealed cover envelop is having 14 answer books and other sealed cover envelop is having photostat copy of tabulation chart. The same are retained in the custody of Registrar General which shall be produced in the Court tomorrow i.e. 16.11.2019 at 10.00 A.M.

Put up tomorrow i.e. 16.11.2019 in the additional cause list alongwith connected matters."

Order dated 16.11.2019

"Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned standing counsel for respondent Nos. 1, 2 & 4 and Sri Nand Kishore Singh, learned counsel for respondent Nos. 3 & 5.

Brief facts of the case are that earlier petitioner along with many other candidates had appeared in Assistant Teacher Recruitment Examination-2018 and declared successful. Ultimately they have been given appointment. Pursuant to the appointment letters, they have submitted their joining and working at the place of their posting. Now by impugned order dated 16.08.2019, her services has been terminated and in the impugned order, it is mentioned that after receiving some complaints, re-evaluation was conducted and 49 candidates including petitioner was found fail as they have not obtained minimum cut off marks and due to which her services was terminated.Similar orders of termination have also been passed in the matter of 48 candidates.

The main argument of learned counsel for the petitioner was that she had never applied for revaluation, therefore, her answer book cannot be revaluated and further no opportunity was given to her prior to passing the impugned order.

This Court vide order dated 07.11.2019 directed learned standing counsel to produce original answer book, model answer key as well as records/complaints which leads to re-evaluation of answer book of petitioner.

Pursuant to that, original answer book of 14 candidates including petitioner out of 49 candidates along with photocopy of tabulation chart having marks of petitioner as well as many other candidates have been produced before the Court. Letter dated 01.08.2019 has also been produced before the Court having the list of all such 49 candidates along with chart of their marks after first evaluation, revaluation and also marks mentioned in tabulation chart upon which they have been given appointment. This letter was sent to Secretary, Board of Basic Education, U.P. Prayagraj by Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, Prayagraj. Photocopy of tabulation chart and letter dated 01.08.2019 along with detail chart of 49 candidates be taken on record.

Mr. Anil Bhushan Chaturvedi, Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority is also present before this Court for proper assistance.

By the perusal of 14 answer books as well as tabulation chart annexed along with letter dated 01.08.2019, it is found that after re-evaluation, either marks of the petitioner and other candidates have been increased or there is no change in their marks, but most shocking and surprising thing is that tabulation chart is having entirely different marks which is much higher than the marks given on the answer books after first evaluation and revaluation.

Petitioner before this Court had earlier obtained 53 marks and after re-evaluation she has been awarded 54 marks whereas in the tabulation charge, she has been given 62 marks and upon that she has been given appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher.

The position is same about all other 48 candidates mentioned in tabulation chart annexed along with letter dated 01.08.2019. For example, another candidate namely Divya Agrahari who is also petitioner in other petition had been awarded 18 marks and after revaluation she has been awarded 19 marks but in the tabulation chart, she has been given 81 marks, Basant Kumar Yadav had been awarded 8 marks and after revaluation, he has been awarded 9 marks, but in tabulation chart, he has been given 75 marks, M.D. Ejahar had been awarded 8 marks and after revaluation, he has been again awarded 8 marks, but in tabulation chart, he has been given 68 marks and Gulab Devi had been awarded 4 marks and after revaluation, she has also been again awarded 4 marks, but in tabulation chart, she has been given 84 marks. Other candidates are also having the same factual position.

On being confronted by the Court, Mr. Anil Bhushan Chaturvedi, Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority has informed the Court that appointments are given to the candidates on the basis of marks mentioned in tabulation chart, which is also shown in chart annexed along with letter dated 01.08.2019. He further informed that in all these matters, show cause notice has been issued to concerned teachers, who had prepared the tabulation chart, but no F.I.R. has been lodged in this matter.

After perusing the 14 answer books, tabulation chart as well as chart annexed along with letter dated 01.08.2019, it is very much clear that fraud was played at very large scale and it is a fit case to lodge FIR, therefore, Examination Regulatory Authority, Prayagraj is directed to lodge FIR in this matter.

Learned standing counsel for respondent Nos. 1, 2 & 4 and Sri Nand Kishore Singh, learned counsel for respondent Nos. 3 & 5 pray for and are granted two weeks time to file counter affidavit. Rejoinder affidavit, if any, may be filed within one week thereafter.

List this case on 11.12.2019 in top three cases along with connected matters.

Original answer books of 14 candidates is returned to Mr. Anil Bhushan Chaturvedi, Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority. He is directed to produce answer books of all 49 candidates including these 14 answer books and also copy of F.I.R. lodged in this matter on the next date fixed."

Order dated 12.12.2019

"Counter affidavit filed on behalf of respondent nos. 1 and 4 is taken on record.

Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate submitted that the appointment of the petitioners, in this petition and other connected petitions, have been cancelled on the ground that in revaluation their marks have been reduced, due to which, they did not secure minimum qualifying marks and as such, their appointments have been cancelled.

This Court passed an order on 16.11.2019 directing the respondents to produce answer books of all the 49 candidates. Pursuant to the direction of this Court dated 16.11.2019, Sri R.P. Dubey, learned Standing Counsel submitted that answer books of all the 49 candidates have been brought to the Court.

Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate contended that since there are allegations against the petitioners that the marks have been tempered in the examination copy, therefore, the petitioners have right to see the examination copies. He submits that there is provision to supply scanned copy of answer books, therefore, respondents may be directed to supply the photo-copy of the answer-books to the counsel of each candidates.

Sri R.P. Dubey, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel, on instructions from Sri Prem Sanker Singh, Deputy Registrar submitted that the respondents have no objection in supplying the photo-copies of the answer-books to the counsel of each candidates.

In view of the statement of Sri R.P. Dubey, learned Chief Standing Counsel, this Court directs the respondents to supply the photo-copies of the answer books to the counsel of candidates, who are desirous to obtain it.

In this regard, the petitioners are directed to supply the list of candidates, who are desirous of obtaining the photo-copies of the answer books, with details by 2:00 pm on 13.12.2019 in the Office of the Chief Standing Counsel which may be collected by representatives of the Department for doing needful.

It is further provided that the counsels of the candidates whose name figures in the list of candidate for obtaining photo-copies of examination, may approach in the Chamber of Chief Standing Counsel to collect the same from the representatives of the Department on 16.12.2019 between 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Put up this case on 18.12.2019 in the additional cause list."

Order dated 10.01.2020

"Sri Amit Saxena, learned Senior Counsel assisted by by Saurabh Singh, for the petitioner submits that pursuant to the order of this Court dated 12.12.2019, scanned copy has been supplied to the petitioner by the respondents and perusal of the scanned copy reflects that there is no tampering by the petitioner in the copy.

He submits that the observation made by this Court in its order dated 16.11.2019 that "fraud was played at very large scale" may be modified.

Since the petitioner is seeking modification of the order dated 16.11.2019 passed by this Court, therefore, in view of the said fact, let the record of this case be placed before Hon'ble The Chief Justice for necessary orders."

Order dated 16.08.2021

"Civil Misc. Modification Application No. 5 of 2020

Heard Sri R.K. Ojha, learned senior counsel assisted by Sri Shivendu Ojha, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri J.N. Maurya, learned Chief Standing Counsel on behalf of State.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that while passing the order dated 16.11.19, Court has made an observation and further directed to file FIR. In fact, Court has observed that fraud was played at very large scale and it is a fit case for lodging for FIR, therefore, Investigating Officer is bound with the observation made by the Court and cannot investigate the matter on its own. Court may also please to issue necessary direction to I.O. to carry out investigation without being influenced with the observation made by the Court vide order dated 16.11.2019.

I have considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner.

Paragraph in question for which modification application is filed is as follows;

"After perusing the 14 answer books, tabulation chart as well as chart annexed along with letter dated 01.08.2019, it is very much clear that fraud was played at very large scale and it is a fit case to lodge FIR, therefore, Examination Regulatory Authority, Prayagraj is directed to lodge FIR in this matter."

From the perusal of above noted paragraph, contention of learned senior counsel for the applicant appears to be correct, therefore, I.O. is given liberty to carry out investigation on the basis of evidences and witnesses available to him without being influenced with the observation made by the Court in the above noted paragraph.

Accordingly, modification application is allowed and order dated 16.11.2019 is modified to that extent only.

It is made clear that the case shall not be treated as tied up or part heard to this Bench in future and shall be listed before appropriate Bench." (Emphasis supplied)

11. Heard learned counsel for parties, perused the record and also carefully perused above referred orders passed by this Court during hearing.

12. Original answer booklets of 14 candidates including petitioner in Writ-A No. 15229 of 2019 and later on answer booklets of 49 candidates were summoned and atleast 14 booklets were examined and perused by Coordinate Bench and Court was shocked that marks mentioned in answer booklets vis-a-vis tabulation chart were different and much higher marks were given in tabulation chart. The Court notes that in the case of petitioner-Urvashi, she obtained 53 marks as mentioned in answer booklet, on re-evaluation she was awarded 54 marks, whereas in tabulation chart she was given 62 marks, i.e., her marks were increased atleast by 8-9 marks, which is nothing but to give undue advantage to said petitioner. Coordinate Bench has also noted similar irregularities with regard to some other petitioners also. Shockingly three candidates, who got 4, 8 and 8 marks respectively on basis of answers on their answer booklets, were shown as much as 84, 45 and 68 marks respectively in tabulation chart, i.e., huge variation of 80, 37 and 60 marks respectively. It is apparent that fraud was writ large.

13. In order to maintain fairness the Coordinate Bench vide order dated 12.12.2019 has allowed all petitioners to apply scanned photocopy of answer booklets so that they can verify the allegations. However, during argument none of the petitioners have come up with a submission that there was any ambiguity that despite they get lesser marks in their answer booklets, they were provided much more marks in tabulation chart so that they could qualify in merit list.

14. In aforesaid circumstances, there is no factual dispute that petitioners were granted benefit and were awarded more marks than their merit in tabulation chart, i.e., fairness and merit was compromised. The petitioners were not fairly qualified for post of Assistant Teachers. The petitioners were not able to dispute above referred factual position.

15. In above factual background, only issue left for consideration is, whether in aforesaid circumstances even there is no specific provision for re-evaluation, the entire exercise of re-evaluation could be declared illegal ignoring above referred glaring undisputed fact that petitioners were granted more marks above than their merit, i.e., marks granted on basis of their answer booklets, and they were illegally benefited.

16. The first judgment relied by learned counsel for petitioners is Omveer Singh (supra). Facts of Omveer Singh (supra) are absolutely distinguishable from facts of present case. As referred above, in the present case undisputedly petitioners were illegally benefited by giving more marks in tabulation chart whereas in Omveer Singh (supra) petitioners therein were put in an adverse position when they were granted average marks out of the marks granted in two evaluations and in those circumstances the Division Bench has held that procedure for fresh evaluation was wrong.

17. In Ram Naresh Singh (supra) (para 93), as quoted above, the Court has noted that no candidate could be allowed to earn an undeserved advantage over others by application of an erroneous answer key, though in order to maintain equity, some relief was granted taking note the period of appointment also. However, in the present case petitioners were appointed on basis of result in September, 2018 and within one year (i.e., September, 2019) impugned orders were passed. Therefore, the short period of one year is not sufficient to tilt the balance of convenience in favour of petitioners and it could not be ignored that petitioners were in probation period.

18. In aforesaid circumstances, there is no dispute that petitioners were illegally benefited and this Court has verified the said fact from perusal of record produced before Court during hearing. Petitioners have also not been able to dispute that they were granted more marks than their merit so that they could qualify examination, otherwise according to their actual marks they could not get appointment. Less meritorious candidates are not allowed to continue in service at the cost of meritorious candidates and in order to maintain fairness, the procedure adopted by respondents could not be said to be illegal. There is no allegation of any impurity in process of rechecking. As referred above, First Information Reports were lodged. Outcome of investigation is not on record. Complicity of petitioners is also required to be investigated since they were the beneficiaries of fraud.

19. The impleadment applications are rejected since it is informed that the persons seeking impleadment are facing criminal proceedings and it is on record that a First Information Report has already been lodged against them and possibly investigation may also be completed.

20. The writ petitions are accordingly dismissed. A cost of Rs. 5000/- is fixed for each petitioners to be paid within four weeks from today in favour of High Court Legal Services Committee and receipt thereof shall be placed on record.

(2024) 2 ILRA 893
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANJIVE SHUKLA, J.

Writ - A No. 16791 of 2023

Satyendra Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Siddharth Khare, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate), Sri Himanshu Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Ashish Mishra, Ms. Bushra Maryam

A. Service Law – Post of Stenographer – Appointment – Cancellation of candidature – Suppression of pendency of criminal case – Effect – Defence of fault of operator of Cyber café was taken – Permissibility – Avtar Singh's case relied upon – Held, once there is suppression/ concealment of pending criminal cases against the candidate, then the employer can cancel his candidature for the appointment – Petitioner is an educated youth and is seeking appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III in the Civil Court therefore, it is expected from him that he will fill up the application form and will personally re-check all the entries made therein. (Para 22 and 27)

B. Service Law – Post of Stenographer – Cancellation of candidature – Suppression of pendency of criminal case – Subsequent acquittal, how far dilute the fault of suppression – Held, once in the application form a candidate is required to disclose the pending criminal case and if the said fact is suppressed/concealed, merely because at subsequent stage candidate has been acquitted in the criminal case, that will not dilute the suppression/concealment of material facts as the same has direct bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the candidate. (Para 28)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Avtar Singh Vs U.O.I.& ors.; 2016 (8) SCC 471

2. Satish Chandra Yadav Vs U.O.I.& ors.; (2023) 7 SCC 536

3. St. of M. P.& ors.Vs Bhupendra Yadav; AIR 2023 SC 4553

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manjive Shukla, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashok Khare, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Himanshu Singh, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Respondent No.1 and Ms. Bushra Maryam, learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3.

2. Petitioner through this writ petition has assailed the order dated 11.8.2023 passed by the Chairman, Documents Verification Committee/Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Prayagraj, whereby his candidature for the post of Stenographer Grade III has been cancelled on the ground that at the time of submission of application for appointment, he had suppressed/concealed material information relating to pendency of a criminal case against him.

3. Facts of the case, in brief, are that an advertisement was issued for the Uttar Pradesh Civil Court Staff Centralized Recruitment 2022-23, whereby applications were invited from eligible candidates for appointment on the posts of Stenographer Grade III. Petitioner submitted his application in prescribed proforma for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III and in the said application, against the columns where candidate was required to give information regarding pending criminal cases, he has written 'No'.

4. The final result of the selection for the post of Stenographer Grade III was declared on 16.5.2023 and petitioner was declared successful. Petitioner after declaration of aforesaid result submitted a notarial affidavit on 26.5.2023, whereby he disclosed that a criminal case registered as Case Crime No.143 of 2019, under Sections 498A, 354 IPC and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibtion Act is pending against him. After submission of the aforesaid affidavit by the petitioner, a show cause notice was issued by the Chairman, Documents Verification Committee/Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Prayagraj, whereby petitioner was required to submit his explanation as to why he has concealed the information relating to pendency of a criminal case against him, at the time of submission of application form.

5. Petitioner submitted his reply to the aforesaid show cause notice dated 7.6.2023, on 12.6.2023, wherein he has admitted that a criminal case was pending on the date of submission of application form for appointment on the post of Stenographer Garde III but since his form was filled in by the operator of a cyber cafe, as such he has written 'No' against the column, where petitioner was required to disclose the criminal cases pending against him therefore, non disclosure of pending criminal case cannot be treated as deliberate suppression of the material facts and further, the said mistake may be condoned by treating it to be a clerical error. The Chairman, Documents Verification Committee/Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Prayagraj has considered the reply submitted by the petitioner and has passed the order on 11.8.2023, wherein finding has been recorded that petitioner while submitting application form for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III has deliberately suppressed/concealed the facts regarding pendency of criminal case against him. Further finding has been recorded that the post of Stenographer Grade III of the Civil Court is a sensitive post and on the said post the person who has suppressed/concealed facts regarding pendency of criminal case against him cannot be appointed. The Chairman, Documents Verification Committee/Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Prayagraj vide his order dated 11.8.2023 has cancelled the candidature of the petitioner.

6. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has submitted that since application form submitted by the petitioner was filled in by the operator of a cyber cafe therefore, inadvertently he had written 'No' against the columns under which petitioner was required to make disclosure about the pending criminal cases therefore, petitioner cannot be held responsible for deliberate suppression/concealment of facts regarding pendency of criminal case. It has further been submitted that subsequently petitioner himself has filed an affidavit on 26.5.2023, whereby information regarding pending criminal case was provided to the competent authority therefore, petitioner cannot be held guilty for non-disclosure of the facts relating to pendency of a criminal case.

7. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has drawn attention of this court towards the fact that the criminal case which was pending against the petitioner on the date of submission of application form for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III has been concluded and petitioner has been acquitted from all the charges vide judgment and order dated 5.6.2023 passed by the Judicial Magistrate, Court No.3, Prayagraj in Case No.1946 of 2021.

8. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has cited a judgment rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Avtar Singh Vs. Union of India and others, 2016 (8) SCC 471 and has submitted that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said judgment has categorically held that in the cases of suppression/concealment of material facts regarding pending criminal cases, employer has to consider the facts of the case as to whether charges in the criminal case which has not been disclosed by the candidate are so serious that he cannot be appointed on the post in question or he cannot be allowed to continue in service and in the present case, petitioner was tried for a trivial offence and since he has been acquitted from the charges, the order passed by the employer by which petitioner's candidature has been cancelled, cannot sustain in the eyes of law.

9. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has vehemently argued that in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Avtar Singh (supra), the competent authority must have considered that the charges levelled against the petitioner in the criminal case were trivial and further, he has been acquitted in the criminal case therefore, looking into the career and future prospects of the petitioner, the employer should not have cancelled his candidature, whereas in most arbitrary manner, without considering the relevant facts of the case, petitioner's candidature has been cancelled vide order dated 11.8.2023 as such, the said order cannot sustain in the eyes of law.

10. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has also argued that once after selection of the petitioner for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III petitioner himself has submitted an affidavit and has disclosed that a criminal case was pending against him and further he has been acquitted in the said criminal case, the employer would not have cancelled petitioner's candidature but in most arbitrary manner, his candidature has been cancelled vide order dated 11.8.2023. It has further been argued that the post of Stenographer is not such a sensitive post where a person against whom a trivial criminal charge was levelled and later on he has been acquitted from the said charge, cannot be appointed therefore, the order dated 11.8.2023, which is impugned in this writ petition, is absolutely arbitrary and reflects total non-application of mind as relevant factors as required under the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court rendered in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) have not been considered.

11. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has thus concluded his arguments and has submitted that keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Avtar Singh (supra), the order dated 11.8.2023 passed by the Chairman, Documents Verification Committee/Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Prayagraj cannot sustain in the eyes of law accordingly, the writ petition is liable to be allowed by this court.

12. Per contra, Ms. Bushra Maryam, learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has submitted that in the application form to be filled in by the candidates for selection on the post of Stenographer Grade III, there was specific requirement for the candidates to disclose the pending criminal cases but petitioner while filling up his application form has written 'No' against the columns where he was required to disclose pending criminal cases therefore, it is apparent that the petitioner has suppressed/concealed the material facts, accordingly he is not entitled for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III.

13. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has further submitted that petitioner is seeking appointment on the post of Stenographer in the Civil Court, therefore the story set out by the petitioner that his application form was filled in by the operator of a cyber cafe cannot be believed as he is an educated person as such, it is expected from him that he must have seen each and every information given in his application form.

14. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has vehemently argued that suppression of the material facts regarding pending criminal cases by a candidate seeking appointment on a particular post raises serious doubt on his character and therefore, once it is established that there is suppression/concealment regarding pending criminal case, the employer has every right to cancel the candidature of the said candidate or to terminate services of an employee. It has further been argued that the competent authority issued a show cause notice to the petitioner whereby he was required to submit his reply and thereafter, reply submitted by the petitioner has duly been considered and the competent authority has found that once petitioner has deliberately suppressed/concealed the facts relating to pending criminal case against him at the time of submission of application form, he is not fit to be appointed on the post of Stenographer Grade III in the Civil Court as the work in the courts attaches higher degree of trust and responsibility.

15. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has also argued that petitioner has filed an affidavit after his selection for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III, wherein he has disclosed the pending criminal case therefore, it is apparent that petitioner at the time of submission of application form deliberately suppressed/concealed the material facts and has not disclosed about pending criminal case.

16. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has cited judgments rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of Satish Chandra Yadav Vs. Union of India and others, (2023) 7 SCC 536 and State of Madhya Pradesh and others Vs. Bhupendra Yadav, AIR 2023 SC 4553 and has argued that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said judgments has categorically held that suppression/concealment of facts relating to pendency of criminal cases by a candidate itself is sufficient for cancellation of his candidature or terminating services of an employee as the person who at the time of filling up application form has not disclosed the pending criminal cases, cannot be allowed to work on a sensitive post as non-disclosure raises serious doubt on his character therefore, the employer has every right to deny appointment to the said candidate.

17. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents No.2 and 3 has thus concluded her arguments and has submitted that since petitioner deliberately has not disclosed the pending criminal case as such, the order dated 11.8.2023 passed by the competent authority, whereby petitioner's candidature has been cancelled, does not warrant interference by this court and the writ petition filed by the petitioner is liable to be dismissed.

18. I have considered the rival submissions advanced by the learned counsels appearing for the parties and I find that in the application form meant for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III, candidate was required to disclose the pending criminal cases against him but the petitioner, while filling up the said relevant columns of the application form, has written 'No', whereas it is admitted case of the petitioner that on the date of submission of application form, criminal case being Case Crime No.143 of 2019, registered under Sections 498A, 354 IPC and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, was pending. The relevant portion of the application form submitted by the petitioner is extracted as under:-

Criminal Proceeding
Have you ever been tried, convicted or acquitted by Court of law?	No
Whether any criminal complaint	No case have ever been registered against you?

19. This court finds that result of the selection in question was declared on 16.5.2023 and thereafter proceedings relating to police verification of the selected candidates started. At that point of time, petitioner realized that he had not disclosed criminal case pending against him therefore, he submitted a notarial affidavit on 26.5.2023, wherein for the first time he disclosed the criminal case pending against him. From the facts of the case, it is apparent that petitioner has deliberately suppressed/concealed the criminal case pending against him. Petitioner is an educated person therefore, this story cannot be believed that application form of the petitioner was filled in by the operator of a cyber cafe and he has written 'No' in front of the questions relating to the pending criminal cases.

20. Now, this court proceeds to consider the issue as to whether on the ground of suppression/concealment of pending criminal case, candidature of a selected candidate for appointment on a post can be cancelled.

21. The Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its judgment rendered in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) has considered the law laid down in different judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court regarding the issue as to where the candidate has suppressed/concealed the pending criminal case or has disclosed that he has been convicted in a criminal case, what course is available with the employer to take a decision either for cancellation of candidature of a selected candidate or to offer him appointment. The Hon'ble Supreme Court after summarizing the entire law on the issue has given its conclusion in paragraph 30. Paragraph 30 of the judgment rendered in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) is extracted as under:-

30. We have noticed various decisions and tried to explain and reconcile them as far as possible. In view of aforesaid discussion, we summarize our conclusion thus:

(1) Information given to the employer by a candidate as to conviction, acquittal or arrest, or pendency of a criminal case, whether before or after entering into service must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of required information.

(2) While passing order of termination of services or cancellation of candidature for giving false information, the employer may take notice of special circumstances of the case, if any, while giving such information.

(3) The employer shall take into consideration the Government orders/instructions/rules, applicable to the employee, at the time of taking the decision.

(4) In case there is suppression or false information of involvement in a criminal case where conviction or acquittal had already been recorded before filling of the application/verification form and such fact later comes to knowledge of employer, any of the following recourse appropriate to the case may be adopted : -

(a) In a case trivial in nature in which conviction had been recorded, such as shouting slogans at young age or for a petty offence which if disclosed would not have rendered an incumbent unfit for post in question, the employer may, in its discretion, ignore such suppression of fact or false information by condoning the lapse.

(b) Where conviction has been recorded in case which is not trivial in nature, employer may cancel candidature or terminate services of the employee.

(c) If acquittal had already been recorded in a case involving moral turpitude or offence of heinous/serious nature, on technical ground and it is not a case of clean acquittal, or benefit of reasonable doubt has been given, the employer may consider all relevant facts available as to antecedents, and may take appropriate decision as to the continuance of the employee.

(5) In a case where the employee has made declaration truthfully of a concluded criminal case, the employer still has the right to consider antecedents, and cannot be compelled to appoint the candidate.

(6) In case when fact has been truthfully declared in character verification form regarding pendency of a criminal case of trivial nature, employer, in facts and circumstances of the case, in its discretion may appoint the candidate subject to decision of such case.

(7) In a case of deliberate suppression of fact with respect to multiple pending cases such false information by itself will assume significance and an employer may pass appropriate order cancelling candidature or terminating services as appointment of a person against whom multiple criminal cases were pending may not be proper.

(8) If criminal case was pending but not known to the candidate at the time of filling the form, still it may have adverse impact and the appointing authority would take decision after considering the seriousness of the crime.

(9) In case the employee is confirmed in service, holding Departmental enquiry would be necessary before passing order of termination/removal or dismissal on the ground of suppression or submitting false information in verification form.

(10) For determining suppression or false information attestation/verification form has to be specific, not vague. Only such information which was required to be specifically mentioned has to be disclosed. If information not asked for but is relevant comes to knowledge of the employer the same can be considered in an objective manner while addressing the question of fitness. However, in such cases action cannot be taken on basis of suppression or submitting false information as to a fact which was not even asked for.

(11) Before a person is held guilty of suppressio veri or suggestio falsi, knowledge of the fact must be attributable to him.

22. This court finds that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the judgment rendered in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) has held that information given to the employer by a candidate as to conviction, acquittal or arrest, or pendency of a criminal case whether before or after entering into service must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of required information. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has further held that once there is suppression/concealment of pending criminal cases against the candidate, then the employer can cancel his candidature for the appointment.

23. The judgment rendered in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) has been considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in its judgment rendered in the case of Satish Chandra Yadav Vs. Union of India, (2023) 7 SCC 536, wherein after considering the entire law on the issue, it has been held that suppression of material information and making a false statement in the application form relating to arrest, prosecution, conviction etc. has a clear bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the employee. It has further been held that if it is found that employee has suppressed or given false information in regard to the matters having a bearing on his fitness for suitability to the post, he can be terminated from service. The relevant paragraphs of the judgment rendered in the case of Satish Chandra Yadav (supra) are extracted as under:-

62. In the Union of India (UOI) v. Dilip Kumar Mullick, (2022) 6 Scale 108, a CRPF officer had suppressed the fact that the proceedings under the IPC pending against him. The Court, while referring to Avtar Singh (supra), held that the suppression can be a ground for an employer to cancel the candidature or to terminate the services. The respondent served in the organization since 2003 and continued to remain as an under trial accused without the knowledge of the organisation. The respondent received an honourable acquittal from the trial court. This Court held as under:

"13. Thus, it remains beyond the pale of doubt that the cases of non-disclosure of material information and of submitting false information have been treated as being of equal gravity by this Court and it is laid down in no uncertain terms that non-disclosure by itself may be a ground for an employer to cancel the candidature or to terminate services. Even in the summation above- quoted, this Court has emphasized that information given to the employer by a candidate as to criminal case including the factors of arrest or pendency of the case, whether before or after entering into service, must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of the required information.

14. In case of suppression, when the facts later come to the knowledge of employer, different courses of action may be adopted by the employer depending on the nature of fault as also the nature of default; and this Court has indicated that if the case is of trivial nature, like that of shouting slogans at a young age etc., the employer may ignore such suppression of fact or false information depending on the factors as to whether the information, if disclosed, would have rendered incumbent unfit for the post in question.

14.1. However, the aforesaid observations do not lead to the corollary that in a case of the present nature where a criminal case was indeed pending against the respondent and the facts were altogether omitted from being mentioned, the employer would be obliged to ignore such defaults and shortcomings. ... x x x x

16. In the given set of facts and circumstances, where suppression of relevant information is not a matter of dispute, there cannot be any legal basis for the Court to interfere in the manner that the employer be directed to impose 'any lesser punishment', as directed by the Division Bench of the High Court. The submissions seeking to evoke sympathy and calling for leniency cannot lead to any relief in favour of the respondent." [Emphasis supplied]

63. In the case of Pawan Kumar v. Union of India, (2022) SCC OnLine SC 532, a case was registered against the appellant for the offences punishable under Sections 148, 149, 323, 356 and 506 of the IPC. The appellant was honourably acquitted. However, the fact of the said criminal prosecution was not disclosed in the attestation form filled by the petitioner. On such ground, the appellant was discharged from service. The High Court upheld the discharge. While allowing the appeal, this Court held as follows:

"13. What emerges from the exposition as laid down by this Court is that by mere suppression of material/false information regardless of the fact whether there is a conviction or acquittal has been recorded, the employee/recruit is not to be discharged/terminated axiomatically from service just by a stroke of pen. At the same time, the effect of suppression of material/false information involving in a criminal case, if any, is left for the employer to consider all the relevant facts and circumstances available as to antecedents and keeping in view the objective criteria and the relevant service rules into consideration, while taking appropriate decision regarding continuance/suitability of the employee into service. What being noticed by this Court is that mere suppression of material/false information in a given case does not mean that the employer can arbitrarily discharge/terminate the employee from service.

x x x x

18. The criminal case indeed was of trivial nature and the nature of post and nature of duties to be discharged by the recruit has never been looked into by the competent authority while examining the overall suitability of the incumbent keeping in view Rule 52 of the Rules 1987 to become a member of the force. Taking into consideration the exposition expressed by this Court in Avtar Singh (supra), in our considered view the order of discharge passed by the competent authority dated 24th April, 2015 is not sustainable and in sequel thereto the judgment passed by the Division Bench of High Court of Delhi does not hold good and deserves to be set aside." [Emphasis supplied]

Xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

65. Thus, this Court took the view that irrespective of the fact whether the dispute is of a trivial nature or not, it is the credibility/ trustworthiness of a particular employee which matters the most when it comes to public employment. This Court took the view that if a particular employee suppresses something important or makes any false declaration with a view to secure public employment then such employee could be said to have exhibited a tendency which is likely to shake the confidence of the employer. In such circumstances, it would be within the discretion of the employer whether to continue or not to continue such an employee who has exhibited a tendency which reflects on his overall character or credibility.

Xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

68. The only reason to refer to and look into the various decisions rendered by this Court as above over a period of time is that the principles of law laid therein governing the subject are bit inconsistent. Even after, the larger Bench decision in the case of Avtar Singh (supra) different courts have enunciated different principles.

69. In such circumstances, we undertook some exercise to shortlist the broad principles of law which should be made applicable to the litigations of the present nature. The principles are as follows:

a) Each case should be scrutinised thoroughly by the public employer concerned, through its designated officials–more so, in the case of recruitment for the police force, who are under a duty to maintain order, and tackle lawlessness, since their ability to inspire

public confidence is a bulwark to society's security. [See Raj Kumar (supra)]

b) Even in a case where the employee has made declaration truthfully and correctly of a concluded criminal case, the employer still has the right to consider the antecedents, and cannot be compelled to appoint the candidate. The acquittal in a criminal case would not automatically entitle a candidate for appointment to the post. It would be still open to the employer to consider the antecedents and examine whether the candidate concerned is suitable and fit for appointment to the post.

c) The suppression of material information and making a false statement in the verification Form relating to arrest, prosecution, conviction etc., has a clear bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the employee. If it is found that the employee had suppressed or given false information in regard to the matters having a bearing on his fitness or suitability to the post, he can be terminated from service.

d) The generalisations about the youth, career prospects and age of the candidates leading to condonation of the offenders' conduct, should not enter the judicial verdict and should be avoided.

e) The Court should inquire whether the Authority concerned whose action is being challenged acted mala fide.

f) Is there any element of bias in the decision of the Authority?

g) Whether the procedure of inquiry adopted by the Authority concerned was fair and reasonable?

24. This court finds that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the judgment rendered in the case of Satish Chandra Yadav (supra) has categorically held that if an employee while filling up his application form for appointment on the post has suppressed/concealed the pending criminal case, then it has a clear bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the employee and therefore, if it is found that employee has suppressed or given false information in regard to the matters having bearing on his fitness for suitability to the post, his services can be terminated. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has further held that that the generalisations about the youth, career prospects and age of the candidate leading to condonation of the offenders' conduct, should not enter into the judicial verdict and should be avoided.

25. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has again considered the law in respect of issue involved in this writ petition and has rendered a judgment in the case of Bhupendra Yadav (supra), wherein it has been held that if a candidate in a selection has suppressed/concealed material facts relating to criminal cases pending against him, then if the employer feels that a candidate who at the initial stage itself has made a false statement and/or not disclosed the material facts and therefore, he cannot be continued in service because such an employee cannot be relied upon in future, the employer cannot be forced to continue such an employee. The relevant paragraphs of the judgment rendered in the case of Bhupendra Yadav (supra) are extracted as under:-

"13. In Rajasthan Rajya Vidhut Prasaran Nigam Limited and Another v. Anil Kanwaria, where the employer had invited applications for the post of a Technical Helper and on qualifying for the said post, the respondent therein was appointed as a probationer trainee, in the course of his police verification which was a pre-condition for confirming him to the post, it had transpired that he had been convicted by the trial Court for offences under Sections 323 and 341 of the IPC but was extended benefit under the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958 and released on good conduct. This Court observed that at the time of submitting an application for appointment, the respondent had already suffered a conviction by the competent Court which fact was withheld by him and he had filed a false declaration. These facts emerged only after receiving the police verification report. After distilling the law on appointments obtained by fraud or misrepresentation/by suppression of material facts, this Court proceeded to quash and set aside the order passed by the learned Single Judge and upheld the order passed by the Division Bench of the High Court, directing reinstatement of the respondent – employee and held that said decision was unsustainable in view of the fact that the employee had not disclosed/suppressed material facts and had filed a false declaration.

14. In the captioned case, this Court expressed a view that even where there was a subsequent acquittal, the employee having furnished false information/indulged in suppression of material fact of a pending criminal case, cannot claim appointment as a matter of right. Following are the observations made regarding the credibility of such an employee from the perspective of the employer:

"14. The issue/question may be considered from another angle, from the employer's point of view. The question is not about whether an employee was involved in a dispute of trivial nature andwhether he has been subsequently acquitted or not. The question is about the credibility and/or trustworthiness of such an employee who at the initial stage of the employment i.e. while submitting the declaration/verification and/or applying for a post made false declaration and/or not disclosing and/or suppressing material fact of having involved in a criminal case. If the correct facts would have been disclosed, the employer might not have appointed him. Then the question is of trust. Therefore, in such a situation, where the employer feels that an employee who at the initial stage itself has made a false statement and/or not disclosed the material facts and/or suppressed the material facts and therefore he cannot be continued in service because such an employee cannot be relied upon even in future, the employer cannot be forced to continue such an employee. The choice/option whether to continue or not to continue such an employee always must be given to the employer. At the cost of repetition, it is observed and as observed hereinabove in catena of decision such an employee cannot claim the appointment and/or continue to be in service as a matter of right."

15. On applying the law expounded by this Court in a series of decisions to the facts of the instant case, we find that the Division Bench of the High Court has dismissed the appeal1 preferred by the appellant – State Government and set aside the order passed by the learned Single Judge who had upheld the order passed by the Competent Authority, terminating the services of the respondent on the ground that he was candid enough to make a disclosure in his verification form stating that he had been chargesheeted in a criminal case wherein he was later on acquitted and there was no other criminal case pending against him at the relevant time.

16. We are, however, unable to concur with the aforesaid view. Even though the respondent had truthfully declared that he was involved in a criminal case which was decided by the trial Court vide judgement 26th October, 2015, on perusing the facts of the said case as noted hereinabove and the observations made in the judgement, quite clearly, this was not a case of clean acquittal. It is evident from the facts narrated that after the chargesheet was filed, the respondent had arrived at a compromise with the complainant and filed an application under Section 320 of the CrPC, based on which the offence under Section 341 IPC was compounded. As for the remaining offences for which the respondent was charged i.e. Section 354(D) of the IPC and Section 11 (D)/12 of the POCSO Act, they were non compoundable and therefore, the matter was taken to trial. The respondent was acquitted by the trial Court primarily on account of the fact that the complainant did not support the case set up by the prosecution and the other prosecution witnesses had turned hostile. In such circumstances, the respondent's plea that he had been given a clean acquittal in the criminal case, is found to be devoid of merits."

26. This court finds that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in its judgments has considered the issue of non-disclosure of pending criminal cases by an employee while submitting his application form for selection/appointment and has held that concealment/suppression of the facts relating to pending criminal cases has a clear bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the employee therefore, if it is found that the employee has suppressed or given false information in regard to the matters having a bearing on his conduct for suitability to the post, he can be terminated from service.

27. This court further finds that petitioner while filling up the application form for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III has deliberately suppressed/concealed the fact of pending criminal case against him and therefore, the employer after considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, particularly keeping in view the trust and responsibility attached to the post of Stenographer in the Civil Court, has found that petitioner can not be appointed on the post of Stenographer Grade III and thereby has cancelled his candidature vide order dated 11.8.2023. So far as the story set out by the petitioner in the writ petition that his application form was filled in by the operator of a cyber cafe, is concerned, the said story does not inspire confidence as petitioner is an educated youth and is seeking appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III in the Civil Court therefore, it is expected from him that he will fill up the application form and will personally re-check all the entries made therein. So far as another issue that petitioner has submitted affidavit before the employer whereby he has disclosed criminal case pending against him, is concerned, it is apparent from the record that said affidavit has been filed by the petitioner after he has been declared successful in the result of selection in question therefore, the said affidavit cannot dilute the suppression/concealment made by the petitioner at the time of submission of his application form.

28. So far as subsequent acquittal of the petitioner in the criminal case is concerned, this court is of the view that once in the application form a candidate is required to disclose the pending criminal case and if the said fact is suppressed/concealed, merely because at subsequent stage candidate has been acquitted in the criminal case, that will not dilute the suppression/concealment of material facts as the same has direct bearing on the character, conduct and antecedents of the candidate.

29. In view of the aforesaid reasons, this court is of the view that the petitioner at the time of filling up his application form for appointment on the post of Stenographer Grade III has deliberately suppressed/concealed the fact of pending criminal case and the competent authority after providing opportunity to the petitioner and considering his reply, has passed the order dated 11.8.2023, whereby petitioner has not been found fit for appointment on a sensitive post of Stenographer in the Civil Court therefore, the order dated 11.8.2023 does not call for any interference by this court.

30. In view of the aforesaid reasons, this writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 905
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Writ - A No. 17129 of 2023
And other connected cases

Vinay Kumar Pandey & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Agnihotri Kumar Tripathi, Sri Indresh Dubey, Sri Ashok Khare (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Smt. Archana Singh

A. Service Law – Post of Trainee Teacher – Recruitment – Counselling – Proceedings were initiated for consideration of candidature of candidates who are part of list of 12091 way back in the year 2016 – Except about 4000 candidates, rest candidates out of 12091 have not participated – Reason for not participating was that either no counselling was conducted or candidates were not adequately informed – High Court directed the St.-authority to issue a fresh advertisement to call the candidates belonging to said category of 12091, who have not appeared earlier for counselling, fixing a date in the week commencing 05th February, 2024. (Para 12, 17 and 18)

Writ petitions disposed of. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Diary No. 19925/2023 : Writ Petition (Civil) No. 001078 of 2023; Ram Prasad Vishwakarma Vs The St. of UP decided on 27.09.2023 (SC)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. The dispute in present bunch of writ petitions is arising out of an advertisement issued by State of Uttar Pradesh dated 30.11.2011, i.e., more than a decade ago, for recruitment of 72885 Trainee Teachers for Junior Basic Schools run by Board of Basic Education, Uttar Pradesh.

2. The dispute has already been travelled up to the Supreme Court and Civil Appeals were disposed of vide order dated 25.07.2017 and thereafter contempt petitions were also disposed of vide order dated 13.12.2019. Later on some of the petitioners approached Supreme Court by way of filing Writ Petition under Article 32 of the Constitution which was disposed of vide order dated 27.09.2023 and on basis of observations made therein petitioners have approached this Court by filing present writ petitions.

3. Before adverting to rival submissions, a brief history of litigation till date alongwith relevant part of various orders passed is mentioned hereinafter.

4. Above referred advertisement and proceedings thereof were cancelled by State Government by issuing a Government Order dated 21.08.2012 and by subsequent Government Order dated 05.12.2012 fresh procedure was initiated for recruitment in accordance with relevant amended rules.

5. Aforesaid Government Order dated 05.12.2012 was subject matter of challenge before this Court by means of several writ petitions. A Single Bench of this Court vide judgment dated 16.01.2013 passed in bunch of writ petitions, leading being Writ-A No. 39674 of 2012 (Akhilesh Tripathi and others vs. State of U.P. and others) has uphold the above referred Government order of State Government.

6. Aforesaid judgment was challenged by means of several special appeals and Division Bench of this Court vide judgment dated 20.11.2013 allowed bunch of special appeals, leading being Special Appeal (Defective) No. 237 of 2013 (Shiv Kumar vs. State of U.P. and others) and judgment of Single Bench was modified. Relevant part of judgment is reproduced hereinafter:

"In the result all the Special Appeals are allowed to the following extent:

1. The Government Order dated 26.7.2011 insofar as it directs for restoration of criteria for selection as was prevalent prior to 12th amendment rules is set-aside.

2. The U.P. Basic Education (Teachers) Service Amendment Rules, 2012 (15th Amendment Rules dated 31.8.2012) in so far as Rule 14 (3) is concerned is declared to be ultra-vires to Article 14 of the Constitution and are struck down. Consequently, the Government Order dated 31.8.2012 as well as the communication dated 31.8.2012 issued by the board of Basic Education are set-aside.

3. Respondents are directed to proceed and conclude the selection as per the advertisement dated 30.11.2011 as modified on 20.12.2011 to its logical end within the time allowed by the Central Government vide its notification issued under Section 23 (2) of the Act, 2009.

4. The judgment of the learned Single Judge is modified to the above extent."

7. In aforesaid circumstances number of Special Leave Petitions were filed before Supreme Court against aforesaid judgment dated 20.11.2013.

8. During pendency of litigation before Supreme Court various interim orders were passed. Relevant part of interim orders and judgments passed by Supreme Court are reproduced hereinafter:

(I) Order dated 25.03.2014 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"Leave granted "

Hearing expedited

By this interim order, we direct the State of Uttar Pradesh to fill up the vacancies of Assistant Teachers in the schools pursuant to the advertisement issued on 30.11.2011 as per the directions issued by the Division Bench of Allahabad

High Court in the case of Shiv Kumar Pathak & Ors. [Special Appeal (Defective) No. 237 of 2013] and connected matters as expeditiously as possible at any rate within 12 weeks' time from today.

Further, the State in the letter of appointment that will be issued to the successful candidates shall mention that their appointment is subject to the result of the civil appeals that are pending before this Court.

The appointee(s) shall not claim any equities at the time of final disposal of the civil appeals. All actions/proceedings of the State Government will be subject to the final result of these civil appeals."

(II) Order dated 17.12.2014 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"Primary education can be equated to the primary health of a child. When a child is educated, the Nation marches towards civilization. No student can inculcate or cultivate education without guidance. Definitely not a child, who is supposed to get primary guidance from a teacher, for him he is like a laser beam. The State, as the guardian of all citizens and also with a further enhanced and accentuated responsibilities for the children, has a sacrosanct obligation to see that the children are educated. Almost two thousand years back, Kautaliya had stated that the parents who do not send their children to have the teachings, deserves to be punished. Similar was the climate in England almost seven centuries back. Thus, the significance of education can be well recognized. In such a situation, we cannot conceive that the posts would lie vacant, students go untaught and the schools look like barren in a desert waiting for an oasis. The teacher shall serve the purpose of oasis in the field of education. Hence, the aforesaid direction The competent authority shall file a compliance report, failing which they shall face the consequences as the law provides and the law does not countenance disobedience of the law and orders of the court.

Let the matter be listed on 25th February, 2015, for further hearing."

(III) Order dated 25.05.2015 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"At this juncture, we may note with profit that we have fixed the percentage for persons belonging to Schedule Castes/Schedule Tribes/Other Backward Classes at 65%. It is urged by Mr. Sharma and learned counsel whose names appear hereinabove, that the persons who have obtained 60% marks should also be considered. As 6 we find, as of today, 29174 vacancies are available to be filled up. If the persons belonging to Scheduled Casts/Scheduled Tribes/Other Backward Classes have secured 65% marks and their number meets the requirement, the vacancies meant for their quota, shall be filled up by taking into consideration the said percentage. If the candidates of that percentage are not available, the State shall offer appointments to the candidates who have secured 60% of the marks. Be it noted, if the candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes/Other Backward Classes who have secured 65% of the marks are available, the candidates who have secured 60% of the marks cannot be allowed to compete with them.

The State Government is directed to issue the public notice within four weeks from today requiring the selected candidates in respect of 29174 vacancies to join and if any candidate fails to join within the stipulated period provided in the public notice, he will forefeit his right of appointment in this selection. To clarify, we may add that the public notice shall be published in widely circulated newspapers and the candidates shall be given three weeks time to join failing which the conditions prescribed hereinabove shall follow.

At this juncture, we have been apprised by the learned counsel for the respondents that some candidates who have applied in more than one districts and secured the requisite marks which have been fixed by this Court on the previous occasion, have joined in two posts, though not working. The competent authority of the State Government shall verify the same and restrict the appointment to one place and count the said vacancies and fill up the same by following the critaria fixed by us.

We will be failing in our duty if we do not take note of the submission which has been advanced before us that though certain posts are reserved in the category of horizontal quota, no steps have been taken to fill up the said. Regard being had to provisions contained in the Persons With Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 and the Rules in vogue in the State of Uttar Pradesh, we direct that the posts in those categories shall be filled up as per the Rules relating to relaxation in respect of the said category. That apart, if any quota and relaxation are available for any other horizontal category, that may also be applied.

Let the matter be listed on 22.04.2015. It is hereby made clear that it shall be finally heard on that day and no adjournment shall be granted to any counsel."

(IV) Order dated 27.07.2015 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"Presently, we shall proceed to deal with our initial order passed on 25th February, 2015, in connection with the appointments. It reads as under:

"This Court, on 17.12.2014, after hearing the learned counsel for the parties, apart from other directions, had issued the following direction :

"... After length has not hearing the on various CA 4347-4375/14 occasions, we are inclined to modify the order passed on 25th March, 2014, and direct that the State Government shall appoint the candidates, whose names have not been weeded out in the malpractice and who have obtained/ secured seventy percent marks in the Teacher Eligibility Test (TET). candidates belonging to Scheduled The Caste/ Scheduled Tribe/ Other Backward Classes and the physically handicapped persons, shall be appointed if they have obtained/secured sixty-five percent marks. If there is any policy of the State Government covering any other category for the purpose of reservation, it may be given effect to with the same percentage. It shall be mentioned in the appointment letter that their appointment shall be subject to the result of these appeals and they shall not claim any equity because of the appointment, for it is issued direction passed by this Court. on the basis of the The letters of appointment shall be issued within a period of six weeks."

Mr. Venkataramani, learned senior counsel appearing for the State of Uttar Pradesh, has filed an affidavit sworn by the Joint Secretary, Basic Shiksha Parishad, Allahabad indicating, thus :

"3. That in view of the said order dated 25.03.2014 passed by this Hon'ble Court, the State Government vide its order dated 27.06.2014 and 1.7.2014 decided to make the selection and appointment against 72,825 post of trainee teachers in parishadiya primary schools initiated in the year 2011; and accordingly the counseling have been done in following manner :

(i) Ist counseling 29.08.2014 to 31.08.2014

(ii) IInd Counseling 22.09.2014 to 30.09.2014

(iii) IIIrd counseling 05.11.2014 to 13.11.2014

(iv) IVth counseling 09.01.2015 to 14.01.2015

4. That pursuant to order dated 17.12.2014 of this Hon'ble Court only the candidates who have secured 70% (105 marks) amongst general category and 65% (97.5 marks) amongst the reserved category have been permitted to participate in the said counseling.

5. That amongst the candidates who ave been permitted to CA 4347-75/14 10 participate in the counseling during the period of aforementioned schedule have also been offered the appointment letters and they have also joined post in their institutions.

6. That some of the candidates were repeatedly offered appointment letters from different districts on the account of their participation in counseling in such district but it is clarified that here that they have been permitted to join their post only once. Accordingly although 83983 appointment letters were issued, however, the joining has been taken only by 43651 candidates. The process of filling up the remaining 29174 vacancies is also on."

Relying on the said affidavit, it is put forth by Mr. Venkataramani, learned senior counsel, that the State may be granted four weeks time to issue public notice to the candidates to join in the vacancies failing which the Court may issue appropriate directions.

At this juncture, Mr. V.K. Sinha, learned senior counsel, Mr. V.K. Sharma, Mr. Ajay Jain, Mr. Jayant Mehta, Mr. Arvind Shrivastava, Mrs. Rachana Shrivastava, Mr. Abhishek Shrivastava, learned counsel, submitted that this Court may ask the State Government to file an affidavit about the number of vacancies still available. Mr. Venkataramani, learned senior counsel, submitted that an affidavit to that extent will be filed by the next date.

At this juncture, we may note with profit that we have fixed the percentage for persons belonging to Schedule Castes/Schedule Tribes/Other Backward Classes at 65%. It is urged by Mr. Sharma and learned counsel whose names appear hereinabove, that the persons who have obtained 60% marks should also be CA 4347-75/14 11 considered. As we find, as of today, 29174 vacancies are available to be filled up. If the persons belonging to Scheduled Casts/Scheduled Tribes/Other Backward Classes have secured 65% marks and their number meets the requirement, the vacancies meant for their quota, shall be filled up by taking into consideration the said percentage. If the candidates of that percentage are not available, the State shall offer appointments to the candidates who have secured 60% of the marks. Be it noted, if the candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes/Other Backward Classes who have secured 65% of the marks are available, the candidates who have secured 60% of the marks cannot be allowed to compete with them.

The State Government is directed to issue the public notice within four weeks from today requiring the selected candidates in respect of 29174 vacancies to join and if any candidate fails to join within the stipulated period provided in the public notice, he will forfeit his right of appointment in this selection. To clarify, we may add that the public notice shall be published in widely circulated newspapers and the candidates shall be given three weeks time to join failing which the conditions prescribed hereinabove shall follow.

At this juncture, we have been apprised by the learned counsel for the respondents that some candidates who have applied in more than one districts and secured the requisite marks which have been fixed by this Court on the previous occasion, have joined in two posts, though not working. The competent authority of the State Government shall verify the same and restrict the appointment to one place and count the said vacancies and fill up the same by following the criteria fixed by us.

We will be failing in our duty if we do not take note of the submission which has been advanced before us that though certain posts are reserved in the category of horizontal quota, no steps have been taken to fill up the said. Regard being had to provisions contained in the Persons With Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 and the Rules in vogue in the State of Uttar Pradesh, we direct that the posts in those categories shall be filled up as per the Rules relating to relaxation in respect of the said category. That apart, if any quota and relaxation are available for any other horizontal category, that may also be applied.

Let the matter be listed on 22.04.2015. It is hereby made clear that it shall be finally heard on that day and no adjournment shall be granted to any counsel."

It is submitted by Mr. Prashant Bhushan, learned counsel appearing for the petitioners in Writ Petition (C) No.89 of 2015, that persons who were declared failed in the entrance examination, after the order passed, for some unfathomable reason, have been declared to have passed and some of them have been allowed to be appointed. Mr. Prashant Bhushan, learned counsel, undertakes to file the additional affidavit containing the particulars relating to the aforesaid aspect.

Mr. H.L. Gupta, Secretary, Basic Education, Uttar Pradesh, who is present in Court today, shall file a reply duly supported by personal affidavit to the said assertions and also to the additional affidavit to be filed by Mr. Bhushan, within four weeks from today.

Let the matter be listed on 2nd November, 2015 at 2.00 p.m.

The Secretary and the Special Secretary, Basic Education, Uttar Pradesh, shall remain personally present on the next date of hearing.

At this juncture, we may note that Mr. R. Venkataramani, learned senior counsel, who has been appearing since beginning in this matter for the State of U.P., has submitted that some other counsel will be appearing for the State in the case. Be that as it may, we request Mr. R. Venkataramani, learned senior counsel, to assist the Court in the matter"

(V) Order dated 02.11.2015 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"In this regard, we require Mr. Bhatia to explain to us about the number of vacancies.

At this juncture, we must formulate the issues that the learned counsel should address while arguing the matter on the next date, for we are not inclined any more to deal with the matter as interim measures. The issues are as under :

a) Whether the NCTE Guidelines fixing the minimum qualification are arbitrary and unreasonable?

b) Whether the marks obtained in the TET Examination is the sole criterion for filling up the vacancies?

c) Whether the High Court is justified in declaring the 15th Amendment brought in on 31.08.2012 to the U.P. Basic Education (Teachers) Service Rules, 1981?

d) Assuming, the guidelines framed by the NCTE are treated as intra vires, the question will be what interpretation would be placed by the Court on the concept of weightage as mentioned in the guidelines of the NCTE?

Needless to say, if any ancillary issue arises, the same shall also be addressed to. It is hereby made clear that except these issues, no other submissions as regards the interim arrangement shall be entertained.

The personal presence of the authorities stand dispensed with for the present.

Let the matters be listed on 07.12.2015 at 2.00 p.m. Needless to say, if the matter is not completed on that day, it will continue at 2.00 p.m. on 08.12.2015.

(VI) Order dated 07.12.2015 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"CA Nos. 4347-4375 and 4376/2014, SLP(C) No. 62, 1672, 1674, 11671 and 11673/2014, SLP (C) No.14386/2015, SLP (C).....CC No. 10408/2014, WP(C) No. 135, 167 and 89/2015 and CONMT. PET.(C) No. 199/2015 In C.A. No. 4347-4375/2014 and CONMT. PET.(C) No. 399/2015 In C.A. No. 4347-4375/2014

On 2.11.2015, after hearing the learned counsel for the parties, this Court noted the stand of Mr. Bhatia which is to the following effect :-

"It is submitted by Mr. Bhatia that keeping in view the order dated 27.07.2015, as against 72825 posts advertised, 43,077 candidates have been appointed, who, after completion of the training till September 2015, are working in praesenti.

It is also submitted that 15,058 candidates are undergoing training out of which 8,500 shall be appearing in the examination on 16th and 17th November, 2015 and the rest will be appearing in the examination after completion of their training. In the result around 14,640 posts still remain vacant."

Thereafter a grievance was made with regard to the people obtaining higher percentage not being appointed. The said grievance was taken note of in the following manner :

"At this juncture, number of counsel have raised a grievance that there are number of candidates who have secured more than 70% marks in TET examination in the general category and the lower percentage for other categories as per our earlier order and yet they are not appointed. At this juncture, learned Additional Advocate General submitted that some of the candidates might not have been appointed as they may not have been qualified otherwise under the NCTE Rules. We do not intend to interpret on the said point, as advised today.

However, the persons who are claiming that they are entitled to the benefit on the basis of the percentage fixed by the earlier order dated 27.07.2015 shall submit their applications/ representations before the Secretary, U.P. Basic Education Board (Board), Allahabad within one week hence and the said authority shall constitute a Committee to verify their percentage of marks as well as criteria by which the persons who have already been selected and put the same on the website as well as due intimation be given to the applicants. If there is parity they shall be extended the benefit of our order forthwith. The said exercise shall be completed within three weeks."

Be it stated that on that occasion, four issues were framed to be dealt with at the time of final hearing.

It is submitted by Ms. K. Sharda Devi, learned counsel that the names of the appointees have not yet been put on the website. Mr. Vijay Bahadur Singh, learned Advocate General for the State of U.P. and Mr. Gaurav Bhatia, learned AAG undertake that the same shall be put on the website within a week hence.

At this juncture, we may state that Mr. Bhatia, learned AAG submitted that in pursuance of the direction of this Court on the earlier occasion and prior to that more than 75,000 representations were received and after scanning the same, the State Government has found 12,091 persons eligible for being appointed subject to verification of antecedents. Let the said persons be appointed subject to the said verification within six weeks hence.

At this juncture, Mr. Rakesh Dwivedi, learned senior counsel, Mr. Neeraj Jain, Mr. Siddharth Dave, Mr. Sanjay Hegde, Mr. Vikas Singh, Mr. Anand Nandan, Mr. Arvind Srivastava, Mr. Ajay Jain, Ms. Rachana Shrivastava, Mr. Avnish Singh, Mr. D.K. Tiwary, Mr. Rajiv Dubey, Ms. S. Janani, Mr. Ashok Kuamr Sharma and Mr. Manoj Prasad learned counsel submit that they represent approximately 1100 people and some arrangement should be made for them. On being asked, Mr. Vijay Bahadur Singh, learned Advocate General submitted that the State has no objection to offer them appointment on ad hoc basis subject to result of the special leave petitions. Let that be done within four weeks hence. Needless to say, no right shall accrue in their favour because of this order.

Let the matter be listed for final disposal on 24.02.2016 at 2.00 p.m. The hearing shall continue on 25.02.2016 and 26.02.2016 at the same time.

S.L.P.(C)...CC Nos. 21708-21709, 20837, 20914, 20953, 20875, 20894, 21017, 21265, 21277, 20690, 21052, 20651, 21118, 21184, 21085-21089, 21376, 21392, 21589, 21056/2015 and SLP(C) Nos. 32599, 33328-33339, 33235 and 34093/2015

Permission to file the special leave petitions stands allowed.

Heard Mr. Dushyant Dave, learned senior counsel along with Mr. Gaurav Bhatia, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Issue notice returnable within four weeks.

Dasti, in addition, is permitted.

The State shall make a paper publication which is widely published I the State of Uttar Pradesh so that the persons who were the petitioners before the High Court shall be aware of the pendency of these cases before this Court.

Learned counsel for the State shall file a convenience volume which shall contain all the pleadings that were filed before the High Court in Writ Petition No.34833 of 2014 so that no fresh pleadings are required to be filed.

Let this matter be heard along with Civil Appeal No.4347-4375 of 2014 on 24.02.2016 for final disposal. As indicated by learned counsel for the petitioners, they will not seek any adjournment.

As an interim measure, there shall be stay of the operation of the impugned judgment till the next date of hearing."

(VII) Judgment dated 25.07.2017 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4347-4375 of 2014

"16. There is no manner of doubt that the NCTE, acting as an 'academic authority' under Section 23 of the RTE Act, under the Notification dated 31st March, 2010 issued by the Central Government as well as under Section 12 and 12A of the NCTE Act, was competent to issue Notifications dated 23th August, 2010 and 11th February, 2011. The State Government was under obligation to act as per the said notifications and not to give effect to any contrary rule. However, since NCTE itself has taken the stand that notification dated 11th February, 2011 with regard to the weightage to be given to the marks obtained in TET is not mandatory which is also a possible interpretation, the view of the High Court in quashing the 15th Amendment to the 1981 Rules has to be interfered with. Accordingly, while we uphold the view that qualifications prescribed by the NCTE are binding, requirement of weightage to TET marks is not a mandatory requirement.

17. As a result of above, in normal course the State would have been at liberty to proceed with the selection in terms of advertisement dated 7th December, 2012 in accordance with the amended rules by way of 15th amendment, in view of developments which have taken place during pendency of these appeals, the said advertisement cannot proceed and while upholding the said advertisement, relief has to be moulded in the light of developments that have taken place in the interregnum.

18. Vide interim order dated 25th March, 2014, this Court directed the State of Uttar Pradesh to fill up the vacancies of Assistant Teachers in terms of the impugned judgment. Thereafter, on 17th December, 2014, the said order was modified and the State was directed to appoint candidates whose names were not involved in malpractices in the TET test and who had obtained 70% marks (65% for SC, ST, OBC and physically handicapped or any other category covered by the Government policy for reservation). 54,464 posts have already been filled up in compliance of the orders of this Court. The said appointments were subject to result of these matters. It was also observed that if anyone without TET qualification is appointed his services will be terminated. Vide order dated 2nd November, 2015 it was noted that against 72,825 posts which were advertised, 43,077 candidates had completed training and were working while 15,058 candidates were undergoing training. Around 14,690 posts were vacant. It was further observed that candidates who had the required percentage of marks in terms of order dated 27th July, 2015 were to file their applications and a Committee constituted for the said purpose could verify such percentage and if parity was found the same benefit could be extended.

19. We have been informed that 66,655 teachers have already been appointed in pursuance of the interim orders of this Court. Having regard to the entirety of circumstances, we are not inclined to disturb the same. We make it clear that the State is at liberty to fill up the remaining vacancies in accordance with law after issuing a fresh advertisement.

20. The matters will stand disposed of in above terms."

(Emphasis supplied)

(VIII) Judgment dated 13.12.2019 in Contempt Petition (Civil) Nos. 1332-1360/2018

"11. Following facts, therefore, emerge from the record:-

(a) Large number of vacancies were lying unfilled while the Civil Appeals were pending in this Court. Taking into account the interest of the student community those appointments were required to be made. A principle was, therefore adopted by order dated 17.12.2014 that those who had obtained more than 70% marks in TET Examination from the general category and those who had obtained more than 65% marks from the reserved categories be given appointments. The idea was clear that such candidates would normally stand selected in the ultimate process of selection. It was, however, made clear that such appointments would not entitle the selected candidates to raise any claim in equity.

(b) In the selection process undertaken thereafter, initially 29,174 candidates were selected and a direction was issued on 25.02.2015 to fill up those posts.

(c) The next order dated 02.11.2015 recorded that as against 72,825 posts which were advertised, 43,077 candidates were appointed, who after completion of training were actually working while 15,058 candidates were undergoing training, leaving about 14,640 posts still vacant.

(d) The exercise of selecting those who had secured minimum marks in terms of criteria devised by order dated 17.12.2014 also resulted in finding 12,091 persons eligible subject to verification of antecedents, as was recorded in the order dated 07.12.2015.

(e) The list of these 12091 candidate was published and it is a matter of record that the names of the contempt petitioners were part of this list.

(f) According to para 21 of the Affidavit dated 01.10.2016 (which has been referred to in the order dated 22.07.2019) out of these 12091 candidate, only 391 candidate could be appointed as the others either did not take part in the selection process or had not opted for certain Districts or could not be selected going by the cut-off for the concerned District. This development had happened way back in October 2016 and the affidavit was on record since then.

(g) The State thereafter published another advertisement on 06.02.2016 so that if any candidate was left out, his candidature could be considered. Steps were thereafter taken and another advertisement was published on 08.02.2016. Para 25 of the Affidavit dated 01.10.2016 as quoted in the order dated 22.07.2019, dealt with this issue in clear terms and was thus part of the record.

(h) Aforesaid para 25 of the Affidavit thus made it clear that as on the date when the affidavit was filed, 64,257 vacancies were filled up and 1,536 appointment letters were being issued in addition. It was also stated that 862 candidates were given ad-hoc appointments in terms of the order dated 07.12.2015 and were not included in the number of 64,257. These three figures aggregate to number 66,655.

(i) Thus, the reasons for not appointing all the persons who were part of list of 12,091 candidates were available on record from October 2016 onwards.

(j) At no stage any grievance was made till the matter was disposed of in July 2017 which gave the status of permanency to those who were appointed under various interim orders passed by this Court.

(k) The grievance was made for the first time almost a year after when these contempt petitions were filed.

(l) The order dated 22.07.2019 had, therefore, observed that the Court could not disregard the fact that challenge had been raised more than a a year after the final Judgment. Even then, the State Government was called upon to indicate on affidavit certain issues. The reason was obvious that if there was large scale infraction of interim orders passed by this Court which merged in the final Judgment, the matter could still have been considered.

(m) However, the response filed by the State Government now indicates with clarity that no fresh appointments were effected after 2016 and no person other than those who satisfied the requirements laid down by this Court in its Order dated 27.07.2015 as modified by further orders, was given any appointment. The State Government has also placed on ecord the District wise break-up of all candidates appointed in various categories in all 75 Districts of the State.

(n) Even after the filing of the response by the State, as indicated in para 10 hereinabove, nothing substantial cold be pointed out by any of the candidates or contempt petitioners.

12. In the circumstances, we do not see anything wrong in the process undertaken by the State Government in pursuance of various interim orders passed by this Court and also in pursuance of the Judgment and final order dated 25.07.2017. The fact that out of 12,091 candidates only few could be selected and the reasons for non-selection of rest of the candidates, were part of the record since October 2016. In any case, response filed by the State is also clear. In the totality of the circumstances, in our view, there has not been any violation of any of the orders passed by this Court as alleged in the contempt petitions or otherwise.

13. We, therefore, see no reason to interfere in these contempt petitions which are directed to be closed." (Emphasis supplied)

(IX) Order dated 08.05.2020 in Review Petition (Civil) Nos. 851-879 of 2020

"The contempt petitions preferred by various parties were disposed of by Order dated 13.12.2019. In para 11 of the order certain facts which emerged from the record were set out, which included inter alia,:-

Thus, the reasons for not appointing all the persons who were part of list of 12,091 candidates were available on record from October 2016 onwards.

At no stage any grievance was made till the matter was disposed of in July 2017 which gave the status of permanency to those who were appointed under various interim orders passed by this Court."

In para 2(e) of the review petition it is now alleged that some of the candidates had filed contempt petition No.190 of 2016 on 11.03.2016 along with other contempt petitions seeking compliance of the order dated 07.12.2015. However, the record does not indicate that any grievance was made when the matter was finally heard and disposed of in July 2017.

In the circumstances, we see no merit in the review petitions. accordingly dismissed. These review petitions are accordingly dismissed."

(X) Judgment dated 27.09.2023 in Writ Petition (Civil) Diary No. 19925/2023

"Application seeking condonation of delay in refiling is condoned.

Learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioner(s) is one of the 66,655 teachers (Sub-Category 12,091) who have been appointed pursuant to the interim order of this Court. However, the grievance of the petitioners is that there is no actual appointment orders which have been issued to them, therefore, this petition has been filed seeking a writ of mandamus under Article 32 of the Constitution of India.

At this stage, we are not inclined to interfere in the matter. However, liberty is reserved to the petitioners to file a petition before the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution and seek appropriate remedies.

It is needless to observe that if such a petition is filed before the High Court, the same shall be considered as expeditiously as possible having regard to the fact that the order of this Court is dated 25.07.2017.

The Writ petition is disposed in the aforesaid terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand dispose of." (Emphasis supplied)

9. I have heard Sri Ashok Khare, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Agnihotri Kumar Tripathi and Sri Indresh Dubey, Advocates, Sri R.K. Ojha and Sri H.N. Singh, Senior Advocates assisted by Sri Abbula Kalam, Sri Jamil Ahmad Ansari and Sri Sushil Kumar Pandey, Advocates for petitioners, Sri Ashish Kumar Nagvanshi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel alongwith Sri Ravi Prakash Srivastava, learned Standing Counsel for State-Respondents and Mrs. Archana Singh, Advocate for Board of Basic Education, U.P. at Prayagraj, at length. Before adverting to their rival submissions, petitioners before this Court can be divided under three categories:

(I) Candidates who were part of sub category of 12091 candidates, i.e., within the cut off merit and have filed writ petition before Supreme Court.

(II) Candidates who were part of sub category of 12091 candidates, i.e., within the cut off merit list but have not filed any writ petition before Supreme Court.

(III) Candidates who were neither part of sub category of 12091 nor have filed any writ petition before Supreme Court.

10. Learned Senior Advocates appearing for petitioners have referred various orders passed by Single Bench and Division Bench of this Court as well as Supreme Court which are referred in earlier paragraphs of this judgment. Learned Senior Advocates have vehemently submitted that if the figure of selected candidates is 66655 which has been referred in sub-para (h) of para 11 of order dated 13.12.2019 passed by Supreme Court in contempt petitions which has already been mentioned in earlier paragraphs of this writ petition, petitioners who are part of list of 12091 are also part of it but since Supreme Court is satisfied by the affidavit filed on behalf of State about calculation of 66655, therefore, the Court has no option but to accept the details of calculation and that list of 12091 candidates was not part of list of selected candidates.

11. In later stage of argument when learned Standing Counsel has referred para 6 of order dated 13.12.2019 that in order to accommodate the candidates of aforesaid list of 12091 candidates, they were invited for counselling by publishing advertisements dated 06.02.2016 and 08.02.2016 and in this regard a categorical observation was made by Supreme Court in its order dated 13.12.2019 that out of 12091 candidates only few could be selected and reason for non selection of rest of candidates were part of record, the learned Senior Advocates appearing for petitioners have placed reliance on a categorical averment made on affidavit that no such counselling was ever took place and petitioners have not participated in any counselling in pursuance of said advertisements.

12. In aforesaid circumstances, in view of the limited window opened by Supreme Court, as referred in order dated 27.09.2023 passed in Writ Petition (Civil) Diary No. 19925 of 2023, the controversy before this Court is now narrowed down only to the aspect that since proceedings were initiated for consideration of candidature of candidates who are part of list of 12091 way back in the year 2016 and it is the stand of State that only few (391) were found eligible on counselling of such candidates (about 4000), who have appeared in counselling, this stand has to be tested on basis of specific averments made on oath by petitioners, who are part of aforesaid list that counselling in number of districts were never took place and petitioners have not participated in any counselling.

13. There are certain documents annexed alongwith rejoinder affidavit that concerned State-Respondents at district level have communicated that no counselling took place in pursuance of advertisements issued in the year 2016 and that except about 4000 candidates rest of candidates out of aforesaid list of 12091 have not participated, therefore, in the interest of justice I am of the considered opinion that all these writ petitions be disposed of with certain observations/ directions.

14. Supreme Court while granting liberty vide judgment dated 27.09.2023 passed in Writ Petition (Civil) Diary No. 19925 of 2023 has referred word ‘petitioners’. However, considering that number of petitioners who were not even before Supreme Court, i.e., they have not filed writ petition, are before this Court and being similarly situated, therefore, in order to avoid any arbitrariness their grievance is also considered by this Court.

15. So far as writ petition filed by petitioners who are admittedly not part of list of 12091 candidates, no relief can be granted even though, as contended, they are on better footing than candidates of list of 12091.

16. As referred above, out of 12091 candidates, only about 4000 candidates have appeared during counselling and out of them only 391 were appointed, therefore, number of vacancies towards that list are still available.

17. Supreme Court has opened a window for consideration of candidates belonging to said list of 12091 candidates, though on the premises that they have granted appointment but not allowed to join, which is not substantiated, still as referred above, now the case is that number of candidates of list of 12091 candidates were not participated in counselling either no counselling was conducted or they were not adequately informed and said fact was not brought in record except about process of counselling. It would be strange event if despite knowledge of counselling, number of candidates of said list have not participated in counselling but remained in litigation thereafter.

18. In view of above position and in the interest of justice and to conclude the controversy, it is directed that concerned respondents shall issue a fresh advertisement to call the candidates belonging to said category of 12091, who have not appeared earlier for counselling, fixing a date in the week commencing 05th February, 2024 and for that advertisement shall be published in three leading newspapers having circulation at least of one paper in each district of State of Uttar Pradesh on 22nd and 25th January, 2024.

19. The candidates who have not participated in counselling and are part of list of 12091, will have liberty to appear in pursuance of advertisement to be issued without any fail and counselling shall be concluded in accordance with law and result thereof shall be pronounced during last week of February, 2024.

20. Each candidate has to submit a notarized affidavit that they have not appeared in earlier counselling and has to deposit Rs. 2000/- for counselling additionally before concerned authority.

21. With aforesaid observations and directions, all the writ petitions are disposed of.

22. Before parting with this judgment, it is observed that this Court has proceeded to take note of solemn affidavits of petitioners with regard to their statement about counselling and that they are aspirants to become a 'Teacher', a highly regarded position, so much as that a Teacher has been put on a place above than God, as many years ago Saint Kabir has said:

गुरू गोविन्द दोऊ खड़े, काके लागूं पांय।
बलिहारी गुरू अपने गोविन्द दियो बताय।।

(2024) 2 ILRA 918
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.12.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 18505 of 2023

Rajeev Kumar Arya, Executive Engineer, Ghaziabad ...Petitioner
Versus
Chairman, Power Corporation of Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Rohit Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Brajesh Pratap Singh, Sri Abhishek Srivastava

A. Service Law – Disciplinary proceeding – Punishment of withholding three increments with cumulative effect –

Charge of not taking effective control over subordinate, who is found guilty of embezzlement, was leveled – No evidence for the establishment was heard in the petitioner's presence – Effect – Inquiry Committee, how to conduct the enquiry – Burden of proof, on whom lie – Held, the Inquiry Committee cannot regard themselves as officers of the establishment. They have to sit as impartial arbiters – Burden to prove the charges is on the establishment. Here, the Inquiry Committee do not seem to have sat as impartial arbiters, but as mere functionaries of the establishment, who assumed the petitioner guilty, and either heard no evidence or did so behind the petitioner's back – Inquiry proceedings are vitiated on account of a serious procedural lapse prejudicing the petitioner. (Para 18, 20 and 24)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. St. of Uttar Pradesh & ors.Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772

2. St. of U.P. & anr.Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB)

3. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)

4. St. of U.P. Vs Aditya Prasad Srivastava & anr.; 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. The petitioner is an Executive Engineer in the employ of the Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd., Meerut and functioning under the overall control of the U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow. The petitioner is currently posted as an Executive Engineer with the Electricity Distribution Division-IV, Ghaziabad and says that he has an excellent service record. The petitioner was appointed an Assistant Entineer on 16.06.2012 and posted as SDO (T) at Banda on 16.06.2012. He worked there upto 31.05.2017. After a posting at Panki Sub-Station from 01.06.2017 to 05.10.2017, he was promoted to the post of an Executive Engineer on 06.10.2017. Upon promotion, the petitioner was posted as the Executive Engineer, Headquarters, Meerut on 13.12.2017. The petitioner was assigned to the Meter Department as Executive Engineer (Meter) at Saharanpur Zone from 13.12.2017 to 26.01.2018. He was transferred to the Electricity Distribution Division-I, Baghpat on 26.01.2018. The petitioner held administrative powers and had to look after the financial matters there.

2. It is the petitioner's case that in the Finance Department, he had the assistance of a number of ministerial functionaries, such as the reconciliation clerk, a cashier, a head cashier, an accountant and an assistant accountant, working under the immediate control of an Assistant Engineer (Finance), who headed the Section. The petitioner, as the Executive Engineer, had overall control in financial matters. There were a number of complaints against the Assistant Accounts Officer (Revenue). Therefore, the petitioner sent a memo dated 28.03.2018 to Ishpal Singh, Assistant Accounts Officer regarding the permanent disconnection files, correction of bills and opening of the ID in fluent grade etc., the same day. The petitioner recommended the Assistant Accounts Officer's transfer to the Superintending Engineer. The Assistant Accounts Officer was transferred on the petitioner's recommendation and relieved on 28th May, 2018, while absenting. The petitioner communicated with the Competent Authority at Meerut to prepare an ID for the Assistant Accounts Officer and for other employees in the Finance Department. The petitioner has come up with a number of details in his pleadings regarding how he had controlled and dealt with the Finance Department under his administrative control, but all that may not be relevant for the decision of the matter at hand.

3. The case relating to the present proceedings against the petitioner arose out of the misconduct of one Suresh Babu, a Cashier (Technician Grade-II), who was not directly under the petitioner's control, but working under the Assistant Engineer (Finance). There was something suspicious about Suresh Babu's manner of functioning. The petitioner through a letter dated 23.04.2019 directed the Accountant to reconcile accounts with deposits in the Divisional Office, besides calculation of interest and apprise him in the matter. A deficit of Rs.1,44,84,108/- was found in the online billing of HCL and Fluent Grade Systems. Accordingly, a letter was written to Suresh Babu on 10.05.2019 to deposit the receipt/ challan relating to the balance in three days time.

4. The petitioner lodged a First Information Report on 15.05.2019 with the Kotwali Police Station, Baghpat against Suresh Babu. The petitioner also informed, as he says, all the Authorities concerned regarding the non-deposit of receipt-books by Suresh Babu. Suresh Babu, in the meantime, was promoted to the post of a Junior Engineer and the petitioner sent a memo dated 09.03.2019 for the closure of his computer ID, as he was relieved on 08.03.2019 to join his promotion post. Suresh Babu worked under the immediate control of the Assistant Engineer and prior to information about the deficit etc., received from the Accountant, the petitioner had no information about his misdoings. It is emphasized that so far as the provision of a "No Dues Certificate' to Suresh Babu is concerned, there was nothing shown against him up to 06.03.2019, and on that basis a "No Dues Certificate' was issued to Suresh Babu. However, when the embezzlement came to the petitioner's notice, prompt action was taken and a First Information Report lodged against the delinquent. He was arrested with the petitioner's efforts.

5. An inquiry team was constituted on the basis of the petitioner's report by a memo dated 15.05.2019. The report submitted by the inquiry team was one made after comparing the cashbook and discovering the embezzlement of Rs.1,44,00,000/-, all done by Suresh Babu, the Cashier-cum-Bill Clerk and otherwise a Technician Grade-II with the Electricity Distribution Division-I, Baghpat. By time, this report came, Suresh Babu had been promoted as a Junior Engineer, as already said, and posted to Loni, Ghaziabad. The Inquiry Committee in submitting their report, determined the total embezzlement by Suresh Babu during his tenure from 27.01.2014 to 11.03.2019, to be a sum of Rs.3,68,04,939/-.

6. The preliminary inquiry report dated 28.05.2019 was submitted to the Managing Director. Another inquiry was ordered and they found that Suresh Babu had embezzled a sum of Rs.5,09,16,482/- in all. The second inquiry report, that was submitted, was the product of a most casual exercise and it indicted the petitioner without considering that he had not the slightest role in the matter, and, in fact, was the officer, who had discovered the embezzlement by Suresh Babu and reported it. The petitioner's name was included amongst one of the employees involved in the misconduct. He was served with a charge-sheet dated 07.04.2019.

7. The first charge against the petitioner was that Suresh Babu embezzled a sum of Rs.5,09,16,000/- and odd, but the petitioner did not take any proceedings in a matter of such serious dimension during the period of his posting from 26.01.2018 to March, 2019. The formal charge, therefore, was that the petitioner did not exercise effective control over his subordinates and was negligent in the discharge of his duties. A misconduct under Rule 3 of the Government Servant Conduct Rules Rules, 1956 (for short, 'the Rules of 1956') was charged. The documents cited in support of the charge was a letter by the General Manager, Accounts and Audit, Pashchimanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd., Meerut dated 23.05.2019, addressed to the Managing Director (together with all its annexures). The other document cited was a published copy of the Rules of 1956.

8. The second charge against the petitioner was that while posted at Baghpat from 26.01.2018 to 27.07.2019, a number of revenue cashiers during the period 2014 to March, 2019, did not return 89 revenue receipt-books, which includes Suresh Babu, who did not return 25. In this fashion, Suresh Babu was not depositing cash, he received, in the coffers of the Corporation, and did so, with a long delay. The petitioner is charged with the act that during his tenure, Suresh Babu retained various receipt-books with him, which is a serious misconduct. The petitioner was charged with negligence in the discharge of his duties under the Rules of 1956. In support of the said charge, the same documentary evidence, as that in support of the first charge, was relied.

9. The third charge relates to certain failures of the system, such as the one regarding failure to generate a computer ID for the revenue cashiers, on account of which, no information about the cash collected by them, could be taken cognizance of, non-closure of the tender balance on the computer system relating to all revenue cashiers with the consequence that on account of lapses, numbering ten, Suresh Babu could embezzle funds of the Corporation. The petitioner was charged with laxity in control over his subordinates and negligence in that regard, leading to the petitioner being charged with misconduct under Rule 3 of the Rules of 1956. The two documents, that were cited in support of the first charge, were again the only evidence spoken of in the charge-sheet.

10. The petitioner submitted his reply to the charge-sheet dated 23.12.2019, rebutting the charges and annexing documents.

11. The petitioner's case is that the inquiry against him was ex parte as no date, time and place was fixed and intimated to him. He was called only once on 29.01.2020 for the inquiry, but no inquiry was held. Nothing was asked of him. He was just asked to sign the Inquiry papers. It is also asserted that at the inquiry held, no witnesses were produced by the Department to prove the charges, nor the petitioner given opportunity to produce his witnesses. The inquiry was held in breach of Regulation 7 of the Regulations of 2020. At this stage, it would be apposite to notice that in Paragraph No.35 of the writ petition, it is alleged that no date, time and place of inquiry was fixed and in Paragraph No.37, it is said that no witness was produced by the Department, which apparently means in support of the charges, regarding which the inquiry report, an undated was submitted.

12. The petitioner was served with a show cause notice dated 04.12.2021. The petitioner submitted a reply to the show cause notice on 15.02.2022. The Inquiry Committee found the first charge partly proved, the second charge proved and the third charge partly proved. It was opined by the Inquiry Committee that though these charges are proved or partly proved, it would be relevant to say that the embezzlement was continuing for a period of more than five years, but it was during the petitioner's posting of one year in the Division, that it was unearthed and effective proceedings taken in that regard.

13. After submission of the petitioner's reply, by the impugned order dated 07.06.2023 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. Power Corporation, the petitioner was held partly guilty of Charges Nos.1 and 3 and entirely on the second charge, in agreement with the Inquiry Committee. The petitioner was inflicted with the punishment of withholding three increments with cumulative effect, besides recovery of a sum of Rs.1,01,183/-.

14. Aggrieved by the said order, this writ petition has been instituted.

15. Heard Mr. Rohit Kumar Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Abhishek Srivastava, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent Nos.1 and 2, and Mr. Brajesh Pratap Singh, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondent Nos.3, 4 and 5.

16. Since the petitioner has come up with a case of wholesale violation of principles of natural justice, where the Department did not fixed a date, time and place for convening the inquiry or proving the charges by examining witnesses, an imperative in a case, where a major penalty may be the result of proceedings, this petition was entertained without the petitioner being relegated to his alternative remedy of filing an appeal to the Chairman of the U.P. Power Corporation.

17. In answer to the allegation that no date, time and place, for convening the inquiry, was fixed, it is averred in Paragraph No.4(iv) of the counter affidavit that the Inquiry Committee vide letter dated 21.01.2020 had scheduled the date, time and place of inquiry, providing the petitioner personal hearing. The petitioner appeared before the Inquiry Committee and said whatever he had to. Annexure CA-1 and CA-2 are documents that have been relied in support of the said contention. This Court has gone through the said documents. One is a copy of the memo dated 21.01.2020, which is a notice issued to the petitioner by the officer, heading the Inquiry Committee, to appear on 29.01.2020 at 11:00 a.m. before the Inquiry Committee. The other is a record of proceedings, that the Inquiry Committee held on 29.01.2020. These read:

"केस सं:184-4

दिनांकः 29.01.2020

पत्रावली व्यक्तिगत सुनवाई हेतु प्रस्तुत हुई।

आरोपित अधिकारी श्री राजीव कुमार आर्य, तत्कालीन अधिशासी अभियन्ता वि.वि.ख. बागपत अनुशासनिक कार्यवाही के अपने प्रकरण में आज 'जांच समिति' के समक्ष व्यक्तिगत रूप से उपस्थित हुए।

आरोपित अधिकारी को 'जांच समिति' द्वारा अपना पक्ष प्रस्तुत करने का अवसर दिया गया। आरोपित अधिकारी ने अपने लिखित अभीकथन के समर्थन में मौखिक कथन प्रस्तुत किया तथा यह अवगत कराया कि इसके अतिरिक्त उन्हें अपने बचाव में कोई कथन/ साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं करना है तथा किसी साक्ष्य/ साक्षी के परीक्षण/ प्रतिपरीक्षण की मांग नहीं की गई।

इस प्रकार व्यक्तिगत सुनवाई की कार्यवाही संपन्न हुई।

ह0 अपठित ह0 अपठित ह0 अपठित

29/1/2020 29/1/20 29/1/20

AO (EC)

राजीव कुमार आर्य

अधिशासी अभियन्ता

तत्कालीन- बागपत (वि.वि.ख.)

सम्प्रति- वि.न.वि.ख.- चतुर्थ, गाजियाबाद,"

18. What this Court finds, therefore, is that while the petitioner was intimated of the date, time and place, where the Inquiry Committee would hear him, but in the proceedings of the day, no evidence for the establishment was heard in the petitioner's presence. The proceedings dated 29.01.2020 show that the Inquiry Committee had either already heard the establishment's evidence behind the petitioner's back or not heard it at all. They assumed the petitioner to be guilty, taking the charge-sheet and the documents annexed, to be proof of themselves. It also shows that there was no Presenting Officer appointed by the establishment to present its case before the Inquiry Committee in order to lead evidence, both oral and documentary, in proof of the three charges. The charges were apparently accepted as true on their face by the Inquiry Committee going through idle papers on their own, as if they were the establishment's agents. The petitioner when asked to appear on 29.01.2020 was just required to explain himself and offer evidence in his defence. Even if it be assumed that some evidence was earlier heard by the Inquiry Committee, the petitioner was not there and it was all done in his absence. Therefore, what the petitioner was required to do before the Inquiry Committee was to explain his innocence, either on the basis of the presumption that the charges were true or on evidence, that was heard behind his back. This Court finds that no oral testimony was recorded before the Inquiry Committee. We have already noticed that the record of proceedings on 29.01.2020 does not show any Presenting Officer.

19. Learned Counsel for the respondents has emphasized that the petitioner was given the opportunity to produce evidence or witnesses in his defence. This Court is afraid that the said stage would arrive after the establishment had led evidence before the Inquiry Committee to prove the charges in the presence of the delinquent, that is to say, the petitioner. He could then be asked to produce his evidence. This never happened in the present case all.

20. Moreover, the imperative in all departmental proceedings, where a major penalty may be imposed is to lead oral evidence, or the production of witnesses by the establishment in support of the charges through a Presenting Officer before the Inquiry Committee/ Officer. This is regarded as a salutary procedure in order to ensure procedural fairness, broadly. The Inquiry Committee cannot regard themselves as officers of the establishment. They have to sit as impartial arbiters, before whom the Presenting Officer leads both oral and documentary evidence in the delinquent's presence. It is after the establishment have led their evidence in support of the charges that the delinquent can be called upon to produce evidence in his defence. After all, the burden to prove the charges is on the establishment. Here, the Inquiry Committee do not seem to have sat as impartial arbiters, but as mere functionaries of the establishment, who assumed the petitioner guilty, and either heard no evidence or did so behind the petitioner's back. In either case, the inquiry proceedings would be vitiated and so also the impugned order founded on it. The imperative of producing witnesses or hearing oral evidence in support of the establishment's case, has been the subject matter of consideration by the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, where it has been held:

"28. An inquiry officer acting in a quasi-judicial authority is in the position of an independent adjudicator. He is not supposed to be a representative of the department/disciplinary authority/Government. His function is to examine the evidence presented by the Department, even in the absence of the delinquent official to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to hold that the charges are proved. In the present case the aforesaid procedure has not been observed. Since no oral evidence has been examined the documents have not been proved, and could not have been taken into consideration to conclude that the charges have been proved against the respondents.

30. When a departmental enquiry is conducted against the government servant it cannot be treated as a casual exercise. The enquiry proceedings also cannot be conducted with a closed mind. The inquiry officer has to be wholly unbiased. The rules of natural justice are required to be observed to ensure not only that justice is done but is manifestly seen to be done. The object of rules of natural justice is to ensure that a government servant is treated fairly in proceedings which may culminate in imposition of punishment including dismissal/ removal from service."

21. The issue has further been considered by a Division Bench of this Court in State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another, 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB)(LB), where it has been held:

"14. Now coming to the question, what is the effect of non-holding of domestic/oral inquiry, in a case where the inquiry officer is appointed, oral inquiry is mandatory. The charges are not deemed to be proved suo motu merely on account of levelling them by means of the charge-sheet unless the same are proved by the department before the inquiry officer and only thereafter it is the turn of delinquent employee to place his defence. Holding oral enquiry is mandatory before imposing a major penalty, as held by Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subhash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

15. In another case in Subhash Chandra Gupta v. State of U.P., 2012(4) ADJ 4 (NOC), the Division Bench of this Court after survey of law on this issue observed as under:

"It is well-settled that when the statute provides to do a thing in a particular manner that thing has to be done in that very manner. We are of the considered opinion that any punishment awarded on the basis of an enquiry not conducted in accordance with the enquiry rules meant for that very purposes is unsustainable in the eye of law. We are further of the view that the procedure prescribed under the inquiry rules for imposing major penalty is mandatory in nature and unless those procedures are followed, any out come inferred thereon will be of no avail unless the charges are so glaring and unrefutable which does not require any proof. The view taken by us find support from the judgement of the Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P.Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

16. A Division Bench decision of this Court in the case of Salahuddin Ansari v. State of U.P. and others, 2008(3) ESC 1667, held that non holding of oral inquiry is a serious flaw which can vitiate the order of disciplinary proceeding including the order of punishment has observed as under:

" 10..... Non holding of oral inquiry in such a case, is a serious matter and goes to the root of the case.

11. A Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541, considering the question as to whether holding of an oral inquiry is necessary or not, held that if no oral inquiry is held, it amounts to denial of principles of natural justice to the delinquent employee. The aforesaid view was reiterated in Subash Chandra Sharma v. U.P.Cooperative Spinning Mills and others, 2001 (2) UPLBEC 1475 and Laturi Singh v. U.P.Public Service Tribunal and others, Writ Petition No. 12939 of 2001, decided on 6.5.2005."

17. Even if the employee refuses to participate in the enquiry the employer cannot straightaway dismiss him, but he must hold and ex parte enquiry where evidence must be led vide Imperial Tobacco Co. Ltd. v. Its Workmen, AIR 1962 SC 1348, Uma Shankar v. Registrar, 1992 (65) FLR 674 (All).

18. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Mahesh Narain Gupta v. State of U.P. and others, (2011) 2 ILR 570, had also occasion to deal with the same issue. It held:

"At this stage, we are to observe that in the disciplinary proceedings against a delinquent, the department is just like a plaintiff and initial burden lies on the department to prove the charges which can certainly be proved only by collecting some oral evidence or documentary evidence, in presence and notice charged employee. Even if the department is to rely its own record/document which are already available, then also the enquiry officer by looking into them and by assigning his own reason after analysis, will have to record a finding that hose documents are sufficient enough to prove the charges.

In no case, approach of the Enquiry Officer that as no reply has been submitted, the charge will have to be automatically proved can be approved. This will be erroneous. It has been repeatedly said that disciplinary authority has a right to proceed against delinquent employee in ex parte manner but some evidence will have to be collected and justification to sustain the charges will have to be stated in detail. The approach of the enquiry officer of automatic prove of charges on account of non filing of reply is clearly misconceived and erroneous. This is against the principle of natural justice, fair play, fair hearing and, thus, enquiry officer has to be cautioned in this respect."

19. The principal of law which emanates from the above judgments are that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case of procedure adopted for inflicting major penalty, the department must prove the charges by oral evidence also.

20. From perusal of enquiry report it is demonstrably proved that no oral evidence has been led by the department. When a major punishment is proposed to be passed the department has to prove the charges against the delinquent/employee by examining the witnesses and by documentary evidence. In the present case no witness was examined by the department neither any officer has been examined to prove the documents on the basis of which charges are levelled on the claimant in the proceedings.

21. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice.

22. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

22. The question was also considered by a Division Bench of this Court in Smt. Karuna Jaiswal v. State of U.P., 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB), where it was held:

"15. The law in this regard is very well-settled and does not need a reiteration, however, we may refer to a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, wherein it has clearly been held that Enquiry Officer acts as a quasi judicial authority and his position is that of an independent adjudicator and further that he cannot act as a representative of the department or disciplinary authority and further that he cannot act as a prosecutor neither he should act as a judge; his function is to examine the evidence presented by the department and even in the absence of the delinquent officer, has to see as to whether the unrebutted evidence is sufficient to bring home the charges.

16. Hon'ble Supreme Court has further held in the said judgment of Saroj Kumar Sinha (supra) that it is only in case when the Government servant, despite notice, fails to appear during the course of enquiry that Enquiry Officer can proceed ex parte and even in such circumstances it is incumbent upon the Enquiry Officer to record the statement of witness.

17. In the instant case, no oral enquiry was held, neither the petitioner was given any notice to participate in any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for oral enquiry. It is only that the Enquiry Officer after noticing that despite sufficient time having been given to the petitioner, she did not furnish her reply to the charge-sheet, he proceeded to submit ex parte report without conducting any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for such an oral enquiry. Accordingly, the Enquiry Officer, in this case, has violated the aforesaid principles, which clearly vitiates the enquiry proceedings and any punishment order based on such a vitiated enquiry, is clearly not sustainable."

23. A Division Bench of this Court in State of U.P. v. Aditya Prasad Srivastava and another, 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB)(LB), after a copious review of authority on the point, held:

"14. Recently the entire law on the subject has been reviewed and reiterated in Chamoli District Co-operative Bank Ltd. v. Raghunath Singh Rana and others, AIR 2016 SC 2510 and Court has culled out certain principles as under:

"(i) The enquiries must be conducted bona fide and care must be taken to see that the enquiries do not become empty formalities.

(ii) If an officer is a witness to any of the incidents which is the subject-matter of the enquiry or if the enquiry was initiated on a report of an officer, then in all fairness he should not be the Enquiry Officer. If the said position becomes known after the appointment of the Enquiry Officer, during the enquiry, steps should be taken to see that the task of holding an enquiry is assigned to some other officer.

(iii) In an enquiry, the employer/department should take steps first to lead evidence against the workman/delinquent charged and give an opportunity to him to cross-examine the witnesses of the employer. Only thereafter, the workman/delinquent be asked whether he wants to lead any evidence and asked to give any explanation about the evidence led against him.

(iv) On receipt of the enquiry report, before proceeding further, it is incumbent on the part of the disciplinary/punishing authority to supply a copy of the enquiry report and all connected materials relied on by the enquiry officer to enable him to offer his views, if any."

15. The principal of law emanates from the above judgments is that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case where inquiry is initiated with a view to inflict major penalty, department must prove charges by adducing evidence by holding oral inquiry.

17. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

24. Upon a reading of the inquiry report in this case, this Court finds the charge against the petitioner is of laxity in control over his subordinates, or negligence as the Department have chosen to call it. Looking to the nature of the charges and the fact that there was a total denial of the charges by the petitioner with a case that he in fact unearthed the fraud, the establishment had to prove their charges by leading both documentary and oral evidence. More than that, the Inquiry Committee, as already remarked, did not conduct themselves as impartial arbiters and seem to have proceeded on an assumption of guilt. They summoned the petitioner on 29.01.2020 to appear before them virtually to explain himself. That is not how an inquiry into charges, serious in nature and likely to lead to the imposition of a major penalty, is held. These facts and the manner in which the inquiry has been held, leads this Court to the irresistible conclusion that the inquiry proceedings are vitiated on account of a serious procedural lapse prejudicing the petitioner.

25. In the considered opinion of this Court, therefore, this is a case, where the impugned order deserves to be quashed with liberty to the respondents, if they so chose, to proceed afresh against the petitioner from the stage of the charge-sheet, holding inquiry de novo in accordance with law.

26. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed in part. The impugned order dated 07.06.2023 passed by the Managing Director, U.P. Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow is hereby quashed. The respondents shall be at liberty, if they so elect, to proceed afresh with the inquiry in accordance with law, from the stage of issue of the charge-sheet, bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment.

27. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 928
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.12.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ - A No. 19796 of 2023

Mushran ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Sanjeet Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Jainendra Kumar Mishra

A. Service Law – Appointment – Post of Sweeper – Qualification – Maximum matriculation was required – Petitioner claimed himself as Class VIII passed candidate, however, he was declared illegible on the basis that in his KYC Form, qualification of Graduate was mentioned – Validity challenged – KYC Form, how far bear significance for public employment – Plea of inaccuracy in date of birth was also raised in counter affidavit – Permissibility – Held, it is a well settled principle of law that an order under challenge before the Court cannot be asked to be sustained by a respondent on the grounds other than those mentioned in the order itself – The impugned order cannot be supplemented for its reasons by an affidavit – Held further, a KYC Form, submitted by a customer, while opening a bank account, cannot be the basis of finally determining his rights or visiting him with adverse civil consequences in a matter as profound as public employment –No inference can be drawn about the petitioner's qualification based on the KYC Form. (Para 11, 13 and 16)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Mohinder Singh Gill & anr. Vs The Chief Election Commissioner, New Delhi & ors.; (1978) 1 SCC 405

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. An advertisement was published by the Punjab National Bank on 18.11.2021, inviting applications for post of part-time sweepers in their establishment. The advertisement was published in newspapers. The petitioner applied for the post of a part-time sweeper and submitted his application form in the office of the Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Punjab National Bank, Saharanpur. After verification, the petitioner was selected for the post of a sweeper on 25.02.2022 and his name finds mention at Sr. No.5 in the select-list of candidates under the category of O.B.C. The Chief Manager of the Punjab Nation Bank last mentioned, respondent No.2, sent a letter for verification of the petitioner's documents on 30.03.2022. This letter required the petitioner to appear in the office of respondent No.2 on 06.04.2022 at about 10:30 in the morning hours. The petitioner appeared before the said respondent on 06.04.2022 for the verification of his documents. After all necessary verification was done, the respondent Bank issued appointment letters to other candidates, but not the petitioner.

2. The petitioner's case is that he had opened a bank account with another branch of the respondent Bank, where his date of birth mentioned is 20.05.1993. It was mentioned in his Aadhaar Card as well. The petitioner states that he had sought correction of his date of birth in the Aadhaar Card and PAN Card before making his application for employment with the Bank. The petitioner's case is that his date of birth, in fact, is 20.09.1994; not 20.05.1993. In this connection, he has drawn the attention of this Court to his transfer certificate issued by the Headmaster, New Janta Public Junior High School, Village Nasarullapur, Deoband, Saharanpur. This document relates to the year 2008 when the petitioner passed his Class-VIII examination from the aforesaid institution. The certificate is countersigned by the District Basic Education Officer, Saharanpur.

3. The petitioner, faced with inaction by the respondent Bank in issuing his appointment letter, approached this Court by means of Writ-A No.9832 of 2023, seeking a direction to the Bank to consider his case for appointment. This Court after noticing the discrepancy about the petitioner's date of birth in the Aadhaar Card and steps taken for its rectification, directed the respondent Bank to re-verify the entire documents relating to the petitioner and communicate the result to him. The last mentioned order was passed by this Court in Writ-A No.9832 of 2023 on 31.05.2023. A copy of the said order, along with all necessary documents, including his transfer certificate, was submitted by the petitioner in the office of respondent Bank on 17.06.2023. After a long lapse of time on 09.10.2023, the respondent Bank passed the order impugned of that date saying that his documents had been subjected to re-verification and it was observed that the petitioner had opened a current account in the name of M/s. Deepak Electronics, where his qualification mentioned in the KYC Form was ‘graduate’. Since the maximum qualification for the post of a sweeper indicated in the advertisement was Class-X, the petitioner was ineligible for appointment as a part-time sweeper.

4. Aggrieved by the impugned order dated 09.10.2023, this writ petition has been instituted by the petitioner.

5. This Court vide order dated 29.11.2023 called upon the Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Punjab National Bank, Saharanpur, the respondent, who had made the said order, to file his own affidavit clearly stating if he asserts for a fact on oath that the petitioner is a graduate. This Court had indicated that the petitioner says that he is not a graduate, but had passed his Class-VIII examination. The Chief Manager was also cautioned that in case the petitioner was not indeed a graduate, necessary action may be initiated against him, because the stand taken in the order impugned was prima facie directed at frustrating this Court's earlier orders dated 31.05.2023 passed in Writ-A No.9832 of 2023, requiring a verification of the petitioner's documents vis-a-vis her age.

6. An affidavit has been filed by the respondent Bank, substantially answering the petitioner's case. It is an affidavit filed by Sanjay Khanna, Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development Department, Circle Office, Saharanpur. All that is said there, for the basis of passing the impugned order, is that the petitioner, in his KYC Form submitted to the Bank before the G.T. Road, Deoband Branch, had shown himself to be a graduate way back on 18.09.2021. It is also said in Paragraph No.4 of the affidavit filed on behalf of the respondent Bank that the account opening form moved in the name of M/s. Deepak Electronics clearly shows the petitioner's date of birth as 20.05.1993, which was verified by his own affidavit dated 18.09.2019. It is asserted that at the time of applying for the part-time sweeper's post, the petitioner had mentioned his date of birth as 20.09.1994, a fact evident to the respondents from a perusal of documents filed along with the KYC Form relating to the bank account under reference. In Paragraph No.5 of the affidavit, there is a rather scandalous and contumacious piece of pleading, where it is asserted:

"5. That it is relevant to mention here that the petitioner previously filed a writ A No. 9832 of 2023 before this Hon'ble court on the basis of false and concocted documents, which was disposed of vide order dated 31.05.2023 with direction that the respondent bank to re-verify the documents' provided by the petitioner within 2 months, in compliance of the order passed by this Hon'ble Court vide order dated 31.05.2023; the deponent further examine the correctness of the documents provided by the petitioner along with the copy of the order dated 31.05.2023 passed by this Hon'ble court in writ A No.9832 of 2023 and at the time of perusal of the documents relates to petitioner, the deponent found that the records available before the bank, which was previously submitted by the petitioner at the time of opening the account in the name of M/s Deepak Electronics, in the KYC form the petitioner clearly mentioned that he is Graduate; on that basis, the deponent passed order on 09.10.2023 in compliance of the previous order passed by this Hon'ble court; on the basis of records available before the bank. (emphasis by Court)

7. Again, in Paragraph No.6 of the affidavit filed by the respondent Bank, it is averred:

"6. That on the basis of the declaration upon the KYC form submitted by the petitioner before the bank on 18.09.2019 which was also verified by his affidavit, it is clearly shows that the petitioner is a graduate, therefore on that basis the deponent passed the Impugned order, on the basis of facts submitted by the petitioner on 18.09.2019 before the bank; therefore it is shows that the deponent passed the order on the basis of facts and documents submitted by the petitioner in previously before the bank, there was no any malafide intention of the deponent, the petitioner himself submitted the deferent documents for seeks illegal appointment before the bank which is not permissible in the eye of the law; if the petitioner permitted then the respondent bank filed the details counter affidavit."

8. Heard Mr. Sanjeet Kumar Mishra, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Jainenendra Kumar Mishra, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent Bank.

9. Before adverting to the merits of the case, this Court cannot ignore the opening part of the pleadings in Paragraph No.5 of the personal affidavit filed by the respondent Bank, where it is said in a very nonchalant and almost contumacious fashion that the petitioner previously filed Writ-A No.9832 of 2023 before this Court on the basis of false and concocted documents, which was disposed of vide our order dated 31.05.2023, directing the respondent Bank to re-verify the petitioner's documents within two months. It is no business of any Manager of the Bank to speak small of our proceedings. It is not open to a litigant to say, particularly, a State litigant, that some orders of ours was passed on the basis of false and concocted documents, unless he seeks vacation of that order or its recall on that ground and that is an issue to be determined by this Court. Here, the assertion has been made in an affidavit filed in a subsequent petition, that is to say, the present writ petition, regarding proceedings of this Court that have already concluded in the order dated 31.05.2023, which the respondent Bank never challenged on ground that it was obtained by presenting false and concocted documents to this Court. The assertion in Paragraph No.5 of the affidavit to the above effect has been made to denigrate our proceedings. This fact was pointed out by this Court to the learned Counsel for the respondent Bank, but he did not seek time to file a better affidavit or explain the respondent Bank's position in this regard. We, accordingly, hold that the first five lines of Paragraph No.5 of the affidavit dated 01.12.2023 filed by Sanjay Khanna, Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Saharanpur, are scandalous pleading, which ought to be struck off the record. Therefore, the following part of Paragraph No.5 of the affidavit dated 01.12.2023 filed by Sanjay Khanna, shall stand struck off as scandalous pleading:

"That it is relevant to mention here that the petitioner previously filed a writ A No. 9832 of 2023 before this Hon'ble court on the basis of false and concocted documents, which was disposed of vide order dated 31.05.2023 with direction that the respondent bank to re-verify the documents' provided by the petitioner within 2 months."

10. Sanjay Khanna, Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Circle Office, Saharanpur is admonished with the remark that he shall be careful in future in wording his pleadings filed in Court.

11. Turning to the merits of the matter, this Court is of opinion that so far as the issue of date of birth is concerned, the same does not arise in this case at all. The reason is that the impugned order has not been passed on the ground of any inaccuracy in the date of birth mentioned by the petitioner in his application form seeking employment. The petitioner's candidature has been rejected by the impugned order on the ground of his qualifications being above eligibility, that is to say, a matriculate. It is a well settled principle of law that an order under challenge before the Court cannot be asked to be sustained by a respondent on grounds other than those mentioned in the order itself.

12. In this connection, reference may be made to the decision in Mohinder Singh Gill and another v. The Chief Election Commissioner, New Delhi and others, (1978) 1 SCC 405, where their Lordships of the Constitution Bench stated the principle thus:

"8. The second equally relevant matter is that when a statutory functionary makes an order based on certain grounds, its validity must be judged by the reasons so mentioned and cannot be supplemented by fresh reasons in the shape of affidavit or otherwise. Otherwise, an order bad in the beginning may, by the time it comes to court on account of a challenge, get validated by additional grounds later brought out. We may here draw attention to the observations of Bose, J. in Gordhandas Bhanji [Commr. of Police, Bombay v. Gordhandas Bhanji, 1951 SCC 1088 : AIR 1952 SC 16] :

"Public orders, publicly made, in exercise of a statutory authority cannot be construed in the light of explanations subsequently given by the officer making the order of what he meant, or of what was in his mind, or what he intended to do. Public orders made by public authorities are meant to have public effect and are intended to affect the actings and conduct of those to whom they are addressed and must be construed objectively with reference to the language used in the order itself."

Orders are not like old wine becoming better as they grow older."

13. In short, the principle is that the impugned order cannot be supplemented for its reasons by an affidavit. This is what precisely the respondent Bank seeks to do by bringing in the issue of some discrepancy in the petitioner's date of birth, whereas that is not the ground at all, on which the impugned order is founded. The impugned order discards the petitioner's candidature solely on the ground that in some commercial transaction with the Bank, where the petitioner had opened a bank account for his firm, M/s. Deepak Electronics, he had mentioned his qualifications as graduate in the KYC Form. The KYC Form has been annexed to the affidavit filed by the respondent Bank at Page No.23. The entry in the relevant column is ex facie suspicious because the box, that was ticked for the petitioner's qualification, is the one that mentions him as an undergraduate. This tick mark has been cross-marked with a line, as if to opt out of it and the next box, which mentions the qualification 'graduate' has been tick marked. This ex facie makes the matter suspicious. But, this Court does not wish to enter into that issue.

14. In our earlier order, the Court had ordered the respondent Bank vide order dated 31.05.2023 passed in Writ-A No.9832 of 2023 to re-verify the entire documents pertaining to the petitioner appended with the application form. Now, apparently, the purpose of all that exercise was to find if the petitioner is indeed a graduate or he is just a matriculate; or not even that. If the petitioner is a matriculate or holds a lower qualification, he would be eligible. The petitioner along with a copy of this Court's order has produced his transfer certificate or school leaving certificate from the New Janta Public Junior High School, Village Nasarullapur, Deoband, Saharanpur, signed by the Headmaster of the school. It is countersigned by the District Basic Education Officer. It shows the petitioner to have passed his Class-VIII and his date of birth as 20.09.1994. The petitioner passed out of the New Janta Public Junior High School, Village Nasarullapur, Deoband, Saharanpur on 20.05.2008. The certificate that the petitioner has relied on has been issued on 27.11.2021 and countersigned by the District Basic Education Officer, Saharanpur on 29.11.2021. A xerox copy of the certificate, that is on record, shows these facts also indicate that the certificate is a part of the book maintained by the School, bearing Sr. No.26. This is the most authentic document about the petitioner's qualifications, unless the petitioner holds a higher qualification.

15. The first inquiry, the Bank ought to have undertaken, was to verify the genuineness of the petitioner's school leaving/ transfer certificate, which is countersigned by the District Basic Education Office, Saharanpur. But, nothing of the kind was done. It is the duty of the Bank to verify the genuineness of the school leaving/ transfer certificate produced by the petitioner before the respondent Bank, contacting the school and the District Basic Education Officer both for the purpose. If still, the respondent Bank believe that the petitioner holds a higher qualification and is a graduate, it is open to them to inquire about the fact. If they find any evidence aliunde to indicate that the petitioner is indeed a graduate or holds a qualification above a matriculate, they would be perfectly within their rights to reject the petitioner's candidature. However, it is not open to the respondent Bank to opine that the petitioner is a graduate by relying upon an entry made in the KYC Form filled up by the petitioner while opening a bank account with them. For one, the document, as noticed by this Court regarding educational qualifications of the petitioner, betrays suspicious scoring out of one entry and the making of another.

16. Quite apart, a KYC Form submitted by a customer of the bank while opening a bank account, cannot be the basis of finally determining his rights or visiting him with adverse civil consequences in a matter as profound as public employment. In the nature of things, a form like a KYC, much as it ought not be done, is filled up with a kind of casualness about it. A qualification, even if incorrectly tick marked in the KYC Form, cannot be held as a binding admission against the subscriber or the customer in an unrelated matter like his eligibility for employment. No inference can be drawn about the petitioner's qualification based on the KYC Form. After all, a person's qualification is not a matter of admission. It is to be proved by evidence aliunde. This requires the educational testimonials to be examined or inquiries made to find out what are the real qualifications that a candidate holds.

17. It is not the case of the respondent Bank that while filling up the application form seeking employment for the post of a part-time sweeper, the petitioner has indicated himself to be a graduate. Clearly, he must not have done so, else he would have been eliminated much earlier. Now, to rely on a KYC Form submitted along with a bank opening application form in order to hold the petitioner disqualified for public employment by the Bank is a perverse approach to the matter, which this Court cannot countenance. The impugned order, in the considered opinion of this Court, has been passed on irrelevant considerations, relied on extraneous materials and is clearly perverse.

18. In the circumstances, this writ petition succeeds and is allowed. The impugned order dated 09.10.2023 passed by the Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Circle Office, Saharanpur is hereby quashed. A mandamus is issued to the Chief Manager, Human Resource and Development, Circle Office, Saharanpur to re-determine the petitioner's entitlement to be appointed a part-time sweeper on the basis of select-list dated 25.02.2022, and appoint him if found to be the holder of educational qualifications not above a matriculate. This order shall be carried out by the respondent Bank within a month of its receipt.

(2024) 2 ILRA 934
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR BIRLA, J.
THE HON'BLE DONADI RAMESH, J.

Writ - A No. 21742 of 2023

Sudeep Kumar Yadav ...Petitioner
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Vimal Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I.

A. Service Law – Compassionate appointment – Financial position of the family – Relevance – Father was died in 1998 and application for compassionate appointment was made in 1999 – Earlier, petitioner's case was considered four times during 2001-2002, but due to constraints of inadequate vacancies, the petitioner could not be appointed – Entitlement – Tribunal rejected the claim petition – 25 years was elapsed during the course – Effect – Held, compassionate appointment is given only for immediate unexpected hardship which is faced by the family by the reason of the death of sole bread earner – More than 25 years have elapsed. At this juncture, consideration of the petitioner's case under compassionate ground would not be just and reasonable – Sushma Gosain's case relied upon. (Para 9 and 10)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Sushma Gosain Vs U.O.I.; (1989) SCC 468

2. Umesh Kumar Nagpal Vs St. of Har.; (1994) 4 SCC 138

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Kumar Birla, J.
&
Hon'ble Donadi Ramesh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vimal Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as Sri Shashi Prakash Singh, learned Additional Solicitor General of India assisted by Sri Gopal Verma, learned counsel for the respondents and perused the record.

2. The writ petition has been filed questioning the order dated 23.08.2023 passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Allahabad Bench Allahabad, in Original Application No.330/01292 of 2019 Sandeep Kumar Yadav Vs. Union of India and orders dated 20.06.2002, 01.07.2002, 30.09.2003 and 10.09.2019 passed by respondent no.3 and consequential directions passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal.

3. Facts of the case is that the father of the petitioner who was a permanent vehicle mechanic in 508 Army Base Workshop, Allahabad Fort, Allahabad died in harness on 05.12.1998 leaving behind his wife Leelawati and four daughters and three sons. Subsequently, the mother of the petitioner has moved an application to the Director General, Army Head Quarter, New Delhi for consideration of the appointment on compassionate ground to anyone of the members of the family of the deceased. Pursuant to the said application, the Commandant & M.D. 508, Army Base Workshop, Allahabad Fort Allahabad has requested the mother of the petitioner for sending complete documents to register name of the eldest son Sudeep Kumar Yadav for employment assistance in the office. The petitioner has complete all requisite formalities in compliance of the letter dated 26.02.1999 before third respondent. Subsequently, third respondent also made correspondence directing the petitioner to submit all the relevant documents. Accordingly, the petitioner complied with the letter dated 11.12.1999.

4. That being so, the respondents arbitrarily and illegally without considering financial condition of the family of the deceased refused to accept the request and passed the impugned orders 20.06.2002/01.07.2002. While passing the said orders, the respondents have not disclosed details of merit list of all the candidates considered by the Board during June 2001, September 2001, December 2001 and March 2002. Hence the petitioner was not able to know correct position of the merit list. As against the said order, the mother of the petitioner has preferred appeal / representation on 11.12.2002 and 19.12.2002 requesting for giving employment to her son on compassionate ground. Considering the said request, the respondents again vide order dated 30.09.2003 rejected the request of the petitioner for appointment on compassionate ground saying that the case of the petitioner has already been rejected vide orders dated 20.06.2002 / 01.07.2002.

5. Being aggrieved by the aforesaid action of the respondents, the petitioner has moved a civil misc. writ petition no.40017 of 2004 before this Court and challenged the said rejection orders. The said writ petition was dismissed on the ground of alternative remedy vide order dated 28.09.2018.

6. After that, the petitioner has received one more letter dated 14.11.2018 from third respondent whereby he demanded certain documents for consideration of his appointment on compassionate ground and the petitioner has submitted further documents in support of the request made by third respondent vide letter dated 20.12.2018. The petitioner has further received a letter dated 27.03.2019 whereby he was directed to complete certain formality for sending the matter to the Army Head Quarter and further the petitioner received a letter from third respondent on 10.09.2019 whereby the Board of Officers as per the guidelines/instructions issued by the Government of India has examined the case of the petitioner and found that due to constraints of inadequate vacancies and also due to not make up in relative merit against the ceiling of 5% quota, the petitioner has not been selected. Consequently, left with no option, the petitioner approached the Central Administrative Tribunal, Allahabad Bench Allahabad questioning the orders passed by the respondents rejecting the case of the petitioner for compassionate appointment.

7. After completing the pleadings, the Tribunal has considered the original application filed by the petitioner. Though the case of the petitioner was considered by the respondents five times but no details of the candidates who were selected in those Board meeting has been given and the respondents failed to consider the petitioner's application and based on financial income of the deceased in prospective manner, the Tribunal also rejected the petitioner's application for compassionate ground.

8. Refuting the submissions, learned counsel for the respondents has submitted that the petitioner's case was considered on four times June 2001, September 2001, December 2001 and March 2002, due to constraints of inadequate vacancies, the petitioner could not be appointed and his name was deleted from the names of the aggrieved persons for further consideration. Despite the same, the respondents have considered once again the candidature of the petitioner in 2019 but he could not be appointed on the ground of inadequate vacancies. Further he has argued that the matter is very old and the deceased employee had died in 1998 and more than 25 years have elapsed. Hence, at this juncture, the question of consideration of the compassionate appointment would not arise in view of ratio laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in the various judgments. The said legal position has been extracted by the Tribunal in its order in paragraph nos. 7, 8 and 10 of the said judgment, which are reproduced herein under:-

"7. Before proceeding to discuss the submissions raised across the bar and analyzing the same in the light of the facts and circumstances of the case, I find it expedient to quote the relevant portion of the judgments relied upon by the applicant:-

Relevant portion of judgment of Smt. Parden Oraon (supra)

"9. We are in agreement with the High Court that the reasons given by the employer for denying compassionate appointment to the Respondent's son are not justified. There is no bar in the National Coal Wage Agreement for appointment of the son of an employee who has suffered civil death. In addition, merely because the respondent is working, her son cannot be denied compassionate appointment as per the relevant clauses of the National CoalWage Agreement. However, the Respondent's husband is missing since 2002. Two sons of the Respondent who are the dependents of her husband as per the records, are also shown as dependents of the Respondent. It cannot be said that Umesh Kumar Nagpal vs. State of Haryana, (1994) 4 SCC 138 7 Page there was any financial crisis created immediately after Respondent's husband went missing in view of the employment of the Respondent. Though the reasons given by the employer to deny the relief sought by the Respondent are not sustainable, we are convinced that the Respondent's son cannot be given compassionate appointment at this point of time. The application for compassionate appointment of the son was filed by the Respondent in the year 2013 which is more than 10 years after the Respondent's husband had gone missing. As the object of compassionate appointment is for providing immediate succour to the family of a deceased employee, the Respondent's son is not entitled for compassionate appointment after the passage of a long period of time since his father has gone missing".

Relevant portion of judgment of Smt. Phulmati Devi (supra)

"25. In view of this court, the aforesaid argument cannot be accepted. The revised consolidated instruction on the scheme of compassionate appointment circulated by G.I. Department of Personnel and Training OM dated 09.10.1998 is relevant for this purpose. In Rules-7 and 8, it is mentioned that:-

7. Determination/Availability of Vacancies

(a) Appointment on compassionate grounds should be made only on regular basis and that too only if regular vacancies meant for that purpose are available.

(b) Compassionate appointments can be made upto a maximum of 5% of vacancies falling under direct recruitment quota in any Group 'C' or 'D' post. The appointing authority may hold back upto 5% of vacancies in the aforesaid categories to be filled by direct recruitment through Staff Selection Commission or otherwise so as to fill such vacancies by appointment on compassionate grounds. A person selected for appointment on compassionate grounds should be adjusted in the recruitment roster against the appropriate category viz SC/ST/ OBC/General depending upon the category to which he belongs. For example, if he belongs to SC category he will be adjusted against the SC reservation point, if he will be adjusted against ST/OBC point and if he belongs to General category he will be adjusted against the vacancy point meant for General category.

(c) While the ceiling of 5%, for making compassionate appointment against regular vacancies should not be circumvented by making appointment of dependent family member of Government servant on casual/daily wage/ad-hoc/contract basis against regular vacancies, there is no bar to considering him for such appointment if he is eligible as per the normal rules/orders governing such appointments.

(d) The ceiling of 5% of direct recruitment vacancies for making compassionate appointment should not be exceeded by utilising any other vacancy e.g., sports quota vacancy.

(e) Employment under the scheme is not confined to the Ministry/ Department/Office in which deceased/medically retired Government servant had been working. Such an appointment can be given anywhere under the Government of India depending upon availability of a suitable vacancy meant for the purpose of compassionate appointment.

(f) If sufficient vacancies are not available in any particular 'office to accommodate the persons in the 'Waiting list for compassionate appointment, it is open to the administrative Ministry/Department/Office to take up the matter with other Ministries/Departments/Offices of the Government of India to provide at an early date appointment on compassionate grounds to those in the waiting list.

8. Belated requests for Compassionate Appointment (a) Ministries/Departments can consider requests for compassionate appointment even where the death or retirement on medical grounds of a Government servant took. place long back, say five years or so. While considering such belated requests it should, however, be kept in view that the concept of compassionate appointment is largely related to the need for immediate assistance to the family of the Government servant in order to relieve it from economic distress. The very fact that the family has been able to manage somehow all these years should normally be taken as adequate proof that the family had some dependable means of subsistence. Therefore, examination of such cases would call for a great deal of circumspection. The decision to make appointment on compassionate grounds in such cases may, therefore, be taken only at the level of the Secretary of the Department/Ministry concerned.

(b) Whether a request for compassionate appointment is belated or not may be decided with reference to the date of death or retirement on medical ground of a Government servant and not the age of the applicant at the time of consideration.

26. For the same purpose, OM No.14014/19/2002 dated 05.05.2003 is also relevant, which says:-

"Copy of O.M.No.14014/19/2002-Estt(D) dated 5.5.2003 from Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions Department of Personnel &Training Subject: Time-limit for making compassionate appointment.

1. The undersigned is directed to refer to Department of Personnel & Training OM No.14014/6/94-Estt(D) dated October 9, 1998 and OM No.14014/23/99-Estt(D) dated December 3, 1999 on the above subject and to say that the question of prescribing a time limit for making appointment on compassionate grounds has been examined in the light of representations received, stating that the one year limit prescribed for grant of compassionate appointment is often resulting in depriving genuine cases seeking compassionate appointments, on account of regular vacancies not being available, within the prescribed period of one year and within the prescribed ceiling of 5% of direct recruitment quota.

2. It has therefore been decided that if compassionate appointments to genuine and deserving cases, as per the guidelines contained in the above OMs is not possible in the first year due to non-availability of regular vacancy, the prescribed committee may review such cases to evaluate the financial conditions of the family to arrive at a decision as to whether a particular case warrants extension by one more year, for consideration for compassionate appointment by the Committee, subject to availability of a clear vacancy within the prescribed 5% quota. If on scrutiny by the Committee, a case is considered to be deserving, the name of such a person can be continued for consideration for one more year.

3. The maximum time a person's name can be kept under consideration for offering Compassionate appointment will be three years, subject to the condition that the prescribed Committee has reviewed and certified the penurious condition of the applicant at the end of the first and the second year. After three years, if compassionate appointment is not possible to be offered to the applicant, his case will be finally closed, and will not be considered again.

4. The instructions contained in the above-mentioned OMs stand modified to the extent mentioned above.

5. The above decision may be brought to the notice of all concerned for information, guidance and necessary action".

27. Therefore, looking to the aforesaid provision and the rules, it appears that the claim of the applicant was required to be considered for the vacancies of three years. Nowhere it is provided that the vacancy should arise only after the death of the deceased employee. The vacancies may be carried forward for three years. If the vacancies are available (5% for compassionate appointment) then the selection for the aforesaid vacancies should be made in chronological order. At the time of consideration of the application, the vacancies available should be filled. It is not relevant that the vacancies are related to which year. The oldest vacancies should be filled on a priority basis. Therefore, the case of the applicant has rightly been considered for the vacancies related to three years and was available at the time of consideration of the application.

28. In the aforesaid situation, in view of this court the OA is liable to be dismissed. The respondents rightly rejected the claim of the applicant. Hence, OA is dismissed".

8. As per dictums of Hon'ble Apex Court, it is settled position of law that compassionate appointment is granted to meet the sudden crisis on account of death of breadwinner while in service. While considering the claim for compassionate appointment, financial condition of family of deceased employee must be taken into consideration. The object to grant compassionate appointment is to provide immediate help to the dependents of deceased employee, so that they may not die in starvation.

10. Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of State of West Bengal Vs. Debabrata Tiwari and Ors. Etc. etc. in Civil Appeal No. 8842-8855 of 2022 decided on 3.3.2023 in paras 7.1 and 7.2 has held as under:-

"7.1. It may be apposite to refer to the following decisions of this Court, on the rationale behind a policy or scheme for compassionate appointment and the considerations that ought to guide determination of claims for compassionate appointment.

i. In Sushma Gosain vs. Union of India, (1989) 4 SCC 468, this Court observed that in all claims for appointment on compassionate grounds, there should not be any delay in appointment. That the purpose of providing appointment on compassionate grounds is to mitigate the hardship caused due to the death of the bread earner in the family. Such appointment should, therefore, be provided immediately to redeem the family in distress.

ii. In Umesh Kumar Nagpal vs. State of Haryana, (1994) 4 SCC 138, this Court observed that the object of granting compassionate employment is to enable the family of a deceased government employee to tide over the sudden crisis by providing gainful employment to one of the dependants of the deceased who is eligible for such employment. That mere death of an employee in harness does not entitle his family to such source of livelihood; the Government or the public authority concerned has to examine the financial condition of the family of the deceased and it is only if it is satisfied that, but for the provision of employment, the family will not be able to meet the crisis, that a job is to be offered to the eligible member of the family, provided a scheme or rules provide for the same. This Court further clarified in the said case that compassionate appointment is not a vested right which can be exercised at any time after the death of a government servant.

That the object being to enable the family to get over the financial crisis which it faces at the time of the death of the sole breadwinner, compassionate employment cannot be claimed and offered after lapse of considerable amount of time and after the crisis is overcome.

iii. In Haryana State Electricity Board vs. Hakim Singh, (1997) 8 SCC 85, ("Hakim Singh") this Court placed much emphasis on the need for immediacy in the manner in which claims for compassionate appointment are made by the dependants and decided by the concerned authority. This Court cautioned that it should not be forgotten that the object of compassionate appointment is to give succour to the family to tide over the sudden financial crisis that has befallen the dependants on account of the untimely demise of its sole earning member. Therefore, this Court held that it would not be justified in directing appointment for the claimants therein on compassionate grounds, fourteen years after the death of the government employee. That such a direction would amount to treating a claim for compassionate appointment as though it were a matter of inheritance based on a line of succession.

iv. This Court in State of Haryana vs. Ankur Gupta, AIR 2003 SC 3797 held that in order for a claim for compassionate appointment to be considered reasonable and permissible, it must be shown that a sudden crisis occurred in the family of the deceased as a result of death of an employee who had served the State and died while in service. It was further observed that appointment on compassionate grounds cannot be claimed as a matter of right and cannot be made available to all types of posts irrespective of the nature of service rendered by the deceased employee.

v. There is a consistent line of authority of this Court on the principle that appointment on compassionate grounds is given only for meeting the immediate unexpected hardship which is faced by the family by reason of the death of the bread earner vide Jagdish Prasad vs. State of Bihar, (1996) 1 SCC 301. When an appointment is made on compassionate grounds, it should be kept confined only to the purpose it seeks to achieve, the idea 19 being not to provide for endless compassion, vide I.G. (Karmik) vs. Prahalad Mani Tripathi, (2007) 6 SCC 162. In the same vein is the decision of this Court in Mumtaz Yunus Mulani vs. State of Maharashtra, (2008) 11 SCC 384, wherein it was declared that appointment on compassionate grounds is not a source of recruitment, but a means to enable the family of the deceased to get over a sudden financial crisis.

vi. In State of Jammu and Kashmir vs. Sajad Ahmed Mir, AIR 2006 SC 2743, the facts before this Court were that the government employee (father of the applicant therein) died in March, 1987. The 6 application was made by the applicant after four and half years in September, 1991 which was rejected in March, 1996. The writ petition was filed in June, 1999 which was dismissed by the learned Single Judge in July, 2000. When the Division Bench decided the matter, more than fifteen years had passed from the date of death of the father of the applicant. This Court remarked that the said facts were relevant and material as they would demonstrate that the family survived in spite of death of the employee. Therefore, this Court held that granting compassionate appointment after a lapse of a considerable amount of time after the death of the government employee, would not be in furtherance of the object of a scheme for compassionate appointment.

vii. In Shashi Kumar, this Court speaking through Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud, J. (as His Lordship then was) observed that compassionate appointment is an exception to the general rule that appointment to any public post in the service of the State has to be made on the basis of principles which accord with Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution. That the basis of the policy is that it recognizes that a family of a deceased employee may be placed in a position of financial hardship upon the untimely death of the employee while in service. That it is the immediacy of the need which furnishes the basis for the State to allow the benefit of compassionate appointment. The pertinent observations of this Court have been extracted as under:

"41. Insofar as the individual facts pertaining to the Respondent are concerned, it has emerged from the record that the Writ Petition before the High Court was instituted on 11 May 2015. The application for compassionate appointment was submitted on 8 May 2007. On 15 January 2008 the Additional Secretary had required that the amount realized by way of pension be included in the income statement of the family. The Respondent waited thereafter for a period in excess of seven years to move a petition Under Article 226 of the Constitution. In Umesh Kumar Nagpal (supra), this Court has emphasized that the basis of a scheme of compassionate appointment lies in the need of providing immediate assistance to the family of the deceased employee. This sense of immediacy is evidently lost by the 7 delay on the part of the dependant in seeking compassionate appointment."

7.2. On consideration of the aforesaid decisions of this Court, the following principles emerge:

i. That a provision for compassionate appointment makes a departure from the general provisions providing for appointment to a post by following a particular procedure of recruitment. Since such a provision enables appointment being made without following the said procedure, it is in the nature of an exception to the general provisions and must be resorted to only in order to achieve the stated objectives, i.e., to enable the family of the deceased to get over the sudden financial crisis.

ii. Appointment on compassionate grounds is not a source of recruitment. The reason for making such a benevolent scheme by the State or the public sector undertaking is to see that the dependants of the deceased are not deprived of the means of livelihood. It only enables the family of the deceased to get over the sudden financial crisis.

iii. Compassionate appointment is not a vested right which can be exercised at any time in future. Compassionate employment cannot be claimed or offered after a lapse of time and after the crisis is over.

iv. That compassionate appointment should be provided immediately to redeem the family in distress. It is improper to keep such a case pending for years.

v. In determining as to whether the family is in financial crisis, all relevant aspects must be borne in mind including the income of 22 the family, its liabilities, the terminal benefits if any, received by the family, the age, dependency and marital status of its members, together with the income from any other source".

9. While considering the above observations of the Hon'ble Apex Court and also the fact that the deceased died in 1998 and 25 years have elapsed, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sushma Gosain Vs. Union of India (1989) SCC 468, and Umesh Kumar Nagpal Vs. State of Haryana (1994) 4 SCC 138 has categorically held that with regard to the principle of compassionate grounds, appointment is given only for immediate unexpected hardship which is faced by the family by the reason of the death of sole bread earner. The provision for compassionate appointment makes a departure from the general provisions providing for appointment to a post by following a particular procedure of recruitment. Since such a provision enables appointment being made without following the said procedure, it is in the nature of an exception to the general provisions. Further, it has been observed that compassionate appointment is not a vested right which can be exercised at any time in future. Compassionate employment cannot be claimed or offered after a lapse of time.

10. As observed by Hon'ble Apex Court in the instant case, more than 25 years have elapsed. At this juncture, consideration of the petitioner's case under compassionate ground would not be just and reasonable. Accordingly, the Tribunal rejected claim of the petitioner in the right perspective. It is also not in dispute that the Authority has considered the case of the petitioner. In fact, the petitioner's case has been considered by the respondent no.3 nearly five times and he could not be able to provide employment for want of inadequate vacancy.

11. In view of the above, we are not inclined to interfere with the order of the Tribunal. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 942
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ATTAU RAHMAN MASOODI, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ - A No. 30173 of 2019
connected with
Writ – A No. 2000845 of 2014
and other connected cases

Harendra Bahadur Singh & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Varadraj Shreedutt Ojha, Amardeep Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Dharmendra Kumar Dixit, Gaurav Mehrotra, Praneet Kumar Agarwal, Shireesh Kumar, Sridhar Awasthi

A. Service Law – UP Higher Judicial Services Rules, 1975 – Rules 5(a), 6, 7 & 8(1) – Promotion – Post of Higher Judicial Services cadre – Determination of seats for each three source of recruitment of the HJS cadre – Inter-se seniority for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 – More seat for promotion was claimed on the basis of quota – How far liable to be accepted – Phrase 'vacancy likely to occur in next two years' is used in S. 8(1) – Applicability – Held, the expression 'vacancies likely to occur in the next two years' is a concept, which comes into play only when it is decided for the recruitment of a particular year to commence in that year itself. If, the recruitment starts in a particular year, Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 mandates that for determining the number of vacancies, the Courts also take into consideration the anticipated vacancies for the following year – The vacancy for the recruitment year 2012 was correctly determined by the High Court in terms of Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and there was no occasion for the High Court to consider the appointment of the petitioners on the unforeseen vacancies, which were created or came into existence once the recruitment process started for the said year 2012. (Para 3, 37, 38, 39 and 50)

B. Service Law – UP Higher Judicial Services Rules, 1975 – Rules 7, 8(2) & 22(2) – UP Public Services (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other Backward Classes) Act, 1994 – S. (2) – Reservation Policy, extent of application – Carry Forward Rule – Applicability to the recruitment of UP High Judicial Services – Held, there is no provision under the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for carry forward of unfilled vacancies of reserved category as per the Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, as the same has not been adopted by the High Court on the administrative side and most importantly, the said carry forward would run contrary to the existing provisions of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 – High Court found no error in the determination of vacancies for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 as suggested by the petitioners by filling up the vacancies by the unreserved candidates. (Para 52, 83, 89, 97 and 110)

C. Service Jurisprudence – Constitution of India – Article 226 – Writ – Maintainability – Non-joinder of parties – All direct recruits for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 have not been arrayed as a party though averments have been made and sought for quashing of their appointments – Effect – Held, it is not essential to implead each and every one who could be affected but if a section of such affected employees is impleaded then the interest of all is represented and protected – Ajay Kumar Shukla' case relied upon – High Court rejected the objection regarding maintainability of writ . (Para 65, 68 and 69)

D. Service Law – Seniority, determination thereof – Rotational system – Applicability – Held, seniority has to be given as per the appointment made on a substantive post and seniority is to be determined in accordance with rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotes based on quota of vacancies reserved for both the categories as per Rule 22(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. [Para 114 and 125 (vi)]

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Sri Kant Tripathi & ors.Vs St. of U. P. & ors.; (2001) 10 SCC 237

2. All India Judges Association Vs U.O.I.; (2002) 4 SCC 247

3. V.K. Srivastava Vs Government of Uttar Pradesh; (2008) 9 SCC 77,

4. Malik Mazahar Sultan Vs UPSC; (2008) 17 SCC 703

5. Ashok Pal Singh Vs U.P judicial Services & ors.; (2010) 12 SCC 635

6. Nawal Kishore Mishra & ors.Vs High Court of Judicature at Allahabad & ors.; (2015) 5 SCC 479

7. High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Vs St. of U. P.; (2018) 15 SCC 439

8. R.K. Sabharwal & ors. Vs St. of Pun. & ors.; (1995) 2 SCC 745

9. Prabhuji & anr..Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2010 SCC Online All 2410

10. Premkala Singh HJS & ors. Vs High court of Judicature at Allahabad decided on 30.06.2017

11. Rakhi Ray Vs High Court of Delhi & ors.; 2010(2) SCR 239

12. Vivek Kaisth Vs St. of H. P.; 2023 SCC Online 1485

13. P.S Sadasivaswamy Vs St. of T. N.; (1975) 1 SCC 152

14. U.O.I. Vs C. Girija; (2019) 15 SCC 633

15. St. of Bihar Vs Bal Mukind Sah; (2000) 4 SCC 640

16. Delhi Administration Vs Manohar Lal; (2002) 7 SCC 222

17. Natural Resources Allocation, in re: Spcial Ref. 1 of 2012; (2012) 10 SCC 1

18. Rajasthan High Court Vs Ved Priya & anr..; (2021) 13 SCC 151

19. Rashmi Mishra Vs MP Public Service Commission; (2006) 12 SCC 724

20. Ranjan Kumar Vs St. of Bihar; (2014) 16 SCC 187

21. Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana at Chandigarh Vs St. of Pun.; 2019 (12) SCC 496

22. B.S Bajwa Vs St. of Pun. & ors.; AIR 1999 SC 1510

23. Malcom Lawrence Cecil D'Souza Vs U.O.I. & ors..; AIR 1975 SC 1269

24. H.S Vanikani & ors. Vs St. of Gujrat & ors.; (2010) 4 SCC 301

25. Malook Singh & ors.. Vs St. of Punjab & ors.; 2021 SCC Online SC 876

26. Rashi Mani Mishra & ors. Vs St. of UP & ors.; 2021 SCC Online 509

27. Anup Bhuyan Vs St. of Assam & anr.; (2023) SCC Online SC 338

28. Indian Council for Agricultural Research Vs Central Administrative Tribunal & anr. 2018 SCC Online All 667

29. P. Chittaranja Menon & ors.. Vs A. Balakrishnan & ors.; (1977) 3 SCC 255

30. Vijay Kr. Kaul Vs U.O.I.; 2012 (7) SCC 610

31. KH Siraj Vs High Court of Kerala; (2006) 6 SCC 395

32. Amarjeet Singh Vs Devi Rattan; (2010) 1 SCC 417

33. Mukul Kumar Tyagi & ors. Vs The St. of U. P. & ors.; (2020) 4 SCC 86

34. Ajay Kumar Shukla Vs Arvind Rai; (2022) 12 SCC 579

35. Writ Petition (Civil) No. 147/2021; Randheer Singh & ors. Vs High Court of Judicature at Allahabad & ors.: Order dated 25.10.2021 and 15.11.2021

36. Rajasthan High Court Vs Ved Priya & anr.; (2021) 13 SCC 151

37. St. of Punjab & ors. Vs Rafiq Masih (White Washer); (2014) 8 SCC 883

38. Girish Kumar Suneja Vs Central Bureau of Investigation; (2017) 14 SCC 809

39. Mervyn Coutindo & ors. Vs Collector of Customs, Bombay & ors.; 1966 (3) SCR 600

40. Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh Vs St. of Pun.& ors.; 2019(12) SCC 496

41. Yamini Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh; (2019) 17 SCC 228

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) Heard Shri Sandeep Dixit, Shri Sudeep Seth, Shri J.N. Mathur, Shri Sanjay Bhasin, Shri Asit Kumar Chaturvedi, learned Senior Advocates assisted by Shri Varadraj Shreedutt Ojha, Shri Kshitij Mishra, Shri Shobit Mohan Shukla, Shri Amardeep Yadav, representing the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel representing the State/rspondent, Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned Counsel representing the High Court/respondent and Shri Dharmendra Kumar Dixit, Shri Shireesh Kumar, Shri Praneet Kumar Agarwal, Shri Sridhar Awasthi, Shri Sanjay Hari Shukla, Shri Manoj Kumar Singh Gautam, Shri Vivek Tripathi, Shri Jitendra Saksena, Shri Ashwani Kumar Singh, learned Counsel representing the private respondents.

A. Introduction

(2) The perennial problem of determination of number of vacancy to be filled from each source of recruitment and its consequential effect on the seniority list has yet again come to haunt the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 for the Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Services. Although by now these problems ought to have been resolved by the authoritative decision of the Apex

Court, however these issues refuses to die down and have a salutary burial.

(3) The Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Services Rules, 1975 (hereinafter to be referred as "UPHJS Rules, 1975") have been framed to regulate the recruitment, appointment and other conditions of services for Higher Judicial Services appointees in the State of Uttar Pradesh. Rule 5 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 provides for three source of recruitment; the first being (a) by promotion from amongst the Civil Judges (Senior Division) on the basis of principle of merit-cum-seniority and passing a suitability test; the second being (b) by promotion strictly on the basis of merit through limited competitive examination of Civil Judges (Senior Division) having not less than five years qualifying service; and the third being (c) by direct recruitment from amongst the learned Advocates of not less than seven years standing on the first day of January next following the year in which the notice inviting applications is published. The conundrum relating to the number of available seats for each source of recruitment in view of the quota prescribed under Rule 6 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 and number of appointment to be made as per Rule 8 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 and the effect of reservation for posts of schedules castes etc. as per Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and their inter-play, which also had an eventful effect on the seniority list prepared as per Rule 26 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 had been fascinated by this Court as well as the Hon'ble Apex Court in various judicial precedent. Some of these judgements are being enumerated herein below, so that this Court, while dealing with the issues raised by the parties in the present writ petitions, is alive to these precedents, which holds the ground even as on today :-

(i) Sri Kant Tripathi & Ors. Vs State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors, (2001) 10 SCC 237,

(ii) All India Judges Association Vs Union of India (2002) 4 SCC 247,

(iii) V.K. Srivastava Vs government of Uttar Pradesh, (2008) 9 SCC 77,

(iv) Malik Mazahar Sultan Vs UPSC, (2008) 17 SCC 703,

(v) Ashok Pal Singh Vs U.P judicial Services & Ors. (2010) 12 SCC 635,

(vi) Nawal Kishore Mishra & Ors. Vs High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, Through its Registrar general & ors., (2015) 5 SCC 479;

(vii) High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Vs State of Uttar Pradesh, (2018) 15 SCC 439

(4) The determination of seats for each source of recruitment and the inter-se seniority for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 is the centrifugal issue engaging the attention of this Court in these four writ petitions. Although, the prayer in these petitions are not similar, however, the relief sought and the issue raised in these petitions are complimentary to each other and as such they are being decided together.

(5) All these writ petitions have been filed by "promotees" belonging to category/quota as per Rule 5 (a) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and apparently, there is no challenge by either the Direct Recruits {category/quota as per Rule 5(c) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975} or the out of turn promote {category/quota as per Rule 5(b) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975} and from the memo of the writ petitions, it is apparent that :-

1.	Writ-A No. 200845 of 2014 (Sanjeev Kumar Singh & Ors. Vs. State of U.P) amended vide order dated 05.07.2018	Has been filed by Petitioners, who have been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1999 and all the promotees.
2.	Writ-A No. 30173 of 2019 (Harendra Bahadur Singh & Ors. V/s State of U.P.)	Has been filed by Petitioner No.1 to 10, who have been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1999 & Petitioner No.11 has been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-2000 and all are promotees.
3.	Writ-A No. 11453 of 2020 (Manorama & 6 others V/s State of U.P)	Has been filed by Petitioner No.1, who has been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1997 & Petitioner No. 2 to 7 have has been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1999 and all are promotees.
4.	Writ-A No. 28511 of 2021 (Randheer Singh & others Vs State of U.P)	Has been filed by Petitioners, who have been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1996 and all are promotees.

(6) All these petitioners, who were initially selected and appointed under the U.P Judicial Services Examination conducted in the year 1996 or 1997 or 1999, became entitled to promotion to the U.P Higher Judicial Service cadre, in due course of time. Since, their promotion was contingent on the number of seats available in the said UPHJS Cadre in a particular year, it became a bone of contention, wherein these petitioners as promotees claimed more seats/vacancies available to them for promotions on basis of the quota and also raised other ancillary grounds, which shall be discussed in the later part of this judgment.

B. Background

(7) Apparently, the root to the present controversy relating to determination of vacancies for each quota, stems from the year 2000, which came to be decided by the Apex Court in Sri Kant Tripathi & others vs. State of U.P. & others reported in (2001) 10 SCC 237, wherein certain directions for redetermination of vacancies was given by the Hon'ble Apex Court by interpreting the relevant provisions of the Rules and leaving the actual numbers to be determined by the High Court for different recruitment years starting from 1988 to 1998. The Apex court inter-alia in Sri Kant Tripathi's case (supra) held :

"(i) Appointments already made to the higher judicial service, whether by direct recruitment or by promotion, need not be annulled and shall be continued.

(ii) With effect from 1988 recruitment and in all subsequent recruitments which are the subject matter of challenge before us, the high court shall determine the number of vacancies available as on the relevant year of recruitment in terms of rule 8, as already explained by us and then, allocate the percentage to different sources of recruitment, contained in rule 6, and after such determination is made, then find out whether the appointments of direct recruits already made for that recruitment year are in excess of the quota or within the quota. If it is found that any appointment has been made in excess of the quota, then the said appointee would be allowed to continue, but his or her seniority will have to be reckoned only when he or she is adjusted in the next recruitment.

(iii) If in each recruitment year, posts were available in the quota of promotees and promotion has not been made, even though selection had been made under rule 20, then the legitimate right of the promotees cannot be denied and promotion must be made with effect from the date they should have been appointed.

(iv) This exercise has to be made for the recruitment of 1988 as well as for each subsequent recruitment that has been made.

(v) Since the determination under rule 8 is being made now, pursuant to the directions of this court, in respect of past recruitment years for which recruitment has been made, the expression "vacancies likely to occur" loses its importance and determination has to be made, on the basis of the actual vacancies available in any of such recruitment year.

(vi) So far as the recruitment of 1998 is concerned, advertisements having been issued for 38 vacancies being filled up by direct recruitment and the process of selection being already over, but no appointment having been made, we think it appropriate to direct that the appointment of the selected candidates may be made against the quota available to direct recruits calculated in accordance with the rules in the light of our decision.

(viii) For all future appointments, the high court must take steps to fill the vacancies of every recruitment year during that year itself. The high court must determine the vacancies not only on the basis of the actual vacancies on the date of such determination but also take into account probable vacancies by reason of superannuation of officers in the next two years from that date.

(ix) Once the vacancies are so determined, the percentage of the vacancies available for recruitment by direct recruitment and by promotion must be fixed and steps taken for filling up the same expeditiously. The number of vacancies available for the direct recruit's quota must be advertised without any variation clause. The select list prepared both for direct recruits as well as for promotees prepared by the high court will be operative only till the next recruitment commences with the fixation of the vacancies for the next recruitment year."

(8) On the heels of the aforesaid judgment, All India Judges' Association and others vs. Union of India and others : (2002) 4 SCC 247 was pronounced on 21.03.2002, having an all India effect, wherein a quota was prescribed relating to 3 sources of recruitment i.e. by promotion on merit-cum-seniority based on a suitability test, merit promotion on the basis of a limited competitive examination for its cadre candidates and direct recruitment, in the ratio of 50:25:25. The said judgment also provided for a Quota-Rota Rule based on a roster in terms of the judgment pronounced in R.K. Sabharwal and others vs. State of Punjab and others : (1995) 2 SCC 745 case for determination of seniority in UPHJS so as to avoid any further litigation. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the All India Judges' case (Supra) also issued directions for amendment in the relevant Rules to all concerned State, by specified dates as mentioned in paragraphs 27, 28, 29 and 39 of the said judgment.

(9) Although the All India Judges' case (Supra) would had been the torch-bearer in providing the guidance in determination of the vacancy and providing the seniority, however, before the amendments could be made in UPHJS Rules, 1975, an exercise was undertaken for redetermination of vacancies in terms of Sri Kant Tripathi's case (supra) by a Committee of this High Court which submitted its report on 24.08.2002 and the said report came to be approved by the Full Court on 01.02.2004. Even this report was challenged by the promotees judicial officers vide Writ Petition No.316 (SB) of 2004 (U.P. Judicial Services Association vs. State of U.P. and another), which was decided on 25.08.2004 with certain directions for redetermination of vacancies. After this judgment, the result of 1998-2000 recruitment was declared in 2004.

(10) In the meantime, the aforesaid judgment dated 25.08.2004 (supra), which had declared availability of 24 direct recruit vacancy and 331 promotions seats, was itself challenged before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ashok Pal Singh & others vs. U.P. Judicial Services & others : (2010) 12 SCC 635 and since there was no interim stay in the said case, the High Court in compliance of judgment dated 25.08.2004 (supra) (High Court order) proceeded to prepare a seniority list of pre-1998 appointees that came to be approved by the Full Court on 24.08.2007. The said seniority list was subjected to challenge in Prabhuji and Anr. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors., 2010 SCC Online All 2410 and during pendency of the said petition, judgment in the case of Ashok Pal Singh's case (supra) came to be delivered on 13.09.2010, wherein the Apex Court while considering the purport and intent of Rule 8 (2) of UPHJS Rules, 1975, it was held that the same was not to dilute or change the quota of direct recruits. It further held that its object was to ensure that no vacancy remained unfilled for want of adequate number of direct recruits under the prescribed quota. While holding so, the Apex Court noted that there were reasonable chances of adequate number of candidates being not available for direct recruitment whereas usually sufficient number of candidates would be available for promotion. It also made further clear that the proviso to Rule 8(2) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 ensures that the short fall in quota for direct recruits in any recruitment does not get permanently converted to promotee quota by providing that the short fall should be made at the next recruitment for the direct recruitees, subject to it does not exceeds the 25% of strength of the service.

(11) In the interregnum, the UPHJS Rules, 1975 were amended in terms of paragraphs 27, 28 and 39 of the judgment in All India Judges' Association's case (supra) vide notification dated 09.01.2007 by which UPHJS (Sixth Amendment) Rules 2006 (hereinafter referred to as 'UPHJS Amended Rules, 2006') came into force with retrospective effect from 21.03.2002 i.e. the date of the All India

Judges' Association's case (supra). However, only part compliance of the dictum was made, in as much no amendment in terms of paragraph 29 took place, which provided for seniority on the basis of quota and rotational basis. In any case, the vires of UPHJS Amended Rules, 2006 came to be challenged in V.K. Srivastava and others Vs. Government of U.P. and Ors. before the Hon'ble Supreme Court under Article 32 of the Constitution of India and while the aforesaid challenge was pending, a determination of vacancies took place for direct recruitment and promotees on 15.02.2007, as approved by Full Court on 17.02.2007 including those existing as on 31.12.2006 and anticipated vacancies upto 31.12.2008. A suitability test was also held for purposes of promotion under the 50% quota for promotees on 10.02.2008.

(12) Based on the aforesaid recruitment process, a final list of direct recruits and promotees was approved by the Full Court on 12.07.2008. However, instead of putting the names of direct recruits and promotees aforesaid in the order as envisaged in Rule 22 (1) and (2) of the UPHJS Rules 1975 keeping in mind paragraph 29 of All India Judges' case (supra), separate orders of appointment for direct recruits and promotees were issued, even though a combined list as envisaged in Rule 22(1) was sent to the State Government. Interestingly, although para-3 of the appointment/promotion order mentioned that the members of HJS selected/appointed on the basis of selection of 2007 their inter-se placement as per roster shall be done by the High Court subsequently, however, nothing was done and the appointments were notified under Rule 25 on 10.12.2008.

(13) During the aforesaid process, V.K. Srivastava and others Vs. Government of U.P. and Ors. (supra) : (2008) 9 SCC 77 came to be decided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 04.09.2008 and the challenge to the vires of UPHJS Amended Rules, 2006 was repelled. Thereafter, another recruitment took place of 2009 batch based on a determination of vacancies on 24.03.2009, as approved by the Full Court on 10.04.2009. Final list of selectees including direct recruits and promotees was approved by Full Court on 09.01.2010. In the interregnum, on 24.08.2009 the UPHJS Rules, 1975 were amended for the Seventh time so as to comply the remaining part of the dictum in All India Judges' Association's case (supra) viz. paragraph 29 thereof, albeit belatedly, so as to amend Rule 22 and introduce a rotational system based on roster.

(14) As usual, even this Recruitment of 2009 was impugned before this Court, wherein the challenge was with regard to the appointment made to the post of Direct Recruit District Judges in the unfilled reserve vacancies, to the extent of 34 in number by way of promotion from the 'in service candidates' by applying Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. The Division Bench of the High Court dismissed the writ petitions on 02.03.2012. Feeling aggrieved, the appellants filed appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, which came to be decided in Nawal Kishore Mishra & Ors. V/s high Court of Judicature at Allahabad, through its Registrar General & Ors : (2015) 5 SCC 479. The findings of the said judgment can be recapitulated from the following paragraphs of the judgment:

"61. It is well settled principle of law as has been laid down by this Court in the decision relied upon by learned counsel for the High Court, namely, the Constitution Bench decision reported in R.K. Sabharwal (supra) wherein it has been held as under in para 4:

"No general category candidate can be appointed against a slot in the roster which is reserved for the backward class."

62. Therefore, when the posts were reserved for the SC, ST, filling up of those posts from the general category candidates would seriously affect the rule of reservation, as once the posts of direct recruit are filled up from other category candidates even the carrying forward of those vacancies as provided under the proviso to Rule 8(2) cannot be operated upon. In other words, by applying Rule 8(2) in the event of vacancies remaining due to non- availability of the candidates of the reserved category and such vacancies were filled up by the 'in service candidates' by resorting to promotion, the proviso can be conveniently operated upon by carrying forward those vacancies in the future years in the direct recruit source and by maintaining the rule of reservation to the extent it could not be filled up in the relevant recruitment years. If instead of resorting to promotion of 'in service candidates' those unfilled reserved vacancies are filled from the general category candidates, there would be no scope for applying the proviso to Rule 8(2). Such a contingency created would run counter to the rule of reservation and, therefore, the same cannot be countenanced.

63. We have to, therefore, hold that the High Court by adopting the Reservation Act, 1994 adopted the rule of reservation to the full extent provided for and as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 and that in respect of any unfilled vacancies of that category, the High Court rightly resorted to the prescription contained in Rule 8(2) by resorting to filling up of such vacancies by special recruitment in that year as directed by this Court and in the absence of not getting such vacancies filled up by resorting to such filling up by promotion of 'in service candidates' and also by applying the proviso to Rule 8(2) and thereby carry forward those vacancies in the future years of recruitment.

64. Keeping the said legal principle relating to applicability of Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 vis--vis Rules 7 and 8(2) of the High Court Rules in mind, when we consider the last of the submissions made on behalf of the appellants, it must be held that the action of the High Court in having resorted to filling up of the unfilled reserved vacancies by taking umbrage under Rule 8(2) was perfectly justified. The said action of the High Court in having filled up those unfilled reserved vacancies of direct recruitment of the year 2009 was stated to have been made by promoting the in-service candidates. Though we have found that such a course adopted by the High Court was in order, as the proviso to Rule 8(2) specifically mandates that while fixing the number of vacancies to be allotted to the quota of direct recruitment at the next recruitment, it should be raised accordingly. We are of the view, without disturbing whatever promotions already made by resorting to Rule 8(2), the High Court can be permitted to provide that number of vacancies which remained unfilled in the year 2009 in the reserved category of direct recruit source by adding that number of vacancies in the recruitment to be made in the future years until such number of vacancies of unfilled reserved category pertaining to 2009 are filled.

65. With the above limited directions to the High Court, we do not wish to meddle with the promotions already made. We do not find any scope for granting any relief to the appellants, as none of the submissions raised on behalf of the appellants, which were though not considered by the Division Bench of the High Court and which were also dealt with by us in extenso and we find no merit. These appeals, therefore, fail and the same are accordingly dismissed."

(15) As aforesaid, the judgement rendered in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (Supra) came to be passed on 17.02.2015, however, in the intervening period, the State Government again, instead of issuing an appointment in the order of names occurring in the combined list envisaged in Rule 22 (1), separate orders of appointment were issued in 2010 for the 3 sources of recruitment, which did not reflect therein rotational placement as per their quota. Separate notifications were issued under Rule 25. Paragraph 3 of the orders stated that their seniority would be determined by the High Court separately as per final decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Malik Mazhar Sultan's case. Adding to more confusion, Prabhuji's case (supra) was decided on 16.02.2010 and the seniority list of pre-1998 appointees was quashed by this Court. Thereafter, on 20.04.2010, directions were issued in an interim application filed in All India Judges' Association's case (supra) permitting variation of the Quotas of 50:25:25 to 65:10:25, 10% posts being prescribed for LCE based promotees. Consequently, on 29.01.2014, Ninth Amendment to Rules 1975 were notified amending Rule 6 and 22 (2) accordingly and providing a new roster based thereon, but without retrospective effect.

(16) In compliance of the direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Ashok Pal Singh (supra) decided on 13.09.2010, a Committee was constituted, which undertook an exercise for determination of seniority, including determination of vacancies and based thereon submitted its 1st tentative report dated 02.03.2011, thereafter 2nd tentative report was submitted on 18.05.2011 including appointees of 1998-2000 recruitment. Based thereon a final seniority list dated 14.07.2011 was prepared, which was approved by the Full Court on 30.7.2011 and notified on 1.8.2001, which contained the determination of seats as well as the seniority upto 1998-2000 recruitment.

(17) Another exercise for determining seniority of subsequent recruits that of 2007 and 2009 recruitment was undertaken in continuation of the final seniority list dated 14.07.2011, wherein the Committee also determined the vacancies and their allocation to various quotas to 2007 and 2009 batches, although the same had been determined prior to such recruitment, which was notified on 07.02.2012 to the members of HJS inviting objections. A tentative seniority list was issued on 25.07.2013, objections were invited. Thereafter, another tentative seniority list dated 10.12.2014 of 2007 and 2009 batches was issued on 20.12.2014 and objections were again invited from the officers. After considering the objections, the seniority committee prepared a final seniority report dated 23.09.2015, which was placed before the Full Court on 01.12.2015. The said final seniority report dated 23.09.2015 was followed by a supplementary final seniority report dated 06.04.2016 as approved by the Full Court on 14.04.2016 and which was published on 18.04.2016.

(18) Apparently, the seniority list, which was drawn by the High Court, on the administrative side in pursuance to Ashok Pal Singh's case (supra) on 14.07.2011 was modified on 23.9.2015 based on a subsequent report of the Committee of the same date and it is this report/seniority list, which was challenged before a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in a bunch of writ petitions lead being "Premkala Singh HJS & 4 Ors V/s High court of Judicature at Allahabad". Subsequently, Premkala Singh's case (Supra) came to be decided on 30.06.2017, wherein a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, after tracing the background of the present litigation, arrived at a conclusion that the determination of vacancies by the Committee did not require any interference but determination of seniority was held to be not sustainable as there had been a complete non-adherence to the Quota-Rota Rule and the determination of seniority in accordance thereof in terms of Rule 22 and 26 of the UPHJS Rule, 1975. The Co-ordinate Bench of this Court also held that the judgment rendered in All India Judges' Case (supra) was not followed as was mandatorily required. The Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the said Premkala Singh's case, after recording the aforesaid finding relevant to the context, held that (a) determination of vacancies by the Committee did not require any interference and (b) quashing the seniority list, directed for redetermination of the seniority in the light of the observations made in the said judgment.

(19) However, an appeal came to be filed against Premkala Singh's case (supra) before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The said appeal came to be decided vide "High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and Ors. V/s State of U.P & Ors." (2018) 15 SCC 439, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court allowed the appeal and both the determination of seniority as well as determination of vacancies for the UPHJS Recruitment Years 2007 and 2009 was upheld in the following words:

"30. With regard to the Quota-Rota rule, there is no doubt that this is a mandatory requirement of the Rules. The said requirement has however to be seen in the peculiar fact situation. The issue of determination of vacancies was embroiled in continuous litigation. The Quota-Rota rule could not be applied in the absence of determination of vacancies. The suitability test though validly laid down could not be held till 2008 for reasons already noted. No promotion could be given in absence of suitability test. The rule provided for seniority of the promotees to be fixed from the date of availability of vacancy but such seniority could also not be given in the present fact situation. If rota rule is applied, it will work serious prejudice to the promotees. Thus, the Rules will have to be given pragmatic interpretation. As laid down by this Court in Direct Recruit Class-II Engineering Officers' Association versus State of Maharashtra, (1990) 2 SCC 715, if it becomes impractical to act upon rule fixing quota from two sources, it is no use insisting that the authority must give effect to such a rule. Every effort has to be made to respect a rule but if it is not feasible to enforce it, the rule has to be given a practical interpretation. Thus, interference by the High Court with the seniority given to the promotees above the direct recruits without following the rotation principle cannot be sustained."

(20) Consequently, the validity and legality of the final seniority report dated 23.09.2015 and supplementary report dated 06.04.2016 corresponding to the recruitment year upto 2009, has been upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said case and for all intents and purposes, the said seniority list has attained finality. Now, in the present petitions, the final seniority list dated 31.01.2019 relating to the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 is a matter of challenge basically on the ground that the same has not been prepared as per UPHJS Rules of 1975.

C. Relevant Rules applicable to the present issue

(21) Part-III of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 postulates the various rules concerning recruitment of an officer to the HJS. Rule 5 of the said Rules, describes the various sources of recruitment as herein below :-

"5. Source of recruitment- The recruitment to the service shall be made---
(a) by promotion from amongst the Civil Judges (Senior Division) on the basis of Principle of merit-cum-seniority and passing a suitability test.

(b) by promotion strictly on the basis of merit through limited competitive examination of Civil Judges (Senior Division) having not less than five years qualifying service;

(c) by direct recruitment from amongst the Advocates of not less than seven years standing on the first day of January next following the year in which the notice inviting applications is published."

(22) The quota for various sources of recruitment under the Rules are prescribed in Rule 6 of UPHJS Rules, 1975, which inter-alia says:

"6. Quota -- Subject to the provisions of rule 8, the quota for various sources of recruitment shall be –

(i) Uttar Pradesh Nyayik Sewa:

(a) from amongst the Civil Judges (Senior Division) on the basis of merit - cum seniority and passing a suitability test - ---65%

(b) On the basis of merit through limited competitive examination of Civil Judges (Senior Division) having not less than five years' service --10%

Provided that in case of there being any shortfall in the vacancies to be filled up on the basis of in cadre competitive examination, the short fall of 10% reserved for such promotion will be made good by corresponding increase in the quota reserved for promotion of Civil Judge (Senior Division) referred to in Clause (i) (a).

(ii) Direct recruitment from Bar --25%

Provided that where the number of vacancies to be filled in by any of the sources in accordance with the quota is in fraction, less than half shall be ignored and the fraction of half or more shall ordinarily be counted as one:"

(23) As to the reservation for Schedules caste, Scheduled Tribe, Other Backward Classes, Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 prescribes as under :-

"7. Reservation of posts for Scheduled Caste, etc.- Reservation to posts in the service for the members of the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other categories including women shall be in accordance with orders of the Government for reservation as adopted by the High Court.

Provided that twenty percent horizontal reservation for women to posts in service in direct recruitment from Bar in Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Service shall be subject to suitability i.e. if the sufficient number of women candidates is not available, then and in that event the reservation shall not have any operation to the extent of such unavailability.

Provided further that there shall be no carry forward of reservation for women."

(24) The UPHJS Rules, 1975 also provides for the number of appointment to be made in a particular recruitment year as per Rule 8, which says in the following words :-

"8. Number of appointments to be made -- (1) The Court, shall, from time to time, but not later than three years from the last recruitment, fix the number of officers to be taken at the recruitment keeping in view the vacancies then existing and likely to occur in the next two years.

Note - The limitation of three years mentioned in this sub-rule shall not apply to the first recruitment held after the enforcement of these rules.

(2) If at any selection the number of selected direct recruits available for appointment is less than the number of recruits decided by the Court to be taken from that source, the Court may increase correspondingly the number of recruits to be taken by promotion from the Nyayik Sewa;

Provided that the number of vacancies filled in as aforesaid under this sub rule shall be taken into consideration while fixing the number of vacancies to be allotted to the quota of direct recruits at the next recruitment, and the quota for direct recruits may be raised accordingly; so, however, that the percentage of direct recruits in the service does not in any case exceed 25% of strength of the service:"

(25) That as regards the promotion of Nyayik Sewa, appointment and seniority, the Rules provide for the following :-

"20. Promotion of such members of Nyayik Sewa as referred to in Rule 5(a): - (1) Recruitment by promotion of the members of the Nyayik Sewa shall be made by selection on the principle of merit-cum-seniority and on passing such a suitability test, as prescribed in Appendix "G(i)"

(2) The field of eligibility for recruitment by promotion shall be confined to four times the number of vacancies to be filled by promotion. The selection Committee shall prepare a list in order of seniority of the officers eligible under Rule 5(a) of these rules.

(3) The Selection Committee shall, after examining the record of the officers included in the list prepared under sub-rule (2) of this rule make a preliminary selection of the officers who in its opinion are fit to be appointed on the basis of merit-cum-seniority. In assessing the merit of a candidate, the Selection Committee have due regard to his service record, ability, character and seniority. The list shall contain the names of officers twice the number of vacancies required to be filled by promotion of the members of the Nyayik Sewa.

(4) The Selection Committee shall forward the list of the candidates chosen at the preliminary selection to the Chief Justice along with the names of the Officers who, if any, in the opinion of the Committee have been passed over for promotion to the Service.

(5) The Court shall examine the recommendations of the Selection Committee and make a final selection for promotion and prepare a list in order of seniority of the candidates who are considered fit for promotion and forward the same to the Governor. The list shall remain operative only till the next recruitment.

22. Appointment - (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), the Governor shall, on receipt from the Court of the list mentioned in Rules 18, 20 and 21 make appointments to the service on the occurrence of substantive vacancies by taking candidates from the list in the order in which they stand in the respective lists in accordance with the roster.

(2) Appointments to the service shall be made on the basis of roster system, the first post shall be filled from the list of promotees, the second post shall be filled up by direct recruit, the third and fourth posts shall be filled up from the list of promotees and fifth post shall be filled up by the candidate selected strictly on merit through LDCE (and so on) according to the roster as prescribed in Appendix '1', which will cease to become operative on the date the respective three streams achieve their full allotted vacancies. Thereafter on account of arising any vacancy in quota of respective stream the same could be filled-up from the same stream of which vacancy arises;

Provided that while following the roster at no point of time the respective percentage of posts filled from direct recruit and LDCE shall exceed 25% and 10% of the strength of service. In case the percentage is exceeding the allotted quota, in such eventuality the promotee shall occupy the vacancy which would have gone to the direct recruit or LDCE, had not the same been in excess of 25% and 10% respectively of either of the two.

(3) In the eventuality of delay in making appointment under sub-rule (1) and further if exigency of service so requires, the Governor may, in consultation with the Court, make short term appointment as a stop-gap arrangement from amongst the promotees, in the vacancy in these services till the appointments are made under sub-rules (1) and (2):

Provided that the period of service spent by the promotees on a short term appointment to the service as a stop-gap arrangement shall not be computed under Rule 26.

26 - Seniority - (1) Seniority of the officers appointed in the Service shall be determined in accordance with the order of appointment in the Service under sub rules (1) and (2) of Rule 22 of these rules.

(2) Seniority of members of the service who have been confirmed in the service prior to the commencement of these rules shall be as has been determined by the order of the Government as amended from time to time."

D. The Dispute

(26) As already recorded herein above, there are altogether four writ petitions. The common thread of facts running through these petitions, invariably denotes that these petitions are preferred by petitioners, who are promottees and have been initially selected under the U.P Judicial Services (also known as Provincial Civil Service (Judicial). The fundamental issue raised in these petitions are related to determination of the vacancies for HJS recruitment year 2012 and 2014, which has resulted in other consequential effects. Thus, these writs can be broadly divided into two categories :-

"1st Category :-

Writ Petition No. 845(S/B) of 2014 (Sanjeev Kumar Singh & Ors. V/s State of U.P), wherein the basic prayer has been sought for promoting the petitioners on approximately 32 vacancies, which according to them existed prior to 31.12.2013 and have occurred under rule 8, in the recruitment year 2012 itself, which predominantly is an issue connected to the determination of the vacancy.

2nd Category:-

In this category, three Writ Petitions being (i) Writ Petition No. 30173(S/B) of 2019 (Harendra Bahadur Singh & Ors. V/s State of U.P), (ii) Writ Petition No. 11453(S/B) of 2020 (Manorama & 6 others V/s State of U.P) and (iii) Writ Petition No. 28511 (S/B) of 2021 (Randheer Singh & others V/s State of U.P) are placed, wherein the challenge basically is to the seniority list of HJS officers of recruitment year 2012 and 2014 and final Seniority Committee Report dated 31.01.2019 circulated vide letter dated 26.08.2019 and other reliefs incidental to the said challenge has also been raised in the said petitions. Pertinently, the seniority list prepared is also indirectly related to the determination of vacancy in each quota."

This Court proposes to take the aforesaid category separately, however, issues, which overlap each other, would be dealt in the 2nd category petitions.

E. Disposal of Writ-A No. 2000845 of 2014

(27) In Writ-A No. 2000845 of 2014, Sanjeev Kumar Singh and 11 others Judicial Officers have filed the petition claiming themselves to have been selected in U.P Judicial Services on the basis of Examination-1999 and after having been recommended and selected for appointment had been working in various districts of the State of Uttar Pradesh. These promotee Judicial Officers have raised an issue, which can be traced to Rule 5 (a) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, by means of which promotions are to be granted to the Civil Judge (Senior Division) on the principle of merit-cum-seniority and passing a suitability test. It has been submitted by them that as per Rule 8 (1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, the competent authority fixes the number of officers to be recruited in that particular year, keeping in view the vacancies then existing and likely to occur in the next two years and Rule 8 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 specifically directs that if at any selection the number of selected direct recruits available for appointment is less than the number of recruits decided by the Court to be taken from that source, the Ccourt may increase correspondingly the number of recruits to be taken by promotion from the Nyayik Sewa. Thus, according to them, the number of seats available for promotion in Nyayik Sewa is a consequential product of the process of identifying the number of post available for recruitment in that particular year as per Rule 8 (1) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 and according to them, since the competent authority for the recruitment year 2012, were not able to correctly identify the number of officers to be taken into recruitment by determining the existing, as well as the vacancies likely to occur in the next two years, the number of promotional seats available to Nyayk Sewa decreased. These promotees identifying that about 32 such vacancy, which although were reported in the "next two years" for the recruitment year 2012 but were not taken into consideration for that recruitment year, has prayed for the following reliefs :-

(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the opposite parties to make promotion of the petitioners on the approximately 32 vacancies existing prior to 31.12.2013 having been occurred under rule 8, in the recruitment year 2012;

(ii) Issue a writ, or order or direction in the nature of mandamus restraining the opposite parties to include 32 vacancies which had existed on 31.12.213 in any next recruitment as the same would amount to violation under the rules;

(iii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing any decision, if taken by the opposite parties on the representations of the petitioners denying promotions to the petitioners after summoning the same as the same will not be tenable in the eyes of law;

(iv) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the resolution passed by the selection and appointment committee in its meeting held on 05.03.2014 to the extent to include, the unforeseen vacancies of Recruitment year 2012 which had occurred prior to 31.12.2013, in HJS 2014 recruitment as well as the resolution passed by the selection and appointment committee in its meeting held on 19.05.2014 vide Agenda Item No. 8(a), 8(b), 8(c), 8(f), 8(g) contained in Annexure No. 16 and 17 respectively to this writ petition."

(28) According to learned Senior Counsel representing the petitioners, altogether 78 vacancies have been notified for direct recruitment as per the advertisement dated 17.03.2012 in terms of Rule 5 (c) of the UPJHS Rules, 1975 and about 25 vacancies were notified to be filled up by limited competitive examination (LCE) vide notification dated 09.07.2012 in terms of Rule 5(b) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(29) The learned Senior Counsel representing the petitioner has submitted that against 78 vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment, only 39 candidates were selected, whereas against 25 vacancies to be filled by Limited Competitive examination of the HJS 2012, about 3 candidates were selected. Thus, 39 vacancies of direct recruit and 22 vacancies of LCE were not filled for the year 2012, which as per the operation of Rule 8 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, were to be transferred to the Nyayik Sewa and accordingly the number of recruits by promotions were to be increased correspondingly by 39+22= 41 seats by the operation of Rule 8 (2) of UPHJS Rules, 1976. Further, as per Rule 5 (a) of the UPHJS Rules, 1976, about 341 candidates were declared eligible to appear in the suitability test, wherein about 205 candidates were declared successful for promotion on merit-cum-seniority basis, who essentially belonged to 1997 and 1999 batch of officers. It has been further contended that besides these 205 candidates, there was another 105 Civil judge (Senior Division), essentially belonging to the 1989 and 1990 batch, who have been exempted to appear in the suitability test on account of the fact that they were already working in the Fast Track Court as ex cadre post of Additional District Judge (ADJ) and the creation of the Fast Track Court has already come to an end. Thus, the total select list under Rule 5(a) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for making promotions from the post of Civil Judge (Senior Division) would be 105 + 205= 310, however since 8 candidates within the said 205 list could not qualify the suitability list, the total seats approved by the competent authority would come to 302, which according to them was the pool of suitable candidates as per Rule 20 (3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, who were entitled for promotion for the recruitment year 2012.

(30) It is the contention of the petitioners that during the aforesaid process of recruitment, about 94 posts were created by means of Government Orders and due to elevation of District Judges as Hon'ble Judges of this Court in the following manner :-

Government order dated 25.04.2013	3 post of HJS as special Judge, Courts 22 Posts of HJS as Anti-corruption Court
Government order dated 23.05.2013	63 posts of Family court in HJS
Period between 01.01.2012 to 31.12.2013	06 District Judges were elevated as Hon'ble Judges of this High Court
Total	94 seats

(31) According to the petitioner, as per Rule 8 (1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, the competent authority ought to have fixed the number of Judicial Officers to be recruited in the year 2012 by keeping in view the aforesaid 94 vacancies as these vacancies would qualify the term "likely to occur in the next two years" as mentioned in Rule 8 (1) for determining the number of vacancy. It has been further submitted that against the 94 such vacancies, although 62 candidates have been adjusted from the select list, however 32 vacancy remained unfulfilled and, as such, according to them, these 32 officers have been discriminated in not promoting them to these vacant seats. It has also been contended that their various representation sent to the competent authority also did not yield any results.

(32) This Court finds that during the pendency of Writ-A No. 2000845 of 2014, an application for amendment to the writ petition was allowed by this Court vide order dated 05.0.2018, wherein two additional grounds came to added relating to a challenge to the resolution passed by the Selection and Appointment Committee in its meeting held on 05.03.2014, wherein it was resolved to include the unforeseen vacancies of recruitment year 2012, which had occurred prior to 31.12.2013 in HJS 2014 and another resolution passed by the Selection and Appointment Committee in its meeting held on 19.05.2014, wherein it had rejected the representations of some of the petitioners. A supplementary ground has also been urged by the petitioners by filling a supplementary affidavit dated 23.10.2019 that since it was apparent from the notification of number of seats for the recruitment year of 2016 and 2018, that about 12 and 11 vacancies, respectively, of the recruitment year 2009 were being carried forward and filled in the year 2016 and 2018, respectively, these 23 vacant seats would ought to have been filled in the recruitment year of 2012 and had the same been done for that year, these petitioners would had been promoted in that year itself in view of Rule 8 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 as well as the law laid down in the case of Malik Mazhar Sultan & Another Vs. UPPSC and others : (2008) 17 SCC 703.

(33) On the other hand, the opposition to the present case has been led by the learned Special Counsel representing the High Court (administrative side) as well as the learned counsels representing the private respondents. It has been submitted by the learned Counsel that HJS Recruitment-2012 was commenced on 09.01.2012 with the calculation and finalization of 254 vacancies, then existing and likely to occur in next 2 years i.e upto 31.12.2013, wherein the break-up for vacancies would be (i) Nyayik Sewa – 151 vacancies, (ii) Direct Recruits- 78 Vacancies and (iii) LDCE – 25 Vacancies. It is the contention of the respondents that the said number of vacancies was finalized in the minutes dated 09.01.2012 of the Selections and Appointment Committee and the same was approved by the Full court in its meeting on 11.02.2012. According to them, there was no dispute as to the number of successful candidates having been reported for the Direct Recruitment or the LCDE, however, the fact of the matter remains that the Selection and Appointment Committee on 12.01.2013 prepared a select list containing names of 302 officers being twice the number of available vacancies of the Nyayik Sewa as per Rule 20 (3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. It has been further submitted that the Full Court has approved the select list as well as the final result of the HJS Recruitment-2012, wherein applying the provisions of Rule 6 (i) (b) and Rule 8 (2) of UPHJS Rules, 1975, unfilled vacancies of 39 vacancies from Direct Recruit and 22 vacancies from LCDE were duly credited to the quota of Nyayik Sewa, thereby increasing their number from 151 to 151+39+22= 212 and thus for the HJS Recruitment of 2012, the total vacancies of 254 was filled by 212 Nyayik Sewa, 39 by Direct Recruits and 3 by LDCE with the issuance of office memo dated 05.08.2013.

(34) It is further submission of the respondent that out of the said 254 candidates of Nyayik Sewa, 207 were immediately posted/promoted in the districts before 20.12.2013 and since in the said recruitment, vacancies likely to occur upto 31.12.2013 were also taken into account, therefore, the vacancies for rest of the 47 candidates were not available in the district and their posting promotions order could not be promptly issued, which only came to be issued subsequently.

(35) The learned Counsel for the respondent, after giving details of the creation of 93 Courts/posts after 09.01.2012 i.e the start of the recruitment year 2012, has submitted that there was urgent need for manning these Courts as seen by the High Court and as such these Courts/posts were made functional by posting from "existing HJS Officers" in these newly created Courts and even after making this posting, vacancies in the districts were available for rest of the 47 officers of Recruitment Year – 2012 and as such they were promoted/posted in HJS Cadre vide Court's notification dated 20.12.2013.

(36) The submission of the respondent is thus two fold, firstly that after 2012 recruitment, even the entire exercise for the next recruitment year i.e 2014 has been completed and appointment have been made, therefore, it was practically impossible for anyone to claim appointment on the basis of select list of 2012 recruitment particularly in view of the fact that Rule 20 (5) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 specifically says that the select list prepared for any particular recruitment year is valid only till the next recruitment year. Further, these 93 vacancies created due to creation of new Courts were later reported as "unforeseen vacancies of 2012 recruitment" for the recruitment in the 2014 HJS recruitment and promotion/recruitment against the said 93 vacancies has already been made in the HJS Recruitment, 2014.

(37) Having heard the learned Counsel for the parties, this Court finds that Rule 8 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 provides for number of appointment to be made from time to time. The said Rule provides a guidance to the competent authority for determination of number of appointments, which are required to be made in a particular recruitment year. Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 specifically says that the competent authority shall fix the number of Officers to be taken at the recruitment keeping in view the vacancies then existing and likely to occur in the next two years. Thus, the number of vacancies would be determined in two parts, (i) the first being the existing vacancies and (ii) the second being the vacancies which are likely to occur in the next two years. There is no controversy between the parties as to the first part of ascertaining the vacancies, however, the ascertainment of the vacancy for the second part is the bone of contention between the parties.

(38) This Court finds that the said issue has already decided by various precedents and is squarely covered by the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sri Kant Tripathi & Ors. V/s State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors : (2001) 10 SCC 237, wherein the Apex Court, at paragraph 34 of the said judgement, while holding the interpretation given to the said expression "likely to occur in the next two years" by a Division Bench of this Court to be unsustainable, remarked in the following words;

"34…….The aforesaid Division Bench judgment of Allahabad High Court, requires little consideration, in view of the interpretation given to the expression "the vacancies likely to occur in the next two years", in rule 8(1) of the rules. The High Court in the impugned judgment has come to the conclusion that the vacancies on account of death, compulsory retirement, voluntary retirement, removal, dismissal and appointment of officers as judge of the Allahabad High Court, could also come within the expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years". This concept is wholly unsustainable inasmuch as nobody can anticipate as to how many people would die or how many would compulsorily be retired or removed or dismissed or even would be elevated to the High Court. The expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years" would obviously mean the vacancies, which in all probability, would occur. In other words, it can only refer to the cases when people would superannuate within the next two years. The difficulty has arisen because of the fact that the high court is fixing the number of officers to be taken for the recruitment of 1990 in the year 1992 or 1994 and so on and so forth for the next recruitment. If the vacancy position is calculated, at the end of the block-period, then the expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years" would become redundant and in such a case, the vacancies actually existing for the period, will have to be taken into account. The expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years" will operate only, when the high court decides for the recruitment of 1988 in 1988 and then takes into consideration the anticipated vacancies in 1989 and 1990. The enunciation of law made by the High Court in the impugned judgment, therefore, cannot be sustained, so far as, it relates to interpretation of the expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years" in rule 8(1)"

(39) Apparently, Recruitment Year of 2012 took into account the existing vacancy as well as the vacancy likely to occur till 31.12.2013 and as such the said recruitment process started with the notification for the number of vacancy on 09.01.2012. The vacancy notified included those seats which has all likelihood of being vacant due to retirement/superannuation till 31.12.2013, i.e the block year for recruitment. It is the case of the petitioners in this writ petition that 94 seats came to be created vide Government Order dated 25.04.2012, 23.05.2013 and due to elevation of HJS officers to High Court and as such these seats would had been also additionally be made available for the recruitment year 2012 as these seats actually came into existence prior to 31.12.2013. First and foremost, the petitioners are wrong in reading and understanding the provisions of Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. Rule 8(1) propagates the concept of likelihood of vacancy in the next two years, which has a certain amount of certainty. The creation of post in a Family Court or Anti-Corruption Court or for that matter elevation to the High Court cannot be anticipated nor any amount of certainty or likelihood can be attached to the said creation. These being unforeseen vacancies, which could not had been anticipated, has to be understood as rightly has been observed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the S.K. Tripathi's case (Supra) that the expression "vacancies likely to occur in the next two years" is a concept, which comes into play only when it is decided for the recruitment of a particular year to commence in that year itself. If, the recruitment starts in a particular year, Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 mandates that for determining the number of vacancies, the Courts also take into consideration the anticipated vacancies for the following year. There is no concept of unforeseen vacancies to be added to the existing vacancies and suffice to say that these unforeseen vacancies occurred after the determination of vacancies for recruitment year 2012 and had to only included in the recruitment year of 2014. The process of filling up of vacancies ought to be based on the provisions of UPHJS Rules, 1975 only.

(40) Further, this Court finds that even the Selection and Appointment Committee has decided the said aspect in a correct manner, while holding that Rule 22 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 clearly states that recruitment in HJS Cadre can only be made against substantive vacancies available for a particular recruitment period as specified by the Hon'ble Court. The Committee went on to observe that although recruitment was irregular and delayed in the past due to a large number of litigation pending in the High Court as well as in the Hon'ble Supreme Court but at present, the recruitment in Higher Judicial Service cadre is being carried out at regular intervals and in accordance with the UPHJS Rules, 1975. The Committee noted the aspect that at present, process of recruitment usually commences in the month of January or so at every 2 year block period and concludes in around one and half year and after finalization of computation of vacancies for the recruitment in process, any vacancy caused due to creation of Courts/posts, death, elevation, resignation, dismissal etc. during the intervening period is taken into account in the subsequent recruitment under the head of unforeseen vacancies. After noting its observation, the Committee concluded that these vacancies cannot be taken into account in the same recruitment for practical reasons/difficulties because any change in the number of vacancies will alter the quota fixed for different sources of recruitment and once the vacancies for Direct Recruitment get advertised, it would not be possible to change the number of vacancies so advertised, on some later date in the same recruitment year.

(41) In any case, it must be noted that Rule 20 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 provides that recruitment by promotion of the members of the Nyayik Sewa shall be made by selection on the principle of merit-cum-seniority and on passing such a suitability test and the Selection Committee shall prepare a Select List containing the names of officers twice the number of vacancies required to be filled by promotion of the members of the Nyayik Sewa. The said rule, in an unambiguous manner, thereafter, says that the appointment in HJS Cadre shall be made from the select list, against substantive vacancies available in respective quota and seniority of the officers appointed in the HJS Cadre shall be determined in accordance with the order of appointment in the Service under sub rules (1) and (2) of Rule 22 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. Appointments to the HJS Cadre shall be made on the occurrence of substantive vacancies by taking candidates from the list in the order in which they stand in the respective lists in accordance with the roster. Therefore, it is very clear that no appointment can be made in HJS Cadre without following the due selection procedure mentioned in the UPHJS Rules 1975 and availability of substantive vacancy in the quota of the respective cadre.

(42) One of the grounds taken by the petitioners in the writ petition and also vehemently argued during the oral argument is that the determination of seats was not made as per the decision of the Apex Court passed in Malik Mazhar Sultan and Another v. U.P. Public Service Commission and Others : (2008) 17 SCC 703. Having noted the said Judgment, it would be important for this Court to deal with the judgment in extenco. Pertinently, this Court finds that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said case was mainly concerned with the timely filling of judicial vacancies in the State. Therefore, Hon'ble Supreme Court in the said judgment had fixed a time period to be followed by each High Court so that the existing judicial vacancies are filled without any delay. Relevant to the context, in the said judgment, the Apex Court has provided a Time-Table for filling of the vacancies of the cadre of District Judges from all the three sources at paragraph-7 of the judgment, wherein invariably the Apex Court has directed that the number of vacancies to be notified by the High Court by 31st of March and the vacancies was to be calculated, which would include :

"(a) Existing vacancies.

(b) Future vacancies that may arise within one year due to retirement.

(c) Future vacancies that may arise due to elevation of the High Court, death or otherwise, say ten per cent of the number of posts.

The third category which was the "future vacancies", that may come due to reasons other than retirement, were to be 10% of the cadre strength, as this was clarified at paragraph 15 of the said judgment, in the following words:

"15. We further direct that ten per cent of unforeseen vacancies would be in respect of sanctioned posts and not vacancies occurring in a particular year."

(43) This Court need not burden this judgment by quoting extensively the detailed Time Table and the Time line, provided in the said Judgment relating to the receiving the applications, holding of examinations, prompt declaration of results, issuance of appointment letters, joining of incumbents etc. for both the HJS as well the Civil Judge recruitments. Suffice to say that the said Time lines were implemented by various High Court, throughout India and multiple intervening applications also came to be filed in the said case for clarification, extension of time lines etc. Apparently, relevant to the context, the third category of determination of vacancies as mentioned in the category of "Future Vacancies" created some confusion in different States as there could be no clarity of what these vacancies would be or how they were to be calculated. Ultimately, in Malik Mazhar Sultan and Another v. Uttar Pradesh Public Service Commission and Others (2009) 17 SCC 24, the Apex Court clarified this aspect in its order dated 24.03.2009, while deciding IA No. 56, in the following words:

"1. On 4-1-2007 [Malik Mazhar Sultan (3) v. U.P. Public Service Commission, (2008) 17 SCC 703 : (2010) 1 SCC (L&S) 942] , this Court had given certain directions regarding the selection and appointment of members of the subordinate judicial officers in various courts. In the tabular form, the number of vacancies are notified by the High Court/Public Service Commission. It was directed that the further vacancies that may arise due to elevation or death or otherwise, 10% of the posts shall be notified and this is referred at para 15 of the order; it is further stated: (Malik Mazhar case

"15. We further direct that ten per cent of unforeseen vacancies would be in respect of sanctioned posts and not vacancies occurring in a particular year."

2. It has been pointed out by the counsel appearing for the various High Courts that 10% of the sanctioned posts are notified in some States. A large number of posts are to be notified whereas there was corresponding number of vacancies to be filled if the candidates are selected in the select list. There may be an expectation for such candidates to get appointment and this creates unwanted litigation by the candidates and it is prayed that the existing vacancies alone be notified along with the anticipated vacancies that may arise in the next one year and some candidates also be included in the wait list prepared by the High Courts/PSCs.

3. In supersession of the order passed by this Court on 4-1-2007 [Malik Mazhar Sultan (3) v. U.P. Public Service Commission, (2008) 17 SCC 703 : (2010) 1 SCC (L&S) 942] , this Court directs that in future the High Courts/PSCs shall notify the existing number of vacancies plus the anticipated vacancies for the next one year and some candidates also be included in the wait list. To this extent earlier order is modified."

4. I.A is disposed of accordingly." (emphasis supplied)

(44) From the aforesaid observation of the Hon'ble Apex Court, it stands clarified by the Apex Court in Malik Mazhar Sultan's case [(2009) 17 SCC 24] (Supra) that the third category earlier created in Malik Mazhar's case [(2008) 17 SCC 703] (supra) did not exist any longer. Pertinently, Malik Mazhar's case (supra) has to be understood for the proposition that, now it merely directs the High Courts/PSCs to notify the existing number of vacancies plus the anticipated vacancies for the next one year and some candidates, who may be included in the wait list. It is important to note that as far as the vacancies for the next one year is concerned, the Apex Court very significantly qualified the said vacancy by the word "anticipated", which is a word closely associated to "likely to occur" as used in Rule 8 (1) of the UPJHS Rules,1975. Further, according to Black's law Dictionary, 'anticipation' is the act of doing or taking something before its proper time. In common parlance, 'anticipated' means something is expected or looked forward to and generally means to imagine or expect something, which will happen and do some action in preparation for it. Creation of posts of Family Courts, Anti-Corruption Courts or elevation to the High Court, cannot be imagined nor anything can be prepared for that imagination. It has to be understood that there is some kind of certainty attached to such anticipation as held in Malik Mazhar Sultan's case (Supra). Thus, the entire edifice of the petitioners comes down crumbling as they are wrongly relying on a judgment, which stands modified by a successive order by the Apex Court and this Court expects that as an officer of this Court, it was the bounden duty of the learned Counsels appearing for the parties to bring to the notice of this Court about the said second judgment passed in Malik Mazhar Sultan's Case.

(45) In any case, this Court finds that the said unforeseen vacancies have been reported as existing vacancies for the recruitment year 2014. Since, the selection and appointment of the said recruitment process also stands culminated and this Court has been informed that these petitioners have also been promoted in the year 2014, nothing remains in the present writ petition in the absence of any illegality or irregularity in the determination of Vacancy for the recruitment year 2012 on the ground agitated by these petitioners.

(46) Further this Court finds that the representation of some of the petitioners have also been duly considered by the Selection and Appointment Committee in its meeting dated 19.05.2014, wherein the Committee while rejecting the representation observed that the newly created posts have already been calculated in the vacancies of UPHJS Recruitment, 2014. The Committee determining the seats and seniority for the Recruitment Year 2012 and 2014 has also dealt with the said issue at page nos. 11 and 12 of the said report, therefore, this Court finds that the petitioners have already ventilated their grievances and it was rightly rejected by the Committee.

(47) There is another aspect of the matter. It has also been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that against the 94 unforeseen vacancies, merely 32 seats were remaining vacant and the High Court has offered appointment to these newly created unforeseen vacancies and as such in that manner, the petitioners could not be treated with such hostile discrimination. In this regard, this Court finds that the petitioners are again at an erroneous belief that these newly created seats were not filled by any new promotee, but by existing HJS Cadre Officers and, as such, even those persons, who were promoted/appointed against the substantive post, were given late appointments. The petitioners should bear in mind that a person whose name appears in the select list, does not acquire any indefeasible right of appointment. Empanelment at the best is a condition of eligibility for purpose of appointment and by itself does not amount to selection or create a vested right to be appointed. The vacancies have to be filled up as per the statutory rules and in conformity with the constitutional mandate and only against a substantive available post.

(48) Further, the said issue can be analysed from another angle, in as much as the recruitment year 2012 was notified on 09.01.2012 and at that point of time, these unforeseen vacancies were not available nor there were anticipated and as such these vacancies did not form a part of the notification for the recruitment year -2012. Since, these unforeseen vacancies came much later, when the recruitment process had already started, whether it is legal to accommodate the petitioners or for that matter any persons on these unforeseen vacancies, which now came into existence at a later stage on the basis of the recruitment of 2012. Answering the said proposition in negative, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Rakhi Ray Vs High Court of Delhi & Ors.: 2010(2) SCR 239 observed :-

"9. It is a settled legal proposition that vacancies cannot be filled up over and above the number of vacancies advertised as "the recruitment of the candidates in excess of the notified vacancies is a denial and deprivation of the constitutional right under Article 14 read with Article 16(1) of the Constitution", of those persons who acquired eligibility for the post in question in accordance with the statutory rules subsequent to the date of notification of vacancies. Filling up the vacancies over the notified vacancies is neither permissible nor desirable, for the reason, that it amounts to "improper exercise of power and only in a rare and exceptional circumstance and in emergent situation, such a rule can be deviated and such a deviation is permissible only after adopting policy decision based on some rational", otherwise the exercise would be arbitrary. Filling up of vacancies over the notified vacancies amounts to filling up of future vacancies and thus, not permissible in law. (Vide Union of India & Ors. v. Ishwar Singh Khatri & Ors. (1992) Supp 3 SCC 84; Gujarat State Deputy Executive Engineers' Association v. State of Gujarat & Ors. (1994) Supp 2 SCC 591; State of Bihar & Ors. v. The Secretariat Assistant S.E. Union 1986 & Ors AIR 1994 SC 736; Prem Singh & Ors. v. Haryana State Electricity Board & Ors. (1996) 4 SCC 319; and Ashok Kumar & Ors. v. Chairman, Banking Service Recruitment Board & Ors. AIR 1996 SC 976)."

(49) Recently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court, while dealing with identical issue for Judicial Officers appointed in the State of Himachal Pradesh in the case of Vivek Kaisth Vs State of Himachal Pradesh : 2023 SCC Online 1485 concluded at paragraph 35 and 36 of the judgment as follows :-

"35. Having gone through the pleadings of the appellants and that of the respondents, we are of the considered view that there has been a violation of the process in making selection/ appointment of the appellants, in as much as the vacancies on which the appellants were appointed were never advertised, and strictly speaking these vacancies cannot be termed as "anticipated vacancies" for the simple reason that these vacancies were only created on 18.04.2013 i.e. after the selection process had begun and advertisement was issued on 01.02.2013.

36. What is also important for our consideration at this stage is that the appellants in the present case have been working as Judicial Officers now for nearly 10 years. They are now Civil Judge (Senior Division). These judicial officers now have a rich experience of 10 years of judicial service behind them. Therefore, unseating the present appellants from their posts would not be in public interest. Ordinarily, these factors as we have referred above, would not matter, once the very appointment is held to be wrong. But we also cannot fail to consider that the appellants were appointed from the list of candidates who had successfully passed the written examination and viva voce and they were in the merit list. Secondly, it is nobody's case that the appellants have been appointed by way of favouritism, nepotism or due to any act which can even remotely be called as "blameworthy". Finally, they have now been working as judges for ten years. There is hence a special equity which leans in favour of the appellants……."

(50) For all the aforesaid reasons, this Court does not find any force in the argument of the petitioners and holds that the vacancy for the recruitment year 2012 was correctly determined by the High Court in terms of Rule 8(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and there was no occasion for the High Court to consider the appointment of the petitioners on the unforeseen vacancies, which were created or came into existence once the recruitment process started for the said year 2012.

(51) As a sequel to the findings recorded herein above, the other prayers of the petitioners are inconsequential and as such the same are declined. The petitioners are not entitled for any relief as prayed for and as such Writ-A N. 2000845 of 2014 (Sanjeev Kumar Singh & Ors. Vs State of U.P) is dismissed.

F. Contention of the parties in Writ-A No. 30173 of 2019, Writ-A No. 11453 of 2020 and Writ-A No. 28511 of 2021.

(52) As far as Writ-A No. 30173 of 2019 (Harendra Bahadur Singh & Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and others) is concerned, the petitioners although have challenged the seniority list of HJS officers of recruitment year 2012 and 2014 as finalized vide the Seniority Committee's Report dated 31.01.2019 and circulated vide letter dated 26.08.2019, however, the ammunition for the said challenge has been grounded on re-calculating/re-determination of the vacancies for direct recruited HJS for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 as per law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (supra) as well as Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. According to these petitioners, Section 3 (2) of the Uttar Pradesh Public Services (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other Backward Classes) Act, 1994 (hereinafter referred to as 'Reservation Act, 1994') provides that any unfilled reserved category vacancy should be carried forward and filled through special recruitment in that very year or in succeeding year or years of recruitment as a separate class of vacancy and since unfilled reserved seats for the recruitment year 2009 were not carried forward in the recruitment year 2012 and similarly, the unfilled reserved seats of 2012 were not carried forward for recruitment year 2014, there was a fallacy in over determination of seats of direct recruits and in any case the general category candidates have been appointed in excess as they were the direct beneficiary of these unfilled reserved seats.

(53) Further, these petitioners have tried to interpret Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, which deals with reservation of posts for scheduled casts etc. to mean that since the said Rules provides that there shall be no carry forward of reservation for women and does not specifically bars any such carry forward for Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes posts in similar manner. It has been sought to be argued that the unfilled reserved category vacancies are liable to be carried forward. These petitioners have relied on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court rendered in R.K. Sabharwal & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab & Ors. : (1995) 2 SCC 745 to argue that the reserved posts are to be filled amongst the members of reserved categories and the candidates belonging to the General Categories were not entitled to be considered for the reserved post. Thus, it has been argued that the determination of vacancy for direct recruitment in UPHJS for the year 2012 and 2014 were made in excess and on the post meant for reserved category and as such the determination of the vacancy for direct recruits are violative of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and mandate of Hon'ble Supreme Court rendered in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (Supra).

(54) Apparently, the case of the petitioners in Writ-A No. 30173 of 2019 is not as to the exceeding numbers of direct recruits, beyond the prescribed 25% quota meant for direct recruits in HJS, but they are basically aggrieved by the erroneous calculation of vacancies for General Category candidates within the said 25% quota meant for direct recruits for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014. The petitioners have relied upon paragraph 55, 58 and 61 to 64 of the Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (Supra) and have argued that although, in the said judgment, a specific stand has been taken by the High Court on the administrative side that those unfilled reserved category vacancies of the year 2009 which were filled up from "in-service candidates" were subsequently carried forwarded in the subsequent years as reserved category vacancies with regard to direct HJS Recruitment Year 2009, however, the same was not followed by the High Court in the successive recruitment years of 2012 and 2014, which according to them, have resulted in excess appointment of direct General Category candidates in UPHJS. Thus, according to them, there is an utter violation of the Reservation Act 1994 as well as Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules 1975, which had adversely effected the seniority list. It is the case of the petitioners that although they have sent representation, however, the same has not yielded to anything as the same was rejected arbitrarily by this Court on the administrative side. The petitioners have also relied upon paragraph 19 & 21 of the Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (Supra) to point out that the Seniority Committee in its report dated 31.01.2019 has itself admitted that the calculation of vacancies from 2009 to 2014 was erroneous.

(55) On the other hand, the learned Special Counsel representing for High Court on the administrative side, has sharpened his attack on the various reliefs sought by the petitioners in the aforesaid petition. The learned Counsel has assertively argued that as far as the Recruitment Year 2009 is concerned, whether it is re-determination of vacancy for direct recruit or the seniority, the same stands settled and has attained finality in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh : (2018) 15 SCC 439 and reiterated vide orders dated 25.10.2015 and 15.11.2021 passed in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 147/2021 (Randheer Singh & Ors. Vs High Court of Judicature at Allahabad & Ors.). As far as assailing the advertisement dated 09.08.2019 relating to recruitment of UPHJS for the year 2018 on the ground of non-availability of vacancies for direct recruit is concerned, the learned Counsel has argued that there was neither any pleading nor any oral argument by the petitioners as to how they were aggrieved or as to how they had locus standi to assail the said advertisement, which in any case was related to subsequent recruitment years. The learned Counsel citing the various dates on which the recruitment for the year 2012 and 2014 started and the appointments were made for that recruitment year, has drawn the attention of this Court to the proposition that the present writs suffered from laches of delay as the same has been preferred belatedly in the year 2019, whereas the recruitments were made in the year 2012 and 2014. Further, a ground of all the petitioners being in service and also being very well in knowledge of the said vacancies and appointment, have been raised by the learned Counsel to counter any relief being granted to the petitioners. The learned Counsel has relied on the judgment of P.S Sadasivaswamy Vs State of Tamil Nadu : (1975) 1 SCC 152, Union of India Vs C. Girija: (2019) 15 SCC 633 to submit that promotion order ought to be challenged between 6 months to 1 year.

(56) As regards the non-complying with Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 read with Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and resultantly failing to carry forwards reserved category direct recruits seats is concerned, the learned Counsel for the respondents, has countered the said proposition by stating that Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 have not been adopted by this Court on the administrative side as it is section 3 (1) of the said Act, 1994, which has only been adopted and as such it was argued that the unfilled vacancies of reserved category candidates are not to be carried forward or filled through Special Recruitment in that very year or in succeeding year(s) as a separate class of vacancy. The learned Counsel has stressed on the point that the UPHJS Rules, 1975 in their letter and spirit envisages that not a single post should be left vacant as could be found in proviso to Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, rather than carrying forward the vacant seats. The learned Counsel has relied on the judgment of the Constitution Bench of the Apex Court rendered in State of Bihar Vs Bal Mukind Sah, (2000) 4 SCC 640 to fortify his argument that the rules of the executive would not apply to the High Court in the absence of adoption or consultation.

(57) It has been also submitted that although the petitioners have sought to challenge the Seniority Committee's reports dated 31.01.2019 and tentative report dated 30.07.2018 of the Seniority Committee, however, none of the grounds addresses to the said challenge and the petitioners have merely highlighted the issue of vacancies being not available for direct recruit by tracing the recruitment of the years 2007 and 2009, which according to the learned Counsel has already attained finality with the delivery of judgment in High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Vs State of Uttar Pradesh (Supra). Further, according to the learned Counsel, Nawal Kisore Mishra's case (Supra) did not decide the issue of carry forward of reserved category seats for successive year, rather has decided the carrying forward of reserved category seats for the recruitment year 2009 only. The learned Counsel has vehemently argued that the present issue for carrying forward of reserved category seats in successive years in UPHJS was not an issue before the Apex Court and has also relied on the judgment of Delhi Administration vs Manohar Lal, (2002) 7 SCC 222 and Natural Resources Allocation, in re: Spcial Ref. 1/2012, (2012) 10 SCC 1 to submit that judgment is binding on only those issues which are decided by the Court.

(58) The learned Counsel has further submitted that as far as the assailing of resolution dated 23.05.2015 passed by the Hon'ble Full Court of this Court is concerned, there had been no alleged flaws or infirmity pointed out by the petitioners either in the pleadings or at the stage of oral arguments and the same reasoning would follow for assailing resolution dated 13.01.2016 of the Rules Revision Committee by the petitioners, wherein in both the resolutions, it has been reiterated that this High Court has not adopted Section 3 (2) of the Reservation Act, 1994. The learned Counsel has relied on the judgment of Rajasthan High Court Vs Ved Priya & Anr, (2021) 13 SCC 151 for the proposition that collective wisdom of the Full Court deserves due respect and should not be interfered with lightly. An additional ground of non-joinder of parties have also been taken by the respondents, on the premises that all the persons, who are going to be effected by the writ petition, has not been impleaded as a party to the said writ petition and has relied on the judgement of Rashmi Mishra vs MP Public service Commission, (2006) 12 SCC 724 and Ranjan Kumar Vs State of Bihar, (2014) 16 SCC 187 to submit that where appointment of candidates are called in question, all appointed candidates are necessary parties.

(59) Further, as far as the Writ-A No. 11453 of 2020 (Smt. Manorama and others Vs Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and others) is concerned, the petition has been filed against almost 42 respondents, wherein respondent Nos. 3 to 36 are direct recruit of 2012 and respondent Nos. 37 to 42 are direct recruit of year 2014. These petitioners claim to be placed en bloc, within the quota of promotees in the seniority list of 2012 above the direct recruits, on the ground that they had been inducted in the cadre of Higher Judicial Services vide Government Memo dated 04.03.2013, whereas the direct recruits came to be appointed only on 05.08.2013. According to them, since these direct recruits were not even born in the cadre in the recruitment year 2012 i.e till 30.06.2013 (although at paragraph 37 of the petition it has been stated that the last date for recruitment year 2012 is 31.12.2013) and as such have relied on the judgment of R.K. Sabbarwal Vs. State of Punjab: 1995 (2) SCC 745, to argue that their seniority be fixed with HJS 2012 batch and not with HJS 2014 batch. A further ground for re-determination of the quota for allotment to promotees, merit based limited competitive promotions and direct recruits has been raised by these petitioners, on the ground of the judgment dated 03.10.2018 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of "Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh Vs State of Punjab, 2019 (12) SCC 496". It has been submitted by them that after the passing of the judgment, there was no doubt that the un-amended quota of 15% for direct recruits has to be applied to the said post in the cadre prior to the date of amendment and the amended quota of 25% for the direct recruits has to be applied to the post created/ increased after the date of amendment in the rules pursuant to the judgment of the Apex Court in All India Judges' case (Supra). Thus, by the application of the said analogy, it has been submitted that 25% quota for the direct recruit is wrongly applied retrospectively by the respondent from the date when UPHJS Rules, 1975 came into existence to determine the strength of direct recruits, whereas it ought to be that 25% quota would have to be applied only on the enhanced strength, which got enhanced after the relevant date of 21.03.2022 (i.e passing of the All India Judges' case) and 15% of the total cadre strength prior to the said date of 21.03.2022.

(60) However, later on these petitioners confined (see paragraph 39 of the writ petition) their challenge to the appointment of 35 direct recruits in the recruitment year 2012. According to them, even if by applying 25% quota of direct recruitees on the entire cadre strength, there are 64 excess direct recruits in the recruitment year 2012 and as such no direct recruits could had been given any place in the Recruitment Year 2012 and that too, over and above the petitioners, as there was existing no quota for direct recruits in for the recruitment year 2012. The petitioners have also relied upon Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 to argue that although the said rule enable filing up of unfilled post of Direct recruitees, whether belonging to reserved category or general category, by promotion from Nyayik Sewa, however it would be a breach of the said rule, in case General category of direct recruitees are selected on the posts meant for reserved category of direct recruits as it would adversely effect the promotional avenues of the promotees.

(61) The petitioners have also submitted that although they have been appointed on promotion under Rule 22(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 in the recruitment year 2012 and they are entitled to be placed en bloc over and above the direct recruits of the year 2014, however with the application of roster rule they have been placed below in the seniority list. It is argued that roster cannot be applied between candidates selected in different recruitments 2012 and 2014 and in any case Rule 22 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1976 clearly says that roster is applicable only if selection and appointment is done in same recruitment year. Thus, it has been prayed for quashing the seniority list of HJS officers of recruitment year 2012 and 2014 dated 21.01.2019 along with the final seniority report of the judges committee dated 31.01.2019, re-fix the inter-se seniority of the petitioners qua the direct recruitees of recruitment year 2012 and 2014 of the HJS Cadre, after calculating the number of post meant for direct recruits in accordance with the judgment of the Apex Court rendered in Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh's case (Supra).

(62) On the other hand, the respondents have argued that the petitioners have assailed the seniority list after an inordinate delay of over one year, which is not permissible in law as per the judgment of the Apex Court in B.S Bajwa Vs State of Punjab & Ors. AIR 1999 SC 1510, Malcom Lawrence Cecil D'Souza Vs

Union of India & Ors. AIR 1975 SC 1269 and H.S Vanikani & Ors. Vs State of Gujrat & Others, (2010) 4 SCC 301. The learned Counsel has argued that although the petitioners have sought the relief of not applying the roster rule to their promotion, however these petitioners have failed to challenge Rule 22 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, which provides for a roster system for promotions under the UPHJS Rules, 1975. Further, according to them, the judgment of the Apex Court rendered in Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh Vs State of Punjab (supra) relied by the petitioners is of no avail as it has been held in the said judgement that any amendment cannot be to the disadvantage of the existing recruits in a cadre. According to the respondents, all the objections have been duly taken care by this Court on the administrative side vide its final seniority report dated 31.01.2019 at paragraph 7 to 10. Other grounds relating to carrying forward of reserved category seats etc. have been repeated as has been taken in the Harendra Bahadur Singh's case.

(63) Similarly, as far as Writ-A No. 28511 of 2021 (Randheer Singh and others Vs Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and others) is concerned, these petitioners had earlier approached the Apex Court with the same relief, wherein vide an order dated 15.11.2021 passed in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 147/2021, the Apex Court permitted these petitioners to withdraw their writ petition before the Apex Court, so as to approach this Court by way of writ petition, keeping in view that other similar writ petitions challenging the seniority list of 31.01.2019 is engaging the attention of this Court. The case urged in the petition is that the petitioners were promoted to UPHJS under Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules 1975 vide notification dated 10.12.2008 and were appointed in stop-gap arrangement as Addititonal District & Sessions Judge against Fast Track Courts after qualifying the suitability test as per the scheme of Rule 20 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. These petitioners were placed against the temporary ex-cadre posts vide notification issued on 31.03.2011 and were subsequently promoted under Rule 22(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1976 vide memorandum dated 04.03.2013, which came to be superseded by another memorandum dated 05.08.2013. The petitioners have taken all those grounds for upsetting the seniority list dated 31.01.2019 and seeking for re-determination of vacancies for direct HJS Recruitment 2009 and 2012 as has been taken by the petitioners in Harendra Bahadur Singh's case and Manorama Devi's case, however additional grounds of services having been rendered under principal clause of Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1976 and the same being not recognised for the purposes of seniority and other ancillary service benefits has been raised in the instant petition. Further, various reliefs also included to finalize the seniority list by placing the petitioners at appropriate places in the seniority list dated 23.09.2015 and 26.08.2019, keeping in view the date on which substantive vacancies occurred in their quota and that too without applying the Rota rule.

(64) Per contra, learned Counsel for the respondents have vehemently opposed the said writ petition and has taken all the defence as has been taken by them in the earlier aforesaid two petitions. As far as the submission of Rule 22(3) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 is concerned, it has been submitted that the proviso appended to the said Rule 22 (3) itself clarifies that the promotees on a short term appointment to the service as a stopgap arrangement cannot be computed under Rule 26 relating to seniority. The learned Counsel has relied on the judgment of Malook Singh and Ors. Vs State of Punjab and Ors. 2021 SCC Online SC 876 and Rashi Mani Mishra and Ors. Vs State of UP and Ors. 2021 SCC Online 509 to submit that ad hoc services cannot be counted towards determining seniority. It has been further argued by the learned Counsel that although the petitioners are challenging the proviso to Rule 22 (3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, however, there had been no challenge to the constitutional validity of the said rules. The learned Counsel has relied on the judgement of Anup Bhuyan Vs State of Assam & Anr, (2023) SCC Online SC 338 to submit that in the absence of challenge to the constitutional validity of a statute, the same may not be read down. The respondents have also argued that the petitioners have merely challenged the final seniority list dated 31.01.2019 and the committee report of the same date, whereas failed to challenge the tentative seniority list dated 31.07.2018, which was the very basis of the said final seniority list. The learned Counsel relying on the precedent delivered by the Apex Court in Indian Council for Agricultural Research Vs Central Administrative Tribunal and Anr. 2018 SCC Online All 667 and P. Chittaranja Menon and Ors. Vs A. Balakrishnan and Ors. (1977) 3 SCC 255 has submitted that writ petition preferred for challenging the consequential order without any challenge to the main order from which cause of action arises is not maintainable and is liable to be dismissed. Additionally, it has also been submitted by the learned Counsel that both in the writ petition filed by Manorama Devi's Case and Randhir Singh's case, although the direct recruits have bene arrayed as parties but their appointment have not been challenged. It has been argued that seniority, which is consequential to appointment/promotion, could not be challenged without challenging the appointment/promotions and has relied on the judgement of Vijay Kr. Kaul Vs Union of India, 2012 (7) SCC 610 and Ranjan Kr. Vs State of Bihar, (2014) 16 SCC 187, KH Siraj Vs High Court of Kerala, (2006) 6 SCC 395, Rashmi Mishra V/s MP Public Service Commisison, (2006) 12 SCC 724 and Amarjeet Singh V/s Devi Rattan, (2010) 1 SCC 417.

G. Discussion & Findings

(65) The learned counsel for the respondents, while defending the various issues raised by the petitioners, have also taken a preliminary objection of non-maintainability of the present writ petitions. It is one of the contention in Harinder Bahadur's case that all direct recruits for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 have not been arrayed as a party though averments have been made and sought for quashing of their appointments. According to the learned counsel for the respondents, only 7 incumbents have been arrayed in representative capacity without compliance of Order I Rule 8 CPC read with Chapter V Rule 12 of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952 and as such it has been submitted by them that since large number of direct recruits of 2012 and 2014 have not been made a party, the writ of Harinder Bahadur's case may be dismissed for non-joinder of necessary parties.

(66) However, this Court finds that the aforesaid contention of the learned counsel for the respondents is not sustainable both in facts and under law. It has to be noted that the present petition is being heard and decided along with two other writ petitions challenging the self-same issue, wherein almost all the appointed directly recruited candidates, who are likely to be affected by a decision in the present writ petitions are respondents in that said other two writ petitions, therefore, firstly these direct recruitees are already present before this Court and secondly some of the respondents are already party-respondents in the said writ petition in representative capacity and as such there is no need of dismissing the present petition on the ground of non-joinder of parties. In any case, the sole objective of making a party-respondent in a writ petition is that (i) relief cannot be granted in the absence of such party, (ii) the said party is heard before any adverse orders are passed by the court and (iii) the interest of the party is preserved. In our view, the respondents are very much protected and well represented before this Court.

(67) Further, the Apex Court in Mukul Kumar Tyagi and Ors. Vs The state of Uttar Pradesh and others, (2020) 4 SCC 86, laid emphasis that when there is a long list of candidates against whom the case is proceeded, then it becomes unnecessary and irrelevant to implead each and every candidate. If some of the candidates are impleaded, then they will be said to be representing the interest of rest of the candidates as well. The relevant portion of paragraph 75 from the judgment is reproduced below :

"81…… We may further notice that Division Bench also noticed the above argument of non-impleadment of all the selected candidates in the writ petition but Division Bench has not based its judgment on the above argument. When the inclusion in the select list of large number of candidates is on the basis of an arbitrary or illegal process, the aggrieved parties can complain and in such cases necessity of impleadment of each and every person cannot be insisted. Furthermore, when select list contained names of 2211 candidates, it becomes unnecessary to implead every candidate in view of the nature of the challenge, which was levelled in the writ petition. Moreover, few selected candidates were also impleaded in the writ petitions in representative capacity."

(68) Recently, the Apex Court in Ajay Kumar Shukla V/s Arvind Rai, (2022) 12 SCC 579, after tracing the various precedents on the issue of impleadment of parties, it has been held that in matters relating to service jurisprudence, it is not essential to implead each and every one who could be affected but if a section of such affected employees is impleaded then the interest of all is represented and protected. Thus, it was observed by the Apex Court in the following words :-

"51……..In view of the above, it is well settled that impleadment of a few of the affected employees would be sufficient compliance of the principle of joinder of parties and they could defend the interest of all affected persons in their representative capacity. Non-joining of all the parties cannot be held to be fatal."

(69) Thus, in view of the above, the ground of non-joinder of parties being not fatal, the ground of non-joinder of all the direct recruits of recruitment year 2012 and 2014 in Harinder Bahadur's case cannot take the respondents any further and as such the same is rejected.

(70) Further, as far as the other writ petitions being that of Manorama's case and Randheer Singh's Case are concerned, it has been contended that although direct recruits have been made a party, however their appointment have not been challenged. According to the respondents, since seniority is a consequential of appointment/promotions, in the absence of any challenge to the basic order of appointment, both the writs are liable to be dismissed. Various judgments including Vijay Kr. Kaul Vs union of India, (2012) 7 SCC 610, Ranjan Kr. Vs State of Bihar, (2014) 16 SCC 187, KH Siraj Vs High Court of Kerala, (2006) 6 SCC 395, Rashmi Mishra V/s MP Public Service Commission, (2006) 12 SCC 724 and Amarjeet Singh V/s Devi Rattan, (2010) 1 SCC 417 has been cited at the bar. Further, another ground of non-maintainability has been taken in Harendra Bahadur Singh's case, in as much as it has been contended by the respondents that the appointments of direct recruits have been challenged in 2019 though they were appointed in 2013 and 2015. Thus, according to them, since the appointments have been challenged in a vague manner and without impugning their respective order of appointments and details of appointees and most importantly, the challenge itself was belated by 4-6 years without any explanation for such inordinate delay, all the three writ petitioners were not maintainable. It has also been argued that order of promotion/ appointment/seniority should be challenged by a person aggrieved within 6 months or at most 1 year as has been held in various precedent.

(71) This Court finds that no doubt, the issue raised by the learned Counsel for the respondents are serious in nature and would have an adverse effect on the outcome of the writ petition, however, this Court in the facts of the present case and keeping in view the larger issue raised by the petitioners, defer the aforesaid issue to be dealt in the later part of this judgment. Thus, this Court would first take up the core issue and thereafter decide the other ancillary issues, which have been raised in these petitions.

(72) After hearing the parties at length on various issues agitated in the present writ petitions, this Court is of the view that the hinge of the argument of the Nyayik Sewa Promotees in the present petitions is relating to the re-determination of the vacancy available for the general candidates for the recruitment year 2009, 2012 and 2014 as according to them, although the High Court had been following Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and had been increasing the number of seats for promotion from the Nyayik Sewa corresponding to the number of less candidates selected in the direct recruitment of that particular year and have also crediting back the seats to the direct recruit in the next recruitment year as per the proviso to Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, however, in crediting back the seats to the direct recruitment in the next year, the rule of carrying forward of reserved seats was not followed, which led to selection of excess general candidates in the recruitment year 2009, 2012 and 2014. In claiming that excess general candidates of direct recruits have been appointed against seats meant for reserved category, these promotee petitioners have sought to interdict the seniority list of HJS officers of Recruitment Year 2012 and 2014 and final Seniority Committee's Report dated 31.01.2019 circulated vide letter dated 26.08.2019.

(73) Before, this Court embarks on to decide the aforesaid issue, it is of paramount significance that first the benchmark or rather the reference point for deciding the said issue may be determined, particularly in view of the matter that in (i) Manorama's case, it has been sought to be agitated by the petitioners for determining the quota between the three sources of recruitment, the cadre strength which existed prior to the amendments incorporated in the rules pursuant to Judgment of the Apex Court in All India Judges' cases (Supra) and subsequent to the amended Rrules, have to be treated differently in view of the judgment of the Apex Court in Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh V/s State of Punjab (supra) and (ii) Randheer Singh's case, re-determination of the vacancy for direct recruits for the year 2009 and 2012 has been prayed for in the writ petition.

(74) Having said so, this Court cannot be oblivious to the fact that the seniority report dated 23.09.2015 read with Supplementary Seniority Report dated 06.04.2016 for recruitment year 2009, which was prepared by this High Court on the administrative side came to be approved by the Hon'ble Full Court of this Court on 14.04.2016. These reports consisting of the determination of seats in each cadre and the seniority of the officers till the recruitment year of 2009 was assailed before this Hon'ble Court in Writ Petition No. 16569 (S/B) of 2016 (Smt. Premkala Singh and Others Vs. High Court of Judicature of Allahabad and Others), wherein a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court refused to interfere with the determination of vacancies in each cadre, however had set-aside the determination of seniority on the ground that no quota-rota rule was applied while preparing the seniority list till the recruitment year 2009.

(75) The said judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench came to be impugned before the Apex Court limited to the extent of quashing the seniority list by this Court on the administrative side, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court, while allowing the civil appeal, set-aside the directions of this Court by which the determination of seniority was made by the seniority report dated 23.09.2015 read with supplementary seniority report dated 06.04.2016 for the recruitment year 2009 was set-aside by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case reported as "High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and Ors. Vs. State of U.P & Ors." (2018) 15 SCC 439. Significantly, the Apex Court observed that from 21st of March, 2002 to 2008, since a different regime of Rules was stipulated under the judgment of All India Judges' case and the Rules came to be amended by the High Court only on 9th of January, 2007 and notwithstanding the availability of vacancies in promotion quota, the promotee officers, who were eligible and were officiating against the said vacancies, could not be recruited as they came to be recruited only after the suitability test was held for the first time in the year 2008.

(76) Thus, the Apex Court, although held that the quota-rota rule to be mandatory as per the Rules, however, in the said peculiar facts of the case that the essential suitability test was conducted for the first time in 2008 only, did not find any fault in the finding of the Committee that these promotee's were entitled to enbloc seniority without the quota-rota system. It was also held in the said judgment that the direct recruits could not be given seniority for the period prior to their appointment for both the 2007 as well as the 2009 recruitment as the same would create imbalance and injustice.

(77) Apparently, after the passing of the aforesaid judgment, the determination of vacancies in each cadre as well as the seniority list till the recruitment year 2009 as could be found in the seniority report dated 2309.2015 and supplementary seniority report dated 06.04.2016 stands finalized & settled for all intents and purposes, which has also been resonated in the report dated 31.07.2018 of the Hon'ble Five Judges Seniority Committee as well as the final seniority report dated 31.01.2019 of the Hon'ble three Judges Committee.

(78) Further, recently the said position was reiterated by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Writ Petition (Civil) No. 147/2021 (Randheer Singh & Ors. Vs High Court of Judicature at Allahabad & Ors.), wherein vide an order dated 25.10.2021 as well as Order dated 15.11.2021, the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that the challenge to seniority list dated 23.09.2015 has attained finality in terms of decision in the case of High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Vs State of Uttar Pradesh, reported in (2018) 15 SCC 439 and categorically refused to reopen the challenge on any new ground. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in categorical terms vide an order dated 25.10.2021 held :-

" Mr. Patwalia, learned Senior counsel appearing for the petitioners, at this stage, contends that stated decision does not deal with all aspects. As noted earlier, we will not permit the petitioners to assail the seniority list dated 23.09.2015 and more so, at this distance of time, in the year 2021. The grievance of the petitioners in respect of that seniority list will have to be negated even on the principle of laches."

(79) Thus, this Court is clear in mind that the final seniority list dated 23.09.2015 as supplemented by report dated 06.04.2016, which corresponds to the recruitment year 2007 & 2009 has attained finality and in all fairness and Judicial proprietary it would be considered as the benchmark for adjudicating the present issues raised in these writ petitions pertaining to the recruitment year 2012 and 2014.

(80) Thus, as far as one of the prayers in the Randheer Singh's case for re-determination of the vacancy for direct recruits for the year 2009 is concerned, the same cannot be entertained by this court and the same is hereby rejected. That brings this court to the contention made by the petitioners in Manorama Devi's case, wherein relying on the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in Hon'ble High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh V/s State of Punjab, 2019 (12) SCC 496, it has been sought to be agitated by the petitioners therein for determining the quota between the three sources of recruitment on the basis of cadre strength which existed prior to the amendments incorporated in the rules pursuant to Judgment of the Apex Court in All India Judges' case (Supra) and subsequent to the amended Rules. Although this Court finds that during the oral argument, the said issue was not pressed and no argument has been addressed on the said point by either of the parties, as the petitioners modulated and restricted their argument to having made 35 excess direct recruit appointed in the recruitment year 2012, however it is important to note that the judgment passed by the Apex court in the case of High Court of Punjab & Haryana's Case (supra) is not helpful to the petitioners in the present context. It must be understood that in the said case, the Hon'ble Supreme Court had examined the aspect as to whether the newly introduced 25% quota of "out of turn promotion", which had only come into existence after the passing of the All India Judges case (Supra) can claim 25% quota of the cadre strength in the total cadre strength of Punjab Superior Judicial services and can the promotee Judges by virtue of the said All India Judges' case (supra) and the pursuant amendment carried by the State can suddenly become excess, so as to effect in all future vacancy. This Court finds that even the Hon'ble Apex Court in that said case has held at paragraph 49 as follows :-

"49. The judgment of this Court in All India Judges case (3) [All India Judges Assn. (3) v. Union of India, (2002) 4 SCC 247: 2002 SCC (L&S) 508] being prospective, the ratio of officers as existing before unamended rules cannot be adversely affected. A promotee before the amendment of the 2004 Rules, who was well within their quota, suddenly cannot go out of their quota and become an excess merely on the strength of amendment of Rules, which are prospective in nature. For determining the quota, the cadre strength, which existed prior to amended rules and subsequent to the amended rules have to be treated differently. Promotees quota, which was 75 per cent prior to the 2004 Rules makes 66 posts in their quota as before amendment dated 15-1-2004, when the cadre strength has been increased from 89 to 107, 18 posts have to be further added to the cadre. This increase having been made after the amendment of the Rules dated 15-1-2004, on this cadre strength, the Rules as amended will be applied for bifurcation of quota. On 18 newly created posts, 50 per cent comes to 9, for out-of-turn promotees 4.5 and for direct recruits 4.5. Thus promotee officers on or after the increase of the cadre could have been 66+9 i.e. 75. In the appeal filed by the High Court, it is also indicated that 10 promotees were effected in October 2004 under 50 per cent quota of merit-cum-seniority. The rules providing 25 per cent quota for out-of-turn promotion being in place, at least few vacancies ought to have been given to the out-of-turn promotees. There is no detail of any further promotion or appointment made after 2004 to 2008." (emphasis supplied)

(81) Relating to the present context, it is clear from the above observation of the Apex Court that the number of direct recruits, who were existing prior to the amendment, cannot be adversely effected and an officer, who was appointed as a direct recruit, cannot be suddenly termed to be in excess. The point being made in the said case, if accepted, would open a pandora box, in as much as re-determination of post and seniority in each cadre has to be worked out freshly from the very inception of the UPHJS Rules of 1975, which needless to say would not only topple the entire seniority list but would have a catastrophic effect. In any case, any re-determination of the vacancy or tinkering with the seniority list prior to the recruitment year 2009 would be in the teeth of the judgment passed by the Apex Court in "High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and Ors. Vs State of U.P & Ors." (2018) 15 SCC 439. Further, even this Court is convinced that opening of the re-determination of the vacancy would not be justifiable on the facts of the present case.

(82) According to this Court, the common ground taken in all the three petitions in sum and substance is that since the seats meant for reserved candidates belonging to direct recruits had remained vacant in the recruitment year 2009, 2012 and 2014, they ought to be carried forward as per section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 read with Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. It is the submission of the petitioners that Rule 7 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 relating to reservation and Rule 8 (2) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 relating to carry forward of quota of direct recruit has to be read to mean that unfilled reserved quota in direct recruits has to be carry forward to the next recruitment year and has to be dealt as per the provisions of Section 3 (2) of the Reservation Act, 1994. The learned Counsel for the petitioners had been in chorus asserting that since the respondents have in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case, have not only taken a stand before the Hon'ble Supreme Court that they have implemented the Reservation Act, 1994 in its full spirit, but also in compliance to the said judgment have identified 34 seats for reserved category, which were not carried forward for the recruitment year 2009 and have also decided to adjust these 34 seats in subsequent recruitment years, the concept of carry forward of reserved seats has to be implemented in all successive years by the High Court on the administrative side.

(83) First and foremost, it has to be understood as to whether the mandate to carry forward reserved category vacancy is applicable to the recruitment of Uttar Pradesh High Judicial Services or not in view of the applicable rules. Answer to the said question would be a condition precedent to the second question, as to whether the said carry forward was required to be implemented for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 or as to whether re-determination of the vacancy is required for the direct recruit for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014.

(84) Since, the issue before this court is related to carrying forward of unfilled reserved category seats of direct recruit in the following years, which essentially flows from the provision contained in Section 3 (2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, it would be appropriate to first reproduce the said section:

"Section 3 (2) says

If, in respect of any year of recruitment any vacancy reserved for any category of persons under sub-section (1) remains unfilled, such vacancy shall be carried forward and be filled through special recruitment in that very year or in succeeding year or years of recruitment as a separate class of vacancy and such class of vacancy shall not be considered together with the vacancies of the year of recruitment in which it is filled and also for the purpose of determining the ceiling of fifty per cent reservation of the total vacancies of that year notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-section (1)]"

(85) Admittedly, Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 is the only rule, which provides for reservation of posts of scheduled caste etc. Apparently, Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 says as follows:

"7. Reservation of posts for Scheduled Caste, etc.- Reservation to posts in the service for the members of the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other categories including women shall be in accordance with orders of the Government for reservation as adopted by the High Court.

Provided that twenty percent horizontal reservation for women to posts in service in direct recruitment from Bar in Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Service shall be subject to suitability i.e. if the sufficient number of women candidates is not available, then and in that event the reservation shall not have any operation to the extent of such unavailability.

Provided further that there shall be no carry forward of reservation for women."

(86) Rule 7 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 specifically provided that all reservation to the posts for the members of SC and ST or other categories and prescribes for two conditions viz. (i) it should be in accordance with orders of the Government for reservation (ii) it should be adopted by the High Court. So, according to this Court, reservation has to be provided in terms of some order of the Government related to reservation and most importantly the said Government Order should be adopted by the High Court.

(87) As to whether the Reservation Act, 1994 was adopted by the High court or not, the Hon'ble Apex Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case at paragraph 32 has categorically held that :

"32. For the sake of argument, even if we ignore such an extended contention made on behalf of the High Court by relying upon Article 13(3)(a) of the Constitution, we are convinced that having regard to the specific prescription providing for reservation under Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 and there being no other specific order of the Government providing for reservation in any other manner and as stated by us no other specific order of the Government, as was previously issued viz. the one dated 18-7-1972 after the emergence of the Reservation Act of 1994, we hold that for all practical purposes the usage of the expression "order" in Rule 7 is only referable to the provision for reservation as contained in Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994. Therefore, if the said Act was adopted by the High Court in exercise of its powers under Rule 7, that would be sufficient for applying the rule of reservation. Therefore, we hold that in the event of valid adoption of the rule of reservation of the Reservation Act of 1994 by the High Court by exercising its power under Rule 7 of the High Court Rules the same would be valid and in accordance with law."

(88) Apparently, the Apex Court has held that the usage of the expression "order" in Rule 7 of UPHJS Rules, 1975 is only referable to the provisions for reservation as contained in Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994, however the contention of the petitioners in all these three petitions had been consistently that in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case even the provisions of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 was accepted by the Hon'ble Apex Court and in that regard has also asserted and relied on Paragraph 55, 58 and 61 to 64 of the said judgment to contest that the Hon'ble Supreme Court had directed for carrying forward of the unfilled reserved category quota to the next year. Although the argument of the learned counsel for the petitioners appears to be attractive in the first blush, however on a deeper scrutiny of the judgment, the said contention of the petitioners cannot be countenanced for the reasons that the said proposition has been developed on a selective reading of the said judgment passed by the Apex Court. It would be appropriate to see that when a direct question was poised to the Apex Court as to whether the provision of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, would be applicable for recruitment of the post of direct recruit district Judges. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, while quoting extensively from the Constitutional Bench judgment of Bal Mukund's case, held in the following words at paragraphs 53 and 54 of the Nawal Kishore's judgment;

53. When we consider the application of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 a further question arises as to whether the application of the said section can be made in the matter of recruitment for the post of direct recruit District Judges. In this context, the principles set down by the Constitution Bench [State of Bihar v. Bal Mukund Sah, (2000) 4 SCC 640: 2000 SCC (L&S) 489] of this Court require to be noted:*

"(l) Having regard to Article 16(4), the High Court being a high constitutional functionary would also be alive to its social obligations and the constitutional guideline for having a scheme of reservation to ameliorate the lot of deprived reserved categories like SC, ST and OBC. But for that the Governor in consultation with High Court should make appropriate rules and provide for a scheme of reservation for appointments at grassroots level and even at the highest level of District Judiciary. If that was not done, the State Legislature cannot upset the entire apple cart and by bypassing the constitutional mandate of Articles 233 and 234 lay down a statutory scheme of reservation governing all State services including judiciary.

(m) Even in that respect it is obvious that maintenance of efficiency of judicial administration is entirely within the control and jurisdiction of the High Court as laid down by Article 235.

(n) If the proper course of formulating the scheme in the form of a rule by the High Court to provide for reservation is not made, that would deprive of the right to suggest the consultative process by way of its own expertise that for maintenance of the efficiency of administration of judicial service controlled by it 50% reservation may not be required and/or and even lesser reservation may be required or even may not be required at all."

54. Keeping the said principles in mind when we consider, even though the High Court having taken into account the constitutional mandate as prescribed under Articles 16(1), 16(4) and 335 and specifically provided in Rule 7 for applying the rule of reservation by adopting the same, the question is as to what extent the High Court decided to adopt the rule of reservation. In this context, when we refer to the specific content of Rule 7, it specifically provides that reservation to post in the service for the members of SC, ST and other categories including women should be in accordance with the orders of the Government for reservation "as adopted" by the High Court. Therefore, even while applying the rule of reservation, it must be seen as to what extent the High Court chose to adopt the rule of reservation. When we refer to the resolution of the Full Court by which we have found that the High Court decided to apply the rule of reservation, we have to in turn refer to the resolution passed by the Selection and Appointment Committee dated 24-3-2009 which resolution was adopted by the Full Court and that is how* the rule of reservation came to be implemented. The said resolution of the Selection and Appointment Committee specifically mentioned that the "vacancies" should be filled up applying the "reservation" as per the Reservation Act, 1994 as amended up to date."

(89) The Hon'ble Apex Court clearly held that even while applying the rules of reservation, it was mandatory to be seen as to what extent the High Court had chosen to adopt the rule of reservation. This court finds that even before seeing the resolution of the High Court and examine the extent it has adopted the rule of adoption, it is clear as day light that the Hon'ble Apex Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra's judgment at paragraphs 55 and 56 has clarified and held that the High Court had adopted the Reservation Act, 1994 limited to the extent of providing the prescribed percentage of reservation under Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 and there was no question of invoking the provisions of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, in the following words:

55. We are, therefore, clear of the position that what was adopted was "reservation" simpliciter and not other consequences. Therefore, there is no question of invoking Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 relating to consequential action to be taken if the posts of direct recruit District Judges are not filled up. Section 3(2) only prescribes as to the manner in which unfilled reserved seats are to be filled up by resorting to fresh selection in that very year and in the event of the posts still not being filled up, continue to retain the posts in the reserved category and notify the same in the subsequent years for being filled up. Such a consequence cannot be stated while applying Rule 7 of the High Court Rules which merely refers to provision for reservation and nothing more. Insofar as provision for reservation is concerned, in the absence of any government order prescribing reservation, the only provision available is Section 3(1). Section 3(2) is only a methodology to be followed for filling up the unfilled reserved posts. As far as the said methodology in respect of the unfilled reserved posts of direct recruit District Judges is concerned, it is governed only by Rule 8. In fact, even by applying Rule 8(2) by virtue of the proviso to the said Rule, the interest of the reserved category candidates is sufficiently safeguarded which is preserved and filled up in the selection to be made in the future years.

56. Therefore, if we consider the adoption made by the High Court, as regards the rule of reservation, we find that what was adopted was to apply the "reservation" as provided under the Reservation Act of 1994 while filling up the vacancies of direct recruit District Judges. In other words, the High Court chose to adopt the prescription of various percentage of "reservation" in the Reservation Act, 1994 and stop with that. To put it differently, what was adopted by the High Court was to the limited extent of providing the prescribed percentage of "reservation" under Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 and nothing beyond that. Since the principles laid down in the Constitution Bench decision of this Court succinctly stated as to how Articles 233 to 235 of the Constitution empower the High Court to maintain its independent functioning by allowing its recruitment process by prescribing its own limitations and not to be affected by even a statutory prescription relating to reservation, it must be stated that in order to ensure that the independence of institution of judiciary is safeguarded, such a strict construction of its decision pertaining to the rule of reservation must be maintained or otherwise, as cautioned by this Court in the Constitution Bench decision, that would impinge upon the very basic structure of the Constitution vis-à-vis the Judiciary.

57. Therefore, we hold that by virtue of the adoption of the rule of reservation by invoking Rule 7 when the High Court decided to apply only to the extent of prescribed percentage of "reservation" for different categories, namely, SC, ST and OBC as provided under Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 in all other respects, it must be held that it would be governed by its own rule, namely, the rules of the High Court pertaining to the judicial service. In this context, a question may arise that earlier this Court directed the High Court in its order dated 15-11-2010 passed in Malik Mazhar Sultan v. U.P. Public Service Commission [(2010) 15 SCC 47 : (2013) 1 SCC (L&S) 541] to go in for a special recruitment in that very year itself which was apparently based on the prescription contained in Section 3(2) of the Act and by going by that direction should it not be held that the said procedure should follow for all time to come. It will have to be stated that the said order passed in an IA cannot be taken as a final statement of law when the legal principle has been succinctly set out with reference to the application of rule of reservation in so many words in the decision of the Constitution Bench of this Court. Therefore, based on the said order, it cannot be held that various other provisions contained in the Reservation Act of 1994 would get attracted."

(90) Further, on a plain reading of the aforesaid paragraphs of the judgment, it is easily derivable that the Apex Court has not only clarified that the percentage of reservation was adopted by the High Court as and in operation of Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 but also elaborated that there was no question of invoking Section 3 (2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 relating to the methodology of carrying forward the unfilled reserved seats as the same was being taken care by Rule 8 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. As a matter of fact, the Hon'ble Apex Court went one step beyond in even holding that except for the prescribed percentage of reservation for different categories as had been adopted by the High Court, all other aspects must be governed by the own rules of High Court for this judicial service.

(91) This Court finds that the concept of "carry forward" of any seats is conspicuously missing altogether in the provisions of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. The only place, the said phrase has been used is the proviso to Rule 7, wherein it has been quite vocal in barring any 'carry forward", by saying that there shall be no carry forward of reservation for women. Although nothing has been mentioned about the reserved category, either by interpolating or extrapolating the express provisions, however, the fact of the matter remains that the said provisions must be understood that barring any "carry forward", the legislature had always intended to not enter into the rigmarole of carrying this seats to next recruitment year and rather fill all the post in that particular year itself, so that there are no seats left vacant, owing to any reasons of shortage of any candidate/women. The said intention is clear from the insertion of sub-Rule (2) of Rule 8 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(92) Further this Court finds that the legislature had been very careful in not using the phrase "carry forward" in the proviso to Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 as it invariably says that the number of vacancies filled in by the promotees/Nyayik Sewa due to shortage of candidate of direct recruit shall be taken into consideration for fixing the number of vacancies to be allotted to the quota of direct recruits in the next recruitment, and the quota for direct recruits may be raised accordingly, of course to the condition that the percentage of direct recruits in the service does not in any case exceed 25% of strength of the service. In other words, the limited sense in which the concept of carry forward can be loosely connected is the proviso to Rule 8 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, which is primarily for the reasons that while making good the shortfall of direct recruits at the next recruitment, the direct recruits do not encroach upon the quota of promotees. This Court finds it profitable to note that the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case reported as Ashok Pal Singh v. U.P. Judicial Services Assn., (2010) 12 SCC 635 held that the purpose and intent of Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 is to ensure that no vacancy remains unfilled for want of adequate number of direct recruits under their quota. The Apex Court in that judgment gave reasons that because there are reasonable chances of adequate number of candidates being not available for direct recruitment, whereas usually sufficient number of candidates will be available for promotion, Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 was enacted and the right of the direct recruits were protected by enacting proviso to the said Rule. Thus, the Court in the said judgment concluded that the total vacancies to be filled at a recruitment shall have to be filled by applying sub-rules (1) and (2) of Rule 8 and its provisos and in that sense all vacancies, which are not filled by direct recruitment, get filled by promotion and there will be no carry over. Thus, it was concluded by the Hon'ble Apex Court that there is only a limited 'carry over' of unfilled direct recruitment vacancies in the manner stated in Rule 8(2) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 and the first proviso thereto.

(93) Further, it has come on records that consequent to the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Naval Kishore Mishra (Supra), the issue of adoption of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, was considered by the Hon'ble Rules Revision Committee of this Court in its meeting convened on 31.01.2016, wherein it was resolved that the Full Court of this Hon'ble Court in its meeting held on 23.05.2015 had clearly resolved to adopt only Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act 1994 and not Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act 1994 which provides for consequential effect of carry forward of vacancies in the reserved class. The said resolution dated 31.01.2016 of the Rules Revision committee is to the following effect:

"……the High Court had not adopted Rule 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, the unfilled vacancies of the HJS meant to be filled by direct recruitment will eb carried forward in terms of the judgment of the Supreme Court but the rule of carry forward contained in Section 3(2) will not apply…..

This apart, the Full court of the High Court in its meeting held on 23 May 2015 had clearly resolved to adopt only section 3(1) of the Reservation Act and not section 3(2) which provides for the consequential effect of carry forward of the vacancies in the reserved class.

No material has been placed before us which may persuade us to apply the rule of carry forward of the vacancies of the reserved categories in the subsequent year for the other posts within the purview of the High Court. We, therefore, do not consider it appropriate to recommend that section 3(2) of the Act may be adopted and the rules require any change or amendment."

(94) This Court finds that even the Hon'ble Selection Committee of Five judges has considered the said aspect extensively in its report dated 31.07.2018 and has also recorded that the aforesaid resolution of the Rules Revision Committee was also approved by the Hon'ble Chief Justice of this Court. It would be mention herein that the Hon'ble Apex Court in Ashok Pal Singh's case (Supra), while appreciating the High Court Sub-Committee in making a sincere effort to implement the Rules and the directions observed that unless the exercise by the High Court through its Sub-Committee (approved by the Full Court of the High Court), is arbitrary or is in non-compliance with any specific direction of this Court, it will not be open to question. To the same effect is the judgment reported in Rajasthan High Court Vs. Ved Priya and Another*, (2021) 13 SCC 151, wherein it was held that given the responsibility and powers bestowed upon the High Court under Article 235 of the Constitution of India, the collective wisdom of the Full Court deserves due respect, weightage and consideration in the process of judicial review.

(95) Therefore, this Court is in agreement of the learned counsel for the High Court on the administrative side that firstly the said sub-section was never adopted by the High Court on the administrative side and secondly, a clarification has been made to that effect by the Full Court meeting on 23.05.2015 and subsequent Rule Revision Committee on 31.01.2016. As far as the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case is concerned, the same is of no help to the petitioners as has been discussed herein above. It may be mentioned also that if Nawal Kishore Mishra's case was filed by general candidates of the direct recruits praying the unfilled seats of the reserved category, the present bunch of petitions have been filed by the Promotees/Nyayik Sewa praying the unfilled seats of the reserved category in the successive year, in as much the promotees by claiming that unfilled reserved seats should be carry forward for direct recruit, very well knows that seeing the track record and availability of less reserved category seats, the promotion seats would be increased in that year by the operation of Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. This Court finds that none of the petitioners belong to the reserved category claiming a seat in the quota of direct recruitment or there is no averment to the effect that any eligible reserved category candidate did not find any place in the select merit list as the same was occupied by a general category candidate under the direct recruitment quota. Although, this Court does not find any adverse in the locus of the petitioners in filing the present petition, however the reasons appear to be far from actually showing any concern for the reserved category candidates of the direct recruitment quota.

(96) Further, as has been rightly pointed by the learned Counsel appearing for the High Court on the administrative side that the arguments of the petitioners regarding adoption of Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 in terms of Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, for carry forward of vacancy of the Reserved Category to be filled by the Reserved Category only in the succeeding recruitment years is a self-defeating argument, as presently by the operation of Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, the unfilled vacancies are to be filled from the Officers of the promotees/Uttar Pradesh Nyayik Seva and in case Section 3 (2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, is applied the unfilled vacancies will have to be filled up as backlog in the same year or succeeding years and such unfilled vacancies may not be filled by UPNS Officers by adoption of Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. In fact, the operation of Rule 8(2) would run contrary to section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994.

(97) For all the aforesaid reasons, this Court holds that there is no provision under the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for carry forward of unfilled vacancies of reserved category as per the Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994, as the same has not been adopted by the High Court on the administrative side and most importantly, the said carry forward would run contrary to the existing provisions of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(98) Since, this Court has held that Section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 was never adopted by this High Court on the administrative side and the same is not applicable on a plain reading of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, there is no need to answer the second question, as to whether the said carry forward was required to be implemented for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014. However, the quest of this court to determine as to whether the determination of the vacancy or the promotion for the direct recruit for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 requires any interference.

(99) There is another aspect of the matter and the aforesaid issue can also be viewed from a different perspective, which is in fact the next significant question, which falls for consideration of this court. Apparently, it has also been contended by the petitioners that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra case (Supra) had directed for filling up of vacancies of unfiled reserved category seats of direct recruit for the year 2009 in the future recruitment and which has infact been complied by the High Court on the Administrative side. Thus an analogy has been sought to be drawn, by these petitioners to the effect that similar filling of vacancies ought to be of unfilled reserved category seats of direct recruit for year 2012 & 2014 and the same having been not done, the determination of vacancy & seniority list of 31.01.2019 is liable to be set-aside.

(100) In answering to the said issue, it would first be appropriate to understand the context in which the Hon’ble Apex Court came to pass the aforesaid Judgment of Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra). Briefly stating, a Writ Petition came to be filed by a qualified but unselected candidate belonging to unreserved category before this Court, inter alia contending that quota of Direct Recruits should be filled up by Direct Recruits only and only if no other successful candidate was available from the Direct Recruits belonging to any of the categories i.e reserved or unreserved, then and then alone the High Court could have resorted to promotion of "in-service candidates" of UPNS under Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. Apparently, the said contention did not find favour with this Court and the said Writ Petition was dismissed, against which an Appeal came to be filed before the Hon'ble Apex court. The facts curled by the Hon'ble Apex Court could be found at para 2 to 4 of the judgment passed in Nawal Kishore Mishra's case (Supra), which inter-alia stated:

"2. The challenge in the writ petitions was to the appointment made by the High Court to the post of direct recruit District Judges in the unfilled reserve vacancies, to the extent of 34 in number by way of promotion from the "in-service candidates" by applying Rule 8(2) of the Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Service Rules, 1975 (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules"). The Division Bench of the High Court dismissed the writ petitions. Aggrieved, the appellants have come forward with these appeals.

3. To trace the brief facts, on 15-4-2009 the High Court notified and called for applications for filling up 68 vacancies in the Higher Judicial Service. Of the 68 vacancies, 24 vacancies were meant for open category, 21 for Other Backward Classes (OBC), 21 for SC and 2 for ST. It is not in dispute that all the 24 vacancies in the open category got filled up on merits. Of the 21 vacancies in the OBC category, 10 alone could be appointed leaving 11 vacancies to remain. All the SC/ST vacancies numbering 23 were also not filled up. In the unfilled 34 vacancies, the High Court promoted the "in-service candidates". The appellants were successful in the written test and also attended the interview.*

4. According to the appellants, even applying Rule 8(2) of the Rules, all the 68 vacancies were direct recruit vacancies and that in the first instance, the unfilled vacancies should have been filled up only from the other successful candidates from the direct recruitment source. In other words, the contention was that only if no other successful candidate was available from the direct recruit source belonging to any of the categories, namely, open category or any other category such as OBC or SC/ST then and then alone the High Court could have resorted to promotion of "in-service candidates". To put it differently, according to the appellants since the posts advertised were by way of direct recruitment, it was meant for that particular source of recruitment, namely, "direct recruit" and all those successful candidates of that source alone, namely, "direct recruit" were in the first instance eligible to be considered for being appointed to the unfilled posts of any of the categories, namely, open or OBC or SC or ST and in the event of unavailability of any candidate from that source then and then alone the High Court could have resorted to filling up of those posts by way of promotion of "in service candidates". Since, the above submission of the appellants did not find favour with the High Court, the appellants are before us."*

(101) The Hon'ble Apex Court on the aforesaid factual matrix of the case involved in Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra) had framed the following five issues, which can be enumerated as herein below:

"i. Whether the appellants have the locus standi to challenge the appointments made by the High Court in the filling up of the unfilled vacancies of the reserved categories in the direct recruitment posts by way of promotion of the "in-service candidates"?

ii. Whether the High Court could have validly adopted the Reservation Act of 1994 by relying upon Rule 7 of the High Court Rules?

Iii. Whether the Reservation Act of 1994 or any of the orders of the Government providing for reservation was validly adopted by the High Court as claimed by it?

iv. While filling up the unfilled posts of direct recruit vacancies by way of promotion under Rule 8(2), did the High Court fall into errors in not considering the appellants who were the successful candidates and who hailed from the very same source, namely, direct recruitment, who alone were eligible to be considered in the first instance even as per Rule 8(2)?

v. Assuming the Reservation Act of 1994 was validly adopted by the High Court, yet by ignoring Section 3(2) of the said Act, was the High Court justified in filling up the posts by way of promotion of "in-service candidates?"

(102) As is apparent from the aforesaid issues framed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, the filling up of vacancies of unreserved category by the reserved category in Higher Judicial Service Selection in Uttar Pradesh or the carrying forward of reserved category seats to future recruitment years was not the issue involved before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra). Nevertheless, the Hon'ble Supreme Court made certain observations relating to the aspect, and ultimately without disturbing the determination of the Vacancies for each quota or the promotions already made by resorting to Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, a direction was issued, wherein, the Hon'ble Apex Court had permitted the High Court on the administrative side to provide that number of vacancies which remains unfilled in the Recruitment Year 2009 in the reserved category of Direct Recruit by adding that number of vacancies in the recruitment to be made in the future years until such number of vacancies of unfilled reserved category pertaining to Recruitment Year 2009 are filled, in the following words:

"64 Keeping the said legal principle relating to applicability of Section 3(1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 vis-vis Rules 1 and 8(2) of the High Court Rules in mind, when we consider the last of the submissions made on behalf of the appellants, it must be held that the action of the High Court in having resorted to filling up of the unfilled reserved vacancies by taking umbrage under Rule 8(2) was perfectly justified. The said action of the High Court in having filled up those unfilled reserved vacancies of direct recruitment of the year 2009 was stated to have been made by promoting the in-service candidates. Though we have found that such a course adopted by the High Court was in order, as the proviso to Rule 8(2) specifically mandates that while fixing the number of vacancies to be allotted to the quota of direct recruitment at the next recruitment, it should be raised accordingly. We are of the view, without disturbing whatever promotions already made by resorting to Rule 8(2), the High Court can be permitted to provide that number of vacancies which remained unfilled in the year 2009 in the reserved category of direct recruit source by adding that number of vacancies in the recruitment to be made in the future years until such number of vacancies of unfilled reserved category pertaining to 2009 are filled."

(103) This Court is informed that in compliance of the aforesaid judgment of Hon'ble the Supreme Court, the Selection and Appointment Committee of this Court resolved that 34 leftover vacancies of reserved category of the recruitment year 2009 i.e SC-21, ST02 & OBC-11, are to be filled up in accordance with the directions of the Apex Court. It has been submitted and as has also been observed in the committee report dated 31.07.2018 of Hon'ble Five Judges of this Court that since there was no binding for inclusion of entire 34 left over reserved vacancies in the same recruitment year, therefore, it was resolved to provide the aforesaid 34 vacancies from the recruitment year 2009, in the next three consecutive recruitment years, as 12 vacancies in the recruitment year 2016 and the remaining 22 unfilled vacancies of UP HJS Direct Recruitment 2009 to be divided in equal numbers in two future successive UP HJS Recruitment years i.e. 11 in the recruitment year 2018 and remaining 11 in the next recruitment year.

(104) This Court finds that the Apex Court did not decide the aspect of carry forward of unfilled reserved category seats of the direct recruit nor disturbed the determination of vacancy of the direct recruit quota of the recruitment year 2009 and as such merely since the High court on the administrative side chose to comply with the directions of the Hon'ble Apex court in Nawal Kishore Mishra's (Supra) by providing for a scheme for adjustment of the 34 leftover reserved seats, the petitioners cannot claim that to be a declaration of law. As had been rightly argued by the learned counsel for the High Court on the administrative side that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Nawal Kishore Mishra's case has not declared any law of universal applicability and the direction for filling of unfilled seats of reserved category in the next recruitment years was rendered under Article 142 of the Constitution of India, and not under Article 136 read with Article 141 of the Constitution of India, in as much as the aforesaid direction is not relatable to the challenge made in the Civil Appeal in its paragraph 2 of the report and the issues framed and considered as borne out from paragraph 8 of the aforesaid Judgment.

(105) This Court finds that the difference in the judgements rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court exercising power under Article 142 of the Constitution of India vis-a-vis the Hon'ble Supreme Court exercising power under Article 136 of the Constitution of India, which creates binding precedent under Article 141 of the Constitution of India, have been explained time and again in a number of judgements, including in State of Punjab and Ors. Vs. Rafiq Masih (White Washer), (2014) 8 SCC 883 and Girish Kumar Suneja Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation, (2017) 14 SCC 809. The Apex Court in the operative portion of the Judgment delivered in Girish Kumar Suneja (Supra) held as follows:

"54. In State of Punjab v. Rafiq Masih [State of Punjab v. Rafiq Masih, (2014) 8 SCC 883: (2014) 4 SCC (Civ) 657: (2014) 6 SCC (Cri) 154: (2014) 3 SCC (L&S) 134] this Court considered the powers under Article 142 of the Constitution. It was held that this article enables this Court to pass such an enforceable decree or order as is necessary for doing complete justice in any case or matter. While discussing the meaning of the expression "complete justice", this Court took the view that there were several decisions that have been rendered which made it clear that though the powers are wide, nevertheless, the power is ancillary and could be used when not necessary (sic necessarily) in conflict with substantive provisions of law. Article 142 of the Constitution is supplementary in nature and cannot supplant substantive provisions of the statute. It is the power that gives preference to equity over the law enabling the moulding of a relief as distinguished from a declaration of law as contemplated under Article 141 of the Constitution. While directions issued under Article 142 of the Constitution do not constitute a binding precedent, a declaration of law under Article 141 of the Constitution does constitute a binding precedent. "

(106) Thus, what this Court finds that the selection to be made by this Court regarding unfilled reserved category vacancies of Recruitment year 2009 as contained in Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra) is a direction issued in exercise of Article 142 of the Constitution of India and which would not constitute a binding precedent. Further, it has also come on records that the judgment and order in Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra) was passed on 17.02.2015 by which time the Direct Recruitment for the recruitment year 2012 was already over and the Direct Recruitment for the recruitment year 2014 had already commenced and was in advance stage of completion. In any case, since the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court would operate prospectively only, the said direction cannot be made applicable to an earlier event, which had already fructified. Thus, even on this ground no infirmity in the determination of the Vacancy and the promotions for the recruitment year 2012 and 2014 can be entertained by this Court.

(107) This Court finds that the petitioners have claimed infirmity in Direct Recruitments for the recruitment years 2012 and 2014 on the recruitment made of unreserved candidate and have in that regard placed reliance on the vacancy position and the advertisements issued for Direct Recruitment in the recruitment years 2007 and 2009 which has already attained finality vide judgement dated 28.03.2018 passed in High Court of Judicature of Allahabad through its Registrar General (Supra*), and seeking aid whereof has been categorically prohibited by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide the order dated 25.10.2021 read with order dated 15.11.2021 passed in Writ Petition(Civil) No. 147 of 2021 while requesting this Hon'ble Court to decide the present controversy expeditiously.

(108) The vacancy positions based on the cadre strength taking into account the Direct Recruits working for the relevant year as also the vacancies which were likely to occur in the next two years in respect of both Recruitment-2012 and Recruitment-2014 along with the unfilled vacancies of Direct Recruits which were filled up by UPNS incumbents, have been duly taken note of by the Hon'ble Five Judges Seniority Committee while preparing the report dated 30.07.2018. The aforesaid report running into 32 pages distinctively determines the vacancy positions for Recruitment-2012 and Recruitment-2014 by noting the various permutation & combinations. Apparently, a very exhaustive methodology has been followed in the aforesaid report and the Hon'ble Five Judges Seniority Committee has considered all the aspects related to vacancy position threadbare and has thereafter arrived at conclusions regarding the vacancies available for Recruitment-2012 and Recruitment-2014 both for Direct Recruits as well as UPNS. This Court finds that the petitioners have not been able to demonstrate before this Hon'ble Court either through the pleadings in the Writ Petition or during the course of arguments that the recruitments of the Direct Recruits for the Recruitment Year 2012 and 2014 had breached the 25% ceiling in any manner as is the mandate of proviso to Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(109) A feeble attempt has also been made some of the petitioners to advance their arguments on the premises that paragraph No. 19 and 21 of the Seniority Report dated 31.01.2019 prepared by Hon'ble three Judges committee of this Court has itself admitted that the calculation of vacancies from 2009 to 2014 was erroneous. However, what this Court finds that the petitioners have wrongly understood the meaning and import of the said paragraphs, in as much as the Committee in the said paragraphs have merely capitulated the exhaustive determination of vacancies explained in the seniority report dated 30.07.2018 prepared by a Committee of Hon'ble Five Judges of this Court. This Court finds that the seniority Committee in the said report at internal page No. 23-29 has categorically observed that since some promotees were found excess in quota in the recruitment year of 2009, they had to be adjusted in recruitment 2012 and accordingly the said adjustment tickled down to successive recruitment years. This Court finds that the Seniority committee was alive to the actual ground realities and the changing parameter during the recruitment process and the seniority process and has not left any stone unturned in arriving at a just decision, which is both factually and legally valid.

(110) Thus, this court finds no error in the determination of vacancies for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 as suggested by the petitioners by filling up the vacancies by the unreserved candidates and no law of universal application has been laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Nawal Kishore Mishra (Supra) for filling up of vacancies by suggesting previous recruitment to be bad.

(111) The petitioners in Manorama's case have also claimed to be placed en bloc, within the quota of promotees in the seniority list of 2012 above the direct recruits, on the ground that they had been inducted in the cadre of Higher Judicial Services vide Government Memo dated 04.03.2013, whereas the direct recruits came to be appointed only on 05.08.2013. According to them, since these direct recruits were not even born in the cadre in the recruitment year 2012 i.e till 30.06.2013 (although at paragraph 37 of the petition it has been stated that the last date for recruitment year 2012 is 31.12.2013) and as such have relied on the judgment of R.K. Sabbarwal V/s State of Punjab, 1995 (2) SCC 745, to argue that their seniority be fixed with HJS 2012 batch and not with HJS 2014 batch. Apparently, this Court finds that the instant contention is on the basis of mistaken belief and goes into the teeth of the rota-quota rule for promotion as prescribed under Section 22 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and settled by the Apex Court in various cases including R.K. Sabharwal case (Supra) and High Court of Allahabad's case (Supra).

(112) It is available from records and has also been observed by the Seniority Committee report prepared by Hon'ble five judges of this Court that the aforesaid claim of the petitioners was duly considered and the Hon'ble Seniority Committee returned a finding in their report dated 30.07.2018 at page 19 of the report in the following words :-

"During recruitment year 2012, the court had recommended names of total 254 candidates vide D.O Letter dated 12.02.2018 for appointment in HJS Cadre containing candidates of all three streams i.e., promotes direct recruits as well as candidates selected through LDCE by strictly applying roster. However, Governments had mistaken and issued appointment of only 214 candidates vide Government Notification dated 04.03.2013 excluding the names of direct recruits without applying roster. The said appointment was not in accordance with the recommendation made by the High Court. Therefore, a fresh request had been sent to the Government to rectify the said mistake and pursuant thereto, Government had rectified the said mistake by superseding its earlier notification/appointment of all 254 candidates vide Notification dated 05.08.2013 in accordance with the recommendation of the High Court by applying roster. All the 254 candidates had been appointed in HJS cadre accordingly and no direct recruit has been appointed in HJS cadre accordingly and on direct recruit has been given seniority prior to the date of his/her joining the service."

(113) From the aforesaid disposal of the representation of the petitioners, it is apparent that the Government Notification dated 04.03.2013, which was the basis of contention of these petitioners, was superseded by Government Notification dated 05.08.2013. Firstly, how can the petitioners claim benefit of the notification, which itself was superseded and secondly, the said notification was superseded as rightly held by the Committee of Hon'ble Five Judges of this Court that since the said earlier notification did not follow the rota-quota principle as is to be found in Rule 22 of the UPHS Rules, 1975. Further, the basic scheme of recruitment provided under the Rules cannot be shrugged aside and the petitioners are forgetting that appointment in HJS cadre can only be made against substantive vacancies in their respective cadre. It has come on records that as substantive vacancy under Rule 22(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for these petitioners were not available in the recruitment year 2012 as per the roster and as such there was no occasion for them to be appointed with the officers of recruitment year 2012. In any case, seniority has to be given as per the appointment made in the substantive post and this court finds that these petitioners have been righty given the seniority according to their appointment to the substantive post.

(114) It is a well settled position of law that the seniority is to be determined in accordance with rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees based on quota of vacancies reserved for both the categories. This court finds that the Supreme Court upheld rotational system of fixing seniority in the Constitution Bench judgment of Mervyn Coutindo & Ors. v. Collector of Customs, Bombay & Ors : 1966 (3) SCR 600. This Court cannot be oblivious to the fact that the object of rotational system of fixing seniority is to blend the talent with experience and to augment the efficiency. Further, in the case of Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court at Chandigarh v. State of Punjab & Ors. : 2019(12) SCC 496, the Hon'ble Apex Court has also held that seniority has to be determined on the basis of roster and not on the basis of the date of joining of a particular stream. Thus, for all the aforesaid reasons, the aforesaid ground agitated by the petitioners are unsustainable in law and as such the same are rejected.

(115) The next question, which falls for consideration of this court is as has been raised in Randheer Singh's Case, in as much as it has been urged that these petitioners were promoted to UPHJS under Rule 22(3) of UPHJS Rules, 1975 vide notification dated 10.12.2008 and were appointed in stop-gap arrangement as Additional District & Sessions Judge against Fast Track Courts after qualifying the suitability test as per the Scheme of Rule 20 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. These petitioners were placed against the temporary ex cadre posts vide notification issued on 31.03.2011 and were subsequently promoted under Rule 22(1) of the UPHJS Rules, 1974 vide memorandum dated 04.03.2013, which came to be superseded by another memorandum dated 05.08.2013. Thus, the fulcrum of these petitioners to upset the seniority list dated 31.01.2019 and to seek re-determination of vacancies for direct HJS recruitment 2009 and 2012, besides the aforesaid grounds as has already been dealt herewith by this Court, is that these petitioners have rendered services under principal clause of Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 and as such have claimed to be appointed at appropriate places in the seniority list dated 23.09.2015 and 26.08.2019, keeping in view the date on which substantive vacancies occurred in their quota and that too without applying the rota rule.

(116) As far as placing these petitioners at appropriate place in the seniority list dated 23.09.2015 is concerned, this Court need not remind itself that the said seniority list pertaining to the recruitment year 2009 has already attained finality vide judgement dated 28.03.2018 passed in High Court of Judicature of Allahabad through its Registrar General (Supra), and reiterated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 25.10.2021 read with Order dated 15.11.2021 passed in Writ Petition(Civil) No. 147 of 2021 (supra).

(117) Thus, the relief being sought by the petitioners stands scaled down to being placed at appropriate place in seniority list dated 26.08.2019 only and that too in case the same is found to be commensurate to the legal findings. Having said so, this Court finds that these petitioners has sought the said relief without challenging the vires of Rule 22(2) and Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, in other words can the seniority position of the petitioners be changed without applying the "Rota Rule" as mandatorily provided for in Rule 22(2) of the UPHJS Rule, 1975.

(118) Apparently, Rule 22(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975, provides that "appointments to service shall be made on the basis of Roster System". The petitioners have not challenged the validity of the aforesaid Rule 22 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 in the instant writ petition and neither there is any specific averments made by the petitioners against the validity of Rule 22 (2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975. The law relating to challenging the vires of a statute stands pretty settled, as there is always a presumption in favour of the constitutionality of the enactment and the person who challenges it has to establish that there has been a clear transgression against the fundamental rights as guaranteed under the Constitution of India or the said enactment is a product of incompetent legislation. The petitioners have merely sought to change their seniority without the Rota rule, without adducing any valid grounds and this Court holds that the same cannot be granted on merely askance. Further, this Court finds that even in High Court of Judicature of Allahabad through its Registrar General (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme C\court has held appointment to service on the basis of rota-quota to be mandatory and even in the All India Judges' case (supra), Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "……When roster system is followed, there is no question of any dispute arising. The 40-point roster has been considered and approved by this Court in R. K. Sabharwal and Ors., v. State of Punjab reported in [1995] 2 SCC 745. One of the methods of avoiding any litigation and bringing about certainty in this regard is by specifying quotas in relation to posts and not in relation to the vacancies. This is the basic principle on the basis of which the 40-point roster works. We direct the High Courts to suitably amend and promulgate Seniority Rules on the basis of the roster principle as approved by this Court in R.K. Sabharwal 's case (supra) as early as possible. We hope that as a result thereof there would be no further dispute in the fixation of seniority. It is obvious that this system can only apply prospectively except where under the relevant Rules seniority is to be determined on the basis of quota and rotational system. The existing relative seniority of the members of the Higher Judicial Service has to be protected but the roster has to be evolved for the future. Appropriate rules and methods will be adopted by the High Courts and approved by the States, wherever necessary by 31 st March, 2003.

This court finds that in view of the statement of the Hon'ble Apex court the UPHJS Rules, 1975 has been duly amended and the same has been enforced. Thus, this court finds that no justifiable grounds have been made out by the petitioners for not following the rota-quota rules."

(119) Similarly, the case of the petitioners also rests on an assumption that the proviso appended to the provision contained in Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 is allegedly ultra vires to the Constitution of India. The aforesaid proviso appended to Rule 22(3) the UPHJS Rules, 1975 lays down that the period of service spent by the promotes on a short-term appointment to the service as stop-gap arrangement shall not be computed towards determination of their seniority.

(120) Even the aforesaid proviso appended to 22(3) the UPHJS Rules, 1975 has not been challenged by the petitioners in the writ petition, however, the petitioners have made specific assertion against the validity of the same. Thus, in the absence of any challenge to the validity of the proviso appended to 22(3) the UPHJS Rules, 1975, the assertions made by the petitioners against the validity of the same does not hold any water. Even otherwise, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has time and again held that ad hoc services rendered by an employee under a stop gap arrangement cannot be counted towards determination of his seniority and as such, the contention raised by the petitioners for recognition of services rendered by them under stop gap arrangement under Rule 22(3) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for purpose of determination of seniority is unsustainable and de hors the settled position of law. The aforesaid view has been recently reiterated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Malook

Singh and Others v. State of Punjab*, 2021 SCC OnLine SC 876 and in Rashi Mani Mishra and Others v. State of U.P. and Others.*, 2021 SCC OnLine SCC 509.

(121) In any case, it has to be understood that the posting/ appointment of any officer against the temporary Fast Track Court is of no relevance for the purpose of fixation of seniority. The said Rule 22(3) itself provides that any period of service spent by the promotees on a short terms appointment to the service as a stop-gap arrangement shall not be computed under Rule 26 for determination of their seniority in HJS Cadre.

(122) Further, in an identical situation relating to seniority of Adhoc appointee vis-à-vis regular appointee, in the judgment of C. Yamini v. State of Andhra Pradesh, (2019) 17 SCC 228, a Three Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court was dealing with the service conditions of Judicial officers of Andhra Pradesh. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, after examining their nature of appointment as a District & Sessions Judge Fast Track on ad-hoc basis under the Rules, 2001 and later appointed by Order dated 2nd July, 2013 on regular basis and becoming members of the Rules, 2007, had held that the petitioners are not entitled to claim benefit of seniority from the date of their initial appointment as District & Sessions Judge Fast Track and other consequential reliefs prayed for. However, limited benefit of service rendered as Fast Track Court, Judges was granted to them only for the purpose of pensionary and other retiral benefits. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, hence, held that since the services rendered by the petitioners as Fast Track Court Judges have not been recognized by the Court for the purpose of seniority except for pensionary and other retiral benefits, the plea raised by the petitioners to consider their service rendered as Fast Track Court Judges as a judicial service for the purpose of Article 217 (2)(a) of the Constitution, cannot be not legally sustainable. [C. Yamini v. High Court of Andhra Pradesh, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 176].

(123) Thus, this Court holds that no relief can be granted for the aforesaid grounds agitated by the petitioners and as such the seniority position of the petitioners cannot be changed without applying the "Rota Rule."

(124) These issues are decided, accordingly, in the aforesaid terms.

H. Conclusion

(125) In view of the above, this Court keeping in view the facts agitated and the prevailing law, arrives at the following conclusion :-

(i) The final seniority report dated 23.09.2015 and its supplementary final seniority report dated 06.04.2016, approved by the Full Court on 14/04/2016 corresponding to the determination of vacancies and seniority for the recruitment year 2007 and 2009 has already attained finality in view of the authoritative judgement dated 28.03.2018 passed in High Court of Judicature of Allahabad through its Registrar General (Supra), and reiterated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide its Order dated 25.10.2021 read with Order dated 15.11.2021 passed in Writ Petition(Civil) No. 147 of 2021 (supra) and as such the same cannot be opened for re-consideration on any grounds.

(ii) There is no concept of "carry forward" of any unfilled seats to the next recruitment year, in the existing Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Services Rules, 1975 on the harmonious construction of the provisions of Rule 7 and Rule 8 of the said Rules. However, there is also no bar under the rules for the High Court to conduct a special drive for recruitment to the unfilled reserved category direct recruitment seats against the existing vacancies of that particular recruitment year, provided the same is prior to the corresponding increase to the number of recruits to be taken by promotion from the Nyayik Sewa by the operation of Rule 8(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975 for that particular recruitment year.

(iii) The High Court of Judicature at Allahabad on its administrative side has only adopted Section 3 (1) of the Reservation Act, 1994 by virtue of interpretation of "order" as could be found in Rule 7 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(iv) Under the existing UPHJS Rules, 1975 and the Resolution of the Full court dated 23.05.2015 and the resolution of the Rule Revision Committee dated 13.01.2016, section 3(2) of the Reservation Act, 1994 cannot be construed to be adopted by the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad on its administrative side.

(v) Unforeseen Vacancies are not anticipated Vacancies or likely vacancies and as such these unforeseen vacancies cannot be assessed at the start of Recruitment year within the meaning of Rule 8(1) of the Uttar Pradesh Higher Judicial Services Rules, 1975.

(vi) This Court finds no error in the determination of vacancies for recruitment year 2012 and 2014 and accordingly the Seniority report and list dated 31.01.2019 is upheld.

(v) Adhoc posting/appointment of any officer against the Fast Track Courts is of no relevance for the purpose of fixation of seniority as provided under Proviso to Rule 22 (3) and Rule 26 of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(vi) Seniority has to be given as per the appointment made on a substantive post and seniority is to be determined in accordance with rotation of vacancies between direct recruits and promotees based on quota of vacancies reserved for both the categories as per Rule 22(2) of the UPHJS Rules, 1975.

(126) For all the aforesaid reasons and a sequel to above, all the writ petitions being Writ-A No.2000845 of 2014 (Sanjeev Kumar Singh and others Vs State of U.P. and others), (ii) Writ-A No. 30173 of 2019 (Harendra Bahadur Singh and others Vs State of U.P. and others), (iii) Writ-A No. 11453 of 2020 (Smt. Manorama and others Vs Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and others) and (iv) Writ-A No. 28511 of 2021 (Randheer Singh and others Vs Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad and others) are hereby dismissed.

(127) There shall be no order as to cost.

(2024) 2 ILRA 995
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 30.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ATTAU RAHMAN MASOODI, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ - A No. 2000147 of 2011

U.P. State Sugar And Cane Devp. Corp. Ltd. ...Petitioner
Versus
Surendra Prasad Mishra & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
P.K. Sinha

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., V.S. Trivedi

A. Service Law – General Clauses Act, 1897 – S. 27 – Disciplinary proceeding – Punishment – Lost money was directed to be recovered from the retiral dues – Charge of not performing duty as Storekeeper as 160 bags were found short during physical verification – Show cause notice sent after the charged-employee was found guilty in departmental enquiry – IInd notice returned back with endorsement that he has refused to take the letter – Effect of refusal – Tribunal allowed the claim of charged-employee holding the service of notice insufficient – Validity challenged – Held, refusal of the show cause notice is deemed service and has to be construed as acceptance of the show cause notice – Claimant/respondent himself has refused to accept the said second show cause notice. In this backdrop, the competent authority i.e. General Manager had proceeded with the matter and after considering the gravity of charges as well as the inquiry report, has passed the impugned order – There is no illegality in conducting the departmental inquiry against the claimant/respondent. (Para 16, 17 and 18)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. C.C. Alavi Haji Vs Palapetty Muhammed & anr. AIR 2007 SC (Supp) 1705

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prkash Shukla, J.)

(1) This writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been instituted by the petitioners, assailing the correctness of the judgment/order dated 11.11.2010 passed by the State Public Services Tribunal, Lucknow (hereinafter referred to as the 'Tribunal'), whereby (i) Claim Petition No. 810 of 2008 filed by the claimant/respondent no.1 (Surendra Prasad Misra) has been allowed; (ii) the order of punishment dated 23.05.2007 and consequential order dated 02.01.2008 passed on appeal preferred by the respondent no.1-claimant have been quashed; and (iii) the respondents/petitioners herein have been directed to pay full retiral dues and full salary for suspension period except what has already been paid, as per rules.

(2) Apparently, by means of the punishment order dated 23.05.2007, an amount of Rs.1,05,42.50 was ordered to be recovered from the retiral dues of the respondent no.1-claimant and his pay for suspension period, except subsistence allowance was also ordered to be withheld.

(3) The facts, in nutshell, are that in the year 1972, the claimant/respondent no.1, Surendra Prasad Mishra, was appointed on the post of Storekeeper in U.P. State Sugar Corporation Ltd and while continuing on the said post, the Managing Director, U.P. State Sugar Corporation Ltd., vide order dated 24.06.2002, had transferred the claimant/respondent no.1 in Sale Department as Incharge Godown and since 25.06.2002, claimant/respondent was deputed for the said work in the Godown at Budhwai Unit.

(4) On 05.10.2003, when the claimant/respondent was posted in the Godown at Budhwai Unit, physical verification of the Godowns was made, wherein it was found that although all the locks of Godowns were in tact and even there were no breaches in the walls of Godowns at any other place, but even then 160 bags were found short. In this backdrop, the claimant/respondent was placed under suspension vide order dated 18.11.2003 and an inquiry was instituted against the claimant/respondent. However, since the inquiry took some time to finalize, the claimant/respondent was reinstated in service vide order dated 03.11.2004, pending finalization of the inquiry.

(5) The record of the instant writ petition reveals that initially, Shri Y.K. Agarwal, Deputy Chief Engineer was appointed as Inquiry Officer to conduct the inquiry and on his transfer, one Shri R.C. Saxena, Assistant Engineer was appointed as Inquiry Officer. Subsequently, it was found that Shri R.C. Saxena, without serving the charge-sheet on the claimant/respondent and even without conducting the inquiry as per law, submitted its report and apparently gave a report that no case is made out against the claimant/respondent and others. As no action was taken on the aforesaid report by the petitioners/department, hence the claimant/respondent filed Writ Petition No. 8065 (S/S) of 2005 before this Court, wherein a direction was issued by this Court to take decision on the aforesaid report of the Inquiry Officer. In compliance of the aforesaid direction of this Court, the department/petitioners proceeded to consider the said inquiry report and after due consideration, it was found that the inquiry conducted by the Inquiry Officer Shri R.C. Saxena was not in accordance with the provisions of law and as such, the said inquiry report was not accepted and another inquiry officer Shri P.K. Saxena was appointed to conduct the inquiry. The Inquiry Officer, after his appointment as aforesaid, served a charge-sheet on the claimant/respondent vide letter dated 11.03.2006, to which the claimant/respondent submitted his reply vide letter dated 24.03.2006. However, records reveal that before Shri P.K. Saxena, the Inquiry Officer, could submit his report, he was transferred to some other unit and as such, Shri L.P. Singh, Accountant and thereafter Shri R.K. Jain were appointed as Inquiry Officer, but they too did not conclude the inquiry. Lastly Shri Sanjay Sinha, Assistant Engineer (Civil) was appointed as Inquiry Officer, who after concluding the inquiry, submitted his report dated 04.11.2006, holding the claimant/respondent guilty for the charges so levelled against him. Thereafter, a show cause notice along with a copy of the inquiry report was served on the claimant/respondent vide letter dated 07.02.2007 by registered post, but it returned undelivered with the remarks that the recipient is not available at home. Thereafter, another letter dated 04.04.2007 was sent to the claimant/respondent by registered post directing him to put up his case before the punishing authority and also allowing him personal hearing on 11.04.2007, however, this letter too was returned undelivered with the remark that the claimant/respondent refused to accept it. Thereafter, the disciplinary authority, after taking into consideration of all the relevant material, passed the punishment order dated 23.05.2007 against the claimant/ respondent, whereby an amount of Rs.1,05,42.50 was ordered to be recovered from the retiral dues of the respondent no.1-claimant and his pay for suspension period, except subsistence allowance was also ordered to be withheld.

(6) Feeling aggrieved by the aforesaid order of punishment dated 23.05.2007, the claimant/respondent preferred an appeal on 10.08.2007, which was rejected vide order dated 02.01.2008 by the Appellate Authority. Thereafter, the claimant/respondent challenged the order of punishment dated 23.04.2007 and appellate order dated 02.01.2008 by instituting Claim Petition No. 810 of 2008 before the learned Tribunal. The learned Tribunal, after hearing the parties and going through the record, allowed the claim petition with the direction as stated in paragraph-1 hereinabove vide judgment/order dated 11.11.2010. It is this judgment/order dated 11.11.2010, which has been assailed in the instant writ petition.

(7) Heard Shri P.K. Sinha, learned Counsel representing the petitioners and respondent no.3 and Shri V.S. Trivedi, learned Counsel representing the respondent no.1.

(8) Submission of the learned Counsel representing the petitioners and respondent no.3 is that the learned Tribunal has not correctly appreciated the facts and circumstances of the case and has, in fact, recorded a vague finding that the charge-sheet has not been approved by the competent authority i.e. General Manager and show case notice was not served upon the respondent no.1-claimant and as such the enquiry conducted against the respondent no.1-claimant was flawed. According to the learned Counsel, the General Manager is the appointing authority of the respondent no.1/claimant and charge-sheet was approved by the General Manager, however, after filing the instant writ petition, it transpired that in the impugned judgment/order dated 11.11.2010, words 'Managing Director' have inadvertently been mentioned in paras-7 and 9 of the impugned judgment/order in place of words 'General Manager' and as such, the petitioners preferred an application for correction in the impugned judgment/order to the aforesaid extent, bearing Misc. Application No. 109 of 2017. The learned Tribunal, vide judgment/order dated 16.08.2017, after hearing the parties and going through the record, allowed the aforesaid correction application and corrected the words 'Managing Director' mentioned in paras-7 and 9 of the impugned judgment/order as 'General Manager'. The said order dated 16.08.2017 (supra) has been brought on records by the petitioners by means of an affidavit dated 04.09.2017 and the respondent no.1/claimant has not controverted the aforesaid finding by filing any affidavit. Learned Counsel, thus, submitted that since the charge-sheet has been approved by the competent authority i.e. General Manager, hence the finding recorded by the learned Tribunal in this regard is patently illegal and not sustainable.

(9) Learned counsel representing the respondent no.1-claimant, on the other hand, has argued that in the facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned judgment passed by the learned Tribunal does not warrant any interference by this Court in this case for the reason that a clear finding has been recorded by the learned Tribunal to the effect that issuance of charge-sheet, show cause notice and passing of the punishment order are exclusive jurisdiction of the appointing authority and since there is no evidence brought on record to draw the inference that the charge-sheet was approved by the competent authority i.e. appointing authority, the impugned order of punishment based on such charge-sheet dated 11.03.2006 is vitiated in the eyes of law. He has further argued strenuously that after the impugned judgment/order, the petitioners had made manipulation in the record of inquiry and with the mala fide intention, the word 'approved' has been mentioned in the charge-sheet and on that basis, the petitioners are now trying to set-up a case before this Court, as if the charge-sheet has been approved by the competent authority, so that it can be argued by them that the learned Tribunal has recorded erroneous finding that the charge-sheet has not been approved by the competent authority. According to the learned Counsel, if for the sake of argument, if manipulation has not been done after the impugned judgment/order, there is no reason to record a finding by the learned Tribunal in its order to the effect that there is no evidence brought on to draw the inference that the charge-sheet was approved by the competent authority i.e. appointing authority. According to the learned Counsel, the charge-sheet against the respondent no.1-claimant were not proved by the competent authority and the inquiry officer has submitted his report only on the basis of the charge-sheet and reply submitted by the respondent no.1-claimant. In this view, submission on behalf of the respondent no.1-claimant is that at this juncture no interference in the judgment and order passed by the learned Tribunal is warranted.

(10) We have given our thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the respective parties and have also perused the records available before us on this writ petition.

(11) Apparently, it is an admitted fact that while the petitioner was working on the post of Incharge Godown in Budhwal Unit of the U.P. State Sugar Corporation Limited, a physical verification was made on 05.10.2003, wherein irregularities in stock were found, upon which the claimant/respondent was placed under suspension vide order dated 18.11.2003 and an inquiry was instituted. During pendency of the inquiry, the claimant/respondent was reinstated vide order dated 03.11.2004, however, inquiry was ordered to be continued against the claimant/respondent. Initially, Shri Y.K. Agarwal, Deputy Chief Engineer was appointed as inquiry officer to conduct the inquiry, however, on his transfer, one Shri R.C. Saxena, Assistant Engineer was appointed as Inquiry Officer, who, without serving charge-sheet to the claimant/respondent and without conducting the inquiry in accordance with law, gave a report, stating that no case is made out against the claimant/respondent and others. This inquiry report was not accepted by the Disciplinary Authority/General Manager and another inquiry officer Shri P.K. Saxena, Incharge Chief Engineer, was appointed to conduct the inquiry.

(12) Thereafter, a charge-sheet was issued to the respondent no.1-claimant on 11.03.2005, which contained two charges. The first charge stated against the respondent no.1-claimant was related to having not performed his duties as assigned by the Sugar Corporation Board on the post of Sugar Godown Keeper as on physical verification, 160 bags were found short and he had not informed to the competent authority regarding deficiency in the same. The second charge against the claimant/respondent relates to non-verification of stock with the record nor any mention has made in F.D.O. report dated 15.10.2003 and 31.10.2003 and knowingly causing loss to the Corporation.

(13) The respondent no.1-claimant submitted reply to the said charge-sheet on 24.03.2006, denying the allegations made against him in the charge-sheet. However, before submitting his inquiry report, Shri P.K. Saxena was transferred to some other unit and as such, Shri L.P. Singh, Accountant and thereafter, Shri R.K. Jain were appointed as inquiry officer, but they too could not conclude the inquiry. Lastly Shri Sanjay Sinha, Assistant Engineer (Civil) was appointed as Inquiry Officer, who, after due inquiry, submitted its report dated 04.11.2006, holding both the charges levelled against the claimant/respondent to have been proved. The Disciplinary Authority/General Manager, after considering the said inquiry report, issued a show cause notice to the claimant/respondent vide letter dated 07.02.2007 by registered post, but it returned undelivered with the remark that recipient is not available at home. Thereafter, another letter dated 04.04.2007 was sent to the claimant/respondent by registered post, however, this letter dated 04.04.2007 was also returned undelivered with the remark that the claimant/respondent refused to accept it. Thereafter, the Disciplinary Authority/General Manager, after taking into consideration all the relevant material, passed the punishment order dated 23.05.2007, which was challenged by the claimant/respondent by instituting an appeal before the Managing Director/Appellate Authority, who, vide order dated 02.01.2008, rejected the appeal.

(14) Feeling aggrieved, the claimant/respondent had instituted Claim Petition No. 810 of 2008 before the learned Tribunal, who, vide judgment/order dated 11.11.2010 allowed the claim petition mainly on two grounds viz. (I) charge-sheet has not been approved by the competent authority; and (II) show cause notice was not served upon the claimant/respondent.

(15) So far as first ground of allowing the claim petition i.e. charge-sheet has not been proved by the disciplinary authority is concerned, the record reveals that the disciplinary authority in the case of the claimant/respondent is the General Manager of the Corporation. From perusal of the impugned judgment/order dated 11.11.2010, what we find is that the learned Tribunal, in para-9 of the impugned judgment, has inadvertently mentioned that the Managing Director is the competent authority, however, this inadvertent error was corrected by the learned Tribunal itself vide order dated 16.08.2017 on an application moved by the petitioners and it was directed that the words 'General Manager' be substituted in place of words 'Managing Director' in paras-7 and 9 of the impugned judgment. The record available before this Court also reveals that the charge-sheet has been approved by the General Manager of the Corporation. In this regard, the petitioners had also arrayed Sri S.K. Verma, Retired General Manager, who, vide affidavit dated 04.09.2017, stating on oath that there is no manipulation in the approval of the charge-sheet as alleged by the claimant/respondent. Thus, the plea of the claimant/respondent regarding the manipulation in the charge-sheet, in this regard, has no substance as the learned Counsel for the claimant/respondent has not submitted any documentary proof to show that there is manipulation in the record and on the other hand, learned Counsel for the petitioners have filed an affidavit of Incharge General Manager to prove the authenticity of the approved charge-sheet.

(16) So far as the second ground for allowing the claim petition by the learned Tribunal i.e. show cause notice was not served upon the claimant/ respondent, it is an admitted fact that first show cause notice was returned back to the department with the endorsement that recipient is not available at home. Thereafter, second letter containing show cause notice was issued to the claimant/respondent, however, the record reveals that the second letter containing show cause notice was returned back to the department with the endorsement that claimant/respondent has refused to take the letter. Thus, the finding recorded by the learned Tribunal in this regard that show cause notice was not served upon the claimant/respondent, is contrary to the record and the law propounded by this court as well as the Hon'ble Apex Court that refusal of the show cause notice is deemed service and has to be construed as acceptance of the show cause notice. In a slightly different context, while considering the effect of Section 27 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, a Bench of three Judges of the Hon'ble Apex Court in C.C. Alavi Haji vs. Palapetty Muhammed and Anr, AIR 2007 SC (Supp) 1705 made following observations: -

"14. Section 27 gives rise to a presumption that service of notice has been effected when it is sent to the correct address by registered post. In view of the said presumption, when stating that a notice has been sent by registered post to the address of the drawer, it is unnecessary to further aver in the complaint that in spite of the return of the notice unserved, it is deemed to have been served or that the addressee is deemed to have knowledge of the notice. Unless and until the contrary is proved by the addressee, service of notice is deemed to have been effected at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of business. This Court has already held that when a notice is sent by registered post and is returned with a postal endorsement "refused" or "not available in the house" or "house locked" or "shop closed" or "addressee not in station", due service has to be presumed. [Vide Jagdish Singh v. Natthu Singh AIR 1992 SC 1604 : State of M.P. vs. Hiralal & Ors. (1996) 7 SCC 523 and V. Raja Kumari vs. P. Subbarama Naidu & Anr. (2004) 8 SCC 774]"

(17) From the aforesaid, it is apparent that the reasoning given by the learned Tribunal while allowing the claim petition is contrary to record as the charge-sheet has already been approved by the competent authority i.e. General Manager and after returning the first show cause notice unserved upon the claimant/respondent, second show cause notice was issued to the claimant/respondent, however, the postal endorsement on the second show cause notice reveals that the claimant/respondent himself has refused to accept the said second show cause notice. In this backdrop, the competent authority i.e. General Manager had proceeded with the matter and after considering the gravity of charges as well as the inquiry report, has passed the impugned order. The learned Tribunal has lost sight of not considering the aforesaid fact while allowing the claim petition.

(18) In view of the aforesaid, we find that there is no illegality in conducting the departmental inquiry against the claimant/respondent and the punishment awarded against the claimant/respondent is commensurate to the charges proved against him, which was after following the due procedure of law. Learned Counsel for the claimant/respondent has failed to point out any illegality or irregularity in conducting the departmental inquiry against him. Thus, the impugned judgment/order passed by the learned Tribunal is liable to be set-aside.

(19) Accordingly, the instant writ petition is allowed. The impugned judgment/order dated 11.11.2010 passed by the learned Tribunal is hereby set-aside with the consequential effect that the order of punishment/recovery passed by the disciplinary authority is restored.

(20) There will be no order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1002
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJAN ROY, J.
THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Writ - C No. 7195 of 2022

Smt. Kamala Devi ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Rajnish Ojha, Amrendra Nath Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Manish Vaish, Pankaj Gupta, Pravin Kumar Singh

Civil Law - U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 – Section 95(1)(g) – U.P. Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up-Pradhans and Members) Enquiry Rules, 1997 – Rule 3, Rule 5, Rule 6 – Locus Standi of Complainant – Necessary and Proper Party – Writ Petition Challenging Seizure of Gram Pradhan's Powers – Article 226 of the Constitution of India,1950 - The petitioner, a Gram Pradhan, challenged an order under the proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947, seizing her administrative and financial powers during a preliminary enquiry into alleged irregularities, initiated based on a complaint by a Gram Sabha member. The complainant sought impleadment in the writ petition, prompting a reference by a Single Judge to a Division Bench to determine: (1) whether the complainant has locus standi to be impleaded in such a writ petition, and (2) whether the Division Bench judgment in Amin Khan Vs St. of U.P. (2008 SCC OnLine All 269) requires reconsideration. Held: A complainant under Rule 3 of the 1997 Rules is not a necessary party in a writ petition challenging the interim seizure of a Gram Pradhan's powers, as no relief is typically sought against the complainant, and their absence does not preclude an effective order, per the principles of Order 1 Rule 10(2) CPC, applied analogously to writ proceedings. However, the complainant may be a proper party in specific cases where their presence aids the court in fully adjudicating the dispute, such as when facts or documents are withheld by St. authorities, subject to the court's discretion under Article 226 and Rule 5A of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952. The discretion must be exercised with reasoned fairness, not arbitrarily, as per Uday Narain Singh Malpaharia Vs Addl. Member, Board of Revenue, Bihar (AIR 1963 SC 786). The judgment in Amin Khan was distinguished, as it addressed the complainant's locus standi to file an appeal, not impleadment in a writ petition, and involved a complainant who was also a member of the committee exercising the Pradhan's powers, unlike the present case. The court found no conflict with Amin Khan and declined to refer it for reconsideration by a larger bench. The questions were answered, and the writ petition was directed to be listed before the Single Judge for further proceedings.

Case Law Cited:

1. Amin Khan Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2008 SCC OnLine All 269

2. Dharam Raj Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2009) 108 RD 689

3. Vivekanand Yadav Vs St. of U.P. & Anr., (2010) 111 RD 699

4. Uday Narain Singh Malpaharia Vs Addl. Member, Board of Revenue, Bihar, AIR 1963 SC 786

5. St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Committee of Management, Anjuman Madarsa Noorul Islam Dehra Kalan, Ghazipur, (2009) 76 ALR 750

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajan Roy, J.)

1) Heard Shri Amrendra Nath Tripathi and Shri Rajnish Ojha learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Manish Vaish, learned counsel for the respondent/applicant seeking impleadment and Shri Indrajeet Shukla along with Shri Pratyush Chaubey, learned Standing Counsel.

2) This Bench was nominated to hear a reference made by a learned Single Judge of this Court vide order dated 03.03.2023 passed in this petition.

Questions for consideration

3) On a consideration of the said reference, we rephrased the questions referred to us vide our order dated 22.09.2023. The questions are as under:-

(i) Whether the complainant who is allegedly an elected member of Gram Sabha and has submitted a complaint under Rule 3 of the Uttar Pradesh Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up-Pradhans and Members) Enquiry Rules, 1997 has locus standi to get himself impleaded in a writ petition filed by the Gram Pradhan challenging an order passed under the proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 by the District Magistrate seizing his administrative and financial powers, as an interim measure, during pendency of the proceedings under Section 95(1)(g) of U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 read with Uttar Pradesh Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up-Pradhans and Members) Enquiry Rules, 1997 or not?

(ii) Whether the Division Bench judgment in the case of Amin Khan Vs. State of U.P and Ors; 2008 SCC OnLine All 269 requires reconsideration by a Larger Bench as regards question no. (i)?

4) We, accordingly, proceed to consider and answer the aforesaid questions.

5) Sri Amrendra Nath Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that a complainant is neither a necessary nor a proper party in writ proceedings filed by Gram Pradhan challenging the order of seizure of his financial and administrative powers. Such an order creates a dispute between the District Magistrate who has passed the order and the Gram Pradhan. Merely because, the proceedings have started on the complaint of the complainant does not entitle him to become party to the lis. In this regard, he relied upon Division Bench judgments in the case of 'Amin Khan vs. State of U.P. & Ors.' ;(2008) SCC Online All 269. In this context, he also relied upon a Division Bench judgment in 'Dharam Raj vs. State of U.P. & Ors.' reported in 2009 (108) RD 689.

6) Sri Manish Vaish, learned counsel for the applicant seeking impleadment took us through the provisions of Section-95(1)(g) of the U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 and U.P. Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up-Pradhans and Members) Enquiry Rules, 1997. He invited our attention to Rule-3 of the Rules, 1997, according to which, a complainant has a right to submit a complaint which is supported by an affidavit. He then took us through provision/ rule -6 of the Rules 1997 to submit that even during the final enquiry the complainant has been given a right of adducing evidence and proving charges framed by the inquiry officer as also a right of hearing which included a right of examination and cross-examination of the witnesses and the Gram Pradhan. The intent of the Rule is very clear. He also submitted that in the event, there is connivance between the State authorities and the Gram Pradhan, it is the complainant alone who would bring to light the said connivance and facts and documents which may not be produced by the State authorities. Therefore, the presence of the complainant in such proceedings is necessary. The seizure of administrative and financial powers is a consequence of the complaint made by the complainant which has to be proved by the complainant apart from departmental authorities, therefore, he is a necessary party in such proceedings. In this context, he referred to averments made by the petitioner in para no.20 and reply in the counter affidavit wherein no comments had been made in response to the said averment of the writ petition which according to him may persuade the Court to grant relief to the petitioner in such a scenario. He submitted that judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench in Amin Khan's case (supra) did not apply as the applicant seeking impleadment is not a beneficiary. Moreover, the applicant is not a part of the three membered committee constituted as a consequence of seizure of powers of Gram Pradhan, therefore, the said decision does not come in his way. He referred to Section 26 of the Act, 1947 and Rule 31 of the Rules, 1997.

Functions of Gram Pradhan under the U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947

7) The U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act, 1947') was promulgated to establish and develop local self government in rural areas of Uttar Pradesh. As per its preamble, the object of the Act is to establish and develop local self government in rural areas and to make better provisions for village administration and development.

8) The Office of Gram Pradhan is an office of election under the Act, 1947 and the Rules made thereunder. He is head of Gram Panchayat/ Gram Sabha as the case may be. The Gram Panchayats/ Gram Sabhas have been assigned functions and duties under the Act, 1947 and Rules made thereunder. In this context, Sections-15, 15-A, 16, 16-A, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 24 are relevant. There is a Bhumi Prabandhak Samiti with the Pradhan as its Chairperson which also has important functions to perform as is mentioned in Section 28-A and 28-B of the Act, 1947. Chapter V of the Act, 1947 deals with acquisition of land, Gaon fund and property. Thus, the Gram Panchayat/ Gram Sabha is vested with funds and its use. It also has property vested in it as is mentioned in Section-34 of the Act, 1947. It can even acquire land in terms of Section-33 of the said Act. It can borrow money (Section-36). It can impose taxes and fees (Section-37). The Gram Panchayat has a budget of its own (Section-41). Without dwelling at length on the contents of the said provisions, suffice it to say that the Gram Panchayat perform public functions and Gram Pradhan as its head as also the head of Bhumi Prabandhak Samiti also perform important public functions including financial and administrative functions. Chapter VII of the Act, 1947 deals with External Control.

Removal of Gram Pradhan and seizure of his power in the interregnum during pendency of proceedings for his removal under the Act, 1947 and Rules, 1997 made thereunder.

9) Section-95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947, inter alia, deals with removal of Pradhan but on specified grounds which are as under:-

"95 Inspection-(1) The State Government may-

..

(g) remove a Pradhan or member of a Gram Panchayat or a Joint Committee or Bhumi Prabandhak Samiti, or a Panch, Sahayak Sarpanch [Nyaya Panchayat] if he –

(i)- absents himself without sufficient cause for more than three consecutive meetings or sittings.

(ii)-refuses to act or becomes incapable of acting for any reason whatsoever or if he is accused of or charged for an offence involving moral turpitude.

(iii)- has abused his position as such or has persistently failed to perform the duties imposed by this Act or rules made thereunder or his continuance as such is not desirable in public interest, or

[(iii)-a has taken the benefit of reservation under sub-section (2) of Section 11-A or sub-section (5) or Section 12, as the case may be, on the basis of a false declaration subscribed by him stating that he is a member of Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes or the backward classes, as the case may be.]

(iv)- being a Sahayak Sarpanch or a Sarpanch [of the Nyaya Panchayat] takes active part in politics, or

(v)-suffers from any of the disqualifications mentioned in Clauses (a) to (m) of Section 5-A;

[Provided that where, in an enquiry held by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed, a Pradhan [or Up-Pradhan] is prima facie found to have committed financial and other irregularities such Pradhan [Up-Pradhan] shall cease to exercise and perform the financial and administrative powers and functions, which shall, until he is exonerated of the charges in the final enquiry, be exercised and performed by a Committee consisting of three members of Gram Panchayat appointed by the State Government.]"

10) The first proviso to 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 is relevant for our purposes as it contains the provision for seizing financial and administrative powers and functions of Gram Pradhan where, in an enquiry held by such person and in such manner as may be prescribed, a Pradhan is prima facie found to have committed financial and other irregularities. In the event of such seizure of powers of Gram Pradhan, it is to continue until he is exonerated of the charges in the final inquiry. In the interregnum, such powers and functions are to be exercised by a Committee consisting of three member of Gram Panchayat appointed by the State Government.

11) The powers of the State Government under Section-95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 have been delegated to the District Magistrate concerned and there is no dispute in this regard.

12) The words 'in such manner as may be prescribed' used in the proviso to Section 95(1)(g) lead us to the rules known as U.P. Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up-Pradhans and Members) Enquiry Rules, 1997 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Rules, 1997') which have been made by the Governor in exercise of powers under Section 110 read with clause (g) of sub-Section-(1) of Section 95 of the Act, 1947.

13) Rule-3 of the Rules, 1997 refers to procedure relating to complaints against Pradhan. The complaint has to confirm to the requirements of Rule-3 of the Rules, 1997. If it does not confirm to such requirements, it cannot be acted upon but this does not prevent the District Magistrate from taking suo-motu cognizance based on material before him including the complaint and proceeding accordingly, as per Rules.

14) The provision for initiation of proceedings against a Gram Pradhan on the basis of a complaint emphasizes the underlying idea that in a given case, government functionaries may not be aware of the illegalities but the public, which is directly affected by the functioning of the Gram Panchayat, may be aware and accordingly, they can complain against the Gram Pradhan, especially as, he holds an office of election and has been elected by the people of that area.

15) Ordinarily, a complainant would be a member of the gram panchayat/ gram sabha and a resident of the same who has a stake in the village administration and development unless of course he is not so but is in possession of some incriminating material which has a bearing on the functions of the Gram Pradhan.

16) Rule 4 of the Rules, 1997 envisages a preliminary enquiry to be ordered on a complaint or report referred in Rule 3 or otherwise. The report herein would mean a complaint or report by a public servant as is referred in Rule 3(6) of the said Rules. The preliminary enquiry is required to be completed within thirty days. This preliminary inquiry is also referrable to the first proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the Act.

17) Rule 5 of the Rules, 1997 is relevant which reads as under:-

"5. Where the State Government is of the opinion, on the basis of the report referred to in sub-rule (2) of Rule 4 or otherwise that an enquiry should be held against a Pradhan or Up-Pradhan or Member under the proviso to clause (g) of sub-section(1) of Section 95 it shall forthwith constitute a committee envisaged by proviso to clause (g) of sub-section(1) of Section 95, of the Act and by an order ask an Enquiry Officer, other than the Enquiry Officer nominated under sub-rule (2) of Rule 4, to hold the enquiry. "

18) As per Rule 5, based on the report referred to in sub-rule (2) of Rule 4 i.e. the preliminary enquiry report or otherwise the State Government is of the opinion that an enquiry should be held against a Pradhan under the proviso to clause (g) of sub-section(1) of Section 95 it shall forthwith constitute a committee envisaged by the first proviso to clause (g) of sub-section(1) of Section 95, of the Act and by an order ask an Enquiry Officer, other than the Enquiry Officer nominated under sub-rule (2) of Rule 4, to hold the enquiry. Now, the enquiry referred in Rule 5 is a final inquiry. We have been told that the State Government has delegated its powers in this regard to the District Magistrate concerned.

19) Once such an opinion is formed as is referred in Rule (5) then seizure of administrative and financial powers follow in terms of proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the Act.

20) Rule 6 of the Rules, 1997 deals with procedure for the final/ regular enquiry. We need not enter into details of the procedure prescribed but suffice it to say that the complainant has an important role to play in final proceeding for removal of the Gram Pradhan, in a case where the proceedings are based on a complaint. It is not, as if, he, after submission of complaint, has no role to play or that he is to be a passive player. He is entitled to active participation in not only making of allegations against a Gram Pradhan supported by requisite proof but also in proving the articles of charges framed by the Enquiry Officer. According to sub-Rule-16 of Rule 6, the Enquiry Officer may after completion of production of evidence, hear the complainant, if any, apart from the person against whom the enquiry is being held, or permit them, or him, as the case may be, to file written briefs of their respective cases. Based on the final inquiry, a decision is taken whether Pradhan is to be removed or not but in this case we are not concerned with final inquiry or removal of Pradhan based thereon. We are concerned with the interim stage referable to proviso to Section 95(1)(g) regarding seizure of his powers during pendency of such proceedings.

21) The seizure of administrative and financial powers of Gram Pradhan is not to be resorted to mechanically, in a routine manner, without due application of mind to the facts and material which may have been collected. Instead, it is required to be done on the basis of a preliminary enquiry followed by a show-cause notice to the Gram Pradhan confronting him with the material adverse to him and after considering his reply to the same. The legal position in this regard is very well settled. Therefore, once a complaint supported by proof is made and it is found to be in accordance with rules, it is to be acted upon and the competent authority may order a preliminary enquiry under Rule 4 of the Rules 1997 read with the first proviso to Section 95(1)(g). At this stage, the powers of the Gram Pradhan cannot be seized. The preliminary enquiry is ordered only to find out if there is a prima facie case for regular inquiry in the matter. Only after report of preliminary enquiry is received that the Competent Authority forms an opinion based on such report as to whether a final enquiry as envisaged in Rule 5 and 6 etc is required or not. If it opines that it is not required, the matter ends. However, if it finds that it is required which could, in a given case, be, if, prima facie, the Gram Pradhan is found to have committed financial and other irregularities, then, the Competent Authority would pass an order seizing the exercise of and performance of financial and administrative powers and functions by such Pradhan. Of course, this would be after following the procedure as mentioned hereinabove and as has been explained in detail in a full Bench decision of this Court in the case of 'Vivekanand Yadav vs. State of U.P. & Anr.' reported in 2010 (111) RD 699.

22) In this scenario, the Gram Pradhan, if aggrieved, can challenge such order by filing a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and it is in this context the questions as framed by us have arisen as to locus-standi of the complainant to get himself impleaded in such writ proceedings.

CONCEPT OF NECESSARY AND PROPER PARTY

23) In order to answer the question no.1 framed by us, we need to consider the concept of 'necessary party' and 'proper party'. In this context, the principles contained in Order 1 Rule 10 (2) C.P.C. are relevant. Even though the provision contained in C.P.C. do not apply to writ proceedings stricto sensu in view of explanation to Section 141 C.P.C. but, the principles enshrined therein can be applied and are applied very often to writ proceedings. Order I Rule 10(2) C.P.C. reads as under:-

"10(2) Court may strike out or add parties.—The Court may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the Court to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit, be added."

24) A necessary party is a person who ought to have been joined as a party and in whose absence, no effective decree or order could be passed at all by the court. If a necessary party is not impleaded, the suit or petition itself is liable to be dismissed whereas a proper party is a party who, though not a necessary party, is a person whose presence would enable the court to completely, effectively and adequately adjudicate upon all matters in dispute in the suit/ petition though he need not be a person in favour or against whom the decree is to be made. Legal position in this regard is well settled1.

TWIN TEST OF A NECESSARY PARTY

25) For being a necessary party, there is a twin test. The first is that there must be a right to some relief against such party in respect of the dispute involved in the proceedings. The second is that in the absence of such a party, no effective order/ judgment can be passed. In cases where these two tests are not satisfied, a person cannot be said to be necessary party2.

Question No.1-

Whether complainant is a necessary party in a writ petition filed by Gram Pradhan challenging seizure of his power under Section-95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 read with Rules, 1997.

26) The first and foremost question is whether a complainant under the Rules, 1997 is a necessary party in a writ petition filed by the Gram Pradhan challenging the order of the District Magistrate seizing the exercise and performance of administrative and financial powers by him, or not.

27) In such a writ petition, if no relief has been sought against the complainant then it cannot be said that he is a necessary party. A complainant having made a complaint in terms of Rule 3 which has been acted upon by the Competent Authority who has ordered a preliminary enquiry resulting in a preliminary enquiry report, based on which, the Competent Authority after due and proper application of mind and following the procedure prescribed in law has passed an order seizing the administrative and financial powers of the Gram Pradhan may give rise to a lis between the Gram Pradhan and the Authority passing the order but the complainant who may be the catalyst for the entire exercise cannot be said to be a necessary party in the lis. This is especially as, final/ regular enquiry is yet to be held wherein he will have an opportunity to adduce evidence, examine and cross-examine the witnesses and would be also entitled to personal hearing after completion of enquiry as is envisaged in Rule-6 of the Rules, 1997. But prior to that, that is at the stage of passing of an order of seizure of powers against the Gram Pradhan, in a writ petition filed by the Gram Pradhan, he cannot be said to be a necessary party. It cannot be said that his non-impleadment would render the proceedings bad resulting in its dismissal. An application for impleadment as a necessary party filed by him in such writ proceedings will not lie.

28) An argument was advanced by Sri Manish Vaish, learned counsel for the applicant seeking impleadment that in a case of connivance between the authorities and the Gram Pradhan, it is the complainant alone who could inform the court about such connivance as also the interest of the Gram Panchayat and Gram Sabha which was being compromised as a result thereof, therefore, he would be a necessary party. This argument cannot be accepted in the context of question no.1 framed by us for the reasons at the interim stage referable to proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, when the District Magistrate has already passed an order seizing the powers of Gram Pradhan, there can hardly be a situation where it could be said that the State authorities would be conniving with Gram Pradhan. In fact, in such a scenario, there would already be an order against the Gram Pradhan.

29) As regards his submission if such connivance takes place after filing of the writ petition before the writ court, then, the complainant would be a necessary party, we cannot answer this question on an hypothesis/ assumption that in every writ proceeding there would be connivance between the State authorities and the Gram Pradhan nor can we assume that the writ court which has extraordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India would be a mute spectator to such connivance and it cannot see through it and exercise its extraordinary powers to ensure substantial justice by summoning the records or for that matter even summoning the officials for its assistance, if required. It can put such queries as it may deem proper to the State to secure the ends of substantial justice. We cannot declare a complainant to be necessary party in such proceedings merely on such a hypothesis. We have no doubt that after filing of the writ petition if the State authorities are conniving with the petitioner and are not contesting the matter properly, the writ court can always see through this design and do the needful in exercise of its extraordinary powers, but merely because of this 'assumed possibility', we cannot hold that a complainant is a necessary party in such proceedings. However, this aspect can be taken into consideration by the writ court in the context of the concept of 'proper party' which shall be discussed hereinafter.

30) It is also pertinent to mention that there is nothing in the Act, 1947 or the Rules, 1997 requiring participation of the complainant in the preliminary enquiry ordered on his complaint which does not mean that he can't be allowed to participate if the Enquiry Officer so desires, but only to say that there is no such statutory requirement nor a corresponding right in favour of the complainant.

31) We are, therefore, of the considered opinion that a complainant is not a necessary party in such writ proceedings.

Whether such complainant is a proper party

32) However, there is another aspect to be considered as to whether complainant can be a proper party in such proceedings. Now a proper party, as already stated, means a party who, though not a necessary party, is a person whose presence would enable the court to completely, effectively and adequately adjudicate upon all matters in dispute in the suit, though he need not be a person in favor or against whom the decree/ order is to be passed.

33) Whether or not a complainant is a proper party in writ proceedings as referred above would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case and it is not possible for us to lay down any general proposition in this regard which may be universally applicable in all the cases. Meaning thereby, in a given case, where the writ court finds that presence of a person would enable it to completely, adequately and effectively adjudicate upon all matters in dispute in writ proceedings, it can allow impleadment of such a person as a proper party unconditionally or with terms and conditions.3 This may include a case where the court finds that certain facts or documents are being withheld by the State or its authorities even after exchange of affidavits and if it is so demonstrated by the complainant seeking impleadment to the satisfaction of the writ court.

34) After all, the writ court has vide discretionary powers and we do not wish to fetter its exercise of discretion under Article 226 of the Constitution of India unnecessarily nor to impose a blanket prohibition upon it from hearing the complainant even as a proper party as it may in a given case result in grave miscarriage of justice. It may also in a given situation jeopardize/ compromise valuable rights of members of Gaon Sabha and public interest therein.

35) In this context, we may refer to a Constitution Bench decision of Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of 'Uday Narain Singh Malpaharia v Addl. Member, Board of Revenue, Bihar' AIR 1963 SC 786 wherein the concept of 'proper party' was considered in the context of writ proceedings and in para no.10, it was held as under:-

"The question of making such a person as a party to a writ proceeding depends upon the judicial discretion of the High Court in the circumstances of each case. Either one of the parties to the proceeding may apply for the impleading of such a party or such a party may suo motu approach the court for being impleaded therein."

36) We, however, hasten to add that such discretion has to be exercised by the writ court according to reasons and fair play and not as per the 'wish of the court', meaning thereby, even while deciding as to whether a complainant is a proper party in a given case or not, the decision has to be a considered one based on reasons and consideration of fair play, not otherwise4.

37) In this very context, we may refer to Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952 framed under Article 225 of the Constitution of India. Chapter XXII thereof deals with writ petitions. Rule 5A is relevant, it reads as under:-

"5-A. Hearing of persons not served with notice.- At the hearing of the application, any person who desires to be heard in opposition to the application and appears to the Court to be a proper person to be heard, may be heard notwithstanding that he has not been served with notice under rule 2."*

On a reading of the above quoted rules itself it is evident that the writ court can at the hearing of the application (writ petition) hear any person who desires to be heard in opposition to the application (writ petition) and appears to the court to be a proper person to be heard notwithstanding that he has not been served with notice under Rule 2. Therefore, this provision also empowers the writ court specifically to hear a person who in its opinion is a proper party. We cannot take away the discretion of the writ court in this regard.

38) Above quoted Rule has been considered by a Division Bench of this Court in a case reported in (2009) 76 ALR 750 'State of U.P. & Ors. vs. Committee of Management, Anjuman Madarsa Noorul Islam Dehra Kalan, Ghazipur through its Manager and Anr.'. Relevant extract of the judgment is quoted hereinbelow:-

"9. A bare perusal of Rue 5-A shows that where a person in the Writ Court appears and requests to be heard in opposite on the petition and and it appears to the Court that he is a proper person only then he may be heard even though no notice has been served upon him since he was not a party impleaded in the writ petition To attract Rule 5-A of the High Court Rules, two things are necessary:

(1) a person desired to be heard in opposition to the application and (2) he appears to be a proper person to the Court that he should be permitted to be heard. Here the present application is not one seeking intervention for opposing the writ petition. Secondly, in the dispute involved in the writ petition, the learned Counsel for the applicant could not show as to how he is a proper person to be heard. Therefore, in our view, the reference made and reliance placed on Rule 5-A is misconceived and does not apply to the present application. We have no manner of doubt that wherever and whenever the Court finds that a person is a proper party to be heard in a matter he should be allowed opportunity to be heard but simply because someone has come and requested to be heard, he cannot be allowed as a matter of course and that too, which all the parties in the writ petition are opposing."

39) The Division Bench in the aforesaid judgment also had the occasion to consider provisions of Order I, Rule 8-A C.P.C. in this very context and in this regard, it observed as under:-

10. Then we come to Order I, Rule 8-A, C.P.C which reads as under:

"8-A. Power of Court to permit a person or body of persons to present opinion or to take part in the proceedings. - While trying a suit, the Court may, if satisfied that a person or body of persons is interested in any question of law which is directly and substantially in issue in the suit and that it is necessary in the public interest to allow that person or body of persons to present his or its opinion on that question of law, permit that person or body of persons to present such opinion and to take such part in the proceedings of the suit as the Court may specify."

11. To attract Rule 8-A three things are required: (1) While trying the suit the Court should be satisfied that a person or body of persons has interest in any question of law, (2) such question of law must have directly and substantially in issue in the suit and (3) it is necessary in the public interest to allow such person or body of persons to present his or its opinion on the question of law.

12. Besides, the power of the Court to permit such person or body of persons to present his or its opinion is discretionary, inasmuch as, the Rule says that the Court may permit such person or body of persons. Sri Chaudhary vehemently submitted that the word "may" has to be read as 'shall. In "Principles of Statutory Interpretation" by Sri G.P. Singh, at page 447 while commenting upon the proposition as to when a provision would be read as mandatory or directory, the following observations of Lord Cairns have been quoted:

"There may be something in the nature of the thing empowered to be done, something in the object for which it is to be done, something in the conditions under which it is to be done, something in the title of the person or persons for whose benefit the power is to be exercised, which may couple the power with a duty, and make it the duty of the person in whom the power is reposed to exercise that power when called upon to do so."

"Where a power is deposited with a public officer for the purpose of being used for the benefit of person specifically pointed out with regard to whom a definition is supplied by the legislature of the condition upon which they are entitled to call for its exercise, that power ought to be exercised and the Court will require it to be exercised."

40) The Court did not go into the question of may or shall which was raised before it in the context of Rule -8-A C.P.C. as it only considered the first pre-requisite that there should be question of law involved. The word 'may' in our opinion confers a discretion on the writ court and does not create a right in favour of the person seeking impleadment as proper party in a writ proceedings.

41) Now, in this very context, the Division Bench considered as to who is an intervener and when intervention application can be allowed and in this context it observed that in all the three cases cited before it, the intervention was allowed either when the person was supporting one of the party or he was found to be necessary or proper party to this dispute before the court and did not accepted the contention on facts but the legal position in this regard was considered by it. Relevant extract i.e. Para no.15 & 16 of the said judgment is quoted hereinbelow.

"15. Then comes the basic questions as to who intervener is and when intervention application can be allowed.

16. In Saraswati Industrial Syndicate (supra) the Apex Court categorically held that purpose of granting an intervention application is to entitle the intervener to address argument in support of one or the other side.."

42) Merely because a person claims himself to be a proper party in the facts of a case, the said complainant cannot insist on being impleaded as, that is a discretion to be exercised by the writ court and not a right to be claimed by the complainant. The sine qua non in this regard, is the satisfaction of the Court and discretion to be exercised by it as aforesaid, that is, if the court finds presence of such complainant necessary to enable it to completely, effectively and adequately adjudicate upon all matters in dispute then it can order his impleadment as a proper party but this does not give an indefeasable right to the complainant to seek such impleadment. As already stated, this is a discretion to be exercised by the writ court keeping in mind the facts and circumstances of a case and for reasons to be recorded keeping in mind fair play. The writ court cannot allow impleadment of proper party merely because it wishes to do so. It has to give reasons. It has to act according to reason and fair play. In a given case, the writ court can instead of ordering impleadment of a complainant as a proper party give him a right of hearing as an intervener.

43) In a case where a complainant is neither a necessary party nor a proper party neither such complainant can seek impleadment nor can the court order his impleadment.

44) We thus opine that in a writ petition filed by a Gram Pradhan, the complainant as referred in Rule-3 of the Rules, 1997 read with the first proviso to Section-95(1)(g) of the Act is not a necessary party unless some relief has been sought against him, but, in a given case he may be impleaded as a proper party or he may be heard as an intervener, as the case may be, as per discretion exercised by the writ court in the light of what we have stated hereinabove.

45) We answer question no.1 accordingly.

46) We make it clear that we have not considered the question as to whether a complainant under Rule-3 of Rule 1997 is a necessary or a proper party in any writ petition in which a lis relating to or based on a final enquiry referred in Rule-4 and 6 etc of the Rules, 1997 is involved. We have confined ourselves only to action at the interim stage i.e. seizure of financial and administrative powers of the Gram Pradhan referrable to first proviso to Section-95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947. We have also not considered the locus standi of a complainant to file a writ petition and challenge an order of withdrawal/ recall of order of seizure of functions passed against the Gram Pradhan in the teeth of proviso to Section 95(1)(g) and leave these issues for consideration in some other case.

Question No.2

47) We may in this context refer to a Division Bench judgment in the case of Dharam Raj vs. State of U.P. & Ors.' reported in 2009 (108) RD 689. First of all, the said matter pertained to a fair price shop license and did not pertain to the seizure of administrative and financial powers of a Gram Pradhan as an interim measure as involved herein and as was involved in Amin Khan's case (supra). Secondly, the said writ petition was filed by complainants challenging an order passed by the District Magistrate exonerating the fair price shop licensee and it was not a case whre complainant was seeking impleadment as an opposite party. The Division Bench in the said case considered the concept of 'person aggrieved' and held that complainant was not a person aggrieved. The judgment does not disclose any statutory provisions or rules similar to those involved in the case of a Gram Pradhan as has been referred by us hereinabove wherein the complainant plays an active role not only at the time of filing the complaint but even thereafter in the regular enquiry which is the basis for the final order passed. Moreover, the concept of 'person aggrieved' is relevant in a case where the complainant files a writ petition or appeal arising therefrom but so far as the question of impleadment as an opposite party in a writ proceedings is concerned, it is concept of necessary and proper party which has to be considered. This was neither the issue in the case of Dharam Raj (supra) nor was it considered. Therefore, the said decision also does not persuade us to take any other view of the matter especially as we have also held that the complainant would not be necessary party in a writ proceedings unless any relief has been claimed against him. However, we have opined that the court can in its discretion order his impleadment as a proper party. Moreover, we have not expressed any opinion as to the locus standi of a complainant referable to Rule 3 of the Rules, 1997 to maintain a writ petition challenging a final order passed by the District Magistrate under Section 95(1)(g) of the Act and we leave this question for consideration in some other appropriate case.

48) We have also considered the judgment rendered by a Co-ordinate Bench in the case of 'Amin Khan vs. State of U.P. & Ors.' ;(2008) SCC Online All 269. It was an appeal by a complainant challenging a judgment passed by a Single Judge along with an application seeking leave to appeal. The Court noticed that the applicant was a complainant and also a member of the three-Member Committee constituted by the District Magistrate under the proviso to Section-95(1)(g) to perform the functions and duties of Pradhan consequent to cessation of his powers. The Division Bench held that such a member of the Committee cannot be a party in a litigation as he was not a 'person aggrieved'. It has also observed that being a complainant, he should not have been made a member of the three-membered Committee by the District Magistrate and that being a complainant he could at the most be examined as a witness in the inquiry but he cannot be permitted to become a party in the lis. The Division Bench opined that complainant did not have any locus standi to maintain the appeal and rejected the application for leave to appeal.

49) On a perusal of the said judgment we find that it was a case where the writ court allowed the writ petition of Gram Pradhan and quashed the order of seizure of financial and administrative powers passed by the District Magistrate. Therefore, there was already an adjudication by the writ court which was sought to be challenged by the complainant by filing a special appeal and seeking leave to appeal. There is no mention in the judgment that the appellant therein had moved an application before the writ court seeking impleadment as is the case here. We have already held that in such writ proceedings a complainant is not a necessary party unless any relief has been sought against him. It appears that after the writ court had pronounced its verdict, the complainant came forward to file the appeal challenging the said judgment. Therefore, not having sought impleadment before the writ court, once the latter had pronounced its verdict on validity of the order of seizure then the locus standi of the complainant was absent to maintain the appeal as per the judgment of the Co-ordinate Bench. This is not the question before us.

50) As regards the observations in Amin Khan's case (supra) that such a complainant is not a 'person aggrieved', the concept of 'person aggrieved' would arise in the situation of the writ petition being filed by the complainant or an appeal being filed against the judgment of the writ court in the circumstances noticed hereinabove which is not the case here. In a case such as the one at hand where the complainant had sought impleadment as an opposite party in writ proceedings, it is the concept of necessary and proper party which would have to be considered. This aspect was not involved nor considered by the Co-ordinate Bench in the case of Amin Khan (supra). We have held that a complainant would not be a necessary party in a writ petition or an appeal arising therefrom unless any relief has been sought against him but for the reasons already given by us, the writ court in its discretion can order the complainant to be impleaded as a proper party or hear him as an intervener which does not by itself make him a party to the lis but as already stated his presence is there for the assistance of the court that too on the satisfaction of the court and not as a matter of right. Therefore, we are of the opinion that what has been held by us hereinabove does not in essence contradict what has been held in Amin Khan's case (supra). We have merely clarified the matter in the context of a proper party (opposite party) in a writ proceedings. Therefore, we see no reason as to why we should refer the judgment in the case of Amin Khan (supra) for reconsideration by a larger Bench. This is especially as we have not expressed any opinion on the question as to whether after a final order of removal has been passed by the District Magistrate after a regular enquiry, the complainant would have any locus standi or not and have also not expressed any opinion as to whether special appeal would be maintainable at the behest of a complainant against judgment of a writ court which was the question involved in Amin Khan's case (supra)

51) We answer question no.2 accordingly.

52) The writ petition shall now be listed before the writ court on 06.03.2024 along with our answers to the questions referred hereinabove.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1015
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 19.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ABDUL MOIN, J.

Writ - C No. 8449 of 2022

Ray Sahab ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Anurag Shukla, Satish Kumar Sharma

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Anurag Srivastava, Manoj Kumar Rai

Civil Law - U.P. Essential Commodities (Regulation of Sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016 – Clause 8(7) – Essential Commodities Act, 1955 – Sections 3/7 – Cancellation of Fair Price Shop License – Summary Inquiry – Principles of Natural Justice – Writ Jurisdiction – Article 226

The petitioner, Ray Sahab, challenged the cancellation of his fair price shop license for Village Panchayat Bishaiya, Raebareli, vide order dated 24.05.2022, upheld by the appellate authority on 19.11.2022, alleging procedural irregularities and violation of natural justice. A complaint on 03.09.2020 led to an inquiry revealing short supply of food grains to ration card holders, resulting in the license's suspension on 10.09.2020 and an FIR under Sections 3/7 of the Essential Commodities Act. Despite a final police report on 25.01.2022 finding no case, which was allegedly approved by the District Magistrate, multiple inquiries confirmed irregularities, leading to the license's cancellation. The petitioner argued: (1) the appellate authority decided without hearing him, (2) the inquiry report was not provided, (3) the police report cleared him, (4) the inquiry committee was improperly constituted, (5) complainants' St.ments were inconsistent, and (6) the procedure under the Government Order dated 05.08.2019 was not followe Held: The inquiry under Clause 8(7) of the 2016 Control Order is summary, requiring only a show-cause notice, opportunity to respond, and a reasoned order, as per Shankar Prasad Vs St. of U.P. (Mis Single No. 32679 of 2019). There is no mandate for supplying the inquiry report or allowing cross-examination, as confirmed in Radhey Shyam Vs St. of U.P. (Writ-C No. 22891 of 2019). The appellate authority's decision without the petitioner's presence was justified due to his absence despite notice, and no adjournment was sought. The police report's pendency due to a protest petition negated its relevance. The inquiry committee's composition was clarified as valid, with the Additional District Magistrate solely responsible for the report. The inquiry report, based on 32 witnesses, consistently showed short supply and misuse of the e-pass machine, justifying cancellation. The 2019 Government Order was adhered to, requiring no detailed inquiry. The cited judgments (Amar Nath, Amodnath Mishra, Manoj Kumar Pathak) were either distinguishable or superseded by Shankar Prasa The writ petition was dismissed, finding no legal infirmity in the impugned orders.

Case Law Cited:

1. Shankar Prasad Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Mis Single No. 32679 of 2019, decided on 08.12.2021

2. Radhey Shyam Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Writ-C No. 22891 of 2019, decided on 16.02.2022

3. Amar Nath Vs Commissioner, Lucknow Division & ors., Writ-C No. 1001443 of 2007, decided on 19.12.2022

4. Amodnath Mishra Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Writ-C No. 3407 of 2022, decided on 30.11.2023

5. Manoj Kumar Pathak Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Mis Single No. 3739 of 2012, decided on 11.11.2014

(Delivered by Hon'ble Abdul Moin, J.)

1. Personal affidavit of Principal Secretary, Food & Civil Supplies, Lucknow dated 19.02.2024 filed today in Court by the learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel be kept on record.

2. Personal affidavit was required by this Court in terms of the order dated 16.01.2024 which for the sake of convenience is reproduced below:-

"1. Heard.

2. In pursuance to the orders dated 14.02.2023 and 23.02.2023, a supplementary counter affidavit has been filed on 02.03.2023. By placing reliance on the said affidavit, the contention of learned Standing counsel is that the District Magistrate, on an application moved by the petitioner, passed an order dated 06.05.2022, a copy of which is annexure SCA-1 to the said affidavit, per which the Additional District Magistrate was required to examine the explanation of the petitioner and submit a report.

3. In pursuance thereof, the Additional District Magistrate examined the explanation of the petitioner in presence of the Naib Tehsildar, Salon and five other officers and in respect of which an order dated 18.05.2022, a copy of which is annexure SCA-2 to the said affidavit, was also passed.

4. It is contended that the inquiry report was not submitted by the six officers along with the Additional District Magistrate rather the Additional District Magistrate required the other six officers only for the purpose of helping out in the inquiry for examining the statements and not that the inquiry was conducted by the other six officials and hence, the report submitted by the Additional District Magistrate does not bear the signatures of the other six officials who helped out in the said inquiry.

5. Considering the aforesaid, the explanation is found satisfactory by this Court of the inquiry report only bearing the signatures of the Additional District Magistrate.

6. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that though from the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022, the shortage of supply of ration vis-a-vis the N.I.S. report and also from the statements of ration card holders, it emerged that less ration has been supplied to the ration card holders, yet in the F.I.R. lodged against the petitioner under Section 3/7 of The Essential Commodities Act wherein final report has been submitted on 25.01.2022, a copy of which is annexure 15 to the petition (page 112), per which the Investigating Officer has indicated about the suspicious conduct of the Lekpal Shri Ram Sumer Maurya and Shri Vivek Kumar, Supply Inspector and also indicated that all the witnesses have resiled from their statements that have been given earlier to the authorities, and as such, no case under Section 3/7 of Essential Commodities Act is found against the petitioner. He further contends that the said report was approved by the District Magistrate, Raebareli.

7. The argument is that when the police in the final report has specifically concluded that no case is made out against the petitioner of giving supply of lesser food grains to the ration card holders, consequently no cognizance can be given to the inquiry report which has been conducted behind the back of the petitioner and in which the witnesses have indicated of lesser supply of food grains / ration by the petitioner.

8. Responding to that, the contention of learned Standing counsel, on the basis of averments contained in the counter affidavit are (a) that the Investigating Officer never visited the Gram Panchayat and never verified the stock of fair price license holder and also never recorded the statements of card holders and (b) that the District Magistrate has taken cognizance of the report of the Investigating Officer wherein the approval of the District Magistrate has been alleged to have been accorded by indicating that it is only the District Magistrate himself who is to accord the approval and no other officer and thus, the approval appears to be fake and not genuine. Specific averment to the said effect has been made in paragraph 25 of the counter affidavit dated 25.01.2023.

9. From perusal of the aforesaid facts, it is prima facie apparent that it is only the ration card holders who have not been supplied the full ration to which they are entitled to, as emerges from the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022, who are the ultimate sufferers and who would fall within the ambit of being "collateral damage" in the entire episode that has occurred. The ultimate beneficiary in the entire episode, prima facie, appear to be the fair price shop license holder, the Lekpal Shri Ram Sumer Maurya, the Supply Inspector Shri Vivek Kumar and the Investigating Officer who submitted his report dated 25.01.2022.

10. The Court while exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India cannot shut its eyes to the aforesaid sorry state of affairs which, prima facie, emerge from the perusal of record. The Court is also conscious and aware that the District Magistrate has himself indicated that the approval of the report of the Investigating Officer is only to be accorded by the District Magistrate himself and no other officer and as such the approval appears to be fake, yet the further action that may have been taken on the basis of the said averments, as contained in the counter affidavit filed way back on 25.01.2023 i.e. almost a year back, has still not been indicated.

11. Considering the aforesaid, the Court requires the Principal Secretary, Food & Civil Supplies, Civil Secretariat, Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow i.e. respondent No.1 to file his personal affidavit in the matter addressing all the aforesaid issues and indicating the action which has been taken / is proposed to be taken against the guilty officials in the entire episode and, thus, to ensure that at least the ration card holders get the due amount of food grains to which they are entitled to and the same is not defeated at the behest of either the fair price shop license holder or the other officials who are required to ensure that due food grains are received by the ration card holders.

12. Let the personal affidavit be filed within four weeks.

13. List this case for further hearing on 19.02.2024 at 02:15 P.M.

14. Interim order, if any, shall continue till the next date of listing."

3. Sri Anurag Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioner states that he does not intend to file any reply to the same.

4. From a perusal of the aforesaid order dated 16.01.2024, it emerges that the contention of learned counsel for the petitioner was that when the police in the final report has concluded that no case is made out against the petitioner of giving lesser supply of food grains to the ration card holders consequently, no cognizance can be given to the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022 which enquiry has been conducted behind the back of the petitioner and that despite the inquiry report having indicated the connivance of the lekhpal, the Supply Inspector Investigating Officer, no action has been taken against them.

5. In the supplementary counter affidavit filed today, a specific averment has been made in paragraph 23 that the then Investigating Officer, Sri Praveen Gautam and the then Judicial Assistant, Sri Balaji Vidayarthi have been prima facie found guilty and a preliminary departmental inquiry has been directed to be conducted against Sri Praveen Gautam. As Sri Balaji Vidayarthi has retired as such, a letter dated 02.02.2024 has been sent to Secretary, Government of U.P for according sanction to initiate departmental proceedings against him as per CSR 351-A.

6. So far as the final report is concerned, it has been specifically averred in paragraph 21 of the affidavit that against the said report, a protest has been filed by the Supply Inspector before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, Raibareilly on 05.12.2023 which is pending before the competent Court.

7. So far as distribution of food grains is concerned, it is contended that the same are being distributed by the shop with which the card holders have been attached.

8. Considering the aforesaid personal affidavit of the Principal Secretary, Food and Supply it is apparent that the action has been taken in pursuance to the order of this Court dated 16.01.2024 which action is found satisfactory.

9. As the pleadings are completed accordingly the Court proceeds to hear and decide the matter finally.

10. Heard Sri Anurag Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Rahul Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents.

11. Instant writ petition has been filed praying for the following main reliefs:-

(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature or certiorari thereby quashing the impugned order dated 19.11.2022 passed by opposite party no. 2, Joint Commissioner (Food), Lucknow Division, Lucknow in Appeal No. 2576 of 2022, Ray Sahab Singh Vs. State of U.P U/S 13 (3) of Essential Commodities (Regulation of sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016 and impugned order dated 24.05.2022 passed by the Opposite Party No. 3, Upziladhikari, Tehsil- Salon District Raibareily, contained as Annexure No. 1 & 2 to this writ petition.

(ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Mandamus commanding the opposite party no. 3 to permit the petitioner to run the fair price shop of Village Panchayat Bishaiya, Block & Tehsil Salon, District Raibareli during pendency of the present writ petition before this Hon'ble Court

12. The facts set forth by the learned counsel for the petitioner are that the petitioner was having a license of the fair price shop of Village Panchayat-Bisaiya Block & Tehsil- Salon District-Raibareilly and had been running the said shop without any complaint since long. On 03.09.2020, a complaint was made against the distribution of food grains by the petitioner on the public hearing portal. An inquiry was conducted by the Regional Supply Inspector, Salon who submitted his report on 07.09.2020. On the basis of the said report, the license of the petitioner was suspended vide order dated 10.09.2020, a copy of which is annexure 4 to the writ petition. Being aggrieved, the petitioner filed an appeal and the learned appellate authority vide order dated 05.12.2020, a copy of which is annexure 5 to the writ petition remanded back the matter to the competent authority to pass a fresh order after considering the explanation of the petitioner. In pursuance thereof, the petitioner submitted his explanation which was examined by the inquiry committee which submitted its report on 04.03.2021. The petitioner preferred an application for re-inquiry which was also directed and after considering the explanation of the petitioner, the license of the petitioner was cancelled vide order dated 08.07.2021, a copy of which is annexure 9 to the writ petition.

13. The petitioner being aggrieved with the order dated 08.07.2021 filed an appeal. Vide order dated 31.08.2021, a copy of which is annexure 10 to the writ petition, the appeal was allowed and the matter was remitted to the competent authority to pass a fresh order.

14. In pursuance thereof, an inquiry was again conducted and a report was submitted on 04.05.2022. The petitioner being dissatisfied with the said inquiry requested for re-inquiry and again the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022 was submitted, a copy of which is part of annexure 12 to the writ petition.

15. After considering the inquiry report, the competent authority vide order dated 24.05.2022, a copy of which is annexure 2 to the writ petition cancelled the license of the petitioner. Being aggrieved, the petitioner filed an appeal which has been rejected vide order dated 19.11.2022, a copy of which is annexure 1 to the writ petition. Being aggrieved by both the orders, the instant writ petition has been filed.

16. Learned counsel for the petitioner has raised following arguments in order to challenge the orders impugned namely (a) the appellate authority has decided the appeal without hearing the petitioner (b) copy of the inquiry report has not been supplied to the petitioner on the basis of which the cancellation of license order dated 24.05.2022 has been passed (c) when the final report had been submitted by the police in the case filed against the petitioner under the provisions of Section 3/7 of the Essential Commodities Act which was approved by the District Magistrate, Raibareilly consequently, in the summary proceedings against the petitioner conducted by the respondents it could not be said that the petitioner has not supplied the food grains or has made lesser supply of the food grains (d) the District Magistrate had directed for formation of a six member committee, as stands recorded in the report dated 21.05.2022 (Page 87 & 88 of the writ petition) but the report has been submitted only by one person i.e. the Additional Magistrate as per annexure 12 of the writ petition (e) that there is difference in the statements recorded of the complainants & (f) the Government order dated 05.08.2019 which has been issued subsequent to the Control Order, 2016 gives the detailed procedure for cancellation of the fair price shop license has not been adhered to.

17. No other ground has been urged.

18. Elaborating his arguments, Sri Shukla argues that when the appeal was listed on 08.11.2022, the petitioner or his counsel could not appear and the appellate authority reserved the orders on the appeal and thereafter dismissed the appeal of the petitioner vide order dated 19.11.2022 and as the said order has been passed without hearing the petitioner the same would thus render the order to be in gross violation of the rules of natural justice and as such, the appellate order merits to be quashed on this ground alone.

19. The further argument is that the inquiry report on the basis of which the license of the petitioner has been cancelled, was never supplied to him and thus the order impugned merits to be set aside on account of the report with which the petitioner was never confronted with having been relied upon while passing the order impugned. Placing reliance on the Government order dated 05.08.2019, a copy of which is annexure 17 to the writ petition , the contention is that the said Government order contains a detailed procedure for holding of an inquiry against the license holder and as the petitioner was never accorded an opportunity of cross examining the complainants whose statements have been recorded neither the inquiry report was supplied to him as such, the order of cancellation of license of the petitioner would run foul to the provisions of rules of natural justice and accordingly, merits be quashed on this ground.

20. Reliance has been placed on the judgment of this Court in the cases of Amar Nath Vs. Commissioner, Lucknow Division and Ors passed in Writ-C No. 1001443 of 2007 decided on 19.12.2022, Writ-C No. 3407 of 2022 Inre: Amodnath Mishra Vs. State of U.P and ors decided on 30.11.2023 as well as a judgment of this Court in the case of Manoj Kumar Pathak Vs. State of U.P and Ors passed in Misc. Single No. 3739 of 2012 decided on 11.11.2014.

21. On the other hand, Sri Rahul Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing counsel on the basis of averments contained in the counter affidavit has argued that an inquiry report had been submitted by the Inquiry Officer wherein the statements of the witnesses were examined and the details given by the petitioner regarding supply were also examined as per the details available on the public portal through the MIS report. All the witnesses specifically indicated about less supply of food grains having been made by the petitioner despite the petitioner having taken their thumb impression on the e-pass machine which thus prevailed upon the competent authority to cancel the license of the petitioner. It is also contended that the appeal was required to be decided in terms of the directions issued by the writ Court but as the appeal was not decided, a contempt petition had also been filed indicating that despite expiry of the time prescribed by the writ Court, the appeal has not been decided. It is also contended that the appeal was listed on 18.11.2022 but neither the petitioner nor his counsel were present nor was there any request for adjournment and accordingly, the appellate authority, after considering the order passed in the writ Court dated 06.09.2022 as well as a contempt petition having been filed, reserved the orders on the appeal on 18.11.2022 and upon finding no merits in the appeal, dismissed the appeal vide order dated 19.11.2022.

22. The further argument of Sri Shukla is that a perusal of the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022 would indicate the gross irregularities carried out by the petitioner in supply of food grains to the ration cards holder and he not having made the complete supply rather has given lesser supply to the ration card holders and based on the said report, the competent authority has cancelled the license of the petitioner.

23. Reliance has also been placed on the Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Shankar Prasad Vs. State of U.P and Ors passed in Misc. Single No. 32679 of 2019 decided on 08.12.2021 on a reference made by the learned Single Judge of this Court noticing a cleavage of opinion in various decisions to contend that the Division Bench has categorically held that the inquiry envisaged for cancellation of a license in terms of a relevant Government orders is only summary in nature and not a detailed inquiry.

24. Placing reliance on the aforesaid judgment, Sri Shukla argues that as the charges against the petitioner have been proved after a summary enquiry consequently, there was no occasion to either supply of the inquiry report or for cross examination of the witnesses and as such, the orders impugned have correctly been passed in the eyes of law.

25. Heard the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the contesting parties and having perused the records.

26. From a perusal of records it emerges that the petitioner was having the license of a fair price shop. Initially, the license of the petitioner had been suspended on 10.09.2020. An FIR had also been lodged against the petitioner under Section 3/7 of the Essential Commodities Act. The petitioner had preferred an appeal aggrieved against the suspension order which was allowed vide order dated 05.12.2020 and the matter had been remitted to the competent authority to pass a fresh order. After considering the explanation of the petitioner and the inquiry report, the license of the petitioner was cancelled vide order dated 08.07.2021. The appeal filed by the petitioner against the said order was partly allowed vide order dated 31.08.2021 and the matter was remitted to the competent authority to pass a fresh order. While remitting the matter to the competent authority, the appellate authority has specifically required the competent authority to do two things namely to consider the distribution made by the petitioner as per the MIS report available on the public portal along with statements of the complainants and to pass a reasoned and speaking order after considering the same. Thus, the scope before the Prescribed Authority to pass a fresh order was only confined to the directions as had been given by the appellate authority vide its order dated 31.08.2021. Incidentally, the order dated 31.08.2021 has not been challenged by the petitioner at any stage and as such, the directions issued by the appellate authority have attained finality.

27. Considering the order of the appellate authority , the competent authority called for an inquiry report which was sent on 04.05.2022 against which the petitioner submitted his objections which occasioned another inquiry report to be submitted which was submitted on 21.05.2022 by the Additional Magistrate, Raibareilly. The said report specifically indicates about the statements of the witnesses being seen in the context of the supply as per MIS report available on the public portal from which the Inquiry Officer specifically concluded of lesser ration or in some cases no ration being made available to quite a large number of ration card holders. Incidentally, the report also indicates about the statement of the petitioner being recorded. The report also concluded that the petitioner made the ration card holders put their thumb on the e-pass machine for the purpose of showing the distribution but physically, lesser ration was distributed to the ration card holders. Based on the said report, the license of the petitioner was cancelled vide order dated 24.05.2022 which order has been upheld with the dismissal of the appeal vide order dated 19.11.2022.

28. The grounds taken by the learned counsel for the petitioner while raising a challenge to the orders impugned have already been indicated above. Prior to considering the grounds as raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner while raising a challenge to the order impugned, the Court may indicate the procedure which is required to be followed for the purpose of cancellation of a fair price shop license.

29. In this regard, it would be suffice to refer to the Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Shankar Prasad (supra) wherein this Court after referring to various Government orders that have been issued in this regard including the Uttar Pradesh Essential Commodities (Regulation of Sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016 has held as under:-

"47. Thus, we answer the reference as under:-

(i) It is held that the parameters for an enquiry to be conducted against the licensee for the irregularities committed by the licensee in terms of the Distribution of Essential Commodities is on broad principles of natural justice where the competent authority shall provide a show cause notice to the licensee indicating the violations and irregularities committed by the licensee with sufficient particularity to enable him to respond to the same and after affording an opportunity of hearing, the decision can be taken by the competent authority by a reasoned and a speaking order. The enquiry envisaged is summary in nature and does not entail a detailed hearing, akin to a departmental enquiry*;*

(ii) It is held that the words "full fledged enquiry" as used by the Full Bench of this Court in the decision of Puran Singh (supra) has to be read in context with paras 4 and 5 of the Government Order of July 2004 and the scheme therein which merely requires adherence to the principles of natural justice and does not provide for a detailed enquiry involving various stages and steps as are required to be met in disciplinary enquiry against a government servant."

30. From a perusal of the aforesaid judgment it is apparent that the Division Bench has categorically held that the parameters for an inquiry to be conducted against the license holder for the irregularities committed by the licensee is on broad principles of natural justice where a show cause Notice has to be issued to enable the licensee to respond to the same and after affording an opportunity of hearing, the decision has to be taken by the competent authority by a reasoned and speaking order and that the inquiry envisaged is summary in nature and does not entail a detailed hearing akin to a departmental inquiry.

31. The question which arises is as what is a summary inquiry or summary proceedings or an inquiry summary in nature.

32. In this regard, it would be apt to refer to the definition of summary proceedings as given in the Black's Law Dictionary, Ninth Edition which defines summary proceeding as under:-

"Summary Proceeding:- A nonjury proceeding that settles a controversy or dispose of a case in a relatively prompt and simple manner."

33. "Summary" has been defined in the Black's Law Dictionary, Ninth Edition as under:-

Summary:- 1. Short;concise  2. Without the usual formalities*;esp. without a jury. 3. Immediate; done without delay <the new weapon was put to summary use by the Military.*

34. From a perusal of the meaning of 'summary' and 'summary proceeding' as per the Black's Law Dictionary, it is apparent that summary proceedings would be proceedings without the usual formalities i.e proceedings to be done without any delay so as to settle a controversy or dispose of a case in a relatively prompt and simple manner and without the usual formalities.

35. Armed with the meaning of summary proceeding as per Black's Law Dictionary and the summary procedure required to be adopted as held by this Court in the case of Shankar Prasad (supra) it is apparent that there is no requirement while cancelling the license of a fair price shop holder to go in for a detailed inquiry i.e for cross examination of the complainants or the witnesses or for giving a copy of the inquiry report to the licensee for in case such a view is taken, the procedure prescribed would no longer remain summary and would be akin to a detailed inquiry which is clearly not contemplated under the Control Order, 2016 as interpreted and held by this Court in the case of Shankar Prasad (supra) .

36. Subsequent to the Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Shankar Prasad (supra) this aspect of the matter has also been considered by a co-ordinate bench of this Court in the case of Radhey Shyam Vs. State of U.P and Ors passed in Writ-C No. 22891 of 2019 decided on 16.02.2022 wherein this Court has held as under:-

"26. In the case of Smt. Meena Devi (supra), a coordinate Bench of this Court specifically held after considering the Full Bench decision of this Court in the case of Puran Singh (supra) that the licensee of a fair price shop is only an agent of the Government engaged for ensuring the equitable distribution and availability of the essential commodities at fair prices. The agent having signed the license/agreement is bound by the conditions mentioned therein including all such conditions which the Government chooses to impose during the currency of such license. A need for fairness in procedure adopted for suspension and cancellation of such license/agreement would not mean that these licenses fall within the category of a fundamental right to carry on the business as provided under Article 19(i)(g) of the Constitution of India. In the said judgment, judgments passed in the case of Ashok Kumari Tiwari (supra) and Sanjay Kumar (supra) have been distinguished in paragraphs 19 to 21, which read as under:-

"19. It is this observation of the Hon'ble Full Bench regarding the "fullfledged inquiry" after suspension order and show cause notice is issued, which has been interpreted by the Co-ordinate Benches of this Court to include giving a copy of inquiry report, copies of the statements of witnesses/villagers fixing date, time and place of hearing for such cross-examination as the licensee wishes to carryout of such villagers, besides examination of documentary evidence submitted by him, before the Licensing Authority can pass the order of cancellation.

20. The judgment rendered by the Full Bench of this Court was in reference to the questions referred to it. All observations made by the Full Bench in the aforecited judgments in Puran Singh (supra) are therefore to be taken into consideration in the context in which the reference was made and decided. The Full Bench decision of this Court had examined paragraphs-4 and 5 of the government order dated 29.07.2004 in the context of the reference made to it. The language of paragraph - 4 refers to full opportunity of hearing being given to the licensee in the inquiry to be conducted after suspension order is passed. The inquiry is to be completed within a maximum period of one month necessarily. The final order was to be passed by the Licensing Authority on merits after making a clear mention therein that the concerned licensee had been given opportunity of hearing and in case he did not co-operate in the inquiry, a mention was to be made of the notices served upon him including the notice giving the final opportunity in case he avoided the inquiry.

21. The Hon'ble Full Bench had referred to the object of issuing affair price shop license and appointing agents for distribution of essential commodities and had emphasized that a license is given for the benefit of ordinary citizens, the beneficiaries of the Public Distribution System."

27. In the aforesaid case, this Court has held that observation in paragraph 35 of the judgment in the case of Puran Singh (supra) that a full-fledged inquiry in the matter of misconduct of a licensee in distribution of scheduled commodities should be held, does not mean that full-fledged opportunity to the licensee to cross-examine the witnesses fixing, date, time and place of the inquiry etc. as provided in respect of disciplinary inquiry against Government servants.

28. Learned Single Judge in paragraph 50 of the aforesaid judgment had held that judgments rendered by a coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Gyan Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others, decided on 12.9.2012, Ashok Kumar Pandey Vs. State of U.P. and others, decided on 13.12.2012 and Abu Baker Vs. State of U.P. and others, 2010 (6) ADJ 339 were clearly per incuriam as no such provision exists in the Government Order dated 29.7.2004 for fixing date, place and time for inquiry/oral hearing and giving opportunity to the licensee to cross-examine the witnesses. Paragraphs 50 and 51 of the said judgment are extracted herein-below:-

"50. The judgment rendered by Coordinate Benches before the issuance of this order dated 16th October, 2014 Viz. Gyan Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others decided on 12.09.2012, in Ashok Kumar Pandey Vs. State of U.P. and others decided on 13.12.2012 on the basis of the judgment in Abu Baker Vs. State of U.P. and others, reported in 2010 (6) ADJ 339 decided on 23rd of February, 2010,which is the first judgment wherein relying upon D.K. Yadav Vs. J.M.A. Industries, (1999) 3 SCC 259 and National Building Construction Corporation Vs. S. Raghunathan: (1998) 7 SCC 66, the observation was made that the inquiry was vitiated because the statements of Cardholders were recorded behind the back of licensee and neither copies of the statements of the aforesaid witnesses was furnished to the petitioner nor he was given any opportunity to cross-examine the witness so examined, were clearly per incuriam as no such provision existed in the government order dated 29.07.2004 at the time for fixing date, place and time of inquiry/oral hearing and giving opportunity for the licensee to cross examine the witnesses/ complainants.

51. This Court is of the considered opinion that a fair price shop licence is only an agent for distribution of scheduled commodities under the Public Distribution System. Such a licensee being only an agent acts for the principal i.e. the Government with a fixed rate of commission on the amount of allocation of essential commodities and their distribution by weight. The Public Distribution System has been envisaged by the government only to help the poor and needy. It is honest tax-payer's money which is used to subsidize the price of such essential commodities so that they come within the reach of poor and needy and they are able to feed themselves and their family in a respectable fashion and are not led to mendicancy and starvation. The principal remaining the State Government, and the licensee being only an agent, the principal is entitled to take away the licence in case of irregularity in distribution. Of course, there should exist valid reasons for taking away of such licence and some opportunity of hearing is required to be given to the agent in case of complaints being received against him. However, there is no fundamental right nor any Constitutional right for such a licensee akin to Article 311 of the Constitution of India. Even in the case of government servants protected under Article 311 of the Constitution of India the degree of proof required for establishment of guilt is that of "preponderance of probability."

33. A coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Najakat Ali (supra) has held that after issuance of the Control Order, 2016, the earlier Government Orders of 2004, 2014 and 2015 stood repealed and would not occupy the field of laying down the procedure with respect to suspension and cancellation of the fair price shop. The entire procedure has been prescribed in the Control Order, 2016. Now, the inquiry is to be conducted by the designated officer regarding irregularities/malpractices of the dealer as per the provisions of sub-clause (7) of Clause 8 of the Control Order, 2016, which provides that if the license of the fair price shop is suspended, he has to be issued show cause notice and explanation/reply of the show cause notice is to be examined by an officer one rank above the inquiry officer. It has been further held that Puran Singh's (supra) judgment was delivered considering the Government Order dated 29.7.2004, which since has been repealed. In paragraphs 94 to 96, a coordinate Bench of this Court in the aforesaid case held as under:-

"94. As the existence of agent/dealer arise from the agreement executed between them and the State, any failure on their part or term of license being violated, the matter has to be dealt with by the authority within the scope and ambit of the Act/Control Order under which the same has been executed. The argument advanced that the petitioners have vested right is not correct as the license granted to a dealer/agent does not fall within the ambit of fundamental right to carry on their business, as provided under Article 19(1)(g) of the Constitution.

95. While dealing with the matter of suspension or cancellation of a license, the authority have to confine themselves to the violation of the condition of license and sub-clause (7) of Clause 8 of Control Order, 2016 protects the interest of agent/dealer by affording an opportunity once an inquiry is conducted and any material coming on record against the term of condition of license, the same being suspended and a show cause notice is to be issued seeking reply/explanation.

96. The principle of audi alteram partem is complied once the notice is issued and an opportunity is provided to a dealer/agent to submit his reply and the same being considered by the authorities. The claim that a full fledged inquiry be conducted providing opportunity of cross-examination of witness, copy of documents, complaint and consideration of subsequent affidavits, if filed in favour of the dealer, by the authorities cannot be accepted, as it is not a departmental or regular inquiry under Article 311of the Constitution of India and is only a inquiry of summary nature where in case of violation of terms of conditions of license, action is initiated and opportunity, as provided under the Control Order, 2016, is given before the license is cancelled."

34. It has been further held that under the Control Order, 2016, specific provision having been made for consideration of reply/explanation pursuant to the suspension, the requirement of audi alteram partem having been afforded to a dealer appointed under an agreement, can not claim that a regular inquiry to be conducted giving opportunity for examination of documents, cross-examination of witnesses, providing copy of the inquiry report and taking of affidavits, as provided under the departmental inquiry.

35. Thus, this Court does not find substance in the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner was not afforded full-fledged inquiry and opportunity of cross-examination etc. was not provided to him and, therefore, the order passed by the licensing authority and the appellate authority are bad in law. The authorities have to act in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-clause (7) of Clause 8 of the Control Order, 2016. The dealer does not have a vested right to carry on the license of fair price shop. The licensee is an agent of the Government and the distribution of the essential commodities from the fair price shop should be strictly in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license. Any violation of conditions, would result in proceedings for suspension and revocation of such license.

37. Now the Court proceeds to consider the arguments as raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

38. So far as the ground that the appellate authority has decided the appeal without hearing the petitioner is concerned, suffice it to state that the appellate authority while deciding the appeal had reserved the order on 18.11.2022. The order sheet of the said date is on record as annexure 21 to the writ petition which indicates that the case was repeatedly called out but no body appeared on behalf of the appellant, the petitioner herein. The appellate authority specifically made note of the order passed by the writ Court dated 06.09.2022 and of a contempt application being filed for compliance of the said order and as nobody appeared on behalf of the appellant, consequently, reserved the order in the appeal which has subsequently been pronounced on 19.11.2022. There is no endorsement in the order sheet dated 18.11.2022 of any request having been made by the junior colleague of the learned counsel for the appellant as specifically stated in paragraph 48 of the writ petition. Although it has been indicated that an application to argue the matter had been sent on 19.11.2022 through registered post yet by the said date the order had already been pronounced by the appellate authority. Thus, the said ground is rejected as the appellate authority under the order of the writ Court decided the matter within the specified time and in case the learned counsel for the appellant or the appellant himself failed to appear on the said date consequently, no error is found in the appellate authority having reserved the order on the said date in the absence of the appellant or his counsel.

39. So far as the copy of the inquiry report not having been supplied to the petitioner, this aspect of the matter has also been considered threadbare above. Once a summary procedure is to be adopted consequently, there is no occasion for supply of inquiry report to the license holder. Thus, the said ground is rejected.

40. So far as the ground that a final report had been submitted by the police in the case filed by the petitioner under the provisions of Section 3/7 of the Essential Commodities Act which was approved by the District Magistrate which fact should have been considered by the authorities while cancelling the license of the petitioner and while considering the appeal, the said ground may not detain the Court keeping in view the personal affidavit filed by the Principal Secretary, Food and Civil Supply, Lucknow dated 19.02.2024 wherein in paragraph 21 of the said affidavit it has been indicated that a protest has been filed by the Supply Inspector before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, Raibareilly which is pending before the competent Court. Thus, the said ground is also rejected.

41. So far as the ground that the District Magistrate had directed for formation of six member committee, as stands recorded in the report dated 21.05.2022 but the report has only been submitted by one person i.e the Additional District Magistrate, the ground may also not detain the Court keeping in view the order dated 16.01.2024 passed by this Court wherein the aforesaid contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner had been recorded and in pursuance thereof, the supplementary counter affidavit has been filed on 02.03.2023 indicating that the inquiry report was not submitted by the six officers rather the Additional District Magistrate required the six officers only for the purpose of helping out in the inquiry for examining the statements and not that the inquiry was required to be conducted by the other six officials and thus, the report submitted by the Additional District Magistrate did not bear the signatures of other six officials which explanation was found satisfactory as recorded by this Court in its order dated 16.01.2024. No objections having been filed to the said factum consequently, the ground raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner in this regard is also rejected.

42. So far as there being difference in the statements as recorded of the complainants, the Court is of the considered view that although the complaint of even one ration card holder would suffice where requisite food grains have not been made available to the citizens belonging to the bottom rung of the society yet the Court, as an abundant precaution, has painstakingly gone through the statements as find placed in the inquiry report dated 21.05.2022. A perusal of the said report would indicate that the statements of 32 complainants/witnesses have been seen wherein all have deposed of lesser supply of food grains, misbehavior by the license holder Sri Ray Sahab with various women card holders and despite the card holders putting their thumb on e-pass machine for supply of requisite food grains as per the number of units indicated in the ration card, lesser food grains were supplied. Thus, the said ground is also rejected.

43. So far as non adherence to the Government order dated 05.08.2019 is concerned, the Court has itself gone through the Government order which is filed as annexure 17 to the writ petition. The said Government order gives the procedure to be followed while cancelling or suspending the license. The said Government order nowhere provides for supply of the inquiry report to the license holder or for that matter cross examining all the complainants or the witnesses rather it provides for strict adherence to the time schedule of one month for completion of an inquiry against the license holder and for passing of a speaking order.

44. Perusal of the impugned order of cancellation dated 24.05.2022 would indicate that there has been strict adherence to the Government order dated 05.08.2019 inasmuch as the petitioner has been heard, the statements of the witnesses have been recorded as per inquiry report dated 21.05.2022 which have also been considered while cancelling the license of the petitioner by a speaking order. The competent authority has concluded that the petitioner has indulged in the irregularities and in this view of the matter, the license of the petitioner has been cancelled. Thus, when the order impugned dated 21.05.2022 is seen in the light of the Government order dated 05.08.2019, the Court records that there has been strict adherence to the said Government order.

45. So far as the judgments over which reliance has been placed by the learned counsel for the petitioner i.e Amodnath (supra) & Manoj Kumar Pathak (supra), suffice it to state that all the judgments have been rendered by the Single Judges of this Court which judgments would obviously have to give way to the Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Shanker Prasad (supra).

46. So far as the judgment of this Court in the case of Amar Nath (supra) is concerned per which Shanker Prasad (supra) has also been considered, suffice it to state that in the said case this Court had specifically concluded that the order of cancellation and rejection of appeal were orders based on extraneous grounds alien to the charges levelled against the petitioner and in this view of the matter the Court interfered. As already indicated above, this Court has examined all the grounds as have been raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner but none of the grounds have been found to be legally tenable in the eyes of law. The orders impugned, both of cancellation of the license and rejection of the appeal, are speaking order having been passed after considering in detail the inquiry report and reply of the petitioner after giving due opportunity of hearing to him.

47. Keeping in view the aforesaid discussion, no case for interference is made out. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1029
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 22.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ - C No. 9920 of 2023
Connected with
Writ – C No. 10640 of 2023

C/M Dr. Abdul Ali Tibbiya College And Hospital, Lko. & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Rajat Ranjan Singh, Adarsh Saxena, Vidhu Bhushan Kalia

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., A.S.G.I., Devak Vardhan, Umesh Singh

Civil Law - National Commission for Indian System of Medicine Act, 2020 – Sections 10 & 55 – National Commission for Indian System of Medicine (Minimum Standards of Undergraduate Ayurveda/Unani Education) Regulations, 2022 – Regulation 5(2) – NEET UG 2023-24 – Lowering of Minimum Percentile – Judicial Review – Article 226

The petitioners, Committees of Management of various Ayurvedic and Unani Colleges in Uttar Pradesh, sought a reduction in the minimum NEET UG 2023-24 percentile (by 10% and 15%) for admission to AYUSH UG Courses (BAMS and BUMS) and an extension of the admission deadline to fill vacant seats in their institutions for the academic session 2023-24. They argued that despite four rounds of counselling, many seats remained vacant, and cited precedents where percentiles were lowered for medical/dental/AYUSH courses, including a recent reduction to zero for PG medical/dental courses. They relied on Regulation 5(2)(ii) of the NCISM Regulations, 2022, which allows the NCISM, in consultation with the Central Government, to lower the minimum percentile if insufficient candidates meet the required marks. The NCISM countered that 83% of the 59,000 AYUSH seats were filled, with 12,44,686 candidates qualifying at the reduced 45th percentile (from 50th), and further reduction would compromise educational quality. Held: The court, exercising judicial review under Article 226, declined to interfere with the NCISM's policy decision to lower the percentile by only 5%, as it was a reasoned exercise of discretion by an expert body. The petitioners' claim of vacant seats did not justify further reduction, as the availability of 12.44 lakh qualified candidates far exceeded the available seats, and reasons for vacancies could be varie The court followed C/M Alpsankhyak Shiksha Vikas Samiti, Kanpur Vs St. of U.P. (2023 SCC OnLine ALL 80), which rejected similar pleas for 2022-23, and Modern Dental College & Research Centre Vs St. of Madhya Pradesh ((2016) 7 SCC 353), emphasizing that minimum standards ensure quality education. The Delhi High Court's ruling in Dr. Abhinav Kumar Vs U.O.I. (2022 SCC OnLine DEL 2241) was cited to underscore the societal risk of lowering standards, given the life-and-death implications of medical practice. Precedents of percentile reductions were distinguished as case-specific decisions by competent authorities, not binding for 2023-24. The Gujarat High Court's judgment was inapplicable due to differing St. regulations. With the admission deadline (30.11.2023) lapsed and classes commenced, the plea for extension was also rejecte However, the court urged NCISM to devise a pragmatic policy to address recurring seat vacancies while maintaining educational standards. Both writ petitions were dismisse

Case Law Cited:

1. C/M Alpsankhyak Shiksha Vikas Samiti, Kanpur Vs St. of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine ALL 80

2. Modern Dental College & Research Centre Vs St. of Madhya Pradesh, (2016) 7 SCC 353

3. Dr. Abhinav Kumar & ors. Vs U.O.I. & ors., 2022 SCC OnLine DEL 2241

4. Arogyam Association of Regional Ayush Colleges, Gujarat Vs Admission Committee for Professional Undergraduate Medical Educational Course, R/Special Civil Application No. 19485 of 2023, decided on 30.11.2023 (Guj. HC)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) Heard Shri Rajat Rajan Singh learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Vijay Kumar, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondent, Shri Umesh Singh, learned counsel for respondent No.2 and Shri Devak Vardhan learned counsel for respondent No.3.

(2) The above-captioned petitions came to be filed by the various Committee of Management of Ayurvedic and Unani Colleges in the State of Uttar Pradesh, primarily seeking filling of the vacant seats of their institutions by lowering the minimum percentile of National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (Undergraduate) (hereinafter referred to as 'NEET UG') 2023-24 declared for admission in AYUSH UG Courses i.e. Bachelor of Ayurvedic Medicine & Surgery (in short 'BAMS') and Bachelor of Unani Medicine & Surgery (in short 'BUMS'). These petitioners have also sought for extension of time for the last date of admission for these AYUSH UG Courses, wherein Writ-C No. 9920 of 2023 (Committee of Management, Dr. Abdul Ali Tibbiya College & Hospital & Others Vs State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors.) have been filed by almost seven Ayurvedic & Unani Institutions and Writ-C No. 10640 of 2023 has been filed by the Committee of Management, Sahararanpur Ayurvedic Medical College.

(3) Since common issue is engaging attention of this Court, wherein both these petitions have been filed, praying for lowering of the minimum percentile of NEET UG 2023-24 for admission in AYUSH Courses by 10% and 15%, respectively, for the session 2023-24, both these petitions have been heard together and as such are being disposed of by this common judgment.

(4) However, in order to appreciate the issue in its right perspective, the facts of Writ-C No. 9920 of 2023 is being curled out as a narrative to the present issue.

(5) In the said petition, it has been submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioners that petitioners No.1 to 7, except petitioner No.6, are Unani Medical Colleges and are duly approved by the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine (hereinafter referred to as 'NCISM') for imparting BUMS Course for the academic year 2023-24, whereas petitioner No.6 has been approved for BAMS for the said session. It has been contended that vide Government Order dated 18.08.2023, the State Government had notified for conducting counselling for BAMS and BUMS Courses on the basis of NEET UG 2023-24, wherein it was proposed to conduct four rounds of counselling i.e first, second, third and stray vacancy round for the filling up the seats of the institutions. Further, a list of participating institutions was also issued on 12.09.2023, which was updated on 26.10.2023 and the petitioners has contended that the counselling for academic session 2023-24 was held in the following manner :-

Stage of Counselling	Start date	End Date
First round of Counselling	08.09.2023	25.09.2023
Second round of Counselling	03.10.2023	10.10.2023
Third round of Counselling	26.10.2023	30.10.2023
Stray round of Counselling	03.11.2023	07.11.2023

(6) It has further been submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioners that although the stray round of counselling ended on 07.11.2023, however, the last date of admission for AYUSH Courses stood extended till 20.11.2023 by the NCISM. The hinge of the argument of the learned Counsel is that even after the conduct of four rounds of counselling, large numbers of seats are still vacant in these institutions and has, thus, sought for lowering the minimum percentile for AYUSH admissions by 10% for the current academic session 2023-24. The learned Counsel has tried to draw an analogy with the decision dated 20.09.2023 taken by the Central Government for PG Courses (Medical/Dental), wherein the Government taking cognizance of the fact that large number of PG seats were vacant, has reduced the minimum qualifying percentile to "zero" across all categories. Thus, it has been contended by the learned Counsel that although Medical/Dental Course are more specialized, superior, serious and difficult Courses than AYUSH Courses, the lowering of the minimum qualifying percentile to 'zero' should be treated as a good example for lowering the minimum percentile for the AYUSH Courses. The learned Counsel has further demonstrated and gave illustration of various instances, wherein the minimum percentile was lowered/reduced for various

Medical/Dental/AYUSH Courses, which can be capitulated in a tabular chart herein-below :

Academic Session	Course	Reduction of minimum percentile criteria
2021-22	NEET UG 2021 for AYUSH Courses	Reduction by 5% across all categories
2020-21	NEET UG 2020 for AYUSH Courses	Reduced from 50 percentile to 40 percentile for unreserved and 40 percentile to 30 percentile for OBC and SCT/ST
2022-23	NEET PG 2022 for MDS Courses	Reduction from 50 percentile to 24.286 percentile
2020-21	NEET PG	Reduction from 50 to 35 percentile

(7) The learned Counsel for the petitioners has drawn the attention of this Court to Regulation 5 (2) (ii) of the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine (Minimum Standards of Undergraduate Ayurveda Education) Regulations-2022 (hereinafter referred to as 'NCISM Regulation, 2022') which provides for discretionary power vested for lowering of the minimum marks required for admission to UG Program by the Central Government in consultation with the NCISM. According to him, although there exists a statutory empowerment in favour of the Central Government and NCISM for filling of vacant seats, however, for the academic session 2023-24, despite their being a large number of vacancies of seats even after the various rounds of counselling, there had been no decision by the NCISM/Central Government for lowering the minimum percentile of NEET for taking admission in AYUSH UG Course.

(8) The petitioners claimed to have send representation to the Secretary, NCISM, however, the same was without any success and according to them, the inaction on the part of the Central Government/ NCISM in not lowering the minimum percentile for admission in AYUSH Courses has left various seats vacant in the respective institutions, thereby infringing their fundamental rights as guaranteed under the Constitution of India.

(9) A bare perusal of the record of the petitions reveals that after the aforesaid writ petition was filed, notices were issued to the respondents and the matter was adjourned, wherein on one occasion, this Court even recorded the statement of the Counsel for the NCISM that the issue relating to lowering the minimum percentile of NEET-UG 2023-24 towards admission in AYUSH Course was under active consideration with the concerned authority.

(10) This Court has been informed that after the said adjournment, NCISM vide its letter dated 09.11.2023 has decided to lower the cut-off percentile by 5% across all categories for admission to UG and PG Courses and has also extended the last date of admission to 30th of November, 2023. It has been submitted that although, various institutions got their seats filled due to the aforesaid lowering of the percentile by the NCISM in the stray round of counselling, however, even as on date, there are number of vacant seats in these institutions and the cause for filing the present petition still survives. In fact, it has been submitted that the second petition being Writ-C No. 10640 of 2023 (Committee of Management, Saharaanpur Ayurvedic Medical College) has been filed after the said lowering of 5% by the NCISM. The petitioners have also relied on certain direction given in a judgment of the Gujrat High Court passed on 30.11.2023 in R/Special Civil Application No. 19485 of 2023 (Arogyam Association of Regional Ayush Colleges, Gujrat Vs Admission Committee for profession under graduate Medical Educational Course).

(11) On the other hand, NCISM have filed their counter affidavit refuting the claim of the petitioners, according to the data provided by them, about 11,45,976 were NEET Qualified students with 50 percentile for the present academic session 2023-24 and the said figure of qualified students increased to 12,44,686 by lowering the minimum criteria to 45 percentile. According to them, against the aforesaid 12.44 Lakhs qualified students, the permitted seats across various UG streams of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homeopathy was only 59000 seats and as such decreasing/lowering the percentile any further would not serve any purpose. According to him, there could be various reasons for these vacant seats and further lowering of percentile would lead to drastic quality of students joining the AYUSH Course, which would neither be good for the Institution/College nor the Society at large. He has contended that amongst the total available seats, 83% seats have been filled and 17% are vacant and as far as the State of Uttar Pradesh relating to UG Ayurveda is concerned, the total permitted seats were 6,993, against which 5732 are already occupied and 1261 is still vacant. He has also relied upon a judgment passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal No. 91 of 2023 (C/M Alpsankhyak Shiksha Vikas Samiti, Kanpur Vs. State of U.P & Others).

(12) The learned Counsel has argued that the process of admission by lowering minimum percentile cannot be an endless process as the same would result in half-baked doctors and in any case is a policy decision to be exercised by the concerned authority under the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine Act, 2020. The Gujrat High Court Judgment rendered in Arogyam Association of Regional Ayush Colleges, Gujrat (supra) has been distinguished on facts and on the existence of Rule 16 of Gujrat Professional Medical Educational Courses (Regulation of Admission in Undergraduate Courses) Rules, 2017 in the State of Gujrat and non-applicable in the State of Uttar Pradesh or across the country. According to him, it is the NCISM Regulation, 2022, which is the law regulating any admission in AYUSH Courses. Further, the learned Counsel has relied on an interim order dated 21.04.2023 passed by the Karnataka High Court at Dharwad in Writ Petition No. 101793/2023 to negate the relief of any further lowering of the pass percentile. It has been submitted that when NCISM has already exercised its powers for reducing the percentile across the UG and PG courses of AYUSH for the year 2023-24, there was no occasion or justifiable reasons for further lowering the percentile, especially when the last date of admission has already passed and the said process would lead to an endless process and would amount to compromising the medical standards of doctors in the country.

(13) Having regard to the contentions of the parties and going through the record available before this Court, it is required to be noted herein that the centrifugal issue to be dealt in these petitions encircles around the lowering of the minimum percentile of NEET UG 2023-24 declared as a pre-requisite for admission in AYUSH UG Courses (BAMS & BUMS).

(14) Apparently, National Commission for Indian System of Medicine Act, 2020 (hereinafter referred to as 'NCISM Act, 2020') was enacted to consolidate the prevailing law relating to admission to AYUSH Courses and with an objective to provide an appropriate medical education system that improves access to quality and affordable medical education and further ensures availability of adequate and high quality medical professionals of Indian System of Medicine in all parts of the country. The functions of the said Commission, as to be found in Section 10 of the NCIMS Act, 2020, inter alia relates to laying down policies for maintaining high quality and high standards in education in Indian System of Medicine and to make necessary regulations thereof. Further, Section 55 (1) of the NCISM Act, 2020 empowers the Commission to make regulations to carry out the provisions of the said Act. This Court has been informed that the Commission in exercise of its powers vested in it under sub-section (2) of Section 55 of NCIMS Act, 2020, has framed (i) National Commission for Indian System of Medicines (Minimum Standards of Undergraduate Ayurvedic Education) Regulations, 2022 and (ii) National Commission for Indian System of Medicines (Minimum Standards of Undergraduate Unani Education) Regulations, 2022, notified on 16.02.2022 and 28.02.2022, respectively.

(15) As per the scheme for making admissions available in the aforesaid two regulations, admissions to Undergraduate Courses in Ayurvedic and Unani Systems of Medicine are made through National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (NEET) which is to be conducted by an authority to be designated for the said purpose by the Commission. The authority designated for conducting the NEET by the Commission is National Board of Examination in Medical Science, New Delhi.

(16) For appreciating the contention of the petitioners, it would be relevant to note that Regulation 5 of the NCISM Regulation, 2022 prescribes the eligibility criteria for admission, wherein Regulation 5 (1) prescribes the educational eligibility and Regulation 5 (2) prescribes for the national eligibility-cum-entrance test. It is also required to be noted that Regulation 5 (2) of the NCIMS Regulation, 2022 inter-alia states the following :

"(2) National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test.-(i)There shall be a uniform entrance examination for all medical institutions at the under-graduate level, namely the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test (NEET) for admission to under-graduate programme in each academic year and shall be conducted by an authority designated by the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine.

(ii) In order to consider for admission to under-graduate programme for an academic year, it shall be necessary for a candidate to obtain minimum of marks at 50th percentile in the National Eligibility-cum- Entrance Test for under-graduate programme held for the said academic year:

Provided that in respect of-

(i) candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes, the minimum marks shall at 40th percentile;

(ii) candidates with specified disabilities under the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 (49 of 2016) the minimum marks shall be at 45th percentile in the case of general category and 40th percentile in the case of the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes:

Provided further that where sufficient number of candidates in the respective category fail to secure minimum marks in the National Eligibility - cum - Entrance Test held for any academic year for admission to undergraduate programme, the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine in consultation with the Central Government may at its discretion lower the minimum marks required for admission to undergraduate programme for candidates belonging to respective category and marks so lowered by the Central Government shall be applicable for that academic year only."

(17) There is no gainsaying that although the aforesaid Regulation make it obligatory as a pre-requisite for a candidate to obtain a minimum of marks at 50th percentile in the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test for under-graduate programme held for the said academic year to come within the consideration zone for admission to AYUSH Courses, however, the proviso also provides that in case, sufficient number of candidates in the respective category failed to secure minimum marks in the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test held for any academic year for admission to undergraduate programme, the NCISM in consultation with the Central Government may lower the minimum marks required for admission to undergraduate programme for candidates belonging to the respective category.

(18) The phrase "sufficient number of candidates" in the respective category is of special importance as the non-availability of the said sufficient number of candidates failing to secure the minimum marks in NEET is the triggering point for consultation between the NCISM and the Central Government to lower the minimum marks required for admission to the AYUSH UG Courses. As far as the academic session 2023-24 is concerned, the data as quoted by the learned counsel appearing for NCISM reveals that about 11,45,976 candidates were found to be NEET Qualified students with 50 percentiles against the total available seats across various UG streams of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homeopathy to be 59000 seats. This Court finds that the said data can never be an indication to the ratio between the number of candidates with 50 percentiles vis-à-vis the number of available seats for AYUSH Courses, as NEET is also used for admission to various Medical Courses including MBSS, BDS etc. Apparently, it is not the case of the petitioners that sufficient number of candidates could not secure the minimum percentile of 50 for the present year, rather it is the case of the petitioners that sufficient number of candidates are not available for taking the AYUSH Courses within the said period and that for that reasons, they are seeking the indulgence of this Court for lowering of the minimum percentile.

(19) However, this Court finds that during the pendency of the present writ petitions, the NCISM in consultation with the Central Government, keeping in view the proviso to Regulation 5 (b) has lowered the minimum percentile across all category by 5%, which has not only reduced the minimum percentile for admission to AYUSH Courses to 45% but has also brought almost about one lakhs more candidates within the eligibility zone for consideration of admission to these AYUSH Courses.

(20) Having recorded so, the moot point is as to whether this Court, while exercising its power of Judicial review under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, can further lower the minimum percentile, so as to enable the petitioners' college to fill their unfilled seats for the present academic session 2023-24. A Division Bench of this Court in an identical situation had examined the issue for reducing the percentile criteria for admission to BUMS and BAMS Courses for the academic session 2022-23, which had been refused. The Hon'ble Division Bench in the said case, reported as C/M Alpsankhyak Shiksha Vikas Samiti, Kanpur Vs State of U.P & Others : 2023 SCC Online ALL 80, while upholding the decision of the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, had been pleased to hold inter-alia as under :

"31. If we further examine the reason given by the Commission in the order dated 02.03.2023 in the light of undisputed fact that though NEET UG carries 715 maximum marks and the cut-off marks for general category candidates has been fixed at 117 and those for reserved category has been fixed to be 93, though this Court is not expert in such matters, however, we have no reason to disagree with the Commission's view that further lowering the cut-off marks will not be conducive for the purpose for which NEET is organized i.e. to select the best of the candidates to pursue medical courses in Indian systems of medicine.

32. The submission made on behalf of the appellants-petitioners that there exists non-availability of the candidates and because of their non-availability seats in their institutions remained unfilled also does not impress us for the simple reason that the total available candidates on the basis of existing cut of percentile are 9,93,069 whereas the total number of seats to be filled in all streams of the undergraduate courses is only 2 lakhs. Accordingly, the possibility of available candidates who are credited with more percentile than the cut-off percentile having not opted for the institutes run by the appellant-petitioners, cannot be denied.

33. For the discussion made and the reasons given above we do not find any good ground to interfere with the order passed by the learned Single Judge. Resultantly special appeal is dismissed."

(21) This Court further finds that the grounds taken by the learned Counsel for the petitioners seeking lowering of the minimum percentile for the present academic session 2023-24, is identical to the grounds, which had not found favour with the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court for the academic year 2022. In any case, even if the said grounds are independently viewed de hors the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court for the session 2022, this Court finds that the argument of the learned counsel for the petitioners seeking lowering of the minimum percentile, is basically on two folds; the first being large number of vacant seats are available in AYUSH Colleges and the second being there are numbers of precedents, wherein the percentile have been reduced on several occasion earlier.

(22) As far as the first limb of argument is concerned, as per proviso to Regulation 5 (b) of the NCISM Regulation, 2022, a discretion is vested with the NCISM in consultation with the Central Government to lower the minimum percentile, in case of a situation where there are insufficient number of candidates in the respective categories, who have failed to secure minimum marks in the National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test. This Court finds that the NCISM has already exercising its discretion as aforesaid has lowered the minimum percentile by 5% for the present academic session leading to increase of candidates from 11,45,976 to 12,44,686 against the total availability of AYUSH seats of 59,000. The contention of the petitioners that even after the said increase of candidates, there are still vacant seats lying in their college and as such the lowering of the percentile should ought to have commensurate to the vacancies to be filled in their Colleges, is an argument of convenience and cannot be accepted as has been rightly pointed out by the learned counsel for the respondents that there might be several reasons for these seats remaining vacant.

(23) Apparently, this Court also does not find the reasons suggested by the learned counsel to be a factor for exercising the discretion vested with the NCISM to lower the minimum percentile. The discretion exercised by the NCISM in consultation with the Central Government for lowering the minimum percentile by 5% for the instant academic session, is a matter of policy decision and discretion exercised by an expert body, who are specialist in their field. Thus, the interference of writ Courts on policy decision ought to be minimal. Further, no ground has been agitated by the petitioners that the lowering of the minimum percentile by 5% is arbitrary. The only ground taken by the learned Counsel is the availability of vacant seats, which cannot be a ground for further lowering of the minimum percentile as has been held in various precedents, including by the decision of Division Bench of this Court rendered in C/M Alpsankhyak Shiksha Vikas Samiti, Kanpur (supra).

(24) Further, it is pertinent to mention that prescribing a minimum percentile is an eligibility criteria laid down for admissions to academic and professional courses and is exclusively in the realms of experts and it has to be understood that the NCISM being a specialized and expert agency has been bestowed with the power to maintain high quality and high standards of education in Indian System of Medicine. The Apex Court with respect to NMC, a body constituted on similar lines for MBBS courses as NCISM, having been constituted for Ayush Courses, has held in the case of Modern Dental College & Research Centre v. State of Madhya Pradesh : (2016) 7 SCC 353, that the objective in prescribing minimum standards is to provide a benchmark of the caliber and quality of education being imparted by various educational institutions in the entire country. Thus, the standards of education are directly linked to the norms of admissions/selection process, and National Medical Commission is certainly competent to determine such standards and to regulate the admission process as well as the admission criteria. The said findings of the Hon'ble Apex Court apply in equal force even to NCISM.

(25) Time and again, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that lack of minimum standards would result in half-baked doctors and non-availability of eligible candidates could not be a reason to lower the standard. A Division bench of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court, while adjudicating the issue as to whether Regulation 9 (3) of the Postgraduate Medical Education (Amendment) Regulations, 2018 to the extent that it provided for minimum marks of 50 percentile as a mandatory requirement for admission to postgraduate courses should be quashed on the ground that the said requirement is arbitrary, unjustified and contrary to Article 14, Article 19 (1)(g) and Article 21 of the Constitution of India, held in the case reported as Dr. Abhinav Kumar & Ors. V/s Union of India & Ors. : 2022 SCC Online DEL 2241, as herein below:

"In the light of the above observations, this Court emphasizes that the lowering of the standards of medical education has the potential of wreaking havoc on society at large due to the risk that practice of medicine entails; it involves in its ambit the matter of life and death, and therefore, it would be unconscionable for this Court to interfere in the standards duly and diligently set by the governing authority. This Court, therefore, cannot issue a mandamus directing the Respondents to fill up the seats, especially when the persons concerned have not obtained the minimum percentile as this Court is dealing with admissions to postgraduate courses in various medical colleges, and there cannot be any compromise on the issue of quality of doctors/specialists as it involves a risk to human lives. Resultantly, no case for interference is made out in the matter.

(26) In any case, as the competent authority has already exercised its discretionary power and reduced the minimum marks by 5 percentiles, directing it to reduce it further would be nothing short of interfering in the affairs of the academic bodies, which are experts and specialised in their own fields and are in a better position to strike a balance between the filling of vacant seats in respective college vis-a-vis the societal requirement of quality health care. Thus, this Court does not find any ground to substitute the discretion already exercised by the NCISM in consultation with the Central Government for further lowering of the minimum percentile for admission to AYUSH Courses for the present academic year 2023-24.

(27) Further, as regards the availability of various precedents, wherein the minimum percentile has been reduced is concerned, it has to be noted that in all the cases, it is the competent authority, who had come to the rescue and had exercised their discretion in lowering the minimum percentile. In any case, the said exercise has to be on case to case and year to year basis and cannot be treated as precedence or a thumb rule as it would defeat the very purpose for which these eligibility criteria have been prescribed to maintain the medical standards. Moreover, the said precedence has to be viewed keeping in mind that as far as the present case is concerned, the authorities have already lowered the minimum percentile by 5% and are resisting any further reduction in the minimum percentile for the present academic session 2023-24. Additionally, this Court has been informed that the last date for all admission has lapsed on 30.11.2023 and the classes for all AYUSH Classes have already been started. Thus, this Court finds the reliance of the learned counsel for the petitioners on earlier precedence to be unfounded and meritless.

(28) Since, this Court is of the considered view that no directions for further lowering of the minimum percentile can be granted, the other consequential prayer for extending the time for completion of admission for AYUSH Courses is also rejected.

(29) In view of the aforesaid observation and discussion, this Court is of the opinion that no case for lowering of the minimum percentile beyond the already lowered percentile by the authority is possible as the same would result in frustrating the very purpose of prescription of minimum eligibility criteria. Further, this Court finds that prescription of minimum eligibility criteria is in the overall public interest to maintain the standard of education in the field of AYUSH, especially when these days AYUSH is perceived as one of the most ancient well documented system of medicine, wherein prominence to prevention of disease is given rather than cure and there is a dearth of well trained and well qualified AYUSH doctors in the country.

(30) Although, this Court has refrained from lowering the minimum percentile for admission for the academic session 2023-24, however, this Court hope and trust that NCISM should be alive to the perennial problem of these precious medical seats remaining vacant for each academic year and appreciate that vacancy of these seats in a particular year leads to vacancy of these seats for five successive years in a row, which is a national loss, hence NCISM may look into these issues and if it deem fit, may frame a policy in consultation with the Central Government and all the stake holders to ensure that minimum seats goes vacant by prescribing for a more pragmatic and scientific mechanism for exercising the discretionary power of lowering the minimum percentile by balancing the ambitious objective of maintaining the standard of education vis-à-vis the number of seats going vacant each year.

(31) For all the reasons as stated herein above and subject to the observation made by this Court, the above-captioned writ petitions are dismissed. There shall be no order as to cost.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1039
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK CHAUDHARY, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ - C No. 11383 of 2023
Along With
Writ – C No. 514 of 2024
And other connected cases

Syed Hamidul Bari ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Kazim Ibrahim, Amrit Khare

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Pushpila Bisht, Ratnesh Chandra, Ruchir

Civil Law - U.P. Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1962 – Section 2(i) – U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 – Section 27 – Principles of Natural Justice – Public Trust Doctrine – Slum Dwellers – Illegal Encroachment – Article 226

The petitioners, 25 individuals claiming to be slum dwellers of Akbar Nagar (I) and (II), Lucknow, challenged proceedings under the U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973, seeking to protect their alleged slum properties, primarily furniture showrooms/workshops on St.-owned land along the Lucknow-Faizabad Roa They obtained interim stay orders by representing themselves as poor slum dwellers, but evidence revealed they were affluent, filing GST and income tax returns, owning properties in posh Lucknow areas, and having constructed large, unauthorized commercial structures. The court segregated their cases from genuine slum dwellers due to their misrepresentation. Held: The petitioners did not qualify as slum dwellers under the U.P. Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1962, or common parlance, as their properties were not in unhygienic, substandard conditions typical of slums, being located on a main road with municipal facilities. The term "slum" implies areas inhabited by the poor in squalid conditions, as per S. Sivaprakasa Mudaliar Vs St. of Madras (AIR 1964 Madras 115) and dictionary definitions. The petitioners' commercial establishments, built illegally on government land, did not entitle them to protections meant for impoverished slum dwellers. Their claim under the 1962 Act and the 2021 Slum Policy, which do not explicitly require poverty, was rejected, as common sense and the purpose of slum legislation prioritize aiding the underprivilege The court found no violation of natural justice in the proceedings under Section 27 of the 1973 Act, as per St. of U.P. Vs Sudhir Kumar ((2021) 19 SCC 706), since admitted facts (illegal constructions, tax filings, and property ownership) left no prejudice from procedural lapses, and only one conclusion—illegality—was possible. The Supreme Court's caution in Almitra H. Patel Vs U.O.I. ((2000) 2 SCC 679) against rewarding encroachers was applied, noting the petitioners' actions as organized land-grabbing. The court dismissed the writ petitions, finding no basis for discretionary relief under Article 226, and discharged interim orders. The cases of genuine slum dwellers were to be considered separately.

Case Law Cited:

1. S. Sivaprakasa Mudaliar Vs St. of Madras, AIR 1964 Madras 115

2. St. of U.P. Vs Sudhir Kumar, (2021) 19 SCC 706

3. Almitra H. Patel Vs U.O.I., (2000) 2 SCC 679

4. Olga Tellis Vs Bombay Municipal Corporation, (1985) 3 SCC 545

5. Executive Engineer, Southern Electricity Supply Company of Orissa Lt Vs Sri Seetaram Rice Mill, (2012) 2 SCC 108

6. Dhian Singh Sobha Singh Vs U.O.I., AIR 1958 SC 274

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Chaudhary, J.
&
Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

1. These are 24 writ petitions out of which 22 are filed by individual petitioners and two writ petitions namely Writ-C No.642 of 2024 and Writ-C No.527 of 2024 are filed by 10 and 9 petitioners respectively. Out of them Mohd. Shafeek-Petitioner no.1 and Smt. Shahana-Petitioner No.5 in Writ-C No.642 of 2024 and Abdulla-Petitioner No.6 in Writ-C No.527 of 2024 are involved in present bunch of writ petitions. These 25 petitioners relate to large bunch of writ petitions regarding slum known as Akbar Nagar (I) and (II), Lucknow. The said slum situates along the sides of Kukrail river/nala and falls much inside the city. Petitioners, persons of resources, claiming themselves as slum dwellers, obtained stay orders from the High Court and also attempted to be heard along with actual poor slum dwellers. It was only during course of the argument, that this Court came to know that they actually have illegally occupied large pieces of land of State Government and raised multi-story furniture showrooms/workshops on the main Lucknow-Faizabad Road, or immediately at the back of first row of showrooms, are filing their GST and income tax returns and mostly are living in their own houses in posh or well developed, old settled residential areas/colonies of Lucknow and in most of the cases also owning other properties.

2. Looking into their GST and income tax returns, location and size of the land occupied and constructions raised by them and also other properties owned by them, their cases are segregated from the main bunch of actual poor slum dwellers and slum areas. Before coming to the submissions of counsel for the parties, the chart, provided by the petitioners on directions of this court, and also added to by the respondents, regarding the GST and income tax returns, area occupied, constructions raised, and other properties owned by these petitioners is as follows:-

Sr. No.	Writ C No.	Name	Nature of building occupied	GST Returns	Income Tax Returns (Total Income)	Land unauthorizedly occupied and total constructed area	Other properties
1.	11383/ 2023	Syed Hamidul Bari husband of Najma (petitioner of writ petition at Sl. No.2)	Commercial Samrat Furniture Manufacturing Shop & Ors.	Rs. 2,29,89,900/ - approx (2022-23)	Rs. 10,00,870/- (2023-24)	1800 sq.ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor+Second Floor 4x1800 sq. ft.=7200 sq. ft.	A. Residing at 536/2/198, new madhganj, near avadh school, mizapur road, Lucknow where he is residing with his family; B. Godown located at Harshita Complex, Faizabad Road, Lucknow. C. Ancestral agricultural land in ancestral village at Rashki majhari, Uraula, District- Balrampur
2.	514/20 24	Najma Bano wife of Syed Hamidul Bari (petitioner of writ petition at sl. no.1)	Commercial Samrat Furniture Manufacturing Shop & Ors.	Rs. 1,43,09,235/ - approx (2022-23)	Rs. 5,29,970/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,95,900/- (2023-24)	1500 Sq. ft. (Ground Floor + First Floor) 1500x2=3000 sq. ft.)	Owns a shop located at Harshita Complex, Faizabad Road, Lucknow with an area of around 200 sq. ft.
3.	11484/ 2023	Sabiha Kaisar	Commercial	Rs. 1,11,02,395/- 73 approx (2022-23) Rs. 72,73,475.1 9 approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,85,550/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,28,710/- (2023-24)	1100 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor 3x1100 sq. ft. =3300 sq. ft.	A plot of Land at Madiaon, Tehsil- BKT admeasuring 1600 sq. ft.
4.	11244/ 2023	Suhail Haider Alvi	Commercial M/s Taj Mahal Furniture	Rs. 90,29,089.7 5 approx (2022-23)	Rs. 7,80,000/-	2000 sq. ft. Basement+ Ground Floor+First Floor 3x2000 sq. ft. =6000 sq. ft.	A. Share in ancestral property located at 41, Pragati Vihar, Priyadharshini, Lucknow B. Flat No.B-102, Shalimar, Gallant, Mahanagar.
5.	11477/ 2023	Arshad Warsi	Commercial	Rs. 58,96,916/- approx (2021-22) Rs. 1,06,73,467/ - approx (2022-23)	Rs. 4,96,150/-	2000 sq.ft. Basement+ Ground Floor+First Floor 3x2000 sq. ft.= 6,000 sq. ft.	A. under construction on plot of land at Hasanan, Malhour admeasuring 1250 sq. ft. B. Share in ancestral property admeasuring 1600 sq. ft. and agricultural land admeasuring 7 Bigha in District Kaiganj.
6.	11360/ 2023	Mohd Naushad brother of petitioner in writ petition at sl. 7	Commercial	Rs. 72,15,583/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 55,68,437.1 2 approx (2023-24)	4,94,890/- (2022-23) 4,97,570/- (2023-24)	2,000 sq. ft. (400 sq.ft. Of Mohd Abrar + 1600 sq. ft. of himself holding together) (Basement + Ground Floor) 2x2000=4000 sq. ft.	LIG House in the name of her wife at L-2/644, Vineet Khand Gomti Nagar, Admeasuring 546 sq.ft.
7.	11362/ 2023	Mohd Abrar brother of petitioner in writ petition at sl. 6	Commercial (Shop Merged with brother, no longer in Akbar Nagar)	Rs. 68,61,384/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 41,25,584/- approx (2023-24)	4,80,470/- (2022-23) 4,81,000/- (2023-24)	400 sq. ft Rs. 45,67,519/- approx (2023-24)	A. A shop in Nishaganj located on 500 sq. ft. ; B. A small flat in IMT Building, New Hyderabad, Lucknow located on 950 Sq. ft., by way of a housing loan for 15 years.
8.	642/20 24	Mohd. Shafeek Khan Petitioner No. 1 Husband of Petitioner No.5 Shahana	Commercial cum Residential M/s M.R. Uniform	Rs. 45,67,519/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,97,360/- (2023-24)	540 sq. ft. Ground Floor + First Floor + Second Floor 3x540 sq. ft.= 1620 sq. ft.	Petitioner No.1 owns two plot one at Fatima Colony, Husainabad, admeasuring about 680 sq. ft. and other at Nizampur Malhour measuring 1600 sq. ft. (owns total 2280 sq. ft.)
9.	11480/ 2023	Irshad Ali	Commercial	Rs. 10,06,834/- approx (2022-23)	Rs. 4,98,590/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,94,100 (2023-24)	2,000 sq. ft. (Basement + Ground Floor) 2x2000 sq. ft.=4000 sq. ft.	Ghasiyari Living in Ancestral Property, details of which are not provided.
10.	738/20 24	Fazeel Ahmad	Commercial cum Residential	Rs. 13,14,515/- approx (2021-22) Rs 14,53,009/- approx (2022-23)	Rs. 4,20,650/- (2022-23) Rs 4,86,760/- (2023-24)	1100 sq.ft. (Basement + Ground Floor) 2x1100 sq. ft= 2200 sq. ft.	None
11.	11258/ 2023	Shakeel Ahmed	Commercial	Rs. 6,96,809/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 3,42,000/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,89,560/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,54,080/- (2023-24)	750 sq.ft. (Basement + Ground Floor) 2x750sq. ft. =1500 sq. ft.	Petitioner is currently residing at 234/05, Thawai Tola, Raja Bazaar, Lucknow – 226003, which is owned by his wife
12.	11368/ 2023	Mohd. Saif Khan)	Commercial (Firm registered in the name of father Mr. Mohd Israr	Rs. 5,99,439.38 approx (2017-18) Rs. 3,00,053.94 approx (2018-19)	Rs. 2,92,950/- (2017-18) Rs. 3,09,320/- (2018-19) Rs. 55,945/- (2019-20)	2900 sq. ft. (Basement + Ground Floor) + First Floor) 2x2900 sq. ft. =5800 sq. ft.	Residential details are not given
13.	11372/ 2023	Nameera Khan	Commercial given on rent by her	NA	Rs. 7,03,051/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,37,960/- (2023-24)	1800 Sq. ft. (Basement + Ground Floor + First Floor) 3x1800 sq. ft. =5400 sq. ft.	A-402, Indira Nagar, Lucknow-226016, Late husband joint family house
14.	739/20 24	Syed Mahmood Ali	Commercial	Rs. 14,97,129/- approx (2022-23)	Rs. 7,49,140/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,37,360/- (2023-24)	750 sq.ft. Basement+Ground Floor 2x750 sq. ft.=1400 sq. ft.	Plot of land at Madiaon, Tehsil - BKT admeasuring 1600 sq. ft.
15.	11375/ 2023	Vishnu swaroop Chaurasia	Commercial	Rs. 16,66,800/- approx (2021-22) Rs. 27,45,600/- approx (2022-23)	Rs. 3,73,180/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,39,980/- (2023-24)	770 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor 3x770 sq. ft.=2310 sq. ft.	Parental House in Ram Tirth Marg, Narhai, Hazratganj
16.	11468/ 2023	Mohd. Shoaib Ali	Commercial	Rs. 8,86,412/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 80,602/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,96,500/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,90,190/- (2023-24)	1200 sq. ft. Ground Floor+First Floor 2x1200 sq. ft.=2400 sq. ft.	Residing in parental house in Ghasiyari mandi, Kaisrbagh
17.	11482/ 2023	Adil Ishtiaq	Commercial	Rs. 8,39,807/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 2,92,576/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,92,010/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,23,930/- (2023-24)	1100sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor 2x1100 sq. ft.=2200 sq. ft.	Residing in parental house in Ghasiyari mandi, Kaisrbagh
18.	11481/ 2023	Mohd. Abubakar	Commercial cum residential	Rs. 1,65,669/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 2,20627/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,77,980/-	600 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor 3x600 sq. ft. =1800 sq. ft.	Share in ancestral agricultural land along with his brother admeasuring around 1 Bigha at village- Umrah, Kursi, District- Barabanki
19	11492/ 2023	Mohd. Adil	Commercial M/s Bombay Furniture and Interior Decorator	Rs. 55,04,000/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 29,71,460/- Approx (2023-24)	Rs. 3,46,390/- (2022-23) Rs. 4,59,030/- (2023-24)	1800 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor 3x1800 sq. ft.=5400 sq. ft	Parental House R/O Old Haidergan), Chowk, Lucknow
20.	729/20 24	Rehan Ali	Commercial Cum House Stamp Manufacturer	Rs. 1,00,378/- approx (2023-24)	Rs. 4,86,140/- approx(202 3-24) Rs. 4,70,200/-	300 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor 2x300 sq.t. =600 sq. ft.	A semi constructed house at Khurram Nagar admeasuring about 1800 sq.ft.
21.	11380/ 2023	Deepak Chaurasia	Commercial	Zero GST Closed in the year 2019	Rs. 4,42,700/- (2023-24) Rs. 4,60,040/- (2022-23)	1200 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor 2x1200 sq. ft.=2400 sq. t.	A Semi finished housed of 1365 sq. ft., at 9-C/249, Vrindavan Yojana, Lucknow
22.	792/20 24	Mohd. Anwar	Commercial cum Residential Coffee Shop	Rs. 17,32,610/- approx (2022-23) Rs. 2,47,940/- approx (2021-22)	Rs 4,11,220/- (2021-22) Rs. 4,17,470/- (2022-23)	900 sq. ft. Ground Floor	None
23.	494/24	Mohd. Parvez Khan	Commercial cum Residential	Rs. Rs.5,35,007/ - approx (2020-21) Rs. 4,23,106/- approx (2021-2022) Rs. 12,34,602/- approx (2022-23)	Rs 2,12,020/- (2022-23) 3,37,340/- (2023-24)	180 sq. ft. Basement+Ground Floor+First Floor 3x180 Sq. ft. =540 sq. ft.	None
24.	527/20 24	Abdulla- Petitioner No.6	Commercial	Rs.49,960/- approx (2022-23) Rs.40,800/- approx (2023-24)	NA	200 sq. ft. Ground Floor+ First Floor 2x200=400 sq. ft.	Residential detail are not given

3. In the said background, Mr. Sudeep Kumar, Advocate, Sri Anuj Kudesia, Advocate assisted by Sri Ratnesh Chandra, Advocate for the respondent, Lucknow Development Authority, as well as learned Chief Standing Counsel strongly raise preliminary objection, that, these persons are neither slum dwellers nor their properties fall in the category of a slum. They state that by concealing the aforesaid correct facts, with regard to their status, the location and nature of construction and the area occupied by them, they have, by giving false impression to the Court, obtained interim orders on parity. It was incumbent upon them to have approached this Court with clean hands, providing entire details about their status. They have wrongly represented before this Court as poor landless slum dwellers and in the garb thereof are trying to save their huge, illegal and unauthorised constructions on the government land.

4. Attention of this Court is also drawn with regard to case of Sayed Hamidul Bari & Najma who are husband and wife and have occupied two separate plots of land and are running two separate businesses and have filed two petitions being Writ-C No.11383 of 2023 and Writ-C No.514 of 2024 (at Sl. 1 & 2 in the chart). Similarly, Shafeeq and Shahana, petitioner no.1 and 5 of Writ-C No.642 of 2024 (Sl. No.8 in chart) are husband and wife and have made their two separate claims. However they have not provided details of separate properties occupied by them. Similarly, Naushad and Abrar (Sl No.6 and 7 in the chart) are two real brothers, have occupied two separate properties and have filed two separate petitions being Writ-C No.11360 of 2023 and Writ-C No.11362 of 2023 who now claim that they have merged their shops and entire property is owned by one of the brothers. Nameera Khan, petitioner in Writ-C No.11372 of 2023 (Sl. no.13 in chart) has rented out her illegally constructed showroom while herself lives in posh Indira Nagar, Colony, Lucknow.

5. In support of their case respondents have placed reliance upon the judgment in the case of S. Sivaprakasa Mudaliar Vs. The State of Madras; AIR 1964 Madras 115. Relevant portion of the same reads :-

"11.....The expression "slum dwellers though in popular parlance has acquired some special meaning, namely, those who are economically and socially backward and who huddle themselves together in openings in unhealthy surroundings, the term as such has no such technical meaning. The word "slum" in its, true import means a "street or alley situate in a crowded district of a town or city and inhabited by people of in low class or by the poor". It may be that in some cases the slum area may be a thickly populated one and of a squalid and wretched character, but essentially the word slum is of wide import including within it a crowded place in a city inhabited by the poor....." (emphasis added)

6. Mr. Jaideep Narain Mathur, Senior Advocate assisted by Mr. Apoorva Tewari, Ms. Aishvarya Mathur, Mr. Amrit Khare and Mr. Kazim Ibrahim is leading arguments for petitioners. He submits that it is not necessary for a slum dweller to be a poor person. Anyone from the slum areas can be a slum dweller, whether he is living there or is running his commercial activities in that area. Since petitioners are running their commercial activities in the said Akbar Nagar area they would fall within the definition of slum dweller. Mr. Mathur submits that the concept of rich and poor has nothing to do either with slum or slum areas. He submits that it is the U.P. Slum Areas (Improvement and Clearance) Act, 1962 which applies and hence, we should look at the said Act to understand these terms. He refers to Section 2(i) of the Act of 1962 and Clause 4(1) of the Policy dated 29.10.2021 issued under the said Act which defines the term 'Slum'. The same read:-

"2(i) Slum area means an area declared as such under Section 3;"

4. परिभाषा-

इस नीति में, जब तक संदर्भ से अन्यथा अपेक्षित न हो, निम्नलिखित शब्दों के वही अर्थ होंगे, जो निम्नवत परिभाषित किये गये हैः-

1. मलिन बस्ती (स्लम) का अभिप्राय उत्तर प्रदेश मलिन बस्ती क्षेत्र (सुधार और निपातन) अधिनियम, 1962 की धारा-3 के अनुसार परिभाषित स्लम से है, जिसमें ऐसी बस्तियां सम्मलित होंगी, जहाँ स्वच्छता, स्वास्थ्य, सुरक्षा, सड़क आदि का समुचित व्यवस्था न हो

तथा मानव निवास के लिए अनुपयुक्त हो। इस नीति के अन्तर्गत ऐसे स्लम मान्य होगें, जिनमें न्यूनतम 300 व्यक्ति हों।

7. He submits that neither of the said definitions uses the word 'poor' with regard to a sum dweller or slum area. Therefore, the concept of poor and rich is wrongly being applied. He submits that it is very much possible that a person may earn money with time and become rich but still could continue to remain in a slum area and he can not be denied the benefits as available to other slum dwellers. Mr. Mathur states that judgment in case of S. Sivaprakasaa Mudaliar (Supra), arising from the Madras High Court, is a case relating to acquisition of land and the main issue before the Court was, whether the purpose of acquisition of land would be treated to have changed in case along with slum dwellers, the scheme also permits allotment of certain house sites to low and middle-income group persons. He submits that the main issue before the Court was not definition of the slum dwellers and, hence, judgment of the said case is of no assistance. He further submits that the court cannot take GST or income tax returns of the petitioners, or the location or size of area occupied and nature of constructions raised or other properties owned by them, into consideration for not treating them as slum dwellers or their area as slum.

8. Counsel for petitioners fairly accepted before this court that the land occupied by all the petitioners belongs to State Government and furniture or related products showrooms/workshops constructed by the petitioners upon the same are without any authorisation and, thus, are illegal. It is also accepted that they exist on the main Lucknow-Faizabad road or immediately at the back of first row of showrooms. Also admitted are tax returns and other property details as detailed in the chart above. Thus, we proceed to consider rival submissions on aforesaid admitted facts.

9. The term 'slum' and 'slum dweller' is defined in number of dictionaries, some of which read:-

Collins COBUILD Advanced Learner's English Dictionary New Edition

Slum / slum (slums) A slum is an area of a city where living condition are very bad and where the houses are in bad condition

WORLD BOOK DICTIONARY

Slum (slum) n.,v., slummed slumming often slums a street, alley, or building in where a crowded, run –down, dirty part of the city or town, where the poorest people live. Poverty and disease are common in the slums. we hear stories now and then of some boys from a slum who makes good and wind up with a fortune. if [his] philosophy prevails, we shall have taken a long step backward toward the sweetshop and the slum (Time)

2. Extreme poverty and low social class, as in the slums : to rise from the slums to power and wealth.

BLACK 'S LAW DICTIONARY

Slum,n.(1825) 1. An urban area where very poor people live in substandard condition characterized by filth squalor, and frequent violence

2. A house or apartment located in such a place .

THE OXFORD ENGLISH DICTIONARY

Slum

2. a. A Street, alley, court, etc, situated in a crowded district of a town or city and inhabited by people of a low class or by the very poor; a number of these streets or courts forming a thickly populated neighbourhood or district where the houses and the conditions of life are of a squalid and wretched character Chiefly pl., and freq. in the phrase back slum(s). Also rarely, a house materially for human habitation."

10. From the aforesaid dictionary meanings, it is clear that in normal parlance the term slum relates to an area in a city where poor and needy people live in an unhealthy, unhygienic and in conditions not fit and suitable for human habitat and poor living in the said conditions are called slum dwellers.

11. Admittedly, all these showrooms/workshops, engaged in furniture and related businesses, exist on main road or are immediately adjacent to it. They are getting all benefits of any regular area of the city. They have widest road possible in the city. The main road is not filthy or lacks in any possible municipal facility. Their huge showrooms/workshops cannot be called filthy, run-down or unfit for humans. It is only that their address is shown as Akbar Nagar. The actual slum, covered by aforesaid definitions, begins behind these showrooms. Thus, petitioners are not suffering any of the challenges faced by the actual slum dwellers of the said slum. In the given circumstances, it is not possible for this court to accept that the showrooms/workshops of petitioners can be called as existing in a slum area. At best they exist at the edge of Akbar Nagar slum area and not in the said slum area. Similarly, the facts that they have had enough money to spend on illegal construction of huge showrooms/workshops, are paying their GST and filing income tax returns and/or most of them are having their own residences in good and posh localities of city and/or other properties, we are unable to hold them as slum dwellers. We are here also reminded the words of Supreme Court:-

"Common sense, which is a cluster of life's experiences, is often more dependable than the rival facts presented by warring litigants." stated in paragraph 35 of (1985) 3 SCC 545; 'Olga Tellis and Others Vs. Bombay Municipal Corporation';

"It must be understood that an interpretation which upon application of the provisions at the ground reality, would frustrate the very law should not be accepted against the common sense view which will further such application." in Paragraph 48 of (2012) 2 SCC 108; 'Executive Engineer, Southern Electricity Supply Company of Orissa Limited (Southco) and Another Vs. Sri Seetaram Rice Mill and,

"We are constrained to observe that the approach of the High Court to this question was not well-founded. The Privy Council no doubt laid down in Bhagchand Dagadusa v. Secretary of State [(1927) LR 54 IA 338] that the terms of this section should be strictly complied with. That does not however mean that the terms of the notice should be scrutinized in a pedantic manner or in a manner completely divorced from common sense. As was stated by Pollock C.B. in Jones v. Nicholls [(1844) 13 M & W 361, 363 : 153 ER 149, 150] "We must import a little common sense into notices of this kind". Beaumont, C.J., also observed in Chandu Lal Vadilal v. Government of Bombay [ILR (1943) Bom 128.] :"One must construe Section 80 with some regard to common sense and to the object with which it appears to have been passed...." in paragraph 30 of AIR 1958

SC 274; 'Dhian Singh Sobha Singh and another vs. Unin of India'.

12. As per the law settled, the words are to be interpreted in such a manner that they serve the purpose and are not given an interpretation which goes against very common sense. Lets take a hypothetical example to explain the issue further. Presuming in a slum, a businessman finding good business opportunity, takes possession of a large piece of land from the actual slum dwellers and illegally, without required sanctions, constructs a multiplex or a big hotel or a big shopping complex or raises any other such big business constructions. Can he, merely because he did these activities within a slum, claim to be a slum dweller entitled to the protection given to dingy houses of slum dwellers, despite all aspects of the matter reflecting his disparity with actual slum dwellers? The answer 'NO' comes to us too loudly. Thus we do not find our common sense accepting the sense of argument raised for the petitioners. The purpose of all legislation as well as law developed and settled by the courts, with regard to slum dwellers is, that these people, due to their poorness and circumstances are forced to live under inhuman conditions of a slum and all possible sympathies be applied and considered for improving their conditions and also while disturbing their possession. We do not find petitioners entitled to any such sympathies. We shall definitely consider these aspects while hearing the segregated bunch of petitions of actual slum dwellers.

13. The next submission of Mr. Mathur is that proceedings initiated against petitioners and the appeal decided under Section 27 of the U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 (hereinafter Act of 1973), both are in violation of principles of natural justice. He states that the large number of documents were accepted by the prescribed authority as well as by the appellate authority at the time of hearing of the matter, copies of which were not provided to the petitioners. Further, the appeals were placed for hearing of stay applications, but were heard on merits. Thus matters should be remanded.

14. We have perused both the proceedings at length with the assistance of counsel for parties. A perusal of the same shows that the documents were called for and considered to ascertain the status of Kukrail river/water channel next to the slum area and impact of slum on the said water channel. Once we have held that neither the petitioners are slum dwellers nor their establishments fall within the slum area, the said documents do not in any manner have any impact on the rights of the petitioners. Both before the prescribed authority as well as appellate authority petitioners represented themselves to be slum dwellers and did not place correct facts. Both the authorities have held proceedings and passed orders against petitioners on the basis of the said incorrect presumption.

15. Further, we have given an exhaustive hearing to the parties. The facts of the case are admitted to both sides. The law is well settled that this court should not issue futile writs. We refer to one of the recent judgment of the Supreme Court reported in (2021) 19 SCC 706;'State of U.P. Vs. Sudhir Kumar and Others; wherein, after referring to nearly all earlier judgments, supreme court in para 42 held:

"42. An analysis of the aforesaid judgments thus reveals:

(1) Natural justice is a flexible tool in the hands of the judiciary to reach out in fit cases to remedy injustice. The breach of the audi alteram partem Rule cannot by itself, without more, lead to the conclusion that prejudice is thereby caused.

(2) Where procedural and/or substantive provisions of law embody the principles of natural justice, their infraction per se does not lead to invalidity of the orders passed. Here again, prejudice must be caused to the litigant, except in the case of a mandatory provision of law which is conceived not only in individual interest, but also in public interest.

(3) No prejudice is caused to the person complaining of the breach of natural justice where such person does not dispute the case against him or it. This can happen by reason of estoppel, acquiescence, waiver and by way of non-challenge or non-denial or admission of facts, in cases in which the Court finds on facts that no real prejudice can therefore be said to have been caused to the person complaining of the breach of natural justice.

(4) In cases where facts can be stated to be admitted or indisputable, and only one conclusion is possible, the Court does not pass futile orders of setting aside or remand when there is, in fact, no prejudice caused. This conclusion must be drawn by the Court on an appraisal of the facts of a case, and not by the authority who denies natural justice to a person.

(5) The "prejudice" exception must be more than a mere apprehension or even a reasonable suspicion of a litigant. It should exist as a matter of fact, or be based upon a definite inference of likelihood of prejudice flowing from the non-observance of natural justice."

16. In the admitted facts of the case we have duly considered the rival contentions and already given our findings. Thus, we do not find any reason to remand the matter.

17. Before closing, we also would like to place on record the words of caution of the Supreme Court in case of 'Almitra H. Patel v. Union of India, (2000) 2 SCC 679 in paragraph 14:-

"14. Establishment or creating of slums, it seems, appears to be good business and is well organised. The number of slums has multiplied in the last few years by geometrical proportion. Large areas of public land, in this way, are usurped for private use free of cost. It is difficult to believe that this can happen in the capital of the country without passive or active connivance of the land-owning agencies and/or the municipal authorities. The promise of free land, at the taxpayers' cost, in place of a jhuggi, is a proposal which attracts more landgrabbers. Rewarding an encroacher on public land with a free alternative site is like giving a reward to a pickpocket. The Department of Slum Clearance does not seem to have cleared any slum despite its being in existence for decades. In fact more and more slums are coming into existence. Instead of "slum clearance" there is "slum creation" in Delhi. This in turn gives rise to domestic waste being strewn on open land in and around the slums. This can best be controlled at least, in the first instance, by preventing the growth of slums. The authorities must realise that there is a limit to which the population of a city can be increased, without enlarging its size. In other words the density of population per square kilometre cannot be allowed to increase beyond the sustainable limit.

Creation of slums resulting in increase in density has to be prevented. What the Slum Clearance Department has to show, however, does not seem to be visible. It is the garbage and solid waste generated by these slums which require to be dealt with most expeditiously and on the basis of priority."

18. In the said background and looking into the entirety of the matter this Court finds no reason to exercise its discretionary jurisdiction in favour of petitioners. Thus, all the writ petitions are dismissed. Writ-C No.642 of 2024 is dismissed so far it relates to petitioner no.1 Mohd. Shafeek and petitioner no.5 Smt. Shahana only. Similarly Writ-C No.527 of 2024 is also dismissed so far it relates to petitioner no.6 Abdulla only. Remaining petitioners in these two writ petitions are being considered along with the other bunch of writ petitions of actual slum dwellers, leading petition being Writ-C No.1372 of 2024.

19. Interim orders, if any, granted earlier, stands discharged with regard to the aforesaid petitioners.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1047
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ - C No. 31168 of 2023

Satendra Kumar & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Ritesh Upadhyay, Sri Shesh Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, Sri Hridai Narain Pandey, Sri Tarun Agrawal

Civil Law - U.P. Self Financed Independent Schools (Fee Regulation) Act, 2018 – Sibling Fee Relief Scheme – Transfer Certificates – Writ of Mandamus – Article 226-- The petitioners challenged the striking off of petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 (children of petitioner No. 1) from the rolls of a CBSE-affiliated school (respondent Nos. 6 and 7) and the issuance of transfer certificates dated 23.03.2023, seeking their re-enrollment and permission to attend classes. The dispute arose from the denial of a 50% Sibling Fee Relief Scheme for 2022-2024, introduced by the school, due to late fee payment by petitioner No. 1, leading to a cumulative default of Rs. 76,122. The school's refusal to extend the relief, coupled with alleged misbehavior by petitioner No. 1, complaints to the IGRS portal, police, and District Fee Regulatory Committee, and a defamation suit by the school, escalated the conflict. The school issued transfer certificates, though petitioners' children continued attending classes without fee acceptance or attendance marking. Held: The Sibling Fee Relief was conditional, not a right, and the petitioners' late payment (post-05.07.2022) justified its denial. The court found mutual fault in the escalation but prioritized the children's education. Considering the academic session 2023-2024 was nearly over (four weeks left), re-admission for that session was impractical due to closed CBSE registration and low attendance. The court disposed of the petition with mutual conditions: petitioner No. 1 to withdraw all complaints (IGRS, police, Fee Regulatory Committee), deposit defaulted and future fees, and undertake good conduct; respondent No. 7 to withdraw the defamation suit, cancel transfer certificates, and re-admit petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 for 2024-2025. No costs were awarde

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shesh Kumar, learned counsel appearing along with Shri Ritesh Upadhyay, learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondent Nos. 1 to 4, Shri H. N. Pandey, learned counsel for the CBSE, New Delhi/respondent No. 5 and Shri Tarun Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent Nos. 6 and 7.

2. A claim of Sibling Fee relief of 50% introduced by the respondent Nos. 6 and 7 institution for the Session 2022-2023-2024 and its denial on account of a solitary default leading to unpleasantaries being exchanged between the petitioner No. 1 and the school authorities respondent Nos. 6 & 7, lodging of complaints, police complaints, defamation suit and culminating in issuance of transfer certificates against the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 has travelled to this Court.

3. The writ petition has been filed for issuance of a writ of mandamus commanding the respondent Nos. 6 & 7 to accept the fees of the petitioner No. 2 and 3, enroll their names in the school rolls and permit them to take their respective classes without any hindrance in the interest of justice.

4. The facts giving rise to the controversy involved in the instant writ petition briefly stated are that the petitioner No. 1 is an ex-serviceman having retired from the post of Sergeant in the Indian Air Force. The elder son of the petitioner No. 1, namely, Sushmit Dagar was a student of the school run by the respondent Nos. 6 and 7 and passed out in the academic session 2021-22 and is currently pursuing B.Tech course in IIT, Kanpur. The other children of the petitioner No. 1 i.e. the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 took admission in the institution of the respondent Nos. 6 & 7 in classes 6th and 4th in the academic Session 2020-2021 and studying in classes 8th and 6th in the academic session 2022-2023.

5. On 5th of August, 2021 the school administration introduced a Scheme/Circular for fee rebate under the head of COVID relief and Sibling Relief for the academic session 2022-2023-2024. The Sibling Relief Scheme provided 50% fee relief to parents who have admitted their two children to the school and such fee relief would be given to the younger sibling who is the biological offspring of the same parents. The relief process would be fully automated and once the application is received, processed and approved, credit note would be automatically posted to the younger ward's fee account. The credit note would be posted only upon timely payment of fee every quarter i.e. 5th April, 5th July, 5th October and 5th January. The scheme further provided that the relief would not be available to parents who wish to pay school fee in monthly installments or fee payment is received beyond due date. The relief would also be available to the parents who deposit the entire year fee in one go, on or before 5th April. The scheme further provided that the full fee of the older sibling and balance fee for the younger sibling must be deposited on or before the due date to avail the relief and would be available to one child only at a time. Apart from the above, the scheme provided that it would remain applicable for session 2023-2024 and that the school reserved its right to withdraw the relief post 2023-2024 or if a child is found guilty of disciplinary misdemeanor damages school property and is unable to pass exams or the parents is found misbehaving with school staff or his behaviour is questionable and any disrespect towards school or its staff by the parents or child would make the relief withdrawn.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the combined fee of the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 after taking into consideration the benefit of the Sibling Scheme and 10% COVID relief works out to a sum of Rs.52,704/- per quarter which the petitioner No. 1 deposited for the session 2022-2023. A detailed chart has been depicted in Para 12 of the writ petition giving the dates, cheque Nos. and amount deposited. It is contended that for the academic session 2022-2023 the fee of petitioner No. 3 was deposited to the extent of Rs.70,272/- while that of the petitioner No. 2 was deposited to the extent of Rs.1,40,544/- as per the circular dated 5.8.2021. The total fee deposited in respect of petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 is Rs.2,10,816/-. The respondent Nos. 6 & 7, however, demanded deposit of balance fee which according to them was Rs.76,122/-. The issue regarding the balance fee due could not be sorted out and the respondents insisted for deposit of the balance fee and the class teachers of the children required the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 to get the balance fee deposited. The petitioner No. 1 lodged a complaint against the respondent Nos. 6 & 7 on the IGRS portal and also before the District Fee Regulatory Committee under the U.P. Self Financed Independent School (Fee Regulation) Act, 2018. It is contended that the Regulatory Committee has imposed a penalty of Rs. One Lac upon the respondent nos. 6 and 7 for not providing the details asked for. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that on account of the above action initiated the respondent nos. 6 and 7 have now struck off the names of the petitioner nos. 2 and 3 from the school rolls and issued ante dated Transfer Certificates on 23.03.2023.

7. A short counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of the respondent no. 7 and the factual controversy is sought to be cleared by submitting that the controversy has been blown out of proportions and the petitioner nos. 2 and 3 have suffered entirely on account of the recalcitrant attitude of the petitioner no. 1 and his wife. The Sibling Fee Rebate Scheme admittedly is subject to certain terms and conditions. It was clearly mentioned in the Scheme that the benefit would be available only upon timely deposit of the fee i.e. on or before 5th April, 5th July, 5th October and 5th January. The fee for the first quarter of the academic session 2022-23 beginning April 2022 was paid before 5th April 2022 and petitioners were extended the benefit of the Scheme. However, for the next quarter beginning July 2022, the fee was got deposited in two installments i.e. on 05.07.2022 and 08.07.2022. As total fee was not deposited before 05.07.2022, the sibling benefit was not extended to the petitioners. In the absence of any rebate in the fee, the total fee payable for second quarter came to be Rs.78,078/- against which only a sum of Rs.52,704/- was got deposited and consequently, there was a default of Rs.25,374/-. This default dis-entitled the petitioners to the sibling rebate in the subsequent quarters. The cumulative default worked out to Rs.76,122/- which was being demanded.

8. The petitioner No. 1 instead of depositing the balance amount, insisted for fee waiver and benefit under the Sibling Fee Relief Scheme. The petitioner No. 1 even began calling up one of the lady teachers of the institution late in the night and misbehaved with her. The said teacher issued a legal notice to the petitioner through her Advocate seeking written apology from the petitioner No. 1. The petitioner No. 1 also approached the police authorities against the Principal for demanding balance fee though no FIR was registered. The parents of the petitioner

Nos. 2 & 3 have also written offensive letters marked to various dignitaries of the State and also filed a complaint before the Fee Regulatory Committee constituted under the U.P. Self Finance Independent Schools (Fee Regulations) Act, 2018. In respect of the complaint lodged by the petitioner No. 1 before the Police Authorities, the parties were called to settle/discuss the issue on 21.3.2023, but the complainant did not present himself and only the representative of the respondent No.7 was present. The representative of the respondent No.7 consented to settle the controversy by waiving the outstanding balance of Rs.76,122/- due and payable towards the account of student fee and issue the transfer certificates. The transfer certificates were not collected by the parents and they continued to send their wards to attend the institution.

9. Learned counsel for respondent No. 6 and 7 has further submitted that there is a deep resentment amongst the teaching staff for not acting against the written complaint of the lady teacher and have also conveyed their strong displeasure at any attempt to re-admit the petitioner Nos. 2 & 3.

10. A short rejoinder affidavit has been filed by the petitioners essentially reiterating the stand taken in the writ petition.

11. In the aforesaid backdrop, this Court has been called upon to consider the relief prayed for in the writ petition.

12. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the record.

13. I find that the Sibling Fee Relief under the Circular dated 5.8.2021 issued by the respondent No. 7 is a benefit offered to the parents whose two children are studying in the institution subject to certain riders and cannot be claimed as a matter of right.

14. In the opinion of the Court, this unfortunate situation has arisen on account of misunderstanding of the terms of the Sibling Fee Relief Scheme. According to the petitioner No. 1, he was entitled to the benefits under the Scheme as the institution had accepted the fee for 2nd quarter in part. Admittedly, the first deposit towards the fee of the 2nd quarter was made on 5.7.2022 by depositing a sum of Rs.25,000/- and the second deposit towards the said quarter was made on 8.7.2022 for Rs.27,704/-. The total amount deposited was Rs.52,704/- which was the amount required to be deposited towards the fee for both petitioner Nos. 2 & 3 after adjusting the Sibling Fee relief and 10% COVID relief. However, the 2nd deposit was made on 8.7.2022 and not on or before 5.7.2022 as provided under the Scheme and as such, the respondent No. 7 was justified in not extending the benefit of the Sibling Fee Relief to the parents. No benefit of the Scheme has been extended for the deposits made in respect of the subsequent quarters.

15. During the course of the arguments, considering the nature of the dispute, this Court had required the parties to amicably settle the dispute amongst themselves. In furtherance thereof, the respondent No. 7 has expressed its intention to settle the dispute through an e-mail addressed to Shri Tarun Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent. Shri Tarun Agarwal, learned counsel for respondent has placed the e-mail dated 15.1.2024 before this Court which is taken on record. According to the e-mail, the conditions imposed are:-

1) School agrees to take both admissions, however, two issues needs to be addressed.

(a) CBSE registration has been closed on the portal.

(b) Attendance is drastically short. The children be enrolled for new session 2024-25 as only four weeks of the current session are left before final exams.

2) The parents to submit an unconditional written apology addressed to the Faculty and Management of the school for their past behaviour and conduct and ensure good conduct in future.

3) The parents shall pay the waived fee along with future fee.

4) The parents shall withdraw their complaint filed by them under the U.P. Self Financed Independent Schools (Fee Regulation) Act, 2018 with information to the Appellate Authority before applying for admission.

16. Shri Shesh Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioners is aggreable to the aforesaid terms, however, has expressed some reservations to condition No. 2 and submits that the entire fault cannot be attributed to the parents alone and the conduct of the respondents has been equally not above board. He submits that the apology should be mutual from both sides. He further submits that the petitioner No. 2 and 3 may be taken back on the Rolls of the school for the academic session 2023-2024 by relaxing the requirement of attendance so that the valuable year may be saved. The School Authorities have permitted the petitioner Nos. 1 and 2 to attend their respective classes upto August, 2023. He further undertakes to deposit the balance fee and future fee.

17. Shri Tarun Agarwal, learned counsel for the respondent No. 7 has vehemently opposed the said prayer and submits that the petitioners under no circumstances can be permitted for the session 2023-2024 inasmuch as they have not studied in the said session nor any fee has been accepted from them as the Transfer Certificate had already been issued to them in March, 2023.

18. I have given a thoughtful consideration to the respective submissions of the learned counsels.

19. From the record, I find that the Transfer Certificates were issued to the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 on 23.3.2023. Though the names of the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 were struck off from the Rolls of the school, their ID cards withdrawn. Yet, the petitioner No. 2 and 3 continued to be sent to the school by the parents. The final report card for their respective classes were handed over in March, 2023 and they were not promoted to the next higher class. The School Authorities did not prevent them from attending school presumably on the ground that the enquiry by the District Fee Regulatory Authority was underway at the relevant time. The School Authorities did not mark the attendance nor accepted any fee from the petitioners. I also find that the session 2023-2024 is virtually on the last leg with only 04 weeks remaining whereafter the final exams are scheduled to take place. In view of above facts, this Court is constrained to permit the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 to be re-admitted in the current session.

20. In the opinion of the Court, ends of justice shall stand sub served if the writ petition is disposed of in the following terms:-

21. The petitioner No. 1 shall withdraw all proceedings initiated against the School Authorities which include the complaint filed by him under the U.P. Self Financed Independent Schools (Fee Regulation) Act, 2018, Complaint before the Police Authorities as also Complaint on the IGRS portal against the institution and its teaching staff and submit an undertaking that such conduct shall not be repeated in future. The petitioner No. 1 shall also deposit the defaulted fee (waived fee) as also the future fee as and when the same shall falls due. The respondent No. 7 in turn will withdraw the defamation case and / or any other cases instituted against the parents of the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3. The respondent No. 7 shall withdraw the transfer certificates dated 23.3.2023 accept the fee in respect of the petitioner Nos. 2 and 3, restore their names on the school rolls and readmit them for the academic session 2024-2025.

22. Ordered accordingly. No order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1052
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ - C No. 1002256 of 2013

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Sri Sudama Prasad Tiwari ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioners:
C.S.C.

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Ashish Mishra

Civil Law Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 – Sections 2(e), 14 – Daily Wage Employee – Entitlement to Gratuity – Government Order – Article 226 - The St. of Uttar Pradesh challenged the order dated 27.06.2012 by the Controlling Authority under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, granting gratuity to respondent No. 1, Sudama Prasad Tiwari, a daily wage employee (Tindail) in the Irrigation Department from 02.01.1984 to 08.11.2004, and later as a Work Supervisor (Karya Paryavekshak) until retirement on 31.07.2009. The respondent claimed gratuity for 25 years, 6 months, and 29 days of continuous service. The St. argued that daily wagers are not entitled to gratuity under Civil Service Regulations and a Government Order dated 28.07.2006, and that the respondent's regularized service (2004-2009) was less than five years, disqualifying him. Held: The respondent, as a daily wage employee, fell within the definition of "employee" under Section 2(e) of the 1972 Act, as he was not covered by any other gratuity-providing law or rules. Section 14 of the Act overrides inconsistent enactments or government orders, rendering the 2006 Government Order inapplicable. The respondent proved continuous service from 1984 to 2009, satisfying the Act's requirements. The St.'s claim of regularization was not substantiated before the Controlling Authority, and even if true, the daily wage period (1984-2004) qualified for gratuity. The court upheld the Controlling Authority's order, finding no infirmity, but modified it to award simple interest instead of compound interest on the gratuity amount from the due date until payment.

The petition was dismisse

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Shri S.K. Khare, learned Standing Counsel for the State/petitioners. No one has appeared on behalf of the respondent no. 1 and perused the material available on record.

2. The State of Uttar Pradesh has filed the present writ petition being aggrieved by the judgment dated 27.06.2012 passed by the Controlling Authority under the provisions of Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 whereby the claim of respondent no. 1/workman has been allowed and he has been held to be entitled for payment of gratuity for working on daily wages for a period of 25 years, 6 months and 29 days.

3. The facts in brief are that the respondent no. 1 Sudama Prasad Tiwari had worked as Daily Wage Employee on the post of TINDAIL in the office of Sinchai Khand, Sharda Nagar, Lakhimpur Kheri with effect from 2.1.1984 to 8.11.2004. According to the claim made by respondent no. 1, he had continuously worked from 2.1.1984 to 31.07.2009 and attained superannuation on his retirement on his attaining the age of 60 years. He has stated that for his entire length of service, he had worked on daily wages/Muster Roll in the Irrigation Department, Sitapur in the Work-Charge Establishment on the post of Karya Paryavekshak.

4. It is in the aforesaid fact that despite working for 25 years, 6 months and 29 days, the respondent no. 1 was not given gratuity by the petitioner and consequently had moved an application before the Controlling Authority. The notices were issued to the petitioners being the employer and they appeared before the Controlling Authority and filed their objections opposing the claim of the workman. It was stated on behalf of the petitioner that the service in a work charge establishment falls in a different category and also admitted that he does not fall as a regular government servant and hence he cannot be treated as regular government servant and no gratuity is payable to him. It was further stated that under the various government orders issued by the State of Uttar Pradesh, the daily-wagers are not entitled for gratuity, inasmuch as, according to the Civil Service Regulations, the daily wagers are neither entitled for pension nor gratuity. Thus, the petitioners also relied upon the government orders issued by them.

5. It was further stated that while discharging his duties on the post of Work Supervisor as work charge employee w.e.f. 8.11.2004 till 31.07.2009, the respondent no. 1 had worked only for a period of four years, eight months and twenty three days, which is less than a period of five years, hence on this account also he was not entitled for payment of gratuity. Lastly it was stated that the government order dated 18.07.2006 itself provides that a daily-wage employee shall not be entitled for gratuity, hence prayed for rejection of the claim made by employee/respondent no. 1.

6. The Controlling Authority duly considered the objections filed by the petitioners, as well as the evidence, which was made available on record. It duly considered all the arguments raised by the petitioner in their written submissions with regard to the admissibility of the gratuity to the employee.

7. The arguments of the petitioners were rejected on the ground that as per Section 14 of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. The said Act of 1972 overrides all the other Acts or Rules, which are inconsistent with the said Act. Accordingly, the Authority was of the view that the Government Orders or any other Rules made by the State of Uttar Pradesh in this regard cannot be invoked by the petitioners for denying the valid claim of payment of gratuity to the workman. It also returned the finding that it was duly demonstrated and proved by the workman that he had worked from 2.1.1984 to 31.07.2009 continuously on daily-wages and accordingly, all the ingredients were available for him under the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972.

8. This Court has also perused the impugned judgment and considered the arguments raised by the petitioners assailing the impugned order dated 27.06.2012. For admissibility of payment of gratuity, it is to be considered whether the workman falls in the definition of an employee as provided for under Section 2 of the Act of 1972. The definition of an employee is quoted here-in-below:-

"2 (e) ["employee" means any person (other than an apprentice) who is employed for wages, whether the terms of such employment are express or implied, in any kind of work, manual or otherwise, in or in connection with the work of a factory, mine, oilfield, plantation, port, railway company, shop or other establishment to which this Act applies, but does not include any such person who holds a post under the Central Government or a State Government and is governed by any other Act or by any rules providing for payment of gratuity;]."

9. From perusal of the aforesaid definition, it is clear that any person who is employed for wages in the establishment defined therein would be entitled for payment of gratuity subject to the condition that such employment should not be under the Central Government or the State Government and is not governed by any Act or Rules provided for payment of gratuity.

10. In the present case, the workman was able to prove that he had worked continuously from 2.1.1984 to 31.07.2009 on daily wages and Muster Roll pertaining to his employment were duly proved before the Controlling Authority. Even a perusal of the written submissions filed by the petitioner before the Controlling Authority, it was not their case that the respondent no. 1 was entitled for gratuity under any other law or rules framed by the State of Uttar Pradesh. It could not be demonstrated that the workman was covered by any other rules or enactment so as to exclude with regard to the beneficial provisions of the Gratuity Act.

11. The case of the petitioners before this Court is that the workman had worked on daily wages from 2.1.1984 to 8.11.2004 but subsequently his services were regularized and he was working on the post of Karya Paryavekshak and was being paid regular salary. Though this fact was never proved before the Controlling Authority but in any case there is no denial of the fact that even according to the petitioner the workman had worked continuously from 2.1.1984 to 8.11.2004.

12. Even in the writ petition in paragraph no. 16, it has been stated that "..... the petitioner worked on the post of Tindail as daily wage employee and was getting a sum of Rs.2,400/- per month, as such, the period for which he remained working on daily wage basis is not computable for calculating the amount of gratuity in view of the Government Order dated 18.07.2006....."

13. From the above, it is undisputed that the employee had worked from 02.01.1984 to 08.11.2014 on daily wages,and as such he would be entitled to gratuity and these facts support the order passed by the Controlling Authority.

14. The challenge in the present case is primarily on the ground that there is a government order dated 28.7.2006, which provides that gratuity shall not be made applicable to the employees working on daily wages. To consider the submission of the learned Standing Counsel to the challenge of the order of the Controlling Authority specially with regard to the Government Order dated 28.07.2006, we will have to take into consideration the relevant provisions of the Gratuity Act relating to applicability of other laws. Section 14 of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 provides for the following:-

14. Act to override other enactments, etc.

-The provisions of this Act or any rule made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any enactment other than this Act or in any instrument or contract having effect by virtue of any enactment other than this Act.

15. Accordingly, the petitioners cannot invoke the provisions of any government order contrary to the provisions of the Repayment of Gratuity Act, 1972 and in case there is any conflict, the provisions of Section 14 of the Act of 1972 provide that the Payment of Gratuity Act would override any such government orders and consequently, merely because the government order dated 28.07.2006 provides for non-payment of gratuity to the persons employed on daily-wages cannot be a ground for denial of gratuity to the respondent no. 1. The provisions of government order dated 28.07.2006 cannot be invoked to deny benefit of gratuity to the petitioner as it would not operate and override the provisions of Gratuity Act, 1972and as per provisions of Section 14 of the Act of 1972, will have to give way to the beneficial provisions of Act, 1972.

15. Accordingly, the challenge made by the petitioners to the impugned order fails and after examining the impugned order, this Court does not find any infirmity. Accordingly, the petition being devoid of merits is dismissed. However, it is provided that the impugned order is only modified only to the extent that instead of compound interest, the workman shall be entitled to simple interest on the admissible amount of gratuity from the date when it was admissible till the date of actual payment.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1055
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 12.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ - C No. 1003197 of 2010

Jagat Pal Singh ...Peitioner
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Dhirendra Singh, Aditya Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Prashant Kumar Srivastava

Civil Law - U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 – Rule 285B – Transfer of Property Act, 1882 – Section 60 – Constitution of India – Article 300A – Auction Sale – Right of Redemption – Arbitrary Action - The petitioner, Jagat Pal Singh, challenged the auction of his agricultural land in Raebareli, conducted on 16.06.1991 by the Collector to recover an outstanding loan of Rs. 17,929 (later Rs. 69,929) from Bank of Baroda, taken in 1975. The St. purchased the land for Rs. 1/- due to no bidders, with mutation recorded on 05.06.1992. The petitioner, unaware until 2010, claimed he had repaid Rs.

77,000 by 2002 and argued the auction violated his right to redemption and was arbitrary. Held: The court found the auction illegal, as Rule 285B of the U.P.Z. & L.R. Act requires the Collector to bid up to the arrear amount, not a nominal Rs. 1/-, which was below any reasonable reserve price for 1.7 hectares. Citing Union Bank of India Vs Official Liquidator ((2000) 5 SCC 274), Divya Manufacturing Co. Vs U.O.I. (AIR 2000 SC 2346), and Gajraj Jain Vs St. of Bihar ((2004) 7 SCC 151), the court emphasized that auctions must ensure fair valuation and transparency. The St.'s action amounted to confiscation, violating Article 300A, which prohibits deprivation of property without due process. The right of redemption under Section 60 of the Transfer of Property Act persists until a registered sale deed extinguishes it, which did not occur here. The auction and mutation orders were quashed, and the respondents were restrained from interfering with the petitioner's possession unless due process is followe The petitioner was granted liberty to settle the loan with the Bank in installments and seek mutation of his name in revenue records.

The petition was allowe

Case Law Cited:

1. Union Bank of India Vs Official Liquidator, (2000) 5 SCC 274

2. Divya Manufacturing Co. (P) Lt Vs U.O.I., AIR 2000 SC 2346

3. Gajraj Jain Vs St. of Bihar, (2004) 7 SCC 151

4. Surendra Pal Singh Vs Vijaya Bank, Civil Appeal No. 6843 of 2023

Narandas Karsondas Vs S. Kamtam, 1976 CJ (SC) 287

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Shri Giriraj Prajapati, Advocate holding brief of Shri Aditya Tiwari, learned counsel, learned Standing Counsel for the State, Shri Prashant Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for respondent-Bank and perused the material available on record.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioner has challenged the auction proceedings conducted at the behest of the Collector, District Raebareli whereby the agricultural land of the petitioner situated at Village Malik Mau Chaubarra Pargana, Tehsil and District Raebareli in Khata No. 0002, Gata Nos/area (in Hectare), 198/0.550, 199/0.592, 240/0.048, 241/0.6260, 245/0.2810, 247/0.670, 251/0.600, 280sha/0.1170, 1094/0.6580 and 1104/1.5050 has been auctioned and purchased by the State in lieu of the outstanding amount due to respondent no. 5 i.e. Bank of Baroda.

3. It has been submitted by learned counsel for petitioner that the petitioner had taken an agricultural loan of Rs.33,000/- on 27.06.1975 from the Bank of Baroda, Branch Dedaur, District Raebareli. It is stated that against the said loan, the petitioners had deposit the loan amount of Rs.52,000/- till 1984 and also an amount of Rs. 25,000/- on 23.03.2002 as demanded by the respondent-Bank. It has been stated that on 14.05.2010 some government officials went to the petitioner's land and started measuring the same and it is then the petitioner came to know that the land of the petitioner has been sold by the State Government in an auction and even subsequently, he was able to obtain the records pertaining to the said auction. The petitioner stated that the action was held by the State Government on 16.06.1991 where no bids were made and no one had participated in the said auction. It seems that the State had purchased the land for Rs.1/- and name of the State Government had also mutated in the revenue record on 05.06.1992. It has been stated that a recovery notice was sent by the respondent-Bank to the Collector for recovery of outstanding amount of Rs.17,929/- on 28.04.1985. Another recovery notice under Form-74 was issued on 09.08.1990 for an amount of Rs.69,929/-. As the petitioner did not pay the outstanding amount of loan, recovery proceedings were initiated and land of the petitioner was auctioned in Rs.1/-.

4. In support of his submissions, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Surendra Pal Singh Vs. Vijaya Bank passed in Civil Appeal No.6843 of 2023 as well as Narandas Karsondas Vs. S.A. Kamtam, 1976 CJ (SC) 287 to canvass his plea that his right to redemption of the mortgaged property existed even subsequent to confirmation of the auction and consequently he may be permitted to deposit the outstanding amount of loan and the impugned orders may be set aside directing the respondents to hand over the property back to the petitioner.

5. In the counter affidavit filed by the State, it has been stated that in 1985, the petitioner was served with an auction notice and again in 1990, they were served with an auction notice but the petitioner did not repay the said amount and subsequently the loan was put for auction but the auction proceedings could not take place and consequently, it is stated that the land vested in the State Government and mutation in this respect was also undertaken by the order dated 09.09.1992. It has further been stated in the counter affidavit that on failure in auction, the land was vested in the State Government. In the aforesaid circumstances, the question which falls for consideration is as to whether where either no one has participated in the said auction or auction has not been conducted by the State, can the land, which is mortgaged with the Bank as security towards the loan taken by the farmers, vest in the State Government.

6. Before dealing with rival contentions of parties, it would be useful to refer some decisions of the Apex Court, having material bearing on the question in controversy involved in the case, hereinafter.

7. In the case of Union Bank of India Vs. Official Liquidator, 2000 (5) SCC 274, the Apex Court has observed as under:-

"In auction-sale of the property of the company which is ordered to be wound up, the Company Court acts as a custodian for the interest of the Company and its creditors. It is the duty of the Company Court to satisfy itself as to reasonableness of price by disclosing valuation report to secured creditors of the company and other interested persons. It was further held that the Court should exercise judicial discretion to ensure that sale of property should fetch adequate price. For deciding what would be reasonable price, valuation report of an expert is essential. The Company Judge himself must apply his mind to the valuation report. The Court observed that the High Court did not interfere with the auction-sale on the ground of sympathy for the workers which was not proper. The auction-sale was, therefore, set aside by this Court and the Official Liquidator was directed to resell the property after obtaining fresh valuation report and after furnishing copy of such report to secured creditors."

8. In Divya Manufacturing Company (P) Ltd. and another Vs. Union of India and others, AIR 2000 SC 2346, the Apex

Court held that in appropriate cases, even the confirmed sale can be set aside.

9. In Gajraj Jain v. State of Bihar and others, (2004) 7 SCC 151, the Apex Court held that in absence of valuation report and reserve price, the auction sale becomes only a pretence and if there is no proper mechanism and if the intending purchasers are not able to know the details of the assets or 10 intemised valuation, the auction-sale cannot be said to be in accordance with law. If publicity and maximum participation is to be attained, all bidders must know the details of the assets and the valuation thereof.

9. The right of redemption which is embodied in section 60 of the Transfer of Property Act is available to the Mortga-gor unless it has been extinguished by the Act of parties. The combined effect of section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act and section 17 of the Indian Registration Act is that a contract for sale in respect of immovable property of the value of more than one hundred rupees without registration cannot extinguish the equity of redemption. In India it is only on execution of the conveyance and registration of transfer of the mortgagor?s interest by registered instrument that the mortgagor?s right of redemption will be extinguished. The conferment of power to sell without intervention of the Court in a Mortgage Deed by itself will not deprive the mortgagor of his right to redemption. The extinction of the right of redemption has to be subsequent to the deed conferring such power. The right of redemption is not extinguished at the expiry of the period. The equity of redemption is not extinguished by mere contract for sale. The mortgagor?s right to redeem will survive until there has been completion of sale by the mortagee by a registered deed. In England a sale of property takes place by agreement but it is not so in our country. The power to sell shall not be exercised unless and until notice in writing requiring payment of the principal money has been served on the mortgagor. Further section 69(3) of the Transfer of Property Act shows that when a sale has been made in professed exercise of such a power, the title of the purchaser shall not be impeachable on the ground that no case had arisen to authorise the sale. Therefore, until the sale is complete by registration the mortgagor does not lose right of redemption.

10. From the aforesaid judgements, it is clear that whenever a property is put up for auction to realise the outstanding amount of dues, one of the main considerations is to get the maximum value out of the said property. For the said purpose, it is an essential condition that there should be proper valuation of the property, for which purpose provision has been made even in the Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act. Even in a situation where no person appears to participate in the auction and no bidders participate in the auction, Collector has been given the discretion to bid up to the amount of such arrears. Rule 285B of the said Act is quoted here for ready reference:-

"285B. No officer having any duty to perform in connection with any such sale, and no person employed by, on subordinate to, such officer shall, either directly or indirectly, bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire the property sold or any interest therein :

Provided that where at any auction under Section 248 no bid is offered up to the amount of the arrear, for which the sale has been ordered, the Collector may bid upto the amount of such arrear."

11. In the facts of the present case, according to the State Government no one participated in the said auction and consequently the property was purchased by the State for Re 1/-. Even in a situation where no person has appeared to bid, it was open for the State to purchase the said property, but the reserve price had to be offered and paid. There is no law which permits the State to purchase the mortgaged property Re 1/-, which would be below the reserve price for 1.7 hectares of land anywhere. The said action of the State is clearly illegal and arbitrary and contrary to the statutory provisions of Rule 285B of the Act of 1950.

12. The State is under a mandate to act reasonably and fairly in all spheres of activity. Even the rules providing for sale of immovable property provide for a detailed mechanism where proper notices have to be issued, the property has to be valued before fixing the reserve price, and even the auction has to be fair and transparent. The action of the State in purchasing the property at an auction conducted by themselves for a price of Re. 1/- is nothing but confiscation of the property. Such a right cannot be vested in a democratic State, to confiscate the property of the citizen under the garb of a realisation of outstanding amount of loan for a paltry sum of Re.1/-. According to Rule 285B even if no one had participated in the auction, the minimum reserve price should have been paid for purchase of the said property. At this stage, we cannot lose sight of the Constitutional provisions contained in Article 300A.

13. According to Article 300 A of the Constitution of India 'no person can be deprived of his / her property save by authority of law' and the State cannot dispossess a citizen of his / her property except in accordance with the procedure provided for in the Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Rules, 1952. In the present case, deprivation of the property of the petitioner in purported exercise of the powers to sell mortgaged property to recovery amount of loan by the State Government and to purchase it at Re.1/- is nothing except confiscation of the property. The said action cannot be sustained on the anvil of the provisions contained in U.P.Z.A. and L.R. Act, especially Rule 285 B as quoted hereinabove and Article 300 A of the Constitution. It is surprising that when no person appeared during the auction why was not another date fixed after due publicity to ensure maximum participation at the auction but still the State proceeded with the said auction and settled in their own favour at a paltry sum of Re.1/-. On the touchstone In the Constitutional Scheme as well as under the statutory provisions and rules of U.P.Z.A. and L.R. Act, the said exercise is clearly arbitrary and illegal and deserves to be quashed and is hereby quashed.

14. It has been submitted that the petitioner is still in possession of the agricultural land accordingly, the respondents are restrained from interfering in the possession of the petitioner except by following due process of law. In case the outstanding amount of loan is still due, the petitioner is given liberty to approach the respondent-Bank and settle the same while considering the application of the petitioner, the respondent-Bank may exercise its discretionary power and fix easy installments in case the petitioner is ready and willing to pay the entire loan. In case, the petitioner does not pay the loan, it shall be open for the respondent-Bank to take recourse to auction of the mortgaged property in accordance with law for proper and adequate consideration.

15. Further, the petitioner is given liberty to move an appropriate application for mutation before the competent authority for mutating the name of the petitioner in place of State. On petitioner's moving said application, necessary orders in terms of the directions issued by this Court shall be passed by the competent authority with expedition in accordance with law.

16. Subject to above directions, the writ petition stands allowed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1060
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 20.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ - C No. 3000014 of 2007

Chakra Manoher & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Dr. L.P. Misra, Lalta Prasad Misra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Criminal Law - U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 – Sections 5, 10(2), 11(2) & 14 – Ceiling Proceedings – Non-Issuance of Notice – Right to Possession – Article 226

The petitioners challenged orders dated 08.03.1990, 26.03.1996, and 10.11.2006 passed by the Prescribed Authority and Additional Commissioner in ceiling proceedings under the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960, concerning 19.152 acres in Village Gurchahi, Shrawasti. The land, originally held by Sampata Devi, devolved to Bindra Devi, from whom the petitioners purchased it via a registered sale deed dated 01.09.1970. No notice under Section 10(2) was issued to the petitioners, despite their recorded possession and inclusion in L.H. Form-3, rendering the proceedings voi The petitioners' application under Section 11(2) and subsequent appeal were rejecte Held: Relying on Shantanu Kumar Vs St. of U.P. (1979 ALL L.J. 1174), the court held that non-issuance of notice to the petitioners, whose names appeared in revenue records and L.H. Form-3, violated Section 10(2), making the proceedings jurisdictionally defective. Explanation II of Section 5 presumes possession by the original holder unless proven otherwise, and the petitioners' sale deed (pre-24.01.1971) excluded the land from ceiling proceedings. The Prescribed Authority's failure to consider possession and the sale deed, coupled with the appellate authority's affirmation, warranted quashing the orders. The matter was remitted to the Prescribed Authority for fresh adjudication within three months, with the petitioners given four weeks to submit evidence, including the original sale dee

The writ petition was allowed

Case Law Cited:

1. Shantanu Kumar Vs St. of U.P., 1979 ALL L.J. 1174

2. Dilbagh Singh Vs St. of U.P., 1978 AWC 393

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Anapoorna Agnihotri, Advocate holding brief of Dr. Lalta Prasad Misra, learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned Standing Counsel for the respondents.

2. By means of present writ petition the petitioners have challenged the order dated 26.03.1996, passed by the Prescribed Authority, Bahraich in Case No. 45/106, the order dated 10.11.2006, passed by the Additional Commissioner (Judicial), Devi Patan Division, Gonda in Case No. 238/2 and the order dated 08.03.1990, passed by the Prescribed Authority in Case No. 778/3/48/15, on the ground that in ceiling proceedings pending before the Prescribed Authority, Bahraich no notice was issued to the petitioners and for want of which the proceedings and the order passed thereunder are vitiated in law.

3. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that notice under Section 10(2) of the U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 (hereinafter referred to as the "Act, 1960") was issued to one Sampata Devi with regard to land holding measuring 19.152 acres situated in Village - Gurchahi, Pargana - Ikauna, District - Shrawasti. Sampata Devi had filed objections to the said notice but did not contest the objections seriously. After Sampata Devi's land dwelled upon Smt. Bindra Devi and petitioners purchased the said land through registered sale deed dated 01.09.1970 from Bindra Devi and the land was also recorded in the name of petitioners subsequent to the registration of sale deed. During the course of pendency of the proceedings before the Prescribed Authority, Smt. Bindra Dei died and the petitioners possession over the land in question has been admitted prior to the cut of date fixed under Section 5 of the Act, 1960, under Explanation II in the light of the sale deed executed in 1970. The land in question stood excluded from the proceedings under Section 5 of the Act, 1960 on account of which for want of notice issued to the petitioners, the order is nullity. When the order came to the knowledge of the petitioners, they preferred an application under Section 11(2) of the Act, 1960, the same has been rejected. The order passed by the Prescribed Aurhority has been affirmed in the appeal.

4. In support of his contentions learned counsel for the petitioners has cited certain decisions of this Court one which is referred hereunder i.e. Shantanu Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and Others, 1979 ALL L.J. 1174, wherein it has been held that once the authority concerned has arrived at the conclusion that the land in question included in the statement in C.L.H. Form 3 includes the land ostensively held in the name of any other person, it was incumbent upon the Prescribed Authority to serve upon the petitioners the requisite notice together with the copy of the statement and call upon him to show cause why that statement be not taken as correct. If no notice was issued under Section 11(1) of the Act, 1960, remedy is available to the petitioners to challenge the validity of the proceedings and by considering likewise facts involved in the matter, the Full Bench of this Court had proceeded to allow the writ petition and quash the order passed by the Prescribed Authority on this very ground.

5. From the perusal of the order passed by the Prescribed Authority dated 08.03.1990, it is obvious that the possession of the petitioners over the land in question has been discussed as it was stated by the concerned Lekhpal. The Explanation II of Section 5 of the Act, 1960 speaks that if on or before January 24, 1971, any land was held by a person, who continues to be in its actual cultivatory possession and the name of any other person is entered in the annual register either in addition to or to the exclusion of the former and whether on the basis of a deed of transfer or license or on the basis of a decree, it shall be presumed unless the contrary is proved to the satisfaction of the Prescribed Authority, that the first mentioned person continues to hold the land and that it is so held by him ostensibly in the name of the second mentioned person. He further submits that the sale deed was executed in favour of the petitioners on 1st September, 1970 and since thereafter as per the statement of the concerned Lekhpal, they were holding the possession over the land in question. Under the circumstances, the benefit of this Explanation is not applicable to the petitioners to include the land treating them as ostensible owner.

6. Learned Standing Counsel on the other hand has opposed the writ petition on the point that the the observations made in the order of the Prescribed Authority has been misinterpreted as while recording the findings of the possession of the petitioners over the land in question, the statement of the concerned lekhpal has not been believed by the authority concerned and still the authority concerned has proceeded to take a decision in the matter. Under the circumstances, he submits that since petitioners have claimed right of possession over the land in question on the basis of the execution of sale deed, their case cannot be excluded from consideration under Explanation II of Section 5 of the Act, 1960, and accordingly, he submits that under Section 5 of the Act, 1960 the land in question had rightly been included under the ceiling proceedings.

7. Learned Standing Counsel has further submitted that from the order passed by the Prescribed Authority it is evident that the application for stay moved by the petitioners on 22nd September, 1999 has been rejected by the Prescribed Authority and the Prescribed Authority fixed the matter for hearing. He has next submitted that it is obvious from the order passed by the Prescribed Authority that the petitioners have no possession over the land in question and accordingly they cannot claim the possession over the land in question as well as any benefit arising out of possession in the proceedings in question.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioners disputes the above contentions of learned Standing Counsel. He submits that from the order of Prescribed Authority it is evident that Smt. Bindra Dei was treated as ostensible owner but she was co-tenure holder and further on the point of possession he submits that in light of the provisions of Section 14 of the Act, 1960, the possession can only be taken over after determination of surplus land in appeal. Since they preferred the appeal before the Additional Commissioner against the order passed by the authority concerned alongwith an application under Section 11(2) of the Act, 1960 and now the appeal is under challenge before this Court from which it is obvious that the proceeding is continuing without attaining finality and it is not open for the respondents to take a stand that the possession has been taken over.

9. It has been submitted by learned counsel for petitioner that they had purchased Gata No. 953, 954 and 987 from Smt. Bindra Dei on 01.09.1970 by a registered sale deed and on the basis of the said sale deed they had sought exclusion of the land from the holding of the recorded tenure holder. The Prescribed Authority as well as the appellate authority has rejected the objections filed by the petitioners. It has been pointed out that before both the authorities below, the petitioner could not demonstrate the title on the said land because of the fact that the petitioner had filed photocopy of the sale deed.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioners on the other hand submits that the petitioners may be given an opportunity to demonstrate before this Court that the aforesaid land was in fact transferred in favour of the petitioners by a registered instruments and they can produce thus original sale deed before Court to demonstrate that the said land was purchased by the petitioner on 01.09.1970.

11. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

12. Learned counsel for the petitioners has produced the copy of original sale deed on the directions of this Court and the same has been looked into by learned Standing Counsel, who does not dispute that it is the same sale deed which was produced before the Prescribed Authority.

13. In the present case objections under Section 11(2) of the Act, 1960 were rejected by the Prescribed Authority, on the ground that the petitioners could not demonstrate their case and satisfy him about the sale deed, as only photo copy of the sale deed was filed and original copy was not filed.

14. From the discussion made above, this Court relying upon the judgment of this Court in the case of Shantanu Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and Others (supra), is of the considered view that name of petitioners existed in C.L.H. Form - 3, which raises presumption with regard to possession of petitioners over the land in question at the relevant point of time when consolidation operations were undertaken. It is also to be seen that the said sale deed was executed on 01.09.1970 which is prior to the cut-off date and according to Explanation II of Section 5 of the Act, 1960, the actual cultivatory possession of the person has to be seen in case sale deed is executed prior to the cut-off date.

15. This Court in the case of Shantanu Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and Others (supra), has held :-

"9. It is thus evident that the notice requiring the tenure-holder to show cause why the statement prepared by the Prescribed Authority be not taken as correct is to be issued to the tenure-holder in respect of whose holding the statement has been prepared. Under the proviso, the Prescribed Authority shall cause to be served a notice to the person in whose name the land included in C.L.H. Form 3 is ostensibly held. The Prescribed Authority prepares the statement on the basis of revenue records. If from the revenue records or other information, the Prescribed Authority comes to know that the land included in the statement in C.L.H. Form 3 includes land ostensibly held in the name of any other person, the Prescribed Authority is bound to serve notice on such person. The phrase used is 'shall cause to be served'.

10. The petitioner claimed under a sale deed. It is not disputed that the Petitioner's name was recorded in the revenue papers over the land which was transferred to him. It is admitted that the statement in C.L.H. Form 3 included the land held by the petitioner. He was hence a person in whose name some part of the land mentioned in the statement was believed by the Prescribed Authority to be ostensibly held. In this situation, it was incumbent upon the Prescribed Authority to serve upon the petitioner the requisite notice together with a copy of the statement and call upon him to show cause why that statement be not taken as correct.

11. It is obvious that service of such a notice is preliminary to the acquisition of jurisdiction to proceed in the matter and decide whether the land ostensibly held in the name of the petitioner could be declared as surplus land in the hands of Bhupendra Singh. In the premises, the proceedings were without jurisdiction and void. Learned Standing Counsel submitted that the petitioner had knowledge and he should have filed an objection u/s

11(2) of the Act as has been held by a Division Bench of this Court in Dilbagh Singh v. The State of Uttar Pradesh, 1978 AWC 393. The existence of another remedy under the Act cannot validate the proceedings which are void for lack of jurisdiction and which have resulted in the declaration as surplus land of an area which a person other than the tenure holder who has been heard, claims. The fact that the petitioner could have filed an objection u/s 11(2) will not breath life into or validate these dead proceedings."

16. The aspect of possession, it seems that was never discussed before the Prescribed Authority and accordingly from the aforesaid facts it is clear that the order of the Appellate Authority as well as Prescribed Authority are liable to he quashed, as the petitioners have demonstrated that transfer of land was made prior to 1971 that is they are in possession over the said land and further that their names find mention in C.L.H. Form-3, strongly suggests that contention of the petitioners is correct.

17. In the light of above, the impugned orders dated 08.03.1990, 26.03.1996 and 10.11.2006 are set aside. The matter is remitted back to the Prescribed Authority for deciding the matter afresh. It is provided that the petitioners will have four weeks time from today to file all the evidence to demonstrate that they are owners of the land in question.

18. Considering that much time has lapsed, let the proceedings be concluded expeditiously, say within three months, thereafter, in accordance with law after giving opportunity of hearing to all the parties concerned.

19. The writ petition is allowed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1064
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 20.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 378 (D) No. 138 of 2016

Smt. Sarla Devi ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sushil Kumar Rastogi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Shailendra Singh Rajawat

Delay Condonation-Rules of limitation are not meant to destroy rights of parties-meant with the objective that parties should not resort to dilatory tactics and sleep over their rights-must seek remedy promptly-complete careless and reckless long delay on the part of appellant-virtually unexplained at all-Application for condonation of delay and Appeal dismissed. (E-9)

Cases cited:

1. Collector, Land Acquisition Vs Katiji, 1987(2) SCC 107

2. P.K. Ramachandran Vs St. of Kerala, AIR 1998 SC 2276

3. Shakuntala Devi Jain Vs Kuntal Kumari, AIR 1969 SC 575

4. Brij Indar Singh Vs Kanshi Ram ILR (1918) 45 Cal 94

5. St. of Nagaland Vs Lipok AO & ors., AIR 2005 SC 2191

6. Vedabai @ Vaijayanatabai Baburao Vs Shantaram Baburao Patil & ors., JT 2001(5) SC 608

7. Pundlik Jalam Patil (dead) by LRS. Vs Executive Engineer, Jalgaon Medium Project & anr.(2008) 17 SCC 448

8. Maniben Devraj Shah Vs Municipal Corporation of Brihan Mumbai, 2012 (5) SCC 157

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

(Order on C.M. Application No.70037 of 2016: Application for condonation of delay)

1. List has been revised and the case is being taken up in the revised call of the list.

2. Heard Sri Sushil Kumar Rastogi, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Shailendra Singh Rajawat, Advocate alongwith Ms. Purnima Singh, learned counsel for the respondent nos.2 & 3 as well as Sri Hari Shanker Bajpai, learned A.G.A.-I for the State Opposite Party No.1 and perused the record.

3. This leave to appeal has been filed with a delay of 2 Years 04 Months and 8 Days, as per the report of the stamp reporter, challenging the judgment and order dated 10.06.2013 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.2, Kheri in Criminal Case No.1935 of 2012, Police Station Kotwali Sadar, District Kheri against the acquittal of the accused person/opposite party nos. 2 & 3.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant in the application for condonation of delay supported with the affidavit has taken the ground that the impugned order was passed on 10.06.2023 by the court concerned and the appeal was not filed in time as the clerk of the advocate was ill.

5. Sri Hari Shanker Bajpai, learned A.G.A.-I for the State Opposite Party No.1 as well as Sri Shailendra Singh Rajawat, learned counsel for the opposite party nos.2 & 3 jointly submit that this leave to appeal is time barred by 2 Years 04 Months and 8 Days and the reasons shown in the affidavit supported with application for condonation of delay do not appear to be justified.

6. After considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties as well as after perusal of record, this Court finds that the explanation given in affidavit accompanying delay condonation application filed under Section 5 of Limitation Act, 1963 is neither acceptable nor trustworthy.

7. The expression "sufficient cause" in Section 5 of Act, 1963 has been held to receive a liberal construction so as to advance substantial justice and generally a delay in preferring appeal may be condoned in interest of justice where no gross negligence or deliberate inaction or lack of bona fide is imputable to parties, seeking condonation of delay. In Collector, Land Acquisition Vs. Katiji, 1987(2) SCC 107, the Court said, that, when substantial justice and technical considerations are taken against each other, cause of substantial justice deserves to be preferred, for, the other side cannot claim to have vested right in injustice being done because of a non deliberate delay. The Court further said that judiciary is respected not on account of its power to legalise injustice on technical grounds but because it is capable of removing injustice and is expected to do so.

8. In P.K. Ramachandran Vs. State of Kerala, AIR 1998 SC 2276 the Court said:

"Law of limitation may harshly affect a particular party but it has to be applied with all its rigour when the statute so prescribe and the Courts have no power to extend the period of limitation on equitable grounds."

9. The Rules of limitation are not meant to destroy rights of parties. They virtually take away the remedy. They are meant with the objective that parties should not resort to dilatory tactics and sleep over their rights. They must seek remedy promptly. The object of providing a legal remedy is to repair the damage caused by reason of legal injury. The statute relating to limitation determines a life span for such legal remedy for redress of the legal injury, one has suffered. Time is precious and the wasted time would never revisit. During efflux of time, newer causes would come up, necessitating newer persons to seek legal remedy by approaching the courts. So a life span must be fixed for each remedy. Unending period for launching the remedy may lead to unending uncertainty and consequential anarchy. The statute providing limitation is founded on public policy. It is enshrined in the maxim Interest reipublicae up sit finis litium (it is for the general welfare that a period be put to litigation). It is for this reason that when an action becomes barred by time, the Court should be slow to ignore delay for the reason that once limitation expires, other party matures his rights on the subject with attainment of finality. Though it cannot be doubted that refusal to condone delay would result in foreclosing the suiter from putting forth his cause but simultaneously the party on the other hand is also entitled to sit and feel carefree after a particular length of time, getting relieved from persistent and continued litigation.

10. There is no presumption that delay in approaching the court is always deliberate. No person gains from deliberate delaying a matter by not resorting to take appropriate legal remedy within time but then the words "sufficient cause" show that delay, if any, occurred, should not be deliberate, negligent and due to casual approach of concerned litigant, but, it should be bona fide, and, for the reasons beyond his control, and, in any case should not lack bona fide. If the explanation does not smack of lack of bona fide, the Court should show due consideration to the suiter, but, when there is apparent casual approach on the part of suiter, the approach of Court is also bound to change. Lapse on the part of litigant in approaching Court within time is understandable but a total inaction for long period of delay without any explanation whatsoever and that too in absence of showing any sincere attempt on the part of suiter, would add to his negligence, and would be relevant factor going against him.

11. I need not to burden this judgment with a catena of decisions explaining and laying down as to what should be the approach of Court on construing "sufficient cause" under Section 5 of Act, 1963 and it would be suffice to refer a very few of them besides those already referred.

12. In Shakuntala Devi Jain Vs. Kuntal Kumari, AIR 1969 SC 575 a three Judges Bench of the Court said, that, unless want of bona fide of such inaction or negligence as would deprive a party of the protection of Section 5 is proved, the application must not be thrown out or any delay cannot be refused to be condoned.

13. The Privy Council in Brij Indar Singh Vs. Kanshi Ram ILR (1918) 45 Cal 94 observed that true guide for a court to exercise the discretion under Section 5 is whether the appellant acted with reasonable diligence in prosecuting the appeal. This principle still holds good inasmuch as the aforesaid decision of Privy Council as repeatedly been referred to, and, recently in State of Nagaland Vs. Lipok AO and others, AIR 2005 SC 2191.

14. In Vedabai @ Vaijayanatabai Baburao Vs. Shantaram Baburao Patil and others, JT 2001(5) SC 608 the Court said that under Section 5 of Act, 1963 it should adopt a pragmatic approach. A distinction must be made between a case where the delay is inordinate and a case where the delay is of a few days. In the former case consideration of prejudice to the other side will be a relevant factor so the case calls for a more cautious approach but in the latter case no such consideration may arise and such a case deserves a liberal approach. No hard and fast rule can be laid down in this regard and the basic guiding factor is advancement of substantial justice.

15. In Pundlik Jalam Patil (dead) by LRS. Vs. Executive Engineer, Jalgaon Medium Project and Anr. (2008) 17 SCC 448, in para 17 of the judgment, the Court said :

"...The evidence on record suggests neglect of its own right for long time in preferring appeals. The court cannot enquire into belated and state claims on the ground of equity. Delay defeats equity. The court helps those who are vigilant and "do not slumber over their rights."

16. In Maniben Devraj Shah Vs. Municipal Corporation of Brihan Mumbai, 2012 (5) SCC 157, in para 18 of the judgment, the Court said as under:

"What needs to be emphasised is that even though a liberal and justice oriented approach is required to be adopted in the exercise of power under Section 5 of the Limitation Act and other similar statutes, the Courts can neither become oblivious of the fact that the successful litigant has acquired certain rights on the basis of the judgment under challenge and a lot of time is consumed at various stages of litigation apart from the cost. What colour the expression 'sufficient cause' would get in the factual matrix of a given case would largely depend on bona fide nature of the explanation. If the Court finds that there has been no negligence on the part of the applicant and the cause shown for the delay does not lack bona fides, then it may condone the delay. If, on the other hand, the explanation given by the applicant is found to be concocted or he is thoroughly negligent in prosecuting his cause, then it would be a legitimate exercise of discretion not to condone the delay. In cases involving the State and its agencies/instrumentalities, the Court can take note of the fact that sufficient time is taken in the decision making process but no premium can be given for total lethargy or utter negligence on the part of the officers of the State and / or its agencies/instrumentalities and the applications filed by them for condonation of delay cannot be allowed as a matter of course by accepting the plea that dismissal of the matter on the ground of bar of limitation will cause injury to the public interest."

17. In my view, the kind of explanation rendered herein does not satisfy the observations of Apex Court that if delay has occurred for reasons which does not smack of mala fide, the Court should be reluctant to refuse condonation. On the contrary, I find that here is a case which shows a complete careless and reckless long delay on the part of appellant which has remain virtually unexplained at all. Therefore, I do not find any reason to exercise my judicial discretion exercising judiciously so as to justify condonation of delay in the present case.

18. Accordingly, the application for condonation of delay is rejected.

19. Application for leave to appeal is dismissed.

20. Consequently, the appeal does not survive and is accordingly dismissed.

21. No order as to costs.

22. Consign to record.

23. Let a copy of this judgment be transmitted to the learned trial court for its compliance.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1068
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 25.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 629 of 2024

Informant/Father of Victim ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Rehan Ahmad Siddiqui, Dildar Khan

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section 482 – Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 376-D & 506 - Juvenile Justice Act, - Sections 94 & 94(2) - Information Technology Act, 2000 – Sections 67-A - Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 - Sections 5-G & 6 - Application u/s 482 – challenging the Juvenile Justice Board's order dated 16.11.2023 - which declared the accused (opposite party no. 2) as a juvenile involving serious charges under IPC, IT Act, and POCSO Act – The petitioner argued that the Board ignored discrepancies in age records, particularly the implausible five-month age gap between the accused and his sister, and relied on a medical report instead of school certificates as mandated under Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice Act - St. opposed the petition, asserting that the Board acted within legal bounds by ordering a medical examination due to doubts over the age - held - although the petition was maintainable under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to prevent abuse of process, there was no illegality in the Board's decision, which followed due procedure - consequently, present application is dismissed, with liberty granted to the petitioner to raise all relevant issues before the trial court, which may consider them in accordance with law, especially given the gravity of the allegations.
(Para – 6, 7, 9)

Application Dismissed. (E-11)

List of referred Cases: -
1. Dhariwal Tobacco Products Limited & ors. Vs St. of Mah. & anr. - (2009) 2 SCC 370,

2. Prabha Chawla Vs St. of Rajasthan & anr. - (2016) 16 SCC 30,

3. Dr. Mohd. Iqbal Gaji Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - Application U/S 482 No. 20368/2017 - order dt. 7.4.2023,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rehan Ahmad Siddiqui, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned AGA for State.

2. In view of the proposed order notice to opposite parties no. 2 and 3 are dispensed with.

3. By means of this petition the petitioner has prayed following relief :

"Wherefore, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly be pleased to quash/ set aside the impugned order dated 16-11-2023 passed by the Juvenile Justice Board, Hardoi in case crime No.263/2023 u/s 376-D, 506 I.P.C. 67-A IT. Act & 5G/6 P.O.CS.O Act of P.S Sandila Distt Hardoi thereby declaring the O.P. No.2 as juvenile without considering the relevant materials available on record, to secure the ends of justice & to prevent the abuse of the process of the Court."

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the impugned order dated 16.11.2023 passed by the Juvenile Justice Board, Hardoi is illegal, unwarranted and in the aforesaid order the learned Authority / Board concerned has ignored the apparent error, i.e. the difference of age between the opposite party no. 2 and his real sister is only five months, as per the High School certificates of both the persons and the age difference between the real brother and sister may not be five months in any manner whatsoever. The specific ground has been taken on behalf of petitioner before the Juvenile Justice Board (hereinafter referred to as the 'Board') but the Board, while considering the medical examination report, ignored the High School certificates of the opposite party no. 2 and his sister. Learned counsel has stated that the second eventuality as per section 94 of the Juvenile Justice Act (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act') would come only when the first eventuality may not be liable to be examined and if first eventuality as per section 94 of the Act is available, the other eventuality of section 94 of the Act may not be taken into account, therefore, he has submitted that the order dated 16.11.2023 passed by the Board declaring the opposite party no. 2 as juvenile may be set aside. Section 94 (2) of the Act is being reproduced as under :

"(2) In case, the Committee or the Board has reasonable grounds for doubt regarding whether the person brought before it is a child or not, the Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall undertake the process of age determination, by seeking evidence by obtaining

(i) the date of birth certificate from the school, or the matriculation or equivalent certificate from the concerned examination Board, if available; and in the absence thereof;

(ii) the birth certificate given by a corporation or a municipal authority or a panchayat;

(iii) and only in the absence of (i) and (ii) above, age shall be determined by an ossification test or any other latest medical age determination test conducted on the orders of the Committee or the Board:

Provided such age determination test conducted on the order of the Committee or the Board shall be completed within fifteen days from the date of such order."

5. Sri Singh, learned AGA has firstly raised the objection regarding maintainability of this petition by submitting that the order dated 16.11.2023 may be assailed by filing revision but the learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance of the dictum of Apex Court in re: Dhariwal Tobacco Products Limited and others vs. State of Maharashtra and another : (2009) 2 Supreme Court Cases 370, Prabha Chawla vs. State of Rajasthan and another : (2016) 16 Supreme Court Cases 30 as well as decision of this Court in Application U/S 482 No. 20368 of 2017 : Dr. Mod. Iqbal Gaji vs. State of U.P. and another (judgment and order dated 7.4.2023) wherein it has been held that so as to prevent the abuse of the process of the law the extraordinary remedy which is inherent power of this court u/s 482 Cr.P.C. may be invoked. Sri Singh has further submitted that in the present case as per the High School certificate of the opposite party no. 2 he was a person below the age of 16 years but when the aforesaid fact was disputed before the Board on the basis of two High School Mark sheets one of the opposite party no. 2 and second of his real sister wherein the age difference between the brother and sister is only five months the Board directed for medical examination and on the basis of medical examination report dated 1.11.2023 the age of opposite party was determined as 16 years, therefore, on the basis of aforesaid examination the opposite party no. 2 was declared juvenile. Therefore, Sri Singh has stated that there is no infirmity or illegality in the order dated 16.11.2023 and the aforesaid order impugned should not be said to be an abuse of the process of law in any manner whatsoever.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record as well as having regard the dictum of Apex Court in re: Dhariwal Tobacco Products Limited and others vs. State of Maharashtra and another : (2009) 2 Supreme Court Cases 370, Prabha Chawla vs. State of Rajasthan and another : (2016) 16 Supreme Court Cases 30 as well as decision of this Court in Application U/S 482 No. 20368 of 2017 : Dr. Mod. Iqbal Gaji vs. State of U.P. and another (judgment and order dated 7.4.2023), at the outset I held that if there is any case wherein despite there being an alternative remedy but there is also an apparent abuse of the process of law, the powers of this Court u/s 482 Cr.P.C. may be invoked to cure such abuse of the process of law, therefore, in that way this petition is maintainable u/s 482 Cr.P.C.

7. So far as the merits of the case are concerned the perusal of the impugned order dated 16.11.2023 makes it crystal clear that after perusing the High School Certificate of the opposite party no. 2 whereby it appeared to the Board that opposite party no. 2 is juvenile but considering the objection from the side of the petitioner to the effect that there may not be age difference between the real brother and sister of five months, so the direction for medical examination was issued and after perusing the medical examination report dated 1.11.2023 wherein the fact emerged that the opposite party no. 2 appears to be aged about 16 years, he has been declared juvenile, therefore, there is no illegality or infirmity in the order dated 16.11.2023. Hence, there is no need to interfere in this matter.

8. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed.

9. However, it is always open to the petitioner to raise all the aforesaid pleas and grounds before the learned trial court and it is needless to say that the learned trial court may consider those pleas and grounds at the appropriate stage of trial strictly in accordance with law. Notably, the allegations against the opposite party no. 2 are very serious and if those allegations are proved beyond all reasonable doubts, the learned trial court may award appropriate punishment considering the amended provisions of Juvenile Justice Act as well as relevant sections of Indian Penal Code, if the trial court finds it appropriate to do so.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1071
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 646 of 2024

Pragat Gupta @ Satyam ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Siddharth Sinha

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Shishir Pradhan

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 493 - Cohabitation caused by a man deceitfully inducing a belief of lawful marriage, Section 496 - Marriage ceremony fraudulently gone through without lawful marriage, Section 506 - criminal intimidation - essential ingredients of Section 493 : Deceitful representation by the accused - False belief of lawful marriage in the woman - Cohabitation or sexual intercourse resulting from deception - allegations in the FIR must demonstrate these ingredients. (Para -12)

Complainant alleged – Applicant-accused promised to marry her - applied vermilion (sindoor) to her head - raped her - did not fulfill his marriage promise - Applicant-accused was summoned to face trial. (Para - 1 to 4 ,23)

HELD: - Complainant's allegations do not establish the essential ingredients of offenses under Sections 493, 496, and 506 IPC. Applicants' actions did not amount to deception or fraudulent marriage. Criminal proceedings are quashed due to lack of evidence and abuse of the law. (Para -14 to 22 ,24)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Chandra Bhagat Vs St. of Jharkh., (2013) 1 SCC 562

2. Arun Singh Vs St. of U.P., (2020) 3 SCC 736

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Siddhartha Sinha, the learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Akhilesh Kumar Vyas, the learned A.G.A. appearing on behalf of the State and Sri Shishir Pradhan, the learned counsel for the opposite party no.2.

2. By means of the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. the applicant has sought quashing of the impugned order dated 17.07.2023, summoning the applicant to face trial and the entire proceedings of Complaint Case No.33 of 2019: Vinita Chaudhari Vs. Pragat Gupta, under Sections 493, 496 & 506 I.P.C.Police Station Bachhrawan, District Raebareli pending in the court of learned Civil Judge (Junior Division)/FTC-III, Raebareli.

3. The opposite party no.2 has filed a complaint dated 07.01.2019, under Sections 376, 506 I.P.C. stating that there was a friendship between the opposite party no.2 and the applicant. The applicant visited Raebareli thrice to meet the complainant and asked her to marry him. He went to the house of the complainant and expressed his desire to marry the complainant before her mother also. He gave copies of his educational certificates to the complainant's mother and the complainant had given photocopies of her educational certificates to the applicant.

4. The applicant made a phone call to the complainant at about 2.00 p.m. on 14.05.2018 and called her to make her meet his parents. The complainant went to Bachhrawan by bus from where the applicant took her to a garage, put sindoor (Vermilion) on her head and said that very soon he will perform court marriage with her. In spite of the complainant's objection he forcibly raped her in garage. The applicant thereafter kept on avoiding to marry her on one pretext or the other and in the month of July he met the complainant at Raebareli and deleted whatsapp chat records from her mobile phone. When the complainant presurrized the applicant to marry her then on 28.08.2018 he stated that he would not continue any relation with her.

5. It is stated in the complainant that the complainant had earlier lodged an F.I.R. No.635 of 2018, under Sections 376, 506 I.P.C. in Police Station Bachhrawan. Her medico legal examination was conducted on 03.10.2018 and thereafter the police pressurized her to enter into a settlement but she declined the same. Thereafter, her statement was recorded before the Magistrate under Section 164 Cr.P.C. She stated that the police was not carrying out investigation in furtherance of the F.I.R. properly and was threatening her to file a final report in case she does not enter into a settlement and therefore she was filing complaint.

6. From the averments made in the complaint, it appears that the complainant was filed when the investigation in furtherance of an F.I.R. lodged by the complainant on same set of allegations was still pending.

7. In her statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. the complainant supported the complaint allegations and she stated that on 14.05.2018 the applicant had forcibly put sindoor on her head, raped her and promised to marry her but he did not marry her. She further stated that she knows the applicant for the past one and half years. She had made him meet her parents and the applicant had asked her parent about marrying her. Both of them used to talk to each other till 26.08.2018, on which date he told telephonically that he was severing his relations with the complainant.

8. The statements of the complainant's mother and uncle were recorded under Section 202 Cr.P.C. on 27.07.2019 and they reiterated the version of complaint. One Medical Officer of Community Health Centre, Bachhrawan was also examined as a witness and she had stated that she had medically examined the complainant on 03.10.2018 but as four and half months had elapsed since after the alleged incident she could not give any specific opinion regarding commission of rape. A Sub-Inspector was also examined by the complainant who had proved the F.I.R. lodged by the complainant.

9. The Station House Officer has submitted a report to the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate stating that in the investigation conducted in furtherance of F.I.R. No.635 of 2018 filed by the complainant under Sections 376, 506 I.P.C. he had conducted the investigation and from the whatsapp chat record and the call detail records of the mobile phones of the complainant and the applicant, merely this much could be established that there was a love affair between them. No evidence could be collected regarding commission of rape or criminal intimidation. As per the call detail records, the complainant's presence in the locality where the offence was allegedly committed could not be established on the date of the incident and even after the alleged date of incident the complainant continued to communicate with the applicant, from which it appears that there was a love affair between them.

10. On 11.10.2019, the complainant gave an application to the learned Judicial Magistrate requesting that the final report submitted by the Investigating Officer in furtherance of F.I.R. lodged by her and the complaint be consolidated. On 17.07.2023 the learned trial court passed an order summoning the applicant to face trial for the offences under Sections 493, 496 and 506 I.P.C.

11. While assailing the validity of the aforesaid order, Sri Siddharth Sinha, the learned counsel for the applicant submits that from the allegations levelled in the complaint or the statement of the complainant and other witnesses examined under Section 202 Cr.P.C., the ingredients of offences under Sections 493, 496 and 506 I.P.C. are not made out and therefore the summoning order is bad and is liable to be quashed.

12. Per contra, Sri Shishir Pradhan, the learned counsel for the opposite party no.2-complainant has submitted that the complainant had stated in her statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. that the applicant had put sindoor on her head which is sufficient to give rise to a belief in the mind of any Indian lady that she has got married to the person putting sindoor on her head. Therefore, the ingredients of Sections 493, 496 and 506 I.P.C. are made out. He has placed reliance on a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ram Chandra Bhagat Vs. State of Jharkhand : (2013) 1 SCC 562, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that inducement by a person deceitfully to a woman to change her status from unmarried woman to a lawfully married woman and on that inducement making her cohabit with him in the belief that she is lawfully married to him is what constitutes an offence under Section 493 I.P.C.

13. I have considered the submissions made by parties counsel and gone through the material placed on record.

14. The applicant has been summoned to face trial under Sections 493, 496, 506 I.P.C. Section 493 I.P.C. reads as follows: -

"493. Cohabitation caused by a man deceitfully inducing a belief of lawful marriage.—

Every man who by deceit causes any woman who is not lawfully married to him to believe that she is lawfully married to him and to cohabit or have sexual intercourse with him in that belief, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine.

15. So far as the law laid down in Ram Chandra Bhagat (Supra) relied upon by the learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 is concerned, in that case the Court had found that the appellant-accused had had signed a form and had got the same signed by the complainant also for getting married. The aforesaid fact had made the complainant believe that the appellant-accused had married her and, therefore, she had started residing with him as his wife, without the appellant having actually married the complainant. The persons related to the complainant and the accused were also made to believe that the complainant was the wife of the appellant, though rituals necessary for Hindu marriage had never been performed and admittedly no marriage had taken place between the complainant and the appellant but only on the basis of the documents signed by the complainant at the instance of the appellant-accused, the complainant was made to believe that she was a lawfully married wife of the appellant-accused. The complainant had started residing with the accused as she believed that she had lawfully married the appellant-accused and this fact was also reflected in the voters' list, which mentioned the name of the complainant as the wife of the appellant. As a result of the cohabitation, the complainant had given birth to two children. The appellant-accused had acknowledged the fact that the said two children were his children. Several ceremonies in relation to the birth of the children had also been performed by the appellant-accused. In the aforesaid factual background, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"12. Thus, upon perusal of the evidence, we find that there was sufficient evidence to the effect that the appellant-accused has deceived the complainant, which ultimately resulted into a belief in the mind of the complainant that she was a lawfully married wife of the appellant-accused, though she was not. The aforestated evidence which has been found by all the courts below is sufficient to show that the complainant was made to believe by the deceitful act of the appellant-accused that she was lawfully married to the appellant-accused. The complainant had also cohabited with the appellant and had sexual intercourse with the appellant-accused and thereby she had given birth to two children also.

13. In the aforestated set of circumstances, when there is ample evidence to the effect that only on the deceitful representation of the appellant-accused the complainant believed herself to be a lawfully married wife of the appellant-accused and as she had cohabited with the appellant-accused, there cannot be any doubt with regard to commission of an offence under the provisions of Section 493 IPC."

16. In the present case, although the complainant stated that the applicant had taken her to her garage and had forcibly put sindoor on her head, she has not stated that this act of the applicant had made her believe that she had become wife of the applicant, rather she categorically stated in the same breath that the applicant did not fulfill his promise of marrying her. There is absolutely no averment that the applicant and the complainant have at any point of time cohabited as husband and wife or that they have projected themselves as such to their relatives or to the society. The facts of the present case are in no way similar to the facts of Ram Chandra Bhagat (Supra) and, therefore, the principle of law laid down in that case would not apply to the present case.

17. In Arun Singh v. State of U.P., (2020) 3 SCC 736, the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to the judgment in the case of Ram Chandra Bhagat (Supra) and explained the essential ingredients to constitute the offence under Section 493 I.P.C. as follows: -

"19. A plain reading of the section goes to show that in order to constitute an offence under this section, it has to be demonstrated that a man has deceitfully caused any woman, who is not lawfully married to him, to believe that she is lawfully married wife and thereby to cohabit with him. In other words, the accused must induce a woman, not lawfully married to him, to believe that she is married to him and as a result of such misrepresentation, woman should believe that she was lawfully married to the man and thus there should be cohabitation or sexual intercourse.

* * *

21. The essence of an offence under Section 493 IPC is, therefore, practice of deception by a man on a woman as a consequence of which the woman is led to believe that she is lawfully married to him although she is not and then make her cohabit with him.

22. Deceit can be said to be a false statement of fact made by a person knowingly and recklessly with the intent that it shall be acted upon by another who on believing the same after having acted thereupon suffers an injury. It is an attempt to deceive and includes such declaration and statement that misleads others or causes him to believe which otherwise is false and incorrect.

23. In other words, to constitute an offence under Section 493 IPC, the allegations in the FIR must demonstrate that the appellant had practised deception on the daughter of the complainant causing a false belief of existence of lawful marriage and which led her to cohabit with him."

18. As per the statement of the complainant herself, there was a loving relationship between her and the applicant. The applicant had met her mother and talked about marrying her. The applicant had called her to Bacchrawan to make her meet his parents but he took her to garage situated at some distance from his house, forcibly put sindoor on her head, raped her, promised to marry her and she went back home but the applicant did not marry her. The complaint nowhere stated that at any point of time the applicant had made her believe that she was lawfully married to him or that the applicant had made her go through the ceremony of being married. Therefore, ingredients essential for making out commission of offence under Section 493 I.P.C. are missing in the present case.

19. The applicant has also been summoned to face trial for offence under Section 496 I.P.C., which provides as follows: -

"496. Marriage ceremony fraudulently gone through without lawful marriage.—

Whoever, dishonestly or with a fraudulent intention, goes through the ceremony of being married, knowing that he is not thereby lawfully married, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine."

20. The complainant does not allege that he applicant had gone through the ceremony of being married, rather she has specifically stated that the applicant did not marry her in spite of having promised to do so. Therefore, the ingredients of Section 496 I.P.C. are also not made out from the case set up by the complainant herself.

21. The next allegation is regarding commission of offence under Section 506 IP.C., which reads as follows: -

506. Punishment for criminal intimidation.—

Whoever commits, the offence of criminal intimidation shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both;If threat be to cause death or grievous hurt, etc.— And if the threat be to cause death or grievous hurt, or to cause the destruction of any property by fire, or to cause an offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or to impute, unchastity to a woman, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both."

22. There is absolutely no averment made by the complainant or any other witness so as to even prima facie establish that the applicant had threatened the complainant that any injury to her person, reputation or property, or to the person or reputation of anyone in whom that person is interested, with intent to cause alarm to the complainant, or to do any act which she is not legally bound to do, or to omit to do any such act. Therefore, the commission of offence under Section 506 I.P.C. is also not made out against the applicant on the basis of the averments made by the complainant in and her witnesses.

23. From the foregoing discussion, it appears that the learned trial court has summoned the applicant to face the trial for the offences under Sections 493, 496, 506 I.P.C without taking into consideration the aforesaid aspects of the matter.

24. Resultantly, the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed. The impugned order dated 17.07.2023, summoning the applicant to face trial and the entire proceedings of Complaint Case No.33 of 2019: Vinita Chaudhari Vs. Pragat Gupta, under Sections 493, 496 & 506 I.P.C. Police Station Bachhrawan, District Raebareli pending in the court of learned Civil Judge (Junior Division)/FTC-III, Raebareli are hereby quashed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1076
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 24.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 662 of 2024

Ansad Badruddin ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sheeran Mohiuddin Alavi, Harsh Vardhan Kediya, Ishan Baghel

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 – Sections 231, 231(2) & 482 – The Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 – Sections 13, 16, 18 & 20 – Indian Evidence Act, 1872 – Sections 135 & 138 - Arms Act, 1959 - Sections 3, 25 & 35 - Explosive Substances Act, 1908 - Sections 3, 4, 5(v), 11, 12 & 13-B, - Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Sections 120-B & 121-A - Application U/s 482 Cr.P.C. – for quashing the impugned trial court orders allowing examination-in-chief without timely cross-examination as well as the entire criminal proceedings - petitioner claimed that, the trial court conducted examination-in-chief of several prosecution witnesses (PW-3 to PW-7) without allowing timely cross-examination by the petitioner, thereby violating procedural fairness and natural justice – court after considering the relevant provisions of Section 135 & 138 of the Evidence Act as well as section 231 of Cr.P.C. and also having regard to the dictum of Apex Court in case of 'St. of Kerala Vs Rasheed',– consequently, present Application is disposed of - with direction to conduct the cross-examination of PW-2 to PW-9 on day-to-day basis before further chief-examinations – direction also issued for expeditious trial.

(Para – 5, 9, 11, 12, 13)

Application Disposed of. (E-11)

List of referred Cases: -

1. St. of Kerala Vs Rasheed – 2019 vol. 13 SCC 297.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ishan Baghel, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Pradeep Tiwari holding brief of Sri Shiv Nath Tilhari, learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 as well as Sri Ram Raj, learned AGA for the State.

2. By means of this petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner has prayed the following main reliefs:

"WHEREFORE, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may graciously be pleased to set-aside the order dated 24.04.2023 passed by the learned Special Judge NIA/ATS, Lucknow in Sessions Case No. 1309 of 2021 (State of Uttar Pradesh v. Ansad Badruddin and Another), wherein, the examination-in-chief of the prosecution witnesses PW-3 and PW-4 was conducted while the examination-in-chief of the PW-2 remained pending, as well as the orders 02.05.2023 and 15.05.2023 passed by the learned Special Judge NIA/ATS, Lucknow in Sessions Case No. 1309 of 2021 (State of Uttar Pradesh v. Ansad Badruddin and Another), wherein the learned Trial Court has proceeded to direct that examination-in-chief of all the prosecution witnesses, relied upon in the charge-sheet, be conducted and thereafter the said prosecution witnesses be called for cross examination by the defence, may also kindly be quashed, in the interest of justice.

Further, this Hon'ble Court may also kindly be pleased to direct the learned Special Judge NIA/ATS, Lucknow to conduct the proceedings of Sessions Case No.1309 of 2021 (State of Uttar Pradesh v. Ansad Badruddin and Another) in legal and lawful manner, by providing reasonable opportunity to the applicant/accused to cross-examine the prosecution witnesses, before calling the rest of the prosecution witnesses for conducting examination-in-chief, in the interest of justice.

It is further prayed that the entire proceedings of Sessions Case No.1309 of 2021 (State of Uttar Pradesh v. Ansad Badruddin and Another), arising out of FIR No. 04 of 2021, Police Station ATS, Gomti Nagar, District Lucknow, pending in the Court of the learned Special Judge NIA/ATS, Lucknow, under Sections 120-B, 121-A I.P.C., Sections 13, 16, 18 and 20 of UAPA, 1967 and Sections 3, 4 and 5 of Explosive Substances Act, 1908 and 3, 25 and 35 Arms Act, 1959, may kindly remain stayed during the pendency of the present Application, in the interest of justice."

3. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner has informed that the cross-examination of PW-1 has been done by the present petitioner, however the same opportunity has been closed for other co-accused persons. Learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No. 1 showing the orders dated 24.04.2023, 02.05.2023 and 15.05.2023 whereby the examination-in-chief of PW-3, PW-5, PW-6, PW-7 has been done, however none of the aforesaid prosecution witnesses have been permitted to be cross-examined by the petitioner and the order dated 15.05.2023 reveals that the learned trial court has observed that after recording the examination-in-chief of all the prosecution witnesses, the opportunity of cross-examination would be provided to the petitioner.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has referred Section 135 and 138 of the Evidence Act, 1872. Section 135 of the Act provides the order of production and examination of witnesses and Section 138 of the Act provides the order of examinations. For convenience, Sections 135 and 138 of the Evidence Act read as under:

"135. Order of production and examination of witnesses.?The order in which witnesses are produced and examined shall be regulated by the law and practice for the time being relating to civil and criminal procedure respectively, and, in the absence of any such law, by the discretion of the Court.

138. Order of examinations.?Witnesses shall be first examined-in chief then (if the adverse party so desires) cross-examined, then (if the party calling him so desires) re-examined.

The examination and cross-examination must relate to relevant facts but the cross-examination need not be confined to the facts to which the witness testified on his examination-in-chief."

5. As per Section 138, the witnesses shall be first examined-in-chief then if the adverse party so desires, cross examined, then if the party calling him so desires, re-examined. In other words, the examination-in-chief of the witness would be done first then he would be cross-examined and if there is any need, he may be re-examined. The aforesaid procedure is adopted by the learned trial court, therefore, for the convenience of the parties and also in the interest of justice, all the three steps, if so required, may be done one by one. After recording of examination-in-chief of any witness, he should be cross-examined, thereafter if it is so needed, he may be re-examined.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that if the examination-in-chief of all the prosecution witnesses is recorded, then their cross-examination would not be convenient for the Advocate of the petitioner, therefore he has requested that all the prosecution witnesses whose examination-in-chief has been recorded i.e. prosecution witnesses nos. 2 to 9, they be cross-examined by the petitioner one by one. After the aforesaid cross-examination of PW-2 to PW-9, the examination-in-chief of the other prosecution witnesses be recorded.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that for the aforesaid cross-examination, the short dates may be fixed but the petitioner may be given opportunity to cross-examine all the aforesaid prosecution witnesses one by one.

8. On the other hand, learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 has referred Section 231 of the Cr.P.C. which provides evidence for prosecution. Learned counsel has referred Sub Clause 2 of Section 231 Cr.P.C. which provides that the trial judge may, as per his discretion, permit the cross-examination of any witness to be deferred until any witness or witnesses have been examined or recall any witness for further cross-examination, therefore, the learned trial court has rightly observed in the order dated 15.05.2023 that after chief-examination of all the prosecution witnesses, those may be cross-examined by the petitioner.

9. Replying the aforesaid contention of learned counsel for opposite party no. 2, Sri Baghel has referred a judgment of Apex Court in Re: State of Kerala Vs. Rasheed reported in [(2019) 13 SCC 297] wherein the Apex Court in Para nos. 18, 22 and 23 has held that the examination of witness should be done in accordance with Section 138 of the Act, 1872 and there cannot be a straitjacket formula providing for the grounds on which judicial discretion under Section 231(2) Cr.P.C. can be exercised as it shall depend on case-to-case basis. Vide Para 23 thereof, the factors have been explained by the Apex Court, deciding the application under Section 231(2) Cr.P.C. For the convenience, Para nos. 18, 22 and 23 of the judgment read as under:

"18. What follows from the discussion is that the norm in any criminal trial is for the examination-in-chief of witnesses to be carried out first, followed by cross-examination, and re-examination if required, in accordance with Section 138 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C., however, confers a discretion on the Judge to defer the cross-examination of any witness until any other witness or witnesses have been examined, or recall any witness for further cross-examination, in appropriate cases. Judicial discretion has to be exercised in consonance with the statutory framework and context while being aware of reasonably foreseeable consequences.5 The party seeking deferral under Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C. must give sufficient reasons to invoke the exercise of discretion by the Judge, and deferral cannot be asserted as a matter of right.

22. There cannot be a straitjacket formula providing for the grounds on which judicial discretion under Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C. can be exercised. The exercise of discretion has to take place on a case-to-case basis. The guiding principle for a Judge under Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C. is to ascertain whether prejudice would be caused to the party seeking deferral, if the application is dismissed.

23. While deciding an Application under Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C., a balance must be struck between the rights of the accused, and the prerogative of the prosecution to lead evidence. The following factors must be kept in consideration:

(i) possibility of undue influence on witness(es);

(ii) possibility of threats to witness(es);

(iii) possibility that non-deferral would enable subsequent witnesses giving evidence on similar facts to tailor their testimony to circumvent the defence strategy;

(iv) possibility of loss of memory of the witness(es) whose examination-in-chief has been completed;

(v) occurrence of delay in the trial, and the non-availability of witnesses, if deferral is allowed, in view of Section 309(1) of the Cr.P.C.

These factors are illustrative for guiding the exercise of discretion by a Judge under Section 231(2) of the Cr.P.C."

10. Sri Baghel has also referred Annexure No. 5 which a judgment and order dated 28.04.2023 passed by this Court in Application U/s 482 Cr.P.C. No.

4201 of 2023 (Sallahuddin Vs. State of U.P. and Others), whereby application of Section 231(2) of Cr.P.C. has been discussed in the light of dictum of Apex Court in re: Rasheed (supra).

11. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, having perused the material available on record, the relevant provisions of Section 135 and 138 of the Evidence Act as well as Section 231 of Cr.P.C. and also having regard to the dictum of Apex Court in re:Rasheed (supra), I am of the considered opinion that the examination of any witness should be done strictly in accordance with Section 138 of the Act, 1872 and the discretion so conferred upon the trial court under Section 231(2) Cr.P.C. must be applied judicially and carefully giving specific reasons to that effect, so as to achieve the interest of justice of the cause and the parties.

12. In the present case, the learned trial court has not given any reasons as to why he has not permitted the defence side for cross-examination of the prosecution witnesses after completion of examination-in-chief.

13. Hence, I find it appropriate to issue direction to the effect that those prosecution witnesses whose examination-in-chief has been completed i.e. PW-2 to PW-9, their cross-examination be conducted by the petitioner one by one. It is upon the trial court that the aforesaid cross-examination may be conducted on day-to-day bass. After the cross-examination of the aforesaid prosecution witnesses i.e. from PW-2 to PW-9, the examination-in-chief of the other prosecution witnesses may be permitted to be done. The learned trial court shall also ensure that the trial in question is conducted and concluded with expedition and no one unnecessary adjournment is given to any of the parties.

14. In view of the aforesaid observations, this petition is disposed of.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1080
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 29.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 711 of 2024

Ram Sajiwan & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Dilip Kumar Pandey

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Section 190 (1) (b) - Magistrate empowered to take cognizance of any offence upon a police report of facts which constitute such offence , Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 323, 354B, 504, 506 - Magistrate has the power to take cognizance of an offence under Section 190(1)(b) CrPC based on the facts disclosed in the police report, even if the police report does not mention the specific offence - Trial court can summon the accused for trial of additional offences not mentioned in the charge sheet if sufficient material exists - Veracity of witness statements is to be evaluated during trial, not at the discharge/quashing stage - Court's jurisdiction under Section 482 CrPC is limited; it cannot conduct a mini-trial or assess evidence.(Para -12,16,19)

Dispute over parking led to altercation and alleged molestation - FIR lodged against applicants - Charge sheet filed - Trial court took cognizance of additional offense under Section 354-B IPC - Applicants challenged cognizance order, summoning order & entire proceedings. (Para - 2 to 5)

HELD: - Victim's categorically stated facts under Section 354B IPC provide sufficient material for further proceedings against the applicant. Trial court was allowed to take cognizance of the offense based on material collected by the Investigating Officer and available at the time of cognizance. Case for trial of applicant made out. No illegality in the order taking cognizance of the offence.(Para – 20 to 22)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Guj. Girish Vs Radhakrishnan Varde, (2014) 3 SCC 659

2. Nahar Singh Vs St.of U.P., (2022) 5 SCC 295

3. India Carat (P) Ltd. Vs St.of Karn., (1989) 2 SCC 132

4. Minu Kumari Vs St.of Bihar,(2006) 4 SCC 359

5. Dharam Pal Vs St.of Har., (2014) 3 SCC 306

6. St.of Guj. Vs Girish Radhakrishnan Varde (2014) 3 SCC 659

7. Nahar Singh Vs St.of U. P. & ors., (2022) 5 SCC 295

8. Sadab Vs St. of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine All 30

9. CBI Vs Aryan Singh, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 379

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Dilip Kumar Pandey, the learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Sanjay Maurya, the learned AGA for the State and perused the record.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the applicants have sought quashing of the charge sheet no. 2 dated 22.07.2022, the summoning order dated 03.12.2022 as well as the entire proceedings of Case No. 42325/2022 (State v. Ram Sajiwan & Ors.) arising out of Case Crime No. 439/2021, under Sections 323, 354B, 504, 506 IPC, Police Station Lalganj, District Raebareli.

3. In the FIR lodged on 06.11.2021 against the applicant, the opposite party no. 2 stated that due to a dispute arising from some pieces of wood being carried by the applicant having hit the motorcycle of one of the applicants parked on the passage, all the accused persons started beating the informant and they also beaten up and molested the informant's sister. The informant and his sister had received injuries in the incident and their medico legal examination reports are annexed with the application. The informant's sister stated in her statement recorded by the Investigating Officer as also in her statement recorded by the Magistrate, that when she had gone to save her brother after hearing the hue and cry raised by him, she was also beaten up and molested by the accused persons and her clothes got torn in the process. She further stated that there is an old animosity between the parties as her aunt's daughter had been killed four years ago and the applicant no. 3 - Shubham had remained in custody in connection with the aforesaid case and he was released recently and he threatens regarding the earlier case.

4. Some independent witnesses examined by the Investigating Officer supported the incident but they stated that the allegation of molestation had been leveled because of animosity to put pressure on the accused persons and clothes of the informant's sister got torn as she had fallen down during the incident.

5. After investigation, the Investigating Officer had submitted a charge sheet dated 22.07.2022 for commission of offences under Sections 323, 504, 506 IPC only but while taking cognizance of the offences, the trial court also took cognizance of the offence under Section 354-B IPC and summoned the accused persons to face the trial for offences under Sections 323, 504, 506 and 354-B IPC.

6. The learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that from the statement of the independent witnesses, allegation of commission of offence under Section 354-B IPC is not supported. He has further submitted that when the offence under Sections 354-B is not there in the charge sheet, it was not open for the trial court to take cognizance of the aforesaid offence. In support of this contention, the learned counsel for the applicant has placed reliance on a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Gujarat v. Girish Radhakrishnan Varde (2014) 3 SCC 659 in which it was held that the Magistrate cannot exclude or include any section in the charge sheet after investigation has been completed and charge sheet has been submitted by the police and the same would be permissible by the trial court only at the time of framing of charge under section 216, 218 or under section 228 of the Cr.P.C. as the case may be.

7. The learned trial court has placed reliance on a judgment of Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Nahar Singh Vs. State of U.P., (2022) 5 SCC 295, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the trial court may summon any person, even if he is not named in the police report, in case it appears that on the basis of material available on record, the involvement of that person in commission of offence is prima facie established.

8. I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the aforesaid submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the applicants.

9. The victim has categorically stated that the accused persons had molested her and her clothes got torn away in the process. From the statement of the victim, the offence under Section 354-B IPC is made out.

10. Section 190 (1) Cr.P.C. is being reproduced below: -

"190. Cognizance of offences by Magistrates.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, any Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate of the second class specially empowered in this behalf under sub-section (2), may take cognizance of any offence—

(a) upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence;

(b) upon a police report of such facts;

(c) upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge, that such offence has been committed.

11. A bare reading of Section 190 (1) (b) Cr.P.C. indicates that a Magistrate is empowered to take cognizance of any offence upon a police report of facts which constitute such offence. Police report has to be of facts which constitute the offence and it need not mention the offence which is made out. Even if the police report mentions some offence and it omits to mention some other offence, in case the Magistrate is satisfied from facts stated in the police report that some other offence is also made out, the Magistrate can take cognizance of that offence also.

12. In India Carat (P) Ltd. v. State of Karnataka, (1989) 2 SCC 132, a Bench consisting of three Hon'ble Judges of the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"11. ... On receiving the police report the Magistrate may take cognizance of the offence under Section 190(1)(b) and issue process straightway to the accused. The Magistrate may exercise his powers in this behalf irrespective of the view expressed by the police in their report whether an offence has been made out or not. This is because the police report under Section 173(2) will contain the facts discovered or unearthed by the police as well as the conclusion drawn by the police therefrom. If the Magistrate is satisfied that upon the facts discovered or unearthed by the police there is sufficient material for him to take cognizance of the offence and issue process, the Magistrate may do so without reference to the conclusion drawn by the Investigating Officer because the Magistrate is not bound by the opinion of the police officer as to whether an offence has been made out or not. Alternately the Magistrate, on receiving the police report, may without issuing process or dropping the proceeding proceed to act under Section 200 by taking cognizance of the offence on the basis of the complaint originally submitted to him and proceed to record the statement upon oath of the complainant and the witnesses present and thereafter decide whether the complaint should be dismissed or process should be issued.

* * *

13....On receiving the police report the Magistrate may take cognizance of the offence under Section 190(1)(b) and issue process straightway to the accused. The Magistrate may exercise his powers in this behalf irrespective of the view expressed by the police in their report whether an offence has been made out or not. This is because the police report under Section 173(2) will contain the facts discovered or unearthed by the police as well as the conclusion drawn by the police therefrom. If the Magistrate is satisfied that upon the facts discovered or unearthed by the police there is sufficient material for him to take cognizance of the offence and issue process, the Magistrate may do so without reference to the conclusion drawn by the Investigating Officer because the Magistrate is not bound by the opinion of the police officer as to whether an offence has been made out or not. Alternately the Magistrate, on receiving the police report, may without issuing process or dropping the proceeding proceed to act under Section 200 by taking cognizance of the offence on the basis of the complaint originally submitted to him and proceed to record the statement upon oath of the complainant and the witnesses present and thereafter decide whether the complaint should be dismissed or process should be issued."

13. In Minu Kumariv.State of Bihar,(2006) 4 SCC 359, a Bench consisting of two Hon'ble Judges of the Hon'ble Supreme Court heldthat: -

"11.... The position is, therefore, now well-settled that upon receipt of a police report under Section 173(2) a Magistrate is entitled to take cognizance of an offence under Section 190(1)(b) of the Code even if the police report is to the effect that no case is made out against the accused. The Magistrate can take into account the statements of the witnesses examined by the police during the investigation and take cognizance of the offence complained of and order the issue of process to the accused. Section 190(1)(b) does not lay down that a Magistrate can take cognizance of an offence only if the Investigating Officer gives an opinion that the investigation has made out a case against the accused. The Magistrate can ignore the conclusion arrived at by the Investigating officer and independently apply his mind to the facts emerging from the investigation and take cognizance of the case, if he thinks fit, exercise of his powers under Section 190(1)(b) and direct the issue of process to the accused."

14. In Dharam Pal v. State of Haryana, (2014) 3 SCC 306, decided on 18.07.2013, a Constitution Bench of five Hon'ble Judges of the Hon'ble Supreme Court had held that: -

"the Magistrate has a role to play while committing the case to the Court of Session upon taking cognizance on the police report submitted before him under Section 173(2) CrPC. In the event the Magistrate disagrees with the police report, he has two choices. He may act on the basis of a protest petition that may be filed, or he may, while disagreeing with the police report, issue process and summon the accused."

15. State of Gujarat v. Girish Radhakrishnan Varde (2014) 3 SCC 659 relied upon by the learned Counsel for the applicant, was decided by a Bench consisting of two Hon'ble Judges was decided on 25.11.2013, and in this judgment, none of the precedents on the point have been considered, including the Constitution Bench judgment in the case of Dharam Pal (Supra) and the judgment of a Bench consisting of three Hon'ble Judges in Minu Kumari (Supra). It is well settled that where there is a conflict in the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the judgment rendered by a larger bench will prevail.

16. In Nahar Singh versus State of U. P. and others, (2022) 5 SCC 295, after discussing various precedents on the point, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the Magistrate has to apply his mind while taking cognizance of an offence and if it appears from the material placed before him and any person other than those arrayed as accused also needs to be summoned, the Magistrate can certainly summon him. On the same principle, in case the Magistrate is satisfied that there is sufficient material for trial of the accused for any other offence, he has the power to summon the accused person(s) for trial of that offence also. In case the Magistrate is satisfied by a perusal of the complaint and the material filed with it, that the accused persons appear to have violated any direction, it can take cognizance of the offence under Section 31-A also.

17. In Sadab versus State of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine All 30, a coordinate bench of this Court held that a Magistrate is having all the authority to take cognizance of any offence on the basis of the material collected by the Investigating Officer during investigation and if he arrives at the conclusion that an offence is also made out, in which, charge-sheet has not been submitted then he can take cognizance for such offence(s) too and can summon the accused.

18. Therefore, the legal position is settled beyond any confusion and I find no force in the submission of the learned Counsel for the applicant that when Section 354-B was not mentioned in the charge-sheet, the Magistrate had no jurisdiction to take cognizance of that offence.

19. Although some independent witnesses gave statements contrary to the statement of the victim but veracity of the statements has to be evaluated by the trial court during the trial, when the other party will have the opportunity of cross examination the witnesses. In CBI v. Aryan Singh, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 379, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has reiterated the cardinal principle of law, that at the stage of discharge and/or quashing of the criminal proceedings, while exercising the powers under Section482Cr. P.C., the Court is not required to conduct the mini trial. This is not the stage where the prosecution/investigating agency is/are required to prove the charges. The charges are required to be proved during the trial on the basis of the evidence led by the prosecution/investigating agency. At the stage of discharge and/or while exercising the powers under Section482Cr. P.C., the Court has a very limited jurisdiction and is required to consider "whether any sufficient material is available to proceed further against the accused for which the accused is required to be tried or not".

20. When the victim has categorically stated the facts establishing commission of offence under Section 354B IPC, there is sufficient material to proceed further against the applicant. The trial court was well within its rights to take cognizance of the offence under Section 354B IPC on the basis of material collected by the Investigating Officer and available before the court at the time of taking of the cognizance.

21. Accordingly, I am of the considered view that a case for trial of the applicant under Section 323, 354B, 504 & 506 IPC is made out.

22. There is no illegality in the order taking cognizance of the offence.

23. The application lacks merit and the same is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1085
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 739 of 2024

Shri Ayush Tandon & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Lalta Prasad Misra, Shashank Shekhar Shukla

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Quashing of Criminal Proceedings in Matrimonial Disputes - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 498-A, 325, 506, The Dowry prohibition Act, 1961 - Section 3/4, Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 - Sections 9 - Restitution of conjugal rights, Section 12 - Voidable marriages - Criminal prosecution cannot be allowed to be misused for ulterior objective to put undue pressure on the husband, his family members and relatives for restitution of conjugal rights. (Para - 30)

Wife filed a complaint under Section 156(3) CrPC against husband and his family members - after receiving summons for suit under Section 12 of Hindu Marriage Act & after Family Court's deadline for filing written statement had passed - alleging dowry harassment and cruelty - which was decreed - wife's suit under Section 9 was dismissed - wife's complaint was found to contain general allegations without specific incidents or evidence - magistrate found contradictions in the wife's statements and did not summon some accused family members due to lack of specific allegations.(Para -1 to 11 ,26)

HELD: - Wife filed application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. merely to put pressure on applicants and other members of their family for restitution of her matrimonial relationship with Husband. Continuance of the criminal proceedings against the applicants will be a gross abuse of the process of law and will result in the failure of justice to the applicants. Summoning order and related criminal proceedings were quashed to prevent abuse of the legal process. (Para - 30,32,33)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Preeti Gupta Vs St. of Jharkh., (2010) 7 SCC 667

2. St. of Karn. Vs L. Muniswamy , (1977) 2 SCC 699

3. Mahmood Ali Vs St. of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950

4. Geeta Mehrotra & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & anr, (2012) 10 SCC 741

5. Abhishek Vs St. of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. The opposite party no. 2 appeared in person and she has filed a counter affidavit. She stated that she will advance her submissions by herself, as she is not in a position to afford to pay the fee of any Advocate. The Court offered to provide the services of an Advocate at the State's expenses but she declined the. After this, the Court proceeded to hear the submissions of Dr. Lalta Prasad Misra, the learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Anurag Verma, learned A.G.A-I for the State and Ms. Disha Kappor, the opposite party no. 2 in person, who has produced her Adhaar Card to establish her identity.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C, the applicants have sought quashing of the summoning order dated 08.11.2023 passed by the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Room No. 27, Lucknow and the entire proceedings of Complaint Case No. 9780 of 2022 instituted in furtherance of Miscellaneous Case No. 325/2022, which was an application filed by the opposite party no. 2 under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C (Disha Tandon Vs. Ayush Tandon and others) under Sections 498-A, 325, 506 I.P.C. and 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, P.S. Mahila Thana, Hazratganj, District Lucknow, which is pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Room No. 27, Lucknow.

3. The opposite party no.2 had filed the application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. against 10 persons - (i) Ayush Tandon son of Amit Tandon (the applicant no.1) (ii) Ashutosh Tandon 'Gopal Ji', son of Lalji Tondon (Minister, Government of Uttar Pradesh) (iii)- Madhu Tandon wife of Ashutosh Tandon (iv) Subodh Tandon, son of Lalji Tandon (v)-Vandana Tandon wife of Subodh Tandon (vi) Amit Tandon, son of Lalji Tandon (the applicant no.2) (vii)-

Namita Tandon wife of Amit Tandon (the applicant no. 3) (viii) Teeru Khanna daughter of Ashutosh Tandon (ix)- Saloni Sehgal daughter of Amit Tandon (x) Vansh Tandon son of Subodh Tandon, stating that she got married to the applicant no.1 on 11.12.2019. The grandfather of the applicant no.1 used to treat the opposite party no.2 affectionately and respectfully but after his death, all the accused persons used to harass her mentally and they used to abuse and beat her. Uncle of the applicant no.1, who was an Hon'ble Minister, used to encourage him to beat his wife. About two months after death of the grandfather of the applicant no.1, the opposite party no.2 was turned out of her matrimonial home on 28.09.2020. Prior to it, the entire family had harassed the opposite party no.2 and applicant no.1 had beaten her and caused a fracture in her hand. When the opposite party no.2 went to her matrimonial home on 08.10.2020, all the accused persons had treated her badly. Uncle of the applicant no.1 had threatened the opposite party no.2 to get the opposite party no.2 shot by his matrimonial uncle Chandra Mohan Mehrotra (who had not been arrayed as a party to the application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C). On the first wedding anniversary of the opposite party no.2 summons of a suit for annulment of marriage was issued by the Family Court. The opposite party no.2 categorically stated in the application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C., that she merely wants that she should be given the same respect by her husband and his family members as was given during the lifetime of the grandfather of the applicant no.1 but the uncle of the applicant no.1 keeps on threatening her because of his high political position.

4. It was further stated in the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. that when the opposite party no.2 had gone with her mother to meet her husband on 16.12.2021, the accused persons abused them from the balcony, threatened them, and stated that till the opposite party no.2 gave Rs. 50 lakhs and a Fortuner car in dowry, she will not be able to live in her matrimonial home. She gave an application to the police on 02.01.2022, but she was pressurized to withdraw her complaint. She gave several applications to the authorities but no action was taken thereon, and, therefore, she filed the application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C.

5. On 24.02.2022, the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-III, Lucknow passed an order on the aforesaid stating that the opposite party no.2 and the applicant no.1 are husband and wife and the other persons impleaded in the application are members of the husband's family. Matrimonial disputes are pending between the parties. The nature of allegations levelled in the complaint does not require any investigation by the police and, therefore, it would be just and proper to register the application as a complaint.

6. In the statement of the opposite party no.2 recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C, she stated that her parents had fulfilled the demands of dowry made by the family members of Ayush Tandon by selling away their property. The demand for dowry started on the date following the day of her marriage and when she declined, all the accused persons started harassing her mentally and physically and she was taunted for bringing less dowry. When she used to take some medicines or go out to get medical treatment, she was locked up in a room. She stated that she had been beaten and turned out of her matrimonial home on 28.09.2020 and when she went to the house of her husband on 08.10.2020, all the accused persons had threaten to get her killed through one Chandra Mohan Mehrotra and all the accused persons had pressurized the applicant no. 1 to get his marriage with the opposite party no.2 dissolved. The accused persons had called her to talk for a settlement on 16.12.2020 and when she went there, accused Subodh Tandon had stated while standing in a balcony that the applicant can live in her matrimonial home only if she bring Rs. 50 lakhs and a Fortuner car.

7. The statement of the mother and brother of the opposite party no.2 were recorded under Section 202 Cr.P.C. Her brother stated that his family members had spent Rs.50 Lakhs in the wedding ceremony after selling and mortgaging land. Since immediately the marriage, the accused persons used to taunt the opposite party no. 2 that she was from a poor family. The mother of the opposite party no. 2 stated that opposite party no.2 was harassed even during the lifetime of the grandfather of the applicant no.1 and she was harassed for demanding Rs. 50 lakhs and a Fortuner car. In June 2021, she sold some property for Rs.85. Lakhs and arranged Rs.1.5 Lakhs more and gave it to the applicant no. 1.

8. The opposite party no.2 has filed a counter affidavit opposing the application wherein she has inter alia stated that even after she was turned out of her matrimonial home, she was hopeful of improvement in the behaviour of her husband and his family members. The applicant no.1 used to repetitively talk to her through mobile phone and assure that he will take her back to her matrimonial home. When the applicant no.1 did not take the opposite party no. 2 to his home, she tried to lodge a report with the police but her report was not registered. Thereafter she sent an application dated 11.12.2022 to the State Women Commission for lodging an F.I.R, but no action was taken thereon. After sometime, the opposite party no.2 got information of petition for annulment of her marriage. She has not accepted the decree and has not withdrawn the amount of ₹30 lakhs and has filed an appeal against the decree.

9. In para 22 of the counter affidavit, the opposite party no.2 has stated that after her marriage, she had gone for honeymoon with the applicant no. 1 to Dubai and the opposite party no.2 and the applicant no.1 both were very happy during the trip. The opposite party no.2 has further stated in the counter affidavit that the applicants are high profile political persons connected with the ruling party and several respected advocates have declined to accept her case and, therefore, she has decided to conduct the case herself. Numerous other allegations have been levelled in the counter affidavit, which were not there in the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C.

10. The learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the marriage between the opposite party no.2 and the applicant no.1 was solemnized on 11.12.2019. On 28.10.2020 the applicant no.1 had filed a suit no. 2790 of 2020 under Section 12 of Hindu Marriage Act in the Court of the Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow. The opposite party no.2 appeared before the Family Court on 17.12.2020 but in spite of repetitive opportunities, she did not file a written statement. On 23.02.2021, the Family Court passed an order giving last opportunity to the opposite party no.2 to file her written statement. On 17.01.2022, she filed the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C alleging harassment by the applicants and numerous other persons related to them for demanding dowry. Thereafter she filed her written statement on 20.04.2022 and she also filed a Suit No. 349 of 2022 for restitution of conjugal rights under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act. Both the suits have been decided by means of a common judgment dated 18.08.2023 whereby suit number 2790 of 2020 filed by the applicant no.1 under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act has been decreed and suit number 349 of 2022 filed by the opposite party no.2 under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act has been dismissed. The Family Court has ordered the applicant no.1 to pay sum of Rs. 30 lakhs only to the opposite party no.2 as permanent alimony. The applicant no.1 has already deposited the amount of Rs. 30 lakhs before the Family Court. However, the opposite party no.2 has filed first Appeal No. 177 of 2023 against the judgment and decree dated 18.08.2023 passed by the Family Court and she has not withdrawn the amount of Rs. 30 lakhs deposited by the applicant no. 1.

11. In light of the aforesaid facts, the submissions of the learned counsel for the applicants is that the complaint has been filed as an abuse of the process of law for pressurizing the applicants for a favourable outcome in the matrimonial litigation between the parties.

12. The opposite party no.2 has submitted that the applicants have wrongly stated in the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C, that they have no criminal history whereas the applicant no.1 and 2 are accused in F.I.R No. 142 of 2020, Police station, Mall, District Lucknow West, under Sections 447, 323, 504 I.P.C. and 3(1)(da) 3(1)(dha) of SC/ST Act. However, besides lodging of the F.I.R, nothing further has been disclosed in the counter affidavit and in response to a specific query put by the Court, as to what was the outcome of the investigation in furtherance of the F.I.R. and whether the applicant nos. 1 and 2 have been summoned in that case or a final report has been submitted, the opposite party no.2 stated that she is not aware about the further status of the case after lodging the F.I.R.

13. The opposite party no.2 next submitted that she has implicated only those family members of the applicant no.1, who had only actually committed offences against her and had it been her intention to implicate the entire family of the applicant no.1, she would have arrayed the grandfather and grandmother of the applicant no.1 also.

14. The opposite party no.2 lastly submitted that she had filed Writ C No. 1261 of 2022 and it is recorded in the order dated 06.04.2022 passed by the division bench in that case that the parties were willing to make efforts for settlement of the dispute through the process of mediation. The applicant no.1 was directed to deposit a sum of Rs. 30,000/- in the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court but he did not comply with the order by depositing the aforesaid amount. The opposite party no.2 has submitted that she merely wants restitution of her matrimonial relationship and she is making every endeavour with the aforesaid objective. She has filed an appeal before this court challenging the order passed by the Family Court dismissing her suit for restitution of conjugal rights and decreeing the suit filed by the applicant no.1 under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act.

15. Sri. Anurag Verma, learned A.G.A-I stated that the proceedings arise out of an Application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C filed by the private respondent no.2 which has been registered as a complaint and the state is merely a formal party. However, Sri Verma opposed the application and submitted that while deciding an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C, the court has to look into the allegations levelled by the complainant only and to see whether a case for trial is made out on the basis of allegation of the complainant herself and the court cannot look into the defence taken by the accused persons.

16. I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the applicants, the opposite party no.1 in person and the learned A.G.A.-I. Before proceeding to analyze the same, it will be appropriate to recollect the law regarding the scope of enquiry while exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

17. While dealing with the scope of interference under Section 482 Cr.P.C. in a case arising out of matrimonial disputes, the Hon'ble held in Preeti Gupta v. State of Jharkhand, (2010) 7 SCC 667, that: -

"14.This Court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of courts' powers under Section 482 CrPC. Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent the abuse of process of court. Inherent power under Section 482 CrPC can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent the abuse of process of court; and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice.

* * *

18.The powers possessed by the High Court under Section 482 of the Code are very wide and the very plenitude of the power requires great caution in its exercise. The Court must be careful to see that its decision in exercise of this power is based on sound principles. The inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate prosecution but the Court's failing to use the power for advancement of justice can also lead to grave injustice.

* * *

21.This Court inState of Karnatakav.L. Muniswamy[(1977) 2 SCC 699] observed that the wholesome power under Section 482 CrPC entitles the High Court to quash a proceeding when it comes to the conclusion that allowing the proceeding to continue would be an abuse of process of court or that the ends of justice require that the proceeding ought to be quashed. The High Courts have been invested with inherent powers, both in civil and criminal matters, to achieve a salutary public purpose. A court proceeding ought not to be permitted to degenerate into a weapon of harassment or persecution. In this case, the Court observed that ends of justice are higher than the ends of mere law though justice must be administered according to laws made by the legislature. This case has been followed in a large number of subsequent cases of this Court and other courts.

* * *

30.It is a matter of common knowledge that unfortunately matrimonial litigation is rapidly increasing in our country. All the courts in our country including this Court are flooded with matrimonial cases. This clearly demonstrates discontent and unrest in the family life of a large number of people of the society.

* * *

35.The ultimate object of justice is to find out the truth and punish the guilty and protect the innocent. To find out the truth is a Herculean task in majority of these complaints. The tendency of implicating the husband and all his immediate relations is also not uncommon. At times, even after the conclusion of the criminal trial, it is difficult to ascertain the real truth. The courts have to be extremely careful and cautious in dealing with these complaints and must take pragmatic realities into consideration while dealing with matrimonial cases. The allegations of harassment of husband's close relations who had been living in different cities and never visited or rarely visited the place where the complainant resided would have an entirely different complexion. The allegations of the complainant are required to be scrutinised with great care and circumspection."

18. In Mahmood Ali versus State of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"Whenever an accused comes before the Court invoking either the inherent powers under Section482of theCode of Criminal Procedure(CrPC) or extraordinary jurisdiction under Article226of theConstitutionto get the FIR or the criminal proceedings quashed essentially on the ground that such proceedings are manifestly frivolous or vexatious or instituted with the ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance, then in such circumstances the Court owes a duty to look into the FIR with care and a little more closely. We say so because once the complainant decides to proceed against the accused with an ulterior motive for wreaking personal vengeance, etc., then he would ensure that the FIR/complaint is very well drafted with all the necessary pleadings. The complainant would ensure that the averments made in the FIR/complaint are such that they disclose the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence. Therefore, it will not be just enough for the Court to look into the averments made in the FIR/complaint alone for the purpose of ascertaining whether the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence are disclosed or not. In frivolous or vexatious proceedings, the Court owes a duty to look into many other attending circumstances emerging from the record of the case over and above the averments and, if need be, with due care and circumspection try to read in between the lines. The Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section482of theCrPCor Article226of theConstitutionneed not restrict itself only to the stage of a case but is empowered to take into account the overall circumstances leading to the initiation/registration of the case as well as the materials collected in the course of investigation."

19. What appears from the material placed before this court by the applicants and the opposite party no.2 is that the opposite party no.2 got married to the applicant no.1 on 11.12.2019. The grand-father of the applicant no. 1 was Governor of Madhya Pradesh and an uncle of the applicant was a Minister in U. P. Government. She stated that the Grand-father of the applicant no. 1 had brought her as his Grand daughter-in-law with great enthusiasm and expectations and he always treated her with affection and respect. After his death, all the 10 accused persons started harassing her mentally, abusing and beating her. However, she has not pleaded any specific incident caused by each of the 10 accused persons. She has alleged that she was turned out of her matrimonial home on 28.09.2020, two months after the death of the Grand-father of the applicant no. 1.

Although she has alleged that she was beaten up and a fracture was caused in her hand, no medical documents were produced by her either before the Magistrate or with the counter affidavit filed in this Court to support this contention.

20. Although she has stated in the application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. that she was treated with great affection and respect by the grandfather of the applicant no.1 and her ill treatment and harassment started after his death, in the statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C., the opposite party no.2 stated that she was harassed for demanding dowry from the day following the date of her marriage. At the same time, in the counter affidavit filed before this court, she stated that after the marriage, she had gone with her husband for honeymoon to Dubai and both of them had a very pleasant trip. The aforesaid stands taken by the opposite party no.2 at various stages show gross contradiction regarding material facts about her complaint.

21. The Magistrate has himself mentioned in the impugned order dated 08.11.2023, that there are many contradictions in the stand taken by the opposite party no.2 in the application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. and in the statements recorded under Section 200 and 202 Cr.P.C. It is stated in the complaint that the grandfather of the applicant no.1 had brought her as her grand daughter-in-law with great enthusiasm and after his death, she was harassed by the husband's family members, whereas in her statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C, she stated that her harassment had started immediately after her marriage. In the complaint, the opposite party no.2 has stated that the marriage was solemnized with great pomp and show as per the desire of the grandfather of the applicant no.1 whereas, in her evidence, she stated that her family members had got marriage solemnized after selling some land and mortgaging some other. The learned Magistrate further recorded that the record reveals that some incidents took place due to lack of matrimonial adjustments between the parties and, accordingly, there was sufficient ground to summon the applicants only, who are the husband, father-in-law and mother-in-law of the opposite party no.2, to face trial for offences 498-A, 325, 506 I.P.C. and 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act. Regarding the other persons arrayed by the opposite party no.2, the Magistrate came to a conclusion that no specific allegation had been levelled against them and there was no need to summon them in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Geeta Mehrotra and another Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and another: (2012) 10 SCC 741.

22. However, the learned Magistrate erred in summoning the applicants to face the trial without there being any specific allegation of commission of any act by the applicant nos. 2 and 3 which may amount to an offence. Moreover, there is absolutely no material to support the allegations against the applicant no. 1.

23. It is not disputed that the opposite party no.2 received summon of the suit under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act filed by the applicant no. 1 and she had put in appearance before the family court on 17.12.2020 and had sought time for filing written statement. When the opposite party no. 2 did not file her written statement, on 23.02.2021, the Family Court had passed an order granting last opportunity to the opposite party no. 2 to file her written statement. The application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C was filed on 17.01.2022 and the written statement was filed on 20.04.2022. On the same day, the opposite party no.2 filed a suit under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act. The suit filed by the applicant no.1 under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage act has been decreed and the suit filed by the opposite party no.2 under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act has been dismissed by means of a common judgment dated to 18.08.2023.

24. While decreeing the suit under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act, the family Court has directed the applicant no. 1 to pay Rs. 30 lakhs to the opposite party no.2 as permanent alimony, which amount has been deposited by the applicant no.1 before the Family Court. The opposite party no. 2 has not withdrawn this amount and she has filed an appeal against the judgment and decree passed by the Family Court, which is pending consideration of this court.

25. In Abhishek versus State of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that where the wife had levelled general allegations against her husband and his family members, the same is insufficient to constitute cruelty in terms of Section 498-A IPC. This factor is also damaging to the case of the complainant that she filed a complaint alleging dowry harassment, long after leaving her matrimonial home and just before the husband initiated divorce proceedings.

26. In the present case, the complaint application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C has been filed after receipt of summon of the suit and after the suit filed under Section 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act and after the Family Court had granted last opportunity to the opposite party no.2 to file her written statement and even after the date of that last opportunity had expired.

27. The opposite party no.2 had stated in her complaint that when she went to her matrimonial home on 08.10.2020, all the accused persons had treated her badly; that the uncle of the applicant no.1, who was a Minister, had threatened to get her shot by his matrimonial uncle Chandra Mohan Mehrotra (who had not been arrayed as a party to the application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C), whereas in her statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C., she stated that on 08.10.2020, all the accused persons had threaten to get her killed through one Chandra Mohan Mehrotra.

28. It also seems to be absurd that the family of the opposite party no. 2 had got her married to the applicant no. 1, who is the Grand-son of a Governor and nephew of a Minister, by selling away and mortgaging their land and long after her marriage and her having been turned out of her matrimonial home on 28.09.2020, when she had gone with her mother to meet her husband on 16.12.2021, the accused persons abused and threatened them and demanded Rs. 50 lakhs and a Fortuner car, and that too, while they were standing in the balcony of their house. In her statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. she assigned the role of demanding Rs. 50 lakhs and a Fortuner car to the co-accused Subodh Tandon, who has not been summoned.

29. The opposite party no.2 categorically stated in the application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C., that she merely wants that she should be given the same respect by her husband and his family members as was given during the lifetime of the grandfather of the applicant no.1 but the uncle of the applicant no.1 keeps on threatening her because of his high political position. In the counter affidavit filed before this Court, the opposite party no.2 has stated that even after she was turned out of her matrimonial home, she was hopeful of improvement in the behaviour of her husband and his family members. The applicant no.1 used to repetitively talk to her through mobile phone and assure that he will take her back to her matrimonial home. When the applicant no.1 did not take the opposite party no. 2 to his home, she tried to lodge a report. During oral submissions also, she has submitted that she merely wants restitution of her matrimonial relationship and she is making every endeavour with the aforesaid objective.

30. From the aforesaid facts, it appears that the opposite party no.2 has filed the application under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. merely to put pressure on the applicants and other members of their family for restitution of her matrimonial relationship with the applicant no.1. However, she had filed a suit under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act with the same objective, which has been dismissed by the Family Court. Criminal prosecution cannot be allowed to be misused for ulterior objective to put undue pressure on the husband, his family members and relatives for restitution of conjugal rights.

31. The foundation of a strong matrimonial relationship is mutual love and respect and the sustainability and quality of matrimonial relations restored under threat of criminal prosecution is to be pondered by the opposite party no. 2 herself and this Court is refraining from making any observation in this regard.

32. In view of the aforesaid discussion, this Court is of the considered view that the continuance of the criminal proceedings against the applicants will be a gross abuse of the process of law and will result in the failure of justice to the applicants.

33. Accordingly, the application is allowed and the order dated 08.11.2023 passed by the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Room No. 27, Lucknow along with the criminal proceedings of Complaint Case No. 9780 of 2022 in Miscellaneous Case No. 325/2022, which was an application filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C, is hereby quashed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1094
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 771 of 2024

Naseem ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Anand Mani Tripathi, Yugal Kishor Tripathi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 302, 307, 147, 148, 149, 34, 504 & 506 - murder, rioting, criminal intimidation, and other offenses - Section 319 - Power to proceed against other persons appearing to be guilty of offence - Power under Section 319 CrPC is discretionary and extraordinary, to be exercised sparingly - To assign the reason and giving subjective satisfaction while passing any order is the first and for most requirement of the order passed by any Court or the Competent Authority in as much as the reasons and satisfaction of the court concerned is backbone of any order, without which, such order may not stand - Any order bereft of the reasoning would be nullity in the eyes of law. (Para - 5,10)

Trial court summoned petitioner under Section 319 CrPC - not named in FIR or charge sheet - based on examination of injured witness - summoning order under challenge - trial court failed to provide reasons and subjective satisfaction for summoning - hence petition. (Para - 3 to 5)

HELD: - Impugned order summoning petitioner under Section 319 CrPC set aside due to lack of reasoning and subjective satisfaction. Matter remanded back to trial court to pass fresh order strictly in accordance with law. Trial court must provide reasons and subjective satisfaction if invoking Section 319 CrPC. Petitioner's right to fair trial and natural justice is upheld.(Para - 10,11)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hardeep Singh Vs St. of Punj., (2014) 3 SCC 92

2. Brijendra Singh & ors. Vs St. of Raj., (2017) 7 SCC 706

3. Yashodhan Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2023) 9 SCC 108

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri A.M. Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Aniruddha Kumar Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate-I for the State.

2. In view of the order proposed to be passed, the notice to opposite party No.2 is hereby dispensed with.

3. By means of this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner has prayed for the following reliefs:-

"(i) Wherefore, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly be pleased to quash/ set aside the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.1, Pratapgarh in S.T. No.271 of 2022 (State vs. Mustaq and others) in Case Crime No.336 of 2021, under Sections 302, 307, 147, 148, 149, 34, 504 & 506 I.P.C., Police Station-Mandhata, District-Pratapgarh against the applicant/ petitioner, so for as it relates to the present petitioner (Annexure No.1).

(ii) And it is further prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly be pleased to stay the operation and implementation of the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.1, Pratapgarh in S.T. No.271 of 2022(State vs. Mustaq and others) in Case Crime No.336 of 2021, under Sections 302, 307, 147, 148, 149, 34, 504 & 506 I.P.C., Police Station-Mandhata, District-Pratapgarh against the applicant/ petitioner, so for as it relates to the present petitioner, during prendency of the aforesaid petition, in the interest of justice."

4. Sri A.M. Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that since the gravity of Section 319 Cr.P.C. is treated to be on a high pedestal and as per the trite law, the learned trial court may exercise such powers sparingly and in a rare circumstances, unless the trial court finds that there is cogent and relevant material available on the record which suggest that the allegations against a person is such, he may be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. The person who is summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. is a person against whom the F.I.R. has not been lodged and the charge-sheet has not been filed.

Therefore, as per Sri Tripathi, the Apex Court has held that while summoning such person invoking powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. the specific reason of his summoning should be indicated in the order passed under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and it should have also been indicated in that order clearly as to what are those sections for which he has been summoned so that at the time of affording an opportunity of hearing, she/ he can defend herself/ himself properly.

5. In support of his aforesaid arguments, Sri Tripathi, has drawn attention of this Court towards paras-105 & 106 of the dictum of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: Hardeep Singh vs. State of Punjab reported in (2014) 3 SCC 92. The relevant paras-105 & 106 read as under:-

"105. Power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. is a discretionary and an extra-ordinary power. It is to be exercised sparingly and only in those cases where the circumstances of the case so warrant. It is not to be exercised because the Magistrate or the Sessions Judge is of the opinion that some other person may also be guilty of committing that offence. Only where strong and cogent evidence occurs against a person from the evidence led before the court that such power should be exercised and not in a casual and cavalier manner.

106. Thus, we hold that though only a prima facie case is to be established from the evidence led before the court, not necessarily tested on the anvil of Cross-Examination, it requires much stronger evidence than mere probability of his complicity. The test that has to be applied is one which is more than prima facie case as exercised at the time of framing of charge, but short of satisfaction to an extent that the evidence, if goes unrebutted, would lead to conviction. In the absence of such satisfaction, the court should refrain from exercising power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. In Section 319 Cr.P.C. the purpose of providing if "it appears from the evidence that any person not being the accused has committed any offence" is clear from the words ?for which such person could be tried together with the accused.? The words used are not "for which such person could be convicted." There is, therefore, no scope for the Court acting under Section 319 Cr.P.C. to form any opinion as to the guilt of the accused."

6. Sri Tripath, has also drawn attention of this Court towards para-15 of the dictum of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: Brijendra Singh and others vs. State of Rajasthan reported in (2017) 7 SCC 706. The relevant paras-11, 13, 14 &15 read as under:-

"11. In Hardeep Singh case, the Constitution Bench has also settled the controversy on the issue as to whether the word "evidence" used in Section 319 (1) Cr.P.C. has been used in a comprehensive sense and indicates the evidence collected during investigation or the word "evidence" is limited to the evidence recorded during trial. It is held that it is that material, after cognizance is taken by the Court, that is available to it while making an inquiry into or trying an offence, which the court can utilise or take into consideration for supporting reasons to summon any person on the basis of evidence adduced before the Court. The word "evidence" has to be understood in its wider sense, both at the stage of trial and even at the stage of inquiry. It means that the power to proceed against any person after summoning him can be exercised on the basis of any such material as brought forth before it. At the same time, this Court cautioned that the duty and obligation of the Court becomes more onerous to invoke such powers consciously on such material after evidence has been led during trial. The Court also clarified that "evidence" under Section 319 Cr.P.C. could even be examination-in-chief and the Court is not required to wait till such evidence is tested on cross-examination, as it is the satisfaction of the Court which can be gathered from the reasons recorded by the Court in respect of complicity of some other person(s) not facing trial in the offence.

13. In order to answer the question, some of the principles enunciated in Hardeep Singh case may be recapitulated: power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. can be exercised by the trial court at any stage during the trial i.e. before the conclusion of trial, to summon any person as an accused and face the trial in the ongoing case, once the trial court finds that there is some "evidence" against such a person on the basis of which evidence it can be gathered that he appears to be guilty of the offence. The "evidence" herein means the material that is brought before the Court during trial. Insofar as the material/evidence collected by the IO at the stage of inquiry is concerned, it can be utilised for corroboration and to support the evidence recorded by the Court to invoke the power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. No doubt, such evidence that has surfaced in examination-in-chief, without cross-examination of witnesses, can also be taken into consideration. However, since it is a discretionary power given to the Court under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and is also an extraordinary one, same has to be exercised sparingly and only in those cases where the circumstances of the case so warrant. The degree of satisfaction is more than the degree which is warranted at the time of framing of the charges against others in respect of whom chargesheet was filed. Only where strong and cogent evidence occurs against a person from the evidence led before the Court that such power should be exercised. It is not to be exercised in a casual or a cavalier manner. The prima facie opinion which is to be formed requires stronger evidence than mere probability of his complicity.

14. When we translate the aforesaid principles with their application to the facts of this case, we gather an impression that the trial court acted in a casual and cavalier manner in passing the summoning order against the appellants. The appellants were named in the FIR. Investigation was carried out by the police. On the basis of material collected during investigation, which has been referred to by us above, the IO found that these appellants were in Jaipur city when the incident took place in Kanaur, at a distance of 175 kms. The complainant and others who supported the version in the FIR regarding alleged presence of the appellants at the place of incident had also made statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. to the same effect. Notwithstanding the same, the police investigation revealed that the statements of these persons regarding the presence of the appellants at the place of occurrence was doubtful and did not inspire confidence, in view of the documentary and other evidence collected during the investigation, which depicted another story and clinchingly showed that the appellants' plea of alibi was correct.

15. This record was before the trial court. Notwithstanding the same, the trial court went by the deposition of complainant and some other persons in their examination-in-chief, with no other material to support their so-called verbal/ocular version. Thus, the "evidence" recorded during trial was nothing more than the statements which was already there under Section 161 Cr.P.C. recorded at the time of investigation of the case. No doubt, the trial court would be competent to exercise its power even on the basis of such statements recorded before it in examination-in-chief. However, in a case like the present where plethora of evidence was collected by the IO during investigation which suggested otherwise, the trial court was at least duty-bound to look into the same while forming prima facie opinion and to see as to whether much stronger evidence than mere possibility of their (i.e. appellants) complicity has come on record. There is no satisfaction of this nature. Even if we presume that the trial court was not apprised of the same at the time when it passed the order (as the appellants were not on the scene at that time), what is more troubling is that even when this material on record was specifically brought to the notice of the High Court in the Revision Petition filed by the appellants, the High Court too blissfully ignored the said material. Except reproducing the discussion contained in the order of the trial court and expressing agreement therewith, nothing more has been done. Such orders cannot stand judicial scrutiny."

7. Sri Tripathi has further submitted that the learned trial court concerned has itself indicated para-99 (para-106 in the aforesaid reported judgment) in the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 wherein the Apex Court has categorically observed that at least satisfaction of the court should be indicated while invoking power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. Therefore, as per Sri Tripathi, the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 is non-speaking and unreasoned order and the court concerned has not recorded its satisfaction as to why the petitioner should be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and if the court summons, what are those sections under which his trial would be required, so the aforesaid impugned order is liable to be set aside on the aforesaid technical ground alone.

8. Sri Aniruddha Kumar Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate-I has fairly submitted that so far as the technical ground was raised by Sri Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner that the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 is non-speaking and unreasoned order where the trial court has not indicated its subjective satisfaction as to why the petitioner should be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.c. and what are those sections under which his trial would be required, he has nothing to say and on that submission any appropriate order may be passed in the interest of justice.

9. However, he has submitted that if the merits of the present case is touched, it is visible in the impugned order itself that on the basis of examination of the injured witness the power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. has been invoked by the learned trial court and the testimony of the injured witness is also considered on high pedestal and such testimony of the injured witness should not be ignored by the learned trial court. He has also submitted that if pursuant to the impugned summoning order the petitioner appears before the court concerned and convinces the court that he has been falsely implicated and during the course of investing nothing incriminating material / evidences have been found, rather, as per the CCTV Footage and the statement of other persons his implication is false, he may establish before the court and the trial court may pass appropriate order, but at least, the testimony of the injured witness should not be ignored. In support of his aforesaid arguments, Sri Aniruddha Kumar Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate-I has placed reliance upon the dictum of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: Yashodhan Singh and others vs. State of U.P. and another reported in (2023) 9 SCC 108.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record as well as having regard to the dictums of Apex Court as considered above, I find that the learned trial court while passing the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 has not indicated its subjective satisfaction as to why the petitioner should be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and under which sections the trial of the petitioner would be required. To assign the reason and giving subjective satisfaction while passing any order is the first and for most requirement of the order passed by any Court or the Competent Authority inasmuch as the reasons and satisfaction of the court concerned is backbone of any order, without which, such order may not stand. At the same time, if the person summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. is not apprised as to what are those sections under which his trial would be required, he would be failed to defend himself properly and in that case the principles of natural justice of that person would be frustrated. Any order bereft of the reasoning would be nullity in the eyes of law. Therefore, on the aforesaid ground alone the impugned order dated 15.12.2023 is not liable to be sustained, hence, the same is set aside and quashed.

11. Since the aforesaid order has been quashed for the reason that the impugned order is bereft of the reasoning and the subjective satisfaction of the court concerned, therefore, the matter is remanded back to the learned trial court to pass a fresh order, strictly in accordance with law and in the light of the aforesaid dictums of Apex Court.

12. It is needless to say that if the learned trial court wishes to invoke powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. in this case, he may pass appropriate order with expedition, preferably, within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, strictly in accordance with law.

13. In view of the aforesaid observations and directions, the instant petition is allowed.

14. No order as to the costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1099
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 780 of 2024

Bahori Lal ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Rizwanul Haque Ansari, Santi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section

376, 506 - principles regarding the inherent powers of High Courts under Section 482 - High Courts have wide powers to interfere in trials, inquiries, or proceedings to prevent oppression or harassment - powers must be exercised judiciously and consciously - can quash first information reports, investigations, and criminal proceedings if there's clear abuse of process - When quashing proceedings, courts must consider the offence's impact on society, injury severity, voluntary compromise, accused conduct, and other factors - Courts should be cautious when quashing proceedings involving heinous offences, but can still examine evidence - can quash proceedings even after conviction for heinous offences with life imprisonment, if parties have settled - guiding principle is to secure the ends of justice, with no hard and fast rules restricting High Court powers.(Para - 27)

Applicant sought quashing of summoning order and proceedings of Compliant case - ground - parties entered into a settlement - claiming for closer of criminal proceedings instituted by opposite party no.2 against him - during investigation, no witnesses supported allegations - all stated that allegations made by opposite party No. 2 were false.(Para – 2,29)

HELD: - Present case falls in the category of exceptional cases, which warrants interference of this court in exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C by quashing the criminal proceedings on the ground of compromise between the parties. Summoning order and proceedings of Compliant case quashed. (Para - 32,33)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Daxaben Vs The St. of Guj. & ors., 2022 SCC OnLine SC 936

2. P. Ramachandra Rao Vs St. of Karn., (2002) 4 SCC 578

3. Narinder Singh Vs St. of Punj., (2014) 6 SCC 466

4. Parbatbhai Aahir Vs St. of Guj., (2017) 9 SCC 641

5. P. Dharamaraj Vs Shanmugam, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1186

6. St. of M.P. Vs Laxmi Narayan, (2019) 5 SCC 688

7. Ramgopal Vs St. of M.P., (2022) 14 SCC 531

8. Ramawatar Vs St. of M.P., (2022) 13 SCC 635

9. Kapil Gupta Vs St. (NCT of Delhi), 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1030

10. K. Dhandapani v. St., 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1056

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Nishant Srivastava, Advocate holding brief of Sri Rizwanul Haque Ansari, the learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Rishikesh Verma, the learned A.G.A appearing on behalf of the State.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the applicant has sought quashing of the summoning order dated 18.08.2022 and the proceedings of Compliant case No. 100/2018, under Section 376, 506 I.P.C (Sushila Devi Vs. Bahorilal) which is pending in the Court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, District Kheri, on the ground that the parties have entered into a settlement claiming for closer of the criminal proceedings instituted by the opposite party no.2 against him.

3. The opposite party no.2 had filed an application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C on 23.02.2016 alleging that when she had gone to attend call of nature at about 6:00 am on 09.02.2016 towards in a grave situated towards a north of a village, the applicant assaulted her with a butt of a pistol and raped her after threatening her. When she got herself freed and raised a hue and cry, Raja Ram and Lalla etc. reached on the spot and thereafter the applicant ran away. On the aforesaid application, an F.IR. No. 160 of 2022 was registered on 8.03.2022.

4. During investigation, the investigating officer has recorded statements of several independent persons, all of whom have stated that the allegations levelled in the F.I.R are false and no such incident had taken place. The complainant's husband stated that he does not remember the date of the incident but it took place around the festival of Khichdi (which normally falls around 15th January). He stated that the complainant had told her about some altercation only.

5. Lalla Ram, regarding whom the informant had stated in the F.I.R that he had reached on the spot, stated that when he had reached the spot, the complainant was alone there. She has suffered some injury but he does not know as to how that injury was caused. He did not state anything further and he merely stated that he would not give any false evidence against any person. The complainant stated in her statement that she has not raised any hue and cry at the spot of occurrence and she declined to get herself examined medically as a long time has elapsed since the incident.

6. After investigation, the investigating officer submitted a Final Report on 03.07.2016. The opposite party no.2 filed a protest on 30.03.2018, which was allowed and the protest application was registered as a complaint.

7. In her statement recorded under section 200 Cr.P.C, the complainant stated that the applicant had caught hold of her and had shut her mouth but she did not state that the applicant had assaulted her with a butt of a pistol, which had been alleged by her earlier. She stated that she did not remember as to who had reached on the spot but her husband had told afterwards that he and his younger brother Lalla Ram had brought her home and the applicant had escaped before anybody could reach there. This statement of the complainant was at material variance with her earlier version.

8. In his statement recorded under section 202 Cr.P.C the complainant's husband, Rajaram supported the complainant's allegations, although before the investigating officer, he had stated that he was present at the home at the time of the incident and he did not even remember the date of the incident.

9. Subsequently, on 20.03.2023 the opposite party no.2 has entered into a compromise with the applicant wherein she stated that she had levelled the allegations against the applicant because of ill advice of some other persons. The parties live in the same village and they have reconciled their differences and no dispute remains between them. She categorically stated that she wants closure of the proceedings initiated by her. The compromise has been signed in presence of some witnesses and it has been attested by a notary public.

10. The applicant had filed an application under section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 12768 of 2023, which was disposed of by means of an order dated 20.12.2023 directing the trial court to verify the compromise. The compromise has been verified by means of an order dated 06.01.2024 passed by the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No. 1, Lakhimpur Kheri, a certified copy whereof has been annexed with the application.

11. Ms. Preeti Srivastava, the learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 has also supported the factum of compromise and has given her consent for proceedings being quashed on the basis of the compromise.

12. The learned A.G.A. has opposed the application and he has submitted that the present case involves allegation of commission of rape which is a heinous offence and in view of the law laid down by Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of Daxaben Vs. The State of Gujarat and others: 2022 SCC OnLine SC 936 the proceedings of the criminal case cannot be quashed on the basis of a compromise between the parties.

13. In Daxaben (supra) an F.I.R. was lodged under Section 306 I.P.C. by the cousin of the deceased. The complainant and the accused entered into a settlement and the High Court of Gujarat at Ahamdabad quashed the proceedings upon an application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. on this ground alone. The widow of the deceased filed an application for recall of the order which too was dismissed by the High Court after recording that the original first informant had pocketed a hefty amount from the accused and he had gone totally out of picture post allowing of the quashing petition, therefore, the application for recall of order was not maintainable.

14. In appeal the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the High Court had erred in declining the prayer of the widow of the deceased for recalling an order passed without hearing her only because the original informant/complainant who was a cousin and the employee of the deceased had been heard. The Hon'ble Supreme Court further held that "37. Offence under Section 306 of the IPC of abetment to commit suicide is a grave, non-compoundable offence. Of course, the inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. is wide and can even be exercised to quash criminal proceedings relating to non-compoundable offences, to secure the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of Court. Where the victim and offender have compromised disputes essentially civil and personal in nature, the High Court can exercise its power under Section 482 of the CrPC to quash the criminal proceedings. In what cases power to quash an FIR or a criminal complaint or criminal proceedings upon compromise can be exercised, would depend on the facts and circumstances of the case.

38. However, before exercising its power under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. to quash an FIR, criminal complaint and/or criminal proceedings, the High Court, as observed above, has to be circumspect and have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous or serious crimes, which are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society cannot be quashed on the basis of a compromise between the offender and the complainant and/or the victim. Crimes like murder, rape, burglary, dacoity and even abetment to commit suicide are neither private nor civil in nature. Such crimes are against the society. In no circumstances can prosecution be quashed on compromise, when the offence is serious and grave and falls within the ambit of crime against society.

* * *

50. In our considered opinion, the Criminal Proceeding cannot be nipped in the bud by exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Cr. P.C. only because there is a settlement, in this case a monetary settlement, between the accused and the complainant and other relatives of the deceased to the exclusion of the hapless widow of the deceased. As held by the three-Judge Bench of this Court in Laxmi Narayan (supra), Section 307 of the IPC falls in the category of heinous and serious offences and are to be treated as crime against society and not against the individual alone. On a parity of reasoning, offence under section 306 of the IPC would fall in the same category. An FIR under Section 306 of the IPC cannot even be quashed on the basis of any financial settlement with the informant, surviving spouse, parents, children, guardians, care-givers or anyone else."

(Emphasis supplied)

15. The observations in Daxaben (supra) were made in the factual background of the case that husband of the appellant had committed suicide. The deceased's cousin, who was also his employee, had filed the F.I.R. and he had taken hefty sum from the accused persons to enter into a settlement and the proceedings were quashed on the basis of such settlement without hearing the widow of the deceased. There is no evidence in support of the allegation in the present case. During evidence the Investigating Officer had found the allegations to be false and there is no evidence in support of the allegations, except for the statement of the victim herself and the victim herself has resiled from the allegations and there is no allegation of any monitory transaction between the parties. Therefore, the observations made in Daxaben (Supra) will not apply to the present case.

16. The scope of jurisdiction of the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was explained by a Seven Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P. Ramachandra Rao v. State of Karnataka, (2002) 4 SCC 578, in the following words: -

"21?.In appropriate cases, inherent power of the High Court, under Section 482 can be invoked to make such orders, as may be necessary, to give effect to any order under the Code of Criminal Procedure or to prevent abuse of the process of any court, or otherwise, to secure the ends of justice. The power is wide and, if judiciously and consciously exercised, can take care of almost all the situations where interference by the High Court becomes necessary on account of delay in proceedings or for any other reason amounting to oppression or harassment in any trial, inquiry or proceedings. In appropriate cases, the High Courts have exercised their jurisdiction under Section 482 CrPC for quashing of first information report and investigation, and terminating criminal proceedings if the case of abuse of process of law was clearly made out?".

17. In Narinder Singh v. State of Punjab, (2014) 6 SCC 466, the Hon'ble Supreme Court had summed up and laid down the following principles for guidance of the High Courts in giving adequate treatment to the settlement between the parties and exercising its power under Section 482 of the Code while accepting the settlement and quashing the proceedings or refusing to accept the settlement with direction to continue with the criminal proceedings: -

"29.1. Power conferred under Section 482 of the Code is to be distinguished from the power which lies in the Court to compound the offences under Section 320 of the Code. No doubt, under Section 482 of the Code, the High Court has inherent power to quash the criminal proceedings even in those cases which are not compoundable, where the parties have settled the matter between themselves. However, this power is to be exercised sparingly and with caution.

29.2. When the parties have reached the settlement and on that basis petition for quashing the criminal proceedings is filed, the guiding factor in such cases would be to secure:

(i) ends of justice, or

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any court.

While exercising the power the High Court is to form an opinion on either of the aforesaid two objectives.

29.3. Such a power is not to be exercised in those prosecutions which involve heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc. Such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society. Similarly, for the offences alleged to have been committed under special statute like the Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity are not to be quashed merely on the basis of compromise between the victim and the offender.

29.4. On the other hand, those criminal cases having overwhelmingly and predominantly civil character, particularly those arising out of commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes should be quashed when the parties have resolved their entire disputes among themselves.

29.5. While exercising its powers, the High Court is to examine as to whether the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of criminal cases would put the accused to great oppression and prejudice and extreme injustice would be caused to him by not quashing the criminal cases.

29.6. Offences under Section 307 IPC would fall in the category of heinous and serious offences and therefore are to be generally treated as crime against the society and not against the individual alone. However, the High Court would not rest its decision merely because there is a mention of Section 307 IPC in the FIR or the charge is framed under this provision. It would be open to the High Court to examine as to whether incorporation of Section 307 IPC is there for the sake of it or the prosecution has collected sufficient evidence, which if proved, would lead to proving the charge under Section 307 IPC. For this purpose, it would be open to the High Court to go by the nature of injury sustained, whether such injury is inflicted on the vital/delicate parts of the body, nature of weapons used, etc. Medical report in respect of injuries suffered by the victim can generally be the guiding factor. On the basis of this prima facie analysis, the High Court can examine as to whether there is a strong possibility of conviction or the chances of conviction are remote and bleak. In the former case it can refuse to accept the settlement and quash the criminal proceedings whereas in the latter case it would be permissible for the High Court to accept the plea compounding the offence based on complete settlement between the parties. At this stage, the Court can also be swayed by the fact that the settlement between the parties is going to result in harmony between them which may improve their future relationship.

29.7. While deciding whether to exercise its power under Section 482 of the Code or not, timings of settlement play a crucial role. Those cases where the settlement is arrived at immediately after the alleged commission of offence and the matter is still under investigation, the High Court may be liberal in accepting the settlement to quash the criminal proceedings/investigation. It is because of the reason that at this stage the investigation is still on and even the charge-sheet has not been filed. Likewise, those cases where the charge is framed but the evidence is yet to start or the evidence is still at infancy stage, the High Court can show benevolence in exercising its powers favourably, but after prima facie assessment of the circumstances/material mentioned above. On the other hand, where the prosecution evidence is almost complete or after the conclusion of the evidence the matter is at the stage of argument, normally the High Court should refrain from exercising its power under Section 482 of the Code, as in such cases the trial court would be in a position to decide the case finally on merits and to come to a conclusion as to whether the offence under Section 307 IPC is committed or not. Similarly, in those cases where the conviction is already recorded by the trial court and the matter is at the appellate stage before the High Court, mere compromise between the parties would not be a ground to accept the same resulting in acquittal of the offender who has already been convicted by the trial court. Here charge is proved under Section 307 IPC and conviction is already recorded of a heinous crime and, therefore, there is no question of sparing a convict found guilty of such a crime."

18. Although in Narinder Singh the Hon'ble Supreme Court was dealing with the question of permissibility of quashing proceedings involving commission of offence under Section 307 I.P.C., it held that offences under Section 307 IPC would fall in the category of heinous and serious offences and are to be generally treated as crime against the society and not against the individual alone. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that generally the power to quash proceedings on the basis of a compromise is not to be exercised in those prosecutions which involve heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc., but yet, this prohibition is not absolute and in certain circumstances mentioned in the portions of the judgment quoted above, the Courts could quash the proceedings even in cases involving heinous and serious offences on the basis of a compromise in the interest of justice. Thus, Narinder Singh (Supra) does not lay down that there is an absolute bar against quashing of proceedings on the basis of compromise where the offence is heinous and serious.

19. In Parbatbhai Aahir v. State of Gujarat, (2017) 9 SCC 641, the precedents on the subject were considered and the broad principles which emerge from the precedents, were summarised in the following propositions: -

"16.1. Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognises and preserves powers which inhere in the High Court.

16.2. The invocation of the jurisdiction of the High Court to quash a first information report or a criminal proceeding on the ground that a settlement has been arrived at between the offender and the victim is not the same as the invocation of jurisdiction for the purpose of compounding an offence. While compounding an offence, the power of the court is governed by the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The power to quash under Section 482 is attracted even if the offence is non-compoundable.

16.3. In forming an opinion whether a criminal proceeding or complaint should be quashed in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482, the High Court must evaluate whether the ends of justice would justify the exercise of the inherent power.

16.4. While the inherent power of the High Court has a wide ambit and plenitude it has to be exercised (i) to secure the ends of justice, or (ii) to prevent an abuse of the process of any court.

16.5. The decision as to whether a complaint or first information report should be quashed on the ground that the offender and victim have settled the dispute, revolves ultimately on the facts and circumstances of each case and no exhaustive elaboration of principles can be formulated.

16.6. In the exercise of the power under Section 482 and while dealing with a plea that the dispute has been settled, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous and serious offences involving mental depravity or offences such as murder, rape and dacoity cannot appropriately be quashed though the victim or the family of the victim have settled the dispute. Such offences are, truly speaking, not private in nature but have a serious impact upon society. The decision to continue with the trial in such cases is founded on the overriding element of public interest in punishing persons for serious offences.

16.7. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing insofar as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned.

16.8. Criminal cases involving offences which arise from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute.

16.9. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice; and 16.10. There is yet an exception to the principle set out in propositions 16.8. and 16.9. above. Economic offences involving the financial and economic well-being of the State have implications which lie beyond the domain of a mere dispute between private disputants. The High Court would be justified in declining to quash where the offender is involved in an activity akin to a financial or economic fraud or misdemeanour. The consequences of the act complained of upon the financial or economic system will weigh in the balance."

20. In P. Dharamaraj v. Shanmugam, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1186, the Hon'ble Supreme Court again considered the precedents, including Parbatbhai Aahir (Supra) and explained the true purport of the precedents in the following words: -

"44. Thus it is clear from the march of law that the Court has to go slow even while exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.PC or Article 226 of the Constitution in the matter of quashing of criminal proceedings on the basis of a settlement reached between the parties, when the offences are capable of having an impact not merely on the complainant and the accused but also on others."

21. In State of M.P. v. Laxmi Narayan, (2019) 5 SCC 688, the Hon'ble Supreme Court again considered the law on the point and the other decisions of this Court on the point and observed and held as under: -

"15.1. That the power conferred under Section 482 of the Code to quash the criminal proceedings for the non-compoundable offences under Section 320 of the Code can be exercised having overwhelmingly and predominantly the civil character, particularly those arising out of commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes and when the parties have resolved the entire dispute amongst themselves;

15.2. Such power is not to be exercised in those prosecutions which involved heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc. Such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society;

15.3. Similarly, such power is not to be exercised for the offences under the special statutes like the Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity are not to be quashed merely on the basis of compromise between the victim and the offender;

15.4. Offences under Section 307 IPC and the Arms Act, etc. would fall in the category of heinous and serious offences and therefore are to be treated as crime against the society and not against the individual alone, and therefore, the criminal proceedings for the offence under Section 307 IPC and/or the Arms Act, etc. which have a serious impact on the society cannot be quashed in exercise of powers under Section 482 of the Code, on the ground that the parties have resolved their entire dispute amongst themselves. However, the High Court would not rest its decision merely because there is a mention of Section 307 IPC in the FIR or the charge is framed under this provision. It would be open to the High Court to examine as to whether incorporation of Section 307 IPC is there for the sake of it or the prosecution has collected sufficient evidence, which if proved, would lead to framing the charge under Section 307 IPC. For this purpose, it would be open to the High Court to go by the nature of injury sustained, whether such injury is inflicted on the vital/delicate parts of the body, nature of weapons used, etc. However, such an exercise by the High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and the charge-sheet is filed/charge is framed and/or during the trial. Such exercise is not permissible when the matter is still under investigation. Therefore, the ultimate conclusion in paras 29.6 and 29.7 of the decision of this Court in Narinder Singh should be read harmoniously and to be read as a whole and in the circumstances stated hereinabove;

15.5. While exercising the power under Section 482 of the Code to quash the criminal proceedings in respect of non-compoundable offences, which are private in nature and do not have a serious impact on society, on the ground that there is a settlement/compromise between the victim and the offender, the High Court is required to consider the antecedents of the accused; the conduct of the accused, namely, whether the accused was absconding and why he was absconding, how he had managed with the complainant to enter into a compromise, etc."

22. Thus it is clear that Laxmi Narain (Supra) also does not lay down that although the proceedings involving heinous and serious offences should not ordinarily quashed on the basis of a compromise between the parties, this bar is not absolute. High Court would not rest its decision merely because there is a mention of a Section of a heinous and serious offence in the FIR or the charge is framed under this provision. It would be open to the High Court to examine as to whether incorporation of the offence is there for the sake of it or the prosecution has collected sufficient evidence. For this purpose, it would be open to the High Court to go by the nature of allegations and evidence collected during investigation and the charge-sheet is filed/charge is framed and/or during the trial.

23. In Ramgopal v. State of M.P., (2022) 14 SCC 531, the appellants had abused and assaulted the complainant on account of certain monetary disputes. Appellant no. 1 had struck the complainant with a pharsa, which resultantly cut off the little finger of his left hand. Appellant 2 also struck lathi-blows on the body of the complainant. The appellants were thereafter committed for trial under Sections 294, 323 and 326 read with Section 34 IPC and Section 3 of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989. The Magistrate had convicted the appellants under Sections 294, 323 and 326 read with Section 34 IPC. During pendency of the appeal filed against conviction, the parties had reconciled their disputes and sought quashing of proceedings under Section 482 Cr.P.C. on this ground. The High Court dismissed the application. While allowing the appeal, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"12. The High Court, therefore, having regard to the nature of the offence and the fact that parties have amicably settled their dispute and the victim has willingly consented to the nullification of criminal proceedings, can quash such proceedings in exercise of its inherent powers under Section 482CrPC, even if the offences are non-compoundable. The High Court can indubitably evaluate the consequential effects of the offence beyond the body of an individual and thereafter adopt a pragmatic approach, to ensure that the felony, even if goes unpunished, does not tinker with or paralyse the very object of the administration of criminal justice system.

13. It appears to us that criminal proceedings involving non-heinous offences or where the offences are pre-dominantly of a private nature, can be annulled irrespective of the fact that trial has already been concluded or appeal stands dismissed against conviction. Handing out punishment is not the sole form of delivering justice. Societal method of applying laws evenly is always subject to lawful exceptions. It goes without saying, that the cases where compromise is struck post-conviction, the High Court ought to exercise such discretion with rectitude, keeping in view the circumstances surrounding the incident, the fashion in which the compromise has been arrived at, and with due regard to the nature and seriousness of the offence, besides the conduct of the accused, before and after the incidence. The touchstone for exercising the extraordinary power under Section 482 CrPC would be to secure the ends of justice. There can be no hard-and-fast line constricting the power of the High Court to do substantial justice. A restrictive construction of inherent powers under Section 482CrPC may lead to rigid or specious justice, which in the given facts and circumstances of a case, may rather lead to grave injustice. On the other hand, in cases where heinous offences have been proved against perpetrators, no such benefit ought to be extended, as cautiously observed by this Court in Narinder Singh v. State of Punjab (2014) 6 SCC 466 and State of M.P. v. Laxmi Narayan, (2019) 5 SCC 688.

14. In other words, grave or serious offences or offences which involve moral turpitude or have a harmful effect on the social and moral fabric of the society or involve matters concerning public policy, cannot be construed betwixt two individuals or groups only, for such offences have the potential to impact the society at large. Effacing abominable offences through quashing process would not only send a wrong signal to the community but may also accord an undue benefit to unscrupulous habitual or professional offenders, who can secure a settlement through duress, threats, social boycotts, bribes or other dubious means. It is well said that let no guilty man escape, if it can be avoided .

* * *

19. We thus sum up and hold that as opposed to Section 320 CrPC where the Court is squarely guided by the compromise between the parties in respect of offences compoundable within the statutory framework, the extraordinary power enjoined upon a High Court under Section 482CrPC or vested in this Court under Article 142 of the Constitution, can be invoked beyond the metes and bounds of Section 320 CrPC. Nonetheless, we reiterate that such powers of wide amplitude ought to be exercised carefully in the context of quashing criminal proceedings, bearing in mind: -

19.1. Nature and effect of the offence on the conscience of the society;

19.2. Seriousness of the injury, if any;

19.3 Voluntary nature of compromise between the accused and the victim; and 19.4 Conduct of the accused persons, prior to and after the occurrence of the purported offence and/or other relevant considerations."

(Emphasis supplied)

24. Thus the Supreme Court had reversed the order of the High Court rejecting the prayer for quashing of the proceedings and had quashed the criminal proceedings on the basis of a compromise between the parties even after conviction of the appellant for offence under Section 326 I.P.C., which is punishable with imprisonment which may extend up to life.

25. In Ramawatar v. State of M.P., (2022) 13 SCC 635, the FIR lodged under Section 3(1)(x) of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities Act), 1989 read with Section 34 IPC alleged that the appellant threw a brick on the complainant and also made filthy and slur remarks on her caste. There was a civil dispute between the parties. The appellant was convicted under Section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act. The appeal filed against his conviction was dismissed by the High Court of Madhya Pradesh, Jabalpur Bench. During pendency of further appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the complainant filed an application that the parties had settled their disputes through a compromise. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: - "17? where it appears to the Court that the offence in question, although covered under the SC/ST Act, is primarily private or civil in nature, or where the alleged offence has not been committed on account of the caste of the victim, or where the continuation of the legal proceedings would be an abuse of the process of law, the Court can exercise its powers to quash the proceedings. On similar lines, when considering a prayer for quashing on the basis of a compromise/settlement, if the Court is satisfied that the underlying objective of the Act would not be contravened or diminished even if the felony in question goes unpunished, the mere fact that the offence is covered under a special statute would not refrain this Court or the High Court, from exercising their respective powers under Article 142 of the Constitution or Section 482CrPC."

(Emphasis supplied)

26. Kapil Gupta v. State (NCT of Delhi), 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1030, is a judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in an appeal filed against a judgment and order passed by an Hon'ble Single Judge of the High Court of Delhi, dismissing the application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing the proceedings under Section 376 of the Penal Code, 1860 ('IPC') on the ground that the parties had entered into a settlement. While allowing the appeal, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"13. It can thus be seen that this Court has clearly held that though the Court should be slow in quashing the proceedings wherein heinous and serious offences are involved, the High Court is not foreclosed from examining as to whether there exists material for incorporation of such an offence or as to whether there is sufficient evidence which if proved would lead to proving the charge for the offence charged with. The Court has also to take into consideration as to whether the settlement between the parties is going to result into harmony between them which may improve their mutual relationship.

14. The Court has further held that it is also relevant to consider as to what is stage of the proceedings. It has been observed that if an application is made at a belated stage wherein the evidence has been led and the matter is at the stage of arguments or judgment, the Court should be slow to exercise the power to quash the proceedings. However, if such an application is made at an initial stage before commencement of trial, the said factor will weigh with the court in exercising its power."

27. The legal principles which can be culled out from a collective reading of the foresaid precedents, are that the inherent powers of the High Courts recognized by Section 482 Cr.P.C. are wide and can take care of almost all the situations where interference by the High Court becomes necessary for any other reason amounting to oppression or harassment in any trial, inquiry or proceedings, but the power has to be exercised judiciously and consciously. The High Courts can exercise their jurisdiction under Section 482 CrPC for quashing of first information report and investigation, and terminating criminal proceedings if the case of abuse of process of law is clearly made out. Such powers ought to be exercised carefully in the context of quashing criminal proceedings, bearing in mind the nature and effect of the offence on the conscience of the society; the seriousness of the injury, if any, the voluntary nature of compromise between the accused and the victim, the conduct of the accused persons and the other relevant considerations. Though the Courts should be slow in quashing the proceedings wherein heinous and serious offences are involved, the High Court is not foreclosed from examining as to whether there is sufficient evidence which may lead to proving the charges. The High Court can quash the proceedings even in cases where the parties have entered into a settlement after conviction for a heinous offence carrying a maximum punishment for life. The touchstone for exercising the extraordinary power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. would be to secure the ends of justice. There can be no hard and fast rule restricting the powers of the High Court to do substantial justice, as a restrictive construction of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. may lead to grave injustice.

28. In K. Dhandapani v. State, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1056, an FIR under Sections 5(j)(ii) read with Section 6, 5(I) read with Section 6 and 5(n) read with Section 6 of Protection of Child from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 was registered alleging that the appellant who is the maternal uncle of the prosecutrix, had physical relations with the prosecutrix on the promise of marrying her, which amounted to committing rape. He was convicted and sentenced by the Sessions Judge to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of 10 years. The High Court had upheld the conviction and sentence. In appeal before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, it was submitted that the allegation against the appellant was that he had physical relations with the prosecutrix on the promise of marrying her, whereas he had in fact married the prosecutrix and they had two children and they were being taken care of by the appellant and she was leading a happy married life. The prosecutrix was aged 14 years on the date of the offence and gave birth to the first child when she was 15 years and second child was born when she was 17 years. After taking into consideration these facts, the Hon'ble High Court set aside the conviction and sentence of the appellant in view of the subsequent events by observing that "This Court cannot shut its eyes to the ground reality and disturb the happy family life of the appellant and the prosecutrix." However, the Hon'ble Supreme Court had also expressed that the order shall not be treated as a precedent.

29. When we examine the facts of the present case in light of the aforesaid law, what we find is that the incident is alleged to have taken place on 09.02.2016. The application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C was moved on 23.02.2016 and the F.I.R was registered on 08.03.2016. No witness examined during investigation supported the allegation and all of them stated that allegations levelled by the opposite party no.2 are false.

30. After investigation, a final report was submitted on 30.07.2016. The protest application was filed on 30.03.2018 after a long time since filing of the final report. There are material contradictions between the statements recorded under Sections 200 and 202 Cr.P.C and the statements recorded during investigation. There is no medico legal examination report of the complainant in support of the allegations.

31. The opposite party no.2 has signed the compromise in presence of witnesses and there is no mention of any monetary transaction between the parties. Therefore, there appears to be absolutely no possibility of the applicant's conviction even after a full fledged trial in the present case and the continuance of criminal proceedings against the applicant in such peculiar circumstances will only result in persecution of the applicant as well the opposite party no.2

32. Keeping in view the law laid by the Hon'ble Supreme Court which has been referred to above, I am of the view that the present case falls in the category of exceptional cases, which warrants interference of this court in exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C by quashing the criminal proceedings on the ground of compromise between the parties.

33. Accordingly the applicant is allowed and the summoning order dated 18.08.2022 and the proceedings of Compliant case No. 100/2018, under Section 376, 506 I.P.C (Sushila Devi Vs. Bahorilal) which is pending in the Court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-I, District Kheri, are hereby quashed.

34. In case the opposite party no.2 has received any benefit of any short on the basis of her allegedly being a victim of commission of rape, the same shall be recovered from her as she has resiled from her allegations.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1112
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 12.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 824 of 2024

Dr. Faisal Khan & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Anshuman Singh, Fazal Haider Zaidi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Avinash Chandra, Eshan Garg

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 427, 323, 504, 506 & 34 - High Court's inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. cannot be invoked where applicants conceal material facts and abuse the process of law. (Para - 37,38)

Application to quash F.I.R. registered under various IPC sections - applicants filed Criminal Miscellaneous Writ Petition seeking quashing of F.I.R. -writ petition was dismissed by a Division Bench without liberty for filing a fresh application for the same relief - applicants then filed a fresh application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking quashing of F.I.R. - applicants concealed fact of filing and dismissal of earlier writ petition - supplementary affidavit was filed - claiming previous writ petition as filed by an advocate without instructions .(Para-37)

HELD: - Court found story in supplementary affidavit to be potentially fabricated. Applicants are not entitled to be granted any relief by this Court in exercise of its inherent powers, where applicants conceal material facts and abuse the process of law. (Para-37)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ramlal Yadava Vs St. of U.P., (1989) 1 MWN (Cr.) 198 All (FB)

2. Bhisham Lal Verma Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1399

3. Sarguja Transport Service Vs S.T.A.T., (1987) 1 SCC 5

4. R. P. Kapoor Vs St. of Punj. 1960 SCC OnLine SC 21 and

5. Pratibha Rani Vs Suraj Kumar (1985) 2 SCC 370

6. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajanlal 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

7. Abhishek Vs St. of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083

8. Mahmood Ali & ors. Vs St. of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950,

9. Mitesh Kumar J. Sha Vs St. of Karn. & ors., (2022) 14 SCC 572

10. Ananad Kumar Mohatta Vs St. (NCT of Delhi), (2019) 11 SCC 706

11. Padal Venkata Rama Reddy Vs Kovvuri Satyanarayana Reddy, (2011) 12 SCC 437

12. Inder Mohan Goswami & anr. Vs St. of Uttaranchal & ors., (2007) 12 SCC 1

13. Jawed Aslam Vs St. of U.P. & or., Neutral Citation No. 2023: AHC-LKO:64280

14. Sub Inspector Roop Lal & anr. Vs Lt. Governor through Chief Secretary, Delhi & ors., (2000) 1 SCC 644

15. Ashok Kumar Vs New India Assurance Co. (2024) 1 SCC 357

16. Ambalal Parihar Vs St. of Raj. & ors. 2023 SCC OnLine Raj 1374

17. R. Annapurna Vs Ramadugu Anantha Krishna Shastry & or., (2002) 10 SCC 401

18. Bhisham Lal Verma Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1399

19. Kamini Jaiswal Vs U.O.I. & anr. (2018) 1 SCC 156

20. Sarguja Transport Service Vs S.T.A.T., (1987) 1 SCC 5

21. Hari Singh Mann Vs Harbhajan Singh Bajwa & ors. (2001) 1 SCC 169

22. Dheer Singh & anr. Vs St. of U. P. & anr., (2019) SCC OnLine All 2776

23. Abdul Gaffar & anr. Vs Ishtiaque Ahmad & anr., 1989 All.L.J. 297.

24. Ramlal Yadava Vs St. of U.P. , (1989) 1 MWN (Cr.) 198 All (FB)

25. P. Ramachandra Rao Vs St. of Karn. , (2002) 4 SCC 578

26. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajan Lal, 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

27. Mahmood Aliand ors. Vs St. of U.P.: 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950

28. Abhishek Vs St. of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083

29. U.O.I. Vs Cipla Ltd., (2017) 5 SCC 262

30. Ashok Kumar Vs New India Assurance Co. Ltd., (2024) 1 SCC 357

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri. Prashant Chandra Senior Advocate assisted by Sri. Anshuman Singh Advocate, the learned Counsel for the applicants, Sri. Amit Kumar Dwivedi, the learned A.G.A. and Sri. Avinash Chandra, the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the applicants have sought quashing of F.I.R. No. 39 of 2024 under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 427, 323, 504, 506 and 34 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Barabanki.

3. The learned A.G.A. and the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 raised a preliminary objection that the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable for quashing of the F.I.R. in view of the law laid down by a Bench consisting of seven Hon'ble Judges of this Court in Ramlal Yadava versus State of U.P. (1989) 1 MWN (Cr.) 198 All (FB).

4. Sri. Prashant Chandra, the learned Senior Advocate appearing for the applicant submitted that a First Information Report can be questioned and set aside in proceedings under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which preserve the inherent powers of the High Court's to prevent abuse of the process of court. The availability of extraordinary remedy of Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India would not oust the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

5. The learned A.G.A. and the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 further submitted that the applicants not only have a remedy of filing a Writ Petition available for the relief sought, rather they have in fact already availed that remedy by filing Criminal Miscellaneous Writ Petition No. 642 of 2024, which was dismissed by means of an order dated 30.01.2024 which reads as follows: -

"Sri. Pawan Kumar Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioners, at the outset prays that he has been instructed by his client to not press this petition and the same may be dismissed as such.

Accordingly, this Writ Petition is dismissed as not pressed."

6. The learned A.G.A. and the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 also submitted that the applicants have not disclosed the fact of filing and dismissal of the Writ Petition which was filed by them for the same relief and they are guilty of concealment of the aforesaid material fact.

7. The learned A.G.A. has placed reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bhisham Lal Verma versus State of Uttar Pradesh and another, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1399.

8. The learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 relied upon the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sarguja Transport Service v. S.T.A.T., (1987) 1 SCC 5.

9. After the aforesaid preliminary objection had been raised, the learned Counsel for the applicants filed a supplementary affidavit stating that the applicant no. 1 had met Sri. K. K. Yadav Advocate on 22.01.2024, had told him that there was a grave urgency for filing a petition as he and his brother (the applicant no. 2) could be arrested any moment, and he had handed over the papers of the case to the Advocate, who had told him that the preparation of the case will take some time. In the meanwhile, the Advocate got an affidavit of the applicant no. 1 prepared and got some blank papers signed by him, although the applicant no. 1 had told the Advocate that he had come to seek opinion only and he had not come prepared to get the case filed and he was not even carrying any fee and expenses. The applicant no. 2 had independently approached Sri. Fazal Haider Zaidi, Advocate for the same purpose on 19.01.2024, who had called both the applicants on the following day. Both the applicants met Sri. Zaidi Advocate on 23.01.2024, who got an affidavit of the applicant no. 1 prepared in the affidavit centre of this Court and told the applicants to contact the Advocate after a couple of days and the petition would be prepared in the meantime. The applicant no. 1 met Sri. Zaidi Advocate on 25.01.2024, on which date the petition was prepared, it was signed on 26.01.2024 and Sri. Zaidi Advocate told him that the petition would be filed on 27.01.2024. The applicant no. 1 received a phone call from Sri. Pawan Kumar Singh Advocate in the evening of 29.01.2024 informing that he had filed the Writ Petition under instructions of Sri. K. K. Yadav Advocate and it would come up on 30.01.2024. The applicants told him that he had not instructed Sri. Yadav Advocate to file any petition and he had already instructed some other Counsel to file the petition. He instructed Sri. Pawan Kumar Singh Advocate to inform the Court that he had not been instructed for filing the petition on behalf of the applicant no. 1.

10. Written submissions have been filed by the learned Counsel for the applicants inter alia submitting that the judgment in Ramlal Yadava (Supra) was given in the backdrop of the fact that Section 438 Cr.P.C., which provides for grant of anticipatory bail, had been taken away in the State of U. P. vide U. P. Act No. 16 of 1976. As the fundamental right guaranteed by Article 21 of the Constitution of India was under threat of violation, redress was being granted by this Court in petitions filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India as an alternative to anticipatory bail under Section 438 Cr.P.C. It is for this reason that when a charge-sheet is filed, the party is relegated to file a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and its legality is not examined in the petition under Article 226, even if it is pending. The learned Counsel for the applicants has submitted that Ramlal Yadava (Supra) is no more a good law because it does not take into consideration the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of R. P. Kapoor versus State of Punjab 1960 SCC OnLine SC 21 and Pratibha Rani versus Suraj Kumar (1985) 2 SCC 370 in correct perspective. The aforesaid judgements have been considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Haryana versus Bhajanlal 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335, wherein it has been held that an F.I.R. can be quashed in exercise of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. After the Full Bench decision in Ramlal (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has consistently held in numerous judgments that a First Information Report can be challenged under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Some of those judgments are Abhishek versus State of Madhya Pradesh : 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083, Mahmood Ali and others versus State of U.P. : 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950, Mitesh Kumar J. Sha versus State of Karnataka and others : (2022) 14 SCC 572, Ananad Kumar Mohatta versus State (NCT of Delhi) : (2019) 11 SCC 706, Padal Venkata Rama Reddy versus Kovvuri Satyanarayana Reddy : (2011) 12 SCC 437 and Inder Mohan Goswami and another versus State of Uttaranchal and others : (2007) 12 SCC 1.

11. Reference has also been made to a judgment dated 04.10.2023 rendered by a coordinate Bench of this Court in Jawed Aslam versus State of U.P. and other : Neutral Citation No. 2023:AHC-LKO:64280, wherein it has been held that a petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is maintainable for challenging a First Information Report and it is not necessary to invoke the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The decision of the coordinate Bench is binding on this Court as per the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sub Inspector Roop Lal and another versus Lt. Governor through Chief Secretary, Delhi and others : (2000) 1 SCC 644.

12. Regarding the principle laid down in Sarjuga Transport (Supra), it has been submitted that the petitioner has not invoked the jurisdiction under Article 226 again and he had abandoned the remedy under Article 226 by instructing his Counsel, but he had not abandoned the right to file an application under Section 482.

13. Reliance has been placed upon the decision in the case of Ashok Kumar versus New India Assurance Company : (2024) 1 SCC 357 wherein it has been held that due to an act of a lawyer of withdrawing a complaint, the litigant cannot be precluded to institute a fresh complaint after the withdrawal of the earlier complaint by the lawyer without instructions.

14. The learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 has submitted that the conduct of the applicants in first filing a Writ Petition seeking quashing of the F.I.R., thereafter withdrawing the same without seeking any liberty from the Division Bench dealing with Criminal Writ Petition and then filing an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. before a Single Judge Bench, and that too, without disclosing the fact of filing and dismissal of the Writ Petition, amounts to bench hunting tactics, which has been deprecated time and again. He has relied upon the judgments in the cases of Ambalal Parihar versus State of Rajasthan and others 2023 SCC OnLine Raj 1374, R. Annapurna versus Ramadugu Anantha Krishna Shastry and other (2002) 10 SCC 401, Bhisham Lal Verma versus State of Uttar Pradesh and another 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1399, Kamini Jaiswal versus Union of India and another (2018) 1 SCC 156, Sarguja Transport Service v. S.T.A.T., (1987) 1 SCC 5, Hari Singh Mann versus Harbhajan Singh Bajwa and others (2001) 1 SCC 169, Dheer Singh and another versus State of U. P. & another (2019) SCC OnLine All 2776 and Abdul Gaffar and another vesrus Ishtiaque Ahmad and another 1989 All.L.J. 297.

15. In Ramlal Yadava versus State of U.P. (1989) 1 MWN (Cr.) 198 All (FB) it was held that an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable for the relief of quashing of an F.I.R. and this relief can be claimed only by filing a Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The learned Counsel for the applicants submits that this judgment was delivered without considering the precedents in the correct perspective. There is neither any need nor any occasion to decide the correctness of the seven Judge Bench of this Court in Ramlal Yadava (Supra), as there are numerous subsequent decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court laying down that an F.I.R. can be quashed in exercise of the inherent powers recognized by Section 482 Cr.P.C., subject to the conditions laid down in those judgments.

16. A Bench consisting of seven Hon'ble Judges of the Hon'ble Supreme Court held in P. Ramachandra Rao v. State of Karnataka, (2002) 4 SCC 578 that: -

"21....In appropriate cases, inherent power of the High Court, under Section 482 can be invoked to make such orders, as may be necessary, to give effect to any order under the Code of Criminal Procedure or to prevent abuse of the process of any court, or otherwise, to secure the ends of justice. The power is wide and, if judiciously and consciously exercised, can take care of almost all the situations where interference by the High Court becomes necessary on account of delay in proceedings or for any other reason amounting to oppression or harassment in any trial, inquiry or proceedings. In appropriate cases, the High Courts have exercised their jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of first information report and investigation, and terminating criminal proceedings if the case of abuse of process of law was clearly made out. Such power can certainly be exercised on a case being made out of breach of fundamental right conferred by Article 21 of the Constitution."

17. In State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal, 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335, the Hon'ble Supreme Court considered numerous precedents on the point and summarized the law on the point in the following words: -

"102. In the backdrop of the interpretation of the various relevant provisions of the Code under Chapter XIV and of the principles of law enunciated by this Court in a series of decisions relating to the exercise of the extraordinary power under Article 226 or the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Code which we have extracted and reproduced above, we give the following categories of cases by way of illustration wherein such power could be exercised either to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice, though it may not be possible to lay down any precise, clearly defined and sufficiently channelised and inflexible guidelines or rigid formulae and to give an exhaustive list of myriad kinds of cases wherein such power should be exercised.

i. Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

ii. Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the FIR do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code.

iii. Where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused.

iv. Where, the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code.

v. Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.

vi. Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party.

vii. Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge.

103. We also give a note of caution to the effect that the power of quashing a criminal proceeding should be exercised very sparingly and with circumspection and that too in the rarest of rare cases; that the court will not be justified in embarking upon an enquiry as to the reliability or genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the FIR or the complaint and that the extraordinary or inherent powers do not confer an arbitrary jurisdiction on the court to act according to its whim or caprice."

18. In Mahmood Aliand others versus State of U.P.: 2023 SCC OnLine SC 950, it was observed that: -

"Whenever an accused comes before the Court invoking either the inherent powers under Section482of theCode of Criminal Procedure(Cr.P.C.) or extraordinary jurisdiction under Article226of theConstitutionto get the FIR or the criminal proceedings quashed essentially on the ground that such proceedings are manifestly frivolous or vexatious or instituted with the ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance, then in such circumstances the Court owes a duty to look into the FIR with care and a little more closely. We say so because once the complainant decides to proceed against the accused with an ulterior motive for wreaking personal vengeance, etc., then he would ensure that the FIR/complaint is very well drafted with all the necessary pleadings. The complainant would ensure that the averments made in the FIR/complaint are such that they disclose the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence. Therefore, it will not be just enough for the Court to look into the averments made in the FIR/complaint alone for the purpose of ascertaining whether the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence are disclosed or not. In frivolous or vexatious proceedings, the Court owes a duty to look into many other attending circumstances emerging from the record of the case over and above the averments and, if need be, with due care and circumspection try to read in between the lines. The Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section482of theCr.P.C.or Article226of theConstitutionneed not restrict itself only to the stage of a case but is empowered to take into account the overall circumstances leading to the initiation/registration of the case as well as the materials collected in the course of investigation."

19. In Abhishek v. State of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083 also, it was held that "It is well settled that the High Court would continue to have the power to entertain and act upon a petition filed under Section482Cr. P.C.to quash the FIR even when a charge-sheet is filed by the police during the pendency of such petition".

20. Thus the Hon'ble Supreme Court has always treated the extraordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and the inherent powers recognized by Section 482 Cr.P.C. at par and an F.I.R. can be quashed in exercise of either of the aforesaid two proceedings.

21. It is also settled law that in case there is a conflict in the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and a High Court, undisputedly the law declared by the High Court has to give way to the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. As the law laid down by the seven Judge Bench of this Court in Ramlal Yadava (Supra) is in conflict with the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P. Ramachandra Rao, Bhajan Lal, Mahmood Ali and Abhishek (Supra), undisputedly the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court would govern the field.

22. Therefore, the applicants had the option to file a Writ Petition or to file an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The learned Counsel for the applicants has submitted that the principle of dominus litus entitles the applicants to choose the any one of the fora.

23. There can be no dispute to the proposition that in case a litigant has the option of approaching more than one forum for redressal of his grievances, he has the right to choose the forum of his convenience. However, the question in the present case is not regarding maintainability of the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. - the question is of propriety of filing of the application.

24. As per the provisions contained in Chapter V Rule 2 of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952, the applications under Section 482 Cr.P.C. are to be placed before a single Judge Bench whereas Criminal Writ Petitions filed for quashing of an F.I.R. are to be placed before a Division Bench. Although the powers of the High Court under extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and the inherent powers of the High Court recognized by Section 482 Cr.P.C. are the same, the Hon'ble Chief Justice has assigned the roster of Criminal Writ Petitions to a Division Bench and the roster of Applications under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been assigned to the Single Judge Bench.

25. The principle of dominus litus was applicable at the inception, when the applicants had to choose one of the two remedies available to them. The applicants had chosen to file a Writ Petition in which the scope of enquiry and interference was the same as that under Section 482 Cr.P.C. However, the applicants got the Writ Petition dismissed as not pressed although their grievance still existed. The applicants did not disclose any reason for getting the writ petition dismissed as not pressed. The reason could well be an assessment that they would not be able to get a favourable order from the Division Bench. The Writ Petition was got dismissed as not pressed without seeking a liberty from the Division Bench to approach the Single Judge Bench by filing an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

26. In Union of India v. Cipla Ltd., (2017) 5 SCC 262, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the Court is required to adopt a functional test vis-à-vis the litigation and the litigant. What has to be seen is whether there is any functional similarity in the proceedings between one court and another or whether there is some sort of subterfuge on the part of a litigant. It is this functional test that will determine whether a litigant is indulging in forum shopping or not. The facts stated above clearly establish that it is a typical example of forum shopping, which practice has always been deprecated by the Courts.

27. Moreover, the facts of filing and dismissal of the earlier petition filed under Article 226 for the same relief was concealed in the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The learned A.G.A. raised a preliminary objection regarding maintainability of the application under Section 482 and the learned Counsel for the applicant replied to it. It was only after the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2 had pointed out concealment of the fact of filing of the Writ Petition and its dismissal, that the learned Counsel for the applicants filed the supplementary affidavit. It appears that the supplementary affidavit was kept ready to meet the contingency of the concealment of filing and dismissal of the Writ Petition being brought to the notice of this Court.

28. This conduct of the applicants in concealing the material fact of filing and dismissal of the Writ Petition while they have approached to invoke the inherent powers of this Court to make such orders as may be necessary to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice, appears to be an abuse of the process of Court and it does not in any manner secure the ends of justice and it is liable to be deprecated.

29. In Sarguja Transport Service v. S.T.A.T., (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court considered the question whether it would or would not advance the cause of justice if the principle underlying Rule 1 of Order XXIII of the Code of Civil Procedure is adopted in respect of Writ Petitions filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India also. While answering this question, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"8...It is plain that when once a Writ Petition filed in a High Court is withdrawn by the petitioner himself he is precluded from filing an appeal against the order passed in the Writ Petition because he cannot be considered as a party aggrieved by the order passed by the High Court. He may as stated inDaryaov.State of U.P.[AIR 1961 SC 1457] in a case involving the question of enforcement of fundamental rights file a petition before the Supreme Court under Article 32 of the Constitution of India because in such a case there has been no decision on the merits by the High Court. The relevant observation of this Court inDaryao caseis to be found at p. 593 and it is as follows:

"If the petition is dismissed as withdrawn it cannot be a bar to a subsequent petition under Article 32, because in such a case there has been no decision on the merits by the court. We wish to make it clear that the conclusions thus reached by us are confined only to the point of res judicata which has been argued as a preliminary issue in these Writ Petitions and no other."

* * *

"9...But we are of the view that the principle underlying Rule 1 of Order XXIII of the Code should be extended in the interests of administration of justice to cases of withdrawal of Writ Petition also, not on the ground of res judicata but on the ground of public policy as explained above. It would also discourage the litigant from indulging in bench-hunting tactics. In any event there is no justifiable reason in such a case to permit a petitioner to invoke the extraordinary jurisdiction of the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution once again. While the withdrawal of a Writ Petition filed in a High Court without permission to file a fresh Writ Petition may not bar other remedies like a suit or a petition under Article 32 of the Constitution of India since such withdrawal does not amount to res judicata, the remedy under Article 226 of the Constitution of India should be deemed to have been abandoned by the petitioner in respect of the cause of action relied on in the Writ Petition when he withdraws it without such permission. ... We, however, make it clear that whatever we have stated in this order may not be considered as being applicable to a Writ Petition involving the personal liberty of an individual in which the petitioner prays for the issue of a writ in the nature of habeas corpus or seeks to enforce the fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution since such a case stands on a different footing altogether. We, however leave this question open."

30. The principle of law laid down in Sarguja Transport (Supra) will apply to the present case as well, where although the previous petition was filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and the subsequent application has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the prayers made in both the petitions and the scope of enquiry and interference are the same and the only difference is that the earlier Writ petition was to be heard by a Division Bench while the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is to be heard by a Single Judge Bench.

31. Now I will proceed to consider the explanation given by the applicants in the supplementary affidavit for withdrawal of the Writ Petition, that the Writ Petition had been filed by a Counsel who had no instructions. The applicant no. 1 has stated in the supplementary affidavit that he had met Sri. K. K. Yadav Advocate on 22.01.2024, had told him that there was a grave urgency for filing a petition as he and his brother (the applicant no. 2) could be arrested any moment, and he had handed over the papers of the case to the Advocate, who had told him that the preparation of the case will take some time. In the meanwhile, the Advocate got an affidavit of the applicant no. 1 prepared and got some blank papers signed by him, although the applicant no. 1 had told the Advocate that he had come to seek opinion only and he had not come prepared to get the case filed and he was not even carrying any fee and expenses.

32. The earlier petition was signed by the applicants on 22.01.2024 and it was filed on 23.01.2024 and it indicates that the Advocate engaged by the applicants acted promptly, keeping in mind the apprehension expressed by the applicant no 1 that he and his brother might be arrested any moment. The applicant no. 1 has disclosed his qualification to be 'B.Tech.' and he is running a business. A reasonable person of ordinary prudence would not accept that an engineer businessman would meet an Advocate, tell him that there was a grave urgency for filing a petition as he and his brother could be arrested any moment, he would hand over the papers of the case to the Advocate, sign an affidavit and some blank papers, but at the same time he would tell the Advocate that he had come to seek opinion only and he had not come prepared to get the case filed, although he was apprehending arrest any moment. Admittedly the applicant no. 1 had given the relevant papers to the Advocate and he had signed the papers and executed an Affidavit and although the applicants have not stated anything about Vakalanama, the mere filing of the petition establishes that both the applicants had signed a Vakalatnama also. In these circumstances, it cannot be accepted that the Writ Petition filed on 23.01.2024 filed after the applicant no. 1 had handed over and signed the papers on 22.01.2024, had been filed by the Advocate without any instruction. Therefore, the averments made in the supplementary affidavit do not inspire confidence.

33. The supplementary affidavit further states that both the applicants had met Sri. Fazal Haider Zaidi Advocate on 23.01.2024, who had got an affidavit of the applicant no. 1 prepared in the affidavit centre of this Court and told the applicants to contact the Advocate after a couple of days and the petition will be prepared in the meantime. The applicant no. 1 met Sri. Zaidi Advocate on 25.01.2024, on which date the petition was prepared and it was signed on 26.01.2024. However, the affidavit filed with the application under Section 482 discloses that it was signed by the applicant no. 1 and the contents of the affidavit were solemnly affirmed before an Oath Commissioner appointed by this Court on 27.01.2024. While verifying the affidavit, the Oath Commissioner was performing his official function and, therefore, there is a legal presumption that he has performed his official act in a regular manner. There is nothing to rebut this presumption, except the contention of the applicant no. 1 himself, which suffers from serious self-contradictions. Therefore, the declaration made by the Oath Commissioner has to be presumed to be correct.

34. It appears that the applicant no. 1 has cooked up a story to overcome the bar against filing of the second application for the same relief and the charge of concealment of material fact of filing and dismissal of the earlier Writ petition. In this regard, it is also significant to note that even regarding the instant application the applicants claim that they had met and instructed Sri. Fazal Haider Zaidi Advocate only whereas the application has not been filed by Sri. Fazal Haider Zaidi. The application has been signed and filed by Sri. Anshuman Singh and Ms. Geetika Yadav Advocates. Ms. Geetika Yadav has not accepted the Vakalatnama executed by the petitioners. In this manner the applicants have again left the scope of repeating the story and disowning Sri. Anshuman Singh and Ms. Geetika Yadav in case they are not satisfied with the outcome of the case.

35. So far as the judgment in Ashok Kumar v. New India Assurance Co. Ltd., (2024) 1 SCC 357 is concerned, in that case the appellant had filed a complaint before the Consumer Forum on 11.06.2009 alleging that the respondent was delaying the settlement of the claim for theft of a stolen truck. On the date of the complaint, the Insurance Company had not repudiated the claim. After that, on 15-10-2009 the respondent Insurance Company repudiated the claim. The complaint came up before the District Forum on 22.11.2020 when the appellant's Advocate made a statement that he did not want to proceed with the case and it may be dismissed. The claimant filed a fresh complaint inter alia stating that after filing the earlier complaint, since the counsel for the Insurance Company sought numerous adjournments, his counsel got annoyed with the attitude of the said advocate and, by mistake, withdrew the case on 22-11-2020. It was expressly pleaded that the withdrawal of the said complaint was unfortunate, and that the appellant should not be made to suffer for the wrong deeds of the counsel. In the complaint, the appellant prayed for a direction to the Insurance Company to pay the insurance amount.In the aforesaid factual background, the Hon'ble supreme Court held that: -

"21.In any event, we are convinced that interest of justice requires that the appellant, in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, should not be non-suited on the ground that his earlier complaint was withdrawn. We say so for the following reasons:

(i)Firstly, the original Complaint No. 515 was filed on 11-6-2009 when the Insurance Company had not taken any decision on the claim. In fact, the complainant had alleged that the Insurance Company was lingering on with the issue and had complained of not rendering "sufficient service";

(ii)Secondly, pending that complaint, it was on 15-10-2009 that the repudiation letter was issued on purported breach of Conditions 1 & 5 of the Policy;

(iii)Thirdly, we find that a separate proceeding has been drawn up recording the statement of only the lawyer of the complainant. The statement of the lawyer stated that "I, Surender Kumar Gulia, Advocate, state that I do not want to proceed with my case. It may be dismissed".

(iv)Fourthly, in the complaint filed on 6-3-2012, the appellant avers that since the lawyer for the opposite party—Insurance Company was taking numerous dates for arguments, his counsel getting annoyed with the attitude of the advocate of the opposite party withdrew the abovesaid case by mistake.

(v)Fifthly, the appellant further avers that the withdrawal was unfortunate and he ought not to have been prejudiced for the deeds of his lawyer.

(vi)Sixthly, the finding of the National Commission is also factually erroneous, on this score. The learned counsel for the appellant drew our attention to para 9 of the order of the National Commission wherein the following erroneous finding was recorded. (Ashok Kumar case[New India Assurance Co. Ltd.v.Ashok Kumar, 2018 SCC OnLine NCDRC 1920] , SCC OnLineNcdrc)

"9. It is not disputed that earlier also, the complainant had filed consumer Complaint No. 515 of 2009 against the opposite party/Insurance Company on the same cause of action. Perusal of record would show that aforesaid complaint filed by the complainant in respect of repudiation of insurance claim regarding the same theft was withdrawn by the complainant unconditionally on 22-11-2010. Copy of the relevant order in CC No. 515 of 2009 is on the record. The order is reproduced as under:

'Statement of learned counsel for the complainant for withdrawal of the complaint recorded separately. In view of the statement, the complaint of the complainant is hereby dismissed as withdrawn. File be consigned to record room after due compliance'."

(emphasis in original)

22. It will be noticed that the National Commission was under the wrong impression that the original Complaint No. 515 of 2009 was filed in respect of repudiation of the insurance claim and it proceeded on the erroneous premise that having challenged the repudiation in Complaint No. 515, the withdrawal of the complaint unconditionally on 22-11-2010 was fatal to the appellant. The original Complaint No. 515 of 2009 was filed on 11-6-2009 and the respondent Insurance Company repudiated the claim only on 15-10-2009."

36. Thus the aforesaid judgment specifically states that it was passed keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of that case, which are in no manner similar to the facts of the present case and, therefore, it is of no avail to the applicants.

37. Therefore, this Court is of the considered view that the applicants have not acted fairly while approaching this Court to invoke the inherent powers of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of the F.I.R. No. 39 of 2024 under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 427, 323, 504, 506 and 34 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Barabanki after dismissal of Criminal Miscellaneous Writ Petition No. 642 of 2024, which was filed with the same prayer and which was dismissed by a Division Bench without liberty for filing a fresh application for the same relief and thereafter by concealing the fact of filing and dismissal of the earlier Writ Petition in the application under Section 482. Thereafter the applicants have filed the supplementary affidavit containing a story regarding the previous Writ Petition having been filed by an Advocate without instructions, which for the reasons stated above, prima facie appears to be a cooked up story. Keeping in view the entire facts and circumstances stated above, the applicants are not entitled to be granted any relief by this Court in exercise of its inherent powers.

38. Accordingly, the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is hereby dismissed with a cost of Rs.25,000/- which shall be deposited by the applicants with the registry of this Court within a period of 30 days, failing which the Senior Registrar shall initiate proceedings for recovery of the amount by sending a Recovery Certificate to the Collector concerned, who shall recover the amounts as arrears of land revenue and shall remit the same to this Court within a period of three months from the date of issuance of the Recovery Certificate.

39. The Senior Registrar of this Court is directed to transmit the cost amount to Children Home (Girls), Lucknow, which is being run and maintained under the Department of Women and Child Development, Government of U.P.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1124
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 02.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 869 of 2024

M/S Albert David Ltd. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Salil Kumar Srivastava, Rahul Srivastava

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Ashok Kumar Verma

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power – Section 200,202 ,295,296 - The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 – Section 31-A – Power to give directions , Section 37 - Penalty for contravention of certain provisions of the Act - Court will take cognizance of the offence, but it does not mandate that the cognizance has to be taken by using express words that the Court takes cognizance of the offence - mere non-examination of any witness under Section 202 Cr.P.C. would not vitiate the order summoning the accused persons to face the trial. (Para -27 , 32)

(B) The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - rudimentary principle - any judicial authority must apply his mind to the relevant facts, the relevant material placed in support of the material and the relevant provisions of law while passing any order - at the stage of issuing process, the Magistrate is mainly concerned with the allegations made in the complaint or the evidence led in support of the same and he is only to be prima facie satisfied whether there are sufficient grounds for proceeding against the accused.(Para - 42,45)

(C) The Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 - Offences by companies - Section 40, The Negotiable instruments Act, 1981- Section 141 - Offences by companies - Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and Section 40 of the Air Act contain pari materia provisions. (Para - 46 to 48)

Complaint was filed by an Assistant Environmental Engineer of Board - authorized by Board's resolution – cognizance - Applicant-firm and its 7 partners summoned - to face trial - allegedly operating an 8TPH PNG fired boiler – not obtained consent from Pollution Control Board - violating Section 21 of Air Act – punishable under Section 37 of Air Act. (Para - 1 to 10)

HELD: - Applicants are in charge of the as well as responsible for the conduct of the day-to-day business of the applicant and they are personally liable for the violation of the provisions of law (Air Act) which meets the requirement set by the Supreme Court in S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla, Complaint's allegations are sufficient for trial, and partners' actual liability will be determined after trial. (Para - 49 to 51)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. P. Pramila & ors. Vs St. of Karn. & anr., (2015) 17 SCC 651

2. National Bank of Oman Vs Barakara Abdul Aziz & anr., (2013) 2 SCC 488

3. Sulochana Devi Vs D.M., 1993(1) Crimes108(Ori.)

4. Harsh Mandar Vs Amit Anilchandra Shah, (2017) 13 SCC 420

5. Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs St. of Uttaranchal, (2008) 17 SCC 157

6. Sunil Bharti Mittal Vs C.B.I., (2015) 4 SCC 609

7. India Carat (P) Ltd. Vs St. of Karn., (1989) 2 SCC 132

8. Nahar Singh Vs St. of U. P. & ors., (2022) 5 SCC 295

9. Devendra Vs St. of U.P., (2009) 7 SCC 495

10. U.P.P.C.B. Vs Dr. Bhupendra Kumar Modi, (2009) 2 SCC 147 S.M.S.

11. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. Vs Neeta Bhalla, (2005) 8 SCC 89

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Dr. Salil Kumar Srivastava, the learned counsel for applicant, Sri Gyanendra Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State and Sri Ashok Kumar Verma, the learned counsel for opposite party no.2.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the applicant has challenged the validity of the summoning order dated 25.08.2022 passed by the Special Judicial Magistrate, Pollution/CBI, Lucknow in Complaint no.1008 of 2020, whereby the applicant-firm and its 7 partners have been summoned to face trial under Section 37 of the Air Act.

3. On 10.02.2020, the opposite party no. 2 - the U. P. Pollution Control Board (which will hereinafter be referred to as 'the Board') filed a complaint under Section 37 of the Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981 (which will hereinafter be referred to as 'the Air Act'), through an Assistant Environmental Engineer of the Board, against the applicant firm and its 7 partners, stating that by means of an order dated 15.02.2018 passed by the Chief Environmental Officer, Circle-1, the applicant - M/s Albert David Ltd was granted consent under Section 21 of the Air Act for 06TPH PNG fired boiler, which was valid for the period from 01.01.2018 to 31.12.2019. However, during an inspection made on 06.12.2019, it was found that the applicant had installed a new 8TPH PNG fired boiler and was operating the same without obtaining consent from the Pollution Control Board in violation of Section 21 of the Air Act, which was punishable under Section 37 of the Air Act.

4. On 25.08.2022, the learned Special Judicial Magistrate, Pollution/CBI, Lucknow passed the impugned order summoning the accused persons to face trial under Section 37 of the Air Act.

5. Dr. Salil Kumar Srivastava, the learned Counsel for the applicant has challenged the validity of the summoning order on numerous grounds. The first submission of the learned Counsel for the applicant is that the complaint has been filed by an Assistant Environmental Engineer of U.P. Pollution Control Board, who is not authorized to file the complaint as per the provisions contained in Section 43 of the Air Act. In reply to this submission, the learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 has submitted that Section 15 of the Air Act provides that 'a State Board may, by general or special order, delegate to the Chairman or the member-secretary or any other officer of the Board subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and functions under this Act as it may deem necessary.'

6. In rebuttal, Dr Salil Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the power conferred under Section 15 of the Air Act is a general power whereas the power to institute prosecution has specifically been provided under Section 43 of the Air Act. Section 43 (1) (a) of the Air Act provides that No Court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except on a complaint made by a Board or any officer authorised in this behalf by it. Section 15 (1) of the Air Act provides that "A State Board may, by general or special order, delegate to the Chairman or the member-secretary or any other officer of the Board subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and functions under this Act as it may deem necessary."

7. Dr. Srivastava has contended that as the resolution dated 23.12.1981 passed by the Board does not contain the name of Sri. Ritesh Tiwari, the Board has not delegated the powers to him and the powers have been delegated to Sri. Ritesh Tiwari by the Member Secretary of the Board, who had no authority to delegate the powers. In support of this contention, he has relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of P. Pramila and others versus State of Karnataka and another reported in (2015) 17 SCC

651, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that "there cannot be any doubt, that when the authorities decided to initiate proceedings under the provisions of the Air Act, the complaint could have been made either by the Board or by an officer authorised by the Board."

8. In P. Pramila (Supra), vide Notification/Resolution dated 29-3-1989, the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board had delegated certain powers to the Chairman of the Board as per which a complaint under Section 43(1) of the Air Act could have been filed either by its Chairman. The Chairman passed an order dated 4-4-2006 authorising the Regional Officer, Karwar to initiate criminal action under Section 37 of the Air Act by filing criminal case. In this factual background, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"The Notification/Resolution dated 29-3-1989 indicates that the officer authorised was the Chairman of the Board. The Board could delegate the above power to the Chairman of the Board because Section 43(1) of the Air Act authorised the Board to do so. In that view of the matter, either the Board or the Chairman of the Board could have filed the complaints in terms of the mandate contained in Section 43(1) of the Air Act. The power to file the complaint could not be exercised by any other authority/officer. Under the principle of "delegatus non potest delegare", the delegatee (the Chairman of the Board) could not have further delegated the authority vested in him, except by a clear mandate of law. Section 43 of the Air Act vested the authority to file complaints with the Board. Section 43 aforementioned also authorised the Board to delegate the above authority to any "officer authorised in this behalf by it". The "officer authorised in this behalf" was not authorised by the provisions of Section 43 of the Air Act, or by any other provision thereof, to further delegate the authority to file complaints. The Chairman of the Board, therefore, had no authority to delegate the power to file complaints to any other authority for taking cognizance of offences under the Air Act."

9. There can be no dispute against the proposition of law that a delegate cannot further delegate the authority vested in him. However, in the present case, the Board itself had passed a resolution dated 23.12.1981 authorizing the Law Officer, the Assistant Scientific Officers and the Assistant Environmental Engineers of the Board to file cases in Courts and it was further resolved that the case will be filed by that officer who is nominated by the Member Secretary. In furtherance of this general order of delegation passed by the Board, the Member Secretary of the Board has nominated Sri. Ritesh Tiwari, Assistant Environmental Engineer to file the complaint. Therefore, the power has been delegated to the Assistant Environmental Engineer by the Board only and not by the Member Secretary or the Chairman of the Board or any delegate of the Board. Therefore, the well settled principle of law reiterated in P. Pramila (Supra) does not apply to the facts of the present case.

10. Hence, I find no force in the first submission of the learned Counsel for the applicant and I hold that the complaint has been filed by an Assistant Environmental Engineer of the Board, who was authorized by the Board's resolution dated 23.12.1981.

11. The learned counsel for the applicant has next submitted that the opposite party nos. 2 to 8 in the complaint, who are partners of the applicant firm, are residents of places falling outside the territorial limits of jurisdiction of the Special Judicial Magistrate and, therefore, it was mandatory for the Court to have held an enquiry under Section 202 (1) Cr.P.C. before issuing summons to those accused persons. In support of this contention, learned counsel for applicant has relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of National Bank of Oman versus Barakara Abdul Aziz and another, reported in (2013) 2 SCC 488.

12. Per contra, Sri A. K. Verma, the learned counsel for opposite party no.2 has submitted that the applicant, who has approached this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., is the firm M/s Albert David Ltd, which is situated at Industrial Area, Ghaziabad, which falls within the territorial jurisdiction of the Magistrate, who has passed the summoning order. None of the partners of the firm, who claim to be residents of places outside jurisdiction of the Magistrate, have approached this Court challenging legality of the order summoning them to face the trial. The applicant is undisputedly situated within the limits of territorial jurisdiction of the Magistrate concerned and therefore, there is no illegality in summoning the applicant. In absence of the persons, who claim themselves to be residents of places outside the limits of territorial jurisdiction of the Magistrate concerned, this Court cannot examine validity of the order summoning those persons.

13. A copy of the complaint has been annexed with the application, wherein the applicant has been arrayed as opposite party no.1 and its address is mentioned as B-12/13, Site-3 Meerut Road Industrial Area, Police Station Sihani Gate, Ghaziabad, through its partners. The partners of the firm, who have been impleaded as opposite party nos.2 to 8 in the complaint, are all the residents of places other than the Ghaziabad, falling outside the limits of State of U.P. but they have not joined the applicant in filing the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

14. In Sulochana Devi Vs. District Magistrate, 1993(1)Crimes108(Ori.), Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arijit Pasayat dealt with the question of locus standi for filing an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. in the following manner: -

"9 . Can a person who is not a party to the proceeding invoke the jurisdiction of the Court for exercise of powers under Section 482? Who has locus standi to do so ? The concept of locus standi has undergone a sea-change. It is needless to emphasise that the requirement of locus standi of a party to a litigation is mandatory : because the legal capacity of the party to any litigation whether in private or public action in relation to any specific remedy sought for has to be primarily ascertained at the threshold. The traditional syntax of law in regard to locus standi for a specific judicial redress, sought by an individual person, or determinate class or identifiable group of persons, is available only to that person or class or group of persons who has or have suffered a legal injury by reasons of violation of his or their legal right or a right legally protected, the invasion of which gives rise to actionability within the categories of law…"

15. What was further held by the Orissa High Court in Sulochana Devi (Supra), was quoted with approval by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Harsh Mandar v. Amit Anilchandra Shah, (2017) 13 SCC 420: -

"41. In Sulochana Devi the petitioner who was not a party to the proceedings had invoked the powers of the High Court under Section 482 CrPC to challenge the order of issuance of proclamation under Section 82 of the Code and attachment of the property. Raising the issue of locus standi, preliminary objection was raised to the maintainability of the application at the behest of the petitioner. The Orissa High Court after considering the scope of Section 482 CrPC as well as the decisions of the Apex Court in Madhu Limaye (1977) 4 SCC 551, Simranjit Singh (1992) 4 SCC 653, and in Janata Dal v. H.S. Chowdhary (1992) 4 SCC 305, held that:

"... Even if there are million questions of law to be deeply gone into and examined in a criminal case registered against specified accused persons, it is for him/them to raise all such questions and challenge the proceedings initiated at appropriate time before the proper forum and not for third parties either individually or under the garb of public interest litigation. Ordinarily, the aggrieved party, which is affected by any order has the right to seek redress by questioning the legality, validity or correctness of the order unless such party is a minor and insane person or is suffering from any other disability which law recognises as sufficient to permit another person e.g. next friend, to move the court in his behalf."

16. The other 7 accused persons, who are partners of the applicant firm, are not suffering from any disability due to which they are unable to approach this Court and yet they have chosen not to join the applicant firm in filing the application under Section 482 challenging the validity of order summoning them. In these circumstances, the applicant firm cannot challenge the validity of the order so far as it summons the firm's partners who have not approached this Court.

17. Even otherwise, in National Bank of Oman (Supra) relied upon by the learned Counsel for the applicant, the High Court had taken the view that prima facie the bare allegation of cheating did not make out a case against the accused for issuance of process under Sections 418 or 420 IPC. Further, it was held that the Magistrate was obliged to postpone the process against the accused and either enquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other officer as he thinks fit for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding in a case where the accused is residing beyond the area in which the Magistrate exercises his jurisdiction. The Hon'ble Supreme Court upheld the decision of the High Court. However, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed in National Bank of Oman (Supra) that: -

"10. Section 202 CrPC was amended by the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2005 and the following words were inserted:

"and shall, in a case where the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which he exercises his jurisdiction,"

The notes on clauses for the abovementioned amendment read as follows:

"False complaints are filed against persons residing at far off places simply to harass them. In order to see that innocent persons are not harassed by unscrupulous persons, this clause seeks to amend sub-section (1) of Section 202 to make it obligatory upon the Magistrate that before summoning the accused residing beyond his jurisdiction he shall enquire into the case himself or direct investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for finding out whether or not there was sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused."

18. The object of holding an enquiry under Section 202 is to ensure that innocent persons, who are residents of far off places, are not harassed by unscrupulous persons by filing of false complaints. The complainant in the present case is U. P. Pollution Control Board, and not any unscrupulous individual. The nature of complaint is that upon inspection of the premises of the applicant firm, it was found that the applicant had installed a new 08 TPH PNG fired boiler and was operating the same without obtaining consent from the Pollution Control Board in violation of Section 21 of the Air Act, which was punishable under Section 37 of the Air Act. The firm is admittedly situated within the territorial limits of jurisdiction of the Magistrate. There is no allegation of personal nature against any of the partners of the firm who are residents of areas falling beyond the territorial limits of jurisdiction of the Magistrate and only this much is revealed from the records that the applicant's partners are responsible for running of its plant. The limited enquiry which the Magistrate can hold at this stage is meant to ascertain whether any case for summoning the accused persons is made out. The enquiry report submitted by a public servant was filed with the complaint and that is sufficient to enable the Magistrate to arrive at a conclusion that a case for taking cognizance of the offence and summoning the accused persons is made out.

19. Thus I am of the considered view that the object of inserting the amendment in Section 202 Cr.P.C. for conducting an enquiry has not been defeated in the present case. The inherent powers of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. are meant to be exercised to secure the ends of justice and not to create hurdles in dispensation of justice on mere technicalities which do not defeat the ends of justice. Therefore, I find myself not in agreement with the submission of the learned Counsel for the applicant that the order summoning the non-applicant accused persons is bad for want of an enquiry under Section 202 Cr.P.C.

20. The next submission made by the learned counsel for the applicant is that the complaint alleges that the applicant was operating without obtaining the requisite consent from the U. P. Pollution Control Board under Section 21 of the Air Act whereas the applicant had due permission under Section 21 of the Air Act and the allegation levelled in the complaint is false on the face of the record.

21. In reply to this submission, the learned counsel for opposite party no.2 has submitted that the applicant was granted consent under Section 21 of the Air Act by means of an order dated 15.02.2018 passed by the Chief Environmental Officer, Circle-1, which was valid for the period from 01.01.2018 to 31.12.2019, but the consent was granted only for 06 TPH PNG fired boiler. When it was found upon inspection that the applicant has installed a new 08 TPH PNG fired boiler and was operating it without obtaining consent from the Pollution Control Board, the complaint was lodged.

22. The record reveals that that the applicant was granted consent under Section 21 of the Air Act only for 06 TPH PNG fired boiler. Section provides for restriction of use of particular industrial plants, and it does not provide that after consent has been granted to an applicant to run an industry, it may install any other new plant without obtaining consent in respect thereof. The applicant had installed and was operating a new 08 TPH PNG fired boiler without obtaining consent from the Pollution Control Board. These facts, prima facie make out commission of offence under Section 21 which is punishable under Section 37 of the Air Act. Therefore, this submission of the learned Counsel for the applicant is also turned down.

23. The learned Counsel for the applicant has next submitted that the learned Magistrate has summoned the accused persons to face the trial without taking cognizance of the offences.

24. Section 190 (1) Cr.P.C. reads as follows: -

"190. Cognizance of offences by Magistrates.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, any Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate of the second class specially empowered in this behalf under sub-section (2), may take cognizance of any offence—

(a) upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence;

(b) upon a police report of such facts;

(c) upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge, that such offence has been committed."

25. In Fakhruddin Ahmad v. State of Uttaranchal, (2008) 17 SCC 157, the Hon'ble Supreme Court answered in the following words the question as to 'what is meant by the expression "taking cognizance of an offence" by a Magistrate within the contemplation of Section 190 of the Code?'

"14. The expression "cognizance" is not defined in the Code but is a word of indefinite import. As observed by this Court in Ajit Kumar Palit v. State of W.B.: (AIR 1963 SC 765)

"19. ... The word 'cognizance' has no esoteric or mystic significance in criminal law or procedure. It merely means—become aware of and when used with reference to a court or Judge, to take notice of judicially."

Approving the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Emperor v. Sourindra Mohan Chuckerbutty [ILR (1910) 37 Cal 412], the Court said that

"taking cognizance does not involve any formal action, or indeed action of any kind, but occurs as soon as a Magistrate, as such, applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence."

(emphasis supplied)

15. Recently, this Court in Chief Enforcement Officer v. Videocon International Ltd. (2008) 2 SCC 492, speaking through C.K. Thakker, J., while considering the ambit and scope of the phrase "taking cognizance" under Section 190 of the Code, has highlighted some of the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Supdt. & Remembrancer of Legal Affairs v. Abani Kumar Banerjee AIR 1950 Cal 437 which were approved by this Court in R.R. Chari v. State of U.P. AIR 1951 SC 207. The observations are:

"7. ... What is 'taking cognizance' has not been defined in the Criminal Procedure Code, and I have no desire now to attempt to define it. It seems to me clear, however, that before it can be said that any Magistrate has taken cognizance of any offence under Section 190(1)(a) CrPC, he must not only have applied his mind to the contents of the petition, but he must have done so for the purpose of proceeding in a particular way as indicated in the subsequent provisions of this Chapter, proceeding under Section 200, and thereafter sending it for enquiry and report under Section 202. When the Magistrate applies his mind not for the purpose of proceeding under the subsequent sections of this Chapter, but for taking action of some other kind e.g. ordering investigation under Section 156(3), or issuing a search warrant for the purpose of the investigation, he cannot be said to have taken cognizance of the offence."

16. From the aforenoted judicial pronouncements, it is clear that being an expression of indefinite import, it is neither practicable nor desirable to precisely define as to what is meant by "taking cognizance". Whether the Magistrate has or has not taken cognizance of the offence will depend upon the circumstances of the particular case, including the mode in which the case is sought to be instituted and the nature of the preliminary action.

17. Nevertheless, it is well settled that before a Magistrate can be said to have taken cognizance of an offence, it is imperative that he must have taken notice of the accusations and applied his mind to the allegations made in the complaint or in the police report or the information received from a source other than a police report, as the case may be, and the material filed therewith. It needs little emphasis that it is only when the Magistrate applies his mind and is satisfied that the allegations, if proved, would constitute an offence and decides to initiate proceedings against the alleged offender, that it can be positively stated that he has taken cognizance of the offence. Cognizance is in regard to the offence and not the offender."

26. In Sunil Bharti Mittal v. CBI, (2015) 4 SCC 609, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"47....The expression "taking cognizance" has not been defined in the Code. However, when the Magistrate applies his mind for proceeding under Sections 200-203 of the Code, he is said to have taken cognizance of an offence. This legal position is explained by this Court in Chief Enforcement Officer v. Videocon International Ltd.(2008) 2 SCC 492, in the following words:

"19. The expression 'cognizance' has not been defined in the Code. But the word (cognizance) is of indefinite import. It has no esoteric or mystic significance in criminal law. It merely means 'become aware of' and when used with reference to a court or a Judge, it connoted 'to take notice of judicially'. It indicates the point when a court or a Magistrate takes judicial notice of an offence with a view to initiating proceedings in respect of such offence said to have been committed by someone.

20. 'Taking cognizance' does not involve any formal action of any kind. It occurs as soon as a Magistrate applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence."

48. Sine qua non for taking cognizance of the offence is the application of mind by the Magistrate and his satisfaction that the allegations, if proved, would constitute an offence. It is, therefore, imperative that on a complaint or on a police report, the Magistrate is bound to consider the question as to whether the same discloses commission of an offence and is required to form such an opinion in this respect. When he does so and decides to issue process, he shall be said to have taken cognizance. At the stage of taking cognizance, the only consideration before the court remains to consider judiciously whether the material on which the prosecution proposes to prosecute the accused brings out a prima facie case or not."

27. In the impugned order dated 25.08.2022, the Magistrate has considered the facts stated in the complaint that upon an inspection made on 06.12.2019 it was found that the applicant no. 1 company was operating a 08 TPH PNG boiler without obtaining consent under Section 21 of the Air Act, which is an offence punishable under Section 37 of the Air Act, and that the partners of the applicant are responsible for its functioning. The inspection report dated 06.12.2019, the recommendation for filing the complaint, the authorization etc. had been filed with the complaint. After perusal of the complaint and the aforesaid material produced before the Magistrate, he recorded a satisfaction that the accused persons operated the unit without obtaining consent and thus they violated the mandatory provisions of Sections 21 and 31-A of the Air Act. This satisfaction recorded by the Magistrate amounts to taking cognizance of the offences. The law requires that the Court will take cognizance of the offence, but it does not mandate that the cognizance has to be taken by using express words that the Court takes cognizance of the offence. A bare perusal of the order dated 25.08.2022 reveals that the Magistrate has taken cognizance of the allegations levelled in the complaint which constitute the aforesaid offences and this is sufficient to take cognizance of the offence. Hence I find no force in the submission made by the learned Counsel for the applicant that the Magistrate has not taken cognizance of the offences.

28. The learned Counsel for the applicant has also submitted that the Magistrate has not recorded any statements under Section 200 or 202 Cr.P.C. and the Magistrate has summoned he accused persons without holding any enquiry and that the summoning order passed without taking cognizance of the offences is bad in law.

29. Sections 200 and 202 of Cr.P.C. are being reproduced below: -

"200. Examination of complainant.— A Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on complaint shall examine upon oath the complainant and the witnesses present, if any, and the substance of such examination shall be reduced to writing and shall be signed by the complainant and the witnesses, and also by the Magistrate:

Provided that, when the complaint is made in writing, the Magistrate need not examine the complainant and the witnesses—

(a) if a public servant acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties or a court has made the complaint; or

(b) …

* * *

202. Postponement of issue of process.— (1) Any Magistrate, on receipt of a complaint of an offence of which he is authorised to take cognizance or which has been made over to him under Section 192, may, if he thinks fit, and shall, in a case where the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which he exercises his jurisdiction postpone the issue of process against the accused, and either inquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding:

Provided that no such direction for investigation shall be made,—

(a) where it appears to the Magistrate that the offence complained of is triable exclusively by the Court of Session; or

(b) where the complaint has not been made by a Court, unless the complainant and the witnesses present (if any) have been examined on oath under Section 200.

(2) In an inquiry under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, take evidence of witnesses on oath:"

30. In India Carat (P) Ltd. v. State of Karnataka, (1989) 2 SCC 132, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"11. Chapter XV which contains Sections 200 to 203 deals with "Complaints to Magistrates". A Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on complaint is required by Section 200 to examine the complainant and the witnesses present, if any. Section 202 provides that a Magistrate taking cognizance of a case, upon complaint, may, if he thinks fit, postpone the issue of process against the accused, and either inquire into the case himself or direct investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. Section 203 empowers the Magistrate to dismiss the complaint, if after considering the statements on oath (if any) of the complaint and of the witnesses and the result of the inquiry or investigation (if any) under Section 202, the Magistrate is of opinion that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding.

12. Chapter XVI deals with "Commencement of Proceedings before Magistrates" and Section 204 empowers a Magistrate to issue summons or a warrant as the case may be, to secure the attendance of the accused if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of the offence there is sufficient ground for proceeding.

13. From the provisions referred to above, it may be seen that on receipt of a complaint a Magistrate has several courses open to him. The Magistrate may take cognizance of the offence at once and proceed to record statements of the complaints and the witnesses present under Section 200. After recording those statements, if in the opinion of the Magistrate there is no sufficient ground for proceeding, he may dismiss the complaint under Section 203. On the other hand if in his opinion there is sufficient ground for proceeding he may issue process under Section 204. If, however, the Magistrate thinks fit, he may postpone the issue of process and either inquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by the police officer or such other person as he thinks fit, for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. He may then issue process if in his opinion there is sufficient ground for proceeding or dismiss the complaint if there is no sufficient ground for proceeding. Yet another course open to the Magistrate is that instead of taking cognizance of the offence and following the procedure laid down under Section 200 or Section 202, he may order an investigation to be made by the police under Section 156(3). When such an order is made, the police will have to investigate the matter and submit a report under Section 173(2). On receiving the police report the Magistrate may take cognizance of the offence under Section 190(1)(b) and issue process straightway to the accused. The Magistrate may exercise his powers in this behalf irrespective of the view expressed by the police in their report whether an offence has been made out or not. This is because the police report under Section 173(2) will contain the facts discovered or unearthed by the police as well as the conclusion drawn by the police therefrom. If the Magistrate is satisfied that upon the facts discovered or unearthed by the police there is sufficient material for him to take cognizance of the offence and issue process, the Magistrate may do so without reference to the conclusion drawn by the Investigating Officer because the Magistrate is not bound by the opinion of the police officer as to whether an offence has been made out or not. Alternately the Magistrate, on receiving the police report, may without issuing process or dropping the proceeding proceed to act under Section 200 by taking cognizance of the offence on the basis of the complaint originally submitted to him and proceed to record the statement upon oath of the complainant and the witnesses present and thereafter decide whether the complaint should be dismissed or process should be issued."

31. The complaint has been filed by the U. P. Pollution Control Board through its Assistant Environmental Officer, who is a public servant. Section 200 Cr.P.C. itself provides that when the complaint is made in writing, the Magistrate need not examine the complainant and the witnesses if a public servant acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties or a court has made the complaint. Therefore, there was no need for examination of the complainant public servant in the present case.

32. Section 202 mandates an enquiry being held by the Magistrate by providing that any Magistrate, on receipt of a complaint of an offence of which he is authorised to take cognizance or which has been made over to him under Section 192, may, if he thinks fit, and shall, in a case where the accused is residing at a place beyond the area in which he exercises his jurisdiction postpone the issue of process against the accused, and either inquire into the case himself or direct an investigation to be made by a police officer or by such other person as he thinks fit, for the purpose of deciding whether or not there is sufficient ground for proceeding. Sub-Section (2) of Section 202 provides that in an inquiry under sub-section (1), the Magistrate may, if he thinks fit, take evidence of witnesses on oath. Thus there is no mandatory requirement of recording the evidence of any witness. Depending upon the nature of the complaint, the Magistrate can hold enquiry on the basis of documentary evidence also, which has been done in the present case. Therefore, the mere non-examination of any witness under Section 202 Cr.P.C. would not vitiate the order summoning the accused persons to face the trial.

33. The learned Counsel for the applicant has also submitted that no affidavit has been filed under Sections 295 and 209 Cr.P.C. So far as the submission regarding non-compliance of Section 295 and 296 Cr.P.C. is concerned, the two provisions read as follows: -

"295. Affidavit in proof of conduct of public servants.— When any application is made to any Court in the course of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, and allegations are made therein respecting any public servants, the applicant may give evidence of the facts alleged in the application by affidavit, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that evidence relating to such facts be so given.

* * *

296. Evidence of formal character on affidavit.—(1) The evidence of any person whose evidence is of a formal character may be given by affidavit and may, subject to all just exceptions, be read in evidence in any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code.

(2) The Court may, if it thinks fit, and shall, on the application of the prosecution or the accused, summon and examine any such person as to the facts contained in his affidavit.

34. Section 295 applies where any application is made to any Court in the course of any inquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Code, containing allegations against any public servants, which is not the case here and, therefore, Section 295 does not apply to the present case. Section 296 gives discretion to the Court to receive the evidence of a formal character on affidavit. It does not mandate that an affidavit is to be necessarily to be taken during an enquiry under Section 202 Cr.P.C., even where the Court is able to record a satisfaction on the basis of documentary evidence produced with the complaint.

35. The learned Counsel for the applicant has also submitted that the complaint does not make a mention of Section 31-A of the Air Act, and in absence of allegation of commission of offence under Section 31-A of the air Act in the complaint, the Magistrate has no jurisdiction to summon the accused persons for that offence.

36. Section 31-A of the Air Act provides as follows: -

"31-A. Power to give directions*.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, but subject to the provisions of this Act and to any directions that the Central Government may give in this behalf a Board may, in the exercise of its powers and performance of its functions under this Act, issue any directions in writing to any person, officer or authority, and such person, officer or authority shall be bound to comply with such directions.*

Explanation.—For the avoidance of doubts, it is hereby declared that the power to issue directions under this section includes the power to direct—

(a) the closure, prohibition or regulation of any industry, operation or process; or

(b) the stoppage or regulation of supply of electricity, water or any other service."

37. The 'directions' referred to in Section 31-A of the Air Act are "any directions in writing" and these are not limited to directions issued expressly stating that the same are issued under Section 31-A. The directions issued with the consent order dated 15.02.2018 which have been annexed with the copy of the complaint filed with the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C., are also directions issued under Section 31-A.

38. A bare reading of Section 190 (1) (a) Cr.P.C. indicates that a Magistrate is empowered to take cognizance of any offence upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence. The complaint has to narrate the facts only and it need not necessarily mention the offences that are made out on the basis of those facts. Even if the complaint mentions some offence and it omits to mention some other offence, in case the Magistrate is satisfied from facts stated in the complaint that some other offence is also made out, the Magistrate can take cognizance of that offence also.

39. In Nahar Singh versus State of U. P. and others, (2022) 5 SCC 295, after discussing various precedents on the point, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the Magistrate has to apply his mind while taking cognizance of an offence and if it appears from the material placed before him and any person other than those arrayed as accused also needs to be summoned, the Magistrate can certainly summon him. On the same principle, in case the Magistrate is satisfied that there is sufficient material for trial of the accused for any other offence, he has the power to summon the accused person(s) for trial of that offence also.

40. In the present case, the Magistrate is satisfied by a perusal of the complaint and the material filed with it, that the accused persons appear to have violated any direction, it can take cognizance of the offence under Section 31-A also. In such circumstances, he has not committed any illegality in taking cognizance of the offence under Section 31-A of the Air Act and in summoning the applicant and its partners for trial of the aforesaid offence.

41. Relying upon the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Devendra v. State of U.P., (2009) 7 SCC 495, the learned Counsel for the applicant has submitted that it was obligatory on the part of the learned Magistrate to apply his mind to the contents of the complaint and such application of mind on his part should have been reflected from the order.

42. There can be no dispute against the aforesaid preposition of law and this is a rudimentary principle that any judicial authority must apply his mind to the relevant facts, the relevant material placed in support of the material and the relevant provisions of law while passing any order. However, the narration made in preceding paragraphs reveals that the Magistrate has fulfilled this requirement while passing the impugned order dated 25.08.2022.

43. The complaint has been filed by the U. P. Pollution Control Board through its Assistant Environmental Officer, who is a public servant. Section 200 Cr.P.C. itself provides that when the complaint is made in writing, the Magistrate need not examine the complainant and the witnesses if a public servant acting or purporting to act in the discharge of his official duties or a court has made the complaint. Therefore, there was no need for examination of the complainant public servant in the present case.

44. The learned Counsel for the applicant has also submitted that the documents produced with the complaint have to be proved by oral evidence. That stage would arrive during the trial and at the stage of taking cognizance and summoning the accused person for trial the Court has only to arrive at a prima facie satisfaction that a case for trial is made out, which satisfaction can be arrived on the basis of documentary evidence, without strict proof of the documents.

45. In U.P. Pollution Control Board v. Dr. Bhupendra Kumar Modi, (2009) 2 SCC 147, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"23. It is a settled legal position that at the stage of issuing process, the Magistrate is mainly concerned with the allegations made in the complaint or the evidence led in support of the same and he is only to be prima facie satisfied whether there are sufficient grounds for proceeding against the accused.

* * *

41. When exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code, the High Court could not ordinarily embark upon an enquiry whether the evidence in question is reliable or not or whether on a reasonable appreciation of it the accusation would not be sustained. To put it clear, it is the function of the trial Judge to do so. The Court must be careful to see that its decision in exercise of its power is based on sound principles. The inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate prosecution. If the allegations set out in the complaint do not constitute offence of which cognizance has been taken by the Magistrate, it is open to the High Court to quash the same in exercise of the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code. However, it is not necessary that there should be meticulous analysis of the case before the trial to find out whether the case would end in conviction or acquittal."

46. The learned Counsel for the applicant lastly submitted that the trial Court has erred in summoning all the partners of the applicant firm without ascertaining as to which of them were actually responsible for the offence. In support of this contention, he placed reliance on a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla, (2005) 8 SCC 89, which arose from a reference made by a two-Judge Bench of this Court for determination of the following questions: -

"(a) Whether for purposes of Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, it is sufficient if the substance of the allegation read as a whole fulfil the requirements of the said section and it is not necessary to specifically state in the complaint that the person accused was in charge of, or responsible for, the conduct of the business of the company.

(b) Whether a director of a company would be deemed to be in charge of, and responsible to, the company for conduct of the business of the company and, therefore, deemed to be guilty of the offence unless he proves to the contrary.

(c) Even if it is held that specific averments are necessary, whether in the absence of such averments the signatory of the cheque and or the managing directors or joint managing director who admittedly would be in charge of the company and responsible to the company for conduct of its business could be proceeded against."

47. The following answers were given to the aforesaid questions: -

"(a) It is necessary to specifically aver in a complaint under Section 141 that at the time the offence was committed, the person accused was in charge of, and responsible for the conduct of business of the company. This averment is an essential requirement of Section 141 and has to be made in a complaint. Without this averment being made in a complaint, the requirements of Section 141 cannot be said to be satisfied.

(b) The answer to the question posed in sub-para (b) has to be in the negative. Merely being a director of a company is not sufficient to make the person liable under Section 141 of the Act. A director in a company cannot be deemed to be in charge of and responsible to the company for the conduct of its business. The requirement of Section 141 is that the person sought to be made liable should be in charge of and responsible for the conduct of the business of the company at the relevant time. This has to be averred as a fact as there is no deemed liability of a director in such cases.

(c) The answer to Question (c) has to be in the affirmative. The question notes that the managing director or joint managing director would be admittedly in charge of the company and responsible to the company for the conduct of its business. When that is so, holders of such positions in a company become liable under Section 141 of the Act. By virtue of the office they hold as managing director or joint managing director, these persons are in charge of and responsible for the conduct of business of the company. Therefore, they get covered under Section 141. So far as the signatory of a cheque which is dishonoured is concerned, he is clearly responsible for the incriminating act and will be covered under sub-section (2) of Section 141.

48. S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla was a case arising out of the Negotiable Instruments Act. Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and Section 40 of the Air Act contain pari materia provisions. Section 40 of the Air Act reads as follows: -

"40. Offences by companies.— (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was directly in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate, and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

49. It has specifically been stated in the complaint that the partners of the applicant are in-charge of the as well as responsible for the conduct of the day to day business of the applicant and they are personally liable for the violation of the provisions of law. Therefore, the averment mandatory as per the answer to question (a) in S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla (Supra) is there in the present case. Whether each of the partners of the applicant is actually liable to be convicted or sentenced or not, will be decided upon conclusion of the trial and the averments made in the complaint are sufficient for their trial.

50. In view the aforesaid discussion, I find no force in any of the submissions made by the learned Counsel for the applicant. There appears to be no illegality in the impugned order dated 25.08.2022 passed by the Special Judicial Magistrate, Pollution/CBI, Lucknow, taking cognizance of the offence and summoning the accused persons to face trial under Section 37 of the Ari Act.

51. The application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. lacks merit and the same is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1140
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 16.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 1010 of 2024

Atul Kumar Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Anil Kumar Pandey, Vijay Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power - Trial court must consider all allegations and evidence - Power under Section 319 CrPC is discretionary and extraordinary - Injured witness's evidence has greater evidentiary value - Though the powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. are invoked sparingly but at the same time, if there is any cogent material/ evidence available on record, the powers should be invoked so as to conclude the trial to its logical conclusion. (Para - 6,8)

Petitioner (Informant), an injured witness - moved application under Section 319 CrPC - to summon additional accused - rejected - no reason assigned - not recorded their subjective satisfaction - quashing of - claims assailants' names were omitted from charge sheet - but indicated in the chief-examination - request to summon. (Para - 4,11)

HELD: -Impugned order set aside due to lack of reasoning and subjective satisfaction. Matter remanded to trial court to decide application afresh, considering injured witness's evidence and allowing petitioner to file application under Section 319 CrPC.(Para -11,13)

Petition allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Balu Sudam Khalde & anr. Vs St. of Maha., AIR 2023 SC 1736

2. Kanchhid Singh Vs St. of U.P. & ors., Appl. U/S 482 No.12491 of 2020

3. Hardeep Singh Vs St. of Punj., (2014) 3 SCC 92

4. Sartaj Singh Vs St. of Hary. & anr., (2021) 5 SCC 337

5. Yashodhan Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2023) 9 SCC 108

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Awadhesh Kumar Pandey, holding brief of Sri Anil Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the petitioner, Ms. Nushrat Jahan, learned A.G.A. for the State and Sri Surya Prakash Singh as well as Sri Bipin Kumar Tiwari, who have filed Vakalatnama on behalf of Ankit Verma & Ranvijay Singh Patel, opposite parties no.2 & 3 respectively. Said Vakalatnamas are taken on record.

2. In view of the proposed order, notices to private opposite parties are dispensed with.

3. By means of this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner has prayed the following reliefs:-

"Wherefore, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly be pleased to quash the order dated 04.09.2023 passed by Additional District and Sessions Judge/Special Judge E.C. Act, Court No. 04, Faizabad in S.T. No. 212/2021 (State vs Ram Shankar and Others) relating to Case Crime No. 223/2020, Police Station - Maharganj, District-Faizabad as contained as Annexure No. 01 of the present petition.

It is further prayed that the trial court may kindly be directed to summon the opposite party No. 02 to 06 of this petition under section 319 Cr.P.C. as accused in S.T. No. 212/2021(State vs Ram Shankar and Others) relating to Case Crime No. 223/2020, Police Station Maharganj, District-Faizabad.

It is also prayed that operation and implementation of order dated 04.09.2023 passed by the court of Additional District and Sessions Judge/Special Judge E.C. Act, Court No. 04, Faizabad vide S.T. No. 212/2021 (State vs Ram Shankar and Others) relating to Police Station - Maharganj, District - Faizabad may kindly be stayed during pendency of this petition.

Any other order or direction may kindly be passed in favour of the Petitioner, which this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper under the circumstances of the case."

4. At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that the present petitioner had sustained serious injuries at the time of incident in question. He has further submitted that one application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. was filed (Annexure No.4) by one Dharmendra Kumar Singh, who had intimated the police on behalf of the petitioner regarding the incident in question as the petitioner was not in a position to apprise the police about the incident in question. In the aforesaid application, the applicant of that application, namely, Dharmendra Kumar Singh has stated that though Ankit, Ranvijay Patel, Ramsukh alias Sukhram, Manish and Ajay were amongst the assailants and in the FIR, their names have been indicated, but by filing charge sheet, their names have been deleted and charge sheet has been filed against other accused persons. It has been further stated in such application that Dharmendra Kumar Singh and two other witnesses have been examined. He has further submitted that in the chief-examination of those witnesses, names of above named accused persons have been indicated against whom the charge sheet has not been filed, therefore, the specific request has been made before the court concerned that by invoking powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. accusedAnkit, Ranvijay Patel, Ramsukh alias Sukhram, Manish and Ajay be summoned.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also stated that the present petitioner is not only the informant but is an injured person and he has not been examined by the court concerned till date. In the chief-examination of one injured witness Shivam, names of above named accused persons have been indicated, however, during cross-examination, clear version has not come. Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court in re; Balu Sudam Khalde and Another v. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2023 SC 1736, wherein the Apex Court in para-26 observed as under:-

"26. When the evidence of an injured eye-witness is to be appreciated, the under- noted legal principles enunciated by the Courts are required to be kept in mind:

(a) The presence of an injured eye-witness at the time and place of the occurrence cannot be doubted unless there are material contradictions in his deposition.

(b) Unless, it is otherwise established by the evidence, it must be believed that an injured witness would not allow the real culprits to escape and falsely implicate the accused.

(c) The evidence of injured witness has greater evidentiary value and unless compelling reasons exist, their statements are not to be discarded lightly.

(d) The evidence of injured witness cannot be doubted on account of some embellishment in natural conduct or minor contradictions.

(e) If there be any exaggeration or immaterial embellishments in the evidence of an injured witness, then such contradiction, exaggeration or embellishment should be discarded from the evidence of injured, but not the whole evidence.

(f) The broad substratum of the prosecution version must be taken into consideration and discrepancies which normally creep due to loss of memory with passage of time should be discarded."

6. In the aforesaid para, the Apex Court has observed that when the evidence of an injured eye witness is to be appreciated, some relevant facts should be appreciated and if it is found that the injuries sustained in the incident in question, evidence of such injured witness would have greater evidentiary value. Therefore, the impugned order dated 04.09.2023 may be set aside and direction may be issued to the court concerned to summon the accused persons, namely, Ankit, Ranvijay Patel, Ramsukh alias Sukhram, Manish and Ajay.

7. Learned counsel for opposite party no.2 has stated that the present petitioner has got no locus to file this petition inasmuch as he had not filed application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. before the trial court, rather such application was filed one Dharmendra Kumar Singh. He has also stated that the learned court concerned has passed speaking and reasoned order rejecting such application and powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. are invoked sparingly, therefore, this petition may be dismissed as there is no infirmity in the impugned order dated 04.09.2023. Learned counsels for opposite parties no.2 & 3 have placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court dated 19.11.2020 in re; Kanchhid Singh v. State of U.P. and 2 Others, Application U/S 482 No.12491 of 2020, wherein this Court has held that for invoking powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C., the court concerned must be careful and unless and until the specific material/ evidence is not available on the record/ pleadings, such power should not be invoked inasmuch as power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. is on high pedestal.

8. Ms. Nushrat Jahan, learned A.G.A. has stated that this is a settled law of the Apex Court in re; Hardeep Singh v. State of Punjab, (2014) 3 SCC 92, Sartaj Singh v. State of Haryana and Another, (2021) 5 SCC 337 and Yashodhan Singh and Others V. State of U.P. and Another, (2023) 9 SCC 108, to the effect that while considering and disposing of the application filed under Section 319 Cr.P.C., learned trial court must consider all allegations and evidences on record and unless and until the court finds relevant material/ evidence to summon the persons under Section 319 Cr.P.C., those persons should not be summoned in a cursory manner inasmuch as the power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. is on high pedestal. Learned A.G.A. has stated that in view of the aforesaid decisions of the Apex Court, the impugned order dated 04.09.2023 does not appear to be appropriate inasmuch as the request of the injured person, who is informant also, may not be turned down in a cursory manner, though the powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. are invoked sparingly.

9. The Apex Court in re; Hardeep Singh (supra) has held that if the trial court is convinced on the basis of chief-examination, it may summon the accused persons without going into the aspects of cross-examination.

10. In re; Yashodhan Singh (supra), the Apex Court has held that if the learned trial court finds relevant material/ evidence, it can invoke powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. even if such person/persons is/are not named in the FIR or not named in the charge sheet or has/ have been discharged before framing of the charges.

11. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record, I find that while rejecting the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C., the learned trial court has not assigned specific reason and has not recorded their subjective satisfaction inasmuch as after considering the facts and circumstances, documents of the parties and referring the various judgments of the Constitutional Courts, such application has been rejected only for the reason that powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C are invoked sparingly. This is a trite law that while rejecting an application, the court concerned must pass speaking and reasoned order so that it could be understood that the court concerned has applied its judicious mind, therefore, for this reason alone, the order dated 04.09.2023 is liable to be set aside.

12. Further, the Apex Court in re; Hardeep Singh (supra), Sartaj Singh (supra), Yashodhan Singh (supra)and Balu Sudam Khalde (supra) has clearly held that though the powers under Section 319 Cr.P.C. are invoked sparingly but at the same time, if there is any cogent material/ evidence available on record, the powers should be invoked so as to conclude the trial to its logical conclusion. In the present case, the petitioner, who is an injured witness, has not been examined by the court concerned till date and on the basis of chief-examination of injured witness and other eye witnesses wherein the names of above named accused persons have been indicated, the court concerned must evaluate such evidence. Further, the evidentiary value of the injured witness is on the high pedestal and the present petitioner being inured witness and he is stating on oath in this petition that accused persons against whom the charge sheet has not been filed were the assailants. Besides, Dharmendra Kumar Singh and Shivam, who are injured witnesses, have stated in chief examination that the persons against whom the allegations have been levelled in the application filed under Section 319 C.P.C. have assaulted the victim, therefore, such application should have been considered properly.

13. In view of the above, the impugned order dated 04.09.2023 is hereby set aside/ quashed. The matter is remanded back to the learned trial court to decide the application dated 17.10.2022 filed by Dharmendra Kumar Singh afresh. Liberty is also given to the petitioner, who is injured witness, to file such application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. by providing certified copy of this order before the court concerned and that application shall also be decided by the learned trial court, strictly in accordance with law, by speaking and reasoned order, by affording an opportunity of hearing to the parties concerned, with expedition, preferably within a period of six weeks from the date of production of certified copy of this order.

14. Accordingly, the instant petition is allowed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1144
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 1122 of 2024

Avdhesh @ Avdhesh Kumar ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Bhup Chandra Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law – Alteration of charge by court - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Sections 161, 164, 216, 221, 222, 397, 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 -Sections 363, 366, 376 , Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, Sections 3, 4, 16, 17 - Trial court has exclusive power to alter or add charges under Section 216 CrPC at any time before the judgment is pronounced - Court must apply judicious mind considering evidence and circumstances - there is no right in any party to seek for such addition or alteration by filing any application as a matter of right - if there was an omission in the framing of the charge and if it comes to the knowledge of the Court trying the offence, the power is always vested in the Court, as provided under Section 216 CrPC to either alter or add the charge.(Para - 5)

Petitioner seeks to quash order adding charges under Sections 376 IPC and 3/4 POCSO Act - Prosecution filed application based on prosecutrix's testimony - Petitioner granted bail in initial case under Sections 363 & 366 IPC and Sections 16/17 POCSO Act. (Para - 4)

HELD: - Trial court has rightly considered the testimony of the prosecutrix whereby she has stated on oath before the court during trial that the petitioner has committed offence of rape when she was below eighteen years. Trial court's order adding charges upheld. Petitioner can raise defenses and seek leniency in bail. (Para - 7, 9)

Petition disposed of finally. (admission stage) (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. P. Kartikalakshmi Vs Sri Ganesh & anr., (2017) 3 SCC 347

2. Hasanbhai Valibhai Qureshi Vs St. of Guj. & ors., (2004) 5 SCC 347

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Bhup Chandra Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Aniruddha Kumar Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate-I for the State.

2. In view of the order proposed to be passed, the notices to opposite party Nos.3 and 4 are hereby dispensed with.

3. By means of this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the petitioner has prayed for quashing/ setting aside the order dated 11.01.2024 passed in S.T. No.54 of 2021 (State vs. Avdhesh) by the learned Special Judge, POCSO Act, / Additional Sessions Judge, Room No.12, Sultanpur relating to Case Crime No.136 of 2019, under Sections 363 & 366 I.P.C. and Section 16/17 of POCSO Act, Police Station-Kamrauli, District-Amethi, so far as it relates to the present petitioner, as well as the entire criminal proceedings pending against the petitioner may kindly be terminated.

4. Attention has been drawn towards Annexure No.2 of the petition which is F.I.R. registered against the petitioner bearing Case Crime No.136 of 2019, under Sections 363 & 366 I.P.C. and Section 16/17 of POCSO Act, Police Station-Kamrauli, District-Amethi and the petitioner has been granted bail in the aforesaid case crime number. Thereafter, the investigation was completed and the charge-sheet was filed under those sections but during the course of trial, the prosecution has filed an application before the court after examination of the testimony of the prosecutrix to the effect that on the basis of such testimony section 3/4 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (POCSO) and Section 376 I.P.C. should be added. However, objection has been filed on behalf of the petitioner to the effect that earlier the prosecutrix has not supported the prosecution version while recording her statement under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. & 164 Cr.P.C. and authenticity of those statements may not be ignored.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn attention of this court towards the dictum of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: P. Kartikalakshmi vs. Sri Ganesh and another reported in (2017) 3 SCC 347 wherein the Apex Court has observed that the powers of Section 216 Cr.P.C. may not be invoked on the application of the prosecution or the defence but the court while invoking powers under Section 216 Cr.P.C. should apply its judicious mind and must consider the relevant facts, circumstances and evidences available on record. Therefore, the impugned order dated 11.01.2024 whereby the court added Sections 376 I.P.C. and 3/4 of POCSO Act on the application of the prosecution filed under Section 216 Cr.P.C. The Apex Court in the case in re: P. Kartikalakshmi (supra) in paras-6, 7 & 8 held as under:-

"6. Having heard the learned counsel for the respective parties, we find force in the submission of the learned Senior Counsel for Respondent 1. Section 216 CrPC empowers the Court to alter or add any charge at any time before the judgment is pronounced. It is now well settled that the power vested in the Court is exclusive to the Court and there is no right in any party to seek for such addition or alteration by filing any application as a matter of right. It may be that if there was an omission in the framing of the charge and if it comes to the knowledge of the Court trying the offence, the power is always vested in the Court, as provided under Section 216 CrPC to either alter or add the charge and that such power is available with the Court at any time before the judgment is pronounced. It is an enabling provision for the Court to exercise its power under certain contingencies which comes to its notice or brought to its notice. In such a situation, if it comes to the knowledge of the Court that a necessity has arisen for the charge to be altered or added, it may do so on its own and no order need to be passed for that purpose. After such alteration or addition when the final decision is rendered, it will be open for the parties to work out their remedies in accordance with law.

7. We were taken through Sections 221 and 222 CrPC in this context. In the light of the facts involved in this case, we are only concerned with Section 216 CrPC. We, therefore, do not propose to examine the implications of the other provisions to the case on hand. We wish to confine ourselves to the invocation of Section 216 and rest with that. In the light of our conclusion that the power of invocation of Section 216 CrPC is exclusively confined with the Court as an enabling provision for the purpose of alteration or addition of any charge at any time before pronouncement of the judgment, we make it clear that no party, neither de facto complainant nor the accused or for that matter the prosecution has any vested right to seek any addition or alteration of charge, because it is not provided under Section 216 CrPC. If such a course to be adopted by the parties is allowed, then it will be well-nigh impossible for the criminal court to conclude its proceedings and the concept of speedy trial will get jeopardised.

8. In such circumstances, when the application preferred by the appellant itself before the trial court was not maintainable, it was not incumbent upon the trial court to pass an order under Section 216 CrPC. Therefore, there was no question of the said order being revisable under Section 397 CrPC. The whole proceeding, initiated at the instance of the appellant, was not maintainable. Inasmuch as the legal issue had to be necessarily set right, we are obliged to clarify the law as is available under Section 216 CrPC. To that extent, having clarified the legal position, we make it clear that the whole proceedings initiated at the instance of the appellant was thoroughly misconceived and vitiated in law and ought not to have been entertained by the trial court. As rightly pointed out by the learned Senior Counsel for Respondent 1, such a course adopted by the appellant and entertained by the court below has unnecessarily provided scope for protraction of the proceedings which ought not to have been allowed by the court below."

(emphasis supplied)

6. Per contra, Sri Aniruddha Kumar Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate-I has submitted that learned counsel for the petitioner has placed appropriate judgment before this Court but the facts and circumstances of the present case are different from the case which was considered by the Apex Court. In the present case, the learned trial court has neither considered an application of the prosecution nor objection of the defence but has applied its judicious mind considering the testimony of the prosecutrix indicating her statement in the impugned order dated 11.01.2024, therefore, the benefit of the judgment of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: P. Kartikalakshmi (supra) may not be provided to the petitioner in the present case.

7. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record and having regard to the judgment of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: P. Kartikalakshmi (supra), I find that while passing the impugned order dated 11.01.2024, the learned trial court has rightly considered the testimony of the prosecutrix whereby she has stated on oath before the court during the course of trial that the petitioner has committed offence of rape when she was below eighteen years.

8. In Hasanbhai Valibhai Qureshi vs. State of Gujarat and others reported in (2004) 5 SCC 347, the Apex Court while dealing with scope of Section 216 Cr.P.C, in para-10 has held as under:-

"10. Therefore, if during trial the trial court on a consideration of broad probabilities of the case based upon total effect of the evidence and documents produced is satisfied that any addition or alteration of the charge is necessary, it is free to do so, and there can be no legal bar to appropriately act as the exigencies of the case warrant or necessitate."

9. Therefore, in view of what has been considered above, I am not inclined to interfere with the impugned order dated 11.01.2024 passed by the learned trial court but it is needless to say that the petitioner after surrendering/ appearing before the court concerned may take all pleas and grounds which are available to him to establish himself as innocent in those sections. He may also apprise the court concerned that in the F.I.R. and the charge-sheet, which has been filed by the Investigating Officer, the petitioner has already been granted bail, therefore, in added sections his bail application may be considered leniently.

10. In view of the above, the instant petition is disposed of finally at the admission stage.

Before parting with, I appreciate the efforts and research work done by Mr. Piyush Tripathi, Research Associate, attached with me and Mr. Vaibhav Tyagi, Law Intern in finding out the relevant case laws applicable in the present case.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1147
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 13.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAHUL CHATURVEDI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 1327 of 2022
AND
Application u/s 482 No. 1677 OF 2015
connected with
Application u/s 482 No. 3413 of 2014
and
Application u/s 482 No. 6425 of 2023

Pradeep Yadav ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Ashok Kumar Yadav, Aditya Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:

G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Quashing of Criminal Proceedings in Cases of Consensual Interfaith Marriages - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section 363 - Kidnapping, Section 366 - Kidnapping, abducting or inducing woman to compel her marriage - "Sui juris" - mentally competent, and capable of making their own decisions, including choosing their life partners - where an individual is over 18 years of age, no fetters could be placed on her choice on where to reside or about the person with whom she could stay.(Para - 13)

Multiple couples eloped and got married consensually, facing opposition from parents - FIRs filed under Sections 363 and 366 IPC alleging kidnapping and abduction to compel marriage - Charge sheets and summoning orders issued against couple - Couples filed petitions under Section 482 CrPC seeking quashing of proceedings - Court considered judicial precedents on individual autonomy and privacy. (Para - 11 to 16)

HELD: - Prosecution under Sections 363 and 366 IPC is misconceived as marriages were consensual. Couples, being majors, have the right to choose their life partners. Quashing the proceedings would serve the ends of justice and prevent harassment to the couples. Court must consider the humanitarian and societal implications while applying the law. Quashed the charge sheets, summoning orders, and entire criminal proceedings against the applicants. (Para - 12 to 18)

Petitions allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Vinod Kumar, IAS Vs U.O.I., 2021 SCC Online SC 559

2. Superintendent and Rememberancer of Legal Affairs, W.B. Vs Mohan Singh, (1975) 3 SCC 706

3. Anil Khadkiwala Vs St. (Govt of NCT of Delhi) & anr., (2019) 17 SCC 294,

4. Mafat Lal & Anr. Vs St. of Raj. in Crl. Appeal No.592 of 2022

5. Shafin Jahan Vs Asokan K.M., (2018) 16 SCC 368

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rahul Chaturvedi, J.)

[1]. The aforementioned four Applications u/s 482 Cr.P.C. on behalf of different applicants have been filed with the prayer that the criminal proceedings against them may be quashed in exercise of extraordinary power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. In all aforementioned cases there is a common legal question involved, and thus, for the sake of brevity, all these petitions are being decided by a common judgment and order.

[2]. In Application u/s 482 No.1327 of 2024 Shri Karm Veer Yadav, learned counsel for opposite party no.7 has filed his Vakalatnama in the Court, is taken on record.

[3]. Heard learned counsels named above appeared for respective appellants, learned counsel for opposite party as well as learned Additional Government Advocate for the State of U.P. at length and to their satisfaction. Perused the record.

[4]. In Application u/s 482 No.1677 of 2015, despite of the time given to learned A.G.A. as well as notices were served upon opposite party no.2, no one has put his appearance on behalf of opposite party no.2 nor any counter affidavit has been filed. The mater relates to Year 2015, whereby two young persons after attaining their majority decided to marry, and they got married. Applicant- Ram Gopal is the husband, who is knocking the doors of this Court for quashing the entire criminal prosecution against him.

[5]. In Application u/s 482 No.6425 of 2023 the contesting parties are represented by their respective counsels, but despite of the notice issued to opposite party nos.2 and 3, no one has filed any counter affidavit.

[6]. Before analysing the legal aspect of the issue, it is imperative to give a bird's eye view to the facts of each case one by one.

FACTUAL MATRIX :

[7]. APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 1327 of 2024
(Pradeep Yadav vs. State of U.P. & 6 others)

(i). The prayer sought in the present petition is to quash the impugned Charge Sheet No.2A/16 dated 18.5.2016, summoning order dated 24.01.2017 as well as entire criminal proceeding in Session Trial No.2/17 (State vs. Pradeep Kumar), arising out of Case Crime No.138/2013, u/s 363, 366, 376 I.P.C. and ¾ POCSO Act, P.S.-Kotwali Kunda, District Pratapgrah, pending in the court of Additional Session Judge (POCSO Act), Pratapgarh.

(ii). Affidavit of this petition is sweared by Pradeep Yadav-applicant himself.

Long and short of the case is that way back on 20.7.2023 the informant- Ravi Shankar Mishra has lodged an F.I.R. against Pradeep Yadav, Shyam Sunder Yadav and Ravi Gupta, all are resident of Kunda, Pratapgarh, with the allegation that the informant's daughter Ms. 'K' was pursuing her studies in Kripalu Balika Mahavidyalay, Kunda, a student of B.Sc.-Ist Year. The informant dropped his daughter to the college on 19.7.2013 around 8.00 in the morning and thereafter her daughter did not come back to home. After making inquiry, it is surfaced that Pradeep Yadav- applicant, his father Shyam Sundar Yadav and one Ravi Gupta have enticed her away. It is alleged in the F.I.R. that the date of the birth of the girl is 24.10.1997, allegedly a minor girl on the date of incident, and therefore, it was requested to lodge an F.I.R. against above persons.

(iii). After holding due investigation, the name of Ravi Gupta was exonerated by the police and the name of two more persons were inserted as accused, namely, Bachcha Yadav @ Jagdish and Pawan Kumar Yadav. A charge sheet was submitted by the police on 02.01.2014 against the aforesaid persons u/s 363, 366 I.P.C.

(iv). In paragraph 10 of the petition, in no uncertain terms it is stated that the applicant Pradeep Yadav and the prosecutrix Ms. 'K' have solemnized marriage on 19.8.2014 at Arya Samaj Temple Aliganj, Lucknow and later on at Belha Devi Temple, Pratapgarh on 11.4.2016. Not only this, they have got their marriage registered on 26.5.2023, a copy of Marriage Certificate is annexed as Annexure-5 to the petition.

(v). Submission advanced by the counsel for applicant is that on earlier occasion the Division Bench of this Court had protected the interest of petitioner and the prosecutrix vide order dated 26.9.2014 while disposing of Writ Petition No.9971 (M/B) of 2014 (Smt. Kriti and another vs. State of U.P. and others), directing the couple for their medical examination and recording the statements u/s 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. It was also directed by the Division Bench that till this exercise is over, the interest of the petitioners was protected and they shall not be arrested during investigation.

(vi) Meanwhile, there were certain issues cropped up for which the couple have again approached this Court for redressal of their grievances and the coordinate Bench of this Court has accommodated them and the statements of the girl u/s 161 & 164 were recorded. But despite of the favourable statement u/s 161 and 164 Cr.P.C., the Investigating Officer, after adopting regular practice, submitted a report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C./charge-sheet on 18.5.2016 bearing Charge-sheet No.2A/2016 and the learned Magistrate too without applying his judicial mind have taken the cognizance of those offences and passed a summoning order on 24.1.2017. The applicants have again rushed to this Court by filing Crl. Misc. Application u/s 482 No.2072 of 2017 for quashing of the charge sheet and summoning order, but the co-ordinate Bench of this Court without looking into the factual aspects of the issue have dealt the scope and ambit of Section 482 Cr.P.C. In that long order dated 3.4.2017 the scope and ambit of Section 482 Cr.P.C. was discussed without touching any iota of factual issue and it was also held that the police after investigation found a prima facie case against the accused-applicant and submitted a charge sheet before the court below. It was further observed that the offences are cognizable offences and the accused applicants ought to be tried before the court of the law. There is no reason or occasion to quash the charge sheet at this stage and thus that application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. stood dismissed.

(vii) On the other hand, the applicant and his wife-prosecutrix were residing at Delhi and they were leading a happy marital life in the company of each other. This wedlock has given birth to two babies, a girl child was born on 5.2.2017 and a baby boy was born on 26.11.2018. On this ground it has been canvassed by learned counsel for applicant that though this petition is second petition with the same prayer, but under the different and changed circumstances. Now the life of four persons are at stakes. On this score, learned counsel for applicant has drawn attention of the Court to the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Vinod Kumar, IAS vs. Union of India, 2021 SCC Online SC 559, in which, the Apex Court while relying upon yet another judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Superintendent and Rememberancer of Legal Affairs, West Bengal vs. Mohan Singh, (1975) 3 SCC 706, have clearly opined that dismissal of earlier 482 application does not create bar in filing of subsequent petition u/s 482 Cr.P.C., in case the facts so justify. A similar view was also taken by the Hon'ble Apex Court in a case of Anil Khadkiwala vs. State (Govt of NCT of Delhi) and another, (2019) 17 SCC 294, in which it has been clearly laid down that successive 482 applications under the changed circumstances or being materially different from earlier application, are maintainable and the dismissal of earlier quashment application shall not come into the way and would not act as a bar.

(viii). Relying upon the above judgments the learned counsel for applicant has hammered his submissions that earlier 482 application No.2072 of 2017 (Pradeep Kumar Yadav vs. State of U.P.) which was dismissed on 03.04.2017 does not contain a single averment, touching the facts of the present case. While dismissing the above 482 application, the Coordinate Bench of this Court has mainly focused upon the scope and ambit of Section 482 Cr.P.C. while taking into account the number of decisions given by Hon'ble Apex Court, in a most mechanical fashion come to the conclusion that a prima facie offence is made out against the applicant.

(ix). As mentioned above, there is a sea-change in the circumstances. Now the life of four persons are involved in this case and the Court in such a scenario should not apply only legal provisions in a mechanical fashion, but a humane face ought to be given. Thus, I am of the considered opinion that the present 482 application is maintainable in the larger interest of the parties. Though there is no quarrel with the settled legal proposition that successive 482 applications between the same parties is not maintainable, provided there is drastic change in the circumstances of the case.

[8]. APPLICATION U/S 482 No.1677 of 2015 (Ram Gopal vs. The State of U.P. and Another connected with APPLICATION U/S 482 No.3413 of 2014 (Bahau and another vs. State of U.P. and another).

(i) Both these petitions are connected petitions and in their respective parent orders while entertaining and granting the interim order, the Bench of this Court had directed the applicants to file a counter affidavit. Office report dated 12.11.2014 of 482 application No.3413 of 2014, indicates that notices were served upon opposite party no.2 personally, but no counter affidavit has been filed in this matter. Application u/s 482 No.3413 of 2014 (Bahau and another vs. State of U.P. and another) is the leading case. This petition should be decided with Crl. Misc. Application u/s 482 No.1667 of 2015 (Ram Gopal vs. State of U.P. and another). Ram Gopal happens to be close relative of prime accused Bahau.

(ii) The prayer sought in both petitions is same whereby the applicants have sought the quashing of impugned order dated 30.7.2014 passed by the learned C.J.M., Bahraich, arising out of Case Crime No.398 of 2014, u/s 363, 366A, 506 I.P.C., Police Station-Kotwali Nanpara, District Bahraich, including the entire proceeding initiated pursuant thereof. The order dated 26.8.2014 was the parent order directing the applicants and opposite party no.2 to appear in the Court and further proceeding of Case Crime No.398 of 2014 shall remain stayed.

(iii) Brief summary of the present case is that the F.I.R. was lodged by Sitaram Patel on 2.6.2014 which was registered as Case Crime No.398 of 2014, u/s 363, 366A, 506 I.P.C. at P.S.- Nanpara, District Bahraich against Bahau, Ram Gopal and Pairu for the alleged incident said to have taken place on 27.8.2013. It was alleged in the F.I.R. that the informant's sister Ms. 'B' (applicant no.2 in 482 application no.3413/2014) went to attend the call of nature, whereby the above named accused persons have kidnapped her on the gun point. It is contended by the learned counsel for applicants that the averment of the FIR is nothing but ugly case of exaggeration of the incident, just to complicate the issue. In fact, Bahau and Ms. 'B' are in dense love affair with each other and they are major, known to each other and eventually they have decided to marry, but their family members were dead against this relationship and marriage. Left with no other option, both of them have decided to run away from their respective homes and performed their marriage in a temple and now they are leading a happy marital life. This wedlock has been blessed with a baby boy who is now aged about 8 years. As mentioned above, the family members were dead against this marriage, they have decided to harass and malign the couple to its optimum by filing a false criminal case against them.

(iv) After lodging of the F.I.R., the police have rounded up the prosecutrix and she was put to radiological/ossification test, in which the doctor has opined that the age of the girl is 19+ years. Besides this, the girl was put before the Magistrate for recording her statement u/s 164 Cr.P.C., in which in no uncertain terms she admitted that both of them are in torrid love affair, out of which they have decided to marry with each other. Being major they have every right to choose their life partners and accordingly they have chosen to each other as their life partners. As mentioned above, this wedlock has blessed with a boy, hence, now three lives are involved in the present criminal case.

(v) The interesting feature of this case is that when the girl was in the custody of police, three applications were moved by her father Banke Lal and sister-in-law for taking her custody. Learned C.J.M., Bahraich after assessing the entire circumstances and more particularly the age of the girl and subsequent development that she was a mother of a small kid, who is now 8 years of age, directed the Inspector to set her free so that she may join the company of person of her liking and choice.

(vi) In connected Application u/s 482 No.1677 of 2015 (Ram Gopal vs. State of U.P. and another), Ram Gopal is the real brother of Bahau, who has also been chargesheeted and Ram Gopal in his application has sought a similar prayer as of co-accused Bahau in Crl. Misc. Application u/s 482 No.3413 of 2014 (Bahau vs. State of U.P. and another).

(vii) Thus, as per the facts of the case, there is no allegation of any kidnapping attracting the provisions of Sections 363 or 366A I.P.C. In fact, it is a malicious story tailored by the informant with ulterior motive and harass and malign the couple, but as mentioned above, the most significant circumstance is that the accused-applicant and the prosecutrix are happily and safely residing as husband and wife with their small child.

[9]. APPLICATION U/S 482 NO.6425 of 2023 (Nem Kumar @ Nem Kumar Mishra vs. State of U.P. & 2 others)

(i) The extra-ordinary power of this Court u/s 482 Cr.P.C. is being invoked by the applicant for quashing of the entire proceeding of Case No.4775 of 2021 (State vs. Nem Kumar) pending before the learned First Additional Civil Judge (S.D.), Sitapur, u/s 363, 366 IPC, including the impugned summoning order dated 8.2.2021 and the Charge Sheet No.1 dated 03.10.2020 arising out of Case Crime No.257 of 2020, u/s 363, 366 IPC, Police Station-Rampur Mathura, District Sitapur.

(ii). Facts of the present case in brief is that on 01.8.2020 the opposite party no.2 has lodged an F.I.R. against the petitioner to the effect that during the night on 29.7.2020 around 10.00 in the night, applicant Nem Chandra Mishra has enticed away daughter of opposite party no.2. After lodging of the FIR, as a natural outcome the investigation of the case started rolling and the police have recorded statement u/s 161 Cr.P.C. On 15.9.2020 the prosecutrix opposite party no.3 reached to the police station and disclosed that she married with petitioner Nem Chand Mishra on her own free will and choice, disclosing her age about 18 years. Thereafter, the prosecutrix was produced before the Magistrate for recording her statement u/s 164 Cr.P.C. on 31.7.2020, in which she stated that there was no threat or coercion upon her to enter into this nuptial tie with the applicant. Not only this, she has also declined and refused to get her medically examined. The high-handedness and atrocities of the police started when they dumped the girl to Bal Kalyan Samiti, Sitapur before sending her to Nari Ashray Grih, Lucknow without taking her consent. Left with no option, they have approached this Court by filing a Habeas Corpus No.17589 of 2020 and the Court has come to rescue of petitioners and released the detenu/prosecutrix in favour of the husband-petitioner by order dated 8.12.2020.

(iii). This matter has got a new angle when on 12.10.2021 the prosecutrix-opposite party no.3 has given birth to a baby boy- Shantanu. As per High School Certificate the date of birth of the prosecutrix is 01.01.2003 and at the time of incident she was about to reach the age of majority. Thereafter the husband and wife with their new born baby were peacefully and happily residing. On the other hand, the police personnel without anticipating the amount of damage to the couple, have submitted a charge sheet u/s 363, 366 IPC and the learned Magistrate without applying judicial mind have taken cognizance of those offence on a proforma order dated 8.2.2021, hence this petition.

LEGAL DISCUSSION :

[10]. Since in all the aforesaid petitions, the report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C./charge sheet was filed by the police u/s 363, 366 I.P.C., the provisions of Sections 363, 366 I.P.C. are relevant to reproduce here, which reads thus :

"363. Punishment for kidnapping.—

Whoever kidnaps any person from India or from lawful guardianship, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

366. Kidnapping, abducting or inducing woman to compel her marriage, etc.—

Whoever kidnaps or abducts any woman with intent that she may be compelled, or knowing it to be likely that she will be compelled, to marry any person against her will, or in order that she may be forced or seduced to illicit intercourse, or knowing it to be likely that she will be forced or seduced to illicit intercourse, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine; and whoever, by means of criminal intimidation as defined in this Code or of abuse of authority or any other method of compulsion, induces any woman to go from any place with intent that she may be, or knowing that it is likely that she will be, forced or seduced to illicit intercourse with another person shall be punishable as aforesaid."

[11]. Now taking into account the aforementioned sections of Indian Penal Code and comparing the same with 164 statements of respective victims, it is written on the canvass, that in all the cases the boys and girls are in previous acquiescence and having affair with each other. Both of them ran away from their respective houses, keeping in view the hostile treatment from their parties, who were dead against such type of relationship. Being major, they exercised their right to choose their life partners, and some how or the other they ran away and got married either in temple or some Arya Samaj Temple in a clandestine way. Not only this, they got their marriage registered. After the marriage both of them residing as happily married couple and were blessed with their progenies.

Under these circumstances, taking into account the victims statement u/s 164 Cr.P.C., the entire prosecution case would be reduced to big nullity. Still asking, the boy to face the criminal case is nothing but the harassment to the couple to its optimum and should be quashed at the earliest given opportunity.

[12]. As mentioned above, the undercurrent of all aforementioned cases is one and identical i.e. the couple who are major got married but their parent for the reason best known to them are creating hurdles and impediments in their marital life, instead of extending their good wishes to them, the parent are poisoning their marital life. In all these cases, there is apparent tussle and tug of war between the requirement of the law on one hand and the marital life of the couple with their kids on the other hand.

[13]. In a recent judgment Mafat Lal and Another vs. State of Rajasthan in Crl. Appeal No.592 of 2022 decided on 28.3.2022, Hon'ble Apex Court it has been opined in no uncertain terms that when the parties are agreed and living happy marital life with their small kids, there cannot be any conceivable impediment in accepting the marriage. In yet another judgment Shafin Jahan vs. Asokan K.M., (2018) 16 SCC 368, it has been opined by the Hon'ble Apex Court that where an individual is over 18 years of age, no fetters could be placed on her choice on where to reside or about the person with whom she could stay. Whatever may be the date of birth of petitioner, fact remains, that she is at present more than 18 years of age. As the petitioner is sui juris, no fetters could be placed upon her choice of the person to whom she wants to stay, nor any restriction could be imposed regarding the place where she should stay. The court or the relatives of the petitioner can also not substitute their opinion or preference for that of a person in such a matter.

(14). This Court has observed that the girls-prosecutrix, who have decided to marry, are either on the family way or they are blessed with their kids. The Court while deciding the petitions must wear a humane face and the practicality of the issue. The parties are in their marital union for a considerable period and they are parent of one or more kids. At this stage to ask them to face the criminal prosecution would amount to bundle load of injustice to the alleged wrongdoers and to their kids who are nowhere connected with the alleged offence.

[15]. The Court is conscious of its role that the judicial system is tasked not only with interpreting and upholding the law but also with understanding of the dynamics of society. The role of the Court is much more onerous and beyond mere application and interpretation of the statutes. It involves an understanding of the implications of its decisions on individuals and the community at large. Striking this balance requires a thorough examination of the facts, legal precedents and involving ethos of the society it serves. The Court must weigh competing interests, considering the impact of its decisions on the parties involved and the broader implications for justice, fairness and social order.

[16]. The dilemma at times faced by the Court can be of trying to justify State/Police action against an adolescent couple who got married with each other and continued to lead a peaceful life and raise a family, and respect for obeying the law of the land. This Court has time and again reached to the conclusion that true love between the individuals, one or both of who may be a minor or at the verge of majority, cannot be controlled through rigours of law or State action. The cases as the present one are those where the dilemma of the Judge, which though may be rare, has to take into account the dedicate balance which the constitutional court or courts of law have to strike a balance between the law and its strict application and the repercussions of its judgments and orders by application of such laws in the society as a whole and the individuals who are before it.

[17]. When the scale of justice has to be weighed, they are not on the basis of mathematical precision or the mathematical formulas or theorems, but at times, while on one side of the scale there is the law and other side of scale may carry the entire life, happiness and the future of toddlers, their parents and the parents of their parents. The scale that reflects and portrays such pure happiness sans any criminality would definitely equal the scale carrying the law as the application of law is meant for maintaining the rule of law and an orderly society.

[18]. Thus, in the light of the above discussion of factual and the legal aspects of the issue, this Court is of the considered opinion that the subsistence of respective trials of the applicants would make their lives and new couple horrible and terrific. They would lead their life under the sword of democles and may sometimes adversely impact their inter-se marital relationship. This is not the objective of the law. The application of law has to be given a humane face so that it would facilitate an orderly society and not full of turmoil and disturbance, therefore, the Court in exercise its extra-ordinary power u/s 482 Cr.P.C., in order to achieve the larger goal and interest, allows all aforementioned four petitions i.e. (1) APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 1327 of 2024 (2) APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 1677 of 2015 connected with (3) APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 3413 of 2014 and (4) APPLICATION U/S 482 No. - 6425 of 2023. The impugned charge sheets, summoning orders and the entire criminal proceedings arising out thereof, pending against the applicants in above mentioned case crime numbers are hereby quashed.

[19]. All the petitions stand ALLOWED.

[20]. The Senior Registrar of this Court is directed to communicate this judgment to the respective sessions courts within 15 days from today for communication and compliance.

[21]. Copy of this judgment shall be placed in all aforementioned petitions.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1155
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 20.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 1531 of 2024

Anand Kumar Pandey ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Pradeep Kumar, Adarsh Tripathi, Ashutosh Tiwari, Shubham Tiwari

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Validity of Printed Proformas in Cognizance Proceedings - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Section 190- Cognizance of offence by Magistrate, Section 204 - Issue of process, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 406,420,467,468 - Judicial orders cannot be allowed to be passed in a mechanical manner either by filling in blank on a printed proforma or by affixing a readymade seal etc. of the order on a plain paper. (Para -17)

Case involved a criminal complaint filed against Applicant – Accused-applicant summoned using a printed proforma without assigning reasons in mechanical manner - without application of judicial mind - for facing trial - entire criminal proceedings - quashing of - hence petition. (Para - 3 to 6)

HELD: - Magistrate's order taking cognizance was invalid. Use of printed proformas without assigning reasons was objectionable. Judicial officers must apply their minds to the facts and law before taking cognizance. Summoning an accused person without assigning reasons is illegal. Summoning order quashed. Matter remitted back to trial court for fresh consideration. (Para - 18 ot 22)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dilawar Vs St. of Har., (2018) 16 SCC 521,

2. Menka Gandhi Vs U.O.I., (1978) 1 SCC 248: AIR 1978 SC 597,

3. Hussainara Khatoon (I) Vs St. of Bihar, (1980) 1 SCC 81,

4. Abdul Rehman Antulay Vs R.S. Nayak, (1992) 1 SCC 225 and

5. P. Ramchandra Rao Vs St. of Karn., (2002) 4 SCC 578

6. Bhushan Kumar Vs St. (NCT of Delhi), (2012) 5 SCC 424: AIR 2012 SC 1747

7. Basaruddin Vs St. of U.P., 2011 (1) JIC 335 (All)(LB)

8. Sunil Bharti Mittal Vs CBI, (2015) 4 SCC 609: AIR 2015 SC 923

9. Darshan Singh Ram Kishan Vs St. of Maha., (1971) 2 SCC 654

10. Ankit Vs St. of U.P., Appl. u/s 482 No. 19647 of 2009

11. Kavi Ahmad Vs St. of U.P., Criminal Revision No. 3209 of 2010

12. Abdul Rasheed Vs St. of U.P., 2010 (3) JIC 761 (All)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Pradeep Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant as well as Ms. Nusrat Jahan, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. In view of the proposed order, the issuance of notice to opposite party no.2 is hereby dispensed with.

3. The instant application under Section 482 Cr. P.C. has been filed by the applicants with a prayer to quash the entire criminal proceedings to the extent of Applicant in pursuance of summoning order dated 26.08.2016 passed by the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-IV, Court No. 28, Lucknow in Case No. 2852 of 2016 (State Vs. Anand Kumar Pandey) arising out of chargesheet no. 220/2015 dated 28.12.2015 under Sections 406/420/467/468 I.P.C. arising out of Case Crime No. 497 of 2014 dated 14.10.2014 under Sections 406/420/467/468 I.P.C. P.S Chowk, District Lucknow in respect of the Applicant.

4. The learned Magistrate had taken cognizance and passed the summoning order on 26.08.2016. The cognizance was taken on the printed proforma by filling the sections of IPC, dates and number and in the said proforma the learned Magistrate without assigning any reason has summoned the applicants for facing trial.

5. Learned counsel for the applicants further submits that after submission of charge sheet and cognizance order on printed proforma, the applicants have been summoned mechanically by order dated 26.08.2016 and the court below while summoning the applicants has materially erred and did not follow the dictum of law as propounded by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various cases that summoning in criminal case is a serious matter and the court below without dwelling into material and visualizing the case on the touch stone of probability should not summon accused person to face criminal trial. It is further submitted that the court below has not taken into consideration the material placed before the trial court along with charge sheet and, therefore, the trial court has materially erred in summoning the applicant. The court below has summoned the applicant through a printed order, which is wholly illegal.

6. It is vehemently urged that the impugned cognizance/summoning order dated is not sustainable in the eye of law, as the same has been passed in mechanical manner without applying the judicial mind, because on the face of record itself it is apparent that impugned cognizance/summoning order dated 26.08.2016 has been passed by the Magistrate concerned on printed proforma by filling up the gaps, therefore the same is liable to be quashed by this Court.

7. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. The main issue for consideration before this Court is that whether the learned Magistrate may summon the accused person on a printed proforma without assigning any reason and take cognizance on police report filed under Sections 173 of Cr. P.C. In this regard, it is relevant to mention here that a Court can take cognizance of an offence only when condition requisite for initiation of proceedings before it as set out in Chapter XIV of the Code are fulfilled. Otherwise, the Court does not obtain jurisdiction to try the offences under section 190 (1) of the Cr. P.C. provided that "subject to the provisions of this Chapter, any Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate of the second class specially empowered in this behalf under sub-section (2), may take cognizance of any offence-

(a) upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence,

(b) upon a police report of such facts; (c) upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge, that such offence has been committed.

(2) The Chief Judicial Magistrate may empower any Magistrate of the second class to take cognizance under sub-section (1) of such offences as are within his competence to inquire into or try."

9. At this juncture, it is fruitful to have a look so far as the law pertaining to summoning of the accused persons, by taking cognizance on a police report filed under section 173 of the Cr.P.C., is concerned and the perusal of the case law mentioned herein below would clearly reveal that cognizance of an offence on complaint is taken for the purpose of issuing process to the accused. Since, it is a process of taking judicial notice of certain facts which constitute an offence, there has to be application of mind as to whether the material collected by the Investigating Officer results in sufficient grounds to proceed further and would constitute violation of law so as to call a person to appear before the criminal court to face trial. This discretion puts a responsibility on the magistrate concerned to act judiciously keeping in view the facts of the particular case as well as the law on the subject and the orders of Magistrate does not suffers from non-application of judicial mind while taking cognizance of the offence.

10. Fair and proper investigation is the primary duty of the Investigating Officer. No investigating agency can take unduly long time in completing investigation. There is implicit right under Article 21 for speedy trial which in turn encompasses speedy investigation, inquiry, appeal, revision and retrial. There is clear need for time line in completing investigation for having in-house oversight mechanism wherein accountability for adhering to lay down timeline, can be fixed at different levels in the hierarchy, vide Dilawar v. State of Haryana, (2018) 16 SCC 521, Menka Gandhi v. Union of India, (1978) 1 SCC 248 : AIR 1978 SC 597, Hussainara Khatoon (I) v. State of Bihar, (1980) 1 SCC 81, Abdul Rehman Antulay v. R.S. Nayak, (1992) 1 SCC 225 and P. Ramchandra Rao v. State of Karnatka, (2002) 4 SCC 578.

11. For the purposes of investigation, offences are divided into two categories "cognizable" and "non-cognizable". When information of a cognizable offence is received or such commission is suspected, the proper police officer has the authority to enter in the investigation of the same but where the information relates to a non-cognizable offence, he shall not investigate it without the order of the competent Magistrate. Investigation includes all the proceedings under the Cr. P.C. for the collection of evidence conducted by a police officer or by any person other than a Magistrate (who is authorised by a Magistrate in his behalf). Investigation consists of steps, namely (i) proceeding to spot, (ii) ascertainment of the facts and circumstances of the case, (iii) discovery and arrest of the suspected offender, (iv) collection of evidence relating to the commission of the offence and (v) formation of opinion as to whether on the material collected therein to place the accused before a Magistrate for trial and if so to take necessary steps for the same by filing a charge sheet under Section 173, Cr. P.C., vide H.N. Rishbud v. State of Delhi, AIR 1955 SC 196. Thereafter, the learned Magistrate has to take cognizance after application of judicial mind and by reasoned order and not in mechanical manner.

12. In the case of Bhushan Kumar v. State (NCT of Delhi), (2012) 5 SCC 424 : AIR 2012 SC 1747, the Hon'ble Apex Court was pleased to observe that section 204 of the Code does not mandate the Magistrate to explicitly state the reasons for issuance of summons. It clearly states that if in the opinion of a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding, then the summons may be issued. This section mandates the Magistrate to form an opinion as to whether there exists a sufficient ground for summons to be issued but it is nowhere mentioned in the section that the explicit narration of the same is mandatory, meaning thereby that it is not a pre-requisite for deciding the validity of the summons issued. In the case of Basaruddin v. State of U.P., 2011 (1) JIC 335 (All)(LB), the Hon'ble Court was pleased to observed as under:—

"From a perusal of the impugned order, it appears that the learned Magistrate on the complaint filed by the complainant has summoned the accused in a mechanical way filling the date in the typed proforma. Learned Magistrate while taking cognizance of the offence on complaint was expected to go through the allegations made in the complaint and to satisfy himself as to which offences were prima facies, being made out against the accused on basis of allegations made in the complaint. It appears that the learned Magistrate did not bother to go through the allegations made in the complaint and ascertain as to what offences were, prima facie, being made out against the accused on the basis of allegations made in the complaint. Apparently, the impugned order passed by the learned Magistrate suffers from non-application of mind while taking cognizance of the offence. The impugned order is not well reasoned order, therefore, the same is liable to be quashed and the petition deserves to be allowed and the matter may be remanded back to the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lakhimpur Kheri with direction to him to go through the allegations made in the complaint and ascertain as to what offences against the accused were prima facie being made out against the accused on the basis of allegations made in the complaint and pass fresh order, thereafter, he will proceed according to law."

13. In the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, (2015) 4 SCC 609 : AIR 2015 SC 923, the Hon'ble Apex Court was pleased to observe in paragraph no. 47 of the judgment as under:

"47. However, the words "sufficient grounds for proceeding" appearing in the Section are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself.."

14. In the case of Darshan Singh Ram Kishan v. State of Maharashtra, (1971) 2 SCC 654, the Hon'ble Court was pleased to observe that the process of taking cognizance does not involve any formal action, but it occurs as soon as the Magistrate applies his mind to the allegations and, thereafter, takes judicial notice of the offence. As provided by Section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, a Magistrate may take cognizance of an offence either, (a) upon receiving a complaint, or (b) upon a police report, or (c) upon information received from a person other than a police officer or even upon his own information or suspicion that such an offence has been committed. As has often been held, taking cognizance does not involve any formal action or indeed action of any kind but occurs as soon as a Magistrate applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence. Cognizance, therefore, takes place at a point when a Magistrate first takes judicial notice of an offence. This is the position whether the Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence on a complaint, or on a police report, or upon information of a person other than a police officer. Therefore, when a Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence upon a police report, prima facie he does so of the offence or offences disclosed in such report.

15. In the case of Ankit v. State of U.P. passed in Application u/s 482 No. 19647 of 2009 decided on 15.10.2009, this Court was pleased to observe in paragraph No. 8 of the judgment as under—

"8. In the beginning, the name of the court, case number, state vs. ……. under section …… P.S……. District……case crime No……./2009 also have been printed and blanks have been filled up by mentioning the case number, name of the accused, section, P.S. District etc. by some employee. Below afore cited printed matter, the following sentence has been mentioned in handwriting

"अभियुक्त अंकित की गिरफ्तारी मा० उच्च न्यायायल द्वारा Crl. Writ No. 19559/08 अंकित बनाम राज्य में पारित आदेश दिनांक 5.11.08 द्वारा आरोप पत्र प्राप्त होने तक स्थगित थी।"

Below aforesaid sentence, the seal of the court containing name of Sri. Talevar Singh, the then Judicial Magistrate-III, has been affixed and the learned magistrate has put his short signature (initial) over his name. The manner in which the impugned order has been prepared shows that the learned magistrate did not at all apply his judicial mind at the time of passing this order and after the blanks were filled up by some employee of the court, he has put his initial on the seal of the court. This method of passing judicial order is wholly illegal. If for the shake of argument, it is assumed that the blanks on the printed proforma were filled up in the handwriting of learned magistrate, even then the impugned order would be illegal and invalid, because order of taking cognizance of any other judicial order cannot be passed by filling up blanks on the printed proforma. Although as held by this Court in the case of Megh Nath Guptas v. State of U.P., (2008) 62 ACC 826, in which reference has been made to the cases of Deputy Chief Controller Import and Export v. Roshan Lal Agarwal, (2003) 4 ACC 686 (SC), UP Pollution Control Board v. Mohan Meakins, 2000 (2) JIC 159 (SC) : (2000) 3 SCC 745 : AIR 2000 SC 1456 and Kanti Bhadra v. State of West Bengal, 2000 (1) JIC 751 (SC) : (2000) 40 ACC 441 (SC), the Magistrate is not required to pass detailed reasoned order at the time of taking cognizance on the charge sheet, but it does not mean that order of taking cognizance can be passed by filling up the blanks on printed proforma. At the time of passing any judicial order including the order taking cognizance on the charge sheet, the Court is required to apply judicial mind and even the order of taking cognizance cannot be passed in mechanical manner. Therefore, the impugned order is liable to be quashed and the matter has to be sent back to the Court below for passing fresh order on the charge sheet after applying judicial mind."

16. In the case of Kavi Ahmad v. State of U.P. passed in Criminal Revision No. 3209 of 2010, wherein order taking cognizance of offence by the Magistrate under Section 190(1)(b) on printed proforma without applying his judicial mind towards the material collected by the Investigating Officer has been held illegal.

17. In the case of Abdul Rasheed v. State of U.P., 2010 (3) JIC 761 (All). The relevant observations and findings recorded in the said case are quoted below:—

"6. Whenever any police report or complaint is filed before the Magistrate, he has to apply his mind to the facts stated in the report or complaint before taking cognizance. If after applying his mind to the facts of the case, the Magistrate comes to the conclusion that there is sufficient material to proceed with the matter, he may take cognizance. In the present case, the summoning order has been passed by affixing a ready made seal of the summoning order on a plain paper and the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate had merely entered the next date fixed in the case in the blank portion of the ready made order. Apparently the learned Magistrate had not applied his mind to the facts of the case before passing the order dated 20.12.2018, therefore, the impugned order cannot be upheld.

7. Judicial orders cannot be allowed to be passed in a mechanical manner either by filling in blank on a printed proforma or by affixing a ready made seal etc. of the order on a plain paper. Such tendency must be deprecated and cannot be allowed to perpetuate. This reflects not only lack of application of mind to the facts of the case but is also against the settled judicial norms. Therefore, this practice must be stopped forthwith."

18. In view of the above, I am of the considered opinion that the conduct of the judicial officers concerned in passing orders on printed proforma by filling up the blanks without application of judicial mind is objectionable and deserves to be deprecated. The summoning of an accused in a criminal case is a serious matter and the order must reflect that Magistrate had applied his mind to the facts as well as law applicable thereto, whereas the impugned summoning order was passed in mechanical manner without application of judicial mind and without satisfying himself as to which offence were prima-facie being made out against the applicants on the basis of the allegations made by the complainant. the impugned cognizance order passed by the learned Magistrate is against the settled judicial norms.

19. The order dated 26.08.2016 cognizance taken by the learned Magistrate on printed proforma without assigning any reason is abuse of process of law and the same was without application of mind and was in a routine manner.

20. In light of the judgments referred to above, it is explicitly clear that the order dated 26.08.2016 passed by the ACJM-IV, Court No. 28, Lucknow in Case No. 2852 of 2016 (State Vs. Anand Kumar Pandey) is cryptic and does not stand the test of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court. Consequently, the cognizance/summoning order dated 26.08.2016 cannot be legally sustained, as the Magistrate failed to exercise the jurisdiction vested in him resulting in miscarriage of justice.

21. Accordingly, the present Criminal Misc. Application u/s 482 Cr. P.C. succeeds and is allowed. The impugned summoning order dated 26.08.2016 passed by the ACJM-IV, Court No.28, Lucknow in Case No. 2852 of 2016 (State Vs. Anand Kumar Pandey) arising out of chargesheet no. 220/2015 dated 28.12.2015 under Sections 406/420/467/468 I.P.C. arising out of Case Crime No. 497 of 2014 dated 14.10.2014 under Sections 406/420/467/468 I.P.C. P.S Chowk, District Lucknow is hereby quashed.

22. The matter is remitted back to Trial Court directing him to decide afresh the issue for taking cognizance and summoning the applicants and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law keeping in view the observations made by this Court as well as the direction contained in the judgments referred to above.

23. Before parting with, I appreciate the efforts, research and drafting work prepared by Sri Piyush Tripathi, Research Associate attached with me, in finding out the relevant case laws applicable in the present case.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1162
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 02.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 4695 of 2023

Suresh Kumar Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Janardan Singh, Madan Gopal Tripathi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Vishva Nath Pratap Singh

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section 363, 366 & 376 - Trial court has power to summon persons under Section 319 CrPC if necessary, during trial - Exercise of power under Section 319 CrPC must be sparing and on higher pedestal - Person summoned under Section 319 CrPC cannot avail remedy of discharge under Section 227 CrPC.(Para -13)

Applicant seeks to set aside order passed by trial court - not named in FIR or charge-sheet - prosecutrix had levelled specific allegation against petitioner while recording her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C - summoned under Section 319 CrPC - Applicant filed discharge application - rejected by trial court. (Para - 2 to 4,14)

HELD: - Court upheld impugned order, rejecting discharge application of applicant who was summoned under Section 319 CrPC, finding no infirmity or illegality in the trial court's decision. Non-bailable warrant issued against applicant kept in abeyance. Applicant granted liberty to appear before trial court to participate in proceedings. Trial court to expedite trial proceedings. (Para - 14 to 17)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. disposed off (admission stage). (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jogender Yadav Vs St. of Bihar & ors., 2015 ALL-MR (Cri).3707 (SC)

2. Hardeep Singh Vs St. of Punj. & ors., (2014) 3 SCC 92

3. Bhuboni Sahu Vs King, AIR 1949 PC: (1949) Cri LJ 872

4. Yashodhan Singh & Ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2023) 9 SCC 108

5. Sukhpal Singh Khaira Vs St. of Punj., (2023) 1 SCC 289: (2023) 1 SCC (Cri) 454

6. Brijedra Singh Vs St. of Raj., (2017) 7 SCC 706: (2017) 4 SCC (Cri) 144

7. Dharam Pal Vs St. of Har., (2014) 3 SCC 306: (2014) 2 SCC (Cri) 159

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Madan Gopal Tripathi, learned counsel for the applicant, Mr. Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I appearing for the State and Mr. Vishva Nath Pratap Singh, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2.

2. The instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C has been filed by the applicant to set aside the impugned order dated 12.04.2023 passed by Additional Session Judge, (P.O.C.S.O.-I), Ambedkar Nagar in Session Trial No.23 of 2020 under Section 363, 366 & 376 I.P.C. at Police Station- Ahirauli, District- Ambedkar Nagar.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant has contended that despite the fact that the applicant was not named in the F.I.R. nor in the charge-sheet though on the application of the complainant filed under Section 319 Cr.P.C. (Annexure No.19), the learned trial Court summoned the applicant vide order dated 20.08.2015.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has informed the Court that challenging the order dated 20.08.2015, the applicant has filed a petition before this Court i.e. U/S 482/378/407 No.2023 of 2019 (Suresh Singh Vs. State of U.P. and Another) and this Court vide order dated 14.03.2019 granted liberty to the applicant therein to file a discharge application before the Court concerned. In compliance of the aforesaid order dated 14.03.2019, the applicant filed discharge application before the learned trial Court and that application was rejected by the learned trial Court vide impugned order dated 12.04.2023.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that in the meantime, the applicant appeared before the learned trial Court and he has been enlarged on bail.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has contended that by means of impugned order dated 12.04.2023, the learned trial Court has observed that in view of the dictum of the Hon'ble Apex Court in re: Jogender Yadav Vs. State of Bihar & Ors., reported in 2015 ALL-MR (Cri).3707 (SC), the application for discharge under Section 227 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable, therefore, the same has been rejected.

7. Learned counsel for the applicant has referred the dictum of the Hon'ble Apex Court in re: Hardeep Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Others, (2014) 3 SCC 92 to submit that the power to summon under Section 319 Cr.P.C should be invoked by the trial Court sparingly in as much as exercise of power under Section 319 Cr.P.C is placed on higher pedestal. He has further submitted that if there being no cogent material/evidence is available on record against the person, he/she should not be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

8. Learned counsel for the applicant has also placed reliance upon the judgment and order dated 16.1.2019 passed by the Division Bench of this Court in Misc. Bench No.28660 of 2018 (Haider Ali Vs. State of U.P. and other), whereby, the Division Bench of this Court has followed the various dictum of the Hon'ble Apex Court as well as of the Privy Council. The Division Bench has referred the judgement in re: Bhuboni Sahu Vs. King, AIR 1949 PC: (1949) Cri LJ 872, wherein, the Privy Council has held that the statement made under Section 164 Cr.P.C. can never be used as substantive evidence of the fact stated but it can be used to support or challenge evidence given in Court by the person who made his statement.

9. Therefore, in view of the aforesaid judgement, the learned counsel for the applicant has stated that the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C was allowed only for the reasons that during the course of investigation, the prosecutrix had recorded her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. wherein she had levelled allegations against the present applicant. So, on the basis of such statement of the prosecutrix, the application under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

should not have been allowed at that stage of the trial.

10. Per contra, Mr. Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I has submitted that the law relating to Section 319 Cr.P.C. has been developed by the Hon'ble Apex Court firstly, in Hardeep Singh (supra) and later on in re: Yashodhan Singh and Others Vs. State of U.P. and Another, (2023) 9 SCC 108. In the judgement of Yashodhan Singh (supra), the details of Hardeep Singh (supra), Sukhpal Singh Khaira Vs. State of Punjab, (2023) 1 SCC 289: (2023) 1 SCC (Cri) 454, Brijedra Singh Vs. State of Rajasthan, (2017) 7 SCC 706 : (2017) 4 SCC (Cri) 144 and Dharam Pal Vs. State of Haryana, (2014) 3 SCC 306 : (2014) 2 SCC (Cri) 159 have been followed.

11. Mr. Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I has further submitted that he is unable to comprehend as to why the Investigating Officer has not filed charge-sheet against the present applicant when there was the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. wherein, she has levelled specific allegations against the present applicant. He has further submitted that on the basis of statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C, the present applicant could have been summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

12. Mr. Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I referring to the aforesaid judgement has stated with vehemence that this has been the consistent view of the Hon'ble Apex Court that the persons who are not named in the F.I.R. nor named in the charge-sheet or who have been discharged before framing of the charges may be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

13. Having considered the material placed on record and having regard to the dictum of the Hon'ble Apex Court (supra), I am of the considered opinion that if the learned trial Court finds it necessary during the course of trial that any person who was not named in the F.I.R. or was also not named in the charge-sheet but there are some material/evidence to suggest that he/she is also responsible in committing such offence, he/she may be summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. It is trite that there is no finality attached to Section 319 Cr.P.C. Further, it is also trite that exercise of power under Section 319 Cr.P.C. must be placed on higher pedestal. The accused summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. are entitled to invoke the remedy under the law against an illegal and improper exercise of power under Section 319 Cr.P.C but that cannot have the effect of the order being undone by seeking a discharge under Section 227 Cr.P.C., therefore, the Hon'ble Apex Court in re: Jogendra Yadav (supra) has held that a person, who is summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. cannot avail the remedy of discharge under Section 227 Cr.P.C.

14. In the present case, the petitioner has been summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. for the reason that the prosecutrix had levelled specific allegation against the petitioner while recording her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. during course of investigation, hence, I do not find any infirmity or illegality in the impugned order dated 12.04.2023 whereby the discharge application of the petitioner has been rejected in view of dictum of Apex Court in re: Jogendra Yadav (supra).

15. At this stage, learned counsel for applicant has confined his prayer to the effect that the non-bailable warrant which has been issued against the applicant vide order dated 10.01.2024 may be kept in abeyance and he shall participate in the proceedings. He has also submitted that the applicant has already been enlarged on bail and due to inadvertence and compelling circumstances, he could not appear before the Court concerned, therefore, the Court has issued non-bailable warrant dated 10.01.2024.

16. Considering the aforesaid submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and without interfering the impugned order dated 12.04.2023, I hereby disposed of this instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., finally, at the admission stage giving liberty to the applicant/petitioner to appear before the Court concerned on the date fixed i.e. 08.02.2024 to participate in the proceedings and he shall further participate in the proceedings and shall not take unnecessary adjournments.

17. If the applicant appears before the learned trial Court on 08.02.2024 i.e. the date fixed, the non-bailable warrant dated 10.01.2024 shall not be executed against him. In case, the applicant does not appear before the Court concerned on the date fixed, the learned trial Court would be at liberty to take steps against him strictly in accordance with law.

18. It is needless to say that the learned trial Court shall expedite the trial proceedings strictly in accordance with law by affording opportunity of hearing to all the parties concerned.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1165
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 01.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 6922 of 2022

Harish Gulla & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Dr. Pooja Singh, Abhinav Trivedi, Lalta Prasad Misra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Pranjal Krishna

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 406, 419, 420, 506, 467, 468, 471 - Mens Rea is an essential ingredient for composition of offence and all civil wrongs cannot be termed as an offence - Facts of each and every case are to be examined while reaching to the conclusion that whether, a wrong act comes under the purview of offence? (Para -35)

Applicants entered an MoU with opp. no. 2 - for development of Hi-Tech Township City Project - Dispute arose regarding non-transfer of land/plots - FIR lodged under various IPC sections - Applicants arrested, released on bail, and entered into settlement agreement - UPRERA imposed ban on transfer of M/s Ansal API properties - Court examined settlement agreements, MoU, and UPRERA notices.(Para - 32 ,33)

HELD: - Dispute is commercial in nature, and mens rea (guilty mind) is missing. Applicants are willing to transfer the remaining properties. Allowing further criminal proceeding would amount to harassment of applicants and therefore the criminal proceedings against the applicants are abuse of process of law. Criminal proceedings quashed. (Para-34 to 39)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajan Lal, (1992) SUPP 1 SCC 335

2. Gold Quest International Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of T.N., (2014) 15 SCC 235

3. Parbatbahi Ahir @ Parbhatbhai Bhimsinghbhai Karmur & ors. Vs St. of Guj., (2017) 9 SCC 641

4. Mitesh Kumar Jha Vs St. of Karn. & ors., 2021 SCC OnLine SC 976

5.Gulam Mustafa Vs St. of Karn. & Anr., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 603

6. Gian Singh Vs St. of Punj., (2012) 10 SCC 303,

7. Inder Mohan Goswami & anr. Vs St. of Uttarakhand, (2007)12 SCC 1 and

8. Syed Yaseer Ibrahim Vs St. of U.P., (2022) SCC OnLine SC 271

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1). Heard Sri L.P. Mishra assisted by Sri Abhinav Narayan Trivedi, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Pranjal Krishna for the opposite party no. 2 and Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA-I for the state.

2). By means of the instant application, prayer has been made for quashing the impugned charge sheet dated 05.09.2019 and 10.10.2019, in Case Crime No. 162 of 2018, under Sections 406, 419, 420, 506, 467, 468, 471 of IPC at Police Station- Vibhuti Khand, District Lucknow and further the summoning order dated 06.09.2019 and 18.11.2019 has also been assailed.

3). Factual matrix of the case is that the UP Government has formulated Hi-Tech Township Policy, 2003 for planned development in the State of UP on 23.08.2003 and after promulgation of the policy, M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructure Ltd., being eligible for undertaking township, applied for and was granted Hi-Tech Township licence on 26.11.2005 and it took shape in the name and style of 'Sushant Golf City Lucknow'. The Hi-Tech Township Policy, 2003 was amended time to time and other Hi-Tech Township Policy, 2007 was promulgated on 7th September 2007 while superseding the Hi-Tech Township Policy, 2003 and at the same time it was provided that the existing licences, granted earlier vide Policy 2003, shall remain continue. On 27 January 2010, a Government Order was issued whereby the Hi-Tech Township Policies, 2003 and 2007 were brought to an end, though it was provided that Hi-Tech Township Projects shall continue till it's conclusion and this was informed to the Chairman of various development authorities throughout the State of UP vide Government Order dated 7.04.2021. Having at a glance of the government orders dated 23.08.2003, 17.09.2007 and 7.04.2021, it is apparent that the Government of UP had to facilitate the availability of land to the developers by way of acquisition and payment of compensation and the government land like pathway, land of reserve category, Gaon Sabha land, chakroad, canal, etc. was to be exchanged in favour of the developers and thus, it was incumbent upon the State Government to make procurement of land which was a continuous process and at the same time, it was also provided that State shall take care so as to ensure that no harassment could be caused to the developer and if any complaint is made against the developer, the action may be taken only after approval of High Power Committee, under the chairmanship of the chief secretary of State of UP.

4). Once the Hi-Tech Township Project in the name of Sushant Golf City, Lucknow was allotted to M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructures Ltd., as per the eligibility criterion, the opposite party no. 2 and his wife namely, Mrs Sunita Agarwal expressed their desire for booking several plots, flats and villas etc. both in their individual names and also on behalf of their respective companies, for which 11 MoUs were executed in between 2011 to 2012, vide the same, the plots etc. were sought to be booked with the condition of timely payment, as per schedule.

5). Procurement of land bank was a continuous process, therefore, 11 MoUs could not be performed, within time, in favour of the complainant, his wife or any of the company represented by them. Further there is one hurdle of clause (u) which says that the 'second party cannot sell/transfer his right in the FSI, either in full or part, to any third-party without the prior written consent of the first party, which the first party at its sole discretion may allow or deny such transfer, and in case the first party allows such transfer then it will charge the administrative charges for the same. The MoU was to be followed by booking of respective flats/villas/plots etc. and resultantly, the allotment letters were issued and followed by execution of sale deeds and due to all these, certain dispute arose between M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastrucure Ltd. and opposite party no. 2 and his wife and therefore, the opposite party no. 2 instituted an application under Section 156(3) of the Criminal Procedural Code (hereinafter referred as 'Code') and thereafter, an FIR was lodged bearing no. 162 of 2018. As per the content of First Information Report, the complainant, i.e., the opposite party no. 2 met with Director of the company, namely, M/s Ansal API and on assurance given by them regarding the return on the investment, he started investing in the project of Sushant Golf City, Lucknow but various lands and plots, which were initially allotted to him, were not provided and thus, it has been alleged that cheat and fraud has been committed by the applicants.

6.) After the aforesaid FIR, the applicants were arrested by investigating agencies and charge sheet was filed against them and the Chief Judicial Magistrate passed the summoning order, vide the same, the applicants were summoned.

7). In the meantime, a development took place, where the complainant and the petitioners entered into a settlement deed dated 28.12.2019, whereby all the dispute relating to investments and properties amongst each other, were settled amicably. The applicants were granted bail vide orders dated 07.12.2019 and 06.02.2020 and while granting the bail, the court has also taken note of the compromise entered into between the parties.

8). Once the matter was amicably settled, out of the Court, on 28.12.2019, a petition under Section 482 was filed bearing no.1686 of 2020 (Harish Gulla and others Vs. State of U.P. and another) for quashing of the impugned charge-sheet as well as the summoning orders but the same was withdrawn by the applicants with liberty to file afresh vide the order dated 27.04.2022. Thereafter, various negotiations by way of communication were done and the parties came to understanding and recorded the same in the addendum dated 14.07.2022 to the settlement deed dated 28.12.2019 which shows that opposite party no. 2 does not want to prosecute anyone in Case Crime No. 162 of 2018 and all the disputes were resolved, whereas the compliance of the terms and condition in addendum dated 14.07.2022, became delayed and therefore, the opposite party no. 2 is still pressing the prosecution against the applicants though the case of the applicant is that they are still ready to perform the terms and conditions as per the addendum dated 14.07.2022, but due to certain steps to resolve the problem, on the part of the State Government, is in the way of the performance of the addendum/settlement and therefore, the same is still waiting for its compliance, and thus, there is no mens rea of the applicants for committing any cheat, fraud or any kind of fabrication in the documents as is alleged in the First Information Report.

9). Fact remains that showing the bonafide and the honest performance of the addendum of settlement dated 14.07.2022, out of eight properties, which are in dispute, four were transferred through registered sale deed, i.e., dated 19th July 2022, 16th July 2022, 18th July 2022 and 27th July 2023. So far as the fifth plot is concerned, allotment letter is issued and due to non-availability of the opposite party no. 2, the registered sale deed could not be executed, and so far as the other three disputed properties are concerned, the allotment letters and the transfer of title are issued, which are waiting for it's compliance vide executing registered sale deed.

10). Now vide order dated 19.06.2023, Uttar Pradesh Real Estate Regulatory Authority (hereinafter referred as 'UPRERA') issued the notice while directing the M/s Ansal Properties not to transfer any property unless a particular amount is deposited to UPRERA and therefore, the further compliance is said to be stopped as per the order of UPRERA.

11). Counsel appearing for applicant contended that in fact by way of a MoU between the M/s Ansal Properties and Infrastructure Ltd. and the opposite party no. 2 an amount of Rs. ₹42,56,97,041 was paid till 2014, which is an admitted fact, but thereafter the terms and condition as per the MoUs between the parties could not be honoured timely because of the reasons, which are not in the approach of the applicants and thereafter the First Information Report was lodged by the opposite party no. 2, under misconception that the present applicants have committed cheat and fraud with him. He submits that once the First Information Report was lodged, the applicants tried to make understand the opposite party no. 2 that since the Hi-Tech Township area, wherein the government land, canals, chakroads etc. could not be exchanged as per the policy of 2003 to 2010, which is the part of the compliance of the State Government and as soon as the same would be settled, the MoU entered into between the parties, shall be followed and therefore, the parties entered into between the agreement on 28.12.2019 and further an addendum dated 14.07.2022 to the settlement deed dated 28.12.2019 was also signed by the parties wherein the eight properties were categorized, in dispute, which are mentioned in paragraph 30 of the supplementary affidavit dated 18.09.2023 filed on behalf of the applicants. He added that properties are marked as A, B, C. D, E, F, G and H, wherein the property number A, B, C and D is transferred to the opposite party no. 2 vide registered sale deeds dated 16 July 2022, 18 July 2022, 19 July 2022 and 27 April 2023, respectively and the fifth property that is 'E', allotment letter is issued, but the registered sale deed could not be executed due to non-availability of opposite party no. 2 and so far as property number F to H are concerned, the allotment number and transfer of title were issued in favour of the opposite party no. 2, but unfortunately, the UPRERA has issued a notice in pursuant to it's meeting dated 19.06.2023 and therefore, the rest of the properties are waiting for its transfer and thus, there is no fault on the part of the applicants.

12). Adding his argument, he submits that this Hon'ble Court vide order dated 29.03.2023, directed the parties to appear before the Senior Registrar of this Court on 12.04.2023 and the Senior Registrar was directed to verify the compromise in presence and participation of both the parties, but due to non-appearance of opposite party no. 2, the verification could not be done. It shows that the opposite party no. 2 himself is not serious about the compliance of the compromise and he intends to harass the applicants by way of pressing the prosecution of Case Crime No. 162 of 2018.

13). Further submission is that in fact, the main issue is regarding non-execution of the sale deed as well as not handing over the possession of certain properties to the opposite party no. 2, but there is express legal bar by virtue of notice issued in a meeting dated 19.06.2023 of UPRERA, on the properties which are mentioned in the addendum of settlement agreement and therefore, there are efficacious remedy to the opposite party no. 2 to approach UPRERA, Civil Court or any other forum of a civil competence. He also added that properties which are under dispute between the parties mentioned in paragraph 30 of the supplementary affidavit, are the admitted fact between the parties as no rebuttal has been filed by the opposite party no. 2.

14). Next submission of the counsel for the applicants is that mens rea is absent in the instant matter as there is no intention of the company or applicants to commit any fraud or misrepresentation with the opposite party no. 2 and the applicants who were the responsible persons, employed in the management of the company, never committed any offence, as is alleged in the First Information Report. He submits that the ingredient of offences charged against the applicants do not attract as the matter is purely civil in nature, which is being given the colour of criminality and it is the best example of arm twisting by the opposite party no. 2.

15). Adding his arguments he submits that the applicants are innocent and law abiding citizens and have not committed any offence and the story which is narrated in the First Information Report, is false and concocted.

16). Concluding his argument, he has submitted that in fact, the circumstances which are not under the control of the applicants, are the reasons of the dispute, as there was a delay on the part of the State Government to hand over the property in question to the applicants and there was certain dispute regarding the government land including the chakroads, canals etc. which are still to be exchanged as per the terms and conditions given in the Hi-Tech Township Policy promulgated time to time. He submits that from the first day, the applicants are ready to transfer the plots, land etc. as per the MoU to the opposite party no. 2 and it is apparent from the paragraph 30 of the supplementary affidavit that applicants have transferred four properties vide the registered sale deed in favour of the opposite party no. 2, out of eight disputed properties, for which the transfer of title and settlement has also been issued and the applicants undertake with full responsibility that as soon the UPRERA will lift the ban, the rest of the properties immediately shall be transferred to the opposite party no. 2. Further the transfer of the properties which was done in favour of the opposite party no. 2, are not disputed and therefore, looking to the whole scenario, no offence is committed as is alleged in the First Information Report.

17). In support of his contention, counsel for the applicants has placed reliance on a judgement of state of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in (1992) SUPP 1 SCC 335 and has referred paragraph 6 of the guidelines issued by the Apex Court.

Paragraph 6 of the guidelines of the judgement is reproduced hereinunder:-

"(6) Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/of where there is a specific provision in the Code or the conerned Act, providing efficacious redress fro the grievance of the aggrieved party."

18). Referring the aforesaid, he submits that legal bar arose vide the notice issued by UPRERA, for putting ban on the transfer of the property in question and therefore the efficacious remedy for redressal of the grievance of the parties is to approach the proper forum.

19). He again referred the case reported in (2014) 15 SCC 235, Gold Quest International Private Limited Vs. State of Tamil Nadu and has referred paragraph 8 of the aforesaid judgement.

Paragraph 8 of the judgement is reproduced hereinunder:-

"8. In view of the principle laid down by this Court in the aforesaid cases, we are of the view in the disputes which are substantially matrimonial in nature, or the civil property disputes with criminal facets, if the parties have entered into settlement, and it has become clear that there are no chances of conviction, there is no illegality in quashing the proceedings under Section 482 Cr.P.C. read with Article 226 of the Constitution. However, the same would not apply where the nature of offence is very serious like rape, murder, robbery, dacoity, cases under Prevention of Corruption Act, cases under Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act and other similar kind of offences in which punishment of life imprisonment or death can be awarded. After considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, we are of the view that learned Single Judge did not commit any error of law in quashing the FIR after not only the complainant and the appellant settled their money dispute but also the other alleged sufferers entered into an agreement with the appellant, and as such, they too settled their claims."

20). Referring the aforesaid, he submits that it has been held that 'a dispute which are substantially matrimonial in nature or civil property dispute with criminal facet, if the parties have entered into settlement and it has become clear that there are no chances of conviction, there is no illegality in quashing the proceeding under Section 482 of CrPC.' He submits that there is civil property dispute with some criminal angle wherein the parties entered into a settlement in which the first party is ready to comply, subject to condition of lifting the ban of transfer of the property by UPRERA, and therefore, the criminal proceeding is proper.

21). Placing reliance on a judgement reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641, Parbatbahi Ahir @ Parbhatbhai Bhimsinghbhai Karmur and others Vs. State of Gujarat, he referred paragraph 16.8 of the above said judgement.

Paragraph 16.8 of the judgement is quoted hereinunder:-

"16.1 Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any Court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognises and preserves powers which inherein the High Court"

22). Again, referred the judgement reported in 2021 SCC OnLine SC 976, Mitesh Kumar Jha Vs. State of Karnataka and others and a judgement reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 603, Gulam Mustafa Vs. State of Karnataka and Another and has paced reliance on paragraph 47 and 36 respectively, which are reproduce hereinunder:-

"47. Moreover, this Court has at innumerable instances expressed its disapproval for imparting criminal color to a civil dispute, made merely to take advantage of a relatively quick relief granted in a criminal case in contrast to a civil dispute. Such an exercise is nothing but an abouse of the process of law which must be discouraged in its entirety."

"36. What is evincible from the extant case-law is that this Court has been consistent in interfering in such matters where purely civil disputes, more often than not, relating to land and/or money are given the colour of criminality, only for the purposes of exerting extra-judicial pressure on the party concerned, which, we reiterate, is nothing but abuse of the process of the court. In the present case, there is a huge, and quite frankly, unexplained delay of over 60 years in initiating dispute with regard to the ownership of the land in question, and the criminal case has been lodged only after failure to obtain relief in the civil suits, coupled with denial of relief in the interim therein to the respondent no. 2/her family members. It is evident that resort was now being had to criminal proceedings which, in the considered opinion of this Court, is with ulterior motives, for oblique reasons and is a clear case of vengeance."

23). Quoting the aforesaid judgement, he submits that the case of the present applicants are squarely covered with the ratio of the judgement and therefore, submission is that the criminal proceeding against the applicants may quashed.

24). On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for the opposite party no. 2 has vehemently opposed the contentions aforesaid and submits that the applicants have committed cheat, and fraud as well as criminal intimidation and therefore, the First Information Report was lodged as Case Crime No. 162 of 2018 at Police Station- PGI, Lucknow and they were taken into custody. So far as the present case is concerned, when the applicants were in custody, they entered into a settlement agreement on 28.12.2019 and the Hon'ble Court enlarged the applicants on bail with an implied condition that they will honour their obligation under the settlement agreement. But once the applicants were released, they deliberately violated the settlement agreement and thereafter the opposite party no. 2 moved cancellation of bail and thereafter they approached the Apex Court, wherein the notices were issued to the applicants. Again the applicants approached the opposite party no. 2 and the addendum to the settlement agreement was entered into between the parties on 14.07.2022, whereafter the applicants executed three properties in favour of the opposite party no. 2 and under the impression that the applicants are intended to honour the addendum settlement, withdrew the Special Leave to Appeal (Crl) No. 1621 of 2022 on 30.08.2022 but the applicants are not with the clean hands and the good intentions and therefore, as soon as the above said Special Leave to Appeal (Crl) was withdrawn, they started dishonoring the addendum to the settlement thereby not transfering the other properties. The UPRERA has imposed the ban on transfer of the properties, for which, the applicants are directly responsible.

25). Pointing out about the transferred properties, he submits that the Plot no. H/05, allotted to the opposite party no. 2 by the above mentioned addendum, has deliberately been allotted as Khasra no. 76, is a disputed land and case for the same is subjudice before the District Magistrate Lucknow, who affixed the board on the side of the plot, mentioning the details of the dispute, and with the instruction that no sale/purchase can be made with respect to the said plot. He further submits that the plots which are proposed to be given to the opposite party no. 2 exists on the land of canal, which was to be exchanged by the M/s Ansal company, while paying certain amount to the State government, but in case of non-payment on the part of M/s Ansal, the said land is also disputed and thus the land which has already been transferred through registered sale deed or proposed to be transferred are the disputed lands, either in between the M/s Ansal Company and the state or with the private parties, which clearly shows the intention of the applicants.

26). Referring the judgement of the coordinate bench of this Court he pointed out that in Writ A No. 7254 of 2022, Director CBI was directed to constitute an SIT and SIT will submit its progress report on or before 24.05.2023, before the High Court and the final report is required to be submitted on 22.08.2023.

27). Concluding his arguments, he submits that the law is very clear that fraud or cheat shall be looked into on the first date of the offence alleged to be committed and in the instant matter, fraud has been committed by applicants and the First Information Report was lodged, and after thorough investigation, it was found that applicants have committed offence. Therefore, at the later stage when the parties entered into agreement, though failed later on, it cannot be said that no offence was committed by the applicants and therefore, submission is that there is no force in the contention of the learned counsel for the applicants and thus the instant application is liable to be dismissed.

28). Per contra the learned AGA appearing for the State has also vehemently opposed the contention of the learned counsel for the applicants, while supporting the version of the counsel for the opposite party no. 2 and submitted that once the First Information Report was lodged, it was thoroughly investigated by the Investigating Officer and it was found that the applicants are involved in committing offence and therefore Trial Court after application of mind, took cognizance of the offence and issued summons and therefore, there is no ambiguity or unlawfulness in the charge-sheet filed by the Investigating Officer or the summoning order passed by the trial Court.

29). Having heard the counsels for the parties and after perusal of the material placed on record, it transpires that the State Government promulgated Hi-Tech Township Policy in the year 2003, wherein the company M/s Ansal API succeeded to get the Hi-Tech Township City Project, which is named as Sushant Golf City Lucknow. This policy was replaced by the another policy of the year 2007 and 2010, but as per the version of the applicants, the property which was to be handed over to the company, namely, M/s Ansal, could not succeed, due to certain reasons and there is still dispute regarding the exchange of the lands pertaining to chak marg, canal and some other state land etc.

30). It so happened that the opposite party no. 2 who also represents a developer firm entered into an MoU with the company, namely M/s Ansal to which the present applicants are leading as the high administrative authority and thereafter, certain amount was also deposited with the company which is an admitted fact. But as per the allegations of the complainant, the MoU was not honoured by the applicants and their company, as the plots/apartments/lands which were to be transferred, could not be performed and therefore, wife of the opposite party no. 2 lodged the First Information Report against the applicants and the opposite party no. 2 also moved an application under Section 156(3) of the Code wherein on the direction of the Magistrate the First Information Report was lodged as case crime number 162 of 2018, whereafter investigation was done and the charge-sheet was filed under Sections 406, 419, 420, 506, 467, 468, 471 of IPC at Police Station- Vibhuti Khand, District Lucknow and the Magistrate took cognizance and issued summons, which are under challenge by way of the instant application.

31). When this Court examined the contentions of the learned counsel for the parties as well as the law points, it emerges that the dispute between the parties is with respect to non-transfer of certain land/plots in lieu of the amount deposited before the company, namely M/s Ansal as well as the non-compliance of the terms and condition existed in the MoU between the parties. After the First Information Report was lodged, the applicants were arrested and thereafter, a settlement was done in between the parties by way of reducing the compromise deed, in writing, on 28.12.2019, whereafter the applicants were released on bail and the terms and conditions are mentioned in the bail orders regarding the amicable settlement between the parties, thereafter, in case of non-performance of the terms and conditions of the agreement dated 28.12.2019, opposite party no. 2 moved cancellation of bail and later on, approached to the Apex Court, wherein, notice was issued and thereafter, the addendum dated 14.07.2022 to settlement agreement was entered into between the parties and the admitted dispute of eight properties is mentioned, disclosure of the same given in paragraph 30 of the supplementary affidavit filed by the counsel for the applicants, whereafter, out of eight properties, four properties were transferred vide registered sale deed in favour of the opposite party no. 2 and his company and the rest of the four properties are also proposed to be transferred, though in the meantime i.e, on 19.06.2023, UPRERA in its meeting, took decision to make a ban over the transfer of the property of the M/s Ansal Company which is an admitted fact and the same is in the knowledge of the opposite party no. 2, as mentioned in paragraph 8 of the short counter affidavit filed on his behalf. After the aforesaid ban was imposed, the property which was proposed to be transferred, for which the allotment letters and the transfer of title was also issued, could not be executed.

32). From perusal of the addendum settlement agreement as well as the notice issued by the UPRERA, indicates that the dispute is relating to the plots/houses between the parties, for which, time and again, they agreed to amicably settle the issue and the settlement agreement was also honoured to some extent, uptil the UPRERA imposed the ban. It has also been admitted and undertaken by the applicants that they are still ready to transfer the rest of the property in favour of the opposite party no. 2 or his company and they are trying to get the ban lifted by the UPRERA.

33). This court has also noticed the fact that it is not the case where the property in question was on the first day of MoU, was in the possession or ownership of the company, namely M/s Ansal and there was also certain terms and conditions in the policy regarding handing over the land to the M/s Ansal Company, subject to exchange of certain lands, canals, chak-marg, etc. and after it was decided that the M/s Ansal succeeded to have the Hi-Tech Township in the name of Sushant Golf City Lucknow, the dispute with respect to exchange of public utility lands were creeping in, throughout years and an MoU was signed in between the M/s Ansal Company as well as the opposite party no. 2 and its company, then certainly the same would have been with implied condition or circumstances, which would arise subsequently and more particularly, where the intent of committing cheat and fraud is under question. It is not understandable that how a company or person can imagine that certain dispute would arose in future, which will create a hurdle for the subsequent performance of an MoU. Might be that there is some recklessness or letharginess on the part of the M/s Ansal Company and its authority to get decide the matter, but ultimately that cannot be termed as an offence, particularly with respect to execution of the MoU between the applicants and the opposite party no. 2.

34). Regarding contention of counsel for the opposite party that fraud or cheat shall be looked into on the first date of occurance of the offence, it is correct but so far as the case in hand is concerned, it is very clear that on the date of MoU between the complaint and the applicants and company, no offence was committed alleged on the date of occurance of the offence as the issue of non performance of the MoU came later, when certain issues arose between State and the applicants company and as result, the MoU could not be honoured and the bonafide of the company and applicants is apparent that they tried to resolve the issue by entering into further settlement and addendum settlement and those were honoured to the extent of the decision taken by UPRERA, thus this Court is of considred opinion that the dispute is commercial between the parties. So far as any other investigation/enquiry said to be completed against the applicants, that can not be intermingled with the instant matter and that will be investigated and examined, separately.

35). It's trite law that mens rea is an essential ingredient for composition of offence and all civil wrongs can not be termed as an offence. The facts of each and every case are to be examined while reaching to the conclusion that whether, a wrong act comes under the purview of offence? So far as the present matter is concerned, while examining the facts of the case, it emerges that mens rea is missing.

36). This court is also not unmindful to the ratio of the judgement and orders rendered in cases, namely State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal (1992) SUPP 1 SCC 335, Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab (2012) 10 SCC 303, Gold Quest International Private Limited Vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2014) 15 SCC 235, Parbatbahi Aahir @ Parbhatbhai Bhimsinghbhai Karmur and others Vs. State of Gujrat (2017) 9 SCC 641, Mitesh Kumar Jha Vs. State of Karnataka; (2021) SCC OnLine SCC 976, Gulam Mustafa Vs. State of Karnataka and another (2023) SCC OnLine SC 603, Inder Mohan Goswami and anr. Vs. State of Uttarakhand (2007)12 SCC 1 and Syed Yaseer Ibrahim Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh (2022) SCC OnLine SC 271.

37). Admittedly, after the said violation of terms of MoU, the parties have entered into settlement and the addendum settlement and that has been performed and honoured to some extent and which further could not be performed for the circumstances, which are not under control of the applicants. Further, if the Complainant has any grievance for non compliance of the MoU or breach of the terms and conditions of the MoU, it is always open to raise it before the court of civil competence.

38). This court has also taken note of the undertaking of the applicants that they are still ready to perform addendum dated 14.07.2022 to the settlement agreement and therefore this court is of opinion that allowing the further criminal proceeding would amount to harassment of the applicants and therefore the criminal proceedings against the applicants are abuse of process of law.

39). Consequently, the impugned summoning orders dated 06.09.2019 and 18.11.2019 are hereby set aside and the criminal proceedings arising out of Case Crime No. 162/2018 u/S 406,419,420,506,467,468 and 471 of IPC, Police Station- Vibhuti Khand, district-Lucknow, are hereby quashed.

30). The application is allowed accordingly.

41). Office is directed to communicate this order to the trial Court concerned.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1175
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 7024 of 2017

Rahul Mishra & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Dineysh Agrawal, Dileep Kumar

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A. Mahesh Kumar, Prabhat Pandey

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 498A, 323, 504, 506, The Dowry prohibition Act, 1961 - Sections 3/4 - Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 - Section 13 - Divorce - Law relating to quashing - If the allegations are absurd or do not make out any case or if it can be held that there is abuse of process of law, the proceedings can be quashed but if there is a triable case the court does not go into reliability or otherwise of the version or the counter-version - In matrimonial cases, the courts have to be cautious when omnibus allegations are made particularly against relatives who are not generally concerned with the affairs of the couple - Quashing of a charge is an exception to the rule of continuous prosecution - Court is not expected to marshal the records with a view to decide admissibility and reliability of the documents or records but is an opinion formed prima facie.(Para - 28)

Marriage between Applicant No. 1 and Opposite Party No. 2 (Informant's daughter) - Harassment for dowry (car demand) - FIR lodged alleging harassment, dowry demand, physical assault, and false claims about Applicant No. 1's qualifications - Quashing of charge sheet, summoning order, and proceedings. (Para - 2 to 25)

HELD: - Uncontroverted allegations prima facie establishes the offence. Materials submitted by the accused cannot be considered at this stage. Court cannot meticulously examine evidence for acquittal/conviction. Criminal proceedings are not an abuse of process of court leading to injustice.(Para - 32)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Musstt Rehana Begum Vs St. of Assam, (2022) SCC OnLine SC 82

2. Seth Ramdayal Jat Vs Laxmi Prasad, (2009) 11 SCC 545

3. Sardool Singh Vs Nasib Kaur, 1987 Supp SCC 146

4. Abhishek Vs St. of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083

5. Kahkashan Kausar Vs St. of Bihar, (2022) 6 SCC 599

6. Taramani Parakh Vs St. of M.P., (2015) 11 SCC 260

7. Rajaram Sharma Vs St. of U.P., Criminal Appeal No. 63 of 2024

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri D. K. Agrawal and Ms Anupriya Agarwal Advocates, the learned Counsel for the applicants, Sri Virendra Kumar, the learned A.G.A. for the State and Sri Sushil Kumar Singh, Sri Prabhat Pandey and Sri Mahesh Kumar Advocates, the learned Counsel for the opposite party no. 2.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the applicants have sought quashing of the Charge Sheet No.14 of 2016 dated 24.12.2016 submitted in furtherance of Case Crime No.10 of 2016, Police Station, Mahila Thana, District Amethi under Sections 498A, 323, 504, 506 IPC and Sections 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act. They have also sought quashing of the order dated 27.03.2017 passed by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sultanpur in Case No.1818 of 2017, taking cognizance of the aforesaid offences and summoning the applicants to face trial of the aforesaid offences.

3. The aforesaid case was instituted on the basis of an FIR lodged by the opposite party No. 2 on 22.07.2016 stating that the informant had got his daughter married to the applicant No.1 on 15.02.2015. Wedding ceremony was solemnized at Etawah. The informant had spent Rs.15,00,000/- in the wedding and related ceremonies and he had given Rs.6,00,000/- in cash, besides several other valuable articles. At the time of settlement of the marriage, the applicants had told that the applicant No.1 had done MBA from Birmingham University in United Kingdom in first division and that he was working as a Manager in a real estate concern at Gurugram. After the marriage, the accused persons started harassing the informant's daughter for demanding a car. Later on, it came to light that the applicant no.1 did not possess a degree, as had been claimed by the applicants and he merely holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Management, in which he had secured second division and perhaps that diploma is not recognized in India. The FIR alleges that the accused persons had beaten up the informant's daughter on 21.12.2015, took away her stridhan and dropped her near the house of the informant in HAL campus at Korba, Munshi Gunj, District Amethi. The informant tried to resolve the disputes, but he was always insulted.

4. During investigation, the informant and his daughter gave statements supporting the FIR allegations. Accordingly, the investigating officer submitted a charge-sheet against the accused persons. The Court took cognizance of the offences and summoned the applicants to face trial by means of impugned order dated 27.03.2017.

5. The applicants have sought quashing of the charge-sheet, summoning order and the proceedings on the ground that the allegations of huge expenditure in wedding ceremonies by the informant or the demand of dowry by the applicants are absolutely false. The informant had paid merely ₹1,50,000/- for making arrangements of reception and entire expenditure of marriage ceremony and the reception was incurred by applicant Nos.1 and 2, which is supported by plenty of evidence including the videograph and photographs of the ceremonies. It has further been contented that the applicant No.2 and 3 had demonstrated expenditure of more than ₹15,00,000/- to the investigating officer with support of documentary and electronic evidence but the investigating officer has not made the same a part of the case diary or the charge sheet.

6. It has further been stated in the application that the applicant No.1 had filed a suit for divorce, which was pending at the time of filing of the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. However, during pendency of the application, HMA Suit No.314 of 2016 filed by applicant No.1 under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act was decreed by the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Etawah by means of judgment dated 21.10.2021. Surbhi Tiwari, wife of applicant No.1 has filed First Appeal No.936 of 2021, which is pending consideration of this Court sitting at Allahabad.

7. A Supplementary affidavit has been filed on behalf of applicants annexing therewith a copy of the judgment dated 21.10.2021 passed by Additional Principal Judge, Etawah decreeing the suit for divorce filed by applicant No.1, the evidence of defendant in that suit and the statement of the informant recorded in that suit.

8. The Superintendent of Police, District Amethi has filed a counter affidavit dated 09.06.2022 replying to the contention of the applicants in the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. that they had provided documentary evidence of the expenditure to the investigating officer. The Superintendent of Police has stated that the applicant has not given any evidence to the investigating officer.

9. In the rejoinder affidavit, the applicants have stated that they had given (i) a copy of an email sent by the informant's daughter to the applicant no.1 admitting her illicit relation with some other person; (ii) a copy of legal notice dated 08.06.2016; (iii) copies of emails sent by applicant No.1 to the informant (iv) recording of mobile chats dated 20.10.2015 between the applicant and informant's wife (v) screenshots of Karva Chauth and other ceremonies, (vi) email chats between the informant's daughter and the person with whom she allegedly having illicit relations, email chats between applicant No.1 and informant's daughter and phone details.

10. Learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that there was a categorical assertion that the applicants had supplied documentary evidence referred to above to the investigating officer of the case and the counter affidavit has been filed by the Superintendent of Police, who was not the investigating officer. Therefore, the Superintendent of Police had no personal knowledge of the documents having been supplied by the applicants to the investigating officer and his refusal is meaningless.

11. The second submission of the learned counsel for the applicants is that the applicant No.1 had filed a suit for divorce, which has already been decreed. The Family Court had framed two charges; (i) whether the plaintiff (applicant No.1) was entitled to get a decree of divorce ? and (ii) whether he was entitled to any other relief ?

12. While deciding issue No.1, the Family Court held that the allegation that the informant's daughter had been beaten up by the applicant No.1 and his family members on 21.12.2015 and was turned out of the matrimonial home, could not be established and informant's daughter had herself left her matrimonial home on 20.12.2015. The Family Court further observed that there are contradictions made by the informant's daughter regarding dowry, which makes the allegation suspicious.

13. The learned counsel for the applicants has further submitted that aforesaid findings recorded in the final judgment passed by the Family Court prove that the allegation in the FIR that the applicants had turned out the informant's daughter out of her matrimonial home after beating her on 21.12.2015 is false. Therefore, continuance of the criminal proceedings instituted on the basis of false allegations, would be an abuse of the process of the law and proceedings are liable to be quashed.

14. The informant's daughter has field First Appeal No. 963 of 2021 before this Court sitting at Allahabad challenging the judgment/decree dated 21.10.2021 passed by the Additional Principal Judge, Etawah dissolving her marriage with applicant No.1. On 29.11.2021, an interim order was passed by a Division Bench of this Court in the aforesaid case staying the effect and operation of the decree dated 21.10.2021. However, the interim order was vacated by means of the order dated 08.02.2023 after noting submissions of the learned counsel for the appellants that the appellant No.1 has performed a second marriage and the Court was of the view that at this stage, the interim order cannot be extended.

15. Per contra, Sri S. K. Singh, the learned counsel for opposite party No.2, has submitted that the investigating officer had not made the defence evidence a part of case diary, is no ground to challenge the charge-sheet, cognizance and summoning order and the proceedings of the case.

16. Regarding effect of the observations made in the suit for divorce, the learned counsel for the opposite party No.2 has submitted that the findings of the Family Court recorded in the Civil suit, will not bind the criminal court while trying the accused persons for commission of cognizable offence as the scope of civil and criminal proceedings are entirely different.

17. The learned Counsel for the applicants have supplied written submissions wherein it has been stated that although the FIR alleges that the accused persons assaulted Surabhi on 21.11.2015 and left her near her father's home, in her cross examination recorded in the divorce suit, she has admitted that no harassment or ill treatment was done against her on 21.12.2015. The complainant has also admitted that on the date of the alleged incident, his daughter was not at Noida and she was with him at Amethi. The judgment dated 21.10.2021 passed by the Family Court decreeing the suit for divorce filed by the applicant no. 1 records a finding that Surabhi was not turned out of her matrimonial home on 21.12.2015 and no communication was made between the parties on 20.12.2015. The Family Court has found the allegations to be false.

18. The learned Counsel for the applicant has relied upon the judgment in the case of Musstt Rehana Begum v. State of Assam, (2022) SCC OnLine SC 82. In that case, the second respondent had filed a complaint stating that he and the appellant got married on 11.01.1996 but later on she came to know that the appellant was previously married to another person. According to the complaint, the appellant has committed an offence punishable under Section 495 of the IPC since she concealed the fact that she had a subsisting marriage when she married the second respondent. The appellant had lodged a complaint under Section 498A of IPC. The second respondent claimed that his earlier marriage had been dissolved by a divorce on 18.08.2011. On 17.09.2011, the appellant instituted proceedings before the Principal Judge of Family Court - I, Kamrup to challenge the purported divorce. By a judgment dated 20.07.2017, the Family Court declared the divorce purportedly given by the second respondent to the appellant as null and void. A Complaint Case under Sections 420, 406, 468 and 34 of IPC was registered on 11.09. 2015, alleging that the second respondent had produced a forged divorce certificate. On 16.10.2015, the second respondent lodged a complaint alleging that the appellant had committed the offence of bigamy. The appellant filed an application under Section 482 of CrPC, which was dismissed by the High Court holding that it was highly disputed whether the appellant had entered into a marital tie with another person prior to the marriage with the complainant and whether the earlier marriage had ended in a valid divorce. Moreover, the High Court held that the appellant had not come up with a specific case that she was neither married earlier or that there was a divorce. Allowing the appeal, the Hon'ble supreme Court held that: -

"17….As between the appellant and the second respondent the issue as to whether she had a subsisting marriage on the date on which she entered into a marriage with the second respondent, had been conclusively decided by the Family Court, which has attained finality. Explanation (b) to Section 7(1) of the Family Courts Act 1984 expressly confers the Family Court with jurisdiction to determine the matrimonial status of a person. Thus, relying on the judgement of the Family Court which has jurisdiction to decide the gravamen of the offence alleged in the criminal complaint, would not be same as relying on evidentiary materials that are due for appreciation by the Trial Court, such as the investigation report before it is forwarded to the Magistrate.

Therefore, in this case, the Single Judge of the High Court was not justified in coming to the conclusion that the issue as to whether the appellant had a subsisting prior marriage was a 'highly contentious matter' which has to be tried on the basis of the evidence on the record.

19. The only contention raised in Rehana Begum (Supra) was regarding whether the appellant was already married at the time she married the second respondent and the issue as to whether she had a subsisting marriage on the date on which she entered into a marriage with the second respondent, had been conclusively decided by the Family Court, which had attained finality. In the present case, the complainant alleges harassment of his daughter for demanding a car, regarding which a finding can be returned only after the trial of the criminal case. Therefore, Rehana Begum, which was decided on the basis of the peculiar factual background, would not apply to the present case.

20. The learned Counsel for the applicants has next relied upon a judgment in the case of Seth Ramdayal Jat v. Laxmi Prasad, (2009) 11 SCC 545, in which it was held that: -

"20.It is now almost well settled that save and except for Section 43 of the Evidence Act which refers to Sections 40, 41 and 42 thereof, a judgment of a criminal court shall not be admissible in a civil suit. What, however, would be admissible is the admission made by a party in a previous proceeding.

21. The admission of the appellant was recorded in writing. While he was deposing in the suit, he was confronted with the question as to whether he had admitted his guilt and pleaded guilty of the charges framed. He did so. Having, thus, accepted that he had made an admission in the criminal case, the same was admissible in evidence. He could have resiled therefrom or explained away his admission. He offered an explanation that he was wrongly advised by the counsel to do so. The said explanation was not accepted by the trial court. It was considered to be an afterthought. His admission in the civil proceeding was admissible in evidence."

21. There can be no dispute against the aforesaid proposition of law, but that judgment was given in an appeal arising out of an order passed in a Second Appeal under Section 100 of the Civil Procedure Code and the question of scope of interference under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was not involved in that case. It is settled law that the questions of admissibility, relevancy or sufficiency of evidence cannot be decided while deciding an application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

22. The learned Counsel for the applicant has next relied upon a judgment in the case of Sardool Singh v. Nasib Kaur, 1987 Supp SCC 146, in which a civil suit between the parties was pending wherein the respondent was contending that no will had been executed whereas the contention of the appellants was that a will had been executed by the testator. A case for grant of probate was also pending. The civil court was seized of the question as regards the validity of the will. In view of these facts, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"At this juncture the respondent cannot therefore be permitted to institute a criminal prosecution on the allegation that the will is a forged one. That question will have to be decided by the civil court after recording the evidence and hearing the parties in accordance with law. It would not be proper to permit the respondent to prosecute the appellants on this allegation when the validity of the will is being tested before a civil court."

23. The aforesaid judgment was also given keeping in view the particular facts of the case and it does not lay down any general proposition of law of universal application. The question of commission of offence under Section 498-A involved in the present case, is not directly is issue in the appeal against divorce decree pending in this Court and, therefore, the pendency of the appeal will not give rise to a good ground for quashing of the criminal proceedings.

24. The learned Counsel for the applicants has submitted that there are some contradictions in the testimony of Surabhi recorded by the Family Court, but the value of her evidence will have to be assessed by the trial Court, where she can explain or even resile from her admission. The evidence recorded by the Family Court in the divorce suit, the decree passed wherein is under challenge in appeal filed before this Court, cannot give rise to a good ground for quashing the proceedings without trial.

25. The learned Counsel for the applicant next submitted that the allegations leveled in the FIR are false and the informant has converted the matrimonial disputes into a criminal case. He has relied upon the judgments in the case of Abhishek v. State of M.P., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1083, wherein it was observed that: -

"13.Instances of a husband's family members filing a petition to quash criminal proceedings launched against them by his wife in the midst of matrimonial disputes are neither a rarity nor of recent origin. Precedents aplenty abound on this score. We may now take note of some decisions of particular relevance. Recently, inKahkashan Kausar alias Sonamv.State of Bihar[(2022) 6 SCC 599], this Court had occasion to deal with a similar situation where the High Court had refused to quash a FIR registered for various offences, including Section498AIPC. Noting that the foremost issue that required determination was whether allegations made against the in-laws were general omnibus allegations which would be liable to be quashed, this Court referred to earlier decisions wherein concern was expressed over the misuse of Section498AIPCand the increased tendency to implicate relatives of the husband in matrimonial disputes. This Court observed that false implications by way of general omnibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial disputes, if left unchecked, would result in misuse of the process of law. On the facts of that case, it was found that no specific allegations were made against the in-laws by the wife and it was held that allowing their prosecution in the absence of clear allegations against the in-laws would result in an abuse of the process of law. It was also noted that a criminal trial, leading to an eventual acquittal, would inflict severe scars upon the accused and such an exercise ought to be discouraged."

26. The learned Counsel for the applicants has also relied upon a judgment in the case of Kahkashan Kausar v. State of Bihar, (2022) 6 SCC 599. In that case, the complainant was married to Md. Ikram on 18.09.2017. She filed a criminal complaint on 11-12-2017 against her husband and the appellants, who were her in-laws, alleging demand for dowry and harassment. The learned Magistrate found that upon perusal of material evidence no prima facie case was made against the in-laws and that the allegations levelled against them were not specific in nature and the Magistrate took cognizance for the offence under Sections 498-A, 323 IPC against the husband and summoned him only. This dispute was eventually resolved and the complainant came back to the matrimonial home.Subsequently, on 01.04.2019, the complainant lodged an FIR under Sections 341, 323, 379, 354, 498-A read with Section 34 IPC against her husband and his relatives alleging that all the accused persons were pressurising her to purchase a car as dowry and they threatened to forcibly terminate her pregnancy if the demands were not met. A Writ Petition filed by the husband and his relatives for quashing the FIR was dismissed. In appeal, the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to various precedents on the point and concluded that: - "17.The abovementioned decisions clearly demonstrate that this Court has at numerous instances expressed concern over the misuse of Section 498-A IPC and the increased tendency of implicating relatives of the husband in matrimonial disputes, without analysing the long-term ramifications of a trial on the complainant as well as the accused. It is further manifest from the said judgments that false implication by way of general omnibus allegations made in the course of matrimonial dispute, if left unchecked would result in misuse of the process of law. Therefore, this Court by way of its judgments has warned the courts from proceeding against the relatives and in-laws of the husband when no prima facie case is made out against them.

18.Coming to the facts of this case, upon a perusal of the contents of the FIR dated 1-4-2019, it is revealed that general allegations are levelled against the appellants. The complainant alleged that "all accused harassed her mentally and threatened her of terminating her pregnancy". Furthermore, no specific and distinct allegations have been made against either of the appellants herein i.e. none of the appellants have been attributed any specific role in furtherance of the general allegations made against them. This simply leads to a situation wherein one fails to ascertain the role played by each accused in furtherance of the offence. The allegations are, therefore, general and omnibus and can at best be said to have been made out on account of small skirmishes. Insofar as husband is concerned, since he has not appealed against the order of the High Court, we have not examined the veracity of allegations made against him. However, as far as the appellants are concerned, the allegations made against them being general and omnibus, do not warrant prosecution.

19.Furthermore, regarding similar allegations of harassment and demand for car as dowry made in a previous FIR Respondent 1 i.e. the State of Bihar, contends that the present FIR pertained to offences committed in the year 2019, after assurance was given by the husband Md. Ikram before the learned Principal Judge, Purnea, to not harass the respondent wife herein for dowry, and treat her properly. However, despite the assurances, all accused continued their demands and harassment. It is thereby contended that the acts constitute a fresh cause of action and therefore the FIR in question herein dated 1-4-2019, is distinct and independent, and cannot be termed as a repetition of an earlier FIR dated 11-12-2017.

20.Here it must be borne in mind that although the two FIRs may constitute two independent instances, based on separate transactions, the present complaint fails to establish specific allegations against the in-laws of the respondent wife. Allowing prosecution in the absence of clear allegations against the appellant in-laws would simply result in an abuse of the process of law.

21.Therefore, upon consideration of the relevant circumstances and in the absence of any specific role attributed to the appellant-accused, it would be unjust if the appellants are forced to go through the tribulations of a trial i.e. general and omnibus allegations cannot manifest in a situation where the relatives of the complainant's husband are forced to undergo trial. It has been highlighted by this Court in varied instances, that a criminal trial leading to an eventual acquittal also inflicts severe scars upon the accused, and such an exercise must, therefore, be discouraged."

27. Thus in Kahkashan Kausar (Supra) the Hon'ble Supreme Court had taken into consideration the entire facts and circumstances of the case, including the fact that earlier also an FIR was lodged on similar allegations, the allegations against the relatives of the husband could not be established in investigation and a charge-sheet was filed against the husband only and the complainant had entered into a settlement and resumed cohabitation with the husband. The second FIR was lodged without any specific allegations against the in-laws of the wife. The husband had not challenged the FIR. In view of these facts, it was held that allowing prosecution in the absence of clear allegations against the appellant in-laws would result in an abuse of the process of law. In the present case, it is the FIR alleges that the informant had spent Rs.15,00,000/- in the wedding and related ceremonies and he had given Rs.6,00,000/- in cash, besides several other valuable articles, the applicants had claimed that the applicant No.1 had done MBA from Birmingham University, which claim turned out to be false, the accused persons used to harass the informant's daughter for demanding a car. The accused persons had beaten up the informant's daughter on 21.12.2015, took away her stridhan and dropped her near the house of the informant in HAL campus at Korba, Munshi Gunj, District Amethi. The husband also seeks quashing of the proceedings. The ground for quashing is that the allegations are false and contrary to the findings recorded by the Family Court.

28. In Taramani Parakh v. State of M.P., (2015) 11 SCC 260, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"10.The law relating to quashing is well settled. If the allegations are absurd or do not make out any case or if it can be held that there is abuse of process of law, the proceedings can be quashed but if there is a triable case the court does not go into reliability or otherwise of the version or the counter-version. In matrimonial cases, the courts have to be cautious when omnibus allegations are made particularly against relatives who are not generally concerned with the affairs of the couple. We may refer to the decisions of this Court dealing with the issue.

11.Referring to earlier decisions, inAmit Kapoorv.Ramesh Chander(2012) 9 SCC 460, it was observed :

"27.1.Though there are no limits of the powers of the Court under Section 482 of the Code but the more the power, the more due care and caution is to be exercised in invoking these powers. The power of quashing criminal proceedings, particularly, the charge framed in terms of Section 228 of the Code should be exercised very sparingly and with circumspection and that too in the rarest of rare cases.

27.2.The Court should apply the test as to whether the uncontroverted allegations as made from the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith prima facie establish the offence or not. If the allegations are so patently absurd and inherently improbable that no prudent person can ever reach such a conclusion and where the basic ingredients of a criminal offence are not satisfied then the Court may interfere.

*27.3.The High Court should not unduly interfere. No meticulous examination of the evidence is needed for considering whether the case would end in conviction or not at the stage of framing of charge or quashing of charge.

*27.4.Where the exercise of such power is absolutely essential to prevent patent miscarriage of justice and for correcting some grave error that might be committed by the subordinate courts even in such cases, the High Court should be loath to interfere, at the threshold, to throttle the prosecution in exercise of its inherent powers.

27.5.Where there is an express legal bar enacted in any of the provisions of the Code or any specific law in force to the very initiation or institution and continuance of such criminal proceedings, such a bar is intended to provide specific protection to an accused.

27.6.The Court has a duty to balance the freedom of a person and the right of the complainant or prosecution to investigate and prosecute the offender.

27.7.The process of the court cannot be permitted to be used for an oblique or ultimate/ulterior purpose.

27.8.Where the allegations made and as they appeared from the record and documents annexed therewith to predominantly give rise and constitute a 'civil wrong' with no 'element of criminality' and does not satisfy the basic ingredients of a criminal offence, the court may be justified in quashing the charge. Even in such cases, the court would not embark upon the critical analysis of the evidence.

27.9.Another very significant caution that the courts have to observe is that it cannot examine the facts, evidence and materials on record to determine whether there is sufficient material on the basis of which the case would end in a conviction; the court is concerned primarily with the allegations taken as a whole whether they will constitute an offence and, if so, is it an abuse of the process of court leading to injustice.

*27.10.It is neither necessary nor is the court called upon to hold a full-fledged enquiry or to appreciate evidence collected by the investigating agencies to find out whether it is a case of acquittal or conviction.

27.11.Where allegations give rise to a civil claim and also amount to an offence, merely because a civil claim is maintainable, does not mean that a criminal complaint cannot be maintained.

*27.12.In exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 228 and/or under Section 482, the Court cannot take into consideration external materials given by an accused for reaching the conclusion that no offence was disclosed or that there was possibility of his acquittal. The Court has to consider the record and documents annexed therewith by the prosecution.

*27.13.Quashing of a charge is an exception to the rule of continuous prosecution. Where the offence is even broadly satisfied, the Court should be more inclined to permit continuation of prosecution rather than its quashing at that initial stage. The Court is not expected to marshal the records with a view to decide admissibility and reliability of the documents or records but is an opinion formed prima facie.

27.14.Where the charge-sheet, report under Section 173(2) of the Code, suffers from fundamental legal defects, the Court may be well within its jurisdiction to frame a charge.

27.15.Coupled with any or all of the above, where the Court finds that it would amount to abuse of process of the Code or that the interest of justice favours, otherwise it may quash the charge. The power is to be exercisedex debito justitiaei.e. to do real and substantial justice for administration of which alone, the courts exist.

27.16.These are the principles which individually and preferably cumulatively (one or more) be taken into consideration as precepts to exercise of extraordinary and wide plenitude and jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code by the High Court. Where the factual foundation for an offence has been laid down, the courts should be reluctant and should not hasten to quash the proceedings even on the premise that one or two ingredients have not been stated or do not appear to be satisfied if there is substantial compliance with the requirements of the offence.

* * *

14.From a reading of the complaint, it cannot be held that even if the allegations are taken as proved no case is made out. There are allegations against Respondent 2 and his parents for harassing the complainant which forced her to leave the matrimonial home. Even now she continues to be separated from the matrimonial home as she apprehends lack of security and safety and proper environment in the matrimonial home. The question whether the appellant has in fact been harassed and treated with cruelty is a matter of trial but at this stage, it cannot be said that no case is made out. Thus, quashing of proceedings before the trial is not permissible."

(Emphasis Supplied)

29. The learned Counsel for the applicants next submitted that the allegations levelled are false and this fact is established from documentary evidence, which has not been made a part of the case diary in spite of the same having been provided to the Investigating Officer. He has further stressed upon the Court that this contention has not been denied by the Investigating Officer himself by filing an affidavit and it has been denied by the Superintendent of Police.

30. In this regard, it is to be considered firstly that while deciding an Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking quashing of the criminal proceedings, this Court is not expected to consider and scrutinize the material relied upon in defence and only this much has to be seen as to whether a case for trial of the accused is made out by the allegations levelled in the complaint / FIR and the material collected by the prosecution Secondly, the Superintendent of Police is a responsible superior officer and his personal affidavit cannot be doubted by this Court to the extent that it may give rise to a ground for quashing of the proceedings.

31. The learned Counsel for the applicant has also relied upon a judgment in the case of Rajaram Sharma versus State of U.P., Criminal Appeal No. 63 of 2024. In that case, the appeal was allowed and the proceedings were quashed after recording a satisfaction that the ingredients necessary to constitute the offences under Sections 420, 406, 504 and 506 IPC were not made out, whereas it is not so in the present case.

32. Daughter of the informant has filed First Appeal No. 936 of 2021 in this High Court sitting at Allahabad challenging the decree of divorce granted by the Family Court and, therefore, the findings of the Family Court have not yet attained finality. Although an interim order dated 29.11.2021 was passed in First Appeal No. 963 of 2021 staying the operation and effect of the judgment/decree of divorce dated 21.10.2021, the appellant No.1 has performed a second marriage. When the entire facts and circumstances of the case are scrutinized keeping in view this conduct of the applicant no. 1, in light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Taramani Parakh (Supra), it appears that the uncontroverted allegations as made from the record of the case prima facie establish the offence. This Court cannot take into consideration the materials relied upon by the accused persons for reaching the conclusion that no offence was disclosed or that there was possibility of his acquittal. The Court has to consider the record and documents annexed therewith by the prosecution. This Court cannot unduly interfere by examining the evidence meticulously for considering whether the case would end in conviction or not at the stage quashing of charge. The allegations taken constitute a case for trial of the applicants and the criminal proceedings are not an abuse of the process of court leading to injustice.

33. In view of the aforesaid discussion, there is no good ground to quash the proceedings of the criminal case against the applicants. The application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. lacks merits and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1186
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 17.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 9084 of 2023
AND
Application u/s 482 No. 10202 of 2023

Alok Mitra Jaiswal & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Shiv Prakash Dwivedi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Ajai Kumar, Vivek Kumar Rai

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section 482 – Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 120-B, 420, 465, 466, 467, 468 & 471 - Two applications under Section 482 Cr.P.C.—seeking quashing of the charge-sheet, summoning order, and entire criminal proceedings—arose from the same criminal case. In the first application, although the St. filed a counter affidavit, it was not pressed. The Court observed that, - (i) procedural directions were issued across multiple dates, including orders for affidavit filings and personal appearances of deponents; maintainability concerns emerged as the affidavit was sworn by someone other than the applicant, resulting in repeated adjournments due to counsel's illness. Despite objections from the St. and private respondents, interim protection was extended - (ii) a civil suit for permanent injunction between the parties remains pending, and the petitioners argued the dispute is civil in nature, sought quashing of criminal proceedings - (iii) the petitioners are deliberately suppressed the material facts from the court, including the existence and restoration of a previously dismissed writ petition with extended interim protection, despite the filing of the charge-sheet and issuance of cognizance and summons - held - litigants who attempts to pollute the stream of justice or who touches the pure fountain of justice with tainted hands, is not entitled to any relief, interim or final - Accordingly, both applications were dismissed – however, liberty was granted to the aged petitioner to surrender and seek bail, which the trial court shall consider expeditiously under Section 437 Cr.P.C., & ors. petitioners may file discharge applications, which must be adjudicated strictly in accordance with law through reasoned and speaking orders.

(Para – 10, 11, 15, 16, 17, 19, 21, 23, 24, 25)

Applications are Dismissed. (E-11)

List of referred Cases: -

1. Mohammed Ibrahim & ors. Vs St. of Bihar & anr. reported in [(2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 929],

2. Pratibha Vs Rameshwari Devi, (2007) 12 SCC 369,

3. K.D Sharma Vs Steel Authority of India Limited & ors., (2008) 12 SCC 481,

4. Dalip Singh Vs St. of U.P.& ors., (2010) 2 SCC 114

5. In K. Jayaram & ors. Vs Bangalore Development Authority & ors., (2022) 12 SCC 816,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Jyotindra Mishra, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Shiv Prakash Dwivedi, learned counsel for the petitioners in Crl. Misc. Case No. 9084 of 2023 (u/s 482 Cr.P.C.), Sri Rao Narendra Singh and Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA for the State as well as Sri Vivek Kumar Rai, learned counsel for private opposite party no. 2.

2. Heard Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai, learned counsel for the petitioner in Crl. Misc. Case No. 10202 of 2023 (u/s 482 Cr.P.C.), Sri Rao Narendra Singh and Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA for the State as well as Sri Vivek Kumar Rai, learned counsel for private opposite party no. 2.

3. Notably, both the aforesaid cases arise out of the same criminal proceedings, therefore, with the consent of the parties, both the petitions are decided together.

4. In the case of Alok Mitra Jaiswal and others, [Crl. Misc. Case No. 9084 of 2023 (u/s 482 Cr.P.C.)]. though learned AGA has filed counter affidavit but he is not pressing the same making request that the present matter may be decided on the basis of material available on record and also on the basis of arguments so advanced by learned counsel for the parties.

5. Since learned AGA has not pressed his counter affidavit, therefore, the opportunity to file rejoinder affidavit to learned counsel for the petitioners is not given.

6. By means of aforesaid petition bearing Crl. Misc. Case No. 9084 of 2023 (u/s 482 Cr.P.C.), the petitioners have prayed the following relief:

"Wherefore, it is most humble prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly be pleased to quash the impugned cognizance order dated 11.08.2023 as well as Chargesheet No. 01/dated-09.08.2023 in case crime No. 0298/2023, Under Section-120-B, 420, 465, 466, 467, 468, 471 I.P.C., Criminal Case No. 7812/2023, bearing name State V/S Alok Mitra & Others, Police Station- Kotwali Nagar, Distt-Sultanpur which is passed by Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No. 16, District-Sultanpur in the interest of justice.

It is further prayed that the further proceeding in pursuance to the impugned Cognizance order dated 11.08.2023 as well as Charge sheet No. 01/dated-09.08.2023 in case crime no. 0298/2023, Under Section- 120-B, 420, 465, 466, 467, 468, 471 I.P.C. Criminal Case No. 7812/2023, bearing name State V/S Alok Mitra & Others, Police Station-Kotwali Nagar, District Sultanpur which is passed by Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No. 16, District-Sultanpur be stayed during the pendency of petition before this Hon'ble Court."

7. By means of aforesaid petition bearing Crl. Misc. Case No.10202 of 2023 (u/s 482 Cr.P.C.), the petitioner has prayed the following relief:

"to quash the entire criminal proceedings including charge sheet of criminal case no. 7812 of 2023 relating to case crime no. 298 of 2023, under Section 120-B, 420, 465, 466, 467, 468 & 471 IPC of Police Station Kotwali Nagar, District Sultanpur, pending in the court of learned C.J.M., Sultanpur, in the interest of justice.

It is further most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble court may graciously be pleased to stay the further proceedings of criminal case no. 7812 of 2023 relating to case crime no. 0298 of 2023, under section 120-B, 420, 465, 466, 467, 468 & 471 IPC, of Police Station Kotwali Nagar, District-Sultanpur, pending in the court of learned C.J.M. Sultanpur, pending in the court of C.J.M. Sultanpur, till the final disposal of this petition, in the interest of justice."

8. In the case of Alok Mitra Jaiswal and Others, this Court has passed the order dated 19.09.2023 which reads as under:

"Sri Vivek Kumar Rai and Sri Ajai Kumar, advocates, have put in appearance by way of filing vakalatnama on behalf of opposite party no. 2 and the same is taken on record.

Office is directed to print the name of Sri Vivek Kumar Rai and Sri Ajai Kumar as counsels for opposite party no. 2, on the next date of listing.

Learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 submits that he will file counter affidavit within a period of two weeks.

A week time thereafter, shall be available to counsel for the applicants to file rejoinder affidavit, if any.

List/put up this matter in the week commencing 30.10.2023."

9. In the case of Achchhe Lal Jaiswal, this Court has passed the orders dated 19.12.2023, 08.01.2024 and 10.01.2024 which respectively read as under:

"1. Counter affidavits filed by learned A.G.A. for the State and learned counsel for the private respondent are taken on record.

2. Heard Mr. S.P. Gupta, learned counsel for the applicant, learned counsel for the private respondent and learned A.G.A. for the State.

3. Learned A.G.A. informs that the present petition/application is filed by Achchhe Lal Jaiswal s/o late Ram Adhar Jaiswal r/o B-8-9, Sector- 1, Devendra Nagar, City Center Mall, District- Rapur, Chhattisgarh and in support the present petition/application, the affidavit is filed by Varun Jaiswal s/o Alok Mitra Jaiswal, Aadhar Card No. 263220760644, r/o Village, Alahdadpur, Lohramau By-pass Road, N.H. 56, Police Station- Kotwali Dehat, Sultanpur which is not maintainable as in the criminal cases, it is obligatory on the part of applicant that affidavit should be filed by him.

4. Mr. S.P. Gupta, who appears on behalf of applicant, informs that Mr. Ashok Kumar Bajpai, learned counsel for the applicant is arguing counsel in the present case. He requests that due to illness of Mr Ashok Kumar Bajpai, the matter may be listed on some other date.

5. Accordingly, the above request/prayer is allowed.

6. List this case on 08.01.2024 within top ten cases.

7. On the next date, deponent shall appear in person before this Court.

8. On the next date, learned counsel for the applicant will explain this fact that why the affidavit of applicant is not filed. In case, the counsel for the applicant fails to assist the court then the interim order shall be vacated automatically.

9. In the meantime, learned counsel for the applicant may file rejoinder affidavit.

10. Interim order, granted earlier vide order dated 18.10.2023, shall continue till the next date of listing."

***

"1. Heard Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Rao Narendra Singh and Sri Anirudh Kumar Singh, learned AGA for the State and Sri Vivek Kumar Rai, learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2.

2. In terms of the order of the Court the deponent is present before the Court.

3. On the request of learned counsel for the parties, list / put up on 10.1.2024 within top ten cases.

4. Interim order to continue till the next date of listing.

5. The deponent shall again appear in person in terms of the order of the Court."

***

"Heard Ms. Kadambani Lal, Advocate holding brief of Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai, learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Rao Narendra Singh and Mr. Anirudh Kumar, learned AGA for the State and Sri Vivek Kumar Rai, learned counsel for opposite party no.2.

In terms of the order dated 08.01.2024 the deponent namely Varun Jaiswal son of Alok Mitra Jaiswal is present in person.

Ms Kadambani Lal has filed supplementary affidavit on behalf of the petitioner, the same is taken on record. The petitioner is a deponent in the aforesaid supplementary affidavit and has stated the reason, in paragraph 3, as to why he could not file the affidavit at the time of filing this petition.

Ms Kadambani Lal has stated that her senior Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai is ill today, therefore he could not come to the Court. She has requested for short adjournment of the present case on the ground of illness of her senior. However, learned AGA for the State as well as learned counsel for the private party have raised strong objections on the aforesaid request by submitting that after the interim order having been granted in favour of the petitioner, the case is being adjourned on the request of learned counsel for the petitioner for one reason or another. They have drawn the attention of this Court towards the order dated 19.12.2023, on that date the case was adjourned on the illness of Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai.

Vakalatnama reveals that alongwith Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai, the vakalatnama has also been signed by Sri Abhishek Kumar, Sri Belal Ahmad, Ms. Kadambani Lal and Surendra Prasad Gupta.

Considering the request of Ms. Kadambani Lal the case is adjourned for today.

List this case on 17.01.2024 alongwith application under Section 482 bearing No.9084 of 2023, in the additional cause list as first case. This case shall be taken up immediately after fresh cases. Learned counsel for the parties may make mention of this case for taking out of turn. It is made clear that this case shall not be adjourned on the next date and if Sri Ashok Kumar Bajpai does not recover by the next date, any other counsel may address the Court.

Interim order to continue till the next date of listing."

10. In the petition of Achchhe Lal Jaiswal (supra), it has been indicated in Para 9 that the co-accused Alok Mitra Jaiswal and Smt. Pramila Jaiswal have filed a Regular Suit in the nature of permanent injunction bearing Regular Suit No. 421 of 2016 against the petitioner and opposite party no. 2 and others alongwith injunction application, in which learned Civil Judge (Senior Division), Court no. 15, Sultanpur has granted injunction vide order dated 15.02.2023 (Annexure No. 3). However, in the petition of Achchhe Lal Jaiswal, the deponent is one Varun Jaiswal S/o Alok Mitra Jaiswal.

11. The learned counsel for the petitioners in both the petitions have stated that their Regular Suit is pending consideration before the Civil Court and the issue in question is civil in nature, therefore, till disposal of the aforesaid Civil Suit, the impugned criminal proceedings may be quashed and set aside. In support of his argument, Sri Jyotindra Mishra, learned Senior Advocate has drawn attention of this Court towards the judgement of Apex Court rendered in the case of Mohammed Ibrahim and Others Vs. State of Bihar and Another reported in [(2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 929], wherein the Apex Court has observed that criminal courts should ensure that proceedings before it are not used for settling scores or to pressurize parties to settle civil dispute, therefore, the present petition may be allowed.

12. Learned counsel for opposite parties have raised strong objection against the aforesaid affidavit by saying that when Achchhe Lal Jaiswal, the petitioner has not authorized Sri Varun Jaiswal to file the petition before this Court how can Varun Jaiswal who is son of rival party, namely, Alok Mitra Jaiswal may swear the affidavit on behalf of Achchhe Lal Jaiswal. Though, Achchhe Lal Jaiswal has filed an affidavit clarifying the position that when the petition was to be filed before this Court on 06.10.2023, he was running ill, therefore on his instructions, Varun Jaiswal has sworn the affidavit on his behalf. However, learned counsel for the opposite parties have stated that the direction may be issued to verify the signatures of Achchhe Lal made on Vakalatnama and also the signatures made on subsequent affidavit, inasmuch as both the signatures are apparently different and as per their information, Achchhe Lal Jaiswal is a patient of Alzheimer so he could have not authorized Varun Jaiswal to swear the affidavit on his behalf.

13. Since I am disposing of this petition at the admission stage, therefore, I am not going into those contentions of the opposite parties. Learned counsel for the opposite parties have stated that Alok Mitra Jaiswal and his wife has filed a Regular Suit against Achchhe Lal Jaiswal, on the basis of one unregistered Will-deed which has been prepared on the plain papers. The aforesaid Will-deed is a forged and fictitious document, inasmuch as after lodging the FIR to the effect that appropriate investigation has been conducted by the Investigating Officer and on the basis of material and on the basis of evidence collected during the investigation, the chargesheet has been filed against the petitioners in both the petitions.

14. Learned counsel for the opposite parties have also stated that at the time of filing the Regular Suit in the year, 2016, the copy of the Will-deed has not been filed before the court concerned but obtained the order of status-quo, however the photostat copy of such Will-deed has been filed before the court concerned on 15.02.2023 as 12-ga 1/1, as has been shown in second paragraph of the internal page 7 of the interim order dated 15.02.2023 passed by Civil Judge (Senior Division), court no. 15, Sultanpur. Learned counsel for the opposite parties has also stated that the Division Bench of this Court in Crl. Misc. Writ Petition No. 3559 of 2023 (Alok Mitra @ Alok Jaiswal and 3 others Vs. State of U.P. and 3 others) has granted interim protection to the petitioners to the effect that till filing of the chargesheet, the petitioners shall not be arrested. The aforesaid writ petition was dismissed on 18.08.2023 for want of prosecution. Thereafter, the petitioners filed C.M. Application No. 2 of 2023 seeking recall of the order dated 18.08.2023 and restoration of the writ petition in its original number. The aforesaid application was taken up on 13.09.2023 and this Court recalled its order dated 18.08.2023 and restored the writ petition to its original number, issuing notice to private opposite party and extended the interim order till the next date of listing.

15. Learned counsel for the opposite parties have further stated that after getting the interim order recalled and writ petition restored on 13.09.2023, the petitioners filed the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. bearing no. 9084 of 2023 before this Court challenging the chargesheet wherein the counter affidavit and rejoinder affidavit have been called for. Learned counsel for the opposite parties have further submitted that in the aforesaid criminal case, the chargesheet was filed on 09.08.2023, learned trial court took cognizance and issued summons on 11.08.2023. The aforesaid charagesheet and summoning order dated 11.08.2023 have been challenged by the petitioner in the aforesaid petition no. 9048 of 2023, therefore, it is clear that the petitioners were aware that the chargesheet has already been filed and cognizance has already been taken on 11.08.2023, therefore, the writ petition bearing Crl. Misc. Writ Petition No. 3559 of 2023 has already lost its efficacy but the petitioners got the aforesaid writ petition restored and got the interim order extended. They have further submitted that when the petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was filed wherein the order dated 19.09.2023 was passed, the writ petition before the Division

Bench was already pending wherein there was stay order in favour of the petitioner. Learned counsel for the opposite parties have stated with vehemence that the aforesaid fact has not been disclosed in the present petition filed by Alok Mitra Jaiswal and others.

16. On being confronted, the learned counsel for the petitioners in Re; Alok Mitra Jaiswal (supra) as to why the aforesaid relevant material fact has not been disclosed before the Court, learned counsel for the petitioner has casually stated that due to inadvertence and bonafide mistake, he could not disclose this fact before this Court.

17. Having heard, learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record and having regard the judgment in Re: Mohammed Ibrahim (supra), so cited by Sri Jyotindra Mishra, learned Senior Advocate, I am of the considered opinion that if the civil disputes in certain cases have contained ingredients of criminal offences, such dispute have to be entertained notwithstanding, they are also a civil dispute. Para 8 of the judgment of Mohammed Ibrahim (supra) is reproduced herein-below:

"This Court has time and again drawn attention to the growing tendency of complainants attempting to give the cloak of a criminal offence to matters which are essentially and purely civil in nature, obviously either to apply pressure on the accused, or out of enmity towards the accused, or to subject the accused to harassment. Criminal courts should ensure that proceedings before it are not used for settling scores or to pressurise parties to settle civil disputes. But at the same, it should be noted that several disputes of a civil nature may also contain the ingredients of criminal offences and if so, will have to be tried as criminal offences, even if they also amount to civil disputes. [See: G. Sagar Suri v. State of U.P. [2000 (2) SCC 636] and Indian Oil Corporation vs. NEPCIndia Ltd. [2006 (6) SCC 736]. Let us examine the matter keeping the said principles in mind."

18. Hon'be Apex Court in the judgment rendered in Pratibha v. Rameshwari Devi, (2007) 12 SCC 369, has held that:

"it is well settled that criminal and civil proceedings are separate and independent and the pendency of a civil proceeding cannot bring to an end a criminal proceeding even if they arise out of the same set of facts."

19. Since in the petition of Alok Mitra Jaiswal (supra), the fact has not been disclosed that earlier the aforesaid petitioners have filed a writ petition before this Court and have been granted interim protection and that the aforesaid writ petition was dismissed for want of prosecution, the petitioners got the order dated 18.08.2023 recalled and the writ petition was restored to its original number and got the interim order extended, whereas by that time the chargesheet had been filed, cognizance had been taken and summons had been issued. Not only the above, challenging the aforesaid chargesheet, cognizance order and summoning order, the petitioners filed another petition i.e. instant petition before this Court without disclosing the fact that their one writ petition before the Division Bench is pending and interim order has been extended. Even in Para 1 of the petition, they have stated that they have not filed any petition before this Court either at Allahabad or Lucknow and they further declared that this is the first petition on behalf of the petitioners against the cause of action.

20. The aforesaid conduct of the petitioners is a deliberate and intentional concealment of facts. In K.D Sharma Vs. Steel Authority of India Limited and others, (2008) 12 SCC 481, Supreme Court held that no litigant can play "hide and seek" with the courts or adopt "pick and choose". To hold a writ of the court one should come with candid facts and clean breast. Suppression or concealment of material facts is forbidden to a litigant or even as a technique of advocacy.

21. The Apex Court in Dalip Singh Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and others, (2010) 2 SCC 114 came down heavily on unscrupulous litigants by holding that it is now well established that a litigant who attempts to pollute the stream of justice or who touches the pure fountain of justice with tainted hands, is not entitled to any relief, interim or final.

22. In K. Jayaram and others Vs. Bangalore Development Authority and others, (2022) 12 SCC 816, Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under:

"It is necessary for us to state here that in order to check multiplicity of proceedings pertaining to the same subject-matter and more importantly to stop the menace of soliciting inconsistent orders through different judicial forums by suppressing material facts either by remaining silent or by making misleading statements in the pleadings in order to escape the liability of making a false statement, we are of the view that the parties have to disclose the details of all legal proceedings and litigations either past or present concerning any part of the subject-matter of dispute which is within their knowledge. In case, according to the parties to the dispute, no legal proceedings or court litigations was or is pending, they have to mandatorily state so in their pleadings in order to resolve the dispute between the parties in accordance with law.

In the instant case, since the appellants have not disclosed the filing of the suit and its dismissal and also the dismissal of the appeal against the judgment of the civil court, the appellants have to be non-suited on the ground of suppression of material facts. They have not come to the court with clean hands and they have also abused the process of law. Therefore, they are not entitled for the extraordinary, equitable and discretionary relief."

23. In view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, I do not find any infirmity or illegality in the impugned chargesheet, cognizance order and summoning order, therefore, I hereby dismiss both the aforesaid petitions.

24. Needless to say that if the petitioners of both the petitions appear/surrender before the learned court below and file their bail application, the same may be disposed of with expedition without giving any unnecessary adjournment to the prosecution. Further, I find it appropriate to observe here that since Sri Achchhelal Jaiswal (supra) is said to have suffering from various ailments and he is an old aged person, so his bail application may be considered and disposed of by learned court below with expedition in the light of the provisions of Section 437 Cr.P.C.

25. It is also needless to say that if the petitioners of both the petitions file their discharge application, taking all pleas and grounds available to them, the said application shall be decided strictly in accordance with law by affording opportunity of hearing to the parties concerned and that order must be speaking and reasoned order so that it could be understood that the learned trial court has applied its judicious mind.

26. Both the petition under Sections 482 Cr.P.C. are hereby dismissed.

27. No order as to costs.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1194
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 03.08.2023

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE GAJENDRA KUMAR, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 9360 of 2009

Mohd. Muslim ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Imran Ullah, Sri Vineet Vikram

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Approval of gang chart without proper discussion and consideration by District Magistrate and Superintendent of Police - The Code of criminal procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 420, 406, The Uttar Pradesh Gangster and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986 - Section 2/3 - Criminal Law Amendment Act - Section 7, The Uttar Pradesh Gangster and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Rules, 2021 - Rule No. 5,7,13,16 and 17. (Para - 19,20,21)

(B) The Uttar Pradesh Gangster and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986 - two essential ingredients to constitute a gang - 'violence' or 'disturbance of public order' - indulged in by a group of persons, acting either singly or collectively, for the purpose of pecuniary gain etc. - violence or disturbance of public order alone are not the sine qua non of a gang as defined under the Act of 1986. (Para - 7,14)

Applicant and co-accused allegedly acquired land from a Scheduled Caste person without permission and intimidated others - Unauthorized land sale - False claims of land ownership and layout approval - Failure to provide receipts for payments - Refusal to refund and threats - DM approved gang chart without proper discussion or recording reasons - No specific offenses disturbing public order or committed for financial gain were mentioned (Rule 13) - Quick action was taken, violating Gangster Rules, 2021, and Article 21 of Indian Constitution - process was mechanical and malicious, depriving applicants of liberty - Procedural compliance is crucial in Gangster Act cases to prevent abuse of power.(Para - 3,19,20,21)

HELD: - Authorities should have considered legal basis and justification when preparing and approving gang-charts under the 1986 Act. They paid lip service to the legislative mandate, conducting the process as a ritualistic formality without due application of mind. This led to a civil dispute relating to land being interpreted as criminality, and Section 2/3 of the Gangster Act being added to the criminal case. The initiation and continuation of criminal proceedings were deemed persecution and harassment, amounting to abuse of the law and court process. Entire proceedings quashed against applicant. (Para -22,23)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. A.K. Dixit Vs St. of U.P., 1987 (34) ACC 164: 1987 ACTR 230: AIR 1987 (All) 235 (All HC, FB)

2. V. Shukla Vs St. of U.P., 2019 (1) ARC 299

3. S. Gupta Vs St. of U.P., (2019) 1 A.Cr.R. 2

4. A.K. Dixit Vs St. of U.P., 2007 (2) ACC 683

5. Alld. Parvez Vs St. of U.P., 2021 Crl.J. 4034 (All)(LB)

6. S. Gupta Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2022) 17 S.C.R. 622 (Para 10) (635-B-G)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Gajendra Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vineet Vikram, learned counsel for the applicant and learned AGA for the State-respondents.

2. The instant Application U/S 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the applicants for quashing the entire proceedings pending in the court of learned Special Judge (Gangster Act), Allahabad in Case No.97/08, under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 420, 406 IPC and Section 2/3 of Gangster Act.

3. The facts of the case in brief are as follows:

FIR of this case has been lodged by opposite party no.2 (Mohd. Arif) against the applicant and other co-accused persons on 16.06.2007 at 08:10 p.m., in case crime no.113/07 under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 406, 420, 34 IPC and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, Police Station-Kareli, District-Allahabad. The allegation against the applicant and other accused persons is that they have formed a society and were doing plotting work by the name of Alina City and were taking plots for the purpose of sale and they were involved in taking advance money. It is also alleged that first informant also made contact with the society in its office. He was informed that the land in the name of the society and its lay out has been passed and all the documents are perfect. He took plot having area of 200 sq. yard at Rs.1000/- per sq. yard. It's total cost was Rs.2 lakhs. The first informant was assured that after deposit of the total amount of Rs.2 lakhs, its sale deed shall be executed in favour of the first informant. As the first informant was not having the total amount of Rs.2 lakhs, it was settled that the amount shall be paid in three installments. Thereafter, he deposited the total amount of Rs.75,000/- within six months prior lodging the FIR. No receipt of payment was given and after some time, the first informant knew that the alleged land was belonging to the Scheduled Caste person and no permission of sale was obtained from the District Magistrate, but after intimidation, the land was acquired by the applicant and other co-accused persons. It's lay out was also not passed by the Competent Authority. Thereafter, first informant changed his idea in purchasing the land and demanded the money but the same was not returned and he was extended threat for dire consequences.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the applicant that complainant had lodged the FIR due to pressure of police and after registration of FIR, he had given an application to the I.G. Zone, Allahabad on 12.06.2007 (Annexure-9), in which he had prayed to expunge the FIR lodged by him on 10.06.2007.

5. It is further contended by the learned counsel for the applicant that when no action was taken on the aforesaid application, the complainant filed a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India bearing Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.8187 of 2007 before this Court for quashing the impugned FIR registered as case crime No.113 of 2007, under Sections

147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 420/34, 406 IPC and 7 Criminal Law Amendment Act. with the grounds as follow-

"I) Because, the petitioner is the first informant of the First Information Report in question and he himself disowns the allegations made therein.

ii) Because, the First Information Report is a bundle of concoction and preposterous allegations and the petitioner never intended to lodge any report against the accused arrayed in the First Information Report.

Iii) Because, the petitioner do no want to be used as an instrument in the hands of police for the harassment of innocent persons to appease the person in chair.

iv) Because the written report, which is the basis of the First Information Report was extorted from the petitioner under threat and coercion and he did not willfully submitted the same to the police to register a case thereon.

v) Because, the impugned First Information Report is clear cut case of gross abuse of process of law and is liable to be quashed with awarding heavy costs."

6. It is further contended that the arrest of the applicant was stayed vide order dated 16.07.2007 by a Division Bench of this Court in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No.7933 of 2007. It is further submitted that amount in question has already been paid by the main accused (Abrar Ahmad) to the complainant and on that basis, he (Abrar Ahmad) was granted bail by this Court vide order dated 04.10.2007 in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.7933 of 2007. It is further submitted that applicant has no concern with the alleged society and he has been falsely implicated in this case, which is mentioned in the Gang-chart (Annexure-5) at Sl. No.5 bearing case crime No.113 of 2007, under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 406 420, 34 IPC and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act and Section 2/3 of U.P. Gangster and Anti-social Activities (Prevention) Act, Police Station-Kareli, District-Allahabad. The same is reproduced here-in-under respectively:-

GANG-CHART

आपराधिक इतिहास	अच्छे S/o मो० मिया R/o 95B/ 5 चकिया P.S.खुल्दावाद	रफत उल्ला S/o रहमत उल्ला R/o 79 चकिया P.s खुल्दावाद	मो० इमराम S/o मो० जर्हा R/o 207 चकिया P.s खुल्दा.	शेख अकरार अहमद S/o स्व० फरीद अहमद R/o 114 मालवीय नगर P.s मुट्ठीगंज	मो० मुस्लिम S/o मो० मिया R/o चकिया P.sखुल्दाबाद	हमजा उस्मान S/oउस्मान R/o 106 मेंहदौरी P.sशिवकुटी
113/07 U/s 147,148,323, 504,506,406, 420,34 IPC व 7 क्रि०ला० ए.एक्ट P.S.करेली	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
53/01 U/s 307 IPC P.S.कैंट	✓	✓
91/01 U/s 147,148,149, 386,504,506, 384,448,427, 482,352,34 IPC व 7क्रि०ला० ए.ऐक्ट	✓	✓

P.s धूमनगंज
27/01 U/s 147,148,149, 352,386,504, 506,323,365 IPC व 3(1) Sc/ST Act न 2/3 गैगेस्टर एक्ट शाहगंज	✓	✓
89/01 U/s 395,397,448, 387, IPC व 7 क्रि.ला. एक्ट 2/3 गैंगस्टर P.S.सिविल लाइन	✓	✓
253/02 U/s 147,148,149, 452,330,304, 506 IPC व 2/3 गै० एक्ट P.S.धूमनगंज इला०	✓	✓
311/02 U/s 467,468,471, 420,506,384, 387 IPC व 2/3 गै. एक्ट P.s धूमनगंज इला०	✓	✓
110/01 U/s 307 IPC P.S.शिव कुटी	✓	✓
NCR No. 1/01 U/s 323,504 IPC P.S.शिव कुटी	✓	✓

6. It is submitted that I.O. has submitted chargesheet against the five accused persons having added offence of Section 2/3 of Gangster Act. It is apparent that without forwarding/ recommending/approval of the gang-chart from the authorities concerned, the chargesheet under the aforesaid section was submitted. The summary appended to the charge-sheet is as follows:-

Sir, case above was registered and investigated so far; place of occurrence was inspected; witnesses acquainted with the circumstances of the case were examined; statement of the plaintiff was also recorded; having observed all the documentary evidence against the accused persons as shown in the coloumn No.3, Mohd. Imran and others, prima facie case under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 420, 447 IPC and Section 2/3 of Gangster Act is proved. Accused as shown in coloumn No.2, Hamza Usman is absconding and against the other five accused chargesheet have been submitted and against the absconding accused, namely, Hamza Usman, chargesheet will be submitted after his arrest and prayed for summoning the witnesses/evidence. It is also submitted that in chargesheet, there is no violation of provisions of the Gangster Act disclosed.

7. It is submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the applicants, that even if all allegations in the impugned FIR and charge-sheet are regarded as true, no case under Sections 3(1) of the Act of 1986 is made out against the applicants. In order to support the aforesaid submission, learned counsel has referred to the provisions of the gangster Act of 1986. He submits that there are two essential ingredients to constitute a gang. The two essential ingredients, according to learned counsel for the applicants, are 'violence' or 'disturbance of public order' indulged in by a group of persons, acting either singly or collectively, for the purpose of pecuniary gain etc.

8. It is the learned counsel for the applicants' submission that none of the offences charged against the applicant, either involves violence or the disturbance of public order. Therefore, even if there be allegations about pecuniary gain, the consequences under the Act of 1986 would not be attracted. He next submits that there are three base cases registered against the applicant no.1 and there is only one base case registered against the applicant nos.2 to 5, on the foot of which the present prosecution has been launched under Section 3(1) of the Act of 1986. But, in each of those crimes, the applicants have already been enlarged on bail by the court concerned. Therefore, in the submission of the learned counsel, the base cases are not available to provide foundation to the prosecution to pursue the present case under the Act of 1986. It is in the last submitted by the learned counsel for the applicant that there is violation of Rule No. 5, 7, 13, 16 and 17 of The Uttar Pradesh Gangster and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Rules, 2021, vitiating the gang-chart. He has emphasized that non-adherence to these rules has vitiated the basis of registration of the crime and a fortiori the police report and the prosecution. He has emphatically submitted that violation of the aforesaid rule is not mere omission but it shows that the proceedings before registering FIR has been carried out mechanically without giving heed to the provisions of law and rules, which are of fundamental importance as any false and malacious prosecution entails serious consequances resulting into the deprivation of life and personal liberty of the accused person, which cannot be deprived except for the procedure established by law as is enshrined in the Article 21 of the Constitution of India. The forwarding, recommending and approving authorities have not paid any heed or attention to relevant law and rules, while exercising their authority with regard to the preparation and approval of the gang-chart. The whole exercise on their part has been carried out without application of mind.

9. In response to the notice issued to respondents, a counter affidavit was filed which is duly sworn by Prakash Singh Yadav, presently posted as Sub-Inspector, Police Station-Kareli, District-Allahabad, in which all the allegations and averments made in the affidavit filed in support of the application under section 482 cr.p.c. have been totally denied and it is asserted that after thoroughly investigation, charge-sheet was submitted and applicant has formed a gang and is indulged in comitting crime to grab the property of the innocent persons.

10. In response to the counter affidavit filed by the opposite parties, rejoinder affidavit was filed in which, the allegations and averments made in the counter affidavit were denied.

11. On the other hand, learned AGA vehemently opposed the aforesaid contentions and submits that applicant is a members of the gang, which is involved in committing the anti-social activities and crimes for pecuniar and temporal gains.

12. Upon hearing learned Counsel for the parties, this Court is of opinion that in order to consider the submissions of learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned counsel for the State, it is imperative to refer to the relevant provoisions of the Act of 1986, which reads as follows:

As the Act being a special statute- The Act is a special statute which has been enacted for the prevention of and for coping with gangsterism and anti-social activities. The Object and reasons as well as preamble are quoted hereinbelow:-

Objects and reasons of the Act:-

Gangsterism and anti-social activities influenced the State Legislature in making introduction of such Act. The objects and reasons of the Act are that gangsterism and anti-social activities were on the increase in the state posing threat to lives and properties of the citizens. The existing measures were not found effective enough to cope with new menace. With a view to break the gangs by punishing the gangsters and to nip their conspirational designs, it was considered necessary to make special provision for the prevention of and for coping with gangsters and anti-social activities in the State. [Ashok Kumar Dixit v. State of U.P., 1987 (34) ACC 164: 1987 ACFR 230 AIR 1987 (All) 235 (All HC, FB)].

Preamble of Act.-The Act seeks to punish declared criminals who have deliberately chosen the life of crime. The activities of these professional perpetrators of organised crimes, violence and orgy has a far more baneful effect on the health and morals of the society and its people. If the activities of such recidivist are subjected to same punishment as that other ordinary criminals, the confidence of public in the efficacy and efficiency of State Administration is bound to shake. [Ashok Kumar Dixit v. State of U.P., 1987 (34) ACC 164: 1987 ACTR 230: AIR 1987 (All) 235 (All HC, FB)].

13. It is important to refer to the relevant provisions of the Act of 1986, which reads as follows:-

"2. Definitions.--In this Act,--

(a) x x x

(b) "Gang" means a group of persons, who acting either singly or collectively, by violence, or threat or show of violence, or intimidation, or coercion or otherwise with the object of disturbing public order or of gaining any undue temporal, pecuniary, material or other advantage for himself or any other person, indulge in anti-social activities (Act no. 2 of 1974), namely--

(i) offences punishable under Chapter XVI, or Chapter XVII, or Chapter XXII of the Indian Penal Code (Act no. 45 of 1860), or

(ii) distilling or manufacturing or storing or transporting or importing or exporting or selling or distributing any liquor, or intoxicating or dangerous drugs, or other intoxicants or narcotics or cultivating any plant, in contravention of any of the provisions of the U.P. Excise Act, 1910 (U.P. Act no. 4 of 1910) or the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 or any other law for the time being in force, or

(iii) occupying or talking possession of immovable property otherwise than in accordance with law, or setting-up false claims for title or possession of immovable property whether in himself or any other person, or (Act no. 61 of 1985)

(iv) preventing or attempting to prevent any public servant or any witness from discharging his lawful duties, or

(v) offences punishable under the Suppression of Immoral Traffic in Women and Girls Art, 1956, or

(vi) offences punishable under section 3 of the Public Gambling Act, 1867 (Act no. 104 of 1956), or

(vii) preventing any person from offering bids in auction lawfully conducted, or tender, lawfully invited, by or on behalf of any Government department, local body or public or private undertaking for any lease or right or supply of goods or work to be done, or

(viii) preventing or disturbing the smooth running by any person of his lawful business profession, trade or employment or any other lawful activity connected therewith, or

(ix) offences punishable under section 171-E of the Indian Penal Code, or in preventing or obstructing any public election being lawfully held, by physically preventing the voter from exercising his electoral rights, or

(x) inciting others to resort to violence to disturb communal harmony, or

(xi) creating panic, alarm or terror in public, or

(xii) terrorising or assaulting employees or owners or occupiers of public or private undertakings or factories and causing mischief in respect of their properties, or

(xiii) inducing or attempting to induce any person to go to foreign countries on false representation that any employment, trade or profession shall be provided to him in such foreign country, or

(xiv) kidnapping or abducting any person with intent to extort ransom, or

(xv) diverting or otherwise preventing any aircraft or public transport vehicle from following its scheduled course;

(xvi) offences punishable under the Regulation of Money Lending Act, 1976;

(xvii) illegally transporting and/or smuggling of cattle and indulging in acts in contravention of the provisions in the Prevention of Cow Slaughter Act, 1955 and the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1960;

(xviii) human trafficking for purposes of commercial exploitation, bonded labour, child labour, sexual exploitation, organ removing and trafficking, beggary and the like activities;

(xix) offences punishable under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1966;

(xx) printing, transporting and circulating of fake Indian currency notes;

(xxi) involving in production, sale and distribution of spurious drugs;

(xxii) involving in manufacture, sale and transportation of arms and ammunition in contravention of Sections 5, 7 and 12 of the Arms Act, 1959;

(xxiii) felling or killing for economic gains, smuggling of products in contravention of the Indian Forest Act, 1927 and Wildlife Protection Act, 1972;

(xxiv) offences punishable under the Entertainment and Betting Tax Act, 1979;

(xxv) indulging in crimes that impact security of State, public order and even tempo of life.

(c) "gangster" means a member or leader or organiser of a gang and includes any person who abets or assists in the activities of a gang enumerated in clause (b), whether before or after the commission of such activities or harbours any person who has indulged in such activities;

14. A perusal of the aforesaid provisions shows that violence or disturbance of public order alone are not the sine qua non of a gang as defined under the Act of 1986. It postulates a group of persons, who either acting singly or collectively, employ violence, or threat or show of violence, or intimidation, or coercion, "or otherwise' with the object of (i) disturbing public order; (ii) or of gaining any undue temporal, pecuniary, material; or other advantage for himself or any other person, indulge in anti-social activities, enumerated in clauses (i) to (xxii) of sub-Section (b) of Section 2 of the Act of 1986.

15. It is a well settled cannon of statutory interpretation that a statute should be read and understood according to its plain grammatical meaning, unless that construction leads to an absurd result, or defeats the object and the very purpose of it.

16. Learned counsel for the applicants has also drawn attention towards the mandatory compliance with the provisions of Rule 5, 13, 16 and 17 of the Rules of 2021 framed under the Act of 1986. These Rules have been made by the State Government in exercise of powers under Section 23 of the Act of 1986 to carry out its purposes. Rules 5, 13, 16 and 17 are extracted below:

"5. General Rules.--(1) To initiate proceedings under this Act, the concerned In-charge of Police Station/Station House Officer/Inspector shall prepare a gang chart mentioning the details of criminal activities of the gang.

(2) The gang-chart will be presented to the district head of police after clear recommendation of the Additional Superintendent of Police mentioning the detailed activities in relation to all the persons of the said gang.

(3) The following provisions shall be complied with in respect of gang-charts--

(a). The gang-chart will not be approved summarily but after due discussion in a joint meeting of the Commissioner of Police/District Magistrate/Senior Superintendent of Police/Superintendent of Police.

(b). There may be no gang of one person but there may be a gang of known and other unknown persons and in that form the gang-chart may be approved as per these rules.

(c). The gang-chart shall not mention those cases in which acquittal has been granted by the Special Court or in which the final report has been filed after the investigation. However, the gang-chart shall not be approved without the completion of investigation of the base case.

(d). Those cases shall not be mentioned in the gang-chart, on the basis of which action has already been taken once under this Act.

(e). A separate list of criminal history, as given in Form No.--4, shall be attached with the gang-chart detailing all the criminal activities of that gang and mentioning all the criminal cases, even if acquittal has been granted in those cases or even where final report has been submitted in the absence of evidence.

Along with the above, a certified copy of the gang register kept at the police station shall also be attached with the gang-chart. In addition to the above, the information of crime and gang members mentioned in the gang-chart will also be updated on Interoperable Criminal Justice System (ICJS) portal and Crime and Criminal Tracking Network System (CCTNS).

13. Specific statement of offences committed for economic, material and temporal or similar other benefits.- While writing the abstract below the gang-chart and particulars separately with the gang-chart, the particulars of those offences shall be specifically mentioned:

(I) which have been committed for pecuniary, materialistic and temporal or similar benefits; or

(ii) which disturb the public order; or

(iii) which are a ground for detention under the National Security Act, 1980 (Act No.65 of 1980).

16. Forwarding of Gang-Chart.--

The following manner shall be followed in the forwarding of Gang-Chart:

(1) Forwarding of the gang-chart by the Additional Superintendent of Police:- The Additional Superintendent of Police will not only take a quick forwarding action in the case but he will duly peruse the gang-chart and all the attached forms; and when it is satisfied that there is a just and satisfactory basis to pursue the case, only then will he forward the letter along with the recommendation given below on the gang-chart to the Superintendent of Police/Senior Superintendent of Police.

'Throughly studied the gang-chart and attached evidence. The basis of action under the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986 exists. Accordingly, forwarded with recommendation."

(2) Forwarding of the gang-chart by the district police in-charge:- When the gang-chart along with all the Forms is received by the Senior Superintendent of Police/Superintendent of Police with the clear recommendation of the Additional Superintendent of Police, he will also thoroughly analyse all the facts and when it is confirmed that all the formalities of the Act have been fulfilled and there is a legal basis for taking action in the case, then he should forward the gang-chart to the Commissioner of Police/District Magistrate stating that: "I have duly perused the gang-chart and attached forms and I am fully satisfied that all the particulars mentioned in the case are correct and there is a satisfactory basis for taking action under the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986. Accordingly, approved."

(3) Resolution of the Commissioner of Police/District Magistrate:- When the gang-chart is sent to the Commissioner of Police/District Magistrate along with all the Forms, all the facts will also be thoroughly perused by the Commissioner of Police/District Magistrate and when he is satisfied that the basis of action exists in the case, then he will approve the gang-chart stating therein that: "I duly perused the gang-chart and attached Forms in the light of the evidence attached with the gang-chart satisfactory grounds exist for taking action under the Uttar Pradesh Gangsters and Anti-Social Activities (Prevention) Act, 1986. The gang-chart is approved accordingly."

It is noteworthy that the words written above are only illustrative. There is no compulsion to write the same verbatim but it is necessary that the meaning of approval should be the same as the recommendations written above, and it should also be clear from the note of approval marked.

17. Use of independent mind.--

(1) The Competent Authority shall be bound to exercise its own independent mind while forwarding the gang-chart.

(2) A pre-printed rubber seal gang-chart should not be signed by the Competent Authority; otherwise the same shall tantamount to the fact that the Competent Authority has not exercised its free mind."

17. Thus from perusal of the Rules, all that is required by Rules is that the Authorities recommending registration of a case under the Act of 1986 should come to the conclusion with an independent application of mind that a case under the Act of 1986 ought to be registered. Likewise, the Authorities approving the gang-chart also should come to the conclusion on an independent application of mind that a case under the Act of 1986 ought to be registered against the accused on the basis of the activities of the gang. However there is no prescription for the employment of particular words to serve as index of due application of mind.

18. It will be apt to take note of what has been held and observed by the Apex Court as well as the High Court with regard to the interpretation and application of the various provisions of the Act.

Status of criminal, not punishable- It is not the status of criminal, but the act which is made punishable. The activities of gangsters are offence under the Act since they pose grave threat to the even tempo of the society and, therefore, call for sterner and more deterrent punishment and speedier trial and early booking. (Ashok Kumar Dixit Vs. State of U.P.; 1987 (34) ACC 164).

The person who not liable to be punished- A person is not liable to be punished under the Act merely because he happens to be a member of a group. He comes within the clutches of the Act, when he chooses to join a group which indulges in any anti-social activities defined under the Act with use of force for gaining material and advantage to himself or any other person. (Ashok Kumar Dixit Vs. State of U.P.; 1987 (34) ACC 164).

Duty of the State to protect personal liberty of its citizens- Duty of State to protect personal liberty of its citizens, the State is duty bound to protect personal liberty of its citizens beyond doubt which is fundamentally guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India (Vimal Shukla Vs. State of U.P.; 2019 (1) ARC 299).

Necessity of deeper application of mind- The imposition of Gangsters Act calls for a deeper application of mind and the satisfaction of the authorities must be based on a definite opinion against an accused person. (Shubhankar Gupta Vs. State of U.P.; (2019) 1 A.Cr.R. 2)

Caution for misuse of the provisions- The provisions of the Act cannot be used as a weapon to wreck vengeance or harass or intimidate innocent citizens or to settle scores on political or other fronts. The prosecution has to bear in mind that it has to bring home the guilt. (Ashok Kumar Dixit Vs. State of U.P.; 2007 (2) ACC 683 Alld.)

Judicial scrutiny of the subjective satisfaction- In Gangster Act, a subjective satisfaction is open to limited judicial scrutiny, therefore, it would be wrong to contend that there is a complete embargo on the powers of Court to look at the sufficiency of the ground from any perspective. [Parvez Vs. State of U.P.; 2021 Crl.J. 4034 (All)(LB)].

There can be prosecution for single offence/FIR/chargesheet- On a fair reading of the definitions of 'Gang' contained in Section 2(b) and 'Gangster' contained in Section 2(c) of the Gangsters Act, a 'Gangster' means a member or leader or organiser of a gang including any person who abets or assists in the activities of a gang enumerated inclause (b) of Section 2, who either acting singly or collectively commits and indulges in any of the anti-social activities mentioned in Section 2(b) can be said to have committed the offence under the Gangsters Act and can be prosecuted and punished for the offence under the Gangsters Act. There is no specific provision under the Gangsters Act, 1986 like the specific provisions under the Maharashtra Control of Organized Crime Act, 1999 and the Gujarat Control of Terrorism and Organized Crime Act, 2015 that while prosecuting an accused under the Gangsters Act, there shall be more than one offence or the FIR/charge sheet. As per the settled position of law, the provisions of the statute are to be read and considered as it is. Therefore, considering the provisions under the Gangsters Act, 1986 as they are, even in case of a single offence/FIR/charge sheet, if it is found that the accused is a member of a 'Gang' and has indulged in any of the anti-social activities mentioned in Section 2(b) of the Gangsters Act, such as, by violence, or threat or show of violence, or intimidation, or coercion or otherwise with the object of disturbing public order or of gaining any undue temporal, pecuniary, material or other advantage for himself or any other person and he/she can be termed as 'Gangster' within the definition of Section 2(c) of the Act, he/ she can be prosecuted for the offences under the Gangsters Act. Therefore, so far as the Gangsters Act, 1986 is concerned, there can be prosecution against a person even in case of a single offence/FIR/chargesheet for any of the anti-social activities mentioned in Section 2(b) of the Act provided such an anti- social activity is by violence, or threat or show of violence, or intimidation, or coercion or otherwise with the object of disturbing public order or of gaining any undue temporal, pecuniary, material or other advantage for himself or any other person. [Shraddha Gupta Vs. State of U.P. and others; (2022) 17 S.C.R. 622 (Para 10)(635-B-G)].

19. Considering the instant case in the light of the provisions of the Act and relevant Rules, it is evident that the gang chart in this case has been approved summarily without due discussion in the joint meeting of District magistrate and Superindentent of police, as is apparent from the perusal of the gang chart. Furthermore there is no specific mention of offences which have been committed for pecuniar, materialistic and temporal or similar benefits or which disturb the public order as per Rule 13. Furthermore, quick forwarding action has been taken in this case without caring for the compliance of the relevant rules. There should be satisfaction recorded to the effect that there is just and legal basis for taking action under the Act and there is satisfactory basis for persuing the case. The satisfaction so recorded should be there by using the mind independently but in the instant case the same is missing.

20. Considering the aforesaid submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties as well as perusal of records, it is evident from the records that at the time of approving the gang-chart, District Magistrate did not apply his mind as no reasons are recorded by him, resultantly, the lodging of FIR under Gangster Act is with malafide intention, in violation of the Gangster Rules, 2021, which shows that forwarding/ recommencing authorities as well as approving authority acted mechanically and the whole exercise lacks application of mind on the parts of the authorities concerned. The applicant has fundamental right to life which include to live with honour and dignity and fundamental right of under Article 21 of the Constitution of India cannot be interferred with lightly. The applicants have been deprived of their liberty by the mechanical excecise/procedure undertaken on the part of the authorities concerned.

21. The procedural compliance in cases of gangster Act is of utmost importance, departure from the due process of law will give chance and provide fodder to the vested interests with singular agenda to spread false narratives. Verily, gangsterism poses an ominious threat to public order. Vile and abhorrent acts of gangsterism do evoke collective societal anger and anguish. While the war against gangsterism must be waged by the State with unwavering resolve but a civil democratic society can ill afford sacrificing the procedural safeguards legislatively provided, and which is an integrated facet of the due process of law, at the altar of perceived peril to public order.

"The Siren Song that the 'end justifies the means', and that the procedural safeguards are subdervient to the overwhelming need to ensure that the accused is prosecuted and punished, must be muzzled by voice of Rule of Law."

22. For all the reasons recorded above, the court is of the view that at the stage of preparing and approving the gang-chart on the basis of materials placed, the competent Authorities should have satisfied themselves that there is a legal basis and justifiction for taking and persuing action against the accused under the Act of 1986. At the stage of approval of the gang-chart, the approving Authority has to be satisfied that a case for action under the Act of 1986 is made out and that satisfaction should be reflected from the gang chart and other records. But in this case, the competent authorities, unhesitatingly just paid lip service to the legislative mandate and unfortunately had undertaken the whole exercise of preparation and approval of the gang chart as a ritualistic formality without due application of mind. Thus, civil dispute relating to land has been given colour of criminality and to add insult to injury, in the course of investigation, Section 2/3 of Gangster Act has been added in the criminal case that is unnecessarily given shape of act of gangsterism and anti social activities on the part of police and admistrative authorities. the initiation and continuation of the entire criminal proceedings is persecution and harassment of the accused , amounting to be sheer abuse of process of law as well as abuse of process of court, that is in order to sotherwise ensure the ends of justice is liable to be quashed.

23. In such view of the matter, the entire proceedings pending in the court of learned Special Judge (Gangster Act), Allahabad in Case No.97/08, in case crime no.113/07 under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506, 420, 406 IPC and Section 2/3 of Gangster Act is, hereby, quashed against the applicant (Mohd. Muslim).

24. The application is, accordingly, allowed.

25. A copy of this order be certified to the lower court forthwith.

(2024) 2 ILRA 1205
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH LAVANIA, J.

Application u/s 482 No. 10136 of 2023

Kamlesh Singh & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Dhirendra Pratap Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:

G.A., Shishir Pradhan

(A) Criminal Law - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 482 - Inherent power, Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 148, 149 & 302 - Magistrate can summon the accused even if his name does not find place in Column (2) - High Court should exercise its power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. sparingly, only in rare cases, and with due care and caution - High Court should refrain from undue interference, avoiding meticulous examination of evidence - Interference is warranted only to prevent patent miscarriage of justice or correct grave errors Court must balance individual freedom with the prosecution's right to investigate and prosecute - Quashing a charge is an exception, and the High Court should prioritize permitting prosecution over quashing proceedings at the initial stage. (Para - 32 ,36)

FIR was lodged alleging murder - charge sheet prepared but not filed due to interim order passed in writ petition - case was transferred to CBCID - which filed a new charge sheet - sufficient material was available before Magistrate for summoning all accused. (Para - 28,29)

HELD: - Magistrate/Court has not committed any illegality in summoning the accused-applicant(s). Two accused expired during trial trial. Court to proceed matter expeditiously. (Para - 33,38)

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. dismissed. (E-7)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hasanbhai Valibhai Qureshi Vs St. of Guj. & ors., (2004) 5 SCC 347

2. Vinay Tyagi Vs Irshad Ali @ Deepak & ors., (2013) 5 SCC 762

3. Nahar Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr., (2022) 2 SCC (Cri) 328

4. CBI Vs Aryan Singh Etc., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 379

5. Supriya Jain Vs St. of Har. & anr., (2023) 7 SCC 711

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Lavania, J.)

1. Third application for Interim relief filed in the Court today, is taken on record.

2. Heard Sri Dhirendra Pratap Singh, learned counsel for the applicants, Sri Anirudha Kumar Singh, learned AGA for the State and Sri Shishir Pradhan, Advocate, learned counsel for the opposite party No.2.

3. By means of instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Kamlesh Singh and Bhagauti Singh, have approached this Court impeaching the order dated 27.03.2023 passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.9, Raebareli (in short "C.J.M.") in Case No.8528 of 2020 and have also assailed the order dated 30.09.2023 passed by the Additional District and Sessions Judge-II, Raebareli (in short "revisional court") in Criminal Revision No.139 of 2023 as also the Charge Sheet No.369 dated 12.11.1992, Charge Sheet No.49 dated 26.11.1998 and Charge Sheet No.49A dated 12.04.2001, arising out of Case Crime No.373 of 1991 under Sections 147, 148, 149 & 302 IPC, P.S.-Kotwali, District-Raebareli.

4. Vide impugned order dated 27.03.2023, C.J.M. took cognizance against all the accused persons and abated the proceedings against Ashok Kumar Singh and Akhilesh Singh on account of the fact that during pendency of the trial these accused were expired.

5. Vide order dated 30.09.2023 the revisional court dismissed the Criminal Revision No.139 of 2023, which was filed assailing the order dated 27.03.2023 passed by the C.J.M.

6. Brief facts, which are relevant for the purposes of disposal of present application, are to the effect that after lodging of an FIR dated 27.07.1991 of murder of Iqbal Haider Raza implicating Akhilesh Singh, Kamlesh Singh, Ashok Singh (in documents on record name of the accused is also indicated as Ashok Kumar Singh) and Bhagauti Singh, the local police started the investigation. The investigation subsequently was transferred to CBCID from local police on 01.08.1991, as indicated in the application. Thereafter, investigation was again transferred from CBCID to local police on 15.10.1991. The order of transferring the investigation from CBCID to local police was assailed before this Court by means of Writ Petition No.3523 (M/B) of 1991, which was subsequently dismissed as not pressed vide order dated 01.10.1992. After dismissal of aforesaid writ petition on 01.10.1992, Charge Sheet No.369 dated 12.11.1992 was prepared by the local police, however, the same was not filed before the trial Court on account of interim order dated 13.11.1992 passed in Writ Petition No.4672 (M/B) of 1992 and this Court provided liberty to CBCID to investigate the case. After the order of this Court dated 13.11.1992, the local police on 26.07.1997 sent the entire documents/case diary to CBCID and thereafter, the CBCID started the investigation on 23.05.1998 and after due investigation, the CBCID submitted the Charge Sheet No.49 dated 26.11.1998 before the competent court of jurisdiction upon which the cognizance was taken on 02.12.1998.

7. At this stage, this Court finds it appropriate to reproduce the relevant contents of the Parcha No.25/Charge Sheet dated 26.11.1998, as available on record (Annexure No.10), which reads as under:-

"अब तक की की तमामी विवेचना से संकलित साक्ष्य के आधार पर अभियुक्त अखिलेश सिंह पुत्र धुन्नी सिंह कमलेश सिंह पुत्र धुन्नी सिंह अशोक सिंह पुत्र देवेन्द्र सिंह निवासी लालूपुर चौहान थाना महाराजगंज एवं भगवती सिंह पुत्र श्री देवी बक्स सिंह निवासी पूरे आदमपुर थाना महाराजगंज जनपद रायबरेली के विरूद्ध दिनांक 27 जुलाई 91 को श्री इकबाल हैदर रजा को रात्रि 8:30 बजे उनके घर में दरवाजा खुलवाकर गोली मारकर हत्या करने का अपराध प्रथम दृष्टिया धारा 147 148 149 302 भारतीय दंड विधान के अंतर्गत प्रथम दृष्टिया होना सिद्ध है अभियुक्त अखिलेश सिंह व कमलेश सिंह के विरूद्ध दिनांक12 नवंबर 92 को स्थानीय पुलिस द्वारा माह फरवरी में आरोप पत्र संख्या 369 दिनांक 12 नवंबर 92 को प्रेषित किया गया विवेचना से ताईद एवं तस्दीक की जाती है।

अभियुक्त अशोक कुमार सिंह पुत्र देवेंद्र सिंह उर्फ छोटे लाल सिंह निवासी ग्राम लालपुर चौहान थाना महाराजगंज एवं भगवती सिंह पुत्र देवी बक्स सिंह ग्राम पुरे गोसाई माजरा आदमपुर थाना महाराजगंज जिला रायबरेली के विरूद्ध इकबाल हैदर रजा की हत्या करने और प्रथम दृष्टिया सिद्ध होने के फलस्वरूप धारा 147 148 149 302 भारतीय दंड विधान के अंतर्गत आरोप पत्र प्रेषित।

विवेचना समाप्त की जाती है"

8. The earlier part of above quoted Charge Sheet dated 26.11.1998 indicates that therein Investigating Officer (in short "I.O.") specifically observed that after due investigation, prima facie, offence of murder of Iqbal Haider Raza is made out against accused Akhilesh Singh, Kamlesh Singh, Ashok Singh and Bhagauti Singh and thereafter confirmed and verified the Parcha No.369/Charge Sheet dated 12.11.1992, which was with regard to two accused namely Akhilesh Singh and Kamlesh Singh, the same reads as under:-

"श्रीमान जी से निवेदन है कि दि० 27.7.91 को वादी मुकदमा खाना नं०1 श्री नदीम इकबाल पुत्र श्री इकबाल रजा हैदर के मकान स्थित मो० दक्षिणी जहानाबाद थाना कोतवाली रायबरेली पर लगभग 8.30 बजे रात मुल्जिमान खाना नं०3 मय अपने साथियों मुल्जिमान खाना नं०2 के साथ एक राय होकर सस्त्रों से सुसज्जित पुरानी दुश्मनी के कारण उसके माकन पर पहुंचे और वादी के पिता श्री इकबाल रजा हैदर पुत्र श्री हाजी अब्दुल गफूर को फायर करके गोलियों से मौके पर ही जान से मार डाले। मुल्जिमान वादी व गवाहान द्वारा मौके पर बिजली की रोशनी में देखे व पहचाने वादी की तहरीरी सूचना पर दिनांक 27.7.91 को 21.30 बजे थाना स्थानीय पर मुल्जिमान के विरूद्ध अभियोग पंजीकृत हुआ। विवेचना की गयी। विवेचना से बयानात गवाहान, निरीक्षण घटनास्थल, नतीजा PM से मुल्जिमान के विरूद्ध जुर्म धारा 147/148/149/302 IPC बनता है। अस्तु गिरफ्तार न होने

कारण चालान मफरूरी में किया जाता है। गवाहान सबूत तलब करके इनके विरूद्ध कार्यवाही करने की कृपा की जाय।"

9. From a conjoint reading of contents of the FIR and the above quoted portion(s) of the Charge Sheet(s) dated 26.11.1998 and 12.11.1992, it is apparent that all the accused committed crime against whom the FIR was lodged namely Akhilesh Singh, Kamlesh Singh, Ashok Singh and Bhagauti Singh and therefore in the earlier part of Charge Sheet dated 26.11.1998 the I.O. in specific terms indicated that the Charge Sheet dated 12.11.1992 is confirmed and verified and thereafter in later part of Charge Sheet dated 26.11.1998 the I.O. indicated the names of accused namely Ashok Singh and Bhagauti Singh, against whom the Charge Sheet was not prepared earlier.

10. It is evident from the above quoted portion of Charge Sheet dated 26.11.1998 that I.O. has not indicated therein that the sufficient material/evidence is not available against accused namely Akhilesh Singh and Kamlesh Singh.

11. It would further be relevant to indicate that vide order dated 02.12.1998 the cognizance was taken by the C.J.M. against all the accused persons. The order dated 02.12.1998 on reproduction reads as under:-

"आज आरोप पत्र अन्तर्गत आ० सं० 373/91, धारा 147, 148, 149, 302 भा०द०वि०, थाना-कोतवाली, रायबरेली के अभियुक्तगण अशोक सिंह व भगौती सिंह, अखिलेश कुमार सिंह व कमलेश के विरूद्ध, C.B.C.I.D. द्वारा प्राप्त हुआ। पढ़ा। आदेश हुआ कि प्रसंज्ञान किया गया। दर्ज रजिस्टर हो। नकलें बनवायी जायें। दि० 10.12.98 के वास्ते आदेश पेश हों।"

12. The order dated 02.12.1998 was assailed by means of Criminal Revision No.6 of 1999. This revision was filed by all the accused namely Kamlesh Singh, Akhilesh Singh, Bhagauti Singh and Ashok Singh. The revisional Court allowed the revision vide order dated 11.05.1999 and remanded the matter back to the C.J.M. for re-consideration in the light of the observation made in the order dated 11.05.1999. The observation being relevant, as pointed by the learned counsel for the applicants, on reproduction, reads as under:-

"As said above, the chargesheet, in which cognizance has been taken, only two accused are named, namely, Ashok singh and Bhagauti Singh, and in the other Charge Sheet Akhilesh Kumar Singh and Kamlesh Singh are accused and Ashok Singh and Bhagauti Singh are named as suspected accused. The subsequent chargesheet (paper no.5Ka/3) is neither duly filed in the court by the investigating agency nor cognizance has been taken by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Raebareli, but all the four accused, mentioned above, have been summoned. In the circumstances, aforementioned, there appears to be material irregularity in exercise of Jurisdiction and it does not appear that mind has been applied by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rae Bareli on paper no. 5Ka/3 aforementioned.

In view of the aforementioned circumstances, the case deserves to be sent back for reconsideration by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rae Bareli. The learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rae Bareli, shall make enquiry as to who scored out the signature and date on paper no. 5Ka/3 and thereafter, after applying his mind on paper no.5Ka/3 (chargesheet) and its validity, he shall pass necessary orders. The revisions are directed to appear and object before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rae Bareli, and if they do so, their submission shall be considered.

ORDER

The revision is allowed and order impugned is set aside. The case is sent back to the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Rae Bareli for reconsideration in the light of observations made above."

13. After the aforesaid direction of the revisional Court dated 11.05.1999, the trial Court passed the order of cognizance dated 02.05.2005. This order was again assailed by the accused persons namely Kamlesh Singh, Akhilesh Singh, Bhagauti Singh and Ashok Kumar Singh by preferring the Criminal Revision No.118 of 2005. The revisional Court again interfered in the order of cognizance dated 02.05.2005 and remanded the matter back to the trial Court for re-consideration vide its order dated 07.12.2005. The observation made by the revisional Court in its order dated 07.12.2005 indicates that while taking cognizance in the matter vide order dated 02.05.2005 the concerned Court failed to take note of observations made by the revisional court in its earlier order dated 11.05.1999.

14. After the aforesaid order dated 07.12.2005, the C.J.M. by the impugned order dated 27.03.2023 took cognizance. The relevant portion of the impugned order dated 27.03.2023 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"On perusal of case diary parcha number 5 the special secretary Home UP Lucknow in case Crime number 373/91 U/S 147/148 and 149/302 IPC Reg at PS Kotwali District Raebareli entrusted to CID for investigation. The investigation by local police was stayed and the copy for compliance was sent to the state official dated August 1st 1991. On perusal of case diary the investigation was forwarded to the concerned and the investigation was closed by the local police. Meanwhile the charge sheet was filed by the local police but on perusal it was not filed by in consonance with section 158 CRPC. Later on two charge sheet were filed by CBCID naming four accused as above mentioned. By one order of this court the Cognizance was again taken but it was reverted back for rehearing giving direction above mentioned for reconsideration and set aside the order passed by this court.

Section 460 of CRPC clearly States about the irregularities which do not vitiate proceeding in which mere irregularities in taking Cognizance can be caused.

Now coming on the fact of several charge sheet filed both by local police and CBCID. When due investigation was transferred to CBCID in 1991 and CBCID after investigation file two Charge sheet naming all the four accused. Firstly CBCID has filed charge sheet naming two accused and later on supplementary cahrgesheet naming other 2 accused.

The charge sheet filed by the local police in mere irregularities and it may not be taken in account because the whole investigation was transferred to CB CID and later on CBCID has filed their Charge sheet naming all the four accused.

The Honorable Allahabad High Court in case application under section 482 CrPC number 12578 of 2021 Badri Prasad and 3 others vs. State of UP and another; has stated that "at a stage where it is to be decided as to whether process should be issued, the magistrate would not be required to enter into a detailed discussion on merits or demerits of the case and it would suffice if the evidence led by the complainant in support of the allegation is taken into consideration and determining the question whether any process is to be issued or not, what the magistrate has to be satisfied is whether there is sufficient ground for proceeding and not whether there is sufficient grounds for conviction."

The Honorable court has stated a distinction drawn between taking Cognizance based upon charge sheet filed by the police under section 190 (1) (b) of the code and taking Cognizance based on a complaint under section 190 (1) (a). As for Cognizance based on a police report is concerned, the magistrate would have the advantage of the charge sheet, statement of witnesses and other evidence collected by the police during the investigation. The fact that after investigation of the case, the police has filed a charge sheet along with the material thereon, may be considered as sufficient ground for proceeding for issuance of summon under section 204 of the code.

Thus, coming to the conclusion of this court, the investigating agency in this case is CBCID and CBCID has filed chargesheet against all the accused. Perused all the document filed by CBCID and this court finds that there are sufficient material and evidence against the accused for proceeding and taking Cognizance and issuance of process against all the accused. The charge sheet filed by local police is mere irregularity and was cured subsequently by filing chargesheet by CBCID. The matter is grave in nature and oldest and this court is of no view for further delaying the case only based on technical grounds. There is sufficient ground for issuance of process against accused.

Order

Cognizance against all the accused is taken by this court under section 147/148/149/302 of IPC in the light of direction given by the Revisional court. The accused have knowledge as the legal representative are arguing and objecting on Cognizance. Thus, issuance of B.W. of 10000 against two accused. Two of the accused have expired during this stage and the proceeding has abated against them by the previous order of the court. Issue Bailable warrant 10000 against Kamlesh Singh and Bhagauti Singh. Case is put up on 21.4.23."

