THE INDIAN LAW REPORTS
ALLAHABAD SERIES

CONTAINING ALL A.F.R. DECISIONS OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT ALLAHABAD

2024 - VOL. V
(MAY)

PAGES 1 TO 2544

PUBLISHED UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNMENT OF UTTAR PRADESH COMPOSED AT INDIAN LAW REPORTER SECTION, HIGH COURT, ALLAHABAD.

INDIAN LAW REPORTING COUNCIL

ALLAHABAD SERIES

****

PRESIDENT

HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE ARUN BHANSALI

******

COUNCIL

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SAUMITRA DAYAL SINGH

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAYANT BANERJI

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NALIN KUMAR SRIVASTAVA

****

EDITORIAL PANEL

SENIOR LAW REPORTERS

1. MR. VINAY SARAN, SENIOR ADVOCATE
2. MR. SAMIR SHARMA, SENIOR ADVOCATE

JUNIOR LAW REPORTERS

1. MR. ANOOP BARANWAL, ADVOCATE
2. MS. PRIYA AGRAWAL, ADVOCATE
3. MR. ASHUTOSH MANI TRIPATHI, ADVOCATE
4. MS. NOOR SABA BEGUM, ADVOCATE
5. MR. SAROJ GIRI, ADVOCATE
6. MS. MANISHA CHATURVEDI, ADVOCATE
7. MR. ARVIND KUMAR GOSWAMI, ADVOCATE
8. MR. VINEET DUBEY, ADVOCATE
9. MR. PRASHANT MISHRA, ADVOCATE
10. MR. ABU BAKHT, ADVOCATE

****

JUDGES PRESENT

Chief Justice: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arun Bhansali
Puisne Judges:
1. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manoj Kumar Gupta	33. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Lavania
2. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Anjani Kumar Mishra	34. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Varma
3. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mahesh Chandra Tripathi	35. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kumar Singh
4. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Kumar Birla	36. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Piyush Agrawal
5. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Attau Rahman Masoodi (Sr. Judge, Lko.)	37. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Shyam Shamshery
6. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ashwani Kumar Mishra	38. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jaspreet Singh
7. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajan Roy	39. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajeev Singh
8. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Siddhartha Varma	40. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Manju Rani Chauhan
9. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sangeeta Chandra	41. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Karunesh Singh Pawar
10. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vivek Chaudhary	42. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Yogendra Kumar Srivastava
11. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saumitra Dayal Singh	43. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Mathur
12. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arvind Singh Sangwan	44. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rohit Ranjan Agarwal
13. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shekhar B. Saraf	45. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mohd Faiz Alam Khan
14. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rahul Chaturvedi	46. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Narendra Kumar Johari
15. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Salil Kumar Rai	47. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Raj Beer Singh
16. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Jayant Banerji	48. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vipin Chandra Dixit
17. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Singh Chauhan	49. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shekhar Kumar Yadav
18. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Irshad Ali	50. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Deepak Verma
19. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saral Srivastava	51. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Gautam Chowdhary
20. Hon'ble Mr. Justice J. J. Munir	52. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shamim Ahmed
21. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajiv Gupta	53. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Dinesh Pathak
22. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Siddharth	54. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Kumar
23. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajit Kumar	55. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Samit Gopal
24. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajnish Kumar	56. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Donadi Ramesh
25. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Abdul Moin	57. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sanjay Kumar Pachori
26. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajeev Misra	58. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Subhash Chandra Sharma
27. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajay Bhanot	59. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Sadhna Rani (Thakur)
28. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Neeraj Tiwari	60. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajai Kumar Srivastava - I
29. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manoj Bajaj	61. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Chandra Kumar Rai
30. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prakash Padia	62. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Krishan Pahal
31. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Alok Mathur	63. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Sameer Jain
32. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Pankaj Bhatia	64. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ashutosh Srivastava

65. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Subhash Vidyarthi
66. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Brij Raj Singh
67. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shree Prakash Singh
68. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vikas Budhwar
69. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vikram D Chauhan
70. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Saurabh Srivastava
71. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Om Prakash Shukla
72. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Renu Agarwal
73. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi
74. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra
75. Hon'ble Mrs. Justice Jyotsna Sharma
76. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Mayank Kumar Jain
77. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shiv Shanker Prasad
78. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Gajendra Kumar
79. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Surendra Singh -I
80. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Nalin Kumar Srivastava
81. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi
82. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manish Kumar Nigam
83. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Anish Kumar Gupta
84. Hon'ble Ms. Justice Nand Prabha Shukla
85. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Kshitij Shailendra
86. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Vinod Diwakar
87. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Prashant Kumar
88. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Manjive Shukla
89. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal

(2024) 5 ILRA 11
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 24.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Civil Misc. Review Application No. 69 of 2024

M/S Rajshi Processors, Raebareli ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Anurag Mishra

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:

Civil Law-Code of Civil Procedure-1908-Order 47 Rule 1(1) - Order sought to be reviewed takes into consideration all the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner- Learned counsel for the petitioner could not point out any specific material which was placed before the Court while arguing the writ petition and which has not been taken into consideration by this Court while passing the order.

While assailing the orders passed by the Constitutional Court, the learned Advocates are expected to act with some sense of responsibility and to ensure the dignity of the Court even while contending that the order passed by the Court suffers from a patent error-The allegation that "this Court has blindly believed the stand of the revenue that the seller/supplier firm were non-existent and bogus firms" besides being incorrect, is disrespectful towards the Court- The court deprecates the disrespectful manner of drafting of this review application.

Review petition is dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases referred:

1. Madhusudhan Reddy Vs VS Narayan Reddy & ors.: 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1034

2. Hari Vishnu Kamath Vs Syed Ahmad Ishaque 1954 SCC OnLine SC 8

3. S. Bagirathi Ammal Vs Palani Roman Catholic Mission (2009) 10 SCC 464

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Pranjal Shukla, learned counsel for the review petitioner.

2. By means of the instant review petition, the petitioner is seeking review of a judgment and order dated 14.05.2024 passed by this Court in Writ Tax No.128 of 2024.

3. The petitioner is engaged in manufacture and sale of Aluminum Casting & Machinery Parts. The petitioner had filed GSTR 3B for the months of May, 2019, August, 2019 and December, 2019. The Deputy Commissioner, Special Investigation Branch, Commercial Tax, Lucknow had conducted a survey of the place of business on 25.02.2020. The petitioner claimed to have received inward supplies worth Rs.16,39,200/-from M/s Ridhi Sidhi Enterprises, worth Rs. 17,25,160/- from M/s Siddhartha Trading Company and worth Rs. 29,78,025/- from M/s Satvik Enterprises and claimed Rs.2,95,056/-, Rs.2,63,160/- and Rs. 4,54,275/- respectively towards I.T.C. Claim for inward supplies received from the aforesaid firms. Special Investigation Branch, Agra conducted a survey of the aforesaid three firms whereupon it came to light that all the aforesaid three firms were non-existent and bogus firms and the petitioner had fraudulently claimed I.T.C. benefit of Rs.10,12,491/- without any actual supply of goods, on the basis of the fake invoice issued by the aforesaid three non-existence bogus firms. The Special Investigation Branch found that the petitioner had knowingly claimed excessive amount towards I.T.C. in his GSTR-2A also and had adjusted the same in the tax payable by him. Thus, the petitioner claimed a total of Rs. 15,93,491/- I.T.C. in violation of the provisions of law.

4. The adjudicating authority issued a notice under Section 74 in reply to which the petitioner submitted his explanation alongwith the evidence, stating that it had received inward supplies from M/s Ridhi Sidhi Enterprises, M/s Siddhartha Trading Company and M/s Satvik Enterprises and in support of its claim of actual receipt of inward supplies, the petitioner had submitted invoices, copies of GR (goods receipts), e-way bill, ledger and bank statements of the firms, evidence of transaction of amounts through RTGS and evidence of physical receipts of goods. The inward supplies received by the petitioner were entered in the stock register.

5. The adjudicating authority did not accept the explanation of the petitioner because the Special Investigation Branch, Agra had found the aforesaid three firms, namely, M/s Ridhi Sidhi Enterprises, M/s Siddhartha Trading Company and M/s Satvik Enterprises to be nonexistent and bogus and that the tax invoices had been issued without any actual supply of goods upon which the petitioner had fraudulently taken benefit of I.T.C. The adjudicating authority declined the benefit of I.T.C. to the petitioner and imposed penalty on the petitioner and fixed the liability of interest also.

6. The appellate authority found that in his explanation submitted before the adjudicating authority, the petitioner had produced GR No. 213/dated 13.05.2019, 694/dated 21.08.2019, 695/dated 21.08.2019 and 1363/dated 15.12.2019 issued by M/s Goyal Goods Carry Corporation, Daresi No. 2, Agra as evidence for transport of goods from Agra to Raebareli. The adjudicating authority found that GR No. 213/dated 13.05.2019 and 1363/dated 15.12.2019 had been issued on a similar format, whereas GR No. 694/dated 21.08.2019 and 696/dated 21.08.2019 had been issued on a different format, whereas all of those have been issued by the same transport company and, which had no other branch. The GSTIN-09AJBPG5336KIZ5 and phone number 6395078684 were mentioned on the transport bilty. GST is payable on transport services. When an enquiry was conducted on the basis of GSTIN number mentioned on the transport bilty, the GSTIN was found to be not valid as per the information available on the common portal. The phone number mentioned on the transport bilty, was found to be in use of some lady at Kasganj. From the aforesaid facts, it appears that the bilties had been attached with the explanation of the petitioner to somehow show the real inward supply by making adjustments. The adjudicating authority found that the alleged supplier firms were non-existent and the bilties had been produced merely to establish transactions with non-existing firms. No goods were transported from Agra to Raebareli and the transactions were paper transactions only.

7. While advancing submissions in support of the Writ Petition filed by the petitioner challenging the order passed by the assessing authority and the appellate authority, the learned counsel for the petitioner had submitted that the petitioner had actually received inward supplies, which was established from the records produced before the adjudicating authority.

The supplier firms were having valid GSTIN 4 registration when the petitioner had received the supplies. Merely because GSTIN registration of the firm was cancelled subsequently at their own requests, the petitioner cannot be penalized for the same. As per Section 16 of the GST Act, 2017, the petitioner was merely required to be in possession of a tax invoice or debit note issued by the supplier, receipt of goods and actual payment of tax to the Government. As per learned counsel for the petitioner the requirements of Section 16 of the GST Act, 2017 and Rule 36 of GST Rules 2017 had been fulfilled by the petitioner by furnishing the aforesaid requisite documents.

8. While deciding the Writ Petition, this Court had held that Section 16 (2) (b) of the GST Act provides that no registered person shall be entitled to the credit of any input tax in respect of any supply of goods unless he has received the goods. "Received the goods" means the person claiming input tax credit must have actually received the goods. Where a person merely produces documents mentioned in Rule 36 regarding receipt of goods without actual receipt of any goods and it is established that the transaction of goods was merely paper transactions, the person will not be entitled to get the benefit of input tax credit in view of the provision contained in Section 16(2)(b) of the GST Act, 2017. The petitioner had fulfilled the documentary requirements and the input tax credit was granted to him. Subsequently, in an enquiry conducted by the Special Investigation Branch, it came to light that the firms from which the petitioner claimed to have received inward supplies, were non-existent and bogus. Neither the firms were found on the addresses, claimed by them, nor could any godown or other premises of those firms be found and it appeared that the firms were existing on paper only. The non-existent firms could not have made any actual supplies. Merely because the firm was registered on the date of transaction, it cannot be said that the department was bound to give I.T.C. benefit to the petitioner, even though it has been revealed later on the firm was non-existent and it could not have made any actual supplies.

9. This Court further held that the findings of Special Investigation Branch revealed that the petitioner had committed a fraud against the department and the public exchequer by claiming inward supplies from non-existent firms to take advantage of I.T.C. It is settled law that fraud vitiates even the most solemn proceedings and the mere fact that the I.T.C. benefit had earlier been granted to the petitioner merely because the firms were registered, would not create any estoppel against the authorities taking appropriate action for claiming refund of the benefit wrongly availed by the petitioner on the ground of receiving inward supplies from non-existent firms. This Court found that the appellate authority had passed the impugned order after taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the material available on record.

10. The petitioner is seeking review of the order passed by this Court on the ground that this Court's order suffers from errors apparent on the face of the record as discrepancies in the judgment are prevalent and the judgment dated 14.05.2024 does not deal with the material presented by the petitioner on record. It has further been stated in the grounds of the review petition that "this Court has blindly believed the stand of the revenue that the seller/supplier firm were non-existent and bogus firms, which is a grave mistake and an omission committed by the respondent at the time of hearing and while passing the order as no survey has been conducted by the department on the place of business of the supplier firms, whether it was before cancellation or after cancellation."

11. It has also been contended in the review petition that Order 47 Rule 1 C.P.C. provides for filing of an application for review of a judgment on the basis of discovery of important matter or evidence, which after exercise of due diligence, was not within the knowledge of the petitioner. The petitioner has filed e-stamp affidavit of the transporter to prove bona fide transaction and the movement of goods.

12. It would be appropriate to have a look at the provision contained in Order XLVII, Rule 1 (1) C.P.C. before proceeding any further: -

Application for review of judgment.—(1) Any person considering himself aggrieved—

(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed, or

(c)by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply for a review of judgment of the Court which passed the decree or made the order.

* * *

13. The learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of S. Madhusudhan Reddy Vs. V. Narayan Reddy and Others: 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1034, which was an appeal filed against an order passed by the High Court allowing a review application While allowing the appeal and setting aside the order passed by the High Court in review, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the review petition was nothing short of an abuse of process of the Court and the same ought to have been rejected by the High Court as not maintainable, without having gone into the merits of the matter.

14. The following passage from the judgment in case of S. Madhusudhan Reddy (Supra) discusses the law regarding the scope of review:-

"18. A glance at the aforesaid provisions makes it clear that a review application would be maintainable on (i) discovery of new and important matters or evidence which, after exercise of due diligence, were not within the knowledge of the applicant or could not be produced by him when the decree was passed or the order made; (ii) on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record; or (iii) for any other sufficient reason.

19. In Col. Avatar Singh Sekhon v. Union of India 1980 Supp SCC 562, this Court observed that a review of an earlier order cannot be done unless the court is satisfied that the material error which is manifest on the face of the order, would result in miscarriage of justice or undermine its soundness. The observations made are as under:

"12. A review is not a routine procedure. Here we resolved to hear Shri Kapil at length to remove any feeling that the party has been hurt without being heard. But we cannot review our earlier order unless satisfied that material error, manifest on the face of the order, undermines its soundness or results in miscarriage of justice. In Sow Chandra Kante v. Sheikh Habib (1975) 1 SCC 674, this Court observed:

'A review of a judgment is a serious step and reluctant resort to it is proper only where a glaring omission or patent mistake or like grave error has crept in earlier by judicial fallibility. … The present stage is not a virgin ground but review of an earlier order which has the normal feature of finality.'"

(emphasis in original)

20. In Parsion Devi v. Sumitri Devi (1997) 8 SCC 715, stating that an error that is not self-evident and the one that has to be detected by the process of reasoning, cannot be described as an error apparent on the face of the record for the Court to exercise the powers of review, this Court held as under:

"7. It is well settled that review proceedings have to be strictly confined to the ambit and scope of Order 47 Rule 1 CPC. In Thungabhadra Industries Ltd. v. Govt. of A.P. (1964) 5 SCR 174 this Court opined:

'11. What, however, we are now concerned with is whether the statement in the order of September 1959 that the case did not involve any substantial question of law is an 'error apparent on the face of the record'. The fact that on the earlier occasion the Court held on an identical state of facts that a substantial question of law arose would not per se be conclusive, for the earlier order itself might be erroneous. Similarly, even if the statement was wrong, it would not follow that it was an 'error apparent on the face of the record', for there is a distinction which is real, though it might not always be capable of exposition, between a mere erroneous decision and a decision which could be characterized as vitiated by 'error apparent'. A review is by no means an appeal in disguise whereby an erroneous decision is reheard and corrected, but lies only for patent error.'

Again, in Meera Bhanja v. Nirmala Kumari Choudhury (1995) 1 SCC 170, while quoting with approval a passage from Aribam Tuleshwar Sharma v. Aribam Pishak Sharma (1970) 4 SCC 389, this Court once again held that review proceedings are not by way of an appeal and have to be strictly confined to the scope and ambit of Order 47 Rule 1 CPC.

Under Order 47 Rule 1 CPC a judgment may be open to review inter alia if there is a mistake or an error apparent on the face of the record. An error which is not self-evident and has to be detected by a process of reasoning, can hardly be said to be an error apparent on the face of the record justifying the court to exercise its power of review under Order 47 Rule 1 CPC. In exercise of this jurisdiction under Order 47 rule 1 CPC it is not permissible for an erroneous decision to be 'reheard and corrected'. A review petition, it must be remembered has a limited purpose and cannot be allowed to be 'an appeal in disguise'".

[emphasis in original]

15. The review petition refers to a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sarla Mudgal, President, Kalyani and others versus Union of India and others, but neither its citation or case number and date of decision have been given in the petition, nor has its copy been provided to the Court and, therefore, this Court cannot go through the aforesaid judgment. However, the following passage of the aforesaid judgment has been quoted in the petition: -

"Error contemplated under the rule must be such which is apparent on the face of the record and not an error which has to be fished out and searched. It must be an error of inadvertence."

16. The review petition refers to a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Hari Vishnu Kamath v. Syed Ahmad Ishaque 1954 SCC OnLine SC 8, wherein

"...is essential that it should be something more than a mere error; it must be one which must be manifest on the face of the record. The real difficulty with reference to this matter, however, is not so much in the statement of the principle as in its application to the facts of a particular case. When does an error cease to be mere error, and become an error apparent on the face of the record? The learned counsel on either side were unable to suggest any clear-cut rule by which the boundary between the two classes of errors could be demarcated."

17. The aforesaid observations were made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court while discussing the scope of a Writ of Certiorari, as paragraph 28 of the judgment, from where the aforesaid passage has been extracted, begins with the words – "8. It may therefore be taken as settled that a writ of certiorari could be issued to correct an error of law. But it" Although the judgment in Hari Vishnu Kamath (Supra) is not relevant for deciding a review petition, it supports the approach adopted this Court while deciding the writ Petition which was filed seeking issuance of a Writ of Certiorari.

18. In S. Bagirathi Ammal v. Palani Roman Catholic Mission (2009) 10 SCC 464, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"12. An error contemplated under the Rule must be such which is apparent on the face of the record and not an error which has to be fished out and searched. In other words, it must be an error of inadvertence. It should be something more than a mere error and it must be one which must be manifest on the face of the record. When does an error cease to be mere error and becomes an error apparent on the face of the record depends upon the materials placed before the court. If the error is so apparent that without further investigation or enquiry, only one conclusion can be drawn in favour of the applicant, in such circumstances, the review will lie. Under the guise of review, the parties are not entitled to rehearing of the same issue but the issue can be decided just by a perusal of the records and if it is manifest can be set right by reviewing the order…."

19. When we examine the aforesaid grounds taken in the memo of the review petition in light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in S. Madhusudhan Reddy (Supra) relied on by the learned counsel for the petitioner himself, it appears that the order dated 14.05.2024 sought to be reviewed takes into consideration all the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner. Even while advancing submissions in support of review application, learned counsel for the petitioner could not point out any specific material which was placed before the Court while arguing the writ petition and which has not been taken into consideration by this Court while passing the order dated 14.05.2024. Therefore, the ground that this Court did not deal with the material presented by the petitioner on record, is without any substance.

20. So far as the allegation levelled in the review petition that this Court has blindly believed the stand of the revenue that the supplier/firm was non-existent and bogus, the Court had considered the material that was available before it while passing the order sought to be reviewed. The Officers of Special Investigating Branch had conducted a survey of premises of the suppliers from whom the petitioner claims to have received inward supplies and they found that the three firms from which the petitioner claims to have received supplies, namely M/s Ridhi Sidhi Enterprises, M/s Siddharth Trading Company and M/s Satvik Enterprises, were non-existent and bogus and the invoices had been issued without any actual supply of goods, upon which the petitioner had fraudulently taken benefit of Input Tax Credit. The Appellate Authority found that the petitioner had produced 04 goods receipts issued by Goyal Goods Carry Corporation, which were on different formats and the GSTIN mentioned on the receipts was found to be not valid, as per the information available on the common portal. The mobile number printed on the goods receipts was found to be in use of some lady living at Kasganj and it was not of any transport Company. No material was placed by the petitioner to rebut the aforesaid factual findings based on the survey of the premises of the supplier firms made by officials of Special Investigating Branch. While examining the validity of the aforesaid findings, this Court found that the findings were based on sufficient material and did not require any interference in exercise of writ jurisdiction of this Court. In these circumstances, the allegation leveled in the review petition that this Court has blindly believed the stand of the revenue, is also without any substance.

21. Although a litigant is well within its right to challenge the validity of any order in accordance with the law and in case the order suffers from an error which is apparent on the face of the record, the litigant would be well within its right to say so, but while assailing the orders passed by the Constitutional Court, the learned Advocates are expected to act with some sense of responsibility and to ensure the dignity of the Court even while contending that the order passed by the Court suffers from a patent error. The allegation that "this Court has blindly believed the stand of the revenue that the seller/supplier firm were non-existent and bogus firms" besides being incorrect, is disrespectful towards the Court. This Court deprecates the disrespectful manner of drafting of this review application.

22. The petitioner has annexed a copy of an affidavit of one Vishal Goyal stating that he had taken goods from M/s Ridhi Sidhi, Siddharth Trading and Satwik Trading Company and had delivered the same to the petitioner during 2019-2020 and that his Transport Company is active. The mobile number and the GST number mentioned on the receipts were wrong and the transporter does not have GST registration. The copy of the affidavit does not bear any stamp of Notary. The material which the petitioner now produced before this Court, could have very well be brought by him before the Appellate Authority by exercise of due diligence, but he did not do so. Moreover, it supports the findings of the appellate authority that the GST number and the mobile number mentioned on the transporter's receipt were fake. Therefore, the copy of the affidavit of Vishal Goyal filed by the petitioner along with the review application does not provide any good ground for review of the earlier order.

23. In view of the foregoing discussion, the review petition is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 18
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD J.

Criminal Appeal No. 128 of 1983
Connected with
Government Appeal No. 877 of 1983

Hari Shankar Rai ...Appellant
Versus
State ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri A.D. Gilani, Sri A.D. Giri, Sri R.K. Shahi, Sri S.K. Rai

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.G.A., Sri Harish Chandra Tiwari

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-302 & 304 (I) -There is an unsuccessful attempt by the defense specially the accused to prove that the murder of the deceased occurred in self-defence- Mother of accused was not brought into the witness box to testify about that incident- Ignoring the direct evidence like testimonies of eye-witness in which P.W.-1 is elder brother of the deceased whereas P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 are independent witnesses as also the medical evidence and the relevant documents, only on assumption and presumption, the trial court convicted the accused under Section 304-I of I.P.C- Ocular evidence always prevails over the medical evidence- Minor discrepancy on the part of the Investigating Officer does not effect on the otherwise clinching evidence produced by the prosecution-Result Impugned order set aside-accused-appellant is convicted for the offence under Section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced to undergo life imprisonment.

Government Appeal allowed and Criminal Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jai Deo Vs St. of Pun. 1963 Cr.L.J. 493

2. Tara Chand Vs St. of Har. reported in 1972 SC Cr.R. 9

3. Darbara Singh Vs St. of Pun. reported in (2012) 10 SCC 476

4. Mritunjoy Biswas Vs Pranab @ Kuti Biswas & anr. (2013) 12 SCC 796

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajiv Gupta, J.
&
Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. Heard Mr. R.K. Shahi, learned counsel for the accused, Mr. Harish Chandra Tiwari, learned counsel for the first informant and Mr. Jitendra Kumar Jaiswal, learned A.G.A. for the State in both the appeals, as well as perused the record.

2. Since these criminal appeal as well as government appeal are directed against the judgment and order dated 19th January, 1983 passed in Sessions Trial No. 245 of 1981 (State Vs. Mahendra Rai & Hari Shanker Rai) arising out of Case Crime No. 215 of 1979 (251/3), under Section 302 of I.P.C., Police Station, Tariya Sujan, District-Deoria, whereby the accused Hari Shanker Rai has been convicted and sentenced to undergo four years rigorous imprisonment for the offence punishable under first part of Section 304 of I.P.C., whereas the accused Mahendra Rai has been acquitted for the offence punishable under Section 302 of I.P.C., the same have been heard and clubbed together and are being decided by this common judgment.

3. During the pendency of the instant Government Appeal before this Court, the accused-respondent no.1 Mahendra Rai has already passed away and the Government Appeal qua accused-respondent no.1 Mahendra Rai has been abated vide order dated 31st August, 2022.

4. The prosecution case as cropped up from the records of both the above appeals is that on a written report given by the informant/P.W.-1 Shivji dated 13th December, 1979 (Exhibit-ka/1), first information report (Exhibit-Ka/8) came to be registered on 13th December, 1979 at 1305 hours at Police Station-Tariya Sujan, District-Deoria against the accused Hari Shanker Rai @ Chhotey and Mahendra Rai under Section 302 of I.P.C. In the written report, it has been alleged by the informant/P.W.-1 that his brother Krishna Kumar was studying in Lok Manya Inter College. The accused Hari Shankar Rai @ Chhotey also studied in the same school. There was a fight between his brother Krishna Kumar and accused Harishanker Rai @ Chhote a few days back over some issue. Because of said fight, on 13th December, 1979 at 08:00 a.m. in the morning, when his brother Krishna Kumar was going to have tea from the western side of the road, while passing in front of the house of Harishankar alias Chhote, he saw that accused Harishanker Rai @ Chhotey and his father Mahendra Rai assaulted his brother Krishna Kumar by knives on his chest and stomach with intention to kill him due to which his brother Krishna Kumar sustained injuries and fell down. Due to noise, Navrang Prasad, Ramji, Subhan, Radha Kishna, Prasad, Kanu and Ram Kankan Ram, the informant and many other persons reached there, by then the accused Harishankar and Mahendra Rai ran away. The informant took his brother Krishna Kumar, who was in a serious condition, to the Government Hospital at Tamkuhi Road for his treatment. The incident has been witnessed by above witnesses and many other people. While the treatment of his brother Krishna Kumar was going, on at the Government Hospital, Tamkuhi Road, his brother succumbed to the said injuries caused by the accused, namely, Harishanker Rai @ Chhotey and Mahendra Rai. After leaving the dead body of his brother at Government Hospital, he came to the Police Station for lodging the first information report.

5. After lodging of the first information report, P.W.-4 Sub-Inspector Ausaf Ahmad Khan, after taking over the charge of Investigating Officer, went to the Government Hospital, where the dead body of the deceased was lying and at about 02:45 p.m. he prepared the inquest report (Exhibit-ka/2) of the body of the deceased. Thereafter P.W.-4 prepared the diagram and chalan (Exhibit-ka/3 and 4). After keeping the dead body of the deceased in a sealed cover, the same was sent to the Mortuary for post-mortem.

6. An autopsy of the deceased has been conducted by Dr. C.B. Singh (P.W.-5) on 14th December, 1979 at 11:15 a.m. and in the autopsy report (Exhibit-ka/7), the cause of death of the deceased has been reported to be shock and haemorrhage as a result of following ante-mortem injuries:

"1. Stab wound with incised margins 1 cm. x 1 cm. x chest cavity deep on the front and middle of chest, 8 cm. below the sternal notch.

2. Stab wound with incised margins 1 cm. x abdominal cavity deep on the right side of abdomen, 6 cm above the umbilicus at 11'0 clock position.

3. Multiple abrasion on an area of 2 cm. at the base of right thumb."

7. On the very day of incident i.e. 13th December, 1979, P.W.-4 i.e. the Investigating Officer inspected the place of occurrence and prepared site plan (Exhibit-ka/5) and found the earth scratched. He recorded the statement of Subhan and Radha Kishun. He also arrested the accused Mahendra Rai in Tamkuhi market. On 17th December, 1979, a site plan (Exhibit-ka/11) of the house of the accused was also prepared. Thereafter the investigation was taken over by Sri Lalji Singh, who after conclusions of the statutory investigation under Chapter XII Cr.P.C. has submitted the charge-sheet (Exhibit-Ka/6) against both the accused persons, namely, Mahendra Rai and Hari Shanker Rai on 30th January, 1980.

8. On submission of charge-sheet, the concerned Magistrate took cognizance in the matter and committed the case to the Court of Sessions by whom the case was to be tried. On 12th April, 1981, the concerned Court framed following charges against the accused-persons:

"CHARGES

I, S.L. Tripathi, Sessions Judge, Deoria, hereby charge you-

1. Harishanker Rai alias Chhote, &

2. Mahendra Rai

as follows :-

That you, on 13.12.1979, at about 8.30 a.m. , in village Seorahi, P.S. Tarayasujan of this district, did commit murder by intentionally or knowingly causing the death of Krishna Kumar (with knife) and thereby committed an offence punishable u/S 302 of Indian Penal Code and within the cognizance of this Court of Sess.

And I hereby direct that you be tried by this Court on the aforesaid charge."

9. The charges were read out and explained in Hindi to the accused, who pleaded not guilty and claim to be tried.

10. The trial started and the prosecution has examined six witnesses, who are as follows:-

1	Shivji (complainant) (elder brother of the deceased)/eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W. -1
2	Subhan (resident of village Sevarahi, Police Station-Sevarahi)/another eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W. -2
3	Radha Kishun (resident of Tamkuhi Road, Police Station-Sevarahi), other eye-witness of the incident as per the prosecution	P.W. -3
4	Sub-Inspector Ausaf Ahmad Khan, the first Investigating Officer	P.W. -4
5	Dr. Chandra Bhushan Singh, the then Medical Officer, Sadar Hospital, Deoria, who conducted the autopsy of the deceased	P.W. -5

11. The prosecution in order to establish the charges levelled against the accused-appellant has relied upon following documentary evidence, which were duly proved and consequently marked as Exhibits:

1	Written report dated 13th December, 1979	Ex.Ka.-1

2	First Information Report dated 13th December, 1979	Ex.Ka.-8
3	Injury report of the deceased Krishna Kumar	Ex. Ka.-10
4	Entry of registration of case in General Diary	Ex. Ka/9
5	Inquest report dated 13th December, 1979	Ex.Ka.-2
6	Diagram of the dead body of the deceased	Ex.Ka.-3
7	Chalan of the dead body of the deceased	Ex.Ka.-4
8	Post-mortem report of the deceased dated 14th December, 1979	Ex.Ka.-7
9	Charge-sheet original dated 30th January, 1980	Ex.Ka.-11
10	Site plan with index dated 13th December, 1979	Ex.Ka.-5

12. The defence in support of their case has also produced following documentary evidence:

1	Injury report of accused Hari Shanker Rai	Ex.Kha.-1
2	Awadhesh Kumari wife of accused Mahendra Rai	Ex.Kha.-2

13. After completion of the prosecution evidence, statement of the accused was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The accused Hari Shanker Rai and Mahendra Rai, while giving their statements in the Court, denied the prosecution evidence and stated that they have been falsely implicated on account of harbouring grudges. The accused have also stated that they lived at a distance of about one furlong from the house of the deceased. Accused Hari Shanker Rai also conceded that he was the rival contestant in the election of the Students Union against the accused Krishna Kumar and the deceased had beaten him in that connection. However, accused Mahendra Rai had not accepted the said grudge. Both the accused have also denied that they had committed the murder of the deceased Krishna Kumar or that any witnesses had seen them in commissioning of the alleged crime. They have also stated that they did not know about the medical examination of Krishna Kumar, his death on account of those injuries and the postmortem examination. They also did not know about the lodging of the report, preparation of the site plan and the scratched blood-stained earth. They have further stated that they have been falsely implicated due to enmity. The accused Hari Shanker Rai has further stated that before the occurrence, some heated conversations were exchanged between him and the deceased Krishna Kumar and the deceased Krishna Kumar had threatened him. He has again stated that on 13th December, 1979 at about 07:30 a.m. when he was sitting in his verandah, the deceased along with three other persons had come and beaten him mercilessly by stick and when his mother Avadhesh Kumari tried to save him, she had also been beaten by them. Then, his mother Avadhesh Kumari wielded a sickle in self-defence due to which the deceased Krishna Kumar sustained injuries. After that, accused Hari Shanker Rai went to his relative's place. He also got himself medically examined and a police report has also been lodged by him on which the Police made local inspection.

14. Apart from the documentary evidence, both the accused Hari Shanker Rai as well as Mahendra Rai have also produced two witnesses in their defence, who are as follow:

1	Dr. Pavan Kumar Srivastava, who had medically examined the accused Hari Shanker Rai and prepared the medical examination report (Exhibit-Kha/1)	D.W.-1

2	Dr. Satya Prakash Tripathi, who had medically examined the wife of accused Mahendra Rai, namely, Smt. Avadhesh Kumari and prepared medical examination report (Exhibit-Kha/2)	D.W.-2

15. On the basis of above evidence oral as well as documentary adduced during the course of trial, the trial court, while passing the impugned judgment, while relying upon the defence argument that the role of accused Mahendra Rai in the holistic view as per the testimonies of P.W.1 Shivji, P.W.-2 Subhan and P.W.-3 Radha Kishun, is doubtful, has recorded its finding that undoubtedly the prosecution evidence makes the participation of the accused Mahendra Rai in the entire occurrence extremely doubtful and the benefit of doubt must be extended to him. Consequently, the trial court has opined that the accused Mahendra Rai had nothing to do with the murder of the deceased Krishna Kumar and therefore, he must be acquitted of the charge of murder levelled against him. So far as the role of accused Hari Shanker Rai is concerned, the trial court has recorded that there is absolutely no occasion to doubt that he has not committed the murder of the deceased. The trial court has also not accepted the argument of the defence counsel that since no blood was found on the spot, therefore, the place of occurrence is doubtful. In that regard, the trial court has recorded its finding that the scratched earth had been found by the Investigating Officer (P.W.-3), then no blood was found anywhere else nor even the accused had shown the blood at any other place to the Investigating Officer. Hence, the above argument too has no force and particularly where the witnesses had consistently testified to prove the place of occurrence. The trial court has also recorded that the edge of the motive was also not very relevant where it was established by cogent evidence that an occurrence had really taken place.

16. The trial court has also not accepted the theory of self-defence put forth by the defence counsel on behalf of the accused Hari Shanker Rai that the deceased was the aggressor, who came inside the house of the accused along with three other persons and started beating him by stick and when his mother, namely, Awadhesh Kumari tried to save him, they also had beaten her because of the same, accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari sustained injuries and in the self-defence, the accused caused injuries to the deceased Krishna Kumar. The trial court has recorded that neither the accused has produced Awadhesh Kumari before the trial court as defence witness nor any blood was found inside the house. The stick which is alleged to have been used by the deceased was also not available nor has the same been produced by the defence before the trial court. Hence the theory of self-defence could not be said to be correct.

17. So far as the medical examination report of the mother of the accused Hari Shanker Rai, namely, Awadhesh Kumari (wife of accused Mahendra Rai) (Exhibits-kha/1 and 2) produced by the defence in order to prove the theory of self-defence, is concerned, the trial court has opined that the injuries sustained by Awadhesh Kumari were not connected with the occurrence in which the deceased Krishna Kumar had lost his life.

18. Relying upon the injury report of accused Hari Shanker Rai and the testimony of D.W.-1, who medically examined him, the trial court has recorded that it is possible that the accused Hari Shanker Rai might have received his injuries in the same occurrence. The eye-witnesses of the occurrence had seen the occurrence from the stage where the two knife blows had been given and not the earlier part of it which occasioned the use of knife. As such, the possibility could not be ruled out that the deceased Krishna Kumar attacked the accused Hari Shanker and caused injuries to him and thereafter, accused Hari Shanker whipped out a knife and committed murder. The theory of self-defence has been put forward before the trial court in that respect. Although the said theory was not placed in the same manner but as the facts are sufficiently eloquent, that benefit could not be withheld.

19. The trial court has further recorded that in the circumstances, when the deceased attacked accused Hari Shanker Rai, he had right to protect himself in the form of self-defence, but his attacking the deceased Krishna Kumar twice with a knife shows that he exceeded the right of self-defense. Relying upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jai Deo Vs. State of Punjab reported in 1963 Cr.L.J. 493 wherein it was held that the accused must stop as soon as the apprehension to him disappeared, the trial court has opined that in the present case the accused Hari Shanker had done the same, once he stabbed the deceased and then followed him to a distance of two steps and gave another knife blow on the stomach of the deceased, which clearly shows that the accused had exceeded the right of self-defence. The trial court, in view of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tara Chand Vs. State of Haryana reported in 1972 SC Cr.R. 9, has held that the accused Hari Shanker was guilty of the offence punishable under the first part of Section 304 I.P.C. The trial court has, therefore, convicted him for that offence and sentenced him to undergo four years rigorous imprisonment, whereas the trial court has acquitted the accused Mahendra Rai for the alleged charge granting him benefit of doubt.

20. Being aggrieved with the impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai has preferred the present Criminal Appeal, whereas the State of U.P. has preferred the present Government Appeal against the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused Mahendra Rai by the trial court.

21. Assailing the impugned judgment and order of conviction, the learned counsel for the accused-appellant in present criminal appeal and learned counsel for the accused-respondent in the government appeal, has advanced following submissions:

(i) P.W.-2 Subhan and P.W. -3 Radha Kishun are not eye-witness but chance witnesses because, as per the prosecution case, they reached at the place of occurrence when the incident has already taken place. Even otherwise, P.W.-1 Shivji being the elder brother of the deceased is an interested witness.

(ii). There are major contradictions in the statements of the alleged prosecution witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, therefore, the same are not reliable and trustworthy.

(iii) Crime weapon i.e. knife, which is alleged to have been used by the accused for stabbing the deceased Krishna Kumar, has not been recovered nor the same has been sent for its chemical examination to the Forensic Science Laboratory.

(iv) Blood stained earth has also not been collected by the Investigating Officer nor the same has been sent for chemical examination.

(v). No recovery memo has been prepared by the Investigating Officer either of the knife (Ala Katla) or the blood stained earth.

(vi). There was no motive for the accused to commit the alleged crime.

(vii). As per the prosecution specially the eye-witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, the accused Hari Shanker caused injuries to the deceased Krishna Kumar by knife which does have one side edge, whereas in his testimoney, P.W.-5 Dr. C.B. Singh has opined that edges of both sides of injury nos. 1 and 2 were clean cut, meaning thereby that the injury nos. 1 and 2 can be caused by a weapon having edges on both sides. As such, the medical evidence does not support the prosecution version.

22. On the basis of the above submissions, learned counsel for the accused-appellant in Criminal Appeal has submitted that since the prosecution has completely failed to established its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-appellant and the evidence on record has not been examined in correct perspective by the trial Court, the impugned judgment and order passed by the trial court convicting and sentencing the accused-appellant under the first part of Section 304 I.P.C. to undergo four years rigorous imprisonment cannot be legally sustained and is liable to be quashed.

23. On the other-hand, learned counsel for the first informant and the learned A.G.A. for the State in criminal appeal as well as in government appeal submit as under:

i. The submission of the learned counsel for the accused-appellant and the accused-respondent that the motive is not clear, is incorrect. From the version of the first information report as well as from the version of the first informant/P.W.-1, wherein it has been stated that due to students union election, there was altercation between the accused Hari Shanker Rai and the deceased Krishna Kumar and the deceased had beaten accused Hari Shanker Rai one or two months back and because of the same, the accused Hari Shanker Rai harboured grudge, it is established that the accused has motive or intention to commit the alleged crime. Even otherwise, in the statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., the accused Hari Shanker Rai has admitted that due to election of students union, the deceased had beaten him.

ii. Medical examination reports of the accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari i.e. Exhibits-kha/1 and 2 are fabricated, as no such injuries were caused by the deceased nor the incident as alleged by accused Hari Shanker Rai has ever taken place. In order to establish a cross case and also for establishing theory of self-defence, such false incident has been built up by the defence.

iii. In the site plan (Exhibit-ka/5) dated 13th December, 1979 prepared by the Investigating Officer, Point "D" has been marked for indicating the presence of P.W.-2 Subhan at the time of occurrence, meaning thereby that P.W.-2 has seen the incident with his own eyes. As such the submission of the learned counsel for the accused-appellant and learned counsel for the accused-respondent that he is a chance witness is also incorrect. He is an eye witness to the incident.

iv. For establishing the theory of self-defence, the defence has shifted the place of occurrence by submitting that the verandah of the house of the accused was the exact place of occurrence, where the deceased came along with three persons and had beaten the accused Hari Shanker by stick and when his mother tried to save him, they had also beaten her. In response thereto his mother wielded the deceased with sickle due to which he sustained injuries. When as matter of fact, the incident took place in front the shop of Jugul from where the house of the accused Mahendra Rai is 15 to 16 steps away and the said place of occurrence has sufficiently been proved by the prosecution.

v. Though the first informant/P.W.-1 Shivji is the brother of the deceased but he is one of the eye-witness, who saw the entire incident with his open eyes. He is throughout consistent from the initial stage of lodging of the first information report and till the conclusion of his testimony before the trial court. Therefore, his testimony cannot be discarded on the ground of his being brother of the deceased.

vi. In the statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., the accused Hari Shanker Rai built up a cross case by stating that on the date of the incident i.e. 13.12.1979 at about 7:30 a.m. when he was sitting in his varandah deceased Krishna Kumar and three others came there and had beaten him, when his mother came to rescue him, she too was beaten. His mother in her defence saved her with sickle in which Krishna Kumar got injured. However, such cross case has not been fully established by the defence either by oral or by documentary evidence. From the statement of D.W.-1 Dr. Pawan Kumar Srivastava, which has heavily been relied upon by the defence as he has examined the accused-appellant Harishanker and found five injuries on his person, it crops up that injuries found by D.W.-1 on the body of the accused Hari Shanker Rai have been reported to be caused at around 9 to 12 O'clock at day time on 13.12.1979 but as per prosecution story the incident has taken place on 13.12.1979 at about 8:30 a.m. meaning thereby the incident dated 13.12.1979 at 8:30 a.m. occurred prior to the receiving of injuries on the person of accused-appellant Harishanker. It has not been established by the appellant/ defence that the injuries on the person of Harishanker has been inflicted by Krishna Kumar in the same incident as alleged by prosecution. It is also pertinent to mention here that with regard to the incident in which such injuries have been sustained by accused Hari Shanker, no complaint or first information was lodged by the accused at the police station concerned.

vii. The medical examinations of accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari have not been been conducted through Majroobi Chiththi of police station concerned. Even otherwise, the medical examination reports of accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari have been prepared in private capacity after two days of the actual incident occurred. Not only this Harishanker has given an application at police station concerned on 17.12.1979 as an afterthought wherein he has stated that his mother had caused injuries to Krishna Kumar with knife in her defence, whereas accused Harishanker has already stated in his statement under section 313 Cr.P.C. that his mother caused injuries to Krishna Kumar with sickle.

viii. It is also noteworthy that this application has not been proved by him in his defence nor the same is exhibited as defence document and it seems that this application has been prepared and given to the concerned Superintendent of Police as an afterthought with ulterior motive.

ix. There are no inconsistencies or contradictions in the testimonies of all the prosecution eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 and the inconsistencies or contradictions pointed out by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant and accused-respondent are too minor.

24. On the basis of the aforesaid submissions, learned A.G.A. submits that as this is a case of direct and clinching evidence, the testimonies of eye witnesses, namely, P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, namely, Shivji, Subhan and Radha Kishun who are consistent throughout in their examination-in-chief and the cross-examinations inspire confidence in the facts and circumstances of the case and they have disclosed about the commissioning of the offence of murder of the deceased Krishna Kumar and the same has also been supported by the medical evidence in all material particulars, therefore, trial court has committed gross error in convicting the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai under first part of Section 304 I.P.C. Despite the defence having been failed to establish its case of self-defence and the trial court has recorded its finding that the accused Hari Shanker had exceeded his right of self-defence, the trial court while ignoring the entire evidence produced by the prosecution, has passed the impugned judgment. The accused Hari Shanker Rai is liable to be convicted for the offence punishable under Section 302 I.P.C. instead of Section 304 Part-I I.P.C. As such the appeal filed by the accused-appellants, who committed heinous crime of murdering the deceased Krishna Kumar is liable to be dismissed.

25. In reply to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-respondent in Government Appeal, learned A.G.A. and the learned counsel for the first informant submit that the prosecution has fully established its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents by oral as well as documentary evidence but the trial court has not examined the same and passed the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused Mahendra Rai only on the argument raised by the defence counsel before the trial court, which is per-se illegal and is liable to be quashed. The learned A.G.A. and learned counsel for the first informant further submit that in support of the above argument, learned counsel for the accused-respondent has failed to produce any documentary as well as oral evidence before this Court as well as trial court. There exist direct evidence against the accused Hari Shanker Rai by way of testimonies of P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3. As such, the Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be allowed by reversing the impugned judgment of the trial court and convicting and sentencing him for the offence under Section 302 I.P.C. The learned A.G.A. also submits that since the Government Appeal qua the accused-respondent Mahendra Rai has already been dismissed as abated, nothing is required to be said in his case.

26. We have examined the respective contentions urged by the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the records of the present appeal including the trial court records.

27. The only question requires to be addressed and determined in this appeal is whether the conclusion of guilt arrived at by the learned trial court and the sentence awarded is legal and sustainable in law or it suffers from infirmity and perversity.

28. Before entering into the merits of the case set up by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant in criminal appeal, learned counsel for the accused-respondent in government appeal and the learned A.G.A. as also the learned counsel for the first informant in both the appeals qua impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, it is desirable for us to briefly refer to the statements of the prosecution witnesses as well as the defence witnesses.

29. P.W.-1 Shivji in examination-in-chief stated that the accused Harishankar is the son of accused Mahendra Rai. Both of them are residents of Tamkuhi Road. House of both the accused is 100 steps away from his house to the west. He further stated that he is elder brother of the deceased Krishna Kumar He was murdered 2 years and 8 months ago at 08:30 a.m. (morning) in front of Jugul's shop. House of accused Mahendra Rai is 15-16 steps away from Jugul's shop.

30. This witness further stated that when the deceased Krishna Kumar was proceeding towards the station to have tea while he himself was coming from the sugar mill after collecting tax, the accused Harishankar and Mahendra Rai stopped Krishna Kumar and the accused Harishankar stabbed Krishna Kumar. Mahendra had exhorted the accused Hari Shanker Rai to kill Krishna Kumar. The knife blow was sustained by his brother in his chest, then Mahendra caught hold the hand of Krishna Kumar from behind and then accused Harishankar gave the second blow of the knife in the stomach of Krishna Kumar. Krishna Kumar screamed and fell there. This witness, Naurang, Subhan, Radha Kishun, Ramji and Rama Kant while making alarm reached there and then both the accused ran away to their house. P.W.-1 picked up Krishna Kumar and took him to Tamkuhi Road Hospital. When he went to take medicine on the advise of Doctor, his father Jamuna Rai reached there. Two hours later, Krishna Kumar died in the said hospital.

31. This witness again stated that the accused Hari Shanker Rai and his brother Krishna Kumar studied in Lokmanya Inter College, Tamkuhi Road. The accused Hari Shanker Rai was contesting election for the post of General Secretary of Student Union in which his brother was campaigning for his opponent. A month or two, prior to the incident, there was a fight between the accused Hari Shanker Rai and the deceased Krishna Kumar on the same issue and the deceased Krishna Kumar hit the accused Harishankar. Krishna Kumar was not contesting the election for the post of General Secretary of Student Union. In the first information report, he did not mention that the deceased Krishna Kumar hit the accused Hari Shanker Rai. Later that quarrel was resolved amongst them.

32. In the cross examination-this witness denied that the deceased Krishna Kumar was not going to take tea. He stated that he did not lodge the first information report under influence of anyone. The deceased Krishna Kumar became unconscious after getting injured. The deceased Krishna Kumar used to go to take tea every day, therefore, he mentioned in the first information report that he was going to take tea. In normal course, he used to go daily to collect tax.

33. This witness further stated that at the time of incident, no one came from the nearby shops because the shops were closed. He saw the incident from a distance of 30-35 steps away while the accused Hari Shanker was stabbing the deceased with knife. The accused Mahendra Rai did not stab the deceased. In the first information report he has not disclosed that the accused Hari Shanker Rai was holding a knife at the time of incident, as he was nervous. Then, this witness stated that the first knife blow was given on the chest of the deceased and the second knife blow was given in his stomach. Blood oozed from both the places. This incident took place at 2-3 steps beside the road. This witness stated that he took the deceased Krishna Kumar to the hospital by rickshaw. The doctor met him in the hospital and admitted his brother there and examined the injuries. His father reached the hospital within 10-15 minutes. He denied the fact that his father had taken the deceased Krishna Kumar to the hospital.

34. This witness again stated that he did not see mother of the accused Hari Shanker on the spot. He also did not see any injuries on the person of accused Hari Shanker Rai. He denied that the fact that the deceased Krishna Kumar went at the house of Harishankar and assaulted him and his mother. He further denied the suggestion that the mother of accused Hari Shanker Rai used sickle in defence. He further denied the suggestion that the Investigating Officer came to the spot and on his advice, they changed the place of the incident. He further denied that there were no witnesses at the spot and the accused Mahendra Rai was not at home on the day of the incident.

35. P.W.-2 Subhan, alleged star eye witness stated in his examination-in-chief that about 2 years and 8 months back, the deceased Krishna Kumar was murdered at 08:30 a.m. in the morning. He was getting a shave at the barber shop and was sitting inside the shop. When the deceased Krishna Kumar was going from the south, accused Harishankar abused him and then Harishankar stabbed the deceased Krishna Kumar. One knife blow was given on his chest and the other one was given on the stomach of the deceased due to which the deceased Krishna Kumar fell down. The accused Mahendra was standing behind him. On the alarm being raised, the accused ran away. The incident was witnessed by P.W.-3 Radha Kishun, Naurang, Ramji and P.W.-1 Shivji. The deceased Krishna Kumar was taken to the hospital, where he died.

36. In the cross-examination, this witness stated that when Krishna Kumar fell and screamed, he came out of the shop. The deceased Krishna Kumar had fallen towards his south on the unpaved track. He had fallen 2 to 4 steps away from him. He further stated that at the time of incident he did not see the wife of accused Mahendra Rai i.e. mother of accused Harishanker Rai. He denied not to have seen the incident and since he is a servant of Jamnadas, he is giving false deposition. He did not see any injury on the person of accused Harishanker.

37. P.W.-3 Radha Kishun, other prosecution star eye witness stated in his examination-in-chief that the murder of Krishna, son of Jamuna took place two and half years back at 7:00 a.m. or 7:30 a.m. in the morning. The murder took place near the barber's shop on the other side of the road in front of Mahendra's house. He was going from the bank to the station. He saw the incident from a distance of 20-25 paces. The accused Harishankar assaulted the deceased Krishna Kumar by a knife. He sustained injuries in his chest and stomach. This witness again stated that the incident was witnessed by several people but the accused ran away.

38. In the cross-examination, this witness stated that there is a transformer at the intersection and there is a bank 5-6 shops away from it on the east side. On the date of incident he was present on the west road in front of transformer. When he saw, the deceased Krishna Kumar had fallen. A crowd of 50-60 people assembled there. He also ran and reached there. The deceased Krishna Kumar had fallen 10 steps west of the house of accused Mahendra Rai. At the relevant time, only the barber shop was open, whereas the rest of the shops were closed. This witness further stated that the deceased Krishna Kumar was not stabbed after he fell down. He disclosed to the Investigating Officer that knife blows were given on the stomach and chest of the deceased. He then stated that Jamuna is his neighbour. He did not notice, if blood spilled out on the spot. The deceased Krishna Kumar had fallen in supine position.

39. Lastly, this witness stated that large number of persons assembled at the doorstep of Mahendra as well as on the terrace. He did not notice any injury either on the person of wife of Mahendra (mother of accused Harishanker) or on the person of accused Harishanker. He denied to give false statement being the neighbour of Jamuna and he did not see the accused Mahendra Rai on the date of incident.

40. P.W.-4 Sub-Inspector Ausaf Ahmad Khan in his examation-in-chief stated that he went to the hospital the same day and recorded the statement of first informant Shivji. He found the dead body of the deceased Krishna Kumar in the hospital. He prepared the inquest report, photo of the dead body etc. He further stated that at the spot, he found ground scratched but he did not found any blood. The accused was searched but was not found. On the same day, the accused Mahendra was arrested from Tamkuhi Road. This witness further stated that he recorded the statement of witness Radha Kishun.

41. In the cross-examination, this witness stated that he did not found the wife of accused Mahendra to be injured. He denied that wife of accused Mahendra had injuries and he was concealing the same. He further denied that the incident took place inside the house of accused Mahendra Rai and the ground was not scratched.

42. P.W.- 5 Dr. C.B. Singh who was conducted the post mortem examination of the body of the deceased Krishna Kumar, stated in his examination- in-chief that the cause of death of the deceased was excessive bleeding and shock due to ante-mortem injuries noted in the post-mortem report. In his testimony, this witness opined that injury nos. 1 and 2 can be caused by a sharp knife, injury no. 3 could have been caused by rubbing of the knife. Death of the deceased was likely to occur at 10:00 a.m. on 13th December, 1979. After getting injured, death may instantaneously be caused or the victim may remain alive for some time.

43. This witness further opined that injury number 3 could also have been caused by a rough stick. The edges of injury nos. 1 and 2 on both sides were clean cut. Such injuries could also have been caused by a knife that have an edge on both sides and could also be caused by a knife that had an edge on only "one side". He further states that the head of the wound was noted by him, as such he cannot state if the knife was single edged or double edged. If the knife has only one edge, the head of the wound will not make a clean cut.

44. D.W.-1 Dr. Pavan Kumar Srivastava, who conducted the medical examination of accused Hari Shanker Rai, stated that he found five injuries on his body. He further stated that injury Nos. 1, 2, 3 were caused by some blunt weapon and were about two days old. Injury number nos. 1 and 2 were normal and injury no.3 was kept under observation till the X-ray report was received. He further stated that all injuries sustained by accused Harishanker Rai may have occurred on 13th December, 1979 at 09:00 to 10:00 a.m.

45. In the cross examination, this witness stated that neither the accused Harishanker nor any other person did produce any X-ray report before him. There is a government hospital in Sevarhi also.

46. D.W.-2 Dr. Satya Prakash Tripathi, who conducted the medical examination of mother of accused Hari Shanker Rai (wife of accused Mahendra Rai), namely, Awadhesh Kumari, stated that he found as many as 9 injuries on her body. He further stated that all injuries are simple except injury no.9, which could be commented after receiving the X-ray report. Injury nos. 4, 6 and 7 were caused by friction with some hard object and the remaining injuries were caused by some hard object. All the injuries found on the body of Awadhesh Kumari were about two days old and the same could have been caused even on 13th December, 1979 at 09:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

47. Before proceeding to discuss the issues raised in these appeals we may note some background facts.

48. There are two incidents, which are alleged to have occurred at different times and places, first is as per the version given by the prosecution and second is as per the defence version particularly that of the accused Hari Shanker Rai.

49. The incident, as per the version of the prosecution, is alleged to have occurred on 13th December 1979 at 08:30 a.m. (morning) in front of the shop of Jugul from which the house of accused Mahendra Rai is 15 to 16 steps away. This incident has been supported by all the prosecution eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2, P.W.-3 as well as by the formal witnesses i.e. P.W.-4 and P.W.-5 in their testimonies. As per the prosecution/first informant, the incident is as follows:

"कृष्ण कुमार मेरा छोटा भाई था। उसका कत्ल 2 साल 8 महीना हुआ सुबह 8-1/2 बजे जुगुल की दुकान के सामने हुआ। जुगुल की दुकान से 15-16 कदम दूर महेन्दर राय का मकान है। कृष्ण कुमार चाय पीने स्टेशन तरफ जा रहा था। मैं तकाजा। वसूल करके सूगर मिल की तरफ से आ रहा था। मुजरिमान हरीशंकर और महेन्दर राय ने कृष्ण कुमार को रोक लिया। हरीशंकर ने कृष्ण कुमार को चाकू मारा। महेन्दर ने कहा था कि इसे जान से मार दो। चाकू मेरे भाई के सीने में लगा तब महेन्दर ने पीछे से कृष्ण कुमार का हाथ पकड़ लिया फिर हरीशंकर ने चाकू का दूसरा वार पेट पर किया। कृष्ण कुमार चिल्ला कर वही गिर गया। मैं, नौरंग, सुभान, राधा कीशुन, रामजी व रामकक्कन चिल्लाते हुए वहा पहुंचेतंब दोनों मुजरिमान अपने घर भाग गये। मैं कृष्ण कुमार को उठाकर तमकूही रोड अस्पताल में ले गया। डाक्टर ने मुझे दवा लेने के लिये भेजा तब तक मेरे पिता जमुना राय वहाँ पहुँच गये।"

50. The incident, as per the version of accused Hari Shanker (defence), is alleged to have occurred on 13th December, 1979 at 07:30 a.m. (morning) in Varandah of the house of accused Hari Shanker Rai. Except the accused Hari Shanker in his statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., nobody has supported the said incident.

51. As per the accused Hari Shanker Rai, the incident is extracted hereunder:

"कतल से एक दिन पहले मेरी गाली गलौज कृष्ण कुमार से हुई। फिर कृष्ण कुमार धमकी देकर चला गया । 13-12-79 को सुबह 7-1/2 बजे मैं अपने बरामदे में बैठा था तब लाठी डण्डा लेकर कृष्ण कुमार और तीन अन्य आदमी आए। उन्होंने मुझे मारा। मेरी मां बचाने आई तो उसे भी मारा। मेरी मां ने बचाव में हासिया चलाया जिससे कृष्ण कुमार को चोट आई । हम डर से रिश्तेदारी में चले गये। मैंने डाक्टरी मुआयना भी कराया और रिपोर्ट भी लिखवाई। मैंने मॉ का भी मुआयना कराया।"

52. It is surprising to note that the accused Mahendra Rai (father of the accused Hari Shanker Rai) in his statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. did not say anything about the incident disclosed by the accused Hari Shanker Rai. It is also pertinent to mention here that Awadhesh Kumari mother of the accused Hari Shanker Rai (wife of accused Mahendra Rai), who, as per the version of the accused Hari Shanker Rai, has not been produced by the defence during the course of trial to testify the said incident in which she wielded the deceased Krishna Kumar with sickle in her self-defence when the deceased Krishna Kumar along with three others on account of dispute over student Union election, came in Varandah of the house of accused Hari Shanker Rai and had beaten him and when she tried to rescue him, she was also beaten by them.

53. It is also important to note that while recording the statement of accused Hari Shanker Rai under Section 313 Cr.P.C., when a question has been put to the accused Hari Shanker Rai that he and the deceased Krishna Kumar studied in Lokmanya Inter College and in connection with the election of student union, there was scuffle between them and the deceased Krishna Kumar had beaten him?, the accused Hari Shanker Rai answered that all facts are true. When as a matter of fact, when the same question was put to the accused Mahendra Rai while recording his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C., he answered that the same is incorrect.

54. We may also record that qua the incident in which injuries have been sustained by accused Hari Shanker and his mother Aadhesh Kumari, no complaint or first information was lodged by the accused before the police station concerned.

55. The medical examinations of accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari have not been conducted through Majroobi Chiththi of police station concerned inasmuch as their medical examinations have been conducted by the Doctors i.e. D.W.-1 and D.W.-2 in their private capacity after two days of the actual incident occurred. Even otherwise, the accused Harishanker has submitted an application to police station concerned on 17.12.1979 as an afterthought wherein he has stated that his mother has caused injuries to Krishna Kumar with knife in her defence. Even otherwise, the prosecution witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2, P.W.-3 and P.W.-4 have specifically stated in their testimonies that at the time of incident they have not seen any injury on the person of accused Hari Shanker Rai nor on the person of Awadhesh Kumari.

56. On the deeper scrutiny of the facts as discussed herein above, it is apparently clear that the incident as alleged by the accused Hari Shanker Rai is a separate incident in which he and his mother have sustained injuries of which the medical examinations have been conducted by D.W.-1 and D.W.-2, who prepared their medical examination reports (Exhibits-kha/1 and 2) respectively. It appears that there is an unsuccessful attempt by the defense specially the accused Hari Shanker Rai to prove that the murder of the deceased Krishna Kumar occurred in self-defence of his mother Awadhesh Kumari and also an attempt to protect his father i.e. another accused Mahendra Rai from this murder case.

57. From bare evaluation and deliberation of the evidence led during the course of trial, we find that on one hand, the trial court itself has also recorded in paragraph 10 of its judgment that the deceased Krishna Kumar had died on account of injuries which have been caused by knife at around 08:00 a.m. on 13th December, 1979, whereas the trial court in paragraph-11, on the testimonies of D.W.1 and D.W.-2 who medically examined the accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari respectively after two days of the incident i.e. on 15th December, 1979, has recorded that the accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari could have sustained injuries at about 09:00 a.m. or 10:00 a.m. on 13th December, 1979, on the other-hand the trial court has opined that the deceased Krishna Kumar, the accused Hari Shanker Rai and his mother Awadhesh Kumari (wife of another accused Mahendra Rai) had sustained their injuries near or about the same time.

58. In paragraph-25 of the impugned judgment, the trial court has recorded different opinion while recording that the accused has come forward with a self defence theory, wherein it was alleged that the occurrence had taken place inside the house of the accused in which the deceased along with three other persons first assaulted the accused Hari Shanker Rai and thereafter his mother Awadhesh Kumari consequent to which they sustained injuries. In this respect it has been observed by the trial court judge that neither the sickle which has allegedly been used in causing injuries to the deceased, has been produced nor it was got chemically examined. Blood was also not found inside the house of accused Hari Shanker Rai. Even Awadhesh Kumari was not brought into the witness box to testify about that incident. Danda was allegedly used by deceased but that too was not recovered nor has been produced by the accused. The trial court has recorded that in view of the above, the defence story could not be accepted as correct.

59. Further, on one hand, the trial court in paragraph-26 has opined while recording that the testimony of Dr. Satya Prakash Tripathi (D.W.-2) could not be given much wieghtage, as he had not given out any data by which he had pointed out the time of the injuries sustained by Awadhesh Kumari i.e. mother of the accused Hari Shanker Rai. The trial court has further recorded that as per opinion of D.W.-2 himself, the injuries sustained by Awadhesh Kumari were about two days old, therefore, it is clear that they could have been caused even at 04:00 p.m. on 13th December, 1979, as such Awadhesh Kumar could have sustained the injuries much after the occurrence. Her injuries could not, therefore, be linked with the occurrence in which Krishna Kumar had lost his life.

60. On the other-hand, in paragraph-27 qua the injuries sustained by accused Hari Shanker Rai, the trial court has recorded that on the basis of opinion of D.W.-1 who medically examined the accused Hari Shanker Rai, that the injuries sustained by him could have been caused in the morning of 13th December, 1979, it is possible that the accused Hari Shanker might have sustained his injuries in the same occurrence. The trial court assumed that eye-witnesses of the occurrence had witnessed the incident from the stage where two knife blows had been given and not prior to it which occasioned the use of knife. Hence the possibility could not be ruled out that the deceased Krishna Kumar attacked the accused Hari Shanker and caused injuries to him and thereafter the accused Hari Shanker whipped out a knife and committed the murder of the deceased. On the basis of such possibility, the trial court has accepted the theory of self-defence taken by the defence. However, relying upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jai Deo (Supra), the trial court has also opined that since the accused Hari Shanker Rai stabbed the deceased once and then followed him to a distance of two steps and gave another knife blow on his stomach, the accused Hari Shanker Rai exceeded the right of self-defence. On the basis of such possibility and assumption, the trial court has convicted the accused Hari Shanker under the First Part of Section 304 I.P.C. and sentenced him to undergo four years rigorous imprisonment.

61. On one hand, the trial court has discarded the incident set up by the defence, which is alleged to have occurred in Varandah of accused Hari Shanker Rai and also refused to accept the submission of the defence that injuries sustained by the accused Hari Shanker Rai and Awadhesh Kumari was caused in the aforesaid incident, whereas on the other-hand, the trial court has admitted the incident set up by the prosecution, which is alleged to have occurred in front of the shop of Jugul and the said incident has been witnessed by eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1, P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, which has also been supported by PW.-4 Investigating Officer. However, while ignoring the direct evidence like testimonies of eye-witness in which P.W.-1 is elder brother of the deceased whereas P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 are independent witnesses as also the medical evidence and the relevant documents, only on assumption and presumption, the trial court convicted the accused Hari Shanker Rai under Section 304-I of I.P.C. under the impugned judgment which in our opinion is not only illegal, perverse, whimsical and infirm.

62. The submission of the learned counsel for the accused-appellant that the prosecution version that the accused Hari Shanker Rai stabbed the deceased Krishna Kumar by knife which has one side edge, whereas the P.W.-5 Dr. C.B. Singh, who conducted the post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased stated that injury nos. 1 and 2 found on the person of the deceased can be caused by a weapon having edges on both sides, makes the prosecution case doubtful is liable to be rejected on the ground that it is settled law that the ocular evidence always prevails over the medical evidence. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Darbara Singh Vs. State of Punjab reported in (2012) 10 SCC 476 has held that in case there is contradictions between medical and ocular evidence, the ocular testimony of a witness will have greater evidentiary value. For ready reference, paragraph no.10 of the said judgment reads as follows:

"10. So far as the question of inconsistency between medical evidence and ocular evidence is concerned, the law is well settled that, unless the oral evidence available is totally irreconcilable with the medical evidence, the oral evidence would have primacy. In the event of contradictions between medical and ocular evidence, the ocular testimony of a witness will have greater evidentiary value vis-à-vis medical evidence and when medical evidence makes the oral testimony improbable, the same becomes a relevant factor in the process of evaluation of such evidence. It is only when the contradiction between the two is so extreme that the medical evidence completely rules out all possibilities of the ocular evidence being true at all, that the ocular evidence is liable to be disbelieved. (Vide: State of U.P. Vs. Hari, (2009) 13 SCC 542; and Bhajan Singh @ Harbhajan Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Haryana, (2011) 7 SCC 421)."

63. To the submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant that non recovery of crime weapon i.e. knife having been made from any of the accused creates a dent in the prosecution case, we may record that such minor discrepancy on the part of the Investigating Officer does not effect on the otherwise clinching evidence produced by the prosecution which have been discussed in detail herein above. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mritunjoy Biswas Vs. Pranab Alias Kuti Biswas & Another reported in (2013) 12 SCC 796 has held that when there is ample unimpeachable ocular evidence and same has been corroborated by medical evidence, non-recovery of weapon does not affect the persecution case. The relevant paragraphs i.e. paragraph nos. 33 and 34 are being quoted herein below:

"33. The learned counsel for the respondent has urged before us that there has been no recovery of weapon from the accused and hence, the prosecution case deserves to be thrown overboard and, therefore, the judgment of acquittal does not warrant interference.

34. In Lakshmi and Others v. State of U.P. [(2002) 7 SCC 198 : (AIR 2002 SC 3119 : 2002 AIR SCW 3596)], this Court has ruled that

"Undoubtedly, the identification of the body, cause of death and recovery of weapon with which the injury may have been inflicted on the deceased are some of the important factors to be established by the prosecution in an ordinary given case to bring home the charge of offence under Section 302 IPC. This, however, is not an inflexible rule. It cannot be held as a general and broad proposition of law that where these aspects are not established, it would be fatal to the case of the prosecution and in all cases and eventualities, it ought to result in the acquittal of those who may be charged with the offence of murder".''

In Lakhan Sao v. State of Bihar and Another reported in [(2000) 9 SCC 82 : (AIR 2000 SC 2063 : 2000 AIR SCW 1955)], it has been opined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that the non-recovery of the pistol or spent cartridge does not detract from the case of the prosecution where the direct evidence is acceptable.

In State of Rajasthan v. Arjun Singh and Others reported in [(2011) 9 SCC 115 : (AIR 2011 SC 3380 : 2011 AIR SCW 5295)], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has expressed that:

"18..... mere non-recovery of pistol or cartridge does not detract the case of the prosecution where clinching and direct evidence is acceptable. Likewise, absence of evidence regarding recovery of used pellets, bloodstained clothes, etc. cannot be taken or construed as no such occurrence had taken place".

64. In view of the aforesaid facts and the findings recorded by us herein above, we are of the firm opinion that the finding of the Court below with regard to accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai is illegal and incorrect, as the guilt of the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai has been proved beyond reasonable doubt by the prosecution.

65. Consequently, in view of the deliberations held above, the judgment and order dated 19th January, 1983 passed in Sessions Trial No. 245 of 1981 (State Vs. Mahendra Rai & Another) arising out of Case Crime No. 215 of 1979, Police Station Tariya Sujan, District-Deoria convicting him under Section 304 Part-I of I.P.C. is set aside and instead, the accused-appellant

Hari Shanker Rai is convicted for the offence under Section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced him to undergo life imprisonment with a fine of Rs. 50,000/-. In default of payment of fine within three months, he shall further undergo six months additional imprisonment.

66. Since the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai is reported to be on bail, the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Deoria shall ensure that the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai is arrested and sent to jail for serving his sentences awarded herein above.

67. Thus, in sum and substance, the criminal appeal filed by the accused-appellant Hari Shanker Rai is dismissed.

68. The Government Appeal filed on behalf of the State is, hereby, allowed by setting aside the acquittal of accused Hari Shanker Rai under Section 302 I.P.C. and confirming his conviction under Section 302 I.P.C. and awarding the sentence of life imprisonment with fine of Rs. 50,000/-, in default of payment of fine, he has to further undergo six months additional imprisonment. Since the instant Government Appeal qua accused-respondent Mahendra Rai has already been abated by this Court vide order dated 31st August, 2022, no further orders are required to be passed against him.

69. There shall be no order as to costs.

70. Let a copy of this judgment be sent to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Deoria, henceforth, for necessary compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 35
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 257 of 1981
With
Government Appeal No. 757 of 1981

Ayodhya & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri C.S. Saran, Sri Adya Prasad Tiwari, Sri Amar Saran, Sri Arunesh Kumar Singh, Sri Rajeev Chaddha, Sri S.S. Tripathi

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
D.G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 147, 149 & 30 - Criminal Appeal & Government Appeal against order passed by the trail court whereby accused were convicted U/s 147, 149 & 302 IPC and under the same impugned judgment other accused persons were given benefit of doubt- The star prosecution specifically St.d in their testimonies that all the seven accused with intention to kill the deceased had first beaten him at his doorstep and thereafter they had dragged him to the doorstep of accused, where they had mercilessly beaten him by lathi and spears due to which he sustained serious injuries and ultimately died on the spot- No contradiction or inconsistencies in the testimonies of the witnesses- Post mortem report and testimony of P.W.-4 who conducted the autopsy also supports the prosecution case- Accused also had motive to commit the murder.

While acquitting both the accused-respondents, namely, Pyare and Chhotku, the trial court has not examined the evidence led by the prosecution in correct perspective- Pyare and Chhotku also actively participated in alleged crime along with other five accused, who have been convicted by the trial court on the same set of evidence- The acquittal of the accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku, is consequently, reversed.

Criminal Appeal Dismissed and Government Appeal filed on behalf of the St. is allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Mritunjoy Biswas Vs Pranab Alias Kuti Biswas & anr. (2013) 12 SCC 796.

2. Lakhan Sao Vs St. of Bihar & anr. [(2000) 9 SCC 82 : (AIR 2000 SC 2063 : 2000 AIR SCW 1955)

3. St. of Raj. Vs Arjun Singh & ors. [(2011) 9 SCC 115 : (AIR 2011 SC 3380 : 2011 AIR SCW 5295)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. Both the Criminal as well as Government Appeals are directed against the impugned judgment dated 21st January, 1981 passed by the II Additional District & Sessions Judge, Gorakhpur in Sessions Trial No. 205 of 1980 (State Vs. Ayodhya & 6 Others), arising out of Case Crime No. 36 of 1978, under Sections 147/148/149/302 I.P.C., Police Station-Ghughuli, District-Gorakhpur, whereby accused-appellants Ayodhya, Sanhu, Chhangur, Lakhan and Ram Ji, have been convicted for offence under Section 147 I.P.C. and Section 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. and have been sentenced to two years rigorous imprisonment for commission of offence under Section 147 and life imprisonment for commissioning of offence under Section 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C., with an observation that both the sentences were to run concurrently, whereas the accused-Pyare and Chhotkoo have been acquitted for all charges alleged against them.

2. Since the basic facts, issues and the judgment of the trial court are similar and common, both criminal appeals have been clubbed and heard together and the same are being decided by this common judgment.

3. We have heard Mr. J.P. Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State, Shri P.K. Singh and Mr. Gyan Prakash Singh, learned counsel for accused-respondents in Government Appeal and Mr. Rajeev Chaddha and Arunesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for accused-appellants in criminal appeal as well as perused the entire material available on record.

4. The present case proceeds on a written report of the informant/P.W.-1 Naik (Exhibit-ka-1) dated 23rd September, 1978, wherein it has been stated that he was resident of village Nebuiya Tola Dusadhi Bari. Sister of accused Ayodhya, namely, Sitabi having a bad character was resident of same village. There was rumour/discussion about illicit relationship of Sitabi with informant's son i.e. deceased Ganga and other villagers, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku Baba etc. Sister of accused Ayodhya, namely, Sitabi fled away somewhere three-four days ago. The accused Ayodhya and others suspected that the deceased enticed away Sitabi. Due to the said grudge, on the night of 22nd September, 1978 at around 9 p.m, the accused Ayodhya and his associates, namely, Pyare Singh, Chhotku, Ramjeet, Lakhan, Sanhu and Chhangur having consensus opinion and having been armed with lathi (sticks) and spears came at the doorstep of the informant and started asking him as to where his son Ganga was, on which the informant replied that his son went to the place of his relative at Pipara. Just in the meantime when the conversation between the informant/P.W.-1 and accused Ayodhya was being exchanged, his son Ganga came with his relative, namely, Mahajan resident of Sakin Pipra, Police Station Shyam Deukha and suddenly the accused persons pounced on his son and started beating him and dragging him towards accused Ayodhya's house. On this, the informant, his wife Jaleba and his relative Mahajan also followed and reached at the doorstep of the accused Ayodhya for saving Ganga. At the doorstep of accused Ayodhya, all the accused persons started beating Ganga mercilessly by sticks (lathi) and spears, due to which deceased Ganga sustained injuries and fell down. On the alarm being raised by the informant, so many persons of the village including Kanhai and Sita Ram also arrived flashing their torches. The accused Ayodhya and the accused Pyare had pressed the throat of Ganga and the other accused persons wielded sticks (lathis) and spears at him. The son of the informant Ganga died instantly there. With the help of witnesses, the accused Ayodhya was caught on the spot, whereas the other accused persons succeeded in running away. The dead body of his son Ganga was lying at the doorstep of accused Ayodhya throughout the night.

5. The next morning, first informant Naik went to the police station Ghughuli, which was at a distance of about 7 miles from his village and lodged first information report on 23rd September, 1978 at 7.30 A.M. on the basis of his written report (Exhibit-Ka/1) dated 23.9.1978. After that, Head Constable Brijraj Yadav prepared the chik report. The head constable also re-arrested the accused Ayodhya, who was brought by the informant and the village Chaukidar at the police station. The blood stained Kurta worn by the accused Ayodhya was taken into custody and recovery memo (Exhibit-ka/14) in that regard has been prepared by the Head Constable. The case was entered in General Diary No. 11 at 7.30 A.M. (Exhibit-Ka/13). The Investigating Officer/P.W.-3, namely, Devendra Kumar Singh started the investigation on 23rd September, 1978 and interrogated the accused Ayodhya at the police station. Thereafter the Investigating Officer/P.W.-3 proceeded for the place of occurrence and took into possession the dead body of the deceased Ganga from the house of the accused Ayodhya. The inquest (Exhibit-Ka/2) was prepared on the same date i.e. 23rd September, 1978 at 10.00 A.M and ended at 12:05 P.M. on the same date. The Investigating Officer/P.W.-3 also prepared the Khaka Lash(Exhibit-Ka/3) and Challan Lash (Exhibit-Ka/4). The dead body of the deceased was handed over in a sealed cover to constable Sharda Lal Srivastava for being taken to mortuary. A letter (Exhibit-Ka/5) requesting the Medical Officer to conduct the post-mortem examination of the dead body of the deceased was also prepared and sent. The Investigating Officer also collected the blood-stained earth and plain earth from the place where the dead body was lying and recovery memo in that regard was also prepared (Exhibit-Ka/ 6). Two recovery memos Exhibits Ka/7 and 8 were also prepared for the torches, which were produced by the witnesses Kanhai and Sita Ram. On the same date the Investigating Officer prepared the site-plan (Exhibit Ka/9) showing the house of accused Ayodhya and the place where the dead body was found lying. The Investigating Officer/P.W.3 also recorded the statements of the informant/P.W.-1 Naik, his wife Jaleba, his relative Mahajan and other witnesses at the spot. All other accused persons ultimately surrendered in the court.

6. The post-mortem has been conducted by Dr. A.P. Singh (P.W.-4) on 24th September, 1978 at 12:30 p.m. and in the post-mortem report (Exhibit-ka/11), the cause of death of the deceased has been reported to be shock and haemorrhage as a result of following ante-mortem injuries:

"1. Lacerated wound 1" x 1/4" x bone deep on left side head, 3 1/2" above the left ear.

2. Contusion 1 1/2" x 1" on left upper lid.

3. Abressed contusion 1" x 1/2" on right eyebrow.

4. Abressed contusion 1" x 1" on right side of face just below eye.

5. Contusion swelling 4" x 1" on part of neck middle.

6. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 2" on back of left upper arm, 3" above elbow joint, direction from back to front.

7. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 1 1/2" on back of left forearm, 2" below the elbow joint, direction from back to front.

8. Multiple contusion area of 8" x 4" on back of right upper arm.

9. Multiple contusion area of 4" x 3" on back of right forearm just above wrist joint.

10. Contusion 3 1/2" x 1 1/2" on right iliac fossa.

11. Contusion 2" x 2 1/2" on outer aspect of left thigh middle.

12. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 1 1/2" on front of left leg, 3" below knee joint.

13. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 1 1/2" on front of left leg, 2" below injury no. 12

14. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 1/2" on front of left leg, 3" below injury no.13

15. Incised wound 1/2" x 1/3" x 1/2" on front of left leg, 1" below injury no. 14.

16. Incised wound 1" x 1/2" x 1 1/2" on front of right leg, 2" below ankle joint.

17. Multiple contusion on area of 6" x 4" on front of right leg, 2" below knee joint.

18. Contusion 4" x 1" on front of left thigh, 3 1/2" above knee joint.

19. Contusion 5 1/2" x 1" on outer aspect of right thigh, 2" above knee joint.

20. Multiple contusion on area of 12" x 12" on back both side just below neck root."

7. After conclusions of the statutory investigation under Chapter XII Cr.P.C.. P.W.-3 has submitted the charge-sheet (Exhibit-Ka/10) against all the accused persons, namely, Ayodhya, Chhotkoo, Pyare, Ramji, Sanhu, Lakhan and Chhangur on 17th October, 1978.

8. On submission of charge-sheet, the concerned Magistrate took cognizance in the matter and committed the case to the Court of Sessions by whom the case was to be tried. On 10th September, 1980, the concerned Court framed following charges against the accused-persons:

"CHARGES

I, G. Chandra, II Addl. District and Sessions Judge, Gorakhpur, hereby charge you Ayodhya, Pyare Singh, Chhotkoo, Ram Ji, Lakhan, Sanhoo and Chhangur as follows:-

Firstly, that you, on 22.9.1978, at about 9.00 P.M., at village Nebuiya, Tola Dusadhi Bari, P.S. Ghughuli District Gorakhpur were a member of an unlawful assembly, and, in prosecution of the common object of such assembly, viz., in committing the murder of Ganga, committed the offence of rioting and there by committed an offence punishable u/s. 147,1.P. C., and within my cognizance.

Secondly, that you, on the aforesaid date, time and place, were a member of an unlawful assembly, in prosecution of the common object of which, did commit murder by intentionally or knowingly causing the death of Ganga, and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 302 read with section 149, 1.P.C., and within my cognizance.

And I hereby direct that you be tried by me on the said charges."

9. The charges were read out and explained to the accused persons in Hindi, who pleaded not guilty denying the accusation and demanded trial.

10. The trial started and the prosecution has examined six witnesses, who are as follows:-

1	Naik (complainant) (father of the deceased)/eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W.-1
2	Mahajan (relative of the informant/P.W.-1)/another eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W.-2
3	Devendra Kumar Singh/Investigating Officer, the then Station House Officer, Police Station-Ghughuli, District-Gorakhpur	P.W.-3
4	Dr. A.P. Singh, the then Medical Officer, Primary Health Centre, Maharajganj, who conducted the autopsy of the deceased	P.W.-4
5	Sharda Lal, Constable, Police Station-Ghughuli District-Gorakhpur	P.W.-5
6	Brijraj Yadav, the then Head Constable, Police Station-Ghughuli, District-Gorakhpur	P.W.-6

11. The prosecution in order to establish the charges levelled against the accused-appellant has relied upon following documentary evidence, which were duly proved and consequently marked as Exhibits:

1	Written report dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex.Ka.-1
2	First Information Report dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex.Ka.-12
3	Recovery memo of blood stained and plain earth dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex. Ka.-6
4	Two recovery memos torches which were produced by the witnesses Kanhai and Sita Ram dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex. Ka/7 & 8
5	Recovery memo of Kurta, which was taken into possession from accused Ayodhya dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex.Ka.-14
6	Copy of the G.D. entry about the first information report	Ex.Ka.-13
7	Panchayatnama (Inquest Report)	Ex.Ka.-2
8	Khakha Lash and Photo Lash	Ex.Ka.-3 & 4
9	Letter written to the Chief Medical Officer for getting the post-mortem of the deceased conducted	Ex.Ka.-5
10	Post-mortem report dated 24th September, 1978	Ex.Ka.-11
14	Charge-sheet original dated 17th October, 1978	Ex.Ka.-10

15	Site plan with index dated 23rd September, 1978	Ex.Ka.-9

12. After completion of the prosecution evidence, statement of the accused was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The accused Chhotkoo, Pyare, Ramji, Sanhu, Lakhan and Chhangur, while giving their statements in the Court, denied the prosecution evidence and stated that they have been falsely implicated on account of harbouring grudges. The accused persons had also taken a plea that they had been implicated falsely due to the election rivalry of Pradhan. The accused Ayodhya, while giving his statement in the Court of Session u/s.313, Cr.P.C., also denied the entire prosecution evidence. He further stated that the informant Naik and the Pradhan Vidya Singh were very close to each other and that he did not cast his vote in favour of Vidya Singh in the election rivalry of Pradhan. He further stated that he had accompanied the informant Naik to Maun Nala' where the dead body of Ganga was lying. Naik took the dead body and carried it to his (Naik's) house. Naik took him (accused Ayodhya) to the police station. It was at the instance of Naik that the police had taken him into custody at the police station. The accused persons did not adduce any defence evidence.

13. On the basis of above evidence oral as well as documentary adduced during the course of trial, the trial court, relying upon the testimonies of P.W.-1/Informant and P.W.-3 Mahajan that the accused Ayodhya, Sanhu, Chhangur, Lakhan and Ram Ji, all belong to the same family, had wielded sticks (lathi) and spears (Ballam) on the deceased Ganga and that the deceased died instantaneously on the spot as a result of injuries caused by them, has come to the conclusion that the case against those accused persons is fully established for the offence under Section 147 and Section 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. As such, they have been sentenced to undergo two years rigorous imprisonment for the offence under Section 147 I.P.C. and life imprisonment for the offence under Section 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. However, the trial court under the same impugned judgment, with regard to the involvement of the accused Pyare and Chhotkoo in the alleged crime, has recorded its finding that there is no strength in the testimonies of the witnesses to show that those accused Pyare and Chhotkoo would also have involved in committing the alleged crime, more so when they neither had any friendship with the informant/P.W.-1 nor they had any foeship against the deceased Ganga. The trial court had further recorded that though in the first information report lodged on the basis of written report given by the informant/P.W.-1, specific role has been attributed to the accused Pyare of throttling the neck of the deceased Ganga along with accused Ayodhya but in their testimonies, P.W.-1 and P.W.-3 did not at all state that the accused Pyare had played any part in the alleged crime. The trial court has also observed that on the basis of such finding, the prosecution has failed to prove the guilt of the accused Pyare and Chhotkoo successfully in commissioning of the alleged crime. As such the trial court has given benefit of doubt to the accused Pyare and Chhotkoo and resultantly, the trial court has acquitted both the accused.

14. Being aggrieved with the impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, the accused-appellants has preferred the present Criminal Appeal, whereas the State of U.P.

has preferred the present Government Appeal against the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused Pyare and Chhotkoo by the trial court.

15. Assailing the impugned judgment and order of conviction, the learned counsel for the accused-appellants in present criminal appeal has advanced following submissions:

(i) The alleged occurrence happened on 22nd September, 1978 at 09:00 p.m. (night), whereas the first information report was lodged on 23rd September, 1978 at 7 to 8 a.m. (morning), meaning thereby that there is delay of 10 to 11 hours in lodging of first information report for which no plausible explanation has been given making the prosecution case doubtful.

(ii) On the date and time of alleged incident, there was no source of light so as to identify the accused, who have committed the alleged crime.

(iii) P.W.-2 Mahajan, who is stated to be relative of the informant is a chance witness and not an eye witness. His testimony that on the date of incident, he came along with the deceased to drop him at his house is also doubtful. Since deceased was a major person and not a minor, therefore, it is impossible to believe as to why P.W.-2 accompanied the deceased when he was returning to his home.

(iv) As per the prosecution version, the accused persons have assaulted the deceased with lathi (sticks) and spears (Ballam) but during the course of investigation, no recovery of any weapon was made from any of the accused persons.

(v) As per the version of the first information report as well as the testimony of P.W.-1, at the door of accused Ayodhya, when the accused persons were assaulting the deceased, on shouting of the informant/P.W.-1 so many persons of the village including Kanhai and Sita Ram also arrived flashing their torches and recovery memos of the torches of Kanhai and Sita Ram have also been prepared and exhibited. However, both Kanhai and Sita Ram have not been examined as prosecution witnesses during the course of trial.

(vi) Neither the place i.e. front of house of P.W.-1, initially where the accused persons have assaulted the deceased with lathi and spears, when he returned from his relative place along with P.W.-2 has been marked by the Investigating Officer in the site plan nor any blood stain earth or plain earth has been collected by the Investigation Officer while preparing the recovery memo.

(vii) As per the post mortem report of the deceased, no stab wound has been found on the body of the deceased whereas according to the prosecution witnesses, the accused have assaulted the deceased by lathi and spears.

(viii) The watchman/village chowkidar, who is alleged to have guarded the body of the deceased throughout the night till morning, has not been examined during the course of trial.

16. On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the accused appellants submits that the impugned judgment and order of conviction cannot be legally sustained and is liable to be quashed.

17. Following submissions have been made by the accused-respondents in the present Government Appeal in order to support the judgement of the trial court:

In the murder case of one Ram Parikhan Singh, Vidya Singh was an accused. Though it is not clear from the record as to whether he was convicted or acquitted in the said case but it crops up from the record that he was in jail for some period in the said murder case. Vidya Singh who was friend of P.W.-1 was also village pradhan and accused Pyare had not cast his vote in favour of Vidya Singh. Sundar Singh i.e. father of the accused Pyare Singh was also a witness in the murder of Ram Parikhan Singh and that is why there was direct inimical relations between the family of Pyare Singh and Vidya Singh along with P.W.-1. The accused Pyare Singh and Chhotkoo were neither the family members of other accused Ayodhya and others nor they had any concern with their family. Because of inimical relations with Vidya Singh, they have been falsely implicated in the present case.

18. On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the accused-respondents submits that since this is not a case of direct evidence and there are major contradictions and inconsistencies in the prosecution evidence oral as well as documentary, produced during the course of trial, impugned judgment and order of conviction does not suffer from any illegality and infirmity so as to warrant any interference by this Court. As such the Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be dismissed.

19. On the other-hand, learned A.G.A. for the State in reply to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants have made his point wise submissions.

(i) To the first submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant regarding delay in lodging of the first information report, it is submitted that the delay has satisfactorily been explained by the prosecution. In the cross-examination, P.W.-1 has stated that the villagers advised him that the accused persons who ran away, had come and were hiding here and there and if the informant and other villagers would go to the Police Station for lodging of the first information report, in their absence, the remaining accused persons could take away the accused Ayodhya along with them, who was caught from the spot and other accused would succeed to run away. P.W.-1 has also stated that since it was already late in the night and the dead body also had to be guarded, as such, they did not go to file the report at night and waited for the morning.

(ii) Qua the second submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants, learned A.G.A. submits that since all the accused were of the same village of informant/P.W.-1 and were well known, they could be identified at night easily. Apart from the above, it is submitted that in the torch lights of several people along with Kanhaiya and Sita Ram, who came to the spot on shouting of informant, the accused persons have been identified by the prosecution witnesses. The recovery memos of the torches of Kanhaiya and Sita Ram have also been exhibited.

(iii). So far as the third submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that P.W.-2 Mahajan is a chance witness is concerned, it is submitted that P.W.-2 is not a chance but an eye witness of the alleged crime. In his cross-examination, he has specifically stated that on the date of incident the deceased went to his relative place and reached the place of P.W.-2 and requested him to drop him to his house and on his request, he came to his house along with him. He is thoroughly consistent in his examination-in-chief as also in his cross-examination. His testimony has also been supported by P.W.-1 in his testimony. There is no inconsistency in testimonies of both eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2.

(iv) Qua the fourth submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that as per the prosecution case, all the accused persons have caused injuries to the deceased by sticks (lathi) and spears but no recovery has been made from any of the accused persons, which cast a dent in the prosecution version, learned A.G.A. submits that since the prosecution version that the accused persons assaulted the deceased by lathi (sticks) and spears has been supported by the testimonies of eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 and the post-mortem report of the deceased, non recovery of any weapon from any of the accused persons would not affect the credibility of the prosecution witnesses. It was failure on the part of the Investigating Officer that he has not made any recovery of any weapon from any of the accused for which no benefit can be extended to the accused-appellants.

(v) So far as the fifth and eighth submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that non examination of eye witnesses, namely, Kanhaiya and Sita Ram in whose torch lights, the accused have been identified and also the village chowkidar, who guarded the dead body of the deceased throughout the night, as per the version of the first information report is concerned, it is submitted by the learned A.G.A. that same does not prevail over the clinching evidence produced by the prosecution by way of testimonies of eye-witnesses, namely, P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, which has been fully supported by the medical evidence.

(vi) It is submitted by the learned A.G.A. that the sixth submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that since the Investigating Officer has not made any recovery memo of the blood stain earth and plain earth from the place i.e. front of the house of the informant/P.W.1, where initially, the accused persons assaulted the deceased by lathi and spears as soon as he reached thereafter from his relative place along with P.W.-2 nor the Investigating Officer marked the said place in the site plan, which makes the prosecution case doubtful, has also no relevance, as at that time, where the deceased was not seriously injured and no blood was coming out from his body. Even otherwise, the Investigating Officer has collected the blood stain earth and plain earth from the place i.e. front of the house of accused Ayodhya, where the deceased was seriously injured and ultimately has been done to death and he has also prepared their recovery memos, which have been exhibited and has also marked the said place in the site plan.

(vii) To the seventh submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that since no stab wound has been found on the body of the deceased as per the post-mortem report, the entire prosecution case is doubtful, learned A.G.A. submits that according to the prosecution case the accused persons assaulted the deceased by lathi (sticks) and spears, which is duly supported by the post mortem report on the ground that if a person assaulted with a stick and a spear, he will not get the same injury as if he is assaulted with a knife like stab wound.

20. On the basis of the aforesaid submissions learned A.G.A. submits that as this is a case of direct and clinching evidence, the testimonies of eye witnesses, namely, P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 who are consistent throughout in their examination-in-chief and the cross-examinations are credible in the facts and circumstances of the case and they have disclosed about the commissioning of the offence of murder of the deceased Ganga and the same has also been supported by the medical evidence and the police evidence, therefore, trial court has not committed any error in recording conviction of the accused-appellants under Section 147 and 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. As such the appeal filed by the accused-appellants, who committed heinous crime by murdering the deceased Ganga is liable to be dismissed.

21. In reply to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-respondents in Government Appeal, learned A.G.A. submits that the prosecution has fully established its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents by oral as well as documentary evidence but the trial court has not examined the same and passed the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused Pyare and Chhotkoo only on the argument raised by the defence counsel before the trial court, which is per-se illegal and is liable to be quashed. The learned A.G.A. further submits that in support of the above argument, learned counsel for the accused-respondent has failed to produce any documentary as well as oral evidence before this Court as well as trial court. There exist direct evidence against the accused Pyare and Chhotku by way of testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2. As such the Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be allowed reversing the impugned judgment of the trial court and convicting and sentencing them for the offence under Section 147 I.P.C. and Section 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C. as to when other five accused have been convicted on the same evidence, how could these two accused go scot free.

22. We have examined the respective contentions urged by the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the records of the present appeal including the trial court records.

23. The only question requires to be addressed and determined in this appeal is whether the conclusion of guilt arrived at by the learned trial court and the sentence awarded is legal and sustainable in law or it suffers from infirmity and perversity.

24. Before entering into the merits of the case set up by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant and the learned A.G.A. qua impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, it is desirable for us to briefly refer to the statements of the prosecution witnesses.

25. P.W.-1/informant Naik , who is the father of the deceased Ganga, has stated in his examination-in-chief that the accused Ayodhya, Chhangur, Lakhan, Sanhu and Ramjit belong to the same family, whereas the accused Pyare and Chhotkoo are their associates. The name of sister of accused Ayodhya is Sitaabi. Sitaabi's behavior was not good, she had an illicit relationship with the deceased Ganga. Two years ago, murder of the deceased took place. Sitaabi ran away from the village four days prior to the incident and the deceased also ran away from his home. The accused Ayodhya and others tried to search Sitaabi but she was not traced. Ayodhya and others suspected that the deceased had taken away Sitaabi along with him and showed their serious displeasure towards the deceased. Further P.W.-1 has reiterated the same version as unfolded in the first information report.

26. In the cross-examination it has been submitted by P.W.-1 that the father of the accused Pyare is Sundar Singh and nephew of Sundar Singh is Satveer Singh. Bidya Singh is the relative (Pattidar) of the aforesaid persons. Sunder Singh was not the relative (Pattidar) of Ram Parikhan Singh, who was murdered in which Vidya Singh and others were implicated. He did not know whether Vidya Singh was convicted in that case or not but he was imprisoned. He also did not know whether Sunder Singh was pursuing the said case against Vidya Singh. Vidya Singh was the Pradhan of the village. There was no enmity between Vidya Singh and Sundar Singh, and they used to talk. Consolidation cases were pending between Satveer Singh and Vidya Singh.

27. It has been further stated by this witness that Sitaabi had four brothers. Initially Sitaabi was married in Pakdi and then she started living with Vanshraj resident of her village. The name of her first husband was not known to him. Vanshraj has three boys and one girl. The name of Sitaabi's eldest son is Sudarshan. Sitaabi's two sons and one daughter were married. At the time of the incident, Sitaabi's son had already given birth to a daughter. Sudarshan's daughter was 3 years old at the time of the incident. Sitabi's husband Vanshraj was working in Dhanbad coal mine at the time of the incident. Sitaabi lived with her husband in Dhanbad. He did not know as to whether Sitaabi has filed any affidavit in this case or not. Other brothers of Sitaabi are Beni, Mangroo and Brijlal and they had also come at the time of the incident but they were not involved in the alleged crime. He did not disclosed the names of the aforesaid brothers of Sitaabi to the Investigating Officer because they were not involved. He only disclosed the names of those persons who had actually killed the deceased, to the Investigating Officer.

28. Again this witness has stated that his son Ganga (deceased) was married but his wife had died a year before the incident. The characters of both Ganga and Sitaabi were bad. He did not know which woman was related to Ganga. When Ganga left his house since 3 to 4 days, he did not make any effort to search him as he had gone to his relative place at Pipra. At the time of the incident, he was sitting on the outer porch of his house. The accused came to his door but did not come to his porch. Even his son Ganga and his relative Mahajan (P.W.-2) could not come to his porch. When his son came to the door, the accused started beating him with a stick only for a minute but none of the accused hit the deceased at his door with a spear. There was no blood on his door. His son Ganga was hanged by the accused from his hands and legs and taken along with them. Two accused caught the hands of the deceased and two caught his legs. When the informant/P.W.-1, his wife and P.W.-2 Mahajan reached the door of accused Ayodhya, his son Ganga was on the ground and the accused were beating him. He first saw from a distance of two steps that the accused were beating his son at the door of accused Ayodhya. He started screaming as soon as he saw it. At that time there was no one else there except the accused. On his alarm, people reached there. Kanhai and Sita came first on his alarm. Seeing Kanhai and Sita, the accused started running away. However, accused Ayodhya was apprehended by the informant/PW.-1 and P.W.-2 Mahajan, Sita Ram and Kanhai.

29. It has also been stated that after apprehending accused Ayodhya, he brought him to his house and made him sit there. No information was sent to the Village Pradhan. The watchman/village chowkidar had arrived shortly after the murder took place. Sita, P.W.-2 Mahajan and the people of the village had come near the dead body. Till the Police came, the same people were guarding the dead body. His wife and he stayed at their home. People advised him that the remaining six accused had returned and they were hiding here and there. If they went to the Police Station along with accused Ayodhya, they would rescue him on the way and also the dead body had to be guarded and that is why he didn't go to lodge the report at night. There were still 2 hours of night left and then he went to the police station along with the watchman and the accused Ayodhya.

30. In his cross-examination, this witness has denied that accused Pyare Singh has been falsely implicated under the influence of Vidya Singh from him. He also denied that Vidya Singh was his friend or associate. He further stated that dead body of his son remained lying at the door of accused Ayodhya till 11 o'clock on that date. From the door of accused Ayodhya, the body of the deceased was taken on a cot to Badagaon and then taken on a Dunlap. He has denied that body of the deceased was taken away from the spot much later.

31. In his examination-in-chief, P.W.-2 Mahajan, who is another eye and star witness has stated that the deceased Ganga and the informant/P.W.-1 are his relatives. Two years ago, Ganga was murdered. He had gone to his house in the morning on the day when Ganga was murdered. He left his house at 8:00 p.m. in the evening to drop Ganga at his house and reached his house at around 9:00 p.m. in the night. When P.W.-1 along with Ganga reached his doorstep, he saw that accused Sanhu, Ayodhya, Lakhan, Chaangur, Ramjeet, Chhootkoo and Pyare having sticks (lathi) and spears were inquiring about the whereabout of Ganga, in the meantime, he alongwith Ganga reached there. Immediately thereafter, all the accused pounced on Ganga and wielded two-three lathi blows, consequent to which he fell down. Thereafter, all the accused together dragged Ganga to the door of accused Ayodhya and when they were hitting Ganga by sticks (lathi) and spears, P.W.-2, P.W.-1 Naik and his wife reached the door of accused Ayodhya. On hearing the noise, Sita and Kanhai came there having torches in their hands and thereafter several people reached there. Seeing them coming, all the accused except accused Ayodhya, ran away but the accused Ayodhya was apprehended by them and he was brought at the doorstep of P.W.-1 Naik. When Ganga went to his house, he was wearing lungi and shirt.

32. In the cross-examination, P.W.-2 stated that on the day of incident, he just went to drop Ganga at his house but otherwise, had no specific reason to visit there. They did not carry any weapon from the village. Only on the request of Ganga, he went to drop him at his house for which he did not assign any reason. No one accompanied Ganga at his place.

33. This witness has further stated that he and Ganga were ten steps away when they overheard the accused at the door of Ganga. As soon as they saw Ganga, the assailants attacked him and they did not try to save Ganga because accused were seven in number.

34. Again this witness has stated that he knew Vidya Singh, the then Pradhan of Nebuiya village. When the Investigating Officer came to the spot, Vidya Singh also came. Before Vidya Singh, Ram Parik Singh was the Pradhan, who had been murdered before the instant incident. He did not know that father of accused Ram Pyare, namely, Sundar Singh used to represent the prosecution case before the court concerned. He also did not know whether there is enmity between the families of Vidya Singh and accused Ram Pyare or not. He has denied that under influence of prosecution, he has implicated the accused Ram Pyare. On the day, when he went with Ganga to his house, there was no special reason for accompanying him at night. Ganga told him that he was not coming from his home, he was coming from some other place. He did not inquire from where he was coming.

35. It has been further stated that when he reached at the house of Ayodhya, he saw Ganga lying in prone position. Ganga must have been assaulted for about 3 to 4 minutes at the doorstep of accused Ayodhya. He saw Ganga's injury. Ganga sustained four injuries of spears, one on the thigh, second on the armpit, third on the spleen and fourth on the back side of head near the ear. He cannot point out as to who caused the injuries by spear to the deceased as there was seven persons, who had beaten the deceased altogether. All the accused dragged Ganga to the doorstep of Ayodhya, threw him forcefully on the ground and assaulted him. When the accused were taking Ganga at the doorstep of accused Ayodhya, then he along with first informant Naik and his wife had accompanied them there.

36. Inspector Devendra Singh, the then Station House Officer of Police Station Ghughuli is the Investigating Officer, who has been examined as P.W.-3. In his examination-in-chief, he stated that he started the process of investigation of the instant case from 23rd September, 1978. The accused Ayodhya was apprehended and brought to the police station and was detained in the lock-up of the police station. He recorded the statement of the accused Ayodhya at the police station and then left for the incident site along with relevant papers.

37. This witness has further stated that when he reached the spot of the incident, he found the dead body of Ganga lying in front of the house of accused Ayodhya. He had shown the place where he found the dead body with the symbol “A” on the site plan.

38. From the place where the dead body was lying, he collected the blood stained earth and plain earth and sealed it in different boxes. He also inspected the torches of the witnesses. He has also recorded the statements of the informant/P.W.-1, his wife Jilewa, Mahajan P.W.-2 etc. He inspected the incident site at the instance of the witnesses. He searched the accused and tried to arrest them but the accused had absconded, hence no arrest could be made. The accused in the instant case had surrendered in the court and were sent to jail on 30th October, 1978, where he recorded their statements. After completing the investigation, charge sheet (Ex. A/10) came to be submitted in the court in his writing and signature on 17th October, 1978.

39. Dr. A.P. Singh, who conducted an autopsy on the person of the deceased Ganga has been examined as P.W.-4. During the course of post-mortem, he has noted as many as 20 injuries on the body of the deceased. In his examination-in-chief this witness has stated that as per his opinion, the cause of death of the deceased was due to shock and haemorrhage caused by the injuries. He has also opined in his testimony that incised wounds could be caused by spears and contusion and abraded contusion wounds can be caused by lathi. Ganga could have died on 22nd September, 1978 at 9 o'clock during night hours. The injuries in ordinary course were sufficient to cause death.

40. Sharda Lal Constable has been examined as P.W.-5. He stated that he has taken the body of the deceased to the Mortuary for post-mortem. He identified the dead body of the deceased in the presence of doctor.

41. Sub-Inspector Brij Raj Yadav has been examined as P.W.-6. He stated in his examination-in-chief that he had prepared the chik report and made entry of the same in General Diary. He has also proved the same before the trial court. He further stated that the accused Ayodhya was brought at the Police Station by the informant/P.W.-1 and Chowkidar (watchman), who handed him over and he was detained in the police lock-up. One of the shirts (kurtas) which was worn by the accused Ayodhya on which some blood stains were found, was taken in possession by the police and sealed.

42. Before proceeding to discuss the issues raised in these appeals we may note some background facts.

43. The incident i.e. murder of the deceased Ganga, occurred on 22nd September, 1978 at around 09:00 p.m. during night hours and his dead body was lying at the doorstep of accused Ayodhya all through the night. On the next day i.e. 23rd September, 1978, inquest and post-mortem examination of the dead body of the deceased Ganga were conducted.

44. As per the prosecution, P.W.-1/informant, namely, Naik, who was father of the deceased Ganga and P.W.-2 Mahajan, who is relative of P.W.-1/informant are the star eye witnesses.

45. Both the star prosecution witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 have specifically stated in their testimonies i.e. in their examination-in-chiefs as well as in their cross-examinations that all the seven accused with intention to kill the deceased Ganga, had first beaten him at his doorstep and thereafter they had dragged him to the doorstep of accused Ayodhya, where they had mercilessly beaten him by lathi and spears due to which he sustained serious injuries and ultimately died on the spot. There is no contradiction or inconsistencies in the testimonies of both the star prosecution witnesses. In the first information report as well as in his testimony, P.W.-1 is consistent in stating that all seven accused persons have murdered his son Ganga.

46. The relevant portion of the testimony of informant/P.W.-1 Naik qua the commissioning of the alleged offence is extracted herein below:

(In examination-in-chief)

"आज से लगभग 2 वर्ष हुआ रात के नव बजे का समय था। मैं अपने दरवाजे पर था। मुलजिमान अयोध्या प्यारे, छोटकू, लखन, छागुर, सन्तू और रामजीत हाजिर अदालत जो लाठी भाला लिए थे. आये और मेरे लड़का गंगा के बारे गाली देकर पूछा कि कहा है तो मैने बताया कि पिपरा रिस्तेदारी में गया है। बातचीत हो ही रही थी कि इसी में महाजन व गंगा आ गये। यह देखकर मुझे गाली देने लगे व मेरे लड़के को लाठी भाला से मारने लगे। जब मेरा लड़का मार खाकर गिर गया तब उसे अयोध्या आदि मुलजिमान उठा ले गये और अपने दरवाजे पर अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर लाठी भाला से मारने लगे। मैं व मेरी स्त्री भी रोती पिटते उसके पीछे गये। वहाँ पर हम लोगो ने शोर किया और हमारे शोर पर कन्हई व सीता टार्च लेकर आ गये। मेरा लड़का वहीं अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर मार से उसी वक्त मर गया। मेरे गाँव के दस बीस आदमी वहाँ आ गये। मारने वाले मारना छोड़कर भागे। अयोध्या को लोगो ने पकड़ लिया शेष मुलजिमान भाग गये। अयोध्या को अपने दरवाजे पर लाया। चौकीदार को बुलाया। रात को, लाश रखाने व मुलजिम को पकड़ने के वजह से थाने पर नहीं जा पाये। इस कत्ल की दरखास्त 2 बजे रात को मैने लिखाया। इक्ज० क-1 को पढ़कर सुनाया गया गवाह ने कहा कि वही रिपोर्ट है इसे मैंने गाँव के एक आदमी से लिखाया था यह याद नहीं आ रहा है कि किससे लिखाया था।"

(In cross-examination)

"घटना के समय मैं अपने घर के बाहरी ओसारे में बैठा हुआ था। मुलजिमान मेरे दरवाजे पर आये लेकिन मेरे ओसारे में नहीं आये। मेरा लड़का व महाजन भी मेरे ओसारे में नही आ पाये थे। जब मेरा लड़का दरवाजे पर आ गया तो मुलजिमान ने लाठी से मारना शुरू किया। मेरे दरवाजे पर मुलजिमान ने एक मिनट तक लाठी से मारा। मेरे दरवाजे पर किसी ने भाला से नही मारा। मेरे दरवाजे पर खून नही गिरा था। मेरे लड़के को हाथ पैर पकड़ टांग कर मुलजिमान ले गये। 2 आदमियों ने हाथ पकड़ा था। और 2 आदमी पैर पकड़े थे। मैं अपने लड़के के साथ पीछे-2 नहीं गया मैं अपनी औरत को जानकर साथ में लेकर गया। महाजन भी मेरे व मेरे औरत के साथ-2 अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर गये। अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर जब हम तीनों आदमी पहुँचे तब मेरा लड़का गिरा पड़ा था व मुलजिमान उसको मार रहे थे। मैं पहले पहल 2 लट्ठे की दूरी से देखा कि मुलजिमान अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर मेरे लड़के को मार रहे है। मैं देखते ही चिल्लाने लगा था। उस वक्त मुलजिमान के अलावा वहाँ और कोई नहीं था। मेरे शोर पर लोग पहुँचे। मेरे शोर पर पहले कन्हई व सीता आये। कन्हई व सीता को देखकर मुलजिमान भागना शुरू किये। अयोध्या को मै व महाजन ने पकड़ा था। सीता व कन्हई ने भी पकड़ा था। जहाँ मेरा लड़का मारा गया था वहाँ से 2 कटटा पच्छिम पर अयोध्या मुलजिम पकड़ा गया। 20 कट्ठे (लट्ठे) का एक बित्ता होता है। यह मुझे नहीं मालूम कि कितने हाथ या कितने कदम का एक कट्ठा होता है। मैं नही बता सकता कि मुलजिमान हमारे घर से अयोध्या के घर ले जाने के रास्ते में मारा या नहीं मारा। मैने रिपोर्ट में यह लिखाया था कि हमारे घर से मुलजिमान टांग ले गये। रिपोर्ट में यह लिखाया था कि घर से मारते पीटते हमारे लड़के को अयोध्या के घर तक ले गये।"

47. The relevant portion of the testimony of P.W.-2 Mahajan qua the commissioning of the alleged offence is extracted herein below:

(In examination-in-chief)

"आज से लगभग 2 वर्ष हुये जब गंगा का कत्ल हुआ। गंगा का जिस दिन कत्ल हुआ उस दिन सुबह वह मेरे घर गये थे। मैं अपने घर से शाम के 8 बजे गंगा को उनके घर पहुँचाने के लिये चला था और उनके घर पर करीब नव बजे रात में पहुँच गया था। हम लोग जब गंगा के दरवाजे पर पहुँचे तो देखा कि सन्तू, अयोध्या, लखन, छागुर, रामजीत, छोटकू और प्यारे लाठी व भाला लेकर नायक से पूछ रहे थे कि गंगा कहा गया। तब तक हम लोग पहुँच गये। तब वह लोग गंगा के उपर टूट पडे व 2-4 लाठी मारे, मार खाकर गंगा गिर गये। गंगा को सभी मुलजिमान मिलकर अयोध्या के दरवाजे, पर उठा ले गये। और फिर सभी मुलजिमान हाजिर अदालत लाठी भाला से मुलजिमान को मारा। अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर पीछे 2 मै, नायक व नायक की स्त्री गई शोर पर सीता व कन्हई हाथों में टार्च लिये हुये आ गये और उसके बाद कई आदमी आ गये। और आदमियों को आते देखकर मुलजिमान भागे जिसमें से मुलजिम अयोध्या पकड़ लिये गये शेष भाग गये। अयोध्या को नायक के दरवाजे पर लाकर विठाया गया। गंगा जब मेरे घर गये थे तब लुंगी व कमीज पहने थे।"

(In cross-examination)

"हम लोग दस कदम पर थे जब हम लोगों ने गंगा के दरवाजे पर मुलजिमान की बातें सुनी हो। जैसे हम लोग पहुँचे वैसे ही गंगा नजर आ गये और उनपर मुलजिमान टूट पड़े। हमने गंगा को बचाने की कोशिश नहीं किया क्योंकि मुलजिमान सात आदमी थे किसी मुलजिम ने मुझपर कोई वार नही किया।

.....

जब अयोध्या के घर पर पहुँचा तो गंगा गिरे हुये थे। वह मुँह के बल गिरे थे। अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर करीब 3-4 मिनट तक गंगा मारे गये होगे। मैने गंगा का चोट देखा। गंगा को भाले की चोट चार जगह लगी थी। जाँघ में, एक कन्धे के नीचे बगल में, एक किल्ली और एक सिर पर पीछे कान के पीछे । यह मैं नहीं बता सकता कि भाले की चोट किसने 2 पहुँचाई क्योंकि सात आदमी मार रहे थे। मुलजिमान ने गंगा को अयोध्या के दरवाज पर ले जाकर पटक दिया व मारा था। जब लोग गंगा को अयोध्या के दरवाजे ले जा रहे थे तब मैं नायक व उसकी औरत साथ अयोध्या के दरवाजे पर गये।"

48. The post mortem report of the deceased as well as the testimony of P.W.-4 Dr. A.P. Singh, who conducted the autopsy of the deceased also supports the prosecution case. In his testimony, P.W.-4 has stated that the incised wound and contused wounds could be caused by spears and lathi (sticks), which have been used in the commissioning of alleged offence as per the testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2.

49. The accused also had motive to commit the murder of the deceased as they had suspected that the deceased Ganga had enticed away the sister of the accused Ayodhya, namely, Sitaabi because of their illicit relationship.

50. Now we may come on the merits of the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants in Criminal Appeal, learned counsel for the accused-respondents in Government Appeal as well as the submissions made by the learned A.G.A. in both the above appeals.

51. On the basis of deeper scrutiny of the evidence oral as well as documentary led during the course of trial and as has been discussed herein above in detail, we find substance in submissions made by the learned A.G.A. for the State in both the appeals.

52. As regards, submission made by the counsel for the accused-appellants that there is delay in lodging of the first information report, we find that P.W.1/informant has satisfactorily explained the same in his examination-in-chief as well as in his cross-examination respectively. For ready reference, the same are extracted here-under:

"अयोध्या को लोगो ने पकड़ लिया शेष मुलजिमान भाग गये। अयोध्या को अपने दरवाजे पर लाया। चौकीदार को बुलाया। रात को, लाश रखाने व मुलजिम को पकड़ने की वजह से थाने पर नही जा पाये। इस कत्ल की दरखास्त 2 बजे रात को मैने लिखाया"

----------xxxxxxx----------

"लोगों ने कहा कि मुलजिमान लौट आये है व इधर उधर छिपे हैं। अयोध्या को थाने ले जाएंगे तो वो लोग उसे रास्ते में छुड़ा लेंगे और लाश को भी रखना है। इसीलिए रात में रिपोर्ट लिखाने नहीं गया। 2 घड़ी रात बाकी थी तब मुलजिम अयोध्या को लेकर चौकीदार के साथ मैं थाने गया।"

53. So far as the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant that since neither the Investigating Officer has collected any earth (blood stained earth or plain earth) from the door of the informant/P.W.-1 nor he has marked the said place in the site plan, which makes the prosecution case doubtful, is concerned, we may record that P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 have specifically stated in their testimonies that at the doorstep of informant/P.W.-1, the accused had wielded four lathi blows at Ganga and thereafter they dragged him at the doorstep of accused-Ayodhya where they wielded several lathi blows and repeatedly assaulted him with spears resulting in his instantaneous death. Therefore the main place of occurrence in the facts of the present case is the door of accused Ayodhya, which has been marked as "A" in the site plan.

54. To the submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that P.W.-2 Mahajan, who is stated to be relative of the informant/P.W.-1 is a chance witness an not an eye witness, we may record that he is an eye witness. He is throughout consistent in his examination-in-chief as well as in his cross-examination. He has specifically supported the prosecution case. In his testimony, he has narrated the entire incident as unfolded by P.W.-1 in the first information report as well as in his testimony. He also has sufficiently explained his presence at the place of incident, where he had accompanied the deceased Ganga.

55. To the submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant that non recovery of any weapon having been made from any of the accused creates a doubt in the prosecution case, we may record that such minor discrepancy on the part of the Investigating Officer does not effect on the otherwise clinching evidence produced by the prosecution which have been discussed in detail herein above.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mritunjoy Biswas Vs. Pranab Alias Kuti Biswas & Another reported in (2013) 12 SCC 796 has held that when there is ample unimpeachable ocular evidence and same has been corroborated by medical evidence, non-recovery of weapon does not affect the persecution case. The relevant paragraphs i.e. paragraph nos. 33 and 34 are being quoted herein below:

"33. The learned counsel for the respondent has urged before us that there has been no recovery of weapon from the accused and hence, the prosecution case deserves to be thrown overboard and, therefore, the judgment of acquittal does not warrant interference.

34. In Lakshmi and Others v. State of U.P. [(2002) 7 SCC 198 : (AIR 2002 SC 3119 : 2002 AIR SCW 3596)], this Court has ruled that

"Undoubtedly, the identification of the body, cause of death and recovery of weapon with which the injury may have been inflicted on the deceased are some of the important factors to be established by the prosecution in an ordinary given case to bring home the charge of offence under Section 302 IPC. This, however, is not an inflexible rule. It cannot be held as a general and broad proposition of law that where these aspects are not established, it would be fatal to the case of the prosecution and in all cases and eventualities, it ought to result in the acquittal of those who may be charged with the offence of murder".."

In Lakhan Sao v. State of Bihar and Another reported in [(2000) 9 SCC 82 : (AIR 2000 SC 2063 : 2000 AIR SCW 1955)], it has been opined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that the non-recovery of the pistol or spent cartridge does not detract from the case of the prosecution where the direct evidence is acceptable.

In State of Rajasthan v. Arjun Singh and Others reported in [(2011) 9 SCC 115 : (AIR 2011 SC 3380 : 2011 AIR SCW 5295)], the Hon'ble Supreme Court has expressed that:

"18..... mere non-recovery of pistol or cartridge does not detract the case of the prosecution where clinching and direct evidence is acceptable. Likewise, absence of evidence regarding recovery of used pellets, bloodstained clothes, etc. cannot be taken or construed as no such occurrence had taken place".

56. The submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant that since no stab wound has been found on the body of the deceased therefore, the prosecution case is doubtful, has no force. Stab wound can be caused by knife or a sharp edged weapon and as per the post-mortem report of the deceased, incised and contusion wounds have been found on the person of the deceased, which can be caused by spears and lathi (sticks) respectively and the same has also been opined by P.W.4 Dr. S.P. Singh in his testimony, inasmuch as spears and lathi have been used in the alleged crime as per the version of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2.

57. The next submission made by the learned counsel for the accused-appellants that non-examination of witnesses of first information report, namely, Kanhai and Sita Ram in whose torch lights, the accused have been identified and Chowkidar, who guarded the dead body of the deceased throughout the night at the door of accused Ayodhya, during the course of trial, cast a dent in the prosecution case, has also no force, as they are not eye witnesses and their testimonies are not relevant than the testimonies of eye witnesses like P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, whereas recovery memos of torches were proved by the Investigating Officer (P.W.-3).

58. We have also considered the submissions made by the accused-respondents in the Government Appeal and the counter submissions made by the learned A.G.A.

59. The submissions made by the learned counsel for the accused-respondents qua false implications of accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku along with other accused in the present case because there is inimical relations between Pyare Singh and Vidya Singh, the then Village Pradhan and also the informant/P.W.-1 Naik is an associate of Vidya Singh, in whose influence, P.W.-1 has implicated them in the present case, are liable to be rejected as the defence on their behalf have completely failed to establish such plea of false implication. They have neither produced any document in that regard nor they have produced any oral evidence like defence witness to testify the said plea during the course of trial.

60. While acquitting both the accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku, the trial court has completely failed to examine the said issue. The trial court has not carefully scrutinize the testimonies of eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 and misread the same while recording a finding that from perusal of the testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, the accusation of both the accused-respondents do not crop up. In his testimony, P.W.-1 has specifically stated that he is not friend or associate of Vidya Singh, the then Village Pradhan from whom, there were inimical relations of accused-respondent Pyare Singh. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 have clearly stated in their statements before the trial court that the accused-respondents Pyare and Chhotku also actively participated in alleged crime along with other five accused, who have been convicted by the trial court on the same set of evidence. As such the false implications of accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku has no legs to stand.

61. In view of the aforesaid facts and the findings recorded by us herein above, we are of the firm opinion that the finding of the Court below with regard to accused-appellants Ayodhya, Sanhu, Chhangur, Lakhan and Ram Ji, is correct and the guilt of the accused-appellants Ayodhya, Sanhu, Chhangur, Lakhan and Ram Ji has been proved beyond reasonable doubt by the prosecution, which is sustainable.

62. Consequently, in view of the deliberations held above the criminal appeal at the behest of appellant no.5 Chhangur stands dismissed. The appellant no.5, who is reported to be in jail, need not surrender before the Court concerned.

63. Since the appellant nos. 1 to 4, namely, Ayodhya, Ram Ji, Lakhan and Sanhu had died, the present criminal appeal at their behest have already been abated by this Court. As such, no further order is required to be passed by us qua appellant nos. 1 to 4.

64. However, after considering the facts and circumstances of the case and examining the findings recorded by the trial court in acquittal of accused-respondents Pyare Singh and Chhotku, we are of the view that the trial court has not examined the evidence led by the prosecution in correct perspective and the finding returned by it that the prosecution has not succeeded in proving its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents cannot be sustained. The prosecution has fully established the guilt of the accused-respondents on the basis of evidence led at the stage of trial by the prosecution. The acquittal of the accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhotku, is consequently, reversed.

65. Both the accused-respondents, namely, Pyare Singh and Chhoktu are accordingly convicted for the offence under Sections 147 and 302/149 I.P.C. and sentenced to two years rigorous imprisonment for the offence under Section 147 I.P.C. and life imprisonment for the offence under Section 302/149 I.P.C., like accused-appellants, who have been convicted and sentenced by the trial court under the impugned judgment.

66. The Government Appeal filed on behalf of the State is, hereby, allowed.

67. There shall be no order as to costs.

68 The Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gorakhpur shall ensure that both the accused-respondents are arrested and sent to jail for serving their sentences awarded herein above.

69. Let a copy of this judgment be sent to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gorakhpur, henceforth, for necessary compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 53
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTHA VARMA, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 261 of 1982

Ved Prakash & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri Virendra Singh, Ms. Aarushi Khare (A.C.)

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
A.G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-34, 302 - Juvenile Justice Care & Protection of Children Act, 2000-Section 15-Criminal appeal against judgment of conviction U/s 302/34 IPC- No error in the eye-witness account which had been rendered by the P.W. - 2. It mattered little that P.W. - 3 who had claimed that the accused had made an extra-judicial confession had turned hostile or whether the brother of the deceased who was allegedly there on the spot has not appeared as a witness- Minor discrepancies in the St.ment of an eye-witness would not make much difference- As far as the sentence is concerned, the appellant no. 2 was a juvenile at the time of incident, he would be governed by the provisions of Section 15 of the Act of 2000- Appellant No.2 was released on bail way back in the year 1982 and ever since then he has never misused the liberty of bail therefore Rs 20,000/- fine imposed upon him which shall be equally distributed between the surviving heirs and legal representatives of the deceased.

Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

2020 (10) SCC 555 : Satya Deo @ Bhoorey Vs St. of U. P.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Siddhartha Varma, J.
&
Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Upon an incident having taken place on 18.4.1981 whereby Shyam Singh had died, a first information report was got lodged by his wife – Kailashpati. The first information report had stated that the brother of Shyam Singh, namely, Balveer Singh accompanied by his four sons, namely, Vijayvir Singh alias Vijay, Ved Prakash, Chandra Prakash alias Pappu and Rajesh alias Raju and the brother-in-law of Balveer, namely, Surendra (sala) had reached the house of the deceased. The motive assigned in the first information report was that the deceased Shyam Singh had executed a Will in favour of his three daughters and, therefore, the accused Balveer Singh and his four sons wanted to do away with him. In the first information report, it was very categorically stated that the four sons of Balveer Singh and his brother-in-law were armed with lathis and swords. Specifically, it has been stated that Chandra Prakash, Rajesh alias Raju, Ved Prakash had swords whereas Balveer Singh and Surendra had lathis in their hands. At the time of the incident, another brother of the deceased, namely, Kripal Singh had reached the spot. Apart from the brother, Dharmveer Singh son of Chiranjeet Chauhan and Bhagwana Singh son of Kathera Singh had also reached at the place of incident. The first information report states that not only there were three eye-witnesses present but many others of the area had also reached the spot. The first informant in the first information report had stated that the first information report was written on the dictation of the first informant by her daughter – Vimla.

2. After the lodging of the first information report, the Police got into action and various relevant materials found on the spot were recovered and kept in Police custody. The accused Chandra Prakash, it was alleged, had also made a confessional statement before the Police on 18.4.1981 itself and had also under Section 27 of the Evidence Act got recovered the sword as was used in the incident. The sword was recovered in the presence of two eye-witnesses, namely, Ram Singh and Ashok Kumar Tyagi.

3. Upon completion of the investigation, the Police submitted its charge sheet and the court of sessions, thereafter, on 3.8.1981 framed charges against the accused Shyam Singh, Chandra Prakash alias Pappu, Ved Prakash, Balveer Singh, Rajesh alias Raja and Surendra Singh.

4. When the trial commenced, from the side of the prosecution 7 prosecution witnesses were produced and examined.

5. Upon the conclusion of the Trial, the IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Bijnor, convicted the accused, namely, Chandra Prakash alias Pappu, Ved Prakash and Rajesh alias Raju for the offences under Sections 302/34 IPC and they were thereafter sentenced for rigorous imprisonment for life. By the same order, Surendra Singh, Vijayvir Singh and Balveer Singh were acquitted. Thereafter, the instant Criminal Appeal was filed challenging the judgement and order dated 27.1.1982 passed by the IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Bijnor.

6. The P.W. - 1 who was the doctor who had conducted the postmortem proved the port-mortem report and categorically mentioned as to how the injuries which had resulted in the death of the deceased had been inflicted on the body of the deceased.

7. The P.W. - 2 is the wife of the deceased and she is an eye-witness of the incident and she gives the entire eye-witness account saying that the deceased – Shyam Singh and she herself were sleeping in the veranda of their house and a functional lantern was there in the veranda. She had also stated that in the eastern side of the veranda, her brother-in-law (dewar), namely, Kripal Singh was also sleeping. She has stated that Balveer Singh, the accused, was her brother-in-law (dewar) and Vijay, Ved Prakash, Chandra Prakash and Rajesh were his sons and Surendra was the brother-in-law (sala) of Balveer Singh. She recognized all the six accused who were present in the court. She thereafter, in her testimony, gives the reason for the murder of her husband. She had stated that because of the fact that her husband executed a Will in favour of her daughters, the accused could not tolerate the transfer of the property in the name of the daughters and, therefore, the murder had taken place. She states that when the six accused entered the place of incident and when upon hearing certain noises, she got up, she saw Balveer Singh standing along with Surendra and Vijai who were having lathis in their hands. Chandra Prakash alias Pappu had a sword in his hand. Ved Prakash and Raju had tabals (a kind of a sharp edged weapon). Chandra Prakash alias Pappu had attacked/assailed the husband of the first informant who was sleeping. She states that on the injury being inflicted, the husband of the first informant got up and stood on the cot himself. When this happened, the other accused started hitting the deceased (the husband of the first informant) by lathis and tabal. She had stated that when a lot of hue and cry was created by the first informant then the other witnesses, namely, Kripal (dewar), Dharmveer and Bhagwan came on the spot. She had stated in the statement in chief itself that Kripal had joined hands with the accused. She, thereafter, had stated that after injuries were inflicted and her husband was killed, the accused ran away from the southern side. She further states that Abdul Karim and Rajesh were her servants. A day before the incident, they had told her that Balveer and his four sons were saying that they would get rid of Shyam Singh. She had stated that the report was got lodged by her and it was scribed by her daughter on her dictation. She had stated that whatever she had dictated was scribed by her daughter. In the cross-examination which took place, the P.W. - 2 stood firm with her averments in the chief.

8. Upon a specific question being put as to whether, she was accompanied by one Basant Singh when she went to lodge the first information report, she denied this fact but had stated that, in fact, she knew one Basanta Ahir. In the cross-examination, she had also stated that she woke out of her sleep when her husband was, in fact, giving calls for being saved. She denied the fact that she did not know the actual age of Rajesh alias Pappu. She denied the fact that he was 13-14 years of age.

9. The P.W. -3, Rajesh who the first informant stated had informed a day prior to the incident that the accused Balveer Singh was planning to do away with her husband was declared hostile by the prosecution.

10. The P.W. - 4, Bhagwan, another eye-witness, who according to the first informant had come to the place of incident upon the hue and cry being made, had also stated that he saw the entire incident with his own eyes. He had very categorically stated that when he had reached the place of incident beside him, there were Dharmveer and Kripal also at the place of incident and no other person was there. He further added to the statements he had made that after half and an hour other persons started coming to the spot.

11. The P.W. - 5 Ram Singh happens to be a witness who had witnessed the recovery of the swords.

12. The P.W. - 6, Ijhar Hussain, is the constable who had taken the dead-body for the port-mortem.

13. The P.W. - 7, Dharmveer Singh, the Investigating Officer, had also proved the first information report and, thereafter, had stated that the entire investigation had been done under his supervision. The statement of the accused were thereafter recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. In the statement they had denied having committed the crime and had also denied their presence at the place of occurrence.

14. Learned Amicus Curiae for the appellants Ms. Aarushi Khare made the following submissions:-

I. The appellants – Ved Prakash and Chandra Prakash had died and, therefore, the Appeal had already abated against them. So far as Rajesh @ Raju is concerned, she states that at the time of the incident, he was a juvenile. In fact, she states that when the Appeal was filed, he had given out his age as 12 years. When the appeal was pending, an application was moved on 6.9.2023 for declaring the appellant- Rajesh @ Raju a juvenile. Thereafter, the Principal Magistrate of the Juvenile Justice Board informed this Court by a communication dated 10.11.2023 that on 6.11.2023 the appellant – Rajesh @ Raju had been declared juvenile and that at the time of incident his age was 12 years 1 month and 18 days. She, therefore, submits that the trial as was undergone was of a juvenile who was in conflict with law and therefore it was not a proper trial. She, however, submits relying upon a judgement of Supreme Court reported in 2020 (10) SCC 555 : Satya Deo alias Bhoorey vs. State of Uttar Pradesh that in the event a trial had taken place of a juvenile who was in conflict with law alongwith other adult persons and at the stage of Appeal it was discovered that the appellant – Rajesh @ Raju was a juvenile at the time of the incident then the provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 (hereinafter referred to as the "Act of 2000") were to apply. For that purpose, she relies upon the paragraph no. 16 of the judgement reported in 2020 (10) SCC 555 which is being reproduced here as under:-

"16. Further, the provisions of the 2000 Act are to apply as if the juvenile had been ordered by the Board to be sent to the special home or institution and ordered to be kept under protective care under sub section (2) of Section 16 of the Act. The proviso states that the State Government or the Board, for any adequate and special reasons to be recorded in writing, review the case of the juvenile in conflict with law who is undergoing sentence of imprisonment and who had ceased to be a juvenile on or before the commencement of the 2000 Act and pass appropriate orders. However, it is the Explanation which is of extreme significance as it states that in all cases where a juvenile in conflict with law is undergoing a sentence of imprisonment on the date of commencement of the 2000 Act, the juvenile's case including the issue of juvenility, shall be deemed to be decided in terms of clause (1) of Section 2 and other provisions and Rules made under the 2000 Act irrespective of the fact that the juvenile had ceased to be a juvenile. Such juvenile shall be sent to a special home or fit institution for the remainder period of his sentence but such sentence shall not exceed the maximum period provided in Section 15 of the 2000 Act. The statute overrules and modifies the sentence awarded, even in decided cases."

and, therefore, she submits that even if the appellant is to be convicted, if the appeal is decided against him then he would be punished as per the Act of 2000.

II. Learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that a perusal of the statement of P.W. -2 does not inspire confidence. She submits that in the first information report, the P.W. -2 had stated that she had come out of her sleep because of certain noises. Subsequently, in her statement before the Court, she says that when the husband of the deceased had raised a hue and cry, then she woke up.

III. Learned counsel for the appellant further submitted that the motive which the appellant had given, that the husband of the first informant had executed a Will in favour of his daughters and, therefore, the brother of the deceased had killed him does not have legs to stand. She states that when the brother was done away with, the Will would come into operation. This would in no manner help the accused persons. In fact, they stood to lose if the husband died. The motive as had been alleged was a weak motive.

IV. Learned counsel for the appellant states that Kripal, the brother of the deceased, who had witnessesed the incident did not appear in the witness box. Similarly, she states that the eye-witness – Dharamvir Singh also did not appear in the witness box. So far as the eye-witness account of Bhagwana Singh is concerned, she submits that it had various contradictions. She states that P.W. -2 had stated that in addition to Kripal, Dharmveer Singh and Bhagwana Singh, there were many other persons of the locality assembled but she states that at the time of incident only Kripal, Dharamveer Singh and Bhagwana Singh were there on the spot.

V. Learned counsel further submits that the extra-judicial confession with regard to the servant is also not reliable as out of the two servants only one servant, namely, Rajesh appeared in the witness box and he also turned hostile.

VI. Learned counsel for the appellant states that if the statement of Bhagwana Singh is looked into, it becomes clear that in two other cases, namely, in one case of State vs. Baljeet and in another case of State v. Battu, he was a police witness and, therefore, there was every possibility in this case also that he was appearing as a police witness.

VII. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that as per Section 24 of the Children Act, 1960 and Section 18 of the Act of 2000 no joint trial of a juvenile and a person who was not a juvenile could have been undergone.

VIII. Learned counsel for the appellant further submits that the appellant who was admittedly a juvenile at the time of incident could not have any mens rea and, therefore, could not be punished under Section 302 IPC. He was only acting on the directions of his father who had actual control and command over the will and thinking of the juvenile (minor). A father is a natural guardian and, therefore, it could not be said that the appellant was having the mens rea to commit the murder. She further submits that the father of the appellant had in fact been acquitted.

IX. Learned counsel for the appellant in the end submits that in the event the appeal is dismissed and the judgement of conviction is upheld then as per the judgement of (1981) 4 SCC 149 : Jayendra and another v. State of Uttar Pradesh and (2000) 6 SCC 89 : Umesh Singh and another vs. State of Bihar, the sentence may be modified and the appellant may not be sentenced for life. She also states that as per Section 15 of the Act of 2000, there were 7 methods in which a juvenile could be dealt with and the appellant who was only about 12 years of age at the time of the incident could be given the minimum sentence possible.

15. Learned Additional Government Advocate Sri Amit Sinha in opposition has supported the judgement of the trial court and had submitted that the P.W. - 2 was a reliable eye-witness and the account which she had given could not in any manner be rejected or doubted.

16. Learned AGA further submits that even a single eye-witness account which was reliable, could result in a conviction.

17. Learned AGA further submits that when the incident was admitted and when the eye-witness account which was a reliable one was there on record then definitely the conviction was the only conclusion to which the Court could come to.

18. Learned AGA further submits that the appellant be given maximum punishment as could be given after the Juvenile Justice Board had held that the appellant was a minor.

19. Learned AGA submits that the provisions of Section 24 of the 1960 Act and Section 18 of the Act of 2000 had no relevance in the instance case as the trial had taken place treating the appellant an adult. He, therefore, submits that those provisions could not be pressed at this point of time.

20. Having heard learned Amicus Curiae Ms. Aarushi Khare, this Court is of the view that the incident which had resulted in the criminal case being registered and which was tried by the IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Bijnor was a case where there was a definite eye-witness account of P.W. - 2 who was the wife of the deceased. No perusal of the record or the assessment of the evidence leads us to conclude that there was any error in the eye-witness account which had been rendered by the P.W. - 2. It mattered little that P.W. - 3 Rajesh who had claimed that the accused had made an extra-judicial confession had turned hostile or whether the brother of the deceased Kripal who was allegedly there on the spot has not appeared as a witness even though there were minor discrepancies in the statement of P.W. - 2 who was an eye-witness would not make much difference. The fact of the matter remained with the incident was witness of P.W. - 2 and, there is no reason to disbelieve her.

21. Under such circumstances, the Appeal is dismissed vis-a-vis the appellant no. 2, Rajesh, so far as the conviction portion is concerned. However, so far as the sentence is concerned, we are of the view that when the appellant no. 2 Rajesh Kumar @ Raju was a juvenile at the time of incident, he would be governed by the provisions of Section 15 of the Act of 2000 as per the judgement of Supreme Court reported in 2020 (10) SCC 555 : Satya Deo @ Bhoorey vs. State of Uttar Pradesh.

22. Since the incident is of the year 1981, we are of the view that the appellant Rajesh @ Raju must be now a fairly elderly person. He was never a criminal before the incident had occurred and also at the time when he had committed the crime he was under the influence of his father and it could not be said that he was intentionally committing the crime.

23. We are also of the view that the appellant Rajesh was released on bail way back in the year 1982 and ever since then he has never misused the liberty of bail or has ever jumped the bail.

24. Under such circumstances, we are of the view that the minimum possible sentence be imposed upon him. We, therefore, consider it appropriate to fine him for Rs. 20,000/- which shall be equally distributed between the surviving heirs and legal representatives of Shyam Singh.

25. Since the appellants no. 1 and 3 had died during the pendency of the appeal vis-a-vis them stood abated.

26. For the hard work which has been put in by the learned Amicus Curiae Ms. Aarushi Khare, we quantify her fee as Rs. 30,000/- which shall be payable to her by the Legal Services Authority forthwith. The payment be got done under the supervision of the Registrar General of this court.

(2024) 5 ILRA 59
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 03.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. SANGEETA CHANDRA, J.
THE HON'BLE AJAI KUMAR SRIVASTAVA-I, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 298 of 1990

Banwari & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
R. Murtaza, Aishwarya Mishra, Alok Singh, Altaf Mansoor, Ashok Kumar Singh, K Jaiswal, Rishad Murtaza, Syed Ali Jafar Rizvi

Counsel for the Respondents:

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-147, 149 & 302 - Criminal appeal against judgment and order of conviction of life imprisonment- Trial Court has discounted the various arguments relating to delayed F.I.R., discrepancies in the St.ments of the alleged two eye witnesses, discrepancy in the recording of the inquest report and the F.I.R., the discrepancy in Medical and ocular evidence, the unnatural behaviour of the witnesses, who are close relatives of the deceased.

No blood was found in the grove of where the dead body was lying, or at the place on the road where the deceased was hit by gunshot fired by accused- Reasonable suspicion about exact place of occurrence of the incident-Presence of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, at the place of occurrence to be doubtful and their testimonies to be unreliable-False implication of cannot be ruled out because of a subsequently developed story of existence of prior enmity between the parties- It is quite unnatural that a person whose paternal cousin was attacked in front of his own eyes would be so meticulous and farsighted as to take a file cover along with him to keep the plain piece of paper so that it is not creased at all while submitting his report at the Police Station-Result-Impugned judgment set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases referred-;

1. Tulia Kali Vs St. of T N, (1972) 3 SCC 393

2. Dahari & ors.Vs St. of U P (2012) 10 SCC 256

3. Periyasamy Vs St., rep. by the Inspector of Police, 2024 SCC OnLine SC 314

4. Darshan Singh Vs St. of Pun. (2024) 3 SCC 164

5. Md Jabbar Ali & ors. Vs St. of Assam 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1440

6. Mahendra Singh & ors. Vs St. of M. P. (2022) 7 SCC 157

7. Khema alias Khem Chandra & ors. Vs St. of U.P., (2023) 10 SCC 451

8. Ramashish Rai Vs Jagdish Singh, 2005 (10) SCC 498

9. Vadivelu Thevar Vs St. of Madras, 1957 SCR 981

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra, J.
&
Hon'ble Ajai Kumar Srivastava-I, J.)

1. This Criminal Appeal arises out of judgement and order dated 11.05.1990 passed by the IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Sitapur in Sessions Trial No.663 of 1987 whereby the Appellant no.3 Mahesh has been convicted under Sections 302 and 147 read with Section 149 of the I.P.C. and sentenced to undergo life imprisonment, the appellant no.4-Jagdish along with appellant no.1- Banwari, appellant no.2-Moti Lal and appellant no.5- Babu Ram have been convicted under Section 148 read with Section 149 and Section 302 I.P.C. with life imprisonment.

2. Only two of the original five appellants i.e. appellant nos.2 and 4, namely, Moti Lal and Jagdish are alive as the appellant nos.1, 3 & 5, namely, Banwari, Mahesh, and Babu Ram died during the pendency of the Appeal and the Appeal in respect of them has already been abated.

3. The case of the prosecution as mentioned in the prosecution story written report Exhibit Ka-1 and the F.I.R. Exhibit Ka-2 of the paper-book is that on 27.04.1987, the informant Damodar Prasad, along with his uncle Vishwanath and cousin brother, Shiv Kumar were returning home after making a query from the Sawmill regarding cutting of logs of wood. As soon as all three reached Barhtara Taal around 6:30 P.M., the accused Jagdish son of Babu Ram along with Banwari, son of Paragdeen, Moti Lal son of Gokarna and Babu Ram son of Banwari and Mahesh son of Gokaran armed with deadly weapons appeared from the sugarcane field of Raghubar and on the exhortation of Jagdish, all of them attacked Shiv Kumar. Jagdish fired from his gun, Babu Ram attacked him on his neck with a knife and then all of them dragged Shiv Kumar to the sugarcane field of Raghubar. The informant Damodar Prasad along with his uncle Visvanath tried to shout for help but no one came and Banwari, Moti Lal and Mahesh tried to attack the informant and his uncle and also threatened them for life in case they reported the matter to the Police. As a result of such threat, the informant Damodar Prasad, along with his uncle ran to their home in the village Benipur and did not report the matter to the Police Station at night out of fear. They returned in the morning to search for Shiv Kumar and they found his body in a grove south of Barhtara Taal. The informant wrote out a written report (Exhibit Ka-1) and had gone to the Police Station to report the matter after leaving members of his family Suraj Prasad and Bhagwan Das and others near the dead body.

4. On the basis of said written report by Damodar Prasad, son of Suraj Prasad, dated 28.04.1987, F.I.R., Exhibit Ka-2 was registered as Case Crime No. 80 of 1987, on the same day at 06:25 A.M. against the accused for the offence under Sections 147/148/149 and 302 I.P.C. The Station House Officer Phool Singh Bhadoria rushed to the place of occurrence alongwith other policemen. On reaching the spot, he prepared the inquest report of the dead body and sealed it and sent it for post-mortem examination after completing other formalities and inspected the place of occurrence and prepared a site plan with index (Exhibit C-6). He then took the statements of witnesses and prepared an inquest report (Exhibit Ka-8). On receipt of post-mortem report and completion of investigation, charge sheet was prepared against the accused persons and filed in Court.

5. Separate charges were framed by the IInd Additional Sessions Judge against all the accused on 21.01.1988. The prosecution examined six witnesses, Damodar Prasad as P.W.-1, Vishwanath as P.W.-2, Head Constable Satendra Nath Trivedi as P.W.-3, Constable Umakant Yadav as P.W.-4, Phool Singh Bhadoria as P.W.-5 and Dr. Gopal Swaroop, who conducted the post-mortem, as P.W.-6.

6. The statements of the accused under Section 313 of the Cr.P.C. were thereafter recorded. They denied the allegations and stated that they had been falsely implicated due to family dispute and long running enmity. The accused gave documentary and oral evidence. In the documents filed by them was a certified copy of the statement of Banwari dated 02.11.1977, which was given in the court of Vith Additional District and Sessions Judge, Sitapur in Sessions Trial No. 359 of 1976 titled as State Vs Ramavtar and others, under Sections 147, 148, 307/149, 324, 323 of the I.P.C. This case was decided on 11.03.1978. The statement of Banwari was given in the said Sessions Trial against Vishwanath, Ramavtar, Lalta Prasad, Madhuram and Brij Lal, who were the accused and were being prosecuted for causing injuries to one Ganeshi. Copy of the judgement in Sessions Trial No. 188 of 1986 : State versus Jagdish son of Baburam; decided on 14.08.1984 by the Sessions Judge Sitapur was also filed, in which, Jagdish was tried for offence punishable under Section 302 of the I.P.C. for the murder of his uncle Jagadamba on 28.12.1984. Jagadamba was the real brother of Babu Ram. The accused Jagdish had been acquitted.

7. The accused also examined Lalta Prasad as D.W.-1, who was the owner of the sawmill and he stated that Vishwanath had not come to his sawmill alongwith his son Shiv Kumar at any time in the recent past for cutting of wood logs.

8. The Trial Court considering the evidence on record had convicted the accused appellants and sentenced them as aforesaid.

9. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the surviving appellants that the appellants have been deliberately and falsely implicated because they belong to a collateral line of the same family. Banwari and Gokaran are real brothers. Babu Ram is the son of Banwari and Jagdish is the son of Babu Ram, the grandfather, son and grandson have all been implicated. Similarly, Motilal and Mahesh are the sons of Gokaran. Thus, both sons of Gokaran, son of Banwari have also been implicated. One Jagdamba was the real brother of Babu Ram and uncle of Jagdish. Jagdish was earlier implicated in murdering his uncle Jagdamba Prasad in 1984, but was acquitted.

10. It has been argued that the motive for attacking Shiv Kumar as shown by the prosecution, was that around two months ago from the date of the murder, Jagdish had threatened Shiv Kumar of dire consequences over taking water from the public tap, where Jagdish had gone to take a bath and had an altercation with Shiv Kumar. It has been argued that the accused/ appellant Jagdish had his own well in front of his house, and there was no question of Jagdish going to the public tap to take a bath.

11. Learned counsel for the surviving appellants has submitted that the finding of guilt recorded by the learned trial court against the surviving appellants is against the weight of evidence and, therefore, the same is unsustainable. He has taken us through the entire testimonies of prosecution witnesses recorded before the learned trial court and on the basis thereof, he has submitted that a delayed first information report was lodged in this case after consultation in order to falsely implicate the surviving appellants. The delay in lodging the first information report has not been sufficiently explained by the prosecution.

12. He has also submitted that the learned trial court has failed to appreciate the fact that the contradictions/inconsistencies appearing in the testimonies of prosecution witnesses of fact are of such nature, which materially affect the core of the prosecution story and they being material in nature could not have been ignored by the learned trial court.

13. His further submission is that by not mentioning in the written report when the deceased and prosecution witnesses went to the sawmill for getting the wood sawed, the prosecution has tried to conceal the real genesis and true prosecution story for false implication of the surviving appellants.

14. His further submission is that though the first information report is not an encyclopedia, the failure of the first informant to mention the fact of prior enmity in the written report materially affects the credibility of the content of the written report, Ext. Ka-1.

15. He has also submitted that only two witnesses of fact, namely, PW-1, Damodar Prasad, and PW-2, Vishwanath, have been examined by the prosecution in support of its case. They are admittedly related to the deceased, being cousin brother and father, respectively. As they have introduced a new story of pre-existing enmity between the parties, the aforesaid witnesses of fact also become interested witnesses. Therefore, their testimonies, before they could be relied upon by the learned trial court, ought to have been corroborated by the testimony of an independent witness. In the absence of corroboration of the testimonies of such witnesses of fact, the finding of guilt recorded by the learned trial court against the surviving appellants is patently illegal and unsustainable.

16. He has concluded his submission by stating that the prosecution witnesses, namely, PW-1, Damodar Prasad and PW-2, Vishwanath, allegedly witnessed this incident. Their conduct of not making any efforts to save the deceased, who was closely related to them, is quite unnatural. Furthermore, they did not attempt to return to the place of incident to save and ascertain the whereabouts of the deceased in the evening. They did not attempt to contact the village chaukidar nor did they contact other residents of their village. They went to the place of occurrence on the next morning only, i.e., on 28.04.1987. Such unnatural conduct gives rise to the only conclusion that neither the witnesses of fact, namely, PW-1, Damodar Prasad and PW-2, Vishwanath had seen the incident nor did they know about such incident till the morning of 28.04.1987 when the dead body of the deceased was recovered.

17. In support of his aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the surviving appellants has placed reliance on the judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court rendered in the cases of Vadivelu Thevar vs. State of Madras reported in AIR 1957 Supreme Court 614, Khem Chandra @ Khema and others vs. State of U.P. reported in (2023) 10 SCC 451, Mohammed Jabbar Ali and others vs. State of Assam reported in 2022 SCC Online Supreme Court 1440 and Maruti Rama Naik vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2003 (10) SCC 670.

18. Sri Umesh Chandra Verma, learned A.G.A. has argued that P.W.-1 is a wholly reliable witness. He was young and educated and he remembered everything clearly. He has made a very fair admission at the time of cross-examination regarding long running enmity between the members of the same family. He also admitted that the appellants and the deceased had a common ancestor. He has also argued that the postmortem report corroborated the injuries that have been mentioned in the F.I.R. and the deceased was beaten up brutally and body dragged away. It has also been noted that insofar as the occurrence of the incident is concerned, P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 have both given a concerted clear and reliable version. There may be certain discrepancies in the statement of P.W.-2 as he is old and he was the father of the victim and, thus, emotionally disturbed. However, there were no such discrepancies, which were so material as to affect the veracity of the entire statement made by P.W.-2. It has also been stated that P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 had enough time to fill up the lacunae in the story set up by them in case they had cooked up the story, as the F.I.R., according to the appellants, was lodged with a delay of 12 hours. They had enough time to have thought it over and over again and then got the F.I.R. lodged. It has also been argued that under Section 134 of the Evidence Act, the quality of evidence given by a witness has to be looked into and no particular number of witnesses are required to prove a fact. It has also been argued that medical evidence has corroborated the injuries found on the body of the deceased with statement made by the eye-witnesses and it cannot be said that P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 had fabricated a false case only because of old enmity running between the parties. With regard to the motive, which is allegedly lacking in the murder of the deceased, it has been argued that the prosecution is not required to prove an impossibility and it cannot possibly enter the minds of the accused to know the exact reason for the attack on the deceased. It was not necessary for them to have dragged the deceased from one sugarcane field to another grove, which was 250 paces away and only because the body was found at such a distance from the original place of attack, it cannot be said that the deceased was not attacked near the sugarcane field of Raghubar. It is possible that they had dragged the body during the course of brutally beating up Shiv Kumar.

19. Sri Rishad Murtaza, in rejoinder, has submitted that the prosecution must prove its case beyond reasonable doubt and in this case, the appellants have been convicted without looking into the reasonable story put up by the defence counsel. The reasonable doubt created in the minds of the Court cannot be said to be without reason. Suspicion howsoever grave cannot take the place of proof. It has been reiterated that it was a blind murder and the entire story that has been cooked up by the prosecution is only because of old running enmity between the accused and the deceased's family as it has been admitted by both prosecution witnesses that they trace their pedigree to a common ancestor. Three generations of all male relatives in the collateral line have been implicated falsely. Jagdish had a well of his own, where he could have taken a bath and it is not explained by the prosecution witnesses as to why he would go to a public tap some 50 meters away from his house to take a bath, where he would have had an altercation with the deceased, which was also around two months ago and then waited for such a long time to murder him in revenge.

20. We have also gone through the judgement of the Trial Court, wherein it has discounted the various arguments relating to delayed F.I.R., discrepancies in the statements of the alleged two eye witnesses, discrepancy in the recording of the inquest report and the F.I.R., the discrepancy in Medical and ocular evidence, the unnatural behaviour of the witnesses, who are close relatives of the deceased, and has observed that it was natural for the witnesses/relatives of the deceased, not to have pursued the assailants in the evening of 27.04.1987, when the deceased was attacked in front of their eyes as the assailants were armed and they had threatened them.

21. The Trial Court has observed that the Police Station was 6 km away and night having fallen, it was not possible for the prosecution witnesses to have shown courage to search out the dead body of Shiv Kumar on the same night. They had no arms with them. It was natural for them to remain silent in the night. The Trial Court has, therefore, rejected the argument regarding F.I.R. being delayed and the explanation for the same not being given in a satisfactory manner.

22. The Trial Court has rejected the argument regarding F.I.R. appearing to have been lodged after deliberation and consultation as in the inquest report in the opinion of the Investigating Officer, it is mentioned that a murder was committed by some miscreants. The Trial Court has observed that the Investigating Officer had admitted his mistake that the word "Badmashon" should not have been written.

23. The Trial Court has further observed that non-mention of motive in the written report, Exhibit Ka-1 shows that the prosecution witnesses had no idea in their mind that the accused persons and specially Jagdish would commit murder of Shiv Kumar simply because of an incident of a quarrel over taking of water from a public hand-pump.

24. The Trial Court disbelieved the argument regarding false implication of Banwari only because Banwari had given evidence against Vishwanath P.W.-2 in another case. The Court observed that Banwari had given evidence against Vishwanath in favour of Ganesh Paasi about ten years ago and there was a cross case also. It was difficult to believe that Vishwanath had been waiting to implicate the accused Jagdish and Banwari for ten years. If he had a grudge against Banwari, he would not have implicated falsely the other accused persons.

25. The Trial Court has also discounted the contradictions in the evidence of Damodar Prasad and his uncle Viswanath and found that there was no material contradictions in the evidence of these two witnesses led by the prosecution. Both the witnesses had supported the story of the prosecution with regard to material facts on record.

26. The Trial Court has explained the non-mentioning of the details of taking the wood to the sawmill at Hargaon and then going again to collect the same by saying that Damodar Prasad had stated in his evidence that he had not given the details in the morning to avoid a lengthy written report.

27. The Trial Court has also discounted the discrepancies in ocular and medical evidence as it has assumed that once Shiv Kumar was fired upon and attacked with a knife and dragged into the field of Raghubar, Damodar Prasad and Vishwanath had run away and, therefore, did not see the other injuries inflicted upon Shiv Kumar.

28. The Trial Court has disbelieved the statement of Lalta Prasad D.W.-1 that Vishwanath and Damodar had not come to the sawmill to get their Wood logs cut either on 27.04.1987 or at any time before that day on the ground that Lalta Prasad had admitted that his son and his uncle also sat at the sawmill in his absence.

The Trial Court observed that Lalta Prasad appeared to be an interested person and gave evidence to defend the accused because of his affinity with them. He also knew Vishwanath very well, that is why he had stated that Vishwanath had told him on the very next day about the murder of his son, Shiv Kumar. The Trial Court, therefore, did not place any reliance on evidence of the Defence Witness Lalta Prasad.

29. We have gone through the evidence of the P.W.-1 and 2, the alleged eye witness and that of the S.H.O. Phool Singh Bhadauria, the Investigating Officer, and Dr. Gopal Swaroop who had conducted the post-mortem.

30. Dr. Gopal Swaroop, who had conducted the post-mortem on 29.04.1987 while being posted at District Hospital Sitapur, had stated that the deceased was around 25 years of age and his death had taken place around two days ago. At the time of post-mortem, green discolouration was present on the dead body. The left side parietal, occipital and temporal bones of the skull were fractured into pieces, and the glands were lacerated. Left pelvic girdle was also fractured. Both the intestines were lacerated. The following antemortem injuries were found on the body :-

1. Lacerated wound 3.5 cm x 1.5 cm bone deep over the chin.

2. Multiple abraded contusions in an area of 17 cm x 17 cm side to side and up and down from chin to forehead, all over the face.

3. Lacerated wound 4. 5 cm x 1.5 cm bone deep over the back of the skull 9 cm above the transverse process of the seventh cervical vertebra

4. Lacerated wound 2 cm x 0.5 cm muscle deep over the back of the skull 1 cm away and laterally to injury number three.

5. Incised wound 4 cm x 1 cm bone deep over the back, on the back 3 cm above the transverse process of the seventh cervical vertebrae.

6. Multiple firearm wounds of entry in an area of 5 cm x 5 cm cavity deep margins inverted. Blackening present around the margins. Each measuring 0.5 cm x 0.5 cm, just above the upper border of the left pelvic bone.

7. Multiple abrasions in an area of 27 cm x 24 cm (up down and sign to side) over the front of the chest and upper part of the abdomen, 8 cm below the suprasternal notch above and 7 cm above the umbilical lower margins.

In the opinion of the Doctor, the ante-mortem injuries were caused on 27.04.1987 at about 06:30 P.M. Injury no. 6 was caused by some firearm. Injury no.5 was caused by some sharp cutting weapon like knife. Injury no.1, 3 and 4 by some blunt object like lathi. Injury nos.2 and 7 were caused by friction. The deceased had taken his food about four hours prior to his death. His death was caused due to ante-mortem injuries.

31. We have gone through the evidence of P.W.-1 and find that his written report at the P.S. Hargaon and his statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. did not contain any details. During evidence of P.W.-1, he had stated that Jagdish was a criminal and he was the son of Baburam who in turn was the son of Banwari. Jagdish had killed his paternal uncle Jagdamba Prasad in 1984 but he was acquitted during trial. Before the murder, around one month ago Shiv Kumar had an argument with Jagdish on a public tap at around 11:00 AM and he had witnessed the said incident. Shiv Kumar was filling his bucket of water from the public tap when Jagdish came and told him that he wanted to take a bath and that Shiv Kumar should fill his bucket after Jagdish had taken his bath. An argument took place and Jagdish had threatened to seek revenge from Shiv Kumar. P.W.-1 stated that he alongwith his paternal uncle Vishwanath and his paternal cousin Shiv Kumar had gone to Hargaon to the sawmill of Lalta Prasad to get the logs of wood cut at around 09:00 A.M. and they returned home because some other person's wood was being cut at the time. They returned to the sawmill at around 03:00 P.M., but at that time, there was no electricity and the wood logs could not be cut. They waited for around one hour and then they started from the sawmill for their home at around 06:00 P.M. and at around 06:30 P.M., when they reached near Barhatara talab, the accused came out of the sugarcane field of Raghubar and attacked Shiv Kumar on the exhortation of Jagdish.

32. P.W.-1 also admitted that he had written a report and signed the same before submitting it at Police Station Hargaon at around 06:00 A.M. The Sub-Inspector had taken the statement of Damodar at the Police Station. In his evidence before the trial court, Damodar gave in detail his pedigree and his relation to the accused appellants and admitted that they had a common ancestor, but all of them had been living in separate houses for a long time.

P.W.1 also stated that Shiv Kumar used to work at a Halwai shop, but he had left the same two months before he was murdered. He used to go early in the morning to Hargaon on a cycle to Bedhab Halwai shop and returned in the evening. Damodar Prasad admitted that the public tap was around 20 to 25 metres South of his house. His house was around 150 to 200 paces away from Jagdish's house. Jagdish had his own well around 10 to 15 paces in front of his house. The well had a concrete slab to facilitate washing and taking a bath adjacent to it.

33. P.W.1 also admitted that he had not stated in the F.I.R. about the incident of quarrel between Jagdish and Shiv Kumar at the public tap that occurred around one month ago before the murder because he was too emotionally disturbed at the time of writing the report, which he submitted at the Police Station at around 06:00 A.M., on 28.04.1987.

34. P.W.1 was put a specific query as to since when he was emotionally disturbed and he gave a reply that from the very time of the incident around sunset the previous evening. By the time they had reached home night had fallen and they had told their family members and other villagers about the incident. The village Chowkidar lived in another village Vijaypur which was 2 to 3 furlongs from their village and there was a big pond in between. If one wanted to avoid the pond, the distance between Vijaipur and their village would be around five furlongs and the road to Vijaipur was running in front of the house of Banwari and Banwari had threatened them with dire consequences. (One furlong is about 200 meters and even if longer route would have been taken by the P.W.1, he would not have had to cover more than 1 kilometer to inform the village Chowkidar).

35. This Court has noticed that P.W.1 had said that the villagers as well as their family members did not report the matter to the Police Station at night because of fear of the accused attacking them also. On the one hand, P.W.1 said that he had written in the report that he had not reported the incident at night out of fear and that he did not inform the Chowkidar on the next morning because he was flustered and disturbed about the incident that had occurred the previous night. They started looking for Shiv Kumar much before sunrise the next day along with 10 to 15 people from the village. On the other hand, P.W.1 also said he had no knowledge that the village chowkidar had to be informed, therefore, he, did not think of informing the village Chowkidar. When they had gone to search for Shiv Kumar, they were carrying *Lathi*s and Kanta with them. When they found the body of Shiv Kumar, sunrise had not taken place, but because of dawn, they could see clearly though they did not take any source of light with them. Vishwanath, Suraj Prasad and Bhagwan Das had stayed with the body of Shiv Kumar, whereas he along with his other uncle Hari Shankar had gone to the Police Station Hargaon for lodging the report. He had walked on foot to the Police Station, which took him about half an hour. He also stated that the police station was around 3 K.M. and that he could normally walk 5 to 6 K.M. in an hour.

36. P.W.1 stated that he had taken paper and pen from Bhagwan Das, who resided in the village Benipur, and he had taken a file cover from his own house along with him to the Police Station. He had no idea whether Shiv Kumar was dead or alive when he started from home, therefore, he did not write the report at home but wrote it on his way to the Police Station. The handwritten report was shown to P.W.-1 who admitted that it was in his handwriting. Two Sub-Inspectors and a Constable had accompanied him on cycles to the place of occurrence. He had not written in the report that they could not find the dead body in Raghubar's field, but had found it to the south of the road with the help of blood trail on the way and signs of dragging although he had stated such facts while giving his oral statement to the Sub-Inspector at the Police Station and he did not know as to why the same had not been written in his statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. at the Police Station in the report. He had only stated that while searching they had found the body of Shiv Kumar to the south of Bartara talaab in his written report to keep it brief.

37. P.W.1 stated that the Sub-inspector had stayed on the spot for around two hours after reaching around 08:00 A.M. The sealed body was taken to the District hospital at around 10:00 A.M. after inquest report was prepared in his presence. The statement of Vishwanath, his paternal uncle, was also taken by the Sub-Inspector in his presence.

38. It was stated by P.W.-1 that at the time when Jagdish exhorted the other accused to kill the enemy, Shiv Kumar turned and ran towards the south of the road, but Jagdish fired upon him from around two and a half arms length. Shiv Kumar was hit in his back, but P.W.-1 did not see exactly where he was hit as at the moment he was hit he fell down. Baburam then attacked Shiv Kumar with his knife on the neck. It was not clear from the distance as to whether he was stabbed more than once with the knife.

After being shot and being attacked by the knife Shiv Kumar was dragged by the assailants into the sugarcane field and they could not see what happened thereafter, he may have been attacked by knife more than once or even by lathi but they could not see.

39. P.W.-1 also stated that he lived in a separate house from Vishwanath and his son, Shiv Kumar. He had accompanied Vishwanath and his son in taking 2 to 3 wooden logs to Hargaon sawmill in a bullock cart, which they had borrowed from the nephew of Vishwanath and Hari Shankar. It took them around one and half hours to reach the sawmill from the village. The wood logs were big and needed more than two persons to be transported. The wood logs were not weighed at the sawmill. There were two or three or four wood logs, but not six, that were taken by them. Each of such wood logs would be around one quintal in weight.

40. P.W.1 stated that he had not written about transporting the wooden logs to the sawmill by bullock cart in the morning as he thought that all applications / written reports need to be brief. P.W.-1 stated that neither he nor Vishwanath nor Shiv Kumar had gone out to work as labourers on that day, because they knew that they had to get the wooden logs cut at the sawmill and to take them back home. They eventually had gone to the sawmill some one month later where the wooden logs were already cut and they took them back to their village without giving the sixty rupees cutting charges to the sawmill owner because he had not returned the leftover wood which could have been used for other purposes.

41. The P.W.-1 further stated in his evidence that he did not mention this fact in the written report because he did not think it was necessary to mention each and every fact that was witnessed by him in his report. He had seen the accused appearing on the road from Raghubar's sugarcane field and they were around 25 paces away from them. P.W.-1 also stated that he had shown the spot where Shiv Kumar was attacked by the accused to the Sub-inspector and also the place where he had fallen down and also the place where Shiv Kumar's body was found later on during the spot inspection by the Police.

42. The P.W.-2, Vishwanath stated that Shiv Kumar was his son and Damodar Prasad was his nephew. He also stated that he had gone along with Shiv Kumar and Damodar to Hargoan to get some six, seven or eight wooden logs cut at the sawmill of Lalta Prasad in the morning. Total weight of the logs would be around twenty quintals. There was no electricity, and therefore, the logs could not be cut. They were returning home at around 6 P.M. and as they reached Barhtara Taal the accused appeared from the sugarcane field of Raghubar and attacked Shiv Kumar. He alongwith Damodar had shouted for help, but because the place was lonely, nobody came to help. Banwari, Moti and Mahesh threatened them with their weapons. As a result, they had run away to the village where they had sought help from other villagers, but nobody was ready because night had fallen. He had not approached the Police Station at night out of fear of the accused.

43. P.W.2 stated that they had gone to search for Shiv Kumar's body at dawn and when he was not found in the sugarcane field of Raghubar, they traced the blood drops towards the south of the road and found Shiv Kumar's body in the grove of Hardayal. Suraj Prasad, Bhagwan Das, and he himself waited near the body, while, Damodar and Hari Shankar went to the Police Station to get the report lodged.

44. P.W.-2 also stated about the argument that had taken place near the public tap between Jagdish and Shiv Kumar in which he has intervened and taken Shiv Kumar back home. At that time Jagdish had threatened Shiv Kumar of taking revenge. He also stated that the wooden logs were eventually taken back about ten days after the incident and that he had not given the charges for cutting of wood at the sawmill because the sawmill owner had sold some of his wood for which a quarrel had taken place.

45. P.W.2 stated that he had not mentioned to the Sub-inspector in his statement under Section 161 of the Cr.P.C. about wooden logs not being cut at the sawmill and about them returning home on foot at around 06:00 P.M. P.W.-2 stated during his cross-examination that he did not remember as to what he had told the Sub-Inspector at the time because he was too flustered and disturbed sitting next to the dead body of his son. He did not remember whether he had told the Sub-Inspector about taking the wood in the morning to Hargaon and then going again at around 03:00 P.M. in the afternoon to collect the cut wood. He also stated that he had gone to Hargaon in the morning and stayed there for about one hour. When they had gone again in the afternoon, they had stayed there for around two hours. P.W.-2 also stated that they had not taken the bullock cart for carrying the wood home as they had told the sawmill's owner not to cut the wood in their absence. If the wood had been cut, they would have hired a cart at Hargaon. The wood was not cut because there was no electricity. He had not tried to take the wood to any other sawmill in Hargoan, because he was familiar with the sawmill's owner, Lalta Prasad. Shiv Kumar used to work at sweet shop of Bedhab Halwai in Hargaon, but he had left the job around two months prior to the dated of incident. While he was working in the Halwai Shop, Shiv Kumar used to commute daily from home to Hargaon, either on his cycle or on foot.

46. P.W.-2 denied the suggestion that Shiv Kumar was working in the Halwai shop at Hargaon on the day he was murdered, and when he did not return home, they started searching for him in the morning and after finding the dead body they had cooked up the story of taking wooden logs to Hargaon day before. P.W.-2 denied any suggestion of enmity with the family of the accused or of any proceeding initiated under section 107/116, Cr.P.C. some ten to twelve years ago, but admitted that a case under Section 307 I.P.C. had been instituted, some nine years ago where Banwari had given evidence in favour of Ganesh Pasi and against Vishwanath and his brother Ramavtar. He denied having previous enmity with the accused but stated that after his son Shiv Kumar was killed by them enmity has resulted.

47. Vishwanath also expressed ignorance about the names of owners of fields lying on either side of the chak road except for Raghubar's sugarcane field. Later on when the dead body of Shiv Kumar was discovered, he also came to know that the grove belonged to Hardayal. The Sub-Inspector had taken his statement in the morning at around 08:00 A.M. when he was sitting near the dead body of his son. He did not remember as to whether he was made to put his thumb impression on the inquest report, as he was not in his right mind, when the statement was taken, he did not know what was written in the report. He did not know also as to why the police had written "Badmaashon" instead of "Mulziman" in the inquest report. P.W.-2 stated that at the time of the attack Shiv Kumar was some twenty paces ahead of him. He was followed by Damodar and Vishwanath was trailing behind them. His son was fired upon from a distance of around two arms length while he was walking towards the village on the east. After receiving gunshot injury, he fell upon his face to the south of the chak road. Both P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 had rushed to save him, but they could not save him because the accused were carrying arms and had threatened them. They remained on the spot where Shiv Kumar was attacked for around 15 minutes and they saw Shiv Kumar being dragged into the sugarcane field of Raghubar. They ran away to their village Benipur in order to save their lives. P.W.-2 also stated that they witnessed the beating up of Shiv Kumar with *Lathi*s as they had stood there for around 15 minutes. After Shiv Kumar was dragged into the sugarcane field, they could not see him because it was dark. P.W.-2 also stated that Shiv Kumar had received only one gun shot injury and was stabbed only once at that time.

48. In his statement of P.W.-5, the Investigating Officer, Phool Singh Bhadauria has clearly stated that after recording statement under Section 161 of the Cr.P.C. of Vishwanath, and some 5 to 6 other villagers, efforts were made to arrest the accused. Banwari Lal was arrested from his house in the early morning hours on 03.05.1987 alongwith his licensed rifle. Moti Lal was arrested on 05.05.1987. The statement of sawmill's owner, Lalta Prasad Sharma was recorded on 07.05.1987. The accused Jagdish, Mahesh and Babu Ram had surrendered on their own in the Trial Court. P.W.-5 stated that he did not mention in the site plan prepared by him about the place, from where, the accused had fired upon the victim as he was not told about it by the witnesses. He admitted that at the end of the inquest report, the word "Badmaashon" had been written in his own handwriting. He had mentioned the name of Vishwanath as eye witness both in the inquest report and in the charge sheet. He denied having arrested Banwari alongwith his rifle from his home on 29.04.1987 itself and having kept him illegally in the lock up before showing his arrest on 03.05.1987. He could not give any reason as to why he did not mention the name of Lalta Prasad the sawmill owner in the charge sheet as a witness, although he had taken his statement on 07.05.1987.

P.W.-5 has stated very clearly that neither Damodar nor Vishwanath had told him anything about leaving wood logs at the sawmill of Lalta Prasad in the morning of 27.04.1987, and of having gone to Hargaon to collect their wood in the afternoon on the same day. Vishwanath had also not told him that Shiv Kumar had fallen to the ground on receiving the gunshot injury, and that the accused had dragged Shiv Kumar into the field of Raghubar.

49. P.W.5- Phool Singh Bhadoria, the Investigating Officer, while preparing the inquest report, had given a description of the place, where the body was found, and also the condition of the body when it was found by the Investigating Officer. The body was found with its face down in the grove of Hardayal, some 250 paces away from the Chak road. A description of the bloodstained clothes on the body had been given. During description of the condition of the body, it had been mentioned by the Investigating Officer that blackening alongwith pellets injury was noticed on the back. Injury was also noticed on the back of the neck. Injuries were noticed on the face, and on the head. On the rest of the body, there were abrasions caused due to dragging. The cause of death as mentioned in the inquest report was injuries caused by miscreants "badmashon".

50. We have noticed that P.W.-1 has stated at one place that when Jagdish had exhorted the others to kill Shiv Kumar he had turned to his right and started running away but was hit on his back by the shot fired by Jagdish and he fell face down on the side of the road and was attacked by knife, thereafter, by the other accused. At another time during giving his statement he had stated that as Shiv Kumar was walking ahead of them they crossed Barhtara Taalab the accused appeared and Jagdish fired upon Shiv Kumar while exhorting others to kill him. There is a discrepancy in the two versions by the same witness.

51. We have also noticed that while P.W.-1 has stated that the quarrel over the public tap occurred some one month ago near the time of Holi. P.W.-2 has stated that the quarrel took place around two months ago and that he had intervened between Shiv Kumar and Jagdish and taken his son home.

52. There is a lot of improvisation in the initial statement made under Section 161 Cr.P.C. before the Police and the evidence given by P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 during the course of Trial. This Court feels that there is a concerted effort on the part of both witnesses, P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 to impress upon the Trial Court that they were extremely disturbed by what they had witnessed on 27.04.1987 while returning from Hargaon. However, it is not clear as to why having been so disturbed they did not try and reach the Police Station at Hargaon in the night of 27.04.1987 itself while there is an admission on their part that there was another route, though a little longer, from their village to Hargaon which was known to them as they had taken the wooden logs on a bullock cart by the longer route to Hargaon in the morning. There was at lease one bicycle at home which Shiv Kumar used while commuting to Halwai shop at Hargaon when he was working.

53. It also raises a doubt in the mind of the Court that admittedly there were a large number of male members in the extended family of Vishwanath and they all lived in the same village though in separate houses, as to why Vishwanath and Damodar the eye witnesses, did not try and contact any of their family members and start a search for Shiv Kumar on that night itself as the village was only one and a half kilometres away from the place of the occurrence and it was only late evening and not the dead of the night when they reached their village.

54. There is no recovery of countrymade guns from either Jagdish or Baburam. Although Banwari was arrested from his house along with his licensed rifle, it was not the weapon used for killing Shiv Kumar. There is a specific description made by P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 regarding Jagdish extorting the other accused to kill the enemy and then firing a shot on Shiv Kumar from his gun, which led to his death. A few of the large pellets were recovered from the body of the deceased during post-mortem as has come out in the statement of Dr. Gopal Swaroop.

55. Another doubtful factor is the delayed lodging of F.I.R. The learned counsel for the appellant has highlighted this fact. Here it is worthwhile to refer to Tulia Kali versus State of Tamil Nadu, (1972) 3 SCC 393 in which the delayed filing of F.I.R. and its consequences have been discussed in paragraph 12 of the report. The Supreme Court has observed thus:-

"First Information Report in a criminal case is an extremely vital and valuable piece of evidence for the purpose of corroborating the oral evidence produced at the trial. The importance of the above report can hardly be overestimated from the standpoint of the accused. The object of insisting upon prompt lodging of the report to the police in respect of commission of an offence is to obtain early information regarding the circumstances in which the crime was committed, the names of the actual culprits and the part played by them as well as the names of eye witnesses present at the scene of occurrence. Delay in lodging the first information report quite often results in embellishment, which is a creature of afterthought. On account of delay, the report not only gets bereft of the advantage of spontaneity, danger creeps in of the introduction of coloured version, exaggerated account or concocted story as a result of deliberation and consultation. It is, therefore, essential that the delay in lodging of the first information report should be satisfactory explained."

56. It was also stated by P.W.-2 that when they went looking for Shiv Kumar's dead body at dawn they did not find the dead body in the sugar cane field of Raghubar. This statement made by P.W.-2 shows that he was certain that Shiv Kumar was dead by the time when they went looking for him in the morning. He has repeatedly referred to "dead body", instead of referring to his son as Shiv Kumar during the time he and other villagers went looking for him next morning. The Investigating Officer while preparing the site plan of the place of occurrence has stated that no blood was found in the grove of Hardayal where Shiv Kumar's dead body was lying, or at the place on the road where Shiv Kumar was hit by gunshot fired by Raghubar.

57. Vishwanath in his a statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. told the Investigating Officer that Jagdish and Moti were carrying country made pistols (Tamancha). Banwari was carrying rifle (Bandook) Babu Ram was armed with a knife, and Mahesh was armed with a lathi. Jagdish extorted others that their enemy Shiv Kumar had come and opened fire on Shiv Kumar. Babu Ram attacked him with a knife on his neck from behind. He also stated that when they returned home they did not go to the Police Station at night because they were afraid. He did not say that he asked his neighbours/other family members for help. Vishwanath also stated that they started looking for the dead body of Shiv Kumar in the morning in the sugarcane field of Raghubar. He has repeatedly used the word "laash" instead of Shiv Kumar in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. He along with Sarju Prasad and Bhagwandas stayed behind near the dead body and sent Damodar and Harishanker to the Police Station for reporting the incident. All the other villagers who were present during the preparation of report supported the version of Vishwanath given to the Investigating Officer but the Investigating Officer did not produce any of such independent witnesses to corroborate the prosecution witnesses story in Trial Court. Banwari was arrested from his house in Benipur at 5:30 A.M. on 03.05.1987 along with his licensed SBBL rifle.

58. According to the settled legal position as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Dahari and others vs. State of Uttar Pradesh reported in (2012) 10 SCC 256, the testimonies of related witnesses or interested witnesses cannot be discarded solely on the ground of their relation to the deceased However, their testimonies need to be carefully examined before they are relied upon to convict the accused/ appellant.

59. If we scan the testimonies of witnesses of fact i.e. P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath having regard to the aforesaid legal position, we find that P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 are relatives of the deceased being cousin and father of the deceased respectively. Having developed a subsequent story of prior enmity between the appellants and the deceased, they can also be termed as interested witnesses.

60. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Periyasamy vs. State, rep. by the Inspector of Police, reported in 2024 SCC OnLine SC 314, has held that the testimonies of interested witness cannot be relied upon in want of corroboration of their testimonies by any other independent witness.

61. According to the written report, Ext. Ka-1, this incident occurred on 27.04.1987 at about 06:30 PM, when the appellants including two surviving appellants, namely, Moti Lal and Jagdish sprang from an agricultural field while the first informant, Damodar Prasad, his uncle, Vishwanath and the deceased, Shiv Kumar were returning to their village. The appellant, Jagdish exhorted and shot the deceased from a firearm, which he was carrying. The appellant, Baburam inflicted injuries to the deceased by a knife. The appellants thereafter dragged the deceased into an adjoining sugarcane field of Raghuvar and also threatened P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath of dire consequences, if they intervened or they go to police station to get the case lodged, which led P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 to return to their homes. It is only in the next morning i.e. on 28.04.1987, when they again went to trace the whereabouts of the deceased, where they found Shiv Kumar dead lying at place 'D' as shown in the site plan, Ex. ka-6. It is to be remembered that the incident occurred in the month of April and the alleged time of occurrence is stated to be 06:30 PM. If we take the prosecution story to be true for the sake of argument, we find it quite unnatural that P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath, being cousin and father of the deceased respectively, who had seen the deceased being shot by the appellant, Jagdish and stabbed by the appellant, Baburam, on returning to their home immediately after the incident on 27.04.1987, but neither informing other residents of the village about the incident nor making any efforts return to the spot to save the deceased or to know his whereabouts. We fail to understand as to what prevented the first informant to go to police station, which is situated at a distance of about six kms. from the place of occurrence to report the matter, because admittedly when the witnesses, P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath returned to their home, they were not prevented or obstructed by the appellants. According to the prosecution story, the accused, Jagdish, Banwari and Motilal were armed with firearms, accused, Baburam was armed with knife and accused, Mahesh was armed with lathi. The first informant, P.W.-1/ Damodar Prasad did not try to contact village chaukidar in order to inform him about this incident. Therefore, the conduct of of P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad, and P.W.-2, Vishwanath, who chose not to return to the crime scene along with the other residents of the village on 27.04.1987 in the evening to save the deceased, Shiv Kumar or to trace his whereabouts, lends support to the submission advanced by the learned counsel for the appellant that, in fact, P.W.-1, Damodar, and P.W.-2, Vishwanath had not witnessed the incident.

62. The submission advanced by learned A.G.A. that the first informant and other residents did not return to the place of occurrence in the late evening of 27.04.1987 nor did they go to the police station because of threat extended by the appellants, does not appear to to us to be sound for the reason that P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad has stated in his testimony that in the morning of 28.04.1987, when the first informant and other residents went to trace whereabouts of the deceased, they were armed with kantas and *lathi*s. When the prosecution witnesses had in their possession kantas and *lathi*s, the normal course of conduct would have been to go to crime scene on 27.04.1987 itself to save Mayaram or to trace whereabouts of the deceased, which the prosecution witnesses did not do and the explanation offered by the prosecution as discussed above, appears to us to be far from being convincing.

63. We find the presence of P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath at the place of occurrence doubtful for one more reason. In the postmortem report, Ex. Ka-14, there are seven ante-mortem injuries reported on the body of the deceased as stated above. Injury No.6 is a firearm injury where as injury No.5 is an incised wound, which could be inflicted by a knife. However, we have noticed also that the postmortem report, Ex. Ka-14 reveals fractured pelvic girdle and temporal base of skull was also found to be fractured into pieces, which suggest that the manner of assault was quite different from what has been stated by P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath.

64. We have also noticed that that in the site plan, Ex. Ka-6, the place, where the deceased was allegedly shot, has been shown as “A”. According to prosecution witnesses, after the deceased was shot and injured by knife, the deceased was dragged into nearby sugarcane field of Raghuvar. Thereafter, according to prosecution witnesses, they returned to their home. However, site plan, Ex. Ka-6 also reveals that the dead body of the deceased was found at place “D”, which is about 246 paces away from place “A” and still more distant from the sugarcane field of Raghuvar. If according to prosecution witnesses, the deceased was shot at place “A” and was thereafter dragged into nearby sugarcane field of Raghuvar, then, in that case, we do not see any reason as to why the dead body of the deceased would be dragged to place “D” from where it was finally recovered. It is quite unnatural to do so because half of the distance between the sugarcane field of Raghuvar wherein Shiv Kumar was pulled into after being shot at and point “D”, where the dead body of the deceased was recovered, is a chakroad, where movement of villagers is very common. There was always a possibility of the appellants having been noticed by local residents passing by on a summer evening. There is no prosecution witness, who had seen the appellants shifting the dead body of the deceased from the sugarcane field of Raghuvar to place point "D" or killing the deceased at point "D". This give rise to a reasonable suspicion about exact place of occurrence of this incident.

65. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Darshan Singh vs. State of Punjab, reported in (2024) 3 SCC 164, in paragraph No.31 has observed as under :-

"31. If the PWs had failed to mention in their statements under Section 161CrPC about the involvement of an accused, their subsequent statement before court during trial regarding involvement of that particular accused cannot be relied upon. Prosecution cannot seek to prove a fact during trial through a witness which such witness had not stated to police during investigation. The evidence of that witness regarding the said improved fact is of no significance. [See : (i) Rohtash v. State of Haryana [Rohtash v. State of Haryana, (2012) 6 SCC 589 : (2012) 3 SCC (Cri) 287] , (ii) Sunil Kumar Sambhudayal Gupta v. State of Maharashtra [Sunil Kumar Sambhudayal Gupta v. State of Maharashtra, (2010) 13 SCC 657 : (2011) 2 SCC (Cri) 375 : (2011) 72 ACC 699] , (iii) Rudrappa Ramappa Jainpur v. State of Karnataka [Rudrappa Ramappa Jainpur v. State of Karnataka, (2004) 7 SCC 422 : 2004 SCC (Cri) 1954] and (iv) Vimal Suresh Kamble v. Chaluverapinake Apal S.P. [Vimal Suresh Kamble v. Chaluverapinake Apal S.P., (2003) 3 SCC 175 : 2003 SCC (Cri) 596]"

(emphasis supplied by us)

66. P.W.-5, Phool Singh Bhadauriya, the Investigating Officer, in his testimony, has stated that the first informant, P.W.-1/ Damodar Prasad had not stated in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that there were marks of dragging from place "A" to the sugarcane field of Raghuvar. P.W.-1 had also not stated that on the date of incident, he had gone to sawmill for getting the wood logs sawed at about 03:00 PM in the afternoon. P.W.-2, Vishwanath had also not stated in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that the accused persons had dragged the deceased into the sugarcane field of Raghuvar. We also find that it is the P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad, who has deposed that the dead body of the deceased was found in the grove of Hardayal. However, he, for reasons best known to him, did not mention this fact in the written report, Ex. Ka-1 and he has tried to offer an explanation thereof by saying that he did not mention this fact in the written report, Ex. Ka-1 as it would have made the written report lengthy. We find this explanation to be untenable for the reason that inclusion of such an important fact would have hardly rendered the first information report to be lengthy; rather inclusion of such fact in the written report, Ex. Ka-1 would have made it more trustworthy.

67. We also find it very strange that P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad, who lodged the F.I.R., had stated in the written report, Ext. Ka-1 that the deceased was shot by the accused, Jagdish whereas the accused, Baburam had inflicted injury on the back of head of the deceased by a knife. However, this witness, in his cross-examination as P.W.-1, has stated that when he saw the dead body of the deceased in the morning of 28.04.1987, he had not seen any injury on the body of the deceased. It also shows that P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad neither had seen the incident nor had he gone to the grove of Hardayal, where the dead body of the deceased was found, because the postmortem report, Ex. Ka-14 reveals as many as seven visible injuries on the body of the deceased, which are of such nature, which cannot escape any ordinary man's attention. Therefore, P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad appears to us to be unreliable.

68. Thus, for all the aforesaid reasons, we find the presence of P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath on 27.04.1987 at around 06:30 PM at the place of occurrence to be doubtful and their testimonies to be unreliable.

69. The possibility of false implication of appellants in this case cannot be ruled out because of a subsequently developed story of existence of prior enmity between the parties. Prior enmity is always held to be a double edged weapon, which can also be a tool of false implication. In this regard, the judgment of Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Nagaraj Reddy vs. State of Tamil Nadu may be usefully referred to.

70. In Md Jabbar Ali and others Vs. State of Assam, reported in 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1440, decided on 17.10.2022, the Supreme Court was considering an appeal against judgement of the Guwahati High Court, affirming conviction of all the nine appellants. The case of the prosecution was that on 19.11.1999 at about 7 A.M. when P.W.-6 had gone to his land an altercation took place between him and accused No.11. At that time other accused armed with deadly weapons surrounded the victim and one of them stabbed him in the abdomen. As a result of which the deceased Akbar Ali fell unconscious and succumbed to his injury shortly. P.W.-1 and P.W.-4 were also injured, though not fatally. Thereafter, the other accused present at the place of the occurrence who were armed with deadly weapons surrounded the deceased and so no other person could come and prevent the commission of all offences.

The Trial Court on consideration of evidence on record came to the following conclusions: –

The evidence of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, both injured witnesses lent support to each other and were corroborated with medical evidence and the presence of these witnesses at the place of the occurrence could not be doubted, on basis of minor variations in the evidence of P.W.-6 who was the informant in the case. There was no ground to disbelieve the version of P.W.-6 which corroborated the evidence of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2.

Discrepancies were due to normal errors of memory and due to lapse of time. The defence had failed to establish that persons accused were not present at the place of the occurrence at the time of the incident and that they did not kill the deceased. The F.I.R. was lodged promptly, all the accused were named in the F.I.R. The parties were known to each other, and the fact that all the accused had come to the place of occurrence, armed with deadly weapons clearly indicates that the accused had intention to kill the deceased.

71. The High Court considered the submissions made on behalf of the appellant as well as the State and affirmed the judgement mainly because the deceased as well as other prosecution witnesses had received injuries caused by sharp weapons and it observed that there is settled law that evidence tendered by different prosecution witnesses have to be considered as a whole and such evidence could be put in different compartments and considered separately.

72. The counsel for the respondent-State had supported the judgement of the High Court and of the Trial Court and argued that the case was of clinching evidence and the involvement of the accused had been proven beyond reasonable doubt by the prosecution on the strength of deposition of injured witnesses, P.W.-1, P.W.-2, P.W.-4 and P.W.-5 which was corroborated by medical evidence duly proved on record. The minor discrepancies in the evidence of some of the prosecution witnesses could not demolish the consistent evidence of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 and P.W.-5. The State-respondent placed reliance upon Sohrab Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 1972 (3) SCC 751; Bharwada Bhoginbhai Hirji Bhai Vs. State of Gujarat, 1983 (3) SCC 217; State of U.P. Vs. M.K. Anthony, 1985 (1) SCC 505; Prithu @ Prithi Chand Vs. State of Himachal Pradesh, 2009 (11) SCC 588; and State of Madhya Pradesh Vs. Chhaakki Lal, 2019 (12) SCC 326.

73. The Supreme Court on re-appreciation of evidence of the prosecution witnesses noted that P.W.-1 who was also an injured witness stated that on the day of the occurrence Shahid Ali had extorted the other accused to attack Akbar Ali and Jabar Ali had stabbed Akbar Ali with a spear. P.W.-3 was not an eye witness but on information he had deposed that he went to the place of the occurrence and found Akbar Ali lying dead and P.W.-4 had informed him that Moin Ali had killed Akbar Ali. P.W.-4 stated in his evidence that he saw injuries on the abdomen of Akbar Ali who was assaulted by Hassan Ali but he had not seen Hassan Ali assaulting Akbar Ali. The Court on analysis of evidence came to the conclusion that there were variations in the evidence of P.W.-6, who was the first informant with the evidence of P.W.-1 P.W.-2 and P.W.-4, as to who gave the fatal blows that caused the death of Akbar Ali. When it was not clear as to who stabbed the deceased Akbar Ali, the Trial Court as well as the High Court should not have relied on the evidence of such witnesses which was highly inconsistent with each other in holding the accused guilty. The Court also noted that all the witnesses that had been examined were related to each other and to the deceased and there were inherent contradictions in their evidence.

74. The Supreme Court noted that great weight had been attached to the testimonies of related witnesses. In the said case and the credibility of such witnesses who were related witnesses ought to have been examined with greater care to rule out any tainted evidence given in the Court of law. It is true that just because witnesses are related/interested/partisan witnesses, their testimonies cannot be disregarded, but it is also true that their testimonies have to be scrutinized with greater care and circumspection. The Supreme Court placed reliance upon Gangadhar Behera and Others Vs. State of Orissa, 2002 (8) SCC 381*; Raju @ Balachandran Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, 2000 (12) SCC 701, Dileep Singh Vs. State, AIR 1953 Supreme Court 364, Sarvan Singh Vs. State, 1976 (4) SCC 369, Ganpati and Another Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, 2018 (5) SCC 549*, where the Supreme Court had observed that evidence of related or interested witnesses should be meticulously and carefully examined and the rule of prudence requires that evidence of such witnesses should be scrutinized with greater care. When only family members are present at the time of the incident and the case of the prosecution is based only on their evidence, Courts have to be cautious in evaluating their evidence during trial. The evidence of related witnesses can be rejected if there are material contradictions and inconsistencies found in their evidence. The Court also noted that the witnesses had given contradictory versions as to who gave the fatal blow to the deceased. The Court relied upon State of Rajasthan Vs. Kalki and Another, 1981 (2) SCC 752, where the Supreme Court had distinguished between normal discrepancies and material discrepancies and that the Courts have to label as to in which category a discrepancy can be categorised. Material discrepancy will corrode the credibility of the prosecution case while insignificant discrepancies do not do so. The Supreme Court thereafter noted that there being material discrepancies in the testimonies of witnesses, the prosecution had failed to prove the guilt of the accused beyond doubt. Additionally, the prosecution had examined only related witnesses and not a single independent witness. The injuries caused to P.W.-1 P.W.-2 and P.W.-4 and P.W.-5 were simple in nature caused by blunt objects and the Trial Court as well as the High Court had grossly erred in convicting and sentencing the accused, only on the basis of evidence of such injured witnesses.

75. In Mahendra Singh and Others Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, reported in (2022) 7 SCC 157, decided on 03.06.2022, the Supreme Court was considering an appeal against an order of the High Court, confirming conviction under Section 148 and 302, read with Section 149 I.P.C. The Trial Court as well as the High Court had relied upon the testimony of Amol Singh P.W.-6, who was the real brother of the deceased Bhagat Singh. The Supreme Court relied upon judgement rendered in Vadivelu Thevar Vs. State of Madras (supra) and observed that the testimony of a related/ interested witness was to be read with greater care and caution, and after examining it in detail found him to be a wholly unreliable witness. The Court instead relied upon evidence of D.W.-3 and D.W.-4 whose statements could not be shaken during cross examination. The Court observed that it is a settled law that same treatment is required to be given to defence witnesses as is to be given to prosecution witnesses, and from the evidence of these witnesses, it was amply clear Amol Singh P.W.-6 could not have witnessed the incident of murder of the deceased. No conviction could be based on his testimony. The corroboration from medical evidence also was not available as medical evidence could only establish that the death was homicidal. Such medical evidence could not establish that P.W.-6 had witnessed the incident. Only because prosecution has proved that motive is established, conviction cannot be sustained. The Court set aside the conviction and allowed the appeals.

76. In Khema alias Khem Chandra and others Vs. State of U.P., reported in* (2023) 10 SCC 451, the Supreme Court was considering the judgement of this Court, dismissing the appeal filed by the appellants confirming the Trial Court order convicting the appellants for offences punishable under Section 302, read with Section 149, Section 307, read with Section 149 and Section 148 of the I.P.C. and sentencing them to imprisonment for life with a fine of ₹5000 each. The prosecution story was that the deceased Prakash was going to extend invitation for his two daughters' weddings in the village and he was attacked by the accused with Farsa and club/Lathi and Danda and country made pistols in the morning at about 8 A.M. of 27.04.2002. Two brothers of the deceased Omveer P.W.-1 and Inder P.W.-2 along with their sister, Omvati and Kripa wife of the deceased Prakash also received injuries.

77. The Supreme Court after going through the judgement of the Trial Court and the High Court found that conviction of the accused was based on the testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2, and corroboration of such testimonies was done from the recoveries made on the basis of memorandum of accused under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. The Court thereafter analysed the testimony of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 who were both brothers of the deceased, and as such would fall in the category of interested witnesses. However, the Court also observed that their testimony cannot be discarded only on the ground that witnesses are interested witnesses. Although their testimony is required to be scrutinized with greater care and circumspection. The Court found several discrepancies in the version of the incident given by P.W.-1 and by P.W.-2. The Court doubted their version and the possibility of some fabrication in the injury certificate could not be ruled out.

78. The Supreme Court noticed that there were material improvements in the evidence of P.W.-2. It had also come out that there was previous enmity between the accused and the deceased. The Supreme Court referred to Ramashish Rai Vs. Jagdish Singh, 2005 (10) SCC 498; where it was observed that previous enmity is a double edged sword. On the one hand, it provides motive to the crime and on the other there is a possibility of false implication.

The Supreme Court also placed reliance upon Vadivelu Thevar Vs. State of Madras, 1957 SCR 981; and observed:

"– – –. Hence in our opinion, it is a sound and well established rule of law that the court is concerned with the quality and not with the quantity of evidence necessary for proving a fact. Generally, speaking, oral testimony in the this context, may be classified into three categories, namely:

Wholly reliable.

Wholly unreliable

Neither wholly reliable nor wholly unreliable

In the first category of proof, the Court should have no difficulty in coming to its conclusion either way – it may convict, or may acquit on the testimony of a single witness, if it is found to be above reproach or suspicion of interestedness, incompetence, or subornation. In the second category, the Court equally has no difficulty in coming to its conclusion. It is in the third category of cases, that the Court has to be circumspect and has to look for corroboration in material particulars by reliable testimony, direct or circumstantial – –".

79. The Supreme Court found the testimony of P.W.-2 as falling under the third category and need was felt for its corroboration. For such corroboration the Trial Court had relied upon recoveries of weapons made at the instance of the accused. The Court found that such recoveries/seizure memo was not prepared in accordance with the Rules. The Court, therefore, allowed the appeal and set aside the conviction of the appellants.

80. We have gone through the original Trial Court records and Exhibit Ka-1 which is a copy of the written report submitted at P. S. Hargaon by P.W.-1. It has been pointed out by Sri Rishad Murtaza that the paper on which the written report was submitted does not have any creases on it to show that it was folded and kept in the pocket of P.W.-1 while taking it from his home in the village Benipur to the Police Station. We are of the considered opinion that although P.W.-1 had stated during his cross examination that he had taken a paper and blue refill pen from his neighbour Bhagwandas and a file cover from his own home it is quite unnatural that a person whose paternal cousin was attacked in front of his own eyes by his other cousins, would be so meticulous and farsighted as to take a file cover along with him to keep the plain piece of paper so that it is not creased at all while submitting his report at the Police Station.

81. We have also noticed that P.W.-1 while writing the report did not mention that all the accused were close relatives of P.W.-1 and belonged to the extended family of the deceased sharing a common ancestor. P.W.-1 has mentioned in his written report that the accused belonged to the same village Benipur without mentioning their relation with the deceased or with himself. In the natural course of things if a person knows the accused well, he would not only mention their names but also the relation with the deceased.

82. After having given our thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions in the light of testimonies of alleged witnesses of fact, namely, P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath, we do agree that in this incident, the deceased, Shiv Kumar had died, however, for all the aforesaid reasons, we do not find testimonies of witnesses of fact, P.W.-1, Damodar Prasad and P.W.-2, Vishwanath, who are related and interested witnesses, to be fully reliable so as to base conviction of surviving appellants on their testimonies only. Therefore, we hold that the prosecution has failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt and the trial court committed an error in holding the surviving appellants guilty of offences under Sections 148 and 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C.

83. In conclusion, we are of the considered opinion that the present criminal appeal deserves to be allowed and the same is, accordingly, allowed. Consequently, the impugned judgment and order dated 11.05.1990 is set aside. The surviving accused-appellants, Moti Lal and Jagdish are acquitted of charges under Sections 148 and 302 read with Section 149 I.P.C.

84. The surviving appellants No.2 and 4, Moti Lal and Jagdish are on bail. Their bail bonds are hereby cancelled and sureties are discharged.

85. The surviving appellants No.2 and 4, Moti Lal and Jagdish are directed to file the personal bonds and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned in compliance of Section 437-A Cr.P.C. within six weeks from today.

86. Let a copy of this judgment be also sent to the trial court concerned along with trial court record for its information and necessary compliance forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 80
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTHA VARMA, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 802 of 1982

Jagdish & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri Siddharth Shukla, Sri Arvind Kumar Maurya, Sri Om Prakash Verma, Sri Vivek

Prasad Mathur, Sri Ganesh Shankar Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-302, 307, 323 r/w 34 - Criminal appeal against judgment and order of conviction- PW-1 St.d that she got up because she had to facilitate her two months' old child to defecate. However, when the excreta was not present on the spot and when the Investigating Officer did not mention about the presence of any excreta in the site plan, she came up with a story that the excreta had flown away because of the heavy rain- Testimony of PW-2 and PW-3 suggests that the presence of accused-appellants are doubtful at the place of incident. The PW-2 and PW-3 St.d that they had been prevented by fourth accused to reach at the place of incident does not inspire confidence- First informant St.d that she and her husband (deceased) were staying in her Myika, that St.ment also is not very believable- No person can be convicted on the basis of doubt- Impugned judgment & order set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Upon an incident, having taken place in the intervening night of 19th and 20th July 1980, a First Information Report was lodged on 20.7.1980. Ram Jiyawan Tripathi scribed the tehrir on the dictation of the first informant, Radhika Devi. In the F.I.R. it was stated that on the previous night, while the first informant and her husband Buchnoo Tiwari were sleeping in the Veranda of their house in village Dulahi, Police Station Khesraha, District Basti, after having their dinner etc., at around 12 mid-night because of the call of nature, the younger daughter, who was sleeping with the first informant, woke up. The complainant was trying to ease the child, and at that moment, four persons reached the place of the incident with country-made pistols and lathies. When the first informant asked them not to come near her and her husband then, the assailant, Jagdish, son of Ram Dulare, who was having country-made pistol in this hand, fired on the husband of the first informant. Thereafter, the first informant, caught hold of Jagdish. Thereupon, Jagdish exhorted his friends to kill the husband of the first informant. Upon this exhortation, Vishdhar alias Shridhar, son of Shiv Moorat, fired a second shot at the husband of the first informant and Ram Achal, son of Mitthoo, who also accompanied them, pushed the first informant aside. As a result, the first informant fell. Also, Jagdish slapped her. When all this was happening, the first informant raised a hue and cry and, therefore, Ram Jiyawan Tiwari, son of Munnu Tripathi, Bhagwan Dutt son of Mannar and a lot of persons of the village with lanterns and torch came to the house of the first informant. The crowd that had collected at the house of the first informant tried to chase the accused persons but they ran away. However, because of the firearm injuries, the husband of the first informant died. She mentioned Jagdish and Ram Achal's motives in the first information report. Because of certain litigation with regard to her land, the husband, i.e., the deceased, who was doing pairvy in the cases, was killed. She stated in the first information report that the dead-body of her husband was lying in the house itself and while she had gone to lodge the first information report, the injured daughter Poonam was with her devar.

2. The lodging of the first information report had set into motion the investigating agencies and they recovered the torches of the witnesses Bhagwan Dutt Tiwari and Narad Tiwari and took them into custody. Also, the mud where the blood was found, was taken into custody. The lantern and cot were also taken into custody. When the search was made in the house of the accused, no firearm etc. was recovered. The injury report and post mortem report were also prepared. Upon the charge-sheet having been submitted, the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Basti, on 03.12.1980 framed charges against Jagdish, Ram Achal and Vishdhar @ Sridhar under Sections 323, 302, 307 read with Section 34 of I.P.C. The trial commenced when the accused persons denied the charges and prayed for trial.

3. From the side of the prosecution as many as ten witnesses were produced and examined.

4. PW-1-Radhika Devi, the first informant, proved the first information report and gave her side of the story. She has stated in her testimony that Buchnoo Tiwari (deceased) was her husband. Vansh Gopal was her father, and she was the only daughter of her father. When she was one and half years of age then her mother died. She further stated that her father, Vansh Gopal, had never remarried, and when she grew up, her father married her. At the time of marriage, he had given her ten bighas of agricultural land and when Vansh Gopal died, all the agricultural land and the properties were inherited by her. She stated that Vishdhar was Jagdish's brother-in-law (sala), and Ram Achal was Jagdish's agriculture labourer (someone who helped in agriculture work). She stated that someone had impersonated herself and sold her properties to Jagdish and his brother Keshav. Upon coming to know about this execution of the sale-deed, Buchnoo Tiwari and Jagdish became inimical. At the time of the incident, civil cases were going on with regard to the land in question. She stated that she had four children; two sons and two daughters. At the time of the incident, the youngest daughter was one and half months to two month old, the daughter Poonam, who was older than the youngest daughter, was 3 to 4 years old and the sons were older than two daughters and were aged about 10 to 7 years. She had stated that her house in the village was a hut with two rooms and one Veranda. The house faced towards the East. Also on the East was the sahan of the house. The animals were tied on the Southern and Eastern side of the house. On the date of the incident, she states in her testimony, Buchnoo Tiwari and she herself were lying down on two separate cots. The youngest daughter was sleeping with her and one who was elder to her was sleeping with her husband Buchnoo Tiwari and the two sons were sleeping inside the house. She came for sleeping in the Veranda because they had to look after the animals. She had stated that, like always, the lantern lit in the Veranda and the cots were in the North-South direction. After they had their food and slept, the youngest daughter had a call of nature, and she had risen to ease her. Then, the accused persons, Jagdish, Vishdhar and Ram Achal, reached the house. Along with them was one more person she did not recognize. Jagdish and Vishdhar had country-made pistols, and Ram Achal had a lathi. The fourth persons she could not recognize was having a lathi with him. As soon as Jagdish entered into the Veranda of the house, he fired on the husband of the first informant. The first informant immediately left the child whom she was carrying and caught hold of Jagdish. She recognized Jagdish who was present in the Court.

5. Upon Jagdish having been incapacitated as the first informant held him, he exhorted Vishdhar to kill her husband, and thereupon Vishdhar fired upon the husband of the first informant. When Vishdhar fired, a few of the pellets also injured the daughter of the first informant, who was sleeping with the husband. Because of the firing, the husband of the first informant died. After that, Ram Achal pushed aside the first informant, who fell down on her back and Jagdish also slapped her. As a result, she had certain scratches on her back and was injured. After the incident, the four accused ran away, realizing that the villagers might reach the place of incident. However, Bhagwan Dutt, who had reached the house by the time the incident was over, had tried to catch hold of the accused persons. When the second shot had been fired, Bhagwan Dutt, Ram Jiyawan and Narad had reached the spot with lathis, etc., and they had seen the whole incident. Ram Jiyawan, in fact, tied a piece of cloth on the injury that had been caused to the husband of the first informant. On the next day, i.e. on the day after the incident had occurred, the first information report was lodged by the first informant. She had dictated the first information report to Ram Jiyawan Tripathi, a villager teacher. After he had written it down, he had also read it out to the first informant, and after she was satisfied with the contents, she had put her thumb impression on the FIR. PW-1 proved the first information report and said that it was the document, which was Exhibit-Ka-1. After Ram Jiyawan had written the report, he was taken by Balram to the Police Station. Along with the first information report, he had also taken the first informant and her daughter -Poonam, who was injured, to the Police Station. When the Inspector had come to the house of the first informant, he had found the dead body of her husband, the lantern and the cot, and he had prepared a recovery memo with regard to the lantern and the cot. On the next day, the injury report was prepared.

6. In her cross-examination, the first informant stood firm to what she had stated in her examination-in-chief. In the examination-in-chief, she had stated that Chhagur, Mannar and Munnu are of her village and were all related. Narad and Balram are the sons of Chhagur. She had stated that Bhagwan Dutt (PW-2), who was also a prosecution witness and an eye-witness, is the son of Mannar. She had stated that Bhagwan Dutt and Ram Jiyawan are related to each other. She had also stated that they are not her relatives and that she was the only child of her parents. She has categorically stated that they are the relatives of her husband. Upon being asked whether her husband Buchnoo Tiwari, Vanshraj, Munnu Tiwari, Mannar Tiwari, Kalika Tiwari were accused in some case of theft, etc., she said that she did not know about that fact. She, in fact, denied of having known any criminal case which was going on against her husband and his father, Vansh Raj. She also denied any criminal case vis-a-vis Ram Achal involving her husband. Upon a question being asked that her actual father was Ram Dev, she denied the fact and insisted that Vansh Gopal was her father. She stated on oath that her husband - Buchnoo Tiwari was staying in her father's house. The actual house of Buchnoo Tiwari was in Village-Gothwa, which had, because of it being dilapidated, fallen, and, therefore, he was also staying in her house. In her testimony, she said that the incident had happened in the month of Ashadh (which is equivalent to July-August). She had stated that on the date of incident, it was drizzling and that the clouds were there in the sky. The night was dark, and it was raining, and because of the fact that her elder daughter was suffering from chicken pox, the first informant had kept the lantern on, and also, for the four previous nights, the lantern was lit. She has stated that when Bhagwan Dutt reached the house of the first informant, the accused person had run away and that it was raining heavily. Upon a question probably being asked, as to where the excreta of the young child was, she said that because of there being heavy rains, the excreta had got washed away. When the accused persons had run away, she had held her husband and wept. She was not aware as to whether the blood had got stuck to her clothes as well. She has stated that the Veranda had no plinth and that Jagdish had fired while he was getting down. Nobody had hit the first appellant and the deceased with lathis. In the Veranda no pellet, etc., was found, and the pellets that had entered the chest of her husband were lying there. Upon being asked as to whether the her husband's father, Vansh Raj, was under the observation of the Police, she replied that she did not know about that. She only stated that her case about her property was decreed in the Munsif's Court, and the appeal was pending. Before the date when the appeal was to be argued, the incident had occurred, and the husband of the first informant was killed. She has stated that the appeal was still pending. She denied the fact that the husband of the first informant had many enemies and that any of those enemies might have come and killed her husband.

7. The PW-2 Bhagwan Dutt appeared in the witness box and gave his statement and had categorically stated that in the night of 19th and 20th July, 1980 he was sleeping in his house and had woken up to answered the call of nature. At mid-night, he went out with his torch to check out if his cattle were properly tethered and upon finding that one particular animal was not found at its place, he called out his brother Kalika Tiwari and informed him about the missing animal and also went out to search for the animal. When he reached the house of Deena Nath Pandey, then, he heard the sound of the gunshot being fired from the side of the house of Buchnoo Tiwari and also heard the shouting of the wife of Buchnoo Tiwari i.e. Radhika (first informant). The witness, after that, stated that he ran towards the house of Buchnoo Tiwari and he also found that a lantern was lit in the Vernadah of that house. In the light of the torch and the lantern, he saw Radhika was holding Jagdish and was shouting at the top of her voice that Jagdish was holding a country made pistol. He had also heard that Jagdish had exhorted Vishdhar to kill Buchnoo and thereupon, Vishdhar had fired upon the Buchnoo Tiwari. He had also seen the incident where Ram Achal had pushed Radhika, and thereafter, Jagdish had slapped Radhika. He also stated that he did not recognize the fourth person. He has stated that he, his brother and one Narad had tried to catch hold the accused persons, but they could not do so. Upon coming back to the house of Buchnoo Tiwari, he found that Buchnoo Tiwari was dead and that he was covered with blood. He also found that the daughter of Radhika, who was sleeping with Buchnoo Tiwari, had also got injured. Radhika, while weeping, narrated the whole incident, and when the Police came to their house, they had told the incident to the Police. He had also stated that he had given his torch to the Police, which was taken in custody, and a recovery memo was prepared. He has also mentioned about the case which was going on between Radhika and the accused persons. In his cross-examination, he had stood firm and had answered the questions as were put to him. He had stated that his house was a little away from the house of the complainant but because of his cattle had got freed from where he had tethered them, he had chased the cattle and, therefore, had reached near the place of the incident. He also stated that when he was chasing his cattle, it was not raining, and it was a dark night. The time gap between the two fires was one to one and one half minutes. He had stated that when the fourth man, whom he did not recognize, scolded him as to why he had stopped around 16-17 steps away from the place of incident. He had again categorically stated that on the date of incident, it was intermittently raining, but it was not raining heavily.

8. PW-3 Ram Jiyawan Tripathi was also an eye-witness and had virtually repeated what the PW-2 had stated. He, however, had stated that his house was around 30 steps away from the house of PW-2 and that the house of Bhagwan Dutt from the house of the place of incident was at 200-250 steps away.

9. PW-4 is the Police Constable-Mannu Yadav and he was the person who had taken the daughter of complainant for medical examination.

10. PW-5-Raj Narayan Gupta, the X-ray Technician had proved the x-ray report etc.

11. PW-6-Dr. B.P. Shukla had conducted the post-mortem of the deceased and had proved the postmortem.

12. PW-7-Dr. S.C. Tripathi, the Radiologist, who had done x-ray of the elder daughter of the deceased.

13. PW-8-Dr. U.K. Prasad had examined the injuries of Poonam and Radhika.

14. PW-9-Ashok Kumar Rai was the Investigating Officer. He had stated in his cross-examination that he was not aware whether it had rained in the night of the incident, but he stated that after he had reached, it did rain. He had also proved the recovery memo, etc.

15. PW-10-Shri Bakey Yadav Constable stated that he was posted as a constable at Police Station Khesaraha in July, 1980 and had taken the dead-body for postmortem.

16. After that, the accused's statements under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. were recorded.

17. Upon the completion of trial, the Additional Sessions Judge-I, Basti convicted the appellants Jagdish, Vishdhar @ Sreedhar, and Ram Achal and found them guilty under Sections 302 read with Section 34, 307 read with Section 34 and 323 read with section 34 on 23.3.1982 aggrieved by same the instant criminal appeal was filed.

18. During the pendency of the criminal appeal, the appellant, Jagdish died and thus, appeal abated qua him. Shri Ganesh Shankar Srivastava, learned Advocate argued for Ram Achal, and the appellant, Vishdhar @ Sreedhar, is represented by Shri Vivek Prasad Mathur, Advocate and they, argued thus :

(i) There is no independent eye-witness to prove the allegations. PW-1 is the wife, and PW-2 and PW-3 are relatives of the deceased, therefore their testimony can't be relied upon.

(ii) It has further been stated that there are contradictions in the statements of PW-1 and PW-2. PW-1 had given a reason for getting up at mid-night and it was that she had got up to facilitate the easing of her younger child, who was to defecate. He further submits that the actual excreta was never found on the spot nor was it mentioned in the site plan, which was prepared immediately after the incident, by the Investigating Officer. To explain that the excreta had got washed away, the PW-1 had stated that it was raining heavily. While opposite to this statement, learned counsel for the appellants stated that PW-2, PW-3 and the Investigating Officer all had stated that it was not raining heavily and that it was only raining intermittently and that too after large intervals and, therefore, the excreta could not have got washed away.

(iii) Learned counsel submits that the first informant had given a reason for getting up in the night but the fact remained that she was not there and had given a wrong reason. When the excreta was not found, she stated it had been washed away. But this fact was not corroborated by the other witness, who had stated that it was only intermittently raining.

(iv) Learned counsel for the appellants has further argued that the PW-2 stated that he was carrying a torch when he approached the deceased's house. He submits that when the lantern was lit, then the torch ought not to have been lit. By lighting the torch, the witness would have exposed themselves to the accused persons.

(v) Learned counsel for the appellants further stated that the first informant's motive was also not very convincing. Motive can always be a double edged weapon. The first informant was aware that a civil case was pending between herself and the accused person and, therefore, she could have easily implicated the accused persons. Learned counsel for the appellants further stated that as per the statement of PW-2, he was directed/ordered by the fourth person, who was present and whose name none of them could tell, to stay away and, therefore, he had stopped around 16-17 steps away from the place of incident and, therefore, all the narrations which he was giving in his testimony was a cooked-up narration as it was all taken from the first information report and statements of PW-1. Nothing was original of his and, therefore, it can easily be said that PW-2, in fact, never reached the spot and had only to help the PW-1, become a witness in the case and stated all wrong facts.

(vi) Learned counsel for the appellants subsequently stated that the pellets which were found could not be connected with any firearm. He, in fact, submits that no firearm was ever recovered. Learned counsel for the appellants states that the appellant no.3 Jagdish was, in fact, not at the spot and lived far away from the place of incident.

(vii) Learned counsel for the appellants states that the first informant was close to the dead-body of the deceased and had held him tightly, but no bloodstain came on the clothes of the first informant, meaning thereby that all the story which she had narrated was a concocted one. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter stated that as per the ages given under Section 313 of Cr.P.C., the appellants no.2 and 3 namely Vishdhar and Ram Achal, are alive and had crossed 60 years of age, and they were now very elderly persons and that even if they were convicted, their sentences be reduced. Learned counsel for the appellants further submits that the incident was of the year 1980, and the appellants who were alive had already undergone the trauma of being an accused for a fairly long period, i.e. almost 44 years.

(viii) Learned counsel for the appellants further states that Balram Tiwari, who could have been a relevant witness and who had taken the tehrir to the Police Station along with the child, was not brought in the witness box as a witness. He submits that even Narad Tiwari, who was present at the spot and was an eye-witness, was not produced as a witness and, therefore, submits there were major lacuna in the case of the prosecution.

(ix) Learned counsel for the appellant has stated that there was every possibility that Radhika Devi had done away with the deceased and was implicating the accused. He submits that a fake Radhika Devi had replaced the real Radhika Devi, and she had stated in her examination-in-chief that she, along with the deceased, was staying in her Maika. learned counsel states that this fact was wrong as, in fact, all the witnesses, namely PW-2 and PW-3, were related to the deceased. The impersonated Radhika now wanted to make use of the decrees which were in favour of the real Radhika, by killing the deceased.

19. Smt. Archana Singh, learned A.G.A., however, has opposed the appeal and has submitted that PW-1, who was the wife of the deceased, was an eye-witness whose testimony could not be disbelieved. She had lost her husband and well recognized the accused persons. The fact could not be disbelieved where she stated in the first information report and her statement before the Court that she recognized the accused persons. Learned A.G.A. further submitted that even if there were small discrepancies in the evidence of the other prosecution witnesses, then that could not jeopardize the prosecution's case. Learned A.G.A. states that under no circumstances, the place of incident, the medical evidence, the source of light, the time of the incident, etc., be questioned.

20. Learned counsel for the appellants had tried to convince the Court that the PW-1, i.e. the first informant, was not an eye witness but had concocted the entire story. Picking up threads from the statement of the PW-1, they have argued that PW-1 had stated that the deceased was staying with her parents in village, but she has produced the PW-2 & PW-3, who were related to the deceased (husband). We find that none of the witnesses, who had appeared in the witness box, were relating to PW-1, the first informant.

21. Further, we find that PW-1 had given a fake story that gave a reason for her to wake-up in the mid-night. She stated that she got up because she had to facilitate her two months' old child to defecate. However, when the excreta was not present on the spot and when the Investigating Officer did not mention about the presence of any excreta in the site plan, she came up with a story that the excreta had flown away because of the heavy rain. About the heavy rain that PW-1 mentioned, we find that there are actual contradictions in the statements of the PW-2 and PW-3. They do not, in fact, mention a heavy rain, the Investigating Officer, had only mentioned intermittent rainfall.

22. The testimony of PW-2 and PW-3 suggests that the presence of accused-appellants are doubtful at the place of incident. The PW-2 and PW-3 stated that they had been prevented by fourth accused to reach at the place of incident does not inspire confidence and thus, are disbelieved.

23. We also find that the PW-2 and PW-3 were the relatives of the deceased and, therefore, when the first informant Radhika stated that she and her husband (deceased) were staying in her Myika, that statement also is not very believable. Therefore, doubt has definitely been created in our minds, and no person can be convicted on the basis of doubt.

24. Under such circumstances, for all the reasons stated above, the appeal, therefore, stands allowed. The judgment and order 23.3.1982 is set aside. The appellants before us, are acquitted of the charges levelled against them in the instant case. The appellant No.1 has already been died. The appellant nos. 2 and 3, Ram Achal and Vishdhar @ Sridhar were granted bail on 29.03.1982, therefore, their bail bonds as well as the sureties are discharged.

(2024) 5 ILRA 88
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTHA VARMA, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2474 of 2018
WITH
Criminal Appeal No. 2258 of 2018
WITH
Criminal Appeal No. 2326 of 2018
WITH
Criminal Appeal No.1982 of 2018
WITH
Criminal Appeal No. 1993 of 2018

Ratan Pahalwan ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Prashant Kumar Singh, Ambrish Kumar Kashyap, Arun Kumar Shukla, Ashok Kumar Tripathi, Saurabh Sachan

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A., Dharmendra Pratap Singh, J.P. Singh

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-148, 149 &302 -The Arms Act-1959- Sections 4/25-Criminal appeal against judgment and order of conviction for life imprisonment-the testimony of the witness of the PW-1 who is the mother is not at all believable. She has changed stands very frequently. She has introduced so many things like the peepal tree and Shiv Sewak at her convenience and the peepal tree is not to be found even in the site-plan. In fact the Investigating Officer who was PW-10 St.s that the PW-1 had never told him about the peepal tree. It appears strange that the site-plan was prepared at the telling of the PW-1; that would mean that in fact the site-plan was also prepared not at the spot but somewhere else-Despite the fact that she mentioned that she did not know the addresses of the assailants before the Court, in the FIR she had mentioned the addresses and the parentage of all the accused persons-The mother of the deceased had St.d that the deceased had died on the spot and was lying dead but despite that the police had taken the dead to the Hallet Hospital. which raises a big question mark to the fact as to whether the deceased was found at the spot where, it is alleged, he was killed. The panchayatnama ought to have taken place at the place where the deceased lay dead-The ballistic report from the forensic lab was also never received and taken into account by the prosecution-Result Impugned order quashed.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Siddhartha Varma, J.
&
Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. These appeals have been filed against the judgment and order dated 22.3.2018 passed by the Additional District & Sessions Judge, Court No.12, Kanpur Nagar convicting the appellants-Ratan Pahalwan, Mahesh @ Maheshiya, Mewalal, Ram Kumar Mallah, Suresh @ Mandir and Vikas Maurya for life imprisonment under section 302 read with section 149 IPC. A fine of Rs.50,000/- had also been imposed on each of the convict and in the event of non-depositing of fine, they had to undergo additional imprisonment of 180 days. Also, the accused Ratan Pahalwan, Ram Kumar Mallah and Vikas Maurya, under section 4/25 of the Arms Act, were sentenced for one year rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs.1000/- each was imposed and in the event of non-depositing of the fine, they had to undergo 30 days' additional imprisonment. The Accused Mahesh @ Maheshiya; Suresh @ Mandir and Mewalal were also sentenced for three years' rigorous imprisonment under section 25/27 of the Arms Act with a fine of Rs.3000/- each and in the event of non-depositing of fine, they had also to undergo 90 days' additional imprisonment. It was provided that all the sentences were to run concurrently.

2. Brief facts of the case are that on 30.7.2009 a First Information Report was lodged by one Gyanwati wife of Om Prakash. The FIR was got written on the dictation of Gyanwati by one Manoj Kumar son of Jamuna Prasad. In the FIR, it was mentioned that on 30.7.2009, the son of Gyanwati namely Sarvesh Pandit when was sitting with Munna Pandit and Dayaram in front of the Santoshi Maa Temple where a light bulb was on, at around 10.30 pm, Ratan Pahalwan son of Jagmohan, resident of 4/272 Purana Kanpur along with Mahesh @ Maheshi son of Ganga Prasad, r/o 5/237 Purana Kanpur; Ram Kumar Mallah and Suresh Mandir sons of Ganga Prasad, r/o 5/237 Purana Kanpur and Vikas son of Roshan Pahalwan who were armed with country made firearms and Chapad, approached Sarvesh Pandit and said that they would take the revenge of the death of Basant Pahalwan. Thereafter they surrounded Sarvesh and attacked him. Consequently, the son of the first informant died. In the FIR, the motive has been given that around 12-13 years prior to the lodging of the FIR, in the area of Police Station Nawabganj, Basant Pahalwan had been killed and in that the son of Gyanwati had been jailed and on account of this revenge, Ratan Pahalwan and others were inimical to her son and they always wanted to do away with him. Thereafter she categorically stated that the dead-body of her son Sarvesh Pandit was lying under a tree and she requested that investigation be undergone and justice be done.

3. Thereupon investigation ensued. Six accused were arrested and on 14.8.2009 at the pointing of Mahesh, a country made pistol of 315 bore was recovered. In that regard, a recovery memo was prepared and an FIR was lodged under section 4/25-A of the Arms Act. Similarly, the accused Ram Kumar Mallah on 14.8.2009 had got recovered a Chapad and against him also an FIR under the Arms Act was got lodged. On 30.8.2009, Vikas Maurya got recovered a Kulhadi (axe) and similarly against him also, an FIR under the Arms Act was got lodged. On 24.8.2009, Suresh @ Mandir had got recovered another .315 bore country made pistol and against him also, an FIR under the Arms Act was got lodged. On 7.9.2009, Mewa Lal son of Ganga Prasad had got another country made .315 bore pistol recovered and against him also, an FIR was got lodged. The firearms, as were recovered, were kept in the custody of the police and the recovery memos were accordingly prepared. From the spot, where the alleged murder had taken place, three empty cartridges and two bullets of .315 bore were recovered and they were kept in a tin box of which a recovery memo was prepared and was exhibited as Exhibit Ka-27. The plain soil and the soil on which there was blood was also recovered and a recovery memo was prepared and was exhibited as Exhibit Ka-28. After the FIR was lodged, the police had reached on the spot and had taken the body of Sarvesh Pandit to the Hallet Hospital where the Panchayatnama was got prepared. This happened on 31.7.2009. Thereafter the Constable Pradeep Kumar Rai took the dead-body for the post mortem.

4. Charges were framed by the police and they were forwarded to the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.13. The Court upon taking cognizance of the matter, charged the accused under the relevant sections. All the accused pleaded not guilty and denied charges and thereafter the trial commenced.

5. From the side of the prosecution as many as 14 prosecution witnesses gave their statement-in-chief and they were also cross-examined.

6. PW-1 Gyanwati wife of Om Prakash had stated in her examination-in-chief that her son on 30.7.2009 was sitting under a Goolar tree on a chabutara and by his side Munna Pandit and Dayaram were also sitting. The goolar tree was in front of Santoshi Mata Temple and at that time i.e. around 10.30 pm she (Gyanwati) was standing on a chabutara which surrounded a Peepal tree near her house. Around 7-8 paces behind her, her nephew Shiv Sewak Sharma was standing. From the side of gaushala, Ratan Pahalwan, Ram Kumar, Mahesh @ Maheshiya, Mewa Lal, Suresh @ Mandir and Vikas arrived. Ratan Pahalwan exhorted all the accompanying assailants and said that they had to take revenge of his brother Basant and had ordered them to kill Sarvesh. Ram Kumar and Ratan who were carrying chapad; Mahesh, Mewalal and Suresh who were having the tamancha along with Vikas who was having a kulhadi, surrounded the son of the first informant and they started assaulting the son of the first informant who fell down faced downwards. He was shouting for help. The nephew of the first informant and the first informant reached the spot but the assailants threatened the first informant that if she raised her voice, she would also be killed. PW-1 also stated that there were a lot of people living in the area but because of the fear of the assailants, none of them came. She has also stated that Guddu @ Anwar and Rajesh had seen the incident and they were standing 7-8 paces away near a bargad tree. After having killed the deceased, the assailants went away. The first informant went to the police station and told them about the incident. The police asked her to give a written complaint then she got hold of Manoj and on her dictation the report was written down. On that document she had also signed. She thereafter also proved the tehrir. Thereafter the police came on the spot and recovered four empty cartridges and two bullets and they took her son in a Jeep to the Hallet Hospital where he was declared dead. Post mortem was thereafter done. Here she again stated that the motive for killing her son was that her son while was working as a Home-Guard had got recovered four and half kilograms of gunpowder and a tamancha from the house of one of the assailants Ratan and she reiterates about the fact that 12-13 years back when Basant Pahalwan was killed, the assailants thought that her son had killed him. Earlier also, Sarvesh was attacked upon. In her cross-examination, the PW-1, upon being asked as to whether she was aware that her son was a history-sheeter, she denied that her son was ever externed. She categorically stated that Guddu @ Anwar was sitting on the neighbouring chabutara. Upon being asked about Daya Ram and Munna Pandit, whose names she had mentioned in the FIR, she stated that at the time when the incident had occurred, they were not there at the spot. She stated that they were sitting beside her son before the incident had occurred. She then stated that even though she knew the house of Ratan Pahalwan but she did not know its number. She stated that she had in fact mentioned in the FIR which she had got lodged that she was standing by the Peepal tree in her house. She also stated that she was standing 10 paces away from the place where the incident had occurred and this fact she had also stated in the FIR. She had also mentioned in the FIR that Shiv Sewak was standing 7-8 paces away behind her. She has stated that she definitely mentioned in the FIR that Vikas had a small axe. She has stated that the copy of the FIR was given to her at 4.00 pm on the next day i.e. on 31.7.2009. She had stated that her son worked in J.K. Jute Factory. She reiterates that her son was beaten for around 6-7 minutes. Upon being asked as to why her husband had not appeared at the spot, she had stated that he was asleep. She had also stated that while she was sitting at the threshold of her house, she had not made any efforts to wake-up her husband. She has also stated that the wife and the children of the deceased were also present on the spot.

7. Shiv Sevak, the nephew, appeared in the witness box as PW-2. He repeats the case as was stated by PW-1.

8. PW-3 Rajesh Kumar who was, as per the first informant, present on the spot, had stated in his examination-in-chief that he was not present there. He was thereafter declared hostile. In the cross-examination, he has stated that he was not threatened by the assailants.

9. PW-4 Dr. R.L Mahip was the doctor who had proven the post mortem report.

10. PW-5 Constable Ashok Kumar Mishra had proven the chik FIR.

11. PW-6 Guddu @ Anwar who, per the first informant, was present at the spot, had stated that he was not there on the spot and thereafter he was also declared hostile. In the cross-examination, he stood firm on what he had stated in the examination in chief.

12. PW-7 Constable Girja Kumar was a formal witness.

13. PW-8 Tannu who was a witness of the recovery of the empty cartridges and the bullets, had stated that he was not present at the time when the recovery memo was prepared and that they were not recovered in from of him and that he had signed on a blank paper.

14. PW-9 was the scribe of the FIR Manoj Kumar and he had virtually stated what the PW-1 had stated to him.

15. PW-10 was the Investigating Officer Satyendra Singh Rathor. He had stated that on the date of incident, he had gone on the spot along with the first informant and on the next date he was present at the time of panchayatnama and he was also instrumental in getting all the recovery memos prepared. PW-10 had stated in his cross-examination that the bullet and the pallets were sent to Agra for forensic lab test. He had stated that when he had gone on the spot, the deceased was lying in an injured state. He had stated that the first informant had not told him about the fact that she was standing by a peepal tree. He had also stated that the first informant had not told him that behind her, was her nephew Shiv Sevak Sharma standing. He states that he had not stated as to how high was the chabutara and he had also not stated that there was blood near the chabutara and on the walls. He had stated that there were also no bullet marks on the walls and on the trees and he further states that when he had reached the spot, the body of the deceased was not lying on the chabutara but was on the ground. The deceased, he stated, was a history-sheeter and there were many other serious cases pending against him.

16. PW-11 was Sub-Inspector Shiv Karan Sonkar and he was the Investigating Officer in the case under the Arms Act.

17. PW-12 Pratap Singh was also an Investigating Officer under the Arms Act.

18. PW-13 Sub-Inspector Pradeep Kumar Rai had stated that he had reached the LLR (Hallet) Hospital at around 23.40 hours and had got conducted the panchayatnama. He had taken out the dead body from the mortuary. He has also stated that he had got sent the dead body for the post mortem.

19. PW-14 Sub-Inspector Ram Niwas was the witness of the recovery of the axe (kulhadi).

20. Thereafter the accused persons got their statements recorded under section 313 Cr.P.C. They had all stated that they were innocent.

21. One Arjun, who was the defence witness, had come forward and had stated that Vikas Maurya was his neighbour and on 28.8.2009 at 10.00 pm, he was sitting in front of his house after having taken his diner and thereafter the police came to the house of Vikas Maurya and had taken him away.

22. Learned counsel for the appellants has argued that in fact the murder had not taken place at the spot as had been alleged by the PW-1. Learned counsel for the appellants has stated that the mother of the deceased i.e. the first informant had stated in the FIR itself that the deceased was dead and was lying on the spot yet it has been stated that the dead-body of the deceased was taken from the spot and was taken to the LLR (Hallet) Hospital. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that in fact the murder had taken place somewhere else and the dead body was taken to the LLR Hospital and there the panchayatnama was conducted. He submits that had the death taken place on the spot where the first informant was saying then the panchayatnama too would have been conducted on the spot itself. For giving the reason as to why the dead body was taken to the Hallet Hospital, the police officer Pradeep Kumar Rai had stated that when he had gone on the spot, he had found that the dead-body was breathing and therefore he taken him away. Learned counsel for the appellants states that when the assault was to the extent, as had been mentioned in the FIR itself and when it was stated by the first informant, that her son was dead then there was no reason for taking the dead-body to the hospital for panchayatnama. Learned counsel for the appellants stated that the police personnel are from an experienced service and they could easily decipher as to whether a person is dead or alive. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter states that in fact after the first informant had come to know about the death of her son somewhere else, she had gone to report about the death and the police who were aware of the fact that the accused persons were also history-sheeters, took out their names from their own records and had, in the FIR, given their names, parentage and the addresses. Learned counsel for the appellants states that if the statement of PW-1 is seen, she has very categorically stated that even though she knew about the houses of Ratan Pahalwan but she did not know the number of the house (i.e. the address). Learned counsel for the appellants states that if the FIR is seen then the addresses of all the accused had been given. This, he submits, definitely was the doing of the police. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter has stated that in the FIR, the PW-1 had tried to create eye-witnesses on the spot apart from her itself. She had also named Munna Pandit and Dayaram in the FIR but subsequently she had done away with them and in her statement-in-chief she had brought in Guddu @ Anwar and Rajesh as eye-witnesses. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that in the FIR she had also not stated about the fact that there was any peepal tree by the side of which she was standing and that behind her, Shiv Sewak Sharma was standing around 7-8 paces away. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that the PW-1 had come up with all cooked-up story. He submits that Munna Pandit and Dayaram did not even come into witness box. The witnesses which she had tried to bring in as eye-witnesses namely Guddu @ Anwar and Rajesh came to the witness box but they had turned hostile. Further, learned counsel for the appellants states that the post mortem report shows that there were three bullets which had entered the body of the deceased. It is alright, he submits, that this matched with the three empty cartridges but he submits that only one bullet was recovered from the body of the deceased and one which had probably escaped from the exit wound was also found. Where did the third bullet go was a mystery. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that all the firearms which were recovered were country made pistols of .315 bore but pellets were also recovered from the body of the deceased. How those pallets entered the body of the deceased was again a mystery. Learned counsel for the appellants states that when no forensic lab test was done on the firearm and on the pellets, it mattered little as to what was the recovery done. Learned counsel also states that even the motive was a strange motive which the PW-1 had given. He states that the accused persons were taking a revenge of an event which had taken 13 years prior to the incident which she was reporting. Still further, learned counsel for the appellants states that the father of the deceased who was sleeping was the first person the first informant would have woken-up but she had allowed him to sleep. Also, the wife and children of the deceased who were standing at the spot as per the PW-1 had not come forward to give their side of the story. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that all the statements which the PW-1 had given get falsified. If the statement of the Investigating Officer PW-10 is seen, it would reveal that he had categorically denied that PW-1 had told him about the peepal tree by which she was standing. What is more, even the peepal tree was not shown in the site-map which the Investigating Officer had prepared; meaning thereby, learned counsel for the appellants states, that even the site-plan was not prepared after going to the site but in fact it was prepared sitting in the police station. Learned counsel for the appellants, to bolster his submissions, relied upon the decisions of the Supreme Court in Ravasaheb @ Ravasahebgouda etc. vs. State of Karnataka : 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 225; Ajai @ Ajju etc. etc. vs. The State of Uttar Pradesh : 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 110; Chhote Lal vs. Rohtash & Ors. (Criminal Appeal No.2490 of 2014 decided on 14.12.2023); Amar Singh vs. The State (NCT of Delhi) (Criminal Appeal No.335 of 2015 decided on 12.10.2020) and also upon the decisions of this Court in Criminal Appeal No.4857 of 2011 (Parshu Ram vs. State of U.P.) decided on 14.2.2019; Criminal Appeal No.6583 of 2004 (Karan Singh & Anr. vs. State of U.P.) decided on 13.1.2017; Criminal Appeal No.1875 of 2007 : Shesh Narain vs. State of U.P. (decided on 27.5.2016); Criminal Appeal No.2421 of 1985 : Bashir & Anr. vs. State of U.P. (decided on 17.5.2019) and Criminal Appeal No.4122 of 2015 : Gulshan @ Mekedam Singh Jatav vs. State of U.P. (decided on 6.8.2020).

23. Learned AGA Sri Amit Sinha and the learned counsel appearing for the first informant Sri Saurabh Sachan, however, have stated that even if the first informant who was the eye-witness and in this case now virtually the lone eye-witness, her evidence ought to be believed as she was a mother who was giving evidence with regard to the death of her son and she would not lie to implicate others falsely.

24. Learned counsel for the first informant also argued that even if the peepal tree was not given in the site-plan and it was not mentioned in the FIR, it mattered little. The site as it contained things and which came to the fore after the statements were recorded, alone were to be looked into. He has tried to, after reading the statement of PW-1, establish that the PW-1 was a truthful eye-witness and if she had by any chance missed out certain facts in the FIR about which she was changing her statement in the Court, then it mattered little. In this regard, learned counsel for the first informant relied upon the decision of the Supreme Court in Bipin Kumar Mondal vs. State of West Bengal : AIR 2010 SC 3638; Sunil Kumar vs. State Govt. of Delhi : AIR 2004 SC 552; Vijendra Singh vs. State of U.P. (2017) 11 SCC 129; Dhanaj Singh @ Shera & Ors. vs. State of Punjab : (2004) 3 SCC 654; Ravasaheb @ Ravasahebgouda etc. vs. State of Karnataka : (2023) 5 SCC 391; State of U.P. vs. Krishna Master : AIR 2010 SC 3071; State of MP vs. Dharkole @ Govind Singh & Ors. : AIR 2005 SC 44 and State of Rajasthan vs. Ani @ Hanif & Ors. : AIR 1997 SC 1023.

25. Having heard Sri Ambrish Kumar Kashyap and Sri Ashok Kumar Tripathi for the appellant in Criminal Appeal No.2474 of 2018; Sri Ashutosh Pandey for the appellants in Criminal Appeal nos.2258 of 2018 and 2326 of 2018; Sri Surendra Singh, Advocate for the appellants in Criminal Appeal Nos.1982 of 2018 and 1993 of 2018; learned AGA Sri Amit Sinha assisted by Ms. Mayuri Mehrotra, learned Brief Holder and Sri Saurabh Sachan, Advocate for the first informant, this Court is of the view that the appeals deserve to be allowed. The first informant had come up in the FIR with a case that when the assailants had come, Munna Pandit and Dayaram were sitting beside the deceased. However, though in the FIR she had stated so, in her statement before the Court she stated that they were sitting beside the deceased before the incident had occurred and in fact at the time when the incident had occurred, Guddu @ Anwar and Rajesh were there on the spot. We find that the peepal tree by which she says she was standing by at the time of incident was also never mentioned and in fact the Investigating Officer also had not shown it in the site-plan. We also find that throughout PW-1 had never introduced Shiv Sewak Sharma but for the first time in the Court she had stated that he was standing a few paces behind her at the time of the incident and Shiv Sewak thereafter also comes before the Court and testifies in her favour but his statement was absolutely a weak statement which could not be relied upon. We also find that she had justified the absence of her husband and has stated that it was not required to wake him up. She has stated that the wife and children of the deceased were present on the spot but they never cared to come in the witness box. The eye-witnesses which had come up to the witness box had turned hostile and the eye-witnesses with regard to which she had made a mention in the FIR never turned up to give their testimony. It was just possible that due to the fear of the assailants who were history-sheeters, the eye-witnesses were not coming forward but in the instant case we find that the testimony of the witness of the PW-1-Gyanwati who is the mother is not at all believable. She has changed stands very frequently. She has introduced so many things like the peepal tree and Shiv Sewak at her convenience and the peepal tree is not to be found even in the site-plan. In fact the Investigating Officer who was PW-10 states that the PW-1 had never told him about the peepal tree. It appears strange that the site-plan was prepared at the telling of the PW-1; that would mean that in fact the site-plan was also prepared not at the spot but somewhere else.

26. What is more we find that the mother of the deceased, PW-1 had got the FIR lodged and despite the fact that she had mentioned that she did not know the addresses of the assailants before the Court, in the FIR she had mentioned the addresses and the parentage of all the accused persons. This shows that the police very interestingly, which had the record of all the history-sheeters, had mentioned about the addresses and the parentage of the accused persons in the FIR. Also, we find that in the FIR the mother of the deceased had stated that the deceased had died on the spot and was lying dead but despite that the police had taken the dead to the Hallet Hospital. This raises a big question mark to the fact as to whether the deceased was found at the spot where, it is alleged, he was killed. The panchayatnama ought to have taken place at the place where the deceased lay dead.

27. Under such circumstances, we are of the view that the eye-witness PW-1, the mother, is an absolutely doubtful witness. The conviction cannot be done on the basis of her testimony. Also, we find that the PW-10 has stated in so many words that all the facts which the PW-1 was stating in the Court were never told to him. The ballistic report from the forensic lab was also never received and taken into account by the prosecution. This not only speaks volumes about the prosecution's functioning but also makes it unbelievable.

28. For all the reasons, the Criminal Appeals are allowed. The order dated 22.3.2018 passed by the Additional District & Sessions Judge, Court No.12, Kanpur Nagar is quashed. The appellants namely Ratan Pahalwan, Mewa Lal, Mahesh @ Maheshi, Suresh @ Mandir, Ram Kumar Mallah and Vikas Maurya, who are in jail, be released forthwith unless they are required in any other case.

(2024) 5 ILRA 95
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTHA VARMA, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2558 of 2014
WITH
Criminal Appeal No. 2582 of 2014
WITH
Criminal Appeal No. 2639 of 2014
WITH
Criminal Appeal No.2640 of 2014

Sushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi ...Appellant

Versus

State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Balendra Kumar Singh, Arpit Srivastava, Parijat Kumar Tiwari, Rakesh Chandra Upadhyay, Ram Surat Patel, S.P. Tewari, Udai Karan Saxena, Veerendra Singh, Vijay Singh Senga

Counsel for the Respondent:
Govt. Advocate, Anil Srivastava, B.N.Singh, Ram Bahadur, Ravi Yadav

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code,1860-Sections 147, 148, 149 302 & 506- -Criminal Appeal against the judgment and order whereby accused persons were sentenced for life imprisonment- The fact that the PW-2 reached at the spot on the relevant date is very doubtful-That PW-2 was only making out a case so as to show that he was available at the flat when the incident happened and thus he was a chance witness who had been created to become an eye-witness-The husband of the deceased was not produced as a witness who could have definitely told in the first person as to whether there were any commercial transaction between him and Sonu Saxena which had been made to appear to be a cause for the murders.

The ballistic expert St.d that the empty cartridges matched, but the bullets which had entered the body did not, then it creates a definite doubt that there was some tampering done with the firearms- The firearms, as per the St.ment given by PW-13 Ram Sajivan, were taken out from the Malkhana on 21.05.2009 and again they were kept inside the Malkhana after one day and were handed over to PW-13 on 24.05.2009 the time which the prosecution got, definitely must have enabled the prosecution to tamper with the firearms- A doubt is created when the chick is seen-Chick is transcribed only on one page and if one looks at the hand-writing then it appears that efforts had been made to make the chick FIR fit into one single page-Result- order passed by the T.C is quashed .

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. (2023) 2 SCC 352 : Manoj & ors.. Vs St. of U.P.

2. (2003) 2 SCC 353 : Manoj & Ors. Vs St. of Madhya Pradesh,

3. (2016) 16 SCC 418 : Harbeer Singh Vs Sheeshpal & ors.

4. Jarnail Singh & ors. Vs St. of Pun. (2009) 9 SCC 719

5. 1976 Criminal L.J. 1568 : Bahal Singh Vs St. of Har.

6. AIR 2023 SC 3245 : Pradeep Vs St. of Har.

7. St. of M.P. Vs Ramesh & anr. 2011 Cri.L.J. 2297

8. K. Venkateshwarlu Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh : 2012 Cri.L.J. 4388

9. Radhey Shyam & ors. Vs St. of Raj. : (2023) 6 SCC 151

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Criminal Appeal No.2558 of 2014 has been filed along with Criminal Appeal Nos.2559 of 2014, 2582 of 2014, 2639 of 2014 and 2640 of 2014 challenging the judgment and order dated 26.6.2014 passed by the Court of Additional District & Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Kanpur Nagar.

2. On 5.3.2014 at about 9.00 pm, it has been alleged in the FIR which itself was lodged on 5.3.2014 at 23.00 pm (11.00 pm) at police station Govind Nagar, District Kanpur Nagar, that in Flat No.HIG 304 Ratan Lal Nagar Rudra Vatika, Kanpur Nagar the first informant along with his real brother's wife Neeta Singh, his maternal brother (mamera bhai) Tilak Singh along with Nishi, Nidhi, Abhay, Tushar, the children of his real brother was present. At around 9.00 pm the call bell rang and in response thereto Neeta, the wife of his brother, opened the door. Upon opening the door, Sonu Saxena, who lived in a neighbouring flat, enquired as to where Puti (husband of Neeta) was and to this question Neeta had replied that he had gone to Lucknow. Along with Sonu Saxena, Sonu Dwivedi had also come and very abusingly he said that she would not tell where Puti was unless they made her naked and was taken around. When the first informant and his cousin Tilak heard about this statement being made by Sonu Dwivedi, then the first informant along with his nephews and nieces came to the door to inquire as to who was being disrespectful to his brother's wife. Upon reaching there, the first informant has stated, in the FIR, that he along with others saw that Sonu Saxena @ Anesh Saxena, Guddu Dwivedi @ Santosh Kumar Dwivedi had revolvers in their hands while Sonu Dwivedi, Anil Shukla and Tanu Shukla had country made pistols in their hands. Upon reaching the door, when Tilak the Mama's son of the first informant told Sonu that he may not be disrespectful to Neeta Singh then Guddu Dwivedi said that Tilak be also picked up from the house and taken away. While this was happening Tanu Shukla @ Shravan Kumar Shukla and Anil Shukla put their country made pistols on the temples of the foreheads of Neeta Singh and Tilak Singh and took them downstairs and throughout they kept asking as to where Puti was and said that if they did not reveal where Puti was, they would kill them with their guns. While this was happening, the first informant and the young nephews and nieces shouted for help. However, Sonu Saxena and Guddu Dwivedi who were having revolvers in their hands shot at Neeta Singh and Tilak Singh indiscriminately and thereafter they all got into their Santro Car which was parked outside and went away. It has been stated in the FIR that the whole incident had occurred in a crowded area and that after the incident had occurred the whole area was gripped with fear and everybody of the area closed their doors and windows. He has categorically stated in the FIR that the incident occurred due to the fact that there was some transaction of money and old enmity. It has further been stated that after the incident had occurred, the local police had taken the injured to the Hallet Hospital where Neeta Singh was declared dead and Tilak Singh was directed for being further treated to a better hospital. Through the FIR, the first informant had prayed that the FIR be lodged and action be taken. Specifically the first informant had stated that other than Sonu Saxena, all the other three accused persons were residents of Nauraiya Kheda, Police Station Govindpur.

3. Upon the FIR being lodged, the police got into action and the investigation thereafter commenced. On 10.3.2009, the Sub-Inspector B.P. Mishra along with Constable Ashutosh Mishra and Vinod Kumar who were in their Jeep along with the driver J.P. Yadav while they were searching for the accused of the incident which had occurred on 5.3.2009 and of which FIR was lodged on the same date and was registered as Case Crime No.127 of 2009 under sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 308, 504 and 506 IPC and section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, they reached the Dada Nagar factory area crossing and when they reached the Factory No.H-10, they spotted someone who panicked on seeing the police jeep. Before being spotted, he was hiding behind the Factory No.H-11. Upon being suspicious the Sub-Inspector B.P. Mishra along with the Constables and the Driver who were accompanying him at 6.30 in the morning caught hold of that person. When the name of that person was asked, he informed that he was Sonu Saxena @ Anesh Saxena, resident of 405, Flat Rudra Vatika Apartment, area 304 Ratan Lal Nagar. Upon further searching him, it was found that he had a licensed revolver No.NPG-21798 and that it was a .32 bore revolver. Along with the revolver, four live cartridges of .32 bore were also recovered from him. After the recovery of the firearm along with bullets, a case was registered as Case Crime No.134 of 2009 under sections 25/27-A of the Arms Act read with section 7 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act. The apprehended person Sonu Saxena @ Anesh Saxena upon being questioned, informed that on 5.3.2009 he had, with his licensed revolver, fired at Neeta Singh and Tilak Singh. Thereafter Sonu Singh was arrested.

4. In a similar fashion on 13.3.2009 at around 2.00 am in the morning Santosh Kumar Dwivedi, Anil Shukla, Shravan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla and Sushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi were apprehended. On 12.3.2009 the Sub-Inspector B.P. Mishra had got an information from a Mukhbir Khas that four named accused in the murder case of Puti Singh's wife and Tilak Singh were hiding in the factory area and upon getting this information, the Sub-Inspector B.P. Mishra had reached the area and had apprehended the four persons and from Santosh Kumar Dwivedi a .32 bore licensed revolver numbered as FG-33215 along with four live cartridges of .32 bore were recovered. The second person namely Anil Shukla was also arrested and from his possession a country made revolver was recovered. The third person Shravan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla was also arrested with a country made pistol of .315 bore. The fourth person arrested was Sushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi and from his possession also a .315 bore country made pistol was recovered. Against them along with the earlier case crime being Case Crime No.127 of 2009, other cases were added. Case Crime No. No.137 of 2009 under section 25/27 of the Arms Act was imposed against Santosh Kumar Dwivedi; Case Crime No.138 of 2009 under section 25/27 of the Arms Act was imposed against Anil Shukla; Case Crime No.139 of 2009 under section 25/27 of the Arms Act was imposed against Shravan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla and Case Crime No.140 of 2009 under section 25/27A of the Arms Act was imposed against Sushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi in police station Govind Nagar, District Kanpur Nagar.

5. Here it may be noted that since the initial FIR as was lodged by the first informant Virendra Singh, was lost, the photocopy was kept on the record of the case.

6. The recovery memos with regard to the revolvers and the bullets were also prepared and were exhibited as Exhibit Nos.Ka-14, Ka-15, Ka-16, Ka-17, K-18 and Ka-19 during the sessions trial.

7. Even before the FIR was lodged on 5.3.2009, it is the case of the prosecution that the Sub-Inspector Akhilesh Kumar Shukla (PW-11) who was posted at Chowki Ratan Lal Nagar, Police Station Govind Nagar, had received information of the incident on his mobile phone and upon getting the information, he had rushed along with two accompanying constables and a driver of the jeep to Rudra Vatika Apartment where the Sub-Inspector Akhilesh Kumar Shukla found that the people who had assembles at the spot were running away and that on the spot Shiv Tilak Singh was lying in an injured state and was gasping for breath and Neeta Singh was lying injured in a very quiet state. He picked up both the injured persons in his jeep and took them to the LLR Hospital and upon reaching the hospital, Neeta Singh was declared dead while Shiv Tilak Singh was given medication. He has in his statement, before the Court, stated that because Shiv Tilak Singh required better treatment, he was taken to the Regency Hospital where he died. The PW-11 has stated that thereafter SHO Dinesh Tripathi (PW-8) had taken over the investigation and he had directed him to get the panchayatnama of the two dead-bodies done. On the next day i.e. on 6.3.2009, the panchayatnama of the two bodies was done in the presence of five witnesses in the presence of Akhilesh Kumar Shukla, the Sub-Inspector who had taken the body from the place of incident to the hospital. Thereafter post mortem had followed and from the body of Neeta Singh, three bullets were recovered and from the body of Shiv Tilak Singh, one bullet was recovered. The recovery memo of the five empty cartridges, found at the place of incident, was prepared. So also the recovery memo of the bullets recovered from the body of the deceased was also prepared. The revolvers, the country made pistols, the live bullets recovered along with them, the empty cartridges and the bullets recovered from the bodies were all kept with the police after preparing proper recovery memo and they were also kept in the Malkhana of the police.

8. After around two days i.e. on 7.3.2009, the Sub-Inspector of Police Station Govind Nagar, Kanpur Nagar sent Kumari Nidhi, the daughter of Narendra Singh Chandel @ Puti and the deceased Neeta Singh for the examination of her injury. The doctor's opinion about the injury was that one injury could be caused by a firearm and the other injury by a hard object. It was stated in the injury report that both the injuries were simple and were two days old. The investigation culminated in the submission of a charge sheet before the Court and the Court on 8.1.2010, by five different charge sheets, charge-sheeted the five accused under section 25/27 of the Arms Act. The five accused upon reading and understanding the charges, refused of having committed the crime and prayed for trial. Similarly, on 15.9.2010, the five accused were also charged by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3 under section 302 read with section 149 and under section 307 read with section 149 IPC. Here also, the accused denied the charges and prayed for trial.

9. Before the trial Court as many as 14 prosecution witnesses were examined and from the side of the defence, 3 defence witnesses were examined.

10. PW-1 Head Constable Suraj Singh has proven the FIR, the photocopy of which was available on record. He has stated that the Special Report (SR) of the case was sent on 6.3.2009 at 7.50 am through Constable Raj Bahadur. He has also proven the chik FIR. He has denied the suggestion that the FIR was actually written on 6.3.2009 and not on 5.3.2009.

11. PW-2 is Virendra Singh who is the first informant in the case. He has categorically stated that he personally knew Anesh Saxena @ Sonu Saxena, Sushil Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi; Santosh Dwivedi @ Guddu Dwivedi; Anil Shukla, Shravan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla and he had also recognized them in the Court. He had very categorically stated that apart from Anesh Saxena, the other four accused were living in the village where the first informant was living. With regard to Narendra Kumar @ Puti, he has stated that he was his younger brother and was staying in Flat No.402 HIG 304 in Rudra Vatika Apartment with his family and the accused Anesh Saxena was also living in the same apartment in Flat No.405 along with his family. He has stated that before the incident, his brother Puti had lent Rs.2,10,000/- to Anesh Saxena. On the date of incident i.e. on 5.3.2009 at around 9.00 pm he was in the same house where Narendra Kumar @ Puti along with his wife Neeta Singh and their children Abhay, Tushar, Nidhi and Nishi was living. On the date of incident his cousin (mamera bhai) Shiv Tilak was also present. When the call bell rang, Neeta Singh had opened the door. Anesh Saxena had inquired as to where Puti was and to that Neeta Singh had replied that he had gone to Lucknow. The other four accused, who were present in the Court, were also there with Anesh. Sonu Dwivedi had said that she would not tell about the whereabouts of Puti and, therefore, she be taken out naked. Upon hearing this, the first informant and his nephews and cousin reached the door. He saw that Sonu Saxena and Guddu Dwivedi had revolvers in their hands and the others had country made pistols. Shiv Tilak reprimanded the five accused as to why they were misbehaving with his cousin's wife (bhabhi). Upon this Guddu Dwivedi asked the others to catch hold of Shiv Tilak also. PW-2 has then stated that Tanu Shukla and Anil Shukla caught hold of Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak and had took them downstairs throughout flaunting their country made pistols. The first informant, his brother and nephews cried for help. The accused had taken Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak to the portico of the building. The accused were throughout, while they were taking the two i.e. Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak, kept saying that they may tell as to where Puti was otherwise they would kill them. When Neeta Singh had nothing else to tell other than that Puti had gone to Lucknow, the accused did not believe this and with their firearms shot at Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak and thereafter went away on their Santro Car. He has stated that a lot many people had seen the incident specially Amar Singh and Preetam Singh. After the actual firing had happened, the police arrived at the spot and they took Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak to Hallet Hospital where Neeta Singh was declared dead but Shiv Tilak was given the treatment. There itself the PW-2 had written the report and had also got it photocopied. Thereafter the FIR was lodged.

12. In the cross-examination, the first informant had stated that he was 42 years of age and had a Medical Store in Nauraiya Kheda. The Medical Store was functional since 1993 and that it was situated in a small place. It opened at 9.00 am and closed at 10.00 pm and that it was half a kilometer away from his house. He has categorically stated in his cross-examination that he had six more brothers namely Jaswant Singh, Pratap Singh, Rajendra Singh, Babu Singh, Shyam Singh and Narendra Singh. Shyam Singh was an Advocate; Jawant Singh was working in ICI Duncon Factory; Pratap Singh was working in Animal Husbandry; Rajendra Singh had a factory and Babu Singh also had a factory. Narendra Singh also had a factory and was manufacturing plastic. PW-2 has stated that his mobile number was 9451140475 and that all the mobile numbers were fed in his mobile directory. He has stated that the mobile number of Puti at the time of incident was different but at the time of his giving the testimony it was 9670991199. With regard to the fact that he knew Amar Singh and Preetam Singh, he had consistently stated that he had known them for a fairly long time and their houses were also near his house. Upon being asked that why he had gone to the house of Puti Singh on the date of incident, he had stated that his Jija's daughter was getting married and since Puti was out of station, he had come to the house of Puti to take Neeta and her children to the marriage. He had reached the house at around quarter to nine. Since, in the FIR, he had not stated about the fact that he along with Neeta and children had to go to the marriage, he had stated that he was stating the same for the first time in the Court. he had gone to the house of Neeta on his bike and thereafter had to take them all to the marriage in the Santro Car of Narendra. He had stated that he had owned a revolver and it was a lincenced one.

13. He has also stated in his cross-examination that at the time when the incident had occurred, his nephew Tushar was with him behind a particular pillar. He has also stated that in the night of the incident at 01:30 am i.e. on 06.03.2009, he had seen Puti Singh in the hospital. On the date of the incident Putti Singh was not in Kanpur and so was Shyam Singh, another brother, not in Kanpur. The other brothers were in Kanpur. Since on the date of incident the PW-2 had left his mobile at his own house, he was not in possession of any mobile phone. When the PW-2 had gone to get the place of incident inspected, the children had gone to the house of Babu Singh, a brother of the first informant. Upon a question being asked as to whether he had seen any bullet hitting Nidhi, he replied that he had never seen any bullet hitting her. In the cross-examination, he had very categorically stated that he had not stated the fact during investigation that there was a marriage in the family for which he had reached the house of Narendra Singh. He had stated that this fact was also not told by him in the statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. No invitation card etc. of the marriage was placed on record. The evidence of PW-2 had commenced on 16.12.2010 and on 25.10.2011 for the first time without producing any invitation card etc. he only mentioned that on the date of incident he alongwith Putti's wife was to go to the marriage of the daughter of one Munni Singh who was the daughter of his Fufa. However, he states that the other brothers of his had not attended the marriage.

14. PW-3 is the daughter of Narendra Singh Chandel and Neeta (deceased). When she gave her statement, she was 13 years of age and the Court had tested whether she could give the statement and whether she knew the importance of taking oath. The Court after being convinced that PW-3 had the capacity of understanding what she said and she was conscious of the importance of taking oath, she was permitted to give her statement-in-chief. She had reiterated what had been stated by the first informant. She had stated in her cross-examination that she was not aware if any bullet had hit her. She only came to know about the fact that a bullet had hit her when the medical was done. She had never stated that she had also been injured in the event. She has stated in her cross-examination that her elder sister was Rishi and had been studying in Doon International School and that all the four brothers and sisters were studying in that school for the past 4-5 years. However, in her cross-examination she has again stated that till the standard 5th, she had studied at Nauraiya Kheda and at the moment she had given the statement, she was studying in class six. However, she has stated that before she was studying in class VI, she was studying in Kedar Singh Inter College. A lot of other things had been stated in her cross-examination but only the the relevant portion of her statement has been reproduced in this paragraph.

15. PW-4 was the doctor who had examined the injuries of Nidhi, daughter of Narendra Singh and he had given his statement with regard to the two injuries which were found on the body of Nidhi. He had stated that the injuries were not serious ones and that they were not in any manner infected despite the fact that no medicine was applied on them.

16. PW-5 was the doctor who had conducted the postmortem on Shiv Tilak and he has proven the postmortem report.

17. PW-6 Sri Dileep Singh Sachan who was the Pharmacist of the postmortem house and has proven the postmortem report of the deceased Neeta W/o Narendra Singh.

18. PW-7 who was the Head Constable Promod Kumar Yadav and he has proven the First Information Reports under the Arms Act.

19. PW-8 Inspector Dinesh Tripathi who had, upon information being received, reached the spot where the shooting had occurred and he had taken the two victims Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak to the hospital. He has stated that on the spot he had not met Narendra Singh and his brother Babu Singh but had met the PW-2 Virendra Singh.

20. PW-9 was the Sub-Inspector V.P. Mishra who was the first Investigating Officer. He has narrated throughout as to how the incident had occurred and how he had taken the statements of various persons.

21. PW-10 Ashutosh Mishra, Constable had proven the arrest memo of the accused persons and had also proven the recovery memo of the firearms which had been recovered.

22. PW-11 the Sub-Inspector Akhilesh Kumar Shukla was the person who had reached on the spot on the date of the incident upon getting an information on his mobile. He has also stated the story of the prosecution as was narrated by the other prosecution witnesses. He had stated that he did not go back to the place of incident as he was suspended from service on that very date.

23. PW-12 the Sub-Inspector Santosh Kumar Awasthi was the formal witness who had proven the recovery memos of the various fire arms.

24. PW-13 is the prosecution witness Ram Sajivan who had carried the firearms, the empty cartridges and the bullets which were recovered from the spot to the forensic laboratory at Agra from Kanpur. He has stated that he had reached Agra on 24.05.2009. He had stated that the Exhibits Ka-33 and Ka-34 were given to him on that very date. He has further stated that for the first time the fire arm, empty cartridges and the bullets were taken out from the Malkhana on 21.05.2009 and on that date they were again deposited in the Malkhana and thereafter, on 24.05.2009 the fire arm, empty cartridges and the bullets in a sealed cover were given to him. On 21.05.2009 the date which is there on Exhibit Ka-33 was the date when the articles were taken out from the Malkhana and 24.05.2009 (Exhibit 34) was the date when he had left station. In between 21.05.2009 and 24.05.2009, taking out of the fire arms and the bullets etc. and of them being again kept in the Malkhana, there was no record. There was no entry in any register.

25. PW-14 was the Sub-Inspector Raghuvar Dayal who had proven the recoveries of the various fire arms and was a formal witness.

26. Thereafter the statements of the five accused were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and they had denied the commission of the crime.

27. DW-1 was Dr. Shailendra Gupta who had been produced to show that Sonu Saxena on the date of occurrence was not in Kanpur but was in Muzaffar Nagar.

28. DW-2 is one Pramod Kumar Srivastava who had told that Anesh @ Sonu Saxena was the husband of her niece Shalini and that he was the uncle (Mama) of Shalini. He had also stated that on 25/26.02.2009 Sonu Saxena had gone to Muzaffar Nagar to get a chek up done of Shalini but in fact he had fallen ill over there and was admitted in a hospital at Muzaffar Nagar. DW-2 had also stated that Anil Shukla also was, on 05.03.2009, with him.

29. After the completion of trial, the accused persons Anesh Saxena @ Sonu Saxena and Santosh Kumar Dwivedi @ Guddu Dwivedi were convicted under Section 302 of IPC and were sentenced for life imprisonment with a fine of Rs. 10,000/- . Whereas, Shushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi, Shravan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla and Anil Kumar Shukla were convicted under Section 302 read with section 149 of IPC and they were sentenced for life imprisonment with a fine of Rs. 10,000/- each. All the accused were also, under Section 147 of IPC, sentenced for one year of imprisonment and under section 148 of IPC three years sentence was awarded. Again under Section 506 of IPC they were sentenced for one year. In the event, the accused convicted persons did not deposit the fine, then they had to further undergo six months' additional imprisonment. The punishments were to run concurrently. The accused persons were acquitted under Section 307 read with sections 149 and 506 of IPC and under Section 7 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act. They were also acquitted under Section 25/27 of the Arms Act.

30. Learned counsel for the appellants Sri V.P. Srivastava, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri P.K. Singh and Sri Vijay Singh Sengar, Advocates argued as under :-

(i) The FIR was an ante-dated FIR. He has submitted that even though in the FIR which is a photocopy of the original, it was written that the incident had happened on 5.3.2009 at around 9.00 pm, the Chik which was prepared shows that the FIR was actually lodged at 23.00 hours i.e. at 11.00 pm. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that if the Panchayatnama is seen of both the deceased i.e. Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak then it becomes clear that the time of the information received by Akhilesh Kumar Srivastava (PW-11) was 9.00 pm. Learned counsel for the appellants took the Court through the original record and drew the attention of the Court to the date on the Chik FIR which had an overwriting over the digit 5. There was overwriting on page one and he submits that there was overwriting also in page 2 at the end of the FIR. He submits that in fact at the time of the lodging of the FIR, the names of the accused persons were not known and a plain paper on which the GD was to be written was left unused in the record of the Police which was filled-up later on. He submits that this was the reason why the chick was written on both sides of only one page and in fact the continuation of it was written in the left hand margin of the second page. After the informant side had made up its mind as to who had to be made the accused, the FIR was got registered. Learned counsel for the appellants states that the original Tahreer was made to disappear and a photocopy of it was placed on the record. He submits that in the cross-examination, the chick writer PW-1 Constable Sooraj Singh has very conveniently only stated that he had forgotten to sign over the overwritings. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that when the FIR was lodged at 23.00 hours, how in the Panchayatnama it had been said that the PW-11 i.e. Akhilesh Kumar Shukla had got the information at 09:00 pm.

(ii) Learned counsel for the appellants next submitted that the presence of PW-2 Virendra Singh at the place of incident was absolutely doubtful. He submits that in the FIR the PW-2 who has lodged the FIR has stated that he was there at the spot and he had also overheard what conversation the assailants had with the deceased-Neeta Singh but nowhere in the FIR had he stated that why he was present in the flat in question. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, suggests that in fact the PW-2 was not there on the spot and that only to have an eye-witness, as an afterthought, when the FIR was being got lodged by him, he was made to give an eye-witness account. To bolster this argument of his, learned counsel for the appellants states that in the FIR and in the statement under Section 161 CrPC, the PW-2, the first informant, had never stated that he had reached the flat of his brother Putti to take Putti's wife i.e. Neeta (deceased) and the children to some marriage which they had to attend. Learned counsel for the appellants states that for the first time on 07.02.2011 while being cross-examined by the counsel of accused Santosh and Sushil Dwivedi, he had stated that on the date of the incident he had gone to Putti Singh's house as there was a marriage of the daughter of his Jija and since Putti Singh was out of station i.e. in Lucknow, he had gone to fetch Putti Singh's wife Neeta Singh and the children. He had stated that he had reached there at around 08:45 pm and he categorically states that for the first time he was stating this fact in the Court. The relevant portion of the statement is being reproduced here as under :-

"घटना वाले दिन पूती सिंह के यहाँ जाने का कारण था। मेरे जीजा जी की बेटी की शादी थी और पूती सिंह बाहर (लखनऊ) थे इसलिए विवाह समारोह में सम्मिलित होने के लिए बहू और बच्चो को लाने के लिए गया था। मैं पूती सिंह के घर लगभग पौने नौ के आस पास पहुँचा था। उनको पहले पता था कि साथ जाना है। मेरे पहुँचने के लगभग आधे पौपन घण्टे बाद समारोह में जाना था। यह शादी में जाने वाली बात आज न्यायालय में सर्वप्रथम बता रहा हूँ। मैं अपनी बाइक से गया था उनके पास सेन्ट्रो कार नीचे खड़ी थी उससे जाना था। मैनें अपनी बाइक नीचे पोर्टिको में खड़ी की थी।"

He had also stated that he had gone on his motorcycle and not on his car as Putti Singh's car was there which could be taken to go to the marriage. Learned counsel for the appellant has further stated that during trial on 25.10.2011, after a long lapse of time, PW-2 the first informant had stated that he alongwith the family of Putti Singh was to go to the marriage of the daughter of his Behnoi Sri Sultan Singh Chauhan who was his Fufa's daughter's husband. He had stated that all the family members were to go but he has also very categorically stated that in the marriage neither Putti Singh nor Shyam Singh Chandel had gone. The extremely important information with regard to the name of the father of the girl who was to get married was made known to the Court on 25.10.2011 whereas the evidence of PW-2 had begun on 16.12.2010. Learned counsel, therefore, states that the story was a cooked up story. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that if it was so important for everybody to attend the marriage then Putti Singh and Shyam Singh also ought to have been there in Kanpur to attend the marriage. Since the learned counsel for the appellants relied upon the statement which was given on 25.10.2011, the same is being reproduced here as under :-

"मेरे बहिनोई श्री सल्तान सिंह चौहान मेरे गाँव में रहते है। यह मेरे सगे बहिनोई नहीं बल्कि फुफेरे बहिनोई है। सगे फूफा? का नाम श्री लल्लन सिंह है। लल्लन सिंह की विटिया और सुल्तान सिंह की पत्नी का नाम श्रीमती मुन्नी है। इन्ही श्रीमती मुन्नी सिंह की सगी बटिया की शादी में घटनावाले दिन मेरे परिवार के सभी लोग सपरिवार आमंत्रित थे। और इस भान्जी की शादी में न पूती सिंह आये और न श्याम सिंह चन्देल आये थे।"

Upon being asked as to whether any invitation card of the marriage was there, PW-2 had stated that the marriage card was not there on record at all. The statement with regard to the marriage card was given by the PW-2 on 22.10.2011. Learned counsel for the appellants further to prove this fact, has relied upon the statement which the PW-2 had given on 22.10.2011. The relevant portion with regard to the invitation card is being reproduced here as under :-

"यह कहना सही है कि 'मेरे घर में आज शादी है" वाली बात न एफ०आई०आर० में है और न बयान 161 सी०आर०पी०सी० में लिखवायी थी। यह कहना गलत है कि अदालत में पहली बार सिखाने पर झूठा ब्यान दिया कि घर में शादी थी। शादी के निमत्रण पत्र या अन्य कोई दस्तावेज प्रमाण पत्रावली पर उपलब्ध नहीं है। यह कहना गलत है कि मैं बिल्कुल झूठ बोल रहा हूँ कि उस दिन मेरे घर में शादी थी। यह कहना भी गलत है कि शादी के सिलसिले में वहाँ गये ही नहीं क्योकि वहाँ कोई शादी थी ही नहीं।"

Learned counsel for the appellants, to show that the PW-2 was a chance witness, has further stated that the family of the first informant had its ancestral home in village Nauraiya Kheda and he states that in his statement he had also stated that Sonu Dwivedi, Anil Shukla and Tanu Shukla also belonged to the same village and, therefore, he stated that they were very well known to the PW-2 and it was just possible that he had some enmity with them and, therefore, the names were introduced in the FIR. Learned counsel submitted that only to give credence to the story about the fact that there was some money transaction, the accused Sonu Saxena was introduced in the FIR as he lived across the house of his younger brother Putti Singh. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that the PW-2 had stated that he had a mobile but he had left it at his ancestral house. He had stated that he had a car also but that car was also not brought and he had come on a motorcycle as he was aware that Putti Singh had a car and in that car he was to take the family of Putti Singh. Upon a question being put that Putti Singh had talked to Anil Shukla (an accused) on 05.03.2009 at around 09:35 pm and also at around 09:56 pm, the PW-2 had denied that he had known about the phone call from Putti Singh to Anil Shukla. Upon being confronted with regard to the call details of the phone number of Putti Singh being 9918560533 by which he had dialled the phone number of Anil Shukla being 9335632772, he clearly states that he was not aware of the fact that Putti Singh had called Anil Shukla. Learned counsel for the appellants relying upon a judgment of the Supreme Court reported in (2023) 2 SCC 352 : Manoj and Ors. vs. State of U.P. has stated that a chance witness is one who appears on the scene suddenly when something is happening and then disappears after noticing the occurrence about which he was required to come later on and give his evidence.

Learned counsel for the appellants states that as per the law laid down by the Supreme Court a testimony of a chance witness should be utilised by the prosecution very cautiously. He submits that the evidence of the chance witness requires a very cautious and strict scrutiny and if there was any slackness in the explanation about the presence of the chance witness at the place of incident then his deposition ought to be rejected. Since learned counsel for the appellants relied heavily on paragraphs 102, 103 and 104 of the judgment reported in (2003) 2 SCC 353 : Manoj & Ors. vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, the same are being reproduced here as under :-

"102. A chance witness is one, who appears on the scene suddenly. This species of witness was described in Puran v. State of Punjab (AIR 1953 SC 459), in the following terms:

"Such witnesses have the habit of appearing suddenly on the scene when something is happening and then of disappearing after noticing the occurrence about which they are called later on to give evidence."

103. This court has sounded a note of caution about dealing with the testimony of chance witnesses. In Darya Singh v. State of Punjab (AIR 1965 SC 328), it was observed that:

"…where the witness is a close relation of the victim and is shown to share the victim's hostility to his assailant, that naturally makes it necessary for the criminal courts examine the evidence given by such witness very carefully and scrutinise all the infirmities in that evidence before deciding to act upon it. In dealing with such evidence, Courts naturally begin with the enquiry as to whether the said witnesses were chance witnesses or whether they were really present on the scene of the offence.…..If the criminal Court is satisfied that the witness who is related to the victim was not a chance-witness, then his evidence has to be examined from the point of view of probabilities and the account given by him as to the assault has to be carefully scrutinised."

104. In Jarnail Singh v. State of Punjab [(2009) 9 SCC 719] again, this Court held that:

"22. The evidence of a chance witness requires a very cautious and close scrutiny and a chance witness must adequately explain his presence at the place of occurrence (Satbir v. Surat Singh (1997) 4 SCC 192 30, Harjinder Singh v. State of Punjab (2004) 11 SCC 253, Acharaparambath Pradeepan and Anr. v. State of Kerala (2006) 13 SCC 643 and Sarvesh Narain Shukla v. Daroga Singh (2007) 13 SCC 360). Deposition of a chance witness whose presence at the place of incident remains doubtful should be discarded (vide Shankarlal v. State of Rajasthan (2004) 10 SCC 632)."

Since the learned counsel for the appellants also relied upon paragraphs 22 to 24 of the judgment reported in (2016) 16 SCC 418 : Harbeer Singh vs. Sheeshpal & Ors., the same are being reproduced here as under :-

"22. The High Court has further noted that there were chance witnesses whose statements should not have been relied upon. Learned counsel for the respondents has specifically submitted that PW5 and PW6 are chance witnesses whose presence at the place of occurrence was not natural.

23. The defining attributes of a "chance witness" were explained by Mahajan, J., in Puran v. State of Punjab, AIR 1953 SC 459. It was held that such witnesses have the habit of appearing suddenly on the scene when something is happening and then disappearing after noticing the occurrence about which they are called later on to give evidence.

24. In Mousam Singha Roy v. State of W.B., (2003) 12 SCC 377, this Court discarded the evidence of chance witnesses while observing that certain glaring contradictions/omissions in the evidence of PW 2 and PW 3 and the absence of their names in the FIR has been very lightly discarded by the courts below. Similarly, Shankarlal v. State of Rajastahan, (2004) 10 SCC 632 and Jarnail Singh v. State of Punjab, (2009) 9 SCC 719, are authorities for the proposition that deposition of a chance witness, whose presence at the place of incident remains doubtful, ought to be discarded. Therefore, for the reasons recorded by the High Court we hold that PW5 and PW6 were chance witnesses and their statements have been rightly discarded."

Similarly, paragraphs 20 to 23 of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Jarnail Singh & ors. vs. State of Punjab reported in (2009) 9 SCC 719 are also being reproduced here as under :-

"20. After considering the oral as well as documentary evidence on record, the High Court came to the conclusion that the statement of Gurcharan Singh (PW-18) in respect of the fact of hatching of a conspiracy by Balbir Singh and Gurdip Singh, at the Bus-stand Bassi Pathana on 21-6-2000 at 7.30/8.00 p.m. was not worthy of credence. Gurcharan Singh (PW-18), a chance witness could not explain under what circumstances he was present at the bus-stand at the said time.

21. In Sachchey Lal Tiwari v. State of U.P. (2004) 11 SCC 410, this Court while considering the evidentiary value of the chance witness in a case of murder which had taken place in a street and passerby had deposed that he had witnessed the incident, observed as under:

+

"If the offence is committed in a street only a passer-by will be the witness. His evidence cannot be brushed aside lightly or viewed with suspicion on the ground that he was a mere chance witness. However, there must be an explanation for his presence there."

The Court further explained that the expression "chance witness" is borrowed from countries where every man's home is considered his castle and everyone must have an explanation for his presence elsewhere or in another man's castle. It is quite unsuitable an expression in a country like India where people are less formal and more casual, at any rate in the matter of explaining their presence.

22. The evidence of a chance witness requires a very cautious and close scrutiny and a chance witness must adequately explain his presence at the place of occurrence (Satbir v. Surat Singh (1997) 4 SCC 192; Harjinder Singh v. State of Punjab (2004) 11 SCC 253; Acharaparambath Pradeepan & Anr. v. State of Kerala (2006) 13 SCC 643; and Sarvesh Narain Shukla v. Daroga Singh and Ors. (2007) 13 SCC 360). Deposition of a chance witness whose presence at the place of incident remains doubtful should be discarded (vide Shankarlal v. State of Rajasthan (2004) 10 SCC 632).

23. Conduct of the chance witness, subsequent to the incident may also be taken into consideration particularly as to whether he has informed anyone else in the village about the incident. (vide Thangaiya v. State of Tamil Nadu (2005) 9 SCC 650). Gurcharan Singh (PW-18) met the informant Darshan Singh (PW-4) before lodging the FIR and the fact of conspiracy was not disclosed by Gurcharan Singh (PW-18) and Darshan Singh (PW-4). The fact of conspiracy has not been mentioned in the FIR. Hakam Singh, the other witness on this issue has not been examined by the prosecution. Thus, the High Court was justified in discarding the part of the prosecution case relating to conspiracy. However, in the fact situation of the present case, acquittal of the said two co-accused has no bearing, so far as the present appeal is concerned."

Paragraph 10 of the judgment reported in 1976 Criminal L.J. 1568 : Bahal Singh vs. State of Haryana is also being reproduced here as under :-

"10. As to the presence of P. Ws. 4 and 5 at the time and place of occurrence the trial Court entertained grave doubts. If by coincidence or chance a person happens to be at the place of occurrence at the time it is taking place, he is called a chance witness. And if such a person happens to be a relative or friend of the victim or inimically disposed towards the accused then his being a chance witness is viewed with suspicion. Such a piece of evidence is not necessarily incredible or unbelievable but does require cautious and close scrutiny. In the instant case, P.Ws. 4 & 5 were agnatic relations of the deceased-one of them a close one. The reason given by them for being at the place of occurrence did not appear to be true to the trial Court. There was not any compelling or sufficient reason for the High Court to differ from the evaluation of the evidence of the two chance witnesses. It may well be as remarked by the High Court that the respondent was also their collateral but they appeared to be partisan witnesses on the side of the prosecution and hence their testimony was viewed with suspicion by the trial Judge."

Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, in effect argued that the PW-2 was a complete outsider and was not in fact an eye-witness and only to provide an eye-witness account, he had been introduced in the case. However, he submits that this introduction of the PW-2 could not be successfully done. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, submits that the testimony of PW-2 be out-rightly rejected.

(iii) Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter has submitted that at the time when the incident had occurred, the Police had reached the spot and had recovered from the spot five empty cartridges and these five empty cartridges were kept in a sealed cover. Recovery memo was prepared on 06.03.2009 in the presence of two witnesses Sanjay Singh and Rajendra Singh. At the time of the postmortem, from the dead bodies of Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak again four bullets were found. In the body of Shiv Tilak Singh there was a fire wound entry and the bullet which had embedded itself in his body was extricated. Similarly, there were three firearm injuries on the dead-body of Neeta Singh and they were all entry wounds and therefore three bullets were found in the postmortem. These used bullets were also kept by the Police in a sealed cover in Malkhana on 21.05.2009. As per Exhibit Ka-33 the firearm, the empty cartridges and the bullets which were retrieved from the dead-bodies were sent to the forensic laboratory at Agra. The forensic laboratory upon opening the sealed covers numbered the empty cartridges as EC-1 to EC-5. The revolver of point 32 bore which was recovered from Santosh Kumar Dwivedi was numbered as 1/09. The live cartridges of this revolver were given the numbers as LC-1 to LC-4. The revolver which was allegedly that of Anesh Saxena was numbered as 2/09 and the live cartridges which were found were of that revolver were numbered as LC-5 to LC-8. The other firearms and the other bullets, which were found from other co-accused, were also numbered. The four bullets, out of which the three were found from the body of the deceased Neeta Singh were numbered as EB-1, EB-2 and EB-3 and the fourth bullet which was found from the body of Shiv Tilak was numbered as EB-4. The report which the forensic laboratory gave was to the effect that the empty cartridge one, empty cartridge two and the empty cartridge four were fired from the revolver 2/09, while the empty cartridge three and empty cartridge four were fired from the revolver 1/09. However, it gave a definite report that the bullets EB-1, EB-2 and EB-3 did not match the revolvers which were in question. However, EB-4 matched a particular revolver. Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that the entire prosecution case becomes falsified. The Constable, Ram Sajivan PW-13 had taken into custody the firearm and the bullets on 21.05.2009. However, the Exhibit Ka-43 i.e. the document by which the report was given, shows that the bullets and the firearms had reached the forensic laboratory on 25.05.2009. Learned counsel for the appellants states that Kanpur Nagar from Agra is hardly two hours away but it took the firearms and the bullets to reach Agra from Kanpur almost four days. This delay, learned counsel for the appellants states, is unexplainable. The Constable Ram Sajivan PW-13 upon being questioned as to how such a delay occurred in sending the bullets and the firearms, he stated that when the document Exhibit Ka-33 was prepared, the articles which he had to take, were given to him on that very date i.e. on 21.5.2009. But, he states that, thereafter he had kept the articles, which were given to him, again in the Malkhana and thereafter he was again given the articles i.e. on 24.5.2009. He states that his ravangi was entered in the General Diary on 21.05.2009 and on 24.05.2009. He states that after the articles were taken out on 21.5.2009 they were again kept in the Malkhana and thereafter again taken out. However, these activities were not registered in any register. Since learned counsel for the appellants heavily relied upon a certain portion of the statement of PW-13, the same is being reproduced here as under :-

"जिस दिन प्रदर्श क-33 व क-34 तैयार किये गये थे उसी दिन मुझे दे दिये गये थे। ये दोनो प्रपत्र एक ही दिन मुझे मिले थे। जिस दिन ये दस्तावेज तैयार करके मुझे दिये गये थे उसी दिन मुझे वस्तुएं भी प्रदान कर दी गई थी।

प्रश्नः- जिस समय आपको वस्तुए मिली और विधि विज्ञान प्रयोगशाला में दाखिल करने तक आपके कब्जे में रही ?

उत्तरः- डाकेट व वस्तुए मिली थी उनको थाने के मालखाना मे दाखिल किया व विधि विज्ञान प्रयोगशाला में दाखिल करने के लिए रवाना होने पर पुनः मिली उसके बाद विधि विज्ञान प्रयोगशाला में दाखिल करने तक मेरे कब्जे में रही।

पहली बार दिनांक 21.05.09 को प्राप्त हुई और 21.05.09 को ही थाने में जमा कर दी। दुबारा 24.05.09 को वस्तुएं प्राप्त हुई थी। ऐसा नहीं है कि बीच में और कभी मिली हो। दिनांक 24.05.09 को माल निकालने के लिये थाने मे कोई प्रार्थना पत्र नहीं दिया क्योकि जरूरत नहीं थी।

प्रश्नः- दिनांक 24.05.09 को माल निकालने के थाना इन्चार्ज या समाप्त ? अधिकारी की अनुमति प्राप्त की गई?

उत्तरः- मैने मालखाना इन्चार्ज हेड मुहर्रिर ने ही निकालकर दिया था।

दिनांक 21.05.09 व 24.05.09 की जी०डी० मे मेरी रवानगी दर्ज है यह रवानगी माल निकालने के सम्बन्ध में दर्ज है। यदि दिनांक 22.05.09 व 23.05.09 में सामान निकालना दर्ज हो तो वह गलत होगा।"

Learned counsel for the appellants relying upon the statement of the PW-13 states that in fact the firearm and the empty cartridges after they were taken out after 21.05.2009, were again fired and the empty cartridges which the Police now obtained were kept as original empty cartridges. However, since there was no chance of changing the bullets which were retrieved from the dead bodies, they remained the same. He, therefore, states that as per the forensic laboratory's report, the empty cartridges matched but the three out of the four bullets which were retrieved from the dead-bodies had not matched the firearms. He, therefore, submits that the prosecution had tried to come up with an absolutely false case and those very firearm which were sent to the forensic laboratory were not used by the alleged assailants.

(iv) Learned counsel for the appellants states that PW-3 who was the daughter of the deceased-Neeta and was named Nidhi was also such a witness who could not be relied upon. He submits that the PW-3 was of a tender age at the time when the incident had occurred. She was, at the time of incident, just ten years of age and on the date of the recording of her examination-in-chief she was thirteen years of age. Learned counsel for the appellants states that the deceased had four children namely Nidhi, Nishi, Abhay and Tushar. Nishi was elder to Nidhi, yet no evidence of Nishi was got recorded. Nidhi who got tutored, gave her evidence. Learned counsel for the appellants states that the incident in question occurred on 05.03.2009. There is absolutely no reference of any injury to the PW-3 Nidhi on that date. Even in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., the PW-2 first informant, did not mention about any injury to Nidhi. Suddenly on 07.03.2009, Shyam Singh, an uncle of the child witness Nidhi, who was a lawyer got a recommendation from the Police for medical examination of the child witness Nidhi. Even the recommendation did not mention about any particular injury. The injury report which was given by Dr. Shailendra Tiwari does not say that the injury was serious. In his examination-in-chief and in his cross-examination, the doctor clearly states that he had never stated that the injury was because of any firearm and it could also have been by the heat emitted from a candle. He had stated that there was no infection in the injury and there was absolutely no doubt about the fact that it was a harmless injury. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter took the Court to the statement of the PW-3 the child witness and he submits that there were major contradictions in the statement of the child witness. Learned counsel for the appellants stated that on 27.06.2011, in her cross-examination before the Court, she states that her elder brother was studying in Doon International School and thereafter she again says that all the four children were studying in Doon International School. She states that her residential address in the school was given as Nauraiya Kheda. However, subsequently in her cross-examination on 29.06.2011, she states that till the 5th standard, she had studied in Nauraiya Kheda and that the name of the school was Kedar Singh Inter College. These two statements which the PW-3 gave on 27.06.2011 and 29.06.2011 are being reproduced here as under :-

"27.6.2011

मेरी बडी बहिन ऋषि दून इन्टरनेशनल स्कूल में पढ़ती है। हम चारो भाई बहिन दून इण्टरनेशनल स्कूल में पढ़ते है। हम दोनो बहिने पिछले 4-5 साल से व कक्षा-2 से इस स्कूल में पढ़ रहे है। स्कूल में हम लोगों का पता नौरैया खेड़ा का शायद लिखा है।

29.6.2011

मैनें कक्षा 5 नौरया खेडा से पढ़ी हूँ इस समय कक्षा 6 में पढ़ रही हूँ। इन स्कूल से पहले केदार सिंह इण्टर कालेज में पढ़ते है। मेरे भाई लोग केदार सिंह इण्टर कालेज में नही पढ़ते थे वह छोटे थे।"

Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that when there was no injury on the body of the child witness Nidhi and the same was created by the family members and thereafter an injury report was obtained, it all clearly went to show that the child witness was being used for the purposes of giving credence to the prosecution case. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that under no circumstance could it be established that the injury was an injury caused during the incident. He, in fact, goes to the extent of pointing out from the judgement of the Sessions Court where he had disbelieved the injury. Learned counsel for the appellants also states that the contradiction in the statement of the child witness also goes to show that she was a tutored witness. What is more, learned counsel for the appellants submits that none of the other witnesses were brought-forth in the evidence box as they could not be tutored and only one child witness could be tutored. To bolster this argument, learned counsel for the respondents, relied upon a judgment of the Supreme Court in AIR 2023 SC 3245 : Pradeep vs. State of Haryana and specifically relied upon paragraphs 8 and 9 which are being reproduced here as under :-

"8. It is a well-settled principle that corroboration of the testimony of a child witness is not a rule but a measure of caution and prudence. A child witness of tender age is easily susceptible to tutoring. However, that by itself is no ground to reject the evidence of a child witness. The Court must make careful scrutiny of the evidence of a child witness. The Court must apply its mind to the question whether there is a possibility of the child witness being tutored. Therefore, scrutiny of the evidence of a child witness is required to be made by the Court with care and caution.

9. Before recording evidence of a minor, it is the duty of a Judicial Officer to ask preliminary questions to him with a view to ascertain whether the minor can understand the questions put to him and is in a position to give rational answers. The Judge must be satisfied that the minor is able to understand the questions and respond to them and understands the importance of speaking the truth. Therefore, the role of the Judge who records the evidence is very crucial. He has to make a proper preliminary examination of the minor by putting appropriate questions to ascertain whether the minor is capable of understanding the questions put to him and is able to give rational answers. It is advisable to record the preliminary questions and answers so that the Appellate Court can go into the correctness of the opinion of the Trial Court."

He further relied upon a judgment of the Supreme Court in State of M.P. vs. Ramesh & Anr. reported in 2011 Cri.L.J. 2297 and since he relied upon paragraph 13, the same is being reproduced here as under :-

"13. In view of the above, the law on the issue can be summarized to the effect that the deposition of a child witness may require corroboration, but in case his deposition inspires the confidence of the court and there is no embellishment or improvement therein, the court may rely upon his evidence. The evidence of a child witness must be evaluated more carefully with greater circumspection because he is susceptible to tutoring. Only in case there is evidence on record to show that a child has been tutored, the Court can reject his statement partly or fully. However, an interference as to whether child has been tutored or not, can be drawn from the contents of his deposition."

Similarly, in paragraph 9 of the judgment of the Supreme Court in K. Venkateshwarlu vs. State of Andhra Pradesh : 2012 Cri.L.J. 4388, the law is clear that a child witness, unless his witness is corroborated, should not be relied upon. Ultimately, learned counsel for the appellants relied upon the judgment of the Supreme Court in Radhey Shyam & Ors. vs. State of Rajasthan : (2023) 6 SCC 151 and here he relied upon paragraph 6 which is being reproduced here as under :-

"6. The age of PW3 was 12 years at the time of the recording of her evidence. Evidence of PW 3 cannot be rejected only on the ground that her age was 12 years. However, being a child witness, her evidence needs a very careful evaluation with greater circumspection considering the fact that a child witness can always be easily tutored. Therefore, we have made a careful scrutiny of her version"

Learned counsel for the appellants, therefore, states that the evidence of a child witness needs a careful evaluation with a great circumspection as a child witness is always amenable to tutoring. In the instant case, learned counsel for the appellants states that if proper scrutiny of the evidence of the child witness is done then definitely the evidence of the child witness had to be rejected.

(v) The other eye-witnesses Amar Singh and Preetam Singh, it was argued, were also created as eye-witnesses but they never cared to come in the witness box.

(vi) In the end learned counsel for the appellants states that the husband of the deceased-Neeta Singh though had appeared on the spot, as per the statement of PW-2, at 01:30 am after the incident had taken place at 09:00 pm on 05.03.2009, was never produced as an eye witness. Learned counsel for the appellants states that in fact the PW-2 had gone to the extent of saying that the husband of the deceased-Neeta had also appeared on the scene of the incident at the time of the postmortem on the next date i.e. on 06.03.2009 at around 10:00 to 11:00 am. He states that a husband whose wife had died and who as per Police had even talked to the accused person namely Anil Shukla on the date of the incident and who chose never to appear in the witness box, makes the prosecution story highly improbable and in fact puts the story of the prosecution in the realm of suspicion.

31. Ms. Archana Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State, however, has argued that the arguments of the learned counsel for the appellants with regard to the FIR being ante-dated does not stand on any firm ground. She submits that when the FIR was lodged on 05.03.2009 at around 23:00 hours i.e. at 11:00 pm then it definitely narrated the incident which had occurred at 09:00 pm and if the PW-11 Akhilesh Kumar Shukla had stated that he had taken Neeta Singh and Shiv Tilak Singh upon an information which he had received at 09:00 pm then there was absolutely nothing wrong in it. He could have received, as had been brought on evidence, the information at about 09:00 pm from other sources on his mobile number and this if has not been questioned, then the question with regard to the FIR being antedated, could not be agitated in the criminal appeal. Learned Additional Government Advocate further submits that the chik which was written on receiving of the Tahreer was so written on one page because it got contained in that one page itself. Learned Additional Government Advocate thereafter answering to the submission of learned counsel for the appellants that the PW-2 was a chance witness and, therefore, he was never there, was also not having any ground to stand. She submits that it was very natural for PW-2 to have reached the house of the deceased-Neeta Singh as he was to take Neeta Singh and her children to a marriage ceremony. Still further, learned Additional Government Advocate has submitted that the testimony of PW-3 the minor daughter of Smt. Neeta i.e. Ms. Nidhi also could not be ignored. A child witness normally speaks the truth and even if there were minor contradictions in her statements, they could not be ignored. Still further, learned AGA submitted that it mattered little if the articles which were to be taken to the forensic laboratory were taken out on 21.05.2009 and that they reached the forensic laboratory at Agra on 25.05.2009. She submits that after the articles were taken out, they must have been taken by the PW-13 Ram Sajivan at his own convenience.

32. Sri Anil Srivastava, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the first informant adopted the arguments of the learned AGA and vehemently argued that the appeal, on the basis of the direct eye-witnesses account, be dismissed.

33. Having heard Sri V.P. Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri P.K. Singh and Sri Vijay Singh Sengar, learned counsel for the appellants; Sri Anil Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Ram Bahadur, learned counsel for the informant and Ms. Archana Singh, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State, we are of the view that the criminal appeals deserve to be allowed. The fact that the PW-2 reached at the spot on the relevant date is very doubtful in view of the extremely shaky evidence of his. He had reached the flat where Neeta Singh was staying on a motorcycle whereas he was in possession of a car. When he was conscious that he had to take the whole family the natural thing would have been that he ought to have gone on a car. However, not taking of the car to the house of Neeta Singh, could have been ignored, had, upon a specific question being asked as to where was the invitation card, he had given an absolutely unacceptable reply with regard to the invitation card. Still further, had the story about going to the marriage, not been told, we would have considered the presence of PW-2 at the house of Neeta Singh, a close relative, a very natural thing to happen. However, what makes the prosecution case doubtful is that when the PW-2 was to take the family of the deceased to a marriage, then he ought to have mentioned about it in the FIR itself. Further in the very beginning of his testimony, he should have told about the place where he along with the deceased and her family was to go to the marriage. Still further he states that no invitation card was there on record. At one place he had stated that he was going to attend the marriage of the daughter of his Jija and at another place he had stated that the marriage was not of a very close niece but of the daughter of a Jija who was married to the daughter of a Fufa of PW-2. We also find that the PW-2 has not been able to definitely produce any invitation card for the marriage to which he intended to take Neeta Singh and her children. Still further, we find that the husband of Neeta Singh was not in Kanpur Nagar but was in Lucknow. He had no intention of attending the marriage. Similarly, we find that the other brothers who were six in number of PW-2 had also no plans of attending the marriage. In fact there is no case put-forth by the prosecution that the other brothers were to attend the marriage. What is more we find from the record that the husband of Neeta Singh had called up Anil Shukla on his phone on the date of the incident at around 09:35 pm and it has been stated that Anil Shukla was attending some other marriage. All this clearly goes to show that PW-2 was only making out a case so as to show that he was available at the flat when the incident happened and thus he was a chance witness who had been created to become an eye-witness.

34. The appellants' side, by their arguments, had clearly been able to dislodged the PW-2 as an eye-witness. Here it might suffice to say that the appeals could have been allowed by this Court on this ground itself. However, we are dealing with the other issues also as they were argued at length by the counsel for the appellants.

35. The PW-3, it has been submitted by the learned counsel for the appellants, was a child witness and, therefore, her evidence should be evaluated with caution. We find from a perusal of the FIR that it does not mention about any injury to the child witness Nidhi. We also find that for two good days the child witness and all her relatives had remained quiet about the alleged injury on her body. Suddenly on 07.03.2009 upon the entry of an uncle Shyam Singh who himself was a lawyer of some standing, the child witness was sent for medical examination. The medical examination was preceded by a chitthi majroobi which did not contain any elaborate description of any injury which had to be examined. She was sent for a general medical examination. The doctor who examined the injuries has appeared in the witness box and had stated that the injuries were definitely not of a gun shot. In fact the Court below had disbelieved the case which had been brought-forth by the child witness with regard to the injuries on her person. Still further, we find that the child witness had faltered in giving description of the school which she and her siblings were studying in for the past five years.

36. We also find that none of the brothers of PW-2 Virendra Singh appeared in the witness box. It is alright if all the brothers had not appeared but definitely the Court gets a feeling that all evidence brought-forth by the prosecution should be analysed with some trepidation and caution when a very important witness i.e. the husband of the deceased Neeta Singh was not produced as a witness of the prosecution. He was the person who could have definitely told in the first person as to whether there were any commercial transaction between him and Sonu Saxena which had been made to appear to be a cause for the murders which had taken place. We find from the evidence that on the date of occurrence i.e. 05.03.2009, the PW-2 Virendra Singh (first informant) had testified before the Court that the husband of the deceased i.e. Putti Singh had come to the hospital at around 01:30 am in the morning of 06.03.2009. He states that he was also present at the time of postmortem but what prevented him from actually participating in prosecution, makes the whole story of the prosecution very mysterious and weak.

37. With regard to the report of the ballistic expert also, this Court is of the view that when the ballistic expert stated that the empty cartridges matched, but the bullets which had entered the body did not, then it creates a definite doubt that there was some tampering done with the firearms. The firearms, as per the statement given by PW-13 Ram Sajivan, were taken out from the Malkhana on 21.05.2009 and again they were kept inside the Malkhana after one day and were handed over to PW-13 on 24.05.2009. This time, the Court feels, which the prosecution got, definitely must have enabled the prosecution to tamper with the firearms and therefore, the case of the prosecution becomes doubtful.

38. So far as the antedating of the FIR is concerned, definitely a doubt is created when the chick is seen. The chick is transcribed only on one page and if one looks at the hand-writing then it appears that efforts had been made to make the chick FIR fit into one single page. The effort was to the extent that even in the margin of the page, the chick was written. However, since there is no definite proof of any antedating, we cannot wholly rely upon this argument of the appellants.

39. From the record, we find that the appellant-Anesh Saxena @ Sonu Saxena, who had filed Criminal Appeal No.2559 of 2014, had died on 19.4.2016 and, consequently the appeal vide order dated 27.2.2017, stood abated.

40. Thus, for all the reasons which form part of this judgment, the Criminal Appeal Nos.2558 of 2014; 2582 of 2014; 2639 of 2014 and 2640 of 2014 are allowed. The judgment and order dated 26.6.2014 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Kanpur Nagar is quashed. The appellants namely Sushil Kumar Dwivedi @ Sonu Dwivedi, Anil Kumar Shukla; Santosh Kumar Dwivedi @ Guddu Dwivedi and Shrawan Kumar Shukla @ Tanu Shukla, who are in jail, be released forthwith unless they are required in any other case.

(2024) 5 ILRA 115
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 16.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2609 of 2022

Pradeep Kumar Verma ...Appellant
Versus
Union of India ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Rajeev Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondent:
Shiv P. Shukla

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 120-B, 409 & 477-A - Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988-- Section 13 (2) r/w Section 13 (1) (c) (d) -The Code of Criminal Procedure,1973-Section 197-The Constitution of India, 1950- Article 20 (3) - Criminal Appeal against order of conviction passed by the trail court-The learned trail court without referring to the prosecution evidence has proceeded to refer to the defense evidence first-An authority competent to remove an official from service is competent to give sanction for prosecution of the employee but the Prosecution did not adduce any documentary evidence before the trial Court to prove as to who was the authority competent to remove a Postal Assistant and an Assistant Post Master from service.

The trial Court has not even gone through the St.ments given by the prosecution witnesses in their cross-examination- No proof of any falsification of account- No proof that any of the appellants had obtained any valuable thing or pecuniary advantage or that they intentional enriched themselves illicitly during the period of their office- No accused person can be convicted on the basis of a mere presumption- No accused person is bound to disclose facts which will ensure his conviction- The difficulty in adducing direct evidence does not mean that the prosecution is not required to adduce any evidence of conspiracy and the Court will simply presume that the accused persons had entered into a conspiracy. In absence of direct evidence, conspiracy has to be proved by circumstantial evidence-The enquiry team had not made any enquiry regarding who was guilty for the embezzlement-Prosecution could not give any evidence of a conspiracy between the accused persons and the only evidence was one accused acted negligently in supervising the work of the other accused-Result- judgment of conviction and sentence set aside

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Manzoor Ali Khan Vs U.O.I. & ors.: (2015) 2 SCC 33

2. Heera Lal Bhagwati Vs CBI: AIR 2003 SC 2545

3. Esher Singh Vs St. of A.P. (2004) 11 SCC 585

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Manish Bajpai, the learned counsel for the appellant in Criminal Appeal No.2261 of 2022, Sri Rajeev Kumar Srivastava, the learned counsel for the appellant in Criminal Appeal No.2609 of 2022 and Sri Shiv P. Shukla, the learned counsel for the respondent-Union of India.

2. Both the aforesaid appeals have been filed against the same judgment and order dated 25.08.2022, passed by the learned Special Judge, P.C. Act, C.B.I. Court No.4, Lucknow in Criminal Case No.18 of 2007, which was instituted on the basis of F.I.R. bearing R.C. No.6 (A) of 2007 and, therefore, the same are being decided by a common judgment.

3. The facts relating to Criminal Appeal No.2609 of 2022 & Criminal Appeal No.2261 of 2022 are that the Superintendent, Post Office, Fatehgarh Division, Farrukhabad had given a complaint dated 28.02.2007 to the Superintendent of Police, C.B.I./A.C.B. Lucknow stating that Pradeep Kumar Verma (the appellant in Criminal Appeal No.2609 of 2022 was posted as Postal Assistant, Amar Nath Agnihotri (the appellant in Criminal Appeal No.2261 of 2022) was posted as Assistant Postmaster and Alladin was posted as Postmaster in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh, District Farrukhabad during the period August 2005 to January 2006. Pradeep Kumar Verma was assigned the duties of savings certificate discharge counter. He used to receive cash from the head post office and to make payments in respect of National Savings Certificate (NSC), Kisan Vikas Patra (KVP) and Indira Vikas Patra (IVP) and after fulfilling all the formalities Amar Nath Agnihotri, Assistant Postmaster used to examine the documents and Alladin, Post Master used to verify the transactions regarding NSC, KVP and IVP. In the months of August 2005 to January 2006, Pradeep Kumar Verma embezzled Rs.31,92,772/-. Amar Nath Agnihotri and Alladin did not check the receipt book, discharge journals and monthly returns etc. properly, made false entries in records, committed forgery in the documents and embezzled Rs.31,92,772/-. The offence was committed in connivance with Amar Nath Agnihotri and Alladin. The Superintendent of the Post Office had made a request for initiating legal proceedings against Pradeep Kumar Verma, Amar Nath Agnihotri and Alladin.

4. On the basis of the aforesaid complaint, an F.I.R. bearing RC No.06 (A) of 2007, under Sections 120-B, 409, 477-A I.P.C. and Section 13 (2) read with Section 13 (1) (c) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 was lodged in Police Station C.B.I./A.C.B. Lucknow, U.P. After investigation a charge-sheet dated 19.06.2007 for the offences under Sections 120-B, 409, 477-A I.P.C. and Section 13 (2) read with Section 13 (1) (c) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 was filed against Pradeep Kumar Verma and Amar Nath Agnihotri only and the learned trial court took cognizance of the offence on 08.06.2007 and they were tried in Criminal Case No.18 of 2007.

5. Both the accused persons were convicted and sentenced as follows: -

(i) three years simple imprisonment and Rs.20,000/- fine for the offence under Section 120-B I.P.C. read with Section 409, 477-A I.P.C. and simple imprisonment for an additional period of four months in case of failure to pay fine;

(ii) ten years simple imprisonment and Rs.25,000/- fine for the offence under Section 409 I.P.C. and simple imprisonment for an additional period of one year in case of failure to pay fine;

(iii) five years simple imprisonment and Rs.20,000/- fine for the offence under Section 477-A I.P.C. and simple imprisonment for an additional period of one year in case of failure to pay fine;

(iv) five years simple imprisonment and Rs.20,000/- fine for the offence under Section 120-B I.P.C. read with Section 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and simple imprisonment for an additional period of five months in case of failure to pay fine;

(v) five years simple imprisonment and Rs.20,000/- fine for the offence under Sections 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and simple imprisonment for an additional period of five months in case of failure to pay fine; and

(vi) five years simple imprisonment and Rs.20,000/- fine for the offence under Sections 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 and simple imprisonment for an additional period of five months in case of failure to pay fine.

6. A charge-sheet was submitted against both the appellants on 07.12.2011, under Sections 120-B read with 409 and 477-A I.P.C. 409 I.P.C., 477-A I.P.C. 120-B I.P.C. read with Section 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, Section 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) of Prevention of Corruption Act and Section 13 (2) read with Section 13 (1) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act.

7. The prosecution examined eleven witnesses besides submitting documentary evidences.

8. The appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma denied the allegations in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and stated that the prosecution sanction had been granted against the Rules. He had done all works relating to KVP, NSC and IVP and prepared discharge journals and hand-to-hand receipt books in his own hand writing as per the Rules, on the basis whereof the day-to-day account was countersigned by the Treasurer, the Postmaster and APM-II. Had he committed any irregularities the Assistant Postmaster and the Postmaster would have made a complaint to the higher authorities. The Investigating Officer conducted the investigation properly and submitted a charge-sheet wrongly. The matter was initiated by an unsigned letter dated 09.10.2006 purportedly sent by some office bearer of the employees union. Pradeep Kumar Verma had been elected as a delegate in the elections of U.P. Postal Cooperative Society held in September 2006, due to which his rivals and some other persons had become jealous of him. A dispute had occurred with PW-3 Arun Yadav regarding checking of attendance register of Head Post Office relating to August, 2006. He had been falsely implicated due to these reasons.

9. The other appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri stated in his statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. that the prosecution sanction had been granted in a mechanical way without independent application of mind. The responsibility of supervision of daily work rests on the Postmaster. He stated that he had joined the Postal Department in July, 2004 after coming back from Army Postal Service. During this entire tenure he did not verify any document. No punishment was imposed upon him in the departmental proceedings, whereas some other employees had been punished.

10. A bare perusal of the impugned judgment and order passed by the learned trial court indicates a glaring flaw in its approach inasmuch as without referring to the prosecution evidence, the learned trial court has proceeded to refer to the defense evidence first.

11. DW-1 Pradeep Kumar Verma stated that he got appointed in Postal Department on 01.11.1983 as a Branch Assistant. He remained posted in various sub post offices. He had passed the savings bank eligibility test in the year 1996. He was transferred to the post of Postal Assistant in Head Office, Fatehgarh on 16.06.2005. He was assigned the duties of savings bank section. He had been elected the Divisional Secretary of the departmental employees union in the year 1992. In the year 1997, he was elected as the Divisional Secretary of All India Postal Employees Union Class-III. In the year 2005 he had been elected as a delegate of U.P. Postal Cooperative Societies, Hazratganj, Lucknow. Dr. Arun Yadav, who was working as Complaint Inspector in the office of Postal Superintendent, Fatehgarh, had openly supported the appellant's rival candidate and he had pressurized the polling officials to get votes in favour of another candidate. A complaint in this regard was made to the Superintendent of Post Office, Farrukhabad, whereupon Dr. Arun Yadav had been removed from the polling centre. While Dr. Arun Yadav was holding the post of Complaint Inspector, he came at about 2.30 p.m. on some day in August, 2005 and checked the attendance register and he misbehaved with the employees who had not signed the attendance register, including a lady employee Smt. Sunita Yadav. The employees told Pradeep Kumar Verma about the ill treatment of Dr. Yadav and he had talked to Dr. Arun Yadav stating that a crowd gathers even before opening of the counters and in a haste of starting the work the employees could not have made their signatures. The complaint of this incident was also made to the Superintendent Post Office Farrukhabad, whereupon Dr. Arun Yadav had abused and threatened Pradeep Kumar Verma that he would not be able to continue his service.

12. Pradeep Kumar Verma further stated that Lajja Ram Dixit, who was working as an Assistant Post Master-II, has leveled a false allegation that the appellant had taken away the pending return vouchers. In the year 1999 several complaints regarding corruption were made against the Post Office Superintendent R. P. Tripathi. The Chief Post Master General, Lucknow had sent a letter dated 25.11.1999 to Pradeep Kumar Verma asking him to examine the correctness of the complaint. While the appellant was lodged in District Jail, Lucknow since April, 2007, on 25.09.2008 he was removed from service in furtherance of an ex-parte enquiry, on some other charges, which are not related to the allegations of embezzlement involved in the present case.

13. Pradeep Kumar Verma also stated that no complaint of the alleged embezzlement had been made by any investor. An unsigned complaint was made at 10.00 a.m. on 09.10.2006 when the Superintendent of the Post office was on L.T.C. leave and without verifying its correctness, an enquiry team was constituted consisting of R.C. Verma and Sarvesh Kumar Mishra, Inspectors Post Office, Farrukhabad, Imran Khan, the Complaint Inspector, Farrukhabad and Dr. Arun Yadav, Inspector, Post Office, Chhibramau and it reached Head Post Office Farrukhabad within an hour at about 11.30 a.m.. The members of the enquiry team remained present in the Head Office till 4.00 p.m. on 09.10.2006. The returns of KVP, NSC, IVP for all pending months had already been prepared, been signed by the Assistant Postmaster-II, Amar Nath Agnihotri and had been handed over to Postmaster, Fatehgarh even before 09.10.2006 for physical verification of return vouchers. The return of the Head Post Office and 63 other Sub Post Offices had already been submitted for certification of the cash-books by Assistant Postmasters Accounts/Postmasters.

14. Pradeep Kumar Verma further stated that while the enquiry team was present in the Head Office on 09.10.2006, three bags containing KVP of the months March, 2006, July, 2006 and September 2006 had been booked in parcel at 01.53 hrs. which bags had been handed over by Banking Clerk Rajesh Shakya to Smt. Sunita Yadav on the dispatch counter. In her examination, the Dispatch Clerk Sunita Yadav admitted having received three parcels and having sent the same to RMS, Kanpur. On 10.10.2006 the Postmaster Fatehgarh, Alladin had given information of booking of return parcel to the Assistant Superintendent and the officer in-charge of the enquiry team, where upon all the three booked parcels were intercepted midway and received by the Assistant Superintendent Headquarter at his office on 11.10.2006, whereas as per the departmental Rules, any registered post/parcel can be returned only on the request of the sender. The parcels in question had been sent by the Postmaster, Head Post Office, Fatehgarh and he had not made any request for getting return of the already sent parcels. All the three parcels were opened without any order of Superintendent, Post Office, Farrukhabad and a list/inventory was prepared. The discharge journal, hand-to-hand receipt book and payment register etc. used to be given to the Treasurer and the Treasurer used to prepare HO summary, payment journal, vouchers and payment register on daily basis. When the account tallied, the Assistant Postmaster-Accounts used to make entries in the cash-book. After the account was tallied, the original vouchers and journal returns used to be kept in the custody of the Assistant Postmaster-II. The number of KVP, NSC and IVP, in respect of which payment was made on daily basis, was shown in the monthly statistics register which was signed by the Postmaster on daily basis.

15. After referring to the evidence of accused-appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma the learned trial court has referred to the submissions advanced on behalf of the accused Pradeep Kumar Verma in order to establish that he is innocent. This approach of the learned trial court is also patently erroneous and against the well established principles of trial of criminal cases in which the prosecution is required to make out a case and it is only thereafter that an accused person is called upon to defend himself. Therefore, the trial courts first deal with the prosecution evidence and submissions made by the prosecutor and the defence is considered only later on but a contrary approach has been adopted by the learned trial court in the present case.

16. It was argued on behalf of the prosecution that while working on the post of Postal Assistant in the Head Office, Fatehgarh, District Farrukhabad on 17.08.2005, 20.08.2005, 22.08.2005, 25.08.2005, 02.09.2005, 03.09.2005, 13.09.2005, 15.09.2005, 05.10.2005, 22.10.2005, 24.10.2005, 26.10.2005, 29.10.2005, 17.11.2005, 18.11.2005, 19.11.2005, 30.11.2005, 05.12.2005, 06.12.2005, 07.12.2005, 12.12.2005, 16.12.2005, 29.12.2005, 17.01.2006 and 23.01.2006, the appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma, acting under a criminal conspiracy with the other appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri, showed payment of excess amount in the government documents e.g. hand-to-hand receipt books, discharge journals and monthly returns etc. and he dishonestly made payments of KVP of lesser value. By committing forgery and making false entries in the documents, he misappropriated Rs.31,92,772/- and thereby caused wrongful gain to himself and to the co-accused Amar Nath Agnihotri and he caused wrongful loss of the aforesaid amount to the postal department.

17. The trial Court referred to the examination-in-chief of PW-1 Awdhesh Kumar Srivastava, who was posted as Superintendent, Post Office Fatehgarh in the year 2007 and he had granted sanction for prosecution of the appellants. He stated that he was the competent authority to remove both the appellants from their posts.

18. The learned trial court held that the prosecution sanction was granted by PW-1 after applying his independent mind and it was legal and valid. It is relevant to note that only an authority competent to remove an official from service is competent to give sanction for prosecution of the employee but the Prosecution did not adduce any documentary evidence before the trial Court to prove as to who was the authority competent to remove a Postal Assistant and an Assistant Post Master from service.

19. PW-2 Uday Prakash Gangal stated in his examine-in-chief that he was posted as Assistant Superintendent, Post Office, Fatehgarth from the afternoon of 23.02.2007 to 07.10.2009 and he had worked as officer-in-charge of the enquiry team with effect from 06.03.2007. The other members of the enquiry team were Sri Ram Sagar Sharma, Deputy Divisional Inspector, Kannauj, Dr. Arun Yadav, Deputy Divisional Inspector, Chhibramau and Sri Sarvesh Kumar Mishra, Deputy Divisional Inspector Farrukhabad. Prior to PW-1 Sri R. C. Verma and Sri R.S. Pal had headed the enquiry team respectively. The PW-2 proved the F.I.R. that had been lodged by the PW-1 Awdhesh Kumar Srivastava. This witness deposed about the procedure for payment of KVP as per which at the start of the day, the Postal Assistant KVP payment counter receives cash after making entry in the cash-book maintained by the Treasurer, after verification by the Postmaster or the Assistant Postmaster. In absence of the Treasurer, he obtains payment from other Postal Assistants working on other counters with the prior approval of Postmaster or the Assistant Postmaster and these transactions are recorded by the concerned Counter Assistant in hand-to-hand receipt books. The KVPs received for payment are checked by the Postal Assistants working on KVP payment counter and thereafter he presents the KVPs along with guard-file of purchase of KVP certificate to the Assistant Postmaster. After checking the details, the Assistant Postmaster grants approval for payment and makes a remark "paid on ……date" on the certificate. The Postal Assistant also makes an entry on the certificates received after approval of Assistant Postmasters and in case the amount to be paid is less than Rs.20,000/-, he makes cash payment after taking an acknowledgment of receipt, but if the amount is Rs.20,000/- or more, the payment is made through an account payee cheque. At the close of each working day the Postal Assistant working on the KVPs payment counters prepares the discharge journals of paid KVPs containing serial number of the certificate, it's value and registration number. The discharge journals are prepared denomination wise and are checked and sanctioned by Assistant Postmasters on daily basis. The Postal Assistant working on the payment counter maintains the register of discharged KVPs, wherein the consolidated amount paid denomination wise is also recorded. The Assistant Postmasters tallies the discharge details recorded in the discharge journals with the discharged KVPs and attaches the discharged KVPs to the discharge journal. The discharge journals are signed by the Postal Assistant and Assistant Postmaster and the seal of the post office is put on it. The Postal Assistant prepares an abstract in the hand-to-hand receipt book wherein he enters the total amount received from the treasury, the total amount received from the other Postal Assistants and the total amount paid and he returns the balance amount to the treasurer. The Treasurer receives the balance amount and enters it in the hand-to-hand receipt book. The Treasurer prepares Head Office summary according to the aforesaid abstract of discharged certificates and treasurer's cash-book.

20. PW-2 categorically stated that the Postmaster is responsible for the entries made in the Head Office summary. The discharged certificates and the discharge journals are kept in the personal custody of Assistant Postmasters, till the same are submitted to the Director of Postal Accounts. At the end of the month, a consolidated summary of the discharged certificates is prepared under the supervision of the Assistant Postmaster and the original discharged certificates are sent to the Director, Postal Accounts, Lucknow. The postmaster is responsible for sending the monthly details to Director Postal Accounts. The Treasurer maintains the Head Office summary wherein the receipts and payments made under all the heads are recorded. The Postmaster checks the Head Office summary from the registers of all the related sections. The Postmaster checks the discharged savings certificates and satisfies himself that the amount of paid up savings certificates mentioned in the Head Office summary is as per the discharge journals of discharged certificates and that they are available in record.

21. The PW-3 Arun Yadav stated in his examination-in-chief that he was a member of the enquiry team constituted for enquiring embezzlement made in the Head Post Office Fatehgarh during the period August, 2005 to January, 2006. The enquiry was conducted after the relevant original KVPs discharge journals were received back from the Director, Postal Accounts, Lucknow and it was found that embezzlement of Rs.1,00,000/- was made on 20.08.2005, Rs.1,00,000/- on 22.08.2005, Rs.19,19,942/- on 25.08.2005, Rs.40,516 on 02.09.2005, Rs.20,000/- on 03.09.2005, Rs.2,00,000/- on 13.09.2005, Rs.1,00,000/- on 15.09.2005, Rs.2,000/- on 05.10.2005, Rs.1,40,000/- on 22.10.2005, Rs.80,116/- on 24.10.2005, Rs.6,000/- on 29.10.2005, Rs.80,000/- on 26.10.2005, Rs.3,40,000/- on 18.11.2005, Rs.2,00,000/- on 18.11.2005, Rs.2,40,000/- on 19.11.2005, Rs.1,000/- on 30.11.2005, Rs.2,00,000/- on 05.12.20005, Rs.6,00,000/- on 06.12.2005, Rs.2,00,000/- on 07.12.2005, Rs.1,20,000/- on 12.12.2005, Rs.20,000/- on 16.12.2005, Rs.4,10,320/- on 29.12.2005, Rs.100/- on 17.01.2006 and Rs.2,000/- were embezzled on 23.01.2006. The accused had made an excess deposited of Rs.222/- on 17.08.2005. The total amount embezzled on the aforesaid dates came to Rs.31,92,772/- which had been made by the appellants. The complaint of embezzlement was made to C.B.I. by Awadhesh Kumar Srivastava, the then Superintendent Post Office Fatehgarh (PW-1). The complaint Exhibit-A3/1 and A3/2 were proved by PW-2. He proved D-3 seizure memo dated 09.04.2007 relating to hand-to-hand receipt book, NSC, KVP issued during the period 01.08.2005 to 31.08.2005 and 01.10.2005 to 31.12.2005 and Head Office summary for the period 01.08.2005 to 11.08.2005 and 03.10.2005 to 30.12.2005 which bear signatures of U.P. Gangal (PW-2).

22. The witness PW-3 Arun Yadav stated that the members of the Enquiry Team had made an assessment of the embezzled amount on the basis of documents D-4, hand-to-hand receipt book of NSC, KVP, IVP, discharge accounts relating to the period August, 2005 to 31.12.2005.

23. The PW-4 Awadhesh Singh Yadav stated that he had worked on the NSC issue counter in the Head Post office during June, 2001 till September 2006. He stated that as he had worked with the appellants, he recognizes their hand writings and signatures. He proved documents D-4 hand-to-hand receipt book of NSC, KVP, IVP, discharge accounts which was marked as Ex-A7. Hand-to-hand receipt books for the dates 05.10.2005, 22.10.2005, 24.10.2005, 29.10.2005, 17.11.2005, 18.11.2005, 19.11.2005, 30.11.2005, 05.12.2005, 06.12.2005, 07.12.2005, 12.12.2005, 16.12.2005, 29.12.2005, 17.01.2006 and 23.01.2006 were attached to it. These hand-to-hand receipt books had been prepared and signed by Pradeep Kumar Verma. He stated that Suresh Chandra Gupta, Assistant Postmaster had worked and signed on 05.10.2005, 20.11.2005 and 30.11.2005. D-7 Treasure's cash-book had signatures of PW-4 as the treasurer on 05.10.2005. He further stated that the document D-5 was the hand-to-hand receipt books of the NSC/KVP issue counter for the period 01.08.2005 to 31.10.2005, which had been prepared by PW-3 in his own handwriting, except for 04.10.2005 and 07.10.2005.

24. PW-5 Collector Singh was posted as treasurer in the post office. He also stated that the hand-to-hand receipt book contains signatures of Suresh Chandra Gupta, Assistant Postmaster on some of the dates and on rest of the dates Amar Nath Agnihotri had signed as the Assistant Postmaster. While performing the duties of treasurer in that post office, PW-5 used to provide cash to RD counters and NSC discharge counter as per the instructions of the Postmaster or the Assistant Postmaster, make an entry in the cash-book and get the same signed by the concerned Postal Assistant. At the end of the working hours, the amount remaining with all the counters was received by PW-5 through hand-to-hand receipt book and entries were made in the Treasurer's cash-book and HO summary on the basis of hand-to-hand receipt book. While closing the treasury, signature of postmaster are obtained on the HO summary. This witness stated after seeing document D-9 that the certificates and discharge journals dated 17.08.2005 were available therein, which included one certificate of Rs.500/-, eleven certificates of Rs.1,000/-, seven certificates of Rs.5,000/- and 58 certificates of Rs.10,000/-, without any discharge journal. All the certificates and discharge journal bear signature of Amar Nath Agnihotri and the discharge journals had been prepared in the handwriting of accused Pradeep Kumar Verma. This witness proved KVP certificate and discharge journal filed as D-10 and stated that 4 certificates of denomination Rs.1,000/-, 7 of denomination Rs.5,000/- and 12 of denomination Rs.10,000/- and three discharge journals relating to the aforesaid certificates prepared in the hand writing of Pradeep Kumar Verma were there before the witness and the rear side of KVP certificates and discharge journals bear signatures of Amar Nath Agnihotri, which was proved by him as Exhibit-A9. Similarly this witness proved D-11 containing 46 KVP certificates and discharge journals dated 22.08.2005, D-12 containing 64 certificates and discharge journals dated 25.08.2005, D-16 containing 33 certificates and discharge journal dated 02.09.2005.

25. The trial court observed that in the light of the aforesaid statements of witness when the court examined D-16, it was found that there were 10 certificates of denomination of Rs.1,000/-, 2 of Rs.500/-, 3 of Rs.5,000/-, 4 of Rs.100/- and 28 of Rs.10,000/- These certificates bear signatures of Suresh Chandra Gupta. Some of the certificates bear signatures of some other officer, which are not recognized by the witness.

26. PW-5 Collector Singh stated that the document D-13 consisted of 16 certificates of denomination of Rs.1,000/-, 2 of Rs.5,000/-, 9 of Rs.10,000/-, 18 of Rs.1,000/-, 01 of Rs.1,000/- and 01 of Rs.500/- along with voucher dated 03.09.2005. These certificates bear signature of some Assistant Postmaster other than Amar Nath Agnihotri. D-13 was marked as Ex-A-13. Similarly, this witness proved numerous other certificates and discharge journals for various dates.

27. PW-6 Ram Sagar Sharma stated that he had worked as Deputy Divisional Inspector Kannauj since 01.10.2004 to 30.09.2007 and he was one of the members of the enquiry team. The enquiry team had verified NSC, KVP payment vouchers for the period September, 2005 to January, 2006 which were provided to the enquiry team from the Head Post Office summary, the Treasurer cash-book and hand-to-hand receipt book etc. During continuance of the proceedings PW-6 had been included as a member of the enquiry team in place of Imran Khan. He stated that Pradeep Kumar Verma made payment of Rs.12,59,690/-, Rs.4,16,815/- Rs.5,84,070/-, Rs.13,04,284/- towards KVPs discharged on 17.08.2005, 20.08.2005, 22.08.2005 and 25.08.2005 respectively, whereas as per the available voucher the amount of payment on the aforesaid dates were Rs.12,59,912/-, Rs.3,16,815/-, Rs.4,48,070/- and Rs.11,04,342/- respectively and the difference amount had been embezzled by the accused persons. Similar statements were given regarding some other dates also and the witness stated that the accused persons embezzled a total of Rs.31,92,772/- to various dates. The basis of this inference of embezzlement was that the vouchers of the aforesaid amount were not found during enquiry. He further stated that the embezzlement was done by Pradeep Kumar Verma. Amar Nath Agnihotri was responsible for supervising the work of Pradeep Kumar Verma and he did not supervise it as per the departmental rules, due to which embezzlement was made and, therefore, Amar Nath Agnihotri is also responsible for the embezzlement.

28. PW-7 Sarvesh Kumar Mishra stated that he was also one of the members of the enquiry team. The enquiry team had conducted the enquiry on the basis of the documents and vouchers obtained from the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh in which it was found that the amount of vouchers received during the enquiry was less than the amount shown in the accounts as having been paid.

29. PW-7 categorically stated that the amount of payment vouchers which were not available, was treated by the enquiry team as the amount embezzled. He further stated that as per the departmental rules, all the paid up vouchers ought to have been in custody of the Assistant Postmaster Amar Nath Agnihotri but the accused persons did not follow the departmental rules and these vouchers continued to remain with Pradeep Kumar Verma and were taken by Pradeep Kumar Verma to his home.

30. It is recorded in the judgment that PW-7 had been cross-examined on behalf of the accused persons and even in his cross-examination he merely reiterated the statements given in his examination-in-chief and no such discrepancy came to light in his cross-examination as may create a doubt against the credibility of this witness.

31. PW-8 Upendra Kumar stated that he used to work as a Postal Assistant on S/B Counter in August, 2005, during which period Amar Nath Agnihotri was working as Assistant Post Master-II (S/B). The Counter Clerks used to take cash from the Treasury in the morning and to render accounts and enter the balance amount in hand-to-hand receipt book and deposit the balance cash amount in the Treasury, after counter signature of APM-II. The APM-II used to prepare separate log books for the transactions made on the counters during the entire day and tally the same with hand-to-hand receipt books. Nominal roll was prepared by the Reader of the Postmaster and was signed by the Postmaster. Nominal roll contains particulars regarding which of the employee will perform which duty during the day. He further stated that the treasurer prepares a head-wise/item-wise HO summary on the basis of hand-to-hand receipt book for various counters. Pradeep Kumar Verma was looking after the work of NSC discharge, whereas this witness was working on S/B counter during the relevant time and he also gave a date wise description of the amounts obtained by Pradeep Kumar Verma like other previous witnesses.

32. PW-9 Santosh Kumar Pandey was working as a Junior Accounts Officer in the Office of the Director, Postal Accounts and he proved the document D-2, through which the summary description of discharged KVP Journals of the desired dates had been provided. The summary ran into 4 pages annexed with D-2 and he had gone to the C.B.I. Office and had handed over the same. In his cross-examination, PW-9 stated that the vouchers which could be found out, had been made available over to C.B.I. When asked about the monthly returns, PW-9 stated that whatever had been received through parcel, was made available to the C.B.I.

33. PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal stated that he had worked as an Officer In-charge of the enquiry team. Pradeep Kumar Verma had prepared the hand-to-hand receipt book for the period 17.08.2005 to 23.01.2006 in his own handwriting and it bears the signature of Pradeep Kumar Verma and Amar Nath Agnihotri, APM. On three of the dates i.e. 05.10.2005, 24.10.2005 and 30.11.2005 it had been signed by Suresh Chandra, APM and on other dates Amar Nath Agnihotri had signed it. HO summary of the dates on which the alleged fraud was committed, had been prepared by Treasurer, Collector Singh (PW-5), which bears signature of the Postmaster R.P. Gupta and Alladin.

34. PW-11 Ram Naresh Dwivedi was entrusted investigation of the matter by means of an order dated 01.03.2007, passed by the Superintendent of Police, CBI/ACB, Lucknow. He had recorded statements of witnesses and obtained original KVPs journal summary and other documents and had submitted a charge-sheet against the appellants on 19.06.2007.

35. The learned trial court mentioned the submissions advanced on behalf of the accused Pradeep Kumar Verma that he was progressing in the departmental position in a very impressive manner and, therefore, the officers of the post office hatched a conspiracy and got him entangled in it and charges had been prepared against him only on the basis of findings of the enquiry report.

36. The learned trial court concluded that the accused persons took advantage of the shortcomings in the rules of the post office and made embezzlement and were successful in concealing the same for a long period of time. Had Amar Nath Agnihotri performed his duties in a proper manner, embezzlement would have come to light immediately and action would have been taken. Amar Nath Agnihotri knowingly committed negligence in performance of his duties. He did not supervise the work of Pradeep Kumar Verma. He continued to verify the entries made by Pradeep Kumar Verma, thereby assisting in commission of his criminal acts. This establishes the criminal intent of Amar Nath Agnihotri. The learned trial court referred to the principle of law that a person seeking equity must approach with clean hands. The court held that the members of the enquiry team have given evidence which establishes complicity of the accused persons in the commission of offence in connivance with each other and the submissions advanced on behalf of the accused person that they have been entangled by hatching a conspiracy because of animosity, is fictitious and fabricated, as the accused persons could not give any evidence in support of this contention.

37. The learned trial court further held that Amar Nath Agnihotri used to supervise the work of Pradeep Kumar Verma and verify the entries made by Pradeep Kumar Verma in hand-to-hand receipt books. He committed negligence in performance of his duty and verified the entries without tallying the same with other related documents and thus he assisted in criminal activities of Pradeep Kumar Verma. If such act is committed repetitively, the same cannot be done without predetermination and criminal conspiracy.

38. The learned trial court found that the prosecution witnesses have clearly proved that Pradeep Kumar Verma has shown false and forged payment in hand-to-hand receipt books. Amar Nath Agnihotri, APM SB-II verified the fake entries of payments in hand-to-hand books under a criminal conspiracy with Pradeep Kumar Verma, whereas he was responsible to verify the entries in hand-to-hand receipt books by original discharged vouchers, which he failed to do. Thus both the accused persons cheated the postal department and caused financial loss to it.

39. The learned trial court found that the prosecution has been successful in proving that while working on the post of Postal Assistant in Head Post Office, Fatehgarh, District Farrukhabad on 17.08.2005, 20.08.2005, 22.08.2005, 25.08.2005, 02.09.2005, 03.09.005, 13.09.2005, 15.09.2005, 05.10.2005, 22.10.2005, 24.10.2005, 26.10.2005, 29.10.2005, 17.11.2005, 18.11.2005, 19.11.2005, 30.11.2005, 05.12.2005, 06.12.2005, 07.12.2005, 12.12.2005, 16.12.2005, 29.12.2005, 17.01.2006 and 23.01.2006 acting under a criminal conspiracy with the co-accused Amar Nath Agnihotri, Assistant Postmaster. He showed excess payment in hand-to-hand receipt books, discharge journals and monthly returns etc. whereas he deceitfully made payments of lessor amounts towards Kisan Vikas Patra and by making forgery of documents and false entries he embezzled Rs.31,92,772/-. The payment vouchers of the aforesaid excess amounts could not be found during enquiry, whereas Pradeep Kumar Verma had obtained the amounts from the treasury and it is established from the cash summary and hand-to-hand receipt books of the Head Post Office. The learned trial court found that PW-6 has proved the attendance register (D-34) of Head Post Office for the period August, 2005 to January, 2006 for the dates 22.08.2005, 25.08.2005, 02.09.2005, 03.09.2005, 13.09.2005, 15.09.2005, 05.10.2005, 22.10.2005, 24.10.2005, 26.10.2005, 29.10.2005, 17.11.2005, 18.11.2005, 19.11.2005, 30.11.2005, 05.12.2005, 06.12.2005, 07.12.2005, 12.12.2005, 16.12.2005, 29.12.2005, 17.01.2006 and 23.01.2006 to show that the accused persons were present on duty on the aforesaid dates.

40. After recording the aforesaid finding, the learned trial court proceeded to record that the accused persons have not proved the documents submitted in their defence by producing any independent witness. The defense documents produced by Amar Nath Agnihotri were photocopies, which had not been proved by any independent defense witness. Pradeep Kumar Verma had produced photocopies of termination order dated 25.09.2008, F.I.R. No.535/99 dated 02.11.1999, under Sections 409, 420 I.P.C. and the final report submitted by the Investigating Officer. Pradeep Kumar Verma had also produced photocopy of a complaint sent by him to the then Minister of Communication, Government of India regarding the misdeeds committed by Sri Ram Prasad Tripathi, the then Superintendent, Post office, Farrukhabad and Sri K.P. Pandey, the then Postmaster, Fatehgarh and another complaint submitted to the Director General, Post against Ram Prasad Tripathi the then Superintendent, Post Office Fatehgarh but these had also not been proved by any independent witness. The complaint did not bear any date and, therefore, the same was suspicious. The learned trial court held that the aforesaid complaint did not diminish the effect of charges leveled against the accused persons and the merits of the case.

41. After recording finding of guilt of the accused persons, the learned trial court proceeded to examine the submissions advanced by the accused Amar Nath Agnihotri that the prosecution sanction had been granted in a mechanical manner; that the postmaster was responsible for supervision and verification of day to day work of post office and that no punishment was inflicted upon him in the departmental enquiry (in respect of the same allegation), whereas some other employees had been punished. It was also submitted on behalf of Amar Nath Agnihotri that he was absent on some of the dates.

42. This approach of the learned trial court in holding the accused persons guilty even before proceeding to examine their defence, indicates that the trial court was predetermined to convict the accused persons even before examining their defence.

43. The learned trial court rejected all the submissions made in defence and held that non-infliction of any penalty in departmental enquiry would not absolve him to his responsibilities. The absence of Amar Nath Agnihori on some of the dates would not absolve him of his negligence towards performance of his duties on other dates on which he was present, particularly when the offence was committed as a series of acts.

44. While assailing the validity of the aforesaid order the learned counsel for the appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma has submitted that as per the statement of the prosecution witnesses, Pradeep Kumar Verma has been held to be guilty of committing embezzlement for the sole reason that some discharge vouchers were not produced before the enquiry team. No evidence had been led to establish that any embezzlement had actually been committed. Pradeep Kumar Verma cannot be held guilty of any embezzlement merely on the basis that some discharge journals were not made available to the enquiry team, in absence of any proof of actual embezzlement.

45. The learned counsel for the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri has submitted that the Investigating Officer did not carry out any investigation and he has submitted the charge-sheet merely on the basis of the departmental enquiry conducted by the enquiry team. When Amar Nath Agnihotri has been exonerated in departmental enquiry, submission of charge-sheet and conviction in furtherance of the same on the basis of a departmental enquiry alone, is unsustainable in law.

46. While deciding the question of sentence the learned trial court took into consideration the submissions made on behalf of Pradeep Kumar Verma that he has been terminated from service in another matter and Rs.14,00,000/- have been recovered from him.

47. On behalf of the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri, it was submitted that he was aged 71 years (at the time of conviction order) and had spent 2 years 7 months in jail and 20% of his pension had been deducted for a period of three years. Nothing has been recovered from him from his home.

48. It is relevant to note that the F.I.R. was lodged by Awadhesh Kumar Srivastava PW-1 who did not prove the same before the trial court. The F.I.R. has been proved by PW-2, who had not lodged the F.I.R. himself. Although, the enquiry team had found that Suresh Chandra Gupta had performed the duties of Assistant Postmaster on three dates, on which dates also some vouchers were not found and it was found that payments had been made without any vouchers, Suresh Chandra Gupta was not made an accused in the case. Although, it is correct that an accused can be convicted if the charges against him are proved and mere non-involvement of any other person involved in the commission of offence as an accused in the case in itself will not be fatal to the prosecution case, this fact is relevant for consideration of the plea of the accused persons that they were entangled under a conspiracy by some other officers of the department in a vindictive manner. The conduct of the officers in not including Suresh Chandra Gupta, who had worked as Assistant Postmaster on three dates, on which dates also some discrepancies were found in the account, supports this contention of the accused person.

49. The witnesses PW-2 clearly stated that the responsibility of maintenance of the records of the post office lied on the Postmaster and yet the Postmaster has not been made an accused in the case.

50. The witnesses PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal had stated that the Treasurer Alladin was responsible for maintenance of the records of the Treasury and although discrepancies were found therein also Alladin has also not been made an accused.

51. These facts support the contention of the accused persons that they have been entangled in the case in a vindictive manner. It appears that the accused persons have been made escape-goats.

52. The trial Court has referred to the statements made by the prosecution witnesses in their examination-in-chief and the statements made by the prosecution witnesses in their cross-examination has not been referred to by the trial Court. Only this much has been stated in the trial Court's judgment that PW-7 had been cross-examined on behalf of the accused persons and even in his cross-examination he merely reiterated the statements given in his examination-in-chief and no such discrepancy came to light in his cross-examination as may create a doubt against the credibility of this witness.

53. When this Court proceeded to peruse the statements of the prosecution witnesses given in their cross-examination, several facts came to light, which indicates that the trial Court has not even gone through the statements given by the prosecution witnesses given in their cross-examination.

54. PW-5 Collector Singh, who was posted as Treasurer in the head post office, stated in his cross-examination that he had also put his signature on the hand-to-hand receipt book on 02.10.2005. This witness stated that after completion of the work related to payment, the discharge journals are sent from the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh to Lucknow. This witness stated that the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri has not signed the certificate D-11. The discharge journal document D-16 was shown to PW-5 and he stated that it had signature of Assistant Postmaster (SB-II). Sri Suresh Chandra Gupta. Exhibit A-12 also bears signature of APM (SB-II) Suresh Chandra Gupta. He stated that the attendance register of the Head Post Office Fatehgarh (document D-34) mentions that Amar Nath Agnihotri was posted as APM-IV (Mails). This document belies the prosecution allegation that Amar Nath Agnihotri was posted as APM (SB-II).

55. After seeing the nominal roll D-35, PW-5 stated that during the relevant period Amar Nath Agnihotri was posted as APM-IV, whereas Suresh Chandra Gupta was posted as APM (SB-II). After seeing the attendance register on 30.05.2005 this witness stated that on the said date Suresh Chandra Gupta was working as APM (SB) II. He further stated that besides the hand-to-hand receipt books, there is no other means of finding out any embezzlement. The hand-to-hand receipt books are a bunch of loose papers prepared by the concerned counter clerk and it does not bear any seal. After some time when the hand-to-hand receipt book gets completed, it is kept in the custody of counter clerk or the Head Postmaster. The postmaster is in-charge of the Post Office and he assigns duties to other officers/employees. PW-5 categorically stated that at the time of the incident, Suresh Chandra Gupta was posted as APM (SB) II till his retirement on 31.01.2006 and when someone used to go on leave or training

Karan Singh or any other person used to work as APM (SB) II.

56. PW-6 Ram Sagar Sharma, who had worked as a member of the enquiry team, stated in his cross-examination that from the attendance register, nominal roll, payment vouchers and hand-to-hand receipt books, it is established that on 02.09.2005 and 03.09.2005 Sri Suresh Chandra Gupta had worked as APM (SB) II in place of Amar Nath Agnihotri. On 30.11.2005 Sri Suresh Chandra Gupta had worked as APM. After seeing the hand-to-hand receipt book (D-4) PW-6 stated that on 05.09.2005, 05.10.2005, 29.10.2005 and 30.11.2005 Suresh Chandra Gupta had worked as APM (SB) II in place of Amar Nath Agnihotri. He stated that the original vouchers or the original discharge journals were not presented before him during enquiry and the same were not demanded by him from the officer in-charge. He did not ever visit the head post office Fatehgarh for conducting enquiry. He did the verification while sitting in the office of ASP Sub Division, Fatehgarh and all the other members of the enquiry team remained present there only. He further stated that the enquiry was continuing since about 2-3 months before he became a member of the enquiry team but he did not examine proceedings of enquiry that had been conducted prior to his becoming a member of the enquiry team. He did not make any inspection in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh during the entire enquiry proceedings. He knows that there is one post of post-master and one post of Deputy Post-master in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh but he did not remember as to how many posts of Assistant Postmaster were there in the Head Post Office. He expressed ignorance as to whether the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri was working as an Assistant Postmaster-IV (Mail) at the time of the incident.

57. PW-6 also stated that the hand-to-hand receipt book relating to KVP discharged for the dates 30.08.2005 and 31.08.2005 bears the signatures of Amar Nath Agnihotri but the hand-to-hand receipt book of dates 01.09.2005, 02.09.2005, 03.09.2005, 05.09.2005, 06.09.2005, 07.09.2005, 08.09.2005, 10.09.2005, 10.09.2005, 12.09.2005, 13.09.2005 and 30.09.2005 do not bear signatures of Amar Nath Agnihotri and he could not tell as to which of the Assistant Postmaster had signed the hand-to-hand receipt book on the aforesaid dates. He further stated that the hand-to-hand receipt book for the dates 01.10.2005 to 19.10.2005, 21.10.2005, 27.10.2005 to 31.10.2005, 05.11.2005, 08.112005 to 16.11.2005, 19.11.2005 to 30.11.2005, 01.12.2005, 03.12.2005, 30.12.2005 to 31.12.2005 also do not bear signature of Amar Nath Agnihotri and he could not tell as to which Assistant Postmaster had signed the receipt book for the aforesaid periods.

58. PW-6 further stated that the photocopies of hand-to-hand receipt book of only two dates i.e. 17.01.2006 and 23.01.2006 were there in hand-to-hand receipt book of January, 2006 and receipt book of 23.01.2006 did not bear signature of Amar Nath Agnihotri and he could not tell as to which Postmaster had signed the receipt book on that dates. He and the enquiry team had not made any enquiry regarding who was working as Assistant Postmaster SB-II on the aforesaid dates and whose signatures are there in the hand-to-hand receipt book on those dates.

59. After examining Exhibit A6/1 (Paper D-35) PW-6 stated that from August 2005 to January 2006 Amar Nath Agnihotri was working as APM-IV, whereas Suresh Chandra Gupta was working as APM-II.

60. PW-7 Sarvesh Kumar Mishra, Sub-Divisional Inspector, Postal, Farrukhabad stated that he was also a member of the enquiry team. The enquiry team conducted the enquiry on the basis of the documents and vouchers obtained by the Head Post Office. He stated that some payment vouchers had been provided to the enquiry team whereas merely photocopies of some payment vouchers were provided. He had verified the original or photocopies of the payment vouchers from HO summary/treasure's cash-book, hand-to-hand receipt book and purchase forms. The treasure's cash-book is prepared by the Treasurer of the Head Post Office, wherein the Treasurer enters the number of transactions of cash/cheque with other Postal Assistants and Sections. Acknowledgment of cash handed over to any other employee is also noted by the Treasurer in the cash-book. The amount drawn from the Treasury was entered in the hand to hand receipt book of the payment account. Upon tallying the same with the Treasurer's cash-book no discrepancy came to light on any of the dates.

61. PW-8 Upendra Kumar stated in his cross-examination that in case any error occurs in the cash transactions on any date, the same is detected in the evening of the same day. After seeing the KVP discharge journal D-17 this witness stated that this discharge journal regarding payments of NSC/KVP had been prepared by the Postal Assistant. HO summary is prepared on the basis of original discharge vouchers and hand to hand receipt book. After the treasurer tallies the account and the Postmaster is satisfied with same, they put their signatures on it. After then the original discharge vouchers and payment journals are kept in the custody of APM-II.

62. PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal, the then Assistant Superintendant, Head Post Office, Fatehgarh stated that the enquiry team had examined the KVP payment journals, head office summary and hand to hand receipt book of Pradeep Kumar Verma for the period August 2005 to 23.01.2006 and he stated about the details of embezzlement committed date-wise. On 17.08.2005, the alleged embezzlement committed was of minus Rs.222/-. The embezzlement is committed when an amount is illegally taken away from the treasury. When the amount is found to be in excess it can by not be termed as embezzlement and it may at the most amount to negligence in discharge of duty. PW-10 also stated that on 05.10.2005, 24.10.2005 and 30.11.2005 Suresh Chandra, APM had signed on the hand to hand receipt book and on the other dates Amar Nath Agnihotri had signed the same. He categorically stated that the HO summary of the dates on which embezzlement was allegedly committed had been prepared by Collector Singh, which bears signatures of Postmaster Sri R.P. Gupta and Sri Alladin. He further stated that it is not that some vouchers of the relevant dates were not found. Entire vouchers had been found but some discrepancies were found with the amount entered in the HO summary and no report thereof was sent to the higher officers either by the Postmaster or by the Treasurer. He stated that he had submitted his report only about the amount of embezzlement and he had not given any details regarding who was guilty for the embezzlement. This member of the enquiry team stated that during the entire period of enquiry he did not carry out any inspection of the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh. During the entire service tenure he had never worked with Amar Nath Agnihotri. He stated that overall in-charge of the post office is Postmaster. At the time of the incident, Alladin was the Postmaster. He had not held any particular person guilty in his enquiry report. He had merely made calculations on the basis of vouchers, head office summary and hand to hand receipt book and the difference amount was presumed to have been embezzled. As he had never worked with Amar Nath Agnihotri he did not recognize his signatures. During enquiry proceedings he had become acquainted with his signatures but at the time of making statement he has stated that as eleven years elapsed he could not recognize the signatures of Amar Nath Agnihotri on hand to hand receipt books. He admitted that he had not examined the nominal roll or the attendance register during enquiry. He further stated that he had conducted the enquiry as head of the enquiry team. He had found that Suresh Chandra, Assistant Postmaster had signed on the hand to hand receipt book on three dates and on rest of the dates Amar Nath Agnihotri had signed the same.

63. PW-11 Ram Naresh Trivedi, Inspector, S.I.T., U.P. Lucknow stated in his examination-in-chief that he had been entrusted with the investigation of this case on 01.03.2007. He had prepared plan of investigation and on 03.04.2007 he had recorded statement of Sri Santosh Kumar Pandey, Junior Accounts Officer, Office of the Director, Postal Accounts, Lucknow and had obtained original KVPs, journal in summary and other documents from him. He had also recorded the statements of Sri Sohan Lal Gupta, ASP, Fatehgarh, Sub Division Farrukhabad, Arun Yadav, Sub Divisional Inspector, Chhibramau, Sri Ram Sagar Sharma, Sub Divisional Inspector, Kannauj and Sri U.P. Gangal, ACP Fatehgarh Sub Division on 04.05.2007. Sri U.P. Gangal had stated about the procedure for KVP discharge and had supported the allegation of commission of offence on the basis of enquiry. He further stated that he had recorded statements of several other persons. After completing the investigation he has submitted a charge-sheet against Pradeep Kumar Verma and Amar Nath Agnihotri on 19.06.2007. He proved the document D-2 which was a letter dated 03.04.2007 (Exhibit A-25) which had been sent to him by the then Senior Accounts Officer, Postal Accounts, U.P. along with the original discharge return summary of the concerned month and he had provided hand written KVP discharge details running into three pages.

64. In his cross-examination the Investigating Officer Sri R.N. Trivedi stated that he did not remember as to how many FIRs were lodged and how many investigations had been carried out or how many cases were pending since prior to lodging of the F.I.R. in this case. Although, he had prepared a plan for carrying out the investigation neither he had given the same to any other investigating officer nor was the same available on record. It was available in the case diary but the case diary had not been produced before the court. The general diary was also not available on the record and without seeing it he could not state as to how the case was registered. He stated that he had not perused the postal department's enquiry report during investigation. He did not make any enquiry regarding how many and what posts were sanctioned in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh and as to which of the posts were lying vacant and who was working on which of the post. He has not even made any enquiry regarding accounts during investigation. He did not investigate any particulars of the account in which the embezzled amount had been transferred. He had recorded the statement of most of the witnesses in the CBI Office situated at Lucknow. He stated that a case regarding disproportionate assets was going on against Pradeep Kumar Verma but no such case was instituted against Amar Nath Agnihotri. He did not remember as to whether he had carried out any investigation on the point of the posts on which Amar Nath Agnihotri worked during August, 2005 to January, 2006. He did not remember as to who was the Postmaster at the time of incident.

65. The discharge journal D-16 was shown to PW-11 and after seeing it he stated that it did not bear the signature of Amar Nath Agnihotri and he could not tell as to who had signed it. He had not perused the Post Office Savings Bank Manual, Volume-II, Postal Manual Volume-VI and Postal Financial Hand Book, Volume-II. He did not remember as to whether he had gone to the house of Amar Nath Agnihotri during investigation or not. After seeing the attendance register the Investigating Officer stated that Alladin was working on the post of Postmaster, R.B. Yadav was Deputy Postmaster, Collector Singh and Lajja Ram Dixit were working as Assistant Postmasters, SB-I, Suresh Chandra Gupta was working as APM SB-II, Amar Nath Agnihotri was working on the post of APM-IV (Mails).

66. It is relevant to note that PW- 2 Uday Prakash Gangal had stated that Prior to him, Sri R. C. Verma had headed the enquiry team but Sri R. C. Verma was not produced as a witness.

67. PW-3 had proved the seizure memo D-3, but the seized documents were not proved by him.

68. PW-9, Junior Accounts Officer in the Office of the Director, Postal Accounts, stated that he had gone to the C.B.I. Office and had handed over the document D-2, through which the summary description of discharged KVP Journals of the desired dates had been provided. The summary ran into 4 pages only. In his cross-examination, PW-9 stated that the vouchers which could be found out, had been made available over to C.B.I. When asked about the monthly returns, PW-9 stated that whatever had been received through parcel, was made available to the C.B.I. Thus the witness who provided the documents from the office of the Director, Postal Accounts, did not state that the entire relevant documents had been provided to the investigating Officer.

69. PW-5 Collector Singh, who was working as Treasurer in the post office, stated that besides the hand-to-hand receipt books, there is no other means of finding out any embezzlement. The hand-to-hand receipt books are a bunch of loose papers prepared by the concerned counter clerk and it does not bear any seal. After some time when the hand-to-hand receipt book gets completed, it is kept in the custody of counter clerk or the Head Postmaster. The postmaster is in-charge of the Post Office and he assigns duties to other officers/employees. PW-7, who was a member of the enquiry team, also stated that that overall in-charge of the post office is Postmaster. At the time of the incident, Alladin was the Postmaster. Yet, the Post Master was not made an accused in the case.

70. PW-5 categorically stated that at the time of the incident, Suresh Chandra Gupta was posted as APM (SB) II till his retirement on 31.01.2006 and when someone used to go on leave or training Karan Singh or any other person used to work as APM (SB) II, yet Suresh Chandra Gupta was also not made an accused.

71. PW-6, who was a member of the enquiry team, stated that the original vouchers or the original discharge journals were not presented before him during enquiry and he had not even demanded the same from the officer in-charge. He did not ever visit the head post office Fatehgarh for conducting enquiry. He did the verification while sitting in the office of ASP Sub Division, Fatehgarh and all the other members of the enquiry team remained present there only. He further stated that the enquiry was continuing since about 2-3 months before he became a member of the enquiry team but he did not examine proceedings of enquiry that had been conducted prior to his becoming member of the enquiry team. He did not make any inspection in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh during the entire enquiry proceedings. PW-6 Ram Sagar Sharma stated that an inference of embezzlement was made because some vouchers were not found during enquiry. However, PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal, Head of the enquiry team stated that it is not that some vouchers were not found and the entire vouchers had been found, but some discrepancies were found with the amount entered in the head office summary.

72. PW-6 further stated that the embezzlement was done by Pradeep Kumar Verma. Amar Nath Agnihotri was responsible for supervising the work of Pradeep Kumar Verma and he did not supervise as per the departmental rules, due to which embezzlement was made and, therefore, Amar Nath Agnihotri is also responsible for the embezzlement. This statement merely makes out a case of negligence in performance of official duties against Amar Nath Agnihotri and it does not make out commission of any offence by him.

73. PW-6 further stated that he and the enquiry team had not made any enquiry regarding who was working as Assistant Postmaster SB-II on the aforesaid dates and whose signatures are there in the hand-to-hand receipt book on those dates. After examining Exhibit A6/1 (Paper D-35) PW-6 stated that from August 2005 to January 2006 Amar Nath Agnihotri was working as APM-IV, whereas Suresh Chandra Gupta was working as APM-II.

74. PW-7, who was also a member of the enquiry team, stated that the enquiry team had conducted the enquiry on the basis of the documents and vouchers as obtained by the Head Post Office. He stated that some payment vouchers had been provided to the enquiry team whereas merely photocopies of some payment vouchers were provided. He had verified the original or photocopies of the payment vouchers from HO summary/treasure's cash-book, hand-to-hand receipt book and purchase forms. Upon tallying the same with the Treasurer's cash-book no discrepancy came to light on any of the dates.

75. PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal, who had headed the enquiry team, stated that on 05.10.2005, 24.10.2005 and 30.11.2005 Suresh Chandra, APM had signed on hand to hand receipt book and on the other dates Amar Nath Agnihotri had signed the same. He categorically stated that the HO summary of the dates on which embezzlement was allegedly committed had been prepared by Collector Singh, which bears signatures of Postmaster Sri R.P. Gupta and Sri Alladin. However, none of the aforesaid three persons have been made an accused in the case.

76. PW-7 further stated that the entire vouchers had been found but some discrepancies were found with the amount entered in the HO summary and no report thereof was sent to the higher officers either by the Postmaster or by the Treasurer.

77. PW-7 categorically stated that he had submitted his report only about the amount of embezzlement and he had not given any details regarding who was guilty for the embezzlement. He had not held any particular person guilty in his enquiry report. He had merely made calculations on the basis of vouchers, head office summary and hand to hand receipt book and the difference amount was presumed to have been embezzled. There is no other evidence which may prove beyond doubt that the appellants had committed the embezzlement.

78. PW-11 – Investigating Officer stated that he had not made any enquiry regarding how many and what posts were sanctioned in the Head Post Office, Fatehgarh and as to which of the posts were lying vacant and who was working on which of the post. He has not even made any enquiry regarding accounts during investigation. He did not investigate any particulars of the account in which the embezzled amount had been transferred. He had recorded the statement of most of the witnesses in the CBI Office situated at Lucknow. He stated that a case regarding disproportionate assets was going on against Pradeep Kumar Verma but no such case was instituted against Amar Nath Agnihotri. He did not remember as to whether he had carried out any investigation on the point of the posts on which Amar Nath Agnihotri worked during August, 2005 to January, 2006. He did not remember as to who was the Postmaster at the time of incident.

79. From the aforesaid statements of the Prosecution witnesses, it is established that the prosecution could not adduce any evidence to prove that the appellants had committed any offence.

80. The delegation of duties in post offices is provided in Rule 2 of Post Office Savings Bank Manual Volume-II, which has been issued under the authority of Director General of Posts, India and Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Posts, Ministry of Communication inter alia and it provides as under: -

"2.(i) All the duties of the Postmaster in connection with the Savings Certificates may, under the orders of the Head of the Circle, be performed by the Deputy Postmaster, Assistant Postmaster or Supervisor, such delegation being specifically mentioned in the memorandum of distribution of work, except the following which shall be the personal responsibility of the Head Postmaster:-

(a) Deciding claims in respect of Savings Certificates of deceased holders which lie within his power of decision and the safe custody of records relating to such claims.

(b) Signing and submission of savings certificates returns to the Postal Accounts Office in offices where there is no separate Selection Grade Official In charge of the Savings Certificate branch.

(c) Sanctioning the transfer of savings certificates from one person to another. (d) Endorsing the remarks "Checked" and "duplicate on record" on the original invoice to be sent to Postal Accounts Office.

(ii) The Postmaster will, however, remain personally responsible for the general functioning of the Savings Certificates branch and in particular, the regular submission of the Savings Certificates returns on the due dates."

81. The procedure for encashment of savings certificates is provided in Rule 13 of Post Office Savings Bank Manual, which inter alia provides that the certificates will be placed before the Postmaster, who will satisfy himself about the authenticity of the certificate and the tile of the holder. He will also ensure that the examination of the certificate has been carried out in the manner prescribed and that the amount payable as noted on the certificate is correct. He will then pass order pay under his signature at a suitable place above the place for the holder's signature to authorize payment. The payments will then be made by the counter assistant.

Rule 33 (4) of the Post Office Savings Bank Manual Volume-II provides as follows: -

"33 (4) In Head Offices, the discharged certificates along with the respective identity slips, if any, and vouchers on account of payment of annual/six monthly interest should remain in the custody of the Postmaster until the time of their dispatch to the Postal Accounts Office when they should be dispatched in his presence."

82. Rule 52 of the Post Office Savings Bank Manual Volume-II provides that the certificate documents and vouchers for dispatch to the Postal Accounts Office should be entered in the voucher list Form NC-31(A). These lists should be signed by the Head Postmaster and dispatched with the documents and vouchers attached under the same cover as the Post Office Certificate journal. Copies of the voucher lists prepared by means of carbonic paper should be kept on record.

83. The Postal Financial Hand Book Volume-II contains financial rules and instructions. Rule 47 provides for maintaining head office summary and it provides that the head office summary must be kept by the treasurer himself. The several items of the head office summary will be written up from various subsidiary journals, registers and accounts, which include savings bank and post office certificate. The balance shown in the head office summary has to be verified by the head post master in the presence of the treasurer and the assistant treasuer and the head office summary must be signed by both the head post master and the treasurer before the close of office each day.

84. A perusal of the aforesaid rules makes it clear that the Postmaster is personally responsible for the general functioning of the Savings Certificates branch and in particular, the regular submission of the Savings Certificates returns on the due dates. The payment of savings certificates has to be made only when authorized by the post master. The post master is responsible to keep the discharged certificates and vouchers in his custody. PW-2 had categorically stated that the Postmaster is responsible for the entries made in the Head Office summary. Yet the responsibility for the lapses committed by the post master has been imposed upon the postal assistant and assistant post master in violation of the rules.

85. The appellants have been convicted and sentenced for the offence under Section 477-A I.P.C., i.e. falsification of accounts, which provides as follows: -

"Section 477A. Falsification of accounts.—

Whoever, being a clerk, officer or servant, or employed or acting in the capacity of a clerk, officer or servant, wilfully, and with intent to defraud, destroys, alters, mutilates or falsifies any book, electronic record, paper, writing, valuable security or account which belongs to or is in the possession of his employer, or has been received by him for or on behalf of his employer, or wilfully, and with intent to defraud, makes or abets the making of any false entry in, or omits or alters or abets the omission or alteration of any material particular from or in, any such book, electronic record, paper, writing, valuable security or account, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, or with fine, or with both.

Explanation.— It shall be sufficient in any charge under this section to allege a general intent to defraud without naming any particular person intended to be defrauded or specifying any particular sum of money intended to be the subject of the fraud, or any particular day on which the offence was committed."

86. There is no proof of any falsification of account committed by the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri and he has been held to be guilty of falsification of accounts merely for the reason that some discharge vouchers were not provided to the enquiry team and the amount of those discharge vouchers was presumed to have been embezzled.

87. Section 13 (1) (c) of Prevention of Corruption Act makes a person guilty of criminal misconduct, if he dishonestly or fraudulently misappropriates or otherwise converts for his own use any property entrusted to him or any property under his control as a public servant or allows any other person so to do. Neither any property has been recovered from any of the appellants which had been dishonestly or fraudulently misappropriated by them, nor is there any proof of any such property having come to the hands of the appellants. Therefore, there is nothing to support conviction of the appellants for the offence under Section 13 (1) (c) of Prevention of Corruption Act.

88. There is no proof that any of the appellants had obtained any valuable thing or pecuniary advantage or that they intentional enriched themselves illicitly during the period of their office. None of the accused persons have been found to be in possession of or at any time during the period of their office, been in possession of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to their known sources of income. Therefore, the charges under Section 13 (1) (c) and 13 (1) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act also were not proved and the learned trial court convicted the accused persons for the aforesaid offences without there being absolutely any evidence to prove the aforesaid charges.

89. The learned trial court referred to the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Manzoor Ali Khan Vs. Union of India and others: (2015) 2 SCC 33, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "Today, corruption in our country not only poses a grave danger to the concept of constitutional governance, it also threatens the very foundation of the Indian democracy and the Rule of Law. The magnitude of corruption in our public life is incompatible with the concept of a socialist secular democratic republic. It cannot be disputed that where corruption begins all rights end. Corruption devalues human rights, chokes development and undermines justice, liberty, equality, fraternity which are the core values in our Preambular vision. Therefore, the duty of the court is that any anti- corruption law has to be interpreted and worked out in such a fashion as to strengthen the fight against corruption. That is to say in a situation where two constructions are eminently reasonable, the court has to accept the one that seeks to eradicate corruption to the one which seeks to perpetuate it."

90. While relying upon a precedent, the observation of the Courts have to be read in light of the factual background of the case and the issue that was being decided. Manzoor Ali Khan (Supra) was a Writ Petition filed in public interest, seeking a direction to declare Section 19 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 unconstitutional and to direct prosecution of all cases registered and investigated under the provisions of the PC Act against the politicians, MLAs, MPs and government officials, without sanction as required under Section 19 of the PC Act. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that it is not possible to hold that the requirement of sanction is unconstitutional, but the competent authority has to take a decision on the issue of sanction expeditiously. A fine balance has to be maintained between need to protect a public servant against mala fide prosecution on the one hand and the object of upholding the probity in public life in prosecuting the public servant against whom prima facie material in support of allegation of corruption exists, on the other hand.

91. The decision in Manzoor Ali Khan (Supra) does not lay down that a person accused of corruption has to be punished even in absence of any evidence.

92. No accused person can be convicted on the basis of a mere presumption. The criminal justice system requires proof beyond reasonable doubt and persons cannot be convicted even on the basis of preponderance of probabilities, which is the basis of decision in the civil proceedings. The prosecution does not allege that any of the accused persons was responsible for custody of the discharge vouchers. The responsibility of providing the discharged vouchers to the enquiry team did not rest on the accused persons. The person who was responsible for custody of the discharged vouchers, has not been made an accused. Therefore, the finding of guilt of the accused persons, which has been recorded solely on the basis of discharged vouchers having not been provided to the enquiry team, is unsustainable in law.

93. While proceeding to hold the appellants guilty of commission of penal offences, the learned trial court referred to the principle of law that a person seeking equity must approach with clean hands. It indicates that the trial was acting under a patent misconception of law that an accused facing a trial has himself approached the Court and he has to himself disclose the complete facts that may lead to his conviction. The trial Court's observation indicates its approach is that a failure to make a complete disclosure of incriminating facts, rather a failure to make a confession of guilt, will justify conviction of the accused persons. The accused persons had not approached the Court and there was no obligation on them to have approached the Court with clean hands, rather it was the prosecution which had approached the Court to get the accused persons punished and it was the duty of the prosecution to prove the guilt of the accused persons beyond any reasonable doubt. The approach of the trial Court was against the basic principle of criminal justice system that every person is presumed to be innocent, unless it is proved beyond any reasonable doubt that he is guilty and no accused person is bound to disclose facts which will ensure his conviction.

94. Article 20 (3) placed in Part III of the Constitution of India, which contains Fundamental Rights, provides that "No person accused of any offence shall be compelled to be a witness against himself." Non-disclosure of incriminating facts is a Fundamental Right of the accused. Equity can only supplement the law, it cannot supplant the law and in any case, the principles of equity will not override the Fundamental Rights guaranteed under the Constitution of India. Therefore, the observation of the trial Court indicates a lack of understanding of the difference of approach to be adopted while deciding a criminal trial as against a civil disputes reliance.

95. The learned trial court referred to Section 15 of the Evidence Act, which provides as under: -

"15. Facts bearing on question whether act was accidental or intentional.

Where there is a question whether an act was accidental or intentional, or done with a particular knowledge or intention, the fact that such act formed part of a series of similar occurrences, in each of which the person doing the act was concerned, is relevant.

Illustrations ..."

96. Section 15 of the Evidence Act merely provides that where there is a question whether an act was accidental or intentional, or done with a particular knowledge or intention, the fact that such act formed part of a series of similar occurrences, in each of which the person doing the act was concerned, is relevant. This Section merely provides for relevance of a fact, but it does not provide that a series of acts would give rise to a presumption of guilt of the accused.

97. The learned trial court proceeded to decide as to whether there was any criminal conspiracy between the appellants Pradeep Kumar Verma and Amar Nath Agnihotri. The learned trial court has referred to a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Heera Lal Bhagwati Vs. CBI: AIR 2003 SC 2545, wherein it was held that it is difficult to adduce direct evidence of criminal conspiracy. However, the difficulty in adducing direct evidence does not mean that the prosecution is not required to adduce any evidence of conspiracy and the Court will simply presume that the accused persons had entered into a conspiracy. In absence of direct evidence, conspiracy has to be proved by circumstantial evidence.

98. In Esher Singh v. State of A.P. (2004) 11 SCC 585, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"38. ... the prosecution has to discharge its onus of proving the case against the accused beyond reasonable doubt. The circumstances in a case, when taken together on their face value, should indicate the meeting of minds between the conspirators for the intended object of committing an illegal act or an act which is not illegal, by illegal means. A few bits here and a few bits there on which the prosecution relies cannot be held to be adequate for connecting the accused with the commission of the crime of criminal conspiracy. It has to be shown that all means adopted and illegal acts done were in furtherance of the object of conspiracy hatched. The circumstances relied on for the purposes of drawing an inference should be prior in point of time than the actual commission of the offence in furtherance of the alleged conspiracy."

(emphasis in original)

99. In the present case PW-6 stated that the embezzlement was done by Pradeep Kumar Verma. Amar Nath Agnihotri was responsible for supervising the work of Pradeep Kumar Verma and he did not supervise as per the departmental rules, due to which embezzlement was made and, therefore, Amar Nath Agnihotri is also responsible for the embezzlement. This statement merely makes out that the accused Amar Nath Agnihotri was negligent in performance of his duties, but it does not establish a criminal conspiracy between the two accused persons. So far as negligence is concerned, the statements of witnesses as well as the provisions contained in the relevant rules referred to above clearly demonstrate that it was the post master who was responsible for the overall working of the Post Office and maintenance of records and the treasurer was also responsible for the accounts. It appears that they have also been negligent in performance of their duties. PW-10, who had headed the enquiry team, stated that the enquiry team had not made any enquiry regarding who was guilty for the embezzlement. In view of these facts, there was absolutely no evidence in the present case to establish existence of a criminal conspiracy between the accused persons.

100. The trial court held that the members of the enquiry team have given evidence which establishes complicity of the accused persons in the commission of offence in connivance with each other and the submissions advanced on behalf of the accused person that they have been entangled by hatching a conspiracy because of animosity, is fictitious and fabricated, as the accused persons could not give any evidence in support of this contention. The trial Court ignored the facts that the prosecution could not give any evidence of a conspiracy between the accused persons and the only evidence was that Amar Nath Agnihotri acted negligently in supervising the work of the other accused Pradeep Kumar Verma.

101. In this regard, it is relevant to note that PW-2 clearly stated that the responsibility of maintenance of the records of the post office lied on the Postmaster. The witnesses PW-10 Ram Shiromani Pal had stated that the Treasurer Alladin was responsible for maintenance of the records of the Treasury and discrepancies were found therein also. In case a mere negligence in performance of duties can be sufficient to raise a presumption of a criminal conspiracy, the treasurer and the post master should also be treated to be a part of the conspiracy, but they have not been made accused in the case.

102. The accused persons cannot be held to be guilty merely because they could not prove his innocence. The evidence was to this effect also that the treasurer and the post master were also responsible for the works done, but they have not been made the accused.

103. The learned trial court has sentenced the accused persons separately for the offence of criminal conspiracy, criminal misappropriation and falsification of account, criminal conspiracy and falsification of account, criminal conspiracy and criminal misconduct under Sections 13 (2) read with Section 13 (1) (c) and (d) and they have been sentenced separately for the offence under Section 13 (2) read with Section 13 (1)(c) and 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (d) and separate amounts of fine have been imposed on them for all the aforesaid offences. This approach of the learned trial court in multiplying the alleged guilt of the accused persons manifold, appears to be vindictive and unjust and it cannot be appreciated.

104. In view of the aforesaid discussions, it is established that the members of the enquiry team have themselves stated that they did not visit the Head Post office, Farrukhabad, where the offence had allegedly been committed. Even the Investigating Officer did not state that he had visited the Head Post Office. The members of the enquiry team stated that they assumed the amount for which the discharge journals had not been made available to have been embezzled. No enquiry was conducted and no material was produced to establish that any embezzlement had in fact been committed. The members of the enquiry team categorically stated that no enquiry had been conducted regarding who as guilty for the alleged embezzlement. The witnesses have stated that the Postmaster was the over all in-charge for the day to day work conducted in the post office but he has not been prosecuted. The Treasurer was responsible for preparation of accounts. Although his name was included as an accused in the F.I.R. no charge-sheet was submitted against him. The Investigating Officer conducted the investigation by sitting in his office at Lucknow and he has not taken any steps in the investigation to ascertain as to whether any embezzlement had in fact been committed and if yes who was responsible for the same. He had conducted the investigation merely on the basis of the statements given by the witnesses by coming to his office and the documents produced by the witnesses to him while sitting in his office. It shows that no proper investigation has been carried out and in fact there is no material to establish that the appellants had committed any embezzlement. The prosecution has miserably failed to prove, what to say about proving beyond reasonable doubt that, the accused persons Pradeep Kumar Verma and Amar Nath Agnihotri have committed any embezzlement. As such, the judgment of conviction and sentence passed by the learned trial court in Case No.18 of 2007: State through C.B.I. Vs. Pradeep Kumar Verma an another appears to be unsustainable in law.

105. Accordingly the Criminal Appeal No. - 2609 of 2022 and Criminal Appeal No. - 2261 of 2022 are allowed. The impugned judgment and order dated 25.08.2022, passed by the learned Special Judge, P.C. Act, C.B.I. Court No.4, Lucknow in Criminal Case No.18 of 2007, arising out of R.C. No.6 (A) of 2007, under Sections 120-B, 409, 477-A I.P.C. and Section 13 (2) read with 13 (1) (c) (d) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, Police Station C.B.I./A.C.B. Lucknow is hereby set aside and the appellants are acquitted of all the charges for which they have been tried. The appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri has been released on bail but the other appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma is in jail. The personal bond and sureties filed by the appellant Amar Nath Agnihotri shall remain effective for a period of 30 days from today and within this period he shall file a fresh personal bond and two sureties under Section 437-A Cr.P.C. to the satisfaction of the trial Court for his appearance before the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case any appeal or petition is filed against this order and the Hon'ble Supreme Court issues notice to him. The appellant Pradeep Kumar Verma is in jail and he shall be released from custody forthwith unless he is wanted in any other case, subject to the condition that he shall file a fresh personal bond and two sureties within a period of three weeks from the date of his release from custody, to the satisfaction of the trial Court under Section 437-A Cr.P.C.

106. Let a copy of this order/judgment and the original record of the lower court be transmitted to the trial court concerned forthwith for necessary information and compliance. The office is further directed to enter the judgment in compliance register maintained for the purpose of the Court.

(2024) 5 ILRA 141
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MS. NAND PRABHA SHUKLA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 3532 of 2019

Ajit Kushwaha ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Narendra Kumar, Atharva Dixit, Dharmendra Singh, Kamlesh Kumar Tripathi ,Nitinjay Pandey, Raghuvansh Misra

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Section s498-A, 304-B-Dowry Prohibition Act-1961-Sections 3 & 4-The Indian Evidence Act, 1872- 113B-)- Criminal appeal has been preferred against the Judgment and Order of conviction whereby appellant sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life-Deceased was found lying on the bed, killed in a brutal manner at her matrimonial home in suspicious circumstances-Essential ingredients which need to be proved in order to attract the offence of dowry death are proved-Incident of dowry death proved relying on the presumption as to dowry death against the appellant-Appellant in his St.ment u/s 313 Cr.P.C. St.d that he was not present in the house at the relevant point of time and a benefit of plea of alibi should be given to him but the appellant could not produce any evidence or photograph of birthday celebration nor the bus tickets round the trip-No credible evidence is lead by the defence to prove that accused had gone to attend the birthday party of his sister's son-no reason disclosed as to why the deceased had not joined the appellant-Sentence of the appellant modified from life imprisonment to 14 years imprisonment.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Bachani Devi & anr. Vs St. of Ha. (2011) 4 SCC 427

2. Binay Kumar Vs St. of Bihar (1997) 1 SCC 283 : JT (1996) 10 SC 79

3. Hem Chand Vs St. of Har. (1994) 6 SCC 727

4. G.VS Siddaramesh VS St. of Karn. (2010) 3 SCC 152

5. Kashmira Devi Vs The St. of Uttarakhand, AIR 2020 SC 652

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ms. Nand Prabha Shukla, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The present criminal appeal has been preferred against the Judgement and Order of conviction dated 13.03.2019 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.15, Kanpur Nagar in Sessions Trial No.361 of 2016 (State vs. Ajit Kushwaha) arising out of Case Crime No.0023 of 2016, Police Station Govind Nagar District Kanpur whereby the appellant has been convicted under Section 304B IPC and sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life and under Section 498-A IPC two years simple imprisonment and a fine of Rs.5000/- and in case of default in payment of fine a further simple imprisonment of one month. The appellant has further been convicted under Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act for two years simple imprisonment and fine of Rs.2000/- and in case of default a further simple imprisonment of 15 days. All the sentences shall run concurrently. However, the accused-appellant has been acquitted of the charge under Section 302 IPC.

3. Shorn of unnecessary details, the brief facts are as follows:

On 18.01.2016 at 08:50 pm, the first informant Kamal Sen Mehta lodged a First Information Report bearing Case Crime No. 23 of 2016, under Sections 498A, 304B IPC and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act at Police Station Govind Nagar, District Kanpur Nagar against the appellant Ajit Kushwaha and 11 others alleging that the marriage of his youngest daughter Pooja Kushwaha was solemnized with Ajit Kushwaha on 31.05.2015. At the time of marriage, sufficient dowry was given but later on there was further demand of dowry of cash Rs.5 lacs to run the business and a car, which she often disclosed to her family. She was kept under starvation and was harassed. On 18.01.2016, the first informant called his daughter on telephone but there was no response. He immediately went to her in-laws' place and found the door to be locked. The concerned police Station was informed, the Police reached and opened the door and found his daughter killed in a brutal manner. People in the vicinity disclosed that they saw the in-laws fleeing from the spot. Hence, the First Information Report was lodged.

4. During the course of investigation, the inquest proceedings were conducted in the presence of Naib Tehsildar on 18.01.2016 at 10.00 P.M. and the body was sent for autopsy. The post-mortem of the deceased Pooja was conducted on 19.1.2016 at 1.55 P.M.

5. The investigation was conducted and a Charge Sheet No. 85/2016 dated 17.04.2016 was submitted against accused Ajit Kushwaha, Ram Lakhan Kushwaha, Premwati Kushwaha and Sameer under Sections 498-A, 304-B and 302 IPC and Section 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act. Rest other co-accused were exonerated.

6. On 04.05.2016, the matter was committed by the learned Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, Kanpur Nagar to the Court of Sessions for trial. On 18.05.2016, learned Trial Court framed the charges against the accused Ajit Kushwaha, Ram Lakhan Kushwaha, Premwati Kushwaha and Sameer under Sections 498-A, 304-B IPC and Section ¾ of the Dowry Prohibition Act and alternatively under Section 302 IPC.

7. The accused denied the charges and claimed to be tried.

8. To establish the prosecution case, total seven prosecution witnesses were examined.

9. P.W.1 Kamal Sen Mehta, the father of the deceased in his examination-in-chief deposed that Pooja Kushwaha was his third daughter. Her traditional marriage ceremony took place at Kashmir, Govind Nagar at Kanpur Nagar on 31.05.2015 with Ajit Kushwaha after giving sufficient dowry. Just after the marriage, there was a demand of dowry of cash Rs. 5 lacs and a car. They even tortured and gave beatings to his daughter and kept her under starvation. Whenever she visited her parental house, she used to disclose to her family members about the harassment caused by her in-laws. Before the traditional marriage ceremony, his daughter and Ajit Kushwaha performed the love marriage on 15.1.2015 at Arya Samaj Temple. Subsequently, on being pressurized by the close relatives, the traditional marriage ceremony was organised on 31.05.2015. On 18.01.2016, when he called his daughter Pooja Kushwaha on her telephone, she did not attend the call. Then he went to her in-laws place where he found the door to be looked. He informed the police, the police reached the spot and got the door opened and saw Pooja lying on bed and brutally killed. Severe blows were found on the head and face of the deceased. There was swelling on the neck and blood was oozing out from the face and nose. It seemed that she was assaulted with heavy object and neck was pressed in order to kill her. The local residents informed that they saw the accused running from the place of occurrence. The said witness proved the written Tehrir and inquest report. During the cross-examination he deposed that he used to run a tailoring shop. His other daughter Monica was a widow. He had three daughters, the eldest one was Monica, then Sucheta Mehta and the youngest was Pooja. The in-laws of Sucheta lived nearby his house. Pooja used to take tuition of 25-30 children and earned Rs.35,000/-40,000/-. At the time of incident, Ajit used to work at Reliance Company. He further added that he was not happy with Arya Samaj marriage of his daughter. After the marriage, her in-laws demanded of cash Rs. 5 lacks to run the business or a car.

10. P.W.2 Monica, the elder sister of the deceased in her examination-in-chief supported the version of the first informant. Just before a week of the incident, her parents and in-laws of the deceased went to the Police Station Govind Nagar to settle the matrimonial dispute. Thereafter on 18.01.2016, her father received a call that due to non-fulfilment of dowry demand, Pooja had been killed by her in-laws. When she reached at her in-laws place, she saw Pooja lying dead on her bed and the blood was oozing out from her nose and mouth. There were injuries on her neck, cheek, lips and other parts of the body. No family members of her in-laws were present at the spot. In her cross-examination, she asserted the prosecution version.

11. P.W.3 Sarvjeet Mehta, the elder brother of the deceased in his examination-in-chief asserted the version of his father and sister.

12. P.W.4 Rakesh Kumar, Nayab Tehsildar who posted at Kanpur Nagar proved the inquest proceedings of the deceased Pooja. According to the opinion of the Panchas, the deceased appeared to have died due to throttling. The blood was oozing out from the nose and mouth, there were injuries on the left side of the neck and contusion on the face.

13. P.W.5 Dr. Sangam Singh Sachan, who was posted as Medical Officer, at Community Health Centre, Kanpur deposed that on the alleged date, he was on duty at the post mortem house and had conducted the autopsy According to the post-mortem report, following ante-mortem injuries were found on the body of the deceased:

1. Contusion 12 x 4 cm left side head above left ear.

2. Contusion 3 x 2 cm., back of head over occipital region.

3. Laceration and contusions on inner side of upper and lower lips inner side

4. Contusion 3 x 2 cm. left side of cheek.

5. Contusion 4 x 2 cm. right side face, 4 cm below angle of mouth right side.

6. Abraded contusion 13 x 4 cm. front of neck.

On dissection echymosis present in subcutaneous area. Blood and blood clot in neck tissues. Hyoid bone was fractured. The cause of death was Asphyxia due ante-mortem throttling.

14. He deposed that the injury nos. 1 to 5 would have been caused with kicks and fists and injury no. 6 must have been caused due to throttling.

15. P.W.6 Constable Milan Kumar in the examination-in-chief stated that he was posted as CCTNS on 18.01.2016 at Police Station Govind Nagar. He proved the Chik FIR (Exhibit Ka-9) which was entered on the same day and Rapat No. 43 at 20:50 hours and also proved the GD Entry.

16. P.W.7 Vishal Pandey, the Circle Officer/Investigating Officer stated in his examination-in-chief that after lodging of the FIR, he took over the investigation, made a spot inspection, prepared the site plan, recorded the statements of the witnesses under Section 161 Cr.P.C., collected the inquest and the post mortem report, recorded the statement of the accused and arrested them on 22.01.2016. On 26.03.2016, he recorded the statement of Monica, the sister of the deceased and Sarvjeet Mehta, the brother of the deceased and Udai Kumar, the witness of the inquest. On 31.03.2016, he recorded the statement of the other witnesses and on the basis of incriminating material, he submitted the charge sheet against the accused Ajit Kushwaha, Ram Lakhan Kushwaha, Premwati Kushwaha and Sameer Kushwaha. He proved the site plan as Exhibit Ka-1 and the charge sheet as Exhibit Ka-12, which was in his hand writing and signed by him.

17. After the prosecution evidence, the statement of the accused were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and three defence witnesses were also examined, namely, Manju Maurya, Parasu Ram and Vikram Singh as DW-1, 2 and 3 respectively.

18. The accused in their statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. stated that the charge sheet was submitted on incorrect facts. He stated that he solemnized love marriage with the deceased and there was no demand of dowry of cash Rs. 5 lacs or a car nor she was harassed. It was an intercaste love marriage against their parent's will at Arya Samaj. His parents used to live in the village while he and his wife Pooja lived at Labour Colony, Dada Nagar, Kanpur. Her friends visited to meet her even after the marriage. On 17.01.2016, he had to go to Lucknow to attend the birthday celebration of his sister's son but Pooja did not agree to accompany him, so he went alone and returned back on the next day and found her dead.

19. D.W.1 Manju Maurya was the real sister of the accused Ajit Kushwaha who on oath stated that the birthday of her son was celebrated on 17.1.2016 at Lucknow and Ajit also joined the celebration and returned on the next date. On 19.01.2016, she came to know that when Ajit came to Lucknow to attend the function on the same night, some unknown persons killed Pooja by throttling her neck.

20. D.W.2 Parasu Ram who was the Gram Pradhan of Village Damraas stated that the co-accused Ram Lakhan used to live in his village and looked after his agriculture land. His younger son aided him in his work. His wife too remained at the village while Ajit Kushwaha his elder son used to live at Dada Nagar Colony at Kanpur.

21. D.W.3 Vikram Singh in his defence stated that he was an auto driver and on 17.01.2016 at around 1:00 pm he went to drop Ajit Kushwaha at the Bus Station, while on the way Ajit disclosed that he was going to Lucknow at his sister's house.

22. Having heard the learned counsel for the appellant, learned A.G.A. for the State and after perusal of the record, we find that the prosecution witnesses have asserted in their testimonies that the marriage of Pooja was solemnised with Ajit Kushwaha on 31.05.2015. The alleged incident took place on 18.01.2016, which occurred within seven years of the marriage. There was demand of dowry of cash Rs.5 lacs to run the business and a car.

23. As far as unnatural death of the deceased Pooja Kushwaha at her matrimonial home is concerned, it has been stated by the prosecution witnesses that when they reached her in-laws house, they found the door to be locked. On information, the local police reached the spot and opened the door and found the dead body of Pooja Kushwaha lying killed in a brutal manner. In such circumstances, the deceased died an unnatural death in suspicious circumstances at her matrimonial home. The appellant in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. stated on oath that on 17.01.2016, he went to Lucknow to attend the birthday party of his sister's son and returned back on 18.01.2016 and then came to know about the death of his wife Pooja. P.W.-2 Monica, the sister of the deceased in her examination-in-chief deposed that a week before the incident, her parents and the in-laws of Pooja went to the police station for the settlement of the matrimonial dispute which indicates that there were estranged relationship between them. According to the post mortem report, six ante-mortem injuries were found on the body of the deceased. The cause of death was Asphyxia due to ante mortem throttling. The hyoid bone was also found fractured.

24. While discussing about the demand of dowry for business purpose etc., the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Bachani Devi and another vs. State of Haryana (2011) 4 SCC 427 has held that :

"If a demand for property or valuable security directly or indirectly has nexus with marriage such demand would constitute demand for dowry. Cause or reason for such demand is immaterial."

25. Dowry Demand as referred in Section 304-B IPC which reads as under:

" 304-B. Dowry death-(1) Where the death of a woman is caused by any burns or bodily injury or occurs otherwise than under normal circumstances within seven years of her marriage and it is shown that soon before her death she was subjected to cruelty or harassment by her husband or any relative of her husband for, or in connection with, any demand for dowry, such death shall be called 'dowry death', and such husband or relative shall be deemed to have caused her death.

Explanation- For the purposes of this sub-section, 'dowry' shall have the same meaning as in Section 2 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 (28 of 1961).

(2) Whoever commits dowry death shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than seven years but which may extend to imprisonment for life."

26. The essential ingredients which need to be proved in order to attract the offence of dowry death is as follows:

(i) Death is caused in unnatural circumstances.

(ii) Death must have occurred within seven years of the marriage of the deceased.

(iii) It needs to be shown that soon before her death, the deceased was subjected to cruelty or harassment by her husband or any relative of her husband for, or in connection with, any demand for dowry.

27. Coming to the first ingredient, the post mortem report suggests that the deceased died due to Asphyxia as a result of ante-mortem throttling. There were six ante-mortem injures around the head and face. The door was found locked and it could be opened after the intervention of the Police and the dead body of deceased was found lying on the bed, killed in a brutal manner. Therefore, it is proved beyond doubt that the deceased died an unnatural death at her matrimonial house.

28. The second ingredient is also proved as the marriage between the deceased and the appellant took place on 31.05.2015 and death of the deceased took place on 18.01.2016 which is within seven years of time frame.

29. The third ingredient was also proved. From the perusal of record, it transpires that P.W.1, P.W.2 and P.W.3 in their testimony asserted that accused appellant demanded cash Rs.5 lacs to run the business and a car. Soon after the marriage, she was subjected to harassment and was kept under starvation. Whenever, she visited her parental house she used to disclose the atrocities caused to her at the matrimonial house. A week before the incident, the parties went to the police station for settlement of the matrimonial dispute. Thus, the deceased was subjected to harassment, soon before her death in connection with the dowry.

30. Section 113-B of the Evidence Act raises a presumption against the accused which reads as under:

"113-B. Presumption as to dowry death*- When the question is whether a person has committed the dowry death of a woman and it is shown that soon before her death such woman had been subjected by such person to cruelty or harassment for, or in conn3ection with, any demand for dowry, the court shall presume that such person had caused the dowry death.*

Explanation- For the purposes of this section, 'dowry death' shall have the same meaning as in Section 304-B of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860)."

31. A reading of Section 113-B of the Evidence Act shows that there must be material to show that soon before the death of woman, such woman was subjected to cruelty or harassment for or in connection with demand of dowry, then only a presumption can be drawn that a person has committed the dowry death of a woman. It is then up to the appellant to discharge this presumption.

32. From the evidence as discussed about the incident of dowry death has been proved safely relying on the presumption as to dowry death against the appellant.

33. An overall appreciation of the evidence adduced, it is apparent that the appellant in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. stated that he was not present in the house at the relevant point of time and a benefit of plea of alibi should be given to him. He claimed that he went to his sister's house at Lucknow to celebrate the birthday of his sister's son on 17.01.2016 and returned back on 18.01.2016 and found his wife killed in a brutal manner. But the appellant could not produce any evidence or photograph of birthday celebration nor the bus tickets round the trip.

34. It is well settled law, when a plea of alibi is taken by an accused, the burden of proof is upon him to establish the same by positive evidence after the onus as regards the presence on the spot is established by the prosecution. In this context, it may be usefully reproduce a few paragraph from the case of Binay Kumar v. State of Bihar (1997) 1 SCC 283 : JT (1996) 10 SC 79 :

"22. We must bear in mind that an alibi is not an exception (special or general) envisaged in the Penal Code, 1860 or any other law. It is only a rule of evidence recognised in Section 11 of the Evidence Act that facts which are inconsistent with the fact in issue are relevant. Illustration (a) given under the provision is worth reproducing in this context:

"The question is whether A committed a crime at Calcutta on a certain date; the fact that on that date, A was at Lahore is relevant.

23. The Latin word alibi means "elsewhere" and that word is used for convenience when an accused takes recourse to a defence line that when the occurrence took place he was so far away from the place of occurrence that it is extremely improbable that he would have participated in the crime. It is a basic law that in a criminal case, in which the accused is alleged to have inflicted physical injury to another person, the burden is on the prosecution to prove that the accused was present at the scene and has participated in the crime. The burden would not be lessened by the mere fact that the accused has adopted the defence of alibi. The plea of the accused in such cases need be considered only when the burden has been discharged by the prosecution satisfactorily. But once the prosecution succeeds in discharging the burden it is incumbent on the accused, who adopts plea of alibi, to prove it with absolute certainty so as to exclude the possibility of his presence at the place of occurrence. When the presence of the accused at the scene of occurrence has been established satisfactorily by the prosecution through reliable evidence, normally the court would be slow to believe any counter-evidence to the effect that he was elsewhere when the occurrence happened. But if the evidence adduced by the accused is of such a quality and of such a standard that the court may entertain some reasonable doubt regarding his presence at the scene when the occurrence took place, the accused would, no doubt, be entitled to the benefit of that reasonable doubt. For that purpose, it would be a sound proposition to be laid down that, in such circumstances, the burden on the accused is rather heavy. It follows, therefore, that strict proof is required for establishing the plea of alibi."

35. Applying the above principles in the facts of this case, we find that no credible evidence is lead by the defence to prove that accused had gone to attend the birthday party of his sister's son. No school records are produced to show that the date of birth of his sister's son was the day prior to the incident. No independent witness was produced to prove the appellant's presence at Lucknow. There is no reason disclosed as to why the deceased had not joined the appellant. Taken cumulatively, we do not consider the plea of alibi to be established by the defence.

36. From the discussion above, it is evident that all the three ingredients of dowry death have been proved. The marriage of the deceased took place on 31.05.2015 and the death of the deceased took place on 18.01.2016, which is within seven years of time frame. From the perusal of the testimony of the prosecution witnesses P.W.1, P.W.2 and P.W.3 who have asserted that there was demand of dowry of cash Rs. 5 lacs to run business and a car which the deceased disclosed to her family members whenever she visited her parental house. Matrimonial discord between the deceased and her husband was existing regarding which both the families approached the police station for the settlement of dispute. The deceased died an unnatural death in suspicious circumstances at her matrimonial home. Six ante-mortem injuries were found on her face and neck. The cause of death was Asphyxia due to ante-mortem throttling. After the incident, the house was found locked and after the intervention of the police, the house was opened where Pooja was found lying killed in a brutal manner. Therefore, all the ingredients of Section 304-B IPC have been satisfied pointing towards the guilt of the appellant.

37. Finally, coming to the question of sentence, we find that the trial court had awarded the life imprisonment to the accused appellant Ajit Kushwaha under Section 304-B IPC. Punishment under Section 304-B IPC varies from seven years to life imprisonment. When the court proceeds to award maximum permissible sentence for an offence, it is the cardinal principle of law that reasons have to be given for awarding such maximum punishment. We do not find any such reason given by the trial court. We otherwise find that there are no circumstances which may justify awarding of extreme punishment to the accused appellant Ajit Kushwaha in the facts of the present case. Considering the evidence in his entirety, we are of the considered view that punishment of life under Section 304-B IPC to the accused appellant Ajit Kushwaha is not warranted.

38. In Hem Chand Vs. State of Haryana (1994) 6 SCC 727, the Supreme Court has observed that though punishment under Section 304-B varies from 7 years to life but award of extreme punishment should not be as a matter of course and must be awarded in rare cases. In paras 7 and 8, the Hon'ble the Supreme Court observed as under:

"7. Now coming to the question of sentence, it can be seen that Section 304-B I.P.C. lays down that:

"Whoever commits dowry death shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than seven years but which may extend to imprisonment for life."

The point for consideration is whether the extreme punishment of imprisonment for life is warranted in the instant case, A reading of Section 304-B I.P.C., would show that when a question arises whether a person has committed the offence of dowry death of a woman that all that is necessary is it should be shown that soon before her unnatural death, which took place within seven years of the marriage, the deceased had been subjected, by such person, to cruelty or harassment for or in connection with demand for dowry. If that is shown then the court shall presume that such a person has caused the dowry death. It can therefore be seen that irrespective of the fact whether such person is directly responsible for the death of the deceased or not by virtue of the presumption, he is deemed to have committed the dowry death if there were such cruelty or harassment and that if the unnatural death has occurred within seven years from the date of marriage. Likewise there is a presumption under Section 113-B of the Evidence Act as to the dowry death. It lays down that the court shall presume that the person who has subjected the deceased wife to cruelty before her death shall presume to have caused the dowry death if it is shown that before her death, such woman had been subjected, by the accused, to cruelty or harassment in connection with any demand for dowry. Practically this is the presumption that has been incorporated in Section 304-B I.P.C. also. It can therefore be seen that irrespective of the fact whether the accused has any direct connection With the death or not, he shall be presumed to have committed the dowry death provided the other requirements mentioned above are satisfied. In the instant case no doubt the prosecution has proved that the deceased died an unnatural death namely due to strangulation, but there is no direct evidence connecting the accused. It is also important to note in this context that there is no charge under Section 302 I.P.C. The trial court also noted that there were two sets of medical evidence on the file in respect of the death of the deceased. Dr. Usha Rani, P.W. 6 and Dr. Indu Latit, P.W. 7 gave one opinion. According to them no injury was found on the dead body and that the same was highly decomposed. On the other hand, Dr. Dalbir Singh, P.W. 13 who also examined the dead body and gave his opinion, deposed that he noticed some injuries at the time of re-post mortem examination. Therefore at the most it can be said that the prosecution proved that it was an unnatural death in which case also Section 304-B I.P.C. would be attracted. But this aspect has certainly to be taken into consideration in balancing the sentence to be awarded to the accused. As a matter of fact, the trial court only found that the death was unnatural and the aspect of cruelty has been established and therefore the offences punishable under Sections 304-B and 201 I.P.C. have been established. The High Court in a very short judgment concluded that it was fully proved that the death of the deceased in her matrimonial home was a dowry death otherwise than in normal circumstances as a result of cruelty meted out to her and therefore an offence under Section 304-B I.P.C. was made out. Coming to the sentence the High Court pointed out that the accused-appellant was a police employee and instead of checking the crime he himself indulged therein and precipitated in it and that bride killing cases are on the increase and therefore a serious view has to be taken. As mentioned above Section 304-B I.P.C. only raises presumption and lays down that minimum sentence should be seven years but it may extend to imprisonment for life. Therefore awarding extreme punishment of imprisonment for life should be in rare cases and not in every case.

8. Hence, we are of the view that a sentence of 10 years' R.I. would meet the ends of justice. We, accordingly while confirming the conviction of the appellant under Section 304-B I.P.C. reduce the sentence of imprisonment for life to 10 years' R.I. The other conviction and sentence passed against the appellant are, however, confirmed. In the result, the appeal is dismissed subject to the above modification of sentence."

39. Recently in G.V. Siddaramesh V. State of Karnataka (2010) 3 SCC 152, Hon'ble Apex Court while allowing the appeal filed by the accused only on the question of sentence altered the sentence from life term to 10 years on more or less similar facts. Hon'ble H.L. Dattu, J. (as His Lordship then was) speaking for the Bench held as under: (SCC p. 160, para 31)

"31. In conclusion, we are satisfied that in the facts and circumstances of the case, the appellant was rightly convicted under Section 304-B IPC. However, his sentence of life imprisonment imposed by the courts below appears to us to be excessive. The appellant is a young man and has already undergone 6 years of imprisonment after being convicted by the Additional Sessions Judge and the High Court. We are of the view, in the facts and circumstances of the case, that a sentence of 10 years' rigorous imprisonment would meet the ends of justice. We, accordingly while confirming the conviction of the appellant under Section 304-B IPC, reduce the sentence of imprisonment for life to 10 years' rigorous imprisonment. The other conviction and sentence passed against the appellant are confirmed."

40. In Kashmira Devi Vs. The State of Uttarakhand, AIR 2020 SC 652, the principle laid down in Hem Chand (supra) has been reiterated and the court observed in para 24:-

"24. Having arrived at the above conclusion the quantum of sentence requires consideration. The High Court has awarded life imprisonment to the appellant on being convicted under Section 304-B IPC. The minimum sentence provided is seven years but it may extend to imprisonment for life. In fact, this Court in the case of Hem Chand Vs. State of Haryana (1994) 6 SCC 727 has held that while imposing the sentence, awarding extreme punishment of imprisonment for life under Section 304-B IPC should be in rare cases and not in every case. Though the mitigating factor noticed in the said case was different, in the instant case keeping in view the age of the appellant and also the contribution that would be required by her to the family, while husband is also aged and further taking into consideration all other circumstances, the sentence as awarded by the High Court to the appellant herein is liable to be modified."

41. Applying the principle of law as laid down in the aforementioned cases and having regard to the totality of facts and circumstances of this case, we are of the considered opinion that the deceased has been done to death on account of several injuries caused to her. The homicidal death has occurred just within an year of marriage. Once the plea of alibi is discarded and the presumption of Section 113-B is not discharged, the appellant will have to be awarded commensurate punishment in the case. We therefore hold that the appellant is liable to punishment of 14 years imprisonment, which shall meet the ends of justice. Accordingly, we modify the sentence of the appellant from life imprisonment to that of 14 years imprisonment. In our view, this case does not fall in the category of a 'rare case' so as to award to the appellant life imprisonment especially when the Trial Court has not recorded any specific finding for acquittal under Section 302 IPC.

42. In the light of the foregoing discussion, the impugned judgment and order of conviction dated 13.03.2019 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.15, Kanpur Nagar in Sessions Trial No. 361 of 2016 (State vs. Ajit Kushwaha), stands modified.

43. The accused appellant Ajit Kushwaha is in custody since 22.01.2016 and has remained in jail ever since then. The actual period of incarceration undergone by him is about more than eight years. We are of the considered view that the sentence awarded to accused appellant Ajit Kushwaha under Section 304-B IPC be modified to the sentence of 14 years imprisonment. The fine and the default sentence shall remain maintained. The appellant Ajit Kushwaha shall serve out the remaining sentence if not already served provided he is not wanted in any other case.

44. In view of the above, the present criminal appeal consequently succeeds and is allowed in part to that extent.

45. The Trial Court records be returned back and consigned to record.

(2024) 5 ILRA 151
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 02.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 3850 of 2019
Connected with
Criminal Appeal No. 3872 of 2019

Matgulla @ Ajay ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Kumar Ashutosh Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 302 r/w 34, 504-The Arms Act-1959- Sections 4/25- Indian Evidence Act, 1872-Section 27- Criminal appeals against judgment and order of conviction whereby the accused appellants convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment- The incident occurred at about 6.30 in the evening on 13.2.2016, it is alleged that when the deceased objected to hurling of abuses by the accused persons both the accused stabbed the deceased-No specific role assigned to any of the two accused-The injury report as well as postmortem it is apparent that there was a solitary stab wound caused to the deceased-PW-1 has admitted that he has not seen the incident- Presence of P.W-2 appears to be doubtful, particularly as he neither tried to save the injured nor took him to the hospital and was also not the person, who lodged the report- The absence of panchnama also shows that there were no independent witnesses who had witness the disclosure allegedly made by the accused-The manner in which the knife (murder weapon) is said to have been recovered on the pointing out of the accused raises more questions than it answers- Orders of conviction and sentence set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. These appeals are directed against judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 26.4.2019 and 29.4.2019, passed by Sessions Judge, Amroha, in Sessions Trial No. 172 of 2016 (State Vs. Matgulla @ Ajay and another), arising out of Case Crime No.60 of 2016; and Sessions Trial No.171 of 2016 (State Vs. Matgulla @ Ajay) arising out of Case Crime No.62 of 2016, Police Station Hasanpur, District Amroha, whereby the accused appellants Matgulla @ Ajay and Sanjay have been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.30,000/- each under Section 302/34 IPC and on failure to deposit fine to undergo additional imprisonment for one year; two years rigorous imprisonment under Section 504 IPC, and also accused appellant Matgulla @ Ajay has been convicted and sentenced to one year rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.5,000/- under Section 4/25 of the Arms Act and on failure to deposit fine to undergo additional imprisonment for three months. All sentences are to run concurrently.

2. Written report of informant Lala (PW-1) forms the basis of prosecution case as per which his brother had lit fire near the graveyard and was sitting by it, to warm himself in cold weather, when the two accused arrived and started hurling abuses to the informant's brother. The incident is of 13.2.2016 at 6.30 PM. Ranjeet (PW-2), the informant's brother (deceased) and Dharmpal (not produced) objected to the abuses whereafter the accused persons inflicted knife blows on the deceased. On the basis of such written report the first information report came to be lodged on the date of incident under Sections 307, 504 IPC at 9.30 hours as Case Crime No.60 of 2016. The Investigating Officer collected bloodstained and plain earth from the place of occurrence. Recovery memo in that regard has been exhibited as Ex.Ka-10. The injured brother was rushed to the local primary health centre wherein the doctor incharge examined him and vide his report (Ex.Ka-2) indicated following injuries on him:-

"(i) I/w 3 x 1 cm on left side of chest 10 cm above umbilicus."

3. The injured brother died couple of hours later. Inquest was conducted around 9.00 pm on the date of incident (Ex.Ka-4). Postmortem was conducted on the next date i.e. 14.2.2016 at 1.00 pm. As per the postmortem report (Ex.Ka-3), following ante-mortem injuries were found on the deceased:-

"Stabbed wound size 3.5 cm x 1 cm x cavity deep, margins are inverted, present on left side of abdomen, 12 cm below left nipple and 12 cm above umbilicus and 3 cm lateral to midline."

4. The cause of death has been specified as shock due to ante-mortem injury. Clothes worn by the deceased were also taken in custody and all such recovered materials were sent to Forensic Research Laboratory, Agra.

5. Accused Matgulla was thereafter arrested on 15.2.2016 and on his pointing out the weapon of assault i.e. knife was recovered from the bushes nearby the place of occurrence. The recovery of knife has been exhibited as Ex.Ka-11. Another first information report under Section 4/25 of the Arms Act was then registered on 15.2.2016, at 20.10 hours, being Case Crime No.62 of 2016. The recovered knife was also sent to FSL, Agra for its scientific examination.

6. The report of FSL has been exhibited as Paper No.23-A. As per this report blood was found on all items including the knife. However, blood on the knife was found disintegrated, and therefore, it could not be matched. Investigation ultimately concluded with submission of chargesheet (Ex.Ka-14) against the accused appellants under Section 302, 307, 504 IPC. A separate chargesheet (Ex.Ka-20) was also submitted against the accused Matgulla under Section 4/25 of the Arms Act. Cognizance was taken on the chargesheets, whereafter the case was committed to the court of sessions where it got registered as Sessions Trial Nos.171 and 172 of 2016. The accused appellants denied the charges framed against them and demanded trial.

7. In addition to the documentary evidence adduced during the trial, the prosecution has relied upon the oral testimony of two witnesses of fact, namely Lala (PW-1) and (Ranjeet) PW-2. PW-1 is the informant. In his examination-in-chief he has stated that the incident occurred at 6.30 pm. The deceased had lit fire and was sitting near it to warm himself when the two accused came and started abusing his brother. Deceased, Ranjeet and Dharmpal objected to it, whereafter accused Sanjay caught hold the deceased and accused Matgulla stabbed him with a knife. PW-1 admits that he has not seen the incident himself. Rather, he was going to ease himself near the graveyard and when he arrived at the spot the accused had left. He only claims to have seen the two accused fleeing from the spot. Matgulla was carrying knife in his hand while running away. He claims that he, together with his injured brother came to police station and got the written report scribed. PW-1 has stated that his house is about 100 paces from the place of incident. He was in the habit of going to the same graveyard to ease himself. He has also stated that after causing the stab injury the accused left towards the north. He later specified during cross-examination that he saw the accused from a distance of about 20 paces, and there was no other villager at the place of occurrence. He has admitted that there existed no dispute between the deceased and the accused. He further claimed that when he came to the place of occurrence he was informed by the injured brother that accused Sanjay had caught hold of him while accused Matgulla stabbed him. He stated that this fact was informed to the Investigating Officer and the fact that this was not mentioned in his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. cannot be explained. He also stated that alongwith the deceased brother, Ranjeet and Dharmpal were also sitting by the side of fire but they made no attempt to save his brother.

8. However, in his further cross-examination, PW-1 has claimed that he saw the incident himself. Other villagers came later. He also claimed that accused persons threatened him with knife; he was pushed by them before fleeing.

9. The other prosecution witness of fact namely, Ranjeet (PW-2) has also supported the prosecution case. PW-2, however, offers somewhat distinct narration of the incident. As per him the accused persons hurled abuses on the deceased because deceased had earlier objected to the plucking of sugarcane from the field and had also beaten the accused. PW-2 has further stated that after the incident occurred, he raised an alarm alongwith Dharmpal and rushed towards the village. At some distance he saw PW-1 and informed the incident to him. In his cross-examination PW-2 has stated that the deceased was like an uncle to him and lived at a distance of 50 metres from his house.

10. PW-2, however, claimed that apart from himself and Dharmpal, two other persons namely, Rahul and Sovinder were also warming themselves by the fire lit by deceased. Rahul and Sovinder have not been produced. This part of the testimony of PW-2 does not find support either from PW-1 or from any other evidence on record. This witness, however, states that PW-1 was not even present at the place of occurrence. He has denied that the Investigating Officer was informed by him that he came to the village and informed the incident to PW-1. PW-2 has also stated that police arrived nearly after half an hour later and took the injured alongwith PW-1. According to PW-2 the informant's brother had fainted on being stabbed and he was not in a position to speak.

11. PW-3 is the doctor, who had examined the injured. He has stated that there was a solitary cut injury of the size 3x1 cm on left side of chest 10 cm above the umbilicus. This injury could have come with a sharp object.

12. PW-4 is doctor Farid Husain, who has conducted the postmortem of the deceased. He has stated that the solitary injury was caused by a sharp object and the corners were inverted.

13. PW-5 is the Investigating Officer, who has proved the police papers. He also arrested the accused and proved the recovery of knife. In his cross-examination the witness has admitted that the informant did not inform him that accused Sanjay had caught hold of the deceased. This witness has clearly stated that he found no traces of any fire lit at the place of occurrence. PW-6 is also a formal witness, who has proved the police papers.

14. The evidence led during trial has been confronted to the accused, who have denied the evidence adduced against them during trial. Matgulla has denied that any knife was recovered on his pointing out. Similar stand of denial was taken by both the accused's. It is on the basis of the above evidence that the Court of Sessions has convicted the accused appellants and sentenced them as per above.

15. Sri Rahul Saxena, appearing for the appellants submits that the appellants have been falsely implicated; there was no motive on their part to commit the offence; recovery of knife from accused Matgulla is not reliable since the recovery was from open bushes and is otherwise refuted by testimony of witness; there is no independent witness to the recovery of knife; there is no disclosure statement of the accused pursuant to which the recovery was made; the testimony of PW-1 and PW-2 are not reliable.

16. Sri Vikas Goswami, learned A.G.A., on the other hand, submits that the witnesses are reliable and minor contradictions in their testimony cannot be relied upon to discredit the prosecution case. The State counsel further argues that there was a definite motive to commit the offence by the accused and that the testimony of PW-1 and PW-2 have rightly been relied upon by the trial court. Submission is that Court of Sessions has evaluated the evidence on record in correct perspective and that the appeals lack merit.

17. We have heard Sri Rahul Saxena, learned counsel for the accused appellants as well as Sri Vikas Goswami, learned A.G.A. for the State and carefully perused the evidence on record. Original records of trial court have also been examined by us.

18. Prosecution case, in this case, emanates on the written report, wherein it is specifically alleged that the incident occurred at about 6.30 in the evening on 13.2.2016. In the written report it is alleged that when the deceased objected to hurling of abuses by the accused persons both the accused stabbed the deceased. In the FIR there is no specific role assigned to any of the two accused. However, in the injury report as well as postmortem it is apparent that there was a solitary stab wound caused to the deceased. The prosecution case essentially relies upon the recovery of knife allegedly made on the pointing out of the accused appellant Matgulla as well as testimony of two prosecution witnesses of fact namely, PW-1 and PW-2.

19. PW-1 in his examination-in-chief has stated that the deceased objected to the hurling of abuses by the accused on which accused Sanjay had caught hold the deceased and accused Matgulla stabbed him. This part of the testimony of PW-1 is stated in court and does not find reference in the FIR. PW-1 has admitted that he has not seen the incident, wherein his brother was stabbed. In his examination-in-chief he has only stated that he saw the two accused fleeing from the place of occurrence. In the cross-examination he is specific that he has not seen the incident himself. PW-1 has further stated that he saw the two accused fleeing from a distance of twenty paces and that no other villager had come. From the testimony of PW-1 we find that he was neither present at the place of occurrence when the deceased was stabbed nor he has seen the incident with his own eyes. This witness cannot be stated to be an eye-witness. The most that can be attributed to PW-1 is that he saw the accused running from the place of occurrence. The place of occurrence in the present case is the graveyard which is a deserted place. It has come in evidence that there were bushes around and people generally used the location to ease themselves. It is also admitted that there was no source of light. The incident has occurred in the month of February and the witnesses have themselves suggested that it was dark. Though the witnesses have claimed that it was not fully dark but from the evidence available on record we find that the source of light was lacking at the place of occurrence. We are doubtful of the prosecution case that even in the absence of source of light PW-1 could have identified accused persons from a distance of twenty paces. It appears more probable to us that PW-1 arrived later at the place of occurrence and that by then the accused had already left.

20. PW-2 is the other witness of fact, who has supported the prosecution case. As against the version of PW-1 that deceased was sitting by the fire alongwith Dharmpal and Ranjeet, PW-2 has claimed that two more persons namely, Rahul and Sovindar were also present at the place of occurrence. He has categorically stated that PW-1 was not present at the place of occurrence. PW-2 has stated that though there were four persons but none of them attempted to save the deceased. PW-2 has been confronted with his previous statement made to the Investigating Officer, wherein he had alleged that he raised alarm and informed the villagers about the incident and when he left the place the injured was still lying at the spot. PW-2 moreover has stated that police arrived soon after the incident and had taken the injured to the doctor alongwith PW-1. The Investigating Officer, however, had denied that he had come to the place of occurrence or that he had taken the injured to the hospital. Although the Investigating Officer has stated that some local policemen may have come to take the injured but he is not definite in that regard. The version of PW-2 that there were four persons sitting alongwith the deceased is clearly at variance with the prosecution version. There is also material improvement in the statement of PW-2 from what he has initially disclosed to the Investigating Officer. On the basis of evaluation of evidence on record we find do not find PW-2 to be a reliable witness. His presence appears to be doubtful, particularly as he neither tried to save the injured nor took him to the hospital and was also not the person, who lodged the report.

21. The other aspect which requires examination in this case is the recovery of knife on the pointing out of accused Matgulla. The recovery memo of knife is Ex.Ka.11 which shows that there is no independent witness to the recovery of knife. The knife otherwise has been recovered from the bushes near the place of occurrence close to graveyard. The manner in which the knife is said to have been recovered on the pointing out of the accused appellant Matgulla raises more questions than it answers.

22. First and foremost, we find that though it is alleged that accused Matgulla was arrested on 15.2.2016 and he admitted his guilt before the police personnel and also offered to get the knife recovered but admittedly no disclosure statement has been prepared of accused Matgulla nor any panchnama has been contemporaneously recorded by the Investigating Officer. The absence of panchnama also shows that there were no independent witnesses who had witness the disclosure allegedly made by the accused. In the absence of disclosure statement of accused or its contemporaneous recording in the presence of independent witnesses the alleged recovery of knife cannot be taken in evidence in terms of Section 27 of Indian Evidence Act, 1872.

23. The site plan otherwise shows that the recovery of knife is from a place quite close to the place of occurrence. It is difficult to believe that the knife lying in the close vicinity of the injured was not noticed for two days. There is absolutely no reason as to why no independent person was associated either at the time of making of disclosure statement of the accused or when the recovery itself was allegedly made. Mere statement that no independent person was willing to testify is not backed by any details furnished by the Investigating Officer of the persons whom he tried to associate in this process. The knife although is alleged to have blood stains but as per FSL report it is not proved that the blood found on the knife is human blood. The recovery of knife therefore cannot be relied upon as a circumstance against the accused appellants.

24. In the facts of the case apart from testimony of two witnesses there is no other evidence brought on record to implicate the accused appellants. So far as PW-1 is concerned we have already observed that his testimony cannot be treated to be that of an eye-witness, inasmuch as he was not present at the place of occurrence at the time of incident and came later by when the incident had occurred. We have also observed that there was no source of light and as it was somewhat dark the possibility of accused's being recognized from a distance is remote. The place of occurrence is a graveyard having bushes all around and it was being used by the villagers for the purposes of defecation etc. So far as PW-2 is concerned we find that his testimony cannot be relied upon as there are material contradictions in his version. There are otherwise improvements made in his testimony from what was disclosed earlier at the stage of investigation. We, therefore, do not found the testimony of PW-2 to be reliable or safe in order to convict the accused appellants. These aspects appear to have been overlooked by the trial court and the statement of witnesses have been relied upon routinely without due care and caution. The conclusions drawn by the trial court on the aspect of appellants' guilt is thus found to be contrary to the weight of evidence on record.

25. Record otherwise shows that appellant Matgulla @ Ajay is in jail for last more than eight years, whereas accused Sanjay has undergone incarceration of almost six years. Upon evaluation of prosecution evidence we find that the accused appellants are clearly entitled to benefit of doubt, inasmuch as the prosecution has not succeeded in establishing its case against the accused appellants beyond reasonable doubt. The findings of the trial court that the guilt of accused appellants are established beyond reasonable doubt are thus reversed.

26. Consequently, the appeals succeed and are allowed. The judgment and orders of conviction and sentence of the accused appellants Matgulla @ Ajay and Sanjay are set aside. The appellants shall be set to liberty unless they are required in any other case, subject to compliance of Section 437A Cr.P.C.

(2024) 5 ILRA 157

APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 01.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 4378 of 2019

Shyamveer ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Appellant:
Suresh Dhar Dwivedi, Bishram Tiwari, Ritesh Singh, Suresh Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-323, 376 & 452-The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe - Prevention of Atrocities Act, 1989-Section 3(2)(v)- Criminal appeal against the judgment and order of conviction and sentence of life imprisonment- Accused entered the house of the victim and subjected her to sexual assault- Victim has been consistent in implicating the accused appellant of committing rape upon her during investigation under Section 161 Cr.P.C. also- By the time medical examination was conducted, almost 40 hours had expired. In a case of rape, any force used by the perpetrator to drag the victim or push her on the ground to commit rape necessarily need not cause such serious injury that it would leave a scar even after two days- No lady would otherwise make a false accusation against her own dignity merely for getting some money as compensation- No evidence on record to show that the offence of rape was committed by the accused on account of the caste identity of the victim-Conviction u/s 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act & u/s 323 IPC reversed-Punishment under Section 376 IPC is modified to 7 years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.50,000/-.

Appeal disposed of. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Patan Jamal Vali Vs The St. of Andhra Pradesh (2021) 16 SCC 225

2. Babu Vs St. of U.P. Criminal Appeal No.2878 of 2013, decided on 15.7.2022

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. This appeal is directed against judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 25.5.2019, passed by the Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Shahjahanpur in Sessions Trial No. 1936 of 2003 (State Vs. Shyamveer), arising out of Case Crime No. 75 of 2000, Police Station Madanapur, District Shahjahanpur, whereby the accused appellant Shyamveer has been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.50,000/- under Section 376 IPC read with Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act and on failure to deposit fine to undergo additional simple imprisonment for one year; five years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.10,000/- under Section 452 IPC and on failure to deposit the fine to undergo additional simple imprisonment for two months; and six months rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.500/- under Section 323 IPC and on failure to deposit fine to undergo additional simple imprisonment for fifteen days. Sentences are to run concurrently.

2. Informant in the present case is the husband of the victim, who has reported that on 21.5.2000 he had gone for work and his wife and children were at home. At about 8.00 in the evening accused Shyamveer, a resident of the same village, entered the house; assaulted his wife and ultimately dragged her inside a Kothari (small room) and subjected her to sexual assault. On raising of alam by the victim Udaiveer and informant's son came; challenged the accused; saved the victim; whereafter the accused fled. This written report is dated 23.5.2000 in respect of incident of 21.5.2000. First information report was lodged at 12.20 afternoon on 23.5.2000, as Case Crime No.75 of 2000, under Section 452, 376, 323 IPC & Section 3(1)12 SC/ST Act, at Police Station Madanapur, District Shahjahanpur. The victim was medically examined at 3.25 pm on 23.5.2000. No external or internal injuries were found. The victim herself reported that she was carrying pregnancy of 20 weeks. Supplementary medical report has also been submitted, wherein no cardiac activity was seen in the fetus. The doctor opined that the pregnancy was of 8 weeks 6 days but the fetus was not alive. Doctor in his cross-examination has stated that though pregnancy was disclosed as of 20 weeks but in fact the pregnancy was of 8 weeks 6 days. Statement of witnesses were recorded, and thereafter a chargesheet was submitted under Section 452, 323, 376 IPC & Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act on 26.7.2000 by the Investigating Officer. The Magistrate took cognizance of the chargesheet and committed the case to the court of sessions, where accused was charged of offences under Section 452, 323, 376 IPC and Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act.

3. During the course of trial, documentary evidence have been adduced by the prosecution in the form of FIR as Ex.Ka-6; written report as Ex.Ka-1; medical examination report as Ex.Ka-2; supplementary report as Ex.Ka-3; chargesheet as Ex.Ka-4; and site plan with Index as Ex.Ka-5.

4. In addition to above, the informant has been produced in evidence as PW-1 by the prosecution. He has supported the prosecution case and has also proved the written report. Accused Shyamveer lived at a distance of about 100 Kilometre (wrongly recorded, as the accused is of same village and 100 meters appears to have mentioned as 100 kms). Ompal, Ramanpal sons of Rampal and Sadhu Singh are residents of village against whom various cases of Dacoity, loot etc. are pending. In his further cross-examination he has stated that report was got scribed by the Investigating Officer Pramod Kumar and he had merely affixed his thumb impression. He has denied the suggestion that only for receiving Rs.50,000/- compensation from the State that a false report has been lodged.

5. PW-2 is the victim and wife of the informant. She is Khatik, which is a scheduled caste. She has supported the prosecution case and has alleged that while she was dragged inside a small room and pushed on the floor to commit rape, she sustained injuries and her bangles got broken. Accused also carried a firearm by which she was threatened. She has stated that the written report was got scribed by Pramod Kumar. In her cross-examination PW-2 has stated that Shyamveer is a resident of same village and had taken a house close by. At the time of incident she was cooking food and her elder son was playing on the roof along with her other four children. The door was open. Accused came abruptly and gagged her, so that she could not raise an alarm. She did not remember as to for how long the accused continued to gag her. Victim claims to have been physically assaulted by the accused. The accused was also drunk. Accused was naked. Prior to this incident accused has never come to her house. She has denied the suggestion that on account of enmity with Ompal, Ramanpal and Sadhu Singh, they have got the accused implicated under Section 376 IPC.

6. Mukesh is the son of victim, aged about 14 years, and has been produced as PW-3. He has supported the prosecution case, as per which his mother was dragged inside the room and subjected to sexual assault. The witness himself has seen the incident alongwith Udaiveer. In the cross-examination he has stated that he was playing on the roof. Accused was naked. On raising of alarm by his mother, PW-3 came downstairs by when Udaiveer also arrived, whereafter accused fled.

7. Dr. Deepa Dixit (PW-4) was posted at Women Hospital at Shahjahanpur and had conducted the medical examination of the victim. She had certified that there were no external or internal injuries on the victim. In the pathological report, no dead or live spermatozoa was found. As per ultrasound the victim was pregnant by 8 weeks 6 days but the fetus had no cardiac activity. No definite opinion with regard to rape has been expressed. She has stated that initially on the disclosure of the victim pregnancy was assessed of 20 weeks but on examination the pregnancy was of only 8 weeks 6 days.

8. PW-5 is the Circle Officer M.M.Verma, who was the Investigating Officer of the present case. He has proved the police papers as also the chargesheet. Head Constable Ram Sewak was produced as PW-6 who has proved the GD.

9. Udaiveer, who is stated to be the only independent eye-witness, has been produced as PW-7. This witness has not supported the prosecution case and has been declared hostile.

10. It is on the basis of above evidence that statement of accused has been recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The accused has stated that he has been falsely implicated on account of enmity.

11. Court of sessions on the basis of evidence led in the matter has ultimately concluded that prosecution has established its case beyond reasonable doubt relying upon the testimony of victim as well as other witness of fact namely PW-3.

12. On behalf of appellant, it is submitted that the accused appellant has been falsely implicated on account of village enmity, and that the incident is imaginary. Learned counsel for the appellant further submits that the implication of accused appellant is for the purposes of securing compensation from the State. Submission is that at the instigation of villagers Ramanpal, Ompal and Sadhu, who were implicated in various serious offences of dacoity, loot, murder etc., the appellant is falsely implicated. Learned counsel further submits that the medical evidence does not support the commissioning of rape. It is also stated that the prosecution story is otherwise wholly improbable.

13. Learned AGA, on the other hand, has supported the judgment of the court of sessions, under challenge, whereby accused appellant has been convicted and sentenced as per above.

14. We have heard Sri Ritesh Singh, learned counsel for the appellant and Sri Surendra Singh, learned AGA for the State and have perused the material placed on record including the original record of the Trial Court. Mrs. Abhilasha Singh has also appeared for High Court Legal Services Authority.

15. As per the prosecution case, the incident occurred on 21.5.2000 at about 8.00 in the evening. According to the victim she was cooking food in her house and her five children were playing on the roof of the house. The accused was living nearby and he entered the house and subjected her to sexual assault. This incident is sought to be proved with the aid of oral and documentary evidence, which has already been referred to above.

16. The evidence on record has been examined by us. Victim has explained before the court the manner in which the accused entered the house; dragged her inside the room and subjected her to sexual assault. She has been consistent in implicating the accused appellant of committing rape upon her during investigation under Section 161 Cr.P.C. also. Her testimony is supported by the version of PW-3, who is the son of the informant. According to PW-2 (victim), she raised an alarm whereafter PW-3 and Udaiveer rushed to the rescue of the victim. PW-3 has also been consistent in implicating the accused, since the stage of investigation.

17. On behalf of appellant, it is submitted that the medical evidence does not support the prosecution case, inasmuch as there are no external or internal injuries found on the victim. It is also argued that no spermatozoa etc. has been found in the pathological report. The doctor has also not given any definite opinion with regard to rape on the victim.

18. So far as the medical evidence is concerned, we find that though the incident occurred on 21.5.2000 but the FIR was lodged on the third day i.e. 23.5.2000. By the time medical examination was conducted, almost 40 hours had expired. In a case of rape, any force used by the perpetrator to drag the victim or push her on the ground to commit rape necessarily need not cause such serious injury that it would leave a scar even after two days. The trial judge has opined that possibility of victim having taken Bath or changing her clothes etc. within those 40 hours would be natural, particularly when it was peak of summer. Traces of crime may not be available in the medical evidence due to lapse of time.

19. The victim otherwise is a mother of five children and unless any specific reason of false implication is established during the trial, this Court would be inclined to rely upon the testimony of victim, who has been consistent during the investigation and trial. No lady would otherwise make a false accusation against her own dignity merely for getting some money as compensation. The son of the victim i.e. PW-3 has also been consistent in implicating the accused appellant of committing the offence. So far as PW-7 is concerned, we find that though he had supported the prosecution case at the stage of investigation but has turned hostile during trial. Since PW-7 is a resident of same village, the possibility of him being influenced by the accused party cannot be ruled out. The mere fact that PW-7 has not supported the prosecution case would not be of much importance.

20. In the facts of the case, we find that the victim has clearly narrated the manner in which the accused entered in her house and subjected her to sexual assault while she was cooking food and her husband was away. She has been consistent in her version. Her deposition is also supported by PW-3. In the absence of any reason of false implication, we do not find any good ground to disagree with what has been held by the trial court. The finding that prosecution has succeeded in proving the offence under Section 376 IPC by the accused against the victim is thus sustained.

21. So far as the allegation under Section 452 IPC is concerned, also we find that the witnesses have been consistent in stating that the accused entered the house of the victim against her wishes and subjected her to sexual assault. Offence under Section 452 IPC is thus sustained.

22. Coming to the offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act, we find that the only evidence on record is the disclosure by the victim that she is Khatik by caste. Khatik is a scheduled caste. Apart from establishing the identity of victim, as being scheduled caste, there is no other evidence that offence upon the victim was committed on account of her caste identity. Neither the victim nor PW-3 has at any stage of their deposition has supported the prosecution case about commissioning of offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act.

23. In what manner an offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act can be established has been dealt with extensively by the Supreme Court in Patan Jamal Vali Vs. The State of Andhra Pradesh, reported in (2021) 16 SCC 225. In para 62 to 64 of the report, the Supreme Court has clearly laid down that the prosecution must prove that the offence was committed on account of caste identity by the accused appellant, which are reproduced hereinafter:-

"62. The issue as to whether the offence was committed against a person on the ground that such person is a member of an SC or ST or such property belongs to such member is to be established by the prosecution on the basis of the evidence at the trial. We agree with the Sessions Judge that the prosecution's case would not fail merely because PW 1 did not mention in her statement to the police that the offence was committed against her daughter because she was a Scheduled Caste woman. However, there is no separate evidence led by the prosecution to show that the accused committed the offence on the basis of the caste identity of PW 2. While it would be reasonable to presume that the accused knew the caste of PW 2 since village communities are tightly knit and the accused was also an acquaintance of PW 2's family, the knowledge by itself cannot be said to be the basis of the commission of offence, having regard to the language of Section 3(2)(v) as it stood at the time when the offence in the present case was committed. As we have discussed above, due to the intersectional nature of oppression PW 2 faces, it becomes difficult to establish what led to the commission of offence — whether it was her caste, gender or disability. This highlights the limitation of a provision where causation of a wrongful act arises from a single ground or what we refer to as the single axis model.

63. It is pertinent to mention that Section 3(2)(v) was amended by the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015, which came into effect on 26-1-2016. The words "on the ground of" under Section 3(2)(v) have been substituted with "knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe". This has decreased the threshold of proving that a crime was committed on the basis of the caste identity to a threshold where mere knowledge is sufficient to sustain a conviction. Section 8 which deals with presumptions as to offences was also amended to include clause (c) to provide that if the accused was acquainted with the victim or his family, the court shall presume that the accused was aware of the caste or tribal identity of the victim unless proved otherwise. The amended Section 8 reads as follows:

"8. Presumption as to offences.— In a prosecution for an offence under this Chapter, if it is proved that—

(a) the accused rendered any financial assistance in relation to the offences committed by a person accused of, or reasonably suspected of, committing, an offence under this Chapter, the Special Court shall presume, unless the contrary is proved, that such person had abetted the offence;

(b) a group of persons committed an offence under this Chapter and if it is proved that the offence committed was a sequel to any existing dispute regarding land or any other matter, it shall be presumed that the offence was committed in furtherance of the common intention or in prosecution of the common object.

(c) the accused was having personal knowledge of the victim or his family, the Court shall presume that the accused was aware of the caste or tribal identity of the victim, unless the contrary is proved."

64. The Parliament Standing Committee Report on Atrocities Against Women and Children has observed that, "high acquittal rate motivates and boosts the confidence of dominant and powerful communities for continued perpetration" and recommends inclusion of provisions of the SC & ST Act while registering cases of gendered violence against women from the SC & ST communities. However, as we have noted, one of the ways in which offences against SC & ST women fall through the cracks is due to the evidentiary burden that becomes almost impossible to meet in cases of intersectional oppression. This is especially the case when courts tend to read the requirement of "on the ground" under Section 3(2)(v) as "only on the ground of". The current regime under the SC & ST Act, post the amendment, has facilitated the conduct of an intersectional analysis under the Act by replacing the causation requirement under Section 3(2)(v) of the Act with a knowledge requirement making the regime sensitive to the kind of evidence that is likely to be generated in cases such as these."

24. There is no evidence on record to show that the offence of rape was committed by the accused appellant on account of the caste identity of the victim. In the absence of any evidence in that regard, we are persuaded to accept the appellant's contention that the offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act is not established against the accused appellant. The conviction and sentence of the accused appellant under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act is, therefore, reversed.

25. So far as the offence under Section 323 IPC is concerned, we find that evidence on record do not justify implication of the accused appellant under Section 323 IPC, inasmuch as no injury of any kind has been found on the victim. The conviction and sentence against the accused appellant under Section 323 IPC is, therefore, reversed.

26. Coming to the question of sentence, we find that the trial court has awarded life sentence to the accused appellant under Section 376 IPC. Punishment under Section 376 IPC varies from 7 years to life. When the court proceeds to award maximum permissible sentence for an offence, it is the cardinal principle of law that reasons have to be given for awarding such maximum punishment. We do not find any such reasons to have been disclosed by the trial court. We otherwise find that there are no circumstances, which may justify awarding of extreme punishment to the accused appellant in the facts of the present case. It is admitted that accused appellant is the first offender and no such incident has been reported against him earlier. The possibility of reformation of the accused cannot be ruled out. On the aspect of sentence, we may refer to a recent judgment of the Division Bench of this Court in Babu Vs. State of U.P., passed in Criminal Appeal No.2878 of 2013, decided on 15.7.2022. Relevant portion of the judgment is reproduced hereinafter:-

"14. While coming to the conclusion that the accused is the perpetrator of the offence, whether sentence of life imprisonment and fine is adequate or the sentence requires to be modified in the facts and circumstances of this case and in the light of certain judicial pronouncements and precedents applicable in such matters. This Court would refer to the following precedents, namely, Mohd. Giasuddin Vs. State of AP, [AIR 1977 SC 1926], explaining rehabilitary & reformative aspects in sentencing it has been observed by the Supreme Court:

"Crime is a pathological aberration. The criminal can ordinarily be redeemed and the state has to rehabilitate rather than avenge. The sub-culture that leads to ante-social behaviour has to be countered not by undue cruelty but by reculturization. Therefore, the focus of interest in penology in the individual and the goal is salvaging him for the society. The infliction of harsh and savage punishment is thus a relic of past and regressive times. The human today vies sentencing as a process of reshaping a person who has deteriorated into criminality and the modern community has a primary stake in the rehabilitation of the offender as a means of a social defence. Hence a therapeutic, rather than an 'in terrorem' outlook should prevail in our criminal courts, since brutal incarceration of the person merely produces laceration of his mind. If you are to punish a man retributively, you must injure him. If you are to reform him, you must improve him and, men are not improved by injuries."

15. 'Proper Sentence' was explained in Deo Narain Mandal Vs. State of UP [(2004) 7 SCC 257] by observing that Sentence should not be either excessively harsh or ridiculously low. While determining the quantum of sentence, the court should bear in mind the 'principle of proportionality'. Sentence should be based on facts of a given case. Gravity of offence, manner of commission of crime, age and sex of accused should be taken into account. Discretion of Court in awarding sentence cannot be exercised arbitrarily or whimsically.

16. In Ravada Sasikala vs. State of A.P. AIR 2017 SC 1166, the Supreme Court referred the judgments in Jameel vs State of UP [(2010) 12 SCC 532], Guru Basavraj vs State of Karnatak, [(2012) 8 SCC 734], Sumer Singh vs Surajbhan Singh, [(2014) 7 SCC 323], State of Punjab vs Bawa Singh, [(2015) 3 SCC 441], and Raj Bala vs State of Haryana, [(2016) 1 SCC 463] and has reiterated that, in operating the sentencing system, law should adopt corrective machinery or deterrence based on factual matrix. Facts and given circumstances in each case, nature of crime, manner in which it was planned and committed, motive for commission of crime, conduct of accused, nature of weapons used and all other attending circumstances are relevant facts which would enter into area of consideration. Further, undue sympathy in sentencing would do more harm to justice dispensations and would undermine the public confidence in the efficacy of law. It is the duty of every court to award proper sentence having regard to nature of offence and manner of its commission. The supreme court further said that courts must not only keep in view the right of victim of crime but also society at large. While considering imposition of appropriate punishment, the impact of crime on the society as a whole and rule of law needs to be balanced. The judicial trend in the country has been towards striking a balance between reform and punishment. The protection of society and stamping out criminal proclivity must be the object of law which can be achieved by imposing appropriate sentence on criminals and wrongdoers. Law, as a tool to maintain order and peace, should effectively meet challenges confronting the society, as society could not long endure and develop under serious threats of crime and disharmony. It is therefore, necessary to avoid undue leniency in imposition of sentence. Thus, the criminal justice jurisprudence adopted in the country is not retributive but reformative and corrective. At the same time, undue harshness should also be avoided keeping in view the reformative approach underlying in our criminal justice system.

17. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case and also keeping in view criminal jurisprudence in our country which is reformative and corrective and not retributive, this Court considers that no accused person is incapable of being reformed and therefore, all measures should be applied to give them an opportunity of reformation in order to bring them in the social stream.

18. …….

19. …….

20. As discussed above, 'reformative theory of punishment' is to be adopted and for that reason, it is necessary to impose punishment keeping in view the 'doctrine of proportionality'. It appears from perusal of impugned judgment that sentence awarded by learned trial court for life term is very harsh keeping in view the entirety of facts and circumstances of the case and gravity of offence. Hon'ble Apex Court, as discussed above, has held that undue harshness should be avoided taking into account the reformative approach underlying in criminal justice system. ”

27. Considering the evidence in its entirety, we are of the view that punishment of life under Section 376 IPC to the accused appellant is not warranted, and ends of justice would be met if the minimum punishment of 7 years is awarded to the accused appellant under Section 376 IPC. To that extent we modify the judgment and order of the court below.

28. For the reasons and discussions held above, this appeal succeeds in part. While conviction of accused appellant under Section 376 and 452 IPC is sustained, his conviction under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act and 323 IPC is set aside. The punishment imposed upon accused appellant under Section 452 is maintained, while under Section 376 IPC is modified to 7 years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.50,000/-. On failure to pay fine, the accused appellant shall undergo default sentence of 6 months. Punishments shall run concurrently.

29. Mrs. Abhilasha Singh, who has appeared for the High Court Legal Services Authority, shall be entitled to payment of her fee, as per rules.

30. Appeal, accordingly, stands disposed of.

(2024) 5 ILRA 165
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 7124 of 2023

Anand Kumar Asthana ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Shishir Jain, Lakshyadeep Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
S.C., Ajay Kumar Singh

A. Service Law – Constitution of India – Article 311(2) – UP Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 – Rule 7 – Punishment – Opportunity of hearing – Documentary evidence and list of witnesses was not served – Charges were not so grave in nature, which could lead to the major punishment – Effect – Major punishment imposed – Validity challenged – Held, the charges framed, should be precised and clear and the chargesheet alongwith copy of the documentary evidence and the list of witnesses, if any, should be served upon the charged government servant – Show cause notice cannot be a proof of any misconduct, unless a decision is taken, while affording the opportunity of hearing to such employee – Though the noting dated 29-07-2021, is not an order and even the same has never been served upon the petitioner and therefore, that cannot be treated as documentary proof against the petitioner. (Para 21, 22 and 27)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Anant R. Kulkarni Vs Y.P. Education Society & ors.; (2013) 6 SCC 515

2. Managing Director, ECIL, Hyderabad & ors. Vs B. Karunakar & ors.; (1993) 4 SCC 727

3. Haryana Financial Corporation & anr. Vs Kailash Chandra Ahuja; (2008) 9 SCC 31

4. Delhi Development Authority Vs Hello Home Education Society; (2024) 3 SCC 148

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Shishir Jain, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel, Sri Pankaj Patel, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State and Sri Ajay Kumar Singh, for Varanasi Development Authority, Varanasi.

2. Under challenge is the impugned punishment order dated 24-08-2023 passed by the opposite party no. 1 and the charge no. 1 of the chargesheet dated 28-12-2021.

3. The factual matrix of the case is that the petitioner was appointed as Junior Engineer on daily wage basis in Lucknow Development Authority on 01-01-1988 and thereafter, his services were regularized and he was transferred to Varanasi Development Authority, Varanasi(hereinafter referred to as, 'VDA'). When the petitioner was posted as Junior Engineer Enforcement (Nagwan Ward) surprisingly, on 21-07-2021, inspection of various roads in Nagwan Ward was conducted by the Vice Chairman, VDA and allegedly, unauthorized building constructions were found in progress and thereafter, a show cause notice dated 22-07-2021, was issued to the petitioner and the petitioner submitted reply to the show cause notice, on 28-07-2021. Thereafter, a departmental enquiry was instituted, wherein the charges were framed and the chargesheet dated 28-12-2021 was served upon the petitioner. The petitioner submitted reply to the chargesheet and the enquiry proceeding was concluded and the enquiry report was sent to the disciplinary authority, whereafter, issuing the show cause notice, the disciplinary proceeding was concluded and the final punishment order was passed on 24-08-2023.

4. Contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the chargesheet contains three charges and so far as the charge no. 1 is concerned, it finds mention that the same is framed on the basis of the show cause notice dated 22-07-2021, though the same was replied, but, the alleged noting dated 29-07-2021, has never been communicated to the petitioner, wherein, it is mentioned that the report with respect to the work of the petitioner is 'unsatisfactory'. He further argued that the Enquiry Officer, ignoring the request of the petitioner for furnishing the copy of the order dated 29-07-2021, proceeded in the matter and even the same has repeatedly been sought not only from the Enquiry Officer but,to the Disciplinary authority as well, though the same was never served upon the petitioner.

5. Adding his arguments, he submits that the petitioner has also taken specific plea in paragraph nos. 17 & 26 of the writ petition, which has not been controverted in specific terms, in the Counter Affidavits filed by VDA as well as by the State and therefore, it is an admitted fact that the order dated 29-07-2021, has never been served upon the petitioner, thus, the whole disciplinary proceeding including the chargesheet, vitiates in the eyes of law.

6. Further contended that the nature of the order is as such, which cannot be the basis of the charge no. 1 and even the same would be of no avail, if relied upon.

7. In support of his contentions, he has placed reliance on the Judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court, on the case reported in (2013) 6 Supreme Court Cases 515, Anant R. Kulkarni Vs. Y.P.Education Society and Others, and has referred paragraph no. 31 of the abovesaid Judgment, which is quoted hereinunder :-

31.The conclusion reached by the Division Bench that the Tribunal and the learned Single Judge had found that there was a defect in the manner in which the enquiry was held, and therefore there was no question of it recording a finding on merit to the effect that charges levelled against the appellant were not proved, is also not sustainable in law. It is always open for the Court in such a case, to examine the case on merits as well, and in case the court comes to the conclusion that there was in fact, no substance in the allegations, it may not permit the employer to hold a fresh enquiry. Such a course may be necessary to save the employee from harassment and humiliation."

8. Referring the aforesaid, he submits that the Hon'ble Apex Court in abovesaid case has held that it is always open for the court to examine the case on merits and in case, the court comes to the conclusion that there was in fact no substance in the allegations, it may not permit the employer to hold a fresh enquiry.

9. Further reliance is placed on the Constitutional Bench Judgment reported in (1993)4 Supreme Court Cases, 727, Managing Director, ECIL, Hyderabad and Others Vs. B.Karunakar and Others and has referred paragraph no. 28 of the said Judgment, which is quoted hereinunder :-

"28. The position in law can also be looked at from a slightly different angle. Article 311(2) says that the employee shall be given a "reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of the charges against him". The findings on the charges given by a third person like the enquiry officer, particularly when they are not borne out by the evidence or are arrived at by overlooking the evidence or misconstruing it, could themselves constitute new unwarranted imputations. What is further, when the proviso to the said Article states that "where it is proposed after such inquiry, to impose upon him any such penalty, such penalty may be imposed on the basis of the evidence adduced during such inquiry and it shall not be necessary to give such person any opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed", it in effect accepts two successive stages of differing scope. Since the penalty is to be proposed after the inquiry, which inquiry in effect is to be carried out by the disciplinary authority (the enquiry officer being only his delegate appointed to hold the inquiry and to assist him), the employee's reply to the enquiry officer's report and consideration of such reply by the disciplinary authority also constitute an integral part of such inquiry. The second stage follows the inquiry so carried out and it consists of the issuance of the notice to show cause against the proposed penalty and of considering the reply to the notice and deciding upon the penalty. What is dispensed with is the opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed and not of opportunity of making representation on the report of the enquiry officer. The latter right was always there. But before the Forty-second Amendment of the Constitution, the point of time at which it was to be exercised had stood deferred till the second stage viz., the stage of considering the penalty. Till that time, the conclusions that the disciplinary authority might have arrived at both with regard to the guilt of the employee and the penalty to be imposed were only tentative. All that has happened after the Forty-second Amendment of the Constitution is to advance the point of time at which the representation of the employee against the enquiry officer's report would be considered. Now, the disciplinary authority has to consider the representation of the employee against the report before it arrives at its conclusion with regard to his guilt or innocence of the charges.

10. Referring the aforesaid, he submits that the provision of Article 311(2) of the Constitution of India, speaks about reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of charges against a delinquent employee and therefore, it is well settled that reasonable opportunity of hearing to a delinquent employee is 'hallmark' test of any disciplinary proceeding against a delinquent employee, under the constitutional scheme'.

11. Further, he has placed reliance on the Judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in case of Haryana Financial Corporation and Another Vs. Kailash Chandra Ahuja, reported in (2008)9 Supreme Court Cases, 31, and has referred paragraph no. 21 of the said Judgment, which is quoted herein under :-

"21. From the ratio laid down in B. Karunakar [(1993) 4 SCC 727 : 1993 SCC (L&S) 1184 : (1993) 25 ATC 704] it is explicitly clear that the doctrine of natural justice requires supply of a copy of the inquiry officer's report to the delinquent if such inquiry officer is other than the disciplinary authority. It is also clear that non-supply of report of the inquiry officer is in the breach of natural justice. But it is equally clear that failure to supply a report of the inquiry officer to the delinquent employee would not ipso facto result in the proceedings being declared null and void and the order of punishment non est and ineffective. It is for the delinquent employee to plead and prove that non-supply of such report had caused prejudice and resulted in miscarriage of justice. If he is unable to satisfy the court on that point, the order of punishment cannot automatically be set aside."

12. The constitutional Bench has laid down that doctrine of natural justice, requires supply of copy of enquiry report to the delinquent employee, and non supply of such report would amount to breach of principle of natural justice.

13. Concluding his arguments,he submits that the charge no. 1 mentioned in the chargesheet, is hit by the settled proposition of law as well as the procedure prescribed in the U.P.Government Servant(Discipline & Appeal) Rules, 1999 and therefore, the impugned order dated 24-08-2023 including the whole disciplinary proceeding may be quashed.

14. Refuting the aforesaid contentions, learned counsel for VDA submits that since the petitioner was having the charge of the area of Nagwan Ward, wherein the allegation for unauthoritzed construction of building was initially raised and thereafter a show cause notice was given, thus this fact was well within the knowledge of the petitioner, however now the petitioner is not posted in the domain of VDA and therefore, so far as any exigency regarding DPC is concerned, the same is not required to be addressed by VDA.

15. Learned counsel appearing for the State has also opposed the contentions and submitted that once, it was found that the petitioner is involved, while permitting illegal construction in Nagwan Ward, he was suspended and the charges were framed against him and thereafter conducting a full fledged enquiry, the enquiry report was submitted and the disciplinary authority, after providing the due opportunity of hearing, even according the opportunity of personal hearing, concluded the disciplinary proceedings and the punishment order was passed and therefore, there is no erroneousness or ambiguity in the order impugned.

16. Adding his arguments, he submits that infact it is an admitted position that two charges were not found proved, but, in so far as the charge no. 1 is concerned, after due discussion in the enquiry, it was found proved partly, on the basis of the order dated 29-07-2021. He added that the order dated 29-07-2021 was passed on the reply submitted by the petitioner to the show cause notice dated 22-07-2021 and therefore, it cannot be said that the same was not in the knowledge of the petitioner, thus, submission is that no interference is warranted.

17. Having heard learned counsels for the parties and after perusal of material placed on record, it transpires that the petitioner has approached this court while taking a plea that the final punishment order dated 24-08-2023 is passed without serving a copy of the noting dated 29-07-2021, which is said to be transcribed on the show cause notice dated 22-07-2021.

18. The Disciplinary Authority, initially proceeded with the procedure for imposing the major penalty and issued undated chargesheet alongwith covering letter dated 28-12-2021. The contents of the chargesheet are extracted as under :-

आरोप-पत्र

श्री आनन्द कुमार अस्थाना,
अवर अभियन्ता, सम्प्रति निलम्बित,
वाराणसी विकास प्राधिकरण , वाराणसी।

वाराणसी विकास प्राधिकरण, वाराणसी के अन्तर्गत वार्ड नगवां में प्रधानमंत्री आवास योजना कुरूहुआ के आस-पास एवं कार्य स्थल तक पहुँच मार्ग, अखरी रोड, चुनार रोड, अवलेशपुर, चितईपुर एवं अन्य मुख्य मागर्गों पर 100 से अधिक संख्या में अनाधिकृत भवनों का निर्माण कार्य गतिमान पाये जाने के संबंध में।

आरोप संख्याः-1

वाराणसी विकास प्राधिकरण, वाराणसी के अंतर्गत वार्ड नगवां में प्रधानमंत्री आवास योजना कुरूहुआ के आस-पास एवं कार्यस्थल तक पहुँच मार्ग, अखरी रोड, चुनार रोड, अवलेशपुर, चितईपुर एवं अन्य मुख्य मागों पर 100 से अधिक संख्या में अनाधिकृत भवनों का निर्माण कार्य गतिमान पाया गया। आपका यह कृत्य कर्मचारी आचरण नियमवाली के विपरीत है। इस प्रकार प्रथम दृष्ट्या आप द्वारा अपने पदेन दायित्वों का निर्वहन नहीं किया गया, जो उ०प्र० सरकार कर्मचारी आचरण नियमावली 1956 का उल्लंघन है, जिसके लिए आप दोषी है। उक्त अनाधिकृत निर्माणों के सम्बन्ध में कारण बताओं नोटिस पत्रांक संख्या-119/वि०पा०/ उपा०/2021/22, दिनांक 22.07.2021 जारी किया गया एवं उक्त के कम में सभी स्थलों का शत-प्रतिशत निरीक्षण कर आख्या प्रस्तुत किये जाने के निर्देश दिये गये थे, किन्तु

एक माह बीत जाने के पश्चात् भी आख्या प्रस्तुत नहीं की गयी। अवैध निर्माण कर्ताओं द्वारा किये जा रहे अवैध निर्माण को बाधित करने में। रोकने में, सौपें गये कार्यों/दायित्वों का उचित प्रकार से निर्वहन न किये जाने के फलस्वरूप प्राधिकरण की छवि धूमिल हुई है एवं अवैध निर्माण होने के कारण प्राधिकरण को सम्भावित वित्तीय क्षति पहुँपाये जाने के प्रथम दृष्टया दोषी पाये जा रहे हैं एवं कार्यों के प्रति घोर लापरवाही व अवैध निर्माण में संलिप्तता प्रतीत होती है, जो उ०प्र० सरकारी कर्मचारी आचरण नियमावली 1956 का उल्लंघन है।

पठनीय-अभिलेखीय साक्ष्यः-

कारण बताओं नोटिस पत्रांक संख्या-119/ वि० प्रा०/ उपा०/2021-22 दिनांक 22.07.2021 की छायाप्रति ।

आरोप संख्या-2

कार्यालय पत्र संख्या-490/ वि० प्रा० उपा०/2019-20, दिनांक 31.01.2020 द्वारा दिनांक 29.01.2020 को बिना पूर्व अवकाश स्वीकृत करायें कार्यालय से अनुपस्थित रहने पर कारण बताओं नोटिस जारी किया गया, जो उ०प्र० सरकारी कर्मचारी आचरण नियमावली-1956 का उल्लंघन है, जिसके लिये आप दोषी है।

पठनीय अभिलेखीय साक्ष्यः-

कारण बताओं नोटिस पत्र संख्या -490/ वि० प्रा०/ उपा०/2019-20 दिनांक 31.01.2020 द्वारा दिनांक 29.01.2020 की छायाप्रति ।

आरोप संख्या-3

दिनांक 18.02.2020 को आहूत मानचित्र अनुभाग की समीक्षा बैठक के दौरान मानचित्र स्वीकृत हेतु लम्बित प्रकरणों की समीक्षा करने पर यह तथ्य संज्ञान में आया कि मानचित्र की पत्रावलियो पर लम्बे समयान्तराल में कोई कार्यवाही सम्पादित नहीं की गयी. जिसके संबध में आपको कारण बताओं नोटिस पत्र संख्या-515/वि० प्रा०/उपा०/ 2019-20. दिनांक 19.02.2020 जारी किया गया। उक्त के संबंध में आप द्वारा दिनांक 24.02.2020 को जवाब दिया गया, जो संतोषजनक नहीं पाया गया। तद्कम में कार्यालय पत्र संख्या-683/वि० प्रा०/अधि०/2019-20, दिनांक 07.03.2020 द्वारा कठोर चेतावनी निर्गत की गयी। इस प्रकार आप द्वारा गम्भीर लापरवाही एवं कूटरचित कृत्य एवं विभागीय कर्तव्यों के निर्वहन के पदेन दायित्वों के प्रति लापरबाही एवं उदासीनता परिलक्षित होती है. जो उ०प्र० सरकारी कर्मचारी आचरण नियमावली -1956 का उल्लंघन है, जिसके लिये आप दोषी है।

पठनीय-अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य-

1. कारण बताओं नोटिस पत्र संख्या - 515/वि० प्रा०/ उपा०/2019-20, दिनांक छायाप्रति 19.02.2020की

2. श्री अस्थाना द्वारा कारण बताओं नोटिस दिनांक 19.02.2020 के सम्बन्ध में दिनांक 24.02.2020को प्रस्तुत उत्तर की छायाप्रति

3. कठोर चेतावनी पत्र संख्या-683/वि० प्रा० / अधि०/2019-20. दिनांक 07.03.2020 की छायाप्रति ।आपसे यह अपेक्षा की जाती है कि आप आरोप पत्र प्राप्त होने की तिथि से अधिरोपित

आरोप के संबंध में अपना लिखित उत्तर 15 दिन से 01 माह के अन्दर जांच अधिकारी को अनिवार्य रूप से प्रस्तुत कर देगे तथा प्रस्तुत किये लिखित कथन में यह भी स्पष्ट रूप से अंकित करेंगे कि आप आरोप पत्र में उल्लिखित किसी साक्ष्य का परीक्षण करना चाहते हैं अथवा किसी साक्षी का प्रति परीक्षण करना चाहते हैं या अपने बचाव में अपनी तरफ से किसी साक्षी या

साक्ष्य को प्रस्तुत करना चाहते हैं, तो उनका नाम व पता तथा विवरण भी स्पष्ट रूप से लिखित कथन में ही इंगित करेंगे। यदि आप स्वयं सुनवाई के कम में जाँच अधिकारी से मौखिक सुनवाई का व अवसर भी प्राप्त करना चाहते तो उसे भी स्पष्टतः अपने लिखित उत्तर में इंगित करेंगे। जांच अधिकारी द्वारा आरोप के समर्थन में साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत किये जायेगें, जिसमे मौखिक एवं अभिलिखित साक्ष्य सम्मिलित होंगें। मौखिक या लिखित साक्ष्य होने के समय जांच अधिकारी द्वारा अपचारी अभियंता को गवाहों से प्रति परीक्षण करने का अवसर भी दिया जायेगा। जांच अधिकारी द्वारा अपचारी अभियंता को साक्ष्य के अंतर्गत दिये गये अनियमिताओं की स्वीकार्यता के सम्बन्ध में आपत्ति प्रस्तुत करने का अवसर भी दिया जायेगा। जांच में साक्ष्य लेने की कार्यवाही पूर्ण हो जाने के पश्चात जांच अधिकारी अपचारी अभियंता को अपने बचाव में मौखिक / लिखित कथन प्रस्तुत करने हेतु स्थान, समय व तिथि निर्धारित करते हुए अपचारी अभियन्ता को यथोचित सूचित करते हुए अपचारी अभियन्ता का उत्तर प्राप्त किया जायेगा, जिसमें मौखिक व अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य सम्मिलित होंगे।

उक्त के अतिरिक्त अपचारी अभियंता को यह भी निर्देशित किया जाता है कि यदि व उक्त निर्धारित अवधि में अधिरोपित आरोप के सम्बन्ध में अपना लिखित उत्तर जांच अधिकारी को प्रस्तुत नहीं करता है तो यह माना जायेगा कि उसे आरोप के सम्बन्ध में कुछ भी नहीं कहना है तथा आरोप स्वीकार्य है और तदोपरान्त दण्डन प्राधिकारी । अनुशासनिक प्राधिकारी द्वारा जांच आख्या का गुण दोष के आधार पर परीक्षण कर तथा सम्यक निर्णय लेकर आदेश प्रख्यापित कर दिया जायेगा।

श्री राज्यपाल की आज्ञा से

आरोप पत्र अनुमोदित ।

(जांच अधिकारी)

अपर आयुक्त (प्रशासन)

प्रयागराज मण्डल, प्रयागराज।

(दीपक कुमार)

प्रमुख सचिव,

आवास एवं शहरी नियोजन विभाग

उ०प्र० शासन

19. After serving the aforesaid chargesheet, the reply was submitted by the petitioner and the Enquiry Officer concluded the enquiry proceedings vide enquiry report dated 20-10-2022, which is evident that out of total three charges, charge nos. 2 & 3 were not found proved and the charge no. 1 is found proved, partly.

20. A bare reading of charge no. 1 is apparent that the documentary evidence in support of charge no. 1 is letter dated 22-07-2021, which is a show cause notice. The show cause notice dated 22-07-2021 is quoted in verbatim as under :-

वाराणसी विकास प्राधिकरण, वाराणसी

119/वि.प्रा./उपा./2021-22

दिनांक: 22/07/2021

कारण बताओ नोटिस

श्री आनंद कुमार अस्थाना, अवर अभियंता प्रवर्तन (नगवां वार्ड)।

अधोहस्ताक्षरी द्वारा 21.07.2021 को औचक स्थल निरीक्षण के दौरान आपके अधीनस्थ कार्यक्षेत्र वार्ड नगवा में प्रधानमंत्री आवास योजना कुरुहुआ के आस-पास एवं कार्यस्थल तक पहुंच मार्ग, अखरी रोड, चुनार रोड, अबलेशपुर, चित्तईपुर एवं अन्य मुख्य मार्गों पर 100 से अधिक संख्या में भवनों का निर्माण कार्य गतिमान पाया गया।

प्रथम दृष्ट्या ये समस्त निर्माण कार्य प्राधिकरण से अनुमति प्राप्त किए बिना अवैध रूप से गतिमान प्रतीत हो रहे है। आपके कार्यकाल में अधीनस्थ नागवां वार्ड / क्षेत्र में अवैध निर्माणों में अप्रत्याशित वृद्धि हुयी है तथा वार्ड । प्रवर्तन अवर अभियंता के रूप में आप द्वारा शिकायतों एवं अवैध निर्माणों पर प्रभावी कार्यवाही कर निस्तारण नहीं किया जा रहा है। आपके उपरोक्त कृत्य से स्पष्ट है कि प्रवर्तन अवर अभियंता के रूप में अपने विभागीय कर्तव्यों एवं दायित्यवों के निर्वहन एवं उच्चाधिकारियों द्वारा प्रदत्त दिशा निर्देशों के अनुपालन में लापरवाही एवं घोर उदासीनता बरती गयी है, जो अत्यंत खेद का विषय है तथा उत्तर प्रदेश सरकारी सेवक आचरण नियमावली 1956 में निहित प्रावधानों के विपरीत है।

इस संबंध में 03 दिवस में अधोहस्ताक्षरी के समक्ष प्रकरणवार स्थलीय निरीक्षण के साथ कृत वैधानिक्क कार्यवाही की आख्या एवं इस आशय का लिखित प्रत्यावेदन प्रस्तुत करें कि आपके विरुद्ध अपने विभागीय कर्तव्यों एवं दायित्वों के निर्वहन एवं उच्चाधिकारियों द्वारा प्रदत्त दिशा निर्देशों के अनुपालन में लापरवाही एवं घोर उदासीनता बरतने के कारण क्यों न अनुशासनात्मक कार्यवाही संस्थित कर दी जाये। संलग्नक निर्माण स्थलों के फोटोग्राफ्स ।

(ईशा दुहेन)
उपाध्यक्ष।
दिनांकः

पत्रांकः/वि.प्रा./उपा/2021-22

प्रतिलिपि - निम्नलिखित को सूचनार्थ एवं आवश्यक कार्यवाही हेतु प्रेषित।

1. सचित।
2 प्रभारी अधिकारी-अधिष्ठान।
3. जोनल अधिकारी- नगवां ।
4. गार्ड फाइल।

(ईशा दुहेन)
उपाध्यक्ष।

21. From perusal of the show cause notice dated 22-07-2021,it is evident that the charges are not so grave in nature, which could lead to the major punishment, though, it has been pleaded by the opposite parties that on the show cause notice itself, a note was transcribed that 'the work of the petitioner is unsatisfactory', to which petitioner has vehemently controverted and stated that aforesaid noting was never intimated/served upon the petitioner. For the other reasons also, the show cause notice cannot be a proof of any misconduct, unless a decision is taken, while affording the opportunity of hearing to such employee, more so, noting 'unsatisfactory' was also not intimated to the petitioner, as the opposite parties have failed to substantiate it, before this court.

22. So far as the disciplinary proceedings instituted against the petitioner under the U.P.Government Servant(Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 (hereinafter referred to as 'Rules 1999'), are concerned, that has not been adhered to, as the Rule 7 of Rules, 1999, clearly prescribes that the charges framed, should be precised and clear and the chargesheet alongwith copy of the documentary evidence and the list of witnesses, if any, should be served upon the charged government servant. The Rule 7((iii) & (v) of the Rules, 1999, are quoted hereinunder :-

"(iii) The charges framed shall be so precise and clear as to give sufficient indication to the charged Government servant of the facts and circumstances against him. The proposed documentary evidence and the name of the witnesses proposed to prove the same alongwith oral evidence, if any, shall be mentioned in the charge-sheet.

(v) The charge-sheet, alongwith the copy of the documentary evidences mentioned therein and list of witnesses and their statements, if any shall be served on the charged Government servant personally or by registered post at the address mentioned in the official records. In case the charge-sheet could not be served in aforesaid manner, the charge-sheet shall be served by publication in a daily newspaper having wide circulation:

Provided that where the documentary evidence is voluminous, instead of furnishing its copy with charge-sheet, the charged Government servant shall be permitted to inspect the same before the Inquiry Officer."

23. The provisions are very clear in it's terms that documentary evidences and list of witnesses mentioned in the chargesheet, must be given to the delinquent, but, the said noting/order dated 29-07-2021, was never served to the petitioner, though the same is very basis of charge no. 1 as on the basis of the same, the Enquiry Officer came to the conclusion that the chrage no. 1 is partly proved.

24. Undisputedly, the said order dated 29-07-2021, is a noting/internal order, as it was not communicated to the petitioner and prior to passing of this order,no opportunity of hearing was afforded to the petitioner.

25. It's so long settled that a person, who is required to answer a charge, must know not only the accusation, but, also the testimony by which the accusation is supported and further, he must be given the copy of the documentary evidence mentioned in support of the charge. Further non supply of the documents/evidences mentioned in the chargesheet absolutely vitiate the enquiry proceedings.

26. This court is also aware about the Judgment and order, rendered in the case of Delhi Development Authority Vs. Hello Home Education Society, reported in (2024) 3 Supreme Court Cases, 148, wherein, in paragraph no. 19.7, it has been held as follows:-

"19.7. The issue relating to internal notings as to whether it would confer any right or not has been adequately dealt with and settled by series of judgments of this Court. It is well settled that until and unless the decision taken on file is converted into a final order to be communicated and duly served on the party concerned, no right accrues to the said party. Mere notings and in-principle approvals do not confer a vested right. Relevant extracts from judgments of this Court in this regard are being reproduced hereunder.

(a) Bachhittar Singh [Bachhittar Singh v. State of Punjab, 1962 SCC OnLine SC 11 : AIR 1963 SC 395] : (AIR p. 398, paras 9-10)

"9. The question, therefore, is whether he did in fact make such an order. Merely writing something on the file does not amount to an order. Before something amounts to an order of the State Government two things are necessary. The order has to be expressed in the name of the Governor as required by clause (1) of Article 166 and then it has to be communicated. As already indicated, no formal order modifying the decision of the Revenue Secretary was ever made. Until such an order is drawn up the State Government cannot, in our opinion, be regarded as bound by what was stated in the file. ?

10. ? Thus it is of the essence that the order has to be communicated to the person who would be affected by that order before the State and that person can be bound by that order. For, until the order is communicated to the person affected by it, it would be open to the Council of Ministers to consider the matter over and over again and, therefore, till its communication the order cannot be regarded as anything more than provisional in character."

27. Hon'ble Supreme Court, in very clear words, has held that merely writing something on the file does not amount to an order. In fact, in the present matter, on the basis of the noting dated 29-07-2021, the Enquiry Officer had come to the conclusion that since the noting says that the work of the petitioner is unsatisfactory and therefore, he found that the charge no. 1 is partly proved, though the noting dated 29-07-2021, is not an order and even the same has never been served upon the petitioner and therefore, that cannot be treated as documentary proof against the petitioner and thus, the Enquiry Officer as well as the Disciplinary Authority are not only mistaken, but, they have ignored the settled proposition of law.

28. In view of the abovenoted submissions and discussions, the writ petition, is hereby allowed.

29. Consequently, the impugned punishment order dated 24-08-2023 is hereby quashed.

30. With all respect at my command to the settled law, there seems to be no substance in the charge no. 1, as the same is based only on the show cause notice and a noting on the file thereof, which cannot be treated as documentary evidence as such, the same is of no consequence, therefore, for saving the petitioner from further humiliation and harassment, the charge no. 1 of the chargesheet dated 28-12-2021, is also hereby quashed.

31. Consequences shall follow.

(2024) 5 ILRA 174
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ABDUL MOIN, J.

Writ A No. 17751 of 2019

Jitendra Kumar ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Amrendra Nath Tripathi, Deepak Dwivedi, Sheshnath Bhardwaj

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – UP Police Officers of Subordinate Ranks (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1991 – Rule 8(2)(b) – Dismissal – Charge of submitting fake Caste Certificate – No enquiry was held saying that it is not reasonably practicable – Permissibility – Held, no reasons emerge as to why the competent authority has not found it reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry against the petitioner – The reasons for denial of inquiry must be supported by document and other related material – High Court quashed the impugned order leaving it open for the respondents to proceed against the petitioner in accordance with law. (Para 9, 10, 15 and 17)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Tarsem Singh Vs St. of Punj. & ors.; 2008 (2) SCC (L&S) 140

2. Jaswant Singh Vs St. of Punj. & ors.; 1991 (1) SCC 362

3. Chief Security Officer Vs Singasan Rabi Das, 1991 (1) SCC 729

4. Prithi Pal Singh Vs St. of Punj.; 2008 (2) SCC (L & S) 135

5. Moti Lal Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2008 (26) LCD 93

(Delivered by Hon'ble Abdul Moin, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the respondents no. 1 to 3.

2. Under challenge is the dismissal order dated 24.05.2019, a copy of which is annexure 1 to the writ petition.

3. The short argument as raised by learned counsel for the petitioner is that a perusal of the impugned dismissal order would indicate that it is alleged that the petitioner secured appointment in the department on the post of Constable by submitting a fake caste certificate consequently by following the provisions of Rule 8(2)(b) of U.P. Police Officers of Subordinate Ranks (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1991 (hereinafter referred to as the Rules, 1991) as it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry, hence, without holding an inquiry, the petitioner has been dismissed.

4. The argument of learned counsel or the petitioner is that though Rule 8(2)(b) of the Rules 1991 clearly empowers the authority empowered to dismiss or remove a person for some reasons to be recorded by the authority in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry, yet the reasons should emerge from the order impugned.

5. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that a perusal of the order impugned would indicate that the only reason that has been recorded by the competent authority for dismissing the petitioner from service without holding of an inquiry by exercising power as conferred under Rule 8(2)(b) of the Rules 1991 is that as the petitioner has secured appointment on the basis of fake caste certificate consequently it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry.

6. The aforesaid reasoning on the part of the competent authority is not understood in as much as no reasons emerge from the order impugned as to why simply because the petitioner has secured an appointment on the basis of a fake caste certificate as to why a regular departmental inquiry cannot be held. Once Rule 8(2)(b) of the Rules 1991 casts a duty upon the competent authority to record reasons as to why it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry as such some practical reasons should emerge from the order impugned but the reasons as have been recorded by the competent authority while dismissing the petitioner from service by not holding any inquiry do not inspire any confidence and also cannot be said to be such a reason whereby the competent authority was precluded from holding an inquiry.

7. Learned Standing Counsel has also not been able to indicate as to how the aforesaid reason as has been recorded by the competent authority appeals to reason and as to what precluded the competent authority from holding a regular departmental inquiry against the petitioner neither are the reasons contained in the counter affidavit.

8. Having heard learned counsels for the parties and having perused the record it emerges that the petitioner was working on the post of Constable and has been dismissed under provisions of Rule 8(2)(b) of the Rules, 1991 by recording that it is not reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry.

9. From perusal of the order impugned no reasons emerge as to why the competent authority has not found it reasonably practicable to hold an inquiry against the petitioner. A regular employee like the petitioner has been dismissed without holding regular inquiry and even the reasons as emerge from the perusal of the order impugned do not inspire confidence of there being some reason whereby it was not reasonable practicable to hold an inquiry. No reasons also emerge from a perusal of the counter affidavit as to why regular inquiry was not found practicable to be held against the petitioner.

10. This aspect of the matter has been considered by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tarsem Singh vs State of Punjab and others, 2008 (2) SCC (L&S) 140 wherein Hon'ble Apex Court has held that inquiry may be dispensed with only on the ground that it is reasonably not practicable and that subjective satisfaction of the authority while recording finding with regard to reasonable practicability of inquiry proceedings based on objective criteria is must. The reasons for denial of inquiry must be supported by document and other related material.

11. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jaswant Singh vs State of Punjab and others, 1991 (1) SCC 362 has held as under:

"5. The impugned order of April 7, 1981 itself contains the reasons for dispensing with the inquiry contemplated by Article 311 (2) of the Constitution. Paragraph 3 of the said order, which we have extracted earlier, gives two reasons in support of the satisfaction that it was not reasonably practicable to hold a departmental enquiry against the appellant. There are (i) the appellant has thrown threats that he with the help of other police employees will not allow holding of any departmental enquiry against him and (ii) he and his associates will not hesitate to cause physical injury to the witnesses as well as the enquiry officer. Now as stated earlier after the two revision applications were allowed on October 13, 1980, the appellant had rejoined service as Head Constable on March 5, 1981 but he was immediately placed under suspension. Thereafter, two show cause notices dated April 4, 1981 were issued against him calling upon him to reply thereto within 10 days after the receipt thereof. Before the service of these notices the incident of alleged attempt to commit suicide took place on the morning of April 6, 1981 at about 11.00 a.m. In that incident the appellant sustained an injury on his right arm with a knife. He was, therefore, hospitalised and while he was in hospital the two show cause notices were served on him at about 10.00 p.m., on April 6, 1981. Before the appellant could reply to the said show cause notices respondent 3 passed the impugned order on the very next date i.e. April 7, 1981. Now the earlier departmental enquiries were duly conducted against the appellant and there is no allegation that the department had found any difficulty in examining witnesses I n the said inquiries. After the revision applications were allowed the show cause notices were issued and 10 days time was given to the appellant to put in his replies thereto. We, therefore, enquired from the learned counsel for the respondents to point out what impelled respondent 3 to take a decision that it was necessary to forthwith terminate the services of the appellant without holding an inquiry as required by Article 311 (2). The learned counsel for the respondents could only point out clause (iv) (a) of sub-para 29 (A) of the counter which reads as under:

"The order dated April 7, 1981 was passed as the petitioner's activities were objectionable. He was instigating his fellow police officials to cause-indiscipline, show insubordination and exhibit disloyalty, spreading discontentment and hatred, etc. and his retention in service was adjudged harmful."

This is no more than a mere reproduction of para 3 of the impugned order. Our attention was not drawn to any material existing on the date of the impugned order in support of the allegation contained in paragraph 3 thereof that the appellant had thrown threats that he and his companions will not allow holding of any departmental enquiry against him and they would not hesitate to cause physical injury to the witnesses as well as the enquiry officer if any such attempt was made. It was incumbent on the respondents to disclose to the court the material in existence at the date of the passing of the impugned order in support of the subjective satisfaction recorded by respondent 3 in the impugned order. Clause (b) of the second proviso to Article 311 (2) can be invoked only when the authority is satisfied from the material placed before him that it is not reasonably practicable to hold a departmental enquiry. This is clear from the following observation at page 270 of Tulsiram case (SCC p. 504, para 130).

"A disciplinary authority is not expected to dispense with a disciplinary inquiry lightly or arbitrarily or out of ulterior motives or merely in order to avoid the holding of an inquiry or because the department's case against the government servant is weak and must fail."

The decision to dispense with the departmental enquiry cannot, therefore, be rested solely on the ipse dixit of the concerned authority. When the satisfaction of the concerned authority is questioned in a court of law, it is incumbent on those who support the order to show that the satisfaction is based on certain objective facts and is not the outcome of the whim or caprice of the concerned officer. In the counter filed by respondent 3 it is contended that the appellant, instead of replying to the show cause notices, instigated his fellow police officials to disobey the superiors. It is also said that he threw threats to beat up the witnesses and the Inquiry Officer if any departmental inquiry was held against him. No particulars are given. Besides it is difficult to understand how he could have given threats etc. when he was in hospital. It is not shown on what material respondent 3 came to the conclusion that the appellant had thrown threats as alleged in para 3 of the impugned order. On a close scrutiny of the impugned order it seems the satisfaction was based on the ground that he was instigating his colleagues and was holding meetings with other police officials with a view to spreading hatred and dissatisfaction towards his superiors. This allegation is based on his alleged activities at Jullundur on April 3, 1981 reported by SHO/GRP, Jullundur. That report is not forthcoming. It is no one's contention that the said SHO was threatened. Respondent 3's counter also does not reveal if he had verified the correctness of the information. To put it tersely the subjective satisfaction recorded in paragraph 3 of the impugned order is not fortified by any independent material to justify the dispensing with of the inquiry envisaged by Article 311 (2) of the Constitution. We are, therefore, of the opinion that on this short ground alone the impugned order cannot be sustained."

(emphasis by the Court)

12. Likewise Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Chief Security Officer vs Singasan Rabi Das, 1991 (1) SCC 729 while considering the aforesaid proposition of law and considering an identical rule with regard to employee of the Railway Protection Force has held that in the absence of sufficient material or good ground for dispensing with inquiry, the recourse of Article 311 (2) proviso (b) cannot be adopted by the authorities.

13. Likewise Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Prithi Pal Singh vs State of Punjab, 2008 (2) SCC (L & S) 135 has held that holding of departmental inquiry is the rule and the second proviso to Article 311(2) of the Constitution of India provides for exception and that it is trite law that existence of such exceptional situation must be shown to exist on the basis of relevant materials.

14. Likewise a division bench of this Court in the case of Moti Lal vs State of U.P. and others, 2008 (26) LCD 93 while considering the provision of Rule 8(2)(b) of the Rules, 1991 has held as under:

"12. It has been settled by the catena of decisions of judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court that denial of opportunity provided by the statute or non-compliance of statutory provisions falls in the category of exception. Ordinarily, the authority should adopt the recourse of departmental proceedings in accordance with Rules before awarding major penalty. The order for dismissal from service which takes away the right of livelihood of an employee should be passed only with due compliance of principles of natural justice and the service rules. The provisions contained in rule 8 (2) (b) of the rules, is an exception to the general rule which requires compliance of principles of natural justice. The recourse of Rule 8 (2) (b) of the Rules, should be adopted only in exceptional cases and justified grounds where the departmental inquiry against the delinquent is not possible or in case departmental inquiry his held, it shall affect the national integrity, security or alike matters."

(emphasis by the Court)

15. Keeping in view the aforesaid discussion, the writ petition is allowed. The order impugned dated 24.05.2019, a copy of which is annexure 1 to the petition, is quashed.

16. Consequences to follow.

17. However, it would be open for the respondents to proceed against the petitioner in accordance with law.

(2024) 5 ILRA 179
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NALIN KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 189 of 2022

Subhash Chandra Srivastava (In person) ...Appellant

Versus

State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Subhash Chandra Srivsastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A., Jai Prakash Prasad, Rakesh Yadav, Sanjay Kumar Mishra

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-323, 504, 352 & 427-The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Section 3(1)(r) 14-A (2) 15A (3), (5)- Criminal appeal with the prayer to cancel / quash the bail granted to the respondent-Section 15A (3), (5) of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act mandates that prior to the hearing of the bail application under the provisions of S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, notice must be sent to the informant of the case-prior to the hearing of the bail application, the initial step after the filing of the application for bail to be taken by the Court was to pass an effective order to issue notice to the informant / victim or his dependent. Only after due notice, an order on such bail application in either way should had been passed, but the learned Special Judge did not bother to comply with the mandatory provisions under the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act-Result-Impugned order allowing bail application of the respondent set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases referred-;

1. Jagjeet Singh & ors. Vs Ashish Mishra @ Monu, (2022) 9 SCC 321

2. Criminal Appeal No.293 of 2023 (Raees Hanif Sayyed Vs The St. of Mah. & anr. dated 10.4.2023

3. Criminal Appeal No.1278 of 2021 (Hariram Bhambhi Vs Satyanarayan & anr. decided on 29.10.2021

4. Sunita Gandharva Vs St. of M.P. & anr., 2020 SCC OnLine MP 2193

5. Criminal Petition No.200315 / 2020 C/W Criminal Petition No.200318 / 2020 (Marenna @ Mareppa Vs The St.)

6. (Sahebreddy @ Sabreddy Vs The St. of Karn.) dated 21.7.2020

7. n R/Special Civil Application No. 6369 of 2020 (Hemal Ashwin Jain (Sheth) Vs U.O.I.) dated 6.8.2020

(Delivered by Hon'ble Nalin Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard the appellant in person, learned A.G.A. for the State as well as learned counsel for the respondent no.2 and perused the material available on record.

2. This criminal appeal under Section 14-A (2) of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act has been preferred by the appellant - Subash Chandra Srivastava (In person) with the prayer to cancel / quash the bail granted to the respondent no.2 vide order dated 1.1.2020 passed by the Special Judge, S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, Padrauna, Kushinagar in Special Trial No.492 of 2019 (State Vs. Raju @ Sunil Kumar Srivastava) arising out of case crime no.436 of 2019 under sections 323, 504, 352, 427 IPC and 3 (1) (r) S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, Police Station Kotwali Padrauna, District Kushinagar.

3. The factual aspect of the matter, as revealed from the perusal of the F.I.R. of this case, is that 3 named accused persons along with 3 - 4 other unknown associates were present on the place of occurrence and co-accused Sunil @ Raju was making a puncture in the vehicle of the informant. When it was protested by the informant and his friend Ram Narain Mushar, they were threatened and abused by all the aforesaid accused persons and Ram Narain Mushar was also abused by his caste name on a public place in the public view. The incident occurred due to a land dispute between the parties whereupon the accused persons had already made an assault upon the house of the informant on 25.5.2019. The incident happened on 30.8.2019 at about 11:00 A.M. and the F.I.R. was lodged on the same day at 22:15 hours. Subsequently, after submission of the charge-sheet, cognizance was taken on 7.12.2019 and at this stage a bail application was moved by respondent no.2 Raju @ Sunil Kumar Srivastava and he was granted interim bail by the Special Judge, S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, Kushinagar till 1.1.2020 and an order was also passed to issue notice to the informant of this case. Thereafter, on 1.1.2020, the impugned bail order was passed whereby the accused / respondent no.2 was granted regular bail by the trial court.

4. Albeit several instances have been mentioned in the present appeal relating to misuse of bail on the part of respondent no.2, which was granted to him by the impugned order dated 1.1.2020 but at the time of argument the learned counsel for the appellant concised his argument on the sole issue that Section 15A (3), (5) of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act mandates that prior to the hearing of the bail application under the provisions of S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, notice must be sent to the informant of the case. In the present matter, no notice was served upon the informant and without notice, the bail application of the accused respondent no.2 was heard and allowed and the informant was provided no opportunity of hearing on bail application before the Special Judge, S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, Kushinagar at Padrauna. Since the mandatory provisions of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act have not been complied with by the learned Special Court, the bail granted to the accused respondent no.2 vide order dated 1.1.2020 is liable to be cancelled.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondent no.2 opposed the present appeal and it has been vehemently argued that due notice was given to the informant of this case prior to the disposal of the bail application no.2119 of 2019 by the Special Court under S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, Kushinagar at Padrauna. It is further argued that the factum of notice to the informant finds place in paragraph 5 of the impugned order dated 1.1.2020 itself which says that a notice has been issued to the informant, but neither the informant nor any counsel on his behalf was present before the Court which led the Court to hear the prosecution and the accused on bail application and bail was granted by the learned Special Court to the present respondent no.2 after hearing. It is further submitted that present is not a case of misuse of bail granted to the accused respondent no.2 by the learned Special Court and prayer has been made to dismiss the present appeal.

6. I have considered the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and gone through the entire record including the impugned order carefully.

7. Before dealing with the rival submissions of the learned counsel for the parties and the learned State Counsel, I deem it proper to have a glance over the relevant provisions embodied in Section 14A, Sub-sections (1) and (2) and Section 15A, Sub-sections (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, which are extracted below –

"14A. Appeals.--(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure,1973, an appeal shall lie, from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 378 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court granting or refusing bail."

"15A. Rights of victims and witnesses.--(1) It shall be the duty and responsibility of the State to make arrangements for the protection of victims, their dependents, and witnesses against any kind of intimidation or coercion or inducement or violence or threats of violence.

(2) A victim shall be treated with fairness, respect and dignity and with due regard to any special need that arises because of the victims age or gender or educational disadvantage or poverty. .

(3) A victim or his dependent shall have the right to reasonable, accurate, and timely notice of any Court proceeding including any bail proceeding and the Special Public Prosecutor or the State Government shall inform the victim about any proceedings under this Act.

(4) A victim or his dependent shall have the right to apply to the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court, as the case may be, to summon parties for production of any documents or material, witnesses or examine the persons present.

(5) A victim or his dependent shall be entitled to be heard at any proceeding under this Act in respect of bail, discharge, release, parole, conviction or sentence of an accused or any connected proceedings or arguments and file written submission on conviction, acquittal or sentencing."

8. It appears from the perusal of the record that a report was called for from the concerned Special Court as to whether any notice was given to the informant of this case prior to the disposal of the bail application or not. A report dated 14th May, 2024 sent by Sri Gagan Kumar Bharti, Addl. District & Session Judge / Special Judge, S.C./S.T. (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, Sant Kabir Nagar is available on record. The learned Special Judge has submitted his report quoting the report of the Session Clerk which reads like this –

"उक्त वाद में माननीय उच्च न्यायालय में आदेश दिनांक 01.05.2024 क्रिमिनल अपील नंo - 189 / 2022 के अनुपालन में अवगत करना है कि पत्रावली के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि जमानत प्रार्थना पत्र प्रस्तुत करने व जमानत आदेश के दौरान वादी सुभाष चंद्र श्रीवास्तव को न तो जमानत नोटिस प्रार्थना पत्र की सुनवाई हेतु नोटिस निर्गत करने का साक्ष्य उपलब्ध है और न ही सम्बंधित थाने से जमानत प्रार्थना पत्र के बावत कोई रिपोर्ट ही प्रस्तुत करने का अभिलेखीय साक्ष्य ही पत्रावली पर मौजूद नहीं है" (प्रति संलग्न)

9. The said report reveals this fact that no notice was sent to the informant of this case and it also reveals that no police report was available on record to show that any notice was served upon the informant. So far as the averment made in the impugned order dated 1.1.2020 is concerned, it has been mentioned in paragraph 5 of the said order that "वादी मुकदमा को पक्ष रखने हेतु नोटिस निर्गत की गयी है, परन्तु न तो वादी मुकदमा उपस्थित आया, न ही उसकी तरफ से अधिवक्ता ही न्यायलय उपस्थित आये".

10. It is explicitly clear from the perusal of the impugned order that although a notice was sent to the informant as per the impugned order, but it is nowhere mentioned in the said order that the said notice was ever served upon the informant. It is also not mentioned in the impugned order that the notice was returned back to the Court by the police at any stage prior to the disposal of the bail application of the accused after service. Contrary to that the report sent by Sri Gagan Kumar Bharti, Additional District & Session Judge / Special Judge, SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, Sant Kabir Nagar reveals that no such notice as required by law was ever sent to the informant. Hence, this Court is of the opinion that no notice was served upon the informant and, therefore, it is a case wherein without affording the opportunity of hearing on the bail application to the informant the said application was heard and bail was granted to the accused / respondent no.2.

11. At this stage, this Court takes notice of the fact that the appellant before this Court does not belong to S.C./S.T. community. Undoubtedly, he is the informant of this case, but the notice which is required to be given essentially is a notice sent to the victim or his dependent as mentioned in Sub-section (3) and (5) to Section 15A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act. It is noteworthy that nowhere the word 'informant' has been used in the aforesaid provision. Apart from this, the affidavit in the appeal in hand has also been filed by the informant / appellant Subash Chandra Srivastava, who is not a member of S.C./S.T. community admittedly.

12. Now two issues emerge out from the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case in hand. Firstly, whether apart from victim or dependent, the informant is the person who is also required to be served notice prior to the disposal of a bail application under the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act and secondly, in the present appeal, whether affidavit along with the memo of appeal could be filed by the informant himself who is not a member of S.C./S.T. community.

13. The F.I.R. discloses the fact that the appellant / informant is the eyewitness of the case and he was also abused and threatened along with his associate Ram Narain Mushar, who happened to be a member of S.C./S.T. community and the whole occurrence happened before him. The said Ram Narain Mushar belonged to the marginal section of the society and was a member of the S.C./S.T. community and he was abused and threatened by his caste name at a public place in the public view as well. The bail by the impugned order was granted to the respondent no.2 / accused by the Special Court, S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act. Hence, an appeal under Section 14-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act was maintainable. The conclusion which can easily be arrived at on basis of the aforesaid provisions is that if any final judgment and order or sentence is passed by a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, the appeal shall lie to the High Court both on facts and on law. In other words, it is promulgated in the aforesaid provisions that if the order appealed against is passed by a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court granting or refusing bail, the appeal shall lie to the High Court against such order. Since the impugned order in this matter was passed by the Special Court, S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, the appeal in all circumstances was maintainable before the High Court under Section 14-A of the said S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act. It is notable that nowhere it is mentioned under Sub-section (1) and (2) of Section 14-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act as to who may file the appeal. Since on the competency of the appellant to file the appeal the provisions are silent, a natural and logical inference may be inferred that this is the victim or his dependent who, in any circumstances, is competent to file an appeal against the order granting bail to the accused under the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act for the simple reason of his entitlement of a reasonable, accurate and timely notice to any Court proceeding including any bail proceeding. Undoubtedly, he is not the sole competent person to prefer the appeal but the informant may also file such appeal under Section 14-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act.

14. Since the appellant in this case, being the informant, is a person competent to file the present appeal, it is connotative that he may file the memo of appeal supported with his own affidavit. At the cost of the repeatation, it should be reminded that in the matter in hand the present appellant is not the mere informant but also an aggrieved person. Hence his competency to depose by way of affidavit cannot be questioned in the appeal in hand.

15. The aforesaid proposition of law finds its root in the law promulgated by the Hon'ble Apex Court. A three Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jagjeet Singh and others vs. Ashish Mishra Alias Monu, (2022) 9 SCC 321 got an occasion to deal with the subject as to whether notice to be sent to the informant prior to the disposal of the bail application under S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act is required or not, which can certainly be taken note of. The said decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court was quoted and followed by the Division Bench of High Court of Judicature at Bombay (Bench at Aurangabad) in Criminal Appeal No.293 of 2023 (Raees Hanif Sayyed Versus The State of Maharashtra and another) dated 10.4.2023 and their Lordships while referring to the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that –

"In fact in this case there was no question of offences under the Atrocities Act, yet, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has upheld the rights of the victim to be heard and to participate in the proceedings before the Courts. Note has been taken in respect of the provisions under the Atrocities Act which make the legal obligation to hear the victim and then it has been reiterated that the rights of the victim are totally independent, incomparable, and not accessory or auxiliary to those of the State under the Code of Criminal Procedure and therefore, the presence of 'State' in the proceedings, would not tantamount to according a hearing to a victim of the crime. Under such circumstance, when such wide rights are given to the informant / victim and those are acknowledged, it is mandatory on the part of the Special Judges to issue notice to the victims / informants, as the case may be in view of Section 15-A(3) of the Atrocities Act and then to proceed to hear them under Section 15-A(5) of the Atrocities Act."

16. This Court feels that in a matter like the present one to insist upon the phenomenon that notice to the informant was not required on the ground that nowhere the word 'informant' has been used in Sub-section (3) and (5) of Section 15-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act particularly in the peculiar circumstances of this case where the impugned order dated 1.1.2020 nowhere shows and not even a whisper may be found in the said order on the point that any notice was ever sent to the victim or his dependent and since in fact no notice was sent to the victim or his dependent, all the proceedings relating to the grant of bail to the accused / respondent no.2 were bad in law and vitiated as well. The Special Court even did not bother to ascertain whether any notice was actually sent to the informant / victim or his dependent of the case and if such notice was sent, whether it was served upon him or not is another loophole in the impugned order. It is found on its face that the impugned order does not speak even a single word whether the notice sent to the informant / victim or his dependent was served upon him or not while making hearing on the bail application. With a vigilant eye it may be seen in paragraph 5 of the impugned bail order that the learned Special Judge writes upon issuance of notice to the informant and also of the absence of the informant and his counsel but nowhere he mentions anything regarding the service of notice upon the informant and this omission denies the opportunity of hearing which is a valuable legal right of any victim / informant in the matter of hearing of bail application under the provisions of S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act, which is also associated with the constitutional belief of a fair trial.

17. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.1278 of 2021 (Hariram Bhambhi Versus Satyanarayan & Anr.) decided on 29.10.2021 made significant observations particularly in the context of Section 15-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act and it has been recognized that Sub-sections (3) and (5) of Section 15-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act specifically make the victim or his dependent an active stakeholder in the criminal proceedings. These provisions enable a member of the marginalized caste to effectively pursue a case and counteract the effects of defective investigation. It was also highlighted that the purpose of Section 15-A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act was to protect the rights of victims and witnesses whose rights as equal beneficiaries of the criminal justice system are often overlooked due to their weak social position. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the aforesaid judgment and order referred to a decision of the Madhya Pradesh High Court in Sunita Gandharva Versus State of MP & Anr., 2020 SCC OnLine MP 2193 and while highlighting the purpose of the amendment inserting Section 15A observed that :

"21. With the years of experience, it was found that due to some vagueness in the definitions and some procedural inertia, the purpose of Act lacked fulfilment, therefore, to make it more victim oriented, the Amendment Act was introduced.

22. With the legislative intent reiterated in the letter, no iota of doubt exists that intention of the Amendment Act was for Speedy Trial and Protection of Victims' Rights. By way of Section 2 (ec) Victim has been defined and beside Section 14-A, Section 15-A, "Rights of victim and witnesses" was introduced to take care of them for the first time. Definition of Victim includes-relatives, legal guardian and legal heirs and this definition is much wider than the definition of Victim provided in Section 2 (wa) of Cr.P.C. which includes guardian or legal heir, not the relatives. Similarly, Section 15A of Atrocities Act provides an extensive mechanism for protection of Victims/Witnesses. Even the victim has been given a chance to appear before the Court at the time of hearing of bail application. Right of the Court to cancel or revoke the bail is one of the measures by which protection of Victims/Witnesses can be ensured…"

18. The same dictum of law echoes in various decisions given by different High Courts such as High Court of Judicature at Bombay (Bench at Aurangabad) in Criminal Appeal No.293 of 2023 (Raees Hanif Sayyed Versus The State of Maharashtra and another) dated 10.4.2023, High Court of Karnataka (Kalaburagi Bench) in Criminal Petition No.200315 / 2020 C/W Criminal Petition No.200318 / 2020 (Marenna @ Mareppa Versus The State) and (Sahebreddy @ Sabreddy Versus The State of Karnataka) dated 21.7.2020 and High Court of Gujarat at Ahmedabad in R/Special Civil Application No. 6369 of 2020 (Hemal Ashwin Jain (Sheth) Versus Union of Indian) dated 6.8.2020 wherein the right of the informant to be heard prior to the hearing of the bail application moved under the provisions of S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act and a proper service of notice to him has been expounded and a cumulative reading of the aforesaid decisions draws a definite conclusion that the first informant / complainant / victim or dependent shall be made as a party in the Court proceedings and it is the duty of the Court to issue necessary notice to the first informant or complainant or victim / his dependent to hear them in any proceedings as envisaged under Sub-section (5) of the Section 15A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act.

19. It is also important to note here that the plea that since the accused has made out a case for bail in his favour, to issue notice to the informant / victim or his dependent of the case was not necessary at all, may be termed as a bogus plea which is a complete denial of the legal principle of opportunity of hearing. Suffice it to say that prior to the hearing of the bail application, the initial step after the filing of the application for bail in the matter in hand to be taken by the Court was to pass an effective order to issue notice to the informant / victim or his dependent. Only after due notice, an order on such bail application in either way should had been passed, but as a matter of regret, in the case in hand, the learned Special Judge did not bother to comply with the mandatory provisions under the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act as mentioned and discussed here-in-above.

20. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and the case laws cited above, the Court is of the opinion that the court concerned erred in granting bail to the accused respondent no.2 without complying with the mandatory provisions of Section 15A of the S.C./S.T. (P.A.) Act. The impugned order was passed by the court concerned without issuing notice to the informant / victim or his dependent and without affording a reasonable and sufficient opportunity of hearing to him which is patently illegal and suffers from infirmity and illegality and the same is liable to be set-aside and the appeal is liable to be allowed.

21. Accordingly, the appeal is allowed and the impugned order dated 1.1.2020 allowing the bail application of the accused respondent no.2 is hereby set-aside.

(2024) 5 ILRA 185
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTHA VARMA, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 1620 of 1982

Rajesh & Ors. ...Appellants

Versus

State ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
D.N.Wali, Bhavya Sahai, D.Singhal, N.N. Wali, Neeraj Tomar, Om Singh Tomar, P.S.Pundir, Patanjali Mishra (A.C), R.N.Sharma, Sunil Vashistha

Counsel for the Respondent:
N.K.Verma, Brijesh Sahai, Dga, Keshav Sahai, Rishi Chadha

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-302r/w 34 & 34 - Indian Evidence Act, 1872-Section 27 -Criminal appeal against judgment and order of conviction of life imprisonment- Motive as was given for the commission of the murder of was not a strong one-Recovery as was made under Section 27 of the Evidence Act was not as per the law-Evidence of the witnesses who had last seen the accused was not reliable- First information report was earlier lodged under Section 364 IPC had been converted into a first information report under Section 302 /201 IPC at 7:00PM could, in fact, not have been converted at 7:00PM as the Investigating Officer himself had St.d that he had given directions to Constable at 8:05PM to get the first information report registered under Section 302 IPC.

When under torch light the dead body could have been discovered, there was no reason to adjourn/postpone the preparation of the panchayatnama to the next day- Panchayatnama becomes a doubtful document when it shows that the proceedings had commenced on 9.1.1980 at 9:30PM but it did not show any time when the panchayatnama was finally prepared-Result-Order of conviction set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Shahaja@ Shahajan Ismail Mohd. Shaikh Vs St. of Maharashtra 2022 SCC Online SC 883.

2. St. of Uttar Pradesh Vs Deoman Upadhyaya AIR 1960 SC 1125

3. Phulukuri Kottaya Vs Emperor, AIR 1947 PC 67

4. AIR 2022 SC 5273 : Ramanand @ Nandlal Bharti Vs St. of Uttar Pradesh

5. AIR 2022 SC 5110 : Subramanya Vs St. of Karnataka

6. Brij Bhushan Singh Vs Emperor AIR 1946 PC 38

7. AIR 1984 SC 1622 : Sharad Birdichand Sarda Vs St. of Maharashtra

8. 2010 (9) SCC 567 : C. Muniappan & ors.Vs St. of Tamil Nadu

9. Rishi Kesh Singh & Ors. Vs The St. AIR 1970 Allahabad 51 (FB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Siddhartha Varma, J.
&
Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. When the deceased Ajay Kumar who was a student of B.A. in the D.A.V. College had gone missing then an application for missing/first information report was lodged on 8.1.1980 with allegations that the first informant had given Rajesh Kumar, a friend of his nephew Ajay Kumar, Rs. 700/- for getting diesel which was in short supply then, on 6.1.1980 at around 5:00PM and when till 7.1.980 till around 11:00AM, Rajesh Kumar did not come with the diesel then he sent his nephew Ajay Kumar to him who thereafter went missing. It had further been stated in the application/first information report that despite extensive search Ajay Kumar had not been found. He states that even Rajesh Kumar also was not to be found. The first informant/applicant, therefore, prayed that Ajay Kumar, his nephew, be searched out.

2. This application/F.I.R., with regard to Ajay Kumar going missing, was entered in the Police Report at GD-25. The chick as was prepared of the first information report lodged was exhibited as Exhibit – Ka-8 and was written by the Head Moharrir Jagdish Sharan for offences under Section 364 IPC. On. 8.1.1980 investigation of the case was entrusted to the P.W.- 10 Rajendra Pal Jain, Sub-Inspector and he commenced the search for Ajay Kumar. Thereafter, the investigation was handed over to P.W. -13 K.C. Tyagi, who in the course of investigation reached Sarwat Gate and from an informer he got information that the accused Rajesh Kumar had gone a little earlier towards Minakshi Talkies and from there he could be arrested. On the basis of this information along with police personnel on 9.1.1980 in a patrol car P.W.- 13 reached the cross-road of Minakshi Talkies where he came across witnesses Kharag Singh, Rishipal, Yusuf and Rajeshwar and took them alongwith him.

3. From the record, it appears that Rajesh was seen approaching the Investigating Officer from the side of the Minakshi Talkies. The appellant-accused Rajesh Kumar was thereafter arrested at around 6:00pm. Upon an interrogation the accused Rajesh told that he could lead the police party to the clothes, with which the dead body of the deceased Ajay Kumar, was wrapped. He also stated that he would get recovered the baniyan and other clothes which could be found in the room of the house of one Sukhveer situate in Mohalla Keshavpuri wherein in room no. 14 one Ombir (another accused) lived. Upon getting this information, P.W. -13 K.C. Tyagi reached the Room No. 14 where, it had been stated by Rajesh that, the dead body was to be found. He had stated that in the Room No. 14 of the premises owned by P.W. -12, Sukhveer Singh, the dead body was to be found wrapped in a bedding below the cot.

4. When the police party along with the accused Rajesh reached the room in question, the key of the lock was not there with Rajesh and, therefore, P.W. - 13, the Investigating Officer K.C. Tyagi, pushed the door and the door opened. It has been stated in the statement of the P.W. - 13 that the time at which the door was opened was around 7.45PM. Thereupon, Rajesh entered the room and in the light of various torches the bedding was taken out in which the dead body of Ajay Kumar was allegedly wrapped. The bedding was opened in the presence of witnesses and the corpse of the deceased Ajay was recovered and it was identified by the witnesses. A slip of plastic was found on the neck of the deceased and a baniyan was also found stuffed inside his mouth. There and then, it has been alleged that the recovery memo was prepared as Exhibit – Ka-2 by P.W. - 13 in the presence of witnesses who had accompanied him to the spot. Thereafter, recovery memo of the said dead body was sent by the P.W. 13, K.C. Tyagi, along with constables – Satyapal and Baburam – for adding Section 302 and 201 IPC in the first information report which was already lodged on 8.1.1980.

5. Further case of the prosecution is that thereafter when there was shortage of light in the evening of 9.1.1980, the inquest was not done there and then in the night but was adjourned for the next day i.e. for 10.1.1980 and the same was got prepared on the next day. Thereafter, the corpse was sent in a sealed bundle for post mortem in the mortuary at Muzzaffar Nagar. When the dead body was recovered, the recovery memo was prepared and was exhibited as Exhibit Ka-3. With regard to the articles, which were found in the room, recovery memos were prepared.

6. On 10.1.1980 at about 2:00PM, the other accused/appellant Rajguru was arrested and on 14.1.1980 the accused-appellant Omvir surrendered. Upon the investigation being completed, charge sheet was submitted by the Investigating Officer, P.W. - 13, K.C. Tyagi against the accused – Rajesh and Rajguru and a charge sheet was also submitted by Hariraj Singh against the accused Ombir.

7. After considering the material on record, the accused were charged by the court of IVth Additional Sessions Judge under Sections 302 read with Section 34 IPC and under Section 201 IPC. When the appellants/accused denied the charges and prayed for trial, the case was put to trial.

8. From the side of the prosecution as many as 13 witnesses were brought to the witness box. They gave their statements-in-chief and they were also cross-examined. The accused thereafter got their statements recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and when thereafter the IIIrd Additional District & Sessions Judge, Muzaffarnagar on 30.6.1982 found the accused Rajesh, Rajguru and Ombir guilty under Section 302/34 IPC and under Section 201 IPC then they were punished for life imprisonment under Section 302/34 IPC and were also sentenced to undergo 7 years of rigorous imprisonment under Section 201 IPC (both the sentences were directed to run concurrently).

9. Aggrieved by the judgement and order of the Sessions Court dated 30.6.1980, the present Criminal Appeal has been filed.

10. On 3.3.2017, the appellant Rajguru was declared juvenile. The order dated 3.3.2017 was brought on record by the counsel for the appellant no. 2 by means of affidavit of compliance dated 10.4.2017.

11. During the trial the P.W.- 1 Raghunath Singh who is the first informant, in the statement-in-chief, had stated that the deceased Ajay Kumar was his nephew and that the incident was of 6.1.1980. On that date, his brother Raghu Prakash along with Ajay (deceased) and another nephew were sitting at their house. He states that Rajesh who was known to Ajay had always been coming to their house. Ajay Kumar and his father and the first informant were all living in the same house. He has stated that at the relevant point of time there was scarcity of diesel and they were all sitting together in the house of the first informant on 5/6th January when Rajesh approached them and said that he had certain coupons of diesel and that he could fetch diesel for them. For this purpose, the first informant gave Rs. 700/- to Rajesh and requested him to get him as much diesel as he could get for him. Therefore, Rajesh had promised that he would get diesel on the next date i.e. on 7.1.1980. Rajesh took the money and when he did not come on the 7th i.e. on the next date then the first informant P.W.-1 waited till 11:00am and when he did not come he sent his nephew (deceased) Ajay to search out Rajesh. After having sent Ajay kumar, the family had waited for Ajay Kumar to come back with Rajesh but when he did not return then on the 8th of January 1980 a missing report was got lodged in the Kotwali. In his cross-examination, he has stated that he had come to know about the fact that Ajay Kumar had died on 10.1.1980 at around 12:00Noon and this information was given to him by Sunil the real brother of the deceased- Ajay Kumar. He has stated that he was not aware as to when the accused were arrested after he had submitted his report. He has also stated that the witness Rishi Pal (P.W.-3) was related to the accused as his sister was married to Ram Kumar, the real brother of Ajay Kumar. He has denied that the witnesses P.W. 9 Salauddin Yusuf, P.W. 8 Rameshwar Dayal and Kaliram were known to him.

12. P.W. - 2, Kharak Singh, who was the witness of the recovery of the dead body, had stated that the deceased Ajay Kumar was known to him and he repeated the story as to how the witness was contacted by P.W. - 13 and how they had gone to the room where the dead body was found. He has also stated the manner in which Rajesh was arrested. He has categorically stated that after Rajesh was arrested, he had informed the Police Officials that he knew where the dead body of Ajay Kumar was and he also could get recovered the Baniyan by which the strangulation had been done. He also states how exactly Rajesh had led them to the place from where the recovery was done. He has, thereafter, stated that the recovery memo was prepared by P.W. - 13 which was marked as Exhibit ka-2. He has stated in his cross-examination that he had seen the dead body of the deceased Ajay Kumar twice after recovery and that he had fainted thereafter. He has also stated that the dead-body was recovered at around 9:00PM on 9.1.1980. He has further stated that he never informed to anyone in the family of the deceased Ajay Kumar. Upon a specific question being asked as to how the door of the room was opened, he specifically answered that the door was pushed and despite the fact that there was a lock in the door, it opened.

13. P.W. - 3, Rishi Pal is again the witness in whose presence the dead body was recovered. He has also stated that he knew Ajay Kumar from before and he also stated the same story as to how they were contacted by the Police and as to how Rajesh was arrested.

14. P.W. - 4, Anil Kumar, is the witness who professes that he had last seen the deceased along with the accused Rajesh. He has stated that on 7.1.1980 at around 11:00 to 11:30am, he along with Munish was at the Sarpat gate and from the Chandra Talkies a Rikshaw carrying Ajay (deceased) and Rajesh also with a drum containing oil was seen. When Ram Kumar, the real elder brother of the deceased saw them, he had shouted and asked Ajay Kumar as to where he was going. Ajay had answered that he was going to take the diesel along with Rajesh. The deceased and Rajesh were followed by P.W. - 4, Anil Kumar, Ram Kumar and Munish on another Rikshaw. Thereafter Rajesh had got the Rikshaw stopped at the shop of Madhu Panwale and, Rajesh and the witness P.W. - 4 reached the petrol pump and they had stopped in the neighbouring tea shop and, thereafter, the P.W. - 4 left Ajay Kumar alongwith Rajesh and went away. On that very day, somebody from the house of the Ram Kumar had come to the house of P.W. -4 and had informed that Ajay had not returned to the house and therefore on the next day i.e. on 8.1.1980 a search was made but Ajay Kumar was not to be found. They had also gone to the house of Rajesh but he was also not traceable. He has stated that after 7.1.1980 when he had seen Ajay Kumar with Rajesh he had never seen Ajay Kumar thereafter.

15. P.W. - 5, Munish is also a witness who had stated that he had last seen Ajay Kumar with Rajesh on 7.1.1980 and he repeated the story as was narrated by P.W. - 4.

16. P.W. - 6, Hariram, is the constable who had taken the dead body on 10.1.1980 for postmortem.

17. P.W. - 7 is the Doctor who had conducted the post mortem and had stated that the hyoid bone was fractured and had given his opinion that the death had taken place because of strangulation and throttling. However, he has not stated that there was any strangulation sign over the dead body.

18. P.W. - 8, Rameshwar Dayal, is again the witness who stated that he had seen the deceased Ajay Kumar along with Rajesh Kumar, Omveer and Rajguru. He had stated that on 7.1.1980 at around 7:15PM he was in his room opposite to the building where Omveer was staying. Along with him, Salauddin and Kaluram were also there with him and that in his room an electricity bulb was lit. At around 8:00pm in the night Omveer, Rajesh and Rajguru, the accused persons, who were present in the court came along with the deceased – Ajay Kumar. The latter greeted him by saying – Namaste. When Rameshwar Dayal P.W. - 8 questioned as to how Ajay Kumar was, he had replied that he was alright and had said that he had gone with Rajesh for fetching diesel. Then thereafter the four i.e. the three accused and Ajay Kumar as per the P.W. - 8 went inside the Room No. 24 and it has been stated that P.W.-8 Rameshwar Dayal continued to sit where he was sitting and at around 8:30PM, he saw that the accused persons came out of the room but Ajay Kumar did not come out. Again upon asking the accused where Ajay Kumar was they had answered that he had gone out with the coupons to get the diesel. He had, thereafter, stated that the accused had, thereafter, left the place. They had before leaving the place locked the room and had not returned the whole night.

19. P.W. - 9, Salauddin, is again the witness who was sitting with P.W. - 8, Rameshwar Dayal. He has also stated somewhat, what had been stated by the P.W. - 8, Rameshwar Dayal. He has stated that he had come to know the names of Rajesh, Rajguru and Omvir a few days ago when they had come to play cards in the room of Omvir.

20. P.W. - 10 is one Rajendra Pal Jain, the Sub-Inspector. He is one who had initiated the case under Section 364 IPC.

21. P.W. - 11 is again the constable, Sita Ram, who alongwith P.W. - 6 Kaliram had taken the dead body for postmortem.

22. P.W. - 12 is the land-lord Sukhvir Singh and who had categorically stated that he was a landlord of the property no. 409 and that there were 14 rooms in the building which he owned and that since the year 1979-80 in Room No. 14 Omvir and Rajpal were tenants. He recognized the accused Omvir who was present in the Court. In Room No. 10, he states, Devendra Kumar Tyagi and Rameshwar Dayal were staying as tenants. Then he states that Rameshwar was not, in fact, his tenant but he quite often used to come to meet his friend Devendra.

23. PW-13 is the Investigating Officer and has given his statement-in-chief indicating as to how on 09.01.1980 on the information of an informer, he had arrested the accused at around 06:00 pm in the presence of the witnesses Kharak Singh (PW-2), Rishipal (PW-3), Yusuf and Rajeshwar and has thereafter once again stated that how Rajesh upon arrest had stated that he would lead to the place where the dead-body of Ajay was to be found and also he would get discovered the baniyan and clothes in which the dead-body was wrapped. He has stated that Rajesh had told him that room no. 24 was a room which was rented by the co-accused Omvir. He, thereafter, states that the room had a lock and Rajesh had informed that the key was with Omvir. He stated that upon pushing the door, the door had opened. He states that this was done i.e. opening of the door at 07:45 pm. Thereafter, the accused Rajesh had entered the room and in the light of various torches he had pulled out a holdall in which the dead-body was wrapped. In the presence of the witnesses present, the holdall was opened and it revealed the dead-body of Ajay, which was wrapped and also had a ligature mark around the neck. Also the mouth was stuffed with a baniyan. He prepared the recovery memo as Exhibit Ka-2 in his own handwriting and thereafter, he had sent Rajesh alongwith the Constables, Babu Ram and Satyapal alongwith the recovery memo to get the F.I.R. changed from Section 364 of the I.P.C. to 302 of I.P.C. The entry thereafter in the Police Station was made at around 08:05 PM on 9.1.1980 by Rajeshwar Dayal, Constable. He also stated that exhibit Ka-21 was the charge sheet submitted by the police vis-a-vis Rajesh and Rajguru and the exhibit ka-22 was the charge sheet against the accused Omvir. Thereafter, the Police had reached the spot for preparing the inquest report. Since there was no light in the room, the Panchayatnama was not prepared in the night and that it was prepared in the presence of witnesses at 07:30 am on 10.01.1980 i.e. on the next day. Upon a specific question being asked in his cross-examination, as to whether the lock was broken, he had replied that it was not broken and only upon pushing the door, the same had opened.

24. The statements of the accused recorded under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. were mostly to the effect that they had denied all the allegations made against them and they had denied that they had committed the crime. However, one important question vis-a-vis Rajesh i.e. question no. 29 is important which is with regard to Exhibit -24 through which the accused Rajesh on 08.01.1980 had got a report lodged stating that while he was returning from school a boy with the name of Munish had accosted him and had taken him to a nearby barber shop where Raj Kumar along with other boys, whose names he did not know, had given him a good beating. They had also threatened him with dire consequences. He has stated very categorically that he was taken away in between 11:00 AM to 12:00 Noon on the 8th of January, 1980.

25. Sri Brijesh Sahai, learned counsel has appeared alongwith Sri Rahul Sharma for the appellant no. 1 and Sri Sunil Vashishth, learned counsel appeared for the appellants no. 2 and 3 have specifically argued that the entire case was of a circumstantial evidence and that the accused who were apprehended and tried and, thereafter, convicted should be acquitted as the judgement under challenge had not app reciated the evidence correctly. He basically argued on following issues:-

(i) Sri Brijesh Sahai learned Senior Counsel submitted that the first issue on which he intended to argue was that, in fact, there was no motive with the accused. He has argued that the motive was an extremely weak one. He submits that the first informant had come up with a case that on 06.01.1980 he had given Rajesh Rs. 700/- to bring diesel coupons for him which would fetch the first informant diesel. He thereafter states that when Rajesh did not come he had sent Ajay on 07.01.1980 and thereafter Ajay had disappeared and, therefore, on 08.01.1980 at around 05:00 PM in the evening he had got a report lodged with regard to the fact that Ajay was missing. Learned counsel for the appellants states that motive is an important aspect on the basis of which a person who had been made an accused on the basis of circumstantial evidence could be convicted. He submitted that it was important to see if the motive was a strong one or was not such a motive which could be relied upon to convict a person. He submits that when the motive itself was an absolutely weak one, the case could not have proceeded on the basis of it and he therefore submits that the prosecution under circumstantial evidence ought not to have proceeded.

(ii) Next argument which the learned counsel for the appellants thereafter has made is that the evidence of the witnesses who had last seen the accused was a weak one. They should have seen the deceased at such a time which would have made the statements of the witness reliable. That is to say that they should have seen the deceased Ajay at such a time by which it could have been said that it was in proximity to the time of the offence. PW-4 and PW-5 had seen the deceased Ajay on 07.01.1980 at around 11:00 AM in the morning and thereafter in the evening of 7.1.1980 at around 04:00 PM. Learned counsel for the appellants states that the statements of Anil Kumar and Munish were somehow self contradictory. At one place they have stated that they actually saw the deceased going with the appellant Rajesh for fetching diesel and thereafter they state something which was absolutely unconnected. They said that the four of them had entered the room no. 14 at around 07:30PM. Their statements are in direct contradiction with the statement of PW-8, Rameshwar Dayal who had stated that Rajesh, Raj Guru and Omvir had entered the room of Omvir at around 08:00 PM in the night and he also states that Ajay had greeted him and had also stated that Rajesh would give him the coupons on a future date for the diesel which was required to be given to his uncle. Learned counsel therefore states that at one place the witnesses who had last seen the deceased state that they had actually seen the deceased taking the diesel whereas the PW-8 Rameshwar Dayal states that the deceased was mentioning that he would actually get the diesel subsequently.

(iii) Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter argued stated that the appellant - Rajesh since had got the dead-body recovered after he was arrested and that recovery was done under Section 27 of the Evidence Act, the conviction or the acquittal of the appellant Rajesh would to quite an extent depend on the fact as to whether the recovery was a proper one under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. Learned counsel for the appellants states that under Section 27 of the Evidence Act, the discovery ought to be made from the spot which:-

(i) is not accessible to the public at large,

(ii) the spot should be a special spot which was specially within the exclusive knowledge of the arrested person who was getting the recovery done.

(iii) There ought to be a disclosure statement which in addition to the fact that the recovery was going to be made had also to state that the arrested person was the author of the concealment.

Learned counsel relied upon paragraphs no. 42, 43, 44 and 45 of the judgement in Shahaja@ Shahajan Ismail Mohd. Shaikh vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 883. Since learned counsel relied upon those paragraphs, they are being reproduced here as under:

"42. The conditions necessary for the applicability of Section 27 of the Act are broadly as under:

(1) Discovery of fact in consequence of an information received from accused;

(2) Discovery of such fact to be deposed to;

(3) The accused must be in police custody when he gave informations and

(4) So much of information as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered is admissible - Mohmed Inayatullah v. The State of Maharashtra : (1976) 1 SCC 828 : AIR 1976 SC 483 : 1975 CLJ 668

Two conditions for application –

(1) information must be such as has caused discovery of the fact; and

(2) information must relate distinctly to the fact discovered - Kirshnappa v. State of Karnataka : (1983) 2 SCC 330 : AIR 1983 SC 446 : 1983 Cri LJ 846

43. We may refer to and rely upon a Constitution Bench decision of this Court in the case of State of Uttar Pradesh v. Deoman Upadhyaya reported in AIR 1960 SC 1125, wherein, the Supreme Court in Paragraph-71 has explained the position of law as regards Section 27 of the Act as under:

"71. The law has thus made a classification of accused persons into two : (1) those two have the danger brought home to them by detention on a charge; and (2) those who are yet free. In the former category are also those persons who surrender to the custody by words or action. The protection given to these two classes is different. In the case of persons belonging to the first category the law has ruled that their statements are not admissible, and in the case of the second category, only that portion, of the statement is admissible as is guaranteed by the discovery of a relevant fact unknown before the statement to the investigating authority. That statement may even be confessional in nature, as when the person in custody says:"I pushed him down such and such mineshaft", and the body of the victim is found as result, and it can be proved that his death was due to injuries received by a fall down the mineshaft."

44. The scope and ambit of Section 27 of the Act were illuminatingly stated in Phulukuri Kottaya v. Emperor, AIR 1947 PC 67, which have become locus classicus, in the following words:

"It is fallacious to treat the 'fact discovered' within the section as equivalent to the object produced; the fact discovered embraces the place from which the object is produced and the knowledge of the accused as to this, and the information given must relate distinctly to this fact. Information supplied by a person in custody that 'I will produce a knife concealed in the roof of my house' does not lead to the discovery of a knife; knives were discovered many years ago. It leads to the discovery of the fact that a knife is concealed in the house of the informant to his knowledge, and if the knife is proved to have been used in the commission of the offence, the fact discovered is very relevant. But if to the statement the words be added 'with which I stabbed 'A" these words are inadmissible since they do not relate to the discovery of the knife in the house of the informant."

45. What emerges from the evidence of the PW-4 & PW-10 respectively is that the appellant stated before the panch witnesses to the effect that "I will show you the weapon concealed adjacent the shoe shop at Parle". This statement does not suggest that the appellant indicated anything about his involvement in the concealment of the weapon. Mere discovery cannot be interpreted as sufficient to infer authorship of concealment by the person who discovered the weapon. He could have derived knowledge of the existence of that weapon at the place through some other source also. He might have even seen somebody concealing the weapon, and, therefore, it cannot be presumed or inferred that because a person discovered the weapon, he was the person who had concealed it, least it can be presumed that he used it. Therefore, even if discovery by the appellant is accepted, what emerges from the substantive evidence as regards the discovery of weapon is that the appellant disclosed that he would show the weapon used in the commission of offence."

Also learned counsel relied upon the judgements reported in AIR 2022 SC 5273 : Ramanand @ Nandlal Bharti vs. State of Uttar Pradesh and in AIR 2022 SC 5110 : Subramanya vs. State of Karnataka, and submitted that the accused while in custody ought to have given his statement before two independent witnesses, and the exact statement or rather the exact words uttered by the accused should be incorporated in the panchnama prepared by the Investigating Officer. Learned counsel submitted that the first part of the deposition for the purpose of Section 27 of the Evidence Act ought to have been drawn in police custody in the presence of two independent witnesses. The judgements cited above held as follows:

"This is how the law expects the investigating officer to draw the discovery panchnama as contemplated under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. If we read the entire oral evidence of the investigating officer then it is clear that the same is deficient in all the aforesaid relevant aspects of the matter."

(iv) Learned counsel for the appellants then submitted that the evidence of the Investigating Officer had to be of a very good quality and if there was any doubt with regard to the evidence as was produced by the Investigating Officer then the whole case would become doubtful and the conviction could not be done.

26. In this regard, learned counsel for the appellants has very categorically stated that after the arrest had taken place on 09.01.1980 at around 06:00 PM of the appellant Rajesh and thereafter when Rajesh had proceeded for getting the dead-body recovered, learned counsel for the appellant states that he never confessed with regard to the actual authorship of the concealment. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter submitted that in the absence of the confession and in the absence of the fact that he had stated that he was the author of the concealment, the recovery as was made under Section 27 of the Evidence Act could not be considered a recovery under Section 27 of the Evidence Act and would therefore be only a confession which would come in the category of Section 25 of the Evidence Act and could not be relied upon.

27. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter submitted that after the arrest had taken place at 06:00 PM, the document Exhibit Ka-2 was prepared at 07:00 PM and this document clearly is to the effect that the dead-body had been discovered and that the case had already been got registered under Section 364/ 302/ 201 of I.P.C. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter drew the attention of the Court to the statement of PW-13 wherein he states that he had actually sent the accused Rajesh with the Constable, Babu Ram and Satyapal at 08:05 PM with a direction that the F.I.R. now be also got registered under Section 302 of I.P.C. Learned counsel for the appellant therefore states that when this direction was being given at around 08:05 pm on 09.01.1980 then the Exhibit Ka-2 which was of 09.01.1980 and was prepared at 07:00 PM definitely goes to show that the recovery was a sham recovery and that the Exhibit Ka-2 and the F.I.R. thereafter which was registered as Exhibit Ka-22 were all prepared sitting in the Thana and, therefore, no reliance could be placed on the evidence as had been brought forth by the PW-13.

28. Learned counsel for the appellants further states that if the statement made by the PW-13 is perused then it becomes clear that after the arrest had taken place at 06:00 PM and the Police party had started searching for the room in which the dead-body was to be found then there was a clear averment that everything had been done in the light of various torches. However, he submits that when it came to the preparation of the actual inquest report, the Police Officer had mentioned that there was no light present and, therefore, he was adjourning/postponing the preparation of the Panchayatnama for the next day. Learned counsel for the appellants therefore submits that this definitely goes to show that in fact the recovery memo etc. was not recorded on that day and the same was actually prepared subsequently when the Police had got the whole night of 09.01.1980 and 10.01.1980 to do the mischief. Before the Panchayatnama was prepared all the documents with regard to the recovery etc. were manufactured and while doing so they had missed out the timing given in the panchayatnama and therefore the evidence of the PW-3, the Investigating Officer which ought to have been of a high quality was definitely not of such a quality which could lead the Court to convict a person.

29. Learned counsel for the appellants further drew the attention to the Panchayatnama and from it he had shown that the Panchayatnama proceedings had commenced on 09.01.1980 at 09:30 PM and when it came to an end it was not shown in the Panchayatnama. He, therefore, submits that the preparation of the Panchayatnama was also not done on the spot but was done elsewhere. Learned counsel for the appellants having shown that the evidence of the PW-13 the Investigating Officer was of a weak kind thereafter went on to argue that the deceased Ajay was a young boy studying in the B.A. Class and was of around 21 years of age and that he submits that if he was being throttled by three young men then he would have definitely resented the acts of the three young men and there would have been at least some noticeable injuries on his own body. But, in fact, no injury has been found. Learned counsel for the appellants therefore submits that in fact the murder had taken place in some other way and the dead-body was planted in the room from where discovery had been shown and that in fact the appellants had thereafter been implicated only on the basis of suspicion.

30. Learned counsel for the appellants thereafter to substantiate his arguments that the investigation had proceeded only on the basis of suspicion, has drawn the attention of the Court to the Exhibit Ka-24 which was an N.C.R. which had been got lodged by the appellant Rajesh on 08.01.1980 against one prosecution witness Munish PW-5 and against Ram Kumar the real brother of the deceased Ajay. He submits that thereafter the Police had only a feeling/suspicion that it was just possible that Rajesh might have committed the crime. He submits that suspicion cannot take the place of proof and therefore the conviction on the basis of suspicion was absolutely erroneous. Learned counsel relied upon the case of Brij Bhushan Singh vs. Emperor reported in AIR 1946 PC 38 to bolster this argument.

31. Learned counsel for the appellants further has stated that to say that the accused was not in his proper senses at the time when he was taken by the three accused persons as per the case of the prosecution was also wrong. He submits that PW-8 when had seen the accused persons going with Ajay, PW-8 had stopped him and had specifically asked various questions which he had definitely answered in his full consciousness.

32. Learned counsel for the appellants also to make the recovery etc. doubtful submits that the PW-2 has stated that when he had seen the dead-body, he had actually fainted and thereafter had become conscious only at 09:00 PM in the night of 09.01.1980. He therefore submits that if that was the case then the signature which was there of PW-2 on the recovery memo becomes doubtful and, therefore, he submits that the entire case of the prosecution which is based on the investigation as was done by the Investigating Officer was absolutely doubtful in nature and therefore could not be considered by the Court for convicting the three accused.

33. Learned counsel for the appellants has relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court reported in AIR 1984 SC 1622 : Sharad Birdichand Sarda vs. State of Maharashtra and has submitted that as per the law laid down in it if the links which lead to the conviction, are not complete and if there is any broken link then the Court could not convict an accused. In the instant case, he submits, that the entire evidence of the Investigating Officer is doubtful. The arrest had taken place at 06:00 PM. The recovery memo was prepared at 07:00PM (which contained the Sections 302 and 201 of I.P.C.) even before the F.I.R. was upgraded to Section 302 of I.P.C. in the Police Station which was done at 08:05 PM. He, therefore, submits that the entire case of the prosecution as has been broughtforth through the various witnesses becomes doubtful and the case is a fit case for the acquittal of the three accused-appellants.

34. Learned counsel submitted that as per the judgement in the case of Sharad Birdichand Sarda vs. State of Maharashtra reported in AIR 1984 SC 1622, the Supreme Court has held that "before conviction could be based on circumstantial evidence the following conditions must be fully established and they are:

1. The circumstances from which the conclusion of guilt is to be drawn should be fully established.

2. The fact so established should be consistent only with the hypothesis of the guilt of the accused. .

3. The circumstances should be of conclusive nature and tendency.

4. They should exclude every possible hypothesis except one to be proved.

5. There must be a chain of evidence so complete as not to leave any reasonable ground for the conclusion consistent with the innocence of the accused and must show that in all human probability the act must have been done by the accused.

These conditions have been called as the 'Five golden principles' or to say' constitute the panchsheel of the proof of a case based on circumstantial evidence.'

35. Sri Amit Sinha, learned A.G.A. assisted by Ms. Mayuri Mehrotra, however, in reply, has submitted that the recovery which was done in the presence of the witnesses could not be lightly brushed aside. Learned counsel for the State further submits that even if there was certain shortcomings in the time etc. which had been given in the recovery memo and in the F.I.R. which stated that the Section 302 of I.P.C. had been added in the F.I.R., it would make a little difference and, therefore, the appeal be dismissed and the conviction of the three appellants be affirmed. He relied upon a judgement of Supreme Court reported in 2010 (9) SCC 567 : C. Muniappan and others vs. State of Tamil Nadu. He specifically relied upon paragraph no. 85 of the judgement which is being reproduced here as under:-

"85. It is settled proposition of law that even if there are some omissions, contradictions and discrepancies, the entire evidence cannot be disregarded. After exercising care and caution and sifting through the evidence to separate truth from untruth, exaggeration and improvements, the court comes to a conclusion as to whether the residuary evidence is sufficient to convict the accused. Thus, an undue importance should not be attached to omissions, contradictions and discrepancies which do not go to the heart of the matter and shake the basic version of the prosecution's witness. As the mental abilities of a human being cannot be expected to be attuned to absorb all the details of the incident, minor discrepancies are bound to occur in the statements of witnesses."

36. Learned A.G.A. has further submitted that the motive was definitely there and he submits that in the year 1980 a sum of Rs. 700/- was a valuable amount and murders did take place for the recovery of such amount. Learned A.G.A has also submitted that the evidence of such persons who had last seen the accused along with the deceased specially PW-8 which was approximately in the time the offence took place could not be lightly brushed aside.

37. Before parting, we would like to bring on record the fact that certain original documents of the paper book were torn and, therefore, the photocopy of the paper book which the learned counsel for the appellants has submitted and which contains the photocopies of the original documents were relied upon by the Court. Learned AGA had not denied the fact that the photocopies attached in the paper book which had been handed over by the learned counsel for the appellants were not reliable.

38. Having heard Sri Brijesh Sahai, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Sri Rahul Sharma and Sri Sunil Vashisth learned counsel for the appellants, learned AGA Sri Amit Sinha assisted by Ms. Mayuri Mehrotra for the State, we do find that the motive as was given for the commission of the murder of Ajay Kumar was not a strong one. It was said that Rs. 700/- were given to Rajesh with a request to him to get the coupons for fetching diesels. When he did not come with the diesel on 7.1.1980, the deceased was sent and when he did not again return on the 8th of January 1980 then a missing report was got reported. For a person like the uncle of the deceased Rs. 700/- was definitely of not much importance and he would definitely not have ventured to send his nephew, the deceased, to Rajesh one of the accused for getting back with money. This, we also conclude, on account of the fact that on 8th of January 1980 Rajesh had got a report lodged with regard to the fact that the brother of the deceased Ajay, Munish Kumar had manhandled him. We also find that the recovery as was made under Section 27 of the Evidence Act was not as per the law. Definitely when Rajesh was under the police custody, he had not approached the place which was not accessible to public at large. Room No. 24 was such a room where Rajesh, Omvir and Rajguru had easy access. In fact, we find as per the evidence on record that when Rajesh had gone to get the dead-body recovered, he had not open the lock but had entered the room by just giving a push to the door. We also find that the recovery under Section 27 of the Evidence Act was not as per the law which has been laid down by the Supreme Court in the cases of Shahaja@ Shahajan Ismail Mohd. Shaikh vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 883, Ramanand @ Nandlal Bharti vs. State of Uttar Pradesh reported in AIR 2022 SC 5273 and Subramanya vs. State of Karnataka reported in AIR 2022 SC 5110.

39. We thus are definitely of the view that the recovery as was made under Section 27 of the Evidence Act was of no value whatsoever. Still further, we are of the view that the evidence of the witnesses who had last seen the accused was not reliable. The evidence had definitely to be of such a nature which was in proximity to the time of the offence. P.W. 4 and P.W. - 5 were mentioning of something which had happened on 7.1.1980 and similarly P.W. 8 had mentioned about having seen the deceased in the company of the accused on the same day but in the evening on that date. Not only does this create a doubt with regard to the truthfulness of the witnesses but it also creates a doubt as to whether anything which the prosecution had done was done with sincerity. The time at which the deceased was seen could not be said was in the proximity of the time when the murder had actually taken place. One can easily see that one set of witnesses had seen the deceased on 7.1.1980 in the morning while the other set of witnesses had seen the deceased in the company of the accused in the evening and thus the evidence of having seen the deceased last with the accused loses its importance. We are also of the view that evidence of the Investigating Officer was not above board. The document which shows that first information report was earlier lodged under Section 364 IPC had been converted into a first information report under Section 302 /201 IPC at 7:00PM could, in fact, not have been converted at 7:00PM as the Investigating Officer himself had stated that he had given directions to Constable Babu Ram and Satyapal at 8:05PM to get the first information report registered under Section 302 IPC. Also, we are of the view that when under torch light the dead body could have been discovered at 6:00PM on 9.1.1980, there was no reason to adjourn/postpone the preparation of the panchayatnama to the next day. Also we are of the view that the panchayatnama becomes a doubtful document when it shows that the proceedings had commenced on 9.1.1980 at 9:30PM but it did not show any time when the panchayatnama was finally prepared.

40. Thus, we are of the view that when the prosecution had not been able to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt the conviction of the appellants would be an unsafe proposition. We are of the view that when a doubt has been created in the minds of the Court upon consideration of the entire evidence, the appeal should be allowed and the appellants had to be acquitted. The paragarph no. 177 of the judgement of the Full Bench decision in Rishi Kesh Singh &

Ors. vs. The State reported in AIR 1970 Allahabad 51 (FB) is being reproduced here as under:-

"177. In accordance with the majority opinion, our answer to the question referred to this Full Bench is as follows:—

The majority decision in 1941 All LJ 619 = AIR All 402 (FB) is still good law. The accused person is entitled to be acquitted if upon a consideration of the evidence as a whole (including the evidence given in support of the plea of the general exception) a reasonable doubt is created in the mind of the Court about the guilt of the accused."

41. Ultimately, we are of the view that the prosecution has definitely failed to prove the case which was taken by it beyond reasonable doubt.

42. Under such circumstances, the instant criminal appeal is allowed. The judgement and order dated 30.6.1982 passed by the IIIrd Additional Sessions Judge, Muzaffarnagar is quashed and set aside. The appellants are acquitted of the charges on the basis of which the trial had proceeded. Since the appellants are on bail, the bail bonds and sureties are discharged.

(2024) 5 ILRA 199
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAHUL CHATURVEDI, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 1667 of 2021
And
Jail Appeal No. 338 of 2018
wih other cases

Rammilan Bunkar ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Shiv Babu Dubey, S.P.S. Chauhan, Sukhendra Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Section-302 r/w 34, 304-B, A98-A - Indian Evidence Act, 1872-Section 106-The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961-Sections 3/4- The trial courts invariably in all the cases have exonerated the accused persons from the charge u/s 304-B I.P.C. but with the aid of Section 106 of Evidence Act convicted the accused persons in a most casual and cursory fashion u/ s 302 I.P.C-Section 106 of the Evidence Act cannot be invoked to make up the inability of the prosecution to produce evidence of circumstances pointing to the guilt of the accused.

Making a reference in one paragraph is not going to help the prosecution. To establish a case u/s 302 I.P.C., the prosecution has to establish its case by making a full-dressed trial producing various prosecution witnesses to establish the guilt of accused u/s 302 I.P.C. beyond the pale of any suspicion or doubt-Section 106 of Evidence Act cannot be used mechanically or as a tool in the hand of prosecution to convict the accused without discharging duty on its part.

Matter remitted back for retrial. (E-15)

List of Cases referred-;

1. Rajbir @ Raju & anr. Vs St. of Har. (2010) 15 SCC 116

2. Jasvinder Saini Vs St. (Government of NCT of Delhi), (2013) 7 SCC 256.

3. Vijay Pal Singh & ors. Vs St. of Uttarakhand, (2014) 15 SCC 163

4. Shamnsaheb M. Multtani Vs St. of Karn. (2001) 2 SCC 577

5. Kamil Vs St. of U.P., AIR 2019 SC 45.

6. Dr. (Smt.) Nupur Talwar Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2017 10 ADJ 586

7. St. of Rajasthan Vs Kashi Ram, JT 2006(12)SCC 254

8. Trimukh Maroti Kirkan Vs St. of Mah., (2006) 10 SCC 681

9. Balvir Singh Vs St. of Uttarakhand in Ciminal Appeal No.301 of 2015 with Criminal Appeal No.2430 of 2014 decided on 06.10.2023,

10. Mohd. Hussain @ Julfikar Ali Vs St. of (Govt. of NCT of Delhi), (2012) 9 SCC 408

11. Ajay Kumar Ghoshal & ors. Vs St. of Bihar & ors., (2017) 12 SCC 699

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rahul Chaturvedi, J.)

[1]. Heard learned counsels named above appearing for respective appellants as well as learned Additional Government Advocate for the State of U.P. Perused the record.

[2]. Since all the appeals suffer from same legal vice and flaw, therefore, all the appeals after being clubbed together and for the sake of brevity and convenience, are being decided by a common judgment.

[3]. The moot legal questions to be adjudicated, in these appeals are; (i) as to whether the trial courts are justified in framing the charge u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. simplicitor or 302/34 I.P.C.; (ii) as to whether the trial courts are justified while exonerating the accused-appellants from the primary charges of Sections 498A, 304B I.P.C. & Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, but convicting them u/s 302/34 I.P.C. taking recourse of Section 106 of the Evidence Act?

As above is a pure legal issue, which deserves strict judicial scrutiny by this Court about the alleged addition of Section 302 I.P.C., in addition to pre-existing sections about dowry death and dowry related inhuman treatment. This exercise is being carried out by the learned Trial Judges as a mater of routine and in a most mechanical fashion, making the entire episode more grim and serious, without having any supporting documents or allegations. Adjudicating of instant legal proposition would have far-reaching implications upon all the pending trials before concerned Sessions Courts of the State, as we are now inclined to decide the aforesaid moot point at this threshold stage.

At this juncture, we may like to clarify that while deciding this bunch of Appeals, we are focussing our attention to above legal theorem only without touching the factual merit of the case. It is open for the trial court to decide entire spectrum of the cases after having proper evaluation of the evidence on its own.

[4]. Before entering into the legal arena, we find it necessary to give a bare skeleton facts of each case for better appreciation of every appeal at hand and the controversy involved in it, viz :

FACTUAL MATRIX OF RESPECTIVE APPEALS :

[5]. CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.1667 of 2021

(Rammilan Bunkar vs. State of U.P.)

(i) Appellant Rammilan Bunkar is facing incarceration since 09.02.2021

pursuant to judgment and order passed by the learned Additional Session Judge (F.T.C.), Lalitpur while deciding S.T. No.37 of 2017 (State vs. Rammilan Bunkar and 2 others), arising out of Case Crime No.113 of 2016, Police Station-Narahat, District Lalitpur. The appellant Rammilan Bunkar and 2 others were put to trial u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. and Section ¾ D.P. Act with alternative charge u/s 302/34 I.P.C., but the learned Trial Judge have exonerated the accused-appellant from the charge u/s 304B I.P.C., but have convicted u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment with fine of Rs.10,000/-; u/s 498A I.P.C. for two years simple imprisonment with fine of Rs.3000/- and u/s 4 of D.P. Act for one year rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs.3000/- with default clause. In addition to this, remaining co-accused persons Lal Singh and Har Govind were also exonerated and acquitted from the charges u/s 498A, 304B, 302 I.P.C. & Section 4 D.P. Act.

(ii). As per prosecution case the informant Aunda s/o Pathola has given a written tehrir on 18.3.2016 that her daughter Anita @ Poonam (aged about 22 years) got married with Rammilan Bunkar about three years back. The marriage was solemnized as per their standards, but her in-laws were dissatisfied with the dowry given and they were demanding a motorcycle and sofa-set by way of additional dowry and on this score she was subjected to constant torture and ill-treatment. On 17.3.2016 around 03.00 in the day, they have taken away the deceased and Rammilan Bunkar, Lal Singh and Har Govind poured kerosene oil upon her and set her ablaze. On this, F.I.R. was registered u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 of D.P. Act on 18.03.2016. Postmortem of the deceased was conducted on 18.3.2016, which reveals that she died on account of asphyxia and shock as a result of ante mortem burn injuries.

(iii) Being cognizable offence, the matter was remitted to the court of session and on 20.04.2017 charges were framed against the appellant u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. and Section 3/4 of D.P. Act and alternative charge u/s 302/34 I.P.C. The prosecution has produced as many as five prosecution witnesses to prove its case along with certain documents.

(iv) Learned counsel for appellant has drawn attention of the Court to the testimony of P.W.-2 Manbai @ Manbhu (mother of the deceased) in which she stated that since her daughter was not carrying pregnancy despite of the treatment provided by her husband, she became introvert, sombre and hopeless. For this reason and on this account she has committed suicide by pouring kerosene oil upon her.

(v) The trial court in so many words has clearly indicated that the relevant postulates of Section 304B I.P.C. are completely missing in the present case and the prosecution has miserably failed to establish them, thus, no case u/s 304B I.P.C. or Section 4 of D.P. Act is made out, BUT in a most casual way the trial court has convicted the accused-appellant with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. While adjudicating upon Issue No.5, the learned Trial Judge have taken the help and recourse of Section 106 of Evidence Act mentioning that her in-laws were not present over the site and the burden is upon the husband to explain the circumstances in which she died unnaturally. Since accused-appellant was unable to discharge his burden, as such, it would be presumed that the offence is committed by him and accordingly he was convicted for the offence u/s 302, 498A I.P.C.

(vi) As mentioned above, in the last paragraph of the judgment, in a most casual and capricious way without taking into account that the provisions of Section

302 I.P.C. are totally different and distinct and conviction cannot be recorded in a superficial way but the same has been done by the impugned order. This is the moot question to be adjudicated upon by this Court.

[6]. CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.5193 OF 2023 (Meena Srivastava vs. State of U.P.) & CRIMINAL APPEAL No.5671 OF 2023 (Amit Srivastava @ Ashu vs. State of U.P.)

(i) Appellants Meena Srivastava and Amit Srivastava @ Ashu are under incarceration pursuant to impugned judgment and order of conviction dated 24.9.2023 passed by the learned Additional Session Judge, Court No.9, Varanasi. Both the appellants have filed their separate appeals challenging a common judgment and order dated 24.9.2023, whereby the learned Trial Judge has convicted the appellants in S.T. No.410 of 2018 (State vs. Amit Srivastava and another), arising out of Case Crime No.621 of 2018, u/s 498A, 316, 302 I.P.C., Police Station Shivpur, District Varanasi and awarded sentence u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment along with fine of Rs.10,000/- each; u/s 316 I.P.C. for seven years rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.5,000/- each; u/s 498A I.P.C. for one year rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.1000/- to each of the appellants.

(ii). As per the version of F.I.R., the informant Ramendra Kumar Srivastava has lodged the F.I.R. No.621 of 2018 on 20.9.2018 at Police Station Shivpur, District Varanasi, that his daughter Sakshi Srivastava was married to one Amit Srivastava @ Ashu, a year back, with a lot of fanfare and after giving sufficient amount of dowry and gifts. From the day one of marriage, the husband Amit Srivastava and mother-in-law Meena Srivastava used to taunt Sakshi for bringing scanty dowry. During her lifetime, Sakshi stated that her husband and mother-in-law were demanding Rs.3 lacs as additional dowry. The informant has shown his inability to meet out the demand of additional dowry. Her daughter was carrying pregnancy of seven months. On 19.10.2018 the informant got a call from his son-in-law, that the condition of her daughter Sakshi is not up to the mark and slowly deteriorating. She was got admitted in Ansh Neuro Hospital at I.C.U. and in the morning she was declared dead. Her body as well as head was having number of visible injuries.

(iii) In this case initially the F.I.R. was registered u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & Section 3/4 of D.P. Act at Police Station Shivpur, District Varanasi and after the investigation the police have submitted charge sheet under same sections. Being cognizable offence, the case was committed to the court of session and the learned Session Judge on 4.6.2019 has framed charge u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. and Section 4 of D.P. Act, which were denied by the accused-appellants and insisted to be tried.

(iv) Perusal of the impugned judgment indicates that eventually the appellants were convicted for the offence u/s 498A, 316, 302 I.P.C. The interesting feature of the case is that the learned Sessions Judge have exonerated the accused-appellants u/s 304B I.P.C. and Section 4 of D.P. Act, but convicted u/s 498A, 316, 302 I.P.C. From the paragraphs 46, 47 and 48 of the judgment it is evident that the learned Sessions Judge has taken the help of Section 106 of the Evidence Act and arrived to the convenient conclusion, that this was under the special knowledge which is in possession of the accused-appellants as the deceased died at her marital place. How and under what circumstances the injuries were inflicted upon the deceased, its burden lies upon the accused-appellants and since they have not discharged their burden, therefore, taking the recourse of Section 106 of the Evidence Act, they have been convicted u/s 302 I.P.C. and awarded sentence for life.

[7]. JAIL APPEAL NO.338 OF 2018
(Prem Chand vs. State of U.P.)

(i) In this appeal the appellant Prem Chandra is in jail pursuant to impugned judgment and order dated 29.3.2017 passed by the Additional Session Judge, Court No.5, Banda in S.T. No.173 of 2012 (Prem Chandra and 2 others vs. State of U.P.), arsing out of Case Crime no.499 of 2012, Police Station Kotwali Nagar, District Banda. Though the accused have faced the trial u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & Section 4 of D.P. Act with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C., BUT the learned Trial Judge while deciding aforesaid session trial have convicted the appellant Prem Chandra with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. only, awarding sentence for life with a fine of Rs.10,000/-, exonerating him from the charges u/s 498A I.P.C. and ¾ of D.P. Act.

(ii) As per prosecution case, Shyam Babu has given a written tehrir (Ext. Ka-1) that his handicapped daughter Sangita got married with accused-appellant Prem Chandra on 5.11.2011, though she was educated girl, completed her Masters. This marriage was solemnized with a lot of fanfare and sufficient dowry/gifts were given by the informant to her daughter. It is further alleged that after the marriage, the girl was constant target of taunts and innuendoes from her husband and mother-in-law for being handicapped and scanty dowry. They demanded Rs.50,000/- more as additional dowry. On 23.8.2012 around 8.00 in the morning the informant received an information that his daughter died. After making inquiry, an information was gathered by them that the husband Prem Chandra by the small gas cylinder and some sharp edged weapon assaulted upon the her and thereafter fled away. In a precarious condition she was got admitted in the hospital where at 8.00 in the morning she died.

(iii) In paragraph-7 of the judgment it is mentioned that after hearing the parties the charges against Raj Bahadur, Prem Chandra and Surajkali were framed u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act and also alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. However, the husband Prem Chandra too was acquitted from the charge u/s 498A I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act and he was convicted u/s 302 I.P.C. and was awarded life sentence by the learned Additional Session Judge, Court No.5, Banda. The appellant is in jail since 29.3.2017 (date of judgment).

(iv) The Court has occasion to examine the impugned judgment. No doubt, the deceased died under unnatural circumstances at the residence of her husband. In paragraph 35 and 36 of the judgment, it is clearly mentioned that prosecution has miserably failed to establish the guilt of Section 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act against co-accused Raj Bahadur and Surajkali, but without attributing any cogent reason abruptly and whimsically the learned Trial Judge have convicted the appellant Prem Chandra u/s 302 I.P.C. Since all accused persons were exonerated from the charge u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act, therefore, presumption contained u/s 113 of the Evidence Act would not come to help of prosecution. If accused is being tried for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C., entire burden is upon the prosecution to establish the guilt of accused beyond reasonable doubt. In the entire judgment, there is no whisper that appellant Prem Chandra was an author of this unfortunate incident. However, Section 106 of the Evidence Act would come into play only after the prosecution establishes the case against the accused beyond the pale of reasonable doubt, then only the operation of Section 106 of Evidence Act starts operating against the accused.

[8]. CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.5071 OF 2018 (Shiv Kumar vs. State of U.P.) & CRIMINAL APPEAL NO.5069 OF 2018 (Jamuna Devi and another vs. State of U.P.)

(i) The appellants Shiv Kumar, Jamuna Devi and Shankar Lal are under incarceration pursuant to impugned judgment and order of conviction dated 09.08.2018 passed by the learned Additional District & Sessions Judge, Court No.3/Special Judge (DAA), Pilibhit. The appellants have filed two separate appeals challenging a common judgment and order dated 09.08.2018, whereby the learned Trial Judge has convicted the appellants in S.T. No.219 of 2017 (State of U.P. vs. Shiv Kumar and others) and S.T. No.272 of 2017 (State of U.P. vs. Shankar Lal), arising out of Case Crime No.277 of 2017, u/s 498A, 304B, I.P.C. and 3/4 of D.P. Act, Police Station Gajraula, District Pilibhit awarding sentence u/s 304B I.P.C. for life imprisonment; u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment along with fine of Rs.10,000/- each and u/s 498A I.P.C. for three years rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.3000/- to each of the appellants. Thus it is shocking that the learned Trial Judge have recorded conviction only to accused Shankar Lal (Husband) u/s 304B as well as 302 I.P.C. both and awarded u/s 304B I.P.C. for life sentence and u/s 302 I.P.C. for life sentence and fine of Rs.10,000/-, unmindful of the fact that both the sections operates in two different spheres, having two different sets of essential ingredients.

(ii). In this case too, initially the F.I.R. was registered u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act against Shiv Kumar, Jamuna Devi and Rumla @ Urmila. Being cognizable offence the matter was committed to the court of session and the learned Trial Judge have framed the charge against the appellants u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 4 D.P. Act with an alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C.

(iii). As per prosecution case, the informant's daughter Vimla (22 years) got married with Shankar Lal in April, 2016 whereby the informant has given dowry and gifts as per his capacity, but the in-laws were not satisfied and on account of scanty dowry there was a bad breath between them. The deceased's sister-in-law (nanad) Rumla @ Urmila got married with the maternal brother of Vimla and this was the sole reason for further animosity. In the intervening night of 15.6.2017 all the persons of in-laws throttled the neck of Vimla and wiped her off. Vimla was carrying the pregnancy of three months. Initially the F.I.R. was registered u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act and the charge sheet was also submitted in same sections, but after committal of the case to the court of session, the learned Trial Judge have framed the charge against the appellants u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 4 D.P. Act with an alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. on 26.10.2017, which were denied by the accused-appellants and insisted for trial.

(iv). To establish the case of prosecution, the prosecution has produced as many as six prosecution witnesses along with certain documents. After the trial, sister-in-law of the deceased Rumla @ Urmila was acquitted from the charge u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 4 D.P. Act with an alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. BUT interesting feature of the case is that the learned Sessions Judge after thrashing the evidence have recorded the conviction of accused-appellants Shiv Kumar, Jamuna Devi and Shankar Lal u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 4 D.P. Act with an alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. In this judgment learned Trial Judge has given per se absurd finding and conviction, so much so, on the same set of facts the Trial Judge have recorded conviction u/s 304B and 302 I.P.C. simultaneously against Shankar Lal, the husband and accordingly convicted the husband for life in both the offences.

This indeed a strange judgment whereby the learned Trial Judge who is a senior judicial officer of Sessions Judge rank, has failed to appreciate that the sphere of operation of both the sections of 302 I.P.C. and 304B I.P.C. are entirely different and distinct. Except that there is loss of life in both the cases, there is nothing common or overlapping with each other.

This Court feels pity about the legal understanding of the concerned Trial Judge who convicted the Husband Shankar Lal for both the offences u/s 302 as well as 304B I.P.C.

[9]. Thus, from the aforesaid it is clear that there is specific pattern in all the impugned judgments whereby almost all the F.I.Rs. have been registered u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act, but the trial courts invariably in all the aforesaid cases have inserted Section 302 I.P.C. as an alternative charge. The peculiarity of all the appeals is that almost in all cases the learned Trial Judge has exonerated the accused-appellants from the charges u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act, but taking recourse to Section 106 of Evidence Act all the respective appellants have been convicted for the alternate offence u/s 302 I.P.C. simplicitor or with the aid and help of Section 34 I.P.C.

[10]. It is argued by learned counsel for appellants that aforesaid legal fallacy is dehors of the settled principles of law in this regard that there is absolute big Zero to justify the addition of Section 302 I.P.C. for framing of the charge of "murder". It seems the learned Trial Judge have framed those charges in the faithful compliance of the Hon'ble Supreme Court's judgment in Rajbir @ Raju and another vs. State of Haryana, decided in the year 2010, which was later on explained in the year 2013 in yet another judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Jasvinder Saini vs. State (Government of NCT of Delhi), (2013) 7 SCC 256.

LEGAL DISCUSSION :

[11]. From the aforesaid bunch of appeals, it is evident that there is common thread that in all the appeals the case was registered u/s 498A, 404B I.P.C. & 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act, BUT the learned Sessions Judge while framing the charge have invariably added Section 302 I.P.C. simplicitor or 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. in all the appeals. Interesting feature of all the appeals is that the learned Sessions Judge have exonerated the appellants from the charges u/s 498A/304B I.P.C. & 3/4 D.P. Act, but at the tale of their respective judgments the learned Sessions Judges cursorily but in oddish way taking the aid of Section 106 of Evidence Act have convicted all the appellants for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C. This is the LCM of all the appeals.

[12]. After doing slight research work, it has come to our knowledge that this practice has started with a judgment pronounced by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Rajbir alias Raju and another vs. State of Haryana, (2010) 15 SCC 116, whereby the Hon'ble Apex Court, while relying upon its own judgments in the cases of Satya Narayan Tiwari vs. State of U.P., 2010 (13) SCC 689 and Sukhdev Singh vs. State of Punjab, 2010 (13) SCC 656, pleased to pass the following directions to all the trial courts :

"7. We further direct all the trial courts in India to ordinarily add Section 302 to the charge of Section 304-B, so that death sentences can be imposed in such heinous and barbaric crimes against women. Copy of this order be sent to the Registrars General/Registrars of all High Courts, who will circulate it to all trial courts."

[13]. We have an occasion to peruse the judgment of Rajbir @ Raju (supra) running into only seven paragraphs. No doubt that now-a-days the crime against women is quite rampant and the Hon'ble Judges of the Supreme Court have shown their concern about increasing graph of crime against women, but it seems that, it was a more of an emotional cry by the Apex Court to frame alternatively charge an accused u/s 302 I.P.C. so that the offender may be hanged or death sentence could be imposed upon such an offender, unconcern by the fact that there is no evidence even for the namesake to attract the essential ingredients of Section 302 I.P.C. which would justify the learned Trial Judge to frame an alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. Ignoring this vital legal fallacy, in order to obey the commands of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, a circular was issued pursuant to the aforesaid judgment, which is being scrupulously followed by the different trial courts in India since 2010 itself.

However, this proposition of law was later on explained by the Hon'ble Apex Court while pronouncing yet another judgment in Jasvinder Saini and others vs. State (Government of NCT of Delhi), (2013) 7 SCC 256. In this judgment while assessing the scope and ambit of Section 216 of Cr.P.C., it was held that, the courts have an unrestricted power to add or alter any charge whenever courts find that erroneous/defective charges have been framed which lately requires an addition or its dropping. Under Section 216 Cr.P.C. the scope and ambit of existing charges become necessary after commencement of the trial, but such change or alteration should be made before the pronouncement of the judgment.

In addition to this, if any alteration or addition is being made by the learned Trial Judge, it must primarily satisfy that there are sufficient material on record to justify the said addition or alteration of charge.

[14]. In the instant cases where there is prima facie allegation of dowry related harassment and unnatural demise of the bride within seven years of her marriage and the charges were accordingly framed, then addition of Section 302 I.P.C. mechanically without any supporting material is held to be unsustainable. In paragraphs 13, 14, 15 of Jasvinder Saini's case Hon'ble Apex Court have clarified the aforesaid paragraph-7 of Rajbir's judgment, which read thus :

"13. A reading of the order which the trial Court subsequently passed on 23rd February 2011 directing addition of a charge under Section 302 IPC makes it abundantly clear that the addition was not based on any error or omission whether inadvertent or otherwise in the matter of framing charges against the accused. Even the respondents did not plead that the omission of a charge under Section 302 IPC was on account of any inadvertent or other error or omission on the part of the trial Court. The order passed by the trial Court, on the contrary directed addition of the charge under Section 302 IPC entirely in obedience to the direction issued by this Court in Rajbir's case (supra). Such being the position when the order passed by the trial Court was challenged before the High Court the only question that fell for determination was whether the addition of a charge under Section 302 IPC was justified on the basis of the direction issued by this Court in Rajbir's case (supra). The High Court has no doubt adverted to that aspect and found itself to be duty bound to comply with the direction in the same measure as the trial Court. Having said so, it has gone a step further to suggest that the autopsy surgeon's report was prima facie evidence to show that the offence was homicidal in nature. The High Court has by doing so provided an additional reason to justify the framing of a charge under Section 302 IPC.

14. Be that as it may the common thread running through both the orders is that this Court had in Rajbir's case (supra) directed the addition of a charge under Section 302 IPC to every case in which the accused are charged with Section 304-B. That was not, in our opinion, the true purport of the order passed by this Court. The direction was not meant to be followed mechanically and without due regard to the nature of the evidence available in the case. All that this Court meant to say was that in a case where a charge alleging dowry death is framed, a charge under Section 302 can also be framed if the evidence otherwise permits. No other meaning could be deduced from the order of this Court.

15. It is common ground that a charge under Section 304B IPC is not a substitute for a charge of murder punishable under Section 302. As in the case of murder in every case under Section 304B also there is a death involved. The question whether it is murder punishable under Section 302 IPC or a dowry death punishable under Section 304B IPC depends upon the fact situation and the evidence in the case. If there is evidence whether direct or circumstantial to prima facie support a charge under Section 302 IPC the trial Court can and indeed ought to frame a charge of murder punishable under Section 302 IPC, which would then be the main charge and not an alternative charge as is erroneously assumed in some quarters. If the main charge of murder is not proved against the accused at the trial, the Court can look into the evidence to determine whether the alternative charge of dowry death punishable under Section 304B is established. The ingredients constituting the two offences are different, thereby demanding appreciation of evidence from the perspective relevant to such ingredients. The trial Court in that view of the matter acted mechanically for it framed an additional charge under Section 302 IPC without adverting to the evidence adduced in the case and simply on the basis of the direction issued in Rajbir's case (supra). The High Court no doubt made a half hearted attempt to justify the framing of the charge independent of the directions in Rajbir's case (supra), but it would have been more appropriate to remit the matter back to the trial Court for fresh orders rather than lending support to it in the manner done by the High Court."

(Emphasised)

[15]. After reading the above relevant paragraph of the judgment in Jasvinder Saini's case (supra), the Hon'ble Apex

Court clarified the legal proposition and the true import of Rajbir's case, that though in the cases of Dowry Death, is untimely and unnatural demise of the bride within seven years of her marriage. In such case, direction to add Section 302 I.P.C. against the accused who is already facing the charge u/s 304B I.P.C. is not a true import of the order passed in Rajbir's case (supra). Charges are framed relying upon the nature of evidence collected during investigation and not only in air or whimsical way. In fact, our lower courts are under the commands or in some mistake notion of law, they keep on adding Section 302 I.P.C. as an alternate charge without any cogent material to justify the same, which would bound to lead a disastrous result qua the accused-appellant. All that court wants to say that in a case where a charge alleging dowry death u/s 304B I.P.C. is framed, additional charge u/s 302 I.P.C. can also be framed, if the evidence otherwise permits; meaning thereby, during investigation if the angle of murder is also surfaced, then the learned Trial Judge would be well within his right to frame the charge u/s 302 I.P.C. as main charge. Charge u/s 304B I.P.C. cannot be substantiated for the charge of murder punishable u/s 302 I.P.C. It is true that in the case of murder and case of dowry deaths, death of a person is involved. The offender would be prosecuted for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C. or 304B I.P.C., depends upon the fact, situation, circumstances and the material collected by the I.O. of that individual case.

[16]. If the evidence collected during investigation, direct or circumstantial, prima facie supports and justifies the addition of a charge u/s 302 I.P.C., then the learned Trial Judge can and indeed ought to have framed the charge of murder punishable u/s 302 I.P.C., then only it would be the main charge and not the alternative charge, as erroneously being assumed by the trial courts in State of Uttar Pradesh while framing the charge of Dowry Death. If the main charge of murder is not proved against the accused at the trial, the court then only switch over to look into evidence to determine whether the alternative charge of Dowry Death u/s 304B I.P.C. is established or not.

As mentioned above, the basic ingredients of both the offences operates in two difference spheres, demanding appreciation of evidence from the perspective relevant to such an individual offence. But as mentioned above, to frame the charge erroneously u/s 302 I.P.C. as alternative charge by the Trial Courts in St ate of U.P. is rampant and the learned Trial Courts are mechanically framing the charges, unmindful of the fact that there is no evidence even for namesake to justify the addition of Section 302 I.P.C. simply in faithful compliance of the judgment given in Rajbir's case (supra). Though this erroneous interpretation of Section 216 Cr.P.C. has already been rectified and duly explained in yet another judgment of Jasvinder Saini's case (supra), but no Sessions Judge has paid any heed to the clarification/explanation.

[17]. It would not be a patch work, that if the court imbibing the same reasoning of Jasvinder Saini's case, directing the investigating to hold a wide spectrum of investigation in allegedly Dowry Death's cases. They are supposed to examine the death of a lady from every possible angle which includes her death on account of murdering her by her husband and in-laws punishable u/s 302 I.P.C., then also examine, as to whether she has committed suicide on account of instigation or abetment by her husband or in-laws punishable u/s 306 I.P.C. Not only this, the investigating agency would also ascertain by collecting material that she was subjected to inhuman behaviour or cruel treatment on account of scanty dowry by her husband and in-laws punishable u/s 304B I.P.C.

In such a substance, the investigating agency is not guided by F.I.R. alone, but they should also examine the murder case of a lady from every possible angle of the case and submit its report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C. The trial Court then only after going through the material collected by the I.O. of the case, applying its own judicial mind should frame the charge against the offenders, and not guided by the so-called casual observations of Rajbir's case (supra) which was later on explained in Jasvinder Saini's case (supra).

[18]. In yet another judgment of Vijay Pal Singh and others vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2014) 15 SCC 163, the charges of offences punishable under Section 304B read with Section 34 of IPC, Section 302 read with Section 34 of IPC, Section 498A of IPC and Section 201 of IPC were framed against the appellants. The charges were read over and explained to the appellants, who pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried. The relevant extract of the judgment is being spelled out hereunder :

"16. Since, the victim in the case is a married woman and the death being within seven years of marriage, apparently, the court has gone only on one tangent, to treat the same as a dowry death. No doubt, the death is in unnatural circumstances but if there are definite indications of the death being homicide, the first approach of the prosecution and the court should be to find out as to who caused that murder. Section 304B of IPC is not a substitute for Section 302 of IPC. The genesis of Section 304B of IPC introduced w.e.f. 19.11.1986 as per Act 43 of 1986 relates back to the 91st Report of the Law Commission of India. It is significant to note that the subject was taken up by the Law Commission suo motu.

18. However, it is generally seen that in cases where a married woman dies within seven years of marriage, otherwise than under normal circumstances, no inquiry is usually conducted to see whether there is evidence, direct or circumstantial, as to whether the offence falls under Section 302 of IPC. Sometimes, Section 302 of IPC is put as an alternate charge. In cases where there is evidence, direct or circumstantial, to show that the offence falls under Section 302 of IPC, the trial court should frame the charge under Section 302 of IPC even if the police has not expressed any opinion in that regard in the report under Section 173(2) of the Cr.PC. Section 304B of IPC can be put as an alternate charge if the trial court so feels. In the course of trial, if the court finds that there is no evidence, direct or circumstantial, and proof beyond reasonable doubt is not available to establish that the same is not homicide, in such a situation, if the ingredients under Section 304B of IPC are available, the trial court should proceed under the said provision."

In the case of Jasvinder Saini's case the Hon'ble Apex Court has further clarified in paragraph-20, which reads thus :

"20. Though in the instant case the accused were charged by the Sessions Court under Section 302 IPC as alternate charge, it is seen that the trial court has not made any serious attempt to make an inquiry in that regard. If there is evidence available on homicide in a case of dowry death, it is the duty of the investigating officer to investigate the case under Section 302 I.P.C. and the prosecution to proceed in that regard and the court to approach the case in the perspective. Merely because the victim is a married woman suffering an unnatural death within seven years of marriage and there is evidence that she was subjected to cruelty or harassment on account of demand for dowry, the prosecution and the court cannot close its eyes on the culpable homicide and refrain from punishing its author, if there is evidence in that regard, direct or circumstantial."

[19]. From plain reading of aforesaid judgment, it clearly indicates that when a married woman dies within 7 years of marriage, otherwise than normal circumstances, the F.I.Rs. are being lodged u/s 498A, 304B and other allied sections of I.P.C. There is no investigation or inquiry made by the police to see whether there is any evidence, direct or circumstantial, so as to justify whether the offence was within the realm of Section 302 I.P.C.? The Investigating Officer blindly and in the most mechanical fashion proceeded to investigate into the matter and filed his report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C. only u/s 304B and other allied sections of I.P.C. It is the duty of I.O. of the case to investigate the matter from every angle of murder u/s 302 or 306 I.P.C. also and the prosecution to proceed in that regard and the court to approach the case in that perspective. Merely because the victim was a married woman, who has suffered unnatural death within seven years of her marriage and there is evidence that prior to her death she was subjected to cruelty and harassment on account of scanty dowry, the prosecution or the court, can not shut their eyes to examine the attending circumstances from the angle of culpable homicide or suicide. Meaning thereby, the I.O. of the case also required to hold a wide spectrum investigation to assess the entirety of facts, examining the case from every other possible angle and then assess the attending circumstances, so as to satisfy himself that case case in hand may also come within the purview of Section 302 or 306 or 304B I.P.C. If material indicates that essential features of Section 302 I.P.C. is also available, then the main charge would be u/s 302 I.P.C. and not alternative charge as popularly understood in some quarters.

The Investigating Officer never bothered to collect any evidence or examine the matter from the angle of murder of suicide so as to give even an indication that alleged incident might be a case of murder or suicide. No effort is made by the concerned I.O. to collect evidence keeping in view the ingredients of Section 300 I.P.C., therefore, in most of the cases, we observe that Section 302 I.P.C. is put as an alternative charge at the stage of framing of the charge, unmindful of the fact that there is hardly any material to substantiate or justify the framing of charge of murder or culpable homicide. All the trial courts are obediently adhering to this practice since 2010 in the light of the judgment of Rajbir's case (supra) which has been clearly explained and clarified by Hon'ble Apex Court in its subsequent judgment of Jasvinder Saini (supra), but no effort has been made to circulate this judgment so as to put the record straight and clarify the legal position.

[20]. Now yet another aspect of the issue that if the main charge of murder is not proved against the accused at the trial, the court can look into the evidence to determine whether alternative charge of dowry punishable u/s 304B I.P.C. is established or not. During investigation the

I.O. should be cautious enough to hold an in-depth investigation in the larger spectrum and collect the material as to whether the case falls within the ambit of Section 302 I.P.C. or secondarily it is a case of dowry death u/s 304B I.P.C. The legislation while promulgating the Act of 43 of 1986, the Statement of Object and Reasons while incorporating Section 304B I.P.C. reads thus :

"1. The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 was recently amended by the Dowry Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1984 to give effect to certain recommendations of the Joint Committee of the Houses of Parliament to examine the question of the working of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 and to make the provisions of the Act more stringent and effective. Although the Dowry Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1984 was an improvement on the existing legislation, opinions have been expressed by representatives from women's voluntary organizations and others to the effect that the amendments made are still inadequate and the Act needs to be further amended.

2. It is, therefore, proposed to further amend the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 to make provisions therein further stringent and effective. ..."

[21]. That is how Section 304-B I.P.C. was incorporated in the Penal Code which is more of a legal fiction having six essential and peculiar ingredients which are known to all, whereas Section 302 I.P.C. provides punishment for murder. However, it has been defined in Section 299/300 I.P.C. which speaks about culpable homicide and murder. Thus, the area of operation of both the Sections 299/300 I.P.C. is different and distinct, and its requirement to establish the case under law is clearly different. They do not overlap or intercept with each other, except with a common thread that in both the cases a person looses his life.

[22]. Section 299 I.P.C. defines 'Culpable Homicide' as whoever causes death by doing an act with intention of causing death or with intention of causing such bodily injury as is like to cause death or with the knowledge that he is likely by such act to cause death, commit the offence of culpable homicide.

Section 300 I.P.C. defines Muder- Except in the cases hereinafter expected, culpable homicide is murder, if the act by which death is done with the intention of causing death.

Thus 'Culpable Homicide' as defined in Section 299 I.P.C. is bigger Phylum of which Murder (Section 300), Culpable Homicide not amounting to murder (Section 304), causing death by negligence (Section 304A), Dowry Death (304B), Abetment of suicide (Section 306) of I.P.C. are distinct and different species of bigger that Phylum where there is common thread that a person looses his life or, in other words they are different shades with own distinctive and specialized features in it.

SCOPE AND AMBIT OF SECTION 302 IPC : 304B IPC :-

[23]. It has been argued by learned counsel for appellants while referring to the judgment of Shamnsaheb M. Multtani vs. State of Karnataka (2001) 2 SCC 577 on the proposition that when a person is charged for an offence u/s 302, 498A I.P.C. on the allegation that he has caused the death of a bride after subjecting her to cruelty with a demand of dowry within seven years of her marriage, a situation may arise, as in this case, that the offence of murder is not established against the accused, nonetheless all the ingredients necessary for the offence u/s 304B I.P.C. would stand established. Can the accused be convicted in such a case for the offence u/s 304B I.P.C. without such offence forming the part of the charge? In other words, whether in a case where the prosecution has failed to prove the charge u/s 302 I.P.C., but on the facts the ingredients of Section 304B I.P.C. have winched to the fore, court can convict him of that offence in the absence of the said offence being included in the charge. This was a sole proposition of law which was determined by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the aforesaid judgment of Shamnsaheb M. Multani (supra).

[24]. Before dealing with the aforesaid proposition of law, it is relevant to spell out the meaning of a technical expression of 'cognate offense', 'inchoate offense' and 'lesser included offense'.

Cognate offense : A lesser offense that is related to the greater offense because it shares several of the elements of the greater offense and is of the same class or category. For example, shoplifting is a cognate offense of larceny because both crimes require the element of taking property with the intent to deprive the rightful owner of that property.

Inchoate offense. A step toward the commission of another crime, the step in itself being serious enough to merit punishment. The three inchoate offenses are attempt, conspiracy and solicitation. The term is sometimes criticized. Also termed anticipatory offense; inchoate crime; preliminary crime.

Lesser included offense. A crime that is composed of some, but not all, of the elements of a more serious crime and that is necessarily committed in carrying out the greater crime-battery is a lesser included offense of murder-For double-jeopardy purposes, a lesser included offense is considered the "same offense" as the greater offense, so that acquittal or conviction of either offense precludes a separate trial for the other. Also termed lesser offense; included offense; necessarily included offense; predicate offense; predicate act.

The aforesaid technical terms are being used in explaining the scope and ambit of Sections 302 and 304B I.P.C. and their sphere of operation.

[25]. During course of argument, a pure question of law cropped up as the appellant was not charged u/s 304B IPC, the question raised is, "whether an accused, who is charged u/s 302 IPC, could be convicted alternatively u/s 304B I.P.C., without the said offence being specifically put in the charge? The answer appeared, at the first blush ingenuous, particularly in the light of Section 221 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. There were divergent opinions of different courts, and therefore, this issue was decided by the three Hon'ble Judges of the Supreme Court; Hon'ble K.T. Thomas, Hon'ble R.P. Sethi and Hon'ble B.M. Agarwal, JJJ. In this regard Sections 221 and 222 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has to be looked into as they deal with the power of criminal court to convict an accused for an offence which is not included in the charge. The primary condition for application of Section 221 of the Code is that the Court should have felt doubt, at the time of framing the charge, as to which of the several acts (which may be proved) will constitute the offence on account of the nature of the acts or series of acts alleged against the accused. In such a case, the section permits to convict the accused of the offence of which he is shown to have committed, though he was not charged with it. But in the nature of the acts alleged by the prosecution in this case, there was absolutely no scope for any doubt regarding the offence under Section 302 IPC, at least at the time of framing the charge. Section 222(1) of the Code deals with a case when a person is charged with an offence consisting of several particulars. The Section permits the court to convict the accused of the minor offence, though he was not charged with it. Sub-section (2) of Section 222 Cr.P.C. deals with a similar, but slightly different, situation. When a person is charged with an offence and facts are proved which reduce it to a minor offence, he may be convicted of the minor offence, although he is not charged with it.

[26]. Obvious question is as to what is meant by a 'minor offense' for the purpose of Section 222 of the Code? Although the said expression has not been defined in the Code, it can be discerned from the context that the test of minor offence is not merely that the prescribed punishment is less than the major offence. Only if the two offences are cognate offences, wherein the main ingredients are common, the one punishable among them with a lesser sentence can be regarded as minor offence vis-à-vis the other offence.

[27]. As referred above many times, the composition of the offence under Section 304-B IPC is vastly different from the formation of the offence of murder under Section 302 IPC and hence the former cannot be regarded as minor offence vis-à-vis the latter. However, the position would be different when the charge also contains the offence under Section 498-A IPC (husband or relative of husband of a women subjecting her to cruelty). So when a person is charged with an offence under Section 302 and 498A IPC on the allegation that he has caused the death of a bride after subjecting her to harassment with a demand for dowry, within 7 years of marriage, a situation may arise, as in this case, that the offence of murder is not established as against the accused. Nonetheless all other ingredients necessary for the offence under Section 304-B IPC would stand established. Can the accused be convicted in such a case for the offence under Section 304-B IPC without the said offence forming part of the charge? This question is the basic and moot issue involved in the entire controversy at hand.

[28]. At this juncture, learned counsel for appellants have drawn attention of the Court to the statutory provisions of Section 464(1) of Cr.P.C. The crux of the matter is that would there be occasion for a failure of justice by adopting such a course as to convict an accused of the offence under Section 304B IPC when all the ingredients necessary for the said offence have come out in evidence, although he was not charged with the said offence? Section 464(1) of Cr.P.C. reads thus :

"464. Effect of omission to frame, or absence of, or error in, charge.

(1)No finding, sentence or order by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed invalid merely on the ground that no charge was framed or on the ground of any error, omission or irregularity in the charge including any misjoinder of charges, unless, in the opinion of the court of appeal, confirmation or revision, a failure of justice has in fact been occasioned thereby.

(2)If the Court of appeal, confirmation or revision is of opinion that a failure of justice has in fact been occasioned, it may –

(a)in the case of an omission to frame a charge, order that a charge be framed and that the trial be recommenced from the point immediately after the framing of the charge;

(b)in the case of an error, omission or irregularity in the charge, direct a new trial to be had upon a charge framed in whatever manner it thinks fit :Provided that if the Court is of opinion that the facts of the case are such that no valid charge could be preferred against the accused in respect of the facts proved, it shall quash the conviction."

[29]. In this context the Hon'ble Apex Court's judgment in Shamnsaheb M. Milttani have great importance and relevance, whereby the Hon'ble Apex Court has held thus :

"22. In other words, a conviction would be valid even if there is any omission or irregularity in the charge, provided it did not occasion a failure of justice.

24. One of the cardinal principles of natural justice is that no man should be condemned without being heard, (audi alterum partem). But the law reports are replete with instances of courts hesitating to approve the contention that failure of justice had occasioned merely because a person was not heard on a particular aspect. However, if the aspect is of such a nature that non-explanation of it has contributed to penalising an individual, the court should say that since he was not given the opportunity to explain that aspect there was failure of justice on account of non-compliance with the principle of natural justice.

25. We have now to examine whether, on the evidence now on record the appellant can be convicted under Section 304-B IPC without the same being included as a count in the charge framed. Section 304-B has been brought on the statute book on 9-11-1986 as a package along with Section 113-B of the Evidence Act.

27. The postulates needed to establish the said offence are: (1) Death of a wife should have occurred otherwise than under normal circumstances within seven years of her marriage; (2) soon before her death she should have been subjected to cruelty or harassment by the accused in connection with any demand for dowry. Now reading section 113B of the Evidence Act, as a part of the said offence, the position is this: If the prosecution succeeds in showing that soon before her death she was subjected by him to cruelty or harassment for or in connection with any demand for dowry and that her death had occurred (within seven years of her marriage) otherwise than under normal circumstances "the court shall presume that such person had caused dowry death".

28. Under Section 4 of the Evidence Act "whenever it is directed by this Act that the Court shall presume the fact, it shall regard such fact as proved, unless and until it is disproved". So the court has no option but to presume that the accused had caused dowry death unless the accused disproves it. It is a statutory compulsion on the court. However it is open to the accused to adduce such evidence for disproving the said compulsory presumption, as the burden is unmistakably on him to do so. He can discharge such burden either by eliciting answers through cross- examination of the witnesses of the prosecution or by adducing evidence on the defence side or by both.

30. But the peculiar situation in respect of an offence under Section 304B IPC, as discernible from the distinction pointed out above in respect of the offence under Section 306 IPC is this: Under the former the court has a statutory compulsion, merely on the establishment of two factual positions enumerated above, to presume that the accused has committed dowry death. If any accused wants to escape from the said catch the burden is on him to disprove it. If he fails to rebut the presumption the court is bound to act on it.

31. Now take the case of an accused who was called upon to defend only a charge under Section 302 IPC. The burden of proof never shifts on to him. It ever remains on the prosecution which has to prove the charge beyond all reasonable doubt. The said traditional legal concept remains unchanged even now. In such a case the accused can wait till the prosecution evidence is over and then to show that the prosecution has failed to make out the said offence against him. No compulsory presumption would go to the assistance of the prosecution in such a situation. If that be so, when an accused has no notice of the offence underSection 304B IPC, as he was defending a charge under Section 302 IPC alone, would it not lead to a grave miscarriage of justice when he is alternatively convicted under Section 304B IPC and sentenced to the serious punishment prescribed thereunder, which mandates a minimum sentence of imprisonment for seven years.

32. The serious consequence which may ensue to the accused in such a situation can be limned through an illustration: If a bride was murdered within seven years of her marriage and there was evidence to show that either on the previous day or a couple of days earlier she was subjected to harassment by her husband with demand for dowry, such husband would be guilty of the offence on the language of Section 304-B IPC read with Section 113-B of the Evidence Act. But if the murder of his wife was actually committed either by a decoit or by a militant in a terrorist act the husband can lead evidence to show that he had no hand in her death at all. If he succeeds in discharging the burden of proof he is not liable to be convicted under Section 304B, IPC. But if the husband is charged only under Section 302 IPC he has no burden to prove that his wife was murdered like that as he can have his traditional defence that the prosecution has failed to prove the charge of murder against him and claim an order of acquittal.

33. The above illustration would amplify the gravity of the consequence befalling an accused if he was only asked to defend a charge under Section 302 IPC and was alternatively convicted under Section 304B IPC without any notice to him, because he is deprived of the opportunity to disprove the burden cast on him by law.

34. In such a situation, if the trial court finds that the prosecution has failed to make out the case under Section 302 IPC, but the offence under Section 304-B IPC has been made out, the court has to call upon the accused to enter on his defence in respect of the said offence. Without affording such an opportunity to the accused, a conviction under Section 304-B IPC would lead to real and serious miscarriage of justice. Even if no such count was included in the charge, when the court affords him an opportunity to discharge his burden by putting him to notice regarding the prima facie view of the court that he is liable to be convicted under Section 304B IPC, unless he succeeds in disproving the presumption, it is possible for the court to enter upon a conviction of the said offence in the event of his failure to disprove the presumption."

[30]. In another judgment the Hon'ble Supreme Court has got an occasion to further amplify the ratio laid down in the judgment of Shamnsaheb M. Milttani (supra), in the case of Kamil vs. State of U.P., AIR 2019 SC 45. In this judgment yet another angle was added while elaborating the import of Section 212, 215 and 464 of the Code of Criminal Procedure relevant to this case, which are :

"17. The following principles relating to Sections 212, 215 and 464 of the Code, relevant to this case, become evident from the said enunciations:

(i) The object of framing a charge is to enable an accused to have a clear idea of what he is being tried for and of the essential facts that he has to meet. The charge must also contain the particulars of date, time, place and person against whom the offence was committed, as are reasonably sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged.

(ii) The accused is entitled to know with certainty and accuracy, the exact nature of the charge against him, and unless he has such knowledge, his defence will be prejudiced. Where an accused is charged with having committed offence against one person but on the evidence led, he is convicted for committing offence against another person, without a charge being framed in respect of it, the accused will be prejudiced, resulting in a failure of justice. But there will be no prejudice or failure of justice where there was an error in the charge and the accused was aware of the error. Such knowledge can be inferred from the defence, that is, if the defence of the accused showed that he was defending himself against the real and actual charge and not the erroneous charge.

(iii) In judging a question of prejudice, as of guilt, the courts must act with a broad vision and look to the substance and not to the technicalities, and their main concern should be to see whether the accused had a fair trial, whether he knew what he was being tried for, whether the main facts sought to be established against him were explained to him fairly and clearly, and whether he was given a full and fair chance to defend himself."

[31]. Thus, the above judgment though is slightly on the different issue. In aforesaid case, the contention of the appellant was that the charge u/s 302 I.P.C. was not framed against him, therefore, the conviction of the appellants u/s 302 I.P.C. is not maintainable. The Hon'ble Apex Court dismissed that appeal on the ground that mere omission to frame the charge u/s 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. would have no value in the eye of law till such time the accused appellant must establish the fact that this failure has occasioned in a "failure of justice" to him. In this appeal the High Court dismissed the appeal filed by the appellant affirming his conviction u/s 302 I.P.C. and for other offences and sentenced him for life imprisonment on the ground that after filing the charge sheet, the case was committed to the court of sessions. The Sessions Court has pointed out that the accused was charged with Section 302, 302/34, 323, 323/34 I.P.C., to which they have pleaded not guilty and insisted for the trial. The accused-appellant thus clearly understood that the charge has been framed against him u/s 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. If really the appellant was under impression that no charge was framed against him u/s 302/34 I.P.C., the appellant would have raised his objection of his case for committal to the court of sessions.

[32]. The Hon'ble Apex Court got an opportunity to further explain the above mentioned moot question in yet another judgment of Vijay Pal Singh vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2015) 4 SCC (Cri) 595, whereby the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that "since the victim in the case is a married woman and the death being within seven years of marriage, apparently, the court has gone only on one tangent, to treat the same as a dowry death. No doubt, the death is in unnatural circumstances but if there are definite indications of the death being homicide, the first approach of the prosecution and the court should be to find out as to who caused that murder. Section 304B of IPC is not a substitute for Section 302 of IPC. The genesis of Section 304B of IPC introduced w.e.f. 19.11.1986 as per Act 43 of 1986 relates back to the 91st Report of the Law Commission of India. It is significant to note that the subject was taken up by the Law Commission suo motu.

[33]. It is generally seen that in cases where a married woman dies within seven years of marriage, otherwise than under normal circumstances, no inquiry is usually conducted to see whether there is evidence, direct or circumstantial, as to whether the offence falls under Section 302 of IPC. Sometimes, Section 302 of IPC is put as an alternate charge. In cases, where there is evidence, direct or circumstantial, to show that the offence falls under Section 302 of IPC, the trial court must frame the charge under Section 302 of IPC as main charge relying upon the material collected by the I.O. during investigation though the police has not expressed any opinion in that regard in the report under Section 173(2) of the Cr.PC. Section 304B of IPC can be put as an alternate charge if the trial court so feels relying upon the material on record. In the course of trial, if the court finds that there is no evidence, direct or circumstantial, and proof beyond reasonable doubt is not available to establish that the same is not homicide, in such a situation, if the ingredients under Section 304B of IPC are available, the trial court should proceed under the said provision.

[34]. A reading of Section 304-B of IPC and Section 113-B of Evidence Act together makes it clear that law authorises a presumption that the husband or any other relative of the husband has caused the death of a woman if she happens to die in circumstances not normal and that there was evidence to show that she was treated with cruelty or harassed before her death in connection with any demand for dowry. It, therefore, follows that the husband or the relative, as the case may be, need not be the actual or direct participant in the commission of the offence of death. The provisions contained in Section 304-B IPC and Section 113-B of the Evidence Act were incorporated on the anvil of the Dowry Prohibition (Amendment) Act, 1984, the main object of which is to curb the evil of dowry in the society and to make it severely punitive in nature and not to extricate husbands or their relatives from the clutches of Section 302 IPC if they directly cause death. This conceptual difference was not kept in view by the courts below. But that cannot bring any relief if the conviction is altered to Section 304 Part II. No prejudice is caused to the accused- appellants as they were originally charged for offence punishable under Section 302 IPC along with Section 304-B IPC.

This was the exact explanation by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Jasvinder Saini's case (supra).

[35]. Lastly while going through all the judgments mention above, this Court was literally flabbergasted to observe that in all these judgments there is common thread that the trial courts invariably in all the cases have exonerated the accused persons from the charge u/s 304-B I.P.C. but with the aid and help of Section 106 of Evidence Act convicted the accused persons in a most casual and cursory fashion u/s 302 I.P.C. It seems that the trial courts are ignorant about the applicability of Section 106 of Evidence Act. To determine the scope and ambit of Section 106 of Evidence Act, it is desirable to reproduce the same as under :

"106-Burden of proving of fact "especially" within the knowledge :

When any fact is especially within the knowledge of any person, the burden of proving that fact is upon him."

[36]. Section 106 of Evidence Act states that when any fact is specially within the knowledge of any person the burden of proving that fact is upon him. In fact this is an exception to the general rule contained in Section 101, namely, that the burden is on the person who asserts a fact. The principle underlying Section 106 which is an exception to the general rule governing burden of proof applies only to such matters of defence which are supposed to be especially within the knowledge of the defendant. It cannot apply when the fact is such as to capable of being known also by a person other than the defendant. It is also the bounden duty of a party, personally knowing the whole circumstances of the case, to give evidence on his own behalf and to submit to cross-examination. His non-appearance as a witness would be the strongest possible circumstance going to discredit the truth of his case. Section 106 of Evidence Act should be confined to those cases where a fact is especially within the knowledge of any person. When the matter is within the knowledge of defendant, he has to prove the same.

[37]. Section 106 of the Evidence Act referred to above provides that when any fact is especially within the knowledge of any person, the burden of proving that fat is upon him. The word "especially" means facts that are pre-eminently or exceptionally within the knowledge of the accused. The ordinary rule that applies to the criminal trials that the onus lies on the prosecution to prove the guilt of the accused is not in any way modified by the rule of facts embodied in Section 106 of the Evidence Act. Section 106 of the Evidence Act is an exception to Section 101 of the Evidence Act. Section 101 which lays down the general rule that in a criminal case the burden of proof is on the prosecution and Section 106 is certainly not intended to relieve it of that duty. On the contrary, it is designed to meet certain exceptional cases in which it would be impossible, or at any rate disproportionately difficult, for the prosecution to establish the facts which are, "especially within the knowledge of the accused and which, he can prove without difficulty or inconvenience".

[38]. This aspect of the issue was elaborately discussed and explained in two landmark judgments of this Court as well as Hon'ble Supreme Court. In a recent judgment of Dr. (Smt.) Nupur Talwar vs. State of U.P. and another, 2017 10 ADJ 586 the Division Bench of this Court while dealing with the scope of Section 106 of Evidence Act in paragraph 235 has held thus :

"235- Scope of Section 106 of the Indian Evidence Act was examined inconsiderable detail by the Apex Court in the case of Shambhu Nath Mehra versus State of Ajmer reported in AIR 1956 SC 404, wherein learned Judges spelt out the legal principle in paragraph 11 which read as under :

11."This lays down the general rule that in a criminal case the burden of proof is on the prosecution and Section 106 is certainly not intended to relieve it of that duty. On the contrary, it is designed to meet certain exceptional cases in which it would be impossible, or at any rate disproportionately difficult for the prosecution to establish facts which are "especially" within the knowledge of the accused and which he could prove without difficulty or inconvenience. The word "especially" stresses that it means facts that are preeminently or exceptionally within his knowledge."

[39]. Vivian Bose, J. had observed that Section 106 of the Evidence Act is designed to meet certain exceptional cases in which it would be impossible or at any rate disproportionately difficult for the prosecution to establish the facts which are, especially within the knowledge of the accused and which, he can prove without difficulty or inconvenience.

[40]. The applicability of Section 106 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 has been lucidly explained by the Apex Court in paragraph 23 of its judgment rendered in the case of State of Rajasthan v. Kashi Ram, JT 2006(12)SCC 254, which runs as here under :

"23. The provisions of Section 106 of the Evidence Act itself are unambiguous and categoric in laying down that when any fact is especially within the knowledge of a person, the burden of proving that fact is upon him. Thus, if a person is last seen with the deceased, he must offer an explanation as to how and when he parted company. He must furnish an explanation which appears to the Court to be probable and satisfactory. If he does so he must be held to have discharged his burden. Section 106 does not shift the burden of proof in a criminal trial, which is always upon the prosecution."

[41]. Thus, after assessing the various judgment, this Court in aforesaid judgment of Dr. (Smt.) Nupur Talwar has observed that "when an offence like murder is committed in secrecy inside a house, the initial burden to establish the case would undoubtedly be upon the prosecution. In view of Section 106 of the Evidence Act, there will be a corresponding burden on the inmates of the house to give cogent explanation as to how the crime was committed. The inmates of the house cannot get away by simply keeping quiet and offering no explanation on the supposed premise that the burden to establish its case lies entirely upon the prosecution and there is no duty at all on the accused to offer.

[42]. In the case of Trimukh Maroti Kirkan vs. State of Maharashtra, (2006) 10 SCC 681, the Hon'ble Apex Court while considering a similar case of homicidal death in the confines of the house has got an opportunity to express the following observation :-

"14. If an offence takes place inside the privacy of a house and in such circumstances where the assailants have all the opportunity to plan and commit the offence at the time and in circumstances of their choice, it will be extremely difficult for the prosecution to lead evidence to establish the guilt of the accused if the strict principle of circumstantial evidence, as noticed above, is insisted upon by the Courts. A Judge does not preside over a criminal trial merely to see that no innocent man is punished. A Judge also presides to see that a guilty man does not escape. Both are public duties. (See Stirland v. Director of Public Prosecution [1944] AC 315 : [1944] 2 All ER 13 (HL)]- quoted with approval by Arijit Pasayat, J. in State of Punjab vs. Karnail Singh (2003) 11 SCC 271: 2004 SCC (Cri)135].). The law does not enjoin a duty on the prosecution to lead evidence of such character which is almost impossible to be led or at any rate extremely difficult to be led. The duty on the prosecution is to lead such evidence which it is capable of leading, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case. Here it is necessary to keep in mind Section 106 of the Evidence Act which says that when any fact is especially within the knowledge of any person, the burden of proving that fact is upon him. Illustration (b) appended to this section throws some light on the content and scope of this provision and it reads:

"(b) A is charged with traveling on a railway without ticket. The burden of proving that he had a ticket is on him."

15. Where an offence like murder is committed in secrecy inside a house, the initial burden to establish the case would undoubtedly be upon the prosecution, but the nature and amount of evidence to be led by it to establish the charge cannot be of the same degree as is required in other cases of circumstantial evidence. The burden would be of a comparatively lighter character. In view of Section 106 of the Evidence Act there will be a corresponding burden on the inmates of the house to give a cogent explanation as to how the crime was committed. The inmates of the house cannot get away by simply keeping quiet and offering no explanation on the supposed premise that the burden to establish its case lies entirely upon the prosecution and there is no duty at all on an accused to offer any explanation."

22. Where an accused is alleged to have committed the murder of his wife and the prosecution succeeds in leading evidence to show that shortly before the commission of crime they were seen together or the offence takes place in the dwelling home where the husband also normally resided, it has been consistently held that if the accused does not offer any explanation how the wife received injuries or offers an explanation which is found to be false, it is a strong circumstance which indicates that he is responsible for commission of the crime..."

Thus, after illumined with the aforesaid decisions of the Hon'ble Apex Court, it is evident that the Court should apply Section 106 of the Evidence Act in any criminal trial with utmost care and caution. It cannot be said that it has got no application in criminal cases. The ordinary rule which applies to criminal trials in this country that the onus lies on the prosecution to prove the guilt of the accused is not in any way modified by the provisions contained in Section 106 of the Evidence Act.

Section 106 of the Evidence Act cannot be invoked to make up the inability of the prosecution to produce evidence of circumstances pointing to the guilt of the accused. This section cannot be used to support a conviction unless the prosecution has discharged the onus by proving all the elements necessary to establish the offence. It does not absolve the prosecution from the duty of proving that a crime was committed even though it is a matter specifically within the knowledge of the accused and it does not throw the burden on the accused to show that no crime was committed. To infer the guilt of the accused from absence of reasonable explanation in a case where the other circumstances are not by themselves enough to call for his explanation is to relieve the prosecution of its legitimate burden. So, until a prima facie case is established by such evidence, the onus does not shift to the accused.

Section 106 of the Evidence Act obviously refers to cases where the guilt of the accused is established on the evidence produced by the prosecution unless the accused is able to prove some other facts especially within his knowledge, which would render the evidence of the prosecution nugatory. If in such a situation, the accused offers an explanation which may be reasonably true in the proved circumstances, the accused gets the benefit of reasonable doubt though he may not be able to prove beyond reasonable doubt the truth of the explanation. But, if the accused in such a case does not give any explanation at all or gives a false or unacceptable explanation, this by itself is a circumstance which may well turn the scale against him.

[43]. Yet another recent judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in Balvir Singh v. State of Uttarakhand in Ciminal Appeal No.301 of 2015 with Criminal Appeal No.2430 of 2014 decided on 06.10.2023, whereby the Hon'ble Apex Court has explained the import of Section 106 of Indian Evidence Act in the following way :

"41. Thus from the aforesaid decisions of this Court, it is evidence that the court should apply Section 106 f the Evidence Act in criminal cases with care and caution. It cannot be said that it has no application t criminal cases. The ordinary rule which applies to criminal trials in this country that the onus lies on the prosecution to prove the guilt of the accused is not in any way modified by the provisions contained in Section 106 of the Evidence Act.

42. Section 106 cannot be invoked to make up the inability of the prosecution to produce evidence of circumstances pointing to the guilt of the accused. This section cannot be used to support a conviction unless the prosecution has discharged the onus by proving all the elements necessary to establish the offence. It does not absolve the prosecution from the duty of proving that a crime was committed even though it is a matter specifically within the knowledge of the accused and it does not throw the burden of the accused to show that no crime was committed. To infer the guilt of the accused from absence of reasonable explanation in a case where the other circumstances are not by themselves enough to call for his explanation is to relieve the prosecution of its legitimate burden. So, until a prima facie case is established by such evidence, the onus does not shift to the accused.

43. Section 106 obviously refers to cases where the guilt of the accused is established on the evidence produced by the prosecution unless the accused is able to prove some other facts especially within his knowledge which would render the evidence of the prosecution nugatory. If in such a situation, the accused gives an explanation which may be reasonable true in the proved circumstances, the accused gets the benefit of reasonable doubt though he may not be able to prove beyond reasonable doubt the truth of the explanation. But if the accused in such a case does not give any explanation at all or gives a false or unacceptable explanation, this by itself is a circumstance which may well turn the scale against him. In the language of Prof. Glanville Williams :

"All that the shifting of the evidential burden does at the final stage of the case is to allow the jury (Court) to take into account the silence of the accused or the absence of satisfactory explanation appearing from his evidence."

[44]. Thus, as mentioned above, in all the cases at hand the respective trial courts while passing judgments impugned, though have exonerated the accused-appellants from the charge u/s 304B I.P.C., but after taking a convenient and mechanical recourse to Section 106 of Evidence Act, booked all the accused-appellants who are the husband of the deceased, for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C. We have already discussed the ratio laid down in Balvir Singh's case (supra), whereby the Hon'ble Apex Court has observed that Section 106 of Evidence Act cannot be invoked to make up the inability of the prosecution to produce evidence of circumstances pointing to the guilt of the accused. This section cannot be used to support a conviction unless the prosecution has discharged the onus by proving all the elements necessary to establish the offence.

Making a reference in one paragraph is not going to help the prosecution. To establish a case u/s 302 I.P.C., the prosecution has to establish its case by making a full-dressed trial producing various prosecution witnesses to establish the guilt of accused u/s 302 I.P.C. beyond the pale of any suspicion or doubt. Section 106 of Evidence Act cannot be used mechanically or as a tool in the hand of prosecution to convict the accused without discharging duty on its part. This finding with regard to conviction u/s 302 I.P.C. is palpably and prima facie erroneous and devoid of merit, and thus cannot be sustained.

[45]. From the above discussion, as we have already mentioned that Section 302 I.P.C. cannot be added as an alternative charge as contemplated in Jasvinder Saini's case (supra), nor by taking a casual recourse to Section 106 of Evidence Act the accused-appellants could be condemned and convicted for the charge u/s 302 I.P.C., and therefore, on these score all the judgments impugned need to be scrapped and accordingly they are hereby quashed. Resultantly we hereby :

(i) Quash the Judgment and order dated 09.02.2021, impugned in Criminal Appeal No.1667 of 2021 (Rammilan Bunkar vs. State of U.P.), passed by the learned Additional Session Judge (F.T.C.), Lalitpur in S.T. No.37 of 2017 (State vs. Rammilan Bunkar and 2 others), convicting the appellant Rammilan Bunkar u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment with fine of Rs.10,000/-; u/s 498A I.P.C. for two years simple imprisonment with fine of Rs.3000/- and u/s 4 of D.P. Act for one year rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs.3000/- with default clause, but the appellant has been exonerated from the charge u/s 304B I.P.C.

(ii) Quash the Judgment and order of dated 24.9.2023, impugned in Criminal Appeal No.5193 of 2023 (Meena Srivastava vs. State of U.P.) and Criminal Appeal No.5671 of 2023 (Amit Srivastava @ Ashu vs. State of U.P.), which was passed by the learned Additional Session Judge, Court No.9, Varanasi in S.T. No.410 of 2018 (State vs. Amit Srivastava and another), whereby the learned Trial Judge has exonerated the appellants u/s 304B I.P.C. & Section 4 of D.P. Act, but taking the recourse of Section 106 of Evidence Act booked them u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment along with fine of Rs.10,000/- each; u/s 316 I.P.C. for seven years rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.5,000/- each; u/s 498A I.P.C. for one year rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.1000/- to each of the appellants.

(iii) Quash the Judgment and order dated 29.3.2017, impugned in Jail Appeal No.338 of 2018 (Prem Chandra vs. State of U.P.), passed by the Additional Session Judge, Court No.5, Banda in S.T. No.173 of 2012 (Prem Chandra and 2 others vs. State of U.P.), whereby the learned Trial Judge while deciding aforesaid session trial have convicted the appellant Prem Chandra with alternative charge u/s 302 I.P.C. only, awarding sentence for life with a fine of Rs.10,000/-, exonerating him from the charges u/s 498A I.P.C. and ¾ of D.P. Act.

In paragraphs 35 and 36 of this judgment the learned Trial Judge have blindly and most mechanical fashion recorded finding that the prosecution has failed to establish the case against Raj Bahadur and Suraj Kali for the offence u/s 498A, 304B I.P.C. & Section ¾ of D.P. Act and exonerated from those charges, but in a most cursory fashion convicted the appellant Prem Chandra for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C. As mentioned above, to convict an accused u/s 302 I.P.C. a full dressed trial has to be taken place. This Court fails to appreciate the judgment and order dated 29.3.2017 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.5, Banda, as he out of blue has recorded the conviction of the appellant u/s 302 I.P.C. imposing sentence for life.

(iv) Quash the Judgment and order dated 09.08.2018, impugned in Criminal Appeal No.5071 of 2018 (Shiv Kumar vs. State of U.P.) and Criminal Appeal No.5069 of 2018 (Jamuna Devi and another vs. State of U.P.), passed by the learned Additional District & Sessions Judge, Court No.3/Special Judge (DAA), Pilibhit, whereby the learned Trial Judge has convicted the appellants in S.T. No.219 of 2017 (State of U.P. vs. Shiv Kumar and others) and S.T. No.272 of 2017 (State of U.P. vs. Shankar Lal) for the offence u/s 498A, 304B, I.P.C. and 3/4 of D.P. Act awarding sentence u/s 304B I.P.C. for life imprisonment; u/s 302 I.P.C. for life imprisonment along with fine of Rs.10,000/- each and u/s 498A I.P.C. for three years rigorous imprisonment along with fine of Rs.3000/- to each of the appellants.

The most startling feature in this case is that the learned Trial Judge while deciding the sessions trial have convicted the appellants Shiv Kumar and Jamuna Devi u/s 304B I.P.C. awarding them life sentence and also u/s 302 I.P.C. awarding life sentence. Co-accused Shankar Lal too was convicted for the same offence u/s 304B and 302 I.P.C. and in both the offence he was awarded life sentence. As mentioned above, the Court wonders as to how the learned Trial Judge can convict an accused for the offence u/s 302 I.P.C. as well as 304B I.P.C. In the preceding paragraphs of the judgment it is clearly mentioned that both these offences operate in their own and distinctive spheres having distinctive and specialized features for them and none of the spheres overlap or intercept each other and thus the learned Trial Judge has palpably committed judicial blunder in convicting the appellants for both the offences. It reflects upon the legal acumen and knowledge of the concerned Trial Judge. He has shown and exposed himself his judicial immaturity at this stage of his career while holding the Session trial.

[46]. Though we have already quashed all the impugned judgment and orders mentioned herein above, but fact remains that this is a serious matter where respective married ladies died within 7 years of their marriage under suspicious and unnatural circumstances and therefore the truth must come out on the surface and guilty person must be punished and penalized. In order to obtain the larger good, rule of law must prevail at any cost, and therefore, this Court directs that all the sessions trials should be re-tried for which the court is duly empowered by Section 386 of Cr.P.C. to hold a retrial of the case. For convenience, at this juncture, Section 386 of Cr.P.C. is quoted herein below :

"Section -386 : After perusing such record and hearing the appellant or his pleader, if he appears, and the Public Prosecutor, if he appears, and in case of an appeal under section 377 or section 378, the accused, if he appears, the Appellate Court may, if it considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering, dismiss the appeal, or may –*

(a) in an appeal from an order of acquittal, reverse such order and direct that further inquiry be made, or that the accused be re-tried or committed for trial, as the case may be, or find him guilty and pass sentence on him according to law;

(b) in an appeal from a conviction-

(i) reverse the finding and sentence and acquit or discharge the accused, or order him to be re-tried by a Court of competent jurisdiction subordinate to such Appellate Court or committed for trial, or

(ii) alter the finding, maintaining the sentence, or

(iii) with or without altering the finding, alter the nature or the extent, or the nature and extent, of the sentence, but not so as to enhance the same;

(c) in an appeal for enhancement of sentence-

(i) reverse the finding and sentence and acquit or discharge the accused or order him to be re-tried by a Court competent to try the offence, or

(ii) alter the finding maintaining the sentence, or

(iii) with or without altering the finding, alter the nature or the extent, or the nature and extent, of the sentence, so as to enhance or reduce the same;

(d) in an appeal from any other order, alter or reverse such order;

(e) make any amendment or any consequential or incidental order that may be just or proper;

Provided that the sentence shall not be enhanced unless the accused has had an opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement;

Provided further that the Appellate Court shall not inflict greater punishment for the offence which in its opinion the accused has committed, than might have been inflicted for that offence by the Court passing the order or sentence under appeal."

[47]. The Court has laid its hands on the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Hussain @ Julfikar Ali v. State of (Govt. of NCT of Delhi), (2012) 9 SCC 408, whereby Hon'ble Apex Court has held as under :

"41. 'Speedy trial' and 'fair trial' to a person accused of a crime are integral part of Article 21. There is, however, qualitative difference between the right to speedy trial and the accused's right of fair trial. Unlike the accused's right of fair trial, deprivation of the right to speedy trial does not per se prejudice the accused in defending himself. The right to speedy trial is in its very nature relative. It depends upon diverse circumstances. Each case of delay in conclusion of a criminal trial has to be seen in the facts and circumstances of such case. Mere lapse of several years since the commencement of prosecution by itself may not justify the discontinuance of prosecution or dismissal of indictment. The factors concerning the accused's right to speedy trial have to be weighed vis-à-vis the impact of the crime on society and the confidence of the people in judicial system. Speedy trial secures rights to an accused but it does not preclude the rights of public justice. The nature and gravity of crime, persons involved, social impact and societal needs must be weighed along with the right of an accused to speedy trial and if the balance tilts in favour of the former the long delay in conclusion of criminal trial should not operate against the continuation of prosecution and if the right of accused in the facts and circumstances of the case and exigencies of situation tilts the balance in his favour, the prosecution may be brought to an end. These principles must apply as well when the appeal court is confronted with the question whether or not retrial of an accused should be ordered.

42. The appellate court hearing a criminal appeal from a judgment of conviction has power to order the retrial of the accused under Section 386 of the Code. That is clear from the bare language of Section 386(b). Though such power exists, it should not be exercised in a routine manner. A 'de novo trial' or retrial is not the second trial; it is continuation of the same trial and same prosecution. The guiding factor for retrial must always be demand of justice. Obviously, the exercise of power of retrial under Section 386(b) of the Code, will depend on the facts and circumstances of each case for which no strait jacket formula can be formulated but the appeal court must closely keep in view that while protecting the right of an accused to fair trial and due process, the people who seek protection of law do not lose hope in legal system and the interests of the society are not altogether overlooked."

[48]. In yet another judgment of Ajay Kumar Ghoshal and others vs. State of Bihar and others, (2017) 12 SCC 699, wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court has observed thus :

"(i): Though the word "retrial" is used under Section 386(b)(i) Cr.P.C., the powers conferred by this clause is to be exercised only in exceptional cases, where the appellate court is satisfied that the omission or irregularity has occasioned in failure of justice.

(ii) The circumstances that should exist for warranting a retrial must be such that where the trial was undertaken by the Court having no jurisdiction, or trial was vitiated by serious illegality or irregularity on account of the misconception of nature of proceedings.

(iii) An order for retrial may be passed in cases where the original trial has not been satisfactory for some particular reasons such as wrong admission or wrong rejection of evidences or the Court refused to hear certain witnesses who were supposed to be heard."

[49]. Evaluating and assessing the present controversy in its entirety where the respective trial courts supposedly have framed the charge under the dictate and command of Hon'ble Apex Court's judgment in the case of Rajbir alias Raju and another vs. State of Haryana, (2010) 15 SCC 116, whereby the Hon'ble Apex Court has circulated the judgment to all the courts throughout the country. As mentioned earlier, in the small judgment running in only seven paragraphs there is no reasoning for giving a direction, but it seems that it was an emotional cry which was later on clarified by yet another judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in Jasvinder Saini's case (supra), but the learned Trial Judges in State of U.P. keep on fastening the alternative charge by way of adding Section 302 I.P.C., unmindful of the fact that whether sufficient material was collected during investigation or not for prima facie justifying the adding of alternative charge of Section 302 I.P.C.

Secondly, fastening of the provisions of Section 106 of Evidence Act indiscreetly just to condemn and convict the husband and his relatives with the aid and help of aforesaid provisions of law which is in stark contrast with the recent judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in Balvir Singh's case (supra).

[50]. Therefore, we are of the considered opinion that these are the apt cases where retrial could be ordered as the same has occurred after serious legal flaw and irregularity on account of the misconception of nature of proceedings. Accordingly, let the record of these cases be remitted back by the Registry of this Court within next 15 days to the concerned Sessions Courts for re-trial after recasting the "charges" framed against the accused-appellants strictly in accordance with the ratio laid down in the cases of Jasvinder Saini and others vs. State (Government of NCT of Delhi), (2013) 7 SCC 256 and (ii) Vijay Pal Singh and others vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2014) 15 SCC 163, after holding a day to day trial and conclude the same by 31st December, 2024 without granting any unreasonable adjournment to either of the parties. This Court would appreciate if the concerned learned Trial Judges would fix 2-3 days in a week to conclude the trial.

[51]. Since we are remitting the matter back for retrial, it is desirable that all the appellants, namely, Rammilan Bunkar, Prem Chandra, Meena Srivastava, Amit Srivastava @ Ashu, Shiv Kumar, Jamuna Devi and Shankar Lal shall be released on bail, who have been convicted and sentenced in aforesaid sessions trials, on their furnishing a personal bond and two heavy sureties (out of which one should be their close relative) each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court concerned, with an undertaking to the concerned court that they would not seek any adjournment whatsoever and cooperate with the trial.

The fine amount awarded by the concerned trial courts under the impugned judgments shall remain stayed subject to final decision of the case after having full-dressed re-trial of the case as ordered earlier.

[52]. Registrar (compliance) of this Court shall forthwith communicate this order to the concerned trial courts who have passed the impugned judgment and orders. The original records of the cases received from the respective sessions divisions be also returned back.

[53]. Let the copy of this Judgment be circulated to all the Sessions Divisions by the Registrar General of this Court at the earliest, so that they must frame the charge and hold the trial strictly in accordance with the ratio laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in Jasvinder Saini and others vs. State (Government of NCT of Delhi), (2013) 7 SCC 256 and (ii) Vijay Pal Singh and others vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2014) 15 SCC 163.

[54]. In addition to above, let a copy of the judgment be placed before the Director General of Police, Lucknow by the Registrar General of this Court, so that suitable direction may be given to his subordinates, that in every case of Dowry related deaths, the I.O. of the case shall hold wide spectrum of investigation to examine and collecting the material during investigation so as to justify his report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C. as to whether such unnatural death of the lady falls within the ambit of Section 302 I.P.C. or it is a plain and simple Dowry Death punishable u/s 304B I.P.C. or it is a case of suicide punishable u/s 306 I.P.C. where the woman died on account of any abetment by her husband or in-laws.

The I.O. of the case must specify in its report u/s 173(2) Cr.P.C. about the material collected by him during wide spectrum investigation against the accused persons that the said unnatural death of the lady falls within the realm of Section 302 I.P.C. or falls within the ambit of Section 304B I.P.C. or comes within the scope of Section 306 I.P.C.

[55]. Last but not the least, we sought help from Shri Rajiv Lochan Shukla, learned Amicus Curiae as well as Shri Ghanshyam Kumar, A.G.A.-I and Shri Satendra Tewari, learned A.G.A., who rendered their valuable argument after doing lots of research work. The Court records its word of appreciation to all the Advocates, who assisted the Court in reaching to its logical conclusion.

[56]. The aforesaid appeals are partly allowed to the above extent.

(2024) 5 ILRA 227
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2590 of 2017

Gaurav Yadav @ Phadka ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Govind Saran Hajela

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Section-376-The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Section 3(2)(v)-Criminal appeal against the judgment and order of conviction and sentence of life imprisonment-Victim is minor girl of five years, who has suffered brutally sexual assault-Victim specifically recognized the accused appellant as being the person who committed sexual assault on her-The police took photographs of various persons and all such photographs were shown to minor who identified the accused-process of identification cannot be said to be doubtful-Investigating Officer collected bloodstained underwear of victim on which semen was also found-If St.ment of rape victim inspires confidence and is found trustworthy and reliable no further corroboration is required-No evidence on record to even remotely suggest that the offence has been committed by the accused appellant upon the victim on account of her caste identity, therefore conviction and sentence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act is reversed-sentence of 14 years rigorous imprisonment would adequately serve the purpose.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ganga singh Vs St. of M. P. (2013) 7 SCC 278

2. Patan Jamal Vali Vs The St. of Andhra Pradesh, reported in (2021) 16 SCC 225

3. Gopal Rana Vs St. of U.P. being Criminal Appeal No.6934 of 2010

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. This appeal is by the accused appellant Gaurav Yadav @ Phadka challenging the judgment and order of conviction and sentence, dated 11.04.2017, passed by the Special Judge, Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, Agra in Special Session Trial No. 44 of 2011 (State vs. Gaurav Yadav @ Phadka) arising out of Case Crime No. 94 of 2011, Police Station Chhatta, District Agra, whereby he has been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment under section 376 IPC read with section 3(2)(V) of Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act with fine of Rs.10,000/- and in default of fine he is to undergo six months' additional imprisonment.

2. The prosecution case proceeds on a written report (Ex.Ka.1) given by the informant Bhagwan Das (PW-1), scribed by Deepak Khare, stating that on 3/4.5.2011 at about 10.00 pm the informant was sleeping outside his house alongwith his wife (PW-4) and 8 years old daughter (victim). The informant's wife woke up at about 02.00 in the night and found that her daughter was lying next her in a pool of blood. She (PW-2) screamed as a result of which informant and other family members woke up and rushed to the victim, who informed that a person took her while she was sleeping and subjected her to sexual assault and thereafter assaulted her with brickbat, so as to kill her and thinking that victim has died left her alone. Somehow the victim returned and lay next to her mother. The victim thereafter fainted. The victim was taken to emergency wing for treatment after informing the police. Her operation and treatment was going on when request was made to take appropriate action on the report.

3. On the basis of aforesaid written report First Information Report (Ex.Ka.7) got registered as Case Crime No.94 of 2011, under Sections 376, 307 IPC, Police Station Chhatta, District Agra on 04.05.2011 at 02.00 am. Investigation commenced in the matter. Recovery of bloodstain and plain earth was made from the spot vide Ex.Ka.2. Recovery of underwear of victim was also made vide Ex.Ka.3.

4. The victim was medically examined on 04.05.2011 at 04.20 am by the Medical Officer of Women Hospital wherein following condition of victim has been noticed:-

"For external injury referred to ED, SNMC, Agra for medico-legal examination if it has not been done and for admission and management.

G.C.- POOR, Breast not developed.

Internal Examination- Examination done under anaesthesia given by Dr. S. P. Singh. Pubic and axillary hair absent. Hymen torn. Fresh bleeding present. Swelling present. Tenderness present. Hymen and perineal tear present at 5 o'clock and 7 o'clock position including the vaginal mucosa, muscle and skin up to the anus. It is about 3x3cm and about 1 cm deep. 1 abrasion present at 6 o'clock position. Vaginal smear taken on glass slide and sent for examination for spermatozoa. For age she is referred to CMO, District Agra."

5. The letter by which the victim was referred for treatment to the hospital is Ex.Ka.5. Vaginal smear was also taken and sent for pathological examination vide Ex.Ka.6. Pathological report is also on record wherein no spermatozoa was seen. Supplementary report of the victim is also on record as per which the injury on the victim was caused by hard and blunt object. The age of victim was determined as about 5 years.

6. The recovered articles were sent for scientific analysis to the Forensic Science Laboratory vide Ex.Ka.13. As per the report of FSL human blood was found on the recovered articles and semen was also found on the underwear of the victim.

7. The victim on account of traumatic experience suffered by her was not able to explain the incident or specify the name of accused. The Investigating Officer took photograph of three suspected accused and shown them to the victim who immediately identified the accused as being the perpetrator of crime. The victim identified the accused as Gaurav Uncle (appellant). Statement of victim (Ex.Ka.14) was also recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. wherein she identified the accused appellant as being the person who had committed sexual assault on her.

8. On the basis of evidence collected during the course of investigation charge sheet came to be submitted against the accused appellant under Sections 376, 307 IPC read with section 3(2)(V) SC/ST Act. The concerned Special Judge SC/ST Act took cognizance and framed charges against the accused appellant under aforesaid sections on 16.08.2011. The charges were explained to the accused appellant, who denied the same and demanded trial. Trial commended accordingly.

9. The informant (father of victim) has appeared as PW-1 and has fully supported the prosecution case. He has explained that on coming to know of the incident he rushed his daughter and admitted her in emergency wing where she was operated and regained her consciousness. She disclosed the name of accused as Gaurav Yadav. PW-1 has proved the written report. PW-1 has disclosed that he is Dhobi by caste and thus belongs to scheduled caste. In the cross-examination, PW-1 has stated that house of accused Gaurav Yadav is around 20-25 paces from his house. He had normal relations with him till the incident. They used to visit each other on social occasions. He woke up in the night hearing his wife's cries. Victim's face was crushed and she was bleeding. The Investigating Officer had asked all relatives to leave and inform him about the identify of accused, as is disclosed by victim. Victim tried to tell something but she was not clear and the Investigating Officer could not follow her initially. After 2-3 days of the incident the victim could disclose the name of accused. Three photographs were shown to the victim out of which the victim identified the accused appellant. PW-1 has admitted that in the FIR name of accused is not specified since it was not known to him as to who has committed the offence.

10. PW-2 is Satish, who is the neighbour of PW-1. In his testimony, he has stated that at around 02.00 in the night he heard screams of PW-1. On coming he found that the victim was lying in pool of blood and calling the name of Gaurav and later she fainted. They found bloodstains near the hand-pump close to Tara Niwas. Victim's underwear was also lying there. In the cross-examination, PW-2 has stated that there is a gap of only one house between the house of informant and his own house. His signatures were obtained by the Investigating Officer on various papers. His statement was recorded by police on the next morning. He was with the informant when the victim was taken to the hopsital.

11. The victim has been produced as PW-3, who has identified the accused as being Gaurav Yadav. He lives in her neighbourhood. She has specifically disclosed that accused took her in the night and when she resisted and asked the accused to leave her the accused gagged her mouth.

She called accused as uncle since he lives in the neighbourhood. Accused had taken the victim to the corner of house of Babuji and caused injuries by brickbat and committed sexual assault upon the victim. She later returned on her own. In the cross-examination, she disclosed that her mother memorized her to speak clearly and state that the accused Gaurav had committed rape on her. She was also told to identify and recognize the accused appellant. She alleged that when accused assaulted her with brickbat she screamed but none came to her rescue. She had not woken up her parents. She disclosed the name of accused to her mother in the hospital. Her father had shown the photograph of accused and told her to recognize accused as being Gaurav Yadav. At the time when Investigating Officer enquired from the victim about the identity of accused her grandfather, and grandmother and father were present. She was specifically told that on the asking she must disclose the name of Gaurav as being the person who committed rape on her. Her grandmother and father also told her to take the name of Gaurav Yadav. She has denied the suggestion that on the asking of family members she has falsely implicated the accused. She has proved her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C.

12. The mother of victim has been produced as PW-4. She has stated that her daughter was sleeping next to her and when she touched her at around 02.00 pm she found her wet and felt cold. She woke up and switched on the light and found blood on the head of victim. The victim was semi-conscious and saying "Gau Gau". She was actually referring to accused. The accused was identified by the victim from hi photograph. Photograph was shown of 4-5 persons to the victim but she identified accused Gaurav. She has denied the suggestion that on the instigation of corporator Deepak Khare she has falsely implicated the accused Gaurav.

13. PW-5 is Dr. Chhaya Upadhyaya, who has proved the injury report and other medical papers of victim. She was examined under anaesthesia and her hymen was torned and fresh bleeding was present. Swelling and tenderness was also present. Hymen was torned in the position of 5 o'clock and 7 o'clock. There was tear stretch from vagina mucosa upto anus. She has stated that injuries on the victim could have been caused by hard and blunt object. As per the doctor these injuries could have come from male organ. In the cross-examination, PW-5 has stated that injuries on private parts could have been caused by blunt object also apart from male organ. She denied the suggestion that such injuries could not be caused by male organ.

14. PW-6 is Ram Sewak Verma, who was posted as Sub Inspector at the police station and was the Investigating Officer of the case. He has proved the document of recovery. He had recorded the statement of victim in the hospital on 06.05.2011. No permission was taken from doctor to record her statement. The victim was not in a condition to speak on 04.05.2011. SHO Rakesh Kumar was with him when he visited the victim. The accused was identified by the victim from photograph. Photograph of accused was given by victim's mother. On 06.05.2011 the victim took the name of accused and has also identified the accused. He has also proved the arrest of accused appellant on 06.05.2011.

15. PW-7 is S. I. Indrapal Singh, who has proved the G.D. entries. PW-8 (Ravindra Kumar Singh) was posted as Circle Officer and conducted the investigation in the matter from 09.11.2011 onwards since allegation was also made under SC/ST Act. He has proved the charge-sheet. He, however, has not recorded the statement of witnesses.

16. Upendra Singh has been produced as Court Witness, who is the Principal of school where Gaurav Yadav studied. He has stated that accused's date of birth was 30.06.1995. He was admitted in the school on 05.07.1999. Accused passed 5th class on 07.05.2004. His name is mentioned in the scholar's register. In the cross-examination, CW-1 has admitted that there are cuttings in the date of birth. Transfer certificate was issued on 27.05.2015.

17. On the basis of evidence led in the matter the statement of accused appellant has been recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. wherein he has denied the accusations made against him. He has stated that the investigation is false and witnesses have made false statement against him. He has been falsely implicated due to enmity. In reply to question no.14 he has stated that he had differences with the local politician Deepak Khare, who had illicit relations with the victim's mother and that is why he has been falsely implicated in the matter.

18. The defence has also produced Kanta Yadav as DW-1, who has alleged that only on the basis of suspicion the accused appellant had been apprehended and later released by the police. He has stated that the accused appellant is innocent and has been falsely implicated and that the accused is a tempo driver and is a man of good character. He has no criminal antecedents. He has further stated that near the place of occurrence there is famous Pt. Tea shop and since transporters have their offices located nearby it remains open till 1-2 in the night. Truck drivers and conductors come to the tea shop to have tea. He has alleged that no incident was reported in the night. It was after 4-5 days that the accused appellant has been implicated under Section 376 IPC. In the cross-examination, DW-1 has admitted that she has been brought by the mother of accused and he has good relations with the family members of accused Gaurav.

19. Manish Bhardwaj has been produced as DW-2. Accused appellant and his father both are auto drivers with clean antecedents. The concerned police station had interrogated 13-14 persons including father of accused appellant and later accused was apprehended. There are offices of transporters where accused appellant lives. 40-50 persons, engaged as labourers, keep moving in the area as they work for the transporters.

20. On the basis of evidence so led in the matter the trial court has found the complicity of accused appellant to be established beyond reasonable doubt and consequently, the accused appellant has been convicted and sentenced vide impugned judgment and order of conviction and sentence.

21. Ms. Zia Naz Zaidi, learned counsel for the accused appellant submits that accused appellant has been falsely implicated in the present case; evidence on record has not been carefully scrutinized by the trial court; the accused appellant has been implicated merely on the strength of suspicion and on account of enmity with the scribe; victim in the facts of the present case was tutored as is clearly reflected from her testimony; the manner in which incident is said to have occurred is wholly improbable, inasmuch as in a densely populated area the victim was thrashed with bricks and she raised an alarm but none heard her screams. This is highly improbable that no one would respond or come to the rescue of victim in such densely populated area. The fact that the victim came back on her own, did not wake up her mother and slept next to her mother is most unnatural. It is also submitted that the accused appellant in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. has stated that he has been falsely implicated on account of enmity with the scribe. Learned counsel with reference to offence under Section 3(2)(V) SC/ST Act submits that there is no evidence on record to show that offence of rape upon the victim has been committed on account of her caste identity and, therefore, accused appellant's conviction under SC/ST Act is wholly without any evidence.

22. Shri R. P. Rajan, learned Amicus Curiae for the informant and Shri G. P. Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State have strongly opposed the appeal on the ground that the victim is five years old minor girl, who has been brutally assaulted and the nature of injuries caused to her has to be viewed with utmost disdain. It is argued that the victim had to suffer injuries beyond imagination at such young age which has virtually ruined her life and, therefore, the accused appellant deserves extreme punishment.

23. We have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material brought on record, including the original records of the trial court.

24. Five year old minor has been subjected to brutal sexual assault in this case while she was sleeping next to her parents. The incident has occurred at about 02.00 in the night. In sleep the mother touched the victim lying next to her and felt wet. She got up and switched on the light to find that victim had sustained injuries on her head and was bleeding both from her head and also from her private parts. The incident has been promptly reported to the police at about 02.30 in the night. At 02.30 itself a reference letter was prepared for the victim to be sent to the hospital. The victim has been medically examined and is found to have serious injuries on her private parts. There was tear stretch from vagina mucosa upto victim's anus. The victim had to be operated upon by the doctors. The doctor who has examined the victim has been produced as PW-5. She has fully supported the prosecution case with regard to sexual assault on the victim. Although the doctor has stated that injuries could have been caused by hard and blunt object but she has also categorically stated that such injuries on the victim could have been caused by male organ. Although it is faintly suggested that the incident could have occurred as a result of accident but we are not impressed by such argument. The injury report shows no injuries on the outer private parts of the victim. It would be difficult to conceive that an accidental injury could be caused torning hymen; fresh bleeding; hymen and perineal tear present at 5 o'clock and 7 o'clock position including vaginal mucosa, muscle and skin up to the anus of size of 3x3cm and 1 cm deep, without any visible marks of injury on the outer parts of victim's private region. The medical opinion clearly suggests that the injury could be caused by male organ. The plea of injury being accidentally caused is thus rejected. Semen was also found on the victim's underwear. The evidence on record, therefore, clearly indicates it to be a case of sexual assault on the minor.

25. In the facts of the case, the witnesses have also claimed that the victim was assaulted by brickbat and that she sustained multiple injuries on head and she fainted on account of it. The accused appellant has been charge-sheeted also under section 307 IPC since the prosecution case is that the accused having committed offence of sexual assault on the minor victim also caused her injuries by brickbat so that she may not depose against the accused. As per the prosecution case the accused left her under the belief that victim has died. The prosecution witnesses are consistent on this count. The medical evidence in this regard, however, is absolutely lacking. There is nothing on record to show that any injuries were sustained by the victim on her face or head/scalp. Although prosecution witnesses have alleged that on account of such injuries caused on her head the victim suffered great pain but the medical report is conspicuously silent on this count. There is no reason why other injuries on the victim would not be noticed by the doctor or indicated in any of the reports. It is for this reason that the accused appellant has been acquitted under Section 307 IPC. This part of the prosecution case has been disbelieved by the trial court and we find no reason to doubt the conclusions drawn by the trial judge.

26. The thrust of submission of Ms. Zaidi on behalf of accused appellant is that the accused appellant has been falsely implicated and it is on the instigation of the family members that she had identified the accused appellant. This argument on behalf of appellant is based on the testimony of victim, who has admitted that her mother had told her to speak clearly and disclose in the court that the accused Gaurav committed the offence with her. She was also told to identify the accused appellant when he appears in the dock. The accused appellant was also got identified by the parents of the victim. She has also stated that her parents have told her to take the name of accused Gaurav as being the person who committed sexual assault on her.

27. In the facts of the case, we find that the victim is minor girl of five years, who has suffered brutally sexual assault. The tear of her private part extended right upto her anus. She was not only hospitalized but the witnesses have testified that she had to be operated. In such extreme sufferings of minor child some support of the family members would be natural and obvious. Though it is settled that a minor child may be prone to tutoring but that in itself may not be decisive in the facts of the present case.

28. We have carefully examined the testimony of victim and it is apparent that she has disclosed in detail about the incident suffered by her. From the questions posed to her the Court has recorded its satisfaction that the victim is capable of understanding the answers given by her. At the relevant time when she was produced in court she was studying in class 1st. She has been honest in acknowledging the assistance that she got from her family members in making her version clear and categorical to the court. She has, however, specifically recognized the accused appellant as being the person who committed sexual assault on her. She has denied the suggestion that it was someone else who had done such heinous act on her. She has also denied the suggestion that under family pressures she has implicated the accused appellant. The victim has also proved her statement recorded before the Magistrate under Section 164 Cr.P.C. wherein also she has specifically implicated the accused appellant.

29. The prosecution has also explained the manner in which the identity of accused appellant came to be established during the course of investigation. Though the victim took the name as 'Gau Gau' when she regained consciousness but complete identity of accused could not be ascertained then. The police took photographs of various persons and all such photographs were shown to minor who identified the accused appellant. This is specifically recorded by the Investigating Officer in the case diary and explained in the testimony of Investigating Officer during trial. The process of identification cannot be said to be doubtful when we examine the age of victim and the extreme brutality which she has suffered. The trial court has ensured the competence of the PW-3 (the child victim) to depose before the court. She has clearly deposed that the accused appellant has committed sexual assault upon her. This fact finds support from the medical evidence on record. Parents of the victim as also the neighbours have supported the version of victim as per which she sustained injuries and was found bleeding from her private parts. The Investigating Officer during investigation collected bloodstained underwear of victim on which semen was also found. The bloodstained underwear has also been produced in court as material exhibit. We otherwise find that there is no specific reason furnished by the accused appellant for falsely implicating him in the matter. Though it is suggested that he had inimical relations with the scribe, but apart from saying so in his statement under section 313 Cr.P.C. no other credible evidence has been led in that regard. The defence witnesses although have suggested enmity but no reasons of such differences or enmity with the scribe have been furnished.

30. Taking into consideration the totality of circumstances we are not inclined to accept the argument on behalf of appellant that since the the victim has stated that her parents had told her to take name of the accused appellant or identify him in court would lessen the evidentiary value of prosecution evidence. The place of occurrence as well as presence of witnesses in night are not questioned. It is otherwise settled that the evidence of rape victim stands at par with the testimony of injured witness. The accused appellant otherwise lives close-by and his presence at the place of occurrence cannot be easily doubted.

31. It is also settled that if statement of rape victim inspires confidence and is found trustworthy and reliable no further corroboration is required. In the case of Ganga singh vs. State of Madhya Pradesh (2013) 7 SCC 278 the Supreme Court held that the victim of rape has to be given same weight as is given to injured witness and her testimony needs no corroboration. The prompt lodging of FIR; reference of victim to the hospital at 02.30 in the night; her medical examination soon thereafter by the doctor clearly persuades the Court not to doubt the veracity of prosecution case.

32. From the analysis of testimony of prosecution witnesses it is clear that the prosecution on the strength of evidence led by it has successfully established its case beyond reasonable doubts against the accused appellant. The medical evidence also corroborates oral testimony of victim. There is also no serious discrepancies in the testimony of PW-3 (victim) which may effect her reliability. In such circumstances, there is no reason to disbelieve the victim. The trial court has analysed the evidence on record in proper manner and has recorded the finding of guilt of accused appellant. The finding of trial court is, therefore, not shown to have suffered from any illegality or perversity. Consequently, the conviction of accused appellant under Section 376 IPC is sustained.

33. So far as the conviction and sentence of accused appellant under Section 3(2)(V) of SC/ST Act is concerned, we find that none of the witnesses have anywhere alleged that the offence of rape was committed upon the victim on account of her caste identity. Except to state that the victim belongs to scheduled caste, there is absolutely no evidence on record to even remotely suggest that the offence has been committed by the accused appellant upon the victim on account of her caste identity.

34. In what manner an offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act can be established has been dealt with extensively by the Supreme Court in Patan Jamal Vali Vs. The State of Andhra Pradesh, reported in (2021) 16 SCC 225. In para 62 to 64 of the report, the Supreme Court has clearly laid down that the prosecution must prove that the offence was committed on account of caste identity by the accused appellant. The observations of the Court are reproduced hereinafter:-

"62. The issue as to whether the offence was committed against a person on the ground that such person is a member of an SC or ST or such property belongs to such member is to be established by the prosecution on the basis of the evidence at the trial. We agree with the Sessions Judge that the prosecution's case would not fail merely because PW 1 did not mention in her statement to the police that the offence was committed against her daughter because she was a Scheduled Caste woman. However, there is no separate evidence led by the prosecution to show that the accused committed the offence on the basis of the caste identity of PW 2. While it would be reasonable to presume that the accused knew the caste of PW 2 since village communities are tightly knit and the accused was also an acquaintance of PW 2's family, the knowledge by itself cannot be said to be the basis of the commission of offence, having regard to the language of Section 3(2)(v) as it stood at the time when the offence in the present case was committed. As we have discussed above, due to the intersectional nature of oppression PW 2 faces, it becomes difficult to establish what led to the commission of offence — whether it was her caste, gender or disability. This highlights the limitation of a provision where causation of a wrongful act arises from a single ground or what we refer to as the single axis model.

63. It is pertinent to mention that Section 3(2)(v) was amended by the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015, which came into effect on 26-1-2016. The words "on the ground of" under Section 3(2)(v) have been substituted with "knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe". This has decreased the threshold of proving that a crime was committed on the basis of the caste identity to a threshold where mere knowledge is sufficient to sustain a conviction. Section 8 which deals with presumptions as to offences was also amended to include clause (c) to provide that if the accused was acquainted with the victim or his family, the court shall presume that the accused was aware of the caste or tribal identity of the victim unless proved otherwise. The amended Section 8 reads as follows:

"8. Presumption as to offences.— In a prosecution for an offence under this Chapter, if it is proved that—

(a) the accused rendered any financial assistance in relation to the offences committed by a person accused of, or reasonably suspected of, committing, an offence under this Chapter, the Special Court shall presume, unless the contrary is proved, that such person had abetted the offence;

(b) a group of persons committed an offence under this Chapter and if it is proved that the offence committed was a sequel to any existing dispute regarding land or any other matter, it shall be presumed that the offence was committed in furtherance of the common intention or in prosecution of the common object.

(c) the accused was having personal knowledge of the victim or his family, the Court shall presume that the accused was aware of the caste or tribal identity of the victim, unless the contrary is proved."

64. The Parliament Standing Committee Report on Atrocities Against Women and Children has observed that, "high acquittal rate motivates and boosts the confidence of dominant and powerful communities for continued perpetration" and recommends inclusion of provisions of the SC & ST Act while registering cases of gendered violence against women from the SC & ST communities. However, as we have noted, one of the ways in which offences against SC & ST women fall through the cracks is due to the evidentiary burden that becomes almost impossible to meet in cases of intersectional oppression. This is especially the case when courts tend to read the requirement of "on the ground" under Section 3(2)(v) as "only on the ground of". The current regime under the SC & ST Act, post the amendment, has facilitated the conduct of an intersectional analysis under the Act by replacing the causation requirement under Section 3(2)(v) of the Act with a knowledge requirement making the regime sensitive to the kind of evidence that is likely to be generated in cases such as these."

35. There is no evidence on record to show that the offence of rape was committed by the accused appellant on account of the caste identity of the victim. In the absence of any evidence in that regard, we are persuaded to accept the appellant's contention that the offence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act is not established against the accused appellant. The conviction and sentence of the accused appellant under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act is, therefore, reversed and he has been acquitted in this offence.

36. Coming to the question of quantum of punishment under Section 376 IPC, learned counsel for the appellant submits that at the time when the incident occurred the minimum punishment for the offence under Section 376 IPC was 10 years and maximum punishment was life. Learned counsel has produced custody certificate of accused appellant as per which the actual custody undergone by him is 12 years 8 months 29 days as on 05.02.2024. Together with remission the period of incarceration is nearly 15 years as on date, which is above the minimum period of punishment prescribed for the offence of rape on a victim below 12 years of age. The accused appellant was around 25 years of age when his statement was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. on 19.09.2016 and he was around 18-19 years at the time of incident. Argument is that considering the period of incarceration undergone by the accused appellant and the offence committed by him, his sentence be modified to the sentence already undergone by him.

37. Learned A.G.A. for the State, on the other hand, submits that in the facts of the case the accused appellant has committed heinous crime inasmuch as the victim has been subjected to brutal sexual assault on account of which she had to suffer immense pain and suffering. It is, therefore, submitted that the punishment of life imposed by the trial court is adequate and requires no interference.

38. Learned counsel for the appellant, in reply, submits that the accused appellant was only around 18-19 years of age at the time when incident occurred. He was a auto rickshaw driver and has no criminal antecedents. The mother of accused appellant is a vegetable seller and is extremely poor lady. Apart from the appellant there is no other earning member in the family. It is also submitted that though offence is serious for which the accused appellant has to be adequately punished, yet, the Court may also show leniency on account of abject poverty faced by the accused appellant as also his age at the time of incident. Learned counsel for the appellant has placed reliance upon a judgment of this Court in the case of Gopal Rana vs. State of U.P. being Criminal Appeal No.6934 of 2010 wherein the Court observed as under in paragraph nos.29 and 30:-

29. Reliance is also place upon a Division Bench judgment of this Court in Criminal Appeal No. 2433 of 2008 (Munawwar Vs. State of U.P.), wherein this court after sustaining the finding of guilt and consequently conviction of the accused appellant modified the sentence to the period actually undergone by the accused appellant. Reliance is also placed upon the judgments of Supreme Court in the cases of G.V. Siddaramesh v. State of Karnataka 2010 (3) SCC 152 and Hem Chand v. State of Haryana 1994 (6) SCC 727, wherein sentence of life awarded by the courts below was modified by the Supreme Court and reduced the sentence to the period already undergone of over 10 years. to sentence already undergone.

30. Having considered the facts of the present case as also the applicable judgments on the issu e as well as the nature of offence committed by the accused appellant and the sentence already undergone by him, we are of the considered view that in the facts of the case, the sentence awarded to the accused appellant be modified and that ends of justice will be served if the appellant be punished with period of sentence already undergone by him. The sentence awarded to the accused-appellant by the court below is modified to the above extent and the appeal is liable to be allowed, in part, to such extent.

39. Considering the above facts and circumstances, we are of the considered view that the accused appellant must be made to undergo punishment commensurate with the nature of guilt established against him. Considering the age of the accused appellant at the time of incident; his precarious financial position wherein his mother is a vegetable seller; there is no earning member in the family; accused is a first offender and possibility of his reformation cannot be ruled out, the sentence of 14 years rigorous imprisonment would adequately serve the purpose. Since the period of sentence undergone by the accused appellant with remission is nearly 15 years the life punishment imposed can be substituted with the sentenced already undergone by him under Section 376 IPC.

40. Consequently, the appeal succeeds and is allowed in part. The punishment of life imposed upon accused appellant under Section 376 IPC is modified with the sentence already undergone by him. The accused appellant is reported to be in jail, he shall be released forthwith, unless is wanted in any other case, subject to compliance of Section 437A Cr.P.C.

(2024) 5 ILRA 238
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2759 of 2020

Pramod Pandey & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
Kamlesh Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Avanindra Kumar Mishra, G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-323, 504 & 506- The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Section 3(1)(x) - The Code of Criminal Procedure,1973-Section 227, 228 & 245(2)- The trial court is to pass an order either under Section 227 or under Section 228 Cr.P.c., the trial court is not required to pass two orders under the above two sections, i.e. firstly giving reasons for not discharging the accused and followed by another order relating to the framing of charges-The application moved by the appellants under Section 245(2) Cr.P.C. was not at all maintainable particularly, when the order issuing process against the accused-appellants in the complaint was never assailed by Appellants-For the purposes of framing of charges against the accused suspicion alone relating to alleged commission of offence is enough.

Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

St. of Bihar Vs Ramesh Singh (1977) 4 Supreme Court Cases 39

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Bajaj, J.)

1. Appellants-Accused have filed this appeal under Section 14A(1) Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 for setting aside the impugned order dated 21.9.2019 passed by the Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Deoria in Sessions Trial No. 50 of 2016; titled Raj Bahadur Chamar vs. Pramod Pandey, arising out of Case Crime No. 99 of 2012, under Sections 323, 504, 506 IPC and 3(1)X Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station Lar, District Deoria, whereby their application under Section 245(2) Cr.P.C. for discharge has been dismissed.

2. The facts in brief leading to the appeal are that the opposite party no. 2-Raj Bahadur Chamar filed an application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. dated 1st December, 2011 before the Judicial Magistrate, Deoria for registration of FIR and investigation, whereupon vide order dated 8th February, 2012, a direction was issued and a Case Crime No. 99 of 2012 was registered against the accused persons (appellants) under sections 376, 511, 452, 504, 506 IPC and Section 3(1)X Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, at Police Station Lar, District Deoria. As per the allegations, on 29th March, 2011, when the complainant left his house around 10:00 am for work in his agricultural fields, his wife Usha Devi was alone at home. The co-villagers of the complainant namely Pramod Pandey and Sandeep entered his house with an intention to do wrong act with his wife, and they gagged her mouth and attempted to undress her, but his wife shouted and gave them kick and fist blows, whereupon the accused fled away. Pursuant to the information given to the Police Station Lar, the place of occurrence was visited by the police officially.

3. On 1st April, 2011 at around 5:30 pm, Pramod Pandey, Ashok Pandey both sons of Indrasan Pandey, Vinit @ Ankur Pandey s/o Pramod Pandey, Sandeep Pandey, Mukesh both sons of Ramesh Pandey, Anil s/o Jagarnath Pandey and Rupesh s/o Umesh Pandey entered the house of the complainant and started giving kicks, fists and sticks blows to his wife Usha Devi, and when the complainant intervened to save her, he too was given beatings. The complainant and his wife got themselves medically examined at Primary Health Centre, Lar, and also gave information to S.H.O. for registration of the case, but no action was taken upon his complaint, so, he filed the application.

4. After registration of the case, the investigation was carried out and upon conclusion, a final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. dated 12th March, 2012 was submitted before the court of competent jurisdiction, thereby exonerating the accused persons.

5. Aggrieved against this final report, the complainant preferred a protest application dated 6th June, 2012 and the Judicial Magistrate, Deoria entertained the same as a complaint case to follow the procedure enshrined under Chapter XV Code of Criminal Procedure. Thereafter, the statement of the complainant was recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. on 12.1.2015, and further in support of his case, the complainant examined his wife Usha Devi (PW-1) and Lakshmina (PW-2).

6. During the pendency of the proceedings, the SC/ST Act was amended and by virtue of Section 14 SC/ST Act, the Special Court was empowered to directly take cognizance of such offence, therefore, the case was sent before the Special Court (SC/ST Act), Deoria. Upon examining the protest petition as well as pre-summoning evidence adduced by the complainant, the process against the accused was issued vide order dated 12.01.2017 by the Special Court, Deoria.

7. It seems that pursuant to the summoning order, the accused did not appear before the Special Court, Deoria and vide order dated 28th September, 2018, non-bailable warrants were issued against the accused to secure their presence. The said order was challenged by accused before this Court through application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. bearing No. 46289 of 2018; titled Mukesh Pandey and another vs. State of U.P. and another, wherein this Court vide order dated 21.12.2018 refused to interfere with the impugned order issuing non-bailable warrants, but granted liberty to the accused to move an application under Section 245(2) Cr.P.C. subject to their putting in appearance before the trial court within a period of two weeks. Further a direction was also issued that the said application be decided expeditiously. In compliance of the order dated 21.12.2018, the accused persons moved an application dated 22.1.2019 and prayed for discharge in the criminal case.

8. The Special Court (SC/ST) Act, Deoria vide order dated 21.09.2019 dismissed the said application and fixed the case for framing of charges against the accused persons. Hence this appeal.

9. Vide order dated 24.08.2020, this Court had issued the notice to the opposite parties, and they filed their respective counter affidavits dated 8.12.2020 and 4.1.2021 to contest the appeal.

10. The reply by the State of U.P. is formal in nature, wherein it is pleaded that the complainant had given a false complaint, which was thoroughly investigated, and since, nothing incriminating was found against the accused, therefore, the report exonerating the accused was submitted. Lastly, it is pleaded that the impugned order dated 21.09.2019 is a reasoned order, which does not suffer from any illegality and prayer has been made to dismiss the appeal.

11. The response by the complainant has denied the grounds raised by the appellants, who pleaded that the investigation in the case was not conducted properly and the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. was filed to favour the accused, and it compelled the complainant to move a protest petition, whereupon sufficient evidence has been adduced to prima facie show commission of the alleged offences, therefore, the trial court not only rightly issued the process against the accused, but justifiably dismissed the application for discharge vide impugned order dated 21.09.2019. In the end, it is prayed that the appeal be dismissed.

12. Learned counsel for the appellants has argued that the case filed by the complainant is without any foundation, but the trial court had erroneously summoned the accused by ignoring the fact that the allegations contained in the FIR by the complainant were thoroughly investigated, wherein the statements of various witnesses were recorded, but nothing incriminating was found against the accused, therefore, the police filed the final report in favour of the accused. Learned counsel has argued that the witnesses are closely related to the complainant, therefore, their evidence alone would not be sufficient to prosecute the appellants, particularly, when the allegations of beatings are not supported by any cogent evidence. He submits that as per the medical report dated 1st April, 2011, no external injury was found on the person of Usha Devi, whereas the injury allegedly suffered by Raj Bahadur are artificial. He submits that the medical evidence does not match with the ocular version given by the complainant, therefore, it is evident that the version of the complainant is false.

13. According to the learned counsel, the Special Court (SC/SC Act), Deoria has not appreciated the facts and circumstances of the case carefully while dismissing their application under Section 245(2) Cr.P.C. for discharge through the impugned order dated 21.9.2019, and the said order deserves to be set aside. He prays that the impugned order dated 21.9.2019 be set aside and the appellants be discharged.

14. The prayer is opposed by the learned counsel for the complainant-opposite party no. 2, who has argued that the material on record sufficiently makes out a case for initiating the trial proceedings against the accused persons, and the evidence of the complainant is also supported with the medical evidence. Learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 argued that at the stage of framing the charges, the trial court is required to find out, if, the evidence sought to be adduced by the prosecution makes out a prima facie case for commission of alleged offences, and if, it is so, the accused cannot be discharged. He submits that the trial court has given valid reasons while passing the impugned order, therefore, the said order does not call for any interference by this Court.

15. Learned counsel for the parties have been heard and with their assistance, the case file has been perused carefully.

16. Framing of charges against an accused marks commencement of criminal trial in respect of the alleged offences, and at this crucial stage, it is mandatory for the trial court to not only examine the record of the case relied upon by the prosecution, but also to afford an opportunity of hearing to the accused. Based upon the classification of offences, the penal offences are either triable before the Court of Sessions or the Magistrate and the procedure in this regard is contained in Chapter XVIII and Chapter XIX, respectively of the Code of Criminal Procedure. In a trial before the Sessions Court, the relevant provisions are Sections 227 and 228 Cr.P.C., whereas in respect of the magisterial trial, the relevant sections would be Sections 239 and 240 Cr.P.C. These sections deal with the trial based upon a police report, whereas the procedure based upon a complaint case is slightly different, if, the trial is before the Magistrate and the said procedure is contained in Sections 244 and 245 Cr.P.C. onwards.

17. At this juncture, it would be relevant to note that in a sessions trial, even if, the prosecution of accused is arising from a complaint case, after appearance of the accused before the Court of Sessions either after committal of the case or otherwise, the proceedings take place as a State case. On the contrary, if, the trial is before the Magistrate, the procedure is different, wherein after appearance of accused pre-charge evidence is recorded under Section 244 Cr.P.C., and thereafter, considering the same, either the accused is discharged under Section 245(1) Cr.P.C. or charges are framed under Section 246 Cr.P.C. Of course, as per Section 245(2), the Magistrate has power to discharge the accused at any previous stage also. Thus, it is evident that even if, the initial process against the accused was issued by the trial court (Sessions Court) on the basis of the complaint and pre-summoning evidence, but thereafter, from the stage of discharge of the accused or framing of charges, it becomes a State case as contemplated by sections 225 and 226 Cr.P.C., and the proceedings are opened by the public prosecutor. Since, the present case also contains an offence punishable under Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, which is triable by Special Court (Sessions Court), therefore, the Special Court is required to follow the procedure envisaged under Chapter XVIII Cr.P.C.

18. Here, this Court deems it appropriate to examine the relevant provisions pertaining to discharge and framing of charge and the sections 227 and 228 Cr.P.C. read as under:-

"Section 227. Discharge.- If, upon consideration of the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith, and after hearing the submissions of the accused and the prosecution in this behalf, the Judge considers that there is not sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused, he shall discharge the accused and record his reasons for so doing.

Section 228. Framing of Charge.- (1) If, after such consideration and hearing as aforesaid, the Judge is of opinion* that there is ground for presuming that the accused has committed an offence which-

(a) is not exclusively triable by the Court of Session, he may, frame a charge against the accused and, by order, transfer the case for trial to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, 1[or any other Judicial Magistrate of the first class and direct the accused to appear before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, or, as the case may be, the Judicial Magistrate of the first class, on such date as he deems fit, and thereupon such Magistrate] shall try the offence in accordance with the procedure for the trial of warrant-cases instituted on a police report;

(b) is exclusively triable by the Court, he shall frame in writing a charge against the accused.

(2) Where the Judge frames any charge under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the charge shall be read and explained to the accused and the accused shall be asked whether he pleads guilty of the offence charged or claims to be tried."

19. A bare reading of the above provisions would reveal that while entering in the exercise of discharge or framing of charges, the trial court is only required to consider the record of the case including the documents relied upon by the prosecution, and, if, sufficient grounds exist for proceeding against the accused, the charge in respect of the alleged offence(s) has to be framed. And if, the trial court is of the opinion that no sufficient ground exists for proceeding against the accused, it shall discharge the accused in terms of Section 227 Cr.P.C. At this stage, the participation of the accused is mandatory and the only exception to the general rule is contained in Section 317 Cr.P.C., when the trial court may conduct proceedings in the absence of the accused subject to fulfilling certain conditions contained in the said provision. It is trite law that at the stage of considering the material on record for the purposes of discharge or framing of charges, the proposed defence of the accused is not to be analyzed. As a result, it is absolutely clear that the trial court is to pass an order either under Section 227 Cr.P.C. or under Section 228 Cr.P.c. In other words, the trial court is not required to pass two orders under the above two sections, i.e. firstly giving reasons for not discharging the accused and followed by another order relating to the framing of charges.

20. Here, it will be useful to refer the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Bihar vs. Ramesh Singh1. The relevant observations by the Apex Court read as under:-

"4. Under section 226 of the Code while opening the case for the prosecution the Prosecutor has got to describe the charge against the accused and state by what evidence he proposes to prove the guilt of the accused. Thereafter comes at the initial stage the duty of the Court to consider the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith and to hear the submissions of the accused and the prosecution in that behalf. 'The Judge has to pass thereafter an order either under section 227 or section 228 of the Code. If "the Judge consider that there is not. sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused, he shall discharge the accused and record his reasons for so doing", as enjoined by section 227. If, on the other hand, "the Judge is of opinion that there, is ground for presuming. that the accused has committed an offence which-

. . . . . (b) is exclusively triable by the Court, he shall frame in writing a charge against the accused'-', as provided in section

228. Reading the two provisions together in juxta position, as they have got to be, it would be clear that at the beginning and the initial stage of the trial the truth, veracity and effect of the evidence which the Prosecutor proposes to adduce are not to be meticulously judged. .....xxx xxxxx....."

21. Notably, the Section 227 Cr.P.C. was inserted only in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, and no such provision existed in the old Code of 1898. The procedure provided under the old Code, relating to the committal proceedings under Section 207-A before the Magistrate used to be exhaustive, being in the nature of an enquiry, and it required recording of evidence of prosecution witnesses, as well as their cross-examination by defence. After completion of this procedure, the Magistrate would ascertain by recording satisfaction, if, the alleged offences triable by Sessions Court are worth committal for the trial or not. If, the Magistrate would commit the accused for trial before Sessions Court. But, in order to expedite the criminal proceedings against the accused, certain amendments were carried out thereby omitting Section 207-A to shorten the committal proceedings, by further introducing Section 227 Cr.P.C. for discharge.

22. Thus, in view of the above discussion, it emerges that at the stage of considering the prosecution case either for discharge of the accused or for framing charges, the court is to examine the material relied upon by prosecution alone, and since, the proposed defence of the accused cannot be considered, who is to be only afforded an opportunity of hearing, therefore, there is even no necessity to file an application for discharge by the accused.

23. Concededly, the case in hand relates to the offences which are triable by the Special Court (Sessions Court), therefore, the application moved by the appellants under Section 245(2) Cr.P.C. was not at all maintainable. No doubt, this Court had granted liberty to the accused to move such an application vide order dated 21.12.2018, but even then, the application by the appellants could not have been entertained on merits, particularly, when the order issuing process against the accused-appellants in the complaint was never assailed by them. That apart, the order dated 21.12.2018 granting liberty to the accused to move an application for discharge was conditional, who were required to comply with the pre condition by submitting themselves before the Special Court, Deoria in order to maintain their plea of discharge, but during the course of hearing, it is not disputed by the learned counsel for the appellants that the accused did not comply with the said condition, who were only represented by their counsel. Further, learned counsel fairly states that the accused are yet to put in appearance before the Special Court, Deoria. Since, nothing has been shown to this Court that the personal appearance of the accused was ever exempted, therefore, the application moved by the appellants ought to have been rejected straight away on multiple grounds of maintainability.

24. Now, while examining the case of the appellants on merits as well, this Court finds that even the application for discharge moved by the complainant contains reference to the medical reports of the injured couple, therefore, the ground for discharge with a pleading that the medical record does not match with the ocular version is erroneous at this stage. By now, it is well settled that at the stage of framing of charges, the trial court is not to sift and weigh the record of the case, for the purposes of building an opinion that it would lead to the conviction of the accused, as for the purposes of framing of charges against the accused suspicion alone relating to alleged commission of offence is enough.

25. Before parting with this judgment, this Court deems it necessary to observe that in many cases, such applications are filed by the accused before the trial courts and the such applications are decided by passing a separate order, which otherwise is incomplete in the absence of order framing charges, and the consolidated statutory exercise under sections 227 and 228 Cr.P.C. is split in two parts, thereby not only the trial courts are over burdened, but it also causes delay in conclusion of trial. Consequently, it is directed that the trial courts shall decide the prosecution case for the purposes of framing of charges by passing one common order, i.e either discharging the accused or framing charges against the accused by strictly complying with the statutory provisions contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure or any other applicable special statute.

26. Resultantly, in view of the above discussion, this Court has no hesitation in holding that the appeal is without any merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

27. Let a copy of this order be sent to all the District and Sessions Judges in the State of U.P. for further forwarding it to the Judicial Officers in their respective divisions.

(2024) 5 ILRA 244
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J.
THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2798 of 1988

Subedar ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Malik Sayeed Uddin, C.K. Jha, Dilip Kumar Kesharwani, Prem Prakash

Counsel for the Respondent:
A.G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-34, 302-Criminal appeal against judgment of conviction U/s 302/34 IPC- F.I.R. was registered by deceased himself in injured condition. He had clearly named Buddhu (since deceased) and appellant along with two other unknown persons as the assailants-No delay in reporting the matter to the police- Eye witness duly corroborated the version given in the F.I.R. that she had seen that accused- had fired upon her husband and appellant-Subedar along with two other persons gave him injuries with lathies-PW4 & PW6 who conducted the postmortem of the deceased also had St.d that injury was a firearm injury which was sufficient to cause death- Ocular version is duly corroborated by the medical evidence.

Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan, J.)

1. Present appeal is filed challenging the judgment of conviction dated 3.12.1988 vide which accused-Subedar and Buddhu were convicted for offence punishable under Section 302/34 of IPC and the order of sentence dated 5.12.1988, vide which they were sentenced to life imprisonment.

2. It is worth noticing that this Court vide judgment dated 6.4.2017 dismissed the appeal of appellant-Subedar noticing that appellant-Buddhu had died somewhere in the year 1999 and no one represented appellant-Subedar. The appeal was heard without affording opportunity of hearing to the appellant. Thereafter, appellant-Subedar filed SLP (Criminal) No.6684 of 2020 which was later on converted into Criminal Appeal No.886 of 2020 in which, noticing the fact that the appellant was not afforded opportunity, the case was remanded back to this Court by the Supreme Court with a direction to dispose of the appeal expeditiously.

3. Heard Sri Shravan Kumar Yadav, learned Amicus Curiae for the appellant and learned A.G.A. for the State-respondent.

4. With the assistance of learned counsel for the parties, the entire evidence is re-scrutinized and re-appreciated.

5. The facts as stated by the informant in the complaint given on 4.4.1987 are as under:

"In the night, I along with my wife-Roopdevi and children was sleeping in the house. At about 2.00 am, on hearing the voice of barking dog, I woke up and found that from the side of a broken door, 3-4 persons were standing. When in the light of the torch, I asked them, one Buddhu resident of Kasumara and Subedar resident of Murab were seen. They were carrying country made pistol. Buddhu fired upon me which hit on my stomach and other accused gave me lathi blows. On raising voice, my neighbour Rameshwar Singh and Kallu Singh came and on seeing them, these persons ran away by challenging me."

6. On the basis this complaint, Chik F.I.R. was registered by Head Moharrir-Israr Ali at Case Crime No.80, under Section 307 IPC at Police Station- Aonla, District-Bareilly on 04.04.1987 at 04.30 A.M. The chik report is Ex.Ka.7. On the basis of chik report, a case was registered at G.D. No.3 on 04.04.1987 against the accused. Copy of GD entry is Exhibit Ka-8.

7. The case was initially registered under Section 307 I.P.C. The injured was sent to Primary Health Centre at Aonla for treatment and medical examination. Dr. Raj Kumar P.W.4 M.O. examined the injuries of Vedpal Singh on 4.4.1987 at 5.45 A.M. and prepared his injury Ex.Ka.4 The doctor found the following injuries on the person of the injured:-

1. A gunshot wound 1 cm x 1 cm x cavity deep left side of chest 14 cm below left nipple. This wound is surrounded by gunshot burns in an area of 5 cm x 4 cm. This injury is kept under observation and x-ray advised.

2. Lacerated wound 1.5 cm x 0.1 cm x muscle deep left side forehead 5 cm above left eyebrow.

3. Contusion 1 cm x 1 cm on right side skull 6 cm above right ear.

4. No any other visible injury seen but only complaint of pain all over the body.

8. In the opinion of the doctor, Injury no.1, could be caused by firearm, was kept under observation. X-ray was advised. The injury nos.2 and 3 were simple and could be caused by blunt weapon.

9. The injured Vedpal Singh was referred to District Hospital, Bareilly for conducting x-ray of his injury no.1 and further treatment where Dr. S.P. Singh M.O. District Hospital, Bareilly P.W.6 attended to him. But in the meantime, Vedpal Singh succumbed to his injuries on 4.4.1987 at 8.45 A.M. in the District Hospital, Bareilly.

10. The postmortem on the dead body of the deceased was conducted by Dr. S.P. Singh P.W.6 vide postmortem report Ex.Ka.6 The Doctor found the following ante-mortem injuries on the dead body of the deceased:-

1. Lacerated wound 1 cm x 1 cm x scalp left side forehead 8 cm above eyebrow.

2. Three abrasions in an area of 8 cm x 6 cm on the back of left shoulder joint upper part..

3. Abrasion 3 cm x ½ cm on the top of the right shoulder joint.

4. Gunshot wound 2 cm x 1 cm x chest cavity deep left side chest 13 cm below and lateral to left nipple- margins inverted, blackening, tattooing and scorching present.

5. Circular interpeded abrasion left arm 3 cm in size.

11. In the opinion of the Doctor death was caused due to shock and haemorrhage on account of injury no.4.

12. The information regarding death of Vedpal Singh was sent to Police Station-Kotwali, District-Bareilly vide Ex.I on 4.4.1987 at 10.20 P.M. which was recorded in G.D., carbon copy of which is Ex. Ka-14. Inspector S.K. Sharma P.W.8 of Police Station- Kotwali was conducting inquest proceedings on the dead body of the deceased. After completing the inquest, he prepared photograph Ex.Ka.16, challan-report vide Ex.Ka.17, specimen seal Ex.Ka.18 and inquest report Ex. Ka.15. Later on, the case was converted under Section 302 I.P.C. vide G.D. entry Ex. Ka.13 and the investigation of the case was entrusted to S.I. Gandharv Singh Badhoria P.W.7 who recorded the statement of the informant, which is Ex.Ka.10. The I.O. also visited the place of occurrence and took possession of blood-stained dhoti vide memo Ex.Ka.1, torch vide memo Ex.Ka.2, two empty cell vide memo Ex.Ka.4. Then he also prepared site plan vide Ex.Ka.13. Thereafter, the investigation of the case was transferred to Senior Sub-Inspector police Sri O.P. Tyagi P.W.5 on 28.4.1987, who after usual investigation, submitted charge-sheet against the accused vide Ex.Ka.5.

13. Thereafter, Chalan was presented. The charges were framed under Section 302 read with Section 34 of IPC. In prosecution evidence, Roopwati (PW-1) stated on the line of the version given in the F.I.R. that out of four persons, Buddhu and Subedar were standing and she identified them. She further stated that Buddhu fired a gunshot onto her husband and other three accused gave lathi blows. In the meantime, Kallu Singh and Rameshwar Singh came and accused persons ran away. While leaving they fired second gunshot. Her husband got the complaint scribed through one Madan Pal Singh and gave it to the police which was exhibited as Ex.Ka-1. The F.I.R. was registered. The torch which was recovered was handed over to her and supurdginama was exhibited as Ex.Ka-2. In cross examination, this witness stated that Kallu Singh is nephew of her husband and he is indulged in the business of cultivation of opium.

14. Kallu Singh (PW-2) also stated on similar line that when his uncle, deceased-Vedpal was looking in the light of the torch, accused-Subedar and Buddhu were standing. They were carrying country made pistol and total four persons were there. He identified the accused persons when his uncle asked, the accused fired upon his uncle which hit on him and other accused gave him lathi blows. In the meantime, his brother-in-law, Rameshwar Singh also reached there.

15. In cross examination, this witness admitted that he is indulged in the business of cultivation of opium but he did not do the sale or purchase of the same. He denied that deceased-Vedpal was helping him in his business. Vedpal was having small tea shop at Railway Station. He denied the suggestion that he had any enmity with Subedar or Buddhu. He also denied that Subedar is having his agricultural land abutting the land of this witness.

16. Madan Pal Singh (PW-3) stated that he scribed the complaint on the asking of Vedpal which is Ex.Ka-3. He stated that Vedpal was daily wager. He denied the suggestion that Kallu was doing cultivation of opium and Vedpal was working with him.

17. In cross examination, he stated that the field of Kallu was abutting his field and Kallu's field was also abutting the field of Subedar and one litigation is pending between Kallu and Subedar.

18. Dr. Raj Kumar (PW-4) stated that he has conducted the MLR of the victim. The injuries are already reported above.

19. O.P. Tyagi (SIS) (PW-5) stated that vide memo Ex.Ka-5, he had taken the dead body after postmortem.

20. Dr. S.P. Singh (PW-6) who conducted the postmortem stated about the injuries as reproduced above. In cross examination, this witness stated that injury No.4 alone is sufficient to cause the death which is a gunshot injury. However, injury No.1 to 3 & 5 alone in the absence of injury No.4 are not sufficient to cause the death.

21. S.H.O. Gandharv Singh, (PW-7) stated that he was the Investigating Officer and a report Ex.Ka-3 was submitted in the police station on which, Chik report was prepared vide Report No.3. The Chik Report was Ex.Ka-7 and report No.3 was Ex.Ka-8. This witness stated that vide letter (Ex.Ka-9), the injured was sent to the hospital and entry was made in the Case Diary (Ex.Ka-10). He recorded statement of Smt. Roop Devi, the eye witness and widow of deceased, who handed over her bloodstained dhoti which was tied around the body of her husband at the time of incident vide recovery memo Ex.Ka-1. The torch was recovered vide recovery memo Ex.Ka-2. One empty cartridge of 12 bore and one empty cartridge of 315 bore were recovered vide recovery memo Ex.Ka-11. Statement of eyewitness, Kallu Singh, was recorded and Naksha Nazri was also prepared which is Ex.Ka-12. Statement of Rameshwar Singh was also recorded. After the death of Vedpal, Section 302 of I.P.C. was added in G.D. (Ex.Ka-13). Accused-Subedar surrendered before the C.J.M., Bareilly on 16.4.1987. In cross examination, this witness further stated about the investigation carried by him.

22. Sub Inspector S.K. Sharma (PW-8) stated that he prepared the Panchayatnama/Inquest Report (Ex-1). Copy of which is Ex.Ka-14. He proved the photograph of the dead body (Ex.Ka-16), Chalan as Ex.Ka-17 and Sample Seal as Ex.Ka-18.

23. Sadat Ali (PW-9), Chief Pharmacist, proved the Bed head ticket of deceased regarding his admission in District Hospital, Bareilly vide Ex.1. In cross examination, he stated that when accused was admitted, he was in garping stage and was unconscious and, therefore, no dying declaration was recorded.

24. On conclusion of the prosecution evidence, statement of the accused under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. was recorded in which, all the incriminating evidence was put to him. In all the questions, the accused gave reply that he do not know about the offence. Regarding Question No.4 that the Investigating Officer has submitted the Charge-sheet against him, accused-Buddhu replied that it is incorrect as all the witnesses are relative and gave false statements. In reply to Question No.16 why he has been nominated as an accused, he has stated that he has enmity with the police and even previously he was nominated in two cases. However, he was acquitted. He further stated that he want to lead defence evidence.

25. Similar is the statement of accused-Subedar who replied all the questions as having no knowledge and stated that he has been nominated because of enmity with Kallu Singh.

26. Thereafter, one Gyan Singh (DW-1) was produced who stated that on hearing noise, he had gone to the house of Vedpal. He was lying unconscious on a cot and his wife told him that someone has fired upon him but did not disclose the name. Thereafter, he accompanied Vedpal on a bullock cart to the Police Station from where, he was sent to the hospital. He stated that Subedar comes to my village, however, Buddhu never comes.

27. Thereafter, Trial Court, vide impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence convicted the accused, Buddhu and Subedar, and sentenced them to life imprisonment under Section 302/34 of IPC.

28. As noticed above, one of the accused namely Buddhu has already died in 1999 and appeal qua him stands abated.

29. Counsel for the appellant submits that presence of the PW-1 at the spot is highly doubtful. It is doubtful that at about 2.00 AM in the morning, the victim had seen Buddhu and Subedar in torch light.

30. It is next argued that firearm injury was attributed to Buddhu which proved fatal whereas rest three persons were attributed lathi injuries. Counsel has referred to the statement of Dr.S.P. Singh (PW-6) who conducted the postmortem wherein he has admitted that injury No.4 which is a firearm injury attributed to Buddhu was alone sufficient to cause death. He further stated that injury Nos. 1 to 3 & 5, which are abrasions and lacerated wounds caused by a blunt weapon, independently are not sufficient to cause death as these are on non vital part of the body.

31. Counsel submits that injury attributed to the appellant-Subedar is only a lathi injury that too with other persons whose identity was never proved and, therefore, the appellant is not attributed the fatal injury.

32. It is next argued that the police investigation is highly unreliable as police never tried to identify the two other persons who were present at the spot as per the deceased-Vedpal, PW-1 or PW-2.

33. It is next argued that motive to commit the offence is not proved and there is no enmity with the deceased.

34. It is submitted that PW-2- Kallu Singh has denied that he was having any dispute with appellant -Subedar regarding their abutting land. It is submitted that in the absence of any motive, the Trial Court has wrongly convicted the appellant.

35. Learned counsel for the appellant further submits that PW-1-Roopwati has stated that after Buddhu has fired on her deceased husband which hit him on his stomach, another fire was made at the door of the house but it is not so mentioned in the FIR (Exhibit-Ka-13). It is also not mentioned in the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. It is next argued that as per PW-1, both Buddhu and Subedar were carrying country-made pistol however, no such recovery of pistol was effected from the appellant-Subedar and rather no such pistol attributed to the appellant was ever used in the commission of crime. It is submitted that false story has been cooked up as the deceased was murdered by some known persons and the petitioner has been falsely implicated.

36. Counsel further submits that Trial Court has not considered the statement of defence witness i.e. DW-1 who stated that when he heard the noise of firearm, he reached the house of Vedpal who was lying in an unconscious condition on a cot and his wife stated him that some unknown persons had fired upon him and she did not disclose anybody's name.

37. In reply, learned AGA for State submits that both the eye witnesses i.e. PW-1 and PW-2 have duly supported the prosecution version and the medical evidence of the deceased also corroborate the prosecution version.

38. It is next argued by learned A.G.A. that the matter was reported to the police without any delay. It is submitted that the initial complaint was given by deceased-Vedpal himself which was scribed by one Madan Pal Singh upon which Chik F.I.R. was registered and the deceased himself had stated that he had seen both appellant-Subedar and Buddhu at the spot and Buddhu had fired upon him.

39. Learned A.G.A. has further submitted that there was sufficient light as deceased was carrying a torch and the version given in the F.I.R. by the deceased himself is corroborated by both PW-1 (Roopwati-wife of deceased) and PW-2, Kallu Singh (an eye-witness).

40. Learned A.G.A. submits that PW-4 has stated that the deceased died of firearm injury No.4 which was sufficient to cause death. Counsel submits that even at the first instance, when deceased-Vedpal was brought to primary health centre, PW-4 conducted the medico legal examination and reported that Vedpal had suffered one firearm injury along with three other injuries and after the death of Vedpal, the same injuries were reported in the Postmortem report by PW-6. Therefore, the ocular version is duly supported by the medical version.

41. After hearing counsel for the parties and on re-appreciation of entire evidence, the Court finds no merit in the present case for the following reasons :

(a) The F.I.R. was registered by Vedpal (deceased) himself in injured condition. He had clearly named Buddhu (since deceased) and appellant-Subedar Singh along with two other unknown persons as the assailants. Therefore, neither there was any delay in reporting the matter to the police nor there is any discrepancy in the prosecution version.

(b) The case of the prosecution is duly proved by two eye-witnesses namely PW-1 and PW-2. PW-1, Roopwati (wife of the deceased), being an eye witness, duly corroborated the version given in the F.I.R. that in torch light, she had seen that accused-Buddhu had fired upon her husband-Vedpal Singh and appellant-Subedar along with two other persons gave him injuries with lathies. The testimony of this witness could not shattered by the defence.

Similarly, even the second eye-witness namely PW-2 (Kallu Singh-nephew of deceased) has also supported the prosecution version as stated by Vedpal in the F.I.R. Even in lengthy cross examination by the defence, his testimony could not be shattered.

(c) Madan Pal Singh (PW-3) who scribed the complaint forming basis of the Chik F.I.R. has also stated that Vedpal, in an injured condition, came to him and on his asking, he had scribed the complaint which was read over to him and then he put his thumb impression. Statement of this witness shows that complaint was given to the police promptly. Therefore, the version given in the F.I.R. is duly corroborated by the statement of PW-1, PW-2 & PW-3.

(d) Even statement of Vedpal (Ex.Ka-10) recorded under Section 161 of Cr.P.C. is also consistent regarding narration of the facts as per the written report scribed by PW-3 (Ex.Ka-3)

(e) Vedpal was medico legally examined at the first instance by PW-4 who had stated that he had suffered firearm injury and after his death PW-6, who conducted the postmortem of the deceased also had stated that injury No.4 was a firearm injury which was sufficient to cause death. Both PW-4 and PW-6, the two doctors, who conducted the medico legal examination and postmortem of the deceased-Vedpal are consistent with regard to a firearm injury sustained by Vedpal which proved to be fatal. Therefore, ocular version given by PW-1 & PW-2 is duly corroborated by the medical evidence.

(f) Statement of Gyan Singh (DW-1) more or less is a hearsay as he stated that when he reached at the spot, Vedpal was lying in unconscious condition on a cot and his wife (PW-1) told him that some unknown persons had fired upon him.

DW-1 is suppressing the correct fact, as contrary to his version, Vedpal was taken to the Police Station and in between he got the complaint scribed by Madan Pal Singh (PW-3) and, therefore, he was conscious till the time the complaint was scribed by PW-3 which falsified the version given by DW-3 that immediately after the incident when he reached the spot, Vedpal was lying in unconscious condition on a cot. Therefore, statement of DW-1 is not natural and trustworthy.

(g) The suggestion given to PW-2 that his land is abutting the field of accused-Subedar was denied and in defence neither any Sajra Map of the land nor the Khasra number was proved by way of leading any evidence.

42. From the evidence led by the prosecution, it is proved that both accused-Buddhu (since deceased) and Subedar had premeditated meeting of mind to commit the murder of Vedpal. Therefore, appellant-Subedar Singh, who has caused injuries on person of the deceased by using a lathi, and accused-Buddhu who has fired upon a gun shot injury which was sufficient to cause death in ordinary course, are responsible for committing the murder of Vedpal in view of the provisions of Section 34 of IPC. Accused-Subedar Singh has taken active part in commission of crime and the Trial Court has rightly held him guilty of offence punishable under Section 302/34 of IPC.

43. As no other point was raised from either side, we find that the Trial Court has passed the judgment in accordance with law while awarding imprisonment for life to both the accused under Section 302/34 of IPC.

44. Therefore, finding no merits in the present appeal, the same is dismissed. The impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence are upheld. As noticed in the order dated 18.12.2020 passed by the Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No. 886 of 2020 while remanding the case back to this Court for fresh decision that appellant-Subedar Singh has since been taken in custody, the appellant-Subedar will undergo the remaining part of the sentence.

45. Copy of this order along with record be transmitted to the Trial Court forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 251
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J.
THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 4116 of 2015
With
Criminal Appeal No. 3950 of 2015
With
Criminal Appeal No. 4087 of 2015

Chandrapal & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Amit Kumar Srivastava, Chandra Kant Bharadwaj, J.S. Baghel, Sikander B. Kochar, V.P. Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondent:
Govt. Advocate, Ajay Panday, Vijay Tripathi

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 147, 148, 149, 302 & 392-Criminal appeal against order of conviction- PW-1 has taken a complete somersault with regard to allegations in the FIR where a person was initially cited as a witness and then citied as an accused/ principal conspirator the version given by PW-1 regarding presence of all other accused is not reliable- the eye witness of the incident has not mentioned about any white colour ambassador car in which four accused persons had come- no weapon of the offence including the licensed rifle of deceased was recovered- neither there was recovery of any weapon nor blood stained earth, blood stained clothes of victim or PW-1 or his father or the empty cartridges were never sent for forensic science investigation, despite the fact that the deceased was Inspector in UP Police.

Benefit of doubt would go to the accused as case property like blood-stained earth, the clothes worn by the deceased or the bullet recovered from the spot or retrieved from the dead body or the car were never sent to forensic science examination and never produced before the trial court, on the plea that everything has been destroyed including the original case diary-Result-Order of conviction set aside.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Javed Shaukat Ali Qureshi Vs St. of Guj.t, (2023) 9 SCC 164

2. Vadivelu Thevar Vs St. of Madras, 1957 0 AIR (SC) 614

3. Kaur Sain Vs St. of Pun., 1974 AIR (SC) 329

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan, J.)

1. These appeals have been filed challenging the judgment of conviction dated 03.08.2015, passed by Special Court (S.C./S.T. Act)/ Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.13, Bulandshahar holding the appellants Sanjay Dixit, Yogendra, Sanjay Kumar Sahni @ Sanjeev Kumar guilty of offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 302/149 I.P.C., additionally accused Pramod Sharma and Chandra Pal were held guilty of offence under Section 147, 302/149 I.P.C. and accused Veerpal and Harpal were held guilty of offence under Sections 147, 148, 302/149, 392 I.P.C. whereas one of the accused Mahendra Kumar Kaushik was acquitted of the charge under Section 302 read with Section 120-B I.P.C. as well as the order of sentence dated 04.08.2015 by which the appellants were held guilty of offence and awarded life imprisonment under Section 302/149 I.P.C. along with a fine of Rs. 10,000/- each and in the event of non-payment of fine, to further undergo six months additional simple imprisonment and under Section 147 I.P.C., two years rigorous imprisonment along with Rs. 1000/- each, in default of payment of fine to further undergo one month additional simple imprisonment. Additional accused Sanjay Dixit, Yogendra, Sanjay Kumar Sahni and Harpal were sentenced to three years rigorous imprisonment under Section 148 I.P.C. with a fine of Rs. 1500/- each, in default of payment of fine to further undergo 45 days simple imprisonment. Accused Harpal was additionally sentenced 10 years rigorous imprisonment under Section 392 I.P.C. along with a fine of Rs. 5,000/- and in default of payment of fine to further undergo three months simple imprisonment. It was further directed that 50% of the fine recovered will be paid to the dependent of the deceased under Section 357 (1)(C) of Cr.P.C.

2. Heard Sri Bankim Kulshrestha, assisted by Sri Chandra Kant Bharadwaj, learned counsel for the appellant No.2, Sri Vivek Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the appellant No.4, Sri Vijay Tripathi and Sri Ajay Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the informant (in Criminal Appeal No.4116 of 2015), Sri Kumar Parikshit, learned counsel for the appellant (in Criminal Appeal No.3950 of 2015), Sri Brijesh Sahai, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Rahul Kumar, Sri Bhavya Sahai, Sri Pawan Bhardwaj and Sri Abhey Singh Yadav, learned counsel for the appellant (in Criminal Appeal No.4087 of 2015) and learned A.G.A. for the State-respondent.

3. It is worth noticing that separate charges were framed under the aforesaid sections against Chandrapal, Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, Veerpal and Sanjay Sahni, Harpal and Yogendra on 11.09.2009, whereas charges were framed against Sanjay Dixit and Pramod Kumar on 16.01.2006. It is also worth noticing that as per the verification report submitted by the concerned C.J.M. Chandrapal accused died on 10.07.2022 whereas Sanjay Sahni died on 01.01.2016. The appeal of both these accused stands abated. It is also worth noticing that accused Chandrapal was granted bail on 30.10.2018, Sanjay Dixit and Harpal were granted bail on 24.10.2016 and Pramod Kumar was granted bail on 05.10.2016. The third bail application of Yogendra was dismissed on 27.04.2024 directing that the main appeal be listed for final arguments on 06.05.2024 and this is how arguments in the main and connected appeals have been heard.

4. With the assistance of learned counsel for the parties, the entire evidence is re-scrutinized and re-appreciated.

5. The facts as stated by the informant in the FIR are as under:

"The brother of the informant Devendra Prakash Gaur, son of Kanti Prasad Gaur is serving in U.P. Police. He was having enmity with Yogendra, Sanjay Dixit and Veerpal etc. Previously they had fired upon his brother in police station- Naraura and FIR in this regard was registered in Police Station- Naraura. Today, at 09:45 AM, I along with my brother Devendra Prakash Gaur, my father Kanti Prasad Gaur and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, Inspector, U.P. Police, presently resident of Naraura, in our car bearing no. DMC0966 were going from Naraura to Bulandshahar for some urgent work. When we reached on the Dibai railway crossing the gate was closed. In the meantime, on one bullet motorcycle driven by Pramod Kumar and Sanjay Dixit was sitting on the pillion seat along with one white colour ambassador car in which Yogendra, Veerpal, Harpal and Sanjay came and got down. Sanjay as well as Yogendra were carrying guns. Yogendra and Sanjay Dixit fired on my brother with their respective weapons. My brother was hit by the bullet and he fell down. We picked him up and made him lie down on the rear seat of the car, thereafter these persons picked up rifle of my brother which was lying in the car and then Harpal and Veerpal one by one fired shot upon him due to which my brother died at the spot. Pramod Kumar who is resident of Bhangiwara Dibai was keeping the motorcycle engine on and Chandrapal was keeping the car engine on. Both the vehicles were not having number plate. They escaped from the spot while taking away the rifle of my brother. My brother is lying on the rear seat of the car. Due to firing people got terrorised and by closing their shops ran away. Please take action.

Dated 09.10.1989."

6. On this Assistant Sub-Inspector, Charan Singh registered chik FIR. After registration of the FIR, the investigation was carried out by Prahlad Singh, Inspector. He visited the spot and conducted the Panchayatnama/Inquest Report of the deceased, recorded the statement of Narendra Kumar and father of the deceased Kanti Prasad Gaur. On the identification of both of them he prepared the site plan. Thereafter, dead body was recovered and was sent for post mortem from Chief Medical Officer. From the spot blood stained earth along with empty cartridge of a rifle were taken in possession by preparing the separate memos which were written in the handwriting of Assistant Sub-Inspector P.N. Dixit and efforts for the search of the accused was made. On 10.10.1989, statement of Yatendra Kumar Kaushik was recorded and from the spot the statement of the shopkeeper were also recorded. The post mortem report was recovered which was entered in the C.D. Some affidavits of people were received on 18.11.1989, which were sent to the Additional Superintendent of Police. On 15.03.1990, he was transferred to other Police Station and further investigation was carried out by Inspector, Ravindra Kumar Singh who has also recorded the statement of the witnesses and subsequently submitted the charge-sheet before the Court.

7. It is worth noticing that on the direction of the court the further investigation was handed over to C.B.C.I.D. and Inspector Satish Chandra Pachouri also conducted the investigation and recorded the statements of the parties.

8. Charges were framed on 11.09.2009 under Sections 147, 148, 120B, 302 read with 149 and 395 read with 149 I.P.C. and accused did not plead guilty and claimed trial. In prosecution evidence, PW-1 Narendra Gaur, brother of the deceased

Devendra Gour appeared and stated on the line of version given in the FIR. He has also given the details of the firing done by the accused persons. He has stated that his brother was having enmity with Yogendra, Sanjay Dixit, Chandrapal Singh, Harpal and Veerpal etc. On 09.10.1989, he along with his father Kanti Prasad Gaur and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik and deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur were travelling in Maruti Car No. DMC0966 from Naraura to Bulandshahar at about 09:45 A.M. they reached at Kaserkala railway crossing/ Dibai railway crossing which was closed. They stopped the car and his brother Devendra Prakash Gaur got down from the car and started eating tobacco. In the meantime, one bullet motorcyle came from the backside which was driven by Pramod Kumar and Sanjay Dixit was pillion rider. Sanjay Dixit was carrying a gun. One white colour ambassador car also came from the backside in which Veerpal, Yogendra, Harpal and Sanjay Sahni came. Yogendra was carrying a gun, Sanjay Sahni was carrying a country made pistol and Chandrapal was driving the car. Sanjay Dixit and Yogendra fired on his brother when he was about to sit in the car. When Devendra Prakash Gaur was hit by firearm, he and his father took his brother on the back seat of car. His brother Devendra's rifle lying in the car was picked by Veerpal and firstly Veerpal and then Harpal, one by one, from the same rifle fired on his brother Devendra Prakash Gaur which hit him and he died at the spot. The accused ran away after firing and taking away rifle of deceased. This witness further stated that about six months prior to the incident, Sanjay Dixit, Yogendra and Veerpal etc. had fired upon his brother in Police Station- Naraura and in this regard his brother has recorded a complaint in the police station.

9. He further stated that in November 1988, the election of Chairman- Naraura was held. His brother supported one Om Veer Singh, and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik and other accused were supporting Madan Kumar Vashisht. Mahendra Kumar Kaushik asked his brother Devendra to support the Madan Kumar Vashisht but his brother did not agree. In the election, Madan Kumar Vashisht had won. After the election, Kaushik, Sanjay and Veerpal etc. came to their house and fired upon and Devendra Prakash Gaur in this regard made a police to report. The houses of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik and Devendra Prakash Gaur were abutting each other and later on his father got compromised the matter between Mahendra Kumar Kaushik and Devendra Prakash Gaur but the accused were carrying enmity against him. This witness specifically stated that this murder was committed by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik in conspiracy with other accused. He exhibited his complaint made to the police as Ex.Ka.1. In cross-examination, this witness stated that he did not remember the date of the election. He further stated that regarding the incident of firing in the police station, he was not present there and came to know after three days. He pleaded ignorance if any arrest in this regard was made. However, his brother did not suffer any injury. He further stated that in 1992 one Banwari and his son were murdered in Kesopur Sarla in which PW-1, his father and nephew were nominated as accused and went to jail. His brother deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur remained S.O. of Baghpat. However, he pleaded ignorance that at that time the infamous Maya Tyagi murder scandal took place and he and his other police officials faced a trial under Section 302 I.P.C. However, he stated that his brother obtained stay order from the High Court. He further pleaded ignorance that the other police officials were convicted by the court and sentenced to life imprisonment. He further stated that his brother has constructed a house in Naraura and has purchased 100 Bigah of land after constructing the house. He further pleaded ignorance that deceased was having a share in the contract of lifting sand in Naraura or that the deceased was having a share in the liquor vends. He further stated that he did not know, on the date of incident where deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was posted. Regarding the incident, he has stated that Sanjay Dixit and Yogendra fired from the driver side whereas Pramod Kumar kept the engine of motorcyle on and Chandrapal was keeping the engine of the car on. Veerpal took away the rifle of the deceased from the left side and fired from that side whereas Harpal fired from same rifle from the side of driver. He further stated that he did not remember if he has mentioned in the complaint that his brother got down from car to eat tobacco. He stated that when Yogedra fired, his brother after taking tobacco, was about to sit in the car and when the fire hit, his body was outside the car. He denied that he has made a statement to the I.O. that after taking tobacco, his brother did not sit in the car. He stated that he did not remember when he and his father picked up deceased and kept him on the rear seat of the car and he was bleeding. He stated that his clothes and his father's clothes were blood stained but I.O. did not take their clothes in possession. The backside of the car was also blood stained but he did not remember, if any, empty cartridge fell inside the car or not. On the rear seat, there were marks of the bullets. This witness further stated that on 11.10.1989, he has taken back the possession of car from the S.H.O. and further stated that he did not remember if any memo in this regard was prepared. He further stated that he did not remember whether the car was with him or sold out. He further stated that Sanjay Sahni with the country made pistol was covering him and his father and none of the accused fired upon them and only extended threat. He further stated about the conspiracy hatched by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik. He has informed the I.O. in this regard but did not know why this fact was not recorded. He further stated that after 20-25 days of the incident, he has moved an application for transfer of the case to C.B.C.I.D. He further stated that in the FIR, it is not mentioned that Veerpal has taken away the rifle of his brother. It is also not mentioned in the FIR that firstly Veerpal by picking the rifle fired. He further stated that he had given the car no. as DNC0966 but he does not know how the I.O. has written the car no. in his statement as DMC0966. On a specific question under what authority he has taken the possession of the car, this witness stated that being younger brother of the deceased, he has given an application for releasing the car. At this stage of cross-examination, on the request of the counsel of the accused, the trial court tried to locate the application given by PW-1- Narendra Kumar Gaur for taking the car on Supurdginama/ release deed but the same was not found in General Diary.

10. This witness further stated that in the Supurdginama/ release deed of the car is Ex.Ka.14. This witness stated that the car was given to him and on his application, he has endorsed regarding the recovery of the car. It was stated in Ex.Ka.14 that as and when directed by the court, he will produce the car and he has received a notice from the court for producing the car. However, he admitted that despite notice he could not produce the car, as he does not know to whom the children of the deceased have sold the car. This witness further stated that he has given an application on 27.05.2010 that the car was destroyed in fire in the year 2008 and the application is at S.No. 128-B. On a specific question as to whose name the car was registered and witness stated that he has no knowledge. Regarding the rifle of his brother this witness further stated that the license of the rifle was with his brother and after the incident he has never seen the license. He denied a suggestion that his brother was not having any license or licensed gun.

11. PW-2- Dr. P.K. Agarwal who conducted the post mortem of the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur and reported the following injuries:

"मृत्यु पूर्व चोटों का विवरण

(1) आग्नेआस्त्र द्वारा गोली के घुसने व निकलने का घाव साइज 16 X 14 से०मी० X मस्तिष्क तक गहरा दाये कान के ऊपर स्थित। ऊपर से नीचे की तरफ जाता हुआ। दोनों कान के पीछे से। घुसने वाली चोट के चारों तरफ कलौंच, झुलसन मौजूद थे। उसके किनारे फटे हुए व अन्दर को मुड़े हुऐ व निकलने वाले घाव के किनारे बाहर आते हुए फटे हुए बिना कलौंच व झुलसन के। इन दोनो के मध्य की खाल हड्डी व मस्तिष्क फटा व टूटा पाया गया। हड्डियों के टुकड़े मस्तिष्क का भाग इस चोट से बाहर आता हुआ। अन्दर व बाहर जाने वाले भाग एक चोट के ही भाग है।

(2) आग्नेआस्त्र का प्रवेश व घुसने का घाव साइज 3 X 3 से०मी० X केविटी तक गहरा छाती पर सामने की ओर दोनो निपल के बीच मे। किनारे अन्दर को मुड़े व फटे हुए। कालिका व झुलसन के निशान के साथ थी। यह चोट पीछे ऊपर कमर की तरफ जाती हुई सीधी दिशा में ऊपर के पीछे की ओर।

(3) आग्नेआस्त्र का बाहर निकलने का घाव 5 X 4 ½ से०मी० X गुहा तक गहरा सीधी तरफ कमर के ऊपरी हिस्से में कन्धे की तरफ। किनारे बाहर को मुड़े व फटे हुए। खून बाहर निकलता हुआ। बिना कालिस व झुलसन लिये।

चोट सं० 2 व 3 एक दूसरे से सम्बन्धित थी।

(4) आग्नेयास्त्र अन्दर जाने वाला घाव 1 X 1 से०मी० X गुहा तक गहरा चोट सं०-2 से 6 से०मी० नीचे। कालिस व झुलसन सहित किनारे अन्दर को मुड़े व फटे हुए, जो पीछे कमर की ओर बांये तरफ जाते हुए थे।

(5) आग्नेयास्त्र का Exit घाव साइज 5 से० X 4 ½ से०मी० X गुहा तक गहरा बांयी तरफ कमर पर ऊपर स्केपुलर रीजन मे कन्धे की तरफ जाता हुआ। किनारे बाहर को निकले हुये। खून झलकता हुआ। चोट संख्या-4 व 5 एक दूसरे से संबंधित थी।

(6) आग्नेयास्त्र घाव निकलना व घुसना एक सीध में 12 X 6 X मांसपेशी तक गहरा, दांयी ऊपर भुजा पर कालिख व झुलसन इन्ट्री पर था। इन्ट्री अन्दर को व exit बाहर को निकला हुआ।

(7) आग्नेयास्त्र की चोट exit & entry 5 X 3 X मांसपेशी तक गहरा सभी जाँघ पर बाहर से अन्दर को आती थी। इन्ट्री पर जलन झुलसन थी।

(8) आग्नेयास्त्र 2 X 1 X मसल डीप बांयी हसली गर्दन पर नीचे की तरफ। कालिख व झुलसन सहित। एक बड़ी धातु की गोल गोली इस चोट के नीचे से प्राप्त हुई।

(9) कई आग्नेयास्त्र के छर्रो के घाव खाल पर 8 X 6 से०मी० एरिया में बांयी जांघ पर प्रत्येक 2 X 2 से०मी० से 3 X 3 सेंटीमीटर तक थे।"

12. This witness stated that one big size mettled bullet, which was recovered from the neck of the deceased, was kept in the sealed packet along with a pellets of the bullet recovered from the right thigh and were sealed and were given to the constable who had come for the post mortem. In cross-examination this witness stated that the injury no.1 can be received if the person firing is having his hand over the head of the injured. However, he could not give any specific opinion in this regard if the deceased was in a lying position and is fired from the side of the head, he can sustain such injury. Regarding injury no.1, he stated that an entry and exit wound are in similarity. Regarding injury no.2, he stated that the same can be sustained if the person firing is having his hand below the body of the injured. He further stated that if the injured is in lying situation and if the bullet is fired from the side of his feet, this injury can be sustained. The injury has directions up moves. Regarding injury no.5, the direction is from upper side to lower side with an entry wound. He further stated that he did not know whether any sample seal was given to him along with dead body as he could not find the sample seal in the file. He denied the suggestion that the report was later on changed. He further stated that he did not mention in the post mortem report that any gun powder smell was emitting from the wound. With regard to the nature of the weapon used this witness stated that only a ballistic expert can tell about the weapon used for injury no. 1. He cannot tell the nature of the weapon regarding injury no.2. He further stated that regarding injury no. 9 there is no symptom of fire arm injury. This witness stated that he has not seen 306 bore rifle therefore, he cannot say any that any bullet injury was received from 306 bore rifle.

13. S.I. Charan Singh (PW-3) stated that he was posted as Computer Clerk in Police Station-Dibai and on the complaint of Narendra Kumar Gaur, he prepared Chik F.I.R. No. 292 of 1989. This witness proved the Chik F.I.R. (Ex.Ka-3) and entry the in GD No. 22 dated 9.10.1989 as Ex.Ka-4. The report of record keeper for sending a copy to office of Superintendent of Police was Ex.Ka-5. This witness stated that at the time when the informant came for lodging the F.I.R., Inspector M.K. Kaushik was accompanying him. In further cross examination, he stated that in the G.D. for registration of F.I.R., there is no mention of sending S.R. (Special Report). He further stated that in Ex.Ka-3 addressed to C.O. Anoopshahr bears his signature but there is no date though there is a date on the endorsement by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bulandshahr dated 16.10.1989.

14. Prahlad Singh (PW-4), Sub Inspector (Retd.) stated that on 9.10.1989, he was posted in Police Station-Dibai, District– Bulandshahr and the case was registered in his presence by C.C. Charan Singh and he along with other police officials had gone to the place of occurrence. At the spot, he recorded statement of Narendra Kumar and his father-Kanti Prasad Gaur and prepared Naksha Nazri (Ex.Ka-6). The Panchayatnama/Inquest Report (Ex.Ka-7) was prepared by Sub Inspector P.N. Dixit and other documents regarding the recovery of dead body, letter to C.M.O., photographs etc. were also prepared by Sub Inspector P.N. Dixit which are Ex.Ka-8 to Ex.Ka.-11. The bloodstained earth and one empty cartridge of rifle were taken by the police vide separate memos which are Ex.Ka-12 and Ex.Ka-13. This witness identified the signature of S.I. P.N. Dixit on the same. He further stated that on 10.10.1989, statement of one Yatendra Kumar Kaushik was recorded and statements of some shopkeepers of nearby area of the place of incident was recorded in the C.D. On 18.11.1989, affidavits of some persons were received which were sent to Superintendent of Police and their details were mentioned in the C.D. He conducted investigation till 15.3.1990 when he was transferred. In cross examination, this witness stated that it is correct that in the C.D., there is no mention that Special Report was sent on the date of incident. He further stated that he did not remember on which date copy of the F.I.R. was sent to the concerned Court. He further stated as under :

"This is correct that at the time of incident, Mahendra Kumar Kaushik was with Devendra Prakash Gaur. This is also correct that Mahendra Kumar Kaushik in his statement told him that at the time of incident, brother of deceased, Narendra Kumar Gaur, and his father were not present at the place of occurrence."

15. He stated that he did not remember if Narendra Kumar Gaur when came to the police station, he was wearing bloodstained clothes or not. He further stated that, this is correct if clothes worn by Narendra Kumar Gaur were bloodstained, he would have taken them in possession. This witness stated that Narendra Kumar Gaur had made a wrong statement that his clothes were bloodstained and were taken by Investigating Officer (PW-4). This witness further stated as under :

"When I reached at the place of occurrence, the dead body of the deceased was lying inside the vehicle. I have inspected the vehicle thoroughly but I do not remember if on the seat or roof of the vehicle, there was bloodstain or not. I do not remember if there was any mark of bullets on the body of the vehicle or the seat etc. I do not remember if any smell of gun powder was emitting from the vehicle. It is correct that make of the car is not mentioned in the C.D. The detail of place of occurrence was inadvertently not mentioned in the C.D. It is correct that no empty cartridges or pellet was found inside the vehicle. I did not find any evidence that the deceased-Devendra Prakash Gaur was murdered inside the car, therefore, I did not get photography of the car from outside or inside. I did not even get the inspection of the vehicle done from ballistic expert."

16. This witness denied a suggestion that photography and inspection by ballistic Expert was not done because the car was not present at the place of occurrence. This witness further stated as under :

"Narendra Gaur had given an application dated 11.10.1989 to me for taking Car No. DMC0966 on Supurdginama. I have rightly recorded in C.D. that Maruti Car No. DMC0966 of deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur is parked in premises of Police Station and informant has given an application for taking the same on Supurdgi, as the vehicle is not connected with the commission of offence of murder, therefore, as per Rules, the vehicle be released in favour of the informant on Supurdgi."

17. This witness further stated that Supurdginama/ release deed (Ex.Ka-14) was prepared on his direction. He further stated that he has not taken in possession any document relating to ownership of the car and has not seen the registration certificate to verify whether it is in the name of deceased-Devendra Prakash Gaur or any other family member.

18. This witness further stated as under :

"It is correct that I had no legal right to hand over the case property to anyone on Supurdginama as this right lies only with the concerned Court. He further self stated that I had committed a mistake. It is correct that while giving car to Narendra Kumar Gaur on Supurdginama I have not taken any surety bond. I do not know at present this vehicle is with whom. It is correct that due to releasing the vehicle on Supurdginama in favour of Narendra Kumar Gaur, against the provisions of law, an important evidence is destroyed."

19. He denied that in collusion with Narendra Kumar Gaur, he prepared the Supurdginama to show the presence of the car at the spot and further denied that he has planted the empty cartridge and, therefore, no ballistic expert opinion was taken. This witness further stated as under :

" This is correct that I recorded statement of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik on 10.10.1989. Mahendra Kumar Kaushik stated that in the car, apart from him, Yogendra, Jeevan Singh and Pankaj Chaudhary were there. However, I did not try to investigate regarding Chaudhary and even did not try to search for him. In C.D. No.2, I have recorded a conclusion that people knew about known criminal history of deceased-Devendra Prakash Gaur and, therefore, no person came forward to make statements. Till now, as per the investigation at the spot, only two persons came on a bullet motorcycle and after firing on Devendra Prakash Gaur, they had gone towards Khokha. However, this is not verified at the spot and further deep investigation is going on. Devendra Prakash Gaur was a known person of criminal history. I do not know at the time of incident, he was posted in which police station. I did not know that he was under suspension for the last three years prior to the incident or not. I do not know how many cases were pending against Devendra Prakash Gaur and how many were pending in the Court. I do not know that he had taken stay from the High Court in Maya Tyagi Scandal Case and the other accused were sentenced to life imprisonment. I do not know that two accused Sub Inspectors in Maya Taygi Scandal Case were murdered and relatives of Pankaj Chaudhary were named in the said case or not."

20. This witness further stated as under :

"This is correct that on the basis of the statements of the people at the place of occurrence and of Narendra Kumar Gaur and Kanti Prasad Gaur, I came to a conclusion that the presence of ambassador car at the spot was not verified. It is correct that till the time the investigation was with me, I did not find any believable evidence that ambassador car came at the spot and by firing upon Devendra Prakash Gaur, his rifle was taken away."

21. This witness further stated in cross examination as under :

"This is correct that statements of people around the place of occurrence namely, Ram Kishor, Veer Singh, Sheodan, Nawab Harpal, Balvir Singh, Agwan Singh, Om Prakash and Munne Khan were recorded and none of them told me the number of Maruti Car. The incident reported in the First Information Report was not fully proved. None of the above named had supported this statement that in the ambassador car Veer Pal etc. came with a rifle and had committed murder of Devendra Prakash Gaur and had snatched his rifle. These persons did not support presence of Narendra Gaur and Kanti Prasad at the time of incident, at the place of occurrence. Mahendra Kausik was an eye-witness. After recording statement of Mahendra Kaushik, I did not record statement of Narendra Gaur as to how he was present at the stop at the time of incident. I have mentioned in the Case Diary and attached all the affidavits of people given to me during investigation. I did not record their statements in the C.D."

22. This witness further stated that it is correct that after recording of the case, the G.D. report was not sent along with documents for the post mortem. In the Panchayatnama regarding departure from the police station there is no mention of G.D. Number and there is overwriting of Section 147, 148, 149 & 302 I.P.C.. However, he denied that till the time the Inquest report was prepared, the F.I.R. was not registered and, therefore, the sections 147, 148, 149 & 302 I.P.C. were added later on.

23. Sub Inspector Uday Singh (PW-5) stated that he had prepared Ex.Ka-14 for handing over Maruti Car No. DMC 0966 belonging to deceased-Devendra Prakash Gaur in favour of his brother Narendra Kumar Gaur son of Kanti Prasad Gaur. This witness admitted in cross examination that on record, there is no such order issued by the then Inspector directing him to release the case on Supurdgi in favour of Narendra Kumar Gaur.

24. S.H.O. Ravindra Kumar Singh (PW-6), Police Station – Dibai stated that he has submitted report of recovery of the articles before the Court. The report was prepared by Head Moharir Vinod and is Ex.Ka.15. In cross examination, this witness stated that on 27.5.2010 while giving Ex.Ka-15 in the Court, no recovered articles of Case No. 292 of 1989 were in custody of the police station. In custody register, at S.No.69 dated 14.8.1999, there is an endorsement that entire case property is destroyed. He further stated that the empty cartridge cannot be destroyed.

25. R.K. Sharma (Retired Inspector) (PW-7) stated that he received the further investigation from Inspector Mahesh Chandra Gautam and stated about arrest of accused persons and submitting of the challan report (Ex-Ka-16). He also stated about recording of statement of Inspector-Prahlad Singh and other police officials which are recorded in the C.D. In the cross examination, he stated that on an application given by Harish Kumar Sahni, the Investigating Officer investigation was further transferred to C.B.C.I.D. In the application, Harish Kumar Sahni has mentioned that deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was an accused in an infamous Maya Tyagi scandal case and he is an accused of rape and murder in many police station. This witness stated that he had not inspected the car in which deceased was travelling nor the same was sent for ballistic inspection. This witness further stated as under:

" It is correct that before my investigation, statement of the people nearby the place of incident, namely, Shami Ullah, Shankar lal, Amarpal Kumar, Chandra Dutt, Banvari and Mahaveer were recorded and none of them have stated that at the time of incident, Veer Pal was present and his name was not found in the incident. It is also correct that the above named witnesses did not inform the car number as well as the presence of Narendra Kumar Gaur and Kanti Prasad Gaur at the place of occurrence at the time of incident. It is correct that Narendra Kumar Gaur and Kanti Prasad Gaur are resident of village Kesopur Sathla and Devendra Prakash Gaur used to reside in Naraura there is distance of 60-70 km. Narendra Kumar Gaur and Kanti Prasad Gaur have no property or business in Naraura."

26. He further stated that he has recorded the statement of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik. He further stated that regarding the rifle used in the commission of murder, he has not made any investigation and the wife of deceased or any other family members, despite asking for providing original documents or license, could not provide the same.

27. Amar Pal Singh, Constable (PW-8) stated that he had worked with Inspector Satish Chandra Pachauri who had died in a road accident. He has prepared two documents which are Ex.Ka.17 and Ex.Ka18 and he identified his handwriting.

28. It is worth noticing that the statement of PW-7- Constable Jograj Singh was recorded for the second time (i.e. this PW-7 number was given to two witnesses) in which he has stated that he has brought the register for the year 1988-90 at S.No. 69, the details of the recovery is entered which are one packet of blood stained earth, plain earth, one packet of empty cartridge and one car bearing no. DMC0966 which was handed over to the brother of the deceased by the I.O. There is entry of post mortem report of the clothes of the deceased and bullets received from the body of the deceased. These articles were deposited in P.S.- Dibai. On 02.05.2013, it is entered that the entire case property is destroyed. This report is signed by one H.M.- Usman Ali and verified by S.H.O.- Ambika Prasad. He had identified their signatures and the copy of which is Ex.Ka.21. The entry of burning and destroying of the case property is at S.No. 69 copy of which is Ex.Ka.22. He stated that the case property was not destroyed under the order of any court or higher police officer. Regarding the Car DMC0966 which was given to Narendra Kumar Gaur on Spurdginama was never called back from him and he was not asked to produce it in the court. He denied the suggestion that the entry regarding destroying of the case property is manipulated in order to create fake evidence.

29. Thereafter, the statement of accused under Section 313 Cr.P.C. was recorded separately in which all the incriminating evidence was put to them.

30. Accused Sanjay Dixit stated that he has been falsely implicated due to political rivalry in village-Naraura and denied all the evidence. Similarly, accused- Harpal denied all the questions put to him and also stated that he has been falsely implicated on account of political rivalry in Naraura. Accused Pramod Kumar and Sanjay Dixit, Yogendra and Chandrapal also made similar statements.

31. Accused-Mahendra Kumar Kaushik who was acquitted by the Trial Court, in his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. stated that at the time of incident, he was posted in the police vigilance department and his children were residing in Naraura and due to party faction, he is falsely implicated.

32. In defence Yogendra produced three witnesses. Bhagwan Singh (DW-1) stated that about 20 years ago Devendra Pratap Gaur was murdered near Kaserkala Railway crossing when the railway gate was closed. Two unknown persons did firing. He was having a medical store and had seen from inside the door that unknown persons came on the motorcycle and ran away. This witness stated that the S.H.O. got his signature on the memo Ex.Ka.7. He stated that he informed the S.H.O. that two unknown persons fired upon the deceased. He signed on 09.10.1989 and later on came to know that the deceased is a police officer who was involved in Maya Tyagi scandal case. Till the time police arrived at the spot, there was no family member of the deceased. In cross-examination by public prosecutor, he denied that Yogendra was a history-sheeter and under his influence he has given the statement. He further stated that he did not know him previously.

33. DW-2 Balraj Singh stated that on 09.10.1989, he had a shop near the railway crossing in Kaserkala. On that day, at about 09:10 AM, one suspended S.H.O. was murdered. He was sitting in his shop and person who fired were unknown. This witness was asked to identify unknown Yogendra that he was at the spot. The witness stated that this person was not at the spot and he had seen him for the first time. The crowd gathered at the spot and police came after half an hour then he came to know that the deceased is one Gaur. This witness stated that on that day it was Navami Day and there was a fair due to which there was huge crowd. He had signed memo on 09.10.1989 i.e. Ex.Ka-7. In cross-examination, he denied the suggestion that he came to give statement on the asking of Yogendra.

34. DW-3- Yogendra Kumar Kumar stated that he along with deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik started from Naraura. He had to go to Shikarpur and the others have to go further. Around 9:45 the car was near Kaserkala railway crossing, Devendra Prakash Gaur got down from the car to eat tobacco and he got down to buy cigarette. When Devendra Prakash Gaur was about to sit in the car, two unknown persons came and fired upon Devendra Prakash Gour and he died at the spot. At that time, his brother Narendra Kumar Gaur and his father Kanti Prasad Gaur were not there. This witness was asked to identify Yogendra and on seeing him, he stated that he was not there who fired on the deceased. He further stated that Devendra Prakash Gaur was involved in Maya Tyagi scandal case in which two S.H.O.s' were also murdered and accused were convicted by the court and were sentenced for death. He stated that Mahendra Kumar Kaushik is his cousin brother, and he used to visit him frequently. He denied a suggestion that being cousin of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik or under the influence of Yogendra, he is making wrong statements.

35. Thereafter, vide impugned judgment, the trial Court held the appellants guilty for the offence punishable under Sections 302,147, 148, 149 and 392 of I.P.C whereas one of the accused Mahendra Kumar Kaushik was acquitted of the charge. All the accused were also acquitted of charge under Section 120-B of I.P.C.

36. The accused persons were further sentenced to undergo substantive sentence of life imprisonment along with fine and the aforesaid three appeals have been filed.

37. Learned counsel for the appellant-Yogendra has argued that the deceased was having a chequered criminal history as it has come in the statement of the Investigating Officer that he was involved in number of cases of rape and murder. It is also stated that he was an accused in one Maya Tyagi scandal case, where he had filed a petition before the High Court and a stay was granted. However, the other police officials involved in that case were convicted to life imprisonment. The main thrust of argument of the counsel for appellant is that the presence of PW-1-Narendra Kumar Gaur, who is brother of Devendra Prakash Gaur at the spot is highly doubtful and therefore, he is not a reliable witness.

a) Learned counsel for the appellant submits that at the first instance when the FIR was registered, it is stated that in the Maruti car, informant-PW-1 along with his brother deceased-Devendra Prakash Gaur, father Kanti Prasad Gaur and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, Inspector of U.P. Police were travelling, however, later on PW-1 took a somersault after 25 days by stating that the murder of his brother was committed by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik in conspiracy with other accused. PW-1 has attributed a motive towards Mahendra Kumar Kaushik that in the election of Chairman, Naraura, the deceased was supporting one Omveer Singh whereas Mahendra Kumar Kaushik and other accused were supporting Madan Kumar Vashisht who won the election and thereafter the accused person came to the house of deceased and indulged in the firing. However, later on, the matter was got compromised by father of PW-1, but the accused were carrying enmity in their mind. Thus, PW-1 by changing the entire version of FIR is not a reliable witness.

b) Learned counsel for the appellant submits that on the scrutiny of the entire evidence, the trial court found that testimony of PW-1 is not reliable so far the allegation of conspiracy against Mahendra Kumar Kaushik is concerned and, therefore, he was acquitted of the charge. Learned counsel argued that on the same set of allegation, the other accused though acquitted of charge of conspiracy, however, have been wrongly convicted.

c) Learned counsel for appellant has referred to the statement of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik which is recorded after moving an application under Section 315 Cr.P.C. The statement dated 7.8.2012 under the signature of Mahendra Kumar Kaushik regarding the incident read as under :

" On the date of incident, I along with deceased- Devendra Prakash Gaur were going in a car from Naraura to Bulandshahr. At that time in the car, father of Devendra Prakash Gaur, Kanti Prasad Gaur or his brother Narendra Kumar were not there. At about 10:00 A.M., two unknown assailants committed murder of Devendra Prakash Gaur. He had gone to the Police Station Dibai immediately and from Dibai through wireless message, the family members of Narendra Kumar Gaur from village Kesopur Sathla were called. From the police station, I had gone to my house at Naraura and regarding this incident, my statement was recorded by the Inspector, P.S.- Dibai and I have given the same statement to him. The family members of Devendra Prakash Gaur has put pressure on me in this case to record a false statement against the accused persons. When I refused, in a false conspiracy, I have been nominated in this case. I have no connection with the accused persons."

d) Learned counsel for the appellants submits that this written statement given by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik before the Court by following the procedure of law is duly corroborated from the statement of PW-4-Prahlad Singh, Inspector of Police (Rtd.), who was the first Investigating Officer and from his investigation, the presence of PW-1 was not verified. It is next argued that PW-1 has stated that his clothes as well as clothes of his father were blood stained when the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was put inside the car, however, PW-4 has stated that when PW-1- Narendra Kumar Gaur came to the police station, his clothes were not blood stained and if there was any blood on his clothes, he would have taken his clothes in possession.

e) It is next argued that as per the version given by the PW-1, at the first instance, when their car reached near a railway crossing which was closed, his brother deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur got down from the car to eat tobacco and two accused came on a bullet motorcycle and four on white colour ambassador car, they were carrying firearms. Pramod Kumar kept the engine of motorcycle on and Chandrapal kept on engine of car on. First, Sanjay Dixit and Yogendra opened fire on his brother and when he and his father kept his brother inside the car, Veerpal Singh took the rifle of his brother which was kept in the car and then Veerpal and Harpal one by one from the same rifle fired upon Devenda and he died at the spot.

Learned counsel submits that it has come in the statement of first Investigating Officer i.e. PW-4 as well as of second Investigating Officer, PW-7 that from the statements recorded during the investigation of the shopkeepers who were having their shops nearby the place of incident, which is near to a railway crossing, neither the presence of PW-1 was verified nor the presence of white colour ambassador car was proved. Both these witnesses have named five persons/ shopkeepers, Ram Kishor, Veer Singh, Sheodan, Nawab Harpal, Balvir Singh, Agwan Singh, Om Prakash and Munne Khan etc. who have not stated that in the ambassador car, accused came and even did not support that PW-1 Narendra Gaur or his father Kanti Prasad Gaur were present at the spot.

f) It is next argued that the presence of PW-1 also stands falsified at the spot for the reason that the incident is of 09.10.1989 in which, it is stated that in one Maruti Car No. DNC0966, the deceased and PW-1 were travelling when the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was murdered. However, in a strange manner, without there being any order of the court, PW-4 released the said car on the Spurdginama in a favour of the informant. It has come in the statement of the PW-4- I.O. that he could not found any evidence regarding involvement of Maruti Car in the case and therefore, he has released the car in favour of the informant within three days of his own. Special reference is drawn to the cross-examination whether this witness clearly admitted that it was not in his legal domain to release this car and only the competent court can only release the car. This shows that false evidence is created to introduce the car at spot.

g) Learned counsel further submits that this car was never subsequently produced before the trial court despite issuance of a notice by court and PW-1 gave an explanation that in a fire incident the car was destroyed in 1988. Counsel argues that though it is stated by PW-1 that accused Veerpal, picked the rifle of the deceased, when PW-1 and his father had kept the deceased in an injured condition on the rear seat of the car, firstly Veerpal fired from the licensed gun of the deceased and then Harpal from the same rifle fired upon his deceased brother one by one and he died at spot. Learned counsel submits that in cross-examination this witness has stated that there were marks of blood stain on the seat of the car and there were marks of bullet inside the car. However, PW-4 has clearly stated that when he inspected the car, neither he found the blood stained marks nor any marks of bullet on the body of the car or inside the car, therefore, he had released the car in favour of the informant- PW-1. Learned counsel aruged that this raises a suspicion that car no. DMC0966 was ever used by the deceased or PW-1 for travelling and the deceased being the police officials, the police manipulated the entire evidence.

h) Learned counsel further submitted that even the presence of the second vehicle, namely, white colour ambassador car is not verified by I.O. during the investigation on the basis of the statements of the aforesaid six persons as noticed above and therefore, the presence of the accused persons is highly doubtful.

i) It is next argued that Mahendra Kumar Kaushik who is the eye witness of the incident and later on, was nominated as the accused by PW-1 by making improvements in the FIR version has also not supported the presence of PW-1 at the spot in view of his written statement dated 07.08.2012 made before the trial court wherein he has stated that neither father of the deceased Kanti Prasad Gaur nor Narendra Kumar Gaur was present at the spot and two unknown motorcycle-borne assailants committed the murder of Devendra Prakash Gaur. Learned counsel further submits that it is stated by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik that when he went to the police station to give an information regarding the incident, on a wireless message PW-1 and his family members were informed and only thereafter, they came in the police station. In the meantime, police has reached the spot and started the inquest proceedings. Learned counsel submits that since in the inquest proceedings, there is no details of the FIR, therefore, there is overwriting regarding relevant sections of the I.P.C. in the inquest report which proves that the FIR was ante timed and the inquest proceedings were conducted in a manner that unknown persons have committed the murder of deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur and later on, the accused persons were nominated in the case. Learned counsel next argued that even after the transfer of the case to C.B.C.I.D. which was conducted by PW-7, it is not proved that PW-1 was present at the spot or that the ambassador car carrying four accused persons came at the spot. It is argued that in the investigation of both PW-4 and PW-7 it has come that two unknown motorcycle-borne persons came and committed the offence.

j) It is next argued that the car no. DMC0966 was released in favour of the informant within three days of the incident and was never subjected to ballistic examination also raises a suspicion about the presence of PW-1 at the spot. It is further argued that PW-1 regarding the allegation of the conspiracy against co-accused Mahendra Kumar Kaushik stands disbelieved by the trial court and therefore, he is an witness who cannot be believed with regard to the statement against the other accused persons. Learned counsel next argued that it has come on record that no recovery of any weapon of offence was effected from any of the accused which also proves that they are not involved in the commission of offence.

k) Learned counsel submits that though PW-1 states that a licensed rifle of deceased was taken away by Veerpal after he and Harpal fired from the same yet it has come in the statement of PW-7 that despite asking the family members of the deceased including PW-1 to produce original license of the gun, the said was not produced and therefore, there is absolutely no evidence on record that the deceased was either having a license to hold the rifle or was in fact holding a gun at the time of the incident.

l) It is also argued that as per the statement of PW-4, the entire case property i.e. the recovery memo etc. were destroyed in the police station due to an act of god and were not produced. Learned counsel submits that in the absence of any such evidence, the benefit of doubt should be given to the appellant as in fact no such documents were prepared by the police and since the deceased was a police official, the I.O. has created the evidence in favour of the informant.

m) Learned counsel further submits that another witness Kanti Prasad Gaur, father of deceased was never appeared before the trial court as a witness. It is next argued that PW-1 is not an eye witness and he is planted as an eye witness. It is also submitted that no reliability can be placed on PW-1 as he has even taken a somersault by changing his version in the FIR and nominating the eye witness Mahendra n) It is next argued that there is no scientific investigation conducted in the case to connect the appellants with the commission of offence. It is argued that as per own version of the I.O. the entire recovery effected with any was destroyed in fire and no weapon of offence was recovered from the appellant.

Kumar Kaushik as an accused being a conspirator who was ultimately acquitted by the trial court.

o) Learned counsel further submits that even the empty bullet which was recovered at the spot was also not sent for forensic science examination and the entire case is based on the solitary statement of PW-1 which is not at all reliable.

p) Learned counsel for the appellant further argued that it has come in the statement of PW-7 that the entire case property was destroyed due to fire including the metal empty cartridge which cannot be destroyed. It is argued that incriminating evidences of case property like car no. DMC0966 in which the deceased was travelling along with the empty bullet and case diary of the police station were destroyed and therefore in the absence of the same, the appellants have wrongly been convicted. It is submitted that PW-4 has stated that if PW-1was wearing the blood stained clothes, he would have taken it to the custody but even the clothes were not produced before court.

q) It is next argued that looking from all angles, the presence of PW-1-Narendra Kumar Gaur at the place of occurrence is not proved, therefore, he is not an eye witness. Learned counsel submits that this witness has even made material improvements as the fact stated by him in court that deceased got down from the car to eat tobacco is not mentioned in the FIR. Similarly, the fact that accused Sanjay Sahni has covered him and his father and they did not receive any injury, is also not mentioned in the FIR; PW-4 has stated that as per his verification PW-1- Narendra Kumar Gaur and his father-Kanti Prasad Gaur were not present at the place of occurrence and even in the statements made by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik in terms of Section 315 Cr.P.C. also, he categorically stated that PW-1 was not present at the spot and all these factors were not considered by the trial court. Learned counsel submits that PW-1 was introduced later on, just to cover up the case against the accused person is also apparent from the prosecution evidence that Firstly, within three days of the incident PW-4 released the car which was case property without there being any order of the competent court as admitted by him by saying that he has committed a mistake. Secondly, as per PW-7, the entire case property was destroyed which is entered in Case Diary at S.No. 69. Thirdly, it is submitted that in fact there was no such recovery and rather only evidence is created in this regard. Fourthly, even there is no recovery of any weapon from any of the accused which shows that they had been falsely implicated. Fifthly, as per PW-4, the special report sent to superior officers bears no date, however, it bears the endorsement of CJM dated 16.10.1989 which means it was sent after delay of nine days after manipulating the evidence. It is lastly argued that the deceased had chequered criminal record and it has come in the prosecution evidence that he was involved in number of cases of murder and rape including one infamous Maya Tyagi scandal case, wherein, other police officials were convicted and subsequently two police officers were murdered and there is every possibility that in the same manner, the deceased was murdered by unknown persons and on account of personal enmity the accused persons were named in the FIR.

The counsel has submitted that the testimony of PW-1 is not reliable. The counsel relies upon Javed Shaukat Ali Qureshi vs. State of Gujarat, (2023) 9 SCC 164 to submit that it is held by the Supreme Court while relying upon earlier judgment in Vadivelu Thevar Vs. State of Madras, 1957 0 AIR (SC) 614 that generally speaking, oral testimony of a witness can be classified into three categories namely (i) Wholly reliable; (ii) Wholly unreliable and (iii) Neither wholly reliable nor wholly unreliable. Therefore, this Court finds that the statement of PW-1 is not at all reliable.

Learned counsel further relied upon the decision in Kaur Sain Vs. State of Punjab, 1974 AIR (SC) 329 wherein in paragraph no. 4, it is observed that defence witnesses are often untrustworthy but it is wrong to assume that they always lie and the prosecution witnesses are always trustworthy, the prime infirmity from which the judgment of the high court suffers consists in this double assumption. It is submitted that the trial court has given no weightage to the defence evidence led by the appellants to prove that firstly they were not present at the spot and secondly even PW-1 was not present at the spot and he is not an eye witness. Learned counsel further submits that the statement of three defence witnesses DW-1 to DW-3 if read in the light of the statement of the two I.Os. PW-4 and PW-7 it becomes apparently clear that even during investigation both the Investigating Officers found that PW-1 or his father-Kanti Prasad Gaur was not present at the spot. It is submitted that even Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, an eye witness of the incident, in his statement before the trial court which is under Section 315 Cr.P.C. has stated that two unknown persons committed murder of deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur and the accused persons were not there and even PW-1 or his father was not present at the spot in the car.

r) Learned counsel submits that even there is no forensic evidence to connect the case of the prosecution with the appellants as it has come in the statement of PW-4 that he did not even get the Maruti car inspected from any ballistic expert as he did not find any evidence that the car was hit by any bullet inside or outside and there were no blood stains in the car. It is also argued that PW-4 has stated that the clothes of the PW-1 were not blood stained and therefore, he has not taken the same in custody which also falsified the statement of PW-1 as if he and his father have picked up the deceased in an injured condition and he was kept in the backside of the car. It is also argued that the story set up by the prosecution that the accused Veerpal took away the licensed gun of the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur. It is also not proved in evidence that any documents or license of rifle could be produced before the I.O. despite his asking from family members of the deceased.

38. The learned counsel appearing for the other accused have additionally argued that no evidence has come on record that rifle was recovered from him and in the absence of any forensic science lab or ballistic report to prove the nature of injury sustained by the rifle, the prosecution case is highly doubtful.

i) It is further argued that though in the FIR it is stated by the informant that on the previous occasion the accused persons fired upon the deceased at P.S.-Naraura and similarly firing incident took place after the candidates supported by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik won the election, and the candidate of the deceased lost election, however, except for the bald statement of PW-1 neither any G.D.R. nor any FIR in this regard registered with the police station is placed on record which falsify the plea of motive. Learned counsel further submits that the plea set up by the informant that Mahendra Kumar Kaushik conspired the murder of his brother after the 25 days of this incident, is already disbelieved by the trial court. It is submitted that testimony of PW-4 to PW-7 regarding the presence of PW-1 at the place of occurrence is corroborated by DW-1 to DW-3 who are natural witnesses as they are having shop near railway crossing where the incident took place.

ii) Learned counsel submits that while cross examining DW-1 to DW-3 by the State counsel, no suggestion was given either that they do not have a shop nearby the railway crossing or they were not present at the spot. It is also submitted that both PW-4 and PW-7 has nowhere stated that accused persons were either present at the spot or perpetuated the crime. Learned counsel further submits that finding recorded by the trial court that as per the opinion of PW-2-Doctor who conducted the post mortem, multiple weapons were used, is not supported by any ballistic expert report and rather trial court has misread the statement of the doctor as he has nowhere stated that multiple weapons were used rather he has pleaded ignorance in cross-examination about the nature of the weapon used. It is submitted that the most important piece of evidence, the Maruti Car in which the deceased was travelling was never produced before the trial court despite the directions issued by the court. Therefore, the identity of the car is not proved and even no independent recovery memo of this car was prepared by the I.O. as stated by PW-7 that after it was recovered by the I.O., it was released in favour of the PW-1 on Supurdginama. It is also submitted that in the site plan Ex.Ka.6 which is prepared at the instance of PW-1, nowhere depicts the presence of the accused persons and rather it depicts the Khokha, small shops of various persons whose statement was recorded by the I.O. who come to a conclusion that PW-1was not present at the spot. It is also submitted that in site plant Ex.Ka.6, it is also not mentioned at what place the assailants were standing and from where the PW-1 has seen them which also shows that he was not present at the spot. It is also submitted that it is admitted case of the prosecution as PW-4 the first I.O. that accused Mahendra Kumar Kaushik was present at the spot but he was not cited as a witness as later on, on the application given by the informant he was made an accused, however, he made a written statement before the court under Section 315 Cr.P.C. completely destroying the evidence of PW-1. Similarly, the second I.O.- P.W.-7 has not stated that any independent person of the vicinity has verified that PW-1 was present at the place of occurrence and rather the defence witnesses have proved that there were two shooters who came on a motorcycle, corroborate the version of PW-4 and PW-7. It is also submitted that even in the case diary the I.O. has noticed that two unknown shooters have committed the murder. It is submitted that no credibility can be given to PW-1 as nothing has come on record at what place or time or date the accused conspired to commit the murder of deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur.

iii) It is argued that the FIR is ante timed. Counsel has submitted that at the time of preparation of inquest report the FIR was not inexistence, a reference is drawn to inquest report is Ex.Ka.7 where above Sections 302, 395, 147, 148 and 149 I.P.C. are mentioned. It is argued that in the FIR sections were written as 147, 149, 302, 392 I.P.C. in one sequence and this demonstrates that in the inquest report sections were added later on. It is also submitted that similarly in Ex.Ka.9- letter to CMO, Ex.Ka10- letter to R.I., Ex.Ka.11- photo of the dead body and Ex.Ka.8- form no.13 entered in police report where Sections 147, 148 and 149 I.P.C. are added later on which show that all these documents were prepared prior to registration of the FIR which is ante timed and this also raises suspicion on the prosecution case.

iv) It is also argued that as per Ex.Ka.9 police form no. 13, the time to send the dead body in the hospital is 20:10 minutes which show that for a period of seven and a half hours the dead body was not sent to the hospital. This also demonstrates that till the time inquest proceedings were completed, the FIR was not registered. Counsel submits that the trial court has wrongly recorded the finding that since Devendra Prakash Gaur has died therefore, I.O. was not in a hurry to take his body to hospital and only after completing the inquest proceedings, information was sent to head office from where the mortuary van was arranged which reached at the spot and took the dead body to the hospital. Another argument is raised that in the FIR, it is mentioned that five persons have looted the rifle, however, in the FIR, only Section 392 I.P.C. is mentioned instead of Section 395 I.P.C. which also shows that at the time of registration of the FIR less than five persons have committed the offence.

v) Counsel submits that as per the copy of the FIR was sent to Magistrate on 16.10.1989 whereas the same was required to be sent to the concerned Magistrate immediately. Counsel submits that the trial court has recorded wrong finding that the I.O. was busy in searching for the accused person as the police official was murdered therefore, the I.O. sent report on the next date to the Magistrate. It is next submitted that the Magistrate endorsed on the FIR on 16.10.1989 by writing 'seen' and therefore, this aspect also reflect that the FIR is ante timed. It is also submitted that neither PW-3 nor PW-4 could explain the delay in sending the report to the Magistrate on 16.10.1989 i.e. after seven days.

vi) Counsel further submits that trial court has wrongly taken notice of two letters at S.No. 173-B regarding a copy of the license issued from D.M.- Pilibhit whereas this document was neither proved by the informant or by the I.O. Counsel has next argued that the defence has produced two documents Chik A.7/1 and A.7/3. Chik Ex. A.7/1 bearing no. 65 in Case Crime No. 82-A under Section 394, 406 I.P.C. is attached in which one Govind Ram Kumar has registered the case against deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur. Vide Ex.A.7/2 Chick No. 101, Case Crime No. 82-C under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 394, 323, 504 I.P.C. is registered in which one Sanjay son of Shyam Bihari has registered case against deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur, his father and others for extending threat and opening fire by unknown persons. In that case, accused Yogendra was cited as a witness. In Ex.A.7/3 Chik No. 66, Case Crime No. 82-B under Sections 147, 148, 307, 342 I.P.C. was registered in P.S.- Naraura by one Satya Prakash Agarwal. Similarly, vide Ex.A.7/5 one Ganga Sharan Kumar has registered FIR in P.S.- Naraura stated that he had gone to a tent house for depositing the articles and when he was coming back along with Jayanti Prasad and Ram Bharose and 2-3 labourers when reached the house of Inspector, Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, some miscreants did firing and declared that Devendra Prakash Gaur is done away. Those persons encircled them and snatched licensed gun of Ram Gopal and then they ran away. Counsel submits that all these documents were not considered by the trial court by observing that they have not been properly proved.

39. In reply, learned counsel for the informant has argued that the FIR pertains to the year 1989 whereas the charges were framed after 10 years as some of the accused were arrested later on. The trial was concluded after a long time and, in the meantime, in the month of March 2008, Kanti Prasad Gaur, father of the victim and PW-1, had died, prior to framing of the charges therefore, he could not be examined as a witness. Learned counsel has placed reliance upon the affidavit of the informant to submit that as many as 32 cases were pending against Yogendra and some other cases are also pending against the other accused and this fact is noticed while dismissing the bail application of Yogendra. It is also argued that the narration of the events, the manner in which the accused have committed the offence with their respective weapons is explained by PW-1 who is the natural witness as he was accompanying his brother-Devendra Prakash Gaur (deceased) in the car. It is also argued that no independent witness came forward and therefore, the police could not record the statement of any witness. Learned counsel submits that the offence was committed in broad day light and a prompt FIR was registered. Counsel submits that medical evidence by way of statement of PW-2 who conducted the post mortem of the deceased duly support that the deceased died due to firearm injuries. It is also argued that the accused have not disputed the date, time and place of occurrence where the deceased was murdered. It is also submitted that no suggestion was given to PW-1 that accused persons were not present at the spot. Counsel submits that DW-1 to DW-3 which are produced by the defence are interested witnesses and their statement has been rightly not relied upon by the trial court. Learned counsel further argues that on account of the faulty investigation by the I.O. in not keeping the case property in tact or not preparing the site plan properly is not a fault of the informant and no benefit can be taken by the accused person.

Counsel further submits that even if a ballistic expert was not called to examine the car by I.O. does not make prosecution case doubtful. Similar arguments are raised by learned counsel appearing for the State that the defence could not make a dent on the credibility of PW-1 who is a natural witness.

40. In reply, learned counsel for the appellant has argued that in pursuance to the statement of PW-1 neither any motorcycle was recovered which was used by accused Pramod Kumar in commission of the crime nor any ambassador car was recovered from accused Chandrapal which was also used in the crime. Even no firearm were recovered from any of the accused including the licensed rifle of the deceased and therefore, the testimony of PW-1 is not reliable and in the absence of corroborating evidence, and appellants are entitled to be acquitted. It is also argued that as per supplementary affidavit, accused Yogendra stands acquitted in number of cases or has undergone sentence in petty offence cases.

41. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the judgment of the trial court, the following points were framed and decided.

(i) Whether there is a delay in recording the FIR and start of investigation? The trial court recorded that there is no delay on the part of the prosecution.

(ii) Whether the FIR is ante timed? The trial court recorded the FIR is not ante time.

(iii) Regarding the previous enmity it is held that the prosecution has failed to produce any document that there was previous enmity between the parties.

(iv) Regarding the credibility of the sole eye witness-PW-1, the trial court recorded that this witness was present at the time of the occurrence.

(v) Regarding the corroboration of the medical evidence with prosecution version, the trial court has recorded the finding that the same corroborates occular version of PW-1.

42. So far as motive is concerned, the trial court recorded the finding that prosecution has failed to prove any motive against all the accused and they were acquitted of charge under Section 120-B I.P.C. including Mahendra Kumar Kaushik who is also acquitted under Section 302 I.P.C. Thus, the trial court recorded the finding that the motive is not proved.

43. After hearing the counsel for the parties and carefully going through the trial court record and on re-scrutinizing the entire evidence, we find merit in the present appeal for following reasons:

A) Reliability of PW-1

All the counsel for the appellants-accused have hammered on the credibility of PW-1 and the court find merit in the same as:

(a) At the first instance, PW-1 recorded the FIR that his brother- Devendra Prakash Gaur (deceased) was having enmity with Yogendra, Sanjay Dixit, Chandrapal, Harpal and Veerpal etc. and when he along with his father and brother and Mahendra Kumar Kaushik were travelling in car no. DMC0966 and reached near a railway crossing which was closed, his brother got down to eat tobacco in the meantime one Bullet Motorcycle driven by accused Pramod Kumar and Sanjay Dixit as pillion driver came from backside, Sanjay Dixit was having a gun. Pramod Kumar kept the engine of the motorcycle on. Similarly, one white colour ambassador car also came from the backside in which Veerpal, Harpal, Yogendra and Sanjay Sahni came. Yogendra was carrying a gun, Sanjay Sahni was carrying a country made pistol, Chandrapal kept the car engine on. Thereafter, Sanjay Dixit and Yogendra fired on his brother who was about to sit in the car and when he was injured by firearm, PW-1 and his father took his brother on the back seat of the car. His brother's rifle was lying in the car and Veerpal picked up the gun and fired upon his brother and then Harpal from the same licensed rifle fired on his brother Devendra Prakash Gaur and he died at the spot.

However, it is a matter of record that after 25 days of the incident, PW-1 changed the story and gave an application for transfer of the investigation to C.B.C.I.D. stating that Mahendra Kumar Kaushik is the principal conspirator who got his brother murdered. Thereafter, the investigation was transferred to C.B.C.I.D. and two challans were presented before the court and charges were framed under Section 302 read with Section 120-B of I.P.C. against all the accused including Mahendra Kumar Kaushik. The trial court while disbelieving the statement of PW-1 with regard to Mahendra Kumar Kaushik acquitted him that the charge under Section 120-B I.P.C. is not proved against him as well as other accused. However, the trial court believed the version of PW-1 with regard to other accused while holding them guilty.

Once PW-1 has taken a complete somersault with regard to allegations in the FIR where Mahendra Kumar Kaushik was cited as a witness and then citing him as an accused/ principal conspirator, this court has carefully re-scrutinized the statement of PW-1 in the light of partial disbelief by the trial court and find that the version given by PW-1 regarding presence of all other accused is not reliable.

(b) Mahendra Kumar Kaushik- the eye witness has nowhere stated that any of the accused came either on the motorcycle or on white ambassador car and committed the offence rather he has taken up the stand that family members of informant were putting pressure on him to name other accused persons and when he refused, even he himself has been nominated as an accused falsely. It appears to be plausible explanation. Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, after recording his statement under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. has also moved an application for recording his statement in terms of Section 315 of Cr.P.C. by way of an affidavit and in the said affidavit dated 07.08.2012, he has stated that he along with deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur were going in the car from Naraura to Bulandshahar and at that time in the car neither the father of Devendra Prakash Gaur, namely, Kanti Prasad Gaur nor his brother Narendra Kumar Gaur- PW-1 were there. At about 10:00 AM, two unknown persons committed the murder of Devendra Prakash Gaur and he has gone to P.S.- Dibai immediately to report the matter and police gave wireless message to the family of the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur who reached later on at the spot.

This statement has some evidential value on the case as at no point of time Mahendra Kumar Kaushik had stated either before the two I.O.s or in his statement under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. that the other accused/ present appellants were present at the spot and committed the offence.

(c) It has come in the statement of both the I.O.s as PW-4 stated that he has recorded the statement of shopkeepers who were having small vends near the railway crossing and they have stated that both PW-1- Narendra Kumar Gaur and his father- Kanti Prasad Gaur were not present at the spot. They have also not stated that any of the accused came or committed the offence. PW-1 has stated that he has even collected the affidavits of all these 6-7 shopkeepers whose name are mentioned above who have not stated that the accused came in an ambassador car and the affidavits were recorded in C.D. and sent to higher police officers.

(d) Very strangely and surprisingly within three days, after the incident dated 09.10.1989, Maruti car no. DNC0966 in which PW-1 was allegedly travelling with his father and deceased brother- Devendra Prakash Gaur was released on Supurdari in favour of PW-1 without making it a case property though, in a statement PW-1 has stated that they all were travelling together in the Maruti car and stopped at the railway crossing. Even, PW-1 has stated that they put Devendra Prakash Gaur in the back seat of the car, when he was already hit by bullets and PW-1 and his father's clothes were blood stained and after he was lying in the car accused Veerpal took out licensed rifle of the deceased lying in the car and then fired upon him and subsequently Harpal from the same rifle also fired upon deceased and he died at the spot. All facts relating to the car were never proved before the trial court. PW-1 has stated that he has taken the car on Supurdari from the I.O. PW-4 and later on the car was destroyed in a fire. PW-4 clearly admitted that he had no legal authority to release car in favour of PW-1 and only competent court of law could release it but still he released the car vide Ex.Ka.14. PW-

1 could not produce any document of registration of ownership of the car. He admitted that he has received summon from the court to produce the car but the same was not produced. This all makes prosecution case highly doubtful whether the car no. DMC0966 was actually used by the deceased while travelling along with PW-1 and his father.

(e) The details of the car were never given by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik-the eye witness. Even PW-4 in cross-examination admitted that he had no authority to release the car on Supurdari in favour of the accused. Though, he has taken the car in a possession as case property. He gave an explanation that due to mistake he has given the car though it can be given by the Magistrate only. Therefore, the provisions of Section 451 of Cr.P.C. were not at all complied with by the I.O. which also raises suspicion about the identity of the car. PW-4 has even gone to the extent by stating that he inspected Maruti car at the spot, but he could not find any evidence of blood stains on the rear seat or any outer body of the car. Similarly, he has stated that he also could not find any mark of Bullets either outside or inside the body of car. This falsify the version of PW-1 that when he and his father kept deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur on the rear seat of the car, accused Veerpal picked the licensed gun of the deceased and fired from the left side of the car and then Harpal from the right side of the car fired upon the deceased. In such eventuality, there should be blood stains on the clothes of PW-1 or his father and on the body of the car especially the seat and the doors. As per the post mortem report, there were bullet marks and exit wound, however, no such evidence was found inside the car.

(f) PW-4 has stated that when informant PW-1 has come to report that matter, his clothes were not blood stained and if there was any blood on his clothes, he would have taken the same in custody. Even the clothes of father of PW-1 were not produced before the police. PW-1 has clearly admitted that when they picked up the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur to keep him inside the car, he was already injured and therefore, their clothes were blood stained. However, this important link of evidence is missing and not proved and raise doubt about presence of PW-1 at spot.

(g) PW-4 has even gone to the extent that he did not deem it appropriate to call the ballistic expert to inspect the car for this purpose and therefore, the reliability of PW-1 for this part of the incident, qua use of Maruti car and presence of PW-1 and his father becomes doubtful.

(h) Even the presence of white colour ambassador car in which four accused persons namely Yogendra, Veerpal, Harpal and Sanjay Sahni allegedly came is not verified in the investigation by both the Investigating Officers. As per the verification conducted by both the Investigating Officers from the shopkeepers, who were having their shop vends nearby the railway crossing, the presence of white colour ambassador car was not proved, rather it has come on record that it was a Navami day and there was a fair at the place of incident and a huge crowd has gathered and two unknown assailants came on a motorcycle and after committing murder ran away.

(i) Even Mahendra Kumar Kaushik, who is the eye witness of the incident, either his statement under Section 313 Cr.PC or in written statement before the Court, the date 7.8.2012 has not mentioned about any white colour ambassador car in which four accused persons had come.

(j) Even during the investigation, after the arrest of the accused persons, no weapon of the offence including the licensed rifle of deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was recovered. Devendra Prakash Gaur was an Inspector in UP Police. Similarly, Mahendra Kumar Kaushik is also an Inspector in UP Police, who was an eye witness and, therefore, it cannot be believed that two Investigating Officers, one from the State police and another from C.B.C.I.D. i.e. (PW-4 and PW-7), on their custodial investigation could not recover any weapon including the licensed rifle which was allegedly taken by Veerpal and Harpal. This also raises suspicion on the prosecution version.

(k) From the spot, only one empty cartridge was recovered and as per the statement of PW-2, one cartridge was recovered from the neck of the deceased, who has conducted post mortem of the dead body but were never sent for forensic examination.

(l) Similarly, neither there was recovery of any weapon nor blood stained earth, blood stained clothes of victim or PW-1 or his father or the empty cartridges were never sent for forensic science investigation, despite the fact that the deceased was Inspector in UP Police. Even during investigation, no licence of the gun was recovered by the police, though it has come that a copy of the letter from the District Magistrate, Pilibhit regarding one licence is produced, but it was not exhibited in accordance with law, by either of the Investigating Officers, who have stated that despite their asking the family of the victim, did not produce any such evidence, and therefore, the trial court has wrongly relied on a letter, which not proved and exhibited by the informant PW-1 and two Investigating Officers (PW-4 and PW-7 respectively).

(m) In the absence of recovery of rifle, the licence of rifle cannot be matched with the gun which is allegedly looted by Veerpal and Harpal.

(n) It has come in the statement of PW-7 Jograj Singh (wrongly numbered twice) that the entire case property was destroyed due to fire and therefore there is nothing on record to connect the appellant with the commission of offence. The trial court has wrongly discarded this argument by observing that maintenance of the record room where the case property is kept is not good in State of U.P. and therefore, it may have been destroyed due to lapse of time. However, in our opinion, benefit of doubt would go to the accused as case property like blood stained earth, the clothes worn by the deceased or the bullet recovered from the spot or retrieved from the dead body or the car were never sent to forensic science examination and never produced before the trial court, on the plea that everything has been destroyed including the original case diary etc.

(o) It is stated but not mentioned in FIR by PW-1 that his brother got down from the car to eat tobacco. It is also not stated in FIR that when deceased was about to sit in the car, Yogendra fired upon his brother. However, an explanation is given that he does not know why police has not mentioned this fact. Therefore, it is an improvement made by PW-1 in the court. As even at the time when the application was moved after 25 days of arraying, Mahendra Kumar Kaushik as an accused such plea was not taken. PW-1 also not admitted in the FIR it is not stated that at the first instance, Veerpal picked up the licensed rifle of the deceased and fired upon him and again stated that he does not know why police has not recorded. It is also not recorded in FIR as stated by PW-1 that accused Sanjay Dixit gave cover to him and his father. There is a discrepancy of number of the car as well. As PW-1 stated that he has given the car no. as DNC0966 whereas it was recorded as DMC0966. PW-1 further admitted that without any order of the court he has taken the car on Supurdgari, though, it was taken in possession by police.

(p) PW-1 admitted that in the release deed/ Supurdari Ex.Ka.14 there was an endorsement that he will produce the car before the court as and when required and despite receiving the notice from the court he failed to produce the car by saying that it was in possession of the children of the deceased and he does not know whether they have sold the car and rather stated that car was destroyed in the fire in the year 2008. No evidence of such firing incident like a D.D.R. with the police is placed on record. This also makes the case of the prosecution highly doubtful.

(q) Nothing has come on record regarding the ownership of the car in which the deceased was travelling. I.O. did not try to verify and conduct investigation in this regard which suggest that this car was just introduced as an evidence and by showing that it has been released on Supurdari to PW-1 within three days of the incident and later on an explanation is given that the car was destroyed in fire appears to be an after thought, just to create evidence as the deceased was a police inspector. It is admitted case that there is no FSL report regarding the cartridge, picked up from the spot as well as retrieved from the body of the deceased which show that there is no corroboration of the occular version of the prosecution, at the cost of repetition it may be noticed that no weapon of offence was recovered from any of the accused after their arrest despite custodial investigation and even the licensed gun of the deceased which was allegedly taken away by accused Veerpal and Harpal was also not recovered and even no license of gun in this regard was proved in accordance with law. All this show that PW-1 is not a reliable witness and rather prove that he or his father were not present at spot and PW-1 is not an eye-witness.

(r) PW-2- Dr. P.K. Agarwal who conducted the post mortem in cross-examination had admitted that he cannot tell about the nature of the weapon used for the injuries and only an expert can tell. On a question whether he has seen 306 bore rifle, this witness stated that he has no knowledge about the bullet fire from 306 bore rifle and thus, this important medical evidence was withheld by the prosecution and the version given by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik that two unknown motorcycle-borne assailants fired upon deceased- Devendra Prakash Gaur resulting into his death seems to be plausible from the investigation carried out by Investigating Officers PW-4 and PW-7. Thus, from the entire evidence, the statement of the PW-1 is not reliable that he was present at the spot and has given a natural eye witness account. The trial court has totally disbelieved the motive on a part of any of the accused while recording a finding that the charge under Section 120B is not proved and therefore, in the absence of any motive, the benefit of doubt is to be given to the accused persons that they have not committed the offence.

(s) The trial court has wrongly discarded the statement of DW-1 to DW-3. Firstly, because in cross-examination no suggestion was given by A.D.G.C. that they are not having any shop near the railway crossing and they were not present at the spot. Secondly, it has come in the statement of PW-4 that he has collected the affidavit of DW-1 and DW-2 along with some other persons who have stated that the accused were not present at the spot and even white ambassador car was not seen at the spot. The A.D.G.C. did not put any question to these witnesses asking them to identify the other accused person, however, to the contrary DW-1 and DW-2 have stated that accused Yogendra was not present at the spot. In view of judgment of Kaur Sain Vs. State of Punjab (supra), the statement of DW-1 and DW-2 could not be discarded outrightly when read along with the statement of PW-1, PW-4 and PW-7 and therefore, both these witnesses are natural witnesses and have stated that they are having shops near the railway crossing where the incident took place and both PW-1 and his father were not there at the spot when two unknown motorcycle-borne assailants fired upon the deceased- Devendra Prakash Gaur. Statement of the defence witnesses is also corroborated by the written statement made by Mahendra Kumar Kaushik (an eye witness) who was later on was assigned as accused that PW-1 and his father were neither travelling in the car nor present at the spot when the incident took place.

49. The prosecution could not explain the cuttings made at the inquest report thereby adding relevant sections of I.P.C.

50. The FIR gives all the sections of I.P.C. in a sequence whereas Sections 147, 148 and 149 I.P.C. added later on, in the inquest report and other documents which were prepared at the spot which also raise a suspicion about the investigation conducted by the police and support the version of the defence that these were added later on as the deceased was a police inspector and murdered by unknown person. Similarly, no explanation is given by I.O. regarding adding of Sections 147, 148 and 149 I.P.C., subsequently, in letter written to the C.M.O. is Ex.Ka.9, letter to R.I. is Ex.Ka.10, photographs of dead body is Ex.Ka.11 as well as form no. 13 is Ex.Ka.8 which also makes the prosecution case suspicious. The trial court has recorded a finding that sending of the dead body for post mortem to hospital vide Ex.Ka.9, after seven and a half hours of delay was due to the fact that the deceased has already died and the I.O. was not in a hurry to take his body to the hospital and he has completed the inquest report is not plausible. Even the prosecution could not explain that the incident which is of dated 09.10.1989 and special report was sent to the Magistrate on 16.10.1989, why it was not sent promptly also raises a suspicion as endorsement by the Magistrate on the FIR is dated 16.10.1989 i.e after seven days.

51. It has also come in evidence that deceased was an accused in one Maya Tyagi scandal case in which number of police officials were convicted and sentenced life imprisonment, however, the trial of the deceased was stayed by the High Court. It has also come in the statement of I.O. that the deceased was an accused in some cases of murder and rape and he was under suspension for the last three years.

52. It has also come in the evidence that two of the police officials in Maya Tyagi scandal case were murdered and therefore, there is a force in the argument raised by the defence counsel that the possibility of murder of Devendra Prakash Gaur who was Inspector of Police in a similar fashion committed by unknown assailants and the appellants have been falsely nominated in the case.

53. So far the charge under Section 392 I.P.C. is concerned neither the rifle in question was recovered nor any license of gun was proved that the deceased Devendra Prakash Gaur was in fact holding a valid gun license or was owner of a gun and therefore, the trial court has wrongly recorded the finding holding the appellants- Veerpal and Harpal guilty of offence under Section 392 I.P.C.

54. The appellants Chandrapal and Veerpal have already died, therefore, their appeal stands abated. The appellants- Sanjay Dixit, Veerpal and Pramod Kumar Sharma are already on bail whereas Yogendra was never granted bail and as per custody certificate dated 05.11.2022, he is in jail for more than 13 years.

55. In view of above, we find merit in all these appeals. Accordingly, the same are allowed. The impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence are set aside. The appellants are acquitted of the charges. Let appellant-Yogendra be released from custody if he is not required in any other case. A copy of this order along with the trial court records be transmitted forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 277
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAHUL CHATURVEDI, J.
THE HON'BLE MS. NAND PRABHA SHUKLA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 4849 of 2024

Informant/Victim ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Ashutosh Mishra, Kripa Kant Pandey

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-376, 504 & 506-The Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Sections 3(2)(v) 14-A & (10) -The Code of Criminal Procedure,1973-Section 372-Criminal Appeal by prosecutrix/victim against order of acquittal of Accused/Respondent from charges under Section 376, 504, 506 IPC and Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act-Internal medical examination is an integral part of investigation and the its absence the prosecution looses its credibility-Nothing on record to establish this flimsy allegation that her brother was kidnapped by the accused/ respondent and on this score she has denied for any medical examination-Highly unlikely that the accused-respondent have trapped the victim in the false pretext of marriage-When victim is already married and that marriage still subsist, then any amount of promise to marry would automatically gets evaporated.

Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Anurag Soni Vs St. of Chhatisgarh reported in AIR 2019 SC 1857

2. Dr. Dhruvram Murlidhar Sonar Vs St. of Mah. 2019(18)SCC191

3. Naim Ahamed Vs St. (NCT of Delhi) 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 66

4. Maheshwar Tigga Vs St. of Jharkhand 2020 (10) SCC 108

5. Bannareddy & ors.Vs St. of Karn. & ors., (2018) 5 SCC 790

6. Jayamma Vs St. of Karn., 2021 (6) SCC 213

7. Virendra Singh Vs St. of UP & ors., 2022 (3) ADJ 354 DB

8. Rajesh Prasad Vs St. of Bihar & anr., (2022) 3 SCC 471

9. Mallapa & ors.Vs St. of Karn.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rahul Chaturvedi, J.

&

Hon'ble Ms. Nand Prabha Shukla, J.)

1. Heard Sri Ashutosh Mishra, Sri Kripa Kant Pandey, learned counsel for the appellant and Learned AGA for the State.

2. The instant appeal is under Section 14(A)(1) of the SC/ST Act 1989 read with Section 372 Cr.P.C. spear headed against Judgement and Order of acquittal dated 08.02.2024 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, SC/ST Act, Court No.14, Prayagraj, whereby learned Sessions Judge while deciding SST No. 15(706) of 2020 (State Vs. Madan Yadav) arising out of Case Crime No. 1008 of 2019 under Section 323, 504, 506 and 376 IPC and Section 3(2)(V) of SC/ST Act, P.S. Colonelganj, District Prayagraj have convicted Madan Yadav only under Section 323 IPC and awarding six months S.I. and Rs. 1000/- fine only acquitting him from all the serious charges under Section 376, 504, 506 IPC and Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act.

3. Aggrieved by the aforesaid Judgement and Order the prosecutrix/victim of Case Crime No. 1008 of 2019 is proposing to invoke the powers of this Court under Section 372 Cr.P.C. read with Section 14(A)(1) of SC/ST Act, with the following prayer:-

It is therefore, most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may graciously be pleased to allow the present criminal appeal against the acquittal of the opposite party no.2 and set aside the judgement and order dated 08.02.2024 passed by the Additional Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Court No.14, Prayagraj in Sessions Trial No. 15(706) of 2020 (State of U.P. Vs. Madan Yadav) arising out of case crime no. 1008 of 2019 under Section 323, 504, 506, 376 IPC and Section 3(2)(v) Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes (Prevntion of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station Colonelganj, District Prayagraj, whereby the accused/opposite party no.2 has been acquitted for the offence under section 3(2)(v) of Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 and has only awarded lessor conviction under section 323 of IPC for six months simple imprisonment along with fine of Rs. 1000/- and in default of fine one months additional convict and sentence the opposite party no.2 as according to law.

d/or pass such other and further order as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper under the facts and circumstances of the case."

4. We have heard Sri Ashutosh Mishra and Sri Kripa Kant Pandey, learned counsel for the appellant to their satisfaction and learned AGA for the State and perused the impugned Judgement and Order.

5. After hearing learned counsel the appellant on the admission, we are proposing to decide the appeal at this stage itself.

6. Before coming to the merit of the case, it is imperative to give a bare skeleton facts of the case, so as to appreciate the controversy in its correct perspective.

7. The accused-respondent Madan Yadav is a charge sheeted accused under Section 323, 504, 506 and 376 IPC and Section 3(2)(V) of SC/ST Act.

8. Vide Ext. (Ka-1) an application was given by the Prosecutrix to SSP, Prayagraj, that during her educational days, she met with Madan Yadav in the year 2014. On the pretext of helping her in her studies and providing notes etc. they developed certain amount of intimacy. During passage of time, this relationship have crossed all the limits of decency and they got involve in pre-marital sex with each other. Not only this, for the purposes of helping her studies, the accused often call her to 'Yadav lodge', Laxmi Chauraha, Allahabad for 2-3 days and thereafter leave her. As per prosecution story, during this time he has extended promise that he would marry her. Meanwhile, for the purposes of education, she left to Lucknow, and has taken admission in some other University. Even then, Madan Yadav came to Lucknow and called her to 'Nayan Atithigrih' and 'Hotel Katiyar International' near PGI, Lucknow and have a sex with her. In the year 2018, Madan Yadav got a service in C.M.P. Degree College, Allahabad. Thereafter, there was a change in his behaviour and attitude qua her. On 17.10.2019, when she reached to C.M.P. Degree College to meet Madan Yadav, then he candidly informed her that he would not marry her. Now, he is a Faculty in the said Degree College and committed maar-peet with her. Dr. Prahlad was aware of their relationship. On 05.11.2019 when she visited to Madan's place then Madan and his mother pushed her derogatorily and told her that they are 'Yadav' by caste and you are 'Chamar (Scheduled Caste)' and they would not permit her to even enter in her house. Thereafter she tried to pacify the situation and both of them met in Azad Park for 2-3 hours, where he keep on scolding her and uttered filthy 'caste related abuses' to her.

9. The aforesaid factual story was given by her to SSP, Prayagraj against Madan Yadav and his mother with a prayer to lodge an FIR under the approriate section of the IPC and SC/ST Act may be ordered. Accordingly in the G.D. Entry no. 35 on 18.11.2019 was registered at 14.29 hours.

10. After registering the case the police investigated the matter and has jotted down her 161 Cr.P.C. and 164 Cr.P.C. statement of the prosecutrix and thereafter holding indepth probe into the matter, charge sheet was submitted against 'Madan Yadav' only dropping the name of his mother from the charge sheet.

11. Being the cognizable offence specially relates to the SC/ST Act, the case was committed to the Special Judge, SC/ST Act on 28.01.2020 and the learned Trial Judge on 14.02.2020 has framed the charges under Section 376, 504, 506, 323 IPC and Section 3(2)(V) SC/ST Act.

12. In order to substantiate the allegations the prosecution has produced following witnesses whose oral testimonies were recorded supporting the prosecution story. They are :-

(I) PW-1/The victim/informant herself

(II) PW-2/Gyan Chandra Maurya witness of fact

(III) PW-3/Arun Kumar witness of fact

(IV) PW-4/Dr. Pallavi Pandey, doctor who examined the victim

(V) PW-5/Head Constable Sharda Prasad, who is witness of Chick and G.D. Entry and lastly

(VI) PW-6/ACP Satyendra Prasad Tiwari.

13. In addition to this number of documents, original tehrir, 164 statement of the prosecutrix, Ext Ka-3 (Medical Examination Report), Ext. Ka-5 Chick FIR, Ext. Ka-7 Charge sheet etc. etc. are the documents which were produced to support the prosecution case.

14. After the prosecution witnesses were over, the accused was called upon to record his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C., who broadly denied the prosecution case and have submitted that on the aid and advise of her counsel she has cooked up a false story with malicious intention to rope him in the heinous offence of rape. The entire prosecution story is purposive and in order to blackmail him. He further states in his 313 Cr.P.C. statement that in the year 2016 he was engaged as Lecturer in Economics in Raghuvar Dayal Pathak Inter College and the prosecutrix met her and concealing her caste and projecting herself as 'Yadav' by caste, sought a support and cooperation in her studies. She was having different design in her mind, having a malicious intention and she has made an offer to marry accused-respondent.

In order to establish the defense version the accused-respondents has produced DW-1 Saurabh Singh, DW-2 Bihari, DW-3 Kamlesh Kumar, DW-4 Kamla Chandra Gautam, DW-5 Atul Srivastava, DW-6 Hari Shankar Yadav and DW-7 Manjeet Yadav @ Panna Lal.

In addition to above, number of other documents establishing the real identity and the caste of the prosecutrix were produced to establish the fact that she has conceal her real caste and projected herself that she belongs to the 'Yadav Community' to develop the relationship. The prosecutrix is a notorious lady wants to drag the accused-respondent in a vicious web of sexual offence against the accused-respondent.

15. Thus, the long and short of the prosecution case that on the false pretext of marrying her, a consent was extracted from the victim/prosecutrix by accused-respondent. Since the consent extracted was not a free consent and in fact, it was on false pretext of marring her. As per prosecutrix, the accused-respondent was not sincere with this relationship and he was using the victim as toy or tool to quench his lust, thus his this action qua her would term as Rape. In addition to above, the prosecutrix was insisting to marry her but the accused respondent hurled the filthy abuses related to her caste in a derogatory way and committed maar-peet, thus it was prayed that accused-respondent should be suitably punished for the offence under Section 376 IPC and section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act.

16. Per contra the defense has submitted that for the first time the incident has taken place in the year 2014 and the FIR was registered after inordinate delay of five years in the year 2019. In fact the accused-respondent was trapped in a 'Honey-Trap'. In-fact, he was under the constant threat of lodging of false FIR since 2014 itself. The prosecutrix use to blackmail her and demanding illegal money from him. In fact the accused-respondent is a victim of nefarious design of prosecutrix. It is further submitted that the prosecutrix herself projected to be a 'Yadav' by caste and maintain the relationship. Both of them are major started living together in a live-in relationship, but after coming to know her real caste, which is one of the major consideration to marry, he declined to marry her. Then she has woven an imaginary and false story of rape upon her by the accused-respondent. In fact, this relationship is out of sweet & free will which lasted up to 5 good years. As mentioned above, both of them are major and knowing fully well the far-reaching repercussion of pre-marital sex, they maintain the relationship for five good years without any hesitation, objection or resistance. There is nothing to attract the provision of SC/ST Act. The prosecutrix herself declined to have an extensive medical test, so as to substantiate the allegation of rape upon her. The charge sheet submitted by the police after holding the superficial and perfunctory investigation without lifting the veil of the prosecutrix and her ulterior motive.

Assessment Of The Allegation In View Of Medical Evidence:-

17. PW-4 Dr. Pallavi Pandey, deposed in her testimony, that on 22.11.2019, she was posted as E.M.O., Women Hospital and the prosecutrix was brought before her around 11.00 in the day by Constable Sunita Pandey. After conducting her primary external examination of the prosecutrix viz: about her identification mark and monthly cycle etc. etc. Not only this the prosecutrix maintain her sexual relationship with accused-respondent after using 'condom', a male contraceptive. Meaning thereby she was conscious of the fact that that she should not conceive and therefore she insisted her male partner to use male contraceptive. She told to the doctor that she maintain the physical relationship with accused-respondent Madan Yadav at number of occasions as she was having a friendly relationship since 2014 and both of them have decided to marry but when Madan Yadav got a service in the C.M.P. Degree College then there is a change in his attitude and behaviour qua her.

18. Surprisingly, she did not permit her to have an internal pathological examination nor has given any pathological sample. When Dr. Pallavi Pandey was put for cross examination by the defence, then she candidly states that the protectrix has declined to get her internal examination or pathological examination and not even for the x-ray examination. When the doctor have insisted to carry out the aforesaid examination, she has refused to do so after putting her signature and the date over it. Under such circumstances, the doctor is not in a position to give any candid opinion that she was ever subjected to ant sexual offensive against her by the accused-respondent as alleged. It is also suggested that by not permitting her to carry out the aforesaid tests and examination the victim deliberately wants to hide something very substantial which touches the core issue.

To, have internal medical examination is an integral part of investigation and the its absence the prosecution looses its credibility considerably.

The interesting feature, is that the prosecutrix gave a strange explanation that since her brother was kidnapped by the accused-respondent and he was in the constant threat, that is the reason behind, she has never admitted herself for any desired medical examination. She further states that accused-respondents have extended threat to her that if she admit herself for the medical examination, her brother would be eliminated. In order to save the life of her brother, she has declined to get herself for any medical examination. She admits that she has never permitted herself for any internal medical examination.

The interesting feature, is that there is nothing on record to establish this flimsy allegation that her brother was kidnapped by the accused-respondent and on this score she has denied for any medical examination. No complaint, written or oral to the local police official is on record to indicate that she or her brother is under threat, that's reason for avoiding internal medical examination.

In this circumstances, when there is no medical report with regard to the alleged allegation of serious sexual offensive against her by the accused-respondent goes, unsubstantiated in the absence of medical examination report. The explanation is a vain attempt on the part of the victim prosecutrix to cover up and hide something substantial which touches the core issue.

19. In paragraph 16.5 of the impugned judgement attained significant, in which it has been mentioned that both the parties after attaining the age of majority establish a physical relationship among them in the year 2014 which lasted up to 2019. In such type of cases the consent of the prosecutrix attains important and significance. If the relationship is consensual, then the physical relationship would not come within the mischief of rape. But in the instant case, the entire castle of the prosecution case is based upon that on the false pretext of marriage the consent of the prosecution was extracted and after using her and after quenching the sexual lust the accused-respondents started ignoring her. In this regard Section 90 of the IPC which reads thus:-

"90. Consent known to be given under fear or misconception*- A consent is not such a consent as is intended by any section of this Code, if the consent is given by a person under fear of injury, or under a misconception of fact, and if the person doing the act knows, or has reason to believe, that the consent was given in consequence of such fear or misconception."*

Thus, no consent is defined in IPC and shall be construed, in common parlance. Consent, given by the person under fear of injury OR misconception of fact is not a valid consent in the eye of law. Then the Court has to gather from the individual's conduct and attending circumstances.

Assuming and admitting for the sake of argument, that accused-respondent extended a promise that, he would marry her and on this promise she consented to have pre-marital sex. Later on, she wriggled out from his promise then, could it be said, that he extracted her consent under misconception of fact ?

The facts of the present case indicates that this relationship starts from 2014 and lasted upto 2018. Both of them met several times, in hotel, lodges, guest houses at Allahabad or at Lucknow and spent quality time with each other. Is it a normal behaviour of a girl ? She is surrendering her body and soul to a person who allegedly non-serious about their relationship. During this long period of five years, she never insisted to solemnise formal marriage first. Only after her break-up with the accused-respondent after five years period, she came to know that his partner was non-serious about his commitment. This story is nothing but a cock & bull story, for one's own satisfaction.

20. Learned counsel for the appellant after spelling out the entire factual series of the fact submits that the poor victim is a subject of fraud and misconception by the accused-respondent. The accused-respondent has initially developed a relationship with her, on a pretext of providing the study material and guiding her for her examinations. But lateron, this relationship got serious and has crossed the limit of decency when the girl visited 'Yadav Lodge' near Laxmi Chauraha, Allahabad where they have maintained physical relationship. The girl is not in a position to spell out the date and month of her first sex with accused-respondent. It is alleged that the base of this relationship is a non-serious false pretext of marriage given by the accused-respondent to her and she believed that promise as true and surrender her body and soul before accused-respondent.

In her testimony, she states that he often extend threat to her either 'he will commit suicide or kill' her in the event she does not allow her body. In the testimony is also being surfaced that lateron she joined the Ambedkar University, Lucknow for her further studies but the accused-respondent reached at Lucknow and call her. Both of them visited number of hotels. As mentioned above, this relationship is lasted for almost 4-1/2-5 years without any resistance, hesitation or objection. This relationship was maintained at Allahabad, thereafter in different hotels and lodges at Lucknow. Madan used to visit Lucknow and after engaging a hotel on his own I.D., the prosecutrix also joined him in the hotel. She is unable to give the name, number and dates of the hotels, where both of them spent quality time.

21. On this, learned counsel for the appellant, has relied upon the judgemen of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Anurag Soni Vs. State of Chhatisgarh reported in AIR 2019 SC 1857 . The relevant extract of the judgement is quoted hereinbelow:-

"12. The sum and substance of the aforesaid decisions would be that if it is established and proved that from the inception the accused who gave the promise to the prosecutrix to marry, did not have any intention to marry and the prosecutrix gave the consent for sexual intercourse on such an assurance bythe accused that he would marry her, such a consent can be said to be a consent obtained on a misconception of fact as per Section 90 of the IPC and, in such a case, such a consent would not excuse the offender and such an offender can be said to have committed the rape as defined under Section 375 of the IPC and can be convicted for the offence under Section 376 of the IPC.

15. Now, so far as the submission on behalf of the accusedappellant that the accused had marriage with Priyanka Soni on 10.06.2013 and even the prosecutrix has also married and, therefore, the accused may not be convicted is concerned, the same cannot be accepted. The prosecution has been successful by leading cogent evidence that from the very inspection the accused had no intention to marry the victim and that he had mala fide motives and had made false promise only to satisfy the lust. But for the false promise by the accused to marry the prosecutrix, the prosecutrix would not have given the consent to have the physical relationship. It was a clear case of cheating and deception."

22. The Court has occasion to go through the entire judgement. Facts of the aforesaid case is entirely different from the facts of the present case. In Anurag Soni's case the family of the prosecutrix and the accused were known to each other therefore, even prosecutrix and accused were known to each other. The accused was to marry another girl Priyanka Soni, the accused continue to talk of marriage with the prosecutrix and continued to give the promise that he will marry the prosecutrix. On 28.04.2013, the accused called the prosecutrix telephonically and responding to his call, she came to his place by train on 29.04.2013 and accused took her to the place of residence. During her stay, in his house during 29.04.2013 and 30.04.2013 they have established physical relationship thrice and thereafter on 20.06.2013 appellant telephonically informed the prosecutrix that now he has already married.

23. On this score Hon'ble Apex Court that the appellant Anurag Soni has already engaged to marry to some other girl, he make a false promise to Priyanka Soni and therefore observed that the appellant was rightly convicted for the offence under Section 376 IPC. Thus, it is clear that the aforesaid judgement is clearly distinguishable on the facts of the case and as such is of no help to the prosecutrix/appellant.

24. So far as the consent part of the prosecutrix in the instant case, there are number of authorities, which is akin to the facts of the present case. The first and foremost is Dr. Dhruvram Murlidhar Sonar Vs.State of Maharashtra reported in 2019(18)SCC191. The brief facts of the case are :-

"In this case, the girl lodged a complaint with the police stating that she and the accused were neighbours and they fell in love with each other. One day in February, 1988, the accused forcibly raped her and later consoled her by saying that he would marry her. She succumbed to the entreaties of the accused to have sexual relations with him, on account of the promise made by him to marry her, and therefore continued to have sex on several occasions. After she became pregnant, she revealed the matter to her parents. Even there- after, the intimacy continued to the knowledge of the parents and other relations who were under the impression that the accused would marry the girl, but the accused avoided marrying her and his father took him out of the village to thwart the bid to marry. The efforts made by the father of the girl to establish the marital tie failed. Therefore, she was constrained to file the complaint after waiting for some time."

Thus, Section 90 though does not define "consent", but describes what is not "consent". Consent may be express or implied, coerced or misguided, obtained willingly or through deceit. If the consent is given by the complainant under misconception of fact, it is vitiated. Consent for the purpose of Section 375 requires voluntary participation not only after the exercise of intelligence based on the knowledge of the significance and moral quality of the act, but also after having fully exercised the choice between resistance and assent. Whether there was any consent or not is to be ascertained only on a careful study of all relevant circumstances.

There is no straitjacket formula for determining whether the consent given by the prosecutrix to sexual intercourse is voluntary or whether it is given under the misconception of the fact, whether there was any consent or not is to be ascertained only on a careful study of all relevant circumstances each case has to be its own peculiar facts, which may have bearing on a question whether the consent was voluntary or was given under the misconception of fact. There is clear distinction between rape and a consensual sex. The Court in such cases carefully examined whether accused actually wanted to marry with victim or had a malafide motive and had made a false promise to this effect to satisfy his lust, as latter false ambit of cheating or deception. There is a distinction between breach of promise or not fulfilling the promise.

25. In yet another judgement in the case of Naim Ahamed Vs. State (NCT of Delhi) reported in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 66:- Difference between giving a false promise and committing breach of promise by the accused- In case of false promise , the accused right from the beginning would not have any intention to marry the prosecutrix and would have cheated or deceited the prosecutrix by giving a false promise to marry her only with a view to satisfy his lust, whereas in case of breach of promise, one cannot deny a possibility that the accused might have given a promise with all seriousness to marry her, and subsequently might have encountered certain circumstances unforeseen by him or the circumstances beyond his control, which prevented him to fulfil his promise.

26. The bone of contention raised on behalf of the respondents is that the prosecutrix had given her consent for sexual relationship under the misconception of fact, as the accused had given a false promise to marry her and subsequently he did not marry, and therefore such consent was no consent in the eye of law and the case fell under the Clause – Second of Section 375 IPC. In this regard, it is pertinent to note that there is a difference between giving a false promise and committing breach of promise by the accused. In case of false promise, the accused right from the beginning would not have any intention to marry with the prosecutrix and would have cheated or deceited the prosecutrix by giving a false promise to marry her only with a view to satisfy his lust, whereas in case of breach of promise, one cannot deny a possibility that the accused might have given a promise with all seriousness to marry her, and subsequently might have encountered certain circumstances unforeseen by him or the circumstances beyond his control, which prevented him to fulfill his promise. So, it would be a folly to treat each breach of promise to marry as a false promise and to prosecute a person for the offence under Section 376. As stated earlier, each case would depend upon its proved facts before the court.

27. In this regard yet another judgement in the case of Maheshwar Tigga Vs. State of Jharkhand reported in 2020 (10) SCC 108 in which Hon'ble Apex Court while dealing the question of Section 90 IPC and Section 376 IPC opined that :-

"13. The question for our consideration is whether the prosecutrix consented to the physical relationship under any misconception of fact with regard to the promise of marriage by the appellant or was her consent based on a fraudulent misrepresentation of marriage which the appellant never intended to keep since the very inception of the relationship. If we reach the conclusion that he intentionally made a fraudulent misrepresentation from the very inception and the prosecutrix gave her consent on a misconception of fact, the offence of rape under Section 375 IPC is clearly made out. It is not possible to hold in the nature of evidence on record that the appellant obtained her consent at the inception by putting her under any fear. Under Section 90 IPC a consent given under fear of injury is not a consent in the eyes of law. In the facts of the present case we are not persuaded to accept the solitary statement of the prosecutrix that at the time of the first alleged offence her consent was obtained under fear of injury.

14. Under Section 90 IPC, a consent given under a misconception of fact is no consent in the eyes of law. But the misconception of fact has to be in proximity of time to the occurrence and cannot be spread over a period of four years. It hardly needs any elaboration that the consent by the appellant was a conscious and informed choice made by her after due deliberation, it being spread over a long period of time coupled with a conscious positive action not to protest. The prosecutrix in her letters to the appellant also mentions that there would often be quarrels at her home with her family members with regard to the relationship, and beatings given to her.

20. We have no hesitation in concluding that the consent of the prosecutrix was but a conscious and deliberated choice, as distinct from an involuntary action or denial and which opportunity was available to her, because of her deepseated love for the appellant leading her to willingly permit him liberties with her body, which according to normal human behaviour are permitted only to a person with whom one is deeply in love. The observations in this regard in Uday (supra) are considered relevant:

"25…It usually happens in such cases, when two young persons are madly in love, that they promise to each other several times that come what may, they will get married. As stated by the prosecutrix the appellant also made such a promise on more than one occasion. In such circumstances the promise loses all significance, particularly when they are overcome with emotions and passion and find themselves in situations and circumstances where they, in a weak moment, succumb to the temptation of having sexual relationship. This is what appears to have happened in this case as well, and the prosecutrix willingly consented to having sexual intercourse with the appellant with whom she was deeply in love, not because he promised to marry her, but because she also desired it. In these circumstances it would be very difficult to impute to the appellant knowledge that the prosecutrix had consented in consequence of a misconception of fact arising from his promise. In any event, it was not possible for the appellant to know what was in the mind of the prosecutrix when she consented, because there were more reasons than one for her to consent."

28. In the light of the aforesaid legal pronouncement of Hon'ble Apex Court, it is imperative to bring on record the facts of the present case and test it on the aforesaid parameters with regard to the consensual relationship or the said consent was allegedly extracted by the accused after befooling her or rather on a false promise of marriage ?

29. In paragraph 16.6 of the impugned judgement that the consent was taken from the prosecutrix after playing fraud upon her on the false promise of marriage. It is urged by the counsel for the appellant that relying upon his false word, she has surrender her body and soul before the accused-respondent. However, this argument gets nullify to the extent that the prosecutrix was already married woman with one Om Prakash in the year 2010 and that marriage is still hold good. To establish this fact DW-2 Bihari was examined, who states that the prosecutrix belongs to his family and she is his niece and who got married in 2010 with one Om Prakash Bantariya. This marriage continued for two years and since then she is residing all alone. He states he has attended the said marriage. DW-4 Kamla Chandra Gautam, Gram Panchayat Adhikari have produce the 'Parivar Register' in which column no. 13, the prosecutrix and name of Om Prakash has mentioned. However, the prosecutrix has denied the factum of marriage with Om Prakash and pleaded ignorance as to how her name has mentioned in Parivar Register. On this score, the learned Trial Court has rightly given a finding that under circumstances, it is highly unlikely that the accused-respondent have trapped her in the false pretext of marriage. Secondly, assuming for the sake of argument, that some promise was extended to her but after the emergence of this new fact, that victim is already married to Om Prakash and that marriage still subsist, then any amount of promise to marry would automatically gets evaporated.

30. In paragraph 19 of the impugned judgement, so far as applicability of Section 3(2)(v) of the SC/ST Act, it is stated that the prosecutrix herself has projected that she is belongs to "Yadav Community" and when the accused-respondent came to know about her real caste, then he declined to marry her. In our society, the caste of the parties attains significant, which plays a vital role in giving a permanence to any relationship. It was revealed by prosecutrix herself that village Dharampur Nyay Panchayan Visanpur Block Saidpur, District Ghazipur in the voter list her father's name is Hari Lal Yadav and in her own voter card her father's name is Hari Lal Yadav and the prosecutrix has unable to clarify the situation. Therefore, it can be easily inferred that a lady who is already married and without dissolution of her earlier marriage and concealing her caste has maintained the physical relationship for good 5 years without any objection and hesitation and both of them have visited numbers of hotel, lodges at Allahabad and Lucknow and enjoyed the company of each other. It is difficult to adjudicate who is befooling whom ?

31. No doubt, chapter XVI "Sexual Offences", is a womensentic enactment to protect the dignity and honour of a lady and girl and rightly so, but while assessing the circumstances, it is not the only and every time the male partner is at wrong, the burden is upon both of them. It is unswallowable proposition that a weaker sex is being used by the male partner for five good years and she keep on permitting him on so called false pretext of marriage. Both of them are major and they understand the gravity of the situation and the far reaching repercussion of pre-marital sex and still they maintained this relationship at different places, different cities, which clearly indicates that this acquisitions that she was subjected to sexual harassment and rape cannot be accepted and learned Trial Judge rightly so have given a benefit of doubt to the accused-respondent and relieved from the major charges pasted against accused-respondent.

32. In the case of Bannareddy and others vs. State of Karnataka and others, (2018) 5 SCC 790, in paragraph 10, the Hon'ble Apex Court has considered the power and jurisdiction of the High Court while interfering in an appeal against acquittal and in paragraph 26 it has been held that "the High Court should not have re-appreciated the evidence in its entirety, especially when there existed no grave infirmity in the findings of the trial Court. There exists no justification behind setting aside the order of acquittal passed by the trial Court, especially when the prosecution case suffers from several contradictions and infirmities."

33. In Jayamma vs. State of Karnataka, 2021 (6) SCC 213, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been pleased to explain the limitations of exercise of power of scrutiny by the High Court in an appeal against an order of acquittal passed by a Trial Court.

34. In a recent judgement of this Court in Virendra Singh vs. State of UP and others, 2022 (3) ADJ 354 DB, the law on the issue involved has been considered.

35. Similar view has been reiterated by Hon'ble Apex Court in Rajesh Prasad vs.

State of Bihar and another, (2022) 3 SCC 471.

36. Since, it is a government appeal against the acquittal, it will be relevant to note the principles of law laid down by the Apex Court with regard to the appreciation of evidence in the appeal against the acquittal. Recently, in the case of Mallapa and others Vs. State of Karnataka, the Apex Court has held as under :-

"36. Our criminal jurisprudence is essentially based on the promise that no innocent shall be condemned as guilty. All the safeguards and the jurisprudential values of criminal law, are intended to prevent any failure of justice. The principles which come into play while deciding an appeal from acquittal could be summarized as:

(i) Appreciation of evidence is the core element of a criminal trial and such appreciation must be comprehensive ? inclusive of all evidence, oral or documentary;

(ii) Partial or selective appreciation of evidence may result in a miscarriage of justice and is in itself a ground of challenge;

(iii) If the Court, after appreciation of evidence, finds that two views are possible, the one in favour of the accused shall ordinarily be followed;

(iv) If the view of the Trial Court is a legally plausible view, mere possibility of a contrary view shall not justify the reversal of acquittal;

(v) If the appellate Court is inclined to reverse the acquittal in appeal on a re-appreciation of evidence, it must specifically address all the reasons given by the Trial Court for acquittal and must cover all the facts;

(vi) In a case of reversal from acquittal to conviction, the appellate Court must demonstrate an illegality, perversity or error of law or fact in the decision of the Trial Court."

37. Thus, after thrashing the entire evidences on record and after critically analyzing the submissions advanced and the findings recorded by the learned trial Court, we are of the considered opinion that the judgment of the trial court does not suffer from any illegality or non appreciation of evidence. The reasoning adopted by the learned trial Judge is quite sound and suitable which do not warrant any interference.

38. We, therefore, find that the trial court has taken a plausible and possible view of the matter on appreciation of entire evidence on record, which cannot be substituted by this Court by taking a different view as per the law discussed above. We also do not find that the findings recorded by the trial court are palpably wrong, manifestly erroneous or demonstrably unsustainable.

39. We have critically examined the entire judgement given by the learned trial judge and we are in the agreement with the conclusion drawn by the learned trial judge, which deserves no interference from this Court in exercise of power under Section 372 Cr.P.C. The judgement and order is firm footed and this appeal is devoid of merit and liable to be REJECTED.

40 Accordingly, the instant appeal lacks merit and is hereby REJECTED.

(2024) 5 ILRA 289
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 5696 of 2022

Ujagar & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Rajeev Upadhyay, Vikas Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A., G.P. Singh

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Section-302-Criminal appeal against the judgement and order whereby the accused/appellants have been convicted under Section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced to life imprisonment- Evidence of interested witnesses should be subjected to careful scrutiny and accepted with caution- The deposition of all the witnesses of fact reveal that prosecution has failed to prove by any cognate and credible evidence the last seen part of the prosecution case- that none of the prosecution witnesses has proved the fact that they have seen appellants calling and taking away the deceased from his house, the very genesis of prosecution case has not been proved, which destroyed the very edifice of the prosecution case- deceased was last seen with the appellants has also not been proved- there is no prosecution witness who has seen appellant killing the deceased-No specific role attributed to any of the appellants in authoring the crime- No weapon of assault has been recovered from any of the appellants or on his pointing.

The deceased was murdered in a barbarous and ruthless manner, but mere heinous and gruesome crime is not enough to punish appellant. Suspicion howsoever, strong it may be, cannot take place of legal proof- Prosecution has completely failed to establish such a chain of circumstantial evidence as would fasten the guilt of the accused/ appellants leaving no room of reasonable doubt-Result- Accused appellants are acquitted of all the charge.

Appeal allowed. (E-15)

List of Cases referred-;

1. Dalip Singh & ors. Vs St. of Pun., AIR 1953 SC 364

2. Piara Singh Vs St. of Pun. (1977) 4 SCC 452

3. Kamta Yadav Vs St. of Bihar (2016) 16 SCC 164

4. Nand Kumar Vs St. of Chhatisgarh (2015) 1 SCC 776

5. Hari Obula Reddy V/s St. of A.P. (1981) 3 SCC 675

6. S. Sudershan Reddy & ors. Vs St. of A.P. (2006) 10 SCC 163

7. Sharad Birdhi Chand Sarda Vs St. of Mah., (1984) 4 SCC 116

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi, J.)

1. The instant criminal appeal is directed against the judgment and order dated 24.05.2022, passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 14, Bareilly, in Sessions Trial No. 1018 of 2012, arising out of case crime no. 242 of 2012 (State Vs. Ujagar and others), whereby each of the accused / appellant namely, Ujagar, Ram Prasad and Kalyan have been convicted under Section 302 I.P.C. and sentenced to life imprisonment and fine of Rs. 20,000/- and in default each of them had to serve additional simple imprisonment of six months.

2. The prosecution case proceeded on the basis of an application, under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. (Ext. Ka-1), moved by the first informant Roop Lal (PW- 1), Resident of village Bilauwa P.S. Faridpur, District-Bareilly, in the court of CJM, Bareilly, alleging therein that on 08.10.2011 at about 5.00 p.m. his co-villagers Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prashad called his son Rukampal from the house and took him away. At that time, his mother Smt. Bhagga and sister Kalawati were at the house. These people had stated that Rukampal is being taken for some work. Rukampal did not return to the house in the night. On 09.10.2011 in the morning he and other family members went to the house of Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prashad to inquire the whereabouts and location of Rukampal, but they did not give any satisfactory answer and equivocated. They queried/ inquired from co-villagers also. Thereafter at about 12.00 P.M. he was informed by the villagers that dead body of Rukampal is lying near Mulberry tree (Shahtoot) near village Nagariya. They rushed at the spot and identified the dead body of Rukampal, there were many injuries on his body. He (PW-1) immediately informed the Police Station, Faridpur. He (PW-1) was illiterate, police did not register his report. However, police launched inquest proceedings on 9.10.2011 at about 8.00 p.m. Inquest report is on record as Ext Ka- 11 and sent the corpse for autopsy. The post mortem was conducted on 10.10.2011 at 2.30 p.m. by Dr. S.C. Sundriyal (PW- 3). Duly proved, PMR is on record as Ext. Ka2.

3. Neither report of the informant was written, nor any action was taken by the police, against the accused persons. Hence, he gave an application to the Police Station Faridpur, Superintendent of Police (Rural) and Senior Superintendent of Police, Bareilly, but all in vain, no action was taken against the accused persons. The accused were roving around saying that Rukum Pal had opposed Ujagar in Pardhani elections, hence they killed him. On 08.10.2011 Kamlesh s/o Pothiram and Smt. Prema w/o Ganga Ram, had seen Rukampal with the accused persons. During conversation accused persons disclosed Prema that they had done Rukampal to death. Thus these accused have murdered his son Rukampal.

4. In view of the above, complainant Roop Lal moved an application (Ext Ka-1) under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. for investigation of the matter, before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bareilly on 8.11.2011, Consequently, on the basis of the order passed on this application, FIR was registered on 24.4.2012, as case crime no. 242 of 2012, under Section 302 IPC, police station Faridpur, District Bareilly, against the accused persons. Needful entries were made in kaimi G.D., carbon copy is on record as Ext. Ka-5 and chik FIR Ext. Ka-3.

5. Initially, investigation was entrusted to S.I. Gajendra Singh Tyagi. In due course, he was transferred and another I.O. replaced him. I.O. has recorded the statement of witnesses under section 161 Cr.P.C, prepared site plans and arrested accused and later after due investigation, collecting credible and clinching evidence, showing the complicity of the accused appellants in the murder of Rukampal, S.S.F. P.N.Mishra, submitted charge sheet on 05.07.2012, under Section 302 IPC against the accused/ appellants namely Ujagar, Ram Prasad and Kalyan, in the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bareilly.

6. Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bareilly took the cognizance of the case. Being exclusively triable by the court of Sessions, he committed it to Sessions, where it was registered as S.T. No. 1018 of 2012 and in the course of time Sessions Judge transmitted the same to the court of Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 14 Bareilly, for trial.

7. The learned trial judge framed Charges against the accused Ujagar, Ram Prasad and Kalyan, under section 302 IPC. Accused abjured the charge, pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried.

8. To bring the charge home, prosecution has adduced testimonies of following witnesses as ocular evidence:-

(i)- Pw-1 Roop Lal (complainant), (ii)- PW-2 Nanhe (village chaukidar), (iii)- PW-3 Dr. S.C. Sundriyal (Autopsy sergion), (iv)- PW-4 C- Shiv Kumar Singh, (v)- PW-5 Prema, (aunt of the deceased), (vi)- PW-6 S.I. Ganga Das Sagar (part I.O.), (vii)- PW-7 Kamlesh (independent witness), (viii)- PW-8 S.I. Gajendra Sinigh Tyagi (part I.O.), (ix)- Gajraj (witness of fact) and (x)- PW-10 C- Devi Dayal (formal witness).

9. Besides, the prosecution has also produced following documentary evidences:-

Sl. No.	Particular of Documents	Proved by	Ext. Nos.
1.	Application u/s 156(3) Cr.P.C.	PW-1	Ext Ka-1
2.	Post mortem Report	PW-3	Ext Ka-2
3.	Chik FIR	PW-4	Ext Ka-3
4.	Application to S. P.	PW-	Ext Ka-4
5.	Kaimi G. D.	PW-4	Ext Ka-5
6.	Sample Seal	PW-6	Ext Ka-6
7.	Challan Lash	PW-6	Ext Ka-7
8.	Photo Lash	PW-6	Ext Ka-8
9.	Request to R.I.	PW-6	Ext Ka-9
10.	Letter for CMO	PW-6	Ext Ka-10
11.	Inquest Report	PW-10	Ext Ka-11
12.	Charge sheet	PW-4	-

10. On conclusion of the prosecution evidence, accused/appellants were confronted with the evidence led against them during trial, and recorded their statements under Section 313 Cr.P.C. wherein all the accused/ appellants denied the prosecution evidence and allegations against them. They stated and asserted that they have been falsely implicated on account of enmity and village partibandi. They had pleaded innocence. They did not adduce any defence witness.

11. Learned trial court after examining the testimony of the prosecution witnesses and other material on record, came to the conclusion that the accused/ appellant are guilty of committing the murder of Rukampal Singh and accordingly convicted them under section 302 IPC and sentenced for life imprisonment and fine with default clause, vide judgment and order dated 24.05.2022. Felt aggrieved, the appellants preferred the present appeal.

12. Heard learned counsel for the appellant Sri Rajeev Upadhyay and learned AGA for the State and Sri G.P. Singh, learned counsel for the informant. Perused the record.

13. Learned counsel for the accused/ appellants has urged that prosecution has not assigned to any of the appellants any specific role of causing fatal injuries to which deceased succumbed. There are material inconsistencies and discrepancies in the prosecution version. Some of the prosecution witnesses had made improvements in their deposition and had narrated the manner of incident in such a way, which cannot be perceived in ordinary course of diligence and prudence. The investigation was also done in a pedantic and lackadaisical manner with the oblique motive of implicating the accused appellants, on the undue pressure of complainant. No incriminating article has been recovered from any of the appellants or on their pointing. It creates prosecution story highly improbable, untrustworthy and dubious. There is no material from the side of the prosecution to evince that the accused appellants had harbored vengeance to eliminate Rukampal (now deceased). The presence of the prosecution witnesses at the place of occurrence has not been proved, hence their testimony is highly doubtful and incredulous and not really commends any acceptance. No tangible material is elicited from the evidence of the prosecution witnesses in cross examination by which their testimony was found to be highly doubtful and untrustworthy. The chain of evidence and circumstances is also not complete, so as to conclusively establish that the accused appellants are the actual perpetrator of dreadful crime of murder of Rukampal. The victim Rukampal was a man of felonious nature and was having to his credit so many antagonists. Some unknown persons were nurturing animus and grudge against him, they succeeded in their venomous and filthy design of liquidating him in the darkness of night. The appellants had no animus against the deceased Rukampal. It is also argued that the prosecution could not prove any motive against the accused/ appellants which actuated them to take such a drastic step. There is no independent and impartial witness to support the prosecution version. Many of them turned hostile. The evidence of some of them is not consistent with the hypothesis of the guilt of the accused/ appellants. There is general and omnibus allegation in the first information report. The charge sheet has also been submitted relying upon such evidence which is not even formally proved. There is not an iota of evidence pointing towards the guilt of the accused appellants. The trial court wrongly drew the inference that the appellants are the mastermind to commit the murder of Rukampal. The trial court has not analyzed and appreciated the evidence objectively and proper perspective. The prosecution has failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt. Therefore appeal deserve to be allowed.

14. Per contra, learned A.G.A. has submitted that there is no embellishment in the prosecution version. The victim died on account of inflicting of injuries on his person by the appellants. The entire incident has been narrated in a very intrinsic and natural way. It is a case of homicidal death. The murder has taken place in a planned manner. The prosecution witnesses had supported the case completely. Whosoever had turned hostile, is on account of undue pressure of the accused persons and his adherents. There is a chain of evidence to demonstrate that Rukampal was inflicted serious injuries on the vital part of body with gunshot in a fit of anger and ire, as a result of which he succumbed to injuries. The causing of injury on the vital part is sufficient to demonstrate that the accused appellants had already nurtured animus and grudge to eliminate the victim. The accused appellants are influential person and had good approach, on account of which FIR was not registered while on information, the police personnel had come at the spot. The inquest report was prepared by the police personnel after appointing witnesses of the inquest. The post mortem had also been done in presence of police personnel. The non-registration of first information report in such a gruesome and diabolical case by police personnel shows their utter recklessness and irresponsibility. In case there is any variation or omission in the examination, cross examination or examination in chief that will not destroy the entire prosecution version and will not absolve the accused /appellants from the charge.

15. Aforesaid rival submissions of the learned counsels of appellant as well as learned counsel for informant and A.G.A., has to be tested upon the touchstone of evidence adduced by the parties.

16. Elaborating his arguments, learned counsel for appellants, has urged that prosecution has failed to produce any independent witnesses and the witnesses produced are not trustworthy. They are interested and partisan witnesses. Hence, their evidence could not be relied upon. Learned A.G.A. opposed the contention.

17. The law relating to evaluation of relative, interested and partisan witnesses was considered elaborately by the Apex Court, in Dalip Singh and others V/s State of Punjab, AIR 1953 SC 364, wherein the testimonies of the two women witnesses were impeached on the ground that they were close relatives of the deceased. the Hon'ble Apex Court observed that ordinarily a close relative would not spare the real culprit who has caused the death and implicate an innocent person. His/ her evidence can only be discarded when it is established that the witnesses has a cause, due to enmity to implicate him falsely. Dalip Singh (supra) has been followed and reiterated in a series of the cases. A reference may also be made Piara Singh V/s State of Punjab (1977) 4 SCC 452, Kamta Yadav vs. State of Bihar (2016) 16 SCC 164 and Nand Kumar vs. State of Chhatisgarh (2015) 1 SCC 776.

18. In Hari Obula Reddy V/s state of A.P. (1981) 3 SCC 675, the Apex Court observed as under :-

13.....it is well settled that interested evidence is not necessarily unreliable evidence. Even partisanship by itself is not a valid ground for discrediting or rejecting sworn testimony. Nor can it be laid down as an invariable rule that interested evidence can never form the basis of conviction unless corroborated to a material extent in material particulars by independent evidence. All that is necessary is that the evidence of interested witnesses should be subjected to careful scrutiny and accepted with caution. If on such scrutiny, the interested testimony is found to be intrinsically reliable or inherently probable, it may, by itself, be sufficient, in the circumstances of the particular case, to base a conviction thereon."

19. Again in S. Sudershan Reddy and others Vs. State of A.P. (2006) 10 SCC 163, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that :-

"12. …..Relationship is not a factor to affect the credibility of a witness. It is more often than not that a relation would not conceal the actual culprit and make allegations against an 22 of 24 innocent person. Foundation has to be laid if plea of false implication is made. In such cases, the court has to adopt a careful approach and analyze evidence to find out whether it is cogent and credible.

15. We may also observe that the ground that the witness being a close relative and consequently being a partisan witness, should not be relied upon, has no substance.

This theory was repelled by this Court as early as in Dalip Singh case in which surprise was expressed over the impression which prevailed in the minds of the Members of the Bar that relatives were not independent witnesses."

20. Thus, we find unbroken line of authorities to the effect that the evidence of eye-witness, if found forceful, can not be discarded simply because witness is a relative of the deceased. The only caveat is that the evidence of interested witnesses should be subjected to careful scrutiny and accepted with caution. Thus, close scrutiny of testimony of eye-witness is required, to reach the conclusion that they have seen the incident, in question.

21. Learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that present case is based on circumstantial evidence and plea of last seen. So far as 'last seen' segment of the occurrence goes, as per prosecution case, on 08.10.2011 at about 5 o' clock appellants Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prasad, resident of bilauwa had called the son of the complainant Rukampal from his house on the pretext of some work and taken him away. At that time, mother (Smt. Bhagga) and sister (Kalwati) of the deceased Rukampal,were present in the house. The prosecution has examined three witnesses regarding last seen. PW- 1 Roop Lal, is the father of the deceased, PW-2 Nannhe claimed to be independent witness, PW- 5 Smt. Prema wife of Ganga Ram, who is the brother of complainant and aunt of the deceased Rukam Pal and further she is sister in law of PW-1 Roop Lal, PW- 7 Kamlesh is the cousin of the complainant, PW- 9 Gajraj claimed to be independent witness of fact. They are also claimed to be witnesses of facts. The argument is that PW-1 Roop Lal and PW-5 Smt. Prema and PW-7 Kamlesh are close relatives of the deceased. Their testimonies are not credible.

22. P.W-1 Rooplal is the father of the deceased. He no where in his statement acceded that in his presence appellants came to his house and took away his son Rukampal. Rather, in his cross examination, he has admitted that, at that time he was not present at his house. He was at some other place and out of his house. The other persons, mother (Smt. Bhagga) and sister (Kalawati) of the deceased, who are said to be present at that time in the house, have not been examined by the prosecution. PW- 2 Nanhe, who is village chaukidar and who informed the occurrence to police station, has also not averred that on the day of occurrence he saw Rukampal going with the appellant. PW-5 Prema Devi, who is the aunt of the deceased has deposed that she was at her home at the time of occurrence. She turned hostile by saying that in her presence no one called Rukampal and took him from his house. PW-7 Kamlesh, who is the cousin of complainant and who was in constant touch with the complainant has also disowned his presence at the time of happening of incident. PW-9 Girja Shanker has also acceded that he has not seen the incident or appellants coming to the house of the deceased Rukampal and took him away for some work. Thus the prosecution has failed to prove the genesis of the incident. PW- 1 complainant, PW- 2 Nanhe, PW- 5 Prema Devi, PW- 7 and PW- 9 are not the eye witnesses, nor have seen the appellant taking away the deceased from his house at 5.00 P.M. on the day of occurrence. PW- 5 Smt. Prema, PW-7 Kamlesh and PW-9 Girija Shankar has turned hostile and nothing could be elicited from them supporting prosecution case. Besides, as discussed above, PW- 1, PW- 5, PW- 7 are related to the deceased in one way or the other. So, their evidence is not credible and worthy of reliability in the absence of corroboration. Rest of the witnesses are formal, their evidence has to be minutely scrutinized. The deposition of all the witnesses of fact, mentioned above, would reveal that prosecution has failed to prove by any cognate and credible evidence the last seen part of the prosecution case. Anyway, only last seen evidence cannot form the basis for conviction. Thus prosecution has failed to prove its last seen story.

23. So far the second segment of the prosecution case, i.e. participation of the appellant in murdering the Rukampal and other relevant facts goes, it will be pertinent to describe relevant prosecution evidence in this behalf.

(1)- PW-1 complainant Roop Lal, has deposed that about five years ago, the accused persons namely Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prasad called to his son Rukampal and took him away for some work. At that moment, his daughter Kalawati and his wife Bhagga Devi, were present in the house. When Rukampal did not come back at night, he along with other members of the family went at the residence of the accused persons on the next morning, to inquire about his where about. The accused persons equivocated and avoided talking about the where about of his son Rukampal. They enquired from the native villagers also and came to know at about 12 o'clock, that the corpse of Rukampal was lying near a Mulberry (Shahtoot) tree near Nagariya. He reached at the place stated by the informers in Nagariya, he saw the corpse of his son Rukampal. There were multiple injuries on his person. There was a gunshot wound on the backbone. He informed to the police station concerned, about the incident. The police personnel came on the spot and launched inquest of the dead body and after preparing relevant documents sealed the dead body and handed over to police constables to deliver it to the district hospital for autopsy. Since the complainant was highly nervous and upset, he could not take notice whether the first information report was lodged at the police station or not. When the accused persons were roaming undauntedly and were extending threats to him, he raked up his grievance by submitting application before the higher police authorities. The accused persons were murmuring and buzzing in the village that Rukampal had been done to death on account of being in opposition to Ujagar in the pradhani election. On the fateful day of occurrence, Kamlesh s/o Pothiram and Prema Devi w/o Ganga Ram had seen Rukampal going in the company with accused persons. The first information report with respect to the said incident was registered pursuant to the order of the court. He proved his thumb impression on the application given by him in the court of CJM. He duly proved the application, as Ext.Ka.1. Thereafter the Station Officer concerned recorded the statement of the complainant. The complainant went to the spot of inspection done by the investigating officer concerned.

(1-a)- During cross examination, PW-1 averred that he had two brothers. One of them have died and the second is Ganga Ram, whose wife is Prema Devi. Prema Devi is his sister-in-law. The complainant was well familiar with Kamlesh s/o Pothi Ram, Vimlesh, as well as Chheda Lal. They are his cousins. Those persons were in contact with him, because of their living in the same locality. Deceased Rukampal was married to Geeta. She had gone to her parental house, before fifteen days of the occurrence. There were amicable and cordial relation between Rukampal and his wife. Geeta had immediately come to her in-laws on getting the information with respect to murder of her husband. The deceased Rukampal was neither fond of gambling nor drinking. It was disclosed by the complainant that there was a criminal case against Rukampal launched by Nanhe Lal. The wife of complainant was burnt three /four days before the incident on account on pushing of chirag (lamp) with the tail of bullock, but she did not lodge any report with respect to demand of dowry against the deceased. He had seen that his son Rukampal was called and taken away by the accused person at about 5.00 p.m. The complainant went at the house of the accused again and again, at about 6.00 p.m., 7.30 p.m. and 9.30 p.m., but they did not meet. He had enquired from their family members also, however, he added that they met on that very day at 9.30 p.m. at their residences, they avoided to meet him, showing their non-presence. Jagat's mother told him about laying of the dead body of the Rukam Pal in the Jungle. Jagat's mother has expired. He came to learn about the dead body at about 12.00 o'clock next day. He acceded that I.O. has correctly recorded his statement about his going to the field on 08.10.2011 and returning to home at 5.00 p.m. After registration of the first information report, the station officer concerned recorded his statement. Later he acceded that his statement was recorded on 8.10.2011. He reached at the place where the corpse of Rukampal was lying at about one o' clock, there was a gathering of villagers including Chheda Lal, Chandra Pal, Mihilal, Gajram etc. The distance of place, where the corpse of Rukampal was lying from his house, is about half kilometer. He, along with the chaukidar of the village, reached at the police station at about 1.00 o' clock and informed about the incident and the dead body, thereafter returned back to the dead body. The police had reached at the house of complainant at about nine o' clock. The dead body of Rukampal was lying in the field till the arrival of police personnel. The panchayat nama was conducted after bringing the corpse on the road. The police personnel did not make any enquiry from the complainant and took away the dead body of Rukampal. Ujagar Lal and Natthoo Pradhan did not come at the place where the corpse of Rukampal was lying. The corpse of Rukampal was handed over to the complainant after autopsy. The first information report was registered pursuant to the order of the learned Magistrate. The complainant had heard about the murder of his son Rukampal committed by Ujagar Lal, Kalyan and Ram Prasad after six or seven days. The complainant had confirmed that the dead body of Rukampal was lying in the field near (Mulberry tree) Shahtoot. He had seen the dead body of the Rukampal. His body was turned. There was a gunshot injury on the back of neck. The inquest report was prepared by the police within fifteen minutes. When the police personnel took the dead body of Rukampal at the police station, the complainant had also joined them. Natthoo Pradhan did not join him. The station officer concerned had recorded the statement of the complainant and witnesses at the police station concerned. There has not been any litigation between complainant and the accused persons barring this case. There has been some quarrel between the complainant and the accused persons at the time of election. It was also stated by him that the brother of Vijendra namely Brij Lal was done to death. The first information report was lodged by Vijendra naming to the complainant (Roop Lal), Prem Pal, Chandra Pal and Suresh in the murder of Brij Lal. The complainant was sent to jail in the said murder. Munni Devi w/o Sannoo had got a first information report registered against Rukampal under section 325 IPC.

(2)- Prosecution has examined PW-2 Nanhe, who stated that he was discharging the duty of Chawkidar on 9.10.2011. On that day he got an information at about 4.30 p.m. that the corpse of Rukampal was lying in the field of Bhagwan Das. The victim used to drink liquor occasionally. He had seen the corpse of Rukampal. He, in association with P.W.1 Roop Lal and others had gone at the police station concerned. The station officer had prepared the inquest and recorded his statement. It was stated by Nande P.W.2 that he had been discharging the duty of Chawkidar for the last twenty years. He was well conversant with Rukampal.

(2-a)- In his cross examination PW-2, divulged that Rukampal used to drink liquor but had never quarreled in intoxication. He had got information about the dead body of Rukampal at about 4.30 p.m. from the murmuring and buzzing in the village. When he reached at the place of occurrence,there was a gathering of his village folk and also people of Nagaria. The family members of Rukampal were also present there. He does not remember that the accused persons were present at the spot or not. He had informed to the Station Officer concerned on telephone . At the behest of Station Officer concerned, he reached at the police station in the company of family members of deceased Rukampal. In addition to oral information, written information was also given by Roop Lal at the police station. Roop Lal did not mention name of any accused in the written information. He did not come to know about the assailants of Rukamlal in the murmuring of village folk. It was not within his knowledge that there was any quarrel between Ujagar and the family members of Rukampal.

(3)- In corroboration of occurrence and oral evidence, prosecution has also examined P.W.3 Dr. S.C.Sundriyal, who has deposed that during his posting as Sr. Consultant Eye Surgeon, District Hospital Bareilly on 10.10.2011, he was on post mortem duty. He had conducted post mortem of Rukampal, whose corpse was brought by C.P. Devi Dayal and C.P. Rajeev Kumar, Police Station Faridpur, in a sealed cover with requisite papers. He had tallied the seal. The constables identified the dead body of the deceased Rukampal and after being satisfied, conducted the post mortem of Rukampal at 2.30 p.m.on 10.10.2011 and prepared post-mortem report in his handwriting and signature. He proved P.M. R. as Ext. Ka- 2 .

(3-a). As per PW- 3 Dr. Sundriyal, he noticed following facts about the corps of Rukampal during autopsy;-

(I)- internal examination: Dr. noted fracture of cervical vertebrate, membrances congested,,brain congested , base fractured, spinal cord opened, ,left and right lung congested, pericardium congested, heart right full , left empty wt. 180 gm. Small and large intestines empty congested, gall bladder full, liver congested ,spleen congested, kidney congested.

(II)- External Examination: rigor morti was absent from both extremities.

(III)- Ante-mortem Injuries; A fire arm wound of entry about 3 cm x 3 cm on the posterior aspect of root of neck in line with scapula muscle uper border, in middle region of margins of wound inverted and lacerated. Blackening seen,11 pieces of metallic and a plastic wad recovered from the body.

(IV)- Doctor opined that the Cause of Death was due to coma as a result of ante mortem fire arm injury. Organs/ Viscera was preserved for chemical examination. Death of deceased is possible to happen on 08.10.2011 after 5.00 o' clock by fire-arm.

(V)- Pw- 3 Dr. Sundriyal has further stated that the metallic pieces and plastic wad were sealed by him and returned to police personnel.

(4). The prosecution has also examined, PW-4, C.P. 1244 Sheo Kumar Singh. He stated that, at that time he was posted as Constable Clerk at Police Station Faridpur District Bareilly. Pursuant to the order of Chief Judicial Magistrate Bareilly, passed on the application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. he had registered case crime No. 242/12 under section 302 IPC against Ujagar and others and necessary enteries were made in kaimi GD no. 38 at about 20.30. Original GD was destroyed ,the carbon copy of GD which was prepared in the same process with original marked as Ext.Ka.5, which is on record. Entries were also entered and the chik FIR (Ext.Ka.3) was prepared . The copy of the order passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate Bareilly was received on 24.4.2012 by Dak.

(4-a)- In his cross-examination the PW-4 has divulged that at the time of registration of the first information report, the complainant was not present at the police station. Investigating officer S.S.I., P.N.Mishra has expired. He was posted with him, he is aware of his hand writing. S.I. P.N.Mishra had taken over the charge of investigation of this case after transfer of erstwhile investigating officer Gavendra Mishra. The witnesses of inquest namely Gauram;, Mihilal, Ganga Ram ,Krishna Pal and Tikaram were entered in the Parcha No. 5 on 25.5.2012. He had also entered the description of affidavits given by Roop Lal, Vimlesh Dutta Sharma,Kamlesh, Chheta Lal etc. in the C.D. The name of complainant Rooplal, and the witnesses Smt. Prema, Kamlesh, Vimlesh and Chheda Lal were entered in the case diary. The site plan was prepared on the pointing of the complainant Roop Lal. The site plan and charge sheet were prepared by S.S.I., P.N.Mishra, whose writing and signature were identified by him. He had given detail of investigation in Parcha no.11. On the basis of material collected during investigation, charge sheet was submitted against the accused Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prasad under section 302 IPC. However, site plan paper no. 7Ka and charge sheet paper no. 6Ka has not been formally given any Ext. Number. However, he verified the investigation done by S. S. I., P. N. Mishra as secondary evidence.

(5)- P.W.5 Smt. Prema, is the wife of Ganga Ram and aunt of the deceased Rukampal. She stated on oath that 6-7 years ago, she was present at her house. Nobody had called to Rukampal in her presence in the house. She came to know in the morning that Rukampal had been done to death. The people of the locality had gone to see him. She disowned the paper no.16Ka/13 kept in the record in the shape of affidavit dated 28.5.2012. Prosecution has declared her hostile. She did not support the prosecution case rather denied her statement recorded under section `161 Cr.P.C.

(6). The prosecution has also examined P.W.6 S.I.Ganga Sagar. He stated on oath that he was posted at Bareilly as Sub-inspector on 9.10.2011. On the fateful day, on the information given by Nannhe (Chawkidar) he along with HM constable Devi Lal and Rajeev Kumar reached at the place of occurrence. He saw the corpse of Rukampal s/o Roop Lal lying in the field of Bhagwan Das. He conducted the inquest of the corpse of Rukampal. He had prepared the papers in relation to Panchnama namely . Specimen of seal Ext. Ka- 6, Challan Lash Ext. Ka- 7, Photo Lash Ext. Ka- 8, report to R.I. Ext. Ka- 9, request to CMO Ext. Ka- 10.

Prepared inquest report in his writing and signature. Signature of the witnesses of inquest were obtained on the panchayatnama and proved it as Ext.Ka.11.

(7)- The prosecution further examined Kamlesh as P.W.7. He stated on oath that the said incident had taken place about quarter to eight years before. The corpse of Rukampal was lying in the east of Nagariya village , near the tree of mulberry. He had gone and seen the corpse of Rukampal. He had come to know that Rukampal was done to death. He is not an educated person. He identified and proved his thumb impression on paper no. 16Ka/5 but disowned his presence at the time of happening of incident. Prosecution has declared him, hostile and cross examined him.

(7-a) PW-7 in his cross examination did not support prosecution. He disowned his statement recorded under section 161 Cr.P.C. that on 08.10.2011 he have seen at five o' clock in the morning Rukampal going with Ujagar, Kalyan and Ram Prasad out of village and on that night Rukampal did not return home, next day his dead body was found in the field of village. He also denied furnishing of any affidavit to the police personnel.

(8)- P.W.-8 S.I. Gajendra Singh Tyagi has deposed that on 24.4.2012 he was posted as sub-inspector at Police station Faridpur District Bareilly. On that day, he was entrusted with the investigation of aforesaid case. He had entered in parcha no.1 the application moved under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. He entered the order of the Judicial Magistrate Bareilly in the G.D. He received the copy of Panchayatnama from the police station concerned. He recorded the statement of scribe of F.I.R. On 26.4.2012, he recorded the statement of complainant vide parcha no.11.Subsequent thereto, he was transferred. The investigation was entrusted to someone else. The panchayatnama and post mortem report of the deceased, on the direction of Dy. Inspector General was consigned to record, by Sub-inspector Ganga Das Sagar. He disproved the paper no. 14Ka/2. S.I. Ganga Das Sagar had submitted the panchayatnama and post mortem report on the score that the deceased Rukampal had committed suicide. He had not recorded the statement of Ganga Sagar during investigation.

(9)- P.W.9 Gajraj on 24.9.2019 stated that the corpse of Rukampal was lying in the field. He could not remember the date. Panchayatnama was prepared in his presence and his signature was obtained on the report alongwith other witnesses. He proved the preparation of panchayatnama (Ext Ka-11). On the suggestions of the witnesses of inquest, post mortem was done in order to know real cause of death. In his cross examination he has stated that the dead body of the deceased Rukumapal was recovered near shrub at village Nagariya. The body was recovered at about half-a-km from the village of the deceased. He proved his presence at the time of preparation of panchyatnama as well as recovery of corpse of Rukampal in village Nagariya in the shrub. The corpse of Rukampal was seen by the people of village Nagariya and on their information, the people of his village came to know about the death of Rukampal. When he reached near the corpse of Rukampal, a number of people were already present there. The police personnel were not present there. The police personnel had come after 1 or 1.5 hours later. He did not confirm who had informed to police personnel. The father of Rukampal and other persons were present in the vicinity of corpse.

(10)- To substantiate the charge levelled against the accused the prosecution has examined P.W.10 constable Devi Dayal. He stated on oath that on 9.10.2011 he was posted as Constable at Police Station Faridpur. On the fateful day from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock ,the inquest of Rukampal was conducted . The panchayatnama was duly signed by all the witnesses after completing the necessary formalities. The signatures of P.W.10 Devi Dayal and Rajeev Kumar were also obtained on the same which is marked as Ext.Ka.11. After completion of necessary formalities, the corpse of Rukampal was handed over to him and Balajeet Kumar for carrying it to the mortuary.

(10-a). In his cross examination, P.W.10 C-Devi Dayal could not ascertain as to whether the father of the deceased Rukampal was present at the moment of preparing panchayatnama, as he could not identify him. The panchayatnama of deceased Rukampal was done on the intimation of Chawkidar Nanhe. The station officer concerned had called to the father of deceased Rukampal while filing up the Panchayatnama but he was not there. He has stated that there was no person of the locality, except the witnesses of Panchayatnama present, while carrying out the formalities of inquest. He confirmed that there were injuries on the person of deceased Rukampal.

24. On receiving the information that the dead body of Rukampal is lying near mulberry tree (shahtoot) situated near the village Nagariya, they reached there and witnessed dead body of Rukampal lying there in the field of Bhagwan Das. PW-2 Nannhe informed to the police station concerned. Police personnel reached there and completed formalities regarding the corpse of the Rukampal. Rest of the witnesses PW- 2 Nanhe, PW- 3 Dr. Sundryal, PW- 4 constable Shiv Kumar, is chik and G.D. writer, PW- 6 S.I. Ganga Sagar prepared formal papers for autopsy, PW-8 S.I. Gajendra is part I.O., PW-9 Gajraj is witness of inquest witness and PW-10 constable retired Devi Dyal is also the witness of inquest, are the formal witnesses. They have proved various papers relating to prosecution and autopsy surgeon or part I.O. None of them has deposed that, they have seen appellants taking away the deceased and they have seen them on the very day of the incident. The formal witnesses tried to support prosecution but discrepancies in their statements are glaring on the record are highly fatal to the prosecution case showing involvement of the appellant in the commission of the crime. None of them attributed any overt act to any of the appellants. Learned counsel for the appellant has urged that there is no independent and impartial witness to support the prosecution version. Pw- 1 Rooplal, is the father, while Pw- 5 Prema is the aunt of the deceased Rukampal and PW-7 Kamlesh is the cousin of complainant, who was well in touch with him, as he was living in the same locality. These are claimed to be eye witnesses and the witness of facts, but they are related and interested witnesses. Therefore, as discussed above their testimony is not reliable.

25. Learned counsel for the appellants submitted that the present case hinges upon the circumstantial evidence, coupled with the plea of last seen. There is no eye witness account. None of the witnesses has seen appellants committing the gruesome murder of the Rukampal. Therefore it is apposite to bear in mind the settled legal proposition about the quality of evidence required for recording a finding of guilt against the accused persons in view of circumstantial evidence.

26. In most celebrated case, Sharad Birdhi Chand Sarda v. State of Maharashtra, (1984) 4 SCC 116, in para

153 (of the judgment), the Apex Court, have postulated five golden principles regarding the appreciation of circumstantial evidence. Whenever the case is based on circumstantial evidence the following principles are required to be complied with to convict the accused:-

"(i)- The circumstances from which the conclusion of guilt is to be drawn must or should be and not merely 'may be' fully established;

(ii)- The facts so established should be consistent only with the hypothesis of the guilt of the accused, that is to say, they should not be explainable on any other hypothesis except that the accused is guilty;

(iii) The circumstances should be of a conclusive nature and tendency;

(iv) They should exclude every possible hypothesis except the one to be proved; and

(v) There must be a chain of evidence so complete as not to leave any reasonable ground for the conclusion consistent innocence of the accused and must show that in all human probability the act must have been done by the accused."

27. It is also a settled proposition of law that suspicion, howsoever strong, cannot take the character of proof.

28. Thus, in a case of circumstantial evidence each and every circumstance has to be proved by independent and cogent evidence. Each circumstance must be connected with each other as to complete the chain of event. Learned counsel for the appellants contended that in the present case chain of circumstances is broken at several places. The allegations against the appellant taking away Rukampal on the day of incident, could not be proved. None of the circumstance in the present matter have been independently proved and there is failure to establish a complete chain of circumstances by prosecution. Learned A.G.A. has refuted the argument and argued that it is a case of homicidal death. The victim died on account of inflicting injuries on his person by appellants. The murder had taken place in a planned way. It was a gruesome murder by causing serious injuries on the vital part of his body. The entire incident has been narrated in a very intrinsic manner. Although some of the witnesses turned hostile, but it may be remembered that appellants are influential persons. They took them under their pressure. Resultantly they turned hostile.

29. Scrutinizing the prosecution evidence in the aforesaid backdrop of legal scenario, it transpires that none of the prosecution witnesses has proved the fact that they have seen appellants calling and taking away the deceased from his house. Thus the very genesis of prosecution case has not been proved, which destroyed the very edifice of the prosecution case. The deceased was last seen with the appellants has also not been proved. It may be mentioned that there is no eye witness account of murdering the Rukampal by appellants. Verily, there is no prosecution witness who has seen appellant killing the deceased. Prosecution has not attributed any specific role to any of the appellants, in authoring the crime. No weapon of assault has been recovered from any of the appellants or on his pointing. In these circumstances the argument of learned counsel for the complainant regarding gruesome nature of the murder of the deceased cannot take the place of proof, thus deceased was done to death by the appellants does not inspire confidence. Similarly, the argument of learned A.G.A

that witnesses turned hostile under the influence and pressure of the appellants is also not sustainable.

30. Learned AGA has argued that Rukampal was murdered gruesomely and this statement find support from the medical evidence, inquest report Ext. Ka- 11 and post mortem report Ka- 2. There was gun shot injury on the person of the deceased. There was a fracture of cervical vertebrate, membranes congested, brain congested, base fractured, spinal cord opened, left and right lung congested, pericardium congested, heart right full, left empty wt. 180 gm. Small and large intestines empty congested, gall bladder full, liver congested, spleen congested, kidney congested. Thus the deceased was murdered in a barbarous and ruthless manner, but as discussed above mere heinous and gruesome crime is not enough to punish appellant. Suspicion howsoever, strong it may be, cannot take place of legal proof. Prosecution has miserably failed to furnish satisfactory explanations about the serious infirmities, inconsistencies and contradiction in the prosecution case.

31. In the present case, the incident occurred on 08.10.2011 at about 5.00 P.M. the information about the dead body of Rukampal lying in the field of Bhgwandas nearby a mulberry tree, near the village Nagariya, to the witnesses of prosecution. PW-1 complainant, PW-5 Smt. Prema PW-7 Kamlesh and PW-9 Ganga Sagar also reached there and saw the dead body of the deceased Rukampal. According to PW-1 Roop Lal, who is the father of the deceased, he received the information on 09.10.2011 at about 01.00 p.m. from one mother of the Jagat. While PW-2 Nannhe (the village Chaukidar) stated that he got the information regarding lying of the dead body of the deceased Rukampal near mulberry tree at the Nagriya and informed PS concerned. He was directed to reach the PS by the police personnel along-with complainant at 04:30 p.m. He , in association with Rooplal had gone to the police station. Police reached at the place and conducted inquest and send the body for autopsy and that time there were many people including Informant Rooplal were present at the spot. He had received the information from the murmuring and buzzing in the village. According to PW- 2 he got the information on the murmuring and buzzing in the village at about 12:30 PM. Later he improved his statement by saying that he received the information from the mother of Jagat at about 12:00 P.M. In this gap of about 4.30 hours where was the complainant and what he was doing, it was not explained by the prosecution. These inconsistencies and contradiction goes to the root of the prosecution case. Thus, one of the witnesses is stating that he received information out of buzzing and murmuring of the people. Strongly, staying in the village the complainant could not know about the place where of dead body of Rukampal was found. This is highly improbable. Be that as it may, none of the prosecution witnesses have seen either of the appellants committing the murder of Rukampal.

32. It is also urged by the learned counsel for the appellant that the prosecution could not prove any motive against the accused appellants which actuated them to take such a drastic step. It is a trite law that in the case of direct evidence, the motive looses its significance. If the evidence of the eye-witness is trustworthy, there is no need to establish any motive. Since prosecution has failed to prove any role of the appellants in the incident, it is said that motive lies in the heart of the accused and if accused is falsely implicated this fact will also be within the knowledge of the complainant Rooplal, as to why he had implicated appellants and had roped them falsely in the present case. Learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that prosecution has failed to prove the motive behind the incident, which actuated accused appellant for committing such a brutal incident. In a case of circumstantial evidence motive occupies importance. As per prosecution case accused were roving by stating that Rukampal has opposed Ujagar in Pradhani election so he killed him but the same has not been proved by any credible evidence. However, the complainant in his application u/s 156(3) Ext. Ka- 1 has stated that after the incident appellant were roving and stating that Rukampal has opposed Ujagar in Pradhani Election hence, he killed him but prosecution has not proved this fact. So prosecution has failed to prove any motive against the appellant. There were some other statements of witnesses that there were some criminal cases instituted by both the parties against each other, but no evidence is on record in this respect also. In the absence of any proved motive there is no reason as to why the appellants would kill Rukampal.

33. So far recovery of the dead body of the deceased is concerned it was stated to be found about half a km away from the house of the deceased, near a mulberry (Shahtoot) tree, situated near village Nagariya on 09.10.2011 at about 12.00 o' clock. Pw- 1 complainant has deposed that he was informed by the villagers about the dead body lying at the place near village Nagariya. On being specifically questioned as to who furnished this information to him, he stated that mother of Jagat Pal has given this information to him. Mother of Jagat Pal has already expired. Yet another version about the source of information has been disclosed by PW- 1 complainant Rooplal and PW- 2 Nanhe (the village chaukidar). Pw- 2 stated that he received the information about the dead body at about 4.30 P.M. Then he reached at the place where the dead body was lying, thereafter PW- 1 Roop Lal and PW- 2 Nanhe went to police station and informed about the dead body of Rukampal. In this respect as per prosecution case the complainant was in search of missing Rukampal. One of the lady, the mother of Jagat, had informed him, but prosecution has not examined the so called lady mother of Jagat. On the other hand, Pw- 2 Nannhe the village chaukidar in his testimony stated that he got information at about 4.30 P.m. on 09.10.2011 that corpse of Rukampal was lying in the field of Bhagwan Das. On this information, He had informed to the station officer concerned on telephone. Leaving the dead body at the place where it was found, both of them had gone to police station concerned. He further stated that he had got information on the murmuring and buzzing in the village and when he reached at the place of occurrence, there was a gathering of village people and villagers of Nagariya. The family members of Rukampal were also present there. Thus, the evidence about the source of information as to who and how complainant came to know about the place where the dead body was found is contradictory. There is material contradiction and inconsistencies in the statement of PW- 1 and -PW 2 in this respect. According to PW- 2 he got the information on the murmuring and buzzing in the village at about 12.30 PM. Later he improved his statement by saying that he received the information from the mother of Jagat at about 12.00 P.M. In this gap of about 4.30 hours where was the complainant and what he was doing, it was not explained by the prosecution. These inconsistencies and contradiction goes to the root of the prosecution case.

34. There is no eye witness account of the fact appellants committing murder of the Rukampal. PW- 1 Roop Lal and all other prosecution witnesses of facts has only visited the place and dead body, where it was found lying i.e. near mulberry tree in the vicinity of Nagariya. They have also seen the condition of the body and the manner in which the crime was committed. PW-5 Smt. Prema has turned hostile. She is wife of the younger brother of the deceased Ganga Ram and aunt of the deceased. PW- 7 Kamlesh claimed to be independent witness. In his deposition, he has stated that he has not seen, deceased Rukampal going with the appellants on 08.10.2011 at 5.00 P.M. however, he saw the dead body of the deceased Rukampal, on 09.10.2011, but he has not seen occurrence. Similarly PW- 9 Gajraj has also not seen any culprit murdering Rukampal. He simply stated that he is the witness of Punchnama Ext. Ka- 11. He only witnessed the dead body of the deceased. Thus, this witness also do not throw any light about the murder, murderer or the manner in which the crime was committed and deceased was done to death by appellants.

35. From the facts and the circumstances of the case it emanates that the crime has been committed in a very brutal and diabolical manner shaking the conscience and heart of public at large. Multiple injuries were inflicted on the vital part of the victim with an intent to eliminate him. Thus, the victim Rukampal has been killed in a barbarous and ruthless manner. The nature of injuries inflicted on the person of the victim unleashed a reign of terror in the locality illustrating inhuman and barbarous slay of Rukampal. The circumstances were compatible with the innocence of the accused appellants as the witnesses of fact as well as witnesses of court did not support the prosecution version. No prosecution witness of facts has supported prosecution case. In fact they were not eye witness account. For the sake of argument if their testimony is accepted, this by itself will not lead to inference that it was accused appellant who has committed the said crime. There must be something more establishing connectivity between the accused and the crime. The circumstantial evidence in order to sustain conviction must be complete and incapable of explanation of any other hypothesis except that of the guilt of accused appellants.

36. Every criminal trial is a voyage of discovery in which truth is the quest. A duty is cast on the Presiding Officer to explore every avenue in order to discover the truth and advance the cause of justice. The learned trial judge has not analyzed the evidence on record in correct and right perspective. The learned trial Judge has passed the order of conviction and sentence on a fragile and feeble evidence. This Court is not in agreement with the view taken by the learned trial judge. The circumstances indicating the complicity of accused appellants be compared with the role of the accused appellants in the commission of the said crime. Accordingly, the judgment and order passed by the learned Special Judge may be sustained or upheld.

37. Learned counsel for appellant has argued that the first information report has been lodged after one month pursuant to the order of learned Magistrate passed on the application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. There is no convincing and credible explanation covering the delay. The name of the accused appellants surfaced after much consultation and deliberation. There is material laches in the investigation which has been done in a very pedantic and lackadaisical manner. The learned trial judge had cited a catena of decisions to buttress his verdict which are on different set of facts and circumstances and cannot be a basis for conviction. The prosecution has completely failed to prove the guilt beyond reasonable doubts against the accused appellants. The discrepancies in the evidence on the record are highly fatal to the prosecution case showing involvement of the accused appellants in the commission of crime, as no overt act has been attributed to any of the appellants. Thus, the appeal may be allowed and the accused appellants may be set at liberty.

38. Learned counsel for the appellants has argued that prosecution has not produced some of the central witnesses e.g. mother Smt. Bhagga and sister Kalawati and some other witnesses. In this respect it may be mentioned that court is not required to insist on plurality of witnesses in proof of any facts, it will be directly encouraging subornation of witnesses, if the situation and circumstance do arise that there is only a single person available to give evidence in support of the prosecution version, the court naturally has to weigh it carefully and cautiously such a testimony and if the court is satisfied that the evidence is trustworthy, reliable and free from all taints and flaws, then a duty is cast upon the court to act upon such testimony. In case the witnesses are not found to be reliable and there are some circumstances which may show that credibility is shaken by adverse circumstance, then the court will not insist upon such evidence. It is a platitude to elaborate here that it is the quality and not the plurality of witnesses who are required to prove the testimony. The dispensation of justice would be affected and hampered if number of witnesses are to be insisted upon.

39. Learned counsel for the appellants has stated that appellants were falsely implicated due to village partibandi. The evidence transpires that Ujagar fought election against deceased, the appellants in their statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. has taken the same plea. However, the complainant has denied any enmity with the deceased. It is well known that enmity is a double edged weapon. It may be the actual reason for the incident and it may also be the basis of false implication. So it will depend upon the facts and circumstances of each case whether accused appellants were falsely implicated due to enmity. The defence has not adduced any evidence about the enmity with the deceased nor the complainant has established any such kind of enmity which could have resulted in to the murder of complainant son Rukampal.

40. Learned trial judge misread and mis-appreciated the entire evidence in convicting and sentencing the accused appellants under section 302 IPC. The circumstances from which the conclusion of guilt is to be drawn is not fully established. The prosecution has failed to show that in all human probability, the act must have been done by the accused appellants only. The conviction and sentence awarded to the appellants under section 302 IPC is not sustainable and the impugned judgment and order dated 24.5.2022 may be quashed and the accused/ appellants may be set at liberty. The witnesses of fact does not form a chain pointing towards the guilt of the accused appellants. The chain of circumstances are broken at several places. The allegation against the appellants taking away Rukampal on the day of incident, could not be proved. None of the circumstances in the present matter have been independently proved and there is failure to complete the chain of circumstances.

41. The non-examination of any witness who was illustrated in the list of charge sheet will not destroy the prosecution version in entirety. On appreciation of evidence, unless it is shown that a particular accused caused these injuries, no-one can be held responsible and guilty. Mere heinous and gruesome crime is not enough to punish the accused. Suspicion however, strong it may be, can not take place of legal proof. There is no satisfactory explanation about the serious infirmities, inconsistencies and contradictions in the prosecution case.

42. In the light of prolix and verbose discussion of evidence made herein above and also regard being had to the entire facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the opinion that the prosecution has completely failed to establish such a chain of circumstantial evidence as would fasten the guilt of the accused/ appellants leaving no room of reasonable doubt. The trial court has accepted the prosecution evidence holding the accused appellants guilty for the offence punishable under section 302 IPC on fragile and feeble evidence, while there are material contradictions in the statements of prosecution witnesses, medical testimony etc which does not inspire confidence .

43. Resultantly, the appeal is allowed. The conviction of the accused appellants under section 302 IPC and the sentence passed thereon by the trial court vide judgment and order dated 24.5.2022 are set aside. The accused appellants are acquitted of all the charges. They shall be released forthwith, if not required to be detained in any other offence.

44. Lower court record be sent back.

(2024) 5 ILRA 306
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Government Appeal No. 137 of 1983

State ...Appellant
Versus
Ram Naresh Gupta & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
A.G.A.

Counsel for the Respondents:
Ram Shiromani Shukla

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 302/34, 323- Government Appeal against the impugned judgment and order whereby accused-appellants have been convicted for the offence under section 323/34 I.P.C and acquitted from the charges under Sections 302, 302/34 I.P.C- Major contradictions in the testimonies of the witnesses to the extent that the accused Ram Naresh snatched the female child from the lap of P.W.-6 Kabutari and thereafter threw her on the ground due to which she died, which has also not been supported by the medical evidence-It is also impossible to believe that if a man snatches a one year-old girl from the lap and throws her on the ground from about five palm length, she will definitely sustain any mark of injury. Absence of any injury having been found on the body of the deceased Lilawati makes the prosecution version fabricated and doubtful.

Initially charge against the accused Ram Naresh Gupta has been framed by simply under Section 302 I.P.C. and not under Section 302 r/w Section 34 I.P.C., whereas on the same day another charge has been framed by the trial court against the accused-respondents under Section 302 I.P.C. r/w Section 34 I.P.C. and Section 323 r/w

Section 34 I.P.C. Such alteration in the charge framed against the accused-respondents on the same day has not been explained by the prosecution, which also makes the prosecution case doubtful- Result-Government Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

Bhajandas Vs Emperor reported in Cr.L.J. Reports 1923 Lahore High Court 421

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. We have heard Mr. Purshottam Upadhyay, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State-appellant and Mr. Nikhil Kumar, learned Amicus Curiae, for the accused-respondents as well as perused the materials available on trial court's record.

2. This Government Appeal is directed against the impugned judgment and order dated 30.09.1982, passed by IVth Additional Sessions Judge, Mirzapur in Sessions Trial No. 7 of 1981 (State Vs. Ram Naresh Gupta and others), whereby accused-appellants Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta have been convicted for the offence under section 323/34 I.P.C. and sentenced to undergo three months rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs. 150/- each; in default thereof, they have to further undergo 15 days additional imprisonment each. By the impugned judgment, the accused-respondents have been acquitted from the charges under Sections 302, 302/34 I.P.C.

3. During pendency of the instant Government Appeal, accused-respondent nos. 1, 2 and 4, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta and Madan Gupta have already died, hence the instant Government Appeal at their behest have also been abated by this Court vide order dated 6th May, 2024.

4. As per the prosecution case, there was enmity between the accused persons and Mahendra Prasad (complainant/P.W.-1) with regard to some land situated in village Khetkatawa. On 4.7.1979 a first information report (Ex. Ka-17) was lodged by P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad at Police Station Kon, District Mirzapur against accused persons, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan registered as Case Crime No. 16 of 1979 under Sections 148, 149, 302 and 323 of I.P.C. at Police Station-Kone, District Mirzapur, as per which on 4.7.1979 at about 6:00 a.m. the accused persons went to the village Khetkatawa and asked the complainant (P.W.-1) as to why he had set up hut (Mandai) on the land which the accused persons claimed to be their own. The complainant is alleged to have replied that he erected the hut (Mandai) to look after his land. An altercation ensued, whereafter the accused Basudeo is alleged to have wielded a lathi on the complainant's brother Rajendra and when complainant Mahendra went to rescue Rajendra, accused Madan Gupta attacked him with lathi, wife of Rajendra Smt. Kabootari also rushed to the spot to rescue him but Ram Naresh Gupta beat her with lathi and also snatched the female child Lilawati aged about 9 months from her lap and threw her on the ground. Ramnath stuck a lathi on Halkeri, father of the complaint and he too was injured. In the meantime, other villagers arrived there and on their intervention, the accused ran away from the place of incident. Thereafter, the complainant Mahendra Prasad took all the injured persons along with the female child to the police station Kone, District-

Mirzapur. While going to the police station, the female child died on the way.

5. On the basis of the written report, chick first information report Ex. Ka-17 was prepared. Details of the incident were entered in the general diary of 4.7.1979 at Rapat No. 7 at 6:45 a.m. and the crime was registered at No. 16/1979, under Sections 148, 149, 302, 323 I.P.C..

6. After registration of the first information report, Sub-Inspector Dharmdeo Singh prepared the inquest report (Ex. Ka-2) of the dead body of the deceased female child. He also prepared the photo lash (Ex. Ka-11) and sealed the dead body and sent it for post-mortem by Constable Ram Gopal.

7. An autopsy of the dead body of the deceased Lilawati has been conducted by Dr. R.A. Mishra (P.W.-4) on 5th July, 1979 at 02:00 p.m. He did not found any visible injury on the body of the deceased. He opined that the death of the deceased is shock and haemorrhage due to rupture of enlarged spleen.

8. P.W.-4 has also medically examined the injured Halkhori on 5th July, 1979 at 11:00 a.m. and found following injuries on her body:

"1. Lacerated wound 3 ½ cm. x 2 cm. x ½ cm. on middle of head, 11 cm. above root of nose. Pus present.

2. Contusion abrasion 4 cm. x 1 cm. on back of left forehand, 5 cm. above wrist joint."

9. The injuries of injured/complainant/P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad has also been examined by Dr. R.A. Mishra, P.W.-4 and he found following injuries on his person:

"1. Contusion with swelling 3 cm. x 1 cm. on back and middle of right palm.

2. Contusion 6 cm. x 1 ½ cm. on back of left chest. 8 cm. below lower part of scapula.

3. Contusion 2 cm. x 1 cm. on left chest on its back 6 cm. below shoulder joint.

4. Contusion 2 cm. x 1 cm. on back of right elbow joint.

5. Contused abrasion 1 cm. x ½ cm. on left side of head, 12 cm. above the left ear."

10. Following injuries have also been found by the same doctor i.e. P.W.-4 on the person of injured Rajendra Prasad P.W.-2:

"1. Lacerated wound 6 cm. x 1 cm. x bone deep on left side of head. 5 cm. above left eye brow.

2. Lacerated wound 2 cm. x ½ cm. x ½ cm. on right side of head 12 cm. above right ear.

3. Contusion 2 cm. x 1 cm. on back of left forearm 6 cm. above wrist joint.

4. Contusion 16 cm. x 1/2 cm. on back of chest crossing middle at level of 6 cm.

5. Contusion 10 cm. x 1½ cm. on back of chest crossing middle transic 8 cm. below injury No. 4.

6. Contusion 10 cm. x 1 cm. on back of left chest, 4 cm. below injury No. 5.

7. Contusion 4 cm. x 1 cm. on left thigh, 8 cm. above left knee joint."

11. P.W.-4 found following injury on the person of injured Smt. Kabutari (P.W.6) :-

"1. Lacerated wound 5 cm. x 1 cm. x bone deep on right side of head, 7 cm. above right ear."

12. The injury reports of the injured persons have been exhibited as Ex. Ka-3, Ka-4, Ka-5, Ka-6 and post mortem report of the deceased has been exhibited as Ex. Ka-7.

13. The investigating officer made spot inspection and prepared the site plan (Ex. Ka-13). The injured were also sent for their medical examinations. The statements of the witnesses were recorded by the investigating officer. Thereafter, the investigation of the case was taken over by the Station House Officer, Sri Ram Dular Ram. He recorded the statements of Sarjoo, Ramjeth and Nankakoo.

14. After completion of the statutory investigation under Chapter XII Cr.P.C., Sri Ram Dular Ram, the investigating Officer submitted charge-sheet (Ex. Ka-14) against all the accused persons under Sections 302/323 I.P.C.

15. On the basis of material so collected and produced by the prosecution, the trial court on 23rd June, 1981 following charge was framed against the accused-respondent Ram Naresh Gupta:

"I, U.S. Pandey, Vth Addl. Sessions Judge, Mirzapur hereby charge you Ram Naresh Gupta as follows:

That you on 4.7.1979 at about 6.00 A.M. in village Khetkatawa within police circle Kon, District Mirzapur did commit murder by intentionally causing the death of Lilawati, a child aged about one year and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 302 I.P.C. and within my cognizance.

And I hereby direct that you be tried by me on the said charge."

16. On the same day i.e. 23rd June, 1981 following charges were framed against the accused-respondents Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta jointly:

"I, U.S.Pandey, IVth Addl. Sessions Judge, Mirzapur hereby charge you Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta, and Madan Gupta as follows:

Firstly that you on 4.7.1979 at about 6.00 A.M. in village Khetkatawa within police circle Kon, District Mirzapur in furtherance of your common intention in commit murder by intentionally causing the death of Lilawati, a child aged about one year and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 302/34 1.P.C. and within my cognizance.

Secondly, that you on the same date, time and place and in-furtherance of the same common intention caused simple hurt to Halkhori, Mahendra Prasad, Rajendra Prasad and Smt. Kabutari and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 323/34 I.P.C. and within my cognizance.

And I hereby direct that you be tried by me on the said charges."

The charges were read over and explained to the accused persons in Hindi, who pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried.

17. During the course of trial, the prosecution has produced following documentary evidences:-

"1. F.I.R. dated 04.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-17.

2. Written Report dated 04.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka.-16.

3. Written Report dated 04.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-15.

4. Written Report dated 04.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-1.

5. Injury Report of Halkhori dated 05.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-3.

6. Injury Report of Mahendra Prasad dated 05.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-4.

7. Injury Report of Rajendra Prasad dated 05.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-5.

8. Injury Report dated Smt. Kabootari 05.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-6.

8. Post mortem report of deceased child Km. Lilawati dated 05.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-7.

9. Charge Sheet mool dated 28.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-14.

10. Site Plan with index dated 07.07.1979 is exhibited as Ex. Ka-13."

18. The prosecution also examined total nine witnesses in the following manner:-

"(1). P.W.-1/Informant, namely, Mahendra Prasad, who is the informant and received injuries in the incident.

(2). P.W.-2, namely, Rajendra Prasad, who is the father of the deceased female child namely Km. Lilawati and also received injuries in the incident;

(3) P.W.-3, namely, Sarju Prasad, who is stated to be the eye-witness of the incident.

(4) P.W.-4, namely, Dr. R. A. Mishra, who has medically examined the injured persons and also conducted the post mortem report of the deceased female child namely, Km. Lilawati on 5h July, 1979 at C.H.C., Robertsganj, Mirzapur.

(5) P.W.-5, namely, Halkhori Saav, who is the father of the informant, grand-father of the the deceased female child namely, Km. Lilawati and also received injuries in the incident.

(6) P.W.-6, namely, Kabutari, who is the mother of the deceased female child namely, Km. Lilawati and also received injuries in the incident.

(7) P.W.-7, namely, Dharmdev Singh, who was the first investigating officer; has prepared the panchayatnama and recorded the statements of Rajendra Prasad, Halkhori, Kabootari

(8) P.W.-8, namely, Ramdular, who was the investigating officer and submitted the charge-sheet against the accused persons.

(9) P.W.-9, namely Ramvilas Singh, Constable."

19. After completion of the prosecution evidence, statement of the accused was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The accused-respondents, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta, while giving their statements in the Court, denied the prosecution evidence and stated that they have been falsely implicated on account of harbouring grudges qua land in question.

20. On the basis of above evidence oral as well as documentary adduced during the course of trial, on the issue whether the female child Kumari Lilawati had been snatched from the lap of P.W.-6 Smt. Kabutari by the accused Ram Naresh and thereafter he had thrown her on the ground due to which the child sustained internal injuries and died on the way of police station, the trial court, relying upon the version as unfolded in the first information report, testimonies of P.W.-1/Informant Mahendra Prasad, P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.-3 Sarjoo Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori and P.W.-6 Smt. Kabutari Mahajan, has opined that the prosecution evidence qua forcibly throwing down of Smt. Kabutari after receiving lathi blow is self contradictory. The trial court further recorded its finding that after receiving lathi blow Smt. Kabutari fell down and as soon as she fell down, the female child had also slipped from her lap on the ground. Automatically, the female child would have fallen down from her lap on the ground.

21. Further while dealing with the testimony of witnesses a question arose as to whether mere falling down from the lap would cause the death of the female child or not, the trial court while relying upon the testimony of P.W.-4 Dr. R.A. Mishra, recorded its finding that the spleen of the female child would rupture if the female child had fallen down on the ground from the lap of PW.-6 Kabutari, while the latter had fallen down on receiving lathi blows on her head.

22. On the basis of such finding, the trial court has come to the conclusion that the prosecution has failed to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the accused Ram Naresh had snatched the female child from the lap of P.W.-6 Smt. Kabutari and threw her on the ground which caused rupture of her spleen resulting in her death. The trial court also opined that there is no evidence on record that the accused Ram Naresh had any knowledge about the weakness or illness of the deceased female child, as such, even if it is taken to be correct that the accused Ram Naresh had snatched and threw the female child on the ground which resulted in her death would not amount to murder. Relying upon the judgment of the Lahore High Court in the case Bhajandas Vs. Emperor reported in Cr.L.J. Reports 1923 Lahore High Court 421, the trial court also opined that the accused would be guilty only of causing simple injury and from that view also, the charge under Section 302 of I.P.C. hereby fails and further the charge under Section 302 read with Section 34 of I.P.C. also fails.

23. On the basis of such finding, the trial court has held that the accused are found guilty of the charge under Section 323/34 I.P.C. Consequently, the trial court convicted the accused Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta under Section 323/34 I.P.C. and sentenced them to undergo three months rigorous imprisonment along with fine of 150/- each and in case default of fine, they have to further undergo 15 days additional rigorous imprisonment.

24. Being aggrieved with the impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, the State has preferred the present Government Appeal against the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused-respondents, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta by the trial court.

25. Assailing the impugned judgment and order of conviction, the learned A.G.A. for the State in the present government appeal, has advanced following submissions:

(i). The first information report (Exhibit-ka/17) lodged on 4th July, 1979 at 06:00 a.m. in the morning on the basis of written report (Exhibit-ka/1) given by the first informant/P.W.-1 Ram/Mahendra Prasad on 4th July, 1981 is prompt first information report.

(ii) There is clinching and direct evidence against the accused by way of testimonies of ocular-cum-injured witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad, P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori Saav and

P.W.-6 Kabutari, and independent eye witnesses i.e. P.W.3 Sarju Prasad and the same has also been supported by the medical and other material evidence as available on trial court record.

(iii) Since the incident occurred in broad day light i.e. at 06:00 a.m., all the prosecution witnesses have correctly identified the accused persons while commissioning of the alleged offence and also assigned their role in such offence successfully.

(iv) There is strong motive for the accused-respondents to commit the alleged offence including the heinous murder of one year female child, namely, Lilawati, as there was long standing dispute pending before the prescribed authority under Section 145 Cr.P.C. with regard to title and possession over the land over the plot no. 118Ka (the new number of which was 267 Ka, Kha, Ga, Gha.

(iv) Except the minor inconsistencies/contradictions, the testimonies of all the prosecution witnesses including injured and independent eye-witnesses i.e. P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad, P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.3 Sarju Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori Saav and P.W.-6 Kabutari are throughout consistent either in their-examination--in-chief and also in their cross-examinations, which have also been supported by the other prosecution witnesses like Investigating Officer, who conducted the investigation of the case and the Doctor who conducted the post-mortem examination of the body of both deceased and the Doctor who conducted the medical examinations of the four injured prosecution witnesses.

(v) The site plan also supports the prosecution case.

(vi) The defence has failed to establish its theory of private defence. It is a not case of cross case in which it is alleged by the defence that they have committed the offence in private defence, as no case or complaint has been lodged by the defence side.

vii. On the basis of the aforesaid submissions, learned A.G.A. submits that as this is a case of direct and clinching evidence, the testimonies of eye witnesses, namely, P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad, P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.3 Sarju Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori Saav and P.W.-6 Kabutari who are consistent throughout in their examination-in-chief and the cross-examinations inspire confidence in the facts and circumstances of the case and they have disclosed about the commissioning of the offence of murder of the deceased Lilawati and the same has also been supported by the medical evidence in all material particulars, therefore, trial court has committed gross error in acquitting the accused-respondents for the offence under Section 302/34 I.P.C. The trial court while ignoring the entire evidence produced by the prosecution, has passed the impugned judgment, which suffers from illegality and perversity. As such the same is liable to be set aside and the accused-respondents are liable to be convicted for the offence punishable under Section 302/34 I.P.C. also. Hence, the instant Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be allowed.

26. On the other-hand, learned counsel for the accused-respondents have advanced following counter submissions:

(i). The first information report lodged on 8th July, 1981 at 04:50 p.m. on the basis of written report of the first informant/P.W. dated 8th July, 1981 is ante time.

(ii) Non recovery of crime weapon i.e. lathi or any other weapon makes the prosecution case doubtful.

(iii) There are major contradictions in the testimonies of the prosecution witnesses.

(iv) Instead of the defence, the prosecution has motive to falsely implicate the accused in the present case.

(v). The prosecution side is aggressor in commissioning of the alleged fight (maarpeet) in which the injured persons have sustained simple injury, as they have illegally encroached upon the land of the accused by making a hut, of which litigation is pending before the appropriate court of law. Qua the said fight, the accused Ram Naresh Gupta gave a letter to the Superintendent of Police, Mirzapur and Deputy Superintendent of Police, Turi (Renukut), District Mirzapur for lodging of the first information report against the members of prosecution.

(vi). During the alleged fight (maarpeet), the accused have exercised their right of private defence of their property.

(vii). As per the post-mortem report, no visible injury was seen on the body of the deceased Lilawati. The Autopsy Surgeon has opined that the cause of death of the deceased is shock and haemorrhage due to enlarged spleen. Therefore, the prosecution version specially the prosecution eye witnesses that the accused Ram Naresh Gupta had snatched the deceased Lilawati from the lap of her mother i.e. Kabutari (P.W.-6) and threw her on the ground due to whichshe died on the way to the Police Station, has no legs to stand.

On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the accused-respondents submits that the instant case is based on weak piece of evidence, therefore, the impugned judgment and order of acquittal under Section 302/34 I.P.C. does not suffer from any illegality and infirmity so as to warrant any interference by this Court. As such the present Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be dismissed.

27. We have examined the respective contentions urged by the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the records of the present appeal including the trial court records.

28. It is in the context of above submissions and materials placed on record before the Court that this Court is required to consider as to whether the prosecution has established the guilt of accused-appellants on the basis of evidence on record beyond reasonable doubt? And secondly, whether impugned judgment of the trial court, which on the basis of evidence oral as well as documentary led during the course of trial has acquitted the accused-respondents under Sections 302/34 I.P.C. is legally sustainable or not?

29. Before entering into the merits of the case set up by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant in criminal appeal, learned counsel for the accused-respondent in government appeal and the learned A.G.A. as also the learned counsel for the first informant in both the appeals qua impugned judgment and order of acquittal passed by the trial court, it is desirable for us to briefly refer to the statements of the prosecution witnesses as well as the defence witnesses.

30. Firstly, we may refer to the versions as unfolded in the first information report on the basis of written report given by the first informant/P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad, which read as follows:

"Today i.e. on 4-7-79, at 6:00 o'clock in the morning, everyone was present inside and outside the hut of the farm along with the family. Tehsildar Survey Settlement has registered the case qua the land in dispute between his father Halkhori Sah and the accused Basdeo. Because of the said case, there was animosity between his family and the accused. Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo, Ramnath Gupta and Madan Gupta reached at his hut and asked as to why they have erected the hut on the land in dispute on which the first informant/P.W.-1 and his family members replied that they had set up the said hut for protecting their field. Consequently, altercation started between them. In the meanwhile, the accused started beating his brother Rajendra Prasad (P.W.-2) by lathi due to which he fell down. When the first informant went to rescue him, accused Madan started beating him with a stick. When the wife of Rajendra, namely, Kabutary (P.W.-6), who was having about one year female child in her lap, ran to rescue them, the accused Ram Naresh Gupta hit her by lathi due to which she sustained injuries on her head and also the accused Ram Naresh Gupta snatched the female child of Kabutari from her lap and threw her on the ground. When the first informant and his family members came to the police station, the female died. His father Halkhori Sah was also beaten by Ramnath Gupta with a stick due to which he sustained injuries on his head and neck. Sarju Prasad, Nanhku and Ram ji saw the incident and several other people of the village came to their rescue and the accused persons ran away towards the east."

31. P.W.-1/first informant Mahendra Prasad stated in his examination-in-chief that it was 06:00 o'clock in the morning, when he was inside his hut and his brother Rajendra, his father Halkhori Saav, wife of Rajendra, namely, Kabutari having his female child aged about one and half years in her lap, were also present there. At the relevant time, all the accused persons, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Ram Nath, Basdeo and Madan being armed with lathi in their hands, reached there. All the accused persons abusing the first informant/P.W.1, his brother Rajendra, his father Halkhori Saav, wife of Rajendra, namely, Kabutari asked as to why they have constructed hut on the land in question. The first informant replied that they were present there for taking care of their field. Thereafter, altercation started between them and meanwhile the accused Basdeo abusing his brother Rajendra, started hitting him with lathi. When he ran to rescue him, then the accused Madan hit him with lathi. The accused Ram Naresh gave one blow of lathi to Kabutari and snatched her daughter from her lap and threw her on the ground. The accused Ram Nath hit his father with lathi. Ram Ji, Nanhku, Sarju etc. witnessed the entire incident. The aforesaid witnesses intervened and rescued them. After beating them, all the accused ran away towards east. The first informant took the daughter of Kabutari. Rajendra and other injured persons to the Police Station, however, on the way she died.

32. In the cross-examination, this witness stated that Rajendra's daughter, i.e. the deceased, who was killed was not sick, but was healthy. This witness further stated that the accused persons did not enter into the hut. There was a fight on the east side of the hut. He could not disclose as to whether there was blood on the ground or not. At the time of the incident, P.W.-6 Kabutari was inside and they were outside. When the fight started, she also came out. When the accused Ram Naresh hit P.W.-6 Kabutari with a stick, she fell down. After hitting P.W.-6 Kabutari, the accused Ram Naresh snatched the female child (deceased) and threw her and then pushed her due to which she fell down. He further stated that the female child was pulled from the side of P.W.-6 Kabutari by the accused Ram Naresh and thrown. The female child was thrown from a height of five palm length. The female child was picked up after being thrown. There was no visible injury on the body of female child. The clothes of the female child and her body were covered with dust. They took the female child to the police station in the same clothes. No blood was coming out from any part of the body of the female child from anywhere.

(Emphasis added)

33. On deeper scrutiny of the above testimony of P.W.-1, it is apparent that there is no inconsistency or contradiction in his testimony that when P.W.-1 and his family members were present in the hut, all the accused persons came and altercation/fight took place for constructing the said hut on the land in dispute and thereafter all the accused had beaten P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad, P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori Saav and P.W.-6 Kabutari by lathi due to which they sustained simple injuries. As per their medical examination reports and testimony of P.W.-4 Dr. R.A. Mishra who medically examined them, all the injuries found on the bodies of the injured were simple in nature and caused by blunt object like lathi. The said testimony of P.W.-1 has been supported by the medical as well as other oral and documentary evidence. However, in the testimony of P.W.-1 to the extent that the accused Ram Naresh first hit P.W.-6 Kabutari by lathi on her head and snatched her female child from her lap and threw her on the ground, there are major contradictions.

34. Similarly, there is no inconsistency or contradiction in the testimonies of the other prosecution eye witnesses i.e. P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad, P.W.3 Sarju Prasad, P.W.-5 Halkhori Saav and P.W.-6 Kabutari who are consistent throughout in their examination-in-chief and the cross-examinations that all the accused persons had beaten them with their lathis as a result of which they sustained simple injuries as per their medical examination reports. However, in their testimonies to the extent that the accused Ram Naresh snatched the female child from the lap of P.W.-6 Kabutari and thereafter threw her on the ground due to which she died later on the way of police station, there are major contradictions, which has also not been supported by the medical evidence.

35. For examining the said prosecution version that the accused Ram Naresh Gupta after snatching the female child of P.W.-6 Kabutari from her lap, threw her on the ground due to which she died on way to the Police Station, on the litmus test, we are required to refer relevant statements of the prosecution eye witnesses:

"The testimony of P.W.-1 Mahendra Prasad (cross-examination):

"रामनरेश ने कबूतरी को लाठी मारा तो वह गिर गई। कबूतरी को मारने के बाद रामनरेश ने लड़की को छीन कर पटक दिया फिर धक्का दे दिया जिससे वह गिर गई। उस लड़की को रामनरेश ने बगल से खींचकर पटक दिया था। पाँच बीता की ऊँचाई से लड़की। को पटका था। पटकने के बाद लड़की उठाया था। लड़की के शरीर पर कोई जाहिरा चोट नहीं थी। लड़की कपड़ा व बदन में धूल लग गई थी। थाने हम लोग लड़की के उसी कपड़े में लेकर गए थे। लड़की को कहीं से खून नहीं निकल रहा था।"

The testimony of P.W.-2 Rajendra Prasad (cross-examination):

"चोट खाकर मैं जमीन पर गिर गया था। मेरी औरत लाठी खाकर नहीं गिरी थी। जब रामनरेश ने मेरी लड़की को पटक दिया और मेरी औरत को ढकेल दिया तब वह गिर गई थी। ऐसी बात नही है कि रामनरेश मेरी लड़की को छीन रहे थे और मेरी औरत छीनने नहीं दे रही थी। लड़की को रामनरेश ने जोर से पटका था यह धीरे से यह मैं नही बता सकता। लड़की रामनरेश से 2-4 हाथ पर गिरी थी। मुझे याद नही है कि लड़की मुंह के बल गिरी थी या पीठ के बल जमीन वहां ककरीली पथरीली नही थी। यह कहना गलत है कि मैं झूठ बयान दे रहा हूं"

The testimony of P.W.-3 Sarju Prasad (cross-examination):

"रामनरेश ने कबूतरी को एक लाठी सर पर मारा था। लाठी की चोट से राजेन्द्र व हलखोरी गिर पड़े थे और कोई नही गिरा था। इस मारपीट में कबूतरी नही गिरी थी, ढकेलने के बाद गिरी थी। रामनरेश ने जब लीलावती को फेंका तो 2-1 कदम पर वह गिरी। यह कहना गलत है कि रामनरेश आदि से रंजिश के कारण मैं मुल्जिमान के विरूद्ध गवाही दे रहा हूं।"

The testimony of P.W.-5 Halkhori (cross-examination):

रामनरेश के लाठी लगने पर कबूतरी चोट खाकर गिरी नहीं। दरोगा जी के बयान में यह बयान कि "वह चोट खाकर गिर गई कि - - - मैंने नहीं' दिया था, अगर लिखा है तो कोई वजह नहीं बता सकता।

……."लीलावती पहले से बीमार नहीं थी। 4-5 फीट ऊपर से रामनरेश ने लीलावती को गोदी से खीचकर पटका था। यह कहना गलत है कि मैं लीलावती को रामनरेश द्वारा गोद से खीचकर पटकने वाली बात मैं गलत कह रहा हूँ। यह भी कहना गलत है कि मैं खेत लेने के लिए कत्ल का झूठा मुकदमा चलाया और झूठा बयान दिया।"

The testimony of P.W.-6 Kabutari (examination-in-chief):

रामनरेश ने हमको मारा था। मेरे माथा पर चोट लगी थी। जब मुझे मारा तो उस समय मेरे गोद में मेरी लड़की लीलावती थी। वह 2-2/2 वर्ष की थी। रामनरेश ने लड़की को मेरे गोद से छीनकर पटक दिया।

(Cross-examination)

"मुल्जिमान जब आए तब उस समय मैं मड़ई में थी। जब मैं बाहर निकली तो मारपीट हो रही थी। बाहर निकलते ही रामनरेश की लाठी मेरे सर पर लग गई। मारपीट के पहले मेरे ससुर, मैसुर? व मेरे पति से मुल्जिमान में क्या बाते हुई थी मुझे नहीं मालूम। लाठी लगने पर मैं गिर पड़ी थी। उसके बाद उठ गई थी। रामनरेश ने जब लाठी मारा था उस समय लडकी मेरी गोद में ही थी। किस किस मुल्जिम ने कितनी कितनी लाठी चलाई थी मैं नही बता सकती। किसकी लाठी कहा कहा लगी मैं यह भी नही बता सकती।"

36. Apart from the above contradictions in the testimonies of prosecution eye witnesses, the said prosecution version has not been supported by the post-mortem examination report of the deceased and also by the testimony of P.W.-4 Dr. R.A. Mishra, who conducted the post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased.

37. P.W.-4, while conducting the post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased Lilawati, found that there was no external injury on the body of the deceased. On internal examination, this witness found that the spleen was torn at a distance of 2 cm x 1/2 cm. In his opinion the cause of death was shock and haemorrhage caused by rupture of an enlarged spleen. Further in his opinion the above ruptured spleen could have resulted in death.

38. In the cross examination, this witness has opined that the deceased girl was lean and thin and pale. Considering the principles mentioned in the Modi Legal Jurisprudence/Laws, he further opined that a lot of force was required for a normal spleen to rupture. He again opined that the enlarged spleen sometimes bursts due to contraction of the stomach or by coughing or sneezing.

39. The above testimony of P.W.-4 read with the post-mortem examination report completely discards the prosecution version that the accused Ram Naresh Gupta has committed the murder of deceased Lilawati by snatching her from the lap of her mother Kabutari (P.W.-6) and thereafter throwing her on the ground due to which she died after short interval enroute to the Police Station.

40. It is also impossible to believe that if a man snatches a one-year-old girl from her lap and throws her on the ground from about five palm length, she will definitely sustain any mark of injury. Absence of any injury having been found on the body of the deceased Lilawati makes the prosecution version fabricated and doubtful.

45. Apart from the above, we may also record that initially charge against the accused Ram Naresh Gupta has been framed by the trial court on 23.6.1981 simply under Section 302 I.P.C. not under Section 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C., whereas on the same day on 23.6.1981 another charge has been framed by the trial court against the accused-respondents Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan under Section 302 I.P.C. read with Section 34 I.P.C. and Section 323 read with Section 34 I.P.C. Such alteration in the charge framed against the accused-respondents on the same day has not been explained by the prosecution, which also makes the prosecution case doubtful.

46. However, after considering the facts and circumstances of the case and examining the findings recorded by the trial court in acquittal of accused-respondents Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta under Section 302/34 I.P.C., we are of the view that the trial court has examined the evidence led by the prosecution in correct perspective and the finding returned by it that the prosecution has not succeeded in proving its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents can be legally sustained. The prosecution has not fully established the guilt of the accused-respondents on the basis of evidence led at the stage of trial by the prosecution. The acquittal of the accused-respondents, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta under Section 302/34 I.P.C. is consequently, affirmed.

47. We are also in full agreement with the finding returned by the trial court that the prosecution has fully established its case beyond the reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents under Section 323/34 of I.P.C.

48. In view of the aforesaid facts and the findings recorded by us herein above, we are of the firm opinion that the finding of the Court below with regard to accused-respondents, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta is correct and the guilt of the accused-respondents, namely, Ram Naresh Gupta, Basdeo Gupta, Ram Nath Gupta and Madan Gupta under Section 323/34 I.P.C. has been proved beyond reasonable doubt by the prosecution, which is sustainable.

49. Consequently, in view of the deliberations held above the Government Appeal filed on behalf of the State stands dismissed.

50. There shall be no order as to costs.

51. Let a copy of this judgment be sent to the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mirzapur, henceforth, for necessary compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 317
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Government Appeal No. 205 of 1984

State of U.P. ...Appellant

Versus

Sughar Singh ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
A.G.A., Purushottam Dixit, Ramesh Chandra Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
Keshav Sahai, A.B.L.Gaur, Ashok Kumar Singh, Keshav Sahai, P.C.Sharma, Prabhat Chandra Sharma, Pratibha Singh, Purushottam Dixit, Rajeev Sharma, P.C.Mishra

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections-34, 109, 302 & 307 - Government Appeal against the judgment by which the accused-respondent has been acquitted by the trial court-contradictions in the testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 at various levels referred to above makes the entire testimonies doubtful and raises a big question mainly about the genesis of the entire prosecution case-There were inimical relationship between the accused persons, therefore it is impossible to believe that the accused Ashok @ Ranjit would associate himself with the other accused in commission of the alleged crime in any manner -Non production of brother of the accused and uncle and brother of the first informant and deceased respectively as prosecution witnesses during the course of trial also makes the prosecution case weak-Crime weapon which is alleged to have been used in commissioning of the alleged offence and has recovered have not been sent for their chemical examination to the concerned Forensic Science Laboratory in order to establish that the pellets, empty cartridge and the gun were actually used in the commission of the alleged offence.

Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

Ballu & anr. Vs St. of M. P. 2024 SCC OnLine SC 481

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shiv Shanker Prasad, J.)

1. We have heard Shri Jitendra Kumar Jaiswal, learned A.G.A. for the State/ appellant, Shri Purshottam Dixit, learned counsel for the first informant, Shri P.C. Sharma, learned counsel for the accused-respondent nos. 2 & 3 Nagendra and Sahdev, Shri Rajiv Sharma, learned counsel for the accused- respondent no. 4 Ashok as well as perused the material available on trial court record.

2. The instant Government Appeal is directed against the judgment and order dated 4th October, 1983 passed in Criminal Sessions Trial No. 80 of 1983 (State Vs. Sughar Singh & 3 Others), arising out of Case Crime No. 183 of 1982, under Section 302/34, 307/34, 302, 307 & 109 of I.P.C., Police Station-Kotwali, District-Etah, whereby the accused-respondents Sughar Singh, Nagendra, Sahdev and Ashok @ Ranjit have been acquitted from all the charges levelled/framed against them.

3. During the pendency of the instant Government Appeal, the accused-respondent no.1 Sughar Singh has already passed away and the same has already been abated qua accused-respondent no.1 by this Court vide order dated 7th May, 2018.

4. The accused-respondent Sughar Singh the father of the other accused, namely, Nagendra and Sahdev, whereas the accused Ashok is their close friend and residents of same village.

The prosecution case as cropped up from the records of above Government Appeal is that on a written report given by the informant/P.W.-1 Satdeo Singh dated 10th March, 1982 (Exhibit-ka/7), first information report (Exhibit-Ka/3/1) came to be registered on 10th March, 1982 at 05:45 p.m. at Police Station-Kotwali, District-Etah against the accused-Sughar Singh, Sahdeo Singh, Nagendra Singh and Ashok under Sections 302, 307 and 120-B of I.P.C. In the written report, it has been alleged by the informant/P.W.-1 that about 15 days back, there was a fight between his father Gopal Singh and accused Sahdev and Nagendra resident of his village for taking water because they had stopped the water, which was flowing in his gram field. When his father objected, they ran to attack his father and threatened to kill him. On 10th March, 1982 at around 04:00 p.m., when fight was going on between father of the accused Nagendra and Sahdev Singh, namely, Sughar Singh and their uncle, namely, Durveen Singh near the house of Jorawar Singh, the uncle of the first informant, namely, Sangram Singh intervened to stop the said fight, then, the accused Nagendra and Sahdeo, who were along with their father Sughar Singh, started abusing his uncle. When the first informant objected not to abuse his uncle, heated conversation took place between them. Meanwhile, his father Gopal Singh came to the spot and inquired about the matter, then the accused Nagendra Singh exhorted the accused Sahdev to kill them as earlier they stopped the water flowing into their field. On the said exhortation, the accused Sahdev ran and went to the house of accused Ashok, whose house was adjacent to the house of Jorawar and brought his licensed gun and fired upon father of the first informant on his eye, who was standing near the house of Jorawar. Thereafter the accused Sahdeo fired second shot upon the first informant but the said shot did not hit him and his father died on the spot. The first informant, Jaiveer Singh resident of his village and Yatendra Singh, Sangram Singh and Narendra Singh resident of Ghilauwa, Police Station Kotwali, Etah saw the entire incident of shooting. His father was lying dead on the spot. He came to the Police Station to lodge the first information report.

5. After lodging of the same, the Head Moharrir, namely, Laxman Singh Verma (P.W.-6) prepared the chik first information report (exhibit-ka/1) and made G.D. entry on 10th March, 1982 at 05:45 p.m. The investigation of the case was handed over to P.W.-4 Sri Brahma Singh, the then Sub-Inspector of Police Station Kotwali Etah, in whose presence the case was registered at the Police Station. He proceeded with the investigation after registration of the case and recorded the statements of P.W.-6 Laxman Singh Verma, first informant/P.W.-1 Satdeo Singh and witness Sangram Singh at the Police Station. Thereafter P.W.-4 went to the place of occurrence along with Sub-Inspector Prahlad Singh (P.W.-7) and Sub Inspector Yogendra Singh. P.W.-4 conducted the inquest of the dead-body of the deceased Gopal Singh. On the instruction of P.W.-4, P.W.-7 Sub-Inspector Prahlad Singh prepared the inquest report (Ext. Ka-5), the diagrams of the dead-body (Ext. Ka-6), the challan report Ext. Ka-7), the letter for post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased to Chief Medical Officer (Ext. Ka-8), letter to Reserved Inspector (Ext. Ka-9) and the sample of seal (Ext. Ka-10) on the instruction and supervision of the Investigating Officer (P.W.-4). The dead-body of the deceased was sealed in presence of the witnesses on the spot and it was then sent for postmortem examination through Constables Udaivir Singh and Hari Ram with necessary document.

6. Dr. A.K. Malpani (P.W.-3), the then Acting Superintendent of District Hospital, Etah, conducted an autopsy of the body of the deceased Gopal Singh on 11th March, 1982 at 11:00 a.m. He opined that the cause of death of the deceased Gopal Singh is coma, haemorrhage and shock as result of following ante-mortem injuries:

"1. Abrasion 1 cm. x 3/4 cm. over the middle of right eye brow.

2. Gunshot wound of entry 1 cm x 1 cm. x brain deep over the middle of the right upper eye lid. No blackening and no charring seen. On dissection, right eye-ball found grossly lacerated. On further dissection, the orbital cavity having commuted fracture. Muscles of eye-ball lacerated. On further dissection the membrane of brain and brain matter found lacerated and clotted blood present. A big pellet recovered from the posterior fossa on right side. No wound of exit seen.

3. One gunshot wound of entry 1 cm. x 1 cm. over the right side of face, 3.5 Cm. lateral to outer angle of right eye. No blackening and no charring seen. On dissection the wound is brain deep. The muscles membrane and, brain matter grossly lacerated and a big pellet recovered from the left cravical cavity, middle part of the brain. Direction right to left and backward. No wound of exit seen.

4. Lacerated wound 1.5 cm. x 0.5 cm. x scalp deep on the superior occipital protuberance."

7. P.W.-4/Investigating Officer inspected the place of occurrence and prepared the site plan (Exhibit-ka/11) on the same day i.e. 10.3.1982. He also collected from the place of occurrence a blank cartridge and chad (Tikli) (Exhibit-ka-4) and also blood stained earth and plain earth (Ext.-Ka- 5) and prepared their recovery memos (Ext. Ka-12 and Ka-13) respectively. He also recorded the statement of eye-witnesses like Jaivir Singh etc. on the same day at the place of occurrence.

8. On 11.3.1982, the Investigating Officer (P.W.-4) also inspected the place where the scuffle took place between deceased Gopal Singh and accused Nagendra and Sahdev about 15 days prior to the present occurrence. He prepared another site-plan (Ext. Ka-14) of that place also. He found the mends of the drain broken and filled with fresh earth. Thereafter the investigation was handed over to P.W.-5 Sub Inspector Yogendra Singh on 12th March, 1982 by the then Station House Officer. On 18th March, 1982 P.W.-5 Yogendra Singh reached the jail and recorded the statements of the accused Ashok @ Ranjit, who surrendered before the court concerned and was sent to jail. On the disclosure of accused Ashok, his relative (Behnoi) Om Prakash gave the licensed gun to P.W.-5 of which recovery memo (Exhibit-Ka-15) was prepared by him.

9. After conclusions of the statutory investigation under Chapter XII Cr.P.C. P.W.-5 Yogendra Singh has submitted the charge-sheet (Exhibit-Ka/16) against the accused persons, namely, Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh, Sahdeo Singh and Ashok @ Ranjit before the court concerned.

10. On submission of charge-sheet, the concerned Magistrate took cognizance in the matter and committed the case to the Court of Sessions by whom the case was to be tried. First, on 19th July, 1982, the concerned Court framed following charges against the accused Sahdev:

"CHARGES

I, S. K. Gupta, III Addl. Sessions Judge, Etah hereby charge you Sahdev as follows:-

FIRST- that you, on 10.3.1982, at about 4.00 p. m., near the house of Zorawar Singh, in village Ghilaua, Police Station Kotwali, district Etah, did commit murder by intentionally or knowingly causing the death of Gopal Singh, and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 302 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this Court.

SECONDLY- that you, on the aforesaid date, time and place, did an act, to wit, fired at Satya Dev Singh with a gun, with such intention or knowledge and under such circumstances that if by that act you had caused the death of said Satya Dev Singh, you would have been guilty of murder, and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 307 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this Court.

And I hereby direct that you be tried on the said charge by this court."

11. On the same day i.e. 19th July, 1983, following charges were framed against the accused Sughar Singh, Nagendra and Ashok:

"CHARGE

I, S.K. Gupta, III Addl. Sessions Judge, Etah hereby charge you (1) Sughar Singh, (2) Nagendra and (3) Ashok as follows:

FIRST- that, on 10.3.1982, at about 4.00 p.m., near the house of Jorawer Singh, in village Ghilaua, Police Station Kotwali, district Etah, shaped and common intention with co-accused Sahdeo to commit murder of Gopal Singh in furtherance of such common intention, co-accused Sahdev did commit murder by intentionally or knowingly causing the death of Gopal Singh, and you thereby committed an offence punishable under section 302 read with section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this Court.

SECONDLY; that, on the aforesaid date, time and place, in furtherance of common intention of all co-accused, Sahdev did an act, to wit, fired at Satya Dev Singh with a gun, with such intention or knowledge and under such circumstances that if by that act he had caused the death of said Satya Dev Singh, he would have been guilty of murder, and you thereby committed an offence punishable under section 307 read with section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this court.

Alternatively I also charge you as follows:

FIRST- that you, on the aforesaid date, time and place, abetted the commission of the offence of murder of Gopal Singh by co-accused Sahdev, which was committed in consequence of your abetment, and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 109 & 302 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this Court.

SECONDLY that you, on the aforesaid date, time and place, abetted the commission of the offence of attempt to murder Satya Dev Singh by co-accused Sahdev, which was committed in consequence of your abetment and thereby committed an offence punishable under section 109 & 307 of the Indian Penal Code, and within the cognizance of this Court.

And I hereby direct that you be tried on the said charge by this court."

12. The charges were read out and explained in Hindi to the accused, who pleaded not guilty and claim to be tried.

13. The trial started and the prosecution has examined six witnesses, who are as follows:-

1	Satdeo (complainant) (son of the deceased Gopal Singh)/eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W.-1
2	Jaiveer Singh (resident of village Chhilauwa, Police Station-Kotwali)/independent eye witness as per the prosecution	P.W.-2
3	Dr. A.K. Maalpani, Superintendent District Hospital, Etah, who conducted the autopsy of the person of the deceased	P.W.-3

4	Sub-Inspector Braham Singh, who initially conducted the investigation i.e. the first Investigating Officer	P.W.-4
5	Sub-Inspector Yogendra Singh, who conducted the investigation after P.W.-4 and submitted the charge-sheet	P.W.-5
6	Laxman Singh Verma, Head Moharrir, who prepared the chik first information report	P.W.-6
7	Sub-Inspector Prahlad Singh, who prepared the inquest report of the deceased, photo lash, letter to R.I. etc. on the direction of P.W.-4	P.W.-7
8	Constable Udai Veer Singh, who took the sealed dead body of the deceased to the mortuary	P.W.-8

14. The defence has also produced following witnesses in support of its case:

1	Girraj Prasad, the then Judicial Assistant Collector, Etah	D.W.-1
2	Constable Balak Ram who has proved the G.D. No.9 dated 11th March, 1982 of Police Lines, Etah which shows that the papers for post-mortem examination were submitted to the R.I.	D.W.-2

15. The prosecution in order to establish the charges levelled against the accused-appellant has relied upon following documentary evidence, which were duly proved and consequently marked as Exhibits:

1	Written report dated 10th March, 1982	Ex.Ka.-1
2	First Information Report dated 10th March, 1982	Ex.Ka.-3 & Ex.Kha-1
3	Recovery memo of empty cartridge & Tikli dated 10th March, 1982	Ex. Ka.-12
4	Recovery memo of blood stained and plain earth dated 10th March, 1982	Ex. Ka/13
5	Inquest report	Ex.Ka.-5
6	Diagram of the dead body of the deceased	Ex.Ka.-6
7	Chalan of the dead body of the deceased	Ex.Ka.-7
8	Letter to the Chief Medical Officer for post-mortem examination	Ex.Ka.-8
9	Letter to the R.I.	Ex.Ka.-9
10	Sample of seal	Ex.Ka.-10
11	Post-mortem examination report of the deceased dated 11th March, 1982	Ex.Ka-2
12	Site plan with index dated 10th March, 1982	Ex.Ka-11
13	Site plan with index dated 11th March, 1982	Ex.Ka-14

16. The defence has also produced following documentary evidence in support of its case:

1	Charge-sheet dated 27th February, 1977 submitted in Crime No.22, under Sections 147, 148, 149 and 307 I.P.C.	Ex.Kha-3
2	Copy of the F.I.R. dated 14th November, 1978 as Crime No. 1068 under Sections 147, 148 and 307 I.P.C.	Ex.Kha-4
3	Copy of the application filed by the Additional Public Prosecutor for summoning the accused Sughar Singh as witness	Ex.Kha-5
4	Copy of the order passed by the Magistrate dated 28thAugust, 1982 summoning the witnesses including Sughar Singh	Ex.Kha-6
5	Copy of the Khatauni of Consolidation Settlement in order to show that the Gopal Singh (deceased herein) and witnesses Sangram Singh, Jagdish Singh, Ranvir Singh and Ramesh Chndra were co-tenants.	Ex.Kha-7
6	Two copies of Khewats 1347 Fasli and 1901 Fasli filed to prove that the witnesses and deceased	Exts.Kha-8 and 9

	Gopal Singh belonged to the same family

17. After completion of the prosecution evidence, statement of the accused was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The accused persons, while giving their statements in the Court, denied all the allegations made by the prosecution and also traversed their complicity in the alleged crime. They alleged that they have been falsely implicated on account of harbouring grudges as there were enmity between the complainant and the witnesses. For establishing the same, the defence have two oral as well as seven documentary evidences referred to above.

18 . On the basis of above evidence oral as well as documentary adduced during the course of trial, the trial court, while referring various infirmities in the prosecution evidence led during the course of trial has opined that the prosecution has not succeeded in bringing home any of the charges framed against the accused persons beyond all reasonable doubts and they deserves to be acquitted. Accordingly, the trial court while passing the impugned judgment, has hold that the accused Sughar Singh, Sahdev, Nagendra and Ashok @ Ranjit are not guilty of any of the charges levelled against them and they are hereby acquitted.

19. Being aggrieved with the impugned judgment and order of acquittal of the accused persons, namely, Sughar Singh, Sahdev, Nagendra and Ashok @ Ranjit, the State of U.P. has preferred the present Government Appeal.

20. Assailing the impugned judgment and order of acquittal of the accused-respondents, namely, Sughar Singh, Sahdev Singh, Nagendra Singh and Ashok @ Ranjit, the learned A.G.A. for the State in the instant Government Appeal has advanced following submissions:

i) . As per prosecution case as unfolded in the first information report, specific role of exhortation has been assigned to the accused Nagendra Singh and role of causing fire arm injuries to the deceased Gopal Singh has been attributed to the accused Sahdev Singh on the exhortation of Nagendra Singh. The said prosecution version has also been supported by the prosecution witnesses, namely, P.W.-1, Satyadeo and P.W.-2, Jaiveer Singh in their respective testimonies.

ii). P.W.-1 and 2 are the eyewitnesses, who have proved the prosecution case beyond reasonable doubt but trial Court erred in passing the impugned judgment and order of the acquittal.

iii). Injuries on the person of deceased- Gopal Singh have been caused by fire arm which is fully corroborated by medical evidence i.e. post mortem examination report of the deceased. Dr. A.K. Malpani P.W.-3/Autopsy Surgeon has found four gun shot injuries on the person of deceased- Gopal Singh, which also support the prosecution case.

iv). Motive alleged in the F.I.R. has also been proved by P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 in their respective testimonies, who are alleged to be the eye-witnesses of the incident.

(v). There are no inconsistencies or contradictions in the testimonies of the prosecution witnesses.

(vi). Since the incident took place at 04:00 p.m. i.e. broad day light and the members of prosecution as well as defence were of the same village, the accused could be identified very well by the prosecution witnesses and there was no occasion to doubt the identification of the accused persons by prosecution witnesses.

(vii). Though there were recovery of gun i.e. crime weapon and pellets were also recovered from the body of the deceased but that were not sent to the Forensic Science Laboratory concerned for their ballistic reports. It is no doubt true that there are no ballistic reports with regard to pellets and the recovered gun but there is ocular evidence to prove the prosecution case. P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 are the eyewitness account, who have supported the prosecution story. Non production of F.S.L. report is not fatal to the prosecution case. Since P.W.-2 is an independent eye witness, therefore, his evidence is more creditworthy.

21. On the basis of above submissions, learned A.G.A. submits that the prosecution has fully established its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents by oral as well as documentary evidence but the trial court has not examined the same and passed the impugned judgment of acquittal of accused-respondents, namely, Sughar Singh, Sahdev, Nagendra Singh and Ashok @ Ranjit and therefore, the same is per-se illegal and is liable to be quashed. The learned A.G.A. and learned counsel for the first informant further submit that in support of the above argument, learned counsel for the accused-respondent has failed to produce any documentary as well as oral evidence before this Court as well as trial court. There exist direct evidence against the accused-respondents. As such, the Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be allowed by reversing the impugned judgment of the trial court and convicting and sentencing the accused-respondents for the offence under Section 302 I.P.C. The learned A.G.A. also submits that since the Government Appeal qua the accused-respondent Sughar Singh has already been dismissed as abated, nothing is required to be said in his case.

22. Supporting the impugned judgment and order passed by the trial court acquitting the accused-respondents, the learned counsel for the accused-respondents submits as under:

(a) Motive as alleged in the F.I.R. has not been established and proved by the prosecution evidence adduced during the course of trial.

(b). P.W.1/first informant-Satyadeo has admitted in his cross-examination that prior to this incident, one cross case under Section 307 I.P.C. was lodged between the accused- Ashok and accused Nagendra. Although, it is alleged that after some time both the accused compromised and the cases instituted against each other culminated into their acquittal. Even though both the accused entered into compromise, but there were no cordial relations between the Ashok and the accused Nagendra nor they were friend. As such, in these circumstances, it is impossible to believe that the accused-Ashok exhorted, associated or helped the accused Sahdeo and Nagendra in commissioning of murdering of the deceased Gopal Singh in any manner.

c). P.W.-1 has also stated in para-34 of his cross-examination that accused-Ashok was not present on the spot. Similarly P.W.-2, Jaiveer Singh also stated that accused- Ashok was not present on the place of occurrence. He then also stated that he has not heard that Ashok asked the accused Sahdev to bring his gun kept in his sitting place (Baithaka) and kill the deceased Gopal Singh from it, whereas, P.W.-4 investigating officer, Sri Brahm Singh stated in paragraph-29 that P.W.-2 Jaiveer stated in his statement that " Ashok asked Sahdeo to bring his gun which was kept in sitting place (Baithaka) and kill him (Gopal Singh).

d). As per F.I.R., accused- Ashok was also in the company of the accused persons, Sughar Singh, Sahdeo Singh and Nagendra Singh at the time of occurrence but P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 have denied the presence of Ashok on the place of occurrence at the time of incident. From the above contradiction in the prosecution evidence, it is apparent that the genesis of crime is wholly untrustworthy as the same creates a major dent in the prosecution story.

e). There is also no F.S.L. report with regard to recovered cartridges and tikli. In these circumstances prosecution has not been able to established its case beyond reasonable doubt, hence, judgment of acquittal passed by Trial Judge is well reasoned and sound.

On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the accused-respondents submits that as this is a case of weak type of evidence, the impugned judgment and order of acquittal of any of the charges framed against the accused-respondent does not suffer from any illegality and infirmity so as to warrant any interference by this Court. As such the present Government Appeal filed by the State is liable to be dismissed.

23. We have examined the respective contentions urged by the learned counsel for the parties and have perused the records of the present appeal including the trial court records.

24. The only question requires to be addressed and determined in this appeal is whether the conclusion of guilt arrived at by the learned trial court and the sentence awarded is legal and sustainable in law or it suffers from infirmity and perversity.

25. Before entering into the merits of the case set up by the learned counsel for the accused-appellant in criminal appeal, learned counsel for the accused-respondent in government appeal and the learned A.G.A. as also the learned counsel for the first informant in both the appeals qua impugned judgment and order of conviction passed by the trial court, it is desirable for us to briefly refer to the statements of the prosecution witnesses as well as the defence witnesses.

26. The first informant Satyadeo Singh son of the deceased Gopal Singh has been examined as P.W..-1. He stated in his examination-in-chief that the deceased Gopal Singh was his father, whereas the accused persons, namely, Sughar Singh, Nagendra, Sahdev, Ashok @ Ranjit were residents of his village. Accused Sahdev Singh and Nagendra Singh were the son of accused Sughar Singh. The present murder incident took place on Holi (festival of colours) one year and five months back. About 15 days before the incident, accused Nagendra and Sahdev had cut off the drain water flowing in his gram field due to which his crops got damaged. Because of the same, there was an altercation between his father Gopal Singh and accused Nagendra and Sahdev and the aforesaid accused threatened his father to face evil consequences.

27. This witness further stated that it was around 4 o'clock in the evening, there was an altercation, which was going on between the accused Sughar Singh and his brother Durbin Singh regarding some land and the accused Nagendra and Sahadev were also involved in it. During the same fight, this witness and his uncle Sangram Singh also reached there. When his uncle Sangram Singh tried to intervene, accused Nagendra and Sahdev started abusing his uncle. Further when this witness objected not to abuse him, they also abused him, on which he also started abusing them, as he became very angry with him. At the same time, father of this witness came there from the east of Prem Shankar's house and was standing between the vacant land of Prem Shankar's house and Zoravar's house, he asked as to why they were fighting. When the said altercation was going on between the first informant/this witness and the accused, then the witnesses Jaiveer Singh, Yatendra Singh, Narendra Singh were also present on the spot. Seeing the father of P.W.-1, the accused Nagendra exhorted the accused Sahdeo to kill him as he was one of the enemy, who had stopped their water on other day. On the said exhortation, the accused Sahdev ran and brought Ashok's licensed gun and fired at his father, which hit his father directly on his eyes and face. When his father fell down, the accused Sahdev fired another shot at P.W.-1, which narrowly missed him because he sat down. The witness raised an alarm and seeing the crowd gathering, the accused ran away towards the south-west of the well. The deceased died on the spot due to bullet injury. He himself (P.W.-1) had written a report regarding the incident and took it to the police station for registration of the case.

28. In the cross-examination, this witness stated that there was a cross case under Section 307 of I.P.C. between the accused Ashok and accused Nagendra. This witness further stated that there was gram crops in his 8 bighas of land and some of which lost. 15 days before the incident, the accused had cut off the chak nali water flowing in his field due to which huge damage was caused.

29. This witness further stated that accused Nagendra was cashier in the District Cooperative Bank, Nidhauli and he lived there. He used to visit the village once or twice in a week. He had been informed by his father about the fight between his father and the accused Nagendra and Sahdeo due to flow of water but his father has not disclosed the date and time of such fight.

30. This witness further stated that at the time of the incident, Durbin Singh, with whom quarrel was taking place initially, left the place of occurrence and heated conversations were exchanged between them. It took about 10 minutes in exchange of hot conversations between them and firing of gun shot upon his father i.e. deceased. He further stated that at the time of incident, he was going towards chaupal and he stopped there after seeing the fight between Durbeen Singh and the accused. When he reached the place of occurrence, his uncle Sangram Singh also accompanied him.

31. This witness again stated that he did not witness accused Ashok at the spot. He did not give any statement to the Investigating Officer that Ashok asked accused Sahdeo to bring his gun from his sitting place and kill him, consequent to which the accused Sahdev immediately ran away. However, he cannot explain as to how the Investigating Officer has recorded his such statement.

32. This witness further stated that the Sahdev brought the gun from the accused Ashok's sitting place of which he had no idea when Sahdev ran to get the gun and fired it in the presence of so many people. When he was running to get the gun, 15-20 people were gathered at the spot.

33. P.W.-2 Jaiveer Singh, who is alleged to be an independent eye witness stated that at around 4 o'clock in the evening, he was standing near the well situated south-west of house of one Zorawar. Many witnesses like Yatendra Singh, Sangram Singh, Narendra Singh etc. were also standing there. At the relevant time, there was an altercation between Durveen Singh and the accused Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh and Sahdev Singh on some issue. Meanwhile Sangram Singh intervened, then the accused Nagendra abused him, on which the first informant/P.W.-1 Satyadev objected not to abuse his uncle i.e. Sangram Singh due to which heated conversations were exchanged between them. Meanwhile, father of first informant, namely, Gopal Singh came from the east side of Prem Shankar's house and asked as to why they were fighting on which the accused Nagendra exhorted the accused Sahdev to kill him as he was his enemy. On such exhortation, the accused Sahdev ran and brought the gun of accused Ashok from his sitting place and standing near the Bachan Singh's platform, fired a shot upon the deceased Gopal Singh due to which he sustained fire arm injuries and fell down. Face of the deceased was hit by fire. Whereafter the accused Sahadev fired upon the first informant/P.W.-1 Satyadev but it did not hit him as he moved a little away. When the crowd gathered, the accused left the spot towards the west side. Gopal Singh died on the spot.

34. In his cross-examination, this witness stated that accused Nagendra exhorted to shoot. At the relevant time, none of the accused were having any weapon. The accused Ashok was not present at the spot. He did not overheard the accused Ashok saying the accused Sahdev to bring the gun from his sitting place and kill them. Regarding the aforesaid fact, he did not give any statement to the Investigating Officer.

35. This witness further stated that he saw the accused Sahadev running to bring the gun but it did not occur to him that he would bring the gun and fire it. The sitting place of the accused Ashok was visible from where they stood but the same was not visible from where the deceased Gopal Singh was standing. Till the first shot was fired by the accused Sahdeo, he could not see that the accused Sahdev had brought the gun because his attention was towards the accused Nagendra and others abusing each other. This witness further stated that his attention was drawn towards that when the first fire was made. The second cartridge was fired by accused Sahdev in front of him. The first cartridge turned out to be empty which fell on the spot and then Sahadev loaded the second cartridge in front of him. By the time he shouted as to what he was doing, the accused Sahdev fired another shot.

36. This witness denied the fact that the incident took place in the dark night in which the deceased Gopal Singh was killed and no one was present at the time of the incident. He also denied that he has not seen any incident and was deposing falsely because of his relationship.

37. P.W.-3 Dr. A.K. Malpani, Superintendent District Hospital Etah, District Etah, in his examination-in-chief stated that he found as many as four ante mortem injuries on the body of the deceased. He took out two big pellets from the body of the deceased and after getting the said pellets sealed, the same were handed over to the Police Constable. While conducting an autopsy on the corpse of the deceased, he opined that the cause of death of the deceased was shock and excessive bleeding due to ante-mortem injuries. These injuries in ordinary course of nature were usually sufficient to cause death. He further opined that there could be a difference of 6 hours in the duration of injuries on either side. In his opinion, injury no. 4 could be caused due to fall over some hard object. He then opined that the injuries were possible only when the killer and the deceased were standing at almost the same level.

38. P.W.-4 Sub-Inspector Brahm Singh initially conducted the investigation, who in his examination-in-chief stated that the investigation of the case was first handed over to him. Whereafter he recorded the statements of first informant/P.W.-1, witness Sangram Singh. He further stated that on 11th March, 1982, he inspected the field and a fight was alleged to have taken place between the deceased Gopal Singh and the accused about 15 days prior to the incident. After examining the evidence of first informant Satyadev, he prepared the site plan which has been proved by him in the Court. On such inspection, he found the bund (Medh) of the chak nali was broken at two places, which seemed to be clogged with fresh soil. He next stated that on 12th March, 1982, the investigation was entrusted to Sub Inspector Yogendra Singh as per the order of the then Station House Officer.

In his cross-examination, this witness further stated that the first informant/P.W.-1 Satyadev had given his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that the accused Ashok exhorted the accused Sahdeo to bring his gun from his sitting place (Baithaka) and kill them. On such exhortation, the accused Sahadev immediately ran away.

39. Further this witness stated that he also recorded the statement of witness Durveen Singh in which he stated that the accused Ashok exhorted the accused Sahdeo to bring the gun, which was kept in his sitting place (Baithaka) and kill them.

40. P.W.-5 Sub-Inspector Yogendra Singh stated in his examination-in-chief that he took over the investigation of the case from P.W.-4 Sub-Inspector Brahma Singh on 12th March, 1982. On 18th March, 1982 he went to the district court and recorded the statement of accused Ashok, where he surrendered and on his asking, his brother-in-law (Behnoi), namely, Om Prakash deposited his gun in the Police Sttaion where its recovery memo has been prepared by this witness.

41. This witness further stated that he did not send the gun of the accused Ashok to the ballistic expert for its matching because a long time had elapsed since the incident and the gun was still in the possession of the accused. This witness further stated that he wanted to take the accused Ashok on police remand only for recovery of his gun because he was informed that firing was done by the gun of the accused Ashok.

42. P.W.-6 Laxman Singh Verma, Head Muharrir, Police Station-Patiani, Etah has been produced by the prosecution. This witness stated that he prepared the chik report and made entry in General Diary in that regard. He denied that the special report was not sent on 10th March, 1982 and the chik report was prepared much later. He also denied that the general diary was kept withheld and relevant entries were subsequently made.

43. P.W.-7 Sub-Inspector Prahlad Singh stated in his examination-in-chief that he prepared all the documents qua inquest of the body of the deceased and for sending the body for post-mortem examination, on the spot under the direction of the Investigating Officer P.W.-4 in his presence.

44. P.W.-8 Constable Udayveer Singh took the dead body of the deceased to the Mortuary along with necessary documents.

45. Shri Girraj Prasad, Judicial Assistant, Collectorate, Etah has been produced as D.W.-1 by the defence. He proved the order of the District Magistrate, Etah dated 12th March, 1982 for receiving the special report at his office.

46. The defence has also produced Constable Balak Ram as D.W.-2, who proved the G.D. No.9 dated 11th March, 1982 of Police Lines, Etah which mentions that the papers for post-mortem examination of the deceased were submitted to the R.I. on 11th March, 1982 at 0720 hours.

47. On the deeper scrutiny of the above evidence led during the course of trial, we find that there is major contradictions in the testimonies of the prosecution star eye witnesses. There is also faulty investigation. Such contradictions and faulty investigation cast a serious dent in the entire prosecution case.

48. Now it is important for us to refer to such contradictions in the testimony of first informant/P.W.-1 Satya Deo son of the deceased i.e. the first eye witness.

49. In the written report (Exhibit-Ka/1) of the first informant/P.W.-1 on the basis of which the first information report has been lodged (Exhibit-ka/3), it has been stated as under:

"मेरे पिता जी गोपाल सिंह से आज से करीब 15 दिन पहले मेरे गांव के सहदेव व नागेन्द्र पुत्र सुगड़ सिंह से पानी ले जाने के सम्बन्ध में झगड़ा हो गया था क्योंकि इन लोगों ने मेरे चने के खेत में पानी काट दिया था मेरे पिता ने उनसे कहा तो ये लोग मेरे पिता जी पर मारने दौड़े और जान से मारने की धमकी और कहा कि साले कभी तुझको देखेंगे आज दि० 10.3.82 को करीब 4 बजे नागेन्द्र व सहदेव सिंह के पिता सुगड़ सिंह और उनके चाचा दुर्बीन सिंह में जोरावर सिंह के मकान के पास झगड़ा हो रहा था मेरे चाचा संग्राम सिंह ने बीच बचाव किया कि उपरोक्त नागेन्द्र वा सहदेव सिंह भी अपने पिता के साथ थे नागेन्द्र व सहदेव ने मेरे चाचा को गालियों दी मैंने इन लोगों से गाली देने से मना किया कि मेरे चाचा को गाली क्यों दे रहे हो इस बात पर मुझसे तू तू मैं मैं हो गयी इतने में मेरे पिता जी गोपाल सिंह मौके पर आ गये उन्होंने कहा कि क्या बात है इतने में ही नागेन्द्र सिंह ने अपने भाई सहदेव से कहा कि अब क्या देख रहा है। दुश्मन सामने आ गया मार दो सालों को इसी ने उस दिन हमारा पानी रोका था तभी भागकर सहदेव गया और अशोक पुत्र स्वरूप सिंह जिसका मकान जोरावर के मकान में मिला हुआ है। अशोक की लाइसेंसी बंदूक ले आया और जोरावर सिंह के मकान के पास खड़े मेरे पिता जी को सहदेव ने गोली मार दी जिससे मेरे पिता जी के आंख पर गोली लगी है। तथा सहदेव ने दूसरा फायर मेरे ऊपर किया जिससे मैं बाल बाल बचा हूँ मेरे पिता जी को घटनास्थल पर ही मृत्यु हो गयी है। यह सारा बाका तथा गोली मारते मैंने व मेरे गांव के जैवीर सिंह पुत्र वावू सिंह, यतेन्द्र सिंह पुत्र रनवीर सिंह व संग्राम सिंह पुत्र आलम सिंह व नरेन्द्र सिंह पुत्र रमेश चन्द्र निवासीगण धिलौआ थाना कोतवाली एटा तथा गांव के बहुत से लोगों ने सारा वाका देखा है।"

50. From perusal of the aforesaid version of first informant/P.W.-1 it is apparently clear that only role assigned to cause fire arm injuries to the deceased Gopal Singh is upon the accused Sahdeo, whereas the role of exhortation has been assigned to accused Nagendra Singh. The accused Sughar Singh has been assigned to accompany the aforesaid accused, whereas the accused Ashok has been implicated in the present case because his gun was used in causing such fire arm injuries. From the aforesaid version it is also not clear as to whether the accused Ashok was present on the spot at the time of incident or not. It is also clear that 15 days prior to the said incident, there was altercation between the deceased Gopal Singh and the accused Nagendra and Sahdeo over watering of the gram crops of the deceased.

51. In the statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. by the Investigating Officer, the first informant/P.W.-1 Satyadeo has stated as under:

''आज होली रंग का दिन है गांव में जगह जगह आदमी इकट्ठे हो रहे है करीब 4 बजे शाम के हमारे गांव के जोरावर सिंह के मकान के पास सुघड़ सिंह और दुर्वीन सिंह में झगड़ा हो रहा था जिस का बीच बिचाव मेरे चाचा संग्राम सिंह ने कराया था वही पर सुघड़ सिंह के लड़के नागेन्द्र व सहदेव भी थे बीच बिचाव कराते वक्त नागेन्द्र व सहदेव ने मेरे चचा को गालिंया दे कर कहा कि तुम साले हमारे बीच बिचाव कराने वाले कौन होते हो मैंने गालियां देने को मना किया इस पर मुझसे तू-तू मैं-मैं हो गई इसी बीच मेरे पिता जी गोपाल सिंह आ गये उन्होंने पूंछा कि क्या बात है इतने में ही नागेन्द्र सिंह ने अपने भाई सहदेव से कहा कि अब क्या देख रहा है दुश्मन सामने आ गया है साले को गोली मार दो इसी ने उस दिन हमारा पानी रोका था तभी अशोक पुत्र सरुप सिंह जिस का मकान बैठक जोरावर के मकान से मिली है ने कहा कि बैठक से मेरी बन्दूक उठा ला और मार दो कि एक दम से सहदेव भाग कर गया और अशोक वाली बन्दूक और कारतूस ले आया और जोरावर के मकान के पास खड़े हुए मेरे पिता जी को गोली मार दी जो मेरे पिता जी की आंखो पर लगी तथा एक फायर और सहदेव ने मेरे ऊपर जान से मारने की नियत से किया जिससे मैं बाल बाल बचा, मेरे पिता जी गोली लगते ही खतम हो गये, मेरे पिता जी को गोली लगवाने में नागेन्द्र व सहदेव के पिता सुघड़ सिंह का भी हाथ रहा जो मौके पर गोली लगते समय मौजूद थे मुलजिमान को गोली मारते वहीं मौके पर खड़े हुए मैंने व मेरे चचा संग्राम सिंह व गांव के जयवीर सिंह पुत्र बाबू सिंह व यतेन्दर सिंह पुत्र रनवीर सिंह व नरेन्द्र सिंह पुत्र रमेश चन्द तथा गांव के बहुत से लोगों ने देखा है दुरवीन सिंह हमारी तू-तू मैं-मैं होते ही मौके स चला गया था मेरे पिता जी की लाश मौके पर पड़ी है इस घटना की तहरीर मैंने स्वयं लिखी और अपने चचा संग्राम सिंह को साथ लेकर थाना आया तहरीर देकर मैंने अपना मुकदमा दर्ज कराया। ''

52. The statement of Sangram Singh, brother of the deceased Gopal Singh, who has not been produced during the course of trial, recorded by the Investigating Officer under Section 161 Cr.P.C. is extracted hereunder:

''आज होली में रंग का दिन था गांव में जगह जगह लोग इकट्ठे होकर त्यौहार मना रहे थे करीब शाम के 4 बजे नागेन्दर व सहदेव सिंह के पिता सुघड़ सिंह और इनके चाचा दुर्वीन सिंह में हमारे ही गांव के जोरावर सिंह के मकान के पास रास्ते में आपस में जमीन के ऊपर गाली गलौज व झगड़ा हो रहा था दुर्वीन सिंह कह रहा था कि मुझे जमीन कम दी है यह झगड़ा देखकर कि त्यौहार का दिन है और बात न बढ़े मैंने उनमें बीच बिचाव कराया कि नागेन्दर व सहदेव ने मुझे गालियां दी कि तुम बीच में हमारा फैसला करने वाले कौन होते हो और मुझे गालियां देते हुवे देखकर सत्यदेव से न रहा गया जिस पर सत्यदेव से भी उन की तू-तू मैं-मैं हो गई इसी बीच दुर्वीन सिंह वहां से चला गया और मेरे भाई गोपाल सिंह भी वहीं मौके पर आ गये और हम लोगों के बीच तू-तू मैं-मैं व गाली गलौज होते देख कहा कि क्या बात है मेरे भाई गोपाल सिंह के यह कहते ही नागेन्द्र सिंह ने अपने भाई सहदेव से कहा कि अब क्या देख रहा है दुश्मन सामने आ गया है साले को गोली मार दो इसी ने उस दिन हमारा पानी रोका था तभी अशोक पुत्र सरुप सिंह ने कहा कि बैठक से मेरी बन्दूक उठा ला और मार दो यह सुनते ही सहदेव भाग कर गया और अशोक की बैठक से कारतूस व बन्दूक उठा लाया और जोरावर के मकान के पास रास्ते पर खड़े हुए मेरे भाई गोपाल सिंह को गोली मार दी नागेन्द्र, सहदेव व अशोक के पास ही सुघड़ सिंह भी खड़े थे कि सहदेव ने तुरन्त ही दूसरा फायर सत्यदेव के ऊपर जान से मारने के लिये किया जो बाल बाल लगने से बचा यह घटना मुलजिमान द्वारा गोली मारते हुए वहीं मौके पर खड़े हुए मैंने व सत्यदेव व गांव के जैवीर सिंह पुत्र बाबू सिंह, यतेन्द्र सिंह पुत्र रनवीर सिंह व नरेन्द्र सिंह पुत्र रमेश चन्द्र तथा गांव के बहुत से लोगों ने देखी है। ''

53. In the aforesaid two statements of P.W.-1/first informant and Sangram Singh, son and brother of the deceased, it is for the first time, the allegation of exhortation has been assigned to accused Ashok and also upon the accused Sughar Singh that he was also involved in commissioning of the alleged offence. Similarly, the other witness

Sahveer Singh son of Babu Singh, P.W.-2 Jai Veer Singh son of Babu Singh, Yatendra Singh son of Ranveer Singh, Narendra Singh son of Ramesh Chandra has reiterated the same statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. as stated by P.W.-1/first informant Satyadeo and Sangram Singh as quoted above. Except P.W.-2 Jai Veer Singh, no other witnesses above have been produced by the prosecution during the course of trial. The relevant portion of their statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. about the involvement of the accused Ashok in commissioning of the alleged incident is quoted herein below:

''अशोक उर्फ रंजीत सिंह जो वहीं पर खड़ा था ने सहदेव से कहा कि मेरी बन्दूक मेरी बैठक में रखी है भाग कर उठा ला और मार दे साले को कि सहदेव तुरन्त भाग कर गया और अशोक की बन्दूक व कारतूस उठा लाया और गोपाल सिंह जो जोरावर सिंह के मकान के पास रास्ते पर खड़े थे को सहदेव ने गोली मार दी।''

54. During the course of trial, P.W.-4 i.e. first Investigating Officer has also proved aforesaid statements of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. in his cross-examination during the course of trial.

55. For ready reference, the same is reproduced hereunder:

"वादी सत्यदेव ने यह व्यान दिया था कि अशोक ने कहा कि बैठक से मेरी बंदूक उठा ला और जान से मार दो। इस पर सहदेव एकदम भागकर गया- ऐसा कहना सही नहीं है कि मैने यह बयान अपनी तरफ से लिख लिया हो।

सत्यदेव ने यह बयान नहीं दिया था कि "- सुघड़ सिंह ने कहा कि भीड़ इकट्ठी हो गई है भाग चलो।

जयवीर गवाह ने यह बयान नहीं दिया था कि "मैं और यतेन्द्र सिंह नगला ? में चौपाई सुनने जा रहे थे और कुंआ के पास झगड़ा होता हुआ देखकर रूक गये।" अजखुद कहा कि इस गवाह ने यह बताया था कि यह भी घटना के समय मौजूद था। जयवीर गवाह ने यह बयान दिया था कि "आज होली का रंग का दिन था गांव के लोग जगह- जगह त्योहार मनाने में इकट्ठा थे। मैं, यतेन्द्र सिंह व नरेन्द्र सिह के मकान के पास है, घर पर मौजूद थे और सत्यदेव, संग्राम सिंह, बचान सिंह के मकान के चबूतरे के नीचे मौजूद थे। कि यही पर 4 बजे शाम को सुघड़ सिंह और उसके भाई दुर्बीन सिंह में जमीन के बटवारे के मामले में गाली गलौज और झगड़ा होने लगा।"

उसने यह भी बयान दिया था कि "अशोक ने सहदेव से कहा कि मेरी बंदूक मेरी बैठका में रक्खी है भागकर उठा ला और मार दो साले को।"

56. However, during the course of trial, in his examination-in-chief, the first informant/P.W.-1 has reiterated the same version as given in his written report (Exhibit-ka/1), which is quoted herein above. In his cross-examination, this witness has given a different statement by stating that the accused Ashok was not present on the spot at the time of incident. For ready reference, the same is extracted hereunder:

"मैंने अशोक मुलजिम को मौके पर नहीं देखा। दरोगा जी ने मेरा बयान घटनास्थल पर लिया था फिर मुझे ध्यान नहीं कि किस किस का बयान और लिया। मैने दरोगा जी को यह बयान नहीं दिया था कि "अशोक ने कहा कि मेरी बन्दूक बैठक से उठा लाओ और मार दो कि एकदम सहदेव भाग कर गया ।" अगर दरोगा जी ने ऐसा मेरे बयान में लिख दिया है तो मैं इसकी कोई वजह नहीं बता सकता हूँ।

मैंने रिपोर्ट में यह लिखा था व दरोगा जी को बताया कि सुघड़ सिंह ने कहा कि भीड़ इकट्ठी हो गई है भाग चली। अगर नहीं लिखा है तो मैं इसकी कोई वजह नहीं बतला सकता हूँ। सहदेव मुलजिम अशोक की बैठक से बन्दूक दौड़कर लाया था। जब सहदेव बन्दूक लेने दौड़ा था तब मुझे यह अंदाज नहीं हो पाया था कि इतने आदमियो में बंदूक लाकर चला देगा।"

57. Like wise, during the course of trial in his examination-in-chief P.W.-2 has reiterated the version of P.W.-1 as given his written report as well as in his examination-in-chief. In his cross-examination, P.W.-2 has also reiterated the same version as stated by PW..-1 in his cross-examination about the presence of accused Ashok at the time of incident. The statements of P.W.-2 given in his examination-in-chief as well as in his cross-examination reads as follows:

In examination-in-chief

"पिछली होली से एक होली पहले की बात है करीब एक साल 5 महीने पहले यह घटना घटी थी। करीब 4 बजे शाम मैं जोराबर के मकान के दक्षिण-पच्छिम कुँआ के पास खड़ा था। वहीं पर गवाहान यतेन्द्र सिंह, संग्राम सिंह, नरेन्द्र सिंह वगैरह कई आदमी खड़े थे। उस समय दुर्वीन सिंह और मुलजिमान सुघड़ सिंह नागेन्द्र सिंह व सहदेव सिंह में किसी बात पर कहा सुनी हो रही थी। संग्राम सिंह ने बीच विचाव किया। तब मुलजिम नागेन्द्र ने गाली गलौज किया जिस पर सत्यदेव ने कहा कि मेरे चाचा को क्यों गाली देते हो इस पर मुलजिमान मे और सत्यदेव मैं आपस में कहा सुनी हुई।

इसी बीच सत्यदेव के पिता गोपाल सिंह पूरब ओर से प्रेम शंकर के मकान की तरफ से आए और कहने लगे कि क्यों झगड़ रहे हो। इस पर नागेन्द्र ने सहदेव से कहा कि अब क्या देख रहे हो दुशमन सामने खड़ा है मार दो। इस पर सहदेव दौड़कर अशोक की चौपाल से बंदूक अशोक की ले आया और बचान सिंह के चबूतरे के पास खड़े होकर गोपाल सिंहके उपर फायर कर दिया और गोपाल सिंह घायल होकर गिर गये। गोपाल सिंह के फायर चेहरे पर लगा था। सहदेव ने दूसरा फायर सत्यदेव पर किया लेकिन थोड़ा सत्यदेव के हट जाने से उसके लगा नहीं। इसके बाद सुघड़ सिंह ने कहा कि अब भाग चलो अब भीड़ इकट्ठी हो रही है। तब मुलजिमान पच्छिम साईड को घटनास्थल से चले गये। गोपाल सिंह घटनास्थल पर ही मर गये।"

In cross-examination:

s "नागेन्द्र ने कहा था कि गोली मार दो। उस वक्त मुलजिमान में से किसी पर कोई हथियार नहीं थे। घटनास्थल पर मुलजिम अशोक मौजूद नहीं था। मैंने अशोक को वहां पर यह कहते नहीं सुना कि सहदेव से कहा "मेरी बंदूक मेरी बैठक (में रक्खी है भाग कर उठा लो और मार दे साले को।" यह व्यान मैंने दरोगा जी को नहीं दिया है। मैं नहीं कह सकता की दरोगा जी ने मेरा यह बयान कैसे लिख लिया।"

58. The aforesaid contradictions in the testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 at various levels referred to above makes the entire testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 doubtful and raises a big question mainly about the genesis of the entire prosecution case and renders a serious doubt about the truthfulness of the testimony of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 and as such, their testimony is liable to be discarded.

59. It is also important to note here that as per the testimony of P.W.1/first informant (cross-examination)/prosecution version, earlier there was a fight between the two accused, namely, Ashok @ Ranjit and Nagendra and both of them instituted cases against each other under Section 307 I.P.C. but subsequently, they entered into compromise and the said cases were withdrawn by them. During the course of trial the defence also filed a copy of the charge-sheet dated 27th February, 1977 (Exhibit-kha-3) in case crime no. 22 under Section 147, 148, 149 and 307 I.P.C. wherein the accused Sughar Singh was complainant and the accused Ashok @ Ranjit was one of the accused along with other witnesses during the course of investigation of the instant case.

60. From the aforesaid facts, it is quite evident that there were inimical relationship between the accused Sughar Singh along with his sons Nagendra and Sahdeo and the accused Ashok @ Ranjit. Therefore it is impossible to believe that the accused Ashok @ Ranjit would associate himself with the other accused Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh and Sahdeo Singh in commission of the alleged crime in any manner. This fact also casts a serious dent in the prosecution case and makes it highly doubtful.

61. The defence has also succeeded to prove that they have been falsely implicated in commissioning of the alleged crime. In support of the said plea, during the course of trial, the defence filed a copy of the F.I.R dated 14th November, 1978 (Exhibit-kha/4) registered as case crime no. 1068 under Sections 147, 148 and 307 I.P.C. lodged by one Nirankar Singh against the prosecution witnesses during the course of investigation, namely, Ranvir Singh, Yatendra Singh, Gajendra Singh, Narendra Singh and Gopal Singh (present deceased), wherein the accused Sughar Singh was one of the witnesses of prosecution in that case. During the course of trial, the defence also filed a copy of the Khatuani (Exhibit-kha/7) wherein the deceased Gopal Singh and witnesses of investigation, namely, Sangram Singh, Jagdish Singh, Ranvir Singh, Ramesh Chandra were co-tenants, in order to prove that they belonged to the same family. The aforesaid facts also create a doubt in the prosecution case.

62. The non production of Durveen Singh brother of the accused Sughar Singh and uncle and brother of the first informant and deceased respectively as prosecution witnesses during the course of trial also makes the prosecution case weak. When as a matter of fact they could be star witnesses of the prosecution side, as they were the persons with whom initially there were altercation with the accused Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh and Sahdeo Singh as per the prosecution version. Withholding of the said witness, for no rhyme or reason, further makes the prosecution story doubtful.

63. We may also record that there is faulty investigation in the present case because the pellets recovered from the body of the deceased, empty cartridge recovered from the place of occurrence and the crime weapon i.e. gun, which is alleged to have been used in commissioning of the alleged offence and has recovered from the brother-in-law of accused Ashok have not been sent for their chemical examination to the concerned Forensic Science Laboratory in order to establish that the pellets, empty cartridge and the gun were actually used in the commission of the alleged offence, which further creates a serious dent in the prosecution story and makes it doubtful.

64. We also take note of the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Ballu & Another Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh reported in *2024 SCC OnLine SC 481, wherein it has been held that it is impermissible for the High Court to interfere with the acquittal unless trial court's view is perverse or impossible. The relevant portion whereof reads as follows:

"20. The High Court could have interfered in the criminal appeal only if it came to the conclusion that the findings of the trial Judge were either perverse or impossible. As already discussed hereinbefore, no perversity or impossibility could be found in the approach adopted by the learned trial Judge.

21. In any case, even if two views are possible and the trial Judge found the other view to be more probable, an interference would not have been warranted by the High Court, unless the view taken by the learned trial Judge was a perverse or impossible view.

22. In that view of the matter, we find that the judgment passed by the High Court is totally unsustainable in law."

65. After considering the facts and circumstances of the case, law laid down by the Apex Court referred to herein above and examining the findings recorded by the trial court in acquittal of accused-respondents Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh, Sahdeo

Singh and Ashok @ Ranjit of all the charges levelled against them, we are in full agreement with the findings recorded by the trial court. The trial court has fully examined the evidence led by the prosecution in correct perspective and the finding returned by it that the prosecution has not succeeded in proving its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused-respondents can be legally sustained. The prosecution has not fully established the guilt of the accused-respondents on the basis of evidence led at the stage of trial by the prosecution. The acquittal of the accused-respondents, Sughar Singh, Nagendra Singh, Sahdeo Singh and Ashok @ Ranjit of all the charges framed against them, is consequently, affirmed.

66. Consequently, in view of the deliberations held above the Government Appeal filed on behalf of the State stands dismissed.

67. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 334
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Government Appeal No. 1809 of 1984

State of U.P. ...Appellant
Versus
Chandra Pal & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
A.G.A.

Counsel for the Respondents:
Prakash Gupta

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 302/34)- Government Appeal against the impugned judgment and order whereby accused-Respondents acquitted for the charge under Section 302/34 I.P.C- Factum of conversation between the deceased and his wife is too far-fetched and is highly doubtful-Material inconsistency in the St.ment of the witnesses P.W.-1 & P.W.-2 regarding the catching hold of the victim, whether after the assault has been made by the knife or before inflicting the knife blow on the chest of the deceased-The testimonies of P.W.-1 and P.W.-2 assigning the role of catching hold qua accused-respondent the same has been St.d for the first time in court and not been disclosed to the Investigating Officer at the time of recording their St.ment under Section 161 Cr.P.C., which shows that there is a clear improvement in the St.ment of both the witnesses regarding the role of catching hold.

The scope of interference by an appellate court for reversing the judgment of acquittal recorded by the trial court in favour of the accused has to be exercised within the four corners of the following principles:- (i). That the judgment of acquittal suffers from patent perversity; (ii)That the same is based on a misreading/omission to consider material evidence on record; (iii)That two reasonable views are possible and only the view consistent with the guilt of the accused is possible from the evidence available on record.

Government Appeal dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Darshan Singh Vs St. of Pun. (2024) 3 SCC 164

2. Gadadhar Chandra Vs St. of W. B.l (2022) 6 SCC 576

3. Ramashish Yadav & ors.Vs St. of Bihar (1999) 8 SCC 555

4. Sadhu Saran Singh Vs St. of U.P. (2016) 4 SCC 397

5. Harljan Bhala Teja Vs St. of Guj. (2016) 12 SCC 665

6. Rajesh Prasad Vs St. of Bihar & anr.Criminal Appeal No. 111113 of 2015 (SC)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajiv Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Shri J.P. Tripathi, learned AGA for the State/ appellant, Shri Ravi Pandey, holding brief of Shri Rahul Kumar Sharma, learned counsel for the accused-respondents and perused the record.

2. The instant government appeal has been filed against the judgment and order dated 20.03.1984 passed by Special Judge/ Additional Sessions Judge, Aligarh in Sessions Trial No. 291 of 1983 (State of U.P. Vs. Yad Ram and 3 Others), arising out of Case Crime No. 96 of 1983, under Section 302 IPC, Police Station Sasani, District Aligarh, by which the accused-respondents have been acquitted for the charge under Section 302 read with Section 34 IPC.

3. During the pendency of the said government appeal, accused-respondent no.2 Hira Lal has already passed away on 06.03.2005 and as such, the instant government appeal qua accused-respondent no.2 Hira Lal has been abated and now, it survives only for accused-respondent no.1 Chandra Pal.

4. The prosecution story as unfurled in the FIR is that a litigation regarding partition of land was pending between the first informant Lala Ram, Raghubir and Ram Prasad, on one hand and Chandra Pal, Hira Lal, Yad Ram and Babu, on the other.

5. It is further alleged that on the joint land, a grove of mango and guava, measuring 16 bigha, was under the control and use of Yad Ram, Babu, Chandra Pal and Hira Lal, whereas on the joint land, measuring 10 bigha, there was another grove, which was in the possession and use of the first informant Lala Ram and his nephew Raghubir (Deceased).

6. It is further alleged that on 14.04.1983 at about 8:00 AM, Lala Ram alongwith his son Ganga Saran and Leela and his nephew Raghubir were present in the grove, where Yad Ram, armed with knife and Babu, armed with lathi, Chandra Pal and Hira Lal, who were unarmed, reached the grove and asked the first informant Lala Ram and his nephew Raghubir as to why they are keeping a watch on the grove and started hurling abuses. In the meantime, Hira Lal and Chandra Pal caught hold of his nephew Raghubir. Babu, who was armed with lathi, exhorted Yad Ram to kill Raghubir, who poses to be very arrogant, consequent thereto, Yad Ram, with an intention to kill Raghubir, assaulted him with a knife blow below his left armpit in the chest. On the alarm being raised, all the four assailants ran away towards Champa Bagh. After some time, his sons Dalbir and Karan Singh also reached the place of incident and took the injured Raghubir on a cot towards Government Hospital, Sasani, where Raghubir succumbed to his injuries.

7. On the basis of the said allegations, a written report, which has been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-1, was scribed by one Satya Dev, which was taken to the Police Station Sasani and handed over to the Head Moharrir Ram Swaroop Singh, who, on the basis of said written report, lodged a first information report, which has been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-16, corresponding G.D. entry of which was drawn vide G.D. Report No.14, which has been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-17.

8. After registration of the first information report, the investigation of the said case was entrusted to S.I. Ram Murti Yadav, who was present at the Police Station. He reached the spot and prepared the inquest report alongwith other relevant documents, including photo lash, challan lash, chitthi R.I., chitthi C.M.O. and sealed samples, which have been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-11 to Exhibit Ka-13. The investigating Officer also collected the blood-stained earth and plain earth from the place of incident and kept it in a container and prepared its fard recovery memo, which has been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-14. Thereafter, the corpse was wrapped in a cloth by preparing sample seal and thereafter, dispatched the dead body for the post-mortem. An autopsy was conducted on the person of the deceased by Dr. G.P. Varshney (PW-4). The Doctor has noted following injuries on the person of the deceased :-

(i). Stab wound 1" x 1/2" x cavity deep on the left side of chest in axillary line, 5" below and downward to left nipple. Dry blood sticking to the wound and on chest side.

(ii). Abrasion 1/4" x 1/4" on the inner side of left leg, 6" below knee joint.

In the opinion of the Doctor, the death was due to shock and haemorrhage, as a result of ante-mortem injuries mentioned above.

9. The Investigating Officer thereafter collected the relevant material and after recording the statement of the witnesses and concluding the investigation, submitted charge-sheet against the accused persons, which has been proved and marked as Exhibit Ka-10. On submission of the said charge-sheet, learned Magistrate had taken cognizance, however, since the case was exclusively triable by the court of Sessions, committed the case to the court of Sessions, where it was registered as Sessions Trial No. 291 of 1983 (State of U.P. Vs. Yad Ram and 3 Others).

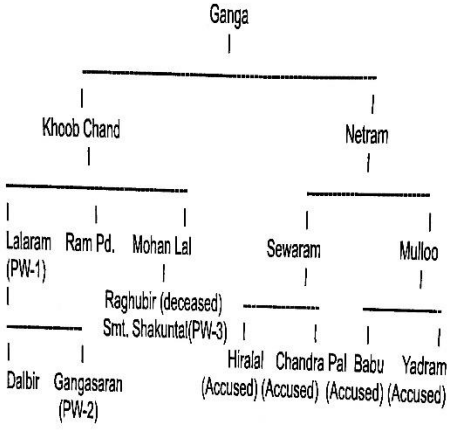
10. The trial court thereafter framed the charges under Section 302 read with Section 34 IPC against the accused-respondents and the said charges were read out to them, who abjured the charges, did not plead guilty and claimed to be tried.

11. In order to prove the guilt against the accused persons, the prosecution examined as many as six witnesses; Lala Ram (PW-1), Ganga Saran (PW-2) and Smt. Shakuntala (PW-3), wife of the deceased Raghubir as witnesses of fact, while PW-4 Dr. G.P. Varshney was the Medical Officer, who conducted the post-mortem, PW-5 S.H.O. Vijay Singh, the second Investigating Officer, PW-6 S.I. Ram Murti Yadav, being the first Investigating Officer and PW-7 Constable Brij Mohan, who proved the first information report alongwith its corresponding G.D. entry.

12. After recording of the entire evidence, the statement of the accused persons was recorded under Section 313 CrPC and thereafter, the trial court vide impugned judgment and order dated 20.03.1984 has acquitted both the accused persons, against which, present government appeal has been filed with the prayer to reverse the acquittal of the accused-respondents and to convict them for the offence charged with.

13. In order to appreciate the controversy, in question, involved in the present government appeal, it would be apt to discuss the statement of the witnesses, in brief, recorded during the course of trial.

14. PW-1 Lala Ram is the uncle of the deceased as well as first informant of the case. From his testimony, we find that the first informant as well as accused-respondents belongs to one and the same family and their inter-se relationship is quite clear.



15. PW-1 has further stated that about seven months back at about 8:00 AM, he alongwith his son Ganga Saran (PW-2) and his nephew Raghubir were present at their grove, where accused persons Yad Ram, Chandra Pal, Babu and Hira Lal came. Accused Babu was armed with lathi, Yad Ram was armed with knife, whereas Chandra Pal and Hira Lal were empty handed. Accused persons Chandra Pal and Yad Ram questioned him as to why they are keeping a watch over the grove, to which, Raghubir replied that they are the owner of the grove and therefore, they are keeping a watch over it, consequent to which, accused persons started hurling abuses. Meanwhile, accused Babu asked Yad Ram that Raghubir is posing to be very arrogant, then Chandra Pal and Hira Lal held his nephew Raghubir by his hands and Yad Ram inflicted a knife blow and ran away. On alarm being raised, the assailants threatened him by flashing his knife and made their escape good towards Champa Bagh. The said knife blow was given at the instigation of Babu. After accused persons had left the place of incident, Smt. Shakuntala Devi, wife of the deceased Raghubir, also reached there. Thereafter, Dalbir and Karan Singh reached the place of incident and there was some conversation between Raghubir and his wife Shakuntala. The injured Raghubir thereafter was kept in a cot and taken to the hospital, however, he succumbed to his injuries and then, he was brought to the Police Station, where the first information report was scribed by one Satya Dev, which was read out to him and thereafter, the first information report was registered.

16. During cross-examination, he stated that when Yad Ram reached the place of incident, he was having a knife in his pocket, however, he had not disclosed this fact to the Investigating Officer. He further stated that he had seen Yad Ram taking out the knife from his pocket, the blade of which was five inch long. He further stated that when Hira Lal and Chandra Pal caught hold of Raghubir, he did not expect that they would quarrel with them to this extent. The victim tried to get released. Yad Ram gave only one knife blow to the deceased but did not attempt the second blow and ran away towards Champa Bagh and thereafter, Shakuntala reached at the spot. He further stated that he had disclosed to the Investigating Officer in his statement under Section 161 CrPC about the factum of reaching of Shakuntala at the place of incident but could not state as to why the Investigating Officer had not mentioned the said fact in his statement. He further denied the suggestion that incident took place in the dark and further denied the suggestion that he has not witnessed the incident and Raghubir was killed by some unknown person and that he was not present at the time of incident.

17. PW-2 Ganga Saran is the son of PW-1 Lala Ram. He, in his testimony, has stated that on the fateful day at about 8:00 AM in the morning, he alongwith his father Lala Ram were present in the grove, where Chandra Pal, Hira Lala, Babu and Yad Ram came and started hurling abuses. The deceased Raghubir stated that they are keeping a watch over the grove and the grove belongs to them, on which, Babu instigated to kill him by the knife as he poses to be very arrogant. He further stated that Hira Lal and Chandra Pal were empty handed, whereas Babu was armed with lathi and Yad Ram was armed with a knife. Yad Ram gave a knife blow to the deceased. Hira Lal and Chandra Pal then held him by his hands. The knife blow hit him below the left armpit in the chest. After inflicting the knife injury, they ran away towards Champa Bagh, thereafter, Shakuntala, wife of the deceased Raghubir, reached there followed by Dalbir and Karan Singh.

18. During cross-examination, he stated that he alongwith Raghubir reached at the grove at 5:30 in the morning. After lodging of the report, the Investigating Officer had recorded his statement. He further stated that due to fear, he did not make any attempt to save the victim. When Yad Ram entered in the grove, the knife was in his pocket or in his hands was not seen by him. After Hira Lal and Chandra Pal caught hold of the victim, Babu exhorted to kill Raghubir, then Yad Ram took out the knife from his pocket and gave a knife blow. He further stated that before taking out the knife from the pocket, he had not seen it, however, he has not touched Raghubir. On being questioned, if he, in his statement to the Investigating Officer, had disclosed the fact that after the knife blow, the victim was speaking or not, to which, he replied that "he was already dead". He had further denied the suggestion that he had not seen the incident and before his reaching at the grove, Raghubir was dead.

19. PW-3 Smt. Shakuntala Devi is the wife of the deceased Raghubir. She, in her statement, has categorically stated that she was going from her house to give the food to her husband and had seen Yad Ram, Babu, Chandra Pal and Hira Lal running away from the place of incident towards Chamba Bagh. She further stated that on questioning, her husband informed her that Chandra Pal and Hira Lal caught hold of him and Yad Ram at the instigation of Babu, inflicted a knife blow to him.

20. During cross-examination, she stated that it is wrong to state that she had not seen Chandra Pal, Babu, Yad Ram and Hira Lal running away from the place of incident and that there was no conversation with her husband. She further denied the suggestion that incident had taken place in the dark and she is falsely implicating the accused persons.

21. PW-4 Dr. G.P. Varshney is the Medical Officer, who had conducted an autopsy on the person of the deceased, who had noted the injuries and the post-mortem examination report has also been proved by him, which has been marked as Exhibit Ka-2.

22. During cross-examination, he stated that injury no.2 could be caused by fall and the injury No.1 was sufficient in the ordinary course of nature to cause death.

23. PW-5 S.H.O Vijay Singh is the second Investigating Officer. Earlier, the investigation was done by PW-6 S.I. Ram Murti Yadav, however on 24.04.1983, he had taken over the investigation and interrogated one of the accused persons. He collected the relevant documents relating to copies of Khasra and Khatauni and had sent the blood-stained earth and plain earth for the chemical examination and after concluding the investigation, submitted the charge-sheet.

24. PW-6 S.I. Ram Murti Yadav is the first Investigating Officer and in whose presence, the first information report was registered at 9:15 AM on 14.04.1983. He conducted the inquest on the person of the deceased and prepared the other relevant papers and thereafter, despatched the dead body for the post-mortem.

25. During cross-examination, he categorically stated that PW-1 Lala Ram in his statement under Section 161 CrPC did not disclose. To quote :- लालाराम ने मुझे निम्नलिखित ब्यान नहीं दिया "इस पर मृतक रघुवीर ने कहा कि बाग हमारा है हम रखायेगें। न ये बयान दिया कि मृतक का एक हाथ चन्द्रपाल मुल्जिमान ने पकड़ा व एक हाथ हीरा लाल मुल्जिम ने पकड़ा" न यह ब्यान दिया। लाला राम ने मुझे यह भी नहीं बताया "कि मौके पर शकुन्तला मुल्जिमान के जाने के बाद खाना लेकर आई थी।"

"रघुवीर मृतक व उसकी बीवी की बातचीत हुई थी। मुझे यह भी ब्यान नहीं दिया। चारपाई चम्पा बाग से लाये थे।"

"गवाह नं० 2 यानी गंगा शरण ने भी उपरोक्त सारी बातें अपने ब्यान में नहीं बताई थी।"

26. PW-7 Brij Mohan is the Constable, who has proved the chik FIR and the corresponding G.D. entry, which was drawn by Head Moharrir Ram Swaroop Singh at the relevant date and time, however, he has not been cross-examined.

27. Learned AGA for the State/appellant has submitted that evidence of P.W.1 Lala Ram and P.W.2 Ganga Saran coupled with medical evidence would show that the prosecution has proved its case beyond all reasonable doubt, yet the trial court, on the basis of surmises and conjectures, has illegally recorded the finding of acquittal against the accused-respondents, which is bad in law and is liable to be reversed.

28. Learned AGA has further submitted that from the evidence adduced during the course of trial, it is proved beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused-respondent Chandra Pal in furtherance of the common intention with all the accused, has committed the instant offence and therefore, he is liable to be convicted under Section 302 read with Section 34 IPC, however, the trial court completely misjudged the evidence on record and has illegally recorded the finding of acquittal against the accused-respondents, which is bad in law and is liable to be reversed.

29. Per contra, learned counsel for the accused-respondents has submitted that trial court has appreciated the material and evidence available on record in right perspective. He has further submitted that from the entire evidence adduced during the course of trial, the role of catching hold assigned to the accused-respondents, is highly doubtful, which is further fortified from the circumstance that role of "catching hold" assigned to the accused-respondent Chandra Pal has been stated for the first time in court by P.W.1 Lala Ram and P.W.2 Ganga Saran and they had not disclosed the said factum to the Investigating Officer, who recorded their statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. and as such, there is clear improvement in the statement of P.W.1 Lala Ram and P.W.2 Ganga Saran qua the role of catching hold assigned to the accused-respondents, which makes their testimony highly unreliable and creates serious dent in the prosecution story as held by the trial court in the impugned judgment and order, which finding is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference.

30. Learned counsel for the accused-respondents has further submitted that Section 34 of IPC qua accused-respondent is not attracted in the present case. He has further submitted that prior concert or pre-arranged plan to kill the deceased has not been established and only act assigned to the accused-respondent is of catching hold, which too is highly doubtful. It was co-accused Babu, who had exhorted the co-accused Yad Ram to kill the deceased and on his exhortation, Yad Ram had given a knife blow to the deceased causing his death.

31. Learned counsel for the accused-respondents has further submitted that accused-respondents were unarmed and from the testimony of P.W.1 Lala Ram and P.W.2 Ganga Saran, it is borne out that accused-respondent Yad Ram suddenly took out the knife from his pocket and gave a single knife blow to the deceased, which was not within the knowledge of the accused-respondent and thus, it is urged that by no stretch of imagination, Section 34 of IPC would be applicable to the accused-respondent and the finding recorded by the trial court in this respect is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference.

32. Having considered the rival submissions made by the parties and having gone through the record, we find that the instant case was a result of dispute between the two parties, who were relatives amongst themselves, over the control and use of the grove, Accused persons reached at the place of incident and started hurling abuses and thereafter, it is alleged that accused-respondents Hira Lal and Chandra Pal caught hold of the deceased Raghubir by his hands and on the exhortation of co-accused Babu, accused Yad Ram gave a knife blow to the deceased Raghubir on his chest causing his death.

33. In support of its case, the prosecution has produced P.W.1 Lala Ram and his son P.W.2 Ganga Saran to be the eye-witnesses of the incident. It is further stated that after the incident of assault, when the assailants had run away, Smt. Shakuntala Devi, wife of the deceased Raghubir, also reached there and had a conversation with the deceased Raghubir.

34. When we go through the testimonies of PW-1 Lala Ram and PW-2 Ganga Saran, we find that presence of PW-3 Smt. Shakuntala Devi, wife of the deceased Raghubir, at the time of incident is highly doubtful, which finds corroboration from the fact that PW-1 Lala Ram, in his statement under Section 161 CrPC, has not disclosed to the Investigating Officer about the presence of Smt. Shakuntala at the time of incident.

35. Further, the testimony of PW-3 Smt. Shakuntala Devi that her husband had a conversation with her is falsified from the statement of PW-2 Ganga Saran, wherein, on being questioned as to whether he had disclosed to the Investigating Officer, that the victim was speaking after being inflicted with a knife blow, to which, he stated that he had already died. To quote :- "प्रश्न- क्या आपने दरोगा जी को अपने ब्यान में यह बात बताई थी कि चाकू लगने के तुरन्त बाद बोलता था या नही? उत्तर- वह तो मर गया था।"

36. Even from the statement of PW-4 Dr. G.P. Varshney, who had conducted the post-mortem, it is clear that after receiving the said injury, a man may become unconscious and looking to the nature of the injury caused to the deceased, we are of the opinion that factum of conversation between the deceased Raghubir and his wife Smt. Shakuntala Devi is too far-fetched and is highly doubtful. Even P.W.-6 S.I. Ram Murti Yadav, in his cross-examination, has categorically stated that neither P.W-1 Lala Ram nor P.W.-2 Ganga Saran had disclosed to him that there was a talk between the deceased and his wife. To quote: "लालाराम ने मुझे यह भी नहीं बताया कि मौके पर शकुन्तला मुल्जिमान के जाने के बाद खाना लेकर आई थी रघुवीर मृतक व उसकी बीबी की बातचीत हुई थी। मुझे यह ब्यान भी नही दिया था। गवाह नं० 2 गंगाशरण ने भी उपरोक्त सारी बाते अपने ब्यान में नही बताई थी। "

37. Thus, from the said statement, it is evident that the presence of P.W.-3 Smt. Shakuntala Devi at the time of incident is highly doubtful. Her testimony, in the backdrop of the said circumstance, is not worth credence and in our opinion, she is a wholly unreliable witness and rightly discarded by the trial court.

38. Now, coming to the testimony of P.W.1 Lala Ram and P.W.2 Ganga Saran, we find that they are father and son and highly partisan and interested witnesses and related to the deceased also. Even, as per the statement of P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran, the only role assigned to the accused-respondents is that of catching hold. Even, while assigning the said role, there is apparent inconsistency in their statements. As per the statement of P.W.-1 Lala Ram, accused Chandra Pal along with Hira Lal, first of all caught hold of the deceased by his hands and thereafter, on the exhortation of Babu, Yad Ram gave a knife blow to the deceased. To quote: "बाबू मुल्जिम ने यादराम से कहा देख क्या रहा है यह बहुत हेकड़ बन रहा है और एक हाथ रघुबीर मृतक का चन्द्रपाल मुल्जिम ने पकड़ा और एक हाथ हीरा लाल मुल्जिम ने पकड़ा। याद राम ने रघुवीर के चाकू मारा और फिर यह भागे हमने हल्ला गुल्ला मचाया। इस पर हमे चाकू दिखाते हुये कहा कि खत्म कर देंगे। यह चारो लोग चम्पा बाग में भाग गये। यह चाकू बाबू के कहने से मारा था।

39. While, P.W.-2 Ganga Saran, in his examination-in-chief, has stated that "बाबू ने कहा मार दो साले को चाकू यही दम में दम भरता है। हीरा लाल व चन्द्र पाल खाली हाथ थे बाबू पर लाठी थी और यादराम पर चाकू था।

यादराम ने चाकू मार दिया हीरा लाल और चन्द्र पाल ने मृतक रघुवीर के हाथ पकड़े। चाकू बाई बगल के नीचे लगा। चाकू मारने के बाद ये लोग चम्पा बाग की तरफ भाग गये।"

40. Thus, from the statement of P.W.2 Ganga Saran, it is borne out that on the exhortation of Babu, Yad Ram had given a knife blow to the deceased Raghubir, whereas Chandra Pal and Hira Lal were empty handed and after the assault by a knife, they are said to have held the victim by his hands.

41. Thus, there is material inconsistency in the statement of P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran regarding the catching hold of the victim, whether after the assault has been made by the knife or before inflicting the knife blow on the chest of the deceased.

42. Furthermore, the role assigned to the accused-respondents of catching hold is falsified from the statement made by P.W.-6 S.I. Ram Murti Yadav, Investigating Officer, wherein it has been categorically stated that " लालाराम ने मुझे निम्न लिखित ब्यान दिया " इस पर मृतक रघुवीर ने कहा कि बाग हमारा है। हम रखायेंगे। न यह ब्यान दिया था कि मृतक का एक हाथ चन्द्रपाल मुल्जिम ने पकडा व एक हाथ हीरा लाल मुल्जिम ने पकड़ा। लालाराम ने मुझे ये भी नही बताया था कि मौके पर शकुन्तला, मुल्जिमान के जाने के बाद, खाना लेकर

आई थी। गवाह नं०2 गंगासरन ने अपने ब्यान में ये सारी बात नही बताई थी। ”

43. Thus, from the said testimonies of P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran assigning the role of catching hold qua accused-respondent Chandra Pal is concerned, it is evident that the same has been stated for the first time in court and has not been disclosed to the Investigating Officer at the time of recording their statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., which shows that there is a clear improvement in the statement of both the witnesses P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran regarding the role of catching hold assigned to the accused-respondent Chandra Pal, which makes their testimony highly doubtful and unreliable.

44. The Hon’ble Apex Court in a recent decision reported in (2024) 3 SCC 164 Darshan Singh Vs. State of Punjab, has held that if the prosecution witnesses fail to mention in their statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. about the involvement of an accused, their subsequent statement before the court during trial, regarding involvement of that particular accused cannot be relied upon and, similarly, prosecution cannot seek to prove a fact during trial through eye-witness, which such witness had not stated to police during investigation and, thus, evidence of that witness regarding the said improved fact is of no significance as in the present case, which we have discussed above.

45. In the light of the principles laid down by the Hon’ble Apex Court in the aforesaid decision, we are of the opinion that role of catching hold assigned to the accused-respondent Chandra Pal is highly doubtful as rightly held by the trial court and his participation in the incident as alleged in the prosecution story becomes highly unreliable and not worth credence.

46. Now, only question, which is left for our consideration is whether in the facts and circumstances of the present case, accused-respondent Chandra Pal can be convicted under Section 302 with the aid of Section 34 IPC as submitted by the learned AGA for the State.

47. It is well settled principle of law as held by the Hon’ble Apex Court in the case reported in (2022) 6 SCC 576, Gadadhar Chandra Vs. State of West Bengal, wherein it has been held that the common intention pre-supposes prior concert, it requires meeting of minds, a pre-arranged plan before a man can vicariously be convicted for the criminal act of another. The criminal act must have been done in furtherance of the common intention of all the accused.

48. Now, applying the said principle of law, as laid down by the Hon’ble Apex Court in the case of Gadadhar Chandra (Supra), we find that from the testimonies of P.W.-1 Lal Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran, it is clearly borne out that they were unarmed and both the aforesaid two eye-witnesses P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran in their statement has categorically stated that Yad Ram at the time of assaulting the deceased, suddenly took out the knife from his pocket and gave a knife blow to the deceased after being exhorted by the co-accused Babu. Even, the role of exhorting Yad Ram to kill Raghubir has not been assigned to him, rather only role of catching hold the victim by his hands is alleged to be made against them. In support of which, there is material inconsistency in the statement of two eye-witnesses P.W.-1 Lala Ram and P.W.-2 Ganga Saran, as to whether they held the deceased after the knife blow was given to the deceased or held him before the knife blow was given, which has already been discussed above.

49. Thus, from the attending facts and circumstances of the case and the settled principle of law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court, we find that the accused-respondent Chandra Pal at the relevant point of time, did not have the common intention to cause the death of the deceased and therefore, in our opinion, he has rightly been acquitted by the trial court, which order, in our opinion, is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference, more so, by reversing the acquittal.

50. Moreover, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case reported in (1999) 8 SCC 555 Ramashish Yadav and Others Vs. State of Bihar, has held that for common intention, prior concert of meeting of minds is essential. Even, if an offence is committed at the spur of the moment, prior concert must be there. Merely because two persons had held the deceased while other two, had given gandasa blows to the deceased, it cannot be held that the two persons, who had held the deceased, shared common intention with the other two, to murder the deceased. Even, on the aforesaid principles of law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court, the accused-respondent, in our opinion, is entitled for acquittal.

51. It is well settled principle of law that there is a presumption of innocence in favour of the accused-respondent Chandra Pal, which further has been concretised by recording the finding of acquittal against the accused-respondents.

52. The law with regard to interference by the appellate court is very well crystallized. Unless the finding of acquittal is found to be perverse or impossible, interference with the same would not be warranted. Though, there are a catena of judgments on the issue, we will only refer to two judgments, which are as reproduced below:-

(i). In the case of Sadhu Saran Singh Vs. State of U.P. (2016) 4 SCC 397, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that:-

"In an appeal against acquittal where the presumption of innocence in favour of the accused is reinforced, the appellate Court would interfere with the order of acquittal only when there is perversity of fact and law. However, we believe that the paramount consideration of the Court is to do substantial justice and avoid miscarriage of justice which can arise by acquitting the accused who is guilty of an offence. A miscarriage of justice that may occur by the acquittal of the guilty is no less than from the conviction of an innocent. Appellate Court, while enunciating the principles with regard to the scope of powers of the appellate Court in an appeal against acquittal, has no absolute restriction in law to review and re-look the entire evidence on which the order of acquittal is founded."

(ii). Similarly, in the case of Harljan Bhala Teja Vs. State of Gujarat (2016) 12 SCC 665, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that:-

"No doubt, where, on appreciation of evidence on record, two views are possible, and the trial court has taken a view of acquittal, the appellate court should not interfere with the same. However, this does not mean that in all the cases where the trial court has recorded acquittal, the same should not be interfered with, even if the view is perverse. Where the view taken by the trial court is against the weight of evidence on record, or perverse, it is always open far the appellate court to express the right conclusion after re-appreciating the evidence if the charge is proved beyond reasonable doubt on record, and convict the accused."

53. The Hon'ble Apex Court in Criminal Appeal No. 111113 of 2015 (Rajesh Prasad Vs. State of Bihar and Another) has encapsulated the legal position covering the field after considering various earlier judgments and held as under:-

"29. After referring to a catena of judgments, this Court culled out the following general principles regarding the powers of the appellate court while dealing with an appeal against an order of acquittal in the following words: (Chandrappa case [Chandrappa v. State of Karnataka, (2007) 4 SCC 415].

"42. From the above decisions, in our considered view, the following general principles regarding powers of the appellate court while dealing with an appeal against an order of acquittal emerge:-

(i) An appellate court has full power to review, re-appreciate and reconsider the evidence upon which the order of acquittal is founded.

(ii) The Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 puts no limitation, restriction or condition on exercise of such power and an appellate court on the evidence before it may reach its own conclusion, both on questions of fact and of law.

(iii) Various expressions, such as, "substantial and compelling reasons", "good and sufficient grounds", "very strong circumstances", "distorted conclusions", "glaring mistakes", etc. are not intended to curtail extensive powers of an appellate court in an appeal against acquittal. Such phraseologies are more in the nature of "flourishes of language" to emphasise the reluctance of an appellate court to interfere with acquittal than to curtail the power of the court to review the evidence and to come to its own conclusion.

(iv) An appellate court, however, must bear in mind that in case of acquittal, there is double presumption in favour of the accused. Firstly, the presumption of innocence is available to him under the fundamental principle of criminal jurisprudence that every person shall be presumed to be innocent unless he is proved guilty by a competent court of law. Secondly, the accused having secured his acquittal, the presumption of his innocence is further reinforced, reaffirmed and strengthened by the trial court.

(v) If two reasonable conclusions are possible on the basis of the evidence on record, the appellate court should not disturb the finding of acquittal recorded by the trial court."

54. Thus, it is beyond the pale of doubt that the scope of interference by an appellate court for reversing the judgment of acquittal recorded by the trial court in favour of the accused has to be exercised within the four corners of the following principles:-

(i). That the judgment of acquittal suffers from patent perversity;

(ii). That the same is based on a misreading/omission to consider material evidence on record;

(iii). That two reasonable views are possible and only the view consistent with the guilt of the accused is possible from the evidence available on record.

55. The appellate court, in order to interfere with the judgment of acquittal, would have to record pertinent findings on the above factors, if it is inclined to reverse the judgment of acquittal rendered by the trial court.

56. In our opinion, the trial court has passed a well reasoned and detailed order, which, in view of settled principle of law regarding reversal of acquittal, needs no interference by this Court. The view taken by the trial court cannot be said to be perverse, impossible and illegal and as such, present Government Appeal filed by the State has no force and is accordingly dismissed.

57. Let a copy of this judgment and order be forwarded to the court concerned alongwith trial court record for information and necessary compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 345
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJIV GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE SHIV SHANKER PRASAD, J.

Government Appeal No. 3433 of 1985

State of U.P. ...Appellant
Versus
Hariprasad & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
A.G.A.

Counsel for the Respondents:
N.K. Saxena, Rakesh Kr. Verma

Criminal Law-Indian Penal Code-1860-Sections 307 - The Arms Act-1959-Section 25 - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 313 & 378-- Government Appeal against the judgment and order whereby the accused-respondents have been acquitted of all the charges- Police constables were in plain dress and not in police uniform at the time of alleged incident and were armed with 12 bore guns and not with their rifles as alleged in the F.I.R which adversely effects the very genesis of the prosecution story that the police personnels had gone to discharge their picketing duties in the village- Victim-deceased being in plain clothes is further fortified from the inquest report wherein it has been pointed out that the investigating officer has not found any clothes on his person.

Accused-respondent Lal Diwan suffered pellet injuries on his person and his injuries has been proved by D.W.-2, however the prosecution has miserably failed to tender any explanation in respect of the said injuries received by Lal Diwan-Pellets injuries could not be caused by a rifle shot- Testimony of the pocket witnesses of the police cannot be said to be of impeccable nature-The St.ment of the accused u/s 313 Cr.P.C. cannot be read in evidence so as to convict him

Appeal Dismissed. (E-15)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajesh Prasad Vs St. of Bihar & anr.

2. H.D. Sundara & ors. Vs St. of Karn.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajiv Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Sri Arun Kumar Pandey, learned AGA assisted by Sri Kamlesh Kumar Nishad, learned brief holder for the State-appellant and Sri Sanjeev Kumar Khare, learned counsel for the accused-respondents.

2. The instant Government Appeal has been filed against the judgment and order dated 4.9.1985 passed by 4th Addl. Sessions Judge, Hamirpur in Session Trial No. 246 of 1978 (State Vs. Halkey and 3 others) arising out of Case Crime No. 120 of 1978, under Section 307 IPC, Case Crime No. 121 of 1978, under Section 25 Arms Act and Case Crime No. 122 of 1978, under Section 25 Arms Act, by which the accused-respondents have been acquitted of all the charges framed against them.

3. During pendency of the said appeal, accused-respondent No. 1 Har Prasad had passed away, as such the instant government appeal qua appellant No. 1 has been abated vide order dated 10.12.2021 passed by this Court. Now the appeal survives only in respect of accused-respondent No. 2 Lal Diwan.

4. Shorn of unnecessary details, the prosecution case as unfurled in the first information report dated 15.8.1978 is that one Ali Hasan, police constable of Police Station Rath, District- Hamirpur has lodged a first information report based on the recovery memo, wherein it is alleged that on the fateful day, he alongwith constable Suresh Singh and constable Krishna Swaroop had set out for picketing duty after getting issued one rifle alongwith 30 cartridges each. After completing the picketing duty in village Galiha they proceeded towards village-Mawai, however as soon as they crossed the boundaries of village-Galiha and reached near the canal culvert, they were informed by the informer that Halkey Darji of village- Akauna alongwith his companions, armed with illegal weapons is proceeding towards village-Mawai. Believing the said information, they picked up three witnesses, Shri Chandra, Jhagru and Maheshwari, who were sitting on the culvert alongwith informer proceeded towards village-Mawai. As soon as they reached near the grove of Aadhar at about 6 p.m., the miscreants, who were sitting in the grove stood up. The informer pointed towards them to be the miscreants. The police party exhorting, proceeded further. In the meantime one of the miscreant fired a shot upon them and all the miscreants proceeded towards the east, however the shot fired by the miscreants narrowly missed the target. The police party tried to chase them, however again the miscreants, with an intention to kill them, resorted to firing, consequent to which, they in order to defend themselves also fired one shot from their respective rifles. In the meantime, one of the shot fired by miscreants hit constable Suresh Singh who after receiving injuries fell down. In the meantime, Har Prasad and Lal Diwan, who were having guns tried to escape towards Suklahari, whereas the other two miscreants, who were armed with gun and country made pistol ran towards Mawai, who were chased and two of the miscreants were apprehended, whereas other two miscreants armed with guns succeeded in running away. On interrogation, the arrested accused-persons disclosed their names to be Halkey son of Paltu, R/o Akauna and other name disclosed to be Narayan son of Gyasi, R/o Village-Kurra of Police Station- Rath. On their search being made, SBBL gun were recovered from the right hand of Halkey alongwith three cartridges and from the right hand of apprehended accused Narayan, a country made pistol of 12 bore was recovered alongwith two cartridges, which were taken in possession by the police and sealed in a bundle. On the basis of said recoveries, fard recovery memo was prepared and the injured constable was taken at the police station- Akauna. On the basis of said recovery memo, a first information report is said to have been lodged at police station- Rath, District- Hamirpur registered vide Case Crime Nos. 120, 121 and 122 of 1978 respectively under Section 307 IPC and 25 Arms Act, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-1. The Corresponding G.D. entry was also prepared vide G.D. Report No. 22 at 9.10 p.m., which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-9 and 10.

5. Thereafter, the arrested accused persons were lodged in lock-up and the investigation of the said case was entrusted to (P.W.-7) Gaya Prasad in whose presence the FIR was registered who thereafter set out for the place of incident alongwith Ali Hasan and recorded the statement of constable Ali Hasan and made spot inspection of the case and prepared its site plan, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-12. During spot inspection, the Investigating Officer recovered seven cartridges alleged to be fired by miscreants, which were taken in possession and prepared its recovery memo, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-13, however blood stained earth could not be taken as on account of heavy rain the blood had already been wiped out. On 20.8.1978 statement of S.O. V.K. Sinha was recorded who informed that the physical condition of constable Suresh is serious and he is admitted in Hallet Hospital, Kanpur. On 30.8.1978 statement of Shri Chand (P.W.-3) and Jhagru (P.W.-2) was recorded. On 30.8.1978, itself a death memo was received from the office of Deputy C.M.O., Kanpur informing about the death of injured constable Suresh, which was reduced in writing vide G.D. Report No. 9 at 8.55 a.m.

6. Thereafter, on the basis of said information, P.W.-4 Netrapal Singh, S.O. Police Station Swarup Nagar reached at the hospital and conducted the inquest on the person of the deceased and prepared the inquest memo, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-4. At the time of inquest other relevant documents including challan-nash, photonash, chitthi R.I., chitthi C.M.O. and sample sealed were prepared, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-5, 6 and 7. After conducting the inquest, the body was wrapped and sealed in a cloth and despatched for post-mortem.

7. An autopsy was conducted on the person of the deceased on 30.8.1978 at 4.50 p.m. and the doctor has noted the following injuries on the person of the deceased :-

1. Healing wound with granulation tissue on the dorsal aspect of the right forearm near the wrist 1.5 cm x 1 cm.

2. Healing wound with granulation tissue 1 cm x 0.75 cm on the dorsal aspect of right forearm 2 cm above injury no. 1.

3. Healing wound 1 cm x 1 cm with granulation tissue on right forearm on dorsal aspect 9 cm above injury no. 2.

4. Healing wound 1 cm x 0.75 cm of flexor aspect of right forearm 7 cm above the right wrist joint.

5. Healing wound 1 cm x 0.75 cm on flexor aspect of right forearm 8 cm above injury no. 4 with a scab.

6. Healing wound with granulation tissue on the right iliac chest 2 cm x 1 cm, 4 cm lateral to right anterior superior iliac spine on probing abdominal cavity deep directed from right to left and slightly upwards and backwards.

7. Healing wound granulation tissue 2 cm x 1 cm, 6 cm above & lateral injury no. 6, abdominal cavity deep directed from right to left and backwards.

8. Healing wound 2 cm x 1.5 cm with granulation tissue in the right hypo condition just below the costal margin in the anterior axillary line. Abdominal cavity deep directed backwards and medially.

9. Healing wound 1.5 cm x 1 cm with granulation tissue on right side lower part of chest 3 cm above and lateral to injury no. 8, directed backwards and medially muscle deep.

10. Healing wound 2 cm x 1.5 cm on right lumbar region back 4 cm, above the lumbosacral joint abdominal cavity deep directed from left to right, downwards and forward in direction to injury no. 6.

8. While making internal examination, the doctor has recovered three pieces of metallic pellets recovered from spine, one metallic pellet recovered from muscles of back in the para spinal region under injury No. 1 mesentery found stitched at several places with pieces of pus present, one and a half litre blood mixed with pus and faecal matter in the abdominal cavity. The cause of death has been noted to be septicaemia and toxemia as a result of injuries described.

9. On 01.9.1978 an information about the death of constable Suresh was received at the police station and the case was converted from Section 307 IPC to 302 IPC. After concluding the investigation and recording the statement of other relevant witnesses, charge-sheet was filed against all the accused persons on 8.10.1978 under Section 302 IPC and further against Halkey and Narayan a charge sheet was also filed under Section 25 Arms Act, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-14, 15 and 16. Relevant sanction for prosecuting Halkey and Narayan u/s 25 Arms Act was also obtained from the District Magistrate.

10. On submission of the charge sheet, learned Magistrate had taken cognizance and since the case was exclusively triable by the court of Sessions, made over the case to the court of Sessions for trial, where it was registered as Session Trial No. 246 of 1978 (State vs. Halkey and 3 others). The trial court framed the charges against all the accused-respondents under Section 302 read with Section 34 IPC on 07.09.1979 and further against Halkey and Narayan u/s 25 Arms Act. The said charges were read out and explained to the accused-respondents in hindi, who abjured the said charges, pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried.

11. The trial court thereafter recorded the statement of seven witnesses, out of them P.W.-1- Krishna Swaroop, P.W.-2 Jhagru and P.W.-3- Shri Chand are the witnesses of fact, whereas P.W-4- Netrapal Singh, P.W-5- Shyam Swarup, P.W-6- Narayan Das Dwivedi and P.W.-7- Gaya Prasad are the formal witnesses. The Court has also recorded the statement of C.W-1- Shyam Lal Dixit, C.W-2- Ram Sajivan Singh and C.W-3- S.K. Shukla. The accused-respondents in their defence produced D.W.-1- Balak Ram Pandey and D.W.-2- Narottam Kumar.

12. To appreciate the entire evidence and material brought on record during the course of trial it would be apt to discuss in brief the statement of the witnesses.

13. Krishna Swaroop (P.W.-1) is the constable and member of the police party. He, in his statement has stated that on 15.8.1978, he was posted as constable in police station- Rath. Constable Ali Hasan and constable Suresh Singh were also posted at the said police station. At about 4.10 p.m. pursuant to G.D. Report No. 15, they had set out from the police station for picketing duty of village- Galiha. After completing their picketing duty in village-Galiha, they had proceeded towards village-Mawai and when they reached near the culvert of the canal, an information was given by an informer that the gang of Halkey Darji armed with illegal weapon is coming from Mawai. Jhagru (P.W.-2), Maheshwari (not examined) and Shri Chand (P.W.-3) were also sitting on the culvert, who were asked to accompany them as witnesses towards Mawai.

14. It is further stated that when they reached near the grove of Adhar at about 6 p.m., four miscreants were found sitting in the grove, who were pointed out by the informer. The miscreants also saw them and immediately resorted to firing, who were chased. The miscreants with an intention to kill continued the firing, as such they, who were three in numbers, also opened fire from their respective rifles and fired one shot each. The shot fired by the miscreants, hit constable Suresh Singh and he fell down. The miscreants were chased and two of the miscreants Halkey and Narayan present in the Court were arrested, however Lal Diwan and Har Prasad made their escape good towards village- Suklahari, who were armed with guns. From the possession of Halkey, a 12 bore DBBL gun alongwith live cartridges and from the possession of Narayan, a 12 bore country made pistol alongwith cartridges were recovered. The recovered articles were taken in possession and its fard recovery memo was drawn, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-2 and thereafter injured constable Suresh was brought at the police station on a cot and an FIR was registered on the basis of fard recovery memo on 15.8.1978. The arrested accused Halkey and Narayan were lodged in lockup. However on 30.8.1978 Constable Suresh died in Hallet Hospital, Kanpur.

15. During cross examination, he stated that on the fateful day they had set out for picketing duty at 4 p.m. and they had first reached village- Galiha and thereafter proceeded to Mawai. All the three constables were armed with rifles and none had 12 bore gun. They stayed in Galiha for about half an hour and then they were proceeding to Mawai, where the informer met them. They were in police uniform and not in plain clothes. The witnesses met on the culvert. The informer was not Asharfi and was not acquainted with Asharfi of Mawai. He further stated that prior to the day of incident, he had never visited Mawai. He further stated that he was not aware if there was parti-bandi between Asharfi and Har Prasad. It is wrong to state that information given by the informer was received at the bridge of the canal. He had disclosed to the investigating officer that when they reached near the bridge canal of Galiha, then informer met them. Where they met the informer witnesses were also sitting. The informer first saw the miscreants followed by them and when the informer pointed out towards the miscreants, then they saw the accused sitting there.

16. He has further categorically stated that the witnesses and the informer were unarmed. On exhortation, miscreants fired a shot and then ran away, however they could not see as to who amongst the miscreants fired, nor they could see if it was fired by a country made pistol or a regular gun. As soon as the miscreants fired, they were chased and in their self defence they also opened fire. The witnesses were chased for about 80-90 paces. The miscreants stopped ahead and again fired, which hit constable Suresh and then there was no firing. During this incident, no other villagers reached there and two miscreants ran away towards Suklahari and two miscreants towards Mawai. Two of the miscreants were arrested alongwith country made pistol and gun, which were taken in possession and it's fard recovery memo was prepared at the spot and weapons were sealed, however in the meanwhile constable Suresh was lying in an injured condition. Thereafter, they straightway went to the police station alongwith the recovered articles.

17. He has further stated that prior to the incident, he was not acquainted with Har Prasad and Lal Diwan of Mawai and never went to identify them, who themselves surrendered in the Court. He further denied the suggestion that there was enmity between police personal and Asharfi. The shot fired by them did not hit any of the miscreants. He did not know if there was any enmity between Asharfi on one hand and Har Prasad and Lal Diwan on the other. It is wrong to state that Asharfi had taken them for encounter of Lal Diwan. It is wrong to state that they were in plain dress and armed with 12 bore gun and had gone to kill Lal Diwan. It is wrong to state that the fire made by them, hit Lal Diwan and he in his defence fired a shot. It is also wrong to state that by showing fake recovery from Lal Diwan and Har Prasad, the instant case has been cooked up.

18. Jhagroo (P.W.-2) is another eye witness of the incident. He has stated that he was acquainted with accused persons Har Prasad, Lal Diwan, Halkey and Narayan present in the Court. About two and a half years back, Suresh was murdered at about 7 p.m. At the relevant time, he was sitting on the culvert of the canal alongwith Shri Chand (P.W.-3) and Maheshwari, when three police constables alongwith an unknown person came and asked to accompany them for apprehending the miscreants and when they reached near the grove of Adhar the police constables exhorted, then the accused persons, who were sitting in the grove opened fire from the grove. Suresh Singh was hit by the fire, then police personnels also opened fire and miscreants tried to escape by running away, who were chased by the police personnels and two miscreants were apprehended who disclosed their names to be Narayan and Halkey. Lal Diwan and Har Prasad made their escape good but were identified. From the possession of Halkey, a gun was recovered alongwith cartridges, whereas from the possession of Narayan, a country made pistol alongwith cartridges were recovered, which were sealed in a bundle and the recovery memo was prepared.

19. During cross examination, the said witness stated that village- Mawai is situate at a distance of 3 'kos' from his village and two 'kos' from village-Galiha. P.W.-3 Shri Chand had taken him for the purpose of purchasing bulls and was staying there for the last 2-3 days but did not purchase any bull, however the said factum was not disclosed to the investigating officer. While he was sitting at the culvert, the police reached there. Three police personnels alongwith one unknown person had reached there. They were acquainted with the police constables and the other unknown person was “Asharfi of Mawai”. The said witness has further categorically stated that all three police constables were in plain dress and not in uniform. All the three constables were having 12 bore guns and were not having any rifle.

20. He further stated that he understands the difference between a rifle and a gun. From culvert they proceeded towards village-Mawai and when reached near grove of Adhar close to which, the well belonging to Lal Diwan is situate lying in his own chak, where he was present. As soon as they reached near the grove, Asharfi pointed out his presence and police personnel immediately opened fire on him. Lal Diwan received pellets injuries, who thereafter ran towards village-Suklahari. While he was running, the police personnels further made 2-3 fires. While running Lal Diwan in his self defence made a fire, which hit constable Suresh. Thereafter, immediately a cot was called and he was taken to the police station on the cot.

21. He further categorically stated that on the plain paper, his thumb impression was obtained. He further stated that he did not know that there was any enmity between Lal Diwan and Har Prasad on one hand and Asharfi on the other. The said witness further categorically stated that from the side of the police, he earlier appeared as a witness in 2-3 cases and in case of State Vs. Balshan and State Vs. Param Lal, he has already deposed on behalf of the police and he cannot re-collect the other case, in which, he has been made a witness.

22. Shri Chand (P.W.-3) is the another eye witness of the incident and had stated that he was acquainted with the accused Har Prasad, Halkey, Narayan and Lal Diwan present in the Court but is not acquainted with constable Suresh, who has been done to death. About 2 ½ -3 years back at about 6 p.m., constable Suresh was done to death. At the relevant time, he was sitting on the culvert of canal near village- Galiha alongwith Jhagroo and another person of village-Galiha. At about 5.30 p.m., three police constables came and informed that Halkey alongwith some miscreants, who are coming, are to be apprehended, then they proceeded towards Mawai and when reached near the grove of Adhar, all four assailants were sitting there. Seeing the assailants the police constables exhorted then the assailants opened fire. The police personnel told him that Suresh has been hit, however he had not seen the assailants opening fire, then the police personnel chased the miscreants and apprehended Halkey and Narayan, however two other assailants made their escape good. On their search being made, a gun alongwith three cartridges were recovered from the possession of Halkey, whereas a country made pistol alongwith two cartridges were recovered from the possession of Narayan. On the basis of said recoveries, fard recovery memo was prepared and signed by the witnesses and then recovered material was sealed in a bundle and brought at the police station.

23. During cross examination, the said witness stated that 2-3 days prior to the incident, he was staying in Galiha accompanied with Jhagroo (P.W.-2), who had gone to visit their relatives and there was no specific reason for their stay. At the time of incident, apart from two of them, one another person was sitting at the culvert, however till date he could not know his name. He further stated that he did not disclose to the investigating officer that the 3rd person was Maheshwari Khangar of village- Galiha. He further stated that there were three police personnel alongwith unknown person, however he cannot state if the unknown person was Asharfi of village-Mawai. The said witness then pointed out towards the accused persons Har Prasad, Lal Diwan and stated that he is not acquainted with them as he had never seen them earlier and only after the incident, he had seen the accused persons in the lock up, because he was also involved in criminal case and was put in the lock up, where he had met the two assailants who disclosed their names to him. The police personnels took him towards south of the culvert. He further stated that he did not disclose to the investigating officer that at the relevant time Har Prasad and Lal Diwan of village-Mawai, who were armed with guns ran towards village-Suklahari and he cannot state as to how the investigating officer recorded his such statement. It is further stated that when they were sitting on the culvert the sun had not set and from there they reached the grove within half an hour.

24. He further stated that police personnels were not armed with guns but with rifles and that he understands the difference between a rifle and a gun. On the exhortation made by the police personnels miscreants fired a shot then police personnels fired. The first fire made by miscreants did not hit anyone. On the firing made by police personnels, the miscreants did not run away but they also fired. The miscreants in the second round, made four fires but police did not made any fire. The police personnel fired upon the assailants only when they were sitting in the grove, however when the miscreants started running away, then the police personnel did not make any fire. He further stated that he had stated to the investigating officer that "when the miscreants proceeded towards the east, then they narrowly escaped by the firing and tried to chase them, the police personnels then in their self defence fired one shot each from their rifles, which is correct. The statement given today in Court that "while running police personnels did not open fire has inadvertently been stated by him. At the place of incident in all four fires were made. Three were made by police personnels and four by the miscreants. He was not accompanying Suresh who was 10-12 paces ahead of him. When firing was made in the grove then Suresh was not hit. He is not aware if any miscreants was hit by fire. When miscreants fired to run away, then Suresh chased them for about a furlong towards village Sukhlahari. Miscreants were at a distance of about 2 furlongs when the fire hit Suresh. The police was chasing the assistants while they were running away, then Suresh was hit by a fire. Two miscreants were running towards Mawai, whereas two other were running towards Suklahari. On Suresh being hit then a cot was called from Mawai and he was taken to the hospital.

25. It is further stated that when fire was made from the grove, then it was dark. As soon as the cot reached there, Suresh was immediately taken to the police station and he accompanied them at the police station. A paper was scribed at the police station which was signed by him. He further stated that prior to this incident, he has not been a police witness in any case, however he is an accused in a case under Section 307 IPC and also involved in two other cases. He further denied the suggestion that he had not seen the incident and under the pressure of the police, he is falsely deposing.

26. Netrapal Singh (P.W.-4) at the relevant time was posted as S.I. Swaroop Nagar, Kanpur and on 30.8.1978 had received a memo from the office of Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Kanpur informing about the death of constable Suresh Singh, which was registered vide G.D. Report No. 9 at 8.55 a.m. and proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-3. On getting the said information, he reached the Hallet Hospital and conducted the inquest on the person of the deceased and prepared the inquest report, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-4. Alongwith inquest report, he also prepared other relevant documents like photo-nash, challan-nash, chitthi R.I., chitthi C.M.O., which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-5 to Ka-7 and thereafter sealed the dead body in a cloth and prepared sample seal and despatched the dead body for post-mortem examination.

27. During cross examination, he has categorically pointed out that at the time of inquest, the deceased was not wearing any clothes and his corpse was covered with a bed sheet, however he did not make any investigation as to where his clothes had gone, which the deceased was wearing at the time of incident.

28. Shyam Swarup (P.W.-5) is the medical officer, who conducted an autopsy on the person of the deceased on 30.8.1978 at Ursala Hospital, Kanpur and had noted the injuries, which has already been described above and need not to be repeated.

29. During cross examination, he stated that from the dead body, it appears that the victim was operated upon in some hospital, where he was admitted. As mentioned in the death memo alongwith the dead body, there is no injury report available on the file.

30. Narayan Das Dwivedi (P.W.-6) was the Head Moharrir at the relevant time in police station- Rath and on the basis of fard recovery memo, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-2, he had drawn the chik FIR, which has been marked as Exbt. Ka-9. Corresponding G.D. Entry No. 22 at 9:10 p.m., which has been marked as Exbt. Ka-10, has also been drawn and the FIR was registered under Section 307 IPC and 25 Arms Act. He has further stated that accused Halkey and Narayan were put in the lock up and recovered articles were kept in the malkhana and injured constable Suresh Singh was sent for medical examination. On 1.9.1978, an information was received about the death of constable Suresh Singh and, as such, case was converted form Section 307 IPC to section 302 IPC vide G.D. Report No. 29, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-11.

31. During cross examination, he stated that constable Suresh was brought at the police station alongwith constable Ali Hasan and constable Krishna Swarup. Accused Halkey and Narayan were also brought with them. After receiving injuries, Suresh Singh first reached at the police station and then was sent to the hospital. While preparing the G.D., clothes worn by constable Suresh Singh were not noted though his injuries were noted. It is wrong to state that his clothes were hidden. It is wrong to state that Halkey and Narayan were brought in the police station and put in the lock up and false case was registered against them.

32. Gaya Prasad (P.W.-7) is the investigating officer and at the relevant time was posted as S.I. Second at P.S. Rath and in his presence said case was registered, who was entrusted with the investigation of the said case. After recording the statement of Head Moharrir Narayan Das Dwivedi, he proceeded to the place of incident and after making spot inspection prepared the site plan at the pointing out of the constable Ali Hasan, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Ka-12. During inspection of the site plan, he recovered seven cartridges said to be fired by the miscreants, which were taken in possession and its recovery memo was prepared, however blood stained earth was not taken in possession. Since due to heavy rains, no blood was found, which was wiped out. After concluding the investigation, P.W.-7 submitted the charge sheet on 8.10.1978.

33. During cross examination, he has stated that the said case was registered in his presence at the police station and at the time of incident, constables Ali Hasan and Krishna Swarup were present at the police station, however at the relevant time, he had not recorded their statements on account of constable Suresh being hit by fire arm. He also did not record the statement of victim Suresh as he was hit by firearm. The statement of other two police constable was also recorded on next day at Galiha. He further stated that S.O. V.K. Sinha, who had gone to the hospital alongwith constable Suresh and had taken the clothes, which he was wearing at the time of incident and drawn the fard recovery memo relating to constable Suresh however, the same is not mentioned in the case diary not the same is available in the Court file. Even what clothes were taken in possession has not been recorded. He had also not seen the said clothes and even in the case diary, it has not been mentioned as to whether the clothes were police uniform or plain clothes.

34. He has categorically stated that he is not aware of the fact whether constable Suresh at the time of incident, was wearing plain clothes or was in police uniform as such the said clothes are deliberately being hidden. He further stated that about one year prior to the incident, he was posted at police station - Rath and several times visited village- Mawai. He was also aware of the fact that they were daggers drawn enmity and parti-bandi between Lal Diwan and Har Prasad on one hand and Asharfi on the other. He has further stated that P.W.-3- Shri Chand has stated to him that Maheshwari Khangar of village-Galiha was also present at the place of incident, extract of which, he has filed as Exbt. Kha-1. He has also filed the statement of P.W.-2 Shri Chand marked as Exbt.Kha-2.

35. Shyam Lal Dixit (C.W.-1) is the Head Moharrir posted at police station- Rath at the relevant time. He stated that he has brought Malkhana Register of the year 77 to 79. Two bundles of articles collected during the course of investigation is not available. Information in respect of which, was also given to the higher authority by making a note in the register. During cross-examination he further stated that it is wrong to state that the articles collected during the course of investigation, has deliberately been got misplaced as that would have adversely affected the case. The articles of other cases has also been misplaced.

36. Ram Sajivan Singh (C.W.-2) is the S.I. and at the relevant time, he was posted at police station- Rath and got the proclamation under Sections 82 and 83 Cr.P.C. against the co-accused Narayan, however since the said accused was absconding for the last 2-3 years and his whereabouts could not be known, as such the process issued against him was returned back to the Court. There is no chance of accused Narayan being arrested.

37. S.K. Shukla (C.W.-3) is the S.I. of Police Station- Rath, who is in his testimony, stated that on 20.3.1983, he was posted at Police Station- Rath and had received attachment/ warrant orders of accused Halkey and tried to serve it but since he had no moveable property, as such warrants/attachment proceedings could not be executed. He further stated that accused Halkey is absconding and there is no chance of his arrest in near future, as such the said two persons could not be tried.

38. After concluding the aforesaid evidence, the statement of the accused respondents were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. by putting all the incriminating circumstances to them. In his statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., accused-respondent Lal Diwan stated that on 15.8.1978 at about 6 a.m., he was present at his chak, where a well is situate and at the relevant time he was getting his work done. Asharfi, Rameshwar, Loknath alongwith three unknown persons were with them. All were armed with weapons. After seeing they challenged him, as such he tried to run away. While running they fired a shot upon him, which hit him on his back, then another fire was made, which did not hit him. While running he turned and saw that the fire made by Asharfi hit him on his forehead and deltoid. In his defence he also fired a shot and then ran away. Number of fires were made on him, however they did not hit him. All the accused persons were having 12 bore guns. Unknown persons were in plain dress. Kishore, Chandra Bhan and Raghunath were present at the place of incident. Subsequently, he came to know that his fire hit constable Suresh, who was in plain dress. After recording of his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. the accused-respondent entered into his defence and produced D.W.-1 Balak Ram Pandey and D.W.-2 Narottam Kumar as defence witnesses.

39. Balak Ram Pandey (D.W.-1) in his statement has stated that in the year 1978, he was posted at the Collectorate as Sawal Navees. On 19.8.1978, he had typed an application on behalf of Lal Diwan son of Gulam on his dictation, which is signed by him. The said application was read out to the Lal Diwan and thereafter his signature was obtained and given to him, which has been proved and marked as Exbt. Kha-1.

40. During cross examination, the said witness stated that he does not maintain any register for the application and further denied the suggestion that the said application has been typed subsequently by him by making it anti-dated i.e. 19.8.1978.

41. Narottam Kumar (D.W.-2) was the compounder in District Jail Hamirpur at the relevant time. He stated that the injury register dated 19.8.1978 has been brought by him. On the said date, Lal Diwan son of Gulam was medically examined by doctor S.N. Dixit at District Jail Hamirpur and in the said register, injuries of Lal Diwan has been noted by him in the hand writing of Dr. Dixit, a copy of which is being filed and marked as Exbit. Kha-9.

42. During cross examination, he stated that the duration of injuries cannot be pointed out by him nor could he state as to by which weapon the said injuries has been caused. Injured is not before him nor he is acquainted with him. Dr. S.M. Dixit is alive and posted at Baranabki. The accused subsequently appeared before the Court.

43. After recording the said evidence, the trial court acquitted the accused-respondents by holding that in the said incident, cross report has also been lodged by the accused-respondent Lal Diwan, which has been marked as Exbit. Kha-1, however the investigating officer did not make any investigation on the said application. He has also recorded the finding that the prosecution has not given any explanation of the injuries received by accused-respondent Lal Diwan. It has been further noted that the empty cartridges fired by the police were not produced before the Court nor the police uniform said to be worn by the deceased at the time of incident has been produced before the Court nor there is any mention of the same in the relevant G.D. Even at the time of conducting the inquest, no clothes were found on the person of the deceased and it has been stated by the investigating officer (P.W.-7) that he does not know if at the time of incident, constable Suresh Singh was in police uniform or in plain dress.

44. The trial court has further stated that P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 has admitted the fact that they are the pocket witnesses of the police. They deposed their evidence in several cases and as such, in the absence of any independent testimony, the testimony of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, who are pocket witnesses of the police, cannot be relied upon. The trial Court has further placed reliance upon the testimony of P.W.-2, wherein in his cross examination, he has categorically stated that all the three police personnels were in plain clothes and were not having rifles but were armed with 12 bore guns. The said witness has further stated that when they reached near the grove of Adhar and Asharfi pointed out to the police that the person sitting near the well, is Lal Diwan, the police personnels opened fire causing pellets injuries to Lal Diwan, who ran away towards the village, then police personnels fired 2-3 shots more upon him. Lal Diwan in his defence also fired a shot, which hit Suresh Singh.

45. It is further pointed out in the testimony of Shri Chand (P.W.-3), wherein he has stated that he was not earlier acquainted with accused Har Prasad and Lal Diwan and had seen them only in the lock up after the incident and then for the first time their names were disclosed to him. When he was also detained in the lock up in another criminal case. In the backdrop of the said circumstances, the trial court has held that the prosecution has miserably failed to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt because from the statement of the witnesses, the factum of police party going on picketing duty and firing upon the accused persons in their defence is also not proved. Furthermore, the factum of police personnels going in plain clothes for their duty armed with 12 bore guns, creates serious dent in the prosecution story, which makes it highly doubtful, as such acquitted the accused respondent Lal Diwan of all the charges framed against him.

46. Being aggrieved and dissatisfied by the said order, the present government appeal has been filed.

47. Learned AGA on behalf of the State/appellant has submitted that the trial court has not appreciated the evidence and material on record in right perspective and on the basis surmises and conjectures, has illegally recorded the finding of acquittal against the accused-respondents, which is bad in law and liable to be set aside.

48. Learned AGA for the appellant has further submitted that from the testimony of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, who were present with the police personnel at the time of incident, the prosecution story has been established beyond doubt against the accused respondent. Even P.W.-1 the police constable corroborated the prosecution story, however the trial court on the basis of surmises and conjectures has disbelieved their testimony and recorded the finding of acquittal, which is bad in law and liable to be set aside.

49. Learned AGA has further drawn the attention of the Court to the statement of accused-respondent Lal Diwan and has submitted that in his statement recorded u/s 313 Cr.P.C., accused-respondent Lal Diwan has clearly stated that "बाद में मुझे पता लगा कि मेरा फायर सुरेश सिपाही को लग गया है, जो सादा वर्दी में था।"

Thus, from the said statement, he had confessed that a shot fired by him hit the constable Suresh, who later died and thus on the said confession of the accused-respondent, he is liable to be convicted, however the trial court completely over looked it and has illegally recorded the finding of acquittal, which is bad in law and liable to be set aside.

50. Per contra, Sri Sanjeev Kumar Khare, learned counsel for the accused-respondents has submitted that the trial court has appreciated the entire evidence and material on record in right perspective and on the basis of evidence adduced the factum of police personnels going on picketing duty and opening fire upon accused-respondents in defence is not proved and, as such has rightly acquitted the accused-respondents by extending benefit of doubt to them.

51. Learned counsel for the accused-respondents has further submitted that from the evidence adduced during the course of trial, P.W.-2 in his statement has clearly stated that all the three police personnels were in plain clothes and not in police uniform. Further all the three police constables were having 12 bore guns with them and not rifles. This clearly shows that the police personnel were not discharging their picketing duties and were not even armed with their rifles and fired upon the accused-respondents from their 12 bore guns, which hit the victims causing injuries. Thus, police personnels were not discharging their picketing duties rather had gone to encounter Lal Diwan at the instance of Asharfi as stated by the accused-respondent Lal Diwan in his statement recorded u/s 313 Cr.P.C., which finds corroboration from the evidence adduced by witnesses.

52. Learned counsel for the accused-respondents has further submitted that statement of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 has rightly not been relied upon by the trial court in view of the fact that they themselves have admitted that earlier also in 2-3 cases they had deposed on behalf of the police and thus, they are the pocket witnesses of the police. Even P.W.-3 in his statement has stated that he is also involved in a case under Section 307 IPC and 2-3 other criminal cases. He, in his testimony, has further categorically stated that prior to the incident, he was not acquainted with the accused-respondents nor had ever earlier seen them but had for the first time seen them in the lock up. He categorically stated that after the incident he also had been in jail in a criminal case, where they met him and then their names were disclosed to him. Thus, from the said testimony, it is evident that both P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 are the pocket witnesses of the police and, therefore, they cannot be relied upon as rightly held by the trial court and, therefore, the finding of acquittal recorded by the trial court against the accused respondent is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference by this Court.

53. Learned counsel for the accused-respondents has next submitted that the trial court has not relied upon the testimony of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 being the pocket witness of the police, as such in the absence of the testimony of any reliable independent witness, the testimony of police constable P.W.-1, who is most interested and partisan witness cannot be relied upon more so on account of serious inconsistencies in his statement with P.W.-2 in material particulars, as such the finding of acquittal recorded by the trial court needs no interference by this Court and is liable to be upheld.

54. Having considered the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties and appreciating the material on record, it is evident that in the instant case from the testimony adduced during the course of trial, it transpires that the police party though is alleged to have gone for picketing duty on the relevant date and time, however from the testimony adduced particularly that of P.W.-2, wherein he has clearly stated that :-

"तीनो सिपाही सादी पोशाक में थे पुलिस वर्दी में न थे। तीनों सिपाही 12 बोर बन्दूके लिए थे। राइफल नहीं लिए थे। राइफल व बन्दूक में फर्क जानते है।"

55. From the said testimony of P.W.-2 , it is evident that the police constables were in plain dress and not in police uniform at the time of alleged incident and were armed with 12 bore guns and not with their rifles as alleged in the first information report, which circumstance creates a serious dent in the prosecution story and makes it wholly unreliable and adversely effects the very genesis of the prosecution story that the police personnels had gone to discharge their picketing duties in the village. The circumstance about the victim-deceased being in plain clothes is further fortified from the inquest report wherein it has been pointed out that the investigating officer has not found any clothes on his person. Even the Head Moharrir, who has drawn first information report, on the basis of fard recovery memo has clearly stated in his cross examination that constable Suresh Singh after receiving injuries was brought at the police station and then taken to hospital. While making G.D. Entry, the clothes of Suresh Singh has not been noted though his injuries has been noted. To quote :

"चोट लगने के बाद सुरेश सिंह पहले थाने आया फिर अस्पताल गया। जीडी में सुरेश सिंह के कपड़ो का इन्द्राज नहीं किया लिखने की आवश्यकता नही समझी सुरेश की चोटे दर्ज की थी।"

Further, Gaya Prasad (P.W.-7), the investigating officer in his testimony has further stated that :-

"मुझे यह जानकारी नही है का० सुरेश (मृतक) घटना के समय सादे कपड़े पहने था या पुलिस वर्दी पहने था इसलिए उन कपड़ो को जानबूझ कर छिपाया गया है।"

57. Thus, from the entire testimony, it is evident that memo for the recovery of clothes said to be prepared, has not been placed on record before the trial court. All the aforesaid circumstances creates a serious doubt about the factum that the police personnel at the relevant time were on picketing duty when the incident is said to have taken place as alleged by the prosecution, which factum creates a serious dent in the prosecution story and makes it highly doubtful as rightly held by the trial court.

58. It is further relevant to point out here that during the course of trial, it has been brought on record that in the said incident even accused-respondent Lal Diwan suffered pellet injuries on his person and his injuries has been proved by D.W.-2, which has been marked as Exbt. Kha-9, however the prosecution has miserably failed to tender any explanation in respect of the said injuries received by Lal Diwan, which further creates a serious doubt about the genesis of the prosecution story and makes it doubtful.

59. Furthermore, even the complaint lodged by accused-respondents, which has been exhibited as Kha-1, has also not been investigated by the investigating officer, which further creates serious dent in the prosecution story. It is further noticeable from the testimony of P.W.-2 and 3 that they are pocket witnesses of the police and are involved in other criminal cases and, therefore, also their testimony cannot be said to be of impeccable nature as rightly held by the trial court while recording the finding of acquittal against the accused respondent, which order in our opinion, does not suffer from any illegality or infirmity and is also affirmed by us.

60. Moreover, having carefully gone through the testimony of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3, we find material contradictions in their testimony particularly in respect of the clothes worn by the police personnel at the time of incident and the weapons they were carrying. P.W.-2 in his statement has categorically stated that police personnels were in plain clothes and were having guns in their hands while P.W.-3 stated that they were in police uniform and armed with rifles with which the fire was made upon the victim causing injuries to him.

61. Further, when we go through the testimony, P.W.-2 he in his statement has categorically stated that Lal Diwan suffered pellets injuries on his person, which, in any manner, could not be caused by a rifle shot as stated by P.W.-3. Thus the material inconsistencies pointed above in the statement of P.W.-2 and P.W.-3 makes the prosecution story further doubtful as held by the trial court, while recording the finding of acquittal, which in our opinion do not require any interference by this Court at this stage.

62. We may further note that from the entire evidence adduced during the trial if we take a holistic view of the sequence of events in the instant case, we find that there has been daggers drawn enmity between accused respondent Lal Diwan on one hand and one Asharfi on the other, who is also stated to be present at the time of incident as per the statement of P.W.-2 Jhagru and it transpires that on account of the said enmity Asharfi, in order to settle personal scores with the accused respondent Lal Diwan had colluded with the police to eliminate him and in the said backdrop, on the fateful day had accompanied the police personnels, who are stated to be in plain dress and armed with guns had reached the grove of Aadhar and on pointing out of Asharfi identifying Lal Diwan the police personnels fired upon the accused respondent, who in order to save himself ran towards Sukhlahari and received pellet injuries and it is alleged that the accused respondent also resorted to firing which hit constable Suresh Singh who received injuries and later died in the hospital, however subsequently the police personnels in their defence cooked up a false prosecution case implicating the accused respondent to have killed the deceased Suresh Singh which in the backdrop of the entire facts and circumstances as led by the prosecution do not inspire much confidence and probablises the defence taken by the accused respondent which appears to be more truthful in the facts and circumstances of the case. Thus, we are of the opinion that in the instant case, the prosecution has not been able to prove its case beyond reasonable doubt against the accused respondent and he is entitled to benefit of doubt by recording the finding of acquittal, as also held by the trial court which finding in our opinion is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference moreso by reversing the finding of acquittal, which we accordingly affirm. For better understanding of the discussion made above it would be apt to quote the statement of P.W.-2 Jhagru in regard to the aforesaid facts :-

" जब मै आया तो लाल दिवान उसी कुएं पर था। जैसे ही बगिया के पास पहुंचे तो अशर्फी ने कहा यही है और कहते ही पुलिस वालो ने उस पर गोली चला दी। लाल दिवान के छर्रे लगे थे। फिर लाल दिवान सुकलही गांव की तरफ भागा। भागते में पुलिस वालो ने फिर 2,3 फायर किया। उसी समय भागते मे अपनी वचत में लाल दिवान ने एक फायर किया। वही फायर सुरेश सिपाही को लग गया। "

63. Now coming to the arguments of learned AGA while relying upon the statement of accused-respondents under Section 313 Cr.P.C. wherein he had stated that "बाद में मुझे पता लगा कि मेरा फायर सुरेश सिपाही को लग गया है, जो सादा वर्दी में था।" which amounts to admission of the accused-respondent and on the said admission, he is liable to be convicted, however, when we go through the said statement, we find that it is highly vague and in admissible in evidence.

64. It is well settled principle of law that the statement of the accused u/s 313

Cr.P.C. cannot be read in evidence so as to convict him as it cannot be regarded as a substantive piece of evidence. Thus, we do not agree with the said submission of learned AGA in this behalf and his argument is liable to be repelled.

65. Now coming to the scope of reversal of acquittal in Govt. Appeal, we may say that the Hon'ble Apex Court in several of its decisions has laid down the principles governing the scope of interference by the High court in an appeal filed by that state for challenging the acquittal of the accused recorded by the trial court. This Court in the case of Rajesh Prasad v. State of Bihar and Another encapsulated the legal position covering the field after considering various earlier judgments and held as below: -

"29. After referring to a catena of judgments, this Court culled out the following general principles regarding the powers of the appellate court while dealing with an appeal against an order of acquittal in the following words: (Chandrappa case [Chandrappa v. State of Karnataka, (2007) 4 SCC 415]

"42. From the above decisions, in our considered view, the following general principles regarding powers of the appellate court while dealing with an appeal against an order of acquittal emerge:

(1) An appellate court has full power to review, reappreciate and reconsider the evidence upon which the order of acquittal is founded.

(2) The Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 puts no limitation, restriction or condition on exercise of such power and an appellate court on the evidence before it may reach its own conclusion, both on questions of fact and of law.

(3) Various expressions, such as, "substantial and compelling reasons", "good and sufficient grounds", "very strong circumstances", "distorted conclusions", "glaring mistakes", etc. are not intended to curtail extensive powers of an appellate court in an appeal against acquittal. Such phraseologies are more in the nature of "flourishes of language" to emphasise the reluctance of an appellate court to interfere with acquittal than to curtail the power of the court to review the evidence and to come to its own conclusion.

(4) An appellate court, however, must bear in mind that in case of acquittal, there is double presumption in favour of the accused. Firstly, the presumption of innocence is available to him under the fundamental principle of criminal jurisprudence that every person shall be presumed to be innocent unless he is proved guilty by a competent court of law. Secondly, the accused having secured his acquittal, the presumption of his innocence is further reinforced, reaffirmed and strengthened by the trial court.

(5) If two reasonable conclusions are possible on the basis of the evidence on record, the appellate court should not distrub the finding of acquittal recorded by the trial court."

66. Further, in the case of H.D. Sundara & Ors. v. State of Karnataka this Court summarized the principles governing the exercise of appellate jurisdiction while dealing with an appeal against acquittal under Section 378 of CrPC as follows: -

"8.1. The acquittal of the accused further strengthens the presumption of innocence;

8.2. The appellate court, while hearing an appeal against acquittal, is entitled to reappreciate the oral and documentary evidence;

8.3. The appellate court, while deciding an appeal against acquittal, after re-appreciating the evidence, is required to consider whether the view taken by the trial court is a possible view which could have been taken on the basis of the evidence on record;

8.4. If the view taken is a possible view, the appellate court cannot overturn the order of acquittal on the ground that another view was also possible; and

8.5. The appellate court can interfere with the order of acquittal only if it comes to a finding that the only conclusion which can be recorded on the basis of the evidence on record was that the guilt of the accused was proved beyond a reasonable doubt and no other conclusion was possible."

67. Thus, it is beyond the pale of doubt that the scope of interference by an appellate Court for reversing the judgment of acquittal recorded by the trial Court in favour of the accused has to be exercised within the four corners of the following principles:-

a) That the judgment of acquittal suffers from patent perversity;

b) That the same is based on a misreading/omission to consider material evidence on record;

c) That no two reasonable views are possible and only the view consistent with the guilt of the accused is possible from the evidence available on record.

68. The appellate Court, in order to interfere with the judgment of acquittal would have to record pertinent findings on the above factors if it is inclined to reverse the judgment of acquittal rendered by the trial Court.

69. In the light of above settled proposition of law when we go through the impugned judgment and order, we find that the trial court had given cogent and convincing reasons for recording the finding of acquittal against the accused-respondent and that the acquittal of the accused-respondent is plausible and justifiable view emanating from the discussion of the evidence available on record and does not suffer from any infirmity or perversity. Therefore, we are of the opinion that the impugned judgement and order passed by the trial court is just, proper and legal and do not call for any interference by this Court.

70. The present government appeal lacks merit and is accordingly dismissed.

71. Trial court's record be remitted back forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 361
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 1807 of 2015
connected with
Matters Under Article 227 No. 1806 of 2015

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Petitioner
Versus
Smt. Kamla Negi & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Dr. Madhu Tandon

Counsel for the Respondents:
K.K. Arora, Archit Mehrotra, Pankaj Rai

Civil law – Civil Procedure Code – Sections 47, 50, 51, 146 & 151 - O.9 - Rule13 - O.21 R.16, O.21 R.32, - Limitation Act, 1963 -

Article 135 - Decree holder was in possession of suit property, while in possession, had transferred said property to assignees, who were dispossessed by judgment-debtor/St., during pendency of second appeal against judgment and decree passed by trial court, affirmed in first appeal dismissing their suit for permanent injunction - The assignees of decree holder having a decree of perpetual injunction, dispossessed and execution case filed for restoration of possession - Judgment debtor didn't challenge ex parte judgment and decree - Filed a separate suit for permanent prohibitory injunction on basis of title, suit was dismissed on 24.01.2007, also first appeal was dismissed on 02.06.2008 and against which Second Appeal dismissed – Aforesaid orders challenged in SLP, dismissed on 16.09.2023 - Two execution applications being filed one after another, it would not vitiate execution proceedings, provided it is initiated within time - In the instant case, the executing court rejected the objection filed by judgment-debtors u/s 47 C.P.C., thereafter pass orders u/s 151 C.P.C. directing for Amin report regarding delivery of possession - Matter is remitted to decide afresh, in relation to performance of decree of perpetual injunction. (Para 21, 22, 23, 38, 50, 60)
Petition partly allowed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Thazhapattathillath Krishnan Namboo-Diri Vs Thazhapattathillath Damodaran Namboodiri (died); AIR (KER)-2005-0-328

2. Dhani Ram Gupta Vs Lala Sri Ram; 1980 (2) SCC 162

3. Dwar Buksh Sirkar Vs Fatik Jali; ILR 26 Cal 250, 253, 254

4. Prabhakar Adiga Vs (2017) 4 SCC 97

5. Rajbahadur Yadav & ors.Vs Rizvi ESt.s & Hotels Pvt. Ltd.; 2014 (Suppl.) CCC 613 (Bombay)

6. Pentapati China Venkanna & ors. Pentapati Bangararaju & ors; 1964 SCC OnLine SC 250

7.Bandhu Singh Vs Kayastha Trading Bank; (1931) ILR 53 All 419

8. N.S.S. Narayana Sarma & ors. Vs Goldstone Exports (P) Ltd. & ors; (2002) 1 SCC 662

9. Kapoor Singh Vs Om Prakash; AIR 2009 P&H 188

10. Chakradhar Paital Deceased by LRs Vs Gelhi Bawa, AIR 2012 Ori 44

11. Ashok Kumar & ors. Vs Khyali Ram & ors; 2023 SCC OnLine Del 2882

12. Nanu Vs Ammalukutty Amma; 1962 KER LT 223

13. Arjun Singh Vs Mohindra Kumar; AIR 1964 SC 993

14. K.K. Velusamy Vs N. Palanisamy; (2011) 11 SCC 275

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri M.C. Chaturvedi, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Sri Sanjay Kumar Singh and Sri Madhu Tandon, learned Standing Counsel for the petitioners and Sri K.K. Arora, learned counsel appearing for the decree holder-respondents.

2. The petition bearing No.1807 of 2015 under Article 227 arises out of an order dated 25.08.2014 passed by the executing court in execution case No.70 of 2010 directing for delivery of possession of the property in question to the assignees of the decree holder in performance of the decree of permanent prohibitory injunction affirmed in revision No.67 of 2014 whereas petition bearing No.1806 of 2015 arises out of an order dated 29.03.2014 passed by the executing court dismissing the misc. case under Section 47 C.P.C. instituted by the judgment-debtors/ State petitioners, affirmed in revision petition No.66 of 2014. Since pleadings have been exchanged in petition No.1807 of 2015, the same is taken to be leading petition for the purposes of statement of facts and pleadings raised before the court below and before this Court with consent of learned advocates for the parties and thus both the petitions are being decided simultaneously.

3. Petitioners before this Court are the State of U.P. through District Magistrate, Moradabad, Sub Divisional Magistrate, Moradabad and Tehsildar of Tehsil Sadar district- Moradabad.

4. These petitions invoking supervisory/ superintending jurisdiction of this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution has been filed against the order passed by the Executing Court dated 19.03.2014 and 25.08.2014 in Execution Case No.70 of 2010 (Ashok Kumar Gupta & ors v. State of UP & ors) rejecting the objection filed by the State-petitioners and direction for parvana bedakhli inviting Amin report and the order dated 26.03.2015 passed by the Additional District Judge, Court No.5, Moradabad dismissing the two revision petitions of the petitioners against the above two orders.

5. Briefly stated facts as pleaded in the petition are that a suit being O.S. No.705 of 1992 instituted by one Smt. Kamla Negi for permanent prohibitory injunction in respect of suit property impleading the petitioners as defendants, came to be decreed ex parte against the petitioners. This ex parte decree was never appealed against and the State respondents have just preferred an application under Order IX Rule 13 of C.P.C. seeking recall of ex parte order but the same has remained pending consideration by the court concerned. Subsequently, the suit property came to be sold away by the plaintiff, Smt. Kamla Negi to Mr. Ashok Kumar Gupta and Rajiv Kumar (respondents) vide registered sale-deed dated 01.09.2003. It is Smt. Kamla Negi and these very respondents (subsequent purchasers) who instituted execution case for getting the ex parte decree for permanent perpetual injunction.

6. The plaint case as was set up by Smt. Kamla Negi in the suit was that suit property was owned by her father Late S.D Singh who executed a Will in her favour on 20.11.1968 and this is how this building in a dilapidated condition came to be owned by her which was later on repaired and improved upon by Smt. Kamla Negi, the plaintiff and her husband out of their own money and also got the electricity connection sometimes in the year 1985-86. It was claimed that earlier her husband, who was working in Tehsil department, was living in an official accommodation provided to him but when this building got renovated, he shifted in this building and the official accommodation of Nayab Tehsildar which he was occupying was handed over to Sukh Ram Singh. The necessity arose to institute a suit because the then Tehsildar Jitendra Bahadur Singh was envious of her husband and was insisting upon him to vacate the premises of official accommodation which her husband was earlier occupying and then ultimately sent notice on 02.11.1992 asking him to vacate the premises in question. It was also pleaded that later on at around 06.00PM on 03.11.1992, the staff of the Teshil came to the house of petitioner and tried to physically evict the plaintiff and her husband from the house. The petitioners (defendants in the suit) did file their written statement but failed to contest the case by ensuring appearance in their behalf and this is how the suit continued ex parte since 28.08.1997 and got decreed accordingly on 26.11.1997. It is this decree that was put to execution.

7. Besides above, certain more facts had been pleaded by the contesting respondents in this case who were pursuing execution case that these State petitioners had also instituted a suit in respect of the property in question showing it to be a part of plot No.57 as adjacent to it plot No.56 was a government property recorded as women hospital.

8. The aforesaid suit instituted for permanent prohibitory injunction impleading Ashok Kumar and Rajiv Kumar Trehan was dismissed on merits on 24.01.2007. A regular civil appeal being Civil Appeal No.28 of 2007 preferred by the State (petitioners herein) came to be dismissed on 02.01.2008. Against the said order, a second appeal No.829 of 2008 was filed before this Court on the plea that substantial questions of law were involved but the Court declined to entertain the appeal and dismissed the same on 18.03.2010, against which Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) being CC No.14763 of 2012 was filed which was also dismissed by Supreme Court vide order dated 16.09.2013. It is pleaded also in the counter affidavit that two execution cases came to be filed: one being 10 of 2010 and other being 70 of 2010 arising out of same judgment and decree, dated 26.11.1997 passed in O.S. No.705 of 1992.

9. In the objection filed by the petitioners under Section 47 C.P.C., plea was taken that judgment and decree dated 26.11.1997 was inexecutable. A suit for perpetual injunction was instituted for the purposes of possession claimed by Smt. Kamla Negi and, therefore, the injunction was to be in personam. It is, thus, pleaded that decree for injunction on the basis of possession would operate inter se parties to the suit and upon any third party rights being created, the decree would not stand transferred to the third party automatically to be executed. It was pleaded, if parties seeking execution came in possession later then all the more execution application was not maintainable because it was a decree on the basis of possession of plaintiff. It was further pleaded that as a matter of fact, Smt. Kamla Negi was never in possession, therefore, even if the sale-deed was executed, the possession cannot be taken to have been transferred by Kamla Negi to these very respondents.

10. These very objections were opposed by Smt. Kamla Negi and other respondents taking the plea that false statements of fact have been made. An objection was also taken that if petitioners were in possession of the property and were claiming rights, then they would have succeeded in their original suit No.721 of 2003 which had been dismissed on merits upto the Supreme Court.

11. Thus, according to decree holders, all these objections were being taken to delay the execution of the decree and it was pleaded that Section 47 objection deserved rejection.

12. After hearing the parties to the execution case, upon Section 47 objection filed by the judgment debtors, it was held by the executing court that execution case was rightly filed and since the plaintiff was dispossessed during pendency of the second appeal before the High Court arising out of an unsuccessful suit filed by judgment-debtors, then the decree holder was entitled to restoration of possession. The Court held that the objection raised under Section 47 of C.P.C. to resist the execution of the decree, was meritless and accordingly, rejected the same vide order dated 29.03.2014. After rejecting the objection, the executing court directed vide order dated 25.08.2014 to Amin Commissioner to submit a report on 02.09.2014 regarding status of the suit property and restoration of possession with the help of police force. This order came to be passed upon a miscellaneous application filed under Section 151 of C.P.C. Two revision petitions were filed against these two orders passed by the executing court that were admitted on 05.09.2014 as Civil Revision Nos. 66 of 2014 and 67 of 2014 and interim protection was also granted to the petitioners. However, both the revision petitions were ultimately dismissed on merits by the Court vide detailed common judgment and order dated 26.03.2015 holding that a decree of permanent injunction was executable by assignees in view of provisions contained under Order 21 Rule 16 of C.P.C. The Court did not find any merit in the argument raised on behalf of revision applicants-petitioners that in light of miscellaneous case being Case No.5/2009 registered under Order IX Rule 13 CPC seeking to set aside the ex parte judgment and decree, the execution of such ex parte decree be put on hold.

13. Assailing these two orders before this Court in these two petitions, the first argument advanced by learned Additional Advocate General was that execution application for a decree for permanent perpetual injunction was filed beyond the prescribed period under Article 135 of the Limitation Act. The second argument was that the execution of a decree could be made in the manner and method prescribed under Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C. In other words, it had been argued that if specific provision providing for execution was there prescribed under Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C., no order for restoration of possession could have been passed upon an misc. application filed under Section 151 C.P.C. The third argument advanced was that the injunction was always relating to the land of which the possession was continuing with the decree holder and with the transfer of land, possession if transferred and the decree of injunction was neither transferable nor enforceable by a third party.

14. It was argued by Sri Chaturvedi, learned Additional Advocate General that looking to the provisions contained under Order 21 Rule 32, only attachment of the property could have been made to ensure performance of decree on the part of judgment-debtor. Learned Additional Advocate General has relied upon judgment of Kerala High Court in the case of Thazhapattathillath Krishnan Namboo-Diri v. Thazhapattathillath Damodaran Namboodiri (died); AIR (KER)-2005-0-328.

15. It was further argued by learned Additional Advocate General that the interpretation as had been made of the provisions contained under Order 21 Rule 16 C.P.C. by the Court sitting in revision under the order impugned was an erroneous one. The argument, therefore, was that execution case was not maintainable at the instance of assignees.

16. Yet another argument was that two execution applications were not maintainable at the same point of time being No.10 of 2010 and 70 of 2010 one by Smt Kamla Negi with assignees and other by assignees alone for execution of the same decree. It was also pleaded that ex parte decree in respect of the government property was inexecutable as the trial court that had passed the judgment had no jurisdiction to try a suit of more than valuation of Rs.1 Lac.

17. Meeting the arguments, Sri Arora defended the orders passed by the executing court as well as court sitting in revision and contended that all these legal aspects had been dealt with in detail by the court sitting in revision more especially dealing with principle as contained under Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C. read with Order 21 Rule 16 C.P.C. He had argued that assignees were equally entitled to get the decree of injunction executed. He had further submitted that as far as limitation to file execution case was concerned, in view of Article 135 of the Limitation Act, 1963 there ws no limitation for executing a decree of perpetual injunction. He had contended that though title as such was not declared by the executing court but since the decree was passed on the basis of possession, such a decree was executable.

18. On the question of application filed under Section 151 C.P.C., Mr. Arora argued that inherent powers contained under Section 151 C.P.C. are independent of all the provisions and in order to arrest any miscarriage of justice, the Court had been vested with such inherent power. On the question of restoration of possession, learned Advocate, Mr. Arora argued that for executing a decree of perpetual injunction, the executing court can put back into possession the decree holder, especially in the circumstances when it was established that decree holder was dispossessed by committing trespass at the end of judgment debtors. He had submitted that it was admitted position that during pendency of appeal before this Court arising out of OS. No.721 of 2023, that decree holders were dispossessed.

19. Besides above, additionally it had been argued by Mr. Arora that petitioners were non suited in their own suit for permanent prohibitory injunction filed by them on the basis of title and possession. This suit being No.721 of 2023 in respect of the same suit property, it did not lie in the mouth of the petitioners to suggest now that they were title holder of the property and therefore, they could have resisted execution of a decree of an earlier suit passed by the decree holder. He had argued that judgment of the trial court as well as court sitting in appeal arising out of Suit No.721 of 2003 was on merits and the High Court had very much dismissed the second appeal having found no substantial question of law to be arising. All these orders had come to be affirmed in Special Leave to Appeal by the Supreme Court and, therefore, now any claim in respect of the suit property in question by the petitioners, did not survive. He had also argued that there was no error apparent in the judgments passed by the executing court as well as the court in revision so as to warrant interference by this Court under Article 227 of the Constitution.

20. Having heard learned counsel for the respective parties and their arguments raised across the bar, I find following points to be arising for consideration by this Court:

(i) Whether execution in question of a decree upon an injunction was barred by time;

(ii) Whether subsequent purchasers/assignees could have maintained the execution case.;

(iii) Whether two execution applications were maintainable in respect of one decree; and

(iv) Whether in the face of the provisions contained under Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C., the executing court was justified in invoking its inherent jurisdiction/power under section 151 C.P.C. directing for restoration of possession of the decree holders.

21. The above points are to be considered in light of admitted factual background of the case. Admitted fact was that the decree holder was in possession of the suit property and while in possession, had transferred property in question with possession to the assignees and it was assignees who were dispossessed by the judgment-debtor/State-petitioners during pendency of such second appeal against judgment and decree passed by the trial court affirmed in first appeal dismissing their suit for permanent injunction. This specific plea has been taken in paragraph 54 of the counter affidavit and which has not been specifically denied. This fact position also gets confirmed from the objections raised by the judgment-debtor that in execution case, an order for restoration of possession cannot be passed in favour of decree holder for a decree of perpetual injunction. It is also pleaded that land belonged to the State. This plea has been taken in paragraph 51 of the rejoinder affidavit filed in reply to paragraph 54 of the counter affidavit.

22. Thus, it is clear that the assignees of decree holder though having a decree of perpetual injunction and yet came to be dispossessed subsequently and that is how this execution case came to be filed for restoration of possession.

23. Yet another admitted position is that the State petitioners- judgment debtor did not challenge the ex parte judgment and decree in O.S. No.705 of 1992 passed on 28.08.1997. However, they chose to file a separate suit for permanent prohibitory injunction being O.S. No.721 of 2003 on the basis of title as per the records of Khatauni, which they had pleaded before the executing court also, but the said suit came to be dismissed on 24.01.2007 against which first appeal being Civil Appeal No.28 of 2007 was dismissed on 02.06.2008 and against which Second Appeal No.829 of 2008 also got dismissed by this Court. These orders passed by the trial court, court of first appeal and second appeal were all challenged in Special Leave to Appeal which also got dismissed on 16.09.2023 by the Supreme Court.

24. Thus, the judgment debtor lost their case not only for prohibitory injunction against the respondents but also failed to get the ex parte decree recalled.

25. In so far as first point (i) is concerned, the limitation for execution of any decree other than the mandatory injunction is prescribed in Article 136 of the Schedule of the Limitation Act, 1963. This Article 136 is reproduced hereinunder in its entirety:

Description of suit	Period of limitation	Time from which period begins to run
136. For the execution of any decree (other than a decree granting	Twelve years	When the decree or order becomes enforceable or where the decree or any subsequent order directs any payment of money or the delivery of any property to be made a mandatory injunction) or order of any civil court.		at a certain date or at recurring periods when default in making the payment or delivery in respect of which execution is sought, takes place. Provided that an application for the enforcement or execution of a decree granting a perpetual injunction shall not be subject to any period of limitation."

26. From a bare reading of the aforesaid provision, it is clear from the proviso that an application for enforcement or execution of a decree granting a perpetual injunction, is not subjected to any period of limitation. There is no dispute between the parties to the execution case that the decree sought to be executed is in the nature of prohibitory perpetual injunction restraining the judgement-debtors from interfering with the possession of the plaintiffs qua the land in suit. It is this land in suit in respect of which the enforcement of injunction is sought by instituting the present execution case. It is admitted position of a fact that the assignees of the judgment-debtors who acquired possession in the year 2003 were dispossessed in the year 2008 by the State-respondents/judgment-debtors during pendency of their second appeal before this Court. The execution application was accordingly filed in the year 2010 so that the decree of injunction was violated in the year 2008 only and within two years' time, the execution case was filed.

27. Thus, there being no limitation to get the decree executed for perpetual injunction, I do not see any limitation coming in the way of the executing court in entertaining the execution case for execution of decree.

28. Coming to the point no. (ii) whether the transferee as assignees, the original decree holder could have maintained an execution case or not, the legal position again is very clear that once the property in suit has been transferred by an instrument of sale to a third party along with possession then such third party is entitled to get the decree enforced. Under Order 21 Rule 16 C.PC, a transferee can apply for execution of decree. Order 21 Rule 16 CPC for ready reference is reproduced hereinunder:

"16. Application for execution by transferee of decree.

Where a decree or, if a decree has been passed jointly in favour of two or more persons, the interest of any decree-holder in the decree in transferred by assignment in writing or by operation of law, the transferee may apply for execution of the decree to the Court which passed if, and the decree may be executed in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application were made by such decree-holder:

Provided also that, where the decree, or such interest as aforesaid, has been transferred by assignment, notice of such application shall be given to the transferor and the judgment-debtor, and the decree shall not be executed until the Court has heard their objections (if any) to its execution:

Provided also that, where a decree for the payment of money against two or more persons has been transferred to one of them, it shall not be executed against the others.

Explanation-

Nothing in this rule shall affect the provisions of Section 146, and a transferee of rights in the property, which is the subject matter of the suit, may apply for execution of the decree without a separate assignment of the decree as required by this rule."

(emphasis added)

29. Thus, the only requirement for the executing court is to hear the other side to whom the notice is sent besides the objections also. It is necessary to refer here 146 CPC at the same time which runs as under:

"146. Proceedings by or against representatives: Save as otherwise provided by this Code or by any law for the time being in force, where any proceeding may be taken or application made by or against any person, then the proceeding may be taken or the application may be made by or against any person claiming under him."

30. A harmonious reading of the two provisions as contained under Order 21 Rule 16 and Section 146 of the C.P.C. would lead to a construction that any right created in the property by operation of law or by an instrument recognied under the law, would bind such party under the obligation arising out of such property and would hold entitled an assignee to all interest arising out of such property. Thus, if by sale of an immovable property duly registered as per requirement of law under the Transfer of Property Act, executed in favour of the party and that property is subject to a decree by a court of law, then such assignee/transferee would be bound by obligations attached to the property and also eligible to rights arising out of such property as recognised under law.

31. It is further interesting to note here that the sale-deed was executed in favour of the assignees in the year 2003 with the transfer of possession but forceful dispossession of these assignees took place in the year 2008 while the second appeal was pending before the High Court. It is also worth mentioning here that the execution application was initially filed by the original decree holder and the assignees and was registered as Execution Case No.10 of 2010.

32. In a judgment in the case of Dhani Ram Gupta v. Lala Sri Ram; 1980 (2) SCC 162, the Supreme Court citing the judgment of Calcutta High Court in the case of Dwar Buksh Sirkar v. Fatik Jali; ILR 26 Cal 250, 253, 254 held thus:

"the only provision in the Code referring expressly to the assignment of a decree is contained in Section 232, and that no doubt contemplates a case in which the assignee applies for execution. In such a case the Court may, if it thinks fit, after notice to the decreed older and the judgment-debtor, allow the decree to be executed by the assignee. If, however, there is an assignment pending proceedings in execution taken by the decree-holder, I see nothing in the Code which debars the Court from recognising the transferee as the person to go on with the execution. The recognition of the Court is no doubt necessary before he can execute the decree, but it is the written assignment and not the recognition which makes him the transferee in law. The omission of the transferee, if it was an omission, to make a formal application for execution, was merely an error of procedure and does not affect the merits of the case. ..... It is argued for the respondent that the transferee's title was not complete as express notice of the transfer had not been given to the judgment-debtor. As already observed, the transfer, as between transferor and the transferee, is effected by the written assignment. If the judgment-debtor had no notice of the transfer and being otherwise unaware of it paid the money to the decree-holder, the payment was, of course, a good payment, and he cannot again be held liable to the transferee."

(emphasis added)

33. The issue whether injunction was enforceable by a third party and whether a decree of injunction would end with the land transferred to a third party has been raised on the principle that right to injunction with a person ends with that person extinguishing his rights in the property and does not get transferred to transferee or assignee.

34. Sri Chaturvedi, learned Senior Advocate had cited the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of Prabhakar Adiga v. (2017) 4 SCC 97, relying upon a maxim "actio personalis moritur cum persona". The Court in that case had held that the maxim was not applicable because the decree was binding upon the heirs of the deceased-judgment debtor under Section 50 C.P.C. read with Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C. The court there in that case gave a harmonious construction of Section 50 C.PC. read with Section 146 C.P.C. and Order 21 Rule 16 C.P.C read with Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C. and held that legal representatives of judgment-debtor would be bound under Order 21 Rule 32 for the performance of decree. Section 50 arrests a situation from a decree getting frustrated if the judgment-debtor dies and, therefore, to meet that contingency, it has provided specific powers for execution of decree by legal representatives and heirs. The legal representatives and heirs may not be transferees strictu sensu but the transferees by virtue of transfer once stepped into the shoes of the vendor, therefore, whatever rights and obligations are there with the vendor become binding upon the vendees as well in view of Section 146 C.P.C.

35. In the case of Rajbahadur Yadav & ors v. Rizvi Estates & Hotels Pvt. Ltd.; 2014 (Suppl.) CCC 613 (Bombay), a Single Judge of the Bombay High Court dealt with various provisions of C.P.C. and held that it was not necessary for the decree holder to assign the decree in favour of the subsequent purchaser. The Court observed that subsequent purchaser who purchases the property in respect of which decree has been passed, acquires a right to execute the decree.

36. Reading down section 51(3) with Section 146 C.P.C., Order 21 Rule 16 C.P.C. and Order 21 Rule 32 (5) C.P.C., the Court has an ample power to get the decree executed in the manner it is required including power to ensure delivery of possession to dispossess the decree holder.

37. Therefore, in my considered view, the execution application by the transferee/assignees in the present case was maintainable. Point no.(ii) is decided accordingly.

38. So far as the point No.(iii) is concerned regarding two execution applications being filed one after another, whether it would vitiate the execution proceedings, I would hold that two applications would not vitiate the entire execution proceedings. In one execution application being No.10 of 2010 both the decree holder and the assignees/transferees are party while in the second execution application being 70 of 2010, only assignees/transferees are applicants. In both the execution applications, State respondents/ judgment-debtors are party and the property is the same. When no new cause is shown in the subsequent application filed and they relate to the same decree merely because a subsequent application has been filed by assignees alone, it would not vitiate the execution proceedings provided of-course, the execution proceedings have been initiated well within time.

39. In the case of Pentapati China Venkanna & ors Pentapati Bangararaju & ors; 1964 SCC OnLine SC 250, such an issue arose about two execution petitions filed being Nos.58 of 1953 and 13 of 1939. Though of course in that case, about the same property in suit, one execution was filed for one part earlier and for another part, execution case was filed subsequently but the property remained the same. The Court held that a comparison of the two execution petitions shows that the parties are the same: the new parties added in the present execution petition are either the legal representatives of the deceased parties or the representative of a party who has become insolvent. In the present execution petition the decree-holders are not proceeding against any property against which they did not seek to proceed in the earlier proceeding; they only omitted some of the properties. The Court distinguished the judgment of Bandhu Singh v. Kayastha Trading Bank; (1931) ILR 53 All 419 wherein the execution application was filed after 12 years and so was taken a fresh application to be barred by time but where both the applications relate to same subject matter of a decree, then subsequent application cannot be treated to be a fresh application and order can be passed thereupon. The second application was taken to be only continuation of earlier application. Vide paragraph 10, the Court held thus;

"10. In this case, as we have pointed out, the parties are substantially the same in both the proceedings, and the decree-holders are only proceeding against properties included in the previous application. It cannot, therefore, be treated as a fresh application within the meantime of Section 48 of the Code. It is only an application to continue EP No.13 of 1939 which is pending on the file of the executing court."

40. In view of above, I do not find any error in the order passed by the executing court rejecting the objection of State respondents, the opposite parties in Execution Case No.70 of 2010 while the earlier execution application had remained pending. Thus, point no.(iii) is decided in favour of the respondents.

41. As far as the point no.(iv) for consideration is concerned, it is to be seen whether for execution of a decree for perpetual injunction, a restoration of possession could have been ordered or not. Order 21 Rule 32 C.P.C. is reproduced hereinunder:

"32. Decree for specific performance for restitution of conjugal rights, or for an injunction.

(1) Where the party against whom a decree for the specific performance of a contract, or for restitution of conjugal rights, or for an injunction, has been passed, has had an opportunity of obeying the decree and has wilfully failed to obey it, the decree may be enforced in the case of a decree for restitution of conjugal rights by the attachment of his property or, in the case of a decree for the specific performance of a contract or for an injunction by his detention in the civil prison, or by the attachment of his property, or by both.

(2) Where the party against whom a decree for specific performance or for an injunctions been passed is a corporation, the decree may be enforced by the attachment of the property of the corporation or, with the leave of the Court by the detention in the civil prison of the directors or other principal officers thereof, or by both attachment and detention.

(3) Where any attachment under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) has remained in force for six months if the judgment-debtor has not obeyed the decree and the decree-holder has applied to have the attached property sold, such property may be sold; and out of the proceeds the Court may award to the decree-holder such compensation s it thinks fit, and shall pay the balance (if any) to the judgment-debtor on his application.

(4) Where the judgment-debtor has obeyed the decree and paid all costs of executing the same which he is bound to pay, or here, at the end of six months from the date of the attachment, no application to have the property sold has been made, or if made has been refused, the attachment shall cease.

(5) Where a decree for the specific performance of a contract or for an injunction has not been obeyed, the Court may, in lieu of or in addition to all or any of the processes aforesaid, direct that the act required to be done may be done so far as practicable by the decree-holder or some other person appointed by the Court, at the cost of the judgment-debtor, and upon the act being done the expenses incurred may be ascertained in such manner as the Court may direct and may be recovered as if they were included in the decree.

[Explanation: For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the expression "the act required to be done" covers prohibitory as well as mandatory injunctions.]"

42. From the bare reading of sub-rule (1) of Rule 32, it is absolutely clear that a decree for an injunction is enforceable and for enforcing the same, vide sub-rule (2) of Rule 2 property can be attached. Even for satisfaction of decree, it can be sold out. Sub-rule (5) empowers the executing court to direct an act required to be done may be done, as far as the practicable. The explanation attached to the sub-Rule (5) states that the expression 'act required to be done' covers prohibitory as well as mandatory injunction.

43. In my considered view, the legislature has very consciously and rightly so in its wisdom empowered the executing court to get the performance of decree achieved, whatever manner it is feasible and possible. The intendment behind incorporation of sub-Rule (5) and the explanation attached to it is that even in the case of prohibitory or mandatory injunction, the Court has to ensure full satisfaction of the decree. In other words, the court has to ensure a decree does not go to waste. The attachment of the property, as has been argued by learned Additional Advocate General, does not warrant delivery of possession to the decree holder, appears to me a highly misplaced argument. The attachment of the property basically as contemplated under sub-rule (3) and directing for its sale by the court is intended only to ensure decree of specific performance of contract. This coercive measure, therefore, will ensure performance of decree where a judgment debtor does not perform as per the decree for specific performance of contract. The legal position, therefore, would be that in the matter of mandatory/perpetual/prohibitory injunction, the Court can exercise power to direct for delivery of possession of the property by the judgment-debtor to the decree holder if he is dispossessed after the decree is passed in the suit.

44. In the case of N.S.S. Narayana Sarma & ors v. Goldstone Exports (P) Ltd. & ors; (2002) 1 SCC 662, Supreme Court has very categorically held that any objection if raised as to the execution of a decree, has to be decided by the executing court to ensure that litigation finally ends in the matter of objections raised resisting possession by the judgment debtor. Supreme Court has discussed and laid down the scope of provisions contained under the Order 21 Rule 32 CPC and held that the executing court shall be dealing with all these issues relating to execution of the decree and the resistance to possession and their right to recover possession by the decree holder. The court observed that legislature has enacted the provision with a view to remove as far as possible technical objections of an application filed by an aggrieved party whether he is decree holder or any other person in possession of the immovable property in execution and has vested power with the executing court to deal with all questions arising out in the matter whether the court otherwise has jurisdiction to entertain a dispute in the nature.

45. In the case of Kapoor Singh v. Om Prakash; AIR 2009 P&H 188, a Division Bench of Punjab and Haryana High Court interpreted the provisions as contained under Order 21 Rule 32 CPC and held that "in the event of violation of a decree for prohibitory injunction by way of dispossession of the decree holder by the judgment-debtors, the executing court has jurisdiction to restore possession in favour of the decree holder as cannot be compelled to file another suit. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioners that sub-rule (5) with its Explanation has no application to a decree for prohibitory injunction therefore fails."

46. Again, in the case of Chakradhar Paital Deceased by LRs v. Gelhi Bawa, AIR 2012 Ori 44, the Court interpreted Sub-Rule (5) of Rule 32 thus:

"5. It is evident from Sub-rule (1) of Rule 32, as quoted above, that a decree of injunction, be it a mandatory injunction or a prohibitory injunction, may be enforced by detention of the judgment-debtor in the civil prison or by attachment of his property, or by both. No other specific mode of execution of an injunction decree has been provided for in the procedure. However, Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order 21, C.P.C. provides for enforcement of an injunction decree, which has not been obeyed by the judgment-debtor, directing the decree-holder or any other person to do the required act that will have effect of enforcement of such decree, at the cost of the judgment-debtor. This mode of enforcement can be directed by the Court in lieu or in addition to the other modes of enforcement prescribed under Sub-rule (1) of Rule 32.

6. Relying on the decision of this Court reported in ILR 1979 (I) Cuttack 474; Fakira Pradhan v. Urdhaba Pradhan, the learned Counsel for the petitioners submits that the manner of enforcement of an injunction decree in accordance with Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 is limited only to a decree for a mandatory injunction and not prohibitory injunction. No doubt, the aforesaid decision supports the contention of the learned Counsel for the petitioners. Placing reliance on the decisions of several other High Courts, this Court in the aforesaid case held as under:

"..... Sub-rule (1) of Rule 32 of Order 21, Civil Procedure Code, applies both to mandatory as well as prohibitory injunctions. Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 on the language used Neutral Citation Number: 2023:DHC:3376 under Sub-rule (5) has been qualified by the words 'has not obeyed' and the rule says that in the event of disobedience of the injunction, the Court may, direct that the act required to be done may be done so far as practicable by the decree holder. This could only be a mandatory direction. A prohibitory direction would be not to do an act. A prohibitory injunction is a negative one restraining the defendant from doing a particular act. The difference between the two is obvious and Rule 32(5) can only be construed as applying to mandatory injunctions and not to prohibitory injunctions....."

7. The aforesaid interpretation of Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 would not, however, hold good after the incorporation of the Explanation thereto by the Amendment Act of 2002. The Explanation has explicitly made it clear that the expression, 'the act required to be done' in Sub-rule (5) covers both prohibitory as well as mandatory injunction. In case, it is held that Sub-rule (5) with the Explanation will have application to the present case then the decision in Fakira Pradhan (supra), will have no application. Learned Counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the C.P.C. Amendment Act of 2002 will not apply to the present execution case in which the decree passed in the year 1995 is being sought to be executed. In this context, he has relied upon the decisions of the Apex Court, reported in 2007 (I) OLR (SC) 406, State Bank of Hyderabad v. Town Municipal Council and I (2007) CLT 541 (SC) : IX (2006) SLT 373 : (2006) 13 SCC 295 : AIR 2007 SC 663, Kamla Devi v. Kushal Kanwar. The first decision cited by the learned Counsel for the petitioners relates to amendment of pleadings in a suit filed in the year 1998 where the applicability of the proviso appended to Order 6 Rule 17, C.P.C. by the C.P.C. Amendment Act, 2002 which debars amendment of pleadings after commencement of trial of the suit unless the party is able to satisfy the Court that in spite of due diligence he could not have pleaded the new facts prior to the commencement of trial. It was held therein that the proviso will have no application to pleadings filed prior to the proviso came into force as Section 16(2)(b) of the 2002 Amendment Act so provides by way of repeal and saving. In the case of Kamla Devi (supra), it was held that a letters patent appeal which was filed prior to coming into force of the C.P.C. Amendment Act of 2002 that inserted Section 100-A prohibiting such appeal would be maintainable as Section 100-A has no retrospective application.

8. This execution case had been filed in 2009 when the judgment-debtors disobeyed the decree of permanent injunction by encroaching upon the suit land and dispossessing the decree holders. Explanation to Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order 21 C.P.C. came into force with effect from 1.7.2002 and this execution case having been filed after the Explanation came into force, Sub-rule (5) will have application and the decree of prohibitory injunction in question can be enforced by way of recovery of possession where the judgment-debtors have disobeyed the said decree. This Court also in the decision reported in (2006) (II) CLR 368, Sabitri Khuntia v. Ram Neutral Citation Number:

2023:DHC:3376 Avatar Modi, has held that a decree for prohibitory injunction can be executed taking recourse to Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 by removing a cowshed raised by the judgment-debtors in violation of the decree. It is also held in the decision reported in AIR 2009 Punj & Har 188, Kapoor Singh v. Om Prakash, that in the event of violation of a decree for prohibitory injunction by way of dispossession of the decree holder by the judgment-debtors, the executing Court has jurisdiction to restore possession in favour of the decree holder, who cannot be compelled to file another suit. The contention of the learned Counsel for the petitioners that Sub-rule (5) with its Explanation has no application to a decree for prohibitory injunction therefore fails."

47. Following these judgments, very recently the High Court of Delhi at New Delhi in the case of Ashok Kumar & ors v. Khyali Ram & ors; 2023 SCC OnLine Del 2882 held that executing court taking recourse to the provisions of sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order 21 would entertain the complaint and the executing court was justified in issuing warrants of possession of the suit property while executing a decree of permanent injunction. In the case before Delhi High Court, the decree holders were not in possession and, therefore, the executing court issued a warrant for possession.

48. Thus, in view of above exposition of law, in my considered view, it cannot be held that the executing court cannot direct for delivery of possession of the suit property.

49. However, the question as to whether such power could have been exercised independently under Section 151 C.P.C. raises a serious issue even while the court has proceeded to reject the objection under Section 47 C.P.C. of the judgment-debtors. As I have already discussed above that sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order 21 specifically provides procedure and method to ensure compliance of decree of prohibitory perpetual injunction and that being the specific provision contained in C.P.C., the Court should not be exercising power under Section 151 C.P.C. taking it as a substantive provision for the court to proceed independently.

50. The language of sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 is clear that court would be requiring the judgment-debtor to perform the decree and it is in the event judgment-debtor still denies to make necessary compliance then he can be arrested or the property can be directed to be attached for the decree holder. So therefore, an opportunity of hearing with an opportunity to perform the decree should be given to the judgment-debtor. Had the court followed this procedure after rejecting the objection under Section 47C.P.C., there would not have been any ground or plea available to judgment debtors to complain about. But in the instant case, I find that the executing court while on one hand rejected the objection filed by the judgment-debtors under section 47 C.P.C., immediately thereafter proceeded to pass orders under Section 151 C.P.C. directing for Amin report regarding delivery of possession.

51. It is true that at times if the executing court is there seized with the matter and misc. case is filed under section 151 C.P.C., may be it is filed separately under Section 151 C.P.C., the court in order to do substantial justice, may pass orders. But then it could not have by-passed the procedure prescribed for under sub-rule (5) Rule 32 Order 21. The judgment of the Kerala High Court deals with the situation. The Kerala High Court in the case of Thazhapattathillath Krishnan (supra), cited an earlier judgment of that very court, Nanu v. Ammalukutty Amma; 1962 KER LT 223, wherein the Court had held thus:

"There were conflicting views expressed in various decisions of different High Courts as to the applicability of Order XXI Rule 32 in respect of decrees for prohibitory injunction. Some of the High Courts took the view that sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order XXI cannot be invoked to enforce a decree for prohibitory injunction, while some other High Courts took the view that as in the case of decree for mandatory injunction, sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order XXI can be invoked for enforcing prohibitory decrees as well. The statement of objects and reasons to the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 2002 makes the position clear that the Explanation to Rule 32 was added on the basis of the report of Law Commission and that this amendment is only clarificatory in nature. Therefore, there can be no doubt that sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order XXI can be applied and used to enforce and implement even a decree for prohibitory injunction. With respect, I do not agree with the view taken by the Delhi High Court in AIR 1986 Delhi 297 and in AIR 1981 Delhi 85.

The Travancore Cochin High Court had taken the view that Section 151 can be invoked for enforcing a decree for perpetual injunction, in the decision reported in AIR 1954 TRA.CO.117 (supra)."

52. The judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Arjun Singh v. Mohindra Kumar; AIR 1964 SC 993 was distinguished on facts and circumstances of that very case citing that in that case Court had taken the view that specific provision in the Code of Civil Procedure being there jurisdiction under section 151 could not be invoked. The Kerala High Court held that though there was a specific provision and recourse to Section 151 C.P.C. could not have been taken but what were the provision is lacking to meet the particular contingency to get the decree enforced or order, court could not be rendered powerless by holding that inherent power under Section 151 would not be invoked.

53. In my considered view, there is no dispute regarding proposition of law as discussed by the Kerala High Court but it will depend upon facts of each case. The view taken by Kerala High Court cannot be taken as a general view to be made applicable as law in every case.

54. It is true that no court can be held to be powerless to remain passive spectator of violation of a decree even while execution case is pending. It is to be seen always whether the power was there and court failed to exercise that power to ensure performance of decree or there was no power and court could not have directed for performance of execution of decree but for section 151 C.PC. In the present case, the power was available to the executing court under sub-Rule (5) of Rule 32 of Order 21 C.P.C., but I do not see from the recitals of the order impugned passed by executing court on 25.08.2014 that any such step was taken prior to passing the order.

55. In K.K. Velusamy v. N. Palanisamy; (2011) 11 SCC 275, the Court has exhaustively dealt with the scope of Section 151 C.P;C. and vide paragraph 12 has held thus:

"12. The respondent contended that Section 151 cannot be used for reopening evidence or for recalling witnesses. We are not able to accept the said submission as an absolute proposition. We however agree that Section 151 of the Code cannot be routinely invoked for reopening evidence or recalling witnesses. The scope of Section 151 has been explained by this Court in several decisions (See : Padam Sen vs. State of UP-AIR 1961 SC 218; Manoharlal Chopra v. Seth Hiralal - AIR 1962 SC 527; Arjun Singh v. Mohindra Kumar - AIR 1964 SC 993; Ram Chand & Sons Sugar Mills (P) Ltd. v. Kanhay Lal - AIR 1966 SC 1899; Nain Singh v. Koonwarjee - 1970 (1) SCC 732; The Newabganj Sugar Mills Co.Ltd. vs. Union of India - AIR 1976 SC 1152; Jaipur Mineral Development Syndicate v. Commissioner of Income Tax, New Delhi - AIR 1977 SC 1348; National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences v. C Parameshwara - 2005 (2) SCC 256; and Vinod Seth v. Devinder Bajaj - 2010 (8) SCC 1). We may summarize them as follows:

(a) Section 151 is not a substantive provision which creates or confers any power or jurisdiction on courts. It merely recognizes the discretionary power inherent in every court as a necessary corollary for rendering justice in accordance with law, to do what is `right' and undo what is `wrong', that is, to do all things necessary to secure the ends of justice and prevent abuse of its process.

(b) As the provisions of the Code are not exhaustive, Section 151 recognizes and confirms that if the Code does not expressly or impliedly cover any particular procedural aspect, the inherent power can be used to deal with such situation or aspect, if the ends of justice warrant it. The breadth of such power is co-extensive with the need to exercise such power on the facts and circumstances.

(c) A Court has no power to do that which is prohibited by law or the Code, by purported exercise of its inherent powers. If the Code contains provisions dealing with a particular topic or aspect, and such provisions either expressly or necessary implication exhaust the scope of the power of the court or the jurisdiction that may exercised in relation to that matter, the inherent power cannot be invoked in order to cut across the powers conferred by the Code or a manner inconsistent with such provisions. In other words the court cannot make use of the special provisions of Section 151 of the Code, where the remedy or procedure is provided in the Code.

(d) The inherent powers of the court being complementary to the powers specifically conferred, a court is free to exercise them for the purposes mentioned in Section 151 of the Code when the matter is not covered by any specific provision in the Code and the exercise of those powers would not in any way be in conflict with what has been expressly provided in the Code or be against the intention of the Legislature.

(e) While exercising the inherent power, the court will be doubly cautious, as there is no legislative guidance to deal with the procedural situation and the exercise of power depends upon the discretion and wisdom of the court, and the facts and circumstances of the case. The absence of an express provision in the code and the recognition and saving of the inherent power of a court, should not however be treated as a carte blanche to grant any relief.

(f) The power under Section 151 will have to be used with circumspection and care, only where it is absolutely necessary, when there is no provision in the Code governing the matter, when the bona fides of the applicant cannot be doubted, when such exercise is to meet the ends of justice and to prevent abuse of process of court."

(emphasis added)

56. From careful reading of the paragraph 12 above, it is clear that if the provision dealing with particular points/aspects, either expressly or by necessary implication exhausting the scope of power of the court or jurisdiction then that power may be exercised in relation to that matter and inherent power cannot be invoked.

57. Thus, the fundamental rule of judicial procedure is that when a provision is there and it prescribes for a power to be exercised in a particular manner then it should be exercised in that manner alone.

58. In view of above, the point No.(iv) stands partly decided in favour of the judgment-debtor, State-petitioners before this Court.

59. Thus, in view of above, petition filed as Matter under Article 227 No.1806 of 2015 directed against the order dated 29.03.2024 passed by the executing court and the order of the revisional court in Civil Revision No.66 of 2014 arising out of the same, dated 26.03.2015 is dismissed and the petition filed as Matter under Article 227 No.1807 of 2015 against order dated 25.08.2014 passed by the executing court upon misc. case filed under section 151 C.P.C. and the order of the revision court affirming the same, dated 26.03.2015 is hereby allowed. The order passed by the executing court dated 25.08.2014 and that of the revisional court are hereby set aside.

60. Matter is remitted to the executing court to be decided afresh in so far as performance of decree of perpetual injunction is concerned in terms of the provisions as contained under order 21 Rule 32 (5) read with Section 51(3) C.P.C. in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of three months from the date of production of certified copy of this order.

(2024) 5 ILRA 378
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVILL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 3470 of 2020

Jyoti @ Heera ...Petitioner
Versus
Omwati @ Sato & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Ashish Kumar Singh, Shreya Gupta

Counsel for the Respondents:
Siddhartha Srivastava

Civil Law – Civil Procedure Code,1908 – Section 9 - O. 8 - Rule 6-A - O. 20 - Rule 5- O. 20 R. 19 (1) and (2) - Limitation Act, 1963 - Section 14 - Petitioner instituted a suit for permanent prohibitory injunction - On suit property, relief claimed, valuation declared was Rs. 50 lacs - Respondent nos. 1 & 2 filed written St.ment, counter claim, valuation was declared at Rs. 16 lacs – Trial court dismissed the suit, decreed the counter claim of respondents - Petitioner filed first appeal before High Court, on the ground that valuation being Rs. 50 lacs, it executed the pecuniary limit of jurisdiction of District Judge which being only Rs. 25 lacs - Regarding decree of counter claim, petitioner preferred first appeal before District Judge – Objection by respondents on maintainability of appeal, on the ground that for purposes of jurisdiction, valuation of suit will matter, therefore, appeal would lie before High Court - District Judge held that appeal not be maintainable in its court – Impugned order – Held, for purpose of payment of court fees, valuation of decreed counter claim will be relevant, but for purpose of jurisdiction so as to select a forum of appeal, valuation of suit would be relevant – Petition lacks merit, dismissed. (Para 2, 3, 11, 31)

Petition dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Cantonment Board Vs Shakuntala Devi, 2018 (5) ADJ 647

2. Jag Mohan Chawla & ors.Vs Dera Radha Swami Satsang & ors., (MANU/SC/0565/1996)

3. Ashok Kumar Singh Sengar Vs Om Prakash Chaturvedi, 2016 All. C.J. 1394

4. Govind Singh Vs Rajendra Prasad Gupta, 2018 All. C.J. 1941

5. Pampara Philip Vs Koorithottiyil Kinhimohammed, 2007 0 AIR (Ker) 69; 2006 0 Supreme (Ker) 680

6. Teofilo Barreto Vs Sadashiva G. Nasnodkar & Others, 2007 (3) Civil Court Cases 565 (Bombay)

7. Iqbal Banu Vs Ramesh & ors., 2018 LawSuit (Raj) 933

8. Kazi Syed Saifuddin Vs Kasturchand Abhayrajji Golchha, 2000 (4) BOMCR 582

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Shreya Gupta and Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as Sri Siddhartha Srivastava, learned counsel for the contesting respondents.

2. Briefly stated facts of the case are that plaintiff/ petitioner before this Court, instituted a suit for permanent prohibitory injunction being Original Suit No. 719 of 2010 and looking to the suit property and the relief claimed, the valuation declared was Rs. 50 lacs. In the said suit the defendant/ respondent nos. 1 & 2 filed their written statement as well as counter claim to which the valuation was declared at Rs. 16 lacs. There was never a dispute raised regarding valuation of the suit as well as the counter claim.

3. By common judgment and decree dated 26.11.2018 the trial court while dismissing the suit, decreed the counter claim of the defendant/ respondent nos. 1 & 2. Resultantly, petitioner preferred a first appeal before the High Court against the judgment dismissing his suit on the ground that valuation being Rs. 50 lacs, it executed the pecuniary limit of jurisdiction of District Judge which being only Rs. 25 lacs. First Appeal came to be registered as First Appeal No. 157 of 2019. In so far as the decree of the counter claim is concerned, the plaintiff/ petitioner preferred a first appeal before the District Judge. The defendant/ respondent nos. 1 & 2 took an objection as to the maintainability of the appeal on the ground that for the purposes of jurisdiction it is the valuation of the suit which will matter and therefore, the appeal would lie before the High Court and not before the District Judge. This objection was upheld by the District Judge, Bareilly under his order dated 13.03.2020 holding the appeal to be not maintainable in the court of District Judge on account of pecuniary limit of Rs. 25 lacs to exercise the jurisdiction. Thus, the Misc. Case No. 54 of 2020 was disposed of. It is this order which is under challenge before this Court.

4. It had been argued by learned counsel for the petitioner Ms. Shreya Gupta that the learned District Judge had wrongly interpreted the relevant provisions of C.P.C. to hold that appeal would lie in a court having pecuniary jurisdiction for valuation of the suit. It was argued that a harmonious construction of the provisions contained under Order VIII Rule 6-A and Order XX Rule 19(2) of C.P.C. would lead to the conclusion that the counter claim for being treated as an independent suit for adjudication, therefore, its valuation would matter in choosing a forum for appeal arising out of the judgment of trial court. It is argued that Order VIII Rule 6-C itself provides that a counter claim cannot exceed the pecuniary limit of the jurisdiction of the court where the suit is pending.

5. So any counter claim with higher valuation would not lie before the concerned court trying the suit.

6. According to Ms. Gupta, therefore, the counter claim inviting an independent adjudication may be by way of common judgment by the trial court, would have to be taken as independent suit for all purpose including its valuation to chose a forum of appeal.

7. The next argument submitted was that Order XX Rule 19(1) and (2) of C.P.C. did not prescribe for regular appeals but for cases where the money decree was passed. It was also argued additionally, that Order XX Rule 19(1) of C.P.C. was only for the purposes of drawing a decree and not for providing a forum of appeal. According to her, the manner and method of drawing a decree has been the object for incorporating the relevant provisions under Order XX of C.P.C. by the legislature. According to learned Advocate Order XX Rule 1 and 2 of C.P.C. had nothing to do with Order XLI of C.P.C.

8. In support of her argument, learned counsel had relied upon the judgment of coordinate bench in the case of Cantonment Board v. Shakuntala Devi, 2018 (5) ADJ 647, a Supreme Court judgment in the case of Jag Mohan Chawla & Others v. Dera Radha Swami Satsang & Others, Civil Appeal No. 8275 of 1996 (arising out of S.L.P. (C) No. 22254 of 1994 decided on 07.05.1996 (MANU/ SC/ 0565/1996).

9. Per contra Sri Siddharth Srivastava learned Advocate had submitted that provisions regarding counter claim to be decided like a suit came to be incorporated by way of inserting Rule 6-A under Order VIII vide amending Act No. 104 of 1976 and simultaneously vide same amending Act, Order XX Rule 19(1) and 19(2) also came to be amended incorporating the words and expression "or counter claim" at various places. Thus, according to him whether it was a decree in a suit instituted or in the event counter claim was allowed against the plaintiff, appeal arising out of such decree shall be subject to the same provisions as applicable in respect of appeals, if no counter claim had been set up. He has also drawn the attention of the Court to first proviso to sub rule (1) of Rule 6-A of Order VIII that counter claim exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court where the suit was pending, shall not be entertained. Thus, according to him it was ultimately the valuation of the suit that would be a determinative factor for jurisdiction of a court whether decree in suit is challenged or decree in a counter claim of the same suit.

10. Learned counsel for the respondent Mr. Siddharth Srivastava has relied upon the judgment of coordinate bench of this Court in the case of Ashok Kumar Singh Sengar

vs. Om Prakash Chaturvedi, 2016 All. C.J. 1394, Division Bench of this Court in the case of Govind Singh vs. Rajendra Prasad Gupta, 2018 All. C.J. 1941. Judgment of Kerala High Court in the case of Pampara Philip vs. Koorithottiyil Kinhimohammed, 2007 0 AIR (Ker) 69 = 2006 0 Supreme (Ker) 680; Teofilo Barreto vs. Sadashiva G. Nasnodkar & Others, 2007 (3) Civil Court Cases 565 (Bombay).

11. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the records, pleadings raised, the order impugned, the relevant provisions of C.P.C. placed before me, I find the only issue to be, as to whether an appeal in the event of a decree passed by the trial court decreeing the counter claim would lie on the basis of valuation of counter claim or valuation of the suit. In order to appreciate the argument advanced by learned counsel appearing for the respective parties, it is necessary to reproduce the provisions as contained under Order VIII Rule 6-A of C.P.C. which is quoted herein below:

"6-A. Counter-claim by defendant.--(1) A defendant in a suit may, in addition to his right of pleading a set-off under Rule 6, set up, by way of counter-claim against the claim of the plaintiff, any right or claim in respect of a cause of action accruing to the defendant against the plaintiff either before or after the filing of the suit but before the defendant has delivered his defence or before the time limited for delivering his defence has expired, whether such counter-claim is in the nature of a claim for damages or not:

Provided that such counter-claim shall not exceed the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court.

(2) Such counter-claim shall have the same effect as a cross-suit so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in the same suit, both on the original claim and on the counter-claim.

(3) The plaintiff shall be at liberty to file a written statement in answer to the counter-claim of the defendant within such period as may be fixed by the Court.

(4) The counter-claim shall be treated as a plaint and governed by the rules applicable to plaints."

(Emphasis added)

12. From the provisions as quoted above, it is clear that the defendant has been vested with a right to set up a counter claim to the claim set up in the plaint. Sub rule (1) of Rule 6-A is very clear that once the suit has been brought in by the plaintiff whether before bringing the suit or after bringing the suit, if the defendant has a cause of action to set up a counter claim against the plaintiff, he may do so. So, he need not file a separate suit but to set up a counter claim, obviously the purpose being same and the suit property being same.

13. Sub rule (2) clearly provides that if such counter claim is set up then it will be treated for the purposes of adjudication like a cross suit so as to enable the court to pronounce the judgment on its own merit independent of the merit of the claim set up by the plaintiff and so in these circumstances, sub rule (3) provides for the plaintiff to file a written statement to the counter claim. The counter claim thus, has been directed to be treated as a plaint and shall be governed by rules applicable to the plaints. This is perhaps the reason why it has been held repeatedly by the court that the counter claim cannot be by way of pleadings seeking amendment in the written statement.

14. Though a counter claim can be set up along with the written statement as a plaint case for the defendant but what is very interesting in the provision is the first proviso to sub rule (1). The proviso does not permit a counter claim to exceed the pecuniary limit of jurisdiction of the court. Obviously the jurisdiction of the court means where the suit has been instituted, so any counter claim, if it is to be tried as per rule 6-A, it is to be within the pecuniary limits as far as jurisdiction of the court is concerned where the suit is pending.

15. Now it is also necessary to go through the relevant provisions as contained under Rule 19 of Order XX and its sub rules. The Rule 19 of Order XX is reproduced hereunder:

"19.. Decree when set-off [or counter-claim] is allowed.--(1) Where the defendant has been allowed a set-off [or counter-claim] against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which appears to be due to either party.

(2) Appeal from decree relating to set-off [or counter-claim].--Any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off [or counter-claim] is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject if not set-off [or counter-claim] had been claimed.

(3) The provisions of this rule shall apply whether the set-off is admissible under Rule 6 of Order VIII or otherwise."

(Emphasis added)

16. The heading of the rule 19 shows the words and expression "or counter claim" in caption and also so in sub rule (1) and (2). The caption part is linked to the amendment introduced in C.P.C. in these provisions vide amending Act No. 104 of 1976.

17. Interestingly rule 6-A of Order VIII is also inserted vide Amending Act No. 104 of 1976. This goes, therefore, to show clearly that legislature since was introducing a provision to enable the defendant in a suit to set up counter claim to be tried as an independent suit, wanted that appeal against the decree allowing the counter claim should be subject to same provisions as applicable to appeals arising out of the decrees in suit. Order XX talks of judgment and decree when to pronounce and how to pronounce. It also provides the format of the judgment and also to be signed by the Judge. Rule 5-A was also inserted in Order XX vide amendment Act No. 104 of 1976, which provides for the Judge while announcing the judgment in the event it is subject to appeal to inform the parties, as to the court to which the appeal lies and also the period of limitation for filing such appeal and also shall place on record the information so given to the parties. Thus, Order XX deals with appeals to be filed against the judgment at least to put the learned Judge under obligation to intimate the parties.

18. In so far as the judgment in the case of Cantonment Board (supra) is concerned, I find that in the said judgment the issue was entirely different. In the said case two suit proceedings were instituted while in one suit proceedings, the counter claim came to be allowed which was appealed against unsuccessfully in the first appeal then in second appeal and thus, the decree in the counter claim became final, but the opposite party Cantonment Board tried to raise a question as to the validity of the decree of the counter claim during the pendency of appeal arising out of the second suit. The court had held that once the counter claim had become final after the decree stood affirmed in the first appeal and second appeal and so it was not open for the cantonment board to raise question as to the maintainability of the counter claim in second appeal arising out of another suit. So it is in that context the court held the right of claim in respect of the cause of action accruing before the defendants against the plaintiff either before or after filing of the suit but of course, before the defendant had delivered his defence or before the time for delivering defence had expired. The court dealt with the issue and dismissed the appeal. Vide paras 23, 24 and 31 the court has held thus:

"23. With regard to the counter claim of the defendant-respondent no. 2 seeking a declaration against the Cantonment Board it is to be noted that the trial court by the impugned judgment decreed the counter claim of the defendant-respondent no. 2. Though a first appeal was filed by the Board against the judgment of the trial court decreeing the counter claim of the defendants the appellate court dismissed the appeal and no second appeal has been preferred against the said decree, decreeing the counter claim and therefore, the decree of the trial court with regard to the counter claim set up by the defendant-respondent no. 2 has become final and cannot be questioned in the present second appeal.

24. Even otherwise, the contention of the learned counsel for the appellant that the counter claim itself was not maintainable is wholly fallacious. Order VIII Rule 6-A of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that a defendant in a suit may, in addition to his right of pleading a set-off under Rule 6, set up, by way of counter-claim against the claim of the plaintiff, any right or claim in respect of a cause of action accruing before the defendant against the plaintiff either before or after the filing of the suit but before the defendant has delivered his defence or before the time for delivering defence has expired.

31. The right to set up a counter-claim was introduced in the Code of Civil Procedure by Amendment Act no. 104 of 1976 w.e.f. 1.2.1977 introducing Rule 6-A in Order VIII. Likewise the amendment in Order XX Rule 19 providing for appeal against a counter-claim was also introduced by the Amendment Act no. 104 of 1976 and Sub Rule 2 of Rule 19 clearly provides that any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off or counter-claim is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject, if no set-off or counter-claim had been claimed. Thus, when the counter-claim set up by the defendant-respondent no.2 had been decreed by the trial court it cannot be said that, that decree can be examined in the present second appeal without preferring any second appeal against the said decree. Having not preferred any second appeal against the decree in the counter-claim of the defendant-respondent no. 2 and the decree of the trial court decreeing the counter-claim of the defendant-respondent no. 2 having become final, in my opinion, it is not open for the appellants to question the same in the present second appeal."

(Emphasis added)

19. Order XX Rule 6 provides for contents of decree and as a sequel to the same Rule 19 provides for appeals and after inserting the words and expression 'counter claim' these provisions are also applicable to the judgment passed in counter claim.

20. In so far as the judgment in the case of Jag Mohan Chawla (supra) cited by Ms. Gupta, is concerned, the court in that case has also gone into this aspect of the matter that a the counter claim as has been conceived of and contemplated under Rule 6-A to 6-G of Order XX is virtually a cross suit to be adjudicated upon like an original suit and it may not relate through or connected with the original cause of action or pleadings raised by the plaintiff. The court held that the defendant may set up a cause of action which accrued to him even after the institution of suit.

21. I do not find any dispute to this above preposition of law. The provisions as contained under sub rule (1) of Rule 6-A clearly provides for maintaining the counter claim of the defendant may be for a cause of action prior to or subsequent to institution of the suit.

22. Now coming to the judgment cited by learned counsel for the respondents Mr. Srivastava in the case of Ashok Kumar Singh Sengar (supra), I find that a coordinate bench of this Court has very exhaustively dealt with the provisions as contained under Order XX Rule 19(2) of C.P.C. The coordinate bench relied upon the judgment of Full Bench of Bombay High Court and Kerala High Court that had been cited before me as well. The Court dealt with the provisions as contained under Order XX Rule 19 C.P.C. along with Rule 6-A of Order VIII of C.P.C. and ultimately held that for the purpose of maintaining appeal in the event a decree passed in counter claim was challenged, it was the valuation of the plaint that would matter. Vide paras 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 27 & 28 the court held thus:

"20. Order 20, Rule 19(2) specifically provides that any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off or counter-claim is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject if no set-off or counter-claim had been claimed. Therefore, on a plain reading if any decree passed in a suit shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject.

21. It is evident therefrom that where there is any set-off or counter-claim actually preferred, the decree would be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeals, as if no set-off or counter-claim had been claimed.

22. Now the provisions relating to appeals in respect of decree is not only governed by the provisions contained in Section 96 and Order XLI of the C.P.C., 1908, but also subject to the provisions contained in the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act 1887, the Limitation Act, 1963 and Court Fees Act, 1870.

23. Section 21 of the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act says that an appeal from a decree or order of a Civil Judge shall lie (a) to the District Judge where the value of the original suit in which or in any proceeding arising out of which the decree or order was made did not exceed five lakhs rupees (enhanced to 25 lakhs rupees for purposes of filing appeals to the District Judge vide U.P. Act 14 of 2015 w.e.f. 7 December, 2015) and that for the purpose of finding the forum of appeal it is the value of the original suit which has to be determined and not the value of the appeal itself, and if the value of the original suit is more than five lakhs rupees, whatever the value of the appeal may be, the appeal shall lie to the High Court. The subject matter of an appeal is valued according to the provisions of the Suits Valuation Act and the Court Fees Act. It is not governed by the Bengal, Agra and Assam Civil Courts Act. (Vide-Sri Purshottam Das Tandon and others Vs. Sri Shyam Nath Segal and others, (1952 AWR 450), Smt. Shalu sharma Vs.

Ajay Sharma (AIR 2003 (All) 18) and Gaya Prasad and others Vs.Ram Charan (AIR 1939 (All) 273).

24. The Full Bench of Bombay High Court in Kazi Syed Saifuddin Vs. Kasturehand Abhayrajji Golchha (2000 (4) Bom.C.R. 582); held that once the suit is valued and the jurisdiction of the Court is thus determined at the stage when the suit is instituted, that will be the valuation for the subsequent proceedings in the suit also. Obviously, therefore, the appeal being continuation of the suit, the valuation will govern appeal as well and for the purpose of forum of appeal. It was further held that where both suit and counter claim are dismissed, the subject matter of the appeal would be the plaint. Hence valuation would be as per the valuation of the plaint and Court fee as payable on the plaint, would be as due and payable thereon. The plaintiff cannot be made to value his appeal on the basis of the combined valuation of the plaint and counter claim, in respect of which he makes no claim. The report was subsequently followed in Teofilo Barreto Vs. Sadashiva G. Nasnodkar and others (2007 (4) Bom.C.R. 830).

27. The jurisdiction of the Appellate Court cannot be made dependent on the fluctuating valuation of the claim in appeal. The valuation of claim in appeal has relevance only for the purposes of court fee. The valuation for the purposes of determining jurisdiction and for the purpose of court fee are two distinct factors. They need not be identical or common. The appellant may restrict or relinquish part of the claim and accordingly pay proportionate court fee thereon.

28. The courts below in my opinion have correctly held that valuation of the suit would be valuation of the appeal for determining the jurisdiction of appellate court and not the combined value of the suit and counter claim."

(Emphasis added)

23. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Govind Singh (supra) has held that jurisdiction of appeal has to be governed by the valuation of the suit and not that of the cross appeal as the valuation of suit is normally static but that of appeal may vary depending upon the relief granted or refused by the court of first instance. Therefore, it could be a case where the suit of higher valuation is dismissed but the counter claim of lesser valuation is decreed in the said suit by a common judgment and decree. So far the purposes of payment of court fees the valuation would vary but as far as the jurisdiction is concerned, it will depend upon the valuation of the suit. Vide paras 13, 14, 15, 16 & 17 the Division Bench has held thus:

"13. Section 21 of the Act as amended vide U.P. Civil Laws (Amendment) Act, 2015 provides for the appeals from Civil Judges and it inter alia lays down that an appeal from a decree or an order of a Civil Judge shall lie to the District Judge where the value of the original suit does not exceed from Rs.5,00,000/- or such higher amount not exceeding Rs.25,00,000/- as the High Court may fix from time to time by notification in the official gazette. It means that appeals from Civil Judges would lie to the District Judge if the value of the original suit from which it arises is between Rs.5,00,000/- to Rs.25,00,000/- and the appeals arising from original suits of higher valuation would thus lie to the High Court.

14. A simple reading of the aforesaid Section 21 of the Act indicates that it is the value of the original suit that governs the jurisdiction of the appeal and not of the valuation of the appeal.

15. It may be noted that the valuation for the purposes of jurisdiction and for the purposes of court fees are two distinct factors.

16. The jurisdiction of the appeal has to be governed by the valuation of the suit and not that of the appeal as the valuation of the suit is normally statistic but that of the appeal may vary depending upon the relief granted or refused by the court of first instance. Thus, if the jurisdiction of appeal is made dependent upon the value of the appeal it will keep fluctuating.

17. It is therefore, to avoid such fluctuation in the jurisdiction of the appellate court that Section 21 of the Act provides that for the purposes of jurisdiction of appeal value of the original suit alone is relevant."

(Emphasis added)

24. In the case of Iqbal Banu v. Ramesh and others, 2018 LawSuit (Raj) 933, learned Single Judge of Rajasthan High Court (Hon'ble Justice Arun Bhansali, as his Lordship then was) has dealt with the aspect of the matter as to whether one appeal would be maintainable if decree is one dismising the suit and decreeing the counter claim, and held that if the decree is one then while challenging the decree passed in suit, the appellant can also challenge the decree passed in counter claim in the same appeal as there is no necessity to file a separate appeal. Vide paras 17, 18 & 19 the court has held thus:

"17. However, the judgments of Himachal Pradesh High Court in the case of Parso (supra) and H.P.State Forest Corporation (supra) as well as both the learned counsel appearing for the parties did not notice the statutory provisions contained in Order XX Rule 19 CPC, which reads as under:

"19. Decree When set-off or counter-claim is allowed.-

(1) Where the defendant has been allowed a set-off or counter claim against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which appears to be due to either party.

(2) Appeal from decree relating to set-off or counter claim.- Any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off or counter claim is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject if no set-off or counter-claim had been claimed.

(3) The provisions of this rule shall apply where the set- off is admissible under rule 6 of Order VIII or otherwise."

18. A bare look at the above provision would reveal that where the defendant is allowed a counter claim against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state so. The crucial provision is sub-rule (2) of Rule 19 which deals with appeal from the decree relating to (7 of 7) [CFA-166/2018] counter claim, which expressly provides that any decree passed in a suit in which a counter claim is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subjected, if no counter claim had been claimed.

19. Language of the provision is explicit, wherein, it has expressly provided that in an appeal from decree passed in suit where a counter claim has been claimed, the appeal would be filed as if no counter claim had been claimed, which necessarily means that the appeal would be against the decree passed in the main suit and the appellant would be entitled to question the passing of the decree on counter claim in the same appeal and, therefore, there is absolutely no necessity of filing separate appeal in case where the counter claim preferred in a suit has been decreed by the trial court."

(Emphasis added)

25. It is clear that if one appeal lies then one set of court fee will be payable and so also the jurisdiction of that court will get attracted where appeal is maintainable against decree passed in Suit. So it will result in dichotomy both in theory and propriety to hold that appeal against decree in suit will lie in a court of higher pecuniary jurisdiction for valuation of suit and appeal in the matter of counter claim would lie to a court inferior in hierarchy for lower valuation of counter claim. This neither appeals to logic nor, could be an intendment of the legislature.

26. In the case of Teofilo Barreto (supra) an issue arose as to forum to prefer appeal in the event suit is dismissed and counter claim is allowed and the learned Single Judge of Bombay High Court relied upon the Full Bench judgment of that very court in the case of Kazi Syed Saifuddin vs. Kasturchand Abhayrajji Golchha, 2000 (4) BOMCR 582, to hold that the forum of appeal would be determined on the basis of valuation of a suit and not the counter claim. In that case the Bombay High Court has held that in the provisions contained under Order XX Rule 19 of C.P.C. as have come to be amended, the set up off and counter claim are treated at par and have been brought on the same platform with the equal status, same treatment is to be given to the counter claim for the purposes of appeal as is given to a decree of set off. So the provisions for appeal would be the same as applicable to the decree of the suit as if no counter claim has been filed. The Court therefore, concluded that "If the legislative view is that the decree wherein the set off is claimed should go before the same Appellate Forum to which it would have been subject in normal course in absence of claim for set-off; then so far as the counter-claim is concerned; the same treatment will have to be accorded to a decree passed in a suit where counter-claim was preferred. As an extension of the same principle, the cross objection arising from the decree of set-off and/or counter-claim will have to be given similar treatment in the matter of determination of Appellate Forum." This same principle and analogy was made to apply to the cross objection.

27. Thus in view of the above exposition of law, the argument advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner that since the cause of action is relating to decree passed in counter claim is relating to the pleadings in the counter claim and the decree incorporates valuation of counter claim, it is this valuation would be relevant for determination of forum, is rejected. The principal proceedings being suit proceedings and a counter claim being an added advantage given to the defendant to get his claim tried also against the plaintiff but within the jurisdiction in which the suit has been instituted, would mean that it is the valuation of the suit which will determine the forum of appeal.

28. Applying the principle of analytical jurisprudence to the concept of law with which legal provisions have been structured by legislator in the Code of Civil Procedure, I find section 9 to be a substantive provision that provides for institution of a suit in a court of competent jurisdiction. Once the suit is instituted, different orders with rules provide for procedure to be followed and likewise for execution of a decree. Section 96, another section provides for first appeal and section 100 provides for second appeal. Order 41 provides for method of filing appeal and order 43 provides for misc. civil appeals against various orders, passed by court of first instance. Order VIII Rule 6-A provides for counter claim to be tried in a suit but puts a rider that counter claim will not exceed in its valuation so as to be beyond the pecuniary limit as to jurisdiction of trial court where suit is going on. Thus, it is well thought of provision to maintain that any counter claim to plaintiff's suit would be triable by the same court. Had there not been a suit, there would have been no counter claim except a fresh suit by such defendant. The legislation, therefore, in its wisdom rightly made valuation of suit to be a determination factor to maintain a counter claim as to forum for adjudication.

29. Again, therefore, legislature amended Order XX Rule 19 to include counter claim. Virtually a counter claim is like a set off claimed by defendant against claim for money set up by the plaintiff. The decree to uphold set off in a money suit is one and so also decree dismissing the suit and decreeing the counter claim is one and it is the decree which is appealable at a higher forum should also be a forum to question set off and so also decree passed in counter claim. So if plaintiff would chose a forum to challenge a decree dismissing the suit, shall have to chose that same forum for appeal against that very decree decreeing the counter claim. Plaintiff can not chose two forums to question a common decree on the basis of two different valuations qua suit and counter claim.

30. To address this issue from different angle is also necessary. If two forums are allowed to question a common decree, it may invite contrary judgments in appeal or in other words a court lower in hierarchy may be asked by higher court to wait for its judgment. This, if happens, will certainly frustrate the purpose with which right to file counter claim was vested in a plaintiff's suit. The argument by Ms. Gupta that right to second appeal will be lost if the order impugned is upheld, does not appeal to reason. Ms. Gupta's client has already filed first appeal before the High Court, and will have no opportunity of second appeal against that very judgment. Legislative action to provide for pecuniary jurisdiction to a court, cannot be a matter of debate. This is all done so in the wisdom of legislature and one cannot be permitted to question wisdom of legislature, the ultimate law makers.

31. Thus, for the purpose of payment of court fees the valuation of decreed counter claim will be relevant but for the purpose of jurisdiction so as to select a forum of appeal, it is the valuation of suit which would be relevant. The District Judge therefore, rightly held that appeal was not maintainable.

32. Petition thus on this count lacks merit as no error of law is seen in the judgment passed by the District Judge. However, it is left open for the petitioner to either seek amendment in the first appeal pending before this Court or file a separate first appeal challenging the decree allowing the counter claim and move an appropriate application also along with that seeking benefit of Section 14 of Limitation Act, 1963.

32. Thus, this petition decided accordingly.

(2024) 5 ILRA 389
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NEERAJ TIWARI, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 6031 of 2024

Gopal Ji Agrawal ...Petitioner
Versus
Anurag Kumar Dixit & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Kamlesh Kumar Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondents:
Manoj Singh Rathaur, Udayan Nandan

Civil Law – Civil Procedure Code,1908 – Section 47 - O. 13 - Rule 10(1) - SCC Suit was filed by landlord/petitioner on 8.12.1981, dismissed, not accepting tenant landlord relationship - SCC Revision was filed by petitioner, dismissed - Writ Petition was filed challenging both orders, allowed - Thereafter, Review Application was filed by tenant/defendant, dismissed - S.L.P. was filed before Hon'ble Apex Court by tenant, dismissed - Issue attained finality - Tenant filed application u/s 47 CPC - Executing court dismissed - Tenant filed SCC Revision, dismissed – Both orders challenged in High Court, dismissed – Application under O. 13 R. 10(1) filed by defendant, for summoning record - Dismissed – Revision filed by tenant – Stayed – Impugned Order – Held, revision must be confined to facts mentioned in original application - Passing the interim order, considering new fact beyond original application under O. 13 R. 10(1) CPC is bad in law – Hence, impugned order quashed (Para 3, 5, 19, 22)

Petition allowed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Pradeep Mehra Vs Harijivan J. Jethwa (since deceased THR. LRS.) & ors. (Civil Appeal No. 6375 of 2023)

2. Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) Thr. Lrs. & ors.Vs Kripa Shankar (Dead) Thr. Lrs. & ors.; 2014(5) SCC 707

3. Jagbir Singh Vs VIth Additional District and Sessions Judge Bijnor & ors.; 1997(30) ALR 358

4. Haryana Vidyut, Parsaran Nigam Limited & anr. Vs Gulshan Lal & ors.; 2009 (13) SCC 354

5. Mr. Love Jain Vs Sh. Manak Chand Jain; 2010(173) DLT 534

6. Satya Narain & ors.Vs District Judge, Churu & ors.; 2009 (1) W.L.N. 520

(Delivered by Hon'ble Neeraj Tiwari, J.)

1. Heard Sri Kamlesh Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for petitioner and Sri Sashi Nandan, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Udayan Nandan along with Sri Chandan Sharma, learned counsel for respondents.

2. Present petition has been filed with following relief;

" It is therefore most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to set aside entire proceeding of Civil Revision No. 4/2024 (Anurag Kumar Dixit Vs. Sitaram and others) pending in the court of District Judge, Azamgarh and also further be pleased to set aside the impugned order dated 25.1.2024 passed by In-charge District Judge, Azamgarh in Civil Revision No. 4/2024 Anurag Kumar Dixit Vs. Sitaram and others)."

3. Brief facts of the case are that SCC Suit No. 8 of 1981 was filed by landlord/petitioner on 8.12.1981 and after hearing the parties, the same was dismissed on 27.11.1991 not accepting the tenant landlord relationship. Against the said order, SCC Revision No. 1 of 1992 was filed by the landlord/ petitioner, which was also dismissed vide order dated 20.07.1992. Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 42284 of 1992 was filed before this Court challenging both the orders, which was allowed vide order dated 18.09.2008. Thereafter, Civil Misc. Review Application No. 250566 of 2008 was filed by the tenant, which was dismissed on 23.03.2010. S.L.P. No. 16223-16224/2010 was also filed before Hon'ble Apex Court by the tenant against the orders dated 18.09.2008 and 23.03.2010, which was dismissed on 7.2.2017. Issue attained finality.

4. As matter was remanded, SCC Court has again heard the case and SCC Suit No. 8 of 1981 also decreed on 22.03.2010. Thereafter, execution case no. 3 of 2010 was also filed by the landlord/ petitioner on 13.10.2010. Tenant filed SCC Revision No. 98 of 2010 challenging the order/ decree dated 22.3.2010. After hearing both the parties SCC Revision No. 98 of 2010 was dismissed vide order dated 23.01.2016. The aforesaid two orders were assailed by filing Misc. Petition U/A 227 No. 2639 of 2016 before this Court, which was dismissed vide order dated 18.10.2019. Matter attained finality as no SLP was filed.

5. Thereafter, defendant/tenant has also filed application to adjourn the case for filing objection under Section 47 CPC. After hearing the application filed by the tenant, executing court dismissed the objection on 5.5.2022. The order dated 5.5.2022 was assailed by the tenant/ defendant by filing SCC Revision No. 55 of 2022, which was also dismissed on 3.8.2022. The orders dated 5.5.2022 & 3.8.2022 were assailed by the tenant/defendant by filing Misc. Petition No. 6945 of 2022 on 17.8.2022. On 2.11.2022, Misc. Petition No. 2639 of 2016 and Misc. Petition No. 6945 of 2022 were clubbed together and dismissed after hearing the parties.

6. Thereafter, one another application was filed by tenant/ defendant under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC for summoning the record of Original Suit No. 35 of 1958 in which landlord/ decree holder has filed objection. On 18.01.2024, executing court after hearing the objection filed by decree holder bearing 251 Ga2, dismissed the application. Thereafter, tenant/ defendant challenged the order dated 18.01.2024 by filing revision before District Judge, Azamgarh and vide order dated 25.01.2024, order passed by executing court dated 18.01.2024 was stayed.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that application No. 251 Ga2 has been filed under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC only to delay the execution proceeding, which was rightly rejected by execution court vide order dated 18.01.2024 observing the same.

8. He next submitted that against that Civil Revision No. 4 of 2024 was filed by the tenant/ defendant entirely on different facts, which are not the part of earlier application filed under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC in which revisional court has incorrectly stayed the order dated 18.01.2024 in execution proceeding. He firmly submitted that first of all, record so summoned through application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC is not relevant for present controversy as the execution court may not travel beyond the judgment and decree passed by SCC Court. Secondly, revision may not be filed on a new fact about the pendency of application filed under Section 47 CPC, which is not the part of application filed under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC. In fact, in this application, there is no whisper about the pendency of application under Section 47 CPC. Therefore, on both the counts, revision absolutely lacks merit and liable to be dismissed, but contrary to this, it was entertained and order of stay has also been passed in teeth of settled provisions of law. Therefore, present petition may be allowed and impugned order dated 25.01.2024 may be quashed. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance upon the judgment of Apex Court as well as different judgments of other Court in the matters of Pradeep Mehra Vs. Harijivan J. Jethwa (since deceased THR. LRS.) & Others (Civil Appeal No. 6375 of 2023) decided on 30.10.2023, Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) Thr. Lrs. & others Vs. Kripa Shankar (Dead) Thr. Lrs. & others; 2014(5) SCC 707, Jagbir Singh Vs. VIth Additional District and Sessions Judge Bijnor and others; 1997(30) ALR 358, Haryana Vidyut, Parsaran Nigam Limited & another Vs. Gulshan Lal & others; 2009 (13) SCC 354, Mr. Love Jain Vs. Sh. Manak Chand Jain; 2010(173) DLT 534 & Satya Narain & others Vs. District Judge, Churu & others; 2009 (1) W.L.N. 520`.

9. Learned Senior Counsel could not dispute the fact that pendency of Section 47 CPC has not been raised in application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC and first time raised in revision, but only submitted that once application under Section 47 CPC is pending, execution proceeding may not be completed, therefore, revisional court has rightly stayed the process (parwana).

10. I have considered the rival submissions advance by learned counsel for the parties and perused the record as well as judgments relied upon.

11. From the perusal, it is apparently clear that two rounds of litigation had taken place. First round was about the tenant- landlord relationship, matter went up to the Apex Court and decided in favour of petitioner-landlord. Likewise in second round was for disposal of suit on merits, the matter was again decided in favour of petitioner-landlord, which attained finality at the stage of High Court as order of High Court has never been challenged before the Apex Court.

12. Now coming to the issue present before this Court. Undisputedly, in application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC, defendant/ tenant are praying for summoning the record of Original Suit No. 35 of 1958 (Fern Rekhchand and others Vs. Sitaram and others), which is not relevant as the present execution proceeding was initiated to execute the judgment and decree dated 23.03.2010 in SCC Suit No. 8 of 1981. In fact, record of Original Suit No. 35 of 1958 cannot be taken into consideration for the very simple reason that executing court cannot travel beyond the judgment and decree for which execution proceeding has already been initiated. Therefore, this Court is of the firm view that filing of application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC is nothing, but an attempt to adopt delay tactics.

13. The very similar issue was before the Apex Court in the matter of Pradeep Mehra (supra). Relevant paragraph is quoted below;

"A bare perusal of the aforesaid provision shows that all questions between the parties can be decided by the executing court. But the important aspect to remember is that these questions are limited to the "execution of the decree". The executing court can never go behind the decree. Under Section 47, CPC the executing court cannot examine the validity of the order of the court which had allowed the execution of the decree in 2013, unless the court's order is itself without jurisdiction. More importantly this order (the order dated 12.02.2013), was never challenged by the tenants/ judgment debtors before any forum."

14. This matter was also before this Court in the matter of Jagbir Singh (supra). Relevant paragraphs are being quoted below;

"10. Executing court can not go behind the decree is a well settled principle of law. The executing court is not invested with the right to determine controversial questions which are the basis of the decree to be executed. It can not go into such questions and act as a trial court.

11. The power of the executing court travels only to the extent of interpreting the decree or to identify the propriety. Even for the purpose of identifying the property or interpreting the decree it can not take additional evidence. It was so held in the case of Lalmani v. Shiv Shanker, AIR 1980 Patna 134 and Sheshwar Bhartia v. Udiasthree, (1994) Civil Law Journal 297 (Ori.) when a new right is claimed, which requires adjudication of a right in the property and thus indirectly seeking to avoid the decree passed, is in effect an adjudication leading to go behind the decree. In the case of Sarwan Lal v. Kami Prasad, AIR 1986 Allahabad 1, it was held that the objection to executability of decree which boils down to challenging the maintainability of suit can not be taken before the executing court. A mixed question of law and fact can not be raised for the first time in execution case Bhawarao v. Saritribai, AIR 1991 Bombay 55 at page 59 Objection tending to show that the decree is erroneous can not be raised under Section 47 CPC. In Manful Hussain v. Kiran Rano, (1993) 2 Civil Law Journal 456 (M.P.) in V.D. Modi v. R. Rahman, AIR 1970 Supreme Court 1475 the Apex Court held that the general rule is that an executing court can not go behind the decree. It must take the decree as it is and must proceed to execute it. It can not entertain an objection that the decree is incorrect in law or facts. In Addison Pains v. Sant Bux, AIR 1976 Delhi 137, it was held that Section 47 does not entitle the court to investigate into the question of validity of the decree when on the face of it there is nothing illegal in it."

15. Apex Court has also considered the same matter in the Haryana Vidyut, Parsaran Nigam Limited (supra). Relevant paragraphs are being quoted below;

"20. As indicated hereinbefore, for the purpose of allowing an objection filed on behalf of a judgment debtor under Section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, it was incumbent on him to show that the decree was ex facie nullity. For the said purpose, the court is precluded from making an indepth scrutiny as regards the entitlement of the plaintiff with reference to not only his claim made in the plaint but also the defence set up by the judgment- debtor. As the judgment of the Trial Court could not have been reopened, the correctness thereof could not have been put to question.

It is also well known that an Executing Court cannot go behind the decree. If on a fair interpretation of the judgment, Order and decree passed by a court having appropriate jurisdiction in that behalf, the relief sought for by the plaintiff appear to have been granted, there is no reason as to why the Executing Court shall deprive him from obtaining the fruits of the decree.

In Deepa Bhargava v. Mahesh Bhargava, 2009(1) RCR (Civil) 507: 2009(1) RAJ 202 : [2008(16) SCALE 305], this Court held as under:

"11…. An executing court, it is well known, cannot go behind the decree. It has no jurisdiction to modify a decree. It must execute the decree as it is. A default clause contained in a compromise decree even otherwise would not be considered to be penal in nature so as to attract the provisions of Section 74 of the Indian Contract Act."

22. We are not oblivious of the fact that the respondents legally would not have been entitled to the reliefs prayed for by them. However, as a decree has been passed, we do not intend to go behind the same. The Executing Court shall, it goes without saying, execute the decree strictly in terms thereof."

16. From perusal of judgments referred hereinabove, it is apparently clear that executing court cannot sit in appeal over the judgment and decree, which is to be executed and cannot examine the validity of judgment and decree. Execution Court has no jurisdiction to travel beyond the judgment and decree, but to execute the same. Therefore, Execution Court has rightly rejected the application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC.

17. Now coming to the scope of revision, this Court is of the view that in a question of fact, which has not been raised in original application cannot be raised while filing revision.

18. The similar issue was before the Apex Court in the matter of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) (supra). Relevant paragraph is being quoted below;

"According to the legal principle laid down by this Court in the case mentioned above, the power of the Revisional Authority under Section 48 of the Act only extends to ascertaining whether the subordinate courts have exceeded their jurisdiction in coming to the conclusion. Therefore, if the Original and Appellate Authorities are within their jurisdiction, the Revisional Authority cannot exceed its jurisdiction to come to a contrary conclusion by admitting new facts either in the form of documents or otherwise, to come to the conclusion. Therefore, we answer point no. 1 in favour of the appellants by holding that the Revisional Authority exceeded its jurisdiction under Section 48 of the Act by admitting documents at revision stage and altering the decision of the subordinate courts."

19. In present case, undisputedly, in application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC, there is no whisper about the pendency of objection under Section 47 CPC rather the same was filed to summon the record of Original Suit No. 35 of 1958 except that nothing has been stated therein, therefore, pendency of application under Section 47 CPC cannot be a ground to be entertained by the revisional court. The revision must be confined to the facts mentioned in the original application. Passing the interim order considering any new fact beyond the original application under Order 13 Rule 10(1) CPC is bad in law. Therefore, revisional court has erred while entertaining the revision and staying the order dated 18.01.2024. Apex Court has also taken the same view that revision cannot be entertained beyond the facts, which is not the part of original application.

20. In fact after two rounds of litigation, which are attained finality at the level of Apex Court as well as High Court, filing of such application before the Execution Court is nothing but misuse of process of law. Similar issue was before the Delhi High Court in the matter of Mr. Love Jain (supra) and Delhi High Court has taken the same view. Relevant paragraphs are being quoted below;

"24. In the present case, petitioners having lost up to Supreme Court, now in the second round of litigation have filed frivolous objections just to deny the fruits of award which was made in favour of the respondent.

25. Present petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is nothing but gross abuse of process of law. A strong message is required to be sent to those litigants who are in the habit of filing bogus and frivolous objections in the execution proceedings and thereby deprive the decree holder fruits of the award passed in its favour."

21. Rajasthan High Court in the matter of Satya Narain (supra) has also considered the similar dispute that continuance of such proceeding entertaining the frivolous application amount to abuse of process of law. Relevant paragraphsd are being quoted below;

"17. Here in this case, when the facts are not in dispute and the facts show that judicial pronouncements by the courts either attained the finality or the applicant could not get the relief in his own suit and appeal and further appeal, then he submitted this application under Section 151 CPC before the court which cannot entertain the application for the relief prayed and there is no plea even for namesake how the application of the respondent is maintainable, then this Court is not inclined to reject the writ petition of the petitioners to perpetuate the harm which may be caused by the continuation of the proceedings in the court below initiated on the application filed by the respondent. At this juncture, this fact cannot be ignored that the judgment debtor in the civil original suit no.17/2004 is not a stranger but alleged to be closely associated with the present respondent Bajrang Lal and it is alleged that both Bhagwati Prasad and Bajrang Lal were members of the management committee governing the school in question.

18. Satya Narain & Ors. vs. District Judge, Churu & Ors. The further reason for entertaining this petition is that the respondent's suit itself has been dismissed by the trial court under Order 7 Rule 11 CPC and that dismissal has been upheld by this Court vide detail judgment dated 3.7.2006 and the Hon'ble Apex Court rejected the respondent's prayer for grant of interim relief. The respondent, therefore, is virtually trying to undo what has been done by the orders of the Court in his own suit by the trial court by judgment and decree dated 13.1.2006 and by this Court by judgment dated 3.7.2006 and furthermore, when injunction application has been dismissed by the Hon'ble Apex Court. How the respondent, who is pursuing his suit, can during pendency of that suit, seek a relief under Section 151 CPC which will necessarily involve determination of his right, title or interest in the property in question. It is case of rarest of rate nature because of the reason that the plaintiffs who were successful in the litigation initiated in the year 1994 after consuming ten years in the trial court and thereafter successful in the High Court wherein this Court dismissed the appeal of the judgment debtor and the respondent lost in his SB Civil Writ Petition No.1052/2008 Satya Narain & Ors. vs. District Judge, Churu & Ors. suit and regular appeal and the Hon'ble Apex Court specifically refused the interim relief, the High Court may under Article 227 of the Constitution of India exercise jurisdiction in pending proceedings in civil court in rarest of rate case and it is one of such case where the continuation of the proceedings in the trial court will amount to abuse of process of the court."

22. Therefore, under such facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned order dated 25.1.2024 passed by Revisional Court/ In-charge District Judge, Azamgarh is hereby quashed and petition is allowed. Execution Court is directed to proceed in accordance with law and complete the execution proceeding at the earliest considering this fact that SCC Suit for eviction was filed in 1981.

23. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 395
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE NALIN KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 9451 of 2023

Indu Awasthi @ Sarvendra Awasthi & Ors. ...Petitioners

Versus

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Mahesh Pandey, Narendra Kumar Singh, Santosh Kumar Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Section 306 – The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Sections 173(8), 156(3) - On application u/s 156(3) Cr.P.C. by informant, the learned Special Judge directed the Station Officer to register a criminal case, in compliance of this, an F.I.R. u/s 306 IPC was registered against seven named persons and one unknown person including present petitioners - Police submitted charge-sheet – Application for further investigation - Rejected by Magistrate - Scope of Section 173(8) Cr.P.C. - Held, an application to conduct further investigation moved by accused was misconceived, without any right provided to accused by law - Case was thoroughly investigated by I.O. and he noticed that one earlier application was moved by informant alleging the same facts therein , he conducted the investigation accordingly and mentioned this fact in charge-sheet - Power to make order as to further investigation is available to Magistrate u/s 156 (3) CrPC even at post-cognizance stage until trial commences i.e. charges are framed – It can exercised suo motu by Magistrate himself, depending on facts of each case - No locus standi to move application – Hence, no illegality in impugned order and accordingly dismissed. (Para 3, 4, 34, 36, 38, 39)

Petition dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Babubhai Vs St. of Gujarat & ors., 2010 AIR SCW 5126

2. St. Through Central Bureau of Investigation Vs Hemendhra Reddy & anr., Etc., 2023 SCC Online SC 515

3. Vinay Tyagi Vs Irshad Ali @ Deepak & ors. reported in (2013) 5 SCC 762

4. Ram Lal Narang Vs State (Delhi Admn.), AIR 1979 SC 1791

5. Nirmal Singh Kahlon Vs St. of Pun. & ors., (2009) 1 SCC 441

6. Sri Bhagwan Samardha Sreepada Vs Venkata Vishwandadha Maharaj Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh & Others, AIR 1999 Supreme Court 2332

7. National Multi Commodity Exchange of India Ltd. Vs St. of Guj. & anr. (Special Criminal Application (Quashing) No. 1359 of 2014

8. Nitinbhai Mangubhai Patel Vs St. of Guj. & ors. reported in 2013 LawSuit(Guj) 1124

(Delivered by Hon'ble Nalin Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri U.K. Saxena, Senior Advocate assisted by Sri S.K. Pandey, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Additional Government Advocate appearing for the State-respondent.

2. By way of present petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners have made a prayer to issue an order / direction to stay the effect and operation of the impugned order dated 29.08.2023 passed by Judicial Magistrate, Hawali, Farrukhabad whereby the application in Case Crime No.111 of 2021 under Section 306 IPC, P.S. Kotwali Fatehgarh, District Farrukhabad bearing Case No.04 of 2023 (State Vs. Gunjan Awasthi and others) for further investigation, under Section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. read with Section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. moved by the petitioners was rejected. Further prayer has been made that the Investigating Agency be directed by order / direction to make further investigation under Section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. in the case mentioned here-in-above.

3. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that on an application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by the informant Rachna Singh being Criminal Misc. Case No.139/12/2021, the learned Special Judge (D.A.A.) / III Addl. Session Judge, Farrukhabad passed an order dated 25.8.2021 directing the Station Officer, Police Station Kotwali, Farrukhabad to register a criminal case under relevant sections on the aforesaid application and in compliance of the said order of the court, an F.I.R. as case crime no.111 of 2021 under Section 306 IPC was registered against seven named persons and one unknown person including the present petitioners at Police Station Kotwali - Farrukhabad, District Farrukhabad.

4. It is further submitted that after investigation, the police submitted charge-sheet dated 12.4.2021 under section 306 IPC against six accused persons including the present petitioners and the investigation was continued against one of the accused persons Amit Shukla.

5. It is further urged that Crl. Misc. Writ Petition No.10539 of 2022 was preferred by the present petitioners before this Court with a prayer to command the respondents / Investigating Officer to make further investigation under section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. in the above mentioned case crime number wherein this Court, after examining and determining the question involved therein, came to the conclusion that to pass direction for further investigation in this matter was not required and the relief was declined to the petitioners, but however the petitioners were left on liberty to pursue their remedy before the Magistrate if necessary ingredients for invoking such jurisdiction is shown to exist in the matter, vide order dated 10.8.2022.

6. Another submission is that before the Court of Magistrate concerned, an application under Section 156 (3) read with 173 (8) Cr.P.C. was moved praying for further investigation in Case No.1108 of 2021, which was rejected by the Magistrate vide order dated 29.8.2023.

7. It is further submitted by the learned counsel for he petitioners that meanwhile the cognizance order of the Magistrate dated 11.6.2021 after submission of charge-sheet into the matter, was also challenged before the Sessions Judge, Farrukhabad by way of Criminal Revision No.70 of 2021 by the present petitioners, but after hearing, the same was dismissed by the Sessions Judge, Farrukhabad vide order dated 5.10.2021.

8. Advancing his argument the learned counsel for the petitioners vehemently submitted that from the perusal of application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by the informant Smt. Rachna Singh, prima facie no offence was made out against the present petitioners under section 306 IPC and surprisingly after lodging of the F.I.R., no investigation was made on the point of abetment or instigation on the part of the petitioners to the deceased, which led him to commit suicide and charge-sheet was submitted in haste by the Investigating Officer without ascertaining the fact that prima facie the ingredients to establish an offence under section 306 IPC were absolutely not existing against the present petitioners and that is why the petitioners were compelled to move an application under section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. for further investigation into the matter to find out whether any act of abetment or instigation by the petitioners to the deceased was made out and prima facie evidence in this connection was available to the Investigating Officer or not, but the learned Magistrate did not appreciate the contentions raised by the petitioners and in an illegal manner and without considering the applicability of relevant laws on the point, rejected the said application of the petitioners which again compelled the petitioners to move present petition before this Court.

9. Another limb of argument put forth before this Court by the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the impugned order is illegal, perverse and erroneous both on fact and law. This is the matter which certainly requires superintending authority and command of the High Court to be acted upon.

10. Per contra, learned A.G.A. opposed the prayer made in the petition and it has been vehemently argued that the power to further investigate into the matter after submission of police report under section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. lies with the investigating agency under section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. and the permission of the court is not required in all cases.

11. Before adverting to the rival submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties, apt would be to determine as to what is the actual scope of the provisions of section 173 (8) Cr.P.C.

12. It is provided under section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. that –

"Section 173 (8) - Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preclude further investigation in respect of an offence after a report under sub-section (2) has been forwarded to the Magistrate and, where upon such investigation, the officer-in-charge of the police station obtains further evidence, oral or documentary, he shall forward to the Magistrate a further report or reports regarding such evidence in the form prescribed; and the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (6) shall, as far as may be, apply in relation to such report or reports as they apply in relation to a report forwarded under sub-section (2)."

13. The police report submitted to the Court under section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. is, in fact, a bundle of facts and evidence, which is collected by the Probe agency during investigation. The concluding remark of the I.O. of the case on the basis of the collection of relevant facts and evidence may be termed as police report filed under section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. whether it supports the F.I.R. version or not. Normally if it supports the prosecution version given in the F.I.R., it is called a charge-sheet in popular terms and if not, it is taken as a final report or closure report although, interestingly both the words i.e. charge-sheet and final / closure report have not been used under any provision of Cr.P.C. The court, which is competent to take cognizance upon the police report under section 190 (1) (b) of Cr.P.C., takes the police report as a base whereupon it takes cognizance of the case and proceeds with the case for further action.

14. The question which arises in the case in hand takes the case one step further to the submission of the charge-sheet and drives the Court into the sphere of further investigation, which means an investigation, which is prayed for after the police report under section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. has already been submitted, but not a re-investigation into the case.

15. Since the learned State counsel has specifically mentioned that the order for further investigation could not be passed by the Court where the police report under section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. was submitted and it was the prerogative of the Investigating Agency to make further investigation into the matter or not, he was intending to submit that the learned Magistrate made no mistake in rejecting the application for further investigation at the instance of accused persons / present petitioners as they were not entitled to move any application for further investigation into the matter before the court. Learned State counsel in this way tried to restrict the power of the court, which could be invoked under section 173 (8) Cr.P.C. and at the same time the liberty of the accused to move an application with the prayer for the same has also been put to question. The matter certainly requires consideration.

16. In Babubhai vs. State of Gujarat and others, 2010 AIR SCW 5126, Hon'ble the Apex Court had an occasion to look into the scope of further investigation and it was so held that –

"The Scheme of investigation, particularly, Section 173 (8), provides for further investigation and not of re-investigation. Therefore, if the Court, comes to the conclusion that the investigation has been done in a manner with an object of helping a party, the Court may direct for further investigation and ordinarily not for re-investigation. The expression "ordinarily" means normally and it is used where there can be an exception. Thus, in the exceptional circumstances, the Court in order to prevent the miscarriage of criminal justice, if considers necessary, it may direct for investigation de novo wherein the case presents exceptional circumstances."

17. Further, in State Through Central Bureau of Investigation Vs. Hemendhra Reddy & Another, Etc., 2023

SCC Online SC 515 (Criminal Appeal Nos.1300 - 1302 of 2023, decided on April 28, 2023) examining the scope of power of the Court and investigating agency in respect of a matter relating to further investigation and also power of Court to take cognizance on a charge-sheet submitted by the Probe agency as an outcome of further investigation after once submission of final report into the matter, it was held that even after the final report is laid before the Magistrate and is accepted, it is permissible for the investigating agency to carry out further investigation in the case. There is no bar against conducting further investigation under Section 173(8) of the CrPC after the final report submitted under Section 173(2) of the CrPC has been accepted. Prior to carrying out further investigation under Section 173(8) of the CrPC it is not necessary that the order accepting the final report should be reviewed, recalled or quashed. Though the order passed by the Magistrate accepting a final report under Section 173 is a judicial order, there is no requirement for recalling, reviewing or quashing the said order for carrying out further investigation under Section 173(8) of the CrPC. There is nothing in the CrPC to suggest that the court is obliged to hear the accused while considering an application for further investigation under Section 173(8) of the CrPC. Mere fact that there may be further delay in concluding the trial should not stand in the way of further investigation if that would help the court in arriving at the truth and do real and substantial and effective justice.

18. It was further clarified that further investigation is merely a continuation of the earlier investigation, hence it cannot be said that the accused are being subjected to investigation twice over. Investigation cannot be put at par with prosecution and punishment so as to fall within the ambit of Clause (2) of Article 20 of the Constitution. The plea of double jeopardy would, therefore, not be applicable to further investigation.

19. A rider was provided on the power of police to carry further investigation in Vinay Tyagi vs. Irshad Ali alias Deepak and Others reported in (2013) 5 SCC 762 wherein it was cautioned that a police officer can carry on further investigation even after a report under section 173 (2) of the Cr.P.C. is submitted, in view of section 173 (8) of the Cr.P.C., but only rider being that the police should seek formal permission from the Court.

20. The same view was earlier expressed in Ram Lal Narang vs. State (Delhi Admn.), AIR 1979 SC 1791 wherein it was observed that further investigation is not altogether ruled out merely because cognizance has been taken by the court. When defective investigation comes to light during course of trial, it may be cured by further investigation, if circumstances so permitted. It would ordinarily be desirable and all the more so in this case, that the police should inform the court and seek formal permission to make further investigation when fresh facts come to light.

21. The controversy involved in the matter in hand at this juncture leads the Court to some factual aspect of the matter. In the present case, F.I.R. was lodged by the order of the Court of Special Judge (D.A.A.) / III Additional Session Judge, Farrukhabad vide order dated 25.8.2021 on an application moved by the informant Rachna Singh under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. In the said application it was alleged that Gunjan Awasthi son of Indu Awasthi made a telephonic call to Mangal Singh, husband of the informant, and told him to come to his house whereupon he along with his friend Deepu went to the house of Gunjan Awasthi. The aforesaid Deepu was returned back by Gunjan Awasthi and some other persons including a servant and his elder brother Gaurav Awasthi and subsequently her husband Mangal Singh was bitterly assaulted after being tied up with a chair and when Raj Pratap Singh, the friend of her husband reached there on call, her husband was again assaulted before him as well, who anyhow rescued and informed the informant about the incident. On intimation given by the informant to the police, the police reached the house of Gunjan Awasthi and her husband was released, who was kept confined wrongfully in the house of Gunjan Awasthi for many hours and they also looted about Rs. 6000/- from her husband and also threatened him for life. After the said incident, her husband was threatened and pressurized illegally by the accused persons and he was also harassed and subjected to cruelty physically and mentally both by them and subsequently he committed suicide on 16.3.2021.

22. After lodging of the F.I.R. at case crime no.111 of 2021 under section 306 IPC against a total number of 8 persons (six named, one unknown and one servant of accused Gunjan Awasthi) based upon an application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by Smt. Rachna Singh, investigation started, which culminated into charge-sheet under section 306 IPC against the aforesaid accused persons except the absconding accused Amit Shukla against whom the investigation was kept pending and cognizance of the case was taken by the court and in the said charge-sheet, it was also mentioned by the I.O. that on the basis of same facts, another F.I.R. as case crime no.745 of 2021 under sections 395, 342, 306 IPC was also lodged by the same informant in respect of the same incident. In the matter which was initiated on an application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. moved by the deceased Mangal Singh himself (in amended manner which was made by Smt. Rachna Singh), F.I.R. was also lodged as case crime no.745 of 2021 under sections 395, 342, 306 IPC and after investigation a final report was submitted into the matter. The I.O. mentioned therein that as an outcome of the investigation, case under section 395, 342 IPC was found to be false and so far as the offence under section 306 IPC is concerned, since a charge-sheet had already been submitted by the police for the said offence earlier in case crime no.111 of 2021, final report no.143 of 2021 dated 14.9.2021 is being submitted.

23. Now the outcome of the entire investigation was that offence under section 306 IPC was prima facie found to be made out against the present petitioners and charge-sheet in respect of the said offence was submitted by the police.

24. The application for further investigation in case crime no.111 of 2021 after submission of charge-sheet was though entertained by the court, but it was rejected by the impugned order dtd. 29.08.2023 passed by Judicial Magistrate, Hawali, Farrukhabad.

25. In the aforesaid application for further investigation, it was alleged that the whole story disclosed in the application under section 156 (3) Cr.P.C. which subsequently was reproduced in the F.I.R. lodged under the order of the court, is false and fabricated and it was alleged that an agreement to sale was executed between the deceased and Amit Shukla, but when the deceased did not play his role in the agreement, he was pressurized by Amit Shukla for executing the sale deed in his favour, who had already given Rs.6,80,000/- to him on 21.6.2018 and the outstanding amount of Rs.7,50,000/- was to be paid by Amit Shukla, but subsequently Mangal Singh (deceased) refused to execute the sale deed in his favour and committed suicide on 16.3.2021. Subsequent to that, another agreement to sale was executed by Smt. Rachna Singh and Munshi Lal without refunding the money to the tune of Rs.6,80,000/-. During investigation, statement of Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore, advocate and Pawan Singh @ Sonu was recorded by the police and in the application for further investigation, it was alleged by accused Indu Awasthi @ Sarvendra Awasthi that Advocate Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore was involved in criminal activities and extorting money from many persons. He also tried to extort amount for a sum of Rs.80 lakh and F.I.R. was lodged in that case and charge-sheet was also submitted against the petitioner Indu Awasthi. He was also said to be an eyewitness of the incident which happened with the husband of the informant, but still he filed his vakalatnama on behalf of the complainant on 17.8.2021. It was further alleged that Pawan Singh, who is junior advocate of Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore, was also an eyewitness of the incident.

26. The further investigation was prayed for on the ground that Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore was in inimical terms with the petitioner and he tried to grab money from him by lodging false and frivolous F.I.R with the help of the informant Smt. Rachna Singh and he also used his status of advocacy in pressurizing the investigating agency for submitting the charge-sheet against the petitioner and other persons. It is further mentioned in the said application for further investigation that in an application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. registered as Application No.614 of 2022 (Indu Awasthi @ Sarvendra Awasthi vs. State of U.P. and others), an order was passed by the High Court in favour of the applicant Indu Awasthi on 16.4.2022 and during the course of hearing, both the parties consented for mediation and accordingly order was also passed by this Court, but however mentioning that the complainant of the case was not interested to participate in the mediation proceedings, the application for settlement of dispute filed by the applicant Indu Awasthi was rejected by the Magistrate concerned. Punitive process were issued by the Magistrate Court concerned against the applicant Indu Awasthi and a complaint was also made against Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore, advocate. The further investigation was prayed for mentioning the aforesaid facts and also highlighting this fact that only two witnesses were interrogated by the I.O. namely Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore and Pawan Solanki, who were the men of the informant Rachna Singh. The police / I.O. falsely implicated the applicant Indu Singh in the said case for taking Rs.20 lakh for compromise in the case. This is the said application which was rejected by the Court of Judicial Magistrate, Hawali, Farrukhabad by the impugned order dtd. 29.08.2023.

27. Referring to the provisions of section 306 IPC it was also alleged in the said application for further investigation that the complete missing of all the essential ingredients to constitute an offence under section 306 IPC was absolutely overlooked by the I.O. of the case.

28. Now coming back to the point which was being discussed above, this Court can safely rely upon a very pertinent and guiding observation made by the Hon'ble

Apex Court in Nirmal Singh Kahlon vs. State of Punjab and Others, (2009) 1 SCC 441 is necessary to be quoted where it was held as under –

"68. An order of further investigation in terms of Section 173(8) of the Code by the State in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 36 thereof stands on a different footing. The power of the investigating officer to make further investigation in exercise of its statutory jurisdiction under Section 173(8) of the Code and at the instance of the State having regard to Section 36 thereof read with Section 3 of the Police Act, 1861 should be considered in different contexts. Section 173(8) of the Code is an enabling provision. Only when cognizance of an offence is taken, the learned Magistrate may have some say. But, the restriction imposed by judicial legislation is merely for the purpose of upholding the independence and impartiality of the judiciary. It is one thing to say that the court will have supervisory jurisdiction to ensure a fair investigation, as has been observed by a Bench of this Court in Sakiri Vasu v. State of U.P. [(2008) 2 SCC 409 : (2008) 1 SCC (Cri) 440], correctness whereof is open to question, but it is another thing to say that the investigating officer will have no jurisdiction whatsoever to make any further investigation without the express permission of the Magistrate."

29. In the case in hand Ram Lal Narang (supra) and Vinay Tyagi (supra), it has already been settled that the police has power to conduct further investigation after submission of the charge-sheet, but it should take / seek formal permission from the Court.

30. The legal issue has also been settled in Sri Bhagwan Samardha Sreepada V. Venkata Vishwandadha Maharaj vs. State of Andhra Pradesh & Others, AIR 1999 Supreme Court 2332 wherein it was clarified by the Hon'ble Apex Court that -

"Power of the police to conduct further investigation, after laying final report, is recognised under Section 173 (8). Even after the Court took cognizance of any offence on the strength of the police report first submitted, it is open to the police to conduct further investigation. In such situation power of Court to direct police to conduct further investigation cannot have any inhibition. There is nothing in Section 173 (8) to suggest that the Court is obliged to hear the accused before any such direction is made. Casting of any such obligation on the Court would only result in encumbering it with burden of searching for all potential accused to be afforded with the opportunity of being heard."

31. The aforesaid legal dictum promulgated by the Hon'ble Apex Court makes it clear that to hear the accused while making an order for further investigation under section 173 (8) of Cr.P.C. is not required for the Court and at the same time it is also settled that if the police wants to conduct further investigation under section 173 (8) of Cr.P.C. after submission of the police report, it has to take a formal permission from the Court and further investigation is the power of the Court undoubtedly. Now the issue whether further investigation can be done at the instance of the accused, finds its answer on the basis of the aforesaid discussion which negates the power of the accused to knock at the door of the Court to pass an order for performing further investigation into a matter.

32. In National Multi Commodity Exchange of India Limited Vs. State of Gujarat & another (Special Criminal Application (Quashing) No. 1359 of 2014 decided on 21.04.2015, his Lordship of Gujarat High Court discussing the law over the subject held like this –

"40. A learned Single Judge of this Court in the case of Nitinbhai Mangubhai Patel v. State of Gujarat and others reported in 2013 LawSuit(Guj) 1124 h ad the occasion to consider the issue on hand. I may quote the relevant observations of the learned Single Judge as under:

Considering section 173 (8) of the CrPC, there cannot be any further investigation at the instance of the accused on the grounds which infact are their defences which are required to be considered at the time of trial and that too after the IO has submitted the charge sheet against the accused having found prima facie case which requires further trial and more particularly on the very grounds the accused submitted the discharge applications which not only came to be rejected by the learned CJM but even the same was confirmed by the learned Sessions Court. Section 173 (8) of the CrPC permits the IO / officer in charge of the police station for further investigation in respect of an offence after report under subsection (2) of section 173 has been forwarded to the Magistrate. Therefore, there cannot be a further investigation as provided under section 173 (8) of the CrPC after a report under subsection (2) of section 173 of CrPC has been forwarded to the Magistrate and that too on the grounds which are the defence of the accused. The powers which are available for further investigation under section 173 (8) of the CrPC would be available only to the IO / officer in charge of the police station."

33. It is pertinent to mention here that in the aforesaid case, further investigation was ordered at the instance of the accused and his Lordship held that the learned revisional court committed material error in not appreciating the scope of further investigation under section 173 (8) of Cr.P.C. that too at the instance of the accused and when the charge-sheet was already filed and even the grounds which were invoked were virtually the defences of the accused.

34. From a co-joint reading of all the legal views discussed here-in-above in the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case, this Court finds itself in a position to draw a conclusoin that an application to conduct further investigation moved by the accused Indu Awasthi was totally misconceived and without any right provided to the accused by law. The case was thoroughly investigated by the I.O. and he also noticed that one earlier application was already moved by the informant alleging the same facts therein and that is why he conducted the investigation of the case in hand accordingly and also mentioned this fact in the charge-sheet. It is also not be incorrect to say that the grounds on which further investigation was sought for by the accused Indu Awasthi are really the defences of the accused which may be taken by him at any subsequent stage of the trial and in fact the perusal of the application for further investigation indubitably confirms that the accused wants the investigating agency to investigate the case from particular angle which suits the accused and he has also included in his application the allegations against other persons who have not been arrayed as accused by the I.O.

35. Article 227 of the Constitution of India, which embodies power of High Court to have superintendence over all Courts of the State, provides as hereunder.

"227. Power of superintendence over all courts by the High Court - (1) Every High Court shall have superintendence over all courts and tribunals throughout the territories interrelation to which it exercises jurisdiction.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the High Court may—

(a) call for returns from such courts;

(b) make and issue general rules and prescribe forms for regulating the practice and proceedings of such courts; and

(c) prescribe forms in which books, entries and accounts shall be kept by the officers of any such courts.

(3) The High Court may also settle tables of fees to be allowed to the sheriff and all clerks and officers of such courts and to attorneys, advocates and pleaders practising therein:

Provided that any rules made, forms prescribed or tables settled under clause (2) or clause (3) shall not be inconsistent with the provision or any law for the time being in force, and shall require the previous approval of the Governor.

(4) Nothing in this article shall be deemed to confer on a High Court powers of superintendence over any court or tribunal constituted by or under any law relating to the Armed Forces."

36. The issue as to whether a Criminal Court is armed with the power to order further investigation after submission of the charge-sheet has been well clarified in Vishnubhai Haribhai Malaviya vs. State of Gujarat, (2019) 17 SCC 1 wherein it has been promulgated by the Hon'ble Apex Court that power to make order as to further investigation is available to Magistrate under Section 156 (3) CrPC even at post-cognizance stage until trial commences i.e. charges are framed. The power can also be exercised suo motu by the Magistrate himself, depending on the facts of each case.

37. In the present petition, further investigation into the matter has been prayed for on two points. Firstly, that the first informant Smt. Rachna Singh was having unfair relations with Sunil Kumar Singh Rathore, advocate, which was protested by the deceased Mangal Singh, but she was not ready to break her relations with him and the second point for further investigation in the present petition is that the deceased Mangal Singh and Pawan Awasthi had borrowed a huge amount of money from several persons for business purpose, but they were not in a position to return it back and they had concealed themselves here and there and were planning to shift in some other district and Pawan Awasthi was shifted as well in another district, but Mangal Singh was harassed by the money lenders from whom he had borrowed a huge amount of money and he died in suspicious circumstances and the present petitioners had no concern with all his affairs. It is notable that so far as the first ground is concerned, it was never mentioned in the original application for further investigation moved by the petitioners / accused themselves and now surprisingly the first ground was introduced in the present petition for the first time before any Court. The second point finds place in the application for further investigation as detailed here-in-above, but this Court is of the considered view after considering the facts and circumstances of this case that this is nothing but an attempt on the part of the accused just to create future defence in the case in hand, which is not permissible under law.

38. Hence the present petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is liable to be dismissed on all the grounds whether it is legal or factual. The accused / petitioners have no locus standi to move application for further investigation before the Magistrate and in the facts and circumstances of the case, if the Magistrate found that the application was not worth credit and he rejected it accordingly, no legal or factual error was committed by the concerned Magistrate.

39. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and also keeping in view the above stated legal position, there is no such illegality, perversity or any error of jurisdiction in the impugned order so as to warrant exercise of powers under Article 227 of the Constitution of India by this Court. There is no justification warranting any interference with the impugned order in this petition. Consequently, the present petition is liable to be dismissed.

40. Accordingly, the instant petition under article 227 of the Constitution is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 405
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJAN ROY, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Writ A No. 125 of 2024

Prof. Soniya Nityanand & Ors.
...Petitioners
Versus
Prof. Ashish Wakhlu ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioners
Lal Prasad Misra, Shubham Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondent:
Sandeep Kumar Ojha

A. Contempt Law – Constitution of India – Article 215 – Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 – Section 23 – Contempt proceeding – Nature – Standard of proof – Held, contempt proceedings are quasi criminal in nature and the standard of proof is beyond reasonable doubt. These proceedings carry a rigor much more than any other judicial proceedings for adjudication of disputes. These proceedings are in exercise of powers of the High Court to punish for its contempt and that of the subordinate courts. Therefore, they should be exercised with circumspection and due and proper application of mind even at the stage of initiation of such proceedings. (Para 23)

B. Contempt Law – Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 – Section 23 – Contempt proceeding – Scope of punishment – Prima facie satisfaction – Necessity – Non existence of jurisdictional facts – Effect – Notice was issued altogether with allowing the impleadment of appellant – Legality challenged – Held, Issuance of notice in a contempt matter is not a causal or routine procedure. It requires due and proper application of mind – Ordinarily, when an application for impleadment is filed in a pending contempt proceedings, practice has been to issue notice to the proposed opposite party before considering it so that they may have an opportunity to inform the contempt court about the correct facts, unless from the facts placed and documents annexed, an exceptional case is made out, prima facie. – Division Bench gave liberty to the appellants to move an application before Single Bench for discharge of notices issued against him. (Para 23, 24 and 27)

Appeal disposed of. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Midnapore Peoples' Coop. Bank Ltd. & ors. Vs Chunilal Nanda & ors.; (2006) 5 SCC 399

2. High Court of Judicature at Allahabad through its Registrar Vs Raj Kishore Yadav & ors.; (1997) 3 SCC 11

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajan Roy, J.)

(1) Heard Dr. L.P. Mishra, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Shubham Tripathi, learned counsel for the appellants and Sri Sandeep Dixit, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Sandeep Kumar Ojha, learned counsel for the respondent.

(2) This is an appeal by the Vice-Chancellor and Members of the Executive Council of King George's Medical University, Lucknow under Chapter VIII Rule V of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952 challenging an order passed by the Contempt Court on 08.05.2024 in Contempt Application (Civil) No.963 of 2020 [Prof. Ashish Wakhlu vs. Prof. M.L. Bhatt Vice-Chancellor, K.G.M.C., Lucknow & Ors.] In fact an application filed by the respondent for impleadment of the appellants herein has been allowed and then notices have been issued to them. The said impugned order reads as under:-

"(Order on Impleadment Application i.e. I.A./26/2024)

1. Heard Shri Sandeep Dixit, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Sandeep Kumar Ojha, learned counsel for the applicant.

2. This is an application filed for seeking impleadment.

3. Cause shown in the affidavit filed in support of the impleadment application is sufficient.

4. Accordingly, the impleadment application is allowed.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant is permitted to carry out necessary impleadment, forthwith.

(Order on Contempt Application)

1. Let notice be issued to newly impleaded respondents i.e. respondent nos. 11 to 23 within a week to show cause as to why they should not be punished for wilfull disobedience of the directions of this Court, returnable within two weeks failing which the charges may be framed after summoning the contemnors.

2. Office is directed to send a copy of this order along with the notice.

3. List this case on 09.07.2024 within top ten cases. "

(3) The contention of learned counsel for the appellant is that jurisdictional facts which have to necessarily preexist the issuance of any notice in a contempt proceedings were absolutely absent in the case at hand yet learned Single Judge without satisfying himself, prima facie, about any civil contempt having been committed by the appellants has not only allowed the application for impleadment but also issued notice to them for showing the cause as to why they should not be punished for willful disobedience of this Court, failing which, charges may be framed after summoning the contemnors. The contention is that the contempt petition was filed in the year 2020 alleging that the Executive Council of the University by passing a Resolution dated 08.06.2020 had violated an interim order passed on 01.12.2018 in Writ Petition No.35784 (S/S) of 2018 filed by the respondent. The appellants whose impleadment has been allowed and notices have been issued by the impugned order were not Members of the Executive Council on 08.06.2020. In fact, appellant no.1 has been appointed as Vice-Chancellor much later, that is, in August, 2023. The other appellants have become Members of the Executive Council much after 08.06.2020 and none of these appellants had any role to play in the passing of the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 which according to the respondent was contemptuous. In fact, in the affidavit in support of the application for impleadment, there is no averment whatsoever as to how the appellants herein had committed civil contempt but ignoring all these facts and without recording any prima facie satisfaction, the Contempt Court has passed the impugned order in the absence of jurisdictional facts which would give jurisdiction to the learned Single Judge to initiate contempt proceedings against the appellants and in the absence of any prima facie satisfaction recorded by the Contempt Court regarding existence of such jurisdictional facts. The contempt Court has, thus, committed a jurisdictional error.

(4) The submission was that contempt proceedings are quasi criminal in nature and the standard of proof is beyond reasonable doubt. These are very harsh proceedings and therefore, their initiation should not be a casual act as has happened in this case. This was not a case where proceedings could have been initiated against the appellants without even recording any satisfaction as to how, even prima facie, they have committed any civil contempt. In the facts of the case, apparently, no contempt has been committed by them as they were not part of the Executive Council when the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 was passed.

(5) It was also submitted that, in fact, the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 has been challenged by the respondent by means of a separate Writ Petition bearing No.3840 (S/S) of 2021 along with a challenge to the order terminating his services dated 10.06.2020 but there is no interim order therein. Now, by impleadment of the appellants, the respondent veritably wants to arm twist them and secure his reinstatement in contempt proceedings, thereby, seeking relief which he has not yet got in the writ proceedings. In any case, so far as contempt by the appellant is concerned, even prima facie, the same is not made out by any stretch of imagination.

(6) In fact, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that on 06.05.2024 an application was submitted before the Vice-Chancellor i.e. appellant no.1. On the aforesaid application, the Vice-Chancellor informed the respondent on 06.05.2024 itself that the above matter will be placed before the Executive Council of the University at the earliest since it is the appointing authority. But on that very date i.e. on 06.05.2024, the respondent filed the application for impleadment which was allowed within three days i.e. on 08.05.2024. The respondent acted in haste just as the order impugned was passed.

(7) It was further submitted that as far as dismissal of Civil Appeal No (S).5455-5456/2022 on 24.04.2024, the same was filed by Prof. Lt. General (Retd.) Dr. Bipin Puri & Anr. and the said appeal does not decide any issue qua the appellants herein, at best, the said order would bind the appellants of the said appeal who were the other opposite parties in the contempt proceedings and the said order cannot be used against the appellants to make a case for contempt which has to be considered independently especially as contempt proceedings are against the person who is alleged to have committed the contempt.

(8) It was also contented that it is not a case where some direction was issued and it remained uncomplied and in the meantime, the person holding the post demitted office as, in such case one who succeeds will be bound to comply the said order but it is a case where contempt alleged is against certain Members of the Executive Council who had passed the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 which according to the respondent is in the teeth of the interim order passed by this Court in a writ petition which is still pending wherein a stay vacation application is also pending. Now, in this scenario, as none of the appellants were Members of the Executive Council at the relevant time when the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 was passed nor did they have any role to play in that regard, on the face of it, they could not have been subjected to the rigour of contempt proceedings. None of this has been seen and a jurisdictional error has committed in passing the impugned order. It was contended that the right course for the contempt court was to issue notice on the impleadment application to the proposed opposite parties/ alleged contemnors whereupon the correct facts would have been placed before the Contempt Court and this situation would have been avoided. The appellants have been subjected to initiation of contempt proceedings unjustifiably.

(9) On the other hand, Sri Sandeep Dixit, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the special appeal itself is not maintainable as the impugned order did not qualify within the meaning of the term 'judgment' used in Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952. He placed reliance on a Supreme Court's judgment rendered in the case of 'Midnapore Peoples' Coop. Bank Ltd. & Ors. vs. Chunilal Nanda & Ors.' reported in (2006) 5 SCC 399 and certain other decisions. His submission was that the appellants were under an obligation to rectify the contempt already committed by the predecessors and not having done so they are liable to be prosecuted for contempt. We pointedly asked Sri Dixit to point out any order of the writ court in any of the writ petitions pending between the parties wherein the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 or the order terminating the services of the respondent on 10.08.2020 may have been stayed or for that matter any direction may have been issued to the University to reinstate the respondent or for that matter to withdraw the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 and the order of termination from service, he could not point out any such order.

(10) He referred to the earlier proceedings before the Contempt Court wherein an application for deferment of hearing by the earlier Vice-Chancellors was rejected against which a Special Leave Petition bearing No.6899-6900 of 2022 was filed after framing of charge on 08.02.2022 by the then Vice-Chancellor and others and though, initially interim orders were passed by Hon'ble the Supreme Court but ultimately, the special leave petition after being converted into Civil Appeal No(s).5455-5456/2022 was dismissed. This aspect of the matter has already been addressed by Dr. L.P. Mishra, learned counsel appearing for the appellants as noticed earlier.

(11) In response, learned counsel for the appellants submitted that the respondent is resorting to arm-twisting measures by filing an application for impleadment with intent to intimidate the Members of the Executive Council and brow beat them into doing something and granting such relief to him which in fact he has not been able to secure through the process of law in the writ petition wherein the Resolution dated 08.06.2020 and the order of termination of his service has been challenged. According to him, the impugned order amounts to an interim judgment as it virtually decides the jurisdiction of the Contempt Court to proceed and initiate the contempt proceedings against the appellants, therefore, the appeal is maintainable.

(12) We have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

(13) The power to punish for contempt is vested in the High Court as an inherent power and it flows from a constitutional provision contained in Article 215 of the Constitution of India by virtue of which it is a court of record having plenary powers including the power to punish for its contempt. The Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 does not supersede or abrogate the inherent powers vested in it under Article 215 of the Constitution of India and legal position in this regard is well settled. Reference may be made to a decision reported in (1997) 3 SCC 11 'High Court of Judicature at Allahabad Through its Registrar vs. Raj Kishore Yadav and Ors' in this regard wherein vires contained in Chapter XXXV-E of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952 pertaining to contempt proceedings were under challenge. The said Chapter of the Rules, 1952 contains rules framed under Section 23 of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971. But before referring to the said Rules, we may refer to the definition of 'civil contempt' contained in Section 2 (a) and (b) of the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 which reads as under:-

"(a) "contempt of court" means civil contempt or criminal contempt;

(b) "civil contempt" means wilful disobedience to any judgment, decree, direction, order, writ or other process of a court or wilful breach of an undertaking given to a court;"

(14) As per Rule 1 of Chapter XXXV-E of the Rules, 1952, the Rules contained in the said Chapter shall govern presentation and hearing of Contempt of Court cases coming to the High Court under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971. The impugned order has been passed in proceedings for civil contempt and there is no dispute about it. In this context, Rule 5 of Chapter-XXXV-E of the Rules, 1952 is relevant which reads as under:-

"5. Issuance of notice :- Such allegations contained in the petition as appears to the Court to make out a prima facie case of contempt of Court against the person concerned, shall be reduced into charge or charges by the Court against such person, and notice shall be issued only with respect to those charges :

Provided that the Court shall not issue notice if more than a year has elapsed from the alleged act of contempt of court. "

(15) On a bare reading of Rule 5, it is evident that there have to be allegations contained in the petition making out a prima facie case of contempt of court against the person concerned, meaning thereby, the person who is arrayed as an opposite party. This condition is also required to be satisfied in the case of an impleadment application if it is to be allowed because there have to be allegations in the application for impleadment making out a prima facie case for contempt of court against the proposed party only then it can be allowed.

(16) Rule 5 further provides that if there are such allegations in the contempt petition the same shall be reduced into charge or charges by the Court against such person, and notice shall be issued only with respect to those charges. Some flexibility in the procedure to be followed in this regard may be permissible but it has to be in consonance with the principles of natural justice and fairness keeping in mind the rigor of the proceedings. But existence of jurisdictional facts and prerequisites and due and proper application of mind to the same is a sine qua non at the stage of issuance of notice under Rule 5.

(17) In the case at hand apart from impleadment of the appellants being allowed as opposite parties/ alleged contemnors, the writ court has also issued notice for initiation of contempt proceedings.

(18) As per Rule 5, the Court has to be prima facie satisfied about contempt having been committed by alleged contemnors. It is then required to issue notice on such satisfaction.

(19) In this context, the contention of learned counsel for the appellants is that on a bare reading of the affidavit in support of the application for impleadment, no allegation as to how the appellants herein have committed any civil contempt is made out. He further contended that no satisfaction was arrived at nor recorded as is required at the time of issuance of notice as per Rule 5.

(20) We have also perused the affidavit in support of the application for impleadment. Without expressing any conclusive opinion on the issue, we do not find any such specific allegation as to how the appellants have committed willful contempt of the interim order dated 01.12.2018 passed in the concerned writ petition. We have also quoted the order passed by the Contempt Court. We say no more at this stage as the contempt proceedings are still pending and the application for impleadment has already been allowed and notices issued to the appellant.

(21) There are certain jurisdictional facts/ prerequisites which must exist prior to initiation of contempt proceedings against a person by issuance of notice in terms of Rule 5 of Chapter-XXXV-E of the Rules, 1952 as already discussed. They can be summarized as under:-

(a) There has to be an order of a Court or an undertaking before it whether it be the High Court or the subordinate court for proceedings under the Act, 1971 as contemplated in Section 2(b) of the said Act.

(b) Such order should have been communicated to the alleged contemnor calling upon him to comply the same.

(c) There has to be some action or inaction or undertaking which may amount to willful disobedience or flouting of such order or undertaking so as to constitute civil contempt.

(d) There have to be allegations in the contempt petition or in an application for impleadment mentioning the existence of aforesaid jurisdictional facts/prerequisites making out a prima facie case of deliberate and willful disobedience or violation of the order or undertaking by the alleged contemnors/opposite parties or proposed opposite parties.

(e) The contempt court has to arrive at a prima facie satisfaction about existence of the aforesaid jurisdictional facts/ prerequisites making out a prima facie case of contempt of court by the concerned persons, before issuing notice.

(22) Only on the aforesaid satisfaction, notices have to be issued to the alleged contemnors in terms of Rule 5 of Chapter-XXXV-E of the Rules, 1952. Same analogy applies while considering and allowing an application for impleadment in pending contempt proceedings.

(23) Issuance of notice in a contempt matter is not a causal or routine procedure. It requires due and proper application of mind to the aforesaid facts and issues. We must keep in mind that contempt proceedings are quasi criminal in nature and the standard of proof is beyond reasonable doubt. These proceedings carry a rigor much more than any other judicial proceedings for adjudication of disputes. These proceedings are in exercise of powers of the High Court to punish for its contempt and that of the subordinate courts. Therefore, they should be exercised with circumspection and due and proper application of mind even at the stage of initiation of such proceedings.

(24) This apart, ordinarily, when an application for impleadment is filed in a pending contempt proceedings, practice has been to issue notice to the proposed opposite party before considering it so that they may have an opportunity to inform the contempt court about the correct facts, unless from the facts placed and documents annexed, an exceptional case is made out, prima facie. This is a time tested procedure and a procedural requirement which should ordinarily be adhered.

(25) This appeal raises important questions as to initiation of such proceedings and whether, at least in the facts of this case. There are jurisdictional issues involved, whether the jurisdictional facts/prerequisites for initiation of such proceedings against the appellants did exist or they did not, and whether the Contempt Court without due and proper application of mind not only allowed the application for impleadment without notice to the proposed opposite parties but even issued the contempt notices which are impugned herein. We were tempted to enter into and adjudicate these important issues raised by the appellants and the respondent but considering the fact that contempt proceedings are still pending and the appellants have an opportunity to seek discharge of the notices issued to them taking all such pleas as have been raised herein, we are of the opinion that it is the Contempt Court itself which should first take a call on these issues and thereafter, if the occasion so arises we can consider the same at the appropriate stage as per law.

(26) In these circumstances, we find it appropriate to request the Contempt Judge to kindly consider the pleas of the appellants on an application for discharge being moved by them and take a considered decision in this regard as per law. If after such decision is taken on the question as to whether the appellants are liable to be proceeded for contempt of court in the facts of the case, the appellants still have a cause, they can avail the remedies prescribed in law.

(27) We accordingly dispose of this appeal with liberty to the appellants to move an application for discharge of notices issued to them to which respondent shall have a right to respond and we request the Contempt Judge to consider relevant aspects of the matter as to whether the appellants are liable to be proceeded under the Act, 1971 and the inherent powers of the High Court for having committed civil contempt.

(28) All pleas are open for being raised before the Contempt Judge and they are open for being considered by the Contempt Court.

(29) This order shall be placed before the learned Contempt Court.

(2024) 5 ILRA 412
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ATTAU RAHMAN MASOODI, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

Special Appeal No. 312 of 2020

Saurabh Gupta ...Appellant
Versus
The Unique Identification Authority of India, New Delhi & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Sankalp Dewari, Sri Abhishek Bose, Sri Lalit Shukla, Sri Mohd. Shujauddin Waris, Sri Praveen Kumar, Sri Sachin Chaturvedi

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G., Lakshmi Gurung, Sri Varun Pandey

A. Service Law – Aadhaar (Targeted delivery of Financial and other subsidies, benefits and services) Act, 2016 – Section 54 – Unique Identification Authority of India (appointment of officers and employees) Regulations, 2020 – Permanent Absorption – Deemed absorption on expiry of three year of deputation was claimed – Instead of absorption, authority passed the order for premature repatriation – Validity challenged – Held, there is no concept of 'deemed absorption' or 'automatic absorption' as these are terms absolutely foreign to service jurisprudence – Absorption has to be done as per the rules & regulations and the law on that aspect stands settled that, even if a person is found to be eligible it does not mean that he would be absorbed as a matter of right. Thus, when eligibility does not guarantee a deemed absorption, how can merely completing a particular tenure of service on deputation amount to 'deemed' or 'automatic absorption' – The absorption/transfer in the borrowing organisation would be complete only when the borrowing company passes an order absorbing the deputationist. An affirmative action is required from both the lender as well as the borrowing department for absorption of a government servant in the borrowing department. (Para 12 and 31)

Special Appeal dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Civil Appeal Nos. 9252-9253 of 2022; Kerala St. Electricity Board & ors. Vs Thomas Joseph @ Thomas M. J. & ors. decided on 16.12.2022

2. Appeal (Civil) No. 5027 of 1999; Nathi Devi Vs Radha Devi Gupta decided on 17.12.2004

3. Civil Appeal No. 152 of 2022; Employees' St. Insurance Corporation Vs U.O.I.decided on 20.01.2022

4. U.O.I.& anr. Vs Shardinhu; (2007) 6 SCC 276

5. St. of A.P Vs Subbarayudu V.C. & ors.; 1998 (2) SCC 516

6. Brij Mohan Lal Vs U.O.I.& ors.; (2012) 6 SCC 502

7. Kunal Nanda Vs Union of India; AIR 2000 SC 2076: (2000) 5 SCC 362

8. Pawan Kumar & ors. Vs U.O.I.& ors.; 2018 SCC OnLine Del 12615

9. Chandra Mohan Singh Bhandari Vs U.O.I.& ors.; 2019 SCC OnLine Del 10002

10. Prasar Bharti & ors.Vs Amarjeet Singh & ors.; 2007 (2) SCALE 486

11. St. of U.P. Vs Ashok Kumar Saxena; AIR 1998 SC 925

12. Mohd. Masood Ahmad Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; JT 2007 (12) SC 467

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) Heard Shri Lalit Shukla and Shri Praveen Kumar, learned Counsel representing the appellant, Ms. Shraddha Deshmukh assisted by Shri Varun Pandey, learned Counsel representing the respondent No.1 and Shri Vaibhav Tewari, learned Counsel representing the other respondents.

(2) This special appeal has been filed by the appellant under Rule 5, Section-C of Chapter-VIII of the Allahabad High Court Rules impugning judgment/order dated 01.10.2020 passed by the learned Single Judge of this Court in Writ Petition No. 8234 (S/S) of 2020. Apparently, the learned Single Judge, vide impugned Judgment, due to various reasons, did not find the case of the appellant fit for exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and as such, dismissed the writ petition.

(3) It would be apt to mention herein that the appellant in writ petition No. 8234 (S/S) of 2020 had sought to challenge the curtailment of his deputation and repatriation from the Unique Identification Authority of India (herein after referred as 'UIDAI') to his parent Corporation, namely, Metals and Minerals Trading Corporation, Jaipur (hereinafter referred as 'MMTC') and in that regard, the appellant had challenged two orders, (i) dated 16.03.2020 which is the notice of his repatriation; and (ii) by an amendment in the said writ petition, another order dated 28.05.2020 passed by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of UIDAI rejecting the petitioner's representation against the order dated 16.03.2020.

Brief facts

(4) First to the factual exposition. This Court abjures from a detailed narrative and refer to only those facts and to the extent, as is necessary and is well captured in the writ petition. The appellant being an employee of MMTC, Jaipur and in view of the OM dated 10.10.2013 inviting applications from eligible persons for filling up various posts in UIDAI on deputation basis at its regional office, Lucknow, applied, and was selected for such deputation. He was appointed on deputation as Deputy Director at the regional office of UIDAI, Lucknow vide an order dated 05.02.2014 for a period of 3 years from the date of taking over charge of the post or until further orders, whichever event takes place earlier. The terms and conditions of deputation in UIDAI were to be governed by the Department of Personnel and Training (herein after referred as 'DoPT') OM dated 17.06.2010, as was also mentioned in the order of deputation dated 05.02.2014 and the OM dated 10.10.2013.

(5) Pursuant to his selection on deputation basis as Deputy Director, the appellant joined at the regional office of UIDAI at Lucknow in 2014 itself and his initial tenure came to expire on 19.02.2017, however, his deputation was extended on yearly basis from time to time. It is apparent from records that last yearly extension was granted by the Chief Executive Officer of the UIDAI wherein his approval for extension of the appellant's tenure was granted for a further period of one year from 18.02.2020, that is, upto 18.02.2021. Albeit, in the intervening period in August, 2019, the Deputy Director General of UIDAI sought explanation from the appellant regarding his day to day work and the reasons for non-submission of reports on time. Although, the appellant submitted a written reply on 30.08.2019, however, his reply was not found to be satisfactory and, accordingly, a comment was recorded by the Deputy Director General, who incidentally was also the head of the regional office at Lucknow.

(6) In the meantime, on 21.01.2020, the Unique Identification Authority of India (appointment of officers and employees) Regulations, 2020 (hereinafter referred to as '2020 Regulations') was framed under Section 21 (1) read with Sub-section 1 of Section 54 and Clause (x) of Sub-section 2 of Section 54 of the Aadhaar (Targeted delivery of Financial and other subsidies, benefits and services) Act, 2016 (herein after referred as Act, 2016), as amended vide the Aadhaar and Other Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019 (herein after referred as Act, 2019), were notified.

(7) Pursuant to the notification of the aforesaid regulations, on 29.01.2020, applications were invited from eligible candidates for permanent absorption in the cadre of UIDAI under Regulation 5 of the Regulations, 2020 with standard stipulations, including that mere fulfilment of the eligibility criteria by a candidate and submission of application form by him/her would not confer a right to get him/her absorbed in the cadre of UIDAI, which was to be contingent upon the recommendations of the selection Committee, etc.

(8) The appellant claiming himself to be eligible for such permanent absorption is said to have applied on 07.02.2020 and his application was forwarded by his superior officer on 12.02.2020. However, admittedly, the absorption process did not take place as it was held up in view of certain queries made by the Officers' from the UIDAI which in turn made queries in this regard from the concerned departments, but the said queries have not been resolved. However, in the interregnum on 13.02.2020. the appellant's deputation was extended for a further period of one year from 18.02.2020, that is, upto 17.02.2021.

(9) Furthermore, it has come on record that on 26.02.2020 and 27.02.2020, two complaints were received by UIDAI against the appellant, one lodged by Shri Devashish Bhatt, Assistant Section Officer and the other by Shri Praveen Dixit, Driver in the general pool. Both were employees working at the regional office at Lucknow and in both the complaints, misbehaviour and improper conduct by the appellant towards them was alleged. The Deputy Director General, being Head of the regional office, constituted an internal inquiry committee on 27.02.2020 comprising of Shri Dev Shankar, Assistant Director General, Regional Office, Ranchi and Shri Anil Kumar, Deputy Director, Regional Office, Ranchi (at Patna). The aforesaid two-member fact finding inquiry committee is said to have recorded the statement of aforesaid complainants as well as other Officers and employees of the Regional Office and submitted its report on 04.03.2020 which was found to be averse to the appellant.

(10) It has come on record that in the meantime, Shri Vivek Kumar Daksh came to be posted as Assistant Director General in the Regional Office, Lucknow on 05.02.2020 and from the said date he became the Reporting Officer of the Appellant and as such on 02.03.2020, while the aforesaid fact finding inquiry against the appellant, instituted on 27.02.2020, was still pending, an explanation was called from him by the aforesaid reporting officer relating to huge pendency of grievances/ complaints, which, as per the work distribution order dated 21.12.2018, the appellant was required to dispose of. The said letter invariably alleged that the review of work as on 28.02.2020, revealed that more than 10000 cases were pending for exceptional handling of date of birth cases in the Regional Office at Lucknow, wherein many cases were pending for more than a year which had caused substantial delay in disposal of sensitive public complaints. It was alleged that the appellant had neither taken any prompt action to dispose of these cases at his end as Supervisor nor reported this issue to his superior for prompt handling. Further, allegations have been levelled to the effect that the appellant had failed to devise any mechanism to supervise this issue at regular intervals at his level as Deputy Director and even the coordination mechanism among staff which was handling this issue was also not put in place. Consequently, the appellant was asked for an explanation of the aforesaid non-monitoring, non-reporting and non-disposal of pendency, within 3 days.

(11) Although, the appellant replied on 05.03.2020, however, as aforesaid, since a day prior to this i.e., on 04.03.2020, the report of the fact finding internal inquiry committee came to be submitted; the Assistant Director General (Admn./HR) in the office of Deputy Director General, Regional Office, Lucknow on 05.03.2020 itself, sought inputs from the reporting Officer-Shri Vivek Kumar Daksh, Assistant Director General regarding performance of the appellant and apparently on 06.03.2020 the said reporting Officer commented that the work of the appellant was unsatisfactory and not up to the mark.

(12) Thus, in the aforesaid background, the Deputy Director General, Regional Office, Lucknow vide letter dated 06.03.2020, addressed to the Assistant Director General (Admn./HR), UIDAI Headquarters, New Delhi recommended for appellant's premature repatriation to his parent Department/Office. Apparently, on 12.03.2020, the competent authority, who is said to be the Chief Executive Officer, granted approval for premature repatriation of the appellant and the same was conveyed to the Regional Office, Lucknow.

(13) Coincidently, on the same date i.e., 12.03.2020, the absorption process was also put on hold on account of certain unresolved issues by the Headquarters of UIDAI, New Delhi, as mentioned earlier and on 16.03.2020, the order curtailing the deputation of the appellant and giving notice for his repatriation citing Clause 9 of the OM dated 17.06.2010 was issued and subsequently, as the notice period was 3 months, the appellant was relieved on completion of the said period during the pendency of the Writ Petition. However, the said relieving was subject to final orders in the said Writ petition, in view of certain interim orders passed in favour of the appellant.

(14) The records reveal that against the aforesaid order dated 16.03.2020 for repatriation, the appellant preferred a representation to the Chief Executive Officer of UIDAI, which came to be rejected on 28.05.2020 and the said order also had been impugned by the appellant in the writ petition along with the original order dated 16.03.2020.

(15) The learned Single Judge objectively dealt with each and every contention of the parties therein, and vide a very reasoned Judgment dated 01.10.2020, the learned Single Judge dismissed the writ petition of the appellant. It is this order, which has been sought to be challenged in the present appeal.

Contention of the parties

(16) The learned Counsel for the appellant Mr. Lalit Shukla has vociferously argued that the appellant was not on deputation on the date of the impugned order dated 16.03.2020 as he had already got absorbed in the UIDAI, by rule of immediate absorption with effect from expiry of three years of deputation on 19.02.2017. The learned Counsel in this regard has submitted that the appellant was recommended for appointment on deputation for three years from 19.02.2014 to 18.02.2017 and in view of a letter dated 23.12.2016 from MMTC to UIDAI, obtained by the appellant under the provisions of RTI, MMTC, has stated that the appellant would reach the maximum deputation period of three years on February 18, 2017. Thus, it has been sought to be argued by the appellant that since UIDAI instead of repatriating the appellant before the aforesaid expiry of deputation period, sought the appellant's cadre clearance from MMTC, which was promptly obliged, but without obtaining exemption from the "Rule of Immediate Absorption" for the post of Deputy Director, he should be deemed to be absorbed with the obtaining of his cadre clearance from MMTC.

(17) The edifice of the argument of the learned Counsel for the appellant seems to be built on the proposition that, since clause 6 & 9 of the Office Memorandum dated 31.10.2007 issued by the Department of Pension & Pensioner's Welfare, specifically provided, that if a Central Government servant is allowed to proceed to a Central Autonomous body on deputation basis without obtaining specific exemption for the post, the Official will have to be treated as having resigned from the Central Government and absorbed in the Central Autonomous body.

(18) The learned Counsel has relied on DoPT OM dated 17.06.2010, which provided for the period of deputation as per the recruitment rules of the ex-cadre post or 3 years in case no tenure regulation exists for the ex-cadre post. According to the learned Counsel, when the said OM is read along with the proviso to Fundamental Rule 13, it is ample clear that "no lien" of a Government servant would be retained, where he has proceeded on immediate absorption basis and in case his deputation is beyond the maximum limit admissible under the orders of the government issued, from time to time. Therefore, drawing an inference, it has been submitted that in absence of exemption for the post of deputy director in the Authority, the appellant stands already absorbed in services of UIDAI with the cadre clearance by MMTC with effect from 19.02.2017 and since he stands already absorbed, his lien in the parent organisation/MMTC also got terminated from the date of absorption in UIDAI. According to the appellant, the respondents very well knew of the aforesaid legal position; although, instead of issuing an order of absorption, the appellant had been arbitrarily extending the deputation, even though the said extension was not permissible as per law.

(19) It has also been argued that Regulation 4 of the Regulations, 2020 enacted with effect from 21.01.2020, is in violation of Section 58 of the Aadhar Act, inasmuch as, it failed to consider employees as part of initial cadre who had already been absorbed into its services through the rule of immediate absorption during the operation of Section 58 of the Aadhar Act. The learned Counsel in this regard has relied on the judgment of Kerala State Electricity Board & Ors. Vs Thomas Joseph Alias Thomas M. J. & Ors. (Civil Appeal Nos. 9252-9253 of 2022, decided on 16.12.2022) to urge that regulations cannot violate the parent Act.

(20) The next argument addressed by the learned Counsel for the appellant is to the effect that CEO is not competent to terminate statutory appointment of appellant. According to him, before 25.07.2019, the appointing authority of the appellant was Chairman of UIDAI, who had approved initial appointment from 19.02.2014 and after the amendment, UIDAI itself by virtue of Section 21 (1) is the appointing authority and not any Officer or CEO in absence of any delegation of such powers to make appointment by general or special orders, to either CEO or any other Officer under section 51 of the Aadhar Act. Thus, it has been argued that in case the CEO is considered as an appointing authority as defined in Regulation 2(1)(b) of the Regulations, 2020, then such interpretation would render Section 51 of the Aadhar Act redundant and bad in eyes of law and in this regard, he has relied on the Constitutional Bench judgment of the Apex Court in Nathi Devi Vs Radha Devi Gupta [Appeal (Civil) No. 5027 of 1999, decided on 17.12.2004] to argue that in interpreting a statute, effort should be made to give effect to each and every word used by the legislature. As such, according to him, the CEO is not competent authority to pass the impugned order of repatriation as the same is vested only in the authority i.e., UIDAI.

(21) The third line of argument addressed by the learned Counsel for the appellant is that OM dated 17.06.2010 is not applicable after 21.01.2020. According to the learned counsel, UIDAI in exercise of powers under section 21 of the Aadhar Act notified two regulations, namely, Appointment Regulations 2020 and Service Regulations 2020, to regulate appointment and all other service conditions of employees of UIDAI with effect from 21.01.2020 and as such, in the absence of any saving clause in these regulations and according to him, even the Removal of Difficulty Order 2016 notified by the respondents under Section 58 of the Aadhar Act does not help, as the same was for a limited time period i.e., upto 3 months effective from 12.07.2016 or until all provisions of Aadhar Act and regulations became effective or in force, whichever is earlier. Thus, according to him since the Aadhar Act came to be enforced with effect from 21.01.2020, the OM dated 17.06.2010 came to be stopped and therefore, the impugned order dated 16.03.2020 passed under the said non-existing OM dated 17.06.2010 is illegal and in violation of Section 21 of the Aadhar Act and in that regard, he relied on the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Employees' State Insurance Corporation Vs. Union of India (Civil Appeal No. 152 of 2022, decided on 20.01.2022).

(22) The fourth line of argument is based on the premises that inquiry was in violation of statutory Regulation 60 of UIDAI service Regulations 2020 under section 21 of the Aadhar Act. According to the learned Counsel, the impugned order dated 16.03.2020 was issued based on inquiry report dated 04.03.2020 for misconduct allegations, through two complaints and a report of inefficiency dated 06.03.2020. But in eventualities of misconduct and inefficiency, inquiry was to be held by disciplinary authority only in accordance with regulation 60 and in this regard, he has relied on the judgment of the Apex Court rendered in the case of Union of India and another Vs Shardinhu : (2007) 6 SCC 276. The competence of the inquiry committee was also doubted and according to him, the approval of such constitution of inquiry committee was not done by the disciplinary authority of appellant and as such, the same is illegal and bad in law. Further, according to him, although misconduct is a ground of repatriation, the same does not find any mention in the preliminary inquiry nor the same was reported anywhere in the finding that the two complaints were found to be correct. Thus, according to the appellant, the said complaints were manipulated for obvious reasons and shows collusion of the respondents and has, as such prayed for quashing the judgment of the learned Single Judge and allowing the present appeal.

(23) Per contra, Ms. Shraddha Deshmukh learned Counsel in her own eloquent manner appearing for UIDAI, has defended the impugned order by submitting that a very detailed reasoning has been recorded by the learned Single Judge while dismissing the writ petition of the appellant and it does not call for any interference. Ms. Deshmukh after narrating the factual matrix of the present case, has taken this court through the provisions of Unique Identification Authority of India (Appointment of Officers and Employees) Regulations, 2020, which came into operation on 21st of January, 2020. According to her, the appellant cannot take benefit of the regulations for permanent absorption into the cadre of UIDAI, as complaint of misdemeanour and unsatisfactory performance, was raised prior to the coming into force of the said regulations and most importantly, the regulation itself states that mere fulfilment of the eligibility criteria by a candidate and his submission of application form does not confer a right to him/her to be absorbed in the cadre of UIDAI.

(24) Ms. Deshmukh has vociferously contended that the regulations clearly mention that absorption in the cadre is contingent on the recommendation of the selection committee and the concurrence of the parent organisation/cadre, as well as, the decision of the appointing authority and availability of vacancy in the respective post. She has taken this Court through the declaration dated 07.02.2020 filed by the appellant in this regard, while preferring the application seeking absorption. Anyhow, it has been stated by the learned Counsel appearing for UIDAI, that a policy decision has been taken by UIDAI to keep the absorption policy in abeyance vide OM dated 12.03.2020, which had not only affected the Appellant but across pan-India, and as a matter of fact, no employee of UIDAI has been absorbed into the cadre under the regulations of 2020 and therefore, there could be no question of arbitrariness on the part of UIDAI.

(25) The learned Counsel for the respondent thereafter, has pointed the attention of this Court to regulation 5 of the 2020 regulations, which provides for constitution of the initial constitution of the cadre, wherein various requirements have to be fulfilled by a person to be considered for absorption. According to her, when a regulation is already at place, the appellant or for that matter, any person claiming absorption in the UIDAI has to fulfill the requirement of regulation 5 of the 2020 regulations, which is mandatory in nature. Ms. Deshmukh lays emphasis on the point that as per regulation 5, offer of absorption can be given only to those persons who are holding any post provided under the schedule and meet the requirements as specified in regulation 5(2)(3) and (4), which according to the learned Counsel for UIDIA is not being fulfilled by the appellant and as such, he cannot claim any right of absorption.

(26) The learned Counsel for UIDAI has also submitted that the appellant has not challenged the policy decision of UIDAI for keeping the absorption policy at abeyance and per se, any argument running contrary to the said policy decision should not be entertained by this court and to fortify her stand, she has relied on the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in State of A.P Vs. Subbarayudu V.C. and others : 1998 (2) SCC 516 and Brij Mohan Lal Vs Union of India and others : (2012) 6 SCC 502. Further, the learned Counsel has also relied on the judgment of Kunal Nanda Vs. Union of India : AIR 2000 SC 2076 and other cases to argue that there is no vested right in any person to continue for long deputation or get absorbed in the department to which he had gone on deputation. Thus, it has been summed up by her that no grounds have been made out by the appellant and the present appeal may be dismissed.

Discussion & Findings

(27) Having heard the parties at length, this Court must at the very outset record that, after the order of repatriation of the appellant, which is the subject matter engaging the attention of this court in the present appeal, it has come on record that the parent organisation of the appellant, namely, MMTC, vide its emails dated 11.01.2021 and 22.02.2021, requested the appellant to join his parent organisation. Apparently, it seems that the appellant did not join the services of MMTC and as such disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against the appellant on the ground of misconduct. This Court was informed during the course of hearing that a writ petition bearing No. 8943/2022 has been filed by the Appellant, which is pending before the learned Single Judge of this court, wherein although a notice had been issued to the Respondents, however no stay against the said departmental proceedings have been granted in favour of the petitioner. This Court, vide order dated 14.12.2023 requisitioned the said writ petition. However, during the course of hearing, this Court expressed its reservation to hear the said writ petition along with the present appeal, as any decision in that writ petition would not only cause prejudice to the Appellant for losing a chance of appeal (Special Appeal), but would also result in non-joinder of issues as the grounds espoused by the appellant in the present appeal are at variance to the grounds mentioned in the writ petition. Thus, this Court vide an order 27.04.2024 has delinked the writ petition No. 8943/2022, which shall be decided on its own merit by the learned Single Judge and without being influenced by any observation made by this court in the present appeal.

(28) First & foremost, it is not in dispute that after the establishment of UIDAI under Section 11 of the Act, 2016, it has become a statutory authority and is no longer an attached office of the Government of India or the Planning Commission nor is it in dispute, that the parent corporation of the appellant is also an autonomous body, therefore, both the lending and borrowing corporation/authority are not departments of the Government of India but are autonomous bodies as of now and were so, on the date of passing of the impugned order of repatriation dated 16.03.2020 and disposal of representation dated 28.05.2020.

(29) The hinge of the argument addressed by the learned Counsel for the appellant belies the factual matrix. It has been contended that the appellant was not on deputation on the date of the impugned order dated 16.03.2020 as he had already been absorbed in the UIDAI by rule of immediate absorption with effect from expiry of three years of deputation on 19.02.2017. The learned Counsel has tried to develop a concept of "deemed absorption" or "automatic absorption" and in that regard has given various corollary arguments. The first argument being that clause 6 & 9 of the OM dated 31.10.2017 issued by the Department of Pensions & Pensioner's Welfare, provided, that in case a central government servant proceeds to a central autonomous body on deputation basis without obtaining specific exemption for the post, the official would be treated as having resigned from the central Government and absorbed in the central Autonomous body. Apparently, it has come on record that although in the appellant's case no specific exemption for the post was obtained, but he was never treated to have resigned from his parent organisation, which is fortified from the issuance & request email dated 11.01.2021 and 22.02.2021, wherein MMTC has requested the appellant to join his parent organisation. The said OM was issued for preparation of shield that, in case no specific exemption for the post is obtained, then in that case, the person would be treated to have resigned, so that there is no lien created on the post held by that particular person in the parent organisation, which would give a meaningful & purposive understanding of the tenure of service for consideration of service benefits, including pensions, etc. According to this Court, the said OM is of no help to appellant as he has not been treated as having resigned from MMTC.

(30) Further, the contention of the learned Counsel for the appellant that DoPT OM dated 17.06.2010 provided for a maximum tenure of 3 years and since the appellant has been on deputation in UIDIA for close to seven years and fundamental Rule 13 provides, that in case a person is on deputation beyond the maximum limit admissible, there would be "no lien" on the post held by that person/Government servant in the parent organisation. At the first blush, the contention of the appellant seems to be appealing, however on a closer look, it is apparent from the facts of the present case that the proposition is out of context. The said rule prescribed for an eventuality when a government servant is given only two choices i.e., either return to the parent organisation within the prescribed period or there would be "no lien". Unfortunately, in the present case, the deputation has been extended by UIDAI much beyond the prescribed period and the appellant had been accepting the said extension. Further, there had been no endeavour by MMTC to put to notice the appellant to either return or loose the lien in his parent organisation. Apparently, all the parties have been working in tandem with each other and it is only when UIDAI repatriated the appellant, the controversy crept. In any case, it is borne from the record itself that "lien" existed on the post held by the appellant in his parent organisation-MMTC on his repatriation from UIDAI and by itself, even this OM is of no help to the appellant.

(31) Anyway, it has to be understood that there is no concept of "deemed absorption" or "automatic absorption" as these are terms absolutely foreign to service jurisprudence. One has to understand that deputation or permanent absorption, is a bilateral phenomenon. There is no provision under law, of deemed absorption. Pertinently, absorption has to be done as per the rules & regulations and the law on that aspect stands settled that, even if a person is found to be eligible it does not mean that he would be absorbed as a matter of right. Thus, when eligibility does not guarantee a deemed absorption, how can merely completing a particular tenure of service on deputation amount to 'deemed' or 'automatic absorption'. It has to be understood, that, merely applying for absorption as per the regulations also does not give a right for being absorbed as it would depend on various factors, including suitability and most importantly, the necessary NOC and/or the permission of the parent department/organisation. The absorption/transfer in the borrowing organisation would be complete only when the borrowing company passes an order absorbing the deputationist. An affirmative action is required from both the lender as well as the borrowing department for absorption of a government servant in the borrowing department and as such, it can be safely understood that deemed absorption or automatic absorption is not permissible under service law and nothing has been brought on record by the appellant to demonstrate any rule or regulations akin to the said concept.

(32) The next argument addressed by the learned Counsel for the Appellant is Regulation 4 of the Regulations 2020 is in violation of section 58 of the Aadhar Act, as it fails to consider employees as part of initial cadre, who has already been absorbed into its services through the rule of immediate absorption during the operation of Section 58 of the Aadhar Act. This ground presupposes that the appellant had already been given immediate absorption with the lapse of his tenure of three years, which this could have already been held to be untenable in the eyes of law.

(33) As regards the other ground of the appellant that the CEO is not competent to terminate the statutory appointment of the appellant is concerned, this court finds that a co-joint reading of section 18 (4) of the Aadhar Act, 2016 and Regulation 2 (1) (b) of the Regulations, 2020 sufficiently indicates that the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) had administrative control over the officers and other employees of the Authority. Further, Regulation 3 of the Regulations, 2020 empowered the Chief Executive Officer to implement the said Regulations. Apparently, the decision communicated to the Appellant vide order dated 16.03.2020 for repatriation had been taken with the approval of the Chief Executive Officer who was competent to take a decision in this regard, as such, the contention of the appellant appears to be untenable both, on facts and in law.

(34) As regards the contention of the appellant relating to non-applicability of OM dated 17.06.2010 as the same became redundant after the enforcement of the Aadhar Act and the notice of repatriation dated 16.03.2020 having been issued under the said non-existing OM and in violation of section 21 of the Aadhar Act is concerned, this Court finds that the learned Single Judge has very extensively dealt with the said ground and has returned a finding to the following effect;

"At this very stage it needs to be mentioned that the petitioner came on deputation in the year 2014 when UIDAI was still functioning as an attached office of the Planning Commission of the Government of India and his selection as also tenure of deputation were governed by the aforesaid DoPT OM's dated 17.06.2010 which was subsequently modified by OM dated 17.02.2016 and this fact was mentioned in the OM dated 10.10.2013 in pursuance to which the petitioner applied for being appointed on deputation as also in the order of his deputation dated 05.02.2014. Clause 6 of the DoPT OM dated 17.02.2016 therefore did not make these OM's inapplicable, at least till 11.07.2016 i.e. prior to Act, 2016 coming into force, if not, even thereafter.

It is not out of place to mention that the Act, 2016 came into force on 12.07.2016 and the UIDAI was established by a notification under Section 11 of the said Act on 12.07.2016 itself. However, all the provisions of the Act, 2016 were not notified in terms of Section 1 (3) of the said Act, instead, Section 11 - 20, 22 - 23 and Section 48 - 59 came into force on 12.07.2016 as per notification issued in this regard under Section 1 (3) of the Act, 2016. Section 1 - 10 and 24 - 47 of the said Act came into force on 12.09.2016 vide a notification of the same date under Section 1 (3) of the Act, 2016.

Section 21 of the Act, 2016 dealing with terms and conditions of service of officers and employees of UIDAI was not notified as per Section 1 (3) of the said Act at that time nor any regulations as are referred therein were framed prescribing the terms and conditions of service of officers and employees. In fact, the said provision, without being notified, was amended vide Act, 2019, which was published in the Gazette on 23.07.2019 and Section 1 to 30 of the Act, 2019 came into force on 25.07.2019 by a notification of the same date issued under Section 1 (2) of the Act, 2019. By the amendment in Section 21, the requirement of approval of the Central Government as was required under the unamended Section 21 was done away with.

The regulations as are referred in Section 21 of the Act, 2016 were framed and notified only on 21.02.2020. Regulations no. 1 of 2020 which has already been referred earlier are relevant for the case at hand.

In this context Section 59 of the Act, 2016 is relevant and it reads as under:-

" 59. Anything done or any action taken by the Central Government under the Resolution of the Government of India, Planning Commission bearing notification number A-43011/02/2009-Admin. I, dated the 28th January, 2009, or by the Department of Electronics and Information Technology under the Cabinet Secretariat Notification bearing notification number S.O. 2492(E), dated the 12th September, 2015, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been validly done or taken under this Act."

In view of the above quoted provision, as UIDAI functioned as an office of the Central Government therefore, any action taken under the notification dated 28.01.2019 by which it was established as an attached office of the Planning Commission and the subsequent notification dated 12.09.2015 by which it was made an attached office of DIET, Government of India, are to be deemed to have been validly done or taken under the Act, 2016. The exercise of selection and appointment of the Appellant on deputation was initiated by UIDAI after its constitution by the notification dated 28.01.2009 but prior to 12.07.2016, therefore, this action is to be treated as validly done under the Act, 2016 in view of Section 59.

In view of the above as unamended Section 21 of the Act, 2016 had not been notified under Section 1 (3) of the said Act and as no regulations had been framed as referred therein regarding terms and conditions of service of officers and employees of UIDAI, the tenure of deputation of the petitioner continued to be governed by the DoPT OM's dated 17.06.2010 and 17.02.2016 in accordance with the terms of deputation mentioned in the OM dated 10.10.2013 and the order of deputation of the petitioner dated 05.02.2014 at least till 21.02.2020, when, the regulations namely UIDAI (appointment of officers and employees) Regulations, 2020 were notified under Section 21 of the Act, 2019.

(35) Further, this court finds that a very pertinent question in the context was framed by the learned Single Judge in the impugned order, which inter-alia says:

"Question is, whether, once the Regulations, 2020 were notified, the OM's dated 17.06.2010 and 17.02.2016 became inapplicable? and, whether, in the absence of any provision for repatriation or curtailment of deputation in the Regulations, 2020, the impugned order of repatriation dated 16.03.2020 is illegal?

(36) The aforesaid question framed by the learned Single Judge was dealt very vividly covering all aspects of the matter and returning a finding in the following words;

"On perusal of the Act, 2016, the Court finds that there is no specific provision of recruitment and appointment including by a way of deputation instead there is a general provision contained in Section 21 as amended by the Act, 2019 which speaks of determination/specification of terms and conditions of officers and employees of UIDAI by regulations to be made by the UIDAI. Section 54 of the Act also empowers the UIDAI to frame such regulations.

As already stated, Regulations, 2020 made by UIDAI were notified on 21.02.2020. Regulation 11 thereof deals with deputation and reads as under:-

" 11. Deputation.- (1) The posts which are to be filled up by the method of deputation would be widely circulated among such Ministries or Departments of the Central Government, State Governments, Administration of Union Territories, Public Sector Undertakings and Statutory and Autonomous Bodies which are expected to have people with the qualifications and experience matching the requirements of the Authority and willing to join the Authority on deputation.

(2) The selection of candidates for appointment on deputation basis shall be made on the recommendations of the Selection Committee.

(3) All appointments made on deputation in the Authority under these regulations shall initially be for a period not exceeding five years which may be extended for such period and in such manner as prescribed by the Authority from time to time."

As per Sub-regulation (3) initially all appointments made on deputation are required to be made for a period not exceeding 5 years which may be extended for such period and in such manner as prescribed by the authority i.e. UIDAI from time to time. No such decision of the "authority" as defined in Section 2 (e) of the Act, 2016 i.e. UIDAI, has been placed before the Court prescribing any period beyond 5 years up to which the deputation under Regulation 2020 could be extended nor the manner of such extension as having been prescribed by UIDAI has been placed before the Court. It being a specific power of regulation of the terms and conditions of service vested with the UIDAI, it has to be performed by it and none else.

If the argument of the petitioner's Counsel that DoPT OM's dated 17.06.2010 and 17.02.2016 became inapplicable w.e.f. 21.02.2020, in view of Regulations, 2020, then, the logical corrollary of it would be that he would have to be repatriated, as his term of 5 years expired in February, 2019 and no such decision of the authority as defined in Section 2 (e) of the Act, 2016 has been brought on record prescribing the permissible period of extension of deputation beyond 5 years and the manner of doing it under Regulation 11 (3) of the Regulations, 2020. Thus, the extension of petitioner's deputation vide order dated 13.02.2020 wherein an OM dated 23.02.2017 has been referred which according to the opposite party is in continuation of the OM's dated 17.06.2010 and 17.02.2016 will itself fall in jeopardy being contrary to Regulations, 2020.

Irrespective of the aforesaid, there is nothing in the Regulations, 2020 which may persuade this Court to hold that a person on deputation cannot be repatriated, not even on grounds of unsuitability and unsatisfactory work even though he has not been absorbed in UIDAI under the said Regulations. The scheme of the Regulations, 2020 do not lend support to such a view, which is also contrary to the general concept of deputation and repatriation as already discussed."

(37) The learned Single judge after recording and examining all the purviews of the applicability of the OM's after the enforcement of the Aadhar Act, went on to hold that,

"Now coming to the applicability of the OM's, once the UIDAI became a statutory authority under Section 11 of the Act, 2016 w.e.f. 12.07.2016 then it became an autonomous body and did not remain an office of the Government of India and DoPT OM's were not automatically applicable to it from 12.07.2016, however, in view of Section 59 of the Act, as the actions of the Central Government taken in respect of UIDAI prior to 12.07.2016 under the notification dated 28.01.2009 and 12.09.2016 were protected as being validly taken under the Act, 2016, therefore, as UIDAI functioned as an attached office of the Planning Commission and DIET, Government of India prior to 12.07.2016 when the petitioner was taken on deputation in UIDAI by the order dated 05.02.2014 according to which his tenure of deputation was to be governed by DoPT OM dated 17.06.2010 (which was modified by OM dated 17.02.2016), therefore, in view of Section 59 of the Act, 2016, the said OM's, in the absence of any regulations under Section 21 of the Act, 2016 to the contrary, continued to govern the terms of his deputation at least till 20.01.2020 and they continued to apply to his deputation to the extent they were not inconsistent with the Act, 2016, which they were not.

If the aforesaid OM's are held to be inapplicable w.e.f. 12.07.2016 then it would create a situation where in the absence of notification of Section 21 of the Act, 2016 under Section 1 (3) thereof and in the absence of any regulations made by UIDAI under the said provision, there would be no provision for bringing persons on deputation to the UIDAI, as there was no such procedure in the Act, 2016, whereas, in the very nature of establishment of UIDAI most of the officers and employees were to be brought on deputation from other departments/organisations, and the terms and conditions of the deputationist who had already been brought to UIDAI prior to 12.07.2016 would also be put in jeopardy which can never be the intent of the rule making authority or of this Court.

As the terms of deputation applicable to the petitioner's tenure of deputation vide order dated 05.02.2014 were in no manner in conflict with the Regulations, 2020 so far as repatriation is concerned, they continued to be applicable by of the order of deputation.

Even if the OM's referred above were inapplicable w.e.f. 21.02.2020, it does not help the petitioner as even under the Regulations, 2020 which came into effect from 21.02.2020, for the reasons already given hereinabove, repatriation of the petitioner was permissible, therefore, merely because the order of repatriation dated 16.03.2020 refers to Clause 9 of the OM dated 17.06.2010, it cannot be held to be illegal whether repatriation was permissible and justified on facts is another aspect."

(38) This Court is in full agreement with the findings returned by the learned Single Judge and does not find any rationale behind the contention of the appellant that the OM's by virtue which he was appointed on deputation in the borrowing organisation became non-existent while repatriating him to the lender/parent origination.

(39) Further, the appellant has raised the issue of violation of regulation 60 of the UIDAI Service Regulations of 2020 issued under section 21 of the UIDAI Act. According to the appellant, in eventualities of misconduct and inefficiency, inquiry was required to be held by disciplinary authority. Additionally, the appellant had doubted the veracity of the inquiry committee in as much as, there was no finding by the said committee that there was any misconduct on the part of the appellant.

(40) This Court finds that the learned Single Judge distinctively dealt with the aforesaid issue in great detail and considered the displeasure remark given to the appellant regarding his functioning in August, 2019 and has recorded in the impugned order itself that there was no improvement in the appellant's functioning till 28.02.2020, leading to (i) the show cause letter dated 02.03.2020 relating to the allegation of huge pendency in cases relating to date of birth, name/gender change and other exception cases. The learned Single Judge after appreciating the inputs given by the Asst. Director General on 06.03.2020 observed that,

"The fact that petitioner's deputation was extended in the interregnum on 13.02.2020 does not wash off what is evident from the records as aforesaid regarding the working of the petitioner. This apart, there was a report of an internal inquiry committee dated 04.03.2020 against the petitioner which was in the nature of a fact finding report. One of the complainants Shri Devashish Bhatt was Assistant Section Officer under the petitioner with one Rajeev Srivastava as an intermediary officer between the two and the contention that he was not under his direct control is nothing but an eye wash."

(41) Thus, the learned Single Judge after recording that a complaint had also been lodged by a Driver of a general pool, wherein again the Appellant conducted himself in a manner not befitting an officer of his rank. Apparently, the learned Single Judge went on to quote, the conclusion of the internal inquiry committee report dated 04.03.2020 as herein under:-

"Recommendations: Committee feels that in an office like UIDAI where project work in being completed in a mission mode and officers have to interact with various eco partners including residents, cordial behaviour is utmost required. The behaviour of Shri Gupta, as intimated by various officials is undesirable and may hamper the work flow and ultimately damage the image of the organization."

(42) After appreciating the evidence on record, this Court finds that the learned Single Judge, returned a finding in the following manner:

"The Court has perused the statement of the petitioner recorded by the internal inquiry committee wherein there is a reference to the complaints being shown to him while putting a question to him and he being confronted with its contents. Therefore, it is incorrect to say, as was stated by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that he came to know about the complaints only through the counter affidavit. The material aforesaid forms the basis for recommending the premature repatriation of the petitioner on the ground of unsatisfactory work and unsuitability for continuation on deputation in UIDAI.

Based on the said recommendations, the Chief Executive Officer took the decision and approved the same on 12.03.2020 for premature repatriation of the petitioner. Consequently the impugned simplicitor order dated 16.03.32020 was issued mentioning the approval by the competent authority. No proceedings preliminary or otherwise were initiated against the petitioner by the disciplinary authority for punishing the petitioner for any misconduct, therefore, reliance placed by the learned Counsel for the petitioner in this regard on the decision of the Supreme Court in Chandra Prakash Shahi's case (Supra) does not help his cause, specially considering the status of the petitioner which was that of a deputationist even if based on selection as he was liable to be repatriated on account of unsatisfactory work or unsuitability even as per the decision in S.N. Maity's case (supra) and the decision in Ashok Kumar Patel's case (supra).

In these circumstances, especially in the absence of any allegation of personal malafide against any officer or employee of UIDAI who may have been involved in the decision making process or in the process leading to it, it cannot be said that the repatriation of the petitioner is punitive or arbitrary. The reasons and material mentioned in the counter affidavit as noticed hereinabove may have been the motive but not the foundation of the order. In view of the above discussion, the impugned order cannot be said to be punitive. It is an order simplicitor."

(43) This Court is again with full agreement with the findings returned by the learned Single Judge. Pertinently, the learned Single Judge has nowhere missed the 'woods of the tree' and returned the findings which are plausible and reasonable in the given peculiar facts and circumstances of the case.

(44) This court finds that it is a settled principle of law that absorption cannot be claimed as a matter of right. For an absorption to be carried out, there has to be consent of the Lender Organisation as well as the Department in which the absorption is sought. In this regard, reference may be made to Kunal Nanda Vs. Union of India and others : (2000) 5 SCC 362 wherein the Supreme Court has succinctly explained the legal position concerning absorption:

"6. ...It is well settled that unless the claim of the deputationist for permanent absorption in the department where he works on deputation is based upon any statutory Rule, Regulation or Order having the force of law, a deputationist cannot assert and succeed in any such claim for absorption. The basic principle underlying deputation itself is that the person concerned can always and at any time be repatriated to his parent department to serve in his substantive position therein at the instance of either of the departments and there is no vested right in such a person to continue for long on deputation or get absorbed in the department to which he had gone on deputation."

(45) The Judgment in Kunal Nanda (Supra) has been reiterated in the judgment of the Supreme Court in Union of India Vs. V. Ramakrishnan : (2005) 8 SCC 394 and decisions of Division Benches of this Court in Pawan Kumar & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Ors. : 2018 SCC OnLine Del 12615 and Chandra Mohan Singh Bhandari Vs. Union of India and Others : 2019 SCC OnLine Del 10002. In Pawan Kumar (Supra) a Division Bench of the Delhi High Court rejected the relief of absorption sought by the petitioners therein, who were working as Constables in various departments of the CAPFs and were sent on deputation with CBI for a long period of time. Relying on the dicta of the Supreme Court in Kunal Nanda (Supra), the Court held as under:

"23. Petitioners plea of legitimate expectation is also without merit. Merely because the Petitioners continued to be on deputation for a period of seven years or more, it cannot be said that a right has accrued in their favour. The delay on the part of CBI to complete this absorption process was also on account of the earlier circulars being contrary to the Recruitment Rules. Mr. Chibber relies on the Judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Ram Pravesh Singh v. State of Bihar, (2006) 8 SCC 381. This judgment is distinguishable from the facts of the present case. The Appellant therein were working for the Futwah-Phulwarisharif Gramya Vidyut Sahakari Samiti Ltd. (for short "the Society"). This society was brought into existence by the Bihar Government and the Bihar State Electricity Board by issuing a license to the Society under the State Electricity Act. Thereafter the license issued to the society was revoked and it was merged with the Board. On account of this merger, the Appellants claimed a right to be absorbed relying on the doctrine of legitimate expectation.

Conclusion

(46) Thus, it is concluded that the Appellant has been rightly repatriated to his parent organisation- MMTC and this court does not find any plausible ground to upset the well-reasoned and descriptive order passed by the Learned Single Judge, who has extensively touched each and every aspect of the matter. An affirmative action is required from both the lender as well as the borrowing department for absorption of a government servant in the borrowing department and as such, it can be safely concluded that deemed absorption or automatic absorption is not permissible under service law and nothing has been brought on record by the Appellant to demonstrate any rule or regulations akin to the said concept.

(47) Further, the concept of transfer and deputation has been explained by the Apex Court in Prasar Bharti and Others

Vs. Amarjeet Singh and Others : 2007 (2) SCALE 486 and it has been held, that a person sent in a cadre outside his substantive cadre has no right to continue in the borrower organisation and can be repatriated to his parent cadre at any point of time without assigning any reason.

(48) The law also stands settled that the authorities cannot be required to assign any reason, whatsoever, in an order of repatriation and such power cannot be fettered by requiring them to record reason. Which employee should be posted where is absolutely within the domain of the authority concerned and unless it is shown that an order of transfer/repatriation is contrary to the statutory rules or is otherwise mala fide or has been passed by the incompetent authority, only then the Court may interfere and not otherwise. (See: State of U.P. Vs. Ashok Kumar Saxena : AIR 1998 SC 925, Mohd. Masood Ahmad Vs. State of U.P. & others : JT 2007 (12) SC 467).

(49) For all the aforesaid reasons, this Court does not find any merits in the appeal and as such the same is dismissed. However, it is made clear as has also been stated hereinabove, that dismissal of this appeal shall not have any impediment on the pendency of the writ petition No. 8943 (S/S) 2022, which shall be decided on its own merits, without being influenced by passing of this Judgment.

(50) There shall be no orders as to Cost.

The judgment is pronounced today in open Court in terms of Chapter VII sub-rule (2) of Rule (1) of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952.

(2024) 5 ILRA 428
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MAHESH CHANDRA TRIPATHI, J.
THE HON'BLE ANISH KUMAR GUPTA, J.

Special Appeal No. 537 of 2024

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Appellants
Versus
Manoj Kumar Jain & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellants:
C.S.C.

Counsel for the Respondents:
Hritudhwaj Pratap Sashi

A. Service Law – Constitution of India – Article 29 & 30 – UP Intermediate Education Act, 1921– Regulations framed under Act, 1921 – Ch. III Reg. 101 – Minority institution – Post of Clerk – No prior approval of DIOS was taken – Effect – How far minority institution enjoy exemption – Held, Regulation 101 would also be applicable to the minority institutions, which are on grant-in-aid list of the St. Government – Article 29 and 30 (1) of the Constitution of India, which deal with the right to establish and administer minority institution, do not preclude the St. to regulate the conditions of employment – Since the selection process was initiated without any prior approval from DIOS as mandated in Regulation 101, the selection process stood vitiated since its inception. (Para 48, 50 and 53)

Special Appeal allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Writ Petition No.45060 of 2015; Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. decided on 19.11.2018

2. Civil Appeal No. 865 of 2021; St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & ors. decided on 27.09.2021

3. Udai Veer Singh & anr. Vs District Inspector of Schools Deoria & anr.; 2001 All.L.J. 122

4. Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 50286 of 2000; Amit Kumar Vs District Inspector of Schools, Jaunpur decided on 21.11.2000

5. St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Rachna Hills & ors.; 2023 (41) LCD 1291

6. Krishna Kant Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2018 (11) ADJ 419

7. Committee of Management, Swami Lila Shah Adarsh Sindhi Inter College & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2017 (2) ADJ 377 (FB)

8. St. of U.P. Vs Principal, Abhay Nandan Inter College & ors.; 2021 (15) SCC 600

9. Harpal Singh Vs St. of U.P.; 2015 (3) ADJ 236

10. Abhishek Tripathi Vs St. of U.P.; 2014 (4) ADJ 270

11. Mohanlal Goenka Vs Benoy Krishna Mukherjee; AIR 1953 SC 65 (SC)

12. St. of West Bengal Vs Hemant Kumar Bhattacharjee; AIR 1966 SC 1061

13. St. of U.P. Vs Manager, Committee of Management, Islamia Inter College & ors.; 2022 (2) AWC 1788

14. Sister Meera Vs St. of U.P.; 2013 (10) ADJ 310

15. Mohd. Faizan Vs St. of U.P.; 2013 (5) ADJ 471

16. Committee of Management, Swami Lila Shah Adarsh Sindhi Inter College & Anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2017 (2) ADJ 377 (FB)

17. Sindhi Education Society & anr. Vs Chief Secretary, Government of NCT of Delhi & ors.; (2010) 8 SCC 49

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mahesh Chandra Tripathi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel and Shri Ashish Mohan Srivastava, learned Standing Counsel for State-respondents-appellants and Shri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for petitioner-respondent no.1.

2. This Court vide order dated 23.5.2024 has condoned the delay in filing the appeal and has directed to accord regular number to the appeal.

3. Present intra court appeal under Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the High Court Rules has been preferred assailing the validity of the judgment and order dated 9.5.2022 passed by learned Single Judge in Manoj Kumar Jain v. State of U.P. & Ors.1, whereby the writ petition was allowed; orders dated 21.5.2019 and 9.7.2019 passed by District Inspector of Schools (DIOS), Aligarh have been quashed; the appointment of the petitioner on the post of Assistant Clerk in the institution has been upheld and the respondent no.3 was directed to grant financial sanction to the appointment of the petitioner on the post of Assistant Clerk and to make payment of arrears of salary w.e.f. 3.7.2018, the date of first disapproval of selection of the petitioner and to pay his month to month salary forthwith. For ready reference, the operative portion of the judgment and order dated 9.5.2022 is reproduced as under:-

"The orders impugned passed by District Inspector of Schools, Aligarh, are hereby quashed.

The appointment of the petitioner on the post of Assistant Clerk in the institution is upheld and the respondent no.3 is directed by means of a positive mandamus as per the judgement of Apex Court in case of Comptroller And Auditor General of India & Another Vs. K.S. Jagannathan & Another, (1986) 2 SCC 676 to grant financial sanction to the appointment of the petitioner on the aforesaid post, within three months from today and make payment of arrears of his salary w.e.f., 3.7.2018, the date of first disapproval of selection of the petitioner, within same period and pay his month to month salary forthwith.

In case arrears of salary payable to the petitioner is not paid to him within the time provided by this Court, the petitioner would be entitled to get 12% interest on the arrears of the amount due.

The State Government shall be free to recover the amount of interest from the public servant/servants, who is/are found responsible for the delay.

The writ petition is allowed.

FACTS

4. Brief facts giving rise to the present appeal is that there is an educational institution known as 'Shri Udai Singh Jain Kanya Inter College, Udai Singh Jain Road, Aligarh'2, which is a minority institution and is governed by the U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 19213 and the various Regulations framed thereunder from time to time. The institution also received grant-in-aid from the State Government and as such the Payment of Salary Act, 1971 is also applicable upon the institution. The clerical cadre of the institution comprises one post of Head Clerk and four posts of Asstt. Clerks. It is claimed that the sanctioned strength has already been determined in view of the Government Order dated 15.6.2012, which was issued in compliance of the direction dated 22.5.2012 passed by this Court in the case of Dhruv Narain Singh v. State of U.P. & Ors.4. Therefore, it is claimed that the sanctioned strength of teaching and non-teaching staff in the institution has been determined. After superannuation of one Suresh Chandra Saxena, Head Clerk, substantive vacancy occurred on 28.8.2017 and on the said post promotion was accorded to one Adan Kumar Jain. Consequently, one substantive vacancy (direct recruitment) of Asstt. Clerk fell vacant in the institution.

5. It is claimed that the advertisement of the said post was published in the newspaper 'Amar Ujala' on 10.12.2017 inviting applications from eligible candidates for the post of Clerk. The petitioner-respondent claiming to be fully qualified and eligible applied in pursuance of the said advertisement. He had also participated in the interview, which was scheduled on 15.1.2018 and he was selected as best suited candidate. Consequently, the Committee of Management passed a resolution on 19.1.2018 for granting appointment to the petitioner-respondent. The Manager of College had also issued an appointment letter dated 22.1.2018 to the petitioner. Pursuant to the said appointment letter, the petitioner also joined the institution on 27.1.2018 and it is claimed that since then he has been continuously working.

6. Thereafter, all relevant papers pertaining to the selection of the petitioner has been forwarded to DIOS for according financial sanction. On the paper so submitted the DIOS by communication dated 17.2.2018 made certain queries from the management. The query so raised was forthwith replied by the Manager of the institution on 27.3.2018. Eventually on 3.7.2018 reiterated on 11.9.2018 the DIOS has declined to accord financial sanction upon an allegation of the contravention of Regulation 101 of Chapter III of the Regulations framed under the Act, 1921.

7. The said orders dated 3.7.2018 and 11.9.2018 were challenged by the petitioner in Manoj Kumar Jain v. State of U.P. & Ors.5, which was allowed by learned Single Judge on 26.3.2019 with following observations:-

"Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri K. M. Asthana, learned counsel for the Managing Committee and learned Standing Counsel for the State authorities.

Petitioner claims to have been appointed as a Class III employee in Shri Udai Singh Jain Kanya Inter College, Aligarh, which is a recognized intermediate institution under the provisions of U.P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 and the provisions of U.P. Act No.24 of 1972 are also applicable. The institution also is a minority institution.

It is alleged that appointment of petitioner has been made after the vacancy was duly advertised in newspaper 'Amar Ujala'. Learned senior counsel for the petitioner states that vacancy was also advertised in newspaper 'Times of India' which meets the requirement of a valid publication of vacancy itself. It is also stated that there exists a vacancy and a fair procedure has been followed, and therefore, mere non obtaining of prior permission from the Director in terms of regulation 101 would not be fatal. Reliance is placed upon a judgment of this Court in Abhishek Tripathi v.s State of U.P. and others, 2016 (1) ADJ 603 to contend that claim of appointment ought to have been examined on merits by the authority concerned.

Although time was allowed to learned Standing Counsel to file a counter affidavit way back on 25.9.2018, but no counter affidavit has been filed as yet. Considering the nature of order proposed to be passed, no further opportunity is liable to be granted to learned Standing Counsel to file a counter affidavit.

The order impugned in the present writ petition would go to show that there is no conscious determination by the authority concerned with regard to legality of petitioner's appointment in terms of the applicable provisions of law. The authorities were expected to determine as to whether there existed any vacancy; a fair procedure for recruitment was followed and; petitioner possessed requisite qualification etc. Since this has not been done, the order of the authority concerned refusing to grant approval to petitioner's appointment cannot be sustained.

Writ petition, accordingly, succeeds and is allowed. Orders dated 3.7.2018 and 11.9.2018 stands quashed. The matter is remitted to respondent no.3 for passing a fresh order, keeping in view the observations made in the case of Abhishek Tripathi (supra), after affording opportunity of hearing to the parties concerned, within a period of three months from the date of presentation of certified copy of this order."

8. The aforesaid order was served upon the DIOS, who in turn issued notices upon the Manager of the institution on 9.4.2019 fixing date of hearing on 16.4.2019. Consequently, the order dated 21.5.2019 was passed by the DIOS rejecting the claim of the petitioner for grant of financial sanction on the post of Asstt. Clerk in the institution. Thereafter, the Manager of the institution moved a representation before the DIOS on 27.5.2019 requesting therein to reconsider the decision with regard to grant of approval to the appointment of the petitioner. However, the same was also rejected by the DIOS vide order dated 9.7.2019.

9. The petitioner challenged the orders passed by the DIOS on 21.5.2019 and 9.7.2019 by means of Writ Petition No.13182 of 2019. The DIOS has rejected the claim of the petitioner mainly on four grounds, which are averred in para 28 of the writ petition as under:-

I. No prior permission in terms of Chapter -III Regulation 101 was taken by the Principal of the Institution before initiating the selection proceedings which culminated in the appointment of the petitioners.

II. The selection committee did not comprise of one nominee of the District Magistrate and one nominee from the reserved category.

III. Applications were to be received from the candidates via registered speed post but on the contrary in the selection proceedings which culminated into the appointment of the petitioners, the applications were not received by registered speed post and no further information has been given so as to how the petitioners were served with the appointment letters.

IV. In the selection process rather than awarding quality points marks grading system was adopted by the Appointing Authority and further no waiting list was prepared, consequently the selection proceedings were not carried out in accordance with law.

10. The above writ petition was allowed by learned Single Judge by the order impugned dated 9.5.2022, which has been assailed in the present intra Court appeal. Learned Single Judge had considered the aforementioned four grounds taken by the DIOS while rejecting the financial approval and answered the aforesaid objections. Learned Single Judge has answered the first objection with following observation:-

Regarding the first ground of lack of permission before initiation of selection proceedings of the petitioner as per Chapter III, Regulation 101 of the Act of 1921, this Court finds that in the earlier round of litigation before this Court in Writ-A No. 20601 of 2018 decided on 26.3.2019, this Court examined the issues and found that mere non-obtaining of permission from the District Inspector of Schools in terms of Regulation 101 would not be fatal. This Court directed the District Inspector of Schools to pass a fresh order after affording opportunity of hearing to the parties. District Inspector of Schools has ignored the observations of this Court dated 26.3.2019. District Inspector of Schools has simply reiterated his earlier stand, which was turned down by this Court in the earlier ground of litigation. In the case of Mohd. Faizan and others (supra) this Court has clearly held that there is no specific provisions for applying Regulation 101, Chapter III of the Intermediate Education Act to the minority institution. Even assuming that it is regulatory in nature, it does not means prior approval as explained by the Division Bench of this Court in the case of Jagdish Singh vs. State of U.P. and others, (2006) 2 UPLBEC 1851. Hence it is reiterated that prior permission for conducting the selection process of the petitioners in the minority institution was not required in terms of Regulation 101, Chapter III of the Intermediate Education Act.

11. Learned Single Judge has also answered the second objection with following observations:-

The second ground for rejecting the claim of the petitioner is that one nominee of the District Magistrate and one nominee from reserved category concerned was not included in the selection Committee. In minority institution, there was no such requirement as held by the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Harpal Singh Vs. State of U.P., reported in 2015 (3) ADJ Pg. 236. Such procedure was applicable for non minority institution. The constitutional Bench of the Apex Court in the case of T.M.A. Pal Foundation Vs. State of Karnataka, reported in 2002 (8) SCC Pg. 481 and another constitution Bench Judgement in the case of P.A. Inamdar Vs. State of Maharastra, reported in 2005 Vol-VI SCC Pg. 537 has laid down certain guidelines with regard to the functioning of a minority institution. A perusal of the aforesaid pronouncement of the Hon'ble Apex Court would indicate the fact that inter alia it has explicitly been held that the State Government is not empowered to interfere with the functioning of the minority institution in the matters relating to appointment of teaching staff and also non teaching staff.

The State Authority cannot under the garb of adopting regulatory measure destroy the administrative autonomy of a minority educational institution or start interfering with the administration and the management of the institution so as to render the right of administration of the institution concerned nugatory or illusory. The State Government cannot regulate the method or procedure for appointment of teachers of a minority educational institution. Once the teacher possessing the requisite qualification prescribed by the State or the University has been selected by the management of the minority education institution by adopting the procedure of selection, the State Government or the University would have no right to vitiate the selection of such teacher.

Even the U.P. Secondary Education Service Section Board Act, 1982 is also not applicable upon a minority institution in terms of Section 30 of the said Act.

In view of the aforementioned examples it can be concluded that the the Staff Rules of 1985 with regard to the procedure for appointment of Class -III and IV employees in a recognized intermediate institution even though would apply on a non-minority institution in terms of the Full Bench pronouncement of this Court in the case of Harpal Singh (supra) but would not apply upon a minority institution which enjoys certain privileges in terms of Articles 29 & 30 of the Constitution of India.

Even otherwise the position of law is that as to whether any order or statutory provision would apply in a particular set of institution, there has to be a specific mention in the Statute itself that it shall apply upon a minority institution and that a provision ipso facto shall not be deemed to apply upon a minority institution in terms of Article 29 and 30 of the Constitution. Thus it can be held that the District Inspector of Schools has manifestly erred in returning a finding that there was no nominee of the District Magistrate from the reserved category in the selection committee which proceeded to appoint the petitioner on Class-III post in the institution.

12. Learned Single Judge has considered and answered third objection with following observations:-

Coming to the third ground taken in the impugned order in regard to receiving of the application, it is held that the said ground is hyper-technial and that no prejudice was caused to any other candidates who took part in the selection proceedings due to the fact that the application of the petitioner was not received vide registered post. Many candidates applied pursuant to the advertisement published in news paper and after due consideration of merit by the duly constituted selection committee, a decision was taken to appoint the petitioner on Class III post.

13. Learned Single Judge has answered fourth objection with following observations:-

Regarding the fourth and final ground, with regard to the fact whether quality points were allotted in the selection proceedings or not, it is appears that the selection would not be vitiated on the face of it as the job of the selection committee was of consideration the merits of all the eligible candidates and that no prejudice was caused to any candidate in the way in which the selection proceedings were carried out by the selection committee.

SUBMISSIONS OF STATE-APPELLANTS

14. Shri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned counsel for State-respondents-appellants has vehemently urged that the provisions of Regulation 101 and other Regulations framed under the Act, 1921 are for regulating appointments and conditions of service and disciplinary proceeding framed for non-teaching staff and are applicable to all aided and recognised institutions including minority institutions. The institution in question is admittedly aided and recognised minority institution. He submits that the object of the Act, 1921 is to regulate and supervise the High School and Intermediate institutions. Sub-section 4 of Section 9 of the Act, 1921 empowers the State Government to pass appropriate orders or to take adequate action consistent with the provisions of the Act. He has also placed reliance upon Section 16G of the Act, 1921, which deals with the conditions of service of the head of the institutions, teachers and other employees. For ready reference, Section 16G is reproduced as under:-

"Section 16G- Conditions of Service of Head of Institutions, teachers and other employees (1) Every person employed in a recognized institution shall be governed by such conditions of service as may be prescribed by regulations and any agreement between the management and such employee insofar as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or with the regulations shall be void.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), regulations may provide for-

(a) the period of probation, the conditions of confirmation and the procedure and conditions for promotion and punishment 2[(including suspension pending or in contemplation of inquiry or during the pendency of investigation, inquiry or trial in any criminal case for an offence involving moral turpitude)] and the emoluments for the period of suspension and termination of service with notice;

(b) the scales of pay and payment of salaries;

(c) transfer of service from one recognized institution to another;

(d) grant of leave and Provident Fund and other benefits; and

(e) maintenance of record of work and service."

15. He submits that Regulation 101 was inserted on 28.8.1992 and the same was notified by the State Government on 30.7.1992, which provides, "Appointing Authority except with prior approval of Inspector shall not fill up any vacancy of non-teaching post of any recognized aided institution." The subsequent notification was issued on 2.2.1995, which provides as under:-

"Appointing Authority except with prior approval of Inspector shall not fill up any vacancy of non-teaching post of any recognized aided institution:

Provided that filling of the vacancy on the post of Jamadar may be granted by the Inspector."

16. He submits that later on there was again an amendment in Regulation 101 made on 31.12.2009, which reads as under:-

"The appointing authority shall not fill any vacancy of the non- teaching staff of recognised aided institutions, except with the approval of Inspector, subject to a restriction that District Inspector of Schools shall make available total number of vacancies to Director of Education (Secondary Education), and showing the number of students put forth justification for the filling of the vacancies. On receipt of order from the Director of Education (Secondary Education), the District Inspector of Schools shall, for filling said vacancies, give permission to the appointing authority; and while giving such permission he shall ensure to follow the reservation rules specified by the government and the prescribed norms in justification for the posts.

The aforesaid amendment in the Regulation shall come into force immediate effect."

17. Taking into consideration the recommendations made by the Sixth Central Pay Commission, Government Orders were passed on 8.9.2010 and 6.1.2011 making it applicable to all Government Departments and aided schools, thus, deciding not to go for fresh recruitment of Class-IV employees and further directing that any arrangement concerning the post to be vacated may be made only through 'Outsourcing'. The communications, in this regard, were sent to all the stakeholders intimating them of the decision taken. Following the said decision, Regulation 101 was once again amended by Government Order dated 4.9.2013, which was accordingly notified on 24.4.2014. The effect of the said amendment is to make the post of Class-IV employees, which was hitherto supposed to be filled up by the institutions through 'Outsourcing'. Therefore, the permanent posts were accordingly abolished, thereby, replacing the method of appointment by way of 'Outsourcing'. An exception has been carved out only for the dependents of those employees died in harness during employment. The amended Regulation 101 (as applicable on date) is reproduced hereunder:-

AMENDED REGULATION:

"101. The appointing authority, except for the prior approval of the inspector, shall not fill any vacant post of non-teaching staff (clerical cadre) in any recognised, aided institution; with the restriction that the District Inspector of Schools shall make available the total number of vacancies to the Director of Education (Secondary Education) and also put forth justification for filling of the posts, showing the strength of the students in the institution. On receipt of the order from Director of Education (Secondary Education), the District Inspector of Schools shall give permission to the appointing authority for filling the said vacancies (except the vacancies of Class-IV posts) and while giving the permission, he shall ensure compliance of the reservation rules specified by the government as also of the prescribed norms in justification for the posts.

With respect to the Class-IV vacancies, arrangements shall be made by way of outsourcing only; but the relevant rules, 1981, as amended from time to time, for recruitment of dependants of teaching or non-teaching staff of the nongovernment aided institutions dying in harness shall be applicable in relation to the appointments to be made on the vacant posts of Class-IV category."

18. Shri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel invited attention of this Court to the terms 'any recognised, aided institution' used in Regulation 101. He submits that the term 'recognition' has been defined in Section 2 (d) of the Act. The term 'institution' has been defined in Section 2 (b) of the Act. He submits that there is no exception carved out in the Regulation 101 regarding its non-applicability upon a minority institution in as much as the term used in Regulation 101 is 'any recognised, aided institution'. And all the institutions recognised and/ or aided will come under the ambit of Regulation 101.

19. He further submitted that the term 'minority institution' although used in Section 16FF of the Act, has not been defined anywhere in the Act. He, therefore, submitted that the savings available to minority institutions are referable to Article 30 (1) of the Constitution of India.

20. To elaborate his submissions, Shri Ansari, learned Standing Counsel next submitted that Article 30 (1) of the Constitution of India only deals with right to establish and administer minority institutions and in no way preclude them from the regulatory measures undertaken by the State Government to efficiently regulate the abovesaid rights.

21. Learned Standing Counsel also drawn our attention to the following Regulations 102, 103 and 104 of the Chapter III of the Act, which all contains the same terminology i.e. 'किसी मान्यता प्राप्त, सहायता प्राप्त संस्था' i.e. 'any recognised, aided institution'. He further drawn our attention to Regulation 110, which starts from 'अल्पसंख्यक संस्थाओं को छोड़कर' i.e. 'apart from the minority institution'. Hence he submits that wherever the applicability of the regulations are saved upon the minority institution, it has been expressly given in the Act. For example Section 16FF and Regulation 110.

22. Shri Fuzail Ahmad Ansari, learned Standing Counsel, therefore, submitted that once it is apparent from the plain reading of Regulation 101 read with Section 16FF and Regulation 110, there is no scope of doubt that Regulation 101 does apply upon the minority institutions and the procedure given therein has to be strictly adhered to without any classification or distinction as to minority or non-minority institutions.

23. Learned Standing Counsel has vehemently submitted that in the instant case there is no such material on record to show that the alleged appointment was made by the appointing authority after obtaining prior approval from the DIOS. He submitted that the amendment in Regulation 101 dated 24.4.2014 was held as unconstitutional by the Division Bench of this Court in Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors. v. State of U.P. & Ors.6 vide order dated 19.11.2018. The same was subjected to challenge by the State Government before Hon'ble the Apex Court in State of U.P. & Ors. v. Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors.7. Hon'ble the Apex Court vide judgment dated 27.9.2021 had approved the entire Regulation 101.

24. Shri Ansari, learned Standing Counsel emphatically submitted that while approving the amendment in Regulation 101, Hon'ble the Apex Court has held that in case institution is aided, there is no need for any sub-classification by separating them as minority and non-minority institutions and held that the Regulation is sought to be enforced against all aided institutions. Learned Standing Counsel has placed reliance upon para 53 of the said judgment, which is reproduced as under:-

"53.The counsel appearing for the respondents did place reliance upon few decisions of this Court. Having gone through the said decisions and in the light of our discussion, we do not find any help flowing from them, strengthening the contentions raised by them. Reliance has been made on the decision rendered by this Court in Matankara Syrian Catholic College vs. T. Jose, (2007) 1 SCC 386. Having gone through the said judgment, we do not find that the same has got any application to the case at hand. The said decision deals with the right of the minor institutions to choose the Principal of its choice. We have already held that we are dealing with the case of aided institutions and, therefore, there is no need for any sub-classification by separating them as minority and non-minority institutions. The impugned regulation is sought to be enforced against all the aided institutions. It is also to be noted that this decision was taken into consideration by this Court in S.K. Md. Rafique's case (supra)."

25. Learned Standing Counsel submitted that the Regulation 101 of Chapter-III of the Act, 1921, therefore, applies with full force on minority institutions as well. The framers have not carved out any distinction or classification between minority and non-minority institution under the Act, 1921.

26. He has also placed reliance upon Section 16FF of the Act, 1921, which for ready reference is quoted as under:-

16-FF. Savings as to minority institutions-

(1) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (4) of section 16-E, and section 16-F, the Selection Committee for the appointment of a Head of Institution or a teacher of an institution established and administered by a minority referred to in clause (I) of Article 30 of the Constitution shall consist of five members (including its Chairman), nominated by the Committee of Management :

Provided that one of the members of the Selection Committee shall —

(a) in the case of appointment of the Head of an Institution, be an expert selected by the Committee of Management from a panel of experts prepared by the Director ;

(b) in the case of appointment of a teacher be the Head of the Institution concerned.

(2) The procedure to be followed by the Selection Committee referred to in sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) No person selected under this section shall be appointed, unless —

(a) in the case of the Head of an Institution the proposal of appointment has been approved by the Regional Deputy Director of Education ; and

(b) in the case of a teacher such proposal has been approved by the Inspector.

(4) The Regional Deputy Director of Education or the Inspector, as the case may be, shall not withhold approval for the selection made under this section where the person selected possesses the minimum qualifications prescribed and is otherwise eligible.

(5) Where the Regional Deputy Director of Education or the Inspector, as the case may be, does not approve of a candidate selected under this section, the Committee of Management may, within three weeks from the date of receipt of such disapproval, make a representation to the Director in the case of the Head of Institution, and to the Regional Deputy Director of Education in the case of a teacher.

(6) Every order passed by the Director or the Regional Deputy Director of Education on a representation under sub-section (5) shall be final.

"16-चच- अल्पसंख्यक संस्थाओं के प्रति अपवाद

(1) धारा 16-ङ की उपधारा (4) में और 16-च में किसी बात के होते हुए भी, संविधान के अनुच्छेद 30 के खण्ड (1) में निर्दिष्ट अल्पसंख्यक द्वारा स्थापित और प्रशासित संस्था के प्रधान या अध्यापक की नियुक्ति के लिये चयन समिति में प्रबन्ध समिति द्वारा नाम-निर्दिष्ट (सभापति को सम्मिलित करते हुये) पाँच सदस्य होंगेः

प्रतिबन्ध यह है कि चयन समिति के सदस्यों में से एक-

(क) संस्था के प्रधान की नियुक्ति के मामले में निदेशक द्वारा विशेषज्ञों की तैयार की गई नामिका में से प्रबन्ध समिति के द्वारा चुना गया विशेषज्ञ होगा;

(ख) अध्यापक की नियुक्ति के मामले में सम्बद्ध संस्था का प्रधान होगा।

(2) उपधारा (1) में निर्दिष्ट चयन समिति के द्वारा अनुसरणीय प्रक्रिया वह होगी जो विहित की जाय।

(3) इस धारा के अधीन चुने गये किसी व्यक्ति को तब तक नियुक्त नहीं किया जायगा, जब तक—

(क) संस्था के प्रधान के मामले में सम्भागीय शिक्षा उपनिदेशक ने नियुक्ति के प्रस्ताव का अनुमोदन न कर दिया हो; और

(ख) अध्यापक के मामले में निरीक्षक ने ऐसे प्रस्ताव का अनुमोदन न कर दिया हो।

(4) सम्भागीय शिक्षा उप-निदेशक या निदेशक, यथास्थिति, इस धारा के अधीन चयन का अनुमोदन नहीं रोकेगा जबकि चुना गया व्यक्ति विहित न्यूनतम अर्हताओं से युक्त और अन्यथा पात्र हो।

(5) जहाँ सम्भागीय शिक्षा उप-निदेशक या निरीक्षक, यथास्थिति, इस धारा के अधीन चुने गये अभ्यर्थी का अनुमोदन नहीं करता है वहां प्रबन्ध समिति ऐसे अनुमोदन की प्राप्ति के दिनांक से तीन सप्ताह के भीतर संस्था के प्रधान के मामले में निदेशक को और अध्यापक के मामले में सम्भागीय शिक्षा उप निदेशक को अभ्यावेदन कर सकती है।

(6) उपधारा (5) के अधीन अभ्यावेदन पर निदेशक या सम्भागीय शिक्षा उपनिदेशक द्वारा पारित आदेश अन्तिम होगा।"

27. He submitted that the framers have consciously nowhere made any distinction in the entire Act qua minority and non-minority institutions but only provided savings clause as to Minority Institution in Section 16FF of the Act, 1921. He also vehemently submitted that various regulatory provisions are contained in Chapter-III of the Regulations safeguarding the interest of teachers/ employees against the arbitrary actions of the management. The Regulation clearly demonstrates that there are sufficient guidelines to the DIOS for according or refusing to grant approval in the matter of appointment. Even the regulatory provision of termination is also provided under Section 16 G (3) (a) of the Act, which applies to the minority institution as well.

28. Shri Ansari, learned Standing Counsel, in support of his submissions, has placed reliance upon paragraphs 5, 6 and 8 of the judgment in Udai Veer Singh & Anr. v. District Inspector of Schools Deoria & Anr.8, wherein the Court has held that the regulatory provisions under Section 16G of the Act and Chapter III of the Regulations, Regulation 2 (1), 21, 31, 32, 33, 35, 36, 37, 39 (2), 40, 41, 44, 44-A, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 68, 99, 100 and other regulation applied by it, 101 and 102 would apply to non-teaching staff of a minority institution. The Court also held that as per Regulation 101 prior approval of the DIOS for appointment of non-teaching staff in the aided minority institution is mandatory. Merely obtaining prior approval from DIOS for making appointment does not infringe the minority status of the institution.

29. He submits that nowhere the framers have made any such provisions under the Act or its Regulations to curtail the liberty to appoint any suitable employee by the management in the minority institution. Even after appointment of non-teaching staff (Class-III), papers have to be forwarded to the DIOS for according financial approval, if the post is sanctioned and the candidate possesses essential qualifications and the appointment has been made in accordance with law. He submitted that in absence of any financial approval accorded by DIOS, no salary can be disbursed. It is not in doubt that the DIOS does not control the selection and appointment made by appointing authority or the management of a minority institution and the management is absolutely free to select and find out best suitable person and appoint him in the institution but the regulatory measures provided in Regulation 101 has to be followed.

30. He has also drawn our attention to the alleged publication made in 'Amar Ujala' dated 10.12.2017. For ready reference, the same is reproduced as under:-

"समाचार पत्र "अमर उजाला"

दिनांक 10.12.2017

श्री उदय सिंह जैन कन्या इंटर कालेज

उदय सिंह जैन रोड, अलीगढ़।

आवश्यकता है।

सहायक लिपिक पुरुष (कम्प्यूटर एवं पत्राचार में दक्ष) पद 01 योग्यता व वेतनमान उ०प्र० शासन द्वारा निर्धारित तथा उ०प्र० माध्यमिक शिक्षा परिषद शिक्षा अधिनियम-1921 में वर्णित नियमों के अनुसार अर्हताधारी अभ्यर्थी स्वलिखित, आवेदन पत्र एवं वेतनमान रंगीन पासपोर्ट साइज फोटोग्राफ व बैंक शुल्क रुपये दो सौ (बैंक ड्राफ्ट) आवेदन पत्र प्रबंधक पद के नाम उपरोक्त पते पर विज्ञापन तिथि से 20 दिन दिनांक 29.12.2007 तक के अंदर भेजें। आवेदन पत्र पंजीकृत डाक द्वारा ही स्वीकार किया जायेगा।

प्रबंधक

श्री उदय सिंह जैन कन्या इंटर कालेज

उदय सिंह जैन रोड, अलीगढ़।"

31. Reliance has also been placed on the alleged appointment letter dated 22.1.2018, which for ready reference, is reproduced as under:-

"श्री उदयसिंह जैन कन्या इण्टर कालिज

उदय सिंह जैन रोड, अलीगढ़-202001

दिनांक 22.01.2018

पत्रांक-360-64/2017-18

सेवा में,

श्री मनोज कुमार जैन

पुत्र श्री विनोद कुमार जैन

नि० बाजार …. (आशियन)

जलेसर, (एटा)

संदर्भः सहायक लिपिक पद पर नियुक्ति।

आपको सहर्ष सूचित किया जाता है कि चयन समिति द्वारा आपका चयन सहायक लिपिक के पद पर गया है। संस्था की प्रबंध समिति ने अपना संकल्प संख्या-02 दिनांक 19.01.2018 द्वारा आपको 24,500/- रुपये के मानक्रम में 5200-20200 रुपये के प्रारंभिक वेतन तथा नियमावली के अधीन तथा अनुमन्य महंगाई भत्ते पर एक वर्ष की परिवीक्षा पर …… तथा अस्थाई रूप से सहायक लिपिक के रूप में नियुक्त कर लिया है।

आपसे इस पत्र के प्राप्ति के दिनांक से दस दिन के भीतर संस्था की प्रधानाचार्या/प्रबंधक के समक्ष उपस्थित होने और कार्यभार

ग्रहण करने की अपेक्षा की जाती है। यदि आप ऊपर विनिर्दिष्ट समय के भीतर कार्यभार ग्रहण नहीं करते हैं तो इस नियुक्ति को रद्द किया जा सकेगा।

आपकी नियुक्ति श्रीमान् जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, अलीगढ़ से अनुमोदन प्राप्त होने पर ही वैध होगी व वेतन भी अनुमोदन की तिथि से देय होगा।

ह० अपठनीय
(एस०के० जैन)
प्रबंधक .
श्री उदय सिंह कन्या इंटर
कालिज, अलीगढ़।

प्रतिलिपिः

1. श्रीमान् जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, अलीगढ़
2. श्रीमान् संयुक्त शिक्षा निदेशक (मा०), अलीगढ़।
3. श्रीमान् उप शिक्षा निदेशक, अलीगढ़ को सूचनार्थ अग्रसारित।
4. वित्त एंव लेखाधिकारी, कार्यालय जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक, अलीगढ़।

ह० अपठनीय
(एस०के० जैन)
प्रबंधक
श्री उदय सिंह कन्या इंटर
कालिज, अलीगढ़।''

32. He submits that the alleged publication dated 10.12.2017 is an eye wash. In the said advertisement, age, qualification, pay scale or any other essential qualifications were not mentioned to substantiate the claim that the said publication was made as per law with categorical information. All the relevant information were missing. Surprisingly, the alleged appointment letter was issued without any address. Even the said document was also fabricated. These aspects have been considered by the DIOS while passing the order dated 21.5.2019. The relevant portion of the order dated 21.5.2019 is reproduced as under:-

''……..5. शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 के अध्याय 3 विनियम 101 में स्पष्ट उल्लेख किया गया है कि नियुक्ति प्राधिकारी निरीक्षक के पूर्वानुमोदन के सिवाय मान्यता प्राप्त सहायता प्राप्त संस्था के शिक्षणेत्तर पद की रिक्ति को नहीं करेगा, प्रतिबन्ध यह है कि जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक समस्त रिक्तियों की संख्या शिक्षा निदेशक, माध्यमिक को उपलब्ध करायेगा तथा संस्था में छात्र संख्या दर्शाते हुए पदों को भरे जाने के औचित्य को भी स्पष्ट करेगा। शिक्षा निदेशक माध्यमिक से आदेश प्राप्त होने पर जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक उक्त रिक्तियों को भरने हेतु नियुक्ति प्राधिकारी को अनुमति प्रदान करेगा और अनुमति प्रदान करते समय शासन द्वारा निर्धारित आरक्षण नियमों/पदों के औचित्य के लिये निर्धारित मानकों का पालन करायेगा।

6. संस्थाधिकारियों द्वारा उक्त अनियमित नियुक्ति के अनुमोदन हेतु प्रस्तुत अभिलेखों का परीक्षण किये जाने पर यह स्थिति स्पष्ट हुयी है कि उनके द्वारा चयन एवं नियुक्ति की जो प्रक्रिया अपनायी गयी है वह अनियमित एवं विहित प्रक्रिया के अन्तर्गत नहीं है, यथाः-

1. संस्थाधिकारियों द्वारा शिक्षा अधिनियम 1921 के अधीन निर्मित अध्याय 3 में वर्णित विनियम 101 के अन्तर्गत बिना अनुमति प्राप्त किये दैनिक समाचार पत्र 'अमर उजाला' एवं 'टाइम्स आफ इण्डिया' में प्रकाशित विज्ञप्ति पूर्ण विवरण पर आधारित विज्ञप्ति नहीं कही जा सकती है, जिसमें न्यूनतम योग्यता, आयु, वेतनमान आदि का स्पष्ट उल्लेख नहीं किया गया है, जिसके फलस्वरूप उक्त प्रकाशित विज्ञप्ति के द्वारा न्यूनतम अर्हता आयु, वेतनमान न होने के कारण स्वीकार किये जाने के योग्य नहीं है। उक्त विज्ञप्ति ही अपूर्ण है।

2. संस्थाधिकारियों के द्वारा प्रश्नगत नियुक्ति के चयन हेतु चयन समिति का गठन विहित प्रक्रिया के अन्तर्गत नहीं किया गया है, जिसके अन्तर्गत उन्हें जिलाधिकारी द्वारा नामित 01 सदस्य तथा अनुसूचित जाति के सदस्य को चयन समिति में नहीं रखा गया, बल्कि विद्यालय के ही शिक्षक एवं प्रधानाचार्य द्वारा चयन की कार्यवाही मिलकर सम्पन्न कर ली गयी है, जिससे उक्त चयन प्रक्रिया में पारदर्शिता का अभाव है, इससे स्पष्ट होता है कि संस्थाधिकारियों ने कूटरचना कर याची श्री मनोज कुमार जैन की नियुक्ति की है, जो स्वीकार किये जाने योग्य है।

3. विज्ञापन में आवेदन पत्र पंजीकृत डाक के माध्यम से मांगे गये हैं, किन्तु अभ्यर्थियों के आवेदन पत्र प्राप्त करने के विवरण में पंजीकृत डाक का कोई विवरण उल्लिखित नहीं है तथा अभ्यर्थियों के प्राप्त आवेदन पत्रों के सापेक्ष साक्षात्कार हेतु अभ्यर्थियों को बुलाये जाने का पत्र प्रेषित किये जाने की प्रति एवं उसके प्रेषण का स्रोत भी स्पष्ट नहीं किया गया है। यह भी उल्लेख नहीं है कि कितने आवेदन पत्र प्राप्त हुए हैं तथा कितने अभ्यर्थी उपस्थित हुए।

4. चयन प्रक्रिया एवं साक्षात्कार में किसी प्रकार के गुणांक एवं अन्य आधार स्पष्ट नहीं किये गये हैं, बल्कि उपस्थित दर्शाये गये 39 अभ्यर्थियों में से चयनित अभ्यर्थी श्री मनोज कुमार जैन का चयन कर लिया गया है। उक्त चयन किये जाने का आधार एवं औचित्य स्पष्ट नहीं किया गया है। इस प्रकार उक्त चयन प्रक्रिया किसी प्रकार से उपयुक्त, पारदर्शी एवं न्याय संगत नहीं है।

निष्कर्ष .

प्रकरण में की गयी विवेचना एवं पत्रावली में उपलब्ध अभिलेखों के आधार पर मैं इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुँचा हूँ कि संस्थाधिकारियों ने सहायक लिपिक के रिक्त पद का विज्ञापन विभाग से बिना अनुमति प्राप्त किये दैनिक समाचार पत्र अमर उजाला एवं टाइम्स आफ इण्डिया में प्रकाशित विज्ञप्ति पूर्ण विवरण पर आधारित विज्ञप्ति नहीं कही जा सकती है जिसमें न्यूनतम योग्यता, आयु, वेतनमान आदि का स्पष्ट उल्लेख नहीं किया गया है, जिसके फलस्वरूप उक्त प्रकाशित विज्ञप्ति के द्वारा व्यापक प्रचार प्रसार एवं पद व उसकी विहित अर्हताओं के अभाव में विज्ञप्ति ही अनियमित है। प्रश्नगत नियुक्ति के चयन हेतु संस्थाधिकारियों ने चयन समिति का गठन विहित प्रक्रिया के अन्तर्गत नहीं किया है, जिसके अन्तर्गत उन्हें जिलाधिकारी द्वारा नामित एक सदस्य तथा अनुसूचित जाति के सदस्य को चयन समिति में नहीं रखा गया बल्कि विद्यालय के ही शिक्षक एवं प्रधानाचार्य द्वारा चयन की कार्यवाही मिलकर सम्पन्न कर ली गयी है, जिससे उक्त चयन प्रक्रिया में पारदर्शिता का पूर्ण अभाव है। विज्ञापन में आवेदन पत्र पंजीकृत डाक के माध्यम से मांगे गये हैं, किन्तु अभ्यर्थियों के आवेदन पत्र प्राप्त करने के विवरण में पंजीकृत डाक का कोई विवरण उल्लिखित नहीं है और न अभ्यर्थियों के प्राप्त आवेदन पत्रों के सापेक्ष साक्षात्कार हेतु अभ्यर्थियों के बुलाये जाने का पत्र प्रेषित किये जाने के प्रति एवं प्रेषण का स्रोत भी स्पष्ट नहीं है। चयन प्रक्रिया एवं साक्षात्कार में किसी प्रकार के गुणांक एवं अन्य आधार स्पष्ट नहीं किये गये बल्कि उपस्थित दर्शाये गये 39 अभ्यर्थियों में चयनित अभ्यर्थी श्री मनोज कुमार जैन को दर्शाकर चयन कर लिया गया है। इससे स्पष्ट है कि याची श्री मनोज कुमार जैन की नियुक्ति संस्थाधिकारियों द्वारा कूटरचना कर की गयी है। इसमें पारदर्शिता का पूर्ण अभाव है। उक्त आधार पर याची की नियुक्ति को अनुमोदित किये जाने का कोई औचित्य नहीं है।

निर्णय

मा० उच्च न्यायालय, इलाहाबाद में योजित याचिका संख्या-20601/2018 में पारित आदेश दिनांक 26.03.2019 के अनुपालन में याची के प्रत्यावेदन दिनांक 01.04.2019 का उक्तवत् निस्तारण करते हुये संस्थाधिकारियों द्वारा की गयी नियुक्ति को अनानुमोदित किया जाता है।

जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक

अलीगढ़

पत्रांकः-1915-18

दिनांक-21.05.2019

पृष्ठांकन संख्या व तिथि उक्तवत्।

प्रतिलिपि निम्नांकित की सेवा में सूचनार्थ एवं आवश्यक कार्यवाही हेतु प्रेषितः-

1. रजिस्ट्रार मा० उच्च न्यायालय इलाहाबाद।

2. वित्त एवं लेखाधिकारी (मा०शि०) अलीगढ़।

3. प्रबन्धक/प्रधानाचार्य श्री उदय सिंह जैन कन्या इण्टर कालेज, अलीगढ़।

4. याची श्री मनोज कुमार जैन सहायक लिपिक श्री उदय सिंह जैन क०इ० कॉलेज अलीगढ़।

जिला विद्यालय निरीक्षक

अलीगढ़। ”

33. Shri F.A. Ansari, learned Standing Counsel while placing reliance upon the judgment in Udai Veer Singh & Anr. v. District Inspector of Schools Deoria & Anr. (Supra) submitted that the petitioner has not filed any material on record to show that his appointment has been made by the appointing authority after obtaining prior approval from the DIOS. He relied upon the decision of this Court in Amit Kumar v. District Inspector of Schools, Jaunpur9, wherein it has been held that Regulation 101 is mandatory. He further argued that for direct recruitment on non-teaching post the rules applicable to Government institutions would be applicable as provided under Regulation 2 (1) of Chapter III of the Act. He submits that the Subordinate Officers Ministerial Staff (Direct Recruitment) Rules, 1985 would apply to direct recruitment of Class-III employees and for Class-IV employees the Group ‘D’ Employees Service Rules, 1985 was applicable prior to its amendment, now it is through outsourcing . In support of his submissions he has placed reliance upon Paras 5, 6, 7 and 8 of Udai Veer Singh & Anr. v. District Inspector of Schools, Deoria & Anr. (Supra).

34. Shri F.A. Ansari, learned Standing Counsel, in support of his submissions, has also placed reliance upon the judgment rendered in the case of State of U.P. & Ors. v. Rachna Hills & Ors.10, wherein Hon'ble the Apex Court while considering the Regulation 16FF regarding appointment of teachers in minority institution has held that without obtaining mandatory approval of DIOS, there is no vested right of a candidate to be appointed. He has heavily relied upon paras 19, 20, 23, 29, 32 and 33 of the said judgment.

35. He has also placed reliance upon the judgment in Krishna Kant v. State of U.P. & Ors.11, wherein the Court had considered Chapter III Regulation 2 (1) and held that Rule of promotion as prescribed for under the Regulation are applicable to the minority institution. The Court in the said judgment has also relied upon the Full Bench judgment in Committee of Management, Swami Lila Shah Adarsh Sindhi Inter College & Anr. v. State of U.P. & Ors.12, wherein it is held that the permissible regulations are always applicable and can be framed in respect of minority institution. Learned Standing Counsel has placed reliance upon para 6 of the judgment in Krishna Kant v. State of U.P. & Ors. (Supra). He submitted that the objection of the petitioner-respondent that for Class-III post no procedure is prescribed, is not tenable as Regulation 2 (1) provides that for appointment on Class-III post in the institution, minimum educational qualification would be the same as laid down for Class-III employees of Government Higher Secondary School time to time.

36. Learned Standing Counsel has submitted that there is no vacuum as the Subordinate Officers Ministerial Staff (Direct Recruitment) Rules, 1985 would apply to direct recruitment of Class-III employees. Later on Government Orders dated 25.11.2021 and 7.12.2023 had also been issued, wherein detailed procedure is provided for appointment of Class-III employees.

37. Reliance has also been placed on the judgment in State of U.P. v. Principal, Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors.13, (Para 7, 8, 10, 12 and 32). He submits that learned Single Judge has erred in law while holding that DIOS has ignored the distinction between minority and non-minority institution and neglected the privileges, which are enjoyed by the institution in question in terms of Art.29 and 30 of the Constitution of India. He has further submitted that learned Single Judge has relied upon the Full Bench judgment of this Court in Harpal Singh v. State of U.P.14, wherein the Full Bench has held that in the minority institution there is no requirement that in the selection committee there should be one nominee of the District Magistrate and one nominee from reserved category concerned. He submits that in the present matter even the petitioner has not pleaded such relief. Therefore, there was no reason or occasion to adjudicate the said issue in view of law propounded by Hon'ble the Apex Court in State of U.P. v. Principal, Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors. (Supra) and State of U.P. & Ors. v. Rachna Hills & Ors. (Supra). The only question for consideration before learned Single Judge was whether the mandatory provisions of Regulation 101 of Chapter III of the Regulations framed under the Act, 1921 was followed or not. The issue of applicability of Regulation 101 upon minority institution is no more res integra and as such the judgment passed by learned Single Judge is liable to be set aside.

SUBMISSIONS OF PETITIONER-RESPONDENT

38. Per contra, Shri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for petitioner-respondent no.1 has vehemently opposed the present appeal and submitted that no prior permission as per Chapter III Regulation 101 of the Act, 1921 is required before making selection on the post of Asstt. Clerk in the institution in question. In support of his submissions, he has heavily placed reliance upon the judgment in Abhishek Tripathi v. State of U.P.15. He submits that the petitioner had applied against the vacancy, which was duly advertised in 'Amar Ujala' and it is not in dispute that the vacancy was in existence. It is also not in dispute that the sanctioned strength of the institution has already been determined by the Director in pursuance of G.O. dated 15.6.2012, which was issued in compliance of the direction issued in Dhruv Narain Singh v. State of U.P. & Ors. (Supra). In view of the law laid down in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra), there was no such requirement for getting any prior permission for initiation of selection process. Moreover, the said objection is not available to the respondents-appellants in view of the judgment and order dated 26.3.2019 passed in Writ-A No.20601 of 2018.

39. Shri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for the petitioner-respondent next submitted that in the said writ petition, the petitioner has assailed the validity of the order dated 3.7.2018 and 11.9.2018 on the ground that the post was duly advertised and fair procedure was adopted, therefore, mere non-obtaining prior approval from the DIOS in pursuance of Regulation 101 would not be fatal. In the said proceeding, inspite of time accorded to the respondent-appellants no counter affidavit was filed and the Court opined that there was no conscious determination by the authority concerned with regard to legality of the petitioner's appointment in terms of the applicable provisions of law. The Court also observed that the Authorities were expected to determine as to whether there existed any vacancy; a fair procedure for recruitment was followed and the petitioner possessed requisite qualification etc. The Court observed that since this has not been done and as such the order of the authority concerned refusing to grant approval to the petitioner's appointment was not sustainable. Therefore, at the said stage, the matter was relegated to the respondents-appellants for passing fresh order keeping in view of the observations made in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra) after affording opportunity of hearing to the parties.

40. In this backdrop, he further submitted that subsequently the respondents-appellants could not take objection that the vacancy was not there or the advertisement was not in accordance with law. He submitted that the parties are bound by earlier judgment, which attained finality. Even erroneous decision can operate as resjudicata. In support of his submissions, he has placed reliance in Mohanlal Goenka v. Benoy Krishna Mukherjee16 and State of West Bengal v. Hemant Kumar Bhattacharjee17. He submitted that the appointment of an employee can only be questioned on the ground of lack of requisite qualification. In the order, which was impugned in the writ petition, nowhere the DIOS has observed that the petitioner was not having requisite qualification qua the post. In support of his submissions, reliance has also been placed on State of U.P. v. Manager, Committee of Management, Islamia Inter College & Ors.18 and Sister Meera v. State of U.P.19.

41. Shri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for the petitioner-respondent has vehemently submitted that the DIOS has erred in law with regard to seek prior permission before initiation of selection process in terms of Chapter III Regulation 101 of the Act, 1921. In the previous round of litigation, said objection was taken by DIOS while non-suiting the claim of the petitioner for grant of approval. However, while remanding the matter to DIOS, fresh decision was required to be taken in the light of judgment in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra). But even thereafter the DIOS has again erred in law and neglected the categorical observation made by the writ Court. It is submitted that even for the sake of argument it is presumed that the selection proceedings were carried out without seeking prior permission but at the time of grant of approval to the appointment of such employee, all such questions with regard to validity of appointment, the post on which such appointment was being sought and all such relevant issues can be gone into by the DIOS. Therefore, in view of ratio laid down by this Court in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra) and Mohd. Faizan v. State of U.P.20, it may be concluded that the provisions regarding seeking prior permission in terms of Chapter III rule 101 is not mandatory provisions so far as minority institutions are concerned.

ANALYSIS

42. Heard rival submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties, perused the record and respectfully considered the judgments cited at Bar. The short question that arises for consideration is whether the mandatory provision of Regulation 101 of Chapter III of the Regulations framed under the Act, 1921 applies to a minority institution or not?

43. Hon'ble the Apex Court in Rachna Hills & Ors. v. Rachna Hills & Ors. (Supra) has considered the appointment of teachers in minority institution without obtaining mandatory approval of District Inspector of Schools under Section 16FF of the Act, 1921. The question that arose for consideration before Hon'ble the Apex Court that once the management forwarded names for approval to the DIOS, whether selection process concluded and candidates acquired vested right to be appointed before amendment of the Regulations. The Supreme Court held 'No'. It further observed that sub-section (3) of Section 16 FF says that no person selected and proposed to be appointed as a teacher by Management shall be appointed unless proposal is approved by DIOS. Hon'ble the Apex Court has framed three issues for consideration, which are reproduced as under:-

"(i) Whether the selection process concluded, and the candidates acquired a vested right to be appointed before the amendment of the Regulations?

(ii) Whether the Act, read with the Rules and Regulations made thereunder, contemplates 'deemed appointment' if the approval of the DIOS is not given within a period of 15 days?

(iii) Whether the posts of teachers could be filled as per the Rules and Regulations that existed when the vacancies arose and not as per the amended Regulations?"

44. So far as issue no.1 is concerned, the same is answered by Hon'ble the Apex Court in paragraphs 18, 19, 20 and 21, which for ready reference, are reproduced as under:-

"18. To consider the submissions of the Respondents that the candidates whose names are recommended by the Management for approval by the DIOS acquire a vested right to be appointed as Teachers, it is necessary to examine Section 16-FF:

"16-FF. Savings as to minority institutions

(1) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (4) of section 16-E, and section 16-F, the Selection Committee for the appointment of a Head of Institution or a teacher of an institution established and administered by a minority referred to in clause (I) of Article 30 of the Constitution shall consist of five members (including its Chairman), nominated by the Committee of Management:

Provided that one of the members of the Selection Committee shall —

(a) in the case of appointment of the Head of an Institution, be an expert selected by the Committee of Management from a panel of experts prepared by the Director;

(b) in the case of appointment of a teacher be the Head of the Institution concerned.

(2) The procedure to be followed by the Selection Committee referred to in sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) No person selected under this section shall be appointed, unless —

(a) in the case of the Head of an Institution the proposal of appointment has been approved by the Regional Deputy Director of Education; and

(b) in the case of a teacher such proposal has been approved by the Inspector.

(4) The Regional Deputy Director of Education or the Inspector, as the case may be, shall not withhold approval for the selection made under this section where the person selected possesses the minimum qualifications prescribed and is otherwise eligible.

(5) Where the Regional Deputy Director of Education or the Inspector, as the case may be, does not approve of a candidate selected under this section, the Committee of Management may, within three weeks from the date of receipt of such disapproval, make a representation to the Director in the case of the Head of Institution, and to the Regional Deputy Director of Education in the case of a teacher.

(6) Every order passed by the Director or the Regional Deputy Director of Education on a representation under sub-section (5) shall be final." (emphasis supplied)"

19. Sub-section (3) of Section 16-FF of the Act provides that no person selected and proposed to be appointed as a teacher by the Management shall be appointed till the proposal is approved by the DIOS. If the expressions 'no person', 'shall be appointed', and 'unless' employed in sub-section (3) are given their ordinary meaning, which is the foremost of the linguistic canons of construction of legislation, we have no hesitation in holding that appointment is subject to the mandatory approval of DIOS. The process of appointment cannot be said to have been concluded without obtaining the mandatory approval of the DIOS, and as such, there is no right, much less a vested right, of the candidate to be appointed.

20. This Court had the occasion to examine the effect of approval by the DIOS in Raj Kumari Cecil (Smt.) v. Managing Committee of Laxmi Narain Bhagwati Devi

Vidya Mandir Girls' High School, (1998) 2 SCC 461, while holding that the appointment of the petitioner therein was unsustainable and incomplete, as the statutory pre-condition for the appointment, i.e., approval from the DIOS, was not obtained, it was observed:

"4. There is no dispute that the appellant did not possess the qualifications for being appointed as a Principal of the Higher Secondary School. It is also not disputed that the appointment is subject to approval of the competent authority under the Intermediate Education Act. It is correct that the competent authority has power to relax the qualification but then again it is not disputed that the competent authority did not relax the qualification for the appointment of the appellant as Principal of the Higher Secondary School of the respondent….

....

13. ... The appellant ceased to be Headmistress on upgradation of school of the respondent to the Higher Secondary School as the post was upgraded. She did not possess qualifications to be appointed as Principal of the Higher Secondary School. Her qualifications were not relaxed. The competent authority under the Intermediate Education Act did not grant approval for her appointment as a Principal which is a precondition under the law. Since the appointment itself was not approved it was not necessary for the Managing Committee of the school to get consent of the authority concerned for the termination of her services as a Principal."

(emphasis supplied)

21. In view of the clear statutory mandate under Section 16-FF (3) of the Act, we are of the opinion that the High Court has committed an error in coming to the conclusion that the Respondent nos. 1 to 3 have acquired a vested right to be appointed."

45. So far as issue no.2 is concerned, the same is answered by Hon'ble the Apex Court in paragraphs 22 to 27, which are also reproduced as under:-

"22. Respondents have relied on Regulation 18 to argue that if the DIOS fails to grant his approval within 15 days of the proposal made by the Management, the proposed candidates shall be deemed to have been appointed. Regulation 18, is as under:

"(1) Within fifteen days of the receipt of the recommendation of the Selection Committee constituted under sub-section (1) or (2) of Section 16-F, and in case of an institution referred to in Section 16-FF, the approval of the authority specified therein, the Manager shall, on authorisation under resolution of the Committee of Management, issue an order of appointment by Registered Post to the candidate in the form given in Appendix 'B' requiring the candidate to join duty within ten days of the receipt of such order, failing which the appointment of the candidate will be liable to cancellation.

(2) In case of promotions and ad hoc appointments also a formal order of promotion or appointment in the form as near as possible to the form referred to in Clause (1) shall be issued to the person concerned under the signature of the Manager.

(3) A copy of every order referred to in Clauses (1) and (2) shall be sent to the Inspector and in case of appointment of the head of institution, a copy thereof shall also be sent to the Regional Deputy Director of Education."

23. We have noticed that appointments are to be made under Section 16-E of the Act. Section 16-F of the Act provides for the constitution and recommendation of Selection Committees and Section 16-FF therein specifically relates to minority institutions. Regulation 18 (1) provides for the time within which an order of appointment is to be issued by a Manager to the selected candidate. According to which, where the recommendation is made by a Selection Committee constituted under sub-section (1) or (2) of Section 16-F of the Act, an order of appointment is to be issued within 15 days of the receipt of the recommendation of the Selection Committee. Whereas, in the case of an institution referred to in Section 16-FF of the Act, i.e., a minority institution, as in the instant case, it is to be issued within 15 days of the receipt of the approval of the authority specified therein. Neither Section 16-FF of the Act nor Regulation 18 provides the period within which approval is to be accorded. Further, neither of the two provisions provide for deemed appointment in the event of delay in granting approval. Therefore, unless the approval contemplated under Section 16-FF(3) is accorded, no appointment could take place.

24. In any case, when the relevant statutory provision, i.e. Section 16-FF(3) itself makes approval by DIOS mandatory for appointment to the post of teacher, a Regulation made under the Act could not have provided for a 'deemed appointment'. Subordinate legislation cannot transcend the prescription of a statutory provision.

25. Additionally, sub-section (4) of Section 16-FF of the Act has to be read in conjunction with Section 16-FF(2) therein, which provides that "[t]he procedure to be followed by the Selection Committee referred to in sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed". It is only in the cases where the selection procedure, as prescribed in the Regulations, is followed, that there cannot be a disapproval unless there is a lack of requisite eligibility and qualifications. Thus, the question of deemed appointment does not arise under Section 16-FF (4) of the Act.

26. If the statutory provisions read with relevant Regulations were to provide for 'deemed appointment', there would not have been a further remedy against an order of disapproval by the DIOS. Sub-section (5) of section 16-FF provides the remedy to the College Management in the event the DIOS does not grant an approval. As per this, the Management can within three weeks from the date of receipt of disapproval, make a representation to the Regional Deputy Director of Education.

27. In view of the legal provision as obtained under Section 16- FF of the Act, read with Regulation 18, we reject the submissions of the Respondents' that there is a 'deemed appointment' of selection under Regulation 18."

46. So far as issue no.3 is concerned, the same is answered by Hon'ble the Apex Court in paragraphs 28 to 33, which for ready reference, are reproduced as under:-

"28. The Division Bench, as well as the Single Judge of the High Court, accepted the submission of the selected candidates that the vacancies to the post of teachers could be filled only as per the Rules and Regulations that operated when the vacancies arose and not as per the Regulations that came to be amended thereafter.

29. We have already held that approval of DIOS is mandatory and that the Act injuncts the appointment of a Teacher without such approval. We have also held that the legal regime concerning the appointment of Teachers does not contemplate any concept of deemed appointment if the DIOS does not decide upon the proposal within 15 days. Under these circumstances, the reference to and reliance on the principle that Rules that existed at the time when vacancies arose will govern the appointments is misplaced.

30. In any event, it is now a settled principle of law that a candidate has a right to be considered in the light of existing Rules, which implies Rules in force as on the date of consideration. This principle is affirmed by this Court in Deeepak Agarwal and Anr. v. State of U.P. and Ors. (2011) 6 SCC 725, as below:

"26. It is by now a settled proposition of law that a candidate has the right to be considered in the light of the existing rules, which implies the "rule in force" on the date the consideration took place. There is no rule of universal or absolute application that vacancies are to be filled invariably by the law existing on the date when the vacancy arises. The requirement of filling up old vacancies under the old rules is interlinked with the candidate having acquired a right to be considered for promotion. The right to be considered for promotion accrues on the date of consideration of the eligible candidates. Unless, of course, the applicable rule, as in Y.V.Rangaiah case lays down any particular time-frame, within which the selection process is to be completed. In the present case, consideration for promotion took place after the amendment came into operation. Thus, it cannot be accepted that any accrued or vested right of the appellants has been taken away by the amendment."

31. While reaffirming the above referred principle, in a subsequent case of Rajasthan State Sports Council and Anr. v. Uma Dadhich and Anr. (2019) 4 SCC 316, (in which one of us was a member Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud, J., as he then was). This Court noted:

"5. There is merit in the submission which has been urged on behalf of the appellants that the respondent had no vested right to promotion but only a right to be considered in accordance with the rules as they existed on the date when the case for promotion was taken up. This principle has been reiterated in several decisions of this Court. (See H.S. Grewal v. Union of India, Deepak Agarwal v. State of U.P., State of Tripura v. Nikhil Ranjan Chakraborty and Union of India v. Krishna Kumar."

(emphasis supplied)

32. In a recent decision, in State of Himachal Pradesh and Ors. v. Raj Kumar and Ors. 2022 SCC OnLine SC 680, after reviewing a number of decisions on the same subject, this Court formulated the following principles:

"70. A review of the fifteen cases that have distinguished Rangaiah would demonstrate that this Court has been consistently carving out exceptions to the broad proposition formulated in Rangaiah. The findings in these judgments, that have a direct bearing on the proposition formulated by Rangaiah are as under:

1. There is no rule of universal application that vacancies must be necessarily filled on the basis of the law which existed on the date when they arose, Rangaiah's case must be understood in the context of the rules involved therein.

2. It is now a settled proposition of law that a candidate has a right to be considered in the light of the existed rules, which implies the "rule in force" as on the date consideration takes place. The right to be considered for promotion occurs on the date of consideration of the eligible candidates.

3. The Government is entitled to take a conscious policy decision not to fill up the vacancies arising prior to the amendment of the rules. The employee does not acquire any vested right to being considered for promotion in accordance with the repealed rules in view of the policy decision taken by the Government. There is no obligation for the Government to make appointments as per the old rules in the event of restructuring of the cadre is intended for efficient working of the unit. The only requirement is that the policy decisions of the Government must be fair and reasonable and must be justified on the touchstone of Article 14.

4. The principle in Rangaiah need not be applied merely because posts were created, as it is not obligatory for the appointing authority to fill up the posts immediately.

5. When there is no statutory duty cast upon the State to consider appointments to vacancies that existed prior to the amendment, the State cannot be directed to consider the cases."

(emphasis supplied)

33. In view of the clear enunciation of the law, we have no hesitation in rejecting the submission made by the learned counsels for the Respondents, that the vacancies that existed prior to the amendment of Regulation 17 of Chapter II, must be governed by unamended rules."

47. In State of U.P. & Ors. v. Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors. (Supra), the State of U.P. had challenged the judgment of Division Bench of this Court dated 19.11.2018 holding that Regulation 101 framed under the Act, 1921 as amended is 'unconstitutional'. Hon'ble the Apex Court has considered the entire Regulation 101 and held that in case the institution is on grant-in-aid, then there is no difference between minority and non-minority institution. The relevant paragraphs 32, 33 and 53 of the said judgment is reproduced as under:-

"……...32.When it comes to aided institutions, there cannot be any difference between a minority and non-minority one. Article 30 of the Constitution of India is subject to its own restrictions being reasonable. A protection cannot be expanded into a better right than one which a non-minority institution enjoys. Law has become quite settled on this issue and therefore does not require any elaboration.

33.Thus, on the aforesaid issue we have no hesitation in reiterating the principle that an institution receiving aid is bound by the conditions imposed and therefore expected to comply. Once we hold so, the challenge made on various grounds, falls to the ground……..

53. The counsel appearing for the respondents did place reliance upon few decisions of this Court. Having gone through the said decisions and in the light of our discussion, we do not find any help flowing from them, strengthening the contentions raised by them. Reliance has been made on the decision rendered by this Court inMatankara Syrian Catholic College vs. T. Jose, (2007) 1 SCC 386. Having gone through the said judgment, we do not find that the same has got any application to the case at hand. The said decision deals with the right of the minor institutions to choose the Principal of its choice. We have already held that we are dealing with the case of aided institutions and, therefore, there is no need for any sub-classification by separating them as minority and non-minority institutions. The impugned regulation is sought to be enforced against all the aided institutions. It is also to be noted that this decision was taken into consideration by this Court in S.K. Md. Rafique's case (supra)……." .

(emphasis supplied)

48. In the aforesaid judgment, Hon'ble the Apex Court has approved the entire Regulation 101 as amended. Therefore, at this stage, it is not in dispute that Regulation 101 would also be applicable to the minority institutions, which are on grant-in-aid list of the State Government.

49. In the aforesaid circumstances, the question is whether the mandatory provisions of Regulation 101 would mandatorily apply to aided minority institution or not. This Court in Amit Kumar v. District Inspector of Schools, Jaunpur (Supra) has held that Regulation 101 is mandatory. For direct recruitment on non-teaching post (Class-III) the Rules applicable to Government institutions would be applicable. The Subordinate Officers Ministerial Staff (Direct Recruitment) Rules, 1985 would apply to direct recruitment of Class-III employees. In the present matter, it is not in dispute that the appointing authority/ Management did not obtain prior approval of DIOS for alleged appointment of petitioner-respondent on Class-III post. The argument of Shri Sankalp Narain, learned counsel for petitioner-respondent that there being no guidelines for DIOS in the matter of grant of prior approval, the Regulation 101 would not apply to minority institutions, does not appear to have any substance. Regulation 101, as mentioned above, provides that the appointing authority should not fill any vacancy of non-teaching staff except with prior approval of DIOS. The judgment of Abhishek Tripathi (Supra), which has been heavily relied upon by learned counsel for the petitioner-respondent is also distinguishable as the same was decided in the light of sanctioned strength determined by the Joint Director of Education pursuant to G.O. dated 14.6.2012, which was issued in compliance of the direction dated 22.5.2012 issued by this Court in Dhruv Narain Singh (Supra). Learned Single Judge in para 16 of the judgment in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra) has held that before appointment of an incumbent on a non-teaching post, information is required to be given to the DIOS concerned regarding the sanctioned strength, who is under obligation to examine the sanctioned strength in the institution and report the same to the Director of Education (Madhyamik). Only after satisfying itself to the sanctioned strength and the vacancy position, the DIOS can grant approval for initiating the process of selection for filling up the vacancy. The judgment in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra) was passed under the backdrop that no serious efforts were made by the respondents to determine the cadre for about 39 years. Only to meet out that exigency, the judgment of Dhruv Narain Singh (Supra) was passed and later on physical survey was conducted and cadre strength of the institutions district wise in the entire State of U.P. has been determined. The judgment in Abhishek Tripathi (Supra) nowhere gives an impression that the Regulation 101 has been diluted.

50. The Division Bench of this Court in Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors. V State of U.P. & Ors. (Supra) while dealing with the matter of outsource employees for Class-IV post, had held the Regulation 101 qua Class-IV as 'unconstitutional'. Later on Hon'ble the Apex Court in State of U.P. & Ors. v. Principal Abhay Nandan Inter College & Ors. (Supra) vide judgment and order dated 27.9.2021 had approved the entire Regulation 101. Regulation 101 provides that Appointing Authority should not fill any vacancy of non-teaching staff except with the prior approval of the DIOS. The only requirement under the Regulation is that the appointing authority shall apply to the DIOS intimating him that the vacancy in non-teaching post is to be filled by the appointing authority for which permission be granted. We find the reason for obtaining prior approval is that a person appointed in the aided institution is entitled for salary from grant-in-aid received from the Government sanctioned for the institution. The basic reason behind the said provision is that the DIOS must have information that the non-teaching post is to be filled up by appointing authority after prior approval is granted by DIOS and thereafter the appointing authority proceeds to fill up Class-III post. The minority institution is free to advertise the post in accordance with law and make selection and appoint the candidate, who according to appointing authority is the most suitable candidate. Therefore, Article 29 and 30 (1) of the Constitution of India, which deal with the right to establish and administer minority institution, do not preclude the State to regulate the conditions of employment. For ready reference, Articles 29 and 30 (1) of the Constitution of India are reproduced as under:-

"Article 29 – Protection of Interests of Minorities

This article is intended to protect the interests of minority groups.

Article 29(1):This provides any section of the citizens residing in India having a distinct culture, language, or script, the right to conserve their culture, language and script.

Article 29(2):The State shall not deny admission into educational institutes maintained by it or those that receive aid from it to any person based only on race, religion, caste, language, or any of them.

Article 30(1):All religious and linguistic minorities have the right to establish and administer educational institutions of their choice."

51. Regulation 101 provides for the DIOS to find out whether the post is created or not, to verify the sanctioned strength in the institution and to verify whether as per the standards fixed by the department teaching and non-teaching staff is surplus in the institution or not. We are of the opinion that merely obtaining prior approval from the DIOS for making appointment does not infringe the minority status of the institution. The said provisions nowhere infringe the right of the minority institution to appoint any suitable employee by obtaining prior approval for appointment. This Court in Udai Veer Singh & Anr. v. District Inspector of Schools, Deoria & Anr. (Supra) has considered Regulation 101 and 16FF. The relevant paragraphs 7 and 8 of the said judgment is reproduced as under:-

"……..7. There is another reason for holding that Regulation 101 applies to minority institutions. In Section 16FF of the Act, it has been provided that a teacher or head of a minority institution can be appointed by the management committee of the institution but such an appointment, in case of head of institution, has to be approved by the Regional Deputy Director of Education and in case of teachers. It has to be approved by the D.I.O.S. If further provides that approval shall not be withheld where the person selected possesses minimum qualification prescribed and is otherwise eligible. After a person is appointed, the D.I.O.S. has to grant financial approval to the appointment as the salary is paid from government fund. He has to be satisfied that appointment is made of a qualified person and the post is a sanctioned post. The D.I.O.S. does not control the appointment nor he has got any say in the matter of appointment. But after the appointment, the papers have to be forwarded to the D.I.O.S. for grant of financial approval. If post is sanctioned and the candidate possesses the essential qualifications and appointment has been made in accordance with law, financial approval would be granted by the D.I.O.S. The D.I.O.S. does not control the selection and appointment made by the appointing authority or the management of a minority institution, which is free to select and find out the best suitable person and appoint him in the institution. The appointment of such employees is totally at the discretion of the management. Same principle applies to employees.

8. The learned counsel for the petitioner lastly urged that the provisions of Act and Regulations would not apply in matters of recruitment as there is no provision either in the Act or Regulations, which provide the mode and the manner of direct recruitment. Regulation 2 (1) of the Regulations provides that for appointment on a Class-III or IV post in an institution, the minimum educational qualification would be the same as laid down for Class-III and IV employees of Government Higher Secondary Schools from time to time. Regulation 2 (1) of the regulations is extracted below :

''2. (1) किसी संस्था में नियुक्ति हेतु लिपिक एवं चतुर्थ वर्गीय कर्मचारियों की नयूनतम शैक्षिक योग्यता वही होगी जो राजकीय उच्चतर माध्यमिक विद्याालयों के समकक्षीय कर्मचारियों के लिए समय≤ पर लिर्धारित की गई हो ।''

It is true that neither under the regulations nor in the Act detailed procedure has been prescribed laying down the manner of direct recruitment, selection and appointment. Apart from Regulation 2 (1) and 101 of the regulations, there is no other provision either under the Act or the regulations which provides the criteria for recruitment of a Class-III or Class-IV employee in an aided institution. The question is, if there is no provision either in the Act or the regulations providing the mode of direct recruitment to Class-III or IV posts, what method of recruitment should be followed. Regulation 2 (1) clearly provides that educational qualification for appointment of Class-III or Class IV employee would be the same as of similar category of employees in the Government Higher Secondary Schools. The learned additional chief standing counsel has rightly pointed out that in absence of any statutory rule either in the Act or regulation, the direct recruitment rules framed by the State Government which are applicable to similar Class-III and IV employees working in the Government Higher Secondary Schools would apply to general institutions as well as to minority institutions. "The Subordinate Offices Ministerial Staff (Direct Recruitment) Rules, 1985" would apply to direct recruitment of Class-III employees. And for Class-IV employees "The Group 'D' Employees Service Rules, 1985" would be applicable. Both the rules are general rules. They have an overriding effect. They provide detailed procedure for direct recruitment. The language of both the rules are wide and comprehensive enough to include all State and subordinate services and posts except to the extent otherwise expressly provided by the rules. Therefore, in appointments of non-teaching posts in aided institutions recognised under the Act. The Subordinate Offices Ministerial Staff (Direct Recruitment) Rules, 1985 would apply to recruitment of Class-III employees. And The Group 'D' Employees Service Rules, 1985 would be applicable for Class-IV employees……."

52. Similarly in the matter of Krishna Kant v. State of U.P. & Ors. (Supra) the Court was dealing with the matter of promotion in the minority institution. In the said judgment, reliance has also been placed on the judgment of this Court in Committee of Management, Swami Lila Shah Adarsh Sindhi Inter College & Anr. v. State of U.P. & Ors.21. The Court had also taken note of judgment passed by Hon'ble the Apex Court in Sindhi Education Society & Anr. v. Chief Secretary, Government of NCT of Delhi & Ors.22, which deals with linguistic minority institution. The relevant paragraphs 6 and 7 of Krishna Kant v. State of U.P. & Ors. (Supra) are reproduced as under:-

"…….6. Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon Full Bench judgment of this Court in Committee of Management,Swami Lila Shah Adarsh Sindhi Inter College & Anr v. State of U.P. & Ors, 2017 (2) ADJ 377 (FB), wherein, this Court has held that the permissible regulations are always applicable and can be framed in respect of minority Institution. The principle laid down by Full Bench is sound principle of law in terms of service jurisprudence where the employees of same department or same Institution are to attain the benefits of promotion and those employees having been appointed by Committee of Management or working under the Management cannot be denied incidental benefits and other service conditions which definitely includes promotion as well. Full Bench referred relevant para 97 of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Sindhi Education Society & Anr v. Chief Secretary, Government of NCT of Delhi & Ors, (2010) 8 SCC 49 reads as under:

"It is not necessary for us to examine the extent of power to make regulations, which can be enforced against linguistic minority institutions, as we have already discussed the same in the earlier part of the judgment. No doubt, right conferred on minorities under Article 30 is only to ensure equality with the majority but, at the same time, what protection is available to them and what right is granted to them under Article 30 of the Constitution cannot be diluted or impaired on the pretext of framing of regulations in exercise of its statutory powers by the State. The permissible regulations, as afore-indicated, can always be framed and where there is a mal-administration or even where a minority linguistic or religious school is being run against the public or national interest, appropriate steps can be taken by the authorities including closure but in accordance with law. The minimum qualifications, experience, other criteria for making appointments etc. are the matters which will fall squarely within the power of the State to frame regulations but power to veto or command that a particular person or class of persons ought to be appointed to the school failing which the grant-in-aid will be withdrawn, will apparently be a subject which would be arbitrary and unenforceable."

7. In view of above, now the legal position stands settled that rule of promotion as prescribed for under the regulation are applicable to the institution in question herein this case, out of five posts, therefore, three posts would fall in quota of promotion and since only two persons are working by way of promotion, the third position will definitely be taken as a vacancy under promotional quota and therefore, I am of the considered opinion that in case if the petitioner is otherwise eligible to be considered for promotion, his claim is liable to be considered within the framework of the regulations and other eligibility criteria……."

CONCLUSION

53. Since the selection process was initiated without any prior approval from DIOS as mandated in Regulation 101, the selection process stood vitiated since its inception. We have discussed in detail about the alleged publication, which was made in 'Amar Ujala' dated 10.12.2017 and the appointment letter dated 22.1.2018. From bare perusal of the said publication dated 10.12.2017, it is apparent that the same was bereft of necessary information. The said publication nowhere provides for any educational qualification, pay scale or any other essential qualifications and the same is absolutely an eye wash. The relevant information were missing there.

54. We also find that the appointment letter does not contain even the address of the petitioner, which also creates doubt regarding genuineness of such appointment. Therefore, we hold that the publication was not in accordance with law. We also hold that the entire exercise of appointment is doubtful and as such the same is unsustainable in the eyes of law.

55. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, we find that learned Single Judge has erred in law in holding that the provisions of Regulation 101 Chapter III of the Act, 1921 would not be applicable on the minority institution. Therefore, in view of the above, we hold that Chapter III Regulation 101 is fully applicable on the aided, recognised institutions without any classification of minority or non-minority. Accordingly, the judgment and order impugned passed by learned Single Judge is set aside.

56. The special appeal stands allowed accordingly.

(2024) 5 ILRA 454
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 879 of 2024

Dr. Sanjay Kumar Bhat & Ors. ...Petitioners

Versus

State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Gaurav Mehrotra, Anant Khanna, Ritika Singh, Vivek Kumar Rai

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Anupras Singh

A. Service Law – UP Educational Instructions (Reservation in the Teachers Cadre) Act, 2021 – Section 3(1) – Post of Assistant Professor – Recruitment – Reservation – Act of 2021 provide that the institute will be taken as a unit for applying reservation on the various faculty position – No Rules regarding reservation of post in direct recruitment could be framed as required u/s 3(1) of the Act – Effect – Held, the respondent-institute proceeded for appointment, without being any St. prescription, regarding the manner and extent of applying reservation as per section 3(1) of the Act 2021 more so, the opposite parties have failed to demonstrate any procedure or manner as is prescribed by notified any Rules in the Gazette. (Para 31)

B. Service Law – U.P. Public Services (Reservation for Economically Weaker Sections) Act 2020 – S. 20(b) – Circular dated 24.11.2023 and GO dated 18.01.204 – Post of Assistant Professor – Recruitment –Economic Weaker Section (EWS) Category – Advertisement was issued allowing the Senior Resident, whom salary is admittedly around 1 Lakh per month, to apply under EWS Category – Permissibility – Held, EWS reservation ought not to have been applied in the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 on account of peculiar eligibility criteria for the post, so advertised, which per-supposes gross annual income to be more than almost Rs. 12 lacs, while any candidate having gross annual family income of more than eight lacks, is not covered within the definition of EWS as per the Act, 2020. (Para 37)

C. Service Law – U.P. Public Services (Reservation for Economically Weaker Sections) Act 2020 – Post of Assistant Professor – Recruitment – Unfulfilled vacancies of EWS category – Special Recruitment issued treating these unfulfilled vacancies as backlog vacancies – Permissibility – Held, Section 3(2) of the Act of 1994 speaks that for the unfilled vacancies the employer St. is at liberty to fill up the backlog vacancies by means of special drive. However, there is no pari-materia provision in the Act of 2020, which inter-alia governs the manner in which EWS reservation is to be provided, rather Section 3(6) of Act 2020, categorically provides that the unfilled vacancies of the EWS category are not ought to be left vacant and ought to be filled up by unreserved candidates. (Para 38 and 39)

D. Interpretation of Statute – UP General Clauses Act, 1904 – S. 33-A – Word 'Prescribed' used in Section 3(1) of the Act, 2021 – Meaning – The word 'prescribed' shall mean prescribed by the rules made under the Act, in which the word occurs. (Para 25)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajjan Lal Vs St. & anr.; AIR 1961 ALL 139 (FB)

2. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Ltd. & anr. Vs BPL Mobile Cellular Ltd. & ors.; (2008) 13 SCC 597

3. Nawal Kishore Mishra & ors.Vs High Court of Judicature of Allahabad; (2015) 5SCC 479

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Shri Satish Chandra Mishra, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Gaurav Mehrotra, learned counsel for the petitioners, Shri Anupras Singh, learned counsel for Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia University, Shri Shailendra Kumar Singh, Chief Standing Counsel, Vivek Shukla, Additional Chief Standing Counsel and Shri Tushar Verma, learned counsel for the State.

2. Challenge is made to the advertisement bearing no. DrRMLIMS/ER/Rect-F/2023/1217 dated 01.12.2023 (hereinafter referred to as 'impugned advertisement') issued by the Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Institute of Medical Sciences (hereinafter referred to as 'Institute') thereby, applications have been invited from eligible candidates for appointment of faculty on regular/deputation basis, vide the special recruitment drive for the post of Professors/Associate Professors and Assistant Professors in various departments and further the order bearing no. DrRMLIMS/ER/Estb.1-F2/2024/1589 dated 19.01.2024 is also assailed whereby, the application of the petitioners has impliedly been rejected.

3. Contention of counsel for the petitioners is that 'the Institute' is an autonomous super specialty post graduate institute, fully aided by the Government of U.P. The institute is creation of statute namely, Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Institute of Medical Sciences Act 2015 (hereinafter, referred to as the 'Act 2015') and it is discharging public function.

4. Further submission is that the petitioners are not the outsiders, but are the faculty members working on the post of the Professors(Junior Grade)/Additional Professors in the institute whose description are given as follows:-

Sr No.	Name	Present Post
1.	Dr Sanjay Kumar Bhatt	Professor(Jr Grade)
2.	Dr Vineet Kumar	Professor(Jr Grade)
3.	Dr Neetu Singh	Professor(Jr Grade)
4.	Dr Rajni Bala Jasrotia	Professor(Jr Grade)
5.	Dr Abhilash Chandra	Professor(Jr Grade)
6.	Dr Manish Kulshrestha	Professor(Jr Grade)

5. Next submission is that the work and conduct of the petitioners were always above-board as they perform their duties to the best of their ability, sincerity and commitment to the institution.

6. Vide impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023, applications were invited from eligible persons for the appointment of faculty on regular/deputation basis through special recruitment drive, however, there are various anomalies in the advertisement. He argued that prior to promulgation of Uttar Pradesh Educational Instructions (Reservation in the Teachers Cadre) Act 2021 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act 2021'), the department concerned of the Universities and statutory medical institutes were taken as a unit for applying reservation however, after coming into the existence of the aforesaid new enactment i.e. the Act 2021, the institute is taken as a unit for applying reservation on the various faculty position and further section 3(1) of the Act 2021 categorically provides that the reservation on the post of direct recruitment in the institution is to be provided to the extent and in a manner 'prescribed' by the State Government, but the State Government never prescribed any procedure regarding reservation of post in direct recruitment out of sanctioned strength in the teacher cadre which creates great anomaly and this goes to the root of the matter.

7. He further argued that the recruitment exercise initiated by the respondent institute vide impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 is not incongruence with the existing guidelines of the Medical Council of India and the same is based on the old guidelines of the Medical Council of India of year 2020 whereas, in year 2023, the guideline of National Medical Commission (hereinafter referred to as 'NMC') (erstwhile MCI) reduced the strength of faculty and therefore, the strength of faculty members in the institute is liable to be re-determined as per the 2023 guidelines of NMC and therefore, the advertisement is published ignoring the new guidelines.

8. Further contention of counsel for the petitioners is that there was no need of applying EWS category reservation for the post so advertised in the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 as the same would affect right of such person who can get the benefit of reservation as per the roster prescribed under the Act 1994.

9. He added that though, the institute has received a huge amount of Rs. 2,885 lacs from the Prime Minister Ayushman Bharat Health Infrastructure Managemnet for construction of 100 beds critical care block, but no post has been advertised to fill up, including Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Professor whereas, fact remains that on 06.06.2018 one Dr Chandra Kant Pandey (unreserved category) was appointed as professor in the department of critical care as a permanent faculty member in the institute and when he resigned, no regular appointment is made and even at this time when the post of all the faculties are advertised, the critical care department has been left, the reason best known to the responsible authorities of the institute though, the same would adversely affect the right of those candidates who could have been considered if, the post would have been advertised for critical care department.

10. It has further been submitted that the standardization of Government Order dated 30.11.2022 is out dated for the reason that it is based on old MCI guidelines however, subsequently, the aforesaid guidelines have been superseded and new guidelines have been promulgated vide order dated 16.08.2023 issued by NMC and thus, in this view of the matter also, the impugned advertisement is faulty.

11. While continuing with his arguments, he submits that the advertisement is named as the Special Recruitment which only can be done for the backlog seats, but so far as the act meant for the EWS category, known as 'Constitution (One Hundred and Third Amendment) Act, 2019 do not provide any mechanism for filling the vacancy while carrying out special drive, contrary it is provided in the act that if, there would be no candidate in the EWS category those will be treated as seats of General Category, which is not pari-materia to the provisions prescribed in the Uttar Pradesh Public Services (Reservation for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Other Backward Classes) Act 1994 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act 1994').

12. Concluding his arguments, he submits that since, the advertisement is hit by various anomalies, as no procedure prescribed by the State under Act 1921, no mode is prescribed for EWS category and since, the teachers of the faculty starting form Assistant Professor are getting more then 8 lacs of salary and therefore, applying EWS category reservation, is wholly unjustified and therefore, the advertisement dated 01.12.2023 as well as the impugned rejection order dated 19.01.2024 may be quashed and the respondents may be directed to issue afresh advertisement in accordance with law.

13. Refuting the contention of counsel for the petitioners, the counsel appearing for the respondent-institute submitted that from perusal of section 3 of the Act 2021, discloses the purpose of legislation, for applying reservation, treating the State Educational Institutions as one unit. The reservation under this Act, is to be done as per existing norms laid down by the State Government however, the prescription regarding extent and manner of the reservation has been provided by the legislature in Act 1994 and the Act 2021 and they are in consonance with each other and there is no contradiction at all. He added that section 3(1) of the Act 2021 provides reservation of post in direct recruitment in Teachers' cadre in State Educational institution to the extent and in a manner as prescribed by the State Government, which clearly indicates the conscious decision is taken by the State Legislature by putting the word as 'prescribed' not the words 'may be prescribed' or 'shall be prescribed' or 'to be prescribed' and therefore, the procedure which has already been prescribed for applying the reservation would be taken care of nothing else and that too has been done while publishing the advertisement by the institution.

14. In support of his contention, he has place reliance on the full bench judgment of the Allahabad High Court, in case of Rajjan Lal Vs. State and another, reported in AIR 1961 ALL 139 (FB), wherein, it has been held that unless the word 'prescribed' is qualified by appropriate words, it means prescribed by any law. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited and Another Vs. BPL Mobile Cellular Limited and Others reported in (2008) 13 SCC 597 has held that when the word 'prescribed' is not defined, the same would mean that 'prescribed' in-accordance with law and not otherwise.

15. Adding his arguments, he submits that the law rendered by Apex Court in case of Nawal Kishore Mishra and Others versus High Court of Judicature of Allahabad (2015) 5SCC 479, it has categorically been held that section 3(1) of the Act 1994 specifically provides for the extent of reservation for SC/ST/OBC and the absence of any other prescription regarding application of reservation, the Act 1994 would apply.

16. He submits that the reservation in favour of economically weaker section (EWS) candidates came into existence vide the U.P. Public Services (Reservation for Economically Weaker Sections) Act 2020 which provides that 10% of the vacancies shall be reserved in favour of the persons belonging to EWS therefore, the post which are reserved for EWS category in the impuged advertisement, are according to the reservation roaster as prescribed by the State Government and that has to be necessary reserved for the EWS category and it is not open to 'the institute' to take any other view on its own, while taking a decision not to reserve the post in favour of EWS category.

17. He has also clarified that the vide Government Order dated 09.09.2016, the State Government keeping in view the need of Institute and requirement of the patient, sanctioned one post of Professor(Critical Care Medicine) in the institute and the Institute appointed Professor Chandra Kant Pandey against the sanctioned post of Professor, while duly publishing the advertisement on 19.05.2017 and Mr Pandey joined on 06.06.2018, however, he submitted his resignation and was relieved from the institute on 30.11.2019. Adding his arguments, he submits that the clause 2(12) of the G.O. dated 05.09.2022 provides that if, any post is previously sanctioned and is not included in the standardization(Mankikaran) then, those posts will be treated as nil/surrendered, after the incumbent occupying these posts, demit the office, though, subsequently the post of professor (Critical Care) is stated to be nil as the same was not included in the standardization however, looking into the interest and need of patient care one Dr. Sashi Srivastava who had superannuated form Sanjay Gandhi Postgraduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, was appointed as a Professor on re-employment basis in the department of Anesthesiology, who joined on 04.07.2023 and thus, there is neither any post of Professor in Critical Care Medicine nor there is any person working as a Professor(Critical Care Medicine) in the institute.

18. Replying the contention of counsel for the petitioners, he submits that all though, the number of post sanctioned in the Government Medical Institution is based on minimum recommendations made by statutory bodies like MCI/NMC, but it is not the sole criteria for determining the number of post sanctioned by the Government for proper functioning of Institute as well as for providing the patient care, as required, but in addition, the requirement for patient care, training, research, teaching and administration are also the ancillary ground of consideration.

19. He submits that the number of posts advertised by the institute is based on the number of posts available with the institute and further, keeping in view the requirement of the institute while, controverting the plea taken by the petitioners he submits that the special recruitment cannot be carried out while, special recruitment has been undertaken to balance the reservation for faculty position, considering the institute as a unit and the seats reserved for the candidates belonging to the SC/ST/OBC/EWS categories have been balanced out by the advertising seats vide advertisement for special recruitment and those are not the backlog seats, as the advertisement also do not speak like that. He next added that the post of Professor, Department of Clinical Hematology has been advertised under the special recruitment and not as backlog post. He sum up his arguments while submitting that the advertisement dated 01.12.2023 issued by the institute for appointment of faculty on regular basis is strictly in-accordance with the statutory provisions as well as the directions issued by the state Government, regarding reservation which is perfectly in-accordance with law therefore, submission is that no interference is warranted.

20. Having heard learned counsels for the parties, the following questions arises for consideration.

a. Whether, the respondent-institute could have proceeded to apply the reservation in the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023, without there being any manner 'as prescribed' by the State Government' as provided under section 3(1) of the Act 2021?

b. Whether, there could have been any applicant belonging to EWS category, who would have applied for the post of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor, admittedly, having more than 8 lacs of income?

c. Whether, there can be any special recruitment drive for EWS or other categories without there being any procedure prescribed under the Act 2020 and the Act 2021?

d. Whether, the standardization Government Order dated 30.11.2022 is outdated for the reason that it is based on old MCI guidelines of 2020, however, subsequently, those have been superseded vide order dated 16.08.2023, issued by NMC?

21. Before enactment of U.P. Educational Instructions (Reservation in the Teachers Cadre) Act 2021 the department concerned of the University and the Statutory Medical Institutes were taken as a unit for applying reservation, but now the Institute is taken as a unit for applying reservation.

22. Section 3(1) of the Act 2021 provides that there shall be reservation of post in direct recruitment out of the sanctioned strength in Teachers Cadre in a State Educational Institution to the extent and in the manner as prescribed by the State Government.

23. Section 3(1) of the Act 2021 is extracted as under:-

"Notwithstanding anything in any other law of the State of Uttar Pradesh for the time being enforced, there shall be reservation of posts in direct recruitment out of the sanctioned strength in Teachers cadre in a State Educational institution to the extent and in the manner as prescribed by the State Government".

24. The above noted provision do not speak about any 'manner already prescribed', but it says 'as prescribed'.

25. The statement of objects and reasons of the Act 2021 make the intention of legislature amply clear that it has been decided that the previous Government Order for application of reservation for teaching post be replaced by the Act 2021, so far as the definition of word prescribed given under section 33-A of the U.P. General Clauses Act 1904 is concerned, it says that the word prescribed shall mean prescribed by the rules made under the Act in which the word occurs. As the word prescribed occurs in the Act 2021 therefore, the rules for prescribing the extent and manner ought to have been made under the Act 2021 and which could have been made only after the promulgation of the Act 2021 however, admittedly no such rules have ever been made by the State under the Act 2021, till date. Section 33-A of U.P. General Clauses Act 1904 is extracted as under:-

"prescribed" shall mean prescribed by rules made under the Act in which the word occurs.

26. This Court has also noticed that in counter affidavit filed by the respondent-institute as well as the State, no rules, Government Order or the Prescription has been brought on record which could show that any rule or procedure is prescribed, further section 6 of the Act 2021 also provides that every notification made by the State Government under the Act shall be laid as soon as after it is made before both houses of the State Legislature. Section 6 of the Act 2021 is transcribed as under:-

"Every notification made by the State Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before both Houses of the State Legislature."

27. The U.P. Public Services (reservation for Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe and Other Backward Classes) further, section 3(5) of the Act 1994 provides that the State Government for applying the reservation under sub-section (1) by a notified order issue a roaster comprising total cadre strength of the public service. Section 3(5) of the Act 1994 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"The State Government shall for applying the reservation under subsection (1), by a notified order, issue a roster comprising the total cadre strength of the public service or post indicating therein the reserve points and the roster so issued shall be implemented in the form of a running account from year to year until the reservation for various categories of persons mentioned in sub-section (1) is achieved and the operation of the roster and the running account shall, thereafter, come to an end, and when a vacancy arises thereafter in public service or post the same shall be filled from amongst the persons belonging to the category to which the post belongs in the roster."

28. In the provision of section 29-A of the U.P. General Clauses Act 1904, it is provided that the word 'notification' or 'public notification' shall mean a notification published in the Gazette of the State and the word 'notified' shall be construed accordingly. Section 29A of the Act 1904 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"notification" or "public notification" shall mean a notification published in the Gazette of the State, and the word "notified" shall be construed accordingly;

29. Thus, it emerges that the prescription is to be made by the State Government by promulgating Rules made under the Act 2021 by virtue of provision contained in section 6 of the Act and needs to be laid before both the houses of legislature. It is also borne out that as per the provision of section 3(1) of the Act 2021 read with section 29A of the U.P. General Clauses Act 1904, the prescription ought to have published by a notified order in an official gazette.

30. This Court is also aware about the judgment and order rendered in case of Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited and Another Vs. BPL Mobile Cellular Limited and Others (Supra), wherein, it has been held that ordinarily the word 'prescribed would mean prescribed by Rules.' When the word prescribed is not defined, the same would mean that prescribed in-accordance with law and not otherwise. Paragraph 45 of the above-said judgment is reproduced hereinunder:-

"For invoking Clauses 4.1 and 19.5 of the licence agreement, we may notice that the word "prescribed" is not defined. It has not been defined even in the Telegraph Act. It has not been defined in the licence. The said hprovision unlike Clause 18.14 does not use the words "from time to time". A contract entered into by the parties, it will bear a repetition to state, must be certain. It must conform to the provisions of the Contract Act. Ordinarily, the word "prescribed" would mean prescribed by rules. Section 7(2)(ee) of the Telegraph Act provides for the rule-making power for the purpose of laying down the tariff. We may not be understood to be laying down a law that in absence of any statutory rule framed under the Telegraph Act, no contract can be entered into. In absence of any statutory rule governing the field, the parties would be at liberty to enter into any contract containing such terms and conditions as regards the rate or the period stipulating such terms as the case may be. The matter might have been different if the parties had entered into an agreement with their eyes wide open that the circular letter shall form part of the contract. They might have also been held bound if they accepted the new rates or the periods either expressly or sub silentio. When on the basis of terms of the contract, different rates can be prescribed, the same must be expressly stated. When the word "prescribed" is not defined, the same, in our opinion, would mean that prescribed in accordance with law and not otherwise."

31. Further in full bench of this Court in Case of Rajjan Lal Vs. State and another (Supra), it has been held that unless the word prescribed is explained in the provision, the general sense, as a meaning would be, 'prescribed by any law whatsoever.' Thus, reply to the issue no. (a) is that the respondent-institute proceeded for appointment, without being any State prescription, regarding the manner and extent of applying reservation as per section 3(1) of the Act 2021 more so, the opposite parties have failed to demonstrate any procedure or manner as is prescribed by notified any Rules in the Gazette, as is prescribed under sections 5 and 6 of the Act 2021, thus, the issue (a) is replied in negative.

32. Coming to the issue (b) as framed above, it is apparent that posts advertised vide impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 of the Assistant Professors, Associate Professors and Professors, which are higher in ranking than that of a Senior Resident and experience of three year as a senior resident is essential eligibility for the post to become Assistant Professor and three years as Assistant Professor experience is mandatory to be eligible for Associate Professors, while three years as Associate Professor experience is mandatory to be eligible for Additional Professors and further the experience of four years as Additional Professor is required for the post of Professor.

33. Fact remains that the salary of the Senior Resident is around 1 lakh per month, in all most every Government/Private institution and therefore, there can be no applicant belonging to EWS category, who would be eligible for applying for the post of Assistant Professor. As per the provision of Section 2(b) of the Act 2020, it is provided that 'Economically Weaker Section of Citizens' means persons belonging to Economically Weaker Section as defined in the office memorandum dated 19.01.2019 of DoPT, Ministry of Personnel and Public Grievance and Pension, Government of India and as per the same, the persons whose family has gross annual income is below Rs.8 lacs are to be identified as Economically Weaker Section for the benefit of reservation. Paragraph 2 of the office memorandum dated 19.01.2019 is extracted as under:-

"Persons who are not covered under the existing scheme of reservations for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Socially and Educationally Backward Classes and whose family has gross annual income below Rs. 8.00 lakh are to be identified as EWSs for the benefit of reservation. Family for this purpose will include the person who seeks benefit of reservation, his/her parents and siblings below the age of 18 years as also his/her spouse and children below the age of 18 years. The income shall include income from all sources i.e. salary, agriculture, business, profession etc. and it will be income for the financial year prior to the year of application. Also persons whose family owns or possesses any of the following assets shall be excluded from being identified as EWSs, irrespective of the family income i 5 acres of Agricultural Land and above;

ii. Residential flat of 1000 sq. ft. and above:

iii. Residential plot of 100 sq. yards and above in notified municipalities:

iv. Residential plot of 200 sq. yards and above in areas other than the notified municipalities."

34. In fact, the respective applicants for the aforesaid positions of the Associate Professors, Additional Professors and Professors cannot belong to EWS category, by virtue of the experience required for the same, thus, there is no occasion of advertising the EWS category post for Assistant Professors, Associate Professors and Professors.

35. The circular bearing no. M.I.-3/2023 dated 24.11.2023 issued by the Director General Medical Education and Training, with regard to employment of candidates under the compulsory government service bond was laid down, which categorically provides that annual income of the Junior Resident/Senor Resident, working in the Government/Autonomous Medical Colleges/Institutes of the State is more than Rs. 8 lacs, which is the eligibility prescribed by the Government Orders related to EWS category, therefore, they do not fall within the EWS category thus, the seats reserved for EWS category of the vacant post of the Senor Resident have been included in the unreserved category and the benefit of reservation of EWS category will not be allowed to any candidate. The circular dated 24.11.2023 is extracted as under:-

"शासनादेश संख्या-85 / 2019/2625/71-1-2019-जी-71/2011टी०सी० दिनांक 16 अक्टूबर 2019 द्वारा प्रदेश के राजकीय मेडिकल कालेजों में कार्यरत जूनियर एवं सीनियर। रेजीडेण्ट चिकित्सकों के वेतनमान अभिवृष्वि / संशोधन करते हुए जूनियर रेजीडेण्ट को ग्रेड वेतन रू0 5400/- तथा सीनियर रेजीडेण्ट को ग्रेड वेतन रू0 6600/- तथा अन्य अनुमन्य भत्ते राज्य सरकार द्वारा निर्धारित दरों पर अनुमन्य किया गया हैं।

उक्त से स्पष्ट है कि प्रदेश के राजकीय / स्वशासी मेडिकल कालेजों / संस्थानों में कार्यरत जूनियर रेजीडेण्ट / सीनियर रेजीडेण्ट की वार्षिक आय रु 8.00 लाख से अधिक होती है, जो आर्थिक रूप से कमजोर श्रेणी (E.W.S.) से संबंधित शासनादेश द्वारा निर्धारित अर्हता की परिधि में नहीं आते हैं। अतः उक्त वर्णित तथ्यों के दृष्टिगत सीनियर रेजीडेण्ट के रिक्त पदों की ई०डब्लू०एस० श्रेणी हेतु आरक्षित सीटों को अनारक्षित श्रेणी में सम्मिलित किया गया है तथा एउक्त काउंसिलिंग हेतु किसी भी अभ्यर्थी को ई०डब्लू०एस० श्रेणी के आरक्षण का लाभ अनुमन्य नहीं होगाI"

36. Further the Government Order bearing No. I/475904 of 2024 dated 18.01.2024 is also issued wherein, it is provided that the seats reserved for the EWS category of Assistant Professors in DM/MCH occurs, will be filled up by the candidates of unreserved category and the reason is assigned that such students of DM/MCH or having more than 8 lacs of annual income. It is noticeable that the Government Order dated 18.01.2024 and circular dated 24.11.2023 have been issued by the Director General Medical Education himself and therefore, there can be no any other view that these orders are irrelevant for the purposes of considering the EWS reservation in the institute.

37. Ultimately, the reservation for EWS category is not only creating unnecessary confusion in the mind of the candidates, but it also changes the texture of the roaster so applied in the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023, so the reply to issue no. (b) is that the EWS reservation ought not to have been applied in the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 on account of peculiar eligibility criteria for the post, so advertised, which per-supposes gross annual income to be more than almost Rs. 12 lacs, while any candidate having gross annual family income of more than eight lacks, is not covered within the definition of EWS as per the Act 2020, more so, in the event that the institute is proceedings in absence of any procedure or manner prescribed by the State Government, including the applications of EWS category, while notifying any rule, resultantly, the issue no. (b) is also decided in negative.

38. While coming to the issue no. (c), section 3(2) of Act 1994 is reproduced herein under:-

"If, in respect of any year of recruitment any vacancy reserved for any category of persons under sub-section (1) remains unfilled, such vacancy shall be carried forward and be filled through special recruitment in that very year or in succeeding year or years of recruitment as a separate class of vacancy and such class of vacancy shall not be considered together with the vacancies of the year of recruitment in which it is filled and also for the purpose of determining the ceiling of fifty per cent reservation of the total vacancies of that year notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub- section (1);] 23 where a suitable candidate belonging to the Scheduled Tribes or Scheduled Castes, as the case may be, is not available in a recruitment either under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) the vacancy reserved for him may be filled in such recruitment, from amongst the suitable candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, and as soon as a vacancy earmarked in the roster referred to in sub-section (5) for the Scheduled Castes or Schedule Tribes, as the case may be, arises such person belonging to Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, shall be adjusted against such vacancy of his own category.]"

39. The above-said provision speaks that for the unfilled vacancies the employer state is at liberty to fill up the backlog vacancies by means of special drive. However, there is no pari-materia provision in the U.P. Public Services, Reservation for EWS Act 2020 which inter-alia governs the manner in which EWS reservation is to be provided, rather section 3(6) of Act 2020, categorically provides that the unfilled vacancies of the EWS category are not ought to be left vacant and ought to be filled up by unreserved candidates. Section 3(6) of the Act 2020 is reproduced hereinunder:-

"section 3 (6) Where in any particular recruitment year any vacancy earmarked under sub-section (1) for Economically Weaker Sections cannot be filled up due to non availability of a suitable candidate belonging to Economically Weaker Sections such vacancies shall not be carried forward to the next recruitment year as backlog and the said vacancy shall be filled by the eligible candidates of unreserved category."

40. From perusal of the advertisement dated 01.12.2023, it indicates that the same is an special recruitment advertisement, but in absence of any provision of the Special Recruitment drive in the Act 2020, the same is unsustainable and against the law therefore, the reply to the issue no. (c) is that along with the backlog vacancies (Special Recruitment) for reserved categories i.e. SC,ST and OBC vacancies, but the vacancies for EWS category could not have been advertised in the Special Recruitment carried out vide impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 and further, without there being any rules or any procedure prescribed with respect to the 'Special Recruitment,' the same could not have been done.

41. Now dealing the issue no. (d), it is apparent that there is anomaly which makes the recruitment exercise initiated by the respondent institute vide impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023, faulty, as in the year 2020 guidelines were issued by the then Medical Council of India and later on re-constituted as National Medical Commission (hereinafter referred to as 'NMC') and based on the 2020 guidelines, the respondent no. 3, vide Government Order dated 30.11.2022 determined the sanctioned strength of various faculty positions in the respondent institute subsequently, the above noted guidelines are superseded and new guidelines have ben issued vide the order dated 16.08.2023 and if, those are applied, there would be material changes as per the guideline of 16.08.2023. The sanctioned strength of institute needs to be reconsidered by the State Government as the earlier Government Order dated 30.11.2022 has been superseded and therefore, the standardization Government Order issued subsequently, would materially change the sanctioning strength of the faculty members. Thus, this Court finds that applying the standardization Government Order dated 30.11.2022, which is said to be based on old MCI guidelines of 2020 is an incorrect and erroneous approach as subsequently, the new guidelines have been issued on 16.08.2023, while superseding the earlier one.

42. Apart from abve, this Court also noticed that on 06.08.2018, Dr Chandra Kant Pandey was appointed as Professor in the department of critical care against an unreserved category post of Professor and after some period of time, Dr Pandey resigned and the fact has not been denied that huge grant has been accepted for construction of Critical Care Unit, but no post is advertised for Critical Care Unit department, though, the aforesaid fact is disputed by counsel for the Institute, while stating that there is no sanctioned post in critical care department in the institute and therefore, the institute is not empower to advertise any vacancy, without being any sanctioned post .

43. In view of the aforesaid submissions and discussion, this Court finds merit in the writ petition, thus, the impugned advertisement dated 01.12.2023 and the rejection order dated 19.01.2024 issued by respondent no. 6 are hereby quashed.

44. The writ petition is allowed accordingly.

45. It is open to the 'Institute' to issue a fresh advertisement, while strictly following the provisions, relevant laws and seeking instructions from the State Government regarding the procedure and manner, mandated to be prescribed under section 3(1) of the 'Act 2021.'

(2024) 5 ILRA 465
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 1736 of 2024

Krishna Kumar Shukla ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Amrendra Nath Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Raj Kr. Singh Suryavanshi, Surendra Pratap Singh

A. Service Law – UP Intermediate Education Act, 1921 – Regulations framed under the Act, 1921 – Reg. 21 – Benefit of academic session – GO dated 30.12.2014 and Order dated 29.03.2022 – Applicability – Petitioner's age of retirement was extended to 65 years due to being St. Teachers Awardee – Benefit of academic session claimed after 65 years – Permissibility – Held, in the order dated 29th March 2022, the further benefit of the 'academic session' is not granted for the St. Awardees Teachers, who are given the extension of service, up till age of 65 years, and therefore, in absence of any provision for grant of benefit of academic session, the same cannot be allowed to the petitioner. (Para 20)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dr. Murli Shyam Pathak Vs St. of U.P & ors.; 2019 7 ADJ 172

2. Nazir Ahmad Vs King-Emperor; 1936 SEC OnLine PC 41

3. Chandra Kishore Jha Vs Mahavir Prasad & ors.; (1999) 8 SCC 266

4. Cherukuri Mani Vs Chief Secretary, Government of Andra Pradesh & ors.; (2015) 13 SCC 722

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri Amrendra Nath Tripathi, Advocate assisted by Sri Sant Singh Rayakwar, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel, Sri Vivek Shukla, Sri Pankaj Patel and Sri Tushar Verma, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsels for the State, Sri S.P. Singh, learned counsel for the opposite party no. 5 and Sri R.K. Singh Suryavanshi, learned counsel for the opposite party no. 4

2. Under challenge is the order dated 10th January 2024, whereby, the petitioner was forced to unlawfully retired on 30th April 2024, and further a writ of mandamus is sought, commanding and directing the respondent to allow the petitioner to continue on his post of Ad-hoc Principal till end of Academic Session, that is 31.03.2025, in terms of Regulation 21 of the Regulations framed under Chapter IIIrd of the UP Intermediate Education Act, 1921, with full salary and other benefits.

3. Factual matrix of the case is that the petitioner was appointed as a Lecturer (Agriculture), on 3rd March 1989, in Bakshi Ka Talab Inter College District Lucknow, thereafter, the service of the petitioner was regularised with effect from 7th August 1993, by the order of Deputy Director (Secondary Education), VIth Region, Lucknow, vide order dated 17th October 1994, and since then he was working to his best of efficiency and his work and conduct was always above board.

4. Later on, the petitioner was recommended for State Teachers Award 2019-2020, and he was awarded with the State Teachers Award on 3rd September 2020 and since, State Government had a policy for the State Teachers Awardees for extension of services till 65 years' of age, which came into effect vide Government Orders dated 30th December 2014 and 30th June 2015, and in view thereof, the petitioner was also accorded the extension of services up to 65 years' of age, vide order dated 29th March 2022, and thus, the petitioner was to be retired on attaining the age of 65 years, but the petitioner felt aggrieved by the issuance of the retirement notice dated 10th January 2024, wherein, the date of superannuation, is shown as 30th April 2024, on the premises that he is entitled for the benefit of Academic Session, that is up till 31th March 2025, in terms of the provisions invisaged under Regulation 21 of the Regulations made under the UP Intermediate Education Act, 1921 (hereinafter referred as Act, 1921).

5. Contention of the counsel for the petitioner is that the impugned order/retirement notice dated 10th January 2024 is arbitrary, illegal and violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India as the same is passed in the most mechanical and arbitrary manner. He submits that the Regulation 21 of the Regulations framed under Chapter IIIrd of the Act, 1921, very specifically provides for automatic extension of service period, by way of session benefits to those who are retiring between second day of April and 30th March of Academic Session. Therefore, the retirement notice dated 10th January 2024, wherein, the date of superannuation is mentioned in between the aforesaid period but no session benefit is given, is perverse on its face and suffers arbitrariness.

6. Further contention of the counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner is regularly teaching and taking classes, satisfactorly and he is fit, mentally and physically. He submits that if the petitioner gets retired in the mid academic session, the education of students will adversely suffer and affect and as the policy makers were aware about the instant hardship, therefore, a provision under Chapter III, Regulation 21 under the regulations, was framed. Next contention is that the provisions of Chapter III, Regulation 21, have it's perspective and constructive interpretation which is very clear that the interest of the students is a paramount goal of a welfare state and therefore, once a State awardee is completing his or her age, in between 2nd April to 30th March, should be given the benefit of academic session, otherwise, the interest of the students would hamper.

7. Adding his arguments he has drawn attention towards the order dated 29th March 2022 and submitted that the intent of the order is very clear that the same grants the benefit of the academic session and non-granting of the benefit of academic session by the impugned order dated 10th January 2024 is in contravention of the order dated 29th March 2022. Concluding his argument, he submits that the order dated 10th January 2024 is not only violative of the Government Order dated 29th March 2022, but that also goes against the provisions of Chapter IIIrd of the Regulations, made under the Act, 1921. Thus, the order impugned is unsustainable.

8. Contrary, the learned counsel appearing for the opposite parties have opposed the aforesaid contentions vehemently and submitted that the benefits of extension of age, till 64 years to the teachers working in the non-government aided institution has been provided with certain restrictions and conditions, enumerated in the Government Orders dated 6th May 1982, 4th December 1986, 23rd October 1991, 27th June 1994, 29th June 2004 and 30th September 2013. So far as the extension of tenure, till the academic session ending on 31th March 2025 is concerned, is opposed on the ground that extension in terms of Regulation 21 does not cover the further extension of academic session to the State Awardees. It is added that the Regulation 21 could be segregated in two distinct parts; the first part is that the age of superannuation for the post of Principal, Headmaster/Teachers to which, it attach the provisions of session benefit, allowing him to continue till the end of academic session, unless a written request is made to the contrary, two months prior to attaining the age of superannuation. Secondly, it contemplates extension in service in addition to the first part upon conditions that are prescribed by the State Government, that session benefits allowing the teachers to continue till the end of academic session, allowing the end of academic session under Regulation 21 is restricted only to the first part and not to the second part and this would not apply automatically unlike the first part and therefore, it is well within the domain of State Government to provide extension only up till the end of calander month, in which the petitioner will attain the age of superannuation and once an employee has attained the age of superannuation, he has no right to any continuance in service or any extension of his services, unless provided under any law.

9. Further contention is that the order dated 29th March 2022 is very clear in its terms as it speaks specifically that the same shall be counted after completing the age of superannuation up till 31st March 2022 and specific, date that is 1st April 2022 is provided, meaning thereby, that those teachers who have completed their age of superannuation after completing the benefit of academic session, their age of 65 years will be counted from 1st April 2022, and therefore, the order dated 10th January 2024 is in consonance with the Government Order dated 29th March 2022, which can no way be controverted by the petitioner.

10. In support of their contentions, they have placed reliance on a judgement and order in case of Dr. Murli Shyam Pathak Vs. State of U.P and Ors decided on 24.05.2019, reported in 2019 7 ADJ 172, wherein, it has been held that 'in the facts of the present case also the prtitioner was granted sessions benefit when he attained the age of superannuation, specified in Regulation 2021, in as much as, he would have retired on 1st April 2015, itself. His continuation beyond 1st April 2015 was on account of session benefit which continued up till 24th June 2015. Extension in age of up to 65 years, was allowed only till 24th June 2015 and a second session benefit would therefore, otherwise would not be available to him'.

11. Concluding their arguments, they submit that there is no force in the contention of the counsel for the petitioner, and thus, no interference is warranted.

12. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, and after perusal of the material placed on record, it transpires that the petitioner has sought relief that he is entitled for the benefit of academic session as he is completing the age of 65 years in between second day of April and 30th March

13. The petitioner has assailed the notice dated 10th January 2024, issued by the Manager, Committee of Management, Bakshi ka Talab, whereby, he has been shown to be retired on 30th April 2024, while completing the age of 65 years. From perusal of the Government Order dated 30th December 2014, it is evident that such teachers who are the awardee of National/State Teachers Award would get the benefit of the retirement till 65 years of age and it was clarified that this benefit would also be accorded to those teachers, who have been granted two years service extension as per the Government Order dated 6th May 1982, vide order dated 29th March 2022. It is provided that the petitioner including the other teachers of the different colleges mentioned in the order would get extension of service up till 65 years of age.

14. The order dated 29th March 2022 is extracted as under:-

''उत्तर प्रदेश शासन

शिक्षा अनुभाग-8

संख्या-463/15-8-22-2006(1)/2021

लखनऊः दिनांक 29 मार्च, 2022

कार्यालय - ज्ञाप

प्रदेश के राज्य पुरस्कार प्राप्त अध्यापकों को शासनादेश संख्या-1772/15-(14)-30(67)/71, दिनांक 06.5.1982 यथासंशोधित शासनादेश दिनांक 04.12.1986, 23.10.1991, 27.06.1994, 30.09.2013, 30.12.2014 एवं दिनाक 30.06.2015 में निर्धारित व्यवस्था / प्राविधानों एवं शासनादेश दिनांक 30.12.2019 द्वारा निर्धारित प्रारूप पर शिक्षा निदेशक (मा०) उ०प्र० द्वारा उपलब्ध कराये गये प्रस्तावों का परीक्षण किया गया तथा शिक्षा निदेशक (मा०) उ०प्र० की सस्तुति एवं अभिलेखीय साक्ष्यों के आधार पर सेवा विस्तार समिति द्वारा की गयी संस्तुति के दृष्टिगत सम्यक विद्यारोपरान्त श्री राज्यपाल शासनादेश दिनांक 30.12.2014 के राज्य अध्यापक पुरस्कार प्राप्त अशासकीय सहायता प्राप्त माध्यमिक विद्यालयों में कार्यरत निम्नलिखित प्रधानाचार्यों/ शिक्षकों को दिनांक 31.03.2022 को सत्रांत लाभ सहित अधिवर्षता आयु पूर्ण करने के पश्चात दिनांक 01.04.2022 से 65 वर्ष की आयु तक के लिए सेवा विस्तार प्रदान किये जाने की सहर्ष स्वीकृति प्रदान करते हैं:-

नाम/पदनाम

विद्यालय का नाम

डॉ कंचन प्रभा शुक्ला, प्रधानाचार्य जैन इण्टर कालेज, नई मण्डी, मुजफ्फरनगर।

डॉ० भूदेश्वर पाण्डेय, प्रधानाचार्य जगत जीत इण्टर कालेज, इकौना, श्रावस्ती।

श्री कृष्ण कुमार शुक्ला, प्रवक्ता बक्शी का तालाब इण्टर कालेज, लखनऊ।

श्री उमा शकर यादव, प्रवक्ता / तदर्थ प्रधानाचार्य गन्ना विकास इण्टर कालेज मुण्डेरवा, बस्ती।

2- उपरोक्त प्रधानाचार्यों/शिक्षक, जिस विषय के शिक्षक हैं उन्हें संबंधित विषय में वादन करना अनिवार्य होगा तथा सेवाविस्तार की अवधि मे अपने पद पर ही तैनात रहेगे।

(जय शंकर दुबे)

विशेष सचिव।''

15. From bare reading of the above order, it is evident that the same is in consonance with the Government Order dated 30th December 2014, which does not provide the benefit of the academic session to those teachers who have been given the benefit of service extension till 65 years of age.

16. The government order dated 30th December 2014 is quoted hereinunder:-

''शिक्षा (8) अनुभाग :

लखनऊः दिनांक 30 दिसम्बर, 2014

बिषय :– प्रदेश के राष्ट्रीय/ राज्य अध्यापक पुरस्कार प्राप्त शिक्षकों को सेन्ट्रल बोर्ड आफ सेकेण्ड्री एजूकेशन के सर्कुलर संख्या–22 दिनांक 18.02.2014 में दी गई व्यवस्था के आधार पर सेवा विस्तार की अवधि में वृद्धि।

महोदय,

उपर्युक्त विषयक आपके पत्र संख्या–सा0(1)शि0/3924/2014–15, दिनांक 25.8.2014 का कृपया सन्दभ ग्रहण करें।

2– प्रदेश के राष्ट्रीय/ राज्य पुरस्कार पाप्त अध्यापकों को उनकी अधिवर्षता आयु के पश्चात दो वर्ष का सेवा विस्तार किये जाने की व्यवस्था शासनादेश संख्या –1772/15–(14)–30 (67)/17, दिनांक 6–5–1982 द्वारा प्रदान की गई है जिससे राजकीय विद्यालयों में कार्यरत शिक्षकों/प्रधानाचार्यो की सेवानिवृत्ति आयु 62 वर्ष एवं अशासकीय सहायता प्राप्त माध्यमिक विद्यालयों में कार्यरत शिक्षकों/प्रधानाचार्यो की सेवानिवृत्ति आयु 64 वर्ष होती है। इन दोनों श्रेणी के शिक्षकों को शासनादेश दिनांक 06 मई, 1982, 04 दिसम्बर 1986, 23 अक्टूबर,1991, 27 जून, 1994, 29 जून, 2004 तथा 30 सितम्बर, 2013 में वर्णित प्रतिबन्ध एवं शर्तो के साथ उक्त लाभ प्रदान किया गया है।

3– अतः इस संबंध में मुझे यह कहने का निर्देश हुआ है कि सम्यक विचारोपरान्त सेन्ट्रल बोर्ड आफ सेकेण्ड्री एजूकेशन के सर्कुलर संख्या–22 दिनांक 18–2–2014 में की गई व्यवस्था के क्रम में प्रदेश के राजकीय माध्यमिक विद्यालयों /अशासकीय सहायता प्राप्त माध्यमिक विद्यालयों के राष्ट्रीय /राज्य अध्यापक पुरस्कार प्राप्त शिक्षकों को उनकी उत्कृष्ट सेवा, उत्तम स्वास्थ्य एवं उत्तम कार्य आचरण के आधार पर संबंधित शिक्षकों की अधिवर्षता आयु पूर्ण होने के पश्चात 65 वर्ष की आयु होने तक के लिए सेवा विस्तार दिये जाने की स्वीकृति श्री राज्यपाल सहर्ष प्रदान करते है। उक्त व्यवस्था का लाभ ऐसे शिक्षकों को भी दिया जायेगा जिन्हें शासनादेश दिनांक 6–5–1982 कि प्राविधानों के अनुसार दो वर्ष का सेवा विस्तार प्रदान किया जा चुका है एवं वे सम्प्रति कार्यरत हैं। अधिवर्षता सेवा का लाभ उपरोक्त प्रस्तर–2 पर पात्रता विषयक शासनादेशों के प्रतिबन्धों के अन्तर्गत होगा।

4– यह आदेश वित्त विभाग के अशासकीय संख्या –ई–11/1499/दस–2014, दिनांक 26 दिसम्बर 2014 में प्राप्त उनकी सहमति से निर्गत किए जा रहे है।

भवदीय,
(जितेन्द्र कुमार)
प्रमुख सचिव''''

17. From perusal of the order 29th March 2022, there is no such provision of benefit of academic session to the petitioner and law is very clear on this point started from the judgement and order in case of Nazir Ahmad Vs King-Emperor, 1936 SEC OnLine PC 41, rendered by the Privy Council, wherein, it has been held that 'where a power is given to do a certain thing in a certain way, the thing must be done in that way or not at all' and the other methods of performance are necessarily forbidden.'

18. This court has also considered the judgement and order rendered in the case of Chandra Kishore Jha Vs. Mahavir Prasad and Others, reported in (1999) 8 SCC 266, wherein, the following principle is laid down:-

"17.....It is a well-settled salutary principle that if a statute provides for a thing to be done in a particular manner, then it has to be done in that manner and in no other manner. (See with advantage: Nazir Ahmad v. King Emperor [(1935-36) 63 lA 372 : AIR 1936 PC 253 (lI)] , Rao Shiv Bahadur Singh v. State of V.P. [AIR 1954 SC 322 : 1954 SCR 1098] , State of U.P. v. Singhara Singh [AIR 1964 SC 358 : (1964) 1 SCWR 57] .) An election petition under the rules could only have been presented in the open court up to 16-5-1995 till 4.15 p.m. (working hours of the Court) in the manner prescribed by Rule 6 (supra) either to the Judge or the Bench as the case may be to save the period of limitation. That, however, was not done....."

19. Further, in case of Cherukuri Mani Vs. Chief Secretary, Government of Andra Pradesh and Ors, (2015) 13 SCC 722, it has been held by the Apex Court that 'where the law prescribed a thing to be done in a particular manner, following a particular procedure, it shall be done in the same manner following the provisions of law, without deviating from the prescribed procedure'.

20. In the order dated 29th March 2022, the futher benefit of the 'academic session' is not granted for the State Awardees Teachers, who are given the extension of service, up till age of 65 years, and therefore, in absence of any provision for grant of benefit of academic session, the same cannot be allowed to the petitioner.

21. In view of the abovesaid submissions and discussions, the writ petition lacks merit, hence is dismissed.

22. No order as to cost.

23. Consigned to record.

(2024) 5 ILRA 470
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 5280 of 2015

Ajay Pal Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Pushp Raj Singh, Gaurav Upadhyay, Manish Misra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Civil Service Regulations – Reg. 351 – Pension – During service period, the petitioner was sentenced for committing Murder, against which Criminal Appeal and SLP were also dismissed – No departmental enquiry was conducted – Effect – Held, St. Government reserves the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, if the pensioner be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of grave misconduct – The provision of Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations cannot be ignored or make it inoperative or redundant only on the ground that no departmental enquiry was contemplated against the petitioner. (Para 16 and 19)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Special Appeal No. 40 of 2017; Shiv Gopal & ors.Vs St. of U.P. & ors. decided on 08-05-2019

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel and Sri Vivek Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State and perused the material placed on records.

2. By means of instant writ petition, the petitioner has assailed the order dated 02-06-2015 passed by the Deputy Director of Education,Lucknow Region, Lucknow and the order dated 13-08-2015 passed by the opposite party no. 1.

3. Contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner was initially appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher C.T. Grade on 01-08-1972, and subsequently, he was treated as Assistant Teacher in 2 L.T. Grade in Narvadeshwar Inter College, Rambagh, Raebareli(hereinafter referred to as 'Institution'). The institution is recognized by the U.P. Intermediate Education Board and imparts education upto Intermediate Classes and the provisions of Intermediate Education Act, 1921 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act, 1921'), U.P. Secondary Education Service Selection Board Act, 1982(U.P. Act No. 5 of 1982) as well as the U.P. High School and Intermediate College(Payment of Salaries to Teachers and other Employees) Act, 1971, are applicable on the teaching and non teaching staffs of the institution. Further submitted that the work and conduct of the petitioner was always above the board, but, unfortunately, in the year, 1977, he was falsely implicated in a murder case, wherein the petitioner was sentenced for life imprisonment vide Judgment and order dated 12-05- 1981, whereafter, an appeal was preferred by the petitioner and he was released on bail. Thereafter, the petitioner joined the institution and kept on working and was getting salary, regularly. He next submits that the petitioner was sent to jail at the time, when the first information report was lodged and later on, when he was punished and he communicated it to the institution,but, no departmental enquiry was contemplated against him, however, he was being paid salary, except apart the period he remained in jail.

4. Again submitted that the appeal preferred by the petitioner was decided and the punishment was reduced and he was punished under section 304(ii) of 3 I.P.C. and was sentenced for 7 years of imprisonment and sent to jail, whereafter, the petitioner preferred Special Leave

Petition before the Hon'ble Apex Court, which was also dismissed and subsequently, the review petition and curative petition were also dismissed. He further submits that after serving the punishment, the petitioner was released from jail on 03-01-2010, though in between, he had attained the age of superannuation on 30-06-2009, but, the fact remains that since 01-10-2004 uptil the date of his retirement, the petitioner was not paid his salary and therefore, after release from the jail, the petitioner moved an application for release of his post retiral benefits, which were due to be paid to him, but, once, after completing the pension papers, sent to the office of Deputy Director of Education, Lucknow Region, Lucknow, the Deputy Director of Education sought the instructions from the Finance Controller of the office of the Director Secondary Education, vide letters dated 05-05-2010 and 23-02-2011, but, the same remains unresponded and therefore, the petitioner preferred Writ Petition bearing no. 1507(S/S) of 2013, wherein an order was passed on 15-03-2013.

5. The relevant portion of the order is quoted hereinunder :-

"Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the opposite parties. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits retiral dues of the petitioner has not been paid, though the petitioner retired on 30.6.2009. He further states that necessary papers have already been forwarded to the authority concerned, but the post retiral 4 dues of the petitioner has not been paid up till now. The petitioner has also made a representation in this regard. In the aforesaid circumstances, the writ petition is disposed of
with the direction that the authority concerned shall consider and dispose of the aforesaid representation of the petitioner dated 22.1.2013, as contained in Annexure no.5 to the writ petition, in accordance with law within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order."

6. He added that in compliance of the order dated 15- 03-2013, the order dated 02-06-2015 was passed, whereby the claim of the petitioner for payment of pension has been rejected and thereafter, the petitioner filed a representation/appeal before the opposite party no. 1, who without application of mind, passed the order on 13-08-2015 and upheld the order passed by the Deputy Director of Education.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in the criminal case and he was not involved in committing any offence. He next submits that as and when the petitioner was sent to jail, he informed the department, but, no departmental enquiry has ever been contemplated against him and in criminal appeal, the punishment is reduced upto 7 years and after serving the period of 7 years of imprisonment, the petitioner was released from jail and he has been paid all the post retiral dues. Therefore, submission is that the petitioner is also entitled for the pensionary benefits.

8. Further contention is that since there is no criminal case pending against the petitioner and therefore,under Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations, the petitioner is entitled for payment of the pensionary benefits. Next submits that the Deputy Director of 5 Education and the State Government have passed the orders in an arbitrary manner and without adhering to the provisions of Civil Services Regulations as neither any departmental enquiry nor any criminal case is pending against the petitioner. Thus, submission is that the orders dated 02-06-2015 and 13-08-2015 may be quashed.

9. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing for the State has vehemently opposed the contentions aforesaid and submitted that initially, when the first information report was lodged, the petitioner was sent to jail and thereafter, when he was convicted, he was again sent to jail and finally, the conviction is upheld by the Apex Court. He submits that so far as the provisions of Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations are concerned, that speaks about the implied condition of future good conduct for ever grant of pension and since the petitioner is convicted and therefore, as per the abovesaid provisions, he is not entitled for pension.

10. Adding his arguments,he submits that in compliance of the order dated 15-03-2013 passed by this court, the claim of the petitioner with respect to payment of pension has thoroughly been considered and decided by the Deputy Director of Education and once the representation is preferred against the same, the State Government has also passed an order on 13-08-2015 and has rightly turned down the claim of the petitioner. Thus, submission is that the petitioner is not entitled for any relief. 6

11. Having heard learned counsels for the parties and after perusal of the material placed on record, it transpires that the petitioner was initially appointed on the post of Assistant Teacher,whereafter, the first information report was lodged against him, for committing murder and he was punished. Thereafter, the petitioner filed an appeal before this court, which was also dismissed on 06-07-2004 and the Special Leave Petition was preferred before the Hon'ble Apex Court and that too, was dismissed on 27-09-2004 and the petitioner after serving the 7 years of sentence, was released from jail and admittedly, he is a convicted person.

12. After the petitioner was released from jail, serving the sentence, raised claim for payment of pension and thereafter, filed a writ petition, wherein a direction is given for taking a decision on the representation of the petitioner and ultimately, the decision was taken by the Deputy Director of Education on 02-06-2015, rejecting the claim of the petitioner.

13. When this court examines the matter in facts and law, it emerges that so far as the claim of the petitioner is concerned, the same is covered with the provisions of Regulation 351 of the Civil Service Regulations, which provides implied condition for grant of pension.

14. Provision of Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations is extracted as follows :-

"351. Future good conduct is an implied condition of ever grant of a pension. The State Government reserve to themselves the right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, if the pensioner be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of grave misconduct. The decision of the State Government on any question of withholding or withdrawing the whole or any part of pension under this regulation shall be final and conclusive."

15. A bare reading of the abovesaid provision is evident that the same confers power upon the State Government for withholding or withdrawing pension or any part of it, if a person claiming pension is convicted of 'serious crime' or guilty of 'grave misconduct', meaning thereby, that if a criminal case or disciplinary proceeding is pending, it would not be sufficient to withhold or withdraw the pension, unless such person is convicted or hold the guilty of grave misconduct. Infact, the expression 'serious crime' indicates towards the offences, which are having the dangerous possible. The 'serious offences' have been defined under section 2(54) of the Juvenile Justice Act, 2015, which is extracted as follows :-

"Serious offences" includes the offences for which the punishment under the Indian Penal Code or any other law for the time being in force, is imprisonment between three to seven years."

16. The aforesaid provision is very clear in it's term as the same provides that the State Government reserves the 'right of withholding or withdrawing a pension or any part of it, if the pensioner be convicted of serious crime or be guilty of grave misconduct.

17. This court is also aware of the law laid down in the case of Shiv Gopal and Others Vs. State of U.P. and Others and other connected matters (Special Appeal No. 40 of 2017 decided on 08-05-2019.Paragraph nos. 31,32 & 36 of the said Judgment are quoted hereinunder:-

"31. The decision of the above Division Bench as contained in the later part is based upon equitable principle and is not the law that has been laid down. The decision on equity is confined to the fact situation of that case. Moreover, equity has no place where the provisions of law are express.

32. The decision in the case of Bal Krishna Tiwari39 has been rendered simply following the equitable principle of Faini Singh (Supra) in context with the fact situation of the said case wherein the government servant had retired 10 yeas ago but was not getting his gratuity as a case was pending against him. The said decision also does not lay down any binding precedent.

36. The decision dated 5.10.2013 in Writ No. 12574 of 2013 (Narendra Singh Vs. State of U.P., and others) is also of no consequence as it again fails to take into consideration the specific provision of Regulation 919-A with regard to withholding of gratuity during the pendency of the judicial proceedings."

18. Undisputedly, the petitioner is a convicted person and therefore the Deputy Director of Education as well as the State Government have rightly passed the orders on 02-06-2015 and 13-08-2015, respectively while rejecting the claim/prayer of the petitioner for grant of pension.

19. Thus, the provision of Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations cannot be ignored or make it inoperative or redundant only on the ground that no departmental enquiry was contemplated against the petitioner as the provision speaks and includes not only the past but, of future good conduct, as well and since, it is undisputed fact that the petitioner is a convicted person, therefore, the provision of Regulation 351 of the Civil Services Regulations, shall apply.

20. Resultantly, the petitioner is not entitled for pension.

21. Consequently, the writ petition lacks merits and hence, is dismissed.

22. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 475
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 6879 of 2012

Shailendra Pratap Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
G.C. Verma, Sharad Pathak

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Anurag Kumar Singh, P.C. Chauhan, Pradeep Kumar Singh Bisen

A. Service Law – UP Recognised Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment of Conditions of Service of Ministerial Staff and Group D Posts), Rules 1984 – Rule 14 – Selection – Post of Clerk – Constitution of three members Selection Committee – Third member i.e. Specialist was appointed by two other members of the Selection Committee, not by the Committee of Management – Effect – Held, appointment of third member, made by the remaining two members, but not by Committee, vitiates the constitution of the selection committee. (Para 30 and 31)

B. Service Law – UP Recognised Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment of Conditions of Service of Ministerial Staff and Group D Posts), Rules 1984 – Rule 15(5)(iii) – Appointment – Post of Clerk – Appointment was made without waiting one month period – Effect – Held, Rule 15(5)(iii) provides that if, the DBEO does not communicate his decision on the due intimation by the Committee of Management, within one month form the date of receipt of the papers under clause 4, he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the selection committee – High Court held the appointment made not in-consonance with Rules 15(5)(iii). (Para 30 and 31)

C. Service Law – Upgradation of the institution from Junior High School to High School/Intermediate College – Whether Intermediate Education Act, 1921 is applicable or Rules of 1984 – Held, the institution in question is covered with the provisions of the Act, 1921 – Manju Awasthi's case relied upon – Basic Siksha Adhikari cannot exercise any administrative control over the institution, except to the extent of payment of salary. (Para 32 and 33)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dhirendra Pratap Singh Vs St. of UP & ors.; 2019 (7) ADJ 250 (LB)

2. Special Appeal No. 667 of 2014; St. of UP through Principal Secretary Vs Pravin Kumar Mishra & anr. decided on 07.03.2018

3. Ramesh Singh Vs St. of U.P.; (2020) 5 SCC 677

4. Manju Awasthi & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; Manu/UP/3739/2012

5.St. of U.P. & ors.Vs District Judge, Varanasi & ors.; 1981 SCC OnLine All 279

6. Dr. (Smt.) Sushila Gupta Vs The Joint Director of Education, Kanpur & ors.; (2005 SCC OnLine All 1183)

7. Standard Intermediate College Mau-Aima & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (MANU/UP/2108/2019)

8. Rakesh Chandra Sharma Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2001 (1) UPLBEC 131

9. Sharda Prasad Yadav & ors.Vs District Inspector of Schools, Deoria & ors.; 2002 (49) ALR 800

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard Sri G. C. Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Ran Vijay Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no.2, Sri Anurag Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4, i.e., Committee of Management, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, Chief Standing Counsel, Sri Vivek Shukla, additional chief standing counsel and Sri Piyush Kumar, learned Standing Counsel for the State.

2. Vide the instant petition, a challenge is made to the order dated 13.9.2012 passed by the District Basic Education Officer, Pratapgarh.

3. Factual matrix of the case is that a post of clerk became vacant due to retirement of regular clerk, namely, Mohan Lal Sharma in the Uchchatar Madhyamik Vidyalaya, Para Hamidpur Pratapgarh (hereinafter referred to as 'the institution'), on 30.9.2011. Thereafter, the then Manager of the Committee of Management moved an application on 4.11.2011, to the District Basic Education Officer (hereinafter, referred to as 'DBEO') for granting permission for filling up the post of Clerk. On such application, the 'DBEO' granted permission and, thereafter, the post of Clerk (Class-III) was advertised in the newspaper as per the provisions of UP Recognised Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment of Conditions of Service of Ministerial Staff and Group D Posts), Rules 1984 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Rules 1984'). The qualification and other description as an eligibility criterion, was also mentioned in the advertisement and on 30.11.2011, the Manager i.e opposite party no.4 sent a letter to the 'DBEO' for providing Observer on 4.12.2011, i.e., the date fixed for interview but the same remained unheard. Again on 27.12.2011, a letter was sent for providing Observer/Nominee for 1st of January 2012 and in response, after the expiry of the aforesaid date, the DBEO informed to the opposite party no.5 that since, assembly election is notified, therefore, the appointment process would be conducted after the election is denotified. After the election was over again, the date of interview was fixed on 1st of April 2012 and it was intimated by the opposite party no.4, vide letter dated 3.3.2012 to the DBEO and, thereafter, on 29.3.2012, 28.6.2012, 11.7.2012 and 24.7.2012, the same request was repeated before the DBEO while fixing the dates for interview but, ultimately, when the Entire effort went unsuccessful, the interview was held on 29.7.2012 and the selection so made was placed before the Committee of Management, who sent the papers before the opposite party no.2 for approval, which was received in the office of opposite party no.2, on 14.8.2012, which is undisputed fact.

4. Thereafter, on 13.9.2012, after expiry of period of one month, the appointment letter was issued to the petitioner, while following the provisions of Rule 15 (5) (iii) of the Rules, 1984, which says about the deemed approval after expiry of period of one month. After the letter was issued on 14.9.2012, the petitioner submitted his joining on 20.9.2012 and he was allowed to join and was permitted to work since, 19.9.2012. On 13.9.2012, the impounded order was passed by the opposite party no. 2/DBEO and request for the approval of the appointment of the petitioner was rejected precisely, on the ground that the appointment of the petitioner is done by an unlawfully constituted selection committee.

5. Contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that there is no dispute that a substantive vacancy arose on the retirement of regular Clerk, Mohan Lal Sharma and, thereafter, the Manager, i.e., opposite party no.4, sent several letters, started from the month of November, 2011 till July 2012, wherein the repeated request was made for appointment of nominee. In response, only one letter is sent by opposite party no.3, i.e. dated 6.1.2012, whereby, he has directed that the nominee will be provided after finalization of the Assembly election and once the Assembly election was over, five letters were written to the opposite party no.2, with the request to provide a nominee, but no response was given.

6. He further argued that looking into the exigency of the services of the Clerk in the institution, under the compelling circumstances, the selection was held by a duly constituted selection committee, comprises of three members wherein, the then Manager, Head Master of the school and one other member was nominated by the Committee of Management, when no nominee was sent by opposite party no. 2, as per the provisions of Rule 14 of the Rules, 1984, and two members, i.e., the Manager and the Head Master, were present in selection committee and the Manager, who is one of the members, is of Scheduled Caste Category. Adding his arguments, he submits that time and again, in several verdicts, this Court has held that if out of three members, two were present in selection, the selection would be valid.

7. Further contention of counsel for the petitioner is that the Government Order dated 24.11.2001 provides that where, the aided Junior High School upgraded to High School/Intermediate (Un-aided), the administrative control of DBEO would remain continue for the Junior High School including the payment of salary and subsequently, the said Government order is also considered while another order dated 09.05.2022 is issued.

8. In support of his contention, He has placed reliance on a judgement reported in 2019 (7) ADJ 250 (LB), Dhirendra Pratap Singh Vs. State of UP and others, and has referred paras 10 to 12 of the above said judgement. Paras 10 to 12 are extracted as under:-

"10. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also submitted that in the instant case, one nominee was sought from the office of the District Basic Education Officer for making selection on the post in question, but said nominee was not sent and the selection exercise was completed in absence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. Learned counsel for the petitioner has cited judgment of this Court rendered in a batch of writ petitions, leading Writ Petition No. 5118 (S/S) of 2016, Sanjay Kumar Singh v. State of U.P. and others, MANU/UP/5726/2018 : 2019 (5) ADJ 583 (LB). In para-24 of the aforesaid judgment, it has been observed as under:

"(24) On overall consideration of the respective arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the parties, it is crystal clear that the main issue in rejecting the approval is that the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer was not present in the Selection Committee and in his absence, the Selection Committee was permitted to conclude the selection proceeding. It is recorded that in case one Member of the Selection Committee is absent and the decision has been taken by majority of Members including the Chairman of the Selection Committee in making selection, the same does not vitiate the selection made in absence of nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. Upon bare perusal of the judgment relied upon and after examination of the law laid down by the Division Bench of this Court in the case of District Basic Shiksha Adhikari, Ambedkar Nagar (supra) and Fateh Bahadur Singh (Supra), this Court holds that issue involved in the aforesaid judgments was in regard to the appointment on the post of Clerk, wherein in the selection proceedings nominee of the District Basic Education Officer did not participate. The learned Single Judge on the basis of material placed on record found that the District Basic Education Officer to send the nominee on the letter submitted by the Manager/Principal of the Institution, did not respond and in consequence thereto, the Selection Committee comprising of Manager and Headmaster met and made recommendation for the appointment and thereafter, the selection was made in absence of nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. Thus, in the present case, in case the same has been disapproved on the ground of non-appearance of nominee of the District Basic Education Officer, the impugned order appears to be not justifiable in law."

11. Therefore, in view of the above, the approval of the appointment of the petitioner may not be denied for the reason that there was no nominee on behalf of the District Basic Education Officer at the time of selection.

12. Considering the facts and circumstances of the issue in question and also considering the legal position, I am of the considered view that the District Basic Education Officer, Sitapur should accord formal approval of the appointment of the petitioner w.e.f. 7.1.2017 after expiry of one month from the date of receipt of papers for approval."

9. Referring the aforesaid, he submitted that identical controversy has been dealt with, while answering that once the request of appointment of the nominee is ignored by the District Basic Education Officer, two member selection committee fulfills the quorum and there is no unlawfulness in selection proceeding by such selection committee.

10. He further placed reliance on judgment dated 7.3.2018 passed in Special Appeal No. 667 of 2014 (State of UP through Principal, Secretary, District Basic Education Officer, Lucknow Vs. Pravin Kumar Mishra and another and has referred para 14 of the judgment which is quoted as under:-

"A perusal of the impugned order, it reveals that learned Single Judge, after appreciating the submissions of the parties and Rule 15 (5) (ii) of the Rules, 1984, has recorded a clear cut finding that it is not in dispute that receipt of the letter dated 26.9.2006 has not been denied anywhere in the counter affidavit. In the said letter, the Institution had indicated that three dates have been fixed for holding the interview on which dates the Observer was not sent by the District Basic Education Officer, Raibareli and finally the selection was fixed for 30.9.2006. On 30.9.2006, also no Observer was sent and as such, the Selection Committee met and finalized the process in which the writ petitioner was selected for Class-IV post. The entire papers relating to the selection were forwarded to the District basic Education Officer, Raebareli, on 15.10.2006 as is evident from the letter of the Institution dated 17.11.2006. In these backgrounds, learned Single Judge opined that the District Basic Education Officer despite requests having been made by the Institution for forwarding the name of an Observer, did not do so and even after the selection papers were received in his office on 15.10.2006, he neither approved nor disapproved the same. In this situation, on the expiry of one month from the date of receipt of the papers, the selection would be deemed to have been approved by the District Basic Education Officer in view of the provisions of Rules 15(5) of the Rules, 1984. Accordingly, learned Single Judge rightly came to the conclusion that it is not open for the respondent now to take the stand that the selection suffers from the vice of illegality since no observer was present in the selection."

11. He submitted that the aforesaid judgment also determine the question regarding non-appointment of nominee and with respect to the validity of the selection committee, which is decided positively in favour of the respondent while dismissing the special appeal.

12. Next contention is that the Government order dated 24.11.2001, contemplates the teacher and staff of junior high school/high school, whose services are governed by the provision of U.P. recognized basic schools (Junior High Schools)(Recruitment and conditions of Service of Teacher) Rules, 1978 (hereinafter referred as 'Rules 1978' and the 'Act 1978'). He added that the provisions of the act, 1978 as well as Rules 1984 shall also apply to an institution, which is upgraded up to the level of High School or Intermediate college.

13. Continuing with argument, he submits that Hon'ble Single Judge, while noticing judgment rendered in Ramesh Singh vs State of U.P. [(2020) 5 SCC 677] has held that 'upgradation of an Aided Junior High School as Un-Aided High School/Intermediate College' does not take away the institution from the financial control of the Basic Siksha Adhikari and the State Government is well within the authority to issue the Government Order invoking the powers under section 9(4) of the Act, 1921 and in order to remove difficulties and smooth functioning of the powers, the State Government can always fill in the gaps.

14. Concluding his arguments, he submits that the impugned order is totally perverse as the same is passed on the premises that the selection committee is not duly constituted. He added that the specific pleading of para 14 has not been controverted by the opposite party no. 2, in his counter affidavit dated 30.3.2013, as is evident from the para 15 of the counter affidavit that there is no specific denial regarding the letters which were issued for appointment of Nominee. He submits that the present Manager of Committee of Management is having anonymity with the petitioner, though, he has failed to demonstrate that the letters to the District Basic Education Officer were not duly sent. Therefore, submission is that the order impugned dated 13.9.2012 passed by the opposite party no. 2, i.e., the District Basic Education Officer is erroneous and suffers from non-application of mind, thus, the same may be quashed and the opposite party no. 2 may be directed to make payment of salary to the petitioner treating approval of the appointment as deemed approval under the provisions of section 15 (2) of the Rules, 1984.

15. On the other hand, Sri Anurag Kumar Singh, counsel appearing for the private-respondent submits that the committee of management had never taken any decision for filling up the post in question which fell vacant on the superannuation of Mohan Lal Sharma and the documents which have been relied upon by the petitioner, is not in the knowledge of committee of management, as the alleged resolution dated 17.09.2011 under the signature of the then Manager, was never passed and the thumb impression is also forged as Sri Babu Lal Verma the then president stated on an affidavit dated 05.10.2018 that no meeting took place on 17.09.2011 and no decision has ever been taken for appointment of Amar Bahadur Singh (Assistant Teacher) as third member of selection committee.

16. Adding his arguments, he submits that the records, which has been appended by the petitioner along with writ petition, is evident that once the nominee was not appointed by the DBEO, the members of the selection committee themselves, have appointed a third member, which is impermissible under the law and thus, the selection committee vitiates in the eyes of law.

17. Further contention is that if any proceedings have been carried out by the then Manager, namely, Sitaram Saroj regarding the appointment of the petitioner, without the resolution of committee of management, the same is against the law. He also added that the letter dated 14.08.2012 was received in the office of opposite party no. 2 on 19.08.2012, therefore, no appointment letter could have been issued to the petitioner before 19.09.2012.

18. Further contended that vide Government Order dated 15.03.2012, the ban was imposed on all appointments in the aided Junior High School and that was lifted on 15.09.2014. Further the committee of management did not appoint third member of the selection committee and no advertisement was ever published in any newspaper.

19. In support of his contention, he has placed reliance on the judgments rendered in case of Manju Awasthi and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors. (MANU/UP/3739/2012), State of U.P. and Others Vs. District Judge, Varanasi and Others reported in 1981 SCC OnLine All 279, Dr. (Smt.) Sushila Gupta Vs. The Joint Director of Education, Kanpur and Ors. (2005 SCC OnLine All 1183) and Standard Intermediate College Mau-Aima and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors. (MANU/UP/2108/2019).

20. Finally, he submits that the appointment of the petitioner is not only dehors the rules, but the same is done while preparing the forged and fabricated documents, thus, submission is that the petitioner is not entitled for any relief.

21. Counsels appearing for the State submitted that so far as the contention of counsel for the petitioner is with respect to the Government Order dated 24.11.2001 read with section 9(4) of the Act, 1921 is concerned, the same speaks about 'modified, re-signed and make any regulation' which does not cover any 'order'. It is submitted that submits that the Rules, 1984 is not applicable to the institution in question and the Government Order dated 24.11.2001 is only clarificatory in nature and do not constitute any provision.

22. In support of contention, reliance is placed on judgement reported in 2001 (1) UPLBEC 131, Rakesh Chandra Sharma Vs. State of U.P. and others, and has referred paras 6 and 7 of the abovesaid judgement. It has been held that once the institution is upgraded up to intermediate level, the Rules 1984 will not attract as the provision of Intermediate Education Act, 1921 read with the Regulations will come into force in such institutions.

23. Paragraphs 6 and 7 are extracted as under:-

"6. The first question which arises for consideration is whether after upgradation of the institution to High School if a vacancy of clerk occurs in the institution, it has to be filled under the provisions of the Act, 1921 and Regulations framed thereunder or under the provisions of the U. P. Recognised Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Ministerial Staff and Group 'D' Employees) Rules, 1984 (in brief Rules, 1984). It is not disputed that the institution was upgraded from Junior High School to High School on 24.8.1993. A clerk of the institution was dismissed from service after the institution was upgraded and this vacancy was sought to be filled by the management through an advertisement made on 2.4.1999. Section 2 (e) of Rules, 1984 defines a Junior High School to mean an institution other than High School or Intermediate College imparting education to boys and girls or both from class VI to VIII. Therefore, Rules, 1984 would apply to the institutions where education is imparted from class VI to VIII but it shall not apply to the institutions which impart education from classes IX and X. Since the institution was upgraded as High School in 1993, Rules, 1984 ceased to apply to the institution. And the only provision to fill the non-teaching post of clerk was Regulation 101 of Chapter III of the regulations. Under Regulation 101 prior approval of District Inspector of Schools had to be obtained before making appointment on a class-III post. It has been held by this Court In Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 50266 of 2000, Amit Kumar v. District Inspector of Schools, Jaunpur and another decided on 21.11.2000, that provisions of Regulation 101 are mandatory. Therefore, appointment of the petitioner on the post of clerk could not be made by the management without obtaining prior approval of the District Inspector of Schools. BSA had no power to grant approval to the appointment of the petitioner. Thus, the approval granted to the petitioner's appointment on 20.4.1999 by BSA was void. It has rightly been cancelled by BSA.

7. The next question is what would be the effect of payment of salary, etc., to the teachers and staff from the grant-in-aid received from the Government as Junior High School under interim order passed by this Court and whether services of such teachers and staff would be governed by Basic Education Act and Rules or U. P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 and Regulations framed thereunder. I have earlier held that after upgradation of the institution to High School, the provisions of Act, 1921 and Regulations would apply and the provisions of Rules, 1984 would not be applicable for recruitment on the non-teaching post. If teachers and non-teaching staff of the institution are receiving salary from grant-in-aid which was earlier payable to the institution prior to its upgradation as High School. Even then, fresh appointments in unaided recognised High School would be governed by the provisions of Act, 1921 and Regulations. A Division Bench of this Court (Lucknow Bench) in Shiksha Prasar Samiti, Babhnan, District Gonda v. State of U. P. and others 1986 UPLBEC 477, has held that the provisions of U. P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921, apply to a recognised institution. It is not necessary that the institution should be receiving grant-in-aid. Therefore, even though the institution is not receiving grant-in-aid from the Government and has been granted recognition as unaided High School. The management could fill vacancy of clerk, only by following the provisions of recruitment as provided under the U. P. Intermediate Education Act, 1921 and Regulations framed thereunder. Since the management did not appoint the petitioner under Act, 1921 and Regulations, therefore, no relief could be granted to the petitioner."

24. Again reliance is placed in a case reported in 2002 (49) ALR 800, Sharda Prasad Yadav and others Vs. District Inspector of Schools, Deoria and others, and paras 16 to 19 are referred.

25. Paragraphs 16 to 19 are quoted hereinunder:-

16. The second contention of the petitioners that Annexure-C.A-1 is an exparte report as no point of time the petitioners were ever associated in the enquiry and as such the salary of the petitioners cannot be withheld, is also misconceived. It is admitted to the petitioners that either appointments were made by the Principal of the institution and according to them, he had forwarded the papers to the D.I.O.S., Deoria for grant of financial sanction for payment of their salary. The District Inspector of Schools, Deoria, respondent No. 1 has categorically denied that no such papers had ever been received in his office for granting financial sanction. On the contrary it has been stated that these appointments are FARZI and the State is not liable to pay salary to the petitioners. In so far as the enquiry is concerned, D.I.O.S. has rightly based his conclusion on the papers and submitted to the interrogatories submitted by the Principal. It has nothing to do with the petitioners, it cannot be said that the report of the D.I.O.S. is an exparte without hearing the necessary parties, and even otherwise also whatever the petitioners could have shown, they have stated in the rejoinder affidavit, which has been examined by this Court.

17. As regards the third contention of the petitioners, it is apparent from the records of this case as well as from the contention of the parties that the appointments of the petitioners were not as per Rules. There were only fourteen sanctioned posts of class-IV employee and the District Inspector of Schools, Deoria was not at all applied to grant financial sanction for four additional posts, which has been made against the rules. The contention of the petitioners that their appointments have been made on the posts in accordance with law by the Principal of the institution, is not correct.

18. Apart from the above, under Regulation 101 it is mandate upon the appointing authority not to pay the non-teaching staff except without prior approval of the District Inspector of Schools. The use of word shall in the Regulation 101 makes it obligatory upon the appointing authority to obtain prior approval from the D.I.O.S. before filling any vacancy of non-teaching post in the institution. Further use of word 'except' with prior approval of the D.I.O.S. do not give discretionary power to the appointing authority, Regulation 101 is as under:

"101. The appointing authority shall not fill any vacancy in the non-teaching staff of a recognized aided institution except with the prior approval of the inspector."

19. In Amit Kumar v. D.I.O.S., Jaunpur [2001 (42) ALR 153.] , it has been held by a Single Judge of this Court that the Regulation 101 cannot be treated to be directory and this interpretation would result in giving power to the appointing authority for making appointment and thereafter obtain financial sanction. This Court held:

"If Regulation 101 is treated to be directory then the appointing authority could make appointment on non-teaching post even without prior approval of the DIOS. It would result in giving power to the appointing authority to make appointment first and thereafter obtain financial approval. This was not the intention of legislature or the Rule making authority. And it clearly intended that before makingany appointment the appointing authority must obtain prior approval of the DIOS. The legislative intent has to be given effect to while interpreting regulatory provisions of Regulation 101. Regulations 103 to 106 further make it clear that the Regulation 101 cannot be construed as permissive or directory. Further the procedural safeguard contained in Regulation 101, making it obligatory for the appointing authority in matter of making appointment on non-teaching post, not to fill the vacancy except with the prior approval of the DIOS, has an element of public interest."

26. He next submits that school is upgraded uptill high school in year, 1982 vide letter no. I.B.Recognitaion/96 dated 02.11.1982, which is an undisputed fact and thus, thereafter, the provisions of the Act, 1921 shall apply therefore, any appointment following the provisions of the Act 1978 or Rule 1984, would apparently be against the settled law, thus, submission is that the petitioner is not entitled for any relief.

27. Considering upon contentions of counsels for the parties and after perusal of material placed on record, it transpires that the institution was upgraded as high school on 02.11.1982 and once, one of the regular class III employee namely, Mohan Lal Sharma retired, several request were made by the Committee of Management for appointed on the post of Clerk, but when, no nominee was sent by the District Basic Education Officer, the other members of the selection committee, nominated the third member and held the selection, wherein, the petitioner was declared successful and got joined on the post of clerk, but once it was send for the financial concurrence, the same was denied by the District Basic Education Officer vide letter dated 13.09.2012 with the observations that 'appointment of the petitioner is done by unlawfully constituted a selection committee.'

28. Having perused the impugned order dated 13.09.2012, it emerges that the District Basic Education Officer has passed the order, on the premises that the selection committee is not constituted lawfully, meaning thereby, that the provision which is prescribed under Rule 15 of the Rules, 1984 meant for the appointment of Non-Teaching Staff in the Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High Schools).

29. For ready reference, the provisions of rules 14, 15 and 16 of Rules, 1984 are quoted hereinafter:-

"14. Selection Committee.- (1) Manager

(2) Headmaster of the recognised School in which the appointment is to be made:

(3) A specialist nominated by the District Basic Education Officer who will be from amongst minority in respect of a school established and administered by a minority or from amongst Scheduled Castes in respect of any other school.

15. Procedure for selection.-(1) The Selection Committee shall. after interviewing such candidates as appear before it on a date fixed by it in this behalf, of which due intimation shall be given to all the candidates, prepare a list containing as far as possible the names, in order of preference, of three candidates found to be suitable for appointment.

(2) The list prepared under Clause (1) shall also contain particulars regarding the date of birth, academic qualifications of the candidates and shall be signed by all the members of the Selection Committee.

(3) The Selection Committee shall as soon as possible forward such list, together with the minutes of the proceedings of the Committee to the Management.

(4) The Manager shall, within one week from date of receipt of the papers under Clause (3), send a copy of the list to the District Basic Education Officer.

(5) (i) The District Basic Education Officer is satisfied that-

(a) the candidates recommended by the Selection Committee possess the minimum qualification prescribed for the post:

(b) the procedure laid down in these rules for the selection of Ministerial staff and Group 'D' employees, as the case may be. has been followed, he shall aecord approval to the recommendations made by the Selection Committee and shall communicate his decision to the management within two weeks from the date or receipt of the papers under Clause (4).

(ii) If the District Basic Education Officer is not satisfied as aforesaid. he shall return the papers to the management with the direction that the matter shall be reconsidered by the Selection Committee.

(iii) If the District Basic Education Officer does not communicate his decision within one month from the date of receipt of the papers under Clause (4), he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendatioris made by the Selection Committee.

16. Appointment- Appointment by by the management.-111 On receipt of communication of approval or as the case may be, on the expiry of the period of one month under Clause (iii) of sub-rule (5) of Rule 15, the management shall first offer appointment to the candidate given the first preference by the Selection Committee and, on his failure to join the post, to the candidate next to him in the list prepared by the Selection Committee, and on the failure of such candidate also, to the last candidate mentioned in such list.

(2) (a) The appointment letter shall be sent under the signature of the Manager, by registered past to the selected candidate.

(b) The appointment letter shall clearly specify the name of post, the pay scale and the nature of appointment, whether permanent or temporary and shall also specify that if the candidate does not join within 15 days from the date of receipt of the appointment letter. his appointment shall be cancelled.

(c) A copy of the appointment letter shall also be sent to the District Basic Education Officer."

30. As per the rule 14, the selection committee consists of three members i.e. Manager, Headmaster and an Specialist nominated by the DBEO and at the same time, Rule 15(5)(iii) provides that if, the DBEO does not communicate his decision on the due intimation by the Committee of Management, within one month form the date of receipt of the papers under clause 4, he shall be deemed to have accorded approval to the recommendations made by the selection committee. One of the exigencies has also been dealt with that in case, the DBEO did not sent his nominee, the committee of management shall appoint third member.

31. It is an undisputed fact that the third member has been appointed by two other members of the selection committee and not by the Committee of Management, which vitiates the constitution of the selection committee. Further the appointment of the petitioner is done without waiting for completion of a month and therefore, the same is not in-consonance with the provisions of Rules 15(5)(iii) of Rules, 1984.

32. Now the question crops up that whether, the institution in question is governed with the provisions of Rules, 1984 or the same is governed with the provision of the Act, 1921. The undisputed fact is that uptill 01.11.1982, the institution was running at the level of Junior High School and by virtue of an order dated 02.11.1982, this has been upgraded, however, there is no overt provision in the Rules, 1984 for appointment of Group D posts, in such institution, but time and again this issue was brought up before this Court and ultimately, this was decided in the case of Manju Awasthi and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors, reported in Manu/UP/3739/2012 wherein, in the paragraphs 77,78 and 82, the Division Bench has very categorically held that the 'Government Order dated 24.11.2001 can be supported only to the extent of payment of salary at the Junior High School level and the ancillary power thereunder, but the Basic Siksha Adhikari cannot exercise any administrative control over the institution, except to the extent of payment of salary.' Paragraphs 77, 78 and 82 of the abovesaid judgment are extracted as under:-

"We are of the view that the Government Order dated 24.11.2011 can be supported only to the extent of payment of salary of teachers at the Junior High School level and ancillary power thereunder. However, the Basic Shiksha Adhikari cannot exercise any administrative control over the institution except to the extent of payment of salary nor can make any appointment in view of the applicability of 1921 and 1982 Acts. The judgment of Hon'ble Single Judge in Committee of Management Beni Singh Vaidīc Vidyawati Inter College, Baluganj, Agra and others (supra) to that extent cannot be approved. It is relevant to note that against the judgment of Hon'ble Single Judge dated 7.9.2005 in Committee of Management Beni Singh Vaidic Vidyawati Inter College, Baluganj, Agra and others (supra) special appeal No. 1419 of 2005, Agam Prakash Deepak. State of U.P., was filed, which appeal was also dismissed on 29.11.2005.

78. The Special Appellate bench considered the submissions of the appellant only qua the qualifications of the Assistant Teacher and laid down that Assistant Teacher must possess the training course recognised by the State Government hence, the appellant could not have been appointed as Assistant Teacher hence, the appeal was dismissed. No other ratio was laid down in the said judgment.

82. The selections made by the Basic Shiksha Adhikari under the provisions of U.P. Recognized Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment and Conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978, have rightly been quashed in the writ petitions by Hon'ble Single Judge on the ground that after up-gradation of a Junior High School, selection/appointment is to be made in accordance with 1921 Act and U.P. Act No. 5 of 1982. As noticed above, we have found that the State Government as well as the educational authorities have not been properly construing the provisions of Section 7A and under the misconception, they have granted recognition to the institution under Section 7A, for the first time whereas recognition under Section 7A is to be granted to an existing recognised institution within the meaning of Section 2(b). We thus, feel that certain directions are necessary to be issued in this context. We have already observed that our observations and interpretation of Section 7A in no manner shall affect any recognition already granted to an institution under Section 7A and institution which has been granted recognition shall be treated to be duly recognised but necessary action which has not yet been taken with respect to the said institution is required to be taken by the educational authorities as per our observation. The appeals are disposed of with following directions:

1. The judgment of Hon'ble Single Judge Impugned in the appeal holding that after up-gradation of a Junior High School to High School, appointment and selection on the post of Head Master shall be made in accordance with 1921 Act and U.P. Act No. 5 of 1982 are upheld and prayer of the appellant to set aside the judgment of Hon'ble Single Judge is refused.

2. The recognition/permission under Section 7A shall be granted to an institution which is already recognised institution within meaning of Section 2(b) of 1921 Act.

3. Recognition to a junior high school as High School is to be granted in accordance with the provisions of Section 7(4) of 1921 Act.

4. The State is fully empowered to grant recognition under Section 7(4) or Section 7A without finance (Vitta vihin).

5. After an institution is granted recognition for the first time as a High School minimum necessary post of teachers and Head Master is contemplated to be created even though without finance (Vitta Vihin) so as to fill up those posts in accordance with 1921 Act and 1982 Act.

6. Against the recognition/permission granted under Section 7A, the appointment of a part time teacher or instructor as contemplated under Section 7A(a) shall be continued to be made by the management as per the Government Orders issued from time to time regulating their terms and conditions.

All the appeals are disposed of accordingly.

Parties shall bear their own costs."

33. While dealing with the aforesaid issue, the coordinate division bench of this Court at Allahabad has also sketched out the difference in the judgment and order passed in earlier Special Appeal, thereby holding that the same considered the qualification of Assistant Teacher and no other ratio was laid down in the said judgement and therefore, this was open to the coordinate bench to dealt with the issue, regarding the applicability of the other provisions. The law laid down in the case of Manju Awasthi and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors still holds filled and therefore, the institution in question is covered with the provisions of the Act, 1921.

34. It has been argued by the petitioner that the approval of the appointment of the petitioner is declined on the sole ground that the appointment is done by an unlawfully constituted selection committee, whereas, it is undisputed that the third member is nominated by the member of the selection committee itself which is impermissible under the law and thus, it is wrong to say that the order impugned do not stand on its own legs.

35. Ultimately this Court is of considered opinion that, the appointment of the petitioner is done under the provision of the Rules, 1984 whereas, the provisions of the Act, 1921 would apply to the institution in question thus, in view of the settled proposition of law, the whole proceedings of the said appointment vitiates in the eyes of law.

36. Consequently, the writ petition lacks of merit, hence, the same is dismissed.

37. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 487
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHREE PRAKASH SINGH, J.

Writ A No. 8437 of 2023

Awadhesh Kumar Pandey ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Manoj Kumar Pandey, Pt. S. Chandra

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – UP Secondary Education Service Selection Board Act, 1982 – Sections 33-C(2)(b) & 33-G – Teacher – Regularization – Rejection order was passed in cyclostyle manner and without following procedure – Legality challenged – Held, no procedure has been adopted/prescribed, as is provided u/s 33-C(2)(b) of the Act, 1982, for considering the regularisation of the petitioners. It fails the very purpose and Scheme of the Section 33-G of the Act, 1982 – Almost all the rejection orders have been passed in a cyclostyle manner – High Court quashed the impugned order declaring it unlawful and against the settled proposition of law. (Para 16, 17, 30 and 31)

B. Service law – Constitution of India – Principle of natural justice – Rule of audi alteram partem – Applicability to administrative proceeding – Opportunity of hearing – Significance – Held, under the Constitutional Scheme, one of the most important ingredients which is to be taken care of, is the rules of principle of natural justice – Even in administrative proceeding, the application of the rules of 'audi alteram partem', is must – Opportunity of hearing is a substantive obligation, which is based on fundamental principle of natural justice – The petitioners have not been associated while considering their cases for regularisation, u/s 33-G of the Act, 1982, as, neither any notice is issued to the petitioner nor any record was called from the Committee of Management concerned, which, prima facie, is a violation of rules of principle of natural justice. (Para 19, 22 and 25)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited & anr. Vs BPL Mobile Cellular Ltd. & ors.; (2008) 13 SCC 597

2. Rajjan Lal Vs St. & anr.; AIR 1961 All 139 (FB)

3. St. Bank of India & ors.Vs Rajesh Agarwal & ors.; (2023) 6 SCC 1

4. Mohindher Singh Gill & anr. Vs Chief Election Commissioner, New Delhi & ors.; (1978) 1 SCC 405

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shree Prakash Singh, J.)

1. Heard learned counsels for the petitioners, Sri Shailendra Kumar Singh, learned Chief Standing Counsel, Sri Vivek Kumar Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State and perused the records.

2. Notices to the concerned respondents, other than the State, are hereby dispensed with.

3. The bunch of petitions have been preferred by the petitioners assailing their respective rejection orders, mainly on the ground that they were entitled to be considered and to be regularised, under the provision of Section 33-G of the UP Secondary Education Service Selection Board Act, 1982 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act, 1982') but the benefits under the aforesaid provisions have been declined to them.

4. The provision of Section 33–G of the Act 1982 is extracted as under:-

"33-G (1) Any teacher, other than the Principal or the Head Master, who-

(a) was appointed by promotion or by direct recruitment in the lecturer's grade or trained graduate grade on or after August 7, 1993 but not later than January 25, 1999 against a short term vacancy in accordance with paragraph 2 of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Commission (Removal of Difficulties) (Second) order, 1981 as amended from time to time, and such vacancy was subsequently converted into a substantive vacancy;

(b) was appointed by promotion or by direct recruitment on or after August 7, 1993, but not later than December 30, 2000 on adhoc basis against substantive vacancy in accordance with Section 18, in the Lecturer grade or Trained Graduate grade;

(c) possesses the qualifications prescribed under, or is exempted from such qualification in accordance with, the provisions of the Intermediate Education Act, 1921;

(d) has been continuously serving the institution from the date of such appointment up to the date of the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Selection Board (Amendment) Act, 2016:

(e) has been found suitable for appointment in a substantive capacity by the Selection Committee referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of Section 33-C in accordance with the procedure prescribed under clause (b) of the said sub-section;

Shall be given substantive appointments by the Management.

(2)(a) The names of the teachers shall be recommended for substantive appointment in order of seniority as determined from the date of their appointment;

(b) if two or more such teachers are appointed on the same date, the teacher who is elder in age shall be recommended first.

(3) Every teacher appointed in a substantive capacity under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be on probation from the date of such substantive appointment.

(4) A teacher who is not found suitable under sub- section (1) and a teacher who is not eligible to get a substantive appointment under the said sub-section shall cease to hold the appointment on such date as the State Government may by order specify.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be contrued to entitled any teacher to substantive appointment if on the date of the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Selection Board (Amendment Act), 2016 such vacancy had already been filed or selection for such vacancy has already been made in accordance with this Act.

(6) The services of the adhoc teachers and the teachers who have been appointed against short term vacancies shall be regularised from the date of commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Selection Board (Amendment Act), 2016.

(7) Reservation Rules shall be followed in regularization of adhoc teachers and teachers who are appointed against short term vacancies.

(8) Adhoc teachers, who have not been appointed either in accordance with the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Commission (Removal of Difficulties) Order, 1981 or in accordance with Section 18 of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Selection Board Act, 1982 and are otherwise getting salary only on the basis of interim/Final orders of the court shall not be entitled for regularization."

5. From bare reading of the provisions of Section 33–G(a) of the Act, 1982, it is conspicuous that any teacher other than Principal or Headmaster, who was appointed by promotion or by direct recruitment in the lecturer's grade or trained graduate grade on or after August 7, 1993 but not later than January 25, 1999 against a short term vacancy in accordance with paragraph 2 of the Uttar Pradesh Secondary Education Services Commission (Removal of Difficulties) (Second) order, 1981 as amended from time to time, and such vacancy was subsequently converted into a substantive vacancy.

Similarly, Section 33-G(b) provides that:- any Teacher other than Principal or Headmaster, who was appointed by promotion or by direct recruitment, on or after 7th August 1993, but not later than 30th December 2000, on ad-hoc basis on substantive vacancy, in accordance with Section 18, in the Lecturer Grade or Trained Graduate Grade and possess the qualification prescribed under or is exempted from such qualification in accordance with the provisions of Intermediate Education Act, 1921 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act 1921') and has been continuously serving the institution from the date of such appointment up till the date of commencement of U.P. Service Selection Board Act, 2016 and has been found suitable for appointment in a substantive capacity by the Selection Committee referred to in Clause (a) of Sub-Section (2) of Section 33-C in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Clause (b), shall be given substantive appointment.

6. Section 33-G(8) of the Act, 1982, laid down condition, that ad-hoc Teachers who have not been appointed either in accordance with UP Secondary Education Service Commission (Removal of Difficulties) Second Order, 1981 (hereinafter referred to as 'Order, 1981'), or in accordance with Section-18 of the Act, 1982 or otherwise getting salary only on the basis of interim/final order, shall not be entitled for regularization.

The direct recruitment falls in two categories as is envisaged under Section 33-G of the Act, 1982; firstly, the concerned Teacher has been appointed on or after 7th August 1993, but not later than 25th January 1999 against a short term vacancy, in accordance with paragraph 2 of the Removal of Difficulties Order 1981 as amended from time to time, and as such, the vacancy was converted into a substantive vacancy and secondly, the concerned Teacher has been appointed on or after 7th August 1993, but not later than 30th December 2000, on ad-hoc basis against substantive vacancies, in accordance with the old Section 18 of the Act, 1982 in the Lecturers' Grade and Trained Graduate Grade.

7. The petitioners herein claims to be appointed either under the Removal of Difficulties Order, 1981 or under unamended Section 18 of the Act, 1982, and it was incumbent upon the Regional Level Committee to thoroughly examine the case of the petitioners while ensuring the records from the Committee of Management of the Institution as well as the District Inspector of Schools concerned, prior coming to any conclusion.

8. While going through the provision of Section 33-G(e) of the Act, 1982, this Court has noted two ingredients, which is to be taken care of, by the Regional Level Committee; one, that the Teacher is suitable for appointment in a substantive capacity by the Selection Committee referred to in Clause (a)(2) of Section 33-C, in accordance with the procedure proscribed; meaning thereby, that a procedure must be prescribed, so far as, to look into the suitability of appointment.

9. Section 33-C(2)(b) is extracted hereinunder:-

"(b) The procedure of selection for substantive appointment under sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed."

10. The Legislature in its conscious wisdom, has provided the aforesaid procedure of selection for substantive appointment, which clearly indicates that some procedure is to be 'prescribed' for selection of substantive appointment. Time and again, the Apex Court has interpreted the word 'prescribed'.

11. In case of Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited and Another Vs. BPL Mobile Cellular Limited and Others reported in (2008) 13 SCC 597, it is held that 'ordinarily, the word 'prescribed' would mean prescribed by rules, meaning thereby, that prescribed in accordance with law and not otherwise.

12. Paragraph 45 of the abovesaid judgement is referred hereinunder:-

"45. For invoking clauses 4.1 and 19.5 of the licence agreement, we may notice that the word `prescribed' is not defined. It has not been defined even in the Indian Telegraph Act. It has not been defined in the licence. The said provision unlike clause 18.14 does not use the words `from time to time'. A contract entered into by the parties, it will bear a repetition to state, must be certain. It must conform to the provisions of the Indian Contract Act. Ordinarily, the word `prescribed' would mean prescribed by Rules. Section 7(2)(ee) of the Indian Telegraph Act provides for the Rule making power for the purpose of laying down the tariff. We may not be understood to be laying down a law that in absence of any statutory rule framed under the Indian Telegraph Act, no contract can be entered into. In absence of any statutory Rule governing the field, the parties would be at liberty to enter into any contract containing such terms and conditions as regards the rate or the period stipulating such terms as the case may be. The matter might have been different if the parties had entered into an agreement with their eyes wide open that the circular letter shall form part of the contract. They might have also been held bound if they accepted the new rates or the periods either expressly or sub silentio. When on the basis of terms of the contract, different rates can be prescribed, the same must be expressly stated. When the word `prescribed' is not defined, the same, in our opinion, would mean that prescribed in accordance with law and not otherwise."

13. A full Bench of Allahabad High Court, in case of Rajjan Lal Vs. State and another, reported in AIR 1961 All 139 (FB) has also categorically held that the word prescribed in a general sense has a meaning, 'prescribed by any law, whatsoever.'

14. Paragraph 33 of the abovenoted judgement is reproduced as under:-

"33. It will be seen that Section 48 prohibits execution after the expiry of 12 years from the date of the decree. It was contended by the decree-holders before the Full Bench that by virtue of the provisions of Section 15 of the Limitation Act, in computing the time within which they were entitled to execute the decree, the period during which the execution of the decree had been stayed should not be included. teo questions were posed 'before the Full Bench, One was whether Section 48 prescribed a period of limitation within the meaning of Section 15, Limitation Act, and the second was whether Section 15 was not confined in its operation to periods of limitation prescribed by the Act or Schedule thereof.

The Full Bench answered both the questions on the affirmative. We are not here concerned with the first question because it is not contended before us that Sub-section (4) of Section 417 does not prescribe a period of limitation. The second question which fell for consideration by the Full Bench in Durga Pal Singh's case, AIR 1939 All 403, is very similar to the one referred to this Bench for decision. Thom, C. J., who delivered the principal judgment in the case observed upon consideration of the terms of Section 48, C. P. C., and Sections 15 and 29, of the Limitation Act, that the general provisions of Section 15, Limitation Act are intended to apply to periods of limitation prescribed in the Civil Procedure Code and are not confined in their operation to periods prescribed by the Limitation Act or by Schedule 1 thereof, Iqbal Ahmad, J., who concurred in the opinion of the learned Chief Justice, after considering the relevant provisions of the Limitation Act and the Code of Civil Procedure and the course of legislation on the subject came to the conclusion that in the group of sections from 3 to 29 in Sections 3, 6 and 29, after the word "Prescribed" reference has expressly been made to the first Schedule. It was sheld that the omission of this qualification in the other sections was not without significance and that the word "prescribed" has been used in these sections to a general sense as meaning prescribed by any law whatsoever."

15. It culled out that if the word 'prescribed' is not given any meaning or interpretation in the particular provision, the meaning of the same would be, as provided by the law. While examining the instant matter, in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court, it emerges that undisputedly, no procedure was prescribed as it is provided under Section 33-C(2)(b) of the Act, 1982, though, the same is a mandate of Section 33-G(e) for consideration, thus, the whole proceeding of considering the cases of the petitioners vitiates in the eyes of law.

16. This Court has also taken note of the fact that since, no procedure has been adopted/prescribed, as is provided under Section 33-C(2)(b) of the Act, 1982, for considering the regularisation of the petitioners, it fails the very purpose and Scheme of the Section 33-G of the Act, 1982.

17. From perusal of all the rejection orders, there seems to be no procedure followed, and the orders have been passed in a cyclostyle manner, in almost all the rejection orders. In this view of the matter, this Court is of considered opinion that the procedure prescribed under Section 33-C(2)(b), have not been adhered to, which demolished the scheme of regularisation, inserted vide Section 33-G of the Act, 1982.

18. Coming on the issue of opportunity of hearing to the Committee of Management as well as the persons aggrieved, i.e., the petitioners, it is apparent, that the Regional Level Committee while proceeding with the consideration of regularisation of the petitioners, did not procure the records, either from the Committee of Management or from the District Inspector of Schools concerned, whereas, fact remains that the District Inspector of Schools is one of the co-opted member of the Regional Level Committee. It emerges from the rejection orders that those are passed, in almost an identical manner, which indicates that the same have been passed, in a cursory and hasty manner and lacks application of mind.

19. Further, under the Constitutional Scheme, one of the most important ingredients which is to be taken care of, is the rules of principle of natural justice. The Apex Court, time and again has held that even in administrative proceeding, the application of the rules of 'audi alteram partem', is must.

20. The Apex Court while rendering the judgement and order in case of State Bank of India and Others Vs. Rajesh Agarwal and others reported in (2023) 6 SCC 1, has held that Principles of Natural Justice are not mere formalities, but it constitute substantive obligations that need to be followed by decision making and adjudicating authorities. It is further held that the 'principles of natural justice, has a guarantee against arbitrary action, both in terms of procedure and substance, by judicial, quasi-judicial and administrative authorities'.

21. Paragraph 36 of the above noted judgement is quoted hereinunder:-

"36. We need to bear in mind that the principles of natural justice are not mere legal formalities. They constitute substantive obligations that need to be followed by decision-making and adjudicating authorities. The principles of natural justice act as a guarantee against arbitrary action, both in terms of procedure and substance, by judicial, quasi-judicial, and administrative authorities. Two fundamental principles of natural justice are entrenched in Indian jurisprudence: (i) nemo judex in causa sua, which means that no person should be a judge in their own cause; and (ii) audi alteram partem, which means that a person affected by administrative, judicial or quasi- judicial action must be heard before a decision is taken. The courts generally favor interpretation of a statutory provision consistent with the principles of natural justice because it is presumed that the statutory authorities do not intend to contravene fundamental rights. Application of the said principles depends on the facts and circumstances of the case, express language and basic scheme of the statute under which the administrative power is exercised, the nature and purpose for which the power is conferred, and the final effect of the exercise of that power." .

22. The Apex Court has, thus, held that the opportunity of hearing is a substantive obligation, which is based on fundamental principle of natural justice.

23. This Court has also taken note of the fact that the opportunity of personal hearing to the concerned petitioners/ affected teachers have also not been accorded so as to sub-serve the compliance of the rules of principles of natural justice. The matter, which is in hand to decide, is not on the premises that there is no regularisation rules prevailing but petitioners have been deprived of their valuable rights without ensuring the due opportunity of hearing and further prior coming to the conclusion, the records were not procured from the committee of management as well as the District Inspector of Schools concerned.

24. It is trite law that every order, administrative or judicial must stand on its own legs. The Constitutional Bench of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Mohindher Singh Gill and another Vs. Chief Election Commissioner, New Delhi and ohters, (1978) 1 SCC 405, has very categorically held as under:-

"8. The second equally relevant matter is that when a statutory functionary makes an order based on certain grounds, its validity must be judged by the reasons so mentioned and cannot be supplemented by fresh reasons in the shape of affidavit or otherwise. Otherwise, an order bad in the beginning may, by the time it comes to court on account of a challenge, get validated by additional grounds later brought out. We may here draw attention to the observations of Bose, J. in Gordhandas Bhanji[2]:

"Public orders, publicly made, in exercise of a statutory authority cannot be construed in the light of explanations subsequently given by the officer making the order of what he meant, or of what was in his mind, or what he intended to do. Public orders made by public authorities are meant to have public effect and are intended to affect the actings and conduct of those to whom they are addressed and must be construed objectively with reference to the language used in the order itself."

Orders are not like old wine becoming better as they grow older."

25. Undisputedly, the petitioners have not been associated while considering their cases for regularisation, under Section 33-G of the Act, 1982, as, neither any notice is issued to the petitioner nor any record was called from the Committee of Management concerned, which, prima facie, is a violation of rules of principle of natural justice. It is also a trite law that if any action is of civil consequence and that affects someone, the opportunity of hearing of the affected person is must.

26. The State counsel during the course of his argument has also failed to substantiate that with what manner the Regional Level Committee sought for the records from the committee of management and from the District Inspector of Schools, when, the District Inspector of Schools himself is the member of the Regional Level Committee.

27. So far as the present petitioners are concerned, their appointments were made under certain exigencies provided under Section 33-G of the Board Act, 1982 for imparting education, where the State machinery was totally failed to make appointment of teachers, which is the paramount duty of a welfare State. The petitioners were appointed in the educational institutions, which are in the remote areas of the Province and those are fulfilling the aim and object of the constitutional scheme, thereby imparting education, which is the fundamental right.

28. In fact, the State, while looking into the aforesaid Act No.7 of 1982 while inserting provision 33-G, provided that those teachers other than principal or headmaster appointed under the condition laid down in the statute, shall be given substantive appointment, but the impugned orders clearly show that Regional Level Committee without the reports of the Committee of Management and District Inspector of Schools, has passed the orders, which in fact failed the very purpose of prescribing the scheme under section 33-G of the Act 1982. The orders passed by the Regional Level Committee are in a very cursory manner and without ensuring the records from the committee of management and the District Inspector of Schools concerned, which cannot be approved of.

29. Earlier also, the matter came up for consideration before this Court in Special Appeal (Defective) No. 103 of 2023 wherein the controversy is settled while providing that it is the duty and responsibility of the State authorities to consider and adjudge the suitability of the teachers for substantive appointment under Section 33-G of the Act 1982 and their continuation in the ad hoc capacity in the institution concerned is subject to only such consideration. Further, the order passed in the aforesaid special appeal has also been affirmed in Special Leave to Appeal (C) No.13023 of 2023, vide order dated 17.7.2023. Thus, there remains no dispute so far as the consideration of the petitioners/ teachers under section 33-G of the Act 1982, is concerned."

30. In view of the above said submissions and discussions, it is apparent that the orders impugned in all the writ petitions have been passed in a cyclostyle manner, without associating the petitioners in the proceeding and without ensuring the records from the Committee of Management/District Inspector of Schools concern and further without following with any procedure, as it is provided under Section 33-C(2)(b) of the Act, 1982. Thus, the impugned orders on its face, are unlawful and against the settled proposition of law.

31. Consequently, the orders of rejection, assailed in the present bunch of writ petitions are hereby quashed.

32. The writ petitions are allowed, accordingly.

33. All the matters are relegated back to the Regional Level Committees concerned to pass order afresh within a period of three months, after calling the records from the committee of management as well as the District Inspectors of Schools concern and by verifying the same. It is further directed that the petitioners shall also be provided the opportunity of hearing, if so required. The scheme provided under Section 33-G of the Act, 1982 shall strictly be adhered to, keeping in view of the requirement of procedure to be adopted by the Committee so constituted.

34. In addition, it is further provided that the petitioners of the present bunch of writ petitions are entitled to continue in service and shall be paid salary without any further break, till the decision so taken by the committee concerned. The petitioners as well as the Manager of the Committee of Management shall ensure their presence and would co-operate with the Regional Level Committee, as and when required.

(2024) 5 ILRA 495
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 10088 of 2020

Parasnath Gupta ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Kunwar Bahadur Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

A. Service Law – UP Cooperative Societies Act, 1965 – Sections 92-A & 92-B – UP Co-operative Collection Fund and the Amins and Other Staff Service Rules, 2002 – Rule 29 – Post retiral benefit – Superannuation from the post of Junior Clerk in the office of Commissioner, Cooperative Society – Pension was claimed by clubbing service rendered as a Cooperative Collection Amin and Junior Clerk – Permissibility – Held, a Clerk engaged in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme is not entitled to pension, gratuity or other post retiral benefits – Rules of 2002 cannot be extended in their application, including Rule 29, to a Clerk serving in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme. (Para 1, 34 and 35)

B. Interpretation of statute – Literal interpretation – Application – Held, if the provisions of a statute are unequivocal and clear, the rule of literal interpretation ought be adopted and the statute understood for what it means, giving effect to every word of it. (Para 34)

C. Enforcement of statute – Prospective effect – Applicability of Rules of 2016 enforced on 26.08.2016 to the petitioner, who was retired on 31.10.2015 – Held, the Rules have not been given retrospective operation, either expressly or by necessary intendment. These Rules are substantive Rules and the well settled canon of construction is that all substantive law is deemed to be prospective, unless expressly made retrospective. (Para 36)

Writ petition dismissed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Chandra Prakash Pandey & ors., (2001) 4 SCC 78

2. Writ Petition No. 3832 of 2012, UP Sahkari Sangrah Karmchari Union Vs St. of U.P. & ors.decided on 11.05.2015

3. St. of U.P. & ors.Vs Chandra Prakash Pandey & ors.; (1995) 3 UPLBEC 1491

4. Jagmal Singh Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2009 (3) AWC 2461

5. Ramsevak Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2019 : AHC: 136501

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. his writ petition is directed against an order dated 30.06.2020 passed by the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Cooperatives, Government of Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow and a circular dated 22.04.2019 issued by the Commissioner and Registrar, Cooperatives, Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow. By the order of 30th June, 2020, the petitioner's claim for grant of pension, clubbing his services as a Cooperative Collection Amin and Junior Clerk (Collection) in the office of the Assistant Commissioner and Assistant Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Maharajganj, has been rejected.

2. he impugned circular issued by the Commissioner and Registrar, Cooperatives, Uttar Pradesh, Lucknow directs that other staff of the Cooperative Department, like Clerks and Drivers, would be entitled to the benefit of pension, reckoning their entire services, if they have superannuated after the enforcement of the Uttar Pradesh Co-operative Collection Other Staff Service Rules, 2016 (for short, 'the Rules of 2016'). The other staff, other than *Kurk Amin*s, like Clerks, Drivers etc., who retired before enforcement of the Rules of 2016, would not be eligible for pension.

3. The petitioner was appointed on 25.04.1979 as an Amin on commission basis under the provisions carried in the circular of the Registrar, Cooperative Societies, U.P., Lucknow, bearing No.C-28/Adhikashan/ Bakaya, dated 3rd January, 1983. The District Magistrate, Gorakhpur by an order dated 18.07.1983 appointed the petitioner a Tehsil Level Cooperative Collection Amin in the pay-scale of 354-10-424-EB-10-454-12-514-EB-12-550/-. Pursuant to the orders passed by the District Assistant Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Gorakhpur dated 19.07.1983, the petitioner was posted as a Tehsil Level Collection Amin at Tehsil Bansgaon, where the petitioner joined service on 22.07.1983. Later, in terms of an order No.3703-06/ Collection/ Establishment dated 11.08.1997, the petitioner was promoted to the post of a Junior Clerk (Collection) in the pay-scale of 950-20-1150-EB-25-1500/- in the office of the Deputy Registrar, Cooperative Societies, U.P., Gorakhpur.

4. The petitioner claims that he worked on the post of Junior Clerk for 18 years 3 months and 5 days. Detailing his total service period, the petitioner claims that he functioned as a Tehsil Level Cooperative Collection Amin on regular basis from 18.07.1983 to 11.08.1997 and from 12.08.1997 onwards as a Junior Clerk (Collection) in the office of the Assistant Commissioner and Assistant Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Maharajganj, till his superannuation on 31.10.2015. He says that upon retirement, apart from the due arrears of salary to the tune of Rs.1,44,632/-, he was paid leave encashment worth Rs.3,00,470/- and gratuity in the sum of Rs.2,70,423/-, making an aggregate post retiral benefits of Rs.7,15,525/-. The petitioner did not receive any pension for 7 months after retirement.

5. The petitioner represented his cause to the Commissioner and Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Lucknow through registered post on 20.05.2016, but to no avail. There were repeat representations in this regard, of which mention is not necessary. Since, there was no action, the petitioner moved Writ Petition No.19156 of 2019 before this Court, in substance, claiming relief for the sanction of his retirement pension and revision of arrears of his salary, leave encashment dues, gratuity and pension in terms of his total period of service, clubbing all of it. The said writ petition was disposed of by this Court vide an order dated 16.12.2019, directing the Principal Secretary, Cooperatives, U.P., Lucknow to decide the petitioner's claim for payment of pension, after ex*Amin*ing it, in accordance with the judgment dated 28.02.2018 passed in Writ Petition No.6349 (S/S) of 2018, within a period of three months from the date of presentation of a copy of the order made in that cause. The petitioner served a copy of the judgment along with a representation dated 31.12.2019 upon the Additional Chief Secretary, Cooperatives.

6. There was again a chase by the petitioner, representing his cause before the Additional Chief Secretary, who sat over the matter. In the end of it all, by an order dated 30.06.2020, the Additional Chief Secretary rejected the petitioner's claim for the payment of pension, clubbing of all his services together for the revision of his post retiral benefits as well. There is another circular, which the Commissioner and Registrar (Cooperatives) addressed to all Assistant Commissioners and Assistant Registrars, besides all Deputy Commissioners and Deputy Registrars/ Joint Commissioner/ Joint Registrar (Cooperatives), U.P., saying that pension would be payable to Clerks, Drivers and Sahyogi, in accordance with Rule 5 and Rule 26 of the Rules of 2016, reckoning their entire period of service, if they have retired after notification of the said Rules, to wit, on 26.08.2016.

7. Aggrieved by the order dated 30.06.2020 and the circular dated 22.04.2019, the petitioner has instituted this writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution.

8. A notice of motion was issued to the respondents on 24.04.2020. A counter affidavit was filed on behalf of respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4 jointly by the Additional District Collection Officer, Maharajganj on 11.08.2021. On 18.12.2023, when the writ petition came up before this Court, it was admitted to hearing, which proceeded forthwith. Judgment was reserved.

9. Heard Mr. Kunwar Bahadur Srivastava, learned Counsel for the petitioner and Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents.

10. It is submitted by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner was appointed a Cooperative Kurk Amin in the regular pay-scale on 22.07.1983 and then continued to work on the substantive post of a Junior Clerk (Collection) since 12.08.1997 up to 31.10.2015, that is to say, for a total period of 18 years 2 months and 19 days in the regular pay-scale. He, thus, rendered a total uninterrupted service of 32 years 3 months and 9 days as a government servant on regular basis from the date of his initial appointment to his superannuation. The conditions of the petitioner's service, it is argued, are governed by the Uttar Pradesh Co-operative Collection Fund and the *Amin*s and Other Staff Service Rules, 2002 (for short, 'the Rules of 2002'). It is submitted that he is entitled to club his entire service together for the purpose of reckoning his post retiral dues, including pension.

11. It is urged that after the judgment of the Supreme Court in State of U.P. and others v. Chandra Prakash Pandey and others, (2001) 4 SCC 78 (for any further reference, this case would be referred to as 'Chandra Prakash-I'), Sections 92-A and 92-B were inserted in the Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act, 1965 (for short, 'the Act of 1965') vide U.P. Act No.8 of 2003 w.e.f. 28.02.2002. The submission is that after the said amendment, the service conditions of Amin and other staff, including Clerks and Drivers were governed by the provisions of Sections 92-A and 92-B of the Act of 1965 and Rules framed thereunder, to wit, the Rules of 2002. These Rules, however, did not define properly the cadre of service, governed by the said Rules. Taking advantage of this lacuna, the rightful claim to pensionary benefits of Clerks was denied whereas they received regular salary, gratuity and leave encashment from the same fund established under Section 92-B of the Act of 1965.

12. It is urged that despite several communications by the Registrar, Cooperative Societies to the State Government, when the Government failed to take a final decision in the matter of proposed amendment to the Rules of 2002, Civil Misc. Writ Petition No.20073 of 2010, Bhopal Singh v. State of U.P. and others, was instituted before this Court, seeking a writ of mandamus directing the State Government to take a final decision in the matter of effecting these amendments. This writ petition was disposed of in terms of an order dated 06.05.2010 with a direction to the Government to take decision within a period of three months of the date of production of a copy of the order. This was followed in the year 2012 by an action commenced by the Union of Employees of the Cooperative Collection Department. They instituted Writ Petition No.3832 of 2012, Uttar Padesh Sahkari Sangrah Karmchari Union through its President v. State of U.P. through Principal Secretary, Cooperative Department and others, which was disposed of by an order dated 11.05.2015, directing the Principal Secretary, Cooperative Department, Government of U.P., to take a decision in the matter expeditiously, preferably within a period of three months of the date of receipt of a certified copy of the order in consultation with other Departments that may be involved in the decision making process, to borrow the words of the learned Judge, who disposed of the said writ petition. This was not complied with by the respondents. Contempt Petition (Civil) No.1945 of 2015 was then instituted by the Karmchari Union, wherein after appearance of the respondents on various dates, the Rules of 2016 were framed and notified w.e.f. 26.08.2016.

13. In compliance with these various judgments of this Court and the Supreme Court, it is argued, the respondents have preferred not to amend the Rules of 2002, and, instead framed the new Rules or the Rules of 2016 for regulating the service of other staff recruited and appointed under the collection scheme of the Cooperative Department. It is, particularly, argued by Mr. Srivastava, learned Counsel for the petitioner that the impugned order is based on the reasoning that the petitioner having been appointed as a Cooperative Kurk Amin on salary basis w.e.f. 22.07.1983, a post he held upto 11.08.1997, when he was promoted to the post of a Junior Clerk (Collection), a position that he held until his retirement on 31.10.2015, his services were not governed by the Rules of 2002. He is not entitled to pension under the said Rules, which do not extend to him and are limited in their application to the Kurk Amin; not the other staff. It is pointed out further by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that the other ground to found the impugned order is a circular of the Commissioner and Registrar, Cooperative Societies, where it is opined that pensionary benefits are admissible to only those employees, who have retired after enforcement of the Rules of 2016 i.e. on or after 26.08.2016 and since the petitioner has retired on 31.10.2015, before enforcement of the Rules 2016, he is not entitled to pension.

14. It is submitted by Mr. Srivatava that indisputably pensions to various similarly situate incumbents, like Jagmal Singh, Brij Lal Shukla, Raj Kumar Shukla, have been sanctioned in accordance with the Rules of 2016, whereas the petitioner has been denied the benefit, causing him much prejudice. It is submitted that denial of pension to the petitioner is discriminatory, arbitrary and mala fide. It violates Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution. It is next submitted that like the Collection Amin, Collection Clerk is also the holder of a civil post under the State as both work under the same Collection Scheme. The State has power and right to select and appoint a Clerk and the power to suspend and dismiss him. He is a subordinate public servant working under the supervision and control of the District Assistant Registrar, Cooperative Societies. He receives regular salary from the same fund, provided under Section 92-B of the Act of 1965. There exists a relationship of master and servant between the State and the Assistant Clerk, like the petitioner. He holds office in the Revenue Administration and performs duties in connection with affairs of the State. He renders service in the Collection Scheme as provided under Rule 2(o) of the Rules of 2002. The office, that a Junior Clerk holds, if falls vacant on the death of an incumbent, is filled up by offering compassionate appointment.

15. It is urged, on the basis of all these telltale features and bearing in mind the system of Junior Clerk's recruitment, employment and functions that he is a government servant and the holder of a civil post under the State. It is next submitted that admittedly after judgment of the Supreme Court in Chandra Prakash Pandey-I, the State Government brought amendments and Sections 92-A and 92-B were inserted to the Act of 1965. Apart from the specific provisions carried in Section 92-B, there were statutory Rules of 2002, occupying the field, which in substance were clarified by the Rules of 2016, wherein Chapter VIII was added relating to provision of pensions for other staff, other than the Kurk Amin.

16. It is urged that in pursuance of various decisions, as already pointed out, the Government had framed Rules of 2002, providing for the absorption of existing staff in service. The Rules of 2002 as well as the Rules of 2016, the Amin and the other staff are entitled to pension, gratuity and post retiral benefits, to be paid out of the Sahkari Sangrah Nidhi, governed by Sections 92-A and 92-B, inserted in the Act of 1965 by amendment. The petitioner was appointed as a Cooperative Kurk Amin in the regular pay-scale w.e.f. 22.07.1983 and continued on the said post till he was promoted a Junior Clerk on 12.08.1997, where he functioned up to 31.10.2015, a period of 18 years 2 months and 19 days. He has rendered a total service of 32 years 3 months and 9 days under the respondents as a government servant, throughout on regular basis as a member of the service. He is, therefore, entitled to be governed by the Rules of 2002 for the purpose of his retirement dues and pension. The impugned circular dated 22.04.2019 is based on ambiguous reasoning and a misreading of the statutory provisions of the Rules of 2002. It is arbitrary, discriminatory and irrational. It has the effect of prejudicing the petitioner and frustrating the scheme of Section 92-B of the Act of 1965 and the Rules framed thereunder. The impugned circular, therefore, issued by the Commissioner and Registrar, Cooperatives, is manifestly illegal and fit to be quashed as the learned Counsel for the petitioner says. In the last, it is submitted by the learned Counsel that in view of the provisions carried in Rules 5(d), 5(j), 5(k) of the Rules of 2016, the petitioner's claim to pension is fit to be granted, entitling him to pension with arrears with effect from the date of superannuation.

17. Mr. Girijesh Kumar Tripathi, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel, on the other hand, submits that the petitioner is not at all entitled to pension bearing in mind the date of his retirement. He submits that the Rules of 2002 made provision for pension for *Kurk Amin*s, but not for the other staff, engaged in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme. There was no provision for payment of pension to the Clerks and Drivers. He submits that it is no doubt correct that there were efforts by the Union of these employees to enforce their right to receive pension, like *Kurk Amin*s, which led to litigation and the ultimate fr*Amin*g of the Rules of 2016, which came into w.e.f. 26.08.2016. The said Rules provide for pension to Clerks, Drivers and Sahyogi (peon). The difficulty is that the petitioner retired on 31.10.2015 and according to Mr. Tripathi, the benefit of the Rules of 2016 cannot be retrospectively extended to an employee, who has demitted office prior to enforcement of the Rules of 2016.

18. This Court has carefully considered the submissions advanced by learned Counsel on both sides and perused the record.

19. At the centre-stage of the controversy, here is the issue, if the Rules of 2002 made provision for payment of pension to Kurk Amin alone or the 'other staff', engaged in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme as well. The other issue is, if the Rules of 2016, that did provide for pension to the 'other staff' engaged in the Cooperative Collection Scheme, would enure to the benefit of those employees, like the petitioner, who retired prior to enforcement of the last mentioned Rules. There is no doubt that the Kurk Amin and the other staff engaged in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme, appointed on commission basis, let alone those regularly appointed in a pay-scale, came to be regarded as civil servants in the employ of the Government in consequence of two judgments, where the issue was settled. The first was a Bench decision of this Court at Lucknow in State of U.P. and others v. Chandra Prakash Pandey and others, (1995) 3 UPLBEC 1491 (for any further reference, this case would be referred to as 'Chandra Prakash-II'). The other decision was the one rendered by the Supreme Court on appeal by special leave from Chandra Prakash-II. This decision was Chandra Prakash-I. These decisions need not detain us for the point here is different than what was decided in the aforesaid decisions.

20. The only significance of those very seminal decisions is that Kurk Amin on commission basis and others retained regularly in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme, came to be acknowledged as government servants. The establishment of their status and the others staff employed under the Scheme led to the next issue if they were entitled to receive pensions and post retiral benefits, like other government servants. It is the latter issue, or so to speak some subtler aspects of it that are the concern of this Court here. The immediate impact of the two decisions, to wit, Chandra Prakash-II and Chandra Prakash-I, was that the Act of 1965 came to be amended by U.P. Act No.8 of 2003. Sections 92-A and 92-B came to be inserted in the Act of 1965 w.e.f. 28.02.2002, which read:

"92-A. Appointment of *Amin*s and other staff.- (1) There shall be appointed such number of *Amin*s and other staff as may be determined by the State Government from time to time, for collection of an amount due to a Co-operative Society or for execution of a process issued in the proceedings of execution of an award, order or certificate for recovery under clause (a) or clause (b) of section 92.

(2) The State Government may by rules regulate the recruitment and conditions of service of *Amin*s and other staff.

92-B. Co-operative Collection Fund.:— (1) There shall be established a fund, to be called the Cooperative Collection Fund to which the following amounts shall be credited, namely :—

(a) all costs of collection recovered on an amount due to a Cooperative Collection Society;

(b) all costs of execution recovered on an award, order or certificate for recovery under clause (a) or clause (b) of section 92;

(c) such other amounts as the State Government may direct.

(2) The fund established under sub-section (1) shall be utilized for meeting out all expenses relating to collection of dues in the manner as may be prescribed by rules to be framed by the State Government. The expenses relating to collection of dues shall also include payment of commission, salary, leave encashment at the time of retirement, if any, gratuity, other allowances, loans and advances, due interest on Provident Fund and pension to *Amin*s and other staff appointed under section 92-A."

21. Now, Sections 92-A and 92-B conferred power upon the State Government to make Rules regarding service conditions of Kurk Amin and the other staff, including Clerks and Drivers employed in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme. The Rules of 2002 came to be made by the Governor in exercise of powers under Section 130 read with Section 92-A and 92-B of the Act of 1965. As the short title of these Rules would suggest, these apply not only to the Amin, but the 'other staff' as well. The difficulty that arose was that under the Rules of 2002, both in Part VII and Part VIII, the employees, who were spoken of, were Amin and Sahyogi. There was no mention of others, like Clerks and Drivers. Part VII and Part VIII of the Rules of 2002 read:

"Part-VII

Pay, Allowances, Commission

20. Scales of Pay of Amin and Sahyogi.—(1) The scales of pay admissible to persons appointed shall be such as may be determined by the Government under these rules from time to time.

(2) Until any change under sub-rule (1) the scales of pay, payable from the Fund shall be as follows—

Sl. No.	Name of the post	Pay scale (in Rs)
1	Amin	3050-75-3950-80-4590
2	Sahyogi	2550-55-2660-60-3200

21. Allowances admissible to Amin and Sahyogi.—Dearness allowance. City compensatory allowance, H.R.A., Travelling allowances, and other allowances shall be at the rate admissible to the State Government employees and shall be paid from Fund.

22. Pay during probation.—(1) Notwithstanding any provision in Fundamental Rules to the contrary, a person on probation, if he is not already in permanent service, shall be allowed increment in the time scale after satisfactory completion of probation period.

(2) The pay during probation of a person who was already holding a post, shall be regulated by the relevant fundamental rules.

(3) The pay during probation of a person already permanent, shall be regulated by the relevant rules.

23. Target of Recovery.—Target of recovery for *Amin*s and *Amin*s on commission basis shall be fixed by Registrar from time to time.

24. Commission admissible to Amin on commission basis.—(1) The rate of commission to *Amin*s on commission basis shall be as follows—

(a) From April to July — 4%

(b) From August to March — 6%

(2) In case of recovery more than the target fixed under Rule 23 additional commission may be allowed by Registrar.

25. Records to be submitted.—For payment of salary, commission and additional commission to *Amin*s, they shall have to deposit the following records—

(a) The amount for which the citation/attachment or arrest warrant has been served by the Amin and duly certified by the Assistant Development Officer (Co-op.).

(b) The amount for which the receipt of the recovery has been issued by the Amin.

(c) The payment of the salary, commission/additional commission to the Amin shall be made only in that situation when the collection income received as described above in clause (a) and clause (b) is deposited in the Fund and the compliances of the provisions as laid down under rules have been made.

Part-VIII

Leave, Provident Fund, Gratuity

26. Leave.—The provisions of financial handbook, Vol. II, Part-2 to 4 shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of leave admissible to the *Amin*s and Sahyogi.

27. Provident Fund.—*Amin*s and Sahyogies shall be eligible for the Provident Fund as may be admissible to Group-C and Group-D Government employees and shall be maintained in the manner prescribed by Registrar.

28. Advance.—House building/ construction/repair, vehicle and other advances may be granted to *Amin*s and Sahyogies as per rules applicable to Government employees and shall be payable from the Fund.

29. Retirement Benefit.—*Amin*s and Sahyogi shall be eligible for pension, gratuity and other retirement benefits as may be admissible from time to time to the Government employees of the respective category. These retiral benefits shall be paid only from the Fund."

(emphasis by Court)

22. In particular, Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002 unequivocally laid down that Amin and Sahyogi shall be eligible for pension, gratuity and other retirement benefits, as may be admissible to government servants of corresponding categories. There is no mention about Clerks and Drivers or what may be called the 'other staff' in Rule 29. The stand, therefore, taken by the State in answer to any claim for pension, gratuity etc. by a Clerk, part of the Cooperative Collection Scheme, was that under Rule 29, it was only the Amin and the Sahyogi, who were entitled; not others. This was particularly the case in matters like the present one, where an employee started serving the Cooperative Collection Scheme as a Kurk Amin and then moved on to become a Clerk. The Clerk's post was a higher post and, therefore, there was passage of staff from Amin to the higher position of a Clerk. Nevertheless, when these more accomplished and experienced hands retired from service and demanded pension or other post retiral benefits, the claims were resisted by the State falling back upon Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002.

23. One of the important decisions, where this issue arose and answered against the State was Jagmal Singh v. State of U.P. and others, 2009 (3) AWC 2461. Jagmal Singh had started his career as a Cooperative Kurk Amin on 28.07.1975 in the pay-scale of Rs.200-320/-. Later on, on 28.02.1984, he was appointed on the post of a Cooperative Kurk Amin at the Tehsil Level in the office of the Additional District Cooperative Officer, Sadar, Muzaffar Nagar. He was placed in the pay-scale of Rs.354-550/-. Still later, the Additional Registrar (Banking) Cooperative Societies, U.P., Lucknow by an order dated 29.11.1990 directed the Deputy Registrar (Cooperatives), Meerut to appoint the petitioner a Junior Clerk. The Deputy Registrar (Cooperatives), Meerut directed the District Assistant Registrar (Cooperatives), Haridwar to appoint the petitioner on the position of a Junior Clerk in the then newly created District of Haridwar in the pay-scale of Rs.950-1500/-. As the facts gathered from the report in Jagmal Singh (supra) would show he served as a Kurk Amin without any break for 16 years and 17 days and then moved on to become a Junior Clerk (Collections) at the Tehsil Level w.e.f. 21.08.1991. He superannuated on 31.10.2006, completing a total of 31 years and 87 days of service in the regular pay-scale. The petitioner was denied pension. He was recommended for pension by the District Assistant Registrar (Cooperative Societies), Muzaffar Nagar on ground that pension was granted to Cooperative *Kurk Amin*s under the Rules of 2002. Jagmal Singh's claim was resisted on the short case that being a Junior Clerk, his services are not regulated by the Rules of 2002, which applied to an Amin and a Sahyogi, described in the report in Jagmal Singh as an Associate Amin. It was, particularly, urged that under Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002, Jagmal Singh was not entitled to pension. Repelling the contention of the State in Jagmal Singh, Sunil Ambwani, J. (as the learned Chief Justice then was) held:

"9. In State of U. P. and others v. Chandra Prakash Pandey and others, (2001) 4 SCC 78 : 2001 (2) AWC 1399 (SC), arising out of the Division Bench judgment of this Court referred to above, the Supreme Court held that the *Kurk Amin*s appointed on commission basis for recovery of outstanding dues of the Co-operative Societies were members of service and Government servants on the ground that Co-operative *Kurk Amin*s were appointed by the Collectors and were being paid out of the cost recovered according to the provisions for the recovery of land revenue, and were also given the revised pay scale. They were performing the same duties and responsibilities as *Kurk Amin*s of other department on salary basis. They enjoy and exercise the power to arrest a person, who is a defaulter; can attach his property, which he can put to auction, like his counter part on regular basis. A Kurk Amin on commission basis and on regular basis similarly follows the provisions of U. P. Z*Amin*dari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1951 and U. P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 in so far as the recovery of land revenue is concerned. Once the District Magistrate issues a recovery citation, both the sets of *Kurk Amin*s in order to execute the recovery follow the same procedure and exercise the powers and they are under the control of one and same authority. Both work in the same capacity under control of the State Government and that their appointments and duties fully comply with the tests laid down by the Supreme Court in the decision of State of Gujarat v. Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni, (1983) 2 SCC 33, in which a Constitution Bench held that the panchayat service constituted under Section 203 of the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1962 was a civil service of the State and the members of the service were Government servants. It was found that the right of appointment; the right to terminate the employment; the right to take other disciplinary action; the right to prescribe conditions of service; the nature of duties performed by the employees; the right to control the employees; manner and method of work; for issuing directions and the right to determine the source from which wages or salary are paid and a host of such circumstances, have to be considered to determine the exigency of the relationship of master and servant.

10. The issue, as to whether a Cooperative Kurk Amin is a Government servant holding a civil post, is thus, no longer res-integra. This Court and Apex Court have held that the Cooperative *Kurk Amin*s are Government servants, the petitioner, appointed as Co-operative Kurk Amin of the Collectorate on the regular pay scale on 28.7.1975; working continuously thereafter in the capacities of the Sahkari *Kurk Amin*s, and Junior Clerk, continued to serve as a Government servant throughout on regular basis from the date of his initial appointment on 28.7.1975 to the date he attained superannuation and retired at the age of 60 years as a member of service of whose service conditions are, regulated by the Rules of 2002. He is thus entitled to club his entire services together for the purposes of retirement dues and pension."

24. Jagmal Singh was appealed. Their Lordships of the Division Bench, before whom Special Appeal No.436 of 2009 came up, admitted the appeal on 30.07.2009 by the following order:

"Admit.

Mr. M.C. Chaturvedi, appearing on behalf of the appellants submits that in view of Rule 19 of U.P. Co-operative Collection Fund Regulation, 1982, the post held by the respondent, who. happens to have superannuated from the post of junior clerk, is not a pensionable post. He points out that respondent at his own request was appointed as a junior clerk.

During the pendency of the appeal, operation of the impugned order shall remain stayed Pendency of the appeal shall not stand in the way of the State Government in taking decision for grant of pension to the junior clerks."

25. The issue, that because of the provisions of Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002, the Clerks and Drivers cannot be treated at par with Amin and Sahyogi, was agitated in U.P. Sahkari Sangrah Karmchari Union through its President (supra), which was disposed of in terms of the following order:

"Heard Sri S.K. Kalia, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Sri Nirankar Singh for the petitioner and Sri Neeraj Chaurasia, learned Standing Counsel for the respondents.

The petitioner is a registered Union of Employees of Group-C & D Clerical Assistants and Driver Cadre of Cooperative Societies.

The petitioner is aggrieved by the act of the Government in not treating the Clerks, Drivers, Sahyogi (Class IV post) as Government Service as has been done in the case of Amin. Earlier a writ petition no. 6755 (S/S) of 2006, Uttar Pradesh Sahkari Sangrah Karmchari Union through President Vs. State of U.P. through Secretary Revenue and Others had been filed by the petitioner which was disposed of by this Court by order dated 21.09.2011 with a direction to the Principal Secretary, Revenue Department, U.P. Lucknow. It is stated that in pursuance of the said direction the impugned order had been passed, copy of which has been filed at page 18, Annexure-1 to the writ petition.

Sri S.K. Kalia, learned Senior Counsel submitted that inspite of the order of this Court no decision has been taken by the respondents and in fact the matter is still engaging the attention of the Government in the Cooperative Department of the Government regarding requisite amendment in the Rules. The impugned order however mentions that the competent authority who is required to take a decision in this regard is the Administrative Department and the Cooperative Department. This does not appear to be a positive categorical decision as to whether the members of the petitioner-Union as mentioned above are eligible to be treated as Government Servant or not.

In the counter affidavit in paragraph 4 all that has been stated is that the matter for fr*Amin*g the Rules in respect of the petitioner is under departmental consideration and the same is the averment in the supplementary affidavit also.

It is submitted by the learned Senior Counsel that the members of the petitioner-Union as aforementioned are working along with the Amin and Amin Sahyogi in the matter of recovery of collection dues and that they are also holders of civil posts as held by the Division Bench in the Special Appeal no. 15 (S/B) of 1994, State of U.P. and Others Vs. Chandra Prakash Pandey and Others by judgment dated 05.05.1995 which was confirmed by the Supreme Court in the case reported in (2001) 4 SCC 78, Civil Appeal No.8467-68 of 1995, State of U.P. and Others Vs. Chandra Prakash Pandey and others. Learned Senior Counsel submitted that thereafter the respondents have framed the U.P. Cooperative Clerk Funds Amin and Other Staffs Service Rules, 2002.

The submission is that the petitioners are also the holders of civil posts working in the same Department and engaged in the same job of recovery of collection dues therefore the case of the petitioners must be considered at par with the Amin and Amin Sahyogi.

No useful purpose would be served by keeping this writ petition pending.

This writ petition is therefore disposed of with the consent of the learned counsel for the parties with a direction to the respondent no.1, Principal Secretary, Cooperative Department, Government of U.P., Civil Secretariat, Lucknow to take a decision in the matter expeditiously preferably within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order in consultation of the other requisite Departments that may be involved in the decision making process."

26. When the order in U.P. Sahkari Sangrah Karmchari Union through its President remained uncomplied with, as already mentioned, contempt proceedings were launched, which ultimately led to the making and enforcement of the Rules of 2016 w.e.f. 26.08.2016. It would be noticed that the Rules of 2016 by their short title were about the 'other staff' employed in the Collection Scheme of the Cooperative Department. Rule 3 of the Rules of 2016 reads:

"3. Application of the Rules.– These Rules shall apply to the post of Clerk, Drivers and Sahyogies appointed in Collection Scheme of the Co-operative Department."

27. 'Clerk' was defined under these Rules by Rule 5(d) whereas members of service were defined under Rule 5(j) and the other staff under Rule 5(k). Rules 5(d), 5(j) and 5(k) read:

"5. Definition.–

(d) 'Clerk' means Collection Clerk who is working or appointed under these rules: Provided that the clerks appointed before the commencement of these rules shall be deemed to be appointed under these rules;

(j) 'Member of Service' means Clerk, Driver and Sahyogies substantively appointed under these rules or deemed to have substantively appointed under orders in force prior to the commencement of these rules;

(k) Other Staff means the employees of the Uttar Pradesh Cooperative Collection other than *Amin*s;"

28. Chapter VIII, Part I of the Rules of 2016 are concerned with the miscellaneous provisions and these are leave, advance and retiral benefits. Rule 26 of the Rules of 2016 govern the subject of post retirement benefits. Rule 26 reads:

"26. Retirement Benefit.– Clerks, Drivers and Sahayogies shall be eligible for pension, gratuity and other retirement benefits as may be admissible from time to time to the State Government employees of the respective category. These retiral benefits shall be paid only from the Fund. Qualifying service shall be determined on the basis of Civil Service Regulations as applicable in State of Uttar Pradesh and amended by Government from time to time."

29. On the other hand, the appeal arising out of the decision in Jagmal Singh came up before the Division Bench and their Lordships dismissed the appeal by their order dated 29.01.2019, where the short remark to part with the appeal reads:

"4. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that it is only from the date when petitioner/respondent was allowed to change his cadre but could not show any provision that earlier service rendered by petitioner/ respondent as Kurk Amin would not count as qualifying service even though it has been held to be a civil post. Even Supreme Court in Chandra Prakash Pendey and Others v. State of U.P. and Others, (2001)4 SCC 78 has held that said Kurk Amin is a civil post. He could not show why earlier services rendered by petitioner/respondent as Kurk Amin would not qualify for pension."

30. The issue, if on the terms of the Rules of 2002, Clerks were indeed entitled to receive pension, particularly under Rule 29 of those Rules was not at all ex*Amin*ed. With utmost respect to the learned Single Judge, who decided Jagmal Singh, his Lordship also did not go into the issue as to what would be the effect of Rule 29 of the Rules on the entitlement of a Clerk, employed in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme, to be paid pension.

31. In Ramsevak v. State of U.P. and others, 2019 : AHC: 136501, the issues that are involved here engaged the attention of the learned Single Judge. So far as the instant issue is concerned, the facts in Ramsevak (supra) have to be noticed from the report, which reads:

"2. Facts, that give rise to filing of the present petition are that the petitioner was initially appointed as Junior Clerk in the pay scale of Rs. 100-180 vide order dated 7.10.1970. He continued in service as such and after working for 39 years and 8 months he superannuated on 30.6.2018. Till the time petitioner continued to work and attained the age of superannuation he was not holding any post in an pensionable establishment nor any pension was paid to him. After his retirement, petitioner approached this Court by filing Writ Petition No. 26601 of 2012 with a grievance that the amount of gratuity and leave encashment has not been paid to him. The writ petition was disposed of vide following orders passed on 28.5.2012:-

"The grievance of the petitioner in the matter of payment of Gratuity and Leave Encashment needs to be ex*Amin*ed by respondent no. 4 (District Registrar, Cooperative Societies, Mainpuri), at the first instance.

Accordingly, the present writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to make a representation ventilating all his grievances before respondent no. 4, within two weeks from today, along with a certified copy of this order. On such a representation being made the respondent no. 4 shall call for the records and shall pass a reasoned speaking order preferably within eight weeks after affording opportunity of hearing to the bank concerned."

3. Consequential order was passed by the Registrar on 16.7.2012, which is not assailed. It appears that thereafter service rules have been framed under Section 92-A readwith section 130 of the U.P. Cooperative Societies Act,1965 on 26.8.2016, known as 'U.P. Cooperative Collection Amin and other Employees Rules, 2016' (hereinafter referred to as the 'Rules of 2016'). In this rule, clerk is defined in Clause-5(d) in following terms:-

"(घ) 'लिपिक' का तात्पर्य संग्रह लिपिक से है, जो इस नियमावली के अधीन कार्यरत अथवा नियुक्त हो:

प्रतिबंध यह है कि इस नियमावली के प्रारम्भ होने के पूर्व नियुक्त लिपिक इस नियमावली के अधीन नियुक्त समझे जायेगें:"

4. Relying upon the aforesaid provision the writ petitioner has prayed for a writ of mandamus of commanding the respondents to release pension to petitioner on the ground that the post of clerk from which the petitioner had retired is now made pensionable under the Rules of 2016. Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment of this Court in Jagmal Singh Vs. State of U.P. and others, reported in 2009(4) ADJ 744 and also the order passed by this Court in Service Single No. 5844 of 2019."

32. In answering the issue if Jagmal Singh held that the petitioner, a Clerk, would be entitled to pension under the Rules of 2002, his Lordship in Ramsevak distinguished Jagmal Singh from the case under consideration, in terms of the following remarks:

"7. So far as the judgment in the case of Jagmal Singh (supra) is concerned, the issue there was entirely distinct. The issue that fell for consideration before this Court was as to whether a Cooperative Kurk Amin is a government servant holding a civil post or not? Issue has been answered in paragraphs no. 8 to 10 of the judgment which is extracted here in after:-

8. The Co-operative Kurk Amins are engaged for realization of Government dues. They discharge same functions and duties as regularly appointed collection Amins in the revenue department of the State.

9. In State of U. P. and Ors. v. Chandra Prakash Pandey and Ors. MANU/SC/0180/2001 : (2001) 4 SCC 78 : 2001 (2) AWC 1399 (SC), arising out of the Division Bench judgment of this Court referred to above, the Supreme Court held that the Kurk Amins appointed on commission basis for recovery of outstanding dues of the Co-operative Societies were members of service and Government servants on the ground that Co-operative Kurk Amins were appointed by the Collectors and were being paid out of the cost recovered according to the provisions for the recovery of land revenue, and were also given the revised pay scale. They were performing the same duties and responsibilities as Kurk Amins of other department on salary basis. They enjoy and exercise the power to arrest a person, who is a defaulter; can attach his property, which he can put to auction, like his counter part on regular basis. A Kurk Amin on commission basis and on regular basis similarly follows the provisions of U. P. ZAmindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1951 and U. P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 in so far as the recovery of land revenue is concerned. Once the District Magistrate issues a recovery citation, both the sets of Kurk Amins in order to execute the recovery follow the same procedure and exercise the powers and they are under the control of one and same authority. Both work in the same capacity under control of the State Government and that their appointments and duties fully comply with the tests laid down by the Supreme Court in the decision of State of Gujarat v. Raman Lal Keshav Lal Soni MANU/SC/0346/1983 : (1983) 2 SCC 33, in which a Constitution Bench held that the panchayat service constituted under Section 203 of the Gujarat Panchayats Act, 1962 was a civil service of the State and the members of the service were Government servants. It was found that the right of appointment; the right to terminate the employment; the right to take other disciplinary action ; the right to prescribe conditions of service ; the nature of duties performed by the employees ; the right to control the employees ; manner and method of work ; for issuing directions and the right to determine the source from which wages or salary are paid and a host of such circumstances, have to be considered to determine the exigency of the relationship of master and servant.

10. The issue, as to whether a Cooperative Kurk Amin is a Government servant holding a civil post, is thus, no longer res-integra. This Court and Apex Court have held that the Cooperative Kurk Amins are Government servants, the petitioner, appointed as Co-operative Kurk Amin of the Collectorate on the regular pay scale on 28.7.1975 ; working continuously thereafter in the capacities of the Sahkari Kurk Amins, and Junior Clerk, continued to serve as a Government servant throughout on regular basis from the date of his initial appointment on 28.7.1975 to the date he attained superannuation and retired at the age of 60 years as a member of service of whose service conditions are, regulated by the Rules of 2002. He is thus entitled to club his entire services together for the purposes of retirement dues and pension.

8. Once a finding has been returned by this Court in the case of Jagmal Singh (supra) that a Cooperative Kurk Amin is a government servant and holds a civil post. The provisions applicable upon the government employees would get attracted. The petitioner, himself was appointed as a clerk and is claiming benefit under the Rules of 2016, which is a distinct claim altogether.

9. As against this, the admitted facts in the present case is that the petitioner neither claims to hold any civil post nor has claimed status of a government servant. The post held by the petitioner was otherwise not a pensionary post. It is only after the rules of 2016 have been framed that the post itself has been treated as a civil post and the employee concerned is granted benefit admissible to a government servant. Since the Rules of 2016 itself are not found to be applicable upon the petitioner no direction can be issued to the respondents to consider petitioner's claim for payment of pension."

33. Indeed, in Jagmal Singh, though a plea based on Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002 was raised and noticed by the Court, it was never decided, as already remarked. In Jagmal Singh, his Lordship went on to decide the issue about the petitioner being a government servant holding a civil post, on the foot of which, the petitioner was permitted to club his services earlier as a Kurk Amin and later as a Clerk together, entitling him to pension. There is no pronouncement in Jagmal Singh about the effect of Rule 29. To this extent, I am in respectful agreement with opinion expressed in Ramsevak that Jagmal Singh proceeds on a different issue than the one here. Rather, it is not at all an authority on the point if Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002 would entitle a Driver to pension and other retirement benefits.

34. Upon a plain reading of the provisions of Rule 29 of the Rules of 2002, it has to be held that a Clerk engaged in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme is not entitled to pension, gratuity or other post retiral benefits. It is well settled that if the provisions of a statute are unequivocal and clear, the rule of literal interpretation ought be adopted and the statute understood for what it means, giving effect to every word of it. This is how a Court ought read a statute unless it leads to some incongruous or absurd result, or presents some other difficulty in giving effect to the underlying intention or object of the legislation. This is not a case at all where the underlying intention may be required to be given effect to. This we say notwithstanding the fact that the short title of the Rules does hint that these apply to the 'other staff' as well, apart from the Amin. Nevertheless, the entire scheme of the Rules are conspicuously silent about the other staff, except Sahyogi, who find mention along with the Amin.

35. Therefore, in the considered opinion of this Court, the Rules of 2002 cannot be extended in their application, including Rule 29, to a Clerk serving in connection with the Cooperative Collection Scheme. The first question involved is decided accordingly.

36. The other question, which survives for consideration is if the petitioner is entitled to pension, gratuity and other retirement benefits under the Rules of 2016. Clearly, these Rules were enforced w.e.f. 26.08.2016. The petitioner retired from service on 31.10.2015. The Rules have not been given retrospective operation, either expressly or by necessary intendment. These Rules are substantive Rules and the well settled canon of construction is that all substantive law is deemed to be prospective, unless expressly made retrospective.

37. In the view that I take, I am fortified by the holding on the point in Ramsevak, where this was an issue that was examined. In Ramsevak, it was held:

"6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, this Court finds that the 'Rules of 2016' have come into force only on 26.8.2016. Clause-1(iv)of the Rules of 2016 clearly makes this provision prospective in nature. No provision in the Rules of 2016 has been brought to the notice of the Court which may indicate that these Rules would have retrospective effect. Clause-5(d), read with its proviso, would only make the rule applicable upon the clerks who were appointed prior to the framing of Rules of 2016 provided they are working on the date of enforcement of the Rules of 2016. These rules, therefore, would have no applicability upon the case of the petitioner who was appointed in the year 1970 and had retired in the year 2011 i.e. prior to the introduction of Rules of 2016."

38. A reading of the entire Scheme and Rules of 2016, including Rule 1(2), Rule 5 and Rule 5(d), lead to the inescapable conclusion, apart from what has been said above that these Rules have no retrospective operation. These would never apply or enure to the benefit of an employee, who has retired from service before the date of enforcement of the Rules of 2016. The other question, therefore, involved in this petition is also decided against the petitioner.

39. In this view of the matter, there is no force in this petition. It fails and is dismissed.

40. There shall be no order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 510
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE PIYUSH AGRAWAL, J.

Writ A No. 17100 of 2022

Surjeet Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Siddharth Khare

Counsel for the Respondents:
Archana Singh, C.S.C.

A. Service Law – Termination from Service – Post of Assistant Teacher – Complaint of mentioning 324 marks out of 600, though he has secured only 316 marks, was made – Petitioner added eight marks awarded to him as grace marks in Math – During selection, the petitioner was at Serial no. 1673 in merit list as he obtained 64.23% marks and even if eight grace marks are removed, the petitioner's percentage comes to 64.09 – Next selected person at Serial No. 1674 obtained 63.93 % marks – Effect – Held, the petitioner does not gain any advantage as well as in this matter, the candidate who is at Serial No. 1674 is not put to any disadvantage position because she has got 63.93 percentage – High Court quashed the impugned order and issued mandamus permitting the petitioner to discharge his services and paying him salary month to month forthwith. (Para 14, 15, 18 and 20)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Special Appeal No. 69 of 2022; Secy. Basic Edu. Board, Prayagraj & ors.(In Writ A No. 17495 of 2021) Vs Jubeda Bano decided on 08.03.2022

2. Writ Petition (Civil) No. 322 of 2021; Jyoti Yadav and Anr. Vs The St. of Uttar Pradesh & ors. decided on 08.04.2021

3. Special Appeal No. 153 of 2022; Secretary Basic Education Board & anr. Vs Pratibha Mishra & ors.

4. Special Appeal Defective No. 551 of 2021; The Basic Education Board U.P. Vs Manisha Singh and 2 Others decided on 09.08.2021

5. Sushil Kumar Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2021 (8) ADJ 210

(Delivered by Hon'ble Piyush Agrawal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Siddharth Khare, learned counsel for the petitioner and Ms. Archana Singh, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. By means of this writ petition, the following prayer has been made:-

"(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari and quash the orders dated 14.09.2022 passed by District Basic Education Officer, District Badaun (Annexure No. 15) in interest of justice.

(ii) Issue a suitable order or direction in nature of mandamus and directing to respondents to allow to petitioner for work of the post of Assistant Teacher and pay salary month to month from due date without any interruption in interest of justice according to law.

(iii) ……."

3. Brief facts of the case are that the State Government invited application for filling up 69,000/- post of Assistant Teachers in Primary Schools by publishing advertisement. In pursuance thereof, the petitioner, having requisite qualification, applied for the same. In the said application, he has specifically mentioned the obtained number in academic and training alongwith High School Marks as 324/600. Thereafter, the petitioner appeared in the written examination held on 06.01.2019 and the petitioner has been declared successful by obtaining 64.23 per cent. Further, on 04.12.2020, the appointment letter was issued to the petitioner for the post of Assistant Teacher. In pursuance thereof, petitioner joined his services on 01.02.2021 in the institution allotted to him. Thereafter, some complaint was made against the petitioner and consequent thereof, notice was issued to the petitioner to which the petitioner submitted reply specifically stating therein that in the High School Marks, against the Mathematics, grace mark was given and since the petitioner was not aware as to grace marks that the same will not be added in total score. Thereafter, on 14.09.2022, the services of the petitioner has been terminated. Hence the present petition.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has mentioned the total marks in the application including the grace marks, which is in total 324/600 and if the grace marks i.e. 8 is subtracted, then it comes to 316 out of 600. He further submits that in the selection list, the petitioner has been shown at Serial No. 1673, where the percentage of obtained marks is mentioned as 64.23. He next submits that if the grace marks is reduced, then total percentage comes to 64.093. He further submits that since the person next to the petitioner, who is at Serial No 1674 and whose marks is 63.93 per cent, therefore, the merit list as a whole will not change.

5. In support of his submission, counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon two Government Orders dated 04.12.2020 & 05.03.2021. He refers Clauses 2 & 3 of Point No.2 of G.O. dated 04.12.2020 and submits that the intent of Government is very clear that if the aspirants have filled the higher marks than the obtained marks incorrectly, which does not affect the merit list, then the selection of such candidate will not be cancelled. He further refers Clause Nos. 2 to 4 of the Government Order dated 05.03.2021 and submits that the intent of the Government is very clear where the merit list in either of the cases i.e. mentioning the lower numbers or the higher numbers, if the merit is not changed and if the same is changed, after obtaining affidavit, no future claim will be made by the candidate.

6. He next refers Clause 2 (1) of G.O. dated 05.03.2021, which also clarifies the said decision specifically satisfy that where the candidate, if without any basis has mentioned higher marks than obtained marks, the selection of such candidate may be cancelled. He submits that in the case in hand, there is a reason for mentioning higher marks awarded to the petitioner, therefore, the total sum was mentioned as 324 (including eight grace marks) instead of 316. He further submits that this fact is also not clear to the District Basic Education Officer. He further submits that in the advertisement, it was not clear that with which regard, total sum is to be mentioned that is deducting the grace marks. In support of his contention, he refers letter dated 13.07.2021 issued by District Basic Education Officer to higher authority, a copy of which has been annexed as Annexure No.7 , where the BSA has sought guidelines how to deal with the situation where the total sum has been mentioned including grace marks. Counsel for the petitioner further submits that the mistake is bona-fide as the grace marks was included in the total sum on the basis of material on record and not otherwise, which can be ignored in view of the Government Order dated 05.03.2021, therefore, the appointment of the petitioner should not be cancelled.

7. In support of his submission, he further placed reliance upon the judgment of Division Bench of this Court passed in the case of Secy. Basid Edu. Boar, Prayagraj and Others (In Writ-A No.17495 of 2021) Vs. Jubeda Bano (Special Appeal No. 69 of 2022), decided on 08.03.2022 in which the Government Orders dated 04.12.2020 and 05.03.2021 have specifically been considered holding that no grace marks shall be permitted in the OnLine application to avoid any alteration or change in the inter-se merit list of the candidates or to alter/change in the final merit list.

8. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondents submits that the Government order dated 05.03.2021 is absolutely clear, which empowers to the candidates, who has wrongly mentioned the marks OnLine, the appointment can be cancelled. She further submits that the said government order was not only considered by the Division Bench of this Court but also by the Hon'ble Apex Court. He placed reliance upon the recent judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court passed in the case of Jyoti Yadav and Anr. Vs. The State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors., [Writ Petition (Civil) No. 322 of 2021], decided on 08.04.2021 in which the candidature of the petitioner has been rejected, considering the said G.O. dated 05.03.2021 by holding that the G.O. dated 05.03.2021was designed to achieve a purpose of securing fairness while maintaining the integrity of the entire process. She further placed reliance upon the judgment of Division Bench of this Court passed in Special Appeal No. 153 of 2022 (Secretary Basic Education Board and Another Vs. Pratibha Mishra & Ors.) by submitting that the candidate got one grace mark, which was mentioned by the appellant therein, has turned down the candidature of the appellant therein.

9. She further placed reliance upon the judgment of Special Appeal Defective No. 551 of 2021 (The Basic Education Board U.P. Vs. Manisha Singh and 2 Others), decided on 09.08.2021, where the appellant was not non-suited because of mentioning wrong marks. Similarly, she has relied upon the judgment of this Court passed in the case of Sushil Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and Ors., 2021 (8) ADJ 210, where the Court has taken the view that the grace marks should not have included in the total marks, and therefore, turned down prayer made therein.

10. Counsel for the respondents summarises his submission while submitting that admittedly, the petitioner has secured only 316 marks and not 324 out of 600, therefore, by the impugned order, his appointment has rightly been cancelled.

11. Rebutting to the said submission of the counsel for the respondents, Shri Khare, submits that the judgments cited by the learned counsel for the respondents are not applicable to the facts of the case. He submits that even assuming without admitting the marks have wrongly been mentioned, but if the eight grace marks are reduced, the percentage comes to 64.093 and the candidate, who is just below the petitioner i.e. at Serial No. 1674 has obtained 63.93, therefore, the merit list of the selected candidate will not be changed, this fact has neither been argued in any of the cited judgments by counsel for the respondents nor considered. The petitioner has neither got advantages nor any other candidate was put to disadvantages position.

12. After hearing the parties, the Court has perused the records.

13. It is not in dispute that the petitioner secured 316 marks out of 600 marks and while filling the OnLine application, has mentioned 324 out of 600, by adding eight marks, which was awarded to the petitioner as grace marks in the Mathematics subject.

14. The merit list, which has been brought on record as Annexure No.2 to the present writ petition, wherein the petitioner has been shows at Serial No. 1673 and obtained 64.23. Further, the next person has been shown at Serial No. 1674 who has obtained 63.93 per cent marks. Furthermore, even if eight grace marks are removed, the petitioner's percentage comes to 64.093 and admittedly, even if said percentage i.e. 64.093 is taken to be correct.

15. The petitioner does not gain any advantage as well as in this matter, the candidate who is at Serial No. 1674 is not put to any disadvantage position because she has got 63.93 percentage. In other words, the petitioner does not gain any advantage of mentioning the grace marks and putting the candidate next to him in disadvantage position.

16. The Hon'ble Apex Court as well as Division Bench of this Court has considered the government order dated 05.03.2021 in the above-quoted judgments, in which it has categorically been affirmed that the said government order has been issued so that the process of selection of appointment will not be disturbed. The circular further provides that by any reason, if the marks has wrongly been mentioned, the candidature would be cancelled, but in the case in hand, since eight grace marks have been mentioned by the petitioner though he secured only 316 marks out of 600, and even after deducting eight grace marks, the merit list does not affect as mentioned above as the selected candidate next to the petitioner secured much less percentage i.e. 63.93; whereas after deducting eight grace marks it comes to 64.093, therefore, it can happily be said that the petitioner has not put any candidate at disadvantage position by mentioning eight grace marks along with actual marks.

17. Further, in the judgments cited by the counsel for the respondents, nowhere, it has been considered the aspect of the fact, but by reducing the grace marks, the inter-se merit list was not disturbed. Therefore, the judgments cited by the counsel for the respondents do not do any aid to her in a peculiar facts and circumstances mentioned here-in-above.

18. In view of the facts as stated above, the impugned order dated 14.09.2022 cannot sustain in the eye of law and the same is hereby quashed.

19. The writ petition is allowed, accordingly.

20. A mandamus is issued to the authority concerned to permit the petitioner to discharge his services on the post of Assistant Teacher and salary shall be paid to him month to month forthwith. A mandamus is also issued to authority concerned to give all consequential benefits to the petitioner.

(2024) 5 ILRA 514
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J.J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 17113 of 2023

Puran Kumar ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mr. Sanjeev Singh, Advocate, Mr. Pramod Kumar Srivastava, Advocate

Counsel for the Respondents:
Mr. Mahesh Chandra Chaturvedi, Additional Advocate General with Mr. Suresh Singh, Additional Chief Standing Counsel for respondents Nos. 1 and 2 Mr. Suresh C. Dwivedi, Advocate for respondents Nos. 3 and 4

A. Service Law – UP Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1999 – Rule 7 – Disciplinary proceeding – Punishment – Censure and withholding of two increment – Charges may likely to lead major punishment – No date, time and place was fixed for oral inquiry – Witnesses of establishment could not be cross-examined – Effect – Held, in any disciplinary matter involving the possible imposition of a major penalty, it is imperative for the Establishment to prove the charges by leading before the Inquiry Officer evidence, both documentary and oral – High Court set aside the impugned punishment order giving liberty to Disciplinary Authority to proceed with enquiry afresh, but with condition that he cannot impose higher punishment than that was awarded by the impugned order. (Para 18, 19 and 23)

B. Service Law – Disciplinary proceeding – Role of Inquiry Officer – The Inquiry Officer cannot identify himself with the Establishment and assume the charges to be proof of themselves – He must require the Establishment to come forth and produce evidence through a Presenting Officer, both documentary and oral, to prove the charges. It is also imperative that in cases of possible major penalty, witnesses ought to be examined. After the Presenting Officer leads evidence, introducing documents and proving them through appropriate witnesses, which, in certain cases, can be the Presenting Officer himself, the witnesses for the Establishment have to be offered for cross-examination to the chargesheeted employee. It is after the evidence of the Establishment is over that the charge-sheeted employee has to be given opportunity to lead his evidence, which, again, can be both documentary and oral. If the chargesheeted employee leads oral evidence, that is to say, produces witnesses, his witnesses can be cross-examined by the Establishment. (Para 20 and 21)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of UP & ors.Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772

2. Roop Singh Negi Vs Punj. National Bank & ors.; (2009) 2 SCC 570

3. St. of Uttaranchal & ors.Vs Kharak Singh; (2008) 8 SCC 236

4. St. of U.P. & anr. Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB)

5. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)

6. St. of U.P. Vs Aditya Prasad Srivastava & anr.; 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB) (LB)

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

This writ petition is directed against the order dated 08.08.2023 passed by the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Housing and Urban Planning, Government of U.P., Lucknow, punishing the petitioner with the withholding of two increments with cumulative effect and awarding a censure after disciplinary proceedings.

2. The facts giving rise to this writ petition are these :

The petitioner was appointed an Assistant Engineer by the respondents vide office order dated 25.08.1987 pursuant to the recommendations of a Selection Committee, along with thirteen others. He was regularised vide Office Order dated 20.11.2001, along with ten others. The State Government is the petitioner's appointing and disciplinary authority. The petitioner had worked as an Assistant Engineer in various development authorities and his services are governed by the Uttar Pradesh Development Authorities Centralised Service Rules, 19851. The eligibility for promotion from the post of Executive Engineer to Superintending Engineer is by way of 100% promotion. Thus, the cadre of Executive Engineers in the service governed by the Rules constitutes the feeding cadre for the cadre of the Superintending Engineers. The promotion to the post of a Superintending Engineer is based upon seniority subject to rejection of unfit with satisfactory service of a total period of 12 years, out of which, 5 years have to be put in on the post of an Executive Engineer. The petitioner was promoted from the post of an Assistant Engineer to that of an Executive Engineer vide Order No. 479 dated 12.05.2015 and posted as such since July, 2017 with the Agra Development Authority2. By an office order dated 16.01.2020, disciplinary proceedings were drawn against the petitioner under Rule 33 of the Rules of 1985 read with Rule 7 of the Uttar Pradesh Government Servant (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 19993, charging him prima facie of misconduct. By the aforesaid office order, the Commissioner, Agra Division, Agra was appointed the Inquiry Officer.

3. A charge-sheet dated 03.02.2020 was served by the Inquiry Officer, carrying four articles of charges and to prove the same, no witnesses were cited. Documents alone were relied upon. The petitioner submitted a reply to the charge-sheet. The reply was dated 26.12.2020. The petitioner denied the charges with details of his defence regarding all imputations carried in the charges. It was a detailed defence.

4. In his reply, the petitioner has segregated Charge No. 1 into Charges Nos. 1A to 1D for the sake of convenience and urged that he is not responsible, even remotely, for any dereliction and indifference towards his duty. It was emphasized that he is the supervising authority and for the work allegedly not completed, the responsibility rests, in the first instance, with subordinates like the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer, who had not even been called upon to explain. The petitioner also pleaded in denial of Charges Nos. 2 and 3, that were again segregated into Charges Nos. 2A to 2D to 3A to 3D for felicity of defence.

5. In paragraph No. 14 of the writ petition, it is averred that no date, time and place was fixed for holding the inquiry by the Commissioner and in between, several incumbents changed in the Office of the Commissioner. This led to an interruption of the inquiry. It is also averred that no witness on behalf of the respondents was examined in support of the charges, nor was the petitioner called upon to examine himself in defence. The inquiry concluded, as it is alleged, in violation of the Rules of 1999 and the Inquiry Report dated 12.04.2021 was submitted by the Inquiry Officer to the State Government, who, on its basis, issued a show-cause notice dated 07.10.2021, requiring the petitioner to submit his reply. The Inquiry Officer found Charges Nos. 1 and 4 not proved whereas Charge No. 2 was found proved. Charge No. 3 was found partly proved. The petitioner submitted his reply dated 03.11.2021 to the State Government, which consisted of, again, substantial comments, running into 12 pages, together with 32 annexures.

6. It is averred in paragraph No. 17 that in his reply to the show-cause or the second show-cause, as it is called, the petitioner raised a plea that no oral inquiry was held in the sense that no witness was examined by the Establishment whom the petitioner could cross-examine before the Inquiry Officer. The Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Housing and Urban Planning, Government of U.P., Lucknow, who acted for the State Government under the Rules of Business, taking cognizance of the petitioner's plea that no oral inquiry was held, issued a memo dated 31.12.2021 to the petitioner, asking him to appear in the Secretary's office on 06.01.2022 at 04:00 p.m. for personal/oral hearing.

7. It is averred in paragraph No. 19 that being satisfied that no personal hearing and oral inquiry was held by the Commissioner, and in its absence, the inquiry report dated 12.04.2021 was bad, the first respondent issued a letter to the Vice Chairman of the Development Authority, directing that the principles of natural justice ought to be followed and the petitioner allowed to cross-examine the Assistant Engineer as well as the Junior Engineer by getting their statements recorded, after which, the inquiry report be submitted by the Vice Chairman to the Secretary. The petitioner asserts that the Commissioner was not directed to undertake a fresh inquiry, who had held the inquiry earlier, but now, it was entrusted to the Vice Chancellor, pointing out the deficiency in the earlier proceedings.

8. It is the petitioner's case at this stage that there being a procedural lapse in the inquiry, the State Government ought not to have switched Inquiry Officers midway and entrusted it to the Vice Chairman for the Commissioner. In compliance with the order of the Secretary, the Vice Chairman held an inquiry into the matter again and after recording the statement of the two junior officers i.e. the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer, submitted his report dated 18.02.2022, exonerating the petitioner of Charges nos. 2 and 3 as well, of which he was earlier found guilty and partly guilty. The Charges Nos. 1 and 4, as it appears, of which he was exonerated, no finding was recorded, treating the earlier report to be subsisting and valid. After submission of the report by the Vice Chairman, no order upon the same was passed. Rather, on the basis of the findings in the inquiry report dated 18.02.2022, explanations were sought from the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer vide memos dated 27.12.2022. The petitioner, apprehending foul play, as his promotion was due to the post of Superintending Engineer, where the DPC was to be held shortly, and there were only two sanctioned posts in the entire cadre of centralized services, raised a grievance in the matter, saying that he would be deprived of his consideration for the post of Superintending Engineer.

9. The Additional Chief Secretary, by the order dated 08.08.2023, proceeded to award the petitioner the major penalty of stoppage of his annual increments, besides the award of a censure. It is the petitioner's case that the impugned order takes note of the show-cause notice dated 07.10.2021 issued to the petitioner along with the inquiry report dated 12.04.2021, to which the petitioner had submitted a show-cause on 03.11.2021 as also the fact that he was afforded a personal hearing on 06.01.2022, but ignored the later development of the direction dated 09.02.2022 to hold a re-inquiry addressed to the Vice-Chairman of the Development Authority and a further inquiry report dated 18.02.2022, which exonerated the petitioner of all charges. No cognizance of this report has at all been taken. The petitioner pleads that the Additional Chief Secretary has erred in ignoring the relevant inquiry report, which was called by himself on the petitioner's plea that the earlier inquiry report's findings where he was found guilty of one charge and partly on the other, was one in violation of the principles of natural justice, which required a re-inquiry to be held. It is also pleaded that this is not a case where the Disciplinary Authority disagreed with the findings of the Inquiry Officer recorded in the later report dated 18.02.2022 submitted by the Chairman of the Development Authority. It is pleaded that if it were so, he would have caused a notice to be served framing issues of disagreement, and after hearing the petitioner, passed appropriate orders.

10. Aggrieved by the impugned order dated 08.08.2023, the instant writ petition has been instituted by the petitioner.

11. A notice of motion was issued on 11.10.2023. A counter affidavit was filed on behalf of respondent No. 1 on 29.11.2023, to which, the petitioner has filed a rejoinder. Another counter affidavit dated 17.10.2023 has been filed on behalf of respondentd Nos. 3 and 4 jointly, and still another, on behalf of respondent No. 2, the Divisional Commissioner. The parties having exchanged affidavits, when the matter came up on 14.12.2023, it was admitted to hearing, which proceeded forthwith to conclusion. Judgment was reserved.

12. Heard Mr. Sanjeev Singh and Mr. Pramod Kumar Srivastava, learned Counsel for the petitioner in support of this petition, Mr. Mahesh Chandra Chaturvedi, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Mr. Suresh Singh, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of respondents Nos. 1 and 2, and Mr. Suresh C. Dwivedi, learned Counsel appearing on behalf of respondents Nos. 3 and 4, the Vice Chairman and the Secretary of the Development Authority.

13. We have carefully considered the submissions advanced by learned Counsel for the parties.

14. At the hearing, much was made of the issue by Mr. Sanjeev Singh, learned Counsel for the petitioner that the two inquiry reports, the one dated 12.04.2021 submitted by the Commissioner of the Division to the Additional Chief Secretary, and the other dated 18.02.2022 submitted by the Vice Chairman upon the direction of the State Government to record the statements of the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer by the Vice Chairman of the Development Authority, when read together, exonerate the petitioner of all the four charges and, therefore, the Additional Chief Secretary, acting on behalf of the Government, could not punish the petitioner without recording reasons of disagreement with the two inquiry reports and putting the petitioner to notice. We do not think that this is a matter where both the inquiry reports ought to be acted upon. In fact, the Additional Chief Secretary has taken cognizance of the inquiry report dated 12.04.2021 submitted by the Commissioner of the Division, who was initially appointed the Inquiry Officer, and not the later one submitted by the Chairman of the Development Authority dated 18.02.2022, in compliance with the Secretary's direction dated 09.02.2022 to record the statement of the Assistant Engineer and the Executive Engineer.

15. We think that the direction of the Additional Chief Secretary carried in his memo dated 09.02.2022 addressed to the Vice Chairman of the Development Authority, upon the petitioner's answer to the show-cause notice issued to him along with a copy of the inquiry report submitted by the Inquiry Officer, the Commissioner of the Division is entirely ill-founded. It is ill-founded for two reasons. One, that if any further inquiry had to be directed, because of a fundamental flaw in procedure, the matter had to be sent back to the Commissioner, who was already the appointed Inquiry Officer and had submitted a report in the matter, on which the show-cause was issued; and the other is that the directions given to remove the anomaly by the Additional Chief Secretary to the Vice Chairman, even if these were given to the Commissioner, are entirely inappropriate. The material part of the order dated 09.02.2022 passed by the State Government, that is to say, the Additional Chief Secretary and notified on his behalf by the Deputy Secretary, reads in its material part as follows :

2- इस सम्बन्ध में श्री पूरन कुमार, अधिशासी अभियंता (वि०यॉ०), आगरा विकास प्राधिकरण, आगरा के पत्र दिनांक 06.01.2022 की छायाप्रति संलग्न कर प्रेषित करते हुए 2- मुझे यह कहने का निदेश हुआ है कि कृपया नैसर्गिक न्याय के दृष्टिगत निम्नवत सूचना शीर्ष प्राथमिकता के आधार पर शासन को उपलब्ध करान्याय व दृष्टिगत निम्नवत सूचना कष्ट करें :-

(1) प्रकरण अपचारी अभियन्ता जिन अवर अभियन्ता, सहायक अभियन्ता आदि का बयान दर्ज कराना चाहता है, उनका बयान उक्त पत्र दिनांक 06.01.2022 में किये गये अनुरोधानुसार दर्ज कराकर उपलब्ध करायें।

(2) प्रकरण में अवर अभियन्ता व सहायक अभियन्ता का उत्तरदायित्व निर्धारित, किये 2 बिना सीधे अधिशासी अभियन्ता (2) को आरोपित करने के संबंध में उक्त पत्र दिनांक 06.01.2022 में अपचारी अभियन्ता द्वारा की गयी आपत्ति के दृष्टिगत स्थिति स्पष्ट कर उपलब्ध करायें।

16. Clearly, as already observed, the inquiry in this case had been concluded by the Commissioner of the Division acting as the Inquiry Officer appointed by the State Government. If the Additional Chief Secretary thought that statement of the Assistant Engineer or the Junior Engineer was required to be recorded during this inquiry, the jurisdiction would be that of the Inquiry Officer, who was the Divisional Commissioner, and not the Chairman of the Development Authority. The other direction in the order dated 09.02.2022 was that the Development Authority may clarify how in the absence of the Junior Engineer and the Assistant Engineer's responsibility being fixed, the Executive Engineer could be charged, as objected to by the Executive Engineer, the charge-sheeted employee, vide his memo dated 06.01.2022. Now, this was not a matter to be clarified, at the stage where proceedings stood, by the Chairman of the Development Authority. The Commissioner of the Division had already submitted his inquiry report and the State Government was the Disciplinary Authority. The Additional Chief Secretary was acting on behalf of the State Government to decide the disciplinary matter. If he thought, on the basis of the inquiry report submitted, that proceedings against the petitioner could not be taken without charging the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer along with the Executive Engineer (the petitioner) or it was the Junior Engineer and the Assistant Engineer alone, who were to be charged, he could have issued appropriate orders, directing a fresh charge-sheet to be issued to the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer as well, and the matter ordered to be determined afresh by the Inquiry Officer against the petitioner as well as the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer, or else, the Additional Chief Secretary could have held that the petitioner was not liable to be proceeded with against, exonerated him and ordered the Junior Engineer and the Assistant Engineer to be suitably charge-sheeted and proceeded with.

17. The direction issued by the Additional Chief Secretary to the Chairman of the Development Authority to record the statements of the Assistant Engineer and the Junior Engineer was a course of action that is utterly illegal. The Chairman of the Development Authority was not the Inquiry Officer and he could not, in the circumstances, have just recorded the statements of the two officers and and sent in his own report to the State Government. It is for this reason perhaps that the Additional Chief Secretary has not looked into or taken cognizance of the Vice Chairman's report dated 18.02.2022, exonerating the petitioner of Charges Nos. 3 and 4. This does not do any credit to the Additional Chief Secretary, because it is he who is responsible for causing this anomalous report by the Vice Chairman to figure on the records.

18. So far as the validity of the impugned order passed by the State Government against the petitioner is concerned, we do not think that it can be sustained. The reason is that in answer to the assertion in paragraph No. 14 of the writ petition that no date, time and place was fixed for oral inquiry by the Commissioner and also that the petitioner could not cross-examine any witness of the Establishment, despite his request, apparently because none was produced by the Establishment, all that is said in paragraph No. 16 of the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the Commissioner is as follows :

16. That the averments contained in Paragraph No. 14 of the Writ Petition are misconceived and misleading. In reply thereto, it is submitted that personal/oral hearing of the Petitioner was held on 06.01.2022 before the Chief Secretary, Avas Evam Vikas Shakhri Niyojan Department, Lucknow.

19. One is left to wonder what a personal hearing of the petitioner before the Additional Chief Secretary has to do with the obligation of the Establishment to produce witnesses and lead other evidence before the Inquiry Officer to prove the charges. It is too well settled for a salutary principle, which is also the mandate of Rule 7 of the Rules of 1999, that in any disciplinary matter involving the possible imposition of a major penalty, it is imperative for the Establishment to prove the charges by leading before the Inquiry Officer evidence, both documentary and oral. Hearing the petitioner personally, either by the Inquiry Officer or by the Disciplinary Authority, would not, at all, satisfy the fundamental requirements of a fair of procedure, where the Establishment have to prove charges, starting from scratch, before the Inquiry Officer, by leading evidence, both documentary and oral, that is to say, by examining witnesses.

20. A perusal of the inquiry report dated 12.04.2021 submitted by the Commissioner, Agra Division, Agra shows that the Officer has thrown the procedure to hold a major penalty to the winds, or he does not understand the elementaries about it. He has held the charges proved in a disciplinary matter involving the possible imposition of a major penalty by going through the charge-sheet and the petitioner's reply and papers annexed to the charge-sheet and reply to it. He has never convened himself as an Inquiry Tribunal, which must be done by virtue of Rule 7 of the Rules of 1999 and also by salutary principles to hold such an inquiry. The mandate of Rule 7 as well as the requirement of salutary procedure in all matters involving the possible imposition of a major penalty is that the Inquiry Officer must distance himself from the Establishment and sit as an impartial arbiter. He must assume the charges to be not at all proved to begin with, and just no more than a set of allegations. He must require the Establishment to come forth and produce evidence through a Presenting Officer, both documentary and oral, to prove the charges. It is also imperative that in cases of possible major penalty, witnesses ought to be examined. After the Presenting Officer leads evidence, introducing documents and proving them through appropriate witnesses, which, in certain cases, can be the Presenting Officer himself, the witnesses for the Establishment have to be offered for cross-examination to the charge-sheeted employee. It is after the evidence of the Establishment is over that the charge-sheeted employee has to be given opportunity to lead his evidence, which, again, can be both documentary and oral. If the charge-sheeted employee leads oral evidence, that is to say, produces witnesses, his witnesses can be cross-examined by the Establishment. These propositions are well settled by a catena of decisions by the Supreme Court and this Court, a reference to some of which may suffice. In this connection, reference may be made to the holding of the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha4, Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank and others5, State of Uttaranchal and others v. Kharak Singh6 and the Bench decisions of this Court in State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another7, Smt. Karuna Jaiswal v. State of U.P.8 and State of U.P. v. Aditya Prasad Srivastava and another9.

21. Now, the inquiry report, that has been submitted in this case by the Commissioner is based upon, as already remarked, the Inquiry Officer gleaning through idle papers annexed to the charge-sheet and the petitioner's reply. The papers annexed to the charge-sheet and the petitioner's reply could not have been regarded as evidence. These would turn into evidence once they were properly introduced by a Presenting Officer before the Inquiry Officer and proved by witnesses or otherwise, indicating their relevance to each charge. The Inquiry Officer cannot identify himself with the Establishment and assume the charges to be proof of themselves. This is one trap that every Administrative Officer holding a departmental inquiry, at whatever position or rank he might be, invariably falls into.

22. We are constrained to say that after a string of decisions that we have noticed hereinabove, the repeat lapse by Administrative Officers serving as Inquiry Officers in major penalty matters, writing inquiry reports in breach of Rule 7 of the Rules of 1999, and otherwise also, the salutary principle regarding proof of the charges by the Establishment in a formal inquiry, producing both documentary evidence and witnesses, ought not to happen. The Additional Chief Secretary, in passing the order of punishment, has committed the same mistake as the Commissioner, apparently because both officers seem to think small of the law. Both the Commissioner and the Additional Chief Secretary must understand that once we have laid down the law, about how a particular matter is to be dealt with and the same also has imprimatur of the Supreme Court, it has to be followed and there cannot be any breach. If this breach is not remedied for the future by a suitable understanding and adherence to the law that we have declared, the immense wastage of public resource in consequence of the result of inquiries being nullified for a flawed procedure will have to be remedied by imposition of exemplary costs recoverable from the Inquiry Officers and Disciplinary Authorities; not the public exchequer.

23. In the result, this petition succeeds and stands allowed. The impugned order dated 08.08.2023 passed by the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Housing and Urban Planning, Government of U.P., Lucknow is hereby quashed. The Disciplinary Authority will be at liberty to proceed with the inquiry afresh from the stage of the charge-sheet, if he so elects, bearing in mind the remarks of this Court and guidance in this judgment. In case, the Disciplinary Authority elects to pursue fresh proceedings, he will not impose a punishment higher than that awarded by the order impugned and since quashed by this judgment.

24. There shall be no order is to costs.

25. The Registrar (Compliance) is directed to communicate a copy of this order to the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Housing and Urban Planning, Government of U.P., Lucknow. In addition, a copy of this order shall also be communicated to Nitin Ramesh Gokarn, the Additional Chief Secretary, Department of Housing and Urban Planning, Government of U.P., Lucknow, wherever he might be posted, if he is not holding charge in that department, and Amit Gupta, the then Commissioner, Agra Division, Agra, wherever he might be posted, by the Registrar (Compliance) through the Additional Chief Secretary (Personnel), Government of U.P., Lucknow and a report regarding service shall be submitted by the Additional Chief Secretary (Personnel), Government of U.P., Lucknow to the learned Registrar General of this Court, which shall be placed on record.

(2024) 5 ILRA 522
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE J. J. MUNIR, J.

Writ A No. 18084 of 2022

Dhirendra Kumar Chaudhary ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Kapil Dev Singh Rathore, Vikram Dev Singh Rathore

Counsel for the Respondents:
Abhishek Srivastava, C.S.C., Devesh Vikram

A. Service Law – Dismissal from Service – Post of Peon – Disciplinary proceeding – Charges may likely to lead imposition of a major penalty – Burden of proof, on whom lie – Held, it is the burden of the Establishment to prove the charge/charges by leading evidence in the first instance, both documentary and oral, before an Inquiry formally convened through a Presenting Officer. (Para 28)

B. Service law – Disciplinary proceeding – Principle of natural justice – Applicability – Evidence considered by the inquiry officer were not put to the petitioner's notice – Effect – Held, all the technical evidence, that the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiry Committee took into consideration, was not brought to the petitioner's notice with opportunity to him to rebut the same. In the absence of all this being done the findings of the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority are utterly vitiated for violation of principles of natural justice that have led to demonstrable prejudice to the petitioner. The result would be that all proceedings, beyond the chargesheet, stand vitiated. (Para 34 and 36)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of U.P. & ors.Vs Saroj Kumar Sinha; (2010) 2 SCC 772

2. Roop Singh Negi Vs Punj. National Bank & ors.; (2009) 2 SCC 570

3. St. of Uttaranchal & ors.Vs Kharak Singh; (2008) 8 SCC 236

4. St. of UP & anr. Vs Kishori Lal & anr.; 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB)

5. Smt. Karuna Jaiswal Vs St. of U.P.; 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB)

6. St. of UP Vs Aditya Prasad Srivastava & anr.; 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB) (LB).

(Delivered by Hon'ble J.J. Munir, J.)

1. This writ petition is directed against an order of the Chairman, Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow (for short, 'the Corporation') dated 23.07.2021, dismissing the petitioner from service, besides directing recovery, and the appellate order of the Corporation Board dated 18.02.2022, dismissing the petitioner's appeal arising out of the order passed by the Chairman aforesaid.

2. The petitioner was appointed a Peon with the erstwhile Uttar Pradesh State Electricity Board on 11.04.1997. Subsequently, upon establishment of the Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited and its subsidiary Distribution Companies, including the Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, the Uttar Pradesh State Electricity Board was dissolved. The petitioner and other employees of the Board were transferred to the Corporation. The petitioner was posted with Purvanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited, Varanasi (hereinafter, referred to as the Distribution Corporation). The Corporation, considering the petitioner's unblemished service record, granted him promotion to the post of an Office Attendant. He was serving on the said post until the date of the impugned order.

3. In the year 2017, a Human Rights Organization, called Teesri Ankh through its founder, one Shailendra Kumar Mishra, laid complaints to the Distribution Corporation regarding incorrect revision/correction of electricity bills of consumers. Upon receipt of the said complaint, the Director (P&A) of the Corporation, vide order dated 21.05.2017, constituted a three member Inquiry Committee to hold a preliminary inquiry into the veracity of the allegations. The three member Committee probed the matter and submitted reports dated 17.11.2017 and 01.06.2018 to the Director (P&A), last mentioned. Upon receipt of the reports, the Director (P&A), vide a letter dated 17.09.2018, transferred the matter to himself for the purpose of instituting disciplinary proceedings against the officer and employees, including the petitioner, as indicated in the letter. Subsequently, a charge-sheet dated 22.04.2019 was issued to the petitioner by a two member Inquiry Committee comprising the Chief Engineer and the Accountant of the Corporation.

4. A perusal of the charge-sheet shows that though it carries a solitary charge but, in fact, it relates to seventy different consumers about whom there were allegations regarding irregular proceedings to rectify their electricity bills and electricity disconnections, without following the guidelines of the Corporation as well as ignoring the provisions of the Electricity Supply Code, 2005 in order to give undue benefit to the consumers, causing wrongful loss to the Corporation and wrongful gain to himself. The evidence cited in support of the charge are sixteen complaints by Shailendra Kumar Mishra, founder General Secretary of Teesri Ankh, the Human Rights Organization, Gorakhpur and a letter of the Director of the Distribution Corporation dated 17.09.2018. In answer to the charge-sheet dated 22.04.2019, issued to the petitioner, he submitted a reply dated 19.06.2019.

5. It is the petitioner's case that no formal notice regarding fixation of a date for inquiry was given to the petitioner but the petitioner was informally informed by the Executive Engineer, Electricity Distribution Division of the Distribution Corporation about the date of hearing. The petitioner appeared before the Inquiry Committee which recorded the petitioner's statement. It is, particularly, pleaded in paragraph no. 18 of the writ petition that the Inquiry Committee did not inform the petitioner about any other proceedings nor the date was fixed by the Inquiry Committee, except the last mentioned date, where the statement of the petitioner alone was recorded.

6. It is averred in paragraph no. 19 that except recording the petitioner's statement, no evidence whatsoever was led before the Inquiry Committee by anybody. In paragraph no. 22 it was averred that the testimony of Shailendra Kumar Mishra, Naveen Kumar Srivastava and S.P. Varshney was never recorded by the Inquiry Committee during the inquiry. Further, the Inquiry Committee did not give opportunity to cross-examine witnesses. The Inquiry Committee submitted their report to the Corporation. It is averred by the petitioner in paragraph no. 23 that the Corporation, by their order dated 27.07.2020, remitted the matter to the Inquiry Committee.

7. It is the petitioner's case in paragraph no. 24 that after the earlier report by the Inquiry Committee was remitted for consideration by the Corporation by their order of 27.07.2020, no further inquiry was held by the two member Committee. The Inquiry Committee submitted a fresh report dated 05.09.2020.

8. In the inquiry report, that was submitted, as already noticed, in the garb of a solitary charge, there are seventy distinct charges relating to seventy different consumers. The Inquiry Committee, therefore, in their conclusion gave a finding differently in relation to the different consumers mentioned at serial no. 1 to 70 of the charge. The findings of the Inquiry Committee read:

क०सं०	बिल संशोधन की स्थिति	आरोप संख्या-01
1.	बिल संशोधन निमानुसार है।	कम सं0-07, 08 09, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 23, 25, 26, 27, 29, 32, 33, 34, 35, 37, 38, 42, 49, 51, 53, 54, 55, 58, 60, 61, 63, 67, 69 एवं 70
2.	बिल संशोधन त्रुटिपूर्ण है।	कम सं0-02 04 05, 06, 10, 22, 24, 28, 30, 31, 36, 39, 40, 41, 43, 44, 50, 52, 59 एवं 66
3.	बिल संशोधन में आंशिक त्रुटि दर्शित है।	कॅम सं0-17 एवं 68
4.	आरोपित सेवक से संबंधित नहीं है।	कम सं0-01, 03, 11, 45, 46, 47, 48, 56, 57, 62, 64 एवं 65

संदर्भित प्रकरण में कुल 70 बिल संशोधन / पी०डी० प्रकरणों की जाँच की गयी जिसमें से 12 नग प्रकरण (उपरोक्त तालिका में अंकित) आरोपित सेवक से संबंधित नहीं पाये गये, शेष 58 नग प्रकरणों में से 36 प्रकरणों में बिल संशोधन नियमतः पाया गया तथा कोई भी त्रुटि दर्शित नहीं है। शेष 22 बिल संशोधनों के प्रकरणों में त्रुटि/आंशिक त्रुटि दर्शित है। उक्त 22 प्रकरणों में से 3 नग प्रकरणों (कम सं० 5, 39 एवं 40) में कॉरपोरेशन को पहुँचाई गयी वित्तीय क्षति की धनराशि रू0 61,967.00 आगणित होती है तथा शेष 19 नग प्रकरणों में संदर्भित कम संख्या पर अंकित कारणों के दृष्टिगत वित्तीय क्षति की गणना किया जाना संभव नहीं है।

कॉरपोरेशन के आदेश स0-87-प्र०सु०-०1/पाकाली/2002-20-प्र०सं०/2000 दिनांक 25.02.2000 के अनुसार विद्युत बीजकों में संशोधन किये जाने हेतु संबधित बिल क्लर्क का प्राथमिक उत्तरदायित्व, सहायक अभियन्ता(रा०) एवं लेखाकार(रा०) का पर्यवेक्षणीय उत्तरदायित्व तथा अधिशासी अभियन्ता का प्रशासकीय उत्तरदायित्व निर्धारित है। अतः कॉरपोरेशन को पहुँचाई गयी उपरोक्त वित्तीय क्षति हेतु संबंधित बिल लिपिक, सहायक अभियन्ता(रा०), लेखाकार(रा०) तथा अधिशासी अभियन्ता (आरोपित सेवक) उत्तरदायी है।

साथ ही यह भी अवगत कराना है कि प्रश्नगत बिल संशोधन/स्थायी विच्छेदन के अधिकांश प्रकरणों को तत्कालीन सहायक अभियन्ता(रा०) द्वारा भी हस्ताक्षरित किया गया है। किन्तु संदर्भित सहायक अभियन्ता (राजस्व) के विरुद्ध अनुशासनिक कार्यवाही का प्रकरण जाँच समिति को संदर्भित नहीं किया गया है।

9. It is averred in paragraph no. 25 of the writ petition that, from 27.07.2020 to 04.09.2020, no inquiry whatsoever was conducted by the two member Committee nor the petitioner associated with the proceedings in any manner. The Inquiry Committee, without conducting any further inquiry, submitted their report dated 05.09.2020.

10. After receipt of the inquiry report dated 05.09.2020 on the 11th of December, 2020, the Director (P&A) of the Corporation issued directions to the Chief Engineer (Distribution) of the Distribution Corporation, Gorakhpur Region, Gorakhpur to constitute a two member Committee to conduct an inquiry with regard to the revision of bills of twenty three consumers.

11. In compliance with the said order dated 11.12.2020, the Chief Engineer constituted a two member Inquiry Committee, comprising one A.K. Singh, Superintending Engineer, Electricity Works Division, Gorakhpur and Manoj Kumar Verma, Deputy Chief Accounts Officer, Gorakhpur to conduct an inquiry into revision of the specified bills of consumers. This two member Committee submitted a report, along with a letter dated 25.01.2021, issued by the Superintending Engineer. The aforesaid report was forwarded by the Chief Engineer (Distribution) of the Distribution Corporation to the Director (P&A) of the Corporation vide letter dated 27.01.2021.

12. Still later, the Director (P&A) sought a further report from the I.T. Cell of the Corporation and did receive a report from them. The Chairman of the Corporation, vide letter dated 31.03.2021, enclosing a copy of the inquiry report dated 05.09.2020, submitted by the two member Committee, and, also a copy of the incorrect/partially incorrect electricity bills together with a calculation sheet computing the financial loss, required the petitioner to show cause. This was the second show cause. In response to the second show cause, the petitioner submitted his objections of June, 2021.

13. On 23.07.2021, the Chairman of the Corporation passed the impugned order dismissing the petitioner from service and further imposing upon him the penalty of recovery of a sum of Rs. 3,88,584/-. The petitioner preferred an appeal dated 27.09.2021 to the Board of Directors through the Chairman of the Corporation. It is the petitioner's case that he submitted a voluminous 350 pages of documents in support of this appeal but that may not be very relevant to the point on which the decision of this matter turns. The Board of Directors, by their order dated 18.02.2022, rejected the petitioner's appeal and affirmed the punishment awarded by the Chairman of the Corporation.

14. Aggrieved by the order dated 23.07.2021, passed by the Chairman of the Corporation and the appellate order made by the Board of Directors dated 18.02.2022, this writ petition has been preferred by the petitioner under Article 226 of the Constitution.

15. A counter affidavit was filed on behalf of the Corporation. When the matter come up for admission on 08.12.2023, the parties having exchanged affidavits, it was admitted to hearing which proceeded forthwith. Judgment was reserved.

16. Heard Mr. Kapil Dev Singh Rathore, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Abhishek Srivastava, learned Counsel appearing for respondent nos. 2, 3 and 4, the contesting respondents and Ms. Monika Arya, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for respondent no. 1.

17. It is argued by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that on the strength of the averments in paragraph no. 43 of the writ petition that during the inquiry at no point of time, any evidence was led on behalf of the Establishment, documentary or oral, to establish the charges. No witness was examined by the Establishment to prove the charges or the documents sought to be relied upon.

18. A perusal of the charge-sheet shows that the documents relied upon are sixteen complaints by Shailendra Kumar Mishra and a letter from the Director (P&A) dated 17.09.2018. Neither of these documents have been substantiated in evidence against the petitioner nor an effort made to prove these documents by examining the authors. It is urged that at least the complainant, who has submitted the sixteen complaints, ought to have been examined as a witness at the inquiry.

19. It is further submitted that, besides the sixteen complaints and the letter of the Director (P&A), no other document was relied upon by the respondents or produced during the inquiry. It is specifically pointed out by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, with reference to paragraph no. 46 of the writ petition, that neither Shailendra Kumar Mishra nor the three members of the Committee, doing the preliminary inquiry, were examined as witnesses before the Inquiry Committee.

20. It is emphasized that the inquiry report, submitted by the two member Committee, was initially submitted and discarded by the Disciplinary Authority vide order dated 27.07.2020 and the matter remitted for further inquiry. After the matter was remitted on 27.07.2020 the inquiry, that was conducted between 27.07.2020 and 31.08.2020, leading to the inquiry report dated 05.09.2020, did not at all associate the petitioner with it. It is argued that no inquiry, whatsoever, was held between 27.07.2020 and 04.09.2020 by the Inquiry Committee.

21. The learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that the Disciplinary Authority, if it thought fit to discard the inquiry report originally submitted, ought to have intimated the petitioner of the matter, and, more than that, the Inquiry Committee, upon resuming the inquiry, after the matter was remitted, should have intimated the petitioner about the further inquiry that was being undertaken where the petitioner should have been called and the Establishment required to prove the charges in his presence by leading evidence, both documentary and oral. This was not at all done.

22. A serious exception is also taken to the course of action where, after receipt of the inquiry report dated 05.09.2020, a fresh inquiry report was invited in regard to twenty three cases of objectionable billing, according to the respondents' case.

23. It is also urged that there was absolutely no reason after two inquiry reports had been received, to call for a report from the I.T. Cell of which there is no copy available to the petitioner. Whatever the I.T. Cell inquired, the petitioner was never associated with it.

24. It is emphasized further that the two member Committee subsequently asked to look into the twenty three cases and the I.T. Cell never associated the petitioner though both put in their reports to the Disciplinary Authority, on the foot of which the impugned order has been passed.

25. In the counter affidavit, there is an omnibus and a vague denial of the averments very specifically taken in the writ petition.

26. Mr. Abhishek Srivastava, learned Counsel for the Corporation, points out that the petitioner was given full opportunity of personal hearing before the Inquiry Committee on 12.09.2019. The petitioner had also taken ten days' time to file his supplementary reply. He never showed interest to examine/cross-examine witnesses, leading to the inquiry proceedings being completed.

27. It is also urged by Mr. Srivastava that the petitioner did not dispute the documents supplied to him or their genuineness and cannot, therefore, say that no witness was examined to prove the same. The entire procedure, for holding a disciplinary inquiry, was punctiliously followed as the learned Counsel for the Corporation would submit.

28. This Court, upon consideration of the parties' case, is of opinion that the respondents' stand cannot be accepted for more than one reason. The foremost requirement of a valid inquiry in any disciplinary proceedings likely to lead to the imposition of a major penalty is the salutary principle that it is the burden of the Establishment to prove the charge/charges by leading evidence in the first instance, both documentary and oral, before an Inquiry formally convened through a Presenting Officer.

29. It is also imperative that as part of the evidence, witnesses on behalf of the Establishment be examined in all matters where a major penalty is likely to be imposed. Someone has to introduce and prove idle papers and turn them into speaking documents. This is not a case where the petitioner has admitted the documents by endorsement that the respondents have relied upon.

30. Another feature of the matter is that the documents relied upon by the Establishment are mere complaints of misconduct alleged against the petitioner. These are not documents that comprise evidence aliunde. If for the purpose of sustaining the charges, the respondents have looked into some other documents from their records, which have not been cited in the charge-sheet, it is a serious infraction of natural justice for that would amount to consideration of evidence behind the petitioner's back. To add to it is the feature that after the inquiry report dated 05.09.2020, a further inquiry report was called by the Disciplinary Authority, which was in regard to twenty three matters of objectionable revision of bills. This report was apparently submitted by another Inquiry Committee on 25.01.2021. To add to it, the Disciplinary Authority appears to have sought information and report from the I.T. Cell of the Corporation and also considered the material provided by the I.T. Cell. All this material was considered behind the petitioner's back without bringing it to his notice and providing him an opportunity to rebut it.

31. It is also not apparent from the reports of the Inquiry Committee, two in number, that they have convened themselves into a formal Inquiry tribunal distancing themselves from the Establishment and required the Establishment to prove the charges by leading evidence, both documentary and oral (witnesses). It is imperative in a matter involving the imposition of a major penalty that the Inquiry Committee should distance themselves from the Establishment, even if otherwise a part of it and act as impartial arbiters. They must require the Establishment to prove the charges by leading documentary as well as oral evidence in the first instance. The Inquiry Committee here appear to have sat with the presumption that the charges are proof of themselves, instead of requiring the Establishment, in the presence of the petitioner, to lead their evidence through a Presenting Officer, both oral and documentary.

32. The only fair procedure for an inquiry, that would be countenanced by law, was that the Establishment ought to have been required to prove the charges against the petitioner in relation to each of the seventy and odd cases of irregular billing by producing both documentary and oral evidence through a Presenting Officer. The witnesses examined should have been offered for the petitioner's cross-examination. After this stage was over, the petitioner was to be given opportunity to likewise produce his evidence in defence, both documentary and oral. If he chose to lead oral evidence as well, the petitioner's witnesses in defence too would be cross-examined by the Establishment. If the petitioner did not lead any evidence it would not absolve the Establishment from leading evidence to prove the charges before the Inquiry Committee. We do not think that the Inquiry Committee ever distanced themselves from their loyalties to the Establishment and always understood the charges to be sponsored by themselves. They regarded the charges proved to begin with or at least prima facie and expected the petitioner to dispel them. This is not the procedure by which charges in a departmental inquiry, involving the imposition of a major penalty, can be proved much less sustained. In this connection, reference may be made in support of the the salutary principle mentioned to the decision of the Supreme Court in State of Uttar Pradesh and others v. Saroj Kumar Sinha (2010) 2 SCC 772, Roop Singh Negi v. Punjab National Bank and others (2009) 2 SCC 570, State of Uttaranchal and others v. Kharak Singh (2008) 8 SCC 236 and the Bench decisions of this Court in State of U.P. and another v. Kishori Lal and another 2018 (9) ADJ 397 (DB) (LB), Smt. Karuna Jaiswal v. State of U.P. 2018 (9) ADJ 107 (DB) (LB) and State of U.P. v. Aditya Prasad Srivastava and another 2017 (2) ADJ 554 (DB) (LB).

33. This case has more than just these issues about the failure of the Establishment to prove the charges in the manner they have to be in a case involving the imposition of a major penalty. The reason is, we think that here is a case, where the Disciplinary Authority has looked into more than one inquiry report and also a report from the I.T. Cell. The evidence, cited in support of the charge, is hardly any evidence. It is just a bunch of complaints by a man called Shailendra Kumar Mishra representing some self-styled Human Rights Organization called 'Teesri Ankh'. The complaints can hardly be regarded as documents in proof of seventy different cases of incorrect or flawed revision of bills of consumers. These charges or irregularities can be substantiated on the basis of documents and oral evidence forthcoming from the Establishment of the Corporation. That kind of evidence, except for a letter written by the Director (P&A), is simply not mentioned in the charge-sheet.

34. The discussion on charges by the Inquiry Committee shows that they have considered evidence in intricate details about billing et cetera which apparently has never been put or brought to the petitioner's notice during the inquiry. It has been considered by the Inquiry Committee and by the Disciplinary Authority absolutely behind the petitioner's back. Also, the Disciplinary Authority has relied upon another inquiry report dated 31.03.2021 but the second show cause, that was given to the petitioner, carries with it only one report, that is to say, the first report of the Inquiry Committee dated 05.09.2020, not the other report dated 31.03.2021.

35. It is also true that some information was also sought from the I.T. Cell of the Corporation. Unless a categorical case was taken in the counter affidavit that the report of the I.T. Cell was not at all taken into consideration or the fact mentioned in the impugned order explicitly, it has to be presumed that the later report by the other Inquiry Committee, dated 31.03.2021, and, also some reports by the I.T. Cell, were considered by the respondents in arriving at their conclusions. Logically as well, given the intricate and technical nature of the charges, it is most likely that all kinds of evidence of technical detail would have been considered by the Disciplinary Authority, a fact also reflected from the orders impugned. But, the issue is: if this evidence, before being taken into consideration, was put to the petitioner during the inquiry in which he participated, in whatever manner he was allowed.

36. We do not think that all the technical evidence, that the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiry Committee took into consideration, was brought to the petitioner's notice with opportunity to him to rebut the same. In the absence of all this being done the findings of the Disciplinary Authority and the Appellate Authority are utterly vitiated for violation of principles of natural justice that have led to demonstrable prejudice to the petitioner. The result would be that all proceedings, beyond the charge-sheet, stand vitiated and it would remain open to the respondents to proceed against the petitioner de novo from the stage of the charge-sheet.

37. In the result, this petition succeeds and is allowed. The impugned order dated 23.07.2021 passed by the Chairman of the Corporation and the appellate order dated 18.02.2022 passed by the Corporation Board are hereby quashed. The petitioner shall be reinstated in service forthwith and paid his current salary regularly. The respondents shall be free to pursue fresh proceedings against the petitioner from the stage of the charge-sheet, bearing in mind the guidance in this judgment. If the respondents elect to pursue fresh proceedings, arrears of emoluments for the period of time that the petitioner has remained out of employment shall not be payable immediately. These shall abide by the event in the disciplinary proceedings. If the respondents do not elect to pursue fresh proceedings against the petitioner, he will be entitled to 50% of his emoluments for the period of time that he has remained out of employment. It is further ordered that in case the respondents elect to pursue fresh proceedings, it would be open to the respondents to place the petitioner under suspension pending disciplinary proceedings, which shall then be expedited and concluded early, wherein the petitioner shall cooperate. It is further ordered that in the event, the petitioner is placed under suspension by the respondents, the respondents shall be obliged to ensure prompt and regular payment of subsistence allowance to the petitioner during the period of suspension, which they will pay without asking the petitioner to produce a non-alternative engagement certificate.

39. There shall be no order as to costs.

40. Let this judgment be communicated to the Chairman, Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow and the Managing Director, Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation Limited, Lucknow through the Civil Judge (Senior Division), Lucknow by the Registrar (Compliance).

(2024) 5 ILRA 530
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE PIYUSH AGRAWAL, J.

Writ A No. 23843 of 2018

Sanjay Kumar Singh & Ors. ...Petitioner
Versus
District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Adarsh Singh, Indra Raj Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Abhishek Srivastava, C.S.C., Mrigraj Singh

A. Service Law – Appointment – Post of Assistant Teacher – Selection was made after obtaining prior approval and appointment was also accorded approval – Salary was stopped – Validity challenged – Neither approval was ever recalled nor the petitioner was ever suspended or terminated – No material to proof collusion with St. authorities in any manipulation was produced – Effect – Held, the appointment of the petitioners cannot be said to be illegal as after due selection interviews were made in presence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. Thereafter, approval was granted on 21.8.2003 after duly being satisfied by the District Basic Education Officer – The salary of the petitioners cannot be withheld or stopped unless petitioners are suspended or dismissed from service – High Court issued mandamus to pay arrears of salary and allow all the consequential benefits. (Para 19, 26, 31, 32 and 46)

Writ petition allowed. (E-1)

List of Cases cited:

1. Radhey Shyam Yadav Vs St. of U.P. & ors.; 2024 AIR (SC) 260

2. Civil Appeal No. 3904 of 2013; Nahar Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors. decided on 14.07.2017

3. Special Leave Petition (Civil) Diary No. 7348 of 2024; Basic Shiksha Adhikari, District Basti & anr. Vs Uday Pratap Singh & ors. decided on 16.04.2024

4. Special Appeal (Defective) No. 870 of 2023; Basic Shiksha Adhikari, District Basti & anr. Vs Uday Pratap Singh & ors. decided on 19.01.2024

5. Civil Appeal Nos. 7634-7635 of 2022; Professor (Dr.) Srejith P.S. Vs Dr. Rajasree M.S. & ors. decided on 21.10.2022

6. St. of Odisha & ors. Vs Sulekh Chandra Pradhan etc.; 2022 LiveLaw (SC) 393

7. Misc. Application Diary No. 4303/2024; Devesh Sharma Vs U.O.I.decided on 08.04.2024

8. Special Appeal (Devective) No. 890 of 2023; St. of U.P. & ors. Vs Ram Avtar Singh & ors. decided on 09.01.2024

9. Civil Appeal No. .. of 2024 (Arising out of SLP (C) Nos. 22241-42 of 2016; Vinod Kumar & ors. Vs U.O.I.decided on 30.01.2024

10. Sandeep Kumar Vs G.B. Pant Institute of Engineering and Technology, Ghurdauri; 2024 0 Supreme (SC) 346

11. C/M Dadaur Inter College, Dadaur, Rae Bareilly Vs District Inspector of Schools, Rae Bareily & ors.; 1985 UPLBEC 1378

(Delivered by Hon'ble Piyush Agrawal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Adarsh Singh, learned counsel for he petitioners and Sri Abhishek Srivastava, learned Chief standing counsel for the State-respondents.

2. By means of the present writ petition, the petitioners have prayed to issue a writ, order or direction in the natue of mandamus commanding the respondent no.1- District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur to grant salary to the petitioners on the posts of Assistant Teachers in the institution namely, Keshav Nath Senior Basic School, Horaiya, Ram Nagar Vidhmauwa, Jaunpur along with arrears, within stipulated time as may be fixed by Hon'ble Court as well as permit them to work.

3. Counsel for the petitioners submits that on 25.5.2003 Authorised Controller was appointed in the Institution in question. Thereafter permissioin was sought for apppointment of four Assistant Teachers by the Athorised Controller vide letter dated 28.7.2003. The approval was accorded by the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur on 29.7.2003. Thereafter advertisement with regard to appointment of Assistant Teachers was published in the newspaper in which interview was fixed for 14.8.2003.

4. The petitioners being duly qualified and eligible applied for the posts. The Selection Committee including the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur conducted the interview. After conclusion of the interview, the petitioners were found most suitable candidates amongst all the candidates and their names were recommended by the Selecton Committee.

5. On 15.8.2003 the Authorised Controller of the Institution forwarded all the requisite papers pertaining to selection of the petitioners on the posts of Assistant Teacher to the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur for approval. On 21.8.2003 the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur after verifying the requisite documents and after duly satisfied accorded approval for selection of the petitioners on the post of Assistant Teachers. Thereafter the petitioners joined on the post of Assistant Teachers in the Institution in question and were discharging their duties diligently. Salary was paid to the petitioners by the Finance and Accounts Officer in the office of the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur.

6. He further submits that one Bachai Singh has filed Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 4888 of 2007 before this Court and by order dated 31.1.2007 payment of salary to the petitioners was stayed. By order dated 11.4.2018 the said writ petition was dismissed and the interim order stood vacated.

7. He further submits that some enquiry was made behind the back of the petitioners but neither any disciplinary proceedings were initiated nor suspension order was passed nor services of the petitioners were terminated till date nor approval granted by the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur on 21.8.2003 was recalled.

8. He further submits that in pursucance of the ex parte report of the year 2008, first information reports had been lodged against the petitoners and charge sheet had been submitted to which application under section 482 Cr. P.C. had been filed in which interim order had been passed.

9. He further submits that for approval of appointment of the petitioners as Assistant Teachers papers were forwarded by the Authorised Controller and on his application approval was granted by the District Basic Education Officer, Jaunpur, who happens to be State Authorities. He further submits that apart from bare allegation absolutely no material is on record to show how the petitioners had colluded for any manipulation, therefore, the petitioners should not be penalised for none of their fault.

10. In support of his submissions counsel for the petitones relied upon the judgments of the Apex Court in A(i) Radhey Shyam Yadav vs. State of U.P. And others (2024 AIR (SC) 260; (ii) Civil Appeal No. 3904 of 2013 (Nahar Singh and othrs vs. State of U.P. And others) decided on 14.7.2017; (iii)Special Leave Petition (Civil) Diary No. 7348 of 2024 (Basic Shiksha Adhikari, District Basti and another vs. Uday Pratap Singh and others) decided on 16.4.2024; (B)Division Bench judgment of this Court in Special Appeal (Defective) No. 870 of 2023 (Basic Shiksha Adhikari, District Basti and another vs. Uday Pratap Singh and others) decided on 19.1.2024.

11. Per contra, learned Chief Standing counsel submits that while making appointment of the petitioners, provisions of the Act and Rules have not been complied with. He specifically referes to Rules, 4,5, and 7 of the Uttar Pradesh recognized Basic Schools (Junior High Schools) (Recruitment and conditions of Service of Teachers) Rules, 1978. He further submits that in absence of compliance of specific provisions the appointment of the petitioners are illegal as well as bad in law, therefore, the salary of the petitioners have rightly been stopped.

12. He futher submits that in pursuance of the order dated 31.1.2007 of this Court an enquiry was conducted and enquiry report was prepared on 24.3.2008, a copy of which has been filed along with the counter affidavit. He futher submits that in the said enquiry various defects/deficiencies in the process of appointment of the petitoners were found. The advertisements were not made in two news papers as well as required details were also not mentioned in it. He further submits that the petitioners do not have the requisite qualifications to be appointed as Assistant Teachers, therefore, the appointment is void ab initio.

13. He further submits that in pursuance of the enquiry report dated 24.3.2008 first information report was lodged in which charge sheet has been submitted and congnizance has been taken by the officer concerned.

14. In support of his contention he has relied upon the judgments of the Apex Court in (A) (i) Civil Appeal Nos. 7634-7635 of 2022 (Professor (Dr.) Srejith P.S. vs. Dr.Rajasree M.S. And others) decided on 21.10.2022,; (ii) State of Odisha and others vs. Sulekh Chandra Pradhan etc. (2022 LiveLaw(SC) 393); (iii) Devesh Sharma vs. Union of India (Misc. Application (Diary No. 4303/2024 decided on 8.4.2024; (B) Division Bench Judgment of this Court in Special Appeal (Devective) No. 890 of 2023 (State of U.P. And others vs. Ram Avtar Singh and others) decided on 9.1.2024.

15. Rebutting the submission of the learned Chief Standing Counsel, counsel for the petitoners submits that the appointments of the petitioners cannot be said to be illegal. He further submits assuming without admitting for the sake of argument that the appointment of the petitioners can be said to be irregular only. He further submits that in pursuance of ex parte enquiry report dated 24.3.2008 only first informaton report has been lodged against the petitioners as they are beneficiary but no action against the erring officer has been brought on record. In support of his submission he has relied upon the judgment of the Apex Court in Civil Appeal No. .. of 2024 (Arising out of SLP (C) Nos. 22241-42 of 2016) (Vinod Kumar and others vs. Union of India) decided on 30.1.2024.

16. He further submits that it is not in dispute that neither the petitoners were suspended nor charge sheets were issued to them, nor the petitoners' services have been terminated. In support of his submission he has relied upon the recent judgment of the Apex Court in Sandeep Kumar vs. G.B. Pant Institute of Engineering and Technology, Ghurdauri (2024 0 Supreme (SC) 346. He further submits that the Apex Court has held that if the procedure prescribed under the Rules has not been complied with the services of the petitioners cannot be terminated. He prays that a writ of mandamus be issued to the respondents for payment of salary to the petitoners regularly.

17. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, the Court has perused the record.

18. It is not in dispute that in the Institution in question the Authorised Controller was appointed by the District Basic Education Officer who sought permission for filling up the vacancies of the Assistant Teachers. After due approval on 29.7.2003 by the District Basic Education Officer the advertisement was issued. The selection was held in presence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. After concluding the interview selected names of the candidates were forwarded by the authorised controller for approval by the District Basic Education Officer. It is also not in dispute that by order dated 21.8.2003 the District Basic Education Officer after verification of the requisite documents and after duly satisfied granted approval for selection of the petitioners on the post of Assistant Teachers. Thereafter the petitioners joined their duties and payment of salary was also made to them. But payment of salary was stopped in pursuance of order dated 31.1.2007 passed in Writ Petition No. 4888 of 2007. On 11.4.2018 the said writ petition was dismissed and stay order stook vacated.

19. It is a matter of record that an enquiry was instituted in pursuance of the order dated 31.1.2007 passed by this Court in public interest litigation in which a report was prepared on 24.3.2008. In pursuance thereof the only action was taken against the petitioners by way of stopping their salary and were restrained from discharging their duties but nothing has been brought on record that after the report was prepared in the year 2008 any notice was issued to the petitioners. It is also not in dispute that no material have been brought on record on behalf of the State to show that either the petitioners were suspended from services or charge sheets were issued to them or services of the petitioners were terminated. Further the respondents have not brought on record any material to show that the approval granted on 21.8.2003 by the District Basic Education Officer for appointment of the petitoners on the post of Assistant Teachers has been recalled.

20. Further it is not in dispute that after the report dated 24.3.2008 alleging that the petitioners were in collusion with the State Authorities but no departmental action has been taken agianst the erring officers of the State. No material has been broght on record to show that any action has been taken against the erring officers except filing of first information report against the petitioners. The affidavits filed by the respondents, not a single word has been whispered about the same. Further in-turn the respondent authorities gave a safe passage to the erring officers to superannuate. Even after retirement no acton has been taken against the erring officers within the stipulated time povided in the Service Rules. The conduct of the respondent authorities shows that the petitioners are only made scape goat leaving aside the role of the erring officers.

21. On the aforementioned facts the Court proceeds to examine the arguments raised as well as judgments relied upon by the counsels.

22. The record of the case in hand shows that there is only bald allegation about colluding of the petitioners with the State Authorities but no material has been brought on record.

23. The Apex Court in the judgment of Radhey Shyam Yadav (supra) has held in the relevant pagraph nos. 5, 6, 8, 10, 14, 15, 33 and 34 as follows:

5. Thereafter, responding to the letter of the School, the District Basic Education Officer by his letter of 20.11.1998 accorded permission to issue advertisement for appointment of three posts of Assistant Teachers. On 25.11.1998, an advertisement was issued. The School, thereafter, on 08.12.1998, wrote a letter to the District Basic Education Officer to nominate a Member for the selection of the teachers.

In response, the District Basic Education Officer nominated the Assistant District Basic Education Officer, Bahorikpur as a Member of the Selection Committee. The Selection Committee duly met and considered the twelve applications received by it. Seven out of the twelve applicants, including the three appellants herein, participated in the interview.

By its letter of 27.12.1998, the Selection Committee informed the District Basic Education Officer that the appellants, on basis of their ability, have been selected and their case was being submitted for approval. The order in which the Selection Committee has sent subjectwise names were as follows:

i. Lal Chandra Kharwar - Science and Math

ii. Radhey Shyam Yadav - English

iii. Ravindra Nath Yadav - Agric & Gen.Topic

It is not disputed that by an order of 09.06.1999, the District Basic Education Officer granted approval for the appointment of the appellants. As stated earlier, they were appointed on 25.06.1999 and were working continuously.

6. The undisputed case is that from October, 2005, their salaries were stopped from being disbursed, forcing them to file Writ Petitions in the High Court, namely, Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 10286 of 2007 and Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 18641 of 2008. The three appellants, in all, filed two writ petitions. In the writ petitions, the prayer was for a writ of mandamus commanding the respondents to pay the arrears of salary from July, 1999 to January, 2002 and continue to pay salary from October, 2005. It was their case that from the date of appointment till January 2002, their salary had not been released.

8. Apart from this bare allegation, absolutely no material was placed on record to show how the appellants had colluded or were blameworthy for any manipulation.

10. The Learned Single Judge, by order dated 10.09.2013, held that if based on the forged order, proceedings were initiated for the selection of Assistant Teacher, then the entire selection needs to be cancelled. It was also held that since forgery was committed by the persons involved in the selection of Assistant Teachers and since the selection process was not fair, being based on a forged letter, the candidates who were selected in the selection process are not entitled to be appointed and retained on the post of Assistant Teacher, and holding so, the writ petitions were dismissed. The appellants filed writ appeals. By the impugned order, the appeals were dismissed reiterating the findings of the learned Singe Judge.

14. We have given our thoughtful consideration to the matter and considered the submissions of the rival parties and perused the records. The correspondence between the School and the Directorate of Education culminated in the order of 26.12.1997. There is a dispute about the number of posts that were sanctioned. According to the State, two posts were, in fact, sanctioned and it was the School that manipulated it, to make it three. We will proceed on the basis that the version of the State is correct.

The nominee of the State participated in the selection process. Twelve candidates had applied and ultimately three appellants were empanelled for selection. Due approval was given for the appointment and admittedly they discharged their duties on their post from 25.06.1999 till September, 2005. Even according to the State, admittedly, till date there is no order terminating their services. What impelled the appellants to go to the High Court was the stoppage of their salary.

15. There is not an iota of material to demonstrate how the appellants, who were applicants from the open market, were guilty of colluding in the manipulation.

33. This judgment in Sachin Kumar (supra) is clearly distinguishable from the case at hand. First of all, Sachin Kumar (supra) involved the cancellation of the selection process before any appointments were made. No rights were crystallized to any of the candidates. The issue was about the validity of the cancellation of the selection process. Sachin Kumar (supra) falls in that genre of cases concerning validity of cancellation of the selection process due to largescale irregularities. The Case at hand is proximate to the facts and ratio in Suresh Raghunath Bhokare (supra) and cases of that ilk set out hereinabove.

34. We feel that the appellants were not at fault and the State could not have abruptly stopped their salaries. Accordingly, we set aside the judgments of the High Court dated 15.09.2021 in Special Appeal Nos. 1435/2013 and 1445/2013 and direct that the State shall pay the salaries of the appellants for the period from 25.06.1999 till January, 2002 in full. We also direct that insofar as the period from October 2005 till today is concerned, the State shall pay the appellants 50% of the backwages. Since the appointment order and the approval order are still in force, we declare that the appellants have always been and are deemed to be in service. Apart from 50% backwages, as ordered above, we direct that all consequential benefits, includig seniority, notional promotion, if any, and fitment of salary and other service benefits due, be granted to the appellants. We direct the State to comply with these directons within four weeks from today. We also direct tht the appellants be allowed to commence work within the said period of four weeks." (Emphasis supplied)

24. The record further reveals that State Authorities took a conscious decsion after being satisfied, accorded approval for selection of petitioners vide order dated 21.8.2003 on the posts of Assistant Teacher.

25. The Apex Court in the case of Md. Zamil Ahmad (supra) has held in the relevant paragraph nos. 15, 19, 21 and 22as follows:

Firstly, the appellant and wife of the deceased at the time of seeking compassionate appointment did not conceal any fact and nor filed any false or incorrect document/declaration. On the other hand, both of them disclosed their true family relations and conditions prevailing in the deceased family on affidavit.

19) In the light of aforementioned reasons, which rightly persuaded the State to grant compassionate appointment to the appellant, we do not find any justification on the part of the State to dig out the appellant's case after 15 years of his appointment and terminate his services on the ground that as per the State policy, the appellant did not fall within the definition of the expression "dependent of deceased" to claim compassionate appointment.

21) In our considered view, the aforesaid facts would clearly show that it was a conscious decision taken by the State for giving an appointment to the appellant for the benefit of the family members of the deceased who were facing financial hardship due to sudden demise of their bread earner. The appellant being the only close relative of the deceased could be given the appointment in the circumstances prevailing in the family. In our view, it was a right decision taken by the State as a welfare state to help the family of the deceased at the time of need of the family.

22) In these circumstances, we are of the view that there was no justification on the part of the State to woke up after the lapse of 15 years and terminate the services of the appellant on such ground. In any case, we are of the view that whether it was a conscious decision of the State to give appointment to the appellant as we have held above or a case of mistake on the part of the State in giving appointment to the appellant which now as per the State was contrary to the policy as held by the learned Single Judge, the State by their own conduct having condoned their lapse due to passage of time of 15 years, it was too late on the part of the State to have raised such ground for cancelling the appellant's appointment and terminating his services*. It was more so because the appellant was not responsible for making any false declaration and nor he suppressed any material fact for securing the appointment. The State was, therefore, not entitled to take advantage of their own mistake if they felt it to be so. The position would have been different if the appellant had committed some kind of fraud or manipulation or suppression of material fact for securing the appointment. As mentioned above such was not the case of the State.*

(Emphasis supplied)

26. The appointment of the petitoners cannot be said to be illegal as after due selection interviews were made in presence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer. Thereafter on 21.8.2003 approval was granted after duly being satisfied by the District Basic Education Officer.

27. The Apex Court in the case of Vinod Kumar (supra) has held in the relevant paragraph nos. 7 and 8 as follows:

7. The judgement in the case Uma Devi (supra) also distinguished between "irregular" and "illegal" appointments underscoring the importance of considering certain appointments even if were not made strictly in accordance with the prescribed Rules and Procedure, cannot be said to have been made illegally if they had followed the procedures of regular appointments such as conduct of written examinations or interviews as in the present case.

8. In light of the reasons recorded above, this Court finds merit in the appellants' arguments and holds that their service conditions, as evolved over time, warrant a reclassification from temporary to regular status. The failure to SLP(C) Nos.22241-42 OF 2016 Page 9 of 9 recognize the substantive nature of their roles and their continuous service akin to permanent employees runs counter to the principles of equity, fairness, and the intent behind employment regulations. (Emphasis supplied)

28. The appointment cannot be disturbed on the ground of lack of qualification as held by the Apex Court in Nahar Singh (supra) in relevant paragraph nos. 2 and 3 as follows:

Having regard to the fact that the petitioners have been in service for a long period we are of the view that their appointments ought not to be disturbed only on the ground of allged lack of qualification which is contested by the petitioners*. (Emphasis supplied)*

Accordingly, the special leave petitions are disposed of by directing that the services of the petitoners be not disturbed on the above grounds.

29. It is not the case of the respondents that any misrepresentation or fraud committed by the petitioners in getting their appointments as held by the Division Bench of this Court in the case of Uday Pratap Singh (supra) in relevant paragraph no. 10, which is quoted below:

10. Facts as have been noticed above are not in issue. It remains undisputed that respondent claimed compassionate appointment in the year 2000 and was offered such appointment in 2003. The father of the respondent had clearly given an affidavit wherein it was mentioned that he was employed in the Education Department of the State. From such material it can clearly be deduced that the factum of the father of the respondent being in Government Service was a fact clearly made known to the authorities and it can therefore not be asserted by the appellant that there was any fraud or misrepresentation made on part of the respondent. (Emphasis supplied)

30. Against the said order in Uday Pratap Singh (supra) the State went in appeal before the Apex Court, which has been dismissed on 16.4.2024.

31. In view of the judgments referred hereinabove, the respondents have failed to bring on record any material as to how the petitioners have been colluded with the State Authorites in any manipulation. Further the approval was granted by the State Authorities has not yet been withdrawn. It is also not in dispute that the petitioners were interviewed in the presence of the nominee of the State Authorities and thereafter State Authorities approved their appointments as Assistant Teacher as well as the said approval dated 21.8.2003 has not been withdrawn.

32. The salary of the petitioners cannot be withheld or stopped unless petitioners are suspended or dismissed from service. The Division Bench of this Court in the case of Committee of Management of Dadaur Inter College, Dadaur, Rae Bareilly vs. District Inspector of Schools, Rae Bareily and others (1985 UPLBEC 1378) has held in the relevant paragraph no. 6 as follows:

6. We have examined the arguments of Mr. B. C. Saxena and we find no merit in his contention. Given the fact that opposite-parties 3 to 8 are abscond- ing from duty and are not attending the teaching job, it is open to the petitioners to initiate disciplinary proceedings against them. Regulation No. 36 of the Regulations framed under the Act lays down the procedure for initiating disciplinasy proceedings against the teachers. If opposite-parties Nos. 3 to 8 were absconding and were guilty of insubordination and they neglected the discharge of their duties, they could be suspended and proceeded with depart- mentally but unless opposite-parties 3 to 8 are dismissed or they are suspended, their salary cannot be withheld. Unless the said teachers are dismissed there would no vacancy to justify the making of fresh appointments. If the delinquent teacher is suspended, he will be entitled to subsistence allowance and will not be entitled to full salary. Unless the delinquent teachers are suspended or are dismissed from service, the payment of salary to them cannot be withheld. Mr. Saxena made an impassioned appeal that the teachers who were not co-operating with the working of the institution should not be allowed payment of salary as that would result in spoiling the discipline of the institution. In our opinion, this contention is not tenable. The difficulty in the way of the petitioner is that the teachers againt whom charges are levelled are still holding their appointment in the institution. No departmental proceedings have so far been taken against them. Their appointment has neither been terminated nor have they been suspended. In view of these facts it cannot be said that opposite-parties Nos. 3 to 8 are not entitled to salary payable to them. As long as they are teachers in the institution and their appointment subsists, they are entitled to their salary . If the said teachers misbehave or do not discharge their duties properly, it is always open to the Management of the College to suspend such teachers or dismiss them from service after departmental inquiry. Unless this is done there is no basis on which payment of salary to the said teachers can be refused. We are, accordingly of the view that writ petition No. 1585 has no merit and deserves to be dismissed. (Emphasis supplied)

33. The respondents have not brought on record any material to show as to whether in pursuance of the report dated 24.3.2008 any disciplinary inquiry was initiated against the petitoners or the petitioners were put to notice or were suspended or any termination order was passed against them. Even the respondents have not taken any action agianst the erring officers except filing of first information report against the petitioners. Record also shows that the respondents, till date, have not recalled the order granting approval by the District Basic Education Officer for the appointments of the petitioners.

34. The Apex Court in Sandeep Kumar (supra) has held in relevant paragraph no. 19, which reads as under:

19. In this background, we are of the firm view that the termination of the services of the appellant without holding disciplinary enquiry was totally unjustified and dehors the requirements of law and in gross violation of principles of natural justice. Hence, the learned Division Bench of the High Court fell in grave error in dismissing the writ petition filed by the appellant on the hypertechnical ground that the minutes of 26th meeting of the Board of Governors dated 16th June, 2018 had not been placed on record. (Emphasis supplied)

35. Learned Chief Standing Counsel has vehemently argues that while appointing the petitioners Rules 4,5, and 7 of the Rules 1978 have not been complied with. In support of his submissions he placed reliance to paragraph nos. 32 and 35 of the judgment of the Apex Court in Sulekh Chandra Pradhan (supra) which is quoted below:

32. It is not in dispute that the appointment of all the applicants/respondents/teachers have been made directly by the respective Management without following the procedure as prescribed under the Rules/Statute. It is a trite law that the appointments made in contravention of the statutory provisions are void ab initio. Reference in this respect could be made to the judgments of this Court in the cases of Ayurvidya Prasarak Mandal and another vs. Geeta Bhaskar Pendse (Mrs) and others1, J & K Public Service Commission and others vs. Dr. Narinder Mohan and others2, Official Liquidator vs. Dayanand and others3, and Union of India and another vs. Raghuwar Pal Singh.

35. The impugned order passed by the High Court depicts total nonapplication of mind. Whereas the cause title would itself show that a Writ Petition (Civil) No.6557 of 2018 is disposed of by the impugned judgment, the High Court observed that the order dated 18 th May, 2017, passed by the Tribunal in O.A. No.2266 of 2015, has not been challenged by the State. Whereas the teachers have hardly worked for four years and a substantial part thereof on account of interim orders passed by the High Court, the High Court goes on to 5 (1997) 2 SCC 635 observe that the teachers have worked for a period of more than 20 years. No reasons, leave aside sound reasons, are reflected in the impugned order while dismissing the writ petitions filed by the State.

36. In the case cited above by the State, the appointment was made by the Management Committee of the School in the year 1988 and after the Government Order was issued the services of the candidates were terminated. Thereafter they approached the High Court in which interim order was passed permitting them to continue in service as in interim protection but in the case in hand the approval was sought by the State Authority as Authority Controller, approval was granted by the State Authorites i.e. the District Basic Education Officer and after adopting due process of selection in the presence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer the selection has been undertaken. After completing the selection process the Authorised Controller (appointed by the State Authority) forwarded the names of the selected candidates to the District Basic Education Officer for its approval for appointment. By the order dated 21.8.2003 the approval was accorded, therefore, the the case referred to above is entirely different in the facts and circumstances of the present case and will not give any aid to the respondents.

37. Learned Chief Standing Cunsel has further referred to paragraph nos. 8 and 9 in (Professor (Dr.) Srejith P.S (supra) which reads as under:

38. 8.10 At this stage, it is required to be noted that even as per Section 13(4) of the University Act, 2015, the Committee shall recommend unanimously a panel of not less than three suitable persons from amongst the eminent persons in the field of engineering sciences, which shall be placed before the Visitor/Chancellor. In the present case, admittedly the only name of respondent No. 1 was recommended to the Chancellor. As per the UGC Regulations also, the Visitor/Chancellor shall appoint the Vice Chancellor out of the panel of names recommended by the Search Committee. Therefore, when only one name was recommended and the panel of names was not recommended, the Chancellor had no option to consider the names of the other candidates. Therefore, the appointment of the respondent No. 1 can be said to be dehors and/or contrary to the provisions of the UGC Regulations as well as even to the University Act, 2015. Therefore, the appointment of respondent No. 1 on the basis of the recommendations made by the Search committee, which was not a duly constituted Search Committee as per the UGC Regulations and when only one name was recommended in spite of panel of suitable candidates (3-5 suitable persons as required under Section 13(4) of the University Act, 2015), the appointment of respondent No. 1 can be said to be illegal and void ab initio, and, therefore, the writ of quo warranto was required to be issued.

39. In view of the above and for the reasons stated above, the present appeals succeed. The impugned judgment(s) and order(s) passed by the Division Bench of the High Court as well as that of the learned Single Judge dismissing the writ petition and refusing to issue the writ of quo warranto declaring the appointment of respondent No. 1 as Vice Chancellor of the APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University, Thiruvananthapuram as bad in law and/or illegal and void ab initio are hereby quashed and set aside. The writ petition is allowed. There shall be a writ of quo warranto declaring the appointment of the respondent No. 1 as Vice Chancellor of the APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University, Thiruvananthapuram as void ab initio and consequently, the appointment of respondent No. 1 as Vice Chancellor of the APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University, Thiruvananthapuram is quashed and set aside.

40. In the case cited above the appointment of the Vice Chancellor was made diluting some provisions where the Apex Court has taken the view that the provisions of U.G.C. Regulations will be applicable and provisions cannot be diluted but the case in hand the responents have not approached the Court even after enquiry report dated 24.3.2008 for issuance of writ of quo warranto or appointments of petitioners were illegal or dehors the rules, therefore above cited judgments is of no aid to the respondents specially in view of latest judgment of Apex Court in the case of Vinod Kumar (supra) and Sandeep Kumar (supra).

41. Learned Chief Standing Counsel further argued that the petitoners do not possess the requisite qualifiaction therefore, the appointment is void ab initio. He referred to paragraph nos. 9 and 10 in the case of Ram Avtar Singh (supra) and Devesh Sharma (supra) are of no help as facts of the case stated hereinabove and in view of the latest judgment of the Apex Court in the cases of Vinod Kumar (supra) and Sandeep Kumar (supra) as well as of Nahar Sigh (supra).

42. In the case in hand the approval was sought by the State Authority as Authority Controller, approval was granted by the State Authorites i.e. the District Basic Education Officer and after adopting due process of selection in the presence of the nominee of the District Basic Education Officer the selection has been undertaken. After completing the selection process the Authorised Controller (appointed by the State Authority) forwarded the names of the selected candidates to the District Basic Education Officer for its approval for appointment. By the order dated 21.8.2003 the approval was accorded which is still intact. In others words the approval has not been recalled till date.

43. Further in the case of Radhay Shyam Yadav (supra) the Apex Court has recently held that since the approval is still enforce, the appellants therein were deemed to be in service and directed to pay arrears of salary with all consequential benefits, including seniority, notional promotion, if any, and fitment of salary and other service benefites due, be granted to the appellants therein.

44. The report was prepared on 24.3.2008. In pursuance thereof the only action was taken against the petitioners by way of stopping their salary and were restrained from discharging their duties but nothing has been brought on record on behalf of the State to show that either the petitioners were suspended from services or charge sheets were issued to them or services of the petitioners were terminated.

45. The report dated 24.3.2008 alleging that the petitioners were in collusion with the State Authorities but no departmental action has been taken agianst the erring officers of the State. In-turn the respondent authorities gave a safe passage to the erring officers to superannuate. Even after retirement no acton has been taken against the erring officers within the stipulated time povided in the Service Rules. The conduct of the respondent authorities shows that the petitioners are only made scape goat leaving aside the role of the erring officers.

46. In view of the factual matrix of the case as well as judgments of the Apex Court and Division Bench of this Court referred to hereinabove, a mandamus is issued to the respondent- State Authorities concerned to pay the arrears of salary to the petitioners from the date the order was passed stopping payment of salary as well as to work (whichever is earlier) till the date of this order. Since the appointment order and approval order are still in force the petitioners are deemed to be in service. The respondents are further directed to allow all consequential benefits, seniority, notional promotion, if any, and fitment of salary and other service benefits due, be granted to the petitioners. Further mandamus is issued to the respondents -State Authorities to comply above directions within four weeks from today. Further mandamus is issued to the respondents to allow the petitioners to commence work within the aforesaid period of four weeks.

47. The writ petition is allowed in the above terms.

(2024) 5 ILRA 542
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Matters U/A 227 No. 2098 of 2024

M/s A2z Waste Management (Meerut) Pvt. Ltd. ...Petitioner
Versus
Construction & Design Services, U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Suyash Gupta

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Indu Prakash Singh, Sri Manish Kumar Srivastava, Sri Pankaj Srivastava, Sri Santosh Srivastava

Civil Law - Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 – Sections 34 & 42 - Commercial Courts Act, 2015 – Section 16 r/w Article 6 of Schedule - Civil Procedure Code, 1908 - Order XV-A Rules 1, 2 and 3 - The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 – Sections 195(1)(b), 340 – Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Section 191 - Constitution of India - Article 215 – Oath's Act, 1969 – Section 8 - Petitioner filed arbitration claim against respondent Nos.1 to 3 in 2012/2013 - Arbitration award was passed on 29.05.2019, directing respondents to pay Rs. 66 Crores, alongwith 18 % interest p/a to petitioner - Arbitration proceedings and arbitration award was passed at Lucknow on 29.05.2019 and respondent Nos.1 and 2 filed application u/s 34 in Commercial Court at Lucknow on 11.09.2019, the respondent No. 3 filed application u/s 34 challenging award before District Judge, Meerut on 05.10.2019 - Apparently, after an application u/s 34 filed in Commercial Court, no subsequent application could be filed before any other court - After expiry of about 1 year and 9 months since filing of application at Meerut, on 24.06.2021 the respondent no. 3 filed Transfer Application at Allahabad for transfer of case from Meerut to Lucknow - By interim order dated 05.07.2021, proceedings of application filed at Meerut also Arbitration Case in Commercial Court was stayed – In view of facts and circumstances, prayer for expeditious disposal of proceedings was allowed – Perjury application against petitioner, rejected. (Para 22, 23, 24, 25, 28, 31, 54)

Petition allowed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. M/S Chopra Fabricators and Manufacturers Pvt. Ltd. Vs Bharat Pumps & Compressors Ltd. & anr.: (2023) 2 SCC 481

2. Dhananjay Sharma Vs St. of Har. & ors. (1995) 3 SCC 757

3. S. P. Chengal Varaya Naidu Vs Jagannath & ors. (1994) 1 SCC 1

4. Hamza Haji Vs St. of Kerala (2006) 7 SCC 416

5. K. D. Sharma Vs Steel Authority of India Ltd. & ors. (2008) 12 SCC 481

6. ABCD Vs U.O.I. & ors. (2020) 2 SCC 52

7. Dhananjay Sharma Vs St. of Har. (1995) 3 SCC 757

8. S. P. Chengalvaraya Naidu Vs Jagannath, (1994) 1 SCC 1

9. K.D. Sharma Vs SAIL, (2008) 12 SCC 481

10. P. S. Sathappan Vs Andhra Bank Ltd., (2004) 11 SCC 672

11. Amrendra Pratap Singh Vs Tej Bahadur Prajapati: (2004) 10 SCC 65

12. Sasikala Pushpa & ors. Vs St. of T. N. (2019) 6 SCC 477

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Jaideep Narain Mathur Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Suyash Gupta Advocate, the learned Counsel for the petitioner and Shri Indu Prakash Singh, learned counsel for the respondent No.1 - Construction and Design Services, U.P. Jal Nigam and respondent no. 2 - U.P. Jal Nigam and Sri Pankaj Srivastava, the learned counsel for the respondent No.3 – Municipal Corporation, Meerut.

2. By means of the instant petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has sought a direction for expeditious disposal of Arbitration Case No.831 of 2019 pending in Commercial Court No. 2, Lucknow. The aforesaid case is an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act which was filed by the respondent no. 1 and 2 on 11.09.2019 challenging an Arbitration Award dated 29.05.2019 passed in favour of the petitioner.

3. A copy of the entire order sheet of the proceedings under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act has been annexed with the petition. A copy of an order dated 10.07.2023 passed by this Court sitting at Allahabad in Transfer Application No.278 of 2021 has also been annexed with the petition. The said Transfer Application was filed by Meerut Municipal Corporation (respondent No.3 in this petition) seeking transfer of Case No. Nil of 2019 in the Court of the District Judge, Meerut, which was an application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act filed by the respondent no. 3 on 05.10.2019 challenging the same arbitration award dated 29.05.2019. The Transfer Application was allowed by means of an order dated 10.07.2023 and the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 filed by the respondent no. 3 at Meerut was transferred to Lucknow and it was directed that that the same shall be heard along with Arbitration Case No.831 of 2019. After being transferred to Commercial Court – 2, Lucknow, the application under Section 34 filed by the respondent no. 3 has been registered as Arbitration Case No. 133 of 2023.

4. When the case was taken up as fresh on 27.04.2024, the learned counsel for the respondent Nos.1 and 2 had sought two days' time to seek instructions in the matter. On 01.05.2009, the learned counsel for the respondent No.3 filed an application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. and the learned counsel for respondent No.1 and 2 filed counter affidavit/objections against the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. Subsequently, the respondent Nos.1 and 2 have also filed a counter affidavit.

5. It is relevant to note that Section 34 (6) of Arbitration and Conciliation Act contains a statutory mandate that an application under this Section shall be disposed of expeditiously and in any event, within a period of one year from the date on which notice referred to in Sub Section (5) is served upon the other party. This statutory mandate cannot be altogether ignored by the Commercial Court and by this Court.

6. The application under Section 34 is pending before a Commercial Court, which has been constituted under the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. The statement of objects and reasons of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 states that: -

"The proposal to provide for speedy disposal of high value commercial disputes has been under consideration of the Government for quite some time. The high value commercial disputes involve complex facts and question of law. Therefore, there is a need to provide for an independent mechanism for their early resolution. Early resolution of commercial disputes shall create a positive image to the investor world about the independent and responsive Indian legal system."

7. The object of the Commercial Courts, Commercial Division and Commercial Appellate Division of High Courts Bill, 2015, was inter alia, to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, as applicable to the Commercial Courts and Commercial Divisions which shall prevail over the existing High Courts Rules and other provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, so as to improve the efficiency and reduce delays in disposal of commercial cases and to accelerate economic growth, improve the international image of the Indian Justice delivery system, and the faith of the investor world in the legal culture of the nation.

8. The Statement of Objects and Reasons of Amendment Act 28 of 2018 states that "The global economic environment has since become increasingly competitive and to attract business at international level, India needs to further improve its ranking in the World Bank 'Doing Business Report' which, inter alia, considers the dispute resolution environment in the country as one of the parameters for doing business. Further, the tremendous economic development has ushered in enormous commercial activities in the country including foreign direct investments, public private partnership, etc., which has prompted initiating legislative measures for speedy settlement of commercial disputes, widen the scope of the courts to deal with commercial disputes and facilitate ease of doing business. Needless to say that early resolution of commercial disputes of even lesser value creates a positive image amongst the investors about the strong and responsive Indian legal system. It is, therefore, proposed to amend the Commercial Courts, Commercial Division and Commercial Appellate Division of High Courts Act, 2015.

9. The object of enactment of Commercial Court Act, 2015 shows that the legislature was concerned about the image of the Indian justice delivery system and the legal culture of the nation, which unfortunately is that the proceedings are not decided expeditiously in the courts in India.

10. Section 16 of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015 provides as follows: -

"16. Amendments to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in its application to commercial disputes.—(1) The provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) shall, in their application to any suit in respect of a commercial dispute of a Specified Value, stand amended in the manner as specified in the Schedule.

(2) The Commercial Division and Commercial Court shall follow the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), as amended by this Act, in the trial of a suit in respect of a commercial dispute of a specified value.

(3) Where any provision of any Rule of the jurisdictional High Court or any amendment to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), by the State Government is in conflict with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), as amended by this Act, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure as amended by this Act shall prevail."

11. By means of Entry 6 of the Schedule appended to the Commercial Courts Act 2015, which is referred to in Section 16 (1), Chapter XV-A has been inserted in C.P.C. applicable to the Commercial Courts, which contains provisions for holding a case management hearing. Rules 1, 2 and 3 of Order XV-A C.P.C. applicable to the Commecial Courts provide as follows: -

"ORDER XV-A

Case Management Hearing

1. First Case Management Hearing.—The court shall hold the first Case Management Hearing, not later than four weeks from the date of filing of affidavit of admission or denial of documents by all parties to the suit.

2. Orders to be passed in a Case Management Hearing.—In a Case Management Hearing, after hearing the parties, and once it finds that there are issues of fact and law which require to be tried, the court may pass an order—

(a) framing the issues between the parties in accordance with Order XIV of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) after examining pleadings, documents and documents produced before it, and on examination conducted by the court under Rule 2 of Order X, if required;

(b) listing witnesses to be examined by the parties;

(c) fixing the date by which affidavit of evidence to be filed by parties;

(d) fixing the date on which evidence of the witnesses of the parties to be recorded;

(e) fixing the date by which written arguments are to be filed before the court by the parties;

(f) fixing the date on which oral arguments are to be heard by the court; and

(g) setting time limits for parties and their advocates to address oral arguments.

3. Time limit for the completion of a trial.—In fixing dates or setting time limits for the purposes of Rule 2 of this order, the court shall ensure that the arguments are closed not later than six months from the date of the first Case Management Hearing."

12. The Commercial Court as well as this Court cannot ignore the provision contained in Section 34 (6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and the object of enactment of Commercial Courts Act, 2015 and the provisions of Order XV-A C.P.C. applicable to the Commercial Courts.

13. The petitioner has approached this Court with a prayer for issuance of a direction for expeditious disposal of the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act in respect of an arbitration award passed way back on 29.05.2019. This Court cannot appreciate the opposition of the respondent No.3 against issuance of such a direction, when the arbitration award directs the respondents to pay a sum of Rs.Six Crores alongwith 18% interest, and the amount of interest is increasing with each passing day and it will be a burden on the public exchequer in case the outcome of the application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act is not favourable to the respondents.

14. T he learned counsel for the petitioner has placed Reliance on an order passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of M/S Chopra Fabricators and Manufacturers Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Bharat Pumps and Compressors Ltd. and another: (2023) 2 SCC 481, where in the Hon'ble Supreme Court expressed its serious concern about the delays in disposal of execution cases filed in the state of Uttar Pradesh for execution of arbitration awards. The Hon'ble Supreme Court had called for a report, which was submitted and after perusing the report, the Supreme Court observed that: -

"The statement, so placed before this Court, shows a very sorry state of affairs insofar as the disputes under the 1940 Act and under the 1996 Act are concerned. From the statement it appears that, 30,154 execution petitions are pending with various District Courts/regular courts in the State of U.P. and the oldest one is of the year 1981. Similarly, in the Commercial Courts, in the State of Uttar Pradesh, 13,367 execution petitions/applications are reported to be pending and the oldest one seems to be of the year 2002."

15. The Hon'ble Supreme Court called for a response from the Chief Justice of this Court as to how this High Court proposes to deal with the pendency of the execution petitions / applications under Section 34 of the 1996 Act at the earliest and within some stipulated time period. The Chief Justice was requested to constitute a special arrears Committee of the judges of the High Court and invite suggestions and formulate a mechanism to tackle with the problem of arrears.

16. The issue was addressed by this Court and certain steps were taken. Thereafter, a comparative status of pendency of arbitration matters was placed before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, which was taken into consideration in an order dated 21.01.2024 passed in the aforesaid case, which indicated that pendency of arbitration cases had reduced significantly after this Court addressed the issue of delay in disposal of execution cases relating to arbitration award. The Hon'ble Supreme Court expressed satisfaction with the steps taken by this High Court and observed that "The steps taken by the High Court and the other courts may be continued in order to bring about a further reduction in the pendency of arbitration cases in Uttar Pradesh.

17. The aforesaid direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court to continue efforts to bring about reduction in pendency of arbitration cases in Uttar Pradesh is to be honoured by this Court as also by the Commercial Court Lucknow.

18. Shri Indu Prakash Singh, learned counsel for the respondent Nos.1 and 2 submitted that the petitioner is seeking expeditious disposal of Case No. 831 of 2019, which is the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act filed by the respondent No.1 and 2 only whereas the other application - Arbitration Case No. 133 of 2023 filed by the respondent no. 3 is also pending in same Court and it has also to be decided along with Case No. 831 of 2019. Therefore, he requests that in case a direction is issued for expeditious disposal of Case No. 831 of 2019, the same should be issued in respect of Arbitration Case No. 133 of 2023 also.

19. Shri Pankaj Srivastava, learned counsel for the respondent No.3 Municipal Corporation Meerut, has seriously opposed the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. It is interesting to note that the case which is sought to be expedited by the petitioner and which is being opposed by the respondent no. 3, has been filed by the respondent nos. 1 and 2 for setting aside an arbitration award passed in favour of the petitioner and the respondent no. 3 is merely a proforma respondent in this case.

20. The learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3 has submitted that the petition has been filed concealing the fact that the proceedings of Case No. 831 of 2019 had been stayed by means of an order dated 05.07.2021 passed by this Court sitting at Allahabad in Transfer Application (Civil) No.278 of 2021. Therefore, the Commercial Court could not have proceeded with the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act till the Transfer Application was finally decided by means of the order dated 10.07.2023. He has submitted that the petition is liable to be dismissed as the petitioner has not approached this Court with clean hands.

21. The respondent no. 3 has filed an application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. read with Article 215 of the Constitution of India filed, which has been titled as 'Perjury Application'. The prayer made in the application is to prosecute and suitably punish the petitioner and Sri Yuvraj Sharma the deponent of the affidavit filed in support of the petitioner under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, for committing the offence of perjury by suppressing true and correct facts and swearing false affidavit before this Court.

22. A perusal of the Arbitration award, from which the proceedings under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act arises, indicates that the petitioner had filed an arbitration claim against the respondent Nos.1, 2 and 3 in the year 2012/2013. The arbitration award was passed on 29.05.2019 directing the respondents to pay amounts under various heads to the petitioner, aggregating to about Rs. 66 Crores, along with 18 % Simple Interest per annum. The liability of interest is increasing day by day and the delay in final disposal of the matter would not be in the interest of the respondent no. 3 also, yet the respondent no. 3 is strongly opposing the petition filed for seeking a direction of expeditious disposal of the matter.

23. Although the arbitration proceedings were held at Lucknow, the arbitration award was passed at Lucknow on 29.05.2019 and the respondent Nos.1 and 2 had filed an application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act bearing Arbitration Case No. 831 of 2019 in the Commercial Court No. 2, Lucknow on 11.09.2019, the respondent No. 3 filed an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act challenging the same award before the District Judge, Meerut on 05.10.2019.

24. Section 42 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act provides that where with respect to an arbitration agreement any application under Part-I of the Act has been made in a court, that court alone shall have jurisdiction over the arbitral proceedings and all subsequent applications arising out of that agreement and the arbitral proceedings shall be made in that court and in no other court. Apparently, after an application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act having been filed in Commercial Court at Lucknow on 11.09.2019, no subsequent application could be filed before any other court. Yet, the respondent No.3 filed the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act at Meerut on 05.10.2019.

25. After expiry of about 1 year and 9 months since filing of the application at Meerut, on 24.06.2021 the respondent no. 3 filed Transfer Application (Civil) No. 278 of 2021 before this Court at Allahabad for transfer of the case from Meerut to Lucknow. An interim order dated 05.07.2021 was passed in the Transfer Application staying the proceedings of application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act filed at Meerut as also the Arbitration Case No.831 of 2019 in the Commercial Court at Lucknow.

26. When there is an arbitration award operating against the respondent Nos.1 to 3, all of whom are State Authorities and there is an award for payment of interest at the rate of 18 % on the awarded amount, the action of the respondent No.3 in first filing an application under Section 34 at Meerut, whereas a previous application had already been filed at Lucknow and the court at Meerut had no jurisdiction in view of the provision contained in Section 42 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, and thereafter filing an application for transfer of the case from Meerut to Lucknow after about 1 year and 9 months and then getting the proceedings under Section 34 pending at Lucknow also stayed for over two years, cannot be appreciated by the Court. This approach is against the interest of justice as also against the interests of the State, as any delay in disposal of the application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act is in no way beneficial to the State. For the same reason, the action of the respondent No.3 in raising a serious objection and opposing the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India seeking a direction for expeditious disposal of the proceedings under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, also cannot be appreciated.

27. While opposing the petition, the learned counsel for the respondent No.3 has submitted that numerous arbitration proceedings were initiated by the petitioner in respect of various contracts of similar nature. In two other matters, proceedings had been expedited by this Court and thereafter the District Judge / Commercial Court started fixing short dates in the matter even though record of the arbitrator had not been received and some orders were passed in these matters, which were detrimental to the interest of the respondents. He has further submitted that the arbitrator's record has been summoned by the Commercial Court, Lucknow, which has not been received till date. In response to a specific query, the learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3 answered that the respondent no. 3 is not a party to any such proceedings in which the alleged orders have been passed.

28. Merely because some other order passed in some other petition for expeditious disposal of this court has resulted in early dates being fixed in some other proceedings under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, wherein record has not been received, cannot be a ground to decline the prayer for expeditious disposal of proceedings under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act in accordance with the law.

29. Regarding the apprehension of the learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3 that in case the proceedings are expedited, the Commercial Court will conclude the same without receipt of the record of the arbitrator and in violation of law, the Commercial Court will be bound to decide the case in accordance with the law only and this apprehension cannot be a ground to decline issuance of a direction for expeditious disposal of the application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, more particularly when the direction would certainly include a direction to the court to proceed with the application "in accordance with the law".

30. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, the petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is allowed. A direction is issued to the learned Commercial Court No. 2, Lucknow to proceed with Arbitration Case No. 831 of 2019 and Arbitration Case No. 133 of 2023 expeditiously without granting any unnecessary adjournments to any of the parties, in accordance with law, particularly keeping in view the provisions contained in Section 34 (6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, the object of establishment of the Commercial Courts and the provisions contained in Section 16 read with Article 6 of the Schedule appended to the Commercial Courts Act, 2015.

Order on Application filed under 340 Cr.P.C. read with Article 215 of the Constitution of India: -

31. This is an application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. read with Article 215 of the Constitution of India filed by the respondent No.3-Municipal Corporation Meerut, which has been titled as 'Perjury Application'. The prayer made in the application is to prosecute and suitably punish the petitioner and Shri Yuvraj Sharma the deponent of the affidavit filed in support of the application, for committing offence of perjury by suppressing the fact that the proceedings of Arbitration case No. 831 of 2019 had remained pending since 05.07.2021 till 10.07.2023.

32. Before commencement of submissions of this application Sri Jaideep Narain Mathur Senior Advocate, stated that the petitioner has committed an error in not disclosing the fact of proceedings having been stayed by this Court sitting at Allahabad in the petition filed under Article 227 of the constitution of India and he tenders unconditional apology for this mistake. However, he stated that the petitioner has disclosed the fact that the respondent no. 3 had filed Transfer Application (Civil) No. 278 of 2021 and he has annexed a copy of the order dated 10.07.2023 passed in that case. He has submitted that the mistake committed by the petitioner, regarding which an unconditional apology has been submitted, does not make out a case for prosecution under Section 340 Cr.P.C. and in case the learned counsel for respondent No. 3 agrees not to press this application, precious time of this Court may be saved so that it can be utilized for some more fruitful purpose but the learned counsel for respondent No.3 insisted that he will establish that a case for prosecution of the petitioner is made out and he would press his application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. Therefore, the Court had to proceed to hear submissions in support of the application and against it also and to pass an order thereon.

33. The learned Counsel for the applicant submitted that Section 340 Cr.P.C. makes a reference to offences referred to in Clause B of sub-Section 1 of Section 195 Cr.P.C. Section 195 (1) (b) Cr.P.C. refers to the offences under Section 193 to 196, 199, 200, 205 to 211, 228, 463, 471, 475 and 476.

He submitted that although he does not defend the mistake of the petitioner in not disclosing the complete facts before this Court, the aforesaid omission does not in any manner make out any of the offences enumerated in Section 195 (1)(b) Cr.P.C.

34. The only ground on which the application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. has been filed is omission to disclose a stay order that was operating for a period 05.07.2021 to 10.07.2023. The learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3 has placed reliance on the provisions contained in Section 8 of the Oath's Act 1969, which provides that "Every person giving evidence on any subject before any court or person hereby authorized to administer oaths and affirmations shall be bound to state the truth on such subject."

35. Learned counsel for respondent No.3 has referred to Chapter4 Rule 17 of a Allahabad High Court Rules 1952 which provides as follows: -

"17. Oath or affirmation by deponent :- The person administering an oath or affirmation to the person making an affidavit, shall follow the provisions of the Indian Oaths Act, 1873.

The following forms are prescribed, namely--

Oath

I swear that this my declaration is true; that it conceals nothing; and that no part of it is false. So help me God.

Affirmation

I solemnly affirm that this my declaration is true; that it conceals nothing; and that no part of it is false."

36. However, the Oaths Act does not contain any provision which may make a person who omits to state the complete truth liable to be prosecuted under Section 340.

37. The Court put a specific question to the learned counsel for respondent No.2 as to which of the offences enumerated under Section 195 (1)(b) Cr.P.C. is made out from the omission of the petitioner to disclose the proceedings having remain stayed by means of an stay order passed by this Court at Allahabad, but the Learned counsel for respondent No.3 could not point out any single offence mentioned in Section 195 Cr.P.C. which attracted in the present case.

38. Section 191 I.P.C. provides as follows:-

"Whoever, being legally bound by an oath or by an express provision of law to state the truth, or being bound by law to make a declaration upon any subject, makes any statement which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, is said to give false evidence."

39. Section 191 makes 'making any statement which is false'a punishable offence. The learned counsel for respondent No.3 had submitted that omitting to state complete truth also amount to making a false statement and, therefore, the omission of the petitioner in not stating about the stay order passed by this Court sitting at Allahabad, amounts to making a false statement.

40. It is a well settled principle of interpretation of statutes that while interpreting a statute, the Court should give plain and simple meaning to the words used by the legislature and the Courts can neither add any word nor subtract any word from the words used by the legislature.

41. The penal laws are required to be interpreted strictly. While interpreting a penal provision, the Court cannot enlarge the scope of the words used by the legislature. When the legislature did not make omission of stating any relevant fact to be an offence under Section 191, the petitioners cannot be punished for the omission to disclose the stay order, which omission would not affect the outcome of this petition in any manner.

42. The learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3 has relied upon the decisions in the case of Dhananjay Sharma Vs. State of Haryana and Others (1995) 3 SCC 757, S. P. Chengal Varaya Naidu Vs. Jagannath and Others (1994) 1 SCC 1, Hamza Haji Vs. State of Kerala (2006) 7 SCC 416, K. D. Sharma Vs. Steel Authority of India Ltd. and Others (2008) 12 SCC 481 and ABCD Vs.Union of India and Others (2020) 2 SCC 52.

43. In Dhananjay Sharma v. State of Haryana, (1995) 3 SCC 757 it was held that: -

"38. ... The swearing of false affidavits in judicial proceedings not only has the tendency of causing obstruction in the due course of judicial proceedings but has also the tendency to impede, obstruct and interfere with the administration of justice. The filing of false affidavits in judicial proceedings in any court of law exposes the intention of the party concerned in perverting the course of justice. The due process of law cannot be permitted to be slighted nor the majesty of law be made a mockery of by such acts or conduct on the part of the parties to the litigation or even while appearing as witnesses. Anyone who makes an attempt to impede or undermine or obstruct the free flow of the unsoiled stream of justice by resorting to the filing of false evidence, commits criminal contempt of the court and renders himself liable to be dealt with in accordance with the Act. Filing of false affidavits or making false statement on oath in courts aims at striking a blow at the rule of law and no court can ignore such conduct which has the tendency to shake public confidence in the judicial institutions because the very structure of an ordered life is put at stake. It would be a great public disaster if the fountain of justice is allowed to be poisoned by anyone resorting to filing of false affidavits or giving of false statements and fabricating false evidence in a court of law. The stream of justice has to be kept clear and pure and anyone soiling its purity must be dealt with sternly so that the message percolates loud and clear that no one can be permitted to undermine the dignity of the court and interfere with the due course of judicial proceedings or the administration of justice...."

44. In S. P. Chengalvaraya Naidu v. Jagannath, (1994) 1 SCC 1, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"1.Fraud avoids all judicial acts, ecclesiastical or temporal" observed Chief Justice Edward Coke of England about three centuries ago. It is the settled proposition of law that a judgment or decree obtained by playing fraud on the court is a nullity and non est in the eyes of law. Such a judgment/decree — by the first court or by the highest court — has to be treated as a nullity by every court, whether superior or inferior. It can be challenged in any court even in collateral proceedings.

* * *

5...The courts of law are meant for imparting justice between the parties. One who comes to the court, must come with clean hands. We are constrained to say that more often than not, process of the court is being abused. Property-grabbers, tax evaders, bank-loan-dodgers and other unscrupulous persons from all walks of life find the court-process a convenient lever to retain the illegal gains indefinitely. We have no hesitation to say that a person, who's case is based on falsehood, has no right to approach the court. He can be summarily thrown out at any stage of the litigation."

45. S. P. Chengalvaraya Naidu (Supra) was followed in Hamza Haji Vs. State of Kerala (Supra).

46. In K.D. Sharma v. SAIL, (2008) 12 SCC 481, it was reiterated that: -

"34. The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court under Article 32 and of the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution is extraordinary, equitable and discretionary. Prerogative writs mentioned therein are issued for doing substantial justice. It is, therefore, of utmost necessity that the petitioner approaching the writ court must come with clean hands, put forward all the facts before the court without concealing or suppressing anything and seek an appropriate relief. If there is no candid disclosure of relevant and material facts or the petitioner is guilty of misleading the court, his petition may be dismissed at the threshold without considering the merits of the claim."

47. S. P. Chengalvaraya Naidu (Supra) was followed in Hamza Haji Vs. State of Kerala (Supra). The Hon'ble Supreme Court did not discuss the provisions of Section 340 Cr.P.C. or Article 215 of the Constitution of India in any of the aforesaid cases.

48. In ABCD v. Union of India, (2020) 2 SCC 52, it was held that: -

"15. Making a false statement on oath is an offence punishable under Section 181 of the IPC while furnishing false information with intent to cause public servant to use his lawful power to the injury of another person is punishable under Section 182 IPC. These offences by virtue of Section 195(1)(a)(i) of the Code can be taken cognizance of by any court only upon a proper complaint in writing as stated in said section."

49. In none of the cases cited by the learned Counsel for the respondent no. 3, an order for prosecution under Section 340 Cr.P.C. was passed. It is settled law that a judgment is an authority for what it actually decides and not for what can be deduced from it. In a Constitution Bench judgment in the case of P. S. Sathappan v. Andhra Bank Ltd., (2004) 11 SCC 672, it was held that:—

"118. ...It is well known that a judgment is an authority for what it decides and not what may even logically be deduced therefrom.

* * *

144. While analysing different decisions rendered by this Court, an attempt has been made to read the judgments as should be read under the rule of precedents. A decision, it is trite, should not be read as a statute.

#

145. A decision is an authority for the questions of law determined by it. While applying the ratio, the court may not pick out a word or a sentence from the judgment divorced from the context in which the said question arose for consideration. A judgment, as is well known, must be read in its entirety and the observations made therein should receive consideration in the light of the questions raised before it. [See Haryana Financial Corpn. v. Jagdamba Oil Mills (2002) 3 SCC 496, Union of India v. Dhanwanti Devi (1996) 6 SCC 44, Nalini Mahajan (Dr.) v. Director of Income Tax (Investigation) (2002) 257 ITR 123 (Del) State of U.P. v. Synthetics and Chemicals Ltd. (1991) 4 SCC 139, A-One Granites v. State of U.P. (2001) 3 SCC 537, and Bhavnagar University v. Palitana Sugar Mill (P) Ltd. (2003) 2 SCC 111], 146. Although decisions are galore on this point, we may refer to a recent one in State of Gujarat v. Akhil Gujarat Pravasi V.S. Mahamandal (2004) 5 SCC 155, wherein this Court held:

"It is trite that any observation made during the course of reasoning in a judgment should not be read divorced from the context in which it was used."

147. It is further well settled that a decision is not an authority for the proposition which did not fall for its consideration."

50. Again, in Amrendra Pratap Singh versus Tej Bahadur Prajapati: (2004) 10 SCC 65, the Hon'ble Supreme Court reiterated that:—

"A judicial decision is an authority for what it actually decides and not for what can be read into it by implication or by assigning an assumed intention to the judges, and inferring from it a proposition of law which the judges have not specifically laid down in the pronouncement."

51. Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in case of Sasikala Pushpa and Others Vs. State of Tamil Nadu (2019) 6 SCC 477, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that:-

"10. It is fairly well settled that before lodging of the complaint, it is necessary that the court must be satisfied that it was expedient in the interest of justice to lodge the complaint. It is not necessary that the court must use the actual words of Section 340 CrPC; but the court should record a finding indicating its satisfaction that it is expedient in the interest of justice that an enquiry should be made. Observing that under Section 340 CrPC, the prosecution is to be launched only if it is expedient in the interest of justice and not on mere allegations or to vindicate personal vendetta. In Iqbal Singh Marwah v. Meenakshi Marwah (2005) 4 SCC 370, this Court held as under:

"23. In view of the language used in Section 340 CrPC the court is not bound to make a complaint regarding commission of an offence referred to in Section 195(1)(b), as the section is conditioned by the words 'court is of opinion that it is expedient in the interests of justice'. This shows that such a course will be adopted only if the interest of justice requires and not in every case. Before filing of the complaint, the court may hold a preliminary enquiry and record a finding to the effect that it is expedient in the interests of justice that enquiry should be made into any of the offences referred to in Section 195(1)(b). This expediency will normally be judged by the court by weighing not the magnitude of injury suffered by the person affected by such forgery or forged document, but having regard to the effect or impact, such commission of offence has upon administration of justice. It is possible that such forged document or forgery may cause a very serious or substantial injury to a person in the sense that it may deprive him of a very valuable property or status or the like, but such document may be just a piece of evidence produced or given in evidence in court, where voluminous evidence may have been adduced and the effect of such piece of evidence on the broad concept of administration of justice may be minimal. In such circumstances, the court may not consider it expedient in the interest of justice to make a complaint."

(Emphasis added)

52. The petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for issuance of a direction for expeditious disposal of the application under Section 34 of the arbitration Act, 1996, which in any case has to be decided expeditiously keeping in view the provisions contained in Section 34 (6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, the object of establishment of the Commercial Courts and the provisions contained in Section 16 read with Article 6 of the Schedule appended to the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. The omission of the petitioner to state the fact of the stay order dated 05.07.2021 would not affect the decision of this petition and, therefore, this omission does not in any manner adversely affects the administration of justice.

53. Although this fact would otherwise not be relevant for decision of the application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. but when the learned counsel for respondent No.3 has vehemently opposed the issuance of a direction for expeditious disposal of proceeding under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, it becomes relevant to notice the conduct of the respondent No.3. The respondent Nos.1 and 2 have filed an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act challenging the arbitration award on 11.09.2019. After that respondent No.3 filed another application under Section 34 for setting aside the same arbitration award at Meerut on 05.10.2019 whereas as per Section 42 of the Arbitration Act, the application could be filed at Lucknow only. Even after getting knowledge about the proceeding under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act pending at Lucknow, the respondent No.3 did not promptly take any steps for transfer of the application to appropriate Court and it filed Transfer Application No.278 of 2021 at Allahabad on 24.06.2021 and by means of an interim order passed in that transfer application filed by the respondent No.3 regarding the proceedings at Meerut, the proceedings of Arbitration Case No.831 of 2019 Lucknow were also stayed on 05.07.2021, which stay order continued till 10.7.2023 thereby causing a delay of more than 2 years in disposal of the application under Section 34 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act. This conduct of the State Authorities when the arbitration award includes a direction for payment of 18% interest on the awarded amount, is detrimental to the public Ex-chequer and in turn to the public at large. Therefore, it appears that the respondent no. 3 itself is interfering in administration of justice by creating unwarranted obstacles in expeditious dispensation of justice.

54. As neither there is averment in the application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. or in the affidavit filed in its support, nor the learned counsel for the petitioner could make it out in his submissions that the petitioner has committed any act which may amount to commission of an offence under Section 191 I.P.C., the application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. is misconceived and the same is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 555
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 10.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Matters U/A 227 No. 2145 of 2024

Shivam Tandon & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
Hindustan Petroleum Corp. Ltd. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Sudeep Kumar, Sri Avdhesh Kumar Pandey, Radhika Varma

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Shikhar Anand, Pushpila Bisht, Sri Shikhar Anand

Civil Law - Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 – Sections 11, 27 & 29-A - Petitioners had filed arbitration application u/s 11 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act,1996 for appointment of Arbitrator - Application was allowed – Arbitrator framed the issues – During proceedings, petitioners filed application u/s 29A before Presiding officer for extension of time for conclusion of arbitration proceedings by a further duration of at least 12 months – Application rejected - Impugned order challenged - Held, the Court can extend the period of arbitration u/s 29-A (4) irrespective of fact whether the application seeking extension of time has been filed before expiry of period specified in sub-Section (1) of Section 29-A or after that - Delay in disposal of application u/s 29- A(4) can't be a reason for rejection of application and Commercial Court has rejected the application on considerations which are not relevant – Hence, impugned order is unsustainable in law, liable to be set aside, substitute arbitrator appointed for completing arbitration proceedings. (Para 3, 8, 38, 41, 45)

Petition allowed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Wadia Techno-Engineering Services Ltd. Vs Director General of Married Accommodation Project, 2023 SCC OnLine Del 2990

2. Hiran Valiiyakkil Lal Vs Vineeth M.VS, 2023 SCC OnLine Ker 5151

3. Reliance Infrastructure Ltd. Vs Madhyanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Del 4894

4. Rohan Builders (India) Pvt. Ltd. Vs Berger Paints India Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Cal 2645

5. ATC Telecom Infrastructure (P) Ltd. Vs BSNL, 2023 SCC OnLine Del 7135

6. H. P. Singh Vs G. M. Northern Railways, 2023 SCC OnLine J&K 1255

7. ATS Infrastructure Ltd. & ors. Vs Rasbehari Traders, O.M.P. (T) (COMM.) 91/2023

8. Hiralal Rattanlal Vs St. of U.P., (1973) 1 SCC 216,

9. Gurudevdatta VKSSS Maryadit Vs St. of Mah., (2001) 4 SCC 534

10. B. Premanand Vs Mohan Koikal, (2011) 4 SCC 266

11. Rakesh Kumar Paul Vs St. of Assam, (2017) 15 SCC 67

12. Vidarbha Industries Power Ltd. Vs Axis Bank Ltd., (2022) 8 SCC 352

13. VS Senthil Balaji Vs St., (2024) 3 SCC 51

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sudeep Kumar assisted by Ms. Radhika Varma, and Sri Shresth Srivastava, Advocates, the learned Counsel for the petitioners and Ms. Pushpila Bisht, Advocate, the learned counsel for the respondents.

2. By means of the instant petition filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners have challenged validity of the order dated 11.03.2024 passed by the Presiding Officer, Commercial Court No.1, Lucknow in Misc. Case No.305 of 2019 under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

3. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that the petitioners had filed Arbitration Application No.45 of 2017 in this Court under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act,1996. This Court allowed the application by means of an order dated 28.02.2018 and appointed Sri Seth Shailendra Nath Tandon H.J.S. (Retd.) as the Arbitrator to decide the disputes between the parties through process of arbitration.

4. The Arbitrator entered upon the reference on 05.04.2018, the petitioners filed his statement of claims on 13.06.2018, the respondents filed their written statement on 28.07.2018 and the petitioners filed their replication on 16.9.2018. The learned Arbitrator framed the issues on 13.10.2018. Thereafter, the matter was fixed for 16.11.2018 for evidence of the claimant and the claimant filed his evidence on the said date. The petitioners filed an application under Section 27 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act for summoning some officers of the respondent Corporation for their examination.

5. On 25.11.2018, the respondents filed their evidence and objections against the petitioners' application under Section 27 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act. Thereafter, the matter was fixed for 22.02.2019, on which date, the respondents sought an adjournment on the ground of illness of their counsel. It was not opposed by the petitioners-claimant and the matter was adjourned and fixed for 02.03.2019. On 02.03.2019, an adjournment was sought on behalf of the respondents as their counsel was not available. This too was not opposed by the claimant and the matter was fixed for 09.03.2019. On 09.03.2019 also, an adjournment was sought on behalf of the respondents, which was opposed by the claimant. However, the Arbitrator granted the adjournment and fixed the matter for 18.03.2019. On 18.03.2019, learned counsel for both the parties were present but the matter was postponed without any effective orders having been passed and the Arbitrator merely directed the parties to deposit the secretarial expenses.

6. On 19.04.2019, the Arbitrator passed an order deciding three applications - C4, C5 and C-6 filed by the claimant for summoning some witnesses, some material evidences and for a direction to the respondents to produce the witnesses or to provide complete address of the witnesses for their examination. The Arbitrator held that the arbitral tribunal itself had got no power to summon any witness and if the claimant wants production of any witness before the arbitral tribunal, the claimant is permitted to move the appropriate Court for summoning of the witnesses or production of any material or goods.

7. On the next date fixed in the arbitration proceedings on 05.05.2019, the Arbitrator recorded in his order that he had been appointed by means of an order dated 05.04.2018 and had issued notice to the parties on 16.04.2018. One year's time had expired and the proceedings could not be completed within the time provided under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act. This Section provides that the time may be extended either by mutual consent of both the parties or the Court may extend the time. Neither the parties had extended time for adjudication of the dispute by the Arbitrator by mutual consent, nor was any order passed by the Court extending the time period of the Arbitrator available on record. The Arbitrator fixed 26.05.2019 for further orders. On 26.05.2019, the Arbitrator again posted the matter for 05.07.2019 for further orders. On 05.07.2019, the matter was posted for 25.07.2019, on which date the respondents declined to extend the time for completion of arbitration proceedings.

8. On 18.9.2019, the petitioners filed an application under Section 29A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 before the Presiding officer, Commercial Court No.1, Lucknow praying for extension of time for conclusion of the arbitration proceedings by a further duration of at least 12 months. The respondents filed objections against the application for extension of time on 12.2.2020. The application has been rejected by means of the impugned order dated 11.03.2024.

9. The Commercial Court has held that the period for conclusion of the arbitral proceedings expired on 06.04.2019 but the claimant did not make a request before the Arbitrator for extension of time. The application for extension of time was filed in the Court after 5 months and 12 days since expiry of the period of one year available to the Arbitrator under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act and the petitioners did not give any explanation for this delay.

10. The Commercial Court further observed that a perusal of the record reveals that the petitioners have filed applications - C4, C5 and C6, and the Arbitrator had passed orders on those applications on 19.04.2019 i.e. 13 days after expiry of his mandate and this order is non-est in law. The petitioners have filed an application under Section 27 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act before the Commercial Court on 30.05.2019 (which date is wrongly mentioned in the impugned order as 26.08.2019), which was filed after termination of mandate of the Arbitrator and the Court had passed an order dated 30.07.2019 on the said application, which too has been passed after termination of the mandate of the Arbitrator.

11. The Commercial Court held that the petitioners' contention that the proceedings could not be concluded within time due to non-corporation of the respondents is not believable in its entirety. It is correct that the respondents have sought adjournment on 02.03.2019, 09.03.2019 and 18.03.2019 but the petitioners have not objected against the requests for adjournments, which indicates that they also intended to cause delay in disposal of the matter.

12. The Commercial Court held that time for completion of arbitration proceedings can be extended under Section 29-A of the Act even after termination of mandate of the Arbitrator yet as the Commercial Court was of the view that the petitioners themselves have caused delay on several dates, the application under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act was liable to be rejected.

13. While assailing the validity of the aforesaid order, the learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the observations made by the Commercial Court in the impugned order that the petitioners did not oppose the request for adjournment made on behalf of the respondents indicates that they intended to cause delay in disposal of the proceedings and, therefore, the application under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act is liable to be rejected, is factually and legally incorrect. The request for adjournment on 3 dates was made due to personal difficulties of the learned counsel for the respondents and in case the learned counsel for the petitioners were courteous and did not object against adjournments sought due to personal difficulties of the learned counsel for the respondent, this is no ground to penalize the petitioners by foreclosing the forum for dispensation of justice through the process of arbitration.

14. The basic object of any judicial or quasi-judicial form is to ensure dispensation of justice and the rules of procedure are framed to aid the Courts and other judicial/quasi-judicial fora in ensuring expeditious disposal of justice. The rules of procedure should not be interpreted/implemented in such a manner as to cause a failure of justice. The endeavor of the Courts to ensure expeditious disposal of cases is appreciated but this endeavor to ensure expedition should not be allowed to override the basic object of the Courts, which is to ensure dispensation of justice to the parties.

15. In the present case, Section 29-A would be applicable as it existed prior to amendment by Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2019 (Act 33 of 2019), which read thus: -

"29-A. Time limit for arbitral award.— (1) The award shall be made within a period of twelve months from the date the arbitral tribunal enters upon the reference.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this sub-section, an arbitral tribunal shall be deemed to have entered upon the reference on the date on which the arbitrator or all the arbitrators, as the case may be, have received notice, in writing, of their appointment.

(2) If the award is made within a period of six months from the date the arbitral tribunal enters upon the reference, the arbitral tribunal shall be entitled to receive such amount of additional fees as the parties may agree.

(3) The parties may, by consent, extend the period specified in sub-section (1) for making award for a further period not exceeding six months.

(4) If the award is not made within the period specified in sub-section (1) or the extended period specified under sub-section (3), the mandate of the arbitrator(s) shall terminate unless the Court has, either prior to or after the expiry of the period so specified, extended the period:

Provided that while extending the period under this sub-section, if the court finds that the proceedings have been delayed for the reasons attributable to the arbitral tribunal, then, it may order reduction of fees of arbitrator(s) by not exceeding five per cent for each month of such delay.

(5) The extension of period referred to in sub-section (4) may be on the application of any of the parties and may be granted only for sufficient cause and on such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the court.

(6) While extending the period referred to in sub-section (4), it shall be open to the court to substitute one or all of the arbitrators and if one or all of the arbitrators are substituted, the arbitral proceedings shall continue from the stage already reached and on the basis of the evidence and material already on record, and the arbitrator(s) appointed under this section shall be deemed to have received the said evidence and material.

(7) In the event of arbitrator(s) being appointed under this section, the arbitral tribunal thus reconstituted shall be deemed to be in continuation of the previously appointed arbitral tribunal.

(8) It shall be open to the Court to impose actual or exemplary costs upon any of the parties under this section.

(9) An application filed under sub-section (5) shall be disposed of by the court as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to dispose of the matter within a period of sixty days from the date of service of notice on the opposite party."

16. Section 29-A, as amended by Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Act, 2019 (Act 33 of 2019) reads as follows: -

"29-A. Time limit for arbitral award.—[(1) The award in matters other than international commercial arbitration shall be made by the arbitral tribunal within a period of twelve months from the date of completion of pleadings under sub-section (4) of Section 23:

Provided that the award in the matter of international commercial arbitration may be made as expeditiously as possible and endeavour may be made to dispose of the matter within a period of twelve months from the date of completion of pleadings under sub-section (4) of Section 23.

(2) If the award is made within a period of six months from the date the arbitral tribunal enters upon the reference, the arbitral tribunal shall be entitled to receive such amount of additional fees as the parties may agree.

(3) The parties may, by consent, extend the period specified in sub-section (1) for making award for a further period not exceeding six months.

(4) If the award is not made within the period specified in sub-section (1) or the extended period specified under sub-section (3), the mandate of the arbitrator(s) shall terminate unless the court has, either prior to or after the expiry of the period so specified, extended the period:

Provided that while extending the period under this sub-section, if the court finds that the proceedings have been delayed for the reasons attributable to the arbitral tribunal, then, it may order reduction of fees of arbitrator(s) by not exceeding five per cent for each month of such delay:

Provided further that where an application under sub-section (5) is pending, the mandate of the arbitrator shall continue till the disposal of the said application:

Provided also that the arbitrator shall be given an opportunity of being heard before the fees is reduced.

(5) The extension of period referred to in sub-section (4) may be on the application of any of the parties and may be granted only for sufficient cause and on such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the court.

(6) While extending the period referred to in sub-section (4), it shall be open to the court to substitute one or all of the arbitrators and if one or all of the arbitrators are substituted, the arbitral proceedings shall continue from the stage already reached and on the basis of the evidence and material already on record, and the arbitrator(s) appointed under this section shall be deemed to have received the said evidence and material.

(7) In the event of arbitrator(s) being appointed under this section, the arbitral tribunal thus reconstituted shall be deemed to be in continuation of the previously appointed arbitral tribunal.

(8) It shall be open to the court to impose actual or exemplary costs upon any of the parties under this section.

(9) An application filed under sub-section (5) shall be disposed of by the court as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to dispose of the matter within a period of sixty days from the date of service of notice on the opposite party."

17. The learned Counsel for the petitioner submitted that there is no authoritative pronouncement of this Court regarding interpretation of Section 29-A (4) and the High Courts of Delhi, Kerala and Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh have held that sub-section (4) provides that the Court is empowered to extend the period for making the award either prior to or after the expiry of the said period, whereas Calcutta High Court has held that Section 29-A(4) uses the word "extension" for the period specified under section 29-A(1) or (3) of the arbitrator's mandate to make the award. There is a conscious omission of the word "renewal" or "revival". This would mean that the continuing mandate of the arbitrator must form the substratum for an application to be made for extension of that mandate.

18. As there is a divergence of opinions of various High Courts on this point, it would be appropriate to have a look at those decisions.

19. In Wadia Techno-Engineering Services Ltd. v. Director General of Married Accommodation Project, 2023 SCC OnLine Del 2990 decided on 16.05.2023, a Single Judge Bench of Delhi High Court held that: -

"23…. The provision clearly provides that the Court may extend the period even after its expiry. Indeed, the second proviso provides that the mandate of the tribunal would continue until the disposal of such a petition. I see no justification in the text of the statute, or on a purposive interpretation thereof, to hold that the power can only be exercised on an application filed prior to the expiry of the mandate."

20. In Hiran Valiiyakkil Lal v. Vineeth M.V., 2023 SCC OnLine Ker 5151 decided on 13.07.2023, it was held that "the sub-section (4) provides that the Court is empowered to extend the period for making the award either prior to or after the expiry of the said period. Sub-section (5) provides that such extension of period may be on the application of any of the parties and may be granted only for sufficient cause and on such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Court. Subject to the above, the time limit specified for arbitral award can be extended by Court."

21. In Reliance Infrastructure Ltd. v. Madhyanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Del 4894 decided on 14.08.2023, another Single Judge Bench of Delhi High Court held that "in terms of Section 29A (4) and (5) of the Act, the mandate of the Arbitrator can be extended by the Court even after expiry of the time for making of the arbitral award on sufficient cause being shown by the party making the application."

22 . However, in Rohan Builders (India) Pvt. Ltd. versus Berger Paints

India Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Cal 2645 decided on 06.09.2023, a Single Judge Bench of Calcutta High Court held that: -

"43. The second proviso to section 29-A(4) hence envisages pendency of an application for extension of the arbitrator's mandate as opposed to filing of an application. Therefore, the mandate can only continue if the application is filed prior to expiry of the mandate and not thereafter. The words in section 29-A(4) "...either prior to or after the expiry of the period so specified..." is a deeming fiction which takes shape to ensure that the application is made during the continuation of the mandate.

44. Section 29-A(4) uses the word "extension" for the period specified under section 29-A(1) or (3) of the arbitrator's mandate to make the award. There is a conscious omission of the word "renewal" or "revival". This would mean that the continuing mandate of the arbitrator must form the substratum for an application to be made for extension of that mandate. If the framers intended that the application for extension could be made at any time after expiry of the mandate, section 29-A(4) would not have used "terminate" but "revive" or "renew"."

23. The learned Counsel for the petitioners informed that a Special Leave Petition filed against the aforesaid order is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

24. In ATC Telecom Infrastructure (P) Ltd. v. BSNL, 2023 SCC OnLine Del 7135 decided on 06.11.2023, another Single Judge Bench of Delhi High Court followed the decision in the case of Wadia Techno-Engineering Services Ltd. (Supra) and held that: -

"25. Thus, under Section 29A(4) of the A&C Act, the termination of the mandate of the arbitrator(s) is subject to the decision of the Court which may be "either prior or after the expiry" of the specified period. The Court would take a suitable decision upon a petition under Section 29A(4) of the A&C Act being filed. Such a petition can be filed either before expiry of the period referred to under Section 29A(1) or Section 29A(3) of the A&C Act or even thereafter. When the Court has been specifically empowered to grant the requisite extension even after expiry of the specified period, it would not be apposite to read a proscription in the statutory provision to the effect that a petition under Section 29A(4) of the A&C Act [seeking extension of time] must be filed before expiry of the specified period and not thereafter. Such a proscription simply does not exist in the statute. On the contrary, as already noticed, the court has been empowered to grant an extension even after expiry of the specified period."

25. The Delhi High Court further held in ATC Telecom Infrastructure (P) Ltd. (Supra) that: -

"27. The facts of the present case also illustrate that the dictum laid down in Rohan Builders (supra) can potentially thwart, rather than subserve the legislative intent. In the present case, there is no controversy that the learned sole Arbitrator has conducted the arbitral proceedings with expedition and despatch, and that there is ample justification for extending the time period for completion of arbitral proceedings and making of the arbitral award. The order dated 18.09.2023 passed by the learned sole Arbitrator even records the consent of the parties in this regard. To deny extension of time in such a case, only because the petition under Section 29A(4) of the A&C Act came to be filed a few days after expiry of the period set out in Section 29A(3) of the A&C Act besides being in the teeth of the language of Section 29A(4) of the A&C Act, seriously undermines the efficacy of the arbitral process and also impinges on party autonomy. Any interpretative exercise must therefore avoid this consequence.

28. For all the above reasons, I am in respectful disagreement with the judgment of Rohan Builders (supra). I am also bound by the view taken by a Co-ordinate bench of this Court in Wadia Techno-Engineering Services (supra)."

26. ATC Telecom Infrastructure (P) Ltd. (Supra) has been followed by Delhi High Court in ATS Infrastructure Ltd. and Ors. Vs. Rasbehari Traders, O.M.P. (T) (COMM.) 91/2023, decided on 17.11.2023. A Special Leave Petition has been filed against the order and the same is pending.

27. In H. P. Singh v. G. M. Northern Railways, 2023 SCC OnLine J&K 1255 decided on 07.12.2023, the High Court of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh held that "I am unable to concur with the view taken by the Calcutta High Court in Rohan (supra), as I am also of the opinion that even after the mandate of the Arbitrator has been terminated on expiry of the term under sub-section (1) or (3) as the case may be, an application for extending the term/mandate will be maintainable under sub-section (4) of section 29A of the Act."

28. The golden rule of interpretation of statutes is that the words used by the legislature have to be given their plain and simple meaning and no other rule of interpretation is to be applied if there is no ambiguity in the legislative provision.

29. In Hiralal Rattanlal v. State of U.P., (1973) 1 SCC 216, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"In construing a statutory provision, the first and the foremost rule of construction is the literary construction. All that we have to see at the very outset is what does that provision say? If the provision is unambiguous and if from that provision, the legislative intent is clear, we need not call into aid the other rules of construction of statutes. The other rules of construction of statutes are called into aid only when the legislative intention is not clear."

30. In Gurudevdatta VKSSS Maryadit v. State of Maharashtra, (2001) 4 SCC 534,the Hon'ble supreme clarified that: -

"26. ...it is a cardinal principle of interpretation of statute that the words of a statute must be understood in their natural, ordinary or popular sense and construed according to their grammatical meaning, unless such construction leads to some absurdity or unless there is something in the context or in the object of the statute to suggest to the contrary. The golden rule is that the words of a statute must prima facie be given their ordinary meaning. It is yet another rule of construction that when the words of the statute are clear, plain and unambiguous, then the courts are bound to give effect to that meaning, irrespective of the consequences. It is said that the words themselves best declare the intention of the law-giver. The courts have adhered to the principle that efforts should be made to give meaning to each and every word used by the legislature and it is not a sound principle of construction to brush aside words in a statute as being inapposite surpluses, if they can have a proper application in circumstances conceivable within the contemplation of the statute."

31. In B. Premanand v. Mohan Koikal, (2011) 4 SCC 266, the Hon'ble Supreme Court reiterated that: -

"9. It may be mentioned in this connection that the first and foremost principle of interpretation of a statute in every system of interpretation is the literal rule of interpretation. The other rules of interpretation e.g. the mischief rule, purposive interpretation, etc. can only be resorted to when the plain words of a statute are ambiguous or lead to no intelligible results or if read literally would nullify the very object of the statute. Where the words of a statute are absolutely clear and unambiguous, recourse cannot be had to the principles of interpretation other than the literal rule.."

32. In Rakesh Kumar Paul v. State of Assam, (2017) 15 SCC 67, the Hon'ble Supreme Court explained the principles of interpretation in the following words: -

"67. While interpreting any statutory provision, it has always been accepted as a golden rule of interpretation that the words used by the legislature should be given their natural meaning. Normally, the courts should be hesitant to add words or subtract words from the statutory provision. An effort should always be made to read the legislative provision in such a way that there is no wastage of words and any construction which makes some words of the statute redundant should be avoided. No doubt, if the natural meaning of the words leads to an interpretation which is contrary to the objects of the Act or makes the provision unworkable or highly unreasonable and arbitrary, then the courts either add words or subtract words or read down the statute, but this should only be done when there is an ambiguity in the language used. In my view, there is no ambiguity in the wording of Section 167(2) of the Code and, therefore, the wise course would be to follow the principle laid down by Patanjali Shastry, C.J. in Aswini Kumar Ghose v. Arabinda Bose AIR 1952 SC 369, where he very eloquently held as follows:

"26. ... It is not a sound principle of construction to brush aside words in a statute as being inapposite surplusage, if they can have appropriate application in circumstances conceivably within the contemplation of the statute."

In Jugalkishore Saraf v. Raw Cotton Co. Ltd. AIR 1955 SC 376, S.R. Das, J., speaking for this Court, held as follows:

"6. ... The cardinal rule of construction of statutes is to read the statutes literally, that is, by giving to the words used by the legislature their ordinary, natural and grammatical meaning."

68. External aids of interpretation are to be used only when the language of the legislation is ambiguous and admits of two or more meanings. When the language is clear or the ambiguity can be resolved under the more common rules of statutory interpretation, the court would be reluctant to look at external aids of statutory interpretation.

69. Gajendragadkar, J., speaking for this Court in Kanai Lal Sur v. Paramnidhi Sadhukhan AIR 1957 SC 907, held :

"6. ... the first and primary rule of construction is that the intention of the legislature must be found in the words used by the legislature itself."

70. These sound principles of statutory construction continue to hold the field. When the natural meaning of the words is clear and unambiguous, no external aids should be used."

33. Following the aforesaid judgments in the cases of Hiralal Rattanlal and B. Premanand (Supra), in Vidarbha Industries Power Ltd. v. Axis Bank Ltd., (2022) 8 SCC 352, the Hon'ble Supreme Court reiterated that "It is well settled that the first and foremost principle of interpretation of a statute is the rule of literal interpretation".

34. In V. Senthil Balaji v. State, (2024) 3 SCC 51, the Hon'ble Supreme Court laid down that "When there is no need for a purposive interpretation and the statute clearly expresses its intendment, an act of judicial surgery is best avoided."

35. The unamended Section 29-A(4) provided that If the award is not made within the period specified in sub-section (1) or the extended period specified under sub-section (3), the mandate of the arbitrator(s) shall terminate unless the Court has, either prior to or after the expiry of the period so specified, extended the period. Even after amendment of the Section, this sub-section continues to remain the same.

36. Thus the words used by the legislature in Section 29-A (4) are clear that the Court may extend the period either prior to or after the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (1) of Section 29-A. Thus it is clear that the Court may extend the period for completion of arbitration proceedings beyond one year even after expiry of the period and there is no condition that the Court can extend the period only if an application in this regard has been made prior to expiry of the period.

37. When the legislature has not used any words to restrict the power of the Court under Section 29-A(4) to be exercised only in cases where an application under that provision is filed before expiry of the period mentioned in Section 29-A(1), it is impermissible in law to read these words by implication by applying any principles of interpretation of Statutes.

38. Therefore, the law is clear that the Court can extend the period of arbitration under Section 29-A (4) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 irrespective of the fact whether the application seeking extension of time has been filed before expiry of the period specified in sub-Section (1) of Section 29-A or after that.

39. In the present case, the Commercial Court has rightly held that time for completion of arbitration proceedings can be extended under Section 29-A of the Act even after termination of mandate of the Arbitrator, yet it denied extension of time under Section 29-A (4) for the sole reason that the claimant had not opposed the requests for adjournment made on the ground of personal difficulties of the learned Counsel for the respondent on three occasions. This approach of the Commercial Court cannot be appreciated by this Court, as it has resulted in denial of justice to the claimant / petitioner. This reason recorded by the Commercial Court is even factually incorrect, as the petitioner had not opposed the requests for adjournment only on two dates, i.e. 22.02.2019 and 02.03.2019. On the third date, i.e. 09.03.2019, the petitioner had opposed the respondent's request for adjournment but the arbitrator had granted the adjournment.

40. The Commercial Court has also supported his order by observing that a period of 4 ½ years was spent in disposal of the application under Section 29-A (4). It is relevant to note that Section 29-A(9) provides that "An application filed under sub-section (5) shall be disposed of by the court as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to dispose of the matter within a period of sixty days from the date of service of notice on the opposite party". It is the duty of the Court follow this legislative mandate and the responsibility for delay in disposal of the application cannot be entirely fastened on a party – more particularly when the order does not contain any factual particulars as to how the petitioner was responsible for delay in disposal of the application under Section 29-A(4).

41. In any case, the delay in disposal of the application under Section 29-A(4) cannot be a reason for rejection of the application and it appears that the Commercial Court has rejected the application on considerations which are not relevant.

42. In view of the foregoing discussion, I am of the considered view that the impugned order dated 11.03.2024 passed by the Presiding Officer, Commercial Court No.1, Lucknow in Misc. Case No.305 of 2019 rejecting the petitioner's application for extension of time for completion of arbitration proceedings under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, is unsustainable in law.

43. The learned counsel for the respondents has opposed the petition but she has not seriously disputed the power of the Court to grant extension of time for conclusion of arbitral proceedings in the interest of justice even after expiry of the mandate of the arbitrator, particularly when the proceedings had reached an advanced stage. However, she has submitted that as the respondents had declined to extend the mandate of Arbitrator, the respondents would be apprehensive in getting a fair hearing before the Arbitrator, whose mandate they had declined to extend. Therefore, she requests that in case the period for conclusion of arbitration proceedings is extended under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, this court may substitute the Arbitrator. The learned counsel for the petitioners has no objection to the aforesaid submissions of the learned counsel for the respondents.

44. In view of the aforesaid submissions, without going into the reasonableness of the respondent's apprehension, in view of the consensus between the learned Counsel for the parties, it appears to be just to pass an order substituting the Arbitrator. Both the learned Counsel agree for appointment of Sri. Deepak Kumar, H.J.S. (Retd.), resident of 3/310, Vinamra Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, as the substitute arbitrator for completion of the arbitration proceedings.

45. Accordingly, this petition deserves to be allowed. The impugned order dated 11.03.2024 passed by the Presiding Officer, Commercial Court No.1, Lucknow in Misc. Case No.305 of 2019 rejecting the petitioner's application for extension of time for completion of arbitration proceedings under Section 29-A of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 is liable to be set aside and the application under Section 29-A filed by the petitioner before the Commercial Court deserves to be allowed. The substitute arbitrator to be appointed by this Court will complete the arbitration proceedings between the parties within a period of one year from the date of first appearance of the parties before him.

46. The office is directed to obtain consent of Sri. Deepak Kumar, H.J.S. (Retd.), resident of 3/310, Vinamra Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, for acting as the Arbitrator for deciding the dispute between the parties in terms of Schedule VI of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

47. List on 24.05.2024 for further orders.

(2024) 5 ILRA 566
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 06.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DR. YOGENDRA KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Matters Under Article 227 No. 3254 of 2024

Kailash & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Phool Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 – Sections 307, 506, 34 – The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Sections 200, 202, 204 – As per complaint – Petitioner no. 1 has been assigned the role of firing with pistol, while Petitioner no. 2 has been assigned the role of exhortation - Allegations have been supported by St.ments u/s 200, 202 Cr.P.C. - Medical report is indicative of firearm injuries - Submission that at the stage of summoning, the Magistrate is only required to record a prima facie opinion, based on material on record, and is not expected to hold a mini trial or to examine defence of accused – Scope of procedure followed by Magistrate - Held, allegations in complaint have been found to be supported in the St.ment made by complainant during the course of examination and also by St.ments of witnesses recorded during the course of inquiry made by Magistrate – Summoning order has been passed by trial court after taking due consideration of material available on record – Hence, the order passed by court below doesn't suffer from any infirmity and also the revisional court order affirming the summoning order of Magistrate can't be faulted, for the same reason. (Para 2, 4, 5, 13)

Petition dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. S.W. Palanitkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar & anr., (2002) 1 SCC 241

2. Nirmaljit Singh Hoon Vs St. of West Bengal & anr., (1973) 3 SCC 753

3. Chandra Deo Singh Vs Prokash Chandra Bose, (1964) 1 SCR 639

4. Smt. Nagawwa Vs Veeranna Shivalingappa Konjalgi & ors., (1976) 3 SCC 736

5. Nupur Talwar Vs Central Bureau of Investigation & anr., (2012) 11 SCC 465

6. Sanjay Singh & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2021 (117) ACC 479

7. Pinkal Singh @ Raghvendra Singh & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr., 2021 (3) ACR 2461

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dr. Yogendra Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Phool Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Prem Prakash Tiwari, learned AGA-I appearing for the State-respondent.

2. The present petition has been filed seeking to assail the summoning order dated 05.05.2023 passed in Complaint Case No. 5683 of 2019 (Anar Singh Vs. Kailash and others), under Sections 307, 506, 34 IPC, and the subsequent order dated 22.12.2023 passed in Criminal Revision No. 75 of 2023 (Kailash Vs. Anar Singh and others), in terms of which the earlier order has been affirmed.

3. Counsel for the petitioners has sought to assail the orders by referring to the factual aspects of the case, and the defence which is to be set up on behalf of the petitioners.

4. Learned AGA-I submits that, as per the complaint version, the petitioner no. 1 has been assigned the role of firing with a pistol, and the petitioner No. 2 has been assigned the role of exhortation, as per the statement of the injured, and the complaint allegations have been supported by the statements under Section 200 and 202 Cr.P.C., and also that the medical report is indicative of the firearm injuries.

5. It is submitted that at the stage of summoning, the Magistrate is only required to record a prima facie opinion, based on the material on record, and is not expected to hold a mini trial or to examine the defence of the accused.

6. The procedure to be followed by the Magistrate upon taking cognizance, on a complaint, as per Sections 200, 202 and 204 of the Code and the degree of satisfaction to be recorded at this stage would be required to be referred to for the purpose of the controversy involved in the present case.

7. Section 200 provides that the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence on a complaint shall examine upon oath the complainant and the witnesses present, if any, and that the substance of such examination shall be reduced to writing and shall be signed by the complainant and the witnesses, and also by the Magistrate. The object of such examination is with a view to ascertain whether there is a prima facie case against the person accused of the offence in the complaint, and to prevent the issue of process on a complaint which is either false or vexatious or intended only to harass such person.

8. The object of section 202 is to enable the Magistrate to form an opinion as to whether the process is to be issued or not. The purpose of the investigation to be directed under this section is to help the Magistrate in arriving at a decision as to the issuance of process. The broad based inquiry by the Magistrate, as contemplated under this section, is with a view to enable him to arrive at a decision as to whether he should dismiss the complaint or whether he should proceed to issue process upon the complaint.

9. The provisions contained under sections 200, 202 and 204 of the Code and the degree of satisfaction required to be recorded at this stage by the Magistrate was subject matter of consideration in S.W. Palanitkar and Others v. State of Bihar and Another and it was held that test which was required to be applied was whether there is "sufficient ground for proceeding" and not whether there is "sufficient ground for conviction". Referring to the earlier decisions in the case of Nirmaljit Singh Hoon v. State of West Bengal and Another, Chandra Deo Singh v. Prokash Chandra Bose, and Smt. Nagawwa v. Veeranna Shivalingappa Konjalgi and Others, it was stated that the scope of inquiry under section 202 is limited only to the ascertainment of the truth or falsehood of the allegations made in the complaint (i) on the material placed by the complainant before the court; (ii) for the limited purpose of finding out whether a prima facie case for issue of process has been made out; (iii) for deciding the question purely from the point of view of the complainant without at all adverting to any defence that the accused may have.

10. The sufficiency of the material and the test to be applied at the stage of issue of process again came up for consideration in the case of Nupur Talwar v. Central Bureau of Investigation and Another and it was reiterated that the limited purpose of consideration of material at the stage of issuing process being tentative as distinguished from the actual evidence produced during trial, the test to be applied at the stage was whether the material placed before the Magistrate was "sufficient for proceeding against the accused" and not "sufficient to prove and establish the guilt".

11. The object of the inquiry under Section 202 is not akin to a trial, which can only take place after issuance of process. The inquiry made by the Magistrate, at this stage, is only with a view to ascertain the truth or falsehood of the complaint, with reference to the intrinsic quality of the statements made before him at the inquiry, which would mean the complaint, the statement on oath made by the complainant and the statements made by persons examined at the instance of the complainant. At the stage of issue of process under Section 204, the Magistrate is only to decide whether there exists sufficient ground or not for proceeding in the matter.

12. The aforementioned legal position has been considered in a recent decision of this Court in Sanjay Singh and Another Vs. State of U.P. and Another and followed in another decision in Pinkal Singh @ Raghvendra Singh and Others vs. State of U.P. and Another.

13. In the case at hand, the allegations in the complaint have been found to be supported in the statement made on oath by the complainant during the course of examination under section 200 and also by the statements of the witnesses recorded during the course of inquiry made by the Magistrate under section 202. The order summoning the accused petitioners passed by the trial court indicates that the same has been passed taking due consideration of the material available on record. Reference has been made to the statements under Sections 200 and 202 and also the fact that the statements recorded support the complaint allegations. The order passed by the court below issuing process thus does not suffer from any infirmity so as to warrant interference by this Court. The order passed by the revisional court affirming the summoning order of the Magistrate, also cannot be faulted, for the same reason.

14. Counsel for the petitioners has not been able to dispute the aforesaid factual and legal position.

15. Having regard to the aforesaid, this Court is not inclined to entertain this petition in exercise of its supervisory power under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

16. The petition stands dismissed accordingly.

(2024) 5 ILRA 569
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE JAYANT BANERJI, J.

Matters U/A 227 No. 8348 of 2023 (CIVIL)

Maharaj Kumari Vishnupriya ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Rithvik Upadhyay, Sri V.K. Upadhyay (Sr. Adv.)

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Sanjay Singh, Sri Saurabh Raj Srivastava, Sri Anil Kumar (Sr. Adv.)

Criminal Law - Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 - Sections 3, 12, 23, 18 &22 – The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 - Section 340 - Applicability of DV Act is due to domestic violence inflicted on petitioner who is in a domestic relationship with respondent no.2, related by consanguinity - The protection order u/s 18 is being sought in application u/s 23 in respect of immovable property - Till the issue of title with regard to properties is finally decided by competent court, the petitioner claiming to be an 'aggrieved person' in a 'domestic relationship', is subjected to 'domestic violence', entitled to claim benefits and protection - Civil Court have jurisdiction to determine rights of parties and make appropriate decrees - Where in application u/s 12, permissible amendment in view of subsequent developments is made, additional permissible relief is sought, a fresh application u/s 23 would be maintainable - Protection order to be passed by Magistrate on being satisfied that domestic violence had taken place or was likely to take place – Direction to petitioner to move application before civil court, where civil suit is pending, pertaining to properties for temporary injunction or protection order – Directions accordingly. (Para 26, 27, 29, 30)

Petition disposed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Satish Chander Ahuja Vs Sneha Ahuja, (2021) 1 SCC 414

2. Himani Alloys Ltd. Vs Tata Steel Ltd, (2011) 15 SCC 273

3. Kunapareddy Vs Kunapareddy Swarna Kumari &oOrs., (2016) 11 SCC 774

4. Vaishali Abhimanyu Joshi Vs Nanasaheb Gopal Joshi, (2017) 14 SCC 373

5. Deoki Panjhiyara Vs Shashi Bhushan Narayan Azad & anr, (2013) 2 SCC 137

(Delivered by Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.)

1. Heard Shri V.K. Upadhyay, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Ritvik Upadhya, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Anil Kumar Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Shri Saurabh Raj Srivastava, learned counsel appearing for the respondents.

2. This petition has been filed seeking to set aside the order dated 2.6.2023 passed by the Additional District Judge, Court No. 14, Varanasi in Criminal Appeal No. 70 of 2022 (Maharaj Kumari Vishnupriya vs. State of U.P. and others) with a further relief to prohibit and restrain the respondents from committing any act of economic abuse against the petitioner by alienating or creating in any manner whatsoever third party interest over any part of the properties as mentioned in the schedule to the application dated 30.10.2021 of the petitioner (Annexure No. 7) and also not to interfere in the peaceful possession of the petitioner.

3. It appears from the record of this petition that the petitioner is the daughter of late Vibhuti Narain Singh, who was the erstwhile ruler of the State of Banaras and has been continuously living in the fort of Ramnagar since childhood. The respondent No. 2 is the youngest sibling of the petitioner and son of late Vibhuti Narain Singh who also continues to stay along with the petitioner as a family member in the Ramnagar Fort even after the demise of his father on 25.12.2000.

4. After the death of their father, it is alleged that the petitioner and another family member were subjected to misbehaviour, manhandling and torture, which were engineered to dispossess her from her residence in Ramnagar Fort and other properties to which she is entitled. The reasons for staying in her matrimonial home has been explained by the petitioner in paragraph nos. 7, 8 and 9 of the petition. It has been stated that after the death of Vibhuti Narain Singh, domestic violence was committed by the Respondent No. 2 and he took into his custody various documents including the recorded family settlement of 8.12.1969 which was reduced in writing on 16.7.1970 and other documents of title, etc. and he created a situation in the residence which became non-conducive to the peaceful residence of the petitioner. This led to the institution of a case by means of an application under Section 12 read with Section 23 of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005 in October 2011. The court of the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No. 10, Varanasi, by an order dated 21.10.2011, prohibited the petitioner no. 2 from interfering in the shared household in the possession of the petitioner over properties reflected in Annexure Nos. C1 and C2 of the application and not to evict her, not to create any hindrance and not to harass her during pendency of the aforesaid case under the DV Act. The order dated 21.10.2011 was affirmed by the Supreme Court.

Thereafter an application under Section 23 of the DV Act was filed on 30.10.2021 seeking a direction under Section 18 of the DV Act for restraining the petitioner No. 2 from transferring the properties specified in the schedule to that application. The schedule to the application specified several plots of land with their respective areas in Mauza Kodopur, Pargana Ramnagar, Tehsil and District Varanasi. Objections were filed by the respondent No. 2 on 7.1.2021. By an order dated 12.4.2022, the trial court observed that it is the civil court which would be competent to grant the relief sought in the application dated 30.10.2021. Challenging the aforesaid order dated 12.4.2022, an appeal bearing Criminal Appeal No. 70 of 2022 was filed in the court of the District and Sessions Judge, Varanasi seeking setting aside of the order dated 12.4.2022. By the impugned judgment and order dated 2.6.2022, the appeal was dismissed.

5. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the property in dispute includes both that are mentioned in the schedule to the application made by the petitioner in the year 2011 under Section 12 read with Section 23 of the DV Act, as well as the properties mentioned in the schedule enclosed with the application dated 30.10.2021. It is stated that given the definition of the terms “aggrieved person”,

"domestic relationship", "domestic violence", "shared household" appearing in section 3 of the DV Act, as well as the term "economic abuse" appearing in Explanation 1 to Section 3 of the DV Act, the properties in dispute are well within the jurisdiction of the courts under the DV Act. It is stated that the Magistrate is empowered to grant protection orders for prohibiting the respondents from committing any act of domestic violence as well as for prohibiting the respondents from alienating any assets of the aggrieved person that may be held jointly by the aggrieved person and the respondent or singly by the petitioner, including her 'stridhan' or any other property held either jointly by the parties or separately by them. It is further contended that given the provisions of Section 26 of the DV Act, any relief available under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 may also be sought in any legal proceeding, before civil court, family court, or a criminal court, affecting the aggrieved person and the respondent, whether such proceeding was initiated before or after the commencement of the DV Act, and any relief referred in that provision could be sought for in addition to and along with any other relief that the aggrieved person may seek in such suit or legal proceeding before a civil or criminal court. However, the only condition that is imposed on the aggrieved person is that in case any relief has been obtained by her in any proceedings other than the proceeding under the DV Act, she shall be bound to inform the magistrate for the grant of such relief. The contention is that given the fact that the family settlement of 8.12.1969 that was reduced in writing on 16.7.1970 which has been admitted by the respondent no. 2 time and again in various proceedings including in the proceedings under the D.V. Act, the courts exercising jurisdiction under the DV Act had jurisdiction to grant an appropriate order under Section 23 of the DV Act, and it is a case of failure to exercise jurisdiction by the courts concerned against which the petitioner is aggrieved. The learned counsel has referred to a judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Satish Chander Ahuja v. Sneha Ahuja to contend that the court while exercising jurisdiction under Section 18 of the DV Act would exercise civil jurisdiction. The learned counsel has referred to Annexure No. 1 in the rejoinder affidavit to contend that the appellate court had noticed that the Protection Officer in its letter dated 28.4.2018 had no right to travel beyond the scope of the inquiry that she was required to conduct. The learned counsel for the petitioner has further sought to contend that the delay attributed to the petitioner in filing the subsequent application dated 30.10.2021 was not as a result of any deliberate act on her part but was actually attributable to the circumstances emerging out of transfer of properties by the respondent No. 2 in the year 2021.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has also pressed an application No.3 of 2023 filed under Chapter XXII Rule 1 of the Allahabad High Court Rules read with Section 340 Cr.P.C. for initiation of criminal prosecution against the respondent no.2 and one Shatrughan Singh for deliberately making the false and misleading statement in the counter affidavit dated 6.11.2023.

6. On the other hand, Shri Anil Kumar Srivastava, learned Senior Advocate has referred to the judgment of the High Court dated 4.1.2019 and the order of the Supreme Court dated 2.9.2019 to contend that the subsequent application dated 30.10.2021 was deliberately filed by the petitioner to delay and defeat the outcome of the case instituted under the DV Act which were directed by this Court as well as by the Supreme Court for being decided expeditiously. The learned counsel has referred to orders passed by the trial and appellate courts. It is stated that mutation with regard to the disputed properties has already taken place in favour of the respondent no. 2 and as such, no stay or injunction can be granted by the criminal court under the provisions of the DV Act inasmuch as it is the civil court which is competent to adjudicate that matter relating to immovable properties. The learned counsel for the respondent No. 2 has referred to a communication made by the Protection Officer, Varanasi dated 28.4.2018, that has been enclosed as an Annexure No. 1 to the counter affidavit, to contend that a categorical observation was made in that letter that there is no evidence of domestic violence because both the plaintiff and the respondent are residing in their separate portions of the premises. Learned counsel has also referred to the Original Suit No. 165 of 2022, a copy of the plaint, which has been enclosed as Annexure No. 3 to the counter affidavit to demonstrate that a civil suit with regard to the property in dispute is pending. It is therefore urged that rejection of the application dated 30.10.2021 was justified.

7. On perusal of the record, it appears that the aforesaid application under Section 12 read with Section 23 of the DV Act, bearing No.829 of 2011, was filed by the petitioner against the respondent no.2 claiming to be an aggrieved person who is living in a shared household in a domestic relationship and is being subjected to domestic violence. The petitioner stated that she was residing in her paternal home and soon after the death of her father, the respondent no.2 asked her to leave the house and subjected her to domestic violence. Allegation of damage to the rooms, kitchens and storerooms that are in her possession by the respondent no.2 was made, the details of which properties were mentioned in Annexures C-1 and C-2 enclosed alongwith the application. A relief, inter alia, was sought against the respondent no.2 for restraining him and his agents from dispossessing the petitioner from the shared household or making any alteration or demolition in the said portions which are in the exclusive possession of the petitioner. By an order of 21.10.2011, the Magistrate passed the restraint order in respect of that part of the shared household reflected in Annexures C-1 and C-2 to the aforesaid application.

8. The order dated 21.10.2011 was challenged in an appeal before the Additional Sessions Judge who, by his judgment and order dated 7.3.2013, dismissed the appeal and affirmed the order dated 21.10.2011 passed by the Magistrate. Against the aforesaid orders dated 21.10.2011 and 7.3.2013, Criminal Revision No.1499 of 2013 was preferred by the respondent no.2 before this Court, in which the Court held that there was no error in the orders dated 21.10.2011 and 7.3.2013. However, the applications pending before the trial court as well as the Case No.829 of 2011 itself were directed to be decided expeditiously. The judgment of this Court in the aforesaid criminal revision was challenged before the Supreme Court by means of a Special Leave Petition (Criminal), which was dismissed by an order dated 2.9.2013 while directing the trial court to expeditiously dispose of the case within a period of six months.

9. Thereafter, certain plots of agricultural land situated in Mauza Kodopur, Pargana Ramnagar, Tehsil & District Varanasi, that are stated to be part of an oral family settlement, which later came to be recorded in a memorandum, were being alienated by the respondent no.2 despite the fact that, as stated, the petitioner alone was the owner under the family settlement. Therefore, the aforesaid fresh application dated 30.10.2021 was filed by the petitioner under Section 23 of the DV Act seeking protection order under Section 18 in respect of those immovable properties.

10. Objections were filed by the respondent no.2 and in paragraph 7 whereof, apparently, an admission was made with regard to the family settlement. The claim of the petitioner made in the application dated 30.10.2021 was refuted. By an order dated 12.4.2022, the Magistrate rejected the application dated 30.10.2021 filed by the petitioner. The Magistrate observed that a civil suit is pending between the parties and in the revenue records, the name of the respondent no.2 was recorded; that till the time the civil court does not decide the suit, it cannot be said with certainty that the petitioner is the owner of the property; that as only on that basis the respondent no.2 is alienating the property, he cannot be restrained under the DV Act. The Magistrate noted that on 21.10.2011, with regard to the shared household of the petitioner, an interim relief was granted till the final disposal of the application under the DV Act; that in Annexures C-1 and C-2, there is no record of any arazi number, whereas the application dated 30.10.2021 reflects several arazi numbers along with areas seeking relief with respect to those properties. It was held that the petitioner had not been able to prove how the order dated 20.10.2011 was being violated; that orders could be passed only with regard to the shared household under the DV Act, and that no order could be made for restraining the transfer of properties as sought in the application. It was, accordingly, held that the jurisdiction with regard to the restraining transfer of the properties mentioned in the application dated 30.10.2021 was with the civil court and as far as the right of the petitioner with regard to the shared household is concerned, an order dated 20.10.2011 had already been passed. The application dated 30.10.2021 filed by the petitioner was, accordingly, rejected.

11. Against the aforesaid order of the Magistrate, an appeal being Criminal Appeal No.70 of 2022, was filed by the petitioner in which objections were filed by the respondent no.2. The respondent no.2 stated that he is the recorded owner of the properties mentioned in the application dated 30.10.2021. The petitioner had no right over the personal properties of the erstwhile ruler of Banaras; his name is recorded in the khatauni as per rules and if there is any objection to the same, it may be raised before the revenue courts; there is no jurisdiction of the Magisterial court nor can any interference be made therein; there is no collusion between the respondent no.2 and the vendees mentioned in the two sale-deeds; the vendees are not parties to the proceedings and in this connection it is only the civil court which has jurisdiction to try the matter regarding the two sale-deeds; in case there is any non-compliance of the order of the court, then it has to be clearly mentioned in the application; the petitioner has sought a new relief in that application, and accordingly, the application deserves to be dismissed.

12. The appellate court framed a point for determination that whether another application under Section 23 of the DV Act can be filed during the validity of the order dated 2.10.2011 (sic 21.10.2011) passed in the previous application under Section 23 of the DV Act.

13. The appellate court noted that the previous order dated 21.10.2011 mentioned in the application dated 30.10.2021 reflects that an order under Section 23 of the DV Act was passed and on the part of the properties in possession reflected in Annexures C-1 and C-2, the respondent no. 2 was restrained from evicting the petitioner, creating any obstruction to persons meeting her and creating any obstruction with regard to the repairs being carried out by the petitioner in her portion of the properties; the complaint under Section 23 is pending trial. The appellate court observed that the issue whether the respondent No. 2 had right to execute the sale-deeds dated 20.7.2021 and 24.8.2021, can be decided by a civil court in a civil suit. Under the DV Act, a summary proceeding is prescribed in which the criminal procedure is used and under the circumstances, at the stage of the appeal or the trial, the issue cannot be looked into.

It was observed that as regards the entries made in the revenue records, the name of respondent no.2 is recorded and the petitioner had stated that she is the owner of the same immovable properties under a family settlement. It was observed that while adopting summary proceedings prescribed under the DV Act, the issue (regarding immovable properties) cannot be decided by the court; that in case any property is charged against the maintenance amount, then in respect of those properties, orders can be passed by the concerned court that that property would remain encumbered with the charge. It was held that since no charge was created with regard to any interim maintenance, therefore, such an order also could not be passed. It was observed that if the name of the respondent had been wrongly recorded, for setting it aside, the responsibility rested with the petitioner as the entries made in the revenue records are presumed to be correct. However, the appellate court did observe that the entries in the revenue records are not proof of title but pertain to recovery of land revenue only. It was observed that the proceedings under the DV Act are 'quasi-civil' which have to be decided on preponderance of probability and since, on the basis of possession, a prima facie presumption can be drawn regarding ownership; under such circumstances, only by the procedure prescribed by law, the matter can be set aside by the revenue court. The appellate court held that the petitioner is admittedly enforcing her right relating to immovable properties which cannot be done under the DV Act; the order of the trial court dated 12.4.2022 was passed after including (sic) the order dated 21.10.2011 and no fact had been stated that the order has been disobeyed; in the original complaint no such prayer had been sought by the petitioner as in the application dated 30.10.2021. During the effectiveness of the order dated 20.10.2011 (sic 21.10.2011), further interim order was being sought and that too in respect of a subject matter for which no relief can be granted under the DV Act. The appeal was, accordingly, dismissed.

14. As noted above, initially the application/complaint dated 11.10.2011 under section 12 read with section 23 of the DV Act was filed seeking relief in respect of the shared household that was mentioned in Annexures C-1 and C-2 to that application. The interim order passed by the Magistrate dated 21.10.2011 is effective till the disposal of the complaint case.

15. Sections 12 to 29 of the DV Act fall under Chapter IV of the DV Act, which relates to procedures for obtaining orders seeking reliefs. Under Section 12 of the DV Act, an aggrieved person or a Protection Officer or any other person on behalf of an aggrieved person may present an application to the Magistrate seeking one or more reliefs under the DV Act. The reliefs sought for may include a relief for issuance of an order for payment of compensation or damages without prejudice to the right of such persons to institute a suit for compensation or damages for the injuries caused by the acts of domestic violence committed by the respondent. Every application is required to be in the prescribed format or as nearly as possible thereto. The Magistrate is enjoined to endeavour to dispose of every such application within a period of 60 days from the date of its first hearing. Section 13 provides for service of notice on the respondent concerned and on any other person, through the Protection Officer. Section 14 gives power to the Magistrate to direct the respondent or aggrieved person to undergo counselling with any member of the service provider possessing such qualifications and experience in counselling as may be prescribed. Section 15 deals with assistance of welfare experts to the Magistrate. Section 16 gives a discretion to the Magistrate to conduct the proceedings under the DV Act in camera. Section 17 deals with the right of every woman in a domestic relationship to reside in the shared household whether or not she has right, title or any beneficial interest in the same. The aggrieved person cannot be evicted or excluded from the shared household or any part of it by the respondent except in accordance with the procedure established by law. Section 18 deals with protection order that may be passed by the Magistrate on being satisfied that domestic violence has taken place. Section 19 deals with residence orders that may be passed by the Magistrate on being prima facie satisfied that domestic violence has taken place, where the matter concerns the residence of the aggrieved person in a shared household. Section 20 provides for direction regarding monetary relief which may be made by the Magistrate while disposing of the application under sub-section (1) of section 12. Section 21 deals with custody orders that may be passed by the Magistrate at any stage of hearing of the application for protection order in respect of temporary custody of any child or children to the aggrieved person or the person making an application on her behalf. Section 22 deals with compensation orders that the Magistrate may pass in addition to other reliefs as may be granted under the DV Act. Section 23 invests power in the Magistrate to pass an interim ex-parte order as he deems just and proper, on the basis of an affidavit of the aggrieved person under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 or, as the case may be, Section 22, against the respondent. Section 25 provides for the duration and alteration of protection orders made under Section 18. Section 26 reads as follows:-

"26. Relief in other suits and legal proceedings.

1) Any relief available under sections 18, 19,20, 21 and 22 may also be sought in any legal proceeding, before a civil court, family court or a criminal court, affecting the aggrieved person and the respondent whether such proceeding was initiated before or after the commencement of this Act.

(2) Any relief referred to in sub-section (1) may be sought for in addition to and along with any other relief that the aggrieved person may seek in such suit or legal proceeding before a civil or criminal court.

(3) In case any relief has been obtained by the aggrieved person in any proceedings other than a proceeding under this Act, she shall be bound to inform the Magistrate of the grant of such relief."

Section 27 provides for the jurisdiction of the court of Judicial Magistrate or the Metropolitan Magistrate and that the order made in the DV Act shall be enforceable throughout India. Section 28 reads as follows:-

"28. Procedure.

(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, all proceedings under sections 12,18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 and offences under section 31 shall be governed by the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall prevent the court from laying down its own procedure for disposal of an application under section 12 or under sub-section (2) of section 23."

Section 29 provides for an appeal to the Court of Session from the order of the Magistrate.

16. Certain terms that have been defined in Section 2 of the DV Act merit consideration:-

"(a) "aggrieved person" means any woman who is, or has been, in a domestic relationship with the respondent and who alleges to have been subjected to any act of domestic violence by the respondent;

….....

(f) "domestic relationship" means a relationship between two persons who live or have, at any point of time, lived together in a shared household, when they are related by consanguinity, marriage, or through a relationship in the nature of marriage, adoption or are family members living together as a joint family;

(g) "domestic violence" has the same meaning as assigned to it in section 3;

….....

(o) "protection order" means an order made in terms of section 18;

(p) "residence order" means an order granted in terms of sub-section (1) of section 19;

….....

(s) "shared household" means a household where the person aggrieved lives or at any stage has lived in a domestic relationship either singly or along with the respondent and includes such a house hold whether owned or tenanted either jointly by the aggrieved person and the respondent, or owned or tenanted by either of them in respect of which either the aggrieved person or the respondent or both jointly or singly have any right, title, interest or equity and includes such a household which may belong to the joint family of which the respondent is a member, irrespective of whether the respondent or the aggrieved person has any right, title or interest in the shared household.

....."

The definition of "domestic violence" is provided under Chapter II of the DV Act as under:-

"3. Definitions of domestic violence.

For the purposes of this Act, any act, omission or commission or conduct of the respondent shall constitute domestic violence in case it--

(a) harms or injures or endangers the health, safety, life, limb or well-being, whether mental or physical, of the aggrieved person or tends to do so and includes causing physical abuse, sexual abuse, verbal and emotional abuse and economic abuse; or

(b) harasses, harms, injures or endangers the aggrieved person with a view to coerce her or any other person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any dowry or other property or valuable security; or

(c) has the effect of threatening the aggrieved person or any person related to her by any conduct mentioned in clause (a) or clause (b); or

(d) otherwise injures or causes harm, whether physical or mental, to the aggrieved person.

Explanation I.--For the purposes of this section,--

(i) "physical abuse" means any act or conduct which is of such a nature as to cause bodily pain, harm, or danger to life, limb, or health or impair the health or development of the aggrieved person and includes assault, criminal intimidation and criminal force;

(ii) "sexual abuse" includes any conduct of a sexual nature that abuses, humiliates, degrades or otherwise violates the dignity of woman;

(iii) "verbal and emotional abuse" includes--

(a) insults, ridicule, humiliation, name calling and insults or ridicule specially with regard to not having a child or a male child; and

(b) repeated threats to cause physical pain to any person in whom the aggrieved person is interested;

(iv) "economic abuse" includes--

(a) deprivation of all or any economic or financial resources to which the aggrieved person is entitled under any law or custom whether payable under an order of a court or otherwise or which the aggrieved person requires out of necessity including, but not limited to, house hold necessities for the aggrieved person and her children, if any, stridhan, property, jointly or separately owned by the aggrieved person, payment of rental related to the shared house hold and maintenance;

(b) disposal of household effects, any alienation of assets whether movable or immovable, valuables, shares, securities, bonds and the like or other property in which the aggrieved person has an interest or is entitled to use by virtue of the domestic relationship or which may be reasonably required by the aggrieved person or her children or her stridhan or any other property jointly or separately held by the aggrieved person; and

(c) prohibition or restriction to continued access to resources or facilities which the aggrieved person is entitled to use or enjoy by virtue of the domestic relationship including access to the shared household.

Explanation II.--For the purpose of determining whether any act, omission, commission or conduct of the respondent constitutes "domestic violence" under this section, the overall facts and circumstances of the case shall be taken into consideration."

(emphasis supplied)

17. Initially, the application filed by the petitioner in the year 2011 under Section 12 read with Section 23 of the DV Act was in respect of the properties mentioned in its Annexures C-1 and C-2 and was specifically in respect of the shared household. As noted above, a protection order can be passed by the Magistrate prohibiting the respondent from committing any act of domestic violence, and, accordingly, an interim order was passed by the Magistrate on 21.10.2011, every challenge to which has been put to rest. However, the application dated 30.10.2021 deals with other immovable properties which are mentioned in the Schedule to that application. The definition of "domestic violence" given in Section 3 of the DV Act is very wide. Under Explanation I of Section 3, sub-clause (b) of clause (iv), which pertains to 'economic abuse', the definition uses the word "includes", and entails disposal of household effects, any alienation of assets whether movable or immovable, valuables, shares, securities, bonds and the like or other property in which the aggrieved person has an interest or is entitled to use by virtue of the domestic relationship or which may be reasonably required by the aggrieved person or her children or her stridhan or any other property jointly or separately held by the aggrieved person. It is noted that in sub-clauses (a) and (c) of clause (iv) of Explanation I, reference has been made to "shared household", whereas in sub-clause (b) thereof, there is no reference to the term "shared household".

Explanation II, which is also very illustrative, reads that for the purpose of determining whether any act, omission, commission or conduct of the respondent constitutes "domestic violence" under this section, the overall facts and circumstances of the case shall be taken into consideration.

18. As noted above, in his objections, the respondent no.2 has, prima facie, admitted the existence of the family settlement, which family settlement is part of the record of this petition, reflecting that the properties mentioned in this Schedule to the application of the petitioner dated 30.10.2021 fall in her share. However, this 'admission', as held by the Supreme Court in Himani Alloys Ltd. vs. Tata Steel Ltd., unless is clear, unambiguous and unconditional, the discretion of the Court should not be exercised to deny the valuable rights of a defendant to contest the claim.

19. In view of the aforesaid provisions of the DV Act, the observation of the appellate court in the impugned order that the properties mentioned in the application dated 30.10.2021 cannot be looked into by the court in proceedings under the DV Act, is incorrect. Given Explanation I to Section 3, which uses the word 'includes' while defining the term "economic abuse", and, the 'overall facts and circumstances of the case' that are required to be taken into consideration in view of Explanation II, it would bring into the ambit of the definition of "domestic violence" the properties mentioned in the Schedule to the application dated 30.10.2021 filed by the petitioner.

20. An application to the Magistrate under Section 12 can seek one or more reliefs under the DV Act, including a relief for issuance of an order for payment of compensation or damages. An amendment in the application filed under Section 12, in view of subsequent developments, can be sought by an aggrieved person, but for consideration of such amendment application, the court has to see whether certain circumstances exist. The under-noted judgment of the Supreme Court would point to that aspect. Therefore, subject to such amendment being effected in the application under Section 12, it cannot be said that the relief sought for in the application dated 30.10.2021 filed by the petitioner under Section 23 seeking an interim order under Section 18, would not be maintainable under the DV Act. In effect, the petitioner is seeking a protection order under Section 18 of the DV Act, which only requires a prima facie satisfaction of the Magistrate that domestic violence has taken place or is likely to take place. As reflected in Section 26 as quoted above, the very reliefs available to the petitioner under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 may also be sought in any legal proceeding before a civil court, family court or a criminal court, and the relief sought under the DV Act may be along with any other relief that the aggrieved person may seek in any such suit or legal proceeding before a civil court or criminal court.

21. It is important to note that though a protection order passed by the Magistrate under Section 18 of the DV Act is to be made on his prima facie satisfaction that domestic violence has taken place or is likely to take place, however, no adjudication of title with regard to immovable property of the aggrieved person, in this case the petitioner, can be made under the DV Act. As such, the protection order sought in the application dated 30.10.2021 is essentially in the nature of an interim relief, which may be granted by the court subject to due amendment in the application under Section 12 of the DV Act.

22. Apparently, the petitioner has filed a suit being Original Suit No.165 of 2024 in the court of Civil Judge (Senior Division), Varanasi, seeking declaration, partition and prohibitory injunction with respect to various properties. As such, the title of the petitioner with regard to the properties mentioned in the Schedule to the application dated 30.10.2021 can well be decided therein. Suffice to state that even in the said suit, the reliefs sought under Section 12 of the DV Act can be sought, given the provisions of Section 26, which aspect has also been indicated by the Supreme Court in a judgment cited below.

Further, for setting aside the revenue entries on properties that the petitioner claims to her own, it is for her to move appropriate legal proceedings before the revenue court.

23. The purpose for enacting the DV Act was considered by the Supreme Court in Kunapareddy vs. Kunapareddy Swarna Kumari & Ors. in which it observed as follows:-

12. In fact, the very purpose of enacting the DV Act was to provide for a remedy which is an amalgamation of civil rights of the complainant i.e. aggrieved person. Intention was to protect women against violence of any kind, especially that occurring within the family as the civil law does not address this phenomenon in its entirety. It is treated as an offence under Section 498-A of the Penal Code, 1860. The purpose of enacting the law was to provide a remedy in the civil law for the protection of women from being victims of domestic violence and to prevent the occurrence of domestic violence in the society. It is for this reason, that the scheme of the Act provides that in the first instance, the order that would be passed by the Magistrate, on a complaint by the aggrieved person, would be of a civil nature and if the said order is violated, it assumes the character of criminality.

……

……..”

After considering the procedure for obtaining reliefs as stipulated in Chapter IV of the DV Act, which comprises Sections 12 to 29, the Supreme Court went on to observe as follows:-

“14. In the aforesaid scenario, merely because Section 28 of the DV Act provides for that (,) the proceedings under some of the provisions including Sections 18 and 20 are essentially of civil nature. We may take some aid and assistance from the nature of the proceedings filed under Section 125 of the Code. Under the said provision as well, a woman and children can claim maintenance. At the same time these proceedings are treated essentially as of civil nature."

It is also pertinent to mention here that in the case of Kunapareddy (supra), the Supreme Court was considering whether an amendment application can be filed under the DV Act for amending the application filed under the DV Act. The Supreme Court further observed that it cannot be said that the Court dealing with the application under the DV Act has no power and/or jurisdiction to allow the amendment of the application. The observations of the Supreme Court are as follows:-

"16. We understood in this backdrop, it cannot be said that the court dealing with the application under the DV Act has no power and/or jurisdiction to allow the amendment of the said application. If the amendment becomes necessary in view of subsequent events (escalation of prices in the instant case) or to avoid multiplicity of litigation, court will have the power to permit such an amendment. It is said that procedure is the handmaid of justice and is to come to the aid of the justice rather than defeating it. It is nobody's case that Respondent 1 was not entitled to file another application claiming the reliefs which she sought to include in the pending application by way of amendment. If that be so, we see no reason, why the applicant be not allowed to incorporate this amendment in the pending application rather than filing a separate application. It is not that there is a complete ban/bar of amendment in the complaints in criminal courts which are governed by the Code, though undoubtedly such power to allow the amendment has to be exercised sparingly and with caution under limited circumstances. The pronouncement on this is contained in the recent judgment of this Court in S.R. Sukumar v. S. Sunaad Raghuram [S.R. Sukumar v. S. Sunaad Raghuram, (2015) 9 SCC 609 : (2015) 4 SCC (Cri) 44] in the following paragraphs: (SCC pp. 620-21, paras 18-20)

"18. Insofar as merits of the contention regarding allowing of amendment application, it is true that there is no specific provision in the Code to amend either a complaint or a petition filed under the provisions of the Code, but the courts have held that the petitions seeking such amendment to correct curable infirmities can be allowed even in respect of complaints. In U.P. Pollution Control Board v. Modi Distillery [U.P. Pollution Control Board v.Modi Distillery, (1987) 3 SCC 684 : 1987 SCC (Cri) 632], wherein the name of the company was wrongly mentioned in the complaint, that is, instead of Modi Industries Ltd. the name of the company was mentioned as Modi Distillery and the name was sought to be amended. In such factual background, this Court has held as follows: (SCC pp. 689-90, para 6)

'6. ..... The learned Single Judge has focussed his attention only on the technical flaw in the complaint and has failed to comprehend that the flaw had occurred due to the recalcitrant attitude of Modi Distillery and furthermore the infirmity is one which could be easily removed by having the matter remitted to the Chief Judicial Magistrate with a direction to call upon the appellant to make the formal amendments to the averments contained in Para 2 of the complaint so as to make the controlling company of the industrial unit figure as the accused concerned in the complaint. All that has to be done is the making of a formal application for amendment by the appellant for leave to amend by substituting the name of Modi Industries Ltd., the company owning the industrial unit, in place of Modi Distillery.

... Furthermore, the legal infirmity is of such a nature which could be easily cured.'

19. What is discernible from U.P. Pollution Control Board case [U.P. Pollution Control Board v. Modi Distillery, (1987) 3 SCC 684 : 1987 SCC (Cri) 632] is that an easily curable legal infirmity could be cured by means of a formal application for amendment. If the amendment sought to be made relates to a simple infirmity which is curable by means of a formal amendment and by allowing such amendment, no prejudice could be caused to the other side, notwithstanding the fact that there is no enabling provision in the Code for entertaining such amendment, the court may permit such an amendment to be made. On the contrary, if the amendment sought to be made in the complaint does not relate either to a curable infirmity or the same cannot be corrected by a formal amendment or if there is likelihood of prejudice to the other side, then the court shall not allow such amendment in the complaint.

20. In the instant case, the amendment application was filed on 24-5-2007 to carry out the amendment by adding Paras 11(a) and 11(b). Though, the proposed amendment was not a formal amendment, but a substantial one, the Magistrate allowed the amendment application mainly on the ground that no cognizance was taken of the complaint before the disposal of amendment application. Firstly, the Magistrate was yet to apply the judicial mind to the contents of the complaint and had not taken cognizance of the matter. Secondly, since summons was yet to be ordered to be issued to the accused, no prejudice would be caused to the accused. Thirdly, the amendment did not change the original nature of the complaint being one for defamation. Fourthly, the publication of poem Khalnayakaru being in the nature of subsequent event created a new cause of action in favour of the respondent which could have been prosecuted by the respondent by filing a separate complaint and therefore, to avoid multiplicity of proceedings, the trial court allowed the amendment application. Considering these factors which weighed in the mind of the courts below, in our view, the High Court rightly declined [S.R. Sukumar v. S. Sunaad Raghuram, 2012 SCC OnLine Kar 1619] to interfere with the order passed by the Magistrate allowing the amendment application and the impugned order does not suffer from any serious infirmity warranting interference in exercise of jurisdiction under Article 136 of the Constitution of India."

17. What we are emphasising is that even in criminal cases governed by the Code, the court is not powerless and may allow amendment in appropriate cases. One of the circumstances where such an amendment is to be allowed is to avoid the multiplicity of the proceedings. The argument of the learned counsel for the appellant, therefore, that there is no power of amendment has to be negated.

18. In this context, provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 28 of the DV Act gain significance. Whereas proceedings under certain sections of the DV Act as specified in sub-section (1) of Section 28 are to be governed by the Code, the legislature at the same time incorporated the provisions like sub-section (2) as well which empowers the court to lay down its own procedure for disposal of the application under Section 12 or Section 23(2) of the DV Act. This provision has been incorporated by the legislature keeping a definite purpose in mind. Under Section 12, an application can be made to a Magistrate by an aggrieved person or a Protection Officer or any other person on behalf of the aggrieved person to claim one or more reliefs under the said Act.

Section 23 deals with the power of the Magistrate to grant interim and ex parte orders and sub-section (2) of Section 23 is a special provision carved out in this behalf which is as follows:

"23.(2) If the Magistrate is satisfied that an application prima facie discloses that the respondent is committing, or has committed an act of domestic violence or that there is a likelihood that the respondent may commit an act of domestic violence, he may grant an ex parte order on the basis of the affidavit in such form, as may be prescribed, of the aggrieved person under Section 18, Section 19, Section 20, Section 21 or, as the case may be, Section 22 against the respondent."

19. The reliefs that can be granted by the final order or by an interim order, have already been pointed out above wherein it is noticed that most of these reliefs are of civil nature. If the power to amend the complaint/application, etc. is not read into the aforesaid provision, the very purpose which the Act attempts to subserve itself may be defeated in many cases."

(emphasis supplied)

24. In the case of Vaishali Abhimanyu Joshi v. Nanasaheb Gopal Joshi, the Supreme Court was considering a question that whether a counter-claim filed by a lady seeking right under Section 19 of the DV Act can be entertained in a suit filed against her under Section 26 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, as amended in the State of Maharashthra, seeking a mandatory injunction directing her to stop using the suit flat and to remove her belongings therefrom. The Supreme Court observed as under:-

"40. Section 26 of the 2005 Act has to be interpreted in a manner to effectuate the very purpose and object of the Act. Unless the determination of claim by an aggrieved person seeking any order as contemplated by the 2005 Act is expressly barred from consideration by a civil court, this Court shall be loath to read in bar in consideration of any such claim in any legal proceeding before the civil court. When the proceeding initiated by the plaintiff in the Judge, Small Cause Court alleged termination of gratuitous licence of the appellant and prays for restraining the appellant from using the suit flat and permit the plaintiff to enter and use the flat, the right of residence as claimed by the appellant is interconnected with such determination and refusal of consideration of claim of the appellant as raised in her counterclaim shall be nothing but denying consideration of claim as contemplated by Section 26 of the 2005 Act which shall lead to multiplicity of proceedings, which cannot be the object and purpose of the 2005 Act.

41. We, thus, are of the considered opinion that the counterclaim filed by the appellant before Judge, Small Cause Court in Civil Suit No. 77 of 2013 was fully entertainable and the courts below committed error in refusing to consider such claim."

It is pertinent to note that in the aforesaid case of Vaishali Abhimanyu Joshi, the Supreme Court categorically held that denial of consideration of claim, as contemplated by Section 26 of the DV Act in a counter-claim filed in proceedings under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, would lead to multiplicity of proceedings which cannot be the object and purpose of the DV Act.

25. In the case of Deoki Panjhiyara vs. Shashi Bhushan Narayan Azad & Anr., the Supreme Court was considering a matter where an application under Section 12 of the DV Act seeking certain reliefs including damages and maintenance was filed and on an application for interim maintenance filed therein, by an order dated 13.2.2008, the trial court granted an interim maintenance. The order of the trial court was affirmed by the Session Judge and against the aforesaid order, the husband filed a writ petition before the High Court. During pendency of the writ petition, the husband sought a recall of the order dated 13.2.2008 (granting maintenance) on the ground that he subsequently came to know that his marriage with the lady was void on the ground that at the time of the said marriage the lady was already married to another person. The husband had placed reliance upon a certificate of marriage dated 18.4.2003 between the lady and another person issued by the competent authority under Section 13 of the Special Marriage Act, 1954. The application was rejected by the trial court. The revision filed against this order of the trial court before the High Court was heard along with the writ petition filed earlier and by a common order it was held that the marriage certificate issued under Section 13 of the Special Marriage Act was conclusive proof of first marriage of the lady with another person which had the effect of rendering the marriage between the lady and her husband null and void. The Supreme Court observed as follows:-

"17. While considering the provisions of Section 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 this Court in Yamunabai Anantrao Adhav v. Anantrao Shivram Adhav [(1988) 1 SCC 530 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 182 : AIR 1988 SC 644] (SCC p. 534, para 3) has taken the view that a marriage covered by Section 11 is void ipso jure, that is, void from the very inception. Such a marriage has to be ignored as not existing in law at all. It was further held by this Court that a formal declaration of the nullity of such a marriage is not a mandatory requirement though such an option is available to either of the parties to a marriage. It must, however, be noticed that in Yamunabai [(1988) 1 SCC 530 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 182 : AIR 1988 SC 644] there was no dispute between the parties either as regards the existence or the validity of the first marriage on the basis of which the second marriage was held to be ipso jure void.

18. A similar view has been expressed by this Court in a later decision in M.M. Malhotra v. Union of India [(2005) 8 SCC 351 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 1139] wherein the view expressed in Yamunabai [(1988) 1 SCC 530 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 182 : AIR 1988 SC 644] was also noticed and reiterated. However, the facts in which the decision in M.M. Malhotra [(2005) 8 SCC 351 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 1139] was rendered would require to be noticed in some detail.

19. The appellant M.M. Malhotra was, inter alia, charged in a departmental proceeding for contracting a plural marriage. In reply to the charge-sheet issued it was pointed out that the allegation of plural marriage was not at all tenable inasmuch as in a suit filed by the appellant (M.M. Malhotra) for a declaration that the respondent (wife) was not his wife on account of her previous marriage to one D.J. Basu the said fact i.e. previous marriage was admitted by the wife leading to a declaration of the invalidity of the marriage between the parties. The opinion of this Court in M.M. Malhotra [(2005) 8 SCC 351 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 1139] was, therefore, once again rendered in the situation where there was no dispute with regard to the factum of the earlier marriage of one of the spouses.

20. In the present case, however, the appellant in her pleadings had clearly, categorically and consistently denied that she was married to any person known as Rohit Kumar Mishra. The legitimacy, authenticity and genuineness of the marriage certificate dated 18-4-2003 has also been questioned by the appellant. Though Section 11 of the aforesaid Act gives an option to either of the parties to a void marriage to seek a declaration of invalidity/nullity of such marriage, the exercise of such option cannot be understood to be in all situations voluntarily. Situations may arise when recourse to a court for a declaration regarding the nullity of a marriage claimed by one of the spouses to be a void marriage, will have to be insisted upon in departure to the normal rule. This, in our view, is the correct ratio of the decision of this Court in Yamunabai [(1988) 1 SCC 530 : 1988 SCC (Cri) 182 : AIR 1988 SC 644] and M.M. Malhotra [(2005) 8 SCC 351 : 2005 SCC (L&S) 1139].

….....

22. In the present case, if according to the respondent, the marriage between him and the appellant was void on account of the previous marriage between the appellant and Rohit Kumar Mishra the respondent ought to have obtained the necessary declaration from the competent court in view of the highly contentious questions raised by the appellant on the aforesaid score. It is only upon a declaration of nullity or annulment of the marriage between the parties by a competent court that any consideration of the question whether the parties had lived in a "relationship in the nature of marriage" would be justified. In the absence of any valid decree of nullity or the necessary declaration the court will have to proceed on the footing that the relationship between the parties is one of marriage and not in the nature of marriage.

23. We would also like to emphasise that any determination of the validity of the marriage between the parties could have been made only by a competent court in an appropriate proceeding by and between the parties and in compliance with all other requirements of law. Mere production of a marriage certificate issued under Section 13 of the Special Marriage Act, 1954 in support of the claimed first marriage of the appellant with Rohit Kumar Mishra was not sufficient for any of the courts, including the High Court, to render a complete and effective decision with regard to the marital status of the parties and that too in a collateral proceeding for maintenance. Consequently, we hold that in the present case until the invalidation of the marriage between the appellant and the respondent is made by a competent court it would only be correct to proceed on the basis that the appellant continues to be the wife of the respondent so as to entitle her to claim all benefits and protection available under the DV Act, 2005."

It is to be noted that in the aforesaid judgment of the Supreme Court, the applicability of the DV Act was considered given the fact that the marriage was not declared a nullity by a competent court.

26. In the present case, the applicability of the DV Act is due to alleged domestic violence inflicted on the petitioner who is in a domestic relationship with the respondent no.2 and related by consanguinity. The protection order under Section 18 is being sought in the application dated 30.10.2021 under Section 23 of the DV Act in respect of immovable property specified in the Schedule to that application. Till the issue of title with regard to those properties is finally decided in the suit by the competent court, the petitioner claiming to be an 'aggrieved person' in a 'domestic relationship' who is subjected to 'domestic violence' would continue to be entitled to claim all benefits and protection available under the DV Act. There does not appear to be any bar on seeking additional reliefs, to the extent they can be granted and the cause for which has arisen subsequently, in a subsequent application under Section 23, provided such relief and pleadings are incorporated by permissible amendments in the initial application under Section 12 of the DV Act.

27. In the backdrop of the aforesaid judgments of the Supreme Court, given the facts of the instant case, what emerges is that given the dispute being raised regarding the immovable properties mentioned in the Schedule to the application dated 30.10.2021, it is certainly the civil court that will have the jurisdiction to conclusively determine the rights of the parties and make appropriate decree/s. That is, however, not to say that proceeding under Section 23, which deals with the power to grant interim and ex-parte orders by the Magistrate, would not be maintainable. Where in the application under Section 12, permissible amendment in view of subsequent developments or otherwise is made and additional permissible relief is sought, a fresh application under Section 23 would be maintainable. It is iterated that the protection order to be passed by the Magistrate under Section 18 of the DV Act is on his being prima facie satisfied that the domestic violence had taken place or was likely to take place.

28. In view of the aforesaid, the position can thus be summarized as follows:-

(i) The purpose of enacting the DV Act was to provide a remedy in the civil law for the protection of women from being victims of domestic violence and to prevent the occurrence of domestic violence in the society. It is for this reason, that the scheme of the Act provides that in the first instance, the order that would be passed by the Magistrate, on a complaint by the aggrieved person, would be of a civil nature and if the said order is violated, it assumes the character of criminality.

(ii) There is no complete ban/bar of amendment in the complaints in criminal courts which are governed by the Code, though undoubtedly such power to allow the amendment has to be exercised sparingly and with caution under limited circumstances.

(iii) If the amendment sought in the application under the DV Act relates to a simple infirmity which is curable by means of a formal amendment and by allowing such amendment, no prejudice could be caused to the other side, notwithstanding the fact that there is no enabling provision in the Code for entertaining such amendment, the court may permit such an amendment to be made. On the contrary, if the amendment sought to be made in the complaint does not relate either to a curable infirmity or the same cannot be corrected by a formal amendment or if there is likelihood of prejudice to the other side, then the court shall not allow such amendment in the complaint.

(iv) Where amendment sought is of a substantial nature the same may be allowed after carefully considering the facts, circumstances and the stage of the case, provided that the amendment would not change the original nature of the complaint, and, provided further that the amendment is necessitated in view of subsequent event which creates a new cause of action in favour of the aggrieved person and would avoid multiplicity of proceedings.

(v) On such amendment being effected, a fresh application filed under Section 23 of the DV Act can be maintained for seeking a protection order under Section 18.

(vi) The alienation of assets whether moveable or immoveable in which the aggrieved person has an interest or is entitled to use by virtue of the domestic relationship or which may be reasonably required by the aggrieved person or her children or her 'stridhan' or any of the other properties jointly or separately held by the aggrieved person, may constitute 'economic abuse' bringing it within the definition of "domestic violence" under Section 3 of the DV Act.

(vii) Adjudication of title of an aggrieved person with regard to moveable or immoveable properties sought to be alienated cannot be made under the DV Act but can only be made by a competent civil court. However, in respect of such properties a protection order can be passed by the Magistrate under Section 18 of the DV Act on his prima facie satisfaction that domestic violence has taken place or is likely to take place.

(viii) The relief/s available under Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22 in an application filed under Section 12 of the DV Act may also be sought before the civil court before which the suit filed by the petitioner against the respondent no.2 is pending, in terms of Section 26 of the DV Act.

29. In the present case, the protection order sought in the application dated 30.10.2021 is essentially in the nature of an interim relief. As noted above, a civil suit pertaining to the properties in dispute is pending, in which suit, the reliefs available to the petitioner under the DV Act can be well addressed in view of the provisions of Section 26 of the DV Act. Relegating the matter to the appellate court would unnecessarily prolong the case under the DV Act.

30. Therefore, under the facts and circumstances of the present case, this petition is disposed of leaving it open to the petitioner to move appropriate application before the civil court in which the aforesaid suit is pending seeking appropriate temporary injunction or protection order, as she may be advised. If such an application is filed, the concerned court is requested to decide the same in accordance with law, preferably within a period of four months from the date of filing of that application.

In the interest of justice it is provided that for a period of five months from today, none of the parties to the petition will create any third party interest over any part of the properties as mentioned in the Schedule to the application dated 30.10.2021 filed by the petitioner in Case No.829 of 2011 under the DV Act.

31. As far as the aforesaid application under Section 340 Cr.P.C. is concerned, the same is required to be registered and numbered as a Criminal Miscellaneous case and, thereafter, placed before the appropriate Court for its consideration. The office is directed to do the needful in this regard. All other pending applications stand disposed of.

(2024) 5 ILRA 586
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 06.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Application U/S 482. No. 1700 of 2024

Ashok Kumar Pal ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Manish Kumar Tripathi

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 482-Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006-Sections 51 & 59(i)-Quashing of summoning order-complaint was filed against the applicant after collecting sample of milk from his shop under the provision of Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954-in the present case the sample was collected in the year 2010 and the proceeding was initiated under the act, 1954 despite repealing the same-more than three years has expired from the date of commission of offence, therefore, cognizance cannot be taken by the concerned court, even on the fresh complaint in view of the section 77 of the Act, 2006-The order is set aside.(Para 1 to 19)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

Hindustan Unilever Ltd. Vs St. of M.P. (2020) 10 SCC 751.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant and Sri Anish Kumar Upadhyay, learned AGA for the State.

2. The present 482 Cr.P.C. application has been filed to quash the entire proceedings of Complaint Case No.1340 of 2011 (State Vs. Ashok Kumar Pal), under Sections-51, 59(i) of the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act, 2006'), Police Station-George Town, District-Allahabad (now Prayagraj), pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.2, Allahabad as well as summoning order dated 12.09.2023.

3. Facts giving rise to the present case are that after collecting the sample of milk from his shop on 02.11.2010, the complaint was lodged against the applicant on 24.05.2011 under the provision of Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act, 1954'), on which the Magistrate, after taking cognizance, had issued a summon on 12.09.2023 to applicant. This cognizance and summoning order was challenged by the applicant before this court in Application under Section 482 No. - 38175 of 2022 on the ground that on the date of filing the complaint, the provisions of the Act, 1954 were already repealed on 29.07.2010 and a new act namely the Act, 2006 had come into force. This application was allowed by the Court vide order dated 03.07.2023 and cognizance as well as summoning order dated 12.09.2023 was set aside, with the liberty to proceed against the applicant as per the provisions of the Act, 2006. Thereafter, learned court below again passed an order dated 12.09.2023 on the basis of same complaint filed against the applicant and summoned the applicant under Sections 51, 59(i) of the Act, 2006, which is under challenge in the present application.

4. Contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that once the earlier summoning order dated 12.09.2023 was set aside by this Court on the ground that that summoning order was passed under the Act, 1954, which was already repealed by the Act, 2006, therefore, fresh complaint should have been filed as per the Act, 2006, but, in the present case, the complaint filed under the Act, 1954 was taken into consideration and summoning order was passed on that complaint as well as material available with the complaint. Second contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that as per Section-77 of the Act, 2006, the prosecution on the basis of fresh complaint under the Act, 2006 is itself barred beyond three years because the sample was collected on 02.11.2010 and if a fresh complaint is filed under the Act, 2006, then the concerned court cannot take cognizance over the same in view of Section-77 of the Act, 2006, because more than three years has already expired from the date of commission of offence i.e. on the date of collection of sample of milk.

5. Per contra, learned AGA has submitted incorrect mentioning of sections in the complaint cannot make the complaint illegal because of adulterated food (milk), found in the shop of applicant, the complaint was filed against him and on the basis of the same complaint and material, learned Magistrate has passed the order as per the new Act, 2006. Therefore, there is no illegality in the impugned summoning order.

6. After hearing the submission of learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of record, it appears that earlier complaint dated 24.05.2011 was filed as per the procedure of Section 20 of the Act, 1954 after taking sanction from the District Magistrate. Section 20 of the Act, 1954 is being quoted as under:

"20. Cognizance and trial of offences.-(1) [No prosecution for an offence under this Act not being an offence under section 14 or section 14A] shall be instituted except by, or with the written consent of, [the Central Government or the State Government or a person authorised in this behalf, by general or special order, by the Central Government or the State Government:

Provided that a prosecution for an offence under this Act may be instituted by a purchaser [or recognised consumer association] referred to in section 12, [if he or it produces] in court a copy of the report of the public analyst along with the complaint.

[(2) No court inferior to that of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), an offence punishable under sub-section (1AA) of section 16 shall be cognizable and non-bailable).]"

7. Under the new Act, 2006, the procedure for launching the prosecution has been mentioned in Section 42 of the Act, 2006. As per Section 42 of the Act, 2006 the prosecution can be initiated only after the designated authority's recommendation and thereafter sanction of Commissioner of Food Safety. Section 42 of the Act, 2006 is being quoted as under:

"42. Procedure for launching prosecution.-(1) The Food Safety Officer shall be responsible for inspection of food business, drawing samples and sending them to Food Analyst for analysis.

(2) The Food Analyst after receiving the sample from the Food Safety Officer shall analyse the sample and send the analysis report mentioning method of sampling and analysis within fourteen days to Designated Officer with a copy to Commissioner of Food Safety.

(3) The Designated Officer after scrutiny of the report of Food Analyst shall decide as to whether the contravention is punishable with imprisonment or fine only and in the case of contravention punishable with imprisonment, he shall send his recommendations within fourteen days to the Commissioner of Food Safety for sanctioning prosecution.

(4) The Commissioner of Food Safety shall, if he so deems fit decide, within the period prescribed by the Central Government, as per the gravity of offence, whether the matter be referred to,?

(a) a court of ordinary jurisdiction in case of offences punishable with imprisonment for a term up to three years; or

(b) a Special Court in case of offences punishable with imprisonment for a term exceeding three years where such Special Court is established and in case no Special Court is established, such cases shall be tried by a Court of ordinary jurisdiction.

(5) The Commissioner of Food Safety shall communicate his decision to the Designated Officer and the concerned Food Safety Officer who shall launch prosecution before courts of ordinary jurisdiction or Special Court, as the case may be; and such communication shall also be sent to the purchaser if the sample was taken under section 40."

8. From the perusal of Section 20 of the Act, 1954 as well as Section 42 of the Act, 2006, it is clear that for launching the prosecution on the basis of complaint, procedure is different in both the Acts. In the Act, 1954 only the District Magistrate can grant sanction for the prosecution, but in the Act, 2006, it is the Commissioner of Food Safety, who, after getting recommendation of Designated Officer can grant sanction for prosecution. Therefore, any complaint filed under the Act, 1954 after the repeal of the same, will not be a valid complaint for the Act, 2006 unless same is filed as per procedure of the Act, 2006.

9. Even the complaint filed under the Act, 1954 after its repeal is not saved by Section 97 of the Act, 2006 except in certain circumstances. For ready reference Section 97 of the Act, 2006 is being quoted as under:

"97. Repeal and savings.-(1) With effect from such date as the Central Government may appoint in this behalf, the enactment and orders specified in the Second Schedule shall stand repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect:?

(i) the previous operations of the enactment and orders under repeal or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(ii) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any of the enactment or Orders under repeal; or

(iii) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offences committed against the enactment and Orders under repeal; or

(iv) any investigation or remedy in respect of any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if this Act had not been passed:

(2) If there is any other law for the time being in force in any State, corresponding to this Act, the same shall upon the commencement of this Act, stand repealed and in such case, the provisions of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897) shall apply as if such provisions of the State law had been repealed.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the aforesaid enactment and Orders, the licences issued under any such enactment or Order, which are in force on the date of commencement of this Act, shall continue to be in force till the date of their expiry for all purposes, as if they had been issued under the provisions of this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no court shall take cognizance of an offence under the repealed Act or Orders after the expiry of a period of three years from the date of the commencement of this Act."

10. From the perusal of Section 97 of the Act, 2006, it is explicit that only those proceedings that commence or duly done under the Act, 1954 are saved, but proceeding done under the Act, 1954 after its repeal cannot be said to be duly done under the Act, 1954.

11. It is also clear from Section 97(ii) of the Act, 2006, if sample of adulterated food (including milk) is collected from a food business operator during the existence of the Act, 1954 then his liable acquired under the Act, 1954 will not be affected by the new Act, 2006, and despite repealing the Act, 1954, legal proceeding may be continued under the Act of 1954.

12. Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 also does not save the proceeding under the repeal Act if no cause of action arises before the repeal of the Act. Section-6 of General Clauses Act, 1897 is being quoted as under:

"6. Effect of repeal.-Where this Act, or any 33[Central Act] or Regulation made after the commencement of this Act, repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not"

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or any thing duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid;

and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act or Regulation had not been passed.?

13. Apex Court in the case of Hindustan Unilever Limited. Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh reported in (2020) 10 SCC 751 also discussed the effect of the repeal Act in the light of Section-6 of General Clauses Act, 1897. Paragraph no.16 of the Hindustan Unilever (supra) is being quoted as under:

"16. In terms of Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, unless different intention appears, the repeal of a statute does not affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act or Regulation had not been passed. But in the 2006 Act, the repeal and saving clause contained in Sections 97(1)(iii) and (iv) specifically provides that repeal of the Act shall not affect any investigation or remedy in respect of any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment and the punishment may be imposed, ?as if the 2006 Act had not been passed?. The question as to whether penalty or prosecution can continue or be initiated under the repealed provisions has been examined by this Court in State of Punjab v. Mohar Singh [State of Punjab v. Mohar Singh, AIR 1955 SC 84 : 1955 Cri LJ 254] , wherein this Court examined Section 6 of the General Clauses Act which is on lines of Section 38(2) of the Interpretation Act of England. It was held as under : (AIR pp. 87-89, paras 6 & 9)

"6. Under the law of England, as it stood prior to the Interpretation Act of 1889, the effect of repealing a statute was said to be to obliterate it as completely from the records of Parliament as if it had never been passed, except for the purpose of those actions, which were commenced, prosecuted and concluded while it was an existing law [Vide Craies on Statute Law, 5th Edn., p. 323.] . A repeal therefore without any saving clause would destroy any proceeding whether not yet begun or whether pending at the time of the enactment of the repealing Act and not already prosecuted to a final judgment so as to create a vested right [Vide Crawford on Statutory Construction, pp. 599-600w.] . To obviate such results a practice came into existence in England to insert a saving clause in the repealing statute with a view to preserve rights and liabilities already accrued or incurred under the repealed enactment.

Later on, to dispense with the necessity of having to insert a saving clause on each occasion, Section 38(2) was inserted in the Interpretation Act of 1889 which provides that a repeal, unless the contrary intention appears, does not affect the previous operation of the repealed enactment or anything duly done or suffered under it and any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced in respect of any right, liability and penalty under the repealed Act as if the repealing Act had not been passed. Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, as is well known, is on the same lines as Section 38(2) of the Interpretation Act of England.

9. The offence committed by the respondent consisted in filing a false claim. The claim was filed in accordance with the provision of Section 4 of the Ordinance and under Section 7 of the Ordinance, any false information in regard to a claim was a punishable offence. The High Court is certainly right in holding that Section 11 of the Act does not make the claim filed under the Ordinance a claim under the Act so as to attract the operation of Section 7.

Section 11 of the Act is in the following terms:

"11. Repeal."The East Punjab Refugees (Registration of Land Claims) Ordinance 7 of 1948 is hereby repealed and any rules made, notifications issued, anything done, any action taken in exercise of the powers conferred by or under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been made, issued, done or taken in exercise of the powers conferred by, or under this Act as if this Act had come into force on 3rd day of March, 1948.""

" The truth or falsity of the claim has to be investigated in the usual way and if it is found that the information given by the claimant is false, he can certainly be punished in the manner laid down in Sections 7 and 8 of the Act.

If we are to hold that the penal provisions contained in the Act cannot be attracted in case of a claim filed under the Ordinance, the results will be anomalous and even if on the strength of a false claim a refugee has succeeded in getting an allotment in his favour, such allotment could not be cancelled under Section 8 of the Act. We think that the provisions of Sections 4, 7 and 8 make it apparent that it was not the intention of the legislature that the rights and liabilities in respect of claims filed under the Ordinance shall be extinguished on the passing of the Act, and this is sufficient for holding that the present case would attract the operation of Section 6 of the General Clauses Act.

It may be pointed out that Section 11 of the Act is somewhat clumsily worded and it does not make use of expressions which are generally used in saving clauses appended to repealing statutes; but as has been said above the point for our consideration is whether the Act evinces an intention which is inconsistent with the continuance of rights and liabilities accrued or incurred under the Ordinance and in our opinion this question has to be answered in the negative."

14. So far as the second contention of learned counsel for the applicant is that now the prosecution is barred by Section-77 of the Act, 2006 is concerned, for that, it is clear from the perusal of Section-77 of the Act, 2006 that even after the approval of Commissioner of Food Safety, cognizance of an offence by the court can be taken up to three years. For ready reference, Section-77 of the Act, 2006 is being quoted as under:

"77. Time limit for prosecutions.- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no court shall take cognizance of an offence under this Act after the expiry of the period of one year from the date of commission of an offence:

Provided that the Commissioner of Food Safety may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, approve prosecution within an extended period of up to three years."

15. From the perusal of Section-77 of the Act, 2006, it is explicit that the court can take cognizance up to three years from the date of commission of the offence. A commission of an offence under the Act, 2006 can be considered on the date when the sample was collected. In the present case, the sample was collected on 02.11.2010 and the proceeding was initiated under the Act, 1954, despite repealing the same. Therefore, that proceeding was not saved u/s 97 of the Act, 2006. Therefore, even if the fresh complaint is filed under the Act, 2006 then the concerned court cannot take cognizance in view of the bar of Section-77 of the Act, 2006. Therefore, the contention of learned counsel for the applicant is correct that now the prosecution is barred u/s 77 of the Act, 2006 as the sample of the milk was collected on 02.11.2010, therefore, cognizance cannot be taken in a fresh complaint filed under the Act, 2006.

16. In the present case, this court by the order dated 03.07.2023 had set aside the earlier summoning order dated 12.09.2023 on the ground that on the date of filing the complaint under the Act, 1954, the Act, 2006 already repealed it and liberty was also granted to proceed in accordance with the Act, 2006 but the opposite party no.2 has not initiated any proceeding as per the Act, 2006, even then, the learned Magistrate has erroneously passed a fresh summoning order dated 12.09.2023 on the basis of the same, a complaint, which was filed as per the procedure of the Act, 1954, even a sample of milk was collected on 02.11.2010, which itself was after the repeal of the Act, 1954. Therefore, not only the summoning order dated 12.09.2023 is erroneous, but also the entire proceeding of the Complaint Case No.1340 of 2011 (State Vs. Ashok Kumar Pal) is itself illegal as the same was initiated on the basis of the complaint filed under the Act, 1954 (Repealed Act), not as per the procedure of the Act, 2006 which was prevalent at the time of filing the complaint.

17. Therefore, the proceeding of Complaint Case No.1340 of 2011 (State Vs. Ashok Kumar Pal), under Sections-51, 59(i) of the Act, 2006, Police Station-George Town, District-Allahabad (now Prayagraj), pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.2, Allahabad as well as summoning order dated 12.09.2023 is hereby set aside.

18. As already observed hereinabove that more than three years has expired from the date of commission of offence, therefore, cognizance cannot be taken by the concerned court, even on the fresh complaint in view of Section-77 of the Act, 2006. Therefore, Food Safety Officer, cannot be permitted to file a fresh complaint under the Act, 2006 because the court cannot take cognizance on that complaint in view of Section-77 of the Act, 2006.

19. With the aforesaid observations, the present application is allowed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 593
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482. No. 4095 of 2023
&
Other Connected Cases

Madhu Tiwari ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Nadeem Murtaza, Aditya Vikram Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

A. Criminal Law-Criminal Procedure Code,1973-Section 482-Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sections 307, 323, 504, 506 & ¾ D.P. Act-quashing of criminal proceedings-mutual settlement in matrimonial dispute-multiple applications filed by both the parties, later they reached a settlement-Held, in cases where the dispute is private and resolved amicably, quashing of criminal proceedings is justified to secure the ends of justice-the court directed the family court to expedite the proceedings and waived the statutory cooling off period, following the Supreme Court judgment in Amardeep singh Vs Harveen Kaur.(Para 1 to 17)

B. In the exercise of the power u/s 482 and while dealing with the plea that the dispute has been settled, the high court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. The High court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice. (Para 11)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Amardeep Singh Vs Harveen Kaur (2017) AIR SC 4417

2. Shalini Massey Vs Neeraj Samuel Dass, FAPLD No. 392 of 2019

3. B.S Joshi Vs St. of Har. & ors. (2003) 4 ACC 675

4. Gian Singh Vs St. of Punj. (2012) 10 SCC 303

5. Dimpey Gujral & ors. Vs U.T. Thru Admin. (2013) 11 SCC 697

6. Narendra Singh & ors. Vs St. of Punj. & ors. (2014) 6 SCC 466

7. Yogendra Yodav & ors. Vs St. of Jhar. (2014) 9 SCC 653

8. Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur & ors. Vs St. of Guj. & anr.(2017) 9 SCC 641

9. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Punj. (1990) AIR SC 866

10. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajanlal (1992) SCC (Crl.) 426

11. St. of Bih. Vs P.P. Sharma (1992) SCC (Crl.) 192

12. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr.(2005) SCC (Crl.) 283 para 10

13. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bih. (2002) 44 ACC 168

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Sri Alok Saran as well as Sri Himanshu Suryavanshi, learned counsel for the Mitali Tiwari and Sri Nadeem Murtaza, learned counsel for the Himanshu Tiwari and Madhu Tiwari.

2. Since all the three cases are counter blast cases filed by the parties against each other, therefore, all the cases are being decided with the common judgment and Application under Section 4095 of 2023 is being treated as leading case.

(I) Application under Section 4095 of 2023:- This application has been filed with a prayer to quash the impugned order dated 27.03.2023 in Criminal Revision Case No.209/2022 (Madhu Tiwari Vs. State of U.P. and 7 Others) passed by learned Sessions judge-I. Lucknow, which had affirmed the order dated 28.02.2022 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate-III, Lucknow, whereby partially opposite parties are summoned for minor offences under Sections 323, 504, 506 I.P.C. and all the opposite parties were summoned for committing additional major offences under Sections 307, 384, 385, 388, 389 I.P.C. read with Section 34 I.P.C. in Criminal Complaint Case No.1882 of 2020 pending before the learned Judicial Magistrate-III, Lucknow.

(II) Application under Section 5104 of 2021:- This application has been filed with a prayer to quash the order dated 17.11.2021 in Criminal Revision No.152 of 2021, under Section 397 Cr.P.C. read with Section 399 Cr.P.C. passed by learned Additional District and Sessions Judge-7, Lucknow as well as to quash the order dated 27.07.2021 in Misc. Criminal Case No.3803 of 2020, under Sections 190 Cr.P.C. read with Section 200 Cr.P.C. passed by learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate Custom, Lucknow.

(III) Application under Section 3121 of 2023:- This application has been filed with a prayer to quash the order of summoning dated 28.02.2022 passed by the Judicial Magistrate-III, Lucknow in Criminal Complaint No.1882 of 2020, under Sections 323, 504, 506 I.P.C., Police Station Mandiaon, District Lucknow as well as to quash the entire criminal proceedings in pursuance thereof.

3. On 03.04.2024, this Court has passed the following order:-

"Heard Mr. Anand Kumar Srivastava, learned Counsel for the applicants, Mr. Nadeem Murtaza, learned Counsel for the private opposite parties, Mr. Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State-opposite party.

The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been moved by the applicant seeking quashing of the impugned order dated 27.03.2023 in Criminal Revision Case No.209/2022 (Madhu Tiwari vs. State & 7 Others) passed by court of learned Sessions Judge I, Lucknow which had affirmed order dated 28..02.2022 passed by learned Court of Judicial Magistrate III, Lucknow which has only partially summoned the opposite parties for committing minor offences under Sections 323/504/506 I.P.C. and thereby summoning all the opposite parties for committing additional major offences under Section 307, 384, 385, 388, 389 r/w 34 I.P.C. in Criminal Complaint Case No.1882/2020 (Madhu Tiwari vs. Mitali Tiwari & 6 Others) pending before learned Court of Judicial Magistrate III, Lucknow.

In compliance of the order dated 12.03.2024 passed by the Coordinate Bench of this Court, both the parties are present in person, who have been identified by their respective counsels.

On query made by this Court, Ms. Mitali Tiwari, submits that she is ready to settle the dispute if she is paid Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lacs Only) as one time alimony for her and her daughter, namely-Sambhavi Tiwari.

Mr. Himanshu Tiwari, husband of Ms. Mitali Tiwari submits that he is also ready to settle the dispute by paying a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lacs Only) as one time alimony to his wife and his daughter. In this regard he is ready to bring the draft of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only) on the next date of listing of this case, in the name of Ms. Mitali Tiwari i.e. half of the alimony amount. The remaining amount of Rs.5,00,000/- will be paid to Ms. Mitali Tiwari within 20 days' from the date of filing a decree of divorce under Section 13(B) of Hindu Marriage Act.

Further, it was also assured by both the parties that the decree of divorce under Section 13(B) of Hindu Marriage Act will be filed within 20 days' from the date of this order before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow and it was also requested by learned Counsel for the parties that a suitable direction may be given by this Court to the family court to decide the decree of divorce, if filed, by the parties by diluting the period of motions in view of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Amardeep Singh vs. Harveen Kaur, 2017 (8) SCC 746 and Division Bench of this Court in the case of Shalini Massey vs. Neeraj Samuel Dass passed in First Appeal Defective No.392 of 2019.

The requests and proposals made by both the parties appear to be genuine and justified and it is better that the parties may be separated as early as possible for their better life ahead.

In view of the above, the Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow is directed to decide the decree of divorce, if filed, by the parties within the stipulated time in light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Amardeep Singh (supra) and Division Bench of this Court in the case of Shalini Massey (supra) positively by diluting the period of motions/cooling period.

Accordingly, list/put up this case on 10quashing.04.2024 for further orders before this Court.

It is made clear that if the draft of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only) is not brought by Mr. Himanshu Tiwari, on the next date fixed, this Court will proceed and will pass final order in this case.

On the next date fixed, both the parties shall again appear in person."

4. Thereafter, this case was listed on 10.04.2024 before this Court and following order was passed:-

"In compliance of the order dated 03.04.2024, Sri Himanshu Tiwari as well as Ms. Madhu Tiwari are present in person before this Court. They have been identified by their counsel Sri Nadeem Murtaza. However, Ms. Mitali Tiwari is not present owing to some illness, however, her counsel Sri Anand Kumar Srivastava is present.

Sri Himanshu Tiwari has brought a demand draft of Rs.5,00,000/- drawn at the ICICI Bank, Lucknow dated 09.04.2024 in favour of Mitali Tiwari. Photocopy of the same has been seen and signed by Sri Anand Kumar Srivastava, learned counsel for the Mitali Tiwari, which is taken on record.

Sri Anand Kumar Srivastava, Advocate seeks some further time so that original draft may be handed over to Mitali Tiwari.

Sri Nadeem Murtaza, Advocate has no objection to the prayer made by Sri Anand Kumar Srivastava, Advocate.

Accordingly, put up this case on 18.04.2024 alongwith connected matter before this Court for further orders.

On the next date of listing, Ms. Mitali Tiwari, Ms. Madhu Tiwari and Sri Himanshu Tiwari shall again appear in person before this Court. Sri Himanshu Tiwari shall again bring the aforesaid bank draft on that day so that the same may be handed over to Mitali Tiwari."

Again this case was listed on 18.04.2024 before this Court and following order was passed:-

"The present applications are filed by the respective parties against each other and both these applications are arising out of counter cases filed by the respective parties, thus, the Coordinate Bench of this Court clubbed these two application with the consent of both the parties vide order dated 12.03.2024. This Court is treating Application U/S 482 No.4095 of 2023 as leading case and is proceeding accordingly.

Vakalatnama filed today in the Court by Mr. Himanshu Suryavanshi, Advocate on behalf of applicant-Ms. Mitali Tiwari and others in Application U/S 482 No.3121 of 2022 is taken on record.

Heard Mr. Nadeem Murtaza, learned Counsel for the applicant, namely-Madhu Tiwari, Mr. Alok Saran, Advocate alongwith Ms. Swati Singh, Advocate holding brief of Mr. Himanshu Suryavanshi, learned Counsel for the opposite party No.2, Mr. Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party.

In compliance of the orders dated 03.04.2024 and 10.04.2024 passed by this Court, the applicant, namely-Ms. Madhu Tiwari alongwith her son, namely-Mr. Himanshu Tiwari and the opposite party No.2, namley-Ms. Mitali Tiwari (wife of Mr. Himanshu Tiwari) are present before this Court, who have been identified by their respective counsel and Mr. Himanshu Tiwari has brought an original demand draft of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only), which was seen and verified by learned Counsel for the opposite party No.2 and the same was handed over to the opposite party No.2, namely-Mitali Tiwari in the open court. The opposite party No.2 gave a receiving of the same on the photostat copy, which is taken on record.

The applicant and her son, namely-Mr. Himanshu Tiwari have shown their bonafide by handing over the demand draft of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only) to the opposite party No.2 as directed by this Court. Now, only Rs.5.00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only) is to be paid to the opposite party No.2, namely-Ms. Mitali Tiwari.

Both the parties and their counsel submit before this Court that they have decided to file a petition under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act for separation of both the parties for their better life ahead. They further submit that the said petition will be filed before the concerned Family Court within 15 days' from today.

Before concluding their arguments, learned Counsel for the parties further submit that some suitable order may be passed regarding the visitation rights to the father of the minor child, namely-Shambhavi Tiwari, D/o of Ms. Mitali Tiwari and Mr. Himanshu Tiwari.

Learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 has no objection to the proposals made by learned Counsel for the parties.

In view of the above, as agreed between the parties present in person before this Court, they are permitted to file a petition under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act within 15 days' from today and if any such petition is filed before the concerned Family Court, the Family Court will decide the said petition in compliance of the order dated 03.04.2024 passed by this Court in this case. It is further directed that after filing of the said petition, learned Counsel for the applicant will file a supplementary affidavit annexing therein the photostat copy of the said petition so filed by the parties before the concerned Family Court on the next date of listing.

It is further observed here that remaining amount of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lacs Only), which was promised by Mr. Himanshu Tiwari to be paid to the opposite party No.2 will be paid to her within ten days' from the date of passing of decree of divorce.

So far as the visitation right is concerned, Mr. Himanshu Tiwari, husband of Ms. Mitali Tiwari shall have visitation rights to meet his daughter once every month on the Fourth Sunday between 11:00 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. at Saharaganj Mall, Lucknow starting from the Month of April, 2024 by giving one day prior intimation to the opposite party No.2, Ms. Mitali Tiwari, who is the mother of the minor child. Further, Mr. Himanshu Tiwari, shall also have right to talk to his daughter on every 1st and 4th Saturday of the every Month between 7:30 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. on whatsapp/phone call on mobile of Ms. Mitali Tiwari.

Accordingly, list/put up this case on 25.04.2024 before this Court for further orders."

5. Again this case was listed before this Court on 25.04.2024 and this Court has passed the following order:-

"In compliance of the orders dated 03.04.2024 and 18.04.2024 passed by this Court, learned counsel for the opposite party No.2 Sri Nadeem Murtaza has filed supplementary affidavit today in Court, in which he has given the details, in paragraph Nos. 9 and 10, of the cases filed by each of the parties either to be quashed by this Court or the cases should be withdrawn by the parties before the competent court, where the case is pending and he has also filed the settlement agreement as well as the certified copy of the petition filed under Section 13 B of the Hindu Marriage Act filed before the court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow, which is annexed as Annexure No.3 to the supplementary affidavit.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the parties have already settled the dispute, thus a positive direction be given to the Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow to decide the petition filed by the parties under Section 13 B of the Hindu Marriage Act expeditiously in view of the judgment rendered by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Amardeep Singh Vs. Harveen Kaur: AIR 2017SC 4417 and further order passed by the Division Bench of this Court in First Appeal Defection No. 392 of 2019: Shalini Massey Vs. Neeraj Samuel Dass decided on 07.01.2020.

Sri Alok Saran as well as Sri Himanshu Suryavanshi, learned counsel for the opposite party No.2 made a agreement with the request and proposal made by learned counsel for the applicant.

The request and proposal made by the both the counsels as well as the parties appears to be genuine and the final order in this regard will be passed on the next date fixed.

List this case on 30.04.2024 for further orders along with record of Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 5104 of 2021 and Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. No. 3121 of 2022."

6. Sri Nadeem Murtaza, learned counsel for Himanshu Tiwari submits that both the parties have arrived at a settlement, copy of the settlement agreement dated 20.04.2024 is annexed as Annexure No.SA-2 to the supplementary affidavit. He further submits that in pursuance of this Court's order dated 03.04.2024, the parties have mutually filed a divorce petition under Section 13(B) of Hindu Marriage Act before the learned Principal Judge, Lucknow on 20.04.2024, copy of the petition is Annexed as Annexure No.SA-3 to the supplementary affidavit. He further submits that Rs.5,00,000/- has already been paid to the wife and as per agreement the remaining amount of Rs.5,00,000/- will also be paid by the husband Himanshu Tiwari to the wife Mitali Tiwari within ten days after the passing of divorce decree. Thus, he submits that entire proceeding of the cases pending between both the parties which are mentioned at paragraph No.10 of the supplementary affidavit from serial no. I to X may be quashed and the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow be directed to decide the divorce petition of the parties filed under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act in light of the judgment rendered by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Amardeep Singh Vs. Harveen Kaur: AIR 2017 SC 4417 and further order passed by the Division Bench of this Court in First Appeal Defective No. 392 of 2019: Shalini Massey Vs. Neeraj Samuel Dass decided on 07.01.2020. He further submits that Civil Contempt CAPL No.510 of 2022 "Himanshu Tiwari & Anr. Vs. Mitali Tiwari" filed by Himanshu Tiwari had already been dismissed as withdrawn by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 29.04.2024. Paragraph Nos. 19 and 20 of Amardeep Singh (Supra) are reproduced hereinunder:-

"19. Applying the above to the present situation, we are of the view that where the court dealing with a matter is satisfied that a case is made out to waive the statutory period under Section 13-B(2), it can do so after considering the following:

(i) the statutory period of six months specified in Section 13-B(2), in addition to the statutory period of one year under Section 13-B(1) of separation of parties is already over before the first motion itself;

(ii) all efforts for mediation/conciliation including efforts in terms of Order 32-A Rule 3 CPC/Section

23(2) of the Act/Section 9 of the Family Courts Act to reunite the parties have failed and there is no likelihood of success in that direction by any further efforts;

(iii) the parties have genuinely settled their differences including alimony, custody of child or any other pending issues between the parties;

(iv) the waiting period will only prolong their agony.

The waiver application can be filed one week after the first motion giving reasons for the prayer for waiver. If the above conditions are satisfied, the waiver of the waiting period for the second motion will be in the discretion of the court concerned.

20. Since we are of the view that the period mentioned in Section 13-B(2) is not mandatory but directory, it will be open to the court to exercise its discretion in the facts and circumstances of each case where there is no possibility of parties resuming cohabitation and there are chances of alternative rehabilitation."

Further, this Court has been pleased to observe paragraph No.12 in the case of Shalini Massey (Supra) which is reproduced hereinunder:-

"12. The provisions contained in Section 10A of the Divorce Act, 1869, are, in substance, a verbatim reproduction of the provisions contained in Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and Section 28 of the Special Marriage Act, 1954. The only substantial difference is that, instead of the period of one year mentioned in Section 13B(1) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and Section 28(1) of the Special Marriage Act, 1954, a period of two years of separate residence is provided under Section 10A(1) of the Divorce Act, 1869. The beneficiaries under the abovementioned provisions of different statutes are persons who want divorce by mutual consent and who file joint petition for that relief. There can be no discrimination among them on the ground of religion. Divorce by mutual consent is a secular concept. When the Apex Court has declared the law that the "cooling off period" of six months provided under Section 13B(2) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 is not mandatory but directory and such period can be allowed to be waived by the court on satisfaction of certain conditions, denying that benefit to persons who are governed by the Divorce Act, 1869 would amount to unjust discrimination. Therefore, we are of the considered opinion that the dictum laid down by the Apex Court in Amardeep Singh (supra) is applicable to a petition for divorce filed under Section 10A of the Divorce Act, 1869 and on satisfaction of the conditions laid down in that decision, the Family Court can waive the period of six months stipulated under Section 10A(2) of that Act.

In view of the foregoing discussion, we find that but for the difference in period provided for making the second motion, the provisions of Section 13B (1) of Act of 1955 and 28 (1) of the Act of 1954 and 10A (1) of the Act, the aforesaid provisions are verbatim reproduction of each other. Since the Hon'ble Apex Court while considering the question whether the minimum period of six months stipulated u/s 13B (2) of Act of 1955 in the case of Amardeep Singh v. Harveen Kaur reported in AIR 2017 SC 4417, for a motion for passing decree of divorce on the basis of mutual consent is mandatory or directory and whether such period can be relaxed in exceptional situations or circumstances, held that the period mentioned in Section 13B (2) of Act of 1955 is not mandatory but directory and it will be open to the Court to exercise its discretion in the facts and circumstances of each case where there is no possibility of parties resuming cohabitation and there are chances of alternative rehabilitation.

We have no hesitation in holding that the view taken by the Kerala High Court in the case of TOMY JOSEPH (supra) that the dictum laid down by the Apex Court in Amardeep Singh (supra) is applicable to a petition for divorce filed u/s 10A of the Act and on satisfaction of the conditions laid down in that decision, the Family Court can waive the period of six months stipulated u/s 10A (2) of the Act."

7. Sri Alok Saran and Sri Himanshu Suryavanshi, learned counsel for the Mitali Tiwari and Sri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I for the State have submitted that since the parties have already arrived at a settlement and there is no dispute that the parties have filed a petition under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act for mutual divorce and the husband, namely, Himanshu Tiwari has also given Rs.5,00,000/- to the wife, namely, Mitali Tiwari and remaining amount will be given to the wife within ten days after the decree of divorce is passed. They have also confirmed this fact that Civil Contempt CAPL No.510 of 2022 “Himanshu Tiwari & Anr. Vs. Mitali Tiwari” filed by Himanshu Tiwari had already been dismissed as withdrawn by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 29.04.2024. Thus, they submit that no useful purpose would be served if the proceedings of the cases pending against each other go on further before the trial court and the same may also be quashed by this Hon’ble Court.

8. Learned counsel for the parties have drawn the attention of this Court and placed reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in support of their case.

(i) B.S. Joshi Vs. State of Haryana & Others 2003 (4) ACC 675.

(ii) Gian Ssingh Vs. State of Punjab 2012 (10) SCC 303.

(iii) Dimpey Gujral And Others Vs. Union Territory Through Administrator 2013 (11) SCC 697.

(iv) Narendra Singh And Others Vs. State of Punjab And Others 2014 (6) SCC 466.

(v) Yogendra Yadav And Others Vs. State of Jharkhand 2014 (9) SCC 653.

9. Summarizing the ratio of all the above cases the latest judgment pronounced by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur & Ors. Vs. State of Gujarat & Anr,; reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641 and in paragraph no.16, the Hon'ble Apex Court has summarized the broad principles with regard to exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. in the case of compromise/settlement between the parties which emerges from precedent of the subjects as follows:-

i. "Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognizes and preserves powers which inhere in the High Court.

ii.The invocation of the jurisdiction of the High Court to quash a First Information Report or a criminal proceeding on the ground that a settlement has been arrived at between the offender and the victim is not the same as the invocation of jurisdiction for the purpose of compounding an offence. While compounding an offence, the power of the court is governed by the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The power to quash under Section 482 is attracted even if the offence is non-compoundable.

iii. In forming an opinion whether a criminal proceeding or complaint should be quashed in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482, the High Court must evaluate whether the ends of justice would justify the exercise of the inherent power;

iv. While the inherent power of the High Court has a wide ambit and plenitude it has to be exercised; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent an abuse of the process of any court;

v. The decision as to whether a complaint or First Information Report should be quashed on the ground that the offender and victim have settled the dispute, revolves ultimately on the facts and circumstances of each case and no exhaustive elaboration of principles can be formulated;

vi. In the exercise of the power under Section 482 and while dealing with a plea that the dispute has been settled, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous and serious offences involving mental depravity or offences such as murder, rape and dacoity cannot appropriately be quashed though the victim or the family of the victim have settled the dispute. Such offences are truly speaking not private in nature but have a serious impact upon society. The decision to continue with the trial in such cases is founded on the overriding element of public interest in punishing persons for serious offences;

vii. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing in so far as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned;

viii. Criminal cases involving offences which arises from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute;

ix. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice; and

x. There is yet an exception to the principle set out in propositions (viii) and (ix) above. Economic offences involving the financial and economic well-being of the state have implications which lie beyond the domain of a mere dispute between private disputants. The High Court would be justified in declining to quash where the offender is involved in an activity akin to a financial or economic fraud or misdemeanour. The consequences of the act complained of upon the financial or economic system will weigh in the balance."

10. The Apex Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:-(i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Haryana Vs. Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426, (iii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192 and (iv) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283.

11. From the aforesaid decisions the Apex Court has settled the legal position for quashing of the proceedings at the initial stage. The test to be applied by the court is to whether uncontroverted allegation as made prima facie establishes the offence and the chances of ultimate conviction is bleak and no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing criminal proceedings to be continued. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

12. With the assistance of the aforesaid guidelines, keeping in view the nature and gravity and the severity of the offence which are more particularly is private dispute and differences and a petition under Section 13(B) of the Hindu Marriage Act has already been filed for mutual divorce. It is deem proper and meet to the ends of justice. The proceeding of the cases filed between the parties be quashed by this Court.

