(i) As far as delay in lodging of the FIR is concerned, the first informant disclosed in the FIR itself that he was too busy in the treatment of his only son whose condition was critical, therefore, he could not lodge the FIR in time. In his examination-in-chief he also deposed that a written Tehrir was scribed on 22.02.2008 by his grandson Dumpi P.W.2, but as he was busy in the treatment of his only son, therefore, he modified the date of the Tehrir as 25.02.2008 and then gave it at the police station, on the basis of which the FIR was registered on 26.02.2008. The incident took place on 21.02.2008 at about 06:00 P.M. and the written report (Exhibit Ka-1) was given on 25.02.2008. The FIR (Ex. Ka. 15) was lodged on 26.02.2008 at 12:10 AM. As per the version of PW-1, he took the injured from Bijnor to Meerut and then to Delhi for his treatment. His son remained unconscious throughout and later died while returning from Delhi on 26.02.2008. It is only after his death that he lodged an FIR. In the cross-examination, the said witness deposed that, after the incident, he went to the Police Station alongwith his injured son Harvansha. The concerned Police Officer advised him that he should first rush for the treatment of his son, therefore, the FIR was not lodged at that very moment. Even from the medical examination report (Exhibit Ka-9), it clearly shows that Harvansha was medically examined within two hours from the time of the incident on 21.02.2008 at District Hospital, Bijnor at 9:00 pm. Thereafter his son was referred to Meerut Hospital and then to Delhi. Finally while returning from Delhi, his son died on 26.02.2008.

(ii) Another contention of the defence that no blood stained earth was found at the spot is also false and baseless. P.W.1 Ram Singh deposed that when he came out of his room and reached the spot he saw his son lying on a cot in a pool of blood. P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi also deposed that at the time of marpeet, the blood was oozing out from the head of Harvansha which fell on the ground. The Investigating Officer should have recovered the blood stained earth from the spot but as in the instant matter, the FIR was lodged after 3-4 days of the incident i.e. 26.02.2008 and thereafter, the Investigating Officer went to the spot for inspection where no blood stained earth was found. Though P.W.-8 S.I. Ghanshyam Tyagi, Investigating Officer deposed that he inspected the spot at the instance of the first informant but still he could not collect any blood stained earth indicates the lapses on the part of the Investigating Agency. The eyewitness account P.W.1 Ram Singh, P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi and P.W.4 Smt. Rajo clearly deposed that the accused Dharampal and other co-accused entered into their premises and assaulted Harvansha with tabbal, lathi and danda due to said marpeet, Harvansha fainted and finally succumbed to death due to the said injuries.

(iii) The next contention of the defence that P.W.2 and P.W.4 were not mentioned as a witnesses in the charge sheet but were subsequently produced and examined as prosecution witnesses is also a baseless submission and does not belie the prosecution story as P.W.1 in his examination-in-chief deposed that P.W.2 and P.W.4 were present at the spot. Even if they were not mentioned in the FIR or in the charge sheet as eyewitnesses but were examined subsequently as prosecution witnesses, will not support the defence version or disproof the prosecution case. An FIR is not an encyclopedia which may include each and every detail of the incident. It is also not sine qua non that each and every witness has to be mentioned in the charge sheet. There is no hard-and-fast rule that all the witnesses particularly eyewitnesses should be indicated in the FIR. It cannot be denied that the incident took place inside the premises of P.W.1 Ram Singh, therefore, the presence of the said witnesses (P.W.2 and P.W.4) at the spot, is not doubtful and they are the natural witnesses. The accused Dharampal could not produce any credible evidence which may deny the presence of P.W.1 Ram Singh at the spot.

(iv) So far as contradictions and discrepancies in the statement of the witnesses are concerned, the defence version that P.W.1 Ram Singh reached the spot after some time and was not an eyewitness account and P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi and P.W.4 Smt. Rajo were also not present at the spot as they were the resident of another village is not correct. In fact, P.W.1 Ram Singh in his chief stated that on hearing the noise he reached the spot and saw the accused assaulting his son. Several villagers Raju, Abid and others also gathered along with his daughter Smt. Rajo and grandson Himanshu @ Dumpi. From the said statement, it can be concluded that P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi, P.W.4 Smt. Rajo were present at the spot and witnessed the incident. In his cross-examination, the said witness deposed that on the previous night, he was tired so he went to sleep in the early hours of evening wrapped in his quilt and on hearing the noise of his son Harvansha, he rushed towards the spot. P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi in his examination-in-chief also deposed that at the time of incident, he stood near the Government tap to fetch water, in the meantime, accused Dharampal alongwith other co-accused assaulted Harvansha. On hearing the noise, he rushed to the spot and saw the incident and shouted thereafter his maternal grandfather (nana) P.W.1 Ram Singh also reached at the spot simultaneously, P.W.4 Smt. Rajo also reached the spot and saw the incident. Learned State-counsel in his submission also stated that the ocular evidence corroborates with the medical evidence. P.W.7 Dr. R.S. Ravidas deposed that there were three injuries on the body of Harvansha out of which two were on his head and one on his right shoulder. The said witness also deposed that injury nos. 1 and 3 were caused with some blunt weapon and injury no. 2 was caused with some sharp edged weapon. The eyewitnesses deposed that accused Dharampal was armed with tabbal which is a sharp edged weapon and rest of the accused Smt. Somo and Kapil were armed with lathi and danda and assaulted Harvansha. Thus, there were no major contradiction in the prosecution case.

(v) The arguments of learned Amicus Curiae that P.W.2 Dumpi was a child witness, therefore, his testimony was not trustworthy, was refuted. To controvert their submission, the learned State-counsel cited the following case laws:

In Gul Singh @ Guliya and others vs. State of M.P. and another, 2014 SCC Online SC 719, the Apex Court held that:

“ The evidence of child witness cannot be rejected unless the same is tutored or unless the same is unreliable.”

In State of Uttar Pradesh vs. Krishna Master and others, (2010) 12 SCC 324, wherein it was held that:

“ It would be doing injustice to a child witness possessing a sharp memory to say that it is inconceivable for him to recapitulate facts in his memory witnessed by him long ago. A child of tender age is always receptive to abnormal events which take place in his life and would never forget those events for the rest of his life. The child would be able to recapitulate correctly and exactly when asked about the same in future. When a child of tender age witnesses gruesome murder of his father, mother, brothers, etc. he is not likely to forget the incident for his whole life and would certainly recapitulate facts in his memory when asked about the same at any point of time, notwithstanding the gap of about ten years between the incident and recording of his evidence.”

(vi) It was further submitted by the appellant-counsel that P.W. 4 Smt. Rajo gave an exaggerated version of the prosecution case and is not trustworthy. It cannot be denied that P.W.4 Smt. Rajo was an eyewitness account and gave her testimony as a natural witness. She was a rustic lady who used to put thumb impression therefore, such improvements and exaggerations might find possibility.

(vii) Learned State Counsel referred to the statement of the P.W.8 S.I. Ghanshyam Singh Tyagi, Investigating Officer, who deposed that on 28.02.2008 accused Dharampal was arrested and was taken into police custody. During police custody, he confessed that the weapon used in the incident was kept hidden as his sister's house Vinod Kumari. On the basis of this confessional statement, Dharampal was taken to that place and on the pointing of accused Dharampal, he took out tabbal, hidden under the heap of eucalyptus logs on the roof-top of the house of his sister Vinod Kumari on the basis of which recovery memo was prepared which was proved as Exhibit Ka-1. It was also deposed that an effort was made to have independent witnesses but no one agreed. Thus, the recovery of tabbal on the pointing of accused appellant Dharampal was proved.

ANALYSIS

12. Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and after carefully going through the material on record and the case laws cited, this Court is of the view that it can be safely concluded that the delay in lodging the FIR was properly explained by the prosecution. The reasons given by the first informant were genuine and satisfactory. The first informant Ram Singh was consistent in stating that as the condition of his only son

Harvansha was critical, therefore, he was busy in his medical treatment, which caused delay in lodging the FIR.

In a recent judgment in Gulab vs. State of Uttar Pradesh (2024) 1 SCC (Criminal) 609 para-29, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that:

“The delay in lodging FIR is not material, when prosecution case is supported by reliable eyewitnesses.”

The incident took place within the premises of the first informant Ram Singh. It transpires from the site plan that the living room of the first informant was situate at the east of Haveli. In front of the said living room, the incident of marpeet took place which was at a distance of only 30 feet. The distance from the Government tap to the place of incident was about 25 feet. As the incident of marpeet took place within the premises of the first informant, therefore, the incident was clearly and easily witnessed by the three eyewitnesses. As soon as P.W.-1 Ram Singh heard the noise of his son, he at once arose and rushed to the spot. The truthfulness of this witness could be judged from the fact that he deposed that as he was too tired on the previous night, therefore, he slept during evening hours wrapped in his quilt, therefore, it can be safely concluded that he was a reliable eyewitness. P.W.2 Himanshu @ Dumpi in his evidence stated that he was present at the Government Tap to fetch water when Harvansha was being assaulted by accused Dharampal and others. After hearing the noise he reached the spot and saw the incident and screamed. Thereafter his maternal grandfather (Ram Singh P.W.1) also reached the spot and saw the incident and thereafter P.W.4 Smt. Rajo also reached the spot and witnessed the incident. Though certain minor contradictions and discrepancies have been noticed in the deposition of eyewitnesses but they can be ignored as they are merely marginal variations and will not belie the prosecution case entirely. Due to these minor contradictions and discrepancies as to who reached first at the spot etc. cannot doubt their presence at the spot. P.W.1 Ram Singh in his deposition clearly stated that accused appellant Dharampal was armed with tabbal, Smt. Somo was armed with lathi and Kapil was armed with danda. The same version was given by P.W.2 Dumpi. Though, P.W.4 Smt. Rajo in her deposition stated that Dharampal, Somo and Kapil were armed with lathi, danda and weapons but as she did not use the term “tabbal” in her statement, this does not doubts her presence at the spot. She was a rustic villager, therefore, such minor contradictions and discrepancies are not of such a nature that it would hit the root of prosecution case.

Recently, the Hon'ble Apex Court in Birbal Nath vs. State of Rajasthan and others, 2023 SCC Online SC 1396, has held that:

“No doubt statement given before Police during investigation under Section 161 Cr.P.C. are previous statements under Section 145 of the Evidence Act and therefore, can be used to cross-examine a witness. But this is only for a limited purpose, to contradict such a witness. Even if the defence is successful in contradicting a witness it would not always mean that the contradictions in her two statements would result in totally discrediting the witness.”

(Emphasis supplied)

The Apex Court after considering a large number of its earlier judgments has held in State of U.P. vs. Naresh, (2011) 4 SCC 324, that:

“In all criminal cases, normal discrepancies are bound to occur in the depositions of witnesses due to normal errors of observation, namely, errors of memory due to lapse of time or due to mental disposition such as shock and horror at the time of occurrence. Where the omissions amount to a contradiction, creating a serious doubt about the truthfulness of the witness and other witnesses also make material improvement while deposing in the court, such evidence cannot be safe to rely upon. However, minor contradictions, inconsistencies, embellishments or improvements on trivial matters which do not affect the core of the prosecution case, should not be made a ground on which the evidence can be rejected in its entirety. The court has to form its opinion about the credibility of the witness and record a finding as to whether his deposition inspires confidence. Exaggerations per se do not render the evidence brittle. But it can be one of the factors to test credibility of the prosecution version, when the entire evidence is put in a crucible for being tested on the touchstone of credibility. Therefore, mere marginal variations in the statements of a witness cannot be dubbed as improvements as the same may be elaborations of the statement made by the witness earlier. The omissions which amount to contradictions in material particulars i.e. go to the root of the case/materially affect the trial or core of the prosecution’s case, render the testimony of the witness liable to be discredited.”

The Apex Court took a similar view in Appabhai and another vs. State of Gurajat, 1988 (Supp) SCC 241, that:

“A witness though wholly truthful, is liable to be overawed by the court atmosphere and the piercing cross examination made by counsel and out of nervousness mix up facts, get confused regarding sequence of events, or fill up details from imagination on the spur of the moment. The sub-conscious mind of the witness sometimes so operates on account of the fear of looking foolish or being disbelieved though the witness is giving a truthful and honest account of the occurrence witnessed by him -perhaps it is a sort of a psychological defence mechanism activated on the spur of the moment. The Court while appreciating the evidence must not attach undue importance to minor discrepancies. The discrepancies which do not shake the basic version of the prosecution case may be discarded. The discrepancies which are due to normal errors of perception or observation should not be given importance. The errors due to lapse of memory may be given due allowance. The Court must evaluate the entire material on record by excluding the exaggerated version given by any witness when a doubt arises in respect of certain facts alleged by such witness, the proper course is to ignore that fact only unless it goes into the root of the matter so as to demolish the entire prosecution story. The witnesses may go on adding embellishments to their version perhaps for the fear of their testimony being rejected by the Court. The Courts, however, should not believe the evidence of such witnesses or together if they are otherwise trustworthy.”

A similar view has been reiterated by this Court in Tehsilar Singh and Another vs. State of U.P. AIR 1959 SC 1012.

It could also be safely concluded that the ocular evidence corroborated with the medical evidence. The statement of the doctor P.W.7 Dr. R.S. Ravidas who medically examined Harvansha as well as by the evidence of P.W.3 Dr. Sanjay Kumar Shankar, who conducted the post mortem and opined that injury nos.1 and 3 could have been caused with a blunt weapon and injury no. 2 with some sharp edged weapon. As far as non mentioning of the name of the witnesses in the FIR and charge sheet is concerned, it is a settled law that an FIR is not an encyclopedia, which may contain each and every fact in detail nor it is mandatory to mention the name of every witness in the charge sheet. As there was no previous enmity between P.W.2 and P.W.4 with the accused appellant, therefore, there was no occasion to falsely implicate him. The submission that the presence of P.W.2 and P.W.4 was doubtful at the place of incident on the ground as they have been planted as a witness being the close relatives is unbelievable. P.W.1 in his statement deposed that P.W.2 and P.W.4 were present on the spot and therefore, they were natural witnesses and their presence cannot be doubted. P.W.2 Dumpi who is stated to be a child witness, was an eyewitness account. His version is truthful and believable and inspires confidence.

The Apex Court has considered the evidence of child/young witness in Yogesh Singh vs. Mahabeer Singh and others, (2017) 11 SCC 195, which is reproduced as under:

“ It is well settled that evidence of a child witness must find adequate corroboration, before it is relied upon, as the rule of corroboration is of practical wisdom rather than of law. However, it is not the law that if a witness is a child, his evidence shall be rejected, even if it is found reliable. The law is that evidence of a child must be evaluated more carefully and with greater circumspection because a child is susceptible to be swayed by what others telling and thus a child witness is an easy prey to tutoring.”

So far as non recovery of blood stained earth on the spot is concerned, P.W.1 Ram Singh clearly deposed that when he came out of his room, his son was lying on a cot, soaked in blood. P.W.2 deposed that he saw the blood oozing from the head of his maternal uncle which even fell on the ground. As the delay was caused in lodging the FIR, therefore, by the time the Investigating Officer reached the spot, the blood stained earth was not available. This seems the lapse on the part of the Investigating Agency which cannot be a ground to discard the prosecution version which is authentic and credible and this benefit cannot be extended to the accused persons. The recovery of tabbal at the pointing of accused appellant which was used in the commission of offence was proved. The Investigating Officer S.I. Ghanshyam Singh Tyagi deposed that he arrested the accused Dharampal on 28.02.2008 and while being in police custody he confessed that the tabbal used in the incident was kept hidden on the roof top of the house of the sister Vinod Kumari under the heap of eucalyptus logs. An effort was made to collect evidence of an independent witness but no one came forward, so the Police Official were made witness to the recovery memo.

Looking to the confessional statement of the accused appellant

Dharampal, it is clear that he disclosed that he committed the offence by using tabbal which was recovered at his pointing from the roof top of the house of his sister Vinod Kumari, kept hidden under the heap of eucalyptus logs. The said recovery of tabbal corroborates with his confessional statement and satisfies the test of section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act.

The Hon'ble Apex Court in Perumal Raja @ Perumal vs. State, represented by Inspector of Police, 2024 SCC Online SC 12, held that :

“ The discovery of a fact resulting in recovery of a physical object exhibits knowledge or mental awareness of the person accused of the offence as to the existence to the physical object at the particular place. Accordingly, discovery of a fact includes the object found, the place from which it was produced and the knowledge of accused as to its existence. To this extent, therefore, the factum of discovery combines both the physical object as well as the mental consciousness of the accused in relation thereto.”

P.W.9 Constable Onkar Singh has proved the FIR and G.D. Entry. P.W.10 Subhash Chandra proved that application which he gave on 26.02.2008 for conducting post mortem of the deceased Harvansha. P.W.5 S.I. Mohan Lal Yadav proved the relevant records relating to inquest report and post mortem report. P.W.6 Constable Zabbar Singh proved that he took the dead body for post mortem and thereafter, handed it to the family members of the deceased. P.W.8 S.I. Ghanshyam Singh Tyagi has proved the site plan and charge sheet.

In view of the above, the Court is convinced with the findings on the guilt of the accused by the Trial Court. The Court is also of the considered view that the prosecution has proved its case beyond all reasonable doubt. It can be rightly concluded that that accused appellant alongwith other co-accused entered into the premises of the first informant and caused injuries on the vital part of the body of Harvansha by using the weapons tabbal, lathi and danda which in all probability, would have caused death and resultantly, Harvansha died due to said injuries which comes under the category of culpable homicide not amounting to murder. Thus, looking at the nature of injuries and the manner of assault established by the prosecution evidence and discussion above, Section 304 IPC has clear application. The Court has no difficulty in affirming the conviction of the appellant.

CONCLUSION

13. The learned Trial Court has rightly convicted the accused appellant Dharampal under Sections 452, 304/34 IPC. The judgement and order of conviction and sentence dated 03.07.2010 awarding ten years rigorous imprisonment under section 304/34 IPC and fine of Rs.10,000/- and under section 452 IPC three years rigorous imprisonment and fine of Rs.3,000/- and in case of default of payment of fine, an additional simple imprisonment for three months is upheld.

14. Accordingly, the conviction and sentence of the appellant is hereby affirmed.

15. The ends of justice would be served, if the accused- appellant is sentenced with the period of imprisonment already undergone in prison.

16. The Custody Certificate dated 02.08.2023 issued by Central Prison, Bareilly reflects that the appellant Dharampal has been convicted in another case, i.e., Case Crime Nos. 31 and 34 of 2010, Sessions Trial No. 533, 534/2010 under Section 302 IPC and Section 25 Arms Act, Police Station Kotwali Dehat, District Bijnor whereby life imprisonment was awarded on 22.12.2010 by Additional Session Judge, Court No. 5, Bijnor and the conviction has been upheld by this High Court on 05.04.2018.

17. The appeal stands partly allowed.

18. The accused-appellant Dharampal shall be released forthwith from jail, if he is not wanted in any other case.

19. Office is directed to transmit a copy of this judgement to the learned Sessions Judge, Bijnor for compliance.

20. Office is also directed to send back the record of the Trial Court immediately.

21. We record our appreciation for the able assistance rendered by the Amicus Curiae, who would be entitled to her fee as per the rules of the High Court Legal Services Committee.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1245
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 01.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.

THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN
IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 5137 of 2021
 Connected with'
 CrI. Appeal Nos. 1178 of 2022, 5268 of 2021, 5408 of 2021 & 5608 of 2021

Nikka ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:

Sri Rahul Saxena, Sri Satyendra Kumar Mishra,
 Sri Surendra Pal, Sri Ajay Pandey

Counsel for the Respondent:

G.A.

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 304 Part II, 452 & 504 – Arms Act, 1959 – Sections 25/27 & 30 – Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Sections 313, 319, 374(2), 437A – Criminal Appeal Against Conviction and Sentence – Murder – Culpable Homicide Not Amounting to Murder – Rioting – Unlawful Assembly – Common Object – House Trespass – Insult – Firearm Injury – Eye-Witness Testimony – Medical Evidence – Forensic Evidence – Motive – Delay in Medical Treatment

The appellants, Nikka, Bhola, Jameel @ Lalla, Gama, and Shama, challenged the judgment dated 06.10.2021 by the Sessions Judge, Pilibhit, in Sessions Trial No. 98 of 2017 (arising out of Case Crime No. 2246 of 2016), convicting them under Section 302 read with Section 149 IPC for life imprisonment with a Rs. 30,000 fine each, along with convictions under Sections 25/27 and 30 Arms Act for some appellants. The prosecution alleged that on 18.11.2016 at 6:00 AM, the appellants, motivated by prior enmity, trespassed into the house of PW-1 (Faizulla Khan), dragged his son Yunus to the road, where Bhola fired a single shot from a licensed double-barrel gun, causing a fatal thigh injury. Yunus died due to delayed medical treatment. Held: (1) The appeals were partly allowed, modifying Bhola's conviction to Section 304 Part II IPC and setting aside convictions of Nikka, Jameel, Gama, and Shama. (2) The prosecution case rested on PW-1's testimony, supported by PW-2 (deceased's brother) and medical evidence, but PW-6 was not an eye-witness. (3) The single gunshot injury on the thigh, non-vital part, and absence of repeat shots indicated no intent to kill, supported by PW-4's testimony that death resulted from excessive bleeding due to delayed treatment. (4) The lack of overt acts by other appellants and acquittal of co-accused Khaleel rendered their implication ornamental. (5) The plea of prior enmity was unsubstantiated, as PW-1's claim of a prior shop-ransacking incident was not mentioned in the FIR or Section 161 Cr.P.C. St.ments. (6) Forensic evidence confirmed the recovered gun fired the cartridge, but the absence of tattooing/blackening did not negate the prosecution case. (7) Bhola's sentence was modified to the period undergone (over 8 years with remission), with the fine sustained, while other appellants were acquitted and ordered released unless wanted in other cases.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar
Mishra, J.

&

Hon'ble Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ajay Pandey and Sri Rahul Saxena, learned counsel for the appellants as well as learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

2. This bunch of appeals are directed against the composite judgement and order passed by the trial court in Sessions Trial No. 98 of 2017, arising out of Case Crime No. 2246 of 2016 (State Vs. Shama and others), whereby the accused appellants have been convicted under Section 302 read with 149 Cr.P.C. and sentenced to undergo life imprisonment with a fine of Rs. 30,000/- together with default sentence.

3. The prosecution case proceeds upon a report (Ext. Ka- 1) as per which the informant Faizulla Khan S/o Tullan Khan is resident of Village Kitnapur, District Pilibhit.

On 18.11.2016 at about 6.00 a.m. in the morning all the accused persons entered the house of the complainant and on account of previous enmity dragged his son out of the house to the road with the intention to kill him. All the accused persons were having firearms. Accused Bhola then fired from the licensed gun of Khaleel causing gun shot injury to the deceased. On the intervention of the villagers, all the accused persons ultimately fled from the spot. The informant's son Yunus later died. The informant initially brought the injured to the police station where he was sent to Primary Health Centre, Bisalpur and then to District Hospital, Pilibhit. He was later referred to District Hospital, Bareilly but he died while on the way to Bareilly. On the basis of such written report, first information report came to be lodged as Case Crime No. 2246 of 2016 on 18.11.2016 at 8.30 in the morning. The place of incident is 4 kilometer from the police station. 4. The dead body of the deceased was taken to the mortuary on the date of incident itself at 4.30 p.m. where inquest followed. Information with regard to the death has been furnished by the Rehmat Khan S/o Faizulla (P.W.-2). The inquest was completed at about 5.30 p.m. The post mortem was also conducted on the same day at about 11.45 p.m. by Dr. Manjeet Singh (PW- 4). As per the post mortem report, following injuries were found on the deceased during post mortem examination:-

Wound of entry 8 cm above from upper border of left patella on front of the lower portion of thigh with size of wound 10 x 6.5 x inverted & margin lacerated on cutting haematoma present and vessels and mussels damaged.

Wound was through and through and communicating with the external (exit) wound and underneath bone is fractured.

Wound of exit 6 cm. from upper border of popliteal upper fossa on back of left thigh and size of wound is 11 x 6.5, everted margin and casseration. Both the wounds are communicated with each other. Tattooing & blackening & singeing of hair is not present on both the wounds.

5. According to the autopsy surgeon, the cause of death of the deceased was shock and hemorrhage due to ante mortem fire-arm injury.

6. The accused persons were later arrested on 20.11.2016 and the weapon of offence, namely double barrel licensed gun, along with cartridge and two country made pistols etc. were recovered from the accused Khaleel S/o Zafar Khan and Bhola S/o Jamil Khan and others and Case Crime No. 2249 of 2016 and 2250 of 2016, under Section 25/27 Arms Act were registered at 5.10. p.m. on the same day i.e. 20.11.2016.

7. The record further reveals when the injured was taken to the District Hospital, Pilibhit on 18.11.2016, his X-ray was got conducted. The X-ray report is on record (page 17 of the paper 4 book). Deceased Yunus Khan alias Bhoora had suffered fracture in his left thigh in the femur bone region. This document reveals that at District Hospital, Pilibhit itself the deceased had died. The investigation further proceeded and bloodstained earth and plain earth were collected from the spot by the Investigating Officer (Ext. Ka-15). The weapon of assault i.e. 12 bore double barrel gun and 12 bore used bullet were also produced (Ext. Ka-16). The recovered firearm alongwith used bullet was sent for scientific examination to the Forensic Science Laboratory and its report is on record which shall be dealt with later. The investigation was ultimately concluded and charge sheets were submitted on 13.01.2017 (Ext. Ka-18), 20.12.2016 (Ext. Ka-21), 20.12.2016 (Ext. Ka-22 and 02.01.2017 (Ext. Ka-23). Cognizance was taken by the concerned court and since the offence was triable by the court of Sessions, the matter was referred to the court of Sessions where four Session Trials were registered. Charges were framed against the accused appellants who denied the accusation and claimed to be tried. The Session Trial No. 98 of 2017 was in respect of Case Crime No. 2246 of 2016, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302, 452, 504 I.P.C., Police Station Bisalpur, District Pilibhit. Session Trial No. 99 of 2017 was in respect of Case Crime No. 2249 of 2016, under Section 25/27 Arms Act, Police Station Bisalpur, District Pilibhit. Session Trial No. 100 arose out of Case Crime No. 2250 of 2016, under Section 25/27 Arms Act, Police Station Bisalpur, District Pilibhit. Session Trial No. 101 of 2017 arose out of Case Crime No. 2250 of 2016, under Section 30 Arms Act, Police Station Bisalpur, District Pilibhit. All the session trials have been clubbed and disposed of vide judgment and order dated 06.10.2021 by the Session Judge, Pilibhit and accused appellants have been convicted and sentenced as per above. Against the said judgment and order, five appeals have been preferred before this Court.

8. The prosecution has produced testimonies of following prosecution witnesses:-

(i) PW-1 Faizulla Khan, (ii) PW-2 Rehmat Khan, (iii) PW-3 Hitesh Kumar, (iv) PW-4 Dr. Manjeet Singh, (v) PW-5 Puskar Singh, (vi) PW-6 Munees, (vii) PW-7 Ramveer Singh, (viii) PW-8 Shakeel Ahmad, (ix) PW-9 Suresh Kumar Singh and (x) PW-10 Pushkar Singh.

9. In addition to oral testimony of the prosecution witnesses, the prosecution has also produced following documentary evidences:-

(i) F.I.R. Ext. Ka-2, Ext. Ka-4 and Ext. Ka-6, (ii) Written Report Ext. Ka-1, (iii) Recovery memo of murder weapon licensed gun double barrel 12 bore with used bullet Ext. Ka-16, (iv) Recovery memo of bloodstained and plain soil Ext. Ka-15, (v) X-ray report, (vi) Post mortem report Ext. Ka-7, (vii) Three reports of Forensic Science Laboratory, (viii) Panchayatnama Ext. Ka-8, (ix) Four Charge sheets Ext. Ka-18, Ext. Ka-21, Ext. Ka-22 and Ext. Ka-23.

10. All the accused appellants were then confronted with the evidence adduced against them during trial in order to record their statements under Section 313 Cr.P.C. All the accused appellants denied the allegations made against them and stated that they have been falsely implicated. It has also been asserted by the accused appellants that they have been implicated on account of enmity.

11. Trial court has examined oral and documentary evidence produced during trial in order to return the finding of guilt against the accused appellants on the basis of which they have been convicted and sentenced as per above.

12. Sri Ajay Pandey, learned counsel appearing in all the appeals submits that the prosecution has failed to establish the guilt of the accused appellants beyond reasonable doubt; the testimony of PW- 1, who is the sole eye witness, is not credible and reliable and the conviction and sentence of the accused appellants, relying upon his testimony, is not sustainable; it is submitted that F.S.L. report does not support the prosecution case inasmuch as the gun shot wound on the deceased neither tallies with the bullet recovered nor any pallet has been found and no blackening or tattooing is noticed either which nullifies the prosecution case of firing from a close distance by a bullet; learned counsel for the accused appellants further submitted that six persons were initially implicated in the aforesaid offence but implication of one of them, namely Khaleel, has not been accepted, which renders the testimony of PW-1 unreliable; learned counsel for the accused appellants also argued that the prosecution case against all six accused persons intending to murder the deceased is not credible as there is a solitary gun shot injury on the thigh of the deceased, caused by accused Bhola, whereas other five accused persons have not caused any injury to the deceased; with reference to testimony of autopsy surgeon i.e. PW-4 Dr. Manjeet Singh, it is urged that cause of death was excessive bleeding on account of the fact that proper medical aid was not rendered to the injured, at that time, as he was initially taken to the police station, and later referred to Primary Health Center, Bisalpur and then to District Hospital, Pilibhit. In this process a lot of time was wasted. In case the deceased had been given proper medical treatment and his bleeding was stopped, he might have survived. In the alternative, learned counsel for the accused appellants submits that even if the prosecution case is taken on its face value, it would not indicate an offence under Section 302 I.P.C. and as such, maximum punishment, which could be awarded to the accused Bhola, would fall under Section 304-II I.P.C. Learned counsel asserted that accused appellant Bhola has already undergone incarceration for more than 8 years, as such, he is entitled to be released on the punishment already undergone; so far as other accused appellants are concerned, there is no overt act attributed to them and since their implication is otherwise ornamental, all other accused appellants are liable to be acquitted and the appeals deserve to be allowed.

13. Learned A.G.A., on the other hand, urged that testimony of PW-1 is wholly reliable, which is otherwise supported by the documentary evidence on record. Learned A.G.A. further argued that since the weapon used in the incident has been recovered from the accused appellants and there was specific motive available to the accused appellants to commit the murder, as such, the judgment and order of the Court of Session merits no interference.

14. Before advertng to the respective submissions advanced on behalf of the learned counsels for the parties, it would be relevant to mention some features of the case. The deceased, who was aged about 26 years, was of average built and he admittedly died on 18.11.2016. The inquest report as well as post mortem report clearly shows existence of single gun shot injury caused to the deceased, which resulted into two wounds, one of entry wound 8 cm above upper border of left patella on front of the lower portion of thigh with size of wound being 10 cm. x 6.5 cm. This wound was inverted and margins were lacerated. On cutting, haematoma was found present and vessels and muscles were found damaged. The wound was through and through and communicated with the external (exit) wound and underneath bone was fractured. The other wound is exit wound from upper border of popliteal upper fossa on back of left thigh and size of wound is 11 cm. X 6.5 cm., everted margin and casseration. Tattooing, blackening and singeing of hair was found absent on both the wounds.

15. The evidence on record therefore clearly shows that the deceased died on account of single gun shot injury which has caused both the injuries i.e. entry wound and exit wound. Cause of death was shock and haemorrhage due to ante mortem fire-arm injury. The F.S.L. report shows that clothes worn by the deceased had bloodstained on major parts. The blood found was human blood but was integrated. So far as firearm recovery from the accused persons is concerned, it transpires that 12 bore DBBL Gun No. 87000 was examined. The F.S.L. report shows that 12 bore cartridge recovered from the accused persons was fired from the DBBL Gun No. 87000.

16. The prosecution case essentially relies upon the testimony of PW-1 Faizulla Khan who happens to be first informant and is also father of the deceased Yunus. In the examination-in-chief, PW-1 has stated that the incident occurred at about 6.00 a.m. in the morning. He had enmity with the accused persons. The accused entered his house and hurled filthy abuses on his son and dragged out him from the house to the public road. The accused Bhola fired from the licensed double barrel gun of accused Khaleel with an intention to kill Yunus. All other accused persons were armed with unauthorized country made pistols. On receiving the gun shot injury, Yunus fell down. On exhortation of PW-1, his other son Rahmat Khan (PW-2) and neighbour Shahjad and Munees (not produced) arrived and the accused persons left the injured thinking him to have died. All the accused persons had entered his house armed with firearms having common intention. The gun shot injury on Yunus has caused excessive bleeding. PW-1 took his son Yunus to the police station and after getting an application typed, lodged the report at Police Station Bisalpur. After the report was registered, the police took the injured to Primary Health Center, Bisalpur. As the condition of the injured was deteriorating, the doctors advised him to be taken to the District Hospital, Pilibhit. At District Hospital, Pilibhit, the doctors advised the injured to be taken to Bareilly and as the injured was on the way to Bareilly, he died. PW-1 has also stated that three months prior to the incident, the accused had ransacked the shop of maternal uncle of the deceased Yunus, namely Safiq Khan, and that was the reason of enmity between them. Safiq Khan was also not living with him. The accused persons are stated to be of criminal nature and various cases were pending against them.

17. In the cross examination, PW-1 has admitted that a case under Sections 323/324 I.P.C. is proceeding against him wherein Islam is accused. Mulla is informant of that case. Father of Mulla is Jaleel. Accused Shama, Gama and Bhola are real brothers. Accused Jameel alias Lalla and Khaleel are also real brothers. Nikka is family member.

18. Soon after the incident, PW-1 claims to have gone to the Police Station, Bisalpur. He reached at Police Station, Bisalpur within 15-20 minutes. PW-2 came later and was standing behind him. Soon after the incident, Daroga and local police arrived on the spot. Following passage from the cross examination of PW-1 is relevant and reproduced hereinafter:-

"हम लोग उजाला मे रवाना हो गये। 15-20 मिमनट मे थाने पहुच गये। पहले मैं थाना पहुचा। मेरा बेटा रहमत खां मेरे पीछे खड़ा हुआ है। यह उस मुकदमे का गवाह है। मैं आधा घण्टे के अन्दर थाने पहुच गया। सुबह 6 बजे गोली चली, लड़ाई हुयी, दरोगा जी तुरन्त पहुच गये थे। दरोगा जी ने मुझसे पूछा कि क्या मामला है। मैंने कहा कि रंजिश थी। दरोगा जी मेरे गांव पहुचे और मुझसे कहा कि तुम थाने मे रिपोर्ट लिखाओ मैंने रिपोर्ट लिखाने थाने गया और फिर मैं थाने से तहसील गया, और वहां तहरीर टाइप करायी और फिर लड़के को गांव से अस्पताल इलाज हेतु भेज दिया। लड़के के साथ गांव के ही दरोगा जी ने एक सिपाही अस्पताल भेजा और कहा कि उसको अस्पताल बीसलपुर मे भर्ती कराओ लड़का पुलिस की मदद से गांव से अस्पताल पहुच गया और उसका इलाज शुरू हो गया। फिर मैं रपट लिखाकर थाने से अस्पताल पहुचा।"

19. PW-1 has categorically stated that solitary gun shot injury on the deceased was caused by accused Bhola and that none of other five accused persons either fired or did anything. The passage in that regard is reproduced hereinafter:-

"भोला के पास तमंचा था। भोला ने तमंचे से कोई फायर नहीं किया। उसने बन्दूक से फायर मारा। जब पहला फायर हुआ तब मैं लिलयाकत के दरवाजे से 10 कदम की दूरी पर था, लिलयाकत के दरवाजे के पश्चिम की तरफ था। मैं व यूनूस संग संग आगे पीछे जा रहे थे। तभी फायर हुआ, फायर करने वाला मुझसे 10 कदम की दूरी पर था, यूनुस मेरे साथ था, उसके फायर आया। यूनुस गिर गया। लियाकत के मकान के सामने लियाकत के दरवाजे से 2 कदम की दूरी पर। घटना के समय मेरे पास 1 जानवर थे, मेरे पास दूध देने वाले जानवर भी थे, मैं जानवर पालने का काम भी करता हूँ। उसके लिए मैंने अलग गोडा बना रखा है। उसी में जानवर रहते हैं। कुल मिलाकर मुल्जिमान थे। 6 में से 5 मुल्जिमान ने कोई फायर नहीं नहीं किया और कुछ नहीं किया। 5 मुल्जिम 5 कदम की दूरी पर खड़े रहे मेरे पूरब में खड़े रहे। "

20. In the cross examination, PW-1 has stated that they never had any fight with the accused persons nor had ever been disclosed to them before three months of the incident. The passage in that regard reads as under:-

"मेरी मुल्जिमान से कभी कोई लड़ाई नहीं हुई। अब लड़ाई बन गयी, जब से भूरा मरा पहले कोई चक्कर नहीं था। न मुझसे न लड़ाई हो। पहले मुल्जिमान ने कहा था कि यदि 3 माह पहले --- साथ दिया था। यह बात मैंने एफ.आई.आर में नहीं लिखायी थी, दरोगा जी ने मेरा 2 बार 161 सीआरपीसी का ब्यान लिया उसमें भी नहीं बतायी थी, मुझे नहीं बताई इसकी वजह नहीं बता सकता।"

21. The cross examination of PW-1 also indicates that he had not named any of the witness in the report and witnesses were later introduced on the further questioning of the Investigating Officer.

The passage in that regard is reproduced hereinafter:-

"यह कहना गलत है कि मैंने सिखाने से ब्यान दिया हो, मैंने रिरपोट7 में मिकसी गवाह का नाम नहीं लिखाया है। मैंने जब दरोगा जी को अपना ब्यान दिया था, उसमें किसी गवाह का नाम नहीं बताया था, घटना के 7-8 मिदन बाद दरोगा जी आये, उन्होंने मुझसे पूछा था कि किसको -2 गवाह रखोगे तो मैंने तीन लोगों के नाम बताये थे, जिसमें अपन दामाद मुनीम खां को, अपने लडके रहमत खां को और अपने लडके शहजाद को गवाह बनाने की बात कही थी। मैंने तीनों आदमियों से पूछा था कि क्या गवाही दोगे। इन्होंने कहा कि हम पक्की तौर पर गवाही देंगे, नाम लिखा दो। दरोगा जी ने कहा कि ठीक है मैं गवाह बना देता हूँ। मेरे जिन कपडों पर यमिनस खां का खून लगा था दरोगा जी ने कब्जे में ले लिये थे। खलील खां पर तमंचा नहीं था बन्दूक थी। मैंने एफ.आई.आर में यह बात लिखवाई थी कि सभी लोगों पर तमंचे थे। यह मैंने एफ.आई.आर. में मैंने लिखा दिया यह नहीं जानता। मेरे इस मुकदमे में रफीक, जाहिद, शफीक, लियाकत किसी को भी गवाह नहीं बनाया, जबकि इन लोगों के घर घटना स्थल के पास है लियाकत के घर में लियाकत के बच्चे रहते हैं जबकि शफीक खां घर पर थे, लेमिकन मैंने इनमें से मिकसी को गवाह नहीं बनाया, उन लोगों ने कहा कि हम गवाही नहीं देंगे। इन लोगों ने कहा कि हम झूठी गवाही नहीं देंगे, सच्ची गवाही देंगे। "

22. PW-2 Rahmat Khan is brother of the deceased and he has also supported the prosecution case. He has also implicated the accused Bhola of causing gun shot injury. In the cross examination, he has admitted that PW-1 had taken the deceased to the police station and he had also joined him. This witness has been confronted with his previous statement in which he has not disclosed that he had gone with PW-1 to the police station.

23. PW-3 is Constable Hitesh Kumar. He has proved the G.D. entry relating to three reports lodged in the matter. 24. PW-4 is Dr. Manjeet Singh who has conducted the postmortem on the body of the deceased. He has clearly stated that there is only one firearm injury. Following passage from cross examination of PW-4 is relevant and is reproduced hereinafter:-

" युनुस की मृत्यु उसके जॉघ में जो घाव था उससे अत्यधिक खून बहने के कारण हुई थी। अगर रक्त श्राव बन्द हो जाता तो उसकी मृत्यु नहीं भी हो सकती थी। मैं यह नहीं बता सकता हूँ कि बच सकता था। या नहीं। रक्त श्राव रोकने के लिए बाँध दिया जाता व और उसको प्राथमिक उपचार दिया जाता प्राथमिक उपचार में आई०वी० फिल्टर रक्त चढ़ाया जाता है। मृतक की मृत्यु का कारण उसकी मृत्यु पूर्व चोट से अत्यधिक रक्तश्राव तथा सदमा था। यह चोट बुलेट से आयी थी। बुलेट पोस्टमार्टम में मृतक के शरीर में नहीं मिली थी।"

25. PW-5 is Senior Sub Inspector Puskar Singh who has proved the inquest report. PW-6 is Munees who has admitted that he arrived at the place of occurrence after five minutes of the incident on hearing the commotion. He has admitted that he works as daily labour for about 5-6 months at Delhi.

26. Additional S.H.O. PW-7 is Ramveer Singh who has prepared the site plan and proved the recovery of clothes, plain and bloodstained earth etc. PW-8 is Sub Inspector Shakeel Ahmad who is Investigating Officer and has arrested the accused persons, from whose possession firearms were recovered. PW-9 is Incharge Inspector Suresh Kumar Singh and is formal witness. He has stated that implication of Khaleel was found false. PW-10 is Sub Inspector Puskar Singh who has conducted the investigation in Case Crime No. 2249 of 2016 and 2250 of 2016 under Section 25/27 Arms Act, Police Station Bisalpur, District Pilibhit.

27. The evidence, noticed above, has been confronted to all the accused who have stated that they have been falsely implicated on account of enmity and they have not committed the offence. No defence, however, has been produced in the matter.

28. The trial court in the facts of the case has returned the finding that the prosecution has been able to prove its case against the accused appellants beyond reasonable doubt. The accused Khaleel was summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. but his implication has not been established and consequently Khaleel has been acquitted. All the five accused appellants Shama, Gama, Bhola, Nikka, and Jameel Khan alias Lalla have been convicted and sentenced under Sections 147, 148, 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. The accused Gama, Shama, and Bhola have also been convicted under Section 25/27 Arms Act. The accused Jameel Khan has also been convicted under Section 30 Arms Act.

29. It is in the context of above material placed on record that this Court is required to consider as to whether the prosecution has been able to establish the guilt of the accused appellants beyond reasonable doubt in the matter or not ?

30. Prosecution case essentially relies upon the testimony of PW- 1 who is the first informant and is father of deceased. As per the prosecution, there was an old enmity on account of which the accused persons entered his house; hurled filthy abuses on the deceased; dragged him out of the house to the road whereafter accused Bhola shot at the deceased with the licensed gun of Khaleel Khan. Although, Khaleel Khan was also initially implicated in the matter, but ultimately he has been acquitted after being summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. It was noticed that Khaleel Khan was above 80 years of age and there is no challenge to the acquittal of Khaleel Khan. The incident allegedly occurred on account of a previous enmity between the parties. The evidence on the aspect of enmity, which also is the genesis of the offence, needs to be carefully examined.

31. In the first information report, PW-1 has stated that there was an old enmity, due to which the accused persons entered his house. What was the enmity has not been explained in the FIR. The enmity has been disclosed by PW-1 in his testimony. In his examination-in-chief PW-1 has stated that due to old enmity, the accused persons entered his house. As per PW-1 about three months prior to the incident, the accused persons had ransacked the shop belonging to maternal uncle of deceased, namely, Shafiq Khan ever since then the accused persons maintained enmity with the informant and the deceased. It is further asserted by PW-1 that he had supported his relative Shafiq who has not been residing in the village since then. It is also alleged that the accused persons are dangerous persons against whom various criminal cases are pending.

32. However, in the cross-examination PW-1 has stated that he had no fight with the accused persons and it was only after the incident that differences have arisen between them. He has categorically admitted that the incident of ransacking of the shop of Shafiq Khan was not mentioned in the FIR nor was it ever disclosed to the Investigating Officer during recording of statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. It is otherwise apparent on record that no FIR or even a complaint relating to incident of ransacking of shop of Shafiq Khan was ever made or disclosed to the police. No other cause of enmity has otherwise been disclosed. The other two witnesses of fact, namely, PW-2 and PW-6 have also not substantiated the plea of prior enmity. In such circumstances, analysis of evidence on record does not substantiate the plea of prior enmity between the parties. Such a plea otherwise appears to have been set up for the first time during trial and no reasons are disclosed as to why such important information was withheld by the witness earlier during investigation. The prosecution has also not been able to demonstrate as to what exactly was the genesis of the dispute between the parties. No evidence has been collected in that regard during trial. In the absence of there being any credible evidence on the point of enmity or the genesis of offence, we are not inclined to endorse the submission of learned A.G.A. that there existed prior enmity between the parties on account of which the incident occurred.

33. The prosecution case essentially rests upon the testimony of PW-1, who is the first informant and the father of deceased. PW-1 has specifically asserted that all six persons had entered into his house and had dragged the deceased outside the house and took him to the road where he was shot at by the accused Bhola. According to PW-1 all accused had firearms with them. As per PW-1 it was Bhola who shot at the deceased.

34. We have perused the inquest and the postmortem report, which shows existence of a solitary gunshot injury on the thigh region of the deceased. The wound of entry and exit have already been reproduced above which would clearly go to show that only one fire was shot at the deceased. The place of injury apparently is not on the vital part of the body. We also find that no repeat gunshot was fired. In the event, intent of the accused was to kill the deceased either the gunshot injury would have been caused on some vital part of the body or repeat fire could have been resorted to. We also find that five other accused allegedly were armed with firearms and in the event all of them intended to eliminate the deceased, there was no reason why none of them did any overt act nor any fire was shot by any of them. One of the accused specifically implicated by PW-1 is Mohd. Khaleel, who was above 80 years of age and has been acquitted after he was summoned under Section 319 Cr.P.C. The testimony of PW-1 is also questioned on the ground that implication of Khaleel once is found false, his testimony cannot be treated to be entirely reliable.

35. So far as testimony of PW-2 is concerned, though this witness claims to be present at the place of incident but his reference is not made in the first information report nor he is a witness to the inquest. The presence of PW-2 is also questioned by the appellants on the strength of statement made by PW-1, as per which, the Investigating Officer inquired from him as to who would be nominated as witness. According to PW-1, he has disclosed the Investigating Officer that PW-2 would be a witness and after being satisfied that this witness would also testify in favour of prosecution that PW-2 was subsequently introduced. It is also pointed out that statement of PW-2 has been recorded by the Investigating Officer on 22.11.2016 i.e. two days after the incident. His statement is recorded on the same day when statement of Shahzade was also recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C, but he was not produced.

36. So far as PW-6 is concerned, he has admitted that he came at the place of occurrence after hearing the commotion. PW-6 by his very statement therefore has admitted that he was not an eyewitness and arrived subsequently at the place of occurrence. PW-6 has only stated that he saw the accused persons leaving the spot.

37. It is in the context of testimony of above three witnesses of fact that we are required to determine as to whether there was any intention on part of accused persons to kill the deceased or not.

38. So far as implication of persons other than accused Bhola is concerned, no overt act has been attributed to them. Out of those who were allegedly present with firearms, none of them are even claimed to have fired at the deceased. Implication of one of the five other accused persons namely Mohd. Khaleel has been found wrong. In the event, the intent on part of other accused persons was to eliminate the deceased, there was no reason why none of them did any overt act on the spot. In the facts of the case, we are persuaded to accept the contention of the appellants that the presence of other five accused was ornamental and merely to add colour to the prosecution case. Though, recovery of firearm is shown from some of those other five accused persons but the recovered firearm from them have not been connected in any manner with the firing on the accused, inasmuch as the case of the prosecution is that the firing by Bhola on the deceased was from the licensed double barrel gun of Mohd. Khaleel.

39. One of the other important aspects that needs examination in the facts of the present case, is the cause of death of the deceased. The post-mortem report indicates that the cause of death of the deceased was shock and haemorrhage due to ante-mortem firearm injuries. The Autopsy Surgeon however has clearly stated that the cause of death of deceased was excessive bleeding. It is also apparent from the evidence on record that though the incident occurred at about 6.00 in the morning and the deceased was profusely bleeding but he was not rushed to any hospital for 17 treatment. PW-1 admits that he took the injured first to the police station from where he was sent to the Primary Health Centre, Bisalpur and then to the District Hospital, Pilibhit. There was a gap of several hours between the incident and the time of death of deceased. As per the evidence on record, it was the failure to provide immediate medical assistance to stop bleeding which ultimately led to the cause of death. It is otherwise admitted by the doctor that in ordinary course of things gunfire on the thigh area would not lead to the death of the person and it was only on account of excessive bleeding that the death occurred.

40. Considering the fact that there was only one fire shot at deceased on his thigh region and there was no repeat shot fired on the deceased clearly demonstrates that the accused appellant Bhola had no intention to cause the death of the deceased. It is also submitted that this was not a case where the nature of injury caused to the deceased was such that in ordinary course such injury was likely to cause death of the deceased.

41. From the evidence noticed above, we find substance in the contention of the accused appellants that the offence attributed to the accused appellant Bhola at the best would fall within the ambit of Section 304, Part-II of the Indian Penal Code. Accused Bhola has already undergone incarceration of more than seven years six months without remission and with remission the period of incarceration would be above eight years. In our view, the sentence already undergone by the accused appellant Bhola, would sufficiently meet the ends of justice. In our conclusion, the offence committed by him at the best would fall within the ambit of Section 304 IPC Part II. Fine of Rs. 53,000/- imposed upon the appellant Bhola is however, sustained. Failure to deposit the amount of fine would result further incarceration of a period of six months.

42. The appeal is consequently allowed in part in respect of accused appellant Bhola.

43. The appeal instituted by the other accused appellants Nikka, Jameel @ Lalla, Gama and Shama are allowed for the reasons recorded above and their

44. Copy of this judgment shall be communicated to the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned as also the concerned Superintendent of Jail for necessary compliance. Date: 01.04.2024

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN
IDRISI, J.

Mohd. Rehan ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Sections 452, 377 & 506 – Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 – Section 3/4 – Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 – Section 3(2)(v) – Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Sections 313, 374(2) & 437A – Criminal Appeal Against Conviction and Sentence – House Trespass – Unnatural Offence – Criminal Intimidation – Sexual Assault on Minor – SC/ST Atrocities – Eye-Witness Testimony – Medical

The appellant, Mohd. Rehan, challenged the judgment dated 26.07.2019 by the First Additional Session Judge/Special Judge (POCSO Act), Kaushambi, in Sessions Trial No. 125 of 2016, convicting him under Section 452 IPC (5 years imprisonment, Rs. 5,000 fine), Section 377 IPC (10 years imprisonment, Rs. 10,000 fine), Section 506 IPC (2 years imprisonment, Rs. 2,000 fine), Section 3/4 POCSO Act (12 years imprisonment, Rs. 12,000 fine), and Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act (life imprisonment, Rs. 15,000 fine), with 2 months additional imprisonment for default of fine, all sentences to run concurrently. The prosecution alleged that on 20.08.2016, the appellant lured the 11-year-old male victim into a house under the pretext of offering toffee, committed an unnatural offence, and threatened the informant (PW-1, victim's mother) with a knife. The FIR was lodged on 21.08.2016, supported by PW-1, PW-3 (victim), and medical evidence showing anal injuries. Held: (1) The appeal was partly allowed, setting aside the conviction under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act and modifying the sentence under Section 377 IPC to the period undergone. (2) No evidence established that the offence was committed due to the victim's Scheduled Caste identity or that the appellant knew of it, rendering the SC/ST Act conviction unsustainable. (3) PW-1 and PW-3's consistent testimonies, corroborated by medical evidence of anal redness and a tear, confirmed the unnatural offence under Section 377 IPC and POCSO Act. (4) Minor discrepancies in the place of occurrence (informant's house vs. accused's house) were overlooked due to the victim's young age (10-11 years). (5) The inconclusive FSL report on DNA evidence did not negate the prosecution case, as oral and medical evidence sufficed. (6) Considering the appellant's lack of prior criminal history, over 8 years of incarceration with remission, and the reformative theory of punishment, the sentence under Section 377 IPC was modified to the period undergone, with fines sustained.

List of Cases cited:

1. Mohd. Giasuddin Vs St. of A.P., AIR 1977 SC 1926

2. Deo Narain Mandal Vs St. of U.P., (2004) 7 SCC 257

3. Jameel Vs St. of U.P., (2010) 12 SCC 532

4. Guru Basavraj Vs St. of Karn., (2012) 8 SCC 734

5. Sumer Singh Vs Surajbhan Singh, (2014) 7 SCC 323

6. St. of Punj. Vs Bawa Singh, (2015) 3 SCC 441

7. Raj Bala Vs St. of Har., (2016) 1 SCC 463

8. Ravada Sasikala Vs St. of A.P., AIR 2017 SC 1166

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar
Mishra, J.
&

Hon'ble Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi, J.)

1. This criminal appeal is directed against the judgment and order dated 26.7.2019, passed by the First Additional Session Judge/Special Judge (POCSO Act), Kaushambi in Sessions Trial No.125 of 2016, arising out of Case Crime No.319 of 2016, under Sections 452, 377, 506 IPC, Section ¾ POCSO Act and Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act, Police Station Pipari, District Kaushambi; whereby the appellant Mohammad Rehan has been convicted under section 452 IPC and sentenced to five years imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.5,000/-; sentenced to ten years imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.10,000/- under Section 377 IPC; sentenced to two years imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.2,000/- under Section 506 IPC; sentenced to twelve years imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.12,000/- under Section ¾ POCSO Act; sentenced to life imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.15,000/- under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act and in default of payment of fine to undergo two months additional imprisonment, each. All the sentences to run concurrently.

2. Informant in the present case is the mother of the eleven year old male child, who has been subjected to unnatural offence. The informant (PW-1) is Pasi by caste and is a vegetable seller. She is a original resident of village Saiyed Sarawan, Police Station Charwa, District Kaushambi and had taken a house on rent in village Akbarpur where she lived alongwith her family. On 20.8.2016 the informant had gone to Mundera Mandi for selling vegetable whereafter she returned at about 3.00 PM. When she arrived at her house she was informed by her ten year old son that he was playing in front of the house when the accused on the pretext of offering toffee took him inside the house and subjected him to unnatural offence. The minor son of the informant was weeping outside the house when the informant returned. Informant then attempted to raise a protest with the accused, who threatened her with knife, whereafter the informant came to the Police Station. On the basis of such written report (Ex.Ka.1) First Information Report came to be lodged at Police Station Pipari, District Kaushambi as Case Crime No.319 of 2016 under Sections 377, 506 IPC, ¾ POCSO Act and 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act. The FIR has been lodged on 21.8.2016 at 7.30 in the morning in respect of incident occurred on the previous day i.e. 20.8.2016 during afternoon hours. The investigation proceeded in the matter and the blood sample and underwear of the victim and the accused was taken and sent for scientific examination to the FSL. The victim was also examined by Dr. Himanshu (PW-5) at the Primary Health Centre, Chail at Kaushambi. Following injuries have been found on the victim:-

”Injury- Redness around anal orifice tear anal orifice inner side 0.5 x 0.1 cm.“

3. In the opinion of the doctor the injury was simple in nature and caused by hard and blunt object. The victim was referred to district hospital for expert opinion and further evaluation. Investigation proceeded further and ultimately a charge-sheet came to be submitted by the Circle Officer, Chail on 27.8.2016. The concerned Magistrate took cognizance of the charge-sheet and committed the case to the court of Sessions where it got registered as Sessions Trial No.125 of 2016. The concerned court of Sessions framed charges against the accused appellant on 24.6.2017 under Sections 452, 377, 506, $\frac{3}{4}$ POCSO Act and 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act. The accused denied the accusations and demanded trial.

4. During the course of trial the informant appeared as PW-1 and has supported the prosecution case. The informant alleged that she has four children. She has verified the written report given to the Police. She has fully supported the prosecution case including the recovery of the underwear of the victim. PW-1 has denied the suggestion that there was some dispute between her and the accused on account of non-payment of outstanding amount due for purchase of fish from the accused.

5. PW-2 is the Head Constable, who has proved the police papers.

6. PW-3 is the victim, who has supported the prosecution case and has alleged that on the pretext of offering him toffee the accused took him inside the house and subjected him to unnatural offence. During cross-examination PW-3 has stated that he resides at Saiyed Sarawan. As per him the place of incident is Akbarpur and the house where the offence was committed situates within the market. Victim’s brothers and sisters were playing outside and various persons were moving on the road.

7. Doctor, who has examined the victim has been produced in evidence as PW-5. This witness has found existence of internal injury in the anal region of the victim of the size 0.5cmx0.1cm tear. Redness was also observed on the anal region. According to the doctor the injury could have been caused due to unnatural offence. Other witnesses produced by the prosecution are the I.O. and other formal witnesses.

8. The accused has been confronted with the evidence adduced by the prosecution during trial, wherein the appellant denied the allegation made against him and has stated that he is innocent and has been falsely implicated due to enmity.

9. It is on the basis of above evidence that the trial court has convicted the accused appellant of offence under Sections 452, 377, 506 IPC read with $\frac{3}{4}$ POCSO Act and 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act. Aggrieved by the conviction and sentence of accused appellant this instant appeal has been filed before this Court.

10. Sri Shams Tabrez Ali, learned counsel appearing for the appellant submits that the accused appellant has been falsely implicated on account of prior enmity as the informant had not returned the amount payable to him for the meat and fish supplied to her by the appellant. It is further submitted that the injury report on record does not conclusively establish the commissioning of unnatural offence. It is then submitted that the injury could have been caused for other reasons also. Learned counsel further submits that the DNA sample was taken but the DNA report has not been produced.

11. The prosecution has however produced on record the FSL report. As per it the DNA profile was generated of the blood sample and underwear of the victim as well as blood sample and underwear of the accused. The result of the examination shows that only partial DNA profile could be generated and, therefore, no definite opinion could be expressed to connect the DNA profile generated of the accused and the victim. The FSL report, therefore, does not help the cause of the prosecution.

12. Further argument advanced on behalf of the appellant is that the place of incident indicated by PW-1 is her house, whereas PW-3 has disclosed the house of accused to be the place of incident and this material contradiction has been overlooked. Learned counsel also submits that the trial court has misconstrued the evidence on this aspect of the matter and has erroneously overlooked this crucial aspect by observing that this is merely an error of investigation. Sri Ali further argued that there are no allegations in the FIR or the evidence adduced during trial that the offence was committed by the accused on account of caste identity of the victim nor is it proved that the accused was aware that the victim belonged to Scheduled Caste and, therefore, no offence can be said to have been made out under the provisions of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 (hereinafter referred to as the 'SC/ST Act').

13. It is also argued that no offence is otherwise made out under the provisions of Prevention of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 (hereinafter referred to as the 'POCSO Act').

14. Lastly it is urged by the counsel for the appellant that the appellant has already undergone incarceration of more than eight years and since no evidence has been adduced to implicate the appellant under the SC/ST Act as such it is alternatively urged that the sentence of the accused appellant be reduced and he be let off on the period of incarceration already undergone.

15. Learned AGA, on the other hand, supports the finding returned in the judgment of the court of Sessions on the basis of evidence led during trial.

16. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and have perused the material on record.

17. So far as the conviction and sentence of the accused appellant under the provisions of SC/ST Act is concerned, we find that there is absolutely no evidence led by any of the witness during trial that the offence upon the victim was committed on account of his caste identity. It is also submitted that the prosecution has not adduced any evidence to show that the accused appellant was even aware of the caste identity of the victim. It is, therefore, submitted that the conviction and sentence of the accused appellant under the SC/ST Act is without any basis and, therefore, unsustainable.

18. The offence, in the present case, is alleged to have been committed on 20.8.2016. Section 3(2)(v) of the SC/ST Act as it stood on the date of offence reads as under:-

“3(2)(v)- commits any offence under the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) punishable with imprisonment for a term of ten years or more against a person or property [knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member], shall be punishable with imprisonment for life and with fine.”

19. After the amendment has been incorporated in SC/ST Act, an offence punishable with imprisonment for a term of ten years or more against a person or property knowing that such person is a member of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes or such property belongs to such member is to be punished with imprisonment for life and with fine. The necessary ingredients for attracting the offence under Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act would thus be that the base offence draws imprisonment for a term of ten years or more against the person or property belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. The other condition for attracting the offence is that the perpetrator of crime is aware that the person against whom such offence is committed is a member of Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. In order to bring home the charge under Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act the prosecution will have to demonstrate on the basis of evidence led during trial that the perpetrator of crime knew that the victim belongs to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. In the facts of the present case, the entire evidence has been perused by us and we do not find any evidence on record to indicate that the accused was even aware of the caste identity of the victim. Unless such evidence is led it cannot be said that an offence under Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act is made out against the accused appellant. In such view of the matter, we are inclined to accept the argument of counsel for the appellant that on the basis of evidence led during trial, by the prosecution, no offence can be said to be made out against the accused appellant under Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST. The conviction and sentence of the accused appellant under the SC/ST Act is, therefore, reversed.

20. On merits the main submission advanced on behalf of the appellant is that the place of occurrence has not been fixed/determined by the prosecution. It is alleged that the version of PW-1 and PW-3 contradicts each other. On this aspect we have examined the evidence on record. PW-1 in her testimony has alleged that she was informed by the victim that accused on the pretext of offering toffee took him inside the house where the unnatural offence was committed. The statement of PW-3 has also been examined by us. PW-3 has stated that he was playing in front of his house when the accused on the pretext of offering toffee called him inside his house. The exact expression used by PW-3 is reproduced hereinafter:-

“मैं पढा नहीं हूँ। निशानी अंगूठा लगाता (कांफा) साल महीना जानता हूँ। बरसात का महीना था मैं अपने दरवाजे पर खेल रहा था। मेरी मां मुण्डेरा मण्डी गयी थी। मेरे पापा मजदूरी पर गये थे। जब मैं खेल रहा था तो रेहान मुझे टाफी देने के बहाने अपने मेरे घर बुला लिया घर के अन्दर ले गया। और मेरे साथ गलत काम किया। फिर मेरी मां आयी तो मैंने

सारी बात अपने मां को बतायी। मेरी डाक्टरी हुयी थी। पुलिस वालो ने मेरा वयान लिया था। रिपोर्ट मेरी मम्मी ने लिखाया था। मेरी मां उलाहना देने गयी थी तो रेहान उसे चाकू लेकर दौड़ा लिया था।”

21. There appears to be some discrepancy in the statement of PW-3, inasmuch as his statement can be construed differently and an inference could be drawn that the offence was committed inside the house of the accused appellant. However, we are not inclined to attach much importance to this aspect of the matter considering the fact that the victim is only 10-11 years old. The statement of PW-3 in its entirety suggests that the house where offence is committed is within the main market and her sisters and brothers were playing outside. The statement of PW-3 will have to be read as a whole and an isolated statement cannot be read out of context to support the defence case. The statement that brothers and sisters of the victim were playing outside the house lends credence to the stand of learned State counsel that in fact it was the house of PW-1 where the offence was committed. PW-3 during trial has specifically identified the accused as being the perpetrator of crime. There is thus not much of a substance regarding identity of the accused or the place of occurrence.

22. So far as the commissioning of offence is concerned, the statement of doctor as well as the medico-legal report clearly shows existence of redness around anal orifice and there is a tear in the inner anal orifice of the size 0.5cmx0.1cm. The medical examination of the victim has been conducted on 21.8.2016 at 1.40 PM which is within 24 hours of the incident. The victim as well as her mother both are specific in implicating the accused appellant of committing the offence. Upon evaluation of the oral evidence led by the prosecution in the form of statement of PW-1 and PW-3 coupled with the medico-legal report on record we are inclined to concur with the opinion expressed by the court below that in fact the ten year old minor victim was subjected to unnatural offence. The finding returned by the court of Sessions in that regard is sustained.

23. Learned counsel for the appellant has lastly urged that the punishment imposed upon the accused appellant in the facts and circumstances of the case is highly excessive. It is submitted that the punishment specified under Section 377 IPC is life or up to ten years and fine. At the time when the offence was committed the minimum punishment under POCSO Act was seven years. It is submitted that accused appellant has no criminal history and has actually remained in jail for over 7½ years and with remission the period of incarceration would be above eight years. Learned counsel, therefore, submits that this is the first offence of the accused appellant and it would not be necessary to award maximum punishment for the offence established against the accused appellant. It is submitted that the incarceration of more than eight years with remission would adequately sub-serve the interest of justice.

24. On the aspect of sentencing we may refer to a recent judgment of this Court in Criminal Appeal No.2878 of 2013:-

“14. While coming to the conclusion that the accused is the perpetrator of the offence, whether sentence of life imprisonment and fine is adequate or the sentence requires to be modified in the facts and circumstances of this case and in the light of certain judicial pronouncements and precedents applicable in such matters. This Court would refer to the following precedents, namely, Mohd. Giasuddin Vs. State of AP, [AIR 1977 SC 1926], explaining rehabilitary & reformatory aspects in sentencing it has been observed by the Supreme Court:

"Crime is a pathological aberration. The criminal can ordinarily be redeemed and the state has to rehabilitate rather than avenge. The sub-culture that leads to ante-social behaviour has to be countered not by undue cruelty but by reculturization. Therefore, the focus of interest in penology in the individual and the goal is salvaging him for the society. The infliction of harsh and savage punishment is thus a relic of past and regressive times. The human today vies sentencing as a process of reshaping a person who has deteriorated into criminality and the modern community has a primary stake in the rehabilitation of the offender as a means of a social defence. Hence a therapeutic, rather than an 'in terrorem' outlook should prevail in our criminal courts, since brutal incarceration of the person merely produces laceration of his mind. If you are to punish a man retributively, you must injure him. If you are to reform him, you must improve him and, men are not improved by injuries."

15. 'Proper Sentence' was explained in Deo Narain Mandal Vs. State of UP [(2004) 7 SCC 257] by observing that Sentence should not be either excessively harsh or ridiculously low. While determining the quantum of sentence, the court should bear in mind the 'principle of proportionality'. Sentence should be based on facts of a given case. Gravity of offence, manner of commission of crime, age and sex of accused should be taken into account. Discretion of Court in awarding sentence cannot be exercised arbitrarily or whimsically.

16. In Ravada Sasikala vs. State of A.P. AIR 2017 SC 1166, the Supreme Court referred the judgments in Jameel vs State of UP [(2010) 12 SCC 532], Guru Basavraj vs State of Karnataka, [(2012) 8 SCC 734], Sumer Singh vs Surajbhan Singh, [(2014) 7 SCC 323], State of Punjab vs Bawa Singh, [(2015) 3 SCC 441], and Raj Bala vs State of Haryana, [(2016) 1 SCC 463] and has reiterated that, in operating the sentencing system, law should adopt corrective machinery or deterrence based on factual matrix. Facts and given circumstances in each case, nature of crime, manner in which it was planned and committed, motive for commission of crime, conduct of accused, nature of weapons used and all other attending circumstances are relevant facts which would enter into area of consideration. Further, undue sympathy in sentencing would do more harm to justice dispensations and would undermine the public confidence in the efficacy of law. It is the duty of every court to award proper sentence having regard to nature of offence and manner of its commission. The supreme court further said that courts must not only keep in view the right of victim of crime but also society at large. While considering imposition of appropriate punishment, the impact of crime on the society as a whole and rule of law needs to be balanced. The judicial trend in the country has been towards striking a balance between reform and punishment. The protection of society and stamping out criminal proclivity must be the object of law which can be achieved by imposing appropriate sentence on criminals and wrongdoers. Law, as a tool to maintain order and peace, should effectively meet challenges confronting the society, as society could not long endure and develop under serious threats of crime and disharmony. It is therefore, necessary to avoid undue leniency in imposition of sentence. Thus, the criminal justice jurisprudence adopted in the country is not retributive but reformatory and corrective. At the same time, undue harshness should also be avoided keeping in view the reformatory approach underlying in our criminal justice system.

17. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and also keeping in view criminal jurisprudence in our country which is reformatory and corrective and not retributive, this Court considers that no accused person is incapable of being reformed and therefore, all measures should be applied to give them an opportunity of reformation in order to bring them in the social stream.

18. As discussed above, 'reformatory theory of punishment' is to be adopted and for that reason, it is necessary to impose punishment keeping in view the 'doctrine of proportionality'. It appears from perusal of impugned judgment that sentence awarded by learned trial court for life term is very harsh keeping in view the entirety of facts and circumstances of the cases and gravity of offence. Hon'ble Apex Court, as discussed above, has held that undue harshness should be avoided taking into account the reformatory approach underlying in criminal justice system."

25. We have carefully examined the submission in that regard and we find that the accused appellant is the first offender. There is no criminal history of any prior sexual perversity attributed to the accused appellant. The accused appellant has also undergone incarceration of more than eight years with remission. Minimum punishment for the offence under the POCSO Act is seven years.

Keeping in view the criminal jurisprudence which encompasses reformatory and corrective theory, as also the doctrine of proportionality, it would not be necessary to award maximum sentence to the appellant, who is the first offender. In such circumstances, we are of the view that the sentence awarded to the accused appellant under Section 377 IPC deserves to be modified and substituted with the sentence already undergone by him. The appeal, accordingly, is partly allowed. The fine imposed by the accused appellant, however, is maintained. The judgment and order passed by the court below in Sessions Trial No.125 of 2016, arising out of Case Crime No.319 of 2016, under Sections 452, 377, 506 IPC, Section 3/4 POCSO Act and Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act, Police Station Pipari, District Kaushambi is modified, accordingly. The appellant shall be released, forthwith, on the period undergone by him and upon deposit of fine or completion of default sentence in lieu of fine unless he is required in any other case, subject to compliance of Section 437A Cr.P.C.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1263
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 08.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Election Petition No. 6 of 2022

Abhay Kumar @ Dheeraj Ojha ...Petitioner
Versus
Rakesh Kumar Verma & Ors.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

In Person, Amol Kumar Srivastava, Chetan Kumar Tiwari, Kuldeep Pati Tripathi, Pramod Kumar Pandey, Sakshi Singh, Shivanshu Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:

Santosh Kumar Yadav, Ashutosh Chaurasia, Dr. Pooja Singh, Kuldeep Pati Tripathi, Santosh Kr. Yadav Warsi, Vijay Vikram Singh

Civil Law - Representation of the People Act, 1951 - Sections 80, 81, 82, 83, 86, 100 - Election Petition - Constitution of India, 1950- Article 227-

Petitioner challenged the election of Respondent No. 1 from 250, Raniganj Assembly Constituency, Pratapgarh, alleging improper acceptance of nomination materially affected the election result. Respondent raised preliminary objections under Sections 80, 81, 86, and Order VII Rule 11, Order VI Rule 16 CPC, contesting petitioner's locus, pleading defects, and improper inclusion of Returning Officer as a party. Court held: (1) Petitioner's locus as a duly nominated candidate or elector was not conclusively disproved at the preliminary stage, requiring evidence (Tej Bahadur Vs Narendra Modi, 2021 (14) SCC 211). (2) Pleadings sufficiently alleged material effect on election results per Section 100(1)(d)(i), and improper acceptance of the returned candidate's nomination does not require further proof of material effect (Mairembam Prithviraj Vs Pukhrem Sharatchandra Singh, (2017) 2 SCC 487). (3) Estoppel does not apply to statutory grounds under Section 100. (4) Missing or blurred pages did not violate Section 81(3) as all pages were filed with the court (Mithilesh Kumar Pandey Vs Baidyanath Yadav, (1984) 2 SCC 1). (5) Returning Officer was not a necessary party per Section 82 (Jyoti Basu Vs Debi Ghosal, (1982) 1 SCC 691); deletion ordered, not dismissal. (6) Defective affidavit was curable, not warranting dismissal under Section 86 (Saritha S. Nair Vs Hibi Eden, (2021) 14 SCC 148). Applications under Order VII Rule 11, Order VI Rule 16, and Section 86 rejected; petitioner granted two weeks to file a fresh affidavit. (Paras 18-85)

List of Cases cited:

1. Tej Bahadur Vs Narendra Modi, 2020 (2) All WC 1871, affirmed in 2021 (14) SCC 211 (Para 11)
2. Charan Lal Sahu Vs Fakruddin Ali Ahmed (Para 11)

3. Charan Lal Sahu Vs Giani Zail Singh (Para 11)
4. Om Prakash Srivastava Vs U.O.I., (2006) 6 SCC 207 (Para 24)
5. Mairembam Prithviraj Vs Pukhrem Sharatchandra Singh, (2017) 2 SCC 487 (Paras 30, 31)
6. Durai Muthuswami Vs N. Nachiappan, (1973) 2 SCC 45 (Para 30)
7. Jagjit Singh Vs Dharam Pal Singh, 1995 Supp (1) SCC 422 (Para 30)
8. Vashist Narain Sharma Vs Dev Chandra, (1955) 1 SCR 509 (Para 30)
9. Kisan Shankar Kathore Vs Arun Dattatray Sawant, (2014) 14 SCC 162 (Para 30)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Sri Kuldeep Pati Tripathi, Sri Chetan Kumar Tiwari, Ms. Sakshi Singh, Sri Pramod Kumar Pandey and Dr. Pooja Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as Sri Prem Prakash, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Santosh Kumar Yadav Warsi, learned counsel appearing for the respondents.

2. The instant election petition has been filed Abhay Kumar @ Dheeraj Ojha challenging the election of the returned candidate namely Rakesh Kumar Verma (Respondent no.1) for the Vidhan Sabha 2022 Elections, from 250, Raniganj Assembly Constituency, Pratapgarh, Uttar Pradesh. The petitioner has sought the relief of declaration of the election of the returned candidate as null and void and further prayed that he be declared as elected member of the legislative assembly.

3. The main ground for challenging the election of respondent no.1 by the petitioner is that the returning officer had improperly accepted his nomination which has materially affected the result of the election.

4. Certain relevant facts regarding the election in question are that the Notification for holding general elections of members of U.P Legislative Assembly was issued on 01/02/2022. The last date of filing of the nomination papers was 08/02/2022 and the polling took place on 27/02/2022 and the counting of votes was done on 10/03/2022. Respondent No. 1, the returned candidate had polled 75583 votes while the election petitioner had secured 72934 votes, and the result was declared on 10/03/2022 itself.

5. This Court, by means of order dated 25/04/2022 had issued notices to the respondents. Notices were duly served upon the respondents and appearance was put in on behalf of respondent no.1 and 14.

6. Preliminary objections for dismissal of the election petition in limine has been filed by respondent no.1 under Section 80/81 read with Section 86 as well as under Order VI Rule 16 of the Representation of People's Act, 1951 (hereinafter, referred to as "the Act of 1951"), and also an application under order VII Rule 11 CPC for dismissal of the petition, as it does not disclose the cause of action.

7. The preliminary objection raised by the respondent can broadly be classified in 2 sets. The first set of objections is regarding locus of the election petitioner to maintain the Election Petition while the second set of objections pertain to the defect and infirmity in the Election Petition.

A. MAINTAINABILITY OF ELECTION PETITION

8. With regard to the issue regarding maintainability of election petition, it has been contended on behalf of the respondent no.1 that oath was subscribed by the election petitioner on 07.02.2022 i.e. the date prior to filing of nomination papers on 08.02.2022. It is stated that the said facts are discernible from the copy of nomination papers filed along with the Election Petition and also certificate in this regard issued by the Returning Officer. He submits that oath has to be administered on the same day after presentation of nomination papers. The election petitioner having failed to subscribe oath on 08.02.2022 after presentation of nomination paper, is fatal to his candidature, and he has incurred disqualification and accordingly his nomination was liable to be rejected by the Returning Officer as he is not a "duly nominated candidate" and consequently cannot maintain Election Petition

9. It has been submitted that aspect of locus of an individual to maintain Election Petition has to be determined statutorily as per provisions contained in the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act, 1951"). Section 81(1) of the Act, 1951 provides that Election Petition may be presented by any candidate to such election or any elector. The Elector has been defined in Explanation to Section 81 of the Act, 1951 which states that "elector" means a person who was entitled to vote at the election to which the election petition relates, whether he has voted at such election or not. The definition of "candidate" as provided in Section 79(b) of the Act, 1951 states that "candidate" means a person who has been or claims to have been duly nominated as a candidate at any election.

10. It has further been stated that oath has to be subscribed before the Returning Officer and Article 173(a) of the Constitution of India, requires that oath be subscribed before the “authorised officer” as per form contained in IIIrd Schedule of the Constitution of India.

11. It has been submitted that this Court in the case of Tej Bahadur Vs. Narendra Modi, 2020 (2) All WC 1871 had dismissed the election petition on the ground that election petitioner had failed to comply with the mandatory requirement contained in Section 33(3) of the Act, 1951 and it was held therein that the election petitioner was not “duly nominated candidate” and the Election Petition filed by him was dismissed at the threshold and the judgment was also affirmed by the Apex Court in its judgment reported in the case of Tej Bahadur Vs. Narendra Modi, 2021 (14) SCC 211. Reliance has also been placed by the respondents on the case of Charan Lal Sahu vs Fakruddin Ali Ahmed (supra) and Charan Lal Sahu vs Giani Zail Singh (Supra)

12. The election petitioner on the other hand has denied the allegations and has submitted that the application for dismissal of election petition has been filed under Section 86 of the Act, 1951 and therefore the objections which can be raised should pertain only to the provisions contained in Section 81, 82 or 117 of the Act, 1951. It was stated that the nomination paper of the election petitioner having been duly accepted by the Returning Officer and hence he has automatically become a duly nominated candidate and consequently there is no defect in the locus of the election petitioner in maintaining the present election petition. He further submits that such an objection cannot be raised under Section 81 of the Act, 1951. It was further alternatively submitted that election petition can be maintained by a duly nominated candidate or any elector, and the petitioner is also the Elector for the said constituency and hence on that account also he has locus to file the election petition.

13. Considering the rival submissions with regard to the locus of the election petitioner to maintain the petition, though, the said objection does not fall under Section 86 of the Act, 1951, but this Court has proceeded to consider the said objection as it pertains to the maintainability of this election petition and can be considered at this stage even if strictly it does not fall for consideration under Section 86 of the Act, 1951.

14. In support of the application under Section 86 of the Act, 1951, it was contended by the learned counsel for the respondent no.1 that four sets of nomination papers can be filed by any candidate. The election petitioner had filed four sets of nomination papers, while in the Election Petition only one set of nomination papers filed on 08.02.2022 has been annexed. A certificate has been issued by the Returning Officer certifying that oath was administered to the election petitioner on 07.02.2022, is also on record. Accordingly, there is no dispute that firstly, 4 sets of nomination papers are filed by the election petitioner, and secondly that he had in fact subscribed to the oath as provided under Article 173(a) of the Constitution of India. The question to be considered is whether the oath was administered to him by the Returning Officer before filing of the nomination papers or subsequent to filing of the nomination papers. According to the respondent no.1, this plea has been set up relying solely upon the material available on record, which is the nomination papers filed by the election petitioner on 08/02/2022, without asserting as to whether any nomination paper was filed by him on 07/02/2022.

15. Even if the facts as submitted by the respondent are accepted by this Court, then whether on the basis of the material available on record a finding can be returned at this stage, that the election petitioner did not subscribe to the oath of affirmation as per the Constitution, which according to the respondent no.1 should have been administered prior to submission of the nomination form?

16. The main plank of the arguments regarding locus is built upon the copy of one set of the nomination papers filed on 08/02/2022 which has been annexed with the election petition along with the certificate issued by the Returning Officer on 07/02/2022 with regard to the administration of oath, both of which are of different dates. It is on the strength of these 2 documents alone that this Court has been called upon by respondent no.1 to hold that the petitioner does not have locus to file the present election petition.

17. On considering the aforesaid contention it is noticed that the remaining 3 nomination papers submitted by the election petitioner are not on record, nor is there any averment by the respondent no.1 that no nomination paper was filed on 07.02.2022 on the date on which the election petitioner had taken oath. In case any nomination paper has been filed on 07.02.2022, and the same has been accepted by the Returning Officer, then even according to respondent no.1 there would be no infirmity in this regard, to hold that he is not a duly nominated candidate.

18. The said plea has been taken only on the basis of one set of nomination papers which has been annexed by the election petitioner which was filed on 08/02/2022, and oath having been administered one day prior i.e 07.02.2022. It is admitted that 4 sets of nomination papers filed by him before the returning officer while only 1 of those sets, has been annexed with the election petition. In case the respondent is able to demonstrate that the election petitioner did not file any nomination paper on 07.02.2022, then it may be open for the respondent to set up a plea that the election petitioner is not a duly nominated candidate as he has failed to subscribe to the oath as provided for in the Constitution of India, prior to submission of his nomination papers. In the aforesaid facts, this Court is of the considered view that this issue cannot be decided in the absence of relevant pleadings, and proper opportunity to place all the relevant material necessary for deciding the said issue. The deficiencies pointed out by the respondent no.1 are nothing but contentions which can form part of their defence and in any case such contentions being contestable questions, are to be made subject matter of issues and only after permitting the petitioner to lead evidence, can the matter be decided. The said issue can be decided only after giving opportunity to both the parties to lead evidence during the trial, and not at the very threshold, as it may cause injustice by nonsuited the election petitioner only on the basis of the material on record, when there is no dispute with regard to the fact that more than one nomination papers were filed but only one nomination paper has been annexed along with the election petition.

19. Even if the said issue has to be decided, it has to be done after receiving evidence and cannot be decided as a preliminary issue in the facts of the present case, to non-suit the election petitioner at the very threshold. Accordingly, the said contention of respondent no.1 is rejected at this stage.

B. Civil Misc. Application No. 3 of 2022

(Under Order VII Rule 11 CPC)

20. The 2nd application pressed by the respondent no.1 is Application No. 03 of 2022 filed under Order 7 Rule 11 CPC for rejection of the election petition on account of non-disclosure of cause of action. It has been submitted that from the perusal the election petition it would be evident that there is no averment to the effect that the election result was affected due to improper acceptance of the nomination papers of the respondent no.1. In support of the said contention, it has been submitted that the respondent no.1 had secured 75,583 votes whereas the election petitioner had secured 72,934 votes and that was a margin of 2449 votes. It has further been stated that only 166 votes were rejected and 1139 votes were polled in the option of NOTA, and therefore contends that even if the rejected votes had been cast in favour of the election petitioner he could not have been declared elected, and there is no mention in the entire election petition as to how the improper acceptance of the nomination of respondent no.1 had materially affected his election.

21. Counsel for the respondent no.1 submitted that perusal of the pleadings made in the election petition specially in paragraph No. 57 would indicate that there is absence of any averment as to how the election result has materially affected due to improper acceptance of the nomination paper. It was further contended that at the time of scrutiny of the nomination papers no objection was raised by the election petitioner before the Returning Officer, and therefore applying the principle of estoppel and acquiescence the election petitioner is precluded from raising objections in this regard, and accordingly, it is on the basis of the aforesaid facts it is contended that no cause of action is disclosed in the election petition and therefore it deserves to be dismissed.

22. On behalf of the election petitioner it has been submitted that as per provisions of Section 100(d)(i) of the Act, 1951, the election of respondent no.1 has been challenged on the ground of improper acceptance of nomination, and the conditions laid down in section 100(d) of the Act of 1951 is to the effect that the result of the election, insofar as it concerns the returned candidate, has been materially affected, has been clearly stated in paragraph No. 57, and further substantiated in paragraph Nos. 72, 73, 74 and 76 of the election petition. It is submitted that the ground raised by the respondent in the present application is accordingly misconceived and deserves to be rejected.

23. It has further been submitted on behalf of the election petitioner that where the allegation of improper acceptance of nomination has been made with regard to the returned candidate, then, even if it is not been mentioned in the election petition that the acceptance of his nomination papers has materially affect the election, still the election petition can have been dismissed on this ground in as much as respondent no.1 is the returned candidate, and once it is held that acceptance of his nomination was improper or illegal, his election would have to be set aside. A perusal of the aforesaid pleadings would indicate that it cannot be said that no cause of action is made out on a bare reading of the election petition.

24. Considering the above contentions it would be gainful to refer to the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Om Prakash Srivastava v. Union of India & Anr., (2006) 6 SCC 207 where they have explained the expression "cause of action" in the following words:

"The expression 'cause of action' has acquired a judicially settled meaning. In the restricted sense 'cause of action' means the circumstances forming the infraction of the right or the immediate occasion for the reaction. In the wider sense, it means the necessary conditions for the maintenance of the suit, including not only the infraction of the right, but also the infraction coupled with the right itself. Compendiously, as noted above the expression means every fact, which it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right to the judgment of the Court. Every fact, which is necessary to be proved, as distinguished from every piece of evidence, which is necessary, to prove each fact. comprises in 'cause of action'."

25. Considering the application under Order VII Rule 11 CPC on the ground that the election petition does not disclose any cause of action, the learned Counsel for respondent no.1 has urged that the election petitioner has not been able to substantiate that improper rejection of the nomination of the respondent no.1 would materially affect the election. A bare perusal of the scheme of act of 1951 would indicate that Section 100(1)(a) to (c) of the Act, 1951 deals with disqualification, corrupt practices and improper rejection of nominations, respectively, which are grounds for setting aside the election. The sine qua non for setting aside an election under Section 100(1)(d) of the Act, 1951 is that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected. Under Section 81 of the Act, 1951 an election petition calling in question any election may be presented on one or more grounds specified in sub-Section (1) of Section 100 and Section 25 of the Act, 1951. The contention of Mr. Prem Prakash Yadav learned Senior Counsel for the Respondent no.1 is that even if it is held that the nomination of the petitioner was improperly accepted, his election cannot be set aside in the absence of any pleading or proof that the result was materially affected by the improper acceptance of the nomination. It was further submitted that an election cannot be set aside on the ground of improper acceptance of any nomination without a pleading and proof that the result of the returned candidate was materially affected.

26. The question to be considered is whether as per Act of 1951 and also the judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court relating to the pleading and proof of the fact of the result of the election being materially affected applies to a case where the nomination of the returned candidate is declared to have been improperly accepted?

27. At the very outset, a bare perusal of the election petition would disclose that in paragraph No. 69 there is a long list of allegations with regard to false information being given on affidavit by respondent No. 1 along with his nomination form, and in paragraph 75 and 76 it has been categorically stated that improper acceptance of nomination of returned candidate has materially affected the result of the election, which is liable to be set aside. Accordingly, this is not the case where there is absence of pleadings to the effect the improper acceptance of the nomination of the return candidate has not materially affected the election, while in paragraph 68 of the election petition it has been alleged, that the affidavit in support of the nomination form of the respondent no.1 was not verified by the Notary, nor has it been signed by him and merely stamp is affixed, and consequently in absence of a proper affidavit the nomination paper ought to have been rejected.

28. The bare perusal of the election petition therefore clearly indicates that the election petitioner has duly taken the plea that the improper acceptance of the nomination of the returned candidate has materially affected the result of the election. Once pleadings have been made in the election petition that the election has been materially affected, the sufficiency of the same, as well as the material in support of the pleadings, and its effect on the election of the returned candidate, are issues to be considered at the time of hearing of the election petition. The petition cannot be thrown out at the very outset on the ground that no “cause of action” is made out, when such a ground has been taken by the election petitioner as mandated in provisions contained in Section 100(d)(i) of the Act of 1951. At this stage considering the application of the respondent no.1 under Order VII Rule 11 CPC, the enquiry would be limited only to the aspect as to whether such a ground has been raised by the election petitioner in assailing the election and not to the extent whether the ground is made out or not, which determination can be made only after final hearing.

29. The Hon’ble Supreme Court in the case of Eldeco Housing and Industries Ltd. Vs. Ashok Vidyarthi and others, Civil Appeal No. 7891 of 2023 (arising out of SLP (C) No. 19465 of 2021), decided on 30.11.2023, in para 17 the Court has held as under :-

“17. In Kamala and Ors. v. K.T. Eshwara Sa and Ors., (2008) 12 SCC 661 this Court opined that for invoking Clause (d) of Order VII Rule 11 Code of Civil Procedure, only the averments in the plaint would be relevant. For this purpose, there cannot be any addition or subtraction. No amount of evidence can be looked into. The issue on merits of the matter would not be within the realm of the Court at that stage. The Court at that stage would not consider any evidence or enter a disputed question of fact or law. Relevant paragraphs thereof are extracted below :

21. Order 7 Rule 11(d) of the Code had limited application. It must be shown that the suit is barred under any law. Such a conclusion must be drawn from the averments made in the plaint. Different clauses in Order 7 Rule 11, in our opinion, should not be mixed up. Whereas in a given case, an application for rejection of the plaint may be filed on more than one ground specified in various sub-clauses thereof, a clear finding to that effect must be arrived at. What would be relevant for invoking Clause (d) of Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code are the averments made in the plaint. For that purpose, there cannot be any addition or subtraction. Absence of jurisdiction on the part of a court can be invoked at different stages and under different provisions of the Code. Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code is one, Order 14 Rule 2 is another.

22. For the purpose of invoking Order 7 Rule 11(d) of the Code, no amount of evidence can be looked into. The issues on merit of the matter which may arise between the parties would not be within the realm of the court at that stage. All issues shall not be the subject matter of an order under the said provision.

23. The principles of res judicata, when attracted, would bar another suit in view of Section 12 of the Code. The question involving a mixed question of law and fact which may require not only examination of the plaint but also other evidence and the order passed in the earlier suit may be taken up either as a preliminary issue or at the final hearing, but, the said question cannot be determined at that stage.

24. It is one thing to say that the averments made in the plaint on their face discloses no cause of action, but it is another thing to say that although the same discloses a cause of action, the same is barred by a law.

25. The decisions rendered by this Court as also by various High Courts are not uniform in this behalf. But, then the broad principle which can be culled out therefrom is that the court at that stage would not consider any evidence or enter into a disputed question of fact or law. In the event, the jurisdiction of the court is found to be barred by any law, meaning thereby, the subject matter thereof, the application for rejection of plaint should be entertained.” (emphasis supplied)

30. Hon’ble Supreme Court also considered the question whether the election of the returned candidate is materially affected where, the improper acceptance of the nomination is of the returned candidate himself in the case of Mairembam Prithviraj v. Pukhrem Sharatchandra Singh, (2017) 2 SCC 487

24. The judgment of this Court in Durai Muthuswami [Durai Muthuswami v. N. Nachiappan, (1973) 2 SCC 45] was referred to in Jagjit Singh v. Dharam Pal Singh [Jagjit Singh v. Dharam Pal Singh, 1995 Supp (1) SCC 422], in which it was held as follows: (Jagjit Singh case [Jagjit Singh v. Dharam Pal Singh, 1995 Supp (1) SCC 422] SCC p. 429, para 21)

“21. The trial Judge has held that since there is no averment in the petition that the result of the election was materially affected by improper rejection or acceptance of votes, it is devoid of cause of action. We are unable to agree that the absence of such an averment in the facts of this case is fatal. As pointed out by this Court, there may be cases where the obvious conclusion to be drawn from the circumstances is that the result of the election has been materially affected and that Section 100(1)(d) of the Act is not intended to provide a convenient technical plea in a case where there can be no dispute at all about the result of the election being materially affected by the alleged infirmity. (See: Durai Muthuswami v. N. Nachiappan [Durai Muthuswami v. N. Nachiappan, (1973) 2 SCC 45]). In the present case, the appellant in the election petition has stated that he has lost by a margin of 80 votes only. From the various averments in the election petition it was evident that the number of valid votes of the appellant which are alleged to have been improperly rejected is much more than 80. From the averments contained in the election petition it is thus obvious if the appellant succeeds in establishing his case as set out in the election petition the result of this election, insofar as it concerns the returned candidate, would be materially affected."

25. It was held by this Court in Vashist Narain Sharma v. Dev Chandra [Vashist Narain Sharma v. Dev Chandra, (1955) 1 SCR 509 : AIR 1954 SC 513] as under: (AIR pp. 515-16, para 9)

"9. The learned counsel for the respondents concedes that the burden of proving that the improper acceptance of a nomination has materially affected the result of the election lies upon the petitioner but he argues that the question can arise in one of three ways:

(1) where the candidate whose nomination was improperly accepted had secured less votes than the difference between the returned candidate and the candidate securing the next highest number of votes,

(2) where the person referred to above secured more votes, and

(3) where the person whose nomination has been improperly accepted is the returned candidate himself.

It is agreed that in the first case the result of the election is not materially affected because if all the wasted votes are added to the votes of the candidate securing the highest votes, it will make no difference to the result and the returned candidate will retain the seat. In the other two cases it is contended that the result is materially affected. So far as the third case is concerned it may be readily conceded that such would be the conclusion. But we are not prepared to hold that the mere fact that the wasted votes are greater than the margin of votes between the returned candidate and the candidate securing the next highest number of votes must lead to the necessary inference that the result of the election has been materially affected. That is a matter which has to be proved and the onus of proving it lies upon the petitioner. It will not do merely to say that all or a majority of the wasted votes might have gone to the next highest candidate. The casting of votes at an election depends upon a variety of factors and it is not possible for any one to predicate how many or which proportion of the votes will go to one or the other of the candidates. While it must be recognised that the petitioner in such a case is confronted with a difficult situation, it is not possible to relieve him of the duty imposed upon him by Section 100(1)(c) and hold without evidence that the duty has been discharged. Should the petitioner fail to adduce satisfactory evidence to enable the Court to find in his favour on this point, the inevitable result would be that the Tribunal would not interfere in his favour and would allow the election to stand."

(emphasis supplied)

This Court in Kisan Shankar Kathore v. Arun Dattatray Sawant [Kisan Shankar Kathore v. Arun Dattatray Sawant, (2014) 14 SCC 162] dealt with a situation similar to that of this case. In that case, the election of the returned candidate was successfully challenged on the ground of non-disclosure of material information. The appeal filed by the returned candidate was dismissed by this Court by observing as follows:

"43. ... Once it is found that it was a case of improper acceptance, as there was misinformation or suppression of material information, one can state that question of rejection in such a case was only deferred to a later date. When the Court gives such a finding, which would have resulted in rejection, the effect would be same, namely, such a candidate was not entitled to contest and the election is void."

26. Mere finding that there has been an improper acceptance of the nomination is not sufficient for a declaration that the election is void under Section 100(1)(d). There has to be further pleading and proof that the result of the election of the returned candidate was materially affected. But, there would be no necessity of any proof in the event of the nomination of a returned candidate being declared as having been improperly accepted, especially in a case where there are only two candidates in the fray. If the returned candidate's nomination is declared to have been improperly accepted it would mean that he could not have contested the election and that the result of the election of the returned candidate was materially affected need not be proved further. We do not find substance in the submission of Mr Giri that the judgment in Durai Muthuswami [Durai Muthuswami v. N. Nachiappan, (1973) 2 SCC 45] is not applicable to the facts of this case. The submission that Durai Muthuswami [Durai Muthuswami v. N. Nachiappan, (1973) 2 SCC 45] is a case of disqualification under Section 9-A of the Act and, so, it is not applicable to the facts of this case is also not correct. As stated supra, the election petition in that case was rejected on the ground of non-compliance with Section 100(1)(d). The said judgment squarely applies to this case on all fours. We also do not find force in the submission that the Act has to be strictly construed and that the election cannot be declared to be void under Section 100(1)(d) without pleading and proof that the result of the election was materially affected. There is no requirement to prove that the result of the election of the returned candidate is materially affected once his nomination is declared to have been improperly accepted.

31. In light of the above, this Court is of the considered view that where the election is challenged on the ground of improper acceptance of nomination of the returned candidate then there is no requirement to further prove that the election of the returned candidate is materially affected. Even otherwise, in the present case the election petition contains sufficient pleadings stating that the improper acceptance of the nomination of the returned candidate has materially affected the election. The grounds urged by the respondent no.1 stating that there are no pleadings in this regard, is not made out. Relying on the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mairembam Prithviraj v. Pukhrem Sharatchandra Singh (supra), this Court is of the considered opinion that the application filed by the respondent no.1 under Order VII Rule 11 of CPC is bereft of merits and therefore rejected.

C. APPLICABILITY OF RULE OF ESTOPPEL

32. It has been submitted on behalf of respondent no.1 that the election petitioner had not raised any objections at the time of filing of nominations and is therefore now estopped from raising the plea in this regard in the present election petition, and hence prayed that on this ground alone the election petition deserves to be dismissed. In this regard it is noticed that Section 100 of the Act, 1951 clearly provides the grounds on which the election of a returned candidate can be challenged. As per Section 100 (d)(i) of the Act, 1951 one of the grounds stated therein is improper acceptance of any nomination. The ground taken by the petitioner has been prescribed statutorily and even if no objections were raised by the election petitioner at this stage of filing/accepting of nominations, he is at liberty to raise any grounds for challenging of the election of the returned candidate as provided for in Section 100 of the Act of 1951. No conditions have been imposed for invoking the grounds of improper acceptance of nomination as mentioned in Section 100 of the Act, 1951 and therefore if no objection was raised before the returning officer it would still be open for the election petitioner to challenge the election of the returned candidate. Therefore, rule of estoppel and acquiescence does not apply to a challenge made to the election of the returned candidate, as urged on behalf of the respondent no.1, and therefore the argument in this regard is misconceived and accordingly rejected.

D. Civil Misc, Application No. 4 of 2022

(Under Section 81 read with Section 86 of the Act, 1952)

33. Respondent no.1 has also pressed Application No. 4 of 2022 filed under Section 81 read with Section 86 of the Act of 1951, for dismissal of the election petition in limine. In the said application a number of objections have been raised on behalf of the respondent no.1, but only a few of them were pressed and accordingly this Court is proceeding to consider and decide the objections pressed by the learned Counsel for the respondent no.1.

D1. CERTAIN PAGINATED PAGES NOT ANNEXED WITH THE ELECTION PETITION.

34. The First objection was with regard to the fact that pages Nos. 226, 227, 235, 239, 325, 326 and 328 of the election petition were not furnished to respondent no.1, and failure to file these pages along with the election petition at the time of making presentation and therefore neither the election petition was correctly filed nor true copy of the petition was furnished to the respondent no.1, and consequently the petition deserves to be dismissed as per provisions of Section 86 of the Act of 1951.

35. The election petitioner has objected to the contention raised by the respondent no.1 stating that true copy of the election petition containing all pages was filed before the Registrar of this Court who is authorised under the rules for scrutiny of institutional defects and duly examined the petition where it was found to contain all the pages and no defect in this regard was recorded, and therefore the allegations levelled are false and deserve to be rejected.

36. At the very outset the Court proceeded to verify the allegations levelled by the respondent no.1, and found that pages No. 226, 227, 235, 239, 325, 326 and 328 of the election petition were existing as part of the election petition filed with the Registry of this Court and form part of the record of this Court. While scrutinizing the election petition certain defects were recorded by the Registry on 20/04/2022 including that the typed copy of page Nos. 192, 116, 119, 234 and 278 were required, which defects were removed by the election petitioner on the same day itself. It was further certified that there are 14 Annexures were filed along with election petition and provisions of Sections 81 and 117 of the Act 1951 have been complied. There was no defect recorded to the effect that certain pages of the election petition were missing. A perusal of the report of the Registry of this Court clearly indicates that the same was made after due examination of the election petition and the same would have been done after examining all the pages. Where certain pages were found to be illegible and defective, objections were duly recorded, and it was further certified that provision of Section 81 of the Act of 1951 have been complied.

37. There is no other material adduced by the respondent no.1 in support of his contention in this regard. This Court has duly considered the submission of the respondent no.1 with regard to the fact that the copy of the election petition supplied to them had 7 pages missing. There is no material to indicate that the copies served on the other respondents also had missing pages, so as to bring home the point that a true copy of the election petition was not served to the parties. On the other hand the copy of the election petition filed in the Registry of this Court had all the pages intact, which is clear from report of the Registry which had scrutinised the election petition at the stage of filing where no such defect was noticed despite the fact that the entire election petition was examined by them, and whatever pages were not found to be legible, the defect was duly noted. In case the pages were missing they would have been noticed by the Registry of this Court, and objections in this regard would have been made. This Court has also examined the election petition, and found that page's No. 226, 227, 225, 235, 239, 325, 326 and 328 of the election petition are very much available on record. Considering the fact that all the pages of the election petition are available on the record of the court, there is no objection by the Registry of this court to the effect that pages of the election petition were missing at the time of filing, and also that no other respondent has made such an allegation, this Court is of the considered view that the said allegations are not proved to the satisfaction of the court, so as to return a finding that there is violation of section 81 necessitating dismissal of election petition. Accordingly, there is no basis for accepting the contention raised by the respondent no.1 in this regard, and accordingly the said objection is devoid of merits and is accordingly rejected.

D2. BLURRED PAGES ANNEXED

38. The next objection raised by the respondent no.1 is with regard to the illegible copies annexed with election petition at page number 116 and 119 which are completely blurred and appear as blackened pieces of paper. It has been submitted that failure to file the correct, illegible and true copy of the aforesaid documents attracts provisions of Section 81 of the Act, 1951, as a consequence of which the election petition is liable to be rejected under Section 86 of the Act of 1951.

39. The election petitioner opposing the aforesaid application preferred by respondent no.1 has submitted that the certificate so filed at page nos. 116 & 119 of the election petition are not integral part of the election petition rather, they are documents which the petitioner is intending to use as evidence. He further submitted that as per the provisions of Section 81(3) of the Act of 1951 the only requirement is that the election petition which is filed in the Court is accompanied by as many copies thereof as the number of respondents mentioned in the petition and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signatures to be a true copy of the petition. It is stated that there is no allegation that the copy of the documents which were annexed with election petition, are the very documents which have been supplied to the respondent no.1 nor has there been a failure to certified the said documents to be true copies. It is stated, if the document is a relevant document which is relied upon by the election petitioner, then it is open for him to file a copy of the same as evidence during course of the trial. It was stated that the said objection is misconceived and does not fall within the scope of Section 81 of the Act of 1951, for which the election petition can be dismissed.

40. To consider the submission of respondent no.1 it will be fruitful to glance into the requirement of statutory provisions on the basis of which the rejection of petition has been sought. Section 81 of the Act, 1951 provides:-

81. Presentation of petitions.—(1) An election petition calling in question any election may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in 8 [sub-section (1)] of section 100 and section 101 to the 6 [High Court] by any candidate at such election or any elector 9 [within forty-five days from, but not earlier than the date of election of the returned candidate, or if there are more than one returned candidate at the election and the dates of their election are different, the later of those two dates].

Explanation.—In this sub-section, “elector” means a person who was entitled to vote at the election to which the election petition relates, whether he has voted at such election or not.

*1 * * * **

(3) Every election petition shall be accompanied by as many copies thereof as there are respondents mentioned in the petition and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy of the petition.

41. The consequences of infraction of provisions of Section 81 have been provided in Section 86 of the Act of 1951, which is as follows:-

86. Trial of election petitions.—(1) The High Court shall dismiss an election petition which does not comply with the provisions of section 81 or section 82 or section 117. Explanation.—An order of the High Court dismissing an election petition under this sub-section shall be deemed to be an order made under clause (a) of section 98.

(2) As soon as may be after an election petition has been presented to the High Court, it shall be referred to the Judge or one of the Judges who has or have been assigned by the Chief Justice for the trial of election petitions under sub-section (2) of section 80A. (3) Where more election petitions than one are presented to the High Court in respect of the same election, all of them shall be referred for trial to the same Judge who may, in his discretion, try them separately or in one or more groups.

(4) Any candidate not already a respondent shall, upon application made by him to the High Court within fourteen days from the date of commencement of the trial and subject to any order as to security for costs which may be made by the High Court, be entitled to be joined as a respondent. Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-section and of section 97, the trial of a petition shall be deemed to commence on the date fixed for the respondents to appear before the High Court and answer the claim or claims made in the petition.

(5) The High Court may, upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as it may deem fit, allow the particulars of any corrupt practice alleged in the petition to be amended or amplified in such manner as may in its opinion be necessary for ensuring a fair and effective trial of the petition, but shall not allow any amendment of the petition which will have the effect of introducing particulars of a corrupt practice not previously alleged in the petition.

(6) The trial of an election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interests of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion, unless the High Court finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

(7) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the High Court for trial.

42. The question posed by respondent no.1 is as to whether filing 2 blurred pages along with the election petition would incur rejection of the election petition as per provisions of Section 86 of the Act of 1951. From a plain reading of sub clause 3 of Section 81 it is borne out that the election petitioner must file as many copies of the petition as there are respondents mentioned in the petition with the caveat that every copy of the document shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy. It is not the case of the objector that page nos.116 or 119 were not attested to be true copies of the documents filed along with the election petition or were different documents than those enclosed with the election petition. This issue has been considered by the Supreme Court in the case of Mithilesh Kumar Pandey v. Baidyanath Yadav, (1984) 2 SCC 1 and the relevant portion is reproduced here under:-

“15. On a careful consideration and scrutiny of the law on the subject, the following principles are well established:

“(1) that where the copy of the election petition served on the returned candidate contains only clerical or typographical mistakes which are of no consequence, the petition cannot be dismissed straightaway under Section 86 of the Act,

(2) a true copy means a copy which is wholly and substantially the same as the original and where there are insignificant or minimal mistakes, the court may not take notice thereof,

(3) where the copy contains important omissions or discrepancies of a vital nature, which are likely to cause prejudice to the defence of the returned candidate, it cannot be said that there has been a substantial compliance with the provisions of Section 81(3) of the Act,

(4) prima facie, the statute uses the words ‘true copy’ and the concept of substantial compliance cannot be extended too far to include serious or vital mistakes which shed the character of a true copy so that the copy furnished to the returned candidate cannot be said to be a true copy within the meaning of Section 81(3) of the Act, and

(5) as Section 81(3) is meant to protect and safeguard the sacrosanct electoral process so as not to disturb the verdict of the voters, there is no room for giving a liberal or broad interpretation of the provisions of the said section.”

25. It may be mentioned that in all the above decisions cited at the Bar, the document in question had been filed in the court along with the election petition, but a copy of that document was not supplied to the respondent with the copy of the election petition. In those cases wherein the annexed document was treated to be incorporated by reference in the election petition forming an integral part of the election petition, non-supply of a copy of the document was held to be fatal warranting dismissal of the election petition under Section 86(1) for non-compliance of Section 81(3). In the other cases, the document was filed with the election petition, but the contents thereof were also incorporated in the body of the election petition, a copy of which had been supplied to the respondent even though copy of that document was not furnished in addition. In those cases, non-supply of a copy of the document was held not to be non-compliance of Section 81(3) because the document annexed to the election petition was treated as evidence of the averments contained in the body of the election petition, a copy of which had been furnished to the respondent. This is the gist of these decisions which also indicates that the question has to be answered with reference to the kind of use made of the document annexed to the petition, whether as an integral part of the election petition or merely as evidence of the pleadings contained in the body of the election petition.

26. In the present case, the video cassettes, non-supply of a copy of transcript of which is urged by Shri Jethmalani to be a ground for non-compliance of Section 81(3), were not even filed in the High Court with the election petition in the High Court. This is, therefore, not a case of non-supply of a copy of a document which was filed along with the election petition. What was supplied to the returned candidate in the present case, was a true copy of the election petition as it was presented in the court without the video cassettes of which mere mention was made without incorporating its contents by reference or enumerating it in the election petition. It is not the case of the election petitioner that the full contents of the video cassettes or their transcripts are incorporated by reference in the election petition in order to make the video cassettes an integral part of the election petition, inasmuch as no video cassette was filed along with the election petition as it was presented in the High Court. Reliance is placed by the election petitioner on the video cassettes produced later during the trial as only evidence of the pleading in paras 32 and 33 of the election petition. It is, therefore, clear that the contents of the video cassettes, except to the extent pleaded in paras 32 and 33 of the election petition, cannot be treated to be incorporated by reference in the election petition as a part of the pleadings and its use is sought to be made by the election petitioner only as evidence of the averments contained in paras 32 and 33 of the election petition. Admittedly, a true copy of the election petition as presented in the High Court was furnished to the returned candidate along with the notice of the election petition. There was thus no non-compliance of sub-section (3) of Section 81 of the R.P. Act. The election petition was, therefore, not liable to be dismissed under Section 86(1) even on the ground of non-compliance of Section 81(3) of the R.P. Act.

43. In the instant case there is no doubt that page nos. 116 and 119 were duly attested as true copies and supplied to the respondent no1 as part of the election petition. Merely because the pages were illegible, will not be a ground for dismissal of the election petition in as much as to justify a dismissal of the election petition on account of violation of condition prescribed under Section 81(3) of the Act, 1951 where it has to be shown that the documents which were part of the election petition were not supplied at all or the documents supplied are not the true copies. In case certain documents are not legible, the defect of such a nature which is a curable and cannot lead to dismissal of the election petition. Such a consequence is not even envisaged on the reading of Section 81(3) of the Act of 1951. Second part of Section 81(3) of the Act, 1951, in our view, is satisfied if the copy is attested by the election petitioner to be true copies of the election petitions under his own signature. In our view, the defects as noted above cannot lead us to hold that election petitions should be rejected for non-compliance of Section 81(3) of the Act, 1951 as copies served on the respondent No.1 cannot be treated to be "true copies" within the meaning of the second part of Section 81(3) of the Act, 1951, and accordingly the argument in this regard made by the respondent no.1 is rejected.

D3. INFIRMITY IN FORM 26
FILED BY THE ELECTION
PETITIONER

44. The respondent no. 1 in his objections has also submitted that the affidavit filed by the election petitioner alongwith his nomination form in Form 26, had infirmities inasmuch, he has not filed the same in accordance with the directions issued by the Election Commission and has not even complied with the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court where he is duty bound to disclose all the criminal cases pending against him, and accordingly prays for rejection of election petitioner at the very outset.

45. It is noticed that objections raised by respondent no. 1 relate to the affidavit filed by the election petitioner before the Returning Officer, and the allegations are recriminatory in nature and these issues cannot be decided as preliminary issue as they are not covered under Section 86 of the Act, 1951 as such objections do not fall within the purview of Section 81, 82 and 117 of the Act, 1951 and hence this Court declines to examine the said issue as a preliminary issue and accordingly said arguments are rejected at this stage.

E. Civil Misc, Application No. 11 of 2022
(Under Order VI Rule 16 CPC)

46. Counsel the respondent has also pressed his Application No. 11 of 2022 under Order VI Rule 16 CPC for striking of the objectionable pleadings made in the election petition. It has been submitted That the District Election Officer, Pratapgarh had issued a press note on 29/01/2022 that elections with regard to the 7 constituencies of district Pratapgarh including 250 Raniganj would be held in the 5th phase of elections on 27/02/2022. Subsequently notification was issued where the number and name of the constituency was specified where again it was described as 250 Raniganj. After the elections the respondent No.1 was declared elected by the returning officer of 250 Raniganj Assembly Constituency, Pratapgarh, and accordingly it was emphatically submitted that the correct name of the constituency is 250 Raniganj, and despite the aforesaid, the election petitioner in paragraphs Nos. 7 and 37 of the election petition has stated that he is a registered voter of constituency which is comprised of 13 Pratapgarh constituency. It has been submitted that 13 Pratapgarh is not even in existence in the State of U.P and the election petitioner claiming to be a voter of such a constituency would not be entitled to challenge the election of respondent no.1 from 250 Raniganj.

47. The counsel for the election petitioner has vehemently denied the allegations levelled by the respondent no.1 and submitted that merely due to typographical error in paragraph No. 7 and 37 the constituency from where the petitioner and other private parties in the present election petition had contested the election has been described as “250 Raniganj assembly constituency comprised within 13-Pratapgarh constituency”. It has been submitted that in the entire election petition there is no doubt that election of the returned candidate from 250 Raniganj has been questioned, and the correct name of the constituency namely 250 Raniganj has occurred at about 16 places in the election petition, while at 2 places in addition to 250 Raniganj it has been mentioned “assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency”. It is stated that there can be no confusion about the identity of the constituency from which the election petitioner had contested election, or from where the returned candidate was declared elected, and the typographical error which has occurred in paragraph No. 7 and 37 of the election petition also does not indicate that the averments were with respect to some other constituency rather than 250 Raniganj, and therefore submitted that the objections are frivolous and misconceived and liable to be rejected.

48. I have heard the counsel the parties, and the issue for determination is as to whether the pleadings of paragraph No. 7 and 37 of the election petition should be deleted/stuck out as they are unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious as per Order VI Rule 16(a) of CPC.

49. Order VI Rule 16 of the Civil Procedure Code permits striking out pleadings which are unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous, or vexatious or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay a fair trial at any stage of the proceedings. It does not admit to any exception that the respondent must file written statement before the preliminary objections can be entertained. If, therefore, a preliminary objection is raised before commencement of the trial, the court is duty bound to consider the same. It need not wait for the filing of the written statement by the defendant and point out defects. Instead, it can proceed to hear the preliminary objection and strike out the pleadings.

50. Section 80 of the Act, 1951 provides that no election is to be called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Act, 1951 before the High Court. Section 81 provides that an election petition may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in Section 100 of the Act, 1951 by an elector or by a candidate questioning the election of a returned candidate. Section 83 of the Act, 1951 provides that an election petition shall contain a concise statement of material facts on which the petitioner relies, and he shall set forth full particulars of infirmities in the nomination form of the returned candidate due to which it is contended that it should have been rejected. Section 86 of the Act, 1951 confers power on the High Court to dismiss an election petition which does not comply with the provisions of Sections 81 and 82 or Section 117 of the Act, 1951. Section 87 of the Act, 1951 deals with the procedure to be followed in the trial of the election petition and it lays down that subject to the provisions of the Act and of any rules made thereunder, every election petition shall be tried by the High Court as nearly as may be in accordance with the procedure applicable to the trial of suits under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

51. The perusal of the election petition would indicate that there is no doubt that the election petitioner has assailed the election of the returned candidate, i.e respondent No. 1 from the constituency described as to 250 Raniganj which is in District Pratapgarh. The correct description of the constituency has been stated in paragraph number 2, 3, 5, 6 in ground A, 32, 33, 35, 36, 37, 68 and 74 as well as in prayer I & II. In paragraph No. 37 the description of the constituency 250 Raniganj has been stated at 2 places, and at the latter part of the paragraph it has been described as “assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency” and the same error is existing in paragraph no. 37.

52. It is the aforesaid circumstances that this Court has been called upon to examine the contention of the respondent No. 1 that the pleadings in paragraph No. 7 and 37 deserve to be stuck out.

53. It has been fairly submitted by the counsel for the petitioner that the addition of the words “assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency” to 250 Raniganj is a typographical error, but it does not change the nature of the case, or the name of the constituency and perusal of the entire petition would show that there was no doubt that the election of the returned candidate from 250 Raniganj has been challenged by him. He further submitted that even with the error, it cannot be said that the contents of the election petition in the aforesaid paragraphs are either unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious or the election petition does not disclose the cause of action.

54. On careful examination of the rival submission, it is evident that in the entire election petition the reference to the constituency in question is referred to as 250 Raniganj. At 2 places, in paragraph 7 and 37 in addition to 250 Raniganj it has been further described as “assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency”. The respondent no.1 had to demonstrate that in case the description of the constituency as stated by the election petitioner in paragraph 7 and 37 would lead a reasonable person to believe that the election petition pertains to constituency other than 250 Raniganj. These additional words (assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency) to the correct description of the constituency (250 Raniganj) do not materially alter the description of the constituency, nor can a reasonable person believe that the election petitioner is referring to some other constituency other than 250 Raniganj. It is further noticed that in the prayer clause the correct description has been stated, also in the remaining paragraphs of the election petition the correct name has been mentioned. The inadvertent typographical error in the present case does not amount to unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious pleading and consequently the same cannot be struck out. Such an error can always be cured by an appropriate application at the behest of the election petitioner, and there cannot be any objection to the same. In exercise of power under order VI rule 16 until and unless the court comes to conclusion that the pleadings are unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious they cannot be struck out, and it is a duty of the applicant to demonstrate that the said pleadings fall into the specified category as provided. The respondent no.1 has only emphasized on the typographical error, rather than bringing home the point that the said typographical error amounts to being unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious. In the present case the submission was only to the extent that the error in description of the constituency goes to the root of the matter and consequently prayed for dismissal of the petition. The said contention on behalf of respondent No. 1 is not made out in light of the discussion aforesaid, and there is no doubt that the correct name of the constituency has been stated in the entire election petition except at 2 places where in addition to the name of the constituency “assembly constituency comprised within 13 Pratapgarh constituency” have been added. No reasonable person can be misguided with regard to the name of the constituency from which the election is being challenged in the present petition. The aforesaid typographical error is not substantial in nature, and accordingly the prayer of the petitioner for striking out of the pleading is not made out as the said error does not amount to “unnecessary, scandalous, frivolous or vexatious”. The prayer for striking out of the pleadings of paragraph No. 7 and 37 is rejected.

F. Civil Misc. Application No. 2 of 2023

Civil Misc. Application No. 17 of 2023

(For deletion of respondent no. 14 from the array of parties)

And

G. Civil Misc. Application No. 19 of 2023

(For release of EVMs)

55. Another ground raised by the respondent no.1 is that the Returning Officer has been made a respondent in the election petition, which is contrary to the provisions contained in Section 82 of the Act of 1951 according to which only the candidates can be made parties, and further submitted that any violation of Section 82 entails dismissal of the election petition as per Section 86 of the Act of 1951.

56. The aforesaid ground has been taken by respondent no.1 by filing an Application No. 17 of 2023 on 22/03/2023. This Court is further considering the Application No. 2 of 2023 filed on behalf of respondent no. 14, i.e the Returning Officer praying for deletion of respondent no.14 from the array of parties, and also application No. 19 of 2023 filed on behalf of respondent 14 to release the EVM's as there is no controversy in the present case regarding the EVMs.

57. Learned counsel for the petitioner on the other hand submitted that there are allegations against the Returning Officer who illegally accepted the nomination form of respondent no.1 and therefore he is a proper party, but further submitted that in case the Court comes to the opinion that he should not have been made a party, he undertakes to delete the returning officer as a party in the present case. It was further submitted that merely because the Returning Officer has been made a party the election petition cannot be dismissed, even if it is found that he is not a necessary or proper party or that section 82 prohibits making him a party, as such a defect even if determined to be existing in the election petition, is a curable defect and the Court has abundant powers to direct deletion of a party, if the same has been improperly made.

58. This issue was extensively dealt by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jyoti Basu vs Debi Ghosal, (1982) 1 SCC 691 where it was held that the election petition is guided by the provisions contained in the Representation of People's Act, 1951. Section 82 provides for parties to the petition, where the returned candidate may be arrayed as respondent in case only the election is challenged, while in case there is a prayer to declare the election petitioner as elected, then all the candidates have to be arrayed as parties. The relevant extract taken from Jyoti Basu v. Debi Ghosal, (supra) is as under:-

9. Section 81 prescribes who may present an election petition. It may be any candidate at such election; it may be any elector of the constituency; it may be none else. Section 82 is headed "Parties to the petition" and clause (a) provides that the petitioner shall join as respondents to the petition the returned candidates if the relief claimed is confined to a declaration that the election of all or any of the returned candidates is void and all the contesting candidates if a further declaration is sought that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected. Clause (b) of Section 82 requires the petitioner to join as respondent any other candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the petition. Section 86(4) enables any candidate not already a respondent to be joined as a respondent. There is no other provision dealing with the question as to who may be joined as respondents. It is significant that while clause (b) of Section 82 obliges the petitioner to join as a respondent any candidate against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made in the petition, it does not oblige the petitioner to join as a respondent any other person against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made. It is equally significant that while any candidate not already a respondent may seek and, if he so seeks, is entitled to be joined as a respondent under Section 86(4), any other person cannot, under that provision seek to be joined as a respondent, even if allegations of any corrupt practice are made against him. It is clear that the contest of the election petition is designed to be confined to the candidates at the election. All others are excluded. The ring is closed to all except the petitioner and the candidates at the election. If such is the design of the statute, how can the notion of "proper parties" enter the picture at all? We think that the concept of "proper parties" is and must remain alien to an election dispute under the Representation of the People Act, 1951. Only those may be joined as respondents to an election petition who are mentioned in Section 82 and Section 86(4) and no others. However desirable and expedient it may appear to be, none else shall be joined as respondents.

10. It is said, the Civil Procedure Code applies to the trial of election petitions and so proper parties whose presence may be necessary in order to enable the court "effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all questions involved" may be joined as respondents to the petitions.

The question is not whether the Civil Procedure Code applies because it undoubtedly does, but only "as far as may be" and subject to the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 and the Rules made thereunder. Section 87(1) expressly says so. The question is whether the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code can be invoked to permit that which the Representation of the People Act does not. Quite obviously the provisions of the Code cannot be so invoked. In Mohan Raj v. Suendra Kumar Taparia [AIR 1969 SC 677 : (1969) 1 SCR 630 : (1969) 2 SCJ 198] this Court held that the undoubted power of the Court (i.e. the Election Court) to permit an amendment of the petition cannot be used to strike out allegations against a candidate not joined as a respondent so as to save the election petition from dismissal for non-joinder of necessary parties. It was said:

"The court can order an amendment and even strike out a party who is not necessary. But where the Act makes a person a necessary party and provides that the petition shall be dismissed if such a party is not joined, the power of amendment or to strike out parties cannot be used at all. The Civil Procedure Code applies subject to the provisions of the Representation of the People Act and any rules made thereunder (see Section 87). When the Act enjoins the penalty of dismissal of the petition for non-joinder of a party the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code cannot be used as a curative means to save the petition."

59. Again, in K. Venkateswara Rao v. Bakkam Narasimha Reddi [AIR 1969 SC 872] the Apex Court observed as under :-

"With regard to the addition of parties which is possible in the case of a suit under the provisions of Order 1 Rule 10 subject to the added party's right to contend that the suit as against him was barred by limitation when he was impleaded, no addition of parties is possible in the case of an election petition except under the provisions of sub-section (4) of Section 86."

11. The matter may be looked at from another angle. Parliament has expressly provided that an opportunity should be given to a person who is not a candidate to show cause against being "named" as one guilty of a corrupt practice. Parliament however, has not thought fit to expressly provide for his being joined as a party to the election petition either by the election petitioner or at the instance of the very person against whom the allegations of a corrupt practice are made. The right given to the latter is limited to show cause against being "named" and that right opens up for exercise when, at the end of the trial of the election petition notice is given to him to show cause why he should not be "named". The right does not extend to participation at all stages and in all matters, a right which he would have if he is joined as a party at the commencement. Conversely the election petitioner cannot by joining as a respondent a person who is not a candidate at the election subject him to a prolonged trial of an election petition with all its intricacies and ramifications. One may well imagine how mischievous minded persons may harass public personages like the Prime Minister of the country, the Chief Minister of a State or a political leader of a national dimension by impleading him as a party to election petitions, all the country over. All that would be necessary is a seemingly plausible allegation, casually or spitefully made, with but a facade of truth. Everyone is familiar with such allegations.

To permit such a public personage to be impleaded as a party to an election petition on the basis of a mere allegation, without even prima facie proof, an allegation which may ultimately be found to be unfounded, can cause needless vexation to such personage and prevent him from the effective discharge of his public duties. It would be against the public interest to do so. The ultimate award of costs would be no panacea in such cases, since the public mischief cannot be repaired. That is why Public Policy and legislative wisdom both seem to point to an interpretation of the provisions of the Representation of the People Act which does not permit the joining, as parties, of persons other than those mentioned in Sections 82 and 86(4). It is not as if a person guilty of a corrupt practice can get away with it. Where at the concluding stage of the trial of an election petition, after evidence has been given, the court finds that there is sufficient material to hold a person guilty of a corrupt practice, the court may then issue a notice to him to show cause under Section 99 and proceed with further action. In our view the legislative provision contained in Section 99 which enables the court, towards the end of the trial of an election petition, to issue a notice to a person not a party to the proceeding to show cause why he should not be "named" is sufficient clarification of the legislative intent that such person may not be permitted to be joined as a party to the election petition.

12. There is yet another viewpoint. When in an election petition in addition to the declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void a further declaration is sought that any candidate other than the returned candidate has been duly elected. Section 97 enables the returned candidate or any other party to "recriminate" i.e. to give evidence to prove that the election of such candidate would have been void if he had been a returned candidate and a petition had been presented to question his election. If a person who is not a candidate but against whom allegations of any corrupt practice are made is joined as a party to the petition then, by virtue of his position as a party, he would also be entitled to "recriminate" under Section 97. Surely such a construction of the statute would throw the doors of an election petition wide open and convert the petition into a "free for all" fight. A necessary consequence would be an unending, disorderly election dispute with no hope of achieving the goal contemplated by Section 86(6) of the Act that the trial of the election petition should be concluded in six months. It is just as well to remember that "corrupt practice" as at present defined by Section 123 of the Act is not confined to the giving of a bribe but extends to the taking of a bribe too and, therefore, the number of persons who may be alleged to be guilty of a corrupt practice may indeed be very large, with the consequence that all of them may possibly be joined as respondents.

13. In view of the foregoing discussion we are of the opinion that no one may be joined as a party to an election petition otherwise than as provided by Sections 82 and 86(4) of the Act. It follows that a person who is not a candidate may not be joined as a respondent to the election petition. The appeal is therefore, allowed with costs and the names of the appellants and the 7th respondent in the appeal are directed to be struck out from the array of parties in the election petition. We may mention that in arriving at our conclusion we have also considered the following decisions cited before us: S.B. Adityan v. S. Kandaswami [AIR 1958 Mad 171 : ILR 1958 Mad 279 : (1958) 1 Mad LJ

61] ; Dwijendra Lal Sen Gupta v. Harekrishna Konar [AIR 1963 Cal 218 : 66 Cal WN 917] , H.R. Gokhale v. Bharucha Noshir C. [AIR 1969 Bom 177 : 70 Bom LR 466] ; and S. Iqbal Singh v. S. Gurdas Singh Badal [AIR 1973 P & H 163 : ILR (1972) 1 Punj 554] .

60. The question whether the Election Commission of India is a necessary party in the election petition, was considered by the Supreme Court in the case of B. Sundara Reddy vs Election Commission of India, 1991 (Supp2) SCC 624 and Supreme Court duly considered and relied upon the judgement in the case of Jyoti Basu (supra) and held that:-

3. After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner we do not find any merit in the petition. Section 82 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 specifies the persons who are required to be joined as respondents to an election petition. Under this provision the returned candidate is a necessary party as a respondent and where relief for a declaration is claimed that the election petitioner, or any other candidate be duly elected, all the contesting candidates are necessary to be impleaded as respondents to the petition. No other person or authority except as aforesaid is required to be impleaded as a respondent to an election petition under the Act. The Election Commission of India is therefore not a necessary party to an election petition.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner urged that even if the Election Commission may not be a necessary party, it was a proper party since its orders have been challenged in the election petition. He further urged that since Civil Procedure Code, 1908 is applicable to trial of an election petition the concept of proper *party is applicable to the trial of election petition. We find no merit in the contention. Section 87 of the Act lays down that subject to the provisions of the Act and any rules made thereunder, every election petition shall be tried by the High Court, as nearly as may be in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 to the trial of suits. Provisions of the Civil Procedure Code have thus been made applicable to the trial of an election petition to a limited extent as would appear from the expression "subject to the provisions of this Act". Since Section 82 designates the persons who are to be joined as respondents to the petition, provisions of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 relating to the joinder of parties stands excluded. Under the Code even if a party is not necessary party, he is required to be joined as a party to a suit or proceedings if such person is a proper party, but the Representation of the People Act, 1951 does not provide for joinder of a proper party to an election petition. The concept of joining a proper party to an election petition is ruled out by the provisions of the Act. The concept of joinder of a proper party to a suit or proceeding underlying Order I of the Civil Procedure Code cannot be imported to the trial of election petition, in view of the express provisions of Sections 82 and 87 of the Act. The Act is a self-contained Code which does not contemplate joinder of a person or authority to an election petition on the ground of proper party. In K. Venkateswara Rao v. Bekkam Narasimha Reddi [AIR 1969 SC 872 : (1969) 1 SCR 679] , this Court while discussing the application of Order I Rule 10 of the Civil Procedure Code to an election petition held that there could not be any addition of parties in the case of an election petition except under the provisions of sub-section*

(4) of Section 86 of the Act. Again in Jyoti Basu v. Debi Ghosal [(1982) 1 SCC 691 : (1982) 3 SCR 318] , this Court held that the concept of 'proper party' is and must remain alien to an election dispute under the Representation of the People Act, 1951. Only those may be joined as respondents to an election petition who are mentioned in Section 82 and Section 86(4) and no others. However desirable and expedient it may appear to be, none else shall be joined as respondents.

61. The law in this regard has been settled by the Supreme Court where it has clearly been held that only the persons prescribed under Section 82 of the Act of 1951 can be arrayed as parties to the election petition, and the concept of proper party would be alien to the proceedings of the election petition, which would be guided only by the statutory prescription contained in the Representation of People Act 1951. Thus, the issue in this regard is out of the ambit of any debate, and the returning officer is not a necessary party to the election petition which is designed to be confined to the candidates at the election. All others are excluded. The ring is closed to all except the petitioner and the candidates at the election.

62. Once it is concluded that the returning officer has incorrectly been made a respondent in the instant election petition, then, the question arises as to whether the election petition deserves to be dismissed on this account, or this court can direct the election petitioner to delete respondent no.14 from the array of parties? Counsel for respondent no.1 has relied upon the judgement of the Kerala High Court in the case of Saritha S. Nair Vs Rahul Gandhi, 2020 AIR (Kerala) 26 where it is submitted that the High Court has dismissed the election petition and one of the objections raised therein was that the Election Commission of India and the returning officer had been made parties in the election petition. It was further vehemently submitted that the Special Leave Petition against the aforesaid judgement of Kerala High Court was dismissed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on 16/12/2022 in SLP (C) No. 4200/2020, and therefore it is a binding precedent which deserves to be followed in the present case also.

63. Considering the submissions of counsel for respondent No. 1 in this regard, I have carefully perused the judgement of the Kerala High Court in the case of Saritha S. Nair Vs Rahul Gandhi (supra). The Kerala High Court had observed that there were several defects in the election petition including the fact that the election petition was not verified and signed by the petitioner, there was no prayer to declare the election of the return candidate as void and the sentence of the election petitioner had been suspended while the conviction had not been suspended and she was held to be disqualified as per provisions of Article 102 of the Constitution of India, and accordingly held that the rejection of the nomination paper of the petitioner was in accordance with law.

64. With regard to the issue pertaining to joining of returning officer as a party in the election petition, an objection was raised by the counsel for the Election Commission for being removed from the array of parties, and after due consideration, the Kerala High Court had held that the said "officials were unnecessary parties to the election petition" and removed them from the array of parties. Therefore, even the Kerala High Court did not dismiss the election petition on the ground that the returning officer was made a respondent in the election petition. The election petition was dismissed for other incurable defects in the election petition which were with regard to the criminal antecedents of the election petitioner, and his conviction had not been stayed by the trial Court. Accordingly, this Court is of the considered view that in case persons other than the candidate are arrayed as a party, then the Court has sufficient powers to direct deletion of such parties, and on this account election petition cannot be dismissed as it is a curable defect and is not a defect of substantial nature for which the election petition should be dismissed. Even the Supreme Court in the case of Jyoti Basu vs Debi Ghosal (supra) had proceeded to direct deletion of the returning Officer and the Election Commission from the array of parties rather than dismissing the election petition.

65. Accordingly, the objection raised by respondent No. 1 is allowed and respondent No. 14 (Returning Officer) is directed to be deleted from the array of parties. Application No. 2 of 2023 preferred on behalf of respondent no. 14 is allowed. With regard to the Application No. 17 of 2023, all the parties expressed that they do not wish to oppose the said application with regard to return of EVM's for use of the Election Commission, and there is no reason why they should be held up till the final determination of the instant case, in as much as, there is no dispute with regard to the number of votes polled or with any issue regarding the EVM's and accordingly the Application No. 17 of 2023 is also allowed.

H. OBJECTIONS AS TO THE DEFECT IN THE AFFIDAVIT

66. Next objection raised by the Counsel for respondent no.1 is with regard to the defect in the affidavit filed in support of the election petition. The objections are:-

a. There is no column for swearing of paragraphs of pleadings made in the affidavit on base of personal knowledge.

b. The election petitioner has failed to make compliance with regard to the mandatory requirements of subrule (1) & (2) of rule 15 of order VI CPC.

c. There is no affidavit to prove the facts stated in the election petition.

67. This Court had proceeded to examine the election petition, as well as the affidavit in support of the election petition, to test the allegations levelled by the respondent No. 1. On page 46 of the election petition the reliefs prayed for have been stated, ending with the signature of the election petitioner, and page 47 commences with the verification where most of the paragraphs stated therein have been sworn on personal knowledge, thereafter certain paragraphs have been sworn on basis of records and 2 paragraphs have been stated to be true on the basis of legal advice, and thereafter it has been signed by the election petitioner, and below the signatures of the election petitioner is the signature of Advocate, oath Commissioner.

68. Section 83 of the Act of 1951 provides for the content of the petition which is as follows: -

83. Contents of petition. (1) An election petition—

(a) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;

(b) shall set forth full particulars of any corrupt practice that the petitioner alleges, including as full a statement as possible of the names of the parties alleged to have committed such corrupt practice and the date and place of the commission of each such practice; and

(c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) for the verification of pleadings:

Provided that where the petitioner alleges any corrupt practice, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof.]

(2) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified in the same manner as the petition.

69. Rule 94A of the Conduct of Election Rules, 1961 also refers to the requirement of filing of an affidavit along with election petition in the following terms:-

94A. Form of affidavit to be filed with election petition.—The affidavit referred to in the proviso to subsection (1) of section 83 shall be sworn before a magistrate of the first class or a notary or a commissioner of oaths and shall be in Form 25.

70. According to Section 83 sub-clause (c) of the Act, 1951 the election petition is to be signed and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure. Order VI Rule 15 CPC provides for verification of pleadings which is as under:-

15. Verification of pleadings. —

(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be acquainted with the facts of the case. (2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

(4) The person verifying the pleading shall also furnish an affidavit in support of his pleadings

71. A perusal of the election petition, and more specifically the verification at the end of it, indicates that the election petitioner has duly verified the pleadings by referring it to the paragraph numbers of the election petition and stating that which of the paragraphs have been found on the basis of personal knowledge, record and legal advice and to that extent there is no infirmity in the same and it is in consonance with Order VI Rule 15(1) & (2) CPC.

72. The verification has also been signed by the election petitioner and it also been stated that the same has been done on 18th day of April 2022 at Lucknow and hence provisions of Order VI Rule 15 (3) CPC have also been duly complied and we do not find any infirmity with the same.

73. At this stage is also pertinent to notice that the allegations in the present case against the returned candidate is with regard to the improper acceptance of his nomination by the returning officer, and not with regard to the corrupt practices, and consequently proviso to Section 83 of Act of 1951 will not apply in the present case which provides for an additional affidavit to be filed in support of the allegations with regard to the corrupt practices.

74. As per Section 139 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the oath on affidavit can be administered by any Court or Magistrate, or any Notary appointed under the Notaries Act, 1952. Further, provisions of Order XIX CPC provide for the matters to which the affidavit shall be filed, and it has been provided that the affidavit shall be confined to such facts as the deponent is able on his own knowledge to prove. Similarly, Section 295 and 296 of the Criminal Procedure Code provide for giving evidence on affidavit.

75. From the aforesaid statutory provisions, it can safely be concluded that an affidavit is a statement of a person either on oath or on affirmation. If the Court permits such a statement to be given by a witness in relation to matters of fact under enquiry, such a statement is called oral evidence. The Court has also got powers under Order XIX C.P.C. in civil matters to direct a witness to file an affidavit in relation to matters of fact under inquiry. In criminal proceedings also, the Code of Criminal Procedure empowers the Court to require a witness to file an affidavit in relation to matters of fact under inquiry. Sections 295 and 296 of the Cr.P.C. empower the Court in the course of inquiry, trial or other proceeding under the Code requiring evidence of the facts to be given by an affidavit. Section 296 gives the general power to the Court with the rider that if an application is given by the prosecution or the accused, the Court shall summon and examine any such person as to the facts contained in his affidavit. Being thus empowered by law, the Court has got the discretion either to permit or require a witness to file an affidavit in relation to matters of facts under inquiry, trial or other proceedings.

76. In the present case, it is noticed that the election petition is supported only by verification of the pleadings. There is no solemn affirmation or oath either before any magistrate or before the Notary Public, and the oath commissioner has merely signed below the name of the election petitioner after the verification. In absence of the solemn affirmation or oath, the document cannot be called an affidavit and accordingly, there is no doubt that the essential ingredients of affidavit are lacking, and hence it can safely be concluded that there is no affidavit in support of the election petition as required under Order VI Rule 15(4) CPC.

77. Once this Court has come to a conclusion that the election petition is not supported by an affidavit, then the consequences for the said infirmity are required to be considered next. The submission of respondent no. 1 is that the infirmity is relatable to Section 83(c) of the Act of 1951 and liable to be dismissed as per Section 86 of the said Act.

78. The provision of Chapter II of the 1951 Act relate to the presentation of election petition to the High Court, and Section 83 of the Act, 1951 which forms part of Chapter II deals with the condition of election petition to be filed. The proviso to sub-section (c) of Section 83 of the Act, 1951 also provides for filing of an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of allegations of corrupt practice. In other words, when corrupt practices are alleged in an election petition, the source of such allegation has to be disclosed and the same has to be supported by an affidavit filed in support thereof.

79. Counsel for the respondent no.1 has relied upon the judgement of the Supreme Court in the case of P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511 it was held:-

47. In our view, the objections taken by Mr P.P. Rao must succeed, since in the absence of proper verification as contemplated in Section 83, it cannot be said that the cause of action was complete. The consequences of Section 86 of the 1951 Act come into play immediately in view of sub-section (1) which relates to trial of election petitions and provides that the High Court shall dismiss the election petition which does not comply with the provisions of Section 81 or Section 82 or Section 117 of the 1951 Act. Although Section 83 has not been mentioned in sub-section (1) of Section 86, in the absence of proper verification, it must be held that the provisions of Section 81 had also not been fulfilled and the cause of action for the election petition remained incomplete. The petitioner had the opportunity of curing the defect, but it chose not to do so.

80. This aspect of the matter was also considered by the Supreme Court in the case of Ponnala Lakshmaiah v. Kommuri Pratap Reddy, (2012) 7 SCC 788 where it was held that in case of any infirmity in the affidavit, the same was a curable defect and does not lead to dismissal of the election petition. Relevant paragraphs of the rendition of the Supreme Court are reproduced as under:-

“9. We may also gainfully refer to the decision of this Court in H.D. Revanna v. G. Puttaswamy Gowda [(1999) 2 SCC 217] where this Court held that an election petition can be dismissed for non-compliance with Sections 81, 82 and 117 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 but it may also be dismissed if the matter falls within the scope of Order 6 Rule 16 or Order 7 Rule 11 CPC. A defect in the verification of the election petition or the affidavit accompanying the election petition was held to be curable, hence, not sufficient to justify dismissal of the election petition under Order 7 Rule 11 or Order 6 Rule 16 CPC. The following passage in this regard is instructive:

“14. ... the relevant provisions in the Act are very specific. Section 86 provides for dismissal of an election petition in limine for non-compliance with Sections 81, 82 and 117. Section 81 relates to the presentation of an election petition. It is not the case of the appellant before us that the requirements of Section 81 were not complied with.... Sections 82 and 117 are not relevant in this case. Significantly, Section 86 does not refer to Section 83 and non-compliance with Section 83 does not lead to dismissal under Section 86. This Court has laid down that non-compliance with Section 83 may lead to dismissal of the petition if the matter falls within the scope of Order 6 Rule 16 or Order 7 Rule 11 CPC. Defect in verification of the election petition or the affidavit accompanying the election petition has been held to be curable and not fatal.”

22. Even otherwise the question whether non-compliance with the proviso to Section 83(1) of the Act is fatal to the election petition is no longer res integra in the light of a three-Judge Bench decision of this Court in Sardar Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh [(2004) 11

SCC 196] . In that case a plea based on a defective affidavit was raised before the High Court resulting in the dismissal of the election petition. In appeal against the said order, this Court held that non-compliance with the proviso to Section 83 of the Act did not attract an order of dismissal of an election petition in terms of Section 86 thereof. Section 86 of the Act does not provide for dismissal of an election petition on the ground that the same does not comply with the provisions of Section 83 of the Act. It sanctions dismissal of an election petition for non-compliance with Sections 81, 82 and 117 of the Act only. Such being the position, the defect if any in the verification of the affidavit filed in support of the petition was not fatal, no matter the proviso to Section 83(1) was couched in a mandatory form.

23. This Court observed: (Sukh Darshan case [(2004) 11 SCC 196] :-

“14. So is the case with the defect pointed out by the High Court in the affidavit filed in support of the election petition alleging corrupt practice by the winning candidate. The proviso enacted to sub-section (1) of Section 83 of the Act is couched in a mandatory form inasmuch as it provides that a petition alleging corrupt practice shall be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegations of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof. The form is prescribed by Rule 94-A. But at the same time, it cannot be lost sight of that failure to comply with the requirement as to filing of an affidavit cannot be a ground for dismissal of an election petition in limine under sub-section (1) of Section 86 of the Act. The point is no more res integra and is covered by several decisions of this Court. Suffice it to refer to two recent decisions, namely, G. Mallikarjunappa v. Shamanur Shivashankarappa [(2001) 4 SCC 428] and Vijay Laxmi Sadho v. Jagdish [(2001) 2 SCC 247] , both three-Judge Bench decisions, wherein the learned Chief Justice has spoken for the Benches. It has been held that an election petition is liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86(1) of the Act if the election petition does not comply with either the provisions of ‘Section 81 or Section 82 or Section 117 of the RP Act’. The requirement of filing an affidavit along with an election petition, in the prescribed form, in support of the allegations of corrupt practice is contained in Section 83(1) of the Act. Non-compliance with the provisions of Section 83 of the Act, however, does not attract the consequences envisaged by Section 86(1) of the Act. Therefore, an election petition is not liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86 of the Act, for alleged non-compliance with the provisions of Section 83(1) or 83(2) of the Act or of its proviso. The defect in the verification and the affidavit is a curable defect. What other consequences, if any, may follow from an allegedly ‘defective’ affidavit, is required to be judged at the trial of an election petition but Section 86(1) of the Act in terms cannot be attracted to such a case.”

25. To the same effect is the decision of a three-Judge Bench of this Court in G. Mallikarjunappa v. Shamanur Shivashankarappa [(2001) 4 SCC 428] . The High Court had in that case also dismissed the election petitions taking the view that there had been non-compliance with Rule 94-A of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 inasmuch as the affidavit filed in support of the allegations of corrupt practices with the election petitions did not comply with the requirements of the format as prescribed in Form 25. Allowing the appeal this Court observed:

“7. An election petition is liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86(1) of the Act if the election petition does not comply with either the provisions of 'Section 81 or Section 82 or Section 117 of the RP Act'. The requirement of filing an affidavit along with an election petition, in the prescribed form, in support of the allegations of corrupt practice is contained in Section 83(1) of the Act. Non-compliance with the provisions of Section 83 of the Act, however, does not attract the consequences envisaged by Section 86(1) of the Act. Therefore, an election petition is not liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86 of the Act, for alleged non-compliance with the provisions of Section 83(1) or 83(2) of the Act or of its proviso. The defect in the verification and the affidavit is a curable defect. What other consequences, if any, may follow from an allegedly 'defective' affidavit, is required to be judged at the trial of an election petition but Section 86(1) of the Act in terms cannot be attracted to such a case."

81. A similar view was taken by a three-Judge Bench of this Court in F.A. Sapa v. Singora [(1991) 3 SCC 375] and in Vijay Laxmi Sadho v. Jagdish [(2001) 2 SCC 247]

"31. Suffice it to say, that in the absence of any provision making breach of the proviso to Section 83(1) a valid ground of dismissal of an election petition at the threshold, we see no reason why the requirement of filing an affidavit in a given format should be exalted by a judicial interpretation to the status of a statutory mandate. A petition that raises triable issues need not, therefore, be dismissed simply because the affidavit filed by the petitioner is not in a given format no matter the deficiency in the format has not caused any prejudice to the successful candidate and can be cured by the election petitioner by filing a proper affidavit."

82. A similar view was taken by the Supreme Court in the case of Sardar Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh, (2004) 11 SCC 196, where it was held:-

*"14. So is the case with the defect pointed out by the High Court in the affidavit filed in support of the election petition alleging corrupt practice by the winning candidate. The proviso enacted to sub-section (1) of Section 83 of the Act is couched in a mandatory form inasmuch as it provides that a petition alleging corrupt practice shall be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegations of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof. The form is prescribed by Rule 94-A. But at the same time, it cannot be lost sight of that failure to comply with the requirement as to filing of an affidavit cannot be a ground for dismissal of an election petition in limine under sub-section (1) of Section 86 of the Act. The point is no more res integra and is covered by several decisions of this Court. Suffice it to refer to two recent decisions namely G. Mallikarjunappa v. Shamanur Shivashankarappa [(2001) 4 SCC 428] and Vijay Laxmi Sadho (Dr.) v. Jagdish [(2001) 2 SCC 247], both three-Judge Bench decisions, wherein the learned Chief Justice has spoken for the Benches. It has been held that an election petition is liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86(1) of the Act if the election petition does not comply with either the provisions of "Section 81 or Section 82 or Section 117 of the RP Act". The requirement of filing an affidavit along with an election petition, in the prescribed form, in support of allegations of corrupt practice is contained in Section 83(1) of the Act. Non-compliance with the provisions of* Section 83 of the Act, however, does not attract the consequences envisaged by Section 86(1) of the Act. Therefore, an election petition is not liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86 of the Act, for alleged non-compliance with provisions of Section 83(1) or (2) of the Act or of its proviso. The defect in the verification and the affidavit is a curable defect. What other consequences, if any, may follow from an allegedly “defective” affidavit, is required to be judged at the trial of an election petition but Section 86(1) of the Act in terms cannot be attracted to such a case.

15. Having formed an opinion that there was any defect in the affidavit, the election petitioner should have been allowed an opportunity of removing the defect by filing a proper affidavit. Else the effect of such failure should have been left to be determined and adjudicated upon at the trial, as held in G. Mallikarjunappa case [(2001) 4 SCC 428].

83. In the backdrop of two seemingly conflicting views of the Supreme Court where in the case of P.A. Mohammed Riyas (supra) it was held that in case the affidavit was not in the prescribed format with regard to the allegations of corrupt practice then the defect in the form of petition would be relatable to Section 81 of the Act of 1951 for which the election petition should be rejected as per provisions of Section 86 of the Act of 1951. It is also noted that the defect was not removed despite the grant of opportunity. The other 2 cases considered above namely Ponnala Lakshmaiah v. Kommuri Pratap Reddy (supra) and Sardar Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh (Supra) the Supreme Court has held that defect in affidavit is a curable defect, and the election petition cannot be out rightly dismissed on this account.

84. The issue as to whether the defect in the affidavit in an election petition is a curable defect or otherwise has been dealt with extensively in the case of Saritha S. Nair v. Hibi Eden, (2021) 14 SCC 148 where all the previous judgements have been considered and relevant observations are quoted hereunder: -

“33. Section 83(1)(c) mandates that an election petition shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure for verification of pleadings. Signing a petition and verifying the petition are two different aspects. While Order 6 Rule 14 deals with the signing of the petition, Order 6 Rule 15 deals with the verification of pleading. Rule 14 mandates that every pleading shall be signed by the party as well as the pleader, if any. But the proviso carves out an exception by stating that where a party is unable to sign the pleading, by reason of absence or for other good cause, it may be signed by any person duly authorised by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf. Order 6 Rule 14 reads as follows:

“14. Pleading to be signed.—Every pleading shall be signed by the party and his pleader (if any):

Provided that where a party pleading is, by reason of absence or for other good cause, unable to sign the pleading, it may be signed by any person duly authorised by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf.”

34. Order 6 Rule 15 which speaks about verification of pleadings reads as follows:

“15. Verification of pleadings.—(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the court to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

(2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

(4) The person verifying the pleading shall also furnish an affidavit in support of his pleadings.”

35. It is to be noted that sub-rule (1) of Rule 15 of Order 6 also permits the verification of pleading to be done by a person other than the party pleading, provided it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that such other person was acquainted with the facts of the case.

36. Section 86(1) empowers the High Court to dismiss an election petition which does not comply with the provisions of Section 81, Section 82 or Section 117 and it does not include Section 83 within its ambit. Therefore, the question whether or not an election petition which does not satisfy the requirements of Section 83, can be dismissed at the pre-trial stage under Section 86(1), has come up repeatedly for consideration before this Court. We are concerned in this case particularly with the requirement of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 83 and the consequence of failure to comply with the same.

37. In Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar v. Roop Singh Rathore [Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar v. Roop Singh

Rathore, AIR 1964 SC 1545] , a preliminary objection to the maintainability of the election petition was raised on the ground that the verification was defective. The verification stated that the averments made in some paragraphs of the petition were true to the personal knowledge of the petitioner and the averments in some other paragraphs were verified to be true on advice and information received from legal and other sources. There was no statement that the advice and information received by the election petitioner were believed by him to be true. Since this case arose before the amendment of the Act under Act 47 of 1966, the election petition was dealt with by the Tribunal. The Tribunal held the defect in the verification to be a curable defect. The view of the Tribunal was upheld by this Court in Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar [Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar v. Roop Singh Rathore, AIR 1964 SC 1545] . This Court held that :

“8. ... it is impossible to accept the contention that a defect in verification which is to be made in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the verification of pleadings as required by clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 83 is fatal to the maintainability of the petition.”

(emphasis supplied)

38. The ratio laid down in Murarka [Murarka Radhey Shyam Ram Kumar v. Roop Singh Rathore, AIR 1964 SC 1545] was reiterated by a three-member Bench of this Court in F.A. Sapa v. Singora [F.A. Sapa v. Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] holding that : (F.A. Sapa case [F.A. Sapa v. Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] , “21. ... [the] mere defect in the verification of the election petition is not fatal to the maintainability of the petition and the petition cannot be thrown out solely on that ground.”

(emphasis supplied)

It was also held in F.A. Sapa [F.A. Sapa v. Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] that :

“21. ... since Section 83 is not one of three provisions mentioned in Section 86(1), ordinarily it cannot be construed as mandatory unless it is shown to be an integral part of the petition under Section 81.”

(emphasis supplied)

39. In F.A. Sapa [F.A. Sapa v. Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] this Court framed two questions in para 20 of the Report, as arising for consideration. The first question was as to what is the consequence of a defective or incomplete verification. While answering the said question, this Court formulated the following principles :

(i) A defect in the verification, if any, can be cured:

(ii) It is not essential that the verification clause at the foot of the petition or the affidavit accompanying the same should disclose the grounds or sources of information in regard to the averments or allegations which are based on information believed to be true:

(iii) If the respondent desires better particulars in regard to such averments or allegations, he may call for the same, in which case the petitioner may be required to supply the same; and

(iv) The defect in the affidavit in the prescribed Form 25 can be cured unless the affidavit forms an integral part of the petition, in which case the defect concerning material facts will have to be dealt with, subject to limitation, under Section 81(3) as indicated earlier.

40. It was also held in F.A. Sapa [F.A. Sapa v. Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] that though an allegation involving corrupt practice must be viewed very seriously and the High Court should ensure compliance with the requirements of Section 83 before the parties go to trial, the defective verification of a defective affidavit may not be fatal. This Court held that the High Court should ensure its compliance before the parties go to trial. This decision was followed by another three-member Bench in R.P. Moidutty v. P.T. Kunju Mohammad [R.P. Moidutty v. P.T. Kunju Mohammad, (2000) 1 SCC 481] .

41. In Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh [Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh, (2004) 11 SCC 196] , this Court held that though the proviso to Section 83(1) is couched in a mandatory form, requiring a petition alleging corrupt practice to be accompanied by an affidavit, the failure to comply with the requirement cannot be a ground for dismissal of an election petition in limine under Section 86(1). The Court reiterated that non-compliance with the provisions of Section 83 does not attract the consequences envisaged by Section 86(1) and that the defect in the verification and the affidavit is a curable defect. The following portion of the decision is of significance :

“14. ... Therefore, an election petition is not liable to be dismissed in limine under Section 86 of the Act, for alleged non-compliance with provisions of Section 83(1) or (2) of the Act or of its proviso. The defect in the verification and the affidavit is a curable defect. What other consequences, if any, may follow from an allegedly “defective” affidavit, is required to be judged at the trial of an election petition but Section 86(1) of the Act in terms cannot be attracted to such a case.”

(emphasis supplied)

42. In K.K. Ramachandran Master v. M.V. Sreyamakumar [K.K. Ramachandran Master v. M.V. Sreyamakumar, (2010) 7 SCC 428] , this Court followed F.A. Sapa [F.A. Sapa v.

Singora, (1991) 3 SCC 375] and Harcharan Singh Brar [Harcharan Singh Brar v. Sukh Darshan Singh, (2004) 11 SCC 196] to hold that defective verification is curable. The Court again reiterated that the consequences that may flow from a defective affidavit is required to be judged at the trial of an election petition and that such election petition cannot be dismissed under Section 86(1).

43. Though all the aforesaid decisions were taken note of by a two-member Bench in P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan [P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511], the Court held in that case that the absence of proper verification may lead to the conclusion that the provisions of Section 81 had not been fulfilled and that the cause of action for the election petition would remain incomplete. Such a view does not appear to be in conformity with the series of decisions referred to in the previous paragraphs and hence P.A. Mohammed Riyas [P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511] cannot be taken to lay down the law correctly. It appears from the penultimate paragraph of the decision in P.A. Mohammed Riyas [P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511] that the Court was pushed to take such an extreme view in that case on account of the fact that the petitioner therein had an opportunity to cure the defect, but he failed to do so. Therefore, P.A. Mohammed Riyas [P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511] appears to have turned on its peculiar facts. In any case P.A. Mohammed Riyas [P.A. Mohammed Riyas v. M.K. Raghavan, (2012) 5 SCC 511] was overruled in G.M. Siddeshwar v. Prasanna Kumar [G.M. Siddeshwar v. Prasanna Kumar, (2013) 4 SCC 776 : (2013) 2 SCC (Civ) 715] on the question whether it is imperative for an election petitioner to file an affidavit in terms of Order 6 Rule 15(4) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in support of the averments made in the election petition in addition to an affidavit (in a case where resort to corrupt practices have been alleged against the returned candidate) as required by the proviso to Section 83(1). As a matter of fact, even the filing of a defective affidavit, which is not in Form 25 as prescribed by the Rules, was held in G.M.

Siddeshwar [G.M. Siddeshwar v. Prasanna Kumar, (2013) 4 SCC 776 : (2013) 2 SCC (Civ) 715] to be a curable defect and the petitioner was held entitled to an opportunity to cure the defect.

44. The upshot of the above discussion is that a defective verification is a curable defect. An election petition cannot be thrown out in limine, on the ground that the verification is defective.”

85. In the present case the election is accompanied by verification and all the paragraphs of the election petition have been verified either in personal knowledge, record or legal advice. The said verification has also been made before oath Commissioner, but there is no solemn affirmation required under Rule 94A of the Act, 1951. With no solemn affirmation of oath it cannot be said that the election petition is duly supported by an affidavit. The said infirmity can be duly cured by filing another affidavit, and the election petition cannot be dismissed barely because there is a defect in the affidavit. We have also considered the fact that the present election petition is not based on allegations of corrupt practices, and therefore there is no requirement of additional affidavit as per proviso to Section 83 of the Act, 1951. The divergent view of the Supreme Court has been set at rest in the case of Saritha S.

Nair v. Hibi Eden (Supra). Even in the case of P.A. Mohammed Riyas (supra) where the election petition was dismissed for the defect in the affidavit, has been overruled by the Supreme Court in the case G.M. Siddeshwar v. Prasanna Kumar, (2013) 4 SCC 776 and accordingly is no longer good law. The defect in the affidavit is a curable defect, and therefore on the basis of such a defect the election petition cannot be dismissed. Accordingly, the objections of the respondent no.1 in this regard are rejected. The election petitioner is granted two weeks' time to file a fresh affidavit in accordance with law.

86. List this case on 02.05.2024.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1298

APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

Special Appeal No. 291 of 2024

State of U.P. & Ors.	...Appellants
Versus
Shyam Kewal Ram	...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:

C.S.C., Sri Tej Bhanu Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:

Sri Ganesh Shankar Dubey, Sri Upendra Upadhyay

A. Service Law – Disciplinary inquiry – Punishment – Reversion – Enquiry Officer exonerated the petitioner from charge no. 1, 2 & 3 due to its being not proved, but the disciplinary authority disagreed and imposed major punishment of reversion – No reasons was disclosed by the disciplinary authority for disagreeing with the conclusions arrived at by the inquiry officer – Permissibility – Held, recording of reasons in the show cause notice for disagreeing with the opinion of inquiry officer has a definite purpose to subserve. It gives an opportunity to the delinquent employee to offer his explanation on the issues that have weighed with the disciplinary authority – The delinquent employee was denied opportunity to effectively put U.P. his defense in respect of charge nos. 1, 2 and 3. (Para 5, 6 and 7)

Appeal dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. P.N.B.Vs Kunj Behari Misra; 1998 (7) SCC 84

2. St. Bank of India & ors. Vs Mohammad Badruddin; 2019 (16) SCC 69

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J. & Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. This appeal arises out of the judgment and order dated 13.3.2023 passed by learned Single Judge allowing the writ petition filed by the respondent-petitioner against imposition of punishment vide order dated 24.3.2008.

2. It transpires that disciplinary inquiry was initiated against the writ petitioner by the disciplinary authority with service of charge-sheet dated 19.1.2006. The inquiry officer ultimately submitted a report in which he found charge nos.1,2 and 3 not to be proved. Charge no.4 was in respect of the temporary embezzlement in which the inquiry officer found the petitioner to be guilty. It transpires that a notice dated 12.11.2007 was issued by the disciplinary authority who had disagreed with the conclusion of the inquiry officer with regard to exoneration of the writ petitioner in respect of charge nos.1,2 and

3. Writ petitioner submitted a reply to this notice whereafter the major punishment of reversion to basic pay was imposed by the disciplinary authority upon the petitioner.

3. Learned Single Judge has found the procedure for imposition of such punishment to be unsustainable, inasmuch as proper opportunity was denied to the writ petitioner to defend himself. Thus aggrieved, the State is before us challenging the judgment of learned Single Judge.

4. We have heard learned State counsel as well as Sri Upendra Upadhyay, learned counsel for the respondent-petitioner and have perused the materials on record.

5. The facts, as have been noticed above, are not in issue. We have perused the show cause notice dated 12.11.2007, issued by the disciplinary authority, whereby he had disagreed with the conclusions drawn by the inquiry officer while exonerating the delinquent employee of charge nos.1,2 and 3. This notice only records the reasons for which the inquiry officer had exonerated the delinquent employee. Absolutely no reasons have been disclosed by the disciplinary authority for disagreeing with the conclusions arrived at by the inquiry officer. It is, therefore, urged on behalf of the writ petitioner that in the absence of reasons disclosed to the delinquent employee, by the disciplinary authority, for disagreeing with the opinion of the inquiry officer, the delinquent employee was denude of opportunity to explain the circumstances or his defense in that regard.

6. Recording of reasons in the show cause notice for disagreeing with the opinion of inquiry officer has a definite purpose to subserve. It gives an opportunity to the delinquent employee to offer his explanation on the issues that have weighed with the disciplinary authority. In a case where the disciplinary authority does not record reasons for his disagreement with the opinion of the inquiry officer the delinquent employee will be denuded of his right to effectively explain his defense regarding reasons of disagreement. The law in that regard has been settled by the Supreme Court in Punjab National Bank vs. Kunj Behari Misra 1998 (7) SCC 84, wherein the Court has clearly observed that reasons of disagreement must be disclosed to the delinquent employee in order to enable him to effectively meet the material which is proposed to be relied upon against him. Para 17 and 19 of the judgment are relevant for the present purposes and are reproduced hereinafter:-

"17.....The principles of natural justice would demand that the authority which proposes to decide against the delinquent officer must give him a hearing. When the enquiring officer holds the charges to be proved, then that report has to be given to the delinquent officer who can make a representation before the disciplinary authority takes further action which may be prejudicial to the delinquent officer. When, like in the present case, the enquiry report is in favour of the delinquent officer but the disciplinary authority proposes to differ with such conclusions, then that authority which is deciding against the delinquent officer must give him an opportunity of being heard for otherwise he would be condemned unheard. In departmental proceedings, what is of ultimate importance is the finding of the disciplinary authority.

19.....As a result thereof, whenever the disciplinary authority disagrees with the enquiry authority on any article of charge, then before it records its own findings on such charge, it must record its tentative reasons for such disagreement and give to the delinquent officer an opportunity to represent before it records its findings. The report of the enquiry officer containing its findings will have to be conveyed and the delinquent officer will have an opportunity to persuade the disciplinary authority to accept the favourable conclusion of the enquiry officer. The principles of natural justice, as we have already observed, require the authority which has to take a final decision and can impose a penalty, to give an opportunity to the officer charged of misconduct to file a representation before the disciplinary authority records its findings on the charges framed against the officer."

The aforesaid point of law has been reaffirmed by the Apex Court in State Bank of India & Ors. vs. Mohammad Badruddin (2019) 16 SCC 69.

7. In the facts of the present case, we are inclined to concur with the view taken by the learned Single Judge that in fact reasons of disagreement were not disclosed to the delinquent employee by the disciplinary authority. In such view of the matter, the delinquent employee was denied opportunity to effectively put up his defense in respect of charge nos.1,2 and 3. So far as charge no.4 is concerned, the only allegation found proved against the writ petitioner was that he had belatedly deposited the government money. The disciplinary authority had already imposed a minor punishment by the order under challenge, inasmuch as adverse entry was awarded to the employee concerned. It transpires that major punishment has been imposed upon the writ petitioner primarily on account of his implication in other charges which were impermissible, in view of the discussions held above.

8. In such circumstances, the view taken by the learned Single Judge to quash the major punishment of reversion of basic pay scale requires no interference. We are also cognizant of the fact that the writ petitioner had otherwise superannuated. In that view of the matter, we are of the view that no interference in the present appeal is required which, consequently, fails and is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1300
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANJIVE SHUKLA, J.

Writ -A No. 2941 of 2020
 With
 Writ -A No. 8011 of 2020

Smt. Anusuiya Sharma ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri Bheem Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Sri Sanjay Kumar Srivastava, Sri Suresh Kumar Maurya

A. Service Law – Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 – Cancellation of Special BTC Training Certificate – Charge of using fake disability certificate was leveled – The petitioner met with a serious accident – After examination by the Medical Board in 2006, CMO issued the Disability Certificate declaring the petitioner 50% disable – Petitioner was re-examined in 2018 after litigation U.P.to the S.U.P.reme Court, in which she was found 20% physical disability – Petitioner’s disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 was never declared to be a forged and fabricated document – Effect – Held, medical board which examined the petitioner on 14.11.2018 did not consider the earlier disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 and no finding has been recorded that the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 is not a genuine certificate or at the time of issuance of disability certificate dated 20.07.2006, petitioner was not properly examined by the medical board – There cannot be any occasion to punish the petitioner even if there has been any error on the part of medical board while issuing disability certificate dated 20.07.2006. (Para 31, 34, 35, 36 and 37)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manjive Shukla, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the State respondents including the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj and Sri Suresh Kumar Maurya, learned counsel appearing for the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad.

2. Since both the writ petitions are inter-connected and decision of Writ-A No. 8011 of 2020 is dependent on the decision of Writ-A No. 2941 of 2020, therefore they have been connected together and are being decided by the common judgement.

3. Petitioner through Writ-A No. 2941 of 2020 has challenged the orders dated 31.10.2019 and 22.01.2020 whereby petitioner’s Special B.T.C. Training Certificate has been cancelled. Petitioner through Writ-A No. 8011 of 2020 has challenged the order dated 13.03.2020 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad whereby petitioner’s appointment has been declared to be void-ab-initio.

FACTS OF THE CASE:

4. Facts of the case, in brief, are that petitioner having requisite educational qualifications, applied for admission in Special B.T.C. Training, 2007 under physically disabled (general women) category. Petitioner along with her application, annexed the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 issued by the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad whereby it was certified that petitioner suffers with 50% partial permanent disability.

5. Petitioner completed her Special B.T.C. Training from District Institute for Education and Training (hereinafter to be referred as “DIET”), Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah and was issued Special B.T.C. Training Certificate by the Respondent No. 3 i.e. Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj. On the strength of the said Special B.T.C. Training Certificate, petitioner was duly appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher in Primary School Chirawali, District Etah/Kashiram Nagar vide appointment order dated 3.7.2009. Petitioner submitted her joining on the aforesaid post on 6.07.2009 and started getting salary from the State Exchequer. Subsequently petitioner was transferred from District Etah to District Firozabad and was posted as Assistant Teacher in Primary School Nagla Sonth, Block Narkhi, District Firozabad.

6. It appears that certain complaints were made to the State Government wherein allegation was levelled that certain candidates have obtained appointment by using fake disability certificates therefore, State Government issued a Government Order on 10.11.2009 whereby direction was given for constituting fresh medical board and to verify disability of the candidates. The Director, State Council for Educational Research and Training (hereinafter referred to as "SCERT"), U.P., Lucknow also issued a letter addressed to all the Principals of DIET whereby direction was given for verification of the disability of the candidates who passed out the Special B.T.C. course, through fresh medical board.

7. The Government Order dated 10.11.2009 and the order dated 15.07.2010 were challenged by filing Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 53152 of 2010 (Ravindra Kumar Sharma and Others Vs. State of U.P. and Others) but learned Single Judge of this Court dismissed the writ petition vide order dated 31.08.2010. The judgement and order dated 31.08.2010 was challenged in Special Appeal No. 811 of 2010 and the Division Bench of this Court disposed of the Special Appeal with a direction that firstly respondents will verify the genuineness of the disability certificate of the candidates and once it is found that the certificate is fake, only then they will be subjected to disability test by the fresh medical board. The judgement and order dated 9.09.2010 passed in Special Appeal No. 811 of 2010 was challenged by the State of U.P. through S.L.P. (C) No. 8880 of 2011 (State of U.P. and Others Vs. Ravindra Kumar Sharma and Others). The Hon'ble Supreme Court vide judgement and order dated 03.02.2016 set-aside the aforesaid judgement and order dated 9.09.2010 passed by the Division Bench of this Court in Special Appeal No. 811 of 2010 and further provided that before taking any action against the individuals, they shall be issued show cause in the matter and thereafter decision will be taken in accordance with law.

8. In compliance of the aforesaid judgement rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, Etah issued a show cause notice on 24.05.2018 wherein it was stated that petitioner has used a forged and fabricated disability certificate to secure her admission in the Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 and therefore, cause may be shown as to why Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner may not be cancelled. Petitioner in response to the show cause notice dated 24.05.2018 submitted her reply wherein she categorically stated that Disability Certificate No. 1549 issued to the petitioner by the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad on 20.07.2006 is a genuine document and at no point of time, it has been found that the said certificate has not been issued by the competent authority.

9. Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah vide his notice dated 15.10.2018 required the petitioner to appear before the medical board headed by the Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Lucknow on 14.11.2018 and to get her disability certified. Petitioner in compliance of the notice dated 15.10.2018 appeared before the medical board and the said medical board issued certificate wherein petitioner's disability has been found to be 20%.

10. Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, Etah again issued a show cause notice to the petitioner on 27.02.2019 wherein he cited the disability certificate dated 14.11.2018 issued by the fresh medical board and thereby stated that under the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Act, 1995 (hereinafter to be referred as “the Act of 1995”), 40% disability is must for claiming the benefit of reservation under the Physically Disabled Category whereas her disability has been found only 20% as such, it is apparent that she has used forged and fabricated disability certificate for securing her admission in Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 therefore, she may show cause as to why her candidature for Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 may not be cancelled. Petitioner submitted her reply to the aforesaid show cause notice on 12.03.2019 wherein she categorically stated that the Disability Certificate No. 1549 issued to her by Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad on 20.07.2006 is a genuine document and at no point of time, it has been found that the same is either forged or fabricated. Petitioner in her reply further submitted that she met with a serious accident and thereby she became disabled. She applied for disability certificate and she was subjected to medical examination by medical board and thereafter disability certificate was issued by the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad whereby it was certified that petitioner suffers from 50% partial permanent disability. Petitioner in her reply also categorically stated that she is in continuous medical treatment with effect from the date of her accident therefore, merely because the fresh medical board which was constituted after about 12 years has reported that petitioner is having only 20% disability, it cannot be presumed that the medical certificate dated 26.07.2006 is a forged and fabricated document.

11. Though, show cause notice for cancelling candidature of the petitioner of the Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 was issued by the Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, Etah, but all of a sudden, Secretary Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Allahabad has passed the order dated 31.10.2019 wherein it is mentioned that on the basis of information related with non-certification of the disability of certain candidates, on the directions of Director, S.C.E.R.T., U.P., Lucknow, Result Committee in its meetings held on 19.03.2019 and 21.10.2019 has taken decision to cancel the certificates of Special B.T.C. Training, 2007 issued to the petitioner and other candidates.

12. Petitioner has challenged the order dated 31.10.2019 passed by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj which recites that Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj in its meetings held on 19.03.2019 and 21.10.2019 has taken decision to cancel the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner, by filing Writ-A No. 2941 of 2020.

13. On the strength of the order dated 31.10.2019 passed by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj, the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad issued notices to the petitioner on 3.02.2020, 13.02.2020 and 22.02.2020 whereby he directed petitioner to appear before him on the date fixed and to submit her reply along with evidence as her Special B.T.C. Training Certificate has been cancelled by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj vide order dated 31.10.2019. Petitioner in response to the aforesaid notices, submitted application on 15.02.2020 whereby she requested for providing copies of the letters dated 31.10.2015 and 13.05.2016 and further she filed an application on 28.02.2020 whereby she submitted that the disability certificate was duly issued by the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad.

14. The District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad has passed order on 13.03.2020 whereby petitioner's appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher has been declared to be void-ab-initio only for the reason that her Special B.T.C. Training Certificate has been cancelled by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj vide order dated 31.10.2019.

15. Petitioner has challenged the order dated 13.03.2020 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad by filing Writ-A No. 8011 of 2020.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

16. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has submitted that petitioner suffered disability out of an accident. She applied for disability certificate and was subjected to thorough medical examination by the medical board at district Firozabad and accordingly she was issued Disability Certificate No. 1549 on 20.07.2006 under the signatures of the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad.

17. It is not the case of respondents that the aforesaid disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 has not been issued by a competent medical board and therefore, any action against the petitioner treating the said disability certificate to be a forged and fabricated document, is unsustainable in the eyes of law. It has further been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that both the medical boards i.e. medical board which examined the petitioner at the time of issuance of disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 which found her to be having 50% partial permanent disability and the medical board which examined the petitioner at the time of issuance of disability certificate dated 14.11.2018 and found her to be having 20% disability, have examined the petitioner as per their methods and standards of examination but the fact remains that petitioner is a disabled person and her Disability Certificate No. 1549 dated 20.07.2006 is a genuine document. It has also been submitted that there may be possibility of error in the decisions taken by both the aforesaid medical boards and for that, petitioner cannot be held responsible that too after about 14 years from the date of issuance of disability certificate. There may also be possibility that due to proper medical treatment, the disability of the petitioner may have been reduced from 50% to 20% but by no stretch of imagination, it can be said that the petitioner does not suffer from physical disability and her Disability Certificate dated 20.07.2006 is a forged and fabricated document.

18. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has contended that the provisions of the Act of 1995 provides that any person who suffers with 40% disability will be termed as 'disabled person' and shall be entitled for benefits of reservation under the disabled category meaning thereby that both the categories of persons i.e. persons suffering with more than 40% permanent disability and the persons suffering with more than 40% disability are entitled for benefit of reservation for different purposes provided under the Act of 1995, therefore the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 thereby describing petitioner to be 50% partially permanent disabled, the percentage of disability may have reduced due to medical treatment but by no stretch of imagination, it can be inferred that petitioner has committed any fraud or forgery therefore, petitioner cannot be penalized for the errors in the decision making process or any other error committed by the two medical boards before whom petitioner has been subjected to medical examination.

19. It has been argued by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj has not considered the aforesaid issues at all and straightway has cancelled the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner only on the ground that since in the medical examination conducted by the medical board on 14.11.2018, she has been found to be having only 20% disability therefore, the decision taken by the Result Committee, communicated to the petitioner vide letter dated 31.10.2019 by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj, on its face, is erroneous.

20. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has vehemently argued that the authority which has cancelled the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner i.e. Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj, has not provided any opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and even has not issued any show-cause notice to the petitioner before taking decision to cancel the certificate, as such, decision of the Result Committee communicated to the petitioner vide letter dated 31.10.2019 by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj, on its face, is hit by the violation of the principles of natural justice. It has further been argued that had the Result Committee before taking decision to cancel petitioner's B.T.C. Training certificate would have issued notice to the petitioner or would have afforded opportunity of hearing to the petitioner then it may have been explained to the Result Committee that it is not a case of forgery or fabricating any document but it is a case of different standards and methods adopted by the two different medical boards and it may be a case of error in decision making process adopted by the two different medical boards and therefore, petitioner cannot be held responsible and cannot be penalized.

21. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has also invited attention of this Court that in this case, a very unique method has been adopted as the show-cause notice was issued to the petitioner by the Principal, DIET who has no authority to cancel the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner whereas the competent authority i.e. Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj has not issued any show cause notice and without taking into consideration the reply of the petitioner, straightway has cancelled her Special B.T.C. Training Certificate therefore, the decision taken in the matter, stands vitiated due to non-observance of the principles of natural justice.

22. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has vehemently argued that it is not the case of the respondents that petitioner does not suffer from physical disability but it is a case of variance in the percentage of physical disability ascertained by two medical boards at a gap of about 12 years therefore, the essence of time is of paramount importance and it cannot be ignored that there may be an error in the decision making process adopted by the medical boards and there may also be possibility of improvement in the percentage of physical disability of the petitioner, as such, it is absolutely arbitrary to cancel the Special B.T.C. Certificate after about 13 years and thereby to declare petitioner's appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher void-ab-initio after about 11 years.

23. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has also argued that petitioner was a regularly appointed and a confirmed Assistant Teacher working in a primary school therefore, her appointment could not have been cancelled without adopting due procedure prescribed under law i.e. without holding proper disciplinary inquiry as contemplated under the rules but the District Basic Education Officer has straightway passed the order on 13.03.2020 whereby petitioner's appointment has been declared to be void-ab-initio on the basis of the order dated 31.10.2019 issued by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj reciting therein that the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued to the petitioner, has been cancelled by the Result Committee.

24. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has thus concluded his arguments by submitting that at no point of time i.e. either at the time of cancellation of petitioner's Special B.T.C. Training Certificate by the Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj or at the time of passing of the order by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad declaring the petitioner's appointment as void-ab-initio, petitioner's case that she has not committed any forgery, has been considered in its true perspective, accordingly, writ petitions filed by the petitioner are liable to be allowed by this Court.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS:

25. Per-contra, learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj has submitted that petitioner on the basis of Disability Certificate No. 1549 issued by the Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad on 20.07.2006 has obtained admission in Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 and was issued certificate on completion of the said course but later on when on 14.11.2018, she was subjected to medical examination by the fresh medical board, it was found that she is suffering with only 20% physical disability whereas in the certificate dated 20.07.2006, she has been shown to be having 50% partial permanent disability, accordingly, it is manifest that the certificate dated 20.07.2006 is a forged and fabricated document and as such petitioner's Special B.T.C. Training Certificate has been cancelled which is perfectly in accordance with law. Learned Standing Counsel appearing for the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj has further submitted that petitioner was issued show cause notice by the Principal, DIET and thereafter decision has been taken by the Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj and the said decision was duly communicated to the petitioner vide letter dated 31.10.2019 by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority therefore, it is absolutely incorrect to say that decision has been taken by the Result Committee without following the principles of natural justice.

26. Learned Standing Counsel has thus concluded his arguments and has submitted that once it has been found that petitioner is not suffering with minimum 40% physical disability required for availing the benefit of reservation under the disabled category, she is not entitled to continue with the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate and accordingly, same has been cancelled, therefore, writ petitions filed by the petitioner, being absolutely misconceived, are liable to be dismissed by this Court.

27. Mr. S.K. Maurya, learned counsel appearing for the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad has submitted that since the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P., Prayagraj vide order dated 31.10.2019 has cancelled the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate issued in favour of the petitioner therefore, the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad issued notices to the petitioner and thereafter has passed order on 13.03.2020 whereby petitioner's appointment has been declared to be void-ab-initio on the ground that since the basis of the appointment does not exist anymore, the appointment of the petitioner cannot sustain in the eyes of law.

28. Sri S.K. Maurya has further submitted that petitioner has been found to have used forged and fabricated disability certificate and, therefore the District Basic Education Officer, while declaring the petitioner's appointment void-ab-initio has not committed any error under law. It has thus been contended that the writ petitions filed by the petitioner, are liable to be dismissed by this Court.

FINDINGS:

29. I have considered the rival arguments advanced by the learned counsels appearing for the parties. For adjudicating the issues involved in these writ petitions, it is necessary to consider the provisions of the Act of 1995 and the Persons with Disabilities (Equal Opportunities, Protection of Rights and Full Participation) Rules, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules of 1996"). Relevant provisions of the Act of 1995 and Rules of 1996 are extracted as under :-

Section 2(t) of the Act of 1995:

(t) "Person with disability" means a person suffering from not less than forty per cent. of any disability as certified by a medical authority;

Section 33 of the Act of 1995:

"33. Every appropriate Government shall appoint in every establishment such percentage of vacancies not less than three per cent. for persons or class of persons with disability of which one per cent. each shall be reserved for persons suffering from-

(i) Blindness or low vision;

(ii) Bearing impairment;

(iii) Loco motor disability or cerebral palsy, in the posts identified for each disability:

Provided that the appropriate Government may, having regard to the type of work carried on in any department or establishment, by notification subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in such notification, exempt any establishment from the provisions of this section."

Section 39 of the Act of 1995:

"39. All Government educational institutions and other educational institutions receiving aid from the Government, shall reserve not less than three per cent seat for persons with disabilities."

Rule 4 of the Rules of 1996:

“4. Authorities to give Disability Certificate:- (1) A Disability Certificate shall be issued by a Medical Board duly constituted by the Central and the State Government.

(2) The State Government may constitute a Medical Board consisting of at least three members out of which at least one shall be a specialist in the particular field for assessing locomotor/Visual including low vision/hearing and speech disability, mental retardation and leprosy cured, as the case may be.”

Rule 5 of the Rules of 1996:

5. (1) The Medical Board shall, after due examination, give a permanent Disability Certificate in cases of such permanent disabilities where there are no chances of variation in the degree of disability.

(2) The Medical Board shall indicate the period of validity in the certificate, in cases where there is any chance of variation in the degree of disability.

(3) No refusal of Disability Certificate shall be made unless an opportunity is given to the applicant of being heard.

(4) On representation by the applicant, the Medical Board may review its decision having regard to all the facts and circumstances of the case and pass such order in the matter as it thinks fit.

30. The aforesaid provisions of the Act of 1995 clearly demonstrate that any person who is suffering with 40% of any disability certified by the medical authority shall be the “person with disability”. Section 39 of the Act of 1995 provides that all Government Educational Institutions and other Educational Institutions receiving aid from Government shall reserve not less than 3% seats for persons with disability. Section 33 of the Act of 1995 provides that every appropriate Government shall appoint in every establishment such percentage of vacancies not less than 3 % for persons or class of persons with disability. Rule 4 of the Rules of 1996 provides that disability certificates shall be issued by a Medical Board duly constituted by the Central and the State Government. Rule 5(1) of the Rules of 1996 provides that the Medical Board in the cases of permanent disability where there are no chance of variation in the degree of disability shall issue certificate of permanent disability. Rules 5(2) further provides that Medical Board shall indicate the period of validity in the certificate in cases where there is any chance of variation in the degree of disability. The aforesaid provisions of the Act of 1995 read with Rule 4, 5(1) and 5(2) of the Rules of 1996 make it crystal clear that if a person is suffering with more than 40% disability then he is entitled for the reservation provided under the Act of 1995 irrespective of the fact whether the disability is permanent or the disability may be cured over a period of time. Thus it is patently manifest that there may be cases where the person on the date of examination by the Medical Board may be having more than 40% disability but over a period of time due to proper medical treatment his percentage of disability may improve.

31. The petitioner met with a serious accident and on 20.07.2006, she was examined by the duly constituted medical board and thereafter Chief Medical Officer, Firozabad issued Disability Certificate No. 1549 dated 20.07.2006. The aforesaid medical certificate provided that petitioner is suffering with partial permanent disability and percentage of disability is 50 %. Petitioner, on the basis of the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006, was given admission in the Special B.T.C. Training Course, 2007 against the seat reserved for physically disabled candidates. Petitioner completed her training and she was issued Special B.T.C. Training Certificate on 22.06.2009. On the strength of the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate dated 22.06.2009, petitioner was appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher in a Primary School on 03.07.2009 and further, petitioner submitted her joining on the post of Assistant Teacher on 06.07.2009.

32. This Court finds that petitioner continued to discharge duties attached to her post since 06.07.2009 till 13.03.2020 and continued to receive salary from the State Exchequer.

33. It appears that the State Government issued Government Order dated 10.11.2009 whereby decision was taken to ask the candidates appointed on the posts of Assistant Teacher on the basis of disability certificate to appear before the medical board for fresh medical examination as there were certain complaints that various candidates have secured appointment on the posts of Assistant Teacher on the basis of forged and fabricated disability certificates. The Government Order dated 10.11.2009 was challenged in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 5315 of 2010 but the said writ petition was dismissed vide order dated 31.08.2010. Thereafter the order dated 31.08.2010 was challenged in Special Appeal No. 811 of 2010 which was disposed of vide order dated 09.09.2010 with the observation that the candidates shall be subjected to fresh medical examination where the disability certificates issued in their favour are found to be forged and fabricated. The State Government challenged order dated 09.09.2010 passed in Special Appeal No. 811 of 2010 by filing Special Leave Petition (C) 8880 of 2011 and Hon'ble Supreme Court vide judgment and order dated 03.02.2016 set aside the order passed in Special Appeal but provided that before taking action against any candidate, he/she shall be issued show cause in the matter and thereafter decision will be taken in accordance with law.

34. After the aforesaid judgment passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah vide notice dated 15.10.2018 directed the petitioner to appear before the fresh medical board at Lucknow on 14.11.2018. The petitioner was examined by the medical board on 14.11.2018 and thereafter a report has been given that petitioner is suffering with 20% physical disability.

35. This Court finds that in the report/medical certificate dated 14.11.2018, there is no whisper about the disability certificate issued to the petitioner on 20.07.2006 meaning thereby that medical board which examined the petitioner on 14.11.2018 did not consider the earlier disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 and no finding has been recorded that the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 is not a genuine certificate or at the time of issuance of disability certificate dated 20.07.2006, petitioner was not properly examined by the medical board. This Court further finds that the proper course would have been that the medical board while examining the matter of the petitioner on 14.11.2018 must have expressed its opinion on the earlier disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 as this possibility cannot be overruled that after the issuance of disability certificate on 20.07.2006 due to proper medical treatment the percentage of disability of the petitioner may have been improved. It is also worth consideration that the medical board which examined the petitioner on 20.07.2006 was a duly constituted medical board and it is not denied that Disability Certificate No. 1549 dated 20.07.2006 has been issued to the petitioner by the competent authority then unless the subsequent medical board records a finding that the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 either was not a genuine document or was not issued after thorough examination by the experts, there was no occasion for the respondents to hold the petitioner guilty of using forged and fabricated disability certificate for securing her appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher. The disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 clearly provides that petitioner was suffering from partial permanent disability and the percentage of disability was found to be 50% therefore, there is every possibility that under a proper medical treatment her percentage of disability may have been improved to 20% as such, merely because the percentage of disability has changed in the period of 12 years, that itself does not hold that earlier disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 is a fake and forged document.

36. On the basis of subsequent medical report/certificate dated 14.11.2018, Principal, DIET Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah issued a show cause notice to the petitioner on 27.02.2019 wherein it was stated that in the medical examination held on 14.11.2018, petitioner's physical disability has been found less than 40% therefore, why the Special B.T.C. training certificate issued to the petitioner may not be cancelled for the reason that petitioner secured admission in the B.T.C. training course on the basis of a forged and fabricated disability certificate. The aforesaid show cause notice on its face was absolutely erroneous as petitioner's disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 has never been declared to be a forged and fabricated document. Petitioner submitted detailed reply on 12.03.2019 wherein it was categorically stated that the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 has never been declared to be forged and fabricated document and therefore, notice is liable to be cancelled. It appears from the record that Principal, DIET, Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah did not take any decision pursuant to show cause notice dated 27.02.2019.

37. The Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj vide his letter dated 31.10.2019 directed the Principal, DIET, District Etah to register the cancellation of the Special B.T.C. certificate of the petitioner in the register maintained in the DIET on the ground that Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj has taken decision to cancel the petitioner's Special B.T.C. Training Certificate. This Court finds that neither the Result Committee of the Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj nor the Secretary Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj issued any show cause notice to the petitioner nor petitioner's version has been considered while cancelling petitioner's Special B.T.C. Training Certificate therefore, the decision of the Result Committee taken in respect of the petitioner and the order dated 31.10.2019 passed by the Secretary Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj cannot sustain in the eyes of law for simple reason of violation of principles of natural justice. Even otherwise, this Court finds that the petitioner's disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 at no point of time has ever been declared to be a forged and fabricated document and further vide disability certificate dated 20.07.2006, petitioner was declared to be partially permanent disabled and percentage of disability was 50% and therefore this possibility cannot be ruled out that over a period of 12 years due to proper medical treatment, petitioner's disability may have been improved and as such, in the medical examination report dated 14.11.2018, her disability has been found to be 20%. Once there is no finding that the disability certificate dated 20.07.2006 was not a genuine document or was not issued after proper medical examination, there cannot be any occasion to punish the petitioner even if there has been any error on the part of medical board while issuing disability certificate dated 20.07.2006.

38. In view of the aforesaid reasons, Writ-A No. 2941 of 2020 is allowed. The decision of the Result Committee regarding cancellation of the Special B.T.C. Training Certificate of the petitioner and the consequential order dated 31.10.2019 passed by the Secretary, Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj and order dated 22.01.2020 passed by the Principal, DIET Harchandpur Kalan, District Etah are quashed.

39. The District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad has passed order dated 13.03.2020 whereby petitioner's appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher has been declared to be void-ab-initio only on the ground that her Special B.T.C. Training Certificate has been cancelled vide order dated 31.10.2019 passed by the Secretary Examination Regulatory Authority, U.P. Prayagraj and order dated 22.01.2020 passed by the Principal DIET district Etah.

40. The aforesaid order dated 13.03.2020 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad has been challenged by the petitioner in Writ-A No. 8011 of 2020 on various grounds including that such order could not have been passed without instituting proper disciplinary proceedings under the relevant rules but since this Court has already quashed the orders dated 31.10.2019 and 22.1.2020, which are the basis of the order dated 13.03.2020 therefore, the order dated 13.03.2020 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad declaring the petitioner's appointment on the post of Assistant Teacher to be void-ab-initio cannot sustain in the eyes of law.

41. Accordingly, Writ-A No. 8011 of 2020 is allowed. The order dated 13.03.2020 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad is quashed. Direction is issued to District Basic Education Officer, Firozabad to allow the petitioner to join on the post of Assistant Teacher in a Primary School at District Firozabad within three weeks from the date of service of certified copy of this order and to pay her salary regularly. It is further provided that since petitioner has not worked as Assistant Teacher in the Primary School at District Firozabad therefore, she is not entitled for the salary for the period from 13.03.2020 till the date of her reinstatement in service but the aforesaid period shall be counted towards service rendered by the petitioner for all other service benefits.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1312
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 03.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ-B No. 178 of 1983

Pancham & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
D.D.C. Sultanpur & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

H.S. Sahai, Ajay Kumar Verma, Mahesh Chandra Shukla, Mohan Singh, Rankaj Kumar Vishwakarma, Sudhir Kumar Misra, U.S. Sahai, Vinod Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:

U.P. Singh, Ajay Kumar Verma, Ajay Verma, C.S.C., Kaushal Kishore, Sudhir Kumar Misra

Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act,1953-dispute regarding property rights-Petitioners argued that the property was part of Joint Hindu Family and should be treated as joint property – petitioners and their predecessors were not recorded as tenure holders in the revenue records for the property in question-Possession and rent payment were deemed insufficient to establish ownership-The petitioners relied on a compromise agreement between the co-tenureholders, but one key party, Pandoi, did not sign it-This rendered the agreement invalid in determining ownership-based on the lack of evidence to prove joint family ownership or valid title, and the invalid compromise, the court upheld the revisional order and dismissed the petition.(Para 1 to 21)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jai Narain Vs D.D.C & ors. (1979) RD 198

2. Bodh Raj Vs Joint Director of Consolidation Faizabad & ors., in Writ Petition No. 676 of 1980 connected with Writ Petition No. 23 of 1980

3. Lakshmaiah & anr. Vs L. Balasubramanyam (2003) 10 SCC 310

4. Kunj Bihari Vs Ganga Sahai Pande (2013) SCC Online Alld. 13489: 2013 (99) ALR 826

5. Rukhmabai Vs Lala Laxminarayan(1960)AIR SC 335

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Mohan Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Sudhir Kumar Misra, learned counsel for Respondent Nos.3/1, 3/2, 3/2/1, 3/2/2, 3/2/3 and 3/3 and Sri Kaushal Kishor, learned counsel for Respondent Nos.4 and Sri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned order dated 12.02.1981 passed under Section 9(2) of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred as 'the Act, 1953') by Consolidation Officer and the revisional order dated 30.12.1982 passed under Section 48 of the Act, 1982.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the predecessors of the present petitioners i.e. Petitioner No.1 and Late Bairagi father of Petitioner Nos.2, 3 and 4 had filed objection under Section 9 of the Act, 1952 claiming co-tenancy right over Khata No.112 on the ground that the family of the petitioners and the opposite parties were Joint Hindu Family and Late Ramhit was the Karta of the family. Being the Karta of the Joint Hindu Family his name alone was recorded under the representative capacity in the revenue records.

4. It is further submitted that the consolidation officer had rejected the objection filed under Section 9A of the Act, 1953 by impugned order dated 12.02.1981 against which Late Pancham and his cousin brother late Bairagi the father of the Petitioner Nos. 2,3 and 4 had preferred an appeal and the said appeal was decided on the basis of the compromise / agreement entered between the petitioners and the respondents.

5. It is further submitted that against the appellate order Pandohi had preferred a revision under Section 48 of the Act, 1953, who is the brother of Ram Lakhan and son of Late Nidhi.

6. It is further submitted that the Revisional Court committed manifest error of law in allowing the revision without giving due weightage to the admission made by respondent No.4 Ronghai and the compromise filed which was duly verified before the Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation and also failed to consider the admission made by the opposite parties in the reconciliation proceedings by filing a compromise.

7. It is further submitted that the Respondent No.1 had misread the evidence with respect to the rent receipts and Khasra entries. It is also submitted that in CH Form 2A issued under Rule 21 the name of the petitioner No.1 and Bairagi are recorded.

8. It is further submitted that the predecessors of the petitioners Late Pancham i.e. Petitioner No.1 and Late Bairagi father of Petitioner Nos.2,3 and 4, were in possession of the gatas and have been depositing the rent.

9. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondents have submitted that there is no illegality in the impugned revisional order and the same has been passed after appreciating and considering the evidence.

10. Sri Sudhir Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for Respondent Nos.3/1, 3/2, 3/2/1, 3/2/2, 3/2/3 and 3/3 has submitted that Pandohi the brother of Ram Lakhan and son of Nidhi had never signed any agreement nor participated in alleged conciliation proceedings between Late Pancham and Ram Lakhan. It is further submitted that the petitioners have failed to show any entry in the name of petitioners in the revenue records.

11. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case the position which emerges out in the present case is that as far as the submission of learned counsel for the petitioners that the property belongs to a Joint Hindu Family is concerned, it is not tenable in the eyes of law as per law regarding the Joint Hindu Family Property it is now fairly well settled that in order to successfully claim the share regarding the Joint Hindu Family property, the burden is on the party to prove that there existed a joint family which had the requisite funds and nucleus out of which the property in question has been purchased. The onus is upon the petitioner to adduce evidence to indicate that the property was the Joint Hindu Family Property which they have failed to prove and in absence of any evidence to that effect the petitioner could not have been granted the benefit of getting the property treating as Joint Hindu Family

Property. The petitioner except simply making an averment in Para 3 of the writ petition, nothing has been placed on record to establish that the gatas of Khata No.112 were purchased from the nucleus of Joint Hindu Family and the property as such is a Joint Hindu Family Property.

12. In the case of Jai Narain v. D.D.C. & others reported in (1979) RD 198, it was held that the presumption is only in respect of jointness and not that any property acquired by members of the family is a joint family property and this is a matter of evidence and not of presumption. In the present case, the petitioners have failed to adduce any evidence that the property is a joint family property.

13. In the case of Bodh Raj v. Joint Director of Consolidation Faizabad and Others, in Writ Petition No.676 of 1980 connected with Writ Petition No.23 of 1980, decided on 22.09.1995, wherein it has been held that there is a presumption with respect to the jointness of family and if it is shown or proved to the satisfaction of the Court then property inherited from a common ancestor will be deemed to be a joint property of all. It is also clarified in the said judgement that joint family funds must be used for purchase of the property in order to make it joint and property is entered in the name of one person then it has to be proved by other party, who claims to be a joint property that it was acquired by the joint family funds, which the petitioners have failed to establish.

14. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of D.S. Lakshmaiah and Another Vs. L. Balasubramanyam reported in 2003 (10) SCC 310, the relevant portion reads as under:-

"18. The legal principle, therefore, is that there is no presumption of a property being joint family property only on account of existence of a joint Hindu family. The one who asserts has to prove that the property is a joint family property. If, however, the person so asserting proves that there was nucleus with which the joint family property could be acquired, there would be presumption of the property being joint and the onus would shift on the person who claims it to be self-acquired property to prove that he purchased the property with his own funds and not out of joint family nucleus that was available."

15. Similarly, the Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Kunj Bihari Vs. Ganga Sahai Pande reported in 2013 SCC Online Alld. 13489: 2013 (99) ALR 826 wherein tracing the history and considering the earlier decision on the point of Joint Hindu Family and property, the burden of proof etc. This Court has held as under:-

"24. The "patriarchal family" may be defined as a group of natural or adoptive descendants, held together by subjection to the eldest living ascendant, father, grand-father, great-grandfather. Whatever be a formal prescription of law, the head of such a group is always in practice, despotic; and he is the object of respect, if not always of affection, which is probably seated deeper than any positive institution. Manu says, "three persons, a wife, a son and a slave, are declared by law to have in general no wealth exclusively their own; the wealth which they may earn is regularly acquired for the man to whom they belong." Narada says, "he is of age and independent, in case his parents be dead; during their lifetime he is dependent, even though he be grown old."

25. The "joint family" is normally a transition form from "patriarchal family". At the death of common ancestors or head of house, if the family chooses to continue united, the eldest son would be the natural head. The former one was head of family by natural authority, the later other can only be so by a delegated authority. He is primus but inter pares. An undivided Hindu family thus is ordinarily joint, not only in estate but in food and worship. The presumption, therefore, is that members of a Hindu family are living in a state of union unless contrary is established. This presumption however varies inasmuch as it is stronger in case of real brother than in case of cousin and farther one go, from the founder of family, the presumption becomes weaker and weaker. However, there is no presumption that a family, because it is joint, possesses joint property. Under Mitakshara Law, possession of property is not necessary requisite for constitution of a joint family, though where persons live together, joint in food and worship, it is difficult to conceive of their possessing no property whatever, such as, at least, ordinary household articles which they would enjoy in common.

32. The joint undivided family is the normal condition of Hindu society as observed in Raghunadha Vs. Brozo Kishroe (1876) 3 IA 154 and Neelkisto Deb Vs. Beerchunder (1989) 12 MIA 523. An HUF is ordinarily joint not only in estate but in food and worship. Unless contrary is established, the presumption is that the members of a Hindu family are living in a state of union (see: Govind Dass Vs. Kuldip Singh AIR 1971 Delhi 151 and Bhagwan Dayal Vs. Mst. Reoti Devi AIR 1962 SC 287). If, however, one of the coparceners is admittedly living separately from other members of the family, neither it can be said that other members do not constitute a Hindu joint family nor the member living separately, who has stripped his relation with the joint family, can be said to be still a coparcener or member of joint family. Simultaneously, merely if some members are working and living at different places, though own a joint family in common, it cannot be said that they do not form a joint Hindu family. Since it is only a presumption, the strength thereof necessarily varies in every case. The presumption of union is stronger in the case of brothers than in the case of cousins and farther one goes from the founder of the family, the presumption becomes weaker and weaker.

33. Brothers may be presumed to be joint but conclusion of jointness with collaterals must be affirmatively proved. The presumption lies strongly in favour of father and son that they are living jointly unless proved otherwise.

34. This presumption, however, does not apply in respect of property. There is no presumption that a family, because it is joint, possess joint property. As per Mitakshara law, the possession of property is not a necessary requisite for the constitution of a joint family, though where persons live together, joint in food and worship, it is difficult to conceive that they are possessing no property whatever, such as ordinary household articles which they would enjoy in common.

35. In Sher Singh Vs. Gamdoor Singh 1997 (2) HLR 81 (SC), the Court said that once existence of a joint family is not in dispute, necessarily the property held by family assumed the character of a coparcenary property and every member of family would be entitled, by birth, to a share in coparcenary property, unless any one of the coparcener pleads, by separate pleadings and proves, that some of the properties or all the properties are his self-acquired properties and cannot be blended in coparcenary property. Merely because the family is joint, there is no presumption of joint property. A Hindu, even if he be joint may possess separate property. Such property belongs exclusively to him. Neither member of the coparcenary, nor his male issue, acquires any interest in it by birth. On his death (intestate), it passes by succession to his heirs and not by survivorship to the surviving coparcener. The existence of joint family does not raise presumption that it owns properties jointly. But once joint family nucleus is either proved or admitted so as to draw inference that such property could have been acquired out of joint family funds, the burden shifts to the party alleging self acquisition, to establish affirmatively, that such property was acquired without aid of joint family. Initial burden always lies upon the party asserting that any item of property is joint family property.

38. In Appalaswami Vs. Suryanarayanamurti and Ors., AIR 1947 PC 189, it was held that Hindu law is very clear. Proof of existence of a joint family does not lead to the presumption that property held by any member of family is joint. The burden rests upon one who asserts that an item of property is joint, to establish that fact. But where it is established that the family possessed some joint property which, from its nature and relative value, may have formed the nucleus, from which property in question may have been acquired, the burden shifts to the party alleging self-acquisition, to establish affirmatively that the property was acquired without the aid of joint family property/fund.

39. Again in Srinivas Krishnarao Kango Vs. Narayan Devji Kango AIR 1954 SC 379, it was held that proof of existence of a joint family does not lead to the presumption that property held by any member of family is joint. The burden rests upon anyone asserting that any item of property is joint to establish the fact. But where it is established that the family possessed some joint property which form its nature and relative value, may have formed the nucleus, from which property in question may have been acquired, the burden shifts to the party alleging self-acquisition to establish affirmatively that the property was acquired without the aid of joint family property.

40. The legal proposition which emerges therefrom is that initial burden is on the person who claims that it is joint family property but after initial burden is discharged, the burden shifts to the party claiming that the property was self acquired and without the aid of joint family property/fund.

41. In Rukhmabai Vs. Lala Laxminarayan AIR 1960 SC 335, the Court said:

"There is a presumption in Hindu Law that a family is joint. There can be a division in status among the members of a joint Hindu family by refinement of shares which is technically called "division in status", or an actual division among them by allotment of specific property to each one of them which is described as "division by metes and bounds". A member need not receive any share in the joint estate but may renounce his interest therein, his renunciation merely extinguishes his interest in the estate but does not affect the status of the remaining members vis- a-vis the family property. A division in status can be effected by an unambiguous declaration to become divided from the others and that intention can be expressed by any process. Though prima facie a document clearly expressing the intention to divide brings about a division in status, it is open to a party to prove that the said document was a sham or a nominal one not intended to be acted upon but was conceived and executed for an ulterior purpose. But there is no presumption that any property, whether movable or immovable, held by a member of, a joint Hindu family, is joint family property. The burden lies upon the person who asserts that a particular property is joint family property. to establish that fact. But if he proves that there was sufficient joint family nucleus from and out of which the said property could have been acquired, the burden shifts to the member of the family setting up the claim that it is his personal property..." (emphasis added"

16. The CH Form 2A issued under Rule 21 which has heavily been relied by the learned counsel for the petitioners to establish the title over Khata No.112 as a co-tenure holder but after the perusal of the same which has been enclosed as Annexure No.S.A.-4 to the supplementary affidavit filed on 20.09.2023 on behalf of the petitioners in which only the name of Late Pancham was entered only in Gata No.95 as tenure holder and in rest of the gatas the name of Late Pancham and Late Bairagi are not shown as tenure holder except in Column No.9 in some gatas the name of Late Bairagi and in some gatas name of Late Pancham had been shown as 'कब्जा बहुत दिन से बतौर सहखारेदार बताया',.

17. On being asked a specific query from the learned counsel for the petitioners to show any provision or case law that the title can be established on the basis of the possession and by depositing the rent, except where the rights have been claimed to have been perfected by adverse possession. The learned counsel for the petitioners has very fairly submitted that there is neither any provision in the statute or any law which provides possession and depositing the rent for the purpose of determination of title.

18. The title is to be seen from the basic fasli year from the date of consolidation proceedings and as per admitted case of both the sides, the consolidation year was 1970 and basic fasli year would be 1363 and in both the Khatauni of basic fasli year enclosed by the petitioners in their supplementary affidavit, even in that Khatauni the name of Late Pancham and Late Bairagi are also not recorded, so from the revenue records the petitioners have failed to show entry in their names in the revenue records. The entries in the Khatauni, which is a document of title and the entries in the Khasra which a document of possession only, the petitioners had failed to show any entries in the Khatauni. Even CH Form 2A which has heavily been relied as admitted except Gata No.95 in other Gatas of Khata No.112 the petitioners were not recorded as tenure holders. The petitioners had not enclosed any copy of Khasra which determines the possession.

19. Learned counsel for the petitioners is also unable to dispute that the names of the petitioners or their predecessors were never ever entered in the revenue records in the gatas of Khata No.112 and the entry shown in CH Form 2A issued under Rule 21 the name of Petitioner No.1 is on separate Gata, which is not in Khata No.112.

20. The compromise on the basis of which the petitioners are claiming their right is nonest in the eyes of law for the reason it is an admitted case of the parties that Pandoi and Ram Lakhan are the co-tenure holders of the gatas of Khata No. 112 the compromise / agreement was signed only by Ram Lakhan and it was not signed by the Pandoi who had preferred the revision, the petitioners have failed to establish their title / ownership on the gatas of Khata No.112 from the revenue records as discussed above and this Court finds no illegality in the revisional order.

21. In view of the facts and circumstances of the case and the discussion made hereinabove, the writ petition is devoid of merits and is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1318

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE

DATED: LUCKNOW 10.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ-B No. 382 of 2024

Surendra Bahadur Singh & Ors.

...Petitioners

Versus

Chakbandi Aayukt U.P. Saptam Tal Indra Bhawan Lko. & Ors.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Sandeep Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-Consolidations of Holdings Act,1953-Sections 10,20,23,52,9A(2)-The petitioners claimed that proceeding with the notifications/publications u/s 10,20,23,52 of the act without resolving their objections u/s 9A(2) would violate their legal rights-Held, the court ruled against the petitioners emphasizing section 52(2) and Rule 109(A)(1) provide mechanisms to address unresolved objections even after publication or notification-hence, petitioners rights would not be prejudiced by the issuance of the notifications.(Para 1 to 11)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sandeep Tiwari, learned counsel for petitioner as well as Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned Standing Counsel.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred for issuing direction to the Consolidation Officer, District Amethi, not to make any notification/publication of Section 10, Section 22 and Section 27 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred as Act, 1953) and to restrain the Consolidation Officer (C.O) to prepare the final documents with a further prayer that till the decision in the revision/Review, no publication shall be made under Section 10 , 19, 29 and 23 of the Act, 1953.

3. Learned counsel for petitioners has submitted that the petitioners inherited the property of his maternal grandparents (after the demise of their maternal grandfather in the year 1976 and maternal grandmother in the year 1986). A notification has been issued under Section 4A(2), against which the petitioners have filed an objection under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953. The objection of the petitioners was not decided by the Consolidation Officer, and the petitioners had no other option except to approach this Court by filing writ petition No. 1204 of 2022, (Surendra Bahadur Singh versus District Magistrate District Amethi and others). The said writ petition was finally disposed of vide order dated 26.04.2022, with a direction to respondent no. 2 to consider and decide the pending objections of the petitioners as early as possible. Despite the direction of this Court, the objections of the petitioners are still pending before the Consolidation Officer.

4. It is further submitted that without deciding the objections of the petitioners filed under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953, the notification has been issued under Sections 10, 20 and 23 of the Act, 1953 and submitted the final documents for the purposes of publication under Section 52. The said action on the part of Consolidation Officer i.e. respondent no. 2 is against the statutory provisions wherein it has been provided that after deciding all the objections, the publication be made under Sections 10, 20 and 23 and forward the final documents for the purpose of publication under Section 52 of the Act, 1953.

5. It is further submitted that after the publication under Section 52, the consolidation operations will be closed without deciding the objections of the petitioners which will affect the legal right of the petitioners as provided under the provisions of the Act and the Rules.

6. On the other hand, learned State Counsel has submitted that by mere pendency of the objection of the petitioner, the notification/publication under Section 52 cannot be stopped for the reason that the rights of the petitioners are protected under Sub-Section 2 of Section 52 of the Act, 1953 read with Rule 109 (A)(1) of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954 (hereinafter referred as Rules, 1954).

7. After hearing learned counsel for parties, going through the records of the case, the objections regarding title of the land have been filed by petitioners under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953. The submission of learned counsel for petitioner that as per the provisions of the act, particularly Section 10, wherein it has been provided that the Annual Register shall be revised on the basis of the orders passed under Sub-Section 2 of Section 9A which has not been decided yet, so any consequential proceedings by making publication under Section 10, 20 and 23 will deprive the petitioner of his lawful claim is not tenable and acceptable as per Sub-Section 2 of Section 52 of the Act, 1953, read with Rule 109 (A)(1) Rules, 1954.

8. For convenience, Section 52(2) of the Act, 1953 and Rules 109 (A)(1) of Rules, 1954 are quoted herein below:-

'Section 52(2) of Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953:- Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-Section (1), any order passed by a Court of competent jurisdiction in cases of writs filed under the provision of the Constitution of India, or in cases or proceedings pending under this Act on the date of issue of the notification under sub-section (1), shall be given effect to by such authorities, as may be prescribed and the consolidation operation shall, for that purpose, be deemed to have not been closed.

Rule 109 (A)(1) of the Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954:- Orders passed in cases covered by sub-section (2) of Section 52 shall be given effect to by the consolidation authorities, authorised in this behalf under sub-section (2) of Section 42. In case there be no such authority the Assistant Collector, incharge of the sub-division, the Tahsildar, the Naib-Tahsildar, the Supervisor kanungo, and the Lekhpal of the area to which the case relates shall, respectively, perform the functions and discharge the duties of the Settlement Officer; Consolidation, Consolidation Officer; the Assistant Consolidation Officer; the Consolidator and the Consolidation Lekhpal respectively for the purpose of giving effect to the orders aforesaid.'

9. From the conjoint reading of the section and the rule as quoted above, the position as far as the rights of the petitioners, which is very clear that even after the publication under Section 52 for closing the consolidation operations in the village will not be affected as Sub-Section 2 of Section 52 of the Act, 1953 provides that in cases or proceedings pending under this Act on the date of issuance of the notification under Sub-Section 1 shall be given effect to by such authorities as may be prescribed and the consolidation operation shall, for the purposes be deemed to have not been closed and Rule 109A(1) provides the authorities who shall give effect to the orders passed by the Consolidation authorities.

10. The rights of the petitioners are protected under the statute itself and mere pendency of the objections of the petitioners under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953 will not come in the way of issuing a notification under Section 52(1) of the Act, 1953 regarding closing of the consolidation operations in the village or the villages and by notification under Section 52 of the Act, 1953 or publication under Sections 10, 20, 23 will not prejudice any of the rights of the petitioner as already mentioned above. The apprehension of the petitioners that publication under Section 10, Section 20, Section 23 and Section 52 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 would adversely affect the rights, has no basis as sufficient protection in regard to the pending cases under Section 52(2) of the Act, 1953 read with Rule 109A(1) of the Rules, 1954.

11. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made hereinabove, the present writ petition being devoid of merit is dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1320

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE

DATED: LUCKNOW 08.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ-B No. 694 of 2012

Jageshwar & Anr.	...Petitioners
Versus
D.D.C. Lko. & Ors.	...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Piyush Chandra Agarwal, Abdul Shadab Khan, Abhinav Trivedi, Durgesh Kumar Rajput, Jay Prakash Singh, Paresb Mishra, Parijat Mishra Belavra, Pradeep Kumar Singh, Rajendra Pratap Singh, Ravi Prakash Mishra, Sameer Kumar, Satyendra Kumar Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C., Amit Tripathi, Anand Mani Tripathi, Mohd. H.U. Ansari, Shashendra Pratap Singh, Sher Bahadur Yadav

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-
Article 226-U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act,1953-Section 48-The petitioners claimed property rights over Plot No.194 recorded in the name of their grandmother under succession-Respondent no. 4 claimed rights as Maika's brother in law, asserting she was issueless-Respondent 5 to 10 claimed right through an unproven will-Held, - Procedural lapses occurred as no issue were framed regarding the petitioner's claims-The appellate and revisional authorities failed to ensure adherence to statutory requirements, depriving the petitioners of a fair hearing-The court set aside the orders and remanded the matter to the Consolidation Officer-the officer was directed to frame issues, allow evidence and decide afresh within one year.(Para 1 to 37)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Dular Vs DDC, Jaunpur & ors. Suppl. (2) SCC 198
2. Smt. Baijnath & anr.. Vs DDC Varanasi & ors. (1997) RD 433
3. Ram Prasad & ors. Vs DDC Pratapgarh & ors. (Consolidation No. 2205 of 1980)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Abhinav Trivedi, learned counsel for the petitioners, Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned Standing Counsel and Shri Anand Mani Tripathi, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 assisted by Shri P. Venkatesh, Advocate. However, as far as respondent nos. 5 to 10 are concerned, it is mentioned in the service report dated 23.10.2013 that notices were issued to them by speed post but neither any undelivered cover received back as yet and none appear for their behalf. It has also been apprised to this Court that Shri Sher Bahadur Yadav had filed vakalatnama on 17.05.2023 on behalf of respondent no. 4 but due to some inadvertence, respondent no. 6 was mentioned in place of respondent no. 4.

2. Present petition has been preferred for quashing of the judgment and order of the revisional Court dated 20.09.2012 passed by the Deputy Director Consolidation i.e. respondent no. 1 under Section 48 of the Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as, the Act, 1953) and the impugned judgment and orders dated 02.07.2010 and dated 31.10.2005 passed by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation). Quashing of the impugned judgment and order dated 28.07.2005 passed by the respondent no. 3-Consolidation Officer as well as the impugned order dated 04.07.2005 i.e. the order of remand passed by the Consolidation Officer have also been challenged.

3. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners may be permitted not to press the prayer made in the present petition as far as it is related to the quashing of the impugned orders dated 28.07.2005 and 04.07.2005.

4. As prayed, the petition is dismissed as not pressed as far as it is related to prayers whereby quashing of the impugned orders dated 02.07.2005 and 04.07.2005 has been challenged.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that Village Sarawan, Pargana, Tehsil and District Lucknow had undergone in consolidation proceedings vide notification issued under Section 4(2) of the Act, 1953 on 31.01.1970 and the notification under Section 52 of the Act, 1953 was issued on 11.02.2006.

6. The dispute in the present petition is with regard to the plot No. 194, which was recorded in the name of late Maika-wife of i.e. the grand mother of the petitioners.

7. It is further submitted that the petitioners being the grand son of late Maika moved an application under Section 12 of the Act, 1953 before the Consolidation Officer for taking decision on matters relating to changes and transactions affecting the rights or interest recorded in the revised records. The said application preferred by the petitioners were allowed by order dated 17.07.2004.

8. Against the order dated 17.07.2004, an appeal was preferred by late Ram Khelawan before the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) under Section 11 of the Act, 1953 stating therein that his objection under Section 12 was pending and without deciding the same, the application of the petitioners were allowed by order dated 17.07.2004. The appeal preferred by late Ram Khelawan was allowed and remanded the matter to the Consolidation Officer.

9. It is further submitted that the Consolidation Officer had allowed the application of respondent no. 4-Bhuinyadeen and rejected the application filed on behalf of late Ram Khelawan-the predecessor of respondent nos. 5 to 10, without deciding the application of the petitioners under Section 12 of the Act, 1953. Even the issues were not framed for determining the rights of the petitioners. It was treated that the order passed in favour of the petitioners dated 17.07.2004 had already been set aside by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) while deciding the appeal by its judgment and order dated 04.07.2005.

10. It is further submitted that aggrieved by the order of the Consolidation Officer, the petitioners had preferred an appeal which was dismissed by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) by its judgment and order dated 31.10.2005 without discussing the issues raised by the petitioners in appeal and determined the rights of the respondent no. 4 and predecessor of respondent nos. 5 to 10.

11. It is further submitted that feeling aggrieved by the appellate order, the petitioners had preferred a revision under Section 48 of the Act, 1953 which was also dismissed by the impugned order dated 20.09.2012 by giving contradictory finding that at one place in the earlier part of the judgment admitting the petitioners as grandsons of late Nanhe-husband of late Maika by giving a finding that there is no dispute about the same and on the other hand a contradictory finding has also been given that the revisionist has failed to establish that the father of petitioners late Dhani was son of late Nanhe, who was the husband of late Maika whereas in the earlier part of the judgment discussed all the evidences led by the petitioners.

12. The Revisional Court has rejected the claim of predecessors of respondent nos. 5 to 10-late Ram Khelawan as the will in his favour was not proved and found to be suspicious and for the respondent no. 4, the revisional Court had not considered the fact that late Maika had been wrongly shown as issue-less in the pedigree of the family given by the respondent no. 4 in his application under Section 12 and thus, being a brother-in-law, he is entitled for the property in the name of late Maika.

13. On the other hand, Shri Amar Mani Tripathi, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 has submitted that the claim of the petitioners had already been rejected by the appellate Court hence, there is no occasion to consider their case when the matter was remanded to the Consolidation Officer by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) by its order dated 04.07.2005.

14. It is further submitted that there was no need to frame any issue for determining the rights of the petitioners after the remand.

15. It is further submitted that the respondent no. 4 being a brother-in-law of late Maika is entitled for the property in the name of late Maika.

16. It is further submitted that the petitioners were failed to establish the pedigree as they have claimed in their application under Section 12 hence, there is no illegality in the findings given by the revisional authority in its judgment and order dated 20.09.2012.

17. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel has very fairly submitted that after the remand, the Consolidation Officer had to frame the issues for determining the rights of the petitioners and by not doing the same, they deprived the petitioners from their alleged lawful claim over the property of their grand mother late Maika.

18. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case, the position which emerges out in the present case is that it is an admitted fact between the petitioners and the respondents that plot no. 194 was in the name of late Maika. The petitioners are claiming their rights on the above mentioned property on the basis of succession. Late Maika was the grand mother of petitioners. The respondent no. 4 was claiming his right on the property entered in the name of late Maika being a brother-in-law and shown late Maika as issue-less in his application preferred under Section 12 of the Act, 1953 before the Consolidation Officer while respondent nos. 5 to 10 had claimed their rights on the basis of Will which they had failed to prove and there is a finding in the orders that the Will appears to be suspicious.

19. The respondent nos. 5 to 10 had contested the case up to the stage of revision and after the passing of the impugned revisional order dated 20.09.2012, they had not challenged the same by filing the writ petition before this Court.

20. The appellate order dated 04.07.2005 passed under Section 11 of the Act, 1953 clearly shows that the order passed on 17.07.2004 in Case No. 275 i.e. objections preferred by the petitioners under Section 12 was set aside and the matter was remanded to the Consolidation Officer to decide the same on merits after hearing the parties. The relevant extract of the said judgment is quoted hereinbelow:-

“अपील स्वीकार की जाती है। आदेश वाद संख्या 275/17-7-04 निरस्त किया जाता है। पत्रावली च0अ0 सदर को इस आशय के प्रत्यावर्तित की जाती है की वे साक्ष्य व सुनवाई का अवसर देकर पक्षों को गुणदोष के आधार पर वाद का निस्तारण करें। पक्ष च0 अ0 सदर के न्यायालय में 21-7-05 को उपस्थित हो पत्रावली वाद अनुपालन दफ्तर हो।”

21. The Consolidation Officer while deciding the matter after the remand by its judgment and order dated 28.07.2005 had framed three issues and the family tree/pedigree given by the respondent no. 4 in his objections under Section 12 had been relied and neither even a single issue as far as it is related to the present petitioners had been framed nor the pedigree mentioned by the petitioners in their application under Section 12 had been considered and decided the matter between the respondent no. 4 and late Ram Khelawan-the predecessor of the respondent nos. 5 to 10.. Meaning thereby, the Consolidation Officer while deciding the matter after the remand had not considered the case of the petitioners under the presumption that the remand is only for determining the rights between the respondent nos. 4 and 5 treating that the rights of the petitioners had already decided in the appeal by order dated 04.07.2005 by which the order was remanded.

22. Against the order dated 31.10.2005, the petitioners had preferred a revision which was also dismissed by the revisional authority by its judgment and order dated 20.09.2012. While deciding the revision, the revisional Court had mentioned the case of the petitioners alongwith their family pedigree but thereafter started determining and discussing the rights between the predecessor of the respondent nos. 5 to 10 and respondent no. 4. In the end relied upon the documents filed by the petitioners i.e. Voter I.D. Card, Medical Praman Patra and Kishan Bahi to establish their rights in the property of late Maika, where the petitioners were entered as son of Dhani. Dhani was the son of late Nanhe and late Nanhe was the husband of late Maika. It is accepted by the revisional Court by giving a finding that there is no dispute but at the same time a contrary finding was given by the revisional Court that the property is of late Maika and the petitioners have failed to establish that they are the son of late Dhani, who was the son of late Nanhe, who was the husband of late Maika by not filing the parivar register. The revisional Court also erred in drawing inference that perhaps late Maika had no issue, merely because a will was there relied upon by Ramkhelavan, which has also been held to suspicious and not proved as held by the Courts below. The relevant portion of the impugned revisional order dated 20.09.2012 is quoted hereinbelow:-

“निगरानीकर्तागण अपने को विवादित आराजी जो स्व० मैका के नाम अंकित थी पर अपना नाम बतौर वारिस अंकित किये जाने हेतु आकार पत्र 11 खाता 241 व आकार पत्र 23 भाग-1 चक संख्या 80 की छाया प्रति निगरानी के साथ दाखिल किया है जिसमें उक्त खाता धानी पुत्र नन्हे के नाम अंकित है। इस क्रम में अपने को धाना का पुत्र साबित करने के लिए मतदाता पहचान पत्र दिनांक 22-3-09 व मेडिकल प्रमाण पत्र मेडिकल आफिसर दिनांक 2-7-08 बाबत राजाराम पुत्र धानी व किसान वही दिनांक 3-9-02 बाबत जागेश्वर पुत्र धानी दाखिल किया है और यह दर्शाने का प्रयास किया है कि वह नन्हे मृतक की बेवा स्व० मैका के पुत्र धानी के पुत्र होने के कारण विवादित आराजी के हकदार है। जहाँ यह उल्लेख आवश्यक है जो भी धानी पुत्र नन्हे के नाम अंकित है उस पर जागेश्वर आदि का जो नाम आया है, उस पर विवाद नहीं है। विवाद स्व० मैका के नाम अंकित समपत्ति का है। निगरानीकर्तागण यह साबित करने में असफल रहे हैं कि वह स्व० मैका के पति नन्हे के पुत्र धानी के पुत्र है क्योंकि इस क्रम में कोई

परिवार रजिस्टर की नकल आदि दाखिल नहीं है। कथित वसीयत का प्रकाश में आना भी इस बात का संकेत है कि स्व० मैका के शायद औलाद नहीं थी। इस प्रकार स्व० मैका के नाम अंकित भूमि पर अपने को हकदार सिद्ध करने में निगरानीकर्तागण सफल नहीं रहे हैं। मेरे विचार से चकबंदी अधिकारी व बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबंदी ने जो आदेश दिनांक 28-7-05 व 31-10-05 पारित किया है वह उचित है। इस आलोक में आदेश दिनांक 2-7-10 में भी हस्तक्षेप की आवश्यकता नहीं है।

जहाँ तक राम खेलावन की निगरानी का प्रश्न है, अवर न्यायालयों ने विस्तार से विवेचना करते हुये उनके पक्ष में स्व० मैका द्वारा की गयी पंजीकृत वसीयत को प्रमाणित होना नहीं पाया है। इसका मुख्य कारण गवाहों के बयानों में विरोधाभास बताया है। पत्रावली के अवलोकन से अवर न्यायालयों द्वारा दिये गये अभिमत से मैं सहमत हूँ।

उपर्युक्त तथ्यों के प्रकाश में तीनों निगरानियां निरस्त होने योग्य हैं।

आदेश

उपर्युक्त विवेचना के आधार पर तीनों निगरानियां निरस्त की जाती है।

पत्रावलियां वाद अमलदरामद दाखिल दफ्तर हो।“

23. As per the law settled that the revisional Court is not supposed to decide the matter by appreciating the evidence and by substituting the finding by its own findings as the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ram Dular Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Jaunpur and Ors. reported in Suppl. (2) SCC 198 has held that Deputy Director Consolidation cannot assume to itself the jurisdiction of the original authority. It had to consider whether the legally admissible evidence had not been considered by the authorities in recording a finding of fact or law or the conclusion reached by it is based on no evidence, any patent illegality or impropriety had been committed or these was any procedural irregularity, which goes to the root of the matter, had been committed in recording the finding.

24. The proposition of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ram Dular (supra) has been followed by this Court in the cases of Smt. Baijnath and Anr. Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Varanasi and Ors. reported in 1997 RD 433 and Ram Prasad and others Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Pratapgarh and others (Consolidation No. 2205 of 1980) judgment and order dated 15.03.2019 wherein it has been held that the Deputy Director Consolidation in exercise of powers under Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 can interfere with the findings of fact recorded by the authorities below and can set-aside the said findings if they are found to be erroneous, perverse not based on any evidence or illegal, but he can not substitute his own findings after reappraisal of the evidence on the records. The Deputy Director of Consolidation could at the best remand the case to the Settlement Officer, Consolidation or the Consolidation Officer, as the case may be, for decision afresh.

25. The relevant extracts of the judgment authored by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Ram Dular (supra) is reproduced hereinbelow:-

" It is clear that the Director had power to satisfy himself as to the legality of the proceedings or as to the correctness of the proceedings or correctness, legality or propriety of any order other than interlocutory order passed by the authorities under the Act. But in considering the correctness, legality or propriety of the order or correctness of the proceedings or regularity thereof it cannot assume to itself the jurisdiction of the original authority as a fact-finding authority by appreciating for itself of those facts de novo. It has to consider whether the legally admissible evidence had not been considered by the authorities in recording a finding of fact or law or the conclusion reached by it is based on no evidence, any patent illegality or impropriety had been committed or there was any procedural irregularity, which goes to the rest (sic root) of the matter, had been committed in recording the order or finding."

26. The revisional authority was supposed to examine whether Rule 26(2) of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as, the Rules, 1954) has been complied with by the subordinate Courts or not.

27. For convenience, Rules 26 (2) of the Rules, 1954 is quoted hereinbelow"

" 2) On the date fixed under sub-rule (2) of Rule 25-A, or any subsequent date fixed for the purpose, the Consolidation Officer shall hear the parties, frame issues on the points in dispute, take evidence, both oral and documentary, and decide the objections"

28. The sub-Rule 1 and 2 of Rule 25 A of the Rules, 1954 is quoted hereinbelow:-

"25-A(1) The Assistant Consolidation Officer shall, as far as possible, deal with all the objections filed by a tenure-holder with regard to matters referred to in clause (i) of sub-section (1) of Section 9-A and sub-Section (1) of Section 9-B in village itself. In deciding disputes on the basis of conciliation in terms of sub-Section (1) of Section 9-A, he shall record the terms of conciliation in the presence of at least two members of the Consolidation Committee of the village. These terms shall then be read over to the parties concerned and their signatures or thumb impressions obtained. The members of the Consolidation Committee present shall also sign the terms of conciliation. The assistant Consolidation Officer shall then pass orders deciding the dispute in terms of conciliation specifying the precise entries to be made in the records. Details of the operative part of the orders passed by the Assistant Consolidation Officer shall be noted in the Misilband Register. No ex parte order or orders in default shall be passed by the Assistant Consolidation Officer."

(2) In all cases in which the Assistant Consolidation Officer sends a report, under the provisions of Sub section-2 of Section 9-A, or sub-section (1) of Section 9-B to the Consolidation Officer for disposal, he may fix a date and place for the disposal of the cases by the Consolidation Officer and communicate the same to the parties present before him and issue notices in C.H. Form 6-A to the parties not so present. The report of the Assistant Consolidation Officer in such cases clearly brings out the points in dispute between the parties and the efforts made by him to reconcile them."

29. Rule 30 (b) of the Rules, 1954 provides for applicability of the same procedure for deciding the matter raised before the Assistant Consolidation Officer under Section 12. For convenience, the Rule 30 (b) of the Rules, 1954 is quoted hereinbelow:-

" (b) The procedure laid down in Rules 25-A to 27 and 29 shall, mutatis mutandis be followed in deciding matters raised before the Assistant Consolidation Officer under Section 12.

30. From conjoint reading of Rule 26(2) to Rule 25 A(2) and Rule 30 (b), it is clear that for determination of rights/disputes between the parties, the Consolidation Officer is supposed to fix a date and place for disposal of cases, frame the issues on the points in dispute, take evidence both oral and documentary and decide the objection.

31. Since the very beginning all the authorities whether it is Consolidation Officer, Settlement Officer or the Deputy Director of Consolidation / Revisional Authority had failed to comply with the statutory provisions as at no stage any issue was framed regarding the claim of the petitioners for the property in dispute, opportunity was given to adduce any evidence either oral or documentary regarding the claim of the petitioners and decided the matter against the procedure prescribed under the law and deprived the petitioners from their lawful claim to get the property of their grandmother-late Maika. The revisional authority had failed to consider that the respondent no. 4 as alleged by the petitioners had given a wrong family tree/pedigree by showing late Maika as issue-less just to grab the property of late Maika being her brother-in-law.

32. All these questions are disputed questions of fact and as per the statutory provisions mentioned above, the issues are to be framed, evidences are to be led both oral and documentary and only thereafter, the objection could be decided which had not been followed in the present case. The rights of the petitioners had not been decided by any authority as mentioned above by treating that the initial order under Section 12 dated 17.07.2004 passed in favour of the petitioners had already been set aside by the Settlement Officer in its appellate order dated 04.07.2005 and that is why no issues were framed for determining the claim of the petitioners.

33. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made hereinabove, it is held that Rule 30 of the Rules, 1954 provides for procedure laid down in Rules 25-A to 27 and 29 shall mutatis mutandis be followed in deciding matters raised before the Assistant Consolidation Officer/Consolidation Officer under Section 12, which is the procedure provided for deciding the application under Section 9 A but the same has not been followed in the present case while deciding the case of the petitioners as discussed hereinabove, thus, impugned orders dated 20.09.2012 passed by Deputy Director Consolidation and the judgment and orders dated 02.07.2010 as well as 31.10.2005 passed by respondent no. 2-Settlement Officer Consolidation, Lucknow are hereby set aside.

34. It is true that Settlement Officer, Consolidation has set-aside the order passed by the Consolidation Officer in favour of the petitioners under Section 12 but the authorities failed to consider and appreciate that by the same order, the matter was remanded again for consideration to the Consolidation Officer, therefore, the Consolidation Officer should have given the proper opportunity of hearing, according to provisions of law to the petitioners also. The authorities erred in considering the case of the petitioners shut and close by order dated 31.10.2005 passed by the Settlement Officer, Consolidation by which the matter was remanded, as discussed above.

35. The matter is remanded to the Consolidation Officer to take a decision on the applications preferred by the petitioners and respondent 4, as the respondent nos. 5 to 10 have not challenged the revisional order as it became final against them.

36. The Consolidation Officer-respondent no. 3 is directed to decide the matter expeditiously by following the procedure as provided under the statute and by framing issues regarding the claim of petitioners as well and provide opportunity to adduce oral and written evidence to the petitioners and respondent no. 4/1- Becha Lal (legal heirs of late Bhuinyadeen-respondent no. 4), who was substituted after the demise of respondent no. 4, being an old case of the year 1985, as far as possible within a period of one year from the date of production of certified copy of this order without giving any unnecessary adjournment to any of the parties.

37. Writ petition is allowed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1328
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 04.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Writ-B No. 8021 of 1990

Nanki Bai

...Petitioner

Versus

D.D.C. & Ors.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Sri Sunil Ambwani, Sri Awadhesh Prasad Pandey,
Sri Himanshu Pandey, Sri J.P. Rai

Counsel for the Respondents:

S.C., Sri Chandra Shekhar Agnihotri, Sri Harish
Chandra Mishra, Sri Narendra Mohan

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act,1953-Section 9-A(2)-U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act,1950-Sections 20, 240-A-Petitioner no.1 filed an objection, seeking to be declared the bhumidhar of the plots-She claimed the plots were leased to her father by the local zamindar-She asserted her long possession of over 50 years entitled to bhumidhar rights u/s 20,240-A of the Act,1950-Held, the deputy director of consolidation acted correctly in dismissing the appellate decision as the petitioner failed to prove adverse possession or valid lease agreements-the petitioner acted improperly by transferring the property during the pendency of the case-Filing appeals and revisions after the village's denotification constituted a misuse of legal process.(Para 1 to 14)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Nanhoo Mal Vs, Mulloo(1963) LawSuit (All) 92=1964 AIR (ALL) 213
2. Ram Dular Singh & ors. Vs Babu Sukhu & ors. (1963) Lawsuit (All) 101=1963 RD 221
3. Sharda Prasad Tiwari Vs St.of U.P. & ors. (2015)127 RD 702
4. Siddh Narayan Vs DDC & ors.(2007)103 RD 627

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

In Re: Civil Misc. Impleadment Application No.3 of 2019

1. Heard Mr. Himanshu Pandey, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr. C.S. Agnihotri, learned counsel for respondent no.4/1.

2. The instant application has been filed on behalf of the applicant- Rajendra Kumar Rai to implead him as petitioner no.2 in the instant petition on the ground that the applicant- Rajendra Kumar Rai has purchased the plot in question by way of registered sale deed executed on 22.1.2001.

3. On the other hand, Mr. C.S. Agnihotri, learned counsel for respondent no.4/1 submitted that the applicant- Rajendra Kumar Rai has committed forgery and he is not bona fide purchaser, as such, he cannot be permitted to be impleaded in the instant petition. He further submitted that the petitioner no.1 has already sold the land in favour of several persons, as such, the applicant is not entitled to be impleaded in the instant petition.

4. I have considered the argument advanced by learned counsel for the parties.

5. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case coupled with the fact that the writ petition against the order of the consolidation officer dated 26.3.1981 and Deputy Director of Consolidation dated 26.4.1989 is pending before this Court since 1990, as such, in order to decide the dispute finally between the parties, the applicant- Rajendra Kumar Rai is permitted to be impleaded in the instant petition as petitioner no.2.

6. The impleadment application is accordingly, allowed.

7. Office is directed to implead the applicant- Rajendra Kumar Rai as petitioner no.2 in the array of the parties to the writ petition.

Order on Writ Petition

1. Heard Mr. Himanshu Pandey, Mr. Awadhesh Prasad Pandey & Mr. J.P. Rai, learned counsel for petitioner no.2, Mr. C.S. Agnihotri, learned counsel for respondent no.4/1 and Mr. Rajesh Kumar Tiwari, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. Brief facts of the case are that dispute relates to Khata no.569, plot no.2083 area 0.30 acres and plot no.2086/1 area 0.70 acres situated at Mauza Mau, Pargana and Tahsil- Muranipur, District- Jhansi. In the basic year of the consolidation operation plot in question was recorded in the name of respondent no.4- Bhagwan Das. Against the basic year entry of the aforementioned plot in question petitioner no.1/ Nanki Bai filed an objection under Section 9-A (2) of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as "U.P.C.H. Act") claiming to be bhumidar of the plot in question on the ground that the plot in question was given to petitioner's father by the Zamindar of the area on lease. Consolidation Officer framed issues in the aforementioned title objection filed by the petitioner and afforded opportunity to the parties to lead evidence in support of their cases. Consolidation Officer vide order dated 26.3.1981 decided the aforementioned title objection maintaining the basic year entry as well as expunged the entry of possession made in favour of the petitioner. In place of filing appeal against the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981, petitioner filed a Civil Suit No-

799 of 1982 for permanent injunction in respect to plot in question along with certain other plots impleading the respondent No-4 as defendant. The aforementioned civil suit was dismissed vide judgment dated 5.11.1984. The village in question was de-notified, under Section 52 of U.P.C.H. Act on 16.12.1985. Against the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981, appeal under Section 11 (1) of U.P.C.H. Act along with the prayer for condonation of delay of about 6 years was filed by the petitioner before Settlement Officer of Consolidation on 20.1.1987. The aforementioned appeal was registered as Appeal No.22 and Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation, Jhansi vide order dated 26.4.1989 granted benefit of Section 5 of Limitation Act as well as allowed the appeal setting aside the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981 and directed to record the name of the petitioner as bhumidhar with transferable right after expunging the name of respondent no.4 from the plot in question. Against the appellate order dated 26.4.1989, a revision under Section 48 of U.P.C.H. Act was filed by respondent no.4 before Deputy Director of Consolidation. The aforementioned revision was registered as Revision No.195 / 203. The Deputy Director of Consolidation vide order dated 23.3.1990 allowed the revision and set aside the appellate order dated 26.4.1989, hence this writ petition on behalf of the petitioner challenging the impugned revisional order dated 23.3.1990 passed by respondent no.1 and to restore the appellate order dated 26.4.1989.

3. This Court vide order dated 6.4.1990 entertained the matter, issued notice to respondent no.4 and granted interim protection staying the operation of the order dated 23.3.1990 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

4. Since, the date of grant of interim order dated 6.4.1990, petitioner has not taken steps to serve the respondent no.4. Respondent no.4 has expired in the year 1993 but petitioner has not taken steps to substitute the legal heir of respondent no.4, accordingly, abatement application no.2 of 2019 was filed on behalf of respondent no.4/1 in the instant petition but no step was taken on behalf petitioner no.1, accordingly, this Court vide order dated 8.8.2022 dismissed the writ petition as abated due to non-substitution of legal heirs of deceased respondent no.4 and vacated the interim order. On the recall / restoration application filed on behalf of petitioner no.2, the order dated 8.8.2022 was recalled and writ petition was restored to its original number vide order dated 5.3.2024. The application for substitution of legal heir of respondent no.4 along with the prayer for condonation of delay was allowed by this Court vide order dated 5.3.2024. Respondent no.4/1 has filed her counter affidavit to the main writ petition and petitioner has filed his rejoinder affidavit also.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the title objection was filed by the petitioner under Section 9 A (2) of U.P.C.H. Act for recording her name as bhumidhar with transferable right as petitioner is in possession for last 50 years over the plot in question. He further submitted that the Consolidation Officer has rejected the objection filed by the petitioner on misconceived ground that petitioner has failed to prove his adverse possession over the plot in question. He next submitted that basis of the petitioner's objection is long possession of the petitioner since before the date of vesting, as such, in view of the provisions contained under Section 20 & 240 A of U.P. Zamindari Abolition & Land Reforms Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as "U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act"), petitioner is entitled to be recorded as bhumidhar of the plot in question. He further submitted that the appellate Court has rightly considered the controversy and allowed the appeal filed by the petitioner directing the authorities to record the name of the petitioner as bhumidhar with transferable rights after expunging the name of respondent no.4. He further submitted that the revisional Court has illegally allowed the revision setting aside the appellate order on the ground that the petitioner has failed to prove his adverse possession in respect to the plot in question. He further submitted that the case of the petitioner has not been examined by the Consolidation Officer as well as Deputy Director of Consolidation taking into consideration the provisions of Section 20 & 240A of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act. He next submitted that the revisional Court has not afforded proper opportunity of hearing to petitioner no.1 while deciding the revision under the impugned order. He further placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court reported in 1963 LawSuit (All) 92=1964 AIR (ALL) 213, Nanhoo Mal vs. Mulloo as well as 1963 LawSuit (All) 101=1963 RD 221, Ram Dular Singh & Others vs. Babu Sukhu Ram & Others in support of his argument with respect to the provisions contained under Sections 20 & 240A of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act.

6. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent no.4/1 submitted that nobody is representing the petitioner no.1, as such, the writ petition cannot be entertained and liable to be dismissed. He further submitted that the petitioner no.1 has misused the process of law by executing the sale deed in favour of petitioner no.2 without getting permission from this Court, as such, the writ petition filed by the petitioner no.1 is liable to be dismissed with cost. He further submitted that the petitioner no.1 has not taken steps to serve the respondent no.4 after getting the interim order from this Court in the year 1990, as such, petitioners are not entitled to any relief in the matter. He next submitted that the title objection filed by the petitioner has been rightly rejected by the Consolidation Officer holding that the entry of possession in favour of petitioner is illegal. He next submitted that no document regarding lease by the Zamindar was filed before the Consolidation Officer nor the Zamindar was examined before the Consolidation Officer, as such, the claim of the petitioner was rightly rejected by the Consolidation Officer. He next submitted that the petitioner has failed to prove the issuance of P.A.-10, as such, the entry of possession will not give any right to petitioner. He further submitted that after decision of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981 petitioner no.1 filed a civil suit for injunction in respect to the plot in question, which was dismissed with finding that petitioner no.1 is neither owner nor in possession of the plot in question. He further submitted that C.H. Form-45 was prepared in the name of respondent no.4 as well as respondent no.4/1 as respondent no. 4 had executed sale-deed in favour of his daughter/respondent no.4/1 on 20.10.1985. He further submitted that village in question was de-notified, under Section 52 of U.P.C.H. Act on 16.12.1985 and appeal under Section 11 (1) of U.P.C.H. Act was filed on 20.1.1987, which has been illegally entertained & allowed by appellate Court vide order dated 26.4.1989, hence revisional Court has rightly exercised his jurisdiction under Section 48 of U.P.C.H. Act in setting aside the appellate order dated 26.4.1989. He further placed reliance upon the judgments of this Court as well as Hon'ble Supreme Court on the point of opportunity of hearing as well as the provisions contained under Section 20 & 240-A of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act in order to demonstrate that no right will accrue to the petitioners. The particulars of the judgments cited by learned counsel for respondent no.4/1 are as under:

"i. 2022 LawSuit (MP) 1678, Shanti w/o Late Ramdas Laxmi w/o Ramswaroop vs. State of Madhya Pradesh Executive Engineer PWD Division 1 Gwalior: Sub Divisional Officer PWD.

ii. AIR 1978 Allahabad 139, Raghubir Sahai Bhatnagar vs. Bhakt Sajja.

iii. Civil Revision No.19 of 2012, Kamleshwar Shahi vs. Rajeev Khurana, judgement dated 20.5.2014.

iv. Civil Misc. Appeal No.5971 of 1985 in Writ Petition No.6178 of 1984.

v. Civil Appeal No.7550-7553 of 2021 (arising out of S.L.P. (C) Nos.26374-26377 of 2013), Shri K. Jaya Ram & Others Vs. Bangalore Development Authority & Others, judgment dated 8.12.2021.

vi. 2020 0 Supreme (SC) 504, Narasamma and Others vs. A.Krishnappa (dead) through LRs.

vii. 2018 0 Supreme (All) 850, Chauthi vs. D.D.C. And Others.

viii. 2013 LawSuit (All) 1533, Sri Pal vs. D.D.C. & Others.

ix. 2022 LawSuit (All) 708, Bhagwati Deen vs. Sheetladin and Others."

7. I have considered the argument advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

8. There is no dispute about the fact that the title objection filed by the petitioner has been dismissed by the Consolidation Officer vide order dated 26.3.1981. There is also no dispute about the fact that village in question was de-notified, under Section 52 of U.P.C.H on 16.12.1985, but in appeal filed by the petitioner on 20.1.1987, the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981 was set aside and petitioner was ordered to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable rights. There is also no dispute about the fact that in revision filed by respondent no.4, the appellate order dated 26.4.1989 has been set aside affirming the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981. There is also no dispute about the fact that Civil Suit No-799 of 1982 filed by petitioner was dismissed by civil Court on 15.11.1984 holding that petitioner is not in possession of the plot in question.

9. In order to appreciate the controversy involved in the matter, perusal of the order dated 26.3.1981 passed by the Consolidation Officer will be relevant, which is as under:

" न्यायालय श्रीमान चकबंदी अधिकारी
झांसी

वाद सं०-5059 धारा 9ए(2)जोत चकबंदी
अधिनियम 30प्र०

ग्राम मऊ परगना मऊ जिला झांसी

पक्ष नन्ही बाई बनाम भिगवानदास ता०
फैसला 26.3.81

निम्न वाद बिन्दू बनाये गये:-

1- क्या विवादित भूमि का मु० नन्ही बाई से भूमिधरी अधिकार प्राप्त है।

2- क्या प्रतिवादी असल काश्तकार भूमिधर है और काविज है।

3- क्या मु० नन्ही बाई का कब्जे का इन्द्राज फर्जी है।

निर्णय

वाद विन्दु संख्या 1,2 व 3- तीनों वाद विन्दु एक दूसरे से संबंधित हैं। अतः एक साथ तय किये जाते हैं। श्रीमती नन्नी बाई पत्नी मुकुन्द वादी ने शपथपूर्वक कथन किया कि इस भूमि को उसने चन्द्रभान व अजमेर सिंह जमींदार से पट्टे पर लिया था पहले उसके पिता बहोरन जोतते थे और उनकी मरने के बाद वह स्वयं काविज है। उसमें कूप उसके पिता ने खुदवाया और सरकारी कर्जा लिया और बाग लगाया कछियाना पैदा किया जाता है। श्री बदलू पुत्र नन्थू वादी साक्षी ने भी उक्त कथन की पुष्टि की है कि नन्नी बाई इस भूमि को खेती कर रही है। उसने स्वीकार किया कि भगवानदास अपनी भूमि पर व मु० नन्नी बाई अपनी भूमिधर काबिज है। वादी ने कब्जे के समर्थन में कुछ रसीदे जमींदारी व बाद की प्रस्तुत की है। जो दिनांक 14.4.64 लगान 4/- बहोरन सिंह की भूमि लगान मारफ्त राजावेटी 56/57,27/3/61, 27.4.60 चन्द्रभान सिंह द्वारा दी गयी प्रस्तुत की, एक रसीद मु० नन्नी बाई के नाम 1357 फ० 1362 फ० प्रस्तुत की है जिसके द्वारा कब्जा सिद्ध किया गया है किन्तु इन हस्तलिखित कागज को परीचों में न तो कोई भूमि का ब्योरा व विवरण ही है और न यह सिद्ध होता है कि नन्नी बाई द्वारा लगान का भुगतान किया गया है कोई खसरे के इन्द्राज कब्जा सिद्ध करने के लिये व वर्ग 9 क इन्द्राज का लिखित साक्ष्य भी प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया। जमींदार द्वारा दिया गया पट्टा भी पेश नहीं किया गया और न जमींदार को ही पेश किया गया है। जबकि वह जीवित है। जीवित जमींदार को पेश न करना वादी के दावे के क्षीण कर देता है। कितना लगान दिया मालूम नहीं है। वादी अपना कब्जा सिद्ध करने में असफल रही है।

प्रतिवादी भगवानदास ने मु० नन्नी बाई के कब्जे को अस्वीकार करते हुए अपना कब्जा स्थल पर कथन किया। लगान भी स्वयं देना बताया श्री रमेश चन्द्र पुत्र राजाराम प्रतिवादी साक्षी ने भी मु० नन्नी बाई के कब्जे को इनकार किया है। आर०डी० 1900

पृष्ठ 190 पर व्यक्त किये गये मत के अनुसार से संक्रमणीय भूमिधरी अधिकार गासिवाना कब्जे के आधार पर उसी को दिये जा सकते हैं जो वास्तविक कब्जे में हो और असल कृषक को बिना सहमति के होगा महिला मु० नन्नी बाई का स्वयं का कृषिक actual cultivatory possession नहीं रहा और इस आधार पर महिला को धारा 210 ज०वि० अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत से संक्रमणीय भूमिधरी अधिकार प्राप्त नहीं होते। वाद विन्दु संख्या नकारात्मक वाद विन्दु 2 व 3 सकारात्मक तय किये जाते हैं।

आदेश

गाटा संख्या 2092/1/0-60, 8283/1/0-05, 2083/0-30, 2086/1/0-70 पर से मु० नन्नी बाई पुत्री मुकुन्दी नि० प वारीपुल का कब्जा खारिज करके दर्ज खातेदार भगवानदास पुत्र लक्ष्मी नारायन का नाम यथावत दर्ज रहे।

पत्रावली वाद अमलदरामद दाखिल दफ्तर हो।

ह०/अस्पष्ट च०अ०

26.3.81

10. The perusal of the order passed by the Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981 demonstrate that the Consolidation Officer has exercised the jurisdiction in proper manner by framing issues and considering the evidence adduced by the parties in support of their cases. The perusal of the order further demonstrates that the Consolidation Officer while rejecting the title objection filed by the petitioner against the basic year entry as recorded finding that petitioner is not in actual cultivatory possession of the plot in question, as such, petitioner is not entitled to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable rights.

11. It is material to state that the appeal under Section 11 of U.P.C.H. Act was filed on behalf of the petitioner on 20.1.1987 although village was de-notified under Section 52 of U.P.C.H. Act on 16.12.1985. It is also material that title objection filed by the petitioner herself was rejected by the Consolidation Officer on 26.3.1981 and civil suit for permanent injunction filed by the petitioner herself was dismissed on 5.11.1984, as such, the filing of appeal at the instance of the petitioner on 20.1.1987 after de-notification of the village was misuse of the process of law. The Settlement Officer of Consolidation has illegally entertained and allowed the appeal under Section 11 of U.P.C.H. Act filed by the petitioner. The filing of appeal and revision after de-notification of the village of under Section 52 of U.P.C.H. Act has been considered by this Court in the case reported in 2015 (127) RD 702, Sharda Prasad Tiwari vs. State of U.P. and Others as well as 2007 (103) RD 627, Siddh Narayan Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and Others. In the aforementioned cases, this Court has held that the appeal and revision can be filed even after de-notification of the village under Section 52 of U.P.C.H. Act in the facts and circumstances of the cases. In the instant matter, petitioner was fully aware about the order of Consolidation Officer dated 26.3.1981 even petitioner no.1 had filed a civil suit after decision of title objection by the Consolidation Officer, which was dismissed on 5.11.1984. The C.H. Form-45 was prepared by the Consolidation Authorities and village has been de-notified on 6.12.1985, as such, the filing of appeal under Section 11 of U.P.C.H. Act on 20.1.1987 was misuse of the process of law. The appeal and revision cannot be filed after de-notification of the village in each and every cases particularly where the parties were fully aware about the order of Consolidation Officer passed during consolidation operation. The Deputy Director of Consolidation has rightly set aside the order passed by the Settlement Officer of Consolidation although on different ground holding that petitioner has not been found in cultivatory possession of the plot in question and maintained the basic year entry of the plot in question.

12. The Settlement Officer of Consolidation while allowing the appeal filed by the petitioner has held that the petitioner has filed the lagan receipt of 1357 fasli and 1362 fasli, which proves the possession of the petitioner, accordingly, petitioner is entitled to be recorded on the basis of adverse possession as bhumidhar with transferable rights but the finding recorded by the Consolidation Officer while deciding the title objection has not been reversed in proper manner. The Deputy Director of Consolidation while deciding the revision has recorded the finding of fact that in order to prove the adverse possession the issuance of P.A.-10 is mandatory but the same has not been proved that P.A.-10 was issued in the matter, accordingly, Deputy Director of Consolidation allowed the appeal filed by respondent no.4 setting aside the appellate order dated 26.4.1989, which is just and proper exercise of jurisdiction by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

13. It is material in the instant matter that petitioner no.1 has filed the instant petition in the year 1990 and obtained interim order on 6.4.1990 but she herself transferred the property in question by way of sale deed in favour of petitioner no.2 on 22.1.2001 without getting permission of this Court, which is misuse of the interim order passed by this Court on 6.4.1990 in the writ petition filed by the petitioner no.1 herself. Petitioner has not taken steps to serve respondent no.4 in proper manner rather transferred the property in question from time to time in favour of strangers, as such, petitioners are not entitled to any relief in the matter.

14. Considering the conduct of petitioner no.1 as well as the order dated 26.3.1981 passed by the Consolidation Officer rejecting the title objection filed by the petitioner, no interference is required in the matter, the writ petition is accordingly, dismissed.

15. No order as to cost.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1335
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 19.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Writ-B No. 24167 of 2017

Karamjeet Singh & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Board of Revenue & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Sri Arvind Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Sri Pradeep Singh

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950- Article 226-U.P. Revenue Code,2006- Sections 76(dd) & 77-The petitioner's father was allotted land in 1973 and recorded as a Sirdar later becoming a Bhumidhar with non-trnasferable rights under operation of law-In 1989, his name was expunged from revenue records, downgrading his status to Asami-Subsequent revisions challenging this decision were dismissed-Held, the court ruled that the land was not covered u/s 77 of the Code,2006-U/s 76(dd), even an

Asami in possession could acquire Bhumidhar rights if conditions were met-The impugned orders were found illegal and were set aside-The respondents were directed to record the petitioners' name as bhumidhar with transferable rights within six weeks.(Para 1 to 16)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Gangadeen Vs St.of U.P. & ors.(2018) 138 RD 68

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Arvind Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioners, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Tiwari, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondent and Mr. Pradeep Singh, learned counsel for respondent No. 4/Gaon Sabha.

2. Brief facts of the case are that the petitioners' father was employed in the Indian Army and after retirement from the Armed Forces, he was inclined to settle at Mauza Roshannagar, Pargana Arhaura, Tehsil Chunar, District Mirzapur. Petitioners' father filed an application dated 24.03.1973 before the District Magistrate, Mirzapur, for allotting a piece of land to him so that he may cultivate, reside and earn his livelihood. On the application of petitioners' father proceeding was started and a land was allotted in favour of petitioners' father on 22.10.1973. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate granted his approval in respect to the aforementioned allotment made in favour of the petitioners' father giving him Sirdari right in respect to plot Nos. 84, 102, 104, 1, 64/1, 103, 104/183. Naiyab Tehsildar, vide order dated 20.08.1975, ordered to record the name of petitioners' father as Sirdar in respect to plot Nos. 84, 102, 104, 1, 64/1, 103, 104/183. In pursuance of the aforementioned allotment made in favour of the petitioners' father construction was made by him. After expiry of ten years, a proceeding was initiated in respect to the the aforementioned Sirdari right of petitioners and Tehsildar, vide order dated 07.12.1989, recommended to record the aforementioned plot as Asami class-3 after expiring the entry of bhumidhar with non-transferable right. The aforementioned report dated 07.12.1989 was accepted by Sub-Divisional Magistrate, vide order dated 26.12.1989. Against the order dated 26.12.1989, a revision was filed by petitioners' father before the Commissioner, which was dismissed by Additional Commissioner, vide order dated 08.05.1997. Petitioners' father challenged the order dated 08.05.1997, through revision before the Board of Revenue, but Board of Revenue has also dismissed the revision vide order dated 01.03.2017. Hence, this writ petitioner challenging the order dated 26.12.1989 passed by Sub-Divisional Magistrate, order dated 08.05.1997 passed by Additional Commissioner and order dated 01.03.2017 passed by Board of Revenue.

3. This Court, vide order dated 26.05.2017, entertained the matter and granted interim protection in favour of petitioners. In pursuance of the order dated 26.05.2017, counter affidavit has been filed by State and petitioners has filed his rejoinder affidavit also.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that petitioners' father was granted lease in the year 1973 being ex-army man as such, the entry of the petitioner cannot be expunged in arbitrary manner without cancelling the lease executed in favour of the petitioners' father in accordance with law. He further submitted that on the basis of lease executed in favour of petitioners' father, the entry was made in the revenue record as Sirdar and later on, due to operation of law petitioners' father became bhumidhar, with non-transferable right. He further placed a copy of Khatauni, which is annexed as Annexure No. 6 to the instant petition, in which petitioners' father was recorded as bhumidhar with non-transferable right in respect to plot in question. He further submitted that due to further operation of law, the petitioners' father is to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable right, but under the impugned order, the petitioners entry has been expunged on misconceived ground that petitioners were asami of the plot in question as such, no right will accrue to petitioners after expiry of five years. He further submitted that in view of provisions contained under Section 76 (dd) of U.P. Revenue Code 2006, every person, who was even an asami in possession of land not covered by Section 77 of U.P. Revenue Code 2006 shall be given bhumidhari right. He further submitted that the land in dispute is not covered under Section 77 of the U.P. Revenue Code 2006 as such, even assuming, though without admitting, that the petitioners' father was asami, petitioners will be entitled to the benefit of Section 76 (dd) of the U.P. Revenue Code 2006 and petitioners are entitled to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable right as petitioners' father has expired. He further submitted that impugned orders passed by Sub-Divisional Officer, Additional Commissioner and Board of Revenue are wholly illegal as such, the same are liable to be set aside and petitioners should be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable right.

5. On the other hand, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Tiwari, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State and Mr.

Pradeep Singh, learned counsel for respondent No. 4/Gaon Sabha, submitted that petitioners' father was asami of plot in question as such, no right will accrue to petitioners' father or the petitioners after expiry of five years. They further submitted that impugned orders have been rightly passed by the respondents as such, no interference is required against the impugned orders. They further submitted that entry of bhumidhar with non-transferable right was made in illegal manner as such, the entry has been expunged under the impugned orders, which requires no interference by this Court. They further submitted that instant writ petition filed by the petitioners is liable to be dismissed.

6. have considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

7. There is no dispute about the fact that allotment was made in favour of petitioners' father in the year 1973 in respect to land which is not covered by Section 77 of U.P. Revenue Code 2006. There is also no dispute about the fact that plot in dispute was recorded as banjar before making allotment in favour of petitioners' father. There is also no dispute about the fact that Nayb Tehsildar, while passing the order for recording the name of petitioners' father in respect to the plot in question vide order dated 20.08.1975 ordered to record the name of petitioners' father as sirdar, but under the impugned order, the petitioners' father was ordered to be recorded as asami of the plot in question. There is also no dispute about the fact that revisions filed by petitioners' father have been also dismissed by Additional Commissioner/Board of Revenue.

8. In order to appreciate the controversy involved in the matter the perusal of Section 76 of U.P. Revenue Code 2006 will be relevant for perusal which is as under:-

"76. Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights.- (1) Every person belonging to any of the following classes shall be called a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights and shall have all the rights and be subject to all the liabilities conferred or imposed upon such bhumidhar by or under this Code, namely:-

(a) every person who was a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights immediately before the date of commencement of this Code;

(b) every person who is admitted as a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights on or after the said date by the Bhumi Prabandhak Samiti to any land under or in accordance with the provisions of this Code;

(c) every person who is allotted any land on or after the said date under the provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Bhoodan Yajna Act, 1952;

(d) every person who is allotted any land on or after the said date under the provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960;

(dd) every person who was an asami in possession of land not covered by section 77 of this Code, immediately before the date of the commencement of this Code and had been recorded as such in class-3 of the annual register (khatauni) of 1407 Fasli;

Provided that where the land in possession of a person, together with any other land, held by him in Uttar Pradesh exceeds the ceiling area determined under the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960, the rights of a

Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights shall accrue in favour of such person in respect of so much area of the first mentioned land, as together with such other land held by him, does not exceed the ceiling area applicable to him, and the said area shall be demarcated in the prescribed manner in accordance with the principles laid down in the aforesaid Act;

(e) every person who in any other manner acquires on or after the said date, the rights of such a bhumidhar under or in accordance with the provisions of this Code, or any other law for the time being in force.

(2) Every person who was a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights immediately before the commencement of this Code and had been such bhumidhar for a period of five years or more, shall become bhumidhar with transferable rights on such commencement.

(3) Every person who was a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights on the commencement referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) or becomes bhumidhar with non-transferable rights after such commencement shall become bhumidhar with transferable rights after expiry of five years from his becoming bhumidhar with non-transferable rights.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Code, if any person transfers land by sale after becoming bhumidhar with transferable rights under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), he shall not be eligible for lease of any land vested in the Gram Panchayat or the State Government or the surplus land defined in the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960."

9. The perusal of Section 77 of the U.P. Revenue Code 2006 will be also relevant which is as under:-

[(1)] Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code or any other law for the time being in force; no person shall acquire the rights of a bhumidhar in the following land :-

(a) Khaliyan, manure pits, pasture land or land normally used as burial or cremation ground;

(b) land covered by water and used for the purpose of growing singhara or other produce;

(c) land situate in the bed of a river and used for casual or occasional cultivation;

(d) such tracts of shifting or unstable cultivation which the State Government may by notification specify;

(e) land declared by the State Government to be intended or set apart for taungya plantation and notified as such;

(f) grove land entrusted or deemed to be entrusted to a [Gram Panchayat] or any other local authority under Section 59;

(g) land included in sullage farm or trenching ground entrusted or deemed to be entrusted to a [Gram Panchayat] or any other local authority under Section 59;

(h) had acquired or held for a public purpose or a work of public utility;

(i) land covered by a pond, tank or lake, or forming part of an embankment, bandh or bhita; and

(j) any other land which the State Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf;

Explanation. - The expression 'public purpose', in clause (h) shall include :-

(i) land set apart for military camping ground;

(ii) land included within railway or canal boundaries;

(iii) land acquired and held by a local authority for its own purposes;

(iv) land referred to in Section 29-C of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953; or

(v) land reserved by a [Gram Panchayat] for the purposes of public utility :

[]

[(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in other provisions of this Code, where any land or part thereof specified in sub-section (1) of this section is, surrounded by or, in between, or on the edges and necessary for public purpose, the plot or plots of land purchased, acquired or resumed for public purpose, the State Government may change the class of such public utility land, and if class of such public utility land is changed, any other land equivalent to or more than that of the aforesaid public utility land, shall be reserved for the same purpose in the same or any nearby Gram Panchayat or local authority, as the case may be or the State Government may permit the exchange thereof under Section 101 of this Code in the manner prescribed:

Provided that the class of any public utility land may be changed only in exceptional cases on such terms and conditions, as may be prescribed. The reason for changing the class of public utility land shall be recorded in writing.]

(3) The State Government, while changing the class of the land or permitting the exchange of the same under Section 101 of the Code, shall consider the location, public utility and suitability of the land proposed to be reserved or exchanged.

(4) If class of land is changed under sub-section (2) of this section, the Collector shall order the record of rights (Khatauni) and the map to be corrected accordingly.

Explanation. - The expression 'public purpose', in sub-section (2) of this section means, mutatis mutandis, 'the public purpose' as defined in clause (za) of Section 3 of Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (Act No. 30 of 2013).]

10. The perusal of Section 76 (dd) fully demonstrate that even an asami in possession of the land entitled to be recorded as bhumidhar, if, the land is not covered under Section 77 of U.P. Revenue Code 2006.

11. This Court in case reported in (2018) 138 RD 68, Gangadeen vs. State of U.P. and others has considered the scope of Section 76 (1) (dd) of the U.P. Revenue Code 2006. Paragraph No. 7 of the judgment rendered in Gangadeen (supra) will be relevant for perusal which is as under:-

"7. As per clause (dd) of Sub-section (1) of the Section 76, every person who was an asami in possession of land not covered by section 77 of the Code, immediately before the date of the commencement of the Code and had been recorded as such in class-3 of the annual register (khatauni) of 1407 Fasli shall be called a bhumidhar with non-transferable rights and shall have all the rights and be subject to all the liabilities conferred or imposed upon such bhumidhar by or under the Code. The land in question is not covered by Section 77 of the Code. Undisputedly, the name of the petitioner was continued to be recorded in the annual register (khatauni) till 1411 to 1416 Fasli. Thus, it is undisputed that the name of the petitioner was recorded in class-3 in the annual register (khatauni) of 1407 Fasli and, therefore, the petitioner is entitled to the benefit conferred under clause (dd) of Sub-section (1) of the Section 76 of the Code. Therefore, both the impugned orders deserve to be quashed and the case of the petitioner deserves to be considered in the light of the provisions as afore-quoted."

12. In the instant matter, the plot in question was recorded as banjar before making allotment in favour of petitioners' father, which is not covered under Section 77 of the U.P. Revenue Code 2006 as such, right of the petitioners to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable right in respect to plot in question cannot be rejected in any manner.

13. The perusal of the revenue entry as well as the order passed by Nayb Tehsildar/Sub-Divisional Officer fully demonstrate that after grant of lease in favour of petitioners' father in the year 1973, petitioners' father was initially recorded as sirdar and later on, he was recorded as bhumidhar with non-transferable right. The period of ten years from the date of giving right to the petitioners' father as bhumidhar with non-transferable right had already completed as such, petitioners' father was entitled to be recorded as bhumidhar with transferable right, but authority has illegally ordered to record the name of petitioners father as asami (class-3 category) in respect to the plot in question.

14. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned order dated 26.12.1989 passed by Sub-Divisional Magistrate, order dated 08.05.1997 passed by Additional Commissioner and the order dated 01.03.2017 passed by Board of Revenue cannot be sustained in the eye of law as such, the same are hereby set aside.

15. The writ petition stands allowed.

16. Respondent No. 2/Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Chunar, District Mirzapur, is directed to take immediate steps for recording the name of the petitioners as bhumidhar with transferable right in respect to plot in question within period of six weeks from the date of production of certified copy of this order before him as more than 48 years period have passed from the date of making allotment of the plot in question in favour of petitioners' father.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1340

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Writ-B No. 47402 of 2012

Kapil Ram Pandey & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
Board of Revenue & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Sri Anil Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:

Sri Tarun Gaur(S.C.), Sri Dinesh Kumar Singh,
Sri S.S. Singh, Sri Shri Ram Pandey

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-dispute over property ownership based on two conflicting wills-A registered will dated 19.02.2002 in favor of the petitioners-An unregistered will dated 02.03.2002 in favour of the both the petitioners and respondent no.2-
The tehsildar ruled in favor of the registered will rejecting the unregistered will-The SDM dismissed the respondent no.'s2 appeal-the board of revenue reversed the decision allowing the unregistered will-The court upheld the Tehsildar's original order favoring the registered will and set aside the Board of

Revenue's decision-under section 92 of the Indian Evidence Act, a registered document cannot be overridden by an unregistered one.(Para 1 to 15)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kalawati Vs Board of Revenue & ors. (2022) 155 RD 169

2. Rampal Vs Board of Revenue U.P. & ors. (2010) ILR 3 All. 1298

3. Sahed Jan @ Bonde & ors. Vs Board of Revenue U.P. at Lko & ors. (2004)96 RD 656

4. Sardul Rajan & ors. Vs DDC Mau & ors. RD (2015) (129) 495.

5. S. Saktivel (Dead) by LRs. Vs M. Venugopal Pillai & ors.(2000)91 RD 615

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

1. Heard Sri Anil Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Dinesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no.2 and Sri Tarun Gaur, learned standing counsel for the state-respondents.

2. Brief facts of the case are that one Bakunth Ram Pandey, had two sons, namely, Raghunath Pandey and Ishwar Prasad Pandey. Raghunath Pandey died issueless and Ishwar Prasad Pandey had three sons, namely, Raj Kishor Pandey, Kapil Ram Pandey and Brijesh Ram Pandey. Kapil Ram Pandey and Brijesh Ram Pandey are petitioner nos. 1 & 2 in the instant petition and Meera Pandey, widow of Raj Kishor Pandey is respondent no.2 in the instant petition. A registered will deed is alleged to be executed in favour of the petitioners by Raghunath Pandey on 19.2.2002. Another unregistered will deed was alleged to be executed on 2.3.2002 in favour of respondent no.2 as well as petitioners by Raghunath Pandey. The property of Raghunath Pandey was situated in two villages, namely, Balwaniya and Lohari. A mutation application was filed on behalf of the petitioners under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 on the basis of the registered will deed dated 19.2.2002 in respect to the property situated in the aforementioned two villages, accordingly, two cases were registered which were numbered as Case Nos. 469 & 896 before the Tehsildar. Mutation application under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 were also filed by respondent No. 2 on the basis of her unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002 which were also registered as Case Nos. 581 & 582 before the Tehsildar. All the aforementioned four cases were consolidated and heard together. The Tehsildar vide order dated 25.3.2004 recorded a finding that will deed executed on 19.2.2002 is fully proved, as such, the petitioners are entitled to be recorded in place of deceased Raghunath Pandey and claim set up by respondent no.2 on the basis of unregistered will deed is liable to be rejected. The order dated 17.6.2002 passed on the basis of Pa Ka-11, recording the name of Ishwar Prasad Pandey (father of petitioners) has been set aside. Against the order of Tehsildar dated 25.3.2004, Appeal No.13 of 2003-04 was filed before the Sub Divisional Magistrate by respondent no.2 under Section 210 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 which was heard and dismissed vide order dated 29.4.2004. Against the order dated 29.4.2004, respondent no.2 filed revision under Section 219 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 before the Board of Revenue, U.P. at Lucknow which was registered as Case No.112/L.R./2003-04.

The Board of Revenue vide judgment dated 28.7.2005 allowed the revision setting aside the order dated 29.4.2004 passed by Tahasildar as well as order dated 25.3.2004, passed by the Sub Divisional Magistrate, ordered and to record the name of respondent no.2 as well as petitioners on the basis of unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002. The petitioners challenged the order dated 28.7.2005 passed by respondent no.1/Board of Revenue through Writ Petition No.59259 of 2005 which was allowed vide order dated 29.8.2011 setting aside the order of respondent no.1/Board of Revenue dated 28.7.2005 and the matter was remanded back before the Board of Revenue to decide the revision afresh. In pursuance of the remand order passed by this Court on 29.8.2011, revision was heard afresh by respondent no.1/Board of Revenue and respondent no.1 has again allowed the revision vide order dated 10.7.2012, setting aside the order dated 29.4.2004 and 25.3.2004 as well as directed the authorities to record the name of respondent no.2 along with petitioners on the basis of will deed dated 2.3.2002. Hence, this writ petition, challenging the order dated 10.7.2012 passed by respondent No.1/Board of Revenue.

3. This Court vide order dated 17.9.2012 entertained the matter and issued notice to respondent no.2. This Court vide subsequent order dated 4.4.2016 further granted time to the counsel for the private respondent no.2 to file counter affidavit and as an interim measure, directed the authorities not to create 3rd party right in respect to the property in question.

4. In pursuance of the aforementioned orders, stay vacation application along with counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent no.2 on 24.11.2021 and the petitioners have filed their rejoinder affidavit also on 13.1.2022.

5. Counsel for the petitioner submitted that the Tehsildar has rightly allowed the mutation application filed on behalf of the petitioners on the basis of registered will deed executed on 19.2.2002 and rejected the claim of respondent no.2 set up on the basis of subsequent unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002. He submitted that the Tehsildar has rightly exercised the jurisdiction under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 against which the aggrieved party can avail the remedy of regular court rather to contest the mutation proceeding before the court exercising the summary jurisdiction. He further submitted that the Tehsildar has properly considered the evidence of marginal witness of the registered will deed and found that the registered will deed was executed in accordance with the provisions of the Indian Evidence Act and the Indian Succession Act. He also submitted that against the earlier order of the Board of Revenue passed in favour of respondent no.2, the writ petition filed by the petitioners was allowed and the matter was remanded back to decide the revision afresh but the revisional court has again exercised the revisional jurisdiction in arbitrary manner by which the right set up on the basis of the subsequent unregistered will deed has been accepted and the claim set up on the basis of earlier registered will deed has been rejected. He also submitted that the registered document cannot be substituted by unregistered document. He further submitted that Raghunath Pandey expired on 14.3.2002 and unregistered will deed was alleged to be executed on 2.3.2002 as such the unregistered will deed deemed to be suspicious in view of the health condition of Raghunath Pandey at the relevant point of time. He also submitted that the impugned revisional order be set aside and the order passed by the Tehsildar dated 25.3.2004 be affirmed.

6. On the other hand, Sri Dinesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel appearing for respondent no. 2 submitted that the Board of Revenue has exercised the revisional jurisdiction in accordance with law for directing to record the names of the petitioners as well as respondent no.2 on the basis of unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002, setting aside the order of Tehsildar and the Sub Divisional Magistrate. He further submitted that in the subsequent unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002, Raghunath Pandey has cancelled the earlier will deed dated 19.2.2002, supported by reason as such, the subsequent unregistered will deed executed on 2.3.2002 cannot be doubted in any manner. He also submitted that due to health condition of Raghunath Pandey, the unregistered will deed was thumb marked and the reason has been assigned in the will deed that he is not in a position to make his signature over the will deed in question. He also submitted that the will deed dated 2.3.2002 was the second and the last will deed executed in favour of respondent no.2 along with the petitioners, as such, the exercise of jurisdiction by the Board of Revenue is in the interest of justice which requires no interference by this Court. He also submitted that the will deed dated 2.3.2002 was proved according to the provisions contained under Section 68 of the Indian Evidence Act, as such, the order passed by respondent no.1/Board of Revenue for recording the name on the basis of subsequent unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002 was in accordance with law. He also submitted that as per the cross-examination of the marginal witness of the will deed dated 19.2.2002, it is established that Raghunath Pandey had no knowledge that in the will deed dated 19.2.2002, there is no mention of the name of respondent no.2/Meera Pandey along with petitioners. He submitted that the instant writ petition arises out of mutation proceeding, as such, the same is not maintainable and petitioners should avail remedy before the regular court for declaration of their right. He further placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court reported in Kalawati Vs. Board of Revenue and others 2022 (155) RD 169, Rampal Vs. Board of Revenue U.P & Ors. (2010) ILR 3 All. 1298, Sahed Jan @ Bonde and others Vs. Board of Revenue U.P at Lucknow and others 2004 (96) RD 656 and Sardul Rajan and others Vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation Mau and others RD 2015 (129) 495.

7. I have considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

8. There is no dispute about the fact that in respect to the property of Raghunath Pandey, two claims were set up by the petitioners as well as by respondent no.2, one claim was set up by the petitioners on the basis of registered will deed executed on 19.2.2002 by Raghunath Pandey and another claim was set up by respondent no.2 on the basis of unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002 executed by Raghunath Pandey. There is also no dispute about the fact that the Tehsildar after considering the claim of both the parties, directed to record the name of the petitioners on the basis of registered will deed executed on 19.2.2002 and rejected the claim of respondent no.2 set up on the basis of subsequent unregistered will deed executed on

2.3.2002. There is also no dispute about the fact that the appeal filed by respondent no.2 was dismissed but in revision the Board of Revenue has set aside the order of the Tehsildar as well as that of the S.D.M. in appeal and directed to record the name of respondent no.2 as well as petitioners on the basis of subsequent unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002.

9. In order to appreciate the controversy, perusal of the relevant portion of the order of the Tehsildar dated 25.3.2004 will be relevant which is quoted hereunder:-

न्यायालय तहसीलदार-घोरावल,

जनपद सोनभद्र

1- वाद संख्या-469, अन्तर्गत धारा 34/भू०रा०अधि०

कपिल राम, बृजेश राम प्रति रघुनाथ प्रसाद बावत मौजा लोहामण्डी।

2- वाद संख्या 896, अन्तर्गत धारा 34/भू०रा०अधि०

कपिलराम, बृजेश राम प्रति रघुनाथ प्रसाद बावत मौजा बेलवनियां।

3- वाद संख्या 581, अन्तर्गत धारा 34/भू०रा०अधि०

मीरा पाण्डेय, कपिल राम, बृजेश राम प्रति रघुनाथ प्रसाद बावत मौजा लोहा मण्डी।

4- वाद संख्या 582, अन्तर्गत धारा 34/भू०रा०अधि०

मीरा पाण्डेय, कपिल राम, बृजेश राम प्रति रघुनाथ प्रसाद बावत मौजा बेलवनिया।

सर्वप्रथम पंजीकृत वसीयत 19.2.2002 का परीक्षण किया जा रहा है। इस वसीयत पर

चस्पा की गई फोटो को स्व० रघुनाथ प्रसाद पाण्डेय के फोटो के रूप में दोनों हासिया के गवाहों ने स्वीकार किया है। मीरा पाण्डेय की ओर से यह प्रतिवाद नहीं किया गया है कि यह फोटो रघुनाथ प्रसाद पाण्डेय की नहीं है। यही व्यक्ति दिनांक: 19.02.2002 को उपनिबन्धक घोरावल के यहां उपस्थित होकर वसीयत का निस्पादन सुन समझ कर स्वीकार किया है, जैसा कि उपनिबन्धक के पृष्ठांकर दिनांक: 19.2.2002 से स्पष्ट है। इस पंजीकृत वसीयत के हासिया के दो गवाह हैं एक ईश्वर प्रसाद तथा दूसरे जय प्रसाद पाठक। दोनों ने न्यायालय में उपस्थित होकर वसीयत के निस्पादन को स्वीकार किया है। ईश्वर प्रसाद जो कि मृतक के नौसर्गिक निकटतम वारिस तथा कपिल राम व बृजेश राम के पिता हैं, के ब्यान को एक क्षण के लिए अलग भी कर दें तो जय प्रसाद पाठक ने अपने बयान में कहा है कि " वकील साहब सुदा वसीयत को पढ़कर सुनाए। सुनने व समझने के बाद रघुनाथ अपना नि०अं० लगाए। अं० नि० मेरी व ईश्वर प्रसाद की उपस्थिति में रघुनाथ ने अपना नि०अं० लगाए। रघुनाथ की उपस्थिति में मैं और ईश्वर प्रसाद पाण्डेय ने बतौर गवाह अपना-अपना हस्ताक्षर बनाया। वसीयतनामा में चिपकाए गए फोटो को देखकर गवाह ने बताया कि यह फोटो रघुनाथ प्रसाद पाण्डेय पुत्र बैकुण्ठ प्रसाद पाण्डेय का है।" इस प्रकार गवाह ने एक ही सीटिंग में एक दूसरे की उपस्थिति में एक दूसरे को वसीयत पर हस्ताक्षर/अं०नि० लगाने की बात स्वीकार की है। इससे सम्पत्ति अन्तण अधिनियम की धारा 3 के अनुसार वसीयत के अटेस्टेशन प्रमाणित होते हैं।

अब इसी जय प्रसाद पाठक के बयान के प्रति परीक्षण के अंश को देखते हैं, इसमें गवाह ने कहा कि " रघुनाथ पाण्डेय को मैंने देखा है। वे चलने फिरने में वसीयत लिखने के दिन पूर्णतया असमर्थ थे। ठेला से लादकर आए थे। जितना देर तक वसीयत की लिखी पढ़ी हुयी रघुनाथ उसी ठेले पर सोये रहे। लिखा पढ़ी के बाद हमने या मसविदाकर्ता द्वारा उनसे न तो कुछ पूछा गया और न ही उन्हें पढ़कर सुनाया गया। वसीयत लिखने के बाद उसी ठेले पर ले जाया गया उसी जगह उनका नि०अं० लगवाया गया।" उस बयान में भी गवाह ने रघुनाथ को नि०अं० लगाने की बात स्वीकार की है, परन्तु अपने मुख्य परीक्षा के ब्यान से हटकर एक तथ्य यह भी कहा है कि रघुनाथ चलने फिरने में असमर्थ थे तथा उनसे कुछ पूछा नहीं गया और न वसीयत पढ़कर सुनायी गयी। इस सम्बन्ध में उपनिबन्धक का पृष्ठांकन दिनांक 19.2.2002 जो कि उनके द्वारा अपने पदीय राजकीय दायित्व के तहत किया गया है महत्वपूर्ण है, इसमें उपनिबन्धक घोरावल ने स्पष्ट रूप से यह लिखा है कि " इस पत्र के विषय व सम्पादन को सुनसमझ कर श्री रघुनाथ प्रसाद उक्त ने स्वीकार किया" इससे स्पष्ट है कि वसीयत के निस्पादन को श्री रघुनाथ प्रसाद को सुनाया व समझाया गया था और निस्पादन को श्री रघुनाथ प्रसाद को सुनाया व समझाया गया था और उन्होंने उसे स्वीकार करते हुए निस्पादिन किया है। मैं कपिल राम के विद्वान के अधिवक्ता के इस कथन से सहमत हूँ कि गवाह जय प्रसाद पाठक ने प्रतिपरीक्षण में दबाव में कुछ हटकर

टिप्पणी की है, परन्तु रघुनाथ प्रसाद के नि०अं० लगाने की बात को स्वीकार किया है। इस प्रकार गवाह मूल रूप से निस्पादन को स्वीकार करते दिखता है। वसीयत भारतीय साक्ष्य अधिनियम की धारा 68 के अनुसार साबित है।

सुबसे मुख्य बात यह है कि मीरा पाण्डेय के पास में अपंजीकृत वसीयत 2.3.2002 में कपिल व बृजेश के पक्ष में लिखे गए वसीयत दिनांक 19.2.2002 को स्वीकार किया गया है तथा उसे निरस्त करने की बात इस वसीयतनामा 2.3.2002 में है। इस प्रकार इस दृष्टि से भी दिनांक 19.2.2002 को कपिल राम व बृजेश राम के पक्ष में निस्पादित पंजीकृत वसीयत सिद्ध है।

अब मीरा पाण्डेय, कपिल राम व बृजेश राम के पक्ष में लिखे गए अपंजीकृत वसीयत 2.3.2002 पर विचार किया जा रहा है। वाद में निस्पादित वसीयत ही प्रभावी भी होगी। लेकिन वसीयत को भारतीय साक्ष्य अधिनियम की धारा 68 तथा सम्पत्ति अन्तरण अधिनियम की धारा 3 के अन्तर्गत प्रमाणित होना अनिवार्य है। मीरा पाण्डेय द्वारा 2.3.2002 को अपने पक्ष में रघुनाथ द्वारा वसीयत लिखने की बात कही जा रही है, परन्तु उनके द्वारा रघुनाथ मृतक के मृत्यु की वास्तविक तिथि का कोई अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य नहीं दिया गया है, जिससे यह सिद्ध हो सके कि निस्पादन की तथाकथित तिथि पर निस्पादनकर्ता जीवित भी था या नहीं। यह मान भी लें कि 2.3.2002 को रघुनाथ प्रसाद जीवित थे, ऐसी स्थिति में वसीयत दिनांक 2.3.2002 के परीक्षण पर क्या तथ्य आते हैं?

जैसा कि ऊपर के प्रस्तरों में विवेचनोपरान्त यह निष्कर्ष प्रमाणित है कि कपिल राम व बृजेश के पक्ष में निष्पादित वसीयत 19.2.2002 प्रमाणित तथा उभय पक्षों को स्वीकार है, इसलिए इस वसीयत पर बने रघुनाथ के अं०नि० तथा दिनांक 2.3.2002 को मीरा पाण्डेय आदि के वसीयत पर बने रघुनाथ के अं०नि० के सामान्य मिलान से दिनांक 2.3.2002 के वसीयत की प्रमाणिकता सिद्ध हो सकती है। दिनांक 19.2.2002 के वसीयत पर रघुनाथ प्रसाद पाण्डेय के अंगूठा निशान जो बने हैं, सामान्यता नंगी आंखों से देखने पर भी उसमें जो रेखायें दिखती हैं उनसे अंगूठा के बीच में घुमावदार चक्र "चक्र" जैसी आकृति बन रही है। दिनांक 2.3.2002 के वसीयत पर रघुनाथ प्रसाद पाण्डेय के अंगूठा के जो निशान बने हैं, सामान्य तथा नंगी आंख देखने पर ही उसमें जो रेखायें दिखती हैं उनसे अंगूठा बीच में कोई "चक्र" जैसी आकृति नहीं बनती है, बल्कि घुमावदार रेखायें अंगूठा के प्रथम पोर के ऊपरी हिस्से पर "शंख" जैसी आकृति बनती है। अंगूठा के निशान में उभरी रेखाओं के घुमाव व टर्निंग में भिन्नता नंगी आंखों से ही देखी जा सकती, इसके लिए किसी विशेषज्ञ की राय लेने की भी आवश्यकता नहीं है। भारतीय साक्ष्य अधिनियम में स्पष्ट प्राविधान है कि न्यायालय स्वयं भी विशेषज्ञ के रूप में व्यवहार कर सकता है। ऐसी स्थिति में दिनांक 19.2.2002 की प्रमाणित वसीयत पर बने रघुनाथ के अंगूठा निशान की तुलना में दिनांक 2.3.2002 की वसीयत पर बने अंगूठा के

निशान भिन्न हैं तथा रघुनाथ के अंगूठा के निशान नहीं हो सकते हैं।

अतः दिनांक 2.3.2002 की वसीयत की परिस्थितिजन्य साक्ष्यों पर विचार करते हैं। दिनांक 2.3.2002 की वसीयत टंकित है तथा हसियें के गवाह चंद्रमणि द्वारा यह भी कहा गया है कि वसीयत की लिखा पढ़ी तहसील मुख्यालय पर की गई है। तहसील मुख्यालय पर मात्र चंद कदमों पर स्थित उपनिबंधक कार्यालय में पंजीयन न होने के विषय में गवाह ने मात्र यह कहा है कि पंजीयन के लिए समय नहीं था। गवाह ने वसीयत पूर्ण होने का समय चार-पांच बजे बताया है। उपनिबंधक कार्यालय पाँच बजे तक खुला रहता है और यह कहना कि समयाभाव के कारण पंजीयन नहीं हो सका, बिल्कुल तथ्य से हट कर है। इस प्रकार परिस्थितियों यह प्रदर्शित करती है कि 2.3.2002 वसीयत प्रूवड नहीं है।

उपर्युक्त विवेचन के आधार पर मैं इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुँचा हूँ कि दिनांक 19.2.2002 की पंजीकृत वसीयत प्रूवड है तथा दिनांक 2.3.2002 की अपंजीकृत वसीयत प्रूवड नहीं है, ईश्वर प्रसाद के पक्ष में प०क० 11 क का पारित आदेश भी जो कि धारा 171 में पारित किया गया है, अब धारा 169 में वसीयत प्रूवड होने के कारण निरस्त होने योग्य है।

आदेश

ग्राम बेलवनिया की वर्तमान खतौनी 1408-1412 एफ खाता 81 तथा 101 से मृतक रघुनाथ पुत्र बैकुण्ठ राम नि० ग्राम बेलवनिया का नाम पृथक करके पंजीकृत वसीयत के

आधारपर कपिल राम व बृजेश राम पुत्रगण ईश्वर प्रसाद पाण्डेय नि० बेलवनीर्यी का नाम बतौर वारित दर्ज हो। प०क० 11 क का आदेश 16.6.2002 निरस्त हो।

ग्राम लोहामण्डी की खतौनी वर्ष 1405-1410 फ० के खाता 9 तथा 118 से बने वर्तमान खतौन 1411-1416 एफ के खाता 9 से मृतक रघुनाथ पुत्र बैकुण्ठ राम नि० ग्राम बेलवनियां का नाम (गैर गुन्दर्ज खतौनी), ईश्वर प्रसाद पुत्र बैकुण्ठ प्रसाद मुन्दर्ज खतौनी (केवल पूरा खतौन 1405 1410 एफ के खाता 9, 118 के बावत) का नाम पृथक करके पंजीकृत वसीयतनामा के आधार पर कपिल राम व बृजेश राम पुत्रगण ईश्वर प्रसाद पाण्डेय नि० बेलवनिया का नाम दर्ज हो। प०क० 11का आदेश 17.6.2002 निरस्त हो। वाद अमलदरामद दाखिल दफतर हो।

ह०अप०

तहसीलदार 25.3.2004

(सत्य प्रतिलिपि)

10. The perusal of the finding of fact recorded by the Tehsildar fully demonstrates that the Tehsildar has rightly exercised the jurisdiction considering the claim set up on the basis of the registered will deed dated 19.2.2002 as well as the claim set up on the basis of unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002. The Tehsildar has recorded the finding of fact that the registered will deed dated 19.2.2002 is proved and the subsequent unregistered will deed dated 2.3.2002 is not proved, as such, there is no infirmity in exercise of jurisdiction under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 by the Tehsildar.

The exercise of jurisdiction by the Board of Revenue under Section 219 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 for recording the name on the basis of subsequent unregistered will deed is in excess of revisional jurisdiction of the Board of Revenue. The law relating to mutation under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 is very clear that there should be proper exercise of jurisdiction by the authority under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 and the exercise of jurisdiction by the authority under Section 34 of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 is always subject to the adjudication of the dispute by the regular court, as such, respondent no.2 can initiate proper proceeding before the regular court for redressal of her grievance in accordance with law rather contest the summary proceeding for unlimited period.

11. There is another aspect of the case also that registered will deed executed in favour of petitioners' has been alleged to be cancelled by unregistered will deed which is in violation of the provisions contained under Section 92, proviso (4) of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 which runs as follows:-

Proviso (4).--The existence of any distinct subsequent oral agreement to rescind or modify any such contract, grant or disposition of property, may be proved, except in cases in which such contract, grant or disposition of property is by law required to be in writing, or has been registered according to the law in force for the time being as to the registration of documents:

12. Hon'ble Apex Court in the case reported in 2000(91) RD 615, S. Saktivel (Dead) by L.Rs. vs. M. Venugopal Pillai and Others has discussed the scope of Section 92 proviso 4 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. The paragraph no. 7 of the judgment rendered in S. Saktivel (Dead) by L.Rs. (Supra) is relevant which is as follows:-

"In sum and substance what proviso (4) to Section 92 provides is that where a contract or disposition, not required by law to be in writing, has been arrived at orally then subsequent oral agreement modifying or rescinding the said contract or disposition can be substantiated by parol evidence and such evidence is admissible. Thus if a party has entered into a contract which is not required to be reduced in writing but such a contract has been reduced in writing, or it is oral in such situations it is always open to the parties to the contract to modify its terms and even substitute a new by oral contract and it can be substantiated by parol evidence. In such kind of cases the oral evidence can be let in to prove that the earlier contract or agreement has been modified or substituted by new oral agreement. Where under law a contract or disposition are required to be in writing and the same has been reduced in writing, its terms cannot be modified or altered or substituted by oral contract or disposition. No parol evidence will be admissible to substantiate such an oral contract or disposition. A document for its validity or effectiveness is required by law to be in writing and, therefore, no modification or alteration or substitution of such written document is permissible by parol evidence and it is only by another written document the terms of earlier written document can be altered, rescinded or substituted. There is another reason why the defendant/appellant cannot be permitted to let in parol evidence to substantiate the subsequent oral arrangement. The reason being that the settlement deed is a registered document. The second part of proviso (4) to Section 92 does not permit leading of parol evidence for proving a subsequent oral agreement modifying or rescinding the registered instrument. The terms of registered document can be altered, rescinded or varied only by subsequent registered document and not otherwise. If the oral arrangement as pleaded by the appellant if allowed to be substantiated by parol evidence it would mean re-writing of Ex.A/1 and, therefore, no parol evidence is permissible."

13. So far as the case laws cited by learned counsel for the respondent No. 2 are concerned, this Court has held in Kalawati (Supra) & Sahed Jan @ Bonde (Supra) that there should be proper exercise of jurisdiction in the mutation proceeding under Section 34 of U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 now Section – 34/35 of U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 which shall be subject to the adjudication of the dispute by regular court. In the instant matter, Tahasildar has rightly exercised the jurisdiction in the mutation proceeding which shall be subject to the adjudication of dispute, if any, by regular court. In the case of Sardul Ranjan (Supra) this Court in paragraph No-13 of the judgment has considered the case of Hon'ble Apex Court reported in 2005 (98) RD 613, Sridevi Versus Jayaraja Shetty in which death of testator occurred within 15 days of the execution of will, as such, the will deed was found suspicious as such case laws cited by learned Counsel for the respondent No – 2 will not support his argument.

14. Considering the entire facts and circumstances as well as the ratio of law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of S. Saktivel (Dead) by L.Rs. (supra), the impugned revisional order dated 10.7.2012, passed by respondent no.1/Board of Revenue is liable to be set aside and the same is hereby set aside. The order passed by the Tehsildar dated 25.3.2004 for recording the name of the petitioners on the basis of the registered will deed dated 19.2.2002 is hereby affirmed.

15. The writ petition stand allowed.

16. Needless to say that the order passed in mutation / summary proceeding is always subject to adjudication of dispute if any by the regular court.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1349
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ROHIT RANJAN AGARWAL, J.

Writ-C No. 292 of 2024
 With other connected cases

The Indian Express Pvt. Ltd. ...Petitioner
Versus
U.O.I. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri Sunil Kumar Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
 A.S.G.I., Sri Anand Kumar Chaubey, Sri Man Mohan Singh, C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constituion of India,1950-Article 226-Working Journalists and Other Newspaper Employees(Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act,1955-Section 17-The petitioners contested the validity of the state government's notification authorizing specific officers to handle dispute 17 of the act,1955-the Assistant Labour Commissioner referred disputes to the Labour Court regarding short payments to employees-Held, the notification delegating power u/s 17 was upheld as it was consistent with the seamless mechanism envisaged by the act,1955-Section 17 was found to provide an integrated framework for resolving disputes and recovering dues-The Assistant labor commissioner's role in referring disputes was valid-The Labour Court's findings on short payment of wages were not challenged on merits but only on technical grounds, which were dismissed-The court clarified that the Labour Court's decision under section 17(3) was not an "award" requiring publication under the Industrial Disputes Act-Hence, the notification, reference to Labour Court and recovery orders were upheld-The court emphasized the intent of the act 1955 to safeguard the rights of journalists and newspaper employees, especially concerning wage disputes through an effective recovery mechanism.(Para 1to 60)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. ABP Pvt. Ltd. Vs U.O.I.(2014) 3 SCC 327
2. Avishek Raja & ors. Vs Sanjay Gupta(2017) 8 SCC 422
3. Pradhan Prabandbank/Unit Head M/s Amar Ujala Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (2018)7 ADJ 715
4. Hindustan Media Ventures Ltd. Jagatganj Vns. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.(2020)7 ADJ 555
5. Ficus Pax (P) Ltd. Vs U.O.I.(2020) 4 SCC 810
6. Coleman Co.Ltd. Vs St.of Bih.(2015) 11 SCC 204
7. Awaz Prakashan (P) Ltd. Vs Pramod Kumar Pujari (2003) 6 SCC 104

8. M/s Jagran Prakashan Ltd. & anr. V Labour Court & ors. Writ-C 37024 of 2012

9. Bharat Heavy Electricals Ltd Vs Anil(2007) 1 SCC 601

10. P. Virudhachalam VS Lotus Mills(1998) 1 SCC 650

11. Nelson Motis Vs U.O.I.(1992) 4 SCC 711

12. Singareni Collieries Co. Ltd. Vs Vemuganti Ramakrishnan Rao(2013) 8 SCC 789

13. CBI Vs Ramesh Gelli(2016) 3 SCC 788

14. Indore Development Authority Vs Shailendra (2018) 3 SCC 412

15. Smyuktha Karnataka Vs M.L. Satyanarayana Rao & anr.(1986) LIC 626

16. Samarjit Ghosh Vs Bennet Coleman & Co. & ors. (1987) 3 SCC 507

17. The Mgmt of Samyutha Karanataka Vs M.L., Satyanarayana Rao & anr.(1986)

18. Rajan Sandhi P. Vs U.O.I. & anr.(2010) 10 SCC 338

19. Novttis India Ltd Vs St.of W.B. & ors.(2004) 101 FLR 278

20. Smt Shushila Sharma Vs Sh. Pawan Sharma WP No. 18946 of 2006

21. Sadhu Ram Vs DTC(1983) 4 SCC 165

22. St. of U.P. & ors. Vs C/M D.A.V . Inter College & anr. (2009)6 ADJ (DB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rohit Ranjan Agarwal, J.)

1. Through all these writ petitions, a challenge has been made to the notification dated 12.11.2014 issued by State Government specifying the officers mentioned in Column II to be “authorities competent” to dispose the application under Section 17 of “Working Journalists and other Newspaper Employees (Conditions of Service) and Misc. Provisions Act, 1955” (for short ‘Act 1955’), the reference order dated 10.03.2023 passed by Assistant Labour Commissioner, Gautam Budh Nagar and order dated 22.05.2023 passed by Labour Court, NOIDA rejecting the application regarding jurisdiction of Court.

2. Writ Petition No. 292 of 2024 assails the order dated 10.11.2023 passed by Labour Court, NOIDA, Gautam Budh Nagar in WJA Case No. 01/2023, 02/2023, 03/2023, 04/2023, 05/2023, 06/2023, 07/2023, 08/2023, 09/2023, 10/2023 and 11/2023. As all the cases are interconnected and petitioner is same in all the writ petitions, with the consent of the parties, they are heard and decided together. Writ Petition No. 292 of 2024 is taken as the leading case.

3. Petitioner before this Court, The Indian Express Pvt. Ltd. is a company incorporated under the provisions of Companies Act having its registered office at Mumbai and branch office at NOIDA at Express Building B1/B Sector 10 NOIDA and also a factory at NOIDA. It is a media group known as “Indian Express Group” or “Express Group”. Respondent nos. 7 to 15 are newspaper employees of petitioner company as defined under Section 2(c) of Act 1955. Except respondent no. 13 who is a working journalist as defined under Section 2(f). The other contesting respondents are non-journalist newspaper employees covered under Section 2(dd) of the Act 1955.

4. The Act 1955 was enacted for improvement and regulation of service condition of working journalists and other employees. The Act covers entitlement of gratuity, provident fund settlement of industrial disputes, leave with pay, hours of working and minimum wages.

5. Section 2(b) defines “newspaper” which means any printed periodical work containing public news or comments on public news and includes such other class of printed periodical work as may, from time to time, be notified in this behalf by Central Government in the Official Gazette. Section 2(c) defines “newspaper employee” which not only means working journalists but also includes any other person employed to do any work in, or in relation to, any newspaper establishment.

6. Section 2(dd) was inserted by Act No. 60 of 1974 which defines “non-journalist newspaper employees” which covers person employed to do any work in, or in relation to, any newspaper establishment, but does not include a working journalist or other employees employed mainly in a managerial or administrative capacity or in a supervisory capacity.

7. “Working journalists” have been defined in Section 2(f) which means persons whose principal avocation is that of journalist and also includes an editor, a letter-writer, news-editor, sub-editor, feature-writer, copy-tester, reporter, correspondent, cartoonists, news-photographer and proof-reader. Section 3 of Chapter II provides that provisions of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short ‘Act of 1947’) shall be subject to modification specified in sub-section (2), apply to, or in relation to, working journalists as they apply to, or in relation to workmen within the meaning of that Act.

8. Section 9 provides for the procedure for fixing and revising rates of wages in respect of working journalists by Wage Board constituted by Central Government. The recommendation made by Wage Board accepted by Central Government are notified under Section 12 of the Act. Section 13 thereafter provides that working journalists will be entitled to wages at the rate not less than those specified in the order on coming into operation of an order of Central Government under Section 12.

9. Chapter II-A deals with non-journalist newspaper employees. Section 13-B provides for fixation or revision of rates of wages of non-journalists newspaper employees. Section 13-C provides for constitution of Wage Board by Central Government for fixing and revising the wages of non-journalist newspaper employees.

10. The Central Government in exercise of power under Section 9 and 13-C of the Act 1955 had constituted two Wage Boards under Chairmanship of one Dr. Justice Narayan Kurup. When Justice Narayan Kurup resigned, Justice G.P. Majithia was appointed as Chairman of two Wage Boards. He made recommendation to Central Government on 31.12.2010, which was accepted on 25.10.2011 and notification under Section 12 was published on 11.11.2011.

11. Various newspaper establishments challenged the Majithia Wage Board Award under Article 32 of Constitution of India before Hon’ble Apex Court, leading case being ABP (Private Ltd.) vs. Union of India, (2014) 3 SCC 327. The Apex Court dismissed all the petitions and held that wages as revised/determined shall be payable from 11.11.2011 when the Government of India notified the recommendation of Majithia Wage Boards. All the arrears upto March, 2014 shall be paid to all eligible persons in four equal installments within a period of one year and continue to pay the revised wages from April, 2014 onwards.

12. As the wages and allowances as per Majithia Wage Board were not paid various contempt petitions were filed before Hon'ble Apex Court. The contempt petitions were decided by judgment and order dated 19.06.2017, Avishek Raja and others vs. Sanjay Gupta, (2017) 8 SCC 422. In para no. 29 of the said judgment, the Apex Court directed that henceforth all the complaints with respect to non implementation of Majithia Wage Board Award or otherwise be dealt with in terms of mechanism provided under Section 17 of the Act.

13. The State Government in exercise of its power under sub-section (1) of Section 17 of Act 1955 issued notification dated 12.11.2014 which was published in Official Gazette specifying the "officers competent" to dispose of application made under Section 17 of Act 1955.

14. In Pradhan Prabandhank/Unit Head M/s. Amar Ujala vs. State of U.P. and others, 2018 (7) ADJ 715, the dispute arose as to competence of Deputy Labour Commissioner referring a dispute under Section 17(2) of Act 1955 to Labour Court. This Court found that State was competent to delegate power for reference as it was an administrative Act. Relevant paras 28, 29, 30, 31, 31 and 32 are extracted hereunder:-

"28. The apex court in the case of Samarjit Ghosh's case (supra) had therefore observed that when all the provisions of section 17 are considered together it is apparent that they constitute a single scheme. The apex court in Samarjit Ghosh's case (supra) was dealing with a situation where a newspaper employee had moved an application under section (1) of section 17 of the Act for recovery of dues. A dispute in respect of those dues had been raised and, in the meantime, the newspaper employee had been transferred to a State other than the State where he had moved an application under sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Act. A question arose as to which State Government would have a right to make a reference under sub-section (2) of section 17 of the Act for adjudication of the dispute to effect recovery under sub-section (1). In that context, the apex court had observed that it was the State Government before whom the application of recovery is made which will refer the question as to the amount due to the labour court and the labour court, upon receiving its decision, will forward its decision to the State Government, which will then direct recovery of the amount. While holding so, the apex court had examined the provisions of the Act and had come to a conclusion that when all the provisions of section 17 are considered together, it is apparent that they constituted a single scheme.

29. Further, under the Act, 1955, in exercise of powers under section 20 of the Act, 1955, Working Journalists (Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Rules, 1957 (in short Rules, 1957) have been framed. Rule 36 of Rules, 1957 provides for an application under Section 17 of the Act. It reads as follows:-

"36. Application under section 17 of the Act. -- An application under section 17 of the Act shall be made in Form "C" to the Government of the State, where the Central Office or the Branch Office of the newspaper establishment in which the newspaper employee is employed, is situated."

Form 'C' has been provided in the Rules, 1957. Title of the application as denoted by Form C is as follows:

"FORM 'C'

APPLICATION UNDER SUB-SECTION (1) OF SECTION 17 OF THE ACT 45 OF 1955

(Rule 36)

The aforesaid application is addressed to the Secretary to the Government....."

30. The Rules, 1957 do not provide for any separate application other than application under sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Act.

Having gone through the provisions of the Act, 1955, the Rules framed thereunder; the decisions cited by the learned counsel for the parties and, in particular, the decision of the Apex Court in Samarjit Ghosh's case (supra), this Court is of the firm view that section 17 of the Act, 1955 contemplates a seamless single scheme for recovery of amount due to a newspaper employee from any employer under the Act, 1955. The application by a newspaper employee is to be filed under sub-section (1) of section 17 of the Act, as per Rule 36 of Rules, 1957. That application can be filed before the State Government or such authority, as the State Government may specify in that behalf. Where there exists no dispute, the State Government or the authority, so specified, upon being satisfied that any amount is so due, shall issue a certificate for that amount to the Collector and the Collector would, thereafter, recover that amount as an arrear of land revenue. Where a question or dispute arises then a reference is to be made to the labour court for adjudication of the dispute. After adjudicating the dispute, the labour court has to forward its decision to the State Government or authority which made the reference, upon which the amount is to be recovered in the manner provided by sub-section (1) of the Act. Since Section 17, as a whole, creates a single seamless scheme, the State Government, in exercise of its power under sub-section (1) can specify an authority to do all acts which it has power to do under Section 17 of the Act.

31. In the State of Uttar Pradesh, the State Government, by notification dated 12th November, 2016, has delegated its powers to the Additional/Deputy/Assistant Labour Commissioners of the regions specified to dispose application made under section 17 of the Act, 1955. The notification does not limit the delegation to exercise of power contemplated by sub-section (1) of section 17. It is a broad delegation to exercise power to dispose application under Section 17. Once such power has been conferred upon the Additional/Deputy/Asst.

Labour Commissioner, in case of a dispute, the Deputy Labour Commissioner is also empowered to make a reference and such reference would be on behalf of the State Government as one contemplated by sub-section (2) of section 17 of the Act.

The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that there is a conscious omission of the words "such authority, as the State Government may specify in this behalf" in sub-section (2) of section 17 of the Act, 1955 and therefore it would be deemed that reference can be made only by the State Government and not by the specified authority cannot be accepted because when various parts of section 17 are read as a whole a single seamless scheme emerges. Even otherwise, the notification of the State Government delegates power to the authority specified to deal with applications under Section 17 which necessarily includes power to make reference under Section 17(2).

32. It may be observed that a reference under sub-section (2) of section 17 of the Act does not contemplate exercise of judicial/quasi-judicial power and therefore the power which vests in the State Government to make a reference can be delegated and, in fact, by the notification dated 12th November, 2014, the State Government has clearly delegated its power by specifying the authorities who are competent to dispose the applications contemplated by section 17 of the Act. In fact, reference on an application under sub-section (1) upon a question having arisen is a step-in-aid of final disposal of an application under section 17 (1) of the Act, 1955 and, therefore, by conferring power on the specified authority to dispose the application under Section 17, the State Government, by necessary implication, has conferred power to make a reference as well."

15. Thereafter, various media houses challenged the notification dated 12.11.2014 through various writ petitions which was decided by co-ordinate Bench of this Court on 08.07.2019, leading case being Hindustan Media Ventures Ltd. Jagatganj Varanasi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2020 (7) ADJ 555 wherein the Court held as under:-

"15. This Court is constrained to say most respectfully that the reasoning of his Lordship in paragraph 9 of the judgment in Jagran Prakashan Limited vs. State of Punjab and others (supra) is based on some mistaken reading of the U.P. Government Notification, inasmuch as, His Lordship there has held that the U.P. Notification has made a blanket law delegating powers of the Government under Section 17 of the Act to subordinate officers, without specifying whether the delegation is under sub-Section (1) or sub-Section (2) of Section 17. This reading of the U.P. Notification is contrary to the terms of the notification dated 12.11.2014, which clearly spells out that the delegation is under Section 17(1) of the Act. It is not a blanket delegation under Section 17 as held in Jagran Prakashan Limited vs. State of Punjab and others (supra).

16. This Court is afraid that if for a fact the basis of distinguishing the decision in Pradhan Prabandhak/ Unit Head M/s. Amar Ujala (supra), were factually correct, which it is not, the assistance sought to be derived by Sri Tripathi from the decision of the Punjab and Haryana High Court would have had more diminished prospects. But, it is not so. This Court has considered the reasoning adopted in Jagran Prakashan Limited vs. State of Punjab and others (supra) by the Punjab and Haryana High Court, and with greatest respect, for all that is said here and in the decision of this Court in Pradhan Prabandhak/ Unit Head M/s. Amar Ujala (supra), this Court is unable to agree."

16. Facts of leading Writ Petition No. 292 of 2024 are that each of respondents were entitled to get 35% variable pay along with basic wages. The contesting respondents had been being paid their basic wages along with variable pay till March, 2020. From 1st April 2020 to 28 February 2021, the petitioner had deducted substantial amount from 35% variable pay and in case of respondent no. 7, he was paid Rs.1187 instead of Rs.6965, short by Rs.5778. Thus, total shortfall was Rs.63,558. Similarly, respondent no. 8 was paid Rs.74,327/- short for the same period. Respondent no. 9 was paid Rs.63,558/- less, while respondent no. 10 was also paid Rs.63,558/- less. Respondent nos. 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 were paid short by Rs.74,327/-, Rs.74,327/-, Rs.1,47,106/-, Rs.74,327/- and Rs.57,805/-.

17. This led to filing of application under Section 17(1) of the Act 1955 before Assistant Labour Commissioner, Gautam Budh Nagar (Prescribed Authority under notification dated 12.11.2014). By order dated 07.12.2022, the Management was directed to pay the deducted amount of wages to respondents. The petitioner challenged the order by filing Writ-C No. 659 of 2023 (The Indian Express Pvt. Ltd. vs. Union of India and others) on the ground that Prescribed Authority under Section 17(1) could not decide the dispute and correct procedure was to make reference to Labour Court for adjudication of dispute. This Court on 21.02.2023 set aside the order dated 07.12.2022 and directed the Prescribed Authority to refer the dispute to Labour Court within two weeks. After remand the Prescribed Authority has referred the dispute to Labour Court on 10.03.2023 which is WJA Case No. 01/2023, 02/2023, 03/2023, 04/2023, 05/2023, 06/2023, 07/2023, 08/2023, 09/2023, 10/2023 and 11/2023 of the present writ petition and also by the reference order dated 10.03.2023 to Labour Court in all the other connected writ petitions wherein the reference order is under challenge.

18. In Writ Petition No. 292 of 2024, the Labour Court had passed the order on 10.11.2023 adjudicating the dispute and directing the petitioner to pay the wages due which was deducted along with 6% interest from the date due till the date of payment while in the other connected writ petitions only reference order dated 10.03.2023 passed by Assistant Labour Commissioner along with notification dated 12.11.2014 issued by State Government and order dated 22.05.2023 passed by Labour Court rejecting the application regarding jurisdiction of Labour Court is under challenge.

19. Sri Sunil Tripathi, learned counsel for petitioner submits that challenge through these bunch of writ petitions have been made on five grounds.

20. Firstly, the Assistant Labour Commissioner has no jurisdiction to refer a dispute raised by an individual workman for adjudication of dispute other than discharge, dismissal or termination. According to him, before 1965 all disputes were raised by Trade Union or with support of considerable number of workers. Section 2-A was for the first time inserted in Act of 1947 in the year 1965, and later on Section 2-A was also inserted in U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short 'U.P. Act') in the year 1978, whereby legal fiction was created for giving status of workman to working journalists who are not covered by definition of workman. As per Section 2-A dispute raised by individual workman shall be deemed as industrial dispute only when it is in regard to discharge, dismissal and termination. Under the Act 1955, there are two categories of employees (i) working journalists (ii) non-journalist newspaper employees. Working journalist in view of their duties are not covered under definition of "workman". By virtue of legal fiction under Section 3 of Act 1955, working journalists have been given limited right to raise disputes in individual capacity regarding discharge, dismissal and termination of service. Despite Section 2-A, working journalists have no right to raise any dispute in individual capacity for any matter not connected with discharge, dismissal and termination. As far as non-journalist newspaper employees are concerned, they are covered under definition of “workman”, limitation imposed by Section 2-A would apply in their case as it applies to working journalists. Non-journalist newspaper employees were not entitled to raise any industrial dispute before insertion of Section 2-A in the year 1978 in U.P. Act. Since 1978 they have been given right to raise industrial dispute in individual capacity only for discharge, dismissal and termination but have no right to raise dispute in individual capacity for any other matter.

21. Secondly, he urged that impugned award has been delivered without permission of appropriate Government for publishing the award. It was statutory obligation of Labour Court to first submit the award to State Government under Section 6(1). Under Section 6(4), Labour Court shall form an opinion whether the award can be published within 30 days as prescribed under Section 6(3). As per Section 6A(1), an award shall become enforceable on expiry of 30 days. As disputed question was referred under Section 17(2) for adjudication to Labour Court, any order passed under Section 17(2) is award and Labour Court is under statutory obligation to submit the award under Section 6(1) to State Government. Impugned award was declared without submitting the award to State Government for forming opinion under Section 6(4).

22. Thirdly, it was urged that Assistant Labour Commissioner has no jurisdiction to refer a disputed issue under Section 17(2) of the Act 1955. According to him, the section confers power of reference only upon the State Government. He then submitted that against the judgment rendered by co-ordinate Bench of this Court in case of Pradhan Prabandhank (supra), three Special Appeal Nos. 777 of 2019, 778 of 2019 and 779 of 2019 have been filed which are pending consideration.

23. Fourthly, it was contended that under Section 17(2) only State Government on its own motion or on the application made to it refer the question to Labour Court. According to him, use of impression “such authority, as the State Government may specify in this behalf” under Section 17(1) and absence of this expression in Section 17(2) is conscious omission and not casus omissus. According to him, respondents employees had filed application under Section 17(1) of the Act 1955 but they have not filed any application through Union or with support of considerable number of workers under Section 17(2) of the Act.

24. It was lastly contended that respondents employees filed application under Section 17(1) for claiming partial wages for 11 months from April, 2020 to February, 2021. According to him, the issue regarding payment of wages for COVID-19 period was challenged by several establishments before Hon’ble Apex Court. First petition was filed by Ficus Pax (P) Ltd. v. Union of India, (2020) 4 SCC 810, in which vires of notification dated 29.03.2020 was challenged. The Apex Court had passed an interim order.

25. Reliance has been placed upon decisions in cases of Bennett Coleman & Co. Ltd. v. State of Bihar, (2015) 11 SCC 204; Awaz Prakashan (P) Ltd. v. Pramod Kumar Pujari, (2003) 6 SCC 104; M/s. Jagran Prakashan Ltd. and another v. Labour Court and others, Writ-C No. 37024 of 2012, decided on 04.08.2020; Bharat Heavy Electricals Ltd. v. Anil, (2007) 1 SCC 610; P. Virudhachalam v. Lotus Mills, (1998) 1 SCC 650; Nelson Motis v. Union of India, (1992) 4 SCC 711; Singareni Collieries Co. Ltd. v. Vemuganti Ramakrishan Rao, (2013) 8 SCC 789; CBI v. Ramesh Gelli, (2016) 3 SCC 788 and Indore Development Authority v. Shailendra, (2018) 3 SCC 412.

26. Sri Man Mohan Singh, learned counsel appearing for workmen submitted that in petitioner establishment there are two categories of employees – (a) working journalist (b) non-journalist newspaper employees (administrative staff and factory staff). Respondent no. 13 belongs to category of working journalist while others are covered under non-journalist newspaper employees. According to him, petitioner has raised legal issues which have already been dealt with by this Court earlier through various pronouncements. The dispute raised as to reference by Assistant Labour Commissioner to Labour Court, it is submitted that Government had delegated the power by notification dated 12.11.2014. The notification was challenged in Hindustan Media Ventures (supra) and writ petition was dismissed on 08.07.2019, relying upon the decision rendered in case of Pradhan Prabandhank (supra).

27. Replying to the question that reference of individual workman is not covered under Section 2-A of the Act of 1947, he submitted that Act 1955 is a special Act, enacted specifically for regulating the services of a particular class of employees employed in newspaper establishment. The Act takes note of special feature of these categories of newspaper employees and takes care of their service condition, thus, special Act, in respect of journalist and non-journalist newspaper employees, and excludes general provisions of Industrial Disputes Act. Section 17 has been incorporated as a special remedy for recovery of wages or any other amount due to a working journalist and non-journalist newspaper employee from his employer individually. Reliance has been placed upon decision of Karnataka High Court in case of Samyuktha Karnataka vs. M.L. Satyanarayana Rao and another, 1986 LIC 626. Further, Section 16 provides that if provision of any other law is inconsistent with provisions of Act 1955, the Act 1955 shall have overriding effect. Section 3 is an enabling clause. It does not mean that in case if for specific purpose a provision already exist, it shall not be followed or the Act of 1947 shall prevail over the Act 1955.

28. Emphasis has been laid upon the words “employee himself, or any person” used in Section 17(1) which provides right to an individual employee to make an application before the State Government or such authority, in regard to wage or any amount due. Rule 36 and Form-C also provide for making only one application under Section 17(1) and no further application is provided under Section 17(2), thus, application made under Section 17(1) by an employee before Prescribed Authority shall make reference under Section 17(2) to the Labour Court.

29. Replying the question as to award having not sent for publication, learned counsel submitted that words used in Sub-section (3) of Section 17 are “decision of Labour Court” and not “award” which is used under the Act of 1947 and cognate statutes, hence, the same is not required for publication under the Act of 1947.

30. Reliance has been placed upon decisions in cases of Samarjit Ghosh v. Bennet Coleman and Co. and others, (1987) 3 SCC 507; The Management of Samyutha Karnataka v. M.L. Satyanarayana Rao and another, 1986 LIC 626, Rajan Sandhi P. v. Union of India & another, (2010) 10 SCC 338; Novttis India Ltd. v. State of West Bengal and others, 2004 (101) FLR 278; Smt. Shushila Sharma v. SH. Pawan Sharma, Writ Petition No. 18946 of 2006, decided on 17.01.2007; Sadhu Ram v. Delhi Transport Corporation, (1983) 4 SCC 165 and State of U.P. and others v. Committee of Management D.A.V. Inter College and another, 2009 (6) ADJ 243 (DB).

31. I have heard respective counsel for the parties and perused the material on record.

32. Some of the issues raised through these connected petitions have already been answered by this Court in case of Pradhan Prabandhank (supra) and Hindustan Media Ventures (supra). However, an attempt has been made from petitioner’s side to raise some additional issues along with decided issues for consideration of this Court.

33. Primarily, petitioner has tried to raise jurisdictional issue of reference by Prescribed Authority under notification dated 12.11.2014 to the Labour Court on the premise that it was incompetent to refer as the dispute does not deal with discharge, dismissal and termination of an employee.

34. In Pradhan Prabandhank (supra), this Court had already found that reference under sub-section (2) of Section 17 does not contemplate exercise of judicial/quasi-judicial power and, therefore, the power which vests in the State Government to make a reference can be delegated and, in fact, by notification dated 12.11.2014, the State Government had clearly delegated its power by specifying the authorities who are competent to dispose the applications contemplated by Section 17 of the Act.

35. The Court further found that reference on an application under sub-section (1) upon a question having arisen is a step-in-add of final disposal of an application under Section 17(1) of the Act 1955 and, therefore, by conferring power on the specified authority to dispose the application under Section 17, the State Government, by necessary implication, has conferred power to make a reference as well.

36. In Hindustan Media Ventures (supra), the challenge was laid to notification dated 12.11.2014, and the Court refused to quash the notification and relying upon the decision rendered in Pradhan Prabandhank (supra) upheld the notification.

37. Moreover, the Apex Court in Samarjit Ghosh (supra) found that all the provisions of Section 17, considered together constitute a single scheme. Relevant para 6 of the judgment is extracted hereasunder:-

“6. When all the provisions of Section 17 are considered together it is apparent that they constitute a single scheme. In simple terms the scheme is this. A newspaper employee, who claims that an amount due to him has not been paid by his employer, can apply to the State Government for recovery of the amount. If no dispute arises as to the amount due the Collector will recover the amount from the employer and pay it over to the newspaper employee. If a question arises as to the amount due, it is a question which arises on the application made by the newspaper employee, and the application having been made before the appropriate State Government it is that State Government which will call for an adjudication of the dispute by referring the question to a Labour Court. When the Labour Court has decided the question, it will forward its decision to the State Government which made the reference, and thereafter the State Government will direct that recovery proceedings shall be taken. In other words the State Government before whom the application for recovery is made is the State Government which will refer the question as to the amount due to a Labour Court, and the Labour Court upon reaching its decision will forward the decision to the State Government, which will then direct recovery of the amount.”

38. Rule 36 which finds place in Chapter VI of Working Journalists (Condition of Service) and Misc. Provisions Rules, 1957 provides for application under Section 17 of the Act which shall be made in Form ‘C’ to the Government of the State, where the Central Office or Branch Office of newspaper establishment in which the newspaper employee is employed, is situated.

39. Further, Form ‘C’ was inserted by G.S.R. 1320, dated 01.08.1963, which specifically mentions application under sub-section (1) of Section 17 of the Act 1955. Relevant Form ‘C’ is extracted hereasunder:-

“Form ‘C’

[See Rule 36]

Application under sub-section (1) of Section 17 of the Working Journalists (Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1955

To,

The Secretary to the Government of(here insert the name of the State Government).

Department of.....(here insert the name of the Department which deals with the labour matters).....(here insert the name of the place where the headquarters of the State Government are situated).

Sir,

I have to state that I Shri/Shrimati/Kumari..... son/ widow/ daughter of....., a working journalist, was entitled to receive from(here insert the name and address of the newspaper establishment) a sum of Rs..... on account of.....(here insert gratuity, wages, etc. as the case may be), payable under the Working Journalists (Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1955 (45 of 1955).

I further state that I was appointed by Shri by an instrument, dated, to receive the amount of the gratuity on behalf of Shri/Km

I further state that I served the said newspaper establishment with a demand notice by registered post on..... for the said amount which the said newspaper establishment has neither paid nor offered to pay to me even though 15 days have since lapsed. The details of the amount due are mentioned in the statement hereto annexed.

I request that the said sum may kindly be recovered from the said newspaper establishment under Section 17 of the said Act, and paid to me as early as possible.

*[I have been duly authorized in writing by(here insert the name of the newspaper employee) to make his application and to receive the payment of the aforesaid amount due to him.]

*[I am a member of the family of late.....(insert the name of the deceased newspaper employee), being his.....(here insert the relationship) and am entitled to receive the payment of the aforesaid amount due to late(here insert the name of the deceased newspaper employee).]

*To be struck out when the payment is claimed by the newspaper employee himself.

Station.....

... Signature of the applicant

Date.....

.... Address.....

ANNEXURE

[Here insert the details of the amount claimed]"

40. Under the Rules, there is no other form except Form 'C' which provides for making application under Section 17(1). Moreover, the entire scheme of Section 17 emphasises recovery of money due from an employer. Sub-section (1), (2) and (3) only categorise the stages. Sub-section (1) enumerates the condition when there is no dispute as to the amount, then on an application made by an employee himself or by any person authorised by him, or in case of his death, by any member of his family, the State on its satisfaction that amount is due recover the same through Collector. Sub-section (2) envisages a situation where question arises as to the amount, then on an application which has already been preferred under sub-section (1) of Section 17, the State Government refers the question to Labour Court for adjudication.

41. Once the Labour Court makes a decision, it forwards the same to State Government which made the reference and any amount found due by Labour Court is to be recovered in the manner provided in sub-section (1). All the three sub-sections of Section 17 are intertwined, and sub-section (1) and (2) only differentiate the method for arriving at the amount due from an employer to an employee. In case of sub-section (1) where there is no dispute to the amount, the same is recovered from employer by State machinery for the employee.

42. However, in case of any question arisen as to any amount due reference is to be made to Labour Court on the application which has already been preferred in Form 'C' before State Government under sub-section (1) of Section 17. Thus, from the reading of Section 17, it is abundantly clear that it constitutes a single scheme of recovery of money from employer.

43. The State Government while exercising its administrative power had delegated the same by notification dated 12.11.2014 specifying the authorities who are competent to dispose the applications contemplated by Section 17 of the Act 1955.

44. Section 3 of the Act 1955, under Chapter II is only an enabling provision which provides that Act of 1947, subject to modifications specified in sub-section (2), applied to, or in relation to, working journalists. The argument that after insertion of Section 2-A in the Act of 1947 in the year 1965 restricts a working journalist who is covered as a workman from raising an industrial dispute in an individual capacity except in case of discharge, dismissal and retrenchment is totally misplaced.

45. The Act of 1955 was enacted after a Press Commission, which was constituted by Government to inquire, among other things, into the conditions of employment of working journalists, had made certain recommendations for improvement and regulation of such service conditions by means of legislation.

46. By the amendment made in 1974 for other newspaper employees employed in newspaper establishment the Act was made applicable. In ABP (Private Ltd.) (supra), a challenge was laid to the Amendment Act, 1974. The Apex Court disallowed the same and held as under:-

“23. The petitioners herein have also challenged the vires of the Amendment Act, 1974 on the ground that extending the benefit of the Act to employees other than working journalists is against the object that was sought to be achieved by the original Act since the benefits to other newspaper employees has no rational nexus between the differentia and the object sought to be achieved. In this regard, as already discussed, the challenge as to the singling out of the newspaper industry per se was rejected by the Constitution Bench in Express Newspaper (P) Ltd. [Express Newspaper (P) Ltd. v. Union of India, AIR 1958 SC 578 : 1959 SCR 12] and the newspaper industry was held to be a class by itself. All that the 1974 Amendment did was to only bring the other employees of the newspaper industry (i.e. non-working journalists) into the ambit of the Act and extend the benefits of the Act to them. Thus, the same is also covered as per the reasoning of the Constitution Bench decision of this Court. Therefore, the challenge as to the Amendment Act, 1974 stands disallowed.”

47. Thus, the Act of 1955 is only an enabling provision for improving and regulating the service conditions of newspaper employees which includes both working journalists and non-journalist newspaper employees.

48. The argument raised by Sri Tripathi that Assistant Labour Commissioner had no jurisdiction to refer dispute raised by an individual workman except in case of discharge, dismissal or termination is thoroughly misplaced. The Act of 1947 only supplements the cause of working journalists, but in no way it restricts in reaping the benefits provided under the Act 1955, especially under Section 17, which is a scheme of recovering of dues of an employee from its employer.

49. Now coming to another issue that decision rendered by Labour Court post reference is whether an award or simplicitor a decision. The word employed in sub-section (3) of Section 17 is 'decision' and not 'award'. The word 'award' has been defined both under the Central Act of 1947 and the State Act of 1947 in Section 2(b) and 2(c), but does not find place under the Act of 1955.

50. Under the Central Industrial Disputes Act when reference is made under Section 10 to a Labour Court or Tribunal, it makes an award. Similarly, under the State Industrial Disputes Act, when a reference is made under Section 4-k, the Labour Court or the Tribunal, as the case may be, makes an award. However, the scheme of Section 17 of the Act 1955 in sub-section (3) provides for decision of a Labour Court and not an award.

51. Thus, no question arises for treating the decision as an award and making publication. The decision rendered by Labour Court is forwarded to State Government which had made the reference for recovery in the manner provided under sub-section (1) of Section 17. Thus, the entire scheme of Section 17 is only for the recovery of money due from an employer and not beyond that. The issue regarding absence of impression "such authority, as State Government may specify in this behalf" in sub-section (2) of Section 17 is a conscious omission has already been dealt with in case of Pradhan Prabandhank (supra) and needs no more further adjudication.

52. Much emphasis has been placed by Sri Tripathi upon the decision of Apex Court rendered in case of Ficus Pax (P) Ltd. (supra), wherein a challenge was laid to order dated 29.03.2020 issued by Government of India in exercise of power of Section 10(2)(l) of Disaster Management Act, 2005. The Apex Court as an interim measure provided that any settlement entered into between the employers and employees in the establishments which are before them the same was to be acted upon by employers and workers irrespective of order dated 29.03.2020. However, petitioner was not before the Apex Court nor had challenged the order of Central Government. Relevant part of the order of Apex Court is extracted hereunder:-

"41. We thus direct the following interim measures which can be availed by all the private establishments, industries, factories and workers trade unions/employees associations, etc. which may be facilitated by the State authorities:

41.1. The private establishments, industries, employers who are willing to enter into negotiation and settlement with the workers/employees regarding payment of wages for 50 days or for any other period as applicable in any particular State during which their industrial establishment was closed down due to lockdown, may initiate a process of negotiation with their employees' organisation and enter into a settlement with them and if they are unable to settle by themselves submit a request to the Labour Authorities concerned who are entrusted with the obligation under the different statute to conciliate the dispute between the parties who on receiving such request, may call the employees trade union/workers association/workers concerned to appear on a date for negotiation, conciliation and settlement. In the event a settlement is arrived at, that may be acted upon by the employers and workers irrespective of the Order dated 29-3-2020 issued by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs.

41.2. Those employers' establishments, industries, factories which were working during the lockdown period although not to their capacity can also take steps as indicated in Direction 41.1.

41.3. The private establishments, industries, factories shall permit the workers/employees to work in their establishment who are willing to work which may be without prejudice to rights of the workers/employees regarding unpaid wages of above 50 days. The private establishments, factories who proceed to take steps as per Directions 41.1 and 41.2 shall publicise and communicate about their such steps to workers and employees for their response/participation. The settlement, if any, as indicated above shall be without prejudice to the rights of employers and employees which is pending adjudication in these writ petitions.

41.4. The Central Government, all the States/UTs through their Ministry of Labour shall circulate and publicise this order for the benefit of all private establishments, employers, factories and workers/employees.

42. In event, any settlement is entered into between the employers and employees in the establishments which are before us, an affidavit giving details shall be filed by next date of hearing."

53. Moreover, reliance placed upon various decisions by petitioner is distinguishable in the present set of case and are not applicable.

54. Thus, considering the facts and circumstances of this Case, I find that notification dated 12.11.2014 issued by State Government specifying the officers mentioned in Column II to be authorities competent to dispose applications under Section 17 of the Act 1955 has already been upheld by this Court in Hindustan Media Ventures (supra), and the power of reference to Labour Court having also been upheld in case of Pradhan Prabandhank (supra), no interference is required in the writ petition as far as the challenge having been laid to the notification as well as the reference order.

55. Moreover, it was on the writ petition filed by petitioner being Writ Petition No. 659 of 2023, decided on 21.02.2023 by co-ordinate Bench of this Court that the matter was referred by Prescribed Authority to Labour Court. The order was never challenged by petitioner and it became final. No challenge can be made to the reference order after the decision as rendered above.

56. The Labour Court had rightly rejected the application questioning the jurisdiction on the ground that the matter had already been settled by decision of the Court dated 21.02.2023 rendered in Writ Petition No. 659 of 2023.

57. Further, I find that petitioner has only challenged the decision of Labour Court on technical grounds, such as, competence of reference, power to issue notification and non-publication of the award.

58. All the points raised above have already been dealt with by this Court. No challenge has been laid, as to the finding recorded by Labour Court on the decision taken for paying the short variable pay to the various employees of the establishment. Once it is an accepted fact that the employer had paid less wages to the employees, the application made under Section 17 was rightly allowed by Labour Court and sent to authorities mentioned in sub-section (1) of Section 17 for recovery of the amount so quantified.

59. In view of said fact, as there is no challenge on merit to the findings recorded by Labour Court for short payment of wages made to the employees, the order passed on 10.11.2023 which has been assailed in Writ Petition No. 292 of 2024 warrants no interference by this Court.

60. All the writ petitions fail and are hereby dismissed.

61. However, no order as to costs.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1364

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Writ -C No. 1067 of 2024

Mariya Zameel & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Sri Vijay Kumar Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

Civil Law - Constitution of India, 1950- Article 26-The petitioners an interfaith couple, claimed to have solemnized their marriage according to Arya Samaj rituals and alleged interference and threats from a family member(Respondent no.4)-The State argued that their marriage is not valid under the Hindu Marriage Act, as the Muslim petitioner did not convert, violating the Uttar Pradesh Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act,2021-Held, petitioners failed to follow the mandatory provisions of the Act,2021-the court emphasized the right to personal liberty and choice but noted these rights are subject to statutory restrictions.(Para 1 to 21)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Lata Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr.. (2006) 5 SCC 475
2. Shafin Jahan Vs Asokan K.M. & ors. (2018) 16 SCC 368
3. Nandkumar & anr. Vs St. of Ker.(2018) 16 SCC 620
4. Kamini Devi Vs St. of U.P. Writ. C No. 11108 of 2020
5. Razia & anr. Vs St. of U.P. Writ C No. 27338 of 2023
6. Kiran Rawat & anr.. Vs St. of U.P.
7. D.Velusamy Vs D.Patchajammal (2010) 10 SCC 469
8. Indra Sarma Vs V.K.V. Sharma (2013) 15 SCC 755
9. Asha Devi & anr. Vs State of U.P. & ors. Writ C No. 18743 of 2020
10. A Subhash Babu Vs St. of A.P.
11. Shayara Bano Vs U.O.I.
12. Lily Thomas & anr. Vs U.O.I. & ors.
13. Dir. of Settlement, A.P. Vs M.R. Apparao
14. Kalyan Singh Vs St.of U.P. (1962)AIR SC 1183

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vijay Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Yogesh Kumar, learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. The present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution has been preferred by the petitioners with the following prayers:

" (i) Issue a writ order or direction in the nature of mandamus commending the respondents not to harass/torture/illegally arrest the petitioners or to interfere or create hindrance in the peaceful living of the petitioners as living husband and wife and to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners.

(ii) Issue a writ order or direction in the nature of mandamus as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper under the facts and circumstances of the case.

(iii) Award the cost of the writ petition to the petitioners."

3. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that both the petitioners have attained the age of majority. As per high school certificate-cum-marks sheet the date of birth of petitioner No.1-Mariya Zameel Urf Riya is 25.12.1999 and she is aged about more than 24 years and as per pan card the date of birth of the petitioner No.2-Mihir Pandey is 04.03.2000 and he is aged about more than 23 years. It is submitted that both the petitioners are major and they developed love affair and solemnized their marriage on 01.01.2024, as per Rituals of Arya Samaj. Copy of marriage certificate issued by Arya Samaj is annexed as annexure no.5 to the petition. They have applied on-line for registration of their marriage before the competent authority, which is pending. Copy of on-line application for registration of marriage is annexed as annexure no.6 to the petition. Learned counsel for the petitioners has averred in the writ petition that they are living as wife and husband and their relationship is not relished and agreed by private respondent no.4 and he is interfering in their marital life. The petitioners apprehend danger to the life and liberty from respondent No.4, therefore, the indulgence of this Court is sought. Petitioner No.1 has also moved an application before the Senior Superintendent of Police, Varanasi on 17.01.2024 by registered post, seeking protection for herself and petitioner No.2 from respondent No.4, but no action has been taken by police authorities in the matter. Copy of application dated 17.01.2024 is annexed as annexure no.1 to the supplementary affidavit dated 29.01.2024. Therefore, present petition moved by the petitioners for issuance of mandamus against respondent no.4.

4. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel submitted that both the petitioners are different religion and either of the parties have not applied for conversion of their religion, as per sections 8 & 9 of Conversion Act. The Muslim women cannot solemnized her marriage with Hindu man as per the rituals of Arya Samaj, in Hindu Marriage Act. Hence opposed the prayer of petition.

5. I have heard the rival submissions of learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

6. From the perusal of record it transpires that both the petitioners have attained the age of majority. As per high school certificate-cum-marks sheet the date of birth of petitioner No.1-Mariya Zameel Urf Riya is 25.12.1999 and she is aged about more than 24 years and as per pan card the date of birth of the petitioner No.2-Mihir Pandey is 04.03.2000 and he is aged about more than 23 years. Both the petitioners are major and they developed love affair and solemnized their marriage on 01.01.2024, as per Rituals of Arya Samaj. They have applied on-line for registration of their marriage before the competent authority, which is pending.

8. Reliance has been placed on the judgment passed by Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in case of Razia and Anr. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors. passed in Writ-C No. 27338 of 2023, in which Co-ordinate Bench of this Court relying upon various judgment granted protection to the couple living in live-in-relationship. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that in this case also one of the party is muslim by faith and in the identical situation, the court has granted protection. Opposing the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Chief Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State relied upon the case law passed by Division Bench in case of Kiran Rawat and Anr. Vs. State of U.P. passed in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 3310 of 2023. From the perusal of both the cases, it is apparent that the judgment of Kiran Rawat (supra) is mentioned by the Single Bench decision of this Court in case of Razia (supra) but the ruling is not discussed on merits in that case nor the ruling is distinguished on facts, hence, the ruling has no application on the present case. Reliance has also been placed by petitioners upon the judgement of the Apex Court in Lata Singh Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and Anr. reported in (2006) 5 SCC 475, whereby Hon'ble the Apex Court has held as under:-

"17. The caste system is a curse on the nation and the sooner it is destroyed the better. In fact, it is dividing the nation at a time when we have to be united to face the challenges before the nation unitedly. Hence, inter-caste marriages are in fact in the national interest as they will result in destroying the caste system. However, disturbing news are coming from several parts of the country that young men and women who undergo inter-caste marriage, are threatened with violence, or violence is actually committed on them. In our opinion, such acts of violence or threats or harassment are wholly illegal and those who commit them must be severely punished. This is a free and democratic country, and once a person becomes a major he or she can marry whosoever he/she likes. If the parents of the boy or girl do not approve of such inter-caste or inter-religious marriage the maximum they can do is that they can cut off social relations with the son or the daughter, but they cannot give threats or commit or instigate acts of violence and cannot harass the person who undergoes such inter-caste or inter-religious marriage. We, therefore, direct that the administration/police authorities throughout the country will see to it that if any boy or girl who is a major undergoes inter-caste or inter-religious marriage with a woman or man who is a major, the couple are not harassed by any one nor subjected to threats or acts of violence, and any one who gives such threats or harasses or commits acts of violence either himself or at his instigation, is taken to task by instituting criminal proceedings by the police against such persons and further stern action is taken against such persons as provided by law. We sometimes hear of 'honour' killings of such persons who undergo inter-caste or inter-religious marriage of their own free will. There is nothing honourable in such killings, and in fact they are nothing but barbaric and shameful acts of murder committed by brutal, feudal minded persons who deserve harsh punishment. Only in this way can we stamp out such acts of barbarism."

9. In Shafin Jahan Vs. Asokan K.M. and Ors. reported in (2018) 16 SCC 368, the Apex Court emphasized due importance to the right of choice of an adult person, which the Constitution accords to an adult person. Hon'ble the Apex Court held as under :-

"52. It is obligatory to state here that expression of choice in accord with law is acceptance of individual identity. Curtailment of that expression and the ultimate action emanating therefrom on the conceptual structuralism of obeisance to the societal will destroy the individualistic entity of a person. The social values and morals have their space but they are not above the constitutionally guaranteed freedom. The said freedom is both a constitutional and a human right. Deprivation of that freedom which is ingrained in choice on the plea of faith is impermissible. Faith of a person is intrinsic to his/he meaningful existence. To have the freedom of faith is essential to his/her autonomy; and it strengthens the core norms of the Constitution. Choosing a faith is the substratum of individuality and sans it, the right of choice becomes a shadow. It has to be remembered that the realisation of a right is more important than the conferment of the right. Such actualisation indeed ostracises any kind of societal notoriety and keeps at bay the patriarchal supremacy. It is so because the individualistic faith and expression of choice are fundamental for the fructification of the right. Thus, we would like to call it indispensable preliminary condition"

10. Both these cases guarantee the fundamental right of choice of an adult person while marrying with inter-faith persons. The said freedom is both a constitutional and human right and no-one is allowed to deprive all such freedom from any human being.

11. In the case of D.Velusamy Vs. D. Patchajammal reported in (2010) 10 SCC 469, Hon'ble Apex Court while considering the definitions given under Section 2 of the Domestic Violence Act dealt with the definition of "domestic relationship", as a relationship in the nature of marriage. It laid down the following requisite criteria in the relationship in the nature of marriage:-

"(a) The couple must hold themselves out to society as being akin to spouses.

(b) They must be of legal age to marry.

(c) They must be otherwise qualified to enter into a legal marriage, including being unmarried.

(d) They must have voluntarily cohabited and held themselves out to the world as being akin to spouses for a significant period of time."

12. In the case of Asha Devi and Another vs. State of U.P. and Others passed in Writ (C) No.18743 of 2020, the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court formulated two questions as under:-

"(i) Whether the petitioners, who claim themselves to be living together as husband and wife; can be granted protection when the petitioner No.1 is legally wedded wife of someone else and has not taken divorce so far ?

(ii) Whether protection to petitioners as husband and wife or as live-in-relationship can be granted in exercise of powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, when their living together may constitute offences under Sections 494/495 I.P.C. ?"

13. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "D. Velusamy Vs. D. Patchaiammal", in which the Hon'ble Apex court held that:-

"32. In our opinion not all live in relationships will amount to a relationship in the nature of marriage to get the benefit of the Act of 2005. To get such benefit the conditions mentioned by us above must be satisfied, and this has to be proved by evidence.

If a man has a 'keep' whom he maintains financially and uses mainly for sexual purpose and/or as a servant it would not, in our opinion, be a relationship in the nature of marriage'."

(Emphasis supplied)

14. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), the Division Bench of this Court on the basis of various judgments of High Court held that following relationship are not recognized or approved as live-in-relationship:-

"(a) Concubine can not maintain relationship in the nature of marriage vide paras 57 & 59 of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Indra Sarma Vs. V. K. V. Sarma.

(b) Polygamy, that is a relationship or practice of having more than one wife or husband at the same time, or a relationship by way of a bigamous marriage that is marrying someone while already married to another and/or maintaining an adulterous relationship that is having voluntary sexual intercourse between a married person who is not one's husband or wife, cannot be said to be a relationship in the nature of marriage vide para 58 of judgment in Indra Sarma's Case (supra) & A Subhash Babu Vs. state of A.P.4 (paras 17 to 21, 27, 28 & 29). Polygamy is also a criminal offence under Section 494 & 495 I.P.C., vide Shayara Bano Vs. Union of India 5 (paras 299.3).

(c) Till a decree of divorce is passed the marriage subsist. Any other marriage during the subsistence of the first marriage would constitute an offence under Section 494 I.P.C. read with Section 17 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and the person, inspite of his conversion to some other religion would be liable to be prosecuted for the offence of bigamy, vide Lily Thomas and another Vs. Union of India and others6 (Para 35). In para 38 of the aforesaid judgment, Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as under:-

"38. Religion is a matter of faith stemming from the depth of the heart and mind. Religion is a belief which binds the spiritual nature of man to a super-natural being; it is an object of conscientious devotion, faith and pietism. Devotion in its fullest sense is a consecration and denotes an act of worship. Faith in the strict sense constitutes firm reliance on the truth of religious doctrines in every system of religion. Religion, faith or devotion are not easily interchangeable. If the person feigns to have adopted another religion just for some worldly gain or benefit, it would be religious bigotry. Looked at from this angle, a person who mockingly adopts another religion where plurality of marriage is permitted so as to renounce the previous marriage and desert the wife, he cannot be permitted to take advantage of his exploitation as religion is not a commodity to be exploited. The institution of marriage under every personal law is a sacred institution. Under Hindu Law, Marriage is a sacrament. Both have to be preserved."

(Emphasis supplied)

(d) If both the persons are otherwise not qualified to enter into a legal marriage including being unmarried, vide D Velusamy Vs. D Patchaiammal (supra) (para 31)."

15. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has also discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Director of Settlement, A.P. Vs. M.R. Apparao, in which the Hon'ble Apex court has considered the High Court's power for issuance of mandamus and held as under:-

"17. One of the conditions for exercising power under Article 226 for issuance of a mandamus is that the Court must come to the conclusion that the aggrieved person has a legal right, which entitles him to any of the rights and that such right has been infringed. In other words, existence of a legal right of a citizen and performance of any corresponding legal duty by the State or any public authority, could be enforced by issuance of a writ of mandamus. "Mandamus" means a command. It differs from the writs of prohibition or certiorari in its demand for some activity on the part of the body or person to whom it is addressed. Mandamus is a command issued to direct any person, corporation, inferior Courts or Government, requiring him or them to do some particular thing therein specified which appertains to his or their office and is in the nature of a public duty. A mandamus is available against any public authority including administrative and local bodies, and it would lie to any person who is under a duty imposed by statute or by the common law to do a particular act.

In order to obtain a writ or order in the nature of mandamus, the applicant has to satisfy that he has a legal right to the performance of a legal duty by the party against whom the mandamus is sought and such right must be subsisting on the date of the petition."

16. In the relationship of marriage or in the nature of live-in-relationship there must be two consenting adults human beings. The concept of Gotra, Caste and Religion is left a way back. No one has right to interfere in the personal liberty of two adults, not even the parents to two adults can interfere in their relationship, but, the Right to Freedom or Right to Personal Liberty is not an absolute or unfettered right, it is qualified by some restrictions also. The freedom of one person extincts where the statutory right of another person starts, hence, the freedom of one person cannot encroach or overweigh the legal right of another person. If the petitioners are already married and had their spouse alive, he/she cannot be permitted to enter into live-in-relationship with third person without seeking divorce from the earlier spouse. He/she first has to obtain the decree of divorce from the court of competent jurisdiction before solemnizing marriage of entering into live-in-relationship out of their legal marriage.

17. It is pertinent to mention here that The Uttar Pradesh Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act, 2021 (in brevity 'the Act') has come into force on 05.03.2021, thereafter it is made mandatory for interfaith couples to seek conversion according to the provisions of the Act. In the case at hand, admittedly, none of the petitioners has moved application for conversion of religion in accordance with

Section 8 and 9 of the Act. Explanation to Section 3(1) of the Act reads as follows:-

"3(1) No person shall convert or attempt to convert, either directly or otherwise, any other person from one religion to another by use or practice of misrepresentation, force, undue influence, coercion, allurement or by any fraudulent means. No person shall abet, convince or conspire such conversion.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this sub-section conversion by solemnization of marriage or relationship in the nature of marriage on account of factors enumerated in this sub-section shall be deemed included."

18. Explanation goes to show that conversion is not only required for the purpose of marriage, but it is also required in all relationship in the nature of marriage, therefore, Conversion Act applies to relationship in the nature of marriage or live-in-relationship. Petitioners have not yet applied for conversion as per provisions of Section 8 and 9 of the Act, hence, the relationship of petitioners cannot be protected in contraventions of the provisions of law.

19. Certainly, the Courts have power to interpret the provisions of law if there is ambiguity in the provisions of law, but, the above mentioned law is explicit which mandates that conversion is required not only in cases of inter-caste marriages but relationship in the nature of marriage, hence, Courts should refrain from embarking upon the interpretation of law in any sense when the law is very explicit.

20. While applying the principles laid down in various pronouncements by Hon'ble the Apex Court, it gives guidelines to the fact that couple must be of legal age to marry and qualified to enter into legal marriage including being unmarried and they must be akin to spouse for significant period of time. No proof of joint account, financial security, joint property or joint expenditure is produced before this Court. Petitioners have not applied for conversion so far. Till date, no F.I.R. has been lodged by the parents of any of the petitioner, therefore, there is no challenge to the relationship of petitioners.

21. In view of the discussions as above, it is not considered desirable that relationship of the petitioners be protected in contravention of the statutory provisions of law passed by legislature, hence, petition has no force and is liable to be dismissed and is dismissed accordingly.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1370
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 24.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ -C No. 1782 of 2024

Shahnawaz Ali ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Vipul Shukla

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Gaurav Mehrotra, Nirankar Singh

The Uttar Pradesh High Courts Amalgamation Order, 1948-Clause 14-Petitioner has filed as many as four Writ Petitions at Allahabad- two of which are still pending- root cause for filing all the writ petitions is a challenge to the Caste Certificate issued to the petitioner-all the writ petitions have been filed challenging various orders- all of which essentially emanate from the same root cause-present writ petition filed challenging the validity of three orders- two of which were passed at places falling within the exclusive territorial jurisdiction sitting at Allahabad-third order has been passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee at Lucknow- which falls within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Allahabad-it would not be proper for this Court sitting at Lucknow to entertain the 5th Writ Petition filed by the petitioner at Lucknow during pendency of two earlier writ petitions filed by him at Allahabad- Clause 14 of Order, 1948 -provides that the Chief Justice may in his discretion order that any case or class of cases arising in the said areas shall be heard at Allahabad. matter be placed before the Hon'ble Chief Justice. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Prem Prakash Yadav versus Union of India, (162) ALR 628, (2024) 1 UPLBEC 119

2. Kusum Ingots & Alloys Ltd. v. Union of India, (2004) 6 SCC 254

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi J.)

1. Heard Shri Sanjay Bhasin Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Vipul Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Kuldeep Pati Tripathi, learned counsel for the Additional Advocate General assisted by Shri Vivek Kumar Shukla, Additional Chief Standing Counsel for respondent Nos.1 to 5, Shri Gaurav Mehrotra and Shri Nirankar Singh, learned counsel appearing for the respondent No.6.

2. By means of the instant petition filed under Article 226 of Constitution of India, the petitioner has made following main prayer:-

“To issue a writ order or direction in the nature of Certiorari quashing the order dated 14.02.2024 passed by State Level Caste Certificate Verification Committee, Department of Social Welfare, Government of Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow - Respondent No.2, order dated 15.07.2023 passed by Divisional Appellate Forum for Caste Certificate Verification Committee, Saharanpur Division, Saharanpur Respondent No.3 and the order dated 09.06.2023 passed by District Level Caste Certificate Verification Committee, District Muzaffarnagar Respondent No.4, which said orders are morefully annexed as Annexure No.1, Annexure No.2 and Annexure No.3 respectively to the Writ Petition.”

3. On the last date of hearing, a preliminary objection was raised that earlier the petitioner has filed as many as four petitions before this Court sitting at Allahabad and prayer made in this Writ Petition is for quashing of three orders- (i) order dated 09.06.2023 passed by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, Muzaffarnagar, (ii) order dated 15.07.2023 passed by Divisional Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, Saharanpur and (iii) order dated 14.02.2023 passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee. The first two orders have been passed at Muzaffarnagar, and Saharanpur, both of which fall outside the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Lucknow. Although the third order dated 14.02.2022 has been passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, which falls within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Lucknow, as two of the orders have been passed within the limits of territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Allahabad and earlier the petitioner has filed as many as four writ petitions at Allahabad, two of which are still pending, it would not be proper for this Court sitting at Lucknow to entertain this writ petition and the petitioner should file this writ petition also at Allahabad.

4. Replying to the aforesaid preliminary objection, Shri Sanjay Bhasin Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has submitted that the first writ petition bearing Writ-C No.20676 of 2023 was filed by the petitioner with the following main prayers:-

“(i) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the stay the effect and operation of order dated 9.6.2023 passed by the District Level Caste Scrutiny Committee till the disposal of the stay application filed by the petitioner in appeal dated 14.6.2023.

(ii) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the Regional Level Caste Scrutiny Committee/appellate authority to decide the petitioner’s stay application dated 14.6.2023 (Annexure 16 to the writ petition).

(iii) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the Regional Level Caste Scrutiny Committee to sent the matter to the vigilance sell for verification of petitioners caste certificate as per the provision contained in government order dated 05.01.1996.”

5. Writ-C No.20676 of 2023 was disposed of by means of an order dated 22.06.2023 passed by a Division Bench of this Court sitting at Allahabad directing the Appellate Authority to decide the stay application of the petitioner within a week’s time.

6. Thereafter, the petitioner filed Writ C No.23754 of 2023 challenging the validity of a show cause notice dated 05.07.2023 issued by the Additional District Magistrate (Administration), Muzaffarnagar requiring the petitioner to show cause as to why he should not be removed from the office of Chairman of Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli, District Muzaffarnagar on the ground that the aforesaid office was reserved for persons belonging to Other Backward Classes and the petitioner had wrongly obtained a certificate that he belong to Kalal caste whereas the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee has found in its order dated 09.06.2023 that the petitioner does not belong to the aforesaid backward caste and he belongs to a general caste. Consequent to the order dated 09.06.2023 passed by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, the Tehsildar, Khatauli had passed an order dated 12.06.2023 cancelling the Caste Certificate of the petitioner.

7. Taking into consideration the fact that the Caste Certificate of the petitioner certifying that he belong to a backward caste Kalal had already been cancelled by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee and an appeal filed against the order of the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee was pending before the Divisional Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, the writ petition was disposed of expressing the expectation that the Appellate Authority will comply with the order dated 22.06.2023 passed in Writ-C No.20676 of 2023.

8. Thereafter the respondent No.6 Krishna Pal filed Election Petition No.5 of 2023 before the Election Tribunal/District

Judge, Muzaffarnagar challenging election of the petitioner to the post of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli and a notice of the election petition was issued to the petitioner. The petitioner then filed Writ-C No.27653 of 2023 before this Court sitting at Allahabad, in which an interim order dated 19.10.2023 was passed staying further proceedings of Election Petition. The aforesaid writ petition is still pending.

9. Meanwhile, the State Government initiated proceedings under Section 48 of Nagar Palika Adhiniyam, 1916 for removal of the petitioner from the office of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli on the ground that he was not qualified to be elected as an Other Backward Class candidate and the administrative and financial powers of the petitioner as Chairman of Nagar Palika Parishad were seized. The petitioner challenged this order by filing Writ-C No.44898 of 2023 mainly on the ground that the issue of the petitioner's Caste Certificate was sub judice before the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee and it was otherwise not a consideration germane for the proceedings to be initiated under Section 48 of the Act.

10. It was further contended on behalf of the petitioner that the Election Petition was the only course by which his election could be challenged and an Election Petition had already been filed and it had been stayed by the High Court. An interim order was passed in the aforesaid writ petition on 16.01.2024 staying the effect and operation of the impugned order dated 08/11.03.2023. That writ petition is also pending consideration before this High Court sitting at Allahabad.

11. Submission of the learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner is that the subject of all the four writ petitions was separate and distinct from the subject matter of this writ petition, which is the order dated 14.02.2024 passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee. He has further submitted that in furtherance of an order passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee, a vigilance inquiry was conducted by the Vigilance Cell at Lucknow and the report was submitted in favour of the petitioner on 11.12.2023. The State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee has passed the impugned order against the findings of the Vigilance report. He has further submitted that the entire proceedings of State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee was conducted at Lucknow and an order was also passed at Lucknow and, therefore, the subject matter of this Writ petition falls within the exclusive jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Lucknow.

12. I have considered the submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the parties. What appears from the material available on record at this stage is that the petitioner was elected as Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Kjhatauli, District Muzaffarnagar, which was a seat reserved for a candidate belonging to OBC (Other Backward Class). The petitioner, on the strength of a Caste Certificate issued by Tehsildar, Khatauli, claimed himself to be belonging to Kalal Caste, which falls within the category 'Other Backward Class'. The respondent Nos. 6 and 7 raised a challenge against the petitioner's claim of belonging to Kalal caste and they contended that he belongs to 'Sheikh' Caste. The matter was examined by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee at Muzaffarnagar, which passed an order dated 09.06.2023 holding that the petitioner belongs to Sheikh caste and he does not belonged to Kalal Backward Caste. This order was passed at Muzaffarnagar, which falls within the exclusive territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Allahabad. The petitioner filed an appeal against the aforesaid order dated 09.06.2023 passed by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee before the Divisional Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee at Saharanpur. During pendency of his appeal, he filed Writ Petition No.20676 of 2023 referred to above, inter alia seeking a direction to the Divisional Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee for deciding his stay application. This writ petition was disposed off by means of an order dated 22.06.2023 passed by a Division Bench of this Court sitting at Allahabad.

13. Consequent to the order dated 09.06.2023 passed by the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee Muzaffarnagar, Tehsildar Khatauli passed an order dated 12.06.2023 cancelling the Caste Certificate of the petitioner and thereafter a notice was issued to the petitioner to show cause as to why he should not be removed from the office of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad Khatauli, Muzaffarnagar on the ground that the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee has found that he does not belong to Kalal Backward Caste and Tehsildar Khatauli had cancelled his Cast Certificate by means of an order dated 12.06.2023. The petitioner then filed Writ-C No.23754 of 2023 before this Court at Allahabad, which was disposed off by a Division bench by expressing an expectation that the Appellate Authority will comply with the order dated 22.06.2023 passed in Writ C No.20676 of 2023.

14. The respondent No.6 filed an Election Petition before the Election Tribunal/District Judge, Muzaffarnagar challenging election of the petitioner to the post of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli on the ground that the aforesaid post was reserved for candidates belonging to OBC category and the District Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee having recorded a finding in its order dated 09.06.2023 that the petitioner does not belong to Kalal caste and his caste certificate having been cancelled by the Tehsildar in furtherance of the aforesaid order, the petitioner's election to the office of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli, which was reserved for candidates belonging to OBC category, is liable to be set aside. The petitioner then filed Writ-C No.27653 of 2023 challenging proceeding of the Election Petition and this Court sitting at Allahabad has passed an interim order dated 19.10.2023 staying the proceedings of the election petition. That writ petition is pending before this Court sitting at Allahabad.

15. Meanwhile, proceedings for removal of the petitioner from the Office of Chairman, Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli have been initiated under section 48 of U.P. Municipalities Act, 1916 and the petitioner has filed yet another Writ-C No.44898 of 2023. The effect and operation of the order dated 08/11.12.2023 whereby the administrative and financial powers of the petitioner as Chairman of Nagar Palika Parishad, Khatauli have been seized, has been stayed by a Division Bench of this Court sitting at Allahabad, the aforesaid writ petition is also pending consideration before this Court sitting at Allahabad.

16. The relevant portion of the Article 226 of the Constitution of India provides as follows:—

“226. Power of High Courts to issue certain writs:—

(i) Notwithstanding anything in Article 32 every High Court shall have powers, throughout the territories in relation to which it exercise jurisdiction, to issue to any person or authority, including in appropriate cases, any Government, within those territories directions, orders or writs, including writs in the nature of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibitions, quo warranto and certiorari, or any of them, for the enforcement of any of the rights conferred by Part III and for any other purpose

(ii) The power conferred by clause (1) to issue directions, orders or writs to any Government, authority or person may also be exercised by any High Court exercising jurisdiction in relation to the territories within which the cause of action, wholly or in part, arises for the exercise of such power, notwithstanding that the seat of such Government or authority or the residence of such person is not within those territories

(iii).....”

(Emphasis added)

17. A bare perusal of Article 226 of the Constitution of India makes it manifest that it confers power upon every High Court to issue directions, orders or writs throughout the territories in relation to which it exercises jurisdiction. Clause (2) of the Article 226 of the Constitution of India further provides that the power to issue directions, orders or writs may be exercised by any High Court exercising jurisdiction in relation to the territory within which the cause of action wholly or in part arises for exercise of such power. As the Writ Petition inter alia seeks quashing of the order dated 14.02.2024 passed by State Level Caste Certificate Verification Committee, Department of Social Welfare, Government of Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow, undisputedly a part of cause of action for filing this Writ Petition has accrued within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Lucknow and, therefore, this Court sitting at Lucknow has jurisdiction to entertain the Writ Petition and the Writ Petition is maintainable here.

18. However, here the question involved is not of maintainability of the Writ Petition at Lucknow as a part of cause of action has undoubtedly accrued within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court at sitting Lucknow, the question is of propriety of this Court exercising its discretion to entertain the Writ Petition here, when the root cause for filing the Writ Petition accrued within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Allahabad and the petitioner has already filed as many as four Writ Petitions mentioned above at Allahabad, two of which are still pending.

19. In Kusum Ingots & Alloys Ltd. v. Union of India, (2004) 6 SCC 254, the Hon’ble Supreme Court laid down that:

-

“Forum conveniens

30. We must, however, remind ourselves that even if a small part of cause of action arises within the territorial jurisdiction of the High Court, the same by itself may not be considered to be a determinative factor compelling the High Court to decide the matter on merit. In appropriate cases, the Court may refuse to exercise its discretionary jurisdiction by invoking the doctrine of forum conveniens. [See Bhagat Singh Bugga v. Dewan Jagbir Sawhney [AIR 1941 Cal 670 : ILR (1941) 1 Cal 490] , Madanlal Jalan v. Madanlal [(1945) 49 CWN 357 : AIR 1949 Cal 495] , Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. v. Jharia Talkies & Cold Storage (P) Ltd. [1997 CWN 122] ,S.S. Jain & Co. v. Union of India [(1994) 1 CHN 445] and New Horizons Ltd. v. Union of India [AIR 1994 Del 126] .]

20. Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned counsel appearing for the respondent No.6 has placed before this Court a judgment passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Prem Prakash Yadav versus Union of India, (162) ALR 628 = (2024) 1 UPLBEC 119. That Writ Petition was filed before this Court sitting at Lucknow challenging validity of a Government Order dated 26.02.2014, whereby approval was given to revise rates for conversion of Nazul property into freehold. The petitioner had also challenged a notification dated 04.03.2014 issued by the State Government. A further prayer made was for protecting the petitioner's possession over House No.23, Stanley Road, Allahabad. A preliminary objection was raised against maintainability of the writ petition at Lucknow on the ground that the petitioner had earlier filed a writ petition at Allahabad praying for a writ of mandamus commanding the respondents to execute a sale deed in favour of the petitioner in respect of the aforesaid property, which writ petition was disposed off by means of an order dated 19.02.2009. The petitioner then filed another Writ-C No.15798 of 2010 at Allahabad praying essentially for the same relief regarding the same property. The third writ petition was filed at Lucknow with respect to the same property. In the aforesaid factual background a Division Bench of this court held in Prem Prakash Yadav(Supra) that:-

“9. No doubt petitioner is master of his petitions. In case jurisdiction partially falls at Lucknow in appropriate case a petition can be filed at Lucknow also. But in the present matter earlier repeatedly petitioner chose to file petitions at Allahabad and some of them are pending at Allahabad. The said fact ought to have been disclosed by the petitioner in the very first paragraph of his writ petition. The same was not done. Even otherwise, the unique position with regard to Allahabad High Court is that under Clause 14 of United Provinces High Court (Amalgamation) Order, 1948 the petitions can be transferred by the Chief Justice while sitting at Lucknow to Allahabad but same can neither be transferred by him from Allahabad to Lucknow nor any Court can summon them. The matters at Allahabad can only be heard at Allahabad. Therefore, in the given circumstances, this Court can not summon the records from Allahabad. It creates a unique difficulty. Thus, in this peculiar situation it is necessary that once petitioner chooses between Lucknow or Allahabad for filing his petitions the same is a judicial discipline and ought to be followed in later petitions, if any filed. In absence of the same it becomes difficult for Courts at Allahabad and Lucknow, to have all the matters together and decide the same. Petitioner in garb of his power to chose forum can not cause inconvenience to Court and keep list pending unnecessary in bifurcated manner.

10. This type of disputes are frequently occurring before this Court. The difficulty faced by the Court, in the aforesaid circumstances, where a case cannot be transferred from Allahabad to Lucknow while they can be transferred from Lucknow to Allahabad only when Chief Justice of High Court sitting at Lucknow passes an order under Clause 14 of the United Provinces High Court (Amalgamation) Order, 1948, creates unnecessary hurdle in disposal of cases, if jurisdiction is changed from one place to another by the parties to the dispute. It needs to be solved.

11. Merely because petitioner has a right to file writ petition before any Court of their choice either at Allahabad or Lucknow, it does not give them a kangaroo right to hop around jurisdiction on whims. It is not only his convenience, which is to be looked into, but convenience of all related is also relevant, including that of Court. Facts of this case are a glaring example of the same. The difficulty being faced by this Court is created by petitioner only.

12. A party has a choice to invoke jurisdiction of this Court either at Allahabad or at Lucknow and once they have exercised the said choice, parties should restrict themselves to their initial choice of forum while filing later petitions. Hopping around forums would be highly inconvenient to the working of the Court as in the present case. Once petitioner chooses a jurisdiction, out of many available, in normal course, he should stick with the same, unless he can provide cogent reasons for his hopping around. In the present case the petitioner has not provided any such reasons.”

21. When we examine the facts of the present case in light of law laid down in the aforesaid cases, it appears that the root cause for filing all the writ petitions is a challenge to the Caste Certificate issued to the petitioner. All the writ petitions have been filed challenging various orders, all of which essentially emanate from the same root cause. Two writ petitions filed by the petitioner at Allahabad stand disposed of and two other writ petitions filed by him are still pending before this Court at Allahabad. The present writ petition has been filed challenging the validity of three orders, two of which were passed at places falling within the exclusive territorial jurisdiction sitting at Allahabad. Although, the third order has been passed by the State Level Caste Certificate Scrutiny Committee at Lucknow, which falls within the territorial jurisdiction of this Court sitting at Allahabad, when the root cause for filing all the writ petitions is the same and the petitioner has already filed four writ petitions before this Court sitting at Allahabad, two of which are still pending, it would not be proper for this Court setting at Lucknow to entertain the 5th Writ Petition filed by the petitioner at Lucknow during pendency of two earlier writ petitions filed by him at Allahabad.

22. At this stage, Shri Sanjay Bhasin, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner has submitted that as counter affidavit and rejoinder affidavit in the present case have already been filed and the matter is ripe for final hearing and this plea was not raised in the counter affidavit, it would not be proper for this Court to refuse to hear the writ petition finally on the ground of the writ petition not being entertainable before this Court sitting at Lucknow.

23. The mere filing of a counter affidavit would not affect the demand of judicial propriety on the part of this Court sitting at Lucknow to refrain from hearing a writ petition while two earlier writ petitions filed by the petitioner essentially arising out of the same root cause are pending before this Court sitting at Allahabad.

24. The learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner lastly submitted that instead of dismissing the writ petition and giving a liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh petition at Allahabad, this Court should transmit the record of the present case to Allahabad for being decided there since the pleadings have been exchanged by the parties. None of the learned Counsel raised any objection against this submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioner.

25. Clause 14 of the Uttar Pradesh High Courts Amalgamation Order, 1948 inter alia provides that the Chief Justice may in his discretion order that any case or class of cases arising in the said areas shall be heard at Allahabad.

26. Accordingly, this request of the learned Counsel for the petitioner is accepted. Let the matter be placed before the Hon'ble Chief Justice for passing appropriate order for transfer of this Writ Petition to this Court sitting at Allahabad in terms of Clause 14 of the Amalgamation Order.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1378
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 12.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Writ -C No. 1969 of 2024

Faujiya Bano & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Sri Dharmendra Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 498 & 504-Petitioners sought protection from Respondent No.4, claiming threats and interference in their marriage-Petitioner no.1 was previously married to Respondent no.4 under muslim rites, with two children born out of that union-Respondent no. 4 allegedly issued a triple talaq and ousted her in 2019-In 2023, Petitioner no.1 remarried petitioner no.2, also under muslim rites, without obtaining a legal divorce from Respondent no. 4 and this marriage was registered-Respondent no. 4 contested the validity of Petitioner no.1's second marriage, arguing that no formal decree of divorce was obtained-A police report was lodged against Petitioner no. 2 for enticing petitioner no.1 and her child-Held, second marriage entered into without obtaining a formal decree of divorce from the first spouse is invalid, even under muslim personal law-The petitioner(a muslim woman) failed to produce evidence of a valid divorce(triple talaq or khula) from her first husband-Hence, the petitioners first marriage had not been legally dissolved,the second marriage could not be granted protection, as it violated sections 494 and 495 IPC-The court declined to issue a writ of mandamus to protect the petitioner's relationship.(Para 1 to 16)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. D.Velusamy Vs D.Patchajammal (2010) 10 SCC 469

2. Asha Devi & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. Writ C No. 18743 of 2020

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. Instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution has been filed by the petitioners with prayer for issuing writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding/directing the respondent nos. 2 and 3 to secure the security of life and property of the petitioners from the respondent No.4.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, Mr. Ashwani Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for State respondents and perused the record.

3. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that both the petitioners are major and are of marriageable age and profess the same religion. It is further submitted that petitioner No.1 is legally wedded wife of respondent No.4 and she belong to Muslim community. The date of birth of petitioner No. 1 is 01.02.1997 and the date of birth of petitioner no. 2 is 01.01.1995, in support thereof the petitioner No.1 has brought on record copy Birth Certificate and petitioner No.2 has brought on record copy of Adhar Card respectively which are annexed as Annexure No. 2 to the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition. It is submitted that petitioner No. 1 solemnized marriage with respondent No.4 according to Muslim Rites and Rituals. Thereafter, one daughter and one son was born out of wedlock of petitioner No.1 and 4. It is further submitted that respondent No.4 started illegal demand of money which was not fulfilled by parents of petitioner No.1, thereafter, in April 2019, respondent No. 4 gave Triple Talaq to petitioner No.1 and ousted the petitioner No.1 from his house. After four years of the Khula Talaq to the petitioner No.1, she solemnized her marriage with petitioner No.2 according to Muslim Rites and Rituals. It is contended that after solemnization of their marriage, petitioners applied for registration of their marriage before the Marriage Registration Officer, under the provision of the Marriage Registration Rules, 2017 and their marriage was registered on 10.01.2023 and copy of the marriage registration certificate is annexed as Annexure No.3 to the petition. It is further contended that after solemnization of the marriage of the petitioners, respondent No.4 started threatening and interfering in the matrimonial life of petitioner No.1. Being aggrieved with the alleged threatening, petitioner No. 1 moved an application through registered post to the Inspector Incharge of Police Station-Ghoorpur, District-Prayagraj, however, no protection was provided to the petitioners, hence, it is prayed to issue an order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing respondents not to interfere in the peaceful marriage life of the petitioners and to secure the personal life and liberty of the petitioners from respondent No. 4. and his associates.

4. Learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State submitted that petitioner No.1 has not obtained decree of divorce from her previous husband and NCR No. 123/2023 under Section 498, 504 I.P.C., police station-Ghoorpur, Prayagraj has also been lodged by respondent No.4 against petitioner No.2 which is still pending, hence, protection cannot be granted to the petitioner and opposed the prayer of the petitioners.

5. In view of the order proposed to be passed, there is no need to issue notice to private respondent. With the consent of learned counsel appearing for the parties, this writ petition is being disposed of finally at this stage in terms of the Rules of the Court.

6. I have heard the rival submissions advanced on behalf of the parties and perused the entire materials brought on record.

7. Perusal of the record reveals that date of birth of petitioner No.1 is 01.02.1997 as per her Birth Certificate, and date of birth of petitioner No.2 as per his Adhar Card is 01.01.1995 and both the petitioners are major. Petitioners have solemnized their marriage on 12.10.2023 according to Muslim Rites and Rituals and their marriage has been registered by the marriage registration office concerned, however, no decree of divorce of petitioner No.1 and respondent No.4 is brought on record, apparently, petitioner No.1 solemnized marriage with petitioner No.2 without obtaining any decree of divorce from the concerned Court.

8. In the case of D.Velusamy Vs. D. Patchajammal reported in (2010) 10 SCC 469, Hon'ble Apex Court while considering the definitions given under Section 2 of the Domestic Violence Act dealt with the definition of "domestic relationship", as a relationship in the nature of marriage. It laid down the following requisite criteria in the relationship in the nature of marriage:-

"(a) The couple must hold themselves out to society as being akin to spouses.

(b) They must be of legal age to marry.

(c) They must be otherwise qualified to enter into a legal marriage, including being unmarried.

(d) They must have voluntarily cohabited and held themselves out to the world as being akin to spouses for a significant period of time."

9. In the case of Asha Devi and Another vs. State of U.P. and Others passed in Writ (C) No.18743 of 2020, the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court formulated two questions as under:-

"(i) Whether the petitioners, who claim themselves to be living together as husband and wife; can be granted protection when the petitioner No.1 is legally wedded wife of someone else and has not taken divorce sofar ?

(ii) Whether protection to petitioners as husband and wife or as live-in-relationship can be granted in exercise of powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, when their living together may constitute offences under Sections 494/495 I.P.C. ?"

10. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "D. Velusamy Vs. D. Patchaiammal", in which the Hon'ble Apex court held that:-

"32. In our opinion not all live in relationships will amount to a relationship in the nature of marriage to get the benefit of the Act of 2005. To get such benefit the conditions mentioned by us above must be satisfied, and this has to be proved by evidence.

If a man has a 'keep' whom he maintains financially and uses mainly for sexual purpose and/or as a servant it would not, in our opinion, be a relationship in the nature of marriage'."

(Emphasis supplied)

10. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), the Division Bench of this Court on the basis of various judgments of High Court held that following relationship are not recognized or approved as live-in-relationship:-

"(a) Concubine can not maintain relationship in the nature of marriage vide paras 57 & 59 of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Indra Sarma Vs. V. K. V. Sarma.

(b) Polygamy, that is a relationship or practice of having more than one wife or husband at the same time, or a relationship by way of a bigamous marriage that is marrying someone while already married to another and/or maintaining an adulterous relationship that is having voluntary sexual intercourse between a married person who is not one's husband or wife, cannot be said to be a relationship in the nature of marriage vide para 58 of judgment in Indra Sarma's Case (supra) & A Subhash Babu Vs. state of A.P.4 (paras 17 to 21, 27, 28 & 29). Polygamy is also a criminal offence under Section 494 & 495 I.P.C., vide Shayara Bano Vs. Union of India 5 (paras 299.3).

(c) Till a decree of divorce is passed the marriage subsist. Any other marriage during the subsistence of the first marriage would constitute an offence under Section 494 I.P.C. read with Section 17 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.....

(d) If both the persons are otherwise not qualified to enter into a legal marriage including being unmarried, vide D Velusamy Vs. D Patchaiammal (supra) (para 31)."

11. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has also discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Director of Settlement, A.P. Vs. M.R.

Apparao, in which the Hon'ble Apex court has considered the High Court's power for issuance of mandamus and held as under:-

"17. One of the conditions for exercising power under Article 226 for issuance of a mandamus is that the Court must come to the conclusion that the aggrieved person has a legal right, which entitles him to any of the rights and that such right has been infringed. In other words, existence of a legal right of a citizen and performance of any corresponding legal duty by the State or any public authority, could be enforced by issuance of a writ of mandamus. "Mandamus" means a command. It differs from the writs of prohibition or certiorari in its demand for some activity on the part of the body or person to whom it is addressed. Mandamus is a command issued to direct any person, corporation, inferior Courts or Government, requiring him or them to do some particular thing therein specified which appertains to his or their office and is in the nature of a public duty. A mandamus is available against any public authority including administrative and local bodies, and it would lie to any person who is under a duty imposed by statute or by the common law to do a particular act. In order to obtain a writ or order in the nature of mandamus, the applicant has to satisfy that he has a legal right to the performance of a legal duty by the party against whom the mandamus is sought and such right must be subsisting on the date of the petition."

12. In the relationship of marriage or in the nature of live-in-relationship there must be two consenting adults human beings. The concept of Gotra, Caste and Religion is left a way back. No one has right to interfere in the personal liberty of two adults, not even the parents to two adults can interfere in their relationship, but, the Right to Freedom or Right to Personal Liberty is not an absolute or unfettered right, it is qualified by some reasonable restrictions also. The freedom of one person extincts where the statutory right of another person starts. Spouse have statutory right to enjoy the company of his or her counterpart and he/she cannot be deprived of that right for the sake of personal liberty and no such protection can be granted to infringe statutory right of another spouse, hence, the freedom of one person cannot encroach or overweigh the legal right of another person. If the petitioners are already married and had their spouse alive, he/she cannot be permitted to enter into live-in-relationship with third person without seeking divorce from the earlier spouse. He/she first has to obtain the decree of divorce from the court of competent jurisdiction before solemnizing marriage of entering into live-in-relationship out of their legal marriage.

13. In the instant case, both the parties are Muslims by faith and marriage of petitioner No.1 was first solemnized with respondent No.4 according to Muslim Rites and Rituals and one son and one daughter was also born out of the wedlock of petitioner No.1 and respondent No.4. It is alleged that respondent No. 4 used to beat petitioner No.1 and after giving Triple Talaq to petitioner No.1, ousted her from his house along with their minor son. Thereafter, she came to her paternal house along with minor son. Petitioner No.1 gave Khula Talaq to respondent No. 4 in the year 2019 and since then she was resident at her paternal house. After four years of the alleged divorce petitioner No.1 solemnized marriage with petitioner No.2, despite being legally wedded to respondent No.4.

Furthermore, an N.C.R. has also been lodged by respondent No. 4 against petitioner No.2 under Section 498, 504 I.P.C., police station-Ghoorpur, Prayagraj alleging therein that on 09.10.2023 at about 10:30 AM, petitioner No.2 enticed away petitioner No.1 along with his minor son of three years on the pretext of marriage.

14. The pleadings of the petition does not disclose the date of divorce either by Triple Talaq or by way of Khula Talaq. Petitioner No.1 did not disclose the date on which she returned to her paternal house with her minor son. It is relevant to quote hereinbelow the Section 2 of The Dissolution Of Muslim Marriages Act, 1939, which deals with the grounds for decree for dissolution of marriage:-

" 2. Grounds for decree for dissolution of marriage. A woman married under Muslim law shall be entitle to obtain a decree for the dissolution of her marriage on any one or more of the following grounds, namely: ??

(i) that the whereabouts of the husband have not been known for a period of four years;

(ii) that the husband has neglected or has failed to provide for her maintenance for a period of two years;

(iii) that the husband has been sentenced to imprisonment for a period of seven years or upwards;

(iv) that the husband has failed to perform, without reasonable cause, his marital obligations for a period of three years;

(v) that the husband was impotent at the time of the marriage and continues to be so;

(vi) that the husband has been insane for a period of two years or is suffering from a virulent venereal disease;

(vii) that she, having been given in marriage by her father or other guardian before she attained the age of fifteen years, repudiated the marriage before attaining the age of eighteen years

: Provided that the marriage has not been consummated;

(viii) that the husband treats her with cruelty, that is to say, ?

(a) habitually assaults her or makes her life miserable by cruelty of conduct even if such conduct does not amount to physical ill-treat

(b) associates with women of evil repute or leads an infamous life, or

(c) attempts to force her to lead an immoral life, or

(d) disposes of her property or prevents her exercising her legal rights over it, or

(e) obstructs her in the observance of her religious profession or practice, or

(f) if he has more wives than one, does not treat her equitably in accordance with the injunctions of the Qoran;

(ix) on any other ground which is recognized as valid for the dissolution of marriages under muslim law :

Provided that ?

(a) no decree shall be passed on ground (iii) until the sentence has become final;

(b) a decree passed on ground (i) shall not take effect for a period of six months from the date of such decree, and if the husband appears either in person or through an authorized agent within that period and satisfies the Court that he is prepared to perform his conjugal duties, the Court shall set aside the said decree;

and

(c) before passing a decree on ground (v) the Court shall, on application by the husband, make an order requiring the husband to satisfy the Court within a period of one year from the date of such order that he has ceased to be impotent, and if the husband so satisfies the Court within such period, no decree shall be passed on the said ground"

15. While applying the principles laid down in various pronouncements by Hon'ble the Apex Court, it gives guidelines to the fact that couple must be of legal age to marry and qualified to enter into legal marriage including being unmarried and they must be akin to spouse for significant period of time. Petitioner No.1 could have applied for dissolution of her previous marriage on the ground mentioned in the Dissolution Of Muslim Marriages Act, 1939, however, she chose to solemnize another marriage from another person. Petitioner No.1 is still legally wedded wife of respondent No.4 and she has not obtained any decree of divorce.

16. In view of the discussions as above, it is not considered desirable that relationship of the petitioners be protected in contravention of the statutory provisions of law passed by legislature, hence, petition has no force and is liable to be dismissed and is dismissed accordingly.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1383
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 12.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ -C No. 2214 of 2024

Hem Kant

State of U.P. & Ors.

Versus

...Petitioner

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Vipul Shukla

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C.

Caste certificate-Where a public functionary - is required to perform a public function within a time frame-same will be held to be directory unless the consequences are specified-time provided is merely directory - appeal is not decided within the prescribed time- remedy of approaching High Court for obtaining suitable direction -but merely because the appeal is not decided within the time prescribed- no further appeal can be preferred to the higher authority as has been done in the present case- District Level Committee shall consider and decide the same expeditiously.

Petition disposed. (E-9)List of Cases cited:

1. Kumari Madhuri Patil and another Vs. Additional Commissioner, Tribal Development and others (1994) 6 SCC 241

2. C. Bright v. Distt. Collector, (2021) 2 SCC 392

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vipul Shukla, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Standing counsel on behalf of the respondents.

2. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is a B.Sc. graduate and after his graduation applied for his caste certificate through online portal vide application No.211470030073241 before the Tehsildar, Tehsil Sadar, Firozabad on 21.5.2021. It has been submitted that the said application was rejected by means of order dated 25.5.2021.

3. Being aggrieved by the order of the Tehsildar the petitioner filed an application before District Level Caste Scrutiny Verification Committee on 16.6.2021. It is stated that the said application was filed in terms of the Government Order dated 28.2.2011 where it is provided that the said verification of the caste be done within fifteen days. The petitioner waited for fifteen days and on expiry of the said period as the application was not decided he approached the Divisional Level Caste Verification Committee vide application dated 21.7.2021. It is submitted that as per the Government Order dated 27.1.2011 clause 5 provides for thirty days? time to decide the application preferred against the order of District Level Caste Verification Committee but it is stated that despite expiry of a period of one month the application was not decided by Divisional Level committee. After waiting for two months the petitioner approached the State Level Caste Verification Committee by filing application on 30.9.2021. It is submitted that as per the Government Order dated 5.1.1996 under sub clause 5 of of clause 6 two months? time has been provided to the State Level to decide application. It is further submitted that even after expiry of two months? time no order was passed by the State Level Caste Verification and in these circumstances the petitioner has approached this Court by filing writ petition bearing Writ A No.875 of 2024 which was disposed of vide order dated 6.2.2024 directing the State Level Caste Verification Committee to decide the application of the petitioner within a period of ten days from the date a certified copy of the is submitted to them. It is in compliance of the order of this Court passed in Writ A No.875 of 2024 that the State Level Committee has rejected the appeal of the petitioner on the ground that the said appeal is not in accordance with the rules in as much as there is no decision taken by the District Level Committee against which the application has been filed and, therefore, held that such an application was not maintainable.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner while assailing the impugned order dated 14.2.2024 has submitted that the time period prescribed in various government orders which have been passed in pursuance of the judgment and order of Supreme Court in the case of Kumari Madhuri Patil and another Vs. Additional Commissioner, Tribal Development and others (1994) 6 SCC 241 is mandatory and once the time period has expired and no decision is passed on the application preferred by the aggrieved person then he will have the right of approaching higher forum and accordingly submits that the State Level Committee should have dealt with the case of the petitioner on merits. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that during pendency of the appeal before the State Level Committee a vigilance report was also obtained as per the direction of the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Madhuri Patil (supra) and the said report was submitted on 28.4.2022. It is further submitted that once Vigilance Cell report was brought on record the matter ought to have been decided on merits and accordingly remanding the matter back to the District Level Committee by means of the impugned order is illegal and arbitrary and requires interference.

5. Learned Standing counsel, on the other hand, has opposed the writ petition. It has been submitted that the appeal preferred by the petitioner has neither been decided by the District Level Committee nor by the Divisional Level Committee and without waiting for the decision of the authorities the petitioner has rushed and filed his appeal before the State Level Committee. He submits that appeals can be considered only once there is an order in existence which can be affirmed or set aside by the appellate authority and in absence of any order by the District Level Committee or by the Divisional Level Committee the appeal preferred by the petitioner before State Level Committee was a mere empty formality. It is further stated that though time period has been prescribed by various Government Orders for completion of the proceedings of the application/appeal before the District Level Committee or Divisional Level Committee as well as State Level Committee is directory. He submits that there is no explanation provided in the said Government Order as to whether on expiry of the said time period prescribed for deciding the said appeal an aggrieved person should wait or directly approach higher forum without waiting for the decision of the appeal.

6. It is further submitted that by the State Level Committee a Vigilance Cell report was obtained but when the matter of the petitioner was examined on merits it was found that orders have yet not been passed by the District Level or Divisional Level Committees and in the facts and circumstances of the case the appeal preferred before the State Level Committee was not maintainable and it has rightly been rejected. Before the District Level and Divisional Committees the appeal of the petitioner is still pending.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner does not dispute the objection raised by counsel for the respondents on facts but on the other hand submits that the petitioner has applied for the post of Revenue Lekhpal conducted by U.P. Subordinate Services Selection Commission, Lucknow and as the petitioner claims to be belonging to reserved category he has to upload caste certificate it is necessary for him to obtain caste certificate and upload the same within the time prescribed so that his case can be considered against reserved quota of post. He submits that the petitioner has already cleared both the stages of examination and has got provisional selection in the final merit list /result which was declared on 30.12.2023 by U.P. S.S.S. Commission and now the petitioner has been directed to appear before the Selection Commission on 7.2.2024 for verification of academic and other related documents.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it was, therefore, necessary for the petitioner to produce his certificate with regard to his caste before the Selection Commission and before the said date and if he is unable to produce the said certificate he will have no option except to give up the post. He further submits that there is no fault of the petitioner but merely on account of delay in deciding the appeal of the petitioner he will be made to suffer.

9. In these circumstances, this Court has also considered the observations of Supreme Court in the case of Kumari Madhuri Patil (Supra) on the aspect of delay in deciding the applications/appeals by the various Caste Scrutiny Committees wherein in para 13 (10) it has been held as under:-

"In case of any delay in finalising the proceedings, and in the meanwhile the last date for admission into an educational institution or appointment to an officer post, is getting expired, the candidate be admitted by the Principal or such other authority competent in that behalf or appointed on the basis of the social status certificate already issued or an affidavit duly sworn by the parent/guardian/candidate before the competent officer or non- official and such admission or appointment should be only provisional, subject to the result of the inquiry by the Scrutiny Committee."

10. Merely on account of the delay by the State in taking decision the opportunity which has come to the petitioner in the form of selection for the post of Revenue Lekhpal should not be lost and accordingly the petitioner is at liberty to move application before Uttar Pradesh State Services Selection Commission in light of the observations made by the Supreme Court provided for in para 10 of the said judgment.

11. The next issue which arises for consideration is the maintainability of applications/appeals before the next higher forums in case the application/appeal is not decided within the time prescribed in various Government Orders. Here, it would be pertinent to refer to the case of C. Bright v. Distt. Collector, (2021) 2 SCC 392, where Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed as under:

"9. The question as to whether, a time-limit fixed for a public officer to perform a public duty is directory or mandatory has been examined earlier by the courts as well. A question arose before the Privy Council in respect of irregularities in the preliminary proceedings for constituting a jury panel. The Municipality was expected to revise the list of qualified persons but the jury was drawn from the old list as the Sheriff neglected to revise the same. It was in these circumstances, the decision of the jury drawn from the old list became the subject-matter of consideration by the Privy Council. It was thus held that it would cause greater public inconvenience if it were held that neglecting to observe the provisions of the statute made the verdicts of all juries taken from the list ipso facto null and void so that no jury trials could be held until a duly revised list had been prepared [Montreal Street Railway Co. v. Normandin, 1917 SCC OnLine PC 3 : AIR 1917 PC 142] .

10. The Constitution Bench of this Court held that when the provisions of a statute relate to the performance of a public duty and the case is such that to hold acts done in neglect of this duty as null and void, would cause serious general inconvenience or injustice to persons who have no control over those entrusted with the duty, the practice of the courts should be to hold such provisions as directory [Dattatraya Moreshwar Pangarkar v. State of Bombay, (1952) 1 SCC 372 : AIR 1952 SC 181 : 1952 Cri LJ 955] . In a seven-Bench judgment, this Court was considering as to whether the power of the Returning Officer to reject ballot papers is mandatory or directory. The Court examined well-recognised rules of construction to observe that a statute should be construed as directory if it relates to the performance of public duties, or if the conditions prescribed therein have to be performed by persons other than those on whom the right is conferred [Hari Vishnu Kamath v. Syed Ahmad Ishaque, AIR 1955 SC 233] .

11. In a judgment reported as Remington Rand of India Ltd. v. Workmen [Remington Rand of India Ltd. v. Workmen, AIR 1968 SC 224] , Section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 came up for consideration. The argument raised was that the time-limit of 30 days of publication of award by the Labour Court is mandatory. This Court held that though Section 17 is mandatory, the time-limit to publish the award within 30 days is directory inter alia for the reason that the non-publication of the award within the period of thirty days does not entail any penalty.

12. In T.V. Usman v. Food Inspector, Tellicherry Municipality [T.V. Usman v. Food Inspector, Tellicherry Municipality, (1994) 1 SCC 754 : 1994 SCC (Cri) 187] , the time period during which report of the analysis of a sample under Rule 7(3) of the Prevention of Food Adulteration Rules, 1955 was to be given, was held to be directory as there was no time-limit prescribed within which the prosecution had to be instituted. When there was no such limit prescribed then there was no valid reason for holding the period of 45 days as mandatory. Of course, that does not mean that the Public Analyst can ignore the time-limit prescribed under the Rules. He must in all cases try to comply with the time-limit. But if there is some delay, in a given case, there is no reason to hold that the very report is void and, on that basis, to hold that even prosecution cannot be launched.

13. This Court distinguished between failure of an individual to act in a given time-frame and the time-frame provided to a public authority, for the purposes of determining whether a provision was mandatory or directory, when this Court held that it is a well-settled principle that if an act is required to be performed by a private person within a specified time, the same would ordinarily be mandatory but when a public functionary is required to perform a public function within a time-frame, the same will be held to be directory unless the consequences therefor are specified [Nasiruddin v. Sita Ram Agarwal, (2003) 2 SCC 577] .

14. In P.T. Rajan v. T.P.M. Sahir [P.T. Rajan v. T.P.M. Sahir, (2003) 8 SCC 498] , this Court examined the effect of non-publication of final electoral rolls before the time of acceptance of nomination papers. The Court held as under : (SCC p. 516, para 48)

“48. Furthermore, even if the statute specifies a time for publication of the electoral roll, the same by itself could not have been held to be mandatory. Such a provision would be directory in nature. It is a well-settled principle of law that where a statutory functionary is asked to perform a statutory duty within the time prescribed therefor, the same would be directory and not mandatory. (See Shiveshwar Prasad Sinha v. District Magistrate [Shiveshwar Prasad Sinha v. District Magistrate, 1965 SCC OnLine Pat 43 : AIR 1966 Pat 144 : ILR 45 Pat 436] , Nomita Chowdhury v. State of W.B. [Nomita Chowdhury v. State of W.B., 1999 SCC OnLine Cal 235 : (1999) 2 Cal LJ 21] and Garbari Union Coop. Agricultural Credit Society Ltd. v. Swapan Kumar Jana [Garbari Union Coop. Agricultural Credit Society Ltd. v. Swapan Kumar Jana, 1996 SCC OnLine Cal 209 : (1997) 1 CHN 189] .)”

12. A perusal of the above renditions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court would put the issue out of the ambit of any confusion, that where a public functionary is required to perform a public function within a time frame, the same will be held to be directory unless the consequences are specified. The relevant Government Orders do not provide for any consequences in case the applications/appeals are not decided within the time frame. In these circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that the time provided in various government orders constituting District Level, Divisional Level and State Level Committees is merely directory and in case appeal is not decided within the prescribed time the petitioner has remedy of approaching High Court by filing a writ petition for obtaining suitable direction to the concerned committee to decide the matter expeditiously but merely because the appeal is not decided within the time prescribed no further appeal can be preferred to the higher authority as has been done in the present case. An appeal would only be maintainable against a decision of a committee and in absence of any decision no further application/appeal can be preferred. An appeal is a challenge to an order and in absence of any order the appeal would be an empty formality and even otherwise the appellate authority does not decide any issue on merits at the first instance but merely looks into validity of the order passed by the subordinate authority.

13. In light of the above, this Court does not find any infirmity in the impugned order.

14. Considering the fact that the matter has been referred to the District Level Committee, it is expected that the District Level Committee shall consider and decide the same expeditiously and while deciding the application of the petitioner it shall take due note of the Vigilance Cell report which has been obtained by State Level Committee and will consider the case of the petitioner.

15. It is also noticed that the observations of Supreme Court has already been incorporated in Government Order dated 5.1.1996 where opportunity has been given to the applicants to move appropriate application before the Selection Commission in case there is any delay in taking decision taken by the Committees.

16. Considering that the appeal preferred by the petitioner is pending for substantially long length of time, the District Level Committee shall make all endeavour to conclude the proceedings within a period of three weeks from the date a certified copy of this order is produced before him in accordance with law and communicate the decision to the petitioner.

17. With aforesaid observations and directions the petition stands disposed of.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1389
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 19.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ -C No. 2288 of 2024

Indradev ...Petitioner
Versus
Shri Umesh Singh & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sharad Pathak, Lalita Prasad Misra

Counsel for the Respondents:
 Ashok Kumar Srivastava, Arun Kumar Singh Parihar, Avinash Srivastava, B/R0135, Raj Kumar Upadhyaya(R.K. Upadhyaya), Sudeep Srivastava

Election Petition-Opposite party no.1 had filed the election petition -was a candidate in the election held for the post of member of Zila Panchayat- alleged in the election petition that serious irregularities were committed in preparation of the voters list- District Judge has committed a patent error of law in holding that the election petition was not a regular Civil Suit- and it has to be decided keeping in view the principles of natural justice only- Election of a returned candidate can only be set aside on the proof of illegalities affecting the purity of election-it cannot be interfered lightly remanded to for passing appropriate orders for preparation of a correct calculation sheet-impugned judgment quashed.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi J.)

1. Heard Sri Sharad Pathak, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri R.K.Upadhyaya, learned counsel for the opposite party no.1, Sri Ashok Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the opposite party no.10 and Sri Sudeep Srivastava, learned counsel for the opposite parties no. 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11 to 16.

2. By means of the writ petition filed under Section 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged the validity of the judgment and order date 27.02.2024 passed by the District Judge, Pratapgarh in Election Petition No. 01 of 2021 filed under Section 27(2) Uttar Pradesh Kshettra Panchayat and Zila Panchayat Adhiniyam, 1961.

3. The opposite party no.1 had filed the aforesaid election petition inter alia stating that he was a candidate in the election held for the post of member of Zila Panchayat, Kshetra Mangraura III, Ward No. 11, Development Block Mangraura, Pargaana and Tehsil Patti, District Pratapgarh and he was allotted Polling symbol Axe. The opposite parties No. 1 to 17 in the election petition i.e. the petitioner and opposite parties no. 2 to 17 in this writ petition, were also candidates in the election. It was alleged in the election petition that serious irregularities were committed in preparation of the voters list.

4. In para 5 of the election petition it was pleaded that a total of 27,928 ballots had been casted and 1933 ballots had been cancelled whereas a total of 27,160 ballots had been counted, out of which 1328 had been cancelled, whereas in para 7 of the election petition it was pleaded that a total of 27,160 ballots had been casted whereas 27,928 ballots had been counted and thus 768 ballots were counted in excess. The opposite party no.1 had contended that 3896 votes were casted in his favour and 833 votes casted in his favour were cancelled and the returned candidate (the writ petitioner) got 3818 votes. The opposite party no.1 claimed that he had won by 78 votes and the opposite parties no. 18 to 20 to the election petition – the Assistant Returning Officer, Returning Officer and District Election Officer, had made an announcement to this effect at the polling center, but a certificate to this affect was not given to him and it was told that the same will be provided at the district headquarter on the following day. When the election petitioner reached the district headquarter on the following day, the writ petitioner was declared successful by committing serious irregularities in counting of ballot papers, whereby 833 votes casted in favour of the election petitioner were cancelled and 768 excess votes were counted, which affected the result of the election.

5. In para 10 of the election petition seven grounds were taken by the election petitioner for assailing validity of the election which are as follows:-

(i) The counting was not done in accordance with the provisions of the U. P. Kshetra Panchayat and Zila Panchayat Act, 1961 and the relevant rules and the counting sheet was prepared illegally and it is erroneous, ambiguous and misleading.

(ii) The counting was not done in an independent, unbiased and legal manner.

(iii) A total of 27,160 votes had been casted and 768 votes have been counted in excess of the votes casted. The election petitioner was told that his 3896 votes were valid and 833 votes were cancelled. He had been told that the returned candidate had got 3818 votes and thus he had won by 78 votes and the opposite parties 18 to 20 had made a declaration to this effect. However, it was told that the winning certificate will be given at the District Headquarter on the following day. Subsequently in absence of the election petitioner, his 833 valid votes were cancelled, his 78 votes were added to the votes of the returned candidate and the writ petitioner was declared to have won the election.

(iv) The election petitioner's 78 votes were added to the votes of the returned candidate and in place of 27,169 votes that were casted, 27,928 votes were counted. Thus 768 excess votes were counted.

(v) The election petitioner's valid votes were illegally cancelled and 768 excess votes were counted and by doing this, the writ petitioner was declared elected with a margin of 501 votes.

(vi) The counting sheet is ambiguous and misleading, it is based on counting of false votes and it is irregular and void.

(vii) The election petitioner had been declared elected with a margin of 78 votes but by committing illegality in counting of votes, the writ petitioner was declared to have won the election by 501 votes. There is a narrow margin of victory and it would be in the interest of justice that a recounting of votes be carried out.

6. The writ petitioner - opposite party no.1 to the election petition, and some other defendants filed their written statement/objections.

7. The trial court had framed the following nine issues on 01.04.2023: -

(i) Whether in counting of votes for election of member of Zila Panchayat Mangaraura III, Ward No. 11, Patti, Pratapgarh votes were counted in excess of votes that were actually polled and thus the election result was declared in an illegal manner?

(ii) Whether 833 votes casted in favour of the election petition Umesh Singh were not included in counting and those were cancelled illegally, which affected the election result?

(iii) Whether 78 votes casted in favour of the election petitioner Umesh Singh were counted in favour of the Writ Petitioner Indradev? If yes, then its effect.

(iv) Whether 768 votes casted in favour of some other candidates were irregularly included in the votes of the Writ Petitioner and thus he was illegally declared successful?

(v) Whether the calculation sheet was prepared against the actual votes casted in favour of the candidates?

(vi) Whether the calculation sheet for election of member of Zila Panchayat Mangaraura III, Ward No. 11, Patti, Pratapgarh has not been prepared in an impartial manner?

(vii) Whether the petitioner was entitled to a recounting of votes on the basis of averments made in para 10 of the petition?

(viii) Whether the election of member of Zila Panchayat Mangaraura III, Ward No. 11 is liable to be declared illegal as it violates the rules and the law?

(ix) Whether the petitioner was entitled to any relief?

8. The election petitioner adduced his evidence in support of the election petition on 12.04.2023. When the matter was fixed for cross-examination of the election petitioner on 25.04.2023, he filed a supplementary affidavit along with an application under Section 151 C.P.C. stating that he has already filed his examination-in-chief (Paper no. 39 A) but some facts were left to be incorporated due to inadvertence of the author of the affidavit, which were being brought to light by way of the supplementary affidavit.

9. The writ petitioner filed objections against the application stating that there were no pleadings regarding the facts sought to be brought on record by way of the supplementary affidavit.

10. On 25.04.2023, the writ petitioner filed an application before the District Judge stating that the issues no. 1 to 4 framed on 01.04.2023 deal with one issue and these should be reformulated as a single issue. The petitioner further stated that the issue no. 5 did not arise from the pleadings and it should be deleted. The District Judge disposed of this application by means of an order dated 24.05.2023 stating that issue no. 1 to 4 will be decided together at the time of final disposal of the petition. Regarding issue no. 5, the District Judge stated that the same will be disposed off in case its importance comes to light after considering the entire facts and material at the time of final decision of the petition.

11. The election petition was decided by means of the impugned judgment dated 27.02.2024, in which the District Judge has decided issue Nos.1 to 6 together. The objection of the writ petitioner that issue No.5 did not arise from the pleadings of the parties, which was ordered to be decided while decision of the election petition finally, has not been decided while allowing the election petition.

12. The opposite party No.1 to the election petition had raised a specific objection that the facts which had not been pleaded in the election petition, cannot be proved by leading evidence and the facts stated in the supplementary affidavit filed after the examination-in-chief of the election petitioner, cannot be taken into consideration by the Court. While dealing with this objection, the District Judge has held that the election petition was not a regular Civil Suit and it has to be decided keeping in view the principles of natural justice. He further held that the election petition should not be allowed or rejected merely on any technical ground.

13. At this stage, it would be appropriate to have a look at Rule 11 of the U.P. Zila Panchayat (Settlement and Dispute Relating to Membership) Rules, 1994, which reads thus: -

“11. Procedure before the Judge. -
(1) Except so far as provided by the Act or in these Rules, the procedure provided in Civil Procedure Code, 1908 in regard to suits shall so far as it is not inconsistent with the Act or any provisions of these rules and it can be made applicable be followed in the hearing of the petitions :

Provided that-

(a) any two or more petitions to the membership of the same person may be heard together ;

(b) the Judge shall not be required to record the evidence in full but shall make a memorandum of the evidence sufficient in his opinion for the purpose of deciding the case ;

(c) the Judge may, at any stage of the proceedings, require the petitioner to give further cash security for the payment of the costs incurred or likely to be incurred by any respondent;

(d) for the purpose of deciding any issue, the Judge shall only be bound to order production of or to receive only so much evidence, oral or documentary as he considers necessary ;

(e) any person aggrieved from the decision of the Judge may apply for review to the Judge within 15 days from the date of the decision and the Judge may thereupon review the decision.

(2) The provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Act No. 1 of 1872) shall, subject to the provision of the Act and these rules, be deemed to apply in all respects in the proceedings for the disposal of the petition.”

14. Thus the District Judge has committed a patent error of law in holding that the election petition was not a regular Civil Suit and it has to be decided keeping in view the principles of natural justice only, as Rule 11 aforesaid provides that the election petitions are to be decided as per the procedure provided in Civil Procedure Code in regard to suits.

15. Order XIV C.P.C. deals with settlement of Issues and determination of suit on issues of law or on issues agreed upon. Rules 1 and 2 of Order XIV C.P.C. are being reproduced below: -

“1. Framing of issues.—

(1) Issues arise when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by the one party and denied by the other.

(2) Material propositions are those propositions of law or fact which a plaintiff must allege in order to show a right to sue or a defendant must allege in order to constitute his defence.

(3) Each material proposition affirmed by one party and denied by the other shall form the subject of a distinct issue.

(4) Issues are of two kinds:

(a) issues of fact,

(b) issues of law.

(5) At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after examination under Rule 2 of Order X and after hearing the parties or their pleaders, ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues on which the right decision of the case appears to depend.

(6) Nothing in this rule requires the Court to frame and record issues where the defendant at the first hearing of the suit makes no defence.

2. Court to pronounce judgment on all issues.—

(1) Notwithstanding that a case may be disposed of on a preliminary issue, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), pronounce judgment on all issues.

(2) Where issues both of law and of fact arise in the same suit, and the Court is of opinion that the case or any part thereof may be disposed of on an issue of law only, it may try that issue first if that issue relates to—

(a) the jurisdiction of the Court, or

(b) a bar to the suit created by any law for the time being in force, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the other issues until after that issue has been determined, and may deal with the suit in accordance with the decision on that issue.

16. It is clear from a bare reading of Rule 1 of Order XIV that issues have to be framed on the first date of hearing, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after examination under Rule 2 of Order X and after hearing the parties or their pleaders. No issue can be framed which does not arise from the aforesaid material. Therefore, when issue no. 5 did not arise from the pleadings of the parties or from the examination of the parties under Order X Rule 2 – which was not done, issue no. 5 could not have been framed and no judgment could be given on this issue.

17. There are only two principles of natural justice - (i) no person can be a judge in his own cause and (ii) no person can be condemned un-heard. There is no principle of natural justice which may justify the trial Court's approach of ignoring the basic principle of dispensation of justice that all the cases are to be decided on the basis of pleadings of the parties and in absence of pleadings, no amount of evidence can be looked into. The District Judge has committed a patent error of law in ignoring this basic principle of dispensation of justice and rejecting the objection of the petitioner regarding lack of pleadings to support issue No.5.

18. Issue No.1 to 6 have been decided together and even while concluding the discussion on six issues, no separate specific findings has been recorded regarding the issue No.6. Order XIV Rule 2 C.P.C. provides that the Court shall pronounce judgment on all issues. Order XX Rule 5 C.P.C. mandates that the Court shall state its finding or decision, with the reasons thereof, on each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues is sufficient for the decision of the suit. Therefore, even while proceeding to decide several issues together, it was incumbent on the trial Court to give its finding on each of the issues and impugned order passed by the District Judge without giving the findings on each of the issues no. 1 to 6, does not fulfill the legislative mandate contained in Order XIV Rule 2 and Order XX Rule 5 C.P.C.

19. While deciding all the issues together, the District Judge has found that there was no evidence to establish as to how many votes of the return candidate were cancelled and how many votes of the election petitioner were cancelled. District Judge having himself recorded that there was no evidence to establish the aforesaid facts, the election of the return candidate could not have been set-aside on this count.

20. The District Judge found that there appears to be force in the contention of the election petitioner that it had been announced on the loud-speakers installed at the counting center that he had won the election. However, this finding is not supported by the statement of the election petitioner made in his cross-examination, wherein he had categorically stated that at the close of the counting, the returning officer had told him that he had won by 78 votes, but no announcement to this effect was made. The R.O. had told him in a conversation that he had won by 78 votes and he should collect the winning certificate from Sadar Tahsil on the following day. The R.O. did not give him any round-wise counting details and no round-wise announcement was made by the R.O.

21. The District Judge has recorded a finding that in the counting sheet of Mangraura III, Ward No. 11, the votes casted in polling booth nos. 64 and 181 – Panchayatghar Nevra A, had also been included whereas those booths fall outside the constituency of Mangraura-III. Moreover, the votes casted at Polling booth Salhipur Kanas – Booth D, had not been included while preparing the calculation-sheet, which shows that the calculation-sheet had not been prepared properly. The learned Counsel for the Writ Petitioner has fairly conceded that this finding recorded by the District Judge is correct and this error committed while preparing the calculation-sheet needs to be corrected by the authorities, although as per him, it will not make any difference in the outcome of the election.

22. The District Judge has found that the counting sheet was erroneous, but it was not a fit case for ordering recount of votes and he has allowed the election petition and set-aside the election.

23. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the error committed in preparation of the counting sheet was a curable defect and this defect ought to have been cured by preparing a correct counting sheet. Further submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that even if this defect is cured, it will not affect the result of the election in any manner and in fact it would result in an increase in the votes of the returned candidate.

24. The learned counsel for opposite party No.1 has vehemently opposed the writ petition and he has submitted that numerous illegalities were committed in conduct of the election, the most serious of those being non-declaration of result of the counting immediately after closure thereof in favour of the opposite party No.1 and subsequent illegal alteration of the result by issuing the winning certificate in favour of the writ petitioner. He has further submitted that issue no. 7 was framed by the District Judge regarding recounting of the votes and this Court should at least order a recount of the votes.

25. When the District Judge has found that there was no evidence to establish as to how many votes of the returned candidate were cancelled and how many votes of the election petitioner were cancelled, the election of the returned candidate could not have been set-aside on this count.

26. The finding of the District Judge that there appears to be force in the contention of the election petitioner that it had been announced on the loud-speakers installed at the counting center that he had won the election, is against the evidence on record in the shape of the statement of the election petitioner made in his cross-examination, wherein he had stated that at the close of the counting, the returning officer had told him that he had won by 78 votes, but no announcement to this effect was made. The R.O. had told him in a conversation that he had won by 78 votes and he should collect the winning certificate from Sadar Tahsil on the following day. Therefore, this finding is perverse.

27. The alleged personal communication made by the returning officer with the opposite party no.1 cannot be the basis of setting aside election of the returned candidate when there is nothing on record to establish that the opposite party No.1 had in fact been declared successful prior to issuance of winning certificate in favour of the petitioner.

28. So far as the submission of the learned Counsel for the respondent no. 1, that this Court should order a recount of votes, the law in this regard was explained in Chandrika Prasad Yadav v. State of Bihar, (2004) 6 SCC 331, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: - “20. It is well settled that an order of re-counting of votes can be passed when the following conditions are fulfilled:

(i) a prima facie case;

(ii) pleading of material facts stating irregularities in counting of votes;

(iii) a roving and fishing inquiry shall not be made while directing re-counting of votes; and

(iv) an objection to the said effect has been taken recourse to.

21. The requirement of maintaining the secrecy of ballot papers must also be kept in view before a re-counting can be directed. Narrow margin of votes between the returned candidate and the election petitioner by itself would not be sufficient for issuing a direction for re-counting.”

29. The election petitioner had pleaded in para 10 of the petition that he had been declared elected with a margin of 78 votes but by committing illegality in counting of votes, the writ petitioner was declared to have won the election by 501 votes, there is a narrow margin of victory and it would be in the interest of justice that a recounting of votes be carried out. The allegation that the election petitioner had been declared elected with a margin of 78 votes, was not supported by the statement of the election petitioner himself, as has already been discussed above. The victory margin in the present case cannot be said to be a narrow margin and even if it is taken to be a narrow margin, it does not provide a good ground to order a recounting of votes in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Chandrika Prasad Yadav (Supra).

30. Election of a returned candidate can only be set aside on the proof of illegalities affecting the purity of election and it cannot be interfered lightly, on the basis of unsubstantiated allegations.

31. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the writ petition is allowed. The impugned judgment and order dated 27.02.2024 passed by the District Judge, Pratapgarh in the Election Petition No. 01 of 2021 filed under Section 27 (2) Uttar Pradesh Kshettra Panchayat and Zila Panchayat Adhiniyam, 1961, setting aside election of the petitioner, is hereby quashed.

32. The matter is remanded to the District Judge for passing appropriate orders for preparation of a correct calculation sheet in light of the observations made in this order and the finding recorded in the judgment and order dated 27.02.2024, that in the counting sheet of Mangraura III, Ward No. 11, the votes casted in polling booth nos. 64 and 181 – Panchayatghar Nevra A, had also been included whereas those booths fall outside the constituency of Mangraura-III and that the votes casted at Polling booth Salhipur Kanas – Booth D, had not been included while preparing the calculation-sheet.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1396
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 19.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH LAVANIA, J.

Writ -C No. 2686 of 2024

Ram Tirath ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Rakshit Raj Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Mohan Singh

U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950-Section 122-B(4-F)-
 Impugned order - the respondent no.3 directed the revenue official concerned to evict the petitioner- petitioner and his wife are Bhumidhar with transferable rights- On being found in possession of a part land recorded as Grade-5 'Banjar' land in the revenue records- the Lekhpal of the vicinity submitted a report and the respondent no.3 initiated the proceedings under Section 67 of Code of 2006- Section 122-B(4-F) of Act, 1950- he had acquired the rights over part of Gata-impugned orders set aside.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Satya Veer and another vs State of U.P. and others; 2015 SCC Online All 7504
2. Special Appeal no.479 of 2015 (Sushila and another vs State of U.P. and others)
3. Writ-C no.129 of 2013 (Brahmanand and others vs State of U.P. and others)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Lavania, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rakshit Raj Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Ajay Kumar Singh Tomar, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State-respondent Nos. 1 to 3 and Sri Mohan Singh, learned counsel appearing for the respondent No. 4/Gram Sabha concerned.

2. Under challenge is the order dated 15.07.2023 passed by the respondent no.3-/Tehsildar (Nyayik), Mandal-Ayodhya, District- Barabanki, Tehsil-Nawabganj, in the proceedings carried out against the petitioner under Section 67 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 (in short "Code of 2006") registered as Case No. 9045/2016, Computerized Case No. T20160412019045 (Gaon Sabha vs. Ram Tirath).

3. The petitioner has also challenged the order dated 05.02.2024 passed by the respondent no.2-Collector, Ayodhya Mandal, District-Barabanki, in the Appeal No. 3037/2023, Computerized Case No. D202304120003037 (Ram Tirath vs. Gaon Sabha and others) filed under Section 67(5) of the Code of 2006.

4. By the order dated 15.07.2023, the respondent no.3 directed the revenue official concerned to evict the petitioner from Gata No.458/.02960 Hect. (recorded as 'Banjar').

5. Brief facts, which appears from the material available on record and are relevant for the purposes of disposal of the present petition, are as under:-

(i) That the petitioner namely Ram Tirath claims that he belongs to Scheduled Caste community and is an agricultural labour.

(ii) As per Khatauni of fasli year 1424-1429, the petitioner and his wife are Bhumidhar with transferable rights of Gata no.464/0.055 Hect. and Gata no. 551/0.279 Hect. of Khata no.234.

(iii) On being found in possession of a part land situated in Village-Pyarepur Saraiya, Pargan-Pratapganj, Tehsil-Nawabganj, District-Barabanki bearing Gata no.458 measuring 0.2960 Hect. recorded as Grade-5 'Banjar' land in the revenue records, the Lekhpal of the vicinity submitted a report dated 03.07.2016 and based upon the same, the respondent no.3 initiated the proceedings under Section 67 of Code of 2006.

(iv) In the proceedings aforesaid registered as Case No. 9045 of 2016, the petitioner took the defence based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (in short "the Act of 1950").

(v) The case set up by the petitioner on the basis of Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 in the proceedings under Section 67 of Code of 2006 was rejected by the respondent no.3 vide impugned order dated 15.07.2023, the relevant portion of which is extracted hereinunder:-

"मेरे द्वारा पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्यों एवं विद्वान अधिवक्ता के तर्कों को सुना गया एवं अभिलेखीय परीक्षण किया गया जिसमें पाया गया कि प्रश्नगत वाद क्षेत्रीय लेखपाल द्वारा भूमि स्थित ग्राम प्यारेपुर सरैया परगना प्रतापगंज जिला बाराबंकी की गाटा संख्या 458/0.296 हे० जो कि राजस्व अभिलेखों में श्रेणी 5 बजरं खाते की भूमि है, पर अवैध अध्यासन करने के फलस्वरूप उ०प्र०राजस्व संहिता 2006की धारा 67 के तहत रिपोर्ट विपक्षी रामतीरथ के विरुद्ध

प्रस्तुत की गयी। क्षेत्रीय लेखपाल की रिपोर्ट के जवाब में विपक्षी द्वारा मुख्य रूप से इस बात पर बल दिया गया कि विपक्षी अनुजाति जाति का सदस्य है एवं उक्त भूमि उ०प्र०भू० अधिनियम की धारा 132 व राजस्व संहिता की धारा 77 से अच्छादित नहीं है। प्रश्नगत भूमि पर उसका कब्जा लगभग कई वर्षों से चला आ रहा है इसलिए जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम की धारा-122 ख(4-च) के अन्तर्गत पात्रता की श्रेणी में है। इस बिन्दु के सम्बन्ध में पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्यों एवं क्षेत्रीय लेखपाल के बयान एवं नामिका अधिवक्ता द्वारा प्रस्तुत तर्कों के आधार पर न्यायालय इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुंचता है कि प्रश्नगत वाद की कार्यवाही उ०प्र०रा० संहिता 2006 की धारा 67 के अन्तर्गत प्रचलित है। इस कारण विपक्षी द्वारा प्रस्तुत प्रार्थना पत्र प्रश्नगत वाद की कार्यवाही से अच्छादित न होने के कारण प्रार्थना पत्र पोषणनीय न होने के कारण निरस्त होने योग्य है। फिर भी प्राकृतिक न्याय के दृष्टिगत यदि न्यायालय प्रार्थना पत्र विचार करता भी है तो उ०प्र०ज०वि० अधिनियम 1950 की धारा 122ख(4-च) अथवा राजस्व संहिता 2006 की धारा 67-क के व्यवस्था के तहत राजस्व प्राधिकारी व ग्राम सभा के लिए यह बिन्दु आवश्यक है कि अवैध अधिवासी प्रश्नगत भूमि पर निवासित एवं वास्तव में गरीब व्यक्ति होना चाहिए इसके सम्बन्ध में पत्रावली में संलग्न खतौनी की फसली वर्ष 1424-1429 की खाता संख्या 234 की गाटा संख्या 464/0.055 हे० व गाटा संख्या 551/0.279 हे० से स्पष्ट है कि अतिक्रमणकर्ता स्वयं व उसकी पत्नी संक्रमणीय

भूमिधर के रूप में दर्ज अभिलेख है यह विधि मानवीय दृष्टि के तहत केवल असहाय एवं मजबूर निराश्रित व्यक्तियों के उत्थान के नियति से प्रालब्ध किया गया है यदि न्यायालय ऐसे परिस्थितियों में भी लाभ प्रदान करता है तो वह समाज के लिए आदतन सरकारी भूमियों पर अतिक्रमण करने के लिए प्रेरित करने का स्रोत होगा। जहां तक प्रश्नगत वाद में विपक्षी का सरकारी भूमि पर कब्जा होने का प्रश्न है तो विपक्षी द्वारा स्वयं अन्तर्गत धारा 122ख (4-च) के तहत प्रस्तुत प्रार्थना पत्र प्रस्तुत करके यह स्वीकार कर लिया गया कि ग्राम समाज की भूमि है पर उसका कब्जा व दखल है। इस प्रकार उपरोक्त बिन्दुओं के आलोक में विपक्षी रामतीरथ पुत्र रामनाथ द्वारा ग्राम समाज की भूमि पर अवैध कब्जा करने के फलस्वरूप क्षेत्रीय लेखपाल द्वारा प्रस्तुत रिपोर्ट दिनांक 03.07.2016 की पुष्टि करते हुए विपक्षी के विरुद्ध प्रश्नगत से बेदखली एवं क्षतिपूर्ति का आदेश पारित किया जाना न्यायोचित प्रतीत होता है।

आदेश

अतः ग्राम प्यारेपुर सरैया परगना प्रतापगंज तहसील नवाबगंज जिला बाराबंकी की गाटा संख्या 458/0.296 हे० राजस्व अभिलेखों में श्रेणी 5-3-ड (बंजर) से विपक्षी रामतीरथ पुत्र रामनाथ को बेदखल किया जाता है तथा अनाधिकार अतिक्रमण के लिए विपक्षी रामतीरथ पुत्र रामनाथ निवासी:- ग्राम प्यारेपुर सरैया परगना प्रतापगंज तहसील नवाबगंज जिला बाराबंकी पर 7, 10, 400-00 (सात लाख दस हजार चार सौ रुपये मात्र) क्षतिपूर्ति

आरोपित किया जाता है। आदेश की प्रति लेखपाल को निःशुल्क उपलब्ध करायी जाये। लेखपाल को निर्देशित किया जाता है कि प्रतिवादी को वादीय भूमि से बेदखल करते हुए 15 दिन के अन्दर आर०सी० प्रपत्र 67क व 67ख न्यायालय में प्रस्तुत करें। आर०सी० प्रपत्र 67 क व 67ख प्राप्त होने पर आर०सी० प्रपत्र 67ग जारी हो। वसूली व बेदखली के उपरान्त पत्रावली दाखिल दफ्तर हो।"

(vi) The appellate authority i.e respondent no.2 vide impugned order dated 05.02.2024 passed in Appeal No. 3037 of 2023 filed by the petitioner challenging the order dated 15.07.2023 dismissed the appeal and affirmed the order dated 15.07.2023 passed by respondent no.3. The relevant portion of the order dated 05.02.2024 reads as under:-

"मैंने उभय पक्ष द्वारा प्रस्तुत तर्कों सहित अपील पत्रावली एवं अवर न्यायालय की पत्रावली एवं प्रस्तरवार आख्या का सम्यक अवलोकन एवं परिशीलन किया। अवर न्यायालय की पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध लेखपाल प्रसूचना दिनांक 03.07.2016 के अवलोकन से पाया जाता है कि ग्राम प्यारेपुर सरैया परगना प्रतापगंज तहसील नवाबगंज की गाटा संख्या 458/0.296 हे० जो ग्राम सभा श्रेणी-5 बंजर खाते की भूमि है जिसपर लगभग 10 वर्षों से अपीलार्थी / विपक्षी द्वारा अवैध रूप से खेती की जा रही है, जिसके सर्किल रेट के अनुसार गाँव सभा सम्पत्ति को रू०- 14, 20, 800-00की क्षति पहुंची। लेखपाल प्रसूचना से सहमत होकर तहसीलदार नवाबगंज द्वारा वाद पंजीकृत कर नोटिस निर्गत की गयी। अपीलार्थी/ विपक्षी की

ओर से अवर न्यायालय के समक्ष आपत्ति प्रस्तुत की गयी। अपीलार्थी/ विपक्षी द्वारा अवर न्यायालय के समक्ष नोटिस के विरुद्ध आपत्ति में मुख्य रूप से यह कथन किया गया कि काफी मेहनत करके लगभग 20 वर्ष से उक्त भूमि पर कृषि कार्य करता चला आ रहा है। आपत्तिकर्ता अनुसूचित जाति पासी का सदस्य है और प्रश्नगत नोटिस में इंगित गाटा संख्या 458का असंक्रमणीय भूमिधर अन्तर्गत धारा 122ख(4च) जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत हो चुका है। जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम की धारा 122ख(4च) का प्रतिस्थापन दिनांक 16.07.1975 से प्रभावी करते हुये गाँव सभा की 117जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत आने वाली भूमियों के बाबत प्रख्यापित किया गया है कि 30जून 1975के पूर्व अगर जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम की धारा 177 के अन्तर्गत आने वाली किसी भूमि पर कोई अनुसूचित जाति/ अनुसूचित जनजाति का कोई व्यक्ति काबिज अर्थात् अध्यासित है तो उस भूमि का असंक्रमणीय भूमिधर मान लिया जायेगा, उसे गाँव सभा या कलेक्टर बेदखल नहीं कर सकेगा। कालान्तर में जमींदारी विनाश अधिनियम की धारा 122 ख(4च) में संशोधन करते हुये उत्तर प्रदेश अधिनियम संख्या 31वर्ष 2007 द्वारा यह प्रतिस्थापित किया गया कि संगत तिथि 01.05.2002 को बढ़ाकर 13.05.2007 कर दिया गया है। इस प्रकार अनुसूचित जाति एवं अनुसूचित जनजाति के व्यक्ति जो 13 मई 2007 के पूर्व काबिज है उन्हें अब बेदखल नहीं किया

जायेगा। अवर न्यायालय द्वारा अपने पारित आदेश दिनांक 15.07.2023 में पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध साक्ष्यों एवं विद्वान अधिवक्ता के तर्कों को सुनने के उपरान्त अभिलेखीय परीक्षणोंपरान्त पाया गया कि विपक्षी द्वारा गाटा संख्या 458/0.296 हे० जो राजस्व अभिलेखों में बंजर खाते की भूमि है, जिसपर विपक्षी द्वारा अवैध अध्यासन किया गया, जिसके सम्बन्ध में क्षेत्रीय लेखपाल द्वारा रिपोर्ट प्रस्तुत की गयी। अवर न्यायालय द्वारा विपक्षी की आपत्ति में किये गये कथनों के क्रम में यह भी विवेचना की गयी कि उ०प्र० ज०वि० अधिनियम 1950 की धारा 122ख(4च) अथवा राजस्व संहिता 2006 की धारा 67-क की व्यवस्था के तहत राजस्व प्राधिकारी द्वारा ग्राम सभा के लिये यह बिन्दु आवश्यक है कि अवैध अधिवासी प्रश्नगत भूमि पर निवासित एवं वास्तव में गरीब व्यक्ति होना चाहिये। इस सम्बन्ध में पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य के रूप में उद्धरण खतौनी फसली वर्ष 1424-1429 की खाता 234 की गाटा संख्या 464/0.55 हे० व गाटा संख्या 551/0.297 हे० अतिक्रमणी (अपीलार्थी) स्वयं व उसकी पत्नी संक्रमणीय भूमिधर के रूप में दर्ज अभिलेख है। इस प्रकार स्पष्ट है कि अवर न्यायालय द्वारा उभय पक्षों को सुनने एवं अभिलेखीय साक्ष्यों के आधार पर विधि सम्मत रूप से आदेश दिनांक 15.07.2023 पारित किया गया है, जिसमें किसी प्रकार के हस्तक्षेप की आवश्यकता नहीं है। अतएवं अपीलार्थी द्वारा प्रस्तुत अपील बलहीन एवं निराधार तथ्यों पर

आधारित होने के कारण निरस्त किये जाने योग्य है।

अतएवं उपरोक्त की गयी विवेचना के आलोक में अवर न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांक 15.07.2023 में किसी प्रकार के हस्ताक्षेप की आवश्यकता न पाये जाने के कारण अपीलार्थी राम तीरथ पुत्र राम नाथ निवासी ग्राम प्यारेपुर सरैया परगना प्रतापगंज तहसील नवाबगंज जिला बाराबंकी की अपील दिनांकित 05.08.2023 निरस्त की जाती है। आदेश की प्रमाणित प्रति के साथ अवर न्यायालय की पत्रावली इस निर्देश के साथ प्रेषित कि वह अपने पारित आदेश दिनांक 15.07.2023 का विधि अनुसार क्रियान्वन सुनिश्चित करायें। बाद आवश्यक कार्यवाही अपील पत्रावली संचित राजस्व अभिलेखागार की जाय।"

6. Impeaching the impugned orders dated 05.02.2024 and 15.07.2023, it is stated that in rejecting the plea based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 taken by the petitioner, the respondent nos.2 and 3 erred in law and facts both and as such interference and protection of this Court is required.

7. Per contra, learned State counsel stated that the impugned orders are not liable to be interfered by the Court being reasoned and speaking orders as also that under Section 67A of the Code, 2006, the 'house sites' can be settled/protected and the petitioner is in possession of land recorded as 'Banjar' and he and his wife are recorded tenure holder of Gata no.464/0.055 Hect. and Gata no.551/0.297 Hect.

8. Considered the aforesaid and perused the record.

9. Issue before the Court is as to whether the plea of the petitioner, based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950, has rightly been considered by respondent nos.2 and 3.

10. In order to decide the aforesaid, this Court finds it appropriate to take note of some authorities wherein Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 has been considered and interpreted.

11. Relevant paras of the judgment passed in the case of Satya Veer and another vs State of U.P. and others; 2015 SCC Online All 7504 read as under:-

"12. To examine this question, it would be apt to go through the relevant provisions under the Act:—

Section 122-B reads as under:—

"122-B. Powers of the Land Management Committee and the Collector:—

(1) Where any property vested under the provisions of this Act in a Gaon Sabha or a local authority is damaged or misappropriated or where any Gaon Sabha or local authority is entitled to take or retain possession of any land under the provisions of this Act and such land is occupied otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Land Management Committee or Local Authority, as the case may be, shall inform the Assistant Collector concerned in the manner prescribed.

(2) Where from the information received under sub-section (1) or otherwise, the Assistant Collector is satisfied that any property referred to in sub-section (1) has been damaged or misappropriated or any person is in occupation of any land, referred to in that sub-section, in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he shall issue notice to the person concerned to show cause why compensation for damage, misappropriation or wrongful occupation as mentioned in such notice be not recovered from him or, as the case may be, why he should not be evicted from such land.

(3) If the person to whom a notice has been issued under subsection (2) fails to show cause within the time specified in the notice or within such extended time not exceeding three months from the date of service of such notice on such person, as the Assistant Collector may allow in this behalf, or if the cause shown is found to be insufficient, the Assistant Collector may direct that such person may be evicted from the land and may for that purpose, use, or cause to be used such force as may be necessary and may direct that the amount of compensation for damage, misappropriation or wrongful occupation be recovered from such person as arrears of land revenue.

(4) If the Assistant Collector is of opinion that the person showing cause is not guilty of causing the damage or misappropriation or wrongful occupation referred to in the notice under sub-section (2) he shall discharge the notice.

(4-A) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Assistant Collector under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) may, within thirty days from the date of such order prefer, a revision before the Collector on the grounds mentioned in clauses (a) to (e) of section 333.

(4-B) The procedure to be followed in any action taken under this section shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4-C) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 333 or section 333-A, but subject to the provisions of this section—

(i) every order of the Assistant Collector under this section shall, subject to the provisions of subsections (4-A) and (4-D), be final.

(ii) every order of the Collector under this section shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (4-D), be final.

(4-D) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Assistant Collector or Collector in respect of any property under this section may file a suit in a Court of competent jurisdiction to establish the right claimed by him in such property.

(4-E) No such suit as is referred to in sub-section (4-D) shall lie against an order of the Assistant Collector if a revision is preferred to the Collector under sub-section (4-A).

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression 'Collector' means the officer appointed as Collector under the provisions of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 and includes an Additional Collector].

Section 122-B(4-F)-
Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing subsection, where any agricultural labourer belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe is in occupation of any land vested in a Gaon Sabha under section 117 (not being land mentioned in section 132) having occupied it from before [May 13, 2007] and the land so occupied together with land, if any, held by him from before the said date as bhumidhar, sirdar or asami, does not exceed 1.26 hectares (3.125 acres), then no action under this section shall be taken by the Land Management Committee or the Collector against such labourer and it shall be deemed that he has been admitted as bhumidhar with non-transferable rights of that land under section 195 and it shall not be necessary for him to institute a suit for declaration of his rights as bhumidhar with nontransferable rights in that land.

Explanation.—The expression 'agricultural labourer' shall have the meaning assigned to it in section 198."

13. Section 123 further reads as under:—

"Section 123. Certain house sites to be settled with existing owner thereof.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 9, where any person referred to in sub-section (3) of section 122-C has built a house on any land referred to in sub-section (2) of that section, not being land reserved for any public purpose and such house exists on the (30th day of June, 1985) the site of such house shall be held by the owner of the house on terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) Where any person referred to in sub-section (3) of section 122-C has built a house on any land held by a tenure-holder (not being a Government lessee) and such house exists on the (30th day of June, 1985) the site of such house shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be deemed to be settled with the owner of such house by the tenure holder on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—For the purposes of sub-section (2), a house existing on the (30th day of June, 1985) on any land held by a tenure-holder shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have been built by the occupant thereof and where the occupants are members of one family by the head of that family.)"

14. These are the two provisions which provides for settlement of land in favour of the scheduled castes or scheduled tribes agricultural labourers who have built their house or have occupied the land prior to the cut-off date i.e. 1.5.2002 (in the instant case).

15. Only rider is that the land in question should not be a land reserved for public purpose or the land mentioned in section 132 of the Act. In so far as according benefit of section 122-B (4-F) is concerned, the petitioners who allege their possession have to fulfil certain conditions.

16. Section 122-B under the scheme of the Act provides for a complete mechanism to save Gaon/Sabha land from encroachment and unauthorised possession.

17. Sub-section (1) provides that information has to be sent by the Land Management Committee to Gaon Sabha or local authority in case of any encroachment over the land of Gaon Sabha or the local authority and the Assistant Collector concerned shall proceed in the manner prescribed therein.

18. Sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) provide for the manner in which a report of encroachment is to be dealt with by the Assistant Collector.

19. Sub-section (4-A) further provides that if any person is aggrieved by the order of Assistant Collector under subsection (3) or sub-section (4) of section 122-B, he may prefer revision before the Collector.

20. Sub-section (4-C) further provides that the order of Assistant Collector or the Collector as the case may be, is final.

21. Sub-section (4-D) further provides that any person, aggrieved by the orders of the Assistant Collector or Collector, may file a suit before the competent Court to establish his rights.

22. These provisions imposed a responsibility upon the Land Management Committee to keep a vigil on the encroachment or unauthorised occupation of the Gaon-Sabha land. In case of any such situation, immediate action is to be taken by making a report to the Assistant Collector concerned who shall issue a notice and take appropriate action and shall pass necessary orders accordingly.

23. However, sub-section (4-F) of section 122-B of the Act carves out an exception which permits the occupation over the Gaon-Sabha land by a certain class of persons namely Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes who is an agricultural landless labourer and has been in possession over the said land before 1st May, 2002. Sub section (4-F) which was substituted by U.P. Act No. 24 of 1986 is an enabling provision to protect the agricultural labourers belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes from being evicted from the Gaon-Sabha land if he/she fulfils the conditions enumerated therein.

24. Section 195 confers power upon the Land Management Committee to admit any persons as "Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights" to any land which does not fall in any of the clauses mentioned in section 132 with the previous approval of the Assistant Collector incharge of the Sub-Divisions with respect to the lands as follows:—

"(a) the land is vacant land,

(b) the land is vested in the (Gaon Sabha) under section 117, or

(c) the land has come into the possession of [Land Management Committee] under section 194 or under any other provisions of this Act."

25. Section 197 of the Act, however, gives power to the Land Management Committee to admit any person as 'Aasami' to any land falling in any of the clauses mentioned in section 132. Thus, under the Scheme of "U.P. Zamindari, Abolition & Land Reforms Act" but for the aforesaid provisions of sub-section (4-F), the rights of any person as Bhumidhar with transferable or non-transferable rights, as the case may, unless his name is duly recorded in the revenue records has not been recognised except where such person seeks declaration by filing a suit under section 229-B of the Act. It is only by virtue of subsection (4-F) of section 122-B that the agricultural labourer who fulfils the conditions given therein is not required to seek a declaration by filing a suit and can be admitted as "Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights" under section 195.

26. Thus, from a reading of the provisions of section 122-B in its entirety, it is clear that sub-section (4-F) is not a provision for seeking declaration of the rights of a person who is in occupation of the Gaon-Sabha land for declaring him as "Bhumidhar with nontransferable rights". In fact, it is a right to defend, if such a person is to be evicted or dispossessed from the land of Gaon-Sabha in an appropriate provision under the Act. Thus, the occupant as described in sub-section (4-F), who is sought to be evicted from the Gaon-Sabha land, would have a right to plead and establish that since his possession has continued since before the cut-off date, rights had precipitated in his favour and he is a Bhumidhar of the land with non-transferable rights, if such plea is raised the same would be considered by the authority concerned before evicting that person.

27. The right of defence given under the said provision to an Agricultural labourer belonging to Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe cannot be taken as a right of seeking declaration under the aforesaid provisions. Meaning thereby, section 122-B (4-F) cannot be taken recourse for recording entry in the 'Khatauni'."

12. Relevant para of the judgment passed in Special Appeal no.479 of 2015

(Sushila and another vs State of U.P. and others) reads as under:-

"Sub-section (4F) of Section 122B has been construed and interpreted in a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Manorey alias Manohar vs. Board of Revenue (U.P.) and Ors. 3. The Supreme Court held that sub-section (4F) carves out an exception from the provisions of sub-sections (1), (2) & (3) under which a procedure for eviction of unauthorized occupants of land vested in the Gram Sabha is provided. The exception which is carved out by sub-section (4F) is in favour of agricultural labourers belonging to Scheduled Castes and Schedule Tribes having land below the stipulated ceiling of 3.125 acres. Where the conditions of sub-section (4F) are fulfilled, the legislature has provided that no action to evict such person shall be taken and he shall be deemed to have been admitted as Bhumidhar with non transferable rights over the land.

The Supreme Court has held thus:

"8. First, the endeavour should be to analyze and identify the nature of the right or protection conferred by sub-section (4F) of Section 122-B. Sub-sections (1) to (3) and the ancillary provisions upto sub-section (4E) deal inter alia, with the procedure for eviction of unauthorized occupants of land vested in Gaon Sabha. Sub-section (4F) carves out an exception in favour of an agricultural labourer belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe having land below the ceiling of 3.125 acres. Irrespective of the circumstances in which such eligible person occupied the land vested in Gaon Sabha (other than the land mentioned in Section 132), no action to evict him shall be taken and moreover, he shall be deemed to have been admitted as a Bhumidhar with non transferable rights over the land, provided he satisfies the conditions specified in the sub-section. According to the findings of the Sub-Divisional Officer as well as the appellate authority, the appellant does satisfy the conditions. If so, two legal consequences follow. Such occupant of the land shall not be evicted by taking recourse to sub-section (1) to (3) of Section 122B. It means that the occupant of the land who satisfies the conditions under sub-section (4F) is entitled to safeguard his possession as against the Gaon Sabha. The second and more important right which sub-section (4F) confers on him is that he is endowed with the rights of a Bhumidhar with no-transferable rights. The deeming provision has been specifically enacted as a measure of agrarian reform, with a thrust on socio-economic justice. The statutorily conferred right of Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights finds its echo in clause (b) of Section 131. Any person who acquires the rights of Bhumidhar under or in accordance with the provisions of the Act, is recognized under Section 131 as falling within the class of Bhumidhar. The right acquired or accrued under sub-section (4F) is one such right that falls within the purview of Section 131(b)."

The Supreme Court also held that sub-section (4F) is not merely a shield to protect the possession of a person who fulfills the conditions in sub-section (4F) but it also confers a positive right of being recognized as Bhumidhar on the occupant satisfying the conditions and criteria laid down in the sub-section.

The Supreme Court has held thus:

"Thus, sub-section (4F) of Section 122-B not merely provides a shield to protect the possession as opined by the High Court, but it also confers a positive right of Bhumidhar on the occupant of the land satisfying the criteria laid down in that sub-Section. ...When once the deeming provision unequivocally provides for the admission of the person satisfying the requisite criteria laid down in the provision as Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights under Section 195, full effect must be given to it. Section 195 lays down that the Land Management Committee, with the previous approval of the Assistant Collector in-charge of the Sub Division, shall have the right to admit any person as Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights to any vacant land (other than the land falling under Section 132) vested in the Gaon Sabha. Section 198 prescribes "the order of preference in admitting persons to land under Sections 195 and 197". The last part of sub-section (4F) of Section 122-B confers by a statutory fiction the status of Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights on the eligible occupant of the land as if he has been admitted as such under Section 195. In substance and in effect, the deeming provision declares that the statutorily recognized Bhumidhar should be as good as a person admitted to Bhumidhari rights under Section 195 read with other provisions. In a way, sub-section (4F) supplements Section 195 by specifically granting the same benefit to a person coming within the protective umbrella of that sub-section. The need to approach the Gaon Sabha under Section 195 read with Section 198 is obviated by the deeming provision contained in sub-section (4F). We find no warrant to constrict the scope of deeming provision."

13. Relevant para of the judgment passed in Writ-C no.129 of 2013 (Brahmanand and others vs State of U.P. and others) reads as under:-

"9. From the bare reading of the aforesaid provisions it is quite explicit that the intendment of the legislature in incorporating said provision was to automatically conferred the rights in respect of the category of lessees who had the possession as on 30th June, 1985 and, therefore, if the tenure holder was living on said date, he would have automatically become entitled to the said benefit. Merely because necessary application has come to be made at a later point of time and tenure holder died leaving behind heirs, the said claim cannot be denied on the ground that on the date application had been moved the original tenure holder had died and that land later on came within territorial of the municipality or Nagar Nigam. The provision clearly indicates that one who was in possession of the land on the relevant date, the land stood settled with the said person conferring upon him with the status of bhumidhar with non-transferable and mere application would have only resulted in necessary correction in the revenue records. So, even if the application is subsequently moved, it cannot be said that the rights would accrue only on the date of the application and in case if the tenure holder died subsequently his heirs shall be denied benefits. The right to the tenure holder accrued in the year 1985 itself as per the provision and subsequent death of the tenure holder would automatically result in the succession of his heirs and right would automatically get transferred to the successors and it cannot be said that the bhumidhari rights even in the category of non transferable rights are not subject to succession and, therefore, in my considered opinion the Sub-Divisional Magistrate manifestly erred in rejecting the application on the ground that the heirs would not have been permitted to step into the shoes to claim rights under the relevant provision of law.

10. Besides above, once the Additional Commissioner had remitted the matter with clear observation in the order of remand that the claim would not be denied on the ground that subsequently the land had got notified under the Nagar Nigam under the U.P. Nagar Nigam Adhiniyam Act, 1959, it was not open for the Sub-Divisional Magistrate to sit in appeal over the order of the Additional Commissioner and thus, the Court is of definite opinion that the authority has clearly exceeded its jurisdiction and authority in making such observation and, therefore, the order passed by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate on that count also cannot be sustained.

11. So far the findings recorded by the Additional Commissioner in the subsequent revision is concerned, as I have already held hereinabove that rights would not get changed merely because the land has subsequently been notified as within the territorial limits of Nagar Nigam Meerut, if the tenure holder was in possession on the cut of date i.e. 30th June, 1985. In my above observation and the view taken by me, I am supported by the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Manorey v. Board of Revenue 2003 (5) SCC 521, wherein the Supreme Court while dealing with the said provision and its application, vide paragraph 9 of the judgment has held thus:-

"9. Thus, sub-Section (4F) of Section 122B not merely provides a shield to protect the possession as opined by the High Court, but it also confers a positive right of Bhumidhar on the occupant of the land satisfying the criteria laid down in that sub-Section. Notwithstanding the clear language in which the deeming provision is couched and the ameliorative purpose of the legislation, the learned single Judge of the High Court had taken the view in Ramdin Vs. Board of Revenue (supra)

(followed by the same learned Judge in the instant case) that the Bhumidhari rights of the occupant contemplated by sub-Section (4F) can only blossom out when there is a specific allotment order by the Land Management Committee under Section 198. According to the High Court, the deeming provision contained in sub-Section (4F) cannot be overstretched to supersede the other provisions in the Act dealing specifically with the creation of the right of Bhumidhar. In other words, the view of the High Court was that a person covered by the beneficial provision contained in sub-Section (4F) will have to still go through the process of allotment under Section 198 even though he is not liable for eviction. As a corollary to this view, it was held that the occupant was not entitled to seek correction of revenue records, even if his case falls under sub-Section (4F) of Section 122B. We hold that the view of the High Court is clearly unsustainable. It amounts to ignoring the effect of a deeming provision enacted with a definite social purpose. When once the deeming provision unequivocally provides for the admission of the person satisfying the requisite criteria laid down in the provision as Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights under Section 195, full effect must be given to it. Section 195 lays down that the Land Management Committee, with the previous approval of the Assistant Collector in-charge of the Sub Division, shall have the right to admit any person as Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights to any vacant land (other than the land falling under Section 132) vested in the Gaon Sabha. Section 198 prescribes "the order of preference in admitting persons to land under Sections 195 and 197". The last part of sub-Section (4F) of Section 122B confers by a statutory fiction the status of Bhumidhar with non transferable rights on the eligible occupant of the land as if he has been admitted as such under Section 195. In substance and in effect, the deeming provision declares that the statutorily recognized Bhumidhar should be as good as a person admitted to Bhumidhari rights under Section 195 read with other provisions. In a way, sub-Section (4F) supplements Section 195 by specifically granting the same benefit to a person coming within the protective umbrella of that sub-Section. The need to approach the Gaon Sabha under Section 195 read with Section 198 is obviated by the deeming provision contained in sub-Section (4F). We find no warrant to constrict the scope of deeming provision. That being the legal position, there is no bar against an application being made by the eligible person coming within the four corners of sub-Section (4F) to effect necessary changes in the revenue record. When once the claim of the applicant is accepted, it is the bounden duty of the concerned revenue authorities to make necessary entries in revenue records to give effect to the statutory mandate. The obligation to do so arises by necessary implication by reason of the statutory right vested in the person coming within the ambit of sub-Section (4F). The lack of specific provision for making an application under the Act is no ground to dismiss the application as not maintainable. The revenue records should naturally fall in line with the rights statutorily recognized. The Sub-Divisional Officer was therefore within his rights to allow the application and direct the correction of the records. The Board of Revenue and the High Court should not have set aside that order. The fact that the Land Management Committee of Gaon Sabha had created lease hold rights in favour of the respondents herein is of no consequence. Such lease, in the face of the statutory right of the appellant, is nonest in the eye of law and is liable to be ignored."

14. From the aforesaid, it is apparent that Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 is a beneficial and deeming provision enacted with a definite social purpose and this deeming provision unequivocally provides for the admission of the person satisfying the requisite criteria laid down in the provision as Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights under the Act of 1995 and full effect must be given to it and this provision as per the Hon'ble Apex Court is not a mere shield to protect the possession of a person who fulfills the conditions indicated in sub-section (4-F) but also confers positive right of being recognized as Bhumidhar or occupant satisfying the condition /criteria provided under the Act of 1950 and further, this provision provides rights to defend, if such person is to be evicted or dispossessed from the land of Gaon Sabha.

15. In view of the aforesaid, it is now to be considered the effect of rights provided to an occupant of Gaon Sabha land under Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950, after enforcement of Code of 2006, w.e.f. 11.02.2006 and on this aspect, it would be relevant to consider Section 230 of the Code of 2006, which reads as under:-

"230.Repeal. (1) The enactments specified in the First Schedule are hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the repeal of such enactments shall not affect-

(a) the continuance in force of any such enactment in the State of Uttarakhand;

(b) the previous operation of any such enactment or anything duly done or suffered there under; or

(c) any other enactment in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated or referred to; or

(d) the validity, invalidity, effect or consequences of anything already done or suffered, or any right, title or obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred (including, in particular, the vesting in the State of all estates and the cessation of all rights, title and interest of all the intermediaries therein), or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof, or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, obligation, liability, claim or demand, or any indemnity already granted or the proof of any past act or thing; or (e) any principle or rule of law or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice or procedure or existing usage, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office or appointment:

Provided that anything done or any action taken (including any rules, manuals, assessments, appointments and transfers made, notifications, summonses, notices, warrants, proclamation issued, powers conferred, leases granted, boundary marks fixed, records of rights and other records prepared or maintained, rights acquired or liabilities incurred) under any such enactment shall, insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Code, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Code, and shall continue to be in force accordingly, unless and until they are superseded by anything done or action taken under this Code.

16. From a bare reading of above quoted provision, it is crystal clear that the repeal of the Act of 1950 shall not affect any right acquired or accrued.

17. The case set up by the petitioner, in the instant case, is that in terms of Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950, he had acquired the rights over part of Gata No. 458/0.2960 Hect.

18. Upon conjoint reading of aforesaid, this Court is of the view that plea based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 was available to the petitioner in the proceedings instituted under Section 67 of the Code of 2006 and he has rightly took the same.

19. Now the question is that as to whether the plea of the petitioner based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 has rightly been considered by the respondent nos.2 & 3 and for coming to the conclusion on this aspect, this Court considered observations made in the impugned orders dated 05.02.2024 and 15.07.2023, quoted above, in the light of settled law on the benefit provided under Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 to an occupant of Gaon Sabha land and upon due consideration, this Court is of the opinion that in considering and rejecting the plea of the petitioner based upon Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950, the respondent nos.2 and 3 erred in law and facts both. It is for the following reasons:

(i) the respondent nos.2 and 3 have not considered the effect of Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 and Section 230 of the Code of 2006.

(ii) the respondent nos.2 and 3 have not recorded any finding after considering the period of possession pleaded by the petitioner and cut off date provided under the relevant provisions i.e. Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950.

(iii) the respondent nos.2 and 3 have not recorded the finding after considering the area i.e. 1.26 Hectares (3.125 acres) indicated under Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950 and the area of the land of which the petitioner and his wife are Bhumidhar with transferrable rights.

(iv) the respondent nos.2 and 3 have not recorded the findings, as required, on the issue as to whether the petitioner fulfills the criteria to seek benefit of Section 122-B(4-F) of the Act of 1950.

20. For the reasons aforesaid, this Court is of the view that the impugned orders dated 05.02.2024 and 15.07.2023 passed by respondent nos.2 and 3, respectively, are liable to be set-aside.

21. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. The impugned orders dated 05.02.2024 and 15.07.2023 passed by respondent nos.2 and 3, respectively, are hereby set-aside. The matter is remanded back to respondent no.3-Tehsildar (Nyayik), Mandal-Ayodhya, District- Barabanki, Tehsil-Nawabganj to decide the matter afresh, most expeditiously, strictly in accordance with law.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1409
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 25.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ -C No. 3070 of 2024

B.S.S. Public School, Raebareli & Ors.

...Petitioners

Versus

U.O.I. & Ors.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Rakesh Kumar Chaudhary, Ayush Chaudhary

Counsel for the Respondents:

A.S.G.I., C.S.C., Krishna Lal Yadav, Pankaj Patel, Shashank Bhasin

Opportunity of Hearing-School was granted affiliation with CBSE to run secondary level classes and senior secondary level classes -last extension of provisional affiliation was granted from 01.04.2020 till 31.03.2028 -the complaints made to the District Magistrate- wherein the enquiry committee was constituted-and after receiving the enquiry report, the same was referred to the CBSE-The CBSE conducted an internal enquiry while calling the report from the petitioners' Institution - enquiry was concluded and a show cause notice was issued - admittedly could not be responded by the petitioners' Institution due to some inadvertence on the part of the personnel of the Institution - impugned order passed-deaffiliation- it was incumbent upon the authority which has issued the notice to accord 30 days time, and that too is violated -.settled proposition of law is that affected person by administrative/judicial/quasi-judicial action, must be heard, before the decision is taken-impugned order quashed.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Managing Director, ECIL Hyderabad and others Vs. B. Karunakar and others, 1993 (4) SCC 727
2. Union of India and others Vs. R.P. Singh, (2014) 7 SCC 340
3. Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Limited Vs. Mahesh Dahiya, 2017 (1) SCC 768
4. State Bank of India and others Vs. Rajesh Agarwal and others, (2023)6SCC 1
5. Union of India and others Vs. Mohd. Ramzan Khan, 1991 (1) SCC 588

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri S.C. Mishra, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Ayush

Chaudhary, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel and Sri Vivek Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the opposite party no.5, Sri Krishna Lal Yadav, learned counsel for the opposite party no.1 and Sri Shashank Bhasin, learned counsel for the opposite party nos. 2 to 4.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioners have assailed the order dated 26.02.2024 bearing no. CBSE/Aff. No. 2130934/E-35280/2024 whereby, the affiliation of the petitioners' school has been withdrawn, while holding it that the petitioners' school is found responsible for violation of the provisions envisaged under clause 12.2.1, 12.2.11 and 12.2.12 of the affiliation bye-laws.

3. The factual matrix of the case is that the petitioner no. 1, i.e., B.S.S. Public School, Raebareli (hereinafter referred to as an 'Institution'), is an academic institution, established in the year 1987 and is being run by the petitioner no. 2 society, which is a registered society under Societies Registration Act, 1860. The school was granted affiliation with Central Board of Secodary Education (hereinafter, referred to as 'CBSE') to run secondary level classes i.e. IXth and Xth on 27.03.2008, for three years, which was extended from time to time and was further granted affiliation to run senior secondary level classes i.e. class 11th and 12th, which too was extended subsequently and the last extension of provisional affiliation was granted from 01.04.2020 till 31.03.2028, vide the affiliation letter dated 04.05.2022. Later on, vide the impugned order dated 26.02.2024, the petitioners' Institution is de-affiliated, which is under challenge.

4. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioners is that all of sudden vide order dated 26.02.2024, the affiliation granted to the institution of the petitioners, is withdrawn by CBSE while mentioning some inquiry report, but the inquiry report was never served upon the petitioners by the CBSE while issuing show cause notice or prior to passing the impugned order.

5. Further contention of learned counsel for the petitioners is that, at the time of nation-wide lockdown, due to Covid-19 Pandemic, the educational activities in schools were heavily affected and the CBSE canceled the class 12th examination vide notifications dated 01.06.2021 and 17.06.2021 and for the purpose of assessment of class 12th, the result of Unit Test/Mid Term exam/pre-board examination, conducted by the respective schools in class 12th and 11th alongwith the result of performance in the best three subjects out of main five subjects in class 10th board examination, was proposed to be calculated.

6. He pointed out that the petitioners' institution also evaluated the marks of all the students of class 12th for academic year 2021 and performance of total 140 students were scrutinized out of which 11 students failed, whereas, 23 students got compartments. Thereafter, one Santosh Kumar Sonkar who was aggrieved that his son namely, Ritesh Sonkar became failed in class 12th, came into the school and started chaos, by hurling abuses upon the teachers and staff, whereafter, an information was given to the educational authorities, but he further kept on doing so in the subsequent days, while protesting in the school premises to disrupt the functioning of the school administration and therefore, considering the future of the students, the manager of the petitioners' school by means of an e-mail requested the CBSE to re-assess and increase of the marks of the students, who were failed or is to appear in the compartment exams.

7. He further submits that Sri Sonkar also made a false complaint to the District Magistrate, whereafter, the District Magistrate i.e. opposite party no. 5 constituted a committee to conduct an inquiry in the alleged irregularities and after a sham inquiry, a report is submitted on 04.08.2021, itself, wherein, the petitioners' institution was not associated and the inquiry report was directly sent to the CBSE.

8. He argued that the impugned de-affiliation order dated 26.2.2024 has been passed in most mechanical and clandestine manner while blindly relying on the enquiry report submitted by the opposite party no. 5 based upon false and misleading facts and the petitioners were not associated in the alleged enquiry. He added that though a show cause notice is said to have been issued while sending it on the email of school website but the enquiry report on the basis of which the proceedings of de-affiliation is started, was not enclosed therewith. He has drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.24 of the writ petition, which is a show cause notice dated 12.10.2023 and submitted that on the second page of the notice, the report of the Enquiry Committee is allegedly observed but, in fact, the same is not the enquiry report which was submitted by the enquiry committee constituted by the CBSE and, in this regard, he pointed out the enquiry report appended as Annexure No.10 along with the writ petition, and added that from perusal of the observation of alleged enquiry report in the show cause notice, the same is verbatim the English Translation of the conclusion of the enquiry report dated 4.8.2021 and, thus, this cannot be said that the enquiry report submitted by the enquiry committee by CBSE is quoted in the show cause notice.

9. Further contented that Chapter-V of the affiliation bye laws speaks about withdrawal of the regular affiliation. Clause 18 of Chapter-V is quoted hereinunder:-

"(1) Within the general frame work of Section 17 of this chapter, the Board reserves the right to withdraw regular affiliation in the even of a school failing to observe affiliation norms and rules and/or the pass percentage in most of the subjects goes lower than the pass percentage of each subject at the examinations of the Board, continuously for three years. The Board will ask such a school to rectify the deficiencies and given adequate time (6 months to one year). If the school fails to show improvement, it will lose the status of a regular affiliation school and will revert to a provisionally affiliated school status."

10. From bare perusal of the provisions of Clause 18 of Chapter-V, it is evident that in the event, where the pass percentage in most of the subjects goes lower than the pass percentage of each subject at the examinations of the Board, continuously for three years, the Board will ask such a school to rectify the deficiencies while affording adequate time of six months to one year and if even then such institution fails to show improvement, it will lose status of a regular affiliation school. So far as the present matter is concerned, in Covid Pandemic, in one academic session, there were only 9 students, who were failed, though repeatedly, it has wrongly been stated that out of 140, 50 students were failed. Adding his arguments, he submits that so far as the Committee constituted by the District Magistrate is concerned, without considering the actual fact and evidence, the Committee submitted its report and, thereafter also, the opposite party no.4 after receiving the letter of the District Magistrate, has constituted enquiry committee which also submitted its report but the said enquiry report was never served upon the petitioners' Institution while sending the show cause notice.

11. Along with the above, he has also shown certain other anomalies in the impugned order and submitted that the sole basis of taking decision of de-affiliation is the enquiry report though while the enquiry by the enquiry committee constituted by the opposite party no.4, the petitioners were not associated. He also added that in compliance of the order passed by the writ court, the documents were sent, vide letter dated 8.11.2021 to the opposite party no.4 but without considering the same, the above order impugned is passed. He next added that the show cause notice dated 12.10.2023 was sent to the school on its registered email but the same could not come in the notice of the Principal or Manager of the petitioners' Institution, perhaps, due to some inadvertence of the personnel of the school but fact remains that no physical copy of the show cause notice or any reminder was served upon the petitioners while attaching the enquiry report. It has been practice of the CBSE, in past, to send notices and multiple reminders along with the telephonic information but in the instant matter, the same practice has not been followed deliberately and in fact the CBSE has blindly relied upon the report of the Committee constituted by the District Magistrate which was issued only on the complaint made by one of the guardian of the student of the Institution.

12. Lastly, it is submitted that future of the students are on stake as most of the students have been studying in the petitioners' Institution since beginning and they have been thrown to suffer and, in this event also, welfare of the students have been ignored by the CBSE in a hasty manner.

13. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the petitioners has placed reliance on the Judgment reported in 1993 (4) SCC 727, Managing Director, ECIL Hyderabad and others Vs. B. Karunakar and others and referred paras 29 and 30 of the abovesaid Judgments which are quoted hereinunder:-

"29. Hence it has to be held that when the enquiry officer is not the disciplinary authority, the delinquent employee has a right to receive a copy of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusions with regard to the guilt or innocence of the employee with regard to the charges levelled against him. That right is a part of the employee's right to defend himself against the charges levelled against him. A denial of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority takes its decision on the charges, is a denial of reasonable opportunity to the employee to prove his innocence and is a breach of the principles of natural justice.

30. Hence the incidental questions raised above may be answered as follows:

[i] Since the denial of the report of the enquiry officer is a denial of reasonable opportunity and a breach of the principles of natural justice, it follows that the statutory rules, if any, which deny the report to the employee are against the principles of natural justice and, therefore, invalid. The delinquent employee will, therefore, be entitled to a copy of the report even if the statutory rules do not permit the furnishing of the report or are silent on the subject.

[ii] The relevant portion of Article 311(2) of the Constitution is as follows:

"(2) No such person as aforesaid shall be dismissed or removed or reduced in rank except after an inquiry in which he has been informed of the charges against him and given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of those charges."

Thus the article makes it obligatory to hold an inquiry before the employee is dismissed or removed or reduced in rank. The article, however, cannot be construed to mean that it prevents or prohibits the inquiry when punishment other than that of dismissal, removal or reduction in rank is awarded. The procedure to be followed in awarding other punishments is laid down in the service rules governing the employee. What is further, Article 311(2) applies only to members of the civil services of the Union or an all-India service or a civil service of a State or to the holders of the civil posts under the Union or a State. In the matter of all punishments both Government servants and others are governed by their service rules. Whenever, therefore, the service rules contemplate an inquiry before a punishment is awarded and when the enquiry officer is not the disciplinary authority the delinquent employee will have the right to receive the enquiry officer's report notwithstanding the nature of the punishment.

[iii] Since it is the right of the employee to have the report to defend himself effectively and he would not know in advance whether the report is in his favour or against him, it will not be proper to construe his failure to ask for the report, as the waiver of his right. Whether, therefore, the employee asks for the report or not, the report has to be furnished to him.

[iv] In the view that we have taken, viz., that the right to make representation to the disciplinary authority against the findings recorded in the enquiry report is an integral part of the opportunity of defence against the charges and is a breach of principles of natural justice to deny the said right, it is only appropriate that the law laid down in Mohd. Ramzan case should apply to employees in all establishments whether Government or non-Government, public or private. This will be the case whether there are rules governing the disciplinary proceeding or not and whether they expressly prohibit the furnishing of the copy of the report or are silent on the subject. Whatever the nature of punishment, further, whenever the rules require an inquiry to be held, for inflicting the punishment in question, the delinquent employee should have the benefit of the report of the enquiry officer before the disciplinary authority records its findings on the charges levelled against him. Hence question (iv) is answered accordingly.

[v] The next question to be answered is what is the effect on the order of punishment when the report of the enquiry officer is not furnished to the employee and what relief should be granted to him in such cases. The answer to this question has to be relative to the punishment awarded. When the employee is dismissed or removed from service and the inquiry is set aside because the report is not furnished to him, in some cases the non-furnishing of the report may have prejudiced him gravely while in other cases it may have made no difference to the ultimate punishment awarded to him. Hence to direct reinstatement of the employee with back-wages in all cases is to reduce the rules of justice to a mechanical ritual. The theory of reasonable opportunity and the principles of natural justice have been evolved to uphold the rule of law and to assist the individual to vindicate his just rights. They are not incantations to be invoked nor rites to be performed on all and sundry occasions. Whether in fact, prejudice has been caused to the employee or not on account of the denial to him of the report, has to be considered on the facts and circumstances of each case. Where, therefore, even after the furnishing of the report, no different consequence would have followed, it would be a perversion of justice to permit the employee to resume duty and to get all the consequential benefits. It amounts to rewarding the dishonest and the guilty and thus to stretching the concept of justice to illogical and exasperating limits. It amounts to an "unnatural expansion of natural justice" which in itself is antithetical to justice."

14. Referring the aforesaid, he submits that the Constitutional Bench of the Apex Court, while framing several questions has answered that denial of supply of the enquiry report to the delinquent, is denial of reasonable opportunity and breach of principles of natural justice.

15. Further reliance is placed on a Judgment reported in (2014) 7 SCC 340, Union of India and others Vs. R.P. Singh and paras 12, 20, 21, 23 and 24 are referred, which are quoted hereinunder:-

"12. We will be failing in our duty if we do not take note of the submission of Mr W.A. Qadri that the decision in S.N. Narula case is not an authority because the Tribunal had set aside the order of the disciplinary authority on the ground that it was a non-speaking order. Be that as it may, when the issue was raised before this Court and there has been an advertence to the same, we are unable to accept the submission of Mr Qadri. The said decision in S.N. Narula case is an authority for the proposition that the advice of UPSC, if sought and accepted, the same, regard being had to the principles of natural justice, is to be communicated before imposition of punishment."

"20. Testing on the aforesaid principles it can safely be concluded that the judgment in T.V. Patel case is per incuriam.

21. At this juncture, we would like to give our reasons for our respectful concurrence with S.K. Kapoor. There is no cavil over the proposition that the language engrafted in Article 320(3)(c) does not make the said article mandatory. As we find, in T.V. Patel case³, the Court has based its finding on the language employed in Rule 32 of the Rules. It is not in dispute that the said Rule from the very inception is a part of the 1965 Rules. With the efflux of time, there has been a change of perception as regards the applicabilityany the principles of natural justice. An inquiry report in a disciplinary proceeding is required to be furnished to the delinquent employee so that he can make an adequate representation explaining his own stand/stance. That is precisely what has been laid down in B. Karunakar cases. We may reproduce the relevant passage with profit: (B. Karunakar case, SCC p. 756, para 29)

"29. Hence it has to be held that when the enquiry officer is not the disciplinary authority, the delinquent employee has a right to receive a copy of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusions with regard to the guilt or innocence of the employee with regard to the charges levelled against him. That right is a part of the employee's right to defend himself against the charges levelled against him. A denial of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority takes its decision on the charges, is a denial of reasonable opportunity to the employee to prove his innocence and is a breach of the principles of natural justice."

"23. We have referred to the aforesaid decision in B. Karunakar case in e extenso as we find that in the said case it has been opined by the Constitution Bench that non-supply of the enquiry report is a breach of the principle of natural justice. Advice from UPSC, needless to say, when utilised as a material against the delinquent officer, it should be supplied in advance. As it seems to us, Rule 32 provides for supply of copy of advice to the government servant at the time of making an order. The said stage was in prevalence before the decision of the Constitution Bench. After the said decision, in our considered opinion, the authority should have clarified the Rule regarding development in the service jurisprudence.

24. We have been apprised by Mr Raghavan, learned counsel for the respondent, that after the decision in S.K. Kapoor case, the Government of India, Ministry of Personnel, PG & Pensions, Department of Personnel and Training vide Office Memorandum dated 6-1-2014 has issued the following directions:

"4. Accordingly. it has been decided that in all disciplinary cases where the Commission is to be consulted, the following procedure may be adopted:

(i) On receipt of the inquiry report, the DA may examine the same and forward it to the Commission with his observations:

(ii) On receipt of the Commission's report, the DA will examine the same and forward the same to the charged officer along with the inquiry report and his tentative reasons for disagreement with the inquiry report and/or the advice of UPSC;

(iii) The charged officer shall be required to submit, if he so desires, his written representation or submission to the disciplinary authority within fifteen days, irrespective of whether the inquiry report/advice of UPSC is in his favour or not. (iv) The disciplinary authority shall consider the representation of the charged officer and take further further action as prescribed ribed in sub-rules (2-A) to (4) of Rule 15 of the CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965."

16. Placing reliance on the abovesaid, he submits that referring the decision in B. Karunakar's case (supra), it has been held that enquiry report should be supplied in advance as non-supply of the enquiry report is a breach of principles of natural justice.

17. Further placing reliance on the Judgment and order reported in 2017 (1) SCC 768, Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Limited Vs. Mahesh Dahiya, referred paras 23, 24 and 25, which are quoted hereinunder:-

"23. The basis of coming to the conclusion by both the learned Single Judge and the Division Bench that disciplinary authority has violated the principle of natural justice is based on the fact that although the enquiry report was sent to the writ petitioner by the letter dated 2-4-2008, the disciplinary authority-cum-whole-time members have already come to the opinion on 25-2-2008 that the writ petitioner be punished with major penalty. The Division Bench of the High Court has placed reliance on Union of India v. R.P. Singh.

24. In the above case the issue was as to whether non-supply of the copy of advice of UPSC to the delinquent officer at pre-decision stage violates the principle of natural justice. This Court placed reliance on the Constitution Bench judgment in ECIL v. B. Karunakar and laid down the following in para 21: (R.P. Singh case, SCC p. 349)

"21. At this juncture, we would like to give our reasons for our respectful concurrence with S.K. Kapoor. There is no cavil over the proposition that the language engrafted in Article 320(3)(c) does not make the said article mandatory. As we find, in T.V. Patel case, the Court has based its finding on the language employed in Rule 32 of the Rules. It is not in dispute that the said Rule from the very inception is a part of the 1965 Rules. With the efflux of time, there has been a change of perception as regards the applicability of the principles of natural justice. An enquiry report in a disciplinary proceeding is required to be furnished to the delinquent employee so that he can make an adequate representation explaining his own stand/stance. That is precisely what has been laid down in B. Karunakar cases. We may reproduce the relevant passage with profit: (B. Karunakar cases, SCC p. 756, para 29)

29. Hence it has to be held that when the enquiry officer is not the disciplinary authority, the delinquent employee has a right to receive a copy of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusions with regard to the guilt or innocence of the employee with regard to the charges levelled against him. That right is a part of the employee's right to defend himself against the charges levelled against him. A denial of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority takes its decision on the charges, is a denial of reasonable opportunity to the employee a breach of the principles to prove his innocence and is of natural justice."

There can be no dispute to the above proposition.

25. The Constitution Bench in ECIL v. B. Karunakar after elaborately considering the principle of natural justice in the context of the disciplinary inquiry laid down the following in paras 29, 30(iv) and (v): (SCC pp. 756-58)

"29. Hence it has to be held that when the enquiry officer is not the disciplinary authority, the delinquent employee has a right to receive a copy of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority arrives at its conclusions with regard to the guilt or innocence of the employee with regard to the charges levelled against him. That right is a part of the employee's right to defend himself against the charges levelled against him. A denial of the enquiry officer's report before the disciplinary authority takes its decision on the charges, is a denial of reasonable opportunity to the employee to prove his innocence and is a breach of the principles of natural justice.

30.... (iv) In the view that we have taken viz. that the right to make representation to the disciplinary authority against the findings recorded in the enquiry report is an integral part of the opportunity of defence against the charges and is a breach of principles of natural justice to deny the said right, it is only appropriate that the law laid down in Mohd. Ramzan cases should apply to employees in all establishments whether Government or non-government, public or private. This will be the case whether there are rules governing the disciplinary proceeding or not and whether they expressly prohibit the furnishing of the copy of the report or are silent on the subject. Whatever the nature of punishment, further, whenever the rules require an inquiry to be held, for inflicting the punishment in question, the delinquent employee should have the benefit of the report of the enquiry officer before the disciplinary authority records its findings on the charges levelled against him. Hence question (iv) is answered accordingly.

(v) The next question to be answered is what is the effect on the order of punishment when the report of the enquiry officer is not furnished to the employee and what relief should be granted to him in such cases. The answer to this question has to be relative to the punishment awarded. When the employee is dismissed or removed from service and the inquiry is set aside because the report is not furnished to him, in some cases the non-furnishing of the report may have prejudiced him gravely while in other cases it may have made no difference to the ultimate punishment awarded to him. Hence to direct reinstatement of the employee with back wages in all cases is to reduce the rules of justice to a mechanical ritual. The theory of reasonable opportunity and the principles of natural justice have been evolved to uphold the rule of law and to assist the individual to vindicate his just rights. They are not incantations to be invoked nor rites to be performed on all and sundry occasions. Whether in fact, prejudice has been caused to the employee or not on account of the denial to him of the report, has to be considered on the facts and circumstances of each case. Where, therefore, even after the furnishing of the report, no different consequence would have followed, it would be a perversion of justice to permit the employee to resume duty and to get all the consequential benefits. It amounts to rewarding the dishonest and the guilty and thus to stretching the concept of justice to illogical and exasperating limits. It amounts to an "unnatural expansion of natural justice" which in itself is antithetical to justice."

18. While referring the aforesaid, he submits that it is settled that if a person is charged then he shall be given the opportunity to submit reply, while furnishing the evidence relied upon.

19. Lastly, the emphasis has been placed on a case reported in (2023) 6 SCC 1, State Bank of India and others Vs. Rajesh Agarwal and others, and paragraphs 36, 40, 41, 42, 80, 81 and 84 are referred, which are extracted hereinunder:-

"36. We need to bear in mind that the principles of natural justice are not mere legal formalities. They constitute substantive obligations that need to be followed by decision-making and adjudicating authorities. The principles of natural justice act as a guarantee against arbitrary action, both in terms of procedure and substance, by judicial, quasi-judicial, and administrative authorities. Two fundamental principles of natural justice are entrenched in Indian jurisprudence: (i) nemo iudex in causa sua, which means that no person should be a Judge in their own cause; and (ii) audi alteram partem, which means that a person affected by administrative, judicial or quasi-judicial action must be heard before a decision is taken. The courts generally favour interpretation of a statutory provision consistent with the principles of natural justice because it is presumed that the statutory authorities do not intend to contravene fundamental rights. Application of the said principles depends on the facts and circumstances of the case, express language and basic scheme of the statute under which the administrative power is exercised, the nature and purpose for which the power is conferred, and the final effect of the exercise of that power.

40. The process of forming an informed opinion under the Master Directions on Frauds is administrative in nature. This has also been acceded to by RBI and lender banks in their written submissions. It is now a settled principle of law that the rule of audi alteram partem applies to administrative actions, apart from judicial and quasi-judicial functions. 15 It is also a settled position in administrative law that it is mandatory to provide for an opportunity of being heard when an administrative action results in civil consequences to a person or entity.

41. In State of Orissa v. Binapani Dei16, a two-Judge Bench of this Court held that every authority which has the power to take punitive or damaging action has a duty to give a reasonable opportunity to be heard. This Court further wear held that an administrative action which involves civil consequences must be made consistent with the rules of natural justice: (AIR p. 1271, para 9)

"9.... The rule that a party to whose prejudice an order is intended to be passed is entitled to a hearing applies alike to judicial tribunals and bodies of persons invested with authority to adjudicate upon matters involving civil consequences. It is one of the fundamental rules of our constitutional set-up that every citizen is protected against exercise of arbitrary authority by the State or its officers. Duty to act judicially would therefore arise from the very nature of the function intended to be performed: it need not be shown to be super-added. If there is power to decide and determine to the prejudice of a person, duty to act judicially is implicit in the exercise of such power. If the essentials of justice be ignored and an order to the prejudice of a person is made, the order is a nullity. That is a basic concept of the rule of law and importance thereof transcends the significance of a decision in any particular case."

42. In *Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India*¹¹, a seven-Judge Bench of this Court held that any person prejudicially affected by a decision of the authority entailing civil consequences must be given an opportunity of being heard. This has been reiterated in a catena of decisions of this Court.

80. Audi alteram partem has several facets, including the service of a notice to any person against whom a prejudicial order may be passed and providing an opportunity to explain the evidence collected. In *Tulsiram Patel*³⁴, this Court explained the wide amplitude of audi alteram partem: (SCC p. 476, para 96)

"96. The rule of natural justice with which we are concerned in these appeals and writ petitions, namely, the audi alteram partem rule, in its fullest amplitude means that a person against whom an order to his prejudice may be passed should be informed of the allegations and charges against him, be given an opportunity of submitting his explanation thereto, have the right to know the evidence, both oral or documentary, by which the matter is proposed to be decided against him, and to inspect the documents which are relied upon for the purpose of being used against him, to have the witnesses who are to give evidence against him examined in his presence and have the right to cross-examine them, and to lead his own evidence, both oral and documentary, in his defence. The process of a fair hearing need not, however, conform to the judicial process in a court of law, because judicial adjudication of causes involves a number of technical rules of procedure and evidence which are unnecessary and not required for the purpose of a fair hearing within the meaning of audi alteram partem rule in a quasi-judicial or administrative inquiry." (emphasis supplied)

81. Audi alteram partem, therefore, entails that an entity against whom evidence is collected must: (i) be provided an opportunity to explain the evidence against it; (ii) be informed of the proposed action, and (iii) be allowed to represent why the proposed action should not be taken. Hence, the mere participation of the borrower during the course of the preparation of a forensic audit report would not fulfil the requirements of natural justice. The decision to classify an account as fraud involves due application of mind to the facts and law by the lender banks. The lender banks, either individually or through a JLF, have to decide whether a borrower has breached the terms and conditions of a loan agreement, and based upon such determination the lender banks can seek appropriate remedies. Therefore, principles of natural justice demand that the borrowers must be served a notice, given an opportunity to explain the findings in the forensic audit report, and to represent before the account is classified as fraud under the Master Directions on Frauds.

84. In *E.P. Royappa v. State of T.N.*³⁸, this Court held that an arbitrary State action is violative of Article 14 of the Constitution. Again, in *Maneka Gandhi*¹⁷ this Court reiterated that the principle of non-arbitrariness pervades Article 14. An administrative action can be tested for constitutional infirmities under Article 14 on four grounds: (i) unreasonableness or irrationality; (ii) illegality; (iii) procedural impropriety;³⁹ and (iv) proportionality.

However, the scope of such judicial review is limited to ascertaining the deficiency in the decision-making process, and not the correctness of the choice made by the administrator."

20. Particularly, emphasizing on paragraph 36, he argued that Rule of Audi Alteram Partem is explained by the Apex Court and it is held that a person affected by administrative, judicial or quasi judicial action, must be heard, before taking decision.

21. Concluding his arguments, he submits that the impugned de-affiliation order dated 26.2.2024 is bad in the eyes of law as the same has been passed without providing copy of the enquiry report along with the show cause notice.

22. Refuting the aforesaid contentions of the learned counsel for the petitioners, it has been submitted by learned counsel for the opposite parties that there were 50 students reported to be failed in different subjects in the petitioners' Institution and, therefore, when it was found that the same was in utter violation of the moderation policy of the Board framed under the directions of the Apex Court, the CBSE has taken the note of the fact including the report of the District Magistrate, who constituted a committee on large number of complaints before him and a report was forwarded to the CBSE, whereafter an internal committee was also constituted for conducting enquiry/inspection against the Institution upon the same. The internal committee submitted its report, though the Institution during the course of enquiry did not co-operate in the enquiry proceedings.

23. He further argued that in conclusion of the internal enquiry report, it has been found that there are violation of the rules and norms of the tabulation policy of the Board by the petitioners in awarding marks to its students while tempering the records of the year 2020–21. He further contended that after the internal inspection/enquiry report was received, the show cause notice was served to the school by the Board through email and this fact has not been disputed by the petitioners but the school has failed to submit its reply within the stipulated period of time as granted by the Board. He further added that the school has violated provisions of clause 13.5, 12.2.11, 12.2.12 and 17 (2) (b) of the Affiliation Bye Laws, 2018 and since the clause 17 (2) (a) (xi) provides with respect to the misconduct in connection with the admission/examination/any other area, which is in the opinion of the Board warrants deaffiliation of the schools. Since the school has violated the rules and guidelines of CBSE and, therefore, invoking the procedure for imposition of penalties prescribed under the Affiliation Bye Laws, 2018, the Institution of the petitioners have been deaffiliated by the order dated 26.2.2024.

24. Controverting the plea of the learned counsel for the petitioners, he submits that the relevant extract of the enquiry report is observed in the show cause notice dated 12.10.2023, which is evident on the second page of the show cause notice, but, since the petitioners have chosen, not to reply the aforesaid show cause notice, therefore, there is no violation of principle of natural justice on the part of the CBSE so far the allegation is with respect to non-supply of the enquiry report concerned. He also added that the petitioners' institution has manipulated the marks which is against the guidelines of the exemption given for the students of class

XII, looking to the Covid Pandemic, 2019. Adding his arguments, he submits that the ratio of the judgements which are placed by the learned counsel for the petitioners, are not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the present case and, therefore, submission of the learned counsel for the CBSE is that the petitioners are not entitled for any relief as there is no erroneousness in the order dated 26.2.2024.

25. Learned counsel appearing for the opposite party no.5 submits that when several complaints were received by the District Magistrate regarding the irregularities committed by the petitioners' Institution, the District Magistrate proceeded while constituting six members enquiry committee, which submitted a report while holding the petitioners' Institution guilty and, therefore, the District Magistrate referred the matter to the CBSE annexing the enquiry report and, thereafter, the CBSE proceeded in the matter. He added that there is no fault on the part of the District Magistrate as what the minimum requirement was after receiving the complaints, have been done by the opposite party no.5 and, ultimately, the decision was to be taken by the CBSE.

26. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after perusal of the material placed on record, it transpires that a dispute arose when the complaints were made to the District Magistrate, wherein the enquiry committee was constituted, and after receiving the enquiry report, the same was referred to the CBSE. The CBSE after receiving the enquiry report has conducted an internal enquiry while calling the report from the petitioners' Institution and, thereafter, the enquiry was concluded and a show cause notice was issued on 12.10.2023, which admittedly could not be responded by the petitioners' Institution due to some inadvertence on the part of the personnel of the Institution and, thereafter, the CBSE passed the order while de-affiliating the Institution, which is under challenge.

27. Sheet anchor of the argument of learned counsel for the petitioners is that the impugned order is passed by the CBSE without furnishing/ supplying copy of the enquiry report, which is evident from the show cause notice that the same was taken into consideration but was not appended while sending it to the petitioners.

28. When this Court examines the instant matter on facts and law, it emerges that a punitive action has been taken by the CBSE, vide order dated 26.2.2024 where by the school of the petitioners has been de-affiliated. From perusal of the show cause notice dated 12.10.2023, it transpires that the enquiry report is allegedly quoted in the show cause notice which is as follows:-

"1. The school management could not make available the answer sheets of the children on the demand of the examination committee, due to which it was not possible to assess whether the answer sheets have been evaluated correctly or not. Prima facie it appears to be suspicious due to non-availability of answer books, as well as against the standard number of 24 subject-wise failed students against the prescribed provisions in the Moderation Policy, 50 students have been failed, which is 26 students more than the norm. No archival evidence was produced by the school management in this regard. Rationalization documents, minutes of the examination committee were not presented by the school management before the inquiry committee, for which the school management is completely guilty.

2. The facts of the statement mentioned in paragraph 5 above regarding difference in the two-mark sheets of class 11 issued by the school are not acceptable. The school management is at fault for issuing different mark sheets of the same class. 3 As far as there is a question of students being given less marks and being failed due to not taking tuition from the teachers of the school. In this regard, according to the facts given in paragraph-2, statements of some students AND WHEREAS, the District Magistrate Rae Bareilly Uttar Pradesh had requested to this office that send a team for collecting all the records from the Treasury from District Administration and directed that the unbiased investigation must be ensured immediately, if the school manage is found guilty in the investigation long with ensuring strict legal action as per rules."

29. When the observations of the enquiry report are tallied with the conclusion of the enquiry report dated 4.8.2021, which was submitted by six members enquiry committee before the District Magistrate, it is the verbatim translation in English in the show cause notice dated 12.10.2023. The conclusion/observation of the enquiry committee is quoted hereinunder:-.

“निष्कर्ष

उपर्युक्त तथ्यों से स्पष्ट है कि बी0एस0एस0 पब्लिक स्कूल अमोल बिहार रायबरेली की जांच में समिति के द्वारा निम्न तथ्य पाए गए हैं:-

1 जांच कमेटी द्वारा बच्चों के उत्तर पुस्तिका मांगने पर विद्यालय प्रबंधन द्वारा उत्तर पुस्तिका उपलब्ध नहीं करायी जा सकी, जिससे यह आंकलन कर पाना संभव नहीं हो पाया कि उत्तर पुस्तिका का सही मूल्यांकन किया गया है अथवा नहीं। उत्तर पुस्तिका उपलब्ध न कराने से प्रथम दृष्ट्या संदिग्धता प्रतीत होती है, साथ ही माडरेशन पालिसी में विहित प्रावधानों के

सापेक्ष विषयवार अनुत्तीर्ण होने वाले छात्रों की मानक संख्या 24 के सापेक्ष 50 छात्रों को अनुत्तीर्ण किया गया है जो मानक से 26 छात्र अधिक है इस संबंध में विद्यालय प्रबंधन द्वारा कोई अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया है। जांच कमेटी के समक्ष विद्यालय प्रबंधक द्वारा युक्तिकरण दस्तावेज परीक्षा कमेटी का कार्यवृत्त प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया, जिसके लिए विद्यालय प्रबंधन पूर्णतया दोषी है।

2 विद्यालय द्वारा कक्षा 11 की जारी दो अंकतालिकाओं में भिन्नता के सम्बन्ध में उपरोक्त प्रस्तर 5 में उल्लिखित बयान के तथ्य स्वीकार किये जाने योग्य नहीं है। एक ही कक्षा की भिन्न-भिन्न अंकतालिका जारी करने के लिए विद्यालय प्रबंधन सर्वथा दोषी है।

3 जहां तक विद्यालय के अध्यापकों से द्यूशन न पढ़ने के कारण छात्रों को कम नम्बर दिए जाने व फेल कर दिए जाने का प्रश्न है। इस सम्बन्ध में प्रस्तर-2 में दिए गए तथ्यों के अनुसार कतिपय छात्रों का बयान लिया गया है जिसके अनुसार उक्त तथ्यों की पुष्टि नहीं होती है।"

30. While going into the aforesaid observations, this Court is of the considered opinion that the observation of the enquiry report, which is said to be quoted in the show cause notice dated 12.10.2023, is not the observations of the enquiry report submitted by the internal committee constituted by the CBSE, but in fact, it is the observations of the enquiry committee, which was constituted by the District Magistrate and, therefore, the plea which has been taken by the CBSE that though the copy of the enquiry report was not appended along with the show cause notice but the observation of the same was transcribed, is false and baseless.

31. The settled proposition of law is that if a person is affected by administrative/judicial/quasi-judicial action, must be heard, before the decision is taken. It is also trite law that even if the statutory rules laying down the procedure for holding the enquiry are silent on the subject, it is incumbent upon the authority to bring the enquiry report in the notice of the person against whom the enquiry is instituted. Hon'ble Apex Court while rendering the judgement in the case of Union of India and others Vs. Mohd. Ramzan Khan, 1991 (1) SCC 588 has held that wherever, there has been an enquiry officer and he has furnished a report to the disciplinary authority at the conclusion of the enquiry holding the delinquent guilty of all or any of the charges with proposal for any particular punishment or not, the delinquent is entitled to a copy of such report and has a right to represent against it. Thereafter, in catena of judgements of the Apex Court, this view is adopted including the judgement and order reported in (1993) 4 SCC 727, Managing Director, ECIL, Hyderabad and others Vs. B. Karunakar and others, and subsequently, the same view is also taken in the case reported in 2023 (6) SCC 1, State Bank of India and others Vs. Rajesh Agarwal and others.

32. This Court is also of considered opinion that the right of hearing while extending the rule of audi alteram partem, not only in case of judicial or quasi-judicial action, but if a person is affected with the administrative action, is required a copy of enquiry report so as to represent against the same. Ancillary issues are with respect to the application of the rules of the Affiliation of Bye Laws of 2018.

33. Learned counsels from both sides have tried to substantiate that the provisions have been misread. Much emphasis is laid by learned counsel for the CBSE that the CBSE has proceeded as per the procedure for imposition of penalties, while referring the clauses 13.1 and 13.2. On the contrary, learned counsel for the petitioners has placed reliance on the provisions of the clause 18 (1) of Chapter V of the Affiliation Bye Laws and has indicated that the petitioners' school was accorded regular affiliation and, therefore, prior to passing any order for de-affiliation, the procedure prescribed should have been adhered to. He has also drawn attention towards the provisions that even if in most of the subjects, the percentage goes lower than the pass percentage of each subject at the examination of the Board, continuously for three years, the Board could have asked the school to rectify deficiencies while giving adequate time, i.e., six months to 1 year and in the event that the school fails to show any improvement, then the status of regular affiliation would be reverted to the provisionally affiliated school status.

34. In the aforesaid background, this Court, after going through the procedure, which was adopted by the CBSE thereby de-affiliating the school seems to be lacking of adhering the provisions provided in clause 18 (1) of Chapter V of the Affiliation Bye Laws, 2018. Further, in the show cause notice, 15 days time was given to the petitioners' school to reply the show cause notice whereas clause 13.4 of the affiliation bye laws, itself speaks that reply will be asked to be given in not more than 30 days and, at least, it was incumbent upon the authority which has issued the notice to accord 30 days time, and that too is violated by the CBSE.

35. In view of the abovesaid submissions and discussions, this Court is of the considered opinion that the order dated 26.2.2024 is erroneous and against the settled proposition of law. Hence, the order dated 26.2.2024 is hereby quashed.

responsible/burdened by the act of another-for the fault of institution or any authority- the petitioners/students cannot be thrown to suffer-directions issued.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

39. Consigned to the records.

1. At the very outset, counsel for the petitioners submits that he may be allowed to implead the Senior Director (I.T.), National Informatics Centre, U.P. State Centre, 3rd floor Yojna Bhawan, 9- Sarojini Naidu Marg, Lucknow.

BEFORE

Writ-C No. 3075 of 2024

3. In view of the above counsel for the petitioners is permitted to implead the Senior Director (I.T.), National Informatics Centre, U.P. State Centre, 3rd floor Yojna Bhawan, 9- Sarojini Naidu Marg, Lucknow as opposite party no. 9 in the array of opposite parties, during course of the day.

Sudeep Kumar, Avdhesh Kumar Pandey

4. Heard Ms Radhika Verma, advocate, holding brief of Sri Sudeep Kumar, Sri A.K. Pandey, Sri Shivendra Singh and Sri Sreesh Srivastava, counsels for the petitioners, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel for the State and Sri Vivek Shukla, additional chief standing counsel for the State, Sri Umesh Singh, counsel for opposite party no. 1 and 9, Sri Devak Vardhan, counsel for opposite party no. 4, Sri D.P. Singh for opposite party no. 7 and Sri Jai Prakash Mishra, advocate, holding brief of Sri Sudhanshu Chauhan, counsel for opposite party no. 8

5. The present petition is preferred seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari

Examination-‘Nemo Alterius Facto Pragravari Debet’ Petitioners are selected candidates- through the valid counselling process -allocated the respondent institution-also are studying over there-dispute arose when it came into the knowledge of the petitioners that their names are not uploaded on the portal of NIC/NCISM -and they are being deprived of to appear in the examination-aggrieved - instant petition- no fault on the part of the petitioners- as they are duly selected and have persuaded their courses -due to some technical fault- their names could not be uploaded on the portal-maxim ‘Nemo Alterius Facto Pragravari Debet’ says that no one should be quashing the decision if any, taken by National Commission for Indian System of Medicine for not updating the detail/data of the petitioners on the official website of National Commission for Indian System of Medicine or Uttar Pradesh Ayush Under-Graduate Counseling Board, while summoning the records and further writ of mandamus is also sought commanding the respondent nos. 4 and 6 to update the details and data of the petitioners on the official website of respondent nos. 4 and 6.

6. The factual matrix of the case is that in year 2020, the Central Government promulgated the National Commission for Indian System Medical Act, 2020 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act 2020') for improving the access to the students and thereafter, on 06.02.2023, the National Commission for Indian System of Medicine (hereinafter referred to as 'NCISM') vide certificate dated 06.02.2023, granted the permission to the respondent no. 8 institution for establishing new Ayurveda Medical College, named as RGS Medical College and Research Centre at village Karaundi Post- Itaunja District Lucknow and for the academic session 2022-2023, the institution was permitted to run 100 seats in undergraduate (BAMS) course and thereafter, the institution approached for inclusion of its name in the under graduate counseling, under section 14 of the Act, 2020.

7. All the petitioners said to be appeared in the National Eligibility cum Entrance Test conducted by NCISM through the allotment letters issued by the Member Secretary, Uttar Pradesh Ayush Undergraduate Counseling Board (hereinafter referred to as 'Board') and the petitioners have been allotted the institution in question under the mop-up round.

Thereafter, the petitioners pursued their course for the academic session 2022-2023, but allegedly due to some technical fault, the names of the petitioners could not be uploaded on the official website of NCISM thereafter, the respondent institution wrote letter on 19.10.2023, while approaching the Director/Member Secretary of the Board for uploading the details of 7 students, including the petitioners, but nothing was done. Subsequently, on 19.01.2024, the Director/Member Secretary Homeopathy, U.P. wrote a letter to respondent no. 2, while transcribing therein, the names of 15 candidates/students, including the present petitioners, but no decision is taken by the State, rather on 14.03.2024, the State Government intimated to the Director Homeopathy, U.P. that since as per the Government Order 10.12.2022, no proceeding is required to be done by the State and therefore, the matter was again remitted back to the Director Homeopathy to take decision on its own.

8. In the meantime, the petitioners were kept on writing to the different authorities for uploading their names, but that was of no avail, even the letter has also been written to NIC on 04.10.2023, but the request was declined on the ground that since, counseling of 2023-2024 is started and therefore, it is not possible to upload the names of the students/petitioners. Under the aforesaid exigencies, the petitioners have approached this Court while preferring the instant petition.

9. The contention of counsel for the petitioners is that the petitioners are validly selected candidates through the National Eligibility Cum Entrance Test conducted by NCISM and thereafter, they are entitled to pursue course without any interruption. He next added that it is undisputed that the petitioners are inducted properly through the Board, adopting due course, and they have also started their study with respondent institution i.e. opposite party no. 8, but it seems that due to some negligence on the part of the institution, the names of petitioners could not be uploaded on the portal and therefore, it was left to be uploaded by the NIC as well and therefore, the data could not reach to the office of NCISM.

10. He argued that there is no fault on the part of the petitioners as they are duly selected through 'Board 2022' and it is nobody's case that the petitioners are not duly inducted/selected. He also added that the petitioners being the students are suffering hard and their academic carrier is on stake therefore, submission is that the appropriate authority may be directed to upload the names of the petitioners on the portal/website of NCISM and the NCISM may further be directed to proceed accordingly.

11. On the other hand, Sri Devak Vardhan, counsel appearing for the NCISM has submitted that only the name of three candidates are found which are different than the actual students/candidates who are claiming themselves to be the student of the institution. He added that NCISM has no objection, if any technical fault is corrected by appropriate authority.

12. Sri Vivek Shukla, additional chief standing counsel for the State on the basis of instructions submits that it is undisputed that after counseling, the petitioners are allocated the institution i.e. opposite party no. 8, in mop-up round of the counseling 2022-2023 and since, the institution did not upload the names of the petitioners on portal, well within time provided by the Counseling Authority and therefore, after completion of the time period, the same was closed and this fact with respect to non-uploading the names of the petitioners came at very belated stage and therefore, it was not possible for NIC to upload those data as per the procedure prescribed. He also added that the petitioners themselves have admitted the fact that opposite party no. 8 i.e. institution itself has failed to upload their names on portal.

13. Considering the submission of counsel for the parties and after perusal of material placed on record, it transpires that the thing which is undisputed in between the parties is that the petitioners are selected candidates through the valid counselling process by the counseling board and they have been allocated the respondent institution and they also are studying over there.

14. The dispute arose when it came into the knowledge of the petitioners that since, their names are not uploaded on the portal of NIC/NCISM and they are being deprived of to appear in the examination, therefore, being aggrieved they approached this Court by way of filing the instant petition.

15. Since, this borne out that there is no fault on the part of the petitioners as they are duly selected and have persuaded their courses and due to some technical fault, their names could not be uploaded on the portal, and the maxim 'Nemo Alterius Facto Pragravari Debet' says that no one should be responsible/burdened by the act of another and thus, for the fault of institution or any authority, the petitioners/students cannot be thrown to suffer.

16. This Court has also taken the note of fact that the Director Homeopathy has also written a letter to the State Government mentioning the names of the 15 candidates including the present petitioners and brought the facts into the knowledge of the State Government that due to some technical flaw the names of these petitioners could not be uploaded on portal, but in response thereto, the State Government vide letter dated 14.03.2024 has observed that as per the Government Order dated 10.12.2021, nothing remains to be done by the State Government and thus, there became a deadlock.

17. In view of the above-said submissions and discussions and to resolve the controversy at this Stage, the opposite party no. 9 as well as the NCISM, are hereby directed to upload the names of the petitioners on the portal/website meant therefor, and further, do as needful.

18. It is further provided that the aforesaid proceedings shall be carried out by the NIC and NCISM, within a period of two weeks from the date of certified copy of this order produced before it.

19. With the aforesaid observations, the instant petition is hereby allowed.

20. Appearance of Dr. Raj Kumar Kasyap is hereby exempted.

21. Counsel appearing for the opposite parties shall communicate this order to the respective authorities forthwith.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1427
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 10.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ-C No. 3277 of 2024

M/S Shrasty Computer Solution & Tech.
Lko. ...Petitioner
Versus
Employee Provident Org. & Ors.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Jai Narayan Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
 Akhilesh Pratap Singh, C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950- Article 226-Employees Provident funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act,1952- Section 7A-The petitioner challenged the dismissal of appeal by the Central Government Industrial Tribunal(CGIT)- The petitioner failed to file the appeal within the prescribed period of 60 days which could only be extended by another 60 days under Rule 7(2) of the EPF Appellate Tribunal(Procedure)Rules, 1997-Despite a previous writ petition allowing a 15-day extension to file the appeal, the petitioner missed this extended deadline as well-The appeal was dismissed for being time-barred, as the tribunal lacks jurisdiction to condone delays beyond the statutory maximum of 120 days-The court observed that the petitioner's explanation (illness) for the delay was deemed inadequate since the appeal was filed even after recovery-the petitioner failed to deposit 75% of the amount due, as mandated by Rule 7(2), a prerequisites for filing such appeals-The writ petition is dismissed as there were no valid grounds to extend the limitation further or to waive procedural requirements.(Para 1 to 20)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. C/M Angoori Devi Inter College & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (2019)12 ADJ 62

2. Collector (LA) Vs Katiji(1987) 2 SCC 107

3. Sheo Raj Singh Vs U.O.I.(2023) 10 SCC 531

4. Basawaraj Vs Land Acquisition Officer(2013) 14 SCC 81

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Jai Narayan Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri S. K. Khare, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel and Sri Akhilesh Pratap Singh, the learned counsel for the Respondents No. 1 to 4.

2. By means of the instant writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged the validity of an order dated 04.03.2024 passed by the Central Government Industrial Tribunal/EPFAT, Lucknow in Appeal No. 67 of 2023, whereby the appeal has been dismissed as being barred by the period of limitation as provided under Section 7(2) of the Employees' Provident Fund Appellate Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1997, which was filed by the petitioner against an order dated 31.03.2023 passed by the Assistant Provident Fund Commissioner, Regional Office, Lucknow, under Section 7A of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act.

3. The provisions of limitation for filing an Appeal under Section 7A of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act is provided in Rule 7(2) of the Employees Provident Fund Appellate Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1997, which reads as under:-

“7. Fee, time for filing appeal, deposit of amount due on filing appeal-

(2) Any person aggrieved by a notification issued by the Central Government or an order passed by the Central Government or any other authority under the Act, may within 60 days from the date of issue of the notification/order, prefer an appeal to the Tribunal.

Provided that the Tribunal may if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within the prescribed period, extend the said period by a further period of 60 days:

Provided further that no appeal by the employer shall be entertained by a Tribunal unless he has deposited with the Tribunal (a Demand Draft payable in the Fund and bearing) 75 per cent of the amount due from him as determined under Section 7-A:

Provided also that the Tribunal may for reasons to be recorded in writing, waive or reduce the amount to be deposited under Section 7-O.”

4. The petitioner did not file the appeal within the time prescribed by the aforesaid Rule. He had filed Writ-C No. 8978 of 2023 challenging the aforesaid order dated 31.03.2023 and the writ petition was dismissed on the ground of availability of alternative remedy of filing the appeal and it was provided in the order that in case the petitioner files an appeal within a period of 15 days, the same shall be decided on its merits and shall not be rejected on the ground of delay.

5. The time of 15 days granted by this court expired on 31.10.2023. The petitioner did not file the appeal within the extended time granted by this Court and he filed the appeal on 07.11.2023.

6. The Central Government Industrial Tribunal dismissed the appeal holding that the appeal was not filed even within the extended time granted by this Court and it had been filed belatedly and the Tribunal has no power to condone any delay beyond 60 days.

7. The Tribunal has relied upon numerous judgments on the point.

8. In Kushang Security and House Keeping Private Limited v. Central Government Industrial, 2019 SCC OnLine All 3080, a coordinate Bench of this Court has dealt with this issue and after discussing numerous precedents on the issue, as held that: -

“32. In view of the foregoing discussion, the legal position which emerges that in terms of Section 7-I (2) every appeal is to be filed in such form and manner, within such time and be accompanied by such fees, as may be prescribed. Rule 7 (2) of the Rules, 1997 provides for filing of the appeal within 60 days from the date of issuance of the order. The first proviso thereunder further stipulates that the Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within the prescribed period, extend the said period by a further period of 60 days.

33. It is thus seen that the EPF Act is a special law providing for institution of provident funds, pension fund and deposit-linked insurance fund for employees in factories and other establishments and in terms of the rules framed thereunder a certain period of limitation for filing an appeal having been provided for in clear terms and a further provision having been made for extension of such period only upto a specified time period and no further, the Appellate Tribunal would have no jurisdiction to treat within limitation, an appeal filed before it beyond such maximum time limit specified in terms of the statutory rules.

34. Moreover, in terms of the scheme and the intent of the provisions contained in the EPF Act it is seen that the legislature intended it to be a complete code by itself. As a consequence, even if the provisions of the Limitation Act may be held to have not been expressly excluded the principle of implied exclusion would apply in terms of the nature of the subject matter, the purpose and the scheme of the Act. The provisions contained under the Limitation Act, 1963 would therefore not be applicable for seeking extension of time beyond the statutory time period of 60 days from the date of issue of the notification/order, extendable by a further period of 60 days, upon the Tribunal being satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within the prescribed period. The maximum period for filing the appeal would be thus 120 (60+60) days from the date of the issuance of the notification/order which is sought to be challenged.

35. It is a well settled principle of statutory interpretation that where the statute confers power on the authority to condone the delay only to a limited extent the same cannot be stretched or extended beyond what has been provided under the statute.”

9. The decision in Kushang Security and House Keeping Private Limited (Supra) has been followed and reiterated in Committee of Management, Angoori Devi Inter College and Others Versus State of U.P. and Others 2019 (12) ADJ 62, wherein it was held that: -

“35. ...the EPF Act, 1952 being a special statute and having prescribed a certain period of limitation for filing a particular application thereunder and also having provided in clear terms that such period on sufficient cause being shown, may be extended, in the maximum, only upto a specified time-limit, the Tribunal concerned would have no jurisdiction to treat within limitation, an application filed before it beyond such maximum time-limit specified in the statute, by excluding the time spent in prosecuting in good faith and due diligence any prior proceeding on the analogy of Section 14(2) of the Act, 1963.

36. It may be noticed that in the instant case against the order dated 28.12.2018 passed under Section 7-A of the EPF Act, 1952 a writ petition, Writ-C No. 5308 of 2019, was filed and the same was dismissed at the threshold vide order dated 18.2.2019 with liberty to the petitioners to avail the statutory remedy of appeal under Section 7-I of the EPF Act, 1952. A copy of the aforesaid order which has been filed as Annexure-9 to the writ petition indicates that a certified copy of the order dated 18.2.2019 was applied for on 10.6.2016 and the same was issued on 12.6.2019. It appears that only thereafter the appeal bearing Appeal A.T.A. No. 06 of 2019 was filed which came to be rejected as time barred vide order dated 15.7.2019 passed by the Appellate Authority/Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Kanpur. These facts also go to show that the necessary requirement under Section 14 that the prior proceeding should have been prosecuted in good faith and with due diligence also does not stand fulfilled.

37. The time limit is prescribed by the rule making authority for filing an appeal and also the extended period having been provided, and no further extension thereof having been envisaged or contemplated, the Appellate Authority could not have granted any further extension. In view of the aforesaid, the order passed by the Appellate Authority recording its conclusion that the appeal was filed beyond the statutory period of limitation, cannot be faulted with."

10. By means of its order dated 16.10.2023 passed in Writ-C No. 8978 of 2023 passed in exercise of its extraordinary Writ jurisdiction, this Court had extended the period of limitation prescribed by law and had granted 15 days' time to the petitioner to file the appeal, but the petitioner did not file the appeal within the aforesaid period. The Tribunal had no power to condone any delay for expiry of the extended period granted by this court. In these circumstances, the Central Government Industrial Tribunal/EPFAT, Lucknow has not committed any illegality in passing of the impugned order dated 04.03.2024.

11. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment in the case of Collector (LA) v. Katiji, (1987) 2 SCC 107 and Sheo Raj Singh v. Union of India, (2023) 10 SCC 531.

12. In Collector (LA) v. Katiji, (1987) 2 SCC 107 the Hon'ble Supreme Court had held that: -

"3. The legislature has conferred the power to condone delay by enacting Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act of 1963 in order to enable the courts to do substantial justice to parties by disposing of matters on "merits". The expression "sufficient cause" employed by the legislature is adequately elastic to enable the courts to apply the law in a meaningful manner which subserves the ends of justice — that being the life-purpose for the existence of the institution of courts. It is common knowledge that this Court has been making a justifiably liberal approach in matters instituted in this Court. But the message does not appear to have percolated down to all the other courts in the hierarchy. And such a liberal approach is adopted on principle as it is realized that:

“1. Ordinarily a litigant does not stand to benefit by lodging an appeal late.

2. Refusing to condone delay can result in a meritorious matter being thrown out at the very threshold and cause of justice being defeated. As against this when delay is condoned the highest that can happen is that a cause would be decided on merits after hearing the parties.

3. “Every day's delay must be explained” does not mean that a pedantic approach should be made. Why not every hour's delay, every second's delay? The doctrine must be applied in a rational common sense pragmatic manner.

4. When substantial justice and technical considerations are pitted against each other, cause of substantial justice deserves to be preferred for the other side cannot claim to have vested right in injustice being done because of a non-deliberate delay.

5. There is no presumption that delay is occasioned deliberately, or on account of culpable negligence, or on account of mala fides. A litigant does not stand to benefit by resorting to delay. In fact he runs a serious risk.

6. It must be grasped that judiciary is respected not on account of its power to legalize injustice on technical grounds but because it is capable of removing injustice and is expected to do so.

Making a justice-oriented approach from this perspective, there was sufficient cause for condoning the delay in the institution of the appeal. The fact that it was the “State” which was seeking condonation and not a private party was altogether irrelevant. The doctrine of equality before law demands that all litigants, including the State as a litigant, are accorded the same treatment and the law is administered in an even-handed manner. There is no warrant for according a step-motherly treatment when the “State” is the applicant praying for condonation of delay. In fact experience shows that on account of an impersonal machinery (no one in charge of the matter is directly hit or hurt by the judgment sought to be subjected to appeal) and the inherited bureaucratic methodology imbued with the note-making, file-pushing and passing-on-the-buck ethos, delay on its part is less difficult to understand though more difficult to approve. In any event, the State which represents the collective cause of the community, does not deserve a litigant-non-grata status. The courts therefore have to be informed with the spirit and philosophy of the provision in the course of the interpretation of the expression “sufficient cause”. So also the same approach has to be evidenced in its application to matters at hand with the end in view to do even-handed justice on merits in preference to the approach which scuttles a decision on merits.”

13. In Sheo Raj Singh v. Union of India, (2023) 10 SCC 531 also the Hon'ble Supreme Court explained the scope of Section 5 of the Limitation Act and held that: - delay of long periods can be condoned if the explanation is satisfactory and acceptable. Of course, the courts must distinguish between an “explanation” and an “excuse”. An “explanation” is designed to give someone all of the facts and lay out the cause for something. It helps clarify the circumstances of a particular event and allows the person to point out that something that has happened is not his fault, if it is really not his fault. Care must, however, be taken to distinguish an “explanation” from an “excuse”. Although people tend to see “explanation” and “excuse” as the same thing and struggle to find out the difference between the two, there is a distinction which, though fine, is real.

“31. Sometimes, due to want of sufficient cause being shown or an acceptable explanation being proffered, delay of the shortest range may not be condoned whereas, in certain other cases,

32. An “excuse” is often offered by a person to deny responsibility and consequences when under attack. It is sort of a defensive action. Calling something as just an “excuse” would imply that the explanation proffered is believed not to be true. Thus said, there is no formula that caters to all situations and, therefore, each case for condonation of delay based on existence or absence of sufficient cause has to be decided on its own facts. At this stage, we cannot but lament that it is only excuses, and not explanations, that are more often accepted for condonation of long delays to safeguard public interest from those hidden forces whose sole agenda is to ensure that a meritorious claim does not reach the higher courts for adjudication.”

14. Both the aforesaid cases explain the scope of Section 5 of the Limitation Act and the approach to be adopted by the Courts while deciding an application under Section 5. As Section 5 of the Limitation Act does not apply to the appeals filed under the Section 7A of the Employees’ Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, the law laid down in Collector (LA) v. Katiji and Sheo Raj Singh v. Union of India (Supra) would have no application to the present case.

15. So far as the question of this Court exercising its extraordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for again extending the prescribed period of limitation is concerned, this Court has already exercised this power in favour of the petitioner while passing the order dated 31.03.2023 in Writ-C No. 8978 of 2023 filed by the petitioner by providing that in case the petitioner filed an appeal within a period of 15 days, the same should be decided on its merits and should not be rejected on the ground of delay.

16. Although, the petitioner claimed that he could not file the appeal within time granted by this Court as he had fallen ill, the medical certificate annexed with the writ petition mentions that he was under treatment of a doctor since 17.10.2023 to 31.10.2023 and he became medically fit on 31.10.2023. The appeal has been filed seven days after expiry of the time granted by this Court as well as after his regaining fitness.

17. It is also relevant to note that the Second Proviso appended to Rule 7(2) of the Employees Provident Fund Appellate Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1997 provides that no appeal by the employer shall be entertained by a Tribunal unless he has deposited with the Tribunal a Demand Draft payable in the Fund and bearing 75 per cent of the amount due from him as determined under Section 7-A. The learned Counsel for the Employees Provident Fund Organization has pointed out even while filing the time barred appeal, the petitioner did not comply with this provision.

18. In Basawaraj v. Land Acquisition Officer, (2013) 14 SCC 81, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

*“12. It is a settled legal proposition that law of limitation may harshly affect a particular party but it has to be applied with all its rigour when the statute so prescribes. The court has no power to extend the period of limitation on equitable grounds. “A result flowing from a statutory provision is never an evil. A court has no power to ignore that provision to relieve what it considers a distress resulting from its operation.” The statutory provision may cause hardship or inconvenience to a particular party but the court has no choice but to enforce it giving full effect to the same. The legal maxim dura lex sed lex which means “the law is hard but it is the law”, stands attracted in such a situation. It has consistently been held that, “inconvenience is not” a decisive factor to be considered while interpreting a statute”*

19. Keeping in view the entire facts and circumstances of the case, it appears that the petitioner has not complied with the mandate of Rule 7 C of the Employees Provident Fund Appellate Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1997 on two counts – (1) he did not file the appeal in the prescribed period of limitation or even in the extended period granted by this Court and (2) he did not deposit 75% of the amount due from him as determined under Section 7-A. Therefore, there appears to be no good ground for again extending the period of limitation for filing the appeal by the petitioner.

20. The writ petition lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1433
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 16.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. SANGEETA CHANDRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ -C No. 3400 of 2024

Dilip Charan Wahal & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
U.O.I. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Samarth Saxena

Counsel for the Respondents:
 A.S.G.I., Sanjeev Singh

Cantonment Act, 2006-A lease deed was executed on behalf of the Central Government - for a period of 30 years-renewable up to 90 years-petitioners are in actual physical possession-CLA Rules of 2021 have replaced the CLA Rules of 1937-all subsisting leases given under Cantonment Codes of 1989 and 1912 and Cantonment Land Administration Rules 1925 and 1937, shall continue to be governed under the said Rules - CLA Rules of 2021 not applicable - as their lease was admittedly subsisting till 24.10.1923-petitioners were given a calculation sheet-which clearly specifies that Standard Table Rent -fixation of such rent per sq. mts. per annum is not arbitrary. No ground for interference.

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Vishnu Traders Versus State of Haryana: (1995) Supp SCC 461
2. Tata Cellular v. Union of India, (1994) 6 SCC 651 (77)

3. Fruit Commission Agents Assn. v. Govt. of A.P., (2007) 8 SCC

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra J.

&

Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, Shri S.B. Pandey, learned D.S.G.I. assisted by Shri Raj Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the respondent Nos.1 & 3 and Shri Sanjeev Singh, learned counsel for respondent No.2.

2. This petition has been filed with the following prayers:-

“(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned demand notices dated 08.12.2023 (ANNEXURE NO 2) and 19.02.2024 (Annexure No.3) issued by the Defence Estates Officer, Lucknow Circle, Lucknow to the extent, it seeks to recover an amount of Rs. 91,63,857/- from the petitioners in respect of an area of 3.36 acres, situated over Survey No. 93/2 Cator House 236 M.G. Road Lucknow Cant.

(ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari ‘summoning and quashing the minutes of the meeting of the Cantonment Board, Lucknow dated 25.09.2023 in so far as it increases the Standard Table of Rent (STR) of Zone-I, to Rs. 566.70/- per sq. meter w.e.f. 01.07.2023 to 01.07.2024.

(iii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus declaring Clause-B(a)(iii) of the Policy dated 10.03.2017 as extended till 31.12.2024, in so far as it directs recovery of lease rent on the basis of Standard Table of Rent (STR) prevailing on the date of expiry of lease as ultra vires to the provisions of Rule-16 r/w rule 28 and also Schedule VIII of the Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 and Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

(iv) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature mandamus directing the respondents not to take any coercive measures against the petitioners in pursuance to the impugned demand notices dated 08.12.2023 and 19.02.2024 issued by the Defence Estates Officer, Lucknow Circle, Lucknow and further direct the respondents to accept the lease rent in respect of Survey No. 93/2 Cator House 236 M.G. Road Lucknow Cant. from the petitioner at the rate of Rs. 50/- per annum.”

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners has submitted that a lease deed was executed on behalf of the Central Government on 15.05.1934 in respect of a premises described as ‘Cator House, 236, M.G. Road, Lucknow Cantonment’ in favour of Shri Shiv Charan, for a period of 30 years with effect from 25.10.1933, which was renewable up to 90 years. The said property has been mentioned at Survey No.93/2 and comprises of buildings known as Cater house and Shiv Kutir. The petitioners are in actual physical possession of Shiv Kutir and are residing therein and they are in de-jure possession of the rest of the property (Cater House) which is in occupation of the respondents, as it was let out to the Governor General in Council by Smt. Lalto Devi, wife of Shri Shiv Charan at a monthly rent of Rs.220/- by a lease deed dated 21.11.1941. The entire demised premises measures 13,597.44 Sq. Mts. On 10.03.2017, the Central Government framed a policy providing for an extension of expired/expiring leases and in pursuance of such policy, the lease of the demised premises was extended initially up to 31.12.2019 and thereafter it was again extended on 15.02.2021 up to 31.12.2021 or till finalization of a new policy, whichever is earlier. The policy dated 10.03.2017 was further extended beyond 31.12.2022 for one year i.e. till 31.12.2023 or till finalization of a new policy, whichever is earlier. The lease dated 15.05.1934 in favour of the predecessors of the petitioners, had expired on 24.10.2023 and in pursuance of the policy dated 10.03.2017 issued by the Central Government as extended from time to time, the petitioners have been allowed to occupy the demised premises till date.

4. The Cantonment Act 1924, under which the initial lease deed was executed, has been repealed by the Cantonment Act 2006. Section 125 of the Act of 2006 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide for conditions on which properties vested in a Cantonment Board may be transferred by sale, mortgage, lease or exchange. Under Section 63 of the Act of 2006, the Board has to manage any property entrusted to its management by the Central Government, subject to the rules made by the Central Government under Section 346 of the Act of 2006. In exercise of powers conferred by the Section 280 of the now repealed Act of 1924, the Central Government had framed Rules known as Cantonment Land Administration Rules, 1937 (hereinafter referred to as CLA Rules 1937). After the said Act was repealed, the Central Government in exercise of its powers under Section 346 of the Act of 2006 framed the Cantonment Land Administration Rules 2021 (hereinafter referred to as CLA Rules of 2021). Under Rules 17 of the CLA Rules of 2021, it has been provided that subsisting Cantonment leases given under earlier Act shall continue to be governed under the said Rules and conditions of the lease deed. The subsisting lease with renewal terms can be considered for renewal or otherwise, in accordance with the instructions issued by the Central government from time to time, including such instructions as pertain to submissions of on-line application for renewal of lease as well as processing thereof, and the renewal of lease deed shall be executed on the proforma given in Schedule IV.

5. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has also submitted that the CLA Rules of 2021 have been issued in supersession of the CLA Rules of 1937, but these Rules of 2021 do not govern those subsisting leases which had been in operation under the CLA Rules of 1937 and because the lease deed of the disputed property was subsisting and in operation at the time when CLA Rules of 2021 came into force, the CLA Rules of 1937 are applicable with respect to the disputed property. Rule 6 of CLA Rules of 1937 defines Class B-3 land as that land which has been held by any private person under the provisions of CLA Rules of 1937 or may be presumed to be held under the provisions of Cantonment Board Act 1899 or 1912 or under any executive order previously in force, subject to conditions under which the Central Government has reserved to themselves the propriety rights in the soil. Rule 9 of CLA Rules of 1937 vests the management of all category 'B' lands with the Military Estates Officer, now called the Defence Estates Officer. Under Rule 8 of CLA Rules of 1937, the Standard Table of Rent has to be prepared by the respondent No.3 - the Defence Estates Officer in consultation with the Collector which is suitable for application on lands held for agricultural and non-agricultural purpose having regard to situation of site in the Cantonment, nature of soil and rates charged for adjacent agricultural lands or building sites in the neighborhood.

6. It has further been submitted that since a number of leases were granted under the CLA Rules of 1937 which had either expired or were expiring, therefore, the Government of India issued a policy vide its order dated 10.03.2017 which has been referred to herein above, by which all the leases under the CLA Rules of 1937, whose full term had expired or was expiring before 21.12.2018, were extended. The last such extension of lease was made by a letter dated 30.01.2024. It is the case of the petitioners that their lease had expired on 24.10.2023 lastly, but they continued to be in possession of the property in question and are using it for residential purposes. The respondent No.3 by a letter dated 08.12.2023, had issued a demand notice to the petitioners demanding rent at the rate of Rs.77,05,669/- per annum. Another demand notice had been issued on 19.02.2024 in pursuance of interim policy dated 30.01.2024 demanding a total of Rs.91,63,857/- to be paid within a period of 90 days for the purpose of processing the issue of execution of the lease deed up to 31.12.2024, failing which the petitioners would be deemed to be unauthorized occupants of the land in question and would be liable for eviction under the provisions of Public Premises (Eviction of Un-authorized Occupant) Act 1971. Upon payment of the amount demanded by the impugned demand notice dated 19.02.2024, the petitioners would only be entitled to an extension of the lease up to 31.12.2024.

7. It has been argued that since extension of the lease has been granted under the policy notified on 10.03.2017, it is not a renewal of lease as contemplated under the CLA Rules of 1937 and that as per the provisions of Rule 16 of the CLA Rules of 1937, the annual lease rent fixed under Rule 19 can be revised only at the time of renewal of the lease and not while extending the lease, as the terms of the lease can be modified only on renewal of lease.

8. The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the Standard Table of Rents which has been prepared by the respondent No.3 has been purportedly prepared on the basis of the circle rate fixed by the District Magistrate which was applicable on the date of expiry of the lease. Since the respondents are only extending the terms of the expired lease up to 31.12.2024, there cannot be any change in the terms and conditions of the original lease and that any extension of the lease has to be on the same terms and conditions as the original lease and the lease rent cannot be increased exorbitantly by the respondents at the time of extension of the lease.

9. It has also been argued that as per the minutes of the meeting dated 25.09.2023 of the Board regarding fixation of Standard Table of Rents, the Standard Table Rent (S.T.R.) was fixed at Rs.566.70/- per square meters in an arbitrary manner on the basis of prevailing rates of the adjoining municipal lands. Such prevailing rates relate to sale deeds executed of properties adjoining the Cantonment Board under the control of Municipal Corporation of Lucknow. In case of the petitioners, only lease-hold rights are being given by the respondent No.3 Circle Rates have been taken into consideration to determine the market value of those lands which are subject matter of sale deeds by private citizens. The circle rates cannot be made applicable for determining the annual lease rent in respect of leases granted by the Cantonment Board/ Defence Estates Officer where no ownership rights are being granted to the lessee. Therefore, the Moolya Nirdharan Suchi prepared by the Collector, Lucknow in respect of adjoining areas cannot be relied upon.

10. The learned counsel for the petitioners has also submitted that the impugned notices dated 08.12.2023 and 19.02.2024 are arbitrary and liable to be quashed for the reason that the rent of the premises has been increased exorbitantly from Rs.50/- per annum to Rs.77,05,669/- per annum even for limited lease holds rights as are being extended up to 31.12.2024 and the Cantonment Board/Defence Estates Officer being instrumentality of State, which is the Welfare State, cannot act arbitrarily and contrary to the principles enshrined under Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

11. It has also been argued that similar petitions have been filed before the Delhi High Court which have been entertained and the Court had issued interim directions that during pendency of the petitions, no coercive action can be taken against the lessees therein. Similarly, this Court has passed an interim order dated 27.10.2021 in Writ-C No.27621 of 2021 (Onkar Prasad Bhardwaj Vs. Union of India and 3 Others) directing that no coercive action be taken against the lessees therein as long as they continue to pay old rent. Similar order has also been passed by this Court at Allahabad on 13.10.2023 in Writ-C No.34544 of 2023 (Smt. Vinita Bahuguna Vs. Union of India and 2 Others). It has been argued by the learned counsel for the petitioners that since this Court has granted interim orders in similar petitions pending at Allahabad, parity of such interim order be also be granted to the writ petitioners.

12. Shri S.B. Pandey, learned Deputy Solicitor General appearing for the respondent Nos.1 & 3 has stated that this Court may finally consider and dispose of this writ petition on the basis of arguments raised by the parties and he does not propose to file a counter affidavit.

13. In Vishnu Traders Versus State of Haryana: (1995) Supp SCC 461, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that "In the matters of interlocutory orders, principle of binding precedents cannot be said to apply. However, the need for consistency of approach and uniformity in the exercise of judicial discretion respecting similar causes and the desirability to eliminate occasions for grievances of discriminatory treatment requires that all similar matters should receive similar treatment except where factual differences require a different treatment so that there is assurance of consistency, uniformity, predictability and certainty of judicial approach." However, the aforesaid principles would not apply where the earlier writ petitions are pending and the present Writ Petition is being decided finally.

14. Shri S.B. Pandey has submitted that admittedly, the lease of the petitioners had expired way back on 23.10.2023 as the initial lease was granted on 25.10.1933 for a maximum period of 90 years. The extension of the period of lease has been done on the basis of policy dated 10.03.2017. The petitioners having derived advantage on the basis of the policy dated 10.03.2017 cannot turn around and challenge such conditions of the policy which according to them cause undue hardship. They have to accept the policy in its entirety or forgo the benefits of the policy as a whole.

15. The scope of interference by this Court in exercise of its powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India in the matters involving challenge to any State policy, is limited to examining whether the policy suffers from Wednesbury unreasonableness.

16. In Tata Cellular v. Union of India, (1994) 6 SCC 651 (77), the Hon'ble Supreme Court held: -

"77. ...Shortly put, the grounds upon which an administrative action is subject to control by judicial review can be classified as under:

(i) Illegality : This means the decision-maker must understand correctly the law that regulates his decision-making power and must give effect to it.

(ii) Irrationality, namely, Wednesbury unreasonableness.

(iii) Procedural impropriety.

The above are only the broad grounds but it does not rule out addition of further grounds in course of time."

17. In Fruit Commission Agents Assn. v. Govt. of A.P., (2007) 8 SCC 511, it was held that: -

"14. Fixation of rent is an administrative function and the court cannot sit as a court of appeal over administrative decisions vide Tata Cellular v. Union of India [(1994) 6 SCC 651]. Hence the view taken by the High Court is correct.

15. As we have held in S. C. Chandra v. State of Jharkhand [(2007) 8

SCC 279] the judiciary should exercise restraint and should not ordinarily encroach into the legislative or executive domain. In our opinion fixing of the rent is an executive function and hence the judiciary cannot interfere with the same except on Wednesbury principles. There is broad separation of powers under the Constitution and ordinarily one organ of the State should not encroach into the domain of another. Montesquieu's theory of separation of powers (XIth Chapter of his book The Spirit of Laws) broadly applies in India too."

(Emphasis added)

18. Having considered the arguments raised by the learned counsel for the parties, this Court has gone through the relevant CLA Rules of 1937 and of 2021. In the CLA Rules of 2021, which have replaced the CLA Rules of 1937, it has been mentioned that all subsisting leases given under Cantonment Codes of 1989 and 1912 and Cantonment Land Administration Rules 1925 and 1937, shall continue to be governed under the said Rules and the conditions of the lease deed. Therefore, in so far as the applicability of CLA Rules of 2021 are concerned, they may not be applicable to the case of the petitioners as their lease was admittedly subsisting till 24.10.1923. However, the Rules of 1937 which have been relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioners themselves say that all leases shall be governed by the Standard Table of Rents to be prepared by the Military Estates Officer/ Defence Estates Officer. The Standard Table of Rents has to be prepared in consultation with the Collector and shall be compiled taking into account the situation of the site, the nature of the soil and the rates charged for adjacent agricultural land or for building sites in the neighborhood.

19. We have gone through the Resolution of the Board as recorded in the Minutes of the meeting of the Board, a copy of which has been filed as Annexure No.14 to the writ petition. The said meeting was attended by a representative of Collector Lucknow, representative of Nagar Nigam Lucknow, representative of Defence Estates Officer, Lucknow Circle, Lucknow Cantt representative of Head Quarters Madhya U.P. Sub-area Lucknow Cantt and representative of Chief Executive Officer Lucknow Cantt and it was pointed out that Lucknow being the biggest city of U.P. with an increasing population and advantageous and healthy environment and being the hub of commercial activities, the land values have increased exponentially. The Cantonment land is perhaps the best located in Lucknow city with well connected roads and amenities. It can be assessed on the valuation based on sales data/ Moolyankan Soochi, site survey and other relevant information gathered in this regard. Since Cantonment land belongs to the Government of India, Ministry of Defence and no part of it can be sold to anyone, hence no sales data was available to decide the fair market value of land but rates/value of land situated in the vicinity of Cantt area as assessed by the Collector are mentioned in the Moolyankan Soochi issued by the Collector, Lucknow and it can be taken into account. The Standard Table of Rents was last revised in July, 2022 and was valid till 30.06.2023 and it had now to be re-fixed/revised for the years 2023-2024.

20. To arrive at a realistic value of land in the Cantonment, it has been divided into four zones and one subsidiary zone. The disputed property in this writ petition falls in Zone-I. This Zone comprises of Restaurants, Banks, Post Office, Hospitals and Commercial areas with wide roads. It is adjacent to the Railway Station and such localities of Lucknow Municipal Corporation as Mall Avenue, Abadi Kabristan and Vikramaditya Marg, which are some of the most posh areas of the Lucknow city. The Collector in the Circle Rate notified on 15.12.2015 had notified Mall Avenue at Rs.21,500/- per sq. mts., Abadi Kabristan at Rs.16,500/- per sq. mts. and Vikramaditya Marg at Rs.30,000/- per square meter. The average rate of all such localities was calculated at Rs.22,666.66/- per sq. mt. The average cost of land being so determined for this Zone-I, the Standard Table Rent for Zone-I for residential areas was taken on that basis as 2.5% of the market value of such land. It was fixed at Rs.566.70/- per sq. mts. The petitioners' property is undoubtedly residential and, therefore, 2.5% of Rs.22,667/- came out to be Rs.566.70/- per sq. mts.

21. The CLA Rules of 1937 and that of 2021 all refer to grant and renewal of leases on the basis of instructions issued by the Central Government from time to time. The Central Government had issued a policy on 10.03.2017 laying down the conditions for extension of leases till a new policy is finalized. The petitioners have taken benefit of this policy and their lease which admittedly expired on 24.10.2023, had been extended up to 31.12.2023 i.e for a period of 69 days on the basis of Standard Table of Rents. Rs.14,56,688/- has been demanded as outstanding dues in the Notice issued in December, 2023. The petitioners were given a calculation sheet which is enclosed with the Notice dated 08.12.2023 which clearly specifies that Standard Table Rent rate at the rate of Rs.566.70/- per sq. mts. having been determined, the rent of Rs.13,597,4400/- sq. mts. would be Rs.17,05,669/- per annum and consequently for 69 days, Rs.14,56,688/- only has been demanded.

22. It is clear from the demand notice dated 08.12.2023 that Rs.566.70/- per sq. mts. per annum has been determined as rent for the lease hold property which falls in Zone-I. This Court does not find fixation of such rent per sq. mts. per annum as arbitrary, looking into the area where the property is situated which is M. G. Road, the main lifeline of the city of Lucknow. The petitioners do not dispute that the property falls in Zone-I. The petitioners also do not dispute that the Circle Rate has only been taken as a determinative factor for market value of land of the area adjacent to land under the administration of Lucknow Municipal Corporation and it is not the market value which is being demanded but only 2.5% of such market value has been demanded for lease hold rights to be granted/extended for a period of one year.

23. The lease rent fixed by a Resolution passed in a Minutes of the meeting of the Board which was attended by a representative of Collector Lucknow, representative of Nagar Nigam Lucknow, representative of Defence Estates Officer, Lucknow Circle, Lucknow Cantt representative of Head Quarters Madhya U.P. Sub-area Lucknow Cantt and representative of Chief Executive Officer Lucknow Cantt, after taking into consideration the location of the land, the connectivity and the amenities available nearby, thereafter fixing 2.5% of the average circle rate of lands situated nearby which was assessed in the year 2015, does not at all appear to be arbitrary or unreasonable.

24. The CLA Rules of 1937 and that of 2021 all refer to grant and renewal of leases on the basis of instructions issued by the Central Government from time to time. The Central Government had issued a policy on 10.03.2017 laying down the conditions for extension of leases till a new policy is finalized. The petitioners have taken benefit of this policy and their lease which admittedly expired on 24.10.2023, had been extended up to 31.12.2023 i.e for a period of 69 days on the basis of Standard Table of Rents. Rs.14,56,688/- has been demanded as outstanding dues in the Notice issued in December, 2023. The petitioners were given a calculation sheet which is enclosed with the Notice dated 08.12.2023 which clearly specifies that Standard Table Rent rate at the rate of Rs.566.70/- per sq. mts. having been determined, the rent of Rs.13,597.4400/- sq. mts. would be Rs.17,05,669/- per annum and consequently for 69 days, Rs.14,56,688/- only has been demanded.

25. This Court is also of the considered opinion that Article 14 of the Constitution of India which has been invoked by the learned counsel for the petitioners without explaining as to how the same would apply in their case, would not be applicable as the decision for determining the annual rent cannot be said to be arbitrary for such a huge piece of land situated in Zone-I as is being enjoyed by the petitioners.

26. Moreover, admittedly the lease of the petitioners expired on 24.10.2023, they have continued to enjoy the property only because of policy of extension as notified on 10.03.2017 by the Central Government. It was for the Central Government to decide the conditions for extension of an already expired leases. If the petitioners are not willing to deposit the lease rent as determined by the impugned demand notices, they are free to vacate the property as they have not been forced to get their lease extended. They have voluntarily remained in the property on the basis of extension of lease as aforesaid on the basis of conditions mentioned therein. The Central Government being the lessor has determined the value for the land it owns in the Lucknow Cantonment in Zone-I and it has offered that land on lease on conditions determined by it on the basis of market value of adjoining land in the city. The petitioners being lessees are free to accept or reject the offer but they cannot place conditions on such offer to their liking only on the basis of alleged undue hardship being faced by them.

27. This Court finds no good ground to invoke the concept of Welfare State and Article 14 of the Constitution of India in such a matter where the dispute between the petitioners and the Government is regarding fixation of lease rent of 1,46,362 sq. feet land regarding which the 90 years lease of the petitioners has come to an end and the Government has fixed the new rate of lease rent on relevant considerations, which do not suffer from wednesbury unreasonableness. On the contrary, continuance or extension of lease of Government lands at the old rates of lease rent fixed more than 90 years ago would be against the interest of the public at large and that would be arbitrary and unreasonable.

28. In view of the observations made herein above, we find no good ground to entertain this petition. Hence, the instant writ petition is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1441
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 08.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Writ-C No. 5832 of 2024

Vinod Kumari ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri Jeet Bahadur Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

Authority rejected the application of the petitioner- seeking interest on the delayed payment of the refund of stamp duty - order for refund was passed on September 19, 2013- authority concerned refunded this amount only on December 5, 2023- State has no power to hold on the money -it has taken without any authority of law -amount that has been collected is dehors the law.

Writ Petition disposed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Standing Counsel for the State

2. This is a writ petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution of India wherein the order dated January 24, 2024 passed by the Additional District Magistrate (Finance/Revenue), Aligarh is under challenge.

3. By the order impugned, the authority concerned rejected the application of the petitioner seeking interest on the delayed payment of the refund of stamp duty that has been deposited by the petitioner.

4. On perusal of the facts, it is clear that the order for refund of the amount of Rs.5,35,454/- was passed on September 19, 2013. However, the authority concerned refunded this amount only on December 5, 2023. The stand taken by the respondent authorities is that there is no provision in the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 for payment of interest on refund of excess stamp duty that has been collected by the revenue. In light of the same, counsel for the respondent submitted that no interest is payable even if there is lackadaisical approach by the authorities in returning of the refund.

5. The stand of the revenue is rejected outrightly as the State has no power to hold on the money that it has taken without any authority of law. Article 265 of the Constitution of India clearly provides that no tax can be collected without authority of law and any amount that has been collected is dehors the law and is required to be returned to the person concerned. As a natural corollary, the time for which the amount was illegally detained by the Government, is required to be compensated for by the Government by way of payment of interest thereon. There is no requirement of any specific provision for the payment of interest in such circumstances. In light of the same, I am of the view that the authority concerned is required to pay interest for the delay in refund.

6. Accordingly, the authority concerned is directed to pay interest at the rate of 5 per cent from October 19, 2013 (one month after passing of the order directing the refund) till December 5, 2023 (when the refund was made). The said amount should be paid by the authority concerned within six weeks from date.

7. With the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1442
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Writ -C No. 6350 of 2024

Gajala & Anr.	...Petitioners
	Versus
State of U.P. & Ors.	...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Sri Umesh Chandra Prajapati

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 498,504-Petitioners sought protection from family members, claiming threats and interference in their marriage-Petitioner no.1 was previously married and had not obtained a divorce-Petitioner no. 2 began a live-in relationship with petitioner no. 1 after they met in Noida 2022 –The court that petitioner 1 had no legal right to protection while living in an adulterous relationship without obtaining a divorce-the court emphasized that such relationships in contravention of Islamic law and the Indian Penal Code(sections 494,495) cannot be considered a live-in relationship akin to marriage-The writ petition was dismissed as the court found no enforceable legal right in favor of the petitioners for protection.(Para 1to 15)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Lata Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr.. (2006) 5 SCC 475

2. Shafin Jahan Vs Asokan K.M. & ors. (2018) 16 SCC 368

3. Nandkumar & anr. Vs St. of Ker.(2018) 16 SCC 620

4. Kamini Devi Vs St. of U.P. Writ. C No. 11108 of 2020

5. Razia & anr. Vs St. of U.P. Writ C No. 27338 of 2023

6. Kiran Rawat & anr.. Vs St. of U.P.

7. D.Velusamy Vs D.Patchajammal (2010) 10 SCC 469

8. Indra Sarma Vs V.K.V. Sharma (2013) 15 SCC 755

9. Asha Devi & anr. Vs State of U.P. & ors Writ © No. 18743 of 2020

10. A Subhash Babu Vs St. of A.P.

11. Shayara Bano Vs U.O.I.

12. Lily Thomas & anr. Vs U.O.I. & ors.

13. Dir. of Settlement, A.P. Vs M.R. Apparao

14. Kalyan Singh Vs St.of U.P. (1962) AIR SC 1183

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Standing Counsel for the State and perused the record.

2. Instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution has been filed by the petitioners with prayer for issuing writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus the respondents not to interfere in the peaceful married life of the petitioners as husband and wife.

3. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that as per aadhar card the date of birth of petitioner No.1 is 03.01.1993 and she is aged about 31 years and the date of birth of the petitioner No.2 as per his aadhar card is 07.09.2002 and he is aged about more than 21 years. It is submitted that petitioner no.1 was earlier married with one Shahrukh on 04.03.2014 and since the petitioner No. 1 was not able to conceive, she was thrown out from her matrimonial house. Thereafter, in the year 2022 when the petitioners No.1 was working in NOIDA, she met petitioner No. 2 and since then they are living in relationship. It is further submitted that the parents of petitioner no.1 and her other family members are interfering in their peaceful live-in-relationship. The petitioners apprehend danger to the life and liberty from respondent No.4 and other family members, therefore, petitioner no.1 moved an application, therefore present petition moved by the petitioners for issuance of mandamus.

4. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel submitted that petitioner no.1 is already married to one Shahrukh, she has not obtained any decree of divorce, as prescribed under the personal law, from her earlier husband and started living with petitioner no.2 in adultery, therefore, their relationship can not be protected by law. Learned Standing Counsel has relied upon the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Kiran Rawat and Another Vs. State of U.P. and judgment of the Division Bench of this Court passed in the case of Asha Devi and Another Vs. State of U.P. and 3 Others, and opposed the petition. It is also submitted by the learned Standing Counsel that no cause of action arose as no application for protection has been moved to the authorities in the instant matter. Lastly it is submitted that mandamus cannot be issued against private person, hence the prayer made in the writ petition is opposed.

5. I have heard the rival submissions of learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

6. From the perusal of record it transpires that both the petitioners are major and as per aadhar card the date of birth of petitioner No.1 is 03.01.1993 and she is aged about 31 years and the date of birth of the petitioner No.2 as per his aadhar card is 07.09.2002 and he is aged about more than 21 years. It is also apparent from the record that petitioner no.1 was earlier married to one Shahrukh and leaving her earlier husband without obtaining divorce, as prescribed under law, she started living with petitioner no.2. In the case of Kiran Rawat(Supra), the Hon'ble Apex Court observed that:-

"21. However, in Muslim law no recognition can be given to sex outside marriage. "Zina" which has been defined as any sexual intercourse except that between husband and wife includes both extramarital sex and premarital sex and is often translated as fornication in English. Such premarital sex is not permissible in Islam. In fact any sexual, lustful, affectionate acts such as kissing, touching, staring etc. are "Haram" in Islam before marriage because these are considered parts of "Zina" which may lead to actual "Zina" itself. The punishment for such offence according to Quran (chapter 24) is hundred lashes for the unmarried male and female who commit fornication together with the punishment prescribed by the "Sunnah" for the married male and female that is stoning to death." It is observed that in Muslim Law living-in-relationship is not permitted."

7. In the case of Asha Devi(Supra), the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court formulated two questions as under:-

"(i) Whether the petitioners, who claim themselves to be living together as husband and wife; can be granted protection when the petitioner No.1 is legally wedded wife of someone else and has not taken divorce sofar ?

(ii) Whether protection to petitioners as husband and wife or as live-in-relationship can be granted in exercise of powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, when their living together may constitute offences under Sections 494/495 I.P.C. ?"

8. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "D. Velusamy Vs. D. Patchaiammal", in which the Hon'ble Apex court held that:-

"32. In our opinion not all live in relationships will amount to a relationship in the nature of marriage to get the benefit of the Act of 2005. To get such benefit the conditions mentioned by us above must be satisfied, and this has to be proved by evidence.

If a man has a 'keep' whom he maintains financially and uses mainly for sexual purpose and/or as a servant it would not, in our opinion, be a relationship in the nature of marriage'."

(Emphasis supplied)

9. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), the Division Bench of this Court on the basis of various judgments of High Court held that following relationship are not recognized or approved as live-in-relationship:-

"(a) Concubine can not maintain relationship in the nature of marriage vide paras 57 & 59 of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Indra Sarma Vs. V. K. V. Sarma.

(b) Polygamy, that is a relationship or practice of having more than one wife or husband at the same time, or a relationship by way of a bigamous marriage that is marrying someone while already married to another and/or maintaining an adulterous relationship that is having voluntary sexual intercourse between a married person who is not one's husband or wife, cannot be said to be a relationship in the nature of marriage vide para 58 of judgment in Indra Sarma's Case (supra) & A Subhash Babu Vs. state of A.P. (paras 17 to 21, 27, 28 & 29). Polygamy is also a criminal offence under Section 494 & 495 I.P.C., vide Shayara Bano Vs. Union of India 5 (paras 299.3).

(c) Till a decree of divorce is passed the marriage subsist. Any other marriage during the subsistence of the first marriage would constitute an offence under Section 494 I.P.C. read with Section 17 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and the person, inspite of his conversion to some other religion would be liable to be prosecuted for the offence of bigamy, vide Lily Thomas and another Vs. Union of India and others 6 (Para 35). In para 38 of the aforesaid judgment, Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as under:-

"38. Religion is a matter of faith stemming from the depth of the heart and mind. Religion is a belief which binds the spiritual nature of man to a super-natural being; it is an object of conscientious devotion, faith and pietism. Devotion in its fullest sense is a consecration and denotes an act of worship. Faith in the strict sense constitutes firm reliance on the truth of religious doctrines in every system of religion. Religion, faith or devotion are not easily interchangeable. If the person feigns to have adopted another religion just for some worldly gain or benefit, it would be religious bigotry. Looked at from this angle, a person who mockingly adopts another religion where plurality of marriage is permitted so as to renounce the previous marriage and desert the wife, he cannot be permitted to take advantage of his exploitation as religion is not a commodity to be exploited. The institution of marriage under every personal law is a sacred institution. Under Hindu Law, Marriage is a sacrament. Both have to be preserved."

(Emphasis supplied)

(d) If both the persons are otherwise not qualified to enter into a legal marriage including being unmarried, vide D Velusamy Vs. D Patchaiaammal (supra) (para 31)."

10. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has also discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Director of Settlement, A.P. Vs. M.R. Apparao, in which the Hon'ble Apex court has considered the High Court's power for issuance of mandamus and held as under:-

"17. One of the conditions for exercising power under Article 226 for issuance of a mandamus is that the Court must come to the conclusion that the aggrieved person has a legal right, which entitles him to any of the rights and that such right has been infringed. In other words, existence of a legal right of a citizen and performance of any corresponding legal duty by the State or any public authority, could be enforced by issuance of a writ of mandamus. "Mandamus" means a command. It differs from the writs of prohibition or certiorari in its demand for some activity on the part of the body or person to whom it is addressed. Mandamus is a command issued to direct any person, corporation, inferior Courts or Government, requiring him or them to do some particular thing therein specified which appertains to his or their office and is in the nature of a public duty. A mandamus is available against any public authority including administrative and local bodies, and it would lie to any person who is under a duty imposed by statute or by the common law to do a particular act. In order to obtain a writ or order in the nature of mandamus, the applicant has to satisfy that he has a legal right to the performance of a legal duty by the party against whom the mandamus is sought and such right must be subsisting on the date of the petition."

11. From the factual matrix of the case it is apparent that petitioner no.1 is legally wedded wife of Shahrukh. She has not obtained any decree of divorce as prescribed in law. She is living with petitioner no.2 in contravention of the provisions of Islamic Law(Shariat), wherein legally wedded wife can not go out side marriage and this act of Muslim women is defined as Zina which is Haram (prohibited) . If we go to the criminality of the act of petitioner no.1 she may be prosecuted for the offence under section 494 and 495 IPC, as such relationship is not covered within the phrase of live-in-relationship or relationship in the nature of marriage.

12. Present writ petition has been filed by the petitioners for protection from interference by respondent no.4, who is father of petitioner no.1 and others in their peaceful living as husband and wife. If such a protection is granted, it may amount to grant the protection against the commission of offence under section 494 and 495 IPC.

13. It is settled law that writ of mandamus can be issued only if the petitioners has legal right to the performance of legal duty by the party against whom the mandamus is sought. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Kalyan Singh Vs. State of U.P., AIR 1962 SC 1183 held as under:-

"Applying the principles of issuance of writ of mandamus on the facts of the present case, we find that the petitioners have no legal right for protection on the facts of the present case inasmuch as such the protection as being asked, may amount to protection against commission of offence under Section 494/495 I.P.C. It is well settled law that writ of mandamus can not be issued contrary to law or to defeat a statutory provision including penal provision. The petitioners do not have legally protected and judicially enforceable subsisting right to ask for mandamus."

14. In the present case petitioner no.1 is Muslim by religion and she has not moved any application to the authority concerned for conversion of her religion under sections 8 and 9 of the Conversion Act. Hence petitioner no.1 is living in relationship with petitioner no.2 without obtaining divorce from her husband, that constitute an offence under sections 494 and 495 IPC and also without complying the provisions of sections 8 & 9 of the Conversion Act. Hence such type of criminal act cannot be supported and protected by the Court. Therefore, the petition has no substance and is liable to be dismissed

15. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1447
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 18.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

Writ-C No. 7022 of 2023

Executive Committee Maulana Mohd. Ali Jauhar Trust
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors.

...Petitioner

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Sri Imran Ullah, Sri Mohd. Khalid, Sri Vineet Vikram, Sri Kunal Shah, Sri Amit Saxena (Sr. Adv.)

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C.

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-The land and building for the institute were leased to the Trust in 2015 for 33 years at nominal rates, with the purpose of promoting educational development for minority communities-The Trust later established the Rampur Public school on the premises-The lease arrangement resulted from misuse of power by Mohamammad Azam Khan, the then Cabinet Minister and the trust's chairman, causing significant financial loss to the state-The institute was allegedly used for private benefits rather than the intended public purpose-The High Court analyzed the legality of the lease, procedural lapses, and whether the revocation of the lease followed due process-The court ruled that alleged violations of natural justice must be weighed against the facts of the case, such violations may not render government actions invalid-Such transactions are void ab initio as they violate public trust- allocation of public property through non-transparent processes, without competitive bidding, adherence to financial norms, is void.(Para 1 to 112)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. A.K. Kraipak Vs U.O.I.(1969) 2 SCC 262
2. Board of Control for Cricket in India Vs Cricket Assn of Bih.(2015) 2 SCC 251
3. R.Sai Bharathi Vs. J. Jayalalitha & ors.(2004) 2 SCC 9
4. Ori. Olympic Assn thru Gen.Secy. Vs St. of Ori. & anr.(2017) 14 SCC 22
5. A.C. Muthiah Vs Board of Control for Cricket in India & ors.(2011) 6 SCC 617
6. Ridge Vs Baldwin (1964) AC 40
7. S.L.Kapoor Vs Jagmohan(1980) 4 SCC 379
8. Malloch Vs Aberdeen Corp. (1971) 2 WLR 1578
9. Glynn Vs Keele Univ. (1971) 1 WLR 487
10. Cinnamond Vs British Airports Authority(1980) 1 WLR 582
11. Straughton, L.J., in R. Vs Ealing Magistrates court ex P Fannaran (1996) 8 Admn LR 351(358)
12. Dharampal Satyapal Ltd. Vs Deputy Commr of Central Excise Gauhati & ors.(2015) 8 SCC 519
13. Bishambhar Prasad vs Arfat Petrochemicals Pvt. Ltd & ors.
14. Mohinder Singh Gill Vs The Chief Election Officer
15. S.L. Kapoor Vs Jgmohan
16. K. Balasubramanian (Ex. Capt.) Vs St. of TN(1991) 2 SCC 708

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Kumar
Gupta, J.
&
Hon'ble Kshitij Shailendra, J.)

1. The Executive Committee of Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust through its authorized signatory has invoked the writ jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India challenging an Office Memorandum dated 31.01.2023 (for short the 'Office Memorandum') issued by the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, U.P. Civil Secretariat, Lucknow, withdrawing permission to attach Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust (for short 'the Trust') with the Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Technical and Research Institute, Rampur (hereinafter referred to as 'the Research Institute') and grant it on lease to the Trust and further terminating the lease deed dated 04.02.2015 and also the Rectification Deed dated 22.05.2015. A notice dated 15.02.2023 issued by the District Minority Welfare Officer, District Rampur, whereby the Manager of the Trust has been directed to vacate the premises of the Research Institute, has also been challenged. The writ petition was amended pursuant to an order dated 21.03.2023 and a further challenge was made to a notice dated 06.03.2023 issued by the District Minority Welfare Officer directing the Manager of the Trust to vacate the premises within a period of fifteen days, failing which possession would be taken by the Administration. A writ of mandamus has also been prayed for directing the respondents to remove the seal placed on the gate of the institution with a further prayer that the respondents be directed not to take any coercive measure against the petitioner trust on the strength of impugned order/ Office Memorandum/ notice. An order dated 31.01.2023 issued by the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, Lucknow, has also been challenged whereby the Divisional Minority Welfare Officer, Moradabad Region, District Moradabad, and the District Minority Welfare Officer, Rampur have been directed to resume possession of the land of the Research Institute and inform the Government about the same.

FRAME OF THE WRIT PETITION

2. The facts of the case, as culled out from the writ petition, are that the petitioner trust is a society registered under the provisions of the Societies Registration Act, 1860, its registration having been granted on 24.04.1995 and renewed from time to time. The primary aims and objectives of the trust, as per the petitioner, is to undertake philanthropic activities for the purposes of fostering scientific temperament among the persons belonging to the minority community and to take steps for their social and educational upliftment as set out in the Memorandum of Association, appended as Annexure No.6 to the writ petition.

3. It is pleaded that, in the year 2005, the then Chief Minister made public announcement for launching different projects for the welfare of the persons belonging to the minority community and, amongst the same, the Government, in remembrance of the contributions made by Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar in the freedom struggle as also in the Khilafat Movement, decided to set up a training and research institute in Rampur. It is pleaded that the primary objective of the research institute was to outline and prepare plans for economic and educational developments of the persons belonging to the minority community and the institution was at liberty to run programmes for effective development of such persons. Accordingly, the Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, Government of U.P. established a research institute at Village Thothar, District Rampur in the name and style of 'Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Training and Research Institute' (for short 'the Research Institute'), which is spread over a total area of 13140 square meters, out of which constructions in the shape of building existed over 4252.07 square meters and the remaining area, i.e. 8887.93 square meters was in the shape of an open land.

4. It is further pleaded that the State Government, vide Office Memorandum dated 20.11.2014, took a decision to lease out the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner trust under the provisions of the Government Grants Act, 1895, as applicable in the State of U.P. and, in furtherance of the said decision, a lease deed dated 04.02.2015 was executed between the Governor of the State and the petitioner trust and the same was registered on the same day in Book No.1, Volume No.6403, Page No.317 to 328 in the office of Sub-Registrar, Tehsil Sadar, District Rampur. Further pleadings are that the lease was granted for a period of 33 years on receipt of a premium of Rs.1,000/- and at an annual rent of Rs.100/- with an option for renewal of the lease for two further terms of 33 years each, the maximum period of the lease being 99 years, Though, Clause 2 of the lease deed casts an obligation upon the petitioner trust to ensure that activities are carried out in furtherance of the aims and objectives set out in Schedule-II, inadvertently, the said Schedule and a map exhibiting the boundaries could not be appended to the original lease deed. The State Government, considering the fact that there was a pressing need for qualitative improvement of primary and secondary level education among the minority community, vide Office Memorandum dated 03.03.2015, authorized the petitioner trust to make arrangements in the institution in question for imparting studies in all subjects of primary and secondary level of education, including Urdu, Arabi and Farsi. It is further pleaded that though Clause 9 of the lease deed prohibits raising of any pucca constructions on the open land let out to the petitioner trust, certain confusion arose, for removal of which, the State Government, vide an Office Memorandum dated 17.03.2015, approved the amendment in Clause 9 of the lease deed and the words "pucca construction" were replaced by words "permanent construction". The case of the petitioner is that in order to cure the aforesaid inadvertent omission of not appending the 'Schedule' and the subsequent decision of the State Government contained in the Office Memorandum dated 03.03.2015 and 17.03.2015, a Rectification Deed was executed between the State Government and the petitioner trust on 22.05.2015 which was also registered in the office of Sub-Registrar concerned and, consistent with the objectives set out in Clause 16 of the Second Schedule of the amended lease deed dated 22.05.2015, the petitioner trust, after obtaining requisite permission, in June, 2015, established a co-education school under the name and style of "Rampur Public School" affiliated to Central Board of Secondary Education (for short C.B.S.E.); the affiliation was extended from time to time and is still valid till 31.03.2026. Certain details regarding strength of students in the said school have been disclosed in the writ petition and the petitioner's case is that functioning of the institution is without any complaint or any other infirmity.

5. According to the petitioner, on coming of new Government in power in the year 2017, one Shri Baldev Singh Aulakh, a Member of U.P. Legislative Assembly and Minister of State, made certain complaints before the State Government regarding the functioning of the petitioner trust and the Government constituted a Special Investigation Team (for short S.I.T.) by an order dated 23.05.2018, whereafter the Additional Superintendent of Police, S.I.T., vide letter dated 07.01.2019, made certain queries regarding the functioning of Rampur Public School by the petitioner trust. The S.I.T. marked the letter to the petitioner trust and also to the Principal of Rampur Public School raising certain queries and the Principal, vide his letter dated 24.01.2019, provided necessary information as well as the copies of relevant documents, as desired by the Additional Superintendent of Police, S.I.T. It is further pleaded that the S.I.T. submitted some report before the State Government, whereupon, the State Government, on 28.01.2023, took a decision to terminate the lease deed dated 04.02.2015, the rectification deed dated 22.05.2015 and also to revoke the Office Memorandum dated 20.11.2014 whereby previous Government had let out the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner trust. The orders/ notices and Office Memorandum impugned in the writ petition are said to have been issued in furtherance of the decision of the State Government.

6. The impugned action has been challenged mainly on the ground that the entire exercise leading to passing of the impugned orders/ notices/ Office Memorandum has been carried out in complete derogation of the principles of natural justice; that the Government never issued any show cause notice to the petitioner regarding alleged breaches and defaults on the part of the petitioner; and that the Office Memorandum dated 31.01.2023 does not disclose any reason and, hence, the entire action is liable to be declared illegal and void.

COUNTER AFFIDAVIT

7. A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of the State-respondents stating that Mohd. Azam Khan, being a Cabinet Minister in the regime of the previous Government (herein after, for short 'the Cabinet Minister/ Hon'ble Minister') holding the portfolio of Minister of Urban Development and Parliamentary Affairs with effect from 28.08.2003 to 13.05.2007 and Minister for Minority Welfare and Waqf, Government of U.P., with effect from 15.03.2012 till 19.03.2017, misused and abused his position to usurp highly valuable State land and the building of the Research Institute built from the State exchequer. The trust was headed by him only, being the founder and lifetime Chairman thereof since before execution of the lease. It is further pleaded that the petitioner trust, instead of advancing the objects of the Research Institute, established a CBSE recognised school in the building of the research institute. The Managing Committee of the said school comprises mainly of the family members of Cabinet Minister. It is further pleaded that Rampur Public School was established over the land and building without approval from the Cabinet or competent authority. Further stand is that Cabinet Minister himself determined and fixed premium of the entire land and building at Rs.1000/- and annual lease rent of Rs.100/- by misusing and abusing his position, causing financial loss to the State exchequer to the extent of around Rs.20.44 crores. In the aforesaid background, the present Cabinet constituted a Special Investigation Team to enquire and investigate into the entire transaction. The Cabinet found the attachment of the Research Institute with the Trust and also grant of lease of land and building of the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner- Trust to be a result of gross corruption and fraud and the same were set at naught.

8. The facts preceding the execution of lease deed in favour of the petitioner-trust have been disclosed in the counter affidavit as follows:-

(i) The erstwhile Government, ruled by Samajwadi Party, had transferred 1.314 hectares of land of District Jail, Rampur to the Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, State of U.P., vide Government Order of August, 2004, for establishment of the Training and Research Institute. The objectives of the Research Institute contained in the project report have been reproduced in the counter affidavit. For achieving the objectives of the trust, a building was constructed over the aforesaid land out of Government funds. It is further stated that the then Chief Minister, on his visit to district Rampur, announced that the Research Institute would be attached with Maulana Ali Mohammad Jauhar University, vide Mukhyamantri Ghoshana (declaration) on 19.12.2012, however, subsequently, the said Ghoshana (declaration) was modified on 07.06.2013 to the effect that the said institute would be attached to the petitioner trust, a private society. It is further stated that the Secretary, Minority Welfare and Waqf Department, on 25.10.2014, reported that the Government building constructed on the land had not been utilized for any purpose, therefore, a proposal had been sent to the office of the then Chief Minister who directed to take appropriate decision at competent level, i.e. the Cabinet on 11.11.2014. The decision of the Cabinet, contained in the resolution dated 20.11.2014, has been reproduced in paragraph no.19 of the counter affidavit substantially observing that a document of lease would be executed in between the State Government and the Trust, however, in case the Trust fails to achieve the objects of the Research Institute, the right to cancel the lease before its expiry would remain reserved with the State Government. It is further pleaded that though asked, the Department of Finance and Department of Law did not provide any proper or clear opinion regarding the lease rent and its duration, therefore, file was sent for finalization of the said aspects to the office of the then Chief Minister on 19.01.2015 and a direction was issued for taking action at the level of concerned departments as per the Cabinet decision. Various amendments in the documents have been spelt out in the counter affidavit and the stand is that Rampur Public School started running in the Government building constructed for Training and Research Institute on the said land since 02.04.2015, even before amendment in the aims and objectives of the Institute permitting the running of the school and also before execution of the amended lease deed dated 22.05.2015. This became possible in view of enormous power wielded by the Cabinet Minister of the concerned Ministry itself. There was direct conflict of interest between the Minister and the grant of lease and, therefore, all actions are rendered void ab initio.

(ii) It is further pleaded that the State Government, by letter dated 23.05.2018, constituted a Special Investigation Team to enquire into the complaints and the Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf also sent a proposal for High Level Inquiry regarding misappropriation of State land and building in the garb of advancing the objectives of the Training and Research Institute, causing huge financial loss to the State Exchequer. Regarding the participation of the trust in the investigation process, the stand is that during the course of investigation, the S.I.T. recorded statements of Mr. Naseer Ahmad Khan, Member of Legislative Assembly/ Secretary of the Trust, who happens to be a relative of the Cabinet Minister and of Mr. Sultan Khan, Principal, Rampur Public School. The report dated 04.07.2019 submitted by the Executive Engineer of Public Works Department, Rampur regarding construction of a permanent structure over the land in violation of the terms and conditions of the lease deed has also been referred to and the conclusion drawn by the S.I.T. in the report has been reproduced in the counter affidavit apart from recommendations made by the S.I.T. regarding cancellation of the lease deed dated 04.02.2015. It is further stated that the Department of Home took cognizance of the report of S.I.T. on 31.01.2020 and a meeting of High Powered Committee was convened on 16.03.2020, headed by Additional Chief Secretary, Home and attended by Principal Secretary, Minority Secretary Waqf Department, Additional Chief Secretary (Revenue) and Director General of Police. The report was further examined by the said Committee and, after due diligence, the recommendations were validated and accepted in toto. Further pleadings are that pursuant to the impugned action, correction of entries has already been incorporated in the relevant records and regarding opportunity of hearing or participation during the course of investigation, it has been repeatedly stated that during such investigation, oral/ written statements were made by the Principal of Rampur Public School and the Secretary of the Trust and, hence, office bearers of the trust and the institution were fully aware of the ongoing investigation and, therefore, it cannot be said that they were not provided any opportunity in the matter.

REJOINDER AFFIDAVIT

9. Rejoinder affidavit filed on behalf of the petitioners reiterates the stand taken in the writ petition and by referring to various authorities, emphasis is on adherence to the principles of natural justice. The participation of the officials of the trust and Rampur Public School in the investigation has not been denied, however, it has been stated that the same can, in no way, be deemed to be compliance of the principles of natural justice, particularly, when the Principal of Rampur Public School cannot be said to be aware of the managerial affairs of the trust. Every action on the part of the State Government leading to passing of the orders/ notices/ Office Memorandum has been assailed by taking various factual and legal pleas.

INTERVENTION BY THIRD PARTIES

10. In the present case, by an order dated 13.12.2023, an application filed by Rampur Public School and its Principal seeking intervention in the writ proceedings was allowed taking care of the interest of the students who got affected on account of impugned action of the State-respondents.

The reasons are recorded in the said order itself. By a subsequent order dated 18.12.2023, while reserving judgment in this case, stand of the State Government contained in affidavit filed on that day was recorded to the effect that out of 1479 students in Rampur Public School in academic session 2022-23, 733 students had been shifted to other branches of Rampur Public School, Rampur; that 161 students of Class XII had passed out and remaining 585 students had taken admission in other schools. Further stand of the Government is that a meeting was held on 15.12.2023 with students and their guardians wherein they did not point out to any specific problem being faced by the students. It is also stated that a helpline desk has been made operational and the students and parents have been informed about the same.

COUNSEL HEARD

11. We have heard Sri Amit Saxena, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Mohammad Khalid and Sri Kunal Shah, for the petitioner and Shri Ajay Kumar Mishra, learned Advocate General, assisted by Sri Ajit Singh, learned Additional Advocate General, along with Sri Sudhanshu Srivastava and Sri Ishan Mehta, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the respondents.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONER

12. Learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner-trust has made the following arguments:-

(i) Neither any show cause notice was issued to the petitioner nor any opportunity of hearing was ever afforded by the respondents to the petitioner before passing the impugned order dated 31.01.2023, whereby the decision dated 20.11.2014 to grant lease, office memorandum, lease deed and correction lease deed, were revoked or set aside.

(ii) The impugned order dated 31.01.2023 does not contain any reason, therefore, the said order as well as all consequential orders/notices are wholly invalid.

(iii) The impugned order suffers from breach of principles of natural justice and, therefore, all the impugned orders and the notices deserve to be quashed.

(iv) No material or document on the basis of which the decision dated 20.11.2014 has been withdrawn or the lease deed has been cancelled, had been supplied to the petitioner.

(v) The impugned order has not been passed on merit and no ground of cancellation emerges therefrom.

(vi) Impugned order cannot be supplemented by fresh reasons assigned in counter affidavit, particularly when neither any show cause notice was issued nor was the petitioner confronted with any material nor any opportunity of hearing was afforded before passing the impugned order.

(vii) The allegations of fraud, conflict of interest or violation of Rules have been pleaded for the first time in the counter affidavit and the petitioner was never put to notice on the said grounds which might have been reasons behind taking the action impugned.

(viii) S.I.T. sent letter dated 07.01.2019 to the District Magistrate, Rampur, a copy whereof was marked to the Principal of the School as well as Manager of the Trust and seven queries raised through said letter were confined to running of the school by the Research Institute; recognition granted to the school inside the premises of the Research Institute; since when the school was being run; which subjects and languages were being taught; what was the number of officers and employees in the management of the school; which classes were being run therefrom and as to whether, apart from running the school, any research activity was also being carried out; if yes, what is the number of the research scholars. Certain documents were also called from the petitioner and the petitioner responded to the communication so made and answered all the seven points in the following manner:-

“1- यह मोलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर ट्रस्ट को उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार द्वारा लीज पर दिया गया है।

2- सी.बी.एस.ई. बोर्ड नई दिल्ली द्वारा पंजीकृत प्रमाण पत्र प्रतिलिपि।

3- (क) अनापत्ति प्रमाण पत्र आयुक्त द्वारा प्रदान किया गया।

(ख) अनापत्ति प्रमाण पत्र नगर पालिका द्वारा प्रदान किया गया।

(ग) अग्नि एवं सुरक्षा प्रमाण पत्र मुख्य अग्नि शमन अधिकारी द्वारा प्रदान किया गया।

प्रमाणित प्रतिलिपियाँ संलग्न

4- 2015 से हिन्दी अंग्रेजी उर्दू संस्कृत भाषायें एवं सी.बी.एस.ई पाठ्यक्रम के अनुसार सारे विषय।

5- प्रधानाचार्य, अध्यापक, लेखाकार, चपरासी, एवम सफाई कर्मी ग्रेड मिलाकर कुल 40.

6- कक्षा 1 से 11 तक 857 विद्यार्थी।

7- मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर पर शोधकर्ता एवम उनकी जीवनी और शैली के बारे में जानने वाले बहुत से आचार्य व शोधकर्ता समय समय आते रहते हैं। और संस्थान की लाइब्रेरी में मौजूद मोलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर पर साहित्य का उपयोग करते हैं। एवम समय समय पर मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर पर सेमिनार भी प्रस्तुत किये जाते हैं।”

(ix) The purpose behind the establishment of Research Institute was never frustrated as the Minority Welfare and Waqf Department of the State Government, vide Office Memorandum dated 03.03.2015, itself permitted substitution of the objects mentioned in the detailed project report/ Chief Minister Declaration, at point no.16 thereof, in the following manner:-

3. तदनुसार श्री राज्यपाल महोदय मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर के लिए निर्धारित किये गये उद्देश्यों के बिन्दु सं०-16 पर अंकित उद्देश्य जो ऊपर प्रस्तर-1 पर अंकित है के स्थान पर निम्नलिखित उद्देश्य प्रतिस्थापित करने की सहर्ष अनुमति प्रदान करते हैं:-

“वर्तमान में उर्दू, अरबी तथा फारसी भाषा में गुणात्मक सुधार, शोध कार्य, नियोजन तथा ज्ञानवर्धन अत्यन्त सीमित हो गया है साथ ही अल्पसंख्यकों में प्राथमिक व माध्यमिक शिक्षा में भी गुणात्मक सुधार की आवश्यकता है। अतः इस बिन्दु को दृष्टिगत रखते हुए संस्थान में प्राथमिक व माध्यमिक शिक्षा के समस्त विषयों के साथ-साथ उर्दू

अथवा अरबी व फारसी विषयों में शिक्षा की व्यवस्था करना एवं शोध कार्य कराना।

4. मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर के लिए निर्धारित किये गये शेष उद्देश्य यथावत् रहेगें।”

(x) Such decision of the State Government was implemented and Schedule II was attached by executing a supplementary lease deed on 22.05.2015. The S.I.T. report itself indicates that the State Government had transferred the land to the Research Institute in August, 2004 and since the Government was not able to accomplish the objects set out behind establishment of Research Institute, the petitioner-trust, which is a society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, since 1995, took over the building pursuant to resolutions passed and decision taken by the Government, as noted in the counter affidavit itself.

CASE LAW CITED ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONER

13. Learned senior counsel for the petitioner, in support of his submissions, has placed reliance upon the following authorities:-

(i) Deepak Ananda Patil Vs. State of Maharashtra and others¹;

(ii) Dipak Babaria Vs. State of Gujarat & others²;

(iii) UMC Technologies Private Limited Vs. Food Corporation of India and another³;

(iv) Harbanslal Sahnia and another Vs. Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. and others⁴;

(v) 63 Moons Technologies Limited (Formerly Known as Financial Technologies India Limited) and others Vs. Union of India and others⁵;

(vi) Kaushal Kishore Vs. State of U.P.⁶;

(vii) Mohinder Singh Gill Vs. Chief Election Commissioner⁷;

(viii) Sachidanand Pandey Vs. State of West Bengal⁸;

(ix) Re Natural Resources Allocation⁹;

(x) Electrosteel Castings Ltd. Vs. U.V. Asset Reconstruction Company Ltd¹⁰.

SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE STATE-RESPONDENTS

14. On the other hand, learned Advocate General, assisted by State Counsel, has structured his arguments mainly under the following heads:-

(i) Mohammad Azam Khan was the Cabinet Minister during the period entire exercise for grant of lease took place. He used his power and influence in securing long term lease of 99 years of valuable State land & building, built from State fund, for his own Trust. He played the role of granter and was also the beneficiary. This was a direct conflict of interest and it renders the entire exercise void ab initio.

(ii) The petitioner has approached the Hon'ble Court with unclean hands by concealing material facts, deserving dismissal of the petition on this count alone, as justice and fraud cannot dwell together and fraud vitiates even a solemn act.

(iii) Alleged breach of principles of natural justice would be of no significance, as setting aside of the impugned action on this ground would revive and restore the illegal grant and orders, disentitling the petitioner to any discretionary relief.

(iv) There is flagrant violation of provisions of U.P. Revenue Manual regarding grant of lease and fixation of rent etc.

(v) Creation of temporary posts for running Research Institute and then abolishing them for the purpose of establishing a school instead of Research Institute, was a ploy.

15. Elaborating the arguments on the above noted points, it has been contended that the Cabinet Minister was holding the portfolio of Ministry of Urban Development, and Parliamentary Affairs (w.e.f. 28.08.2003 till 13.05.2007) and Minister for Minority Welfare and Waqf (w.e.f. 15.03.2012 to 19.03.2017). Under a pre-meditated design, he, by abusing his position and power as a Cabinet Minister, succeeded in usurping highly valuable State land & building, for his own private Trust in the garb of reviving and advancing the objectives of the Research Institute. However, that was never the intention and, therefore, no effort was ever made in that direction. Rather, the Government building and land was utilized for establishing "Rampur Public School" by private Committee of Management, controlled by his family members. The abuse of public office held by him was to such extent that he himself determined & fixed premium of the demised land and building worth 20.44 crores as Rs.1000/- only & annual lease rent as Rs.100/-. This was in complete defiance of the Cabinet decision dated 20.11.2014 that duration of lease and lease rent would be determined/fixed separately as per relevant rules. The relevant extract of Office Memorandum dated 20.11.2014 as well as Cabinet resolution dated 20.11.2014 is as below:-

(5) मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर की भूमि एवं भवन का मूल्य जो प्रचलित नियमों के अन्तर्गत निर्धारित होगा, के सापेक्ष निर्धारित

धनराशि का नियमानुसार सांकेतिक मूल्य/राशि राज्य सरकार को दिये जाने के संबंध में उभय पक्षों के मध्य अनुबन्ध कर निष्पादित किया जायेगा।

(6) मोहम्मद अली जौहर ट्रस्ट से सम्बद्ध की जा रही/लीज पर दी जा रही मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर की भूमि एवं भवन की लीज की अवधि एवं लीज रेन्ट का निर्धारण पृथक से नियमानुसार किया जायेगा।

(emphasis supplied)

16. It has further been argued that no advertisement inviting applications from public at large for settlement of lease and management of the Research Institute was ever published. The Cabinet Minister of the concerned department, in a completely surreptitious manner, succeeded in getting the lease and management rights of the Research Institute settled in favour of his family Trust. The long period of lease of 99 years and the one-sided terms of lease were tailor made to ensure conferment of rights of permanent nature in favour of his family trust.

17. It is contended that in the entire writ petition, it has not been disclosed anywhere that Mohd. Azam Khan was the Cabinet Minister at the time when the entire exercise of execution of lease and conferment of management rights in the Training Institute, in favour of the petitioner-Trust took place. It is also not disclosed that he himself was the beneficiary of the allotment made and that the petitioner has also suppressed information regarding the proceedings undertaken by S.I.T. though the petitioner was well aware of the same. The argument is that the deliberate act of concealment of material facts has rendered the petition liable to dismissal solely on the ground of suppression of material facts as it is an act of abuse of the process of the Court. Reference to Chapter XIX of U.P. Revenue Manual, particularly Clauses 361, 366 and 368, has been made regarding procedure to be followed while fixing lease rent and duration thereof. It is contended that in cases involving concession in favour of the lessee regarding lease rent or premium, the matter has to be submitted before the State Government, which procedure has not at all been followed in the present case. Moreover, fixation of period of lease as 99 years was also without any approval of the Cabinet. It is further argued that posts created to be filled up by Government Officers for achieving the objectives of the Research & Training Institute, vide Government Order dated 1st August 2006, were directed to be abolished under pressure of the Cabinet Minister. Breach of terms and conditions contained in the lease deed dated 04.02.2015 has been elaborately argued stating that Research Institute never came into existence according to the terms of the lease, no permission to open & run "Rampur Public School" was obtained and the aim was profiteering & amassing wealth by misusing Government Land & Building meant for Government Research Institute. It has further been argued that no fair and transparent procedure was ever followed for allotment/leasing of the land/building in question and the petitioner has not brought on record any pleading or document to demonstrate that any legally recognized procedure was ever followed prior to the allotment of the land in question. The property in question belongs to State Government and is a public property. Hence, it was the Cabinet Minister's public duty to ensure that the property was allotted in favour of eligible person by following the procedure laid down by the State Government. However, he misused his power to procure lease for his family trust, at a throw-away price.

CASE LAW CITED ON BEHALF OF THE RESPONDENTS

18. Learned counsel for the respondents has placed reliance upon the following authorities:-

- (i) Secretary, Jaipur Development Authority Vs. Daulat Mal Jain¹¹;
- (ii) State (NCT of Delhi) Vs. Union of India¹²;
- (iii) Common Cause Vs. Union of India¹³;
- (iv) Institute of Law, Chandigarh Vs. Neeraj Sharma¹⁴;
- (v) Ram & Shyam Co. Vs. State of Haryana¹⁵;
- (vi) Satluj Jal Vidyut Nigam Vs. Raj Kumar Rajinder Singh¹⁶;
- (vii) K.D. Sharma Vs. Sail¹⁷;
- (viii) Satyan Vs. Deputy Commissioner and others¹⁸;
- (ix) State of U.P. Vs. Sudhir Kumar Singh¹⁹;
- (x) Bishambhar Prasad Arfat Petrochemicals²⁰;
- (xi) Gadde Venkateswara Rao Vs. Govt. of A.P.²¹;
- (xii) M.C. Mehta Vs. Union of India²²; and
- (xiii) 63 Moons Technologies Ltd. (Formerly Known as Financial Technologies India Limited) and others Vs. Union of India²³.

THE ISSUES

19. From perusal of pleadings of the parties, documents annexed to various affidavits as well as the record produced before this Court and after hearing learned counsel for parties at length, following broad issues emerge for consideration of this Court and discussion on the same would cover all the contentions raised by the respective parties:-

(i) Whether the initial grant made by the previous Government in favour of the Petitioner-Trust was void ab initio?

(ii) Whether there was violation of principles of natural justice as would render the impugned decision(s) of the present State Government a nullity ?

(iii) Whether discretionary and equitable jurisdiction of High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India should be exercised in the facts and circumstances of the instant case ?

PRODUCTION AND PERUSAL OF THE ORIGINAL RECORD

20. During the course of arguments, the original record was produced before the Court on 08.12.2023. By the order dated 08.12.2023, we permitted Sri Amit Saxena, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner, along with his assisting counsel, to peruse the record and take notes, if needed. Learned counsel for both sides were given full opportunity to refer to the original record during the course of hearing. With the assistance of learned counsel for both the sides, the Court noted certain aspects from the original record, which will be referred to while analysing the arguments.

ANALYSIS

Issue No.1

21. The fundamental question is whether the initial grant made by the previous Government in favour of the Petitioner-Trust was void ab initio. It would be advantageous to first advert to certain proceedings from the original record and the counter affidavit.

22. The State Government decided to establish a Training and Research Institute at Rampur to provide fillip to Urdu, Arabi and Farsi languages. For achieving the said objective, it transferred 1.314 hectare of land of District Jail, Rampur to Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, State of U.P. vide G.O. No. U.O.-53/22-4-2-2004 August 2004 for establishment of Training and Research Institute in the name of Maulana Mohd. Ali Jauhar Training and Research Institute, Rampur. A detailed project report was got prepared setting out the objectives of the Research Institute. The building of the Research Institute was got constructed on the said land in pursuance of G.O. No. 1690/52-2-2005-2(47)/2005, dated 24.10.2005. The Construction and Design Services, U.P. Jal Nigam was given the task of constructing the building of the Research Institute at an estimated cost of Rs. 9.44 crores. Eighty percent of the work was duly completed by the Construction Agency. On 1.8.2006, a G.O. was issued creating 21 temporary posts for the Research Institute. The post of Director of the Research Institute was conceived to be equivalent to the post of Professor and was to be filled up by transfer/deputation by the Department of Minority Welfare and Waqf, Government of U.P. Rest of the 20 temporary posts were to be filled up from Provincial Civil Services, Economic Statics Wing of the Department of Planning by deputation/transfer, till Service Conditions were laid down and regular appointments were made. Abruptly, on 10.12.2012, the then Chief Minister announced in a public meeting that the Research Institute would be attached to Maulana Mohd. Ali Jauhar University. The decision was communicated vide Mukhya Mantri Ghoshna dated 9.12.2012. The original record reveals that on 30.1.2013, the Section Officer of Minority Welfare and Waqf Department sent a request to the Deputy Secretary of the State for creation/sanction of 21 posts in the Research Institute. Just below the aforesaid noting is a noting dated 13.02.2013 made by Cabinet Minister (Minister of Urban Development, Parliamentary Affairs, Minority Welfare and Waqf), to the following effect:-

“मा० मंत्री जी

(क.) इस सम्बन्ध में विदित रहे कि उक्त

मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर शोध संस्थान के बारे में मा० मुख्य मन्त्री जी द्वारा मौहम्मद अली जौहर ट्रस्ट को मोहम्मद अली जौहर विश्वविद्यालय से सम्बद्ध करने की घोषणा रामपुर से की गयी है। तथा आवश्यक है कि दोनों बिन्दुओं पर एक साथ निर्णय लेना चाहें।

ह० मो० आजम”

(मो० आजम खाँ)

मंत्री

संसदीय कार्य, मुस्लिम वक्फ, नगर

विकास,

जल सम्पूर्ति, नगरीय रोजगार एवं

गरीबी उन्मूलन,

अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण एवं हज,

उत्तर प्रदेश शासन।

23. It is apparent from the aforesaid noting, written and signed by the Cabinet Minister himself that he wanted the attachment of Research Institute with Mohammad Ali Jauhar University and, hence, requested for decision being taken in this regard along with decision for creation of posts.

24. At this stage, it would be interesting to note how the said University, i.e. Mohammad Ali Jauhar University was established and who controls it. It is a creature of Mohammad Ali Jauhar University Act, 2005 (U.P. Act No.19 of 2006) passed by the U.P. Legislature during the period Mohd. Azam Khan was a Cabinet Minister holding the portfolio of Minister of Urban Development and Parliamentary Affairs. The Statement of Objects and Reasons behind such enactment reads as follows:-

“Prefatory Note- Statement of Objects and Reasons.- Urdu language is spoken as mother tongue by a particular section of the society of Uttar Pradesh. The Urdu language is required to be developed in such a way that any person of the society may continue their study to the higher stage of learning in Urdu literature including Arabi and Farasi languages. There is no University under the control of State wherein higher study or Urdu, Arabi and Farasi language and research therein could be facilitated to the persons who are interested in Urdu, Arabi or Farasi language. The Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust, Lucknow has sponsored for the establishment of such University. It has, therefore, been decided to establish a University sponsored by the said Trust to be known as Mohd. Ali Jauhar University at Rampur in the State of Uttar Pradesh to provide advance knowledge and wisdom and understanding by teaching and research in Urdu, Arab and Farasi languages to the scholar.

The Mohd. Ali Jauhar University Bill, 2005 is introduced accordingly.”
(emphasis supplied)

25. It is apparent from the Statement of Objects and Reasons that the petitioner-Trust was a sponsor for establishment of the University at Rampur. The Act defines “Trust” under Section 2(r), as follows:-

“2(r) “Trust” means Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860.”
(emphasis supplied)

26. Section 10 of the Act describes Officers of the University, namely, the Chancellor; the Vice-Chancellor; the Pro-Vice-Chancellor; Directors/ Head of the Institutions; the Registrar; the Treasurer; the Deans of Faculties; the Dean of Students’ Welfare; the Proctor; the Finance Officer; and such other Officers as may be declared by the Statutes to be officers of the University. Interestingly, the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor of the University have been defined under Sections 11 and 12 of the Act, as follows:-

“11. The Chancellor.- (1) The Chairman of the Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust (Registered) shall be the Chancellor of the University till such time as determined from time to time by the Trust.

(2) The Chancellor shall, by virtue of his office, be the Head of the University.

(3) The Chancellor shall, if present, preside at the Convocation of the University held for conferring degrees.

(4) Other powers and functions of the Chancellor shall be such as may be prescribed.

12. Vice-Chancellor.- (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor with the prior approval of the Trust for such period as may be prescribed.
.....”
(emphasis supplied)

27. It is very much clear that the Chairman of the petitioner-Trust shall be the Chancellor of the University and, by virtue of his office, he shall be the Head of the University and he himself is the Appointing Authority of the Vice-Chancellor. There is no dispute about the fact that the Cabinet Minister is the Lifetime Chairman of the petitioner-Trust and, therefore, the University, though established under a State Legislation was/is under his full control and command.

28. Further proceedings on record demonstrate that, time and again, different departments of the Government forwarded the file from one office to other seeking opinion with respect to affiliation/ attachment of the Research Institute with Jauhar University. Sri Surya Prakash Singh Sengar, Deputy Secretary of Higher Education, Government of U.P., on 31.05.2013, clearly opined that there was no provision for attachment of an institution established by Government with a private University established under Maulana Mohammad Ali Jauhar University Act, 2005 and, accordingly, the file was directed to be returned to the Minority Welfare and Muslim Wakf Department for requisite approval to the said decision. The matter did not rest there and the file was again moved from one office to other emphasizing the need on the attachment/ affiliation of the Research Institute with the University. Ultimately, the matter was referred for opinion of the Advocate General on 22.01.2014, however, noticing that there was no law under which the Research Institute could be attached with/affiliated to a private University, merely to fulfill the declaration (ghoshana) made by the Chief Minister.

29. A very interesting feature of the decision to obtain opinion from the Advocate General stands reflected from record, that is to the effect that the declaration made by the Chief Minister with respect to attaching/affiliating the Research Institute with Jauhar University was substituted by an “amended declaration” to attach the Research Institute with Mohammad Ali Jauhar Trust (petitioner-Trust) and the officials of the State Government clearly recorded in the reference proceedings dated 22.01.2014 that there was no law or even instance under which any Government institution had ever been attached to a private institution/ trust. Then, the Advocate General submitted his opinion dated 24.05.2014 stating that there appears to be no legal impediment in attachment/ leasing out of Research Institute with/to the petitioner trust with a further opinion that the said attachment/ leasing out would be in public interest as it would help in achieving the common objectives of these organisations and to create supplementary resources for assisting the State Government in providing quality higher education, mainly in the field of Urdu language. As such, in fact, the Advocate General approved the decision to lease out the property of the Research Institute in alleged public interest. Even after such opinion, there was difference of opinion amongst Government Officials and the file was again placed before the Advocate General who furnished second legal opinion on 21.06.2014 stating that previously furnished opinion was clear and unambiguous and he expected the administrative department to act in accordance with the opinion already given.

30. The next proceeding on record, drawn on 24.06.2014, is of great relevance. It takes note of ‘conflict of interest’ in case the lease is granted to the petitioner-Trust. Sri Dharm Raj Singh, Deputy Secretary of the Minority Welfare Department of U.P. Government, observed that various policy, procedural and financial complications would arise in the event of attachment of the Research Institute with the petitioner-trust and, therefore, suggested for obtaining opinion of the Revenue and Law Department. Reference to certain decisions of Hon’ble Supreme Court was also made in the noting dated 24.06.2014 stating that the land and the building concerned, being the property of Minority and Welfare Department and, at the relevant time, Mohd. Azam Khan, being the Cabinet Minister of the same Department as well as the person taking all important decisions in the matter relating to transfer of land/ building to the trust, there would be ‘conflict of interest’. It would give rise to various complaints and legal complications. It was also observed that in past also, not only such allotments had been cancelled but departmental proceedings were also launched against the officials during whose regime such decisions were taken. Ultimately, the matter was referred to the Revenue and Legal Department formulating following four points for further consideration:-

- (i) Policy aspect;
- (ii) Procedural aspect;
- (iii) Financial aspect; and
- (iv) Conflict of interest aspect

31. Each of the aforesaid aspects carries considerable importance in the present case. We first refer to the financial aspect about which the concerned ministry was of the clear opinion that the market value of the land over which the Research Institute exists, was Rs.5.51 crores and the structure worth Rs.9.44 crores exists over it. Therefore, the value of the property being approximately Rs.15 crores, it would require payment of Rs.20.44 crores in the event of grant of lease and as to whether the trust is agreeable to the same, is not clear.

32. As far as conflict of interest is concerned, following noting needs reference:-

(4) Conflict of interest सम्बन्धित पहलू - उल्लेखनीय है कि प्रश्नगत शोध संस्थान की भूमि एवं भवन अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण विभाग की सम्पत्ति है। वर्तमान में मा० आजम खां जी अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण विभाग के मा० मंत्री हैं। प्रश्नगत जौहर ट्रस्ट जिसे संस्थान को लीज/सम्बद्धता पर देने का प्रकरण विचाराधीन है, में भी मा० मंत्री जी स्वयं तथा उनके परिवार के सदस्य मुख्य पदाधिकारी हैं। इस प्रकार प्रकरण में मा० मंत्री जी लाभ के पक्षकार भी हैं तथा निर्णय लेने हेतु महत्वपूर्ण प्राधिकारी भी हैं। इस प्रकार अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण विभाग द्वारा ही ट्रस्ट को भूमि/भवन का स्वामित्व स्थानान्तरित करने की प्रक्रिया सम्भवतः कनफ्लिक्ट आफ इन्टरेस्ट Conflict of interest से बाधित हो सकती है, जो कि बाद में विभिन्न शिकायतों व कानूनी पेचीदगियों में फँस सकती है।

6- उल्लेखनीय है कि इस प्रकार के प्रकरण पूर्व में शासन के राजस्व विभाग में

व्यवहृत हुए हैं जिसमें शासन द्वारा इस प्रकार भूमि आवंटन को विपरीत प्रकार से लेते हुए आवंटन निरस्त ही नहीं किया बल्कि सम्बन्धित अधिकारियों के विरुद्ध भी कार्यवाही हुई थी। अतः यह परीक्षण आवश्यक है कि पूर्व में इस प्रकार के प्रकरण में आवंटन निरस्त करने हेतु जो भी विधिक परामर्श दिया गया होगा उसका प्रभाव इस प्रकरण पर तो नहीं पड़ेगा।?

उपरोक्त बिन्दुओं पर विचार करते हुए ही इस पर निर्णय लेना उचित होगा। महोदय यदि सहमत हों तो इस पर राजस्व विभाग तथा न्याय विभाग का परामर्श प्राप्त कर अग्रिम कार्यवाही की जाय।

(emphasis supplied)

33. It is interesting to note that Sri Shri Prakash Singh, Secretary of the Department, retired on 31.07.2014. However, he was granted extension of service. Soon thereafter, he puts up a note dated 13.10.2014 recording that there was no justification for seeking opinion from the Revenue and Legal Departments as Advocate General had twice given his opinion in favour of the attachment/ lease. The explanation given by him for making such recommendation was that by creation of lease, title in land and building would not get transferred in favour of the petitioner-Trust but would remain with the State Government. Therefore, there was no question of 'conflict of interest' as in case the trust fails to achieve the objects set out, the State Government would have full right to cancel the lease before expiry of term and take possession of the property.

34. Therefore, the matter that began with the concept and vision of establishment of Research Institute, moved to the attempt of the State Government to attach the same with Jauhar University and, when it failed, shifted to settlement of lease hold rights in the land and building of the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner-trust. What happened later on, would stand reflected from further proceedings, described herein below.

35. It is apt to refer to the proceedings dated 17.10.2014 drawn by the Joint Secretary of the Minority Welfare and Waqf Department. In para 10 thereof, need to lease out property of the Research Institute to the petitioner-trust and to obtain an opinion from the Legal Department was felt. On 25.10.2014, the Secretary, Minority Welfare and Muslim Waqf, U.P. Government granted approval for placing the matter relating to leasing out of the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner-trust before the Chief Minister for approval and, thereafter, by the Cabinet. The said proposal of the Secretary, Minority Welfare and Muslim Waqf, U.P. Government was approved by the Chief Secretary on 14.11.2014. Thereafter, the record reveals that a note was prepared containing opinion of different departments for being placed before the Cabinet in relation to proposal for leasing out the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner-trust. The note which was to be put up before the Cabinet was approved by the Cabinet Minister himself, in his capacity as Minister, Parliamentary Affairs, Muslim Waqf, Urban Development, Water Supply, Urban Employment and Haj. The Finance Department, then, on 19.11.2014, proposed that in case of attachment of the Research Institute with the Trust, the posts initially created for the Research Institute, would be of no use (anupyogi) and be abolished and period of lease as well as lease rent be determined in accordance with law.

36. At page 106 of the original record, it is noted that the proposal for leasing out the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner-trust was placed before the Cabinet on 20.11.2014, vide item No.2 and it was approved by the Cabinet. The note also mentions that in accordance with the comments of the administrative wing contained at paragraph no.13, an office memorandum has been prepared and that the note be put up for approval by the concerned Secretary. On the same date, on 20.11.2014, it was approved by the Joint Secretary, Minority Welfare and Waqf Department, U.P. Government. Also, on the same date, an office memorandum dated 20.11.2014 (Annexure-3 to the counter affidavit) was issued relating to grant of lease of the Research Institute in favour of the petitioner-trust, subject to the condition, inter alia, that the lease would become effective from the date of execution of the lease deed; the petitioner-trust would use the land and building of the Research Institute for advancing the objectives of the Research Institute, failing which the Government shall have right to determine the lease; the decision relating to fixation of lease rent would be taken subsequently having regard to the prevalent rules; 21 posts created at the time of establishment of the Research Institute being of no use, would stand abolished; and that period of lease and lease rent would be determined as per Rules 1/4yht+ dh vof/k ,oa jsUV fu/kkZj.k fu;ekuqlkj dj;k tk;sxk½.

37. It is evident from the above, that within a short span of just one week, all objections were overruled and the matter was put up before the Cabinet and its consent obtained. Sri Shri Prakash

Singh, the Secretary of the Department, who was granted extension, played the prime role to see that the entire transaction materialises as per the desire of the Cabinet Minister.

38. Then, on 08.12.2014, a decision was proposed in respect of following four points:-

(i) What should be the period of lease granted to the Trust;

(ii) Considering the value of the property being Rs.20.44 crores, what would be token money required to be deposited;

(iii) The amount of annual lease rent; and

(iv) Period of renewal of lease with percentage of increment in the lease rent.

39. On the same date, on 08.12.2014, an office note was got put up by Shri Rakesh Kumar Mishra, Special Secretary to the effect that the opinion of Revenue and Finance Departments would not be required as the same had already been obtained while putting the matter before the Cabinet. It also mentions that Rs.100/- be proposed as annual lease rent and a notional premium be also proposed. The said note was put on the very next date, i.e. on 09.12.2014, before the same Special Secretary, namely, Shri Rakesh Kumar Mishra mentioning the necessity of obtaining opinion from the Revenue and Finance Departments in respect of four points enlisted above and he approved the same, overlooking his own note dated 08.12.2014. In pursuance thereof, an office note was prepared proposing a notional premium of Rs.1,000/- only for creation of lease in favour of the petitioner-trust for property worth Rs.20.44 crores and lease rent of Rs.100/- per annum apart from other conditions of lease finalized earlier. The proposal for fixation of premium of Rs.1,000/- for property value of Rs.20.44 crores, as per the said note, came into existence for the first time vide the aforesaid note. It was approved by the Deputy Secretary and the same Special Secretary Sri Rakesh Kumar Mishra on the same day and, thereafter, the matter was sent to Finance and Law Departments.

40. At page 114-115 of the record, there is a note/report prepared by Special Officer-II, Law Department, U.P. Government to the effect that pursuant to previous proceedings, an office memorandum dated 20.11.2014 was issued and that copy of registration certificate of the petitioner-trust, memorandum of association, bye-laws and project report concerning the Research Institute have been made available. The note/ report further mentions that upto then, approval from the Finance Department qua lease deed had not been obtained and name of the petitioner-trust in the office memorandum dated 20.11.2014 was not as per the registration certificate. The Special Secretary opined that before executing the lease deed, the name of the petitioner-trust be amended, Schedules II and III be attached along with lease deed, approval be obtained from the Finance Department, blanks in the deed be filled up and, lastly, the vetting fees be deposited.

41. Then comes in light very important proceedings in the matter. Sri Jai Prakash Pandey, Joint Secretary of Minority Welfare Department drew those proceedings on 26.12.2014 to the following effect:-

“कृपया गतपृष्ठ पर राजस्व विभाग की टिप्पणी का अवलोकन करें। इस पत्रावली में

मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर शोध संस्थान को मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर विश्वविद्यालय से सम्बद्ध/लीज पर दिये जाने का प्रकरण विचाराधीन है। प्रश्नगत प्रकरण मा० मंत्रि-परिषद के समक्ष दिनांक 20.11.2014 को प्रस्तुत किया गया था और अनुमोदन प्राप्त होने पर कार्यालय ज्ञाप दिनांक 20.11.2014 निर्गत किया गया।

2- मा० मंत्रि-परिषद द्वारा लिये गये निर्णय के अनुपालन में मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान को मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर ट्रस्ट के साथ सम्बद्ध/लीज पर दिये जाने हेतु पट्टा विलेख का आलेख तैयार किया गया और उस पर न्याय विभाग एवं वित्त विभाग की सहमति प्राप्त करने हेतु पत्रावली संदर्भित की गयी। न्याय विभाग द्वारा पृष्ठ-114-118 पर अपनी सहमति व्यक्त करते हुये पट्टा विधीक्षण से पूर्व आलेख्य पर कतिपय संशोधन/कार्यवाही कराने की अपेक्षा की गयी। वित्त विभाग का परामर्श पृष्ठ-119 से 123 पर प्राप्त हुआ। वित्त विभाग द्वारा अपनी सहमति व्यक्त करते हुये यह भी परामर्श दिया गया कि प्रशासनिक विभाग लीज रेण्ट/ लीज की अवधि के निर्धारण पर राजस्व विभाग का सहमति/अनापत्ति प्राप्त कर लेंगे।

3- राजस्व विभाग का परामर्श पृष्ठ-126 पर प्राप्त हुआ, जिस पर उन्होंने पृष्ठ-92 के प्रस्तर-4 में अंकित परामर्श के अनुसार अनापत्ति देते हुये पत्रावली वापस की गयी। उल्लेखनीय है कि प्रश्नगत प्रकरण में 02 मुख्य बिन्दु विचाराधीन है। प्रथम यह कि मौलाना

मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर की भूमि एवं भवन का प्रचलित नियमों के अनुसार मूल्य लगभग 20.44 करोड़ निर्धारित होता है, जिसके सापेक्ष सांकेतिक धनराशि के रूप में कितना रूपया ट्रस्ट से जमा कराया जाय और लीज रेण्ट क्या रखा जाय। इस लीज की अवधि कितने वर्ष की रखी जाय।

4- इस संबंध में पृष्ठ-110 पर सचिव महोदय के आदेश के उपरान्त विभाग द्वारा पृष्ठ-111 से 113 पर टिप्पणी अंकित की गयी है, जिसमें पट्टा विलेख में निर्धारित अन्य शर्तों के साथ सांकेतिक मूल्य रु० 1000/- (रूपये एक हजार मात्र) एवं लीज रेण्ट रु० 100/- (रूपये एक सौ मात्र) वार्षिक एवं प्रत्येक नवीनीकरण के समय 10 प्रतिशत लीज रेण्ट में वृद्धि करने का प्रस्ताव किया गया। लीज की अवधि 99 वर्ष अर्थात् 33 वर्ष एवं 33-33 वर्ष के 02 नवीनीकरण सहित रखने का प्रस्ताव भी किया गया। उक्त प्रस्ताव के उपरान्त न्याय विभाग, वित्त विभाग एवं राजस्व विभाग की सहमति/परामर्श प्राप्त किया गया, जो प्रस्तर-2 एवं प्रस्तर-3 में उल्लिखित है।

5- चूँकि सांकेतिक मूल्य की धनराशि, वार्षिक लीज रेण्ट की धनराशि एवं लीज की अवधि के संबंध में तीनों विभागों द्वारा कोई स्पष्ट अभिमत नहीं दिया गया है वरन् अनापत्ति व्यक्त कर दी गयी। अतः उपरोक्त विभाग द्वारा किये गये प्रस्ताव पर मा० मंत्री जी एवं मा० मुख्य मंत्री जी का अनुमोदन प्राप्त करके निर्णय लिया जाना है ताकि तदुसार पट्टा विलेख के रिक्त स्थानों की पूर्ति करते हुये पट्टा विलेख न्याय

विभाग से विधीक्षित कराया जा सके और अग्रेतर कार्यवाही की जा सके।

कृपया उपरोक्त स्थिति से अवगत होते हुये गत पृष्ठ के प्रस्तर-4 पर मा० मंत्री जी के माध्यम से मा० मुख्य मंत्री जी का अनुमोदन/आदेश प्राप्त करना चाहें ताकि तदुसार अग्रेतर कार्यवाही की जा सके। ”

(emphasis supplied)

42. Just below the aforesaid, following noting was made by Sri Shri Prakash Singh, Secretary of the Minority Department on 27.12.2014, seeking approval from the Urban Development Minister and Hon'ble Chief Minister in respect of paragraph no.4:-

“क”{ “वि०सचिव

सचिव उक्त टिप्पणी का अवलोकन करना चाहे तथा उक्त टिप्पणी के प्रस्तर-4 (गतपृष्ठ-127) पर मान० नगरविकास मंत्रीजी तथा मान० मुख्यमंत्री जी का अनुमोदन प्राप्त करना चाहे।”

(emphasis supplied)

43. Just below the said noting, the Cabinet Minister in his own handwriting, requested the Urban Development Minister to make arrangement for girls education. The said noting dated 01.01.2015 written and signed by the Minister reads as follows:-

“मा० नगर विकास मंत्री जी

कृ. उच्च वर्ग की शिक्षा के लिये जिसके लिये रामपुर मे बहुत कुछ किया गया है। बच्चियों की व्यवस्था के बाद नौनिहालों के

लिये किये जाने वाले उदगार का धन्यवाद करते हुए निर्णय लेना चाहें।”

(emphasis supplied)

44. Then, on 27.01.2015, the Cabinet Minister, in his own handwriting made an endorsement approving the proposal at “क”, i.e. the note of the Secretary of his own Ministry for seeking approval of the Urban Development Minister and Chief Minister in respect of proposal No.4 at page 127 (4प्रस्तर-4 पृष्ठ-127)24. The proposal no.4 at page 127 was regarding fixation of notional premium of Rs.1,000/- and annual rent of Rs.100/- and its enhancement by 10% at the time of renewal after 33 years. The reason given by the Minister for the aforesaid approval was that the decision in relation thereto was already approved by the Cabinet. The note is as under:-

“मा० मंत्री,

अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण

अवगत तथा (क) अनुमोदित जैसा कि मा०- मंत्री परिषद द्वारा स्वीकृत किया गया है।

ह० मो० आजम खां

27.01.2015”

45. It may be noted here that the only approval given by the Cabinet was to item No.2 regarding creation of lease in favour of the petitioner-trust and to work out the modalities in respect of fixation of premium of the lease and lease rent as per extant Rules. It is noteworthy that the Cabinet Minister, deliberately or by oversight, assuming the said approval to be the approval granted by the Cabinet to the premium amount and lease rent, himself proceeded to accord approval to the proposal made in this behalf. While doing so, he conveniently overlooked the consistent notings on the file for getting the premium value and lease rent fixed after seeking opinion of the Revenue and Finance Departments keeping in mind the relevant rules.

46. From the aforesaid proceedings, it is clear that there was no clear approval, either from the Law Department or from the Finance Department or Revenue Department with respect to fixation of lease rent or other financial aspects except the alleged approval granted by the Cabinet Minister himself on 27.01.2015. It is, therefore, established that the Minister himself was the proposer as well as approver of the decision relating to duration of lease as well as lease rent amount.

47. Then, just after two days, on 29.01.2015, the Special Officer-II, Law Department of U.P. Government, records on the file that the draft lease deed has already been vetted and, therefore, proceedings in accordance with the previous decision be undertaken. On 04.02.2015, a lease deed was executed between the State and the petitioner-Trust. We may record here that from the first page of the lease deed dated 04.02.2015 itself, it is clear that the same was executed on the request of the lessee, i.e. the petitioner-Trust. Apparently, Mohd. Azam Khan, being lifetime Chairman of the said Trust, was proposer behind the creation of lease and he himself was the beneficiary of the lease granted. The request of the lessee stands clearly reflected from the words "और चूँकि पट्टादाता ने पट्टेदार के अनुरोध पर जनपद रामपुर के ग्राम ठोठर की खतौनी नान जेड०ए० के खाता संख्या-46 की गाटा

संख्या..... कुल 8 किता रकबा 1.314 हे० जो मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, (अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण एवं वक्फ विभाग) के नाम श्रेणी 12(4) अन्य कारण अकृषिक भूमि के अन्तर्गत दर्ज अभिलेख है, तथा जिसमें 4252.07 वर्ग मी० निर्मित क्षेत्रफल एवं 8887.93 वर्ग मी० अनिर्मित (ओपेन) क्षेत्र है जिसका विवरण इस पट्टा - विलेख की अनुसूची में दिया गया है, को पट्टे पर पट्टेदार को देने पर सहमति व्यक्त किया है; और चूँकि उक्त भूमि पर अल्पसंख्यक कल्याण एवं वक्फ विभाग, उत्तर प्रदेश के अधीन मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान, रामपुर का भवन स्थित है; और चूँकि इस निमित्त उत्तर प्रदेश सरकार (जिसे एतदपश्चात् "राज्य सरकार कहा गया है") कार्यालय ज्ञाप संख्या -- 1715/52-2-2014-2(102)/ 2013, दिनांक 20 नवम्बर, 2014 द्वारा पट्टेदार के नामे अभिव्यक्त अधिकारी, निर्बन्धनो एवं विभिन्न प्रसंविदाओं तथा अनुबंधो के अधीन मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर प्रशिक्षण एवं शोध संस्थान की उक्त भूमि मय भवन मौलाना मोहम्मद अली जौहर ट्रस्ट को पट्टे पर दिये जाने के लिए सहमत हुए है।

(emphasis supplied)

48. On 03.03.2015, a Government Order was issued amending Clause 16 of the aims and objectives of the Research Institute, substituting higher education with primary and secondary education. This was got done to enable opening of one more branch of a CBSE recognised institution, viz Rampur Public School, in the building of Research Institute. Rampur Public School was run by none other but the Petitioner-Trust itself. It already had several branches in District Rampur.

49. Apart from the aforesaid proceedings, if we examine the legal requirements qua creation/ grant of lease and various other aspects relating thereto, we find that the procedure prescribed under Clauses 361, 366 and 368 of Chapter XIX of Revenue Manual was not followed. Relevant portions of the said clauses are reproduced herein below:-

“361. (1) Government Lands may be disposed of-

(a) by sale at full market value or exchange with private land of equal value;

(b) by grant of favourable terms to a public Body or Association or to an individual for a public purpose subject to the condition that no concession shall be allowed in ground rent;

(c) by gift or grant to a public body or association or to an individual for a public purpose;

(d) by gift or grant to a private individual in remuneration for public services;

(e) by lease to individuals.

(2) The transfer contemplated in clauses (a) to (d) of sub-rule (1) above shall be made by the State Government in the Revenue Department while transfer mentioned in clause (e) shall be made by the officers authorised by the Government.

(3) No Government land of any kind shall be disposed of by lease or grant or in any other manner without the reservation of the right of Government to mines and minerals below the surface, and right of access to and reasonable facilities for working the same on the part of the Government or its assignees.

366. Normally the Government lands shall be managed by grant of lease under the Government Grants Act, 1895 for a specific purpose, such as for agricultural, residential, commercial, industrial or charitable purposes, with or without premium, subject to special instructions issued by the State Government in respect of some areas for special reasons.

368. The following rules shall govern the grant of building leases-

(i) The land categorised as culturable waste, abadi site or unculturable waste belonging to the Government may be leased out for building for housing, commerce, industry or charitable purposes.

(ii) In allotting land for building a house in rural areas, the following order of preference may be observed-

(a) an agricultural labourer or village artisan residing in the village and belonging to scheduled caste or scheduled tribe;

(b) Any other agricultural labourer or village artisan residing in the village.

(c) A bhumidhar or Asami residing in the village and holding land less than 1-26 hectares (3.125 acres).

Note- Only persons having no house shall be eligible for allotment of house site on Government land.

(iii) In allotting land for building a house in an urban area, the following order of preference may be observed:

(a) a person with annual income below Rs. 5000/-

b) a person belonging to low income group with annual income above Rs. 5000/- but still belonging to low income group."

(c) a person belonging to middle income group.

Note- No person belonging to higher income group shall be entitled to allotment of Government land for residential purposes. Note- Only person having no house shall be eligible for allotment of house site on Government land.

(iv) The State Government may prepare a housing scheme on any piece of land for any group of persons in which case the order of preference prescribed in sub para (ii) and (iii) need not be observed.

(v) While allotting land for industrial purpose, preference will be given to cottage industry.

(vi) (1) The allotment of land for building purposes shall be carried out under the Collector's orders.

(2) Such lease shall, however, be sanctioned by-

(a) The Collector, if the value does not exceed Rs. 25,000.

(b) The Commissioner, if the value exceeds Rs. 25,000/- but does not exceed Rs. 50,000/-

(c) the Board of Revenue, if the value exceeds Rs. 50,000 but does not exceed Rs. 1,00,000 and

(d) The State Government in other cases.

(3) The lease deed shall be executed by the Secretary to the Government in the Revenue Department, the Board of Revenue, the Commissioner and the Collector Whosoever sanctions the lease.

The form of building lease should be prescribed by the Board of Revenue.

(vii) Whenever the Collector proceeds to allot house sites, he shall cause it to be announced by beat of drum in the village or in the vicinity in the town, the exact location of the sites to be allotted, the date and the venue of the allotment. The Collector will also depute an officer, not below the rank of a Land Records Inspector, for purposes of receiving applications for allotment of house sites.

The officer so deputed will scrutinise all claims and submit his report to the Collector through the S. D. O. and the Tahsildar. Where more than one person belonging to the same order of preference express their desire to be allotted a particular site, the Naib Tahsildar or the Tahsildar shall draw lots to determine the person to whom the site should be allotted. The Collector after considering the report will pass final order submit the proposal to the Commissioner, Board of Revenue, or the State Government depending on the value of the land being leased out.

(viii) For allotment of land for a building other than a house the above procedure will be followed as may be practicable with suitable modifications as the Collector may deem fit.

(ix) Lease Rent. The annual lease rent shall be leviable as under: Rural Area- Rent calculated at rates applicable for calculation of land revenue for similar land.

(emphasis supplied)

Urban Area

(1) For residential purposes- Rent shall be calculated at rates chargeable by Development Authorities of State.

(2) For other purposes- the annual rent shall be 2, 1/2 times of the rent chargeable for residential purposes.

Note- The lease rent on building leases in urban areas shall normally be realised for 90 years in lump sum at the time of execution of lease deed. The lessees of weaker sections to whom site measuring upto 40 sq metres is allotted shall have facility of making payment of rent annually at their option.

(x) Premium- No premium shall be charged for house sites measuring upto 80 sq metres in rural areas allotted to persons belonging to category (a) or (b) of sub-para (ii) above and measuring upto 40 sq metres in urban areas allotted to persons belonging to category (a) of sub-para (iii) above. Premium shall be chargeable from all other persons and purposes at the rates-

(a) Rural Areas-40 times the annual rent payable,

(b) Urban Areas-Market Value calculated at rates fixed by Collector under Rule 340-A of Stamp Rules for purposes of Stamp duty.

(xi) All cases for leases which involve a concession in favour of the lessee, e.g. in which it is proposed to fix the rent at a lower rate than prescribed in subparagraph (ix) or in which it is proposed to charge premium lower than the market value, shall be submitted for the order of the State Government.

(xii)

(xiii) The conditions of the lease, unless provided otherwise in a particular case or class of cases by the State Government, shall be as under-

(a) The lease initially will be for a period of 30 years and a lessee shall have an option to get it renewed twice for a further period of 30 years each. The Government shall have a right to enhance the annual rent which shall not be less than 1, 1/2 times of the previous rent at time of each renewal,

(b)

(c)

(d)

(e) if the land is no more required for the purpose for which it was leased, the same will be surrendered to the Government without any claim for compensation.

(f)

(xiv) For matters relating to lease of land for building purposes in urban areas not covered under these Rule, the rules of the Nazul Manual shall be consulted.

(emphasis supplied)

50. The aforesaid provisions of U.P. Revenue Manual describe a step by step procedure to be followed in case of grant of government land also. We find that no such procedure nor any other transparent procedure was followed while creating lease in favour of petitioner-Trust. In fact, it was the Cabinet Minister who was completely instrumental in managing the affairs in his own way. All concerns and apprehensions expressed from time to time, by different officials, were conveniently overruled or got overruled by the Secretaries of his own Ministry. He succeeded in getting the period of lease as well as lease rent fixed in such a manner that property worth crores came to be settled in favour of his private trust for nothing.

51. We now proceed to examine whether in the facts and circumstances noted above, the grant of lease in favour of petitioner-Trust would be rendered vulnerable to attack on ground of "conflict of interest". It would be advantageous to first have an overview of the concept as prevalent globally and in our country.

'Conflict of Interest' in Global Paralance

52. The United States is the country with oldest and most developed conflict of interest Regulations. The Ethics laws in different States require elected officials including legislators to disclose financial information as a means of discouraging conflicts between official duties and private interests. For example, in State of Alabama, a 'conflict of interest' involves any action, inaction, or decision by a public official or public employee in the discharge of his or her duties which would materially affect his or her financial interest or those of his or her family members or any business with which the person is associated in a manner different from the manner it affects the other members of the class to which he or she belongs.

53. A 'conflict of interest' shall exist when a member of a legislative body, public official, or public employee has a substantial financial interest by reason of ownership of, control of, or the exercise of power over any interest greater than five percent of the value of any corporation, company, association, or firm, partnership, proprietorship, or any other business entity of any kind or character which is uniquely affected by proposed or pending legislation; or who is an officer or director for any such corporation, company, association, or firm, partnership, proprietorship or any other business entity of any kind or character which is uniquely affected by proposed or pending legislation. Ala Code §36-25-5.

54. In State of Alaska, a 'conflict of interest' exists if the legislator or a member of the legislator's immediate family has a financial interest in a business, investment, real property, lease, or other enterprise if the interest is substantial and the effect on that interest of the action to be voted on is greater than the effect on the general public of the state. Alaska Stat. Ann. § 24.60.030.

55. In State of Arkansas, a 'conflict of interest' may exist if a legislator is required to take an action in the discharge of his or her official duties that may affect his or her financial interest or cause financial benefit or detriment to him or her, or a business in which he or she is an officer, director, stockholder owning more than 10% of the stock of the company, owner, trustee, partner, or employee, which is distinguishable from the effects of the action on the public generally"

56. In State of California "no public official at any level of State or local government shall make, participate in making or in any way attempt to use his official position to influence a governmental decision in which he knows or has reason to know he has a financial interest." Cal. Gov't Code § 87100. Subsequent statutory sections provide additional details and prohibitions regarding conflicts of interest.

57. In State of District of Columbia, a 'conflict of interest' exists if an official uses "his or her official position or title, or personally and substantially participate, through decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, the rendering of advice, investigation, or otherwise, in a judicial or other proceeding, application, request for a ruling or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, charge, accusation, arrest, or other particular matter, or attempt to influence the outcome of a particular matter in a manner that the employee knows is likely to affect on the employees' financial interest or the financial interest of a person closely affiliated with the employee. D.C. Code Ann. § 1-1162.23

58. In State of Florida, a 'conflict of interest' exists if there is "any matter that the officer knows would inure to his or her special private gain or loss." "Special private gain or loss' means an economic benefit or harm that would inure to the officer, his or her relative, business associate, or principal, unless the measure affects a class that includes the officer, his or her relative, business associate, or principal. Fla. Stat. Ann. § 112.3143. In State of Georgia, "conflict of interest" means an individual has multiple interests and uses his or her official position to exploit, in some way, his or her position for his or her own direct, unique, pecuniary, and personal benefit." Ga. Code Ann § 45-10-90. In State of Maryland, "an interest of a member of the General Assembly conflicts with the public interest if the legislator's interest tends to impair the legislator's independence of judgment." Md. Gen. Provis. § 5-512.

59. Anne Peters and Lukas Handschin in their book 'Conflict of Interest in Global, Public and Corporate Governance' by Cambridge University Press, while defining 'Conflict of Interest' referred to old adage that one cannot serve two masters. Michael Davis in his book 'Conflict of Interest' defines it as 'a situation in which some intent of a person has a tendency to interfere with the proper exercise of his judgment in another's behalf'.

'Conflict of Interest' in Indian Paralance

60. In India, conflict of interest is, to some extent, taken care of under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. Section 2(c) of the Act defines the term "public servant" to include any person who holds an office by virtue of which he is authorized or required to perform any public duty. Section 2(d) defines the term "undue advantage" as any gratification, other than legal remuneration, which a person is not legally entitled to.

61. The Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, provides for stringent penalties for public servants who indulge in corrupt practices, including conflicts of interest. The Act prohibits public servants from obtaining any undue advantage for themselves or for anyone else by corrupt means. Any person found guilty of committing an offense under the Act is liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than six months and up to seven years, along with a fine.

62. There have been many instances of politicians holding multiple positions, which give rise to a conflict of interest. In such cases, the politicians may use their position or power for personal gain or to benefit their family members. To address this issue, the Election Commission of India has issued guidelines for political parties and candidates. The guidelines require the candidates to disclose their assets and liabilities, along with those of their spouses and dependents, before filing their nomination papers. Furthermore, the guidelines require that candidates must declare any criminal cases pending against them and their family members. The guidelines also prohibit candidates from holding multiple positions, which may give rise to a conflict of interest.

63. Unfortunately, in our country, we do not have any legal framework for the public representatives (legislator and ministerial) where they may have to mandatorily disclose their interest in the subject matter they deal with. This, at times, has led to charges of corruption, nepotism and favoritism. The courts of law have come across several cases of conflict of interest in course of decision making by the politicians and where the decision/action has been struck down on the said ground. We may refer to some of the judgments of the Supreme Court to throw light on the doctrine.

64. The Supreme Court, in the case of A.K. Kraipak Vs. Union of India²⁵, while dealing with a case of selection process and presence of the Chief Conservator of Forests in the selection proceedings resulting in conflict of interest, observed in paragraph no.15 of the report as under:-

“it is unfortunate that Naqishbund was appointed as one of the members of the selection board. It is true that ordinarily the Chief Conservator of Forests in a State should be considered as the most appropriate person to be in the selection board. He must be expected to know his officers thoroughly, their weaknesses as well as their strength. His opinion as regards their suitability for selection to the All-India Service is entitled to great weight. But then, under the circumstances, it was improper to have included Naqishbund as a member of the selection board. He was one of the persons to be considered for selection. It is against all canons of justice to make a man judge in his own cause. It is true that he did not participate in the deliberations of the committee when his name was considered. But then the very fact that he was a member of the selection board must have had its own impact on the decision of the selection board. Further admittedly he participated in the deliberations of the selection board when the claims of his rivals particularly that of Basu was considered. He was also party to the preparation of the list of selected candidates in order of preference. At every stage of his participation in the deliberations of the selection board there was a conflict between his interest and duty. Under those circumstances it is difficult to believe that he could have been impartial. The real question is not whether he was biased. It is difficult to prove the state of mind of a person. Therefore what we have to see is whether there is reasonable ground for believing that he was likely to have been biased. We agree with the learned Attorney General that a mere suspicion of bias is not sufficient. There must be a reasonable likelihood of bias. In deciding the question of bias we have to take into consideration human probabilities and ordinary course of human conduct. It was in the interest of Naqishbund to keep out his rivals in order to secure his position from further challenge. Naturally he was also interested in safeguarding his position while preparing the list of selected candidates”.

65. The judgment in the case of A.K. Kraipak (supra) has been followed by the Supreme Court in the case of Board of Control for Cricket in India Vs. Cricket Association of Bihar²⁶.

66. The Supreme Court, almost two decades back, in the case of R. Sai Bharathi Vs. J. Jayalalitha and others²⁷, dealt with the issue as to whether the respondent J. Jayalalitha, being a public servant, had committed offence under Section 169 IPC. The Supreme Court elaborately laid down the first principles to be observed by public servants in public life while dealing with matter where there is likelihood of conflict of interest between the office one holds and the act to be done. In paragraph no.59 of the report, it was observed as follows:-

“59. Report leading to IPC makes it clear that criminal law merely prescribes the minimum standards of behaviour, while in public life, those who hold high offices should not take shelter under the umbrella of criminal law but stand by high probity. Further, criminal law is meant to deal with criminals ordinarily, while Code of Conduct is observed as gentlemen's agreement. Persons in public life, who are gentlemen, follow such Code instead of taking escape routes by resorting to technical pleas as arise in criminal cases. Persons in public life are expected to maintain very high standards of probity and, particularly, when there is likely to be even least bit of conflict of interest between the office one holds and the acts to be done by such person, ought to desist himself from indulging in the same. Such standards of behaviour were scrupulously observed in the earlier days after independence, but those values how now dwindled and instances of persons holding high elective offices indulging in self- aggrandisement by utilising government property or in distribution of the largesse of the Government to their own favourites or for certain quid pro quo are on the increase. We have to strongly condemn such actions. Good ethical behaviour on the part of those who are in power is the hallmark of a good administration and people in public life must perform their duties in a spirit of public service rather than by assuming power to indulge in callous cupidity regardless of self imposed discipline. Irrespective of the fact whether we reach the conclusion that A-1 is guilty of the offences with which she is charged or not, she must atone for the same by answering her conscience in the light of what we have stated not only by returning the property to TANSI unconditionally but also ponder over whether she had done the right thing in breaching the spirit of the Code of Conduct and giving rise to suspicion that rules and procedures were bent to acquire the public property for personal benefit, though trite to say that suspicion, however strong, cannot take place of legal proof in a criminal case and take steps to expiate herself."

(emphasis supplied)

67. In the case of Orissa Olympic Association through General Secretary Vs. State of Orissa and another²⁸, the Supreme Court dealt with a case of conflict of interest where the son and son-in-law of the General Secretary of the Orissa Olympic Association were partners in M/s Incon Associates and, while referring to its previous judgment in the case of Board of Control for Cricket in India (supra), it was held in paragraph no.59, as follows:-

"59. Another aspect which cannot be ignored relates to conflict of interest. Vide order dated 9.3.2016, this Court had noted that the son and son-in-law of Mr. Asirbad Behera, General Secretary of the Orissa Olympic Association, were partners. In this regard, we may refer to a two-Judge Bench decision in BCCI v. Cricket Assn. of Bihar (2015) 3 SCC 251 wherein the Court, taking note of the finding of the probe committee, has held that serious issues of conflict of interest adversely affect the game of cricket which is so popular in this county. It is bound to shake the confidence of the public in general. The said finding was recorded in the context of the affairs of BCCI. The concept of conflict of interest is well established. A person who is accountable to the public and deals with public affairs is not expected, as required under the law, to have any personal interest. He is not to act in a manner where it is perceived that he is directly or indirectly the beneficiary; or for that matter, extends the benefit to a person of immediate proximity."

(emphasis supplied)

68. We may also gainfully refer to the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Common Cause (supra) in which the Apex Court found the conduct of the petitioner in making allotments of petrol outlets as atrocious, specially those made in favour of Members, Oil Selection Board or their sons, etc., and found that it reflected a wanton exercise of power by the petitioner. Condemning the act of the Minister concerned, the Apex Court observed that the concerned petitioner does not, on becoming the Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas, assume the role of a "trustee" in the real sense nor does a "trust" come into existence in respect of the government properties.

69. The Supreme Court, in the case of Institute of Law, Chandigarh (supra), by referring to its previous judgments, observed that for achieving the goals of justice and equality set out in the Preamble, the State and its agencies/instrumentalities have to function through political entities and officers/officials at different levels. The laws enacted by Parliament and the State Legislatures bestow upon them powers for effective implementation of the laws enacted for creation of an egalitarian society. The exercise of power by political entities and officers/officials for providing different kinds of services and benefits to the people always has an element of discretion, which is required to be used in larger public interest and for public good and in our constitutional structure, no functionary of the State or public authority has an absolute or unfettered discretion. The very idea of unfettered discretion is totally incompatible with the doctrine of equality enshrined in the Constitution and is an antithesis to the concept of the rule of law.

70. Learned Advocate General in support of his plea pertaining to 'conflict of interest' also took aid of decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Secretary, Jaipur Development Authority (supra). It was argued that the Supreme Court, in the said case, has held as under:-

“the Minister holds public office though he gets constitutional status and performs functions under the Constitution, law or executive policy. The acts done and duties performed by him are public acts and duties as the holder of public office. Therefore, he owes certain accountability for the acts done or duties performed. In a democratic society governed by rule of law, power is conferred on the holder of the public office or the authority concerned by the Constitution by virtue of appointment. The holder of the office, therefore, gets opportunity to abuse or misuse the office. The politician who holds public office must perform public duties with the sense of purpose, and a sense of direction, under rules or sense of priorities. The purpose must be genuine in a free democratic society governed by the rule of law to further socio-economic democracy. All actions of the Government are performed through/by individual persons in collective or joint or individual capacity. Therefore, they should morally be responsible for their actions. The Government acts through its bureaucrats, who shape its social, economic and administrative policies to further the social stability and progress socially, economically and politically. Actions of the Government, should be accounted for social morality. Therefore, the actions of the individuals would reflect on the actions of the Government. The actions are intended to further the goals set down in the Constitution, the laws or administrative policy. The action would, therefore, bear necessary integral connection between the 'purpose' and the end object of public welfare and not personal gain”.

(emphasis supplied)

71. It was also held in Secretary, Jaipur Development Authority (supra) as under:-

“the Minister is responsible not only for his actions but also for the job of the bureaucrats who work or have worked under him. He owes the responsibility to the electors for all his actions taken in the name of the Governor in relation to the Department of which he is the head. If the Minister, in fact, is responsible for all the detailed workings of his Department, then clearly ministerial responsibility must cover a wider spectrum than mere moral responsibility. The so-called public policy cannot be a camouflage for abuse of the power and trust entrusted with a public authority or public servant for the performance of public duties. Misuse implies doing of something improper. The essence of impropriety is replacement of a public motive for a private one. When satisfaction sought in the performance of duties is for mutual personal gain, the misuse is usually termed as corruption. The holder of a public office is said to have misused his position when, in pursuit of a private satisfaction, as distinguished from public interest, he has done something which he ought not to have done. The most elementary qualification demanded of a Minister is honesty and incorruptibility. He should not only possess these qualifications but should also appear to possess the same.”

(emphasis supplied)

72. The Supreme Court, in paragraph 114 of State (NCT of Delhi)

(supra), has reiterated the ratio in the case of Secretary, Jaipur Development Authority (supra).

73. On the other hand, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the aforesaid judgments have no application to the facts of the present case. He submits that in most of the cases, action of an individual minister was under scrutiny, whereas, in the present case, the decision which has been nullified by the impugned action, was a conscious decision of council of ministers. The learned Senior Counsel, while responding to the arguments of the State and by referring to the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Kaushal Kishore (supra), and elaborating the arguments on ‘conflict of interest’ or the vicarious liability of the Government in relation to an act done by its Minister, vehemently argued that the statement made by a minister, traceable to any affairs of the State or for protecting the Government, cannot always be attributed vicariously to the Government itself in view of the principles of collective responsibility. The Government is responsible for the action of council of ministers in view of the concept of collective responsibility and not to any action of an individual minister. There was no conflict of interest in the present case even though the Cabinet Minister was involved in the decision making process. In any case, even if such a plea is examined, the record reflects “synergy of interest” and not “conflict of interest”, inasmuch as the purpose behind establishment of either Research Institute or Rampur Public School would remain a public purpose for advancement of education for the persons belonging to the minority community.

74. We immediately come to the judgment of Kaushal Kishore (supra), the sheet anchor of the case of the petitioner. It is a Constitution Bench judgment by five Judges' Bench. There were five questions which were answered by the Constitution Bench which were as follows: -

... “(1) Are the grounds specified in Article 19(2) in relation to which reasonable restrictions on the right to free speech can be imposed by law, exhaustive, or can restrictions on the right to free speech be imposed on grounds not found in Article 19(2) by invoking other fundamental rights?

2) Can a fundamental right under Article 19 or 21 of the Constitution of India be claimed other than against the "State" or its instrumentalities?

3) Whether the State is under a duty to affirmatively protect the rights of a citizen under Article 21 of the Constitution of India even against a threat to the liberty of a citizen by the acts or omissions of another citizen or private agency?

4) Can a statement made by a Minister, traceable to any affairs of State or for protecting the Government, be attributed vicariously to the Government itself, especially in view of the principle of Collective Responsibility?

5) Whether a statement by a Minister, inconsistent with the rights of a citizen under Part III of the Constitution, constitutes a violation of such constitutional rights and is actionable as 'constitutional tort'? ...”

75. The aforesaid questions arose in the backdrop of the then Minister for Urban Development, Government of U.P. having made certain statement in a press conference about an incident which happened with the petitioner (before the Supreme Court) while he was travelling from Noida to Shahjahanpur on National Highway No. 91 to attend the death ceremony of a relative. His case was that a gang intercepted him on the highway and snatched cash and jewellery in his possession and his family members and they also gang raped his wife and minor daughter. He had lodged a First Information Report about the said incident and various newspapers and television channels also reported the ghastly incident. However, the Minister, in his press conference, termed the incident as a political conspiracy. The petitioner apprehended that there would not be fair investigation. He also felt offended by the irresponsible statement made by the Minister and therefore, filed writ petition before the Supreme Court under Article 32 for monitoring the investigation in the F.I.R. lodged by him and for transferring the trial of the case to some other State and also for registering a complaint against the Minister for making statements outraging the modesty of the victims. Another writ petition filed in public interest was from State of Kerala in the backdrop of a statement made by Minister for Electricity in the State which was considered to be highly derogatory to the women folk. Consequently, a direction was sought to the Chief Minister of the State to form a Code of Conduct for the Ministers and to take suitable action against the said Minister for his utterances.

76. Question no. 4 on which reliance was placed by Sri Saxena, was answered by the Supreme Court as follows:

“151. Therefore, our answer to Question 4 would be that a statement made by a Minister even if traceable to any affairs of the State or for protecting the Government, cannot be attributed vicariously to the Government by invoking the principle of collective responsibility.”

77. The argument for making the Government vicariously liable for statement of Minister was that his action was traceable to the discharge of public duty and is subject to scrutiny of law. A Minister, being a functionary of the State, represents the State while acting in his official capacity. Therefore, any violation of fundamental rights of the citizen by the Minister in his official capacity would be attributable to the State. In respect of Question no. 5, the contention was that official act of a Minister which violates the fundamental rights of the citizens, would make the State liable under Constitutional torts. The Principle of Sovereign Immunity of the State for the tortious acts of its servants would not be applicable in case of violation of fundamental rights.

78. However, these contentions were not accepted and the Constitutional Bench, in para 140 and 149 of the Law Report on which reliance has been placed by learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner as well, held as follows: -

“140. What follows from the above discussion is, (i) that the concept of collective responsibility is essentially a political concept; (ii) that the collective responsibility is that of the Council of Ministers; and (iii) that such collective responsibility is to the House of the People/Legislative Assembly of the State. Generally, such responsibility correlates to (i) the decision taken; and (ii) the acts of omission and commission done. It is not possible to extend this concept of collective responsibility to any and every statement orally made by a Minister outside the House of the People/Legislative Assembly.

149. As all the literature on the issue shows, collective responsibility is that of the Council of Ministers. Each individual Minister is responsible for the decisions taken collectively by the Council of Ministers. In other words, the flow of stream in collective responsibility is from the Council of Ministers to the individual Ministers. The flow is not on the reverse, namely, from the individual Ministers to the Council of Ministers. “

79. The Constitution Bench has defined the concept of “collective responsibility” and how it percolates downstream from Council of Ministers to the individual Ministers and not from individual Ministers to the Council of Ministers. It is for the said reason that it was also held that a statement made by a Minister inconsistent with the rights of a citizen under Part III of the Constitution, may not constitute a violation of the constitutional rights qua the Government. It would not become an actionable claim as Constitutional tort against the Government. However, the exception is in cases where as a consequence of such a statement, any act of omission or commission is done by the officers resulting in harm or loss to a person/citizen.

80. The concept of ‘collective responsibility of Council of Ministers’ is an entirely different concept and has no semblance with the doctrine of ‘conflict of interest’. While the former binds individual Minister to acts and omissions of the Council of Ministers, the latter prevents persons holding public office from indulging in self-aggrandisement and enrichment by utilizing Government property or in distribution of largesse of the Government to their own benefit, or their favourites. The former is a constitutional concept defining the extent of liabilities of individual Ministers qua the decision of the Council of Ministers, while the latter is a gentleman's agreement to maintain high standards of probity in public life.

81. In order to judge whether an action falls foul of Article 14 of the Constitution on account of personal bias or conflict of interest, "the test is not whether bias was actually at work when the decision was taken. It is the reasonable likelihood of bias that determines whether the action can be faulted" (vide Board of Control for Cricket in India vs. Cricket Association of Bihar). In the said case, the main issue was whether any conflict of interest had arisen on account of Mr. Srinivasan, one of the Administrators of BCCI participating in the meeting of BCCI, in which decision was taken to award a hefty sum of compensation to India Cements Ltd., a company promoted by Mr. Srinivasan. The Supreme Court observed that "the fact that some others also participated in the decision making process as members of IPL Governing Council does not cure the legal flaw arising out of the benefactor also being the beneficiary of the decision."

82. The Supreme Court drew analogy from the judgment in Kraipak's case wherein Naqishbund participated in the selection proceedings even when he was himself a candidate in the selection. He had in fact recused himself from the proceedings when his own case was taken up for consideration. However, this did not impress the Supreme Court and it took the view that any such recusal did not make any material difference, as bias in such a situation operates in a subtle manner.

83. It is clear from the precedents noted above that for adjudging whether an action or a decision is bad in law on account of a conflict of interest, the test is only the reasonable likelihood of bias and not whether actual bias had taken place or not. It is grounded on the principle that a person holding high public office is expected to maintain very high standards of probity and "when there is likely to be even least bit of conflict of interest between the office one holds and the acts to be done by such person, (he) ought to desist himself from indulging in the same" (vide R. Sai Bharathi vs. J. Jayalalitha).

84. The Supreme Court, in the case of A.C. Muthiah Vs. Board of Control for Cricket in India and others²⁹, accepted the contention raised on behalf of the appellant that conflict of interest does not require proof of any actual pecuniary gain or pecuniary loss as the principle of 'conflict of interest' is a much wider, equitable, legal and moral principle which seeks to prevent even the coming into existence of a future and/or potential situation which would inhibit benefit or promise through any commercial interest in which the principal actors are involved. Supreme Court found substance in the contention that the entire purpose of 'conflict of interest' rule is to prevent and not merely to cure situations where the fair and valid discharge of one's duty can be affected by commercial interests which do not allow the fair and fearless discharge of such duties.

85. In the case at hand, the Cabinet Minister was well aware that his family run Trust and School would be the main beneficiaries of the grant. Instead of disassociating himself with the decision making process, he not only played active role in ensuring that the Research Institute is given on lease to his own Trust, but also on terms decided by him. Indisputably, he was holding the portfolio of Minister of Urban Development, and Parliamentary Affairs (w.e.f. 28.08.2003 till 13.05.2007) and Minister for Minority Welfare and Waqf, Government of Uttar Pradesh (w.e.f. 15.03.2012 till 19.03.2017). It was during this period that all crucial decisions were taken for creation of lease in favour of his family trust. He himself approved the Cabinet note and played active role in getting it approved. Also, he himself determined & fixed the premium of Rs.1000/- of valuable property valued Rs.20.44 crores and a paltry sum of Rs.100/- as annual lease rent. Being Minister in the same department, he was having full control over the file and its movement. He regretfully used his influence at every stage, camouflaging it behind public interest. It was a brazen misuse of power to perpetuate personal gains. The Minister knew that Rampur Public School was an affiliate of C.B.S.E. where the syllabus designed by the said Board would be taught and not Urdu or Arabic language, in clear departure of the main objective with which the Research Institute was established. The abolition of all posts of the Research Institute at the time of creation of lease on the pretext that same were not required, only proves that the intention was never to advance public interest, i.e. research and higher learning in Urdu and Arabic language but to promote his family run school. He succeeded in opening one more branch of CBSE recognized school apart from those already in existence. All the branches of Rampur Public School were controlled by the managing committee constituted by his family and he thereby came in control of the valuable property of the Government Research Institute.

86. It is noteworthy that when intervention application filed by Rampur Public School as well as its Principal was allowed by this Court on 13.12.2023 in the present proceedings, this Court expressed its concern about the ongoing studies of 733 students in Rampur Public School who would be affected by impugned action and made a query to the State counsel as to how the State had secured the interest of the said students. An affidavit was directed to be filed from the State side in this regard. In pursuance thereof, an affidavit was filed on 18.12.2023 on behalf of the respondents no.1, 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7, inter alia, stating that the students who were studying in Rampur Public School, New Tehsil, Rampur, had been adjusted in/ transferred to other branches of the said school and also to other schools for the academic session 2023-24. It, therefore, follows that other branches of Rampur Public School were already functional in the same city and, hence, it is clear that the aim of the Minister was never to accomplish the objectives of the trust but to somehow or the other come in control of valuable State Land in guise of espousing a public cause.

87. It is clear that policy aspects, procedural aspects and financial aspects were deliberately given a complete go-by. The very grant of lease was an outcome of abuse and misuse of power by the Cabinet Minister. It is well established that what was not legally and directly possible and permissible, could also not be done indirectly, but the Hon'ble Minister acting without scruples and under influence of the public office he held, succeeded in circumventing the law. The submission advanced on behalf of the petitioner as regards 'collective or individual responsibility' and 'synergy of interest' is completely specious and untenable. The petitioner cannot avoid the consequences of the camouflaged actions of its Managing Trustee behind the veil of 'collective responsibility'. The bias was obvious and manifest and 'conflict of interest', deep rooted and pervasive. The entire exercise, since inception to end, fails to pass muster of Article 14 of the Constitution.

88. As regards the provisions contained under U.P. Revenue Manual, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner, by referring to Clause 360, submits that land acquired for public purposes under any law relating to acquisition of land is to be managed by the acquiring department and utilized for the purpose for which the land has been acquired, whereas the land mentioned in Item No.6 of Clause 359 shall be managed in accordance with the Rules framed under special laws. He submits that the land belonging to the State Government under the management of any department, other than revenue department, will be managed by that department in accordance with the Rules and instructions of that department and that all other lands belonging to the State Government under the management of the revenue department are to be managed as per the Rules prescribed in Chapter XIX. He, by referring to Clause 361, submits that Government land may be disposed of by gift or grant to a public body or association or an individual for a public purpose and even lease can be created in favour of individuals. According to Sri Saxena, when the law contained in Chapter XIX permits such kind of grant, no illegality can be pointed out in respect of creation of lease in favour of the Trust. Further argument of Sri Saxena is that since the grant was made under the provisions of Government Grants Act, 1895, it would be saved by Section 3 of the said Act which clearly provides that all provisions, restrictions, conditions and limitations contained in any grant shall be valid and shall take effect according to the tenor, notwithstanding any decree or direction of a court of law or any rule of law, statute or enactment of the Legislature to the contrary. Sri Amit Saxena, learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner also placed reliance on the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Ram & Shyam Co. (supra), in contending that where purpose of allotment is not revenue maximization but accomplishment of a constitutionally recognized public purpose, allocation by way of tender and auction is not mandatory and, according to the petitioner, the said judgment also recognizes the said principle.

89. There cannot be any dispute to the legal proposition laid down in Ram & Shyam Co. (supra) that in appropriate cases the Government can enter into contract without taking the route of tendering or auctioning, but it should demonstrably be in public interest. We have discussed in foregoing paragraphs how the very grant of lease itself was illegal and void. We have also noted how the Hon'ble Minister himself was instrumental in getting the essential terms of lease settled so as to result in enrichment of family run Trust at the cost of State exchequer. The power to grant largesse by the State cannot be doubted, but not in the manner, as was done in the instant case.

90. This Court is fully satisfied that the creation/ grant of lease of the Research Institute in favour the petitioner trust was dehors the provisions of law and a result of gross abuse of the public office held by the Hon'ble Minister. There was a direct conflict of interest and the entire proceedings, culminating in the grant of lease in favour of the petitioner trust were void ab initio. Therefore, issue no. 1 is decided against the petitioner and in favour of the State-respondents.

Finding on Issue No.2

91. Now we proceed to analyze the contention as regards alleged violation of the principles of natural justice. There are two facets of the arguments. The first one is based on the law of equity and fairness. It was contended that the entire action, leading to cancellation of the lease and resumption of the premises, was done ex-parte. Neither show cause notice nor any opportunity of hearing was given to the petitioner before passing the impugned order dated 31.01.2023 whereby the Office Memorandum dated 20.11.2014 and all other subsequent orders were cancelled. The enquiry was also held by S.I.T. behind the back of the petitioner and without even letting it know of the exact charge against it. The impugned decision is a non-speaking one and thus non-est in the eyes of law. The second facet of the argument was that in case of breach of any condition of the lease agreement, the State Government, under Clause 10 of the lease, was obliged to serve thirty days notice on the petitioner-Trust before the forfeiture would become effective. However, no such notice was given. Therefore, the action of the State Government in terminating the lease on ground of violation of the conditions of the lease agreement was illegal and void.

92. On the adherence of principles of natural justice, emphasis has been laid by the petitioner upon two judgments of the Apex Court reported in UMC Technologies Private Limited (supra) and Deepak Anand Patil (supra). Another authority cited on behalf of the petitioner in Re: Natural Resources Allocation (supra) is on the point of fairness and reasonableness on the touchstone of Article 14 of the Constitution of India as regards an administrative action.

93. We may gainfully refer to some more judgments governing the first principles of the doctrine of audi alteram partem rule.

94. In the case of State of U.P. Vs. Sudhir Kumar Singh (supra), the Supreme Court observed that “the natural justice is a flexible tool in the hands of the judiciary to reach out in fit cases to remedy injustice. Breach of the audi alteram partem rule cannot by itself, lead to the conclusion that prejudice is thereby caused. Where procedural and/or substantive provisions of law embody the principles of natural justice, their infraction per se does not lead to invalidity of the orders passed. Here again, prejudice must be caused to the litigant, except in the case of a mandatory provision of law which is conceived not only in individual interest, but also in public interest. No prejudice is caused to the person complaining of the breach of natural justice where such person does not dispute the case against him or it. This can happen by reason of estoppel, acquiescence, waiver and by way of non-challenge or non-denial or admission of facts. In cases where facts can be stated to be admitted or indisputable, and only one conclusion is possible, the Court does not pass futile orders of setting aside or remand when there is, in fact, no prejudice caused. This conclusion must be drawn by the Court on an appraisal of the facts of a case, and not by the authority who denies natural justice to a person. The ‘prejudice’ exception must be more than a mere apprehension or even a reasonable suspicion of a litigant. It should exist as a matter of fact, or be based upon a definite inference of likelihood of prejudice flowing from the non-observance of natural justice.”

95. The question as to whether the Court, in exercise of powers under Article 226, is bound to declare an order of the government passed in alleged breach of principles of natural justice as void or whether the Court can refuse to grant relief on the ground that the facts of the case do not justify exercise of discretion to interfere or for the reason that defacto prejudice has not been shown fell for consideration in the case of M.C. Mehta (supra), and it was held as under :-

"15. The question however is whether the Court in exercise of its discretion under Article 32 or Article 226 can refuse to exercise discretion on facts or on the ground that no de facto prejudice is established. On the facts of this case, can this Court not take into consideration the fact that any such declaration regarding the 10.3.1999 order will restore an earlier order dated 30.7.1997 in favour of Bharat Petroleum Corporation which has also been passed without notice to HPCL and that if the order dated 10.3.1999 is set aside as being in breach of natural justice, Bharat Petroleum will be getting two plots rather than one for which it has no right after the passing of the latter order of this court dated 7.4.1998?

16. Courts are not infrequently faced with a dilemma between breach of the rules of natural justice and the Court's discretion to refuse relief even though rules of natural justice have been breached, on the ground that no real prejudice is caused to the affected party."

(emphasis supplied)

96. On the point as to whether breach of principles of natural justice is, in itself, sufficient to grant relief and that no further de facto prejudice need be shown, the decisions in the case of Ridge Vs. Baldwin³⁰ and S.L. Kapoor Vs. Jagmohan³¹ were considered by the Supreme Court time and again and it was stated as follows:-

"20.

"As we said earlier where on the admitted or indisputable facts only one conclusion is possible and under the law only one penalty is permissible, the court may not issue its writ to compel the observance of natural justice, not because it is not necessary to observe natural justice but because courts do not issue futile writs."

(emphasis supplied)

97. The proposition that if, on the admitted or indisputable factual position, only one conclusion is possible and permissible, the court need not issue a writ merely because there is violation of principles of natural justice and as to whether relief can be refused where the court thinks that the case of the applicant is not one of 'real substance' or that there is no substantial possibility of his success or that the result will not be different, even if natural justice is to be followed, has been considered in the judgments of Malloch v. Aberdeen Corporation³², Glynn v. Keele University³³, and Cinnamond v. British Airports Authority³⁴. In particular, the observations made by Straughton, L.J., in R. v. Ealing Magistrates' court ex p Fannaran³⁵ that it must be 'demonstrable beyond doubt' that the result would have been different, are of significance.

(emphasis supplied)

98. We may also gainfully refer to the case of Malloch v. Aberdeen Corporation (supra) wherein, considering a challenge to a resolution on the ground that the same had been passed in contravention of the principles of natural justice inasmuch as the Committee had refused to receive written representations or to afford to the appellant a hearing before they passed the resolution, the following observations were made by Lord Wilberforce, J.

"The appellant has first to show that his position was such that he had, in principle, a right to make representations before a decision against him was taken. But to show this is not necessarily enough, unless he can also show that if admitted to state his case he had a case of substance to make. A breach of procedure, whether called a failure of natural justice, or an essential administrative fault, cannot give him a remedy in the courts, unless behind it there is something of substance which has been lost by the failure. The court does not act in vain."

(emphasis supplied)

99. A similar view was taken in Cinnamond v. British Airports Authority (supra) wherein, considering a challenge on the ground of violation of principles of natural justice based on the contention that no opportunity to make a representation has been given, Brandon LJ. observed as follows :-

"If I am wrong in thinking that some opportunity should have been given, then it seems to me that no prejudice was suffered by the plaintiffs as a result of not being given that opportunity. It is quite evident that they were not prepared then, and are not even prepared now, to give any satisfactory undertakings about their future conduct. Only if they were would representations be of any use. I would rely on what was said in Malloch v. Aberdeen Corpn (1971) 1 WLR 1578, first by Lord Reid and secondly by Lord Wilberforce. The effect of what Lord Wilberforce said is that no one can complain of not being given an opportunity to make representation if such an opportunity would have availed him nothing."

100. The applicability of the 'useless formality test' or the 'test of prejudice', in the context of the nature, scope and applicability of the principles of natural justice has been explained in Dharampal Satyapal Ltd. Vs. Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise, Gauhati and others³⁶ and it has been held that there may be situations where it is felt that a fair hearing 'would make no difference' - meaning that a hearing would not change the ultimate conclusion reached by the decision-maker; then no legal duty to supply a hearing arises and it may not be necessary to strike down the action and refer the matter back to the authorities to take a fresh decision after complying with the procedural requirements in those cases where non-grant of hearing has not caused any prejudice to the person against whom the action is taken.

(emphasis supplied)

101. Thus, in a case of a mere technical infraction of principles of natural justice where the facts are admitted and undisputed and no prejudice can be demonstrated, there is a considerable case law and literature for the proposition that relief can be refused if the Court thinks that the case of the petitioner is not one of 'real substance' or that there is no substantial possibility of his success or that the result would not be different, even if fresh opportunity is to be granted.

102. A somewhat similar position arose before the Supreme Court in Bishambhar Prasad vs. Arfat Petrochemicals Pvt. Ltd. and Others (supra). The main issue in the said case was whether the decision of the Council of Ministers to form a Committee to review decision taken by the predecessor ruling party resulting in cancellation of the lease and permission for conversion and subdivision granted during the regime of the previous government in favour of the respondent was valid or not. Like in the instant case, one of the arguments was that the decisions were taken behind the back of the respondent and the second one, that the reasons behind the action should be part of the final decision itself and could not be supplemented by affidavits filed in the proceedings. In this regard, reliance was placed upon the judgement of the Supreme Court in Mohinder Singh Gill vs. The Chief Election Officer (supra). It was contended that change of government could not be the reason for cancelling the decisions of the previous government. Further, the lessee was kept in dark about the deliberations throughout and had no forum to advocate its case or to prove that the allotment and conversion of land were legal, sound and valid. While examining the said plea, the Supreme Court considered the fact that the Cabinet Committee constituted in pursuance of the decision of the Cabinet deliberated over the matter for considerable period. It took into consideration the legitimacy of the power in granting the lease. The Supreme Court also took into account the fact that though the issue was raked up with a political favour but eventually the final decision centered around the lack of authority of the lessor. It was also noted that the presence of the lessee before the Cabinet Committee would not have made any difference and, accordingly, it was held that the contention based on breach of principles of natural justice would not come to the rescue of the lessee. The Supreme Court, in coming to the said conclusion, relied on the previous judgements in S.L. Kapoor vs. Jagmohan (supra) and K. Balasubramanian (Ex. Capt.) vs. State of Tamil Nadu³⁷. The relevant observations are extracted below:

“80. On the face of these findings, the question that arises is whether Respondent No. 1, which actively participated in RIICO's decision making process and secured benefits without any authority in law, can be permitted to complain of a deprivation of the opportunity of being heard. We are of the considered opinion that the principle of audi altrem partem should not be an empty formality nor a compulsory ritual that must always be performed. The principal issue that arose for consideration before the Cabinet Committee pertained to the legitimacy of the power assumed by RIICO in respect of LIA, Kota, and not whether the permissions granted to Respondent No. 1 suffered from any propriety or legality. It is true that the issue was raked up with a political flavour, but eventually the final resolution centred around the RIICO's lack of authority. We do not think that Respondent No. 1 could render any assistance to the Cabinet Committee in the formation of their views. In any case, we have carried out an in-depth analysis of the entire gamut of documents and statutory rules, and have come to a firm conclusion that it was the State Government alone which was competent to accord necessary permissions to Respondent No. 1 under the 1959 Rules, and not RIICO in purported exercise of its powers under the 1979 Rules. Our holding is not confined to the decisions taken in favour of Respondent No. 1 alone, and shall encompass all other similarly placed lease-holders, with no discretion to the State Government to blow hot and cold and/or to take ad hoc decisions on a pick and choose basis. The only exception can be in a case where land has been expressly leased out to RIICO under Rule 11A of 1959 Rules and RIICO has further sub-leased the same land as per the scheme envisaged under clause (viii) of the said Rule.

83. These decisions fortify our conclusion that steps taken which are themselves vitiated, cannot form the basis for principles of natural justice to be applied. The supplementary lease deeds were signed by RIICO without any authority to do so. It similarly lacked the capacity to grant the permission for conversion of use for the land to commercial, and the allowance to subdivide the plot. Thus, no legally vested right of Respondent No. 1 has been infringed and it has no legitimate ground to seek an opportunity to be heard in a matter strictly between RIICO and State Government.”

103. In the instant case also, the decision of the previous Government has been cancelled. The record reveals that the Government did not act in any haste. Initially, the State Government constituted a Special Investigation Team, which enquired into the complaint and recorded statements of number of persons including Mr. Naseer Ahmad Khan, Member of Legislative Assembly/Secretary of the Trust, who happens to be a relative of the Hon’ble Minister and Mr. Sultan Khan, Principal, Rampur Public School. The S.I.T. submitted its detailed enquiry report dated 31.01.2020 to the Home Department. The Home Department took cognizance of the S.I.T. report and a meeting of High Powered Committee was convened on 16.03.2020 headed by the Additional Chief Secretary, Home and attended by Officers of various departments. The report of the S.I.T. was deliberated upon by the High Powered Committee and the same was accepted by it. The recommendations made by the S.I.T. were circulated to all concerned vide letter dated 29.06.2020 for further action. Thereafter, the matter was placed before the Cabinet and on 28.01.2023 it resolved to cancel the lease and all subsequent resolutions and actions of the previous Government. Pursuant to the decision of the State Government, Office memorandum dated 31.01.2023 was issued cancelling the decision to grant lease and attach the petitioner-trust with the Research Institute as well as lease deed and rectification/amended deed and also various other office memoranda issued for the purpose.

104. The impugned Office memorandum dated 31.01.2023 clearly mentions that it was issued in furtherance of the Cabinet decision to cancel previous Office memoranda dated 20.11.2014, 30.01.2015, 03.03.2015, 17.03.2015 and the lease as well as amended lease deed. It does not mention about breach of any condition of the lease as a ground for taking the aforesaid action. Only in the consequential order issued by the Director, Minority Welfare, Lucknow dated 31.01.2023, addressed to different authorities to ensure compliance of Office Memorandum dated 31.01.2023, there is a passing reference to the breach of conditions of lease. However, it is evident from the original record that the paramount consideration for taking the action was the fact relating to the Hon'ble Minister concerned being the driving force behind the decision of the previous Government, resulting in 'conflict of interest'.

105. In the facts and circumstances obtained above, an opportunity of hearing to the petitioner would have made no difference since the action was taken by Cabinet primarily on basis of the material existing on record. As noted above, during course of hearing we gave full opportunity to counsel for the parties to go through the original record, take notes and to address the Court on all possible points. Counsel for the parties even made submissions, extensively referring to the record. We have confined our decision on Issue No.1 primarily to the plea of 'conflict of interest' bearing in mind the fact that going into other aspects, may result in prejudice to the petitioner.

106. At this juncture, we may also note that while adjudging the impugned action of the State Government in cancelling the decision of the previous Government, we have taken into consideration only the facts and circumstances existing on record up to the date of grant of lease. We have consciously not considered any subsequent event nor the grounds relating to alleged breach of conditions of the lease as that would have, undoubtedly, required a notice and opportunity of hearing. As noted above, even main order of the State Government does not speak of forfeiture of lease but cancellation of the decision of the previous Government to grant lease. For the said reason, the argument based on Clause 10 of the lease deed is also rendered without any force.

107. In view of foregoing discussion, this Court is of the considered opinion that argument of the petitioner regarding infraction of the principles of natural justice has no real substance. Issue no. 2 thus stands decided against the petitioner and in favour of the State Government.

Finding on Issue No.3

108. The Court now comes to the last issue as to whether discretionary and equitable jurisdiction of High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India should be exercised in the facts and circumstances of the instant case.

109. The Apex Court, in the case of Gadde Venkateswara Rao (supra), has observed that in case an illegal order is set aside by the High Court and that setting aside would restore another illegal order, the High Court would be justified to refuse exercise of its extraordinary discretionary power in the facts and circumstances of a particular case. The Supreme Court, in the case of M.C. Mehta (supra), has held that the Court can, under Article 32 or under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, refuse to exercise its discretion of striking down the order if such striking down will result in restoration of an illegal order.

110. In view of the finding on Issue No.1, this Court is of the considered opinion that even if the impugned decision of the State Government is assumed to be suffering from some procedural irregularity, any interference by this Court would result in revival of an absolutely illegal grant. We are of firm view that in order to save public property being frittered away in complete disregard of probity and good faith, we should decline to exercise discretionary and equitable jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution in favour of the petitioner-trust. We, therefore, decide Issue No.3 against the petitioner-trust.

CONCLUSION

111. For all the aforesaid reasons, the Court is not inclined to interfere with any of the order/ notice/ Office Memorandum/ decision impugned in the present writ petition or grant any other relief claimed by the petitioner.

112. The writ petition fails and is, accordingly, dismissed, however, without imposing any cost.

113. The Bench Secretary shall forthwith return the original record to Sri Sudhanshu Srivastava, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for being transmitted to the State Government.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1488
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR RIZVI, J.

Writ-C No. 7729 of 2024

M/s D. Kumars & Co. ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri Ishir Sripat, Sri Srijan Pandey, Sri Swetashwa Agarwal, Sri Rahul Sripat (Sr. Adv.)

Counsel for the Respondents:
 Sri Anuj Mandhyan, C.S.C., Sri Harsh Vardhan Gupta, Sri Rahul Sahai, Sri Vibhu Rai, Sri Anoop Trivedi (Sr. Adv.), Sri Ganjendra Pratap (Sr. Adv.)

Completion certificate-Impugned order-petitioner's application for issuing completion certificate has not been accepted- initially a building plan was approved for construction of 16 units on the premises in question- but the construction of 16 units did not proceed - on account of inter se dispute-raised by the fifth respondent and other co-sharers- pending consideration in proceedings before the civil court-no injunction passed- petitioner voluntarily gave an affidavit that it would not proceed with the construction on unit Nos. 6 and 7 -and would await the outcome of pending litigation- on this basis subsequent permission for construction of 14 units was granted- authority having specifically granted permission - cannot go contrary to the stipulations made in its own order-mandamus issued.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.

&

Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. This writ petition arises out of an order passed by the Vice Chairman, Prayagraj Development Authority, dated 15.2.2024, contained in Annexure No. 1 to the writ petition, whereby petitioner's application submitted for issuing completion certificate has not been accepted. The application itself was filed pursuant to the liberty granted by this Court in petitioner's previous writ petition no. 42231 of 2023. The petitioner submits that the order impugned is wholly arbitrary and is in teeth of the previous adjudication made by this Court in petitioner's earlier writ.

2. The impugned order of the Vice Chairman runs into eight pages. Paragraph No. 1 to 21 of the order notices facts relating to the controversy raised. The findings and conclusion in the order under challenge is contained in para 22, which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"22. बिन्दु सं०-21 तथ्यों पर, आधारित होने के कारण किसी टिप्पणी की आवश्यकता नहीं है।

उपरोक्त तथ्यों/पत्रावली का अवलोकन तथा माननीय उच्च न्यायालय के आदेश के क्रम में यह तथ्य विदित है कि-

(i) जोनल अधिकारी के पत्र सं०-17/जोन-2/उप०-2जी(27)/वि०प्रा०/2019-20 दिनांक 09.10.2023 द्वारा पार्ट आफ नजूल फ्री होल्ड प्लॉट नं०-35,35ए लूकरगंज, तहसील सदर, प्रयागराज का बगैर पूर्णता प्रमाण पत्र प्राप्त किये उपभोग किये जाने के कारण नोटिस निर्गत की गयी, जबकि अनुमति पत्र के प्रतिबन्ध संख्या-2 में यह व्यवस्था दिया गया है कि स्वीकृति अनन्तिम (Provisional) स्वीकृति के रूप में होगी पूर्णतया प्रमाण पत्र प्राप्त करने के बाद ही परिसर को वास्तविक उपभोग में लिया जा सकेगा।

(ii) विकासकर्ता द्वारा Exchange Deed दिनांक 06.05.2017 के पैरा-6 में ingress and egress से सम्बन्धित तथ्यों को छुपाते हुए मानचित्र स्वीकृत कराया गया है। विकासकर्ता के अनुरोध पर 14 आवासीय इकाईयों का शमन मानचित्र स्वीकृत किया गया। Exchange Deed के पैरा-6 में ingress and egress में दी गयी व्यवस्था के अनुसार 2 आवासीय इकाईयों (6 व 7 को छोड़कर) 14 इकाई का शमन मानचित्र स्वीकृत किया गया।

(iii) प्रश्नगत प्रकरण में प्राधिकरण द्वारा 16 आवासीय इकाईयों का मानचित्र परमिट संख्या-149/प्र०अ०(त०स०)/जोन-

2/प्रस्ता०/2018-19 दिनांक 11.03.2019 भू-विन्यास/टाईप डिजाइन प्रस्तावित मानचित्र स्वीकृत किया गया। विकासकर्ता द्वारा स्वीकृत मानचित्र से स्थल पर विचलन किये जाने के कारण तथा प्रतिवादी सं०-6 के शिकायत के क्रम में शमन मानचित्र 14 इकाई के रूप में स्वीकृत किया गया, ताकि Exchange/Sale Deed की शर्तों को पूरा किया जा सके। इस प्रकार प्राधिकरण द्वारा स्वीकृत 14 इकाईयों का पूर्णतया प्रमाण पत्र देने में किसी तरह की अड़चन नहीं है, परन्तु विकासकर्ता द्वारा Exchange/Sale Deed की शर्त सं०-6 के अनुसार रास्ते का प्राविधान करने अथवा माननीय सिविल जज (वरिष्ठ श्रेणी) गर्वी इलाहाबाद के समक्ष लम्बित प्रकरण में पारित होने वाले अन्तरिम/अन्तिम आदेश के अनुसार आवेदन करने पर नियमानुसार पूर्णता प्रमाण पत्र दिया जा सकता है। "

3. Although the Vice-Chairman has recorded in his order that there is no hindrance in issuance of completion certificate in respect of 14 units yet the completion certificate has not been issued to the petitioner.

4. In order to appreciate the controversy raised some of the background facts are required to be noticed. A building plan was initially approved by the Prayagraj Development Authority on 11th of March, 2019 in favour of the petitioner for construction of 16 residential units, on a parcel of land being part of freehold plot no. 35 and 35A, Lukerganj, Prayagraj. The construction project was got registered with U.P. Real Estate Regulation Authority on 15.10.2019. This registration was initially valid for a period of three years and is stated to have been extended upto 2.10.2023. It transpires that the plot on which these constructions were permitted to be raised belonged partly to the petitioner and rest to Rajesh Kumar Athwani, Deepak Kumar and Umesh Athwani. These private individuals had transferred part of their share earlier in favour of the present petitioner.

5. It transpires that an exchange deed was executed between petitioner's vendor and Respondent No. 5 in the present petition on 06.05.2017 as a result of which 133.4 sq. meter land falling in the project area was exchanged with 96.6 sq. meter land belonging to petitioner's vendor. This exchange deed contained a stipulation in Clause-6, which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"6. That the Second Party shall however have right to ingress and egress from the North side of their Property, to the property and main entrance of the property of the First Party as aforesaid from the Main Road, marked Red in the annexed Site Plan, whereby Main Entrance of the Property of the First Party from Main Road shall be common to entry to the Property of the Second Party."

6. The fifth respondent apparently objected to the ongoing constructions commenced by the petitioner in terms of the sanctioned map on the ground that their right to passage, existing between the 16 row houses would be obstructed and thereby the sixth clause of the exchange deed would stand violated. This was so as no passage was provided in terms of Clause-6 in the building plan sanctioned on 11.3.2019. Consequently, a suit being Original Suit No. 187 of 2021 came to be instituted by respondent no. 5 and others before the Civil Court at Prayagraj. In the said suit the present petitioner is arrayed as the only defendant. Prayer in the nature of mandatory injunction has been claimed in the suit, which is reproduced hereinafter:-

"By means of mandatory injunction, the defendant be directed to erect 30 ft. wide common passage from North of the plaintiffs Land shown by letters. A.H.I.C. linking the same to 30 ft. wide common road erected by the defendant which goes from East to West and which has been shown in the map sanctioned by the P.D.A. on 11/03/2019, within the time provided by the court, failing which the decree complied with through the Court."

7. Other ancillary reliefs were also sought in the matter. It is admitted that the suit is pending and there is no interim injunction granted to the fifth respondent in the suit, so far.

8. It transpires that objections were also made by the private respondent/plaintiffs before the Development Authority on account of alleged breach of the covenants in the exchange deed. The petitioner was also confronted with this aspect of the matter. It is at this juncture that the petitioner submitted a compounding plan stating that they would not raise any construction on units Nos. 6 and 7 proposed to be constructed as per building plan sanctioned on 11.3.2019 awaiting adjudication of the suit in respect of Clause-6 of the exchange deed. The petitioners, therefore, claimed before the authority that they be permitted to raise construction on the remaining 14 units. This compounding plan/building permission was approved on 15th of December, 2021, subject to Clause 5 to 7 of the sanction letter, which are reproduced hereinafter:-

“5. इकाई नं०-6 व 7 सील रहेगी, उक्त निर्मित इकाई पर कोई अतिरिक्त निर्माण/फिनिशिंग का कार्य नहीं किया जायेगा और न ही उक्त इकाई का विक्रय अथवा विक्रय अनुबन्ध सम्पादित नहीं किया जायेगा।

6. सन्दर्भित प्रोजेक्ट में ingress and egress के सम्बन्ध में वाद संख्या-187/2021 सिविल जज कनिष्ठ श्रेणी गर्वी इलाहाबाद के समक्ष वाद विचाराधीन है। उक्त के दृष्टिगत ingress and egress से आच्छादित 2 इकाई भवन सं०-6 व 7 को न्यायालय के निर्णय तक सील किया जाना उचित होगा। इकाई नम्बर-6 व 7 का शमन भी नहीं किया गया है। भवन संख्या-6 व 7 का विक्रय/विक्रय अनुबन्ध आवेदक/विकासकर्ता द्वारा नहीं किया जायेगा। इस हेतु दिये गये शपथ पत्र (IN-UP69191438669463T दिनांक 15.12.2021) का अनुपालन बाध्यकारी होगा।

7- वाद संख्या-187/2021 सिविल जज (कनिष्ठ श्रेणी) गर्वी इलाहाबाद में होने वाला अन्तिम निर्णय उभय पक्ष पर बाध्यकारी होगा। इस हेतु दिये गये शपथ पत्र (22AE921843 दिनांक 22.11.2021) का अक्षरशः अनुपालन बाध्यकारी होगा।”

9. As allowed by the authority vide permission dated 15.12.2021 the petitioner has not proceeded any further with the constructions on unit No. 6 and 7, which continue to remain sealed in terms of Clause 5 of the regularization/permission dated 15.12.2021. There is no allegation that these two units have either been sold or any fresh rights have been created in favour of anybody over it.

10. In terms of the permission granted by the authority vide regularization order dated 15th of December, 2021, the petitioner has proceeded to raise construction of 14 units and allegedly completed it as per the approved plan. It is thereafter that the petitioner moved an application for issuance of completion certificate, which was not considered. It was in this context that the petitioner came earlier before this Court by filing writ petition no. 42231 of 2023. The authority resisted petitioner's claim on account of pendency of civil suit etc. The authority was confronted with the specific permission granted by it vide regularization order dated 15.12.2021. Faced with it, the authority undertook to examine petitioner's claim. The writ petition was consequently disposed of vide following orders:-

"Heard Sri Rahul Sripat, Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Swetashwa Agarwal for the petitioner and Sri Rakesh Pandey, Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Anuj Mandhyan for private respondent no. 6 as well as Sri A.P. Paul for the Prayagraj Development Authority, Prayagraj.

The petitioner is a Real Estate Company, which has undertaken constructions of certain villas on Plot Nos. 35 and 35-A, Lukerganj, Tehsil Sadar, District Prayagraj. The original lay-out was sanctioned by the Development Authority providing for construction of 16 houses. The right to raise constructions upon Plot Nos. 35 and 35A is derived from an authority given to petitioner by the owners of the plot. An area of 1137.04 sq.

mtrs. from Plot No. 35A and 360 sq. mtrs. out of Plot No. 35 have been purchased by the petitioner and in respect of other remaining land a "Builders Agreement" exists. The building plan was sanctioned. Subsequently, a compounding map has been submitted by the petitioner which has also been approved by the authority. The building plan, which has been approved by the authority, shows that houses exist on two sides of a 30 feet passage and at its rear end. An objection was raised by the sixth respondent contending that he was promised 30 feet wide passage from the north of his property under an agreement and construction of house nos. 6 and 7, in the sanctioned plan, would obstruct his ingress and egress. It would also be in teeth of the agreement entered into between the petitioner's vendor and the 6th respondent. An Original Suit No. 187 of 2021 has been instituted by the 6th respondent before the Civil Court, Prayagraj, which is pending. On account of the dispute between the 6th respondent and the petitioner's vendor, an undertaking has been given by the petitioner before the authority that it would not raise construction of house nos. 6 and 7 and that construction on such part of the land would abide by the determination made by the Civil Court. A plan for issuance of completion certificate in respect of remaining 14 houses has been submitted by the petitioner on 21.03.2023. Since such completion certificate has not been given, the petitioner is before this Court.

Learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner submits that Section 15-A of the U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act of 1973') provides for issuance of the completion certificate. Such certificate is to be granted by the development authority, if the constructions are made as per the approved plan and a notice of such completion is given to the authority. The proviso contemplates that if such certificate is not granted, the completion certificate shall be deemed to be granted within three months. Relying upon such provision, it is alleged on behalf of the petitioner that action of the respondents in not issuing the completion certificate is arbitrary. The petitioner is also aggrieved by a communication issued by the Zonal Officer dated 09.10.2023, which mentions that the condition mentioned in the sanctioned plan, that the constructed premises would be utilized only after completion certificate is issued, has been violated. It is further mentioned in the notice that without getting the completion certificate issued, the petitioner is utilizing villa no. 8, 9 and 11. A direction has been issued to the petitioner not to utilize the premises without getting the completion certificate issued. Submission is that once completion certificate in respect of 14 houses has been sought on 21.03.2023, and no decision upon it was taken, the authority is precluded from issuing the impugned communication, particularly when no construction was otherwise raised on unit nos. 6 and 7. According to the petitioner the completion certificate is deemed to have been issued.

Sri A.P. Paul, appearing for Development Authority states that in the event such facts are placed before the authority, an appropriate decision in terms of Section 15-A of the Act of 1973 would be taken by the authority. It is also urged that the authority shall verify whether the constructions made are as per the plan.

Sri Rakesh Pandey, Senior Counsel appearing for 6th respondent states that rights of the 6th respondent ought not to be allowed to be obstructed by issuance of completion certificate.

From the materials placed on records it is not disputed that a building plan for construction of 16 houses has been sanctioned by the authority. There were apparent issues between the petitioner's vendor and the 6th respondent, and the petitioner has clearly undertaken not to raise any construction of unit no. 6 and 7. Any development of these two residential units would abide by the outcome of the Civil Court. The petitioner has already informed the authority that remaining 14 units have been constructed as per plan and a prayer has been made for issuance of a completion certificate. No objection appears to have been made by the authority against the application of petitioner for issuance of completion certificate.

In such circumstances, we permit the petitioner to place such facts before the authority along with certified copy of this order within a week from today. The Vice Chairman of the Development Authority shall ensure that petitioner's claim, noticed above, is accorded consideration in accordance with law within a further period of four weeks, thereafter. The writ petition is disposed of, accordingly."

11. It is, thereafter, that the Vice Chairman of the authority has denied issuance of completion certificate to the petitioner despite holding that there is no legal hindrance in issuance of such completion certificate, taking shelter of the inter se dispute between the petitioner and respondent No. 5.

12. The writ petition was entertained and as prima facie this Court was of the opinion that having granted permission to raise construction of 14 units vide regularization order dated 15.12.2021 it was not open for the authority to deny issuance of completion certificate. A further opportunity was consequently allowed to the authority to revisit the matter vide order dated 11.3.2024. Paragraph Nos. 5 to 7 of the order dated 11th of March, 2024 are reproduced hereinafter:-

"5. The order of the Vice-Chairman depicts that the authority has not understood the directions issued in previous order passed by this Court. This Court had clearly permitted the petitioners to apply for issuance of completion certificate in respect of 14 houses for which alone compounding plan had already been sanctioned. The consideration at the level of the authority for issuance of completion certificate was limited to these 14 houses. The Vice-Chairman in his order states that there is no hindrance in issuance of completion certificate of 14 houses and that such a certificate can be given subject to ultimate adjudication to be made in the civil suit in respect of condition no.6, which pertains to the area beneath plot nos.6 and 7.

6. Once the officer found the plea of grant of completion certificate to be permissible in respect of 14 houses the natural consequence of such observation is that the completion certificate would be issued in the matter. Instead of doing so, the Vice-Chairman has again disposed of the matter without actually doing anything. This tendency to pass orders which effectively does not deal with the grievance of the litigant creates uncalled for litigation.

7. Before proceeding further, we call upon the Vice-Chairman to file his personal affidavit explaining and justifying his action in the context of the findings returned by the officer himself in the order under challenge. The officer shall specifically explain as to why the completion certificate has not been issued once he found the issuance of completion certificate to be permissible for 14 houses in terms of his own order."

13. The Vice Chairman has filed his personal affidavit, in which it is stated that initially the plan was sanctioned for 16 dwelling units, and that a civil dispute is pending in Original Suit No. 187 of 2021. Paragraph Nos. 20 to 24 of the affidavit filed by the Vice Chairman makes an interesting reading and are reproduced hereinafter:-

"20. That is most humbly submitted that while requesting for completion certificate of those 14 Units the unauthorized construction/un-compounded constructions are required to be removed.

21. That is it humbly submitted submitted that the request of the petitioner is to issue completion certificate despite there being un-compounded/unauthorized constructions standing on the project site.

22. That the petitioner cannot obtain completion certificate as against the compounded layout/development plain.

23. That the completion certificate can be forthwith granted if the sealed constructions standing on the land of Unit no. 6 & 7 may be demolished, as they are the part of sanctioned plan the demand of the petitioner presently is clearly reflecting that he should be issued completion certificate despite existence of un-compounded constructions in the project.

24. That it is humbly submitted that the completion certificate can be immediately granted in case un-compounded/unsanctioned constructions are removed or compounded in accordance with law."

14. On behalf of the authority it is stressed that while uncompounded structures over Unit No. 6 and 7 stand on the plot, it would not be open for the authority to consider issuance of completion certificate in respect of 14 units. It is, therefore, stated that unless Unit No. 6 and 7 are either demolished or compounded, it would not be open for the authority to issue the completion certificate.

15. We have heard Shri Rahul Sripat, learned Senior Counsel on behalf of the petitioner, Shri Anoop Trivedi, learned Senior Counsel for the Prayagraj Development Authority and Shri Gajendra Pratap, learned Senior Counsel for respondent No. 5 and have perused the materials on record.

16. The controversy raised in the writ petition is extremely limited and in the event the authority had carefully examined its records in the context of applicable provisions of law no occasion would have arisen for the petitioner to repeatedly approach this Court.

17. We have already taken note of the facts and it is apparent that though initially a building plan was approved for construction of 16 units on the premises in question, but the construction of 16 units did not proceed on account of inter se dispute, which came to be raised by the fifth respondent and other co-sharers. The fifth respondent essentially was claiming right of ingress and egress to the passage created in the project between the two set of row houses. Contention of the fifth respondent that petitioner would be bound by the covenants of exchange deed executed between the petitioner's vendor and fifth respondent is an aspect pending consideration in proceedings before the civil court. No injunction has been passed by the Civil Court in Original Suit No. 187 of 2019. However, in order to avoid any further complications, the petitioner voluntarily gave an affidavit stating that it would not proceed with the construction on unit Nos. 6 and 7 and would await the outcome of pending litigation before the civil court. It was on the basis of this undertaking given by the petitioner that the subsequent permission for construction of 14 units was granted by the authority vide compounding plan dated 15th of December, 2021. The compounding plan clearly make it permissible for the petitioner to raise construction of 14 units and the two units i.e. unit Nos. 6 and 7 were specifically required to be left as it is and was to remain subject to the pending suit. The stipulation contained in Clause 5 to 7 of the compounding plan dated 15th December, 2021, categorically permitted the petitioner to raise construction of 14 units. It is pursuant to this permission granted by the authority on 15th of December, 2021 that the petitioners have applied for issuance of completion certificate.

18. Section 15-A of the U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 provides for issuance of completion certificate and is reproduced below:-

"15-A. Completion Certificate.

(1) Every person or body having been granted permission under sub-section (3) of section 15, shall complete the development according to the approved plan and send a notice in writing of such completion to the Authority, and obtain a completion certificate from the Authority in the manner prescribed or provided in the bye-laws of the Authority. Provided that if completion certificate is not granted and refusal to grant it is not intimated within three months after receipt of the notice of completion, it shall be deemed that the Completion certificate has been granted by the Authority.

(2). No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any commercial building or use are permit to be used such building or part thereof affected building or work until completion certificate has been issued by the Authority, or Authority has failed for three months after the receipt of notice of completion to intimate its refusal of grant of the said certificate.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, the expression 'commercial building' shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Uttar Pradesh Municipal Corporations Act. 1959."

19. The Statute is clear and categorical, inasmuch as an application for grant of completion certificate can be moved pursuant to a permission granted under Sub-Section 3 of Section 15 of the U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973. The permission granted by the authority on 15th of December, 2021 allowing 14 units to be constructed on the spot was thus a permission pursuant to which the completion certificate could be claimed by the petitioner. The petitioner has thus approached the authority for issuance of such completion certificate. The authority having allowed permission on 15.12.2021 to raise construction of 14 units, subject to the conditions contained in clause 5 to 7 of the order cannot be permitted to resile from its earlier stand and refuse issuance of completion certificate only on the ground that unit Nos. 6 and 7 have not been included in the permission granted by the authority on 15th of December, 2021. The authority having specifically granted permission to raise 14 units cannot go contrary to the stipulations made in its own order dated 15.12.2021.

20. The stand taken by the authority before this Court is completely at variance with its own order dated 15th of December, 2021. The permission granted by the authority on 15th of December, 2021 clearly provides that unit No. 6 and 7 would remain sealed and that no constructions would be raised upon it. It is further stipulated in the permission letter dated 15th of December, 2021 that the final adjudication in Original Suit No. 187 of 2021 would ultimately bind the parties in respect of the claim raised before the civil court. Having specifically so provided in the regularization order dated 15th of December, 2021, it is not open for the authority now to say that unless the constructions initially raised on unit No. 6 and 7 are demolished or compounded, the completion certificate cannot be issued to the petitioner.

21. Despite the orders passed on the previous occasion the authority has failed to examine the matter in correct perspective. Even, during the pendency of the writ petition we have confronted the Vice Chairman with the facts of the case, but we find that repeated opportunity granted in the matter have not been availed. The approach of the Vice Chairman in sticking to its stand notwithstanding the previous permission granted and the directions issued in the previous writ, cannot be appreciated. Due diligence on the part of the authority is to be appreciated, but the manner in which the authority has been insistent upon its stand contrary to the statutory provisions as well as their own orders deserves to be deprecated. We stop at this.

22. Once the plan for construction of 14 units was approved on 15th of December, 2021, the prayer for issuance of completion certificate had to be accorded consideration in terms of Section 15-A of the Act of 1973. It is not open for the authority to fall back upon the ongoing private dispute between the petitioner and the fifth respondent to deny performance of its statutory duty or to take sides in that regard.

23. The writ petition, accordingly, succeeds and is allowed.

24. A writ of mandamus is issued to the Vice Chairman of the Prayagraj Development Authority to accord consideration to petitioner's application for issuing completion certificate in respect of 14 units constructed pursuant to the permission/regularization allowed by the authority on 15th of December, 2021 within a period of four weeks from today in light of the observations contained in this judgment. We clarify that issuance of completion certificate to the petitioner would not be to the prejudice of the fifth respondent, who will be entitled to press its claim before the civil court and no equity would be claimed in such civil proceedings by the petitioner on account of issuance of completion certificate pursuant to permission dated 15.12.2021.

25. No order is passed as to costs.

alleged therein that from the surrounding plots, soil upon a depth about 6 feet had been extracted for construction of a railway flyover. As a result, the land of the petitioner become much higher than the surrounding plots. This resulted in soil erosion from petitioners' plot during the rainy season. Therefore, the petitioner had merely leveled his plot using agricultural equipments and tractor.

7. In our considered opinion, the reply filed by the petitioner amounts to an admission of what has been alleged in the notice against him. In order to level his field to the level of the surrounding plots, to prevent erosion of soil, petitioner was necessarily required to remove soil up to a depth of 5 to 6 feet. Nothing less would prevent erosion of soil.

8. In the light of the above factual situation, this Court is required to analyze what is contained in Rule 3 of the Rules 2021. The explanation to this Rule, which is being relied upon by learned counsel for the petitioner reads as follows:-

"Explanation:- For the purposes of this rule manual digging or manual extraction of ordinary clay, ordinary earth for making bricks and pottery shall not be treated as mining operations:"

9. Perusal of the portion extracted above makes it clear that it is applicable only where manual digging or manual extraction of ordinary clay has been carried out and such excavation is not deeper than two meters. Only if these two conditions are fulfilled and the soil is excavated for making bricks or pottery, will the excavation of soil not amount to illegal mining and the petitioner would not be charged of illegal mining.

10. From the facts noticed in the initial part of this order, it is admitted that the so called leveling carried out by the petitioner was by using agricultural tools and tractor. Moreover, as already discussed above, if the petitioner's case is accepted in toto, the same necessarily amounts to removal of soil to make the plot of the petitioner equal in height with the adjoining plots.

11. It is not the case of the petitioner that this soil which had to be removed by using machinery was for making bricks and/or pottery.

12. Under the circumstances, the petitioner is not entitled to any benefit of the explanation to Rule 3. For the same reason, the impugned orders cannot be faulted with.

13. It is additionally submitted that no royalty could be imposed in view of the Entry 8 of the IIInd Schedule. The argument is of no consequence because no royalty has been demanded from the petitioner. The amount that is demanded by the impugned orders is only that of penalty which can be very well imposed in view of Rule 58 of the Rules, 2021.

14. Accordingly and in view of the above, the writ petition fails and is dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1498

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 19.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

Writ C No. 8607 of 2024

Nishant Kumar

...Petitioner

Versus

State of U.P. & Ors.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Sri Vivek Saran

Counsel for the Respondent:

C.S.C., Sri Ramesh Kumar Shukla

Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002

-Aggrieved against a communication issued by the Bank stating that 25% of the sale price deposited by him- has been forfeited-as he had failed to deposit the remaining 75% of the sale price within fifteen days from the date of confirmation of sale- the balance amount of purchase price has to be deposited within fifteen days of confirmation of sale -said period could be extended as may be agreed upon in writing between the purchaser and the secured creditor- but it could not exceed three months-extension beyond fifteen days is based upon agreement -in instant case-the Bank has refused to extend the period- meaning there was no agreement between the parties for extension of time - no illegality or infraction of any statutory provision in the action of the Bank.

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)List of Cases cited:

1. Authorised Officer, Central Bank of India vs. Shanmugavelu reported in 2024 SCC OnLine SC 92

2. Authorized Officer, State Bank of India vs. C. Natarajan reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 510

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Kumar

Gupta, J.

&

Hon'ble Kshitij Shailendra, J.)

1. The instant petition is directed against a communication dated 13.02.2024 issued by the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank to the petitioner stating that 25% of the sale price i.e., Rs.30.03 lakh deposited by him, has been forfeited, as he had failed to deposit the remaining 75% of the sale price within fifteen days i.e., by 11.01.2024 from the date of confirmation of sale.

2. The facts necessary for disposal of the instant petition are as follows:

M/s Laxmi Food Products, a proprietorship concern of father of the petitioner had taken loan from the respondent-Bank. As there was default in re-payment of the loan, the respondent-Bank had proceeded to auction the mortgaged property. E-auction was held on 27.12.2023 in which the petitioner was the highest bidder for an amount of Rs.120.10 lakh. As per terms and conditions of e-auction, the petitioner deposited 25% of the bid amount (inclusive of earnest-money) on the next date i.e., 28.12.2023 whereupon the sale was confirmed by order dated 28.12.2023. The order confirming the sale specifically mentioned that the petitioner would be required to pay the remaining 75% of the sale price within fifteen days. The petitioner filed an application before the respondent-Bank on 11.01.2024 seeking seventy five days' further time to deposit the remaining 75% of the sale price. He stated in his application that he had applied to a Bank for a home loan. Since there was no approved building plan of the land, which was subject matter of auction nor any declaration under Section 143 of U.P. ZA and LR Act, therefore, delay had occurred in approval of the loan. He should, therefore, be granted further time so that he gets the loan sanctioned and would then be in position to deposit the remaining amount.

3. The aforesaid prayer of the petitioner was turned down by the Bank by sending him an e-mail. A copy of the said communication has been placed before us by learned counsel for the respondent-Bank and with regard to which, there is no dispute between the parties. The said communication is reproduced below:

“From: Circle Sastra Bijnore
Sent: 11 January 2024 07:14 PM To: NISHANT KUMAR;
nks01180@gmail.com
Cc: Circle Sastra Bijnore
Subject: RE: Your letter dt.
10.01.2024 for extension of time to deposit remaining sale amount Attachments: Nishant_0001.pdf
दिनांक : 11-01-2024

श्री निशांत कुमार पुत्र श्री अरविंद कुमार

पता: ग्राम- रामठेरा, पोस्ट-हबीबवाला,

तहसील- धामपुर, बिजनौर

विषय: नीलामी दिनांक 27.12.2023 में
खरीदी गयी संपत्ति की शेष राशि के जमा करने
के लिए आपके द्वारा प्राप्त पत्र 11.01.2024 संबंध में

महोदय,

जैसा कि आप अवगत हैं कि आपने बैंक द्वारा दिनांक 27.12.2023 को की गयी ई-नीलामी द्वार एक संपत्ति रुपए 1,20,10,000.00/- (एक करोड बीस लाख दस हजार रुपए) में खरीदी थी जिसकी 25% राशि नियमानुसार दिनांक 28.12.2023 तक जमा कर दिया था एवं शेष 75% राशि को जमा करने की लिए आपको 15 दिनों का समय दिया गया था जो कि आपको ईमेल दिनांक 27.12.2023 द्वारा भी सूचित

किया गया था कि आपको शेष नीलामी राशि को दिनांक 11.01.2024 तक जमा करना है किन्तु आपने अभी तक शेष राशि जमा नहीं की है तथा आपने ईमेल द्वारा अपने पत्र दिनांक 11.01.2024 के द्वारा अतिरिक्त 75 दिनों की मांग की है एवं आपने यह बताया है कि आपने ऋण के लिए आवेदन किया है और आपके द्वारा खरीदी गयी संपत्ति ना ही का नक्शा पास है एवं ना ही संपत्ति धारा 143 के अंतर्गत आवासीय घोषित है।

उपरोक्त पत्र के संदर्भ में आपको सूचित किया जाता है कि नीलामी की जानी वाली संपत्ति की सभी प्रकार की जानकारी आपको संपत्ति के खरीदे जाने से पूर्व की जानी चाहिए थी क्योंकि बैंक द्वारा सम्पत्तियों कि नीलामी "As is where is", "As is what is" and "Whatever there is" के आधार पर की जाती है एवं आपको यह भी सूचित किया जाता है कि आपके ऋण के आवेदन के स्वीकृत होने में होने वाले विलंब से बैंक का किसी भी प्रकार का सम्बंध नहीं है।

जो संपत्ति आपने ई नीलामी में दिनांक 27.12.2023 को खरीदी है वो संपत्ति मै० लक्ष्मी फूड प्रोडक्ट्स (NPA ऋण खाते) में बंधक है जिसमे आपके पिता श्री अरविंद कुमार पुत्र श्री लखपत सिंह प्रोपराइटर है जो की बैंक के डिफाल्टर भी है अतः आप इस संपत्ति के बारे में भली भांति अवगत थे।

अतः आपको शेष नीलामी राशि जमा करने के लिए अतिरिक्त समय देने का कोई आधार नहीं बनता है इसलिए आपके द्वारा शेष नीलामी राशि को जमा करने के लिए अतिरिक्त

75 दिनों की मांग अस्वीकार्य है एवं आपको तुरंत पूर्ण राशि तुरंत जमा करने की सलाह दी जाती है एवं पूर्ण नीलामी राशि के जमा ना होने की स्थिति में आपके द्वारा जमा की गयी समस्त राशि बैंक द्वारा नियमानुसार जब्त (forfeit) कर ली जाएगी और बैंक उचित एवं अग्रिम कार्यवाही के लिए स्वतंत्र होगा।

धन्यवाद

पंजाब नैशनल बैंक

सुनील कुमार वर्मा

प्राधिकृत अधिकारी (मुख्य प्रबन्धक)”

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the Bank had the power to extend the time up to ninety days. The petitioner had applied for a loan and since it was not sanctioned, therefore, delay had occurred. It is submitted that in such circumstances, the decision of the Bank to forfeit 25% of the amount deposited by the petitioner is wholly illegal. He places reliance on Rule 9 of the Security Interest (Enforcement) Rules, 2002 framed under the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (for short ‘the Act’) in support of his contention.

5. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondent-Bank submits that the time permissible for depositing the remaining amount was fifteen days from the date of confirmation of the sale. The said period was extendable at the discretion of the Bank provided there was justifiable ground and material to the said effect. It is urged that in the facts of the instant case, the Bank did not find any justifiable ground to extend the time limit.

6. Sub-rule (3), (4) and (5) of Rule 9, which are relevant, are extracted below:

“(3) On every sale of immovable property, the purchaser shall immediately, i.e. on the same day or not later than next working day, as the case may be, pay a deposit of twenty five per cent. of the amount of the sale price, which is inclusive of earnest money deposited, if any, to the authorized officer conducting the sale and in default of such deposit, the property shall be sold again.

(4) The balance amount of purchase price payable shall be paid by the purchaser to the authorised officer on or before the fifteenth day of confirmation of sale of the immovable property or such extended period as may be agreed upon in writing between the purchaser and the secured creditor, in any case not exceeding three months.

(5) In default of payment within the period mentioned in sub-rule (4), the deposit shall be forfeited to the secured creditor and the property shall be resold and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.”

7. It is clear on a plain reading of the aforesaid provisions that twenty five percent of the amount of sale price inclusive of earnest money is to be deposited by the auction purchaser as soon as his bid is declared to be successful. The balance amount of purchase price has to be deposited within fifteen days of confirmation of sale of the immovable property. The said period could be extended as may be agreed upon in writing between the purchaser and the secured creditor but it could not exceed three months.

8. The extension beyond fifteen days is based upon agreement between the purchaser and the secured creditor. In the instant case, the Bank has refused to extend the period meaning thereby that there was no agreement between the parties for extension of time limit prescribed under the statute.

9. The loan was taken by the proprietorship concern of the father of the petitioner. The petitioner knew that it was an agricultural land and there was no approved building plan. He purchased it on "as is where is" and "as is what is" basis. He was well aware of the fact that under the terms and conditions of auction, he was required to deposit 25% of the purchase price within fifteen days and also the consequences of its failure.

10. In the Authorised Officer, Central Bank of India vs. Shanmugavelu reported in 2024 SCC OnLine SC 92, the Supreme Court held that Rule 9(5) was consciously incorporated by the legislature to subserve the larger object of the Act i.e. timely resolution of the bad debts of the country. It has been held that any dilution of the forfeiture provided under Rule 9(5) would result in the entire auction process under the Act being derailed by mischievous auction purchaser(s) through sham bids, thereby undermining the overall object of the Act of promoting financial stability, reducing NPAs and fostering a more efficient and streamlined mechanism for recovery of bad debts.

11. In the aforesaid judgement, the Supreme Court dis-approved the decision of the High Court to reduce the extent of amount forfeited in view of the fact that subsequent sale of the secured asset had fetched a higher price. It has been observed as follows:

"However, we are not in agreement with the aforesaid observations of the High Court. When an auction fails and a fresh auction is required to be conducted in respect of the Secured Asset, there looms a degree of uncertainty as to the extent of bids that may be received in the future auction or whether the fresh auction would even be successful or not. More often than not, with the efflux of time, the value of the Secured Asset erodes. In such a case it would be preposterous to tie or limit the forfeiture under Rule 9(5) of the SARFAESI Rules on an eventuality or a contingency of a subsequent sale of the secured asset if any.

The consequence of forfeiture of 25% of the deposit under Rule 9(5) of the SARFAESI Rules is a legal consequence that has been statutorily provided in the event of default in payment of the balance amount. The consequence envisaged under Rule 9(5) follows irrespective of whether a subsequent sale takes place at a higher price or not, and this forfeiture is not subject to any recovery already made or to the extent of the debt owed. In such cases, no extent of equity can either substitute or dilute the statutory consequence of forfeiture of 25% of deposit under Rule 9(5) of the SARFAESI Rules."

12. The Supreme Court in the said judgement also considered the scope of judicial review in respect of a decision taken by a secured creditor not to extend the time limit and to forfeit the amount deposited at the time of confirmation of the auction. The Supreme Court approved the previous judgment in Authorized Officer, State Bank of India vs. C. Natarajan reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 510, and held that it is only in very rare and exceptional case where extraneous conditions beyond the control of the purchaser had led to default in deposit of the balance amount that the Court could intervene. It has also been observed that while carrying out the said scrutiny the Court must be careful and cautious and direct their attention to examine each case in some depth to locate whether there is likelihood of any hidden interest of the bidder to stall the sale to benefit the defaulting borrower. The court should not be swayed by sentiments as sympathy, grace or compassion are outside the scope of the legislation. The relevant extract from the judgment in C. Natarajan (supra) on which reliance was placed by the Supreme Court in arriving at the above conclusion is extracted below:

"13.... If, however, circumstances are shown to exist where a bidder is faced with such a grave disability that he has no other option but to seek extension of time on genuine grounds so as not to exceed the stipulated period of ninety days and the prayer is rejected without due consideration of all facts and circumstances, refusal of the prayer for extension could afford a ground for a judicial review of the decision-making process on valid ground(s). One such exceptional circumstance led to the decision in Alisha Khan v. Indian Bank (Allahabad Bank) [2021 SCC OnLine SC 3340], where this Court intervened and granted relief because, due to COVID complications, the appellant had failed to pay the balance amount.

xxx xxx xxx

24. The up-shot of the aforesaid discussion is that whenever a challenge is laid to an order of forfeiture made by an authorized officer under sub-rule (5) of rule

9 of the Rules by a bidder, who has failed to deposit the entire sale price within ninety days, the tribunals/courts ought to be extremely reluctant to interfere unless, of course, a very exceptional case for interference is set up. What would constitute a very exceptional case, however, must be determined by the tribunals/courts on the facts of each case and by recording cogent reasons for the conclusion reached. Insofar as challenge to an order of forfeiture that is made upon rejection of an application for extension of time prior to expiry of ninety days and within the stipulated period is concerned, the scrutiny could be a bit more intrusive for ascertaining whether any patent arbitrariness or unreasonableness in the decision-making process has had the effect of vitiating the order under challenge. However, in course of such scrutiny, the tribunals/courts must be careful and cautious and direct their attention to examine each case in some depth to locate whether there is likelihood of any hidden interest of the bidder to stall the sale to benefit the defaulting borrower and must, as of necessity, weed out claims of bidders who instead of genuine interest to participate in the auctions do so to rig prices with an agenda to withdraw from the fray post conclusion of the bidding process. In course of such determination, the tribunals/courts ought not to be swayed only by supervening events like a subsequent sale at a higher price or at the same price offered by the defaulting bidder or that the secured creditor has not in the bargain suffered any loss or by sentiments and should stay at a distance since extending sympathy, grace or compassion are outside the scope of the relevant legislation. In any event, the underlying principle of least intervention by tribunals/courts and the overarching objective of the SARFAESI Act duly complimented by the Rules, which are geared towards efficient and speedy recovery of debts, together with the interpretation of the relevant laws by this Court should not be lost sight of. Losing sight thereof may not be in the larger interest of the nation and susceptible to interference."

(Emphasis supplied)

13. One of the plea in the aforesaid case like in the instant case was inability of the auction purchaser to get the loan sanctioned. In the instant case as noted above, the petitioner was fully aware of his financial capacity still he participated in the auction and made bid of an amount which was beyond his means. The mortgaged property belonged to the firm of his father and there was every likelihood that the bid was made to create obstacle in the way of the secured creditor in recovering its dues. There was no extraneous condition pleaded by the petitioner as may have incapacitated him from depositing the balance amount. The factors pleaded for getting extension were his own creation and not attributable to any external force. Therefore keeping in mind the limited power of judicial review, we are of the considered opinion that there was no error in the decision of the secured creditor in rejecting the request to extend the time for payment of the balance amount.

14. It is noteworthy that by our previous order dated 15.03.2024, we granted time to the petitioner to make payment of the remaining amount by 18.03.2024 alongwith interest for the period of delay beyond 11.01.2024 and fixed today's date.

15. Shri Vivek Saran, learned counsel for the petitioner, at the outset, submitted that the petitioner could not comply with the said order as he is not in position to deposit the remaining amount, inasmuch as the loan, which he had applied for, has yet not been sanctioned.

16. Keeping in mind the aforesaid facts, we are of the opinion that there was no illegality or infraction of any statutory provision in the action of the Bank.

17. The petition lacks merit and is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1504
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 05.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DINESH PATHAK, J.

Writ-C No. 10173 of 2024

Smt. Adiba		...Petitioner
	Versus
State of U.P. & Ors.		...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri M J Akhtar, Sr. Adv.

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Sri Dharam Vir Jaiswal, Sri Harsh Vikram, Sri Kushagra Vaibhav Singh, Sri Pradeep Kumar
 Singh

U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 - Section 95(1)(g) - Uttar Pradesh Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up Pradhans and Members) Enquiry, Rules, 1997 - Rule 5-Petitioner is an elected Pradhan in the Panchayat Election 2020-21-during his tenure being Pradhan, a complaint has been moved by private person- pointing out some embezzlement in the development work done by the petitioner- District Magistrate on behalf of State Government has constituted a committee- to conduct preliminary inquiry against the incumbent- petitioner has no right to participate in the preliminary inquiry -before passing the order under Rule 5 of Enquiry Rules, 1997 he had been given effective opportunity to file her reply against the charges - no more res-integra that Rules are secondary in nature as subordinate legislation to help in governing law and are made to make the parent Act work-District Magistrate has not committed any error in passing the order to conduct a final enquiry and cease the financial and administrative power in exercise of power conferred u/s 95(1)(g) of Act, 1947 read with Rule 5 of the Enquiry Rules 1997.

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Vivekanand Yadav vs. State of U.P. and others, 2010 (111) RD 699
2. Shamim v. State of U.P. and Ors.; (2018) 4 UPLBECH 2573

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dinesh Pathak, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record on board.

2. The petitioner has invoked the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India assailing the order dated 29.02.2024 passed by District Magistrate, Bijnor (respondent no.2) under Section 95(1)(g) of U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947 (in brevity Act, 1947) read with Rule 5 of Uttar Pradesh Panchayat Raj (Removal of Pradhans, Up Pradhans and Members) Enquiry, Rules, 1997 (in brevity Enquiry Rules, 1997) whereby administrative and financial power of the incumbent Pradhan (petitioner) has been ceased and, simultaneously, regular inquiry has been directed to be conducted.

3. The facts culled out from the record are that petitioner is an elected Pradhan in the Panchayat Election 2020-21.

During his tenure being Pradhan, a complaint has been moved by private person, namely, Khursheed and Rafeeq Ahmad pointing out some embezzlement in the development work done by the petitioner. Considering the severity of the matter, District Magistrate on behalf of State Government has constituted a committee, vide order dated 28.04.2023, consists of two members to conduct preliminary inquiry against the incumbent Pradhan intending to examine the allegations made against her. After due inquiry, Committee has submitted its preliminary inquiry report dated 09/10.11.2023, whereby four charges have been levelled against the present petitioner relating to the financial embezzlement. Having considered the preliminary inquiry report dated 09/10.11.2023, District Magistrate, Bijnor has issued notice to the petitioner, vide its order dated 28/25.11.2023 (Annexure No.3), affording opportunity to file her reply, if any, within 15 days. In pursuance thereof, petitioner has filed her reply dated 04.01.2024. Having considered the reply submitted by the Pradhan insufficient, learned District Magistrate has passed order dated 29.02.2024 under Section 95(1)(g) of Act, 1947 read with Rule 5 of the Enquiry Rules, 1997, by which Inquiry Committee has been constituted consist of Project Director, District Village Development Agency, Bijnor as well as Executive Engineer, P.W.D, Bijnor and, simultaneously, ceased the financial and administrative power of the Pradhan, which is under challenge before this Court.

4. Learned Senior counsel for the petitioner submits that in preliminary inquiry petitioner was not permitted to participate. Apart from that, report was submitted at a very belated stage on 09/10.11.2023 in pursuance of the order dated 28/25.4.2023, to wit, beyond the prescribed period of limitation as enunciated under Rule 4(2) of Enquiry Rules, 1997, therefore, preliminary enquiry report as well as the entire subsequent proceedings based on said report is nullity in the eye of law. It is further submitted that exonerating the Secretary from the allegations is not justifiable inasmuch as his conduct is also liable to be inquired along with the petitioner. In his third submission, learned Senior Advocate has tried to question genuineness/validity of the charges relating to GST and submit that all these charges are vague and result of misleading document. Lastly it is submitted that the instant writ petition may be allowed and the order impugned passed by the District Magistrate may be quashed being illegal, cryptic and unwarranted under the law.

5. Par contra, learned Standing counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions as raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner and supported the order impugned passed by the District Magistrate. He has contended that full opportunity has been afforded to the petitioner before passing the order impugned dated 29.02.2024. Petitioner, at this stage, has no right to raise any question qua charges inasmuch as regular inquiry is going on. It is further contended that submission of preliminary enquiry report even after prescribed period of limitation does not make it redundant in the eye of law. It is next contended that at this stage, while the final inquiry is going on, there is no justification to interfere in the order impugned dated 29.02.2024. Therefore, instant writ petition, being misconceived and devoid on merits, is liable to be dismissed.

6. Having considered the rival submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused of record, it is manifested that District Magistrate, having considered the preliminary inquiry report, has passed order impugned under Section 95(1)(g) of Act, 1947 read with Rule 5 of the Enquiry Rules, 1997. At the stage of moving complaint under Rule 3 of the Enquiry Rules 1997 and, thereafter, during the preliminary inquiry, there is nothing mandatory to hear the the Pradhan. The purpose of preliminary inquiry is nothing but to find out the truthfulness of the allegations as mentioned in the complaint. It is a fact finding process to make out a prima facie case for the purposes of regular enquiry to be conducted. Even otherwise, after receiving the preliminary inquiry report dated 09/10.11.2023, District Magistrate has passed the order dated 28/25.11.2023 to issue notice to the petitioner to file her reply against the charges/allegations as made out in the preliminary inquiry report. In its order dated 28/25.11.2023, District Magistrate has acknowledged the financial embezzlement to the tune of Rs. 5,79,599.00/- during the development work done by the petitioner. In response to said notice petitioner has filed her reply dated 04.01.2024 refuting the charges/allegations levelled against her in the preliminary inquiry report. District Magistrate, while passing the order impugned dated 29.02.2024, has considered the charges in detail in the light of the reply submitted by petitioner and found the case fit to be examined in the regular/final inquiry and, accordingly, constituted a committee of two members to submit their report. Simultaneously, in exercise of its power under proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947, District Magistrate has ceased the administrative and financial power of the Pradhan. Thus, it cannot be said that petitioner had not been accorded opportunity of hearing before passing the order dated 29.02.2024 under Rule 5 of Enquiry Rules, 1997. Discussing the scope and nature of the power entrusted upon District Magistrate under Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 read with Enquiry Rules, 1997 and the rights of the delinquent elected person as well there are two Full Bench judgments of this Court, which are required to be referred. In the matter of Vivekanand Yadav vs. State of U.P. and others, 2010 (111) RD 699, Hon'ble Full Bench of this Court, while answering the question referred, expounded that Pradhan is neither entitled to be associated in the preliminary inquiry nor is entitled to the copy of the preliminary report. However, he has to be given an opportunity to explain his conduct on the charges levelled against him before passing an order to cease his financial and administrative power. For ready reference question which was referred to the Hon'ble Full Bench and replied thereon is quoted herein below:

"Questions Referred

14. The Counsel for the parties have formulated the following questions from the referring orders that are referred to us: (i) Whether the pradhan is required to be associated in the preliminary enquiry under the proviso to section 95(1)(g) of the U.P. Panchayat Raj Act?

(ii) In case, the preliminary enquiry is adverse to the pradhan then, whether an opportunity is necessary before passing an order ceasing financial and administrative powers of the Pradhan?

(iii) If the District Magistrate has sufficient material to undertake a formal enquiry then, is he still required to hold a preliminary enquiry?

(iv) Whether the following observations in Chunmun v. District Magistrate, Sonbhadra; 1998 (3) AWC 1892 (the Chunmun case) are correct:

"Conclusions

107. Our conclusions are as follows:

(a) The DM may ask the preliminary enquiry to be conducted by any officer defined under Rule 2(c) of the Enquiry Rules on a complaint or a report under Rule 3 or any other material or information. He has suo motu powers as well to order a preliminary enquiry;

(b) A Pradhan has no right to object that complaint or report is not in accordance with Rule 3 of the Enquiry Rules;

(c) A Pradhan is neither entitled to be associated in the preliminary enquiry nor is entitled to the copy of the preliminary report. However, before an order ceasing the financial and administrative power is passed, his explanation or point of view or the version to the charges should be obtained and considered;

(d) In the first and the third WPs, the impugned orders have been passed on the basis of preliminary report after obtaining and considering the explanation of the Pradhan. The impugned orders in these WPS cannot be faulted on this ground;

(e) In our opinion the word 'otherwise' in Rule 5 includes and the DM can rely upon the following reports only to cease financial and administrative power and direct the final enquiry:

A report of a person who is also defined as an enquiry officer under Rule 2(c) of the Enquiry Rules-- irrespective of whether he was directed by the DM to conduct the preliminary inquiry or not;

A preliminary enquiry report conducted by the DM himself.

(f) In the third writ petition, the report was submitted by the DPRO, who is defined as an enquiry officer under Rule 2(c) of the Enquiry Rules. The impugned order cannot be faulted on the ground that the DPRO was not asked by the DM to conduct the preliminary enquiry;

However, it is open to the petitioners in the first and third WPS to raise other points before the appropriate bench."

7. At subsequent stage scope of Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 has again been examined by Full Bench of this Court in the matter of Shamim v. State of U.P. and Ors.; (2018) 4 UPLBECH 2573. Relevant paragraph nos. 37-40 of the aforesaid judgment is quoted herein below:

"37. In Vivekanand, Hafiz Ataulah Ansari and thereafter reiterated in Paras Jain that the elected representative would have to be given an opportunity to raise objection to the findings returned in the preliminary enquiry and his/or her objections will have to be considered, though prima facie, by the State Government/District Magistrate before an order ceasing the financial and administrative power and functions is passed. The consequence of the order passed in exercise of power under Section 95(1)(g) is serious consequence as it divests the elected representative from exercising power until exonerated in final enquiry and the decision of the State Government is final. The decision taken by the State Government is not based on any expediency or policy of the State, rather, it is a statutory power conferred upon the State Government exercising inherent judicial power after confronting the elected representative, with show cause notice based on the preliminary report, thereafter, taking a decision upon due application of mind on the objections of the elected Pradhan. Once such an order is passed, it is not open for the State Government to either review or modify the order during the course of final enquiry. The order, therefore, finally decides the issue between Pradhan and the Authority (State Government) in so far it relates to exercise of financial and administrative power. The office of the local body is an elected office of the constitutional democratic institution; the elected head is not a government servant and it would be improper to compare these proceeding with departmental proceeding in service jurisprudence. A head of a local body is elected for a limited term. If during the removal proceedings, he is denuded from exercising financial and administrative powers then even if he is exonerated in the enquiry the time spent during enquiry is lost, he does not get his period extended. The consideration about the presence of all or some of the trappings of a court is really not decisive. The main and basic test is whether the adjudicating power which a particular authority is empowered to exercise has been conferred on it by a statute and can be described as part of the State's inherent power exercised in discharging its judicial function. Applying this test there can be no doubt that the power which the State Government/District Magistrate exercises under proviso to Section 95(1)(g) is a quasi-judicial power exercised by a quasi-judicial authority.

38. Once the financial and administrative function is ceased, it affects the constitutional and statutory right of the Pradhan; no power of review having been conferred on the District Magistrate. He has to act according to the rules exercising the inherent judicial power of the State Government and is not dictated by the policy or expediency of the State.

39. We accordingly proceed to answer the reference in the following terms:

(A). The District Magistrate exercising delegated authority of the State Government, is a Tribunal exercising quasi judicial power by a quasi judicial authority under the proviso to Section 95(1)(g) of the Panchayat Raj Act while proceeding to cease the administrative and financial authority of the Pradhan pending final enquiry.

(B) Re-Question (i): The decision of the Division Bench in Smt. Sonia vs. State of U.P. (supra) lays down the correct position of law.

40. The reference to the Full Bench accordingly stands answered. The special appeal shall now be placed before the regular Bench according to roster for disposal in light of the questions so answered."

8. It is, thus, elucidated that petitioner has no right to participate in the preliminary inquiry and before passing the order under Rule 5 of Enquiry Rules, 1997 he had been given effective opportunity to file her reply against the charges as mentioned in the preliminary inquiry report.

9. I am skeptical of the second submission raised by the learned Senior counsel for the petitioner as well questioning the legality and validity of the preliminary inquiry report, and subsequent proceedings on the basis thereof, having been it filed beyond the prescribed period of limitation as enunciated under Rule 4(2) of Enquiry Rules 1997. It is no more res-integra that Rules are secondary in nature as subordinate legislation to help in governing law and are made to make the parent Act work. Once the decision is taken by the State Government/District Magistrate to cease the administrative and financial power of Pradhan, same cannot be revoked during course of the final enquiry inasmuch as said order is passed under the statutory power conferred upon the State Government exercising inherent judicial power after confronting with the elected representative. Limitation to submit preliminary enquiry report as enunciated under Rule 4(2) of the Enquiry Rules, 1997 is directory in nature in order to submit such report in pursuance of the order passed by the State Government/District Magistrate exercising its statutory power conferred under Section 95(1)(g) of Act, 1947. Statutory power conferred upon the State Government/District Magistrate under which he exercises its inherent judicial power to examine the conduct of the representative cannot be held redundant only on the pretext of delay in filing the preliminary inquiry report which could not be submitted under the prescribed period of 30 days of its having been so ordered. The phrase used under Rule 4(2) of Enquiry Rules, 1997 viz "as expeditiously as possible" does not confer a mandate upon the Preliminary Inquiry Officer to submit the report in strict time frame as prescribed under sub Rule 2. If submission in this regard, as advanced by the learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner, is taken to be convincing or valid, it would frustrate entire purpose of the statutory mandate as embodied under Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947. Delay in submitting the preliminary inquiry report neither could frustrate the entire purpose of inquiry which has been proposed to be conducted to examine the misdeeds of the representatives during their period in office nor render the entire proceedings illegal. The purpose of employing the phrase "as expeditiously as possible" is to expedite the preliminary inquiry so that entire proceeding under Section 95(1)(g) of the Act, 1947 including the final inquiry could be concluded expeditiously inasmuch as representatives elected under the Panchayat election are hold office for a limited period of five years and an enquiry, if any, proposed against them cannot be permitted to be continued for indefinite period. Purpose of legislation while employing the word "as expeditiously as possible" along with the prescribed period of limitation i.e. "30 days" is to indicate a minimum time frame so that Inquiry Officer could make a sincere endeavour to submit his preliminary inquiry report without unnecessary delay.

10. So far as third submission qua discrimination made with the petitioner inasmuch as Secretary is also responsible along with the petitioner is concerned, I am of the considered opinion that the District Magistrate in the realm of law has exercised his statutory power to conduct an enquiry against the petitioner qua the financial embezzlement committed during the development work done by him. Prima facie satisfaction of the District Magistrate is not to be questioned at this stage while the final enquiry is still going on. Accusation of Secretary, if any, can be considered separately by the State authorities in case they find it necessary. Petitioner has still in an opportunity to raise this question during the final enquiry before the Enquiry Officer.

11. Last submission advanced by learned Senior counsel for the petitioner is not persuasive as well whereby he has questioned the charges levelled against the petitioner relating to excess payment of GST. In view of pendency of the final enquiry, in pursuance of the order impugned dated 29.02.2024, it would not be befitting for this Court to examine the factual aspect of the matter as to whether charges qua payment of excess GST are genuine or not. Petitioner has still an opportunity to counter this question before the Inquiry Officer.

12. In this conspectus, as above, having considered the ratio decided by the Hon'ble Full Bench as mentioned above, in the given circumstances of the present case, I am of the considered view that District Magistrate has not committed any error in passing the order dated 29.02.2024 to conduct a final enquiry and cease the financial and administrative power of the incumbent Pradhan (petitioner) in exercise of power conferred upon him under Section 95(1)(g) of Act, 1947 read with Rule 5 of the Enquiry Rules 1997. District Magistrate in its order impugned has unequivocally issued direction to submit the final enquiry report following the provisions as enunciated under Rule 6 and 7 of the Enquiry Rules, 1997. There is no illegality, perversity or irregularity in the order under challenge so as to warrant the indulgence of this Court in exercise of its writ jurisdiction under article 226 of the Constitution of India. There is nothing on the record to establish as to how petitioner is prejudice, or if there is any likelihood of causing miscarriage of justice to her, owing to the order under challenge. District Magistrate has validly exercised its statutory power to scrutinize the financial embezzlement as has been emanates during the preliminary inquiry.

13. Resultantly, instant writ petition, being devoid on merits and misconceived, is dismissed with no order as to the costs.

14. Before parting the matter, having considered a little delay in an enquiry since the date of complaint moved by the complainants, namely, Mr. Khursheed and Rafeeq Ahmad, it would be appropriate to issue a direction for expeditious disposal of the enquiry and, thereafter, to take final decision, if any. As such, Inquiry Committee, as constituted in pursuance of the order dated 29.02.2024, is expected to complete inquiry and submit its report in accordance with law preferably within a period of two months from today and District Magistrate shall take decision, having considered the said report to be submitted, preferably within a period of one month, thereafter.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1511
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 05.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE JASPREET SINGH, J.
THE HON'BLE MANISH MATHUR, J.

Writ-C No. 13556 of 2021

Ram Pal Soni & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Ambika Prasad Mishra

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Anand Kumar Singh, Gyanendra Mishra

Civil Law - SARFAESI Act, 2002 - Sections 13 & 17 -Reference by single Judge -specific reference to Sections 13 and 17(as amended in 2016) of SARFAESI Act- to arrive at a conclusion that since part cause of action in the dispute arose within territorial jurisdiction of Lucknow-the securitization application would thus be maintainable at Lucknow - provisions of Section 17(1-A) indicates three clauses pertaining to local limits of the Debts Recovery Tribunal- within whose jurisdiction an application/appeal can be filed under Section 17(1) of the SARFAESI Act- if we apply the concept of ejusdem generis- it is evident that none of the three clauses indicate any common genus and operate in different and separate fields and therefore are clearly disjunctive- non obstante clause contained in Section 35 of the SARFAESI Act would have overriding effect over the Debt Recoveries Tribunals Act-since notice for e-auction was issued by the authorized officer at Lucknow- whereafter e-auction was actually conducted in terms of Section 13(4) of the Act by the very same officer at Lucknow-definitely constitute a part cause of action at Lucknow in terms of Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act-Clause (a) of Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act is disjunctive from clauses (b) & (c) of Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act and is to be read separately- Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act would have an overriding effect over provisions of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act 1993- since part cause of action in the dispute arose within territorial jurisdiction of Lucknow-the securitisation application would thus be maintainable at Lucknow as well.

Held, that since notices under Section 13 were issued by the authorized authority situate at Lucknow from where the e-auction was also conducted, part cause of action in terms of Section 17(1-A)(a) was evidently at Lucknow where the securitisation application was thus maintainable. (para 54)

Held, that judgment rendered by the learned Single Judge in the case of Saurabh Gupta (supra) being per incuriam, does not lay down good law and is hereby overruled. (para 65)

Reference answered. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Y. Y. Abraham Ajith and others Vs. Inspector of Police, Chennai and another, (2004) 8 SCC 100

2. Swamy Atmananda and others Vs. Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam and others, (2005) 10 SCC 51

3. Alchemist Ltd. and another Vs. State Bank of Sikkim and others, (2007) 11 SCC 335

4. A.B.C. Laminart Pvt. Ltd. & Anr. versus A.P. Agencies, (1989) 2 SCC 163

5. State of Rajasthan Vs. Swaika Properties, (1985) 3 SCC 217

6. Saurabh Gupta versus Union of India and another, 2018 (127) ALR 388 (overruled)

7. X versus Principal Secretary, Health and Family Welfare Department, Government of NCT of Delhi and another (2023) 9 SCC 433

8. Vivek Narain Sharma and others (Demonitisation case -5J versus Union of India (2023) 3 SCC 1

9. Adani Gas Limited versus Union of India (2022) 5 SCC 210

10. Siddeshwari Cotton Mills (P) Limited versus Union of India and others (1989) 2 SCC 458

11. Amar Chandra Chakraborti versus The Collector of Excise, Government of Tripura and others (1972) 2 SCC 442

12. A.B.C. Laminart Pvt. Ltd. & Anr. versus A.P. Agencies, (1989) 2 SCC 163

13. Ramsay Exim and Technology Private Limited and others versus ICICI Bank Limited and another, 2019 SCC Online Cal 2315

14. Amish Jain & others versus ICICI Bank Limited, 2018 SCC Online Del 8947

15. State of Madhya Pradesh versus Narmada Bachao Andolan (2011) 7 SCC 639

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Ambika Prasad Mishra learned learned counsel for petitioners, Mr. Dileep Kumar Tiwari learned State Counsel for opposite party No.1, Mr. Anand Kumar Singh learned counsel for opp. parties 3 and 4 and Mr. Gyanendra Mishra learned counsel for opp. party No.5. Notice to opp. party No.2 stands dispensed with.

2. This reference has been made by Hon'ble the Chief Justice vide order dated 23rd April, 2022 and subsequently to this Bench vide order dated 18th May, 2023 in pursuance of questions referred by Hon'ble Single Judge vide order dated 29th September, 2021 passed in Writ C No. 13556 of 2021.

3. The questions framed and referred by the Hon'ble Single Judge are as follows:-

"(A) Whether in a case where part of cause of action to maintain an application under Section 17(1) of the SARFAESI Act, arises within the limits of territorial jurisdiction of Debts Recovery Tribunal, Lucknow, the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Lucknow will have the jurisdiction, power and authority to entertain and decide such application in view of Sub section (1-A) of Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act or not ?

(B) Whether Section 3 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993, confers exclusive jurisdiction on Debts Recovery Tribunals established thereunder vide notifications of the Central Government?

(C) Whether Section 3 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993, can be read as conferring exclusive jurisdiction on the Tribunals established thereunder, irrespective of Section 19 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 and Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act, rendering Sections 19 and 17(1A) of the respective Acts as redundant or nugatory ?

(D) Whether the judgment in Saurabh Gupta (supra), which lays down that the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Allahabad shall have exclusive jurisdiction to entertain and decide the applications arisen from 55 districts specified in the notification dated 05.12.2017, without noticing Section 19 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 and Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act, as also the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Sri Nasiruddin (supra) lays down the law correctly ?

(E) Whether the judgment in Saurabh Gupta (supra) is contrary to the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sri Nasiruddin (supra) and is liable to be declared as not good law ? "

4. During course of hearing, this Court vide order dated 25th January, 2024 framed two additional questions which are as follows:-

"Question No.1:- Whether clause (a) of Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act is to be read ejusdem generis with Clauses (b) and (c) or is disjunctive?

Question No.2:- Whether insertion of Section 17(1-A) in the SARFAESI Act would have any overriding effect over provisions of the Debts Recovery Tribunals Act? "

5. The factual matrix of present dispute is that the respondent bank being UCO Bank granted loan facility to the petitioner from its branch situate in district Amethi, Uttar Pradesh. The loan was secured by mortgage of property situate at Amethi. Borrower who is the petitioner

No.1 and the guarantor, petitioner No.2 committed default in repayment of loan whereafter a demand notice was issued by the authorized officer from the zonal office in Lucknow. Possession and sale notice were also issued from the zonal office in Lucknow whereafter the petitioners filed a securitization application bearing No. 541 of 2019 before the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Lucknow.

6. Upon service of notice upon the respondent bank, a preliminary objection was raised regarding jurisdiction of the Tribunal at Lucknow with the submission that territorial jurisdiction pertaining to district Amethi lies with the Debts Recovery Tribunal Allahabad. The aforesaid preliminary objection was rejected vide order dated 6th August, 2019 leading to filing of regular appeal No. 14 of 2020 by the respondent bank, which was allowed vide order dated 25th March, 2021 upholding the preliminary objection and transferring the proceedings of securitization application to the Tribunal at Allahabad.

7. The said decision dated 25th March, 2021 passed by the Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal, Allahabad has been challenged in the writ petition in which an Hon'ble Single Judge of this Court vide order dated 29th September, 2021 has referred the issue for consideration by Larger Bench in view of his conflict of decision with judgment of another coordinate Bench in the case of Saurabh Gupta versus Union of India and another, 2018 (127) ALR 388.

8. The Hon'ble Single Judge has made specific reference to Sections 13 and 17 (as amended in 2016) of the Securitisation and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002 (hereinafter referred to as 'SARFAESI Act') to arrive at a conclusion that since part cause of action in the dispute arose within territorial jurisdiction of Lucknow, the securitisation application would thus be maintainable at Lucknow as well. For this purpose, the Hon'ble Single Judge differed from judgment rendered in the case of Saurabh Gupta (supra) which has been rendered considering the notification dated 15th February, 2017 passed under Section 3 of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993.

9. For proper appreciation of the dispute, it would be apposite to refer to Sections 13 and 17 of the SARFAESI Act, which are as follows:-

Section 13 of the SARFAESI Act

"13. Enforcement of security interest.--(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 69 or section 69A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), any security interest created in favour of any secured creditor may be enforced, without the intervention of the court or tribunal, by such creditor in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) Where any borrower, who is under a liability to a secured creditor under a security agreement, makes any default in repayment of secured debt or any instalment thereof, and his account in respect of such debt is classified by the secured creditor as non-performing asset, then, the secured creditor may require the borrower by notice in writing to discharge in full his liabilities to the secured creditor within sixty days from the date of notice failing which the secured creditor shall be entitled to exercise all or any of the rights under sub-section (4).

Provided that—

(i) the requirement of classification of secured debt as non-performing asset under this sub-section shall not apply to a borrower who has raised funds through issue of debt securities; and

(ii) in the event of default, the debenture trustee shall be entitled to enforce security interest in the same manner as provided under this section with such modifications as may be necessary and in accordance with the terms and conditions of security documents executed in favour of the debenture trustee.]

(3) The notice referred to in sub-section (2) shall give details of the amount payable by the borrower and the secured assets intended to be enforced by the secured creditor in the event of non-payment of secured debts by the borrower.

(3A) If, on receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), the borrower makes any representation or raises any objection, the secured creditor shall consider such representation or objection and if the secured creditor comes to the conclusion that such representation or objection is not acceptable or tenable, he shall communicate within fifteen days of receipt of such representation or objection the reasons for nonacceptance of the representation or objection to the borrower.

Provided that the reasons so communicated or the likely action of the secured creditor at the stage of communication of reasons shall not confer any right upon the borrower to prefer an application to the Debts Recovery Tribunal under section 17 or the Court of District Judge under section 17A.

(4) In case the borrower fails to discharge his liability in full within the period specified in sub-section (2), the secured creditor may take recourse to one or more of the following measures to recover his secured debt, namely:--

(a) take possession of the secured assets of the borrower including the right to transfer by way of lease, assignment or sale for realising the secured asset;

(b) take over the management of the business of the borrower including the right to transfer by way of lease, assignment or sale for realising the secured asset:

Provided that the right to transfer by way of lease, assignment or sale shall be exercised only where the substantial part of the business of the borrower is held as security for the debt:

Provided further that where the management of whole of the business or part of the business is severable, the secured creditor shall take over the management of such business of the borrower which is relatable to the security for the debt;

(c) appoint any person (hereafter referred to as the manager), to manage the secured assets the possession of which has been taken over by the secured creditor;

(d) require at any time by notice in writing, any person who has acquired any of the secured assets from the borrower and from whom any money is due or may become due to the borrower, to pay the secured creditor, so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the secured debt.

(5) Any payment made by any person referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (4) to the secured creditor shall give such person a valid discharge as if he has made payment to the borrower.

(5A) Where the sale of an immovable property, for which a reserve price has been specified, has been postponed for want of a bid of an amount not less than such reserve price, it shall be lawful for any officer of the secured creditor, if so authorised by the secured creditor in this behalf, to bid for the immovable property on behalf of the secured creditor at any subsequent sale.

(5B) Where the secured creditor, referred to in sub-section (5A), is declared to be the purchaser of the immovable property at any subsequent sale, the amount of the purchase price shall be adjusted towards the amount of the claim of the secured creditor for which the auction of enforcement of security interest is taken by the secured creditor, under sub-section (4) of section 13.

(5C) The provisions of section 9 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 (10 of 1949) shall, as far as may be, apply to the immovable property acquired by secured creditor under sub-section (5A).

(6) Any transfer of secured asset after taking possession thereof or take over of management under sub-section (4), by the secured creditor or by the manager on behalf of the secured creditor shall vest in the transferee all rights in, or in relation to, the secured asset transferred as if the transfer had been made by the owner of such secured asset.

(7) Where any action has been taken against a borrower under the provisions of sub-section (4), all costs, charges and expenses which, in the opinion of the secured creditor, have been properly incurred by him or any expenses incidental thereto, shall be recoverable from the borrower and the money which is received by the secured creditor shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be held by him in trust, to be applied, firstly, in payment of such costs, charges and expenses and secondly, in discharge of the dues of the secured creditor and the residue of the money so received shall be paid to the person entitled thereto in accordance with his rights and interests.

(8) Where the amount of dues of the secured creditor together with all costs, charges and expenses incurred by him is tendered to the secured creditor at any time before the date of publication of notice for public auction or inviting quotations or tender from public or private treaty for transfer by way of lease, assignment or sale of the secured assets,-

(i) the secured assets shall not be transferred by way of lease assignment or sale by the secured creditor; and

(ii) in case, any step has been taken by the secured creditor for transfer by way of lease or assignment or sale of the assets before tendering of such amount under this sub-section, no further step shall be taken by such secured creditor for transfer by way of lease or assignment or sale of such secured assets.

(9) Subject to the provisions of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016, in the case of financing of a financial asset by more than one secured creditors or joint financing of a financial asset by secured creditors, no secured creditor shall be entitled to exercise any or all of the rights conferred on him under or pursuant to sub-section (4) unless exercise of such right is agreed upon by the secured creditors representing not less than sixty per cent in value of the amount outstanding as on a record date and such action shall be binding on all the secured creditors:

Provided that in the case of a company in liquidation, the amount realised from the sale of secured assets shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of section 529A of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956):

Provided further that in the case of a company being wound up on or after the commencement of this Act, the secured creditor of such company, who opts to realise his security instead of relinquishing his security and proving his debt under proviso to sub-section (1) of section 529 of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), may retain the sale proceeds of his secured assets after depositing the workmen's dues with the liquidator in accordance with the provisions of section 529A of that Act:

Provided also that liquidator referred to in the second proviso shall intimate the secured creditor the workmen's dues in accordance with the provisions of section 529A of the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956) and in case such workmen's dues cannot be ascertained, the liquidator shall intimate the estimated amount of workmen's dues under that section to the secured creditor and in such case the secured creditor may retain the sale proceeds of the secured assets after depositing the amount of such estimate dues with the liquidator:

Provided also that in case the secured creditor deposits the estimated amount of workmen's dues, such creditor shall be liable to pay the balance of the workmen's dues or entitled to receive the excess amount, if any, deposited by the secured creditor with the liquidator: Provided also that the secured creditor shall furnish an undertaking to the liquidator to pay the balance of the workmen's dues, if any.

Explanation.--For the purposes of this sub-section,-

(a) "record date" means the date agreed upon by the secured creditors representing not less than sixty per cent in value of the amount outstanding on such date;

(b) "amount outstanding" shall include principal, interest and any other dues payable by the borrower to the secured creditor in respect of secured asset as per the books of account of the secured creditor.

(10) Where dues of the secured creditor are not fully satisfied with the sale proceeds of the secured assets, the secured creditor may file an application in the form and manner as may be prescribed to the Debts Recovery Tribunal having jurisdiction or a competent court, as the case may be, for recovery of the balance amount from the borrower.

(11) Without prejudice to the rights conferred on the secured creditor under or by this section, secured creditor shall be entitled to proceed against the guarantors or sell the pledged assets without first taking any of the measures specified in clauses (a) to (d) of sub-section (4) in relation to the secured assets under this Act.

(12) The rights of a secured creditor under this Act may be exercised by one or more of his officers authorised in this behalf in such manner as may be prescribed.

(13) No borrower shall, after receipt of notice referred to in sub-section (2), transfer by way of sale, lease or otherwise (other than in the ordinary course of his business) any of his secured assets referred to in the notice, without prior written consent of the secured creditor."

Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act

"17. Application against measures to recover secured debts].--(1) Any person (including borrower), aggrieved by any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured creditor or his authorised officer under this Chapter, may make an application along with such fee, as may be prescribed, to the Debts Recovery Tribunal having jurisdiction in the matter within forty five days from the date on which such measure had been taken:

Provided that different fees may be prescribed for making the application by the borrower and the person other than the borrower.

Explanation.--For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the communication of the reasons to the borrower by the secured creditor for not having accepted his representation or objection or the likely action of the secured creditor at the stage of communication of reasons to the borrower shall not entitle the person (including borrower) to make an application to the Debts Recovery Tribunal under this sub-section.

(1A) An application under sub-section (1) shall be filed before the Debts Recovery Tribunal within the local limits of whose jurisdiction—

(a) the cause of action, wholly or in part, arises;

(b) where the secured asset is located; or

(c) the branch or any other office of a bank or financial institution is maintaining an account in which debt claimed is outstanding for the time being.

(2) The Debts Recovery Tribunal shall consider whether any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured creditor for enforcement of security are in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(3) If, the Debts Recovery Tribunal, after examining the facts and circumstances of the case and evidence produced by the parties, comes to the conclusion that any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13, taken by the secured creditor are not in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, and require restoration of the management or restoration of possession, of the secured assets to the borrower or other aggrieved person, it may, by order,--

(a) declare the recourse to any one or more measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured creditor as invalid; and

(b) restore the possession of secured assets or management of secured assets to the borrower or such other aggrieved person, who has made an application under sub-section (1), as the case may be; and

(c) pass such other direction as it may consider appropriate and necessary in relation to any of the recourse taken by the secured creditor under sub-section (4) of section 13.

(4) If, the Debts Recovery Tribunal declares the recourse taken by a secured creditor under sub-section (4) of section 13, is in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder; then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the secured creditor shall be entitled to take recourse to one or more of the measures specified under sub-section (4) of section 13 to recover his secured debt.

(4A) Where--(i) any person, in an application under sub-section (1), claims any tenancy or leasehold rights upon the secured asset, the Debt Recovery Tribunal, after examining the facts of the case and evidence produced by the parties in relation to such claims shall, for the purposes of enforcement of security interest, have the jurisdiction to examine whether lease or tenancy,--

(a) has expired or stood determined; or

(b) is contrary to section 65A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882); or

(c) is contrary to terms of mortgage; or

(d) is created after the issuance of notice of default and demand by the Bank under subsection (2) of section 13 of the Act; and

(ii) the Debt Recovery Tribunal is satisfied that tenancy right or leasehold rights claimed in secured asset falls under the sub-clause (a) or sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) or sub-clause (d) of clause (i), then notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Debt Recovery Tribunal may pass such order as it deems fit in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) Any application made under sub-section (1) shall be dealt with by the Debts Recovery Tribunal as expeditiously as possible and disposed of within sixty days from the date of such application:

Provided that the Debts Recovery Tribunal may, from time to time, extend the said period for reasons to be recorded in writing, so, however, that the total period of pendency of the application with the Debts Recovery Tribunal, shall not exceed four months from the date of making of such application made under sub-section (1).

(6) If the application is not disposed of by the Debts Recovery Tribunal within the period of four months as specified in sub-section (5), any part to the application may make an application, in such form as may be prescribed, to the Appellate Tribunal for directing the Debts Recovery Tribunal for expeditious disposal of the application pending before the Debts Recovery Tribunal and the Appellate Tribunal may, on such application, make an order for expeditious disposal of the pending application by the Debts Recovery Tribunal.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the Debts Recovery Tribunal shall, as far as may be, dispose of the application in accordance with the provisions of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (51 of 1993) and the rules made thereunder.

10. It is relevant to indicate that the present format of section 17 is in pursuance of amendment incorporated in the SARFAESI Act vide Act No. 44 of 2016 with effect from 1.9.2016 whereby sub section (1-A) of Section 17 was inserted. Prior to the aforesaid amendment, Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act read as follows:-

"17. Right to appeal.--(1) Any person (including borrower), aggrieved by any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured creditor or his authorised officer under this Chapter, may make an application along with such fee, as may be prescribed, to the Debts Recovery Tribunal having jurisdiction in the matter within forty five days from the date on which such measures had been taken:

Provided that different fees may be prescribed for making the applications by the borrower and the person other than the borrower.

Explanation. --For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the communication of the reasons to the borrower by the secured creditor for not having accepted his representation or objection or the likely action of the secured creditor at the stage of communication of reasons to the borrower shall not entitle the person (including borrower) to make an application to the Debts Recovery Tribunal under sub-section (1) of section 17.

(2) The Debts Recovery Tribunal shall consider whether any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured creditor for enforcement of security are in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(3) If, the Debts Recovery Tribunal, after examining the facts and circumstances of the case and evidence produced by the parties, comes to the conclusion that any of the measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13, taken by the secured creditor are not in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, and require restoration of the management of the secured assets to the borrower or restoration of possession of the secured assets to the borrower, it may, by order, declare the recourse to any one or more measures referred to in sub-section (4) of section 13 taken by the secured assets as invalid and restore the possession of secured assets to the borrower or restore the management of the secured assets to the borrower, as the case may be, and pass such order as it may consider appropriate and necessary in relation to any of the of the recourse taken by the secured creditor under sub-section (4) of section 13.

(4) If, the Debts Recovery Tribunal declares the recourse taken by a secured creditor under sub-section (4) of section 13, is in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, then, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the secured creditor shall be entitled to take recourse to one or more of the measures specified under sub-section (4) of section 13 to recover his secured debt.

(5) Any application made under sub-section (1) shall be dealt with by the Debts Recovery Tribunal as expeditiously as possible and disposed of within sixty days from the date of such application:

Provided that the Debts Recovery Tribunal may, from time to time, extend the said period for reasons to be recorded in writing, so, however, that the total period of pendency of the application with the Debts Recovery Tribunal, shall not exceed four months from the date of making of such application made under sub-section (1).

(6) If the application is not disposed of by the Debts Recovery Tribunal within the period of four months as specified in sub-section (5), any party to the application may make an application, in such form as may be prescribed, to the Appellate Tribunal for directing the Debts Recovery Tribunal for expeditious disposal of the application pending before the Debts Recovery Tribunal and the Appellate Tribunal may, on such application, make an order for expeditious disposal of the pending application by the Debts Recovery Tribunal.

(7) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, the Debts Recovery Tribunal shall, as far as may be, dispose of application in accordance with the provisions of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 (51 of 1993) and the rules made thereunder."

11. For proper appreciation of provisions of aforesaid sections of the SARFAESI Act, it would be necessary to appreciate the reasons for incorporation of the amendment to Section 17 whereby Clause 1-A was inserted in the year 2016.

12. As would be evident from the provisions of Section 17 prior to its amendment, right to appeal under Section 17 was available to any person, including a borrower aggrieved by any of the measures referred to in Sub Section (4) of Section 13 of the Act taken by a secured creditor or the authorized officer. The appeal was to be preferred to the Debts Recovery Tribunal having jurisdiction in the matter. It is relevant that the concept of jurisdiction of the Debts Recovery Tribunal was not clarified in Section 17 which led to various litigations pertaining to jurisdiction.

13. The said anomaly was thereafter sought to be remedied by insertion of clause (1-A) to Section 17 whereby the concept of jurisdiction of the Debts Recovery Tribunal before which an appeal would lie, was explained.

14. The statement of objects and reasons in the Act No. 44 of 2016 clearly indicates that such amendment have been proposed in order to facilitate expeditious disposal of recovery applications. Evidently the amendment to Section 17 was incorporated to remove any doubt with regard to jurisdiction of a particular Debts Recovery Tribunal and to stymie litigations pertaining to same. It is in such circumstances that the amendment incorporated in Section 17 is required to be examined in a way to give effect to its purpose.

15. The concept of purposive interpretation of statutory provisions has been enunciated by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of X versus Principal Secretary, Health and Family Welfare Department, Government of NCT of Delhi and another (2023) 9 SCC 433 in the following manner:-

"34. In Principles of Statutory Interpretation by Justice G.P. Singh, it is stated that a statute must be read in its context when attempting to interpret its purpose. [Justice G.P. Singh, Principles of Statutory Interpretation, (Lexis Nexis, 2016), at p. 35.] Context includes reading the statute as a whole, referring to the previous state of law, the general scope of the statute, surrounding circumstances and the mischief that it was intended to remedy. [Union of India v. Sankalchand Himatlal Sheth, (1977) 4 SCC 193 : 1977 SCC (L&S) 435; RBI v. Peerless General Finance & Investment Co. Ltd., (1987) 1 SCC 424] The treatise explains that:

“For ascertaining the purpose of a statute one is not restricted to the internal aid furnished by the statute itself, although the text of the statute taken as a whole is the most important material for ascertaining both the aspects of “intention”. Without intending to lay down a precise and exhaustive list of external aids, Lord Somervell has stated: “The mischief against which the statute is directed and, perhaps though to an undefined extent the surrounding circumstances can be considered. Other statutes in pari materia and the state of the law at the time are admissible.” These external aids are also brought in by widening the concept of “context” “as including not only other enacting provisions of the same statute, but its Preamble, the existing state of the law, other statutes in pari materia, and the mischief which the statute was intended to remedy”. In the words of Chinnappa Reddy, J.: “Interpretation must depend on the text and the context. They are the bases of interpretation. One may well say if the text is the texture, context is what gives colour. Neither can be ignored. Both are important. That interpretation is best which makes the textual interpretation match the contextual. A statute is best interpreted when we know why it was enacted.”

xxx xxx xxx

36. In Bengal Immunity Co. Ltd. v. State of Bihar [Bengal Immunity Co. Ltd. v. State of Bihar, 1955 SCC OnLine SC 2 : (1955) 2 SCR 603 : AIR 1955 SC 661], the Constitution Bench applied the mischief rule in Heydon case [Heydon case, (1584)

3 Co Rep 7a : 76 ER 637] in the construction of Article 286 of the Constitution. In Kehar Singh v. State (UT of Delhi) [Kehar Singh v. State (UT of Delhi), (1988) 3 SCC 609 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 711], a three-Judge Bench of this Court held : (Kehar Singh case [Kehar Singh v. State (UT of Delhi), (1988) 3 SCC 609 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 711], SCC pp. 717-18, paras 231 & 233)

“231. During the last several years, the “golden rule” has been given a go-by. We now look for the “intention” of the legislature or the “purpose” of the statute. First, we examine the words of the statute. If the words are precise and cover the situation in hand, we do not go further. We expound those words in the natural and ordinary sense of the words. But, if the words are ambiguous, uncertain or any doubt arises as to the terms employed, we deem it as our paramount duty to put upon the language of the legislature rational meaning. We then examine every word, every section and every provision. We examine the Act as a whole. We examine the necessity which gave rise to the Act. We look at the mischiefs which the legislature intended to redress. We look at the whole situation and not just one-to-one relation. We will not consider any provision out of the framework of the statute. We will not view the provisions as abstract principles separated from the motive force behind. We will consider the provisions in the circumstances to which they owe their origin. We will consider the provisions to ensure coherence and consistency within the law as a whole and to avoid undesirable consequences.

* * *

233. For this purpose, we call in external and internal aids:

External aids are : the Statement of Objects and Reasons when the Bill was presented to Parliament, the reports of the Committee, if any, preceding the Bill, legislative history, other statutes in pari materia and legislation in other States which pertain to the same subject-matter, persons, things or relations.

Internal aids are : Preamble, scheme, enacting parts of the statutes, rules of languages and other provisions in the statutes."

16. In the case of Vivek Narain Sharma and others (Demonitisation case -5J versus Union of India (2023) 3 SCC 1 has also enunciated law pertaining to purposive interpretation of statute in the following manner:-

" 134. "Legislation has an aim, it seeks to obviate some mischief, to supply an inadequacy, to effect a change of policy, to formulate a plan of government. That aim, that policy is not drawn, like nitrogen, out of the air; it is evidenced in the language of the statute, as read in the light of other external manifestations of purpose ["Some Reflections on the Reading of Statutes" [(1947) 47 Columbia LR 527] , Columbia LR at p. 538]." This is how Justice Frankfurter succinctly propounds the principle of purposive interpretation.

Xxxx xxxx xxxx

138. Aharon Barak, the former President of the Supreme Court of Israel, whose exposition of "doctrine of proportionality" has found approval by the Constitution Bench of this Court in Modern Dental College & Research Centre [Modern Dental College & Research Centre v. State of M.P., (2016) 7 SCC 353 : 7 SCEC 1] , to which we will refer to in the forthcoming paragraphs, in his commentary on "Purposive Interpretation in Law", has summarised

"the goal of interpretation in law" as under:

"At some point, we need to find an Archimedean foothold, external to the text, from which to answer that question. My answer is this : The goal of interpretation in law is to achieve the objective—in other words, the purpose—of law. [D. Brink, "Legal Theory, Legal Interpretation, and Judicial Review", 17 Philosophy & Public Affairs 105, 125 (1988).] The role of a system of interpretation in law is to choose, from among the semantic options for a given text, the meaning that best achieves the purpose of the text. Each legal text—will, contract, statute, and constitution—was chosen to achieve a social objective. Achieving this objective, achieving this purpose, is the goal of interpretation. The system of interpretation is the device and the means. It is a tool through which law achieves self-realisation. In interpreting a given text, which is, after all, what interpretation in law does, a system of interpretation must guarantee that the purpose of the norm trapped in the—in our terminology, the purpose of the text—will be achieved in the best way. Hence the requirement that the system of interpretation be a rational activity. A coin toss will not do. This is also the rationale—which is at the core of my own views—for the belief that purposive interpretation is the most proper system of interpretation. This system is proper because it guarantees the achievement of the purpose of law. There is social, jurisprudential, hermeneutical, and constitutional support for my claim that the proper criterion for interpretation is the search for law's purpose, and that purposive interpretation best fulfils that criterion. A comparative look at the law supports it, as well. I will discuss each element of that support below."

17. Upon appreciation of the aforesaid judgments in the present facts and circumstances, it is evident that interpretation of statutory clauses is required to be done in a manner which advances the object and scope of the Act particularly where the provisions are ambiguous requiring such interpretation. However even in cases where statutory provisions are unambiguous, the concept of literal interpretation has to be brought into play so as not to render any statutory provision otiose.

18. The concept of literal interpretation of statutory provisions has been enunciated by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Adani Gas Limited versus Union of India (2022) 5 SCC 210 in the following manner:-

" 75. In Supt. and Remembrancer of Legal Affairs v. Abani Maity [Supt. and Remembrancer of Legal Affairs v. Abani Maity, (1979) 4 SCC 85 : 1979 SCC (Cri) 902] , this Court observed as follows : (SCC p. 90, para 18)

"18. Exposition ex visceribus actus is a long-recognised rule of construction. Words in a statute often take their meaning from the context of the statute as a whole. They are therefore, not to be construed in isolation. For instance, the use of the word "may" would normally indicate that the provision was not mandatory. But in the context of a particular statute, this word may connote a legislative imperative, particularly when its construction in a permissive sense would relegate it to the unenviable position, as it were, 'of an ineffectual angel beating its wings in a luminous void in vain'. 'If the choice is between two interpretations', said Viscount Simon, L.C. in Nokes v. Doncaster Amalgamated Collieries Ltd. [Nokes v.

Doncaster Amalgamated Collieries Ltd., 1940 AC 1014 (HL)] : (AC p. 1022)

'... the narrower of which would fail to achieve the manifest purpose of the legislation, we should avoid a construction which would reduce the legislation to futility and should rather accept the bolder construction based on the view that Parliament would legislate only for the purpose of bringing about an effective result.' "

19. Upon applicability of the aforesaid judgments in the present facts and circumstances, it is evident that the purpose of insertion of Clause (1-A) in Section 19 of the SARFAESI Act is primarily to explain away the deficiency in the original enactment regarding jurisdiction of the Debts Recovery Tribunal which would have jurisdiction over dispute pertaining to an application/appeal being filed under Section 17(1) of the said Act.

20. It is in the aforesaid light that we now propose to answer the additional question framed as Question No.1, which is as follows:-

"Whether clause (a) of Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act is to be read ejusdem generis with Clauses (b) and (c) or is disjunctive?"

Answer to Question No.1:-

21. The concept of proposition pertaining to ejusdem generis has been enunciated by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Siddeshwari Cotton Mills (P) Limited versus Union of India and others (1989) 2 SCC 458 in the following manner:-

7. The expression ejusdem generis — "of the same kind or nature" — signifies a principle of construction whereby words in a statute which are otherwise wide but are associated in the text with more limited words are, by implication, given a restricted operation and are limited to matters of the same class or genus as preceding them. If a list or string or family of genus-describing terms are followed by wider or residuary or sweeping-up words, then the verbal context and the linguistic implications of the preceding words limit the scope of such words.

In Statutory Interpretation Rupert Cross (p. 116) says:

....The draftsman must be taken to have inserted the general words in case something which ought to have been included among the specifically enumerated items had been omitted....

The principle underlying this approach to statutory construction is that the subsequent general words were only intended to guard against some accidental omission in the objects of the kind mentioned earlier and were not intended to extend to objects of a wholly different kind. This is a presumption and operates unless there is some contrary indication. But the preceding words or expressions of restricted meaning must be susceptible of the import that they represent a class. If no class can be found, ejusdem generis rule is not attracted and such broad construction as the subsequent words may admit will be favoured. As a learned author puts it:

... if a class can be found, but the specific words exhaust the class, then rejection of the rule may be favoured because its adoption would make the general words unnecessary; if, however, the specific words do not exhaust the class, then adoption of the rule may be favoured because its rejection would make the specific words unnecessary.

[See : Construction of Statutes by E.A. Driedger p. 95 quoted by Francis Bennion in his Statutory Construction, pp. 829 and 830]

Francis Bennion in his Statutory Construction (pp. 830-31) observed:

For the ejusdem generis principle to apply there must be a sufficient indication of a category that can properly be described as a class or genus, even though not specified as such in the enactment. Furthermore the genus must be narrower than the words it is said to regulate. The nature of the genus is gathered by implication from the express words which suggest it....

It is necessary to be able to formulate the genus; for if it cannot be formulated it does not exist. 'Unless you can find a category', said Farwell L.J., 'there is no room for the application of the ejusdem generis doctrine'."

In S.S. Magnhild v. McIntyre Bros. & Co. [(1920) 3 KB 321] McCardie, J. said: (KB p. 330)

So far as I can see the only test seems to be whether the specified things which precede the general words can be placed under some common category. By this I understand that the specified things must possess some common and dominant feature.

In Tribhuban Parkash Nayyar v. Union of India [(1969) 3 SCC 99, 106 : AIR 1970 SC 540 : (1970) 2 SCR 732] the Court said: (SCC p. 106, para 13 : SCR p. 740)

.. This rule reflects an attempt to reconcile incompatibility between the specific and general words, in view of the other rules of interpretation, that all words in a statute are given effect if possible, that a statute is to be construed as a whole and that no words in a statute are presumed to be superfluous....

In U.P. SEB v. Hari Shanker [(1978) 4 SCC 16, 30 : 1978 SCC (L&S) 481 : AIR 1979 SC 65] it was observed: (SCC p. 30, para 15 : AIR p. 73)

... The true scope of the rule of 'ejusdem generis' is that words of a general nature following specific and particular words should be construed as limited to things which are of the same nature as those specified. But the rule is one which has to be 'applied with caution and not pushed too far'. ...

8. The preceding words in the statutory provision which, under this particular rule of construction, control and limit the meaning of the subsequent words must represent a genus or a family which admits of a number of species or members. If there is only one species it cannot supply the idea of a genus.

In the present case the expressions "bleaching, mercerising, dyeing, printing, water-proofing, rubberising, shrink-proofing, organdie processing" which precede the expression "or any other process" contemplate processes which impart a change of a lasting character to the fabric by either the addition of some chemical into the fabric or otherwise. "Any other process" in the section must share one or the other of these incidents. The expression "any other process" is used in the context of what constitutes manufacture in its extended meaning and the expression "unprocessed" in the exempting notification draws its meaning from that context. The principle of construction considered appropriate by the Tribunal in this case appears to us to be unsupportable in the context in which the expression "or any other process" has to be understood."

22. Similarly in the case of Amar Chandra Chakraborti versus The Collector of Excise, Government of Tripura and others (1972) 2 SCC 442, the aforesaid concept has been explained in the following manner:-

"9. Before dealing with the contention relating to Article 19 we consider it proper to dispose of the argument founded on the ejusdem generis rule and Article 14 of the Constitution. It was contended by Shri Sen that the only way in which Section 43 can be saved from the challenge of arbitrariness is to construe the expression "any cause other than" in Section 43(1) ejusdem generis with the causes specified in clauses (a) to (g) of Section 42(1). We do not agree with this submission. The ejusdem generis rule strives to reconcile the incompatibility between specific and general words. This doctrine applies when (i) the statute contains an enumeration of specific words; (ii) the subjects of the enumeration constitute a class or category; (iii) that class or category is not exhausted by the enumeration; (iv) the general term follows the enumeration and (v) there is no indication of a different legislative intent. In the present case it is not easy to construe the various clauses of Section 42 as constituting one category or class. But that apart, the very language of the two sections and the objects intended respectively to be achieved by them also negate any intention of the legislature to attract the rule of ejusdem generis. "

23. It is thus evident that the concept of ejusdem generis is applicable where the preceding words in a statutory provision seek to control and limit the meaning of subsequent words and must represent a genus or a family which admits of a number of species. If there is only one species, it would not supply the idea of genus. Furthermore, the genus must be narrower than the words it said to regulate and the specified things which precede the general words can be placed under some common category. The rule also makes an attempt to reconcile an incompatibility between specific and general words so that all the words and statute are given effect to and that no words are presumed to be superfluous.

24. Upon applicability of aforesaid judgments in the present facts and circumstances, it is evident that the provisions of Clause (1-A) of Section 17 indicates three clauses pertaining to local limits of the Debts Recovery Tribunal within whose jurisdiction an application/appeal can be filed under Section 17(1) of the SARFAESI Act. The three clauses indicated in the aforesaid provision are :-

- (a) The cause of action wholly or in part arises;
- (b) where the secured asset is located; or
- (c) the branch or any other office of a bank or financial institution is maintaining an account in which debt claimed is outstanding for the time being.

25. If we apply the concept of ejusdem generis, it is evident that none of the three clauses indicate any common genus or similarity where the preceeding words would indicate a limitation on the subsequent words of a provision. On the contrary, it is evident that all the three clauses of clause (1-A) of Section 17 of the Act operate in different and separate fields and therefore are clearly disjunctive. Although the three clauses may appear to be overlapping in nature but in the considered opinion of this Court, actually indicate the place where a representation/appeal can be filed.

26. If examined from the aforesaid concept, it is thus evident that all the three clauses in Clause (1-A) of Section 17 of the Act operate in different spheres with a meaning attached differently to all the three clauses without any overlapping.

27. Considering the aforesaid facts and the law enunciated thereupon, it is evident that clause (a) of Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act is disjunctive from clauses (b) and (c) of the aforesaid section.

28. Question No.1 is answered accordingly.

29. Additional question framed as Question No.2 is as follows:-

"Whether insertion of Section 17(1-A) in the SARFAESI Act would have any overriding effect over provisions of the Debts Recovery Tribunals Act? "

Answer to Question No.2:-

30. The aforesaid question is clearly answered in view of section 35 of the SARFAESI Act which provides that the Act shall have effect, notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law.

31. Considering the non obstante clause contained in Section 35 of the SARFAESI Act, we have no hesitation in answering the question No.2 to the effect that the SARFAESI Act would have overriding effect over the Debt Recoveries Tribunals Act.

32. Question No.2 is answered accordingly.

33. We now examine and answer the questions referred by the Hon'ble Single Judge as follows:-

34. Question No. (A) is as follows:-

"Whether in a case where part of cause of action to maintain an application under Section 17(1) of the SARFAESI Act, arises within the limits of territorial jurisdiction of Debts Recovery Tribunal, Lucknow, the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Lucknow will have the jurisdiction, power and authority to entertain and decide such application in view of Sub section (1-A) of Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act or not?"

Answer to Question No. (A) :-

35. Since we have already held in answer to question No.1 herein above that all the three clauses of section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act are disjunctive and are therefore required to be examined separately, we have to examine the concept of 'cause of action' as indicated in Section 17(1-A) (a) of the SARFAESI Act.

36. The concept of cause of action has been enunciated by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Y. Y. Abraham Ajith and others Vs. Inspector of Police, Chennai and another, (2004) 8 SCC 100 in the following manner:-

" 14. It is settled law that cause of action consists of bundle of facts, which give cause to enforce the legal inquiry for redress in a court of law. In other words, it is a bundle of facts, which taken with the law applicable to them, gives the allegedly affected party a right to claim relief against the opponent. It must include some act done by the latter since in the absence of such an act no cause of action would possibly accrue or would arise. 15. The expression "cause of action" has acquired a judicially settled meaning. In the restricted sense cause of action means the circumstances forming the infraction of the right or the immediate occasion for the action. In the wider sense, it means the necessary conditions for the maintenance of the proceeding including not only the alleged infraction, but also the infraction coupled with the right itself. Compendiously the expression means every fact, which it would be necessary for the complainant to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right or grievance to the judgment of the Court. Every fact, which is necessary to be proved, as distinguished from every piece of evidence, which is necessary to prove such fact, comprises in "cause of action".

16. The expression "cause of action" has sometimes been employed to convey the restricted idea of facts or circumstances which constitute either the infringement or the basis of a right and no more. In a wider and more comprehensive sense, it has been used to denote the whole bundle of material facts.

17. The expression "cause of action" is generally understood to mean a situation or state of facts that entitles a party to maintain an action in a court or a tribunal; a group of operative facts giving rise to one or more bases for sitting; a factual situation that entitles one person to obtain a remedy in court from another person. (Black's Law Dictionary a "cause of action" is stated to be the entire set of facts that gives rise to an enforceable claim; the phrase comprises every fact, which, if traversed, the plaintiff must prove in order to obtain judgment. In "Words and Phrases" (4th Edn.) the meaning attributed to the phrase "cause of action" in common legal parlance is existence of those facts, which give a party a right to judicial interference on his behalf."

37. Similarly in the case of Swamy Atmananda and others Vs. Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam and others, (2005) 10 SCC 51, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as follows:

"23. Osborn's Concise Law Dictionary defines 'cause of action' as the fact or combination of facts which give rise to a right or action. In Black's Law Dictionary it has been stated that the expression cause of action is the fact or facts which give a person a right to judicial relief. In Stroud's Judicial Dictionary a cause of action is stated to be the entire set of facts that give rise to an enforceable claim; the phrase comprises every fact which, if traversed, the plaintiff must prove in order to obtain judgment.

24. A cause of action, thus, means every fact, which, if traversed, it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove in order to support his right to a judgment of the Court. In other words, it is a bundle of facts which taken with the law applicable to them gives the plaintiff a right to relief against the defendant. It must include some act done by the defendant since in the absence of such an act no cause of action can possibly accrue. It is not limited to the actual infringement of the right sued on but includes all the material facts on which it is founded."

38. In the case of Alchemist Ltd. and another Vs. State Bank of Sikkim and others, (2007) 11 SCC 335, Hon'ble Supreme Court has explained the aforesaid concept as follows:-

"20. It may be stated that the expression 'cause of action' has neither been defined in the Constitution nor in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. It may, however, be described as a bundle of essential facts necessary for the plaintiff to prove before he can succeed. Failure to prove such facts would give the defendant a right to judgment in his favour. Cause of action thus gives occasion for and forms the foundation of the suit.

21. The classic definition of the expression "cause of action" is found in Cooke v Gill. Wherein Lord Brett observed:

" 'Cause of action' means every fact which it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove, if traversed, in order to support his right to the judgment of the court".

22. For every action, there has to be a cause of action. If there is no cause of action, the plaint or petition has to be dismissed."

39. In the case of A.B.C. Laminart Pvt. Ltd. & Anr. versus A.P. Agencies, (1989) 2 SCC 163 following has been held:-

"12. A cause of action means every fact, which, if traversed, it would be necessary for the plaintiff to prove in order to support his right to a judgment of the Court. In other words, it is a bundle of facts which taken with the law applicable to them gives the plaintiff a right to relief against the defendant. It must include some act done by the defendant since in the absence of such an act no cause of action can possibly accrue. It is not limited to the actual infringement of the right sued on but includes all the material facts on which it is founded. It does not comprise evidence necessary to prove such facts, but every fact necessary for the plaintiff to prove to enable him to obtain a decree. Everything which if not proved would give the defendant a right to immediate judgment must be part of the cause of action. But it has no relation whatever to the defence which may be set up by the defendant nor does it depend upon the character of the relief prayed for by the plaintiff".

40. Upon examination of the aforesaid law as propounded by Hon'ble Supreme Court, it is therefore evident that the term 'cause of action' consists of a bundle of facts which give cause to enforce or redressal of a lis or a grievance before any court of law or authority. It is some act done by an authority or person with which another person feels aggrieved since in the absence of such an act, no cause of action would arise.

41. As has been held by the Hon'ble Single Judge, in a restricted sense, cause of action means the circumstances forming the infraction of the right or the immediate occasion for the action. In the wider sense, it means the necessary conditions for the maintenance of proceeding including not only the alleged infraction, but also the infraction coupled with the right itself. All material facts on which a right to sue is based would therefore come within the scope of cause of action, which is not dependent merely upon the character or the relief prayed for.

42. In Alchemist (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to its previous judgment in the case of State of Rajasthan Vs. Swaika Properties, (1985) 3 SCC 217, in which it was held that mere service of notice on the petitioner at Calcutta under the Rajasthan Urban Improvement Act, 1959 could not give rise to a cause of action, unless such notice was 'an integral part of the cause of action'. It is not limited to the actual infringement of the right sued on, but includes all the material facts on which it is founded. The test is whether a particular fact is of substance and can be said to be material, integral or essential part of the lis between the parties, if it is, it forms a part of cause of action.

43. Upon applicability of the aforesaid concept of the term 'cause of action', it is evident in the present case that the demand and sale notice under Section 13 read with Rule 8(6) of the Security Interest (Enforcement) Rules 2002 was issued on 3rd May, 2019 from the zonal office at Lucknow for public e-auction of the property. The e-auction of the property was held on 28th June, 2019 by the zonal authority, again situate at Lucknow.

44. The provisions of Section 13 of the SARFAESI Act clearly envisages providing a notice under Section 13(2) by the secured creditor to the borrower in respect of a debt which is classified as a non performing asset in order to enable such borrower to discharge in full his liabilities to the secured creditor, failing which the secured creditor has been made entitled to exercise all or any of the rights provided under sub section (4).

45. Section 13(4) of the SARFAESI Act provides for actions or action which can be taken by the secured creditor in case the borrower fails to discharge his liability in full within period specified in sub section (2). Such action under Section 13(4) is thereafter challengeable under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act.

46. It is thus quite evident that the notice under Section 13(2) of the SARFAESI Act must precede any action taken by the secured creditor under Section 13(4) of the aforesaid Act. In this view of the matter, it is evident that notice under Section 13(2) of the Act forms a chain with the action that can be taken by the secured creditor under Section 13(4) of the Act and would thus constitute a continuing cause of action either for the borrower or for the secured creditor.

47. Examining the present dispute in terms of aforesaid, it is evident that since notice for e-auction was issued by the authorized officer at Lucknow whereafter e-auction was actually conducted in terms of Section 13(4) of the Act by the very same officer at Lucknow, this Court is of the considered opinion that aforesaid will definitely constitute a part cause of action at Lucknow in terms of Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act.

48. The Debts Recovery Appellate Tribunal, Allahabad in its judgment dated 25th March, 2021 has unfortunately failed to examine the scope of Section 17 (1-A) (a) pertaining to part cause of action in the light of aforesaid. The appellate tribunal clearly fell in error by examining only clauses (b) and (c) of Section 17(1-A) of the Act while ignoring the concept of part cause of action.

49. In paragraph 7 of the judgment, the appellate tribunal has held as follows:-

" 7. The issuance of notice cannot be treated as cause of action and rather it is an effect, which comes into force for initiation of recovery proceedings. Thus, the issue of notice is result of non payment of the dues."

50. The appellate tribunal has thereafter placed reliance on judgment rendered in the case of;

(a) Ramsay Exim and Technology Private Limited and others versus ICICI Bank Limited and another, 2019 SCC Online Cal 2315

(b) Amish Jain & others versus ICICI Bank Limited, 2018 SCC Online Del 8947

51. In the case of Ramsay Exim and Technology Private Limited (supra), the Calcutta High Court held as follows:-

" 26. A perusal of Section 19(1) of the DRT Act, in conjunction with Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act, indicates that the primary consideration for ascertaining the jurisdiction of the tribunal is not restricted to the situs of the secured asset but is primarily based on the debt itself, be it with regard to the place where the cause of action, wholly or in part, arises or the branch or any other office of a bank or financial institution where it is maintaining an account in which the debt claimed is outstanding for the time being or (in the DRT Act) the defendant resides or works."

27. The only additional feature in subsection (1A) of Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act is clause (b) thereof, which confers jurisdiction additionally on the Debts Recovery Tribunal where the secured asset is located."

28. However, clauses (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1A) are disjunctive and it is the option of the applicant in an application under Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act to choose any of the forums."

29. In such view of the matter, the location of the asset cannot be the sole determinant of the jurisdiction of the tribunal."

52. It is thus evident that the appellate tribunal misappreciated the judgment in the case of Ramsay Exim and Technology Private Limited (supra) which on the contrary has clearly held that location of the asset can not be the sole determinant of jurisdiction of the Tribunal and that clauses (a) (b) and (c) of sub section (1-A) of Section 17 of the SARFAESI Act are disjunctive in nature.

53. So far as reliance placed by appellate tribunal in the case of Amish Jain (supra) is concerned, it is evident that the same is also misplaced since the aforesaid judgment was rendered on 13th September, 2012 whereas Sub Section (1-A) was inserted in Section 17 by virtue of the Act No.44 of 2016 with effect from 1st September, 2016. The said judgment was thus inapplicable in the facts and circumstances of the case.

54. In view of aforesaid, it is held that since notices under Section 13 were issued by the authorized authority situate at Lucknow from where the e-auction was also conducted, part cause of action in terms of Section 17(1-A)(a) was evidently at Lucknow where the securitisation application was thus maintainable.

55. Question No.(A) stands answered accordingly in the affirmative.

56. Question Nos. (B) and (C) are as follows:-

"(B) Whether Section 3 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993, confers exclusive jurisdiction on Debts Recovery Tribunals established thereunder vide notifications of the Central Government?"

(C) Whether Section 3 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993, can be read as conferring exclusive jurisdiction on the Tribunals established thereunder, irrespective of Section 19 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 and Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act, rendering Sections 19 and 17(1A) of the respective Acts as redundant or nugatory?"

Answer to Question Nos. (B) & (C):-

57. In the light of answer rendered by this Court to question No.2 which was additionally framed and in the light of Section 35 of the SARFAESI Act, it is evident that provisions of the SARFAESI Act will supersede the provisions of Section 3 of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act 1993 and any notification issued thereunder, particularly dated 5th December, 2017 would also be subject to provisions of the SARFAESI Act.

58. Question No. B and C stands answered accordingly.

59. Question Nos. (D) and (E) are as follows:-

"(D) Whether the judgment in Saurabh Gupta (supra), which lays down that the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Allahabad shall have exclusive jurisdiction to entertain and decide the applications arisen from 55 districts specified in the notification dated 05.12.2017, without noticing Section 19 of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993 and Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act, as also the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Sri Nasiruddin (supra) lays down the law correctly ?"

"(E) Whether the judgment in Saurabh Gupta (supra) is contrary to the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sri Nasiruddin (supra) and is liable to be declared as not good law ?"

Answer to Question Nos. (D) & (E):-

60. With regard to judgment rendered by another learned Single Judge of this Court in the case of Saurabh Gupta (supra), it is evident that the said judgment has been rendered solely on the basis of notification dated 15th February, 2017 issued in pursuance of Section 3 of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993. The aforesaid notification conferred jurisdiction of 12 districts of Uttar Pradesh with the Debts Recovery Tribunal at Lucknow and 55 districts of Uttar Pradesh upon the Debts Recovery Tribunal at Allahabad.

61. Unfortunately the learned Single Judge has taken the aforesaid notification dated 15th February, 2016 to be the only determining factor while completely ignoring the provisions of Sections 13 and 17 (as amended in 2016) of the SARFAESI Act.

62. It is also evident that judgment has been rendered on an admission made by the learned Additional Solicitor General of India that it is within the sole domain of the Central Government to notify territorial jurisdictions of the Debts Recovery Tribunal under Section 3 of the Act of 1993 and therefore the aforesaid tribunals can exercise jurisdiction only in terms of notification dated 15th February, 2017. It is on this premise that the learned Single Judge has held that it is only Debts Recovery Tribunal at Allahabad which can exercise jurisdiction pertaining to the 55 districts of State of Uttar Pradesh including district of Shahjahanpur whereas the jurisdiction of tribunal at Lucknow is restricted to the 12 districts notified in the notification dated 15th February, 2017.

63. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Madhya Pradesh versus Narmada Bachao Andolan (2011) 7 SCC 639 has expounded the concept of per incurium in the following manner.

"65. "Incuria" literally means "carelessness". In practice per incuriam is taken to mean per ignoratium. The courts have developed this principle in relaxation of the rule of stare decisis. Thus, the "quotable in law" is avoided and ignored if it is rendered in ignorance of a statute or other binding authority.

67. Thus, "per incuriam" are those decisions given in ignorance or forgetfulness of some statutory provision or authority binding on the court concerned, or a statement of law caused by inadvertence or conclusion that has been arrived at without application of mind or proceeded without any reason so that in such a case some part of the decision or some step in the reasoning on which it is based, is found, on that account to be demonstrably wrong."

64. Upon examination of the judgment rendered in the case of Saurabh Gupta(supra), it is evident that the following aspects have clearly escaped attention:-

" (i) that Section 17 (1-A) of the Securitization and Reconstruction of Financial Assets and Enforcement of Security Interest Act, 2002, which specifically provides that an application under Section 17 (1) of the Act, 2002, shall be filed before the D.R.T. within local limits of whose jurisdiction, inter alia, (a) the cause of action wholly or in part arises, escaped consideration,

(ii) Section 19(1) of the Recoveries of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act, 1993, which also provides that, where a bank or a financial institution has to recover any debt from any person, it may make an application to the Tribunal within the local limits of whose jurisdiction:- (a) the branch or any other office of the bank or financial institution is maintaining an account in which debt claimed is outstanding, for the time being; or (aa) the defendant, or each of the defendants where there are more than one, at the time of making the application, actually and voluntarily resides, or carries on business, or personally works for gain; or (b) any of the defendants, where there are more than one, at the time of making the application, actually and voluntarily resides, or carries on business, or personally works for gain; or (c) the cause of action, wholly or in part, arises; also escaped consideration."

65. In view of aforesaid, it is held that judgment rendered by the learned Single Judge in the case of Saurabh Gupta (supra) being per incuriam, does not lay down good law and is hereby overruled.

66. Questions No.(D) and (E) are answered accordingly.

67. In view of aforesaid, additionally framed Question No.1 and its answer is as follows:-

Question No.1:- "Whether clause (a) of Section 17(1A) of the SARFAESI Act is to be read ejusdem generis with Clauses (b) and (c) or is disjunctive? "

Answer to Question No.1:- Clause (a) of Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act is disjunctive from clauses (b) & (c) of Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act and is to be read separately.

68. Additionally Framed Question No.2 and its answer is as follows:-

Question No.2:- "Whether insertion of Section 17(1-A) in the SARFAESI Act would have any overriding effect over provisions of the Debts Recovery Tribunals Act?"

Answer to Question No.2:- The insertion of Section 17(1-A) of the SARFAESI Act would have an overriding effect over provisions of the Recovery of Debts Due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act 1993.

69. The questions referred to are answered as follows:-

(A) Notice issued under Section 13 of the SARFAESI Act would constitute part cause of action as per Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act due to which the Debts Recovery Tribunal at Lucknow would also have jurisdiction to entertain the securitisation application filed by the borrowers.

(B) and (C):- Section 3 of the Recoveries of Debts due to Banks and Financial Institutions Act 1993 does not confer exclusive jurisdiction vide notifications issued by the Central Governments thereunder and such notifications would be subject to Section 17 (1-A) of the SARFAESI Act.

(D) and (E) :- The judgment rendered in the case of Saurabh Gupta versus Union of India, 2018 (127) ALR 388 does not lay down good law and is therefore overruled.

70. The reference is answered accordingly.

71. Office is directed to place the record of writ petition before Hon'ble Single Judge for further orders.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1534
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 10.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Writ -C No. 18282 of 2023

Sheel Mohan Bansal ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Sri Sanjay Goswami, Sukumari Vallabh Goswami

Indian Stamp Act, 1899- Sections 27, 33,47-A 62, 62-A, 64 & 64-B- the authorities cannot proceed under Section 47-A of the Act - for levying stamp duty on a gift deed, the provisions of Section 47- A of the Act do not come into play-no requirement of determination of market value in case of gift deeds- impugned orders set aside.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sumit Gupta v. State of U.P. & Others reported in 2011 (3) ADJ 712;
2. Vijay Kumar vs. Chief Controller, Board of Revenue and others reported in [2017 (136) RD 364]

3. Sai Janseva And Another v. State of U.P. And 4 ors-Writ – C No.5185 of 2022 [Neutral Citation No. - 2024:AHC:21964]]

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)
 (Judgement dictated in Court)

1. Heard Sri Sanjay Goswami, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and Sri Siddharth Singh, learned Standing counsel for the State respondents.

2. This is a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, wherein the petitioner assails the order dated November 18, 2022 passed by respondent no.2 and the order in Appeal dated March 13, 2023 passed by respondent no.3. By virtue of these orders, the authorities have claimed additional stamp duty with regard to a gift deed of a plot of land in question on the ground that the potential of the land would increase the market value of the land. Further ground has been enumerated stating that within 200 meters of land in question there are residential areas as well as within 50 meters there is a petrol pump.

CONTENTIONS OF THE PARTIES

3. Sri Sanjay Goswami, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that the instrument in question being a deed of gift, the entire proceedings that have been initiated by the authorities under Section 47-A (3) of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") is without any basis in law. He has submitted that the authorities concerned does not have the power under Section 47-A of the Act to reassess the stamp duty paid by the petitioner on the grounds that duty would be chargeable on the market value of the property. To buttress his arguments, he relies on the judgements in the matter of Sumit Gupta v. State of U.P. & Others reported in 2011 (3) ADJ 712; Vijay Kumar vs. Chief Controller, Board of Revenue and others reported in [2017 (136) RD 364] and Sai Janseva And Another v. State of U.P. And 4 Others (decided on February 7, 2024 in Writ – C No.5185 of 2022 [Neutral Citation No. - 2024:AHC:21964]) and submits that in the case of gift deed, the ‘value of the property’ is required to be taken and not the ‘market value’. He has emphasized the fact that under Article 33 of the Schedule 1-B of the Act, the description of the instrument wherein a gift is given the proper stamp duty is required to be paid for a consideration equal to the ‘value of the property’.

4. Per contra, counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents has relied on the inspection report to indicate that to the east of the property within 50 meters there is a petrol pump as well as agricultural activities are being carried out. He has further indicated that within 200 meters there are certain residential/commercial activities being carried out. He emphasized that the future potential of the land and the market value of the land would be more, and therefore, actual value should increase by 50%.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

5. Upon a perusal of the judgement of a coordinate Bench of this Court penned by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Pankaj Mithal, J. in Sumit Gupta (Supra) wherein it has been categorically examined whether in case of gift deed there was any application of Section 47-A, and the very concept of market value. The relevant paragraphs are delineated below:-

"The more important aspect involved in this writ petition is whether the authorities under the Act are competent under Section 47-A of the Act to determine the market value of the property referred to in the gift-deed in question for the purposes of levy of stamp duty.

A Gift-deed is chargeable to stamp duty under Article 33 of Schedule 1-B of the Act, which is reproduced as under:

	Description of instrument	Proper Stamp-duty
33.	Gift – Instrument of, not being a Settlement (No.58), or Will or Transfer (No.62) Hiring Agreement or Agreement of Service - See "Agreement" (No.5)	The same duty as a Conveyance No.23 clause (a) for a consideration equal to the value of the property

Note: Emphasis supplied

It provides that a gift is chargeable to stamp duty as a conveyance provided under Article 23 clause (a) for a consideration equal to the value of the property.

It may be noted that in the above Article words used are "value of the property" as distinguished from the "market value", meaning thereby that for the purposes of determining stamp duty on a gift-deed market value is not required to be mentioned/determined. The disclosure of the value of the property in the gift is sufficient for the purposes of payment of stamp duty.

A perusal of Section 47-A of the Act indicates that it comes into play only where the market value of the property in the instrument is disclosed to be lesser than that determined in accordance with the Rules made under the Act. So disclosure of market value of the property is mandatory for the applicability of Section 47-A of the Act and it should be less than the market value determined under the Rules ie. the circle rate prescribed/notified under the Act/Rules.

Thus, there is a clear departure in the language used in Article 33 of the Schedule I-B of the Act and Section 47-A of the Act. Section 47-A of the Act uses the expression in "market value" whereas for levying stamp duty on a gift-deed Article 33 of Schedule I-B of the Act uses the expression "value of the property".

The legislature in its wisdom has differently used the words "value of the property" and "market value" in the Act. It is not without purpose. "Market value" refers to the value of the property prevailing in the market on which the prospective purchaser is ready and willing to purchase and seller is ready and willing to sell the property in the ordinary course of business. Therefore, market value is a bilateral transaction depended upon the will of two persons. On the other hand, 'value' simply connotes the estimated monetary worth of the property in the eyes of the seller and is in the nature of a unilateral act.

In conveyance, such as sale of property, generally two parties, ie. seller and purchaser are involved and the market value of the property is determined on the basis of the market forces ie., demand and supply of the commodity. In a deed of gift it is only the person making the gift who is relevant. It is up to him how he values his property. The value of the property in the eyes of the person receiving the gift is not material. This being the situation, the legislature has deliberately used the word "value of the property" in Article 33 while subjecting the gift to stamp duty and has refrained from using the term "market value".

6. In light of the above judgement, it is patently clear that for levying stamp duty on a gift deed, the provisions of Section 47-A of the Act do not come into play. Furthermore, there is no requirement of determination of market value in case of gift deeds. This judgement was accepted by the authorities and has attained finality. The aforesaid judgment was thereafter cited in Vijay Kumar (Supra) and a coordinate Bench has held that Section 47-A of the Act would have no application whatsoever. The said principle was thereafter, reiterated by a coordinate Bench of this Court in Sai Janseva And Another (Supra).

7. Upon a perusal of the judgements provided above, it is clear that in case of a gift deed that has been accepted and registered, the authorities cannot take reference to Sub-section (3) of Section 47-A of the Act and suo moto seek additional stamp duty based on the market value of the property. However, the question arises that in the case of under valuation that may have been done by the executor of the instrument what recourse is available to the authorities.

8. In my view, the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 provides for various provisions that may be acted upon that are provided in Sections 27, 33, 62, 62-A, 64 and 64-B, wherein, if adequate stamp duty has not been affixed, the authorities can proceed against the executor for prosecution and collection of deficit stamp duty. However, the authorities cannot proceed under Section 47-A of the Act which is what has been done in the present case. It is also seen, that the respondents have not taken into account the judgements cited by the petitioner and proceeded to adjudicate upon their whims and fancies. It was incumbent upon the authorities to have taken note of the judgements cited by the petitioner and pass a reasoned order on the same, which has clearly not been done in the present case. The authorities are directed to be far more cautious in their approach in quasi judicial activities being carried out by them.

9. In light of the above findings, impugned orders dated November 18, 2022 and March 13, 2023 are quashed and set aside.

10. The instant writ petition is allowed in aforesaid terms. Consequential reliefs to follow.

11. The amount that has been deposited by the petitioner is directed to be refunded to the petitioner within a period of six weeks from date along with interest at the rate of 5% from the date of deposit.

12. There shall be no order as to the costs.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1537
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.01.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SARAL SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ -C No. 26636 of 2012

Mohd. Ashif Khan & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
 Sri Neeraj Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

Indian Stamp Act,1899 -Petitioners through sale deed purchased a piece of land-paid stamp duty as per the circle rate prevailing in the area applicable for agricultural land-an inspection of the plot was conducted -report reflects that plotting activities are being carried out in the surrounding of the plot- and also another sale deed from the same plot was executed on which the stamp duty based on circle rate applicable to the residential area was paid-this fact cannot be ignored by the authorities below while determining the nature of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed.

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Manorama Vs. Board of Revenue/CCA of Revenue and Stamp Ald and others, 2022 Lawsuit (All) 1661
2. Ajay Bahadur Vs. State of U.P. and Others, 2023 (12) ADJ 201
3. Smt. Pushpa Sareen Vs. State of U.P., 2015 (3) ADJ 136 (FB).
4. Smt. Saroj Verma Vs. State of U.P. and Others, 2022 (5) ADJ 368 (LB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Saral Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Rishi Kumar, Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the respondents.

2. The petitioners by means of the present writ petition have assailed the order dated 22.03.2010 passed by respondent no.3-Collector Stamp/District Magistrate, Shajahanpur in Stamp Case No.67/24/2009, under Section 47A (3) of the Indian Stamp Act determining the deficiency of stamp duty to the tune of Rs.14,53,410/- and, imposition of penalty of Rs.1590/- and interest at the rate of 1.5% per month, and the order dated 25.04.2012 passed by the respondent no.2-Chief Controlling Revenue Authority/Board of Revenue U.P. at Allahabad in Stamp Appeal No.50/2011-12 affirming the order passed by the respondent no.3-Collector Stamp.

3. The facts, in brief, are that the petitioners through sale deed No.8006/2009, dated 13.04.2009, purchased a piece of land measuring area 1.166 hectares i.e. 11,660 sq. meters from plot No.64 having a total area of 2.485 hectares situated in the village Northern Area of the City outside Chungi near Village Chinnaur for agricultural purpose and paid stamp duty as per the circle rate prevailing in the area applicable for agricultural land i.e. Rs.9,42,000/- per hectare (hereinafter referred to as the 'plot').

4. According to the petitioners, the distance of the plot purchased by them from the road is about 1 kilometre and the Abadi is also about 1/2 kilometre from the plot. Since the use of the plot on the date of the sale deed was agricultural, therefore, the petitioners paid the stamp duty of Rs.77,000/-.

5. It appears that an inspection of the plot was conducted by the Sub Registrar, Sadar, Shahjahanpur on 11.08.2009. He found that Gata No.64 is situated on the road connecting to brick-klin (Bhatta), and the bricks have been stored on the plot, and plotting activities were also being carried out over the plot. The report of the Sub-Registrar further stated that another sale deed No.3613/09 was executed from the same plot. In the sale deed No.3613/09, stamp duty was paid as per the circle rate applicable to the residential area. The Assistant Collector (Stamp) registered a case based on the report of the Sub Registrar, under Section 47A(3) of the Indian Stamp Act as case No.67/24/2009 and issued notice to the petitioners calling upon them to submit an objection about the deficiency in payment of stamp duty.

6. The petitioners submitted an objection contending inter-alia that the report of the Sub-Registrar is based upon incorrect facts. It is also stated that the plot is an agricultural plot and is surrounded by agricultural land, therefore, the petitioners have paid the correct stamp duty as per the circle rate applicable to the agricultural land.

7. The Collector (Stamp) rejected the objection of the petitioners by recording a finding that the stamp duty as per residential area was paid in respect to another sale deed No.3613/09 purchased from the same plot which establishes that the residential activities are being carried out in the vicinity of the plot, and the petitioners have submitted incorrect map along with the sale deed to pay insufficient stamp duty. Accordingly, he concluded that the petitioners are liable to pay the stamp duty applicable to the residential land. Consequently, he determined the deficiency of stamp duty to the tune of Rs. 14,53,410/- . He further imposed a penalty of Rs.1590/- and interest at the rate of 1.5% per month on the deficient stamp duty.

8. The order passed by the Collector Stamp was assailed by the petitioners in statutory appeal being Stamp Appeal No.50/2011-12. In the memo of appeal, petitioners have specifically stated that the report of the Sub-Registrar was ex- parte and no spot inspection was carried out by the Collector Stamp before determining the stamp duty. It is further stated that the sale deed No.3613/09 is not relevant for the determination of the present case.

9. The Respondent no.2-Chief Controlling Revenue Authority rejected the appeal of the petitioners vide order dated 25.04.2012 by recording a finding that though the petitioners have filed Khasra of the plot for Fasli Year 1415, 1416, 1417 which corresponds to the Year 2008, 2009 & 2010 which reflects that the crop of wheat and paddy were sown on the plot. However, he did not consider the Khasra on the ground that the plot is a big plot having an area of 2.485 hectares whereas the plot purchased by the petitioners is 1.166 hectares, and Khasra does not establish that the agricultural activity is being carried on over the area 1.166 hectare of plot purchased by the petitioners, and since another sale deed No. 3613/09 out of the same plot was executed on which the stamp duty applicable to the residential area has been paid, therefore, it cannot be denied that the land has a potential of residential land. Consequently, he held that the Collector (Stamp) had correctly determined the stamp duty.

10. Challenging the aforesaid orders, learned counsel for the petitioners has contended that the impugned order cannot be sustained since there is non-compliance with Rule 7(3)(C) of Uttar Pradesh Stamp (Valuation of Property), Rules, 1997 (hereinafter referred to as 'Rules, 1997'). It is submitted that except the report of the Sub-Registrar, there was no evidence on record to conclude that any residential activity was being carried out on the plot, and therefore, in such circumstances, it was incumbent upon the Collector Stamp to conduct an inspection as contemplated under the Rules, 1997 after giving due notice to the petitioners, and since, in the instant case it has not been done by the Collector, therefore, the orders impugned are per se illegal. He has placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court in the case of Smt. Saroj Verma Vs. State of U.P. and Others, 2022 (5) ADJ 368 (LB). He has further submitted that on the date of execution of the sale deed, the plot was an agricultural plot and while determining the stamp duty, the future potentiality of the land is not to be considered or looked into and the stamp duty is to be paid as per the nature of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed.

11. It is submitted that in the instant case, since the plot was an agricultural plot, therefore, the correct stamp duty has been paid by the petitioners as applicable to the agricultural plot and the authority below failed to consider this aspect of the matter. Accordingly, it is submitted that the impugned orders are liable to be set aside on this ground alone. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court in the case of Manorama Vs. Board of Revenue/CCA of Revenue and Stamp Ald and others, 2022 Lawsuit (All) 1661.

12. It is further submitted that in a proceeding under the Stamp Act, the burden is upon the State to prove that correct stamp duty has not been paid on the instrument, and since the State has failed to establish that on the date of execution of sale deed, the plot was a residential plot, therefore, the orders impugned cannot be sustained. In support of his submissions, he has placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court in the case of Ajay Bahadur Vs. State of U.P. and Others, 2023 (12) ADJ 201.

13. Per contra, learned Standing Counsel would contend that in the instant case, the report of the Sub Registrar reflects that another sale deed No.3613/09 executed from the same plot, the stamp duty as applicable to the residential plot was paid and this fact alone is sufficient to conclude that on the date of execution of sale deed, the land has the potential of residential use and the Collector Stamp has rightly concluded that there is deficiency to the tune of Rs.14,53,410/-.It is submitted that the fact that the sale deed No.3613/09 from the same plot was executed, the stamp duty applicable to the residential area had been paid on the said instrument, and sale deed No.3613/09 has not been denied, therefore, the State has discharged its burden of proving that on the date of execution of sale deed, the land has the potential of residential use. He further contends that it is not a case where the authority below has relied upon only the ex-parte report of the Sub Registrar, but also another documentary evidence i.e. sale deed No.3613/09 which was in respect of a plot carved out from the same plot from which the petitioners have purchased the plot, and which instrument has not been denied by the petitioners, therefore, there was enough evidence on record to conclude that the plot has the potentiality of residential use and in such view of the fact, the Collector Stamp didn't need to conduct any enquiry contemplated under the Rules, 1997. Accordingly, it is submitted that the petitioners have failed to make out any case for interference by this Court and the writ petitions lack merit and deserve to be dismissed.

14. I have considered the rival submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

15. The facts as emanates from the record are that the petitioners purchased a plot having an area of 1.66 hectares by sale deed No.8006/09 dated 13.04.2009 from plot No.64 having an area of 2.485 hectares situated in the Village Chinnaur for agriculture purposes. An inspection of the plot was conducted by the Sub-Registrar and he submitted the report which is reproduced below:-

“श्रीमान जी,

उपरोक्त विलेख द्वारा अन्तरित सम्पत्ति ग्राम चिनौर के लगे हुए स्थित है जो ग्राम चिनौर से गर्ग के भट्टे को जाने वाले मार्ग पर स्थित गाटा सं०64 का अंश है जिसमें मौके पर ईंटे गड़ी हुई है तथा प्लाटिंग हो रही है जिसमें कुछ प्लाटों की नींव भी भरी जा रही है। इसी गाटा में से आवासीय दर से बैनामा विलेख सं० 3618/09 हुआ है जिसमें निकटतम स्थित ग्राम चिनौर की आवासीय दर से मूल्यांकन किया गया है। ”

16. Perusal of the report reflects that the Sub-Registrar while inspecting the plot found that the plotting activities are being carried out in the surrounding of the plot of the petitioners and also another sale deed No.3613/09 from the same plot i.e. khasra No.64 was executed on which the stamp duty based on circle rate applicable to the residential area was paid. Accordingly, a case under Section 47A of the Indian Stamp Act was registered against the petitioners, and a notice was issued.

17. In the instant case, though the report of the Sub-Registrar was indeed an ex-parte report, and after institution of proceeding under Section 47 A (3) of the Indian Stamp Act, no inspection was conducted by the Collector (Stamp) as contemplated under the Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997, but in the present case, there is an additional factor which needs to be noticed that another sale deed No.3613/09 of a plot which was carved out from the same plot from which the petitioners purchased the plot was executed in which stamp duty chargeable to residential area was paid. The fact that the sale deed No.3613/09 was executed from the same plot i.e. plot No.64 from which the petitioners have also purchased the plot, and the fact that the stamp duty applicable to residential land has been paid at the time of execution of sale deed No.3613/09 is not denied by the petitioners and is admitted fact between the parties.

18. In the light of the aforesaid fact, now the Court proceeds to consider the arguments advanced by the respective counsel.

19. So far as the first argument of learned counsel for the petitioners regarding the issue of non-compliance of Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997 is concerned, this Court may note that the power under Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997 conferred upon the Collector is only discretionary and is not mandatory in cases where there is other evidence on record from which nature of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed can be determined. Though it is true that the Collector is conferred with the power to do spot inspection of the property under Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997, the said power is to be exercised depending upon the facts of each case. The Collector while determining the deficiency of stamp duty is bound to follow Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997 where there is no evidence on record to determine the nature of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed, since the ex-parte report of the Sub-Registrar cannot be relied upon against the assessee inasmuch as placing reliance on such report would violate the principles of natural justice.

20. The judgment of this Court in the case of Smt. Saroj Verma (supra) relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioners has been rendered in a fact situation where the Collector Stamp has placed reliance upon the ex-parte report of the Sub-Registrar, and there was no other evidence on record which could establish the nature of the land on the date of execution of sale deed, and in such circumstances, this Court held that the Collector Stamp was bound to comply with Rule 7 (3) (C) of the Rules, 1997 to determine the stamp duty. This judgment is not applicable in the facts of the present case because of the admitted fact between the parties that on the sale deed No.3613/09 in respect of a plot carved out from the same plot from which petitioners' plot has been taken out, stamp duty applicable to the residential plot has been paid. This instrument itself is sufficient to determine the potentiality of land that the land has potential for residential use on the date of execution of the sale deed.

21. So far as the other argument of learned counsel for the petitioners regarding burden of proof is concerned, there is no quarrel to the proposition of law that the burden is upon the State to establish by leading cogent evidence on record that incorrect stamp duty has been paid on an instrument as has been held by this Court in the case of Ajay Bahadur (supra), but in the instant case, the State has discharged its burden by placing reliance upon the sale deed No.3613/09, which instrument is not denied and on the said sale deed stamp duty applicable to residential plot has been paid.

22. Now, coming to the last submission of learned counsel for the petitioners the potentiality of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed is to be seen and no future potentiality of the land is to be considered while determining the stamp duty. This Court may note that there is also no quarrel to the aforesaid proposition as has been held by the Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Manorama (supra) wherein this Court has also considered and reproduced in paragraph no.13 paragraphs no. 26 to 28 of Full Bench judgement of this Court in the case of Smt. Pushpa Sareen Vs. State of U.P., 2015 (3) ADJ 136 (FB).

23. However, the facts of the present case are different from the facts in the case of Manorama (supra). In paragraphs nos.14 to 16 of the said judgement, this Court records reasons for holding the order passed by the authority are not sustainable in law. Paragraphs no.14 to 16 are reproduced herein-below:-

“14. In the present case except the Naib Tehsildar report dated 06.11.1995, revenue record and the sale deed in question there was no evidence on record to hold that land in dispute is not an agricultural land as such the impugned orders cannot be sustained in the eye of law in which on the point of future potential of the land without any basis the stamp duty paid by the petitioner was found deficient.

15. The case law cited by learned counsel for the petitioner in Chotey Lal (Supra) is also applicable in the present controversy in which the full bench decision rendered in Smt. Pushpa Sarin (Supra) has been also considered.

16. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as ratio law laid down in Smt. Pushpa Sarin (supra) and Chhotey Lal (Supra) the impugned order dated 29.01.1996 passed by the Additional Collector and order dated 14.05.2001 passed by the Board of Revenue Allahabad cannot be sustained in the eye of law as such the same are hereby set aside. The writ petition stands allowed. No order as to costs.”

24. The reading of para-14 reflects that except the report of Naib Tehsildar dated 06.11.1995, there was no other evidence on record to conclude that the land in question is not agricultural. In the instant case, it is not solely the report of the Sub-Registrar but also, there is sale deed No.3613/09 in respect of a plot which was carved out from plot No.64, from which the petitioners purchased the plot, in which the stamp duty applicable to the residential area was paid. This document is not denied by the petitioners in the memo of appeal or the writ petition.

25. At this juncture, it would be apposite to have a glance at paragraphs no.26, 27 & 28 of the Full Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Pushpa Sareen (supra) which are reproduced herein-below:-

“26. The true test for determination by the Collector is the market value of the property on the date of the instrument because, under the provisions of the Act, every instrument is required to be stamped before or at the time of execution. In making that determination, the Collector has to be mindful of the fact that the market value of the property may vary from location to location and is dependent upon a large number of circumstances having a bearing on the comparative advantages or disadvantages of the land as well as the use to which the land can be put on the date of the execution of the instrument.

27. Undoubtedly, the Collector is not permitted to launch upon a speculative inquiry about the prospective use to which a land may be put to use at an uncertain future date. The market value of the property has to be determined with reference to the use to which the land is capable reasonably of being put to immediately or in the proximate future. The possibility of the land becoming available in the immediate or near future for better use and enjoyment reflects upon the potentiality of the land. This potential has to be assessed with reference to the date of the execution of the instrument. In other words, the power of the Collector cannot be unduly circumscribed by ruling out the potential to which the land can be advantageously deployed at the time of the execution of the instrument or a period reasonably proximate thereto. Again the use to which land in the area had been put is a material consideration. If the land surrounding the property in question has been put to commercial use, it would be improper to hold that this is a circumstance which should not weigh with the Collector as a factor which influences the market value of the land.

28. The fact that the land was put to a particular use, say for instance a commercial purpose at a later point in time, may not be a relevant criterion for deciding the value for the purpose of stamp duty, as held by the Supreme Court in State of U.P. and others vs. Ambrish Tandon and another (2012) 5 SCC 566. This is because the nature of the user is relateable to the date of purchase which is relevant for the purpose of computing the stamp duty. Where, however, the potential of the land can be assessed on the date of the execution of the instrument itself, that is clearly a circumstance which is relevant and germane to the determination of the true market value. At the same time, the exercise before the Collector has to be based on adequate material and cannot be a matter of hypothesis or surmise. The Collector must have material on the record to the effect that there has been a change of use or other contemporaneous sale deeds in respect of the adjacent areas that would have a bearing on the market value of the property which is under consideration. The Collector, therefore, would be within jurisdiction in referring to exemplars or comparable sale instances which have a bearing on the true market value of the property which is required to be assessed. If the sale instances are comparable, they would also reflect the potentiality of the land which would be taken into consideration in a price agreed upon between a vendor and a purchaser."

26. In the instant case, the law postulated by the Full Bench in paragraph-27 & 28 answers the contention advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioners that though the potentiality of the land is to be seen on the date of execution of the sale deed, but if the land surrounding the property in question has been put to commercial use, it would be improper to hold that this is a circumstance which should not be considered by the Collector as a factor which influences the market value of the land.

27. In the present case, sale deed No.3613/09 was executed from plot No.64 on which the stamp duty applicable to residential land has been paid. Once execution of the sale deed No.3613/09 is not denied by the petitioners nor the fact that stamp duty applicable to the residential plot has been paid in the sale deed No.3613/09, this fact cannot be ignored by the authorities below while determining the nature of the land on the date of execution of the sale deed. The sale deed No.3613/09 which is in respect of plot which was part of plot No.64 from which the petitioners have purchased the plot reflects that the plot purchased by the petitioners has the potential to be used for the residential plot on the date of execution of sale deed, and in such view of the fact, this Court is of the view that both the authorities below have not committed any error in determining the deficiency of stamp duty of Rs.14,53,410/-

28. It is also urged by the learned counsel for the petitioners that another sale deed No.8185/09 dated 04.08.2009 has been executed from the same plot i.e. plot no.64 on which the stamp duty applicable to the agricultural land has been paid. The said sale deed has been filed along with the supplementary affidavit dated 14.12.2022. Accordingly, it is submitted that the State cannot act arbitrarily and discriminate between the two assessee's identically circumstanced in charging stamp duty.

29. The said argument in the opinion of the Court is fallacious and is incorrect. The sale deed No.8185/09 was not placed before the authority below i.e. either before the Collector (Stamp) or before the appellate authority and this has been placed for the first time in the writ petition. This Court is not inclined to accept the said sale deed as evidence inasmuch as if it is treated to be evidence, then the opportunity of hearing has to be given to the respondents to explain under what circumstances the instrument i.e. sale deed No.8185/09 has been charged on agricultural basis. Secondly, the petitioners have not stated whether any proceeding under Section 47A of the Indian Stamp Act has been drawn against the vendee of sale deed No.8185/09. Thirdly, Article 14 of the Constitution of India cannot come into play to perpetuate any illegality, and in the present case, there was sufficient material before the authority below to determine that the plot of the petitioners has the potentiality of residential use on the date of execution of sale deed, therefore, the petitioners cannot take advantage of sale deed No.8185/09.

30. Thus, for the reasons given above, this Court finds that the writ petition lacks merit. It is accordingly, dismissed with no order as to costs.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1544
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 26.02.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE JAYANT BANERJI, J.

Writ-C No. 39170 of 2023

M/s Suddhtam Enterprises ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Sri Ashutosh Tiwari, Sri Himanshu Srivastava, Sri Madan Lal Srivastava, Sri Mukesh Prasad (Sr. Adv.)

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C.

Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-an e-tender-cum-e-auction notice was issued on 11.09.2023 for mining rights in banda district, covering specific plots-four companies participated-Respondent no.6 offered highest bid of Rs. 231, while the petitioner offered the second highest bid of Rs. 205-The petitioner challenged the acceptance of Respondent no.6's bid, citing irregularities, specifically documents submitted (aadhar card, pan card, character certificate) were not self attested, violating tender notice conditions-Held,The chief Treasury Officer Banda had no authority to recommend cancellation of the e-auction as he was not part of the committee-The committee constituted by District Magistrate failed to scrutinize tender documents properly, leading to the financial bid of respondent no.6 being opened despite its non-compliance with condition no. 6of the tender notice-Thus, the petitioner's bid was valid and should have been declared the highest, as it was above the reserve price and complied with all tender conditions-The impugned orders were quashed-The petitioner's bid was ordered to be accepted.(Para 1 to 15)

The writ petition is allowed. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anjani Kumar
Mishra, J.

&

Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.)

1. Heard Shri Mukesh Prasad, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner and Shri Ankur Tandon, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. The petitioner has challenged the letter/order dated 21.10.2023 passed by the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda as also an Advertisement No.784/Khanij-30, Banda dated 28.10.2023 issued by the District Magistrate, Banda.

3. It appears that e-tender-cum-e-auction notice no.344/Khanij-30 was published on 11.09.2023 inviting bids for short term permit, also regarding Gata

No.62 and 63/1 Area 42.00 acre, Village Khapatiha Kala, Tehsil Pailani, District Banda.

4. In the said e-auction, four companies participated for the aforesaid two plots. The highest bid was that of respondent no.6 M/s G.D.S. Infrastructure through its Proprietor, at Rs.231 while the petitioner's bid at Rs.205 was the second highest.

5. The petitioner is stated to have filed an application stating that the copies of the Aadhaar Card, Pan Card and Character Certificate filed by G.D.S. Infrastructure were not self attested and its bid was therefore irregular, contrary to the tender notice and not liable to be considered.

6. Thereafter, a letter was written on 21.10.2023 by the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda to the A.D.M. (Finance and Revenue) indicating that the deficiency in the bid documents had not been noticed at the time of opening of the technical bid and thereafter financial bids were wrongly opened. It was recommended that e-auction was cancelled and the fresh e-auction be resorted to. Thereafter a fresh e-auction notice was issued.

7. When the matter came up for admission, the Court directed learned Standing Counsel to seek instructions as to the role of the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda in the bidding process.

8. A copy of the instructions received have been made available for perusal by the Court.

9. In paragraph 2 of the instructions, it has been stated that the District Magistrate, Banda had constituted a Committee to examine the applications received in response to the e-auction notice. This Committee opened the technical bids on 05.10.2023 and found that all required documents were attached along with bid of G.D.S. Infrastructure and other bidders. Thereafter, the financial bids were also opened on 05.10.2023. The bid of the G.D.S. Infrastructure was found to be the highest at Rs.231. The financial bid of G.D.S. Infrastructure was wrongly opened as condition no.6 of the tender notice had not been complied as some documents had not been self attested.

10. On coming to know of this fact that the documents accompanying e-bid of G.D.S. Infrastructure were not self attested, the opinion of the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda was sought, whereupon the letter dated 21.10.2023 was written. The e-auction was cancelled and a fresh e-auction notice was issued by the order of the District Magistrate on 27.10.2023, which is also under challenge in this writ petition.

11. From the instructions received, it emerges that a Committee had been constituted by the District Magistrate to process bids received consequent to publication of a e-tender notice. The constitution of this Committee has not been disclosed. However, what clearly emerges from the record is that this Committee did not perform its functions properly and did not scrutinize the tender documents. It was on account of this laxity that the financial bid of the respondent was opened, although it should not have been opened as it did not comply with all the conditions of the e-tender notice.

12. We also find substance in the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that since the bid of the petitioner was above the reserve price and did not suffer from any legal defect as it complied with all the conditions of the tender notice, the ineligible bid should have been discarded and the petitioner was liable to be declared the highest bidder and was liable to be awarded the contract and in failing to do so, the respondents have committed patent illegality.

13. It is also not clear from the instructions received as to who referred the matter to the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda. It is not the respondent's case that the Chief Treasury Officer was a member of the Committee constituted to examine and process the e-tenders and, therefore, the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda for all practical purposes was an unconcerned person. Therefore, he had no right to recommend cancellation of the e-tender notice as a whole.

14. There is also substance in the contention of learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is being penalized for no fault on his part, especially when his bid, amongst all valid bids, was the highest. The respondents have tried to gloss over the laxity and dereliction duty on the part of the Committee constituted to process the e-tenders received and the petitioner is being penalized for this fault.

15. Accordingly, the writ petition is liable to be and is hereby, allowed. The letter/order dated 21.10.2023 passed by the Chief Treasury Officer, Banda as also the Advertisement No.784/Khanij-30, Banda dated 28.10.2023 issued by the District Magistrate, Banda, are hereby quashed with the observation that the petitioners' bid being the highest among all valid and complete bids, and was above the reserve price, the same was liable to be accepted.

16. It is ordered accordingly.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1547

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

Writ -C No. 39901 of 2018

Om Prakash ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Prateek Kumar

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulations) Act, 1957 -Burden of proof in Penal provision-Initial action of respondents was interfered with by this Court- firstly, by passing an interim order and thereafter by setting aside the order impugned itself in 2018 - liberty was granted to the respondents to take a fresh decision- the subsequent report dated 30.04.2018 clearly mentions that the digging depth was 1.30 meters- impugned order passed-casts a 'negative burden' upon the petitioner to establish the permissible depth - concerning digging activity prior to issuance of Government Order dated 24.12.2012 -order impugned is fiscal in nature- the burden to establish the guilt or wrong of the petitioner cannot be shifted to or fastened upon the petitioner to prove negatively- entitled to get the benefit of Government Order dated 24.12.2012-impugned order quashed.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ramvir Singh vs State of U.P. and 2 others, 2016 (5) AWC 5431

2. Bharat Barrel and Drum Manufacturing Company vs Amin Chand Payrelal, AIR 1999 SC 1008

3. Tolaram Relumal and another vs State of Bombay, AIR 1954 SC 496

4. M/s Virtual Soft System Ltd. vs. Commissioner of Income Tax, 2007 (9) SCC 665

5. Abhiram Singh vs C.D. Commachen (Dead) by L.Rs. and others, 2017 (2) SCC 629

6. Excel Crop Care Ltd. Vs Competition Commission of India and others, 2017 (8) SCC 47

7. Isher Das vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1972 SC 1295

8. Assistant Commissioner vs Velliappa Textiles, (2003) 132 Taxman 165

9. Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti and others vs Pilibhit Pantnagar Beej Ltd. and another, AIR 2003 SCW 6696

(Delivered by Hon'ble Kshitij Shailendra, J.)

1. Heard Shri Prateek Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, Shri Rajiv Gupta, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for all the respondents and perused the record.

2. Counter and rejoinder affidavits have been exchanged between the parties and, therefore, the writ petition is being finally decided.

3. The petitioner is aggrieved by the order impugned dated 15.11.2018 whereby the Additional District Magistrate (Finance & Revenue), Bulandshahr (respondent No. 2) has levied upon him a sum of Rs. 1,46,360/- (Royalty Rs. 21,060 + Mineral Value Rs.

1,05,300/- + compounding Fee Rs. 20,000/-) under Rules 3 and 70 of U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) Rules, 1963 read with Section 4 of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulations) Act, 1957.

4. The facts of the case are that the petitioner claims to be joint tenure holder of Bhumindhari land covered by Khasra Plot No. 133 measuring 2.3040 hectares situated at village Fatehpur Buzurg, Pargana Baran, Tehsil and District Bulandshahr; copy of revenue records annexed. It is pleaded that in pursuance of an inquiry dated 15.06.2012 held behind the back of the petitioner, a report was prepared by the Tehsildar, Sadar, Bulandshahr recording that the petitioner had indulged in mining of soil to the volume of 2340 cubic meters. A notice was, thereafter, said to be issued to the petitioner on 25.06.2012, but it remained unserved upon him and, based thereupon, the respondent No. 2 passed an order dated 19.09.2012 issuing recovery against the petitioner to the tune of Rs. 1,46,360/-. The petitioner, having come to know about the order, challenged the same by filing Writ C No. 64507 of 2012 (Om Prakash vs State of U.P. and others), in which an interim order was passed by this Court on 18.12.2012 restraining coercive steps against him in pursuance of the order dated 19.09.2012. Later on, the writ petition was disposed of vide order dated 05.07.2018 setting aside the order dated 19.09.2012 on the ground of violation of principles of natural justice, however, this Court permitted the authorities to pass fresh order after providing opportunity of hearing to the petitioner leaving it open to him to take all legal pleas permissible under the law. It appears that pending writ petition, a fresh inquiry was conducted culminating into a report dated 30.04.2018 prepared by the Tehsildar recording that the petitioner had indulged in mining of 2340 cubic meters of soil upto the depth of 1.30 meters. Relying upon the said inquiry report, the order dated 15.11.2018, impugned in the instant petition, has been passed levying the aforesaid sums upon the petitioner.

5. The case of the petitioner, in a nutshell, is that the Government of U.P. had issued a Government Order dated 24.12.2012 providing that if any manual excavation of ordinary earth takes place and the depth of mining site is not more than two meters, the action would not fall under 'mining operations' and, hence, the impugned levy is liable to be set aside.

6. A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of all the respondents stating that the petitioner's case based upon the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 has no substance inasmuch as the proceedings had begun in furtherance of inquiry report dated 15.06.2012, by which time, the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 had not come in existence. Further defence is that, even otherwise, the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 itself provides for payment of royalty for the excavation of soil for the purpose of brick-kiln and since the petitioner had admitted digging of soil by him, though it is less than two meters depth, but was done for commercial purpose, the levy upon him was justified as the activity undertaken by the petitioner would fall within the purview of 'mining operations'.

7. The rejoinder affidavit filed by the petitioner states that reliance placed on the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 having the Subject: "In Relation to U.P. Minerals (Concession) (35th Amendment) Rules, 2012", is perfectly justified as the Government Order has already been interpreted by this Court in the case of Ramvir Singh vs State of U.P. and 2 others, 2016 (5) AWC 5431. It is further stated that since the impugned order has been passed on the basis of inquiry report dated 30.04.2018, by which time the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 had already come into existence, reliance placed by the petitioner on the said Government Order cannot be said to be misplaced.

8. We have heard the learned counsel for the parties and to appreciate the controversy involved in the instant case, it is first necessary to refer the aforesaid Government Order dated 24.12.2012, which reads as under:

"प्रेषक,

संख्या 3514/86-2012.235/2010

विवेक वाष्णीय

विशेष सचिव

उत्तर प्रदेश शासन।

सेवा में,

1. निदेशक भूतत्व एवं खनिकर्म,

उ०प्र०, लखनऊ।

2. समस्त जिलाधिकारी।

3. समस्त मण्डलायुक्त।

भूतत्व एवं खनिकर्म अनुभाग: लखनऊ

दिनांक 24 दिसम्बर, 2012

विषय: उत्तर प्रदेश खनिज परिहार
पैंतीसवाँ संशोधन नियमावली, 2012 के सम्बन्ध में।

महोदय,

अवगत कराना है कि उपर्युक्त संशोधन
के अन्तर्गत ईट भट्ठों के संचालन में पर्यावरण

स्वच्छता प्रमाण पत्र की बाध्यता को समाप्त
किये जाने के दृष्टिगत संशोधन नियमावली के
नियम-3 में स्पष्टीकरण तथा नियम-21-1 के
बाद उप नियम-1-क निम्नवत् जोड़ दिया गया
है।

1. स्पष्टीकरण:- ईट बनाने हेतु
हस्तचालन से खुदायी द्वारा अथवा हस्तचालन
से सामान्य मिट्टी को निकालने की क्रिया
खनन संक्रियाओं के अंतर्गत नहीं आयेगी जब
तक कि खनन स्थल की गहराई 02 मीटर से
अधिक न हो।

2.1 - क नियम-3 में किसी बात के
प्रतिकूल होते हुये भी ईट भट्ठा मालिकों को
नियमावली की प्रथम अनुसूची में तत्समय
विनिर्दिष्ट दरों पर स्वामित्व का भुगतान करना
होगा।

इस संबंध में मुझे यह कहने का निर्देश
हुआ है कि ईट भट्ठों के संचालन के संबंध में
उपर्युक्तानुसार आवश्यक कार्यवाही करने का कष्ट करें।

भवदीय,

विवेक वाष्णीय

विशेष सचिव

From-

No. 3514/862012235/2010

Vivek Varshney,

Special Secretary, Government of Uttar Pradesh.

To-

1. The Director, Geology and Mining, U.P.

2. All District Magistrates,

3. All Divisional Commissioners
Geology and Mining Section
Lucknow: Dated: 24th Dec, 2012

Sub: Uttar Pradesh Minerals (Concession) (Thirty Fifth Amendment)
Rules, 2012 - Reg.
Sir,

It is to inform you that under the aforesaid amendment, in view of the essentiality of environment clearance certificate having been dispensed with for operation of brick kilns, "Clarification" has been added to Rule 3, and Sub Rule (1A) to Rule 211 of the amendment rules as under:

1. Clarification: For brick making, the act of taking out the ordinary earth by way of manual digging or hand movements shall not fall under mining operations unless the depth of the mining site is more than 2 metres.

2. 1A: Notwithstanding anything contrary in Rule 3, the brick kiln owners shall be liable to pay for their titles at the rate specified for the time being in the first schedule of the Rules.

In this regard, I am directed to say that for operation of brick kilns, please take necessary action as mentioned above.

Sincerely,
(Vivek Varshney)
Special Secretary"
(English translation by the Court)

9. A perusal of the aforesaid Government Order clearly reveals that if manual digging is done upto the depth of two meters, the activity shall not fall under 'mining operations' and, hence, no penal/fiscal action can be initiated against the person concerned.

10. In the instant case, though the proceedings had initiated pursuant to the Tehsildar's report dated 15.06.2012, however, the order based thereupon was passed on 19.09.2012 and the action undertaken against the petitioner on that basis was initially stayed by this Court by an interim order dated 18.12.2012 passed in Writ C No. 64507 of 2012 and, later on, the writ petition was disposed of setting aside the impugned order therein on 05.07.2018 and when the matter was left open to be decided by the authorities afresh, the action was taken based upon another inspection report dated 30.04.2018 that came in existence pending the writ petition. The said report records that digging was done upto the depth of 1.30 meters to the extent of 2340 cubic meters. Surprisingly, the report dated 30.04.2018 does not mention the date of inspection, however, figure 2340 cubic meters is the same, which was mentioned in the initial report dated 15.06.2012. Additionally, depth of 1.30 mts. has been mentioned in the report dated 30.04.2018 that was not mentioned in the previous report dated 15.06.2012. Therefore, in absence of any material contrary to the defence of the petitioner, the report dated 30.04.2018 would be referable to the same period of time when the first report had come into existence in June, 2012.

11. The order impugned takes note of the defence of the petitioner based upon the Government Order dated 24.12.2012, however, it mentions that since the proceedings against the petitioner had begun in June, 2012, by which time the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 had not been issued, the petitioner would not get any benefit of the same. Additionally, the order impugned records as follows:

“उक्त के अतिरिक्त यह भी उल्लेखनीय है कि विपक्षी अथवा सहायक भू-वैज्ञानिक, बुलन्दशहर की ओर से ऐसा कोई शासनादेश प्रस्तुत नहीं किया कि शासनादेश दिनांक 24.12.2012 के प्रभावी होने से पूर्व मिट्टी खनन की गहराई का कोई मापदण्ड हो कि कितनी गहराई तक खनन अवैध खनन की श्रेणी में नहीं आयेगा। ऐसी स्थिति में उक्त शासनादेश प्रश्नगत प्रकरण पर प्रभावी न होने के कारण विपक्षी द्वारा किया गया मिट्टी का खनन मिट्टी खनन की श्रेणी में आता है।"

12. Learned counsel for the petitioner has urged that the issue raised through this petition is squarely covered by Division Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Ramvir Singh (supra), wherein this Court had dealt with identical case of a farmer having bhumidhari rights in an agricultural land and, after interpreting the aforesaid Government Order dated 24.12.2012, the action impugned before this Court was found to be illegal and, consequently, this Court set aside the impugned recovery by allowing the writ petition and also imposed cost upon the State-respondents. He further submits that the respondents, in their counter affidavit, have admitted the depth of digging to be less than two metres and, therefore, the impugned levy is liable to be struck down.

13. On the other hand, Shri Rajiv Gupta, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel, by referring to the counter affidavit, tried to distinguish the judgment in the case of Ramvir Singh (supra) on facts arguing that, in that case, digging had taken place in the year 2015 when the Government Order dated 24.12.2012 was in operation whereas, in the present case, the action had begun prior to issuance of the said Government Order and, therefore, the petitioner would not get any benefit of the said judgment or the Government Order itself. He further submits that, even otherwise, irrespective of the depth of digging, the Government Order does not save those who are involved in brick making.

14. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, the Court finds that the initial action of respondents that commenced pursuant to the report dated 15.06.2012 was interfered with by this Court, firstly, by passing an interim order in the year 2012 and, thereafter, by setting aside the order impugned itself in 2018 and, though liberty was granted to the respondents to take a fresh decision, the subsequent report dated 30.04.2018 clearly mentions that the digging depth was 1.30 meters. The order impugned, in fact, casts a 'negative burden' upon the petitioner to establish as to what was the permissible depth concerning digging activity prior to issuance of Government Order dated 24.12.2012 and it has been strangely observed in the order impugned that the petitioner has not brought anything to demonstrate that digging activity upto what extent would not fall within the meaning of "illegal mining operations".

(Emphasis Supplied)

15. The Court is not satisfied by the defence taken in the counter affidavit or the reasoning assigned in the order impugned for following multiple reasons.

16. It is well settled that the penal and fiscal provisions must be strictly construed and since the order impugned is fiscal in nature, the burden to establish the guilt or wrong of the petitioner, if any, lay upon the respondents and it cannot be shifted to or fastened upon the petitioner to prove negatively; that is to say that, in case, the respondents wanted to saddle the petitioner with levy of royalty and other penal charges, it was for them to establish, beyond reasonable doubt, that the activity done by the petitioner, though in the June, 2012 and prior to issuance of Government Order dated 24.12.2012, would fall within the meaning and import of 'illegal mining operation'.

17. In a catena of decisions, the Supreme Court has held that in the fiscal matters, the burden to establish levy or any financial charge lay upon the revenue and it is not for the assessee to lead negative evidence to evade the liability. The Court may refer to the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Bharat Barrel and Drum Manufacturing Company vs Amin Chand Payrelal, AIR 1999 SC 1008 wherein the Apex Court, while dealing with a case arising out of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, in paragraph No. 12 of the report, held that "The Court may not insist upon the defendant to disprove the existence of consideration by leading direct evidence as existence of negative evidence is neither possible nor contemplated and, even if led, is to be seen with a doubt".

(Emphasis Supplied)

18. In the instant case, neither the counter affidavit states anything specific as to what is the evidence to establish illegal mining being carried by the petitioner nor could the learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel place before this Court any other material to demonstrate that manual digging activity carried out by the petitioner in his own agricultural field below two meters depth would fall under 'illegal mining operation' or that it would be in teeth of any statutory provision.

19. As far as the argument of learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel regarding brick-kiln based upon the Government Order dated 24.12.2012, the Court finds that the said Government Order contains clarification to the effect that for brick making, the act of taking out the ordinary earth by way of manual digging or hand movements shall not fall under mining operations unless the depth of the mining site is more than 2 metres. Even otherwise, there is no material on record to presume that the petitioner was engaged in brick making activity. Neither any report of the respondents nor even the order impugned speaks so. Hence, the Court cannot decide the case merely on hypothesis, presumption, conjecture and surmises that the petitioner was allegedly involved in brick-making activity. Therefore, this argument of the State side also does not have any force.

20. As regards interpretation of a penal or fiscal statute, it is well settled that if two views or constructions are possible, the Court must lean towards that view/construction which exempts the subject from penalty rather than the one which imposes penalty. It is also well settled that if there is a reasonable doubt or ambiguity, the principle to be applied in construing a penal provision is that such doubt or ambiguity should be resolved in favour of the person who would be subjected to penalty. Reference in this regard can be made to the following authorities:

(i) Tolaram Relumal and another vs State of Bombay, AIR 1954 SC 496

(ii) M/s Virtual Soft System Ltd. vs. Commissioner of Income Tax, 2007 (9) SCC 665

(iii) Abhiram Singh vs C.D. Commachen (Dead) by L.Rs. and others, 2017 (2) SCC 629.

(iv) Excel Crop Care Ltd. Vs Competition Commission of India and others, 2017 (8) SCC 47

(v) Isher Das vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1972 SC 1295

(vi) Assistant Commissioner vs Velliappa Textiles, (2003) 132 Taxman 165

(vii) Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti and others vs Pilibhit Pantnagar Beej Ltd. and another, AIR 2003 SCW 6696.

21. Having considered the entire material placed before this Court and the submissions advanced, this Court is of the view that the petitioner is entitled to get the benefit of Government Order dated 24.12.2012 and his case is covered by the principle of law laid down by this Court in the case of Ramvir Singh (supra).

22. Consequently, the writ petition succeeds and is allowed.

23. The order impugned dated 15.11.2018 passed by the Additional District Magistrate (Finance & Revenue), Bulandshahr (respondent No. 2) is hereby quashed.

24. No order as to costs.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1553

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. RENU AGARWAL, J.

Writ -C No. 40168 of 2023

Smt. Mamta & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Sri Umair Alam, Sri Sanjay Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C.

Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950- Article 226-The petitioners who were in an interfaith live-in relationship, sought protection against interference in their personal lives, particularly from the father of petitioner no.1 who allegedly threatened them-claimed protection under judgments like Lata Singh's case and Shafin Jahan's case which emphasized the rights of adults to choose their partners-Held, the court ruled that the petitioners lacked evidence of a long-term relationship akin to marriage(e.g. joint or financial arrangements)-petitioners had not followed the legal procedures for conversion or marriage under the Special Marriage Act-More so, personal law of petitioner no.2 did not support live-in relationship.(Para 1 to 29)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Lata Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr.. (2006) 5 SCC 475
2. Shafin Jahan Vs Asokan K.M. & ors. (2018) 16 SCC 368
3. Nandkumar & anr. Vs St. of Ker.(2018) 16 SCC 620
4. Kamini Devi Vs St. of U.P. Writ. C No. 11108 of 2020
5. Razia & anr. Vs St. of U.P. Writ C No. 27338 of 2023
6. Kiran Rawat & anr.. Vs St. of U.P.
7. D.Velusamy Vs D.Patchajammal (2010) 10 SCC 469
8. Indra Sarma Vs V.K.V. Sharma (2013) 15 SCC 755

9. Asha Devi & anr. Vs State of U.P. & ors. Writ C No. 18743 of 2020

10. A Subhash Babu Vs St. of A.P.

11. Shayara Bano Vs U.O.I.

12. Lily Thomas & anr. Vs U.O.I. & ors.

13. Dir. of Settlement, A.P. Vs M.R. Apparao

14. Kalyan Singh Vs St.of U.P. (1962) AIR SC 1183

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Renu Agarwal, J.)

1. Instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution has been filed by the petitioners with prayer for issuing writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents not to interfere in the peaceful married life of the petitioners as husband and wife.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned Standing Counsel for State respondents and perused the record.

3. It is submitted that the petitioners are major and they have fallen in love with each other. They wanted to live with each other. Parents of the petitioner No. 1 (respondent No. 4) settled the marriage of petitioner No. 1 with a handicap person against her wishes which was refused by petitioner No.1. The respondent No. 4 started atrocities upon the petitioner No.1 and threatened to kill her therefore she left her house on 20.10.2023 and eloped with petitioner No. 2 with her own sweet will and they are living under the same roof since 20.10.2023. The petitioners No. 1 and 2 belongs to different castes and religion. It is submitted that the petitioners have right to take decision of their life, therefore they started living in relationship.

4. It is further submitted that the respondent No. 4 is interfering in the peaceful living of the petitioners. The petitioner No. 1 made an application before the Senior Superintendent of Police, Gautam Buddh Nagar dated 25.10.2023 stating that she is living in relationship with petitioner No. 2 but respondent No. 4 without any authority of law is trying to interfere in the peaceful living of the petitioners with the help of antisocial elements. The aforesaid application is on record as annexure No. 3, however, no protection has been provided by the police authorities therefore, the present petition is filed.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court in the cases of Lata Singh Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and another (2006) 5 SCC 475; Shafin Jahan Vs. Asokan K.M. and Ors. reported in (2018) 16 SCC 368 to contend that when the petitioners are major they are at liberty to choose partners of their choice irrespective of caste or faith and their choice cannot be interfered with even by their parents. No one including the parents of petitioners have any right to create disturbance in peaceful living of the petitioners.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioners has also relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Nandkumar and another Vs. State of Kerala reported at (2018) 16 SCC 620 to contend that the live in relationship is now recognized by the legislature itself and it has found its place under the provisions of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioners has also relied upon the judgment of Division Bench of this Court in the case of Kamini Devi Vs. State of U.P Writ C No. 11108 of 2020 and Writ C No.27338 of 2023 Razia and another Vs. State of U.P. to contend that the live in relationship is no offence and if the petitioners are major, they are entitled for living in relationship.

8. Learned Standing Counsel on the other hand submitted that petitioners are interfaith couples and have not complied with the provisions of Sections 8 and 9 of the U.P. Prevention of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act. No application for conversion has been moved, though the Act came into force on 04.03.2021. It is also submitted that the case laws relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioners i.e., Lata Singh (supra), Shafin Jahan (supra) will not come to the aid of the petitioners since these pronouncements by the Hon'ble Apex Court are prior in time to the promulgation of the U.P. Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act, 2021.

9. Learned Standing Counsel has relied upon the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Kiran Rawat and Another Vs. State of U.P. to contend that a muslim cannot live in relationship even as per their personal laws and judgment of the Division Bench of this Court passed in the case of Asha Devi and Another Vs. State of U.P. and 3 Others, and opposed the petition.

10. I have heard Shri Umair Alam, learned counsel assisted by Shri Sanjay Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioners, Shri Ashwini Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State and perused the record.

11. It is submitted that the petitioners are major and are living in relationship. The petitioners have brought on record the high school marks sheet of petitioner No. 1 wherein her date of birth is recorded as 17.08.2001. The petitioner No. 2 has brought on record his Driving License wherein his date of birth is mentioned as 01.01.2001. The petitioners also belongs to different religion. Both the petitioners fell in love with each other and are living in relationship. Respondent No.4 is interfering in the living in relationship of the petitioners. Petitioner No. 1 has moved an application to the Senior Superintendent of Police, Gautam Buddh Nagar for protection of herself as well as petitioner No. 2 from the respondent No. 4 but no action has been taken by the police authorities in the matter hence, the present writ petition has been filed.

12. Learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the law laid down by Supreme Court in the case of Lata Singh Vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and another (2006) 5 SCC 475 to contend that once a person has attained majority, he/she can live with whomsoever it like and their choice cannot be interfered with by anyone. It would be apposite to reproduce the relevant part of the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Lata Singh (supra) for convenience and ready reference:

"17. The caste system is a curse on the nation and the sooner it is destroyed the better. In fact, it is dividing the nation at a time when we have to be united to face the challenges before the nation unitedly. Hence, inter-caste marriages are in fact in the national interest as they will result in destroying the caste system. However, disturbing news are coming from several parts of the country that young men and women who undergo inter-caste marriage, are threatened with violence, or violence is actually committed on them. In our opinion, such acts of violence or threats or harassment are wholly illegal and those who commit them must be severely punished. This is a free and democratic country, and once a person becomes a major he or she can marry whosoever he/she likes. If the parents of the boy or girl do not approve of such inter-caste or inter-religious marriage the maximum they can do is that they can cut off social relations with the son or the daughter; but they cannot give threats or commit or instigate acts of violence and cannot harass the person who undergoes such inter-caste or inter-religious marriage. We, therefore, direct that the administration/police authorities throughout the country will see to it that if any boy or girl who is a major undergoes inter-caste or inter-religious marriage with a woman or man who is a major, the couple are not harassed by any one nor subjected to threats or acts of violence, and any one who gives such threats or harasses or commits acts of violence either himself or at his instigation, is taken to task by instituting criminal proceedings by the police against such persons and further stern action is taken against such persons as provided by law. We sometimes hear of 'honour' killings of such persons who undergo inter-caste or inter-religious marriage of their own free will. There is nothing honourable in such killings, and in fact they are nothing but barbaric and shameful acts of murder committed by brutal, feudal minded persons who deserve harsh punishment. Only in this way can we stamp out such acts of barbarism."

13. To contend the freedom of an individual who has attained majority to live with anyone whom he/she like reliance is also placed by learned counsel for the petitioners on the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Shafin Jahan Vs. Asokan K.M. and Ors. reported in (2018) 16 SCC 368, wherein the Supreme Court emphasized due importance to the right of choice of an adult person, which the Constitution accords to an adult person. The relevant part of the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Shafin Jahan (Supra) is reproduced below:-

"52. It is obligatory to state here that expression of choice in accord with law is acceptance of individual identity. Curtailment of that expression and the ultimate action emanating therefrom on the conceptual structuralism of obeisance to the societal will destroy the individualistic entity of a person. The social values and morals have their space but they are not above the constitutionally guaranteed freedom. The said freedom is both a constitutional and a human right. Deprivation of that freedom which is ingrained in choice on the plea of faith is impermissible. Faith of a person is intrinsic to his/he meaningful existence. To have the freedom of faith is essential to his/her autonomy; and it strengthens the core norms of the Constitution. Choosing a faith is the substratum of individuality and sans it, the right of choice becomes a shadow. It has to be remembered that the realisation of a right is more important than the conferment of the right. Such actualisation indeed ostracises any kind of societal notoriety and keeps at bay the patriarchal supremacy. It is so because the individualistic faith and expression of choice are fundamental for the fructification of the right. Thus, we would like to call it indispensable preliminary condition"

14. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also placed reliance on the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Nandkumar and another Vs. State of Kerala reported at (2018) 16 SCC 620 to contend that the live in relationship is now recognized by the legislature itself and it has found its place under the provisions of Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act.

15. Reliance is also placed by the learned counsel for the petitioner on the decision of Division Bench of this Court in the case of Kamini Devi Vs. State of U.P Writ C No. 11108 of 2020 and Writ C No.27338 of 2023 Razia and another Vs. State of U.P. decided on 05.09.2023 to contend that the live in relationship is no offence and the petitioners if they are major are entitled for their living in relationship.

16. Learned Standing Counsel on the has relied upon the decision of Supreme Court in the case of Kiran Rawat(Supra), to contend that a muslim cannot live in relationship as per their personal law there is no place for living in relationship, the relevant part of judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Kiran Rawat (supra) is reproduced below:

"21. However, in Muslim law no recognition can be given to sex outside marriage. "Zina" which has been defined as any sexual intercourse except that between husband and wife includes both extramarital sex and premarital sex and is often translated as fornication in English. Such premarital sex is not permissible in Islam. In fact any sexual, lustful, affectionate acts such as kissing, touching, staring etc. are "Haram" in Islam before marriage because these are considered parts of "Zina" which may lead to actual "Zina" itself. The punishment for such offence according to Quran (chapter 24) is hundred lashes for the unmarried male and female who commit fornication together with the punishment prescribed by the "Sunnah" for the married male and female that is stoning to death." It is observed that in Muslim Law living-in-relationship is not permitted."

17. The judgments of Supreme Court relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioners in the case of Lata Singh (supra) and Shafin Jahan (supra) though guarantee the fundamental right of choice of an adult person while marrying with inter-faith persons, however, will not come to the aid of the petitioners as after the promulgation of the U.P. Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act one cannot freely move with another except in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 8 and 9 of the aforesaid Act, or by marriage under the Special Marriage Act. Here in this case, it is an admitted case of the petitioners that they are living in relationship and there is nothing on record they they have moved any application for marriage under the Special Marriage Act. Learned counsel for the petitioners may contend that the petitioners herein are only living in relationship and as such compliance of Sections 8 and 9 of the U.P. Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act is not necessary for the petitioners.

18. In refutation to the aforesaid contention, reference may be made to the explanation attached to Section 3 of the U.P. Prohibition of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act which runs as under:

"3(1) No person shall convert or attempt to convert, either directly or otherwise, any other person from one religion to another by use or practice of misrepresentation, force, undue influence, coercion, allurement by any fraudulent means. No person shall abet, convince or conspire such conversion.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this sub-section conversion by solemnization of marriage or relationship in the nature of marriage on account of factors enumerated in this sub-section shall be deemed included"

19. In the case of D.Velusamy Vs. D. Patchajammal reported in (2010) 10 SCC 469, Supreme Court while considering the definitions given under Section 2 of the Domestic Violence Act dealt with the definition of "domestic relationship", as a relationship in the nature of marriage. It laid down the following requisite criteria in the relationship in the nature of marriage:-

"(2) The following factors are indicators of whether or not a de facto relationship exists between 2 persons, but are not essential-

(a) the length of the relationship between them.

(b) whether the 2 persons have resided together

(c) the nature and extent of common residence

(d) whether there is, or has been, a sexual relationship between them

(e) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangements for financial support, between them

(f) the ownership, use and acquisition of their property (including property the own individually);

(g) the degree of mutual commitment by them to a shared life;

(h) whether they care for and support children

(I) the reputation, and public aspect, of the relationship between them."

20. While dealing with Kamini Devi (supra) Division Bench of this Court quoted Indra Sharma Vs. V.K.V Sharma reported in (2013) 15 SCC 755 as follows.

46. The Domestic and Family Violence Protection Act, 2012 (Queensland) has defined the expression "couple relationship" to mean as follows":

"18. Meaning of couple relationship.-

*1) * * **

2) In deciding whether a couple relationship exists, a court may have regard to the following –

2) the circumstances of the relationship between the persons, including, for example-

(i) the degree of trust between the persons; and

(ii) the level of each person's dependence on, and commitment to, the other person;

b) the length of time for which the relationship has existed or did exist;

c) the frequency of contact between the persons;

d) the degree of intimacy between the persons.

3) Without limiting sub-section (2), the court may consider the following factors in deciding whether a couple relationship exists-

a) Whether the trust, dependence or commitment is or was of the same level;

b) Whether one of the persons is or was financially dependent on the other;

c) Whether the persons jointly own or owned any property;

d) Whether the persons have or had joint bank accounts;

e) Whether the relationship involves or involved a relationship of a sexual nature;

f) Whether the relationship is or was exclusive.

4) A couple relationship may exist even if the court makes a negative finding in relation to any or all of the factors mentioned in subsection (3).

5) A couple relationship may exist between two persons whether the persons are of the same or a different gender.

6) A couple relationship does not exist merely because two persons date or dated each other on a number of occasions."

47. The Property (Relationships) Act, 1984 of North South Wales, Australia also provides for some guidelines with regard to the meaning and content of the expression "de facto relationship", which reads as follows:

"4 De facto relationships.- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a de facto relationship is a relationship between two adult persons:

(a) who live together as a couple, and

(b) who are not married to one another or related by family.

(2) In determining whether two persons are in a de facto relationship, all the circumstances of the relationship are to be taken into account, including such of the following matters as may be relevant in a particular case:-

(a) the duration of the relationship,

(b) the nature and extent of common residence,

(c) whether or not a sexual relationship exists,

(d) the degree of financial dependence or interdependence, and any arrangements for financial support, between the parties,

(e) the ownership, use and acquisition of property,

(f) the degree of mutual commitment to a shared life,

(g) the care and support of children,

(h) the performance of household duties,

(i) the reputation and public aspects of the relationship.

(3) No finding in respect of any of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) (a)-(i), or in respect of any combination of them, is to be regarded as necessary for the existence of a de facto relationship, and a court determining whether such a relationship exists is entitled to have regard to such matters, and to attach such weight to any matter, as may seem appropriate to the court in the circumstances of the case.

(4) Except as provided by section 6, a reference in this Act to a party to a de facto relationship includes a reference to a person who, whether before or after the commencement of this subsection, was a party to such a relationship."

48. "In Marriage of Lindsay, In re, and Latham v. Hennessey 87 Wn.2d 550 (1976), Pennington v. Pennington, the Courts in United States took the view that the relevant factors establishing a meretricious relationship include continuous cohabitation, duration of the relationship, purpose of the relationship, and the pooling of resources and services for joint projects. The Courts also ruled that a relationship need not be "long term" to be characterized as meretricious relationship. While a long term relationship is not a threshold requirement, duration is a significant factor. Further, the Court also noticed that a short term relationship may be characterized as a meretricious, but a number of other important factors must be present.

49. In Stack v. Dowden [2007] 2 AC 432, Baroness Hale of Richmond said:

"Cohabitation comes in many different shapes and sizes. People embarking on their first serious relationship more commonly cohabit than marry. Many of these relationships may be quite short-lived and childless. But most people these days cohabit before marriage..... So many couples are cohabiting with a view to marriage at some later date - as long ago as 1998 the British Household Panel Survey found that 75% of current cohabitants expected to marry, although only a third had firm plans: John Ermisch, Personal Relationships and Marriage Expectations (2000) Working Papers of the Institute of Social and Economic Research: Paper 2000-27. Cohabitation is much more likely to end in separation than is marriage, and cohabitations which end in separation tend to last for a shorter time than marriages which end in divorce. But increasing numbers of couples cohabit for long periods without marrying and their reasons for doing so vary from conscious rejection of marriage as a legal institution to regarding themselves 'as good as married' anyway: Law Commission, Consultation Paper No 179, Part 2, para 2.45."

50. In MW v. The Department of Community Services [2008] HCA 12, Gleeson, CJ, made the following observations:

"Finn J was correct to stress the difference between living together and living together 'as a couple in a relationship in the nature of marriage or civil union'. The relationship between two people who live together, even though it is a sexual relationship, may, or may not, be a relationship in the nature of marriage or civil union. One consequence of relationships of the former kind becoming commonplace is that it may now be more difficult, rather than easier, to infer that they have the nature of marriage or civil union, at least where the care and upbringing of children are not involved."

51. In Lynam v. The Director-General of Social Security (1983) 52 ALR 128, the Court considered whether a man and a woman living together 'as husband and wife on a bona fide domestic basis' and Fitzgerald, J. said:

"Each element of a relationship draws its colour and its significance from the other elements, some of which may point in one direction and some in the other. What must be looked at is the composite picture. Any attempt to isolate individual factors and to attribute to them relative degrees of materiality or importance involves a denial of common experience and will almost inevitably be productive of error. The endless scope for differences in human attitudes and activities means that there will be an almost infinite variety of combinations of circumstances which may fall for consideration. In any particular case, it will be a question of fact and degree, a jury question, whether a relationship between two unrelated persons of the opposite sex meets the statutory test."

21. In view of the aforesaid case law the petitioners did not disclose that they are in any domestic relationship or voluntarily living held themselves out to the world as being akin to spouses for a significant period of time. There is nothing on record primarily to show that they are living as husband and wife except their affidavit. No proof of joint account, financial security, joint property or joint expenditure is produced before this Court. Petitioners have not applied for conversion so far.

22. A Division Bench of this Court in the case of Asha Devi and Another vs. State of U.P. and Others passed in Writ (C) No.18743 of 2020, the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court formulated two questions as under:-

"(i) Whether the petitioners, who claim themselves to be living together as husband and wife; can be granted protection when the petitioner No.1 is legally wedded wife of someone else and has not taken divorce so far ?

(ii) Whether protection to petitioners as husband and wife or as live-in-relationship can be granted in exercise of powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, when their living together may constitute offences under Sections 494/495 I.P.C. ?"

23. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "D. Velusamy Vs. D. Patchaiammal", in which the Hon'ble Apex court held that:-

"32. In our opinion not all live in relationships will amount to a relationship in the nature of marriage to get the benefit of the Act of 2005. To get such benefit the conditions mentioned by us above must be satisfied, and this has to be proved by evidence.

If a man has a 'keep' whom he maintains financially and uses mainly for sexual purpose and/or as a servant it would not, in our opinion, be a relationship in the nature of marriage'."

(Emphasis supplied)

24. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), the Division Bench of this Court on the basis of various judgments of High Court held that following relationship are not recognized or approved as live-in-relationship:-

"(a) Concubine can not maintain relationship in the nature of marriage vide paras 57 & 59 of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Indra Sarma Vs. V. K. V. Sarma.

(b) Polygamy, that is a relationship or practice of having more than one wife or husband at the same time, or a relationship by way of a bigamous marriage that is marrying someone while already married to another and/or maintaining an adulterous relationship that is having voluntary sexual intercourse between a married person who is not one's husband or wife, cannot be said to be a relationship in the nature of marriage vide para 58 of judgment in Indra Sarma's Case (supra) & A Subhash Babu Vs. state of A.P.4 (paras 17 to 21, 27, 28 & 29). Polygamy is also a criminal offence under Section 494 & 495 I.P.C., vide Shayara Bano Vs. Union of India 5 (paras 299.3).

(c) Till a decree of divorce is passed the marriage subsist. Any other marriage during the subsistence of the first marriage would constitute an offence under Section 494 I.P.C. read with Section 17 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and the person, inspite of his conversion to some other religion would be liable to be prosecuted for the offence of bigamy, vide Lily Thomas and another Vs. Union of India and others6 (Para 35). In para 38 of the aforesaid judgment, Hon'ble Supreme Court observed as under:-

"38. Religion is a matter of faith stemming from the depth of the heart and mind. Religion is a belief which binds the spiritual nature of man to a super-natural being; it is an object of conscientious devotion, faith and pietism. Devotion in its fullest sense is a consecration and denotes an act of worship. Faith in the strict sense constitutes firm reliance on the truth of religious doctrines in every system of religion. Religion, faith or devotion are not easily interchangeable. If the person feigns to have adopted another religion just for some worldly gain or benefit, it would be religious bigotry. Looked at from this angle, a person who mockingly adopts another religion where plurality of marriage is permitted so as to renounce the previous marriage and desert the wife, he cannot be permitted to take advantage of his exploitation as religion is not a commodity to be exploited. The institution of marriage under every personal law is a sacred institution. Under Hindu Law, Marriage is a sacrament. Both have to be preserved."

(Emphasis supplied)

(d) If both the persons are otherwise not qualified to enter into a legal marriage including being unmarried, vide D Velusamy Vs. D Patchaiammal (supra) (para 31)."

25. In the judgment of Asha Devi (Supra), Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court has also discussed the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Director of Settlement, A.P. Vs. M.R. Apparao, in which the Hon'ble Apex court has considered the High Court's power for issuance of mandamus and held as under:-

"17. One of the conditions for exercising power under Article 226 for issuance of a mandamus is that the Court must come to the conclusion that the aggrieved person has a legal right, which entitles him to any of the rights and that such right has been infringed. In other words, existence of a legal right of a citizen and performance of any corresponding legal duty by the State or any public authority, could be enforced by issuance of a writ of mandamus. "Mandamus" means a command. It differs from the writs of prohibition or certiorari in its demand for some activity on the part of the body or person to whom it is addressed. Mandamus is a command issued to direct any person, corporation, inferior Courts or Government, requiring him or them to do some particular thing therein specified which appertains to his or their office and is in the nature of a public duty. A mandamus is available against any public authority including administrative and local bodies, and it would lie to any person who is under a duty imposed by statute or by the common law to do a particular act. In order to obtain a writ or order in the nature of mandamus, the applicant has to satisfy that he has a legal right to the performance of a legal duty by the party against whom the mandamus is sought and such right must be subsisting on the date of the petition."

26. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of "Kalyan Singh Vs. State of U.P., AIR 1962 SC 1183 held as under:-

"Applying the principles of issuance of writ of mandamus on the facts of the present case, we find that the petitioners have no legal right for protection on the facts of the present case inasmuch as such the protection as being asked, may amount to protection against commission of offence under Section 494/495 I.P.C. It is well settled law that writ of mandamus can not be issued contrary to law or to defeat a statutory provision including penal provision. The petitioners do not have legally protected and judicially enforceable subsisting right to ask for mandamus."

27. Thus in view of the above discussions, it is clear that there is nothing on record to show that the petitioners fulfil the criteria for a domestic relationship as they are not living for a long period and as spouse, no proof of joint account, financial security, joint property or joint expenditure is produced before this Court, further no compliance of Section 8 and 9 of the U.P. Unlawful Conversion of Religion Act has been made by the petitioners, petitioners have not applied for conversion so far there is nothing on record to show that any application for marriage under the special marriage act has been moved by the petitioners.

28. The relationship of the petitioners cannot be called as a relationship akin to marriage, entitling them for protection and the fact that personal law of the petitioner No.2 also does not warrant the petitioner No. 2 to live in relationship. Right to freedom or right to personal liberty is not as absolute or unfettered right, it is qualified by some restrictions also. Petitioners cannot be provided protection of law in contravention of law of land.

29. In view of the above discussions the writ petition lacks merits and is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1563

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.

THE HON'BLE JAYANT BANERJI, J.

Writ-C No. 40994 of 2023

Rajendra Kumar Mishra ...Petitioner
Versus

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Mamta Pandey, Sri R.S. Pandey, Rajshree Malviya

Counsel for the Respondents:

Sri Archit Mandhyan, C.S.C., Sri Prateek Kumar, Sri Shailesh Kumar Shukla, Udai Chandani

A. Civil Law - Constitution of India,1950-Article 226-U.P. Krishi Utpadan Mandi Act,1964-Sections 9(2),24 & 33-The dispute involved a partnership firm where the petitioner and respondent no.4 were partners-a license for the firm had been granted in 1991 and renewed periodically-In the year 2019, respondent no. 4 sought renewal as the firm's proprietor without the petitioner's knowledge-The Secretary of the Krishi Utapadan Mandi Samiti lacks jurisdiction to decide disputes regarding the nature of firm(Partnership or proprietorship) or to unilaterally issue licenses without a resolution or delegation by the Mandi Committee u/s 9(2) and 24 of the Act-The delegation of revisional powers by the Board of the Director, as per section 33 of the Act,1964, is valid-The Director was competent to entertain and decide the revision filed by respondent no.4-An ex-parte decision by the revisional authority does not necessarily invalidate the proceedings if no prejudice is demonstrated-In the present case, the petitioner failed to establish that the lack of a hearing caused substantive prejudice-Disputes regarding the ownership or nature of a partnership firm must be resolved by a competent civil court, as the Mandi Parishad or its Secretary lacks authority under the Act and Rules- orders passed without jurisdiction, such as one issued by the Secretary on June 15,2022, cannot be revived even if subsequent orders are challenged- Hence, the writ petition is dismissed affirming the Director's revisional order.(Para 1 to 17)

The writ petition is dismissed. (E-6)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anjani Kumar
Mishra, J.
&
Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.)

1. Short counter affidavit filed today in the Court is taken on record.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing for the Mandi Parishad at length.

3. Under challenge in the present petition are the orders dated 22.7.2022 passed by the respondent No. 2, Director, State Krishi Utpadan Mandi Parishad, U.P. Kishan "Mandi Bhawan" Bibhuti Khand, Gomati Nagar, Lucknow, passed in revision No.10 of 2022 (Kripa Shankar Pandey Vs. Secretary, Utpadan Mandi Samiti, Prayagraj), and the order dated 21.3.2023 passed by the respondent No. 2 on a recall application filed by the petitioner for recalling the aforesaid order dated 22.7.2022.

4. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner is a partner of a firm by the name of M/s Vikas Trading Company, with the other partner being the respondent No. 4, Kripa Shankar Pandey. It is stated that license for running the business was granted by Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti, Mundera, Prayagraj in 1991 in the name of the firm and since then business of the firm was being carried out in the allotted shop, the license being renewed from time to time. It is stated that in the year 2019, the respondent No. 4 illegally applied for renewal of the license in the name of the firm but projected himself as the proprietor of the firm without knowledge of the petitioner. It is stated that in view of the dispute so occasioned, the matter came to be considered by the Secretary, Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti, Mundera, Prayagraj, respondent No. 3, who, by an order dated 15.6.2022, held that the firm M/s Vikas Trading Company is a partnership firm in which the petitioner and respondent No. 4 are partners and the respondent No. 4 would permit the petitioner to sit in the shop and carry on his commercial activities from there. It is stated that thereafter, the respondent No. 3 issued a license only in the name of the petitioner with effect from 1.7.2019 to 30.6.2024.

5. The respondent No. 4 then filed the aforesaid revision without making the petitioner a party. By the impugned order dated 22.7.2022, an illegal and ex parte order was passed by the respondent No. 2 without affording any opportunity of hearing to the petitioner.

Learned counsel has emphasized that denial of opportunity of hearing to the petitioner by the revisional authority has caused prejudice to the petitioner and as such the order is wholly illegal and deserves to be set aside. It is stated that even otherwise, against the order of the Secretary, an appeal would lie under Section 25 of the Uttar Pradesh Krishi Utpadan Mandi Act, 1964 and the revision itself was not maintainable.

6. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the petitioner that under the provisions of the Act, 1964, the revisional authority is the Board constituted under Section 26-A of the Act, 1964. No delegation of the revisional powers of the Board has been made and, therefore, the order passed by the respondent No. 2 is without jurisdiction. It is further stated that the Secretary is Chief Executive Officer, who is competent to issue a license as provided in sub-section (2) of Section 9 of the Act, 1964 and, accordingly, the order dated 15.6.2022 issued by the respondent No. 3 is a valid order and the revisional authority ought not to have interfered in the order.

7. A short counter-affidavit of the respondent No. 3 has been filed by the learned counsel appearing for the Krishi Utpadan Mandi Samiti. In the short counter-affidavit, an order of the Board bearing No. 1/252/84-6830 dated 21.3.1974 has been enclosed. It appears therefrom that the revisional powers of the Board have been delegated to the Director in exercise of powers under Section 33 of the Act, 1964. With regard to the authority of the Secretary alone to pass the order dated 15.6.2022, in paragraph No. 4 of the short counter affidavit it has been submitted that that order was passed by the Secretary without any power being delegated to him.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to dispute the aforesaid order of the Board dated 21.3.1974 delegating certain powers provided under various provisions of the Act, 1964 to the Director. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also not been able to show any material to demonstrate that the Secretary, respondent No. 3 had the authority to pass the order dated 15.6.2022.

9. As a matter of fact, under sub-section (2) of Section 9 of the Act, 1964, it is the committee constituted under the Act, 1964 that is authorized to grant license to a person. Under Section 17 of the Act, 1964 the powers of the Committee include issuance or renewal of license and conditions and restrictions thereof, suspension or cancellation of license issued or renewed under the Act and to levy and collect specified fees. The functions, powers, and duties of the Secretary are specified in Section 24, which reads as follows:

"24. Functions, Powers and duties of the Secretary.-(1) The Secretary of a Committee shall be its chief executive officer, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, perform such functions, exercise such powers and discharge such duties, as may be prescribed, or provided for in the bye-laws or as the Board or the Director, may, by order in writing direct ;

Provided that when more than one secretaries are posted in a Committee, the Director shall nominate one of the Secretaries to be its Chief executive officer and shall determine the functions to be performed, powers to be exercised and duties to be discharged by each of them.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, but subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder the Secretary shall —

(a) exercise all powers of superintendence and control over —

(i) all officers and servants of the Committee so as to ensure proper and efficient discharge of the duties assigned to them by or under this Act ; and

(ii) the affairs of the Committee ;

(b) report cases of neglect, misconduct or dereliction of duty by an employee of the Committee to the appointing authority for necessary action, and where so empowered, take disciplinary action against any of the employees of the Committee.

(c) ensure proper execution of all orders issued by the Board, the Chairman or the Committee ;

(d) ensure proper maintenance of

(i) accounts of all moneys received and of all moneys expended for and on behalf of the Committee ;

(ii) records of disputes coming up for decision under this Act or the rules or bye-laws framed thereunder ; and

(iii) a record of the disputes settled by him in such form as may be prescribed.

(3) All licenses under this Act shall be issued under his signatures. "

10. The functions, powers, and duties of the secretary are prescribed in Rule 63 of the U.P. Krishi Utpadan Mandi Rules, 1965, which reads as follows:

"63. Functions, Powers and Duties of the Secretary [Section 24].—(1) The Secretary shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Market Committee and shall carry into effect the resolutions of the Market Committee.

(2) All other Officers and Servants of the Committee shall be subject to his control. He shall also be responsible for directing their work in such manner as to ensure proper and efficient working of the Market Committee.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to supervise the work of the Officers and Servants of the Committee and to take necessary disciplinary action against any of the Officers and Servants of the Committee for their neglect, misconduct, dereliction of duty etc., subject to the approval of the Chairman or the Committee.

(4) The Secretary shall be responsible for the proper execution of all orders issued by the Chairman of the Committee. He shall take or cause action to be taken against any of the Officers and Servants of the Committee in accordance with the directions given by the Chairman of the Committee.

(5) Subject to the control of the Chairman, or in his absence of the Vice-Chairman of the Market Committee, the Secretary shall be responsible for maintaining proper accounts of money received and/or expended for or on behalf of the Committee.

(6) The Secretary shall conduct all routine correspondence and attend to other office work and all correspondence with the Director or Officers subordinate to the Director shall be conducted through, the Chairman or with the previous approval of the Chairman.

(7) The Secretary shall be responsible for maintaining complete records of all the disputes which come up for decision before the Disputes Sub-Committee in such manner as may be specified in the bye-laws of the Committee.

(8) The Secretary shall maintain a record of the disputes settled by him in the form and manner as may be specified in the bye-laws of the Committee.

(9) On receipt of a complaint either written or oral regarding any matter concerning sale or purchase of specified agricultural produce, in the Market Area, the Secretary shall conduct an enquiry and shall make a report of the same to the Chairman for taking such action as he may think necessary, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, these rules and the bye-laws.

(10) It shall be the duty of the Secretary to ensure that proper payments to sellers in the Market Yards are made and no irregularities in making weighmen of the specified agricultural produce, in the Market Yards are committed.

(11) The Secretary shall advise the Committee and its Chairman in all matters relating to the regulation of the sale and purchase of agricultural produce, in the light of the provisions of the Act, these rules and the bye-laws framed thereunder and his opinion shall be recorded in the proceedings of the Committee.

(12) The Secretary shall grant casual leave to the Officers and Servants of the Committee. For other kinds of leave, the Secretary shall recommend the same to the Chairman who shall take action to sanction such leave in accordance with the leave rules applicable to Officers and Servants of the Committee.

(13) The Secretary shall submit to the Chairman by thirtieth April each year his annual confidential remarks in respect of the work and worth of the Officers and Servants appointed by the Committee.

(14) The Secretary shall submit to the Chairman his recommendations in respect of the annual increments of the Officers and Servants appointed by the Committee within thirty days from the date any such increment falls due.

(15) The Secretary shall, on the orders or with the prior approval of the Chairman or on the orders of Director, call meetings of the Market Committee and shall have the right to attend, speak at, and otherwise take part in the Meeting of the Committee:

Provided that the Secretary shall not have the right to vote in the Meetings of the Committee."

11. No resolution or order of the Committee has been shown that authorized the Secretary to pass the order dated 15.6.2022. As a matter of fact, with regard to the licenses, sub-section (3) of Section 24 provides that all licenses under the Act shall be issued under the signature of the Secretary. Disputes with regard to the licenses cannot be decided by the Secretary without an appropriate and approved resolution being passed by the Committee.

12. A perusal of the impugned revisional order dated 22.7.2022 passed by the respondent No. 2 reflects that it has solely considered the jurisdiction of the respondent No. 3, Secretary, in passing the order dated 15.6.2022 and has held that in the eyes of law, the order passed by the Secretary is not correct. It was observed that with regard to the partnership firm there is a dispute as to its ownership and neither in the Act nor in the Rules is there any provision for the Secretary to pass such an order. It is mentioned in the order that whether the nature of the firm is that of partnership or proprietorship is within the jurisdiction of the competent court, and, accordingly, the order dated 15.6.2022 was set aside.

13. Further on the recall application filed by the petitioner, the impugned order dated 21.3.2023 was passed in which it was observed that in the order dated 22.7.2022, the dispute between the parties with regard to the partnership was observed to be taken to the competent court where all relevant issues could be raised and, therefore, there was no reason to file the recall application. Accordingly, the application was rejected.

14. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the revisional court could not decide the matter, as a right of appeal lay under Section 25 of the Act, is misplaced. As is evident from the record, that the Director exercising revisional jurisdiction under Section 32 of the Act, 1964, has dealt only with the question of jurisdiction of the respondent No.3, Secretary, to pass the order dated declined and this petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1568
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 22.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ -C No. 3000010 of 1996

Om Prakash Singh	...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors.	...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
S.P. Singh, Ajay Pratap; Singh, Ashish Kumar
Pandey, M.E. Khan, Rajeiu Kumar Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Bal Gangadhar Tripathi, R.P. Singh, Satyendra Pratap

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

1. Hareshwar Dayal Seth versus II Additional District Judge and others: 1982 All C J 207

2. Ram Sagar versus Civil Judge, Bahraich and others: 1984 SCC OnLine All 404

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi J.)

1. Heard Sri Rajeiu Kumar Tripathi Advocate, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Dheeraj Ojha, the learned Standing Counsel for the State and perused the records.

2. By means of the instant writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged the validity of the order dated 16.02.1993, passed by the opposite party no.2/Chief Revenue Officer, District Sultanpur in Case No.74 of 1985, under Section 10 (2) of U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act (which will be hereinafter referred to as 'the Ceiling Act'), declaring 30 bigha, 16 biswa and 13 biswanshi land of the petitioner to be surplus. The petitioner has also challenged validity of the order dated 01.01.1996, passed by the opposite party no.3/Additional Commissioner Judicial, Faizabad Region, Faizabad in Appeal No.79/Sultanpur under Section 13 of the Ceiling Act, whereby the appellate authority has declared the land of Gata Nos.1487, 1488, 1489, 1490, 1492, 1494, 1496, 1497, 1498, 2093 as unirrigated and has directed redetermination of the surplus land of the petitioner in accordance with the directions issued by the appellate court.

3. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that Sri Badri Pratap Singh was the original tenure holder of the lands in dispute. On 22.04.1974, a notice under Section 10 (2) of Ceiling Act was issued to him proposing 32 bighas, 8 biswas and 14 dhur land situate in Village Tirhut to be declared as surplus. Sri Badri Pratap Singh has submitted his objections before the Prescribed Authority on 21.05.1974, wherein he inter alia stated that he had sold away some lands.

4. On 01.11.1974, the Prescribed Authority had passed an order declaring 32 bigha, 8 biswa and 2 dhur land of Sri Badri Pratap Singh to be surplus.

5. Sri Badri Pratap Singh had filed a Ceiling Appeal No.54 of 1974 against the aforesaid order dated 01.11.1974, passed by the Prescribed Authority, which appeal was dismissed by means of an order dated 08.01.1977, passed by the Second Additional District Judge, Sultanpur.

6. Sri Badri Pratap Singh had challenged both the aforesaid orders by filing Writ Petition No.354 of 1977, which was allowed by means of a judgment and order dated 27.11.1978, passed by this court and the orders passed by the Prescribed Authority and the Appellate Authority were quashed. The learned Prescribed Authority was directed to re-determine as to whether the land of the petitioner was irrigated land in accordance with the principles contained in Section 4-A of Ceiling Act and to redetermine the ceiling area and the surplus land of the petitioner in accordance with law. It is recorded in the order dated 27.11.1978 that no other plea was urged before this court and while remanding the matter, this court made it clear that the petitioner shall not be entitled to re-agitate any other plea before the Prescribed Authority.

7. After remand of the matter by means of order dated 27.11.1978, the Prescribed Authority decided the matter by means of an order dated 14.04.1982 holding that all the gata numbers mentioned in Ceiling Form-3 are irrigated as per the provisions contained in Section

4-A of Ceiling Act and he declared 32 bigha, 8 biswa and 2 dhur land of Sri Badri Pratap Singh to be surplus.

8. It is further mentioned in the order dated 14.04.1982 that the tenure holder Sri Badri Pratap Singh had given an option that his entire land be taken from Khata Nos.293 and 885 in Village Gajanpur Dhuria and the entire land of Khata No.156 in Village Tirhut and in case same falls short, lands be taken from Khata No.40/1. The Prescribed Authority recorded that the land Forming part of Khata No.156 was not recorded in the name of Sri Badri Pratap Singh, rather it was recorded in the name of Sukhpal Vidyalay, Tirhut. Therefore, the land offered as option could not be taken for being declared surplus land.

9. The tenure holder Sri Badri Pratap Singh again filed Ceiling Appeal No.10/82, which was decided by the Second Additional District Judge, Sultanpur by means of a judgment and order dated 25.11.1982 holding that the irrigated land was not ascertained after perusal of the entries made in the relevant khasras as was directed by this court. The appellate authority again remanded the matter to the Prescribed Authority for being decided as per directions of this court.

10. After remand of the matter to the Prescribed Authority, the Principal Sukhpal Inter College Tirhut, Sultanpur filed his objections on 18.07.1984 inter alia stating that Sri Badri Pratap Singh died in the year 1981. He had established Sukhpal Vidyalay in his father's name. He had created a waqf of his land in favour of the school in July, 1951 while the school was a Junior High School. In December, 1971 Sri Badri Pratap Singh had created waqf of 15 bigha, 12 biswa, 10 dhur land in favour of the school. Thereafter, the school needed some more land for obtaining recognition for High School – Agriculture and Sri Badri Pratap Singh had given 18 bigha, 19 biswa, 8 dhur land to the school for this purpose, but he could not execute a gift deed as ceiling proceedings were going on. The school was granted recognition for High School – Agriculture, but recognition for Intermediate – Agriculture was not given to the school. The school had given an application to the Chief Minister requesting that while determining the school land in proceedings under the Ceiling Act, the land in possession of the school be not take into consideration as the land of tenure holder Sri Badri Pratap Singh as although mutation could not be carried out in favour of the school, the school was in possession of the land. It was stated in the objection that subsequently school was granted recognition for Intermediate Agriculture, but the date of recognition has not been disclosed in the objection.

11. After remand, the Prescribed Authority passed an order dated 16.02.1993 whereby a total of 130 bigha, 16 biswa, 13 biswansi irrigated land was declared surplus. The Prescribed Authority found that the Khasra for the year 1978 mentions 2 crops on lands bearing Gata nos. 1474 to 1490 and the lands were irrigated from the tube-well installed in gata no. 1801. Two crops were recorded in respect of lands bearing Gata nos. 1492, 1494, 1495, 1496 and 1497. Khasra of 1378 Fasli mentions 2 crops on Gata nos. 2093 and 1495 and there is a sign of a tube-well on gata no. 1001. Therefore, all the gatas will be treated to be irrigated / unirrigated as per the preliminary report.

12. Sri Badri Pratap Singh died and the petitioner Sri. Om Prakash Singh filed Appeal No.79, under Section 13 Ceiling Act against the order dated 16.02.1993 passed by the Prescribed Authority, claiming himself to be the successor of Late Badri Pratap Singh on the basis of his last. Two points for determination were framed in the appeal – (1) whether the land in respect whereof a waqf had been created in favour of Sukhpal Vidyalay, should be treated to be the land of the tenure holder or not and (2) Determination of irrigated and unirrigated land mentioned as such in the notice given under Section 10(2) of the Ceiling Act. The appeal was decided by means of an order dated 01.01.1996 which is under challenge in this writ petition.

13. While deciding the first question, the appellate Court observed that Sri Om Prakash Singh had filed additional objection on 24.01.1992 before the Prescribed Authority stating that certain land had been entrusted to Sukhpal Vidyalay on 31.12.1971 and those should not be taken into consideration while declaring surplus land of the original tenure holder. The appellate court found that the registered waqfnama dated 31.12.1971 had been executed after the reference date 24.01.1971. Moreover, the Management of Sukhpal Inter College had not filed any application for treating the land of the tenure holder to be belonging to the intermediate college. From this the appellate court inferred that the Management of the school and the objector were acting in collusion with each other. This plea had not been raised by any person since 31.12.1971, the date of execution of the registered deed. A notice under Section 10 (2) of Ceiling Act was given to the tenure holder in the year 1974. The matter had been decided by the Prescribed Authority on two previous occasions. This point was not raised even before this court in Writ Petition No.354 of 1977. In the order dated 27.11.1978, passed in the aforesaid writ petition this court had clarified that besides point of the land being irrigated or not, no other point will be raised before the Prescribed Authority. Therefore, it was not open to the appellant to raise this plea.

14. While deciding the second point for determination, the appellate authority observed that as per the order dated 27.11.1978 passed by this Court, the irrigated and unirrigated lands were to be determined as per the provisions contained in Section 4-A of the Ceiling Act. There were discrepancies in the copies of Khasra filed by the tenure-holder and the State Government and, therefore, those appeared to be suspicious. Either the copies of Khasra had not been prepared properly or entries had been modified in the original Khasra. A spot inspection report was submitted by the Naib Tehsildar, which stands affirmed by the Consolidation Form 41, 45 and base year khatauni against which none of the parties have filed any objection. The appellate Court found that the copy of last Khasra was filed by the State Government as paper no. 150 and it appears to be just to take a decision as per this document. It shows lands bearing Gata nos. 1487, 1488, 1789, 1490, 1492, 1493, 1494, 1495, 1496, 1497, 1498 and 2093 to be unirrigated. The appellate Court declared the land bearing Gata Nos.1487, 1488, 1489, 1490, 1492, 1494, 1496, 1497, 1498, 2093 as unirrigated and surplus land and affirmed the inspection report submitted by the Naib Tehsildar on 08.11.1983 which was sent to the Pargana Adhikari on 22.11.1993.

15. While assailing the validity of the aforesaid orders, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the original tenure holder Sri Badri Pratap Singh had transferred the land in question irrecoverably in favour of Sukhpal Inter College on 31.12.1971 and, therefore, the aforesaid land ought not to have been taken into consideration while the ascertaining surplus land of Badri Pratap Singh. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on a written declaration dated 13.07.1970 (Annexure No. RA 2 to the rejoinder affidavit) made by Sri. Badri Pratap Singh on a stamp paper worth Rs.2.50 only, stating that he had established Sukhpal Vidyalay on 28.06.1951 and had created a Waqf of some of his properties for this purpose. He had further gifted some of his properties in favour of the school on 28.06.1970 as per the religious practices and that he will execute a legal document in respect of the entire gifted property or a part of it and till a mutation of names is carried out, he will continue to pay the land revenue.

16. The statutory provision in this regard is contained in Section 5 of the Ceiling Act, the relevant part whereof is being reproduced below: -

“5. Imposition of ceiling— (1) On and from the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1972, no tenure-holder shall be entitled to hold in the aggregate, throughout Uttar Pradesh, any land in excess of the ceiling area applicable to him.

Explanation I — In determining the ceiling area applicable to a tenure holder, all land held by him in his own right, whether in his own name, or ostensibly in the name of any other person, shall be taken into account.

Explanation II — If on or before January 24, 1971, any land was held by a person who continues to be in its actual cultivatory possessions and the name of any other person is entered in the annual register after the said date either in addition to or to the exclusion of the former and whether on the basis of deed of transfer or license or on the basis of a decree, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority, that the first mentioned person continues to hold the land and that it is so held by him ostensibly in the name of the second mentioned person.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to land held by the following classes of persons, namely :

(a) the Central Government, the State Government or any local authority or a Government Company or a Corporation ;

(b) a University ;

(c) an intermediate or degree college imparting education in agriculture or a post graduate college ;

(d) a banking company or a co-operative bank or a co-operative land development bank ;

(e) the Bhoodan Yagna Committee constituted under the U. P. Bhoodan Yagna Act, 1952.

*** * ***

(6) In determining the ceiling area applicable to a tenure-holder, any transfer of land made after the twenty-fourth day of January, 1971 which but for the transfer would have been declared surplus land under this Act, shall be ignored and not taken into account ;

(a) a transfer in favour of any person (including Government) referred to in sub-section (2) ;

(b) a transfer proved to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority to be in good faith and for adequate consideration and under an irrevocable instrument not being a benami transaction or for the immediate or deferred benefit of the tenure-holder or other members of his family. 3

Explanation I — For the purposes of this sub-section, the expression ‘transfer of land made after the twenty-fourth day of January, 1971’, includes —

(a) a declaration of a person as a co-tenure-holder made after the twenty-fourth day of January, 1971, in a suit, or proceeding irrespective of whether such suit or proceeding was pending on or was instituted after the twenty-fourth day of January, 1971 ;

(b) any admission, acknowledgment, relinquishment or declaration in favour of a person to the life effect, made in any other deed or instrument or in any other manner.

Explanation II — The burden of proving that a case falls within clause (b) of the proviso shall rest with the party claiming its benefit.

* * *

17. The Explanations appended to sub-section (6) of Section 5 of the Ceiling Act refer to declarations made after 24.01.1971 whereas Sri. Badri Pratap Singh had made the written declaration of 13.07.1970, which was not after 24.01.1971 so as to be covered by the Explanations appended to sub-section (6) of Section 5. Moreover, the content of the declaration was also vague, as the executed stated that he will execute a legal document in respect of the entire gifted property or a part of it. For the aforesaid reasons, this declaration will not be covered by the Explanations appended to Section 5 (6) of the Ceiling Act.

18. So far as the registered waqfnama dated 31.12.1971 is concerned, it was executed after the reference date 24.01.1971 and, therefore, it will not fall within the purview of Section 5 (6). Moreover, on the date of the alleged transfer, Sukhpal Vidyalay, in whose favour the land was transferred, was not an intermediate or degree college imparting education in agriculture. As the transfer was not made in favour of any person mentioned in sub-section (2) of Section 5, it would not fall within the proviso (a) appended to sub Section 5 (6). The transfer was not made for any ‘adequate consideration’ and therefore this transfer would not fall within the proviso (b) appended to sub Section 5 (6).

19. In the written submissions, it has been contended that the Appellate Authority has found that the copies of Khasra for the years 1378 and 1380 Fasli years were incorrect, yet it has taken a copy of the khasra (paper no. 150) as true for the purposes of determination of the land being irrigated, which is in violation of the order dated 27.11.1998 passed by this Court as also the provisions of Section 4-A of the Ceiling Act.

20. Relying upon the judgments in the cases of Hareshwar Dayal Seth versus II Additional District Judge and others: 1982 All C J 207 and Ram Sagar versus Civil Judge, Bahraich and others: 1984 SCC OnLine All 404, Sri. Tripathi has submitted that the onus to prove that the land is irrigated, lies on the State.

21. Section 4-A of the Ceiling Act reads as follows: -

“4-A. The prescribed authority shall examine the relevant khasras for the years 1378 Fasli, 1379 Fasli and 1380 Fasli, the latest village map and such other records as it may consider necessary, and may also make local inspection where it considers necessary, and thereupon if the prescribed authority is of opinion :—

Firstly, (a) that, irrigation facility was available for any land in respect of any crop in any one of the aforesaid years ; by —

(i) any canal included in Schedule no. 1 of irrigation rates notified in notification no. 1579-W/XXIII—62-W-1946, dated March 31, 1953, as amended from time to time ; or

(ii) any lift irrigation canal ; or

(iii) any State tube-well or a private irrigation work ; and

(b) that at least two crops were grown in such land in any one of the aforesaid years ; or

Secondly, that irrigation facility became available to any land by a State Irrigation Work coming into operation subsequent to the enforcement of the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1972, and at least two crops were grown in such land in any agricultural year between the date of such work coming into operation and the date of issue of notice under section 10 ; or

Thirdly, (a) that any land is situated within the effective command area of a lift irrigation canal or a State tube-well or a private irrigation work ; and then the prescribed Authority shall determine such land to be irrigate land for the purposes of this Act.

(b) that the class and composition of its soil is such that it is capable of growing at least two crops in an agricultural year ;

Explanation I — For the purposes of this section the expression 'effective command area' means an area, the farthest field whereof in any direction was irrigated —

(a) in any of the year, 1378 Fasli, 1379 Fasli and 1380 Fasli ; or

(b) in any agricultural year referred to in the clause 'secondly'.

Explanation II — The ownership and location of a private irrigation work shall not be relevant for the purpose of this section.

Explanation III — Where sugarcane crop was grown on any land in any of the years 1378 Fasli, 1379 Fasli and 1380 Fasli, it shall be deemed the two crops were grown on it in any of these years, and that the land capable of growing two crops in an agricultural year."

22. The Prescribed Authority has recorded a finding that Khasra for the year 1978 mentions 2 crops on lands bearing Gata nos. 1474 to 1490 and the lands were irrigated from the tube-well installed in gata no. 1801. Two crops were recorded in respect of lands bearing Gata nos. 1492, 1494, 1495, 1496 and 1497. Khasra of 1378 Fasli mentions 2 crops on Gata nos. 2093 and 1495 and there is a sign of a tube-well on gata no. 1001.

23. The appellate authority found that there were discrepancies in the copies of Khasra filed by the tenure-holder and the State Government, which indicates that either the copies of Khasra had not been prepared properly or entries had been modified in the original Khasra. A spot inspection report was submitted by the Naib Tehsildar, which stands affirmed by the Consolidation Form 41, 45 and base year khatauni against which none of the parties have filed any objection. The appellate Court found that the copy of last Khasra was filed by the State Government as paper no. 150 and it appears to be just to take a decision as per this document. It shows lands bearing Gata nos. 1487, 1488, 1789, 1490, 1492, 1493, 1494, 1495, 1496, 1497, 1498 and 2093 to be unirrigated. Accordingly, the appellate Court declared the land bearing Gata Nos. 1487, 1488, 1489, 1490, 1492, 1494, 1496, 1497, 1498, 2093 as unirrigated and surplus land and affirmed the inspection report submitted by the Naib Tehsildar on 08.11.1983 which was sent to the Pargana Adhikari on 22.11.1993.

24. As per the provision contained in Section 4-A, the Prescribed Authority need not confine itself to examination of the relevant khasras for the years 1378 Fasli, 1379 Fasli and 1380 Fasli only. He has to examine the latest village map and such other records as it may consider necessary, and may also make local inspection where it considers necessary. It is settled law that the powers of the Appellate Authority are co-extensive with the original authority. When the copies of Khasra were found to be suspicious, the Appellate Court has not committed any error in relying upon those entry in the last khasra, which had been corroborated by other relevant material in the shape of spot inspection report was submitted by the Naib Tehsildar, which stands affirmed by the Consolidation Form 41, 45 and base year khatauni against which none of the parties have filed any objection. The petitioner having not filed any objection in this regard before the Appellate Court, is stopped from raising this objection for the first time before this Court.

25. Therefore, the State has discharged its onus and there is no violation of the principles of law laid down in Hareshwar Dayal Seth versus II Additional District Judge and others:

1982 All C J 207 and Ram Sagar versus Civil Judge, Bahraich and others: 1984 SCC OnLine All 404.

26. The learned Counsel for the petitioner lastly submitted that when the objection of the petitioner regarding land in possession of Sukhpal Vidyalay had been rejected and the land was treated to be land of tenure holder, the petitioner's option to declare that land as surplus ought to have been accepted.

27. The statutory provision in this regard is contained in Section 12-A of the Ceiling Act, which provides as follows: -

12-A. In determining the surplus land under section 11 or section 12, the prescribed authority shall, as far as possible accept the choice indicated by the tenure-holder to the plot or plots which he and other members of his family if any would like to retain as part of the ceiling area applicable to him or them under the provisions of this Act, whether indicated by him in his statement under Section 9 or in any subsequent proceedings ;

Provided that —

** * **

28. The Prescribed Authority has been given the discretion to accept the choice indicated by the tenure-holder as far as possible. Title in respect of the land, which the petitioner opted to be declared surplus, had been transferred to Sukhpal Vidyalay in violation of the provisions of the Ceiling Act. This point had not been raised by the tenure-holder since the alleged transfer made in the year 1971 and it was raised for the first time before the Appellate Court after remand of the matter, the Appellate Court found that the appellant and the management of the Vidyalay were acting in collusion with each other. The land was not in physical possession of the petitioner and it was not available to be allotted to any other person. In these circumstances, the Appellate Court has not committed any illegality in not declaring the land which the petitioner and the Sukhpal Vidyalay claimed to have been transferred to the Vidyalay and in declaring other land held by the petitioner to be surplus.

29. No other point was pressed before me.

30. In view of the foregoing discussion, I find no illegality in the impugned orders. The Writ Petition is without any force and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1576

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE

DATED: LUCKNOW 08.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ-C No. 3000076 of 2008

Dasoda Singh ...Petitioner

Versus

Ayukt Lucknow Division, Lko. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:
V.K. Pandey

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C.

Civil Law - U.P. Imposition Of Ceiling On Land Holdings Act, 1972 – Section 10(2) - 4.50 acre un-irrigated land of the petitioners' father was declared to be surplus –appeal-allowed - order was modified by reducing the surplus land area to 4.10 acres –after Petitioner's father died - a notice u/s10(2) of the Ceiling Act was issued to the petitioners -filed their objections and the proceedings were closed -holding the same to be hit by the principles of res-judicata -State filed an appeal - allowed and the matter was remanded but even after remand-the Prescribed Authority closed the proceedings -another notice u/s 10(2) of the Ceiling Act-Section 4-A of the Ceiling Act – for a land to be determined as an irrigated land- it is necessary that it should have been irrigated in the years 1378 Fasli, 1979 Fasli and 1380 Fasli- no such material available on record -Section 29(b) of the Ceiling Act -after the date of enforcement of Act, 1972 -any un-irrigated land becomes irrigated as a result of "irrigation from the State irrigation work"- the Ceiling area shall be liable to be re-determined-no occasion for issuance of a fresh notice -not permissible in law.

Writ Petition allowed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri V.K. Pandey, the learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri S.P. Maurya, the learned Standing Counsel.

2. By means of the instant writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners have challenged the validity of an order dated 27.02.2007 passed by the Prescribed Authority Ceiling Act/Additional Collector, Kheri in Case No. 37/2004-05 under Section 10(2) Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1972, whereby 5.38 hectares land of the petitioners situated in Village Sumerpur, Pargana and Tehsil Palia, District Lakhimpur Kheri was declared surplus and proceedings for taking possession of that land were initiated. The petitioners have also challenged the validity of an order dated 25.07.2008 passed by the Commissioner, Lucknow Division, Lucknow dismissing Appeal No. 102/2006-

07 under Section 13(2) of the U.P. Imposition Of Ceiling On Land Holdings Act, 1960 (hereinafter referred as “Ceiling Act”) filed against the aforesaid order dated 27.02.2007.

3. Briefly stated, the facts of the case are that 4.50 acre un-irrigated land of the petitioners’ father Gargaj Singh was declared to be surplus by means of an order dated 30.06.1979 passed by the Prescribed Authority in Case No. 73/1959 under Section 10(2) of the Ceiling Act. The petitioners’ father had filed an appeal against the aforesaid order, which was allowed by the learned District Judge by means of an order dated 16.01.1980 and the order was modified by reducing the surplus land area to 4.10 acres.

4. After Gargaj Singh died on 27.02.1990, a notice under Section 10(2) of the Ceiling Act was issued to the petitioners on 05.04.1995. The petitioners filed their objections and the proceedings were closed by means of an order dated 22.02.1996 passed by the Prescribed Authority, holding the same to be hit by the principles of res-judicata.

5. The State filed an appeal against the order dated 22.02.1996, which was allowed and the matter was remanded but even after remand, the Prescribed Authority closed the proceedings by means of an order dated 15.06.2001.

6. On 25.05.2005, another notice under Section 10(2) of the Ceiling Act was issued against the petitioners.

7. The petitioners filed their objections and the Prescribed Authority framed issues, including an issue regarding the effect of previous proceedings under Section 10(2) of the Ceiling Act having attained finality. The Prescribed Authority held that the first notice issued to the father of the petitioners mentioned merely 7.46 hectares acres land to be irrigated and the rest land was mentioned to be un-irrigated whereas from the statements of the Lekhpal and Assistant Registrar, Kanungo recorded in the proceedings instituted on the basis of third notice, it appeared that the entire land was irrigated. While deciding the proceedings initiated on the basis of the second notice, the Prescribed Authority had summarily held that the land was un-irrigated and this finding was erroneous.

8. Assailing the aforesaid finding of the Prescribed Authority, the learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the statement of Lekhpal and Assistance Registrar, Kanungo merely mention that the land is irrigated in present time but it does not make a mention as to when was the land irrigated for the first time.

9. Section 4-A of U.P. Imposition Of Ceiling On Land Holdings Act, 1960, contains provisions regarding determination of irrigated land and it provides that “the Prescribed Authority shall examine the relevant Khasras for the years 1378 Fasli, 1979 Fasli and 1380 Fasli, the latest village map and such other records as it may consider necessary, and may also make local inspection where it considers necessary and thereupon if the prescribed authority is of opinion that irrigation facility was available for any land in respect of any crop in any one of the aforesaid years while by any canal, any lift irrigation cannal or in any State tube-well or a private irrigation work.”

10. A bare perusal of Section 4-A of the Ceiling Act indicates that for a land to be determined as an irrigated land, it is necessary that it should have been irrigated in the years 1378 Fasli, 1979 Fasli and 1380 Fasli. There is no such material available on record as may establish that the land in question was an irrigated land in the aforesaid years.

11. Although, Section 29(b) of the Ceiling Act mentions that after the date of enforcement of the Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1972 any un-irrigated land becomes irrigated as a result of “irrigation from the State irrigation work”, the Ceiling area shall be liable to be re-determined, it is not the State’s case that the petitioners’ un-irrigated land has become irrigated land as a result of irrigation from a State irrigation work.

12. Therefore, there was no occasion for issuance of a fresh notice without there being any material to establish either that the petitioners’ land was irrigated in the years 1378 Fasli, 1979 Fasli and 1380 Fasli or that it has become irrigated from a State irrigation work after enforcement of Uttar Pradesh Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1972. Therefore, fresh proceedings could not be initiated even as per the provisions of Section 29 (b) of the Ceiling Act.

13. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the issuance of a third notice to the petitioners is not permissible in law.

14. Moreover, a holding of Amarjeet Kaur wife of Iqbal Singh (petitioner no.3) has also been included while assessing the total holding of the petitioners.

15. In this regard, it would be relevant to have a look at the definitions of family, holding, person, surplus land and tenure holder, as given in sub-sections (c), (d), (f), (k) and (l) of Section 3 of the Ceiling Act, which are as follows: -

“(c) “Family” means as consisting of the holder of a holding and any or all of his following relations, not being tenure-holders in their own separate right:

(i) wife or husband, as the case may be;

(ii) dependent father and dependent mother;

(iii) son and son's son, as long as they are unseparated from the holder;

(iv) wife or widow of the persons mentioned in sum clause (iii);

(v) daughter and unseparated son's daughter, as long as they are unmarried.

Provided that where a relation falls under the above clause in more than one family, he shall nevertheless be a member of only one family in accordance with his choice, or if he is under any disability, in accordance with the choice of the person legally authorised to do so on his behalf.

(d) “Holding” means the land or lands held by a person as a bhumidhar, sirdar, asami of Gaon Samaj or an asami mentioned in section 11 of the Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (U.P. Act I of 1951), or as a tenant under the U.P. Tenancy Act, 1939 (U.P. Act XVII of 1939), other than a sub-tenant, or as lessee where the period of the sub-lessee of a Government with the period of the lease;

(f) “Person” shall include a family, a limited liability company, and a society registered under any law;

(k) “Surplus Land” means land held by a tenure-holder in excess of the ceiling area applicable to him and shall include buildings, wells and trees existing thereon;

(l) "Tenure-holder" means an individual or a person who is the holder of a holding;

16. Amarjeet Kaur wife of Iqbal Singh is not a member of the family of original tenure holder Gargaj Singh. Gargaj Singh or even Iqbal Singh is not the tenure holder of the land held by Amarjeet Kaur and the holding of Amarjeet Kaur wife of Iqbal Singh cannot be added while taking into consideration the total holding of Gargaj Singh or Iqbal Singh for the purpose of 10(2) of the Ceiling Act.

17. 0.587 hectares land bearing Gata No. 58 hectares in the name of Balwant Singh has also been treated as holding of the petitioners on the ground that Balwant Singh is not a resident of the village in question and as the land was found in possession of the petitioners, it has been presumed that the petitioners were holding land as its benami holders.

18. For declaring a land to be surplus land of a person, that person must be a bhumidhar, sirdar, asami of Gaon Samaj or an asami mentioned in section 11 of the Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, or as a tenant under the U.P. Tenancy Act, 1939, other than a sub-tenant, or as lessee where the period of the sub-lessee of a Government with the period of the lease and unless the person falls in any of the aforesaid categories mentioned in Section 3 (d) of the Ceiling Act, he will not be the tenure holder of the land and the land cannot be said to be held by a tenure-holder in excess of the ceiling area applicable to him so as to warrant it being declared surplus land.

19. 0.587 hectares land bearing Gata No. 58 hectares in the name of Balwant Singh could have been considered to be benami property of the petitioners or of their predecessor in interest in case the land was recorded in their names prior to the same being entered in the name of Balwant Singh. As the land in question had never been held by the petitioners or their father and it has not been transferred by them to Balwant Singh, the same cannot be held to be surplus land of the petitioners holding the same to be their benami property merely because it was found in possession of the petitioners.

20. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the reasons given by the Prescribed Authority in the impugned order dated 27.02.2007 are unsustainable in law, which vitiate the order declaring 5.386 irrigated land of the petitioners as surplus land.

21. The Commissioner, Lucknow Division, Lucknow has dismissed the Appeal No. 102/2006-07 filed by the petitioners under Section 13(2) of the Ceiling Act against the aforesaid order dated 27.02.2007 passed by the Prescribed Authority, without taking into consideration the aforesaid aspects of the matter, which vitiates the Appellate order also.

22. Accordingly, the writ petition is allowed and the orders dated 27.02.2007 passed by the Prescribed Authority Ceiling Act/Additional Collector, Kheri in Case No. 37/2004-05 and 25.07.2008 passed by the Commissioner, Lucknow Division, Lucknow dismissing the Appeal No. 102/2006-07 are hereby quashed and the necessary consequences shall follow.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1580
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 01.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ -C No. 3000116 of 2002

Master Shantul @ Shiv Prasad & Anr.

...Petitioners

Versus

State of U.P. & Ors.

...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

P.L. Misra, Madan Gopal Misra

Counsel for the Respondents:

C.S.C.

U.P. Imposition of Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1960 — Sections 5(6) & 13

— Transfer after appointed date (24.01.1971) - Land purchased by petitioners' predecessor in 1973 - Ceiling proceedings initiated against original tenure-holder - Land included in surplus- Appeal and remand -Prescribed Authority reconsidered entire record and earlier orders -No evidence led by transferee to prove bona fide transfer for adequate consideration or absence of benami nature - Burden under S. 5(6) lies on transferee -No alternative land of original tenure-holder available for adjustment - Mere drafting error in confirming earlier order does not vitiate decision -Concurrent findings of authorities -No perversity or illegality - Article 226 jurisdiction not to be exercised on technical errors .

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi J.)

1. याचिकाकर्तागण के विद्वान अधिवक्ता श्री मदन गोपाल मिश्रा तथा विद्वान स्थायी अधिवक्ता श्री लक्ष्मी मोहन

खरे को सुना तथा पत्रावली का अवलोकन किया।

2. भारतीय संविधान के अनुच्छेद 226 के अन्तर्गत प्रस्तुत इस रिट याचिका द्वारा याचिकाकर्तागण ने अपर जिलाधिकारी (वित्त/राजस्व)/निहित प्राधिकारी सीलिंग, उन्नाव द्वारा वाद संख्या 5/8/5 अन्तर्गत धारा 2 उत्तर प्रदेश भूमि जोत सीमा अधिरोपण अधिनियम, 1960 (जिसे इसके उपरान्त इस निर्णय में 'सीमारोपण अधिनियम' कहा जाएगा) में पारित निर्णय तथा आदेश दिनांक 13.12.2001 तथा उक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध पारित अपील संख्या 11/2001-2002 में अपर आयुक्त (न्यायिक), लखनऊ मंडल लखनऊ द्वारा पारित निर्णय तथा आदेश दिनांक 05.10.2002 की वैधता को चुनौती दी है।

3. संक्षेप में प्रकरण के तथ्य इस प्रकार हैं कि याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता स्वर्गीय विनय कुमार शुक्ला ने गाटा संख्या 236 क्षेत्रफल 4 बीघा 14 बिस्वा 13 बिस्वांसी तथा गाटा संख्या 302 क्षेत्रफल 5 बीघा 6 बिस्वा स्थित ग्राम कल्याणपुर, परगना पाटन, तहसील पुरवा, जनपद उन्नाव की भूमि रानी रघुवंश दुलारी से विक्रय-पत्र दिनांक 07.11.1973 के माध्यम से क्रय की थी तथा भूमि का अध्यासन भी प्राप्त कर लिया था। ग्राम कल्याणपुर में चकबंदी की प्रक्रिया चल रही थी, जिस कारण से

याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता के पक्ष में नामान्तरण आदेश सहायक बंदोबस्त अधिकारी चकबंदी ने वाद संख्या 711 में दिनांक 07.11.1974 को पारित किया था। इसके उपरांत भी लिपिकीय त्रुटि के कारण रानी रघुवंश दुलारी का नाम खाता संख्या 184 के संबंध में 1389 और 1394 फसली वर्षों में अंकित रहा। याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता विनय कुमार शुक्ला ने अभिलेखों की दुरुस्ती के लिए धारा 33 उत्तर प्रदेश भू-राजस्व अधिनियम सपठित धारा 9 (क) उत्तर प्रदेश जोत चकबंदी अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत प्रार्थना पत्र दिया। उप जिलाधिकारी पुरवा, जनपद उन्नाव ने दिनांक 14.11.1983 को श्री विनय कुमार शुक्ला का नाम अंकित करने का आदेश दिया।

4. रानी रघुवंश दुलारी के विरुद्ध सीमारोपण अधिनियम के अन्तर्गत कार्यवाही चालू हुई तथा चुके उनका नाम राजस्व अभिलेखों में अंकित चला आ रहा था, भू-खण्ड संख्या 236 तथा 302 भूमि भी उनकी भूमि में सम्मिलित करते हुए अतिरिक्त भूमि घोषित कर दी गई।

5. विहित प्राधिकारी के उपरोक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध अधिनियम की धारा 13 के अन्तर्गत जनपद न्यायाधीश उन्नाव के समक्ष अपील प्रस्तुत की गई, जो दिनांक 06.09.1976 के निर्णय तथा आदेश से

स्वीकार की गई तथा विहित प्राधिकारी का आदेश अपास्त करते हुए प्रकरण को पुनः निर्णीत किए जाने हेतु प्रतिप्रेषित किया गया। विहित प्राधिकारी ने प्रकरण को पुनः निर्णीत किया तथा उसके निर्णय के विरुद्ध पुनः एक अपील प्रस्तुत हुई जो दिनांक 07.04.1980 को स्वीकार करते हुए प्रकरण को पुनः विहित प्राधिकारी को प्रतिप्रेषित किया गया।

6. विहित प्राधिकारी ने प्रकरण को पुनः दिनांक 21.03.1986 को निर्णीत करते हुए प्रश्नगत भूमि को रानी रघुवंश दुलारी की अतिरिक्त भूमि घोषित किया। उक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध रानी रघुवंश दुलारी ने पुनः एक अपील संख्या 2 सन 1985-1986 प्रस्तुत की तथा इसी आदेश के विरुद्ध याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता श्री विनय कुमार शुक्ला ने भी एक अपील संख्या 3 सन 1985-1986 प्रस्तुत की।

7. रिट याचिका में यह भी कहा गया है कि याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता ने विहित प्राधिकारी के समक्ष सिविल जज उन्नाव द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांक 07.04.1980 के क्रियान्वयन के लिए भी एक प्रार्थना पत्र दिया था, जो विहित प्राधिकारी ने दिनांक 16.01.1989 को इस आधार पर निरस्त कर दिया कि विहित प्राधिकारी के आदेश दिनांक 31.03.1986 के विरुद्ध एक अपील लम्बित थी। उक्त आदेश

से व्यथित होकर याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता ने अपील संख्या 8 सन 1988-1989 प्रस्तुत की, जो कि अपील संख्या 2 तथा 3 सन 1985-1986 के साथ ही निर्णय दिनांक 30.01.1991 द्वारा निर्णीत की गई, जिसके द्वारा विद्वान अपर आयुक्त (न्यायिक) लखनऊ मण्डल ने अपील आंशिक रूप से स्वीकार करते हुए नियत प्राधिकारी का आदेश दिनांक 31.03.1986 इस सीमा तक निरस्त कर दिया कि याचिकाकर्तागण द्वारा क्रय किए गए भू-खण्ड को सीलिंग एरिया से मुक्त करते हुए रानी रघुवंश दुलारी की अन्य भूमि से समान क्षेत्रफल नियमानुसार अतिरिक्त भूमि घोषित किया जाए।

8. अपर आयुक्त द्वारा पारित उपरोक्त निर्णय तथा आदेश दिनांक 30.1.1991 से पूर्व पारित किसी भी आदेश की प्रतिलिपि इस रिट याचिका के साथ संलग्न नहीं की गई है।

9. प्रार्थीगण ने अपनी माता एवं संरक्षिका श्रीमती अरुणा शुक्ला के माध्यम से दिनांक 12.06.1997 को एक प्रार्थना पत्र नियत प्राधिकारी को इस आशय से दिया कि उपरोक्त आदेश दिनांक 30.01.1991 का क्रियान्वयन कराया जाए।

10. इसके उपरान्त अपर जिलाधिकारी वित्त/राजस्व/नियत प्राधिकारी सीलिंग उन्नाव ने दिनांक 17.06.1999 को आदेश पारित करके यह कहा कि अपीलीय

न्यायालय के आदेश दिनांक 30.01.1991 तथा याचिकाकर्तागण के प्रार्थना पत्र के आलोक में तहसीलदार बीघापुर से आख्या प्राप्त की गई तथा तहसीलदार बीघापुर ने अपनी आख्या दिनांक 17.09.1998 में यह कहा कि रानी रघुवंश दुलारी के नाम ग्राम कल्याणपुर में मात्र गाटा संख्या 847/0.439 व 849/0.482 में 1/5 भाग है जो मात्र 0.184 हेक्टेयर है तथा यह याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता द्वारा क्रय की गई भूमि संख्या 236 क्षेत्रफल 4 बीघा 14 बिस्वा 13 बिस्वांसी तथा गाटा संख्या 302 क्षेत्रफल 5 बीघा 6 बिस्वां के स्थान पर अतिरिक्त घोषित किए जाने हेतु अपर्याप्त है। उक्त आदेश में यह भी कहा गया है कि याचिकाकर्तागण द्वारा यह प्रार्थना पत्र उक्त आदेश पारित होने के लगभग 8 वर्ष बाद बिना विलम्ब क्षमा हेतु प्रार्थना पत्र दिए हुए प्रस्तुत किया गया था, जबकि सीमारोपण अधिनियम में अतिरिक्त घोषित भूमि पर तत्काल अध्यासन लेने का प्राविधान है। तदनुसार, याचिकाकर्तागण का प्रार्थना पत्र निरस्त करते हुए तहसीलदार बीघापुर को अतिरिक्त घोषित भूमि पर तत्काल अध्यासन प्राप्त करने का निर्देश दिया गया।

11. उपरोक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध याचिकाकर्तागण ने सीमारोपण अधिनियम की धारा 13 के अन्तर्गत अपील संख्या 5/1998-1999 प्रस्तुत की जो अपर आयुक्त (न्यायिक), लखनऊ मंडल ने निर्णय तथा

आदेश दिनांक 29.08.2000 से यह कहते हुए स्वीकार करी कि नियत प्राधिकारी ने मात्र तहसील आख्या के आधार पर प्रश्नगत आदेश पारित किया, जबकि उन्हें इसी प्रकरण में पूर्व पारित आदेश एवं उससे संबंधित पत्रावली का अध्ययन करना चाहिए था, जिससे यह ज्ञात हो सकता था कि नियत प्राधिकारी द्वारा मूल खातेदार की जोत में कुल कितनी भूमि सम्मिलित करते हुए अतिरिक्त घोषित की गई थी और पूर्व में अतिरिक्त घोषित भूमि मौके पर एवं अभिलेखों में अविवादित है अथवा नहीं तथा अपर आयुक्त ने पत्रावली इस निर्देश के साथ प्रतिप्रेषित की कि उक्त निर्णय में की गई विवेचना के परिप्रेक्ष्य में प्रकरण का निस्तारण पुनः किया जाए।

12. दिनांक 13.12.2001 को नियत प्राधिकारी ने पुनः निर्णय पारित किया, जिसमें यह अंकित है कि पक्षों को पुनः साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत करने हेतु अवसर दिया गया तथा नियत प्राधिकारी द्वारा पूर्व में पारित आदेश दिनांक 30.11.1978 एवं 31.03.1986 तथा पूर्ण पत्रावली का भी परिशीलन किया गया, जिससे स्पष्ट है कि रानी रघुवंश दुलारी की कुल 99 बीघा 15 बिस्वा 13.5 बिस्वांसी भूमि अतिरिक्त घोषित की गई थी और अब उनके पास 0.184 हेक्टेयर के अतिरिक्त कोई भी अविवादित भूमि शेष नहीं थी, जिसे याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता द्वारा क्रय की गई भूमि संख्या 236 क्षेत्रफल 4 बीघा 14 बिस्वा

13 बिस्वांसी तथा गाटा संख्या 302 क्षेत्रफल 5 बीघा 6 बिस्वा के बदले अतिरिक्त घोषित किया जा सके तथा इस संबंध में याचिकाकर्तागण की तरफ से कोई भी साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया।

13. उक्त निर्णय में यह भी अंकित है कि पत्रावली दिनांक 07.06.2001 से निस्तारण हेतु लम्बित थी और प्रार्थीगण तथा उनके अधिवक्ता अनुपस्थित थे। 29.11.2001 तक 11 तिथियां व्यतीत हो जाने के उपरांत उस दिन राज्य सरकार के अधिवक्ता के तर्कों को सुन लिया गया था और पत्रावली दिनांक 06.12.2001 को आदेश हेतु नियत की गई थी, किंतु तब भी याचिकाकर्तागण या उनके अधिवक्ता उपस्थित नहीं हुए और कोई भी साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया। इन परिस्थितियों में नियत प्राधिकारी ने पूर्व पारित आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 को ही पुष्ट करते हुए तहसीलदार को पुनः अतिरिक्त घोषित भूमि पर नियमानुसार कब्जे आवंटन की कार्यवाही हेतु आदेशित किया।

14. उक्त आदेश के विरुद्ध याचिकाकर्तागण ने अपील संख्या 11/2001-2002 प्रस्तुत की जो अपर आयुक्त (न्यायिक) ने आदेश दिनांक 05.10.2002 द्वारा निरस्त कर दी। उक्त निर्णय तथा आदेश दिनांक 05.10.2002 में अपीलीय न्यायालय ने अन्य तथ्यों के

साथ यह भी अंकित किया है कि अपीलकर्तागण के पिता द्वारा विक्रय-पत्र वर्ष 1973 में निष्पादित कराया गया, जो सीमारोपण अधिनियम में अंकित संदर्भ तिथि 24.01.1971 के बाद का है और ऐसा हस्तांतरण जब तक नेक नियती से तथा सद्भावनापूर्वक पर्याप्त प्रतिफल देकर निष्पादित किया जाना सिद्ध न किया जाए, तब तक क्रेतागण को ऐसे विक्रय-पत्र के आधार पर कोई अनुतोष नहीं दिया जा सकता है।

15. उपरोक्त निर्णयों की वैधता को चुनौती देते हुए याचिकाकर्तागण के विद्वान अधिवक्ता ने तर्क दिया कि नियत प्राधिकारी द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 अपीलीय न्यायालय के आदेश दिनांक 29.08.2000 द्वारा अपास्त किया जा चुका था तथा ऐसी परिस्थिति में नियत प्राधिकारी ने आलोच्य आदेश दिनांक 13.12.2001 द्वारा आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 को पुष्ट करने में वैधानिक त्रुटि कारित की है तथा नियत प्राधिकारी ने अपीलीय आदेश दिनांक 29.08.2000 में दिए गए निर्देशों का अनुपालन नहीं किया है।

16. अपीलीय आदेश दिनांक 29.08.2000 द्वारा नियत प्राधिकारी को यह निर्देश दिया गया था कि नियत प्राधिकारी प्रकरण के पूर्व पारित निर्णय तथा उससे संबंधित पत्रावली का अध्ययन करके में यह देखें कि मूल खातेदार की जोत में कुल कितनी भूमि

सम्मिलित करते हुए अतिरिक्त घोषित की गई थी।

17. नियत प्राधिकारी ने उक्त आदेश का अनुपालन करते हुए पूर्व पारित आदेश दिनांक 30.11.1978 एवं 31.03.1986 तथा पूर्ण पत्रावली का परिशीलन किया और यह पाया कि पूर्व खातेदार रानी रघुवंश दुलारी की कुल 99 बीघा 15 बिस्वा 13.5 बिस्वांसी भूमि अतिरिक्त घोषित की गई थी और अब उनके पास 0.184 हेक्टेयर के अतिरिक्त कोई अविवादित भूमि उपलब्ध नहीं है, जिसे कि याचिकाकर्तागण के पिता द्वारा क्रय की गई भूमि संख्या 236 क्षेत्रफल 4 बीघा 14 बिस्वा 13 बिस्वांसी तथा गाटा संख्या 302 क्षेत्रफल 5 बीघा 6 बिस्वा के बदले पूर्व खातेदार की अन्य भूमि अतिरिक्त घोषित की जा सके और इस संबंध में याचिकाकर्तागण की तरफ से भी कोई ठोस साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं किया गया।

18. उक्त से यह स्पष्ट है कि नियत प्राधिकारी अपीलीय आदेश के निर्देश का अनुपालन किया है। नियत प्राधिकारी द्वारा मात्र यह लिख देना कि पूर्व पारित आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 विधि सम्मत ढंग से पारित किया है, उचित नहीं प्रतीत होता है, किन्तु यह मात्र एक भाषा की त्रुटि प्रतीत होती है, क्योंकि नियत प्राधिकारी ने अपीलीय न्यायालय के निर्देश के अनुपालन में प्रकरण के समस्त तथ्यों की विवेचना करने के

उपरांत यह पाया कि याचिकाकर्तागण की भूमि के बदले पूर्व खातेदार की कोई भूमि को अतिरिक्त घोषित किया जाना संभव नहीं है, किंतु उपरोक्त आदेश का परिणाम वही हुआ जो कि पूर्व आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 का था। उपरोक्त परिस्थितियों में, यद्यपि नियत प्राधिकारी ने यह कहने में भाषा की त्रुटि की है कि पूर्व आदेश दिनांक 17.06.1999 पुष्ट किया जाता है, तथापि आदेश गलत अथवा अवैधानिक नहीं है। अतः मात्र भाषा की त्रुटि के कारण आदेश में कोई हस्तक्षेप करना उचित नहीं होगा।

19. अपीलीय आदेश दिनांक 05.10.2002 में अपर आयुक्त ने यह पाया है कि अपीलकर्तागण के पिता के पक्ष में विक्रय-पत्र वर्ष 1973 में हुआ था, जो कि सीमारोपण अधिनियम के संदर्भ तिथि 24.01.1971 के बाद का है। सीमारोपण अधिनियम की धारा 5(6) के अनुसार दिनांक 24.01.1971 के उपरांत किया गया अतिरिक्त भूमि का कोई भी अन्तरण तब तक वैध नहीं होगा, जब तक नियत प्राधिकारी को यह संतोष न हो जाए कि अन्तरण सदाशय से उचित प्रतिफल देकर किया गया हो तथा यह अन्तरण एक बेनामी अन्तरण न हो एवं उपरोक्त शर्तों को सिद्ध करने का भार ऐसे व्यक्ति पर है जो इस अन्तरण से लाभ का दावा कर रहा हो। याचिकाकर्ता ने उपरोक्त शर्तों को सिद्ध करने के लिए कोई भी साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत नहीं किया तथा ऐसी परिस्थिति में

संदर्भ तिथि दिनांक 24.01.1971 के पश्चात हुए विक्रय-पत्र के आधार पर कोई भी लाभ का दावा नहीं कर सकते हैं।

20. भारतीय संविधान के अनुच्छेद 226 के अन्तर्गत यह न्यायालय अपनी शक्तियों का प्रयोग न्यायहित में तब करती है, जब ऐसा न करने से न्याय के उद्देश्यों की पूर्ति न हो पाए तथा मात्र तकनीकी आधारों पर न्यायालय अनुच्छेद 226 के अन्तर्गत अपनी विवेकाधीन शक्तियों का प्रयोग नहीं करती है।

21. जब कि उपरोक्त विवेचना से यह स्पष्ट है कि आलोच्य आदेशों में कोई ऐसी त्रुटि नहीं है, जिससे याचिकाकर्तागण के साथ अन्याय हुआ हो, मात्र भाषा की त्रुटि अनुच्छेद 226 की शक्तियों को प्रयोग करने का उचित आधार नहीं प्रदान करती हैं।

22. तदनुसार, रिट याचिका बलहीन है और निरस्त की जाती है।

(2024) 4 ILRA 1585
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ-A No. 1597 of 2024

Along With

Writ-A No. 1674 of 2024 and 1747 of 2024

Gauri Shankar Prajapati
Versus

Ravikul Bansal

...Petitioner

...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:

Rishikesh Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:

Ashish Agrawal, Rahul Agarwal

A. Tenancy Law – U.P. Urban Buildings (Regulation of Letting, Rent and Eviction) Act, 1972 – Sections 21(1)(a) – Release of shop – Bona fide need – Alternative accommodation available to the landlord, how far adversely effect bona fide need – Landlord claimed need to set U.P. business of Digital Printing for son – Permissibility – Both court below gave finding of fact on bona fide in favour of landlord – Scope of Interference – Held, the need of the premises as set U.P. in the release application is required to be evaluated viz a viz the available alternate accommodation. A conclusion need not be drawn that the need of the landlord is not genuine or bona fide merely on the ground that he is in possession of alternative accommodation – The business of Digital Printing is to be carried out at one place and it would not be feasible to carry on the said business in different spaces. The other accommodations though available to the landlord can not be utilized for satisfying the need as set U.P. – Findings of fact have been recorded by both Authorities on the question of bona fide need and comparative hardship which findings are based on proper appreciation of the materials on record and consideration of the correct law. The findings of fact recorded do not call for any interference. (Para 13, 16 and 17)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)List of cases cited :-

1. Hasmat Rai & anr. Vs Raghunath Prasad; 1981 (3) SCC 103
2. Shiv SarU.P. GU.P.ta Vs Dr. Mahesh Chand GU.P.ta; AIR 1999 SC 2507: 1999 (6) SCC 222
3. M.M. Quasim Vs Manohar Lal Sharma; AIR 1981 SC 1113

4. Sarla Ahuja Vs United India Insurance Comp. Ltd.; 1998 (8) SCC 119

5. M/s Sait Nagjee Purushotham & Co. Ltd. Vs Vimalabai Prabhulal & ors.; 2003 (8) SCC 252

6. Badrinarayan Chemical Bhutada Vs Govindram Ramgopal Mundada; 2003 (2) SCC 320

7. Mohd. Ayub & anr. Vs Mukesh Chand; 2012 (2) SCC 155

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh
Srivastava, J.)

1. All the above referred writ petitions involve identical questions of law and facts. The Writ Petition (A) No. 1597 of 2024 is being treated as the leading writ petition and the facts pertaining to the same is being considered for deciding the controversy involved.

2. Heard Shri Rishikesh Tripathi, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Rahul Agarwal, learned counsel for the caveator/respondent.

3. The instant writ petition, at the instance of the tenant/petitioner, has been filed assailing the judgment and order dated 6.1.2024 passed by the learned Addl. District Judge, Banda in Rent Control Appeal No. 8 of 2022 as also the judgment and order dated 24.5.2022 passed by the learned Prescribed Authority/Civil Judge (Sr.Div.), Banda in Rent Case No. 5 of 2018 (RaviKul Bansal versus Gauri Shankar Prajapati).

4. By the judgment and order dated 24.5.2022, the learned Prescribed Authority allowed the release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972. By the judgment and order dated 6.1.2024, the Appellate Authority has dismissed the Rent Appeal and upheld the judgment and order of the Prescribed Authority dated 24.5.2022.

5. The facts shorn of unnecessary details giving rise to the controversy involved between the parties are that the petitioner is a tenant in a shop @ Rs.500/- per month and is doing hardware business. The respondent is the landlord. A release application under Section 21 (1) (a) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 was filed by the respondent/landlord against the tenant/petitioner setting up a bona fide need of the premises under the tenancy of the petitioner for his son Anshul Bansal for installing a digital printing press, which will require an area of 2100 square feet. The business of digital printing press involves setting up of Colour Printing Machines, Paper Cutting Machines, Perfect Binding Machines, Book Binding Machines, Punching and Creasing Machine besides numerous computers. It was alleged that the landlord has got 2086 square feet area in his possession i.e. area in which the shop under the tenancy of the petitioner and other tenants is situate which is best suited for setting up the printing press.

6. The release application was contested by the tenant/petitioner by filing written statement stating inter alia that the landlord/respondent is a man of means possessed of about 35 shops and 10 to 15 suits have been filed for eviction of the tenants. The tenant/petitioner filed evidence in the form of an affidavit stating that the landlord/respondent has alternate accommodation to cater to his need. He also filed photographs of the vacant shops and also got issued Amin Commission.

7. The learned Prescribed Authority vide its judgment and order dated 24.5.2022 allowed the release application returning the finding of bona fide need in favour of the landlord/respondent and against the tenant/petitioner. The finding on the question of comparative hardship was also recorded in favour of the landlord/respondent and against the tenant/petitioner.

8. The tenant/petitioner assailed the order of the learned Prescribed Authority in rent appeal. During the pendency of the appeal, the tenant/petitioner came to know that some shops have come in possession of the landlord/respondent, which would satisfy the need set up and such information was sought to be brought on record by filing an application for adducing additional evidence under Order 41 Rule 27 CPC. The judgment in SCC Case No. 7 of 2015, judgment in SCC Case No. 3 of 2001, judgment in SCC Case No. 1 of 2005 and judgment in Case No. 2 of 2015 were brought on record to demonstrate that the subject matter of the SCC Suits decreed in favour of the landlord/respondent were in his possession. The premises released were two compounds in possession of Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Tax, one shop of tenant Mahboob Khan, one shop in possession of tenant Smt. Kamla Devi, one shop of Moti Lal Richhariya. The application for additional evidence was allowed.

9. Shri Rishikesh Tripathi, learned counsel for the tenant/petitioner has assailed the orders of the Prescribed Authority as also of the Appellate Authority on the ground that the learned Prescribed Authority without considering the evidence on record allowed the release application. The Appellate Authority also committed the same mistake even though it proceeded to take on record the additional evidence adduced by the tenant/petitioner by allowing the application under Order 41 Rule 27 CPC. It is contended that the landlord/respondent was possessed with adequate alternate vacant accommodation which was suitable to satisfy the need set up but the Court below failed to consider the evidence and proceeded to allow the release application. Reliance has been placed upon the decision of the Apex Court reported in 1981 (3) SCC 103 (Hasmat Rai and another versus Raghunath Prasad) to buttress the argument that subsequent events that take place during the pendency of the proceedings are required to be taken into consideration for assessing the bona fide need of the landlord which must continue to exist till final determination of the case. Reliance is also placed upon another decision of the Apex Court reported in AIR 1999 Supreme Court 2507 (Shiv Sarup Gupta versus Dr. Mahesh Chand Gupta) to buttress the proposition that requirement of the premises under the tenancy of a tenant by the landlord must be more than a mere desire and the availability of an alternate accommodation with the landlord may have a bearing on the bona fide need of the landlord which the Court is required to consider while deciding the question of bona fide need. Based on the above submissions, learned counsel for the tenant/petitioner submits that both the orders of the Prescribed Authority and Appellate Authority are not sustainable and deserves to be set aside and the writ petition is liable to be allowed.

10. Per contra, Shri Rahul Agarwal, learned counsel appearing for the landlord/respondent submits that both Authorities have upheld the bona fide need and comparative hardship in favour of the landlord/respondent. The findings are based on cogent grounds and the findings being findings of fact are not liable to be interfered with under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The writ petition is liable to be dismissed at the threshold. Reliance is placed upon decision of the Apex Court reported in 1998 (8) SCC 119, 2005 (8) SCC 252, 2003 (2) SCC 320, 2012 (2) SCC 155 and 2007 (4) SCC 465 to submit that it is not for the tenant to dictate terms to the landlord as to how else he can adjust himself, it is always the prerogative of the landlord that if he requires the premises in question for his bona fide use for expansion or for setting up his son, it cannot be said that the need is not genuine, if landlord is already running a successful business or that his sons are already employed, the owner of the property cannot be denied eviction and compelled to live poorly merely to enable tenants to carry on their flourishing business actively at the cost of the landlord, the landlord's requirement need be a dire necessity and that the landlord is the best judge of his requirement and Courts have no concern to dictate the landlord as to how and in what manner, he should live. The bona fide personal need is a question of fact and should not be normally interfered with. It is accordingly prayed that the writ petition warrants dismissal.

11. I have heard the learned counsels for the parties and have perused the record as also the case laws cited by the counsels.

12. In order to appreciate the rival submissions of the learned counsels for the parties, it would be apt to understand as to what is meant by the terms "bona fide". The Apex Court in the case of Shiv Sarup Gupta vs. Dr. Mahesh Chand Gupta reported in 1999 (6) SCC 222 held as under:-

“13. ..., the term bona fide or genuinely refers to a state of mind. Requirement is not a mere desire. The degree of intensity contemplated by “requires” is much more higher than in mere desire. The phrase “required bona fide” is suggestive of legislative intent that a mere desire which is the outcome of whim or fancy is not taken note of by the rent control legislation. A requirement in the sense of felt need which is an outcome of a sincere, honest desire, in contradistinction with a mere pretence or pretext to evict a tenant, on the part of the landlord claiming to occupy the premises for himself or for any member of the family would entitle him to seek ejectment of the tenant. Looked at from this angle, any setting of the facts and circumstances protruding the need of the landlord and its bona fides would be capable of successfully withstanding the test of objective determination by the court. The judge of facts should place himself in the armchair of the landlord and then ask the question to himself — whether in the given facts substantiated by the landlord the need to occupy the premises can be said to be natural, real, sincere, honest. If the answer be in the positive, the need is bona fide. The failure on the part of the landlord to substantiate the pleaded need, or, in a given case, positive material brought on record by the tenant enabling the court drawing an inference that the reality was to the contrary and the landlord was merely attempting at finding out a pretence or pretext for getting rid of the tenant, would be enough to persuade the court certainly to deny its judicial assistance to the landlord. Once the court is satisfied of the bona fides of the need of the landlord for the premises or additional premises by applying objective standards then in the matter of choosing out of more than one accommodation available to the landlord his subjective choice shall be respected by the court. The court would permit the landlord to satisfy the proven need by choosing the accommodation which the landlord feels would be most suited for the purpose; the court would not in such a case thrust its own wisdom upon the choice of the landlord by holding that not one but the other accommodation must be accepted by the landlord to satisfy his such need. In short, the concept of bona fide need or genuine requirement needs a practical approach instructed by the realities of life. An approach either too liberal or too conservative or pedantic must be guarded against.”

13. The availability of an alternate accommodation with the landlord i.e. an accommodation other than the one in occupation of the tenant wherefrom he is sought to be evicted has a dual relevancy. Firstly, the availability of another accommodation suitable and convenient in all respects as the accommodation with the tenant may have an adverse bearing on the finding as to bona fide need of the landlord if he unreasonably refuses to occupy the available premises to satisfy his alleged need. Availability of such circumstances would enable the Court drawing an inference that the need of the landlord was not bona fide or the state of mind of the landlord was not honest, sincere and natural. Secondly, if alternate accommodation is shown to exist, the landlord is required to satisfy the Court that the available accommodation is not suitable for the need set up. In the opinion of the Court the need of the premises as set up in the release application is required to be evaluated viz a viz the available alternate accommodation. A conclusion need not be drawn that the need of the landlord is not genuine or bona fide merely on the ground that he is in possession of alternative accommodation. In M.M. Quasim Vs. Manohar Lal Sharma, reported in AIR 1981 SC 1113 the Apex Court has held that the landlord does not have an unfettered right to choose the premises but merely showing that the landlord has some other vacant premises in his possession may not be sufficient to negative the landlord claim if the vacant premises were not suitable for the purpose for which the landlord required the premises. In Sarla Ahuja Vs. United India Insurance Company Limited, reported in 1998 (8) SCC 119, the Apex Court held that the Authority considering the requirement of the landlord should not proceed on assumption that the landlords requirement should not proceed on the assumption that the landlords requirement is not bona fide when a landlord shows a prima facie case a presumption that the requirement of the landlord is bona fide is available to be drawn. It is not for the tenant to dictate terms to the landlord as to how else he can adjust himself without giving possession of the tenanted premises. While deciding the question of bona fides of the requirement of the landlord, it is quite unnecessary to make an endeavour as to how else the landlord could have adjusted himself.

14. The above legal position has further been reiterated by the Apex Court in the case of M/s Sait Nagjee Purushotham & Co. Ltd vs Vimalabai Prabhulal & Ors. reported in 2003 (8) SCC 252, case of Badrinarayan Chemical Bhutada Vs. Govindram Ramgopal Mundada reported in 2003 (2) SCC 320. In the case of Mohd. Ayub & another Vs. Mukesh Chand reported in 2012 (2) SCC 155 relied upon by learned counsel for the landlord/respondent.

15. Now coming to the need as set up in the release application, the Court finds that the landlord / respondent has set up the need for his son Anshu Bansal who wants to set up a business of Digital Printing. The said business requires setting up of Colour Printing Machines, Paper Cutting Machines, Perfect Binding Machines, Book Binding Machines, Punching and Creasing Machine besides numerous computers. The requirement is for approx 2100 square ft. space. The landlord/ respondent is in possession of approx 2086 square ft. space as has been depicted in the map along with the release application. If, the spaces depicted by unshaded portion in occupation of tenants including the petitioner whose tenancy is depicted by Letters B, B1, B2, B3 is released in favour of the landlord/respondent, he will have 2086 square ft. of space which will fulfill his bona fide need. The other tenanted premises under the tenancy of Sharda and Shyam Singh are the subject matters of the connected writ petitions.

16. In the opinion of the Court, the business of Digital Printing is to be carried out at one place and it would not be feasible to carry on the said business in different spaces. The other accommodations though available to the landlord cannot be utilized for satisfying the need as set up. The properties available with the landlord which have been brought on record by the application under Order 41 Rule 27 CPC as additional evidence are not at all germane for determining the bona fide need of the landlord.

17. This Court having gone through the judgment and orders of the learned Prescribed Authority as also the Appellate Authority finds that findings of fact have been recorded by both Authorities on the question of bona fide need and comparative hardship which findings are based on proper appreciation of the materials on record and consideration of the correct law. The findings of fact recorded do not call for any interference by this Court in exercise of its powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India particularly, in view of the settled legal position of law that it is for the landlord to decide how and in what manner, he should live his own life and cannot be guided, controlled or restricted by any third person including the Court.

18. In view of the above, the Court finds no merit in the writ petitions. Accordingly, all the aforesaid writ petitions are dismissed.

19. Parties to bear their own costs.

(2024) 4 ILRA 1591
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 11.03.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ-A No. 15714 of 2023

Ashok Kumar Gautam ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
 Vinay Pratap Singh, Suman Kumar Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
 C.S.C., Abhishek Srivastava, Usha Kiran

A. Service Law – U.P. Power Corporation Limited Servants (Discipline and Appeal) Regulations, 2020 – Reg. 7 – Disciplinary proceeding – Punishment – Award of withholding two increments with cumulative effect beside recovery of Rs.

2,61422/- – Charge of sanctioning connection without erecting new line and by securing less metre cable than the distance between the premises and nearest pole was leveled – Inquiry report did not set out the charge against the petitioner – No consideration of any documentary evidence was made – Effect – Burden of proof, on whom lies – Held, charges laid by the Establishment against the employee cannot be taken to be proof of themselves. It is the burden of the Establishment to prove the charges, and like any other judicial proceeding – In the event, a proper charge-sheet was not issued to the petitioner, the proceedings go foul by one more step and oblige the respondents to issue a fresh and properly done charge-sheet as well. (Para 25, 26, 29 and 34)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of cases cited :-

1. Roop Singh Negi Vs P.N.B. & ors.; (2009) 2 SCC 570
2. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)
3. St. of U.P. & anr. Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition has been instituted challenging the order dated 14.06.2021 passed by the Managing Director, Kanpur Electric Supply Company Limited, 14/71, Civil Lines, KESA House, Kanpur holding the petitioner guilty after disciplinary proceedings and awarding him the punishment of withholding two increments with cumulative effect, besides recovery of a sum of Rs. 2,09,138.40/-. Also under challenge is the appellate order dated 05.04.2023 passed by the Chairman, Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow passed on the petitioner's departmental appeal whereby the Chairman has rejected the appeal and enhanced the penalty awarded to withholding of three increments with cumulative effect and maintaining the recovery ordered by the Disciplinary Authority.

2. The facts giving rise to this petition are that the petitioner was appointed as an Assistant Engineer in the employ of the Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation in the year 1999. He was promoted to the post of Executive Engineer on 08.06.2008 and posted with the Electricity Distribution Division, Vikas Nagar, Kanpur Electricity Supply Company Limited, Kanpur Nagar (for short, 'the KESCO'). He worked on the said post up to 06.09.2014. On the 6th of September, 2014, the petitioner was transferred from Vikas Nagar to Sarvodaya Nagar. He joined his station of transfer where he commenced performing his duties.

3. According to the petitioner, on 19.08.2014, one Smt. Vimla Devi applied for a new service connection. She made an application for the purpose. The petitioner inspected her premises on 26.08.2014 and issued a certificate dated the 26th August, 2014, certifying the distance between the nearest pole and her premises to be 210 meters. After the premises had been inspected, the prospective consumer was informed by the petitioner about the distance charges to be borne and endorsed a remark on the application to the effect that the consumer is satisfied about the distance charges. The applicant/consumer deposited a sum of Rs. 61,200/- on 03.09.2014 under the head of miscellaneous fee chargeable for extra cable.

4. On the 15th of September, 2014, the Assistant Engineer, Ekdhar Charan submitted a report asking the petitioner for approval in regard to the connection last mentioned. The petitioner signed his approval about the receipt of Rs. 20,925/- on account of security money, meter charges, service line charges, system loading charges et cetera.

5. The petitioner was relieved of his duties at the Electricity Distribution Division, Vikas Nagar, as already said, for the next posting at Sarvodaya Nagar.

6. A random inspection of the consumer's premises was done on 07.11.2014 by a team comprising the Superintending Engineer, the Executive Engineer, the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer. The inspection team submitted a report saying that variable cost for 170 meters of cable had been deposited while the distance of the premises from the electrified area was found to be 600 meters. It was also remarked that without erecting a new line, the connection had been sanctioned and installed. Therefore, the service connection was temporarily disconnected.

7. The Superintending Engineer- IV, vide letter dated 11.11.2014, asked the Assistant Engineer, Ekdhar Charan to show cause why charges for 170 meters of cable alone had been secured when the distance between the premises and the nearest pole was more than 800 meters.

8. It is the petitioner's case that the estimate for the new service connection was drawn up by the Executive Engineer (Distribution), R.K. Soni, the Assistant Engineer (Distribution), Ajay Kumar and the Junior Engineer (Distribution), Shailendra Dwivedi which was passed by the Superintending Engineer, Circle-4th, (D-4) on 17.11.2014. It appears to be incorrectly mentioned as 17.11.2017 in paragraph no. 12 of the writ petition.

9. On 19.11.2014, Arvind Kishore, Superintending Engineer- IV, KESCO, made a complaint to the Managing Director saying that Ekdhar Charan, the Assistant Engineer, without complying with the required procedure, had sanctioned a connection to Smt. Vimla.

10. On the 28th of September, 2017, R.K. Soni, Superintending Engineer (Commercial)/Enquiry Officer issued a charge-sheet to the petitioner and sought his reply. The petitioner submitted his reply to the charges through his written statement dated 29.10.2017.

11. It is the petitioner's case that without considering the petitioner's reply, the Inquiry Officer, the Superintending Engineer (Commercial) submitted inquiry report to the Managing Director, KESCO, the Disciplinary Authority. A detailed inquiry report was submitted on 08.05.2020 holding the petitioner guilty and submitted a further inquiry report signed by himself and the other member on the Inquiry Committee, the Senior Accounts Officer, holding the petitioner guilty and recording that a total loss of Rs. 5,87,314/- had been occasioned to the KESCO, in the matter of sanction of service connection to Smt. Vimla Devi. The responsibility for the loss was apportioned by the Inquiry Committee.

12. We would allude to the inquiry report dated 08.05.2020, on the foot of which the Managing Director of the KESCO and the Chairman of the Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited (for short, 'the Corporation') have proceeded to punish the petitioner, later in this judgment.

13. Based on the inquiry report, the petitioner was served with a show cause by the Chief Engineer, KESCO dated 11.05.2021. The petitioner denied the case against him with all technical details and facts consistent with his innocence and submitted his reply dated 11.05.2021.

14. The Managing Director, KESCO, according to the petitioner, without application of mind, passed the impugned order dated 14.06.2021 awarding a major penalty to the petitioner in terms that directing two annual increments be withheld with cumulative effect, besides the recovery of a sum of Rs. 2,61,422/-.

15. The petitioner appealed to the Chairman of the Corporation against the order punishing him. The Chairman, not only dismissed the petitioner's appeal vide order dated 05.04.2023, but enhanced the penalty by ordering the withholding of three increments with cumulative effect, instead of the two, ordered by the Disciplinary Authority, the Chairman, KESCO. The order for recovery of a sum of Rs. 2,61,422/-, on account of loss caused to the Corporation, was maintained by the Appellate Authority.

16. Aggrieved, the petitioner has instituted the present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution.

17. A counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent nos. 2 and 3 on 19.11.2023.

18. Heard Dr. Suman Kumar Yadav, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Abhishek Srivastava, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the Corporation-respondent no. 2, Ms. Usha Kiran, learned Counsel appearing for KESCO-respondent

no. 3 and Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

19. It is argued by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that the Inquiry Committee, who submitted the report, have hardly considered the petitioner's reply and submitted a sketchy and unintelligible report, on the foot of which the petitioner could not be held guilty by the Disciplinary Authority or in appeal.

20. It is, particularly, argued on the strength of the amended pleas in paragraph nos. 35A, 35B and 35C of the writ petition that the Establishment have not produced any witnesses to prove the charges carried in the charge-sheet against the petitioner, in violation of Regulation 7 of the U.P. Power Corporation Limited Servants (Discipline and Appeal) Regulations, 2020 ('the Regulations', for short).

21. It is urged that it is imperative for the Establishment, as a matter of salutary principles governing a disciplinary inquiry leading to the imposition of a major penalty that, in the first instance, the charges are proved by the Establishment producing evidence before the Inquiry Committee/Officer. The evidence is to be produced through a presenting officer who must produce both documentary and oral evidence, particularly witnesses. The witnesses produced must be exposed to cross-examination by the delinquent. After the Establishment have produced their evidence and the delinquent has cross-examined the Establishment witnesses, the delinquent must be given opportunity to produce evidence in his defence which would comprise both documentary and oral evidence. The witnesses on behalf of the defence can also be likewise cross-examined.

22. The submission of the learned Counsel for the petitioner, Dr. Suman Kumar Yadav is that all this procedure has been given a go by and the Inquiry Committee have returned, whatever findings they have, by merely going through papers on record without any evidence being led or the charges being proved.

23. Mr. Abhishek Srivastava and Ms. Usha Kiran, learned Counsel appearing for the respondents, have strongly opposed the aforesaid submissions saying that there is no illegality vitiating inquiry, where the petitioner has been given a fair opportunity both before the inquiry and post inquiry, in terms of a show cause notice, prior to a decision about the petitioner's guilt by the Disciplinary Authority. In addition, the petitioner has also availed his remedy of departmental appeal where the Appellate Authority, considering the gravity of his misconduct, has enhanced the penalty of withholding of two increments to three with cumulative effects. The findings of the Authorities below are unassailable in the submission of the learned Counsel appearing for the KESCO, the Corporation as well as the state.

24. Upon hearing learned Counsel for parties, this Court finds that a perusal of the inquiry report dated 08.05.2020 ex facie shows it to be the handiwork of untrained men and novices who do not have even a faint idea about the salutary procedure of conducting an inquiry and writing an inquiry report dealing with the charges, the delinquent's defence, evidence on both the sides and the conclusions.

25. A perusal of the inquiry report shows that the Inquiry Committee has not only jumped to conclusions but virtually started with them. For one, this Court was handicapped by the fact that a copy of the charge-sheet was not placed on record by either party. But, that would not have mattered much if the inquiry report had been written by a hand or a Committee, reasonably experienced, in holding departmental inquiries and writing reports. The inquiry report does not set out the charge against the petitioner or the statement of imputations. It starts off with conclusions as if the charge is well known to the reader of the report and so also the petitioner's defence.

26. There is a haphazard reference to some technical reports and conclusions drawn to the effect that the petitioner, by sanctioning the electricity connection after estimating the distance between the consumer's premises and the point where the source of power was located, has committed a lapse by not getting the estimate for the entire cost of the installation prepared. These are abrupt conclusions recorded, on what basis is not discernible from the inquiry report. There is no consideration of any documentary evidence or, more particularly evidence, that is to say, the testimony of witnesses which in this case we think was never recorded. The report at best may qualify for an investigative venture, like one that may be expected at the time of a preliminary inquiry, before a decision to initiate disciplinary proceedings is taken. A report of this kind cannot qualify for an inquiry report sans reference to the charge/charges, the petitioner's defence, the evidence led at least on behalf of the Establishment and then the Inquiry Committee's conclusions with reference to the evidence on record. The inquiry report is a piece of waste paper. The relevant part of the enquiry report for all that it says, records:

प्रबंध निदेशक, केस्को के कार्यालय जाप सं० 2451, दिनांक 21.08.2019 के माध्यम से उपरोक्त प्रकरण में दोषी कार्मिकों में से किस-किस कार्मिक द्वारा कितनी-कितनी धनराशि की आर्थिक क्षति पहुंचायी गयी, के निर्धारण हेतु दो सदसीय कमेटी गठित की गयी, जिसमें अधोहस्ताक्षरी को समिति का अध्यक्ष व श्री आशीष दीक्षित, लेखाधिकारी, केस्को को सदस्य बनाया गया। संलग्न पत्रावली के अध्ययन पश्चात् निम्न तथ्य प्रकाश में आये :-

1. श्रीमती विमला अग्रवाल द्वारा संयोजन हेतु आवेदन करने पर सम्बन्धित कार्मिकों द्वारा प्रांकलन के नाध्यग से वांछित धनराशि न जमा कराकर मात्र केबिल चार्ज के रूप में ₹0 61200.00 दिनांक 03.09.2014 को जमा कराकर संयोजन दे दिया गया, जबकि नियमतः उनके संयोजन हेतु प्रांकलन बनाना चाहिये था व प्रांकलन धनराशि जमा कराकर उपरोक्त संयोजन दिया जाना चाहिये था।

2. किसी भी संयोजन को निर्गत करने हेतु अवर अभियन्ता द्वारा साइट का निरीक्षण किया जाता है तथा रिपोर्ट के आधार पर ही उनके द्वारा प्रांकलन तैयार किया जाता है। उक्त प्रकरण में अवर अभियन्ता द्वारा साइट रिपोर्ट दिनांक 26.08.2014 द्वारा निरीक्षण आख्या में परिसर की निकटतम खम्बे से दूरी 210 मीटर दर्शायी गयी है (संलग्नक-A) जिसके आधार पर अण्डीय निपिक द्वारा लाइन चार्ज से ₹0 61200.00 का प्रांकलन बनाया गया (संलग्नक-B), जोकि श्रीमती विमला अग्रवाल द्वारा जमा किया गया तथा संयोजन निर्गत कर

दिया गया। तत्कालीन सहायक अभियन्ता श्री अजय कुमार द्वारा दिनांक 07.11.2014 को उक्त परिसर का निरीक्षण किया गया और पाया कि 600 मीटर है (संलग्नक-C)। उनके द्वारा संयोजन अस्थायी रूप से काट दिया गया।

3. अधीक्षण अभियन्ता मण्डल-चतुर्थ के कार्यालय पत्र सं० 1829, दिनांक 11.11.2014 के सन्दर्भ में तत्कालीन सहायक अभियन्ता श्री अजय कुमार ने अपने जवाब पत्र सं० 1403, दिनांक 17.11.2014 के द्वारा उक्त संयोजन को निर्गत करने हेतु एक प्रांकलन रु० 647314.00 प्रेषित किया गया था।(संलग्नक- D)

4. श्री ए०के० गौतम तत्कालीन अधिशासी अभियन्ता विकास नगर खण्ड, श्री एकधर चरण तत्कालीन अवर अभियन्ता, विकास नगर उपखण्ड एवं श्री अनिल कुमार यादव, तत्कालीन जे०एन०डी० विकास नगर खण्ड द्वारा प्रांकलन धनराशि रु० 647314.00 जमा न कराकर मात्र रु० 61200.00 जमा कर विद्युत संयोजन दे दिया है, जिससे विभाग को रु० 647314.00 - 61200.00 रु० 587314.00 रु० की आर्थिक क्षति हुयी।

निष्कर्ष

अतः समस्त अभिलेखों के अध्ययन उपरान्त समिति इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुँची है कि साइट रिपोर्ट का पूर्ण दायित्व अवर अभियन्ता का है। अतः तत्कालीन अवर अभियन्ता सबसे ज्यादा दोषी है जिन्होंने गलत साइट रिपोर्ट प्रेषित की। तत्पश्चात् बिना सहायक अभियन्ता की संस्तुति के अधिशासी अभियन्ता द्वारा

प्रशंकलन बनवाना भी गलत है। अतः तत्कालीन अधिशासी अभियन्ता का दोष द्वितीय स्थान पर आता है। उक्त के दृष्टिगत रु० 583314.00 की जो आर्थिक क्षति केस्को को हुई है उसकी वसूली 50 प्रतिशत श्री एकधर चरण, तत्कालीन अवर अभियन्ता, विकास नगर उपखण्ड, 40 प्रतिशत ए०के० गौतम तत्कालीन अधिशासी अभियन्ता, विकास नगर खण्ड एवं 10 प्रतिशत श्री अनिल यादव तत्कालीन जे०एन०डी०, विकास नगर खण्ड से की जानी चाहिये।

27. The report also seems to suggest that the Inquiry Committee was tasked with finding out the loss that was occasioned to the Corporation by the petitioner and the other functionaries held in fault. The inquiry report does not even suggest that a charge was at all drawn up and set out in the charge-sheet on the basis of which the petitioner could be judged guilty or exonerated. Apart from other things, the entire tenor of words carried in the inquiry report are so informal that we think that this kind of a report should never have been the foundation of any disciplinary action, much less the award of a major penalty. If the Disciplinary Authority or the Appellate Authority had bestowed some informed consideration to this report, the only course of action for them was to remit the matter to the Inquiry Committee for a fresh inquiry to be done in accordance with the salutary procedure to hold a departmental inquiry and followed by an inquiry report adhering to the minimum and essential standards of a valid report in a disciplinary matter.

28. In paragraph no. 8(iv) of the counter affidavit, filed on behalf of respondent nos. 2 and 3, it is not disputed for a fact that no witnesses were examined by the Establishment in support of the charges. Rather, the respondents have attempted to justify their action in holding this kind of a slipshod inquiry by saying that witnesses are required to be examined under Regulation 7(7) of the Regulations, if their names are cited in the charge-sheet. Since, in this case, no witnesses have been cited, there was no requirement of examining any witness at all. We are afraid that this is not the law governing the salutary procedure to hold a valid departmental inquiry in matters which may entail the imposition of a major penalty.

29. According to the principles well settled for holding a departmental inquiry, it must be understood by the respondents, and more particularly, by the Inquiry Committee, that is charged with the responsibility of inquiring into the charges, that the charges laid by the Establishment against the employee cannot be taken to be proof of themselves. It is the burden of the Establishment to prove the charges, and like any other judicial proceeding, though a departmental inquiry is certainly not that, the Inquiry Committee/Officer must be mindful of the fact that the proceedings against the delinquent commence before the Inquiry Committee/Officer with a clean slate for the delinquent. It is for the Establishment to prove the charges by leading evidence, both documentary and oral.

30. In case of inquiry into charges, involving the imposition of a major penalty, it is imperative by salutary principle that witnesses, to prove the Establishment's case, must be examined. The Inquiry Committee or its Members, or if there be an Inquiry Officer sole, even if otherwise an officer of the same Establishment, must distance himself from the master he serves. He must sit as an impartial Arbiter or Tribunal to inquire into the charges. It is then the burden, as already said, of the Establishment to prove the charges through a Presenting Officer. The proceedings have to be not as formal as a trial in a Court of law or a Judicial Tribunal, but also not so informal that the event passes through like any other business of the day in the Establishment's office. The rest of the procedure that must be followed before the Inquiry Committee or the officer has been alluded to hereinabove and need not be repeated.

31. The salutary principle about the Establishment's burden to prove the charges by producing documentary as well as oral evidence, particularly examining witnesses, in a case where the proceedings may entail the imposition of a major penalty, has been the subject of considerable judicial attention in the past. Some of the leading Authorities on the point need notice for a more complete guidance of the respondents in this matter and for the future. In this connection, reference may be made to Roop Singh Negi Vs. Punjab National Bank and others, (2009) 2 SCC 570, where it was observed by the Supreme Court:

“14. Indisputably, a departmental proceeding is a quasi-judicial proceeding. The enquiry officer performs a quasi-judicial function. The charges levelled against the delinquent officer must be found to have been proved. The enquiry officer has a duty to arrive at a finding upon taking into consideration the materials brought on record by the parties. The purported evidence collected during investigation by the investigating officer against all the accused by itself could not be treated to be evidence in the disciplinary proceeding. No witness was examined to prove the said documents. The management witnesses merely tendered the documents and did not prove the contents thereof. Reliance, inter alia, was placed by the enquiry officer on the FIR which could not have been treated as evidence.”

32. Likewise, in Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs. State of U.P, 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB), it has been held by a Division Bench of this Court sitting at Lucknow:

“15. The law in this regard is very well-settled and does not need a reiteration, however, we may refer to a judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha, (2010) 2 SCC 772, wherein it has clearly been held that Enquiry Officer acts as a quasi judicial authority and his position is that of an independent adjudicator and further that he cannot act as a representative of the department or disciplinary authority and further that he cannot act as a prosecutor neither he should act as a judge; his function is to examine the evidence presented by the department and even in the absence of the delinquent officer, has to see as to whether the un rebutted evidence is sufficient to bring home the charges.

16. Hon'ble Supreme Court has further held in the said judgment of Saroj Kumar Sinha (supra) that it is only in case when the Government servant, despite notice, fails to appear during the course of enquiry that Enquiry Officer can proceed ex parte and even in such circumstances it is incumbent upon the Enquiry Officer to record the statement of witness.

17. In the instant case, no oral enquiry was held, neither the petitioner was given any notice to participate in any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for oral enquiry. It is only that the Enquiry Officer after noticing that despite sufficient time having been given to the petitioner, she did not furnish her reply to the charge-sheet, he proceeded to submit ex parte report without conducting any oral enquiry by fixing date, time and place for such an oral enquiry. Accordingly, the Enquiry Officer, in this case, has violated the aforesaid principles, which clearly vitiates the enquiry proceedings and any punishment order based on such a vitiated enquiry, is clearly not sustainable.”

33. In State of U.P. and another Vs. Kishori Lal and another, 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB), again a Bench decision of this Court, the necessity of holding an oral inquiry was emphasized in the following words;

“14. Now coming to the question, what is the effect of non-holding of domestic/oral inquiry, in a case where the inquiry officer is appointed, oral inquiry is mandatory. The charges are not deemed to be proved suo motu merely on account of levelling them by means of the charge-sheet unless the same are proved by the department before the inquiry officer and only thereafter it is the turn of delinquent employee to place his defence. Holding oral enquiry is mandatory before imposing a major penalty, as held by Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P. Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subhash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541.”

15. In another case in Subhash Chandra Gupta v. State of U.P., 2012(4)

ADJ 4 (NOC), the Division Bench of this Court after survey of law on this issue observed as under:

"It is well-settled that when the statute provides to do a thing in a particular manner that thing has to be done in that very manner. We are of the considered opinion that any punishment awarded on the basis of an enquiry not conducted in accordance with the enquiry rules meant for that very purposes is unsustainable in the eye of law. We are further of the view that the procedure prescribed under the inquiry rules for imposing major penalty is mandatory in nature and unless those procedures are followed, any out come inferred thereon will be of no avail unless the charges are so glaring and unrefutable which does not require any proof. The view taken by us find support from the judgement of the Apex Court in State of U.P. and another v. T.P.Lal Srivastava, 1997 (1) LLJ 831, as well as by a Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541."

16. A Division Bench decision of this Court in the case of Salahuddin Ansari v. State of U.P. and others, 2008(3) ESC 1667, held that non holding of oral inquiry is a serious flaw which can vitiate the order of disciplinary proceeding including the order of punishment has observed as under:

" 10..... Non holding of oral inquiry in such a case, is a serious matter and goes to the root of the case.

11. A Division Bench of this Court in Subash Chandra Sharma v. Managing Director and another, 2000 (1) UPLBEC 541, considering the question as to whether holding of an oral inquiry is necessary or not, held that if no oral inquiry is held, it amounts to denial of principles of natural justice to the delinquent employee. The aforesaid view was reiterated in Subash Chandra Sharma v. U.P.Cooperative Spinning Mills and others, 2001 (2) UPLBEC 1475 and Laturi Singh v. U.P.Public Service Tribunal and others, Writ Petition No. 12939 of 2001, decided on 6.5.2005."

17. Even if the employee refuses to participate in the enquiry the employer cannot straightaway dismiss him, but he must hold an ex parte enquiry where evidence must be led vide Imperial Tobacco Co. Ltd. v. Its Workmen, AIR 1962 SC 1348, Uma Shankar v. Registrar, 1992 (65) FLR 674 (All).

18. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Mahesh Narain Gupta v. State of U.P. and others, (2011) 2 ILR 570, had also occasion to deal with the same issue. It held:

"At this stage, we are to observe that in the disciplinary proceedings against a delinquent, the department is just like a plaintiff and initial burden lies on the department to prove the charges which can certainly be proved only by collecting some oral evidence or documentary evidence, in presence and notice charged employee. Even if the department is to rely its own record/document which are already available, then also the enquiry officer by looking into them and by assigning his own reason after analysis, will have to record a finding that those documents are sufficient enough to prove the charges.

In no case, approach of the Enquiry Officer that as no reply has been submitted, the charge will have to be automatically proved can be approved. This will be erroneous. It has been repeatedly said that disciplinary authority has a right to proceed against delinquent employee in ex parte manner but some evidence will have to be collected and justification to sustain the charges will have to be stated in detail. The approach of the enquiry officer of automatic prove of charges on account of non filing of reply is clearly misconceived and erroneous. This is against the principle of natural justice, fair play, fair hearing and, thus, enquiry officer has to be cautioned in this respect."

19. The principal of law which emanates from the above judgments are that initial burden is on the department to prove the charges. In case of procedure adopted for inflicting major penalty, the department must prove the charges by oral evidence also.

20. From perusal of enquiry report it is demonstrably proved that no oral evidence has been led by the department. When a major punishment is proposed to be passed the department has to prove the charges against the delinquent/employee by examining the witnesses and by documentary evidence. In the present case no witness was examined by the department neither any officer has been examined to prove the documents on the basis of which charges are levelled on the claimant in the proceedings.

21. It is trite law that the departmental proceedings are quasi judicial proceedings. The Inquiry Officer functions as quasi judicial officer. He is not merely a representative of the department. He has to act as an independent and impartial officer to find out the truth. The major punishment awarded to an employee visit serious civil consequences and as such the departmental proceedings ought to be in conformity with the principles of natural justice.

22. Even if, an employee prefers not to participate in enquiry the department has to establish the charges against the employee by adducing oral as well as documentary evidence. In case charges warrant major punishment then the oral evidence by producing the witnesses is necessary."

34. In the opinion of this Court, therefore, for whatever has been said, all proceedings beyond the charge-sheet, if a properly done charge-sheet was issued to the petitioner, stand vitiated. In the event, a proper charge-sheet was not issued to the petitioner, the proceedings go foul by one more step and oblige the respondents to issue a fresh and properly done charge-sheet as well. This part is left to the respondents' wisdom and risk.

35. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed. The impugned order dated 14.06.2021 passed by the Managing Director, Kanpur Electric Supply Company Limited and the Appellate order dated 05.04.2023 passed by the Chairman of the Corporation are hereby quashed. The inquiry report dated 08.05.2020 is also quashed.

36. It will be open to the respondents to proceed afresh with the inquiry, either by issuing a fresh charge-sheet or if they are convinced that a valid charge-sheet has been issued, on the basis of the same charge-sheet and pass a fresh order in accordance with law, bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment. If the respondents elect to pursue fresh proceedings against the petitioner, a penalty higher than the one quashed by this judgment shall not be imposed.

37. There shall be no order as to costs.

38. Let this judgment be communicated to the Chairman, Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow and the Managing Director, Kanpur Electric Supply Company Limited, 14/71, Civil Lines, KESA House, Kanpur by the Registrar (Compliance).

connected with it – It does not appear to be the sine qua non for maintaining an application u/s 21 (2) of the Act – Where the tenancy is admitted, no such information as contemplated u/s 4 of the Act is warranted. (Para 20 and 23)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh
Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sharad Malviya, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Deepak Kumar as well as Shri Ashish Kumar Srivastava, learned counsels for the landlord/respondent no.3.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to delete the respondent nos. 1 and 2 from the array of parties.

3. The petitioners of first set of writ petitions are tenants of different shop numbers situated in building No. CK62/19, 20, 21 and 22 Kashipura (West), Ward Chowk, Tehsil and District Varanasi, whereas, the petitioners of second set of the writ petitions are tenants of different shop numbers situated in building B-30/5A, Vikram Building, situate at Lanka-BHU, Main Road, Varanasi.

4. The writ petition arise out of the proceedings undertaken under the U.P. Regulation of Urban Premises Tenancy Act, 2021 (UP Act No. 16 of 2021).

5. The controversy involved in both sets of the writ petitions are similar in nature and the impugned orders have been assailed on identical grounds. Hence, with the consent of the parties all the writ petitions are being finally decided at the admission stage itself.

6. The writ petition, being Writ A No. 2030 of 2024, is being treated as the leading writ petition and the facts pertaining to the same are being considered for deciding the controversy involved.

7. The writ petition, being Writ A No. 2030 of 2024, at the instance of the Tenant/ Petitioner has been filed assailing the order dated 16.01.2024 passed by the Rent Tribunal/ District Judge, Varanasi, in Rent Appeal No. 145 of 2023, whereby and whereunder the Rent Appeal has been dismissed and order of the Rent Authority/Additional District Magistrate (City), District- Varanasi, dated 30.06.2023 allowing the Release Application registered as Case No. 290 of 2023 has been upheld and the petitioner has been directed to vacate the shop No. 29 under his tenancy.

8. It is the case of the petitioner that he is a tenant of shop No. 29 situate in premises No. CK62/19, 20, 21 and 22 Kashipura (West), Ward Chowk, Tehsil and District Varanasi at a monthly rent of Rs. 230/- inclusive of Sewer and water charges. The respondent no. 3 is his landlord. The petitioner has paid the entire rent of the shop till July, 2013 under receipt, however the landlord/ respondent refused to accept the Rent from August 2013 and since then the rent is being deposited under Section 30 (1) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 in Misc. Case No. 28 of 2014. the Landlord/ Respondent no. 3 tried to dispossess the Tenant/Petitioner by force and petitioner was compelled to instituted a suit for permanent injunction being Original Suit No. 597 of 2014 in which temporary injunction was granted in favour of the petitioner that he shall not be evicted otherwise than in accordance with law. The respondent no. 3 thereafter filed SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014 before the Judge, Small Cause Court for ejectment, recovery of arrears of rent and damages for use and occupation. The 6 of 16 petitioner appeared in the suit and filed his written statement. However meanwhile the UP Act No. 16 of 2021 was enacted and the respondent no. 3 withdrew the SCC suit No. 28 of 2014.

9. After withdrawal of the SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014, the respondent no. 3 filed an application under Section 21 (1) of the UP Act No. 16 of 2021 which proceedings were registered as Application No. 290 of 2023 seeking ejectment of the petitioner from the shop no. 29 alleging that the petitioner is tenant of the shop no. 29 of premises No. CK62/19, 20, 21 and 22 and despite notice the Tenant/Petitioner has failed to vacate the premises which was required for rebuilding of the entire premises under clause (f) of Section 21 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. The tenant/petitioner is in arrears of rent of Rs. 33,753/- but rent from 01.01.2021 Rs. 9120/- is claimed. It was also stated that monthly rent of Rs. 230/- per month was last revised in February 2010 which reached Rs. 518/- per month under U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. Damages for use and occupation pendente lite and further @ Rs. 20,000/- per month till delivery of possession was claimed. Pursuant to the notice issued by the Rent Authority the Tenant/Petitioner appeared in the proceedings and filed his written statement alleging inter alia that the rent of the shop is Rs. 230/- per month which was never revised by the landlord/ respondent no. 3. Before filing of the proceedings of suit No. 28 of 2014 the rent was being deposited under Section 30 (1) of the U.P. Act No. 13 of 1972 and after filing of the suit the amount was being deposited in the Suit no. 28 of 2014. The suit was got 7 of 16 withdrawn on 12.11.2022 and as such on the date of the institution of the proceedings under the new Act of 2021 were not applicable as the respondent no. 3 is a Religious and Charitable Institution.

10. The Rent Authority after considering the materials on record vide order dated 30.06.2023 allowed the application under Section 21 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 and directed the ejectment of the petitioner from the shop No. 29 recording a finding of fact that there existed a relationship of landlord and tenant between the respondent no. 3 and the petitioner. The respondent no. 3 has served notice upon the petitioner in terms of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 requiring him to execute a Tenancy Agreement as per the requirement of the New Act and also demanded arrears of rent and when the Tenant/Petitioner failed to provide the information sought a notice dated 04.12.2022 was served terminating the tenancy. The Rent Authority also recorded the finding that the injunction order dated 30.10.2014 operating in favour of the Tenant/ petitioner was of no avail to the petitioner as the respondent no. 3 had drawn proceedings against the petitioner as per law and would have no bearing upon the proceedings under Section 21 (2) of the New Act of 2021. It also recorded the factum that there was no written Tenancy Agreement between the parties nor any evidence in this regard was brought on record during the course of the arguments and in the absence of a written agreement the provisions of Section 4 of the Act has been violated. Since the tenancy of the petitioner has already been terminated and the 8 of 16 Tenant/Petitioner has not vacated the premises the application of the respondent no. 3 landlord in form 7 is liable to be allowed and was allowed.

11. An appeal was preferred by the Tenant/petitioner against the order of the Rent Authority dated 30.06.2023 before the Rent Tribunal which was registered as Rent Appeal No. 145 of 2023. The Rent Tribunal under the order dated 16.01.2024 has dismissed the Rent Appeal.

12. In the Appeal it was urged that the provisions of the UP Act No. 16 of 2021 were not applicable and the Application under Section 21 (2) was not maintainable as the Landlord/ Respondent is a registered Public Charitable Trust and the Act does not apply to it by virtue of Section 3 (iv) of the Act. It was also urged that the Application under Section 21 (2) was not maintainable in view of Section 46 (2) of the Act inasmuch as the notice dated 22.09.2022 was given on which date the SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014 was maintainable and was liable to be continued as per Section 46 (2) but the same was withdrawn only on 07.10.2022. It was also urged that as per Section 31 of the Act a negotiated settlement of the dispute ought to have been attempted by both the Rent Authority and the Rent Tribunal and failure to attempt the same has rendered the orders passed illegal. It was further urged that the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 contemplates existence of a written Tenancy Agreement between the parties. Section 4 (3) of the Act requires the landlord to upload the details of the tenant on the portal and thereafter inform the tenant to get executed a Tenancy Agreement. No Tenancy Agreement was uploaded by 9 of 16 the Landlord/ Respondent on the portal and straight away notice was served upon the Tenant/ Petitioner to execute Tenancy Agreement on unreliable rent. The provisions of Section 4 (3) were clearly violated and no benefit could be derived therefrom by the landlord/respondent.

13. The Rent Tribunal found that the Tenant/ petitioner had not complied with the provisions of Section 35 (1) Proviso which provides that the Appellant to pre deposit 50% of the entire payable amount under the impugned order of the Rent Authority. The Rent Tribunal computed the amount to be Rs. 1,09,977/- of which 50% was required to be deposited but the Appellant admittedly deposited only Rs. 4600/-. It accordingly held the Appeal to be not maintainable. The Court finds no error in the approach adopted by the Rent Tribunal.

14. On the question of Landlord/Respondent no. 3 being a Public Trust or a Religious Charitable Institution the Rent Tribunal took note of the fact that the Tenant/Petitioner had taken contradictory stands regarding the character of the respondent no. 3 In the SCC Suit he took the stand that the premises in question was not the property of the Idol but is the property of a Private Trust. However, before the Rent Authority a contrary stand was taken that the respondent no. 3 is a charitable Religious Trust and exempted from the provisions of the UP Act No. 16 of 2021. The Rent Tribunal on the appreciation of the materials on record returned a finding that no Notification under Section 3 (iii) of the UP Act No. 16 of 2021 had been issued or if issued the same has not been brought on record. The Rent Tribunal accordingly concluded 10 of 16 that the Release Application under Section 21 (2) of the Act was maintainable.

15. This Court has examined the provisions of Section 3 (iii) and 3 (iv) of the Act and finds that the mandate of the Section is to exempt the applicability of the Act to premises owned by Religious or Charitable Institution as may be specified by the notification by the State Government. The Rent Tribunal found that no such Notification by the State Government has been issued or filed on record. Likewise Section 3 (iv) provides exemption to premises owned by a Waqf registered under the Waqf Act 1995 or by any Public Trust under applicable law. The respondent no. 3 on the owning saying of the tenant petitioner is a Private Trust and as such properties owned by it are not exempt. In the opinion of the Court there is no error or illegality in the conclusion drawn by the Rent Tribunal.

16. So far as the submission of the learned counsel for the tenant/petitioner to the effect that the application under Section 21 (1) of the Act was not maintainable as a SCC Suit, being SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014 was liable to be continued in terms of Section 46 (2) of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 is concerned, the Court is of the opinion that it is the prerogative of the landlord/respondent to have either continued with the proceedings of the SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014 or initiate fresh proceedings under the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021. The provisions of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 does not bar initiation of fresh proceedings under the Act if proceedings for the same relief are pending under other enactments. It is a matter of debate as to whether the proceedings of the SCC Suit No. 28 of 2014 could 11 of 16 or could not continue in terms of Section 46 (2) of the Act. However, this Court refrains from dwelling into the said aspect for the reason that pendency or otherwise of the suit proceedings would not affect the present proceedings as the Notice dated 4.12.2022 was served after the SCC suit had been withdrawn. The submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner does not merit consideration.

17. It is next submitted that Section 31 of the U.P. Act No. 16 of 2021 contemplates negotiated settlement of the disputes and the failure of the Rent Authority and the Rent Tribunal to attempt a settlement has rendered the orders passed illegal.

18. In the opinion of the Court, a perusal of the provision contained under Section 31 of the Act, certain discretion is assigned to the Rent Authority or to the Rent Tribunal to refer appropriate cases to the appropriate authority under the Legal Services Authority Act, 1987 to explore a settlement. The reference is not mandatory in all cases. Besides, settlement of dispute being an voluntary act is required to be availed and pressed. The learned counsel for the petitioner has not placed before this Court any material to demonstrate that a settlement of the dispute with the landlord/respondent was ever sought and pressed.

19. In the opinion of the Court, the non compliance of the provision of Section 31 of the Act is not fatal to the proceedings and the impugned orders cannot be set aside on this ground. 12 of 16

20. It has lastly been urged that the provisions of Section 4 (3) of the Act, which requires the landlord to upload the details of the tenant on the portal and thereafter inform the tenant to get executed a tenancy agreement, has been violated. No tenancy agreement was uploaded by the landlord/respondent on the portal and straight away notice was served upon the tenant/petitioner to execute Tenancy Agreement on unrealistic rent.

21. A perusal of the provisions contained in Section 4 of the Act, which relates to Tenancy Agreement reveals that subsection (1) of Section 4 commences with a non obstinate clause and as such, has an overriding effect over the other provisions under the Act. It provides that no person after the commencement of the Act of 2021 shall let or take on rent any premises except by an agreement in writing which shall be informed to the Rent Authority jointly by the landlord and tenant in the form specified in the First Schedule provided the tenancy is not residential for a period of less than 12 months in which case no such information is required to be informed to the Rent Authority. Sub-section (2) relates to a situation when both the landlord and tenant jointly fail to inform the execution of the Tenancy Agreement in which case the landlord and tenant shall separately inform the Rent Authority about execution of the Tenancy Agreement within a specified time.

22. Sub Section (3) relates to a tenancy created before the commencement of the Act. Sub-clause (a) thereof deals with a situation where an agreement in writing was entered between the landlord and tenant in which case they shall jointly present 13 of 16 a copy thereof to the Rent Authority within three months of the commencement of the Act. Sub-clause (b) on the other hand deals with a situation where no agreement in writing was entered into between landlord and tenant in which case they shall enter into an agreement in writing with regard to that tenancy and present the case to the Rent Authority within three months of the commencement of the Act. The proviso takes into consideration a situation where the landlord or the tenant fail to present jointly a copy of the Tenancy Agreement or fail to reach agreement within specified period such landlord and tenant shall separately file the particulars about such tenancy with the Rent Authority within one month from the date of expiry of the period mentioned in Clause (b) of subsection 3 of Section 4 in the Form specified in First Schedule. If the landlord has submitted his particulars within the time specified but the tenant fails to submit such particulars, the landlord may file an application for eviction of the tenant on that ground alone. Though the provision visualizes a situation where a tenant fails to comply with provisions of submitting particulars giving the landlord a ground to seek eviction of the tenant on the ground of default in submitting the particulars but the provision is silent about the outcome of a default at the instance of the landlord. The intention of the legislature is obvious that it would not affect the rights of the landlord to file for eviction of the tenant. Sub Clause 4 deals with providing the digital platform in Hindi and English enabling submission of the documents in such form and manner prescribed. The Sub-section (5) of Section 4 provides that the Rent Authority after receiving information about the execution 14 of 16 of Tenancy Agreement along with the documents specified in the First Schedule shall provide a Unique Identification Number to the parties. The Sub-section (6) of Section 4 provides that the terms of authorization of the Property Manager, if any, by the landlord to deal with the tenant shall be as agreed to by the landlord and tenant in the Tenancy Agreement. Sub-section (7) of Section 4 provides that the information provided under Sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) shall be conclusive proof of the facts relating to tenancy and matters connected therewith and in absence of any statement of information, the landlord may file an application for eviction on this ground alone.

23. A conjoint reading of the various sub-sections of Section 4 of the Act reveals that the intention of legislature for requiring both the landlord and the tenant to inform to the Rent Authority in the form specified in the First Schedule within a certain time frame is to treat the information as conclusive proof of the facts relating to the tenancy and matters connected with it. It does not appear to be the sine qua non for maintaining an application under Section 21 (2) of the Act. Where the tenancy is admitted, in the opinion of the Court, no such information as contemplated under Section 4 of the Act is warranted. Where the tenancy or its terms are disputed, it is always open for the parties to adduce evidence in support of their respective cases before the respective authorities.

24. The Court finds no merit in the submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner. 15 of 16

25. Considering the totality of the circumstances, the Court finds no error or illegality in the order of the Rent Authority dated 30.6.2023 as also the order of the Rent Tribunal dated 16.1.2024 so as to warrant any interference in the exercise of its' extra ordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. All the aforesaid writ petitions lack merit and are accordingly, dismissed.

26. Parties to bear their own costs.
