4. Thereafter, the petitioner received another E-mail from BPCL-respondent no.2 to upload Khasra/Khatuani or any other equivalent document confirming the status of his ownership of the 'land' as on the date of application in respect of which the petitioner intends to open the Retail Outlet Dealership Petrol Pump, as on the date of application. However, on 17.12.2024, the petitioner received an E-mail from BPCL / respondent no. 3 through which he was informed that the documents uploaded by him were found 'NOT OK' as the lease of the 'land' is executed by only one of the co-owners of Khasra No. 110 which is not in consonance with the Clause 4 (vi) (a) of the 'Dealer Selection Guidelines 2023' and his candidature was found to be ineligible.

5. Aggrieved by the cancelation of his candidature, the petitioner approached the BPCL/respondent No. 3 and posted his representation through speed post and E-mail. However, vide E-mail/order dated 01.03.2024, his representation was rejected by the Territory Manager (Retail) BPCL, Gorakhpur /respondent no. 3 on the ground that as per the 'Dealer Selection Guidelines, 2023', it is necessary that all the co-sharers of the offered land must execute the lease in favour of the petitioner. As the petitioner does not have the lease from all the co-sharers of the offered land, his candidature is not acceptable.

6. Challenging the said order dated 01.03.2024, the learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the land bearing Plot/Gata No.110 situated at Mauza Agaya, Tehsil Nichlaul, District Maharajganj, belongs to one Pritihvi Pal Tiwari, who has leased the same out of his individual share. The portion of the land falling in the share of Prithvi Pal Tiwari is adjacent to petitioner's leased plot and in such scenario there was no need to obtain consent from the other co-sharers. It has further been argued that as the petitioner has submitted a valid lease deed along with the report by the revenue authority prepared in pursuance of the proceedings under section 116 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006. Therefore, there was no need of other co-sharer, who happen to be the brother of Prithvi Pal Tiwari, to execute lease of his share of land. Furthermore, the co-sharers have no objection with the present lease executed in favour of the petitioner.

7. Per contra, the learned counsel appearing for the BPCL vehemently opposed the writ petition and submitted that as per clause 4 (vi) (a) of the Brochure for 'Selection of Dealers for Regular and Rural Retail Outlets 2023', in the case of the petitioner, the lease deed should have been executed by all the co-owners of the offered plot. Since the lease deed produced by the petitioner was not executed by all the co-owners, his application has rightly been cancelled. He has further submitted that since the partition of the land in question is said to have taken place on 10.02.2024, which is subsequent to the date of submission of application, i.e. 28.06.2023; he was not found qualified for the allotment of Retail Outlet Dealership.

8. Having heard the submissions made by the learned counsels for the respective parties and perusing the material available on record, it would be apt to refer to Clause 4 (vi) (a) of the Brochure for 'Selection of Dealers for Regular and Rural Retail Outlets 2023'. The relevant portion of the same is extracted hereinbelow,

"……(vi) Land (Applicable to all categories):

The applicants would be classified into three groups as mentioned below based on the land offered or land not offered by them in the application form: -

Group 1: Applicants having suitable piece of land in the advertised location/area either by way of ownership / long term lease for a period of minimum 19 years 11 months or as advertised by the OMC.

Group - 2: Applicants having Firm Offer for a suitable piece of land for purchase or long-term lease for a period of minimum 19 years 11 months or as advertised by the OMC.

Group-3: Applicants who have not offered land in the application. Only applicable for locations advertised under SC/ST category.

Applications under Group - 3 would be processed/advised to offer land (Annexure - D) only in case no eligible applicant is found or no applicant get selected under Group-1& Group-2.In case land offered by all the applicants under Group 1 & Group 2 is found not suitable/not meeting requirements, then these applicants under Group 1 & Group2 along with applicants under Group - 3 (who did not offer land along with application) would be advised by the OMCs to provide suitable land in the advertised location / stretch, within a period of 90 days from the date of issuance of intimation letter to them through SMS/e-mail. In case the applicant fails to provide suitable land within the prescribed period, or the land provided is found not meeting the laid down criteria, the application would be rejected.

The other conditions with respect to offering of land are as under:

(a) The land should be available with the applicant as on the date of application and should have minimum lease of 19 years and 11 months (as advertised by respective oil company) from the date or after the date of advertisement but not later than the date of application. If the offered land is on Long-term lease and there are multiple owners, then lease deed should be executed by all co-owners of the offered plot. In case lease deed is not executed by all co- owners; such lease deed shall be treated as invalid……." (emphasis supplied)

9. From the perusal of the records, it is apparent that the petitioner did not have the lease in his favour duly executed by all the co-shareres of the offered land. It is relevant to note that a Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Rahul Singh versus Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. and 3 others having writ number as Writ C No. 7354 of 2024 observed that,

"9. In view of the above, we find that the Brochure stipulates amongst others two contingencies (discussed here namely), one where the land may be owned by a person other than the applicant or his family members, second, where the land may be owned by the applicant alongwith others or others alongwith his family members or both. Considering the present facts land is owned by third parties to the exclusion of the applicant and his family members. That situation is dealt with in terms of Clause 4 (vi) (a).

10. The situation were the land may be owned by the applicant either in his own name or alongwith his family members and/or other persons has been dealt with in Clause 4 (vi) (m) under situations 1, 2 and 3 dealt with in the tabular chart under the heading "GROUP 1" appearing in that Clause.

11. Then, without reference to Clause (a), (m) or any Sub-Clause of Clause 4 (vi) of the Brochure, Note - 3 thereto only provides- whereever consent letter is required, it may be submitted on form Appendix III.

12. As noted above, in the present facts, the land offered in the allotment is not owned by the petitioner/applicant or the petitioner/applicant alongwith his family members or by the petitioner/applicant alongwith other owners and his family members. Therefore, Clause 4 (vi) (m) would not apply to the present facts.

13. On the contrary, the only Clause applicable to such facts would be Clause 4 (vi) (a). That Clause clearly stipulates that the land offered for allotment should be available to the applicant on the date of submission of his application against a long term lease executed by "all co-owners". The consequence of non execution of such lease deed is also provided in the said Clause. Thus it has been stipulated, in case such lease deed is not executed by all co- owners, the same shall be invalid. Once invalid that ineligibility attaches to the application submitted by the petitioner on the date of submission of his application.

14. For the purpose of application of the said Clause the requirement remains- execution of lease deed by all co-owners, therefore, consent letters cannot fulfil that stipulation. In face of the consequences of invalidity of the lease deed having been specified, there survives no occasion to consider if the defect in such application could ever been cured, after its submission.

15. Consequentially, the method of curing the defect considered under Note-3 (noted above) would remain confined to the cases falling under Clause 4 (vi) (m), only.

16. For the reasons noted above, we conclude, the petitioner's case would remain covered by Clause 4 (vi) (a) of the Brochure. It is admitted that the lease deed relied by the petitioner was not executed by all co-owners before the date of submission of the application. Therefore, there is no error on the part of the respondent in rejecting the application submitted by the petitioner."

10. It is also relevant to observe from 4 (vi)(a) of the said Brochure that the offered land of the applicant must be leased to him on the date of the application. In this regard, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd. versus Swapnil Singh reported in 2015 SCC OnLine SC 1922 has been pleased to observe that,

"……We are unable to accept this contention of learned counsel for the respondent. The brochure and the application form clearly require the applicant to have a registered lease deed in her name. What is shown to us is a notarized document and admittedly this document, even though it may have been in existence, was formalised into a lease agreement only on 20th December, 2012 and that was registered on 21st December, 2012. The notarized document, therefore, does not advance the case of the respondent any further. Therefore, it is quite clear that the respondent was not eligible on the date of application, i.e., 13th September, 2011. Under the circumstances, we allow these appeals and set aside the order passed by the Division Bench of the Calcutta High Court. No costs……"

11. From all that has been narrated hereinabove, it is clear that law on the issue regarding the lease of the offered land is well settled, i.e., for the successful application of the award of retail dealership outlet, it is incumbent upon the applicant that he/she must have a lease deed duly executed by all the co-sharers of the offered land on the date of the application.

12. In view of the facts as narrated hereinabove, it is abundantly clear that the petitioner was not having the lease in respect of the offered land in terms of clause 4(vi)(a) of the Dealership Selection Guidelines, 2023 and as such, in the light of the judgment rendered by this Court in the case of Rahul Singh (Supra), he was not eligible for being considered for the allotment/award of the retail dealership outlet. The impugned rejection of the candidature of the applicant/petitioner vide E-mail/order dated 01.03.2024 does not suffer from any illegality or infirmity. Therefore, the decision of BPCL/respondent no. 3 in rejecting the candidature of the applicant/petitioner needs no interference.

13. The writ petition lacks merit and is accordingly dismissed.

14. Parties shall bear their own costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1798
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ - C No. 27068 of 2017

Jagdish ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Awadhesh Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Civil Law –order cancelling fair price shop licence-under challenge-alternative statutory remedy under Section 13(3) of The Uttar Pradesh Essential Commodities (Regulation of Sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016-adequate opportunity of hearing given to the petitioner-not availed by him- Petition dismissed. (Paras 14 and 19)

HELD:

It has categorically been St.d in para 7 of the counter affidavit that ins spite of giving repeated opportunities, the petitioner did not submit any reply / explanation or the records and this fact remains uncontroverted, as the petitioner has not filed any rejoinder affidavit. In view of the aforesaid factual position, the allegation of the petitioner that no opportunity of hearing was provided to him is not acceptable. It appears that adequate opportunity of hearing was provided to the petitioner but the petitioner deliberately failed to avail the same. (Para 14)

In these circumstances, the impugned order dated 12.10.2017 does not suffer from any such illegality as may warrant any interference by this Court in exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The writ petition lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed. (Para 19)

Petition dismissed. (E-14)

List of Cases cited:

1. N. P. Ponnuswami Vs Returning Officer, Namakkalconstituency & Ors: 1952 SCR 218

2. M/s Mahatma Gandhi Upbhokta Samiti Vs St. of U.P. & ors: 2001 19 LCD 513

3. Lokman Singh Vs Deputy General Manager, Western Zone, UPSRTC, Meerut & ors: 2006 (8) ADJ 646

4. Whirlpool Corpn. Vs Registrar of Trade Marks: (1998) 8 SCC 1

5. Harbanslal Sahnia Vs Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd., (2003) 2 SCC 107

6. Radha Krishan Industries Vs St. of H.P.: (2021) 6 SCC 771

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

Order on I.A. No. 4 of 2023 and I.A. No. 5 of 2023

I.A. No. 4 of 2023 has been filed seeking condonation of delay in filing application for recall of the order dated 26.09.2022. I.A. No. 5 of 2023 has been filed seeking recall of the order dated 26.09.2022 whereby the writ petition was dismissed due to non-appearance of the learned counsel for the petitioner. The reason assigned in the affidavits filed in support of the applications is that the clerk of the petitioner's Counsel mistakenly failed to mark the case in the cause list of 26.09.2022 and for this reason, the petitioner and his Counsel were not aware about the listing of the case on that date. The cause shown for recall of the order and for non appearance of the learned counsel for the petitioner is sufficient. The applications are allowed. The delay in filing the application for recall of order dated 26.09.2022 is condoned and order dated 26.09.2022 is recalled. The writ petition is restored to its original number.

Order on Writ Petition

1. Heard Sri Awadhesh Kumar Singh, the learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Rajeev Ranjan Chaudhary, the learned counsel for the respondents.

2. By means of the instant petition filed under Section 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged validity of an order dated 12.10.2017 passed by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Tulsipur, District Balrampur whereby the fair price shop license of the petitioner was cancelled.

3. A counter affidavit was filed in this case on 31.02.2018 after serving a copy thereof on the learned counsel for the petitioner on 30.03.2018 but no rejoinder affidavit has been filed till date in spite of time having been sought and granted repetitively on 17.08.2018, 18.05.2018 and 24.08.2022, but the petitioner did not file a rejoinder affidavit. Therefore, the averments made in the counter affidavit remained uncontroverted.

4. The learned Standing Counsel has raised a preliminary objection that the petitioner has a statutory remedy of filing an appeal under Section 13(3) of The Uttar Pradesh Essential Commodities (Regulation of Sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016.

5. The learned Standing Counsel has relied upon a decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in N. P. Ponnuswami v. Returning Officer, Namakkalconstituency & Ors: 1952 SCR 218, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that "It is now well-recognized that where a right or liability is created by a statute which gives a special remedy for enforcing it, the remedy provided by that statute only must be availed of."

6. Replying to the aforesaid preliminary objection, the learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon a decision of this Court in M/s Mahatma Gandhi Upbhokta Samiti v. State of U.P. & Ors: 2001 19 LCD 513 and Lokman Singh v. Deputy General Manager, Western Zone, UPSRTC, Meerut & Ors: 2006 (8) ADJ 646.

7. In M/s. Mahatma Gandhi Upbhokta Samiti, this Court had entertained the writ petition on the ground that if there is a violation of principles of natural justice, alternative remedy shall not stand as a bar.

8. In Lokman Singh (supra), this Court had declined to relegate the petitioner to alternative remedy for the reason that the writ petition had been entertained in the year 1997 and counter and rejoinder affidavit have been exchanged and, therefore, it would not be proper to relegate the petitioner to an alternative remedy after the writ petition having remained pending for almost 10 years.

In Whirlpool Corpn. v. Registrar of Trade Marks: (1998) 8 SCC 1, a two-Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court had held that: -

"14. The power to issue prerogative writs under Article 226 of the Constitution is plenary in nature and is not limited by any other provision of the Constitution. This power can be exercised by the High Court not only for issuing writs in the nature of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto and certiorari for the enforcement of any of the Fundamental Rights contained in Part III of the Constitution but also for "any other purpose".

15. Under Article 226 of the Constitution, the High Court, having regard to the facts of the case, has a discretion to entertain or not to entertain a writ petition. But the High Court has imposed upon itself certain restrictions one of which is that if an effective and efficacious remedy is available, the High Court would not normally exercise its jurisdiction. But the alternative remedy has been consistently held by this Court not to operate as a bar in at least three contingencies, namely, where the writ petition has been filed for the enforcement of any of the Fundamental Rights or where there has been a violation of the principle of natural justice or where the order or proceedings are wholly without jurisdiction or the vires of an Act is challenged*. There is a plethora of case-law on this point but to cut down this circle of forensic whirlpool, we would rely on some old decisions of the evolutionary era of the constitutional law as they still hold the field."* (Emphasis in original)

Following the dictum of this Court in Whirlpool, in Harbanslal Sahnia v. Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd., (2003) 2 SCC 107, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"7. So far as the view taken by the High Court that the remedy by way of recourse to arbitration clause was available to the appellants and therefore the writ petition filed by the appellants was liable to be dismissed is concerned, suffice it to observe that the rule of exclusion of writ jurisdiction by availability of an alternative remedy is a rule of discretion and not one of compulsion. In an appropriate case, in spite of availability of the alternative remedy, the High Court may still exercise its writ jurisdiction in at least three contingencies : (i) where the writ petition seeks enforcement of any of the fundamental rights; (ii) where there is failure of principles of natural justice; or (iii) where the orders or proceedings are wholly without jurisdiction or the vires of an Act is challenged*. [See Whirlpool Corpn. v. Registrar of Trade Marks, (1998) 8 SCC 1]. The present case attracts applicability of the first two contingencies. Moreover, as noted, the appellants' dealership, which is their bread and butter, came to be terminated for an irrelevant and non-existent cause. In such circumstances, we feel that the appellants should have been allowed relief by the High Court itself instead of driving them to the need of initiating arbitration proceedings."* (Emphasis in original)

In Radha Krishan Industries v. State of H.P.: (2021) 6 SCC 771, a three Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court considered the judgments of Whirlpool Corporation and Harbanslal Sahnia (Supra) and culled out the following principles in this regard: -

"27.1. The power under Article 226 of the Constitution to issue writs can be exercised not only for the enforcement of fundamental rights, but for any other purpose as well.

27.2. The High Court has the discretion not to entertain a writ petition. One of the restrictions placed on the power of the High Court is where an effective alternate remedy is available to the aggrieved person.

27.3. Exceptions to the rule of alternate remedy arise where : (a) the writ petition has been filed for the enforcement of a fundamental right protected by Part III of the Constitution; (b) there has been a violation of the principles of natural justice; (c) the order or proceedings are wholly without jurisdiction; or (d) the vires of a legislation is challenged.

27.4. An alternate remedy by itself does not divest the High Court of its powers under Article 226 of the Constitution in an appropriate case though ordinarily, a writ petition should not be entertained when an efficacious alternate remedy is provided by law.

27.5. When a right is created by a statute, which itself prescribes the remedy or procedure for enforcing the right or liability, resort must be had to that particular statutory remedy before invoking the discretionary remedy under Article 226 of the Constitution. This rule of exhaustion of statutory remedies is a rule of policy, convenience and discretion.

27.6. In cases where there are disputed questions of fact, the High Court may decide to decline jurisdiction in a writ petition. However, if the High Court is objectively of the view that the nature of the controversy requires the exercise of its writ jurisdiction, such a view would not readily be interfered with." (Emphasis added)

9. I proceed to examine whether the aforesaid principles laid down in the cases cited by the learned counsel for the petitioner are applicable to the facts of the present case.

10. It is recorded in the impugned cancellation order dated 12.10.2017 that the petitioner's fair price shop agreement was suspended by means of an order dated 15.04.2017 and the petitioner was directed to submit his explanation regarding the charges, along with the distribution register and stock register for the period of past six months.

11. When the petitioner did not submit his explanation within the time provided to him, a reminder notice dated 24.07.2017 was sent to him. It was tendered to the petitioner by supply inspector, Gaisdi on 25.07.2017 but the petitioner declined to receive the same. Thereafter, the notice was pasted on the house of the petitioner and its photograph was taken and put on the file along with a report of the Supply Inspector, Gaisdi.

12. The petitioner had filed Appeal No. 34 under Section 28(3) of The Uttar Pradesh Essential Commodities (Regulation of Sale and Distribution Control) Order, 2016, which was allowed and the matter was remanded by means of an order dated 29.08.2017 passed by the Deputy Commissioner (Food), Devi Patan Mandal, Gonda providing that a fresh order be passed within 15 days and the petitioner was directed to cooperate in the inquiry.

13. After remand of the matter, a final reminder dated 02.09.2017 was sent to the petitioner asking him to submit his explanation and requisite documents in furtherance of the earlier letter dated 24.07.2017. The reminder was sent through registered post and it was tendered to the petitioner by the Supply Inspector, Gaisdi by visiting the petitioner's house but the family members of the petitioner present there declined to accept the notice. Upon this, the supply inspector again pasted the notice upon the house of the petitioner, took its photograph and attached it to the file.

14. It has categorically been stated in para 7 of the counter affidavit that ins spite of giving repeated opportunities, the petitioner did not submit any reply / explanation or the records and this fact remains uncontroverted, as the petitioner has not filed any rejoinder affidavit. In view of the aforesaid factual position, the allegation of the petitioner that no opportunity of hearing was provided to him is not acceptable. It appears that adequate opportunity of hearing was provided to the petitioner but the petitioner deliberately failed to avail the same.

15. The learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the petitioner had filed Writ Petition No. 21310 (M/S) of 2017 challenging validity of the suspension order and the cancellation order has been passed during pendency of that Writ Petition.

16. While entertaining Writ Petition No. 21310 (M/S) of 2017, on 11.09.2017 this Court had passed an order directing the Standing Counsel to file counter affidavit in the matter. However, it was specifically provided in that order that the licensing authority may proceed in the matter in question in accordance with the law. Therefore, it appears that the licensing authority proceeded with the matter under directions of this Court contained in the order dated 11.09.2017 passed in Writ Petition No. 21310 (M/S) of 2017 and the order cannot be held to be bad in law on the ground that it has been passed during pendency of the writ petition.

17. The learned counsel for the petitioner lastly submitted that a copy of the inquiry report was not provided to him.

18. A notice was sent to the petitioner through registered post and the Supply Inspector himself repetitively went to the petitioner's house himself to serve a notice asking him to show cause and the petitioner declined to receive the notice. Had he appeared in response to the notice, a copy of the enquiry report could have been provided to him or he could have demanded the same. In view of this conduct of the petitioner in deliberately avoiding participation in the enquiry, he cannot complain of denial of a proper opportunity of hearing to him.

19. In these circumstances, the impugned order dated 12.10.2017 does not suffer from any such illegality as may warrant any interference by this Court in exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The writ petition lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1803
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 08.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR BIRLA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

First Appeal No. 394 of 2024

Shatakshi Mishra ...Appellant
Versus
Deepak Mahendra Pandey (Deceased) & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Shailendra Kumar Ojha, Shyam Surat Shukla

Counsel for the Respondent:
Rakesh Dubey

Family Law - Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 – Section 5 r/w Section 11 - Respondent (Husband) filed petition under Section 11 – Ground - Marriage was an outcome of fraud - Appellant (Wife) was already married - During marriage, she projected herself as unmarried - she has not converted into Hinduism and marriage be declared - Husband died in road accident - Application filed by parents after the respondent's death - Said application was allowed – Held, provisions of Order 22 of CPC are applicable in view of provisions of the Family Court Act - parents were made party to the proceedings to pursue the petition – Impugned order challenged in appeal (Para - 2, 3, 4)

Held: The provisions of Order 22 CPC are applicable in the proceedings pending before the Family court under Section 11 of the Act. Legal Representative who is not "either of the parties" and was not one of the spouse to the marriage in question can pursue the petition filed under Section 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 that marriage should be declared void and therefore, their application filed under Order 22 Rule 3 CPC would be maintainable. It is clear that in such matters the declaration would have an impact on proprietary rights and socio-legal status of the parties cannot be said to have died with such a person. Hence, no illegality or infirmity in the order impugned. (Para - 17, 27, 29, 32)

Appeal is dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Garima Singh Vs Pratima Singh & anr., 2023 (9) ADJ 101 (DB)

2. Maharani Kusumkumari & anr. Vs Smt. Kusumkumari Jadeja & anr., (1991) 1 SCC 582

3. Samar Kumar Roy (Dead) through Legal Representative (Mother) Vs Jharna Bera, (2017) 9 SCC 591

4. Yallawwa Vs Shantavva, (1997) 11 SCC 159

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Kumar Birla, J.
&
Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shyam Surat Shukla, learned counsel for the appellant and Shri Rakesh Dubey, learned counsel appearing for the respondent.

2. The present appeal has been filed against the judgement and order dated 10.01.2024 passed by Additional Principal Judge, Family Court No.3, Kanpur Nagar, in Case no.893 of 2022 (Deepak Mahendra Pandey Versus Shatakshi Mishra), under Section 11/5 of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act').

3. One Deepak Mahendra Pandey filed a petition, under Section 11 of the Act on 05.04.2022 on the ground that the marriage was an outcome of fraud as he has come to know that Shatakshi Mishra (the wife, appellant herein) was already married whereas at the time of marriage, she projected herself as unmarried and even produced various documents showing herself as unmarried girl and that she has also not converted into Hinduism and therefore, the marriage be declared void after filing of the petition. Unfortunately, the husband, Deepak Mahendra Pandey died on 24.02.2023 in a road accident.

4. By the impugned order dated 10.01.2024 , the application filed by the parents after the death of their son was allowed holding that the provisions of Order 22 of the Civil Procedure Code (hereinafter referred to as the 'CPC') are applicable in the present case in the light of the provisions of the Family Court Act and the parents were made party to the proceedings to pursue the petition.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the appellant that the dispute cannot continue after death of one of the spouse during the pendency of the litigation. He submits that after the death of the husband on 24.02.2023, the petition would stand abated.

6. It is further submitted that the Court below has committed a gross mistake of law in holding that the provisions of Order 22 CPC would be applicable in view of Section 10 of the Family Courts, Act, 1984.

7. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondent has supported the impugned order and submits that the Court below has not committed any mistake in allowing the aforesaid application as the property rights would certainly be get affected from the outcome of the present petition filed under Section 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act, if the marriage is declared void. He has placed reliance on a judgement of Hon'ble Division Bench judgement of this Court in Garima Singh Vs. Pratima Singh and another, 2023 (9) ADJ 101 (DB) by making reference to paragraphs 37 to 48 of the judgement.

8. We have considered the rival submissions and have perused the record.

9. Before proceeding further, it would be appropriate to take note of the relevant provisions of law.

10. Sections 5 and 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act reads as under:-

"5. Condition for a Hindu Marriage

" A marriage may be solemnized between any two Hindus, if the following conditions are fulfilled, namely-

1.neither party has a spouse living at the time of the marriage;

2. at the time of the marriage, neither party-

i) is incapable of giving a valid consent to it in consequence of unsoundness of mind; or

ii) though capable of giving a valid consent, has been suffering from mental disorder of such a kind or to such an extent as to be unfit for marriage and the procreation of children; or

iii) has been subject to recurrent attacks of insanity;

3. the bridegroom has completed the age of twenty-one years and the bride, the age of eighteen years at the time of the marriage;

4. the parties are not within the degrees of prohibited relationship unless the custom or usage governing each of them permits of a marriage between the two;

5. the parties are not sapindas of each other, unless the custom or usage governing each of them permits of a marriage between the two;"

11. Void Marriage

"Any marriage solemnized after the commencement of this Act shall be null and void and may, on a petition presented by either party thereto against the other party, be so declared by a decree of nullity if it contravenes any one of the conditions specified in clauses (i) , (iv) and (v) of section 5."

11. Sections 7 and 10 of the Family Courts Act, 1984 reads as under -

"7. Jurisdiction- (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a Family Court shall -

(a) have and exercise all the jurisdiction exercisable by any district court or any subordinate civil court under any law for the time being in force in respect of suits and proceedings of the nature referred to in the explanation; and

(b) be deemed, for the purposes of exercising such jurisdiction under such law, to be a district court or, as the case may be , such subordinate civil court for the area to which the jurisdiction of the Family Court extends.

Explanation - The suits and proceedings referred to in this sub-section are suits and proceedings of the following nature, namely:-

(a) a suit or proceeding between the parties to a marriage for a decree of nullity of marriage (declaring the marriage to be null and void or, as the case may be, annulling the marriage) or restitution of conjugal rights or judicial separation or dissolution of marriage;

(b) a suit or proceeding for a declaration as to the validity of a marriage or as to the matrimonial status of any person;

(c) a suit or proceeding between the parties to a marriage with respect to the property of the parties or of either of them;

(d) a suit or proceeding for an order or injunction in circumstances arising out of a marital relationship;

(e) a suit or proceeding for a declaration as to the legitimacy of any person;

(f) a suit or proceeding for maintenance;

(g) a suit or proceeding in relation to the guardianship of the person or the custody of, or access to any minor.

(2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, a Family Court shall also have and exercise-

(a) the jurisdiction exercisable by a Magistrate of the First Class under Chapter IX (relating to order for maintenance of wife, children and parents) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974); and

(b) such other jurisdiction as may be conferred on it by any other enactment.

10. Procedure generally.-

"(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and the rules, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) and of any other law for the time being in force shall apply to the suits and proceedings other than the proceedings under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) before a Family Court and for the purposes of the said provisions of the Code, a Family Court shall be deemed to be a civil court and shall have all the powers of such court.

2) Subject to the other provisions of this Act and the rules, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) or the rules made thereunder, shall apply to the proceedings under Chapter IX of that Code before a Family Court.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall prevent a Family Court from laying down its own procedure with a view to arrive at a settlement in respect of the subject-matter of the suit or proceedings or at the truth of the facts alleged by the one party and denied by the other."

(Emphasis Supplied)

12. Order 22 Rule 3 CPC reads as under-

Order 22, Rule 3 of CPC

Rule 3 deals with the procedure in case of death of one of several plaintiffs or of sole plaintiff. It states that?

"(1) Where one of two or more plaintiffs dies and the right to sue does not survive to the surviving plaintiff or plaintiffs alone, or a sole plaintiff or sole surviving plaintiff dies and the right to the sue survives, the Court, on an application made in that behalf, shall cause the legal representative of the deceased plaintiff to be made a party and shall proceed with the suit.

(2) Where within the time limited by law no application is made under sub-rule (1), the suit shall abate so far as the deceased plaintiff is concerned, and, on the application of the defendant, the Court may award to him the costs which he may have incurred in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased plaintiff."

(Emphasis Supplied)

13. It is not in dispute that the petition under Section 11 of the Act was filed by the husband and he unfortunately died during pendency of the petition.

14. Two questions arise for consideration in the present case: (1) whether the provisions of CPC particularly Order 22 CPC are applicable in the proceedings before the Family court or not?; and (2) whether the parents can be substituted as legal representatives of the deceased to pursue the proceedings pending before the Family Court under Section 11 of the Act?

15. Insofar as the first question is concerned, a bare reading of the provisions quoted above would clearly reflect that the provisions of CPC other than the proceedings under Chapter IX of the Cr.P.C. would be applicable in all proceedings pending before the Family Court and that for the purpose of the said provision of the Code, a family court shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

16. Learned counsel for the appellant could not dispute the legal position.

17. Accordingly, the question no. 1 is answered in affirmative and it is held that provisions of Order 22 CPC are applicable in the proceedings pending before the Family court under Section 11 of the Act.

18. Insofar as the second question is concerned, learned counsel for the respondent has placed heavy reliance on the judgement of this Court in Garima Singh (supra) and submitted that the parents who are legal representatives of the deceased husband Deepak Mahendra Pnadey are entitled to be made a party to pursue the proceedings under Section 11 of the Act.

19. The question involved in Garima Singh (supra) was that as to whether the first wife has a right to seek declaration under Section 11 of the Act that the marriage performed by the husband with second wife was a void marriage, in other words, whether she is entitle to file a petition for obtaining such declaration.

20. After considering various provisions of Sections 5, 9 and 11 of the Act and Section 7 of the Family Court Act, it was held that the Family Court has rightly granted the right to the first wife to file an application under Section 11 of the Act.

21. Learned counsel for the respondent has referred to paragraphs 37 to 48 of Garima Singh (supra). We have gone through the entire judgement carefully.

22. Relevant paragraphs 37, 44 to 48 of Garima Singh (supra) are quoted as under:

"37. The term "either party thereto" shall be interpreted in harmony with "against the other party". The inclusion of the phrase "against the other party" was intended to provide a clear and purposeful understanding of the section's scope. The provision aims to ensure that anyone aggrieved by the solemnization of a second marriage has the option to file a suit in the family court, aligning with the objectives for which the Family Courts Act, 1984, was established. The underlying intention behind enacting the Family Courts Act, 1984 was to consolidate all litigation pertaining to marital disputes, including matters related to marriage, divorce, custody, guardianship, property partition, maintenance, and other familial suits, under one comprehensive platform. This consolidation was aimed at facilitating the efficient resolution of such cases.

44. The narrow interpretation given to the phrase "either party thereto" should not apply in cases where provisions of social welfare legislation are invoked. Such a restrictive interpretation would affect the principle of equal protection of laws and equality before the law, guaranteed under Article 14 of the Constitution. It would also negatively impact the rights of the first wife, as guaranteed under Article 14 and the provisions of the Family Courts Act, 1984.

45. If the first wife is deprived of seeking a remedy under Section 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act, it would defeat the very purpose and intent of the Act. The protection offered to legally wedded wives under sections 5, 11, and 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act would become insignificant in such a scenario.

46. Even if the meaning of the phrase "either party thereto" is considered to be unclear or ambiguous, the principle of beneficial construction should be applied to determine its intent. There is no justification for interpreting section 11 in a way that restricts its scope or narrows down its meaning. The purpose of granting a decree of nullity is to identify flaws in the marriage and subsequently declare it as void.

47. In the process of beneficial construction, the Court should lean towards an interpretation that serves the interests of justice and aligns with the broader objectives of the law. By doing so, the Court can ensure that the remedies available under section 11 are not unduly limited, and individuals seeking relief are not unjustly deprived of their rights. The ultimate aim of granting a decree of nullity is to annul a marriage that is found to be invalid from its inception, effectively treating it as if it never existed. Therefore, it is essential to interpret the relevant provisions in a manner that facilitates a fair and just outcome for the parties involved.

48. In conclusion, we uphold the family court's decision, which grants the first wife, the respondent in this case, the right to file an application under section 11 of the Hindu Marriage Act. This application seeks the declaration of the second marriage as illegal and void. The Court affirms the validity of the impugned ruling, allowing the first wife to pursue legal recourse to nullify the second marriage on the grounds of its illegality. Accordingly, appeal is dismissed."

(Emphasis Supplied)

23. In Garima Singh (supra) the Court was mainly considering the terms "either party thereto" and it was held that the narrow interpretation given to the phrase "either party thereto" should not apply in cases where provisions of social welfare legislation are invoked. It was also observed that if the first wife is deprived of seeking a remedy under Section 11 of the Act, it would defeat the very purpose and intent of the Act. The protection offered to legally wedded wives under Sections 5, 11 and 12 of the Act would become insignificant in such a scenario. It was also observed that the Court should lean towards an interpretation that serves the interprets of justice and aligns with the broader objectives of the law and by doing so, the Court can ensure that the remedies available under Section 11 are not unduly limited and the individuals seeking relief are not unjustly deprived of their rights.

24. It is needless to say that ultimately the aim of granting a decree of nullity is to annul a marriage that is found to be invalid from its inception effectively treating it as if it never existed. In Garima Singh (supra), the first wife has claimed that her marriage was subsisting when second marriage was performed by the husband and as such, in the light of the provisions of Section 5 of the Act, the second marriage performed by the husband with the appellant-Garima Singh was void ab initio. Indisputably, the property rights are always involved in such cases when the marriage itself is being claimed as void ab initio. Therefore, clearly, the rights of the parties who are legal representatives of the deceased husband are also affected. Hence, in the present case, the parents have a right to get a declaration that the marriage between Shatakshi Mishra, the appellant herein and their son was in violation of provisions of Section 5 of the Act as their property rights are directly affected and they have a right to be made a party to the petition under Section 11 of the Act after the death of their son.

25. To draw further strength to our reasoning and conclusion we would also like to refer to certain other judgements of Hon'ble Apex Court. In Maharani Kusumkumari and another vs. Smt. Kusumkumari Jadeja and another, (1991) 1 SCC 582, the second wife was permitted to file the petition under Section 11 of the Act as the property rights of the family members including the legitimacy of children of void and voidable marriage (section 16 of the Act) would also be involved in a case of claim for property. While interpreting Section 11 of the Act (as it stood prior to amendment in 1976), it was held that the petition filed after death of other spouse was maintainable. The legislative intent was gathered from reading of Section 16 and 1976 amendment as well as Law Commission's report. It was also held that beneficent construction is required insofar as the interpretation of statute is concerned. In the aforesaid case, the appellant-Maharani Kusumkumari married in the year 1960, however, due to strained relationship couple started living separately. Subsequently, the husband re-married the respondent-Smt. Kusumkumari Jadeja therein without legally separating from the appellant and the couple had several issues. The husband died in the year 1974. The appellant-Maharani Kusumkumari filed an application for grant of Letters of Administration and the respondent applied for probate on the basis of an alleged Will, which was denied by the appellant. During the pendency of the proceedings, the respondent filed a petition under Section 11 of the Act for declaring her marriage as a nullity. The appellant had challenged the maintainability of the petition under Section 11 of the Act on the ground that the marriage could not be declared nullity after death of Maharaja. The trial Court and the High Court have rejected the appellant's plea. After discussions, in paragraph 10 of the said judgement, it was held as under;

"10. Even if it be assumed that the meaning of the section was not free from ambiguity, the rule of beneficial construction is called for in ascertaining its meaning. The intention of the legislature in enacting Section 16 was to protect the legitimacy of the children who would have been legitimate if the Act had not been passed in 1955. There is no reason to interpret Section 11 in a manner which would narrow down its field. With respect to the nature of the proceeding, what the court has to do in an application under Section 11 is not bring about any change in the marital status of the parties. The effect of granting a decree of nullity is to discover the flaw in the marriage at the time of its performance and accordingly to grant a decree declaring it to be void. we, therefore, hold that an application under section11 before its amendment in 1976, was maintainable at the instance of a party to the marriage even after the death of the other spouse. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed with costs."

(Emphasis Supplied)

26. The appeal was dismissed and the maintainability of petition filed by the respondent-second wife under Section 11 of the Act was held to be maintainable.

27. It can, therefore, be safely concluded from bare perusal of the aforesaid judgement that the Legal Representative who is not "either of the parties" and was not one of the spouse to the marriage in question can pursue the petition filed under Section 11 of the Act that marriage should be declared void and therefore, their application filed under Order 22 Rule 3 CPC would be maintainable.

28. We would also like to refer to another judgement. Although the facts of that case are different, however, a perusal of the same also reflects that such proceedings can be pursued by the legal representatives of the deceased plaintiff. In the case of Samar Kumar Roy (Dead) through Legal Representative (Mother) vs. Jharna Bera, (2017) 9 SCC 591, the plaintiff sought declaration that the defendant was not his legally married wife and that she had no right to claim him as her husband as his alleged marriage with defendant was not legal and valid, and thus, claimed a permanent injunction restraining defendant from claiming plaintiff as her husband and temporary injunction. It is noticeable that the suit was not based on any ground specified under Section 11 or Section 12 of the Act or under the provisions of Special Marriage Act. In the aforesaid case, after the death of the plaintiff, his mother applied under Order 22 Rule 3 of CPC to be added as a legal representative of the plaintiff. The civil suit was filed on the regular side and was not filed under the provisions of Hindu Marriage Act or the Special Marriage Act. It was held that the suit was not barred either under Section under Section 34 of the Specific Relief Act or under the provisions of Sections 7 and 8 of the Family Court Act. It was held that the High Court erred in setting aside the order allowing the application for substitution of legal representative on the ground that after death of the plaintiff no right to sue survived in favour of the plaintiff's mother. In the aforesaid case, provisions of Section 34 of the Specific Relief Act, Sections 7 and 8 of the Family Court Act and Sections 11 and 12 of the Hindu Marriage Act were considered. While interpreting such provisions, Hon'ble Apex Court has referred to another judgment in the case of Yallawwa vs. Shantavva, (1997) 11 SCC 159. Paragraph 17 of Samar Kumar Roy (supra) is quoted as under:

"17. This Court has referred to personal causes of action and held in Yallawwa v. Shantavva which reads as follows: (SCC pp. 168-69, para 6)"

"6??. Save and except the personal cause of action which dies with the deceased on the principle of actio personalis moritur cum persona i.e. a personal cause of action dies with the person, all the rest of the causes of action which have an impact on proprietary rights and socio-legal status of the parties cannot be said to have died with such a person."

(Emphasis Supplied)

29. In this background, it is clear that in such matters the declaration would have an impact on proprietary rights and socio-legal status of the parties cannot be said to have died with such a person.

30. In view of the discussions made hereinabove, it can safely be concluded that after death of the husband who has filed a petition under Section 11 of the Act the parents have a right to be substituted as legal representatives under Order 22 Rule 3 CPC to pursue the proceedings. The second question is also accordingly answered in affirmative.

31. In such view of the matter, it is clear that if it is being claimed that the marriage is void, legal representative can be impleaded / substituted to pursue the petition filed under Section 11 of the Act.

32. In view of the above, we find no illegality or infirmity in the order impugned.

33. The appeal is devoid of merit and is accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1810
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTH, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 4729 of 2024

Suresh Kumar Mishra ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Rudra Kant Mishra, Sri Satya Prakash Pandey

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A.

Art. 226 of the Constitution of India- F.I.R. quashing-Allegation-Petitioner in connivance of the staff and officers of the ARTO-released 304 vehicles against forged receipts-caused massive loss to the government treasury-ramifications of fraud by the court staff are far –reaching and detrimental to justice system-allegations clearly constitute a cognizable offence-Petitioner is not cooperating with the Investigation Officer

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Karnataka SRTC Vs M.G. Vittal Rao, (2012) 1 SCC 442

2. Ajit Kumar Nag Vs Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd (2005) 7 SCC 764

3. St. of Har. & ors. Vs Bhajan Lal & ors., 1992 Supp. (1) SCC 335

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The petitioner has approached this Court through the instant writ petition to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus to quash the impugned F.I.R. dated 27.4.20223 bearing Case Crime No.236 of 2023, under sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B I.P.C., registered at Police Station Robertsganj, District Sonebhadra, and further not to take any coercive action against the petitioner.

3. On examination of the impugned F.I.R., it reveals that a written complaint was made to the S.H.O., P.S. Sonebhadra by the petitioner, who was working as Senior Assistant Clerk in the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sonebhadra- subsequently, the petitioner turned to be the main accused in the instant F.I.R.- inter-alia stating, in brief, a list of 629 case registered under Motor Vehicles Act by the ARTO Mirzapur for various violations was received in the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sonebhadra for conducting the proceeding in accordance with the provision of Motor Vehicles Act. As per the instructions from the Court, he matched the list of 629 cases with the fine register, receipt book and other records of the Court and found that 304 cases had not been dealt with by the Court and the Challan/fine receipts were found to be forged. On further examination, in seven cases, clerical mistakes were observed; in the rest of the cases, it was revealed that a forgery had been committed in the original receipt, and the amount of the fine was found to be altered/modified clandestinely. In most cases, such forged receipts were issued on public holidays, during the pandemic, when the Court was in recess, or when the Presiding Officer was on leave.

4. On receipt of the written complaint by the petitioner, the police registered the impugned F.I.R. and started the investigation. On perusal of the case diaries produced by the State counsel, it's revealed that the roles of the eight persons have surfaced during the investigation, including the petitioner, and therefore, all of them have been arrayed as accused. Out of eight, two persons have been arrested by the police; two have got interim bail; one has died, and three accused persons' arrest is yet to be effected. The three accused, including the petitioner, are absconding and not cooperating with the investigation.

Therefore, police are conducting raids at their residence and other places of possible hide-outs.

5. The gist of the allegation is that while working as Senior Assistant in the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sonebhadra, from October, 2020 till March, 2023, the petitioner, in connivance with the staff and officers of the ARTO, released 304 vehicles against forged receipts, and caused massive loss to the government treasury by playing fraud upon the court proceedings.

6. The co-accused Prabhat Kumar Sharma, who was working under the supervision of the petitioner, was arrested on 13.12.2023 and on his statement role of the petitioner has surfaced. In the account of accused Prabhat Sharma through e-banking, phone-pe, and google-pe, numerous truck owners and Advocates have deposited a considerable amount to the extent of Rs.20 lacs. It is further revealed that after depositing the cash in his account, it was withdrawn on the same day and handed over to the petitioner. The forged challan receipts used to release the vehicle by the office of ARTO were used as genuine and uploaded on the R.T.O. website by the petitioner and his staff in collusion with the staff/employee of the ARTO office.

7. A disclosure statement of the accused, Virendra Kumar @ Guddu Patel, was also recorded; he inter-alia confessed his role in the commission of a crime and stated that he has worked as a Clerk in the R.T.O. during 2020-2022, as he had good knowledge of the computer. Therefore, he assisted Vinod Srivastava, Harish Chandra, Ajit Mishra and Pankaj Patel, who also worked in the ARTO office. Ajit Mishra's work was to bring documents from the courts; on Vinod Srivastava and Harish Chandra's instruction, he collected fine from the vehicles' owners, and the same was distributed among the accused persons inter-se. A significant share was deposited with Suresh Mishra, the petitioner working in the C.J.M. court. After receipt of his share, the petitioner issued forged duplicate receipts to release the vehicles.

8. The Investigating Officer also recorded Jitendra Maurya's statement, which revealed the Petitioner's Specific Role. Mr. Jitendra Maurya was the owner of the motorcycle bearing UP-64-S-4904, along with other truck and bike owners, and in his statement, the petitioner’s role has also been revealed.

9. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter-alia submits (i) the petitioner is a complainant in the present case; therefore, he cannot be implicated as an accused; (ii) the petitioner has been exonerated in the Departmental Inquiry conducted by Smt. Niharika Chauhan, learned Special Judge, POCSO Act, Sonbhadra and relied upon a letter dated 26.7.2023 issued by the Confidential Section of this Court; (iii) there is no incriminating evidence come forth during the investigation against the petitioner; (iv) the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the instant case merely on the statement of co-accused Prabhat Sharma, who was working under the control and supervision of petitioner; (v) it is a case of malicious prosecution and there is no criminal history of any kind against the petitioner; (vi) petitioner is working as Central Nazir in the Judgeship of District Sonbhadra and undertakes to cooperate with the investigation.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioner has heavily relied upon a letter dated 26.7.2023 in which he was exonerated from all the charges in the administrative inquiry; therefore, sensing the seriousness of the issue, this Court deemed it appropriate to look into the inquiry report and summoned the proceedings of the inquiry vide order dated 15.4.2024 from the District Court, Sonbhadra, to reach a just and logical conclusion.

11. On examination of the record, it's revealed that the petitioner has been exonerated from the charges levelled by Shri Anil Kumar Singh, practising Advocate in District Court, Sonebhadra, on whose complaint the Hon'ble Administrative Judge, District Sonebhadra, directed the District Judge, Sonebhadra, to initiate inquiry against the petitioner. Needless to mention, Shri Anil Kumar Singh, Advocate, who was examined as CW-1 on 29.3.2023, resiled from his earlier statement dated 29.3.2023 and "not pressed" his complaint in his supplementary statement recorded on 27.4.2023.

12. The law is settled in this regard, and the Supreme Court has taken a consistent view in a series of judgments that it is beyond debate that criminal proceedings are distinct from civil proceedings. It is possible in disciplinary matters to establish charges against a delinquent official by a preponderance of probabilities and consequently terminate his services. But the same set of evidence may not be sufficient to take away his liberty under our criminal law jurisprudence1. Such distinction between standards of proof amongst civil and criminal litigation is deliberate, given the differences in stakes, the power imbalance between the parties and the social costs of an erroneous decision. Thus, in a disciplinary enquiry, strict rules of evidence and procedure of a criminal trial are inapplicable, like, statements made before enquiry officers can be relied upon in certain instances2.

13. The nagging question before this Court is whether the petitioner's case falls under the category of cases illustrated by State of Haryana and others v. Bhajan Lal and others3 case for exercising the extraordinary power of the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

14. We have gone through the entire materials placed before us scrupulously, but we are not persuaded to hold that the allegations made in the impugned F.I.R. and the material collected during the investigation lacks bonafide making the entire proceedings vitiated under law. The petitioner is on the run, and the police are conducting raids at the possible hide-outs of the petitioner. Such a large-scale organized fraud can't be executed without the active connivance of the office of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Shonbhadra. As the investigation is at the pre-mature stage and the role of the petitioner has surfaced as a kingpin in executing the crime, therefore, it's not possible to anticipate the result of the investigation and render a finding on the question of malate ideas on the material at present available. Therefore, we are unable to see any force in the contentions of the learned counsel for the petitioner. Moreover, there are serious allegations which have to be weighed after the evidence is collected. It is a well-established proposition of law that a criminal investigation, if otherwise justifiable, does not become vitiated on account of the departmental inquiry.

15. In the backdrop of the material collected by the Investigating Officer qua petitioner, we are not persuaded to hold that the investigation is manifestly attended with malafide and/or the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the petitioner and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge. At this stage, we cannot embark upon a roving inquiry as to the reliability, genuineness, or otherwise correctness of the allegations made in the F.I.R., and the extraordinary and inherent powers do not confer an arbitrary jurisdiction on this Court to act to its whim or caprice.

16. The ramifications of fraud by the court staff are far-reaching and detrimental to the justice system and erode the public trust in the judiciary. When court staff abuse their authority for personal gain, it compromises the integrity of judicial decisions and raises questions about the legitimacy of legal proceedings.

17. Reverting to the materials placed before us, which surfaced during the investigation, in our considered opinion, the allegations against the petitioner do clearly constitute a cognizable offence justifying the registration of F.I.R. and the investigation thereon, this case does not fall under any of the categories of the cases formulated in Bhajan Lal's case (supra) calling for the exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction to the High Court to quash the F.I.R. itself.

18. As the petitioner is not cooperating with the Investigating Officer, the police are conducting raids on his hide-outs; there is serious apprehension to the police that the petitioner may tamper with the evidence and influence the witnesses to be conversant with the proceedings of the criminal case, as had worked in the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate and presently working/posted as Central Nazir in District Court, Sonebhadra; therefore, the prayer for a stay on arrest is hereby declined.

19. As delineated herein above, prima-facie, the allegations are serious, and the potential accused are resourceful. Therefore, a thorough and unbiased investigation shall be conducted without being influenced by external influences for extraneous reasons. The I.G. Police, Varanasi Zone shall supervise the overall investigation, and the Superintendent of Police, Sonebhadra in co-ordination with DIG Police, Mirzapur Range shall supervise the day-to-day investigation.

20. The instant writ petition is dismissed, with the direction to complete the investigation at the earliest. Furthermore, it is directed that the I.G. Police, Varanasi Zone shall ensure that the Investigating Officer avails all available scientific and forensic assistance in collecting evidence, as permissible under law. If allegations of corruption and criminal breach of trust by a government servant emerge during the investigation, all relevant aspects shall be thoroughly examined by the police.

21. The observations made herein above shall have no bearing on an ongoing investigation.

22. Let a copy of this order be transmitted to the I.G. Police, Varanasi Zone and SSP Sonebhadra for immediate and effective compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1814
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 21.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAHUL CHATURVEDI, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 13460 of 2023

Manoj Kumar Gupta & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri Baleshwar Chaturvedi, Sri Mukesh Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Anwar Hussain, Sri Avinash Mani Tripathi, G.A.

Criminal Law – Constitution of India,1950 – Article 226, 261-(3) - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section - 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 386, 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468 & 471 - Indian Evidence Act, 1872 - Section - 3 - Writ Petition – assailing the legality and validity of the FIR – lodged by respondent no. 4, in his personal capacity, being posted as Chief Judicial Magistrate, alleging offence of fraud, cheating, fabrication of documents & extortion of money against the petitioners to teach them a bitter lesson whom are Govt. servants in the electricity department – when respondent no. 4 purchase a residential premises from one Smt. Vandana Pathak there were no any Electricity dues upon said premises – but, when respondent no. 4 moved an application for mutation of his name in the record of the Electricity connection, he apprised that there were Rs, 1,66,916/- is outstanding against the said premises – complaint case - summoning order – the court below, being not find any complicity of proposed accused govt. servants, drooped their names from summoning order – respondent no. 4 filed criminal revision – order of remand back - court below pass a fresh summoning order – Criminal Revision - summoning order was set-aside against Executive Engineer, SDO & junior Engineer – on the other hand, the owner of the premises has also challenged the same proceeding and finally said proceedings were stands quashed by this court – apart from this, in a parallel proceedings, respondent no. 4 also filed a complaint before the District Consumer Dispute Redressal Forum which was dismissed and the appeal thereafter before the Electricity Ombudsman was also dismissed – court finds that, it is clear that respondent no. 4 was trying hard to any how launch a criminal proceedings against the petitioners so as to harass them and when he failed to attain his objective at Lucknow then he decided to took up fake story and after auctioning his chair and position as CJM, Banda any how managed to lodge the FIR – The report of the SIT have completely exposed the conduct of the CJM – Held, The judges are also public servant and under the gaze of public at large and they should always remember that they are to serve the public and not for their personal gains or objective - the present FIR is driven by malafides and in the colourable exercise of power vested in respondent no. 4 – thus, this court have no hesitation to quash the FIR – further, this court has deprecated and reprehended the conduct of the CJM in the strongest term and directed to the Registrar General of this Court to keep the copy of this judgment in the dossier/service record of CJM-respondent no. 4 and also circulate to all sessions divisions of the St. of UP apprising the District judges and judicial officers not to permit any FIR by Judge/Judicial officer in their personal capacity – Application allowed. (Para - 8, 23, 24, 26, 27, 29, 30)

Writ Petition Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. All India Judges Association Vs U.O.I., 1992 (1) SCC 119,

2. Md. Idrisur Rahman, Government of 4 of 25 Bangladesh and Ors. Vs Syed Shahidur Rahman and Ors, 2016(24) BLT (AD) 178,

3. Daya Shankar Vs High Court of Allahabad & ors., 1987 (3) SCC 1,

4. R.C. Chandel Vs High Court of Madhya Pradesh, 2012 (8) SCC 58,

5. Tarak Singh Vs Jyoti Basu, 2005 (1) SCC 201, (Delivered by Hon'ble Rahul Chaturvedi, J.

&
Hon'ble Mohd. Azhar Husain Idrisi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Mukesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners namely (i) Manoj Kumar Gupta, Executive Engineer, LESA Trans, Sitapur Road, Lucknow; (ii) Deependra Singh, Sub Divisional Officer at 33/11 KV Sub Station Faizullaganj, Aliganj, Lucknow; (iii) Rakesh Pratap Singh, contractual employee at 33/11 KV Sub Station GSI, Aliganj, Lucknow and Shri Avinash Mani Tripathi and Shri Anwar Hussain, learned counsel for respondent no.4 Bhagwan Das Gupta, presently posted as C.J.M., Banda and Shri Baleshwar Chaturvedi, learned Amicus Curiae for the Electricity Department and also Shri Ghanshyam Kumar, learned A.G.A.-I for the State of U.P.

• Pleadings have been exchanged between the parties as well as the written submissions were also furnished by the respective counsels. The matter is ripe for final adjudication of the case.

• The matter was heard by this Court at length on 05.10.2023 and the judgment was reserved. In the intervening period, while drafting of judgment was about to complete, the Court came across certain issues which need further clarification. Under the circumstances, on 10.5.2024 the case was ordered to be listed on 21.5.2024 for further hearing. After having clarifications, hence this judgment.

• From the array of the parties, it is evident that the F.I.R. was lodged by respondent no.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, in his personal capacity and on his own name, as an informant of Case Crime No.606 of 2023, u/s 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471 and 386 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Banda, against the petitioners, who are the serving officials of the Electricity Department of the government.

Hence, this petition by the petitioners, who are jointly assailing the legality and validity of the F.I.R. lodged by respondent no.4 who is a judicial officer at Banda Judgeship and posted as Chief Judicial Magistrate.

• Before coming to the merit of the case, this Court would like to enucleate the level of standard expected from the Judges or even from the magistrates and thereafter deal with the merit of the case.

PREFACE :

"My son, do not forget my law, but let your heart keep my commands; Let not justice and truth forsake you, bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart."

As per the provisions of Article 261(3) of the Constitution of India the Judges while discharging their duties in the district courts enjoy constitutional authorities. Their position and authority cannot be compared with the position of other civil servants, discharging their duties their peace, law and order in the society, that's the reason this Court is in favour of calling them as "Judges" and not as a Judicial Officer. They are not officers but Judges. This position was reiterated by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of All India Judges Association vs. Union of India, 1992 (1) SCC 119, holding that the Judges of the district judiciary are exercising the sovereign function of the State. Their status and position cannot be compared with the officers of the district administration or the police administration. If there can be any comparison, their position is at par with the political executives because going by the nature of duties they are supposed to discharge, they are the decision makers and such decision by way of judgments and orders are binding on all throughout the territory in which they exercise their jurisdiction. Accordingly their behaviour, conduct, temperament, tolerance should also be at par with their constitutional position and the same cannot be compared with other officers discharging their duties for implementing the policies in the society.

Justice R.C. Lahoti, the then Chief Justice of India, in "Canons of Judicial Ethics" says that who talks ethics in these days? and who listens to ethics?, Justice Lahoti by way of giving a beautiful example states that;

A patient visited a doctor's clinic and asked the receptionist -

"I want to see a specialist of eyes and ears."

The receptionists said "There are doctors of ears, nose and throat and there are doctors of eyes; There is no specialist who treats both the eyes and ears." But then why are you in need of such a doctor?"

The patient replied "These days I do not see what I hear and I do not hear what I see."

Thus, the last lines of above message, that I do not see what I hear and I do not hear what I see, really are the guidelines for every Judge. His conduct, behaviour and approach should be such, which is suave and soothing to eyes and ear.

In this regard, in our oldest cultural lessons it has been emphatically mentioned as under:

"स्वस्तिप्रजाभ्यः परिपालयन्तां न्यायेन मार्गेण महीं महीशाः।

गोब्राह्मणेभ्यः शुभमस्तु नित्यं लोकाः समस्ताः सुखिनो भवन्तु॥

May the well-being of all people be protected by the powerful and mighty leaders be with law and justice.

May the success be with all divinity and scholars, May all (samastāḥ) the worlds (lokāḥ) become (bhavantu) happy (sukhino)."

In simple words we can say that the judicial ethics, morals, judicial behaviour are the basic principles of the right action for the Judges to ensure their impeccable, spotless and see through image in the society. They consist of or relate to the moral action, conduct, motive, character of a Judge, what is right or befitting to the individual. It can also be said that judicial ethics consists of such values as belongs to the system of the judiciary without regard to the time or place and are preferred for justice dispensation.

A passage for the writings of Sir Winston Churchill generally quoted by Law Commission of India in several reports and recommendations holds a lot of relevance in this regard. This Court is mentioning the passage of Winston Churchill because it is very much relevant for judicial ethics and judicial conduct;

"A form of life and conduct for more severe and restricted than that of ordinary people is required from judges and though unwritten has been most strictly observed. They are at once privileged and restrictive; they have to present a continuous aspect of dignity and conduct".

The aforesaid passage shows that judges has to lead a restricted life. Austerity is a quality to be practised by every Judge-personally as also in the public functioning.

This necessarily gives rise to a situation where the Judges must have a passion perseverance and pain taking habit. He should administer justice according to law and deals with his appointment as public trust, he should not allow other affairs to his private interest to interfere with from and proper performance of his judicial duties, nor should he administer the office for the purpose of advancing his personal ambition or increasing the popularity.

In a Full Bench judgment of Supreme Court of Bangladesh (Appellate Division) in Md. Idrisur Rahman, Government of Bangladesh and Ors. vs. Syed Shahidur Rahman and Ors, 2016(24) BLT (AD) 178 while deciding the constitutional issue involved in the aforesaid appeal having public importance. The point is directly related to code of conduct of the Judges of higher echelons. The code of conduct relates to upholding the integrity and independence of judiciary. It reminds that the Judges to maintain "highest standards of conduct" so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary are preserved. It is expected that the judges should respect and comply with the law and should act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. A judge should not allow family, social, or other relationships to influence judicial conduct. A judge should not lend the prestige of the judicial office to advance the private interests of others; nor convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence the Judge. Every Judge must at all times be conscious that he is under the public gaze and there should be no act or omission by him which is unbecoming of his office.

A couplet of Urdu by an Urdu poet would be mauzu (postulate) herein under:

"मुंसिफ़-ओ-मुद्दई से कैसे रू-ब-रू होंगे,
तमाशबीन कल रक़ीब कू-ब-कू होंगे।
लड़ेंगे कैसे कल तलक वो मेरे बाज़ू थे,
जीत जायेंगे अगर हम बे-आबरू होंगे।"

In yet another judgment in the case of Daya Shankar vs. High Court of Allahabad and others, 1987 (3) SCC 1, held thus :

"Judicial officers cannot have two standards, one in the court and other outside the court. They must have only one standard of rectitude, honesty and integrity. They cannot act even remotely unworthy of the office they occupy."

The first and foremost quality required in a Judge is his integrity. The need of integrity in the judiciary is much higher than other institution. The judiciary is an institution whose foundation is based on honesty, impartiality and integrity of sterling quality. Judges must remember that they are not merely an employee but they hold a high public office. The standard of conduct expected of a Judge is much than that of an ordinary person. The following is the relevant extracts from the judgment of R.C. Chandel vs. High Court of Madhya Pradesh, 2012 (8) SCC 58 :

"Judicial service is not an ordinary government service and the Judges are not employees as such. Judges hold the public office; their function is one of the essential functions of the State. In discharge of their functions and duties, the Judges represent the State. The office that a Judge holds is an office of public trust. A Judge must be a person of impeccable integrity and unimpeachable independence. He must be honest to the core with high moral values. When a litigant enters the courtroom, he must feel secured that the Judge before whom his matter has come, would deliver justice impartially and uninfluenced by any consideration. The standard of conduct expected of a Judge is much higher than an ordinary man. This is no excuse that since the standards in the society have fallen, the Judges who are drawn from the society cannot be expected to have high standards and ethical firmness required of a Judge. A Judge, like Caesar's wife, must be above suspicion. The credibility of the judicial system is dependent upon the Judges who man it. For a democracy to thrive and rule of law to survive, justice system and the judicial process have to be strong and every Judge must discharge his judicial functions with integrity, impartiality and intellectual honesty."

On the similar lines, in the judgment of Tarak Singh vs. Jyoti Basu, 2005 (1) SCC 201 the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that :

"Integrity is the hall-mark of judicial discipline, apart from others. It is high time the judiciary must take utmost care to see that temple of justice do not crack from inside, which will lead to catastrophe in the justice delivery system resulting in the failure of Public Confidence in the system.

We must remember that woodpeckers inside pose a larger threat than the storm outside."

If a person is holding prestigious judicial office, there is nothing wrong in a Judge having an ambition to achieve something, but if the ambition to achieve is rightly to cause a compromise with his divine judicial duty, better not to pursue it, because if a Judge is too ambitious to achieve something materially, he becomes timid. When he becomes timid, there will be tendency to make a compromise between his divine duty and his personal interest. There will be conflict between the interest and duties.

It has been taught in Bible that :

"Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?"

In the instant case which would be discussed by this Court, this exactly happened when Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta occupying a position of Chief Judicial Magistrate at Banda lodges an F.I.R. against the petitioners who are the government servants to teach a bitter lesson to them, so that they may understand the power and position of a C.J.M. These government servants (the petitioners) are of the Electricity Department, were not serving his interest or dancing on his tune, thus by initiating a criminal prosecution against them after levelling bogus and wild allegations, the respondent no.4 wants to kneel down them, before him.

We have extracted the above observations from the various authorities who time and again have underlined the high standards of morals, ethics, integrity, impartiality, see through honesty and selfless service towards society by a judicial officer, who is different and distinct from the rest of the government officers and is being entrusted to do a divine job to perform judicial work with best of his ability, integrity, impartiality and to give up his personal ego, material gains and interest, so that he may pave path for free flow of justice to the common men of the society.

2. We have to test the present case with the above mentioned higher standards of judicial propriety and discipline and the conduct of an individual Judge i.e. Respondent no.4 in the present case.

FACTS OF THE CASE :

3. As mentioned above, the petitioners Manoj Kumar Gupta, Executive Engineer, LESA Trans, Sitapur Road, Lucknow; (ii) Deependra Singh, Sub Divisional Officer at 33/11 KV Sub Station Faizullaganj, Aliganj, Lucknow; (iii) Rakesh Pratap Singh, contractual employee at 33/11 KV Sub Station GSI, Aliganj, Lucknow have jointly invoked the powers of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India with the follow prayers :

"(a) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the First Information Report dated 27.07.2023 in Case Crime No.605 of 2023, under Sections 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 I.P.C., Police Station Kotwali, District Banda (Annexure No.1 of Petition).

(b) issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondent no.2 and 3 not to arrest the petitioners in Case Crime No.605 of 2023, under Sections 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 I.P.C., Police Station-Kotwali, District Banda."

It is worthwhile to mention here that this FIR was lodged against the accused-petitioners by the respondent no.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, posted as C.J.M., Banda in his personal capacity, levelling wild and tailored allegations of fraud, cheating, fabrication of documents, extortion of money against the petitioners who themselves are the government officials of Electricity Department. This F.I.R. is nothing but tissue of utter falsehood, drafted by Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, Respondent No.4.

4. The brief skeleton facts of the case which has given rise to the present controversy are;

(i) a residential premises No.ES-1B/ 239-A, Sitapur Road Yojna (SRY), Aliganj, Lucknow was earlier owned by one Vandana Pathak wife of Atul Awasthi, having Electricity Connection No.4104390000 (from Madhyanchal Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited) was allowed on 15.7.2005 in the name of Vandana Pathak in her above residential premises.

5. Respondent no.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta has purchased the above premises vide sale deed dated 3.8.2009 from Vandana Pathak, and thereafter moved an application to the concerned electricity department for entering his name in place of Vandana Pathak. S.D.O., 33/11 KV Sub Station, G.S.I., Aliganj vide letter dated 17.6.2013 apprised respondent no.4 that Rs.166916/- is outstanding against the above electricity connection (Annexure No.2).

Shocked by this, the respondent no.4 filed a complaint on 20.8.2013 before the Additional Civil Judge, Court No.37, Lucknow for initiating a prosecution u/s 420, 464, 467, 468, 504, 506 I.P.C. against Vandana Pathak, Atul Awasthi (her husband), A.K. Jaiswal (Executive Engineer), Electricity Distribution Division, LESA, Rahim Nagar Sector-6, Jankipuram Extension, Lucknow; Krishna Avatar Vishwakarma and Rajendra Kumar, Junior Engineers, LESA.

In fact, these officials of Electricity Department (the petitioners) have got no concern with inter-se dealing between Vandana Pathak/Atul Awasthi on one hand and Mr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M., Banda on the other hand. S.D.O. has only raised the demand of the outstanding sum over the said residential premises, since Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, Respondent No.4 has now become new owner of the premises in question after 03.8.2009.

6. The court of Additional Civil Judge, Court No.37, Lucknow on 14.2.2014 have summoned Vandana Pathak and her husband Atul Awasthi also u/s 406, 504, 506 I.P.C. in Complaint Case No.88 of 2013 but did not find any complicity of proposed accused no.3, 4 and 5 i.e. Executive Engineer, S.D.O. and Junior Engineer in this tangle, accordingly dropped their names from summoning order dated 14.2.2014.

It seems that aggrieved by this order and with ill motive, Respondent no.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta challenged the order dated 14.2.2014 by filing a Crl. Revision 690 of 2014 in the court of Special Judge, C.B.I., Court no.4, Lucknow who vide judgment and order dated 30.7.2014 allowed the revision and directed the court below to pass a fresh order in the light of the observation in the revisional court's judgment. Accordingly, the concerned Magistrate have again passed a fresh order on 15.5.2015 summoning all the accused in complaint dated 20.8.2013 u/s 504, 506, 406, 420, 467, 468, 120-B I.P.C. including officials of Electricity Department, who have acted in the discharge of official duty, apprising Respondent no.4 about the outstanding sum from the electricity connection installed in the residential premises now owned by Respondent No.4.

This summoning order was challenged by the proposed accused no.3, 4 and 5 by filing Crl. Revision No.124 of 2016 before the revisional court, who vide judgment and order dated 29.01.2021 have allowed the revision and set aside the summoning order dated 15.5.2015, so far as the revisionist are concerned i.e. the Executive Engineer, S.D.O. and Junior Engineer.

7. It was further argued by learned counsel for petitioners that Vandana Pathak and Atul Awasthi too have filed a Criminal Revision before Special Judge, E.C. Act, Lucknow assailing the legality and validity of summoning order dated 15.5.2015. Though the said revision was eventually rejected by the learned revisional court. Aggrieved by the revisional court's order, they have preferred Misc. Single Case No.31368 of 2018 (Vandana Pathak and others vs. State of U.P.), Lucknow Bench of this Court while disposing of the aforesaid 482 application on 13.11.2019 passed the following observation :

"It is undisputed that House No. ES 1B 239/A, EWS, Sitapur Road Scheme, Lucknow was sold by the petitioners to respondent no. 2 vide registered sale deed dated 03.08.2019. In para 3 of the sale deed, it has categorically been mentioned that if any liability, upto the date of execution of the sale deed, is found on the property in question, then the seller (petitioners) shall be responsible to pay the same. In paragraph 5 of the petition, it has specifically been pleaded that petitioners have deposited the last electricity bill on 30.07.2009 and no electricity bill was due on the date of execution of the sale deed, i.e., on 03.08.2019. Para 5 of the petition reads as under:

"That on the date of aforesaid sale deed, there were no electricity dues on the house. The last electricity bill on the said house was Rs.6941/- which was paid on 30.7.2009 by the petitioners i.e. prior to date of registry in favour of complainant.?

Further, if at all, any electricity bill was due, as alleged by respondent no. 2 in the complaint, on the date of execution of the sale deed, i.e., 03.08.2009, petitioners are liable for payment of the same and by any stretch of imagination, no criminal complaint is maintainable, as no alleged offence under Sections 504, 506, 406, 420, 467 and 468 read with Section 120B I.P.C. is made out."

In view of above facts and circumstances, the proceedings against the applicants Vandana Pathak and her husband stands quashed subject to above condition by the Bench of this Court.

8. It is apposite to mention that a parallel to the aforesaid criminal prosecution the respondent no.4 -Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M. in order to mount pressure upon the petitioners, filed a complaint before the 'District Consumer Disputes Redressal Forum, Lucknow', registered as Complaint Case No.01 of 2013 and said complaint was dismissed vide order dated 17.2.2014. This order was challenged by the Respondent no.4 before the 'Electricity Ombudsman Lucknow', registered as Representation No.85 of 2014. The said 'Electricity Ombudsman' vide order dated 7.8.2014 dismissed the representation as he has failed to comply with the mandatory provision to deposit certain percentage of total outstanding amount.

Thus, it is clear that the C.J.M.-Respondent no.4 was trying hard to any how launch a criminal prosecution against the petitioners so as to harass them, though they themselves are government servants. But when Respondent No.4 failed to attain his objective at Lucknow, then he decided to cook up fake story and after auctioning his chair and position as C.J.M., Banda any how managed to lodge the F.I.R. against the petitioners, whose informant was Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M., Banda as Case Crime No.606 of 2023 at P.S. Kotwali, Banda u/s 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 I.P.C. This fact itself speaks volumes about the hidden objective, design and ill motive of Respondent no.4. It is not expected from a C.J.M. that he would use his office and the chair to subserve his personal interest against the petitioners. It is unheard off, that a sitting Chief Judicial Magistrate is acting as an ordinary litigant so as to trap the officials of Electricity Department by initiating a criminal proceeding against them, who probably have declined the Respondent No.4 to serve his interest. Now by twisting their arms, Shri Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M. (Respondent no.4) wants to kneel down these petitioners before him so that the petitioners should ignore the outstanding bill accrued over the previous electricity connection and order new electricity connection on his residential premises owned by him. It means, by extending the threats of proposed criminal case, the petitioners should betray the department and cheat the coffers of State. This seems to be sole motive and objective of Respondent no.4 for initiating the criminal case against them.

9. In paragraph 12 of the petition the petitioners have spelled out the various applications, site inspection report, queries raised by the department, outstanding dues and the steps taken by the department on the application made by respondent no.4. At the end, it has been mentioned that the demand made on 24.6.2023 by the department, the electricity dues were swelled from Rs.1,66,916/- to Rs.2,19,063/- for the intervening period. The said executive engineer has conducted site inspection of aforesaid premises on 17.7.2003 and found that the electricity meter installed for connection no.4104390000 was missing from the place where it was originally installed.

10. Most shocking and startling feature of the case, the Respondent no.4, after loosing legal battle at Lucknow, stoop down to the level when he started hobnobbing and conniving with Dan Bahadur Pal, S.I., P.S. Kotwali, Banda so that he should lodge an F.I.R. at Banda, where Respondent no.4 is posted as C.J.M. This is per se unholy and unethical relationship between a C.J.M. on one hand and Sub Inspector on the other hand. After loosing the legal battle at Lucknow, thereafter District Consumer Forum, Lucknow and denying any relief from the Electricity Ombudsman, the Respondent no.4 C.J.M., Banda has came down to the level whereby he has virtually auctioned his chair and position as C.J.M. while prevailing upon the S.H.O., Kotwali Banda to lodge an F.I.R. against the petitioners. Annexure-9 and Annexure-10 are the glaring example of such type of sub-standard activity on the part of Respondent no.4. The screen shot of whatsapp messages between the concerned Sub Inspector and petitioner no.1, annexed as Annexure-9, speaks volume about the pressure exerted by the Respondent no.4 C.J.M. on the concerned S.I. This is the exceptional example of misuse of one's office and position to extend the threats of criminal prosecution against the petitioners.

This Court is constrained to deprecate, reprimand and condemn this practice in the strongest term to this conduct of Respondent no.4, C.J.M., Banda for exerting pressure upon the concerned S.I. so as to lodge the F.I.R.

This is an unbecoming of a C.J.M. of the district. When the concerned C.J.M., as mentioned above, lost his case at Lucknow, then in its second innings, he has successfully prevailed upon the S.I. named above to lodge the F.I.R., making all sorts of wild and venomous allegations against the petitioners for alleged act of fraud, cheating, fabricating the documents and extortion of money against the petitioners.

11. The Court has perused the contents of F.I.R. in which it has been stated that on 17th June, 2023 the informant has applied for electricity connection vide application no.1013441101. It is alleged that after 5-6 days he has received a call from one Rakesh projecting him as employee of Electricity Department from Lucknow on informant's mobile number 9450095802, demanding from him Rs.20,000/- for the electricity connection at the behest of Executive Engineer and S.D.O., GSI Aliganj, Lucknow. On this, he asked his younger brother Anand Kumar Gupta to hand over Rs.20,000/- but instead of giving a regular connection the petitioners has produced a forged electronically generated document demanding Rs.2,19,063/- as outstanding sum from his old connection.

At this juncture Shri Baleshwar Chaturvedi, learned Amicus Curiae and permanent counsel for the Electricity Department, submits that no second connection as desired by Respondent no.4 would be allowed on the same residential premises, till the outstanding sum for the earlier connection is not cleared-off.

It seems that the respondent no.4 is mixing two different issues:- unless and until the outstanding amount on the earlier electricity connection no.4104390000 is not cleared off, how a new connection would be allotted to the same residential premise?

12. Learned counsel for petitioners has drawn attention of the Court to inter office communication written by Superintendent Engineer to the Executive Engineer on 5.8.2023, a relevant excerpt of the communication reads thus :

''अधोहस्ताक्षरी को अवगत हुआ कि डा० भगवान दास गुप्ता, सी०जे०एम०, बांदा ने पुनः अधोहस्ताक्षरी पर बिना बकाया का पैसा जमा कराये, बकाया परिसर पर विद्युत कनेक्शन देने हेतु दबाव बनाने के लिए अपने सरकारी शक्ति का दुरुपयोग करते हुए गलत आरोप लगाते हुए कोतवाली बांदा में दिनांक 27.07.2023 को अधिशासी अभियन्ता, उपखण्ड अधिकारी, अवर अभियन्ता, लाईन मैन के विरुद्ध विभिन्न धाराओं में मुकदमा पंजीकृत कराया है तथा अपने कार्यरत जनपद पर ही स्थापित कोतवाली थाने के उपनिरीक्षक पर यह दबाव बना रहे है कि इन सब को गिरफ्तार कर लिया जाये एवं दिनांक 04.08.2023 को उपनिरीक्षक कोतवाली बांदा श्री दान बहादुर पाल इस कार्यालय में पड़ताल हेतु आये भी थे।''

This communication speaks volume about the Respondent no.4, Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta who was out and out to exert duress, threat and coercion upon the petitioners, after auctioning his own dignity, honour and reputation with sole objective to compel the petitioners to serve his financial interest and wife-off the outstanding and issue an order for fresh connection.

13. In paragraph 20 of the petition regarding the allegation of paying Rs.20,000/- is concerned, is false and fabricated just to create a false criminal case against the petitioners as argued by the counsel for petitioners. Neither any date nor place has been mentioned in the F.I.R. Who is this Rakesh Kumar and under what capacity he was demanding the amount is a million dollar mystery. The C.J.M. has fasten a wild allegation against senior officials of the electricity department.

14. So far as the electricity dues of Rs.2,19,063/- is concerned, it relates to the aforementioned electricity connection which is genuine and electronically generated from the computerized system and the query dated 26.4.2023 on the application is perfectly valid and genuine. The petitioners have raised this demand of outstanding sum in the discharge of their official duty. On these grounds, it is contended by learned counsel for petitioners, that no offence under Sections 406, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 I.P.C. is made out against the petitioners.

15. It is further argued by learned counsel for petitioners that the C.J.M. misusing the powers as such has prevailed upon the poor Sub Inspector of Police Station Kotwali, Banda and succeeded in lodging the F.I.R. which is nothing but a gross, blatant and naked misuse of power. The action of the petitioners is protected under Section 168 of the Electricity Act, 2003 that anything done in good faith purporting to be done in this Act or Rules, regulations made underunder by any public servant would not be subjected for criminal prosecution.

16. Per contra, a counter affidavit was filed and signed by the respondent no.4 himself in which he has spelled out number of factual aspects of the issue and letter correspondence with the department which cannot be adjudicated in exercise of power under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. By these correspondences with the department, the Respondent no.4 wants to impress upon the Court, that he has been cheated by the hands of petitioners who are officials of Electricity Department.

17. During argument, it has been surfaced that from the date of purchase of said premises i.e. 3.8.2009 till date the Respondent no.4 has paid a meagre sum of around Rs.5,000/- only in last 14 years. This per se is own admission of Respondent no.4 during argument. This is indeed shocking and surprising that in this period of 14 years the respondent no.4 has paid only Rs.5000/- (approx). On making a query during argument, learned counsel for respondent no.4 states that he is using solar power for his daily consumption. It is unswallowable that Respondent no.4, who is C.J.M., has paid Rs.5000/- only without having any Permanent Disconnection of the electricity connection and has paid only Rs.5000/- on the false pretext that he is using solar panel for his daily use. Without having Permanent Disconnection (P.D.C.) or giving application in this behalf asking for P.D.C., the Electricity Department is well within their rights to levy minimum electricity bill on the old connection. Respondent No.4, as mentioned above, has paid Rs.5000/- from the date of purchase of the house till forced P.D.C. was done by the Department in 2021. It is simply amusing that a consumer has paid Rs.5000/- without any P.D.C. for more than a decade.

18. During argument this Court, on 24.8.2023 has given a direction for constituting a S.I.T. to hold a preliminary investigation into the matter. Accordingly, S.I.T. led by (i) Mr. Abdul Hameed, D.I.G., A.N.T.F., U.P. Lucknow; and (ii) Shri Atul Sharma, Senanayak, 24 Battalion P.A.C., Moradabad and (iii) Shri Ram Kishun, S.P. Vigilance Lucknow are the members of the said S.I.T. While passing the Court have formulated following queries for which the probe was supposed to be required, they are :

(a) whether any cognizable offence is made out against the petitioner or not;

(b) whether respondent no.4 has misused his power and position as the C.J.M., Banda;

(c) whether alleged transaction of Rs.20,000/- was ever given by the respondent to a person named as Rakesh and its receipt as alleged in the F.I.R.;

(d) whether demand notice of Rs.2,10,063/- is forged document;

(e) what are the past credentials of respondent no.4 as judicial officer?

(f) whether the respondent no.4 has taken into confidence or taken prior permission from the learned District Judge, Banda before lodging of the F.I.R.

19. The said S.I.T. during threadbare investigation have recorded the statement of Shri Dan Bahadur, I.O. of Case Crime No.605 of 2023 (State vs. Manoj Kumar Gupta), in which he states before the S.I.T. :

"श्री दानबहादुर पुत्र स्व० प्रभुनाथ पाल निवासी ग्राम ढेढरा थाना माण्डा जनपद प्रयागराज पीएनओ-882310277 मो०नं०-8400874647 हाल पता ओपी सिविल लाइन्स थाना कोतवाली नगर जनपद बाँदा- साक्षी ने बताया कि मैं पंजीकृत मु०अ०सं० 605/2023 बनाम मनोज गुप्ता का विवेचक हूँ। उक्त अभियोग की विवेचना में दिनांक 29.07.2023 को बयान वादी अंकित करने के दिन वादी मुकदमा श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा विवेचना में पदीय दबाव बनाते हुये इनके द्वारा कहा गया कि पहले मुलजिम को गिरफ्तार कर कोर्ट में पेश करो। कल रविवार है, कोर्ट मेरी है, रिमाण्ड मजिस्ट्रेट बैठेगें। पुनः दिनांक 07.08.2023 को न्यायालय में बुलाया और कहा कि गिरफ्तारी करिये वरना अभियुक्तगण हाईकोर्ट चले गये तो तुम्हारे लिये ठीक नही होगा तब मैने अपनी वापसी में दिनांक 07.08.2023 के रोजनामचा आम में तस्करा अंकित किया।"

This statement of Mr. Dab Bahadur has completely exposed the nature and conduct of the C.J.M., Banda to its hilt.

20. The S.I.T. after thrashing the material collected during investigation has given a candid report to the queries made by this Court pointwise, which is quoted herein under :

"मा० उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा पारित आदेश दिनांक 24.08.2023 के क्रम में वांछित 06 बिन्दुओं पर अन्तरिम आख्या निम्नवत् हैः-

बिन्दु संख्या-1 : (a) whether any cognizable offence is made out against the petitioners or not;

(क्या याचिकाकर्ता के विरुद्ध कोई संज्ञेय अपराध घटित हो रहा है कि नहीं।)

विशेष अनुसंधान दल द्वारा अब तक लिये गये अभिलेखीय एवं मौखिक साक्ष्य के विश्लेषण से सादर अवगत कराना है कि श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा दिनांक-27.07.2023 को मु0अ0सं0-605/2023धारा-406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 भा० दं० वि० कोतवाली बाँदा में पंजीकृत कराया था। मुकदमा वादी ने अपने अभिकथन में दिनांक-18.09.2023 को अवगत कराया गया कि उनके द्वारा विद्युत संयोजन हेतु दिनांक 17 जून 2023 को आनलाइन आवेदन किया था तथा उनके मोबाईल पर दिनांक-20.06.2023 को राकेश नाम के व्यक्ति का फोन आया कि उक्त आवेदित संयोजन पर भवन निरीक्षण किया जाना है तथा संयोजन शुल्क 20 हजार रूपयें बताया गया। वादी द्वारा बताया गया कि दिनांक-23/24.06.2023 को राकेश लेसा कर्मचारी द्वारा फोन किया गया कि भवन निरीक्षण हेतु आना है एवं संयोजन शुल्क 20 हजार रूपयें की मांग की गयी जिसके सम्बन्ध में मैने अपनी पत्नी को फोन किया कि आनन्द से कहो 20 हजार रूपया देकर राकेश से रसीद ले ले। आनन्द ने अपने पास से 20 हजार रूपये राकेश लेसा कर्मचारी को दिनांक-23/24.06.2023 मकान नंबर उपरोक्त पर देना बताया है। कूट रचित इलेक्ट्रानिक दस्तावेज एवं मनोज गुप्ता अधिशाषी अभियन्ता द्वारा अपने पत्र के माध्यम से बिल की मांग कर उद्यापन करने के आरोप के सम्बन्ध में अब तक की विवेचनात्मक कार्यवाही में साक्षियों के बयान एवं अभिलेखों के सत्यापन एवं स्थलीय निरीक्षण एवं सीडीआर के विश्लेषण से पाया गया कि-

1- उक्त अभियोग में प्रतिवादी राकेश सिंह के द्वारा अपने मो0नं0-9452202530 से वादी मुकदमा श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता के मो0नं0-9450095882 पर दिनांक 20.06.2023 को वार्ता का होना नहीं पाया गया।

2- वादी मुकदमा द्वारा अपने भाई आनन्द से राकेश नाम व्यक्ति को विद्युत संयोजन के लिये 20000/-रू० दिनांक 23/24.06.2023 को देना बताया गया है जब कि राकेश प्रताप

सिंह के मो0नं0-9452202530 के सीडीआर का विश्लेषण किया गया तो उक्त तिथि को राकेश प्रताप सिंह कथित घटनास्थल की सेल आईडी में मौजूद नहीं थे।

3- श्री आनन्द गुप्ता ने कथन में अंकित कराया है कि दिनांक-23/24.06.2023 को मेरी पत्नी ने मेरे मो0नं0-8115526929 पर समय लगभग 18:00 से 19:00 बजे के बीच में मेरे भाई शुभम गुप्ता के मो0नं0-8299440809 पर बात कर बताया कि बिजली वाले आये हैं एवं उपरोक्त आनन्द गुप्ता एवं शुभम गुप्ता के मोबाईल डिटेल सीडीआर का विश्लेषण किया तो उभयपक्षों के बीच दिनांक-22.06.2023 से दिनांक-24.06.2023 तक कोई वार्ता नहीं हुई है और आनन्द गुप्ता के मोबाईल की सेल आईडी कथित घटनास्थल से काफी दूर थी। एवं शुभम गुप्ता के मोबाईल की लोकेशन कथित घटना के समय घटनास्थल से लगभग 15-20 किमी दूर थी।

4- आरोपी राकेश प्रताप सिंह के बयान में आया है कि वह दिनांक-22.06.2023 को समय लगभग 18:00 से 19:00 बजे के बीच सर्वे करने के लिये उपरोक्त आवास पर गया था तथा मकान नम्बर ईएस-1-बी/23ए सीतापुर रोड योजना अलीगंज थाना मड़ियांव कमिश्नरेट लखनऊ का पता न मिलने पर आवेदक के नंबर-9450095802 पर वार्ता कर पता पूछकर गया था और वहाँ एक मात्र महिला मिली थी। उक्त कथन की पुष्टि हेतु राकेश प्रताप सिंह के मो0नं0-9452202530 से वादी मुकदमा के मो०नं०-9450095802 के सीडीआर के विश्लेषण से पाया गया कि उपरोक्त नंबर से उपरोक्त तिथि में समय 18:26 मिनट पर वार्ता हुयी है। जिसकी सर्वे के लिये आने की पुष्टि पूंछतांछ में आनन्द की पत्नी रचना ने भी की है।

इस प्रकार विवेचना के क्रम में आये साक्ष्यों से यह प्रमाणित हो रहा है कि विद्युत संयोजन के लिये सर्वे के समय राकेश प्रताप सिंह, संविदाकर्मी (लाइनमैन) जो दिनांक-22.06.2023 को गया था उस समय राकेश को रचना गुप्ता पत्नी श्री आनन्द गुप्ता मिली थी। मौके पर आनन्द गुप्ता, शुभम गुप्ता आदि कोई मौजूद नहीं थे इसलिए वादी के भाई श्री आनन्द गुप्ता द्वारा रू0 20,000/- विद्युत संयोजन हेतु देने के औचित्य के पुष्टिकारक साक्ष्य प्राप्त नहीं हुए है।

वादी द्वारा आरोपित किया गया है कि श्री मनोज गुप्ता, अधिशाषी अभियन्ता, लखनऊ आदि द्वारा कूट रचित इलेक्ट्रानिक दस्तावेज पर रू0 2,19,063-00 की मांग की जा रही है एवं अपने पत्र दिनांक-18.07.2023 के माध्यम से बिल की भिन्न-भिन्न राशि मांग कर उद्यापन करने विषयक आरोप के सम्बन्ध में अब तक की विवेचनात्मक कार्यवाही में साक्षियों के बयान, अभिलेखों के सत्यापन, स्थलीय निरीक्षण एवं सीडीआर के विश्लेषण से पाया गया कि तथाकथित कूटरचित इलेक्ट्रानिक अधोलिखित दस्तावेज जो वादी मुकदमा द्वारा संदीप तिवारी, निरीक्षक थाना गिरवां के मो0नं0-9454403038 से मो0नं0-9450095802 पर जरिये व्हॉट्स-अप द्वारा श्री संदीप तिवारी, निरीक्षक के आग्रह पर अधिशाषी अभियन्ता, लखनऊ श्री मनोज गुप्ता से प्राप्त हुआ था। मनोज गुप्ता, अधिशाषी अभियन्ता के पत्र दिनांक 18.07.2023 का सत्यापन एसआईटी टीम द्वारा विवेचना के दौरान लेसा कार्यालय जाकर किया गया तो उपरोक्त इलेक्ट्रानिक अभिलेख लेसा कार्यालय के आनलाइन पोर्टल पर मूलरूप में मौजूद हैं जो कथित कूटरचित इलेक्ट्रानिक दस्तावेज उपरोक्त से मिलान करने पर कूटरचित नहीं होना पाया गया, बल्कि पूर्णतया सत्य पाये गये एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता के पत्र उपरोक्त का सत्यापन किया गया तो पत्र भी मूलरूप में पत्रावली पर कार्यालय प्रति के रूप में पाया गया। जिसमें अंकित विद्युत बिल की धनराशियों उनके आनलाइन पोर्टल पर वर्षवार अंकित पायी गयी एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता द्वारा पदीय दायित्वों के निर्वहन में पत्र जारी किया गया था। अतः अभिलेख सत्य पाये गये जिसमें किसी भी तरीके की कूटरचना का होना नहीं पाया गया है। इस प्रकार वादी मुकदमा द्वारा पंजीकृत मु0अ0सं0-605/2023 धारा-406/409/419/420/464/467/468/471/386 भादवि थाना कोतवाली नगर जनपद बाँदा में अब तक की गयी विवेचनात्मक कार्यवाही में प्रथम दृष्टया किसी संज्ञेय अपराध का होना नहीं पाया जा रहा है। साक्ष्य संकलन हेतु विवेचना प्रचलित है।

बिन्दु संख्या-2 : (b) whether respondent no.4 has misused his power and position as the C.J.M. Banda;

(उक्त रिट याचिका में प्रतिवादी नं0-4 के द्वारा सी०जे०एम० बांदा रहते हुए अपनी शक्ति व पद का दुरूपयोग किया है कि नहीं।)

मा० उच्च न्यायालय इलाहाबाद के आदेश के बिन्दु उपरोक्त के सम्बन्ध में जॉच की गयी तो सी०जे०एम० प्रायोजित तरीके से निम्न अवैधानिक कृत्य कराये गये है- बाँदा के पद पर रहते हुये श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा अपने पद व शक्ति का दुरूपयोग करते हुये योजनाबद्ध एवं प्रायोजित तरीके से निम्न अवैधानिक कृत्य कराये गये हैं-

1-इनके द्वारा मु०अ०सं०-605/2023 धारा-406/409/419/420/464/467/ 468/471/386 भादवि थाना कोतवाली नगर जनपद बाँदा विरूद्ध अधिशाषी अभियन्ता, लखनऊ आदि 2 नफर पंजीकृत कराया गया था।

2-उपरोक्त पंजीकृत अभियोग में बगैर साक्ष्य संकलन के विवेचक श्री दानबहादुर पाल उ०नि० कोतवाली नगर बॉदा को

धमकाकर आरोपीगणों की गिरफ्तारी हेतु पदीय दबाव बनाया जिसका तस्करा विवेचक द्वारा रो०आ० दिनांक-07.08.2023 समय 20:06 बजे निम्न प्रकार अंकित है- "दौरानें विवेचना थाना स्थानीय के मु0अ0सं0-605/2023 धारा-406/409/419/420/ 464/467/468/471/386 भादवि के वादी मुकदमा डॉ० भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा अपने कोर्ट मोहर्रिर के मोबाईल से मुझ विवेचक को बुलाकर दबाव बनाया जा रहा है कि अभियुक्तगणों की तत्काल गिरफ्तारी करो अगर गिरफ्तारी नही हुई और अभियुक्तगण हाईकोर्ट चले गये तो मैं तुम्हारे विरूद्ध कठोर से कठोर सजा लिखूँगा। आज पुनः सीजेएम महोदय द्वारा चेम्बर में बुलाकर कहा गया कि अभियुक्तों की गिरफ्तारी क्यों नही कर रहे हो तुम मुझे जानते नही हो मैं तुम्हे एवं तुम्हारे थाने व कोतवाल को ठीक कर दूँगा। तथा अपने प्रभारी निरीक्षक को अवगत कराओ कि तत्काल आकर मुझसे सम्पर्क करो मैं पूर्व में भी कई बार प्रभारी कोतवाली नगर को बता चुका हूँ फिर भी मेरे मुकदमें में कार्यवाही क्यो नही हो रही है। और सीजेएम महोदय ने बताया कि विवेचना में यदि लापरवाही किये तो तुम्हारे खिलाफ विवेचना का आदेश मैं कर दूँगा इस प्रकार सीजेएम महोदय द्वारा कई बार अपने कोर्ट मोहर्रिर के मोबाईल से बुलाकर चेतावनी दी जा रही है। मुझ विवेचक को स्वतन्त्र रूप से विवेचना करने का मौका नही दिया जा रहा है।"

3-एस०डीओ० देवव्रत आर्य जनपद बॉदा द्वारा बताया गया कि आवास संख्या जे0-12 न्यायालय परिसर बाँदा में पूर्व आवासित न्यायधीश श्री नितिन सिंह द्वारा अपने स्थानान्तरण पर विद्युत संयोजन विच्छेदित करने हेतु आवेदन किया गया था। इस क्रम में नियमानुसार विच्छेदित करने गये कर्मियों को पद का दुरूपयोग करते हुये सी०जे०एम० श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा पुलिस बुलाकर थाने में बैठा दिया गया और विच्छेदित मीटर को भी विद्युत कर्मियों को नहीं दिया गया।

4-एस०डीओ० देवव्रत आर्य जनपद बाँदा द्वारा यह भी बताया गया कि सी०जे०एम० बाँदा श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता जो म०नं०-जे०-12 न्यायालय परिसर बाँदा में आवासित रहे थे, के द्वारा अपने पदीय दबाव में विद्युत का उपभोग नियमित रूप से किया जा रहा था, किन्तु अपने नाम पर विद्युत संयोजन नहीं लिया गया था, जिसकी पुष्टि सीजेएम महोदय के मजीद बयानों से भी हुई है।

5- प्रभारी निरीक्षक मनोज कुमार शुक्ला, कोतवाली नगर बाँदा एवं संदीप कुमार तिवारी, प्रभारी निरीक्षक गिरवा द्वारा बताया गया कि जो भी अभियोग उपरोक्त पंजीकृत किया गया है एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता से वार्ता कर अभिलेख मेरे द्वारा मांगे गये है वह सीजेएम महोदय के पदीय प्रभाव में किया गया है।

इस प्रकार उपरोक्त बिन्दु की जांच से स्पष्ट रूप से पाया गया कि श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता, सीजेएम बाँदा द्वारा अपने पदीय शक्ति व पद का दुरूपयोग करते हुये अवैधानिक तरीके से अभियोग पंजीकृत कराया गया है। इसी क्रम में उक्त अभियोग में विवेचक को अवैधानिक विवेचनात्मक कार्यवाही हेतु धमकाया गया है एवं बिना विद्युत संयोजन लिये विद्युत का उपभोग अपने आवास संख्या जे०-12 न्यायालय परिसर बाँदा में किया गया।

बिन्दु संख्या-3 :(c) whether alleged transaction of Rs.20,000/- was ever given by the respondent to a person named as Rakesh and its receipt;

(क्या प्रतिवादी द्वारा 20000/- रूपयें का कथित लेन-देन राकेश नाम के व्यक्ति को किया गया और इसकी रसीद ली गयी कि नहीं।)

उक्त विन्दु के सम्बन्ध में प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट में यह आरोप लगाया गया है कि वादी मुकदमा के भाई श्री आनन्द गुप्ता द्वारा दिनांक-23/24.6.2023 को कनेक्शन के सर्वे के समय राकेश के आने पर श्री आनन्द गुप्ता द्वारा 20,000/-रू० राकेश को दिया था जिसका विवेचना के दौरान प्राप्त साक्ष्य एवं मोबाईल नंबर की सीडीआर का विश्लेषण किया गया तो पाया गया कि उक्त तिथि को लाइनमैन राकेश सर्वे के लिये उक्त भवन पर नहीं गया था अपितु वह दिनांक-22.06.2023 को समय 18:00 से 19:00 के बीच में में गया था उसकी पुष्टि राकेश के मोबाईल नंबर से भी हो रही है। साथ ही श्री आनन्द गुप्ता के मो0नं0-8115526929 एवं शुभम गुप्ता के मो0नं0-8299440809 का विश्लेषण किया गया तो उपरोक्त दोनों लोगों की दिनांक-22.06.2023 से लेकर दिनांक-24.06.2023 तक कथित घटना के समय लोकेशन कथित घटनास्थल से दूरस्थ थी एवं शुभम गुप्ता का लोकेशन कथित घटनास्थल से लगभग 15-20 किमी दूर थी एवं आपस में एक-दूसरे के नंबर से कोई वार्ता नही है, जो कथन के मुताबिक विरोधाभासी है।

इस प्रकार विवेचनात्मक विश्लेषण से किसी भी प्रकार से 20000/-रू0 के लेनदेन के कोई पुष्टिकारक साक्ष्य नही पाये जा रहे हैं, न ही किसी रसीद के साक्ष्य मिले हैं।

बिन्दु संख्या-4 :(d) Whether demand notice of Rs.2,10,063/- is forged document;

(क्या डिमाण्ड नोटिस रू0 2,10,063/- जाली दस्वावेज है कि नहीं।)

उपरोक्त इलेक्ट्रानिक अभिलेख एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता के पत्र सं0 3678 दिनांक-18.07.2023 द्वारा श्री भगवान दास गुप्ता से परिसर पर पूर्व संयोजन के बकाये एवं धनराशि के पुनः निर्धारण के सम्बन्ध में निर्गत किया गया था जिसमें कुल धनराशि 2,19,063 रू० दर्शाया गया है एवं जिसमें दिनांक

28.09.2015 तक का कुल बिल 2,11,998 रू० है एवं उक्त आवास का स्थायी रूप से विद्युत विच्छेदन दिनांक 29.12.2021 को किया गया उस समय कुल बिल राशि 2,19,063 रू० थी। उक्त डिमाण्ड नोटिस का अभिलेखीय सत्यापन एसआईटी टीम द्वारा विवेचना के दौरान लेसा कार्यालय जाकर किया गया तो उपरोक्त इलेक्ट्रानिक अभिलेख लेसा कार्यालय के ऑनलाइन पोर्टल पर मूलरूप में मौजूद है जो कथित इलेक्ट्रानिक दस्तावेज उपरोक्त से मिलान करने पर पूर्णतया सत्य पाये गये एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता के पत्र उपरोक्त का सत्यापन किया गया, तो पत्र भी मूलरूप में पत्रावली पर कार्यालय प्रति के रूप में पाया गया जिसमें अंकित विद्युत बिल की धनराशियों उनके ऑनलाइन पोर्टल पर वर्षवार अंकित पायी गयी एवं अधिशाषी अभियन्ता द्वारा पदीय दायित्वों के निर्वहन में पत्र जारी किया गया था। मा० न्यायालय के आदेश में बिन्दु सं० 04 पर अंकित धनराशि 2,10,063 रू0 की बजाये पत्र में 2,19,063 रू0 पायी गयी है जो उनके पोर्टल पर भी मूल रूप में उपलब्ध है।

अतः अभिलेख सत्य पाये गये जिसमें किसी भी तरीके की कूटरचना का होना नहीं पाया गया है।

बिन्दु संख्या-5 : (e) what are the past credentials of respondent no.4 as judicial officer ?

(रिट याचिका में प्रतिवादी संख्या-4 बतौर न्यायिक अधिकारी की पूर्ववर्ती आम शोहरत की जॉच ।)

विन्दु सं० 05 के सम्बन्ध में विवेचना के दौरान आये साक्ष्यों से यह प्रकाश में आया कि श्री भगवानदास गुप्ता द्वारा सिविल जज सीनियर डिवीजन बांदा के पद पर रहते हुये मु०अ०सं 396/2023 धारा- 420,467,468,406 भादंवि थाना कोतवाली सदर बांदा में अपने छोटे भाई आशीष गुप्ता की पत्नी श्रीमती प्रियंका गुप्ता के द्वारा अपने निवास-जे-12 न्यायालय परिसर के पते को दर्शाते हुए पंजीकृत कराया गया था जबकि उपरोक्त मामले का सम्बन्ध नई दिल्ली व नोयडा से था। वादिनी की मोबाईल लोकेशन घटना के दिन, घटनास्थल वाले जनपद बाँदा में ही नहीं थी। बतौर न्यायिक अधिकारी यह प्रकरण उनके परिवार का व्यक्तिगत प्रकरण था जिसे अपने पदीय प्रभाव में थाना कोतवाली नगर जनपद बांदा के प्रभारी निरीक्षक पर दबाव बनाकर पंजीकृत कराकर विवेचक को बिना साक्ष्य सकंलित किये नामित अभियुक्तों की गिरफ्तारी हेतु दबाव बनाते हुये एन०बी०डब्लू० का वारण्ट जारी कराया गया, किन्तु उपरोक्त प्रकरण की सम्पूर्ण जानकारी होने के बावजूद विवेचना के दौरान अपने अभिकथन में मुकदमा उपरोक्त से सम्बन्धित तथ्यों के विषय में अनभिज्ञता जाहिर की गयी।

इस प्रकार उक्त बिन्दु की जांच से पाया गया कि श्री भगवान दास गुप्ता द्वारा बतौर न्यायिक अधिकारी रहते हुये अपने पारिवारिक मामले में पदीय दबाव में मुकदमा पंजीकृत कराया जाना अवैधानिक था तथा इनकी पूर्व नियुक्तियों जनपद-सुल्तानपुर, सीतापुर, अयोध्या आमशोहरत एवं कार्य आचरण के सम्बन्ध में साक्ष्य संकलन की कार्यवाही शेष है।

विन्दु संख्या-6 (f): Whether the respondent no.4 has taken into confidence or taken prior permission from the learned District Judge, Banda before lodging of the FIR.

(क्या प्रतिवादी संख्या-4 द्वारा एफआईआर दर्ज करने से पूर्व विद्वान जिला न्यायाधीश, बॉदा को विश्वास में लिया गया था या पूर्व अनुमति ली गयी थी की जांच ।)

उपरोक्त विन्दु के सम्बन्ध में मा० न्यायालय को अवगत कराना है कि इस सम्बन्ध में मा०जिला न्यायाधीश जनपद बांदा की प्राप्त आख्या दिनांक 27.09.2023 के माध्यम से अवगत कराया गया है कि कार्यालय में अनुरक्षित पत्रावली के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट होता है कि वादी मुकदमा डा० भगवान दास गुप्ता द्वारा प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट अंकित कराने से पूर्व लिखित रूप से कोई अनुमति प्राप्त नहीं की गयी थी। उनके द्वारा मौखिक रूप अनुमति प्राप्त की गयी थी अथवा नहीं, या जिला जज को विश्वास में लिया गया था अथवा नहीं, इस सम्बन्ध में तत्कालीन जिला जज ही जानकारी दे सकते हैं।

जिला जज, संभल एट चन्दौसी (तत्कालीन जिला जज बाँदा) द्वारा अवगत कराया गया कि उनके कार्यकाल में डा० भगवान दास गुप्ता द्वारा उक्त प्रकरण के सम्बन्ध में उन्हें कभी सूचित नहीं किया गया और न ही मौखिक या लिखित रूप से कोई अनुमति प्राप्त की गयी थी।''

21. From the aforesaid inquiry report, as mentioned above the conduct and character of respondent no.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M. is exposed to the core and the S.I.T. in its report after holding threadbare investigation have come out every allegation made in the F.I.R. against the accused-petitioners is false, motivated and purposive. All the concerned witnesses in their respective statements have unequivocally accused Respondent no.4 for exerting pressure upon them, after misusing his powers as C.J.M., Banda.

22. The judicial office is essentially a public trust. Society is, therefore, entitled to except that a Judge must be a man of high integrity, honesty and required to have a moral vigour, ethical firmness and impervious to corrupt or venial influences. He is required to keep most exacting standards of propriety in judicial conduct. Any conduct which tends to undermine public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the court would be deleterious to the efficacy of judicial process. Society, therefore, expects higher standard of conduct and rectitude from a Judge. Unwritten code of conduct is writ large for judicial officers to emulate and imbibe high moral or ethical standards expected of a higher judicial functionary, as wholesome standard of conduct, which would generate public confidence, accord dignity to the judicial office and enhance public image, not only the Judge but the court itself. It is therefore basic requirement that a Judge's official and personal conduct be free from impropriety; the same must be in tune with the highest standard of the propriety and probity. The standard of conduct is higher than expected from a layman and also higher than expected of an advocate. In fact, even his private life must adhere to high standard of propriety and probity, higher than those deemed acceptable for others.

23. The Judges are also public servant and under the gaze of public at large. They should always remember that they are to serve the public and not for their personal gains or objectives. A Judge is judged not only by his quality of judgements but also by the quality and purity of his private life and character. Impeccable integrity should be reflected both in public and personal life of a Judge. One who stands in judgment over others, should be incorruptible that is the high standard which is expected from a Judge. A Judge who himself wants to become a party in a proceeding then he must quit his office first, to maintain the standard of purity and unblemished character. It is not possible that he remain as a sitting Judge on one hand and after using his power prevail upon his subordinate officer to affect arrest his adversary.

In the present case, this exactly happen when Dan Bahadur, the I.O. of the case was made scapegoat to subserve the design of respondent no.4, as he clearly stated before the S.I.T.

24. Report from S.I.T., as mentioned above, have completely exposed the conduct of Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M. and his level of functioning. If at all Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M. is so keen and adamant to book the petitioners, then he must quit his office and the chair and thereafter contest the case like an ordinary litigant.

As mentioned above, the S.I.T. in its report to the Court which also extracted after thrashing various statements of all concerned and analysing various documents, the S.I.T. forms a prima facie opinion that no criminal case against the petitioner is made out.

25. This Court has no reason to ignore the report of S.I.T. and its conclusion and thus imbibing the same in toto we are of the considered opinion, that the F.I.R. does not disclose any offence as alleged and thus liable to be quashed and same has been procured by the C.J.M. after exerting threats upon the concerned S.I. of Kotwali, Banda.

26. Taking into account the prima facie findings and the material collected by the S.I.T., this Court is of the considered opinion that the present F.I.R. is driven by malafides and in the colourable exercise of power vested in respondent no.4 and thus we have got no hesitation to quash the F.I.R. exercising the extra ordinary powers of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

27. At the very outset of the judgment, we have mentioned in Preface about the character, nature, conduct of a Judge, his position in the society, expectations of public at large from a Judge, his own public and private image and reputation and more importantly his own basic character which should be aboveboard having see through integrity and impeccable and spotless judicial character. The office of a Judge is full of responsibility as he is supposed to perform a divine job, but if we start comparing with the facts of the present case, we have got no hesitation to say that the conduct and character of Respondent No.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta is well short of those essential and basic characters, which mentioned above, rather unbecoming of a Judge. A judicial officer (Respondent no.4), as mentioned above, just to harass the petitioners who in discharging of their official duties were doing a government job entrusted to them, is proceeding to initiate a criminal case, so that the petitioners may kneel down before him and start dancing on his tune. If this is the standard of a Judge, then fate and future of subordinate judiciary is pitch dark and rudderless. He cannot be permitted to enjoy his position as C.J.M. and behave and act as an ordinary litigant. His own interest, it seems, is of the paramount consideration, for which he can stoop down to any level. This Court, as mentioned above, has deprecated and reprehended his conduct in the strongest term and is in the complete disagreement with the action taken by Respondent no.4 against the petitioners.

Such type of conduct shall not be repeated in future by any of the judicial officer, except in the matter of grave and severe nature like murder, suicide, rape or other sexual offences, dowry death, decoity and in rest of the remaining cases, if any, judicial officer or Judge wants to become the first informant in his personal capacity in any F.I.R., he must take his concerned District Judge into confidence and after having the assent from the District Judge, he can become an informant of any F.I.R.

28. Taking into account the totality of circumstances, the impugned F.I.R. so lodged by Respondent No.4 Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta dated 27.7.2023 as Case Crime No.605 of 2023, u/s 406, 409, 419, 420, 464, 467, 468, 471, 386 I.P.C., Police Station-Kotwali, District Banda, is hereby Quashed. The instant Writ Petition stands ALLOWED.

29. Let this judgment and order be circulated through the Registrar General of this Court to all sessions divisions of the State of U.P., apprising the District Judges and Judicial Officers not to permit any F.I.R. by a Judge/Judicial Officer, in their personal capacity to subserve their personal interest, except the cases of serious and heinous in nature viz; murder, dowry deaths, sexual offences/rape or dacoity.

30. Besides this, Registrar General of this Court is directed to keep the copy of this judgment in the dossier/service record of Dr. Bhagwan Das Gupta, C.J.M., Banda, Respondent no.4.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1830
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJNISH KUMAR, J.

First Appeal No. 590 of 1988

Gaya Prasad Yadav (Deceased) & Ors.
...Appellants
Versus
Ram Bux (Deceased) & Ors.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Balram Yadav

Counsel for the Respondents:
S.K. Mehrotra, Nand Kishore

U.P. Zamindari Abolition & Land Reforms Act, 1950-Section 9-Land in dispute cannot be said to be an appurtenant land to the house of Respondent and settled with him u/s 9 of the Act, 1950-plea of adverse possession but has not disclosed as to who is the true owner of the land in dispute-and ownership of Appellants has been denied-adverse possession can be claimed against the true owner –admitting his ownership and proving his possession in his knowledge without any objection- impugned order does not suffers from any illegality.

Second Appeal dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Maharaj Singh Vs St. of U.P. & ors.;(1977) 1 SCC 155

2. Smriti Debbarma (Dead) through Legal Representative Vs Prabha Ranjan Debbarma & ors.-2022 Live Law(SC) 19

3. Jangi Singh Vs Brij Mohan Singh & ors.;2012(30) LCD 2616

4. Dalip Singh Vs Bhupinder Kaur; (2018) 3 SCC 677

5. Suryakunwari Vs Nanhu & ors.;2019(37) LCD 2346

6. Bhagauti Singh @ Chedi Singh S/O Madhuban Singh Vs Mata Prasad Singh S/O Bhaggu Singh; 2022(40)LCD 2461

7. Ram Sukh Vs Gaya Din & anr.;1994(12) LCD 733

8. Dagadabai (Dead) by Legal Representatives Vs Abbas @ Gulab Rustum Pinjari; (2017) 13 SCC 705

9. Ravinder Kaur Grewal & ors. Vs Manjit Kaur & ors.;(2019) 8 SCC 729

10. Kapil Kumar Vs Raj Kumar; (2022) 10 SCC 281

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajnish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard, Sri Balram Yadav, learned counsel for the appellants and Sri Nand Kishore, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The instant second appeal has been filed for setting aside the judgment and decree dated 26.08.1988, passed in Civil Appeal No.525 of 1982; Gaya Prasad and 3 others versus Ram Bux by the IIIrd Additional District Judge, Faizabad and direct the respondent to not interfere into the possession of the appellants.

3. The following substantial questions of law have been formulated by the court in the second appeal:-

"(i) Whether the suit could be decreed only on the basis of adverse possession when plaintiff was found to have no title or have been in adverse possession?

(ii) Whether the findings of the learned trial court are without consideration of evidence and perverse?"

4. The brief facts of the case, as pleaded in the plaint, by the respondent who had filed the Regular Suit No.79 of 1981(Ram Bux versus Gaya Prasad and others) is that the parties are resident of Village Sidhaura, Sahijauna, Tehsil Bikapur, District Faizabad. The land in dispute marked by letters Ka, Kha, Ga, Gha in the plaint map belongs to the plaintiff i.e. the respondent in this appeal(hereinafter referred to as the respondent). The land was in possession of the respondent since before the abolition of Zamindari and thereafter after abolition of Zamindari, it was settled with him under Section 9 of the U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act 1950(hereinafter referred to as the Act of 1950). The respondent used to tie his cattle and keep house hold articles in the said land and has also planted some trees like Ber, Neer, Chilbil etc. The appellants, who were defendants in the aforesaid suit(hereinafter referred to as the appellants), had no concern with the land in dispute. Since there is a pond towards south and west of the house of the respondent, he has shortage of sahan land near his house, therefore he was using the land in dispute for the aforesaid purpose. The plea was also taken that the respondent has matured his title over the land in dispute by way of adverse possession. The appellants, Lakshmi Prasad and Gaya Prasad have their ancestral house in the village in old abadi and about three years back to the filing of the suit, Gaya Prasad had forcibly constructed a house near the disputed land and about 8-10 days back of filing of the suit raised new construction marked by letters Ka, Kha,Pa,Pha in the plaint map, whereas there was no opening towards west in the house of the appellant no.1 situated near the land in dispute. It has also been averred that there is nali in the land in dispute which is being used by the respondent for irrigating his field situated towards south of the land in dispute from the pond on the north side of the land in dispute. The appellants had threatened to dispossess the respondent from the remaining land also marked by letters Pa, Pha, Ba, Bha in the plaint map. Therefore the respondent filed suit for permanent injunction with a prayer for restraining the appellants from interfering with his ownership and possession over the land in dispute and demolition of incomplete new construction. During pendency of the suit, the appellants completed the constructions Ka, Kha, Pa, Pha and cut one tree of Ber, one tree of Chilbil and two trees of Neem belonging to the respondent worth Rs.1500/-. The respondent amended the plaint and sought the relief of demolition of the disputed construction marked by letters Ka, Kha, Pa, Pha.

5. The respondents contested the case before the trial court by filing the written statement and claiming that they are the owners and in possession of the land in dispute since before the abolition of zamindari,therefore they have become the owners of it after abolition of zamindari. The house of the respondent is situated towards north of the land in dispute at a distance and the land in dispute is not appurtenant to his house,therefore it cannot be said to have been settled with him under Section 9 of the Act of 1950. It has also been averred that land in dispute has always been used by the appellants for tying cattle and keeping Ghoor etc. and trees have been planted by them. It has been denied that the house constructed by the appellant-Gaya Prasad situated towards east of the land in dispute is new one and it is old one and it has always a door facing towards west. Brij Lal was the father of the appellants Lakshmi Prasad and Gaya Prasad. Gaya Prasad had three sons, namely, Ram Pher, Ram Sumer and Mata Deen and Lakshmi Prasad had two sons, namely, Hari Bhajan and Sukh Deo. They have not been made party to the suit, therefore the suit is bad for non joinder of the necessary parties. However,it has been admitted that the old house of appellants No.1 and 2 i.e. Gaya Prasad and Lakshmi Prasad is situated at some distance towards north and east of the present house and there was shortage of accommodation in the old house,therefore Gaya Prasad and Lakshmi Prasad got partition done about 35 years back, consequently, Gaya Prasad constructed new house towards east on the land in dispute, which had come in his share and since then he is the exclusive owner and in possession of the land in dispute. There was a pond towards east of the house of Gaya Prasad, who levelled it to earth and some new trees have also been planted by him on the land in dispute. The house is situated towards east of the land in dispute and is about 30 years old. There was an old osara of thached structure towards west of the house,which was reconstructed by defendant no.1 i.e. appellant no.1 on pakki wall and it has been denied that the osara was new one.

6. After exchange of pleadings, the trial court framed 9 issues and thereafter the parties led evidence The learned trial court after considering the pleadings and evidence, allowed the suit filed by the respondent and decreed it by means of the judgment and decree dated 20.11.1982. It was further directed that the appellants shall remove the disputed construction from the land in dispute within two months and do not interfere in the possession and peaceful enjoyment of the land in dispute described in the plaint by the respondent. Being aggrieved by the same, the civil appeal was filed by the defendants i.e. the present appellants. The appellate court, after considering the rival contentions of the parties and affording them opportunity of hearing and considering the pleadings and evidence on record, found that there is no documentary evidence on record by either of the parties, therefore the case is to be decided on the basis of oral evidence and after considering and scrutinizing the evidence of the parties decided the civil appeal by means of the judgment and decree dated 26.08.1988 dismissing the appeal with cost and confirming the judgment and decree passed by the trial court. Hence, the present second appeal was filed, in which the aforesaid substantial questions of law have been formulated.

7. Learned counsel for the appellants submitted that the appellants are in possession on the land in dispute since before the abolition of zamindari and, accordingly, it settled with them under Section 9 of the Act of 1950 after abolition of zamindari. In partition between the brothers, it had come to the appellant no.1, who had constructed the house on the eastern side of the land in dispute with an opening on the western side of his house towards the land in dispute since beginning. His osara is also on the land in dispute, which is old one. He further submitted that the land in dispute is not appurtenant land to the house of the respondent and at a considerable distance from the house of the respondent on the southern side,therefore it cannot be said to be appurtenant land to the house of the respondent and settled with him under Section 9 of the Act of 1950. He had also never in possession on the land in dispute and the appellants are in possession. But trial court without considering it and the oral evidence adduced before the trial court and wrongly and illegally examining the evidence of the parties, allowed the suit. He further submitted that the appellate court also failed to consider the above and without appreciating the evidence of the parties appropriately dismissed the suit. Thus, the submission was that since the land in dispute cannot be treated an appurtenant land of the house of the respondent,therefore no rights could have been said to have accrued to him on the land in dispute. It has also been submitted that the case set up by the respondent on the basis of adverse possession is also totally misconceived and not tenable for the reason that he had never been in possession of the land in dispute. Accordingly learned counsel for the appellants submitted that the appeal is liable to be allowed and the judgment and decree passed by the first appellate court is liable to be set aside. He relied on Maharaj Singh versus State of Uttar Pradesh and others;(1977) 1 SCC 155 and Smriti Debbarma (Dead) through Legal Representative versus Prabha Ranjan Debbarma and Others;2022 Live Law(SC) 19.

8. Per contra, learned counsel for the respondent submitted that the respondent had been in possession on the land in dispute since prior to abolition of zamindari, therefore it has settled with him after abolition of zamindari under Section 9 of the Act of 1950. The respondent was using this land for various agricultural purposes because there is no land near his house for the said purpose, which is essential for a farmer residing in village. He had also planted some trees on the land in dispute and constructed the nali from north to south for irrigation of his agricultural land from the pond situated adjacent to the land in dispute on the southern side from the pond on the north side of the land in dispute. He further submitted that the appellants had house in the old abadi and the appellant no.1 has constructed a house adjacent to the land in dispute forcibly about three years back but there was no door towards the land in dispute on the western side. However, about 8-10 days prior to filing of the suit, he had opened the door on the western side towards the land in dispute and started making osara on the land in dispute, therefore the respondent had to file the suit. He further submitted that during pendency of the suit, the appellants had completed their construction on the land in dispute and have also cut some trees which has been proved by the commission report,which was conducted in pursuance of the order passed by the trial court in presence of the parties. He further submitted that the learned trial court as well as the first appellate court have rightly and in accordance with law allowed and decreed the suit and dismissed the appeal after considering the evidence led by the parties and pleadings on record. There is no illegality or error in the orders passed by the trial court as well as the appellate court and the concurrent findings of facts recorded by them may not be interfered by this Court as there is no illegality or perversity in it. The appeal is liable to be dismissed. He relied on Jangi Singh versus Brij Mohan Singh and others;2012(30) LCD 2616,Dalip Singh versus Bhupinder Kaur; (2018) 3 SCC 677,Suryakunwari versus Nanhu and Others;2019(37) LCD 2346 and Bhagauti Singh @ Chedi Singh S/O Madhuban Singh versus Mata Prasad Singh S/O Bhaggu Singh; 2022(40)LCD 2461.

9. I have considered the submissions of learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

10. The land in dispute is being claimed to have settled with them by both the parties under Section 9 of the Act of 1950, being in possession since prior to the abolition of zamindari. The spot position shows that the house of the respondent is situated towards north of the land in dispute after a reasonable distance and some abadi and a pond(talab).

11. Section 9 of the Act of 1950 provides for conceptualizing the area appurtenant to buildings to have settled with them. ‘Appurtenance’, in relation to a building etc. is dependence of the building on what appertains to it for its use as a building. It has been considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Maharaj Singh versus State of Uttar Pradesh and others(supra) and held that in short the touch stone of "appurtenance" is dependence of the buiilding on what appertains to it for use as a building. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has also observed that the High Court has granted viz.5 yards of surrounding space, is sound in law although based on the guess work in fact. As such in fact the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed that 5 years of surounding space is based only on guess work. However,appurtenant does not mean just adjacent to the house as held by this Court, in the case of Ram Sukh versus Gaya Din & Another;1994(12) LCD 733, the relevant paragraphs 28 and 29 of which are extracted here-in-below:-

"28. It is also well settled that a Riaya may have the Sahan Darwaza on all the sides of a house. It is user of the land on the date of vesting and prior thereto is material. The passing of a galiyara or Rasta or drain in between the building or house and the land over which in relation to a building or house, the rights of appurtenance is claimed, does not adversely affect the sahan darwaza right or rights involving rights of a person to a land as land appurtenant In the case of Special Manager Court of Wards. Balrampur Estate v. Shyam Lal (AIR 1936 Oudh 324) it has been held by the Chief Court of Oudh, that land appurtenant to residential house need not be actually adjoining the house and the user of the land for the enjoyment of the house by the claimant or by person is necessary to be proved with certain length of period may be of 12 years as held by Chief Court of Oudh in the case of S. Murtaza Ali v. Emperor, reported in (AIR 1947 Oudh page 131).

29. The material observation of the Hon'ble Chief Court of Oudh in the case of Balrampur Estate (Supra) reads as under:

"As to the argument that the land in question cannot be treated as appurtenant to house because there is a public road interven- ing I do not think there is any force in the contention. No authority has been cited for the view that appurtenant land must actually be adjoining the residential house, prima facie, I do not see why a tenant should not use land opposite his house but on the other side of public way for the purpose of tethering his cattle and why such land should not be regarded as appurtenant to his house. In absence of any authority to the contrary I think it may be held that the land is appurtenant."

12. In view of above, it cannot be said that the land in dispute is an appurtenant land to the house of the respondent and settled with him under Section 9 of the Act of 1950.

13. The other plea taken by the respondent is of adverse possession, but he has not disclosed as to who is the true owner of the land in dispute against whom he is claiming adverse possession and the ownership of appellants has been denied, whereas adverse possession can be claimed against the true owner and only after admitting his ownership and proving his possession in his knowledge without any objection. In absence of any such pleadings and proof, it cannot be said that the respondent has matured his title by way of adverse possession.

14. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Dagadabai (Dead) by Legal Representatives versus Abbas alia Gulab Rustum Pinjari; (2017) 13 SCC 705, has held that it is a settled principle of law of adverse possession that the person, who claims title over the property on the strength of adverse possession and thereby wants the Court to divest the true owner of his ownership rights over such property, is required to prove his case only against the true owner of the property. It is equally well-settled that such person must necessarily first admit the ownership of the true owner over the property to the knowledge of the true owner and secondly, the true owner has to be made a party to the suit to enable the Court to decide the plea of adverse possession between the two rival claimants. The relevant paragraphs 16 and 17 are extracted here-in-below:-

"16. Fourth, the High Court erred fundamentally in observing in para 7 that, "it was not necessary for him (defendant) to first admit the ownership of the plaintiff before raising such a plea". In our considered opinion, these observations of the High Court are against the law of adverse possession. It is a settled principle of law of adverse possession that the person, who claims title over the property on the strength of adverse possession and thereby wants the Court to divest the true owner of his ownership rights over such property, is required to prove his case only against the true owner of the property. It is equally well settled that such person must necessarily first admit the ownership of the true owner over the property to the knowledge of the true owner and secondly, the true owner has to be made a party to the suit to enable the Court to decide the plea of adverse possession between the two rival claimants.

17. It is only thereafter and subject to proving other material conditions with the aid of adequate evidence on the issue of actual, peaceful, and uninterrupted continuous possession of the person over the suit property for more than 12 years to the exclusion of true owner with the element of hostility in asserting the rights of ownership to the knowledge of the true owner, a case of adverse possession can be held to be made out which, in turn, results in depriving the true owner of his ownership rights in the property and vests ownership rights of the property in the person who claims it.

15. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ravinder Kaur Grewal and others versus Manjit Kaur and others;(2019) 8 SCC 729 has held as under in paragraph 60 and 61:-

"60. The adverse possession requires all the three classic requirements to co-exist at the same time, namely, nec vi i.e. adequate in continuity, nec clam i.e. adequate in publicity and nec precorio i.e. adverse to a competitor, in denial of title and his knowledge. Visible, notorious and peaceful so that if the owner does not take care to know notorious facts, knowledge is attributed to him on the basis that but for due diligence he would have known it. Adverse possession cannot be decreed on a title which is not pleaded. Animus possidendi under hostile colour of title is required. Trespasser's long possession is not synonymous with adverse possession. Trespasser's possession is construed to be on behalf of the owner, the casual user does not constitute adverse possession. The owner can take possession from a trespasser at any point in time. Possessor looks after the property, protects it and in case of agricultural property by and large the coricept is that actual tiller should own the land who works by dint of his hard labour and makes the land cultivable. The legislature in various States confers rights based on possession.

61. Adverse possession is heritable and there can be tacking of adverse possession by two or more persons as the right is transmissible one. In our opinion, it confers a perfected right which cannot be defeated on re-entry except as provided in Article 65 itself. Tacking is based on the fulfilment of certain conditions, tacking may be by possession by the purchaser, legatee or assignee, etc. so as to constitute continuity of possession, that person must be claiming through whom it is sought to be tacked, and would depend on the identity of the same property under the same right. Two distinct trespassers cannot tack their possession to constitute conferral of right by adverse possession for the prescribed period."

"

16. The learned trial court as well as the appellate court, on the basis of pleadings and evidence of the parties, found that the land in dispute is situated towards west of the house of the appellants and at a reasonable distance in the south of the house of the respondent and the agricultural land of the respondent is in the south of the land in dispute,adjacent to it. It has been stated by the respondent Ram Bux, who appeared as P.W.1, that he was in possession of the land in dispute since before the abolition of zamindari and his house is situated towards north of it after talab. There was shortage of sahan land near his house therefore his ancestors occupied the land in dispute for various agricultural purposes and work of leather and remained in peaceful possession of this land. In the cross examination, he stated that there is a rasta connecting his house to the land in dispute towards south and there is no ahata in his house towards north and west. The houses of his real brothers Munai and Kandhai are situated towards east of his house. There is no open land towards east of his house and towards north of his house there are bamboo clumps, towards south of his house there is gali and towards west of his house there is talab after some distance. The learned court's below also found that the commissioner's map shows that there is little open land towards west of the house of the respondent and the land in dispute is well connected from his house by a rasta. Admittedly, the agricultural land of the respondent is situated towards south of the land in dispute, which is adjacent to it and there is a naali in the land in dispute from north to south i.e. from the pond(talab) to the land in dispute,in regard to which respondent stated that he has constructed this naali for irrigation of his agricultural field. However, it has been disputed by the appellants, who have stated that it was constructed by them for preserving the water of rains, which could not be proved by any cogent evidence because it goes to the agricultural field of the respondent.

17. The respondent has also stated that he is living separately after separation from his brothers since last 35 years. He has also stated in his evidence that the appellants have their house in the old abadi, which is not disputed by the appellants and he has constructed his house adjacent to the land in dispute about 3 years back, meaning thereby, his house was constructed in the year 1976. P.W.2-Nithuri, though of not the same village, has stated that the respondent has some agricultural land in the disputed village and has also stated that the appellants had pressurized him not to depose in favour of the respondent. There is also no dispute among the parties that there are some trees on the land in dispute. The Commissioner, who visited the spot also found naali which was connecting agricultural field of the respondent situated towards south of the land in dispute from pond, in regard to which a specific plea has been made by the respondent that it was made by him for irrigation of his field. The appellants could not deny the existence of it, which also supports the case of the respondent that he is in possession of the land in dispute, which was being used by him for keeping cattle, ghoor etc. It is settled law that if any person is in possession of any land by any means, he can be ejected only by the real owner in accordance with law and none else. Therefore, merely because the land in dispute is situated at some distance from the house of the respondent, his possession cannot be disbelieved on the land in dispute, when it is proved by evidence and admittedly the agricultural filed of the respondent is situated towards south of the land in dispute, adjacent to it since before the chakbandi operation. The aforesaid concurrent findings of fact have been recorded by the trial court as well as the appellate court and held that it cannot be said that the possession of the respondent over the land in dispute was without any basis.

18. While considering the case of the appellants, it has been found by the appellate court that the defendant i.e. the appellant Gaya Prasad, who is owner of the house situated towards east of the land in dispute has not appeared and adduced any evidence. His brother, Lakshmi Prasad appeared as D.W.1. Though the appellants had set up a case in the written statement that the partition had taken place about 35-36 years back between the brothers but D.W.1 could not state as to when the partition had taken place. In fact the D.W.1 tried to conceal the material facts. D.W.2 Gaya Charan, who has constructed the house of Gaya Prasad stated that his house was constructed about 30 years back. In his cross examination, he has admitted his age as 45 years. Therefore according to him, the house of Gaya Prasad is now about 30 years old, whereas according to the evidence of D.W.3 Jokhu, it was about 20 years old because he stated that when this house was constructed he was aged about 25 years and his statement was recorded in the year 1982 and his age at that time was 45 years. However, according to the commissioner, the house of Gaya Prasad was old one, therefore the appellants have not given the correct and true facts and concealed.

19. The respondent had set up a case that the appellant had no door on the side of the land in dispute and commissioner who visited the spot during pendency of the suit has clearly mentioned in his report that the door was new one and it was opened newly as was evident from the fresh mud used . He has also reported that the disputed construction marked by letters ka, Kha,Pa,Pha was under construction at the time of his visit and it was new one and he found no sign of old construction on the land in dispute. The appellants have failed to give any cogent evidence to show that there was any old construction on the land in dispute. The commissioner has also found some pits in the land in dispute, from where the trees were cut. D.W.2 has also admitted in his cross examination that at the time of construction of ka, Kha,Pa,Pha,he found some dry cut trees on the land in dispute, in regard to which no explanation has been given by the appellants in their written statement or evidence. D.W.2,has stated that he had constructed the house in the year 1956 and his statement was recorded in the year 1982 therefore the house of Gaya Prasad must have been constructed 25 years back but he has also stated that he had gone to his house about two years back for certain repairs. Therefore on the basis of above, the courts below found that the respondent is in possession of the land in dispute and as correctly observed by first appellate court that the person in possession can be evicted only by the owner of the house that too only in accordance with law and the appellants have failed to prove their ownership and possession on the land in dispute.

20. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Smriti Debbarma (Dead) through Legal Representative versus Prabha Ranjan Debbarma and Others(supra) has held that a person in possession of the land in the assumed character as the owner, and exercising peacebly the ordinary rights of ownership, has a legal right against the entire world except the rightful owner and lies on the party who asserts the existence of a particular state of things on the basis of which she claims relief.

21. The Hon'ble Supreme Court, in the case of Ravinder Kaur Grewal and others versus Manjit Kaur and others(supra), has held that a person in possession cannot be ousted by another person except by due procedure of law.

22. In view of above the courts below have recorded concurrent findings of facts on the basis of pleadings and evidence of the parties and held that the respondent is in possession on the land in dispute and the appellants have opened a door towards the west of their house on the land in dispute and raised certain constructions on it. This Court does not find any illegality or perversity in the concurrent findings recorded by the courts below, which may require any interference by this Court.

23. A coordinate Bench of this Court, in the case of Suryakunwari versus Nanhu and Others(supra), considering several judgments including Dalip Singh versus Bhupinder Kaur(supra) has held that the concurrent findings of fact recorded by the two courts are not liable to be set aside unless and until the findings are perverse. The relevant paragraphs 11 to 16 are extracted here-in-below:-

"11. In this case, there are concurrent findings on facts by both the courts below. The Hon'ble Apex Court in catena of judgments has laid down the law that the concurrent findings of fact recorded by two courts below should not be interfered by the High Court in Second Appeal, unless and until the findings are perverse.

12. In a recent case of Shivah Balram Haibatti Vs. Avinash Maruthi Pawar (2018)11 SCC 652 the Apex Court has held as under:-

"..... These findings being concurrent findings of fact were binding on the High Court and, therefore, the second appeal should have been dismissed in limine as involving no substantial question of law."

13. In another recent case of Narendra and others Vs. Ajabrao S/o Narayan Katare (dead) through legal representatives, (2018) 11 SCC 564 the Hon'ble Apex Court held as under:-

"...interference in second appeal with finding of fact is permissible where such finding is found to be wholly perverse to the extent that no judicial person could ever record such finding or where that finding is found to be against any settled principle of law or pleadings or evidence. Such errors constitute a question of law permitting interference in Second Appeal."

14. In one more recent case Dalip Singh Vs. Bhupinder Kaur, (2018) 3 SCC 677 the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that if there is no perversity in concurrent findings of fact, interference by the High Court in Second Appeal is not permissible.

15. In Gautam Sarup v. Leela Jetly and Ors. [(2008) 7 SCC 85], the Apex Court held that a party is entitled to take an alternative plea. Such alternative pleas, however, cannot be mutually destructive of each other.

16. In State Bank of India and others Vs. S.N. Goyal; (2008) 8 SCC 92 the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as under :-

"Second appeals would lie in cases which involve substantial questions of law. The word 'substantial' prefixed to 'question of law' does not refer to the stakes involved in the case, nor intended to refer only to questions of law of general importance, but refers to impact or effect of the question of law on the decision in the lis between the parties. 'Substantial questions of law' means not only substantial questions of law of general importance, but also substantial question of law arising in a case as between the parties. In the context of section 100 CPC, any question of law which affects the final decision in a case is a substantial question of law as between the parties. A question of law which arises incidentally or collaterally, having no bearing in the final outcome, will not be a substantial question of law. Where there is a clear and settled enunciation on a question of law, by this Court or by the High Court concerned, it cannot be said that the case involves a substantial question of law."

24. Similar view has been taken by a Coordinate Bench of this Court, in the case of Bhagauti Singh @ Chedi Singh S/O Madhuban Singh versus Mata Prasad Singh S/O Bhaggu Singh(supra), in which it has been held that it is crystal clear that the High Court in exercise of power under Section 100 CPC should not interfere in the findings of fact recorded by the first appellate court, which is a final court of fact or concurrent findings of fact unless the same are based on no evidence or perverse.

25. A coordinate Bench of this Court, in the case of Jangi Singh versus Brij Mohan Singh and others(supra), has held that both the courts below have recorded their finding on the basis of the evidence on record which does not give any rise to the substantial question of law as raised by the defendant-appellant. However observation in regard to appurtenant land is not applicable on the facts and circumstances of this case.

26. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Kapil Kumar versus Raj Kumar; (2022) 10 SCC 281, has held that unless the concurrent findings recorded by the courts below were found to be perverse, the same were not required to be interfered with by the High Court in exercise of powers under Section 100 CPC.

27. In view of above and considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the view that trial court as well as the first appellate court have recorded finding of facts on the basis of the pleadings and evidence as well as the commission report, which does not suffer from any illegality,error or perversity which may require any interference by this Court. The aforesaid substantial questions of law formulated by this Court are answered accordingly. This second appeal has been filed on mis-conceived and baseless grounds, which is liable to be dismissed.

28. The second appeal is, accordingly, dismissed with cost.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1840
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 24.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Transfer Application (Criminal) No. 66 of 2022

Smt. Roshan Jahan ...Applicant
Versus
Hasmat Ali @ Chhedu & Anr.
...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Subhash Bisaria

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973- Sections 125, 340 & 407 - Transfer Application – to transfer two Misc. Cases, from family court, Sitapur to Family court, Lucknow - on the ground of apprehension that opposite party may herm her and her family members – and they tried to influence the proceedings of trial at Sitapur – court finds that, the few instances may suggest heightened feelings amongst the contesting parties but they do not call for transfer of proceedings to another district – if she is aggrieved, she may approach competent forum for redressal of her grievances – held, the relative convenience and difficulties of all the parties are involved in the process which are taken into account - no credible case for transfer of trial to alternative venues outside the district is made out in present case - it is just a ploy adopted by the applicant to delay the proceedings – thus, no interference is required to entertain the instant application, accordingly, rejected. (Para – 8, 9)

Transfer Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajkumar Sabu Vs Sabu Trade private ltd. (2021 SCC online SC 3780,

2. Satish jaggi Vs St. of Chhatisgarh (2007) 3 SCC 62),

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Sri Subhash Bisaria, learned counsel for the applicant and Ms. Ankita Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State as well as perused the record.

2. This application Under Section 407 Cr.P.C. has been moved on behalf of applicant with a prayer to transfer the Misc. Case No.1151/2019, Misc. Case No.349/2021 and Misc. Case No.942/2021 for recovery of maintenance amount which is pending before the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Sitapur, arising out of Criminal Case No.3702182/2014, under Section 125 Cr.P.C. and also Misc. Case No.741/2017, under Section 340 Cr.P.C. to the court of learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Lucknow.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is the wife of opposite party No.1 and she lives in Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh and she always lives in fear whenever she has to appear in District Court, Sitapur as she has an apprehension that the opposite party no.1 may harm her. He further submits that opposite party no.1 always threaten her and abused her and her family members whenever, she appeared in the Trial Court, Sitapur. He further submits that proceedings under Section 125 Cr.P.C. are also pending before the Family Court, Sitapur between the opposite party No.1 and the applicant. He further submits that the opposite party No.1 has tried to influence the proceeding of trial, thus, he submits that aforesaid case may be transferred to the Familcy Court, Lucknow so that the applicant may fully cooperate in the conclusion of case without any fear and the case may also be concluded in a fair manner.

4. On the other hand, learned A.G.A. for the State submits that it is just a ploy to delay the proceedings of the aforesaid case. There is no proper ground for transferring of the aforesaid case from one District Court to another District Court. She further submits that the applicant is adopting a delaying tactics as she has not made any averment regarding the injustice been done to her during the course of proceedings. Moreover, it cannot just be the convenience of the applicant but the private opposite party, the witnesses and the prosecution. The larger issue of case normally being conducted by the jurisdictional court must also weigh on the issue. She is having an apprehension that the opposite party may harm, which is not a ground to transfer the case from one District to another. Thus, the instant application being devoid of merits is liable to be rejected.

5. After considering the over all facts and circumstances of the case as well as after hearing the learned counsel for the respective parties, this Court finds that the applicant and opposite party no.1 are contesting cases against each other in the concerned courts and it appears that the applicant has filed the present application only considering her own advantage, which is not a ground to transfer the case from one District to another District.

6. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Rajkumar Sabu vs. Sabu Trade Private Ltd reported in 2021 SCC OnLine SC 378 has been pleased to observe in paragraph Nos.9 and 10, which are reproduced hereinbelow:

"9. Ordinarily, if a Court has jurisdiction to hear a case, the case ought to proceed in that Court only. The proceeding in the Salem Court has not been questioned on the ground of lack of jurisdiction but on the ground contemplated in Section 406 of the1973 Code. Jurisdiction under the aforesaid provision ought to be sparingly used, as held in the case of Nahar Singh Yadav v. Union of India [(2011) 1 SCC 307]. Such jurisdiction cannot be exercised on mere apprehension of one of the parties that justice would not be done in a given case. This was broadly the ratio in the case of Gurcharan Dass Chadha (supra). In my opinion if a Court hearing a case possesses the jurisdiction to proceed with the same, solely based on the fact that one of the parties to that case is unable to follow the language of that Court would not warrant exercise of jurisdiction of this Court under Section 406 of the 1973 Code. Records reveal that aid of translator is available in the Salem Court, which could overcome this difficulty. If required, the petitioner may take the aid of interpreter also, as may be available.

10. The petitioner's plea for transfer is based primarily on convenience. But convenience of one of the parties cannot be a ground for allowing his application. Transfer of a criminal case under Section 406 of the 1973 Code can be directed when such transfer would be "expedient for the ends of justice". This expression entails factors beyond mere convenience of the parties or one of them in conducting a case before a Court having jurisdiction to hear the case. The parties are related, and are essentially fighting commercial litigations filed in multiple jurisdictions. While instituting civil suits, both the parties had chosen fora, some of which were away from their primary places of business, or the main places of business of the defendants. The ratio of the decision of this Court in the case of Mrudul M. Damle (supra) cannot apply in the factual context of this case. In that case, a proceeding pending in the Court of Special Judge, CBI Cases, Rohini Courts, New Delhi was directed to be transferred to the Special Judge, CBI cases, Court of Session, Thane. Out of 92 witnesses enlisted in the charge sheet, 88 were from different parts of Maharashtra. That was a case which this Court found was not "Delhi-centric". The accused persons were based in western part of this Country. It was because of these reasons, the case was directed to be transferred. The circumstances surrounding the case pending in the Salem Court are entirely different. In the case of Rajesh Talwar v. CBI [(2012) 4 SCC 217] it was held: ?

"46. Jurisdiction of a court to conduct criminal prosecution is based on the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Often either the complainant or the accused have to travel across an entire State to attend to criminal proceedings before a jurisdictional court. In some cases to reach the venue of the trial court, a complainant or an accused may have to travel across several States. Likewise, witnesses too may also have to travel long distances in order to depose before the jurisdictional court. If the plea of inconvenience for transferring the cases from one court to another, on the basis of time taken to travel to the court conducting the criminal trial is accepted, the provisions contained in the Criminal procedure Code earmarking the courts having jurisdiction to try cases would be rendered meaningless. Convenience or inconvenience are inconsequential so far as the mandate of law is concerned. The instant plea, therefore, deserves outright rejection.""

7. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Satish Jaggi v. State of Chhattisgarh, (2007) 3 SCC 62 has been pleased to observe paragraph Nos. 5, 6 and 7, which are reproduced hereinbelow:-

"5. The law with regard to transfer of cases is well settled. This Court in Gurcharan Das Chadha v. State of Rajasthan [AIR 1966 SC 1418] held that a case is transferred if there is a reasonable apprehension on the part of a party to a case that justice will not be done. This Court said that a petitioner is not required to demonstrate that justice will inevitably fail. He is entitled to a transfer if he shows circumstances from which it can be inferred that he entertains an apprehension and that it is reasonable in the circumstances alleged. This Court further held that it is one of the principles of the administration of justice that justice should not only be done but it should be seen to be done. The court has further to see whether the apprehension is reasonable or not. This Court also said that to judge the reasonableness of the apprehension, the state of mind of the person who entertains the apprehension is no doubt relevant but that is not all. The apprehension must not only be entertained, but must appear to the court to be a reasonable apprehension.

6. It was further held by this Court in Maneka Sanjay Gandhi v. Rani Jethmalani [(1979) 4 SCC 167 : 1979 SCC (Cri) 934 : AIR 1979 SC 468] that assurance of a fair trial is the first imperative of the dispensation of justice and the central criterion for the court to consider when a motion for transfer is made is not the hypersensitivity or relative convenience of a party or availability of legal services or any like grievance. Something more substantial, more compelling, more imperilling, from the point of view of public justice and its attendant environment, is necessitous if the court is to exercise its power of transfer. This is the cardinal principle although the circumstances may be myriad and vary from case to case. This Court, in the facts and circumstances of the case, said that the grounds for the transfer have to be tested on this touchstone bearing in mind the rule that normally the complainant has the right to choose any court having jurisdiction and the accused cannot dictate where the case against him should be tried. It further said that even so, the process of justice should not harass the parties and from that angle the court may weigh the circumstances.

7. In Abdul Nazar Madani v. State of T.N. [(2000) 6 SCC 204 : 2000 SCC (Cri)

1048 : AIR 2000 SC 2293] this Court stated that the purpose of the criminal trial is to dispense fair and impartial justice uninfluenced by extraneous considerations. When it is shown that public confidence in the fairness of a trial would be seriously undermined, any party can seek the transfer of a case within the State under Section 407 and anywhere in the country under Section 406 of the Code. The apprehension of not getting a fair and impartial inquiry or trial is required to be reasonable and not imaginary based upon conjectures and surmises. If it appears that the dispensation of criminal justice is not possible impartially and objectively and without any bias, before any court or even at any place, the appropriate court may transfer the case to another court where it feels that holding of fair and proper trial is conducive. No universal or hard-and-fast rules can be prescribed for deciding a transfer petition which has always to be decided on the basis of the facts of each case. Convenience of the parties including the witnesses to be produced at the trial is also a relevant consideration for deciding the transfer petition. The convenience of the parties does not necessarily mean the convenience of the petitioners alone who approached the court on misconceived notions of apprehension. Convenience for the purposes of transfer means the convenience of the prosecution, other accused, if any, the witnesses and the larger interest of the society."

8. It is further observed here that from the available material, this Court cannot reasonably conclude that the situation in Sitapur is not conducive for a fair conclusion of case for the applicant. The few instances mentioned by the applicant's counsel may suggest heightened feelings amongst the contesting parties but they do not in my estimation, call for transfer of proceedings to another District. Moreover, it cannot just be the convenience of the applicant but the private opposite party, the witnesses and the prosecution. The larger issue of cases normally being conducted by the jurisdictional court must also weigh on the issue. When relative convenience and difficulties of all the parties involved in the process are taken into account, the conclusion is inevitable that no credible case for transfer of trial to alternative venues outside the District is made out, in the present matter.

9. Thus, in view of the observations/discussions and judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court finds that there is no good ground for transfer of the case from one District Court to the another. It is just a ploy adopted by the applicant to delay the proceedings of the aforesaid case as she is having an apprehension that the opposite party no.1 may harm her, which is not a ground to transfer the case from one District to another, if she is aggrieved, she may approach competent forum for redressal of her grievances. Thus, no interference is required by this Court to entertain the instant application moved under Section 407 Cr.P.C. and the same is liable to be rejected.

10. The present application is, accordingly, rejected.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1844
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 02.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Transfer Application (Criminal) No. 93 of 2023

Jay Singh & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Ashish Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Kuldeep, Shikhar Deep Singh

Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section – 407, - Indian Penal Code, Sections 323, 504 & 498-A - Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 – Sections 3 & 4 - Transfer Application – for transfer of Criminal Case from district Gonda to Lakhimpur Kheri - on the ground that opposite parties along with family members abusing and engaged into scuffle and threatened the applicants to kill – court finds that, the few instances may suggest heightened feelings amongst the contesting parties but they do not call for transfer of proceedings to another district – if they are aggrieved, they may approach competent forum for redressal of their grievances – held, the relative convenience and difficulties of all the parties are involved in the process which are taken into account - no credible case for transfer of trial to alternative venues outside the district is made out in present case - it is just a ploy adopted by the applicants to delay the proceedings – thus, no interference is required to entertain the instant application, accordingly, rejected. (Para – 4, 5)

Transfer Application Rejected. (E-11)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, learned Counsel for the opposite party No.2 and learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material placed on record.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 407 CrPC, the applicants have sought transfer of Criminal Case No. 890 of 2017 arising out of Case Crime No. 61 of 2017 under Sections 323, 504, 498-A I.P.C. and Section 3/4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, Police Station- Itiathok, District- Gonda from District- Gonda to equally competent court of nearby district preferably to District- Lakhimpur Kheri to try the case.

3. The only ground which has been taken in the transfer application is that the opposite party No.2 alongwith his family members have ambushed the applicants on 05.06.2023 in the court compound at about 11:00 A.M. and started abusing and later engaged into scuffle and threatened the applicants to kill.

4. After considering the submissions advanced by learned Counsel for the parties and after going through the available material, this Court cannot reasonably conclude that the situation in Gonda is not conducive for a fair trial for the applicants. The few instances mentioned by the applicants' counsel may suggest heightened feelings amongst the contesting parties but they do not in my estimation, call for transfer of proceedings to another District. Moreover, it cannot just be the convenience of the applicants but the private opposite parties, the witnesses, the prosecution. The larger issue of trial normally being conducted by the jurisdictional court must also weigh on the issue. When relative convenience and difficulties of all the parties involved in the process are taken into account, the conclusion is inevitable that no credible case for transfer of trial to alternative venues outside the District is made out, in the present matter.

5. Thus, in view of the observations/discussions, this Court finds that there is no good ground for transfer of the case from one District Court to the another. It is just a ploy adopted by the applicants to delay the proceedings of the aforesaid trial as they are having an apprehension that the opposite parties may harm them, which is not a ground to transfer the case from one District to another, if they are aggrieved, they may approach competent forum for redressal of their grievances. Thus, no interference is required by this Court to entertain the instant application moved under Section 407 Cr.P.C. and the same is liable to be rejected.

6. The present application is, accordingly, rejected.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1846
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 2491 of 2024

Ravindra Kumar Yadav ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Veer Bahadur La Srivasta, Alok Kumar Mishra, Chandan Srivastava

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Dharmendra Gupta

Civil Law - Negotiable Instrument Act,1881 - Section 147-Application filed to compound the offence u/s 138 NI Act and to quash the impugned judgment whereby Applicant has been convicted u/s 138 NI Act-sec. 147 N.I.Act – parties have settled the dispute amicably-the said Act is at liberty to compound the matter at any stage-compounding of the offence may be released by invoking sec.482 Cr.P.C. read with Article 226 of the Constitution of India-no bar.

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Damodar S. Prabhu Vs Sayed Babalal H 2010 (2) SCC (Cri) 1328

2. M/s Meters and Instruments Pvt. Ltd. & anr. Vs Kanchan Mehta, 2017 (7) Supreme 558

3. Kripal Singh Pratap Singh Ori Vs Salvinder Kaur Hardip Singh , 2004 Crl. L. J. 3786

4. Vinay Devanna Nayak Vs Ryot Seva Sahkari Bank Limited, AIR 2008 SC 716

5. Tanveer Aquil Vs St. of M.P. & anr. (19990) Supp SCC 63

6. Narinder Singh Vs St. of Punjab (2014) 6 SCC 466

7. Rajinder Prasad Vs Bashir & ors.; AIR 2001 SC 3524

8. Krishan Vs Krishnaveni, (1997) 4 SCC 241

9. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

10. Municipal Corporation, Indore Vs Ratnaprabha (AIR 1977 SC 308)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Sri Veer Bahadur Lal Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Ashok Srivastava, learned A.G.A. for the State opposite party no.1 and Sri Dharmendra Gupta, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2

2. The instant application under section 482 Cr. P.C. has been filed with the prayer to compound the offence committed by the applicant under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881 in Complaint Case No.7097 of 2017, Police Station Talkatora, District Lucknow (Sanchetna Financial Services Private Limited Vs. Ravindra Kumar Yadav) and further to quash the impugned judgment and order dated 07.04.2021 passed by learned Court of Additional Court No.3 (N.I. Act), Lucknow, whereby the applicant has been convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881 and has been directed to undergo imprisonment for two years alongwith fine of Rs.45,00,000/- and in case of default of payment of fine, the applicant has been directed to undergo additional simple imprisonment for a period of one and half year. A sum of Rs.38,00,000/- was directed to be paid to the complainant as damages.

3. The facts of the case, in brief, are that the applicant had taken a sum of Rs.30,00,000/- as loan from the opposite party no.2 and became defaulter in paying the installment.

4. Thereafter, the applicant agreed to pay the entire dues to the opposite party no.2 and had issued cheque bearing No.000034 dated 05.09.2017 of Kotak Mahindra Bank, Vishal Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow for Rs.27,60,000/-, however, when the same was presented by the opposite party no.2, it got dishonored with the reason "Funds Insufficient".

5. Thereafter, the opposite party no.2 filed a Complaint Case No.7097 of 2017, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881, Police Station Talkatora, District Lucknow. After the completion of trial, the trial court has convicted the applicant vide judgment and order dated 07.04.2021 and sentenced him for a period of two years alongwith fine of Rs.45,00,000/- and in case of default of payment of fine, the applicant has been directed to undergo additional simple imprisonment for a period of one and half year. A sum of Rs.38,00,000/- was directed to be paid to the complainant as damages.

6. Thereafter, the applicant has preferred a Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2021 against the impugned judgment and order dated 07.04.2021 passed by the learned Additional Court No.3 (N.I. Act), Lucknow, however, the same was dismissed by means of judgment and order dated 16.01.2024 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3, Lucknow and the applicant was directed to surrender before the learned trial court on 07.02.2024 to undergo sentence.

7. The applicant had already deposited Rs.9,00,000/- before the learned Additional Court No.3 (N.I. Act), Lucknow in compliance of the order passed by learned Sessions Judge, Lucknow during the hearing of Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2021.

8. Thereafter, the applicant had preferred a Criminal Revision before this Court bearing Criminal Revision No.104 of 2024, which too got dismissed at the admission stage vide order dated 08.02.2024.

9. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has surrendered himself before the learned trial court on 07.02.2024 in compliance of the judgment and order dated 16.01.2024 passed by the court of learned Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.3, Lucknow in Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2021 and now he is languishing in jail in connection with the aforesaid case.

10. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that after the rejection of Criminal Revision No.104 of 2024, both the parties have entered into compromise and a written compromise agreement dated 07.03.2024 has been prepared to the effect that the instant matter shall be settled in accordance with the terms and conditions as contained therein.

11. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the applicant is ready to make payment of Rs.38,00,000/- in accordance with the terms and conditions as contained in the compromise dated 07.03.2024. He further submits that Rs.20,00,000/- has been received by the opposite party no.2 through Demand Draft No.253932 dated 07.03.2024 of Yes Bank Ltd., Gomti Nagar, Lucknow.

12. With this background, learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that this petition has been filed on 12.03.2024 on the basis of changed circumstances with the prayer to compound the offence. Learned counsel further submits that this Hon'ble Court may invoke its inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. so that ends of justice could be secured as the object of 'N. I. Act' is primarily compensatory and not punitive and moreover Section 147 of 'N.I. Act' would have an overriding effect on section 320 Cr.P.C. irrespective of which stage the parties are compromising with the kind leave of this Hon'ble Court.

13. In support of his arguments, learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that in the case of Damodar S. Prabhu vs. Sayed Babalal H reported at 2010 (2) SCC (Cri) 1328, the Hon'ble Apex Court had formulated the guidelines for compounding the offence under section 138 N.I. Act wherein in para 21, it was pleased to observe as under :

"With regard to the progression of litigation in cheque bouncing cases, the learned Attorney General has urged this Court to frame guidelines for a graded scheme of imposing costs on parties who unduly delay compounding of the offence. It was submitted that the requirement of deposit of the costs will act as a deterrent for delayed composition, since at present, free and easy compounding of offences at any stage, however belated, gives an incentive to the drawer of the cheque to delay settling the cases for years. An application for compounding made after several years not only results in the system being burdened but the complainant is also deprived of effective justice. In view of this submission, we direct that the following guidelines be followed:-

THE GUIDELINES

(i) In the circumstances, it is proposed as follows:

(a) That directions can be given that the Writ of Summons be suitably modified making it clear to the accused that he could make an application for compounding of the offences at the first or second hearing of the case and that if such an application is made, compounding may be allowed by the court without imposing any costs on the accused.

(b) If the accused does not make an application for compounding as aforesaid, then if an application for compounding is made before the Magistrate at a subsequent stage, compounding can be allowed subject to the condition that the accused will be required to pay 10% of the cheque amount to be deposited as a condition for compounding with the Legal Services Authority, or such authority as the Court deems fit.

(c) Similarly, if the application for compounding is made before the Sessions Court or a High Court in revision or appeal, such compounding may be allowed on the condition that the accused pays 15% of the cheque amount by way of costs.

(d) Finally, if the application for compounding is made before the Supreme Court, the figure would increase to 20% of the cheque amount."

14. Learned counsel for the applicant also submitted that in the case of M/s Meters and Instruments Private Limited and another vs. Kanchan Mehta reported at 2017 (7) Supreme 558 Hon'ble the Apex Court in para 18, was pleased to observe as under :

i) Offence under Section 138 of the Act is primarily a civil wrong. Burden of proof is on accused in view presumption under Section 139 but the standard of such proof is "preponderance of probabilities". The same has to be normally tried summarily as per provisions of summary trial under the Cr.P.C. but with such variation as may be appropriate to proceedings under Chapter XVII of the Act. Thus read, principle of Section 258 Cr.P.C. will apply and the Court can close the proceedings and discharge the accused on satisfaction that the cheque amount with assessed costs and interest is paid and if there is no reason to proceed with the punitive aspect.

(ii)The object of the provision being primarily compensatory, punitive element being mainly with the object of enforcing the compensatory element, compounding at the initial stage has to be encouraged but is not debarred at later stage subject to appropriate compensation as may be found acceptable to the parties or the Court.

(iii)Though compounding requires consent of both parties, even in absence of such consent, the Court, in the interests of justice, on being satisfied that the complainant has been duly compensated, can in its discretion close the proceedings and discharge the accused.

(iv)Procedure for trial of cases under Chapter XVII of the Act has normally to be summary. The discretion of the Magistrate under second proviso to Section 143, to hold that it was undesirable to try the case summarily as sentence of more than one year may have to be passed, is to be exercised after considering the further fact that apart from the sentence of imprisonment, the Court has jurisdiction under Section 357(3) Cr.P.C. to award suitable compensation with default sentence under Section 64 IPC and with further powers of recovery under Section 431 Cr.P.C. With this approach, prison sentence of more than one year may not be required in all cases.

(v) Since evidence of the complaint can be given on affidavit, subject to the Court summoning the person giving affidavit and examining him and the bank's slip being prima facie evidence of the dishonor of cheque, it is unnecessary for the Magistrate to record any further preliminary evidence. Such affidavit evidence can be read as evidence at all stages of trial or other proceedings. The manner of examination of the person giving affidavit can be as per Section 264 Cr.P.C. The scheme is to follow summary procedure except where exercise of power under second proviso to Section 143 becomes necessary, where sentence of one year may have to be awarded and compensation under Section 357(3) is considered inadequate, having regard to the amount of the cheque, the financial capacity and the conduct of the accused or any other circumstances.

15. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that the application under section 482 Cr.P.C. is maintainable after the dismissal of the revision on merit. To support of this arguments, he has relied upon the judgment of Gujarat High Court in the case of Kripal Singh Pratap Singh Ori vs. Salvinder Kaur Hardip Singh reported at 2004 Crl. L. J. 3786 wherein, the Gujarat High Court was pleased to observe as under:-

"16.I have considered the decisions cited by the learned counsel for the respective party and some other decisions of the Apex Court and I do not think it necessary to enlist those decisions which are taken into consideration for the purpose of the present proceedings. But ultimately one balanced principle has emerged that the petitions invoking inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. after dismissal/disposal or revision application under section 397 Cr.P.C. read with section 401 Cr.P.C., are not maintainable by the same party, more so when no special circumstances are made out. The gist of this ratio is reflected in the decision reported in AIR 2001 SC 3524 in the case of Rajinder Prasad vs. Bashir and ors. It was contended before the Apex Court that as the earlier revision petition filed by the accused persons under section 397 of the Code has been rejected by the High Court vide order dated 13.7.1990, they had no right to file the petition under section 482 of the Code with prayer for QUASHING the same order. While dealing with the above contention the Apex Court observed that, "...We do not agree with the arguments of the learned counsel for the respondents that as the earlier application had been dismissed as not pressed, the accused had acquired a right to challenge the order adding the offence under section 395 of the Code ..." (i.e. IPC) It is further observed that, "We are of the opinion that no special circumstances were spelt out in the subsequent application for invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court under Section 482 of the Code and the impugned order is liable to be set aside on this ground alone."

17. So can be legitimately argued and inferred and held that in all cases where the petitioners are able to satisfy this court that there are special circumstances which can be clearly spelt out , subsequent application invoking INHERENT powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be moved and cannot be thrown away on the technical argument as to its sustainability. The apex court in case of Rajendra Prasad (supra) was dealing with a case related to first part of section 482 Cr.P.C. but, when it comes to third part, the approach should remain more pragmatic and indirect relegation to Supreme Court, if legally possible, can be prevented.

31. In the circumstances, it is hereby declared that the compromise arrived between the parties to this litigation out of court is accepted as genuine and the order of conviction and sentence passed by the learned JMFC, Vadodara and confirmed in appeal by the learned Sessions Judge, Fast Track Court, Vadodara, therefore, on the given set of facts are hereby quashed and set aside as this court intends, otherwise to secure the ends of justice as provided under section 482 Cr.P.C. Obviously the order disposing Revision Application would not have any enforceable effect.

16. Learned counsel for the applicant has also relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of Vinay Devanna Nayak vs. Ryot Seva Sahkari Bank Limited reported at AIR 2008 SC 716 wherein the Hon'ble Apex Court was pleased to observe as under :

"18. Taking into consideration even the said provision (Section 147) and the primary object underlying Section 138, in our judgment, there is no reason to refuse compromise between the parties. We, therefore, dispose of the appeal on the basis of the settlement arrived at between the appellant and the respondent.

19. For the foregoing reasons the appeal deserves to be allowed and is accordingly allowed by holding that since the matter has been compromised between the parties and the amount of Rs.45,000/- has been paid by the appellant towards full and final settlement to the respondent-bank towards its dues, the appellant is entitled to acquittal. The order of conviction and sentence recorded by all courts is set aside and he is acquitted of the charge levelled against him."

17. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the law regarding compounding of offences under the N.I. Act is very clear and is no more res integra and the offences under the N. I. Act can be compounded even at any stage of the proceedings. He submits that in terms of the aforesaid law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the parties may be permitted to compound the offence and the conviction of the petitioner be set aside.

18. Per-contra, learned AGA for the State has vehemently opposed the submissions made by the learned counsel for the applicant and submitted that the instant application under section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable as the applicant has already been convicted by the learned trial court and the conviction order has been upheld by the appellate court and by this Hon'ble Court in the revision. Learned AGA has submitted that the present application under section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable as the High Court has dismissed the revision application on merits. It is further submitted that in view of the provisions of Sub-section (6) of Section 320 Cr.P.C. and the observations made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Tanveer Aquil vs. State of M.P. and another (19990) Supp SCC 63, the parties should be relegated to the Hon'ble Apex Court to initiate appropriate proceedings to get the actual affect of compromise arrived at between the parties. In the case of Tanveer Aquil (supra), the appellant was convicted under section 324 I.P.C. and was ordered to suffer rigorous imprisonment for one year and to pay a fine of Rs.500/-. After the pronouncement of the judgment by the High Court, the learned Counsel appeared and pleaded for an opportunity of hearing and at that stage the High Court again heard the matter and added a postscript in the judgment confirming the conviction and sentence. The petitioner thereafter had moved the High Court for a compromise to compound the offence. It was submitted to the High Court that the accused has paid a sum of Rs.3,500/- to the complainant and the learned Counsel for the complainant confirmed of having received the amount of Rs. 3,500/- in token of the compromise arrived between the parties. In Para 1 of the cited decision the Apex Court has observed that "..... but the High Court did not and indeed could not take into consideration that application since it has deposed of the matter already."

19. Learned AGA has also submitted that when this Court has already rejected the revision application on merits, whether the parties or any one of them can be permitted to place compromise and to get an order of acquittal from the very Court, is the question. Therefore, in more than one decisions, the Hon'ble Apex Court has observed that the petition invoking inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. is not maintainable when the earlier revision application filed under Section 397 Cr.P.C. read with Section 401 Cr.P.C. seeking same or similar relief, when dismissed on merit, or has not pressed. However, in the same way the Hon'ble Apex Court has observed in more than one cases that such petitions, though otherwise, are not maintainable, can even be entertained when special circumstances are made out. These observations are in reference to third part of Section 482 of Cr. P.C. Learned AGA has submitted that the present case is nothing but a gross misuse of the process of the law. There is no ground available to the applicant for invoking the inherent power under section 482 Cr.P.C. for compounding the sentence on the basis of the compromise as filed by the applicant. The present application is devoid of any merit hence it is to be dismissed.

20. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and carefully perused the compromise arrived at between the parties and other materials on record.

21. Considering the facts as narrated above, the following two questions arise for consideration -

Whether an order passed by the High Court in the criminal revision petition confirming the conviction can be nullified by the High Court in a petition filed under section 482 Cr.P.C. noticing subsequent compromise of the case by the contesting parties ?

22. Before answering the aforesaid questions as framed, I shall examine the relevant provisions of the Cr.P.C. as well the Negotiable Instrument Act. I may extract the Section 320 Cr.P.C., Section 147 of the Negotiable Instrument Act and Section 482 Cr.P.C.

Section 320 Cr.P.C. - Compounding of Offences -

1) The offences punishable under the sections of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860), specified in the first two columns of the Table next following may be compounded by the persons mentioned in the third column of that Table -

2) The offences punishable under the Sections of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860), specified in the first two columns of the Table next following may, with the permission of the Court before which any prosecution for such offence is pending be compounded by the persons mentioned in the third column of that Table -

3) When any offence is compoundable under this section, the abetment of such offence or an attempt to commit such offence (when such attempt is itself an offence) may be compounded in like manner.

4) (a) When the person who would otherwise be competent to compound an offence under this section is under the age of eighteen years or is an idiot or a lunatic, any person competent to contract on his behalf may, with the permission of the Court, compound such offence.

(b) When the person who would otherwise be competent to compound an offence under this section is dead, the legal representative, as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) of such person may, with the consent of the Court, compound such offence.

5) When the accused has been committed for trial or when he has been convicted and an appeal is pending, no composition for the offence shall be allowed without the leave of the Court to which he is committed, or as the case may be, before which the appeal is to be heard.

6) A High Court or Court of Session acting in the exercise of its powers of revision under Section 401 may allow any person to compound any offence which such person is competent to compound under this section.

7) No offence shall be compounded if the accused is, by reason of a previous conviction, liable either to enhanced punishment or to a punishment of a different kind for such offence.

8) The composition of an offence under this section shall have the effect of an acquittal of the accused with whom the offence has been compounded.

9) No offence shall be compounded except as provided by this section.

Section 147 of the Negotiable Instrument Act :'

"Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), every offence punishable under this Act shall be compoundable."

Section 482 Cr.P.C. :

Saving of inherent powers of High Court. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or affect the inherent powers of the High Court to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, or to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.

23. I have to refer the compromise deed which is on the record for proper adjudication :-

सुलहनामा

रवीन्द्र कुमार यादव पुत्र श्री शिव कुमार यादव निवासी–ग्राम धावा मजरे, इमलिया थाना–चिनहट, लखनऊ द्वारा भाई संदीप यादव पुत्र श्री शिव कुमार निवासी–देवा रोड पी0ए0सी0 फार्म खण्डक, लखनऊ।

प्रथम पक्ष

एवम्

संचेतना फाइनेन्शियल प्राइवेट लिमिटेड द्वारा डायरेक्टर विनोद कुमार राय, पता–रजिस्टर्ड आफिस शाप नं0–3 टाईप–एस–02, सी0एस0सी0–5, अवन्तिका रोहिणी, नई दिल्ली व कम्पाउण्ड ऑफिस बी–348/3, राजाजीपुरम थाना–तालकटोरा, जिला लखनउ।

द्वितीय पक्ष

हम दोनों उभय पक्ष निम्नलिखित शर्तों पर पाबन्द होते हैं:–

1. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष ने द्वितीय पक्ष से रू0 30,00,000/– (रूपये तीस लाख मात्र) का लोन प्राप्त किया था, जिसके किस्तों के भुगतान में चूक होने पर प्रथम पक्ष ने बचे हुए लोन धनराशि के पूर्ण भुगतान हेतु एक चेक सं0–000034 दिनांकित 05.09.2017 को धनराशि रू0 27,60,000/– (रूपये सत्ताईस लाख साठ हजार) के भुगतान हेतु द्वितीय पक्ष के पक्ष में जारी किया था।

2. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा जारी किये गये उक्त चेक को द्वितीय पक्ष ने भुगतान हेतु बैंक में प्रस्तुत किया जो कि "FUNDS INSUFFICIENT" की टिप्पणी के साथ अनादरित हो कर द्वितीय पक्ष को वापस प्राप्त हो गया।

3. यह कि चेक अनादरित होने के उपरान्त द्वितीय पट्टा ने प्रथम पक्ष के विरूद्ध एक वाद अन्तर्गत धारा–138 एन.आई.एक्ट के तहत माननीय न्यायालय के समक्ष दाखिल किया गया, जिसे न्यायालय श्रीमान अतिरिक्त न्यायालय कक्ष सं0–3, लखनऊ द्वारा दिनांक 07.04.2021 को निर्णीत करते हुए निम्न आदेश पारित किया गया:– ''सिद्ध दोषी रवीन्द्र कुमार यादव को परक्राम्य लिखत अधिनियम–1881 की धारा–138 के अधीन दण्डनीय अपराध कारित करने के लिए दो वर्ष के साधारण कारावास की सजा तथा रू0 45,00,000/–(रूपये पैंतालिस लाख मात्र) अर्थदण्ड की सजा से दण्डित किया जाता है। अर्थदण्ड न अदा करने की दशा में सिद्ध दोषी एक वर्ष छः माह के साधारण कारावास के अतिरिक्त सजा भुगतेगा। अर्थदण्ड की धनराशि में से 38,00,000/– (रूपये अड़तीलस लाख मात्र) परिवादी को प्रतिकर के रूप में भुगतान किये जायेंगे। ''

4. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष ने उपरोक्त निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 07.04.2021 के विरूद्ध माननीय सत्र न्यायाधीश लखनऊ के समक्ष अपील संख्या–165/2021 प्रस्तुत किया, जो कि न्यायालय श्रीमान् अपर एवं सत्र न्यायाधीश, कक्ष संख्या–3 लखनऊ द्वारा पारित निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 16.01.2024 के माध्यम से निरस्त कर दी गयी तथा प्रथम पक्ष निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 16.01.2024 के अनुपालन में दिनांक 07.02.2024 को आत्म समर्पण कर जिला कारागार लखनऊ में निरूद्ध है।

5. यह कि उपरोक्त अपील में माननीय सत्र न्यायाधीश, लखनऊ द्वारा पारित आदेश के अनुपालन में प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा रू0 9,00,000/– (रूपये नौ लाख मात्र) विचारण न्यायालय में जमा किया जा चुका है।

6. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष ने न्यायालय श्रीमान् अपर सत्र न्यायाधीश, कक्ष सं0–3, लखनऊ द्वारा पारित उपरोक्त निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 16.01.2024 के विरूद्ध माननीय उच्च न्यायालय के समक्ष एक आपराधिक निगरानी संख्या–04/2024 योजित किया था जो कि

आदेश दिनांकित 08.02.2024 के माध्यम से निरस्त कर दिया गया।

7. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष द्वितीय पक्ष को कुल धनराशि रू0 38,00,000/– (रूपये अड़तीस लाख मात्र) भुगतान करने को तैयार है।

8. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष द्वितीय पक्ष को निम्न प्रकार से भुगतान करेगाः–

,पद्ध डिमाण्ड ड्राफ्ट सं0–253931 दिनांकित 06.03.2024 एवं डिमाण्ड ड्राफ्ट संख्या–253932 दिनांकित 07.03.2024, यस बैंक लिमिटेड,गोमती नगर, लखनऊ के माध्यम से रू0 20,00,000/– (रूपये बीस लाख मात्र) इस सुलहनामा के निष्पादन के समय द्वितीय पक्ष को प्रदान कर रहा है।

,पपद्ध बकाया धनराशि रू0 18,00,000/– (अट्ठारह लाख मात्र) में से रू0 9,00,000/– (रूपये नौ लाख) जो कि विचारण न्यायालय में दौरान विचारण अपील प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा जमा किया गया था को द्वितीय पक्ष अपने पक्ष में अवमुक्त करायेगा और रू0 9,00,000/– (रूपये नौ लाख) प्रथम पक्ष जिला कारागार लखनऊ से रिहा होने के एक माह के भीतर जरिये डिमाण्ड ड्राफ्ट द्वितीय पक्ष को अदा करेगा। यदि किन्हीं कारणों से विचारण न्यायालय में जमा धनराशि रू0 9,00,000/–द्वितीय पक्ष के पक्ष में अवमुक्त नहीं होता है। तो उक्त रू0 9,00,000/– का भी भुगतान प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा द्वितीय पक्ष को उसी समय किया जायेगा।

9. यह कि द्वितीय पक्ष भी उपरोक्त भुगतान प्राप्त करके इस आर्थिक विवाद को निपटाने हेतु तैयार है।

10. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष एवं द्वितीय पक्ष के मध्य अब काई विवाद शेष नहीं रह गया है।

11. यह कि उभय पक्ष इस बात से सहमत है कि वे प्रश्नगत आर्थिक विवाद के सम्बन्ध में न तो एक दूसरे के विरूद्ध कहीं कोई शिकायत दर्ज करायेंगे और न ही एक दूसरे के विरूद्ध न्यायालय अथवा सक्षम अधिकारी/प्राधिकारी के समक्ष कोई कार्यवाही संस्थित करेंगे। यदि भविष्य में उनके द्वारा कोई शिकायत/कार्यवाही संस्थित की जाती है तो वह शिकायत/कार्यवाही इस सुलहनामें के शर्तों के अधीन शून्य माने जायेंगे।

12. यह कि दोनों पक्ष इस सुलहनामें के शर्तों के अधीन प्रश्नगत विवाद को समाप्त करने एवं विचारण न्यायलय द्वारा पारित निर्णय व आदेश दिनांकित 07.04.2021 तथा अपर सत्र न्यायाधीश, कक्ष सं0–3, लखनऊ द्वारा पारित निर्णय एवं आदेश दिनांकित 16.01.2021 को अभिखण्डित किये जाने हेतु याचिका दाखिल व निस्तारण कराने में एक दूसरे को सहयोग करेंगे।

अतएव यह सुलहनामा हम उभय पक्षों ने सोच समझकर बिना किसी जोर दबाव या नाजायज व स्वस्थ चित्त मन से समक्ष गवाहान अपने–अपने हस्ताक्षर बनाकर तस्दीक किया जो कि प्रमाण हो और समय पर काम आवे।

24. It is well settled that inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised only when no other remedy is available to the litigant and nor a specific remedy is provided by the statute. It is also well settled that if an effective alternative remedy is available, the High Court will not exercise its inherent power under this section, specially when the applicant may not have availed of that remedy.

25. Inherent powers under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. include powers to quash FIR, investigation or any criminal proceedings pending before the High Court or any Courts subordinate to it and are of wide magnitude and ramification. Such powers can be exercised to secure ends of justice, prevent abuse of the process of any court and to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code, depending upon the facts of a given case. The court can always take note of any miscarriage of justice and prevent the same by exercising its powers u/s 482 of Cr.P.C. These powers are neither limited nor curtailed by any other provisions of the Code. However, such inherent powers are to be exercised sparingly and with caution.

26. The High Courts in deciding matters under Section 482 should be guided by following twin objectives, as laid down in the case of Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab (2014) 6 SCC 466:

i. Prevent abuse of the process of the court.

ii. Secure the ends of justice.

iii. To give effect to an order under the Code.

27. In the instant case, it is true that this Court had dismissed the criminal revision and upheld the conviction and sentence passed by the court below but it cannot be lost sight of the fact that this Court has the power to intervene in exercise of the powers vested under section 482 Cr.P.C. only with a view to do the substantial justice or to avoid miscarriage and the spirit of the compromise arrived at between the parties. This is perfectly justified and legal too.

28. I have considered the judgments cited by the learned counsel for the applicant as well as by the learned Counsel for the State and other decisions of the Hon'ble Apex Court and I do not think it necessary to enlist those decisions which are taken into consideration for the purpose of the present proceedings.

29. In the instant case, the applicant is invoking the inherent power as vested under section 482 Cr.P.C. after the dismissal of the revision petition under section 397 Cr.P.C. read with section 401 Cr.P.C. In this circumstances, I have to examine the maintainability of the present application under section 482 Cr.P.C. and also to examine as to whether for entertaining the aforesaid application, any special circumstances are made out or not. The gist of the ratio is reflected in the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Rajinder Prasad vs. Bashir and Others; AIR 2001 SC 3524. In that case, it was contended before the Apex Court that as per the earlier revision filed by the accused persons under section 397 of the Code has been rejected by the High Court vide order dated 13.05.1990, they had no right to file the application under section 482 Cr.P.C. with the prayer for quashing the same order. While dealing with the above contention, the Apex Court observed as under:-

"We are of the opinion that no special circumstances were spelt out in the subsequent application for invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court under section 482 of the Code and the impugned order is liable to be set aside on this ground alone."

So it can be legitimately argued and inferred and held that in all cases where the applicants are able to satisfy this court that there are special circumstances which can be clearly spelt out, subsequent application invoking inherent powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be moved and cannot be thrown away on the technical argument as to its sustainability.

30. In the case of Krishan Vs. Krishnaveni, reported in (1997) 4 SCC 241, Hon'ble the Apex Court has held that though the inherent power of the High Court is very wide, yet the same must be exercised sparingly and cautiously particularly in a case where the applicant is shown to have already invoked the revisional jurisdiction under section 397 of the Code. Only in cases where the High Court finds that there has been failure of justice or misuse of judicial mechanism or procedure, sentence or order was not correct, the High Court may in its discretion prevent the abuse of process or miscarriage of justice by exercising jurisdiction under section 482 of the Code.

31. In the case of S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice.

The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

32. For adjudicating the instant case, the facts as stated hereinabove are very relevant. Here, the applicant has attempted to invoke the jurisdiction of this court vested under section 482 Cr.P.C. The embargo of sub section 6 of section 320 Cr.P.C. as pointed out by learned AGA would not come in the way so far as the relief prayed in this application.

33. I am not in agreement that when the adjudication of a criminal offence has reached to the state of revisional level, there cannot be any compromise without permission of the court in all case including the offence punishable under 'N.I. Act' or the offence mentioned in Table-1 (one) can be compounded only if High Court or Court of Sessions grants permission for such purpose. The Court presently, concerned with an offence punishable under 'N.I. Act'.

34. It is evident that the permissibility of the compounding of an offence is linked to the perceived seriousness of the offence and the nature of the remedy provided. On this point I can refer to the following extracts from an academic commentary [Cited from : K.N.C. Pillai, R.V. Kelkar's Criminal Procedure, 5th Edition :

"17.2 - compounding of offences - A crime is essentially a wrong against the society and the State. Therefore, any compromise between the accused person and the individual victim of the crime should not absolve the accused from criminal responsibility. However, where the offences are essentially of a private nature and relatively not quite serious, the Code considers it expedient to recognize some of them as compoundable offences and some others as compoundable only with the permission of the court…"

35. Section 147 of NI Act begins with a non obstante clause and such clause is being used in a provision to communicate that the provision shall prevail despite anything to the contrary in any other or different legal provisions. So, in light of the compass provided, a dispute in the nature of complaint under section 138 of N.I. Act, can be settled by way of compromise irrespective of any other legislation including Cr.P.C. in general and section 320 (1)(2) or (6) of the Cr.P.C. in particular. The scheme of section 320 Cr.P.C. deals mainly with procedural aspects; but it simultaneously crystallizes certain enforceable rights and obligation. Hence, this provision has an element of substantive legislation and therefore, it can be said that the scheme of section 320 does not lay down only procedure; but still, the status of the scheme remains under a general law of procedure and as per the accepted proposition of law, the special law would prevail over general law. For the sake of convenience, I would like to quote the observations of Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of Municipal Corporation, Indore vs. Ratnaprabha reported in (AIR 1977 SC 308) which reads as under :

"As has been stated, clause (b) of section 138 of the Act provides that the annual value of any building shall "notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force" be deemed to be the gross annual rent for which the building might "reasonably at the time of the assessment be expected to be let from year to year" While therefore, the requirement of the law is that the reasonable letting value should determine the annual value of the building, it has also been specifically provided that this would be so "notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force". It appears to us that it would be a proper interpretation of the provisions of clause (b) of Section 138 of the Act to hold that in a case where the standard rent of a building has been fixed under Section 7 of the Madhya Pradesh Accommodation Control Act, and there is nothing to show that there has been fraud or collusion, that would be its reasonable letting value, but, where this is not so, and the building has never been let out and is being used in a manner where the question of fixing its standard rent does not arise, it would be permissible to fix its reasonable rent without regard to the provisions of the Madhya Pradesh Accommodation Control Act, 1961. This view will, in our opinion, give proper effect to the non-obstante clause in clause (b) with due regard to its other provision that the letting value should be "reasonable"

36. The expression 'special law' means a provision of law, which is not applicable generally but which applies to a particular or specific subject or class of subjects. Section 41 of Indian Penal Code stands on the same footing and defines the phrase special law. In this connection I would like to quote the well accepted proposition of law emerging from various observations made by the Hon'ble Apex Court in different decisions as a gist of the principle and it can be summarised as under:

"When a special law or a statute is applicable to a particular subject, then the same would prevail over a general law with regard to the very subject, is the accepted principle in the field of interpretation of statute."

37. In reference to offence under section 138 of N.I. Act read with section 147 of the said Act, the parties are at liberty to compound the matter at any stage even after the dismissal of the revision application. Even a convict undergoing imprisonment with the liability to pay the amount of fine imposed by the court and/or under an obligation to pay the amount of compensation if awarded, as per the scheme of N.I. Act, can compound the matter. The complainant i.e. person or persons affected can pray to the court that the accused, on compounding of the offence may be released by invoking jurisdiction of this court under section 482 Cr.P.C. If the parties are asked to approach the Apex Court then, what will be situation, is a question which is required to be considered in the background of another accepted progressive and pragmatic principle accepted by our courts that if possible, the parties should be provided justice at the door step. The phrase "justice at the door step" has taken the court to think and reach to a conclusion that it can be considered and looked into as one of such special circumstances for the purpose of compounding the offence under section 147 of the N. I. Act.

38. It is also well settled that the operation or effect of a general Act may be curtailed by special Act even if a general Act contains a non obstante clause. But here is not a case where the language of section 320 Cr.P.C. would come in the way in recording the compromise or in compounding the offence punishable under section 138 of the N.I. Act. On the contrary provisions of section 147 of N.I. Act though starts with a non obstante clause, is an affirmative enactment and this is possible to infer from the scheme that has overriding effect on the intention of legislature reflected in section 320 Cr.P.C.

39. Merely because the litigation has reached to a revisional stage or that even beyond that stage, the nature and character of the offence would not change automatically and it would be wrong to hold that at revisional stage, the nature of offence punishable under Section 138 of the N.I. Act should be treated as if the same is falling under table-II of Section 320 IPC. I would like to reproduce some part of the statement of objects and reasons of the Negotiable Instruments (Amendment & Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 2002 :

"The Negotiable Instrument Act 1881 was amended by the Banking, Public Financial Institutions and Negotiable Instrument Laws (Amendment) Act, 1988 wherein a new Chapter XVII was incorporated for penalties in case of dishonour of cheques due to insufficiency of funds in the account of the drawer of the cheque. These provisions were incorporated with a view to encourage the culture of use of cheques and enhancing the credibility of the instrument. The existing provisions in the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1981, namely Section 138 to 142 in Chapter XVII have been found deficient in dealing with dishonour of cheques. Not only the punishment provided in the Act has proved to be inadequate, the procedure prescribed for the courts to deal with such matters has been found to be cumbersome. The Courts are unable to dispose of such cases expeditiously in a time bound manner in view of the procedure contained in the Act.

2. A large number of cases are reported to be pending under Sections 138 and 142 of the Negotiable Instruments Act in various courts in the country. Keeping in view the large number of complaints under the said Act, pending in various courts, a Working Group was constituted to review Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 181 and make recommendations as to what changes were needed to effectively achieve the purpose of that Section.

3. .....

4. Keeping in view the recommendations of the Standing Committee on finance and other R/SCR.A/2491/2018 ORDER representations, it has been decided to bring out, inter alia the following amendments in the Negotiable Instrument Act 1881, namely.

(i) xxxxxx

(ii) xxxxxx

(iii) xxxxxx

(iv) to prescribe procedure for dispensing with preliminary evidence of the complainant.

(v) xxxxxx

(vi) xxxxx

(vii) to make the offences under the Act compoundable. .....

5. xxxxxx

6. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects."

40. In a commentary the following observations have been made with regard to offence punishable under section 138 of the N.I. Act. [Cited from : Arun Mohan, Some thoughts towards law reforms on the topic of Section 138 Negotiable Instrument Act - Tackling an avalanche of cases] :

"... ... Unlike that for other forms of crime, the punishment here (in so far as the complainant is concerned) is not a means of seeking retribution, but is more a means to ensure payment of money. The complainant's interest lies primarily in recovering the money rather than seeing the drawer of the cheque in jail. The threat of jail is only a mode to ensure recovery. As against the accused who is willing to undergo a jail term, there is little available as remedy for the holder of the cheque.

If we were to examine the number of complaints filed which were 'compromised' or 'settled' before the final judgment on one side and the cases which proceeded to judgment and conviction on the other, we will find that the bulk was settled and only a miniscule number continued."

41. It is quite obvious that with respect to the offence of dishonour of cheques, it is the compensatory aspect of the remedy which should be given priority over the punitive aspect

42. So the intention of the legislature and object of enacting "Banking", Public Financial Institutions and the Negotiable Instrument Laws (Amended Act) 1988 and subsequent enactment, i.e., Negotiable Instruments (Amendment & Miscellaneous Provisions Act 2002 leads this Court to a conclusion that the offence made punishable under Section 138 of N.I. Act is not only an offence qua property but it is also of the nature of an economic offence, though not covered in the list of statutes enacted in reference to Section 468 of Cr.P.C. Thus, the parties, in reference to offence under Section 138 N.I. Act read with Section 147 of the said Act are at liberty to compound the matter at any stage even after the dismissal of the application.

43. In the instant case, the problem herein is with the tendency of litigants to belatedly choose compounding as a means to resolve their dispute, furthermore, the arguments on behalf of the opposite parties on the fact that unlike Section 320 Cr.P.C., Section 147 of the Negotiable Instruments Act provides no explicit guidance as to what stage compounding can or cannot be done and whether compounding can be done at the instance of the complainant or with the leave of the court.

44. I am also conscious of the view that judicial endorsement of the above quoted guidelines as given in the case of Damodar S. Prabhu (supra) could be seen as an act of judicial law making and therefore an intrusion into the legislative domain. It must be kept in mind that Section 147 of the Act does not carry any guidance on how to proceed with the compounding of offences under the Act. I have already explained that the scheme contemplated under Section 320 of the Cr.P.C. cannot be followed in the strict sense.

45. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the parties, in reference to offence under Section 138 N.I. Act read with Section 147 of the said Act are at liberty to compound the matter at any stage. The complainant i.e. the person or persons affected can pray to the court that the accused, on compounding of the offence may be released by invoking jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. read with Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

46. Generally, the powers available under Section 482 of the Code would not have been exercised when a statutory remedy under the law is available, however, considering the peculiar set of facts and circumstances it would not be in the interest of justice to relegate the parties to appellate court. Additionally when both the parties have invoked the jurisdiction of this Court and there is no bar on exercise of powers and the inherent powers of this court can always be invoked for imparting justice and bringing a quietus to the issue between the parties.

47. As discussed above, the court is inclined to hold accordingly only because there is no formal embargo in section 147 of the N.I. Act. This principle would not help any convict in any other law where other applicable independent provisions are existing as the offence punishable under section 138 of the N.I. Act is distinctly different from the normal offences made punishable under Chapter XVII of IPC (i.e. the offences qua property).

48. In view of the observations and in view of the guidelines as laid down in the case of Damodar S. Prabhu (Supra) and also in view of the observations made in the judgment referred above and taking into account the fact that the parties have settled the dispute amicably by way of compromise, this Court is of the view that the compounding of the offence as required to be permitted.

49. Accordingly, the present application under section 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed in terms of the compromise arrived at between the parties to this litigation out of the Court. The impugned judgment and order dated 07.04.2021 passed by the learned Court of Additional Court No.3 (N.I. Act), Lucknow, whereby the applicant has been convicted under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881 and has been directed to undergo imprisonment for two years alongwith fine of Rs.45,00,000/- and in case of default of payment of fine, the applicant has been directed to undergo additional simple imprisonment for a period of one and half year and a sum of Rs.38,00,000/- was also directed to be paid to the complainant as damages, is hereby modified. The conviction and sentence under Section 138 of the N.I. Act 1981 in Complaint Case No.7097 of 2017, Police Station Talkatora, District Lucknow (Sanchetna Financial Services Private Limited Vs. Ravindra Kumar Yadav) stands annulled as this court intends, otherwise to secure the ends of justice as provided under section 482 Cr.P.C. The applicant shall be treated as acquitted on account of compounding of the offence with the complainant/person affected.

50. The learned trial court is directed to release the remaining amount of Rs.9,00,000/- deposited by the applicant before the learned Additional Court No.3 (N.I. Act), Lucknow in compliance of the order passed by learned Sessions Judge, Lucknow during the hearing of Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2021 in favour of the opposite party no.2 within fifteen days from the date of certified copy of this judgment and order is produced before it.

51. Office is directed to communicate this order to the learned trial court concerned immediately.

52. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1860
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 22.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ B No. 167 of 1982

Bhagwan Bahadur & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Deputy Director of Consolidation & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

Sri Harsih Chandra Singh, Sri Dharampal Singh, Sr. Advocate

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Ajay Kumar Singh, Sri Ashish Kumar Singh, Sri Punit Kumar Gupta

Civil Laws – Constitution of India, 1950 - Article 226, – UP Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 – Sections 18, 18(1)(E) & 20 – UP Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 - Sections – 9(A)(2) & 48, – UP Land Revenue Act, 1901 – Sections 57, - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 – Sections 107 & 116 - Writ Petition – challenging the impugned revisional court's order passed u/s 48 of Act, 1953 – petitioners claimed that entries with regards to trees standing on Gata in question in the revenue record of year 1930 was continued till Act, 1950 was enforced and as such same was covered by section 18(1)(e) of the Act, 1950 – however, respondents had not raised any objections prior to 1970 and when the consolidation had come in the village, they filed an objection u/s 9-A(2) claiming co-tenancy right against the trees in question – relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court rendered in case of Ramnath Singh, court held, that – the entries for the purposes of section 20 of Act, 1950 cannot be doubted or questioned or even incorrect entry (unless shown to have been made fraudulently and surreptitiously) will be sufficient to confer the right of Adivasi/Sirdar/Bhumidhar upon the person and if the entry is continued from the last 11 years, in that case, since before start of consolidation then it cannot be questioned in consolidation proceedings – hence, the present writ petition is allowed – impugned order is hereby quashed. (Para – 20, 22)

Writ Petition Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Lal Bahadur Vs Ram Adhar (1985 LCD 415),

2. Anjuman Islam Lakhimpur Vs Chandra Prakash Pitaria (2007 325 LCD 721,

3. Niazu Vs DDC 2015 128 RD 797),

4. Sant Bux Singh Vs joint Director of Consolidation & ors.(1986 RD 2016),

5. Adi Pherozshah Gandhi Vs h m Seervai (AIR 1971 SC 385),

6. Rajinder Vs St. of Har. (1991 vol 1 Crimes 973-PH),

7. Shaikh Piru Bux Vs Kalandi Pati (AIR 1970 SC 1885),

8. Ramnath Singh & anr. Vs DDC (2014 vol 32 LCD 659).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned revisional order dated 31.12.1981 passed by respondent no.1-Deputy Director Consolidation Faizabad under Section 48 of Uttar Pradesh Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1953) in Revision No. 1517 titled as Ram Naresh vs. Ram Bahadur and others.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the dispute with regard to the 32 trees entered in favour of the ancestors of the petitioners and 9 trees in favour of the ancestors of the respondents on gata no. 1906 area 4 bigha 7 biswa 10 biswansi in 1337 fasli i.e. in Khasra of the year 1930. It is further submitted that the gata no. 1906 belonged to zamindar Azam Ali Khan. In 1344-45 fasli i.e. year 1937-38, the name of the ancestor of the petitioners was continued and the name of the zamindar was deleted. It is further submitted that the name of the ancestor of the petitioner was continued and he was covered by Section 18(1)(e) of the U.P. zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as Act, 1950), which has come into force on 01.07.1952 and prior to that the ancestors of the petitioners had become grove holder.

4. It is further submitted that since the year 1937-38, the respondents had not raised any objections by filing either any case under the provisions of Oudh Rent Act 1886 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1886) read with amended Oudh Rent Act, 1921 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1921), U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1901") or under the Act, 1950. It is submitted that the village had come under the consolidation in the 1970's and after about 30 years, for the first time the respondents filed an objection under Section 9(A)(2) claiming co-tenancy right against the 9 trees.

5. It is further submitted that if the conflict is between the earlier and subsequent settlement entries then as per the law settled in catena of judgments of this Court, the later entry would be preferred over the earlier entry unless contrary is proved by cogent strong evidence and in support of his submission, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment i.e. Lal Behari vs. Ram Adhar; 1985 LCD 415, Anjuman Islamia Lakhimpur vs. Chandra Prakash Pitaria; 2007 [25] LCD 721 and Niazu vs. D.D.C., 2015 [128] RD 797.

6. It is further submitted that the basis of claim of co-tenacy by the respondents were on two grounds firstly, there name was entered in Khasra of 1337 fasli and secondly, a compromise was entered between the parties in the proceedings under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C.

7. It is further submitted that the compromise which has been relied is in the proceedings under section 107/116 Cr.P.C. which is preventive in nature and the compromise if any, made under those proceedings is not binding in the proceedings under the Act, 1953.

8. It is further submitted that the respondents in their objection before the consolidation officer or before the appellate authority had not challenged the subsequent entry of 1345 fasli much less proved it to be a wrong entry by any evidence whatsoever, rather not a word has been said about the subsequent entry except claiming their co-tenacy right as per the two counts as submitted above.

9. On the other hand, Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned State Counsel and Shri Avinash Mishra, learned counsel for the private respondents have submitted that the name of the ancestors of the respondents were entered in the khasra of 1337 fasli against 9 trees but in the 1345 fasli, their names were not there though they are legally entitled for their co-tenancy rights on the 9 trees in pursuance of entry made in the 1337 fasli and they have rightly filed an objection under Section 9(A)(2) during the consolidation proceedings before the consolidation officer.

10. It is further submitted that the compromise was entered and once it is accepted by the ancestors of the petitioners in the compromise regarding the co-tenacy rights of the respondents then they cannot take a u-turn rather they are bound by the same as the said compromise was entered before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate in the criminal proceedings under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C. It is further submitted that the older the entry, more credible it is, as a general rule.

11. It is further submitted that the settlement entry can be rebutted only by documentary evidence. It can even be rebutted by an oral evidence and in support of his submission, the learned State Counsel has relied upon the judgment dated 28.01.1996 passed by this Court in the case of Sant Bux Singh vs. Joint Director of Consoldiation and Others; 1986 RD 216.

12. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through the records of the case, it is an undisputed fact between the parties that the name of the ancestors of the petitioners i.e. his maternal grandfather was entered in the Khasra of 1337 fasli against 31 trees and the name of the ancestors of the respondents was entered against the 9 trees situated at gata no. 1906. In the settlement entry of 1344-45 fasli, the name of the zamindar Azam Ali Khan as well as the name of the ancestors of the respondents was deleted but the name of the ancestors of the petitioners was retained and intact in the settlement year 1344-45 fasli i.e. year 1937-1938.

13. The respondents had never filed any case under the the Act, 1886 and the Act, 1901 against the settlement entry in 1344-45 fasli in favour of the ancestors of the petitioners. Thereafter, the Act, 1950 has come into force w.e.f. 01.07.1952 and at that time, the entry of 1344-45 fasli was intact and the entry in the name of the ancestors of the petitioners is protected by Section 18 of the Act, 1950. For convenience, the same is quoted hereinbelow:-

"18. Settlement of certain lands with intermediaries or cultivators as Bhumidhar.-(1) Subject to the provisions of Sections 10, 15, 16 and 17, all lands-

(d) held as such by-

(i) an occupancy tenant;

(ii) a hereditary tenant;

(iii) a tenant or Patta

[possessing the right to transfer the holding by sale,]

Dawami or Istamrari referred to in Section 17;

(e) held a grover holder,

on the date immediately preceding the date of vesting shall be deemed to be settled by the State Government witsh such intermediary, [lessee, tenant, grantee or grove-holder,] as the case may be, who shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be entitled to take or retain possession of this bhumidhar thereof."

14. The submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners that as per Section 57, U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 (hereinafter referred to as "Act, 1901") which deals with the presumption as to entries , the provision is quoted hereinbelow:-

"57. Presumption as to entries. All entries in the record-of-rights prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter shall be presumed to be true until the contrary is proved; and all decisions under this Chapter in cases of dis- pute shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of Section 40, be binding on all Revenue Courts in respect of the subject-matter of such disputes; but no such entry or decision shall affect the right of any person to claim and establish in the Civil Court any interest in land which requires to be recorded in the registers pre- scribed by [* ] Section 32."

15. Section 18 of the Act, 1950 provides that all land held by a grove holder on the date immediately preceding the date of vesting shall be deemed to be settled by the State Government with such intermediary [lesse, tenant, grantee or grove holder], who shall subject to the provisions of this Act, be entitled to take or retain possession as bhumidhari thereof and Section 57 of Act, 1901 provides all entries in the records of rights prepared in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be presumed to be true until the contrary is proved. It is an undisputed case of the respondents that they had not led any evidence either documentary or oral to prove the subsequent entry made in the 1345 fasli is a wrong entry on any ground.

16. Learned counsel for the private respondents had very fairly submitted that the objections were filed on two grounds firstly, on the basis of the entry in the 1337 fasli and secondly, on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties in the criminal proceedings lodged under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C. and they had not questioned the subsequent entry of 1345 fasli. The respondents were claiming for co-tenancy rights on the basis of entry in 1337 fasli as their names were recorded in the khasra. Once it is an admitted case that there was no effort to prove that the entry in 1345 fasli was wrong then as per Section 57 it would be presumed that the entry was rightly made. The judgments relied by the learned counsel for the petitioner on this point are quoted hereinbelow:-

(i) The relevant para of the judgment passed in the case of Lal Behari (supra) is quoted hereinbelow:-

"5. It is well settled that under Section 57 of the Land Revenue Act the entries in the current records of the latest settlement are presumed to be correct unless rebutted by cogent evidence. However, in this connection the question which sometimes arises for consideration is, whether the entries made in the subsequent settlements, which are different with those of the earlier settlements, would stand rebutted by the earlier settlement entries or not? It goes without saying that at each settlement the entries are made in accordance with the prescribed procedure contained in Chapter IV of the U. P. Land Revenue Act. Therefore, the entries in the record-of-rights prepared in accordance with the provisions of Chapter IV would be presumed to be true unless the contrary is proved as provided under Section 57 of the Act. Thus, where the entries made at the earlier and subsequent settlements are conflicting, the entries made in subsequent settlement can be given preference with those of the previous settlement unless the contrary is proved by cogent and strong evidence. During the course of every subsequent settlement proceeding the then existing entries in the record-of-right are checked and verified and the same are corrected, if found to be wrong, after following the prescribed procedure under Chapter IV of the Land Revenue Act. Thus, the entries at the latest settlement would be presumed to be correct and the earlier conflicting settlement entries would not be enough evidence to rebut the correctness of the subsequent settlement entries. The entries in the record of rights of the latest settlement would, therefore, be presumed to be correct unless rebutted by cogent evidence and the same cannot be discarded merely on the ground of conflicting entries in the earlier settlement records."

(ii) The relevant para of the judgment passed in the case of Anjuman Islamia Lakhimpur (supra) is quoted hereinbelow:-

"16. This Court has held in a decision as reported in 1985 (3) LCD 415, Lalbihari and others v. Ram Adhar and others, that as per provisions of Section 57 of the U.P.L.R. Act, 1901, entries in concurrent records of latest settlement are presumed to be correct unless rebutted by cogent evidence. The appellant has failed to produce any cogent evidence in support of their claim. As per Sections 101 and 102 of the Evidence Act, 1872, the burden of proof certainly rested on the plaintiff appellant to demonstrate that the land in dispute was a Kabristan or it was dedicated as a waqf. This Court finds strength from a recent decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India as reported in (2006) 5 SCC 588, Anil Rishi v. Gurbaksh Singh (paras 8 and 9) in deriving the above conclusion."

(iii) The relevant paras of the judgment passed in the case ofNiazu (supra) is quoted hereinbelow:-

"14. The SOC allowed the objection of the petitioner relying upon the settlement entry of 1365 fasli and the entries in the subsequent years. He has categorically recorded that the entry of 1365 fasli was a settlement entry and, therefore, liable to be relied upon and that no evidence had been adduced to rebut these entries. He has also referred to the admission in the statements of -Saffaq and Faizanda, who have admitted the possession of the petitioner over the land in question. He further recorded that the contesting respondent, namely Saffaq was present in the Court, as admitted by his witness Faizanda but did not care to appear and depose before the Court. On the aforesaid reasoning and evidence the claim of adverse possession as set up by the petitioner was accepted.

15. The DDC, on the contrary, has not taken into consideration the fact that the entry under class 9, in favour of the petitioner was a settlement entry. What has been recorded by the DDC for rejecting the claim of the petitioner, is true only for normal revenue entries and the said reasoning will not apply to a settlement entry. This view is fully fortified by the judgment relied upon by the learned Counsel for the petitioner in the case of Lal Behari (supra). The case law cited on behalf of the respondents does not deal with settlement entries and, therefore, the same has no application in the facts and circumstances of the case.

16. Accordingly and for the reasons given above, I am of the considered opinion that the order passed by the DDC is vitiated as the revisional authority has misdirected himself. It has further failed to consider the reasoning given by the appellate authority while deciding in favour of the petitioner, in his judgment of reversal. The revisional order, therefore, cannot be sustained and is liable to be set aside.

17. Accordingly I allow the writ petition and set aside the order passed by the DDC on 7.6.1984 and affirm the order passed by the SOC. No order as to costs."

17. As far as the submission regarding agreement entered into between the parties before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate in the criminal proceeding lodged under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C. is concerned, the same could not be said to be binding between the parties in the proceedings initiated under the Act, 1953. The proceedings under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C. are preventive in nature and not adjudicated by the judicial court and the rights of parties are not adjudicated by the criminal court. It is a compromise just to give an undertaking that in future the parties shall maintain peace and would not be involved in criminal activity. The judgments relied by the learned counsel for the petitioners quoted hereinbelow:-

(i) The relevant para of the judgment passed in the case of Adi Pherozshah Gandhi vs. H. M. Seervai reported in AIR 1971 SC 385 is quoted hereinbelow:-

"35. Now in disciplinary proceedings the advocate was not estopped from questioning the charge that he was guilty of corrupt practice. In a civil proceeding the decision of a criminal court is not res judicata. To give an example, if a person is involved in a traffic offence in which some one is injured he may in the criminal court receive a light sentence but if he is sued in a civil court for heavy damages he can plead and prove that he was not negligent or that accident was due to the contributory negligence of the defendant. The decision of the criminal court would not preclude him from raising this issue before the civil court."

(ii) The relevant portion of the judgment passed in the case of Rajinder vs. State of Haryana reported in [1991] 1 Crimes 873- PH is quoted hereinbelow:-

"Security proceedings under section 151 were on the same facts, as the impugned FIR enumerates. Security proceedings cannot be equated with a criminal prosecution. That was a proceeding for preventive measure and the impugned FIR was registered with respect to the substantive offence committed by the petitioners."

(iii) The relevant para of the judgment passed in the case of Shaikh Piru Bux vs. Kalandi Pati reported in AIR 1970 SC 1885 is quoted hereinbelow:-

"11. In our opinion the High Court was right in coming to the conclusion that the compromise was not binding on the Hindu community. The learned Additional Sub-Judge had misdirected himself in law in coming to the contrary conclusion. The compromise was not arrived at in a suit fought in a representative capacity but was filed in a proceeding under Section 107, Criminal Procedure Code. The signatories declared inter alia that "neither we, the Musalmans nor we the Hindus can at any time in future create any disturbance towards each other's religion and will deal with each other as before. We will not create any disturbance in any function of either party and will not create breach of peace with each other amongst ourselves.....There is no apprehension of breach of peace as we the Hindus and the Musalmans have amicably settled the matter nor will there occur any breach of peace in future. So we both parties having settled the matter amicably, hereby submit this petition and pray that the case be disposed of in terms of this compromise petition." It is signed by a number of persons but there is no indication that they represented the two communities. It may be that these persons, who signed the compromise, were important persons in the communities and it may be that both the communities should act according to the compromise effected by the so- called important persons. But in law it does not debar the parties from asserting their legal rights in a Civil Court. We need not decide what the compromise means, and particularly the whether the words inscribed on the pillars were part of the compromise effected by the leaders."

18. From the above judgments, it is clear that the compromise filed in the criminal proceedings under Section 107/116 Cr.P.C. cannot be equated with the compromise filed in a regular trial or in determining the civil rights and title of the parties.

19. The respondents had waited so long i.e. when their names were not added in 1345 fasli i.e. in the year 1937-1938. Thereafter, the entries were intact after the Act, 1950 came into force on 01.07.1952 and for the first time after about 30 years raised the objection in the consolidation proceedings cannot be raised at such a belated stage in the light of the law laid down by this Court in the case of Ramnath Singh and another vs. D.D.C. reported in [2014(32) LCD 659]. The relevant para is quoted hereinbelow:-

"It is specifically mentioned by the Deputy Director of Consolidation that in Khasra 1359 Fasli, name of Nawab as main tenure holder and Aniruddh Singh as sub tenant was entered, same position was there in Khasras of 1361 and 1362 Fasli, Khasra of 1360 Fasli was not available, however since 1363 Fasli name of Aniruddh Singh was entered as main tenure holder and name of Nawab Singh was expunged. 1363 Fasli corresponds to 1955-56 A.D. Objections were filed in 1993 i.e. after about 38 years. Absolutely no reason was given for this undue delay and silence. The lower revisional court allowed the revision placing reliance upon section 20 of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act and U.P. Land Reforms amendment Act 1954. Under Section 20 it is provided that every person who on the date immediately preceding date of vesting was a sub tenant shall be called Adhiwasi. Thereafter through operation of law Adhiwasis became Sirdars. 1359 Fasli ended on 30.06.1952 and U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was enforced w.e.f. 01.07.1952. Accordingly section 20 was squarely applicable. The Settlement Officer of Consolidation decided the matter in favour of the petitioners on the ground that it was not shown that entry of 1359 and 1363 were correctly made. In case of old entries particularly for applying section 20 of the Act it is not necessary to see whether the entries are correct. In any case it was for the other side to show that entry was wrong. After such long time it is almost impossible to file supporting orders, documents etc. to prove correctness of entry. Entries can not challenged after a long time vide Sahibdar Khan Vs. Sadllo Khan, A.I.R 2003 S.C.2073. Moreover in following authorities it has been held that correctness of the entries for the purposes of section 20 can not be doubted or questioned and even in correct entry (unless shown to have been made fraudulently or surreptitiously) will be sufficient to confer the right of Adhivasi/Siradar/Bhumidhar upon the person shown to be defacto occupant, in preference to de jure occupant.

1.Amba Prasad Vs. Abdul Noor Khan, A.I.R. 1965, S.C. 54.

2.Smt. Sonawati vs. Sri Ram A.I.R. 1968, S.C. 466

3.Nath Singh and others Vs. The Board of Revenue and others, A.I.R. 1968, S.C. 1351

4.Wali Mohammad Vs. Ram Surat, A.I.R. 1989, Supreme Court 2296

5.Hira Lal and another Vs. Gajjan and others, 1990 (3) S.C.C. 285.

6.Chandrika Prasad Vs. Pullo, A.I.R. 2000, Supreme Court 1785.

7.Ram Avadh and others Vs. Ram Das and others, 2008 (8) S.C.C. 58.

In the last authority of 2008 it has been held that if entry is continuing for 11 years since before start of consolidation then it can not be questioned in consolidation proceedings.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has cited the following 3 authorities which do not support his contention:

1.1464 R.D. Page 208, Shri Ram Vs. Pilau Singh.

2.1963 R.D. Page 111, Phagu Vs. Sita Ram.

3.1997 C.C.C. 480, Gurumukh Singh Vs. D.D.C."

20. In the case of Ramnath Singh (supra), this Court had relied upon the judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court, wherein it has been held that correctness of the entries for the purposes of Section 20, Act, 1950 cannot be doubted or questioned or even incorrect entry (unless shown to have been made fraudulently and surreptitiously) will be sufficient to confer the right of Adivasi/Sirdars/Bhumidhar upon the person and if the entry is continued from last 11 years, in that case, since before start of consolidation then it cannot be questioned in consolidation proceedings. Similarly in the present case, the entry was made in the year 1937-38 i.e. 1344-45 fasli when Act, 1921 was in operation. Thereafter, it remained intact when Act, 1950 has came into force w.e.f 01.07.1952 and thereafter, in the consolidation proceedings, which were started in the year 1970's i.e. after 30 years from the date of 1345 fasli and 20 years from the date of Act, 1950, then for the first time in the consolidation proceedings the objection was raised by the respondents which is not permissible under the law laid down by this Court and over and above that the respondents had never come with a case that settlement made in 1345 fasli in favour of the ancestors of the petitioners was made fraudulently or surreptitiously.

21. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances of this case, the present writ petition is allowed.

22. The revisional order dated 31.12.1981 passed by respondent no. 1-Deputy Director Consolidation is hereby quashed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1868
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 25.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ B No. 563 of 2024

Saiyed Mohammad Rehaan & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Deputy Director of Consolidation District Sultanpur & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Dwijendra Mishra, Ajeet Kumar

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Mohan Singh

Civil Laws – Constitution of India, 1950 - Article 226, – UP Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 - Section – 9(A)(2) - Writ Petition – challenging the impugned remand order passed by the revisional court – petitioners claimed by filing of an objection u/s 9-A-(ii) of the Act, 1953 their rights over the plots in question on the basis that same was owned and possessed by their ancestors and have developed on them on the basis of General Rules of Succession – it was St.d that said plots have been wrongly recorded in the name of opponents – objection was allowed – appeal – consolidation officer decide the appeal on 28.09.2000 by undue haste – grounds taken that on 28.09.2000 there is no any date is fixed for hearing and order sheet would indicate that order sheet has been altered – Revision – DDC allowed the revision and remanded the matter back to the Settlement officer (Consolidation) for determination afresh – court observed that, arbitrariness in passing the order dated 28.09.2000 is writ large on the face of order and the order sheet, – the dates were changed and the order sheet deliberately manipulated so as to pass the order before his superannuation – such an exercise by a judicial officer or revenue officer discharging judicial function is strongly condemned – held, a judicial order should inspire confidence and a judicial order which does not inspire confidence shall be set aside and the manner of passing the order should be above reproach and should be just, fair and reasonable and should not be leave any room for suspicion or arbitrariness – hence, writ petition being devoid merits – Dismissed. (Para – 17, 18, 19)

Writ Petition Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sudha Chaudhary Vs St. of U.P. (Civil Appeal no. 2077/2020 decided on 06.03.2020),

2. Shrirang yadavrao Waghmare Vs St. of Mah. (2019 9 SCC 144),

3. Taras Singh Vs jyoti Basu (2005 1 SCC 201),

4. Daya Shankar Vs High Court of Allahabad (1987 vol. 3 SCC 1),

5. R C Chandel Vs High Court of M. P. (2012 vol. 8 SCC 58),

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Sri Dwijendra Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned Standing Counsel for respondent nos. 1, 2 and 3 and Sri Mohan Singh, learned counsel appearing for respondent no. 4.

2. In the light of proposed order notice to private respondent nos. 5 to 20 is dispensed with.

3. By means of present writ petition the petitoiners have challenged order dated 21.02.2024, passed in Revision No. 34 of 2024 - Kafil Ahmad Vs. Syed Mohd. Rahman, passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation, Sultanpur.

4. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners had filed objections under Section 9-A(II) of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953, claiming their right over Plot Nos. 1119, 1120, 1121, 1122, 1123, 1124, 1125, 1126, 1127, 1128, 1129, 1130, 1131, 1111, 1112, 1137, 870, 1138, 1247, 1114, 779/3, 842, 843 and 2661, situated at Village - Kisni, Pargana - Jagdishpur, Tehsil - Musafirkhana, Sultanpur (now Amethi). The petitioners claimed their right over on the basis that same was owned and possessed by their ancestors and have devolved on them on the basis of General Rule of Succession. It was stated that the said plots have been wrongly recorded in the name of MOhd. Ahmad and Syed Ahmad S/o Nawab Ali. The Consolidation Officer has decided the application of the petitioners and passed order in their favour by means of order dated 28.09.2000.

5. Aggrieved by the order dated 28.09.2000, an appeal was filed before the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) by respondent nos. 5 to 13, which appeal was dismissed by order dated 25.05.2005. In the appeal it was submitted that the case was decided on 28.09.2000 by the Consolidation Officer, with undue haste and it was contended that the case as not listed on the said date on which it was decided. It was submitted that the case was listed on 18.09.2000, on which date arguments of the parties were heard and next date was fixed, but portion of the order sheet was destroyed where next date was endorsed and 28.09.2000 was subsequently inserted, on which date no proceedings took place and the matter was further listed on 13.10.2000, which date was deleted and the matter was fixed for 25.09.2000.

6. It was submitted that perusal of the order sheet would indicate that the order sheet has been altered and manipulated only because the Presiding Officer was about to retire and therefore, prayed that the impugned order be set aside and the matter be remanded. The Settlement Officer (Consolidation) did not agree with the submissions of the appellant and accordingly dismissed the appeal.

7. Revision was filed against the order of Settlement Officer (Consolidation) before the Deputy Director of Consolidation, who has allowed the revision and remanded the matter back to the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) for determination afresh. While allowing the revision, the Deputy Director of Consolidation was of the view that as per order sheet the case as listed on 28.08.2000 and the parties were present and the case was adjourned for 18.09.2000. On 18.09.2000 general date was fixed i.e. 28.09.2000 and subsequently the case was listed on 16.10.2000, 13.11.2000 and 04.01.2001. He has further noticed that typed order sheet exists till passing of order dated 28.09.2000 and there is no mention as to whether parties were heard or not.

8. The Deputy Director of Consolidation has further noticed the fact that in the year 2000 facility of stenographer was not provided to the Consolidation Officer and accordingly entire order sheet is suspect and the orders passed by the Consolidation Officer become suspect. He has further noticed that in the present case date was fixed for 04.01.2001 but as the Presiding Officer was about to retire, date was changed and the impugned order dated 28.09.2000 was passed by the Consolidation Officer.

9. It is in the aforesaid circumstances that the Deputy Director of Consolidation has allowed the revision and set aside the order passed by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) dated 21.09.2009 as well as order of Consolidation Officer dated 28.09.2000.

10. Learned counsel for the petitioner has vehemently urged that there is no infirmity in the order passed by the Consolidation Officer and this aspect of the matter has been rightly considered by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation). He further submits that even in case revisional authority was of the opinion that the order of Consolidation Officer was illegal and arbitrary, he should not have proceeded to decide the matter on merits rather then remanding the matter back to the Consolidation Officer.

11. Learned Standing Counsel on the other hand has opposed the writ petition. He has submitted that there are ample evidence on record to indicate that there has been manipulation of records and specially the order sheet at the stage of Consolidation Officer who looking into his retirement seems to have altered the dates and passed the order dated 28.09.2000. He has supported the order passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation and prayed for dismissal of the writ petition.

12. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

13. It is at the very outset noticed that the Consolidation Officer has by means of impugned order has not only allowed the objections filed by the petitioner but has also adjudicated upon the issue with regard to public way and canal, in favour of the petitioner. While passing any such order it was mandatory to issue notice to the Gaon Sabha. It is further noticed that the order dated 28.09.2000 has been passed in haste without considering the evidence on record and points of determination nos. 8, 6, 7 and 9 and the impugned order has been passed in a very cryptic manner in favour of petitioner.

14. The other grounds which have been considered by the Deputy Director of Consolidation is the manner in which the Consolidation Officer has proceeded to decide the objections submitted by the petitioner and the private respondents. He has perused the order sheet and recorded that the case was listed on 28.08.2000 on which date parties were present and case was adjourned for 18.09.2000. On 18.09.2000, general date of 28.09.2000 was fixed subsequent to which the case was listed on 16.11.2000, 13.11.2000 and 04.01.2001. Typed copy of the order dated 28.09.2000 is also found on record. The Deputy Director of Consolidation has stated that portion of order sheet is torn and the date fixed has been deliberately obliterated by removing portion of the order sheet.

15. In the aforesaid circumstances, when the matter has been adjourned to 04.01.2001, there was no occasion to decide the case on previous date i.e. 28.09.2000 and accordingly, such an order does not inspire confidence and accordingly the Deputy Director of Consolidation has rightly set aside the order passed by the Consolidation Officer and remanded the matter for consideration afresh.

16. Hon'ble Apex Court in Civil Appeal No. 2077 of 2020 - Sadhna Chaudhary Vs. State of U.P. and Another (decided on 06.03.2020), while dealing the issue of necessity of upholding the rule of law has held has under :-

"17. Undoubtedly, the High Court is correct in its observation of the applicable law. Indeed, the end result of the judicial process does not matter, and what matters is only the decision-making process employed by the delinquent officer. Clearly, it is a principle since the nineteenth century that Judges cannot be held responsible for the end result or the effect of their decisions. [See Judicial Officers Protection Act, 1850.] This is necessary to both uphold the rule of law, and insulate judicial reasoning from extraneous factors.

18. Even furthermore, there are no two ways with the proposition that the Judges, like Caesar's wife, must be above suspicion. Judicial officers do discharge a very sensitive and important constitutional role. They not only keep in check excesses of the executive, safeguard citizens' rights and maintain law and order. Instead, they support the very framework of civilised society. It is courts, which uphold the law and ensure its enforcement. They instil trust of the constitutional order in people, and ensure the majesty of law and adherence to its principles. The courts, hence prevent people from resorting to their animalistic instincts, and instead provide them with a gentler and more civilised alternative of resolving disputes. In getting people to obey their dicta, courts do not make use of guns or other (dis)incentives, but instead rely on the strength of their reasoning and a certain trust and respect in the minds of the general populace. Hence, it is necessary that any corruption or deviation from judicial propriety by the guardians of law themselves, be dealt with sternly and swiftly.

19. It has amply been reiterated by this Court that the judicial officers must aspire and adhere to a higher standard of honesty, integrity and probity. Very recently in Shrirang Yadavrao Waghmare v. State of Maharashtra [Shrirang Yadavrao Waghmare v. State of Maharashtra, (2019) 9 SCC 144 : (2019) 2 SCC (L&S) 582] , a Division Bench of this Court very succinctly collated these principles and reiterated that:

"5. The first and foremost quality required in a Judge is integrity. The need of integrity in the judiciary is much higher than in other institutions. The judiciary is an institution whose foundations are based on honesty and integrity. It is, therefore, necessary that judicial officers should possess the sterling quality of integrity. This Court in Tarak Singh v. Jyoti Basu [Tarak

Singh v. Jyoti Basu, (2005) 1 SCC 201] held as follows:

'Integrity is the hallmark of judicial discipline, apart from others. It is high time the judiciary took utmost care to see that the temple of justice does not crack from inside, which will lead to a catastrophe in the justice-delivery system resulting in the failure of public confidence in the system. It must be remembered that woodpeckers inside pose a larger threat than the storm outside.'

6. The behaviour of a Judge has to be of an exacting standard, both inside and outside the court. This Court in Daya Shankar v. High Court of Allahabad [Daya Shankar v. High Court of Allahabad, (1987) 3 SCC 1 : 1987 SCC (L&S) 132] held thus:

'11. ? Judicial officers cannot have two standards, one in the court and another outside the court. They must have only one standard of rectitude, honesty and integrity. They cannot act even remotely unworthy of the office they occupy.'

7. Judges are also public servants. A Judge should always remember that he is there to serve the public. A Judge is judged not only by his quality of judgments but also by the quality and purity of his character. Impeccable integrity should be reflected both in public and personal life of a Judge. One who stands in judgments over others should be incorruptible. That is the high standard which is expected of Judges.

8. Judges must remember that they are not merely employees but hold high public office. In R.C. Chandel v. High Court of M.P. [R.C. Chandel v. High Court of M.P., (2012) 8 SCC 58 : (2012) 2 SCC (Civ) 343 : (2012) 3 SCC (Cri) 782 : (2012) 2 SCC (L&S) 469] , this Court held that the standard of conduct expected of a Judge is much higher than that of an ordinary person. The following observations of this Court are relevant:

'29. Judicial service is not an ordinary government service and the Judges are not employees as such. Judges hold the public office; their function is one of the essential functions of the State. In discharge of their functions and duties, the Judges represent the State. The office that a Judge holds is an office of public trust. A Judge must be a person of impeccable integrity and unimpeachable independence. He must be honest to the core with high moral values. When a litigant enters the courtroom, he must feel secured that the Judge before whom his matter has come, would deliver justice impartially and uninfluenced by any consideration. The standard of conduct expected of a Judge is much higher than an ordinary man. This is no excuse that since the standards in the society have fallen, the Judges who are drawn from the society cannot be expected to have high standards and ethical firmness required of a Judge. A Judge, like Caesar's wife, must be above suspicion. The credibility of the judicial system is dependent upon the Judges who man it. For a democracy to thrive and the rule of law to survive, justice system and the judicial process have to be strong and every Judge must discharge his judicial functions with integrity, impartiality and intellectual honesty.'

9. There can be no manner of doubt that a Judge must decide the case only on the basis of the facts on record and the law applicable to the case. If a Judge decides a case for any extraneous reasons then he is not performing his duty in accordance with law.

10. In our view the word "gratification" does not only mean monetary gratification. Gratification can be of various types. It can be gratification of money, gratification of power, gratification of lust etc., etc."

20. We are also not oblivious to the fact that mere suspicion cannot constitute "misconduct". Any "probability" of misconduct needs to be supported with oral or documentary material, even though, the standard of proof would obviously not be on a par with that in a criminal trial. While applying these yardsticks, the High Court is expected to consider the existence of differing standards and approaches amongst different Judges. There are innumerable instances of judicial officers who are liberal in granting bail, awarding compensation under MACT or for acquired land, back wages to workmen or mandatory compensation in other cases of tortious liabilities. Such relief-oriented judicial approaches cannot by themselves be grounds to cast aspersions on the honesty and integrity of an officer.

21. Furthermore, one cannot overlook the reality of ours being a country, wherein countless complainants are readily available without hesitation to tarnish the image of the judiciary, often for mere pennies or even cheap momentary popularity. Sometimes, a few disgruntled members of the Bar also join hands with them, and the officers of the subordinate judiciary are usually the easiest target. It is, therefore, the duty of the High Courts to extend their protective umbrella and ensure that the upright and straightforward judicial officers are not subjected to unmerited onslaught."

17. A judicial order should inspire confidence and a judicial order which does not inspire confidence shall be set aside and the manner of passing the order should be above reproach and should be just, fair and reasonable and should not leave any room for suspicion or arbitrariness.

18. Arbitrariness in passing the order dated 28.09.2000 is writ large on the face of the order and the order sheet. The dates were changed and the order sheet deliberately manipulated so as to pass the order before his superannuation. Such an exercise by a Judicial Officer or Revenue Officer discharging judicial functions is strongly condemned.

19. From the discussion made above as well as in view of the arguments raised by the petitioners, no ground for interference in the matter by this Court is made out. Hence the prayer made by the petitioners in the present writ petition are declined.

20. The writ petition being devoid of merits is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1873
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ B No. 739 of 1982

Ram Dularey Singh & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Deputy Director of Consolidation & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
S. Mirza, Ashok Kumar Verma, Jagdish, Nirmal Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Ashok Kumar Verma, Harguru Charan, K.P Singh

Consolidation-Appellate order passed by Settlement Officer, Consolidation and Revisional order impugned-undisputed fact between the parties that the identity of the holdings has been changed-was not in the identical form as it was at the time of common ancestor and admitting the resettlement then it cannot be said that the entry was made in favour of one Harnam Singh in the representative capacity of his joint family-presumption with respect to jointness of family and if proved then property inherited from common ancestor will be deemed to be a joint property of all-impugned order quashed-W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jagdamba Singh & ors. Vs Dy. Director of Consolidation & ors. reported in 1984 (2) LCD page 398

2. Jai Narain Vs D.D.C. & ors. reported in (1979) RD 198,

3. Bodh Raj Vs Joint Director of Consolidation Faizabad & ors., in Writ Petition No.676 of 1980 connected with Writ Petition No.23 of 1980, decided on 22.09.1995

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Ashok Kumar Verma, learned counsel for the private respondents and Sri Hemant Kumar Paney, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel.

2. During the pendency of the present writ petition, after the demise of petitioner no. 1, his legal heir /representative has been substituted by Petitioner No. 1/1, after demise of Petitioner No.3 his legal heirs have been substituted by Petitioner No.3/1 and Petitioner No.3/2 and after the demise of Petitioner No.3/1 his legal heir has been substituted by petitioner No.3/1/1. Similarly after the demise of respondent nos. 5 and 8, their legal heirs have been substituted as 5/1 to 5/3 & 8/1 to 8/2 respectively, whereas Respondent Nos.6 and 7 have died issueless.

3. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned appellate order dated 3.2.1981 passed by the Settlement Officer, Consolidation and the revisional order dated 16.01.1982 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that Gata Nos. 210, 211, 212/1, 212/2, 214, 215, 216, 248, 249, 250, 251 and 252/1 situated at Village - Pooremani, Pargana - Surajpur, Tehsil - Ramsanehi Ghat, District - Barabanki is under dispute between the parties. It is further submitted that initially the lease of Gata Nos. 123, 210, 211 and 251 was in favour of Sheo Charan Singh, who had expired in the year 1915. The petitioners are grandson of Sheo Charan Singh i.e. son of his eldest son Harnam Singh. The respondents are the great grandson of Sheo Charan Singh being son of Awadhraj, who was son of Markandey Singh and Markandey Singh was the second son of Sheo Charan Singh.

5. It is further submitted that after the demise of Sheo Charan Singh in the year 1915 the fresh lease was granted by the zamindar in favour of father of the petitioners Harnam Singh of Gata Nos.210, 211, 212/1, 212/2, 214, 215, 216, 248, 249, 250, 251 and 252/1 including Gata Nos. 210, 211 and 251 except Gata No. 123 which were initially leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh. After a fresh lease executed in favour of Harnam Singh, the father of the petitioners, it could not be said to be ancestral property on the basis of which the respondents could claim their co-tenancy in the same.

6. It is further submitted that the holding had not come down and intact in the identical form it was resettled in favour of Late Harnam Singh the father of the petitioners.

7. It is further submitted that the finding given in the appeal by the Settlement Officer, Consolidation that the respondents have co-tenancy right in Gata No.210, 211 and 251. The original gatas which were leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh and also held that the respondents are having co-tenancy rights in Gata No.212/1, 212/2, 214, 215, 216, 248, 259, 250 and 252/1, newly leased in favour of the petitioners, as the same has been acquired from the ancestral property without their being any evidence that the newly leased gatas had been acquired out of the funds of ancestral property.

8. The revisional court without appreciating this submission advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioners had affirmed the order passed by Settlement Officer, Consolidation, feeling aggrieved by the same the present writ petition has been filed.

9. It is further submitted that after the demise of Sheo Charan Singh neither Markandey Singh nor Awadhraj Singh had never raised any claim on the said gatas newly settled with father of the petitioners as mentioned above, even after the resettlement in favour of Harnam Singh the ancestor of the petitioners, thus it is clear that the ancestors of the present respondents had never laid any claim in respect of the newly settled gatas consisting of 12 gatas.

10. It is further submitted that in other villages the petitioners had not raised any objection at the time of entry of names of the respondents in the revenue records but only in the present village it has been opposed.

11. On the other hand Sri Ashok Kumar Verma, learned counsel for the private respondents has submitted that it is an ancestral property and name of Harnam Singh was entered in representative capacity being 'Karta' of the family.

12. It is further submitted that the grandfather of the respondents expired in the year 1919 and the father of the respondents expired in the year 1955, at that time the respondents were minor and living with Harnam Singh father of the petitioners, who was taking care of the respondents, so they were living jointly and jointness of family is proved from the said fact.

13. It is further submitted that the statement were given by the witnesses adduced by the respondents that it is a joint family and the property acquired by the joint family and being the eldest son name of Harnam Singh was entered in the revenue record in a representative capacity, so there is no illegality in the orders passed by the Settlement Officer, Consolidation and the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

14. It is further submitted that the respondents had established by the evidence that the landlord had settled the land with late Harnam Singh in the representative capacity for all other members of the family as well and that all the member of the joint family come into possession over the land which is blended and treated as Joint Hindu Family property. In support of his submission, learned counsel for the respondents has relied upon the judgement of this Court passed in the case of Jagdamba Singh and others vs. Dy. Director of Consolidation and others reported in 1984 (2) LCD page 398, the relevant para relied by the learned counsel for the respondent is quoted hereinbelow:

"27. The acquisition of land in the representative capacity either by the Karta or a member of joint family can be established by the evidence led directly to establish the fact that the landlord had settled the land with him in the representative capacity for all the other members of the family as well and that all the members of the joint family came into possession over the land which was blended and treated as joint family property. The evidence establishing the fact about joint possession of all the members of the joint family, on the land of holding till it remained undivided or over specific plots of the holding by members of the family to the extent of their respective shares, by way of mutual partition in the event of separation in the family and the payment of land revenue by them either directly to landlord or through the recorded person, would, no doubt, be very material circumstance and a piece of admissible corroborative evidence to establish the fact regarding acquisition of land in the representative capacity by the recorded person. It may, however, be expressed to clarify that merely by being in possession over certain plots would alone be not enough to establish that the land was acquired by the recorded tenant in the representative capacity because no amount of common living and the use and enjoyment of the land jointly or severally would make the claimant a co-sharer in the holding or for treating it to be joint family property acquired in representative capacity. It has to be established by cogent evidence that the land was, in fact, acquired by the recorded person as Karta in the representative capacity for the benefit of all the members of the joint family and it was blended and always treated as joint family property by the recorded persons without any objection by the landlord to it and that the claimants have remained in possession over the land of the holding to the extent of their share in it and paid its rent. It be also shown that the possession of claimants over the land of the disputed holding was in their own right and not by way of any arrangement as licensee on behalf of the recorded tenant or for any other consideration on his behalf."

15. In reply, learned counsel for the petitioners has also relied upon the same judgement as relied by the learned counsel for the respondents and drawn attention of this Court to Para 15 of the judgement passed in the case of Jagdamba Singh and others (Supra), which is quoted hereinbelow:

"15. In all the aforesaid decisions it has been consistently held that in order to uphold the claim of co-tenancy rights on the ground of land being ancestral, it is essential that the entire land of the holding of the common ancestor must have come down in the identical form an it must have remained unchanged and intact. It would, however, be correct to say that where as a result of survey made during settlements, the area of some plots might have decreased or increased or that some plot or plots are eliminated for some explained reason from the holding in question viz. having fallen in the bed of river due to the alluvial and deluvial action of the river or by the construction of the canal etc., then in such event it cannot be said that there is break in the identity of the holding in dispute. The slight change like elimination of certain plot or the increase or decrease in the area of certain plots, for the aforesaid reasons shown, would not operate to destroy the identity of the holding coming down in identical form in the family from the time of common ancestor. But in order to uphold the claim of co-tenancy rights on the ground of land being ancestral it must be established by the claimant that the holding has come down intact and in identical form that it has not been sub-divided or resettled with one or some of the heirs or with the strangers. Thus, where the disputed holding has not come intact in the identical form and only some of the plots of the holding belonging to common ancestor are found included as in the present disputed holding it would not make it ancestral holding so as to give a share in it to the claimants on that ground nor it would be permissible to pick up those plots from the holding and declare them to be ancestral property and give a share in those plots to the claimant."

16. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case the dispute is with regard to the gata numbers as mentioned in the preceding paragraphs. The issue which is to be decided by this Court is whether the gata numbers mentioned above could be treated as an ancestral property for the purpose of giving right of co-tenancy to the respondents or not and whether apart from the gata numbers which were originally leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh whether in that the respondents have any co-tenancy right or not.

17. It is an admitted case between both the parties that the lease which was granted in favour of Sheo Charan Singh was with regard to Gata Nos.123, 210, 211 and 251 and after his demise in the year 1915 the resettlement was made in favour of Harnam Singh for Gata Nos.210, 211, 251 (original gatas for which the lease was in favour of Sheo Charan Singh), leaving out Gata No.123 which was also in original lease. The new lease included 9 more new gatas alongwith 3 old gatas i.e. Gata Nos.212/1, 212/2, 214, 215, 216, 248, 249, 250 and 252/1.

18. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that by the resettlement the identity of holding has been changed and it is not the same which was at the time of earlier lease in favour of Shiv Charan Singh, so the settlement cannot be said to be in the representative capacity of the joint family.

19. Learned counsel for the respondents has very fairly submitted that the respondents are not in a position to dispute the change of the identity of the holdings as record speaks from itself. It is also very fairly submitted by Sri Ashok Kumar Verma that the respondents are not disputing the resettlement in favour of Harnam Singh but the only thing is that the said settlement is for the whole family and the name of Harnam Singh was entered in the representative capacity of the joint family.

20. The judgement which has been relied by the learned counsel for the parties i.e. the Case of Jagdamga Singh (Supra), wherein it has been held that in order to uphold the claim of co-tenancy right on the ground of being a common ancestor, it must be established by the claimant that the holdings has come down intact and in identical form.

21. The undisputed fact between the parties that the identity of the holdings has been changed and it was not in the identical form as it was at the time of common ancestor and admitting the resettlement then it cannot be said that the entry was made in favour of Harnam Singh in the representative capacity of his joint family.

22. The finding given by the appellate court that 9 gata numbers as discussed above was acquired from the proceeds of original gatas leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh for admitting the case of the respondents of co-tenancy could also not sustained for the reason that the re-settlement of all the gatas in a one go. It is not the case that initially the gata numbers which were leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh was leased in favouir of Harnam Singh, thereafter the nine other gatas were acquired subsequently.

23. Once the identity of the holding has completely changed, more particularly one Gata No.123 which was originally leased in favour of Sheo Charan Singh was not part of the resettlement in favour of Harman Singh alongwith new gatas, it could not be said that it is a property of common ancestor.

24. The respondents though examined witnesses in their favour, who had given statements but none of the statements supported by any documents, rather it is an undisputed case, even on the part of the respondents that the identity of the holdings has been changed and the fresh resettlement was made.

25. The findings of jointness would not lead to inference that the property is ancestral property as it has been held by Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as by this Court in catena of decisions. In the case of Jai Narain v. D.D.C. & others reported in (1979) RD 198, it was held that the presumption is only in respect of jointness and not that any property acquired by members of the family is a joint family property and this is a matter of evidence and not of presumption. In the present case, the respondents have failed to adduce any evidence that the property is a joint family property.

26. In the case of Bodh Raj v. Joint Director of Consolidation Faizabad and Others, in Writ Petition No.676 of 1980 connected with Writ Petition No.23 of 1980, decided on 22.09.1995, wherein it has been held that there is a presumption with respect to the jointness of family and if it is shown or proved to the satisfaction of the Court then property inherited from a common ancestor will be deemed to be a joint property of all. It is also clarified in the said judgement that joint family funds must be used for purchase of the property in order to make it joint and property is entered in the name of one person then it has to be proved by other party, who claims to be a joint property that it was acquired by the joint family funds, which the respondents have failed to establish.

27. As far as submission of learned counsel for the petitioners that in other villages, the petitioners had not objected when the names of respondents were entered into revenue records but only in the village of Pooremani, the objection has been raised. It infers that where the respondents have their lawful claim, the respondents had not objected and where they are not entitled to get the right of co-tenancy, it has been objected.

28. Under these circumstances, the appellate order and the revisiaonal order are not sustainable and are liable to be quashed.

29. Accordingly, the writ petition is allowed.

30. The impugned appellate order dated 3.2.1981 passed by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) and the revisional order dated 16.01.1982 passed by the revisional court are set aside.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1878
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Writ B No. 5686 of 1980

Gaya Prasad & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
J.D.C. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:

S.K. Singh, M.N. Singh, Mahesh Narain Singh, Mahesh Narayan, V.K. Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sakeel Ahmad, M.C. Umrao, M.N. Singh, P.B. Umrao, Piyush, R.C. Pandey, R.P. Shastri, S.C.

Civil Law - Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953- In the basic year of consolidation operation-both parties were jointly recorded over the plot in question-Petitioners filed objection u/s 9-A (2) of UPCH Act against the basic year entry-impugned order decided both the parties are entitled to be recorded over ½ shares each over the plot-fact is that the predecessor of contesting respondent were recorded along with the predecessor of Petitioners –second settlement year and the entry continued up to the basic year of the consolidation operation-finding of fact that both are entitled for ½ share each is in accordance with law.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Mahesh Narayan Singh, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri P. B. Umrao, learned counsel for respondent no. 4/3 and Sri Ashutosh Kumar Rai, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State.

2. Brief facts of the case are that plots of Khata No. 323/20-44, situated at village Korsum, Pargana Bindki, District Fatehpur was recorded in the basic year of the consolidation operation in the name of both parties (Ram Chela and Kalicharan). An objection under Section 9-A(2) of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred as UPCH Act) has been filed by the petitioners against the basic year entry in respect to the plot in question stating that Plot No. 1365, 1366 & 1390 are sole tenancy of petitioners as such the name of respondnet no. 4/Kalicharan be expunged and respondent no. 4 has no share in Plot No. 1365, 1366 & 1390. It is further prayed in the objection that in Plot No. 1327 & 1328, petitioners have 2/3 share and respondent no. 4 has 1/3 share. Consolidation Officer framed issues in the aforementioned case which have been registered as case no. 8257. The parties lead evidence in support of their cases. The Consolidation Officer vide order dated 27.01.1975 decided the objection holding that petitioners shall be recorded as exclusive owner of Plot Nos. 1365 & 1366 and in respect to Plot Nos. 1327 & 1328, petitioners will be entitled to 7/12 share and respondent no. 4 shall be entitled to 5/12 share. The Consolidation Officer further held that in remaining plots both parties will be entitled to 1/2 share. Against the order of Consolidation Officer dated 27.01.1975 both parties filed appeal under Section 11(1) of the UPCH Act before the Settlement Consolidation Officer. The appeal filed by the petitioners was registered as Appeal No. 559 and appeal filed by the contesting respondent no. 4 was registered as Appeal No. 523. Both the appeals were consolidated and heard together by Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation. The Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation vide order dated 20.09.1975 allowed the appeal filed by contesting respondent no. 4 and dismissed the appeal filed by the petitioners directing to record the name of the petitioners over 1/2 share of the plot in dispute and contesting respondent no. 4 was also ordered to be recorded over 1/2 share of the plot in dispute. Petitioners challenged the appellate order dated 20.09.1975 in revision under Section 48 of UPCH Act before Deputy Director of Consolidation, which was registered as Revision No. 185. Deputy Director of Consolidation vide order dated 15.03.1980, dismissed the revision filed by the petitioners and affirmed the order of Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation. Hence, this writ petition on behalf of petitioners challenging the impugned orders passed by the respondent nos. 1, 2 & 3.

3. This Court has entertained the matter and granted interim protection on 03.07.1980 staying the dispossession of the petitioner from the plot in question.

4. In pursuance of the order dated 03.07.1980 parties have exchanged their affidavits.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that predecessor of the petitioners were recorded over the plot in question in the first settlement but without any order of the court the predecessor of the contesting respondent no. 4 was recorded in the second settlement, as such the objection filed by the petitioners claiming sole tenancy in respect to the Plot Nos. 1365, 1366 and 1390 is to be allowed and the name of the contesting respondent is to be expunged from Plot Nos. 1365, 1366 & 1390. He further submitted that in respect to the Plot Nos. 1327 & 1328 sale deeds were executed in favour of the petitioners' predecessor, as such petitioners were entitled to 2/3 shares and contesting respondents are entitled to 1/3 share in respect to Plot No. 1327 & 1328. He submitted that in the sale deed the contesting respondent no. 4 was witness as such they cannot deny the execution of the sale deed in favour of predecessor of petitioners as such petitioners should be ordered to be recorded over Plot Nos. 1327 & 1328 having 2/3 share. He submitted that all the orders passed by consolidation authorities are liable to be set aside and the petitioners objection under Section 9-A(2) of UPCH Act is to be allowed in toto.

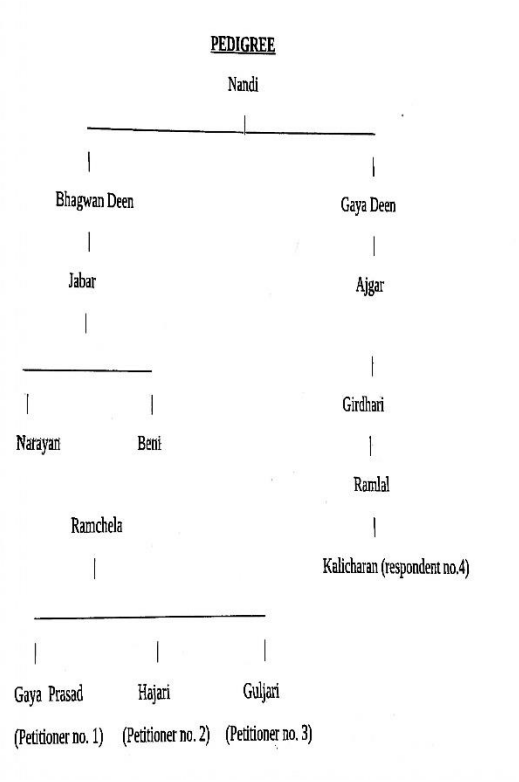
6. On the other hand, Mr. P. B. Umrao, learned counsel appearing for the respondent no. 4/3 submitted that the predecessor of contesting respondents were recorded since second settlement along with predecessor of the petitioners and the entry continued till the basic year of the consolidation operation as such the Settlement Officer, Consolidation has rightly held that both parties are entitled to 1/2 share each in respect to all the plots. He further submitted that sale deed, which are even unregistered also cannot be executed in respect to the Sirdari plots as such there is no illegality in the finding of the fact recorded by the Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation, while deciding the appeal filed by both parties. He submitted that no interference is required against impugned judgment and writ petition is liable to be dismissed.

7. I have considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. There is no dispute about the fact that in the basic year of the consolidation operation both parties were jointly recorded over the plot in question. There is also no dispute about the fact that petitioners filed objection under section 9-A(2) of UPCH Act against the basic year entry, which has been decided by consolidation authorities under the impugned judgment finally it has been held that both parties are entitled to be recorded over 1/2 shares each over the plot in question.

9. The undisputed family pedigree which is also mentioned in the judgment of appellate court will be relevant for perusal, the same is as under:-

PEDIGREE



10. The pedigree mentioned above demonstrate that petitioners are from the branch of Bhagwandeen & respondent no. 4 is from the branch of Gayadeen.

11. The perusal of the appellate Court order dated 20.09.1975 will be also relevant in order to appreciate the consideration of evidences of settlement year by the appellate Court, which is as under:-

न्यायालय सहायक बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी फतेहपुर
अपील सं० 532/55 वसन 75 धारा 11 (1)
चकबन्दी अधिनियम
ग्राम कोरसम परगना बिन्दकी जिला फतेहपुर
1- कालीचरन बनाम गया प्रसाद आदि
2- गया प्रसाद आदि बनाम कालीचरन

पहले बन्दोबस्त में मौजूदा गाटा 1365, 1366 का साबिक गाटा 1339 था जो कि 1384 को बन्दोबस्त में तनहा जबर के नाम दर्ज था। किन्तु दूसरे बन्दोबस्त मे यह दोनों नम्बरान दोनों पक्षों के मूरसान के नाम दर्ज था। गया प्रसाद आदि ने मौजूदा खाता 88 जिसका रकबा 21-3-0 है के संबंध में दिखाया है कि यह खाता पहले बन्दोबस्त मे तनहा अजगर के नाम दर्ज था इसमें यह साबित किया है कि दोनों पक्षों के पूर्वजों में बन्दोबस्त एक से ही बटवारा हो गया था यह बात दोनों पक्षों को स्वीकार भी है कि इस प्रकार खाता संख्या 354 जो कि इस समय रामलाल पुत्र गिरधारी के नाम दर्ज है पहले खाता 88 था और अजगर का था।

गया प्रसाद आदि के विद्ववान वकील की बहस है कि गाटा 1365, 1366 पहले बन्दोबस्त मे तनहा जबर के नाम था और बटवारा हो चुका था इसलिये दूसरे बन्दोबस्त मे इनका इन्द्राज दोनों पक्षों के पूर्वजों के नाम गलत हुआ केवल बन्दोबस्त में शामिल प्रविष्ट हो जाने से कोई अधिकार उत्तरवादी कालीचरन के पूर्वजों का नहीं था केवल प्रविष्ट से कोई आगम प्राप्त नहीं होता है। उसका पुष्टीकरण आर०डी० 1953 पेज 6 व आर० डी० 1952 पेज 142 से किया है।

उत्तरवादी कालीचरन के विद्ववान वकील की बहस है कि आखिरी बन्दोबस्त की प्रविष्ट पहले बन्दोबस्त से अधिक महत्व की होती है इसलिये बन्दोबस्त 1319 की प्रविष्ट दोनों गाटों 1365,1366 के संबंध में सही मानी जावेगी। आर०डी० 1958 पेज 13 के अनुसार 1333 की प्रविष्ट भी महत्व पूर्णत होती है और उससे अधिक अंतिम बन्दोबस्त की मानी गयी है। इसमें अलावा कालीचरन के विद्ववान वकील की यह भी बहस है कि यह दोनों पक्षों को स्वीकार है कि बटवारा पहले बन्दोबस्त में हुआ था और 40 साल से अधिक तथा एक सेटलमेट से कालीचरन के पूर्वजों का नाम दर्ज है। इसलिये गया प्रसाद आदि का दावा तनहा काश्तकारी का गलत है। जैसा आर०डी० 1940 पेजी 285 पर निर्णय हो चुका है। बन्दोबस्त 1319 से गया प्रसाद व उनके पूर्वज ने उनके पूर्वजों को सहखातेदारी स्वीकार करते रहे हैं इसलिये भी स्टापेल और एक्वीसेन्स से कालीचरन की सहखातेदारी हो जाती है जैसा कि आर०डी० 1969 पेज 396 पर निर्णय हो चुका है। इस निर्णय के अनुसार काली चरन की प्रविष्ट 18 साल की सहखातेदारी के संबंध में पर्याप्त है और इसमें लाआफ प्लेडिंग लागू है जिसके द्वारा एक हिस्सेदार अपनी प्रथम सम्पत्ति को स्वेच्छा से संयुक्त परिवार की सम्पत्ति मे शामिल कर सकता है जैसा कि ए०आई०आर 1963 सुप्रीमकोर्ट पेज 160 (बी) में निर्णय हो चुका है।

उपरोक्त से प्रकट है कि गाटा 1365,1366 के संबंध मे कालीचरन की अपील उचित है। जहां तक गाटा 1390 का प्रश्न है इसका गया प्रसाद केवल इस आधार पर तनहा चाहते हैं क्योंकि इस पर उनका तनहा कब्जा है। इसी संबंध मे मुझे कहना है कि बहस की दृष्टि से यह मान भी लिया जाय कि इसको गया प्रसाद आदि जोते हैं तो यह माना जावेगा कि आपसी बटवारा के आधार पर जोते है क्योकि

संयुक्त खाते में एक हिस्से दार का कब्जा सभी हिस्सेदारों का कब्जा माना जाता है जैसा कि आर०डी० 1971 पेज 408 व ए०डब्लू० आर० 1973 पेज 368 पर निर्णय हो चुका है। गाटा 1327, 1328 मे गया प्रसाद आदि का 2/3 अंश मांगते है। चकबन्दी अधिकारी ने 7/12 अंश दिया है इसको भी कालीचरन स्वीकार नहीं करते है। इसके संबंध में कालीचरन आदि ने यह दिखाया है कि 1327 रकबा व-1 7-0 व 1328 रकबा 0-10-0 का साविक नम्बर 1304 था जो कि 1284 में जबर 1/3 अजगर 1/3 बहादुर 1/3 रघुनाथ 1/3 दर्ज था इसके आधार पर अजगर व जबर का 2/3 अंश बताते हैं।

संबंध 1943 के तीन बैनामा दाखिल किये हैं और यह दिखाया है कि मनई ने अपने 1/3 का ¾ यानी ¼ हिस्सा कुल नम्बरान का विश्वनाथ को बेचा था और 1/12 ढकोखा कुर्मी को बेचा था। ढकोखा कुर्मी मेरे खानदान का है इसलिये 1/12 हिस्सा अजगर और जबर का और मिल गया। इस प्रकार अजगर और जबर का 2/3-1-1/2:- ¾ हो गया और ¼ अंश विश्वनाथ ने फिर बेचा इसमें से 3/16 अजगर व जवाहर दोनों को दिया और 1/16 जबर को बेचा। इस प्रकार जबर का हिस्सा 1/2-1-1/16, 9/16 होता है और 7/16 कालीचरन का होता है। इस संबंध में मुझे यह कहना है कि यह किंचित साबित नहीं है कि मनई विवादित भूमि में किस प्रकार का काश्तकार था जब कि बहादुर और रघुनाथ दर्ज थे। रघुनाथ का वारिस मनई होना साबित नहीं है। विवादित भूमि सीरदारी काश्तकारी है इसलिये इनका बैनामा भी होना साबित नहीं है। चूँकि इन बैनामों की मांग के आधार पर सिला बनाया गया है इसलिये इनका साबित होना भी अनिवार्य था जैसा कि भारतीय साक्ष्य अधिनियम की धारा 10 क में उल्लेख है। इस प्रकार गाटा 1327, 1328 के संबंध मे भी गया प्रसाद का कथन गलत है और कालीचरन की आपील उचित है। अतः आदेश हुआ कि कालीचरन की आपील संख्या 523 स्वीकार की जाती है गया प्रसाद आदि की आपील संख्या 559 खारिज की जाती है। चकबन्दी अधिकारी का निर्णय गाटा संख्या 1365, 1366, 1327, 1328 के संबंध में निरस्त किया जाता है तथा आदेश किया जाता है कि इन गाटों में भी कालीचरन का ½ अंश व गया प्रसाद व हजारी लाल व मोती लाल का ½ अंश दर्ज हो। यही आदेश अपील संख्या 559 पर भी लागू होगा।

ह० /- अपठनीय
हरिश्चन्द्र त्रिवेदी

दिनांक 20-9-75
सहायक बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी

चकबन्दी फतेहपुर।

12. The perusal of finding of fact recorded by appellate Court demonstrate that the predecessor of contesting respondent were recorded along with predecessor of petitioners, since the second settlement year and the entry continued up to the basic year of the consolidation operation as such the finding of fact, which has been recorded by the Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation while deciding the appeal filed by both parties for ½ share each is in accordance with law. The exercise of appellate jurisdiction by Assistant Settlement Officer, Consolidation is in accordance with the provision of UPCH Act. The appellate court has also recorded a finding of fact that sale deed cannot be executed in respect of the Sirdari plots, which is also in accordance with law.

13. So far as the exercise of revisional jurisdiction is concern, the same was also in accordance with UPCH Act as before 10.11.1980 the revisional Court was having limited jurisdiction under Section 48 of UPCH Act as such there was no illegality in the impugned revisional order dated 15.03.1980 by which revision filed by the petitioners was dismissed upholding the judgment of appellate Court giving ½ share to both parties in respect to plots in dispute.

14. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, specially joint entry of both parties with effect from second settlement year, no interference is required against the impugned judgment passed by the consolidation authorities.

15. This petition is dismissed, accordingly.

16. No order as to cost.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1883
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 07.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ALOK MATHUR, J.

Writ B No. 1006734 of 2013

Hriday Ram ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sanjai Srivastava, Manoj Kumar, Rama Kant

Counsel for the Respondents:
S.C.

Civil Law - U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 - Petitioner taken agricultural loan-mortgaged half share of a land-loan remained outstanding-land was put to auction thrice- highest bidder was respondent no.6-settled in his favour-sale certificate was issued-auction was objected by Petitioner-rejected being highly belated-Revision-rejected-impugned- challenging that Assistant Collector not empowered- Assistant Collector of first class is empowered by the St. Government by a notification to exercise function of a collector/s 286 of the Act in respect of any holding of a defaulter- subject to sale approved by the Collector-no infirmity in the proceedings.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

Shiv Narain Dubey Vs St. of U.P. & Ors., 2011 SCC OnLine All 1598

(Delivered by Hon'ble Alok Mathur, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sanjai Srivastav, learned counsel for petitioner as well as learned Standing Counsel for respondent Nos. 1 to 5 and Sri Amrendra Nath Tripathi, along with Sri Ashish Raman Mishra, learned counsel for respondent No. 6, 8 to 11.

2. The petitioner has approached this Court being aggrieved by the orders dated 22.03.2013 and 09.12.2012 passed by Board of Revenue, Uttar Pradesh as well as Commissioner, Devi Patan Mandal, Gonda thereby rejecting the petitionof the petitioner challenging the auction proceedings.

3. Facts in brief necessary for adjudication of the present case are that the petitioner had taken an agricultural loan in the year 1991 for an amount of Rs. 1,50,000/- from Allahabad Bank, District Bahraich to purchase a tractor and a threasure. To secure the said loan, the petitioner has mortgaged half share of land situated at Khasra No. 595 and 675, Gata no. 291 situated at Village Pipri Mohan, Pargana Fakarpur, Tehsil ?Mahasi, District Bahraich,. The petitioner had repaid only an amount of Rs. 25,000/- with the bank and the rest of the amount was not paid by him.

4. In light of the fact that the loan remained outstanding, recovery proceedings were initiated by the bank. The land was put to auction thrice. On the first occasion, no one came to participate in the said auction. On the second occasion also, no one came to participate in the said auction and the land was purchased by the State Government for Rs. 1/-. Subsequently, on objection being filed, the said auction was again set aside and the land was put to auction to third occasion. It is on this occasion that in the auction proceedings, respondent No. 6 had participated and was the successful bidder out of the three bidders and accordingly the auction proceeding was settled in favour of respondent No. 6.

5. The auction was held on 17.05.2004 and 1/4th of the amount was deposited on the same day while the remaining 3/4th amount was deposited within a period of 15 days and the auction proceedings were confirmed by the order of the Assistant Collector on 19.07.2004. A sale certificate was also issued in favour of respondent No. 6 on 30.08.2004. For the first time, the objections were filed by the petitioner assailing the said auction on 16.09.2004 after the auction had been confirmed. The District Magistrate had rejected the said objections and against which order the petitioner had approached this Court by filing a writ petition being Writ Petition No. 5785 (MS) of 2004 which was disposed of by this Court by means of order dated 03.01.2005 directing the petitioner to file his objection before the Commissioner as per provisions contained in Rule 285 (I) of U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Rules.

6. As directed by the High Court the petitioner filed his objections on 31.01.2005 against the auction held on 17.05.2004 and considering that the objections were highly belated they were rejected by the Commissioner on 19.12.2012. The Commissioner while rejecting the objections also looked into the merits of the case and found that there was no infirmity in confirmation of the said auction or in conduct of the auction proceedings. The petitioner being aggrieved by the order of Commissioner dt. 19.12.2012 had preferred a revision before the Board of Revenue under Section 219 of the Land Revenue Act which was also rejected by means of order dated 22.08.2013.

7. The Board of Revenue also went to entire factual matrix as well as the grounds raised by the petitioner assailing the said auction proceedings and it was found that all the provisions of Rule 285 had been followed by the authorities and accordingly finding that the said objections to be bereft of any merit, dismissed the revision preferred by the petitioner. The petitioner being aggrieved by all the aforesaid orders has preferred the instant writ petition.

8. Learned counsel for petitioner while assailing the order has submitted that firstly the order dated 19.07.2004 by which the auction proceedings were confirmed was illegal, arbitrary and without jurisdiction. He submits that Assistant Collector /Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Bahraich did not have any power to confirm the auction inasmuch as the said confirmation could have been done only by the Collector. He submits that this aspect of the matter has been duly considered by Division Bench of this Court in the Case of Ram Avadh Tiwari Vs. Sudharshan Tiwari and others reported in 2009 (27) LCD 663 wherein this Court in unequivocal words have held that it is only the Collector who can confirm the sale and not the Sub-Divisional Officer.

9. Accordingly, he submits that once it is held that the confirmation was illegal then the entire proceedings will have to be set aside.

10. Sri Amrendra Nath Tripathi, learned counsel for respondents on the other hand has opposed the writ petition. He has submitted that the revenue authorities have duly considered the objections of the petitioner with regard to the allegation that provisions of Rule 285 have not been followed by the authority. He has further submitted that as the petitioner did not deposit outstanding amount he was arrested and detained under civil prison. He was released on his application an undertaking given on 11.06.2002 that he shall repay the entire outstanding amount of the loan. He further submits that as per provisions contained in Rule 285 (I), the objections have to be submitted within 30 days from the date of the auction sale and in view of the specific provisions contained in the rule itself, no question arises for condonation of delay and any objections filed after the period prescribed are not liable to be considered by the authorities. He has further submitted that after confirmation of the sale and issuance of the sale certificate, a sale deed was executed in favour of respondent No. 6 on 17.08.2013.

11. He further submits that prior to the said auction, the notice was issued and was served upon the petitioner as per the report of the Collection Amin and the said report confirms the fact that petitioner was duly intimated about the auction proceedings. It is on the aforesaid facts a prayer has been made for dismissal of the writ petition.

12. I have heard learned counsel for parties and perused the record.

13. The moot question which has arisen for determination of this Court is with regard to the adherence of the provisions contained in Rule 285 (J) of U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Rules, 1952 and effect of noncompliance thereof. For the sake of convenience, Rule 285 (J) of U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Rules is quoted hereinbelow:-

"Rule 285(J) -On the expiration of thirty days from the date of the sale if no such application as is mentioned in Rule 285-H or Rule 285-1, has been made or if such application has been made and rejected by the Collector or the Commissioner, the Collector shall pass an order confirming the sale after satisfying himself that the purchase of land in question by the bidder would not be in contravention of the provisions of Section 154. Even order passed under this rule shall be final."

14. As per aforesaid rule, on the expiry of 30 days from the date of sale if no application preferred as provided for in Rule 185(H)/Rule 285(I) of the Rules of 1952 or if such application has been made and rejected by the Collector or Commissioner, the Collector shall pass an order confirming the sale after satisfying himself that the purchase of the land in question by the bidder would not be in contravention of the provisions of Section 154.

15. According to the U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, the Collector has been prescribed in Section 3(4) according to which "Collector" means an officer appointed as Collector under the provisions of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901 and includes an Assistant Collector of the first class empowered by the State Government by a notification in the Gazette to discharge all or any of the functions of a Collector under this Act."

16. From the aforesaid provisions, it is clear that that the definition Collector is is inclusive and the Assistant Collector of the first class empoered by the State Government by a notification can discharge all or any of his functions as per the said notifications. This Court in the case of Ram Avadh Tiwari had noticed that the notification of the State Government dated 17.01.1976 wherein it was stated that the same contain a scheme empowering the Assistant Collector First Class who is incharge of the Division, to exercise the function of Collector under Section 286 of the said Act in respect of any holding of a defaulter of which he is a Bhoomidhar, Sirdhar or Asami, subject to the conditions that the such sale are approved by the Collector.

17. The Court was of the view that even though the Assistant collector has been empowered by the said notification but his exercise of power is subject to the approval of the Collector. The Court noticed the inconsistency between the said notification and the rule position and also considering the case of the Supreme Court in the case of Shiv Narain Dubey Vs. State of U.P. & Ors., 2011 SCC OnLine All 1598 was of the view that only the Collector is empowered to confirm the sale as provided for under Rule 285 (J) and not the Sub-Divisional Officer.

18. It is noticed that in the case of Ram Awadh, the Supreme Court had not conclusively decided the controversy pertaining to interpretation of Rule 285(J) and as to whether the Collector or the Assistant collector would be empowered to confirm the sale and had not expressed any final opinion in the matter remitting the matter to the High Court to decide the same afresh.

19. In the remand proceedings, the matter was finalised in the case of Shiv Narain Dubey Vs. State of U.P. & Ors., 2011 SCC OnLine All 1598.

20. In the remand proceedings, this Court considered the fact that the case of Ram Avadh Tiwari was decided considering the Government Order dated 17.01.1976 which was superseded by another Government Order dated 10.08.1981. In the Government Order dated 10.08.1981, it was stated that a state of confusion is existing with regard to power of the Collector to be exercised under various provisions of the Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950. In Clause 2, it was clarified that except provisions contained in Section 198 of the Act of 1950, the Pargana Adhikaries would be empowered to act in all cases where the reference has been made to the Collector. This Court in the case of Shiv Narain Dubey(Supra) considered the Government Order dated 10.08.1981 and was of the view that the judgments in the case of Ram Avadh Tiwari (supra) was passed without noticing the Government Order dated 30.05.1981 and consequently was not good law and is per inqurium as based on non-consideration of notification dated 17.01.1976 which at that point of time had been superceded.

21. It was conclusively held that the SDO was empowered to hold the auction and confirm the sale as per Rule of 285(J) of t he Act of 1950.

22. In light of the above, the law in this regard has been clarified which is based on the Government Order dated 10.08.1981 and consequently this Court after examining the entire conspectus of the fact was of the view that in the present case, the sale was confirmed by the Assistant Collector/SDM,Mahsee, Bahraich who was fully empowered to confirm the same and consequently there is no infirmity in the order of confirmation dated 19.07.2004. No other argument was advanced assailing the impugned auction.

23. In light of the above, there is no infirmity in the auction proceedings or the confirmation of sale, hence the writ petition is bereft of merits and is accordingly dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1887
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ C No. 1002642 of 2007

Ainul Hussain Siddiqui ...Petitioner
Versus
Presiding Officer Labour Court U.P. Lucknow & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Amar Nath Tripathi, Akhter Abbas, Asif Iqbal, Manoj Kumar Sahu, Syed Husain Abbas

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Anupras Singh, J.N. Mathur

Disciplinary Proceedings-Petitioner appointed as an operator in the factory of opposite party-several employees indulged into violent process for pressing their demands-Petitioner was suspended pending disciplinary –suspension became redundant-after coming to the factory he actively participated in illegal and unconstitutional activities-enquiry-dismissed- employer submitted 28 documents before enquiry officer and Petitioner St.d that he will not produce any document in defence-declined to cross –examine witnesses-findings of the Enquiry Officer are based on cogent material-evidence led by employer remained uncontroverted-no illegality.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Anil Kumar Vs Presiding Officer, (1985) 3 SCC 378,

2. Rajeev Saxena Vs Punjab National Bank, 2018 (36) LCD 1218

3. Canara Bank Vs Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court & ors.2004 (102) FLR 1146

4. Rajinder Kumar Kindra Vs Delhi Admn.: (1984) 4 SCC 635.

5. Airtech Private Ltd. Vs St. of U.P., 1983 SCC Online ALL954

6. M.P. Electricity Board Vs Jagdish Chandra Sharma , (2005) 3 SCC 401

7. Rajeev Saxena Vs Punjab National Bank, 2018 (36) LCD 1218

8. Canara Bank Vs Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court & ors.2004 (102) FLR 1146

9. Rajinder Kumar Kindra Vs Delhi Admn.: (1984) 4 SCC 635

10. Airtech Private Ltd. Vs St. of U.P., 1983 SCC OnLine All 954

11. Shankar Chakravarti Vs Britannia Biscuit Co. Ltd., (1979) 3 SCC 371

12. M.P. Electricity Board Vs Jagdish Chandra Sharma, (2005) 3 SCC 401

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Amar Nath Tripathi, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Smt. Seema Dixit, the learned Standing Counsel and Sri Anupras Singh, the learned counsel for opposite party no. 2.

2. By means of instant petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged the validity of an award dated 30.10.2006 passed by the Prescribed Authority, Labour Court, U.P., Lucknow in Case No. 103 of 2002 as well as an order dated 10.08.2000 passed by opposite party no. 2 dismissing the petitioner from the service of Telco, which is now known as Tata Motors Ltd.

3. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that the petitioner was appointed as an operator in the factory of opposite party no. 2 situated at Lucknow on 27.04.1995. On 28.03.2000, several employees of the Company indulged into violent process for pressing their demands and they indulged into arson and loot and held the General Manager of the Company hostage, who could be freed with the intervention of the police. The petitioner was suspended by means of an order dated 30.03.2000, pending disciplinary enquiry.

4. The Suspension order was put in abeyance by means of another order dated 07.04.2000, wherein it was stated that as the lock out of the factory has been declared by the management, the suspension has become redundant during continuance of lock out.

5. On 03.04.2000, the charge sheet was issued to the petitioner, a copy whereof has been annexed with the petition which inter alia stated that the petitioner was on duty in B-shift. After coming to the factory, the petitioner did not go to his work place and struck the work. He went to the office of the General Manager and joined the ongoing 'Dharna' and 'Gherao' of the General Manager. He actively participated in illegal and unconstitutional activities and agitated other workers against the management. He threatened the General Manager that his 'Gherao' will continue until the demand of increase in wages was met. Defamatory, intimidating and abusive slogans were hurled which have been reproduced in the charge-sheet and considering the indecent language whereof, the same cannot be reproduced in this judgment. The charge-sheet states that the door of General Manager's Lobby was broken open and the petitioner alongwith some other persons forcibly entered into the room of the General Manager and demanded a meeting with him. During the meeting, the petitioner continued provoking and instigating the workers, which whipped up the passion of the workers and surcharged the already tense atmosphere. The District Magistrate and Police officials had to intervene in the matter and they warned the workmen to lift the illegal confinement of the General Manager. The Administration thereafter warned the workmen to vacate the Chassis Assembly Block Building immediately otherwise the police will be forced to take action. Sensing danger to the life of the General Manager, the police started a rescue operation at about 09:30 p.m. and when he was being taken out in police protection, the petitioner alongwith other workers turned violent and indulged in arson and looting and they assaulted the officials of the district administration, police and of the company with iron rods, broken flower pots, pieces of broken furniture and broken glass panes. The Additional District Magistrate, Trans Gomti, Superintendent of Police, Trans Gomti, Circle Officer Trans Gomti, Station House Officer, Chinhat, some other police personnel and the company's officials Mr. Vinay Kumar Pathak, Mr. Sivdasan and Mr. S. Banerjee were severely injured. Thereafter the petitioner put the expensive property of the Company to fire, in which the Chassis Assembly Block Office building and Planning Department Office of the Company were engulfed. The petitioner indulged in damaging the company's vehicles parked near time office by bricks and missiles. Due to the aforesaid activities, the company suffered losses of Crores of Rupees. The charge-sheet stated that the aforesaid acts amount to serious and grave misconduct as per the provisions of Clause

24(I), 24(2), 24(9), 24(15(a), 24(15)(b), 24(17), 24(18) and 24(39) of the certified standing orders of the company which were reproduced in the charge-sheet. The petitioner claims to have given a letter dated 07.04.2000 demanding copies of certain documents. The enquiry commenced on 28.05.2000 on which date the petitioner had given an application to the Enquiry Officer stating that the documents had not been provided to him and, therefore, he could not file any reply.

6. The Enquiry Officer submitted a report dated 05.07.2000, wherein it is recorded that the petitioner had given an application that he will represent himself. The employer submitted 28 documents. The petitioner stated that he will not produce any document in defence. As per narration made in the enquiry report, Sri Sanjay Sablok PW-1, stated regarding the incident that took place on 28.03.2000. However the enquiry report also refers to PW-1 as Sri Amitabh Nandi. Sri Vinay Pathak was examined as PW-2 and Vikas Bindal was examined as PW-3 Lieutenant Colonel S.S. Maan was examined as PW-4. The petitioner declined to cross-examine the witnesses produced by the employer.

7. The Enquiry Officer concluded that all statements of the witnesses produced by the employer established that on 28.03.2000, the petitioner had made 'Gherao' of the General Manager of the Company alongwith other employees. He was present where speeches were being given, obscene and intimidating slogans and were being raised and the General Manager was being forced to come out of his room to accept the demands and when he did not come out, the door of the General Manager Lobby was broken open. He was 'Gheraoed' for several hours. The Enquiry Officer also referred to the photographs of the incident, newspaper cuttings, FIR, Charter of demands, medico legal examination reports and report of damages, which establishes the active involvement of the petitioner in the incident. The statement of Sanjay Sablok PW-1 and Senior Engineer Vikas Bindal proved that at that point of time, the petitioner was not present in the department and he was seen in the General Manager Officer. He was stopped but he did not agree. PW-2 Vikas Bindal had seen the petitioner in the crowd that was causing damage to the General Manager Office.

8. The petitioner did not adduce any documentary evidence and in his oral submission, he admitted that no work was being done in the factory since morning of 28.03.2000. Most of the employees of B-shift had gone towards the General Manager office and he had also gone there. In his cross examination, he stated that he had gone to attend the sit-in and he had not done it under any fear. He further admitted that all the employees were present in the office of the General Manager.

9. The enquiry officer found that the entire evidence available before him indicates that the petitioner was involved with several employees in laying 'Gherao' of General Manager, raising slogans, indulging in damaging the company property and the charges leveled against him were proved.

10. On the basis of the aforesaid enquiry report, the petitioner was dismissed from service by means of an order dated 10.08.2000.

11. The validity of the dismissal order was challenged before the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, U.P., Lucknow by the following reference made on 26.06.2000 by the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Lucknow Zone, Lucknow: -

Whether the order dated 10.08.2000 passed by the employer dismissing the petitioner from service is proper and legal ? If no, then to what relief the workman is entitled thereon?.

12. The Labour Court framed the following preliminary issues: -

(i) Whether the departmental enquiry had been conducted against the petitioner in accordance with law or not, and it's effect

(ii) Whether the case of the petitioner can continue before the Industrial Tribunal-2, Lucknow when the cases of other (similarly situated) workmen were going on before Industrial Tribunal-2, Lucknow.

13. While deciding the preliminary objections, the Labour Court held that the departmental enquiry was conducted in a proper and legal manner, in which the petitioner had himself participated. On the second point, the Labour Court held that it had jurisdiction to decide the case.

14. On the point referred to the Labour Court for adjudication of the case, it held that the punishment awarded to the petitioner is proper and the dismissal order dated 10.08.2000 does not want any interference.

15. While assailing the aforesaid award, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the Labour Court has recorded the factual background of the case while deciding the preliminary issue, wherein it is stated that the petitioner had been appointed as an Operator on 12.07.1995. The Telco Employees Union was constituted around that time and it had entered into a settlement regarding fixation of the salary in the year, 1996 which was in force till 31.03.1999. Thereafter the Union raised a fresh demand for increment of wages and decided to reduce the pace of production, which resulted in decrease of production by 50%. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that these facts are not borne out all the pleadings of the parties.

16. The Labour Court held that in reply to the charge-sheet, the petitioner had demanded certain documents. Clause 27 of the Standing Orders of the Company, demanded by the petitioner, had been shown to him during enquiry. He had demanded a copy of another report submitted against him whereas no separate report had been submitted against the petitioner. The petitioner did not submit any reply to the charge-sheet. The employer had appointed an Enquiry Officer by means of a letter dated 15.05.2000 and the enquiry proceedings commenced on 26.05.2000, on which date the petitioner again demanded the copies of documents. The employer's representative submitted that the enquiry was based on common facts, and, therefore, no separate report was there. The petitioner was shown Clause 7 of the Standing Order and he had noted the same.

17. Statement of Sanjay Sablok was recorded as employer witness and the petitioner had cross-examined him on 15.06.2000. The petitioner stated that he was unable to understand Clause 27 and he wanted to engage a legal representative, which was opposed by the employer stating that no outsider could be permitted to be involved in the departmental proceedings.

Sri Vinay Pathak and Vikas Bindal were examined in the presence of the petitioner but he did not cross-examine them.

18. Accordingly, the Labour Court held that enquiry against the petitioner was held in a proper manner and there was no illegality in it. While deciding the questions referred to it by the Deputy Labour Commissioner, the Presiding Officer, Labour Court held that the employee did not lead any evidence and the employer also stated that as the employee has not led any evidence, the employer also would not given any evidence. The Labour Court found that it was for the petitioner to prove by leading evidence as to how the departmental proceedings had not been held properly, but he failed to discharge this burden of proof by leading any evidence.

19. The Labour Court further held that during the proceedings before the Labour Court, the petitioner informed on 07.07.2006 that he had filed a Writ Petition No. 2601 of 2006 against the order passed by the Labour Court, on which ground, time was granted to him. However, this fact stated by the petitioner was false as the Writ Petition had already been dismissed on 24.05.2006 at the admission stage itself and the petitioner had been permitted to participate in further proceedings before the Labour Court. At this stage, the petitioner engaged another Advocate who gave an application for directing the employers to adduce evidences, upon which a detailed order was passed on 28.02.2006 stating that the employers cannot be compelled to lead evidence because the reference was made at the instance of the employee and the burden to establish the illegality committed in the enquiry proceedings lied on the employee but he did not discharge this.

20. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has filed a copy of the enquiry report as paper No. 13 and the learned counsel for the employer had endorsed "Not Admitted" on it and when the enquiry report itself had been denied by the employer, no penal action could be taken against the petitioner, on the basis of such enquiry report, however, the learned Labour Court has held that the document No. 13, filed by the employee, was an incomplete document as the enquiry report filed by the employer as paper No. 66 contains a mention of 28 documents whereas copy of the enquiry report filed by the petitioner contains a list of only 25 documents and the copy of documents at Serial Nos. 26, 27, 28 have not been filed with it. It could have been done by the petitioner deliberately or inadvertently but in any case, the enquiry report filed by the petitioner was not the same as the report filed by the employer "not admitted, was endorsed on the copy of the enquiry report filed for the reason and the petitioner cannot get any benefit from it".

21. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments in the cases of Anil Kumar v. Presiding Officer, (1985) 3 SCC 378, Rajeev Saxena versus Punjab National Bank, 2018 (36) LCD 1218, Canara Bank Vs. Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court and Ors. 2004 (102) FLR 1146 and Rajinder Kumar Kindra v. Delhi Admn.: (1984) 4 SCC 635.

22. The learned Counsel for the respondent has relied upon the judgments in the cases of Airtech Private Ltd. v. State of U.P., 1983 SCC OnLine All 954 and M.P. Electricity Board v. Jagdish Chandra Sharma, (2005) 3 SCC 401.

23. In Anil Kumar v. Presiding Officer, (1985) 3 SCC 378, it was held that: -

"5. ... It is well-settled that a disciplinary enquiry has to be a quasi-judicial enquiry held according to the principles of natural justice and the enquiry officer has a duty to act judicially. The enquiry officer did not apply his mind to the evidence. Save setting out the names of the witnesses, he did not discuss the evidence. He merely recorded his ipse dixit that the charges are proved. He did not assign a single reason why the evidence produced by the appellant did not appeal to him or was considered not creditworthy. He did not permit a peep into his mind as to why the evidence produced by the management appealed to him in preference to the evidence produced by the appellant. An enquiry report in a quasi-judicial enquiry must show the reasons for the conclusion. It cannot be an ipse dixit of the enquiry officer. It has to be a speaking order in the sense that the conclusion is supported by reasons. This is too well settled to be supported by a precedent…"

6. Where a disciplinary enquiry affects the livelihood and is likely to cast a stigma and it has to be held in accordance with the principles of natural justice, the minimum expectation is that the report must be a reasoned one. The Court then may not enter into the adequacy or sufficiency of evidence. But where the evidence is annexed to an order sheet and no corelation is established between the two showing application of mind, we are constrained to observe that it is not an enquiry report at all. Therefore, there was no enquiry in this case worth the name and the order of termination based on such proceeding disclosing non-application of mind would be unsustainable."

(emphasis added)

24. In Rajeev Saxena versus Punjab National Bank, 2018 (36) LCD 1218, it was held that: -

"35. It is amply clear that the petitioner's defence was not properly considered by the Inquiry Officer, disciplinary authority and also the appellate authority. The punishment of dismissal from service without notice was awarded to him on the basis of defective inquiry, by withholding prime witnesses from the inquiry proceedings. The burden of proof of disproving the charge was wrongly shifted towards the petitioner. It was proved from documentary evidence that the amount of Rs. 10,000/- was received by Shri Vikas Kudesia in cash, but the finding is that this payment to Shri Vikas Kudesia was not proved. The misconduct of posting fraudulent entries was accepted by Shri Vikas Kudesia in writing even then it was attributed to the petitioner. Neither the disciplinary nor the appellate authority considered the defence and evidence of the petitioner is correct perspective. Hence their findings are perverse and deserve to be set aside. The punishment awarded to the petitioner is unwarranted. This is one of such "exceptional case" as held by the Apex Court above.

25. In Canara Bank Vs. Presiding Officer, Central Government Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court and Ors. 2004 (102) FLR 1146, it was held that even if the domestic enquiry was proper and valid, the labour court can reappraise the entire evidence for recording it own findings for the purposes of satisfying itself whether the evidence relied on by the employer establishes the misconduct alleged against the workman.

26. In Rajinder Kumar Kindra v. Delhi Admn.: (1984) 4 SCC 635 the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

16. ... It is thus well-settled that where the findings of misconduct are based on no legal evidence and the conclusion is one to which no reasonable man would come, the arbitrator appointed under Section 10-A or this Court in appeal under Article 136 can reject such findings as perverse. Holding that the findings are perverse does not constitute reappraisal of evidence, though we would have been perfectly justified in exercise of powers conferred by Section 11-A to do so.

17. It is equally well settled that where a quasi-judicial tribunal or arbitrator records findings based on no legal evidence and the findings are either his ipse dixit or based on conjectures and surmises, the enquiry suffers from the additional infirmity of non-application of mind and stands vitiated. The Industrial Tribunal or the arbitrator or a quasi-judicial authority can reject not only such findings but also the conclusion based on no legal evidence or if it is merely based on surmises and conjectures unrelated to evidence on the ground that they disclose total non-application of mind….

* * *

20. Where the order of dismissal is sought to be sustained on a finding in the domestic enquiry which is shown to be perverse and the enquiry is vitiated as suffering from non-application of mind the only course open to us is to set it aside and consequently relief of reinstatement must be granted and nothing was pointed to us why we should not grant the same."

27. In Airtech Private Ltd. v. State of U.P., 1983 SCC OnLine All 954, this Court held that: -

"7. The matter can be looked at from another angle, which party will fail if the evidence is not led before the Labour Court in proceedings in a reference made to it for adjudication by the State Government ? The obvious answer is that the workman will fail. Here the reference was made by the State Government at the instance of the workmen and for the benefit of the workman. In the absence of any evidence led by or on behalf of the workman the reference is bound to be answered by the Court against the workmen. In such a situation it is not necessary for the employers to lead any evidence at all…."

28. In Airtech Pvt. Ltd. (Supra) this Court had relied upon a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Shankar Chakravarti v. Britannia Biscuit Co. Ltd., (1979) 3 SCC 371, wherein it was held that: -

"31…It has to decide the lis on the evidence adduced before it. While it may not be hide bound by the rules prescribed in the Evidence Act it is nonetheless a quasi-judicial Tribunal proceeding to adjudicate upon a lis between the parties arrayed before it and must decide the matter on the evidence produced by the parties before it. It would not be open to it to decide the lis on any extraneous considerations. Justice, equity and good conscience will inform its adjudication. Therefore, the Labour Court or the Industrial Tribunal has all the trappings of a Court.

32. If such be the duties and functions of the Industrial Tribunal or the Labour Court, any party appearing before it must make a claim or demur the claim of the other side and when there is a burden upon it to prove or establish the fact so as to invite a decision in its favour, it has to lead evidence. The quasi-judicial tribunal is not required to advise the party either about its rights or what it should do or omit to do. Obligation to lead evidence to establish an allegation made by a party is on the party making the allegation. The test would be who would fail if no evidence is led."

29. In M.P. Electricity Board v. Jagdish Chandra Sharma, (2005) 3 SCC 401, it was held that: -

"8. The question then is, whether the interference with the punishment by the Labour Court was justified? In other words, the question is whether the punishment imposed was so harsh or so disproportionate to the charge proved, that it warranted or justified interference by the Labour Court? Here, it had been clearly found that the employee during work, had hit his superior officer with a tension screw on his back and on his nose leaving him with a bleeding and broken nose. It has also been found that this incident was followed by the unauthorised absence of the employee. It is in the context of these charges found established that the punishment of termination was imposed on the employee. The jurisdiction under Section 107-A of the Act to interfere with punishment when it is a discharge or dismissal can be exercised by the Labour Court only when it is satisfied that the discharge or dismissal is not justified. Similarly, the High Court gets jurisdiction to interfere with the punishment in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution only when it finds that the punishment imposed, is shockingly disproportionate to the charge proved.

* * *

...Recently, in Muriadih Colliery BCC Ltd. v. Bihar Colliery Kamgar Union (2005) 3 SCC 331 this Court after referring to and quoting the relevant passages from Krishnakali Tea Estate v. Akhil Bharatiya Chah Mazdoor Sangh (2004) 8 SCC 200 and Tournamulla Estate v. Workmen (1973) 2 SCC 502 held:

"The courts below by condoning an act of physical violence have undermined the discipline in the organisation, hence, in the above factual backdrop, it can never be said that the Industrial Tribunal could have exercised its authority under Section 11-A of the Act to interfere with the punishment of dismissal."

9. In the case on hand, the employee has been found guilty of hitting and injuring his superior officer at the workplace, obviously in the presence of other employees. This clearly amounted to breach of discipline in the organisation. Discipline at the workplace in an organisation like the employer herein, is the sine qua non for the efficient working of the organisation. When an employee breaches such discipline and the employer terminates his services, it is not open to a Labour Court or an Industrial Tribunal to take the view that the punishment awarded is shockingly disproportionate to the charge proved. We have already referred to the views of this Court. To quote Jack Chan, "discipline is a form of civilly responsible behaviour which helps maintain social order and contributes to the preservation, if not advancement, of collective interests of society at large".

Obviously this idea is more relevant in considering the working of an organisation like the employer herein or an industrial undertaking. Obedience to authority in a workplace is not slavery. It is not violative of one's natural rights. It is essential for the prosperity of the organisation as well as that of its employees. When in such a situation, a punishment of termination is awarded for hitting and injuring a superior officer supervising the work of the employee, with no extenuating circumstance established, it cannot be said to be not justified. It cannot certainly be termed unduly harsh or disproportionate. The Labour Court and the High Court in this case totally misdirected themselves while exercising their jurisdiction. The Industrial Court made the correct approach and came to the right conclusion."

30. The principles which can be culled out from the aforesaid decisions are that a disciplinary enquiry has to be a quasi-judicial enquiry held according to the principles of natural justice and the enquiry officer has a duty to act judicially. The enquiry report must reflect the reasons for its conclusion. The Court may not enter into the adequacy or sufficiency of evidence. The labour court has power to reappraise the entire evidence for recording it own findings for the purposes of satisfying itself whether the evidence relied on by the employer establishes the misconduct alleged against the workman. Where the order of dismissal is based on a perverse finding in the domestic enquiry, the enquiry is vitiated as suffering from non-application of mind and it is unsustainable in law. The burden of proof to challenge the validity of the enquiry report or the order of punishment lies on the workman who assails its validity. If he does not discharge this burden, his claim is liable to fail. The Courts will not interfere in the quantum of punishment unless it is so disproportionate as would shock the Court's conscience.

31. When we examine the facts of the present case in light of the law laid down in the aforesaid precedents, what comes to light is that the employer had submitted 28 documents before the Enquiry Officer and the petitioner stated that he will not produce any document in defence. The employer produced four witnesses in support of its case but the petitioner declined to cross-examine those witnesses.

32. The Enquiry Officer concluded that all statements of the witnesses produced by the employer established that on 28.03.2000, the petitioner had made 'Gherao' of the General Manager of the Company alongwith other employees. He was present where speeches were being given, obscene and intimidating slogans and were being raised and the General Manager was being forced to come out of his room to accept the demands and when he did not come out, the door of the General Manager Lobby was broken open. He was 'Gheraoed' for several hours. The Enquiry Officer also referred to the photographs of the incident, newspaper cuttings, FIR, Charter of demands, medico legal examination reports and report of damages, which established the active involvement of the petitioner in the incident. The statement of Sanjay Sablok and Senior Engineer Vikas Bindal proved that at that point of time, the petitioner was not present in the department and he was seen in the General Manager Officer. He was stopped but he did not agree. Vikas Bindal had seen the petitioner in the crowd that was causing damage to the General Manager Office.

33. The petitioner admitted during his oral submissions that no work was being done in the factory since morning of 28.03.2000 and he had gone to the General Manager's Office alongwith other employees of B-shift and he was present in the office of the General Manager. He admitted that he had gone to attend the sit-in and he had not done it under any fear. The enquiry officer found that the entire evidence available before him indicates that the petitioner was involved with several employees in laying 'Gherao' of General Manager, raising slogans, indulging in damaging the company property and the charges leveled against him were proved.

34. The petitioner had given an application to the Enquiry Officer for being represented in the enquiry by an outsider, which request was not accepted by the enquiry officer. The Enquiry Officer has erroneously mentioned that the petitioner had given an application that he will represent himself, but this error is insignificant and it does not vitiate the outcome of the enquiry. At one place the Enquiry Officer has wrongly mentioned the name of PW-1 as Sri Amitabh Nandi whereas PW-1 was Sri. Sanjay Sablok and this error also does not vitiate the enquiry report as there is sufficient material to support the findings of the enquiry.

35. The Enquiry Officer has found that the petitioner had made 'Gherao' of the General Manager of the Company alongwith other employees. He was present where speeches were being given, obscene and intimidating slogans and were being raised and the General Manager was being forced to come out of his room to accept the demands and when he did not come out, the door of the General Manager Lobby was broken open. He was 'Gheraoed' for several hours. The Enquiry Officer also referred to the photographs of the incident, newspaper cuttings, FIR, Charter of demands, medico legal examination reports and report of damages, which established active involvement of the petitioner in the incident. The findings of the Enquiry Officer are based on cogent material and the same are not perverse.

36. The burden to prove that the Enquiry Report was incorrect and the dismissal order was bad in law lied on the petitioner as he had sought to challenge the same, but he did not lead any evidence before the Labour Court also. Thus the evidence led by the employer remained uncontroverted.

37. The petitioner had left the place assigned to him for performing his duty and he had involved himself with numerous other employees, who turned violent causing injuries to several persons, including officials of the District Administration, Police and officials of the company. The aforesaid acts or causing damage to the company's property and physical injuries to the company's officials amount to indiscipline of the lowest category, which cannot be tolerated by any employer. In the aforesaid factual background, the punishment of dismissal from service cannot be said to be disproportionate.

38. The Labour Court has not committed any illegality in upholding the order of dismissal of the petitioner from service. The Writ Petition lacks merit and the same is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1896
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Sales/Trade Tax Revision No. 24 of 2009

M/s Raju Cement Store Oel ...Revisionist
Versus
Commissioner of Commercial Taxes U.P. Commercial Tax ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
P. Agrawal

Counsel for the Opposite Party:
C.S.C.

U.P. Trade Tax Act, 1948-Survey of Petitioner's premise conducted –show cause notice issued -taxable liability assessed-tax liability reduced by First Appellate Authority on the ground that at the time of survey, merely a sum of Rs. 1,510/- was found in the cash box-set aside by the Tribunal in Second Appeal-Tribunal was justified in restoring the order passed by the Assessing Authority after considering the entire relevant material found during survey not rebutted by the Petitioner in its reply- Petitioner appeared on several dates-but his counsel neither appeared before the Tribunal nor sought an adjournment-Tribunal was justified in proceeding ex-parte.

Revision dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Commissioner of Sales Tax U.P. Vs Kumaon Tractors & Motors: (2009) 9 SCC 379

2. Commissioner, Commercial Tax U.P. Lucknow Vs S/S D.I.C. India Ltd. 2024:AHC:13269

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Amar Mani Tripathi holding brief of Shri Pradeep Agrawal Advocate the learned Counsel for the petitioner and Shri Sanjay Sareen, the learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State.

2. By means of the instant Revision filed under Section 11 of the U.P. Trade Tax Act 1948, the revisionist has challenged validity of an order dated 16.10.2008 passed by the Trade Tax Tribunal, Lucknow Bench-III, Lucknow in Second Appeal No.322 of 2004, which was filed by the petitioner against an order dated 28.01.2004 passed by the Joint Commissioner Appeal 4, Trade Tax, Sitapur. The petitioner has also challenged the decision of Second Appeal No.241 of 2004 filed by the Commissioner, Trade Tax U.P., Lucknow, which appeal has also been decided by the same order.

3. The learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel raised a preliminary objection that the petitioner has challenged orders passed in two separate second appeals. Even if both the second appeals were decided by a common judgment and order, since the order decides two separate appeals, two separate revisions ought to have been filed.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner could not dispute this preliminary objection.

5. Although there is force in the preliminary objection raised by the learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel, since the revision was admitted by means of an order dated 22.01.2009, I do not think it would be proper to dismiss the revision of the preliminary objection and in the interest of justice, I proceed to decide the revision on its merits.

6. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that a survey of the petitioner's premises was conducted by the Special Investigation Branch of Trade Tax Department on 25.01.2003. On the basis of findings of the survey, a show cause notice was issued to the petitioner, to which he did not submit a reply. After taking into consideration the uncontroverted findings of the survey, taxable sale of goods worth Rs.18,00,000/- was assessed, on which the petitioner's tax liability of Rs.1,76,000/- was assessed by the Assessing Officer.

7. The First Appellate Authority did not interfere in the finding of the Assessing Authority regarding rejection of account books of the petitioner. Yet it substantially decreased the petitioner's tax liability solely on the ground that at the time of survey made at about 4:30 PM on 25.01.2003, merely a sum of Rs.1,510/- was found in the cash box of the petitioner.

8. In second appeal, the department contended that the First Appellate Authority erred in assessing the petitioner's tax liability only on the basis of cash amount found in the cash box of the petitioner's premises whereas several documents have been recovered showing sales of goods worth huge amount, on credit. In such circumstances, tax liability assessed by the Assessing Authority could not be reduced merely on the basis of quantum of cash received in the petitioner's premises.

9. Slips bearing Nos.36 to 50 found in the petitioner's premises indicated sale of goods worth Rs.1,08,625/- by evasion of tax. Slips bearing Nos.15 to 34 indicated sale of goods worth Rs.35,708/-, including Cement worth Rs.15,442/-. Slips bearing Nos.36 to 50/- established sale of Cement and some other goods by evading tax. The source of purchase of Cement and Iron bars could not be established due to lack of documentary evidence and, therefore, the Assessing Authority assessed liability of tax treating the petitioner to be the manufacturer of the goods. The First Appellate Authority did not record any finding regarding lack of purchase of documents for Iron bars but regarding Cement, it held that Cement is manufactured in large factories and the same could not have been manufactured by the petitioner.

10. The Tribunal held that although a sum of merely Rs.1,510/- was found in the cash box at the time of survey made by the Special Investigation Branch at 04.30 PM on 25.01.2003 and the petitioner's brother present at the time of survey claimed that this was the amount of sale that took place on the said date, no cash memos were produced at the time of survey or even before the Assessing Authority. The petitioner's could not produce regular account books to support the claim of sale of goods worth merely Rs.1,510/-. Loose slips found at the time of survey regarding sale of Cement, Iron bars, Sand, Morang, Gitti etc. on credit prove that huge quantity of goods were sold on credits also, besides some sale on cash payments.

11. The Tribunal found that on the basis of documents found at the time of survey, a show cause notice was issued to the petitioner and when the petitioner did not submit any reply to the show cause notice, tax liability of Rs.1,76,000/- was assessed, which does not appear to be improper keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case. Although the First Appellate Authority concurred with the conclusion of the Assessing Authority regarding absence of account books and rejection of the petitioner's claim which was not supported by the account books, it drastically reduced the tax liability of the petitioner merely on the basis of the amount of cash found in the cash box, which was not a valid basis of reduction of the tax liability.

12. The Tribunal held that when documents have been recovered at the time of survey establishing sale of huge amount of goods on credit, the decision of the First Appellate Authority reducing the tax liability merely on the basis of cash from the premises of the petitioner, was unsustainable in law. The Tribunal further held that Iron bars and Cement, both are manufactured in large factories but this cannot be a reason for reducing the amount of tax assessed by the Assessing Authority, when the petitioner could not produce documents in support of purchase of Iron bars and Cement both. It is also recorded in the order passed by the Tribunal that in spite of sufficient information of the second appeal, nobody had appeared on behalf of the petitioner in the second appeal.

13. The petitioner claims that it had given an application dated 22.11.2008 under Section 22 of the Trade Tax Act for recall of the ex-parte order dated 16.10.2008, a copy whereof was served upon the petitioner on 09.11.2008. The petitioner claimed that the proprietor and Pairokar of the Firm Anis Ahmed remain confined to bed from 04.10.2008 to 24.10.2008, but no orders were passed on that application.

14. However, as the petitioner has challenged validity of the judgment and order dated 16.10.2008 by filing a revision, the application for setting aside the aforesaid order on the ground that it was passed ex-parte, loses its significance, as this Court has admitted the revision for final hearing and the validity of the order dated 16.10.2008 is being examined on its merits.

15. The revision was admitted on 22.01.2009 on all the questions of law formulated in the memorandum of revision, which are as follows: -

"1. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified in rejecting the appeal filed by the applicant and to allow the cross appeal filed by the Opp.Party, without giving any reasons enhanced the turnover as fixed by the First Appellate Authority.

2. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified in not considering the material evidence on record and the law laid down by this Hon'ble Court that in order to determine the taxable event the onus of proof lay on the assessing authority.

3. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified to ignore that the applicant has not obtained any form 31 from the Trade Tax Department and is dealing in tax paid goods and the entire purchases were made within the State of U.P. which are verifiable from the purchase vouchers.

4. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified in enhancing the turnover determined by the First appellate authority without controverting the findings recorded by the First appellate authority and dismissed the appeal filed by the applicant by recording the perverse findings of facts which gives rise to this Revision.

5. Whether the learned member Tribunal was justified to enhanced the turnover determined by the First appellate authority merely on the basis that the cash of Rs. 1510/- was found at the time of survey at 4.30 P.M. when the applicant himself has shown sales of Rs. 8,100/- per day

6. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified in ignoring the findings recorded by the First appellate authority wherein each and every parcha seized during the course of survey was duly considered and determined the turnover on the said basis.

7. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified to reject the application for recall which was duly supported by an affidavit and the medical certificate without any cogent reason.

8. Whether the learned Tribunal was justified in proceedings on extraneous consideration and committed not only factual but legal error as well which has vitiated the findings recorded in the order."

16. So far as the 1st question of law framed in the revision is concerned, a bare perusal of the impugned order indicates that sufficient reasons have been given in the order for restoration of the assessment made by the Assessing Authority and setting aside the order of the First Appellate Authority, as the order of the First Appellate Authority was based on the sole reason that merely a sum of Rs.1,510/- was found in the cash box of the petitioner, ignoring the documentary evidence found at the time of survey which clearly establish sale of huge amount of goods on credit. Therefore, it cannot be said that the Tribunal has set aside the order of the First Appellate Authority and restored the order passed by the Assessing Authority without giving any reasons.

17. Regarding the 2nd question formulated in the memo of revision, suffice it to say that the Tribunal has taken into consideration the entire material available on record, including the slips found at the time of survey which established large scale sale made on credit by evading payment of tax, and it cannot be said that the Tribunal had passed the order without considering the material evidence available on record. It is also relevant to note in this regard that no documentary evidence in this regard had been adduced by the revisionist.

18. Regarding the 3rd question relating to Form 31, the findings of the survey and the material placed by the petitioner could not establish that the revisionist is dealing in tax paid goods only. The revisionist could not produce any documentary evidence regarding purchase of huge quantity of goods and Iron bars. In these circumstances, the claim of the revisionist that it had not obtained any Form 31, is without any basis.

19. Regarding the 4th question, the Tribunal has set aside the order passed by the First Appellate Authority, which had been passed without taking into consideration the entire facts and circumstances of the case and which was based on perverse findings and it has restored the well reasoned order of the Assessing Authority and the Tribunal's order cannot be termed as perverse.

20. The 5th question has already been answered while answering the previous question that the First Appellate Authority had erred in reducing the amount of tax assessed by the Assessing Authority, which assessment was made after considering the entire record found during survey, including the slips establishing large scale sale of taxable goods on credit by evading payment of tax. In these circumstances, the Tribunal was justified in restoring the order passed by the Assessing Authority after taking into consideration the entire relevant material found during survey, which was not rebutted by the petitioner by submitting any reply to the show cause notice that was issued to him before making the assessment.

21. Regarding the 6th question, it is apparent that the First Appellate Authority had not taken into consideration the sale made by the petitioner on credit by evading tax and had assessed the amount of tax merely on the basis of cash amount found in the cash box. Therefore, the Tribunal was fully justified in setting aside the order passed by the First Appellate Authority and restoring the appeal passed by the Assessing Authority.

22. Question No.7 framed in the memo of revision, i.e. "Whether the Tribunal was justified in rejecting the application for recall?" is contradictory to the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the application was not considered and decided by the Tribunal.

When the application was not considered, there is no question of its rejection.

23. Moreover, Rule 68(4) of U.P. Trade Tax Act 1948 provides as follows:-

"On the date of hearing, if all the relevant records of appeal have been received, the parties present shall be given reasonable opportunity of being heard and the Appellate Authority of the Tribunal, as the case may be, made, after examining of the relevant records, decide the Appeal:

Provided that if, despite proper service of the notice either party is not present, the appeal may be heard and decided ex-parte."

24. The appellant itself had filed Second Appeal No.322 of 2004 and, therefore, the appellant had sufficient knowledge of filing of the appeal as the same was filed by itself. The learned counsel for the appellant had attended the proceedings of appeal on some earlier dates but on the date of its decision, his counsel neither appeared before the Tribunal, nor did he seek an adjournment. In these circumstances, the provisions contained in the proviso appended to Rule 68(4) are attracted and the Tribunal was justified in proceedings to decide the second appeal ex-parte.

25. Regarding the last question that the Tribunal has proceeded on extraneous considerations and has committed factual and legal errors, the learned counsel for the revisionist could not point out any material to establish the allegation that the Tribunal has proceeded on any extraneous consideration.

26. In Commissioner of Sales Tax U.P. Versus Kumaon Tractors & Motors: (2009) 9 SCC 379, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that Section 11 of the Trade Tax Act confers a limited jurisdiction on the High Court to interfere in the order of the Tribunal only on the question of law and while doing so, this Court cannot re-appreciate the evidence.

27. In the case of Commissioner, Commercial Tax U.P. Lucknow Versus S/S D.I.C. India Ltd. 2024:AHC:13269, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court held that:-

"It is well settled that the Tribunal is the last fact finding body and that this Court in revision would not go into an enquiry with regard to the factual aspects that have been decided by the Tribunal. In exercise of revisional jurisdiction, the High Court has a limited mandate. The scope of revisional jurisdictional, is primarily focused on questions of law, jurisdictional errors, or procedural irregularities. The High Court in a revision petition must refrain from engaging in a de novo inquiry into factual matters already adjudicated upon by the Tribunal, unless compelling grounds warranting such intervention are made."

28. As the Tribunal has passed the impugned order after taken into consideration the entire relevant material placed by the department, which had not been refuted by the petitioner by adducing any evidence and the petitioner had not even disputed the allegations against him contained in the show cause notice by giving a reply to it, the Tribunal has not committed any error in allowing the second appeal.

29. There appears to be no illegality in the impugned order dated 16.10.2008 passed by the Trade Tax Tribunal, Lucknow Bench-III, Lucknow in Second Appeal No.322 of 2004 and 241 of 2004.

30. The Revision lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1902
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Writ Tax No. 574 of 2019

M/S KY Tobacco Works Pvt. Ltd.
...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mrs. Pooja Talwar

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., A.S.G.I.

Uttar Pradesh Goods and Service Tax Axt, 2017-Section 129(3) -Petitioner is aggrieved by the seizure order, order imposing penalty and Appellate order-all relevant documents were present in the vehicle and the goods matched the invoice and the e-way bill-goods detained on the St.ment of the driver- that he was transporting the goods for the second time with same documents-St.ment of driver not provided-no burden of proof been discharged by the respondents-mensrea not proved

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

M/s Anandeshwar Traders Vs St. of U.P. & ors. reported in (2021 U.P.T.C. [Vol.107]-421)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. Heard Mrs. Pooja Talwar, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Rishi Kumar, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents.

2. The is a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India wherein the writ petitioner is aggrieved by the seizure order dated August 13, 2018, the order dated August 14, 2024 imposing penalty under Section 129(3) of the Uttar Pradesh Goods and Service Tax Act, 2017 and the appellate order dated January 8, 2019.

3. Mrs. Pooja Talwar, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the relevant documents were present in the vehicle and the goods matched invoice and the e-way bill. The sole ground on which the goods were detained and seized and penalty order was passed, was the statement supposedly given by the Driver of the vehicle who submitted that he was transporting the goods for the second time with the same documents. She further submitted that the primary documents being MOV-01 wherein the statement of the Driver is recorded has never been provided to the petitioner.

4. Upon such query being put by the Court, counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents submits that he tried to obtain MOV-01 and the statement of the Driver. However, it appears that the Officer concerned has not been able to provide the MOV-01 till date, in spite of several requests made to him. Today, the counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents has provided a sheet of paper that is supposedly the statement given by the Driver. However, the same is not accompanied by the MOV-01.

5. In light of the same, this document is of very little evidentiary value.

6. Mrs. Pooja Talwar, counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has placed reliance on a judgement of a coordinate Bench of this Court authored by Hon'ble Saumitra Dayal Singh, J., in M/s

Anandeshwar Traders v. State of U.P. and Others reported in (2021 U.P.T.C. [Vol.107]-421), wherein his Lordship has held as follows :-

"10. Even if the dealer does not cancel the e-way bill within 24 hours of its generation, it would remain a matter of inquiry to determine on evidence whether an actual transaction had taken place or not. That would be subject to evidence received by the authority. As such it was open to the seizing authority to make all fact inquiries and ascertain on that basis whether the goods had or had not been transported pursuant to the e-way bills generated on 24.11.2019. Since the petitioner-assessee had pleaded a negative fact, the initial onus was on the assessing authority to lead positive evidence to establish that the goods had been transported on an earlier occasion. Neither any inquiry appears to have been made at that stage from the purchasing dealer or any toll plaza or other source, nor the petitioner was confronted with any adverse material as may have shifted the onus on the assessee to establish non-transportation of goods on an earlier occasion.

11. The presumption could not be drawn on the basis of the existence of the e-way bills though there did not exist evidence of actual transaction performed and though there is no statutory presumption available. Also, there is no finding of the assessing authority to that effect only. Mere assertion made at the end of the seizure order that it was clearly established that the assessee had made double use of the e-way bills is merely a conclusion drawn bereft of material on record. It is the reason based on facts and evidence found by the assessing authority that has to be examined to test the correctness of the order and not the conclusions, recorded without any material on record."

7. In view of the ratio laid down in the above judgement, it is clear that it is the duty of the authorities to ascertain that whether the double movement of the goods has taken place actually. In the present case, no such burden of proof has been discharged by the respondents.

8. From the documents available, it is clear that the respondent authorities have not been able to indicate or prove any mens rea for evasion of tax.

9. In light of the same, the impugned orders dated August 13, 2018, August 14, 2024 and the appellate order dated January 8, 2019 are quashed and set aside. Consequential reliefs to follow.

10. The amount of penalty and security that has been deposited by the petitioner to be refunded within a period of six weeks from date.

11. Accordingly, this writ petition stands allowed.

12. A general caution is required to be given to the authorities in respect of the non-assistance and non-providing the relevant documents to the counsel appearing on behalf of respondent authorities resulting in failure of the department's lawyers to defend the case of the department in an effective manner. It is to be noted that this Court on several occasions has passed orders in favour of the assessee as the department has not able to defend its case by timely providing relevant documents to the State counsel.

13. The Commissioner, State Tax, U.P. is directed to take note of this fact and ensure that in future proper assistance is provided to the counsel appearing on behalf of the State/respondents. Registrar Compliance is directed to communicate this order to the Commissioner, State Tax, U.P. forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1904
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 25.04.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Writ Tax No. 1368 of 2023

M/S Kumar Construction ...Petitioner
Versus
Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals), CGST Bhawan , Noida ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Rajneesh Shukla, Ms. Riya Soni

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Parv Agarwal

Finance Act, 1994- Section 85-Appellate order impugned-Appeal dismissed that the same was time barred-filed beyond the period of 85 days-power of sec 5 of Limitation Act will be available only if extended to special statute-Finance Act is a self-contained code by itself-with inbuilt mechanism-impliedly excluded the application of the Limitation Act.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jai Hind Bottling Company (P) Ltd. Vs Commissioner (Appeals) Central Excise, Allahabad 2002(146) ELT 273 (All.)

2. Pioneer Corporation Vs Union of India 2016(340) ELT 63 (Del)

3. Singh Enterprises Vs C.C.E., Jamshedpur 2008(221) ELT 163 (S.C.)

4. Commissioner of Customs and Central Excise Vs Hongo India Private Limited & anr. (2009) 5 SCC 791

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Riya Soni, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and Mr. Parv Agarwal, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents.

2. This is a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India wherein the writ petitioner is aggrieved by the order dated September 20, 2023 passed by the appellate authority that is the Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals), Noida under Section 85 of the Finance Act, 1994 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Finance Act').

3. By the aforesaid order, the appellate authority had dismissed the appeal filed by the petitioner on the ground that the same was time barred as it was filed beyond the period of 85 days. In paragraphs 6.1 to 6.7 of the aforesaid order, the appellate authority has clearly pointed out that the petitioner has received the order in original on January 17, 2023 whereas the appeal was filed on June 9, 2023, that is, after a delay of 85 days beyond the limitation prescribed under the Act.

4. Upon a perusal of the memo of appeal filed by the petitioner, it is clear that the order was communicated on January 17, 2023, as admitted by the petitioner itself. The petitioner has explained the delay stating that the delay was caused due to the ignorance of authorised representative/legal counsel and also because the petitioner suffered with medical emergency caused by acute viral hepatitis between the period April 10, 2023 to May 31, 2023. In addition to the above explanation, the petitioner has relied on several judgments of the High Courts including a judgment of this Court in Jai Hind Bottling Company (P) Ltd. vs. Commissioner (Appeals) Central Excise, Allahabad reported in 2002(146) ELT 273 (All.) and submitted that in extra ordinary circumstances, the writ court has the power to condone the delay. The petitioner has also relied upon a judgment of the Delhi High Court in Pioneer Corporation v. Union of India reported in 2016(340) ELT 63 (Del) to argue that in exceptional circumstances and in the rarest of rare cases, the writ court has the power to condone the delay.

5. However, as pointed out in the appellate order, which is under challenge before this Court, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in several judgments including the judgment in Singh Enterprises vs. C.C.E., Jamshedpur reported in 2008(221) ELT 163 (S.C.) has held that under Section 35 of the Central Excise Act, the delay cannot be condoned beyond what is prescribed under the Central Excise Act as the language of the said section specifically provides for condonation of delay of additional 30 days only. Section 85 of the Act is in pari materia with the above section. One may examine the Supreme Court judgment in Singh Enterprises' (supra) wherein the Supreme Court held as follows:-

"8. The Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals) as also the Tribunal being creatures of statute are not vested with jurisdiction to condone the delay beyond the permissible period provided under the statute. The period up to which the prayer for condonation can be accepted is statutorily provided. It was submitted that the logic of Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963 (in short ?the Limitation Act?) can be availed for condonation of delay. The first proviso to Section 35 makes the position clear that the appeal has to be preferred within three months from the date of communication to him of the decision or order. However, if the Commissioner is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of 60 days, he can allow it to be presented within a further period of 30 days. In other words, this clearly shows that the appeal has to be filed within 60 days but in terms of the proviso further 30 days' time can be granted by the appellate authority to entertain the appeal. The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 35 makes the position crystal clear that the appellate authority has no power to allow the appeal to be presented beyond the period of 30 days. The language used makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning delay only up to 30 days after the expiry of 60 days which is the normal period for preferring appeal. Therefore, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The Commissioner and the High Court were therefore justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after the expiry of 30 days' period."

6. Furthermore, in Commissioner of Customs and Central Excise v. Hongo India Private Limited and another reported in (2009) 5 SCC 791, the Supreme Court has held as under: -

"31. In this regard, it is useful to refer to a recent decision of this Court in Punjab Fibres Ltd.[(2008) 3 SCC 73] The Commissioner of Customs, Central Excise, Noida was the appellant in this case. While considering the very same question, namely, whether the High Court has power to condone the delay in presentation of the reference under Section 35-H(1) of the Act, the two-Judge Bench taking note of the said provision and the other related provisions followingSingh Enterprises v. CCE [(2008) 3 SCC 70] concluded that: (Punjab Fibres Ltd. case [(2008) 3 SCC 73] , SCC p. 75, para 8)

"8. ... the High Court was justified in holding that there was no power for condonation of delay in filing reference application.?

32. As pointed out earlier, the language used in Sections 35, 35-B, 35-EE, 35-G and 35-H makes the position clear that an appeal and reference to the High Court should be made within 180 days only from the date of communication of the decision or order. In other words, the language used in other provisions makes the position clear that the legislature intended the appellate authority to entertain the appeal by condoning the delay only up to 30 days after expiry of 60 days which is the preliminary limitation period for preferring an appeal. In the absence of any clause condoning the delay by showing sufficient cause after the prescribed period, there is complete exclusion of Section 5 of the Limitation Act. The High Court was, therefore, justified in holding that there was no power to condone the delay after expiry of the prescribed period of 180 days."

7. The Finance Act, 1994 is a special statute and a self-contained code by itself having an inbuilt mechanism wherein it has impliedly excluded the application of the Limitation Act, 1963 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Limitation Act').

8. It is a trite law that the power of Section 5 of the Limitation Act will be available only if it is extended to a special statute. The adjudication of matters involving statutory timelines often raises questions regarding the interplay between general statutes such as the Limitation Act and special statutes with their own prescribed limitations.

9. Special statutes such as the Finance Act, 1994, or the Central Excise Act are enacted to address specific areas of law comprehensively. These statutes often contain detailed provisions governing procedural aspects, including timelines for initiating legal proceedings, such as appeals. Courts have consistently held that when a special statute contains provisions governing limitation periods, it impliedly excludes the application of general statutes such as the Limitation Act. The rationale underlying this principle is rooted in the notion that the legislature, in enacting a special statute, intends to provide a comprehensive and exhaustive regime governing all aspects of the relevant legal domain.

10. The principle of statutory interpretation embodies a fundamental tenet of legal reasoning: fidelity to legislative intent. In the context of limitation under special statutes, this principle assumes paramount importance, guiding courts in their adjudicative function. While the court retains discretionary authority in certain matters, the primacy accorded to limitation under special statutes operates as a circumscribing principle delineating the boundaries within which judicial discretion may be exercised.

11. The jurisprudential foundation supporting the primacy of limitation under special statutes over general statutes is multifaceted. Firstly, it recognizes the legislature's intent to create a cohesive and self-sufficient legal framework tailored to the specific nuances of the relevant legal domain. By providing detailed provisions governing limitation period, the legislature ensures certainty and predictability in legal proceedings, thereby promoting efficiency and expeditious resolution of disputes. Moreover, the exclusion of general statutes like the Limitation Act from the purview of special statutes serves to maintain the integrity and coherence of the legislative scheme, preventing potential conflicts and inconsistencies in statutory interpretation.

12. In light of the above, no interference is warranted with the impugned order. Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1907
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No. 13 of 2024

Soni ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sumit Kumar Srivastava

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Murli Manohar Srivastava

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 – Sections 161, 164 & 439(2) - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 143, 147, 148, 307, 326, 447 & 506 - Bail cancellation Application – for cancellation of anticipatory Bail – FIR – allegations are against those ten accused persons whom have took possession of the land of informant's father forcibly and they poured petrol on her father and set him ablaze – while granting anticipatory bail, this court took into consideration that, - there was a property dispute between the parties – there is no eye witness of the incident – the dispute of land having already been settled in favour of the accused persons, - prima facie there appears to be no motive for them to cause the incident - grounds of cancellation of bail is that, - material facts is concealed by the opposite party no. 2 which was not brought to the notice of the court, - opposite party no. 2 has already been arrested before bail order - court finds that - (i) it appears that it is the informant herself who has set the criminal law in motion by not only concealing the relevant fact that the possession of the land in dispute had been handed over to the opposite party no. 2 by adopting due process of law by the revenue authorities but she making false St.ment and (ii) opposite party no. 2 had not concealed the fact of his arrest in his Anticipatory bail application as he had been not arrested till filing of the said bail application – therefore, the allegation of concealment of fact is not correct either against the applicant or against the learned counsel – held, order of granting anticipatory bail has been passed after taking into consideration of all the relevant facts and circumstances of the case – hence, application for cancellation of bail; order is hereby dismissed. (Para – 25, 26, 27, 30)

Bail Cancellation Application Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kusha Duruka Vs The St. of Odisha - (2024) 4 SCC 432,

2. Dalip Singh Vs St. of U.P. (2010) 2 SCC 114,

3. Moti Lal Songara Vs Prem Prakash @ Pappu & anr.: (2013) 9 SCC 199,

4. Sushila Aggarwal & ors. Vs St. (NCT of Delhi) & anr.: (2020) 5 SCC 1,

5. Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia Vs St. of Punj., (1980) 2 SCC 565,

6. Dalip Singh Vs St. of U.P., (2010) 2 SCC 114,

7. Prestige Lights Vs St. Bank of India: (2007) 8 SCC 449,

8. Smt. Shanti Rani Agarwal Vs St. of U. P. & anr., Criminal Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No.172 of 2022 - order dated 31.05.2023,

9. Rajesh Kumar Sharma Vs C.B.I., Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application No.4633 of 2022 decided on 9.12.2022,

10. Smt. Ramendri Vs St. of U.P., Application (U/S 482) No.5094 of 2021 decided on 24.02.2022,

11. Abbas Ansari Vs St. of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine All 2466,

12. Sunil Kallani Vs St. of Raj. in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.9155 of 2019 decided on 25.10.2021, 13. Sumant Kumar Rathi Vs St. of U.P. & anr. 2008 SCC OnLine All 1200.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sumit Kumar Srivastava, the learned counsel for the applicant, Shri Anant Pratap Singh, the learned AGA for the State and Shri Murli Manohar Srivastava, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the opposite party No.2.

2. By means of the instant application filed under Section 439 (2) Cr.P.C., the applicant has sought cancellation of an order dated 19.12.2023 passed by this Court in Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application No.2945 of 2023, whereby this Court had granted anticipatory bail to the opposite party no. 2 in Case Crime No.214 of 2023 under Sections 143, 147, 148, 307, 326, 447, 506 IPC, Police Station-Sohra Mau, District-Unnao.

3. The aforesaid case has been registered on the basis of an F.I.R. lodged on 12.12.2023 against ten persons stating that the accused persons forcibly took possession of the land of the informant's father. They were raising a boundary wall around the land for the past two days. They poured petrol on her father on 12.12.2023 and set him ablaze. The opposite party no. 2 had contended that he has falsely been implicated in the present case for the reason that a dispute regarding the land in question was going on in the Court of Sub Divisional Magistrate, Hassanganj, Unnao, instituted by Surya Kumar Singh – uncle of the opposite party no. 2, which was decided in his favour by means of a judgment and order dated 17.11.2023, whereby a report submitted by the Revenue Inspector was accepted and demarcation was ordered to be carried out on the spot. On 30.11.2023, the Tehsildar had passed an order constituting a team of officials for carrying out demarcation on the spot and accordingly demarcation was carried out on 09.12.2023. After demarcation of the disputed land on the spot, the uncle of the opposite party no. 2 had secured the disputed land by raising a boundary wall around the land on 09.12.2023 itself. The victim had committed self immolation and newspaper reports to this effect were published online on 12.12.2023 at 12:12:27 i.e. immediately after the incident.

4. This Court took into consideration the aforesaid facts and noted that although the F.I.R states that the victim was saved by persons present nearby and some passersby and he was taken to the hospital, statement of none of those persons had been recorded by the investigating officer. This Court found that there was a property dispute between the parties, which had been settled by the competent authority by ordering demarcation and demarcation had actually being carried out on the spot, but the informant had alleged that there was a property dispute due to which the accused persons had forcibly taken possession of the land in dispute without making any mention of the order passed by the competent court. There is no eye witness of the incident as alleged in the F.I.R. The dispute having already been settled in favour of the accused persons, prima facie there appears to be no motive for them to cause the incident. No independent person has given statement implicating the opposite party no. 2. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, this Court granted anticipatory bail to the opposite party no. 2.

5. The ground on which the applicant is seeking cancellation of the order dated 19.12.2023 is concealment of material facts by the opposite party No.2 in as much as it was not brought to the notice of the Court at the time of hearing of the application on 19.12.2023 that the opposite party No.2 had already been arrested at about 23:50 hours on 18.12.2023.

6. The opposite party No.2 has filed a counter affidavit bringing on record a copy of the order dated 17.11.2023 passed by the SDM, Hassanganj, Unnao accepting the demarcation report submitted by the Revenue Inspector regarding the property which was in dispute between the parties.

7. The applicant has filed a rejoinder affidavit running into 236 pages. The applicant has disclosed her qualification to be merely literate and her occupation to be a Shopkeeper. The index appended to the rejoinder affidavit mentions photocopies of the judgments passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court and the Hon'ble High Courts as Annexure No.RA-03, without specifying as to how many and which judgments have been annexed with the rejoinder affidavit. A reference of the judgments filed as Annexure No.RA-03 has been made in the Para-18 of the rejoinder affidavit, which also merely states that "A photocopy of judgments of apex court and high court are being collectively annexed collectively herewith as and marked as Annexure No.RA-03 to this rejoinder affidavit".

8. This paragraph also does not contain the name and other particulars of the judgments that have been annexed as Annexure No.RA-03. The contents of Para-18 of the rejoinder affidavit have been verified by the deponent on the basis of her personal knowledge.

9. Chapter IV of Allahabad High Court Rules deals with Affidavits And Oath Commissioners. Rule 8 of Chapter IV is as follows: -

"Affidavits filed or presented in Court:-

The provisions of Rules 5,6 and 11 of Chapter IX shall, so far as may be, apply to an affidavit filed or presented in Court. It shall be in the language of the Court and shall bear the general hearing:

"In the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad."

The affidavit and every exhibit annexed thereto shall be marked with the particulars of the case or proceeding in which it is sworn.

The affidavit shall contain no statement which is in the nature of an expression of opinion or argument."

Rule 10 of Chapter IV provides that an affidavit may be sworn by any person having knowledge of the facts deposed to therein. Rule 12 of Chapter IV provides as follows: -

"Facts to be within the deponent's knowledge or source to be stated :-

Except on interlocutory applications, an affidavit shall be confined to such fact as the deponent is able of his own knowledge to prove.

On an interlocutory application when a particular fact is not within the deponent's own knowledge, but is based on his belief or information received from others which he believes to be true, the deponent shall use the expression "I am informed and verily believe such information to be true, "or words to that effect, and shall sufficiently describe for the purpose of identification, the person or persons from whom his information was received.

When any fact is stated on the basis of information derived from a document, full particulars of that document shall be stated and the deponent shall verify that he believes such information to be true."

10. As per the aforesaid provisions contained in the Allahabad High Court Rules provides, the affidavit ought to be confined to such facts, as the deponent is able to prove on her own knowledge. In case the any averment is not in her personal knowledge, and she has made the averment on the basis of information received from some other source, she must have discloses the source of information. There is a clear prohibition against making statements which are in the nature of arguments. Therefore, the annexing of photocopies of numerous precedents with the rejoinder affidavit is against the provisions contained in the Allahabad High Court Rules.

11. Moreover, the manner in which photocopies of seven judgments have been annexed without any index or even list of those judgments, leaves it for the Court to go through the entire rejoinder affidavit running into 236 pages, and in case the Court fails to omit any of the case annexed with the rejoinder affidavit, as otherwise it will be open for the applicant to allege that this Court has passed the order without application of mind to the material available on record. This has resulted in wastage of precious time of the Court which could have been utilized for dispensation of justice to some litigant also. The Court deprecates this conduct of the learned Counsel for the applicant in filing photocopies of numerous precedents alongwith the rejoinder affidavit in violation of the provisions of the Allahabad High Court Rules.

12. Now I proceed to deal with each and every case-law annexed with the rejoinder affidavit.

13. The first judgment annexed with the rejoinder affidavit is of Kusha Duruka v. The State of Odhisha: (2024) 4 SCC 432, and he learned Counsel has placed reliance on the following portion of this judgment:

"4. In Dalip Singh v. State of U.P. (2010) 2 SCC 114, this Court noticed the progressive decline in the values of life and the conduct of the new creed of litigants, who are far away from truth. It was observed as under :

"1. For many centuries Indian society cherished two basic values of life i.e. "satya" (truth) and "ahimsa" (non-violence). Mahavir, Gautam Buddha and Mahatma Gandhi guided the people to ingrain these values in their daily life. Truth constituted an integral part of the justice-delivery system which was in vogue in the pre-Independence era and the people used to feel proud to tell truth in the courts irrespective of the consequences. However, post-Independence period has seen drastic changes in our value system. The materialism has overshadowed the old ethos and the quest for personal gain has become so intense that those involved in litigation do not hesitate to take shelter of falsehood, misrepresentation and suppression of facts in the court proceedings.

2. In the last 40 years, a new creed of litigants has cropped up. Those who belong to this creed do not have any respect for truth. They shamelessly resort to falsehood and unethical means for achieving their goals. In order to meet the challenge posed by this new creed of litigants, the courts have, from time to time, evolved new rules and it is now well established that a litigant, who attempts to pollute the stream of justice or who touches the pure fountain of justice with tainted hands, is not entitled to any relief, interim or final." (emphasis in original)

14. In Kusha Duruka (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has also referred to an earlier decision in the case of Moti Lal Songara Vs. Prem Prakash @ Pappu and another: (2013) 9 SCC 199, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that:-

"19. The second limb of the submission is whether in the obtaining factual matrix, the order passed by the High Court discharging the accused-respondent is justified in law. We have clearly stated that though the respondent was fully aware about the fact that charges had been framed against him by the learned trial Judge, yet he did not bring the same to the notice of the revisional court hearing the revision against the order taking cognizance. It is a clear case of suppression. It was within the special knowledge of the accused. Any one who takes recourse to method of suppression in a court of law, is, in actuality, playing fraud with the court,and the maxim supressio veri, expression faisi, i.e.. suppression of the truth is equivalent to the expression of falsehood, gets attracted. We are compelled to say so as there has been a calculated concealment of the fact before the revisional court. It can be stated with certitude that the accused-respondent tried to gain advantage by such factual suppression. The fraudulent intention is writ large. In fact, he has shown his courage of ignorance and tried to playpossum.

20. The High Court, as we have seen, applied the principle "when infrastructure collapses, the superstructure is bound to collapse". However, as the order has been obtained by practising fraud and suppressing material fact before a court of law to gain advantage, the said order cannot be allowed to stand."

(emphasis in original)

15. A copy of the judgment in the case of Sushila Aggarwal and Others v. State (NCT of Delhi) and another: (2020) 5 SCC 1 has also been annexed with the rejoinder affidavit, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to a decision in Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia v. State of Punjab, (1980) 2 SCC 565, wherein it was held that the provisions of Section 438 Cr.P.C. can be invoked after the arrest of the accused. The grant of anticipatory bail to an accused who is under arrest involves a contradiction in terms, in so far as the offence or offences for which he is arrested, are concerned. After arrest, the accused must seek his remedy under Section 437 or 439 of the Code, if he wants to be released on bail in respect of the offence or offences for which he is arrested.

16. Sushila Aggarwal refers to the following passage from the judgment in Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia (Supra): -

"94. The proper course of action ought to be that after evaluating the averments and accusation available on the record if the court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail then an interim bail be granted and notice be issued to the Public Prosecutor. After hearing the Public Prosecutor the court may either reject the bail application or confirm the initial order of granting bail. The court would certainly be entitled to impose conditions for the grant of bail. The Public Prosecutor or the complainant would be at liberty to move the same court for cancellation or modifying the conditions of bail any time if liberty granted by the court is misused. The bail granted by the court should ordinarily be continued till the trial of the case.

.....

96. It is a settled legal position that the court which grants the bail also has the power to cancel it. The discretion of grant or cancellation of bail be exercised either at the instance of the accused, the Public Prosecutor or the complainant on finding new material or circumstances at any point of time."

17. The next judgment annexed with the rejoinder affidavit is a judgment dated 3.12.2009 rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Dalip Singh v. State of U.P., (2010) 2 SCC 114, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to the following passage from an earlier decision in the case of Prestige Lights versus State Bank of India: (2007) 8 SCC 449: -

"6. In Prestige Lights Ltd. V. State Bank of India (2007) 8 SCC 449, it was held that in exercising power under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the High Court is not just a court of law, but is also a court of equity and a person who invokes the High Court's jurisdiction under article 226 of the Constitution is duty bound to place all the facts before the court without any reservation. If there is suppression of material facts or twisted facts have been placed before the High Court then it will be fully justified in refusing to entertain petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution. This Court referred to the judgment of Scrutton, L.J. in R v Kensington Income Tax Commissioners (1917) 1 K.B. 486, and observed:

"In exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution, the High Court will always keep in mind the conduct of the party who is invoking such jurisdiction. If the applicant does not disclose full facts or suppresses relevant materials or is otherwise guilty of misleading the Court, then the Court may dismiss the action without adjudicating the matter on merits. The rule has been evolved in larger public interest to deter unscrupulous litigants from abusing the process of Court by deceiving it. The very basis of the writ jurisdiction rests in disclosure of true, complete and correct facts. If the material facts are not candidly stated or are suppressed or are distorted, the very functioning of the writ courts would become impossible."

* * *

21. From what we have mentioned above, it is clear that in this case efforts to mislead the authorities and the courts have transmitted through three generations and the conduct of the appellant and his son to mislead the High Court and this Court cannot, but be treated as reprehensible. They belong to the category of persons who not only attempt, but succeed in polluting the course of justice. Therefore, we do not find any justification to interfere with the order under challenge or entertain the appellant's prayer for setting aside the orders passed by the Prescribed Authority and the Appellate Authority."

18. A copy of an order dated 31.05.2023 passed by a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Smt. Shanti Rani Agarwal versus State of U. P. and another, Criminal Misc. Bail Cancellation Application No.172 of 2022, has also been annexed with the rejoinder affidavit, wherein it was held that :-

"29. The clean hands doctrine states that one "who comes into equity must come with clean hands." This doctrine requires the court to deny equitable relief to a party having violated good faith with respect to the subject of the claim. The purpose of the doctrine, as elucidated in Colby Furniture Company, Inc. v. Belinda J. Overton's is to prevent a party from obtaining relief when that party's own wrongful conduct has made it such that granting the relief would be against equity and good conscience."

19. Another judgment rendered by another Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in Rajesh Kumar Sharma v. C.B.I., Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application No.4633 of 2022 decided on 9.12.2022, has been annexed with the rejoinder affidavit and it merely follows the dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gurbaksh Singh Sibbia (Supra).

20. The next judgment annexed with the rejoinder affidavit is of Smt. Ramendri v. State of U.P., application under Section 482 No.5094 of 2021 decided on 24.02.2022, which refers to a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Prestige Lights Limited v. State Bank of India (2007) 8 SCC 449, which has already been referred above.

21. As the learned Counsel for the applicant has unnecessary multiplied the number of judgments, it would be relevant to refer to a decision of this Court in Abbas Ansari v. State of U.P., 2023 SCC OnLine All 2466, wherein this Court held that: -

"29. Keeping in view the conduct of the learned Counsel for the applicant in supplying a compilation of 13 judgments running into 242 pages, without even an index, and placing only one judgment of the Delhi High Court and leaving it for the Court to go through the remaining 12 judgments, the Court is constrained to observe that an increasing tendency of supplying multiple case-laws, without connecting the same to the facts and circumstances of the case in hand is being observed nowadays. This results in wastage of precious time of the Court and creates an unnecessary obstacle in expeditious dispensation of justice.

30. It would be proper and sufficient if the learned Counsel put up a proposition and then submit a case-law in support thereof. In case any proposition is supported by any land-mark judgment which has been followed consistently and repeatedly, it would be sufficient to cite that land-mark judgment, or at the most one more latest judgment in which it was followed or reiterated. The Counsel should not supply case laws without putting up a proposition and they should avoid the temptation of citing multiple case-laws on a single point, which does not make any beneficial difference. The learned Counsel are expected to assist the Court in arriving at a decision expeditiously without wasting the precious time of the Court so that the same time may be better utilized in the interest of some other litigants."

22. The learned counsel for the applicant has also annexed a judgment rendered by Hon'ble Single Judge of Rajasthan High Court sitting at Jaipur in Sunil Kallani v. State of Rajasthan in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.9155 of 2019 decided on 25.10.2021, wherein the Hon'ble Single Judge held that the anticipatory bail would not lie and would not be maintainable if a person is already arrested and is in custody of police or judicial custody in relation to another criminal case which may be for similar offence or for different offences.

23. The next judgment annexed with the rejoinder affidavit is of Sumant Kumar Rathi Vs. State of U.P. & Another 2008 SCC OnLine All 1200, wherein this Court cancelled a bail granted by the Session Court to a person accused of a very serious offence in which the injured sustained fire arm injury at the abdomen inside the house of her in laws only after six months of her marriage without even providing sufficient opportunity to the prosecution to place the correct facts and the Sessions Judge even failed to consider the statement of the injured recorded u/s. 161, Cr.P.C. Sessions Judge also failed to consider that after sustaining the injury the injured had got paralyzed. His Court held that when Session Court has granted bail to the accused on the basis of the irrelevant and inadmissible evidence then this Court must certainly cancel the bail.

24. The last judgment annexed with the rejoinder affidavit is of Shri T.K. Dutta v. Pawan Kumar Didwani and Anr. 1995 Criminal Law Journal 3274, in which an Hon'ble Single Judge of Kolkata High Court held that where the accused had obtained bail by falsely claiming that he was suffering from Myocardial Infraction, only on consideration of the "serious condition his health", by practising fraud upon the Court for obtaining the said Order, the bail order was liable to be cancelled.

25. It is no doubt correct that a litigant approaching the Court or setting the process of law in motion should do so fairly and with clean hands. Bu unfortunately in the present case, it is the applicant herself, who did not observe this basis principle while lodging the FIR falsely alleging that the accused persons had forcibly taken possession of the land in dispute whereas the possession of the land in dispute had been delivered by Competent Revenue Authorities by adopting due process of law. Therefore, it appears that it is the informant herself who has set the criminal law in motion by not only concealing the relevant fact that the possession of the land in dispute had been handed over to the opposite party No.2 by adopting due process of law but making a false statement by alleging that the possession had been taken forcibly.

26. So far as the submission of learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant had already been arrested when this Court passed an order for anticipatory bail, suffice it to say that the opposite party no. 2 had filed the anticipatory bail application on 16.12.2023, after giving its notice to the learned Government Advocate on 14.12.2023. Therefore, the opposite party No.2 had filed the anticipatory bail application while he was not in custody.

27. When the notice of the application was given while the opposite party No.2 was not in custody and the application was also filed when the opposite party No.2 was not in custody, therefore, the opposite party No.2 has not concealed the fact of his arrest in the anticipatory bail application as he had been not arrested till filing of the anticipatory bail application.

28. So far as the question of learned counsel for opposite party No.2 having concealed the facts of arrest of opposite party No.2 from this fact is concerned, the opposite party No.2 was arrested at 23:50 hours on 18.12.2023 and this Court has no reason to presume that the learned counsel for the opposite party No.2 had knowledge of arrest of opposite party No.2, when he advanced his submissions before this Court when the case was taken up as fresh on 19.12.2023.

29. Therefore, the allegation of concealment of fact is not correct either against the applicant or against his learned counsel.

30. The order dated 19.12.2023 has been passed after taking into consideration all the relevant facts and circumstances of the case, as has been noted in the preceding paragraphs of this order, including the facts that the applicant has falsely alleged in the F.I.R. that the accused persons had taken possession of the land in dispute forcibly. The learned Counsel for the applicant has failed to make out any ground for cancellation of the bail order dated 19.12.2023.

31. The application for cancellation of bail order dated 19.12.2023 lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1915
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 4349 of 2023

Anuj Arya @ Dabbu ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Surendra Kumar Mishra, Nikhil Dwivedi, Raghvendra Pandey, Sudhir Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Shiv Kumar Yadav

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 164, 309 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 363, 366 & 376 - The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 – Sections 5-L, 6, 29 & 35(2) - Application for Bail – FIR – allegation of committing rape and threatened prosecutrix/child to face dire consequences – grounds of bail that, present application is languishing in jail since long time and has been falsely implicated as well as there is inordinate delay in lodging FIR has not been explained - court observed that, prosecutrix is a minor child aged about 15 years on the date of incident – considering the entire St.ment recorded u/s 161 & 164 Crpc as well as evidence available on record, she has levelled specific allegation of committing rape against the present applicant on the pretext of false promise of marriage – hence, considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, the bail application is rejected – further, trial court directed to conclude the trial within a period of nine months, direction issued accordingly – however, applicant has a liberty to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the stipulated time.
(Para – 9, 10, 16, 18, 19)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of H.P. Vs Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766,

2. Ganesan Vs St. represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573,

3. Vijay Vs St. of M.P. (2010) 8 SCC 191,

4. St. of Mah. Vs Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550,

5. St. of U.P. Vs Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594,

6. St. of Punj. Vs Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384,

7. St. of Orissa Vs Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86,

8. Krishan Kumar Malik Vs St. of Har., (2011) 7 SCC 130.

9. Phool Singh Vs St. of M. P., (2022) 2 SCC 74,

10. Sham Singh Vs St. of Har., (2018) 18 SCC 34,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri H.G.S. Parihar, learned Senior Advocate, assisted by Sri Raghvendra Pandey, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA-I for the State and Sri Shiv Kumar Yadav, learned counsel for the informant/ complainant.

2. As per learned Senior Advocate, the present applicant is in jail since 06.03.2022 in Case Crime No.107 of 2022, under Sections 363, 366, 376 IPC and Section 5L/6 of POCSO Act, Police Station- Ashiana, DistrictLucknow.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the present applicant has been falsely implicated in the case as he has not committed any offence as alleged. Attention has been drawn towards the impugned FIR, which was lodged on 05.03.2022 for the alleged incident dated 12.12.2021 and the aforesaid inordinate delay has not been explained.

4. As per the prosecution story, the present applicant has allegedly established physical relation with the prosecutrix/ child forcefully without her consent and has threatened her not to say anything to anyone otherwise she will have to face dire consequences. In her statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C., she has narrated the prosecution story so indicated in the FIR and has submitted that she was very afraid from threatening so given by the applicant but when she became pregnant, she told the applicant about the fact, then he insisted her to take medicine to get the foetus aborted. However, she has not taken medicine. She has stated that this incident was within the knowledge of the family members of the applicant, more particularly his father was knowing this fact, who was Journalist by profession and he has also threatened her for dire consequences.

5. Further attention has been drawn towards the statement of the prosecutrix/ child recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. wherein she has stated that the present applicant has established physical relation with her consent on the pretext of promise of marriage but when she became pregnant, the applicant has denied to get married, therefore, she made complaint to the family members of the applicant about the aforesaid fact but instead of helping her in this traumatic situation, they also threatened her for dire consequences in the same manner the present applicant had threatened her.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has drawn attention of this Court towards the medical examination report, which indicates that hymen was not intact but it has not been indicated as to whether on account of alleged rape, the hymen was not intact. Learned Senior Advocate has further submitted that the complainant/ informant has recorded his statement wherein he has stated that when he came to know that his daughter was not traceable from 22.11.2021, he tried to find out her location; he came to know on 24.11.2021 that she was in the house of the father of the applicant. He reached there and requested that his daughter be permitted to go with him but the applicant and his father refused to send the daughter of the informant/ prosecutrix with him saying that his son, the present applicant, and the prosecutrix would get married very soon. On that, he informed the father of the applicant that his daughter was minor, even then they refused to send his daughter back to his home. Thereafter, the informant has said that he will approach the police; on that, they had taken his daughter to his home. Learned counsel has stated that if the aforesaid statements of the informant and the prosecutrix are taken on its face value, this Court would find that there are apparent variation in those statements. Learned counsel has also drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.1 of the supplementary affidavit, which is a certified copy of the statement of the child wherein she has, however, levelled specific allegation against the present applicant but the prosecution story is not consistent.

7. Further submission of learned counsel for the applicant is that the present applicant is having no prior criminal history, therefore, he may be released on bail. Further, the applicant undertakes that if he is released on bail, he shall abide by all terms and conditions of the bail order and shall not misuse the liberty of bail and shall cooperate in the trial proceedings.

8. Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA-I, has vehemently opposed the aforesaid bail application by submitting that the date of birth of the prosecutrix, as per her High School Mark-sheet, is 28.12.2006, therefore, on the date of incident, the prosecutrix was aged about 15 years. He has further submitted that the present applicant is a named and main accused against whom the specific allegation has been levelled in the FIR, in the statements recorded under Sections 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. as well as in the evidence of the child/ prosecutrix recorded before the learned Trial Court. The prosecution story is intact against him without any relevant variation. He has further submitted that in POCSO matters, burden of proof under Section 29 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 (hereinafter referred to as "the POCSO Act") shall lie upon the accused. He has further submitted that so far as the reason of delay so indicated by the child/ prosecutrix and her father is concerned, that explanation is quite reasonable inasmuch as the father of the applicant was an influential person and had allegedly given threatening for dire consequences, therefore, prompt FIR could not be lodged. However, after lodging the FIR, the prosecution version is intact.

9. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record, at the very outset, I would like to observe that the prosecutrix/ child, who was aged about 15 years on the date of incident, recorded her statements under Section 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. as well as recorded her evidence before the court concerned levelling specific allegation against the present applicant of committing rape with her. Though there is some variation in her statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. on some part but if the entire statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. is read, the fact would emerge that in such statement too, she has levelled specific allegation of rape against the present applicant.

10. In the statement of the prosecutrix/ child recorded before the learned Trial Court, she has levelled specific allegation against the present applicant that he has committed rape with her frequently by alluring her for one reason or another and also on the pretext of false promise of marriage. This is the case where the prosecutrix/ child is a minor girl, therefore, the applicant with the intention to commit rape with her has made false promise of marriage, which was not possible. When such promise of marriage was not legally permissible and in the name of that false promise of marriage, physical relation was established with the minor girl, in that case, prima facie, the offence in question would be the offence of rape subject to final determination by the learned Trial Court.

11. Section 29 of the POCSO Act provides for presumption as to certain offences. It provides that if a person is prosecuted for violating any provision of Sections 3, 5, 7 & 9 of the Act and where the victim is a child below the age of 16 years, the Special Court shall presume that such person has committed the offence, unless the contrary is proved.

12. The Apex Court in re; State of H.P. Vs. Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766, has observed in para-5, which reads as under:-

"5. We record our displeasure and dismay, the way the High Court dealt casually with an offence so grave, as in the case at hand, overlooking the alarming and shocking increase of sexual assault on minor girls. The High Court was swayed by the sheer insensitivity, totally oblivious of the growing menace of sexual violence against minors much less by the father. The High Court also totally overlooked the prosecution evidence, which inspired confidence and merited acceptance. It is now a well-settled principle of law that conviction can be founded on the testimony of the prosecutrix alone unless there are compelling reasons for seeking corroboration. The evidence of a prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. The testimony of the victim of sexual assault is vital, unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty in acting on the testimony of a victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable. It is also a well-settled principle of law that corroboration as a condition for judicial reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix is not a requirement of law but a guidance of prudence under the given circumstances. The evidence of the prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. Even minor contradictions or insignificant discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix should not be a ground for throwing out an otherwise reliable prosecution case."

13. The Apex Court in re; Ganesan Vs. State represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573, while considering the judgments of Vijay v. State of M.P., (2010) 8 SCC 191, State of Maharashtra v. Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550, State of U.P. Vs. Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594, State of Punjab v. Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384, State of Orissa v. Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86 and Krishan Kumar Malik v. State of Haryana, (2011) 7 SCC 130, has observed that to hold an accused guilty for commission of an offence of rape, the solitary evidence of the prosecutrix is sufficient, provided the same inspires confidence and appears to be absolutely trustworthy, unblemished and should be of sterling quality.

14. In the case of Pappu (supra), the Apex Court has held that even in a case where it is shown that the girl is a girl of easy virtue or a girl habituated to sexual intercourse, it may not be a ground to absolve the accused from the charge of rape. It has to be established that there was consent by her for that particular occasion and that consent should be free consent.

15. The Apex Court in re; Phool Singh v. State of Madhya Pradesh, (2022) 2 SCC 74, has considered the judgment of Sham Singh vs. State of Haryana, (2018) 18 SCC 34, wherein the Apex Court has observed that the testimony of the victim is vital and unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty to act on the testimony of the victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable.

16. Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the present case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, as considered above, I am not inclined to grant bail to the present applicant.

17. Accordingly, the bail application is rejected.

18. Since the present applicant is in jail since 06.03.2022 and the trial in POCSO cases should be conducted and concluded with expedition, preferably within a period of one year in terms of Section 35 (2) of the POCSO Act, therefore, I hereby direct the learned Trial Court to conclude the trial within a period of nine months from the date of receipt of copy of this order taking recourse of Section 309 Cr.P.C. by fixing short dates, if possible, fix dates on day-to-day basis to ensure that the examination of all prosecution witnesses and other witnesses from both the sides, if any, be completed expeditiously and if any of the witnesses does not cooperate in the trial proceedings properly, the learned Trial Court may take appropriate coercive steps against such witness, which is permissible under the law. Further, no unnecessary adjournment shall be given to any of the parties so that the trial in question could be concluded within the time so stipulated.

19. However, liberty is given to the applicant to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the aforesaid stipulated time.

20. Let copy of this order be provided to the learned Trial Court through District & Sessions Judge, Lucknow by the Registry of this Court within three working days for its strict compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1919
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR KUMAR YADAV, J.

Criminal Misc. Anticipatory Bail Application U/S 438 CR.P.C. No. 4767 of 2024

Veer Singh & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Ajay Sengar, Gunjan Yadav
Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 – Sections 438 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 148, 149, 308, 323, 324, 325, 504 & 506 - 2nd Application Anticipatory Bail – 1st Anticipatory Bail Application was disposed of with direction to learned court below to consider the same in terms of the law laid down by the hon'ble Apex Court – Applicant's Bail Application was rejected by court below, holding that the Bail Application moved through counsel is not maintainable – court observed that, it is admitted position that applicants herein have well co-operated during investigation and also furnished their securities before the investigation officer, thus, applicant have complied the two conditions referred in judgment of Apex Court in 'Satendra Kumar Antil' and therefore the case of the applicant is covered under category 'A' wherein a mechanism has been provided for the offences punishable with imprisonment up to 7 years to be adhered by all courts – held, if conditions mentioned in the order of the hon'ble Supreme Court in 'Satendra Kumar Antil' case is fulfilled, the physical presence of the accused person is not required for consideration of their bail application u/s 439 Cr.P.C. for the offences enumerated in Category 'A' – accordingly, directions issued to court below to consider the Bail Application of the present applicant in terms of the law laid down by the hon'ble Apex Court – present 2nd Anticipatory Bail Application is disposed of.
(Para – 13, 14, 15, 16)

2nd Anticipatory Bail application Disposed of. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Arnesh Kumar Vs St. of Bihar (2014 8 SCC 273),

2. Satendra Kumar Antil Vs CBI & anr. (2022 SCC online SC 825) (2021 10 SCC 773),

3. Aman Preet Singh Vs CBI (2021 SCC online SC 941),

4. Siddharth Vs St. of U.P. (2021 SCC online SC 615), (Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar Kumar Yadav, J.)

1. Heard Ms. Gunjan Yadav, learned counsel for the applicants and Mr. Thakur Azad Singh and Mr. Ved Mani Tiwari, learned Additional Government Advocates for the State.

2. The instant 2nd Anticipatory Bail Application has been moved by the applicants with the prayer that applicants herein be released on anticipatory bail during pendency of trial in respect of the impugned Case No.0015 of 2020 (State of Uttar Pradesh Vs Veer Singh and others) arising out of Case Crime No. 0618 of 2016, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 504, 506, 324, 325, 308 IPC, P.S. Kotwali Kalpi, District Jalaun, pending before the learned CJM, Jalaun at Orai.

3. The 1st Anticipatory Bail application moved by the applicants was heard and disposed of vide order dated 20.12.2023 with the following directions:-

"1. This application has been moved on behalf of the applicant seeking anticipatory bail in Case Crime No. 0618 of 2016, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 504, 506, 324, 325, 308 IPC, P.S. Kotwali Kalpi, District Jalaun during the pendency of trial.

2. Heard Ms Gunjan Yadav, learned counsel for the applicants as well as learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

3. It has been argued by the learned counsel for the applicants that applicants are innocent and they have apprehension of their arrest in the above-mentioned case, whereas there is no credible evidence against them. Allegations levelled against the applicants are false. The investigation of the case has been completed and charge-sheet has been filed and cognizance has been taken by the Court concerned.

4. It is further submitted that during investigation, the applicants have been fully cooperative. It is further submitted that the alleged offences are punishable with the imprisonment of maximum period of seven years. Applicants have no criminal history. In case applicants are granted anticipatory bail, they shall not misuse the liberty of bail and would obey all conditions of bail.

5. Learned A.G.A. opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

6. In this matter, as is evident from the record, offences levelled against the applicants are punishable with the imprisonment upto seven years. After completion of investigation, charge sheet has been submitted and cognizance has also been taken by the Court concerned.

7. In Sushila Aggarwal and others Vs State (NCT ofDelhi) and another, (2020) 5 SCC 1, the Hon'ble Apex Court has settled the controversy finally by holding the anticipatory bail need not be of limited duration invariably. In appropriate case, it can continue upto conclusion of trial. It has been further held therein that anticipatory bail granted can, depending on the conduct and behavior of the accused, continue after filing of the charge sheet till end of trial. It has been further held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that while considering an application for grant of anticipatory bail, the court has to consider the nature of the offence, the role of the person, the likelihood of his influencing the course of investigation, or tampering with evidence including intimidating witnesses, likelihood of fleeing justice, such as leaving the country, etc. It has further been held that Courts ought to be generally guided by considerations such as the nature and gravity of the offences, the role attributed to the applicant, and the facts of the case, while considering whether to grant anticipatory bail, or refuse it. Whether to grant or not is a matter of discretion.

8. Hence, considering the settled principles of law regarding anticipatory bail, submissions of the learned counsel for the parties, nature of accusation, role of applicants and all attending facts an10123d circumstances of the case, without expressing any opinion of the merits of the case, in my view, it is not a fit case for anticipatory bail to the applicants till the end of trial. The prayer made in the application is refused.

9. However, it is directed that police and learned trial Court shall strictly adhere with the directions in regard to arrest issued by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of Arnesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar (2014) 8 SCC 273 and Satender Kumar Antil Vs CBI and another, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 825. In cases where maximum punishment is upto seven years, arrest and jail is not necessary. Trial Court and investigation agency shall take care of the directions issued in the said judgements. It is further observed that the bail application of the applicants, if moved, shall be considered and decided by the Court concerned in terms of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Satender Kumar Antil (Supra).

10. It is further directed that the learned court concerned, while considering the bail application of the applicants in the light of Satender Kumar Antil case (supra), shall pass an order strictly in compliance of the directions given in the aforesaid judgment by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in letter and spirit.

11. The application stands disposed of accordingly."

4. Record reveals that in compliance of the said order, applicants moved their bail application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. in terms of the guide lines issued by the Hon'ble Apex Court in Satendra Kumar Antil Vs Central Bureau of Investigation and another (2021 (10) SCC 773, which came to be rejected by the learned CJM, Jalaun at orai vide its order dated 29.03.2024 holding that the bail application moved by the applicants through counsel is not maintainable.

5. Learned counsel for the applicants while drawing attention of this Court towards the order of this Court dated 20.12.2023 and the order dated 29.03.2024 passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jalaun submits that this Court while disposing of the anticipatory bail application of the applicants had directed the trial court to dispose of bail application of the applicants in light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satenddra Kumar Antil (supra), however, the trial court has dismissed the application of the applicants on the ground that since the applicants have not submitted themselves to the custody of the trial court, therefore, the bail application moved through counsel is not maintainable as they are not in the custody of the court.

6. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicants that in view of the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra), whereby it is provided that if two conditions are satisfied i.e. the accused is not arrested during investigation and secondly has cooperated throughout in the investigation including appearing before Investigating Officer whenever called for the offences, which are categorized in 'A' i.e. offences punishable with imprisonment upto 7 years of imprisonment, ordinary summons shall be issued and if on their non appearance, non bail warrant may be issued, but the same may also be cancelled and the bail application of such accused person on his appearance may be decided without the accused being taken in physical custody or by granting interim bail till the bail application is decided.

7. It is further submitted that the case of the applicants is covered in the cases provided in the category 'A' of the judgement of Satendra Kumar Antil (supra). It is further submitted that the Chief Judicial Officer, without properly going through the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) has passed the order on his 'whims and caprice' while it was specifically provided in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) that there is no need to surrender for the purpose of getting bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the offences, which are categorized in category 'A' and thus it is submitted that a suitable direction be given to the court below for properly disposing of the bail application of the applicants. It is argued that the present offence is punishable upto seven years, therefore, the presence of the applicants is not required at the time of hearing of bail application. The trial court should have decided the bail application which has been filed through counsel without pressing personal presence of applicants before it.

8. Learned A.G.A. has raised a primary objection by contending that the application has rightly been rejected by the court below as the same has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C., which empowers the Court to direct release of a person on bail, who is accused of an offence and in custody. The applicants are not in custody and, therefore, their application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. was rightly dismissed as not maintainable. It is further submitted that though the word "custody" has been interpreted in a broad sense, still, at least physical presence of the accused in the Court is necessary for consideration of an application under Section 439 Cr.PC.

9. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) issued certain guidelines, which is reproduced as under:

"1. Application for intervention is allowed.

2. We have been provided assistance both by Mr. S.V. Raju, learned Additional Solicitor General and Mr. Sidharth Luthra, learned senior counsel and there is broad unanimity in terms of the suggestions made by learned ASG. In terms of the suggestions, the offences have been categorized and guidelines are sought to be laid down for grant of bail, without fettering the discretion of the courts concerned and keeping in mind the statutory provisions.

"3. We are inclined to accept the guidelines and make them a part of the order of the Court for the benefit of the Courts below. The guidelines are as under:

"Categories/Types of Offences

A) Offences punishable with imprisonment of 7 years or less not falling in category B & D.

B) Offences punishable with death, imprisonment for life, or imprisonment for more than 7 years.

C) Offences punishable under Special Acts containing stringent provisions for bail like NDPS (S.37), PMLA (S.45), UAPA (S.43D(5), Companies Act, 212(6), etc. D) Economic offences not covered by Special Acts.

Requisite Conditions

1) Not arrested during investigation.

2) Cooperated throughout in the investigation including appearing before Investigating Officer whenever called.

(No need to forward such an accused along with the charge sheet (Siddharth v. State of U.P., 2021 SCC OnLine SC 615)

CATEGORY A

After filing of charge sheet/complaint taking of cognizance

a) Ordinary summons at the 1st instance/including permitting appearance through Lawyer.

b) If such an accused does not appear despite service of summons, then Bailable Warrant for physical appearance may be issued.

c) NBW on failure to appear despite issuance of Bailable Warrant.

d) NBW may be cancelled or converted into a Bailable Warrant/Summons without insisting physical appearance of accused, if such an application is moved on behalf of the accused before execution of the NBW on an undertaking of the accused to appear physically on the next date/s of hearing.

e) Bail applications of such accused on appearance may be decided w/o the accused being taken in physical custody or by granting interim bail till the bail application is decided.

CATEGORY B/D

On appearance of the accused in Court pursuant to process issued bail application to be decided on merits."

CATEGORY C

Same as Category B & D with the additional condition of compliance of the provisions of Bail under NDPS S.37, 45 PMLA, 212(6) Companies Act 43 d(5) of UAPA, POSCO etc.

4. Needless to say that the category A deals with both police cases and complaint cases.

5. The trial Courts and the High Courts will keep in mind the aforesaid guidelines while considering bail applications. The caveat which has been put by learned ASG is that where the accused have not cooperated in the investigation nor appeared before the Investigating Officers, nor answered summons when the Court feels that judicial custody of the accused is necessary for the completion of the trial, where further investigation including a possible recovery is needed, the aforesaid approach cannot give them benefit, something we agree with.

6. We may also notice an aspect submitted by Mr. Luthra that while issuing notice to consider bail, the trial Court is not precluded from granting interim bail taking into consideration the conduct of the accused during the investigation which has not warranted arrest. On this aspect also we would give our imprimatur and naturally the bail application to be ultimately considered, would be guided by the statutory provisions.

7. The suggestions of learned ASG which we have adopted have categorized a separate set of offences as "economic Offences" not covered by the special Acts. In this behalf, suffice to say on the submission of Mr. Luthra that this Court in Sanjay Chandra vs.CBI, (2012) 1 SCC 40 has observed in para 39 that in determining whether to grant bail both aspects have to be taken into account:

a) seriousness of the charge and

b) severity of punishment.

Thus, it is not as if economic offences are completely taken out of the aforesaid guidelines but do form a different nature of offences and thus the seriousness of the charge has to be taken into account but simultaneously, the severity of the punishment imposed by the statute would also be a factor.

8. We appreciate the assistance given by the learned counsels and the positive approach adopted by the learned ASG.

9. The SLP stands disposed of and the matter need not be listed further.

10. A copy of this order be circulated to the Registrars of the different High Courts to be further circulated to the trial Courts so that the unnecessary bail matters do not come up to this Court.

11. This is the only purpose for which we have issued these guidelines, but they are not fettered on the powers of the Courts.

12. Pending applications stand disposed of."

10. The aforesaid directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) has been again reiterated in the judgement in Aman Preet Singh Vs CBI, through Director : 2021 SCC OnLine SC 941 by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and had held as under:

"9. In our view, the purport of Section 170 Cr.P.C. should no more be in doubt in view of the recent judgment passed by us in Siddharth v. State of Uttar Pradesh (Criminal Appeal No. 838/2021), 2021 SCC OnLine SC 615). In fact we put to learned senior counsel whether he has come across any view taken by this Court qua the said provision. Learned counsel also refers to judgments of the High Court which we have referred to in that judgment while referring to some judicial pronouncements of this Court on the general principles of bail. The only additional submission made by learned counsel is that while the relevant paragraphs of the judgment of the Delhi High Court in Court on its Own Motion Vs Central Bureau of Investigation, (2004) 72 DRJ 629 have received the imprimatur of this Court, the extracted portions from the judgment of the Delhi High Court did not include para 26. The said paragraph deals with directions issued to the criminal Courts and we would like to extract the portion of the same as under:

"26. Arrest of a person for less serious or such kinds of offence or offences those can be investigated without arrest by the police cannot be brooked by any civilized society.

Directions for Criminal Courts:

(i) Whenever officer-in-charge of police station or Investigating Agency like CBI files a charge-sheet without arresting the accused during investigation and does not produce the accused in custody as referred in Section 170, Cr.P.C. the Magistrate or the Court empowered to take cognizance or try the accused shall accept the charge-sheet forthwith and proceed according to the procedure laid down in Section 173 Cr.P.C. and exercise the options available to it as discussed in this judgment. In such a case the Magistrate or Court shall invariably issue a process of summons and not warrant of arrest.

(ii) In case the Court or Magistrate exercises the discretion of issuing warrant of arrest at any stage including the stage while taking cognizance of the chargesheet, he or it shall have to record the reasons in writing as contemplated under Section 87 Cr.P.C. that the accused has either been absconding or shall not obey the summons or has refused to appear despite proof of due service of summons upon him.

(iii) Rejection of an application for exemption from personal appearance on any date of hearing or even at first instance does not amount to non-appearance despite service of summons or absconding or failure to obey summons and the Court in such a case shall not issue warrant of arrest and may either give direction to the accused to appear or issue process of summons.

(iv) That the Court shall on appearance of an accused in a bailable offence release him forthwith on his furnishing a personal bond with or without sureties as per the mandatory provisions of Section 436, Cr.P.C.

(v) The Court shall on appearance of an accused in non-bailable offence who has neither been arrested by the police/Investigating Agency during investigation nor produced in custody as envisaged in Section 170 Cr.P.C. call upon the accused to move a bail application if the accused does not move it on his own and release him on bail as the circumstance of his having not been arrested during investigation or not being produced in custody is itself sufficient to entitle him to be released on bail. Reason is simple. If a person has been at large and free for several years and has not been even arrested during investigation, to send him to jail by refusing bail suddenly, merely because charge-sheet has been filed is against the basic principles governing grant or refusal of bail.

Xxxxxxxxxx"

10. A reading of the aforesaid shows that it is the guiding principle for a Magistrate while exercising powers under Section 170, Cr.P.C. which had been set out. The Magistrate or the Court empowered to take cognizance or try the accused has to accept the charge sheet forthwith and proceed in accordance with the procedure laid down under Section 173, Cr.P.C. It has been rightly observed that in such a case the Magistrate or the Court is required to invariably issue a process of summons and not warrant of arrest. In case he seeks to exercise the discretion of issuing warrants of arrest, he is required to record the reasons as contemplated under Section 87, Cr.P.C. that the accused has either been absconding or shall not obey the summons or has refused to appear despite proof of due service of summons upon him. In fact the observations in Sub-para (iii) above by the High Court are in the nature of caution.

11. Insofar as the present case is concerned and the general principles under Section 170 Cr.P.C., the most apposite observations are in sub-para (v) of the High Court judgment in the context of an accused in a non-bailable offence whose custody was not required during the period of investigation. In such a scenario, it is appropriate that the accused is released on bail as the circumstances of his having not been arrested during investigation or not being produced in custody is itself sufficient to entitle him to be released on bail. The rationale has been succinctly set out that if a person has been enlarged and free for many years and has not even been arrested during investigation, to suddenly direct his arrest and to be incarcerated merely because charge sheet has been filed would be contrary to the governing principles for grant of bail. We could not agree more with this."

(Emphasis mine)

11. Again, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Siddharth Vs State of UP, 2021 SCC OnLine SC 615 opined as follows:

"9. We are in agreement with the aforesaid view of the High Courts and would like to give our imprimatur to the said judicial view. It has rightly been observed on consideration of Section 170 Cr.P.C. that it does not impose an obligation on the Officer-in-charge to arrest each and every accused at the time of filing of the charge-sheet. We have, in fact, come across cases where the accused has cooperated with the investigation throughout and yet on the charge-sheet being filed non-bailable warrants have been issued for his production premised on the requirement that there is an obligation to arrest the accused and produce him before the court. We are of the view that if the investigating officer does not believe that the accused will abscond or disobey summons he/she is not required to be produced in custody. The word "custody" appearing in Section 170 Cr.P.C. does not contemplate either police or judicial custody but it merely connotes the presentation of the accused by the investigating officer before the court while filing the charge-sheet.

10. We may note that personal liberty is an important aspect of our constitutional mandate. The occasion to arrest an accused during investigation arises when custodial investigation becomes necessary or it is a heinous crime or where there is a possibility of influencing the witnesses or accused may abscond. Merely because an arrest can be made because it is lawful does not mandate that arrest must be made. A distinction must be made between the existence of the power to arrest and the justification for exercise of it. If arrest is made routine, it can cause incalculable harm to the reputation and self-esteem of a person. If the investigating officer has no reason to believe that the accused will abscond or disobey summons and has, in fact, throughout cooperated with the investigation we fail to appreciate why there should be a compulsion on the officer to arrest the accused."

12. After going through the above quoted case laws of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, it is thus very much clear that on completion of two conditions mentioned in Satendra Kumar Antil (Supra) i.e. accused is not arrested during investigation and, secondly, has cooperated throughout in the investigation including appearing before Investigating Officer whenever called, a mechanism has been provided for the offences punishable with imprisonment upto 7 years of imprisonment for offences placed in category in 'A' and perusal of the procedure/mechanism provided in category 'A' would reveal that at the first instance after filing of the charge sheet/complaint and after taking of cognizance, summons will be issued and that too with the permission to appear through the lawyer and if such an accused is not appearing despite service of summons then bailable warrants should be issued for their physical appearance and on their failure to appear despite issuance of bailable warrants, non bailable warrants may be issued subject to the condition that non bailable warrants may be cancelled or converted into bailable warrants/summons without insisting physical presence of the accused person(s), if any application is moved on behalf of the accused persons for cancellation of the warrants. However, it is in clause (e) of the paragraph 3 pertaining to the category 'A' cases, it is provided that the bail application of such accused persons on appearance may be decided without the accused being taken in physical custody or by granting interim bail till the bail application is finally decided.

13. It is the admitted position that the applicants herein have well co-operated during investigation and also furnished their securities before the Investigating Officer during Investigation and there is no objection that they have not cooperated during investigation, thus, have complied the two conditions referred in judgement of Apex Court in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) and therefore, their case is also covered under Category 'A' wherein a mechanism has been provided for the offences punishable with imprisonment up to 7 years of imprisonment to be adhered by all courts.

14. Thus, the above mentioned law reports would reveal that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has set a complete mechanism for the offences punishable with upto 7 years of imprisonment in the above Satender Kumar Antil (supra), Aman Preet Singh, (supra) and Siddharth (supra). Moreover, when an accused appear before the trial Court through counsel for grant of bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the offences punishable upto 7 years of imprisonment or less, and he has fully co-operated during investigation and has not been arrested while submitting the charge sheet by the Investigating Officer, they can be deemed to be under custody of Court and their application in the said offences under Section 439 Cr.P.C. moved through counsel, cannot be solely rejected on the technical ground that it is not maintainable as he has not submitted himself either to the custody of the court or he has not been arrested by the police and in the circumstances, it is left to the court to consider the said request of applicants as per the said guidelines and principles. On appearance of accused through counsel before Court would always amount to deemed custody and, thus, in terms of the above judgements, their bail application was required to be decided, consequent upon their appearance through counsel before the court on issuance of the process, without the applicants being taken into physical custody or by granting them interim bail till the disposal of their bail application.

15. Having considered the submissions of learned counsel for the applicants and after going through the record of the case as well as the case laws dealt herein above, it is crystal clear that if the conditions mentioned in the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Satendra Kumar Antil (supra) is fulfilled, the physical presence of the accused person to the custody of the court is not required for considering of their bail under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the offences enumerated in Category 'A'.

16. Accordingly, the present 2nd Anticipatory Bail Application is disposed of with the direction to the applicants to move a fresh bail application before the court concerned under Section 439 Cr.P.C. within 15 days from today and in case the fresh bail application is moved by the applicants, the court concerned shall dispose of the same without insisting the applicants to submit themselves to the custody of the court, strictly in accordance with law laid down by the Apex Court in the above mentioned cases.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1928
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJAY BHANOT, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 4880 of 2024

Anurudh ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Fakhr uz Zaman

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 164, 164-A & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 363, 366 & 376(3) - The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 – Sections 3, 4(2) & 27 - Constitution of India,1950 - Article 21, 227 – juvenile justice (care and protection of children) Act, 2015- Section 94 - Application for Bail – Bail jurisdiction – the question of law – nature of legal duty cast on the police to draw up a medical report determining the age of victim while investigating POCSO Act offences – in the instant case, the medical report pertaining to the victim's age as contemplated in Section 164-A Cr. PC r/w Section 27 of the POCSO Act, was not produced by the police authority – court finds that, the issue of medical determining the Victim's Age in POCSO Act offences has been regularly vexing the court's – held, (i) in the light of law laid down by the Full Bench of this Court in Chandrapal Singh Case, it can be safely St.d that the directions contained in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan' case are not binding judicial authority for determination of the Victim's Age by the competent medical authority u/s 164-A r/w u/s 27 of the POCSO Act, (ii) the police authority are directed to strictly comply with the direction of tis court in Aman' Case and ensure its compliance, (iii) lack of compliance of the directions of this case in Monish's Case and lately Aman's Case by the trial courts while deciding the bail applications under the POCSO Act, is being noticed regularly which resulting in repeated miscarriage of justice as in this case, (iv) A solemn obligation is cast by the constitution on the high Court to nurture the autonomy of trial judges to enable them to act independently and to build the capacity of the trial judges to judge fairly and to foster the esteem of the trial judges to fortify the citizens' faith in the judiciary – consequently, present bail application is allowed with certain directions to the St. authorities and also to the trial court for necessary action and compliance, accordingly. (Para – 38, 39, 40, 48, 49, 52, 53, 54, 55)

Bail Application Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Gudikanti Narasimhulu & ors. Vs Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh (1978) 1 SCC 240,

2. Mohd. Muslim @ Hussain Vs St. (NCT of Delhi) Special Leave Petition (Criminal) No. 915 of 2023,

3. Ajeet Chaudhary Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - 2021 SCC OnLine All 17,

4. Junaid Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - 2021 SCC OnLine All 463

5. Monish Vs St. of U.P. & ors.- Criminal Bail Application No. 55026 of 2021

6. Anil Gaur @ Sonu Tomar Vs St. of U.P. - 2022 SCC OnLine All 623

7. Maneesh Pathak Vs St. of U.P. - 2023 SCCOnLine All 64

8. Aman @ Vansh Vs St. of U.P. & ors. - Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.2322 of 2024

9. Anil Gaur @ Sonu @ Sonu Tomar Vs St. of U.P. - 2022 SCC Online All 623

10. Bhanwar Singh @ Karamvir Vs St. of U.P. - 2023 SCC Online All 734,

11. (Noor Alam Vs St. of U.P. - Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.53159 of 2021,

12. Monish Vs St. of U.P. & ors.- (2024) 6 ADJ 361,

13. Aman @ Vansh vs St. of U.P.1 - Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.2322 of 2024,

14. Pradeep Kumar Chauhan & anr. Vs St. of U.P. and 3 others - Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No.733 of 2020,

15. Atul Mishra Vs St. of U.P. & ors. - 2022 SCCOnline All 420,

16. Chandrapal Singh Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - 2023 SCC OnLine All 2443,

17. St. of Orissa Vs Sudhansu Sekhar Misra & ors.- AIR 1968 SC 647

18. St. of Assam Vs Ranga Muhammad & ors.- (1967) 1 SCR 454

19. H.H. Maharajadhiraja Madhav Rao Jivaji Rao Scindia Bahadur of Gwalior, etc. Vs U.O.I. & anr. - (1971) 1 SCC 85,

20. Dalbir Singh & ors. Vs St. of Punj. - (1979) 3 SCC 745,

21. Krishena Kumar Vs U.O.I. & ors.- 1990 (4) SCC 207,

22. St. of Orissa & ors.Vs Md. Illiyas - 2006 (1) SCC 275,

23. Regional Manager & anr. Vs Pawan Kumar Dubey - (1976) 3 SCC 334,

24. Delhi Airport Metro Express Private Limited Vs Delhi Metro Rail Corporation - (2022) 9 SCC 286,

25. U.O.I. & ors.Vs Dhanwanti Devi & ors.- (1996) 6 SCC 44,

26. Islamic Academy Education & anr. Vs St. of Karnataka & ors.- (2003) 6 SCC 697,

27. Executive Engineer, Dhenkanal Minor Irrigation Division Vs N.C. Budharaj [(2001) 2 SCC 721,

28. T.M.A. Pai Foundation - (2002) 8 SCC 481,

29. Natural Resources Allocation, In Re, Special Reference No.1 of 2012 - (2012) 10 SCC 1,

30. Sanjay Singh & anr. Vs U.P. Public Service Commission, Allahabad & anr. - (2007) 3 SCC 720,

31. Commissioner of Income Tax Vs Sun Engineering Works (P) Ltd. - (1992) 4 SCC 363,

32. Ambica Quarry Works & ors. Vs St. of Guj. & ors.- (1987) 1 SCC 213,

33. Prakash Amichand Shah Vs St. of Gujarat & ors.- 1986 (1) SCC 581

34. Delhi Administration in the NCT of Delhi Vs Manohar Lal - (2002) 7 SCC 222,

35. Divisional Controller, KSRTC Vs Mahadeva Shetty - (2003) 7 SCC 197,

36. Ashwani Kumar Singh Vs U.P. Public Service Commission & ors.- (2003) 11 SCC 584,

37. Director of Settlement, A.P. & ors.Vs M.R. Apparao & anr. - (2002) 4 SCC 638,

38. Gasket Radiator Pvt. Ltd. Vs Employees' St. Insurance Corporation & anr. - (1985) 2 SCC 68,

39. Sreenivasa General Traders & ors. Vs St. of Andhra Pradesh & ors.- (1983) 4 SCC 353,

40. Government of India Vs Workmen and St. Trading Corporation & ors.- (1997) 11 SCC 641,

41. Junaid Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - 2021 (6) ADJ 511, 42. Arvind Singh Vs St. of U.P. Thru. Prin. Secy. Home Deptt. - Application U/S 482 No.2613 of 2023.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajay Bhanot, J.)

1. The judgment is being structured in the following conceptual framework to facilitate the discussion:

I	Introduction
II	Bail Jurisdiction : Scope
III	Facts
IV	Submissions of learned counsels
V	Age of victim: Section 164-A of Cr.P.C., Section 27 of POCSO Act, Judgements in Monish Vs. State of U.P. and others; Aman @ Vansh v. State of U.P. and 3 others; Atul Mishra v. State of U.P. and 3 others.
VI	Judgement in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan and another v. State of U.P. and 3 others: Non applicability to police investigations into POCSO Act offences
VII	Conclusions & Directions
VIII	Order on Bail Application
IX	Post Script and Directions
X	Appendix I. Introduction:

I. Introduction:

2. The question of law which arises for consideration in this bail application is the nature of the legal duty cast on the police to draw up a medical report determining the age of a victim while investigating POCSO Act offences. The jurisdiction of this Court to determine this question will predicate the discussion on the merits of the bail.

II. Bail Jurisdiction: Scope

3. Right of bail is vested by virtue of Section 439 of Code of Criminal Procedure,19731.

4. With coming of the Constitution and development of constitutional law, the statutory domain of bails was transformed into a constitutional jurisdiction as well. The right to bail is derived from statute but cannot be removed from constitutional oversight. The right to seek bail is irretrievably embedded in the fundamental right of liberty enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India by holdings of constitutional courts.

5. Good authority has long entrenched the right of an accused to seek bail in the charter of fundamental rights assured by the Constitution of India.

6. Bail jurisprudence was firmly ensconced in the constitutional regime of fundamental rights in Gudikanti Narasimhulu and Others Vs. Public Prosecutor, High Court of Andhra Pradesh2. Casting an enduring proposition of law in eloquent speech, V.R. Krishna Iyer, J. held:

"1. Bail or jail?" — at the pre-trial or post-conviction stage — belongs to the blurred area of the criminal justice system and largely hinges on the hunch of the Bench, otherwise called judicial discretion. The Code is cryptic on this topic and the Court prefers to be tacit, be the order custodial or not. And yet, the issue is one of liberty, justice, public safety and burden of the public treasury, all of which insist that a developed jurisprudence of bail is integral to a socially sensitized judicial process. As Chamber Judge in this summit court I have to deal with this uncanalised case-flow, ad hoc response to the docket being the flickering candle light. So it is desirable that the subject is disposed of on basic principle, not improvised brevity draped as discretion. Personal liberty, deprived when bail is refused, is too precious a value of our constitutional system recognised under Article 21 that the curial power to negate it is a great trust exercisable, not casually but judicially, with lively concern for the cost to the individual and the community. To glamorize impressionistic orders as discretionary may, on occasions, make a litigative gamble decisive of a fundamental right. After all, personal liberty of an accused or convict is fundamental, suffering lawful eclipse only in terms of "procedure established by law". The last four words of Article 21 are the life of that human right."

7. More recently the interplay of constitutional liberty assured under Article 21 and statutory right of bail of an undertrial prisoner was affirmed by the Supreme Court in Mohd. Muslim @ Hussain Vs. State (NCT of Delhi)3.

8. Engagement of fundamental rights in bail jurisprudence is a constant in constitutional law. The right of bail has statutory origins but can never be isolated from its constitutional moorings.

9. The aforesaid authorities establish the undeniable linkage between right to seek bail and the fundamental right to personal liberty. Every prisoner has a fundamental right to file an application for bail before the competent court as per law and without delay.

10. While sitting in bail determination, this Court is not denuded of its constitutional status. The High Court is a court of record and a constitutional court irrespective of the nomenclature of the jurisdiction it is exercising. Needless to add that the High Court always exercises its jurisdiction as per law. While deciding bail applications the High Court exercises a composite jurisdiction of statutory powers and constitutional obligations. At times legal issues which directly impinge on the fair administration of justice arise in bail jurisdiction. The High Court cannot neglect consideration of such issues on the footing that they are beyond the scope of bail jurisdiction. The High Court always possesses the necessary powers to decide such issues for dispensing fair justice and to realize the fundamental rights of an accused in bail jurisdiction. Refusal to decide the said issues would amount to abdication of constitutional obligations of this Court. Issues arising in the instant case (and those referred in the judgment) directly impact the right of a prisoner to seek bail. They have to be decided by this Court with clarity in lawful exercise of bail jurisdiction and in the interests of equal justice.

11. The judgements rendered by this Court in Ajeet Chaudhary v. State of U.P. and another4, Junaid v. State of U.P. and another5, Monish v.State of U.P. and others6, Anil Gaur @ Sonu Tomar v. State of U.P.7 & Maneesh Pathak v. State of U.P.8] enable the court in bail jurisdiction to decide legal issues which arise in the facts and circumstances of the case and impede fair administration of justice or prevent realization of the right of bail of an accused accruing from statute or threaten to infringe the personal liberties of the accused vested by the Constitution.

12. While examining the scope of powers of this Court to decide legal issues in bail jurisdiction this Court in Aman @ Vansh v. State of U.P. and 3 others9 held as under:

"This Court has consistently held that while sitting in the bail determination the High Court is not denuded of its constitutional status. The bail jurisdiction though created under the statute is also a constitutional jurisdiction of first importance since the most precious right of life and liberty are engaged in the process of consideration of bail. Consequently when legal issues which directly impact the life and liberty of a citizen arise during consideration of a bail application, the Court has to squarely deal with the said (sic) issues."

[Also see: i. (Anil Gaur @ Sonu @ Sonu Tomar v. State of U.P.10)
ii. (Bhanwar Singh @ Karamvir v. State of U.P.11)
iii. (Noor Alam v. State of U.P.12).]

III. Facts:

13. In the instant case the age of the victim as depicted in the prosecution documents was contested in light of the judgement of this Court in Monish Vs. State of U.P. and others13. The medical report pertaining to the victim's age as contemplated in Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act was not produced by the police authorities.

14. Following the established practice this Court directed that the medical report of the victim's age be got drawn up by the competent medical officer/Chief Medical Officer, Jalaun in light of Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act. [See: Aman @ Vansh vs State of U.P.14]

15. The issue of medical report determining the victim's age in POCSO Act offences has been regularly vexing the Courts, and hence is liable to be determined before deciding the bail application on merits.

IV. Submissions of learned counsels:

16. Shri Paritosh Kumar Malviya, learned A.G.A.-I submits that in view of the judgement rendered by this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan and another v.

State of U.P. and 3 others15 the police authorities cannot get the medical examination of the victim conducted to determine her age. Hence the said medical report was not got drawn up by police in the instant case. Though in his customary fairness the learned AGA-I has referenced all relevant provisions of law including Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of POCSO Act. According to the learned A.G.A.-I, the legal position regarding applicability of Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) to POCSO Act offences and investigations needs clarification.

17. Per contra, Shri Shams uz Zaman, learned counsel holding brief of Shri Fakhr uz Zaman, learned counsel for the applicant contends that the judgement of this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) is not a binding precedent for the purposes of determination the age of the victim under Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act. The Court rightly called for the medical report regarding the victim's age on account of the failure of the police authorities to do so and to uphold the said provisions of law. The order of the Court calling for the medical report of the victims age was consistent with the law laid down in Aman (supra). Aman (supra) is a binding authority for medical determination of the victim's age in POCSO Act offences. In a bail application the victim's age has to be determined by a conjoint reading of Monish (supra) and Aman (supra).

18. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

V. Age of victim: Section 164-A of Cr.P.C., Section 27 of POCSO Act, Judgements in Monish Vs. State of U.P. and others and Aman @ Vansh v. State of U.P. and 3 others; Atul Mishra v. State of U.P. and 3 others.16

19. Large variations in the documents pertaining to the victim's age are being noticed in an overwhelming number of cases under the POCSO Act. Challenges laid to the victim's age as depicted in the prosecution case are also a regular feature in bail applications under the POCSO Act. Victim's age related documents are often put under a cloud in bail hearings. Medical report determining the victim's age as per Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSCO Act thus becomes critical even in bail matters. In fact in POCSO Act offences the victim's age is also a jurisdictional issue.

20. Section 164-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure Code as well as Section 27 of the POCSO Act are extracted hereunder for ease reference:

"Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. Medical examination of the victim of rape.-(1) Where, during the stage when an offence of committing rape or attempt to commit rape is under investigation, it is proposed to get the person of the woman with whom rape is alleged or attempted to have been committed or attempted, examined by a medical expert, such examination shall be conducted by a registered medical practitioner employed in a hospital run by the Government or a local authority and in the absence of such a practitioner, by any other registered medical practitioner, with the consent of such woman or of a person competent to give such consent on her behalf and such woman shall be sent to such registered medical practitioner within twenty-four hours from the time of receiving the information relating to the commission of such offence.

(2) The registered medical practitioner, to whom such woman is sent shall, without delay, examine her person and prepare a report of his examination giving the following particulars, namely—

(i) the name and address of the woman and of the person by whom she was brought;

(ii) the age of the woman;

(iii) the description of material taken from the person of the woman for DNA profiling;

(iv) marks of injury, if any, on the person of the woman;

(v) general mental condition of the woman; and

(vi) other material particulars in reasonable detail.

(3) The report shall state precisely the reasons for each conclusion arrived at.

(4) The report shall specifically record that the consent of the woman or of the person competent, to give such consent on her behalf to such examination had been obtained.

(5) The exact time of commencement and completion of the examination shall also be noted in the report.

(6) The registered medical practitioner shall, without delay forward the report to the investigating officer who shall forward it to the Magistrate referred to in section 173 as part of the documents referred to in clause (a) of Sub-Section (5) of that section.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed as rendering lawful any examination without the consent of the woman or of any person competent to give such consent on her behalf."

"Section 27 of POCSO Act. Medical examination of a child-(1) The medical examination of a child in respect of whom any offence has been committed under this Act, shall notwithstanding that a First Information Report or complaint has not been registered for the offences under this Act, be conducted in accordance with section 164A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

(2) In case the victim is a girl child, the medical examination shall be conducted by a woman doctor.

(3) The medical examination shall be conducted in the presence of the parent of the child or any other person in whom the child reposes trust or confidence.

(4) Where, in case the parent of the child or other person referred to in sub-section (3) cannot be present, for any reason, during the medical examination of the child, the medical examination shall be conducted in the presence of a woman nominated by the head of the medical institution."

21. Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act provide for a specific method to determine the age of the victim in POCSO Act offences. The said provisions underscore the importance of medical age determination of victims under the POCSO Act. Age determined under Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act is not an exercise in futility, and cannot be excluded from consideration by courts. Omission by the police to get the medical report of age drawn up during the investigation and neglect of the said report by the court while deciding the bail application will render the said statutory provisions redundant and negate the scheme of the POCSO Act.

22. This Court in Aman (supra) held that Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act insofar as they contemplate medical determination of the age of the victim are mandatory. Aman (supra) accordingly directed the police authorities to get the medical report determining the victim's age drawn up by the competent medical authority at the start of the investigations into POCSO Act offences.

23. Age of a child victim of a sexual offence is also liable to be determined in light of the procedure laid down in Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act (as applicable to the POCSO Act). This Court in had examined the manner and scope of applicability of Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act to determine the age of victims in bails under the POCSO Act offences. In Monish (supra) due weight was given to the medically determined age of the victim apart from consideration of other documentary evidences of age including those referenced in Section 94 of the of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act.

25. The implementation of the mandatory provisions of Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act and compliance of Aman (supra) are imperative necessities to secure the ends of justice. Medical determination the age of victims is based on scientific parameters and has a high standing in courts. Medical report of the victim's age given by the competent medical authority in POCSO Act cases has a statutory basis and is a reliable document to assist the court in forming an opinion or conclusion about her age even while deciding bail applications under the POCSO Act. Particularly in bails where the accused shows that prosecution documents pertaining to the victim's age are contradictory, unreliable or otherwise rendered doubtful for credible reasons. [See: Monish Vs. State of U.P. and others] Failure to consider or to accord due weight or to discord the same without good cause to medical report determining the victim's age contravenes the law and vitiates the order of court.

26. The predicaments faced by this Court while examining the age of the victim in a bail application under the POCSO Act were resolved by this Court in the judgement rendered in Monish (supra). However, the dilemma of the Court persists on account of the recurrent failure of the police authorities to get the victim's age determined by the competent medical authority during investigations of POCSO Act offences. As seen earlier this omission of the police authorities is in the teeth of Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act and also violates the explicit judicial directions in Aman (supra).

27. The determination of victim's age in a bail under POCSO Act offences has to be made upon an integrated reading of Section 94 of the of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act and Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act in light of the judgements of this Court in Monish (supra) and Aman (supra).

28. Monish (supra) contemplates consideration of various documents pertaining to the victim's age in bail proceedings. Aman (supra) reinforced the significance of the medical age determination in the scheme of the POCSO Act. The trial court has to make an opinion on the credibility of the respective documents while deciding the bail application. In appropriate cases the age of the victim determined by the competent medical authority can prevail over other age related documents (including school records). Infact in the instant case this Court has relied upon the medical determination of the victim's age in preference to the school records pertaining to her age.

29. False depiction of the victim's age is a favoured tactic used by unscrupulous litigants to frame innocent persons under the stringent provisions of the POCSO Act. False cases under the POCSO Act are an abuse of the process of court which frustrate the laudable intent of the said enactment. As a result thereof innocent persons are subjected to malicious prosecution and undergo long periods of imprisonment. Widespread misuse of the POCSO Act was also noticed in Aman (supra).

30. This Court in Atul Mishra v. State of U.P. and 3 others.17 noted the legislative object of POCSO Act, and also found abuse of the enactment. Balancing the need to implement the statute while taking social realities into account, Rahul Chaturvedi J. in Atul Mishra (supra) held:

"13. Growing incidences where teenagers and young adults fall victim of the offences under the POCSO Act, being slapped by the penal provisions of POCSO Act without understanding the far reaching implication of the severity of the enactment, is an issue that brings much concern to the conscience of this Court. A reading of the statement of objects and reasons of POCSO Act would show that, as mentioned, to protect the child from the offences of sexual abuse, sexual assault and harassment, pornography, pursuant to the Article-15 of the Constitution of India, 1950 and the Conservation on the Rights of the children. However, a large array of the cases filed under the POCSO Act seems to be those arising on the basis of the complaints/F.I.Rs. lodged by the families of adolescents and teenagers who are involved in romantic relationship with each other. The scheme of the Act clearly shows that it did not intend to bring within its scope or limits, the cases of the nature where the adolescents or teenagers involved in the dense romantic affair.

14. This Court deems it fit and necessary to take a moment to delve into an important aspect, the awareness of which is crucial in understanding and appreciating with the cases of instant nature. It is crucial to accept the science and psychology of an adolescent and young adulthood at this juncture. This is because social and biological phenomenons are widely recognised as determinates of human development, health and socio-economic attainment across the life course, but our understanding of the underlying pathways and processes remains limited. Therefore, a "bio-social approach" needs to be adopted and appreciated i.e. one that conceptualizes the biological and social requirements of two teenagers, who on account of mutual infatuation are attracted and decide for their future. Their decision could be impulsive, immature but certainly not sinful or tainted as branded in the F.I.R. or complaint of the informant."

31. Medical determination of the victim's age by the competent medical authority at the commencement of the police investigation will ensure implementation of the statutory mandate of Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of POCSO Act, comply with the law laid down by this Court in Aman (supra), and will help curb the menace of false cases under the POCSO Act.

VI. Judgement in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan and another v. State of U.P. and 3 others: Non applicability to police investigations into POCSO Act offences:

32. The facts and the legal issues which arose for consideration in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) have to be noticed first. Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) was a Habeas Corpus Writ Petition which was filed by the petitioner No.1 claiming that the petitioner No.2 was his legally wedded wife. During the pendency of the habeas corpus petition, a medical report determining the corpus's age was drawn up.

33. In those facts and circumstances while considering the said medical report of the corpus; this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) held as under:

"At this stage, Sri Vinod Kumar Yadav, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the Investigating Officer got examined the corpus at Pt. D.D.U. Govt. Hospital, Varanasi by the concerned radiologist and Chief Medial Officer whereupon in examination, age of the victim has been determined to be 19 years. This medical was conducted on 13.11.2019. It is further pointed out by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the statement of victim was recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. before the concerned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Court No.1 Mirzapur on 08.11.2019 wherein the victim has admitted that she and petitioner No.1 Pradeep Kumar Chauhan were studying in the same school, therefore, in the light of this statement given by the victim, the conduct of Investigating Officer becomes doubtful.

It appears that either Investigating Officer is not aware of the procedure and the provisions contained in the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 or with a view to shield the accused person, he has directed the victim to undergo medical examination.

This requires thorough enquiry in the matter.

The Director General of Police, U.P. is directed to immediately issue a circular/order informing all the investigating Officers through respective Superintendents of Police, the manner in which investigations to be carried out. He shall also ensure that all the Investigating officers are given periodic training and Ist phase of periodic training be completed within one year after drawing a time-table/ roaster for said training to be imparted in various Police Academies of the State including training for forensic and scientific investigation.

The Director General will submit first report before the Registrar General before expiry of three months from today as to the steps taken from rendering training on the aspect of the investigation to all the Investigating Officers posted in the State of Uttar Pradesh.

He shall also cause conduct of an inquiry to be carried out in relation to be alleged misconduct of the Investigating Officer of the present case viz. Sanjeev Kumar Singh, Narayanpur, Police Station-Adalhat, Mirzapur and to take strict disciplinary action against the Investigating Officer, who conducted the Investigation."

34. Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) did not arise out of a criminal investigation for an offence under the POCSO Act. The provisions of Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act were not in issue and never arose for consideration before this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra). Further this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) did not even reference or examine Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act.

35. The directions of this Court issued in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) do not prevent the police authorities to get the age of a victim determined by the competent medical authority under Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act. Infact directions in Pradeep Kumar Chuahan (supra) are not applicable to investigation of POCSO Act offences.

36. Non applicability of the directions in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) to POCSO Act offences is supported by authorities in point. A Full Bench of this Court in Chandrapal Singh v. State of U.P. and another18 was squarely faced with the issue of determining the binding precedent in a judgement rendered by a Constitutional Court.

37. The Full Bench of this Court in Chandrapal Singh (supra) examined various judgements in point and held thus:

"158. The law is settled to the point that it is axiomatic that only the ratio decidendi in a judgement constitutes the binding precedent.

159. The Civil Appeal before the Supreme Court in State of Orissa v. Sudhansu Sekhar Misra and others19 was an outcome of the conflict between the High Court and the Government of Orissa. The High Court effected transfers of judicial officers in light of its reading of the judgment of the Supreme Court in State of Assam v. Ranga Muhammad and others20. The High Court relied on the observations in Ranga Muhammad (supra) that after a judicial officer is posted to the cadre it is for the High Court to effect his transfers and accordingly passed orders transferring judicial officers to posts in the State Government.

160. The Supreme Court in Sudhansu Sekhar Misra (supra) clarified the ratio in Ranga Muhammad (supra) as follows:

"13. ...Obviously relying on the observation of this Court that after a judicial officer is posted to the cadre, it is for the High Court to effect his transfers, the court below has come to the conclusion that as the posts of the law secretary, deputy law secretary and superintendent and legal remembrancer are included in the cadre, the High Court has the power to fill those posts by transfer of judicial officers. The cadre this Court was considering in Ranga Mahammad case [(1967) 1 SCR 454] , namely, Assam Superior Judicial Services Cadre consisted of the Registrar of the Assam High Court and three district judges in the first grade and some additional district judges in Grade II. In that cadre, no officer holding any post under the government was included. Hence the reference by this Court to the cadre is a reference to a cadre consisting essentially of officers under the direct control of the High Court. It was in that context this Court spoke of the cadre. The question of law considered in that decision was as regards the scope of the expression "control over District Court" in Article 235. The reference to the cadre was merely incidental."

161. The principle that only the ratio decidendi of a judgement that is treated as a binding precedent was reflected in Sudhansu Sekhar (supra) wherein after relying on British authorities it was held:

" 13. ...A decision is only an authority for what it actually decides. What is of the essence in a decision is its ratio and not every observation found therein nor what logically follows from the various observations made in it. On this topic this is what Earl of Halsbury L.C. said in Quinn v. Leathem [[1901] AC 495]:

"Now before discussing the case of Allen v. Flood, [1898] AC 1 and what was decided therein, there are two observations of a general character which I wish to make, and one is to repeat what I have very often said before, that every judgment must be read as applicable to the particular facts proved, or assumed to be proved, since the generality of the expressions which may be found there are not intended to be expositions of the whole law, but governed and qualified by the particular facts of the case in which such expressions are to be found. The other is that a case is only an authority for what it actually decides. I entirely deny that it can be quoted for a proposition that may seem to follow logically from it. Such a mode of reasoning assumes that the law is necessarily a logical code, whereas every lawyer must acknowledge that the law is not always logical at all.

It is not a profitable task to extract a sentence here and there from a judgment and to build upon it."

162. The said judgment was also followed by the Supreme Court in H.H. Maharajadhiraja Madhav Rao Jivaji Rao Scindia Bahadur of Gwalior, etc. v. Union of India and another21. Madhav Rao Scindia Bahadur (supra) also cautioned:

"It is not proper to regard a word, a clause or a sentence occurring in a judgment of the Supreme Court, divorced from its context, as containing a full exposition of the law on a question when the question did not even fall to be answered in that judgment."

164. The scope of law declared within the meaning of Article 141 of the Constitution of India arose for consideration before the Supreme Court in Dalbir Singh and others v. State of Punjab22. The process to isolate the ratio decidendi from the judgment was set out in Dalbir Singh (supra) as under:

"22. With greatest respect, the majority decision in Rajendra Prasad case does not lay down any legal principle of general applicability. A decision on a question of sentence depending upon the facts and circumstances of a particular case, can never be regarded as a binding precedent, much less "law declared" within the meaning of Article 141 of the Constitution so as to bind all courts within the territory of India. According to the well-settled theory of precedents every decision contains three basic ingredients:

"(i) findings of material facts, direct and inferential. An inferential finding of facts is the inference which the Judge draws from the direct or perceptible facts;

(ii) statements of the principles of law applicable to the legal problems disclosed by the facts; and

(iii) judgment based on the combined effect of (i) and (ii) above."

For the purposes of the parties themselves and their privies, ingredient (iii) is the material element in the decision for it determines finally their rights and liabilities in relation to the subject-matter of the action. It is the judgment that estops the parties from reopening the dispute. However, for the purpose of the doctrine of precedents, ingredient (ii) is the vital element in the decision. This indeed is the ratio decidendi. [R.J. Walker & M.G. Walker : The English Legal System. Butterworths, 1972, 3rd Edn., pp. 123-24] It is not everything said by a judge when giving judgment that constitutes a precedent. The only thing in a judge's decision binding a party is the principle upon which the case is decided and for this reason it is important to analyse a decision and isolate from it the ratio decidendi. In the leading case of Qualcast (Wolverhampton) Ltd. v. Haynes [LR 1959 AC 7 43 : (1959) 2 All ER 38] it was laid down that the ratio decidendi may be defined as a statement of law applied to the legal problems raised by the facts as found, upon which the decision is based. The other two elements in the decision are not precedents. The judgment is not binding (except directly on the parties themselves), nor are the findings of facts. This means that even where the direct facts of an earlier case appear to be identical to those of the case before the court, the judge is not bound to draw the same inference as drawn in the earlier case."

(emphasis supplied)

166. The discussion on binding precedents was initiated in Jayant Verma (supra) by citing from authorities of repute. Precedent in English Law by Cross and Harris (4th Edn.) was quoted and the dissenting judgement of A.P. Sen, J. in Dalbir Singh v. State of Punjab23, was also cited with approval :

"54. This question is answered by referring to authoritative works and judgments of this Court. In Precedent in English Law by Cross and Harris (4th edn.), 'ratio decidendi' is described as follows:

"The ratio decidendi of a case is any rule of law expressly or impliedly treated by the judge as a necessary step in reaching his conclusion, having regard to the line of reasoning adopted by him, or a necessary part of his direction to the jury."

170. Analysis of facts of a case and the process of reasoning were part of the process to ascertain the ratio decidendi of a judgement or the principle of law having binding force in all Courts in India according to the Supreme Court in Krishena Kumar v. Union of India and others24. Krishena Kumar (supra) also clarified if the ratio is not clear the Court is not bound by the judgement:

"19. The doctrine of precedent, that is being bound by a previous decision, is limited to the decision itself and as to what is necessarily involved in it. It does not mean that this Court is bound by the various reasons given in support of it, especially when they contain "propositions wider than the case itself required". This was what Lord Selborne said in Caledonian Railway Co. v. Walker's Trustees [(1882) 7 App Cas 259 : 46 LT 826 (HL)] and Lord Halsbury in Quinn v. Leathem [1901 AC 495, 502 : 17 TLR 749 (HL)] . Sir Frederick Pollock has also said : "Judicial authority belongs not to the exact words used in this or that judgment, nor even to all the reasons given, but only to the principles accepted and applied as necessary grounds of the decision."

(emphasis supplied)

20. In other words, the enunciation of the reason or principle upon which a question before a court has been decided is alone binding as a precedent. The ratio decidendi is the underlying principle, namely, the general reasons or the general grounds upon which the decision is based on the test or abstract from the specific peculiarities of the particular case which gives rise to the decision. The ratio decidendi has to be ascertained by an analysis of the facts of the case and the process of reasoning involving the major premise consisting of a pre-existing rule of law, either statutory or judge-made, and a minor premise consisting of the material facts of the case under immediate consideration. If it is not clear, it is not the duty of the court to spell it out with difficulty in order to be bound by it. In the words of Halsbury (4th edn., Vol. 26, para 573)

"The concrete decision alone is binding between the parties to it but it is the abstract ratio decidendi, as ascertained on a consideration of the judgment in relation to the subject matter of the decision, which alone has the force of law and which when it is clear it is not part of a tribunal's duty to spell out with difficulty a ratio decidendi in order to bound by it, and it is always dangerous to take one or two observations out of a long judgment and treat them as if they gave the ratio decidendi of the case. If more reasons than one are given by a tribunal for its judgment, all are taken as forming the ratio decidendi."

(emphasis supplied)

33. Stare decisis et non quieta movere. To adhere to precedent and not to unsettle things which are settled. But it applies to litigated facts and necessarily decided questions. Apart from Article 14 of the Constitution of India, the policy of courts is to stand by precedent and not to disturb settled point. When court has once laid down a principle of law as applicable to certain state of facts, it will adhere to that principle, and apply it to all future cases where facts are substantially the same. A deliberate and solemn decision of court made after argument on question of law fairly arising in the case, and necessary to its determination, is an authority, or binding precedent in the same court, or in other courts of equal or lower rank in subsequent cases where the very point is again in controversy unless there are occasions when departure is rendered necessary to vindicate plain, obvious principles of law and remedy continued injustice. It should be invariably applied and should not ordinarily be departed from where decision is of long standing and rights have been acquired under it, unless considerations of public policy demand it. But in Nakara [(1983) 1 SCC 305 : 1983 SCC (L&S) 145 : (1983) 2 SCR 165] it was never required to be decided that all the retirees formed a class and no further classification was permissible."

(emphasis supplied)

171. In State of Orissa and others v. Md. Illiyas25, the Supreme Court iterated the well settled position of law that it is only the ratio decidendi which comes within the ambit of the law declared by Supreme Court and is binding precedent by stating the law as follows:

"12. When the allegation is of cheating or deceiving, whether the alleged act is wilful or not depends upon the circumstances of the case concerned and there cannot be any straitjacket formula. The High Court unfortunately did not discuss the factual aspects and by merely placing reliance on an earlier decision of the Court held that prerequisite conditions were absent. Reliance on the decision without looking into the factual background of the case before it, is clearly impermissible. A decision is a precedent on its own facts. Each case presents its own features. It is not everything said by a Judge while giving judgment that constitutes a precedent. The only thing in a Judge's decision binding a party is the principle upon which the case is decided and for this reason it is important to analyse a decision and isolate from it the ratio decidendi. According to the well-settled theory of precedents, every decision contains three basic postulates : (i) findings of material facts, direct and inferential. An inferential finding of facts is the inference which the Judge draws from the direct, or perceptible facts; (ii) statements of the principles of law applicable to the legal problems disclosed by the facts; and (iii) judgment based on the combined effect of the above. A decision is an authority for what it actually decides. What is of the essence in a decision is its ratio and not every observation found therein nor what logically flows from the various observations made in the judgment. The enunciation of the reason or principle on which a question before a court has been decided is alone binding as a precedent. (See State of Orissa v. Sudhansu Sekhar Misra [(1968) 2 SCR 154 : AIR 1968 SC 647] and Union of India v. Dhanwanti Devi [(1996) 6 SCC 44] .) A case is a precedent and binding for what it explicitly decides and no more. The words used by Judges in their judgments are not to be read as if they are words in an Act of Parliament. In Quinn v. Leathem [1901 AC 495 : 85 LT 289 : (1900-03) All ER Rep 1 (HL)] the Earl of Halsbury, L.C. observed that every judgment must be read as applicable to the particular facts proved or assumed to be proved, since the generality of the expressions which are found there are not intended to be the exposition of the whole law but governed and qualified by the particular facts of the case in which such expressions are found and a case is only an authority for what it actually decides."

(emphasis supplied)

172. It would be apposite to refer to the following observations of the three-Judge Bench of the Supreme Court in Regional Manager and another v. Pawan Kumar Dubey26, wherein it was held that even a single fact could make a difference in conclusions drawn in two cases:

"7. ...It is the rule deducible from the application of law to the facts and circumstances of a case which constitutes its ratio decidendi and not some conclusion based upon facts which may appear to be similar. One additional or different fact can make a world of difference between conclusions in two cases even when the same principles are applied in each case to similar facts."

(emphasis supplied)

173. While deducing the ratio in a judgement, the Supreme Court in Delhi Airport Metro Express Private Limited v. Delhi Metro Rail Corporation27 held:

"35. This Court has held that the ratio decidendi is the rule deducible from the application of law to the facts and circumstances of a case which constitutes its ratio decidendi and not some conclusion based upon facts which may appear to be similar. It has been held that one additional or different fact can make a world of difference between conclusions in two cases even when the same principles are applied in each case to similar facts."

(emphasis supplied)

174. The process of deducing the ratio of the binding statement of law made in a judgment arose for consideration before the Supreme Court in Union of India and others v. Dhanwanti Devi and others28. Dhanwanti Devi (supra) after emphasizing the need to examine the established facts of a case and the principle of law on which the issue was decided, the law of precedents was encapsulated as under:

"9. Before adverting to and considering whether solatium and interest would be payable under the Act, at the outset, we will dispose of the objection raised by Shri Vaidyanathan that Hari Krishan Khosla case [1993 Supp (2) SCC 149] is not a binding precedent nor does it operate as ratio decidendi to be followed as a precedent and is per se per incuriam. It is not everything said by a Judge while giving judgment that constitutes a precedent. The only thing in a Judge's decision binding a party is the principle upon which the case is decided and for this reason it is important to analyse a decision and isolate from it the ratio decidendi. According to the well-settled theory of precedents, every decision contains three basic postulates—(i) findings of material facts, direct and inferential. An inferential finding of facts is the inference which the Judge draws from the direct, or perceptible facts; (ii) statements of the principles of law applicable to the legal problems disclosed by the facts; and (iii) judgment based on the combined effect of the above. A decision is only an authority for what it actually decides. What is of the essence in a decision is its ratio and not every observation found therein nor what logically follows from the various observations made in the judgment. Every judgment must be read as applicable to the particular facts proved, or assumed to be proved, since the generality of the expressions which may be found there is not intended to be exposition of the whole law, but governed and qualified by the particular facts of the case in which such expressions are to be found. It would, therefore, be not profitable to extract a sentence here and there from the judgment and to build upon it because the essence of the decision is its ratio and not every observation found therein. The enunciation of the reason or principle on which a question before a court has been decided is alone binding as a precedent. The concrete decision alone is binding between the parties to it, but it is the abstract ratio decidendi, ascertained on a consideration of the judgment in relation to the subject-matter of the decision, which alone has the force of law and which, when it is clear what it was, is binding. It is only the principle laid down in the judgment that is binding law under Article 141 of the Constitution. A deliberate judicial decision arrived at after hearing an argument on a question which arises in the case or is put in issue may constitute a precedent, no matter for what reason, and the precedent by long recognition may mature into rule of stare decisis. It is the rule deductible from the application of law to the facts and circumstances of the case which constitutes its *ratio decidendi.

10. Therefore, in order to understand and appreciate the binding force of a decision it is always necessary to see what were the facts in the case in which the decision was given and what was the point which had to be decided. No judgment can be read as if it is a statute. A word or a clause or a sentence in the judgment cannot be regarded as a full exposition of law. Law cannot afford to be static and therefore, Judges are to employ an intelligent technique in the use of precedents.

(emphasis supplied)

176. Deriving the ratio of a judgement arose for consideration in Islamic Academy Education and another v. State of Karnataka and others29 wherein the Supreme Court explained the process as follows:

"2. Most of the petitioners/applicants before us are unaided professional educational institutions (both minority and non-minority). On behalf of the petitioners/applicants it was submitted that the answers given to the questions, as set out at the end of the majority judgment, lay down the true ratio of the judgment. It was submitted that any observation made in the body of the judgment had to be read in the context of the answers given. We are unable to accept this submission. The answers to the questions, in the majority judgment in Pai case [(2002) 8 SCC 481] are merely a brief summation of the ratio laid down in the judgment. The ratio decidendi of a judgment has to be found out only on reading the entire judgment. In fact, the ratio of the judgment is what is set out in the judgment itself. The answer to the question would necessarily have to be read in the context of what is set out in the judgment and not in isolation. In case of any doubt as regards any observations, reasons and principles, the other part of the judgment has to be looked into. By reading a line here and there from the judgment, one cannot find out the entire ratio decidendi of the judgment. We, therefore, while giving our clarifications, are disposed to look into other parts of the judgment other than those portions which may be relied upon.

139. A judgment, it is trite, is not to be read as a statute. The ratio decidendi of a judgment is its reasoning which can be deciphered only upon reading the same in its entirety. The ratio decidendi of a case or the principles and reasons on which it is based is distinct from the relief finally granted or the manner adopted for its disposal. (See Executive Engineer, Dhenkanal Minor Irrigation Division v. N.C. Budharaj [(2001) 2 SCC 721] .

143. It will not, therefore, be correct to contend, as has been contended by Mr Nariman, that answers to the questions would be the ratio to a judgment. The answers to the questions are merely conclusions. They have to be interpreted, in a case of doubt or dispute with the reasons assigned in support thereof in the body of the judgment, wherefor, it would be essential to read the other paragraphs of the judgment also. It is also permissible for this purpose (albeit only in certain cases and if there exist strong and cogent reasons) to look to the pleadings of the parties.

146. The judgment of this Court in T.M.A. Pai Foundation [(2002) 8 SCC 481] will, therefore, have to be construed or to be interpreted on the aforementioned principles. The Court cannot read some sentences from here and there to find out the intent and purport of the decision by not only considering what has been said therein but the text and context in which it was said. For the said purpose the Court may also consider the constitutional or relevant statutory provisions vis-à-vis its earlier decisions on which reliance has been placed."

(emphasis supplied)

177. Ratio decidendi of a judgement alone constituted the law declared in a judgment rendered by the Supreme Court and the method to cull out the ratio from a judgement in Natural Resources Allocation, In Re, Special Reference No.1 of 201230 was restated after referencing good authorities in point:

"69. Article 141 of the Constitution lays down that the "law declared" by the Supreme Court is binding upon all the courts within the territory of India. The "law declared" has to be construed as a principle of law that emanates from a judgment, or an interpretation of a law or judgment by the Supreme Court, upon which, the case is decided. (See Fida Hussain v. Moradabad Development Authority [(2011) 12 SCC 615 : (2012) 2 SCC (Civ) 762] .) Hence, it flows from the above that the "law declared" is the principle culled out on the reading of a judgment as a whole in light of the questions raised, upon which the case is decided. [Also see Ambica Quarry Works v. State of Gujarat [(1987) 1 SCC 213] and CIT v. Sun Engg. Works (P) Ltd. [(1992) 4 SCC 363]] In other words, the "law declared" in a judgment, which is binding upon courts, is the ratio decidendi of the judgment. It is the essence of a decision and the principle upon which the case is decided which has to be ascertained in relation to the subject-matter of the decision.

70. Each case entails a different set of facts and a decision is a precedent on its own facts; not everything said by a Judge while giving a judgment can be ascribed precedential value. The essence of a decision that binds the parties to the case is the principle upon which the case is decided and for this reason, it is important to analyse a decision and cull out from it the ratio decidendi. In the matter of applying precedents, the erudite Justice Benjamin Cardozo in The Nature of the Judicial Process, had said that "if the Judge is to pronounce it wisely, some principles of selection there must be to guide him among all the potential judgments that compete for recognition" and "almost invariably his first step is to examine and compare them;" "it is a process of search, comparison and little more" and ought not to be akin to matching "the colors of the case at hand against the colors of many sample cases" because in that case "the man who had the best card index of the cases would also be the wisest Judge". Warning against comparing precedents with matching colours of one case with another, he summarised the process, in case the colours do not match, in the following wise words:

"It is when the colors do not match, when the references in the index fail, when there is no decisive precedent, that the serious business of the Judge begins. He must then fashion law for the litigants before him. In fashioning it for them, he will be fashioning it for others. The classic statement is Bacon's: 'For many times, the things deduced to judgment may be meum and tuum, when the reason and consequence thereof may trench to point of estate. The sentence of today will make the right and wrong of tomorrow."

73. It is also important to read a judgment as a whole keeping in mind that it is not an abstract academic discourse with universal applicability, but heavily grounded in the facts and circumstances of the case. Every part of a judgment is intricately linked to others constituting a larger whole and thus, must be read keeping the logical thread intact.

(emphasis supplied)

178. The process of deciphering the ratio of decidendi in a judgement was elaborated in Sanjay Singh and another v. U.P. Public Service Commission, Allahabad and another31 in the following terms :

"10. The contention of the Commission also overlooks the fundamental difference between challenge to the final order forming part of the judgment and challenge to the ratio decidendi of the judgment. Broadly speaking, every judgment of superior courts has three segments, namely, (i) the facts and the point at issue; (ii) the reasons for the decision; and (iii) the final order containing the decision. The reasons for the decision or the ratio decidendi is not the final order containing the decision. In fact, in a judgment of this Court, though the ratio decidendi may point to a particular result, the decision (final order relating to relief) may be different and not a natural consequence of the ratio decidendi of the judgment. This may happen either on account of any subsequent event or the need to mould the relief to do complete justice in the matter. It is the ratio decidendi of a judgment and not the final order in the judgment, which forms a precedent. The term "judgment" and "decision" are used, rather loosely, to refer to the entire judgment or the final order or the ratio decidendi of a judgment. Rupa Ashok Hurra [(2002) 4 SCC 388] is of course, an authority for the proposition that a petition under Article 32 would not be maintainable to challenge or set aside or quash the final order contained in a judgment of this Court. It does not lay down a proposition that the ratio decidendi of any earlier decision cannot be examined or differed in another case. Where violation of a fundamental right of a citizen is alleged in a petition under Article 32, it cannot be dismissed, as not maintainable, merely because it seeks to distinguish or challenge the ratio decidendi of an earlier judgment, except where it is between the same parties and in respect of the same cause of action. Where a legal issue raised in a petition under Article 32 is covered by a decision of this Court, the Court may dismiss the petition following the ratio decidendi of the earlier decision. Such dismissal is not on the ground of "maintainability" but on the ground that the issue raised is not tenable, in view of the law laid down in the earlier decision. But if the Court is satisfied that the issue raised in the later petition requires consideration and in that context the earlier decision requires re-examination, the Court can certainly proceed to examine the matter (or refer the matter to a larger Bench, if the earlier decision is not of a smaller Bench). When the issue is re-examined and a view is taken different from the one taken earlier, a new ratio is laid down. When the ratio decidendi of the earlier decision undergoes such change, the final order of the earlier decision as applicable to the parties to the earlier decision, is in no way altered or disturbed. Therefore, the contention that a writ petition under Article 32 is barred or not maintainable with reference to an issue which is the subject-matter of an earlier decision, is rejected."

(emphasis supplied)

179. The need to study the whole judgment in light of facts and circumstances of a case, and to avoid cherry picking select facts was essential while determining the precedential value of a decision as held by the Supreme Court in Commissioner of Income Tax v. Sun Engineering Works (P) Ltd.32:

"39. ...Such an interpretation would be reading that judgment totally out of context in which the questions arose for decision in that case. It is neither desirable nor permissible to pick out a word or a sentence from the judgment of this Court, divorced from the context of the question under consideration and treat it to be the complete 'law' declared by this Court. The judgment must be read as a whole and the observations from the judgment have to be considered in the light of the questions which were before this Court. A decision of this Court takes its colour from the questions involved in the case in which it is rendered and while applying the decision to a later case, the courts must carefully try to ascertain the true principle laid down by the decision of this Court and not to pick out words or sentences from the judgment, divorced from the context of the questions under consideration by this Court, to support their reasonings."

(emphasis supplied)

180. The dictum of law that the ratio of a decision must be understood in the facts situation of a case and that a judgment is an authority for what it actually decides and not what logically follows from it was reiterated by the Supreme Court in Ambica Quarry Works and others v. State of Gujarat and others33:

"18...The ratio of any decision must be understood in the background of the facts of that case. It has been said long time ago that a case is only an authority for what it actually decides, and not what logically follows from it."

(emphasis supplied)

181. The Supreme Court in Prakash Amichand Shah v. State of Gujarat and others34 cautioned that a judgement is not a statute, and underscored the need to carefully ascertain the true principles laid down by the previous decision and outlined when decisions are liable to be disregarded:

"26. Before embarking upon the examination of these decisions we should bear in mind that what is under consideration is not a statute or a legislation but a decision of the court. A decision ordinarily is a decision on the case before the court while the principle underlying the decision would be binding as a precedent in a case which comes up for decision subsequently. Hence while applying the decision to a later case, the court which is dealing with it should carefully try to ascertain the true principle laid down by the previous decision. A decision often takes its colour from the questions involved in the case in which it is rendered. The scope and authority of a precedent should never be expanded unnecessarily beyond the needs of a given situation.

31. Expressions like "virtually overruled" or "in substance overruled" are expressions of inexactitude. In such circumstances, it is the duty of a Constitution Bench of this Court which has to consider the effect of the precedent in question to read it over again and to form its own opinion instead of wholly relying upon the gloss placed on it in some other decisions. It is significant that none of the learned judges who decided the subsequent cases has held that the Act had become void on account of any constitutional infirmity. They allowed the Act to remain in force and the State Governments concerned have continued to implement the provisions of the Act. What cannot be overlooked is that the decision in Shantilal Mangaldas case [(1969) 1 SCC 509 : AIR 1969 SC 634 : (1969) 3 SCR 341] was quoted in extenso with approval and relied on by the very same judge while deciding the Bank Nationalisation case [(1970) 1 SCC 248 : AIR 1970 SC 564 : (1970) 3 SCR 530] . He may have arrived at an incorrect or contradictory conclusion in striking down the Bank Nationalisation Act. The result achieved by him in the subsequent case may be wholly wrong but it cannot have any effect on the efficacy of the decision in Shantilal Mangaldas case [(1969) 1 SCC 509 : AIR 1969 SC 634 : (1969) 3 SCR 341]

. An inappropriate purpose for which a precedent is used at a later date does not take away its binding character as a precedent. In such cases there is good reason to disregard the later decision. Such occasions in judicial history are not rare."

(emphasis supplied)

182. The Supreme Court in Delhi Administration in the NCT of Delhi v. Manohar Lal35 reiterated the need to find out the ratio of a decision and cautioned against following decisions which do not lay down any principle of law:

"5. The High Court and all other courts in the country were no doubt ordained to follow and apply the law declared by this Court, but that does not absolve them of the obligation and responsibility to find out the ratio of the decision and ascertain the law, if any, so declared from a careful reading of the decision concerned and only thereafter proceed to apply it appropriately, to the cases before them. Considered in that context, we could not find from the decisions reported in Sukumaran [(1997) 9 SCC 101 : 1997 SCC (Cri) 608] and Santosh Kumar [(2000) 9 SCC 151 : 2000 SCC (Cri) 1184 : 2000 Cri LJ 2777] any law having been declared or any principle or question of law having been decided or laid down therein and that in those cases this Court merely proceeded to give certain directions to dispose of the matter in the special circumstances noticed by it and the need felt, in those cases, by this Court to give such a disposal. The same could not have been mechanically adopted as a general formula to dispose of, as a matter of routine, all cases coming before any or all the courts as a universal and invariable solution in all such future cases also."

(emphasis supplied)

184. The need to ascertain the principle of law in a judgement and caution against unnecessary expansion of the scope and authority of the precedent was restated by the Supreme Court in Divisional Controller, KSRTC v. Mahadeva Shetty36 :

"23. So far as Nagesha case [(1997) 8 SCC 349] relied upon by the claimant is concerned, it is only to be noted that the decision does not indicate the basis for fixing of the quantum as a lump sum was fixed by the Court. The decision ordinarily is a decision on the case before the court, while the principle underlying the decision would be binding as a precedent in a case which comes up for decision subsequently. Therefore, while applying the decision to a later case, the court dealing with it should carefully try to ascertain the principle laid down by the previous decision. A decision often takes its colour from the question involved in the case in which it is rendered. The scope and authority of a precedent should never be expanded unnecessarily beyond the needs of a given situation. The only thing binding as an authority upon a subsequent Judge is the principle upon which the case was decided. Statements which are not part of the ratio decidendi are distinguished as obiter dicta and are not authoritative. The task of finding the principle is fraught with difficulty as without an investigation into the facts, it cannot be assumed whether a similar direction must or ought to be made as a measure of social justice. Precedents sub silentio and without argument are of no moment. Mere casual expressions carry no weight at all, nor every passing expression of a Judge, however eminent, can be treated as an ex cathedra statement having the weight of authority."

(emphasis supplied)

186. A blind reliance on judgments without considering the fact situation was disapproved in Ashwani Kumar Singh v. U.P. Public Service Commission and others37:

"10. Courts should not place reliance on decisions without discussing as to how the factual situation fits in with the fact situation of the decision on which reliance is placed. Observations of courts are not to be read as Euclid's theorems nor as provisions of the statute. These observations must be read in the context in which they appear. Judgments of courts are not to be construed as statutes. To interpret words, phrases and provisions of a statute, it may become necessary for Judges to embark upon lengthy discussions, but the discussion is meant to explain and not to define. Judges interpret statutes, they do not interpret judgments. They interpret words of statutes; their words are not to be interpreted as statutes. In London Graving Dock Co. Ltd. v. Horton [1951 AC 737 : (1951) 2 All ER 1 (HL)] (AC at p. 761) Lord McDermott observed : (All ER p. 14 C-D)

"The matter cannot, of course, be settled merely by treating the ipsissima verba of Willes, J., as though they were part of an Act of Parliament and applying the rules of interpretation appropriate thereto. This is not to detract from the great weight to be given to the language actually used by that most distinguished Judge…."

11. In Home Office v. Dorset Yacht Co. [(1970) 2 All ER 294 : 1970 AC 1004 : (1970) 2 WLR 1140 (HL)] Lord Reid said, "Lord Atkin's speech … is not to be treated as if it were a statutory definition. It will require qualification in new circumstances" (All ER p. 297g-h). Megarry, J. in Shepherd Homes Ltd. v. Sandham (No. 2) [(1971) 1 WLR 1062 : (1971) 2 All ER 1267] observed : (All ER p. 1274d-e) "One must not, of course, construe even a reserved judgment of even Russell, L.J. as if it were an Act of Parliament;" In Herrington v. British Rlys. Board [(1972) 2 WLR 537 : (1972) 1 All ER 749 : 1972 AC 877 (HL)] Lord Morris said : (All ER p. 761c)

"There is always peril in treating the words of a speech or a judgment as though they were words in a legislative enactment, and it is to be remembered that judicial utterances are made in the setting of the facts of a particular case."

12. Circumstantial flexibility, one additional or different fact may make a world of difference between conclusions in two cases. Disposal of cases by blindly placing reliance on a decision is not proper."

(emphasis supplied)

187. The ratio decidendi was distinguished from the obiter dicta in Director of Settlement, A.P. and others v. M.R. Apparao and another38 as under:

"7. So far as the first question is concerned, Article 141 of the Constitution unequivocally indicates that the law declared by the Supreme Court shall be binding on all courts within the territory of India. The aforesaid Article empowers the Supreme Court to declare the law. It is, therefore, an essential function of the Court to interpret a legislation. The statements of the Court on matters other than law like facts may have no binding force as the facts of two cases may not be similar. But what is binding is the ratio of the decision and not any finding of facts. It is the principle found out upon a reading of a judgment as a whole, in the light of the questions before the Court that forms the ratio and not any particular word or sentence. To determine whether a decision has "declared law" it cannot be said to be a law when a point is disposed of on concession and what is binding is the principle underlying a decision. A judgment of the Court has to be read in the context of questions which arose for consideration in the case in which the judgment was delivered. An "obiter dictum" as distinguished from a ratio decidendi is an observation by the Court on a legal question suggested in a case before it but not arising in such manner as to require a decision. Such an obiter may not have a binding precedent as the observation was unnecessary for the decision pronounced, but even though an obiter may not have a binding effect as a precedent, but it cannot be denied that it is of considerable weight. The law which will be binding under Article 141 would, therefore, extend to all observations of points raised and decided by the Court in a given case. So far as constitutional matters are concerned, it is a practice of the Court not to make any pronouncement on points not directly raised for its decision. The decision in a judgment of the Supreme Court cannot be assailed on the ground that certain aspects were not considered or the relevant provisions were not brought to the notice of the Court (see Ballabhadas Mathurdas Lakhani v. Municipal Committee, Malkapur [(1970) 2 SCC 267 : AIR 1970 SC 1002] and AIR 1973 SC 794 [(sic)]). When the Supreme Court decides a principle it would be the duty of the High Court or a subordinate court to follow the decision of the Supreme Court. A judgment of the High Court which refuses to follow the decision and directions of the Supreme Court or seeks to revive a decision of the High Court which had been set aside by the Supreme Court is a nullity. (See Narinder Singh v. Surjit Singh [(1984) 2 SCC 402] and Kausalya Devi Bogra v. Land Acquisition Officer [(1984) 2 SCC 324] .) We have to answer the first question bearing in mind the aforesaid guiding principles. We may refer to some of the decisions cited by Mr Rao in elaborating his arguments contending that the judgment of this Court dated 6-2-1986 [State of A.P. v. Rajah of Venkatagiri, (2002) 4 SCC 660] cannot be held to be a law declared by the Court within the ambit of Article 141 of the Constitution. Mr Rao relied upon the judgment of this Court in the case of M.S.M. Sharma v. Sri Krishna Sinha [AIR 1959 SC 395 : 1959 Supp (1) SCR 806] wherein the power and privilege of the State Legislature and the fundamental right of freedom of speech and expression including the freedom of the press was the subject-matter of consideration. In the aforesaid judgment it has been observed by the Court that the decision in Gunupati Keshavram Reddy v. Nafisul Hasan [(1952) 1 SCC 343 : AIR 1954 SC 536 : 1954 Cri LJ 1704] relied upon by the counsel for the petitioner which entirely proceeded on a concession of the counsel cannot be regarded as a considered opinion on the subject. There is no dispute with the aforesaid proposition of law."

(emphasis supplied)

191. Gasket Radiator Pvt. Ltd. v. Employees' State Insurance Corporation and another39 rendered by the Supreme Court highlighted the importance of not construing judgments as statutes held thus:

"8. ….We once again have to reiterate what we were forced to point out in Amar Nath Om Prakash v. State of Punjab [(1985) 1 SCC 345 : 1985 SCC (Tax) 92 : AIR 1985 SC 218] that judgments of courts are not to be construed as Acts of Parliament. Nor can we read a judgment on a particular aspect of a question as a Holy Book covering all aspects of every question whether such questions and facets of such questions arose for consideration or not in that case."

(emphasis supplied)

192. In Sreenivasa General Traders and others v. State of Andhra Pradesh and others40, the Supreme Court explained the concept of binding precedents and expounded that observations in a judgment which were not necessary for the purpose of the decision are not binding precedents:

"30. In the ultimate analysis, the Court held in Kewal Krishan Puri case [(1980) 1 SCC 416 : AIR 1980 SC 1008 : (1979) 3 SCR 1217] that so long as the concept of fee remains distinct and limited in contrast to tax, such expenditure of the amounts recovered by the levy of a market fee cannot be countenanced in law. A case is an authority only for what it actually decides and not for what may logically follow from it. Every judgment must be read as applicable to the particular facts proved, or assumed to be proved, since the generality of the expressions which may be found there are not intended to be expositions of the whole law but governed or qualified by the particular facts of the case in which such expressions are to be found. It would appear that there are certain observations to be found in the judgment in Kewal Krishan Puri case [(1980) 1 SCC 416 : AIR 1980 SC 1008 : (1979) 3 SCR 1217] which were really not necessary for purposes of the decision and go beyond the occasion and therefore they have no binding authority though they may have merely persuasive value. The observation made therein seeking to quantify the extent of correlation between the amount of fee collected and the cost of rendition of service, namely: (SCC p. 435, para 23) "At least a good and substantial portion of the amount collected on account of fees, maybe in the neighbourhood of two-thirds or three-fourths, must be shown with reasonable certainty as being spent for rendering services in the market to the payer of fee", appears to be an obiter."

(emphasis supplied)

195. The Supreme Court in Government of India v. Workmen and State Trading Corporation and others41 opined that a decision which does not set out the facts or the reasons for the conclusion given cannot be treated as a binding precedent and held:

"4. ….The decision of this Court is virtually a non-speaking order which does not set out the facts and the circumstances in which the direction came to be issued against the Government. It is not clear as to what was the connection between the respondent-Corporation and the State Government. In the present case the Government of India had clearly averred that it had nothing to do with the State Trading Corporation and there was no relationship of master and servant between the petitioners and the Government of India and, therefore, the Government of India was not in any manner concerned with the closure of the Leather Garment unit of the State Trading Corporation and the consequences thereof. Mr Usgaocar rightly emphasised that the decision on which the High Court had relied could not be treated as a precedent and in support of this contention he drew our attention to a Constitution Bench judgment in the case of *Krishena Kumar v. Union of India [(1990) 4 SCC 207 : 1991 SCC (L&S) 112 : (1990) 14 ATC 846 : AIR 1990 SC 1782 : JT (1990)

3 SC 173] . In paras 18 and 19 the question as to when a decision can have binding effect has been dealt with. We need say no more as it is obvious from the decision relied on that it does not set out the facts or the reason for the conclusion or direction given. It can, therefore, not be treated as a binding precedent."

(emphasis supplied)

219. The process of distilling the ratio in a judgment is a deliberative process governed by a long line of legal precedents. It is the duty of all Courts (including trial courts and tribunals) to cull out the ratio of a judgement in light of the cases in point before following it as a binding precedent. The first step in isolating the ratio of a judgment requires a full reading of the judgment. The material facts and the legal issues in the controversy have to be then ascertained from the judgement as a whole. Finally the principle of law on which the decision was rendered on the subject matter under consideration has to be identified. The said statement of law so extracted is the binding precedent in the said judgement. Courts have to observe the caution of not picking up stray facts or observations and apply them mechanically or out of context as binding precedents."

VII. Conclusions & Directions:

38. In light of the law laid down by the Full Bench of this Court in Chandrapal Singh (supra), it can be safely stated that the directions contained in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) are not binding judicial authority for determination of the victim's age by the competent medical authority under Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act. Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) does not restrain the police authorities investigating POCSO Act offences to get the victim's age determined by the competent medical authority. Infact the police authorities while investigating POCSO Act offences are bound to comply with the judgement of this Court rendered in Aman (supra) wherein Section 164-A of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act squarely arose for consideration in the facts of POCSO Act offences. During investigations of POCSO Act offences violation of the statutory mandate of Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of POCSO Act and non compliance of the directions of this court in Aman (supra) are liable to be viewed seriously and cannot be justified on the basis of Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra).

39. In wake of the preceding discussion, the following directions are issued:

I) The judgement of this Court in Pradeep Kumar Chauhan (supra) is not applicable to POCSO Act offences. The police authorities/investigation officers are directed to strictly comply with the directions of this Court in Aman (supra) and ensure that the medical report determining the age of the victim is drawn up by the competent medical authority at the commencement of the investigations of POCSO Act offences in accordance with the provisions of the Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act.

II) The medical report of the victim determining her age and drawn up under Section 164-A Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act shall be produced by the police authorities/investigation officers before the court hearing the bail application. The learned courts while hearing bail applications shall make due enquiries about the compliance of these directions and Aman (supra) during the bail proceedings.

III) The judgement of this Court rendered in Monish (supra), Aman (supra) as well as this case have to be read together and not in isolation. The directions in Aman (supra) as well as this case will be of little avail, if not examined and implemented in light of the directions made in Monish (supra).

IV) The age of the victim in bails arising out of POCSO Act offences has been determined by a composite reading of Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act and Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act in light of the judgements rendered in Monish (supra), Aman (supra) and this case.

V) The court hearing the bail application has to accord full weight to the medical age determination report of the victim and also carefully examine all other documents relating to the victim's age. The court has to determine the credibility of the respective age related documents while deciding the bail application in the facts of the case. In appropriate facts and circumstances as in the instant case, the age determined by the competent medical authority under Section 164-A of Cr.P.C. read with Section 27 of the POCSO Act can prevail over other age related documents (including school records).

VIII. Order on Bail Application:

40. Shri Paritosh Kumar Malviya, learned A.G.A.-I for the State contends that the police authorities in compliance of the directions issued by this Court in Junaid Vs State of U.P. and another42 and with a view to implement the provisions of POCSO Act, 2012 read with POCSO Rules, 2020, have served the bail application upon the victim/legal guardian as well as upon the CWC.

41. By means of this bail application the applicant has prayed to be enlarged on bail in Case Crime No.622 of 2022 at Police Station-Kotwali Orai, District-Jalaun under Sections 363, 366, 376(3) IPC and Section 3/4(2) of POCSO Act. The applicant is in jail since 05.08.2023.

42. The interim bail of the applicant was granted by this Court on 08.05.2024.

43. The following arguments made by Shri Samshuzzaman, learned counsel holding brief of Shri Fakhruzzaman, learned counsel on behalf of the applicant, which could not be satisfactorily refuted by Shri Paritosh Kumar Malviya, learned A.G.A.-I from the record, entitle the applicant for grant of bail:

I. The victim was wrongly shown as a minor of 12 years in the F.I.R. only to falsely implicate the applicant under the stringent provisions of the POCSO Act and cause his imprisonment.

. II.The age of the victim set out in the prosecution case is refuted in light of the judgement of this Court in Monish (supra) and on the following grounds:

(a) There are material contradictions in the age of the victim as recorded in various prosecution documents.

(b) The age of the victim was incorrectly got registered in the school records by the victim's parents to give her an advantage in life. There is no lawful basis for the age related entry of the victim in the school records. The school records disclosing her age as 13 years and 2 months are unreliable.

(c) The victim in her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. has stated that she is 15 years of age respectively.

(d) The medical report sent by the Chief Medical Officer, Jalaun to determine the age of the victim opines that she is 18 years of age.

(e) There is a margin of error of two years in medical reports determining the age, which has to be read in favour of the applicant.

III. Delay in lodgement of the F.I.R. in the facts of this case is fatal to the prosecution case.

IV. The victim and the applicant were intimate.

V. The F.I.R. is the result of opposition of the victim's family to the said relationship with the applicant.

VI. The victim in her statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. and Section 164 Cr.P.C. has admitted to intimacy with the applicant and that she eloped with the applicant to Delhi and thereon to Faridabad. The victim has stated that she had consensual physical relations with the applicant. The victim in her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. has further added that she has got married to the applicant.

VII. The victim has not made any allegation of commission of rape, wrongful detention or forceful assault against the applicant in her statements under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. and 164 Cr.P.C.

VIII. Major inconsistencies in the statements of the victim under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. and Section 164 Cr.P.C., as well as the recitals in the F.I.R. discredit the prosecution case.

IX. The victim was never confined or bound down. She was present at various public places but never resisted the applicant nor raised an alarm. Her conduct shows that she was a consenting party.

X. Medical evidence to corroborate commission of rape by the applicant with the victim has not been produced by the prosecution.

XI. The applicant does not have any criminal history apart from the instant case.

XII. The applicant is not a flight risk. The applicant being a law abiding citizen has always cooperated with the investigation and undertakes to join the trial proceedings. There is no possibility of his influencing witnesses, tampering with the evidence or reoffending.

44. In the light of the preceding discussion and without making any observations on the merits of the case, the bail application is allowed.

45. Let the applicant- Anurudh be released on bail in the aforesaid case crime number, on furnishing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the court below. The following conditions be imposed in the interest of justice:-

(i) The applicant will not tamper with the evidence or influence any witness during the trial.

(ii) The applicant will appear before the trial court on the date fixed, unless personal presence is exempted.

46. The learned trial court is directed to fix the sureties after due application of mind in light of the judgement rendered by this Court in Arvind Singh v. State of U.P. Thru. Prin. Secy. Home Deptt.43.

The learned trial court shall ensure that the right of bail of the applicant granted by this Court is not frustrated by arbitrary demands of sureties or onerous conditions which are unrelated to the socioeconomic status of the applicant.

47. Photostat copy of the medical report drawn up by the Chief Medical Officer to determine the age of the victim shall be duly attested and retained by the Registry as part of the records of the Court.

The original medical report, if any, shall be returned to the concerned Chief Judicial Magistrate for onward transmission to the concerned Investigating Officer.

IX. Post Script and Directions:

48. Lack of compliance of the directions of this Court rendered in Monish (supra) and lately Aman (supra) by the trial courts while deciding bail applications under the POCSO Act is being noticed regularly. This approach of trial courts is resulting in repeated miscarriages of justice as in this case. A list of some cases by way of exemplars is appended as Appendix-Ii.

49. The following facts are common in each case listed in the appendix-I:

i). The medical report determining the age of the victim opines that she is 18 years (or above).

ii). There are contradictions in age related documents of the victim available with the prosecution.

iii). The victim in her statements under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. and 164 Cr.P.C. has admitted to intimacy and consensual physical relations with the accused. As per the said statements of the victim, she had eloped with the accused. (In some cases the couple had got married).

iv). The victim has not made any allegation of abduction, wrongful detention, rape or inappropriate sexual behaviour against the accused in her statements under Sections 161 Cr.P.C. and 164 Cr.P.C.

v). The victim was never confined or bound down. The victim was present at various places, but never raised an alarm and did not resist the accused. Her conduct showed that she was a consenting party.

vi). Medical report to corroborate rape or forceful assault was not produced by the prosecution.

vii). All the aforesaid bails (Appendix I) were dismissed by the learned trial courts.

50. This Court regrets to say that in the said cases the learned trial courts have rejected all the bail applications in a mechanical manner without proper consideration of relevant facts in the record and in contravention of law laid down in Monish (supra).

51. The said orders (Appendix-I) show that regardless of the facts of a case there was a bias in the institution44 (trial courts) towards rejection of bail applications. Hundred percent dismissal of the said bail applications is reflective of “bias” and not divergent judicial opinions which come in the category of “noise”45. The issue needs to be examined and the failings of the learned trial courts have to be addressed by various stakeholders i.e. the learned trial courts, the learned Districts Judges and the Judicial Training & Research Institute, Lucknow, Utrar Pradesh. The culture or if one may say the mindset of the learned trial judges (collectively speaking) that dismissal of bails in POCSO Act offences irrespective of the facts and circumstances of the case is the only way to show one's integrity and a fail safe way of discharging judicial functions has to change. This can achieved by regular training at the JTRI which is consistently reinforced at the district judgeships in the "Continuous Learning Programmes" being run in the district judgeships. Needless to add, the observations made in this order shall not operate adversely against the judicial officers who had handed down the said orders. The issue has to seen less as an individual infirmity but more as an institutional inadequacy.

52. There is an urgent need for the Judicial Training & Research Institute, Lucknow, Utrar Pradesh and all learned District Judges to study the aforesaid systemic faults in depth, and create appropriate training programmes for the learned POCSO judges and to sensitize them for fair administration of justice in bails arising out of POCSO Act offences.

53. The High Court too has a responsibility in this regard. The supervisory jurisdiction of the High Court under Article 227 of the Constitution of India and also the appellate and revisional jurisdictions possessed by this Court have to be exercised with care and caution. By virtue of Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the High Court is the guardian court of the district judgeships. When challenge is laid to a judgment of a trial court before the High Court, the correctness of the impugned judgement is examined by this Court. To correct an error in a judgment one need not condemn the judge. For in the latter case it is often not clear whether the judgment is in appeal or the judge is on trial. The High Court as a benign guardian has to be a pillar of strength and not a source of fear for the trial judiciary. A solemn obligation is cast by the Constitution on the High Court to nurture the autonomy of the trial judges to enable them to act independently and to build the capacity of the trial judges to judge fairly and to foster the esteem of the trial judges to fortify the citizens' faith in the judiciary.

54. Registry is directed to send this order as well as the judgment of this Court rendered in Aman (supra) to the learned Government Advocate for communication to the Director General of Police, Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh, Director General (Prosecution), Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh and other police authorities for necessary action.

55. Registry is also directed to send a copy of this order to the Director, Judicial Training & Research Institute, Lucknow, Utrar Pradesh and learned District Judges for necessary action.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1956
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 9640 of 2023

Irshad Ahmad ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Vaibhav Kalia, Vidhu Bhushan Kalia

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 164 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections – 376, 354, 504 & 506 - The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 – Sections 3, 4, 7 & 8 - The Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 - Sectiosn – 1(w), 3(1), (Dha) & 3(2)(v) - Information Technology Act, 2000 - Section - 67 - Application for Bail – first Bial Application – rejected – Second Bial Application – on the ground that, applicant is languishing in jail since long time – there is decisive contradictions in the story alleged by the prosecution – victim is a major lady but in the FIR her age has been indicated as 17 years – court finds that, - mere long detention in jail does not entitle an accused for bail – prosecutrix was aged about 17 years – if the entire St.ment recorded u/s 164 Crpc is read, the fact would emerge that she has levelled specific allegation of rape against the present applicant – hence, considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, the bail application is rejected – direction issued to trial court for conclude the trial within a period of six months accordingly – however, liberty is also given to the applicant to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the stipulated time. (Para – 20, 21, 29, 30)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. P. Yuvaprakash Vs St. Rep. By Inspector of Police reported in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 538,

2. Rajesh Ranjan Yadav Vs CBI through its Director, (2007) 1 SCC 70,

3. St. of H.P. Vs Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766,

4. Ganesan Vs St. represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573,

5. Vijay Vs St. of M.P. (2010) 8 SCC 191,

6. St. of Mah. Vs Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550,

7. St. of U.P. Vs Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594,

8. St. of Punj. Vs Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384,

9. St. of Orissa Vs Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86,

10. Phool Singh Vs St. of M. P., (2022) 2 SCC 74,

11. Sham Singh Vs St. of Har., (2018) 18 SCC 34,

12. Krishan Kumar Malik Vs St. of Har., (2011) 7 SCC 130.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vaibhav Kalia, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri G.D. Bhatt, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State.

2. Despite the service of notice upon opposite party No.2, no one has appeared on behalf of opposite party No.2. As a matter of fact, no one has appeared on behalf of opposite party No.2 on any date.

3. This is the second bail application as the first bail application bearing Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.5158 of 2022; Irshad Ahmad vs. State of U.P. & others; has been rejected vide order dated 30.11.2022 passed by Hon'ble Dinesh Kumar Singh, J. The order dated 30.11.2022 reads as under:-

"1. Heard learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Ran Vijay Singh, learned A.G.A. and perused the record.

2. The present application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicant Irshad Ahmad seeking bail in FIR/ Case Crime No.-247 of 2021 under section-376, 354, 504, 506 I.P.C. & Section- (1)(w), 3(1)(Dha), 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act and section 3/4 and section 7/8 POCSO

Act and section 67, I.T. Act, Police Station-Pachpedwa District- Balrampur.

3. The allegation against the accused-applicant is of committing rape on the prosecutrix, who is 17 years old girl and a student of Class XI. It is further alleged that the accused-applicant had made some video-clips and clicked indecent photographs of the victim without clothes and sent these indecent photographs on Whatsapp to other persons. The accused-applicant was not allowing the prosecutrix to get married and blackmailing her on the basis of alleged photographs and video-clips. The prosecutrix in her statements recorded under sections 161 and 164, Cr.P.C. has specifically alleged that the accused-applicant raped her and clicked the photo and video-slips and threatened her that if she would tell anybody about the incident, he shall make the video viral and would not allow her to marry anyone else. When the prosecutrix told the incident to her parents, the parents went to the house of the accused-applicant, however, the brothers of the prosecutrix ran them away.

4. Considering the nature of allegations against the accused-applicant and the stand of the prosecutrix in her statements recorded under section 161 and 164, Cr.P.C. this court does not deem it appropriate to enlarge the accused-applicant on bail at this stage and, therefore, the bail application is rejected.

5. The accused-applicant may revive the bail plea after the prosecutrix gets examined in the court.

6. The trial court should make endeavour to record the statements of the prosecutrix and other witnesses of fact expeditiously, preferably within a period of six months.

7. Let a copy of this order be transmitted to the learned trial court for necessary compliance."

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has stated that despite the specific direction being issued by this Court on 30.11.2022 (supra) to record the evidence of the prosecutrix and other witnesses of fact within a period of six months but those statements have not been recorded within time so stipulated.

5. As per learned counsel for the applicant, the present applicant (Irshad Ahmad) is languishing in jail since 28.12.2021 in Case Crime /F.I.R. No.247 of 2021, under Sections 376, 354, 504 & 506 I.P.C. and Section 3 (1) (w) (i), 3 (1) (Dha) & 3 (2) (v) of S.C./S.T. Act and Section 3/4 and 7/8 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act (in short POCSO Act) and Section 67 of Information Technology Act, Police Station-Pachpedwa, District-Balrampur.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has stated that he shall not address those grounds which have already been considered by this Court while rejecting the first bail application but shall address only those grounds which have emerged after recording of the statement of the prosecutrix and other witnesses.

7. Precisely, the fact of the present case have been narrated in para-3 of order dated 30.11.2022 (supra).

8. Attention has been drawn towards the supplementary affidavit dated 02.05.2024 showing Annexure Nos.SA-1, SA-2, SA-3, SA-4 & SA-5, which are the statements of PW-1 (Arjun Kumar Valmiki), PW-2 (Prosecutrix), PW-3 (Seema Devi), PW-4 (Rajesh Kumar Singh, Principal) & PW-5 (Dr. Mahikriti Sishodia) .

9. Learned counsel for the applicant has stated that if the aforesaid statements are perused, the fact would emerge that there are relevant decisive contradictions in the story alleged by the prosecution.

10. As per learned counsel for the applicant, the victim is a major lady but in the F.I.R., her age has been indicated as 17 years.

11. Sri Kalia has submitted that in the F.I.R. and in her statement the prosecutrix has stated that she is studying in Lokmanya Tilak Inter College, Panchpedwa in Class-X whereas the Principal of the said institution Sri Rajesh Kumar Singh has been examined as PW-4 has stated that the date of birth of the prosecutrix is 20.05.2004 and she was a regular student of his institution till Class-X and got admission in Class-XI but on account of non-deposition of fee for Class-XI and for being regular absent her name was struck off from the roll of regular student on 19.10.2021, thereafter, she did not get admission again in the institution. Therefore, as per Sri Kalia, on the alleged date of incident i.e. 20.12.2021 she was not a bonafide/ legal student of the institution in question.

12. Sri Kalia has also drawn attention of this Court towards the evidence of Dr. Mahikriti Sishodia, the Medical Officer, District Hospital, Balrampur (PW-5) recorded on 17.10.2023 wherein she has stated that she had internally examined the prosecutrix on 27.12.2021 and as per examination it was found that her hymen was torn and the hymen may likely to torn if any girl drives Cycle, plays some field games or does the hard-work. As per her examination, there was no evidence of rape.

13. Sri Kalia, learned Counsel for the applicant has referred the order dated 16.04.2024 passed by this Court in Criminal Misc. Bail Application No.2322 of 2024, wherein this Court has observed that the age of the prosecutrix / child should be determined by the Medical Board for the reason that the medical report may prove to be a reliable piece of evidence; the said medical report will assist the process of law and enable the courts to make a conclusive finding on the victim's age after considering all evidences in the record; the said medical reports determining the victim's age at the very outset will also help prevent misuse of the POCSO Act and the said medical reports are relatable to specific provisions of law. In the aforesaid judgment, the relevant provisions of Section 164-A Cr.P.C. and Section 27 of the POCSO Act, which provides the medical examination of a child, have been considered.

14. Learned counsel for the applicant has also submitted that if the prosecution story is taken on its face value, it appears that the impugned F.I.R. is anti-time inasmuch as she allegedly narrated her plight to her mother on 26.12.2021 but the impugned F.I.R. has been lodged on 25.12.2021. He has further submitted that there is no allegation of rape in the F.I.R. and the story has been developed later on.

15. Learned counsel for the applicant has also submitted that the story that the present applicant had clicked some obscene video and photographs of the prosecutrix is false and concocted inasmuch there is no material available with the prosecution to that effect. He has also stated that another story that the present applicant has sent those video clips to the person with whom the marriage of the prosecutrix was settled, is incorrect. Further, almost all the fact witnesses have been examined, threfore, considering the period of incarceration of the applicant in jail i.e. about two years and six months, he may be enlarged on bail.

16. Per contra, learned Additional Government Advocate has opposed the aforesaid bail application by submitting that the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Sections 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. as well as her evidence recorded before the learned trial court are intact wherein she has levelled specific allegations of rape against the present applicant. The age of the prosecutrix/ child is below 18 years. In terms of Section 29 of the POCSO Act, burden is upon the applicant to establish that he has not committed offence of rape upon the prosecutrix.

17. Attention has been drawn towards Annexure No.CA-9 of the counter affidavit, which is the statement of one Sonu with whom the marriage of the prosecutrix was fixed, who has categorically stated that he is a labourer and doing labour work at Bangalore where he received one phone call on his Mobile Number from one person namely Irshad, who has informed him that the girl with whom his marriage has been fixed, is his lover and he loves her and he has established physical relations with her for couple of times. When the aforesaid Cell Phone Number was verified by the Investigating Agency, it was found that such Cell Phone Number belongs to the present applicant. The aforesaid C.D.R. report has also annexed with the counter affidavit which indicates that those Cell Phone Numbers belong to the present applicant. Therefore, learned Additional Government Advocate has stated that the present applicant has not only committed rape with a minor girl, who is below 18 years, but also has informed this incident to a person with whom marriage of the prosecutrix was fixed, resultant thereof, that marriage was broken before it could take place.

18. Learned Additional Government Advocate has also referred Section 94 of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, wherein it has categorically mandates that if any School Certificate of the child/ prosecutrix is available, the same would be given first preference than others. Notably, in the present case, the date of birth of the prosecutrix as per the High School Certificate is 20.05.2004, which means she was aged about 17 years and 05 months, therefore, the medical examination report, if any, may not have overriding effect over the age so indicted in the High School Certificate.

19. Learned Additional Government Advocate has relief upon the judgment of Apex Court rendered in the case in re: P. Yuvaprakash vs. State Rep. By Inspector of Police reported in 2023 LiveLaw (SC) 538, wherein the Apex Court in para-16 observed as under:-

"16. Speaking about provisions of the Juvenile Justice Act, especially the various options in Section 94 (2)) of the JJ Act, this court held in Sanjeev Kumar Gupta vs. The State of Uttar Pradesh & Ors. that:

Clause (i) of Section 94 (2) places the date of birth certificate from the school and the matriculation or equivalent certificate from the concerned examination board in the same category (namely) (i) above). In the absence thereof category (ii) provides for obtaining the birth certificate of the corporation, municipal authority or panchayat. It is only in the absence of (i) and (ii) that age determination by means of medical analysis is provided. Section 94(2)

(a) (i) indicates a significant change over the provisions which were contained in Rue 12 (3) (a) of the Rules of 2007 made under the Act of 2000. Under Rule 12 (3) (a) (i) of matriculation or equivalent certificate was given precedence and it was only in the event of the certificate not being available that the date of birth certificate from the school first attended, could be obtained. In Section 94 (2) (i) both the date of birth certificate from the school as well as the matriculation or equivalent certificate are placed in the same category."

20. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record, at the very outset, I would like to observe that the prosecutrix/ child, who was aged about 17 years on the date of incident, recorded her statements under Section 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. wherein the specific allegation against the present applicant of committing rape with her has been levelled. Though there is some variation in her statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. on some part but if the entire statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. is read, the fact would emerge that in such statement too, she has levelled specific allegation of rape against the present applicant.

21. To me, mere long detention in jail does not entitle an accused for bail. Further, it all depends on the facts and circumstances of each case as there is no straight jacket formula for granting bail. Therefore, period of long incarceration may be considered as one of the grounds for granting bail, but it depends upon facts and circumstances of the particular case. The Hon'ble Apex Court in re; Rajesh Ranjan Yadav v. CBI through its Director, (2007) 1 SCC 70, has observed as under:-

"..... None of the decisions cited can be said to have laid down any absolute and unconditional rule about when bail should be granted by the Court and when it should not. It all depends on the facts and circumstances of each case and it cannot be said there is any absolute rule that the mere fact that the accused has undergone a long period of incarceration by itself would entitle him to be enlarged on bail."

22. Section 29 of the POCSO Act provides for presumption as to certain offences. It provides that if a person is prosecuted for violating any provision of Sections 3, 5, 7 & 9 of the Act, the Special Court shall presume that such person has committed the offence, unless the contrary is proved.

23. The Apex Court in re; State of H.P. Vs. Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766, has observed in para-5, which reads as under:-

"5. We record our displeasure and dismay, the way the High Court dealt casually with an offence so grave, as in the case at hand, overlooking the alarming and shocking increase of sexual assault on minor girls. The High Court was swayed by the sheer insensitivity, totally oblivious of the growing menace of sexual violence against minors much less by the father. The High Court also totally overlooked the prosecution evidence, which inspired confidence and merited acceptance. It is now a well-settled principle of law that conviction can be founded on the testimony of the prosecutrix alone unless there are compelling reasons for seeking corroboration. The evidence of a prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. The testimony of the victim of sexual assault is vital, unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty in acting on the testimony of a victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable. It is also a well-settled principle of law that corroboration as a condition for judicial reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix is not a requirement of law but a guidance of prudence under the given circumstances. The evidence of the prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. Even minor contradictions or insignificant discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix should not be a ground for throwing out an otherwise reliable prosecution case."

24. The Apex Court in re; Ganesan Vs. State represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573 while considering the judgments of Vijay v. State of M.P., (2010) 8 SCC 191, State of Maharashtra v. Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550, State of U.P. Vs. Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594, State of Punjab v. Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384, State of Orissa v. Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86 and Krishan Kumar Malik v. State of Haryana, (2011) 7 SCC 130 has observed that hold an accused guilty for commission of an offence of rape, the solitary evidence of the prosecutrix is sufficient, provided the same inspires confidence and appears to be absolutely trustworthy, unblemished and should be of sterling quality.

25. In the case of Pappu (supra), the Apex Court has held that even in a case where it is shown that the girl is a girl of easy virtue or a girl habituated to sexual intercourse, it may not be a ground to absolve the accused from the charge of rape. It has to be established that there was consent by her for that particular occasion and that consent should be free consent.

26. The Apex Court in re; Phool Singh v. State of Madhya Pradesh, (2022) 2 SCC 74, has considered the judgment of Sham Singh vs. State of Haryana, (2018) 18 SCC 34, wherein the Apex Court has observed that the testimony of the victim is vital and unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty to act on the testimony of the victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable.

27. Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the present case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, as considered above, I am not inclined to grant bail to the present applicant.

28. Accordingly, the bail application is rejected.

29. Since the present applicant is in jail since 28.12.20221 and the trial in POCSO cases should be conducted and concluded with expedition, preferably within a period of one year in terms of Section 35 (2) of the POCSO Act, therefore, I hereby direct the learned Trial Court to conclude the trial within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order taking recourse of Section 309 Cr.P.C. by fixing short dates, if possible, fix dates on day-to-day basis to ensure that the examination of all prosecution witnesses and other witnesses from both the sides, if any, be completed expeditiously and if any of the witnesses does not cooperate in the trial proceedings properly, the learned Trial Court may take appropriate coercive steps against such witness, which is permissible under the law. Further, no unnecessary adjournment shall be given to any of the parties so that the trial in question could be concluded within the time so stipulated.

30. However, liberty is given to the applicant to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the aforesaid stipulated time.

31. Let copy of this order be provided to the learned Trial Court through District & Sessions Judge, Balrampur by the Registry of this Court within three working days for its strict compliance.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1963
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 9723 of 2022

Pradum Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Alok Srivastava

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Aslam Javed Siddiqui, Munna Singh

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 164, 309 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections – 506, 375 & 376-AB - The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 – Sections – 5, 6, 29 & 35(2) - Application for Bail – FIR – allegation that applicant who is neighbour of the informant has committed offence of oral sex with her ten years old minor girl - grounds of bail - present application is languishing in jail since long time and St.ment of prosecutrix recorded under pressure of her family and he has been falsely implicated – considering the totality of the facts, medical examination report, St.ment of prosecutrix recorded u/s 164 Cr.p.c. and provision of law, court has not find any substance in the grounds of bail and not inclined to grant bail to the applicant – accordingly, bail Application rejected - further, trial court directed to conclude the trial within a period of nine months, direction issued accordingly – however, applicant has a liberty to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the stipulated time.
(Para – 17, 22, 24, 25)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sonu Kushwaha Vs St. of up (Criminal Appeal no. 5415/2018 decided on 18.11.2021),

2. Rajesh Ranjan Yadav Vs CBI through its Director, (2007) 1 SCC 70,

3. St. of H.P. Vs Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766,

4. Ganesan Vs St. represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573,

5. Vijay Vs St. of M.P. (2010) 8 SCC 191,

6. St. of Mah. Vs Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550,

7. St. of U.P. Vs Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594,

8. St. of Punj. Vs Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384,

9. St. of Orissa Vs Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86,

10. Krishan Kumar Malik Vs St. of Har., (2011) 7 SCC 130.

11. Phool Singh Vs St. of M. P., (2022) 2 SCC 74,

12. Sham Singh Vs St. of Har., (2018) 18 SCC 34,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Shri Alok Srivastava, learned counsel for the applicant, Shri Rajnish Kumar Verma, learned A.G.A., however, no one has appeared on behalf of the informant/ complainant.

2. As per learned counsel for the applicant, the present applicant is in jail since 31.03.2022 in Case Crime No.56 of 2022, under Sections 376AB, 506 IPC and Section 5/6 of Ptotection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012, Police Station- Asiwan, District- Unnao.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant has further submitted that the present applicant has been falsely implicated in the case as he has not committed any offence as alleged. As per prosecution story so narrated in the FIR, the present applicant has made oral sex with the daughter of the complainant/informant, who is aged about ten years. As per FIR, the present applicant, who is the neighbour of the informant/complainant, in the evening at 9:30 P.M. when informant/complainant was with her husband, the applicant came and asked that his mother is calling the prosecutrix/victim and after a lapse of time, the complainant along with her husband went for search of their daughter. While searching, they heard some sound coming from kothari of kanda and bhusa. They found that the cloths of the child were not on her body and the applicant was also not wearing cloths. After wearing cloths the child told that the present applicant has made oral sex with her and penetrated the penis in her way of urine.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the entire prosecution story is false and concocted inasmuch as the prosecution story creates doubt as there was no independent eye witness account and last seen evidence.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant has also drawn attention of this Court towards the order dated 18.11.2021 passed by this Court in Criminal Appeal No.5415 of 2018, Sonu Kushwaha Vs. State of U.P., relying upon paras 17 & 21 thereof, which reads as under:-

"17. From the perusal of the provisions of P.O.C.S.O. Act, it is clear that offence committed by appellant neither falls under Section 5/6 of P.O.C.S.O Act nor under Section 9(M) of P.O.C.S.O. Act because there is pentrative sexual assault in the present case as appellant has put his penis into mouth of victim. Putting penis into mouth does not fall in the category of aggravated sexual assault or sexual assault. It comes into category of pentrative sexual assault which is punishable under Section 4 of P.O.C.S.O. Act.

21. The court below has awarded the appellant to undergo 10 years rigorous imprisonment and fine of Rs. 5000/- under Section 6 of P.O.C.S.O. Act and under Section 6 of P.O.C.S.O. Act, minimum sentence is 10 years which may extend to imprisonment for life whereas under Section 4 of P.O.C.S.O. Act minimum sentence is 7 years but which may extend to imprisonment for life also. Learned court below has awarded minimum sentence provided under Section 6 of P.O.C.S.O. Act and accordingly, it would be appropriate to award the sentence to appellant under Section 4 of P.O.C.S.O. Act, seven years of rigorous imprisonment which is minimum provided in that Section and fine of Rs. Rs.

5,000/-, in default, three months additional simple imprisonment."

6. On the basis of aforesaid paras, the learned counsel for the applicant has tried to submit that in the present case, maximum sentence for the alleged offence committed may be seven years and the present applicant has already served about two years and two months in jail, therefore, considering the period of incarceration, the present applicant may be released on bail.

7. Learned counsel for the applicant has further drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.5 of the bail application, which is the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., wherein her statement has been recorded under pressure of her family members.

8. Learned counsel for the applicant has reiterated that the present applicant has no previous criminal history, therefore, the present applicant undertakes that he shall not misuse the liberty of bail, if so granted by this court and shall abide by all terms and conditions of the bail order and shall cooperate in the trial proceedings.

9. Learned A.G.A. has opposed the aforesaid prayer of learned counsel for the applicant and has submitted that the offence in question is so heinous in nature, therefore, the present applicant may not be released on bail. He has drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.5 of the bail application, which is the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under section 164 of Cr.P.C., wherein she told that the present applicant has made oral sex with her and penetrated the penis in her way of urine. Learned AGA has submitted that since this is a case of oral sex so there might not be any other injury on the body of the victim.

10. Learned AGA has further drawn attention of this court towards Annexure No.4, which is the copy of medical report. Hymen was torned, which supports the prosecution story, and also the statement of the prosecutrix/victim recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. has reiterated the version of statement recorded under section 161 Cr.P.C., therefore, the present applicant may not be released on bail.

11. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

12. It is well settled that to constitute an offence of rape complete penetration of penis with emission of semen and the rupture of hymen is not necessary. Modi in his book- Modi Textbook of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology, 23rd Edition, at page 897, opined thus:

"To constitute the offence of rape, it is not necessary that there should be complete of the penis with the emission of semen and the rupture of hymen. Partial penetration of the penis within the labia majora or the vulva or pudenda with or without the emission of semen, or even an attempt at penetration is quite sufficient for the purpose of law. It is, therefore, quite possible to commit legally, the offence of rape without producing any injury to the genitals or leaving any seminal stains. In such a case the Medical Officer should mention the negative facts in his report, but should not given his opinion that no rape had been committed. "

At page 928: In small children, the hymen is not usually ruptured, but may become red and congested along with the inflammation and bruising of the labia. If considerable violence is used, there is often laceration of the fourchette and the perineum."

13. In Parikh's Textbook of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology, the following passage is found:

"Sexual intercourse: In Law, this term is held to mean the slightest degree of penetration of the vulva by the penis with or without emission of semen. It is, therefore, quite possible to commit legally the offence of rape without producing any injury to the genitals or leaving any seminal stains."

14. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, having gone through the above definition of 'rape' opined by the eminent experts and having perused the material available on record, at the very outset, I would like to observe that the prosecutrix/ child, who was aged about 10 years but as per her educational documents her age was 12 years on the date of incident, recorded her statements under Section 161 & 164 Cr.P.C. levelling specific allegation against the present applicant of committing rape with her. Notably, after reading the entire statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C., the fact would emerge that in such statement, she has levelled specific allegation of oral sex with her and the present applicant has penetrated the penis in her way of urine.

15. The victim/prosecutrix in her statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. has categorically informed that the present applicant committed oral sex with her. The victim/prosecutrix was about 12 years at the time of incident, therefore, at the stage of bail, it cannot be presumed that she has given such statement under the influence of her parents. Besides, the medical examination report supports her allegation wherein it has been verified that the penis was penetrated in the mouth of the victim/prosecutrix.

16. To me, mere long detention in jail does not entitle an accused for bail. Further, it all depends on the facts and circumstances of each case as there is no straight jacket formula for granting bail. Therefore, period of long incarceration may be considered as one of the grounds for granting bail, but it depends upon facts and circumstances of the particular case. The Hon'ble Apex Court in re; Rajesh Ranjan Yadav v. CBI through its Director, (2007) 1 SCC 70, has observed as under:-

"..... None of the decisions cited can be said to have laid down any absolute and unconditional rule about when bail should be granted by the Court and when it should not. It all depends on the facts and circumstances of each case and it cannot be said there is any absolute rule that the mere fact that the accused has undergone a long period of incarceration by itself would entitle him to be enlarged on bail."

17. Section 29 of the POCSO Act provides for presumption as to certain offences. It provides that if a person is prosecuted for violating any provision of Sections 3, 5, 7 & 9 of the Act and where the victim is a child below the age of 16 years, the Special Court shall presume that such person has committed the offence, unless the contrary is proved.

18. The Apex Court in re; State of H.P. Vs. Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766, has observed in para-5, which reads as under:-

"5. We record our displeasure and dismay, the way the High Court dealt casually with an offence so grave, as in the case at hand, overlooking the alarming and shocking increase of sexual assault on minor girls. The High Court was swayed by the sheer insensitivity, totally oblivious of the growing menace of sexual violence against minors much less by the father. The High Court also totally overlooked the prosecution evidence, which inspired confidence and merited acceptance. It is now a well-settled principle of law that conviction can be founded on the testimony of the prosecutrix alone unless there are compelling reasons for seeking corroboration. The evidence of a prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. The testimony of the victim of sexual assault is vital, unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty in acting on the testimony of a victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable. It is also a well-settled principle of law that corroboration as a condition for judicial reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix is not a requirement of law but a guidance of prudence under the given circumstances. The evidence of the prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. Even minor contradictions or insignificant discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix should not be a ground for throwing out an otherwise reliable prosecution case."

19. The Apex Court in re; Ganesan Vs. State represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573, while considering the judgments of Vijay v. State of M.P., (2010) 8 SCC 191, State of Maharashtra v. Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550, State of U.P. Vs. Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594, State of Punjab v. Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384, State of Orissa v. Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86 and Krishan Kumar Malik v. State of Haryana, (2011) 7 SCC 130 has observed that to hold an accused guilty for commission of an offence of rape, the solitary evidence of the prosecutrix is sufficient, provided the same inspires confidence and appears to be absolutely trustworthy, unblemished and should be of sterling quality.

20. In the case of Pappu (supra), the Apex Court has held that even in a case where it is shown that the girl is a girl of easy virtue or a girl habituated to sexual intercourse, it may not be a ground to absolve the accused from the charge of rape. It has to be established that there was consent by her for that particular occasion and that consent should be free consent.

21. The Apex Court in re; Phool Singh v. State of Madhya Pradesh, (2022) 2 SCC 74, has considered the judgment of Sham Singh vs. State of Haryana, (2018) 18 SCC 34, wherein the Apex Court has observed that the testimony of the victim is vital and unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty to act on the testimony of the victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable.

22. Considering the totality of the facts and circumstances of the issue in question, medical examination report, statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. and the provisions of law i.e. Section 375 IPC, Section 5/6 of POCSO Act, I do not find any substance in the arguments of learned counsel for the applicant, looking to the peculiar facts and circumstance of the present case, that I am conscious about the fact that the guilt of any person can be established before the learned trial court and no observation should be given affecting the trial, but on the basis of aforesaid material available on record, prima facie, I am not inclined to grant bail to the present applicant.

23. Accordingly, the bail application is rejected on merits.

24. Since the present applicant is in jail since 31.03.2022 and the trial in POCSO cases should be conducted and concluded with expedition, preferably within a period of one year in terms of Section 35 (2) of the POCSO Act, therefore, I hereby direct the learned Trial Court to conclude the trial within a period of nine months from the date of receipt of copy of this order taking recourse of Section 309 Cr.P.C. by fixing short dates, if possible, fix dates on day-to-day basis to ensure that the examination of all prosecution witnesses and other witnesses from both the sides, if any, be completed expeditiously and if any of the witnesses does not cooperate in the trial proceedings properly, the learned Trial Court may take appropriate coercive steps against such witness, which is permissible under the law. Further, no unnecessary adjournment shall be given to any of the parties so that the trial in question could be concluded within the time so stipulated.

25. However, liberty is given to the applicant to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the aforesaid stipulated time.

26. Let copy of this order be provided to the learned Trial Court through District & Sessions Judge, Unnao by the Registry of this Court within three working days for its strict compliance.

27. Before parting with, I appreciate the efforts and research made by Shri Piyush Tripathi, Research Associate attached with me, in finding out the relevant case laws applicable in the present case.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1968
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJESH SINGH CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Misc. Bail Application No. 10123 of 2022

Neeraj Raidas ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Vijay Kumar, Alok Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections – 161, 164, 309 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections – 323 & 376 - The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 – Section – 3, 4, 29, 35(2) - Application for Bail – FIR – allegation of committing rape forcibly - grounds of bail that, applicant is languishing in jail since long time, - prosecutrix is the consenting party with the applicant, - her St.ment was recorded under the pressure of her family, - entire story is false, fabricated and developed by the complainant – and he has no any criminal history – court observed that, - prosecutrix was below 18 years at the time of incident - considering the entire St.ment recorded u/s 164 Cr.p.c. she has levelled specific allegation of offence of rape against the present applicant which is subject to final determination by the learned trial court - hence, considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, the bail application is rejected – further, trial court has directed to conclude the trial within a period of nine months, direction issued accordingly – however, applicant has a liberty to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the stipulated time. (Para –11, 16, 18, 19)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of H.P. Vs Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766,

2. Ganesan Vs St. represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573,

3. Vijay Vs St. of M.P. (2010) 8 SCC 191,

4. St. of Mah. Vs Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550,

5. St. of U.P. Vs Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594,

6. St. of Punj. Vs Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384,

7. St. of Orissa Vs Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86,

8. Krishan Kumar Malik Vs St. of Har., (2011) 7 SCC 130.

9. Phool Singh Vs St. of M. P., (2022) 2 SCC 74,

10. Sham Singh Vs St. of Har., (2018) 18 SCC 34.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Rajesh Singh Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Shri Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri Rajnish Kumar Verma, learned A.G.A., however, no one has appeared on behalf of the informant/ complainant.

2. As per learned counsel for the applicant, the present applicant is in jail since 02.05.2022 in Case Crime No.227 of 2022, under Sections 323, 376 IPC and Section 3/4 POCSO Act, Police Station-Bilgram, District- Hardoi.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that the present applicant has been falsely implicated in the case as he has not committed any offence as alleged. As per prosecution story so narrated in the FIR, the present applicant has made wrong deeds with the daughter of the complainant/ informant, who is aged about eighteen years. As per the FIR, when the daughter of the complainant at about 8.00 P.M. went to defecate in the field, at that time the applicant came there and committed rape forcibly with her.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant has further submitted that the entire prosecution story is false and concocted inasmuch as the prosecutrix is major in age and she is the consenting party with the applicant and the prosecutrix is mentally fit but she is unable to speak and due to this reason, false and fabricated story was developed by the complainant against the present applicant.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant has further drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.5 of the bail application, which is the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under section 164 Cr.P.C., wherein her statement has been recorded under pressure of her family members and this fact also reveals from the perusal of statement under Section 164

Cr.P.C. where she first time stated that the applicant has torn her cloths.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant has also submitted that the prosecution has not submitted any educational document of the prosecutrix and only on the basis of Aadhar Card and Medical Report, Section 3/4 POCSO Act has been added.

7. Learned counsel for the applicant has reiterated that the present applicant has no previous criminal history, therefore, the present applicant undertakes that he shall not misuse the liberty of bail, if so granted by this court and shall abide by all terms and conditions of the bail order and shall cooperate in the trial proceedings.

8. Learned A.G.A. has opposed the aforesaid prayer of learned counsel for the applicant and has submitted that the offence in question is so heinous in nature, therefore, the present applicant may not be released on bail. He has drawn attention of this Court towards Annexure No.5 of the bail application, which is the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under section 164 of Cr.P.C., wherein in the presence of special instructor, the victim/prosecutrix after seeing the photocopy of driving licence of the applicant has identified that he is the one who tore my cloth and forcibly committed rape.

9. Learned A.G.A. has further drawn attention of this court towards Annexure No.6, which is the copy of medical report, wherein the radiological age of the victim/prosecutrix is about 17 years. Hymen was not found, which supports the prosecution story, and also the statement of the prosecutrix/victim recorded under section 164 Cr.P.C has reiterated the version of statement recorded under section 161 Cr.P.C, therefore, the present applicant may not be released on bail.

10. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the material available on record, at the very outset, I would like to observe that the prosecutrix/ child, who was below 18 years at the time of incident, recorded her statements under Section 164 Cr.P.C. levelling specific allegation against the present applicant of committing rape with her. The entire statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. is read, the fact would emerge that in such statement, she has levelled specific allegation of rape against the present applicant.

11. In the statement of the prosecutrix/ child recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C., she has levelled specific allegation against the present applicant that he has committed rape with her forcibly. This is the case where the prosecutrix/ child is a minor girl, therefore, the applicant with the intention to commit rape with her in that case, prima facie, the offence in question would be the offence of rape subject to final determination by the learned Trial Court..

12. The Apex Court in re; State of H.P. Vs. Asha Ram, (2005) 13 SCC 766, has observed in para-5, which reads as under:-

"5. We record our displeasure and dismay, the way the High Court dealt casually with an offence so grave, as in the case at hand, overlooking the alarming and shocking increase of sexual assault on minor girls. The High Court was swayed by the sheer insensitivity, totally oblivious of the growing menace of sexual violence against minors much less by the father. The High Court also totally overlooked the prosecution evidence, which inspired confidence and merited acceptance. It is now a well-settled principle of law that conviction can be founded on the testimony of the prosecutrix alone unless there are compelling reasons for seeking corroboration. The evidence of a prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. The testimony of the victim of sexual assault is vital, unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty in acting on the testimony of a victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable. It is also a well-settled principle of law that corroboration as a condition for judicial reliance on the testimony of the prosecutrix is not a requirement of law but a guidance of prudence under the given circumstances. The evidence of the prosecutrix is more reliable than that of an injured witness. Even minor contradictions or insignificant discrepancies in the statement of the prosecutrix should not be a ground for throwing out an otherwise reliable prosecution case."

13. The Apex Court in re; Ganesan Vs. State represented by its Inspector of Police, (2020) 10 SCC 573, while considering the judgments of Vijay v. State of M.P., (2010) 8 SCC 191, State of Maharashtra v. Chandraprakash Kewalchand Jain, (1990) 1 SCC 550, State of U.P. Vs. Pappu, (2005) 3 SCC 594, State of Punjab v. Gurmit Singh, (1996) 2 SCC 384, State of Orissa v. Thakara Besra, (2002) 9 SCC 86 and Krishan Kumar Malik v. State of Haryana, (2011) 7 SCC 130 has observed that to hold an accused guilty for commission of an offence of rape, the solitary evidence of the prosecutrix is sufficient, provided the same inspires confidence and appears to be absolutely trustworthy, unblemished and should be of sterling quality.

14. In the case of Pappu (supra), the Apex Court has held that even in a case where it is shown that the girl is a girl of easy virtue or a girl habituated to sexual intercourse, it may not be a ground to absolve the accused from the charge of rape. It has to be established that there was consent by her for that particular occasion and that consent should be free consent.

15. The Apex Court in re; Phool Singh v. State of Madhya Pradesh, (2022) 2 SCC 74, has considered the judgment of Sham Singh vs. State of Haryana, (2018) 18 SCC 34, wherein the Apex Court has observed that the testimony of the victim is vital and unless there are compelling reasons which necessitate looking for corroboration of her statement, the courts should find no difficulty to act on the testimony of the victim of sexual assault alone to convict an accused where her testimony inspires confidence and is found to be reliable.

16. Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of the present case as well as the dictums of the Apex Court, as considered above, I am not inclined to grant bail to the present applicant.

17. Accordingly, the bail application is rejected.

18. Since the present applicant is in jail since 02.05.2022 and the trial in POCSO cases should be conducted and concluded with expedition, preferably within a period of one year in terms of Section 35 (2) of the POCSO Act, therefore, I hereby direct the learned Trial Court to conclude the trial within a period of nine months from the date of receipt of copy of this order taking recourse of Section 309 Cr.P.C. by fixing short dates, if possible, fix dates on day-to-day basis to ensure that the examination of all prosecution witnesses and other witnesses from both the sides, if any, be completed expeditiously and if any of the witnesses does not cooperate in the trial proceedings properly, the learned Trial Court may take appropriate coercive steps against such witness, which is permissible under the law. Further, no unnecessary adjournment shall be given to any of the parties so that the trial in question could be concluded within the time so stipulated.

19. However, liberty is given to the applicant to file another bail application, if the trial is not concluded within the aforesaid stipulated time.

20. Let copy of this order be provided to the learned Trial Court through District & Sessions Judge, Hardoi by the Registry of this Court within three working days for its strict compliance.

21. Before parting with, I appreciate the efforts and research made by Shri Piyush Tripathi, Research Associate attached with me, in finding out the relevant case laws applicable in the present case.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1972
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE AJIT KUMAR, J.

Civil Revision No. 35 of 2024

M/S Sarnath Auto Zone Pvt. Ltd.
...Revisionist
Versus
M/S Span Infra Developers Ltd.
...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Satish Chandra Dubey, Sr. Advocate, Ujjwal Satsangi

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
Ravi Anand Agarwal, Shreya Gupta

Civil Laws – Civil Procedure Code, 1908 – Section 115 - Order 7 - Rules 11 – The Limitation Act, 1963 – Article 54 of part 2 of the Schedule - Civil Revision – challenging the rejection order passed by Civil Judge rejecting the misc. Application filed under order 7 Rules 11 CPC – suit - for specific performance of contract - barred by limitation as prescribed u/article 54 of part 2 of the schedule of the limitation Act – per contra, plea taken that, even if the agreement for sale did not fix any particular date by way of time limit for execution of sale deed, it should be taken to be a date fixed by plaintiff and the limitation to file suit for specific performance may run from the date of the notice – court finds that, the whole purpose and idea behind order 7 Rule 11 that the meaningless litigation should not be dragged and therefore, such power has to be exercise very cautiously – held, limitation is a mixed question of law and question of maintainability of the suit for being barred by limitation is the root of the matter – therefore, present civil revision stands disposed of with direction to the court below to decide the issue qua order 7 rules 11 as preliminary issue while framing the issues in the suit and decide the same first by affording reasonable opportunity to the parties. (Para – 7, 17, 22, 24)

Civil Revision Disposed of. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla (2) (dead) Vs Bibijan & ors.(2009) 5 SCC 462,

2. Eldeco Housing and Industries Limited Vs Ashok Vidyarthi & ors.decided on 30.11.2023 3 of 13 in Civil Appeal No.1043 of 2023,

3. Madina Begum & anr. Vs Shiv Murti Prasad Pandey & ors. decided on 01.08.2016 in Civil Appeal No.6687 of 2016,

4. M/S Bankhandi Nath Developers Pct. Ltd. Vs Alok Kumar Goel & ors. decided on 31.07.2019 in First Appeal No.118 of 2018,

5. Tarlok Singh Vs Vijay Kumar Sabharwal:(1996) 8 SCC 367,

6. Rathnavathi & anr. Vs Kavita Ganashamdas, 9 of 13 (2015) 5 SCC 223,

7. Dahiben Vs Anvindbhai Kalyanji Bhanusali (Gajra) (dead) through legal representatives & ors.: (2020) 7 SCC 366.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ajit Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rakesh Pandey, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Satish Chandra Dubey, learned counsel for the petitioner and Ms. Shreya Gupta, learned counsel for the contesting respondent.

2. Petitioner before this court has questioned the order passed by Civil Judge (Senior Division), Bareilly rejecting the misc. application filed by the petitioner being paper no.36-C requesting for disposal of misc. application filed under Order 7 Rule 11 CPC first before proceeding with suit.

3. The argument advanced by learned counsel for the petitioner was that the court was to hear and dispose of application filed under Order 7 Rule 11 CPC for rejection of the plaint, if it appeared from bare pleadings raised in the plaint that suit was barred by law. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that for a decree of specific performance of contract, the limitation prescribed under Article 54 of Second Schedule of Limitation Act, 1963 was three years and according to him from the pleadings raised in the plaint, it was apparently an admitted position that agreement for sale was executed on 12.09.2012. Thus according to him limitation to maintain a suit would be upto 3 years whereas the suit had been instituted in the year 2020 as the plaint was verified and presented on 07.12.2020. It was also submitted that in paragraph 5 of the plaint it was pleaded that there were two suits going on being O.S. Nos.843 of 2012 and 758 of 2012 relating to the property which was subject matter of agreement for sale and which came to be finally decided on 26.10.2020 and 30.07.2020 respectively but there was no statement of fact pleaded that there was any interim order operating in favour of the parties not to dispose of the suit land during pendency of the suit proceedings. Thus according to him, petitioner was not restrained by any order of court from executing the sale deed pursuant to the agreement for sale. Learned Senior Advocate has placed reliance upon judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla (2) (dead) v. Bibijan and others (2009) 5 SCC 462 in support of his arguments and prayed to interfere with the order in my exercise of jurisdiction under Section 115 of Code of Civil Procedure.

4. Per contra, it was argued by learned counsel appearing for the contesting respondents, Ms. Shreya Gupta that in view of the limitations as contained under Article 54 of Part 2 of Schedule of Limitation Act, 1963, in the event date was not fixed for performance, the limitation of three years period would start when the plaintiff received a notice of refusal of performance by the proposed vendor. In support of her argument she took the Court to the pleadings raised in paragraphs 4 and 7 of the plaint in which a categorical statement had been made that the last notice sent to the defendant on 03.11.2020 was not replied to and it was for the first time on 30.11.2022 that the defendants refused to execute agreement for sale except on payment of a higher price towards sale consideration. Thus according to her in view of Article 54 cause of action accrued to file a suit on 30.11.2020 only and so the presentation of the suit on 07.12.2020 was well within the time prescribed for. She also took the Court through the document of agreement for sale in which vide paragraph 1 it was stated that the petitioner would get the sale deed registered within three months from the date of agreement for sale and vide paragraph 3 thereof it was stated that the boundary wall will be constructed within a period of 3 months and if there would be any dispute then any registry will be done only after the resolution of such dispute.

5. Ms. Gupta submitted that those two suits were going on relating to the property in question and there was some serious boundary dispute and that is why no boundary was constructed within prescribed period of three months of execution of agreement for sale. She submitted that vide paragraph 4 of the plaint it was clearly pleaded that the registered notice was sent by the plaintiff on 03.12.2012 i.e well within the period of three months for execution of a saledeed in performance of agreement for sale.

6. Learned counsel for the answering respondents has relied upon a recent judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Eldeco Housing and Industries Limited v. Ashok Vidyarthi and others decided on 30.11.2023 in Civil Appeal No.1043 of 2023 and Madina Begum and another v. Shiv Murti Prasad Pandey and others decided on 01.08.2016 in Civil Appeal No.6687 of 2016 and also a judgment of Division Bench of this Court in the case of M/S Bankhandi Nath Developers Pct. Ltd. v. Alok Kumar Goel and 4 others decided on 31.07.2019 in First Appeal No.118 of 2018

7. Meeting the counter submissions made by Ms. Shreya Gupta, Mr. Rakesh Pandey, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner has submitted in rejoinder that even if the agreement for sale did not fix any particular date by way of time limit for execution of the sale deed, since the notice dated 03.12.2012 was itself got issued by the plaintiff, it should be taken to be a date fixed by the plaintiff and this limitation to file suit for specific performance of contract may run from the date of the notice and the date time given therein.

8. Having heard learned counsel for respective parties and having perused the records, the question arises for consideration of the Court is whether the pleadings as raised in paragraph 4 would bring the limitation within the meaning of first part of Article 54 or in the event of it being not so, the date of refusal to execute a sale deed mentioned in paragraph 7 as 30.11.2020 would be a point of limitation. Article 54 of the Limitation Act, 1963 runs as under:

Description of suit	Period of limitation	Time from which period begins to run
54. For specific	do	The date fixed for the performance, performance of a contract		or, if no such date is fixed, when the plaintiff has notice that performance is refused.

(Emphasis added)

9. From the agreement for sale copy of which is part of the record filed as annexure 1 to the affidavit filed in respect of the said application, I find that no date has been mentioned for execution of the sale deed. Paragraph nos.1, 2 and 3 relevant for the purposes are reproduced hereunder:

"1. यह कि दोनो पक्षों ने बैनामें की तहरीर व रजिस्ट्री के लिये अपनी सहमति से मियाद बैनामा रजिस्ट्री की आज दिनांक से तीन माह करार पाई है।

2. यह कि प्रथम पक्ष निश्चित की अवधि के भीतर अपनी निम्नलिखित सम्पत्ति का बैनामा द्वितीय पक्ष के हक में तहरीर व तकमील कर देगा और कोई भी आपत्ति किसी भी प्रकार की बैनामा करने में नहीं करेगा।

3. यह कि अन्दर म्याद उक्त आराजी पर प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा बाउन्ड्री कराई जायेगी यदि बाउन्ड्री होने के दौरान कोई विवाद उत्पन्न होता है तो प्रथम पक्ष द्वारा विवाद सुलझाये जाने के पश्चात ही रजिस्ट्री कराई जायेगी। आराजी का फ्रन्ट उत्तर से दक्षिण 82 फिट है।"

(Emphasis added)

10. From a bare reading of the aforesaid paragraphs two facts emerge out: Firstly a period of three months was prescribed for execution of the sale deed with effect from the date of agreement for sale which is admittedly 29.10.2012: and secondly the registry of sale deed was also subject to the condition that boundary wall would be constructed within the prescribed period of three months and if the boundary wall is not constructed on account of any dispute, then the execution of the sale deed will take place only after resolution of such dispute. Thus, it is clear that period of three months was not a date fixed period in paragraph no.1 as prescribed under the agreement for sale and further such period of three months was subject to condition that there should not be any dispute with regard to the boundary as the boundary was to be constructed within such period of three months.

11. In the face of these conditions as laid in the agreement to sell, if I examine the plaint allegations I find that in paragraph 4, a notice was sent on 03.12.2012 by the plaintiff asking the petitioner to execute a sale deed within time. This date is the point for sending the notice within a period of three months. Since three month's period had yet not expired therefore, it cannot be said that 03.12.2012, date of notice sent by the plaintiff should be taken as a date in point of time to execute the sale deed so as to apply the first part of Article 54 of the Limitation Act. Still further, I find that pleadings have been made in paragraph 5 of the plaint to the effect that dispute was going on in respect of the same land and that being a situation coupled with the fact that the boundary wall had not been constructed, it could be a case therefore, that there was some dispute that was why boundary wall was not constructed and this dispute lasted till 26.10.2020 when the second suit was decided. This becomes a question of fact to determine as to whether these suits that were pending, were relating to the same property and was there any dispute regarding the land in question so as to create obstruction in construction of the boundary wall. This could have been determined only after the parties led their evidence. Therefore, this issue becomes mixed question of fact and law whether in the matter of limitation to run so as to determine whether the suit was bared by time or not. The court was to apply the law to the facts yet to come out by way of evidence to be led by the parties and its proper appreciation. There could be a case, therefore, if the land in question which was subject matter of agreement for sale, was in issue in two suits being O.S. Nos.7843 of 2012 and 758 of 2012 and the boundary could not be constructed as per terms carried in paragraph 3 of the agreement for sale, so saledeed could be executed only after the resolution of such dispute. Further upon appreciation of facts if this fact comes out to be a correct fact that there was a dispute qua property in question, then certainly limitation would run from the date when the second suit being 843 of 2012 came to be disposed of finally on 26.10.2020 in the light of paragraph 3 of the agreement for sale.

12. As far as pleadings raised in paragraph no.7 that the plaintiff faced refusal for the first time on 30.11.2020 at the end of the defendant in the matter of execution of saledeed is concerned as defendant had been claimed to have demanded certain more price as consideration, this in my view is also a question of fact which can be decided after appreciation of evidence in support of the facts so pleaded. Thus in any view of the matter therefore, second part of Article 54 is applicable to the present case and looking to the terms and conditions of the agreement for sale vis-a-vis the pleadings raised that two suits, as claimed to be pending in connection qua the same property..

Coming to the judgment cited by Mr. Pandey in the case of Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla (2) (dead) (supra) I find that the court referred to judgment in the case of Tarlok Singh v. Vijay Kumar Sabharwal:(1996) 8 SCC 367, which court had dealt with the expression 'date fixed for the performance' as contained in Article 54 of the Schedule of the Limitation Act. The court held that the judgment in Tarlok Singh was rendered in a factual scenario and proceeded to hold vide paragraph 10 that the word "'fixed' in essence means having final and crystallized form or character not subject to change or fluctuation".

13. Having held this expression 'date fixed' to be a crystallized notion, the Court meant it to mean that there has to be a date fixed as final limit at a definite point of time. The Court vide paragraph 12 held thus:

"Whether the date was fixed or not the plaintiff had notice that performance is refused and the date thereof are to be established with reference to materials and evidence to be brought on record. The expression `date' used in Article 54 of the Schedule to the Act definitely is suggestive of a specified date in the calendar. We answer the reference accordingly. The matter shall now be placed before the Division Bench for deciding the issue on merits."

(Emphasis added)

14. This judgment was relied upon by Ms. Gupta, learned counsel appearing for the plaintiff-respondents. She has argued that the what had been held in paragraph 12 was only suggestive of specified date in calendar which is not the case in hand and, therefore, the second part of Article 54 would prevail. A Division Bench of this Court in the case of M/s Bankhandi Nath Developers Pvt. Ltd (supra) in the background of the factual matrix of that case held that the plaint could not be rejected under Order 7 Rule 11 CPC by placing reliance upon a part of the plaint. Vide paragraph 29, the court has held thus;

"29. In our opinion, this itself is a matter of appreciation of evidence and therefore, plaint could not have been rejected under Order VII Rule 11 C.P.C. by placing reliance upon part of plaint and ignoring material pleadings contained in plaint which explain the circumstances leading to institution of suit in the year 2017. In our view, Court below has erred in allowing application under Order VII Rule 11 (d) C.P.C. filed by Defendant-Respondent No.2. In all propriety, Trial Court should have framed an issue regarding question of limitation and decide the same after evidence had been led by parties."

15. In view of the above, therefore, relying upon a part of the pleading in paragraph 4 that a notice was sent by the plaintiff to the defendant to execute the saledeed on 03.12.2012 cannot be read in isolation. It is to be read contextually alongwith further pleadings raised in the subsequent paragraphs. Supreme Court in the case of Madina Begum (supra) has dealt with this issue of limitation prescribed under Article 54 of the Schedule of the Limitation Act, 1963.

16. In that case, Supreme Court first referred to the order of the High Court wherein the period of 6 months to execute the sale deed as prescribed under the Contract Act was taken to be a date fixed for performance of contract and so the limitation was stated to run on the expiry of six months period. Supreme Court did not agree with this above view of the High Court and referred to the judgment in the case of Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla (supra) to hold that 'date fixed' for performance means as a crystallized notion and the expression date fixed was held to be suggestive of a definite timeline. The Court then proceeded to refer another judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Rathnavathi and another v. Kavita Ganashamdas, (2015) 5 SCC 223 wherein it was held that if no date was fixed, limitation of three years would begin to run when the plaintiff had the notice of refusal of performance of agreement. That judgment of the Supreme Court was accordingly referred to vide paragraph 20, 21, 22 and 23, and the Court held thus:

"20. Quite independently and without reference to the aforesaid decision, another Bench of this Court in Rathnavathi and Another v. Kavita Ganashamdas[2] came to the same conclusion. It was held in paragraph 42 of the Report that a mere reading of Article 54 would show that if the date is fixed for the performance of an agreement, then non-compliance with the agreement on the date would give a cause of action to file a suit for specific performance within three years from the date so fixed. But when no such date is fixed, the limitation of three years would begin when the plaintiff has notice that the defendant has refused the performance of the agreement. It was further held, on the facts of the case that it did not fall in the first category of Article 54 since no date was fixed in the agreement for its performance.

21. The Clauses of the agreement for consideration in Rathnavathi were Clauses 2 and 3 and they read as follows:-

"2. The purchaser shall pay a sum of Rs. 50,000 (Rupees fifty thousand only) as advance to the seller at the time of signing this agreement, the receipt of which the seller hereby acknowledges and the balance sale consideration amount shall be paid within 60 days from the date of expiry of lease period.

3. The seller covenants with the purchaser that efforts will be made with the Bangalore Development Authority for the transfer of the schedule property in favour of the purchaser after paying penalty. In case it is not possible then the time stipulated herein for the balance payment and completion of the sale transaction will be agreed mutually between the parties."

22. As far as the present appeal is concerned, the agreement between Gulab Bai and Madina Begum did not specify a calendar date as the date fixed for the performance of the agreement. Consequently, the view expressed in Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla and Rathnavathi on the first part of Article 54 clearly applies to the facts of the case. In taking a contrary view, ignoring the absence of a specified date for the performance of the agreement and reversing the Trial Court, the High Court has fallen in error.

23. It is not necessary for us to multiply authorities on the subject particularly when the issue has been conclusively settled by a Bench of three learned judges of this Court in Ahmadsahab Abdul Mulla and we see no reason to take a different view.

17. In a recent judgment of Eldego Housing and Industries Limited (supra) the Supreme Court has referred to its earlier judgment regarding the scope of Order 7 rule 11 in the case of Dahiben v. Anvindbhai Kalyanji Bhanusali (Gajra) (dead) through legal representatives and others: (2020) 7 SCC 366. The Court in this case has held that this power under Order 7 Rule 11 is envoked to dismiss the suit summarily at threshold if on the ground contained under the provisions such suit can be dismissed, as the Court would not be permitting the plaintiff to unnecessarily protract the proceedings. The whole purpose and idea is that the meaningless litigation should not be dragged and therefore, such power has to be exercised very cautiously. It could be also a case where no cause of action is seen. So the only question now, therefore, to be seen is as to whether from bare pleadings raised in the plaint it can be concluded that suit was barred by time or where the pleadings does not disclose any cause of action so the suit deserves dismissal at a very threshold.

18. Mr. Pandey, has not argued that there was no cause of action. The only point argued was that the suit was barred by limitation.

19. On the point of limitation, a suit can be dismissed summarily if it is determinable from the pleadings that limitation would have run from a particular point, say 'A', which plaintiff admits and yet suit has been filed beyond prescribed limit. But this is not the case in hand.

20. Looking to the exposition of law on the point and interpretation of the provisions contained under Article 54 of Limitation Act, 1963 in judgments referred to hereinabove, it can be safely concluded that the agreement since did not contain any fixed date or a crystallized date to suggest that if agreement for sale was not executed on or before that date then cause would arise to maintain a suit for specific performance of contract.

21. Even for arguments' sake though law is otherwise, if it is taken that period of three months would run as limitation period, clause 3 of the agreement for sale would come into play, as this clause gives a discretion to the defendant-petitioner to execute the saledeed after the resolution of dispute, if any, by erecting the boundary wall upon the land in suit if it was not constructed within three months of execution of agreement for sale.

22. Looking to the pleadings as raised in paragrpah no.5 to the plaint it can be safely concluded that there was some dispute regarding land in question and the Court would only come to a conclusion after the evidence is led whether this dispute was the reason for petitioner not constructing the boundary wall and not executing the saledeed. There is no pleading in the entire petition that petitioner had ever shown his readiness and willingness to execute the sale deed by constructing the boundary wall, or that he had replied to the first notice. All this, therefore, leads to an inevitable conclusion that question as to limitation is a mixed question of law and fact so as to determine whether the suit in question is filed within limitation period or was barred by law of limitation.

23. In such above view of the matter, therefore, neither I find any manifest error in the order passed by the trial court, nor do I see any wrongful exercise of jurisdiction vested in the Court, nor even any failure to exercise jurisdiction vested in Court that may require this Court to interfere with the order impugned in exercise of its revisional power under 115 C.P.C.

24. However, since the question as to maintainability of the suit for being barred by limitation goes to the root of the matter, I hereby provide that while the issues are framed, the issue qua order 7 rule 11 CPC shall be framed as first issue to be decided as preliminary issue before any other issue is decided. Parties shall be permitted to lead their evidence and shall be afforded reasonable opportunity of hearing upon the said preliminary issue.

25. With these observations and directions, this petition stands disposed of.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1979
REVISIONAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. MANJU RANI CHAUHAN, J.

Criminal Revision No. 5872 of 2023

Umesh Singh ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Mohd. Raghib Ali, Sr. Advocate

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Satya Priya Mishra

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 2 (d), 2(h), 156(3), 161, 173, 173(2), 190, 190(1), 190(1)(a), 190 (1)(b), 191(b), 200, 202, 397 & 401 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 34, 307 & 427 - Indian Evidence Act, 1872 - Section 11 - Criminal Revision – u/s 397/401 Cr.P.C. – FIR u/s 307, 427, 34 of IPC – investigation – final report – protest petition – rejected by the ACJM – complainant field criminal revision – Revisional Court allowed the revision by remitting the matter to court below to decide the same afresh – against which the present Revision – aspect of, the power of magistrate and jurisdiction of Revisional Court is discussed - court finds that, (i) after registration of FIR and after submission of the final report by the I.O. same was transfer to crime branch, (ii)

the I.O. while submitting FR took into consideration of the St.ments of informant and all the witnesses of both side and arrived at a conclusion that the informant of accused person in the incident was not found and there is no chance to find out the real accused persons being nothing could be found – (iii) on the evidence collected by the I.O. he is duty bound to report the result of investigation in the prescribed form to the concern magistrate – held - (i) Revisional jurisdiction should be exercised by any court in exceptional cases when there is some glaring defect in the procedure or a manifest error on a point of law resulting in flagrant miscarriage of justice, (ii) relying upon the material available on record, the Magistrate has duly recorded his satisfaction comprehensively that it was a case where the complicity of the revisionist was not found in the incident, (iii) the revisional court has committed error in setting aside the order and remitting the matter back to the Magistrate to decide it afresh – consequently, the order impugned is unsustainable and is set aside – revision stands allowed. (Para – 24, 51, 53, 57, 59)

Revision Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Vishnu Kumar Tiwari Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - 2019 AIR (SC) 3482,

2. Munshi Prasad Vs St. of Bihar - AIR 2001 SC 3031,

3. Bhagwant Singh Vs Commissioner of Police - (1985) 2 SCC 53,

4. H.S. Bains, Director, small saving-cum-Deputy Secretary, Punj., Chandigarh (1980) 4 SCC 631,

5. M/s India Carat Pvt Ltd Vs St. of Karnataka & anr. - 1989 (1) RCR (Criminal) 395,

6. Union Public Service Commission Vs S Papaiah – 1997 SCC (Crl) 1112,

7. Vishnu Kumar Tiwari Vs The St. of Uttar Pradesh - (2019) 8 SCC 27,

8. Abhinandan Jha & ors.Vs Dinesh Mishra - AIR 1968 SC 117,

9. Tata Iron and Steel Co. Ltd. Vs Inspector of Police, CCB, Egmore, Madras - 1989 LW(CRL) 155,

10. Dr. Mrs Nupur Talwar Vs C.B.I, Delhi - 2012 Crl. LJ SC 954,

11. India Carat Private Ltd. Vs St. of Karnataka - (1989) 2 SCC 132,

12. Vishnu Kumar Tiwari Vs St. of U.P - (2019) 8 SCC 27,

13. Munna Devi Vs St. of Raj. & anr. – 2001 (9) SCC 631, 14. Km. Phooldali Vs St. of U.P. & anr. - Criminal Revision No.1734/2000, decided on 06.11.2019.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Manju Rani Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Saghir Ahmad, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Mr. Mohd Raghib Ali, learned counsel for the revisionist, Mr. Satya Priya Mishra, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 and Mr. Amit Singh Chauhan, learned AGA-I assisted by Mr. Mayank Awasthi, learned counsel for the State and perused the record.

2. This criminal revision under section 397/401 Cr.P.C. has been preferred by the revisionist against the impugned order dated 30.09.2023 passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge, P.C. Act (U.P.S.I.B.), Gorakhpur in criminal revision no.130 of 20221, arising out of . Case Crime No. 60 of 2016, F.R. No.20010/2017, under Sections 307, 427, 34 IPC, Police Station-Uruwa Bazar, District-Gorakhpur.

BRIEF FACTS OF THE CASE

3. The facts in brief which are essential to be stated for adjudication of this revision are that:-

(i) An FIR was lodged on 26.05.2016 by the informant; Nanhe Lal Yadav, under Sections 307, 427, 34 IPC, which was registered as Case Crime No.0060 of 2016 against two named accused, namely, Umesh Singh, Vivek Singh and three unknown persons with the allegations that on 25.05.2016, the informant was returning from Rambada to his home with his uncle B.R.Yadav in his Bolero No. UP 53 BK 8201, at around 11:00 pm, his vehicle reached near culvert and the speed of the vehicle was slow due to the height of the culvert, due to prior enmity, the accused Umesh Singh and Vivek Singh along with three unknown persons were present on two motorcycles and they came from the front and started firing at the informant and his uncle with the intention of killing them, due to which the glass of the Bolero broke, the informant's uncle was shot on his right shoulder and neck, whereas the informant was shot on his chest and stomach. As he had a mobile phone in the left pocket of his shirt, the aforesaid firearm gunshot hit the mobile screen due to which the glass of the mobile was broken. Seeing this unfortunate incident, the informant started driving the vehicle speedily to save his life. Seeing this, the accused fired from behind and chased them till the petrol pump. Due to the said gunshot, the front and rear glass of the vehicle was broken. The informant informed the police by dialing 100 in the control room from his mobile number 9956562664. The police reached there with an ambulance and seeing the condition of the informant's uncle, he was taken to the District Hospital, Gorakhpur for treatment in the said ambulance. Seeing the serious condition of informant's uncle, he was referred to the Medical College, Gorakhpur, where he was admitted for treatment. The informant saw the accused in the light of the headlights. Rambrichh s/o Ludur was also sitting with the informant in his vehicle and had witnessed the above incident.

(ii) During investigation, the statement of injured; Budhiram Yadav was recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. on 04.06.2016 in which he reiterated the version of the FIR.

(iii) The field unit has inspected Bolero car No.UP53 BK 8201 and prepared the memo, which is evident from case dairy dated 08.06.2016. From the aforesaid, it is clear that no other witness or any accused person was found at the place of incident.

(iv) The case was transferred from Police Station Uruwa Bazar to Police Station Khajni by order dated 07.07.2016. The same finds place at Parcha No.X dated 07.07.2016 in the case dairy.

(v) The second Investigating Officer interrogated the witness Ram Das and Ramai Bind on 04.08.2016 and recorded their statements u/s 161 Cr.P.C. Both the witnesses have supported the FIR version and Ram Das has stated that he was sitting in the back seat along with Ramai Bind and Rambrichh. He also said that three bullets were fired from the front and two from the rear of the vehicle.

(vi) In pursuant of the order dated 28.09.2016 passed by Superintendent of Police (crime), the case was again transferred from the police station Khajni to Crime Branch.

(vii) On 24.11.2016, the third Investigating Officer recorded the statement of the informant, Budhiram, Rambrikchh and hearsay witness; Ramai.

The injured Budhiram and witness; Ram Brikchh have reiterated their earlier statement. The hearsay witness; Ramai has also repeated his earlier statement. On 28.12.2016, the statement of Ram Das has been recorded, who has supported the prosecution story.

(viii) An application alongwith affidavit of Smt. Suddha Singh wife of Umesh Kumar Singh addressed to D.I.G., Gorakhpur Range Gorakhpur for fair investigation has been given on 01.02.2017. The same finds place at parcha no.29 in the case dairy.

(ix) Thereafter, on 10.02.2017, Umesh Kumar Singh has given an application alongwith affidavit referring to the earlier application given by his wife, which is also addressed to the D.I.G., Gorakhpur Range Gorakhpur requesting for fair investigation.

(x) Smt. Sudha Singh wife of Umesh Singh has given an affidavit stating therein that at the date and time of incident, Umesh Singh is not present. The same has been supported by the Chandra Kant, Dinesh Chaubey, Vijay Pratap Singh, Ram Agrawal and statement of Suddha Singh, Doctor Virendra Kumar Gupta, statement of Dig Vijay Singh, Ajay Sharma, Rakesh, Ashok Yadav, Arun Bahadur Pal, by means of affidavits filed before the Investigating Officer, which is part of case dairy.

(xi) Taking into consideration the aforesaid, the Investigating Officer, on the basis of evidence collected during course of investigation under Section 2(h) Cr.P.C. arrived at a conclusion that a there is no evidence against the named accused, therefore, they have been exonerated from all charges and final report no.2/2017, dated 14.02.2017 has been submitted.

(xii) The aforesaid final report has been placed before learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bansgaon, Gorakhpur and on 19.11.2018, the opposite party no.2 filed protest/objection in connection with the above referred final report.

(xiii) On 05.05.2022, learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bansgaon, Gorakhpur rejected the protest petition and accepted the final report. The aforesaid order dated 05.05.2022 was challenged by the opposite party no.2/complainant by means of filing criminal revision no.130 of 2022 on 05.07.2022.

(xiv) On 30.09.2022, the learned Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge, P.C. Act (U.P.S.I.B.), Gorakhpur has heard and allowed the revision in part by setting aside the order dated 05.05.2022 and remitting the matter to the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bansgaon, Gorakhpur to decide the same afresh in the light of observations made by the revisional court after providing an opportunity to both the parties. Hence the present criminal revision has been filed.

REVISIONIST'S SUBMISSION

4. Learned counsel for the revisionist, while challenging the order impugned, has submitted that:-

(i) the Revisional Court has passed unjust, improper and illegal order and exceeded his jurisdiction, therefore, the same is not sustainable in the eye of law.

(ii) the finding given and conclusion arrived by the Revisional Court is perverse on record and the very assumption has not been supported by any cogent, clinching and admissible evidence collected by the Investigating Officer during course of investigation according to section 2(h) Cr.P.C.

(iii) the Revisional Court has passed the impugned order without application of judicial mind and without considering that learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bansgaon, Gorakhpur has legally taken into consideration of facts and circumstances as enumerated in the material collected by the Investigating Officer as well as protest petition and has reasonably arrived at conclusion to accept the final report passing the order dated 05.05.2022 in just, proper and legal manner.

(iv) the opposite party no.2 has completely failed to point out any error in the investigation and has also not rebutted the conclusion arrived at by the Investigating Officer while submitting final report. No ground has been taken in the memo of revision regarding illegality or infirmity in the order impugned 05.05.2022 passed by the concerned Magistrate, which has not been considered by the Revisional Court in its order dated 30.09.2023. Thus, the same is illegal.

(v) To sum up, the impugned order dated 30.09.2023 has been challenged merely on three grounds; firstly, the opposite party no.2 has been completely failed to point out any error in above referred Final Report No.2/17, dated 14.02.2017 in its protest petition dated 19.11.2018; secondly, the opposite party no.2 has not rebutted the finding recorded by the concerned Magistrate in its order dated 05.05.2022 in the memo of revision dated 05.07.2022; thirdly, the innocence of the revisionist has been fortified firstly by the Investigating Officer vide Final Report No.2/17 dated 14.07.2022 and secondly by the concerned Magistrate vide its order dated 05.05.2022.

6. Learned counsel for the revisionist has relied upon the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Vishnu Kumar Tiwari vs. State of U.P. and another2. Relevant paragraph nos.25, 26 & 41 of the aforesaid judgment are as under:-

"25. In Rakesh Kumar and another v. State of Uttar Pradesh and another, on the basis of a First Information Report lodged by the Police after investigation, a final report came to be filed. The Magistrate accepted the final report. He, simultaneously, directed the case be proceeded with as a complaint case. Statements under Section 200 and 202 of the Code were recorded. The High Court turned down the plea of the accused to whom summons were issued. It was the contention of the accused that having accepted a negative final report, the court could not take action on the basis of the protest petition filed by the complainant. This Court refers to the judgment in H.S. Bains (supra). The principles of law laid down in paragraph 12 of Mahesh Chand (supra), 6 2014 (13) SCC 133 which we have also referred to earlier, came to be approved. The order of the High Court was approved.

26. This is a case where following the First Information Report, the Investigating Officer conducted an investigation. Statements were taken from the complainant, his wife and his son. This is apart from the statements which were taken from the Doctors who treated the daughter of the second respondent/complainant. The Investigation Officer concluded that there is no material which would warrant the accused being sent for trial. When such a report is filed before the court, it is beyond the shade of doubt that the Magistrate may still choose to reject the final report and proceed to take cognizance of the offences, which in his view, are seen committed. He may, on the other hand, after pondering over the materials, which would include the statements of witnesses collected by the Investigating Officer, decide to accept the final report. He may entertain the view that it is a case where further investigation by the Officer is warranted before a decision is taken as to whether cognizance is to be taken or not.

41. In Rakesh Kumar (supra), the final report was filed which was accepted by the Magistrate but he simultaneously directed the case to be proceeded as a complaint case and statements under Sections 200 and 202 of the Code came to be recorded."

7. On the cumulative strength of the aforesaid submissions, learned counsel for the revisionist submits that the Revisional Court has illegally passed the order impugned dated 30.09.2023 allowing the revision of the opposite party no.2 without assigning any cogent reason, which is not justifiable in the eye of law, therefore, the impugned order is liable to be set aside.

SUBMISSION OF OPPOSITE PARTY NO.2

8. On the other hand, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 submits that there is no illegality in the order impugned dated 30.09.2023 as the same has been passed after considering the principal as laid down by judgment of Apex Court in Vishnu Kumar Tiwari (supra). The concerned Magistrate while passing the order dated 05.05.2023 has confirmed the final report ignoring the statement of injured witness and eye witness. The investigating officer while submitting the final report has not collected live location of such witnesses, who have supported the plea of alibi as taken by the revisionist and without taking the same into consideration, the concerned Magistrate has passed the order dated 05.05.2023, which is illegal.

9. He further submits that the opposite party no.2/informant has not mentioned an additional ground in the revision and only such ground, which is recorded by the Investigating Officer during investigation and it's part of case dairy, has been ignored and final report has been submitted, which has been accepted by the concerned Magistrate without verifying the evidence as placed by the accused persons.

10. Relying upon the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Munshi Prasad vs. State of Bihar3, he submits that the plea of alibi was not accepted when the accused had stated that he was present in the meeting held near about 400-500 meters way from the place of incident as considered the accused must have joined meeting after committed the incident. The aforesaid fact has not been considered by the Investigating Officer while submitting the Final Report nor the concerned Magistrate while accepting the final report and passing the order dated 05.05.2023.

11. Relying upon Section 11 of Evidence Act, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 submits that the plea of alibi has taken by the accused has to be seen as to whether the same is inconsistent with any fact in issue or relevant fact or if by themselves or in connection with other facts it makes the existence or non-existence of any fact in issue or relevant fact highly probable or improbable.

12. Thus, probability of committing the offence and they going for treatment of his wife as has been stated by the revisionist and supported by the other persons appears to be highly improbable as the fact that the revisionist has committed the offence and has gone for the treatment of his wife as there are chances that the revisionist would have committed the offence and then had gone for treatment of his wife. Thus, there is no illegality in the order impugned.

SUBMISSION OF STATE COUNSEL

13. While assisting the Court, learned counsel for the State submits that the Magistrate after receiving the final report has the following options:-

(i) he could have accepted the report and, closed the case;

(ii) he could have taken cognizance of offence on the basis of evidence available in the case diary against the accused, if he was satisfied that the conclusion arrived at by the investigating officer was not correct;

(iii) he could have ordered for further investigation, if he was satisfied that the investigation was made in a perfunctory manner; and

(iv) he could have treated the protest petition as a complaint and adopted the procedure under Chapter XV of the code.

14. He further submits that in the present case as the Magistrate has initiated to consider the options available, he after considering the record, issued notice to the first informant, before accepting the police report in the light of judgment of Apex Court in the case of Bhagwant Singh Vs Commissioner of Police4, as there is no provision of protest petition in the Code. As such it is explicit that the Magistrate was of the opinion to opt for the option (a) of accepting the Final Report after considering material collected by investigating agencies. Thus notice was issued to the complainant to raise objection against the same if any.

15. Here, the protest petition has to satisfy the ingredients of complaint before the Magistrate taking cognizance u/s 190 (1) (a) CrPC. Where the informant brought to the notice of the Magistrate the infirmities in the investigation and investigating process, a refusal of the Magistrate on the ground that he does not have the power to review can be totally wrong. Further Magistrate is not debarred from taking cognizance of a second complaint mere on the ground that earlier he had declined to take cognizance. In support of his submission, he has relied upon the followings judgements:-

(i) H.S. Bains, Director, small saving-cum-Deputy Secretary, Punjab, Chandigarh5;

(ii) M/s India Carat Pvt Ltd Vs State of Karnataka & another6;

(iii) Union Public Service Commission Vs S Papaiah7;

(iv) Vishnu Kumar Tiwari Vs State of UP8;

16. The Magistrate after considering the protest petition finds that protest petition is devoid of necessary requirements which may call for questioning the investigation and while concurring with the opinion of I.O. filed in CD Parcha No. 31 accepted the final report vide its order dated 05.05.2022.

17. He further submits that against the order dated 05.05.2022, the revision was filed by the O.P./first informant as revision no. 130 of 2022 and the same was allowed and case was remitted back for re-adjudication by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Gorakhpur vide its order dated 30.09.2023.

18. The aforesaid order dated 30.9.2023 was passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge after observing that learned Magistrate has passed the order dated 5.5.2022 without going through the aspect that I.O. didn't find the incident as untrue and accepted the final report against the accused on the ground that there is evidence of alibi of the accused and that complicity of the accused was wrongly mentioned.

19. He has relied upon the judgment of Apex Court in the case of Vishnu Kumar Tiwari vs The State of Uttar Pradesh9. The relevant paragraph no.26 is as under:-

"26. It is undoubtedly true that before a Magistrate proceeds to accept a final report u/s 173 and exonerate the accused, it is incumbent upon the Magistrate to apply his mind to the contents of the protest petition and arrive at a conclusion thereafter. While the Investigating Officer may rest content by producing the final report, which according to him, is the culmination of his efforts, the duty of the Magistrate is not one limited to readily accepting the final report. It is incumbent upon him to go through materials, and after hearing the complainant and considering the contents of the protest petition, finally decide the future course of action to be whether to continue with the matter or to bring the curtain down."

20. While reiterating the aforesaid observation made by the Apex Court in Vishnu Kumar Tiwari (Supra), the Revisional Court erred in examining the order dated 05.05.2022 which is clearly in the light of its ambit, as the concerned Magistrate has explicitly mentioned that protest petition doesn't mention any infirmities in the investigation nor it specifically points out any such evidence which satisfy for the summoning of accused or rejected the final report. Moreover order dated 05.05.2022 reveals that Magistrate has gone thought the material available and had pointed out the evidence collected by I.O. which exonerate the accused person from the complicity of offence.

21. Further, it is well settled that it is within the discretionary power of the Magistrate to accept or reject the final report submitted to him by the police officer.

22. Moreover, the Revisional Court can not touch the factual aspects of the matter and re-appreciate the evidence unless it is shown / found that the court below failed to exercise the jurisdiction which they are supposed to or have committed a patent illegality. It is further well settled that Revisional Court can not substitute its opinion simply because another view is possible and unless there is patent illegality on the face of record which may lead to miscarriage of justice, the Revisional Court will not exercise its diligence over the matter.

23. With consent of the counsel for the parties, this revision is decided finally at this stage without calling for counter affidavit as legal question is involved.

OBSERVATION OF THE COURT

24. Before entering into merits of the case, the facts of the brief are:-

(a) An FIR was registered as Case Crime No.60 of 2016, under Sections 307, 427, 34 IPC against the revisionist and others at P.S.-, District-Gorakhpur on 26.05.2016 by opposite party no.2-Nanhe Lal Yadav. Subsequently, after investigation, the Investigating Officer submitted final report no.2/17 dated 14.02.2017. The said investigation was conducted by Police Station-Uruwa Bazar then it was transferred to Police Station-Khajni and then it was transferred to crime branch.

(b) The Investigating Officer while submitting final report took into consideration the statement of informant, all the witnesses including injured witness, injury reports, spot inspection report and affidavits filed by person from side of revisionist, thus arriving at a conclusion that the involvement of revisionist-Umesh Singh and Vivek Singh in the incident was not found, efforts were put in to find the real accused persons but nothing could be found. There being no chances in near future to find the real culprits and as the investigation was pending since ten months, therefore, it was not appropriate to keep it pending. Hence, final report was submitted on 14.02.2017.

(c) On the evidence collected by the Investigating Officer, he has to form his opinion as to whether it discloses any offence or it does not disclose any offence and accordingly, he is duty bound to report the result of his investigation in the prescribed form to the jurisdictional magistrate. In the present case on the basis of evidence collected by the Investigating Officer, thus finally submitted a final report on 14.02.2017.

25. While dealing with the merits of the case two aspects are involved; firstly, the power of Magistrate as to what exercise is to be done after receiving such a report; secondly, jurisdiction of the Sessions Judge/ Revisional Court while deciding the revision.

26. While dealing with the first aspects, i.e. the power of Magistrate as to what exercise has to be done after receiving such a report. After receiving the police report, the learned Magistrate has following options;-

(a) The Magistrate may agree with the conclusion of the police report and accept the final report and drop the proceedings;

(b) The Magistrate may take cognizance under Section 191(b) Cr.P.C. and issue process straightway to the accused without being bound by the conclusion of the Investigating Agency where he is satisfied that upon the fact discovered by the police, there is sufficient ground to proceed;

(c) He may order for further investigation, if he is satisfied that the investigation was made in perfunctory manner;

(d) He may treat the protest, if any, as complaint without issuing process and dropping the proceedings under Section 190(1)(a) Cr.P.C. and proceed to record statement under Sections 200 and 202 Cr.P.C. and, thereafter, decide whether the complaint should be dismissed or process should be issued.

27. When a report, i.e. charge-sheet or final report, is submitted, what the learned Magistrate has to do has been stated in Section 190 Cr.P.C. It runs as under:-

"190. Cognizance of offences by Magistrates.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Chapter, any Magistrate of the first class, specially empowered in this behalf under sub-section (2), may take cognizance of any offence-

(a) Upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence.

(b) Upon it police report of such facts;

(c) Upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge, that such offence has been committed."

28. In the present case, where a Final Report has been submitted, what the learned Magistrate has to do, has been stated in several cases. The Apex Court in the case of Abhinandan Jha and others vs. Dinesh Mishra10 had occasion to deal with the question as to what the Magistrate has to do when a final report is filed before him by the Investigating Officer. The Apex Court in aforesaid case while referring to section 190 Cr.P.C., which is the first section in the group of sections headed 'conditions requisite for initiation of proceedings', was of the opinion that the use of word, 'may take cognizance of any offence', in Sub-section (1) of Section 190 Cr.P.C., imports the exercise of a 'judicial discretion' and the Magistrate, who receives the report, under Section 173, will have to consider the said report and judicially take a decision, as to whether take or not to take cognizance of the offence.

29. Thus, from the aforesaid judgment, it follows that it is not as if, that the Magistrate is bound to accept the opinion of the police that there is a case for placing the accused, on trial. It is open to the Magistrate to take the view that the facts disclosed in the report do not make out an offence for taking cognizance or he may take the view that there is no sufficient evidence to justify an accused being put on trial. On either of these grounds, the Magistrate will be perfectly justified in declining to take cognizance of an offence, irrespective of the opinion of the police.

30. To be more clear, it can be said that if the Magistrate agrees with the Final Report, he may accept the Final Report and close the proceedings. But there may be instances when the Magistrate may take the view, on a consideration of the final report, that the opinion formed by the police is not based on a full and complete investigation, in which case, the Magistrate will have ample jurisdiction to give directions to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. to make a further investigation. It may also be so, that if the Magistrate feels, after considering the final report, that the investigation is unsatisfactory or incomplete or that there is scope for further investigation, it will be open to the Magistrate to decline to accept the final report and direct the police to make further investigation under 156(3).

31. It may also be so, that, in case the Magistrate on receiving the final report forms the opinion that the fact, set out in the final report, constitute an offence, he may take cognizance of the offence under Section 190 (1)(b) Cr.P.C. notwithstanding the contrary opinion of the police expressed in the final report.

32. The same question as to the powers of Magistrate while accepting the final report has been dealt in the case of

Tata Iron and Steel Co. Ltd. vs. Inspector of Police, CCB, Egmore, Madras11. The Apex Court observed as under:-

"6. Thirdly, the contention of the Revision Petitioner is that the Magistrate should not blindly accept the report of the Police Officer, and that he should, on the contrary, apply his mind and come to an independent conclusion whether to take the case on file or not under S.190, Cr.P.C. In fact, when the Magistrate gets a negative report under S.173, Crl.P.C., he should chose between one of the four causes: (1) to accept the report and drop the proceedings. (2) to direct further investigation to be made by the police, (3) to investigate himself or order for the investigation to be made by another Magistrate under S.159, Crl.P.C. (4) to take cognizance of the offence under S.200, Crl.P.C., as a private complaint, when the materials are sufficient in his opinion and if the complainant is prepared for that course."

33. In Dr. Mrs Nupur Talwar vs. C.B.I, Delhi12, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held as under:-

"18. Section 190 of the Code lays down the conditions which are requisite for the initiation of a criminal proceeding.

19. At this stage the Magistrate is required to exercise sound judicial discretion and apply his mind to the facts and materials before him. In doing so, the Magistrate is not bound by the opinion of the investigating officer and he is competent to exercise his discretion irrespective of the views expressed by the Police in its report and may prima facie find out whether an offence has been made out or not.

20. The taking of cognizance means the point in time when a Court or a Magistrate takes judicial notice of an offence with a view to initiating proceedings in respect of such offence which appears to have been committed.

21. At the stage of taking of cognizance of offence, the Court has only to see whether prima facie there are reasons for issuing the process and whether the ingredients of the offence are there on record."

34. Be that as it may, the Magistrate is required to exercise sound judicial discretion and apply his mind to the facts and materials before him on receiving the Final Report and in doing so, he is not bound by the opinion of the Investigating Officer and he is competent to exercise his discretion irrespective of the views expressed by the police in its report and may prima facie find out whether an offence has been made out or not. Thus, taking of cognizance means the point in time when a Court or a Magistrate takes judicial notice of an offence with a view to initiating proceedings in respect of such offence which appears to have been committed.

35. At the stage of taking of cognizance of offence, the Court has only to see whether prima facie there are reasons for issuing the process and whether the ingredients of the offence are there on record.

36. Reference in this connection may be made to a three Judge Bench decision of the Apex Court in the case of India Carat Private Ltd. v. State of Karnataka13. In the aforesaid case, the Apex Court has explained the position so brevity, which is as under:-

"The position is, therefore, now well settled that upon receipt of a police report under Section 173(2) a Magistrate is entitled to take cognizance of an offence under Section 190(1)(b) of the Code even if the police report is to the effect that no case is made out against the accused. The Magistrate can take into account the statements of the witnesses examined by the police during the investigation and take cognizance of the offence complained of and order the issue of process to the accused. Section 190(1) (b) does not lay down that a Magistrate can take cognizance of an offence only if the investigating officer gives an opinion that the investigation has made out a case against the accused. The Magistrate can ignore the conclusion arrived at by the investigating officer; and independently apply his mind to the facts emerging from the investigation and take cognizance of the case, if he thinks fit, in exercise of his powers under Section 190(1)(b) and direct the issue of process to the accused……"

37. In the present case, first information report was lodged, the Investigating Officer conducted the investigation taking into consideration statements of all concerned, spot inspection report, affidavits filed on behalf of the revisionist taking plea of alibi, concluded that the involvement of revisionist was not found in the incident, therefore, submitted a final report.

38. As it is well settled and beyond shed of doubt that the Magistrate irrespective of the opinion found by the Investigating Officer may choose to reject the Final Report and proceed to take cognizance of the offence which in his view are seen or he may after considering the material which would include the statement of the witnesses collected by the Investigating Officer decide to accept final report. He thus for accepting the final report has to issue notice to the first informant/complainant, which has been done in the present case and a protest petition has been filed.

39. The protest petition dated 19.11.2018 was rejected and accepting the Final Report vide order dated 05.05.2022 as the learned Magistrate found that no specific ground or specific basis was taken in the protest petition which could point out the flaw in the investigation. It was also found by the learned Magistrate that no issues or points were mentioned on which a proper investigation was not done.

40. Short question arises for consideration in the present case is whether the protest filed by the informant after notices issued to him, may be treated as complaint.

41. The protest petition could have been treated as complaint case for taking cognizance under Section 190(1)(a) Cr.P.C. but for the protest petition to be treated as complaint, the Magistrate has to satisfy that the ingredients of complaint as defined under 2(d) Cr.P.C. are fulfilled.

42. In the present case, the contents of the protest petition were only that the Investigating Officer has not carried out investigation in a proper manner though the statements and evidences to that effect were collected by him. The protest petition did not mention the specific ground, points or basis on which the investigation was not conducted.

43. It is undoubted that the Magistrate can treat the protest petition as complaint provided that the protest petition fulfills the requirements of a complaint. It can be treated as a complaint only after considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the material, which is made available before him by the complainant in the protest petition. The Magistrate cannot be compelled to treat the protest petition as complaint in the absence of any ground and in case, ingredients of complaint as defined in Section 2(d) Cr.P.C. are not there.

44. In the case before this Court, based on material collected by the Investigating Officer and protest petition, the Magistrate came to the conclusion that the protest petition was devoid of necessary requirements, which may call for questioning the investigation as no specific point, ground or basis regarding deficiency in the investigation has been mentioned by the complainant/informant. The Magistrate, thus, agreeing with the opinion of the Investigating Officer filed in CD Parcha No.31, accepted the final report. Thus, he has applied judicial mind while accepting the final report by the order dated 05.05.2022.

45. There cannot be any doubt or dispute that only because the Magistrate has accepted a final report, the same by itself would not stand in his way to take cognizance of the offence on a protest/complaint petition; but the question which is required to be posed and answered would be as to under what circumstances the said power can be exercised.

46. The Court is concerned with the question as to whether a Magistrate even after accepting final report filed by the police, can take cognizance of offence upon a complaint or the protest petition on same or similar allegations of fact.

47. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Vishnu Kumar Tiwari v. State of U.P.14 has held that if the material presented with the protest petition is such which persuade the learned Magistrate to disagree with the conclusion arrived at by the investigating officer, learned Magistrate can take cognizance under Section 190(1)(b) of the CrPC. However, learned Magistrate cannot be forced to treat a protest petition as a complaint, if after considering the final report, statement of the witnesses available in the case diary and material made available in the protest petition he is of the opinion that no case is made out. A private complaint is to contain complete list of witnesses to be examined. Para 42 to 46 of the aforesaid judgment are extracted under:-

"42. In the facts of this case, having regard to the nature of the allegations contained in the protest petition and the annexures which essentially consisted of affidavits, if the Magistrate was convinced on the basis of the consideration of the final report, the statements under Section 161 of the Code that no prima facie case is made out, certainly the Magistrate could not be compelled to take cognizance by treating the protest petition as a complaint. The fact that he may have jurisdiction in a case to treat the protest petition as a complaint, is a different matter. Undoubtedly, if he treats the protest petition as a complaint, he would have to follow the procedure prescribed under Sections 200 and 202 of the Code if the latter section also commends itself to the Magistrate. In other words, necessarily, the complainant and his witnesses would have to be examined. No doubt, depending upon the material which is made available to a Magistrate by the complainant in the protest petition, it may be capable of being relied on in a particular case having regard to its inherent nature and impact on the conclusions in the final report. That is, if the material is such that it persuades the court to disagree with the conclusions arrived at by the investigating officer, cognizance could be taken under Section 190(1)(b) of the Code for which there is no necessity to examine the witnesses under Section 200 of the Code. But as the Magistrate could not be compelled to treat the protest petition as a complaint, the remedy of the complainant would be to file a fresh complaint and invite the Magistrate to follow the procedure under Section 200 of the Code or Section 200 read with Section 202 of the Code. Therefore, we are of the view that in the facts of this case, we cannot support the decision of the High Court.

43. It is true that law mandates notice to the informant / complainant where the Magistrate contemplates accepting the final report. On receipt of notice, the informant may address the court ventilating his objections to the final report. This he usually does in the form of the protest petition. In Mahabir Prasad Agarwala v. State [Mahabir Prasad Agarwala v. State, 1957 SCC OnLine Ori 5 : AIR 1958 Ori 11] , a learned Judge of the High Court of Orissa, took the view that a protest petition is in the nature of a complaint and should be examined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XVI of the Criminal Procedure Code. We, however, also noticed that in Qasim v. State [Qasim v. State, 1984 SCC OnLine All 260 : 1984 Cri LJ 1677] , a learned Single Judge of the High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, inter alia, held as follows: (Qasim case [Qasim v. State, 1984 SCC OnLine All 260 : 1984 Cri LJ 1677] , SCC OnLine All para 6)

"6.... In Abhinandan Jha [Abhinandan Jha v. Dinesh Mishra, AIR 1968 SC 117 : 1968 Cri LJ 97 : (1967) 3 SCR 668] also what was observed was "it is not very clear as to whether the Magistrate has chosen to treat the protest petition as complaint". This observation would not mean that every protest petition must necessarily be treated as a complaint whether it satisfies the conditions of the complaint or not. A private complaint is to contain a complete list of witnesses to be examined. A further examination of complainant is made under Section 200 CrPC. If the Magistrate did not treat the protest petition as a complaint, the protest petition not satisfying all the conditions of the complaint to his mind, it would not mean that the case has become a complaint case. In fact, in majority of cases when a final report is submitted, the Magistrate has to simply consider whether on the materials in the case diary no case is made out as to accept the final report or whether case diary discloses a prima facie case as to take cognizance. The protest petition in such situation simply serves the purpose of drawing Magistrate's attention to the materials in the case diary and invite a careful scrutiny and exercise of the mind by the Magistrate so it cannot be held that simply because there is a protest petition the case is to become a complaint case."

(emphasis supplied)

44. We may also notice that in Veerappa v. Bhimareddappa [Veerappa v. Bhimareddappa, 2001 SCC OnLine Kar 447 : 2002 Cri LJ 2150] , the High Court of Karnataka observed as follows:(SCC OnLine Kar para 9)

"9. From the above, the position that emerges is this: Where initially the complainant has not filed any complaint before the Magistrate under Section 200 CrPC, but, has approached the police only and where the police after investigation have filed the "B' report, if the complainant wants to protest, he is thereby inviting the Magistrate to take cognizance under Section 190(1)(a) CrPC on a complaint. If it were to be so, the protest petition that he files shall have to satisfy the requirements of a complaint as defined in Section 2(d) CrPC, and that should contain facts that constitute offence, for which, the learned Magistrate is taking cognizance under Section 190(1)(a) CrPC. Instead, if it is to be simply styled as a protest petition without containing all those necessary particulars that a normal complaint has to contain, then, it cannot be construed as a complaint for the purpose of proceeding under Section 200 CrPC."

45. "Complaint" is defined in Section 2(d) of the Code as follows:

"2. (d) "complaint" means any allegation made orally or in writing to a Magistrate, with a view to his taking action under this Code, that some person, whether known or unknown, has committed an offence, but does not include a police report.

Explanation.--A report made by a police officer in a case which discloses, after investigation, the commission of a non-cognizable offence shall be deemed to be a complaint; and the police officer by whom such report is made shall be deemed to be the complainant;"

46. If a protest petition fulfils the requirements of a complaint, the Magistrate may treat the protest petition as a complaint and deal with the same as required under Section 200 read with Section 202 of the Code. In this case, in fact, there is no list of witnesses as such in the protest petition. The prayer in the protest petition is to set aside the final report and to allow the application against the final report. While we are not suggesting that the form must entirely be decisive of the question whether it amounts to a complaint or is liable to be treated as a complaint, we would think that essentially, the protest petition in this case, is summing up of the objections of the second respondent against the final report."

48. From perusal of the above opinion of the Apex Court, it is also reflected that the Magistrate had the liberty to reject the protest petition alongwith all other material, which may have been filed in support of the same. In that event the complainant would be at liberty to file a fresh complaint. The right of the complainant to file a petition under Section 200 Cr.P.C. is not taken away even if the Magistrate concerned does not direct that such a protest petition be treated as a complaint.

49. In the present case, the Magistrate has applied his judicial mind and has accepted the final report after taking into consideration the material available in the protest petition as well as the evidence as collected by the Investigating Officer. Thus, there is no illegality in the order dated 05.05.2022.

50. The Revisional Court while setting aside the order passed by the Magistrate has remitted back the matter to be heard again by the concerned Magistrate by order dated 30.09.2023, holding that the Magistrate has not passed the order after application of judicial mind as while accepting the final report and exonerating accused – revisionist, the concerned Magistrate should have looked into the case diary, the grounds mentioned in the protest petition and should have passed a reasoned order for coming to the conclusion of accepting the final report.

51. The Revisional Court while passing the order impugned dated 30.09.2023 has presumed that the concerned Magistrate while accepting the final report has not applied his judicial mind as on one hand the Investigating Officer while placing the final report before the concerned Magistrate has submitted that the real accused could not be found and considering the affidavits of the witnesses on the point of alibi, their involvement in the incident was found to be incorrect. In the incident, injured and eyewitness have named the accused persons and have supported the prosecution version as narrated in the FIR. The Investigating Officer did not believe the complainant's version and the evidence as produced before him, however, relying upon the call details and the averments made in the affidavits given by the witnesses has found the involvement of accused persons to be incorrect and expressed his inability to divulge the real accused persons. A protest petition has been filed against the submission of final report. The material collected from the place of incident, thus, proves that the incident took place, however, without analyzing the aforesaid fact, the concerned Magistrate has accepted the final report. In the order, impugned herein, dated 30.09.2023, the Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge, P.C. Act (U.P.S.I.B.), Gorakhpur has also considered the judgment of the Apex Court in Vishnu Kumar Tiwari (supra).

52. In the opinion of the Court, the revisional court has committed manifest error in examining the order dated 05.05.2022 which has been passed in the light of observations made by the Apex Court in Vishnu Kumar Tiwari (supra), whereas learned Magistrate has clearly mentioned that the protest petition filed by the complainant raising objection against the final report after notices issued to him, the complainant could not mention any infirmity or illegality in the investigation nor has showed any basis, ground or specific point to support any such evidence in his favour, which might satisfy summoning of the accused or rejection of the final report.

53. This Court finds that the concerned Magistrate has not committed any error in applying the judicial mind he has gone through the material as collected and placed by the Investigating Officer before him and has accepted the final report not finding the complicity of the revisionist in the incident as narrated in the FIR. As stated in the preceding paragraphs, in view of the settled position, the Magistrate is independent to form his opinion considering the evidences collected by the Investigating Officer and is free to accept or reject the report submitted by the Investigating Officer U/s 173 (2) of Cr.P.C. applying his judicial mind, without being influenced by the opinion expressed by the Investigating Officer.

54. This Court feels that in case any additional evidence is to be given by the complainant in the protest petition, the same cannot be taken into consideration by the concerned Magistrate, however, the complainant is always at liberty to file a fresh complaint therefor. The right of the complainant to file petition under Section 200 Cr.P.C. is also available, if the Magistrate concerned does not direct such a protest petition to be taken as a complaint.

55 . As regards the second points with respect to jurisdiction of Revisional Court/Sessions Court, in the case of Munna Devi Vs. State of Rajasthan and another15, the Apex Court has held as under:-

"The revision power under the Code of Criminal procedure cannot be exercised in a routine and casual manner.

While exercising such powers the High Court has no authority to appreciate the evidence in the manner as the trial and the appellate courts are required to do. Revisional powers could be exercised only when it is shown that there is a legal bar against the continuance of the criminal proceedings or the framing of charge or the facts as stated in the First Information Report even if they are taken at the face value and accepted in their entirety do not constitute the offence for which the accused has been charged."

56. In the case of Km. Phooldali vs. State of U.P. and another16, the Single Bench of this Court has held that while exercising the revisional jurisdiction, any court cannot sit in appeal and re-appreciate the evidence.

57. In the present case, relying upon the material evidence placed before him, the Magistrate has duly recorded his satisfaction comprehensively that it was a case where the complicity of the revisionist was not found in the incident, therefore, the revisional court has committed error in setting aside the order dated 05.05.2022 remitting the matter back to the Magistrate to decide it afresh. It is settled law that the revisional jurisdiction should be exercised by any court in exceptional cases only when there is some glaring defect in the procedure or a manifest error on a point of law resulting in flagrant miscarriage of justice. In the present case, the Revisional Court has committed error in passing the order impugned while it cannot sit in appeal and re-appreciate the evidence as per the settled position of law.

CONCLUSION

58. Having gone through the above proposition of law, I find that the jurisdiction of Revisional Court is severely restricted and it cannot embark upon a re-appreciation of evidence as has been done by the Revisional Court in the present case while passing the order impugned dated 30.09.2023. The court concerned has not been able to show that the order passed by the concerned Magistrate is contrary to record or perverse or that any material evidence has been ignored or misread.

59. Considering the submissions advanced by the learned counsel for the parties and law as settled on the issue, enumerated above, the order impugned dated 30.09.2023 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge/Special Judge, P.C. Act (U.P.S.I.B.), Gorakhpur is unsustainable. Thus, it is set aside.

60. However, this Court observes that the informant will have opportunity to file a complaint afresh, if so advised, in accordance with law.

61. The criminal revision stands allowed, accordingly.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1995
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK CHAUDHARY, J.
THE HON'BLE NARENDRA KUMAR JOHARI, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 1915 of 2024

Ambrish Kumar Verma ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Yogeshwar Sharan Srivastava

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Arvind Kumar Tripathi, Pranjal Krishna, Ravi Kant Pandey

Art. 226 of the Constitution of India - Premature release-Order of premature release of opposite party impugned-pursuant to order of the Division bench of the High Court in Criminal Appeal-that where the Remission Application is pending for more than six months after recommendation by the Superintendent of Jail-the CJM shall release the convict-reference was made in this writ with regard to correctness of the order of division bench-the larger bench held the direction of division bench is not as per law-impugned order set aside.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

Ganesh Vs St. of U.P. -Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2016

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vivek Chaudhary, J.
&
Hon'ble Narendra Kumar Johari, J.)

1. Short counter affidavit filed today is taken on record.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned A.G.A. for the State, Sri Ravi Kant Pandey, learned counsel for opposite party no.3, Sri Arvind Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for respondent no.4 and perused the record.

3. Present writ petition is filed by the petitioner challenging the order of premature release of opposite party no.3-Shyampal Verma dated 2.3.2024 in Sessions Trial no.90 of 2007 in Case Crime No.52 of 2006, under Sections 147, 148, 307, 302, 427 & 504 of I.P.C., Police Station Motiganj, District Gonda.

4. Facts of the case are that a Division Bench of this Court passed detailed directions in Criminal Appeal No.165 of 2016 (Ganesh vs. State of U.P.) in its judgment and order dated 10.1.2024 providing that where the remission application is pending for more than six months after recommendation by the Superintendent of Jail, the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned shall forthwith release the convict as per the the directions contained in the said judgment. Opposite party no.3 had filed an application for his release, which was allowed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned by the impugned order dated 2.3.2024 while similar application of opposite party no.4 was pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned.

5. A Reference was made in the present writ petition by a Division Bench of this Court by order dated 21.3.2024 with regard to correctness of the view taken in the case of Ganesh (supra). The following questions were referred to the Larger Bench.

"(1) Whether the directions issued by the Division Bench in Ganesh (supra) that too general directions, commanding the Chief Judicial Magistrates to release convicts whose applications for remission/premature release have remained pending beyond a particular period, as interim measure, till disposal of the said applications, is in accordance with law especially in view of the Constitution Bench decision in V. Sriharan @ Murugan and others (supra) and H. Nilofer Nisha (supra)?

(2) Whether the High Court in exercise of its criminal appellate jurisdiction under the Code of Criminal Procedure read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. can confer jurisdiction upon the Chief Judicial Magistrates/Magistrates in the District Courts which the law otherwise does not confer upon them?"

6. The aforesaid questions were replied by the Larger Bench by order dated 25.5.2024, which reads as follows:

"(1) The Division Bench in Ganesh (Supra) could not have issued any direction for granting the general directions of bail commanding the Chief Judicial Magistrates to release convicts whose applications for remission/premature release have remained pending beyond a particular period, as interim measure, till disposal of the said applications.

(2) Learned AGA submits that there is no power vested by the High Court in the Chief Judicial Magistrates for grant of bail. The said power is already exercised by granting bail to all such persons and the Chief Judicial Magistrate is directed only to release such person(s) whose applications are pending beyond a particular time by accepting their bail/surety bonds. However, we leave the said question unanswered as in Question-A, we have already held that the directions of the Division in Ganesh (Supra) are not as per law."

7. In view thereof, since the Larger Bench has already held that the Division Bench in Ganesh (supra) could not have issued any direction for issuing general directions of bail commanding the Chief Judicial Magistrate to release the convicts, the impugned order passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gonda based upon the said directions in the case of Ganesh (supra) cannot stand.

8. Therefore, the impugned order dated 2.3.2024 cannot stand and is set aside.

9. The Registrar General is directed to forthwith communicate a copy of this order along with the order passed by the Large Bench dated 25.5.2024 to all the Judicial Officers.

10. With the aforesaid, present writ petition is allowed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 1997
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTH, J.
THE HON'BLE SURENDRA SINGH-I, J.

Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 7132 of 2023

Gopesh Chandra Saxena ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Awadh Behari Singh

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Art. 226 of the Constitution of India -F.I.R. Quashing-Petitioner was initially appointed on the temporary post of Stenographer –thereafter the post of stenographer was abolished-temporary post of camp clerk was created and the Petitioner was appointed thereon-the said post was discontinued-even after abolition of aforesaid post the Petitioner continued on the said post until his superannuation- F.I.R. lodged-From the evidences it transpires that at the time of abolition of post of Camp Clerk on 26.12.1995 and thereafter, the petitioner did not hold the post of Incharge of seat (Patal) of establishment-no occasion for him to have the custody of the letter which communicated the discontinuance of such post-F.I.R. is misuse of law-quashed.

W.P. Allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Har. & ors. Vs Bhajan Lal & ors., 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

2. Maratt Rubber Ltd. Vs J.K. Marattukalam, (2000) 9 SCC 547

(Delivered by Hon'ble Surendra Singh-I, J.)

Heard Sri Awadh Behari Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.G.A. for the State-respondents.

2. By means of this writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has made following prayer :

I. to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned first information report dated 16.04.2023 registered as Case Crime No. 199 of 2023 under Sections 409 and 420 I.P.C., Police Station- Colonelganj, District- Prayagraj.

II. to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents not to arrest the petitioner pursuant to the registration of the first information report dated 16.04.2023 registered as Case Crime No. 199 of 2023 under Sections 409 and 420 I.P.C., Police Station- Colonelganj, District- Prayagraj, till any credible evidence is collected against the petitioner.

III. to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents not to take any coercive action against the petitioners till the time any credible evidence is collected.

IV. to issue a writ, order or direction which this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in facts and circumstances of the case.

V. award the cost of the petition to the petitioner.

3. The contents of the impugned F.I.R., in brief, are as follows :

The petitioner was initially appointed on the temporary post of Stenographer on 25.04.1979. The post of stenographer was abolished vide Government Order No. 3067/ dated 16.07.1983, a temporary post of camp clerk was created and the petitioner was appointed thereon on 17.07.1983. In the Government Order No. 3256/ dated 26.12.1995, continuation of post of camp clerk was not mentioned. Thus, the post of camp clerk was discontinued by aforesaid Government Order. Even after abolition of aforesaid post, the then Patal Prabhari misused his post of Incharge of that seat and kept the Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, who had the financial and administrative power of department, in dark and from 26.12.1995, without any Government Order extending the continuance of the post, illegally continued on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015 and illegally withdrew salary and allowances on that post. The appellate authority, Deputy Labour Commissioner, Prayagraj on the appeal of respondent no. 3 vide order dated 22.12.2022 held that the petitioner is not entitled for gratuity on the post as he has illegally continued on the post of camp clerk since 1995 to 2015. The Director Fisheries, U.P., Lucknow vide letter no. 2054/स्था०शा०/कोर्ट केस/ dated 06.07.2022, directed the Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, to take suitable action against the petitioner for his continuing on the post of camp clerk from 1996 to 2015 although the post was abolished on 26.12.1995. In compliance of aforesaid order of the Director Fisheries, U.P., Lucknow, the Chief Development Officer, Prayagraj directed respondent no. 3 to take necessary action against the petitioner for misuse of the office/seat (patal). In compliance of aforesaid order of Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, the respondent no. 3 lodged the impugned F.I.R. dated 16.04.2023 against the petitioner.

4. It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that impugned first information report dated 16.04.2023 has been registered against the petitioner, Gopesh Chandra Saxena, as Case Crime No. 199 of 2023 under Sections 409 and 420 I.P.C., Police Station- Colonelganj, District- Prayagraj, without any ground and due to malafide. No case under the aforesaid sections is made out against the petitioner. It has been next submitted that the petitioner was initially appointed as a Stenographer on 25.04.1979. The post of Stenographer was abolished on 16.07.1983 and further the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk was sanctioned. On the same day, the petitioner was posted as camp clerk and allowed to continue to work accordingly. However, the post of camp clerk was not extended and the petitioner was allowed to continue on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk sanctioned in the department. It has further been submitted that the allegations that keeping the authorities in dark, he illegally continued on the post of camp clerk from 1995 to 2015 is not supported from the record of the authorities sanctioning the post. Therefore, no offence u/s 409 and 420 I.P.C. is made out against the petitioner. It has also been submitted that in the judgement dated 20.12.2022 of the appellate authority, i.e. Deputy Labour Commissioner, Prayagraj, no consideration of allegation about sanction of posts was done as the case related merely to payment of gratuity to the petitioner. The petitioner who was appointed as Stenographer on 25.04.1979, after abolition of the post of Stenographer in the department on 16.07.1983, without any break in continuance was absorbed/posted on the post of camp clerk. Since the post of camp clerk was not extended after 26.12.1995, hence, the petitioner was allowed to continue on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk in the department till the date of retirement. After completing 10 years of continuous satisfactory service on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk, the petitioner was provided next increment on the recommendation of Samta Samiti vide order dated 18.03.1991 (copy of the order has been provided at Annexure No. 2 to the instant writ petition). It has also been submitted that vide Government Order dated 03.06.1989, the petitioner was provided the next promotional payscale on 27.01.1996 on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk after completing six years of continuous satisfactory service (copy of the order has been provided at Annexure No. 3 to the instant writ petition). It is further submitted that Government Order dated 28.12.1990 provided the benefit of revised pay to the employees of the department in which the post of camp clerk has been shown to be Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk (copy of the Government Order dated 28.12.1990 has been attached as Annexure No. 4 to the instant writ petition). Since the post of camp clerk was already sanctioned by the department, hence, after abolition of the post of Camp Clerk, the petitioner was allowed to continue in the capacity of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk and provided the benefit of revised pay accordingly. The order dated 20.12.2022 passed by the appellate authority relates to payment of gratuity and has not given any finding to the effect that the petitioner kept the higher authorities in dark and continued on the post which was discontinued on 26.12.1995 (order of appellate authority is annexed as Annexure No. 5 to the instant writ petition). Since the petitioner continued on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk from 1995 till retirement i.e. 31.07.2015, he has claimed the benefit of assured career progression (A.C.P.) scheme in his writ petition No. 3057 of 2019. The aforesaid writ petition is till pending and this issue has not yet been adjudicated by the High Court. Thus, the F.I.R. on allegation of continuance of non-sanctioned posts cannot be lodged. The appointing authority never questioned this issue during his service period and it has been raised after about 8 years of his superannuation when he claimed post-retiral benefits. It has been further submitted that allegation in the first information report with regard to manipulation of petitioner working on the seat (patal) of establishment is unfounded and baseless. The petitioner was never having charge of seat (patal) of establishment. In 1991, the charge of seat of establishment was with one B.D. Vais. Thereafter, in 1995, the charge of establishment was with Smt. Geeta Sonkar. In 2010, the charge of establishment was with Smt. Tahasin Jahara, the senior clerk. As such at no point of time, there was any charge of seat of establishment with the petitioner. Hence, there was no question of manipulation with the higher authorities for continuance of service (Copy of orders dated 05.09.1991, 06.03.1995 and 24.12.2010 giving charge of seat of establishment to the aforesaid employees is attached as Annexure No. 6 to the instant writ petition). It has also been submitted that after 1995, the petitioner has been allowed to continue in the service as a Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk by the respondent authorities and he has been paid the benefits of 6th pay scale etc. mentioning the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk by the respondents themselves (Copy of order providing benefit of fixation of 6th pay scale and annual increments sanctioned on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk dated 05.07.2013 and 21.11.2012 is attached as Annexure No. 7 to the instant writ petition). It is further submitted that in compliance of High Court's order dated 23.02.2015 passed in Writ Petition No. 10397 of 2015, Gopesh Chandra Saxena Vs. State of U.P. and 3 others, vide Government Order No. 1038/सत्रह-म-2015, 6-5(77)/2014 लखनऊ, दिनांक 22 जून 2015, the government had raised the retirement age of the petitioner from 58 years to 60 years and consequently in place of date of superannuation on 31.07.2013, he was permitted to continue on his post till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015. It has also been submitted that since the petitioner continued on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk vide aforesaid government orders, therefore, it shall be presumed that he was legally holding the post till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015. Since there was no entrustment and no misappropriation, therefore, offence u/s 409 and 420 I.P.C. are not attracted against the accused.

5. Per contra, in the counter affidavit on 07.08.2023, respondent no. 3 has reiterated the allegations made in the first information report against the petitioner that after abolition of the post of Stenographer on 26.12.1995, the petitioner keeping the higher authorities in dark, illegally continued on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015 and withdrew the pay and his allowances without any authority. The respondent no. 3 has attached Annexure No. C.A.1 to his petition which is letter dated 16.07.1983 sent by Deputy Secretary of U.P. Government to Director, Fisheries Department, U.P., Lucknow to the effect that vide G.O. No. 1347/12-ई-3-82, दिनांक 20 अप्रैल, 1982 informing that earlier post created in the payscale of Rs. 515-840/- of 17 temporary stenographers, is abolished. In its place, 17 temporary posts of camp clerks is created. The respondent no. 3 has also denied the averment made in the affidavit filed by the petitioner and has filed Annexure No.C.A.1 to his counter affidavit. It has been submitted that the petitioner has wrongly stated that after the abolition of post of Stenographer on 16.07.1983, the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk was sanctioned whereas after abolition of the post of Stenographer, the temporary post of Camp Clerk was created. No post of Senior Clerk was created as alleged by the petitioner. It has also been submitted that the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Prayagraj has allowed the Appeal No. 01 of 2022 filed by the respondent no.3 and has held that the petitioner is not entitled to payment of any gratuity. In the counter affidavit, the averment of petitioner has been denied that the post of Camp Clerk was extended after 01.03.1996. It has been submitted by means of Government Order dated 26.12.1995 that the post of Camp Clerk was extended upto 01.03.1996 and thereafter, the said post of Camp Clerk was not extended. Therefore, petitioner was not entitled to continue on the aforesaid post after 01.03.1996. It has been denied that the petitioner was allowed to continue on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk. It is stated that the post of Senior Clerk is a promotional post which is filled up only and only by the deputed government employees by the Deputy Director in the office of Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj. The petitioner has played fraud at this juncture because he being the Camp Clerk, was the custodian of that particular file of appointment and deputation. The Government Order dated 26.12.1995 was earmarked to the petitioner and Smt. Geeta Sonkar (Junior Clerk) by the Chief Executive Officer to put up the same before the Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj to implement the said government order but the same was never presented by them before the Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj as both of them were similarly situated on an absolutely temporary post which was extended year to year by means of respective government orders. The petitioner was provided the next increment on the recommendation of Samta Samiti vide order dated 18.03.1991 while he was discharging duties as the Camp Clerk and not the Senior Clerk which is a promotional post and filled by the deputed government employees only. The respondent no. 3 has filed government letter dated 28.05.1997 as Annexure No. C.A.2 to the counter affidavit whereby various kinds of 11 posts in Fisheries Department were extended till 29.02.1996 and 28.02.1998 respectively. Smt. Geeta Sonkar was directed by the respondent no. 3 to apprise the Chief Development Officer about the aforesaid government orders. It has been submitted that earlier petitioner was holding seat of establishment and thereafter, Smt. Geeta Sonkar held that seat and they illegally kept those documents for more than 10 years in their possession and did not hand over to the Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, for necessary action. The petitioner was never allowed to continue as a Senior Clerk which is a promotional post and filled only by government deputed employees. Thus, there is sufficient prima facie evidence that the petitioner has committed the offence u/s 409 and 420 I.P.C. and the petitioner has misappropriated Rs.37,65,013/- illegally as salary and allowances for the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk to which he had no authority to continue.

6. The petitioner in rejoinder affidavit dated 12.07.2023 has denied the averments made in the counter affidavit and reiterated the averments made by him in his petition and has submitted that he was allowed by the competent authority to continue as Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk and he has not made any illegal withdrawal of salary and allowances. He has also submitted that since he has filed the writ petition claiming payment of gratuity allowance, the impugned F.I.R. was lodged with malafide against him.

7. On 23.05.2023, following interim order was passed by this Court :

1. Heard Shri Awadh Behari Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Sushil Jaiswal, learned State Law Officer, appearing for the State.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred with the prayer to quash the impugned First Information Report dated 16.04.2023 registered as Case Crime No. 199 of 2023, under Sections 409 and 420 IPC, Police Station Colonelganj, District Prayagraj and a direction to the respondent authorities not to arrest the petitioner in pursuance of the impugned first information report.

3. Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that no offence whatsoever has been made out in the present case. There is no dispute about the fact that initial appointment of the petitioner was absolutely valid and even as per the first information report and allegations in respect of the period of starting from 1995 to 2015 it is submitted that during this period the petitioner continued on various posts to the full satisfaction of the employer and a dispute regarding gratuity was also raised in this respect and it is only after eight years of his retirement when he had claimed his dues and this first information report has been lodged. Submission, therefore, is that ingredients of offence under Section 409 I.P.C. are not fulfilled.

4. Matter requires consideration.

5. In view of the statement made by learned counsel for the petitioner that respondent no. 3 was represented by the State in the civil matters, we direct the learned A.G.A. to accept the notices on behalf of respondent no. 3 as well and represent respondent no. 3.

6. All the respondents may file counter affidavit within four weeks. The petitioner shall have three weeks, thereafter, to file rejoinder affidavit.

7. List thereafter before the appropriate Bench.

8. Till the next date of listing or till submission of police report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C., whichever is earlier, the respondents are restrained from arresting the petitioner pursuant to the aforesaid FIR subject to cooperation in ongoing investigation.

8. From the averments made in the impugned F.I.R., the pleadings of the parties and arguments advanced on behalf of the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.G.A., the admitted fact emerges that the petitioner, Gopesh Chandra Saxena, was initially appointed on the temporary post of stenographer on 25.04.1979 in Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj. The post was continued till 16.07.1983. Thereafter, the petitioner continued on the temporary post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk till 26.12.1995 and thereafter he was allowed to continue on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015.

9. In State of Haryana and Others Vs. Bhajan Lal and Others, 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335, the Hon'ble Apex Court has narrated the categories of cases wherein the extraordinary power under Article 226 or the inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised by the High Court either to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice :

"...though it may not be possible to lay down any precise, clearly defined and sufficiently channelised and inflexible guidelines or rigid formulae and to give an exhaustive list of myriad kinds of cases wherein such power should be exercised :

(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

(2) Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155 (2) of the Code.

(3) Where the uncontroverted allegations made in the F.I.R. or complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused.

(4) Where, the allegations in the F.I.R. do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code.

(5) Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.

(6) Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party.

(7) Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with malafide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge.

10. In Maratt Rubber Ltd. Vs. J.K. Marattukalam, (2000) 9 SCC 547, the Apex Court has held that the power of quashing criminal proceedings should be exercised stringently and with circumspection. This inherent jurisdiction has to be cautiously exercised to prevent the abuse of the process of Court or gross miscarriage of justice and to secure the ends of justice.

11. While considering the quashing of F.I.R., the Court is not bound to consider only the averment made in the F.I.R. but it can also take into consideration the evidence collected during investigation as well as other undisputed admitted documentary evidence produced by the petitioner and the respondent.

12. In the light of the law laid down by the Apex Court and the pleadings of the parties and arguments advanced by their learned counsels, it is desirable to consider the legality of impugned F.I.R. lodged against the petitioner.

13. In the counter affidavit dated 22.06.2023 filed by Investigating Officer, S.I. Rajendra Kumar, Annexure No. 1 is attached which is CCTNS case report regarding petitioner. From the perusal of the report, it transpires that only one criminal case is registered against him.

14. A counter affidavit dated 07.08.2023 has been submitted on behalf of respondent no.3, Sri Irfanullah Khan, Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj which consists of two annexures. Annexure No. 1 attached to the counter affidavit is letter dated 16.07.1983 by Kumari Neeta Chaudhary, Deputy Secretary, Government of U.P. to Director, Fisheries Department, U.P., Lucknow. According to this letter vide G.O. No. 1347/12-ई-3-82, दिनांक 20 अप्रैल, 1982, intimating that posts of 17 temporary stenographers was discontinued and 17 temporary posts of Camp Clerks were created. Annexure No. 2 is the letter dated 26.12.1995 issued by Satya Prakash Sharma, Deputy Secretary, Government of U.P. to Director Fisheries Department, U.P., Lucknow. It mentions that vide G.O. No. 2627/57-म-93-10-1-81 दिनांक 30.9.93, 11 temporary posts including that of Senior Clerk in the payscale of 1200-2040 has been sanctioned for the year 1994-95 to 1995-96 which shall continue till 29.02.1996. From the perusal of the aforesaid two annexures attached to the counter affidavit dated 07.08.2023, it transpires that the temporary posts of stenographers which were discontinued on 16.07.1983 were replaced by temporary posts of Camp Clerks in Fish Farmers Development Agency, District- Prayagraj (then Allahabad). From perusal of Annexure No. 2, it transpires that in 17 districts of U.P. including Allahabad, vide Government Order dated 30.09.1993, the government had sanctioned apart from other posts, the posts of Senior Clerk in the payscale of 1200-2040 to be continued till 29.02.1996. Thus, it appears that after discontinuance of the post of stenographer, the post of stenographer was replaced by temporary post of Camp Clerk and Senior Clerk in Prayagraj and the petitioner continued on these newly created posts after discontinuance of the post of stenographer.

15. The petitioner has filed Annexure Nos. 1 to 8 attached to the writ petitions which are documents consisting of certified copy of impugned F.I.R. (Annexure No.1), office order dated March 18, 1991 issued by Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, on completion of 10 years satisfactory service sanctioning pay scale of 1200-2040 w.e.f. 29.04.1989 to petitioner, Gopesh Chandra Saxena, mentioning that the next increment shall accrue to him on 01.07.1989 (Annexure No.2), office order dated January 27, 1996 issued by Chief Development Officer/Office Chairman (Administration), Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, after six years of satisfactory service promoting the petitioner and sanctioning the next pay scale of 1350-2200/- to the petitioner (Annexure No. 3), government letter dated 28.12.1990 relating to fixation of pay scale of 1200-2040/- to the post of Senior Clerk of Fisheries Department on the recommendation of Samta Samiti (Annexure No. 4), order of Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, fixing the payband and grade pay of the petitioner from 01.01.2006 to 01.07.2012 on the basis of Government Order No.वे०आ०-2-1318/10गस-59(एम)/2008 दिनांक 08.12.2008, and Government Order No. 2616/सत्रह-मा०-2012-10-5 (8)/98 टी०सी० दिनांक 21.11.2012 (देय 21.11.2012 से), order dated 05.07.2013 of Assistant Director, Fisheries/Chief Executive Officer, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj, fixing payband of 5200-20200/- in the grade pay of 2800/- w.e.f. 01.07.2013 to the petitioner on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk on the basis of Government Order No 2616/सत्रह-मा०-2012-10-5 (8)/98 टी०सी० दिनांक 21.11.2012 (Annexure No. 7). The petitioner has filed Annexure No. 6 to his writ petition which consists of office orders dated 05.09.1991, 06.03.1995 and 24.12.2010 issued by Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj issuing counter to the staff of his office on different seats.

16. From perusal of Annexure No. 4, it transpires that vide aforesaid Government Order dated 08.12.1990, the grade pay of 1200-2040/- was sanctioned for the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk. From the perusal of aforesaid Annexure No. 2, it transpires that on the basis of recommendation of Samta Samiti, after 10 years continuous and satisfactory service, the petitioner was sanctioned the grade pay of 1200-2040/- from 01.07.1988. The next increment was payable w.e.f. 29.04.1989. From the perusal of Annexure No. 3, it transpires that as per office order dated January 27, 1996, after six years of continuous and satisfactory service, the petitioner was promoted to next grade pay of 1350-2200/-. From the perusal of aforesaid Annexure No. 7, it transpires that in compliance of Government Order No. वे०आ०-2-1318/10गस-59(एम)/2008 दिनांक 08.12.2008 and Government Order No. 2616/सत्रह-मा०-2012-10-5 (8)/98 टी०सी० दिनांक 21.11.2012 (देय 21.11.2012 से), w.e.f. 01.01.2006, the petitioner was sanctioned payband of Rs.12,790/- and grade pay of 2800/- which included increments admissible each year from 2006 to 2012. From 01.07.2012, his payband was fixed as Rs.16,410/- in the grade pay of 2800/-. From Annexure No. 7, it is also conspicuous that in compliance of Government Order dated 2616/सत्रह-मा०-2012-10-5 (8)/98 टी०सी० दिनांक 21.11.2012 w.e.f. 01.07.2013, after increments, the petitioner's payband was fixed as Rs. 5200-20200/- in the grade pay of 2800/-. In their counter affidavits, the respondents have not filed any documentary evidence in rebuttal of aforesaid documents filed by the petitioner as annexures to his writ petition. Therefore, it can be concluded that after discontinuance of the post of stenographer, the petitioner was permitted to continue on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk and he was sanctioned various scales after completion of 10 years and after further completion of six years of continuous and satisfactory service, the petitioner's pay scale was also revised as per Government Order dated 08.12.1990 as per letter dated 28.12.1990 issued by Deputy Secretary, U.P. Government to Director, Fisheries, U.P. Lucknow.

17. From perusal of Annexure No. 8 to the writ petition, it transpires that vide Government Order No. 1038/सत्रह-म-2015, 6-5(77)/2014 लखनऊ, दिनांक 22 जून 2015, the retirement age of the petitioner was increased from 58 to 60 years and after his retirement on 31.07.2013, he was permitted to again continue on his post till 31.07.2015. Thus, it appears that petitioner was duly authorized by competent authorities to continue and draw salary on the post of Senior Clerk till his date of superannuation on 31.07.2015 when the post of stenographer/Camp Clerk was discontinued after 26.12.1995.

18. Averment has been made by respondent no. 3 in his counter affidavit that the petitioner was Incharge of the seat (patal) of establishment and he received the letter regarding discontinuance and abolition of the post of stenographer but he did not bring these letters/orders in the cognizance of the respondent no. 3, Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj. Therefore, he misused his post as Incharge of establishment and kept the authorities in dark and thereby illegally continued and drew salary and allowances on the post of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk.

19. The petitioner has filed work distribution order dated 05.09.1991, 06.03.1995 and 24.12.2010 issued by respondent no. 3, Chief Development Officer/Executive Director, Fish Farmers Development Agency, Prayagraj as Annexure No. 6 to the writ petition. From the perusal of aforesaid order dated 05.09.1991, it transpires that from this date, Sri B.D. Vais was made Incharge of the seat (patal) of establishment and also correspondence relating to establishment and general administration. On perusal of aforesaid order dated 06.03.1995, it transpires that Smt. Geeta Sonkar, Junior Clerk was made Incharge of the seat (patal) of the establishment. On perusal of the aforesaid order dated 24.12.2010, it transpires that Smt. Tahasin Jahara, the Senior Clerk was made Incharge of seat (patal) of establishment. Thus, it transpires that at the time of abolition of post of Camp Clerk on 26.12.1995 and thereafter, petitioner did not hold the post of Incharge of seat (patal) of establishment. Therefore, there was no occasion for him to have the custody of the letter which communicated the discontinuance/abolition of the post of Camp Clerk. Therefore, there is no force in the allegation of respondent no. 3 that by not placing the aforesaid letter before respondent no. 3, the petitioner illegally continued on and drew salary and allowances of the posts of Camp Clerk/Senior Clerk, thus committing cheating, fraud and misappropriation of public money.

20. From the above discussion, we are of the considered view that the registration of impugned F.I.R. against the petitioner is misuse of law and it is liable to be quashed in the interest of justice.

21. The impugned first information report dated 16.04.2023 registered as Case Crime No. 199 of 2023 under Sections 409 and 420 I.P.C., Police Station- Colonelganj, District- Prayagraj, is hereby quashed.

22. Accordingly, the writ petition is allowed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2007
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE RAJAN ROY, J.
THE HON'BLE OM PRAKASH SHUKLA, J.

First Appeal No. 44 of 2021
Connected with
First Appeal No. 43 of 2021

Smt. Prabhpreet Kaur ...Appellants
Versus
Jitendra Pal Singh ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Alok Verma, Prabh Jot Kaur, Ramesh Chandra Pathak

Counsel for the Respondents:
Narendra Kumar Kashyap, Ratnoja @ Ratna Singh, Sunita

Matrimonial dispute-Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 -Section13-Love marriage-bickering between the parties-wife left the matrimonial house-under police pressure-compromise-mutual divorce- but husband did not appeared in the suit for divorce on mutual consent-instead filed a suit u/s 9 of HMA-restitution of conjugal rights-wife further filed a petition seeking divorce u/s 13 of HMA on ground of cruelty- such unilateral withdrawal from divorce from mutual consent by husband added to cruelty-parties living separately for more than 11 years-matrimonial bond is beyond repair- divorce granted on the ground of cruelty.

Appeals allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rajiv Chikkara Vs Sandhya Mathur : 2016 SCC OnLine Del 6224

2. Beena M.S. Vs Shino G. Babu , 2022 (2) KHC 11 :

3. Shreedharan Vs Asha (MAT Appeal No.c578 of 2015, decided on 18.09.2023),

4. Vidhyadhar Vs Manikrao: AIR 1999 SC 1441

5. Samar Ghosh Vs Jaya Ghosh : (2007) 4 SCC 511

6. Rajib Kumar Roy Vs Sushmita Saha : 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1221

(Delivered by Hon'ble Om Prakash Shukla, J.)

(1) Heard Ms. Prabh Jot Kaur, learned Counsel representing the appellant/wife and Ms. Ratna Singh, learned Counsel representing the respondent/ husband.

(2) Since these two appeals arise out of a common order dated 22.02.2021 passed by the learned Additional Principal Judge, Family Court-I, Lucknow based on a common factual matrix, they have been heard together and are being disposed of by this common judgment.

(3) Both these appeals have been filed under Section 19 (1) of the Family Court Act, 1984 by the appellant/wife, inert alia as follows:

(A) First Appeal No. 44 of 2021 has been filed challenging the order passed by Additional Principal Judge, Family Court-I, Lucknow dated 22.02.2021 by which Regular Suit No. 3300 of 2014 filed by the husband/respondent under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 has been allowed and learned Family Court has directed the wife/Appellant for restitution of conjugal rights with her husband/respondent herein.

(B) First Appeal No. 43 of 2021 has been filed challenging the dismissal of Regular Suit No. 2335 of 2015 filed by the wife/appellant seeking divorce under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

(4) The factual exposition of these two appeals can be summarized as herein under :-

(i) The parties claim to have been in love, culminating into their marriage on 20.06.2010 in Arya Samaj Mandir. Obviously there had been no exchange of dowry etc. and records reveal that parties also got their marriage registered in the office of Registrar, Hindu Marriage, U.P. on 23.06.2010. After marriage, both, the appellant and the respondent, had apprehended some risk, danger and threat, therefore, they filed Writ Petition No. 6298 (M/B) of 2010 before this Court, wherein father of wife/appellant had put in appearance and had stated before the Court that he had no grudge against both of them and their apprehension is only a misconception. Noting this statement of the father of the wife/appellant herein and the fact that both of them were major, the said writ petition was disposed of vide order dated 12.07.2010 with a direction to the Station House Officer, Alambagh to provide due protection as required to them and their married life would not be interfered with or obstructed to in any manner.

(ii) Apparently, both of them lived as husband and wife at matrimonial house after marriage and the record reveals that no child was born out of the said wedlock.

(iii) The story further unfolds by the allegation of the husband/respondent, wherein according to him, the appellant/wife, after couple of years and due to certain bickering between them at the instance of parent of his wife, left the matrimonial home and went to stay at her parental house (maika) on 20.01.2013. After that he and his family had made frequent efforts to persuade her wife to return to her matrimonial house but all in vain. Ultimately, under the pressure of the police, a compromise was entered between them, according to which, both of them would seek divorce on mutual consent before the competent Court. For this purpose, a suit, bearing No.631 of 2014, under Section 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for divorce on mutual consent was filed before the Family Court, Lucknow, however, as claimed, when the husband realized that he could not live without his wife, then, he, instead of appearing in the said suit for divorce on mutual consent, filed Regular Suit No. 3300 of 2014 under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for restitution of conjugal rights.

(iv) Notice was issued in the aforesaid suit. In response thereof, the wife/appellant herein had put in appearance before the Family Court and had filed written statement denying all the allegations made by her husband/ respondent and as counter version it was said that she had solemnized love marriage with the respondent but after marriage, his behaviour towards her was very bad. Her husband harassed and tortured her physically and mentally. Her husband, while consuming alcohol and drugs in excessive quantity, had behaved in a very inhuman and unnatural manner with her and also burnt her with cigarette butts, on account of which there was threat to her life from her husband itself and as such she left the house of her husband on 20.01.2013 and since then she is living with her parents. She had also stated that she does not wish to live with her husband any longer. She is living separately since 20.01.2013 and ever since has acclimatized to her matrimonial status. She also stated that since her husband did not appear before the Family Court in the said suit filed under Section 13-B of Act, 1955, instead her husband had filed a suit for restitution of conjugal rights, therefore, that suit filed under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act was dismissed on 08.07.2015. Various other allegations as levelled against her in the plaint were also denied by her.

(v) On the basis of pleadings and documents, the learned Family Court framed following two issues in Regular Suit No. 3300 of 2014 filed by the respondent/husband under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as 'First Suit') :-

(a) Whether on the basis of the pleadings of the plaint, the plaintiff is entitled to get decree of restitution of conjugal rights?

(b) Whether plaintiff is entitled to get any other reliefs?

(5) Besides the contest in aforesaid suit for restitution of conjugal rights filed under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 by the husband/respondent, during its pendency, the wife/appellant herein also filed a petition seeking divorce under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 in the year 2015 on the grounds of cruelty and desertion, which was numbered as Regular Suit No. 2335 of 2015 (hereinafter referred to as 'Second Suit'). In this suit, notice was also issued and in response thereof, husband/respondent had also put in appearance and filed written statement denying the allegations levelled against him and reiterated his stand made by him in the first suit filed by him under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

(6) On the basis of the pleadings and documents, the learned Family Court framed following two issues in the "second suit" filed by the wife under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 :-

(a) Whether on the basis of the pleadings of the plaint, the plaintiff is entitled to get decree of divorce?

(b) Whether plaintiff is entitled to get any other reliefs ?

(7) Both the aforesaid suits were put for trial, wherein the husband/respondent, examined himself as P.W.1 and also exhibited two documents viz. (i) copy of the Marriage Certificate of Arya Samaj Mandir as annexure no.1; and (ii) copy of the statement made by his wife/appellant before the High Court as Annexure no.2. On the other hand, in support of her case, the wife/appellant examined herself as D.W.1. No other witness was examined by the parties in support of their case.

(8) The Family Court has noted that despite ample opportunity being granted to the husband/respondent, none responded on his behalf to argue both the suits, as such, the Family Court proceeded to consider the issues, as noted hereinabove, and heard the counsel for the wife/appellant and appraised the evidence available on record.

(9) The learned Family Court took issue no.1 framed in both the suits together for the sake of convenience of discussion and decision. The Family Court considered the series of so-called gross misdemeanor and misconduct resulting in physical as well as mental torture upon the wife by husband as alleged by the wife/appellant and returned a finding that the appellant/wife did not mention any specific date or incident when the alleged cruelty was committed upon her by the respondent/husband. The learned Family Court also observed that the appellant/wife was unable to prove bad conduct of the respondent/husband which could give rise to an apprehension in the mind of the appellant that living with the respondent was unsafe and harmful. The learned Family Court had also returned a finding that the appellant/wife had failed to bring on record any witness such as her father, mother etc. or any other witness or evidence in support of her allegation of torture by her husband. In this backdrop, the Family Court opined that the appellant/wife has failed to establish "cruelty" and “desertion” claimed to be perpetrated by her husband against her. Accordingly, issue no.1 was decided in affirmative in favour of the respondent/husband and against the appellant/wife.

(10) So far as issue no.2, as referred above, framed in both the suits is concerned, the Family Court had returned a finding that the appellant/wife had failed to bring home the ingredients which constituted desertion on the part of the respondent and the appellant/wife had voluntarily and for her own left the in-laws' house and went to her parental house on 20.01.2013, hence issue no.2 was also decided in favour of the husband and against the wife.

(11) By deciding the aforesaid two issues in favour of the respondent/husband, the Family Court has dismissed the divorce petition filed by the wife under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 and has allowed the suit for restitution of conjugal rights filed by the husband under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 by means of the impugned judgment dated 22.02.2021. It is this common order passed by the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court-I, Lucknow, which has been sought to be interdicted by the appellant by filing these two appeal before this Court.

(12) During the course of arguments, learned Counsel representing the appellant/wife did not advance any argument nor attempted to demonstrate as to how the finding of Family Court on the question of desertion is perverse or erroneous in any manner.

(13) However, learned Counsel representing the appellant/wife has submitted that learned Family Court proceeded in a very cursory manner in allowing suit for restitution of conjugal right filed by the husband/respondent and dismissing the suit for divorce filed by the appellant/wife by recording perverse findings on the issue of cruelty. She has submitted that the appellant in her statement had stated before the Family Court that after couple of years of marriage, the family members including her husband/respondent had started torturing her mentally and physically and sometime even her husband burnt her with Cigarette butts. It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the appellant that inspite of the pain and agony having faced by her almost every day of her marital life, she tried her best to adjust with the respondent but behaviour of her husband continued to be cruel day by day. On being upset on account of day to day physical and mental cruelty of her husband, the appellant had made a complaint before the police, whereinafter a compromise was arrived between the parties by which both the parties agreed to dissolve the marriage by instituting a suit under Section 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. As a consequence of which, the said suit for divorce by mutual consent was filed under Section 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 before the Family Court, however, even after putting his signature/consent on the said suit by the respondent, the husband failed to appear before the Family Court for recording of statements etc. and instead, he filed a suit for restitution of conjugal rights before the Family Court. Ultimately, the said suit under Section 13 (B) of the Act, 1955 was dismissed on 08.07.2015 on account of absence of the respondent.

(14) Placing reliance upon the decision of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court in Rajiv Chikkara Vs. Sandhya Mathur : 2016 SCC OnLine Del 6224 as well as the decisions of Hon'ble Kerala High Court reported in 2022 (2) KHC 11 : Beena M.S. Vs. Shino G. Babu and Shreedharan Vs. Asha (MAT Appeal No. 578 of 2015, decided on 18.09.2023), learned Counsel has submitted that unilaterally not appearing in the suit filed for seeking Divorce by mutual consent under Section 13 (B) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 would itself amount to cruelty, however, the learned Family Court has erred in not considering this aspect of the matter and erred in dismissing the suit filed by the appellant/wife.

(15) Learned Counsel for the appellant/wife, thus, has submitted that the facts and circumstances being what they are, it is neither possible nor desirable for the parties to live as husband and wife because the marriage has not only irretrievably broken down but both of them have been admittedly living apart for more than 11 years. Thus, it was argued that dissolving the marriage was the only right solution to the problem and the learned Family Court was not justified in not granting a decree of divorce to the wife/appellant and has erred in allowing the suit for restitution of conjugal right.

(16) On the other hand, learned Counsel representing the respondent/husband has submitted that the ld. Family Court is absolutely justified both in law and fact in coming to the conclusion about the cruelty, physical and mental, as alleged by the appellant/wife. According to the learned Counsel, the wife had intentionally left his house leaving the appellant. Thus, the wife/appellant cannot take advantage of her own wrong to seek a decree for divorce on the ground of cruelty and desertion which is not established on facts. Moreover, she has further submitted that it is a lame excuse on the part of the wife to pile up unfounded allegations of mental and physical torture and then to allege that it is not possible under the facts and circumstances to live with her husband/appellant. According to the learned Counsel, impugned judgment and order passed by the learned Family Court was in accordance with law, hence both the appeals are liable to dismissed.

(17) We have gone through statements of the appellant/wife and respondent/husband recorded by the Family Court; other evidence on record; the impugned judgment; and have heard the learned counsel for the parties at length.

(18) This Court would first like to deal with the evidence of husband/respondent (P.W.1). His statement was recorded by the Family Court on 22.10.2019, wherein in his examination-in-chief, he had reiterated the fact that his marriage was solemnized with the appellant on 20.06.2010 in the Arya Samaj Mandir. After marriage, both of them were living together as husband and wife. After 11/2-2 months of marriage, his wife (appellant herein) went to her maika (parental house). The reason for dispute between them was on account of interference of his in-laws (parents of his wife). He denied the factum of fighting (maar peet) had ever taken place between them, however, he stated that wrangling had been a common feature of their relationship.. He further stated that his wife was residing at her parental house and she did not come back to his house and she submitted an application at police station. He denied the factum of any quarrel with his in-laws (parents of his wife). He admitted that at the police station, it was decided that both of them would part their ways by decree of divorce by mutual consent. It has come on record that both of them had preferred a suit for divorce on mutual consent.

(19) It is pertinent to mention that after aforesaid examination-in-chief of husband/respondent herein (P.W.1), he never turned up before the learned Family Court for further examination and as such, the learned Family Court closed his evidence and proceeded further to decide the claim of the parties.

(20) The relevancy of a party who does not appear into the witness box to cross examination was dealt with by the Apex Court in Vidhyadhar vs. Manikrao: AIR 1999 SC 1441, wherein the Apex Court has categorically observed that:

"16. Where a party to the suit does not appear into the witness box and states his own case on oath and does not offer himself to be cross examined by the other side, a presumption would arise that the case set up by him is not correct as has been held in a series of decisions passed by various High Courts and the Privy Council beginning from the decision in Sardar Gurbakhsh Singh v. Gurdial Singh and Anr.. This was followed by the Lahore High Court in Kirpa Singh v. Ajaipal Singh and Ors. AIR (1930) Lahore 1 and the Bombay High Court in Martand Pandharinath Chaudhari v. Radhabai Krishnarao Deshmukh AIR (1931) Bombay 97. The Madhya Pradesh High Court in Gulla Kharagjit Carpenter v. Narsingh Nandkishore Rawat also followed the Privy Council decision in Sardar Gurbakhsh Singh's case (supra). The Allahabad High Court in Arjun Singh v. Virender Nath and Anr. held that if a party abstains from entering the witness box, it would give rise to an inference adverse against him. Similarly, a Division Bench of the Punjab & Haryana High Court in Bhagwan Dass v. Bhishan Chand and Ors., drew a presumption under Section 114 of the Evidence Act against a party who did not enter into the witness box."

(21) Thus, the statement recorded by the husband could not have been the relevant consideration for decision by the learned Family Court. However, having gone through the statement of respondent/husband (P.W.1), what we find that P.W.1 admitted the fact that compromise had entered between the appellant/wife and respondent/husband at police station to the effect that both of them would file a suit for divorce on mutual consent, in pursuance of which, both of them had actually filed a suit for divorce on mutual consent. It is borne out from the evidence of P.W.1/husband that he had no pressure or coercion in making compromise at police station in regard to moving a suit for divorce on mutual consent under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955. Therefore, the assertion of the husband/respondent in a suit filed by him under Section 9 of the Act, 1955 that on the pressure of parents, his wife preferred suit under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 and he put his signature thereon in Court on 12.03.2024 for the happiness of his wife, is not acceptable inasmuch as that P.W.1, in his statement, himself had stated that on the basis of compromise entered between them at police station, a suit for divorce on mutual consent under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 was filed before the Court. Moreover the husband did not appear for further examination in the said suit under Section 9 of the Act, 1955 and his evidence was closed. This conduct of his is also relevant.

(22) Now, coming to the evidence of wife/appellant (D.W.1). Her statement was recorded on 19.12.2019, wherein she had stated that she solemnized love marriage with the respondent out of her own sweet-will and prior to six months of marriage, she had love affairs with the respondent. She further stated that her parents had never filed any case against her husband/ respondent, but her husband had filed a case against her parents in High Court, wherein she stated that she would live with her husband. She further stated that as her life was in danger and she could not trust and believe any further on her husband, as she was assaulted grievously, she left her matrimonial home and does not want to live with her husband any more. She had further stated that in her plaint, she stated the factum of cigarette and consuming alcohol by her husband and, as such, she did not want to live with her husband. On being confronted as to whether she was willing to live with her husband, if he improves himself, she stated that she will not live with her husband. From the evidence of the D.W.1, it transpires that she reiterated the version of her suit filed under Section 13 of the Act, 1955 and has stated that her husband/respondent had burnt her by Cigarette butts and consumed drugs and also assaulted her.

(23) The Family Court declined to believe the evidence of D.W.1 by recording its finding that there is only sole testimony of D.W.1/wife and evidence in the present case in which neither the basis of bitterness has been revealed by her nor any date or description of incident has been given nor any medical report has been presented nor any witness has been produced to prove the factum of burning with Cigarette or assaulting her by her husband by consuming excessive liquor. However, on a close scrutiny of the facts of the case and evidence on record specially the conduct of the husband, we see no reason to disbelieve it.

(24) On a conjoint reading of the statement of the wife/appellant (D.W.1) and husband/respondent (P.W.1) and other materials/evidence on record, what we find is that both the parties have admitted certain facts, which are very essential for deciding the present appeals. Apparently, the appellant/wife and husband admit going to the Police Station in connection with some complaint filed by the wife where a compromise has arrived at to seek divorce by mutual consent and a suit for divorce on mutual consent under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 was filed by the parties, which was dismissed on account of non-appearance/non-cooperation of the husband/respondent (D.W.1) on 08.07.2015. If the husband was serious in filing the suit under Section 9 of the Act, 1955, he would not have absented for further examination in the said suit as already noticed. The plea of the husband in the suit under Section 9 of the Act, 1955 that he was forced to enter into such compromise, is not believable in view of subsequent filing of a suit for divorce by mutual consent as there would have been no coercion or pressure before a Court of law.

(25) That being the position, now the question which falls for our determination is as to whether unilaterally non-appearance of the husband/respondent in a suit for divorce by mutual consent filed under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 added to cruelty thereby entitling her to a divorce; and whether the long separation of 11 years coupled with the conduct of the husband amounts to irretrievable breakdown of marriage.

(26) Section 13 of the Act, 1955 reads as under :-

"13. Divorce.—(1) Any marriage solemnized, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, may, on a petition presented by either the husband or the wife, be dissolved by a decree of divorce on the ground that the other party—

(i) has, after the solemnization of the marriage, had voluntary sexual intercourse with any person other than his or her spouse; or

(ia) has, after the solemnization of the marriage, treated the petitioner with cruelty; or

(ib) has deserted the petitioner for a continuous period of not less than two years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition; or

(ii) has ceased to be a Hindu by conversion to another religion; or

(iii) has been incurably of unsound mind, or has been suffering continuously or intermittently from mental disorder of such a kind and to such an extent that the petitioner cannot reasonably be expected to live with the respondent.

Explanation.—In this clause,—

(a) the expression "mental disorder" means mental illness, arrested or incomplete development of mind, psychopathic disorder or any other disorder or disability of mind and includes schizophrenia;

(b) the expression "psychopathic disorder" means a persistent disorder or disability of mind (whether or not including sub—normality of intelligence) which results in abnormally aggressive or seriously irresponsible conduct on the part of the other party, and whether or not it requires or is susceptible to medical treatment; or

(iv) * * * * *

(v) has been suffering from venereal disease in a communicable form; or

(vi) has renounced the world by entering any religious order; or

(vii) has not been heard of as being alive for a period of seven years or more by those persons who would naturally have heard of it, had that party been alive;

(viii) ***

(ix) ***

Explanation.—In this sub-section, the expression "desertion" means the desertion of the petitioner by the other party to the marriage without reasonable cause and without the consent or against the wish of such party, and includes the willful neglect of the petitioner by the other party to the marriage, and its grammatical variations and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly.

(1A) Either party to a marriage, whether solemnized before or after the commencement of this Act, may also present a petition for the dissolution of the marriage by a decree of divorce on the ground—

(i) that there has been no resumption of cohabitation as between the parties to the marriage for a period of one year or upwards after the passing of a decree for judicial separation in a proceeding to which they were parties; or

(ii) that there has been no restitution of conjugal rights as between the parties to the marriage for a period of one year or upwards after the passing of a decree for restitution of conjugal rights in a proceeding to which they were parties.

(2) A wife may also present a petition for the dissolution of her marriage by a decree of divorce on the ground,—

(i) in the case of any marriage solemnized before the commencement of this Act, that the husband had married again before such commencement or that any other wife of the husband married before such commencement was alive at the time of the solemnization of the marriage of the petitioner:

Provided that in either case the other wife is alive at the time of the presentation of the petition; or

(ii) that the husband has, since the solemnization of the marriage, been guilty of rape, sodomy or bestiality; or

(iii) that in a suit under section 18 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956 (78 of 1956), or in a proceeding under section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) (or under the corresponding section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), a decree or order, as the case may be, has been passed against the husband awarding maintenance to the wife notwithstanding that she was living apart and that since the passing of such decree or order, cohabitation between the parties has not been resumed for one year or upwards;

(iv) that her marriage (whether consummated or not) was solemnized before she attained the age of fifteen years and she has repudiated the marriage after attaining that age but before attaining the age of eighteen years.

Explanation.—This clause applies whether the marriage was solemnized before or after the commencement of the Marriage Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976 (68 of 1976).

(27) U.P. Amendment to Section 13 (1) (i-a) is as under :-

"(i-a) has persistently or repeatedly treated the petitioner with such cruelty as to cause a reasonable apprehension in the mind of the petitioner that it will be harmful or injurious for the petitioner to live with the other party; or"

(28) It is apparent that Section 13 of the Act, 1955 provides for grant of divorce and enumerates various grounds on which the same may be granted. It enacts that "any marriage solemnized whether before or after the commencement of this Act' may be dissolved on petition presented either by the husband or by the wife or any of the grounds specified therein. Clause (i-a) of sub section (1) of section 13 of the Act, 1955 declares that a decree of divorce may be granted by a court on the ground that after solemnization of marriage, the opposite party has treated the petitioner with cruelty, however, the State amendment qualifies the extent and nature of such cruelty by stating that the said cruelty has been persistent and repeatedly meted out to one party, which would cause a reasonable apprehension in the mind of the one party that it would be harmful or injurious for the one party to live with the other party.

(29) It is well-settled that the expression 'cruelty' includes both (i) physical cruelty; and (ii) mental cruelty. It is true that the bond of a marriage is built on the mutual respect, trust and love of the partners. There is a fine line separating 'cruelty' and misbehavior.

(30) Dealing with the almost identical issue, the Delhi High Court in the case of Rajiv Chikkara (supra) observed that where a divorce by Mutual Consent was agreed to by both the parties, the subsequent unilateral withdrawal of consent by a spouse without any sufficient or just cause, would add to the cruelty meted out to the other spouse. In another judgment, the Kerala High Court in the case of Shreedharan (supra) dealing with the issue that the offer of settlement failed on account of the wife refusing to accept the offer made by the husband, observed that the mutual consent for divorce failed in this matter as the bargaining could not meet the level of expectation. The idea of 'No-Fault-Divorce' is to make the parties realize that there is sensible way of parting on the agreed terms. Withholding mutual consent in a failed marriage is nothing but cruelty. In the decision of the Kerala High Court in Beena M.S. (supra), it has been observed that withholding of consent for mutual separation in itself would cause mental agony and cruelty to the spouse who demands separation.

(31) Keeping in mind the aforesaid decisions, what we find from perusal of the record is that the conduct of the respondent/ husband in driving the appellant/wife to believe that their disputes were about to be "put to an end" and then to withdraw from the attempted settlement can cause disquiet, cruelty and uncertainty in the mind of the appellant. It is evident that the quarrel inter se between the parties was not on any justifiable grounds, but was a war of the egos prompted by the desire to wreak vengeance against the spouse. Thus, such unilateral withdrawal from divorce by mutual consent added to cruelty.

(32) For the aforesaid reasons, we are unable to subscribe to the findings of the Family Court relating to the issue of unilateral non-appearance of the husband/respondent in a suit filed under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 being not a cruelty. Rather, this court is of the view that such unilateral withdrawal from divorce by mutual consent under Section 13-B of the Act, 1955 added to cruelty.

(33) The other significant factor for determination as posed hereinabove is that whether the long separation of 11 years coupled with the conduct of the husband amounts to irretrievable breakdown of marriage. The Apex Court in Samar Ghosh Vs. Jaya Ghosh : (2007) 4 SCC 511, has held that: -

"Where there has been a long period of continuous separation, it may fairly be concluded that the matrimonial bond is beyond repair. The marriage becomes a fiction though supported by a legal tie. By refusing to serve that tie, the law in such cases, does not serve the sanctity of marriage; on the contrary, it shows scant regard for the feelings and the emotions of parties. In such like situations, it may lead to mental cruelty."

(34) In the instant case, admittedly, both the parties have been living separately since 20.01.2013 i.e almost more than 11 years. Time and again, the Apex Court as well as this Court has held that where there has been a long period of continuous separation, it may fairly be concluded that the matrimonial bond is beyond repair. The marriage becomes a fiction though supported by a legal tie. By refusing to sever that tie, the law in such cases, does not serve the sanctity of marriage; on the contrary, it shows scant regard for the feelings and emotions of the parties, which leads to cruelty. Recently, the Apex Court in the case of Rajib Kumar Roy Vs. Sushmita Saha : 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1221 observed as under :-

"Continued bitterness, dead emotions and long separation, in the given facts and circumstances of a case, can be construed as a case of "irretrievable breakdown of marriage", which is also a facet of "cruelty". In Rakesh Raman v. Kavita reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 497, this is precisely what was held, that though in a given case cruelty as a fault, may not be attributable to one party alone and hence despite irretrievable breakdown of marriage keeping the parties together amounts to cruelty on both sides. Which is precisely the case at hand."

(35) For all the aforesaid reasons, both the appeals are allowed. The impugned judgment dated 22.02.2021 is hereby set-aside. The appellant/wife is granted divorce on the ground of cruelty under Section 13(1)(i-a) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955. Suit No. 2335 of 2015 is allowed. Suit No. 3300 of 2014 is dismissed.

(36) There shall be no order as to cost.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2017
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 29.05.2024
BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 1417 of 2010

Amit Kumar Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
Gola & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Rajeev Singh, Akhilesh Kumar Mishra, Alok Singh, Vijay Kumar

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
Govt. Advocate, Anurag Singh Chauhan

The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Sections 3 (1) (Dha) & 3 (1) (s)- Applicant is a student of Hotel Management in Sydney, Australia- first complaint was lodged by the opposite party-found fake-proceeding dropped-after nine months-he filed an Application u/s 156(3) Cr.P.C. on the same facts-Applicant has not abused the opposite party by caste name in any place within the public view-sec.3 (1) (Dha) or sec. 3(1) (s) of the Act, 1989 not attracted-incidence took place inside the house of the complainant –not a place with public view-no outsider was sitting in the room –nor anyone has seen the alleged incident-from nature of evidence-contents of complaint-incident does not appear to happen-summoning order quashed.

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Har. Vs Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426

2. Mohd. Allauddin Khan Vs St. of Bihar & ors. reported in (2019) 6 SCC 107

3. Masumsha Hasanasha Musalman v. St. of Mah., reported in AIR 2000 SC 1786

4. Hitesh Verma Vs St. of Uttarakhand, (2020) 10 SCC 710

5. Ramesh Chandra Vaishya Vs St. of U.P. & anr.; (2023) SCC OnLine SC 668

6. Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs St. of Uttranchal & anr. reported in (2008) 17 SCC 157

7. Ankit Vs St. of U.P. & anr. reported in JIC 2010 (1) page 432

8. Mahadev Prasad Kaushik Vs St. of U.P. (2008) 14 SCC 479

9. Lalankumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of Mah. reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383

10. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) St. of Har. Vs Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426,

11. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192,

12. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq and 22 another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

13. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Mah. , AIR 2021 SC 1918

14. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

15. M/s Pepsi Food Ltd. & anr. Vs Special Judicial Magistrate & ors.: 1998 (5) SCC 749

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vijay Kumar, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Anurag Singh Chauhan, learned counsel for the opposite party no.1 and Sri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I for the State Opposite Party No.2 as well as perused the record.

2. The instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been moved on behalf of the applicant, namely, Amit Kumar Singh with a prayer to quash the impugned order dated 29.05.2009 passed in Criminal Case No.897 of 2008 (Gola Vs. Ambar Singh and Others), under Sections 323, 505, 506, 420 I.P.C. and Section 3(2)(v) of The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow pending in the court of learned Special Judge, C.B.I., Lucknow.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant is a student of Hotel Management studying in Meridian International Hotel School, Sydney, Australia and the entire family of the applicant is law abiding and living peacefully.

4. He further submitted that some persons belonging to the pedigree of the applicant are jealous with the success of the family of the applicant as the elder brother of the applicant went to Australia on scholarship and settled in Sydney, therefore, only with intention to malign the dignity of the family of applicant, the impugned proceeding was instituted.

5. He further submitted that opposite party no.1 sent an application to the U.P. SC/ST Commission, 10th Floor, Indira Bhawan, Ashok Marg, Lucknow, wherein a direction was issued on 04.03.2008 to the Senior Superintendent of Police, Lucknow for conducting inquiry in the complaint of Sri Gola i.e. the opposite party no.1, therefore, the concerned Circle Officer conducted an inquiry, recorded the statements of villagers including complainant (Sri Gola) and found that a fake complaint has been moved by the complainant, as such, the proceeding was dropped.

6. He further submitted that the opposite party no.1 deliberately kept silent about nine months and then again filed an application under section 156(3) Cr.P.C. on the same fabricated story on behest of present village Pradhan, namely, Sri Shiv Shanker Singh against the applicant and his family members with the allegations that Shri Ambar Singh (uncle of the applicant) borrowed Rs.500/- about three years prior from the date of application (no date and time is mentioned), however, when the opposite party no.1 asked to return the aforesaid amount, only Rs.150/- were returned to him and he also refused to pay the balance amount of Rs.350/-. Further allegation is that inspite of refusal of Sri Ambar Singh, the opposite party no.1 requested repeatedly for returning the balance amount of Rs.350/- but he always gave threat to the opposite party no.1 saying that if he will demand the balance amount, then he will be killed. Further allegation is that on 04.01.2008, when the opposite party no.1 again went to the applicant and demanded the balance amount of Rs.350/-, he was threatened to death and was also insulted by the applicant, who was accompanied with many persons alongwith fire arm weapons as well as lathi and danda.

7. He further submitted that further allegation is that on the next date i.e. 05.01.2008 at about 9.00 A.M. when opposite party no.1 was at his residence, Shri Ambar Singh and the instant applicant along with 7-8 persons armed with rifles, revolver, country made pistol and Lathi - Danda again came to his house and started abusing to the opposite party no.1. Thereafter, he was called by them and as soon as he came out from his house, a fire was opened by the applicant and the opposite party no. 1 tried to rescue himself but the applicant started beating with the help of Lathi Danda. Thereafter, an alarm was made by the family members of opposite party no.1, hearing which, several persons were collected on the place of incident but the applicant and other persons ran away giving threat to the opposite party no.1. Thereafter, the opposite party no.1 moved an application before the learned Judicial Magistrate (Court No.40), Lucknow under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. for lodging an FIR, wherein the learned Magistrate, ordered to the Station Officer, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow for producing the police report in the Court on 04.11.2008.

8. He further submitted that the Station Officer, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow submitted the police report before the learned Judicial Magistrate (Court No. 40) / Additional Civil Judge (Junior Division-VIII), Lucknow, wherein it was mentioned that the entire complaint is on the basis of fabricated facts and it is a result of political rivalry and no such incident took place. The relevant part of the police report submitted by the Station Officer on the Misc. Application No. 162/08 Gola Vs. Ambar Singh is being reproduced as under:-

"आवेदक श्री गोला पासी एस/ओ श्री प्रसादी पासी निवासी ग्राम अमावां थाना बंथरा जनपद लखनऊ की जांच मुझ उपनिरीक्षक द्वारा मौके पर जाकर की गयी तो वाकयात निम्न प्रकार पाये गये। आवेदक श्री गोला पासी उपरोक्त श्री नीटू सिह एस/ओ श्री राज बहादुर सिंह निवासी ग्राम अमावां से लगभग दो वर्ष पहले एक हजार रूपया अपनी पुत्री की शादी के लिए ले गया था। श्री गोला पासी की माली हालत बहुत ज्यादा खराब है। शादी की समय नीटू सिंह ने रूप्या दे दिया था जबकि गोला से श्री नीटू सिंह ने अपने उधार के रूपये मांगे तो टाल मटोल करने लगा और श्री नीटू सिंह का साथ श्री गोला पासी छोड़कर गाव के वर्तमान प्रधान श्री शिव शंकर सिंह निवासी ग्राम अमावा के साथ उठना बैठना और लेन-देन करने लगा। विपक्षी अम्बर सिंह एस/ओ पृथ्वी पाल सिंह, अमित कुमार एस/ओ हरिनाम सिंह, प्रवीण कुमार व नीटू सिंह पुत्रगण राज बहादुर सिंह निवासी ग्राम अमांवा थारा बंथरा लखनऊ की प्रधानी चुनाव के समय से वर्तमान प्रधान श्री शिव शंकर सिंह से प्रतिद्वन्दता चल रही है, विपक्षीगणों द्वारा हारे हुए प्रधान उम्मीदवार श्री देवेन्द्र सिंह एसओ श्री रामेश्वर सिंह निवासी ग्राम अमांवा को समर्थन किया था. इसी

राजनैतिक प्रतिद्विन्दता के कारण श्री शिव शंकर सिंह वर्तमान प्रधान आवेदक श्री गोला पासी एस/ओ श्री प्रसादी पासी निवासी अमांवा को उकसा कर झूठा एवं मनगढन्त आरोप लगाकर प्रार्थना पत्र विपक्षियों के विरूद्ध दिला रहे हैं। आवेदक श्री गोला को मोहरा बनाकर अपनी राजनैतिक प्रतिद्विन्दता निभा रहे हैं। विपक्षीगणों के विरूद्ध 500 रूप्ये उधार मांगने का आरोप एक हास्यास्पद है। विपक्षीगणों के पास अच्छी सम्पत्ति एवं सम्पन्न परिवार है, किसी भी व्यक्ति द्वारा उधार रूप्ये मांगने एवं लगाये गये आरोप की पुष्टि नहीं की है। उपरोक्त संबंध में लगाये गये आरोपों के संबंध में जितने भी शिकायती प्रार्थना पत्र दिए गए सभी की विधिवत जांच से कोई आरोप प्रमाणित नहीं हुआ। उपरोक्त आरोपों की जांच क्षेत्राधिकारी सरोजनीनगर महोदय द्वारा भी की जा चुकी है। लगाये गये आरोप असत्य हैं किसी कार्यवाही की आवश्यकता प्रतीत नहीं होती है।"

9. He further submitted that the police report was submitted in the Court of Additional Civil Judge (Jr. Division-VIII) / Judicial Magistrate Room No.40, Lucknow in relation to the application no.162/08 and after considering the police report, the contents of the application of Sri Gola and arguments of his counsel, the learned Court was pleased to decide the matter with reasoned and speaking order and rejected the same on 25.11.2008. The relevant part of the order dated 25.11.2008 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate, Court No.40 Lucknow in C.M. Application No.162/08 (Gola Vs. Ambar) is being reproduced as under:-

"प्रकीर्ण प्रार्थना पत्र संख्या-162/08

गोला बनाम अम्बर सिंह आदि

25.11.08

प्रार्थी गोला ने उक्त प्रार्थना पत्र अन्तर्गत धारा 156 (3) द.प्र.सं. प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज करने के संबंध में दिया है।

प्रार्थी ने अपने प्रार्थना पत्र में कहा है कि प्रार्थी से लगभग तीन वर्ष पूर्व अम्बर सिंह पुत्र श्री पृथ्वीपाल सिंह निवासी ग्राम अमावा थाना बंथरा जिला लखनऊ में रूपये 500 उधार मांग ले गये थे और वापस देने का वायदा किया था शपथी के बहुत कहने पर अम्बर सिंह ने 150/- रूपये वापस कर दिये तथा रूपये 350/- शेष नहीं दिया, जब शपथी बकाया मांगने गया तो अम्बर सिंह, अमित कुमार, प्रवीण कुमार, नीतू सिंह ने अपने कई अन्य साथियों के साथ अपना लाइसेंसी राइफल, रिवाल्वर व देशी कट्टा व लाठी डंडा से लैस होकर शपथी को धमकाया व जान से मारने की धमकी दी अतः विपक्षीगण के विरूद्ध प्रथम सूचना रिपोर्ट दर्ज करने के संबंध में आदेश पारित करने की कृपा करें।

थाने से आख्या आहूत की गयी।

थाने की आख्या का अवलोकन करने पर पाया कि प्रार्थी व विपक्षीगण के मध्य चुनाव को लेकर आपसी रंजिश है।

प्रार्थी के विद्वान अधिवक्ता को सुना व थाने की आख्या व संलग्न प्रपत्रों का अवलोकन किया।

अवलोकन करने पर यह पाया कि प्रार्थी ने केवल मौखिक रूप से कहा है कि 500/- रूपये अम्बर सिंह ने उधार लिया था जिसमें से 150 रूपये प्राथी को मिल चुके हैं सिर्फ 350/- बकाया है जबकि प्रार्थी ने अपने प्रार्थना पत्र में कहा है कि प्रार्थी पासी जाति का है। प्रार्थी ने किसे समक्ष पैसा उधार दिया था, इसका उल्लेख प्रार्थना पत्र में नहीं किया है। न्यायालय की राय में प्रार्थी ने उक्त प्रार्थना पत्र मात्र प्रधानी के चुनाव की रंजिश में विपक्षीगण के विरूद्ध दिया है।.....

अतः विपक्षीगण के विरुद्ध पूर्ण रूप से संगेय अपराध का कारित किया जाना प्रतीत नहीं होता। प्रार्थना पत्र निरस्त होने योग्य है।

आदेश

प्रार्थी का प्रार्थना पत्र अन्तर्गत धारा 156 (3) दं०प्र०सं. निरस्त किया जाता है।

ह० अपठनीय

25.11.08

न्या० मैजि० कक्ष सं.-40

लखनऊ।"

10. He further submitted that annoyed with the aforesaid, the opposite party no.1 moved a fresh application on 06.12.2008 before the Court on the same facts and circumstances, wherein the opposite party no.1 concealed the facts and mislead the learned Magistrate by saying that the application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. has been disposed of on 25.11.2008, however, it was dismissed with a reasoned and speaking order after considering the inquiry report submitted by the police of Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow. He further submitted that in absence of the facts that the application of opposite party

no. 1 has already been dismissed on 25.11.2008, the Hon'ble Court was pleased to pass an order on 08.12.2008 for registering a case as a Complaint Case No.897/08, under Sections 323/504/506/420 IPC and Section 3(2)(5) SC/ST Act.

11. He further submitted that the complainant also annexed a list of two witnesses, namely, (1) Monu Singh S/o Ram Shankar Singh and (2) Kamlesh S/o Annu residents of Village Amawa, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow along with the copy of complaint dated 08.12.2008 but there was no whisper about the witnesses in the body of any complaint. He further submitted that it is relevant to mention here that Monu Singh is belonging to the family of the present Pradhan.

12. He further submitted that on 05.03.2009, the learned Special Judicial Magistrate, C.B.I., Lucknow recorded the statement of opposite party no.1 under Section 200 Cr.P.C., in which a new story was narrated by the complainant Gola, who stated that he was working as a labour for Ambar Singh and he worked about 25 days and in lieu of the payment of wages for 25 days, Rs.500/- was not paid by him and whenever, he went to the Ambar Singh for raising his demand, the same was ignored and thereafter on 04.01.2008, when the complainant went to the Ambar Singh, he was scolded and on 05.01.2008 at about 9.00 A.M., the applicant along with other family members and associates came to the house of complainant and a fire was opened on him but due to interference of the wife of complainant, the direction of fire was changed and he ran inside the house and closed the door.

13. He further submitted that on 04.04.2009, the statement of Monu Singh and Ram Kumar were recorded under Section 202 Cr.P.C. but it is pertinent to mention here that the complainant has set up a new story i.e. in contradiction with the facts mentioned in the complaint. He further submitted that it is also relevant to point out that there is no whisper available about the presence of the witnesses and in the list of witnesses, Sri Ram Kumar was not mentioned but his statement was recorded. He further submitted that it is also relevant to mention here that the respondents deliberately did not produce neighbours or his wife as witness.

14. He further submitted that the entire complaint was filed on the basis of fabricated facts as it was established during the course of police inquiry submitted in the Court as well as the inquiry conducted by Circle Officer on the behest of U.P. SC/ST Commission but in the most mechanical manner the learned Magistrate had passed the impugned order dated 29.05.2009 and issued summons to the applicant and even a new story was set up in the statements recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. i.e. contradictory to the averments made in the complaint.

15. He further submitted that the impugned case is instituted only to malign the dignity of the family of applicant and the proceeding is in violation of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426 and the impugned order is perverse and it is passed in the most arbitrary and illegal manner.

16. He further submitted that it is well settled by this Hon'ble Court as well as by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that the abuse of process of law is not permitted and in the present case it is very much clear that the respondent is abusing the legal provisions only to harass the applicant on the behest of the one Sri Shiv Shankar Singh, the present village Pradhan which is very much clear from the police report.

17. He further submitted that the learned Magistrate passed the impugned order saying that Sri Ambar Singh borrowed Rs. 500/- from opposite party no.1 and Rs.350/- was not being returned to him, therefore, he was scolded by Sri Ambar Singh and his associates but on oath complainant stated that his labour charges that was due on Ambar Singh was not being paid and on the demand, he was scolded and manhandled by them, therefore, order is perverse and the same is liable to be quashed in the light of law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Bhajan Lal (Supra).

18. He further submitted that the impugned proceeding is under challenge in Criminal Misc. Case No.2468 of 2009 (Application under Section 482 Cr.P.C.) Ambar Singh & two others Versus Gola & another before the Hon'ble High Court, wherein, the Hon'ble Court was pleased to pass an Interim Order on 09.07.2009 and stayed the operation and implementation of the impugned order dated 29.05.2009. The order dated 09.07.2009 passed by co-ordinate Bench of this Court is being reproduced hereunder:-

"Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners, learned A.G.A. and perused the record.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has drawn my attention towards the material contradictions in the allegations made in the complaint and in the statement of the complainant recorded under section 200 Cr.P.C. He has further submitted that after rejection of the application under section 156(3) Cr.P.C., the complaint has been filed on the basis of the wrong facts and the allegations made in the complaint have not been corroborated by the statement of the complainant.

The learned A.G.A. has received notice on behalf of the opposite party no.2.

Issue notice to the opposite party no.1 returnable at an early date.

Let the steps be taken within three days.

The opposite parties may file their respective counter affidavit within six weeks. Rejoinder affidavit, if any, may be filed within two weeks thereafter.

List after the expiry of the aforesaid period.

Till the next date of listing, the operation / implementation of the impugned order dated 29.05.2009 shall remain stayed."

19. He further submitted that the applicant is studying in Sydney, therefore, he was not aware about the impugned proceeding and it came into the knowledge of the applicant in the month of December 2009, but the applicant has already deposited the fees for the Hotel Management Course and in every month he has to appear in the examination, in these circumstances, the present petition was being filed after some delay but the same is bonafide. He further submitted that it is also relevant to mention here that the impugned criminal proceeding has been instituted only to malign the dignity of the family of the applicant, therefore, in the interest of justice, the entire proceeding is liable to be quashed.

20. Sri Anurag Singh Chauhan, learned counsel for the opposite party no.1 has opposed the arguments raised by the learned counsel for the applicant and has submitted that offences under Sections 323, 505, 506, 420 I.P.C. and Section 3(2)(v) of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 are made out against the applicant. As per the version of F.I.R., the applicant had abused the complainant/informant with caste abusive words in a public place, where other persons were present, therefore, offence under Section 3(2)(v) of SC/ST Act will be made out against the applicant. Similarly, in a public place other persons were also present, therefore, it is a public view. In these circumstances the impugned order dated 29.05.2009, summoning the applicant and taking cognizance, was rightly passed, as such, the same is not liable to be quashed and the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is liable to be dismissed.

21. In support of his argument, learned Counsel for the respondent No.1 has placed reliance on the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Allauddin Khan vs. State of Bihar and Others reported in (2019) 6 SCC 107.

22. Sri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I for the State-respondent No.2 also made an agreement with the arguments of learned Counsel for the respondent No.1 and submitted that prima facie offence is made out against the applicant and learned trial court has rightly passed impugned summoning order after considering the material placed on record, thus, the applicant is not entitled for any relief by this Court and the present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. may be dismissed.

23. After considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perusal of record in light of the submissions made at the Bar and after taking an overall view of all the facts and circumstances of this case, the nature of evidence and the contents of the F.I.R. as well as summoning order dated 29.05.2009, this court is of the view that the Act, 1989 is meant to prevent the commission of offences of atrocities against the members of the Schedule Castes and the Schedule Tribes, to provide for Special Courts and Exclusive Special Courts for the trial of such offences and for the relief and rehabilitation of the victims of such offences and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

24. It is further observed that the Act, 1989 was enacted to improve the social economic conditions of the vulnerable sections of the society as they have been subjected to various offences such as indignities, humiliations and harassment. They have been deprived of life and property as well. The object of the Act, 1989 is thus to punish the violators who inflict indignities, humiliations and harassment and commit the offence as defined under Section 3 of the Act, 1989. The Act, 1989 thus intended to punish the acts of the upper caste against the vulnerable section of the society for the reason that they belong to a particular community. Section 3(1)(Dha) of the Act, 1989 or 3(1)(s) of the Act, 1989 would read as under:-

"Section 3(1)(s) of the Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989- abuses any member of a Scheduled Caste or a Schedule Tribe by caste name in any place within the public view"

25. Thus, even though the basic ingredient of the offence under Section

3(1)(Dha) can be clarified as abuse of any member of Schedule Caste or a Schedule Tribe by caste name in any place within the public view.

26. It is further observed that an offence under the Act, 1989 would be made out when a member of the vulnerable section of the society is subjected to indignities, humiliations and harassment in any place within the public view.

27. In the present case, this Court finds that the applicant has not abused the respondent No.1 by caste name in any place within the public view, thus, Section 3(1)(Dha) of the Act, 1989 or 3(1)(s) of the Act, 1989 is also not attracted in the present case. Section 3(1)(s) of the Act, 1989 would read as under:-

"Section 3(1)(s) of the Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989- abuses any member of a Scheduled Caste or a Schedule Tribe by caste name in any place within the public view"

28. It is further observed that the complainant also annexed a list of two witnesses, namely, (1) Monu Singh S/o Ram Shankar Singh and (2) Kamlesh S/o Annu residents of Village Amawa, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow along with the copy of complaint dated 08.12.2008 but there was no whisper about the witnesses in the body of any complaint and the witness Monu Singh is belonging to the family of the present Pradhan.

29. Further, in the present case, this Court finds that the offence under Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, 1989, whereby the applicant has been summoned vide impugned summoning order dated 29.05.2009, is also not made out against the applicant as from bare perusal of complaint as well as summoning order, the ingredients of the aforesaid Section is missing. Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, 1989 is being quoted hereunder:-

"commits any offence under the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) punishable with imprisonment for a term of ten years or more against a person or property knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member, shall be punishable with imprisonment for life and with fine;"

30. It is further observed that as per his own case, the respondent No.1 clearly stated in the complaint and in his statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that whatever incident took place that took place inside his house, thus, it is not a place within a public view as no outsider was sitting in the room nor anyone has seen the alleged incident. Even the independent witnesses whose names were taken by the respondent No.1 were also not present inside the house at the time of the alleged incident. Even though the ingredients of Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, 1989 is also not attracted in the present case.

31. It is further observed that offence under the Act, 1989 is not established merely on the fact that the informant/complainant is a member of Scheduled Caste unless there is an intention to humiliate a member of Schedule Caste or Schedule Tribe for the reason that the victim belongs to such caste.

32. This Court further observes that we rarely come across a society, in which crime is not committed by a person on another. There are number of penal laws to punish the offenders of such crimes. Such laws apply to every offender, irrespective of his caste or creed. However, taking into consideration the indignities to which persons belonging to scheduled castes or scheduled tribe were and are subjected and atrocities committed on them only on the ground that such persons belonged to such caste. The Parliament has enacted the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, to prevent atrocities on the persons belonging to scheduled castes or scheduled tribes. The object behind clause (v) of Section 3(2) of the Act is to punish the persons, who commit offences under the Indian Penal Code punishable for a term of ten years or more, against a members of Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes on the ground that such person belongs to Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes or such property belongs to such person, by higher and more severe punishment.

33. This Court further observes that as special and stricter provisions have been made in the Act, it is the duty of the prosecution to examine the case more carefully. Registration of the offence under the Act, only because the complainant party belonged to a Scheduled Tribe and the accused persons did not belong to a Scheduled Tribe or Scheduled Caste was a mechanical exercise of authority and it has to be deprecated.

34. From the language used by the Legislature in Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, it is clear that this Section does not constitute any substantive offence and if any person not being a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled tribe commits any offence under the Indian Penal Code punishable with imprisonment for a term of ten years or more against a person or property on the ground that such person is a member of Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member, then enhanced punishment of life imprisonment would be awarded in such cases, meaning thereby that conviction and sentence under Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act, simpliciter is not permissible and in cases where an offence under the Indian Penal Code punishable with imprisonment for a term of ten years or more is committed against a person or property on the ground that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member, then in such a case the accused will be convicted and sentenced for the offence under Indian Penal Code read with Section 3(2)(v) SC/ST Act, with imprisonment for life and also with fine. Thus, in order to attract the provision of Section 3(2)(v) the following ingredients must be established :

"(1) The offender should not be a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;

(2) He must commit an offence under the Indian Penal Code punishable with imprisonment for a term of 10 years or more;

(3) The commission of such offence must be against a person or property of a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;

(4) The offences must have been committed on the ground that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe."

35. The words “on the ground” have not been used in anywhere in the Act, except in clause (v) of Section 3(2) of the Act. It will be seen that only serious offences under the Indian Penal Code which are punishable with imprisonment for a term of 10 years or more are covered by clause (v). However, the provisions of the I.P.C. are universally applicable whereas the clause (v) is applicable only where the victim is a person belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe. The law therefore expects a graver kind of mens rea denoted by the words " on the ground", to render already serious offences under the Indian Penal Code more serious, which has the effect of making it punishable by no less a punishment than imprisonment for life. In order to constitute an offence under Section 3(2)(v) of Act, 1989, something more than 'intention' is needed – the offence against the victim must have been committed with a particular object, i.e., it must have been committed 'on the ground' that he was a member of a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe.

36. The expression "on the ground" has been subject matter of decision in a number of cases decided under the SC/ST (P.A.) Act. In the case of Masumsha Hasanasha Musalman v. State of Maharashtra, reported in AIR 2000 SC 1786 it was held that " To attract the provisions of Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, the sine qua non is that the victim should be a person who belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and that the offence under the Indian Penal Code is committed against him on the basis that such a person belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe. In the absence of such ingredients, no offence under the Section 3(2) (v) of the Act, is constituted.

37. It is further observed by this Court that from the bare perusal of the complaint, the utterances, if any, as mentioned in Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, 1989 are not fulfilled. The Investigating agencies while investigating the matter are duty bound to consider the factual aspects of the matter and also to consider the statement of witnesses, complainant as well as the applicant so as to ascertain whether the chargesheet makes out a case under the Act, 1989 having been committed for forming a proper opinion in the conspectus of the situation before it, prior to taking cognizance of the offence by learned Magistrate. In the present case from the factual aspects and statements discussed above, no offence is made out under Section 3(2)(v) of the Act, 1989. Though, the learned Magistrate has not applied its judicial mind while taking cognizance in the matter and even though, he has only relied on the contents of the complaint and summoned the applicant by impugned order to face trial, which is very serious matter.

38. In view of the aforesaid discussion, this Court deems it proper to discuss some case laws.

39. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Hitesh Verma Vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2020) 10 SCC 710 has been pleased to observe in para 13, 14 and 18 as under :-

"13. All insults or intimidations to a person will not be an offence under the Act unless such insult or intimidation is on account of victim belonging to Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe. The object of the Act is to improve the socio-economic conditions of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes as they are denied number of civil rights. Thus, an offence under the Act would be made out when a member of the vulnerable section of the Society is subjected to indignities, humiliations and harassment. The assertion of title over the land by either of the parties is not due to either the indignities, humiliations or harassment. Every citizen has a right to avail their remedies in accordance with law. Therefore, if the appellant or his family members have invoked jurisdiction of the civil court, or that respondent No.2 has invoked the jurisdiction of the civil court, then the parties are availing their remedies in accordance with the procedure established by law. Such action is not for the reason that respondent No.2 is member of Scheduled Caste.

14. Another key ingredient of the provision is insult or intimidation in "any place within public view". What is to be regarded as "place in public view" had come up for consideration before this Court in the judgment reported as Swaran Singh v. State [Swaran Singh v. State, (2008) 8 SCC 435 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 527]. The Court had drawn distinction between the expression "public place" and "in any place within public view". It was held that if an offence is committed outside the building e.g. in a lawn outside a house, and the lawn can be seen by someone from the road or lane outside the boundary wall, then the lawn would certainly be a place within the public view. On the contrary, if the remark is made inside a building, but some members of the public are there (not merely relatives or friends) then it would not be an offence since it is not in the public view (sic) . The Court held as under :

"28. It has been alleged in the FIR that Vinod Nagar, the first informant, was insulted by Appellants 2 and 3 (by calling him a "chamar") when he stood near the car which was parked at the gate of the premises. In our opinion, this was certainly a place within public view, since the gate of a house is certainly a place within public view. It could have been a different matter had the alleged offence been committed inside a building, and also was not in the public view. However, if the offence is committed outside the building e.g. in a lawn outside a house, and the lawn can be seen by someone from the road or lane outside the boundary wall, the lawn would certainly be a place within the public view. Also, even if the remark is made inside a building, but some members of the public are there (not merely relatives or friends) then also it would be an offence since it is in the public view. We must, therefore, not confuse the expression "place within public view" with the expression "public place". A place can be a private place but yet within the public view. On the other hand, a public place would ordinarily mean a place which is owned or leased by the Government or the municipality (or other local body) or gaon sabha or an instrumentality of the State, and not by private persons or private bodies."

18. Therefore, offence under the Act is not established merely on the fact that the informant is a member of Scheduled Caste unless there is an intention to humiliate a member of Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe for the reason that the victim belongs to such caste. In the present case, the parties are litigating over possession of the land. The allegation of hurling of abuses is against a person who claims title over the property. If such person happens to be a Scheduled Caste, the offence under Section 3(1)(r) of the Act is not made out."

40. Further, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Ramesh Chandra Vaishya Vs. State of U.P. and Another; (2023) SCC OnLine SC 668 has been pleased to observe in paragraph 17, 18 and 21 as under:-

"17. The first question that calls for an answer is whether it was at a place within public view that the appellant hurled caste related abuses at the complainant with an intent to insult or intimidate with an intent to humiliate him. From the charge-sheet dated 21st January, 2016 filed by the I.O., it appears that the prosecution would seek to rely on the evidence of three witnesses to drive home the charge against the appellant of committing offences under sections 323 and 504, IPC and 3(1)(x), SC/ST Act. These three witnesses are none other than the complainant, his wife and their son. Neither the first F.I.R. nor the charge-sheet refers to the presence of a fifth individual (a member of the public) at the place of occurrence (apart from the appellant, the complainant, his wife and their son). Since the utterances, if any, made by the appellant were not "in any place within public view", the basic ingredient for attracting section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act was missing/absent. We, therefore, hold that at the relevant point of time of the incident (of hurling of caste related abuse at the complainant by the appellant), no member of the public was present.

18. That apart, assuming arguendo that the appellant had hurled caste related abuses at the complainant with a view to insult or humiliate him, the same does not advance the case of the complainant any further to bring it within the ambit of section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act. We have noted from the first F.I.R. as well as the charge- sheet that the same makes no reference to the utterances of the appellant during the course of verbal altercation or to the caste to which the complainant belonged, except for the allegation/observation that caste-related abuses were hurled. The legislative intent seems to be clear that every insult or intimidation for humiliation to a person would not amount to an offence under section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act unless, of course, such insult or intimidation is targeted at the victim because of he being a member of a particular Scheduled Caste or Tribe. If one calls another an idiot (bewaqoof) or a fool (murkh) or a thief (chor) in any place within public view, this would obviously constitute an act intended to insult or humiliate by user of abusive or offensive language. Even if the same be directed generally to a person, who happens to be a Scheduled Caste or Tribe, per se, it may not be sufficient to attract section 3(1)(x) unless such words are laced with casteist remarks. Since section 18 of the SC/ST Act bars invocation of the court's jurisdiction under section 438, Cr.PC and having regard to the overriding effect of the SC/ST Act over other laws, it is desirable that before an accused is subjected to a trial for alleged commission of offence under section 3(1)(x), the utterances made by him in any place within public view are outlined, if not in the F.I.R. (which is not required to be an encyclopedia of all facts and events), but at least in the charge-sheet (which is prepared based either on statements of witnesses recorded in course of investigation or otherwise) so as to enable the court to ascertain whether the charge sheet makes out a case of an offence under the SC/ST Act having been committed for forming a proper opinion in the conspectus of the situation before it, prior to taking cognizance of the offence. Even for the limited test that has to be applied in a case of the present nature, the charge-sheet dated 21 st January, 2016 does not make out any case of an offence having been committed by the appellant under section 3(1)(x) warranting him to stand a trial.

21. Section 323, IPC prescribes punishment for voluntarily causing hurt.

Hurt is defined in section 319, IPC as causing bodily pain, disease or infirmity to any person. The allegation in the first F.I.R. is that the appellant had beaten up the complainant for which he sustained multiple injuries. Although the complainant alleged that such incident was witnessed by many persons and that he sustained injuries on his hand, the charge-sheet does neither refer to any eye-witness other than the complainant's wife and son nor to any medical report. The nature of hurt suffered by the complainant in the process is neither reflected from the first F.I.R. nor the charge-sheet. On the contrary, the appellant had the injuries suffered by him treated immediately after the incident. In the counter-affidavit filed by the first respondent (State) in the present proceeding, there is no material worthy of consideration in this behalf except a bald statement that the complainant sustained multiple injuries "in his hand and other body parts". If indeed the complainant's version were to be believed, the I.O. ought to have asked for a medical report to support the same. Completion of investigation within a day in a given case could be appreciated but in the present case it has resulted in more disservice than service to the cause of justice. The situation becomes all the more glaring when in course of this proceeding the parties including the first respondent are unable to apprise us the outcome of the second F.I.R. In any event, we do not find any ring of truth in the prosecution case to allow the proceedings to continue vis-à-vis section 323, IPC."

41. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs State of Uttranchal and another reported in (2008) 17 SCC 157, discussed the expression "taking cognizance of an offence" by a Magistrate within contemplation of section 190 of the Cr.P.C and also discussed what must have been taken notice by the Magistrate while taking cognizance. Paras 11, 12, 13,14 and15 being relevant are abstracted below:-

"11.The next incidental question is as to what is meant by expression `taking cognizance of an offence' by a Magistrate within the contemplation of Section 190 of the Code?

12.The expression `cognizance' is not defined in the Code but is a word of indefinite import. As observed by this Court in Ajit Kumar Palit Vs. State of West Bengal2, the word `cognizance' has no esoteric or mystic significance in criminal law or procedure. It merely means--become aware 2 [1963] Supp. 1 S.C.R. 953 9 of and when used with reference to a Court or Judge, to take notice of judicially. Approving the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Emperor Vs. Sourindra Mohan Chuckerbutty3, the Court said that `taking cognizance does not involve any formal action; or indeed action of any kind, but occurs as soon as a Magistrate, as such, applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence.'

13. Recently, this Court in S.K. Sinha, Chief Enforcement Officer Vs. Videocon International Ltd. & Ors.4, speaking through C.K. Thakker, J., while considering the ambit and scope of the phrase `taking cognizance' under Section 190 of the Code, has highlighted some of the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Superintendent & Remembrancer of Legal Affairs, West Bengal Vs. Abani Kumar Banerjee5, which were approved by this Court in R. R. Chari Vs. State of U.P.6. The observations are:

3 (1910) I.L.R. 37 Calcutta 412 4 (2008) 2 SCC 492 5 A.I.R. (37) 1950

Calcutta 437 6 A.I.R. (38) 1951 SC 207 1 0 "7. ... What is `taking cognizance' has not been defined in the Criminal Procedure Code, and I have no desire now to attempt to define it. It seems to me clear, however, that before it can be said that any Magistrate has taken cognizance of any offence under Section 190(1)(a) CrPC, he must not only have applied his mind to the contents of the petition, but he must have done so for the purpose of proceeding in a particular way as indicated in the subsequent provisions of this Chapter, proceeding under Section 200, and thereafter sending it for enquiry and report under Section 202. When the Magistrate applies his mind not for the purpose of proceeding under the subsequent sections of this Chapter, but for taking action of some other kind, e.g., ordering investigation under Section 156 (3), or issuing a search warrant for the purpose of the investigation, he cannot be said to have taken cognizance of the offence."

14. From the afore-noted judicial pronouncements, it is clear that being an expression of indefinite import, it is neither practicable nor desirable to precisely define as to what is meant by `taking cognizance'. Whether the Magistrate has or has not taken cognizance of the offence will depend upon the circumstances of the particular case, including the mode in which the case is sought to be instituted and the nature of the preliminary action.

15. Nevertheless, it is well settled that before a Magistrate can be said to have taken cognizance of an offence, it is imperative that he must have taken notice of the accusations and applied his mind to the allegations made in the complaint or in the police report or the information received from a source other than a police report, as the case may be, and the material filed therewith. It needs little emphasis that it is only when the Magistrate applies his mind and is satisfied that the allegations, if proved, would constitute an offence and decides to initiate proceedings against the alleged offender, that it can be positively stated that he has taken cognizance of the offence."

(Emphasis supplied)

42. This Court in the matter of Ankit Vs State of U.P. and another reported in JIC 2010 (1) page 432 has held that-

" Although as held by this Court in the case of Megh Nath Guptas & Anr V State of U.P. And Anr, 2008 (62) ACC 826, in which reference has been made to the cases of Deputy Chief Controller Import and Export Vs Roshan Lal Agarwal, 2003 (4^) ACC 686 (SC), UP Pollution Control Board Vs Mohan Meakins, 2000 (2) JIC 159 (SC): AIR 2000 SC 1456 and Kanti Bhadra Vs State of West Bengal, 2000 (1) JIC 751 (SC): 2000 (40) ACC 441 (SC), the Magistrate is not required to pass detailed reasoned order at the time of taking cognizance on the charge sheet, but it does not mean that order of taking cognizance can be passed by filling up the blanks on printed proforma. At the time of passing any judicial order including the order taking cognizance on the charge sheet, the Court is required to apply judicial mind and even the order of taking cognizance cannot be passed in mechanical manner. Therefore, the impugned order is liable to be quashed and the matter has to be sent back to the Court below for passing fresh order on the charge sheet after applying judicial mind."

(Emphasis supplied)

43. Thus, in the present case learned Magistrate without considering the material available before him and even without considering the averments made in the complaint in which as per the own case of the respondent No.1 the alleged incident took place inside his house and at that time no public was present nor there was any public view. Learned Magistrate while taking cognizance did not consider the statements of the applicant. Thus, no offence is made out against the applicant.

44. Further, the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Allauddin Khan (Supra), which has been relied upon by learned Counsel for the respondent No.1 is not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the present case.

45. It has been consistently held by the Hon'ble Apex Court and also by various High Courts that before an offence under section 506 I.P.C. is made out, it must be established that the accused had an intention to cause an alarm to the complainant. In order to attract the ingredients of Section 506 I.P.C., the intention of the accused must be to cause alarm to the victim. Mere expression of words without any intention to cause alarm would not suffice. Mere vague and bald allegations that the accused threatened the victim with dire consequences is not sufficient to attract the provisions under Section 506 I.P.C. The threat should be a real one and not just a mere word when the person uttering does not exactly mean what he says and also when the person against whom the threat is launched, does not feel threatened actually. It should appear that the complainant was feeling fear for his life. In the case of Mahadev Prasad Kaushik Vs. State of U.P. (2008) 14 SCC 479, the Apex Court quashed the proceedings initiated against the appellants for the offences punishable under Sections 504 and 506 I.P.C. on the ground that there was no whisper about the threat alleged to have been given by the appellant to the complainant in the order passed by the Magistrate.

46. Thus, after perusing the record in the light of the submissions made at the bar and after taking an overall view of all the facts and circumstances of this case, the nature of evidence and as per the contents of the complaint as well as the statement of respondent No.1 and considering the various case laws referred above, the incident does not appear to happen, thus, offence under the Provisions of Act, 1989 is not attracted against the applicant as the incident did not occur in any "place within a public view", even though Sections 323, 505, 506, 420 I.P.C. are also not attracted against the applicant, as such, considering the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the cases of Hitesh Verma (Supra), Ramesh Chandra Vaishya (Supra), Fakhruddin Ahmad (Supra) as well as law laid down by co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Ankit (Supra), this Court is of the view that the learned trial court has failed to appreciate the material available on record.

47. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in the case of Lalankumar Singh and Others vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383 has specifically held in paragraph No.38 that the order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. Paragraph No.38 of Lalankumar Singh and Others (supra) is being quoted hereunder:-

"38. The order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. The formation of such an opinion is required to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reasons are given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is a prima facie case against the accused. No doubt, that the order need not contain detailed reasons. A reference in this respect could be made to the judgment of this Court in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, which reads thus:

"51. On the other hand, Section 204 of the Code deals with the issue of process, if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding. This section relates to commencement of a criminal proceeding. If the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case (it may be the Magistrate receiving the complaint or to whom it has been transferred under Section 192), upon a consideration of the materials before him (i.e. the complaint, examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if present, or report of inquiry, if any), thinks that there is a prima facie case for proceeding in respect of an offence, he shall issue process against the accused.

52. A wide discretion has been given as to grant or refusal of process and it must be judicially exercised. A person ought not to be dragged into court merely because a complaint has been filed. If a prima facie case has been made out, the Magistrate ought to issue process and it cannot be refused merely because he thinks that it is unlikely to result in a conviction.

53. However, the words "sufficient ground for proceeding" appearing in Section 204 are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reason is given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is prima facie case against the accused, though the order need not contain detailed reasons. A fortiori, the order would be bad in law if the reason given turns out to be ex facie incorrect."

48. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India has provided guidelines in case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 for the exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which is extraordinary power and used separately in following conditions:-

"102.(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused."

(2) where the allegations in the First Information Report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code;

(3) where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or 'complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused;

(4) where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a

Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code;

(5) where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused;

(6) where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(7) where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

49. Further the Apex Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Haryana Vs. Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426, (iii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iv) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (v) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

50. From the aforesaid decisions, the Apex Court has settled the legal position for quashing of the proceedings at the initial stage. The test to be applied by the court is to whether uncontroverted allegation as made prima facie establishes the offence and the chances of ultimate conviction is bleak and no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing criminal proceedings to be continued.

51. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

52. In M/s Pepsi Food Ltd. and another Vs. Special Judicial Magistrate and others: 1998 (5) SCC 749, Hon'ble Apex Court has observed:

"Summoning of an accused in a criminal case, is a serous matter. Criminal law can not be set into motion as a matter of course. It is not that the complainant has to bring only two witnesses to support his allegations in the complaint to have the criminal law set into motion. The order of the Magistrate summoning the accused must reflect that he has applied his mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto. He has to examine the nature of allegations made in the complaint and the evidence both oral and documentary in support thereof and would that be sufficient for the complainant to succeed in bringing charge home to the accused. It is not that the Magistrate is a silent spectator at the time of recording of preliminary evidence before summoning the accused. Magistrate had to carefully scrutinize the evidence brought on record and may even himself put questions to the complainant and his witnesses to elicit answers to find out the truthfulness of the allegations or otherwise and then examine if any offence is prima facie committed by all or any of the accused."

53. In the instant case, there is nothing in the summoning order to show that the Magistrate concerned perused the material available on record before passing summoning order. Hence the summoning order is bad in the eyes of law and resultantly it is not sustainable.

54. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court and the facts and circumstances, as narrated above and also with the assistance of the aforesaid guidelines and keeping in view the nature and gravity and the severity of the offence which more particularly is a private dispute and differences, it deems proper and meet to the ends of justice that the proceeding of the aforementioned case are liable to be quashed.

55. Accordingly in view of the above discussions and observations made, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is allowed. The impugned summoning as well as cognizance order dated 29.05.2009 passed by learned Special Judge, C.B.I., Lucknow, whereby the applicant has been summoned in Criminal Case No.897 of 2008 (Gola Vs. Ambar Singh and Others), under Sections 323, 505, 506, 420 I.P.C. and Section 3(2)(v) of The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station Banthra, District Lucknow as well as the criminal proceedings of the aforesaid case are hereby quashed so far as it relates to the present applicant.

56. No order as to the costs.

57. Office is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the learned trial court concerned immediately for necessary compliance and information.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2034
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 2705 of 2019

Vivek Singh @ Monu & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Ishan Baghel, Mohd. Khalid

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section 304 IPC - Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973-Section 482-Allegation-some persons were demolishing a boundary wall of the Old Employment Office-a peepal tree consequently fell over a passerby -got injured and died-Applicants not named in the FIR-arrayed as accused upon the St.ment u/s 161 Cr.P.C. of the deceased's daughter-not eye witness-it is a case of accident not u/s 304 IPC-no intention –Police were present when the accused were demolishing the wall-not prevented them if there was any illegal activity-summoning order and cognizance order-impugned-not examined the nature of allegations in the FIR and evidences-impugned orders quashed

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Inder Mohan Goswami Vs St. of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1

2. Lalankumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of Mah. reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383

3. Pepsi Foods Ltd. Vs Judicial Magistrate reported in (1998) 5 SCC 749

4. Mehmood UL Rehman Vs Khazir Mohammad Tunda & ors. ,(2015) 12 SCC 420

5. Mahendra Singh Dhoni Vs Yerraguntla Shyamsundar reported in (2017) 7 SCC 760

6. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

7. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Pun., AIR 1960 S.C. 866

8. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192

9. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

10. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Mah., AIR 2021 SC 1918.

11. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Shri Ishan Baghel, learned Counsel for the applicants, Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1.

2. As per the office report dated 12.01.2022 notice upon opposite party No.2 has been served personally but till date neither any counter affidavit has been filed nor any counsel is present today to represent opposite party No.2, the case was taken up in the revised call for final arguments.

3. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the applicants, namely-Vivek Singh @ Monu and Mohd. Danish @ Mohd. Danish Azad seeking quashing of the impugned summoning and cognizance order dated 30.03.2016 and consequential orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018 passed by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow and charge sheet dated 13.07.2015 and the entire proceeding in Criminal Case No.16768 of 2016; State vs. Prabhat Agarwal & Others arising out of Case Crime No.224 of 2014 under Section 304 I.P.C. and Section 3 of Prevention of Damage of Public Property Act pending before learned trial court.

4. Learned Counsel for the applicants submitted that in the present case an FIR dated 02.12.2014 was lodged by Constable Govind Narain, P.S. Naka Hindola, Lucknow against Prabhat Agawal and 5-6 unknown persons under section 304 IPC and 3 of Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act and in the FIR it has been alleged that on 02.12.2014 at around 02:00 PM, the complainant alongwith another constable were present on the place of occurrence wherein one Prabhat Agarwal alongwith 5 to 6 other persons were demolishing a boundary wall of the Old Employment Office, Charbagh. It is also alleged in the FIR that a peepal tree was standing on the foundation of the said boundary wall, which consequently fell over a passerby namely Harinand Jaiswal S/o Late Satya Narain, who alongwith his wife was passing from the place of occurrence, got injured and was taken to Balrampur Hospital, where he died.

5. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the post-mortem of the deceased Harinand Jaiswal was done on 03.12.2014 at KGMU, Lucknow in which cause of death was shown due to ante-mortem head injury and apart from the deceased Harinand Jaiswal no other person including her wife who was going with him, has sustained any single injury due to the alleged incident as mentioned in the FIR.

6. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the applicants are not named in the FIR. However, in order to falsely implicate the applicants they were arrayed as an accused, upon the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. dated 23.01.2015 of the daughter of the deceased namely Renu Jaiswal but as per the FIR, only the wife of the deceased namely Rani Jaiswal was going alongwith her husband at the place of occurrence and therefore, she is said to be an eye-witness of the incident and the wife of the deceased in her statement under 161 Cr.P.C. dated 22.12.2014, did not mention names of the applicants as an accused. However, for the first time she mentioned the name of her daughter Renu Jaiswal stating that she was also going with them on the date of occurrence i.e. on 02.12.2014 only with the intention to give gravity to the offence and falsely implicate the applicants.

7. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that as per the FIR Renu Jaiswal is not the eye-witness to the aforesaid incident and the statement of Renu Jaiswal being taken after one month of the alleged incident and that too after the statement of her mother shows that names of the applicants have been dragged into the case with an afterthought and in order to falsely implicate the applicants.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the story set up by the police in the FIR cannot be believed inasmuch as it does not appeal to reason and when the police personnel saw some illegal activity i.e. demolition of the wall done by the accused, as is mentioned in the FIR, no preventive measures have been taken against them, and notwithstanding, the accused persons have committed the alleged incident mentioned in the FIR the police personnel remained there as spectators.

9. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicants were not named as an accused in the aforesaid FIR and for the very first time the applicants got the knowledge of their implication in the aforementioned crime as an accused, when the police personnel have approached their native place in pursuance of Non-Bailable Warrant and proceeding U/s 83 Cr.P.C. initiated by Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow.

10. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the applicants on the information of aforementioned case, inquired about the case through counsel and got to know that their names have been dragged in the case after one month of the registration of the FIR, moreover, the summons were also been issued on some wrong addresses. He further submitted that Non-bailable warrant and proceeding under section 83 Cr.P.C. have been initiated against the applicants, the applicants for the first time came to know about the present case when the police personnel visited their native place for their arrest.

11. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the named accused in the FIR namely Prabht Agarwal has already been granted bail by the Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 12.12.2018 passed in Criminal Misc. Case No. 7177 (B) of 2018 (Prabhat Agarwal versus State of U.P.).

12. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the bare perusal of FIR will show that the applicants have not committed any crime and no offence under section 304 IPC and Section 3 of Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act is made out against them nor any ingredients of the above sections are attracted in the case of the present applicants.

13. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the perusal of the FIR would show that the FIR was lodged against the Prabhat Agarwal and 5-6 unknown persons, however, neither the FIR was lodged under section 34 or 149 IPC nor the Investigating Officer has filed the chargesheet under section 34 or 149 IPC, which shows that applicants have been falsely implicated as an accused due to enmity and rivalry.

14. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that on inquiring the background of the alleged FIR the applicants have learnt from the sources that there was a Civil Suit going between one Raja Gopal Singh S/o Late Kunwar Jagdish Singh, who is owner and in possession of the land bearing Khasra No. 579 and 580, Mohalla Charbagh Station, Ganeshganj, Lucknow, of which a Regular Suit No. 1508 of 2014, Gopal Singh versus Vice Chairmand, Lucknow Development Authority & others is pending in the court of Civil Judge (S.D.), Malihabad, Lucknow and upon the land of Khasra No. 579, plot no. 64/C-1 which is ancestral property of Raja Gopal Singh, the illegal Auto and Tempo stand is made with collusion of police persons and strangers and illegal recovery is made from them and upon objection of co-accused Prabhat Agarwal, the police on duty warned for dire consequences to the co-accused Prabhat Agarwal and to send him behind the bars in forged cases. The co- accused Prabhat Agarwal made several applications through registered posts to the higher authority for lodging the FIR against the police and strangers but no action was taken on the said applications.

15. Leaned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that prior to the lodging of the FIR on dated 22.11.2014 the police of Police Station Naka Hindola, Lucknow stopped the work of cleaning of the plot in question, therefore, the co-accused Prabhat Agarwal made an application dated 22.11.2014 to the City Magistrate, Lucknow but no heed was paid on the said application by the concerned authorities.

16. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that if the statement of the deceased's daughter is taken to be true, it is hard to believe that she is a resident of Kushinagar and there cannot be any acquaintance with the applicants to name them as an accused of the alleged incident and as per the version of the FIR, the wife of the deceased was the eye witness and no one else was accompanying them at the time of alleged incident, thus, the story of the prosecution fails on this ground also.

17. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that in the aforesaid case chargesheet has been filed against the applicants and one Mr. Prabhat Agarwal, however, the applicants have no concern with the co-accused namely Prabhat Agarwal nor they knew him personally, the applicant No.1 was a Research Scholar of Lucknow University and pursuing Ph.D. from there, while, applicant No. 2 was a student. The charge sheet was filed against the applicants totally ignoring the evidence on record and the same was filed in a mechanical manner.

18. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submitted that the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has passed the cognizance and summoning order dated 30.03.2016 against the applicants without application of judicial mind and in a most mechanical and routine manner, thus, in light of the facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned order dated 30.03.2016, order dated 11.01.2018 & 11.07.2018 and charge sheet dated 13.07.2015 and the entire proceeding of the Criminal case No. 16768 of 2016, pending in the Court of Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow, is liable to be quashed and the present application may be allowed as prima facie no case is made out against the applicants.

19. Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 has opposed the argument advanced by learned Counsel for the applicants and submitted that the summoning order dated 30.03.2016 and consequential orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018 are rightly passed as prima facie offence is made out against the applicants and the trial court has rightly passed impugned summoning order as well as the consequential orders after considering the material placed on record, thus, the applicants are not entitled for any relief by this Court and the present application may be rejected.

20. After considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 and after perusal of the record, materials and arguments presented, this Court finds that the summoning order dated 30.03.2016 and consequential orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018, lacks necessary legal and factual foundation. There appears force in the argument of learned Counsel for the applicants that Rani Jaiwal, wife of the deceased, who was accompanying the deceased at the time of the alleged incident, has not taken the names of the applicants in her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. dated 22.12.2014. The applicants have reliably learnt that a Regular Suit No.1508 of 2014 (Gopal Singh vs. Vice Chairman, Lucknow Development Authority and others) is pending in the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Malihabad, Lucknow. The disputed land is upon Khasra No. 579, Plot No. 64/C-1 which is an ancestral property of Raja Gopal Singh and an illegal auto and tempo stand is made in collusion with the police is being run on that land and illegal recovery is made by the police along with other persons. The name of the applicants have been dragged in after one month of the incident in the statement of the daughter of the deceased, while the daughter of the deceased is not the eye-witness of the alleged incident nor she was accompanying the deceased and resides in a different town i.e. Kushinagar, Uttar Pradesh.

21. Further, the applicants contend that the incident in question, involving the demolition of a wall which led to a tree falling and subsequently causing the death of an individual, should be classified as an accident and not as culpable homicide amounting to murder.

22. Further, it is relevant to discuss Section 299 of the I.P.C. which defines the term 'culpable homicide' in the following manner:-

"Whoever causes death by doing an act with the intention of causing death, or with the intention of causing such bodily injury as is likely to cause death, or with the knowledge that he is likely by such act to cause death, commits the offence of culpable homicide.

Explanation 1.--

A person who causes bodily injury to another who is labouring under a disorder, disease or bodily infirmity, and thereby accelerates the death of that other, shall be deemed to have caused his death.

Explanation 2.--

Where death is caused by bodily injury, the person who causes such bodily injury shall be deemed to have caused the death, although by resorting to proper remedies and skilful treatment the death might have been prevented.

Explanation 3.--

The causing of the death of child in the mother's womb is not homicide. But it may amount to culpable homicide to cause the death of a living child, if any part of that child has been brought forth, though the child may not have breathed or been completely bom.

'Culpable homicide' according to section 299, I.P.C. has the following ingredients:

1. Causing of death of a human being;

2. Such death must have been caused by doing an act;

3. The act must have been done:

(i) with the intention of causing death;

(ii) with the intention of causing such bodily injury as is likely to cause death; or

(iii) with the knowledge that the doer is likely by such act to cause death."

23. It is further observed here that Section 304 IPC deals with culpable homicide not amounting to murder, which requires either the intention to cause death or knowledge that the act is likely to cause death. For a conviction under this section, it must be established that the accused had either of these mental states. Section 304 I.P.C. read as under:-

"Section 304 Indian Penal Code, 1860

Whoever commits culpable homicide not amounting to murder shall be punished with imprisonment for life, or imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine, if the act by which the death is caused is done with the intention of causing death, or of causing such bodily injury as is likely to cause death;

Or with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to ten years, or with fine, or with both, if the act is done with the knowledge that it is likely to cause death, but without any intention to cause death, or to cause such bodily injury as is likely to cause death."

24. Thus, upon reviewing the facts and circumstances of the present case, the following points are considered:-

(i) There is no evidence indicating that the applicants intended to cause death or had knowledge that their actions were likely to result in death. The demolition of a wall, does not inherently suggest an intention or knowledge of causing death.

Foreseeability: The falling of the tree was an unforeseen consequence of the demolition. There is no indication that the applicants could have reasonably anticipated this specific outcome. In fact, they were not present on the spot at the time of the alleged incident.

(ii) The sequence of events leading to the death appears to be accidental. The demolition work was conducted without any apparent negligence directly linked to the fatal outcome. Accidents, by their nature, are unforeseen and unintentional.

(iii) Given the absence of intention or knowledge to cause death, and considering the unforeseeable and accidental nature of the incident, it is determined that the incident qualifies as an accident. The criteria for culpable homicide under Section 304 IPC are not met.

25. After a thorough examination of the facts and circumstances presented in the petition, the following conclusions are drawn:

(i)Absence of Direct Involvement and Malafide Intent:

(a) The applicants were not named in the original FIR dated 02.12.2014, which was lodged by Constable Govind Narain against Prabhat Agarwal and 5-6 unknown individuals. The FIR does not implicate the applicants directly. Their names surfaced subsequently through a statement made by the deceased's daughter, Renu Jaiswal, on 23.01.2015, which was recorded nearly after a month of the incident. This delay and the circumstances surrounding her statement raise questions about the credibility and timing of their implication and it is also observed here that in the original version of the FIR it has been alleged that the deceased was only accompanied by his wife no one else was with him at the time of alleged incident, even though, she was not the eye witness of the alleged incident.

(b) The primary eyewitness, Rani Jaiswal (wife of the deceased), in her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. dated 22.12.2014, did not mention the name of the applicants as being involved in the incident. It was only later that her daughter Renu Jaiswal introduced new names, creating a contradiction. Such contradictions, coupled with the delayed recording of statements, suggest an afterthought rather than a genuine identification of the accused.

(c) For a charge under Section 304 IPC (culpable homicide not amounting to murder), there must be evidence that the accused had the intention or knowledge that their actions were likely to cause death. In this case, there is no evidence to indicate that the applicants had any such intent or knowledge. The demolition of the wall, which resulted in the falling of the peepal tree and the consequent death of Harinand Jaiswal who was passing the place of alleged incident with his wife, appears to be an unforeseen and unintended consequence.

(d) The incident is best characterized as an accident. The falling of the tree was not a foreseeable outcome of the demolition activity. There is no indication that the applicants could have reasonably anticipated this specific consequence. Accidents, by their nature, are unforeseen and unintentional, and the sequence of events leading to the death of Harinand Jaiswal aligns with this characterization.

(e) The applicants became aware of their implication in the case only after the issuance of non-bailable warrants and proceedings under Section 83 Cr.P.C. initiated by the Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow. The summons were issued to incorrect addresses, causing further procedural irregularities. The applicants' lack of prior knowledge and involvement in the incident, coupled with these anomalies, underscores the necessity of a detailed judicial review, both of them were students and were unaware about the alleged incdient.

(ii) Misapplication of Legal Provisions:

(a) The FIR and subsequent chargesheet do not invoke Section 34 (Acts done by several persons in furtherance of common intention) or Section 149 IPC (Every member of unlawful assembly guilty of offense committed in prosecution of common object), which would typically be relevant in cases involving multiple accused. This omission indicates that the prosecution's case lacks the necessary legal foundation to substantiate the aplicants' involvement under the claimed sections.

26. Thus, given these considerations, it is clear that the applicants have been wrongfully implicated. The evidence does not support their involvement in any crime under Section 304 IPC or Section 3 of the Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act. The circumstances point towards an accidental death rather than a culpable homicide, and the applicants' names appear to have been added without substantial evidence or just cause.

27. Further, learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has failed to make an enquiry on fact which is mandatory before issuing a summoning order. On this ground alone the proceedings as also the summoning order dated 30.03.2016 as well as the orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018 against the applicants appear to be against the settled prepositions of law.

28. Further, while passing the summoning order dated 30.03.2016; no reason has been assigned by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow. The said order does not even mention the content of the FIR and nature of allegation and thus, it reflects that learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has not applied its mind while summoning the applicants to face trial and he has failed to enquire even briefly the question as to whether any culpability be imputed to the applicants or other accused persons.

29. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case Inder Mohan Goswami v. State of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1 has been pleased to hold that it would be relevant to keep into mind the scope and ambit of section 482 Cr.PC and circumstances under which the extra ordinary power of the court inherent therein as provisioned in the said section of the Cr.P.C. can be exercised, para 23 is being quoted here under:-

"23. This court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of courts powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. Inherent power under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of court, and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice."

30. Further, the Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Lalankumar Singh and Others vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383 has specifically held in paragraph No.38 that the order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. Paragraph No.38 of Lalankumar Singh and Others (supra) is being quoted hereunder:-

"38. The order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. The formation of such an opinion is required to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reasons are given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is a prima facie case against the accused. No doubt, that the order need not contain detailed reasons. A reference in this respect could be made to the judgment of this Court in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, which reads thus:

"51. On the other hand, Section 204 of the Code deals with the issue of process, if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding. This section relates to commencement of a criminal proceeding. If the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case (it may be the Magistrate receiving the complaint or to whom it has been transferred under Section 192), upon a consideration of the materials before him (i.e. the complaint, examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if present, or report of inquiry, if any), thinks that there is a prima facie case for proceeding in respect of an offence, he shall issue process against the accused.

52. A wide discretion has been given as to grant or refusal of process and it must be judicially exercised. A person ought not to be dragged into court merely because a complaint has been filed. If a prima facie case has been made out, the Magistrate ought to issue process and it cannot be refused merely because he thinks that it is unlikely to result in a conviction.

53. However, the words "sufficient ground for proceeding" appearing in Section 204 are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reason is given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is prima facie case against the accused, though the order need not contain detailed reasons. A fortiori, the order would be bad in law if the reason given turns out to be ex facie incorrect.""

31. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Pepsi Foods Ltd. v. Judicial Magistrate reported in (1998) 5 SCC 749 has been pleased to observe in paragraph No.28, which is reproduced hereinunder:-

"28. Summoning of an accused in a criminal case is a serious matter. Criminal law cannot be set into motion as a matter of course. It is not that the complainant has to bring only two witnesses to support his allegations in the complaint to have the criminal law set into motion. The order of the Magistrate summoning the accused must reflect that he has applied his mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto. He has to examine the nature of allegations made in the complaint and the evidence both oral and documentary in support thereof and would that be sufficient for the complainant to succeed in bringing charge home to the accused. It is not that the Magistrate is a silent spectator at the time of recording of preliminary evidence before summoning of the accused. The Magistrate has to carefully scrutinise the evidence brought on record and may even himself put questions to the complainant and his witnesses to elicit answers to find out the truthfulness of the allegations or otherwise and then examine if any offence is prima facie committed by all or any of the accused."

32. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mehmood UL Rehman v. Khazir Mohammad Tunda and Others reported in (2015) 12 SCC 420 has been pleased to observe in paragraph No.20, which is reproduced hereinunder:-

"20. The extensive reference to the case law would clearly show that cognizance of an offence on complaint is taken for the purpose of issuing process to the accused. Since it is a process of taking judicial notice of certain facts which constitute an offence, there has to be application of mind as to whether the allegations in the complaint, when considered along with the statements recorded or the inquiry conducted thereon, would constitute violation of law so as to call a person to appear before the criminal court. It is not a mechanical process or matter of course. As held by this Court in Pepsi Foods Ltd. [Pepsi Foods Ltd. v. Judicial Magistrate, (1998) 5 SCC 749 : 1998 SCC (Cri) 1400] to set in motion the process of criminal law against a person is a serious matter."

33. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mahendra Singh Dhoni v. Yerraguntla Shyamsundar reported in (2017) 7 SCC 760 has been pleased to observe in paragraph No.13, which reads as under:-

13. Before parting with the case, we would like to sound a word of caution that the Magistrates who have been conferred with the power of taking cognizance and issuing summons are required to carefully scrutinize whether the allegations made in the complaint proceeding meet the basic ingredients of the offence; whether the concept of territorial jurisdiction is satisfied; and further whether the accused is really required to be summoned. This has to be treated as the primary judicial responsibility of the court issuing process.

34. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court has provided guidelines in case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 for the exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which is extraordinary power and used separately in following conditions:-

"102.(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused."

(2) where the allegations in the First Information Report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code;

(3) where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or 'complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused;

(4) where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code;

(5) where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused;

(6) where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(7) where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

35. Further the Hon'ble Supreme Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iii) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (iv) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

36. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

37. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in light of the observations and discussions made above and keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, and from the perusal of the record, the impugned summoning and cognizance order dated 30.03.2016 and consequential orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018 passed by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow and charge sheet dated 13.07.2015 and the entire proceeding in Criminal Case No.16768 of 2016; State vs. Prabhat Agarwal & Others, Case Crime No.224 of 2014 under Section 304 I.P.C. and Section 3 of Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act are liable to be quashed as the story set up by the police in the FIR cannot be believed inasmuch as it does not appeal to reason. When the police personnel saw some illegal activity i.e.

demolition of wall is done by the accused, no one prevented them, instead it appears that they remained there as spectators and a 20 years old peepal tree would not fall down if an adjacent wall is being demolished. Further, there was no intention on the part of the accused-applicants to cause any danger to anybody and even if it is believed that a tree falls down on the road and one passer by sustains injury(ies), it would be an accident and cannot be a case under Section 304 IPC. and also taking into account the role of the police, allegations in the FIR and the death of the deceased occurred because of falling of peepal tree on the deceased demonstrates that no knowledge can be attributed to the accused that the tree would fall on a particular direction where a passer-by would be passing through the road at that particular time. The police were present when the accused were demolishing the wall. It was incumbent upon them to prevent the accused if there was any illegal activity. From the perusal of the FIR, it appears that the police did not take any action to prevent demolition of the wall.

38. Further, in the present case learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has failed to apply his judicial mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto while summoning the applicants and issuing Non-bailable warrants, the Chief Judicial Magistrate has not examined the nature of allegations made in the FIR and the evidences both oral and documentary in support thereof.

39. Accordingly, the the impugned summoning and cognizance order dated 30.03.2016 and consequential orders dated 11.01.2018 and 11.07.2018 passed by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow and charge sheet dated 13.07.2015 and the entire proceeding in Criminal Case No.16768 of 2016; State vs. Prabhat Agarwal & Others arising out of Case Crime No.224 of 2014 under Section 304 I.P.C. and Section 3 of Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act pending in the court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow are hereby quashed.

40. For the reasons discussed above, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. filed by the applicants is allowed in respect of the instant applicant, namely-Vivek Singh @ Monu and Mohd. Danish @ Mohd. Danish Azad.

41. Office is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the trial court concerned for its necessary compliance.

42. No order as to cost(s).

(2024) 5 ILRA 2045
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 2828 of 2013

Waris Ali ...Applicants
Versus
The State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Neeraj Kumar, Ambrish Singh Yadav, Amit Jaiswal Ojus Law, Gaurav Saxena, Juhi Saxena, Lalla Chauhan, Rajni Saxena, Rishi Saxena, Sheena Saxena, Tanveer Ahmad Siddiqu

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Ratnesh Chandra

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Section 447-Applicant was one of the Director of a company-the said company sold a land to another company –Mr. Qazi Ajmal Hussain is a common link in both the company as he is one of the director in both the companies-after the land was sold to another company-Applicant and his company had no concern with the said land-impugned F.I.R. alleged that Qazi Ajmal Hussain was carrying out construction on the said land against the approved map by breaking the seal-Applicant also implicated for violation of sec. 447 I.P.C.-Applicant was not the owner of the said plot-no evidence to show that notice issued u/s 441 I.P.C. by the complainant had been served on the accused-unless mandatory notice served-the civil trespass could not get converted into a criminal trespass-could not be convicted u/s 447 I.P.C.-filing charge sheet against Applicant is a serious abuse of process of the Court.

Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sundar Babu Vs St. of T.N.-Criminal Appeal No. 773 of 2003

2. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal 1992 SCC(Cr.) 426

3. Lalankumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of Mah. reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 9 1383

4. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Pun., AIR 1960 S.C. 866

5. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192

6. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

7. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Mah., AIR 2021 SC 1918.

8. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

9. M/s Pepsi Food Ltd. & anr. Vs Special Judicial Magistrate & ors.: 1998 (5) SCC 749

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Sri Sudeep Seth, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Tanveer Ahmad Siddiqui and Sri Amit Jaiswal, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A.-I for the State Opposite Party No.1 and Sri Ratnesh Chandra, Advocate alongwith Ms. Mansi Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no.2 i.e. Lucknow Development Authority.

2. The instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed with a prayer to quash the Charge Sheet of the Case Crime No.8/2012, under Section 447 I.P.C., Police Station Mahanagar, District Lucknow pending before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-IV, Lucknow. Further, in the rejoinder affidavit, summoning order dated 15.05.2012 has also been challenged alongwith the entire proceedings in pursuance thereof. 3. On 04.01.2024, a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court has passed the following order:-

"1. Heard Sri Sudeep Seth, learned Senior Advocate, assisted by Sri Tanveer Ahmad Siddiqui and Sri Amit Jaiswal, learned counsel for petitioner and Sri Aniruddh Kumar Singh, learned AGA-I for the State as well as Sri Ratnesh Chandra, learned counsel for opposite party no.2.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has vehemently submitted that the investigation has not been conducted by the police properly inasmuch as the petitioner departed from Lucknow (India) to Jeddah (Saudi Arabia) on 19.04.2012 and returned from there on 16.05.2012 as copy of passport has been enclosed as Annexure No.9 to the petition, which indicates those facts. However, the statement of the petitioner is said to have been recorded by the police on 22.04.2012 indicating therein that the petitioner appeared before the police agency and recorded his statement at Lucknow. Sri Seth, learned Senior Advocate, has stated that this cannot be possible in any manner that a person concerned is at abroad from 19.04.2012 to 16.05.2012 but has recorded his statement on 22.04.2012. The specific recital to this effect has been given not only in the petition but also in the rejoinder affidavit, which was filed on 30.10.2023 to the counter affidavit of the LDA. In the rejoinder affidavit, typed copy of the case diary has been enclosed, which clearly shows that statement of the petitioner has been recorded at Lucknow on 22.04.2012.

3. On being confronted the learned AGA as to how statement of the petitioner could have been recorded at Lucknow on 22.04.2012 when he was out of India from 19.04.2012 to 16.05.2012, learned AGA prays for and is granted two weeks and no more time to file counter affidavit/ short counter affidavit replying the contents of the petition as well as of the rejoinder affidavit.

4. It is expected that copy of counter affidavit/ short counter affidavit shall be provided to the learned counsel for the petitioner on or before 20.01.2024. Thereafter, a week's time is given to learned counsel for the petitioner to file rejoinder affidavit.

5. List on 31.01.2024 within top ten cases.

6. It is made clear that this case shall not be adjourned on the next date.

7. Interim order, if any, shall continue till the next date of listing. "

4. Despite the aforesaid order, learned A.G.A.-I for the State has not filed counter affidavit till date, as such, this Court has no other option but to proceed further for final argument.

5. Learned Senior Counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant was one of the Director of the Company e-Construction Solutions Pvt. Limited situated at e-Chamber, near ISRO Space Center, Kursi Road, Lucknow which was duly registered under the Companies Act, 1956. The said company consisted of three Directors including the applicant and the other two directors of the company, namely, Mr Qazi Azmal Husain S/o Qazi Akhtar Husain and Mr Altaf Husain S/o Mr Ashfaq Husain.

6. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that the said company i.e. e-Construction Solutions Pvt. Ltd. purchased a piece of land measuring about 7074 sq. feet from one Mr. Shyam Kapoor S/o Mr. N.N. Kapoor by paying a consideration of Rs.56,00,000/ - (Rs Fifty Six Lakhs only) through Registered Sale Deed executed on 23.09.2005. Thereafter, on 12-03-2010, the said company, under the signature of all three Directors, sold the said piece of Land for Rs 86,98,000/- (Rs Eighty Six Lakhs Ninety Eight Thousand only) to another company i.e. M/s Mega Infra Developers India Pvt. Ltd, which was also duly registered under the Companies Act, 1956 and consisted of only two Directors, namely, Mr. Qazi Ajmal Husain S/o Qazi Akhtar and Mr. Rajendra Kumar Verma S/o Ramuggar Verma. However, there is no relation between the two companies but only the common link i.e. Mr. Qazi Ajmal Husain, who is one of the Director in both the companies.

7. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that after the said piece of Land was sold to M/s Mega Infra Developers India Pvt. Ltd, the e-Construction Solutions Pvt. Ltd had no concern with the said piece of Land, however, upon the statement dated 15.01.2012 given by Mr. Rakesh Kumar Singh, Assistant Engineer, Zone 11, LDA, who is also impleaded as Opposite Party No. 2, the said case crime was registered with allegations that Qazi Ajmal Hussain, Director e-Constructions, was carrying out construction on C-822 Mahanagar, Lucknow against the approved map, therefore, it was sealed on 30.09.2011 and when it was checked again on 09.01.2012, it was found that the construction continued after breaking the seal.

8. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that investigation was carried out by the concerned Investigating Officer and after concluding the investigation, he filed the charge sheet on 22.04.2012.

9. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that to the utter surprise of the applicant, the concerned Investigating Officer in the said charge sheet shown to have recorded the statement of the applicant on 22.04.2012 at Police Station Mahanagar, District Lucknow whereas on the contrary, the applicant was not even in the country when the said statement of the applicant had been shown to have been recorded as the applicant left the country for Jeddah (Saudi Arabia) on 19.04.2012 and came back on 16.05.2012 to India which is evident from the records of the Passport of the applicant, the same is also apparent from copy of applicant's passport with visa stamp, which is annexed as annexue no.9 to the affidavit filed alongwith the application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. Thus, learned Senior Counsel submitted that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the said case crime number and the entire investigation shown to have been done by the concerning Investigating Officer seems to be manufactured and sham and is not tenable in the eyes of law. The statement dated 22.04.2012 is being reproduced hereunder:-

"बयान अभियुक्त वारित अली पुत्र स्व० आकि अली नि० बी-77 निराला नगर थाना हसनगंज लखनऊ ने बदरियाफ्त पूछने पर बताया कि भूखण्ड तंख्या ती-822 ते० जी० महानगर को मैने व मेरे दो पार्टन काजी अजमत हुसैन व अल्ताफ हुसैन द्वारा ख्य किया गया है। उक्त भूखण्ड पर हम तीनो लोगों द्वारा फ्लैट का निर्माण किया गया है। हम लोगों द्वारा एल०डी०२० से नक्शा पात कराया गया है। किन्तु थौडा बहुत कभी नक्श के विपरीत हो गया है जिसके सम्बन्ध में हम लोगों की बात एल०डी०ए० से तमन पुल्कि जमा करने की चल रही है। शीघ्र ही तय पुल्क जमा करा दिया जायेगा। यही मेरा बयान है।"

10. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that the applicant is an innocent person, who has been falsely implicated in the said case crime number, having no relation with the owner of the said plot i.e. M/s Mega Infra Developers Pvt. Ltd. The company, M/s Mega Infra Developer Pvt. Ltd has neither been implicated as accused nor included in the charge sheet.

11. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that the Hon'ble High Court appreciated the aforesaid fact and granted absolute stay on the proceeding of the said case crime number vide its order dated 14.06.2013, which is being reproduced hereunder:-

"Sri Nadeem Murtaza accepts notice on behalf of respondent no.2 who prays for and is granted six weeks time to file counter-affidavit.

List thereafter.

Meanwhile, further proceedings of Case No. 792 of 2012, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-IV, Lucknow, shall remain stayed. "

12. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that Investigating Officer had also recorded statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. of Mr. V.C. Zaria, who is another engineer, Zone 11, LDA which is corroborating the above mentioned statement of Mr. Rakesh Kumar Singh. As per statement of Mr. Rakesh Kumar Singh, following brief facts arises:-

i) He found that Qazi Ajmal Husain S/o Qazi Akhtar Husain, Director M/s e-Constructions Solution Pvt. Ltd., situated at e-chambers near ISRO Space Center, Kursi Road, Lucknow was illegally constructing building on plot of land no. C-822, Sector -C, Mahanagar, Lucknow measuring about 7074 sq. feet against the approved plan of L.D.A.

ii) Thus, the Police stopped the construction work, which was being illegally done according to prosecution by Qazi Ajmal Husain and on 30.9.2011 sealed the same.

iii) According to prosecution, Qazi Ajmal Husain was again found on 09.01.2012, resuming the construction work against the law by breaking the seal and defying the orders.

iv) Thus, statement was recorded U/s- 161 Cr.P.C. by the Investigating Officer of Police Station Mahanagar, District Lucknow on account of complaint of the Informant, Mr. Rakesh Singh against Qazi Ajmal Husain at Mahanagar Police Station, District- Lucknow.

13. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that accused Qazi Ajmal Husain S/o Qazi Akhtar Husain, Director M/s e-Constructions Solution Pvt. Ltd. appeared before the Police Station Mahanagar, District Lucknow and Investigating officer has recorded his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. As per his statement, following facts arises:-

i) He alongwith his two other partners of the M/s e-Constructions Solution Pvt. Ltd i.e. (1) Waris Ali S/o Late Ashiq Ali and (2) Altaf Husain S/o Mr. Ashfaq Husain bought the plot of land no. C-822, Sector -C, Mahanagar, Lucknow measuring about 7074 sq. feet jointly.

ii) All the three directors of the company jointly decided to construct flats on the plot of land and thus they submitted an application to L.D.A. for the approval of the plan and map of the construction.

iii) Some construction was slightly in contravention to the approved plan and thus they were trying to resolve the matter by bringing the matter in front of L.D.A and submission of the compounding fees.

iv) The accused assured of submitting the compounding fees as soon as possible.

14. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that according to the Investigating Officer (R. R. Kushwaha), Mr. Waris Ali S/o Late Ashiq Ali (applicant) R/o B-77, Nirala Nagar, District-Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh during investigation on 22.04.2012 stated :-

i) He along with his two other Partners of the M/s e-Constructions Solution Pvt. Ltd i.e. (1) Waris Ali S/o Late Ashiq Ali and (2) Altaf Husain S/o Mr. Ashfaq Husain bought the plot of land no. C-822, Sector-C, Mahanagar, Lucknow measuring about 7074 sq. feet jointly.

ii) All the three directors of the company jointly decided to construct flats on the plot of land and thus they submitted an application to L.D.A. for the approval of the plan and map of the construction.

iii) Some construction was slightly in contravention to the approved plan and thus they were trying to resolve the matter by bringing the matter in front of L.D.A and submission of the compounding fees.

iv) Negotiation to reduce the compounding fees was going on, and after deciding the exact amount, the fee will be submitted to L.D.A.

15. Thus, learned Senior Counsel submitted that the above noted facts clearly depicts that the applicant is not the owner of the plot of land no. C-822, Sector -C, Mahanagar, Lucknow measuring about 7074 sq. feet and also is not a party to any plan of construction of flat on the above mentioned plot of land with Qazi Ajmal Husain, as such, the facts and statements recorded by the Investigating Officer of Mahanagar Police Station District - Lucknow are false on the pretext of the absence of the applicant i.e. Waris Ali S/o Late Ashiq Ali.

16. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that it is pertinent to mention here that the prime accused Qazi Ajmal Husain concealed the facts of selling the above plot of land on 12.03.2010 to M/s Mega Infra Developers India pvt. Ltd. through its director Rajendra Kumar Verma and falsely implicated the applicant as the owner of the land by way of the earlier sale deed dated 23.09.2005.

17. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that in the case of Sundar Babu versus State of Tamil Nadu; Criminal Appeal No. 773 of 2003, Hon'ble the Supreme Court laid down the conditions/circumstances for quashing of F.I.R. relying on the case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal 1992 SCC(Cr.) 426. The grounds were as follow:-

a) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

b) Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the FIR do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Sec.156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Sec. 155(2) of the Code.

c) Where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused.

d) Where, the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Sec. 155 (2) of the Code.

e) Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused.

f) Where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party.

g) Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

18. Learned Senior Counsel further submitted that this is a fit case for quashing the charge sheet because due to legal defect, in filing of charge sheet against applicant, same is not maintainable and is liable to be quashed in exercise of inherent powers of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to check and prevent abuse of process of the Court alongwith entire proceedings of the case.

19. On the other hand, learned A.G.A.-I for the State Opposite Party No.1 as well as learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 have vehemently opposed the submissions advanced by learned counsel for the applicant and have submitted that the applicant has nowhere pointed out any abuse of process of Court by virtue of which he could knock the door of this Hon'ble Court. A clear case of violation of Section 447 I.P.C. is made out against the applicant for which the trial is to be conducted before the learned trial court and the applicant would be having all the opportunities to contest the case before it. The applicant was raising unauthorized construction due to which the property in question was sealed in the year 2011 and the applicant after breaking the seal in an illegal and unauthorized manner, started the construction, therefore, the F.I.R. under appropriate Section was lodged against him. Thus, a criminal case is made out against the applicant for violation of Section 447 I.P.C., hence, the charge sheet has rightly been filed against him. The applicant is trying to raise factual dispute in the present case and, as such, the present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is liable to be dismissed.

20. After considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case as well as after considering the arguments as advanced by learned counsel for the parties, this Court finds it appropriate to discuss some judgments which have been pronounced by Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India.

21. Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in the case of Lalankumar Singh and Others vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383 has specifically held in paragraph No.38 that the order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. Paragraph No.38 of Lalankumar Singh and Others (supra) is being quoted hereunder:-

"38. The order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. The formation of such an opinion is required to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reasons are given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is a prima facie case against the accused. No doubt, that the order need not contain detailed reasons. A reference in this respect could be made to the judgment of this Court in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, which reads thus:

"51. On the other hand, Section 204 of the Code deals with the issue of process, if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding. This section relates to commencement of a criminal proceeding. If the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case (it may be the Magistrate receiving the complaint or to whom it has been transferred under Section 192), upon a consideration of the materials before him (i.e. the complaint, examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if present, or report of inquiry, if any), thinks that there is a prima facie case for proceeding in respect of an offence, he shall issue process against the accused.

52. A wide discretion has been given as to grant or refusal of process and it must be judicially exercised. A person ought not to be dragged into court merely because a complaint has been filed. If a prima facie case has been made out, the Magistrate ought to issue process and it cannot be refused merely because he thinks that it is unlikely to result in a conviction.

53. However, the words "sufficient ground for proceeding" appearing in Section 204 are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reason is given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is prima facie case against the accused, though the order need not contain detailed reasons. A fortiori, the order would be bad in law if the reason given turns out to be ex facie incorrect."

22. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India has also provided guidelines in case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 for the exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which is extraordinary power and used separately in specific conditions, which have already been discussed above in the contention of learned counsel for the applicant.

23. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iii) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (iv) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

24. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

25. In M/s Pepsi Food Ltd. and another Vs. Special Judicial Magistrate and others: 1998 (5) SCC 749, Hon'ble Apex Court has observed:

"Summoning of an accused in a criminal case, is a serous matter. Criminal law can not be set into motion as a matter of course. It is not that the complainant has to bring only two witnesses to support his allegations in the complaint to have the criminal law set into motion. The order of the Magistrate summoning the accused must reflect that he has applied his mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto. He has to examine the nature of allegations made in the complaint and the evidence both oral and documentary in support thereof and would that be sufficient for the complainant to succeed in bringing charge home to the accused. It is not that the Magistrate is a silent spectator at the time of recording of preliminary evidence before summoning the accused. Magistrate had to carefully scrutinize the evidence brought on record and may even himself put questions to the complainant and his witnesses to elicit answers to find out the truthfulness of the allegations or otherwise and then examine if any offence is prima facie committed by all or any of the accused."

26. Further, Section 441 I.P.C. provides for a civil trespass getting converted into criminal trespass on the service of the notice on the trespasser to vacate the property. There is no evidence to show that the notice issued under Section 441 I.P.C. by the complainant had been served on the accused. unless the notice had been served, the civil trespass could not get converted into a criminal trespass. The accused could not be convicted under Section 447 I.P.C.

27. In the above facts and circumstances, the applicant cannot be termed as trespasser nor he can be tried under the provision of Section 447 I.P.C., because no offence under that section is made out against the applicant. Since notice under amended Section 441 I.P.C. is mandatory requirement but the same has not been completed, because no notice under Section 441 I.P.C. is ever sent to applicant. Due to non compliance of this mandatory provision, offence of "criminal trespass" which has been defined in Section 441 I.P.C. has not been made out, therefore, charge sheet filed against applicant under Section 447 I.P.C. is legally not sustainable.

28. For proper appreciation of the rival arguments raised on behalf of parties, amended Section 441 and 447 I.P.C. are of vital importance and the same are reproduced hereinbelow :-

"441. Criminal trespass.- Whoever enters into or upon property in possession of another with intent to commit an offence or to intimidate, insult or annoy any person in possession of such property or, having lawfully entered into or upon such property, unlawfully remains there with intent thereby to intimidate, insult or annoy any such person, or with intent to commit an offence.

Or, having entered into or upon such property, whether before or after the coming into force of the Criminal Law (I.P. Amendment) Act, 1961, with the intention of taking unauthorised possession or making unauthorised use of such property fails to withdraw from such property, or its possession or use when called upon to do so by that another person by notice in writing, duly served upon him, by the date specified in the notice, is said to commit "criminal trespass" - Uttar Pradesh Act No. 31 of 1961."

(emphasis by the Court)

"Punishment for criminal trespass.

447. Whoever commits criminal trespass shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both."

29. It is quite clear from the perusal of above amended Section 441 I.P.C. that any person entered into possession of any property of another person before or after coming into force of the criminal law (U.P. Amendment Act, 1961), with the intention to take unauthorised possession or making unauthorised use of such property and fails to withdraw from such property or its possession or use in compliance of the written notice of another person duly served upon him by the date specified in the notice as said to committed "criminal trespass".

30. Admittedly, in this case no written notice as specified in the amended Section 441 I.P.C. to withdraw from such property or its possession or use of the land alleged to be of sealed by the Lucknow Development Authority i.e. opposite party no. 2 has been served on the applicant, therefore, there is no occasion for the applicant to comply with such notice and vice-versa failing to comply with the notice. As such no offence of "Criminal trespass" can be said to be committed. Overlooking these facts, charge sheet has been filed under Section 447 I.P.C. against the applicant, which is bad in the eyes of law. The accused cannot be punished for the offence which has actually not been committed by him.

31. In the above facts and circumstances, this Court is of the view that filing of charge sheet under Section 447 I.P.C. against the applicant is a serious abuse of process of the Court which must be prevented. Because on the basis of such legally defective charge sheet there is no possibility to end the case in conviction of the applicant and whole exercise before the learned Trial Court will be mere wastage of time and resources in such futile exercise.

32. Even in the instant case, there is nothing in the summoning order to show that the Magistrate concerned perused the material available on record before passing summoning order. Hence the summoning order is bad in the eyes of law and resultantly it is not sustainable as the learned Magistrate failed to look into the oral as well as documentary evidence before the impugned order was passed.

33. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court and the facts and circumstances, as narrated above and also with the assistance of the aforesaid guidelines and keeping in view the nature and gravity and the severity of the offence, it deems proper and meet to the ends of justice that the proceeding of the aforementioned case is liable to be quashed.

34. Accordingly, the present 482 Cr.P.C. application stands allowed. Keeping in view the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the above referred judgment and in view of the submission made by learned counsel for the parties, the Charge Sheet of the Case Crime No.8/2012, under Section 447 I.P.C., Police Station Mahanagar, District Lucknow pending before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-IV, Lucknow as well as summoning order dated 15.05.2012 alongwith entire proceedings of the case are hereby quashed so far as it relates to the instant applicant, namely, Waris Ali.

35. No order as to the costs.

36. Office is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the learned trial court concerned immediately for necessary compliance and information.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2055
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 3261 of 2017

Azim Premji ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Karunanidhi Yadav

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
Govt. Advocate

Complaint proceedings- Applicant is chairman and managing director of Wipro Ltd. – has no interest in any shareholdings or managerial control over the M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Pvt. Ltd. –no administrative control over G4S –its an agency to provide security services-task of security services is outsourced to G4S –G4S is accused no.2-allegation-during inspection by Labour Enforcement Officer certain alleged violation of law were discovered-notices were allegedly issued to Wipro company and G4S-no notice was received ever by the establishment of the company and the Applicant-imperative for the learned CJM to examine the complaint to ensure that the Directors or other senior officers of the company who have been named in the complaint are vicariously liable for the act complained of- impugned order and complaint proceedings are mechanical-quashed.

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Sunil Bharti Mittal Vs CBI, (2015) 4 SCC 609

2. Shiv Kumar Jatia Vs St. of NCT of Delhi : (2019) 17 SCC 193

3. Inder Mohan Goswami Vs St. of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1

4. Lalankumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of Mah. reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383

5. Pepsi Foods Ltd. Vs Judicial Magistrate reported in (1998) 5 SCC 749

6. Mehmood UL Rehman Vs Khazir Mohammad Tunda & ors. reported in (2015) 12 SCC 420

7. Mahendra Singh Dhoni Vs Yerraguntla Shyamsundar reported in (2017) 7 SCC 760

8. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

9. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Pun., AIR 1960 S.C. 866,

10. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192

11. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

12. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Mah., AIR 2021 SC 1918.

13. In S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Shri Karunanidhi Yadav, learned Counsel for the applicant, Shri Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1.

2. As per office report dated 20.03.2024, wherein it has been stated that the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has sent a report dated 08.06.2017 stating therein that notice upon opposite party No.2 was served but in spite of service of notice, no counsel has put in appearance on behalf of the opposite party No.2 and the case was taken up for final hearing in the revised call.

3. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the applicant, namely-Azim Premji seeking quashing of the complaint proceedings pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow in Compliant Case No.2886 of 2016; State of Uttar Pradesh vs. Azim Premji & Another, and the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the order dated 08.02.2017 vide which bailable warrant has been issued against the applicant.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that the applicant is the Chairman and Managing Director of Wipro Ltd. (Company) and has no interest in any shareholdings or managerial control over the M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Private Limited. Further, the applicant being in the Board of Directors of Wipro has nothing to do with the day-to-day operations of the Wipro office at Lucknow. The applicant has no administrative control over G4S which is an agency which provides security services.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that vide agreement dated 18.03.2015, the company entered into an agreement with M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Pvt. Ltd., the service provider, to provide security services to the company. In the said agreement, it has categorically been provided under clause 2 that the service provider i.e., M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Pvt. Ltd. agrees to render all services there under as a service provider and any other person employed or engaged by the service provider to perform the services will act and will be considered for all purposes as an independent contractor to Wipro and not as an employee and agent of Wipro.

6. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that the facts in brief are that the present applicant is the Chairman and Managing Director of Wipro Limited (Company), a globally renowned Company in Information and Technology and Information Technology enabled Services domain. Wipro Group of Companies (Wipro Group) has varied other legal entities and has also diversified into various other endeavors such as Consumer Products, Lighting, Infrastructure Engineering and other related services.

7. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that Wipro Group is known as a Model employer with multiple employee oriented policies. Wipro Group employs highly ethical practices and conducts its business strictly on ethical and lawful principles.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that for providing security services at its various facilities across India, the Company engages the services of varied third party security agencies. One of such security agencies engaged by the Company known as G4S Secure Solutions India Private Limited (hereinafter referred as 'G4S') is accused no.2 in the current Complaint. The task of security services is outsourced to G4S, which is an entirely separate legal entity. It is merely an act of availing services from a specialized agency, and there is no commonality of Freight on Road management between the Company and G4S. The present applicant has no concern with, and does not have any interest in, or control over G4S, which is a separate and distinct legal entity.

9. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that from the perusal of the Complaint dated 26.08.2016 made by opposite party No.2, it appears that during an inspection of G4S by Labour Enforcement officer i.e. opposite party No.2, on 02.06.2016, certain alleged violations of law were discovered and notices were allegedly issued to the Wipro Company and G4S. It is the specific case of the applicant that at no point of time, was any notice was ever received by any establishment of the Company, and least of all, by the applicant herein. The applicant is a permanent resident of Bengaluru, Karnataka State, and hardly ever visits Lucknow even in his official capacity. Being the Chairman and Managing Director of the Company, the applicant is not involved at all in day to day functions of the office of the Wipro Company situated at Lucknow. No direct executive function is exercised by the applicant for the office of the Wipro Company at Lucknow.

He further submitted that as stated above, no notice of any alleged violation was received by any office of the Wipro Company. The Wipro Company became aware of the complaint only when a constable of U.P. Police visited the Company's Lucknow office on 17.04.2017 and stated that he was carrying a bailable warrant of arrest of Mr. Azim Premji i.e. the applicant. It was this visit that prompted the functionaries of the Wipro Company to make immediate inquires from the court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow and also from the Labour Enforcement Officer and it was discovered that the alleged violation does not in any manner relate to the Wipro Company or the present applicant.

10. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that no offence(s) as alleged in the complaint are made out against either the Wipro Company or against the applicant. It is also the case of the applicant that the actual employers in question i.e. G4S are not under the supervision and management of the applicant, and he has no control whatsoever, over their affairs and activities. It is also submitted that G4S, being the actual employers in question, there is no justification for issuing summons and bailable warrant against the applicant.

11. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that no vicarious liability for the alleged violations in question vests upon the applicant. The cryptic prosecution story is false, fabricated, baseless and unfounded.

12. Learned counsel for the applicant further submitted that the allegations leveled against the applicant does not inspire confidence and the impugned complaint has been lodged with an oblique motive for collateral purposes to harass and pressurize the applicant and further, learned court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow also failed to apply its judicial mind while summoning the applicant, as there was no sufficient material to summon and issue bailable warrant against the applicant for the alleged offences.

13. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that impugned summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and order dated 08.02.2017 issuing bailable warrant against the applicant are not sustainable in the eyes of law, as the same have been passed in mechanical manner without applying the judicial mind, because on the face of record itself it is apparent that impugned summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and order dated 08.02.2017 issuing bailable warrant against the applicant have been passed by the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned without assigning any reason, therefore the same are liable to be quashed by this Court alongwith the proceedings of the aforesaid complaint case.

14. Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 has opposed the argument advanced by learned Counsel for the applicant and submitted that the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and bailable warrant dated 08.02.2017 are rightly passed as prima facie offence is made out against the applicant and the trial court has rightly passed impugned summoning order as well as the bailable warrant after considering the material placed on record, thus, the applicant is not entitled for any relief by this Court and the present application may be rejected.

15. After considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 and after perusal of the record, materials and arguments presented, this Court finds that the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the subsequent bailable warrant issued on 08.02.2017 against the applicant, lacks necessary legal and factual foundation. There appears force in the argument of learned Counsel for the applicant that the applicant has no administrative control over the functioning of G4S, he could not have been summoned for the alleged violation of the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") under which the complaint has been preferred by opposite party No.2. Moreover, the applicant was never been notified of the said proceedings nor any notice was ever served at any office of Wipro Company and since the said outsourcing of services for providing security at Wipro Office at Lucknow has been given to G4S, the applicant cannot be made accused in case of any alleged violation of the provisions of the Act in so far as security personnel are concerned.

16. Further, learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has failed to ensure the compliance of Section 202 Cr.P.C., where it has been provided that if an accused resides outside the jurisdiction of the court concerned, an enquiry on fact is mandatory before issuing a summoning order. On this ground alone the proceedings as also the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 as well as the order dated 08.02.2017 issuing bailable warrant against the applicant appear to be against the settled prepositions of law.

17. Further, while passing the summoning order dated 03.09.2016; and for that matter even registering of the complaint case, no reason has been assigned by learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow. All what the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 states that the challan has been received on 03.09.2016 and the case be registered and the accused be summoned fixing 24.09.2016 as the next date for appearance of the accused. The said order does not even mention the content of challan and thus, it reflects that learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has not applied its mind while summoning the applicant to face trial and he has failed to enquire even briefly the question as to whether any culpability be imputed to the applicant or other accused persons.

18. It is further observed here that in the said agreement dated 18.03.2015 under Clause 2 and 4, it has been specifically provided that the service provider is responsible for paying all wages, salaries, provident funds, E.S.I.C. or any other statutory benefits under the applicable law and ordinary and necessary expenses of its agents or employees including, but not limited to, all applicable taxes and employee State Insurance. The relevant extracts of Clause 2 and Clause 4(h) are being reproduced hereinbelow:-

"2. Personnel :

Service Provider agrees that in rendering all services hereunder, Service Provider and any person employed or engaged by Service Provider to perform the Services will act and be considered for all purposes as an independent contractor to Wipro, not as an employee or agent of Wipro. In its capacity as an independent contractor, Service Provider agrees and represents the Service Provider:

(i) Has the right to control and direct the means and methods of performing the Services by itself and its agents or employees, subject to the general direction of Wipro;

(ii) Service Provider agrees not to represent itself as Wipro's agent for any purpose to any party unless specifically unauthorized to do so, in advance and in writing, and then for the limited purpose(s) stated in such authorization.

(iii) Service Provider shall provide with a replacement personnel within 30 days of Wipro raising request for such replacement.

4 Representations & Warranties

Service Provider warrants and represents to Wipro that;

h) Service Provider is responsible for paying all wages, salaries, P.F., E.S.I.C. or any other statutory benefits under the applicable law and ordinary and necessary expenses of its agents or employees including, but not limited to, all applicable taxes and employee State Insurance;"

19. Further, the complaint dated 26.08.2016 which has been instituted before learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow is in a cyclostyled printed format which is bereft of any details and merely states that the applicant alongwith other accused i.e. Shri Sanjeev Pandey of M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Pvt. Ltd. has violated the provision of Section 8 of the Act together with Rule 6 of the Rules framed thereunder and that they were found guilty and consequently they may be prosecuted.

20. Further, on bare reading of complaint dated 26.08.2016, it is apparent that there was no objective material before learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow to formulate an opinion for issuance of summoning order or even to register the complaint. It is thus, apparent that the registration of the complaint, the issuance of summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the consequential issuance of bailable warrant vide order dated 08.02.2017 had been done in a mechanical manner sans application of mind whereas it has repeatedly been held that prior to the issuance of a summoning order it is imperative for learned Chief Judicial Magistrate to examine the complaint to ensure that the Directors or other senior officers of the company who have been named in the complaint are vicariously liable for the act complained of. It was also imperative for learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow to ensure that there was sufficient incrementing evidence against the applicant coupled with criminal intent or the statutory regime attracts the doctrine of vicarious liability. In the instant case, learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow did not ascribe any incriminating role against the applicant nor was any statutory regime or vicarious liability invoked. As per the settled law, learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow could not have issued process to the applicant under Section 204 Cr.P.C. and as such the entire complaint proceedings initiated against the applicant as well as summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the order dated 08.02.2017 issuing bailable warrant against the applicant are without jurisdiction.

21. Further, the question which arises for consideration before this Court in the present case is that whether the applicant was liable for any offence even if the allegations in the complaint are taken on their face value to be correct in entirety. The Company is a body incorporated under the Companies Act. Vicarious criminal liability of its Directors and Shareholders would arise provided any provision exists in that behalf in the statute. The Statute must contain provision fixing such a vicarious liability. Even for the said purpose, it would be obligatory on the part of the complainant and the investigating agency to make requisite allegations and collect evidence in support thereof which would attract provisions constituting vicarious liability.

22. Futher, the Hon'ble Supreme Court also in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. CBI, (2015) 4 SCC 609 while dealing with the issue of vicarious liability of the Officers, Directors, Managing Directors, Chairman of the Company was pleased to observe in paras- 42 to 44 and 48 to 50 of the aforesaid judgment, which read as under:-

"42. No doubt, a corporate entity is an artificial person which acts through its officers, Directors, Managing Director, Chairman, etc. If such a company commits an offence involving mens rea, it would normally be the intent and action of that individual who would act on behalf of the company. It would be more so, when the criminal act is that of conspiracy. However, at the same time, it is the cardinal principle of criminal jurisprudence that there is no vicarious liability unless the statute specifically provides so.

43. Thus, an individual who has perpetrated the commission of an offence on behalf of a company can be made an accused, along with the company, if there is sufficient evidence of his active role coupled with criminal intent. Second situation in which he can be implicated is in those cases where the statutory regime itself attracts the doctrine of vicarious liability, by specifically incorporating such a provision.

44. When the company is the offender, vicarious liability of the Directors cannot be imputed automatically, in the absence of any statutory provision to this effect. One such example is Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. In Aneeta Hada [Aneeta Hada v. Godfather Travels & Tours (P) Ltd., (2012) 5 SCC 661 : (2012) 3 SCC (Civ) 350 : (2012) 3 SCC (Cri) 241] , the Court noted that if a group of persons that guide the business of the company have the criminal intent, that would be imputed to the body corporate and it is in this backdrop, Section 141 of the Negotiable Instruments Act has to be understood. Such a position is, therefore, because of statutory intendment making it a deeming fiction. Here also, the principle of "alter ego", was applied only in one direction, namely, where a group of persons that guide the business had criminal intent, that is to be imputed to the body corporate and not the vice versa.

Otherwise, there has to be a specific act attributed to the Director or any other person allegedly in control and management of the company, to the effect that such a person was responsible for the acts committed by or on behalf of the company."

48. Sine qua non for taking cognizance of the offence is the application of mind by the Magistrate and his satisfaction that the allegations, if proved, would constitute an offence. It is, therefore, imperative that on a complaint or on a police report, the Magistrate is bound to consider the question as to whether the same discloses commission of an offence and is required to form such an opinion in this respect. When he does so and decides to issue process, he shall be said to have taken cognizance. At the stage of taking cognizance, the only consideration before the court remains to consider judiciously whether the material on which the prosecution proposes to prosecute the accused brings out a prima facie case or not.

49. Cognizance of an offence and prosecution of an offender are two different things. Section 190 of the Code empowered taking cognizance of an offence and not to deal with offenders. Therefore, cognizance can be taken even if offender is not known or named when the complaint is filed or FIR registered. Their names may transpire during investigation or afterwards.

50. Person who has not joined as accused in the charge-sheet can be summoned at the stage of taking cognizance under Section 190 of the Code. There is no question of applicability of Section 319 of the Code at this stage (see SWIL Ltd. v. State of Delhi [(2001) 6 SCC 670 : 2001 SCC (Cri) 1205]). It is also trite that even if a person is not named as an accused by the police in the final report submitted, the court would be justified in taking cognizance of the offence and to summon the accused if it feels that the evidence and material collected during investigation justifies prosecution of the accused (see Union of India v. Prakash P. Hinduja [(2003) 6 SCC 195 : 2003 SCC (Cri) 1314]). Thus, the Magistrate is empowered to issue process against some other person, who has not been charge-sheeted, but there has to be sufficient material in the police report showing his involvement. In that case, the Magistrate is empowered to ignore the conclusion arrived at by the investigating officer and apply his mind independently on the facts emerging from the investigation and take cognizance of the case. At the same time, it is not permissible at this stage to consider any material other than that collected by the investigating officer."

23. The Hon'ble Supreme Court also in the case of Shiv Kumar Jatia Vs. State of NCT of Delhi : (2019) 17 SCC 193 while dealing with vicarious liability of Managing Director of the Company was pleased to observe in paras-21 and 22 as under:-

"21. By applying the ratio laid down by this Court in Sunil Bharti Mittal [Sunil Bharti Mittal v. CBI, (2015) 4 SCC 609 : (2015) 2 SCC (Cri) 687] it is clear that an individual either as a Director or a Managing Director or Chairman of the company can be made an accused, along with the company, only if there is sufficient material to prove his active role coupled with the criminal intent. Further the criminal intent alleged must have direct nexus with the accused. Further in Maksud Saiyed v. State of Gujarat [Maksud Saiyed v. State of Gujarat, (2008) 5 SCC 668 : (2008) 2 SCC (Cri) 692] this Court has examined the vicarious liability of Directors for the charges levelled against the Company. In the aforesaid judgment this Court has held that, the Penal Code does not contain any provision for attaching vicarious liability on the part of the Managing Director or the Directors of the Company, when the accused is a company. It is held that vicarious liability of the Managing Director and Director would arise provided any provision exists in that behalf in the statute. It is further held that statutes indisputably must provide fixing such vicarious liability. It is also held that, even for the said purpose, it is obligatory on the part of the complainant to make requisite allegations which would attract the provisions constituting vicarious liability.

22. In the judgment of this Court in Sharad Kumar Sanghi v. Sangita Rane [Sharad Kumar Sanghi v. Sangita Rane, (2015) 12 SCC 781 : (2016) 1 SCC (Cri) 159] while examining the allegations made against the Managing Director of a Company, in which, company was not made a party, this Court has held that when the allegations made against the Managing Director are vague in nature, same can be the ground for quashing the proceedings under Section 482 CrPC. In the case on hand principally the allegations are made against the first accused company which runs Hotel Hyatt Regency. At the same time, the Managing Director of such company who is Accused 2 is a party by making vague allegations that he was attending all the meetings of the company and various decisions were being taken under his signatures. Applying the ratio laid down in the aforesaid cases, it is clear that principally the allegations are made only against the company and other staff members who are incharge of day-to-day affairs of the company. In the absence of specific allegations against the Managing Director of the company and having regard to nature of allegations made which are vague in nature, we are of the view that it is a fit case for quashing the proceedings, so far as the Managing Director is concerned."

24. Thus, an Officer, Director, Managing Director or Chairman of the Company can be made an accused along with the Company only if there is sufficient material to prove his active role coupled with criminal intent. Indian Penal Code does not contain any provision for vicarious liability. For Managing Director or Director to be accused and their implications in the offence allegedly committed on behalf of the company, when the accused is a Company, the complaint/ FIR or Charge-sheet must contain requisite allegations of commission of the offence by such individual(s).

25. It is further observed here that the applicant, a distinguished industrialist and the Chairman and Managing Director of Wipro Ltd., has consistently demonstrated a commitment to ethical business practices and social responsibility. Under his leadership, Wipro has not only thrived as a global leader in the IT industry but has also been at the forefront of numerous philanthropic initiatives aimed at improving education, healthcare, and environmental sustainability in India and beyond. In reflecting upon the character and contributions of the individual summoned before the court, it is imperative to consider the specifics of the case at hand and to also consider the broader context of the individual's life and work. This court recognizes the multifaceted nature of the applicant, whose endeavors as both an industrialist and a philanthropist, has left an impeccable mark on society.

26. Further, the journey of an industrialist is often arduous, demanding an intricate balance of vision, risk-taking, and relentless pursuit of innovation. The applicant, namely-Azim permji has exemplified these qualities, fostering economic growth and creating employment opportunities that have significantly contributed to the prosperity of the community. His enterprise has not only driven industrial advancement but has also catalyzed ancillary development, uplifting the standard of living of many.

27. It is equally noteworthy that his commitment to philanthropy, a testament to their deep-seated belief in the interconnectedness of all individuals within the society. His philanthropic initiatives have spanned diverse fields such as education, healthcare, and environmental sustainability, reflecting a holistic approach to social responsibility. By investing in the betterment of the less privileged, he has demonstrated a profound understanding of the ethical imperative to share the fruits of success for the common good.

28. Philosophically, one might invoke the concept of "karma yoga" from the Bhagavad Gita, which espouses selfless action as a path to spiritual fulfillment. In applicant's life work, this Court observe a parallel to this ideal—a harmonious blend of personal success and altruistic service. Such a balance is not merely commendable but serves as an inspiration, reminding us that true greatness lies in the ability to transcend personal ambition for the welfare of others.

29. Futher, it is pertinent to note here that the applicant has no direct involvement in the day-to-day operations of Wipro's office in Lucknow or any managerial control over M/s G4S Secure Solutions (India) Pvt. Ltd., the external third-party vendor responsible for providing security services to Wipro. The contractual agreement dated 18.03.2015 between Wipro and M/s G4S Secure Solutions explicitly outlines that the security personnel are independent contractors, not employees or agents of Wipro. This agreement further clarifies that the responsibility for complying with all statutory requirements, including the payment of wages and other benefits, lies solely with the service provider.

30. Given these facts, the applicant's impeccable reputation as an industrialist who upholds the highest standard of corporate governance and his extensive philanthropic contribution should be taken into account. His involvement in the case appears to stem from a misunderstanding or misapplication of legal principles rather than any malafide intent or violation of the Equal Remuneration Act, 1976. The orders issued against him lacks substantive ground, as the applicant has no direct or indirect control over the alleged matter and in light of the applicant's distinguished career and substantial contributions to society, it is evident that the proceedings against him are unfounded and merit reconsideration. His exemplary record as an industrialist and philanthropist should serve as a testament to his integrity and the improbability of his involvement in any legal violations concerning the employment practices of an independent contractor, thus, the impugned proceedings initiated against the applicant is nothing but an abuse of process of law.

31. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case Inder Mohan Goswami v. State of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1 has held that it would be relevant to keep into mind the scope and ambit of section 482 Cr.PC and circumstances under which the extra ordinary power of the court inherent therein as provisioned in the said section of the Cr.P.C. can be exercised, para 23 is being quoted here under:-

"23. This court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of courts powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. Inherent power under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of court, and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice."

32. Further, the Hon'ble the Supreme Court in the case of Lalankumar Singh and Others vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383 has specifically held in paragraph No.38 that the order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. Paragraph No.38 of Lalankumar Singh and Others (supra) is being quoted hereunder:-

"38. The order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. The formation of such an opinion is required to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reasons are given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is a prima facie case against the accused. No doubt, that the order need not contain detailed reasons. A reference in this respect could be made to the judgment of this Court in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, which reads thus:

"51. On the other hand, Section 204 of the Code deals with the issue of process, if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding. This section relates to commencement of a criminal proceeding. If the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case (it may be the Magistrate receiving the complaint or to whom it has been transferred under Section 192), upon a consideration of the materials before him (i.e. the complaint, examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if present, or report of inquiry, if any), thinks that there is a prima facie case for proceeding in respect of an offence, he shall issue process against the accused.

52. A wide discretion has been given as to grant or refusal of process and it must be judicially exercised. A person ought not to be dragged into court merely because a complaint has been filed. If a prima facie case has been made out, the Magistrate ought to issue process and it cannot be refused merely because he thinks that it is unlikely to result in a conviction.

53. However, the words "sufficient ground for proceeding" appearing in Section 204 are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reason is given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is prima facie case against the accused, though the order need not contain detailed reasons. A fortiori, the order would be bad in law if the reason given turns out to be ex facie incorrect.""

33. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Pepsi Foods Ltd. v. Judicial Magistrate reported in (1998) 5 SCC 749 has been pleased to observe paragraph No.28, which is reproduced hereinunder:-

"28. Summoning of an accused in a criminal case is a serious matter. Criminal law cannot be set into motion as a matter of course. It is not that the complainant has to bring only two witnesses to support his allegations in the complaint to have the criminal law set into motion. The order of the Magistrate summoning the accused must reflect that he has applied his mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto. He has to examine the nature of allegations made in the complaint and the evidence both oral and documentary in support thereof and would that be sufficient for the complainant to succeed in bringing charge home to the accused. It is not that the Magistrate is a silent spectator at the time of recording of preliminary evidence before summoning of the accused. The Magistrate has to carefully scrutinise the evidence brought on record and may even himself put questions to the complainant and his witnesses to elicit answers to find out the truthfulness of the allegations or otherwise and then examine if any offence is prima facie committed by all or any of the accused."

34. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mehmood UL Rehman v. Khazir Mohammad Tunda and Others reported in (2015) 12 SCC 420 has been pleased to observe paragraph No.20, which is reproduced hereinunder:-

"20. The extensive reference to the case law would clearly show that cognizance of an offence on complaint is taken for the purpose of issuing process to the accused. Since it is a process of taking judicial notice of certain facts which constitute an offence, there has to be application of mind as to whether the allegations in the complaint, when considered along with the statements recorded or the inquiry conducted thereon, would constitute violation of law so as to call a person to appear before the criminal court. It is not a mechanical process or matter of course. As held by this Court in Pepsi Foods Ltd. [Pepsi Foods Ltd. v. Judicial Magistrate, (1998) 5 SCC 749 : 1998 SCC (Cri) 1400] to set in motion the process of criminal law against a person is a serious matter."

35. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Mahendra Singh Dhoni v. Yerraguntla Shyamsundar reported in (2017) 7 SCC 760 has been pleased to observe paragraph No.13, which is read as under:-

13. Before parting with the case, we would like to sound a word of caution that the Magistrates who have been conferred with the power of taking cognizance and issuing summons are required to carefully scrutinize whether the allegations made in the complaint proceeding meet the basic ingredients of the offence; whether the concept of territorial jurisdiction is satisfied; and further whether the accused is really required to be summoned. This has to be treated as the primary judicial responsibility of the court issuing process.

36. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court has provided guidelines in case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 for the exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which is extraordinary power and used separately in following conditions:-

"102.(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused."

(2) where the allegations in the First Information Report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code;

(3) where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or 'complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused;

(4) where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code;

(5) where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused;

(6) where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(7) where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

37. Further the Hon'ble Supreme Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iii) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (iv) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

38. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised*:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii)* to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

39. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in light of the observations and discussions made above and keeping view the facts and circumstances of the case, and from the perusal of the record, the impugned complaint proceedings pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow in Compliant Case No.2886 of 2016; State of Uttar Pradesh vs. Azim Premji & Another, and the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the order dated 08.02.2017 vide which warrant has been issued against the applicant are liable to be quashed as in the present case learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow has failed to apply his judicial mind to the facts of the case and the law applicable thereto while summoning the applicant and issuing bailable warrant, the Chief Judicial Magistrate has not examined the nature of allegations made in the complaint and the evidences both oral and documentary in support thereof.

40. Accordingly, the impugned complaint proceedings pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lucknow in Compliant Case No.2886 of 2016; State of Uttar Pradesh vs. Azim Premji & Another, and the summoning order dated 03.09.2016 and the order dated 08.02.2017 vide which bailable warrant has been issued against the applicant are hereby quashed.

41. For the reasons discussed above, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. filed by the applicant is allowed in respect of the instant applicant, namely-Azim Premji.

42. Learned Senior Registrar of this Court is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the trial court concerned for its necessary compliance.

43. No order as to cost(s).

(2024) 5 ILRA 2067
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 4223 of 2024

Monu Kumar ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sudhanshu S. Tripathi, Ritwika Tripathi

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Section 294-Allegation-Police personnel got information-three persons performing obscene acts against the passing women of the area-Applicant got caught red-handed-FIR registered-mere performance of obscene act or indecent act is not sufficient-there must be a further proof establish that it was to the annoyance of others-"annoyance to others" prerequisite to invoke the provision-none of the females were examined to establish the alleged act-gross misuse of penal law-no criminal offence is made out-haste in filing charge sheet-within a week –proceedings quashed

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Inder Mohan Goswami Vs St. of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1

2. Lalankumar Singh & ors. Vs St. of Mah. reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383

3. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335

4. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866

5. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192

6. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

7. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Mah., AIR 2021 SC 1918.

S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Shri Sudhanshu S. Tripathi, learned Counsel for the applicant, Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite parties and perused the entire material placed on record.

2. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the applicant,namely-Monu Kumar seeking quashing of the impugned summoning order dated 30.01.2024 passed by learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao in Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.), arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and the impugned charge sheet no.204/2023 dated 24.12.2023 arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and also the entire as well as consequential proceedings of Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.) arising out of arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao pending in the court of learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submitted that the opposite party No.2 and his associate police personnel who were patrolling within their jurisdiction for prevention of crime and got information from the reliable informer in Korari Bazaar that three persons are doing obscene acts against the passing women of the area, wherefore the opposite party No.2 caught the Applicant red-handed and registered the F.I.R. bearing Case Crime No. 283 of 2024, under sections 294 IPC, at Police Station Achalganj, District Unnao on 17.12.2023 alleging therein that applicant was passing obscene comments on the females, who were passing by from Jumka Nala bridge.

4. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that on perusal of arrest-cum-recovery memo, dated 17.12.2023, which reveals that despite the alleged incident having been taken place at a bridge connecting a busy road which had all access to the general members of public, there are no independent witnesses of the aforesaid arrest-cum-recovery memo. Moreover, the aforesaid arrest-cum-recovery proceedings have been conducted by the police in gross violation of provisions of section 100 and 165 Cr.P.C rendering the entire proceeding illegal and unworthy of any credit.

5. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that on perusal of the aforementioned FIR and arrest-cum-recovery memo which makes it clear that there was complete haste in proceeding against the applicant that within one and half hour of arresting the applicant, opposite party No.2 got the FIR registered without preparation of any site plan or making any effort to examine any of the independent eye-witnesses or examining any of passing by females against whom allegedly the applicant was passing of obscene comments.

6. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicant was immediately arrested alongwith other co-accused who happened to be his friends and consequently, he was enlarged on bail on the very same day which is evident from the perusal of entry no.5 of CD Parcha no.1, dated 17.12.2023. He further submitted that while being released on bail assurances were extended to the applicant from the police personnel that no further action will be taken against the applicant in connection with the alleged offence in question. Moreover, the applicant only became aware of the fact that instant case is pending against him is when summoning order was passed against him by the learned trial court.

7. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the investigation of the instant case has been conducted in a tainted, botched- up and hasty manner by the police merely in order to show up the good work and has proceeded to make out a false, fabricated and concocted case and has falsely implicated the applicant in the present case whereas the police has completely ignored the mandatory provisions of criminal law. The haste in finalizing the investigation in the instant case is evident from the fact that within a week after registration of the FIR, the impugned charge-sheet was filed wherein only the statement of members of police party on one day and on another day site plan was prepared and statement of the informant was recorded. He further submitted that neither any independent witness was examined nor any females were examined, who were being annoyed by the alleged obscene comments of the applicant.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the statement of all members of police party and witness of arrest-cum- recovery memo, namely Head Constable Avjesh Singh, Constable Sunil Kumar, Lady Constable Gulistan and Lady Constable Pushpa Chauhan was recorded on 20.12.2023 under section 161 Cr.P.C, wherein they have verbatim reiterated the contents of the arrest-cum-recovery memo which creates substantial doubt on the veracity of their statement as well as the prosecution story which in itself is devoid of any credence.

9. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the statement of the Informant, i.e., opposite party No.2 was recorded on 24.12.2023 under section 161 Cr.P.C wherein, he has verbatim reiterated the contents of the arrest-cum-recovery memo which creates substantial doubt on the veracity of his statement as well as the prosecution story which in itself is devoid of any credence.

10. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the investigation has been conducted in a tainted manner, which is also evident from the fact that site plan of place of occurrence which is usually prepared at the earliest was the last thing done by the investigating officer on 24.12.2023 between 11:00 am to 14:00 pm and on the same he went on to file the charge-sheet.

11. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicant is a bright undergraduate student studying at Rajkiya Mahavidyalaya, Unnao affiliated to Chhatrapati Sahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur and presently pursuing Bachelor of Arts course (Humanities and Social and in support of the same, college Identity Card, fee deposition receipt, 5th semester result, hall ticket of 5th Semester alongwith fifth semester examination schedule are being placed on record. He further submitted that the applicant is a bright student whose entire life and career is at stake, which will be ruined due to his false implication in the instant case. Moreover, at the time of registration of the FIR the applicant was merely 20 and half years of age and had no occasion to commit the alleged offence in question.

12. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicant is a resident of Korari Kalan and after taking his exam on 16.12.2023 had went to the house of his paternal-aunt (Bua) who resides at nearby village in Korari Khurd and while returning from there he was intercepted by the police personnel because he was doing tripling on motorcycle and thereafter, the applicant was arrested and falsely implicated in the instant case.

13. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the present case is a classic example wherein false allegations have been leveled by the opposite party No.2 with an ulterior motive to show up the police good work in his jurisdiction without caring for the disrepute it brings to the applicant and his family as well as harassment to the applicant is being put to because of all such serious allegations. Moreover, such cases not only bring disrepute but also cause harassment of an innocent person.

14. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that even if all the allegations levelled against the applicant are prima facie viewed, the offence alleged to have been committed by the applicant is not made out since mere use of abusive, humiliating or defamative words by itself cannot attract an offense under section 294 of IPC. In order to bring home the charge under section 294 of IPC mere utterance of obscene words are not sufficient but there must be a further proof to establish that it was to the annoyance of others, which is completely lacking in the instant case.

15. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submitted that the applicant has neither directly nor indirectly induced or threatened or promised any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade them from disclosing the facts before the court or any police officer.

16. Per contra, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party has vehemently opposed the contentions made by learned Counsel for the applicant and submits that there was ample evidence against the applicant, who was present at the railway crossing at the time of incident and the police party in a very cautious manner nabbed him red handed, while he was creating nuisance in a public place and was passing obscene comments on the girls and ladies. Thereafter, the police has thoroughly conducted the inquiry against the applicant and has filed a charge sheet against him considering the material on record, thus, he submits that the trial court has correctly took the cognizance of the charge sheet and has rightly summoned the applicant to face trial in the aforesaid case. He further submits that no interference by this Court is required in the matter and the present application being devoid of merit and substance is liable to be rejected.

17. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties.

18. On careful perusal of averments made in this application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. as well as after hearing the learned Counsel for the parties, the factual matrix discloses that the opposite party No.2 and his associate police personnel, who were patrolling within their jurisdiction for prevention of crime and got information from the reliable informer in Korari Bazaar that three persons were doing obscene acts against the passing women of the area, wherefore the opposite party No.2 caught the applicant red-handed and registered the F.I.R. bearing Case Crime No. 283 of 2024, under sections 294 IPC, at Police Station Achalganj, District Unnao on 17.12.2023 alleging therein that applicant was passing obscene comments on the females, who were passing by from Jumka Nala bridge, and on perusal of arrest-cum-recovery memo, dated 17.12.2023, which reveals that despite the alleged incident having been taken place at a bridge connecting a busy road which had all access to the general members of public, there is no independent witness of the aforesaid arrest-cum-recovery memo. Moreover, the aforesaid arrest-cum-recovery proceedings have been conducted by the police in gross violation of provisions of section 100 and 165 Cr.P.C. Further, opposite party No.2 got the FIR registered without preparation of any site plan or making any effort to examine any of the independent eye-witnesses or examining any of passing by females against whom allegedly the applicant was passing of obscene comments and while being released on bail assurances were extended to the applicant from the police personnel that no further action will be taken against the applicant in connection with the alleged offence in question. Moreover, the applicant only became aware of the fact that instant case is pending against him is when summoning order was passed against him by the learned trial court.

19. Further, on perusal of records, it appears that the investigation of the instant case has been conducted in a tainted, botched- up and hasty manner by the police merely in order to show up the good work and has proceeded to make out a false, fabricated and concocted case and has falsely implicated the applicant in the present case wherein, the police has completely ignored the mandatory provisions of criminal law. The haste in finalizing the investigation in the instant case is evident from the fact that within a week after registration of the FIR, the impugned charge-sheet was filed wherein only the statement of members of police party on one day and on another day site plan was prepared and statement of the informant was recorded and neither any independent witness was examined nor any females were examined, who were being annoyed by the alleged obscene comments of the applicant.

20. It is further observed here that the applicant is a bright undergraduate student studying at Rajkiya Mahavidyalaya, Unnao affiliated to Chhatrapati Sahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur and presently pursuing Bachelor of Arts course (Humanities), whose entire life and career is at stake, which will be ruined due to his false implication in the instant case. Moreover, at the time of registration of the FIR the applicant was merely 20 and half years of age and had no occasion to commit the alleged offence in question.

21. Further, the trial court has failed to appreciate the fact that while filing the charge sheet, the Investigating officer has failed to comply with the mandatory provisions of criminal law and has passed the impugned summoning order 30.01.2024, which is nothing but an abuse of process of law.

22. Further the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case Inder Mohan Goswami v. State of Uttaranchal (2007)12 SCC 1 has held that it would be relevant to keep into mind the scope and ambit of section 482 Cr.PC and circumstances under which the extra ordinary power of the court inherent therein as provisioned in the said section of the Cr.P.C. can be exercised, para 23 is being quoted here under:-

"23. This court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of courts powers under section 482 Cr.P.C. Every High Court has inherent power to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. Inherent power under section 482 Cr.P.C. can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of court, and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice."

23. Further Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India in the case of Lalankumar Singh and Others vs. State of Maharashtra reported in 2022 SCC Online SC 1383 has specifically held in paragraph No.38 that the order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. Paragraph No.38 of Lalankumar Singh and Others (supra) is being quoted hereunder:-

"38. The order of issuance of process is not an empty formality. The Magistrate is required to apply his mind as to whether sufficient ground for proceeding exists in the case or not. The formation of such an opinion is required to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reasons are given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is a prima facie case against the accused. No doubt, that the order need not contain detailed reasons. A reference in this respect could be made to the judgment of this Court in the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, which reads thus:

"51. On the other hand, Section 204 of the Code deals with the issue of process, if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding. This section relates to commencement of a criminal proceeding. If the Magistrate taking cognizance of a case (it may be the Magistrate receiving the complaint or to whom it has been transferred under Section 192), upon a consideration of the materials before him (i.e. the complaint, examination of the complainant and his witnesses, if present, or report of inquiry, if any), thinks that there is a prima facie case for proceeding in respect of an offence, he shall issue process against the accused.

52. A wide discretion has been given as to grant or refusal of process and it must be judicially exercised. A person ought not to be dragged into court merely because a complaint has been filed. If a prima facie case has been made out, the Magistrate ought to issue process and it cannot be refused merely because he thinks that it is unlikely to result in a conviction.

53. However, the words "sufficient ground for proceeding" appearing in Section 204 are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself. The order is liable to be set aside if no reason is given therein while coming to the conclusion that there is prima facie case against the accused, though the order need not contain detailed reasons. A fortiori, the order would be bad in law if the reason given turns out to be ex facie incorrect."

24. Further, Hon'ble the Supreme Court of India has provided guidelines in case of State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 for the exercise of power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. which is extraordinary power and used separately in following conditions:-

"102.(1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused."

(2) where the allegations in the First Information Report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code;

(3) where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or 'complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused;

(4) where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code;

(5) where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused;

(6) where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institution and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(7) where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

25. Further the Hon'ble Supreme Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iii) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (iv) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

26. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised*:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice*. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

27. It is further observed there that the object and scope of the section 294 of IPC is intended to prevent an obscene or indecent act being performed in public to the annoyance of public at large. Section 294 I.P.C. is reproduced hereinunder:-

"Section 294 :Obscene acts and songs

Essential ingredients :

1. Doing of any obscene act in a public place, or

2. Anyone sings,recite or utters any obscene song,ballad or words in or near any public place

3. By such act annoyance is caused to a particular person or persons in general."

28. Thus, from the aforesaid, it is clear that mere performance of obscene or indecent act is not sufficient, but there must be a further proof establish that it was to the annoyance of others, thereby annoyance to others is essential to constitute an offence under this section. Moreso, when the said section says "annoyance to others" is a prerequisite to invoke the provision, then the issue of "obscenity or indecency per se" will not arise until or unless there is evidence on record to see that a person at a given time witnessing particular obscene act was actually annoyed or not. He further submitted that none of the female have been examined to establish that the alleged act of passing obscene comment upon the passing females have caused them annoyance and in absence of such evidence the impugned charge-sheet and summoning order are devoid of any merit and gross abuse of process of law.

29. Further, the instant case is a gross misuse of penal laws in particular and criminal law in general since no criminal offence is made out from the perusal of aforesaid facts and the impugned summoning order has been passed in an arbitrary manner without giving consideration to the material on record and lack of due application of judicial mind.

30. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and in light of the observations and discussions made above and keeping view the facts and circumstances of the case, and from the perusal of the record, the impugned summoning order dated 30.01.2024 passed by learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao in Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.), arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and the impugned charge sheet no.204/2023 dated 24.12.2023 arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and also the entire as well as consequential proceedings of Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.) arising out of arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao pending in the court of learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao and are liable to be quashed as the investigation of the instant case has been conducted in a tainted, botched- up and hasty manner by the police merely in order to show up the good work and has proceeded to make out a false, fabricated and concocted case and has falsely implicated the applicant in the present case wherein, the police has completely ignored the mandatory provisions of criminal law. The haste in finalizing the investigation in the instant case is evident from the fact that within a week after registration of the FIR, the impugned charge-sheet was filed wherein only the statement of members of police party on one day and on another day site plan was prepared and statement of the informant was recorded and neither any independent witness was examined nor any females were examined, who were being annoyed by the alleged obscene comments of the applicant.

31. Accordingly, the impugned summoning order dated 30.01.2024 passed by learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao in Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.), arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and the impugned charge sheet no.204/2023 dated 24.12.2023 arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao and also the entire as well as consequential proceedings of Criminal Case No.141/2024 (State of U.P. vs. Sachin and Ors.) arising out of arising out of Case Crime No.283/2023 under Section 294 I.P.C., Police Station-Achalganj, District-Unnao pending in the court of learned Civil Judge, Senior Division (F.T.C.) Unnao are hereby quashed.

32. For the reasons discussed above, the instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. filed by the applicant is allowed in respect of the instant applicant, namely-Monu Kumar.

33. Office is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the trial court concerned for its necessary compliance.

34. No order as to cost(s).

(2024) 5 ILRA 2075
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 5228 of 2023

Kaushar Khan & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Gibran Akhtar Khan

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989-Section 3(1) (S)-Complaint filed-learned Magistrate without considering the material available and without considering averment in F.I.R.-as per own case of the opposite party-alleged incidence took place in a private orchard- no public was present-no public view-ingredients of sec. 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act not attracted.

Application allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hitesh Verma Vs St. of Uttarakhand ,(2020) 10 SCC 710.

2. Ramesh Chandra Vaishya Vs St. of U.P. & anr., SCC OnLine SC 668.

3. Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs St. of Uttranchal & anr. (2008) 17 SCC 157.

4. Ankit Vs St. of U.P. & anr. reported in JIC 2010 (1) Page 432.

5. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajanlal reported in 1992 SCC (Crl.) 426.

6. Hitesh Verma Vs St. of Uttarakhand, (2020) 10 SCC 710

7. Ramesh Chandra Vaishya Vs St. of U.P. & anr.; (2023) SCC OnLine SC 668

8. Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs St. of Uttranchal & anr. (2008) 17 SCC 157

9. Ankit Vs St. of U.P. & anr. reported in JIC 2010 (1) page 432

10. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Pun., AIR 1960 S.C. 866,

11. St. of Haryana Vs Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426,

12. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192,

13. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283

14. Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

15. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Mr. Gibran Akhtar Khan, learned Counsel for the applicants, Ms. Ankita Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State-opposite party No.1 and perused the material placed on record.

2. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the applicants seeking quashing of the entire proceeding of Complaint Case No.281/2022; Smt. Pooja vs. Kaushar and Others, under Sections 323 and 504 I.P.C. and Section 3(1) (S) of Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station-Bilgram, District-Hardoi as well as summoning order dated 09.04.2024 passed in the aforesaid case.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicants submits that the applicants are innocent persons and have been falsely implicated in the present case due to village rivalry. He further submits that the brief facts of case are that on 05.11.2021 when applicant no. 2(Azam) reached home on his Motorcycle at about 1.00 p.m, he found that the Complainant's Husband Bholanath and Complainant's Brother Sunil were sitting at his doorstep and drinking alcohol, on which the applicant no.2 (Azam) requested them not to drink alcohol at his doorstep, however the Complainant's husband namely Bholanath, being in the state of inebriation, started hurling abusive words to the applicant no.2 Azam and applicant no.2, Azam requested the Complainant's husband, not to utter abusive words for his family, but he didn't stop, so applicant no.2 (Azam) called the police at 1.26 pm by making a phone call at Dial 100 Emergency Service, and on seeing the Police Response Vehicle coming at around 2:00pm, the complainant's husband ran away from his home. Applicants thought, that the matter has come to an end. He further submits that the applicants are the next door neighbors of the Complainant, and in the small narrow lane there are only two houses, one of complainant, and the other one is of the applicants.

4. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that on 11.01.2022, in an after thought manner, a frivolous complaint was filed by the Complainant (opposite party no.2), falsely implicating the applicants for extorting money and as per the allegations made in the complaint, all the applicants who are four in number, using abusive words started beating the complainant (opposite party no.2), and also the complainant's husband with hands and feet, and the complainant and her husband were saved by the intervention of complainant's brother and some village people. He further submits that in this entire incident surprisingly no injury was inflicted upon the body of the complainant and the complainant's husband, and admittedly no medical examination was done. He further submits that it is unbelievable that four persons physically assaulted the complainant, who is a lady, and no injury was sustained by her. Moreover, the complainant's husband was also physically assaulted by all the applicants as per the allegations made in the complaint, and no injury was inflicted upon him as well.

5. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the statement of the complainant was recorded under section 200 Cr.P.C., but the same do not corroborate the version enumerated in the Complaint. There is no mention in the statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C., that the applicants entered her house and gave blows with hands and kicks. Neither the statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. finds mention of one Rajpal and village people, as has been alleged in the complaint, who came to the rescue of complainant and her husband. Thus there is major contradiction in the statement recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. and the complaint dated 11.01.2022. He further submits that the statements recorded by the witnesses under section 202 Cr.P.C. also do not inspire any confidence that the alleged incident, did take place.

6. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that statement of the complainant's brother recorded under Section 202 Cr.P.C., wherein, there is also no mention of Hand Cart(Thiliya), and neither Rajpal nor Village people have been named, who came to the rescue of Complainant and her Husband as has been alleged in the Complaint.

7. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that at this juncture that the aforesaid Complaint has been filed in an after thought manner after a period of two months, and there is no independent witness in the Complaint, to corroborate the alleged incident, which falsify the contents of the complaint and also raise a cloud of doubt over the allegations made therein.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the applicants have never had any dispute with the complainant and his family members before this incident. He further submits that the allegations leveled in the complaint are false and fabricated. No such incident ever took place as alleged by the opposite party

No.2. He further submits that ingredients of Section 3(1) (S) SC/ST Act are not attracted in the present case as the house of the opposite party No.2 was a private place and there was no public view, the scuffle took place in a private house, thus, the there was no public view nor it was a public place. He further submits that on bare perusal of the complaint it is clear that there is no mention of any public view, thus, the very basis of the provisions of SC/ST Act are missing in the present case.

9. Learned counsel for the applicant further submits that the order dated 09.04.2024 passed by learned trial court in Complaint Case No.281/2022; Smt. Pooja vs. Kaushar and Others, under Sections 323 and 504 I.P.C. and Section 3(1) (S) of Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station-Bilgram, District-Hardoi, by which cognizance was taken and the applicants were summoned, is also non speaking as the Magistrate has not considered any material available before him while summoning the applicants to face the trial. As such, the impugned order dated 09.04.2024 on the face of record appears to be unjustified and is passed without application of judicial mind, therefore, the same is liable to be set aside and further proceedings in pursuance to the above case may also be quashed by this Court and the present application be allowed.

10. In support of his arguments, learned Counsel for the applicants has placed reliance on following judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India:-

"(i) Hitesh Verma vs. State of Uttarakhand reported in (2020) 10 SCC 710.

(ii) Ramesh Chandra Vaishya vs. State of U.P. and Another reported in SCC OnLine SC 668.

(iii) Fakhruddin Ahmad vs. State of Uttranchal and Another repored in (2008) 17 SCC 157.

(iv) Ankit vs. State of U.P. and Another reported in JIC 2010 (1) Page 432.

(v) State of Haryana vs. Bhajanlal reported in 1992 SCC (Crl.) 426."

11. Ms. Ankita Tripathi, learned A.G.A. for the State-opposite party No.1 apposed the contentions made by learned Counsel for the applicants and submits that prima facie offence is made out against the applicants and the trial court has rightly passed impugned summoning order after considering the material placed on record, thus, the applicants are not entitled for any relief by this Court and the present appeal may be dismissed.

12. After considering the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perusal of record in light of the submissions made at the Bar and after taking an overall view of all the facts and circumstances of this case, the nature of evidence and the contents of the complaint, statements of witnesses as well as summoning order dated 09.04.2024, this court is of the view that the SC/ST Act, 1989 is meant to prevent the commission of offences of atrocities against the members of the Schedule Castes and the Schedule Tribes, to provide for Special Courts and Exclusive Special Courts for the trial of such offences and for the relief and rehabilitation of the victims of such offences and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

13. It is further observed that the SC/ST Act, 1989 was enacted to improve the social economic conditions of the vulnerable sections of the society as they have been subjected to various offences such as indignities, humiliations and harassment. They have been deprived of life and property as well. The object of the Act, 1989 is thus to punish the violators who inflict indignities, humiliations and harassment and commit the offence as defined under Section 3 of the SC/ST Act, 1989. The SC/ST Act, 1989 thus intended to punish the acts of the upper caste against the vulnerable section of the society for the reason that they belong to a particular community. Section 3(1)(S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989 or 3(1)(S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989 would read as under:-

"Section 3(1)(s) of the Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989- abuses any member of a Scheduled Caste or a Schedule Tribe by caste name in any place within the public view"

Thus, the basic ingredient of the offence under Section 3(1) (S) can be clarified as abuse of any member of Schedule Caste or a Schedule Tribe by caste name in any place within the public view.

14. It is further observed that an offence under the SC/ST Act, 1989 would be made out when a member of the vulnerable section of the society is subjected to indignities, humiliations and harassment in any place within the public view.

15. In the present case, this Court finds that the applicants have not abused the opposite party No.2 by caste name in any place within the public view, even though, the opposite party No.2 has not stated anything about abuses hurled to her by the applicants in a place within a public view, thus, the allegations as leveled in the compliant does not constitute offence under Section 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989.

16. It is further observed by this Court that before an accused is subjected to trial for commission of offence under Section 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989 the utterances made by him in any "place within a public view" is mandatory and from the bare perusal of the F.I.R., the utterances, if any, as mentioned in Section 3(1) (S) are not fulfilled. The Investigating agencies while investigating the matter are duty bound to consider the factual aspects of the matter and also to consider the statement of witnesses, complainant as well as the applicants so as to ascertain whether the chargesheet makes out a case under the SC/ST Act, 1989 having been committed for forming a proper opinion in the conspectus of the situation before it, prior to taking cognizance of the offence by learned Magistrate. In the present case from the factual aspects and contents of the F.I.R. discussed above, no offence is made out under Section 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989. Though, the learned Magistrate has not applied its judicial mind while taking cognizance in the matter and while summoning the applicants by impugned order to face trial, which is very serious matter.

17. In view of the aforesaid discussion, this Court deems it proper to discuss some case laws.

18. Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Hitesh Verma Vs. State of Uttarakhand, (2020) 10 SCC 710 has been pleased to observe in para 13, 14 and 18 as under :-

"13. All insults or intimidations to a person will not be an offence under the Act unless such insult or intimidation is on account of victim belonging to Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe. The object of the Act is to improve the socio-economic conditions of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes as they are denied number of civil rights. Thus, an offence under the Act would be made out when a member of the vulnerable section of the Society is subjected to indignities, humiliations and harassment. The assertion of title over the land by either of the parties is not due to either the indignities, humiliations or harassment. Every citizen has a right to avail their remedies in accordance with law. Therefore, if the appellant or his family members have invoked jurisdiction of the civil court, or that respondent No.2 has invoked the jurisdiction of the civil court, then the parties are availing their remedies in accordance with the procedure established by law. Such action is not for the reason that respondent No.2 is member of Scheduled Caste.

14. Another key ingredient of the provision is insult or intimidation in "any place within public view". What is to be regarded as "place in public view" had come up for consideration before this Court in the judgment reported as Swaran Singh v. State [Swaran Singh v. State, (2008) 8 SCC 435 : (2008) 3 SCC (Cri) 527]. The Court had drawn distinction between the expression "public place" and "in any place within public view". It was held that if an offence is committed outside the building e.g. in a lawn outside a house, and the lawn can be seen by someone from the road or lane outside the boundary wall, then the lawn would certainly be a place within the public view. On the contrary, if the remark is made inside a building, but some members of the public are there (not merely relatives or friends) then it would not be an offence since it is not in the public view (sic) . The Court held as under :

"28. It has been alleged in the FIR that Vinod Nagar, the first informant, was insulted by Appellants 2 and 3 (by calling him a "chamar") when he stood near the car which was parked at the gate of the premises. In our opinion, this was certainly a place within public view, since the gate of a house is certainly a place within public view. It could have been a different matter had the alleged offence been committed inside a building, and also was not in the public view. However, if the offence is committed outside the building e.g. in a lawn outside a house, and the lawn can be seen by someone from the road or lane outside the boundary wall, the lawn would certainly be a place within the public view. Also, even if the remark is made inside a building, but some members of the public are there (not merely relatives or friends) then also it would be an offence since it is in the public view. We must, therefore, not confuse the expression "place within public view" with the expression "public place". A place can be a private place but yet within the public view. On the other hand, a public place would ordinarily mean a place which is owned or leased by the Government or the municipality (or other local body) or gaon sabha or an instrumentality of the State, and not by private persons or private bodies."

18. Therefore, offence under the Act is not established merely on the fact that the informant is a member of Scheduled Caste unless there is an intention to humiliate a member of Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe for the reason that the victim belongs to such caste. In the present case, the parties are litigating over possession of the land. The allegation of hurling of abuses is against a person who claims title over the property. If such person happens to be a Scheduled Caste, the offence under Section 3(1)(r) of the Act is not made out."

19. Further, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Ramesh Chandra Vaishya Vs. State of U.P. and Another; (2023) SCC OnLine SC 668 has been pleased to observe in paragraph 17, 18 and 21 as under:-

"17. The first question that calls for an answer is whether it was at a place within public view that the appellant hurled caste related abuses at the complainant with an intent to insult or intimidate with an intent to humiliate him. From the charge-sheet dated 21st January, 2016 filed by the I.O., it appears that the prosecution would seek to rely on the evidence of three witnesses to drive home the charge against the appellant of committing offences under sections 323 and 504, IPC and 3(1)(x), SC/ST Act. These three witnesses are none other than the complainant, his wife and their son. Neither the first F.I.R. nor the charge-sheet refers to the presence of a fifth individual (a member of the public) at the place of occurrence (apart from the appellant, the complainant, his wife and their son). Since the utterances, if any, made by the appellant were not "in any place within public view", the basic ingredient for attracting section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act was missing/absent. We, therefore, hold that at the relevant point of time of the incident (of hurling of caste related abuse at the complainant by the appellant), no member of the public was present.

18. That apart, assuming arguendo that the appellant had hurled caste related abuses at the complainant with a view to insult or humiliate him, the same does not advance the case of the complainant any further to bring it within the ambit of section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act. We have noted from the first F.I.R. as well as the charge- sheet that the same makes no reference to the utterances of the appellant during the course of verbal altercation or to the caste to which the complainant belonged, except for the allegation/observation that caste-related abuses were hurled. The legislative intent seems to be clear that every insult or intimidation for humiliation to a person would not amount to an offence under section 3(1)(x) of the SC/ST Act unless, of course, such insult or intimidation is targeted at the victim because of he being a member of a particular Scheduled Caste or Tribe. If one calls another an idiot (bewaqoof) or a fool (murkh) or a thief (chor) in any place within public view, this would obviously constitute an act intended to insult or humiliate by user of abusive or offensive language. Even if the same be directed generally to a person, who happens to be a Scheduled Caste or Tribe, per se, it may not be sufficient to attract section 3(1)(x) unless such words are laced with casteist remarks. Since section 18 of the SC/ST Act bars invocation of the court's jurisdiction under section 438, Cr.PC and having regard to the overriding effect of the SC/ST Act over other laws, it is desirable that before an accused is subjected to a trial for alleged commission of offence under section 3(1)(x), the utterances made by him in any place within public view are outlined, if not in the F.I.R. (which is not required to be an encyclopedia of all facts and events), but at least in the charge-sheet (which is prepared based either on statements of witnesses recorded in course of investigation or otherwise) so as to enable the court to ascertain whether the charge sheet makes out a case of an offence under the SC/ST Act having been committed for forming a proper opinion in the conspectus of the situation before it, prior to taking cognizance of the offence. Even for the limited test that has to be applied in a case of the present nature, the charge-sheet dated 21 st January, 2016 does not make out any case of an offence having been committed by the appellant under section 3(1)(x) warranting him to stand a trial.

21. Section 323, IPC prescribes punishment for voluntarily causing hurt. Hurt is defined in section 319, IPC as causing bodily pain, disease or infirmity to any person. The allegation in the first F.I.R. is that the appellant had beaten up the complainant for which he sustained multiple injuries. Although the complainant alleged that such incident was witnessed by many persons and that he sustained injuries on his hand, the charge-sheet does neither refer to any eye-witness other than the complainant's wife and son nor to any medical report. The nature of hurt suffered by the complainant in the process is neither reflected from the first F.I.R. nor the charge-sheet. On the contrary, the appellant had the injuries suffered by him treated immediately after the incident. In the counter-affidavit filed by the first respondent (State) in the present proceeding, there is no material worthy of consideration in this behalf except a bald statement that the complainant sustained multiple injuries "in his hand and other body parts". If indeed the complainant's version were to be believed, the I.O. ought to have asked for a medical report to support the same. Completion of investigation within a day in a given case could be appreciated but in the present case it has resulted in more disservice than service to the cause of justice. The situation becomes all the more glaring when in course of this proceeding the parties including the first respondent are unable to apprise us the outcome of the second F.I.R. In any event, we do not find any ring of truth in the prosecution case to allow the proceedings to continue vis--vis section 323, IPC."

20. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Fakhruddin Ahmad Vs State of Uttranchal and another reported in (2008) 17 SCC 157, discussed the expression "taking cognizance of an offence" by a Magistrate within contemplation of section 190 of the Cr.P.C and also discussed what must have been taken notice by the Magistrate while taking cognizance. Paras 11, 12, 13,14 and15 being relevant are abstracted below:-

"11.The next incidental question is as to what is meant by expression `taking cognizance of an offence' by a Magistrate within the contemplation of Section 190 of the Code?

12.The expression `cognizance' is not defined in the Code but is a word of indefinite import. As observed by this Court in Ajit Kumar Palit Vs. State of West Bengal2, the word `cognizance' has no esoteric or mystic significance in criminal law or procedure. It merely means--become aware 2 [1963] Supp. 1 S.C.R. 953 9 of and when used with reference to a Court or Judge, to take notice of judicially. Approving the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Emperor Vs. Sourindra Mohan Chuckerbutty3, the Court said that `taking cognizance does not involve any formal action; or indeed action of any kind, but occurs as soon as a Magistrate, as such, applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence.'

13. Recently, this Court in S.K. Sinha, Chief Enforcement Officer Vs.

Videocon International Ltd. & Ors.4, speaking through C.K. Thakker, J., while considering the ambit and scope of the phrase `taking cognizance' under Section 190 of the Code, has highlighted some of the observations of the Calcutta High Court in Superintendent & Remembrancer of Legal Affairs, West Bengal Vs. Abani Kumar Banerjee5, which were approved by this Court in R. R. Chari Vs. State of U.P.6. The observations are:

3 (1910) I.L.R. 37 Calcutta 412 4 (2008) 2 SCC 492 5 A.I.R. (37) 1950 Calcutta 437 6 A.I.R. (38) 1951 SC 207 1 0 "7. ... What is `taking cognizance' has not been defined in the Criminal Procedure Code, and I have no desire now to attempt to define it. It seems to me clear, however, that before it can be said that any Magistrate has taken cognizance of any offence under Section 190(1)(a) CrPC, he must not only have applied his mind to the contents of the petition, but he must have done so for the purpose of proceeding in a particular way as indicated in the subsequent provisions of this Chapter, proceeding under Section 200, and thereafter sending it for enquiry and report under Section 202. When the Magistrate applies his mind not for the purpose of proceeding under the subsequent sections of this Chapter, but for taking action of some other kind, e.g., ordering investigation under Section 156 (3), or issuing a search warrant for the purpose of the investigation, he cannot be said to have taken cognizance of the offence."

14. From the afore-noted judicial pronouncements, it is clear that being an expression of indefinite import, it is neither practicable nor desirable to precisely define as to what is meant by `taking cognizance'. Whether the Magistrate has or has not taken cognizance of the offence will depend upon the circumstances of the particular case, including the mode in which the case is sought to be instituted and the nature of the preliminary action.

15. Nevertheless, it is well settled that before a Magistrate can be said to have taken cognizance of an offence, it is imperative that he must have taken notice of the accusations and applied his mind to the allegations made in the complaint or in the police report or the information received from a source other than a police report, as the case may be, and the material filed therewith. It needs little emphasis that it is only when the Magistrate applies his mind and is satisfied that the allegations, if proved, would constitute an offence and decides to initiate proceedings against the alleged offender, that it can be positively stated that he has taken cognizance of the offence."

21. This Court in the matter of Ankit Vs State of U.P. and another reported in JIC 2010 (1) page 432 has held that-

"Although as held by this Court in the case of Megh Nath Guptas & Anr V State of U.P. And Anr, 2008 (62) ACC 826, in which reference has been made to the cases of Deputy Chief Controller Import and Export Vs Roshan Lal Agarwal, 2003 (4^) ACC 686 (SC), UP Pollution Control Board Vs Mohan Meakins, 2000 (2) JIC 159 (SC): AIR 2000 SC 1456 and Kanti Bhadra Vs State of West Bengal, 2000 (1) JIC 751 (SC): 2000 (40) ACC 441 (SC), the Magistrate is not required to pass detailed reasoned order at the time of taking cognizance on the charge sheet, but it does not mean that order of taking cognizance can be passed by filling up the blanks on printed proforma. At the time of passing any judicial order including the order taking cognizance on the charge sheet, the Court is required to apply judicial mind and even the order of taking cognizance cannot be passed in mechanical manner. Therefore, the impugned order is liable to be quashed and the matter has to be sent back to the Court below for passing fresh order on the charge sheet after applying judicial mind."

Thus, in the present case learned Magistrate without considering the material available before him and even without considering the averments made in the F.I.R. in which as per the own case of the opposite party No.2 the alleged incident took place in a private Orchard and at that time no public was present nor there was any public view. Learned Magistrate while taking cognizance did not consider the statements of the applicants which was recorded by the Investigating Officer before filing the chargesheet. Thus, the ingredients of Section 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989 is not attracted in the present case and as such, no offence under the aforesaid section is made out against the applicants.

22. Thus, after perusing the record in the light of the submissions made at the bar and after taking an overall view of all the facts and circumstances of this case, the nature of evidence and as per the contents of the complaint and considering the various case laws referred above, the incident does not appear to happen in a public place or in a public view, thus, Section 3(1) (S) of the SC/ST Act, 1989 is not attracted against the applicants as the incident did not occur in any "place within a public view", as such, considering the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Hitesh Verma (Supra), Ramesh Chandra Vaishya (Supra), Fakhruddin Ahmad (Supra) as well as law laid down by co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Ankit (Supra) this Court is of the view that the learned trial court has failed to appreciate the material available on record. The summoning order dated 09.04.2024 passed by the trial court alongwith the entire criminal proceedings of the aforesaid case are liable to be quashed.

23. Further the Apex Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:- (i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Haryana Vs. Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426, (iii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192, (iv) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283 and (v) Neeharika Infrastructure Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of Maharashtra, AIR 2021 SC 1918.

24. From the aforesaid decisions the Apex Court has settled the legal position for quashing of the proceedings at the initial stage. The test to be applied by the court is to whether uncontroverted allegation as made prima facie establishes the offence and the chances of ultimate conviction is bleak and no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing criminal proceedings to be continued.

25. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

26. Accordingly in view of the above discussions and observations made, this application is allowed, the entire proceeding of Complaint Case No.281/2022; Smt. Pooja vs. Kaushar and Others, under Sections 323 and 504 I.P.C. and Section 3(1) (S) of Schedule Caste and Schedule Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, Police Station-Bilgram, District-Hardoi as well as summoning order dated 09.04.2024 are hereby quashed so far it relates to the present applicants.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2085
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 30.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ B No. 3587 of 1985

Triloki Nath ...Petitioner
Versus
J.D.C. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
S.P. Shukla, Arvind Kr. Shukla, B.B. Singh, S.N. Goswami, S.P. Shukla, Shitla Prasad Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C. Sri Ashok Kr. Baladiha, D.C. Mukherjee, Raj Mani Dubey

Civil Law - Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956-Section 7- Uncle(Naval Kishore) of Petitioner was the original tenure holder –died issueless-after his demise-Petitioner being nephew –succeeded-during consolidation proceedings-opposite party filed a case u/s 12 of the Act, 1953-claiming his co-tenancy rights on the said chak being an adopted son on the basis of registered adoption deed-rejected-Appeal-allowed-Revision by Petitioner-dismissed-impugned-Hindu male can adopt a child-consent of wife is necessary-adoption deed had sign of Naval Kishore, the adopted child and his wife-sign of wife of Naval Kishore was not there-no reason for his wife not signing it-consent should not necessarily be in writing-can be done by producing evidence –since no consent of wife of late Naval Kishore nor in writing nor in inference- impugned orders quashed.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ghisalal & ors.. Vs Dhapubai (Dead) by LRs. & ors.[AIR (2011) SC 644]

2. Uttam Chandra & ors. Vs St. of U.P & ors. - Writ B No. 3822 of 2023

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Shitla Prasad Tripathi, learned counsel for petitioner, learned counsel for respondent as well as Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned State Counsel.

2. During the pendency of the present writ petition, the petitioner has expired and in his place his legal heirs have been substituted and they will be referred to as petitioner. Similarly, during the pendency of the present writ petition, respondent nos. 3, 4 and 5 have also expired and their legal heirs have been substituted and they will be referred to as respondent.

3. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned revisional order dated 25.05.1985 and the appellate order dated 07.01.1985.

4. Learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that the uncle of the petitioner Naval Kishore was the original tenure holder of the Chak no. 32 situated at village Gumwa, District Sultanpur and he died issueless, hence after his demise, the petitioner being the nephew, would succeed the rights over Chak No. 32 as successors of late Naval Kishore.

5. During the consolidation proceedings, respondent no. 3 Ram Ujagir (now deceased) had filed a case under Section 12 of the Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 for claiming his co-tenancy rights on Chak No. 32 being an adopted son of late Naval Kishore, on the basis of the registered adoption deed dated 30.09.1972. The said case preferred by respondent no. 3 was dismissed by judgment and order dated 26.10.1983.Against which the respondent no. 3 had preferred an appeal under Section 11(1) of the Act, 1953 which was decided in his favour by judgment and order dated 07.01.1985. Against which, the petitioner preferred a revision under Section 48(1) of the Act, 1953 which was dismissed by judgment and order dated 25.05.1985 and feeling aggrieved by the appellate order and the revisional order, the present writ petition has been preferred.

6. It is further submitted that the issue which was to be decided by the appellate court as well as the revisional court was whether the adoption was in accordance with proviso to Section 7 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act, 1956') which provides that the consent of the wife of the person adopting the child shall be necessary and the same was not there at the time of adoption and the registration of the adoption deed. So, the adoption of the respondent no. 3 is invalid and no right could be given to the respondent no. 3 in pursuance of the adoption deed which is invalid. In support of his submission, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ghisalal and Ors. vs. Dhapubai (Dead) by LRs. and Ors. [AIR (2011) SC 644].

7. It is further submitted that the respondent no. 3 had not adduced either any documentary evidence or oral evidence to establish that there was a consent of the wife of Late Naval Kishore at the time of adoption of respondent no. 3 and in absence of the same, the adoption of the respondent no. 3 is not valid in the eyes of law.

8. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel and the counsel for the respondents have submitted that it is not necessary that the consent should be in writing.

9. It is further submitted that the statement of the marginal witness (Indrajeet Tiwari) was recorded before the Consolidation Officer wherein he had stated that the adoption was with the consent of the wife of Late Naval Kishore and she was present at the time of adoption.

10. It is further submitted that even respondent no. 3 had also given his statement that he was adopted with the consent of wife of Late Naval Kishore. It is further submitted that the petitioner has not challenged the adoption deed till date and as per Section 16 of the Act, 1956, it would be presumed that the adoption deed is valid being a registered document.

11. It is further submitted that the wife of Late Naval Kishore pre-deceased her husband i.e. Late Naval Kishore, so this issue is of no relevance now at all in the present case.

12. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, going through the record of the case, in the present case, the issue which is to be adjudicated that whether there was any consent in writing or tacit consent of the wife of Late Naval Kishore was there at the time of adoption or not in the light of proviso to Section 7 of the Act, 1956 and the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court relied by learned counsel for the petitioner in the case of Ghisalal and Ors. (supra). For convenience, the proviso to Section 7 of the Act, 1956 is quoted hereinbelow:-

"7. Capacity of a male Hindu to take in adoption.- Any male Hindu who is sound mind and is not a minor has the capacity to take a son or a daughter in adoption:

Provided that, if he has a wife living, he shall not adopt except with the consent of his wife unless the wife has completely and finally renounced the world or has ceased to be a Hindu or has been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind.

Explanation: If a person has more than one wife living at the time of adoption, the consent of all the wives is necessary unless the consent of any one of the them is unnecessary for any of the reasons specified in the preceding proviso."

13. From perusal of the proviso to Section 7 of the Act, 1956, wherein it is provided that a Hindu male can adopt a child but if he has a wife living then her consent is necessary unless the wife has completely and finally renounced the world or is ceased to be a Hindu or has been declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind.

14. In the present case, the adoption deed which was read by learned counsel for respondent no. 3 to establish that there was consent of wife of late Naval Kishore for adoption, but he has failed to show even a single line that his wife consented for adoption, rather he has addressed himself only everywhere i.e. 'I' in place of 'We'. The adoption deed was signed bearing thumb impression of late Naval Kishore, the biological parents of respondent no. 3, the adopted child i.e. Ram Dev Pandey and his wife. If these persons could sign or put their thumb impression on the adoption deed at the time of its registration then the wife of late Naval Kishore could have signed or given her thumb impression on the same. There seems to be no reasons as to why the wife of late Naval Kishore could not have signed or put her thumb impression on the adoption deed while others had done so.

15. It is not necessary that the consent should be in writing. This can be done either by producing documentary evidence showing her consent in writing or by leading evidence to show that wife had actively participating in the ceremonies of adoption with an affirmative mindset to support the action of her husband. For that learned counsel for the respondent no. 3 has submitted that the statements of Ram Ujagir i.e. the person who had been adopted and one Shri Indrajeet, the marginal witness of adoption deed were recorded and both of them in their statement had submitted that the adoption was made with the consent of the wife of late Naval Kishore. But both these persons whose statements have been relied by learned counsel for the respondent no. 3 are interested witness to support and protect the validity of the adoption deed, for the reason one is the person himself who was adopted and second is the marginal witness of the adoption deed. They did not state as to in what manner the wife of late Nawal Kishore expressed her consent for adoption except that she had participated. Except them no other person was adduced/produced to state that wife of late Naval Kishore had consented for the adoption though it was the case of the respondents throughout that after the ceremonies and following rituals in presence of the villagers, Pandit, Nau (barber) the adoption was made. But none of these persons were produced in support of their submissions by respondent no. 3. Even those witnesses namely Indrajeet Tiwari and Ram Ujagir have not stated that wife of late Naval Kishore had actively or otherwise participated in any of the rituals or in the proceedings of adoption, much less with mindset of having given the consent for adoption. As discussed earlier also mere her presence at the time of adoption of little consequence.

16. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ghisa Lal (supra) has interpreted the term "consent" used in proviso to Section 7 of the Act, 1956. The relevant paragraph are quoted hereinbelow:-

"20. The term 'consent' used in the proviso to Section 7 and the explanation appended thereto has not been defined in the Act. Therefore, while interpreting these provisions, the Court shall have to keep in view the legal position obtaining before enactment of the 1956 Act, the object of the new legislation and apply the rule of purposive interpretation and if that is done, it would be reasonable to say that the consent of wife envisaged in the proviso to Section 7 should either be in writing or reflected by an affirmative/positive act voluntarily and willingly done by her. If the adoption by a Hindu male becomes subject matter of challenge before the Court, the party supporting the adoption has to adduce evidence to prove that the same was done with the consent of his wife. This can be done either by producing document evidencing her consent in writing or by leading evidence to show that wife had actively participated in the ceremonies of adoption with an affirmative mindset to support the action of the husband to take a son or a daughter in adoption. The presence of wife as a spectator in the assembly of people who gather at the place where the ceremonies of adoption are performed cannot be treated as her consent. In other words, the Court cannot presume the consent of wife simply because she was present at the time of adoption. The wife's silence or lack of protest on her part also cannot give rise to an inference that she had consented to the adoption.

21. At this stage, we may notice some precedents which have bearing on the interpretation of proviso to Section 7 of the 1956 Act. In Kashibai v. Parwatibai (supra), this Court was called upon to consider whether in the absence of the consent of one of the two wives, the adoption by the husband could be treated valid. The facts of the case show that Plaintiff No. 1 and Defendant No. 1 were two widows of deceased Lachiram. Plaintiff No. 2 was daughter of Lachiram from his first wife Kashibai and Defendant No. 2 was the daughter from his second wife Parwati. Defendant No. 3, Purshottam son of Meena Bai and grandson of Lachiram. The Plaintiffs filed suit for separate possession by partition of a double storey house, open plot and some agricultural lands. The Defendants contested the suit.

One of the pleas taken by them was that Purshottam son of Meena Bai had been adopted by deceased Lachiram vide registered deed of adoption dated 29.4.1970, who had also executed deed of Will in favour of the adopted son bequeathing the suit properties to him and thereby denying any right to the Plaintiffs to claim partition. The trial Court decreed the suit for separate possession by partition by observing that the Defendants have failed to prove the adoption of Purshottam by Lachiram and the execution of Will in his favour. The High Court reversed the judgment of the trial Court and held that the Defendants had succeeded in proving execution of the deed of adoption and the deed of Will in accordance of law and as such the Plaintiffs were not entitled to any share in the suit properties. On appeal, this Court reversed the judgment of the High Court and restored the decree passed by the trial Court. On the issue of adoption of Purshottam, this Court observed:

It is no doubt true that after analysing the parties' evidence minutely the trial court took a definite view that the Defendants had failed to establish that Plaintiff 1, Defendant 1 and deceased Lachiram had taken Defendant 3, Purshottam in adoption. The trial court also recorded the finding that Plaintiff 1 was not a party to the Deed of Adoption as Plaintiff 1 in her evidence has specifically stated that she did not sign the Deed of Adoption nor she consented for such adoption of Purshottam and for that reason she did not participate in any adoption proceedings. On these findings the trial court took the view that the alleged adoption being against the consent of Kashi Bai, Plaintiff 1, it was not valid by virtue of the provisions of Section 7 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956. Section 7 of the Act provides that any male Hindu who is of sound mind and is not a minor has the capacity to take a son or a daughter in adoption. It provides that if he has a wife living, he shall not adopt except with the consent of his wife. In the present case as seen from the evidence discussed by the trial court it is abundantly clear that Plaintiff 1 Kashi Bai the first wife of deceased Lachiram had not only declined to participate in the alleged adoption proceedings but also declined to give consent for the said adoption and, therefore, the plea of alleged adoption advanced by the Defendants was clearly hit by the provisions of Section 7 and the adoption cannot be said to be a valid adoption."

17. The said judgment has been followed by this Court very recently in the case of Uttam Chandra and two others versus State of U.P and ten others in Writ B No. 3822 of 2023, judgment dated 30.11.2023.

18. The other submission of learned counsel for the respondent no. 3 is that the petitioner had not adduced any evidence to disprove that the adoption was without the consent of the wife of late Naval Kishore, the onus was upon them. The said submission of leanred counsel for the respondent no. 3 is not acceptable as the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ghisa Lal (supra) has held, that if the adoption deed by a hindu male becomes subject matter before the Court, the party supporting the adoption has to adduce evidence to prove that the same was done with the consent of his wife. Here it is the respondent no. 3 who had failed to adduce any independent evidence to show that the adoption of respondent no. 3 was with the consent of the wife of late Naval Kishore. Even the participation if any, of the wife of late Naval Kishore in the rituals of adoption, even that cannot be said that it was a consent by the wife of late Nawal Kishore as per the law settled in the case of the Ghisa Lal (supra).

19. The appellate and revisional Court for treating the adoption deed proved had relied upon section 6, 11 and 16 and other sections of the Act, 1956 but no plausible and reasonable finding has been given as far as the objection raised by the petitioners in pursuance to proviso to Section 7 of the Act, 1956 i.e. the consent of the wife of the late Naval Kishore. But merely on the basis of statement of Indrajeet Tiwari, the marginal witness treating the adoption deed valid despite the finding that there was no consent of the wife of late Nawal Kishore in writing.

20. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made hereinabove, it is clear that the adoption was not in accordance with the proviso to Section 7 Act, 1956, since there was not consent of the wife of late Nawal Kishore for the adoption in writing nor it could so inferred by merely her presence during the adoption ceremonies, more particularly, there is affirmative mindset of her consent, as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ghisa Lal (supra) that such a presence would be as an spectator in the assembly of people.

21. In the result, the writ petition is allowed.

22. The impugned revisional order dated 25.05.1987 and appellate order dated 07.01.1985 are hereby quashed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2090
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ C No. 2967 of 2024

Satya Narayan Gupta ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Dinesh Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Respondents:
S.C., Vineet Kumar Singh

U.P. Revenue Code, 2006-Petitioner is a complainant –on his instance proceedings u/s 67 of U.P. Revenue code, 2006 were initiated against the Respondent no.5-on report being called-the proceeding u/s 67 were dropped-Appeal-rejected- Writ is maintainable-cannot be left remedy-less where no other statutory remedy is provided-entire case of Petitioner is based upon the report-report was submitted without proper survey—upon objection by Respondent-alleged constructions existed-Petitioner not been able to demonstrate how the report is bad-no ground to interfere.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rahul Kumar Vs St. of UP & ors. reported in 2023 (9) ADJ 614

2. Ghanshyam Verma & ors. Vs St. of UP & ors. reported in 2021 (7) ADJ 67

3. Rahul Kumar Vs St. of UP & ors. reported in 2023 d(9) ADJ 614

4. Shambhunath Pandey Vs St. of UP & ors.

5. Writ C No. 29440 of 2021,decided on 10.11.2021 Neutral Citation No. 2021:AHC:134861

6. Vivekanand Yadav Vs St. of UP & anr. reported in 2010 (10) ADJ 1 (FB)

7. Narendra Kumar Vs St. of UP & ors. reported in 2013 (1) ADJ 228.

8. Ravi Yashwant Bhoir Vs Collector reported in 2012 (4) SCC 407

9. Dharam Raj Vs St. of U.P. & ors. reported in 2010 (2) AWC 1878 (All)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh Srivastava, J.)

1. Supplementary Affidavit filed by learned counsel for the petitioner is taken on record.

2. Heard Sri Dinesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Abhishek Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel representing the State respondents, Shri Bhupendra Kumar Tripathi, learned counsel representing the Respondent no. 4 and Shri Vineet Kumar Singh, learned counsel who has put in appearance on behalf of the respondent no. 5.

3. The writ petition has been filed questioning the legality, propriety and correctness of the order dated 23.11.2023 passed by the District Magistrate, Chandauli, in Case No. 674 of 2023 in Appeal under Section 67 (5) of the UP Revenue Code, 2006 whereby and whereunder the Appeal preferred by the petitioner through the Gram Sabha concerned against the order dated 01.07.2023 passed by the Tehsildar, respondent no. 3 has been rejected and the order dated 01.07.2023 dropping the proceedings under Section 67 of the Code, 2006 against the respondent no. 5 has been upheld.

4. Admittedly, the petitioner is a complainant on whose instance proceedings under Section 67 of the UP Revenue Code, 2006 were initiated against the respondent no.5. On a report being called on the allegations levelled in the complaint the proceedings under Section 67 were dropped. The Appeal filed by the petitioner against the order dropping the proceedings has been rejected.

5. A preliminary objection has been raised by Sri Vineet Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no. 5 that the writ petition at the instance of the complainant petitioner is not maintainable placing reliance upon a decision of a coordinate Bench of this Court in the Case of Rahul Kumar vs. State of UP and others reported in 2023 (9) ADJ 614.

6. The preliminary objection to the maintainability of the writ petition has been repelled by the learned counsel for the petitioner by submitting that the objection is ill founded in as much as petitioner being a member of the Gaon Sabha is vested with the rights to ensure that the Gaon Sabha land is not encroached upon and places reliance upon a decision of the Coordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Ghanshyam Verma and others vs. State of UP and others reported in 2021 (7) ADJ 67. It is further contended that the Appeal of the petitioner under Section 67 (5) of the UP Revenue Code, 2006 has been rejected and the petitioner cannot be rendered remedy less and is certainly within his rights to assail the order passed in the Appeal in a writ petition where no other statutory remedy is provided under the UP Revenue Code, 2006.

7. This Court on 23.05.2024 while recording the submissions of the respective counsels on the question of maintainability of the writ petition prima facie had opined that the writ petition at the instance of the complainant petitioner whose appeal had been decided against him could maintain the writ petition. However, the case was adjourned to enable the learned counsel for the petitioner to bring on record the Memo of the Appeal. The learned Counsels agreed to make their respective submissions on the maintainability of the writ petition on the next date fixed and accordingly the matter is before this Court.

8. Before this Court dwells into the issue of maintainability of the writ petition at the instance of the petitioner whose status is admittedly that of a complainant, it would be apposite to look into the allegations raised in the complaint against the respondent no. 5.

9. The controversy between the parties is with regard to Arazi No. 227 situate in Mauja Mainur, Patti Chaubisiha, Tehsil-Chakia, District-Chandauli, recorded as 'Kot' in the Revenue Records and is Gram Sabha land. The respondent no. 5 is stated to have illegally occupied the said Gram Sabha land and made temporary constructions over the same. The petitioner is stated to have filed complaint to the revenue authorities apprising them of the illegal encroachment by the respondent no. 5. Acting on the complaint the Assistant Collector/ Tehsildar called for a report and on the basis of the said report issued a notice upon the respondent no. 5 in RC Form-20 requiring the respondent no. 5 to show cause as to why compensation for damage and wrongful occupation not exceeding the amount specified in the notice be not recovered and why he should not be evicted from the land. The respondent no. 5 put in appearance and filed his objections stating that the proceedings under Section 67 of the Code are unwarranted inasmuch as the plot no. 227 is not public utility land rather is an old Abadi of the Zamindars over which their Kothi existed. Plot No. 227 was adjacent to the old Abadi of the village contained in plot No. 186. The ancestors of the petitioner have been residing over the plot by building their houses. Later on an amendment in the objections were sought which were allowed and according to the amended plea of the respondent no. 5, no constructions exist over plot no. 227 rather it exists over plot No. 225 and the entire proceedings under Section 67 are vitiated. An inspection of the spot is stated to have been carried out on 01.06.2023 and a report to that effect submitted on 01.06.2023 which has been brought on record as Annexure 8 to the writ petition.

10. The Assistant Collector/ Tehsildar Chakia-Chandauli under his order has recorded finding of fact on the basis of the report dated 01.06.2023 that constructions raised by the respondent no. 5 is on Bhumidhari land contained in Gata No. 225 and not on Gaon Sabha Land contained in Plot No. 227 which is the subject matter of the proceedings under Section 67 of the Code. He accordingly ordered for withdrawal of the Notice under RC Form-20 against the respondent no. 5 by order dated 01.07.2023.

11. The petitioner preferred an Appeal against the order dated 01.07.2023 which too has been dismissed upholding the findings of the Assistant Collector/ Tehsildar.

12. It is also not out of place to mention here that instructions on behalf of the state respondents have been received which are taken on record. The instructions clearly state that after proper spot inspection and demarcation by the revenue team it has been found that the disputed constructions of the respondent no. 5 exist over his Bhumidhari plot No. 225 and not over 227 as alleged in the complaint and the notice under RC Form-20 has been rightly withdrawn against the respondent no. 5. In para 5 of the instructions it has been clearly averred that no encroachment of the respondent no. 5 has been found over plot No. 227 and the proceedings for eviction of the respondent no. 5 is unwarranted.

13. Now coming to the issue regarding the maintainability of the writ petition learned counsel for the petitioner does not dispute that the petitioner is a complainant. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the land in dispute is Gaon Sabha land and the petitioner being a resident of the same Gaon Sahba has a interest in the land of the Gaon Sabha. In case of encroachment over Gaon Sabha land the petitioner being aggrieved by the order of the Assistant Collector/ Tehsildar dropping the proceeding sunder Section 67 of the Code, 2006 had a right to maintain the Appeal under Section 67 (5) of the Revenue Code, 2006 as the Provision provides that any person aggrieved may within thirty days from the date of such order prefer an appeal to the Collector. The petitioner preferred an Appeal which has been rejected by the impugned order. He is thus aggrieved by the impugned order rejecting the Appeal as also the order dropping the proceedings under Section 67 of the UP Revenue Code, 2006 and can maintain the instant writ petition. Reliance has been placed upon the case of Ghanshyam Verma and others vs. State of UP and others reported in 2021 (7) ADJ 67.

14. Per contra, Sri Vineet Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no. 5 submits that the instant writ petition at the instance of the petitioner who was admittedly a complainant is not maintainable as he cannot be said to be person aggrieved. Reliance has been placed upon the decision in the Case of Rahul Kumar Vs. State of UP and others reported in 2023 d(9) ADJ 614 and also in the case of Shambhunath Pandey vs. State of UP and 6 others, Writ C No. 29440 of 2021, decided on 10.11.2021 Neutral Citation No. 2021:AHC:134861.

15. I have heard the respective counsels for the parties and have perused the materials on record and have also gone through the case laws cited at the Bar.

16. In the opinion of the Court the case of Ghanshyam Verma (supra) cited by learned counsel for the petitioner lays down the proposition of law regarding the maintainability of an Appeal under Section 67 (5) of the Revenue Code, 2006 by a person aggrieved. In that case the challenge to the order of the Assistant Collector First Class/ Tehsildar was laid by which the Notice/ RC From-20 issued to the opposite party therein in proceedings under Section 67 of the UP Revenue Code 2006 had been withdrawn and the Appeal preferred against the said order was dismissed as not maintainable as the Appellant was not a party to the proceedings and thus could not be said to be aggrieved. The Court after correctly interpreting the provisions of Section 67 (5) of the Revenue Code, 2006 and taking note of the fact that the provision 67 (5) used the expression " Any person aggrieved" and not "Any Party aggrieved" held that an Appeal by a non party to the proceedings but aggrieved would be maintainable. The Court proceeded to entertain the writ petition being of the considered view that the Appeal was maintainable but was illegally dismissed as not maintainable on the ground that the Appellant was not party to the proceedings.

17. The factual position in the instant case at hand is slightly different inasmuch as the Appeal filed by the petitioner under Section 67 (5) has not been dismissed as not maintainable rather has been decided on merits recording findings in favour of the respondent no. 5 that there was no encroachment found and in fact the encroachment alleged was found to be over the Bhumidhari plot of the respondent no. 5 and consequently the proceedings were dropped.

18. The moot question for consideration of the Court is whether in the given set of facts the writ petition at the instance of the petitioner is maintainable.

19. The case of Rahul Kumar (supra) cited by Sri Vineet Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no. 5 in turn relies upon the Full Bench decision of this Court in the Case of Vivekanand Yadav vs. State of UP and another reported in 2010 (10) ADJ 1 (FB) as also upon the decision of the Coordinate Bench of this Court in the Case of Narendra Kumar vs. State of UP and others reported in 2013 (1) ADJ 228.

20. The question as regards the locus standi of a Complainant came up for consideration before the Apex Court in the case of Ravi Yashwant Bhoir Vs. Collector reported in 2012 (4) SCC 407 wherein the Apex Court in para 58 of the judgment proceeded to observe as under:

"58. Shri Chintaman Raghunath Gharat, Ex-President was the complainant, thus, at the most, he could lead the evidence as a witness. He could not claim the status of an adversial litigant. The complainant cannot be the party to the lis. A legal right is an averment of entitlement arising out of law. In fact, it is a benefit conferred upon a person by the rule of law. Thus, a person who suffers from legal injury can only challenge the act or omission. There may be some harm or loss that may not be wrongful in the eyes of law because it may not result in injury to a legal right or legally protected interest of the complainant but juridically harm of this description is called damnum sine injuria"

21. Then again a Division Bench of this Court in the case of Dharam Raj Vs. State of UP and others reported in 2010 (2) AWC 1878 (All) with respect to locus of a Complaint observed as under:

"9. As evident from narration of the facts given above, it is evident that the petitioner was one of the complainants in the complaint against the respondent No. 4 on 12.3.2008. The action has since been taken on the complaint so made by the petitioner and others against the respondent No. 4, and fine of Rs. 5,000 has been imposed.

10. In the circumstances, the petitioner cannot have any grievance in the matter, and he is not an aggrieved person rather he is a person annoyed,

11. In the case of R. v. London Country Keepers of the Peace of Justice, (1890) 25 QBD 357, the Court has held:

A person who cannot succeed in getting a conviction against another may be annoyed by the said findings. He may also feel that what he thought to be a breach of law was wrongly held to be not a breach of law by the Magistrate.

He thus may be said to be a person annoyed but not a person aggrieved, entitle to prefer an appeal against such order.

12. According to our opinion a "person aggrieved" means a person who is wrongly deprived of his entitlement which he is legally entitled to receive and it does not include any kind of disappointment or personal inconvenience. "Person aggrieved" means a person who is injured or he is adversely affected in a legal sense.

13. It is settled law that a person who suffers from legal injury only can challenge the act/action/order etc. by filing a writ petition. Writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution is maintainable for enforcing a statutory or legal right or when there is a complaint by the petitioner that there is a breach of the statutory duty on the part of the authorities. Therefore, there must be a judicially enforceable right for the enforcement of which the writ jurisdiction can be resorted to. The Court can enforce the performance of a statutory duty by public bodies through its writ jurisdiction at the behest of a person, provided such person satisfied the Court that he has a legal right to insist on such performance. The existence of the said right is the condition precedent to invoke the writ jurisdiction [Utkal University etc. v. Dr. Nrusingha Charan Sarangi and Ors. AIR 1999 SC 943 and Laxminarayan R. Bhattad and Ors. v. State of Maharashtra and Anr. (2003) 5 SCC 413].

14. Legal right is an averment of entitlement arising out of law. It is, in fact, an advantage or benefit conferred upon a person by a rule of law, [Shanti Kumar R. Canji v. Home Insurance Co. of New York AIR 1974 SC 1719 and State of Rajasthan v. Union of India and Ors. AIR 1977 SC 1361).

15. In Jasbhai Motibhai Desat v. Roshan Kumar Hazi Bashir Ahmad and Ors.: AIR 1976 SC 578, the Apex Court has held that only a person who is aggrieved by an order, can maintain a writ petition. The expression "aggrieved person" has been explained by the Apex Court observing that such a person must show that he has a more particular or peculiar interest of his own beyond that of the general public in seeing that the law is properly administered. In the said case, a cinema hall owner had challenged the sanction of setting up of a rival cinema hall in the town contending that it would adversely affect monopolistic commercial interest, causing pecuniary harm and loss of business from competition. The Hon'ble Apex Court observed as under:

Such harm or loss is not wrongful in the eye of law because it does not result in injury to a legal right or a legally protected interest, the business competition causing it being a lawful activity. Judicially, harm of this description is called damnum sine injuria. The term injuria being here used in its true sense reason why law suffers a person knowingly to inflict harm of this description on another, without holding him accountable for it, is that such harm done to an individual is a gain to society at large. In the light of the above discussion, it is demonstratively clear that the appellant has not been denied or deprived of a legal right. He has not sustained injury to any legally protected interest. In fact, the impugned order does not operate as a decision against him, much less does it wrongfully effect his title to something. He has not been subjected to legal wrong. He has suffered no grievance. He has no legal peg for a justiciable claim to hang on. Therefore, he is not a "person aggrieved" to challenge the ground of the no objection certificate."

In Northern Plastics Ltd. v. Hindustan Photo Films Mfg Co. Ltd. and Ors.

MANU/SC/1151/1997MANU/SC/1151/1997 : (1997) 4 SCC 452, the Hon'ble Supreme Court again considered the meaning of "person aggrieved" and "locus of a rival Government undertaking" and held that a rival businessman cannot maintain a writ petition on the ground that its business prospects would be adversely affected.

16. The view taken by us that the petitioner is not a person aggrieved, thus he has no locus standi to file the present writ petition thereby challenging the order dated 16.3.2009 passed by Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Jaisinghpur, district Sultanpur is also supported by the decision of this Court in the case of Suresh Singh v. Commissioner Moradabad Division 1993 (1) AWC 601, where it was held that in an inquiry under Section 95(g) of the U.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1947, the complainant who was Up-Pradhan could be a witness in. an inquiry but had no locus standi to approach this Court against the order of the State authorities, for the reasons that none of his personal statutory right are affected.

17. As such the petitioner has no locus standi to file the present writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Even otherwise having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, we are not inclined to exercise our discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. "

22. In the light of the above and taking note of the fact that the petitioner had been permitted to file an Appeal under Section 67 (5) of the Code which has been decided against him by the impugned order, the Court is of the opinion that the writ petition at the instance of the petitioner is maintainable. The petitioner cannot be left remedy-less to challenge a decision rendered against him in a statutory Appeal where no other statutory remedy is provided. the writ petition is thus held to be maintainable. However, maintainability of the writ petition is one thing while entertainability of the writ petition is another. Maintainability of the writ petition does not mean that the writ petition is liable to be entertained also.

23. Now coming to the entertainability of the writ petition the Court on the perusal of the impugned order under Section 67 of the Code 2006 is of the opinion that the proceedings against the respondent no. 5 have been dropped on the ground that after proper survey of the plot by the Revenue Team and the report dated 01.06.2023 submitted along with the field Book it was found that the alleged constructions existed over plot No. 225 which is the Bhumidhari of the respondent no. 5 and not over plot No. 227 alleged in the RC Form-20 issued against him. The entire case of the petitioner is based upon the report dated 17.12.2017 on the basis of which the proceedings under Section 67 is stated to have been initiated. The report dated 17.12.2017 was submitted without proper survey. Once the objections were filed by the respondent no. 5, fresh survey/ demarcation by taking fixed points was carried out and it was found that alleged constructions existed over plot No. 225 and not over 227. The petitioner in the entire writ petition has not been able to demonstrate how the report dated 01.06.2023 is bad.

24. In view of the above the Court finds that though the writ petition at the instance of the petitioner/ complainant is maintainable against the order rejecting his appeal under Section 67 (5) of the UP Revenue Code, 2006, but there exists no good ground to interfere with the impugned orders. As a result the writ petition is dismissed being devoid of merits. There shall however be no order as to Costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2097
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Writ C No. 20603 of 2007

Vinod Kumar Jain ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Ms. Aarushi Khare, Advocate

Counsel for the Respondents:
Mr. Rishi Kumar, Addl. C.S.C.

The U.P. Stamp (valuation of Property) Rules, 1997- The Petitioner purchased certain plots of land and paid stamp duty-name recorded as bhumidhar with transferable rights-after three years he received a show cause notice based on an alleged inspection report-matter proceeded exparte and order passed same day imposing deficiency of stamp and penalty with interest- nature of land at the time of execution was agricultural –authorities treated the land as non-agricultural-when St. conducts a spot inspection without involving property owner-it undermines credibility and fairness of entire valuation process-impugned order quashed.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Smt. Pushpa Sareen Vs St. of U.P. reported in (2015) 0 Supreme (All) 132

2. Raj Kumar Vs St. of U.P. & ors. (Writ-C No.19644 of 2016 decided on April 13, 2023)

3. S.R. Cold Storage Vs Union of India & ors. reported in 2022 SCC online (All) 550; {[2022] 448 ITR 37 (All)}

4. Mrs. Maneka Gandhi Vs Union of India & anr. reported in (1978) 1 SCC 248

5. St. of Kerala Vs K.T. Shaduli Grocery Dealer Etc. reported in (1977) 2 SCC 777

6. Dharampal Satyapal Limited Vs Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise, Gauhati & ors. reported in (2015) 8 SCC 519

7. Madhyamam Broadcasting Limited Vs Union of India & ors. 15 reported in ILR 2023 (2) Kerala 545; (2023 SCC OnLine 366)

8. St. Bank of India & ors. Vs Rajesh Agarwal & ors. reported in (2023) 6 SCC 1

9. Ridge Vs Baldwin reported in [1964] AC 40

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed by Vinod Kumar Jain (hereinafter referred to as the 'Petitioner') assailing the order dated December 7, 2006 passed by the District Magistrate/Collector, Jhansi (hereinafter referred to as the 'Respondent No. 2').

FACTS

2. The facts giving rise to the instant writ petition are delineated below:

a. The Petitioner purchased certain plots of land vide a registered sale deed dated July 17, 2002 and the paid stamp duty on the same.

b. The name of the Petitioner was recorded in revenue records as bhumidhar with transferable rights.

c. After a period of three years from the date of execution of the sale deed, the Petitioner was served with a show cause notice dated January 7, 2005 which was based on an alleged inspection report dated December 4, 2004.

d. On the date fixed, that is on June 26, 2006, the authority concerned proceeded with the matter ex parte and passed an order on the same day imposing deficiency of stamp, penalty along with interest on the Petitioner. The Petitioner submitted an application on the same day before the authority concerned in order for his reply to be taken on record. However, the authority concerned rejected the said application saying that since the order has been passed, the reply will not be considered.

e. Aggrieved with the aforesaid order dated June 26, 2006 the Petitioner approached this Court by way of a writ petition which was dismissed by this Court on the ground that the Petitioner had an alternative efficacious remedy available.

f. Thereafter, the Petitioner preferred a revision application before the Respondent No.2 and deposited 1/3rd of the deficit amount as alleged by the Department. The said revision application was dismissed vide order dated December 7, 2006.

g. Aggrieved by the order dated December 7, 2006, the Petitioner has preferred the instant writ petition before this Court.

CONTENTIONS OF THE PETITIONER

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Petitioner has made the following submissions:

a. The nature of the land at the time of execution of the sale deed dated July 17, 2002 was agricultural and the same has been admitted by the Respondent No.2 in his order dated June 26, 2006.

b. The authorities concerned have treated the land as non- agricultural for the purposes of levying additional stamp duty. This too has been done after three years of the execution of the registered instrument without there being any material basis to do so or any exemplar to compare. .

c. No notice was give to the Petitioner regarding the alleged spot verification. The same has also not been denied by the Respondents. The spot verification was not carried out as per Rule 7(3)(c) of the Uttar Pradesh Stamp (Valuation of Property) Rules, 1997 (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules"), which is mandatory.

d. As per Rule 7(3)(c) of the Rules, spot inspection has to be conducted after giving due notice to the parties to the instrument. While a spot inspection was conducted on January 4, 2004, no notice of the same was ever given to the Petitioner. After the said spot inspection, a show cause notice dated January 7, 2005 was issued to the Petitioner.

e. At the relevant point of time, the land in question was agricultural in nature and there were no structures or any activity apart from agriculture being carried out on the said land.

f. The Collector must have material on record to come to a finding as to the potential use of the land and only thereafter, assess the same on the basis of such potential use.

4 g. Spot inspection report does not disclose any material relied upon to come to the conclusion that the Petitioner's land is non-agricultural in nature.

h. Respondents do not dispute the fact that the Petitioner's land was being used only for agricultural purposes at the time of execution of the sale deed and also at the time of the alleged spot inspection.

CONTENTIONS OF THE RESPONDENTS

4. Learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing on behalf of the State Respondents has made the following submissions:

a. A proceeding under Section 47-A of the Act was initiated on the basis of the report of the Tehsildar which indicated that true facts were not stated in the sale deed as provided under Section 27 of the Act. As per relevant provisions of the Rules, the Petitioner has not paid stamp duty correctly.

b. The Petitioner did not file any reply to the show cause notice issued against him even after several opportunities were provided for the same.

c. The Collector, Jhansi, after considering the report of the Tehsildar and the Committee and the relevant provisions has determined the deficiency along with penalty.

d. The Collector placed reliance on the spot inspection report of the revenue authority, which was based on the prevailing market value at the time of registration of the sale deed. The order of the Collector, Jhansi determining the deficiency was in accordance with the relevant provisions.

e. The Petitioner despite the opportunity being given could not produce any reliable evidence in support of his case and as such the Respondent No.2 has rightly dismissed the revision application filed by the Petitioner as the Respondent No.2 did 5 not find any grounds to interfere with the earlier order passed by Collector.

f. The order impugned in the instant writ petition was passed after affording full opportunity of hearing as per the relevant provisions and applicable rates prevailing in the market.

g. The reports submitted by Tehsildar, Asst. Commissioner Stamp and the Additional Collector (F&R) were on record and the contention of the Petitioner in this regard is misconceived.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

5. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the materials on record.

6. On the power of the Collector under Section 47-A of the Act, reference can be made to the judgment of the Full Bench of this Court in Smt. Pushpa Sareen v. State of U.P. reported in (2015) 0 Supreme (All) 132 penned by the Hon'ble Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud, C.J. (as his Lordship then was). The relevant paragraphs are extracted herein:

"26. The true test for determination by the Collector is the market value of the property on the date of the instrument because, under the provisions of the Act, every instrument is required to be stamped before or at the time of execution. In making that determination, the Collector has to be mindful of the fact that the market value of the property may vary from location to location and is dependent upon a large number of circumstances having a bearing on the comparative advantages or disadvantages of the land as well as the use to which the land can be put on the date of the execution of the instrument.

27. Undoubtedly, the Collector is not permitted to launch upon a speculative inquiry about the prospective use to which a land may be put to use at an uncertain future date. The market value of the property has to be determined with reference to the use to which the land is capable reasonably of being put to immediately or in the proximate future. The possibility of the land becoming available in the immediate or near future for better use and enjoyment reflects upon the potentiality of the land. This potential has to be assessed with reference to the date of the execution of the instrument. In other words, the power of the Collector cannot be unduly circumscribed by 6 ruling out the potential to which the land can be advantageously deployed at the time of the execution of the instrument or a period reasonably proximate thereto. Again the use to which land in the area had been put is a material consideration. If the land surrounding the property in question has been put to commercial use, it would be improper to hold that this is a circumstance which should not weigh with the Collector as a factor which influences the market value of the land.

28. The fact that the land was put to a particular use, say for instance a commercial purpose at a later point in time, may not be a relevant criterion for deciding the value for the purpose of stamp duty, as held by the Supreme Court in State of U.P. and others vs. Ambrish Tandon and another11. This is because the nature of the user is relateable to the date of purchase which is relevant for the purpose of computing the stamp duty. Where, however, the potential of the land can be assessed on the date of the execution of the instrument itself, that is clearly a circumstance which is relevant and germane to the determination of the true market value. At the same time, the exercise before the Collector has to be based on adequate material and cannot be a matter of hypothesis or surmise. The Collector must have material on the record to the effect that there has been a change of use or other contemporaneous sale deeds in respect of the adjacent areas that would have a bearing on the market value of the property which is under consideration. The Collector, therefore, would be within jurisdiction in referring to exemplars or comparable sale instances which have a bearing on the true market value of the property which is required to be assessed. If the sale instances are comparable, they would also reflect the potentiality of the land which would be taken into consideration in a price agreed upon between a vendor and a purchaser."

7. Upon a perusal of the judgment in Smt. Pushpa Sareen's case (supra), what emerges is that the Collector can assess the potential use of the land on the date of execution of the instrument for determination of true market value. However, this exercise by the Collector has to be based on adequate materials and cannot be a matter of hypothesis or surmise. The Collector's finding as to the potential use of the land must be backed by sufficient evidence. In the absence of any materials or sufficient evidence to support its findings, the Collector cannot base his valuation on conjectures and surmises.

8. Further reliance can be placed on the judgment of a Coordinate Bench of this Court in Raj Kumar v. State of U.P. and others (Writ-C No.19644 of 2016 decided on April 13, 2023) wherein it was held that spot inspection has to be carried out in terms of Rule 7(3)(c) of the Rules. Furthermore, the Court held that burden of proof is on the State to establish the payment of deficient stamp duty. It was further held that the valuation of the land in question has to be made on concrete grounds. The relevant paragraphs of Raj Kumar's case (supra) are delineated below:

17. Moreover, had the allegation of the State been to the effect that though the land was purchased for agricultural purposes, but its user was immediately changed and on the date of sale deed, it was being used for any other purpose like, industrial, commercial or even residential, the situation would have been different. Even in those situations, spot inspection at the relevant point of time was a necessity, but, admittedly, in the present case, no spot inspection has been carried out. Necessity of spot inspection and its mandatory nature, with reference to Rule 7 (3) (c) of the aforesaid Rules of 1997, has been reiterated, time and again by this Court in various authorities including Ajay Agarwal and others vs Commissioner Lucknow and others, reported in 2023 (2) ADJ 561 (LB), and Ram Khelawan alias Bachcha vs State of U.P. and another, reported in 2005 (2) AWC 1087.

*****

19. The observations/findings recorded in the orders impugned are also contrary to principles of burden of proof particularly, in a case where proceedings arise out of a fiscal statute. Once the State was proceeding to impose deficient stamp duty upon the petitioner, the entire burden lay upon the State to establish beyond reasonable doubt that the petitioner made some concealment at the time of getting the sale deed executed in his favour or that within a close proximity of dates, the user of the land in dispute was changed so as to levy additional stamp duty. Nothing to this effect has been brought on record, rather, not only the findings recorded in the orders impugned are contrary to the provisions of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, as applicable in the State of U.P. as well as U.P. Stamp (Valuation of Property) Rules, 1997, but certainly contrary to the law consistently laid down by this Court.

9. When the State seeks to impose additional financial liabilities, such as higher stamp duty, it must provide clear and compelling evidence to justify its claims. This principle ensures that property owners are not subjected to arbitrary or unjustified financial burdens. It serves as a cornerstone of fairness and accountability in the legal process, protecting individuals and entities from potential misuse of governmental power. In the context of stamp duty, the burden of proof involves demonstrating that the assessed value of the property, and thus the calculated duty, is accurate and based on tangible, verifiable data. This requirement is essential to prevent arbitrary valuations that could result from assumptions or inadequate investigations. By ensuring that the State must justify its claims with clear evidence, the principle safeguards property owners from potential overreach and ensures that any additional financial burdens are warranted and fair. Courts have constantly underscored that when the State seeks to levy additional taxes or duties, it must do so based on robust and substantiated evidence. For instance, in the case of Raj Kumar v. State of U.P (supra), this Court highlighted that the entire burden of establishing the necessity for additional stamp duty lies with the State. This Court emphasized that without concrete evidence demonstrating a change in the land's use or value, the imposition of additional duty would be unfounded and unjust. Similarly, in the landmark case of Smt. Pushpa Sareen v. State of U.P. (supra), the Full Bench of this Court elaborated on the nature and extent of evidence required from the State. The judgment in Pushpa Sareen (supra) underscored that the State must provide detailed and specific evidence about the land's current use, potential use, and market value. General assumptions or indirect evidence are insufficient to meet this burden. The court's insistence on a high standard of proof reflects the principle's role in ensuring fairness and protecting property owners' rights.

10. In the present case, indubitably the spot verification was not carried out as per the Rules. Such being the case, the burden of proof that rested solely on the Revenue to indicate the nature of the land and the potential use of the land was not discharged properly. The spot verification was conducted without affording an opportunity to the Petitioners, and the same cannot be sustained.

11. It is trite law that principles of audi alteram partem are required to be followed by the authority and giving a go by to the same results in violation of the principles of natural justice. One may examine the development of the law in relation to natural justice. The Division Bench of this Court in S.R. Cold Storage v. Union of India and Others reported in 2022 SCC online (All) 550; {[2022] 448 ITR 37 (All)} held as follows:

"25. The first and foremost principle of natural justice is commonly known as audi alteram partem rule. It says that no one should be condemned unheard. Notice is the first limb of this principle. It must be precise and unambiguous. It should appraise the party determinatively the case he has to meet. Time given for the purpose should be adequate so as to enable him to make his representation. In the absence of a notice of the kind and reasonable opportunity, the order passed becomes wholly vitiated. Thus, it is but essential that a party should be put on notice of the case before any adverse order is passed against him. It is an approved rule of fair play.

26. The principles of natural justice are those rules which have been laid down by the courts as being the minimum protection of the rights of the individual against the arbitrary procedure that may be adopted by a judicial, quasi-judicial and administrative authority while making an order affecting those rights. These rules are intended to prevent such authority from doing injustice. Even an administrative order which involves civil consequences must be consistent with the rules of natural justice.

27. The expression "civil consequences" encompasses infraction of not merely property or personal rights but of civil liberties, material deprivations, and non-pecuniary damages. In its wide umbrella comes everything that affects a citizen in his civil life.

28. Natural justice has been variously defined by different judges, for instance a duty to act fairly, the substantial requirements of justice, the natural sense of what is right and wrong, fundamental justice and fair-play in action. Over the years by a process of judicial interpretation two rules have been evolved as representing the principles of natural justice in judicial process, including therein quasi-judicial and administrative process. They constitute the basic elements of a fair hearing, having their roots in the innate sense of man for fair-play and justice which is not the preserve of any particular race or country but is shared in common by all men. The first rule is "nemo judex in causa sua" or "nemo debet esse judex in propria causa sua" that is no man shall be a judge in his own cause. The second rule is "audi alteram partem", that is, "hear the other side". A corollary has been deduced from the above two rules and particularly the audi alteram partem rule, i. e., "he who shall decide anything without the other side having been heard, although he may have said what is right, will not have been what is right" or in other words, as it is now expressed, "justice should not only be done but should manifestly be seen to be done". Natural justice is the essence of fair adjudication, deeply rooted in tradition and conscience, to be ranked as fundamental. The purpose of following the principles of natural justice is the prevention of miscarriage of justice."

12. The Supreme Court, in the celebrated constitutional judgment in Mrs. Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India and another reported in (1978) 1 SCC 248, while dealing with a challenge laid to an order by which a passport was impounded, expounded upon the significance of the principles of audi alteram partem to the doctrine of natural justice. Justice P.N. Bhagwati while authoring the judgment beautifully expounded the said principles as follows:

"14. But at the same time it must be remembered that this is a rule of vital importance in the field of administrative law and it must not be jettisoned save in very exceptional circumstances where compulsive necessity so demands. It is a wholesome rule designed to secure the rule of law and the court should not be too ready to eschew it in its application to a given case. True it is that in questions of this kind a fanatical or doctrinaire approach should be avoided, but that does not mean that merely because the traditional methodology of a formalised hearing may have the effect of stultifying the exercise of the statutory power, the audi alteram partem should be wholly excluded. The court must make every effort to salvage this cardinal rule to the maximum extent permissible in a given case. It must not be forgotten that "natural justice is pragmatically flexible and is amenable to capsulation under the compulsive pressure of circumstances". The audi alteram partem rule is not cast in a rigid mould and judicial decisions establish that it may suffer situational modifications. The core of it must, however, remain, namely, that the person affected must have a reasonable opportunity of being heard and the hearing must be a genuine hearing and not an empty public relations exercise. That is why Tucker, L.J., emphasised in Russel v. Duke of Norfolk [(1949) 1 All ER 109] that "whatever standard of natural justice is adopted, one essential is that the person concerned should have a reasonable opportunity of presenting his case". What opportunity may be regarded as reasonable would necessarily depend on the practical necessities of the situation. It may be a sophisticated full-fledged hearing or it may be a hearing which is very brief and minimal : it may be a hearing prior to the decision or it may even be a post-decisional remedial hearing. The audi alteram partem rule is sufficiently flexible to permit modifications and variations to suit the exigencies of myriad kinds of situations which may arise."

13. Subsequently, the Supreme Court, in State of Kerala v. K.T. Shaduli Grocery Dealer Etc. reported in (1977) 2 SCC 777, examined the principle of natural justice as follows:

"2. Now, the law is well settled that tax authorities entrusted with the power to make assessment of tax discharge quasi- judicial functions and they are bound to observe principles of natural justice in reaching their conclusions. It is true, as pointed out by this Court in Dhakeswari Cotton Mills Ltd. v. CIT [AIR 1955 SC 154:(1955) 1 SCR 941:(1955) 27 ITR 126] that a taxing officer "is not fettered by technical rules of evidence and pleadings, and that he is entitled to act on material which may not be accepted as evidence in a court of law", but that does not absolve him from the obligation to comply with the fundamental rules of justice which have come to be known in the jurisprudence of administrative law as principles of natural justice. It is, however, necessary to remember that the rules of natural justice are not a constant: they are not absolute and rigid rules having universal application. It was pointed out by this Court in Suresh Koshy George v. University of Kerala [AIR 1969 SC 198 : (1969) 1 SCR 317 : (1969) 1 SCJ 543] that "the rules of natural justice are not embodied rules" and in the same case this Court approved the following observations from the judgment of Tucker, L.J. in Russel v. Duke of Norfolk [(1949) 1 All ER 109] :

"There are, in my view, no words which are of universal application to every kind of inquiry and every kind of domestic tribunal. The requirements of natural justice must depend on the circumstances of the case, the nature of the inquiry, the rules under which the tribunal is acting, the subject-matter that is being dealt with, and so forth. Accordingly I do not derive much assistance from the definitions of natural justice which have been from time to time used, but, whatever standard is adopted, one essential is that the person concerned should have a reasonable opportunity of presenting his case."

3. One of the rules which constitutes a part of the principles of natural justice is the rule of audi alteram partem which requires that no man should be condemned unheard. It is indeed a requirement of the duty to act fairly which lies on all quasi- judicial authorities and this duty has been extended also to the authorities holding administrative enquiries involving civil consequences or affecting rights of parties because as pointed out by this Court in A.K. Kraipak v. Union of India [(1969) 2 SCC 262 : (1970) 1 SCR 457] "the aim of the rules of natural justice is to secure justice or to put it negatively, to prevent miscarriage of justice" and justice, in a society which has accepted socialism as its article of faith in the Constitution is dispensed not only by judicial or quasi-judicial authorities but also by authorities discharging administrative functions. This rule which requires an opportunity to be heard to be given to a person likely to be affected by a decision is also, like the genus of which it is a species, not an inflexible rule having a fixed connotation. It has a variable content depending on the nature of the inquiry, the framework of the law under which it is held, the constitution of the authority holding the inquiry, the nature and character of the rights affected and the consequences flowing from the decision. It is, therefore, not possible to say that in every case the rule of audi alteram partem requires that a particular specified procedure is to be followed. It may be that in a given case the rule of audi alteram partem may import a requirement that witnesses whose statements are sought to be relied upon by the authority holding the inquiry should be permitted to be cross- examined by the party affected while in some other case it may not. The procedure required to be adopted for giving an opportunity to a person to be heard must necessarily depend on facts and circumstances of each case."

14. Justice P.N. Bhagwati further expounded on the necessity of disclosing to the assessee the information relied upon by the authorities. The relevant extract is provided below:

"12. This Court further fully approved of the four propositions laid down by the Lahore High Court in Seth Gurmukh Singh v. Commissioner of Income Tax [(1944) 12 ITR 393 (Lahore HC)]. This Court was of the opinion that the Taxing Authorities had violated certain fundamental rules of natural justice in that they did not disclose to the assessee the information supplied to it by the departmental representatives. This case was relied upon by this Court in a later decision in Raghubar Mandal Harihar Mandal's case (supra) where it reiterated the decision of this Court in Dhakeswari Cotton Mills Ltd.'s case (supra), and while further endorsing the decision of the Lahore High Court in Seth Gurmukh Singh's case pointed out the rules laid down by the Lahore High Court for proceeding under sub- section (3) of Section 23 of the Income-tax Act and observed as follows:

"The rules laid down in that decision were these: (1) While proceeding under sub-section (3) of section 23 of the Income-tax Act, the Income-tax Officer is not bound to rely on such evidence produced by the assessee as he considers to be false; (2) if he proposes to make an estimate in disregard of the evidence, oral or documentary, led by the assessee, he should in fairness disclose to the assessee the material on which he is going to found that estimate; (3) he is not however debarred from relying on private sources of information, which sources he may not disclose to the assessee at all; and (4) in case he proposes to use against the assessee the result of any private inquiries made by him, he must communicate to the assessee the substance of the information so proposed to be utilised to such an extent as to put the assessee in possession of full particulars of the case he is expected to meet and should further give him ample opportunity to meet it, if possible."

It will thus be noticed that this Court clearly laid down that while the Income-tax Officer was not debarred from relying on any material against the assessee, justice and fair-play demanded that the sources of information relied upon by the Income-tax Officer must be disclosed to the assessee so that he is in a position to rebut the same and an opportunity should be given to the assessee to meet the effect the aforesaid information."

15. Going forward, the Supreme Court in Dharampal Satyapal Limited v. Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise, Gauhati and others reported in (2015) 8 SCC 519 outlined the fundamental importance of providing an opportunity for hearing before making any decision, and characterized it as a basic requirement in any legal proceedings. The Supreme Court further propounded that compliance with principles of natural justice is an implied mandatory requirement, and non-observance of these principles can invalidate the exercise of power. Relevant paragraphs have been extracted below:

28. It is on the aforesaid jurisprudential premise that the fundamental principles of natural justice, including audi alteram partem, have developed. It is for this reason that the courts have consistently insisted that such procedural fairness has to be adhered to before a decision is made and infraction thereof has led to the quashing of decisions taken. In many statutes, provisions are made ensuring that a notice is given to a person against whom an order is likely to be passed before a decision is made, but there may be instances where though an authority is vested with the powers to pass such orders, which affect the liberty or property of an individual but the statute may not contain a provision for prior hearing. But what is important to be noted is that the applicability of principles of natural justice is not dependent upon any statutory provision. The principle has to be mandatorily applied irrespective of the fact as to whether there is any such statutory provision or not.

***

30. Wade [Administrative Law (1977) 395] also emphasises that principles of natural justice operate as implied mandatory requirements, non-observance of which invalidates the exercise of power.

***

35. From the aforesaid discussion, it becomes clear that the opportunity to provide hearing before making any decision was considered to be a basic requirement in the court proceeding. Later on, this principle was applied to other quasi-judicial authorities and other tribunals and ultimately it is now clearly laid down that even in the administrative actions, where the decision of the authority may result in civil consequences, a hearing before taking a decision is necessary. It was, thus, observed in A.K. Kraipak v. Union of India; [(1969) 2 SCC 262] that if the purpose of rules of natural justice is to prevent miscarriage of justice, one fails to see how these rules should not be made available to administrative inquiries. In Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India; [(1978) 1 SCC 248] also the application of principle of natural justice was extended to the administrative action of the State and its authorities. It is, thus, clear that before taking an action, service of notice and giving of hearing to the noticee is required. In Maharashtra State Financial Corporation v. Suvarna Board Mills; [(1994) 5 SCC 566] , this aspect was explained in the following manner :

"3. It has been contended before us by the learned counsel for the appellant that principles of natural justice were satisfied before taking action under Section 29, assuming that it was necessary to do so. Let it be seen whether it was so. It is well settled that natural justice cannot be placed in a straitjacket; its rules are not embodied and they do vary from case to case and from one fact-situation to another. All that has to be seen is that no adverse civil consequences are allowed to ensue before one is put on notice that the consequence would follow if he would not take care of the lapse, because of which the action as made known is contemplated. No particular form of notice is the demand of law. All will depend on facts and circumstances of the case."

16. One may further refer to the recent judgment of the Supreme Court in Madhyamam Broadcasting Limited v. Union of India and others reported in ILR 2023 (2) Kerala 545; (2023 SCC OnLine 366) wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court highlighted that the principles of natural justice of which audi alteram partem is a part, guarantee a reasonable procedure which is a requirement entrenched in Articles 14, 19 and 21 of the Constitution of India. Chief Justice Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud while authoring the judgment has succinctly examined the principles of natural justice and after examining the Supreme Court's ratio in umpteen cases has penned the relevant paragraph which is extracted below:

"47. The judgment of this Court in Maneka Gandhi (supra) spearheaded two doctrinal shifts on procedural fairness because of the constitutionalising of natural justice. Firstly, procedural fairness was no longer viewed merely as a means to secure a just outcome but a requirement that holds an inherent value in itself. In view of this shift, the Courts are now precluded from solely assessing procedural infringements based on whether the procedure would have prejudiced the outcome of the case [See S.L. Kapoor v. Jagmohan; (1980) 4 SCC 379 "The non-observance of natural justice is itself prejudice to any man and proof of prejudice independently of proof of denial of natural justice is unnecessary"; also see Swadeshi Cotton Mills v. Union of India; A.I.R. 1981 S.C. 818]. Instead, the courts would have to decide if the procedure that was followed infringed upon the right to a fair and reasonable procedure, independent of the outcome. In compliance with this line of thought, the courts have read the principles of natural justice into an enactment to save it from being declared unconstitutional on procedural grounds [See Olga Tellis v. Bombay Municipal Corporation: (1985) 3 SCC 545; C.B. Gautam v. Union of India:(1993) 1 SCC 78; Sahara India (Firm), Lucknow v. Commissioner of Income Tax, Central-I: (2008) 14 SCC 151 and Kesar Enterprises v. State of Uttar Pradesh: (2011) 13 SCC 733]. Secondly, natural justice principles breathe reasonableness into the procedure. Responding to the argument that the principles of natural justice are not static but are capable of being moulded to the circumstances, it was held that the core of natural justice guarantees a reasonable procedure which is a constitutional requirement entrenched in Articles 14, 19 and 21. The facet of audi alterum partem encompasses the components of notice, contents of the notice, reports of inquiry, and materials that are available for perusal. While situational modifications are permissible, the rules of natural justice cannot be modified to suit the needs of the situation to such an extent that the core of the principle is abrogated because it is the core that infuses procedural reasonableness. The burden is on the applicant to prove that the procedure that was followed (or not followed) by the adjudicating authority, in effect, infringes upon the core of the right to a fair and reasonable hearing."

17. Chief Justice Dr. D.Y. Chandrachud has further elaborated on the principles of natural justice in State Bank of India and others v. Rajesh Agarwal and others reported in (2023) 6 SCC 1. The relevant paragraph is delineated below:

"36. We need to bear in mind that the principles of natural justice are not mere legal formalities. They constitute substantive obligations that need to be followed by decision- making and adjudicating authorities. The principles of natural justice act as a guarantee against arbitrary action, both in terms of procedure and substance, by judicial, quasi-judicial, and administrative authorities. Two fundamental principles of natural justice are entrenched in Indian jurisprudence: (i) nemo judex in causa sua, which means that no person should be a judge in their own cause; and (ii) audi alteram partem, which means that a person affected by administrative, judicial or quasi-judicial action must be heard before a decision is taken. The courts generally favor interpretation of a statutory provision consistent with the principles of natural justice because it is presumed that the statutory authorities do not intend to contravene fundamental rights. Application of the said principles depends on the facts and circumstances of the case, express language and basic scheme of the statute under which the administrative power is exercised, the nature and purpose for which the power is conferred, and the final effect of the exercise of that power." .

18. The common thread that runs across these judgments is that although the principle of audi alteram partem can evolve itself given the facts and circumstances of each case, its significance and applicability is universal. Audi alteram partem, which is a part of the doctrine of natural justice, finds its roots primarily in the constitutionally guaranteed ideal of equality. This principle ensures that no one is condemned, penalized, or deprived of their rights without a fair and reasonable opportunity of hearing. It acts as a safeguard against arbitrary decision-making, upholding the principle of due process while also providing a crucial foundation for just and equitable legal or administrative proceedings.

19. The principle of natural justice dictates that individuals affected by a decision must be given an opportunity to present their case and contest any adverse findings. This principle, often encapsulated in the Latin phrase "audi alteram partem" (hear the other side), is a fundamental aspect of fair legal procedures. When a spot inspection is conducted ex parte, it violates this principle by depriving the property owner of their right to be heard.

20. The importance of adhering to principles of natural justice in administrative actions has been repeatedly emphasized by the courts. In the case of Ridge v. Baldwin reported in [1964] AC 40 , the House of Lords held that failure to observe the principles of natural justice renders a decision void. Similarly, in Indian jurisprudence, the Supreme Court in Maneka Gandhi v. Union of India (supra) stressed the importance of the principles of natural justice. When the State conducts a spot inspection without involving the property owner, it undermines the credibility and fairness of the entire valuation process. The property owner is denied the chance to provide relevant information, challenge inaccurate observations, or present counter-evidence. This one-sided approach can lead to incorrect or biased assessments, resulting in unjust financial burdens on the property owner.

21. To rectify such procedural injustices, courts have the authority to set aside any actions or decisions made without adhering to the principles of natural justice. In the present case, since the spot inspection was carried out ex parte and without affording an opportunity to the Petitioner, the findings of that inspection cannot be sustained.

22. Accordingly, the impugned order dated December 7, 2006 is quashed and set aside. The amount, if any, deposited by the petitioner towards deficient stamp duty, should be returned to the petitioner along with interest @ 4 per cent within six weeks from date. Compliance in this regard must be filed by the Department after such payment is made.

23. With the above directions, this writ petition is allowed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2109
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 31.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MRS. SANGEETA CHANDRA, J.
THE HON'BLE BRIJ RAJ SINGH, J.

Writ Tax No. 114 of 2024

Eveready Industries India Ltd., Lko. ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Atma Ram Verma

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C.

Civil Law - Uttar Pradesh Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017-Company was registered under UPGST Act-audit notice issued-survey of the premise was conducted-another notice of FORM GST ADT-01 was issued on similar grounds-Petitioner complied with all the directions-not given information regarding action taken in furtherance of audit notices-show cause notice issued relying upon audit FORM GST ADT-01-no audit report was ever issued to the Petitioner-notice without date, time and place of hearing-mandate of sec 75 (4) provides personal hearing-not granted personal hearing-stating that action taken u/s 74(9) does not provide for personal hearing-sec. 75 clearly St.s that it describes the 'General Provisions relating to Determining tax'-sub-section (4) followed by sub sec.(5) requires an officer to adjourn a hearing on the request of person chargeable to tax-such word can only be interpreted to mean giving "personal hearing"-impugned orders set aside.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Writ- Tax No.1029 of 2021: Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals Vs Commissioner, Commercial Tax & ors., (2022) Vol.48 VLJ 325, decided on 04.03.2022;

2. Writ Tax No.551 of 2023: M/s Mohini Traders Vs St. of U.P. & anr., decided on 03.05.2023

3. Writ Tax No.44 of 2024: M/s Mahendra Educational Pvt. Ltd. Vs St. of U.P., decided on 05.03.2024

4. M/s Trutuf Safety Glass Industries Vs Commissioner of Sales Tax, UP , 2007 (7) SCC 242

5. Commissioner of Sales Tax Vs Parson Tools & Plants, 1975 (4) SCC 22

6. Godrej and Boyce Manufacturing Co. Ltd.& anr., 2017 (7) SCC 421

7. Pearl Berg Vs Varty, (1972) 2 All ER 6

8. Institute of Chartered Accountants of India Vs M/s Price Waterhouse & anr., AIR 1998 Supreme Court 74

9. D.R. Venkatachalam & ors., etc Vs Deputy Transport Commissioner & ors., AIR 1977 Supreme Court 842

10. Bharat Aluminium Company Vs Kaiser Aluminium Technical Services Inc., reported in 2012 (9) SCC 552

11. Canada Sugar Refining Co. Ltd.Vs The Queen (Canada) 1898 AC 735

12. Commissioner of Customs (Import), Mumbai Vs Dilip Kumar & Co.& ors., 2018 (9)22 SCC page 1

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mrs. Sangeeta Chandra, J.)

1. Heard Sri Rahul Agarwal alongwith Sri Utkarsh Malviya, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Rajesh Tiwari, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. This petition has been filed with the following main prayers:-

"Issue a Writ, Order or Direction in the nature of Certiorari quashing the impugned Order passed u/s 74 of the Uttar Pradesh Goods & Service Tax Act, 2017 bearing Reference No.ZDO90224180025M dated 19.02.2024 issued in FORM GST DRC-1 a/w the Rectification Order bearing Ref. No.ZD0904244094478 dated 27.04.2024 issued in FORM GST DRC-08, by the Respondent no.2 (Annexure no.1).

(2) Issue a Writ, Order or Direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the impugned Show Cause Notice issued to the petitioner u/s 74 of the UPGST Act vide Reference No. ZD090823132533D dated 07.08.2023 issued in FORM GST DRC-01 by Respondent no.2 (Annexure No.2)."

3. It is the case of the petitioner that the company was registered under Uttar Pradesh Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 (for short 'the Act'). An audit notice was issued to the petitioner on 05.05.2022 vide FORM GST ADT-01 by the Joint Commissioner (Tax Audit), Commercial Tax, Lucknow, requiring the petitioner to produce books of accounts and present its case regarding due discharge of tax liabilities. A survey of the premises of the petitioner was conducted by the Revenue Officials on 11.05.2022. Another notice was issued in FORM GST ADT-01 to the petitioner on 05.01.2023 on similar grounds. The petitioner claims to have complied with all the directions issued by the respondents, however, it was not given any information regarding the action taken in furtherance of audit notices dated 05.05.2022 and 05.01.2023 by the respondent authorities. As per the provisions of Section 65(4) of the Act, if the respondents failed to complete the audit exercise after the lapse of three months from the date of audit, unless the said period has been explicitly extended, it shall be deemed to have concluded upon expiration of the said period. No draft audit report was prepared or issued to the petitioner in FORM GST ADT-02. A show cause notice was issued to the petitioner on 07.08.2023 relying upon the audit FORM GST ADT-01, that were issued on 05.05.2022 and on 05.01.2023. No audit report was ever issued to the petitioner.

4. The impugned show cause notice does not provide any date, place and time of hearing despite the same being mandatory procedure. In the Columns specified for date, place and time of hearing, the show cause notice mentions NA (not applicable) thereby denying the petitioner any opportunity of hearing. The petitioner submitted its reply on 06.11.2023 and in the said reply, the petitioner has specifically prayed that it may be given personal hearing, if the officer is not satisfied with the written explanation given in reply to the show cause notice.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that despite the mandate of Section 75(4) of the Act providing personal hearing and despite the petitioner specifically asking for personal hearing, no opportunity of personal hearing was granted and the impugned order was passed in violation of the settled principles of natural justice.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner to substantiate his argument, has read out the provisions of Section 75(4) of the Act and has placed reliance upon three judgements of Co-ordinate Benches of this Court in Writ- Tax No.1029 of 2021: Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals Vs. Commissioner, Commercial Tax & others, (2022) Vol.48 VLJ 325, decided on 04.03.2022; Writ Tax No.551 of 2023: M/s Mohini Traders Vs. State of U.P. and another, decided on 03.05.2023 and Writ Tax No.44 of 2024: M/s Mahendra Educational Pvt. Ltd. Vs. State of U.P., decided on 05.03.2024, copies of such orders passed by Co-ordinate Benches have been collectively filed as Annexure No.9 to the writ petition.

7. Learned Counsel appearing on behalf of the State-respondents has argued that against the impugned order of assessment, the petitioner has a statutory remedy under Section 107 of the Act and all the arguments on the merits of the case, can be dealt with by the appellate authority.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the leading judgment of a Co-ordinate Division Bench in Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra) has been relied upon in the case of M/s Mohini Traders (supra) and M/s Mahendra Educational Pvt. Ltd. (supra) by two Co-ordinate Division Benches and he has read out the judgment of the Division Bench in Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra), wherein the Division Bench has framed two questions to decide; the first related to whether opportunity of personal hearing is mandatory under Section 75(4) of the CGST/UPGST Act 2017; and second question was whether under the facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned adjudication order has been passed in breach of principle of natural justice and consequently, it deserved to be quashed in exercise of powers conferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

9. The Co-ordinate Bench dealt with the notice issued to the petitioner under Section 75(4) of the Act and observed that under the column meant for the date, time and place of personal hearing, the officer has noted NA (not applicable) and then has quoted the language of Section 75(4) of the Act. To decide the controversy, it is appropriate to quote the judgement of Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra) in extenso :-

"8. Section 75(4) of the Act, 2017 reads as under:-

"An opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty, or where any adverse decision is contemplated against such person."

9. From perusal of Section 75(4) of the Act, 2017 it is evident that opportunity of hearing has to be granted by authorities under the Act, 2017 where either a request is received from the person chargeable with tax or penalty for opportunity of hearing or where any adverse decision is contemplated against such person. Thus, where an adverse decision is contemplated against the person, such a person even need not to request for opportunity of personal hearing and it is mandatory for the authority concerned to afford opportunity of personal hearing before passing an order adverse to such person.

10. In the counter affidavit the respondents have taken the stand that no opportunity of hearing is required before passing the assessment order. In support of their contention the respondents have relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union of India and Others Vs. M/s.Jesus Sales Corporation AIR 1996 SC 1509. Perusal of the judgment in the case of M/s. Jesus Sales Corporation (supra) shows that the observation was made by Hon'ble Supreme Court while interpreting 3rd proviso to Section 4 M(1) of the Imports and Exports (Control) Act 1947, which is reproduced below:

"Provided also that, where the Appellate authority is of opinion that the deposit to be made will cause undue hardship to the appellant, it may, at its discretion, dispense with such deposit either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as it may impose."

11. The aforequoted 3rd proviso of Section 4 M (1) of the Act 1947 does not contemplate any opportunity of personal hearing in contrast to the provisions of Section 75(4) of the CGST/UPGST Act, 2017 which specifically mandates for opportunity of hearing before passing the order. The counter affidavit has been filed by an Officer of the rank of Joint Commissioner, Corporate Circle Commercial Tax, Bareilly who has either not read the aforesaid judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court or was not able to understand it and in a casual manner the counter affidavit has been filed in complete disregard to the statutory mandate of Section 75(4) of the Act 2017.

12. It has also been admitted in the counter affidavit that except permitting the petitioner to reply to the show cause notice, opportunity of personal hearing has not been afforded to the petitioner. Thus the legislative mandate of Section 75(4) of the Act to the authorities to afford opportunity of hearing to the assessee i.e. to follow principles of natural justice, has been completely violated by the respondents while passing the impugned order."

10. The Court thereafter observed that the stand taken by the respondents that the petitioner has alternative remedy of appeal under Section 107 of the Act cannot be accepted. Insofar as it is settled law that availability of alternative remedy, is not a complete bar to entertain a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and has referred to exceptions that have been carved out to alternative remedy by the Hon'ble Supreme Court with regard to three cases i.e. (i) where there is complete lack of jurisdiction in the officer or authority to take the action or to pass the order impugned; or (ii) where vires of an Act, Rules, Notification or any of its provisions has been challenged; or (iii) where an order prejudicial to the writ petitioner has been passed in total violation of principles of natural justice. There are other exceptions also, which have been mentioned in sub-clauses (iv) to (xi) of the Division Bench judgment, which are being quoted herein-below:-

"(iv) Where enforcement of any fundamental right is sought by the petitioner.

(v) Where procedure required for decision has not been adopted.

(vi) Where Tax is levied without authority of law.

(vii) Where decision is an abuse of process of law.

(viii) Where palpable injustice shall be caused to the petitioner, if he is forced to adopt remedies under the statute for enforcement of any fundamental rights guaranteed under the Constitution of India. (ix) Where a decision or policy decision has already been taken by the Government rendering the remedy of appeal to be an empty formality or futile attempt.

(x) Where there is no factual dispute but merely a pure question of law or interpretation is involved.

(xi) Where show cause notice has been issued with preconceived or premeditated or closed mind."

11. The Division Bench in the case of M/s Mohini Traders (supra) has placed reliance upon the judgement rendered in the case of M/s Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra) and observed in similar terms in paragraphs 8 and 9 as follows:-

"8. Even otherwise in the context of an assessment order creating heavy civil liability, observing such minimal opportunity of hearing is a must. Principle of natural justice would commend to this Court to bind the authorities to always ensure to provide such opportunity of hearing. It has to be ensured that such opportunity is granted in real terms. Here, we note, the impugned order itself has been passed on 25.11.2022, while reply to the show-cause-notice had been entertained on 14.11.2022. The stand of the assessee may remain unclear unless minimal opportunity of hearing is first granted. Only thereafter, the explanation furnished may be rejected and demand created.

9. Not only such opportunity would ensure observance of rules of natural of justice but it would allow the authority to pass appropriate and reasoned order as may serve the interest of justice and allow a better appreciation to arise at the next/appeal stage, if required."

12. A coordinate Bench sitting at Lucknow in M/s Mahendra Educational Pvt. Ltd. (supra) has placed reliance upon the Division Bench Judgement in the case of M/s Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra) and has quoted the observations made in the case of M/s Mohini Traders (supra) and observed in paragraph 8 as follows:-

"8. Not only such opportunity would ensure observance of rules of natural of justice but it would allow the authority to pass appropriate and reasoned order as may serve the interest of justice and allow a better appreciation to arise at the next/appeal stage, if required."

13. It has been argued on the basis of observations made by the three Division Benches of this Court that the law is settled insofar as Section 75(4) of the Act is concerned. The officer should not only issue a show cause notice, but also give personal hearing where a request has been received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty or where any adverse decision is contemplated against any such person.

14. Learned counsel for the State-respondents has pointed out that Section 74 of the Act, which relates to determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilized by reason of fraud or any willful- misstatement or suppression of facts. Section 74 of the Act in its entirety is quoted below:-

"Section 74. Determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts.

(1) Where it appears to the proper officer that any tax has not been paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or where input tax credit has been wrongly availed or utilised by reason of fraud, or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, he shall serve notice on the person chargeable with tax which has not been so paid or which has been so short paid or to whom the refund has erroneously been made, or who has wrongly availed or utilised input tax credit, requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to the tax specified in the notice.

(2) The proper officer shall issue the notice under sub-section (1) at least six months prior to the time limit specified in sub-section (10) for issuance of order.

(3) Where a notice has been issued for any period under sub-section (1), the proper officer may serve a statement, containing the details of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised for such periods other than those covered under sub-section (1), on the person chargeable with tax.

(4) The service of statement under sub-section (3) shall be deemed to be service of notice under sub-section (1) of section 73, subject to the condition that the grounds relied upon in the said statement, except the ground of fraud, or any wilful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax, for periods other than those covered under sub-section (1) are the same as are mentioned in the earlier notice.

(5) The person chargeable with tax may, before service of notice under sub-section (1), pay the amount of tax along with interest payable under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to fifteen per cent. of such tax on the basis of his own ascertainment of such tax or the tax as ascertained by the proper officer and inform the proper officer in writing of such payment.

(6) The proper officer, on receipt of such information, shall not serve any notice under sub-section (1), in respect of the tax so paid or any penalty payable under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(7) Where the proper officer is of the opinion that the amount paid under sub-section (5) falls short of the amount actually payable, he shall proceed to issue the notice as provided for in sub-section (1) in respect of such amount which falls short of the amount actually payable.

(8) Where any person chargeable with tax under sub-section (1) pays the said tax along with interest payable under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to twenty-five per cent. of such tax within thirty days of issue of the notice, all proceedings in respect of the said notice shall be deemed to be concluded.

(9) The proper officer shall, after considering the representation, if any, made by the person chargeable with tax, determine the amount of tax, interest and penalty due from such person and issue an order.

(10) The proper officer shall issue the order under sub-section (9) within a period of five years from the due date for furnishing of annual return for the financial year to which the tax not paid or short paid or input tax credit wrongly availed or utilised relates to or within five years from the date of erroneous refund.

(11) Where any person served with an order issued under sub-section (9) pays the tax along with interest payable thereon under section 50 and a penalty equivalent to fifty per cent. of such tax within thirty days of communication of the order, all proceedings in respect of the said notice shall be deemed to be concluded."

15. The action taken against the petitioner under Section 74(9) of the Act does not provide for personal hearing to be given to the concerned person chargeable with tax or penalty. It only states that the proper officer shall after considering the representation, if any, made by the person chargeable with tax determine the amount of tax, interest and penalty due from such person and issue an order.

16. Learned counsel for the petitioner, however, has pointed out that Section 75 of the Act which, as has been published in the text book, is under sub-heading of "General Provisions Relating to Determination of Tax". It has been argued that Section 75 of the Act will apply as a general procedure to be adopted in all actions that are proposed under Sections 73 and 74 of the Act and the procedure prescribed under Section 75 of the Act will have to be followed by the tax authorities even for determination of tax under Section 74 of the Act.

17. Learned counsel appearing for State-respondents has referred to Section 75 (2) of the Act and says that the language of Section 75(2) of the Act is clear that where any appellate authority or appellate Tribunal or Court concludes that the notice issued under sub-section (1) of Section 74 of the Act is not sustainable for the reason that the charges of fraud or any willful-misstatement or suppression of fact to evade tax has not been established against the person to whom the notice was issued, the proper officer shall determine the tax payable by such person, deeming as if the notice were issued under sub-section (1) of Section 73 of the Act.

18. It has been argued that sub-clauses of Section 75 of the Act relate to the procedure to be followed by the Officer after remand of the matter by the appellate authority or tribunal or the court and sub-section (4) should be read in that context and it requires that an opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty or where an adverse decision is contemplated against such person.

19. It has however been argued by the learned counsel for the petitioner that if such an interpretation is given to Section 75 of the Act and its sub clauses, it would render a situation anomalous and he has read out sub-sections (5), (6), (7), (8) and (9) of Section 75 of the Act. Section 75 of the Act in its entirety is quoted below:-

"Section 75. General provisions relating to determination of tax.

(1) Where the service of notice or issuance of order is stayed by an order of a court or Appellate Tribunal, the period of such stay shall be excluded in computing the period specified in sub-sections (2) and (10) of section 73 or sub-sections (2) and (10) of section 74, as the case may be.

(2) Where any Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court concludes that the notice issued under sub-section (1) of section 74 is not sustainable for the reason that the charges of fraud or any willful-misstatement or suppression of facts to evade tax has not been established against the person to whom the notice was issued, the proper officer shall determine the tax payable by such person, deeming as if the notice were issued under sub-section (1) of section 73.

(3) Where any order is required to be issued in pursuance of the direction of the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or a court, such order shall be issued within two years from the date of communication of the said direction.

(4) An opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty, or where any adverse decision is contemplated against such person.

(5) The proper officer shall, if sufficient cause is shown by the person chargeable with tax, grant time to the said person and adjourn the hearing for reasons to be recorded in writing:

Provided that no such adjournment shall be granted for more than three times to a person during the proceedings. (6) The proper officer, in his order, shall set out the relevant facts and the basis of his decision.

(7) The amount of tax, interest and penalty demanded in the order shall not be in excess of the amount specified in the notice and no demand shall be confirmed on the grounds other than the grounds specified in the notice.

(8) Where the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal or court modifies the amount of tax determined by the proper officer, the amount of interest and penalty shall stand modified accordingly, taking into account the amount of tax so modified.

(9) The interest on the tax short paid or not paid shall be payable whether or not specified in the order determining the tax liability.

(10) The adjudication proceedings shall be deemed to be concluded, if the order is not issued within three years as provided for in sub-section (10) of section 73 or within five years as provided for in sub-section (10) of section 74.

(11) An issue on which the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court has given its decision which is prejudicial to the interest of revenue in some other proceedings and an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court or the Supreme Court against such decision of the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal or the High Court is pending, the period spent between the date of the decision of the Appellate Authority and that of the Appellate Tribunal or the date of decision of the Appellate Tribunal and that of the High Court or the date of the decision of the High Court and that of the Supreme Court shall be excluded in computing the period referred to in sub-section (10) of section 73 or sub-section (10) of section 74 where proceedings are initiated by way of issue of a show cause notice under the said sections.

(12) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 73 or section 74, where any amount of self-assessed tax in accordance with a return furnished under section 39 remains unpaid, either wholly or partly, or any amount of interest payable on such tax remains unpaid, the same shall be recovered under the provisions of section 79.

(13) Where any penalty is imposed under section 73 or section 74, no penalty for the same act or omission shall be imposed on the same person under any other provision of this Act."

20. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also argued that Section 75(4) of the Act would be rendered otiose if this Court comes to the conclusion that the argument raised by the learned counsel for the State-respondents is liable to be accepted as Section 74(1) of the Act also contemplates issuance of a notice and calling for a reply. It has been submitted that Sections 73, 74 and 75 of the Act lay down one integrated scheme regarding imposition of tax or penalty and the procedure to be followed by the Taxing Officer.

21. This Court having considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the parties has gone through the leading judgment in the case of M/s Bharat Mint & Allied Chemicals (supra) and finds that the said judgment although has read into the language of Section 75(4) of the Act and the right of "personal" hearing, it has not mentioned any casus omissus on the part of the legislature reading into the statute words like "personal" hearing" as the Act itself only states that an opportunity of hearing shall be given.

22. The golden rule for construing Wills, Statutes, and in fact, all written instruments has been stated in Grey versus Pearson (1857) 6 HL cases 61 as: –

"the grammatical and ordinary sense of the words is to be adhered to, unless that would lead to some absurdity or some repugnance or inconsistency with the rest of the instrument, in which case the grammatical and ordinary sense of the words may be modified, so as to avoid that absurdity and inconsistency, but no farther"

23. However Jervis, C J, in Ableyv Dale, 11, CB 378; as quoted by the Supreme Court in the case of M/s Trutuf Safety Glass Industries versus Commissioner of Sales Tax, UP , 2007 (7) SCC 242, has further observed that the latter part of this golden rule must, however, be applied with with much caution. "If the precise words used are plain and unambiguous, in a statute, we are bound to construe them in their ordinary sense, even though it leads in our view of the case, to an absurdity or manifest injustice. Words may be modified or varied, where their import is doubtful or obscure. But we assume the functions of legislators when we depart from the ordinary meaning of the precise words used, merely because we see, or fancy, an absurdity, or manifest injustice from an adherence to the literal meaning".

24. In Commissioner of Sales Tax versus Parson Tools and Plants, 1975 (4) SCC 22, the Supreme Court observed that the will of the legislature is the supreme law of the land, and demands, perfect obedience. Judicial power is never exercised for the purpose of giving effect to the will of the judges; always for the purpose of giving effect to the will of the legislature; or in other words, to the will of the law. Therefore, where the legislature clearly declares its intent in the scheme and language of a Statute, it is the duty of the Court to give full effect to the same without scanning its wisdom or policy, and without engrafting, adding or implying anything which is not congenial to or consistent with such expressed intent of the law; if the Statute is a taxing Statute. If the legislature wilfully omits to incorporate something of an analogous law in a subsequent Statute, or even if there is casus omissus in a Statute, the language of which is otherwise plain and unambiguous, the Court is not competent to supply the omission by engrafting on it or introducing in it, under the guise of interpretation, or by implication, something that it thinks to be a general principle of justice and equity. To do so, would be entrenching upon the preserve of the legislature, the primary function of a Court of law, being jus dicere and not jus dare.

25. In Godrej and Boyce Manufacturing Company Limited Vs Deputy Commissioner of I.T., Mumbai and another, 2017 (7) SCC 421; the Supreme Court had observed that where the words of the Statute are clear and unambiguous, recourse cannot be had to principles of interpretation other than the literal rule. It further observed that it is the bounden duty and obligation of the Court to interpret the Statue as it is. It further observed that it is contrary to all rules of construction to read words into a Statute which the legislature in its wisdom, has deliberately not incorporated.

26. Lord Hailsham in Pearl Berg versus Varty, (1972) 2 All ER 6; observed in regard to importation of the principles of natural justice into a Statute, which is a clear and complete code by itself, thus:–

"it is true, of course that the courts will lean heavily against any construction of a Statute which would be manifestly unfair. But they have no power to amend or supplement the language of a Statute, merely because in one view of the matter, a subject feels himself entitled to a larger degree of say in the making of a decision than a Statute awards him. Still less is it the function of the courts to form first a judgement on the fairness of an act of Parliament and then to amend or supplement it with new provisions so as to make it conform to that judgement,– –."

27. As a matter of first principle, a casus omissus cannot be supplied by the Court, unless there is a clear case of necessity and when reason is found within the Statute itself.(See Padmasundara Rao (dead) and others Vs State of Tamil Nadu and others AIR 2002 Supreme Court 1334).

28. In Institute of Chartered Accountants of India versus M/s Price Waterhouse and another, AIR 1998 Supreme Court 74; the Supreme Court had observed that the object of interpreting a Statute is to ascertain the intention of the legislature in enacting it. The intention of the legislature is primarily to be gathered from the language used, which means that attention should be paid to what has been said, and also to what has not been said. As a consequence, a construction which requires for its support, addition or substitution of words or which results in rejection of words as meaningless has to be avoided. Courts cannot aid the legislature's defective phrasing of an Act, we cannot add or mend, and by construction make up deficiencies which are left there. It is contrary to all rules of construction to read words into a Statute unless it is absolutely necessary to do so. Principles of interpretation do not permit Courts to do so, unless the provision as it stands is meaningless or of doubtful meaning. Courts are not entitled to read words into an Act of Parliament, unless clear reason for it is to be found within the corners of the Act itself.

29. In D.R. Venkatachalam and others, etc Vs. Deputy Transport Commissioner and others, AIR 1977 Supreme Court 842, it was observed that courts must avoid the danger of a priori determination of the meaning of a provision based on their own preconceived notions of ideological structure or scheme into which the provision to be interpreted is somewhat fitted. They are not entitled to usurp legislative function under the guise of interpretation.

30. The Supreme Court in the case of Bharat Aluminium Company vs Kaiser Aluminium Technical Services Inc., reported in 2012 (9) SCC 552, has held that the Court must proceed on the footing that the legislature intended what it has said. Even where there is a casus omissus, it is for others than the Courts to remedy the defect. it has quoted the House of Lords in Duport Steels Ltd Vs. Sirs, 1980, All ER 529 (HL) in observing:-

"– – the role of the Judiciary is confined to ascertain from the words that Parliament has approved as expressing its intention what that intention was, and to give effect to it. Where the meaning of the statutory words are plain and unambiguous, it is not for the judges to invent fancied ambiguities as an excuse for failing to give effect to the plain meaning because they themselves consider that the consequences of doing so would be inexpedient, or even unjust or immoral. ....,Under our constitution, it is Parliament's opinion on these matters that is paramount.."

31. In Canada Sugar Refining Company Limited versus The Queen (Canada) 1898 AC 735, Lord Davey observed that "the good expositor of an Act of Parliament should make construction on all the parts together, and not of one part only by itself. Every clause of a Statute is to be construed with reference to the context and other clauses of the Act, so as, as far as possible, to make a consistent enactment of the whole Statute …"

32. Two principles of construction, one relating to casus omissus, and the other in regard to reading the Statute as a whole, – appear to be well settled. Under the first principle, the casus omissus cannot be supplied by the Court, except in the case of clear necessity, and when reason for it is found in the four corners of the Statute itself, but at the same time a casus omissus should not be readily inferred, and for that purpose, all parts of the Statute or the section must be construed together, and every clause of a section should be construed with reference to the context and other clauses thereof, so that the construction to be put on a particular provision makes it consistent of the whole Statute. This would be more so if literal construction of a particular clause leads to manifestly absurd or anomalous results, which could not have been intended by the legislature. An intention to produce an unreasonable result is not to be imputed to a Statute, if there is some other construction available. Where to apply words literally would "defeat the obvious intention of the legislature and produce a wholly unreasonable result" we must "do some violence to the words" and so achieve that obvious intention and produce a rational construction, as per Lord Reid in Luke v. IRC (1966 AC 557), where it has been observed "this is not a new problem, though our standard of drafting is such that itrarely emerges".

33. In Commissioner of Customs (Import), Mumbai Versus Dilip Kumar and Company and others, 2018 (9) SCC page 1, a Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court was interpreting an exemption clause as per customs Notification 20 of 1999, relating to concessional rate of Duty pertaining to prawn feed. The concessional duty was denied by the department to the respondent, who had imported a consignment of Vitamin E 50 powder (feed grade) on the ground that the goods under import contained chemical ingredients for animal feed, and not animal feed/prawn feed. The Supreme Court observed that in the matter of interpretation of charging section of taxation Statute, this rule of interpretation is mandatory that if there are two views possible in the matter of interpretation of the charging section, the one favourable to the assessee needs to be applied.

34. The Supreme Court further observed that the principles of interpretation of statutes come in handy here. In spite of the fact that experts in the field assist in drafting Act and Rules, there are many occasions where the language used and the phrases employed in the Statute are not perfect. Therefore, Judges and Courts need to interpret the words. The purpose of interpretation is essentially to know the intention of the legislature. Whether the legislature intended to apply the law in a given case; whether the legislature intended to give discretion to enforcing authority or to adjudicating agency to apply the law, are essentially questions to which answers can be given only by knowing the intention of Legislation. Apart from the general principles of interpretation of statutes, there are certain internal aids and external aids, which are tools for interpreting the Statutes. The long title, the preamble, the heading, the marginal note, punctuation, illustrations, definitions, or exclusionary clause, proviso to a section, explanation, examples, a Schedule to the Act, et cetera are internal aids to construction. The external aids to construction are Parliamentary debates, history leading to the legislation, other statutes which have a bearing, dictionaries, thesaurus etc. It is well accepted that a Statute must be construed according to the intention of the legislature and the Courts should act upon the true intention of the legislation while applying the law and while interpreting the law. If a statutory provision is open to more than one meaning, the Court has to choose the interpretation which represents the intention of the legislature. In other words, legislative intention i.e. the true or legal meaning of an enactment is derived by considering the meaning of the words used in the enactment in the light of any discernible purpose or object, which comprehends the mischief and its remedy to which the enactment is directed. The well settled principle is that when the words in a Statute are clear, plain and unambiguous and only one meaning can be inferred, the courts are bound to give effect to the said meaning irrespective of consequences.

In applying the rule of plain meaning, any hardship and inconvenience cannot be the basis to alter the meaning of the language employed by the legislation. This is especially so in fiscal statutes and penal statutes. Nevertheless, if the plain language results in absurdity, the Court is entitled to determine the meaning of the word in the context in which it is used, keeping in view the legislative purpose. Not only that, if the plain construction leads to an anomaly or absurdity, the Court having regard to the hardship and consequences that flow from such a provision can even explain the true intention of the legislation.

35. After referring to Justice GP Singh's 'Principles of Statutory Interpretation' and several English case laws and also judgements of the Supreme Court, the Constitution Bench in paragraph 34 of Commissioner of Customs (Import), Mumbai Vs. Dilip Kumar and Company and others, 2018 (9) SCC 1, has observed as under: –

"In interpreting a taxing statute, equitable considerations are entirely out of place. A taxing statute cannot be interpreted on any presumption or assumption. A taxing statute has to be interpreted in the light of what is clearly expressed; it cannot imply anything which is not expressed; it cannot import provisions in the statute so as to supply any deficiency; (ii) Before taxing any person, it must be shown that he falls within the ambit of the charging section by clear words used in the section; and (iii) If the words are ambiguous and open to two interpretations, the benefit of interpretation is given to the subject and there is nothing unjust in a taxpayer escaping if the letter of the law fails to catch him on account of Legislature's failure to express itself clearly"

36. When we examine the scheme of Sections 73, 74 and 75 of the Act taken together, we find that under Section 74, the procedure for determination of tax not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit, wrongly availed or utilized by reason of fraud or any willful misstatement or suppression of facts is provided. Under sub-section (1) and (2) and (3), the proper officer shall serve a notice on the person chargeable with such tax requiring him to show cause as to why he should not pay the amount specified in the notice along with interest thereon under Section 50 and a penalty equivalent to the tax specified in the notice.

37. Such notice should be given at least six months prior to the time limit specified in Section 10 for issuance of order; along with a statement containing the details of tax, not paid or short paid or erroneously refunded or input tax credit wrongly availed.

38. Sub-Section (4) provides that service of statement under sub-Section (3) shall be deemed to be service of notice under sub-Section (1) of Section 73.

Under sub-Section (5) of Section 74, the person chargeable with tax may before service of notice under sub-Section (1) pay the amount of tax along with interest payable under Section 50 and a penalty equivalent to 50% of such tax on the basis of his own ascertainment or as ascertained by the proper officer and inform him in writing of such payment. Under sub-Section (6), the proper officer on receipt of such information shall not serve any notice under sub-Section (1) in respect of tax payable if he is satisfied with such payment, however, if he is not satisfied, then, under Sub-Section (7), he shall proceed to issue notice as provided for under sub-Section (1) in respect of such amount, which falls short of the amount actually payable. This can be deemed to be a second notice, or a second opportunity given to the assessee in respect of the amount which falls short of the amount, actually payable. If on service of such notice, the person chargeable with Tax pays the tax along with interest under Section 50 and a penalty equivalent to 25% of such tax, all proceedings in respect of the said notice shall be deemed to be concluded. Penalty in sub-Section (8) is equivalent to 25% of such tax as against penalty, which is payable under sub-Section (1), which is equivalent to the tax specified in the notice.

Under sub-Section (9), the proper officer shall after considering the representation if any, made by the person chargeable with tax, determine the amount of tax, interest, and penalty due from such person and issue an order.

Under sub-Section (10), the limitation is provided within which the proper Officer shall issue order under sub-Section (9).

Under sub-Section (11), where any person is served with an order issued under sub-Section (9) and he pays the tax along with interest payable thereon under Section 50 and a penalty equivalent to 50% of such tax payable within 30 days of communication of the order, all proceedings in respect of such notice shall be deemed to be concluded.

39. It is evident from the scheme of Section 74 that initially a notice along with a statement of tax payable along with penalty has to be issued by the proper officer within the time limit as prescribed, to which a representation can be made by the assessee in case he is dissatisfied with such computation of tax and penalty. On the other hand, in case the assessee pays the amount as given in the notice along with interest payable thereon and penalty, then the proper officer may issue orders which may conclude the proceedings.

It is when the assessee is dissatisfied then, whether in addition to being given an opportunity for submitting representation, he is also entitled to personal hearing is the question that this court has to decide.

40. Section 75 starts with the subheading 'General Provisions relating to Determination of Tax'. It has been argued that Section 75 of the Act will apply as a general procedure to be adopted in all actions that are proposed to be taken under Section 73 and 74 of the Act. As against the argument raised by the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the State Respondents, that Section 75 deals with the procedure to be followed by the proper officer after remand of the matter to him by the Tribunal or the Court; it has been argued that if such an interpretation is given to Section 75 of the Act, it would render the situation anomalous as many of the sub-Sections of Section 75 would become otiose.

41. We have gone through the language of Section 75. Indeed sub-Section (1), sub-Section (2) and sub Section (3) relate to determination to be made by the proper officer after the Court or the Appellate Tribunal quashes the original order and remands the matter for a fresh determination to the proper officer. However, from sub-Section (4) onwards the procedure to be followed by the proper officer in determination of tax is given in detail. Sub-Section (4) of Section 75 provides that an opportunity of hearing shall be granted where a request is received in writing from the person chargeable with tax or penalty, or where any adverse decision is contemplated against such person. Sub-Section (5) provides that if sufficient cause is shown by the person chargeable with tax, the proper officer shall grant time to the said person and adjourn the hearing for reasons to be recorded in writing: provided that no such adjournment shall be granted for more than three times to a person during the proceedings. Sub-Section (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) and (11) of Section 75 relate to the Order to be passed in by the proper officer, determining the amount of tax, interest, and penalty, in conformity with the notice issued to the assessee, and also to nature of the adjudication proceedings and the limitation for concluding the same.

42. It is evident that Sub-Section (1), (2), (3), (8) and (11) deal with adjudication by the proper officer after remand either by the Appellate Tribunal or the Courts, whereas sub-Sections (4) and (5), (6), (7), (9) and (10), in Section 75 deal with assessment before the matter is taken up in appeal and remanded to the proper officer for reconsideration on merit.

43. If we take recourse to internal aids to construction of the charging Section then 'Sub-heading' being an internal aid, can be validly referred to while determining the true purport of the words 'opportunity of hearing'. Sub-heading of Section 75 clearly states that it describes the 'General Provisions relating to Determining of Tax'; then most certainly Section 75 deals with all kinds of hearings for determining tax, both at the first instance and also on remand. Also sub-Section (4) is followed by sub-Section (5), which requires an officer to adjourn a hearing on the request of the person chargeable to Tax, in case sufficient cause is shown by such person after recording reasons for such adjournment in writing. Such words as are used for granting more time to the assessee and adjourning the hearing can only be interpreted to mean giving "personal" hearing. Adjournment is granted in cases where hearing is continuing. It cannot be said to relate to giving time extensions for giving written reply to the show cause notice.

44. Taking into account the settled principles of interpretation of Statutes, (a) all Sections of a Statue need to be read together, (b) no words, Section in a Statute can be rendered otiose, (c) any ambiguity in a charging Section must be read in favour of the assessee, (d) a casus omissus can be supplied if the Court, having an overall view of the scheme of the Statute is convinced that the legislature did intend a certain manner of conducting predecisional hearing but draftsman failed to add the necessary words to make it plain and beyond doubt; we are of the considered opinion that word "personal" can easily be construed to have been intended to be added but has been left out erroneously. We, therefore, are in respectful agreement with the three Coordinate Bench decisions cited at the Bar by learned counsel for the petitioner.

45. The Writ Petition is allowed and the orders dated 19.02.2024 and 27.04.2024 are set aside. The matter is remitted back to the proper officer to provide opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner and then to pass a fresh order in accordance with statutory provisions.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2123
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 15.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ-B No. 518 of 2024

Ram Sukh & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Dy. Director of Consolidation, Sultanpur & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Mata Prasad Yadav, Shiva Shashank

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Vijai Shankar Tripathi, Vijay Bhan Pandey

A. Consolidation Proceedings – U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 - Sections 9A(2) & 52 – U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954 - Rule 109A(1) - An authority, while exercising its power under Rule 109A(1), is not empowered to amend or modify the order passed by the Consolidation Officer at the stage of deciding objections under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953 - Correction of Records - Powers of Authorities Post-Denotification under Section 52 – Correction in the order passed under Section 9A(2) is permissible (Para 33)

B. After partaal (survey), Form C.H. 4 was prepared, followed by the issuance of Parcha No. 5 to the tenure holders. Respondent Nos. 8 and 9 filed objections u/s 9A(2) of C.H. Act, 1953, challenging the inclusion of the petitioners' names along with Respondent Nos. 3 to 7 in the revenue records (Khatauni). Objections were allowed by Consolidation Officer on 26.12.2012, and the names of the petitioners and Respondent Nos. 3 to 7 were deleted. Order became final as no recall, appeal, or revision was filed. Subsequently, petitioners' names were re-added through an order issued under Rule 109A(1) of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954, during the execution of the earlier order of 26.12.2012 - Held - Court rejected petitioners' argument that following the de-notification of consolidation proceedings u/s 52, the authorities become functus officio and held that the authorities acted within their jurisdiction to correct an error. Only error was rectified in pursuance of the order dated 26.12.2012 and it was a continuation of the proceedings and not a fresh proceedings. (Para 33, 34)

Dismissed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jodhey Vs State, reported as AIR 1952 All 788

2. Gadde Venkateswara Rao Vs Govt. of A.P.; AIR 1966 SC 828

3. Commissioner of Income Tax, Madras & ors.. Vs Vinod Kumar Didwania & ors. AIR 1987 SC 1260

4. Mohammad Swalleh Vs Third Additonal District Judge, Meerut; (1988) 1 SCC 40

5. Shangrila Food Products Ltd. Vs LIC, (1996) 5 SCC 54

6. Roshan Deen Vs Preeti Lal; (2002) 1 SCC 100

7. Ramesh Chandra Sankla & ors. Vs Vikram Cement & ors. (2008) 14 SCC 58

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for petitioner as well as Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned State Counsel.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned revisional order dated 12.04.2024 passed by respondent no. 1, Deputy Director of Consolidation and impugned appellate order dated 04.03.2024 passed by respondent no. 2 i.e.Settlement Officer Consolidation, District Sultanpur.

3. The learned counsel for the respondent nos. 8 and 9 has stated that it would not be necessary to file counter affidavit and the matter may be heard at this stage itself.

4. Learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that the dispute is with regard to Gata No. 2774 (new number) and the old number was Gata No. 1652, Area- 2 Biswa. The petitioners and respondents were co-tenant on the above mentioned gata number.

5. It is further submitted that initially Ram Kalap and Raj Nath Singh, son of Sahdev, i.e. respondent nos. 8 and 9 were the co-tenant of 1 Biswa and on another 1 Biswa, the ancestors of the petitioners namely late Urai and late Ram Kishan along with their brother Bhagirathi i.e. fathers of respondent nos. 3, 4 and 5.

6. It is further submitted that the names of the petitioners along with the family members of late Sahdev were entered in the Khatauni as co-tenants on the Gata No. 2774 and the names of the co-tenants were intact at the time of consolidation operations.

7. It is further submitted that the names of the ancestors of petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 were entered in Form C.H- 45, the consolidation proceedings were finalised and notification under Section 52 of the Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred as Act, 1953) was published/notified.

8. It is further submitted that after the denotification under Section 52, an application was preferred by respondent no. 8 Ram Kalap before the Deputy Director of Consolidation that the proceedings have been finalized without deciding the objections preferred by respondent no. 8 against Form CH-4. The said application preferred by respondent no. 8 was rejected by order dated 22.05.2007. Within four days of rejection of the said application, a recall application was preferred on 26.05.2007 by respondent no. 8, the same was allowed by order dated 16.06.2008 a reference was made and referred to the Consolidation Officer to decide objections against Form C.H.-4 preferred by respondent no. 8

9. Thereafter, the proceedings had started afresh with a reference to the Consolidation Officer to a limited extent to consider the objections filed against Form C.H-4 of Ram Kalap, and the Consolidation Officer decided the matter to the limited extent of reference i.e the Consolidation Officer had decided the matter and has allowed the application by order dated 20.09.2021 and has enhanced the area from 1 Biswa to 2 Biswa as that was the only objection against Form C.H.-4 by respondent no. 8. Against which respondent no. 8 alone had preferred an appeal before the Settlement Officer Consolidation disputing about the entry of the name of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7. The Settlement Officer Consolidation had allowed the appeal by order dated 04.03.2024 and had given a finding that the father of respondent nos. 3 to 5 i.e. late Bhagirathi had executed a sale deed in favour of widow of Sahdev in the year 1987 of his share, so his name has wrongly been entered in Form C.H.-45.

10. Against the said order a revision was preferred by petitioner no. 5, Smt. Sita, wife of Maharajdeen, the son of late Ram Kishan and others which was also rejected by impugned order dated 12.04.2024.

11. The Appellate Authority as well as the Revisional Authority had exceeded their jurisdiction by deciding the matter relating to the title/rights of the petitioner along with respondent nos. 3 to 7.

12. On the other hand, Sri V.S. Tripathi, learned counsel for the caveator has filed his Vakalatnama on behalf of respondent no. 9 also, which is taken on record and has submitted that the submission of learned counsel for petitioners is not tenable against C.H. Form- 4, the objections were filed, which was decided by the Consolidation Officer by its order dated 26.12.12 whereby only the names of respondent no. 8 and 9 have been entered. The objections were filed with regard to correction in area of land from one biswa to two biswa, but no such document in support of the submission was enclosed.

13. It is further submitted that once Bhagirathi had sold his share to the widow of Sahdev i.e. the grandmother of the respondent nos. 8 & 9, then he has no share in the said land, particularly, when the said fact is neither denied or disputed by the petitioners. The names of the petitioners or their ancestors were wrongly entered in Form C.H. 45.

14. It is further submitted that objections were decided by order dated 26.12.2012 by the Consolidation Officer in favour of respondent nos.8 and 9 and deleted the names of petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 and their names were entered in the revenue record in compliance of the order passed under Rule 109 A(1) of Consolidation and Holding Rules, 1954 (hereinafter referred as Rules, 1954) at the time of taking decision on the objection of respondent no. 8 and 9 under Section 9A(2). The names of the petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 were added which is illegal for the reason that the names of the petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 was not on the record or were deleted by allowing the objections of respondent nos. 8 under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953 and the executing Court or the authority who is empowered to implement the order under Rule 109A(1) of Rules, 1954 again added names of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7. So this is only the correction which was made by these orders and it cannot be said that it is a new proceedings initiated by the Authorities after the notification of Section 52 of Act, 1953. The petitioners and respondent no. 3 to 7 had never filed any recall, appeal or revision and the order dated 26.12.2012 has attained finality.

15. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel has submitted that after publication of Form C.H. 4, Parcha no. 5 is distributed to every tenure holders and if they are aggrieved by the same, they could raise their objection under Section 9A(1)/9A(2) of the Act, 1953 and after deciding the objections, the Consolidation proceedings initiated further and at every stage, there are appeals and the revisions and after that Form C.H. 45 is to be prepared which is final and thereafter publication is made under Section 52 of the Act, for de-notification of the consolidation operations.

16. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case, it is clear that the dispute is with regard to the old Gata no. 2774 area 2 biswa (now Gata No. 1652). The names of ancestors of petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 along with respondent nos. 8 & 9 in the khatauni and the names were there at the time of consolidation in the basic year khatauni. After the partaal, Form C.H. 4 was prepared and thereafter parcha no. 5 would have been served upon the tenure holders. The respondent no. 8 & 9 had filed their objection under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953, regarding the claim of the petitioners in the said land against the entry of names of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7 in the revenue records/khatauni. The said objections preferred by the respondent no. 8 was allowed by the order dated 26.12.2012.

17. On being asked from the learned counsel for petitioner, the decision in objection preferred under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953 would not amount to deciding the objection against Form C.H.-4, he has very fairly replied that it amounts that the objection against Form C.H.-4 is decided.

18. The second query put by this Court from learned counsel for petitioner whether against the order dated 26.12.2012 passed under Section 9A(2) any appeal was preferred by petitioner under Section 11 of the Act, 1953, he has very fairly submitted that to the best of his knowledge and as per the record, no appeal appears to be filed by the petitioners against the said order.

19. The names of the petitioners along with respondent no. 3 to 7 was entered in the Khatauni in compliance of the order passed under Rule 109A(1) of the Rules, 1954, which empowers the Assistant Collector/Incharge of the Sub-Division, the Tehsildar, the Naib Tehsildar, the Supervisor and the Lekhpal of the area to which the case relates shall, respectively, perform the functions and discharge the duties of the Settlement Officer of the Consolidation for the purposes of giving effect to the orders aforesaid, so the authorities cannot either modify or amend the orders passed by the Consolidation Officer dated 26.12.2012.

20. On being asked specific query from learned counsel for the petitioner whether while deciding the objection under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953 by the Consolidation Officer, the names of the petitioners along with respondent nos.3 to 7 were also allowed to be continued in the record or whether the names of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7 were entered in Form- C.H.45 in pursuance of the order passed under Rule 109 A(1) of the Consolidation and holding Rules, 1954. He has submitted that from the perusal of the record it appears that the names of the petitioners along with respondent nos.3 to 7 were entered in form C.H.45 by order passed under Rule 109A (1) of Rules, 1954 and not disputed the fact that the names of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7 were not in the order dated 26.12.2012 passed by the Consolidation Officer as against the objections preferred by respondent no.8.

21. From the above, it cannot be said that orders have been passed without jurisdiction after the notification under Section 52 of the Act, 1953 for the reason it is the continuation of the proceedings even after the notification under Section 52 of the Act, 1953. It is also noticeable that once the name of the petitioners along with respondent nos. 3 to 7 were deleted by order dated 26.12.2012 by the Consolidation Officer while deciding the matter under Section 9A(2) and against which the petitioners along with respondent nos.3 to 7 had never ever preferred any appeal or revision now again come with a case that after Section 52, their names cannot be deleted when it is admitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the names of the petitioners and respondent nos. 3 and 7 were entered in compliance of the order passed under Rule 109A(1) and not in pursuance of the order dated 26.12.2012. Apart from that the father of respondent nos. 3 to 5 had already sold the complete share in favour of grand mother of respondent no.8 and the said fact is admitted in paragraph no. 23 of the Writ Petition.

22. Against the said appellate order, the revision was preferred and the Revisional court affirmed the appellate order and rejected the revision preferred by the petitioners.

23. The tenure holders got an opportunity in the Consolidation proceedings to make objections at various stages and with an availability of remedy of appeal and revision almost at every stage, firstly at the stage of Form C.H. 4, i.e.

objection under Section 9A, then appeal under Section 11 and Revision under Section 48. Thereafter, at the second stage when the provisional consolidation scheme is prepared by the Assistant Consolidation Officer, under Section 19 of the Act, 1953. Then there is a third stage when the confirmation of the provisional consolidation scheme and issuance of the allotment orders under Section 23, the tenure holder has a right to file objections under Section 20 of the Act, 1953, but as per the admitted case of the respondent no. 8 and 9, they had never ever challenged the order passed under Section 9A(2) dated 26.12.2012 nor filed any revision or appeal as per the stages mentioned above.

24. In given circumstances, the question before this Court is as to whether in exercise of its extraordinary discretionary jurisdiction this court should interfere or not. The law in this regard is very well settled. In a catena of judgments, both this Court and Supreme Court have emphasised that while exercising discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226, the High Court must ensure that substantial justice is done, equity be upheld and injustice is eliminated.

25. In Jodhey vs State, reported as AIR 1952 All 788, this Court considered the discretionary and equitable jurisdiction of the High Court and the manner in which the same ought to be exercised. Relevant portion of the same reads:-

"There are no limits, fetters or restrictions placed on this power of superintendence in this Clause and the purpose of this Article seems to be to make the High Court the custodian of all justice within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction and to arm it with a weapon that could be wielded for the purpose of seeing that justice is meted out fairly and properly by the bodies mentioned therein. "(emphasis supplied)"

26. In Gadde Venkateswara Rao v. Govt. of A.P.; AIR 1966 SC 828, a three judges Bench of the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the Andhra Pradesh High Court where it refused to interfere into a matter on merit even when the appellant alleged violation of principles of natural justice. The Supreme Court observed that if the impugned order passed by the Government would have been set aside by the High Court, it would have restored an illegal order. Paragraph 19 of the judgment reads:-

"19. The result of the discussion may be stated thus: The Primary Health Centre was not permanently located at Dharmajigudem. The representatives of the said village did not comply with the necessary conditions for such location. The Panchayat Samithi finally cancelled its earlier resolutions which they were entitled to do and passed a resolution for locating the Primary Health Centre permanently at Lingopalem. Both the orders of the Government, namely, the order dated March 7, 1962, and that dated April 18, 1963, were not legally passed: the former, because it was made without giving notice to the Panchayat Samithi, and the latter, because the Government had no power under Section 72 of the Act to review an order made under Section 62 of the Act and also because it did not give notice to the representatives of Dharmajigudem village. In those circumstances, was it a case for the High Court to interfere in its discretion and quash the order of the Government dated April 18, 1963? If the High Court had quashed the said order, it would have restored an illegal order it would have given the Health Centre to a village contrary to the valid resolutions passed by the Panchayat Samithi. The High Court, therefore, in our view, rightly refused to exercise its extraordinary discretionary power in the circumstances of the case."

27. In Commissioner of Income Tax, Madras and Ors. vs. Vinod Kumar Didwania and Ors.; AIR 1987 SC 1260, Supreme Court deprecated the conduct of the private respondent who first got the interim injunction and then withdrew the petition. It was held that the respondent has abused the process of law and therefore he could not be allowed to retain undue benefits received by him under the garb of interim injunction. Relevant portion of paragraph 3 of the said judgment is quoted hereafter:-

"3. The learned Attorney General appearing on behalf of the Deputy Director of Inspection submitted before us that the amount representing the value of the goods removed from the three godowns should be restituted by the 1st Respondent since the goods were removed by him under an ex parte order of injunction obtained from the High Court of Calcutta in the Writ Petition filed by him and the nefarious purpose of filing the Writ Petition having been accomplished by removal of the goods, the writ petition was withdrawn. There is great force in his submission of the learned Attorney General. There is no doubt that the 1st Respondent has abused the process of the Court for securing removal of the goods from the three godowns and he cannot be allowed to retain that advantage....."

28. In Mohammad Swalleh v. Third Additonal District Judge, Meerut; (1988) 1 SCC 40 the Supreme Court dismissed an appeal against an order passed by the High Court wherein the High Court refused to interfere with the order of the District Court which had no jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from the Prescribed Authority under the scheme of the Act on the ground that setting aside District Court's order would mean restoring the erroneous order of the Prescribed Authority. Paragraph 7 of the above referred judgment of the Supreme Court reads:-

"7. It was contended before the High Court that no appeal lay from the decision of the prescribed authority to the District Judge. The High Court accepted this contention. The High Court finally held that though the appeal laid (sic no appeal lay) before the District Judge, the order of the prescribed authority was invalid and was rightly set aside by the District Judge. On that ground the High Court declined to interfere with the order of the learned District Judge. It is true that there has been some technical breach because if there is no appeal maintainable before the learned District Judge, in the appeal before the learned District Judge, the same could not be set aside. But the High Court was exercising its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. The High Court had come to the conclusion that the order of the prescribed authority was invalid and improper. The High Court itself could have set it aside. Therefore in the facts and circumstances of the case justice has been done though as mentioned hereinbefore, technically the appellant had a point that the order of the District Judge was illegal and improper. If we reiterate the order of the High Court as it is setting aside the order of the prescribed authority in exercise of the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution then no exception can be taken. As mentioned hereinbefore, justice has been done and as the improper order of the prescribed authority has been set aside, no objection can be taken." (emphasis supplied)

29. In Shangrila Food Products Ltd. v. LIC, (1996) 5 SCC 54 the Supreme Court reiterated that while exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution, a duty is casted upon the High Courts to see to it that equity is upheld. High Court must ensure that any undue advantage gained by a party prior to invoking discretionary jurisdiction of the High Court ought to be taken into account before granting it any relief. Relevant paragraph 11 of the same reads:-

"11. It is well settled that the High Court in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution can take cognisance of the entire facts and circumstances of the case and pass appropriate orders to give the parties complete and substantial justice. This jurisdiction of the High Court, being extraordinary, is normally exercisable keeping in mind the principles of equity. One of the ends of the equity is to promote honesty and fair play. If there be any unfair advantage gained by a party priorly, before invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court can take into account the unfair advantage gained and can require the party to shed the unfair gain before granting relief. What precisely has been done by the learned Single Judge, is clear from the above emphasised words which may be reread with advantage. The question of claim to damages and their ascertainment would only arise in the event of the Life Insurance Corporation, respondent, succeeding to prove that the appellant Company was an unlawful sub-tenant and therefore in unauthorised occupation of public premises. If the findings were to go in favour of the appellant Company and it is proved to be a lawful sub- tenant and hence not an unauthorised occupant, the direction to adjudge the claim for damages would be rendered sterile and otiose. It is only in the event of the appellant Company being held to be an unlawful sub- tenant and hence an unauthorised occupant that the claim for damages would be determinable. We see therefore no fault in the High Court adopting such course in order to balance the equities between the contestants especially when it otherwise had power of superintendence under Article 227 of the Constitution in addition. We cannot be oblivious to the fact that when the occupation of the premises in question was a factor in continuation of the liability to pay for the use and occupation thereof, be it in the form of rent or damages, was also a continuing factor. The cause of justice, as viewed by the High Court, did clearly warrant that both these questions be viewed interdependently. For those who seek equity must bow to equity." (emphasis supplied)"

30. In Roshan Deen vs. Preeti Lal; (2002) 1 SCC 100, the Supreme Court while setting aside an order passed by the High Court observed that the High Courts while exercising power of superintendence under Article 226 and 227 should ensure that such exercise must ensure that justice is done and at the same time injustice is eliminated. Paragraph 12 of the same reads:-

"12. We are greatly disturbed by the insensitivity reflected in the impugned judgment rendered by the learned Single Judge in a case where judicial mind would be tempted to utilize all possible legal measures to impart justice to a man mutilated so outrageously by his cruel destiny. The High Court non-suited him in exercise of a supervisory and extraordinary jurisdiction envisaged under Article 227 of the Constitution. Time and again this Court has reminded that the power conferred on the High Court under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution is to advance justice and not to thwart it (vide State of U.P. v. District Judge, Unnao [(1984) 2 SCC 673: AIR 1984 SC 1401]). The very purpose of such constitutional powers being conferred on the High Courts is that no man should be subjected to injustice by violating the law. The lookout of the High Court is, therefore, not merely to pick out any error of law through an academic angle but to see whether injustice has resulted on account of any erroneous interpretation of law. If justice became the by-product of an erroneous view of law the High Court is not expected to erase such justice in the name of correcting the error of law,"

31. A Division Bench of the Supreme Court in the case of Ramesh Chandra Sankla and Others vs. Vikram Cement and Others and other connected matters, reported as (2008) 14 SCC 58 has considered, affirmed, and reiterated all the aforesaid judgments and held in paragraphs 98 that:-

"98. From the above cases, it clearly transpires that powers under Articles 226 and 227 are discretionary and equitable and are required to be exercised in the larger interest of justice. While granting relief in favour of the applicant, the Court must take into account balancing interests and equities. It can mould relief considering the facts of the case. It can pass an appropriate order which justice may demand and equities may project. As observed by this Court in Shiv Shankar Dal Mills v. State of Haryana, (1980) 1 SCR 1170, Courts of equity should go much further both to give and refuse relief in furtherance of public interest. Granting or withholding of relief may properly be dependent upon considerations of justice, equity and good conscience."(emphasis supplied)"

32. The law repeatedly settled by the Supreme Court is that the High Court should exercise its discretionary jurisdiction in such a manner which would advance the ends of justice and uproot injustice. It should exercise power conferred under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India in a manner that provides complete and substantial justice to parties. The Supreme Court in Shangrila (supra) has held that "One of the ends of the equity is to promote honesty and fair play. If there be any unfair advantage gained by a party, priorly, before invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court can take into account the unfair advantage gained and can require the party to shed the unfair gain before granting relief." From the law settled by the Supreme Court it is clear that while exercising power under Article 226 and 227 of Constitution of India, the Court must give and refuse relief.

33. As such, in the present case, as per the submission of learned counsel for petitioner that after the denotification of Consolidation proceedings by issuing the notification under Section 52 of the Act, 1953, the change of entries is not permissible as the authorities have become functus officio, is not tenable in the light of the facts of this case, reason being, in the consolidation proceedings, the Consolidation Officer while deciding the objections had entered the name of respondent no. 8 and 9 only and at the stage of Form C.H.-45, the names of the petitioners were added by the order dated 02.02.2015 passed in pursuance of order passed under Rule 109A(1) of the Rules, 1954, at the time when respondent no. 8 moved an application for implementation/execution of the order dated 26.12.12. The authority while exercising its power under Rule 109A(1) is not empowered either to amend or modify the order passed by the Consolidation Officer at the stage of deciding the objections under Section 9A(2) of the Act, 1953. It cannot be said that it is a fresh proceedings initiated by the respondent no. 8 for deletion of the names of the petitioners and respondent nos. 3 to 7 or their ancestors from the revenue records, rather it is a correction in pursuance of the order dated 26.12.12 passed during the consolidation proceedings. Only error has been rectified in pursuance of the order dated 26.12.2012, so it is a continuation of the proceedings and not a fresh proceedings, particularly when it is an admitted case of the petitioners that their names were not in the order dated 26.12.2012 and it was added in Form C.H. 45 in compliance of the order passed under Rule 109A(1) of the Rules, 1954.

34. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made herein above, the orders passed by the Appellate Authority and the Revisional Authority does not call for any interference. The writ petition is devoid of merit and is liable to be dismissed.

35. Accordingly, the present writ petition is hereby dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2132
APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 13.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SIDDHARTH, J.
THE HON'BLE VINOD DIWAKAR, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2751 of 1980

Indra Pal ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Applicant:
Sri Shashi Kant Agrawal, Sri Pavan Kishore, Sri Piyush Kishore Srivastava, Sri Rajiv Lochan Shukla

Counsel for the Respondent:
A.G.A.

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 154(1), 161, 162, 162(1) & 313 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 33, 34 & 302 - Appeal – against conviction & sentence – FIR –offence of murder due to illicit relation – Life imprisonment – separate two appeals by both accused – one appeal was abated due to death of one of co-accused – present was co-accused's appeal – Examination of evidences - court finds that, testimony of sole eyewitness (PW2) contains material contradiction and improvements and manifestly clear that he did no see the incident as such it cannot be relied upon – PW-2 also could not identify the accused persons as there was dark - prosecution has filed to prove the motive behind the commission of the offence – no independent witness was examined, even the overt act attributed to appellant also becomes doubtful in the light of medical evidence – the I.O. neither send the seized pellets & blood-soaked-soil to the F.S.L. for examination nor recovered the weapon of offence which could have strengthened the version of PWs - Held, to assess evidence as of sterling quality, the trial court should consider various factors, including consistency, corroboration, relevancy, and authenticity - and it is the responsibility not only of the investigating agency but also of the courts to ensure that the investigation is conducted fairly and does not infringe upon an individual's – further, court of the view that, where the case rests on the testimony of the sole eyewitness, who did not see the act, the same must not be wholly reliable – consequently, Appeal is allowed – conviction and sentence is set aside – direction issued accordingly.

(Para – 47, 49, 51, 52, 53, 55)

Appeal allowed. (E-11)

List of referred Cases:

1. Kuna alias Sanjay Behera Vs St. of Odisha (2018 1 SCC 296),

2. Ramji Suriya & anr. Vs St. of Mah. (AIR 1983 SC 810),

3. Amar Singh Vs NCT of Delhi (2021 – 114 - ACC 931 SC),

4. Shakila Abdul Gafar Khan Vs Vasant Raghunath Dhoble (2003 7 SCC 749),

5. St. of AP Vs Pullagummi Kasi Reddy Krishna Reddy (2018 7 SCC 623),

6. Rupinder Singh Sandhu Vs St. of Punj. (2018 16 SCC 475),

7. Emperor Vs Khwaja Nazir Ahmad (ILR (1945) Lah. 1 / AIR 1945 PC 18),

8. Jitendra Chandra Sahib Vs St. of Tripura (1996 3 GLR 197),

9. St. of UP Vs Kishanpal (2008 16 SCC 73),

10. Bipin Kumar Mondal Vs St. of W.B. (2010 12 SCC 91),

11. Jagdish B Rao Vs Govt. of Union Territory of Goa Daman & DiVs (1976 Cr. L.J. 132 at 134),

12. Chandrika Ram Kahar Vs Emperor (1922 Pat. 535),

13. Surendra Singh Vs St. (Union Territory of Chandigarh) (2021 20 SCC 24),

14. Vadivelu Thevar Vs St. of Madra (AIR 1957 SC 614),

15. Harchand Singh & anr. Vs St. of Har. (1974 3 SCC 397),

16. Krishnamurti Vs St. of Karn. (2022 7 SCC 521),

17. Ram Nihore Yadav Vs St. of Bihar (1998 4 SCC 517),

18. Surendra Paswan Vs St. of Jharkhand (2003 12 SCC 360).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vinod Diwakar, J.)

1. Heard Shri Rajiv Lochan Shukla and Shri Pavan Kishore, learned counsel for the appellant, Shri C.L. Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State-respondent, and perused the material placed on record.

2. Upon completing the investigation1 the police filed the charge-sheet against the accused-appellant Indra Pal, and co-accused Sohanvir. The accused-appellants were charged under Section 302 read with section 34 IPC, wherein, they denied the prosecution case and claimed trial.

3. The learned trial court vide impugned judgment and order dated 26.11.1980 convicted the accused-appellant Indra Pal and co-accused Sohanvir, and vide order dated 27.11.1980 sentenced them to undergo life imprisonment for the offenses under Section 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. Aggrieved by the impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence, the accused-appellants preferred the instant appeal before this Court.

4. The co-accused Sohanvir assailed the impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence through separate Criminal Appeal bearing No.2741 of 1980, who died on 5.11.2011 during the pendency of the appeal, and thus, the appeal No.2741 of 1980 was dismissed as abated vide order dated 28.9.2021. The instant appeal bearing Criminal Appeal No.2751 of 1980 qua accused-appellant, Indra Pal, is being heard and decided by this judgment. Needless to say, both the appeals have arisen out of the common impugned judgment.

5. The prosecution case, in brief, is that a written complaint was lodged at Police Station Jani, District Meerut, on 31.5.1978 at 08:00 a.m. regarding the incident took place at 02:30 a.m. in the village Jani, by one Chamel Singh- father of the deceased- with the allegation that he along with his son Karamvir (since deceased) and Vijendra Singh (PW-2) were sleeping in his Gher2, where a lantern was burning on the Jamun tree. It was at around 02:30 a.m., the accused-appellants and another person scaled over the wall and barged into his Gher. Karamvir was shot dead, and on the noise of firing, Chamel Singh and Vijendra Singh woke up and saw the accused-appellants along with a third person, who was crossing the wall of the Gher and accused Sohanvir and Indra Pal were standing a few paces away from his deceased son carrying pistols in their hands. The accused-appellant, Indra Pal, and co-accused, Sohanvir, were identified by Chamel Singh.

6. The motive assigned in the Tehrir is that Sohanvir son of Bhopal had an illicit relations with one Smt. Prasandi, who was a cousin of the informant Chamel Singh, and Karamvir made an attempt to stop the illicit relations, therefore, accused-appellant executed the murder of Karamvir.

7. On receipt of the information, the police registered the F.I.R. and, after that, proceeded to the place of occurrence for further proceedings; S.I. A.K. Chaudhary prepared the inquest report, and the blood-stained pillow cover and lantern were taken into possession and seizure memo was thus prepared accordingly. The Station House Officer prepared the site plan and recorded the statement of witnesses. During the investigation, Sarwan Singh Yadav (PW-5), S.H.O., was transferred, and further investigation was entrusted to S.I. Ranvir Singh, who, upon receipt of the investigation, conducted the pending investigation and upon its completion filed the charge-sheet. The post-mortem was conducted by Dr. G.N. Goel (PW-4) at P.L. Sharma Hospital, Meerut on 31.5.1978 at 04:45 p.m., and opined the cause of death was due to the gunshot injuries inflicted on the head of the deceased.

8. The prosecution examined five witnesses; PW-1 Jai Prakash is the witness to the inquest report; PW-2 Vijendra Singh is the solitary eyewitness of the case; PW-3 HC Madan Lal was posted as Moharrir at the Police Station and recorded the F.I.R.; PW-4 Dr. G.N. Goel has conducted the post-mortem of the deceased; PW-5 S.I. Sarwan Singh Yadav conducted the initial investigation and recorded the statement of the witnesses; and S.I. Ranvir Singh, who filed the charge-sheet, was not examined by the prosecution.

9. Besides ocular testimony, the prosecution proved an exhibited documentary evidence outlined hereinafter; the F.I.R. is marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-6; Recovery Memo and Supurdginama of Lantern are marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-7; Post-mortem Report is marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-5; Panchayatnama is marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-2/1; a site plan with an index is marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-8; Charge-sheet is marked and exhibited as Ex.Ka-9.

10. PW-1 Jai Prakash stated that the Sub Inspector prepared the inquest report of the deceased- Karamvir at about 09:00-10:00 a.m., and he was a witness to the inquest report (Ex.Ka-1). Deceased Karamvir had sustained a firearm injury on his head. In his cross-examination, he stated that accused Sohanvir and his father were present during the inquest proceedings, but accused-appellant Indra Pal was not there. The dead body of the deceased Karamvir was lying on a cot. Besides this, the witness was not put to cross-examination, neither by the accused-appellant nor by the prosecution to prove the prosecution case.

11. PW-2 Vijendra Singh is the solitary eyewitness of the incident and the star prosecution witness, who has stated in his examination-in-chief that he was sleeping on one of the cots in the Gher, and his father, Chamel Singh, was sleeping in another cot. His brother Karamvir Singh was also sleeping beside him on a separate cot, and a burning lantern was hanging on the Jamun tree. Upon hearing the gunshot noise, he woke up and saw accused-appellant Sohanvir standing at a distance of two paces from the cot of the deceased Karamvir carrying a pistol in his hand, and accused Indra Pal was also standing there with a pistol. A third person was also standing there with a pistol, whom he did not know but could identify in his presentation. All the accused were staring at the deceased Karamvir, and after seeing the witness and his father, they ran away after crossing the southern side wall of the Gher. Karamvir died on the spot. After hearing the noise of gunshot, other co-villagers also arrived there. His father, Chamel Singh, died on 19.3.1979, who had reported the matter to the police and he could identify his signatures. The police come to the village at about 10:00 a.m. The witness was also threatened by the accused-appellant Indra Pal on 8.7.1980 not to depose in the instant case. Otherwise, he would face the dire consequences, his father faced. The victim has also filed an application before the trial court in this regard. On the question put by the court, the witness said that he had stated in the Panchayat that his brother was killed by one Daya Ram and his son, with whom they had old enmity, and the said Panchayat was convened after 2-3 days of his brother's death. He is aware of whether his brother had requested the police to investigate the case by C.I.D. and had filed the application to the D.S.P. in this regard.

12. PW-3, Constable Madan Lal, stated that he had recorded the F.I.R. based on Tahrir received from Chamel Singh, the deceased's father.

13. PW-4 Dr. G.N. Goel, Medical Officer at P.L. Sharma Hospital, conducted the postmortem of the deceased Karamvir and observed the following injuries:

"(i) A gunshot wound of entry 2 cm. x 2 cm. x brain cavity deep on the left side of the head 7 cm. above the left ear.

(ii) Blackening and charring around the wound.

(iii) Gunpowder marks were seen on the back and left forearm.

(iv) The frontal and parietal bones were found fractured.

(v) The brain was lacerated.

(vi) The interior perennial fossa was also fractured.

(vii) Six pellets were recovered from the head, and the same was sealed and handed over to the I.O.

(viii) Cause of death was opined due to injuries sustained by the deceased in the brain, which is the vital organ of the body."

14. PW-5, S.I. Sarwan Singh Yadav, in whose presence the police conducted the investigation, along with S.I. A.K. Chaudhary, prepared the Panchnama, collected the blood-soaked pillow and lantern, and prepared the site plan. He stated that he has recorded the statements of Jagsoran, Prahlad Singh and Prasandi.

15. After recording the statement of prosecution witnesses, the statement of accused-appellant Indra Pal was recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C., who stated that he along with Sohanvir, Babu Ram and his father Uday Singh, were present at the time of the inquest proceedings and had been falsely implicated in this case because of the village rivalry. Had he been accused, why would he have been present at the time of inquest proceedings by police?

16. Shri Rajiv Lochan Shukla, learned counsel for the appellant, made the following submissions:

16.1 The original copy of the F.I.R., based on which the police investigation commenced, is missing from the record, and the same was not proved and exhibited by the trial court. Therefore, the entire investigation began after the registration of F.I.R. was vitiated under the law, and thus, the appellant shall be acquitted on this ground alone. In the absence of a fair investigation, a fair trial is not possible, which is the fundamental requirement under criminal jurisprudence.

16.2 The case diary, in which the I.O.'s proceedings were recorded, has not been exhibited.

16.3 The testimony of sole eyewitness Vijendra Singh (PW-2) cannot be relied upon because it contains material contradictions and improvements. PW-2's statement was contrary to the statement recorded by the police under Section 161 Cr.P.C., and no explanation was given as to why the Investigating Officer did not record certain material facts and he also resiled from the prosecution case.

16.4 The motive of the offence is absurd, and the prosecution has failed to prove the motive behind the commission of the offence.

16.5 PW-2's testimony is manifestly clear that he did not see the incident, and he only saw the accused-appellant after the commission of the crime.

16.6 PW-2 Vijendra Singh could not identify the accused persons as there was dark, and it was also not clear as to who shot the deceased Karamvir Singh.

16.7 The prosecution has not produced Jagshoran, the domestic help, and Prahlad Singh, whose houses were situated beside the place of the incident, for a reason best known to the prosecution. Prasandi, with whom the co-accused Sohanvir had an illicit relationship, was not examined by the prosecution, therefore, the prosecution has not presented the case as was, instead, they have come up with a different story to protect the real culprits.

16.8 No independent/public witness has been examined, and no recovery has been effected. The lantern was not shown hanging with the Jamun tree in the site plan, and the competent witness has not proved the site plan. The alleged clothes seized by the I.O. have not been produced before the court. No weapon of offence was recovered and produced in the court. No recovery has been effected from the accused-appellant, and the appellant was not seen committing murder.

16.9 The prosecution has miserably failed to connect the accused with the commission of the offence. The testimony of PW-2 is full of contradictions and embellishments and can not be relied upon.

16.10 Further, the prosecution has failed to prove the corroboration. The deposition of PW-2 should be disbelieved as it ought to be, in view of the evidence surfaced during trial. Other materials on record do not show the accused's complicity in the offence; thus, the appellant is liable to be acquitted of the charges. The prosecution could not establish the illicit relationship between the co-accused Sohanvir and one Smt. Prasandi, therefore, the sole motive for commission of offense is absurd and non conclusive.

16.11 Finally, it's not safe to rely upon the testimony of the solitary eyewitness, which is full of contradictions and embellishments without corroboration.

17. Learned counsel for the appellant relied upon the judgments of the Supreme court in the cases of (i) Kuna alias Sanjaya Behera v. State of Odisha; (ii) Ramji Suriya and Another v. State of Maharashtra; and (iii) Amar Singh v. NCT of Delhi on the issue that the testimony of the sole eyewitness must be examined with caution, especially when he is an interested witness as the PW-2 is the real brother of deceased, and there is high likelihood to implicate the appellant falsely.

18. Per contra, learned A.G.A. states that the evidence of sole witnesses PW-2 is coherent, consistent, cogent, and fully corroborated by the medical evidence. Thus, the prosecution has proved the charges beyond a reasonable doubt. The conviction and sentence of the accused-appellant do not merit interference. The court below was justified in relying on the testimony of PW-2, which is duly proved and corroborated by the testimony of Dr. G.N. Goel (PW-4), who conducted the Post-mortem of the deceased. There are no material contradictions in the evidence adduced on behalf of the prosecution. In normal circumstances, PW-2 Vijendra Singh, being the brother of the deceased, would be most reluctant to spare the actual assailants and falsely mention the names of the other persons responsible for causing the death of his brother. He further submits that the report lodged by Chamel Singh, father of the deceased, if proven, would have suggested that he would be the last person to have falsely implicated the accused persons in his son's murder, leaving the real culprits. Thus, the fact that PW-2 Vijendra Singh is the deceased's brother, is insufficient to discredit his sworn testimony. There does not appear to be any exaggeration of falsehood in his evidence.

19. Learned A.G.A. further contends that merely because a minor contradiction/inconsistency cropped up in the witness's evidence, it cannot be a ground to disbelieve the truthfulness of the testimony of PW-2. He submits that the grain has to be separated from the chaff to find out the truth from the testimony of the PW-2 and relied on the judgments of the Supreme Court in Shakila Abdul Gafar Khan v. Vasant Raghunath Dhoble, State of A.P. v. Pullagummi Kasi Reddy Krishna Reddy, and Rupinder Singh Sandhu v. State of Punjab.

20. The principal argument of Shri Rajiv Lochan Shukla, learned counsel for the appellant is that the prosecution failed to produce the original F.I.R.; therefore, the entire proceedings arising out of the impugned F.I.R. were vitiated, and hence, the appellant may be acquitted. In this regard, it's become necessary to scrutinize the law carefully regarding the evidentiary value of F.I.R.

21. Shri Shukla, primarily assailed the impugned order on the ground that the original F.I.R. is missing and has not been produced in the court; therefore, the entire investigation commenced after that is vitiated under law. Therefore, the law about the evidentiary value of F.I.R. assumes significance and is thus imperative to have a re-look in this regard. As observed by the Privy Council in Emperor v. Khwaja Nazir Ahmad the receipt and recording of information report by the police is not a condition precedent to the setting in motion of a criminal investigation. Nor does the statute provide that such information report can only be made by an eyewitness. The First Information Report under Section 154(1) Cr.P.C. is not even considered substantive evidence. It can only be used to corroborate or contradict the informants' evidence in court. Undue or unreasonable delay in lodging the First Information Report invariably gives rise to suspicion, which puts the court on guard to look for the plausible motive and explanation for the delay and consider its effect on the trustworthiness or otherwise of the prosecution version10.

22. Once the complaint of the petitioner disclosed the commission of a cognizable offense, the proper course according to law as provided by Section 154 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure is to register the F.I.R. and then investigate the same and the vice-versa could not be resorted to, legally.

23. In any circumstance, it is the responsibility of the defense counsel to ascertain whether a statement has been regarded as a First Information Report (F.I.R.) or is recorded as a statement taken during the investigative process outlined in Section 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. The defense counsel should then confront the concerned witness regarding any omissions or contradictions within that statement.

24. There are situations where the complainant is the initial person to visit the police station and provide details about an alleged crime directly to the officer-in-charge, who promptly records the statement before any other actions. In such instances, the statement can be immediately marked as an exhibit on the record without being initially making for identification and subsequently marking it as a regular exhibit after the Investigating Officer's testimony. However, unless these circumstances are evident from the record, it is advisable for the trial court to adopt the procedure initially marking the statement first for identification and then as a regular exhibit. These observations stem from numerous cases where statements recorded during the investigative process were treated as F.I.R.s without any objection from the defense counsel or without the trial court deliberating on whether the statement was obtained during the investigation or before it commenced.

25. The absence of the First Information Report, therefore, by itself cannot destroy the prosecution case11. But this will make a prosecution case suspicious12.

26. It is necessary to stress that the statement recorded under Section 161 Cr.

P.C. shall not be used for any purpose except to contradict a witness in the manner prescribed in the proviso to Section 162 (1) Cr.P.C.

27. So far as Shri Rajeev Lochan Shukla's next argument is concerned, the trial court has committed a grave error by believing the testimony of solitary eyewitness Vijendra Singh (PW-2) without corroboration, which is supplemented by the weak motive attributed to the commission of the offense, and absurd investigation.

28. The Supreme court in State of U.P. v. Kishanpal case has held that the motive may be considered as a circumstance that is relevant for assessing the evidence, but if the evidence is clear and unambiguous and the circumstances prove the guilt of the accused, the same is not weakened even if the motive is not a very strong one. It is also settled law that the motive loses all its importance in a case where direct evidence of eyewitnesses is available because even if there may be a very strong motive for the accused persons to commit a particular crime, they cannot be convicted if the evidence of eyewitnesses is not convincing. In the same way, even if there may not be an apparent motive if the evidence of the eyewitnesses is clear and reliable, the absence or inadequacy of motive cannot stand in the way of conviction.

29. The Supreme court in Bipin Kumar Mondal v. State of West Bengal has held that motive is a thing that is particularly known to the accused himself, and it may not be possible for the prosecution to explain what actually prompted or excited the accused to commit a crime. The motive is distinct from "object and means" which innervates or provokes an action. Unlike "intention", "motive" is not the yardstick of a crime. A lawful act with an ill motive would not constitute an offense but it may not be true when an unlawful act is committed with best of the motive. Unearthing "motive" is akin to an exercise of manual brain-mapping. At times, it becomes herculean task to ascertain the traces of a "motive". The three-Judge Bench of the Supreme court in Surendra Singh v. State (Union Territory of Chandigarh) case has further elucidated that the motive is infallibly a crucial factor, and is a substantial aid for evincing the commission of an offense, but the absence thereof is, however, not such a quintessential component which can be construed as fatal to the case of the prosecution, especially when all other factors point towards the guilt of the accused and testaments of eyewitnesses to the occurrence of a malfeasance are on record.

30. As the PW-2 Vijendra Singh is the only eyewitness to the incident, who was examined by the prosecution and was sleeping beside the deceased on a separate cot and had seen the appellant carrying a pistol in his hand standing a few paces away from the cot on which the deceased was lying. Chamel Singh was also present at the spot; he was a police witness but could not be produced in the court for examination as he had died before the trial court could summon him. The other police witnesses, Jagmohan, Prabhat Singh and Smt. Prasandi, were not summoned by the prosecution to prove the prosecution's case; therefore, it is prudent to examine the law about the admissibility of evidence of the sole eyewitness. The relevant portion of the testimony of PW-2 is extracted herein under, for ready reference:

"11. हमारे व दयाराम तथा उसके लड़को के ताल्लुकात ठीक है न मेल है न रंजिश हैं इन्द्रपाल से मेरी कोई रंजिश नहीं थी, सोहनवीर से भी हमारी कोई रंजिश नहीं थी। गांव में मेरे पिता के मारे जाने के 2-3 दिन बाद एक पंचायत हुई थी। जिसमें मेरे मामा व गांव के अन्य आदमी भी थे।

प्रश्न- क्यो ऐसा है कि पंचायत में मेरे भाई ज्ञानेन्द्र ने यह कहा कि मेरे पिता व मेरे भाई को दयाराम व उसके लड़को ने मारा है?

उत्तर- मेरे भाई ने पंचायत में यह बात कही थी।"

"14. परसन्दी को मै जानता हूँ, वह मेरी फूफी है और उम्र करीब 55-60 साल होगी। उसके सगे भाई हरपाल सिंह है। हरपाल सिंह के चार लड़के है। मेरे पिता जी की उम्र 65 वर्ष थी। मै बाबूराम को जानता हूँ, वह अदालत में मौजूद है, उनकी उम्र का मुझे पता नहीं। हमारी इनसे कोई रंजिश नहीं है।"

31. The Supreme Court in Vadivelu Thevar v. State of Madras has carved out three categories of witnesses; (i) wholly reliable, (ii) wholly unreliable, and (iii) neither wholly reliable nor wholly unreliable, and thus held:

"In view of these considerations, we have no hesitation in holding that the contention that in a murder case, the court should insist upon plurality of witnesses, is much too broadly stated. Section 134 of the Indian Evidence Act has categorically laid it down that "no particular number of witnesses shall in any case be required for the proof of any fact." The legislature determined, as long ago as 1872, presumably after due consideration of the pros and cons, that it shall not be necessary for proof or disproof of a fact, to call any particular number of witnesses. In England, both before and after the passing of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, there have been a number of statutes as set out in Sarkar's I Law of Evidence -9th Edition, at pp. 1 100 and 1 101, forbidding convictions on the testimony of a single witness. The Indian Legislature has not insisted on laying down any such exceptions to the general rule recognized in s. 134 quoted above. The section enshrines the well-recognized maxim that "Evidence has to be weighed and not counted". Our Legislature has given statutory recognition to the fact that administration of justice may be hampered if a particular number of witnesses were to be insisted upon. It is not seldom that a crime has been committed in the presence of only one witness, leaving aside those cases which are not of uncommon occurrence, where determination of guilt depends entirely on circumstantial evidence. If the Legislature were to insist upon plurality of witnesses, cases where the testimony of a single witness only could be available in proof of the crime, would go unpunished. It is here that the discretion of the presiding judge comes into play. The matter thus must depend upon the circumstances of each case and the quality of the evidence of the single witness whose testimony has to be either accepted or rejected. If such a testimony is found by the court to be entirely reliable, there is no legal impediment to the conviction of the accused person on such proof. Even as the guilt of an accused person may be proved by the testimony of a single witness, the innocence of an accused person may be established on the testimony of a single witness, even though a considerable number of witnesses may be forthcoming to testify to the truth of the case for the prosecution. Hence, in our opinion, it is a sound and well- established rule of law that the court is concerned with the quality and not with the quantity of the evidence necessary for, proving or disproving a fact. Generally speaking, oral testimony in this context may be classified into three categories, namely:

(1) Wholly reliable.

(2) Wholly unreliable.

(3) Neither wholly reliable nor wholly unreliable."

32. The Supreme court in Harchand Singh & Anr. v. State of Haryana, held that (i) the function of the court in a criminal trial is to find whether the person arraigned before it as the accused is guilty of the offense with which he is charged. For this purpose, the court scans the material on record to find whether there is any reliable and trustworthy evidence upon the basis of which it is possible to found the conviction of the accused and to hold that he is guilty of the offense with which he is charged; (ii) the court can base the conviction of the accused on a charge of murder upon the testimony of a single witness if the same was found to be convincing and reliable. If in a case the prosecution leads two acts of evidence, each one of which contradictions and strikes at the other and shows it to be unreliable, the result would necessarily be that the court would be left with no reliable and trustworthy evidence upon which the conviction of the accused might be based. Inevitably, the accused would have the benefit of such a situation.

33. A perusal of the trial court judgment would reveal that the conviction is based on the testimony of PW-2, the sole eyewitness of the incident. While recording the finding of the conviction against the accused-appellant, the trial court believed that there was no question to disbelieve the testimony of PW-2 Vijendra Singh, who is the real brother of the deceased and was present at the time of the incident. PW-2 clearly stated in his deposition that the accused-appellant was standing near his brother when he woke up after hearing the gunshot; he could identify two of the assailants, whereas the third assailant could not be identified. As the deceased was from his village and had illicit relations with Smt. Prasandi, who is a relative of PW-2; therefore, the accused decided to eliminate the deceased, who was coming his way to continue his illicit relationship with Smt. Prasandi. There was sufficient light, and the site plan also indicates the source of light. There is also no ground to disbelieve that the lantern was burning inside Gher and the accused was standing two paces away from the cot of the deceased and, after that, scaled over the wall. The registration of the chik F.I.R. was exhibited by PW-3, Police constable Madan Lal, who has recorded the Tehrir; therefore, it's become inconsequential whether the F.I.R. was exhibited or not. Normally, PW-2 Vijendra Singh, being the brother of the deceased, would be most reluctant to spare the real assailant and falsely mention the name of the other person for murdering his brother. Lastly, the testimony of PW-2 was found convincing and reliable.

34. In the light of the findings of the trial court, it becomes imperative to examine the witnesses on two aspects; firstly, the motive, and secondly, the act performed by the accused in the commission of the crime. It is an admitted case of the prosecution that accused Sohanvir had illicit relations with Smt. Prasandi, and the deceased was coming in their way to object to the same. Therefore, the accused persons decided to eliminate the deceased. This is the sole motive behind the commission of murder to prove the motive and for the act performed in commission of murder; the testimony of sole eyewitness PW-2 Vijendra Singh, the brother of the deceased assumes significance because he is the solitary eyewitness.

35. The facts and the evidence placed before the trial court by the prosecution-suggest that the appellant's conviction is solely based on the testimony of PW-2, the eyewitness who saw appellant was carrying the pistol in hand, when he woke up after hearing the gunshot noise and found the deceased in pool of blood on the cot.

36. In this case, the touchstone of legal exposition is the testimony of PW-2, the sole eye witness, and PW-5, who conducted the investigation.

37. Admittedly, PW-2, a solitary eyewitness of the incident, is the deceased's brother and, therefore, is a related and interested witness. He claims to have slept beside the deceased and woke up after hearing the gunshot. PW-2 supported the case of the prosecution in the chief examination, whereas, in cross-examination, he stated that he knows one Daya Ram of his village, who has three sons, and all live with their parents, and further said that we had a panchayat at his village after 2-3 days of the date of the incident in which his maternal uncle and other co-villagers were present. On a court question, the witness admitted that his brother Gyanendra had stated that one Daya Ram and his son had murdered the deceased. He further stated that his family was not happy with the police investigation and had requested the C.O. to transfer the investigation to the C.B.C.I.D. When the witness was confronted with the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., he stated that he had not given such statement to the Investigating Officer and did not know why he recorded his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that the accused Indra Pal was standing two paces away from the cot of the deceased and he was carrying a pistol. He further stated that he had not told the Investigating Officer that the third person was also standing there carrying a gun in his hand. He has also not told to the Investigating Officer that the accused scaled the wall, but he has told that the accused went south, and his father has told the incident to his servant Jagshoran and one Jai Prakash Jogi, but the Investigating Officer did not record their statements.

38. When the PW-2, the solitary eyewitness was confronted with the statement recorded by the I.O. under Section 161 Cr.P.C. he showed ignorance of certain relevant facts, which are extracted below:

23. सुबह मेरे घेर से सोहनवीर को गिरफ्तार नही किया। सोहनवीर व इन्द्रपाल की तलाशी रात में नही कराई थी। मैंने दरोगा जी को मुलजिमान के तलाश कराने की बात नही बताई थी, पता नही मेरे बयान मे उन्होने कैसे लिख लिया। यह गलत है कि मेरी आंख गोली चलने के बाद खुली और मैंने केवल तीन आदमीयों को दीवार फाँदते देखा था जिनको मै पहचान नही सका। मैंने दरोगा जी को बयान दिया था कि मुलजिमान व एक अन्य आदमी को दीवार फाँदते हुऐ देखा है। दरोगा जी को पिच्छली दक्षिणी दीवार फाँदना बताया था पता नही उन्होंने क्यों नही लिखा। ऐसा नही है कि मै वहाँ नही था और चूंकि रिपोर्ट लिखा दी है। इसलिये बयान दे रहा हूँ।"

39. Given the aforesaid improvements and deliberations, it becomes necessary to corroborate the solitary witness's testimony with other circumstantial evidence, and the evidence of PW-2 must be scrutinized with great caution and circumspection.

40. The PW-1, a witness to the inquest report, has shown ignorance as to who had gone to the police station to register the F.I.R. and how many cots were present near the place of the incident. He is unaware of who was present during the inquest proceedings. The Investigating Officer PW-5 stated that he had seized blood-soaked soil, lantern and prepared the site plan, and after that second Investigating Officer, Shri Ranveer Singh, after taking the statement of Jagshoran and Prahlad Singh, filed the charge-sheet. On examination by the prosecution, nothing in the testimony of PW-5 suggests that he had made any efforts to recover the gun, the weapon of offence or sent the pellets recovered from the deceased to the F.S.L. for corroboration.

41. In the matter of appreciation of evidence of witnesses, it is not the number of witnesses but the quality of their evidence that is relevant, as there is no requirement under the law of evidence that any particular number of witnesses is to be examined to prove/disprove effect. The evidence must be weighed and not counted. The testimony of PW-2 fails to pass the standard of test of a creditworthy witness. There is no doubt the conviction can be based on the testimony of a sole eyewitness, and there is no rule of law for evidence that says to the contrary, provided the sole witness passes the test of reliability. So long as the single eyewitness is a wholly reliable witness, the courts have no difficulty basing conviction on his testimony alone.

42. The trial court recorded the finding that the charge framed under Section 302 read with Section 34 I.P.C. is proved against the accused persons and, therefore, hold guilty both the appellant and co-accused Sohanveer, who had died during the pendency of the instant appeal before this Court, therefore, the appeal is dismissed as abated qua accused Sohanveer. Therefore, we proceed to deal with the evidence come-forth qua appellant-Indrapal.

43. Succinctly, as per the trial court, three accused persons had committed the crime: accused Sohanveer (since died) and Indra Pal were carrying a gun, and a third accused was also there who could not be identified, as per PW-2, and the deceased had died because of a single gunshot injury on his head, P.W.4 stated. There is no material on the trial court record to establish a common intention on the part of the appellant, Indra Pal, to commit murder. Assistance has been taken from Krishnamurti v. State of Karnataka.

"26.Section 34 I.P.C. makes a co-perpetrator, who had participated in the offence, equally liable on the principle of joint liability. For Section 34 to apply there should be common intention between the co-perpetrators, which means that there should be community of purpose and common design or pre-arranged plan. However, this does not mean that co-perpetrators should have engaged in any discussion, agreement or valuation. For Section 34 to apply, it is not necessary that the plan should be pre-arranged or hatched for a considerable time before the criminal act is performed. Common intention can be formed just a minute before the actual act happens. Common intention is necessarily a psychological fact as it requires prior meeting of minds. In such cases, direct evidence normally will not be available and in most cases, whether or not there exists a common intention has to be determined by drawing inference from the facts proved. This requires an inquiry into the antecedents, conduct of the co-participants or perpetrators at the time and after the occurrence.The manner in which the accused arrived, mounted the attack, nature and type of injuries inflicted, the weapon used, conduct or acts of the co-assailants/perpetrators, object and purpose behind the occurrence or the attack etc. are all relevant facts from which inference has to be drawn to arrive at a conclusion whether or not the ingredients of Section 34 I.P.C. are satisfied. We must remember that Section 34 I.P.C. comes into operation against the co-perpetrators because they have not committed the principal or main act, which is undertaken/performed or is attributed to the main culprit or perpetrator. Where an accused is the main or final perpetrator, resort to Section 34 I.P.C. is not necessary as the said perpetrator is himself individually liable for having caused the injury/offence. A person is liable for his own acts. Section 34, or the principle of common intention, is invoked to implicate and fasten joint liability on other co-participants."

44. To attract the applicability of Section 34 I.P.C., the prosecution is obligated to establish a common intention before a person can be vicariously convicted for the criminal act of another. The ultimate act should be done in furtherance of common intention. Common intention requires a pre-arranged plan, which can even be formed at the spur of the moment or simultaneously just before or even during the attack. For proving common intention, the prosecution can rely upon direct proof of prior concert or circumstances which necessarily lead to that inference. However, incriminating facts must be incompatible with the accused's innocence and incapable of explanation by any other reasonable hypothesis. By Section 33 of I.P.C., a criminal act in Section 34 I.P.C. includes omission to act. Thus, a co-perpetrator who has done nothing but has stood at the place of incident while the offence was committed may be liable for the offence since in crimes, as in other things, "they also serve who only stand and wait". Thus, common intention or crime sharing may be by an overt or covert act, by active presence or at a distant location, but there should be a measure of jointness in committing the act.

45. On conjoint reading of Section 34 with Section 33 IPC, it infers that there should be a common intention of all the co-accused persons, which means a community of purpose and shared desire. Common intention does not by itself mean engaging in any discussion or agreement to prepare a plan or hatch a conspiracy for committing the offence. Common intention is a psychological fact, and it can be formed a minute before the actual happening of the incident or even during the occurrence of the incident. A mere common intention per se may not attract Section 34 I.P.C. unless the accused has done some act in furtherance of the commission of the crime.

46. In the instant case, the statement of PW-2 does not suggest as to who fired on the deceased, particularly given the testimony of PW-4, which suggests that the deceased had died due to a single gunshot injury on his head, which became fatal to the deceased; no overt act is attributed to the appellant; not has seen that the appellant fired at deceased and he died because of his gunshot, as per the prosecution, the testimony of PW-2 does not inspire the confidence of the Court; it was co-accused Sohanvir, who allegedly had illegal relations with one Smt. Prasandi. No evidence on record could suggest that both the accused have shared a common intention or appellant has done any overt act in furtherance of the commission of the crime and finally the PW-2 could not identify the assailants (reference is invited to para 36). On this ground, the appellant also deserves the benefit of the doubt.

47. On examination of testimony of PW-5, the first investigating officer, we observe that he did not send the seized pellets to the F.S.L. for its examination, nor was any effort made to recover the weapon of offence, the blood-soaked soil seized from the place of incidence, was also not sent to the F.S.L. for chemical examination, which would have indeed corroborated the version given by the witness. No explanation is forthcoming for the failure of the prosecution to not send the pellets recovered from the deceased and blood-soaked soil to the F.S.L., which could have strengthened the version given by PW-2 Vijendra Singh at least, in the testimony of PW-5.

48. In Ram Nihare Yadav v. State of Bihar, the Supreme court, while dealing with the effect of shoddy investigation of cases, held that if primacy is given to such negligent investigation or to the omission and lapses committed in the course of investigation, it will shake the confidence of people not only in law enforcing agencies, but also in the administration of justice. The Supreme court in Surendra Paswan v. State of Jharkhand, further delineated that in the instant case not only the I.O. sent the seizure to the FSL and made no effect to the recovery of weapon of offence but the prosecution's the solitary star witness who resiled in cross-examination making his testimony doubtful, and "dis-proved"; because the sample was not sent may constitute a deficiency in the investigation, but the same did not corrode the evidentiary value of the eyewitnesses, if proved unshakable.

49. In essence, the cumulative effect of both oral testimony and documentary evidence is paramount, to assess the sterling quality and admissibility of the evidence presented during the trial. The court must weigh the credibility and reliability of both oral and documentary evidence to determine their overall probative value. To assess evidence as of sterling quality, the court should consider various factors, including consistency, corroboration, relevancy, and authenticity. Additionally, the court should evaluate the demeanor of the witnesses, the clarity and coherence of the testimony, and veracity of the documentary evidence.

50. It would have been certainly making the prosecution case at better footing if the Investigating Officer (PW-5) had sent the pellets recovered from the deceased and blood-soaked soil to the Forensic Science Laboratory and had made efforts to recover the weapon of offence, i.e. gun for comparison. However, the report of the ballistic expert and F.S.L. report would have, in any case, been the nature of an expert opinion, and the same is not conclusive evidence. The failure of the Investigating Officer in sending the blood-soaked soil pellets recovered from the deceased cannot be utterly proved fatal for prosecution, if the same is fully established from the testimony of the sole eyewitness (PW-2), whose presence cannot be doubted as he was sleeping beside the deceased on a separate cot but a testimony of PW-2 by itself does not inspire the confidence of the court, therefore, become a relevant fact to be considered by this Court.

51. It is the responsibility not only of the investigating agency but also of the courts to ensure that the investigation is conducted fairly and does not infringe upon an individual's freedom except as prescribed by the law. Equally integral to criminal law is the principle that the investigating agency bears a significant responsibility to conduct an investigation without bias or unfairness. The investigation should not, at first glance, suggest a prejudiced mindset, and every endeavor should be made to hold the guilty accountable under the law, as no one is above it, irrespective of their societal status or influence.

52. By applying the ratio culled out in Vadivelu Thevar v. State of Madras (supra), we can safely conclude that where the case rests on the testimony of the sole eyewitness, who did not even see the act of firing on the deceased, he woke up after hearing the gunshot and show the accused's were standing two paces away from the deceased staring at the deceased, the same must not be wholly reliable. Additionally, PW-2 has resiled from his statement when contradiction with 161 Cr.P.C. statement. The relevant portion is extracted herein below:

"17. दरोगा जी ने इस घटना के बारे मे मुझ से पूछंताछ की थी, पहले पिता जी का बयान लिया बाद को मेरा लिया था। मैने दरोगा जी को गोली की आवाज सुनकर खाट से ऊतर कर खड़े होने की बात बताई थी। यदि मेरे बयान में यह बात नही है तो इसकी कोई वजह नहीं बता सकता। दरोगा जी ने मुझ से मेरे पिता जी के खाट से ऊतर कर मेरे पीछे खड़े हो जाने की पूछी नही थी इसलिये नही बताई। मैने यह बात दरोगा जी को नही बताई कि मैने देखा कि इन्द्रपाल करमवीर की खाट से 2 कदम दूर खड़ा है और उसके हाथ मे पिस्तोल है। "मेने दरोगा जी को यह बात भी नही बताई कि "सोहनवीर उसकी वगल मे खड़ा था और उस के हाथ मे भी पिस्तोल थी।" मैने दरोगा जी को यह भी नही बताया कि "तीसरा आदमी भी वही खड़ा था और उसके हाथ में भी पिस्तोल थी।" मैने दरोगा जी को यह बात कि दीवार कूद कर भाग गये बताई थी लेकिन यह बात नही बताई कि ठिठके और दक्षिण की तरफ दीवार कूद कर भाग गये। मैने दरोगा जी को यह बात बताई थी कि पिता जी ने करमवीर को आवाज दी वह नही बोला और नवज देखकर कहा कि यह खत्म हो गया यदि उन्होंने मेरे बयान में यह बात न लिखा हो तो कोई वजह नही बता सकता। मै तो रो रहा था लेकिन मेरे पिता ने घटना और लोगो को बताई थी। मेरे नौकर जगशोरन को भी बताई थी। और जय प्रकाश जोगी को भी बताई थी वह इस मुकदमे में गवाह नही है। जो नाम मैने बताये थे उनके बयान दरोगा जी ने मेरे सामने नही लिये।"

53. In this case except the evidence of PW-2, the related and interested witness, we do not find any other evidence which at least gives some assurance. We think it is highly dangerous to convict the appellant on this kind of evidence when there are strong circumstances to show that the testimony of the sole eyewitness needs corroboration, either from ocular testimony or documentary/scientific evidence. In this case, there is no way of separating the grain from the chaff since even the overt act attributed to appellant Indra Pal also becomes doubtful in the light of the medical evidence and serious contradiction and embellishment in the testimony of PW-2.

54. Based on the forgoing discussions, we have concluded that (i) the prosecution could have produced either Smt. Prasandi or her relatives so that the motive could be well established. The police have neither recorded the statement of Smt. Prasandi nor her relatives, and neither has produced the evidence that could justify the motive behind the commission of murder, (ii) the testimony of PW-2 cannot be relied upon in the facts and circumstances of the case because of reason; a) that there are serious discrepancy in the statement of PW-2 with respect to the motive of the crime; b) the manner in which the crime has been committed, has not been explained by the witness; c) PW-2 becomes evasive to most of the relevant questions and showed ignorance when confronted with statement u/s 161 Cr.P.C. recorded by I.O.; d) admitted that a panchayat was convened in his village soon after his brother's murder and his brother had told that Karamvir was murdered by one Dayaram and his sons; e) he had seen three unidentified assailants scaling the wall, towards South, but could not identifiable; (iii) non-examination of servant Jagshoran and Jai Prakash by the prosecution, their names are mentioned in the tehrir; (v) the recovery was not effected; (vi) no scientific evidence was gathered or sent for the F.S.L. to link the weapon of offence to the crime.

55. As a result, the conviction and sentence passed against the appellant vide impugned judgment of conviction dated 26.11.1980 and order of sentence dated 27.11.1980, passed by VIth Additional Sessions Judge, Meerut in Sessions Trial No. 433 of 1979 titled State v. Sohanvir and Another, arising out of Case Crime No 171 of 1978, under Section 302/34 I.P.C., registered at Police Station Jani, District Meerut, is hereby set aside and the appellant is acquitted of all the charges. Thus, the appeal is allowed.

56. Office is directed to send back the record of this appeal to the trail court concerned along with a copy of this order for compliance of section 437-A Cr.P.C.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2147
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 10.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHWANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE MOHD. AZHAR HUSAIN IDRISI, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 5227 of 2019

Vedram & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opposite Party

Counsel for the Applicants:
Sri Radhey Shyam Shukla, Sri Vipul Shukla

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A.

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section – 313 - Indian Penal Code, 1860-Sectiosn 201, 304-B & 498-A – Dowry Prohibition Act,1961 - Sections 3 & 4 - Two Appeals – against conviction & sentence – FIR – Charge – alleged that sister of informant died due to dowry death - Life imprisonment for husband and 10 years rigorous imprisonment for both mother & father in-laws – appeal was abated against father-in-law due to his death - Evaluation of evidence - court finds that, the dead body had been cremated on the same day of incident, as such neither any postmortem report nor any forensic evidence is available to the prosecution – even though the death of the deceased was un-natural, yet no information was furnished to the police about the un-natural death of deceased - death of deceased was occurred within 7 years of marriage – prosecution witnesses have fully supported the version of demand of dowry which persisted till soon before her death – hence, the conviction of husband is sustained – but, so for as the role of mother-in-law is concern who is reported to be around 70 years of age and in jail for last 5 years - the allegations is not specific as against her – and since the deceased herself had started living separately from her family prior to her death - therefore, conviction of mother-in-law is reversed – appeal of mother-in-law is allowed. (Para – 12, 13, 16, 17, 23)

(B) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section – 313 - Indian Penal Code, 1860-Section – 201, 304-B, 498-A – Dowry Prohibition Act, - Section – 3, 4 - Two Appeals – against conviction & sentence – FIR – Charge – alleged that sister of informant died due to dowry death - Life imprisonment for husband and 10 years rigorous imprisonment for co-accused both mother & father in-laws – appeal was abated against father-in-law due to his death – Quantum of punishment - Court finds that, punishment u/s section 304-B IPC varies from 7 year to life and it is cardinal principle of law that reasons have to be given by the trial court while proceeds to award maximum permissible sentence for an offence - court finds no any such reasons - and there are no such circumstances which may justify awarding of extreme punishment to the accused husband in the facts of the present case – hence, in the light of settled law as rendered in case of 'Hem Chand' and 'Kashmira Devi' punishment of life imprisonment u/s 304-B IPC to the accused-husband is not warranted – sentence awarded to him be modified to the sentence already undergone by him – direction issued accordingly - Appeal is allowed in part. (Para – 18, 19, 20, 22)

One Appeal is allowed & anr. is allowed in part. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hem Chand Vs St. of Har. (1994 6 SCC 727),

2. Kashmira Devi Vs The St. of Uttrakhand (AIR 2020 SC 652).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashwani Kumar Mishra, J.)

1. These two appeals are directed against the judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 5.7.2019, passed by Additional Sessions Judge/Fast Track Court No.2, Shahjahanpur, in Sessions Trial No. 167 of 2016 (State Vs. Vedram and others), arising out of Case Crime No.384 of 2015, Police Station Paraur, District Shahjahanpur, whereby the accused appellants Vedram and Smt. Kusuma Devi have been convicted and sentenced to ten years rigorous imprisonment each, as well as accused appellant Rajendra has been convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, under Section 304-B IPC, and all accused appellants have also been convicted and sentenced to two years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.5,000/- each under Section 498-A IPC; two years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.3,000/- each under Section 201 IPC; one years rigorous imprisonment alongwith fine of Rs.1,000/- each under Section 4 Dowry Prohibition Act. On failure to deposit the above fines to undergo additional rigorous imprisonment for one year each. All punishments are to run concurrently.

2. Brother of the deceased has made a written report scribed by Jugal Kishore, stating that his sister Ramkanti got married about 4 years back in the month of June, 2012 to accused Rajendra son of Vedram. She was a graduate. Rajendra and his brother Manish as well as their father Vedram and mother-in-law used to harass her for dowry and on multiple occasions she informed him on Phone and also on visits to the parental family. Although dowry was given as per the financial ability but due to poverty, the informant could not meet all demands of the accused persons. The aforesaid persons demanded a motorcycle, gold chain and ring and as demand in that regard could not be met as such his sister was tortured and has been done to death. Her body has been cremated. The incident has occurred on 19.9.2015 at 5.00 pm. The informant received a telephone call from one Rajesh about the incident and has consequently lodged the report. This written report (Ex.Ka-1) forms the basis of FIR in Case Crime No.384 of 2015, under Sections 498-A, 304-B, 201 IPC and 3/4 Dowry Prohibition Act. Five persons have been implicated in the FIR, namely Vedram (father-in-law), Rajendra (husband), Manish and Anil (brothers-in-law), mother-in-law of Smt. Ramkanti (Smt. Kusuma Devi). Since the dead body had already been cremated on 19.9.2015 itself, as such neither any postmortem was possible nor any other forensic evidence is available to the prosecution. Relying upon testimony of witnesses chargesheet came to be submitted against 3 of the 5 named accused i.e. husband Rajendra as well as his parents namely Vedram and Smt. Kusuma Devi. Cognizance was taken on the chargesheet and the case was committed to the court of sessions where it got registered as Sessions Trial No.167 of 2016. Alternate charge was also framed under Section 302/34 IPC in addition to the sections in which chargesheet was filed by the police.

3. The informant has appeared as PW-1 and has supported the prosecution case with regard to marriage having been held in June, 2012; giving of dowry articles in marriage by the family to the deceased; demand of dowry by the family members due to which she was physically and mentally harassed; demanded motorcycle, gold chain and ring. PW-1 has also proved the written report. He has also stated that he came to know of the incident on Phone and by the time family members could reach Village Varkhimaee, Police Station Paraur, District Shahjahanpur, her dead body was already cremated. In the cross-examination PW-1 has admitted that no written complaint with regard to demand of dowry was ever made. He got no information regarding death of his sister from her in-laws. He got a Phone call from one Rajesh but his Phone number is not available. He has stated that at the time of marriage, there was no complaint made regarding dowry, but it was later that dowry was demanded. Panchayat was also held in that regard.

4. Similarly PW-2 Narendra Kumar claims to be the brother of deceased and has stated that marriage got solemnized in June, 2012. He has also supported the plea of demand of dowry and has testified that on its failure the deceased has been done to death. PW-2 has also admitted that ever since the marriage, no complaint was ever made with anyone with regard to demand of dowry by the accused persons. All expenditure in respect of the marriage was arranged by the father of the deceased.

5. PW-3 Yadunath Singh is a villager, who too has supported the prosecution case.

6. PW-4 Rajaram is father of the deceased. He has stated that at the time of marriage there was no demand of dowry. However, all her Stridhan was taken by the in-laws and this fact was disclosed by the deceased to her brother Narendra. PW-4 has admitted that some time before the death of the deceased she had started living separately and the deceased with her husband had separate living and kitchen etc. He has clarified that about 15 days prior to death her daughter and son-in-law separated from their parents and other family members.

7. PW-5 Sheeshram has not supported the prosecution case. This witness has stated that family members of deceased were informed and after waiting for sufficiently long the deceased was cremated. There was never ever a demand of dowry nor any any prior complaint was made.

8. PW-6 is the Investigating Officer, who has stated that accused persons were arrested on 1.10.2015. Statement of villagers were recorded and it was found that deceased was cremated in the field at a distance of about 300 metres from the house of the accused persons. The witnesses had informed him that deceased had committed suicide by hanging.

9. Based upon the evidence led during trial by the prosecution, statement of accused persons under Section 313 Cr.P.C. has been recorded, wherein they have denied the allegations made against them. In addition to above accused persons have stated that deceased committed suicide by hanging, which fact was intimated to the family members of the deceased. They participated in the cremation, whereafter a Panchayat was held and the family members of the deceased were demanding more money and as they could not pay the amount, a false report has been lodged. Similar stand has been taken by all the three accused persons.

10. The accused persons have also produced their witnesses. DW-1 has stated that deceased died on account of illness. The death was reported to family members but they did not arrive, and therefore, the body was cremated in the evening. Next day the family members arrived and demanded money on account of which FIR has been lodged. Similar stand has been taken by DW-2 and DW-3, all of whom are neighbours and claimed that they have participated in the cremation. It is on the basis of above evidence that the court of sessions has convicted the accused appellants and sentenced them as per law.

11. Aggrieved by the judgment and order of conviction and sentence, the accused appellants have filed the appeals, which have been heard together and are being disposed of by this common judgment. We have heard Sri Bishram Tiwari and Sri Ritesh Singh for the appellants, Sri Vikas Goswami, learned AGA for the State and have perused the materials available on record including the original records of the trial court.

12. In the facts of the case, evidence on record shows that the marriage of the deceased has been solemnized with accused Rajendra in June, 2012. This fact has been specifically asserted by prosecution witnesses. Prosecution witnesses have not been confronted on this aspect by the defence. Although suggestion has been given that marriage was held 9 years prior to the incident, but even in their written statement the marriage is reported to have been solemnized in 2010. Upon evaluation of evidence on the factum of marriage the trial court has concluded that the death of deceased has occurred within 7 years of marriage. Although this finding is assailed by the counsel for the appellants but having carefully perused the materials on record we do not find any reasons to disagree with the conclusion drawn by the court of sessions. The categorical statement of prosecution witnesses about marriage having been solemnized in June, 2012 is neither challenged nor any contra-evidence on this aspect has been led by the defence. We, therefore, concur with the opinion of the trial judge that death of the deceased has occurred within 7 years of the marriage.

13. The other aspect is as to whether death of the deceased was unnatural or that she died on account of illness. On this aspect we find that defence version is not consistent. Three witnesses have been produced by the defence namely DW-1, DW-2 and DW-3, all of whom have asserted that the deceased was suffering from ailment and the death was natural. No evidence in support of such plea has, however, been placed on record. There are no prescriptions of the doctor nor any details of illness etc. has been furnished. We otherwise find that the defence version that deceased died a natural death due to illness is contradicted by their own statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C., wherein the accused have stated that the deceased committed suicide by hanging. The defence version on the factum of death, therefore, is contradictory. While accused in their statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. claimed that the deceased committed suicide by hanging, but their witnesses claim that death occurred on account of illness and was natural. We have examined the evidence on this aspect of the matter, and we find the defence version on this score also not to be trustworthy. The Investigating Officer in his testimony has stated that he made enquiries from various villagers and he was informed that deceased had committed suicide by hanging. This is also the plea set up by the accused in their testimony under Section 313 Cr.P.C. The weight of evidence on record, therefore, persuades us to endorse the conclusions drawn by the trial court, as per which the deceased died an unnatural death. Death by suicide cannot be said to be natural, and therefore, we agree with the conclusion of the trial judge that the deceased died an unnatural death.

14. Coming to the other aspect relating to demand of dowry soon before her death, we find that the prosecution witnesses of fact have stated that the deceased was harassed for demand of dowry.

15. PW-4, who is the father of the deceased, although has stated that at the time of marriage or soon thereafter the demand of dowry was not made but after few months when her daughter came in the month of November, she was physically assaulted and all her Stridhan was taken by the in-laws. His elder son Narendra had got back the deceased. PW-4 has also stated that a report with regard to physical assault to the deceased was lodged with police station but its details are not available. The evidence adduced by the prosecution clearly supports its plea that the deceased was subjected to demand of dowry and even soon before her death the demand of dowry had continued.

16. In the facts of the case, we find that even though the death of the deceased was unnatural, yet no information was furnished to the police about the unnatural death of the deceased. It was expected that accused persons would inform the police regarding unnatural death of deceased. No such information was given. It is admitted that the death occurred on 19.9.2015 and on the same day the deceased was cremated. Even if the family members of the deceased had not arrived on 19.9.2015, as is suggested by the defence, the accused persons were expected to have deferred the cremation till arrival of the family members or at least inform the police about the incident. The manner in which dead body has been surreptitiously disposed of without intimation made to the police, we are of the view that this was a case of dowry death. The prosecution witnesses although have not furnished the specific details with regard to the date and time of demand of dowry but they have fully supported the prosecution version of demand of dowry of motorcycle, gold chain and ring. In the facts of the case, we are of the opinion that the deceased has met an unnatural death within 7 years of the marriage, and that there was a demand of dowry which persisted till soon before her death. The conviction of accused appellant Rajendra under Section 304-B IPC is, therefore, sustained.

17. Father-in-law of the deceased Vedram (accused appellant) has already died. Mother-in-law Smt. Kusuma Devi is reported to be around 70 years of age and is in jail for the last 5 years. So far as the role of mother-in-law in demanding dowry is concerned, the allegation is not specific as against her and the allegations at best appear to be omnibus and vague. PW-4, who is the father of the deceased, has categorically admitted that deceased and her husband (accused Rajendra) had separated from the family prior to her death. Not only that the deceased had started living separately but their kitchen etc. had also separated. In that view of the matter, we are of the view that even if the deceased has died unnatural death within 7 years of marriage, yet Smt. Kusuma Devi cannot be convicted for offence under Section 304-B, 498-A, 201 IPC & Section 4 Dowry Prohibition Act in the absence of any specific allegation against her, when it is admitted that deceased had a separate living. The conviction of Smt. Kusuma Devi under Section 304-B, 498-A, 201 IPC & Section 4 Dowry Prohibition Act is, therefore, reversed.

18. Coming to the question of sentence, we find that the trial court has awarded life sentence to the accused appellant Rajendra under Section 304-B IPC. Punishment under Section 304-B IPC varies from 7 years to life. When the court proceeds to award maximum permissible sentence for an offence, it is the cardinal principle of law that reasons have to be given for awarding such maximum punishment. We do not find any such reasons to have been disclosed by the trial court. We otherwise find that there are no circumstances, which may justify awarding of extreme punishment to the accused appellant Rajendra in the facts of the present case. Considering the evidence in its entirety, we are of the view that punishment of life under Section 304-B IPC to the accused appellant Rajendra is not warranted.

19. In Hem Chand Vs. State of Haryana, (1994) 6 SCC 727, the Supreme Court has observed that though punishment under Section 304-B IPC varies from 7 years to life but award of extreme punishment should not be as a matter of course and must be awarded in rare cases. In para 7 and 8, the Supreme Court observed as under:-

"7. Now coming to the question of sentence, it can be seen that Section 304-B IPC lays down that:

"Whoever commits dowry death shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than seven years but which may extend to imprisonment for life."

The point for consideration is whether the extreme punishment of imprisonment for life is warranted in the instant case. A reading of Section 304-B IPC would show that when a question arises whether a person has committed the offence of dowry death of a woman what all that is necessary is it should be shown that soon before her unnatural death, which took place within seven years of the marriage, the deceased had been subjected, by such person, to cruelty or harassment for or in connection with demand for dowry. If that is shown then the court shall presume that such a person has caused the dowry death. It can therefore be seen that irrespective of the fact whether such person is directly responsible for the death of the deceased or not by virtue of the presumption, he is deemed to have committed the dowry death if there were such cruelty or harassment and that if the unnatural death has occurred within seven years from the date of marriage. Likewise there is a presumption under Section 113-B of the Evidence Act as to the dowry death. It lays down that the court shall presume that the person who has subjected the deceased wife to cruelty before her death caused the dowry death if it is shown that before her death, such woman had been subjected, by the accused, to cruelty or harassment in connection with any demand for dowry. Practically this is the presumption that has been incorporated in Section 304-B IPC also. It can therefore be seen that irrespective of the fact whether the accused has any direct connection with the death or not, he shall be presumed to have committed the dowry death provided the other requirements mentioned above are satisfied. In the instant case no doubt the prosecution has proved that the deceased died an unnatural death namely due to strangulation, but there is no direct evidence connecting the accused. It is also important to note in this context that there is no charge under Section 302 IPC. The trial court also noted that there were two sets of medical evidence on the file in respect of the death of the deceased. Dr Usha Rani PW 6 and Dr Indu Lalit PW 7 gave one opinion. According to them no injury was found on the dead body and that the same was highly decomposed. On the other hand, Dr Dalbir Singh PW 13 who also examined the dead body and gave his opinion, deposed that he noticed some injuries at the time of re-post-mortem examination. Therefore at the most it can be said that the prosecution proved that it was an unnatural death in which case also Section 304-B IPC would be attracted. But this aspect has certainly to be taken into consideration in balancing the sentence to be awarded to the accused. As a matter of fact, the trial court only found that the death was unnatural and the aspect of cruelty has been established and therefore the offences punishable under Sections 304-B and 201 IPC have been established. The High Court in a very short judgment concluded that it was fully proved that the death of the deceased in her matrimonial home was a dowry death otherwise than in normal circumstances as a result of cruelty meted out to her and therefore an offence under Section 304-B IPC was made out. Coming to the sentence the High Court pointed out that the accused-appellant was a police employee and instead of checking the crime, he himself indulged therein and precipitated in it and that bride-killing cases are on the increase and therefore a serious view has to be taken. As mentioned above, Section 304-B IPC only raises presumption and lays down that minimum sentence should be seven years but it may extend to imprisonment for life. Therefore awarding extreme punishment of imprisonment for life should be in rare cases and not in every case.

8. Hence, we are of the view that a sentence of 10 years' RI would meet the ends of justice. We, accordingly while confirming the conviction of the appellant under Section 304-B IPC, reduce the sentence of imprisonment for life to 10 years' RI. The other conviction and sentence passed against the appellant are, however, confirmed. In the result, the appeal is dismissed subject to the above modification of sentence."

20. In Kashmira Devi Vs. The State of Uttarakhand, AIR 2020 SC 652, the principle laid down in Hem Chand (supra) has been reiterated and the Court observed as under in para 24:-

"24. Having arrived at the above conclusion the quantum of sentence requires consideration. The High Court has awarded life imprisonment to the appellant on being convicted under Section 304-B IPC. The minimum sentence provided is seven years but it may extend to imprisonment for life. In fact, this Court in Hem Chand v. State of Haryana [Hem Chand v. State of Haryana, (1994) 6 SCC 727 : 1995 SCC (Cri) 36] has held that while imposing the sentence, awarding extreme punishment of imprisonment for life under Section 304-B IPC should be in rare cases and not in every case. Though the mitigating factor noticed in the said case was different, in the instant case keeping in view the age of the appellant and also the contribution that would be required by her to the family, while husband is also aged and further taking into consideration all other circumstances, the sentence as awarded by the High Court to the appellant herein is liable to be modified."

21. In light of the observation made in para 24 (reproduced above), the Court modified the sentence to a period of 7 years. Para 25 of the judgment in Kashmira Devi (supra) is, thus, reproduced hereinafter:-

"25. In the result, the following:

Order

25.1. The conviction of the appellant recorded by the High Court under Section 304-B IPC and Section 498-A IPC through its judgment dated 29-6-2017 [State v. Govind Singh, 2017 SCC OnLine Utt 1932] is upheld and affirmed.

25.2. The sentence ordered by the High Court through its order dated 10-7-2017 [State of Uttarakhand v. Govind Singh, GA No. 42 of 2010, decided on 10-7-2017 (Utt)] is modified and the sentence of imprisonment for life is altered by ordering the appellant to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of seven years which shall include the period of sentence already undergone by the appellant. The fine as imposed and the default sentence is sustained.

25.3. The appeal is allowed in part, in the above terms.

25.4. The parties to bear their own costs."

22. The accused appellant Rajendra has been taken in custody on 20.9.2015 and has remained in jail ever since then. The actual period of incarceration undergone by him is about 8 years 7 months and with remission the incarceration period is almost 10 years. We are of the considered view that the sentence awarded to him under Section 304-B IPC be modified to the sentence already undergone by him. The fine and the default sentence is maintained.

The appellant Rajendra is set to liberty on the sentence already undergone, subject to observance of Section 437A Cr.P.C., provided he is not wanted in any other case. Criminal Appeal No. 2720 of 2024, consequently, succeeds and is allowed in part, to that extent.

23. For the reasons recorded above, the Criminal Appeal No. 5227 of 2019 of accused appellant Smt. Kusuma Devi succeeds and is allowed. The judgment and order of conviction and sentence dated 5.7.2019, passed in Sessions Trial No. 167 of 2016 (State Vs. Vedram and others), arising out of Case Crime No.384 of 2015, against the accused appellant Smt. Kusuma Devi is set aside. Accused appellant Smt. Kusuma Devi is reported to be on bail, as such her bail bonds stands discharged. The appeal at the instance of accused appellant Vedram abates and is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2155
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE JASPREET SINGH, J.

Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 6914 of 2023

Abbas Ansari ...Applicant
Versus
Directorate of Enforcement, Allahabad ...Opp. Party

Counsel for the Applicant:
Pranjal Krishna, Mirza Shariq Aziz, Purnendu Chakravarty

Counsel for the Opp. Party:
Rohit Tripathi

Criminal Law - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 120-B, 419, 420, 433, 434, 447, 467, 468 & 471 - Prevention of Damages to public property Act, 1984 - Sections 3 & 4 – The Prevention of money laundering Act, 2002 – Sections 2(u), 3, 4, 44 & 45 - Application for Bail u/s 45 of PMLA Act, – three FIR – the first FIR is against M/s Vikas Construction Firm through its partners for alleged encroachment on public property by falsification of records, in which applicant has neither directly nor indirectly to do with the daily affairs of the firm – in second FIR, the present applicant has neither named nor he has been charge-sheeted and the allegations are against co-accused – while in the third FIR, lodged against applicant along with his other family members as co-accused – grounds has also taken that entire case of prosecution revolves around the theory that the present applicant received money from his family members generated from the firm as a beneficiary, – applicant is completely unaware regarding the alleged origin of proceeds of crime and allegations are vague and baseless -allegation regarding not explaining the transactions from his account is itself not sufficient to charge the applicant for the alleged offence of money laundering - court observed that, - from perusal of material available on record prima facie it reflects the involvement of present applicant – court is also required to consider the nature and gravity of the accusation, severity of the punishment in the event of conviction and the likelihood of the offence being repeated, reasonable apprehension of the witnesses being influenced and danger, of course, of justice defeated by grant of bail – held, the plea considering the fact that the applicant is a member of the legislative assembly and a national level sportsman yet not knowing how the funds were being given to him including quantum of the funds given by his relatives to purse his own sporting and political pursuits does not inspire confidence – taking an overall view including the gravity of offence and the witness of fact are yet to be examined and also keeping in mind the dictum of the Apex Court the application for bail is rejected – further, direction issued to the trial court to expedite the trial. (Para – 38, 39, 41, 42, 43)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Rohit Tandon Vs Directorate of Enforcement (2018) 1 SCC 46,

2. Nikesh Tara Chandra Shah Vs U.O.I. & ors. (2018) 11 SCC 1,

3. Vijai Madan Lal Chaudhary Vs U.O.I. & ors. (2022) SCC 929,

4. Saumya - 12 - Chaurasia Vs Directorate of Enforcement (2023) SCC Online SC 1674,

5. Pavana Dibbur Vs Directorate of Enforcement 2023 SCC Online SC 1586,

6. Rohit Tandon Vs Directorate of Enforcement, (2018) 11 SCC 46,

7. Tarun Kumar Vs Enforcement Directorate, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1486, (Delivered by Hon'ble Jaspreet Singh, J.)

1. The applicant is a sitting MLA from Mau Assembly Seat No.356 in State of Uttar Pradesh. He is stated to be a professional sport person and he has been arraigned as an accused in ECIR/ALSZO/27/2021 [Directorate of Enforcement through Assistant Director, Allahabad, Vs. M/s. Vikas Construction & others] for the commission of offence punishable under Section 3 read with Section 4 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (hereinafter referred to as the PMLA)

2. The instant ECIR has been lodged based upon an investigation, initiated on the basis of three FIRs relating to predicate offences.

(i) In FIR No.129 of 2020 registered under sections 419, 420, 433, 434, 447, 467, 468, 471 IPC and Sections 3 and 4 of Prevention of Damages to Public Property Act, 1984 against M/s Vikas Constructions through its partner. In the instant case, the allegation is that the partners of M/s Vikas Construction had encroached on public property by falsification of records.

(ii) The other FIR is bearing No.185 of 2021 registered under Sections 419, 420, 468, 471, 120-B, 467 IPC against the accused of the said FIR. In the said FIR, significantly, the present applicant has neither been named nor he has been chargesheeted. Nevertheless, the allegations in the said FIR is that one of the co-accused in the said FIR, namely Mukhtar Ansari had taken funds from the MLA fund to build a school though no school was built and the land is being used for agricultural purposes.

(iii) The third FIR is bearing No.236 of 2020 registered under Sections 120-B, 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC read with Section 3 of Prevention of Damages to Public Property Act, 1984 against the applicant, his brother Umar Ansari and his father Mukhtar Ansari. In the said FIR, it has been stated that the accused alongwith the other two co-accused knowing that the property in question is owned and vested with the government but by using their influence usurped the said land, got a map prepared and constructed an illegal house thereby causing loss to the government. It is stated that in so far as the present case under Section 3 and 4 of the PMLA is concerned, the investigating agency has not alleged that any proceeds of crime have been generated from the predicate offence emanating from the FIR bearing No.236 of 2020.

3. Primarily, for the offences under Sections 3 and 4 of the PMLA, the proceeds of crime, have been generated from the scheduled offence of FIR bearing No.129 of 2020.

4. The applicant was arrested by the investigating agency on 04.11.2022 in context with the instant ECIR. The statement of the applicant was recorded. A supplementary complaint was also filed by the investigating agency. The special court has taken cognizance. In the aforesaid backdrop, the present applicant filed his first bail application under Sections 44/45 of the PMLA.

5. Mr. Kapil Sibal, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Mr. Purnendu Chakravarty and Mr. Pranjal Krishna, has primarily submitted that the instant proceedings under PMLA have been initiated by the investigating agency primarily from the FIR relating to the predicate offences bearing Case Crime No.129 of 2020 and Case Crime No. 236 of 2020. It has been submitted that the investigating agency alleged that it is the firm M/s. Vikas Construction which is allegedly directly involved in the offence of money laundering. It is the firm M/s Vikas Construction which has usurped the land upon which constructions of go-downs was made which in turn was given on rent to the Food Corporation of India and the rentals received in excess of 15 crores and odd has been show as proceeds of crime. It is also alleged that the firm M/s. Vikas Construction obtained a subsidy of 2.25 crores from NABARD which is also shown as proceeds of crime.

6. The investigating agency further alleged that several high value transactions were both credited and debited into and from the account of the applicant who could not explain the same. It has been taken note of that the major share holders in the firm M/s. Vikas Construction are Ms. Afshar Ansari (mother of the applicant) and Mr. Atif Raza (maternal uncle-Mamaji) amongst others. However, the present applicant could not explain source of income especially in respect of the transactions made from and into the account of the applicant.

7. Mr. Sibal has submitted that the present applicant is in no way connected to the firm M/s. Vikas Construction nor the present applicant had anything directly or indirectly to do with the daily affairs of the said firm M/s. Vikas Construction. The said firm operates its own business through its partner and the present applicant is neither a partner nor an authorized signatory nor he has any authority or control to deal with the funds belonging to the said partnership firm. There is no material to indicate that the applicant had any connection with the properties acquired by the said firm or in respect of the money/funds of the said firm. Merely because some partners in the firm M/s. Vikas Construction are related to the applicant, it does not mean that he too is a partner in crime. Hence, the applicant has been falsely implicated and even though in the investigation the trail of money has not been satisfactorily connected to the applicant yet he has been apprehended and is languishing in jail since 04.11.2022.

8. It is further submitted that the entire case of the prosecution revolves around the theory that the present applicant received money from his family members generated from the firm M/s. Vikas Construction and since the applicant is a beneficiary of the said funds which allegedly according to the investigating agency are proceeds of crime, hence the applicant is alleged to have committed the said offence under the PMLA .

9. Mr. Sibal has further submitted that the applicant is completely unaware regarding the alleged origin of proceeds of crime. The allegations against the applicant are vague and baseless and apparently no specific role has been attributed to the applicant in the predicate offence nor the trial of tainted money has been tracked to the doorstep of the applicant.

10. It is further urged that it is one thing to say that the applicant may not have been able to explain the transactions from his account which at best may be a case of unaccounted money in the hands of the applicant but that in itself is not sufficient to charge the applicant for the alleged offence of money laundering.

11. The offence of money laundering as defined in Section 3 of the PMLA is not made out against the applicant. It necessarily, must be established that a person accused of an offence under Section 3 and 4 of the PMLA must be shown to have been involved in a process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime. Once the investigating agency on their own showing comes to the conclusion that the applicant was not concerned or connected with the firm M/s Vikas Construction and for the said reason he cannot be held as an accused in the predicate offence, consequently, no case for money laundering in terms of Sections 3 and 4 of the Act of 2002 can be driven home against the applicant.

12. It is further submitted by Mr. Sibal that the applicant is a sports person and a national level rifle shooter having won accolades in the sporting arena for the country. He is also a representative of the public in capacity of a member of the Legislative Assembly and having his own source of income. It may be that some amount was transacted through the account of the applicant which has come from his mother and/or uncle (mamaji) but that in itself is not sufficient to allege that the applicant is involved in money laundering.

13. As far as the present applicant is concerned, certain money credited into the account of the applicant from his mother or uncle and utilized for import of fire arms for competitive purposes cannot be treated as proceeds of crime in the hands of the applicant.

14. 'Unaccounted money' cannot be taken as a synonym for 'proceeds of crime' as both are distinct and separate concepts. Any amount which may be unaccounted but acquired from legitimate means cannot be treated as proceeds of crime unless it is established that it has been generated from a scheduled offence. On the aforesaid touch stone the investigating agency has not been able to make out a case against the applicant, hence the bail applications deserves to be allowed.

15. It has further been argued by Mr. Sibal that Section 45 of the PMLA provides for a twin condition to be satisfied while considering an application for bail (i) the public prosecutor is given an opportunity to oppose the application for bail; (ii) where the bail application is opposed, the court must be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the applicant is not guilty of an offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

16. In the instant case, in so far as the first condition is concerned, the same stands complied with as prosecution is duly represented and they have filed their counter-affidavit opposing bail application. In so far as the second condition is concerned, it is for the court to form its satisfaction, however, the contents and the material available on record would clearly establish that, in so far as the present applicant is concerned, the allegation against him is to the extent that he has received money from his mother and maternal uncle which has been utilized by the applicant for his personal use. However, there is nothing to indicate that the applicant knowingly committed any offence as provided in Section 3 of the PMLA nor the applicant was in any way involved in the commissioning of the predicate offence and in case if the predicate offence is not made out against the applicant then proceeding under the PMLA will also fall.

17. Moreover, the statement of the applicant was recorded on several dates and he cooperated during the entire investigation. ECIR has been filed before the special court of which cognizance has been taken and in the aforesaid circumstances, neither the applicant can tamper with the evidence which is mostly documented and submitted before the court nor he can influence any witness. The applicant has deep root in the society, being a representative of the public and a national level rifle shooter too, all of this indicate that he is firmly entrenched in the society, hence not at flight risk and the applicant has been in jail since 04.11.2022 coupled with the fact that the minimum sentence as attracted upon commissioning of an offence under the PMLA is three years and it may extend up to seven years. Hence, in this backdrop, the applicant has already served for one and half years as an under trial and looking into the list of the witnesses filed alongwith the complaint before the special court which specifically mentions 14 witnesses, while not a single witness has been examined and there are voluminous records as evidence, accordingly, the trial is not likely to conclude soon, hence the bail application be allowed.

18. Mr. Rohit Tripathi, learned counsel appearing for the investigating agency has submitted that there is a distinction between the predicate offence and the offence under sections 3 and 4 of the PMLA. It is submitted that the learned Senior Counsel for the applicant has primarily based his submission on the premise that though the proceedings were initiated in context with three FIRs relating to predicate offence and as per the learned Senior Counsel for the applicant, no case is made out against the applicant in the predicate offence, accordingly the proceedings against the applicant for the offence under the PMLA will also falter, is not quite correct.

19. It is urged that Section 3 of the PMLA operates in a different sphere. From the statement recorded by the investigating agency and looking into the Bank details, balance sheet and other documents, it clearly indicates the commissioning of the predicate offence. The proceeds generated from the predicate offence have clearly been traced to and for the benefit of the present applicant which is enough to establish complicity of the applicant to the offence of money laundering in terms of Section 3 of the Act 2002 and then it is the applicant who has to establish his innocence regarding non commissioning of an offence under the PMLA.

20. Mr. Tripathi has further argued that language used in Section 3 of the PMLA is very wide and inclusive. From the record it can clearly been seen that the proceeds of crime have been generated from the firm M/s Vikas Construction which is clearly connected to another firm M/s. Aaghaaz which is also a family firm which is controlled by the maternal grand father of the applicant amongst others. It is thus urged that in light of the investigation and the material collected, there is ample evidence to establish the complicity of the applicant in the commissioning of the offence under the PMLA.

21. It is further urged that the chargesheets have been filed by the police in FIR Nos.129 of 2020 and 236 of 2022. The investigation done under the PMLA clearly established that the applicant is not only the beneficiary of the proceeds of crime but he has actively participated in the offence of money laundering. The two family firms, namely M/s. Vikas Construction has Ms. Afsan Ansari (mother of the applicant) and Mr. Atif Raza (uncle Mamaji) as partners amongst others and which has been used as vehicle for generating the proceeds of crime and the funds so generated have been transferred to and from M/s. Aaghaaz Project and Engineering Ltd., again a family owned company, and routing of funds through the aforesaid two firms and thereafter the end proceeds being debited and credited through the account of the present applicant is nothing but a clear case of layering the proceeds of crime which in turn has been utilized by the applicant and it has been attempted to show that the funds are untainted.

22. Mr. Tripathi has further urged that the present applicant did not cooperate during investigation and he was apprehended under Section 19 of the Act of 2002 on 04.11.2022. A lookout notice had to be issued against the applicant and it is only thereafter that the applicant was apprehended and then statements have been recorded. Merely denials that the applicant is no way connected with the firm M/s. Vikas Construction or M/s. Aaghaaz has to be considered noting the fact that the applicant has clearly given statements wherein he stated that as and when he required funds, the same was arranged by his mother Ms. Afsan Ansari and Mr. Atif Raza. He further stated that his maternal grand father (Nana), who controlled and is also a director and signatory in the Pvt. Ltd. Company M/s. Aaghaaz, hence, whenever the applicant required funds then the same was catared by the maternal grand father of the applicant and beyond this he was not aware of the various other transactions. In light of the said statement and the funds in the account of the applicant which was utilized by the applicant for his personal expenses, his foreign trips as well as for importing arms for his participation in the sport on rifle shooting in such circumstances it cannot be said that the applicant has not been a direct beneficiary nor it can be said that he was not aware from where the funds were sourced or their origin.

23. In the aforesaid circumstances where the applicant knowingly has been a user of the proceeds of crime, hence he is prima facie, liable for the offence coupled with the fact that the status of the applicant as a sitting member of the Legislative Assembly, the influence yielded by his family including his deceased father, who had more than fifty criminal cases to his credit is enough to create a bonafide assumption that the applicant can very well influence any witness and this can also be corroborated from the fact that while the applicant was incarcerated in Chitrakoot Jail in connection with other cases against the applicant yet he was using the jail premise as his personal fiefdom with active connivance of the police and the Jail Authority, hence for all the aforesaid reasons the bail application deserves to be rejected.

24. In support of his submissions Mr. Tripathi has relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in Rohit Tandon Vs. Directorate of Enforcement (2018) 1 SCC 46, Nikesh Tara Chandra Shah Vs. Union of India & others (2018) 11 SCC 1, Vijai Madan Lal Chaudhary Vs. Union of India & others (2022) SCC 929, Saumya Chaurasia Vs. Directorate of Enforcement (2023) SCC Online SC 1674 and Pavana Dibbur Vs. Directorate of Enforcement 2023 SCC Online SC 1586.

25. The Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and also perused the material on record.

26. Before dealing with the respective submissions of the learned counsel for the parties, it will be appropriate to take a glance at the certain relevant provisions relating to PMLA.

Section 2(u) of the PMLA defines 'proceeds of crime' as under:-

(u) "proceeds of crime" means any property derived or obtained, directly or indirectly, by any person as a result of criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence or the value of any such property [or where such property is taken or held outside the country, then the property equivalent in value held within the country] [or abroad]

[Explanation- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that 'proceeds of crime' including property not only derived or obtained from the scheduled offence but also any property which may directly or indirectly be derived or obtained as a result of any criminal activity relatable to the scheduled offence]

27. Scheduled offence has been defined in Section 2(y) which reads as under:

(y) "scheduled offence" means

(i) the offences specified under Part A of the Schedule; or

(ii) the offences specified under Part-B of the Schedule if the total value involved in such offences is [one crore rupees] or more; or

(iii) the offences specified under Part C of the Schedule;]

28. The offence of money laundering has been defined in Section 3 while the punishment for money laundering has been provided in Section 4 which reads as under:-

3. Offence of money-laundering*- Whosoever directly or indirectly attempts to indulge or knowingly assists or knowingly is a party or is actually involved in any process or activity connected [proceeds of crime including its concealment, possession, acquisition or use and projecting or claiming] it as untainted property shall be guilty of offence of money-laundering.*

[Explanation- For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that –

(i) a person shall be guilty of offence of money-laundering if such person is found to have directly or indirectly attempted to indulge or knowingly assisted or knowingly is a party or is actually involved in one or more of the following processes or activities connected with proceeds of crime, namely:-

(a) concealment, or

(b) possession; or

(c) acquisition; or

(d) use; or

(e) projecting as untainted property; or

(f) claiming as untainted property,

in any manner whatsoever;

(ii) the process or activity connected with proceeds of crime is a continuing activity and continues till such time a person is directly or indirectly enjoying the proceeds of crime by its concealment or possession or acquisition or use or projecting it as untainted property or claiming it as untainted property in any manner whatsoever]

4. Punishment for money-laundering*:- Whoever commits the offence of money-laundering shall be punishable with rigorous imprisonment for a terms which shall not be less than three years but which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine*

Provided that where the proceeds of crime inolve in money-laundering relates to any offence specified under paragraph 2 of Part A of the Schedule, the provisions of this section shall have effect as if for the words "which may extend to seven years", the words "which may extend to ten years" had been substituted.

29. In so far as the issue regarding consideration of an application for bail is concerned, the same is provided under Section 45 which reads as under:-

45. Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable:- (1) [Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), no person accused of an offence [under this Act] shall be released on bail or on his own bond unless-}

(i) the Public Prosecutor has been given an opportunity to oppose the application for such release; and

(ii) where the Public Prosecutor opposes the application, the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

Provided that a person who is under the age of sixteen years or is a woman or is sick or infirm [or is accused either on his own or along with other co-accused of money laundering a sum of less than one crore rupees], may be released on bail, if the special court so directs:

Provided further that the Special Court shall not take cognizance of any offence punishable under section 4 except upon a complaint in writing made by-

(i) the Director; or

(ii) any office of the Central Government or State Government authorised in writing in this behlaf by the Central Government by a general or a special order made in this behalf by that Government.

[(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), or any other provision of this Act, no police officer shall investigate into an offence under this Act unless specifically authorised, by the Central Government by a general or special order, and, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.]

(2) The limitation on granting of bail specified in sub-section (1) is in addition to the limitation under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) or any other law for the time being in force on granting of bail.

[Explanation- For the removal of doubts, it is clarified that the expression "Offences to be cognizable and nonbailable" shall mean and shall be deemed to have always meant that all offences under this Act shall be cognizable offences and non-bailable offences notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), and accordingly the officers authorised under this Act are empowered to arrest an accused without warrant, subject to the fulfillment of conditions under Section 19 and subject to the conditions enshrined under this section.]

30. Having taken a glance at the aforesaid statutory provisions it now will be worthwhile to notice certain decisions of the Apex Court on the issue of the offence of money laundering and the approach of courts while dealing with an application for bail.

31. The Apex Court in Rohit Tandon v. Directorate of Enforcement, (2018) 11 SCC 46 has held as under:-

"19. The sweep of Section 45 of the 2002 Act is no more res intergra. In a recent decision of this Court in Gautam Kundu v. Directorate of Enforcement (2015) 16 SCC 1, this Court has had an occasion to examine it in paras 28-30. It will be useful to advert to paras 28 to 30 of this decision which read thus : (SCC pp. 14-15)

"28. Before dealing with the application for bail on merit, it is to be considered whether the provisions of Section 45 of PMLA are binding on the High Court while considering the application for bail under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. There is no doubt that PMLA deals with the offence of money laundering and Parliament has enacted this law as per commitment of the country to the United Nations General Assembly. PMLA is a special statute enacted by Parliament for dealing with money laundering. Section 5 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 clearly lays down that the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure will not affect any special statute or any local law. In other words, the provisions of any special statute will prevail over the general provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in case of any conflict.

29. Section 45 of PMLA starts with a non obstante clause which indicates that the provisions laid down in Section 45 of PMLA will have overriding effect on the general provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in case of conflict between them. Section 45 of PMLA imposes the following two conditions for grant of bail to any person accused of an offence punishable for a term of imprisonment of more than three years under Part A of the Schedule of PMLA:

(i) That the prosecutor must be given an opportunity to oppose the application for bail; and

(ii) That the court must be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the accused person is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

30. The conditions specified under Section 45 of PMLA are mandatory and needs to be complied with, which is further strengthened by the provisions of Section 65 and also Section 71 of PMLA. Section 65 requires that the provisions of CrPC shall apply insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and Section 71 provides that the provisions of PMLA shall have overriding effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force. PMLA has an overriding effect and the provisions of CrPC would apply only if they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. Therefore, the conditions enumerated in Section 45 of PMLA will have to be complied with even in respect of an application for bail made under Section 439 CrPC. That coupled with the provisions of Section 24 provides that unless the contrary is proved, the authority or the Court shall presume that proceeds of crime are involved in money laundering and the burden to prove that the proceeds of crime are not involved, lies on the appellant." (emphasis supplied)

20. In para 34, this Court reiterated as follows : (Gautam Kundu case, SCC p. 16)

"34. ... We have noted that Section 45 of PMLA will have overriding effect on the general provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure in case of conflict between them. As mentioned earlier, Section 45 of PMLA imposes two conditions for grant of bail, specified under the said Act. We have not missed the proviso to Section 45 of the said Act which indicates that the legislature has carved out an exception for grant of bail by a Special Court when any person is under the age of 16 years or is a woman or is sick or infirm. Therefore, there is no doubt that the conditions laid down under Section 45-A of PMLA, would bind the High Court as the provisions of special law having overriding effect on the provisions of Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of bail to any person accused of committing offence punishable under Section 4 of PMLA, even when the application for bail is considered under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure."

The decisions of this Court in Subrata Chattoraj v. Union of India (2014) 8 SCC 768, Y.S. Jagan Mohan Reddy v. CBI (2013) 7 SCC 439 and Union of India v. Hassan Ali Khan (2011) 10 SCC 235 have been noticed in the aforesaid decision.

21. The consistent view taken by this Court is that economic offences having deep-rooted conspiracies and involving huge loss of public funds need to be viewed seriously and considered as grave offences affecting the economy of the country as a whole and thereby posing serious threat to the financial health of the country. Further, when attempt is made to project the proceeds of crime as untainted money and also that the allegations may not ultimately be established, but having been made, the burden of proof that the monies were not the proceeds of crime and were not, therefore, tainted shifts on the accused persons under Section 24 of the 2002 Act.

22. It is not necessary to multiply the authorities on the sweep of Section 45 of the 2002 Act which, as aforementioned, is no more res integra. The decision in Ranjitsing Brahmajeetsing Sharma v. State of Maharashtra (2005) 5 SCC 294 and State of Maharashtra v. Vishwanath Maranna Shetty, (2012) 10 SCC 561 , dealt with an analogous provision in the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crime Act, 1999. It has been expounded that the Court at the stage of considering the application for grant of bail, shall consider the question from the angle as to whether the accused was possessed of the requisite mens rea. The Court is not required to record a positive finding that the accused had not committed an offence under the Act. The Court ought to maintain a delicate balance between a judgment of acquittal and conviction and an order granting bail much before commencement of trial. The duty of the Court at this stage is not to weigh the evidence meticulously but to arrive at a finding on the basis of broad probabilities. Further, the Court is required to record a finding as to the possibility of the accused committing a crime which is an offence under the Act after grant of bail.

31. Suffice it to observe that the appellant has not succeeded in persuading us about the inapplicability of the threshold stipulation under Section 45 of the Act. In the facts of the present case, we are in agreement with the view taken by the Sessions Court and by the High Court. We have independently examined the materials relied upon by the prosecution and also noted the inexplicable silence or reluctance of the appellant in disclosing the source from where such huge value of demonetised currency and also new currency has been acquired by him. The prosecution is relying on statements of 26 witnesses/accused already recorded, out of which 7 were considered by the Delhi High Court. These statements are admissible in evidence, in view of Section 50 of the 2002 Act. The same makes out a formidable case about the involvement of the appellant in commission of a serious offence of money laundering. It is, therefore, not possible for us to record satisfaction that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the appellant is not guilty of such offence. Further, the courts below have justly adverted to the antecedents of the appellant for considering the prayer for bail and concluded that it is not possible to hold that the appellant is not likely to commit any offence ascribable to the 2002 Act while on bail. Since the threshold stipulation predicated in Section 45 has not been overcome, the question of considering the efficacy of other points urged by the appellant to persuade the Court to favour the appellant with the relief of regular bail will be of no avail. In other words, the fact that the investigation in the predicate offence instituted in terms of FIR No. 205/2016 or that the investigation qua the appellant in the complaint CC No. 700 of 2017 is completed; and that the proceeds of crime are already in possession of the investigating agency and provisional attachment order in relation thereto passed on 13-2-2017 has been confirmed; or that charge-sheet has been filed in FIR No. 205/2016 against the appellant without his arrest; that the appellant has been lodged in judicial custody since 2-1-2017 and has not been interrogated or examined by the Enforcement Directorate thereafter; all these will be of no consequence."

32. Similarly, the Apex Court in Nikesh Tarachand Shah v. Union of India, (2018) 11 SCC 1 has held as under:-]

"11. Having heard the learned counsel for both sides, it is important to first understand what constitutes the offence of money laundering. Under Section 3 of the Act, the kind of persons responsible for money laundering is extremely wide. Words such as "whosoever", "directly or indirectly" and "attempts to indulge" would show that all persons who are even remotely involved in this offence are sought to be roped in. An important ingredient of the offence is that these persons must be knowingly or actually involved in any process or activity connected with proceeds of crime and "proceeds of crime" is defined under the Act, by Section 2(1)(u) thereof, to mean any property derived or obtained directly or indirectly, by any person as a result of criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence (which is referred to in our judgment as the predicate offence). Thus, whosever is involved as aforesaid, in a process or activity connected with "proceeds of crime" as defined, which would include concealing, possessing, acquiring or using such property, would be guilty of the offence, provided such persons also project or claim such property as untainted property. Section 3, therefore, contains all the aforesaid ingredients, and before somebody can be adjudged as guilty under the said provision, the said person must not only be involved in any process or activity connected with proceeds of crime, but must also project or claim it as being untainted property."

33. In Vijay Madanlal Choudhary v. Union of India, 2022 SCC OnLine SC 929 the Apex Court has held as under:-

"269. From the bare language of Section 3 of the 2002 Act, it is amply clear that the offence of money-laundering is an independent offence regarding the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime which had been derived or obtained as a result of criminal activity relating to or in relation to a scheduled offence. The process or activity can be in any form — be it one of concealment, possession, acquisition, use of proceeds of crime as much as projecting it as untainted property or claiming it to be so. Thus, involvement in any one of such process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime would constitute offence of money-laundering. This offence otherwise has nothing to do with the criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence — except the proceeds of crime derived or obtained as a result of that crime.

---------***--------***------***

295. As aforesaid, in this backdrop the amendment Act 2 of 2013 came into being. Considering the purport of the amended provisions and the experience of implementing/enforcement agencies, further changes became necessary to strengthen the mechanism regarding prevention of money-laundering. It is not right in assuming that the attachment of property (provisional) under the second proviso, as amended, has no link with the scheduled offence. Inasmuch as Section 5(1) envisages that such an action can be initiated only on the basis of material in possession of the authorised officer indicative of any person being in possession of proceeds of crime. The precondition for being proceeds of crime is that the property has been derived or obtained, directly or indirectly, by any person as a result of criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence. The sweep of Section 5(1) is not limited to the accused named in the criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence. It would apply to any person (not necessarily being accused in the scheduled offence), if he is involved in any process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime. Such a person besides facing the consequence of provisional attachment order, may end up in being named as accused in the complaint to be filed by the authorised officer concerning offence under Section 3 of the 2002 Act.

---------***--------***------***

387. Having said thus, we must now address the challenge to the twin conditions as applicable post amendment of 2018. That challenge will have to be tested on its own merits and not in reference to the reasons weighed with this Court in declaring the provision, (as it existed at the relevant time), applicable only to offences punishable for a term of imprisonment of more than three years under Part A of the Schedule to the 2002 Act. Now, the provision (Section 45) including twin conditions would apply to the offence(s) under the 2002 Act itself. The provision post 2018 amendment, is in the nature of no bail in relation to the offence of money-laundering unless the twin conditions are fulfilled. The twin conditions are that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the accused is not guilty of offence of money-laundering and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail. Considering the purposes and objects of the legislation in the form of 2002 Act and the background in which it had been enacted owing to the commitment made to the international bodies and on their recommendations, it is plainly clear that it is a special legislation to deal with the subject of money-laundering activities having transnational impact on the financial systems including sovereignty and integrity of the countries. This is not an ordinary offence. To deal with such serious offence, stringent measures are provided in the 2002 Act for prevention of money-laundering and combating menace of money-laundering, including for attachment and confiscation of proceeds of crime and to prosecute persons involved in the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime. In view of the gravity of the fallout of money-laundering activities having transnational impact, a special procedural law for prevention and regulation, including to prosecute the person involved, has been enacted, grouping the offenders involved in the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime as a separate class from ordinary criminals. The offence of money-laundering has been regarded as an aggravated form of crime "world over". It is, therefore, a separate class of offence requiring effective and stringent measures to combat the menace of money-laundering.

---------***--------***------***

400. It is important to note that the twin conditions provided under Section 45 of the 2002 Act, though restrict the right of the accused to grant of bail, but it cannot be said that the conditions provided under Section 45 impose absolute restraint on the grant of bail. The discretion vests in the Court which is not arbitrary or irrational but judicial, guided by the principles of law as provided under Section 45 of the 2002 Act. While dealing with a similar provision prescribing twin conditions in MCOCA, this Court in Ranjitsing Brahmajeetsing Sharma(2005) 5 SCC 294*, held as under:*

"44. The wording of Section 21(4), in our opinion, does not lead to the conclusion that the court must arrive at a positive finding that the applicant for bail has not committed an offence under the Act. If such a construction is placed, the court intending to grant bail must arrive at a finding that the applicant has not committed such an offence. In such an event, it will be impossible for the prosecution to obtain a judgment of conviction of the applicant. Such cannot be the intention of the legislature. Section 21(4) of MCOCA, therefore, must be construed reasonably. It must be so construed that the court is able to maintain a delicate balance between a judgment of acquittal and conviction and an order granting bail much before commencement of trial. Similarly, the Court will be required to record a finding as to the possibility of his committing a crime after grant of bail. However, such an offence in futuro must be an offence under the Act and not any other offence. Since it is difficult to predict the future conduct of an accused, the court must necessarily consider this aspect of the matter having regard to the antecedents of the accused, his propensities and the nature and manner in which he is alleged to have committed the offence.

45. It is, furthermore, trite that for the purpose of considering an application for grant of bail, although detailed reasons are not necessary to be assigned, the order granting bail must demonstrate application of mind at least in serious cases as to why the applicant has been granted or denied the privilege of bail.

46. The duty of the court at this stage is not to weigh the evidence meticulously but to arrive at a finding on the basis of broad probabilities. However, while dealing with a special statute like MCOCA having regard to the provisions contained in sub-section (4) of Section 21 of the Act, the court may have to probe into the matter deeper so as to enable it to arrive at a finding that the materials collected against the accused during the investigation may not justify a judgment of conviction. The findings recorded by the court while granting or refusing bail undoubtedly would be tentative in nature, which may not have any bearing on the merit of the case and the trial court would, thus, be free to decide the case on the basis of evidence adduced at the trial, without in any manner being prejudiced thereby" (emphasis supplied)

401. We are in agreement with the observation made by the Court in Ranjitsing Brahmajeetsing Sharma*. The Court while dealing with the application for grant of bail need not delve deep into the merits of the case and only a view of the Court based on available material on record is required. The Court will not weigh the evidence to find the guilt of the accused which is, of course, the work of Trial Court. The Court is only required to place its view based on probability on the basis of reasonable material collected during investigation and the said view will not be taken into consideration by the Trial Court in recording its finding of the guilt or acquittal during trial which is based on the evidence adduced during the trial. As explained by this Court in* Nimmagadda Prasad(2013) 7 SCC 466 the words used in Section 45 of the 2002 Act are "reasonable grounds for believing" which means the Court has to see only if there is a genuine case against the accused and the prosecution is not required to prove the charge beyond reasonable doubt."

34. Similarly, the Apex Court in Tarun Kumar v. Enforcement Directorate, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1486 has held as under:-

"15. In our opinion, there is hardly any merit in the said submission of Mr. Luthra. In Rohit Tandon v. Directorate of Enforcement (2018) 11 SCC 46*, a three Judge Bench has categorically observed that the statements of witnesses/accused are admissible in evidence in view of Section 50 of the said Act and such statements may make out a formidable case about the involvement of the accused in the commission of a serious offence of money laundering. Further, as held in* Vijay Madanlal (supra), the offence of money laundering under Section 3 of the Act is an independent offence regarding the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime which had been derived or obtained as a result of criminal activity relating to or in relation to a scheduled offence. The offence of money laundering is not dependent or linked to the date on which the scheduled offence or predicate offence has been committed. The relevant date is the date on which the person indulges in the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime. Thus, the involvement of the person in any of the criminal activities like concealment, possession, acquisition, use of proceeds of crime as much as projecting it as untainted property or claiming it to be so, would constitute the offence of money laundering under Section 3 of the Act.

---------***--------***------***

17. As well settled by now, the conditions specified under Section 45 are mandatory. They need to be complied with. The Court is required to be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the accused is not guilty of such offence and he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail. It is needless to say that as per the statutory presumption permitted under Section 24 of the Act, the Court or the Authority is entitled to presume unless the contrary is proved, that in any proceedings relating to proceeds of crime under the Act, in the case of a person charged with the offence of money laundering under Section 3, such proceeds of crime are involved in money laundering. Such conditions enumerated in Section 45 of PML Act will have to be complied with even in respect of an application for bail made under Section 439 Cr. P.C. in view of the overriding effect given to the PML Act over the other law for the time being in force, under Section 71 of the PML Act."

35. Again, the Apex Court in Pavana Dibbur v. Enforcement Directorate, 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1586 has held as under:-

15. The condition precedent for the existence of proceeds of crime is the existence of a scheduled offence. On this aspect, it is necessary to refer to the decision of this Court in the case of Vijay Madanlal Choudhary. In paragraph 253 of the said decision, this Court held thus:

"253. Tersely put, it is only such property which is derived or obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence can be regarded as proceeds of crime. The authorities under the 2002 Act cannot resort to action against any person for money-laundering on an assumption that the property recovered by them must be proceeds of crime and that a scheduled offence has been committed, unless the same is registered with the jurisdictional police or pending inquiry by way of complaint before the competent forum. For, the expression "derived or obtained" is indicative of criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence already accomplished. Similarly, in the event the person named in the criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence is finally absolved by a Court of competent jurisdiction owing to an order of discharge, acquittal or because of quashing of the criminal case (scheduled offence) against him/her, there can be no action for money-laundering against such a person or person claiming through him in relation to the property linked to the stated scheduled offence. This interpretation alone can be countenanced on the basis of the provisions of the 2002 Act, in particular Section 2(1)(u) read with Section 3. Taking any other view would be rewriting of these provisions and disregarding the express language of definition clause "proceeds of crime", as it obtains as of now." (underline supplied)

16. In paragraphs 269 and 270, this Court held thus:

"269. From the bare language of Section 3 of the 2002 Act, it is amply clear that the offence of money-laundering is an independent offence regarding the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime which had been derived or obtained as a result of criminal activity relating to or in relation to a scheduled offence. The process or activity can be in any form — be it one of concealment, possession, acquisition, use of proceeds of crime as much as projecting it as untainted property or claiming it to be so. Thus, involvement in any one of such process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime would constitute offence of money-laundering. This offence otherwise has nothing to do with the criminal activity relating to a scheduled offence — except the proceeds of crime derived or obtained as a result of that crime.

270. Needless to mention that such process or activity can be indulged in only after the property is derived or obtained as a result of criminal activity (a scheduled offence). It would be an offence of money-laundering to indulge in or to assist or being party to the process or activity connected with the proceeds of crime; and such process or activity in a given fact situation may be a continuing offence, irrespective of the date and time of commission of the scheduled offence. In other words, the criminal activity may have been committed before the same had been notified as scheduled offence for the purpose of the 2002 Act, but if a person has indulged in or continues to indulge directly or indirectly in dealing with proceeds of crime, derived or obtained from such criminal activity even after it has been notified as scheduled offence, may be liable to be prosecuted for offence of money-laundering under the 2002 Act — for continuing to possess or conceal the proceeds of crime (fully or in part) or retaining possession thereof or uses it in trenches until fully exhausted. The offence of money-laundering is not dependent on or linked to the date on which the scheduled offence or if we may say so the predicate offence has been committed. The relevant date is the date on which the person indulges in the process or activity connected with such proceeds of crime. These ingredients are intrinsic in the original provision (Section 3, as amended until 2013 and were in force till 31.7.2019); and the same has been merely explained and clarified by way of Explanation vide Finance (No. 2) Act, 2019. Thus understood, inclusion of Clause (ii) in Explanation inserted in 2019 is of no consequence as it does not alter or enlarge the scope of Section 3 at all." (underline supplied)

17. Coming back to Section 3 of the PMLA, on its plain reading, an offence under Section 3 can be committed after a scheduled offence is committed. For example, let us take the case of a person who is unconnected with the scheduled offence, knowingly assists the concealment of the proceeds of crime or knowingly assists the use of proceeds of crime. In that case, he can be held guilty of committing an offence under Section 3 of the PMLA. To give a concrete example, the offences under Sections 384 to 389 of the IPC relating to "extortion" are scheduled offences included in Paragraph 1 of the Schedule to the PMLA. An accused may commit a crime of extortion covered by Sections 384 to 389 of IPC and extort money. Subsequently, a person unconnected with the offence of extortion may assist the said accused in the concealment of the proceeds of extortion. In such a case, the person who assists the accused in the scheduled offence for concealing the proceeds of the crime of extortion can be guilty of the offence of money laundering. Therefore, it is not necessary that a person against whom the offence under Section 3 of the PMLA is alleged must have been shown as the accused in the scheduled offence. What is held in paragraph 270 of the decision of this Court in the case of Vijay Madanlal Choudhary supports the above conclusion. The conditions precedent for attracting the offence under Section 3 of the PMLA are that there must be a scheduled offence and that there must be proceeds of crime in relation to the scheduled offence as defined in clause (u) of sub-section (1) of Section 3 of the PMLA.

---------***--------***------***

31. While we reject the first and second submissions canvassed by the learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant, the third submission must be upheld. Our conclusions are:

a. It is not necessary that a person against whom the offence under Section 3 of the PMLA is alleged, must have been shown as the accused in the scheduled offence;

b. Even if an accused shown in the complaint under the PMLA is not an accused in the scheduled offence, he will benefit from the acquittal of all the accused in the scheduled offence or discharge of all the accused in the scheduled offence. Similarly, he will get the benefit of the order of quashing the proceedings of the scheduled offence;

c. The first property cannot be said to have any connection with the proceeds of the crime as the acts constituting scheduled offence were committed after the property was acquired;

d. The issue of whether the appellant has used tainted money forming part of the proceeds of crime for acquiring the second property can be decided only at the time of trial; and

e. The offence punishable under Section 120-B of the IPC will become a scheduled offence only if the conspiracy alleged is of committing an offence which is specifically included in the Schedule.

36. Having examined the statutory provisions as well as the dictum of the Apex Court in the aforesaid mentioned decisions and applying the principles as laid therein to the facts of the instant case. The position as obtained, prima facie, is as under:-

(i) A partnership firm mainly M/s. Vikas Construction is the prime vehicle which appears to have been used for commissioning of the scheduled offence and for generating the proceeds of crime. The firm M/s. Vikas Construction through its partners is alleged to have usurped the government land in district Mau and Ghazipur by resorting to forgery, cheating and criminal trespass. This firm was initially constituted and run by Mr. Masood Alam and his four partners. Later, in August 2012 Mukhtar Ansari father of the applicant is alleged to have forcibly gained the control of the firm and three of the then existing partners were replaced and supplanted by Ms. Afsan Ansari (wife of Mukhtar Ansari, mother of the present applicant) Mr. Atif Raza and Mr. Anwar Sahzad (brother-in-law of Mukhtar Ansari and brother of Ms. Afsan Ansari and maternal uncle Mamaji of the present applicant).

(ii) During investigation, it was unearthed that the original partners of the said firm were forced to leave the firm and they were not even paid the value of their share and the amount to their credit in their capital account. The said firm was utilized for acquiring public contracts so much so that whenever the bid was made by the instant firm. The contracts invariably went to the said firm. The said firm was used to procure loans from the public banks to construct go-downs which then were given an rent to the Food Corporation of India and the Uttar Pradesh State Ware Housing Corporation and the rent received from the Food Corporation of India and U.P. State Ware Housing Corporation to the tune of several crores have been generated. In this context, subsidy was also received from NABARD to the tune of more than 67 lakhs. The amount generated from the rent received was routed not only into the account of M/s. Vikas Construction but also in the other family firm M/s. Aashaaz and by creating layers thereafter the money was withdrawn both by cash as well as deposited in the loan account of M/s Vikas

Construction as also for procuring immovable properties at such rates which were substantially much lower than the market price.

(iii) Certain properties have been sold to certain individuals while there was no apparent need to sell the property and the amount received from such sale was deposited into the account of M/s.Vikas Construction and M/s. Aaghaaz and also withdrawn in cash.

(iv) Money was transferred into the bank account of the applicant from M/s. Vikas Construction which was thereafter transferred to a firm, namely, M/s Laggar Industries Ltd for providing bullet proof modification of the vehicle belonging to the present applicant. The investigation revealed that the transactions made in and from the account of the applicant has been used by the applicant for not only getting his vehicle bullet proofed but also for his foreign visit and purchase/import of guns and fire arms but what is more important is that whenever these transactions have been done they have either been sourced through M/s Vikas Construction and prior thereto cash deposits have been made in M/s Vikas Construction and the same trail has been noticed through various bank transfers and into the hands of the applicant.

(v) The record further indicates that a some of money was transferred from the account of M/s Vikas Construction into the account of M/s. Aaghaaz which thereafter was transferred to the account of the present applicant and out of the amount so transferred in the hands of the present applicant, part of the same was used to pay for importing of fire arms and a substantial amount was withdrawn in cash.

(vi) The record further indicates that on a particular date a cash deposit is made in the account of one Mashaza Enterprizes which on the same date is transferred by Mashaza Enterprizes to the account of the present applicant and the same is then utilized by the applicant for importing fire arms and a substantial amount is withdrawn in cash. Several other transactions have been unearthed during investigation including large number of amount being transferred into the account of the applicant from several firms which otherwise had no dealing with the applicant nor he could explain as to why the aforesaid firm would pay or deposit amount into the account of the applicant which is then withdrawn by the applicant for his personal expenditure.

(vii) The record further indicates that during investigation it was clearly traced that the firm M/s. Vikas Construction and M/s. Aaghaaz which were in total control of the members of the family closely linked with the applicant [through his mother, maternal uncle (Mamaji), maternal grand father (Nanaji)] and of course the aforesaid web of the transactions was done by Mr. Atif Raza, who stated that he was only executing the directions of Mukhtar Ansari, the father of the applicant.

(viii) The statements recorded during investigation given by Mr. Atif Raza, the present applicant, the charted accountant all indicate that the mother of the applicant had 60% shares in the partnership M/s Vikas Construction and though she was a home maker but the said firm was used prima facie for generating the proceeds of crime and then funds have been transferred to various persons including the applicant.

(ix) The applicant could not indicate or explain the amount received into his account from Mashaza Enterprizes. He also could not authenticate the source of the funds or his explanation that he had generated his own income by training and mentoring other sports enthusiasts in the discipline of rifle shooting. This fact could not be verified from the organizations which as per the applicant used the professional talent of the applicant. On the contrary it was denied by the organizations that neither they had any panel of trainers wherein the applicant was a mentor/trainer. Hence, the statements of the applicant was not found credible. Even otherwise the applicant feigned ignorance regarding several transactions which were done in and from the account of the applicant. Merely to state that whenever he needed funds, he would inform his mother and his maternal uncle and maternal grand father and they would arrange for the funds which were received and the applicant did not know anything beyond that. This explanation does not reflect credibility especially from the applicant who is a sitting MLA and an elected representative of the people.

37. Section 2(1)(u) defines the phrase 'proceeds of crime' which clearly indicates that any person who derives any property or obtains, directly or indirectly as a result of a criminal activity would be treated as proceeds of crime. The word 'property' as defined in Section 2(1)(v) includes both movable and immovable property as also tangible or intangible, corporeal or incorporeal and includes deeds and instruments evidencing title or interest indicates that it is a wholesome inclusive definition. The offence of money laundering as per Section 3 not only relates to generation of such proceeds of crime but it also includes any activity directly or indirectly relating to concealment or possession or acquisition or use amongst others. The said definition is very wide and inclusive, thus, the fact that directly or indirectly if any person is in possession or use of such proceeds of crime whether directly or indirectly, knowingly assists or knowingly is a party or actually involved or in any activity connected with proceeds of crime relating to concealment possession acquisition or use or projecting the property as untainted property or claiming as untainted property in any manner whatsoever would be liable for commissioning of any offence under the PMLA.

38. In the instant case, from the perusal of the complaint which has been brought on record as annexure no.2 including the supplementary complaint which has been brought on record as annexure no.9, prima faice, it reflects the involvement of the present applicant. Even though this Court is conscious of the fact that at this stage a mini trial is not be held nor the court is required to enter into the merits or the depth of the evidence to return a finding of guilt but what is required is to prima facie, consider the material available on record for the Court to satisfy itself and to enable it to reasonably form an opinion, to believe, that the applicant is not guilty of the offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence on bail as enshrined in Section 45 of the PMLA.

39. While forming such satisfaction, the Court is also required to consider the nature and gravity of the accusation, severity of the punishment in the event of conviction, danger of the accused absconding or fleeing, character, behaviour means, position and standing of the accused and the likelihood of the offence being repeated, reasonable apprehension of the witnesses being influenced and danger, of course, of justice being defeated by grant of bail.

40. It is in the aforesaid backdrop, considering the material available on record including the flow charts which clearly demonstrates the origin of funds and it also explains how it finds its way into the accounts of the applicant and its use by the applicant, and there is material against the applicant to link him with the movement and trail of funds to and from the two firms M/s. Vikas Construction and M/s. Aaghaaz.

41. Considering the family antecedents of the applicant including the statement which is contained in the ECIR that the applicant initially was not co-operative rather evaded the summons and only when the lookout notice was issued and in furtherance thereof the applicant was apprehended and during custody he gave his statements but nevertheless many of the transactions could not be explained by him by taking a plea that he did not know from where the fund was coming rather whenever he wanted the funds he asked his mother and maternal uncle and grand father who would arrange the funds. This plea considering the fact that the applicant is a member of the Legislative Assembly and a national level sportsman yet not knowing how the funds were being given to him including the quantum of the funds given by his relatives to pursue his own sporting and political pursuits does not inspire confidence.

42. Thus taking an overall view including the gravity of offence including the fact that the witnesses of fact are yet to be examined also keeping in mind the dictum of the Apex Court in Pavana Dibbur (supra) and for all the reasons aforesaid, this Court is unable to persuade itself to form a, prima facie, satisfaction in terms of Section 45 of the PMLA, at this stage, that the applicant is not guilty or that he may not commit an offecne on bail. Thus, for all the aforesaid reasons, the bail application is rejected.

43. However, it is also clarified that any observations made by this Court may not be taken as an expression of opinion on merits. The trial court is directed to expedite the trial to complete it as swiftly as possible and the prosecuting agency shall not seek any unnecessary adjournments on the ground of examination of witnesses.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2174
CRIMINAL JURISDICTION
REVISIONAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SANJAY KUMAR SINGH, J.

Criminal Revision No. 159 of 2024
And
Criminal Revision No. 173 of 2024
And
Criminal Revision No. 194 of 2024

Dr. Tanzeen Fatima ...Revisionist
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Revisionist:
Sri Imran Ullah, Sri Mohammad Khalid, Sri Zubair Ahmad Khan, Sri Kapil Sibal (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondent:
Sri J.K. Upadhyay, AGA, Sri Ajay Kumar Mishra (A.G.), Sri P.C. Srivastava (A.A.G.), Sri A.K. Sand (G.A.), Sri Sameer Srivastava, Sri Sharad Sharma

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 39, 161, 164, 311, 389(1), 397, 401 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 30, 120-B, 415, 420, 465, 467, 468 & 471 - Evidence Act, 1872 - Section 3, - The Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 - Sections 9(3) & 23 - Criminal Revisions – against rejection their appeals – complaint – FIR – investigation – Charge-sheeted - conviction and sentence u/s 120-B, 420, 467, 468 & 471 of IPC – Revision – prayer for Interim Relief, at this stage, for suspension of their sentence and stay of their conviction – court finds that, (i) Mohd. Abdullah Azam khan have two birth certificates having DoB 01.01.1993 issued by Nagarpalika Parishad, Rampur & other with DoB 30.09.1990 issued by municipal Corporation, Lucknow, - as per his all educational documents right from beginning to 16.01.2015 his DoB is mentioned as 01.01.1993, - (ii) on the application moved by his mother Dr. Tanzeen Fatima Municipal Corporation, Lucknow has issued second birth Certificate having DoB 30.09.1990, - (ii) the second birth certificate was used by Mohd. Abdullah Azam khan in filing his nomination paper in year 2017 for election of St. Assembly Election 2017 and also for obtaining third passport and a new PAN card, - later on his aforesaid election contested on the basis of second birth certificate has been cancelled by high Court and affirmed by hon'ble Supreme Court, - (iii) during investigation, IO has neither recorded the St.ments of u/s 161 Cr.P.C. of the concern officers of Nagarpalika Parishad, Rampur, Municipal Corporation, Lucknow & the SDM nor the prosecution produced them as PW witnesses, - (iv) Despite availability of direct evidence the prosecution, only tried to prove its case through indirect evidence, - (v) The documents filed by Dr. Tanzeen Fatima along with an affidavit to get second Birth Certificate of his son cannot be said to be forged documents wherein she has also not disclosed the material facts regarding first Birth Certificate in her application, - (vi) prosecution could not prove the fact that first Birth Certificate was issued on the basis of affidavit filed by both father and mother of Mohd. Abdullah Azam khan, - (vii) nothing on record against Mohd. Azam khan which indicate that for issuance of the impugned second birth certificate any information was given by him, - (viii) there is no any material against Mohd, Azam khan regarding cheating, furnishing false information or forgery/fabricating document and forgery in valuable security, - (ix) it is well settled law that conjectures and suspicions should not be allowed to take place of legal proof, - (x) there is no evidence on record to established that nay of the revisionist have forged the birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 and similarly basic ingredient of all the three offences is also not made out, - (xi) alleged offences against the revisionist are not a heinous offence, both Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohd. Azam khan are suffering from old aged diseases, and there is no possibility of absconding of the revisionist and they are on bail during trial and they did not misused the liberty – held, considering the case in totality, nature of allegations, role of attributed to the revisionists, material evidence on record, court is of the view that during pendency of these Revisions - (i) the application u/s 389(1) Cr.P.C. is liable to be allowed, (ii) impugned sentence is hereby suspended, (iii) all the revisionists be released on bail, (iv) case of Mohd. Azam khan is distinguishable from the case of other Revisionists, (v) judgment & order of Conviction of Mohd. Azam khan shall remain stayed but prayer for stay of conviction against Dr. Tanzeen Fatima & Mohd. Abdullah Azam khan is rejected – hence, interim Applications disposed of, accordingly.

(Para –20, 21, 24, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34)

Revision is pending, but - Interim Applications are disposed of. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Mohd. Ibrahim Vs St. of Bihar (2009) 8 SCC 751,

2. Ayodhya Prasad Sital Prasad Vs Emperor; AIR 1938 Sind 193

3. VR Venugopal Vs Miss T Pankajam; (1961) 1 CrLJ 804 •

4. Matilal Chakravarty Vs The King; AIR 1949 Cal 58 •

5. Mohammaed Ibrahim and Ors. Vs St. of Bihar & anr; (2009) 8 SCC 751 •

6. Sheila Sebastian Vs R. Jawaharaj & anr.; (2018) 7 SCC 581 38 •

7. Sanjiv Ratanappa Ronad Vs Emperor; AIR 1932 Bom 545 •

8. Guru Bipin Singh Vs Chongtham Manihar Singh (1996) 11 SCC 622 •

9. St. of U.P. Vs Sabir Ali; (1964) 7 SCR 435 •

10. Dr. S. Dutt Vs St. of U.P.; (1966) 1 SCR 493 •

11. Oseela Abdul Khader & anr. VS St. of Kerala; 2012 SCC Online Kerala 31803 •

12. Kiran Kanta Vs St. of Uttarakhand; 2019 SCC Online Utt 1670 •

13. Krishna Kumari Vs St. of Punj., 2016 SCC Online P&H 16199 •

14. Surineni Renukaiah Vs St. of A.P.; Crl. P. No. 6234/2022 •

15. Jullu Rehman Vs St. of Jharkhand; Crl. M.P. No. 576/2012 •

16. Pardeep Singh Vs St. of Punj.; CRM.M, 48407/2018 •

17. Malcolm War Macleod Vs St. of W.B; 2010 SCC Online Cal 2115 •

18. St. of U.P. Vs Singhara Singh & ors.; (1964) 4 SCR 485 •

19. Noor Mohammad Vs St. of U.P.; 2010 SCC Online All 823 •

20. Ravi Kant Sharma Vs St.; 2011 SCC Online Del 4342 •

21. Amin & Anr. Vs St.; 1957 SCC Online All 331 •

22. Kishore Chand Vs St. of Himachal Pradesh; (1991) 1 SCC 286 •

23. St. of A.P. Vs Punati Ramulu & Ors.; 1994 Supp (1) SCC 59 •

24. Vijender and Ors. Vs St. of Delhi; (1997) 6 SCC 171 •

25. Tomaso Bruno & Anr. Vs St. of U.P.; (2015) 7 SCC 178 •

26. Mohanlal Shamji Soni Vs U.O.I. & anr.; 1991 Supp (1) SCC 271 •

27. Arjun Panditrao Khotkar Vs Kailash Kushanrao Gorantyal, (2020) 7 SCC 1 39 •

28. Anvar P.VS Vs P.K. Basheer, (2014) 10 SCC 473 •

29. St. Vs Navjot Sandhu; (2005) 11 SCC 600,

30. M.N.G Bharateesh Reddy Vs Ramesh Ranganathan & anr., 2022 SCC OnLine SC 1061,

31. Hridaya Ranjan Prasad Verma Vs St. of Bihar, (2000) 4 SCC 168,

32. Shriniwas Pandit Dharmadhikari Vs St. of Mah. & ors. - 1980 SCC (Cri) 45.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Sanjay Kumar Singh, J.)

1. All the above captioned Criminal Revisions No. 159 of 2024, 173 of 2024 and 194 of 2024 under Section 397/401 of Code of Criminal Procedure have been preferred by the revisionists, namely Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, Mohammad Azam Khan and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan against the judgment and order dated 23.12.2023 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge / Special Judge (MP/MLA/E.C. Act), Rampur in Criminal Appeal No. 75 of 2023 (Dr. Tanzeen Fatima vs. State of U.P.), Criminal Appeal No. 76 of 2023 (Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan vs. State of U.P.) and Criminal Appeal No. 77 of 2023 (Mohammad Azam Khan vs. State of U.P.) rejecting the appeals against the judgment and order dated 18.10.2023 passed by Trial Court / learned Special Judge (MP/MLA), ACJM-I, Rampur in Criminal Case No. 312 of 2022 (State of U.P. vs. Mohammad Azam Khan & Ors.) arising out of Case Crime No. 04 of 2019, under Sections 120-B, 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC, Police Station Ganj, District-Rampur, convicting and sentencing the accused-revisionists as under:

(a) One year's simple imprisonment and fine of Rs. 5000/- for the offence under Section 120-B I.P.C. and in default of payment of fine, one month's additional simple imprisonment.

(b) Three years' simple imprisonment and fine of Rs. 10,000/- for the offence under Section 420 I.P.C. and in default of payment of fine, six months' additional simple imprisonment.

(c) Seven years' simple imprisonment and fine of Rs. 15,000/- for the offence under Section 467 IPC and in default of payment of fine, one year's additional simple imprisonment.

(d) Three years' simple imprisonment and fine of Rs. 10,000/- for the offence under Section 468 IPC and in default of payment of fine, six months' additional simple imprisonment.

(e) Two years' simple imprisonment and fine of Rs. 10,000/- for the offence under Section 471 IPC and in default of payment of fine, three months' additional simple imprisonment.

2. However, all the sentences were directed to run concurrently.

3. Since all the revisionists namely Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, Mohammad Azam Khan and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan have been convicted and sentenced by common judgment and order dated 18.10.2023 and their separate Criminal Appeals No. 75 of 2023, 77 of 2023 and 76 of 2023 have also been decided by the common judgment and order dated 23.12.2023, therefore the issue with regard to interim relief as sought in all the three Criminal Revisions are heard and being decided together.

Interim relief

4. In all the above mentioned Criminal Revisions, interim relief has been sought to suspend the execution of the sentence dated 18.10.2023 as affirmed by the order dated 23.12.2023 and enlarge the revisionists on bail during pendency of the above mentioned criminal revisions.

5. In addition to above, three separate applications all bearing Application No.1 dated 23.02.2024 U/s 389(1) r/w 397/401 Cr.P.C. have also been filed in the above mentioned Criminal Revisions with a prayer to stay the impugned judgment and order dated 18.10.2023 of conviction as affirmed by appellate Court vide its judgment and order dated 23.12.2023 during the pendency of the above Criminal Revisions.

Brief Facts

6. The prosecution case is that on the written complaint dated 17.12.2018 of complainant /informant Akash Saxena, Regional Convener, Bhartiya Janata Party Small Scale Industry Cell, West U.P., a first information report was registered on 03.01.2019 against Mohammad Azam Khan s/o late Mohammad Mumtaz Khan, Dr. Tanzeen Fatima w/o Mohammad Azam Khan, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan s/o Mohammad Azam Khan, all resident of Gher-Mir-Baaz Khan, P.S. Ganj District Rampur at Case Crime No. 4 of 2019, under Sections 193, 420, 467, 468 and 471 IPC at Police Station Ganj, District Rampur, wherein it is alleged that Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima by forgery and hatching a well planned conspiracy for their personal gain got two birth certificates of their son Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan issued from two places. The first birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Registration No. RNPB2012-03857) was issued from Municipal Corporation, Rampur on the basis of affidavits given by Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, in which place of birth is shown as Rampur. The second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 (Registration No. NNLKO-B-2015-292611) was issued from Municipal Corporation, Lucknow on the basis of duplicate birth certificate, serial No. 781, dated 21.04.2015 issued by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow, in which place of birth is shown as Lucknow. The first birth certificate issued by Municipal Corporation, Rampur was used by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan in preparing his passport etc. and he travelled abroad by wrongly using it. The second birth certificate issued by Municipal Corporation, Lucknow was used in government documents and several degrees of Jauhar University. Both the birth certificates were made and used by Mohammad Azam Khan, Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan for their personal gain by forgery and well planned conspiracy.

7. After culmination of the investigation, Investigating Officer submitted Charge sheet No. 196 of 2019 dated 01.04.2019 (Ext. Ka-69) under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 IPC against Mohammad Azam Khan, Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan.

8. When accused-revisionists moved discharge applications with a stand that there is no charge-sheet under Section 120-B I.P.C. against them, thereafter without any order for further investigation by the Trial Court, the supplementary charge sheet No. 196A of 2019 dated 10.08.2021 (Ext. Ka-70) under Section 120B IPC was filed on 11.08.2021 in the Trial Court and same was taken on record vide order dated 16.08.2021.

9. On 18.08.2021, charges were framed against the revisionists under Sections 120-B, 406, 420, 467, 468 and 471 IPC.

10. During the course of trial, following fifteen prosecution witnesses were produced to prove the charges against the revisionists :

(i) PW-1 Akash Kumar Saxena, first informant.

(ii) PW-2 Manoj Pathak, Principal of St. Paul School, Rampur.

(iii) PW-3 Tejpal Verma, the then Sub Registrar (Births and Deaths) Rampur.

(iv) PW-4 Vijay Kumar, the then Income Tax Officer, Rampur.

(v) PW-5 Mohd. Naseem, Passport Officer, Bareilly.

(vi) PW-6 Rai Singh, Pradhan Sahayak, District Election Office, Rampur.

(vii) PW-7 S.K. Rawat, Health Officer/Registrar (Birth and Death), Lucknow.

(viii) PW-8 Rishi Pal, the then Head Moharrir.

(ix) PW-9 Matloob Hussain, Fire Brigade Officer.

(x) PW-10 Gajendra Singh, Returning Officer.

(xi) PW-11 Mohd. Shaffiq, Proposer for Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan in the nomination form Suar Assembly Election 2017.

(xii) PW-12 Mohd. Saleem, Record Keeper of Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur.

(xiii) PW-13 Dinesh Kumar Goel, Proposer of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan in the nomination form for Suar Assembly Election 2017.

(xiv) PW-14 Narendra Tyagi, First Investigating Officer.

(xv) PW-15 Kishan Avatar, Second Investigating Officer.

11. Following nineteen persons were produced and examined as defence witnesses:-

(i) DW-1 Mohd. Zafaruddin @ Zafar Khan, Advocate.

(ii) DW-2 Zahid Khan.

(iii) DW-3 Akhilesh Kumar.

(iv) DW-4 Asim Khan.

(v) DW-5 Anwar Khan.

(vi) DW-6 Javed Khan.

(vii) DW-7 Hargyan Singh.

(viii) DW-8 Firasat Khan.

(ix) DW-9 Khalid Ali.

(x) DW-10 Abdul Karim Khan.

(xi) DW-11 Tasleem Raza Khan, Videographer.

(xii) DW-12 Farhan Ali Khan.

(xiii) DW-13 Zameer Ahmed Khan.

(xiv) DW-14 Mrs. Nikhat Akhlaque.

(xv) DW-15 Mrs. Fareeda Sultana.

(xvi) DW-16 Dilip Shankar Acharya, Expert.

(xvii) DW-17 Dr. Ranjeet Kumar Singh, Expert

(xviii) DW-18 Mrs. Tanveer Fatima.

(xix) DW-19 Mohd Hamid.

12. As per paragraph No. 4 of the judgement of the Trial Court, on behalf of the prosecution, total seventy documents (Ext.1 to Ext.70) were produced and exhibited before the trial Court. During cross-examination of the prosecution witnesses total thirty seven documents were produced by the defence side and exhibited before the trial Court. On behalf of defence, total thirteen material exhibits were produced and exhibited as D-1 to D-13 before the trial Court.

Submissions on behalf of revisionists

13. Mr. Kapil Sibal, learned Senior Counsel for the revisionists, at the outset, primarily drawn the attention of this Court focusing on following six documents, namely :-

i- F.I.R. dated 03.01.2019 (Exhibit Ka-61).

ii- Birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Registration No. RNPB2012-03857) of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan issued by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur (Exhibit Ka-11).

iii- Application dated 17.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-55) and affidavit dated 17.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-53) of revisionist-Dr. Tanzeen Fatima given before City Health Officer, Nagar Nigam Lucknow.

iv- Birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 (Registration No. NNLKO-B-2015-292611) (Exhibit Ka-59) of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan issued by Municipal Corporation, Lucknow.

v- Duplicate Birth certificate, Serial No. 696 dated 29.01.2015 issued by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow (Exhibit Ka-54).

vi- Duplicate Birth certificate dated 21.04.2015, serial No. 718 (Ext. Kha-1/PW-7/10.11.2022) issued by Queen

Mary's Hospital, Lucknow produced by PW-7 before the Trial Court.

14. Main substratum of argument of Mr. Kapil Sibal, learned Senior Counsel for the revisionists is that it is not a case of forgery or fabrication of any document on the part of the accused-revisionists. Even accepting the prosecution case for the sake of argument only, no offence is made out against Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, Mohammad Azam Khan and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan. Under the facts and circumstances of this case, criminal prosecution of the revisionists, which is based on malice is bad in law. The findings recorded by the Trial Court as well as Appellate Court are illegal and perverse on the face of record. Impugned judgment and orders dated 18.10.2023 and 23.12.2023 are in complete disregard to the provisions of Code of Criminal Procedure and Indian Evidence Act, hence the same are not sustainable in the eye of law. Revisionists have been convicted on the basis of illegal presumption without any legal evidence sufficient to convict them. Both the courts below failed to appreciate that ingredients to constitute the offence punishable under Sections 120-B, 420, 467, 468 and 471 IPC are lacking in this case.

15. Mr. Kapil Sibal in order to strengthen his aforesaid submissions further argued that :-

15-1. Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was born in Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow on 30.09.1990, but at the initial stage, date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was recorded in the concerned record of Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur as 01.01.1993 and place of birth as Rampur on the basis of information given by the family friend of his father Mohammad Azam Khan.

15-2. The birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Registration No. RNPB2012-03857) of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan, in which his date of birth is recorded as 01.01.1993 and place of birth is recorded as Rampur shows that same was issued under Section 12/17 of the Registration of Births and Deaths Act 1969 and Rules 8/13 of the Uttar Pradesh Registration of Births and Deaths Rules, 2003 by the department of Health/ Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur, as such birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Exhibit Ka-11) is neither a forged nor a fabricated document.

15-3. The first allegation of the complainant in the F.I.R. that the first birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was issued by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur on the basis of affidavits given by Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima is completely false and against the evidence on record. No affidavit was given by Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima for issuance of first birth certificate dated 28.06.2012. Nothing is on record with regard to any kind of forgery or fabrication made by Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima in issuance of birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 to Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan. The prosecution could not prove the said allegation in accordance with law against them.

15-4. The second allegation against Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan are that they, for their personal gain, by forgery and well planned conspiracy, got issued second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 of their son Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan from Municipal Corporation, Lucknow on the basis of duplicate birth certificate, Serial No. 718, dated 21.04.2015 (Exhibit Kha-1/PW-7) issued by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow, is also wrong and false allegation. In this regard, it is submitted that in fact Dr. Tanzeen Fatima moved an application dated 17.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-55) along with her affidavit dated 17.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-53) before City Health Officer, Nagar Nigam Lucknow for issuance of birth certificate of her son Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan mentioning inter alia that Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was born on 30.09.1990 in Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow (King George University). There is an urgent need of birth certificate of my son and birth of my son can be confirmed from the records of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow as required. Thereafter second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 was issued by the Municipal Corporation, Lucknow after due verification of record in accordance with law.

15-5. It is also pointed out that no duplicate birth certificate of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow, was filed along with application dated 17.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-55) of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima. The birth certificate dated 29.01.2015 (Exhibit Ka-54) and 21.04.2015 (Exhibit Kha-1/PW-7/10.11.2022) Serial No. 718 of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow are of later date of issuance of second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015, hence the case of the prosecution in F.I.R. that second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 has been issued on the basis of birth certificate dated 21.04.2015 of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow cannot be accepted. There is no forgery in the application and affidavit dated 17.01.2015 of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima.

15-6. Much emphasis has been given by contending that second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 may be illegal or wrong for civil consequences, but cannot be said or treated as a forged document, because the same has been officially and validly issued following due procedure of law under the genuine seal and signature of officer competent to issue the same.

15-7. The revisionists are neither author of either of the birth certificates nor there is a charge that they interpolated or fabricated either of the birth certificates.

15-8. The prosecution has failed to establish that any kind of alleged forgery was committed by the revisionists in the process of obtaining birth certificate issued at Rampur or Lucknow.

15-9. The birth certificate would not fall within the definition of ‘valuable security' as defined under Section 30 of IPC, hence, the ingredients of Sections 467 and 471 IPC are also not satisfied.

15-10. It is also submitted that if birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 is being treated as a forged document by the State government/prosecution, the appropriate legal action should have been taken under Section 23 of the Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 against all the concerned officers and persons, who were involved in the process of issuance of said birth certificate dated 21.01.2015, but no action has been taken by the State against any authorities/officer concerned.

15-11. The issue involved in this case attracts the provisions of the the Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969, which is a Special Act. It is well settled that special law prevails over general law and things to be done in a particular manner can only be done in that manner, hence, under the facts of the case, the provisions of Indian Penal Code is not attracted against the revisionists.

15-12. If such kind of malicious criminal prosecutions are allowed, then lakhs of people of this country will be behind the bar in a civil wrong for no fault.

15-13. Mr. Sibal, learned Senior Counsel, stretching his argument further submits that it is not the case of the complainant that any of accused tried to deceive him and he has been cheated by them or he is victim of this case. There is no victim in the present case. The complainant has made complaint on his letter pad disclosing his identity as Convener, Small Scale Industries Cell, West U.P., Bhartiya Janata Party in order to mount pressure upon the administrative officers.

15-14. On the complaint dated 17.12.2018 of the complainant, F.I.R. (Ext. Kha-61) was lodged after 15 days on 3.01.2019 due to political malice.

15-15. In view of Section 39 Cr.P.C. applicant had no locus to lodge FIR under section 420 IPC as he is not a person deceived or victim.

15-16. It is simply a case of correction of date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan. No complaint was filed by Municipal Corporation, Lucknow regarding the birth certificate dated 21.01.2015.

15-17. The investigating officer did not record the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. of Rajeev Rajput, then Sub-Registrar of Births and Deaths of Municipal Council, Rampur who had prepared and issued Birth Certificate dated 28.06.2012. Even he was not produced by the prosecution before the trial Court. In this regard, it is further pointed out that though on the application under Section 311 Cr.P.C. of the prosecution, Rajeev Rajput was summoned, but later on prosecution moved another application for not summoning him as a prosecution witness therefore, trial court has withdrawn its previous order of summoning Rajeev Rajput. Similarly Dr. Uma of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow was also summoned by the Trial Court, but subsequently at the request of prosecution, she was dropped.

15-18. Both the Courts below failed to consider that there was no motive or mens rea on the part of the revisionists to commit any offence. Even several documents, which have been exhibited, have not been properly marked.

15-19. Similarly, the Trial Court has also failed to appreciate the relevant evidence produced and proved as genuine by the revisionists. One such evidence is a video of a wedding attended by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan on 16.12.1990, which proves beyond all reasonable doubts that he could not have been born on 01.01.1993, as alleged by the prosecution.

15-20. The Trial Court has failed to consider that Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan had already applied for correction of his date of birth on 23.03.2015 before the St. Paul School, Rampur which was forwarded to C.B.S.E. on 15.04.2015 much prior to election of Legislative Assembly, 2017 and about three and half years prior to complaint and registration of FIR dated 13.01.2019.

15-21. After going through the statement of PW-3, Tejpal Singh in totality, clear inference can be drawn that he was telling lie after lie as there are material contradictions in his statement.

15-22. Referring to the relevant part of statement of Dr. Sunil Kumar Rawat, PW-7 whereby he had stated that copy of birth certificate issued by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow was also attached along with the affidavit dated 17.1.2015 of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, it is argued by Mr. Sibal that the said birth certificate was issued on 29.1.2015, therefore, the same could not be attached along with the affidavit dated 17.1.2015 of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima. In this regard, it is further stated that the statement had been given by Dr. Sunil Kumar Rawat, PW-7 in order to implicate the accused.

15-23. Much emphasis has been given by contending that the birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan issued by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur was filed in Civil Appeal No. 104 of 2020 before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, on which there was no such endorsement in Hindi that the same was issued on the basis of affidavit. But when same birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 (Ext. Ka-11) has been filed by Investigating Officer along with charge sheet before the trial court of this case, on which there was a stamp on the top of left side mentioning that शपथ पत्र के आधार पर जारी. This fact clearly goes to suggest that prosecution has filed the birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 (Ext. Ka-11) after making addition / interpolation by putting stamp शपथ पत्र के आधार पर जारी in order to support the prosecution case, which amounts to forgery on the part of prosecution. It is further pointed out that said fact was also proved by the defence by filing the correct birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 before the trial court as paper No. A80/1 which has also been exhibited as PW3/D1 on which there is no such stamping. On putting query in this regard, Mr. P.C. Srivastava, learned Additional Advocate General and learned counsel for complainant are speechless and they could not address the court on the said issue.

15-24. DWs 11, 15, 16 and 17 were the expert witnesses and their evidences have not been discussed by the Trial Court.

15-25. During trial revisionist-Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan has also filed a civil suit No. 925 of 2023 on 12.5.2023 in the Court of Civil Judge (SD), which is still pending.

15-26. Relying upon the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Ibrahim vs. State of Bihar (2009) 8 SCC 751, it is argued that Section 467, 468 and 471 IPC cannot be applied in the present case as there is no forgery in the Birth Certificate dated 21.01.2015.

15-27. It is further submitted that although accused persons did not furnish false particulars, but even furnishing of a false particulars does not amounts to forgery, hence the birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 itself is not a forged document.

15-28. Since the entry of information furnished by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow was already made on 30.9.1990 in births and deaths register of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, therefore, provisions of Rule 9(3) Uttar Pradesh Registration of Births and Deaths Rules 2003 will not be attracted in the present case.

15-29. So far as Section 420 IPC is concerned, it is argued that nothing is on record to establish a dishonest or fraudulent intention of the revisionist and deceiving any person by them.

15-30. The documents were submitted before the Passport Authority by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan were in good faith considered to be correct documents obviating any scope of fraud or deceit, which is sine qua non for invoking Section 420 IPC.

15-31. So far as alleged offence against the revisionist under Section 120-B I.P.C. is concerned, it is submitted that initially revisionist was not charge-sheeted for the alleged offence under Section 120-B I.P.C. in charge-sheet No. 196 of 2019 dated 01.04.2019. On 10.3.2021 when discharge applications were moved on behalf of revisionists on which prosecution sought time to file objection, thereafter on 24.3.2021, 26.3.2021. 1.4.2021, 12.4.2021 prosecution took adjournment. On 3.8.2021 when it was argued on behalf of the revisionists that they are liable to be discharged as there is no evidence of conspiracy, then again prosecution took adjournment on 4.8.2021 and 5.8.2021 on the ground to show some judgments and the date was further fixed for 11.8.2021. On 11.8.2021 supplementary charge-sheet No. 196A of 2019 under Section 120-B I.P.C. has been filed by the informant Akash Kumar Saxena on behalf of the investigating officer, who was not present at that time in the Trial Court. On 8.11.2021 the complainant/ informant has also filed an application along with his affidavit seeking prayer to take cognizance upon the supplementary charge-sheet. It is also submitted that no permission was sought by the Investigating Officer from the trial court for conducting further investigation and even did not inform the trial court regarding any further investigation.

15-32. The revisionists have been falsely and maliciously implicated in several cases including this case due to political vendetta of the ruling party (BJP).

15-33. Revisionist-Dr Tanzeen Fatima has been member of Legislative Assembly from Rampur Constituency, U.P. once and Member of Rajya Sabha once. She retired from the post of Reader after dedicated service of 34 years as a teacher.

15-34. Revisionist-Mohammad Azam Khan has been member of Legislative Assembly for nine terms and was Cabinet Minister of State of U.P. He has also been privileged to discharge public democratic duty as a leader of the opposition for 14th State Legislative Assembly of State of U.P. He was Member of Rajya Sabha once and was also a Member of the 17th Lok Sabha.

16. Learned counsel for the revisionists lastly, explaining the criminal history of the revisionists, submits that prior to this case, being, Case Crime No. 04 of 2019 (Case No. 312 of 2022), revisionist Dr. Tanzeen Fatima was not having any criminal history. Revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan had criminal history of 06 pending cases and revisionist Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan had criminal history of 01 case, when he was juvenile. The details of criminal history of the revisionists are as follows :

A-List of 35 Criminal Cases pending against Revisionist Dr. Tanzeen Fatima

S. No.	Case No.	Section(s)	Present status
1.	Crime No. 224/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail.
2.	Crime No.226/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
3.	Crime No.227/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
4.	Crime No.228/2019, P.S. Azeem	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail

	Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.
5.	Crime No.232/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420,120B IPC	On bail
6.	Crime No.235/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
7.	Crime No.236/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
8.	Crime No.237/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
9.	Crime No.238/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
10.	Crime No.239/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
11.	Crime No.240/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
12.	Crime No.241/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
13.	Crime No.242/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
14.	Crime No.248/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
15.	Crime No.249/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
16.	Crime No.250/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
17.	Crime No.251/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail

18.	Crime No.252/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
19.	Crime No.253/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
20.	Crime No.254/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
21.	Crime No.255/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
22.	Crime No.256/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
23.	Crime No.257/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
24.	Crime No.260/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
25.	Crime No.261/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
26.	Crime No.262/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
27.	Crime No.295/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
28.	Crime No.004/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B, 34 IPC	Present Case
29.	Crime No.312/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 447, 120B IPC & u/s 3 PDPP Act	On bail
30.	Crime No.46/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail
31.	Crime No. 53/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail

32.	Crime No. 553/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC and 2 & 3 PDPP Act	On bail
33.	Crime No. 943/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B IPC.	On bail
34.	Crime No. 70/2020, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 120B IPC.	On bail
35.	Crime No. 543/2019, PS Kotwali	U/s 135 of Electricity Act	On bail

16-A. Brief submissions of behalf of Revisionist-Dr. Tanzeen Fatima about her above mentioned criminal history are:

(i) Prior to F.I.R. dated 03.1.2019 of this case, she had no F.I.R. against her.

(ii) All the subsequent F.I.Rs. to this case cannot be termed as criminal history of revisionist Dr. Tanzeen Fatima.

(iii) All the above mentioned criminal cases were registered against her only after change of State Government in the year 2017.

(iv) After registration of F.I.R. being Case Crime No. 224 of 2019 (mentioned at Sl. No. 1), 26 successive F.I.Rs. (Sl. Nos. 2 to 27) of same offences were got registered separately by 26 farmers.

(v) The cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 29, 30 & 31 (similar in nature) were filed due to the reason that she is a member of Maulana Jauhar Trust.

B- List of total 92 pending criminal cases against the revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan

Sl. No.	Case No.	Section(s)	Present status
1	Crime No.224/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 342, 384, 386, 389, 420, 323, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
2	Crime No.226/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 347, 386, 389, 420, 447, 504, 506 IPC	On bail
3	Crime No.227/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 504, 506 IPC	On bail
4	Crime No.228/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
5	Crime No.232/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail

6	Crime No.235/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 504, 506 IPC	On bail
7	Crime No.236/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC.	On bail
8	Crime No.237/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
9	Crime No.238/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
10	Crime No.239/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
11	Crime No.240/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
12	Crime No.241/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
13	Crime No.242/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
14	Crime No.248/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
15	Crime No.249/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
16	Crime No.250/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
17	Crime No.251/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
18	Crime No.252/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
19	Crime No.253/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail

20	Crime No.254/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
21	Crime No.255/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
22	Crime No.256/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
23	Crime No.257/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 504, 506 IPC	On bail
24	Crime No.260/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
25	Crime No.261/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 347, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
26	Crime No.262/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447, 506 IPC	On bail
27	Crime No.295/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B, 323, 342, 386, 389, 420, 447 IPC	On bail
28	Crime No.507/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120-B IPC	After serving about 27 months he has been acquitted.
29	Crime No.508/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120-B IPC	Convicted by trial Court for 7 years on 16.03.2024, against which, Crl Revision is pending before the High Court.
30	Crime No.509/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	After serving about 27 months, he has been acquitted by the Trial Court.

31	Crime No.512/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	On bail
32	Crime No.513/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	On bail
33	Crime No.533/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 323, 354, 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	On bail
34	Crime No.536/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	On bail
35	Crime No.538/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 323, 447, 452, 504, 506, 395, 120- B IPC	On bail
36	Crime No.556/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 307, 392, 447, 452,	On bail
		504, 506, 120- B IPC
37	Crime No.576/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 147, 447, 452, 427, 323, 307, 354, 504, 395, 120B IPC	On bail
38	Crime No.629/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 452, 423, 504, 354, 506, 395, 120-B IPC	On bail
39	Crime No.528/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 389, 427, 448, 395, 506, 504, 120B IPC	On bail
40	Crime No.529/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 354A, 389, 395, 448, 427, 504,506, 120B IPC	On bail
41	Crime No.531/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 504, 506, 427, 395, 448, 452, 120B IPC	On bail
42	Crime No.533/2019, P.S.	U/s 452, 427, 395, 448,	On bail

	Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	323, 504, 506, 120B IPC
43	Crime No.534/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 448, 389, 395, 504, 506, 120B IPC	On bail
44	Crime No.530/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 427, 504, 323, 395, 304, 448, 120B IPC	On bail
45	Crime No.535/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 323, 504, 506, 395, 448, 120B IPC	On bail
46	Crime No.536/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 504, 506, 389, 395, 448, 120B IPC	On bail
47	Crime No.537/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 504, 323, 395, 389, 448, 120B IPC	On bail
48	Crime No.538/2019, P.S.	U/s 452, 427, 504, 506,
	Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	395, 448, 120B IPC
49	Crime No.539/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 323, 504, 395, 448, 120B IPC	On bail
50	Crime No.556/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 427, 389, 395, 448, 304, 504, 506, 120B IPC	On bail
51	Crime No.959/2007, P.S. Tanda, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171G, 504 IPC, 125 RP ACT & 3(1)(10) SC & ST Act.	On bail
52	NCR No.50/2019, P.S. Swar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171G IPC	On bail
53	Crime No.167/2019, P.S. Tanda, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A(1)(B), 505(1)(B) IPC & 125 RP ACT	On bail
54	Crime No.185/2019, P.S. Milak, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A, 505(1)(B) IPC	Convicted by trial Court for three years.

		& u/s 125 RP Act	Acquitted by appellate Court, against which, criminal revision is pending before High Court.
55	Crime No.130/2019, P.S. Shahzad Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171 G, 505(1)(B) IPC & u/s 125 RP Act.	Convicted by trial Court for two years, confirmed by appellate Court, against which, criminal revision is pending before High Court.
56	Crime No.206/2019, P.S. Bilaspur, District Rampur, U.P.	u/s 153A, 505(1)(b) IPC & u/s 125 RP Act.	On bail
57	Crime No.94/2019, P.S. Khajuria, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A(1)(b), 505(2) IPC & u/s 125 RP Act.	On bail
58	Crime No.221/2019, P.S. Shahabad, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 509 IPC & u/s 125 RP Act & u/s 2(A)/3/6 Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act,1986	On bail
59	Crime No.215/2019, P.S. Shahabad, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171G IPC & u/s 125, 135(2) RP Act	On bail
60	Crime No.128/2019, P.S. Bhot, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 295A, 188, 171G, 341, 505(2) IPC & u/s 125 RP Act	On bail
61	Crime No.336/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 126(2) RP Act	On bail
62	Crime No.509/2017, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A, 505(1) IPC	On bail

63	NCR No.33/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171-F IPC and 133 RP Act	On bail
64	Crime No.232/2019, P.S. Shahbad, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 295A, 188, 171G, 341, 505(2) IPC & 125 RP Act	On bail
65	Crime No.547/2018, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 147, 323, 341, 504, 506 IPC	On bail
66	Crime No.283/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 505(1)(B), 505(2) IPC, 125 RP ACT	On bail
67	Crime No.333/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A, 171F, 505A IPC & u/s 125 RP Act.	On bail
68	Crime No.472/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 354A, 294, 504 IPC & u/s 67 IT Act	On bail
69	Crime No.505/2019, P.S. Katghar, District Moradabad, U.P.	U/s 354A, 294, 500, 509 IPC & 67 IT Act	On bail
70	C. Case No. 1088/SS/2017 a private complaint titled as "Dr Syed Ejaz Abbas Sunniy Vs Mohd Azam Khan (Bombay)	U/s 500 IPC	On bail
71	Crime No. 259/2022, PS Kotwali.	U/s 153A, 505 IPC	Notice u/s 41A Cr.P.C. was served upon Revisionist and he was not arrested during investigation. The charge sheet has been filed.
72	Crime No.165/2007, P.S. Rasoolpur, District Firozabad, U.P.	U/s 188, 153-A IPC	On bail
73	Crime No.79/2019, P.S. Hazratganj, District Lucknow	U/s 500, 505 IPC	On bail
74	Crime No.45/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 153A, 295A, 500, 506 IPC	On bail

75	Crime No.4/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	u/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC	Present case
76	Crime No.980/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	u/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC	On bail
77	Crime No.781/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 392, 427, 448 IPC	On bail
78	Crime No.176/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 332 IPC & u/s 2/3 PDPP Act	On bail
79	Crime No.46/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail
80	Crime No. 53/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail
81	Crime No.498/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 447, 120B IPC	On bail
82	Crime No.312/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120-B,201, 420, 447, 467, 468, 471, 409 IPC & u/s 3 PDPP Act
83	Crime No. 642/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 447, 120-BIPC & u/s 3(2)(b) PDPP Act	On bail
84	Crime No.586/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 120B, 307, 323, 386, 452, 504 IPC	After serving about 27 months, he has been acquitted by the Trial Court.
85	Crime No.397/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 379, 448, 411 IPC	On bail
86	Crime No.52/2020, P.S. Chajlet, District Moradabad, U.P.	U/s 174A IPC	On bail
87	Crime No.001/2008, P.S. Chajlet, District Moradabad, U.P.	U/s 147, 341, 353 IPC and 7 CLA Act.	Convicted by Trial Court for two years and granted bail under Section 389 Cr.P.C.

88	Crime No.2/2018, P.S. SIT Lucknow	U/s 201, 204, 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B IPC & Sec 13 PC Act	On bail
89	Crime no. 211/2022 PS Kotwali.	U/s 409, 411, 201, 120B IPC & 2/3 PDPP Act	Charge sheet filed. Regular bail application is pending before High Court.
90	Crime No. 173/2022 PS Kotwali	U/s 147/195 A/506/1 20B IPC	Notice u/s 41A Cr.P.C. was served upon Revisionist and he was not arrested during investigation. The charge sheet has been filed.
91	Crime No. 257/2022 PS Ganj.	U/s 452, 323, 504, 506, 420, 120B IPC	Charge sheet has been filed and he has been taken into judicial custody.
92.	Crime No.70/2020, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	u/s 420, 120B, 467, 468, 471 IPC	On bail

16-B. Brief submissions on behalf of Revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan about his above mentioned criminal history are:

(i) Prior to F.I.R. dated 03.1.2019 of this case, he had only 6 pending cases (Sl. Nos. 51, 62, 65, 72, 87, 88) against him. It is only after the change of the Government in the year 2017, due to political pressure police started lodging F.I.R. one after another.

(ii) All the subsequent F.I.Rs. of this case cannot be termed as criminal history of revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan.

(iii) Aforesaid false and frivolous cases have been lodged against him by local police of district Rampur for making his long criminal history.

(iv) After registration of F.I.R. being Case Crime No. 224 of 2019 (mentioned at Sl. No. 1), 26 successive F.I.Rs. (Sl. Nos. 2 to 27) of same offences were got registered separately by 26 farmers.

(v) Three cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 36, 37 and 38 are in respect of same offences alleged to have been committed in the course of same transaction.

(vi) Eleven cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 39 to 50 are in respect of same offences making allegation inter alia of demolition of house and loot of goats, buffaloes and other household articles in furtherance of conspiracy hatched by Mohammad Azam Khan.

(vii) Twenty four cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 51 to 74 are related to hate speech.

(viii) Case Crime No. 980 of 2019 (Sl. No. 76) was registered with similar allegation relating to date of birth as mentioned in Case Crime No. 4 of 2019 (Sl. No. 75) by changing police stations.

(ix) The cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 78, 79, 80, 81 and 82 (similar in nature) were filed relating to taking of enemy property inside the boundary wall of Jauhar University.

C: In addition to the aforesaid 92 pending criminal cases, the revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan had following 19 other cases, which have come to an end :

Sl. No.	Case No.	Section(s)	Present status
1	Case Crime No. 116 of 1982, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 147, 352, 504, 506 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
2	Case Crime No. 250 of 1989, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 147, 353, 504 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
3	Case Crime No. 252 of 1989, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 147, 353, 504 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
4	Case Crime No. 767 of 2007, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 147, 148, 353, 504, 506 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
5	Case Crime No. 558 of 2007, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 406, 409, 147, 148, 353, 506 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
6	Case Crime No. 1534 of 2011, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 147, 148, 149, 341, 353, 332, 506, 427 IPC and Section 3 Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act, 1984	Case has been withdrawn by State.
7	Case Crime No. 127 of 2012, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 188 Representation of Peoples Act	Closure report submitted and the same has been accepted by Court.

8	Case Crime No. 114 of 2014, PS Kotwali Rampur, district Rampur	U/s 153, 153B, 295, 505(2), 188, 189, 504, 171G IPC and Section 125 Representation of Peoples Act	He has been discharged.
9	Case Crime No. 1200 of 2007, PS Civil Lines, district Rampur	U/s 427, 452, 120B IPC	Closure report submitted.
10	Case Crime No. 893 of 2000, PS Civil Lines, district Rampur	U/s 420, 120 IPC, 13(2) Prevention of Corruption Act	Case has been withdrawn by State.
11	Case Crime No. 554 of 2007, PS Ganj, district Rampur	U/s 109, 119, 120, 166, 174, 177, 34, 192, 217, 383, 384, 431, 432, 444, 447, 506 IPC
12	Case Crime No. 606 of 2007, PS Ganj, district Rampur	U/s 427, 447, 323, 504, 506, 394 IPC	Closure report submitted.
13	Case Crime No. 607 of 2007, PS Ganj, district Rampur	U/s 427, 447, 323, 504, 506, 394 IPC	Closure report submitted.
14	Case Crime No. 230A of 1996, PS Shahjadnagar, district Rampur	U/s 332 IPC	Closure report submitted.
15	Case Crime No. 584 of 2007, PS Azeemnagar, district Rampur	U/s 431 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.

16	NCR No. 37 of 2007, PS Azeemnagar, district Rampur	U/s 323 IPC	Case has been withdrawn by State.
17	Case Crime No. 364 of 2022, PS Ganj, district Rampur	U/s 354A(1)(4), 504, 505(2), 509, 153A IPC	No sanction granted by the State.
18	Case Crime No. 398 of 2019, PS Kotwali, district Rampur	U/s 509 IPC	Closure report submitted.
19	Case Crime No. 335 of 2019	U/s 354A, 294, 500, 509 IPC and Section 67 IT Act	His complicity in the crime has been found false.

D. List of total 46 criminal cases pending against the revisionist Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan

S. No.	Case No.	Section(s)	Present status
1	Crime No.001/2008, P.S. Chajlet, District Moradabad, U.P.	U/S 147, 353, 341 IPC & 7 CLA Act.	*Convicted by trial Court for 2 years. *Criminal appeal is pending. *Bail granted
2	Crime No.224/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
3	Crime No.226/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
4	Crime No.227/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
5	Crime No.228/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
6	Crime No.232/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar,	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail

	District Rampur, U.P.
7	Crime No.235/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
8	Crime No.236/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
9	Crime No.237/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
10	Crime No.238/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
11	Crime No.239/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
12	Crime No.240/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
13	Crime No.241/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
14	Crime No.242/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
15	Crime No.248/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
16	Crime No.249/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
17	Crime No.250/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
18	Crime No.251/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
19	Crime No.252/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail

20	Crime No.253/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
21	Crime No.254/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
22	Crime No.255/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
23	Crime No.256/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
24	Crime No.257/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
25	Crime No.260/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
26	Crime No.261/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
27	Crime No.262/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
28	Crime No.295/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447, 420, 120B IPC	On bail
29	Crime No.004/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B, 34 IPC.	Present case.
30	Crime No. 594/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B IPC	On bail
31	Crime No.980/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	u/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC	On bail
32	Crime No. 98/2021, P.S. Suar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 125A RP Act	On bail
33	Crime No.312/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 447, 120B IPC & u/s 3 PDPP Act	On bail

34	Crime No.46/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail
35	Crime No. 53/2020, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC & 2/3 of PDPP Act	On bail
36	Crime No.586/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 452, 323, 307, 504, 386, 120B IPC	After serving about 20 months incarceration period in jail, he has been acquitted by the Trial Court.
37	Crime No.397/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 379, 448, 411 IPC	On bail
38	Crime No. 231/2019, P.S. Azeem Nagar, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 147, 149, 153, 353 IPC.	On bail
39	Crime No. 334/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 171G IPC and 125 RP Act	On bail
40	Crime No. 553/2019, P.S. Kotwali, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 447 IPC and 2 & 3 PDPP Act	On bail
41	Crime No. 478/2019, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 504, 506 IPC.	On bail
42	Crime No. 943/2019, P.S. Civil Lines, District Rampur, U.P.	U/s 420, 467, 468, 471, 120B IPC.	On bail
43	Crime No. 505/2019, P.S. Katghar, District Moradabad, U.P.	U/s 294, 354A, 500, 509 IPC and 7 CLA, Act	On bail
44.	Crime no. 211/2022 PS Kotwali.	U/s 409, 411, 201, 120B IPC & 2/3 PDPP Act	Bail application is pending before High Court.
45.	Crime No. 367/2022, P.S. Ganj, District Rampur,	U/S 147/172G/ 323/504/506/332/ 188 IPC	Notice under Section 41A Cr.P.C. has been served.

46.	Crime No. 9/2024 PS Kotwali	U/s. 420/431/ 120B IPC, Section 2/3 of PDPP Act, 1984 and Section 5/15 of Environmental Protection Act.	Notice under Section 41A Cr.P.C. has been served.

16-C. Brief submissions on behalf of Revisionist Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan about his above mentioned criminal history are:

(i) Prior to F.I.R. dated 03.1.2019 of this case, he had only 1 case (Sl. No.1) against him. It is only after the change of the Government in the year 2017, police due to political pressure started lodging F.I.R. one after another.

(ii) All the subsequent F.I.Rs. of this case cannot be termed as criminal history of revisionist Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan.

(iii) Aforesaid false and frivolous cases have been lodged against him by local police of district Rampur for making his long criminal history.

(iv) In two cases being Case Crime No. 381 of 2017, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307, 427, 504, 506 IPC, police station Kotwali, district Rampur and Case Crime No. 184 of 2017, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 307 IPC, police station Swar, district Rampur, which have been shown in the counter affidavit of the State, name of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan has been dropped during investigation.

(v) After registration of F.I.R. being Case Crime No. 224 of 2019 (mentioned at Sl. No. 2), 26 successive F.I.Rs. (Sl. Nos. 3 to 28) of same offences were got registered separately by 26 farmers.

(vi) Case Crime Nos. 594 of 2019 (Sl. No. 30), 980 of 2019 (Sl. No. 31), 98 of 2021 (Sl. No. 32) were registered with similar allegation relating to date of birth as mentioned in Case Crime No. 4 of 2019 (Sl. No. 29) by changing police stations.

(vii) In the cases mentioned at Sl. No. 29, 30 & 31, the first informant is Akash Kumar Saxena, BJP Leader and sitting MLA from Rampur.

(viii) The cases mentioned at Sl. Nos. 33, 34 & 35 (similar in nature) were filed due to the reason that he is member of Maulana Jauhar Trust.

(ix) He has been falsely implicated in F.I.Rs. mentioned from Sl. No. 36 to 46. without any evidence due to political enmity.

17. On behalf of accused-revisionists reliance has been placed on following judgements on different issues :-

- Ayodhya Prasad Sital Prasad Vs. Emperor ; AIR 1938 Sind 193
- VR Venugopal v. Miss T Pankajam; (1961) 1 CrLJ 804
- Matilal Chakravarty v. The King; AIR 1949 Cal 58
- Mohammaed Ibrahim and Ors. v. State of Bihar & anr; (2009) 8 SCC 751
- Sheila Sebastian v. R. Jawaharaj and Anr.; (2018) 7 SCC 581
- Sanjiv Ratanappa Ronad v. Emperor; AIR 1932 Bom 545

- Guru Bipin Singh v. Chongtham Manihar Singh (1996) 11 SCC 622
- State of U.P. vs. Sabir Ali; (1964) 7 SCR 435
- Dr. S. Dutt vs. State of U.P.; (1966) 1 SCR 493
- Oseela Abdul Khader & Anr. V. State of Kerala; 2012 SCC Online Kerala 31803
- Kiran Kanta v. State of Uttarakhand; 2019 SCC Online Utt 1670
- Krishna Kumari v. State of Punjab, 2016 SCC Online P&H 16199
- Surineni Renukaiah v. State of A.P.; Crl. P. No. 6234/2022
- Jullu Rehman v. State of Jharkhand; Crl. M.P. No. 576/2012
- Pardeep Singh v. State of Punjab; CRM.M, 48407/2018
- Malcolm War Macleod v. State of W.B; 2010 SCC Online Cal 2115
- State of U.P. v. Singhara Singh and Ors.; (1964) 4 SCR 485
- Noor Mohammad v. State of UP; 2010 SCC Online All 823
- Ravi Kant Sharma v. State; 2011 SCC Online Del 4342
- Amin & Anr. v. State; 1957 SCC Online All 331
- Kishore Chand v. State of Himachal Pradesh; (1991) 1 SCC 286
- State of A.P. v. Punati Ramulu & Ors.; 1994 Supp (1) SCC 59
- Vijender and Ors. v. State of Delhi; (1997) 6 SCC 171
- Tomaso Bruno & Anr. v. State of U.P.; (2015) 7 SCC 178
- Mohanlal Shamji Soni v. Union of India & Anr.; 1991 Supp (1) SCC 271
- Arjun Panditrao Khotkar v. Kailash Kushanrao Gorantyal, (2020) 7 SCC 1
- Anvar P.V. v. P.K. Basheer, (2014) 10 SCC 473
- State v. Navjot Sandhu; (2005) 11 SCC 600

Submissions on behalf of the State and complainant

18. Main substratum of argument of learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State and complainant are that;-

18-1. Right from childhood to 16.1.2015, in all the concerned documents, the date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was recorded as 01.1.1993 and place of birth was Rampur.

18-2. Since, in the year 2017, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was not completing the age of 25 years, which was the minimum eligibility criteria for contesting legislative assembly election, therefore, the accused-revisionists in a pre-planned manner got a second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 issued from Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, in which date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan is shown as 30.09.1990 and his place of Birth is shown as Lucknow.

18-3. The impugned birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 is a forged document because the same has been obtained by concealing the fact of issuance of birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur. The birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 has been issued on the basis of application and affidavit dated 17.1.2015 of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima as well as taking into consideration the birth and death register dated 30.9.1990 (Ext. Ka-56) of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, which has been forged / interpolated by making wrong entry.

18-4. It is also submitted that since the record of Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur was burnt in the year 2015, therefore, there is no evidence to establish the basis of issuance of birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur but under the facts of the case it shall be presumed that the birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 would have been issued on the basis of affidavit of Mohammad Azam khan and his wife Dr. Tanzeen Fatima.

18-5. It is also submitted that since at the time of procuring the second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan from Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, Mr. Mohammad Azam Khan was sitting Cabinet Minister and the birth certificate has been issued within four days, therefore, it shall also be presumed that the same would have been issued under his direction and influence, therefore, offence under section 120-B IPC is made out against all the accused.

18-6. So far as allegation of the prosecution in the FIR that the birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 has been issued on the basis of certificate dated 21.4.2015 (Ext.-Kha-1/PW-7) of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow, it is argued that since the said certificate dated 21.04.2015 was found in the file of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, therefore, it shall also be presumed that the said certificate dated 21.4.2015 would have been taken into consideration while issuing birth certificate dated 21.1.2015. This submission of learned Additional Advocate General and learned counsel for the complainant is too hard to swallow.

18-7. On the issue of locus of the complainant, it is argued that since, it is an offence against the State, therefore, any one can lodge FIR in such matter.

18-8. On the issue of defective investigation, it is submitted that the accused cannot take benefit of faulty investigation.

18-9. Since Birth certificates create a legal right, therefore same is valuable security.

18-10. Lastly it is submitted that the prosecution has proved its case beyond reasonable doubt, hence the interim relief as sought for by the revisionists is liable to be rejected.

Discussion

19. In view of the above, at this stage, this Court is required to consider the prayer of the revisionists for suspension of their sentence and stay of their conviction during pendency of these Criminal Revisions before this Court.

20. Having heard the submissions of learned counsel for the parties and having gone through the record of the case which consists of more than thousand pages in its entirety, I find that the facts enumerated below are not in dispute by the learned counsel for the parties :

20-1. In the year 1995, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan took admission in class nursery at St. Paul School, Rampur and on 01.04.1998 he got admission in Class Ist. As per school record, his date of birth is 01.01.1993. He studied at St. Paul School, Rampur till 12th standard. Thereafter he also did B.Tech and M.Tech in the year 2015 and in all his educational mark-sheets / certificates, his date of birth is mentioned as 01.01.1993.

20-2. In the year 2006 when Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was studying in IX standard, there were some spelling mistakes in his name as well as in the name of his mother, which was got corrected by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan before sending the final list to CBSE Board for the examination of Xth standard.

20-3. On 18.7.2006, manual birth certificate (Ext. Ka-21) was got issued from Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan, in which his date of birth is mentioned as 01.1.1993 and place of birth is mentioned as Rampur, which was used by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan in getting his first passport no. F-8757022 (Ext. Ka-14) issued on 28.8.2006, the validity period thereof was up to 31.12.2010.

20-4. On 28.06.2012, the computerized birth certificate (Ext. Ka 11) was issued to Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur, in which date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan is mentioned as 01.01.1993 and his place of birth is mentioned as Rampur.

20-5. The second passport No. K-7951741 dated 13.07.2022 (Ext. Ka 13) of Abdullah Azam Khan was issued on the basis of birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Ext. Ka 11) issued by the Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur. The second passport was valid up to 12.07.2022.

20-6. On 10.01.2018, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan applied for correction of his date of birth in his second passport No. K-7951741 dated 13.07.2022 (Ext. Ka 13) on the basis of his birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 (Ext. Ka 59) and cancellation order dated 30.01.2015 (Ext. Ka-9) of first birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Ext. Ka-11). On the said application, police verification report was submitted on the same day i.e. on 10.01.2018 and after depositing penalty amount, passport has been issued on 10.01.2018 itself to Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan and later the same was impounded when he was in jail.

20-7. On 17.1.2015, Dr. Tanzeen Fatima moved an application (Ext. Ka 55) addressed to City Health Officer, Municipal Corporation, Lucknow stating therein that her son (Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan) was born on 30.09.1990 in Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow and the birth certificate is urgently needed for very important and unavoidable reasons. She has also filed her own affidavit dated 17.1.2015 (Ext. Ka 53) in support of her application. On such an application and affidavit being furnished by Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, within four days, the birth certificate of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was issued by Municipal Corporation, Lucknow on 21.01.2015 (Ext. Ka-59) on the basis of entry made in Births and Deaths register of September, 1990 (Ext .Ka-56) of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow based on the information given by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow. PW-7 has also given certificate (Ext. Ka-57) to this effect. All the above noted documents (Ext.Ka-53, 55, 56, 57 & 59) were produced by the prosecution and proved by the PW-7.

20-8. After issuance of second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 (Ext. Ka-59), the first birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Ext. Ka-11) was cancelled on 30.01.2015 (Ext. Ka-9) by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur.

20-9. On 23.03.2015 Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan moved an application (Ext. Ka-7) before St.Paul School, Rampur for amendment of his date of birth in school record, which was forwarded to C.B.S.E. on 15.04.2015 (P.W.-2/A), 19.04.2015 (P.W.-2/B) and 15.04.2015 (P.W.-2/C).

20-10. In the year 2013, first PAN No. DFOPK6164K was issued to Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan, in which his date of birth is mentioned as 01.01.1993. Thereafter in the year 2015, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan obtained second PAN Card No. DWAPK7513R, in which his date of birth is mentioned as 30.09.1990. On 09.05.2017, Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan gave an application to deactivate his second PAN No. DWAPK7513R and similarly, he also gave an application dated 19.09.2017 for correction of his date of birth in his first PAN Card No. DFOPK6164K. Both the above mentioned applications are still pending.

20-11. As per statement of PW-3 Tejpal Singh Verma, the record related to Birth Certificate dated 28.06.2012 issued by Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur had been burnt on 8.5.2015 and thereafter, pursuant to order dated 26.11.2018 of Executive Officer, Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Rampur, a committee of five members was constituted to investigate the incident of fire that broke out in the premises of Municipal Corporation, Rampur on 8.5.2015. In the said committee PW-3 was also one of the members. The five members committee submitted report dated 20.12.2018 mentioning inter alia that the incident of fire was accidental.

20-12. The notification was issued notifying the schedule for election of UP State Legislative Assembly of 34-Suar Assembly Constituency of District Rampur. Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan for contesting said election filed his nomination papers on 24.01.2017 using his second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 issued by Municipal Corporation, Lucknow. The election took place as per schedule, in which Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was declared elected on 11.03.2017. The said election of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was challenged by Nawab Kazim Ali Khan in Election Petition No. 8 of 2017, which was allowed by the High Court vide judgment and order dated 16.12.2019 and the election of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan from 34-Suar Assembly Constituency of District Rampur was declared void and the same was set aside. Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan preferred a Civil Appeal No. 104 of 2020, U/s 116A of the Representation of People Act, 1951 before the Hon'ble Supreme Court against the judgment and order dated 16.12.2019 passed by High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, which has been dismissed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide judgment and order dated 07.11.2022 affirming the judgment of the High Court. In Review Petition No. 160 of 2023, it has been further clarified by the Hon'ble Supreme Court vide order dated 07.2.2023 that the criminal cases, if any, pending in reference to self-same subject may be decided on its own merits.

20-13. Mohammad Azam Khan and Dr. Tanzeen Fatima were not a party to the proceeding before Hon'ble Supreme Court.

20-14. As per FIR version, Abdullah Azam Khan had used second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 in obtaining degrees of Jauhar University, whereas during course of argument, it is admitted by the learned counsel for the parties that there is no evidence on record to establish that second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 was used by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan for obtaining any degree from Jauhar University.

20-15. During investigation, the investigating officer has neither recorded the statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. of the concerned person of Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur who had issued manual birth certificate dated 18.7.2006 (Ext. Ka-21) nor prosecution produced him as prosecution witnesses before the trial court.

20-16. Similarly the investigating officer has neither recorded the statement under section 161 Cr.P.C. of Mr. Rajeev Rajput, the then Sub-Registrar Births and Deaths, Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur, who had issued birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 nor prosecution produced him as prosecution witnesses before the trial court.

20-17. The statement under section 161 Cr.P.C. of the concerned persons of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow, who had processed and issued second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 was also neither recorded nor they were produced by the prosecution before the trial Court, whereas they were the material witnesses relating to allegations levelled by the prosecution against the revisionists.

20-18. The statement under section 161 Cr.P.C. of the SDM concerned, who is the competent authority under Rule 9(3) of Uttar Pradesh Registration of Births and Deaths Rules 2003 as well as concerned persons/ Doctor of Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow was also neither recorded nor they were produced by the prosecution before the trial Court.

20-19. Despite availability of direct evidence as mentioned above, the prosecution, by ignoring the same, tried to prove its case through indirect evidence. On putting query in this regard, learned counsel for the State and the complainant could not give any satisfactory reply.

21. Now it would be appropriate to deal a brief overview of the role and evidence on record relating to each of the revisionist individually.

Dr.Tanzeen Fatima

i- The second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 was issued on the basis of an application dated 17.01.2015 (Ext Ka 55) and affidavit dated 17.01.2015 (Ext. Ka 53) of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, wherein she has stated that the correct date of birth of Abdullah Azam Khan is 30.9.1990. The said fact may be incorrect but both the above documents cannot be said to be forged documents.

ii- The relevant fact that a birth certificate dated 28.06.2012 (Ext. Ka-11) has already been issued by Nagar Nigam, Rampur to Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan has not been disclosed by Dr. Tanzeen Fatima in her application dated 17.01.2015 (Ext. Ka 55) and affidavit dated 17.01.2015 (Ext. Ka 53).

Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan

i- Right from beginning to 16.1.2015, date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan was mentioned as 01.1.1993 and place of birth as Rampur in all his educational documents etc.

ii- The second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 in which date of birth of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan is shown as 30.9.1990 and place of birth at Rampur has been used by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan in filing his nomination paper dated 24.01.2017 for election of Legislative Assembly, 2017 and for obtaining third passport dated 10.1.2018 and new PAN card.

iii- The election contested by Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan on the basis of second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 has been cancelled by the High Court and affirmed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

Mohammad Azam Khan

i-Regarding birth certificate dated 28.6.2012 issued by the Nagar Palika Parishad, Rampur, it is the case of the prosecution (State and the complainant) that same had been issued on the basis of affidavit of Mohammad Azam Kham and Dr. Tazneen Fatima but no such affidavits are on record and prosecution could not prove said allegation by documentary evidence.

ii-The fire broke out in Nagar Nigam, Rampur on 08.5.2015 but inquiry of the said incident was made in the year 2018 during the period of present ruling party, in which PW-7 was also one of the member and in the inquiry report dated 20.12.2018, it was found that fire was accidental and there is no allegation against Mohammad Azam Khan.

iii-Nothing is on record to indicate that for issuance of the impugned second birth certificate dated 21.01.2015 by the Municipal Corporation Lucknow, any information (oral or written) was given by Mohammad Azam Khan.

iv- Mr. Rajeev Rajput, the then Sub-Registrar of Births and Deaths of Municipal Corporation, Rampur who had prepared and issued Birth Certificate dated 28.06.2012 was the star and relevant witness but neither his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. was recorded nor he was produced by the prosecution before the trial Court.

v- Mr. P.K. Singh, then Sub-Registrar of Births and Deaths of Municipal Corporation, Lucknow who had prepared and issued Birth Certificate dated 21.01.2015 was also the star and relevant witness, but neither his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. was recorded nor he was produced by the prosecution before the trial Court.

vi- With regard to alleged offence of conspiracy under Section 120-B of IPC against Mohammad Azam Kham, the case of the prosecution is mainly based on statement of PW-11 and PW-13 who have stated inter-alia that they became proposer in the nomination of 2017 election of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan on the instructions of Mohammad Azam Khan and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan. On the other hand the case of the accused-revisionists is that PW-11 and PW-13 were not interrogated during investigation. Their statements under Section 161 Cr.P.C. were not recorded and they are not witnesses of the charge-sheet. During trial PW-11 started supporting the complainant and became inimical to Mohammad Azam Khan and in this regard, he also held a press conference on 21.11.2022 stating inter alia that he is supporting the complainant Akash Saxena, who was contesting by-election from Legislative Assembly Rampur Constituency (32), which was scheduled to be held on 05.12.2022. The said press conference was telecast by 'Bharat Channel' on 21.11.2022 at about 04:03 PM and also admitted by PW-11 during the trial. Since, he was inimical to Mohammad Azam Khan, therefore, for the first time an application was moved on 22.11.2022 on behalf of the prosecution under Section 311 Cr.P.C. for summoning PW-11 Mohammad Shafiq and PW-13 Dinesh Goel, on which oral objection was raised on behalf of the accused that prosecution cannot be permitted to improve its case, but the said application was allowed on the same day on 22.11.2022 and their examination-in-chief were recorded on 25.11.2022 and 13.12.2022. On the conviction of Mohammad Azam Khan vide judgement and order dated 27.10.2022 in a hate speech case, he became disqualified and thereafter in by-election complainant Akash Saxena contested the election and elected as M.L.A and after disqualification of Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan, vacancy arose, on which PW-11 contested the election on the symbol of Apna Dal (S), one of the alliance parties in NDA and elected as M.L.A. Much emphasis has been given by contending that after giving false statement by PW-11 against Mohammad Azam Khan, he has been rewarded.

22. The allegation of the prosecution in FIR that the second birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 was issued by the Municipal Corporation, Lucknow on the basis of duplicate birth certificate No. 718 dated 21.4.2015 issued by Queen Mary's Hospital, Lucknow is not possible at all, as the same is of later date. The stand of the prosecution (State and the complainant) in this regard is wholly misconceived as no prudent person can ever reach on the conclusion that any certificate can be issued in the month of January, 2015 on the basis of document of April, 2015.

23. On putting specific query, that who has been cheated in this case by Mohammad Azam Khan and what is the evidence of deception, cheating, furnishing false information or forgery/ fabricating document and forgery in valuable security on the part of Mohammad Azam Khan, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State and complainant could not point out any material evidence against Mohammad Azam Khan in this regard except stating that since he was aware about the birth certificate dated 21.01.2015, therefore presumption shall be drawn against him.

24. It is well settled that conjectures and suspicions should not be allowed to take place of legal proof in view of Section 3 of the Evidence Act. At times, it can be a case of 'may be true', but there is a long mental distance between 'May be true' and 'Must be true' and the same divides conjectures from sure conclusions.

25. It is also well settled that whoever forges a document purporting to be a valuable security is an offence under Section 467 IPC and using of that forged document as genuine is offence under Section 471 IPC. There is no evidence on record to establish that any of the revisionists have forged the birth certificate dated 21.1.2015. Similarly forgery for the purpose of cheating is offence under Section 468 IPC but basic ingredient of all the three offences is that there should be forgery, which is punishable under Section 465 IPC. In the instant case revisionists have not been convicted for the offence under section 465 IPC. It is a case of the prosecution that birth certificate dated 21.1.2015 is a forged and false document, but the person, who made, signed, sealed and executed, has not been prosecuted, neither his statement under section 161 Cr.P.C was recorded nor he was produced before the trial court. So far as Section 468 IPC is concerned, there must be a forgery for the purpose of cheating as defined under Section 415 IPC. The Hon'ble Apex Court in catena of decisions considering and discussing the ingredients of offence of cheating has settled the law that in order to constitute an offence of cheating there must be a person deceived or in another word a person must deceived another and by doing so the former must induce the person so deceived, but in the instant case, there is no victim. The complainant Akash Saxena is not a person deceived by the revisionists, therefore, in view of Section 39 Cr.P.C, he had no locus to lodge FIR as the offence under Section 120-B, 420, 467, 471 IPC, for which the revisionists have been tried and convicted, are not covered under Section 39 of Cr.P.C. The ingredients/evidence of cheating and dishonestly inducing delivery of any property is also lacking in this case, hence Section 420 IPC is also not made out. In the light of judgement of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Mohd. Ibrahim vs. State of Bihar (Supra), I find force in the submission of Mr. Sibal, learned Senior Counsel for the revisionists.

26. Here it would be apposite to mention that the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of M.N.G Bharateesh Reddy Vs. Ramesh Ranganathan and another, 2022

SCC OnLine SC 1061 has considered and discussed the ingredients of Section 415 and 420 IPC. The relevant paragraph Nos. 13 to 16 are extracted herein below:

"13. The ingredients of the offence of cheating are spelt out in Section 415 of the IPC. Section 415 is extracted below:

"415. Cheating — Whoever, by deceiving any person, fraudulently or dishonestly induces the person so deceived to deliver any property to any person, or to consent that any person shall retain any property, or intentionally induces the person so deceived to do or omit to do anything which he would not do or omit if he were not so deceived, and which act or omission causes or is likely to cause damage or harm to that person in body, mind, reputation or property, is said to "cheat".

Explanation — A dishonest concealment of facts is a deception within the meaning of this section."

14. The ingredients of the offence under Section 415 emerge from a textual reading. Firstly, to constitute cheating, a person must deceive another. Secondly, by doing so the former must induce the person so deceived to (i) deliver any property to any person; or (ii) to consent that any person shall retain any property; or (iii) intentionally induce the person so deceived to do or omit to do anything which he would not do or omit if he were not so deceived and such an act or omission must cause or be likely to cause damage or harm to that person in body, mind, reputation or property.

15. Section 420 deals with cheating and dishonestly inducing delivery of property. It reads as follows:

"420. Cheating and dishonestly inducing delivery of property – Whoever cheats and thereby dishonestly induces the person deceived to deliver any property to any person, or to make, alter or destroy the whole or any part of a valuable security, or anything which is signed or sealed, and which is capable of being capable of converting into a valuable security, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine."

16. In Hridaya Ranjan Prasad Verma v. State of Bihar, (2000) 4 SCC 168, a two-judge bench of this Court interpreted Sections 415 and 420 of IPC to hold that fraudulent or dishonest intention is a precondition to constitute the offence of cheating. The relevant extract from the judgment reads thus:

"14. On a reading of the section it is manifest that in the definition there are set forth two separate classes of acts which the person deceived may be induced to do. In the first place he may be induced fraudulently or dishonestly to deliver any property to any person. The second class of acts set forth in the section is the doing or omitting to do anything which the person deceived would not do or omit to do if he were not so deceived. In the first class of cases the inducing must be fraudulent or dishonest. In the second class of acts, the inducing must be intentional but not fraudulent or dishonest."

27. In similar issue relating to alleged forgery in two certificates for getting admission in college had been considered by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Shriniwas Pandit Dharmadhikari Vs. State of Maharashtra and other connected appeals, 1980 SCC (Cri) 45, in which the Hon'ble Apex Court after discussing the ingredients of Sections 467 and 471 IPC, set aside the sentence passed against the appellants by a very precise order, which is quoted herein below:

"The appellant was convicted of offence under Sections 417, 420 read with Section 511 and Section 471 read with Section 467 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to various terms of imprisonment and fine for those offences. Having heard counsel for both sides we do not find any reason to disturb the order of conviction in respect of offences under Sections 417 and 420 read with Section 511 but as regards the offence under Section 471 read with Section 467, I.P.C. we do not think that the two certificates the appellant has been found to have forged to get admission in the Arts and Commerce College affiliated to Poona University could be described as 'valuable security' as the expression is defined in Section 30 of the Indian Penal Code. We, therefore, alter the conviction under the aforesaid sections to one under Section 471 read with Section 465 of the Indian Penal Code. However, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case we set aside the sentences passed against the appellant and remit the matter to the trial court to consider, as provided in Section 6 of the Probation of Offenders Act, 1958, whether the appellant should be given the benefit of Section 4 of the said Act. If the trial court does not find it expedient to release the appellant on probation of good conduct under Section 4 of that Act, it should then pass proper sentences on the appellant for the offences of which the appellant has been found guilty. The fine imposed on the appellant, if paid, shall be refunded. The appeal is disposed of as above."

28. Apart from merit of the case, I also find that:- i- That alleged offence against the revisionists are not a heinous offence.

ii-Revisionists were on bail during trial and they did not misuse the liberty.

iii- Revisionist-Dr. Tanzeen Fatima is aged about 72 years and revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan is aged about 74 years and are suffering from several old aged diseases.

iv-There is no possibility of absconding of the revisionists.

v-Till date, out of maximum sentence of seven years, they have already served following sentence with remission:

a-Dr. Tanzeen Fatima has served more than 01 year and 04 months, b- Mohammad Azam Khan has served more than 02 years and 05 months, c- Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan has served more than 01 year and 04 months.

Conclusion

29. In view of the above, considering the facts and circumstances of the case in totality, nature of allegations, role attributed to the revisionists, material evidence on the record, submissions advanced on behalf of the parties concerned and reasons as noted above, this Court is of the view that the application under Section 389(1) Cr.P.C. of the revisionists for suspension of their sentence dated 18.10.2023 (affirmed by the order dated 23.12.2023 of the appellate court) during pendency of above mentioned Criminal Revisions is liable to be allowed.

30. As a fallout and consequence of the above discussion, the impugned order dated 18.10.2023 of sentence, as noted above is hereby suspended during pendency of these Criminal Revisions.

31. Accordingly, the revisionists namely, Dr. Tanzeen Fatima, Mohammad Azam Khan and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan who have been convicted and sentenced by the impugned judgment and order dated 18.10.2023, be released on bail on their furnishing a personal bond and two reliable sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of Court concerned during pendency of these Criminal Revisions.

32. On acceptance of their bail bonds, the trial court shall transmit the photo copies thereof to this Court for being kept on record of these Criminal Revisions.

33. Considering the nature of allegations, role attributed to the revisionists and evidence on record against the revisionists, I find that the case of revisionist Mohammad Azam Khan is distinguishable from the case of Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan. Accordingly, the judgement and order of conviction qua Mohammad Azam Khan shall remain stayed/suspended during pendency of his criminal revision, but prayer for stay of judgement and order of conviction qua Dr. Tanzeen Fatima and Mohammad Abdullah Azam Khan is rejected.

34. Three separate applications all bearing Application No. 1 dated 23.02.2024 U/s 389(1) r/w 397/401 Cr.P.C., which have been moved for stay the impugned judgment and order dated 18.10.2023 of conviction as affirmed by appellate Court vide its judgment and order dated 23.12.2023 stands disposed of accordingly.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2212
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 13.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 3047 of 2017

Muralidhar Tiwari & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
The State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Ayodhya Prasad Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
Govt. Advocate

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 155(2), 161, 169, 173, 190(1) & 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 34, 193, 195, 324, 307, 504 & 506 - Arms Act, 1959 - Section – 27 - Constitution of India - Article 21 - Application u/s 482 - for quashing the impugned orders – an FIR was lodged against the opposite party no. 2 – police filed Final Report – rejected – court directed to summon the applicant to file reply – police registered an NCR against the applicants – impugned orders - Whether the learned magistrate may summon the accused person on a printed proforma without assigning any reason and without satisfying himself as to which offence were prima-facie being made out against the applicants and take cognizance on the police report is against the settled judicial norms – held, impugned judgments are cryptic and do not stand the test of the law laid down by the hon'ble Apex court – consequently, cannot be legally sustained – accordingly, present application is allowed – the matter is remitted back to court below to decide afresh the issue for taking cognizance and summoning the applicants and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law. (Para – 23, 34, 35, 36, 37)

Application u/s 482 Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dilawar Vs St. of Har., (2018) 16 SCC 521,

2. Menka Gandhi Vs U.O.I., AIR 1978 SC 597,

3. Hussainara Khatoon (I) Vs St. of Bihar, (1980)1 SCC 81,

4. Abdul Rehman Antulay Vs R.S. Nayak, (1992) 1 SCC 225,

5. P. Ramchandra Rao Vs St. of Karnatka, (2002) 4 SCC 578.

6. H.N. Rishbud Vs St. of Delhi, AIR 1955 SC 196.

7. Bhushan Kumar & anr. Vs St. (NCT of Delhi) & anr., AIR 2012 SC 1747,

8. Basaruddin & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2011 (1) JIC 335 (All)(LB),

9. Sunil Bharti Mittal Vs Central Bureau of Investigation, AIR 2015 SC 923,

10. Darshan Singh Ram Kishan Vs St. of Mah., (1971) 2 SCC 654,

11. Ankit Vs St. of U.P. & anr. passed in Application U/S 482 No.19647 of 2009 decided on 15.10.2009,

12. Kavi Ahmad Vs St. of U.P. & anr. passed in Criminal Revision No. 3209 of 2010,`

13. Abdul Rasheed & ors. Vs St. of U.P. & anr. 2010 (3) JIC 761 (All).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Heard Shri Ayodhya Prasad Mishra, learned counsel for the applicants as well as Shri Rajeev Kumar Verma, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. The instant application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicants with a prayer to set aside the order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 passed in Case No.568/2015 relating to N.C.R. No.236/2015 under Section 193/195 I.P.C. pending in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st, District-Gonda and also to quash the N.C.R. registered against the applicants as well as cognizance order passed by learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st, District-Gonda and during the pendency of the present application the orders dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 may kindly be kept in abeyance, in the interest of justice.

3. Learned Counsel for the applicants submits that the facts of the present case are that the applicants have lodged criminal cases at police station concerned and supported them through their statements in all cases along with independent witnesses under section 161 Cr.P.C. before investigating officer and they also adduced documentary material to establish their case before investigating officer including medical reports in respect of causing injuring to Baijnath Shukla and Shyam Narayan Tiwari caused by opposite party No.2 as well as some other persons but since the investigating officer connived with accused persons in all cases and reason is best known to him in spite of proper, fair and just investigation filed final report, that's why the initial version of the all criminal cases filed by applicants were found truthful supported with other material provided to the investigating officer, the learned magistrate rejected the final report submitted by investigating officer in all cases and desired to summon the applicants to submit their reply and thereafter without going through with the material in two cases the learned Magistrate passed an order for further investigation in the cases, therefore at this stage even for a moment if the allegation are accepted of false allegations in the F.I.R. as alleged by opposite party No.2 then the same cannot be said to be true fact for commission of any offence under section 193/195 I.P.C. because the allegation of the applicants made in their F.I.R.s have been given truthfulness by judicial order as passed by the learned Magistrate concern refusing to accept the final report submitted by investigating officer, therefore, no question for false allegations in any F.I.R. by any persons (applicants) is made out, therefore, the prosecution under section 193/195 I.P.C. was not to be admitted to be continued by police officials as well as also by judicial magistrate concerned in the present case hence being serious illegality for passing order under section 155 (2) Cr.P.C. by learned Magistrate concerned is nothing but tried to initiate illegal criminal prosecution by invoking jurisdiction under section 155(2) Cr.P.C. against the applicants otherwise there was no such stage to pass any order on such application by the Magistrate concerned except to reject even the N.C.R.

4. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that it is significant to mention here that an F.I.R. was registered on 09.08.2009 by Muralidhar Tiwari (applicant no. 1) vide F.I.R. no. 191/2009 under section 324/34 1.P.C. and section 27 of Arms Act against the opposite party No.2- Venktesh Datt Ram Pandey, at Police Station- Sadar Bazar, District- North Delhi in which after filing final report under section 169 Cr.P.C. the protest application filed by applicant No. 1 (Muralidhar Tiwari) in the court of learned Metro Politan Magistrate, Tees Hajari Court, District- North Delhi is pending.

5. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that on 30.01.2012 an F.I.R. was registered by Shyam Narain Tiwari (applicant no. 2) at Police Station Kotwali Dehat, District- Gonda vide crime no. 122/2012 under section 307/504/506 I.P.C. in which under the pressure of opposite party No.2, the police filed final report and after filing protest application the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate Ist, district- Gonda has passed an order for further investigation in the matter which is also pending.

6. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that on 15.07.2015 an F.I.R. has been lodged by applicant No.3 (Baijnath Shukla) against named accused persons in the F.I.R. which was registered vide crime no. 220/2015 under section 307 1.P.C. at Police Station- Kotwali Dehat, District- Gonda. The opposite party No.2 has no concern from this F.I.R. because he has not been named by applicant No.3, but being influential person he was supporting the named accused person in this F.I.R. and on his pressure the police filed final report under section 169 Cr.P.C. in which protest application was filed before learned A.C.J.M. Ist, district- Gonda by applicant No.3 in which the learned Magistrate has been pleased to pass an order for further investigation in the case and investigation is still going on.

7. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the order passed after filing of final report by learned Magistrate concerned relating crime nos. 220/2015 and 122/2012 for further investigation of the case and final report submitted by investigating officer is bad in the eyes of law.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that admittedly in all cases due process of law has been adopted without filing any false evidence before court of law in any case. The procedure provided for need full remedy under Cr.P.C. as well as through judicial pronouncement by Hon'ble Apex court of India as well as by this Court has been adopted by applicants in all cases. No question of filing false evidence arises at this stage.

9. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that there are no documents purporting to be forged or false filed by applicants in any judicial proceedings. The protest applications have been filed in support of the allegations made by persons concerned of all cases on which investigation started but investigating officer either in connivance of opposite party No.2 or without fair, proper and just investigation under pressure of accused persons filed final report before court concerned on which, the court concerned being not satisfied with final report submitted by investigating officer and after going through the allegations made in the F.I.R. as well as material collected by him during investigation refused to accept the final report and according to procedure established by law invited to the applicants to submit their reply against final report and on that the applicants filed protest applications in all cases before the court concerned. The learned Magistrate going through with material available on record passed an order for further investigation in two cases relating to crime no. 122/2012 and 220/2015 which are still going on in District Gonda. So far as case relating District- North Delhi is concerned the hearing is going on protest application filed by applicant No.1- Muralidhar Tiwari before court concerned.

10. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that on 02.10.2015 an application at Police staion Kotwali Dehat, district-Gonda was submitted by opposite party No.2 (Venktesh Datt Ram Pandey) stating therein that because of village Pradhan election enmity, the applicants-Muralidhar tiwari, Shaym Narayan tiwari and Baijnath Shukla resident of same village-Banghusara Khas, have registered several false cases by concocting false story at Police Station- Kotwali Dehat as well as other Police Station against opposite party No.2 as the family members of the opposite party No.2 as well as he himself is very aggrieved and also faced mental and physical torture. The accused persons are lodging F.I.R. against him and his other family members and also their supporters out of which all cases were found false as the investigating officer filed final report in all cases. He further submits that the opposite party No.2 also filed list of all allegedly false cases registered against him and others. It is further alleged that because of cases based on false and concocted facts, the final report was submitted suggesting that under conspiracy by way of false evidence they are torturing the opposite party No.2. It is further alleged that in all cases in which false evidence were prepared for awarding conviction to the opposite party No.2 also have been narrated in the list of the cases. In the aforesaid circumstances it was requested that the criminal case be registered against the applicants-Muralidhar, Baijnath and Shyam Narayan. The application was submitted on 02.10.2015 and case was registered as N.C.R. no. 0236/2015 under section 155 Cr.P.C. registering a case under section 193/195 L.P.C. by the police of police station- Kotwali Dehat. District-Gonda against the petitioners.

11. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that it is well settled preposition of law as well as according to the provision of Indian Penal code the provision of section 193 and 195 1.P.C. can be invoked only if false evidence has been filed by any person against any person intentionally in judicial proceeding as evidence then only prosecution under section 193 and 195 I.P.C. can be invoked against that person. Therefore according to the mandate and the statute of I.P.C. the allegation made in the application which was later registered as N.C.R. was not required to invoke jurisdiction of section 193/195 1.P.C. for prosecuting any person, thus, the same was not maintainable because there is no case in which any judicial proceeding was started and any false evidence was adduced by the persons concerned but the police of concerned police station under the pressure of opposite party No.2 being an influential person, the police has taken the application filed by opposite party No.2 and knowingly and intentionally and registered a N.C.R. against the applicants though this is no stage as per F.I.R. itself for registering a case under section 193 and 195 LP.C. registered a criminal case as N.C.R. under section 193/195 LP.C.

12. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that an application under section 155(2) Cr.P.C. was filed by opposite party No.2 on 03.10.2015 in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate Ist, District- Gonda and the case was registered before court as case no. 568/2015 and the learned Magistrate without considering legal question regarding the stage of maintainability of F.I.R. /N.C.R. passed an order on 20.11.2015 with the direction for investigation of the case to the investigating officer.

13. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that learned Magistrate also given an opinion in his order dated 20.11.2015 and admitted this fact that "the false evidence though has been alleged given at police station but not before any court". Meaning thereby that learned Magistrate was very well aware about the maintainability of the application for registration of the F.I.R. as per allegation that the same was not maintainable even then he accepted the request of the opposite party No.2 and passed an order for investigation of the case and due to this reason the police investigated the matter and filed charge sheet against the applicants under section 193/195 I.P.C. only.

14. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that after filing of charge sheet by investigating officer the learned court concern taken cognizance and summoned the applicants for facing trial proceeding and being aggrieved by filing of charge sheet and cognizance order under section 193/195 L.P.C. the applicants approached to this Ccourt and filed a petition under section 482 Cr.P.C. vide Criminal Miscellaneous Case no. 2496/2017 wherein they challenged the charge sheet as well as cognizance order and, the said petition was decided by passing final order on 20.04.2017.

15. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the question involved in the present application is for protection of fundamental rights enshrined under article 21 of the Constitution of India which provides that the personal liberty to person shall not be disturbed except procedure established by law. In the present case for launching criminal prosecution case under Section 193/195 I.P.C. the basic requirement is that there must be judicial proceeding pending before any court of law and intentionally false evidence has been filed in judicial proceedings by a person's but in the present case no such stage has arisen as admitted by the learned magistrate in his own order dated 20.11.2015 accepting that no false evidence has been given in any judicial proceeding by the applicants. Merely submission of any application does not amount that the investigation is mandatory in each and every case as per settled preposition of law.

16. Learned Counsel for the applicants further submits that the allegations made in the N.C.R. by opposite party No.2 are vague, frivolous, unwarranted even without the applicability of the stage of section 193/195 I.P.C. hence the same are liable to be set aside and all proceedings are also liable to be terminated based on N.C.R. no. 236/2015 as well as subsequently through the order dated 20.11.2015 passed by learned magistrate concern.

17. Learned counsel for the applicants further submits that by the order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017passed in Case No.568/2015 relating to N.C.R. No.236/2015 under Section 193/195 I.P.C. pending in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st, District-Gonda whereby cognizance has been taken by the learned Magistrate on printed proforma without assigning any reason is abuse of process of law and the same was without application of mind and was passed in a routine manner.

18. Learned counsel for the applicants further submits that after submission of charge sheet and cognizance order on printed proforma, the applicants have been summoned mechanically by order dated 03.01.2017 and the trial court while summoning the applicants has materially erred and did not follow the dictum of law as propounded by the Hon'ble Apex Court in various cases that summoning in criminal case is a serious matter and the trial court without dwelling into material and visualizing the case on the touch stone of probability should not summon accused persons to face criminal trial. He further submits that the trial court has not taken into consideration the material placed before the trial court along with charge sheet and, therefore, the trial court has materially erred in summoning the applicants. The trial court has summoned the applicants through a printed order, which is wholly illegal.

19. It is vehemently urged by learned counsel for the applicants that the impugned cognizance/summoning order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 are not sustainable in the eyes of law, as the same have been passed in mechanical manner without applying the judicial mind, because on the face of record itself it is apparent that impugned cognizance/summoning order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 has been passed by the Magistrate concerned on printed proforma by filling up the blanks, therefore the same are liable to be quashed by this Court.

20. Learned counsel for the applicants has given much emphasis that if the cognizance/summon has been taken on the printed proforma, the same is not sustainable.

21. Per contra, learned A.G.A. for the State submits that considering the material evidences and allegations against the applicants on record, as on date, as per prosecution case, the cognizable offence against the applicants is made out, therefore, application is liable to be dismissed but has not denied that the leaned Magistrate has taken cognizance on the printed proforma. Accordingly, this case is being finally decided at this stage without issuing notice to opposite party no.2 and without calling for a counter affidavit.

22. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

23. The main issue for consideration before this Court is that whether the learned Magistrate may summon the accused person on a printed proforma without assigning any reason and take cognizance on police report filed under Sections 173 of Cr.P.C. In this regard, it is relevant to mention here that a Court can take cognizance of an offence only when condition requisite for initiation of proceedings before it as set out in Chapter XIV of the Code are fulfilled. Otherwise, the Court does not obtain jurisdiction to try the offences under section 190 (1) of the Cr.P.C. provided that "subject to the provisions of this Chapter, any Magistrate of the first class, and any Magistrate of the second class specially empowered in this behalf under sub-section (2), may take cognizance of any offence-

(a) upon receiving a complaint of facts which constitute such offence,

(b) upon a police report of such facts;

(c) upon information received from any person other than a police officer, or upon his own knowledge, that such offence has been committed.

(2) The Chief Judicial Magistrate may empower any Magistrate of the second class to take cognizance under sub-section (1) of such offences as are within his competence to inquire into or try."

24. At this juncture, it is fruitful to have a look so far as the law pertaining to summoning of the accused persons, by taking cognizance on a police report filed under section 173 of the Cr.P.C., is concerned and the perusal of the case law mentioned herein below would clearly reveal that cognizance of an offence on complaint is taken for the purpose of issuing process to the accused. Since, it is a process of taking judicial notice of certain facts which constitute an offence, there has to be application of mind as to whether the material collected by the Investigating Officer results in sufficient grounds to proceed further and would constitute violation of law so as to call a person to appear before the criminal court to face trial. This discretion puts a responsibility on the magistrate concerned to act judiciously keeping in view the facts of the particular case as well as the law on the subject and the orders of Magistrate does not suffers from non-application of judicial mind while taking cognizance of the offence.

25. Fair and proper investigation is the primary duty of the Investigating Officer. No investigating agency can take unduly long time in completing investigation. There is implicit right under Article 21 for speedy trial which in turn encompasses speedy investigation, inquiry, appeal, revision and retrial. There is clear need for time line in completing investigation for having in-house oversight mechanism wherein accountability for adhering to lay down timeline, can be fixed at different levels in the hierarchy, vide Dilawar vs. State of Haryana, (2018) 16 SCC 521, Menka Gandhi vs. Union of India, AIR 1978 SC 597, Hussainara Khatoon (I) vs. State of Bihar, (1980)1 SCC 81, Abdul Rehman Antulay vs. R.S. Nayak, (1992) 1 SCC 225 and P. Ramchandra Rao vs. State of Karnatka, (2002) 4 SCC 578.

26. For the purposes of investigation, offences are divided into two categories "cognizable" and "non-cognizable". When information of a cognizable offence is received or such commission is suspected, the proper police officer has the authority to enter in the investigation of the same but where the information relates to a non-cognizable offence, he shall not investigate it without the order of the competent Magistrate. Investigation includes all the proceedings under the Cr.P.C. for the collection of evidence conducted by a police officer or by any person other than a Magistrate (who is authorised by a Magistrate in his behalf). Investigation consists of steps, namely (i) proceeding to spot, (ii) ascertainment of the facts and circumstances of the case, (iii) discovery and arrest of the suspected offender, (iv) collection of evidence relating to the commission of the offence and (v) formation of opinion as to whether on the material collected therein to place the accused before a Magistrate for trial and if so to take necessary steps for the same by filing a charge sheet under Section 173, Cr.P.C., vide H.N. Rishbud vs. State of Delhi, AIR 1955 SC 196. Thereafter, the learned Magistrate has to take cognizance after application of judicial mind and by reasoned order and not in mechanical manner.

27. In the case of Bhushan Kumar and Anr. v. State (NCT of Delhi) and Anr., AIR 2012 SC 1747, the Hon'ble Apex Court was pleased to observe that section 204 of the Code does not mandate the Magistrate to explicitly state the reasons for issuance of summons. It clearly states that if in the opinion of a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceedIn the case of Basaruddin & others Vs. State of U.P. and others, 2011 (1) JIC 335 (All)(LB), this Court was pleased to observed as under:-

"From a perusal of the impugned order, it appears that the learned Magistrate on the complaint filed by the complainant has summoned the accused in a mechanical way filling the date in the typed proforma. Learned Magistrate while taking cognizance of the offence on complaint was expected to go through the allegations made in the complaint and to satisfy himself as to which offences were prima facies, being made out against the accused on basis of allegations made in the complaint. It appears that the learned Magistrate did not bother to go through the allegations made in the complaint and ascertain as to what offences were, prima facie, being made out against the accused on the basis of allegations made in the complaint. Apparently, the impugned order passed by the learned Magistrate suffers from non-application of mind while taking cognizance of the offence. The impugned order is not well reasoned order, therefore, the same is liable to be quashed and the petition deserves to be allowed and the matter may be remanded back to the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lakhimpur Kheri with direction to him to go through the allegations made in the complaint and ascertain as to what offences against the accused were prima facie being made out against the accused on the basis of allegations made in the complaint and pass fresh order, thereafter, he will proceed according to law."

28. In the case of Bhushan Kumar and Anr. v. State (NCT of Delhi) and Anr., AIR 2012 SC 1747, the Hon'ble Apex Court was pleased to observe that section 204 of the Code does not mandate the Magistrate to explicitly state the reasons for issuance of summons. It clearly states that if in the opinion of a Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence, there is sufficient ground for proceeding, then the summons may be issued. This section mandates the Magistrate to form an opinion as to whether there exists a sufficient ground for summons to be issued but it is nowhere mentioned in the section that the explicit narration of the same is mandatory, meaning thereby that it is not a pre-requisite for deciding the validity of the summons issued.

29. In the case of Sunil Bharti Mittal v. Central Bureau of Investigation, AIR 2015 SC 923, the Hon,ble Apex Court was pleased to observe in paragraph no.47 of the judgment as under:

"47. However, the words "sufficient grounds for proceeding" appearing in the Section are of immense importance. It is these words which amply suggest that an opinion is to be formed only after due application of mind that there is sufficient basis for proceeding against the said accused and formation of such an opinion is to be stated in the order itself."

30. In the case of Darshan Singh Ram Kishan v. State of Maharashtra , (1971) 2 SCC 654, the Court was pleased to observe that the process of taking cognizance does not involve any formal action, but it occurs as soon as the Magistrate applies his mind to the allegations and, thereafter, takes judicial notice of the offence. As provided by Section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, a Magistrate may take cognizance of an offence either, (a) upon receiving a complaint, or (b) upon a police report, or (c) upon information received from a person other than a police officer or even upon his own information or suspicion that such an offence has been committed. As has often been held, taking cognizance does not involve any formal action or indeed action of any kind but occurs as soon as a Magistrate applies his mind to the suspected commission of an offence. Cognizance, therefore, takes place at a point when a Magistrate first takes judicial notice of an offence. This is the position whether the Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence on a complaint, or on a police report, or upon information of a person other than a police officer. Therefore, when a Magistrate takes cognizance of an offence upon a police report, prima facie he does so of the offence or offences disclosed in such report."

31. In the case of Ankit Vs. State of U.P. And another passed in Application U/S 482 No.19647 of 2009 decided on 15.10.2009, this Court was pleased to observe in paragraph No.8 of the judgment as under:-

"8. In the beginning, the name of the court, case number, state vs. ..... under section ..... P.S. ..... District ..... case crime No. ..... /2009 also have been printed and blanks have been filled up by mentioning the case number, name of the accused, section, P.S. District etc. by some employee. Below afore cited printed matter, the following sentence has been mentioned in handwriting "अभियुक्त अंकित की गिरफ़्तारी मा० उच्च न्यायालय द्वारा Crl. Writ No. 19559/08 अंकित बनाम राज्य में पारित आदेश दिनांक 5.11.08 द्वारा आरोप पत्र प्राप्त होने तक स्थगित थी ।"

Below aforesaid sentence, the seal of the court containing name of Sri Talevar Singh, the then Judicial Magistrate-III, has been affixed and the learned magistrate has put his short signature (initial) over his name. The manner in which the impugned order has been prepared shows that the learned magistrate did not at all apply his judicial mind at the time of passing this order and after the blanks were filled up by some employee of the court, he has put his initial on the seal of the court. This method of passing judicial order is wholly illegal. If for the shake of argument, it is assumed that the blanks on the printed proforma were filled up in the handwriting of learned magistrate, even then the impugned order would be illegal and invalid, because order of taking cognizance of any other judicial order cannot be passed by filling up blanks on the printed proforma. Although as held by this Court in the case of Megh Nath Guptas & Anr V State of U.P. And Anr, 2008 (62) ACC 826, in which reference has been made to the cases of Deputy Chief Controller Import and Export Vs Roshan Lal Agarwal, 2003 (4) ACC 686 (SC), UP Pollution Control Board Vs Mohan Meakins, 2000 (2) JIC 159 (SC): AIR 2000 SC 1456 and Kanti Bhadra Vs State of West Bengal, 2000 (1) JIC 751 (SC): 2000 (40) ACC 441 (SC), the Magistrate is not required to pass detailed reasoned order at the time of taking cognizance on the charge sheet, but it does not mean that order of taking cognizance can be passed by filling up the blanks on printed proforma. At the time of passing any judicial order including the order taking cognizance on the charge sheet, the Court is required to apply judicial mind and even the order of taking cognizance cannot be passed in mechanical manner. Therefore, the impugned order is liable to be quashed and the matter has to be sent back to the Court below for passing fresh order on the charge sheet after applying judicial mind."

32. In the case of Kavi Ahmad Vs. State of U.P. and another passed in Criminal Revision No. 3209 of 2010, wherein order taking cognizance of offence by the Magistrate under Section 190(1)(b) on printed proforma without applying his judicial mind towards the material collected by the Investigating Officer has been held illegal.

33. In the case of Abdul Rasheed and others Vs. State of U.P. and another 2010 (3) JIC 761 (All). The relevant observations and findings recorded in the said case are quoted below:-

"6. Whenever any police report or complaint is filed before the Magistrate, he has to apply his mind to the facts stated in the report or complaint before taking cognizance. If after applying his mind to the facts of the case, the Magistrate comes to the conclusion that there is sufficient material to proceed with the matter, he may take cognizance. In the present case, the summoning order has been passed by affixing a ready made seal of the summoning order on a plain paper and the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate had merely entered the next date fixed in the case in the blank portion of the ready made order. Apparently the learned Magistrate had not applied his mind to the facts of the case before passing the order dated 20.12.2018, therefore, the impugned order cannot be upheld.

7. Judicial orders cannot be allowed to be passed in a mechanical manner either by filling in blank on a printed proforma or by affixing a ready made seal etc. of the order on a plain paper. Such tendency must be deprecated and cannot be allowed to perpetuate. This reflects not only lack of application of mind to the facts of the case but is also against the settled judicial norms. Therefore, this practice must be stopped forthwith."

34. In view of the above, this Court finds and observes that the conduct of the judicial officers concerned in passing orders on printed proforma by filling up the blanks without application of judicial mind is objectionable and deserves to be deprecated. The summoning of an accused in a criminal case is a serious matter and the order must reflect that Magistrate had applied his mind to the facts as well as law applicable thereto, whereas the impugned summoning order was passed in mechanical manner without application of judicial mind and without satisfying himself as to which offence were prima-facie being made out against the applicants on the basis of the allegations made by the complainant. the impugned cognizance order passed by the learned Magistrate is against the settled judicial norms.

35. In light of the judgments referred to above, it is explicitly clear that the order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 passed in Case No.568/2015 relating to N.C.R. No.236/2015 under Section 193/195 I.P.C. pending in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st, District-Gonda are cryptic and do not stand the test of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court. Consequently, the cognizance/summoning order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 cannot be legally sustained, as the Magistrate concerned failed to exercise the jurisdiction vested in him resulting in miscarriage of justice.

36. Accordingly, the present Application U/S 482 Cr.P.C succeeds and is allowed. The impugned cognizance/summoning order dated 20.11.2015/03.01.2017 passed in Case No.568/2015 relating to N.C.R. No.236/2015 under Section 193/195 I.P.C. pending in the court of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate 1st, District-Gonda are hereby quashed.

37. The matter is remitted back to Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-Ist, District-Gonda directing him to decide afresh the issue for taking cognizance and summoning the applicants and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law keeping in view the observations made by this Court as well as the direction contained in the judgments referred to above within a period of two months from the date of production of a copy of this order.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2222
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 13.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHAMIM AHMED, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 12489 of 2023

Nirogi Venkata Sesha Pavan Kumar ...Applicant

Versus

State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Party

Counsel for the Applicant:
Nadeem Murtaza, Aditya Vikram Singh, Gaurav Mehrotra

Counsel for the Opp. Party:
G.A.

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections - 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B & 436 - Application u/s 482 - for quashing the entire criminal proceedings initiated u/s 406, 420, 506, 120-B & 436 IPC and for quashing the charge sheet and order of taking cognizance and summoning the applicants - FIR - investigation – police filed charge sheet – 1 against co-accused – which was challenged in another application u/s 482 – later, police on the basis of same material filed charge sheet -2 against the applicant, at a much belated stage – court finds that, a co-ordinate bench of this Court in another Application u/s 482 has already quashed the entire proceedings in respect of other co-accused – hence, in view of law laid down by the hon'ble Apex court, the entire proceedings against the present applicant are hereby quashed so far as it relates to the instant applicant - accordingly, present application is allowed. (Para – 6, 22)

Application u/s 482 Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. B.S. Joshi Vs St. of Har. & ors. 2003 (4) ACC 675.

2. Gian Ssingh Vs St. of Punj. 2012 (10) SCC 303.

3. Dimpey Gujral & ors. Vs Union Territory Through Administrator 2013 (11) SCC 697.

4. Narendra Singh & ors. Vs St. of Punj. & ors.2014 (6) SCC 466.

5. Yogendra Yadav & ors .Vs St. of Jharkhand 2014 (9) SCC 653,

6. Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur & ors. Vs St. of Gujarat & anr,; reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641,

7. R.P. Kapoor Vs St. of Punj., AIR 1960 S.C. 866,

8. St. of Har. Vs Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426,

9. St. of Bihar Vs P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192,

10. Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs Mohd. Saraful Haq & anr., (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283,

11. S.W. Palankattkar & ors. Vs St. of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shamim Ahmed, J.)

1. Shri Purnendu Chakravarty, Advocate has filed Vakalatnama alongwith short counter affidavit on behalf of opposite party No.2, which is taken on record.

2. Supplementary affidavit filed today in the Court by Shri Nadeem Murtaza, learned Counsel for the applicant is also taken on record.

3. Heard Shri Nadeem Murtaza, learned counsel for applicant, Shri Anuuj Tondon, Advocate holding brief of Shri Purnendu Chakravarty, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2, Shri Ashok Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 and perused the record.

4. The applicant, namely-Nirogi Venkata Sesha Pavan Kumar, son of Shri Nirogi Venkata Rama Krishna Rao and the opposite party No.2, namely-Hardik Kotak, son of Shri Indubhai Kantilal Kotak are present before this Court, who have been identified by their respective counsel.

5. This application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed with the prayer to quash the entire proceedings of the Case No.122651/2022; State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors, arising out of Case Crime No.492/2020, pending before the learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate (Custom), Lucknow, under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. with a further prayer has been made to quash the impugned summoning order dated 20.10.2023 passed by learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate (Custom), Lucknow whereby the applicant has been summoned under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. alongwith the impugned charge sheet bearing No.2 dated 31.03.2023 filed under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. in relation to Case Crime No.492/2020, Police Station-Banthara, District-Lucknow.

6. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the police after conducting the investigation prepared and submitted a charge sheet dated 10.12.2022 in the instant case and the other co-accused persons under Section 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. and subsequently the cognizance of the matter was taken by learned Magistrate in Criminal Case No.122651 of 2022 (State v. Petr Novotny and Ors.), whereas, the investigation was kept pending in respect of the present applicant. He further submits that susbequently the police on the basis of same material as was collected during the time of submission of charge sheet No.1 dated 10.12.2022, proceeded to file the impugned charge sheet bearing No.02 dated 31.03.2023 under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. against the present applicant at a much belated stage.

7. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that the co-accused persons being aggrieved by the summoning order dated 17.12.2022 passed by learned Magistrate preferred an Application U/S 482 Cr.P.C. No.782 of 2023 wherein, this Court vide order dated 28.01.2023 stayed the further proceedings of learned trial court. He further submits that subsequently, a Coordinate Bench of this Court was pleased to quash the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No.122651 of 2022 (State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors.) vide order dated 06.12.2023. Copy of the interim order dated 28.01.2023 and final order dated 06.12.2023 passed by this Court are annexed as Annexure No.SA-1 to the supplementary affidavit.

8. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that the instant dispute essentially exists between Scania India the ex-employer of the present applicant and the opposite party No.2 and the instant case at best involves a civil liability. He further submits that the opposite party No.2 in the present case runs a travel agency in the name of M/s Eagle Travels & M/s Falcon Bus Lines Private Limited.

9. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that during the pendency of this application an agreement dated 09.02.2024 has been entered into between the parties i.e. Scania Commercial Vehicles India Private Limited (First Party) and Falcon Bus Lines Private Limited (Second Party) whereby both the parties have arrived at an amicable settlement to extend their cooperation and end all the dispute existing between them. He further submits that in the aforesaid settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024 one of the terms and condition of the agreement provides that the opposite party No.2 shall facilitate and cooperate in quashing of the impugned proceedings of Criminal Case No.122651 of 2022 (State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors.) assailed by means of this application. The settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024 is annexed as Annexure No.SA-2 to the supplementary affidavit.

10. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that in the aforesaid settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024, it has been amicably agreed between the parties that the parties shall facilitate the quashing of the impugned proceedings. It has been further agreed that a Demand Draft of Rs. 45,00,000/- (Rupees Forty Five Lacs Only) drawn in favour of M/s Eagle Travel Agency will be handed over to the opposite party No.2 upon the final order being passed by this Court for quashing of the impugned proceedings herein.

11. Learned Counsel for the applicant further submits that as per the terms and conditions of the aforesaid settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024, the applicant has brought a Demand Draft of Rs.45,00,000/- (Rupees Forty Five Lacs Only) drawn in favour of M/s Eagle Travel Agency from Deutsche Bank, Bangalore, Raheja Towers, M.G. Road, Bangalore bearing No.783229 dated 08.05.2024 before this Court in original to be handed over to the opposite party No.2, thus, he submits that the proceedings of the present case may be quashed on the basis of settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024 as both the parties are ready to settle their dispute.

12. Learned Counsel for the opposite party No.2 and the opposite party No.2 himself submit that they have no objection if the proceedings of the present case are quashed after a Demand Draft of Rs.45,00,000/- (Rupees Forty Five Lacs Only) drawn in favour of M/s Eagle Travel Agency from Deutsche Bank, Bangalore, Raheja Towers, M.G. Road, Bangalore bearing No.783229 dated 08.05.2024 is handed over to the opposite party No.2 before this Court in original. They further submit that they are ready to comply with the terms and conditions of the settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024 entered into between the parties amicably.

13. Learned A.G.A-I for the State-opposite party No.1 also made an agreement with the submissions made by learned Counsel for the parties and the parties, who are present before this Court in person and submits that he has no objection if the impugned proceedings are quashed as the parties have amicably settled their dispute by means of settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024.

14. After considering the submissions made by learned Counsel for the parties and the parties, who are present before this Court in person and after going through the record, this Court is also satisfied with the submissions made by learned Counsel for the parties. The Demand Draft of Rs.45,00,000/- (Rupees Forty Five Lacs Only) drawn in favour of M/s Eagle Travel Agency from Deutsche Bank, Bangalore, Raheja Towers, M.G. Road, Bangalore bearing No.783229 dated 08.05.2024 is handed over to the opposite party No.2 in original by the applicant. The opposite party No.2 has received the same before this Court and signed the photostat copy of the same, which is taken on record.

15. Further, the amount of Rs.45,00,000/- (Rupees Forty Five Lacs Only) has been paid to the opposite party No.2 as per the settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024 now no dispute remains to be adjudicated between the parties. Further, a Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 06.12.2023 passed in Application U/S 482 Cr.P.C. No.782 of 2023 already quashed the proceedings of Criminal Case No.122651 of 2022 (State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors) in respect of the other co-accused persons.

16. Thus, after considering the same, this Court also finds that no useful purpose would be served in keeping the matter pending between the parties as the parties have amicably settled their dispute by means of settlement agreement dated 09.02.2024, which is on record.

17. Learned counsel for the parties have drawn the attention of this Court and placed reliance on the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in support of their case.

(i) B.S. Joshi Vs. State of Haryana & Others 2003 (4) ACC 675.

(ii) Gian Ssingh Vs. State of Punjab 2012 (10) SCC 303.

(iii) Dimpey Gujral And Others Vs. Union Territory Through Administrator 2013 (11) SCC 697.

(iv) Narendra Singh And Others Vs. State of Punjab And Others 2014 (6) SCC 466.

(v) Yogendra Yadav And Others Vs. State of Jharkhand 2014 (9) SCC 653.

18. Summarizing the ratio of all the above cases the latest judgment pronounced by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Karmur & Ors. Vs. State of Gujarat & Anr,; reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641 and in paragraph no.16, the Hon'ble Apex Court has summarized the broad principles with regard to exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. in the case of compromise/settlement between the parties which emerges from precedent of the subjects as follows:-

i. "Section 482 preserves the inherent powers of the High Court to prevent an abuse of the process of any court or to secure the ends of justice. The provision does not confer new powers. It only recognizes and preserves powers which inhere in the High Court.

ii.The invocation of the jurisdiction of the High Court to quash a First Information Report or a criminal proceeding on the ground that a settlement has been arrived at between the offender and the victim is not the same as the invocation of jurisdiction for the purpose of compounding an offence. While compounding an offence, the power of the court is governed by the provisions of Section 320 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973. The power to quash under Section 482 is attracted even if the offence is non-compoundable.

iii. In forming an opinion whether a criminal proceeding or complaint should be quashed in exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 482, the High Court must evaluate whether the ends of justice would justify the exercise of the inherent power;

iv. While the inherent power of the High Court has a wide ambit and plenitude it has to be exercised; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent an abuse of the process of any court;

v. The decision as to whether a complaint or First Information Report should be quashed on the ground that the offender and victim have settled the dispute, revolves ultimately on the facts and circumstances of each case and no exhaustive elaboration of principles can be formulated;

vi. In the exercise of the power under Section 482 and while dealing with a plea that the dispute has been settled, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the offence. Heinous and serious offences involving mental depravity or offences such as murder, rape and dacoity cannot appropriately be quashed though the victim or the family of the victim have settled the dispute. Such offences are truly speaking not private in nature but have a serious impact upon society. The decision to continue with the trial in such cases is founded on the overriding element of public interest in punishing persons for serious offences;

vii. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing in so far as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned;

viii. Criminal cases involving offences which arises from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute;

ix. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice; and

x. There is yet an exception to the principle set out in propositions (viii) and (ix) above. Economic offences involving the financial and economic well-being of the state have implications which lie beyond the domain of a mere dispute between private disputants. The High Court would be justified in declining to quash where the offender is involved in an activity akin to a financial or economic fraud or misdemeanour. The consequences of the act complained of upon the financial or economic system will weigh in the balance."

19. The Apex Court has also laid down the guidelines where the criminal proceedings could be interfered and quashed in exercise of its power by the High Court in the following cases:-(i) R.P. Kapoor Vs. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 S.C. 866, (ii) State of Haryana Vs. Bhajanlal, 1992 SCC (Crl.)426, (iii) State of Bihar Vs. P.P. Sharma, 1992 SCC (Crl.)192 and (iv) Zandu Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Vs. Mohd. Saraful Haq and another, (Para-10) 2005 SCC (Cri.) 283.

20. From the aforesaid decisions the Apex Court has settled the legal position for quashing of the proceedings at the initial stage. The test to be applied by the court is to whether uncontroverted allegation as made prima facie establishes the offence and the chances of ultimate conviction is bleak and no useful purpose is likely to be served by allowing criminal proceedings to be continued. In S.W. Palankattkar & others Vs. State of Bihar, 2002 (44) ACC 168, it has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court that quashing of the criminal proceedings is an exception than a rule. The inherent powers of the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C itself envisages three circumstances under which the inherent jurisdiction may be exercised:-(i) to give effect an order under the Code, (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court ; (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The power of High Court is very wide but should be exercised very cautiously to do real and substantial justice for which the court alone exists.

21. With the assistance of the aforesaid guidelines, keeping in view the nature and gravity and the severity of the offence which are more particularly is private dispute and differences it is deem proper and meet to the ends of justice. The proceeding of the aforementioned case be quashed.

22. The present 482 Cr.P.C. application stands allowed. Keeping in view the law laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the above referred judgment and in view of the statement/compromise made by the applicant as well as opposite party no.2 and the observation made above and also taking note of the fact that a Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 06.12.2023 passed in Application U/S 482 Cr.P.C. No.782 of 2023 already quashed the proceedings of Criminal Case No.122651 of 2022 (State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors) in respect of the other co-accused persons, the entire proceedings of the Case

No.122651/2022; State vs. Petr Novotny and Ors, arising out of Case Crime No.492/2020, pending before the learned Special Chief Judicial Magistrate (Custom), Lucknow, under Sections 406, 420, 506, 120-B and 436 I.P.C. are hereby quashed so far as it relates to the instant applicant.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2228
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 03.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ - C No. 3837 of 2024

Vijay Kumar Singh & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Addl. Commissioner (Admn), Ayodhya Division, Ayodhya & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Ravi Shanker Tewari, Sheo Pal Singh, Vishwakant Srivastava

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Brijesh Kumar Singh, Mohan Singh

Civil Law –order passed by the revisional court under Section 210 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006-under challenge-preliminary objection raised-alternative remedy to file a suit under Section 144 of the Code-consolidation proceedings-name of respondent no. 4 recorded-his mother predeceased her maternal grandmother-mutation proceedings under Section 34 of the Code allowed in favour of petitioner-appeal filed by respondents-U-turn by respondent no. 4-his mother expired after the demise of his maternal grandmother- appeal dismissed-revision against it allowed- respondent had claimed inheritance under Section 171 (2) (h) of the Act,1950-objection of forged death certificate not duly appreciated by the revisional court-nor did the finding returned by the appellate court has been challenged in revision- petition maintainable as per the exceptions carved out in Hadisul Nisha judgement-admission is the best piece of evidence-impugned order quashed- petition allowed. (Paras 31 to 35)

HELD:
The observation/ finding of the revisional Court that it might have been mistake of the counsel has no substance but it is only conjectural. The revisional court has erred, in case the original which are said by the revisional Court to be before it and when the same was objected by the petitioners who were respondents there and moved an application for summoning the original record and the Officer who had issued the same and particularly under the circumstances that since the year 2013, the respondent no. 4 filed affidavits before different authorities and the courts including before the High Court had never ever been placed the copy of the death certificate and made averment on oath that her mother predeceased her mother and the detailed finding in the appellate order treating that the photocopy of the death certificate is not an admissible piece of evidence then it is incumbent upon the revisional court before deciding the case in favour of respondent no. 4 must require the document to be proved by the party relying upon it. (Para 31)

The writ petition is maintainable as per condition no. (v) of the judgment in the case of Hadisul Nisha (supra). (Para 33)

The admission of respondent no. 4 not once but more than once before different authorities including before this Court in the writ petition filed by the respondent no. 4 that his mother predeceased her mother i.e. maternal grandmother of respondent no. 4 and that his case falls under category of (h) of Section 171 (2) of the Act, 1950 and it is best piece of evidence in the light of Section 31 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, though it is not a conclusive proof but they may operate as estoppel. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Divisional Manager, United India Insurance Co. Ltd. and Anr. vs. Samir Chandra Chaudhary [2005(5) SCC 63] has held that admission is the best piece of evidence against the persons making admission by following the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Avadh Kishore Das vs. Ram Gopal [AIR 1979 SC 861] in the backdrop of Section 31 of the Indian Evidence Act. (Para 35)

Petition allowed. (E-14)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hadisul Nisha Vs Additional Commissioner (Judicial), Faizabad [(2021) 6 ADJ 176]

2. Kalawati Vs Board of Revenue & ors. [(2022) 4 ADJ 578]

3. Divisional Manager, United India Insurance Co. Ltd. & anr. Vs Samir Chandra Chaudhary [2005(5) SCC 63]

4. Poonam Vs St. of U.P.: (2016) 2 SCC 779

5. Avadh Kishore Das Vs Ram Gopal [AIR 1979 SC 861]

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Short counter affidavit has been filed by learned counsel for the respondent no. 4, which is taken on record.

2. Heard Shri Ravi Shanker Tiwari, learned counsel for the petitioners, Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned Standing Counsel and Shri Brijesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the private respondents.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that he does not want to file any rejoinder affidavit to the short counter affidavit filed by counsel for the respondent no. 4.

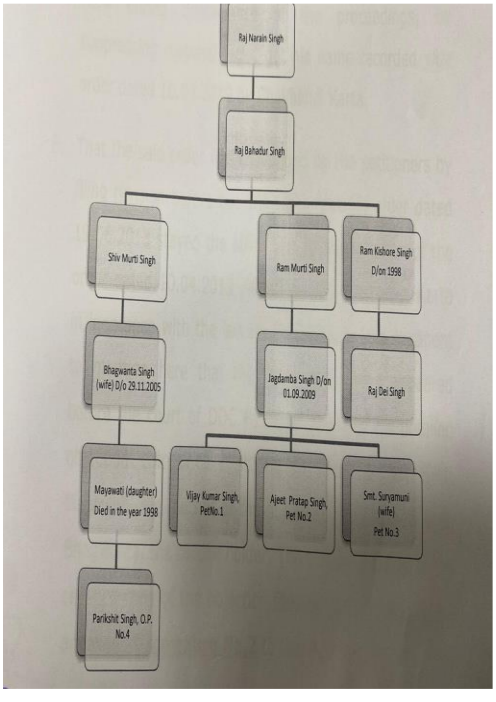
4. With the consent of the parties the matter is being finally decided at this stage itself.

5. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned revisional order/judgment dated 09.04.2024 passed by respondent no. 1/Additional Commissioner (Admn), Ayodhya Division, Ayodhya in revision no. 341/2024 (computerized no. C202404000000341 titled as Parikshit Kumar Singh vs. Vijay Kumar and Ors., under Section 210 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006.

6. Sri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned Standing Counsel and Sri Brijesh Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 have raised a preliminary objection regarding the maintainability of the present writ petition as the petitioners have an alternative remedy to file a suit under Section 144 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 (hereinafter referred to as the Code, 2006).

7. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the writ petition is maintainable before this Court and the alternative remedy to file a suit under Section 144 of the Code, 2006 is not attracted in the case of the petitioners as per exceptions (iv) & (v) carved out by this Court in the case of Hadisul Nisha v. Additional Commissioner (Judicial), Faizabad [(2021) 6 ADJ 176] which has been followed in the case of Kalawati v. Board of Revenue & ors. [(2022) 4 ADJ 578].

8. It is further submitted that late Raj Bahadur Singh was the original tenure holder of the agricultural land in villages Raipatti and Gehnaar in Tehsil- Milkipur, District Faizabad/Ayodhya. The pedigree which the petitioners are relying is admitted to the respondent no. 4 also. For convenience, the pedigree is given below:-



9. It is further submitted that as per the pedigree mentioned above, the petitioner nos. 1 and 2 are great Grandsons of late Raj Bahadur Singh being the son of Jagdamba, who was son of Ram Murti Singh and Ram Murti Singh was the second son of Raj Bahadur Singh whereas the petitioner no. 3 is the grand daughter-in-law of late Raj Bahadur Singh i.e. w/o late Jagdamba Singh, grandson of Late Raj Bahadur Singh. The respondent no. 4 was the maternal great grandson of Late Raj Bahadur Singh i.e. Son of Mayawati and Mayawati was daughter of Bhagwanta, who was wife of Shiv Murti Singh, who was eldest son of late Raj Bahadur Singh.

10. It is further submitted that after the village had come under consolidation, on the application of respondent no. 4, the land was entered in his name by the Consolidation Committee under Section 6A of the Act, 1953 on 10.04.2013 passed by Chakbandi Karta, which was challenged by the petitioners by filing revision before the Deputy Director of Consolidation in which, an interim order dated 19.06.2013 was passed which was challenged by the respondent no. 4 by filing Writ Petition No. 795 of 2013 (Consolidation). The said writ petition was disposed of with a direction to decide the revision expeditiously. The respondent no. 4 filed an objection on 02.09.2013 and stating that his mother predeceased his grandmother i.e. maternal grandmother of respondent no. 4. During the pendency, the petitioners had approached this Court by filing a Writ Petition No. 795 of 2013 and this Court by its judgment and order dated 18.05.2016 disposed of the writ petition with liberty to the petitioners to file their objections under Section 9-A(2) of the Act, 1953.

11. It is further submitted that before the petitioners could have filed their objections, the notification under Section 6 was published de-notifying the consolidation proceedings. After the de-notification under Section 6, the petitioners had moved an application for mutation under Section 34 of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 which was allowed in their favour by order dated 28.09.2020. Against which the appeal was preferred by the respondents and for the first time, in the said appeal, a U-turn was taken by the respondent no. 4 and took the stand that his mother expired after the demise of her mother i.e. maternal grandmother of respondent no. 4 and in support of his submission, the respondent no. 4 filed a photocopy of the death certificate for the first time in the year 2021. The appeal was dismissed by the judgment and order dated 09.01.2024 with a finding that the photocopy of the death certificate cannot be accepted as admissible piece of evidence.

12. It is further submitted that against the appellate order, the respondent no. 4 had preferred a revision which was allowed in favour of the respondent no. 4 by the impugned judgment and order dated 09.04.2024 against which the present writ petition has been preferred.

13. It is further submitted that the revisional court was adamant to pass an order in favour of respondent no. 4 and this fact could be seen from the objections filed by the petitioners before the revisional court mentioning all these facts as it has been pleaded in the present writ petition along with documents but none of the documents or the submission of the petitioners were considered by the revisional court.

14. It is further submitted that the petitioners had also moved an application for summoning of original death certificate and the parivar register which could prove the case but no orders were passed even on the said application.

15. It is further submitted that when the revisional authority was not hearing the petitioners, the petitioners had moved an application for transfer of the case on 05.04.2024 and the moment the application was filed, within four days the impugned order has been passed by the revisional court.

16. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 has submitted that the petitioners had filed a mutation application with an inordinate delay and that too, without making or arraying the respondent no. 4 as an opposite party.

17. It is further submitted that the birth and death certificate issued under Section 8 of the Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 (hereinafter referred to as the Act, 1969) and the documents issued under Section 8 of the Act, 1969 would be in existence untill and unless the same is cancelled under Section 15 of the Act, 1969, whereas the petitioners had not filed any application for cancellation of the said death certificate.

18. It is further submitted that the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner which he has pressed hard that he had moved an application for summoning the parivar register and the death certificate and the same was never decided is also an incorrect submission for the reason that in para 16 of the revisional order, it has been mentioned that the death certificate and parivar register in original were in the court and it was seen and on that the petitioners who were respondents there had not raised any strong objection. Para 16 of the revisional order is quoted hereinbelow:-

"16. मायावती की मृत्यु का प्रमाण पत्र और परिवार रजिस्टर मूल रूप से इस न्यायालय में उपलब्ध कराये गये है। इस पर विपक्षी कोई ठोस आपत्ति प्रस्तुत नहीं कर सकते ।"

19. It is further submitted that the finding regarding that the mother of the respondent no. 4 predeceased his mother was due to the fault of the counsels and the same has been followed in the subsequent proceedings but at the appellate stage it was rectified by the respondent no. 4 by filing the photo copy of the death certificate.

20. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that though the original death certificate was filed by respondent No.4 but the petitioners had raised the objection even the original documents are forged and fabricated and when the same was not considered then an application was moved on 27.03.2024 for summoning the original record and the officer who had issued the said certificate but the revisional court has not paid any heed to the same and had not passed any order on the application of the petitioners and without proving the death certificate, the same was taken into consideration by the revisional Court.

21. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case, the position which emerges out in the present case is that the agricultural land belonged to Late Raj Bahadur Singh. The petitioners belong to the family of Late Raj Bahadur Singh being great grandfather of the petitioners and respondent No.4 is the maternal great grandson of Late Raj Bahadur Singh. The agricultural land was entered in the name of late Raj Bahadur Singh in two villages namely Raipatti and Gahnaar, Tehsil Milkipur District Ayodhya. Dispute involved in the present writ petition is with regard to the agricultural land situated at Village Raipatti. The petitioners got their names mutated on the basis of succession/inheritance which was objected by the respondent No.4 by raising his claim at three stages with an admission on affidavit that her mother predeceased her mother i.e. maternal grandmother of the respondent no. 4 and he falls under category 171 (2) (h) of the Act, 1950 whereas, petitioners fall under category (e) of Section 171(2) of the Act, 1950. For convenience, the Section 171 of the Act, 1950 is quoted hereinbelow:-

171. General order of succession. - (1) Subject to the provisions of Section 169, when a bhumidhar or asami, being a male dies, his interest in his holding shall devolve upon his heirs being the relatives specified in sub-section (2) in accordance with the following principles, namely :-

(i) the heirs specified in any one clause of sub-section (2) shall take simultaneously in equal shares;

(ii) the "heirs specified in any preceding clause of sub-section (2) shall take to the exclusion of all heirs specified in succeeding clauses, that is to say, those in clause (a) shall be preferred to those in clause (b), those in clause (b) shall be preferred to those in clause (c), and so on, in succession;

(iii) if there are more widows than one, of the bhumidhar or asami, or of any predeceased male lineal descendant, who would have been an heir, if alive, all such widows together shall take one share.

(iv) the widow or widowed mother or the father's widowed mother or the widow of any predeceased male lineal descendant who would have been an heir, if alive, shall inherit only if she has not remarried.]

[(2) the following relatives of the male bhumidhar or asami are heirs subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), namely :-

(a) [widow, unmarried daughter] and the male lineal descendant per stirps:

Provided that the widow and the son of a predeceased son how low-so-ever per stirps shall inherit the share which would have devolved upon the predeceased son had he been alive;

(b) mother and father;

(c) [*];

(d) married daughter;

(e) brother and unmarried sister being respectively the son and the daughter of the same father as the deceased; and son of a predeceased brother, the predeceased brother having been the son of the same father as the deceased;

(f) son's daughter;

(g) father's mother and father's father;

(h) daughter's son;

(i) married sister;

(j) half sister, being the daughter of the same father as the deceased;

(k) sister's son;

(l) half sister's son, the sister having been the daughter of the same father as the deceased;

(m) brother's son's son;

(n) mother's mother's son;

(o) father's father's son's son.]

22. Firstly, the said admission was made by the respondent no. 4 in para no. 13 of the objections dated 02.09.2013,which is quoted hereinbelow:-

" Para 13- that the recorded tenant Smt. Bhagwanta had no any male issue except a daughter named Smt. Mayawati who was died during the life time of his mother and as a real son of Smt. Mayawati or as a son of daughter of the deceased Smt. Bhagwanta opposite party no. 2 named Parikshit Kumar son of Raghaw Bihari Singh is the only legal heir of the deceased."

23. The second time in his objection dated 08.01.2014 with regard to the agricultural land situated at Gahnaar , para nos. 4 to 6 of the said document filed alongwith the supplementary affidavit are quoted hereinbelow:-

"धारा-4 यह कि शपथी परीक्षित कुमार की नानी भगवन्ता के जीवनकाल में ही माता माया की मृत्यु हो चुकी थी जिससे प्रार्थी नानी के साथ रहकर उनकी सेवा परवरिश करता था

धारा-5 यह कि शपथी परीक्षित कुमार की माता माया की मृत्यु नानी भगवन्ता से पूर्व हो जाने के कारण प०क०11 मे विद्वान राजस्व निरीक्षक ने भगवन्ता की मृत्यु के बाद उत्तराधिकार/वरासत का निर्धारण कर भगवन्ता की आराजी को शपथी परीक्षित कुमार के नाम दाखिल खारिज कर दिया जो नियमानुसार विधि संगत है।

धारा-6 यह कि शपथी परीक्षित कुमार का नाम भगवन्ता मृतक के स्थान पर प०क० 11 पर दर्ज किया जाना उ०प्र० जमी० विनास और भूमि व्यवस्था अधिनिय1950 की धारा 171 ज के उपबन्धो के अन्तर्गत न्यायसंगत है।"

24. In which, it has also admitted that the respondent no. 4 falls under category (h) of Section 171 (2) of the Act, 1950. In Hindi language, it has been mentioned as (ज) in the affidavit.

25. Again, third time the respondent no. 4 before this Court at the time of filing of the Writ Petition No. 795 of 2013 (Consolidation) has averred in para no. 5 of the writ petition. The relevant para no. 5 is quoted hereinbelow:-

" That unfortunately the mother of the petitioner Smt. Mayawati died in the life time of his mother Smt. Bhagwanta and thus after the death of Smt. Bhagwanta the maternal grand mother of the petitioner, the name of petitioner was mutated in the Shattwarshik Khatauni of Fasli year 1407 to 1412 by the consolidation officer by exercising the power vested under Section 6-A of the C.H. Act on dated 14.04.2013. The copy of Sharwarshik Khatauni of the land in question is being filed as annnexue no. 2 to with writ petition. "

26. The respondent no. 4 filed an appeal against the mutation order dated 28.09.2020 passed in favour of the petitioner and changed the stand completely and took u-turn from his earlier admissions made on oath before the Court below even before this Court by stating that her grand mother Bhagwanta had predeceased her daughter i.e. mother of respondent no. 4. The appeal was dismissed by the judgment and order dated 09.01.2024, where only the photocopy of the death certificate was produced and a detailed finding was given by the appellate authority. The relevant extract of the same is quoted hereinbelow:-

"17 -पत्रावली पर प्रस्तुत साक्ष्यों से यह भी स्पष्ट हुआ कि प्रश्नगत भूमिधर के मृत्यु प्रमाण पत्र की मात्र छायाप्रति या जो सत्यापित भी नही है, ऐफेडेबिट से समार्थित नहीं है, अपीलार्थी द्वारा प्रस्तुत की गयी है, जिसे विद्वान अधिवक्ता उत्तरदाता पक्ष द्वारा जाल साजी युक्त करार दिया है, बताया कि प्रस्तुत प्रश्नगत मृत्यु प्रमाण पत्र की छायाप्रति जिसमें श्रीमती मायावती सिंह की मृत्यु दिनांक 07.02.2006 लिखी हैं तथा रजिस्ट्रेशन का दिनांक 22.02.2006 तथा जारी होने का दिनाँक भी 22.02.2006 दर्शाया गया है, वह फर्जी है, जो येन-केन जारी कराया गया है, इसकी प्रमाणित प्रति न्यायालय में प्रस्तुत नहीं की गयी है, वस्तुतः सूचना मृत्यु के मूल अभिलेख से लिये जाने का प्राविधान है, लेकिन उक्त मूल अभिलेख को अपीलार्थी द्वारा न्यायालय के समक्ष प्रस्तुत नही किया गया, अपीलार्थी द्वारा परिवार रजिस्ट्रर की नकल दिनांक 27.12.2021 प्रस्तुत की गयी है, अपीलार्थी ने मृत्यु प्रमाण पत्र निगर्मन दिनांक 22.02.2006 प्रस्तुत किया है अतः उक्त सूचना के दिनांक के कागजात जिनके आधार पर यह प्रमाण पत्र प्रस्तुत करना अपेक्षित था, ताकि यह सिद्ध हो पाता की श्रीमती मायावती कि मृत्यु श्रीमती भगवन्ता सिंह के जीवनकाल में हई थी अन्यथा की स्थिति में विद्वान अधिवक्ता उत्तरदाता के तर्क अति तथ्यापक है कि श्रीमती मायावती सिंह की मृत्यु दिनांक फर्जी तरीके से कूट रचना कर बाद की तिथि की दार्शायी जा रही है।"

27. Against the appellate order, the respondent no. 4 had preferred a revision and on being asked from the learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 whether the finding given by the appellate Court regarding death certificate as mentioned above was challenged in the revision or not, learned counsel for the respondent no. 4 in his reply has submitted that it was challenged by taking a specific ground and the pleadings and in support of his submissions he has drawn attention of this Court to para nos. 5, 7, 13, 14 and 23 of the revision, which are quoted hereinbelow:-

"Para-4:

Because the learned Tehsildar has acted with substantial illegality in allowing the mutation application moved by the opposite party Vijay kumar & others cryptically, even without hearing to me applicant / revisionist by way of violating his right of natural justice and thereafter, appeal moved by the applicant / revisionist has been dismissed by the learned Dy. Collector (J.) Milkipur, Ayodhya relied on the false & inadmissible facts aaduced by the opposite party regarding death of revisionist's mother late Smt. Mayawati with the sole object for providing undue & influential advantages to the opposite party no.1 to 3. Hence, both the orders impugned are liable to be set aside.

Para-5:

Because applicant / revisionist had adduced evidences regarding death of his mother as well as recorded tenure holder of the land in question and accordingly, real daughter of the recorded tenure holder Smt. Mayawati Singh proceed to death on 07.02.2006 after the death of her mother Smt. Bhagwanta dated 29.11.2005 but this fact has been fully overlooked by the learned Courts below in passing the orders impugned as such liable to be set aside.

Para-7:

Because whole approach of the learned Courts below in deciding the case was arbitrarily & cursorily, overlooking the entire material evidence on record adduced by the applicant / revisionist and orders impugned have been passed upon surmise grounds, keeping illegal grounds regarding death of real daughter of late Bhagwanta while there was no objection from the side of the opposite party before the Consolidation Court claiming outrightly their rights on the basis of alleged legal heirship.

Para-13:

That subsequently, against the order aforesaid dated 15.04.2023 passed by the learned Consolidator, there was filed a revision u/s-48 (1) of UPCH Act which was decided by the revisional Court on 17.12.2016 by way of confirming the order aforesaid passed by the leamed Consolidator.

Para-14:

That the opposite parties concerned are habitual litigants and accordingly, they approached before the Hon'ble High Court by way of preferring a Writ Petition No.10519/2017 under Article 226 of Cons. of India which disposed off.. by the Hon'ble High Court on 12.05.2017 by way of dismissing the writ petition. The operative portion of the order of Hon'ble High Court is being reproduced as below: "By means of order dated 17.12.2016, opposite party no.1 has dismissed the revision on the ground that if the petitioners have any grievance in the matter in question, he may agitate the same under Section 9 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act. So, I do find any good ground or reason to interfere in the matter because parties will get ample opportunity by way of oral & documentary evidence before Consolidation Officer, so at this stage no legal injury has been caused to the petitioner by means of order dated 17.12.2016 passed by the opposite party no. 1.

For the foregoing reasons, the writ petition lacks merit and is dismissed."

Para-23:

1. That in the interest of justice, it is necessary to allow the revision and the order impugned dated 19.01.2024 passed by the learned Dy. Collector (J.) Milkipur, Ayodhya as well as order of learned Tehsildar Milkipur dated 28.09.2020 to be set aside and appreciating the order of Consolidation Court as well as Hon'ble High Court, it would be just & expedient to be passed an appropriate order in favour of the applicant / revisionist by way of recording the land property in question in favour of the applicant / revisionist as legal heir of the recorded tenure holder late Smt. Bhagwanta w/o Shiv Murat Singh as well as her real daughter late Smt. Mayawati w/o Raghav Bihari Singh. Otherwise. the applicant / revisionist will put to irreparable loss which may not be compensated by any other means.

It is, therefore, prayed that the order & judgment may kindly be passed in the following manners:

(i) The revision moved by the applicant / revisionist, may kindly be allowed.

(ii) The order & judgment in question under revision dated 19.01.2024 passed by the learned Dy. Collector (J.) Milkipur. Ayodhya as well as order of learned Tehsildar Milkipur dated 28.09.2020 please be set aside. And

(iii) Appreciating the order of Consolidation Court as well as Hon'ble High Court be pleased to be passed an appropriate order in favour of the applicant / revisionist for recording the land property in question in favour of the applicant / revisionist as legal heir of the recorded tenure holder late Smt. Bhagwanta w/o Shiv Murat Singh as well as her real daughter late Smt. Mayawati w/o Raghav Bihari Singh. Or

(iv) Any other relief / relives which this Hon'ble deems fit, just & proper be pleased to be passed an. appropriate order in favor of the applicant / revisionist in the interest of justice."

28. From the perusal of the aforequoted paragraphs relied by the learned counsel for the respondent no. 4, it is clear that he has failed to indicate that the findings given by the appellate Court with regard to the death certificate was challenged before the revisional court.

29. The petitioners had filed objections in the revision taking all these pleas including the forged death certificate adduced by the respondent no. 4 and about the earlier proceedings where the respondent no. 4 had admitted that the mother of the respondent no. 4 predeceased her mother i.e. the maternal grand mother of the respondent no. 4 but the revisional Court was not ready to hear any of the objections. Under these compelling circumstances, the petitioners had approached this Court by filing a Writ Petition No. C No. 2230 of 2004 (Vijay Kumar Singh and 2 others Vs. Additional Commissioner (Administration) and others. The said writ petition was disposed of by this Court by its judgment and order dated 11.03.2024 with an expectation from the revisional Court that it will consider the objection of the petitioners. The relevant extract of the same is quoted hereinbelow:-

"Considering the facts and circumstances and also noticing that the issue is still alive before the revisional court and even though the petitioner has filed his objections, yet the same is yet to be considered on merits. Accordingly, at this stage, this Court is not inclined to interfere leaving it open for the petitioners to press their objections before the revisional court and since the matter is already listed on 15.3.2024, it is expected that the revisional court shall hear the parties on the aforesaid issue on 15.3.2024 and pass necessary orders and in case if the same is not possible, then within next two weeks."

30. The submission of learned counsel for the petitioners finds force, so an application was moved on 27.03.2024 for summoning the original record of the alleged original copies which are said by the revisional Court to be before it and also to summon the officer who had issued the said certificate but no orders were passed on the said application. Thereafter, the petitioners had no other option except to move an application for transfer of the case by moving an application on 05.04.2024 and within four days of moving the application, the impugned judgment has been given by the revisional court. The revisional court in complete derogation to the orders passed by this Court dated 11.03.2024 has decided the revision. The case/objections of the petitioners have not been discussed and decided the revision in favour of the respondent no. 4 and erred in giving the following findings:-

(i) Firstly, that the court below had failed to appreciate the death certificate produced by the respondent no. 4 without appreciating that original copy of death certificate was never adduced by the respondent no. 4 before the Court below. It is for the first time as per para no. 16 of impugned revisional order, as mentioned in preceding para, there is a reference of original death certificate. It is also revealed from the record that the revision was filed on 03.02.2024 by the respondent no. 2. The objections were filed by the petitioners, who were respondents in the revision in the month of February, 2024 itself and after more than one and a half months from the date of filing of the revision by the respondent no. 2 and after filing of the objections by the petitioners, an application was filed by the respondent no. 2 on 27.03.2024 bringing on record certain documents including death certificate of Late Mayawati i.e. the mother of the respondent no. 2 dated 22.02.2006 in which the date of death has been shown as 07.02.2006 but no death certificate of late Bhagwanta was filed by the respondent no. 2 and without filing the same, it could not be determined that who predeceased whom.

(ii) Secondly, as far as the finding that when the Will was in favour of the father of the petitioner was executed by Late Bhagwanta why he had not claimed the agricultural land on the basis of the same is concerned, it is not at all relevant for the purposes of determining the claim of respondent no. 4. The petitioners did not claim their right on the basis of the Will executed by Late Bhagwanta in favour of Jagdamba Singh, the father of the petitioners. They have raised their claim on the basis of inheritance/succession.

(iii) And thirdly, if some typographical mistake is committed by the counsel by cutting and pasting the paras in the earlier affidavits, the revisionist could not be said to be a party to the same as the earlier admission of the respondent no. 4 could not be said to be an admission by the respondent no. 4 as it is the fault of the lawyer or typing mistake, who had drafted the documents by cut and paste even that finding is not tenable, for the reasons the documents as relied above and mentioned in the preceding paragraphs, affidavits were not only in one language, they were in different language somewhere it was in English and somewhere it was in Hindi and even somewhere the contents are additional or changed. The said finding is also not tenable as in the application/affidavit, in para nos. 4 & 5 as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, it is admitted by the respondent no. 4 that his mother predeceased her mother i.e. the maternal grandmother of respondent no. 4 could not be said that it is on the fault of the Lawyer or typing mistake when the same is read with para 6 where the respondent no. 4 himself admitted that he falls under the category 171 (2)(h) of the Act, 1950.

31. The observation/ finding of the revisional Court that it might have been mistake of the counsel has no substance but it is only conjectural. The revisional court has erred, in case the original which are said by the revisional Court to be before it and when the same was objected by the petitioners who were respondents there and moved an application for summoning the original record and the Officer who had issued the same and particularly under the circumstances that since the year 2013, the respondent no. 4 filed affidavits before different authorities and the courts including before the High Court had never ever been placed the copy of the death certificate and made averment on oath that her mother predeceased her mother and the detailed finding in the appellate order treating that the photocopy of the death certificate is not an admissible piece of evidence then it is incumbent upon the revisional court before deciding the case in favour of respondent no. 4 must require the document to be proved by the party relying upon it.

32. The case of the petitioners falls under the exception no. (iv) & (v) of the judgment in the case of Hadisul Nisha (supra). The relevant extract is quoted hereinbelow:-

"The Courts in the aforecited decisions have laid down a few parameters for entertaining writs arising out of mutation proceedings. The exceptions that have been carved out being very few, for example:

(i) If the order is without jurisdiction;

(ii) If the rights and title of the parties have already been decided by the competent Court, and that has been varied by the mutation Courts;

(iii) If the mutation has been directed not on the basis of possession or simply on the basis of some title deed, but after entering into a debate of entitlement to succeed the property, touching into the merits of the rival claims;

(iv) If rights have been created which are against statutory provisions of any Statute, and the entry itself confers a title on the petitioner by virtue of the provisions of the U.P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act;

(v) Where the orders impugned in the writ petition have been passed on the basis of fraud or misrepresentation of facts, or by fabricating the documents by anyone of the litigants.

(vi) Where the Courts have not considered the matter on merits for example the Courts have passed orders on restoration applications etc (Vijay Shankar v. Additional Commissioner, MANU/UP/0255/2015 : 2015 (3) ADJ 186 (LB)"

33. The writ petition is maintainable as per condition no. (v) of the judgment in the case of Hadisul Nisha (supra).

34. The submission of counsel for respondent no. 4 that petitioners had claimed their rights after an inordinate delay could also not be material for the adjudication in the present case but the said submission is not tenable in the circumstances of the present case as the petitioners prior to moving an application of mutation in the year 2019 had continuously fighting for their rights since the year 2012/13 when the consolidation proceedings had started and the name of respondent no. 4 was entered by the Consolidation Committee under Section 6 of the Act, 1953.

35. The admission of respondent no. 4 not once but more than once before different authorities including before this Court in the writ petition filed by the respondent no. 4 that his mother predeceased her mother i.e. maternal grandmother of respondent no. 4 and that his case falls under category of (h) of Section 171 (2) of the Act, 1950 and it is best piece of evidence in the light of Section 31 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, though it is not a conclusive proof but they may operate as estoppel. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Divisional Manager, United India Insurance Co. Ltd. and Anr. vs. Samir Chandra Chaudhary [2005(5) SCC 63] has held that admission is the best piece of evidence against the persons making admission by following the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Avadh Kishore Das vs. Ram Gopal [AIR 1979 SC 861] in the backdrop of Section 31 of the Indian Evidence Act.

36. In view of the facts, circumstances and the discussion made hereinabove, the present writ petition is allowed.

37. The revisional order dated 09.04.2024 passed by respondent no. 1/Additional Commissioner (Admn), Ayodhya Division, Ayodhya in revision no. 341/2024 (computerized no. C202404000000341 is hereby quashed and the case is remanded to the Revisional Court to consider the matter afresh in the light of the observations made in the judgment.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2239
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 01.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ - C No. 1000528 of 2010

Steel Authority Of India Ltd. Sultanpur
...Petitioner
Versus
District Judge Lucknow & Anr.
...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Shraddha Agarwal, Anshuman Singh, Radhika Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Amita Srivastava, Anil Srivastava, Ashwani Kumar Singh, Asit K. Chaturvedi, Brijesh Kumar Shukla, Manik Sinha, Pratul Kr. Srivastava, Pratyush Chaube

Civil Law – execution of arbitration award-order substituting petitioner in place of original judgement debtor-under challenge-petitioner was not a party to the arbitration proceedings-impleading application decided by treating it to be an application for substitution-application filed under Order I Rule 10(2) of CPC-Order XXI of CPC- self-contained code for execution proceedings-no provision that empowers the court to order impleadment of any new party in execution proceedings- substitution proceedings under Order XXII Rule 10 of CPC-not of any avail-transfer made long after passing of the arbitration award-on application for attachment of properties of judgement debtor filed under Order XXI CPC-no bar in property being sold by Debt Recovery Tribunal-petitioner is an auction purchaser-not liable to satisfy the arbitration award passed against the judgement debtor-it can neither be impleaded nor be substituted in execution proceedings- impugned order unsustainable in law- petition allowed. (Paras 21, 25, 26 & 27)

HELD:
The application for impleadment filed by the opposite party no.2 did not make a mention of the provision under which it was filed. Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 has submitted that the application had been filed under the provisions contained in under Order I Rule 10 (2) of the CPC. Order 1 of the CPC deals with "Parties to Suits". The application for impleadment was filed in execution proceedings and not in a suit. The execution proceedings have also not been filed for execution of any decree passed in a suit, rather it was for execution of an arbitration award. The procedure governing the executions proceedings is contained in Order XXI of CPC which in itself is a self-contained code. There is no provision in Order XXI of the CPC which empowers the court to order impleadment of any new party in execution proceedings, which party was not there in the arbitration proceedings in which the arbitration award was passed. (Para 21)

The provision for substitution of parties in the proceedings of suit are contained in Order XXII C.P.C. Rule 10 whereof provides for substitution of the transferee in case of assignment, creation or devolution of any interest during pendency of the suit but in the present case, the transfer was not made during pendency of the arbitration proceedings and it was made long after passing of the arbitration award. (Para 25)

The opposite party no. 2 filed the application for execution of the arbitration award on 25.07.2006, but it did not file any application for attachment of the properties of the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. under the provisions of Order XXI C.P.C. Therefore, there was no bar against the properties of Malvika Steels Ltd. being sold by the Debt Recovery Tribunal by holding an auction. The petitioner has purchased the properties in an auction held by the Debt Recovery Tribunal without any encumbrance on 'AS IS WHERE IS' basis. Therefore, the petitioner got absolute rights in the property of Malvika Steels Ltd. purchased in an auction held by the Debt Recovery Tribunal. (Para 26)

In these circumstances the petitioner cannot be held liable to satisfy the arbitration award that was passed against the Malvika Steels Ltd. and it can neither be impleaded nor be substituted in the execution proceedings. (Para 27)

Petition allowed. (E-14)

List of Cases cited:

Southern Power Distribution Co. of Telangana Ltd. Vs Gopal Agarwal: (2018) 12 SCC 644

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Prashant Chandra, the learned Senior Advocate, assisted by Ms. Radhika Singh Advocate, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Ashwani Kumar Singh Advocate, the learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 and perused the record.

2. By means of the instant writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner-Steel Authority of India Ltd. has challenged the validity of an order dated 20.08.2008 passed by the District Judge, Lucknow in Execution Case No.22 of 2006, General Manager, Northern Railway versus M/s Malvika Steels and others, whereby while allowing the application (C-31) filed by the opposite party no. 2 – decree holder for impleadment of the petitioner - Steel Authority of India Ltd. as a judgment debtor, the District Judge has ordered that the petitioner-Steel Authority of India Ltd. be substituted in place of the original judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels.

3. The petitioner has also challenged the validity of an order dated 02.01.2010 passed by the District Judge, Lucknow in the aforesaid execution case whereby the application (C-36) filed by the petitioner for recall of the aforesaid ex-parte order dated 20.08.2009 has been rejected.

4. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that the opposite party no.2-General Manager, Northern Railway had filed Execution Case No.22 of 2006 against M/s Malvika Steels and others. On 07.05.2009, the opposite party no.2 filed an application for impleadment of the petitioner-Steel Authority of India as judgment debtor no.11 stating that it had come to know through daily newspaper as well as through internet that judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels had sold away its property to the petitioner without satisfaction of the decree/arbitration award and therefore, the petitioner should be arrayed as judgment debtor in Execution Case as judgment debtor no.11.

5. By means of an order dated 11.03.2024 passed in this case, the parties were granted time to file a supplementary affidavit bringing on record a copy of the order-sheet of the Execution Case No.22 of 2006. Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 has supplied a certified copy of the order-sheet, although the same has not been filed along with the supplementary affidavit. The learned counsel for the petitioner does not object the certified copy of the order-sheet of Execution Case No.22 of 2006 being taken on record without any supplementary affidavit, as it being a certified copy, there is no doubt regarding its genuineness.

6. A perusal of the certified copy of the order-sheet of the execution case reveals that the opposite party no. 2 had filed the application dated 07.05.2009 for impleadment of the petitioner on 16.05.2009. The Court had passed an order for sending a copy of the application to the petitioner through both ways, and had fixed 07.08.2009 for disposal of the application. On 07.08.2009, counsel for the petitioner-Steel Authority of India filed an application (C-33) for obtaining copies of the documents. The Vakalatnama (C-34) executed in favour of the learned counsel for the petitioner was also filed. The District Judge passed an order that Steel Authority of India Ltd. was not a party to the execution case and necessary steps be taken for making it a party and the matter was ordered to be put up on 20.08.2009 for further orders.

7. On 20.08.2009, the District Judge passed the impugned order allowing the application (C-31). It is recorded in the order dated 20.08.2009 that the decree holder had filed an application (C-31) for impleadment of the petitioner-Steel Authority of India as judgment debtor in place of Malvika Steels and this application was supported by an affidavit. The order states that the opposite party no. 2 had filed extracts from internet showing that M/s Malvika Steels had been purchased by the petitioner - Steel Authority of India Ltd. and this fact had not been denied by the petitioner who had appeared through counsel on previous date. Considering the aforesaid facts, the District Judge allowed the impleadment application (C-31) by referring to it as 'the substitution application' and ordered the decree holder to make necessary amendments forthwith and give copies of the entire record to the learned counsel for the petitioner within ten days. The matter was posted for 21.10.2009 and the petitioner was given opportunity to file its objections within twenty days from the receipt of the copies of the record.

8. On 22.09.2009, the petitioner filed an application under Order XXI Rule 106 read with section 151 of C.P.C. for setting aside the order dated 20.08.2009. The Court passed an order directing the petitioner to take requisite steps for filing the application in proper format within a week. The petitioner filed the application for recall of the order dated 20.08.2009 (C-36) on the proper format on 29.09.2009, i.e. within the time of one week granted by means of the earlier order dated 22.09.2009. As this application had been filed beyond the period of thirty days mentioned in Rule 106 (3) and the petitioner filed an application (C-39) under Section 5 of the Limitation Act for condonation of delay in filing the application for recall of the order, which was supported by an affidavit (C-40). On 19.11.2011 three days time were granted for filing objections against the petitioner's application. The objections C-41 was filed on 26.11.2009. The petitioner filed its reply to the objections (C-43) against the objection on 01.12.2009 and the application for recall of the ex-parte order was rejected by means of the order dated 02.01.2010, which has also been assailed in this writ petition.

9. The learned Counsel for the petitioner Shri Prashant Chandra Senior Advocate submitted that the execution case in which the petitioner has been substituted as the judgment debtor, has been filed for execution of an arbitration award passed in arbitration proceedings to which the petitioner was not a party. The arbitration proceedings had been instituted by the opposite party no.2 - General Manager, Northern Railways, Baroda House, New Delhi against the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels and its directors etc., and the arbitration award dated 26.12.2012 was passed against M/s Malvika Steels. Therefore, the petitioner, who was not a party to the arbitration proceedings or the arbitration award, could not have been impleaded in the execution proceedings. In any case, while allowing the application for impleadment, the District Judge could not have ordered substitution of the petitioner in place of the judgment debtors and deleting the names of the judgment debtors from the array of the parties.

10. The learned Counsel for the petitioner further submitted that the application for impleadment was filed on the basis of newspaper reports and information taken from the internet, without disclosing the website from which the information was allegedly taken. A mere newspaper report or information taken from an undisclosed website on the internet cannot form the basis of an order for impleadment/substitution of any party to an execution case.

11. The learned counsel for the petitioner also submitted that the averments made in the application for impleadment that M/s Malvika Steels has been purchased by the petitioner Steel Authority of India Ltd., is an incomplete and misleading statement as the petitioner-Steel Authority of India Ltd. has purchased some assets of M/s Malvika Steels in an auction held by the Debts Recovery Tribunal, New Delhi in furtherance of R.C. No.121/2005 issued for enforcement of an order passed in O.A. No.145 of 2002, and it is wrong to say that the petitioner has purchased M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. company itself.

12. The learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that the order dated 20.08.2009 was passed in absence of the petitioner or its counsel and therefore, it was an ex-parte order and the District Judge has committed an error while rejecting the application for setting aside the order dated 20.08.2009 holding that the order is not ex-parte. The District Judge further held that even if the order was ex-parte, application for recall of the order ought to have been filed on the same day or the following day and the application filed beyond the prescribed limitation period of 30 days belies the contention that the order dated 20.08.2009 is ex-parte.

13. The learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Southern Power Distribution Co. of Telangana Ltd. v. Gopal Agarwal: (2018) 12 SCC 644 in which the Hon'ble Supreme Court had held that an auction-purchaser in an auction-sale conducted by the Official Liquidator on "as-is-where-is" and "whatever-there-is" basis was not liable for payment of arrears of the previous owner of the property.

14. Opposing the writ petition, Shri Ashwani Kumar Singh, learned counsel for the opposite party no.2-General Manager, Norther Railway, has submitted that the order dated 20.08.2009 was not an ex-parte order, as the petitioner has already put in appearance before the District Judge on 07.08.2009 by filing Vakalatnama in favour of its counsel. He has further submitted that even if the order was ex-parte, since the petitioner had knowledge of the proceedings, he ought to have filed an application for recall of the order promptly and the application filed beyond the prescribed period of limitation of 30 days, has rightly been rejected by the trial court.

15. I have heard the submissions of the learned counsel for the parties and gone through the record.

16. The facts, which emerge from the pleadings and submissions of the parties are that the opposite party no.2 - General Manager, Northern Railways had instituted an arbitration claim against M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. The Arbitrator passed an arbitration award dated 26.12.2005 in favour of the opposite party no. 2. The opposite party no.2 filed Execution Case No.22 of 2006 for enforcement of the aforesaid arbitration award in the Court of District Judge, Lucknow and the opposite party nos.1 to 10 arrayed in that execution application were the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. and its Director/Officers.

17. The opposite party no.2 filed an application for impleadment of the petitioner as judgment debtor no.11, stating that it came to know through daily newspaper as well as through internet that the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. had sold the property in dispute without satisfaction of decree/arbitration award to the petitioner-Steel Authority of India Ltd. and therefore, Steel Authority of India Ltd. has become a necessary party. It was prayed that Steel Authority of India Ltd., who has purchased the assets, share and other movable and immovable properties of M/s Malvika Steels Ltd., may be arrayed as judgment debtor no.11.

18. The application (C-31) prepared on 07.05.2009 and it was filed on 16.05.2009, on which date, the District Judge passed an order that a copy of the application to be sent to the petitioner through both ways and fixed 07.08.2009 for its disposal. The petitioner had put in appearance before the District Judge through its counsel on 07.08.2009 and without the application for impleadment having been considered by the District Judge stated in the order dated 07.08.2009 that necessary steps be taken for impleading the Steel Authority of India Ltd.

19. The District Judge has allowed the impleadment application by means of the impugned order dated 20.08.2009 treating the same to be an application for substitution. Although the application merely stated that the petitioner had purchased some properties of the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels Ltd., the District Judge stated in the order that the company M/s Malvika Steels itself had been purchased by the petitioner-Steel Authority of India Ltd.

20. In the impugned order dated 20.08.2009, the District Judge has recorded that "J.D. (Sic. D.H) has also filed extracts from internet which shows that Malvika Steels has been purchased by the Steel Authority of India Ltd. This fact is not being denied by the Steel Authority of India Ltd., who had also appeared on last date." The District Judge has held that in view of the aforesaid fact, it was proper that substitution application (C-31) moved by D.H. be allowed. In the preceding paragraph of the same order, the application has been mentioned to be an application for impleadment of Steel Authority of India Ltd.

21. The application for impleadment filed by the opposite party no.2 did not make a mention of the provision under which it was filed. Learned counsel for the opposite party no.2 has submitted that the application had been filed under the provisions contained in under Order I Rule 10 (2) of the CPC. Order 1 of the CPC deals with "Parties to Suits". The application for impleadment was filed in execution proceedings and not in a suit. The execution proceedings has also not been filed for execution of any decree passed in a suit, rather it was for execution of an arbitration award. The procedure governing the executions proceedings is contained in Order XXI of CPC which in itself is a self contained code. There is no provision in Order XXI of the CPC which empowers the court to order impleadment of any new party in execution proceedings, which party was not there in the arbitration proceedings in which the arbitration award was passed.

22. The application was filed for impleadment of the petitioner as opposite party no.11, in addition to the originally arrayed opposite parties no.1 to 10. There was no prayer for substitution of the petitioner in place of originally impleaded judgment debtor but while allowing the application for impleadment, the District Judge has ordered substitution of the judgment debtor by the petitioner.

23. The petitioner has been substituted on the ground that it has purchased Malvika Steels Ltd., which is a juristic person and which person has not been purchased by the petitioner. Malvika Steels Ltd. still continues to exist as per the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner

24. The arbitration award in favour of the opposite party no.2 was passed way back on 26.12.2005. After closure of the arbitration proceedings and passing of the award, the Debt Recovery Tribunal – I, Delhi had held a public auction of some properties of M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. held on 22.12.2006 in furtherance of R.C. No. 121/2005 issued in O.A. No. 145/02, in which the petitioner has purchased those assets of Malvika Steels Ltd. on "AS IS WHERE IS" basis.

25. The provision for substitution of parties in the proceedings of suit are contained in Order XXII C.P.C. Rule 10 whereof provides for substitution of the transferee in case of assignment, creation or devolution of any interest during pendency of the suit but in the present case, the transfer was not made during pendency of the arbitration proceedings and it was made long after passing of the arbitration award.

26. The opposite party no. 2 filed the application for execution of the arbitration award on 25.07.2006, but it did not file any application for attachment of the properties of the judgment debtor M/s Malvika Steels Ltd. under the provisions of Order XXI C.P.C. Therefore, there was no bar against the properties of Malvika Steels Ltd. being sold by the Debt Recovery Tribunal by holding an auction. The petitioner has purchased the properties in an auction held by the Debt Recovery Tribunal without any encumbrance on 'AS IS WHERE IS' basis. Therefore, the petitioner got absolute rights in the property of Malvika Steels Ltd. purchased in an auction held by the Debt Recovery Tribunal.

27. In these circumstances the petitioner cannot be held liable to satisfy the arbitration award that was passed against the Malvika Steels Ltd. and it can neither be impleaded nor be substituted in the execution proceedings.

28. In view of the aforesaid discussion, the impugned order dated 20.08.2009 passed by the District Judge, Lucknow, in Execution Case No.22/2006 ordering substitution of the petitioner in place of judgment debtor Malvika Steels Ltd. is unsustainable in law.

29. As the order dated 20.08.2009 has been held to be unsustainable in law, there is no need to examine the legality of the subsequent order dated 02.01.2010, passed by the learned District Judge, Lucknow rejecting the application for recall of the order dated 20.08.2009.

30. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is allowed and the impugned order dated 20.08.2009 passed by the District Judge, Lucknow, in Execution Case No.22/2006 ordering substitution of the petitioner in place of judgment debtor Malvika Steels Ltd., is quashed.

31. The parties to bear their own costs of the litigation.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2245
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 06.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ - C No. 1001137 of 1993

Dharam Raj ...Petitioner
Versus
Distt. Registrar Gonda ...Respondent

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Mohd. Arif Khan, Mohammad Aslam Khan

Counsel for the Respondent:
S.P. Shukla, Dhirendra Kr. Dubey, Hemant Kumar Mishra, Kapil Muni Dubey, R.P. Shukla, S.C. Kashish, Udai Bhan Pandey

Civil Law –District Registrar's order directing Sub-Registrar to register and agreement-under challenge- Sections 35(3), 36 & 71(1) of the registration Act, 1908-Enquiry required to be conducted by the registering officer before registration of a document-Section 34 of the Registration Act-if conditions laid down satisfied-document will be registered as directed in Sections 58 to 61 of the Act-Section 58 of the Act-particulars to be endorsed on documents admitted to registration-Section 59 of the Act-Registrar shall authorise date and signature to all the endorsements made by him-Section 60 of the Act-provision for issuance of certificate of registration-no statutory provision in the Act-requires the Sub-Registrar/Registrar to ascertain the capacity of the executant to execute the document by satisfying himself that the executant holds a valid title in respect of the property in question- Rule 300 of Rules framed under the Act-Registrar to satisfy himself that the person presenting it has legal authority to do so i.e. to present the document-Appeal under Sections 72 and 73 of the Act-mere mentioning of wrong provision not fatal to proceedings-Rule 364 framed under the Registration Act, 1908-Registar has dealt with the issues properly-impugned order does not suffer from any illegality-petition dismissed. (Paras 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 19, 25 & 26)

HELD:
A bare perusal of Section 34 of Registration Act would indicate that Registrar is merely required to satisfy himself that the persons executing the document or their representatives, assignees or authorized agents have appeared before him within the time allowed for presentation. He has to enquire whether the executant is admitting execution of the document and whether the person appearing before him is the same person, who is executant of the document. If the executant of the document admits execution thereof and the Sub-registrar is satisfied about the identity of the executant, he will register the document as directed in Section 58 to 61 of the Act. (Para 13)

Section 58 of the Registration Act contains particulars to be endorsed on documents admitted to registration, which include the signatures of every person admitting the execution of document, signatures of persons examined in reference to the document and any admission of receipt of consideration. Section 59 mandates that the Registrar shall authorize the date and his signature to all the endorsements made by him. Section 60 contains provision for issuance of certificate of registration. There is no statutory provision contained in the Registration Act which requires the Sub-Registrar/Registrar to ascertain the capacity of the executant to execute the document by satisfying himself that the executant holds a valid title in respect of the property in question. (Para 15)

A bare perusal of the aforesaid Rule indicates that it requires the Registrar to satisfy himself that the person presenting it has legal authority to do so i.e. to present the document. The legal authority to present a document can by no stretch of imagination be read as legal authority to execute the document as the execution of a document and presentation of a document for its registration are two different and distinct things. Therefore, Rule 300 also does not require the Sub Registrar to satisfy himself regarding title of the executant of an agreement to sale by examining as to whether he holds title of the property in question. (Para 16)

The registrar has examined this aspect of the matter and held that the Sub-Registrar has erred in mentioning denial under Section 35 (3) (a) of the Act in the impugned order and the mention of wrong provision by the Sub-Registrar created a confusion in the mind of the concerned parties whether he should file an appeal under Section 72 of the Act or an application under Section 73 of the Act. The Registrar found that an appeal under Section 72 of the Act ought to have been filed, yet as the application had been filed under Section 73 of the Act, it would not be proper to leave the dispute undecided on this ground and he rejected the objection raised in this regard. (Para 25)

There appears to be no illegality in the approach of the Registrar in deciding the dispute on merits in spite of mention of a wrong provision when under both the provisions, the jurisdiction vested with the registrar and no prejudice has been caused to any party by the mere mention of a wrong provision under which the appeal / application was filed. (Para 26)

Petition dismissed. (E-14)

List of Cases cited:

1. Hussein Abdul Rehman & Co. Vs Lakmichand Khetsey: AIR 1925 Bombay 34

2. Savitri Devi & ors. Vs Surendra Mohan Mohana: 1987 Vol 5 LCD 137

3. Mt. Gulab Devi Vs Monji Ram: AIR 1919 Lahore 156

4. Hoosein Abdul Rehman Vs Lakelmichand Khetsey: AIR 1925 Bombay 34

5. Savitri Devi & ors. Vs Surendra Mohan Mohana: 1987 Vol 5 LCD 137

6. Mt. Gulab Devi Vs Monji Ram: AIR 1919 Lahore 156

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Mohammad Arif Khan Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Mohammad Aslam Khan Advocate, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri S. K. Khare, the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the State and Sri Kapil Muni Dubey, the learned counsel for the contesting private opposite parties.

2. By means of the instant writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the petitioner has sought issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari quashing the order dated 03.05.1993, passed by the District Registrar, whereby an order dated 15.03.1989, passed by the Sub-Registrar, Gonda has been set aside and the Sub-Registrar has been directed to register an agreement dated 15.11.1988 executed by the opposite party no.2-Radha Mohan, in favour of deceased opposite party no.3-Ladla agreeing to sell a piece of land bearing Gata No.107/1-78 and 2-00 acre out of Gata No.195/3-00 which was presented for registration on 15.11.1988.

3. Briefly stated, facts of the case are that the opposite party no.2 was the Bhumidhar of Plot No.195 area 2.16 acres, Plot No.107 area 1.78 acres, Plot No.195 area 3.00 acres and Plot No.47-Dha area 0.40 acres, situated in Village Amdohwa, Pargana, Tehsil and District Gonda. On 07.03.1989 he executed a sale deed in respect of Plot No.107 in favour of the petitioner no.1 and on 31.03.1989 he executed another sale deed in respect of 0.40 acre land out of Plot No.195 in favour of the petitioner no.2. On 13.11.1990 he executed yet another sale deed in respect of Plot No. 195 and 47-Dha in favour of the petitioner nos.3 to 5. Meanwhile, on 09.03.1989, the opposite party no.3 and 4 presented an agreement dated 15.11.1988 executed by the opposite party no.2 in their favour agreeing to sell Plot Nos.107 and 195, for being registered under Section 36 of the Registration Act. The Sub-Registrar issued notice to the opposite party no.2.

4. On 15.03.1989, the Sub-Registrar passed an order stating that as there was a strike going on, summon was sent through registered post, fixing 14.03.1989 as the date of appearance. However, the acknowledgment of service of summon had not been received back. The Sub-Registrar held that as the limitation for registration of the deed had expired and no time was left for issuing fresh summons, registration was refused under Section 35 (3) read with Section 71 (1) of Registration Act.

5. Aggrieved by the aforesaid order, the opposite party no.3 filed Case No.7/89, under Section 73 of Registration Act before the District Registrar, Gonda, which was allowed by means of the impugned order dated 03.05.1993. The Registrar has recorded in the aforesaid order that on 09.03.1989 the deceased opposite party no.2 - Ladla Prasad had produced before the Sub-Registrar, Gonda an agreement executed on 15.11.1988 by Radha Mohan (the opposite party no.2) to sell the land bearing Gata No.107/1.78 acres and 2 acres land out of Gata No.195/3-00 in favour of Ladla Prasad and Girwar Dayal (opposite parties no.3 and 4), for being registered under Section 36 of Registration Act. The executant of the agreement Radha Mohan had not presented himself for registration of the document before the Sub-Registrar Gonda. Upon production of document by the applicant, the Sub-Registrar, Gonda had issued notice to the executant Radha Mohan through registered post, which was not received back and the Sub-Registrar refused to register the agreement on 15.03.1989. It has been stated in the application under Section 73 of the Registration Act that they had entered into an agreement to purchase the land in dispute from Radha Mohan for a sale consideration of Rs.52,000/, out of which Rs.43,000/- had been paid by him and the remaining amount was agreed to be paid at the time of execution of the sale deed. The agreement had been prepared, the seller had put his thumb impression on it and the marginal witnesses had also put their respective signatures. The seller had got prepared his two photographs and had attached the same with the document, but thereafter he abstained from appearing for registration of the agreement. It was contended before the Registrar that the Sub-Registrar has erred in refusing registration of the documents by means of the order dated 15.03.1989 and it was prayed that the order dated 15.03.1989 be set aside and the Sub-Registrar, Gonda be directed to register the agreement for sale of the property.

6. The opposite party no.2 Radha Mohan filed his objections inter alia stating that all the narrations made in the agreement to sell the property, including the payment of advance money, were false. The signatures were obtained on the agreement deceitfully and, therefore, he did not appear for its registration and he had given complaints to the District Magistrate and to the Superintendent of Police through registered post. He has further stated that he had already executed a sale deed dated 07.03.1989 in favour of Dharam Raj (the petitioner no.1) in respect of the land bearing Gata No.107/1.78 acre. He further stated that he has executed another sale deed in respect of four bigha land forming a part of Gata No.195 in favour of Choutkau (the petitioner no.2). Another objection raised was that instead of filing an application under Section 73 of the Registration Act, an appeal under Section 72 of the aforesaid Act ought to have been filed. Dharam Raj and Choutkau also filed their objections. However, later on the deceased opposite party no.2-Radha Mohan and opposite party no.3-Ladla Prasad filed a compromise was on 01.11.1991, wherein Radha Mohan admitted to have executed the agreement to sell and he agreed for registration of the agreement.

7. The Registrar found that when the executant Radha Mohan did not appear for registration of the document, it cannot be said that the executant had denied execution of the sale deed and the Sub-Registrar has erred in mentioning denial under Section 35 (3) (a) of the Act in the impugned order; that the mention of wrong provision by the Sub-Registrar created a confusion in the mind of the concerned parties whether he should file an appeal under Section 72 of the Act or an application under Section 73 of the Act. The Registrar found that an appeal under Section 72 of the Act ought to have been filed, yet as the application had been filed under Section 73 of the Act, it would not be proper to leave the dispute undecided on this ground and he rejected the objection raised in this regard.

8. The Registrar found that although Radha Mohan had initially stated that the agreement to sell had been obtained deceitfully but later on he admitted that he had executed the agreement and in these circumstances, no question can be put against legality of execution of the agreement at this stage. While proceeding under Section 74 of the Registration Act, the District Registrar has to enquire whether the deeds were executed or not and whether the applicant has complied with the requirements of law, making out a case for registration of the documents. As the executant of the agreement Radha Mohan has admitted that he has executed the agreement and had requested for registration of the agreement, there was no option except for registering the deed. Accordingly, the Registrar allowed the application and set aside the order dated 15.07.1989 passed by the Sub-Registrar, Gonda and directed the Sub-Registrar to register the agreement in case the same was presented before him within time.

9. While assailing the validity of the aforesaid order, the learned Counsel for the petitioner, Sri Mohammad Arif Khan Senior Advocate submitted that when the seller had already executed three sale deeds in respect of the property in question, he had no authority to enter into an agreement to sell the same land and, therefore, the agreement executed by him could not have been registered. He has further submitted that as the Sub-Registrar/Registrar has no power to cancel the sale deeds, he could not have registered the agreement to sell in spite of existence of the sale deeds in respect of the same property in favour of the petitioner.

10. Sri Mohd. Arif Khan, the learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that Rule 300 of Rules under the Registration Act, 1908 (as applicable in the Uttar Pradesh) makes it obligatory for the Sub-Registrar to satisfy himself about the competence of the executor to execute the deed.

11. In support of his submissions, the learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of High Court of Bombay in the case of Hussein Abdul Rehman and company Vs. Lakmichand Khetsey: AIR 1925 Bombay 34, Savitri Devi and others Vs. Surendra Mohan Mohana: 1987 Vol 5 LCD 137, Mt. Gulab Devi Vs. Monji Ram: AIR 1919 Lahore 156.

12. The enquiry required to be conducted by the registering officer before registration of a document is provided under Section 34 of the Registration Act, which provides as follows:

"34. Enquiry before registration by registering officers:-(1) Subject to the provisions contained in this Part and in sections 41, 43, 45, 69, 75, 77, 88 and 89, no document shall be registered under this Act, unless the persons executing such document, or their representatives, assigns or agents authorised as aforesaid, appear before the registering officer within the time allowed for presentation under sections 23, 24, 25 and 26:

Provided that, if owing to urgent necessity or unavoidable accident all such persons do not so appear, the Registrar, in cases where the delay in appearing does not exceed four months, may direct that on payment of a fine not exceeding ten times the amount of the proper registration fee, in addition to the fine, if any, payable under section 25, the document may be registered.

(2) Appearances under sub-section (1) may be simultaneous or at different times.

(3) The registering officer shall thereupon—

(a) enquire whether or not such document was executed by the persons by whom it purports to have been executed;

(b) satisfy himself as to the identity of the persons appearing before him and alleging that they have executed the document; and

(c) in the case of any person appearing as a representative, assign or agent, satisfy himself of the right of such person so to appear.

(4) Any application for a direction under the proviso to sub-section (1) may be lodged with a SubRegistrar, who shall forthwith forward it to the Registrar to whom he is subordinate.

(5) Nothing in this section applies to copies of decrees or orders."

13. A bare perusal of Section 34 of Registration Act would indicate that Registrar is merely required to satisfy himself that the persons executing the document or their representatives, assignees or authorized agents have appeared before him within the time allowed for presentation. He has to enquire whether the executant is admitting execution of the document and whether the person appearing before him is the same person, who is executant of the document. If the executant of the document admits execution thereof and the Sub-registrar is satisfied about the identity of the executant, he will register the document as directed in Section 58 to 61 of the Act.

14. Section 58 of the Registration Act contains particulars to be endorsed on documents admitted to registration, which include the signatures of every person admitting the execution of document, signatures of persons examined in reference to the document and any admission of receipt of consideration. Section 59 mandates that the Registrar shall authorize the date and his signature to all the endorsements made by him. Section 60 contains provision for issuance of certificate of registration. There is no statutory provision contained in the Registration Act which requires the Sub-Registrar/Registrar to ascertain the capacity of the executant to execute the document by satisfying himself that the executant holds a valid title in respect of the property in question.

15. Rule 300 of Rules framed under the Registration Act, 1908, reliance on which has been placed by the learned Counsel for the petition, reads as follows: -

"300. Parties entitled to present documents for registration. If the document be not open to any of the objections set forth above, the registering officer, before finally accepting it for registration, should satisfy himself that the person presenting it has legal authority to do so. The persons who may present a document for registration are the flollowing :

(a) in the case of a will, the testator, and after his death any person claiming under it as executor otherwise ;

(b) in the case of an authority to adopt, the donor, and after his death, the donee or the adopted son ;

(c) in the case of a copy of a decree or order, any person claiming under the decree or order ; (d) in any other case, any person executing or claiming under the document ;

(e) the representative or assign of any of the foregoing ;

(f) the agent of any of the foregoing.

Note. Where the Indian Registration Act, 1908 or any rule made thereunder, requires or permits any act to be done with reference to a document by a person executing or claiming under the same and the document has been executed on behalf of Municipal or District Board or is a document under which a Municipal or District Board claims, the act may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the aforesaid enactment or in any rule thereunder, be done (1) in the case of Municipal Board, by the Chairman, the Executive Officer or a Secretary of the Board, or by other officer of the Board empowered by regulation in this behalf, and (2) in the case of District Board, by the Chairman, or by any other officer of the Board empowered by regulation in this behalf."

16. A bare perusal of the aforesaid Rule indicates that it requires the Registrar to satisfy himself that the person presenting it has legal authority to do so i.e. to present the document. The legal authority to present a document can by no stretch of imagination be read as legal authority to execute the document as the execution of a document and presentation of a document for its registration are two different and distinct things. Therefore, Rule 300 also does not require the Sub-Registrar to satisfy himself regarding title of the executant of an agreement to sale by examining as to whether he holds title of the property in question.

17. In support of his submissions, the learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of High Court of Bombay in the case of Hoosein Abdul Rehman v. Lakelmichand Khetsey: AIR 1925 Bombay 34, Savitri Devi and others Vs. Surendra Mohan Mohana: 1987 Vol 5 LCD 137, Mt. Gulab Devi Vs. Monji Ram: AIR 1919 Lahore 156.

18. In the case of Savitri Devi (Supra) this issue was neither involved nor was decided as to whether the Sub-Registrar is required to satisfy himself regarding title of the executant of a deed before registering the same and, therefore, this judgment is not relevant for decision of the present case.

19. The law down in the judgment in the case of Mt. Gulab Devi (Supra) was that a person who sets up a title to property by purchase, must prove that his vendor has a title in the property sold. In this case also the question involved was not as to whether the Sub-Registrar or the Registrar is obliged to verify the title of the presentor of an agreement to sell a property before registering it. Therefore, the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the Sub-Registrar was required to record a satisfaction regarding title of the executant to execute the sale deed and that he ought to have declined registration of the document in view of the fact that the petitioner had obtained sale deed in respect of the land in question in his favour is without any force of law and same is turned down.

20. The learned counsel for the petitioner has next submitted that the seller already having sold the property in question in his favour, the agreement to sale executed in favour of the opposite party no.3 is void. This question is not required to be decided in this writ petition, which has been filed challenging the validity of the order for registration of agreement to sell. The learned counsel for the contesting respondents has submitted that a suit regarding title of the parties is pending and these questions are left open for being decided by the Civil Court, in case the same are involved therein.

21. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has next submitted that the Registrar himself has held that the the registration of the agreement was refused on the ground that the executant had not appeared for registration of the document and in these circumstances an appeal ought to have been filed under Section 72 of the Registration Act and Application under Section 73 of the Act was not maintainable, more particularly when the Registrar has himself in the order that an appeal under Section 72 of the Act ought to have been filed.

22. Section 72 and 73 of the Registration Act, 1908 provide as follows: -

*"72. Appeal to Registrar from orders of Sub-Registrar refusing registration on ground other than denial of execution.—(1) Except where the refusal is made on the ground of denial of execution, an appeal shall lie against and order of a Sub-Registrar refusing to admit a document to registration (whether the registration of such document is compulsory or optional) to the Registrar to whom such Sub-Registrar is subordinate, if presented to such Registrar within thirty days from the date of the order; and the Registrar may reverse or alter such order.

(2) ...

73. Application to Registrar where Sub-Registrar refuses to register on ground of denial of execution*.—(1) When a Sub-Registrar has refused to register a document on the ground that any person by whom it purports to be executed, or his representative or assign, denies its execution, any person claiming under such document, or his representative, assign or agent authorized as aforesaid, may, within thirty days after the making of the order of refusal, apply to the Registrar to whom such Sub-Registrar is subordinate in order to establish his right to have the document registered."*

(2) Such application shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a copy of the reasons recorded under Section 71, and the statements in the application shall be verified by the applicant in manner required by law for the verification of plaints." (Emphasis added)

23. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance on Rule 364 of Rules under the Registration Act, 1908 (as applicable in the Uttar Pradesh), which reads as follows: -

"364. Appeals and applications to the District Registrar under Sections 72 and 73 of the Registration Act.

When application is made to a District Register to reverse the order of a Sub-Registrar refusing to admit a document of the District Registrar should examine it to See registration, 1 was made within time i.e. 50 days after the date of the order and secondly, whether it was of the nature of application under Section 72. or of an application under Section 73, if the application be brought within time, and be of the nature of an appeal under Section 72, the District Register shall pass such orders thereon as seem to him proper under the circumstances. If it be made within time, and be of the nature of an application under Section 73, i.e. an application to establish a right to have a document registered on account of denial of execution, the District Registrar must make the enquiries prescribed in Section-74, and pass an order accordingly. This is an obligation imposed upon him by law, which he is not at liberty to avoid by referring the applicant to a Civil Court."

24. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the District Registrar ought to have examined whether the application was of the nature of application under Section 72 or of an application under Section 73.

25. The registrar has examined this aspect of the matter and held that the Sub-Registrar has erred in mentioning denial under Section 35 (3) (a) of the Act in the impugned order and the mention of wrong provision by the Sub-Registrar created a confusion in the mind of the concerned parties whether he should file an appeal under Section 72 of the Act or an application under Section 73 of the Act. The Registrar found that an appeal under Section 72 of the Act ought to have been filed, yet as the application had been filed under Section 73 of the Act, it would not be proper to leave the dispute undecided on this ground and he rejected the objection raised in this regard.

26. There appears to be no illegality in the approach of the Registrar in deciding the dispute on merits in spite of mention of a wrong provision when under both the provisions, the jurisdiction vested with the registrar and no prejudice has been caused to any party by the mere mention of a wrong provision under which the appeal / application was filed.

27. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment in the case of Hoosein Abdul Rehman v. Lakelmichand Khetsey (Supra), in which the following questions were involved: -

"The second issue in this suit is whether the document should be ordered to be registered. It was rejected for insufficient description under section 21 of the Registration Act. The reasons for this rejection are given in the Sub-Registrar's orders of June 7, and August 13, 1923, Exhibit F, and they are summarised in the Registrar's order of September 25, 1923, Exhibit H. He there says:—

* * *

The main question is whether this view is correct, that is, whether the property is not sufficiently described in accordance with sections 21 and 22 of the Indian Registration Act so that registration of it was properly refused under section 21. Before I proceed to discuss that point, I may mention that Mr. Binning for the defendant also seeks to support the Sub-Registrars refusal to register under section 20 of the Act, on the ground that the blank in the document regarding the Port Trust number has not been initialled by the executant….."

28. None of the aforesaid questions are involved in the present case and, therefore, Hoosein Abdul Rehman v. Lakelmichand Khetsey (Supra), is no relevant for decision of the present case.

29. In view of the aforesaid discussions, I am of the opinion that the impugned order does not suffer from any illegality, warranting interference by this court in exercise of its writ jurisdiction. The writ petition lacks merit and the same is hereby dismissed.

30. The parties to bear their own costs of litigation.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2253
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH SHYAM SHAMSHERY, J.

Crl. Misc. Bail Application No. 3446 of 2023
Along With other connected cases

Man Singh ...Applicant
Versus
State of U.P. ...Opp. Party

Counsel for the Applicant:
Vishnu Murti Tripathi

Counsel for the Opp. Party:
G.A., Sunil Choudhary

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 – Sections 161, 164 & 439 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 307, 352, 326-A/34 & 420 - Applications for Bail – offence of Acid attack – due to reason that victim who was working as Bank manager rejected loan applications of accused persons – prompt FIR – during investigation name of applicant and other co-accused was came into light – some of co-accused has granted bail on the ground of their names were disclosed in confessional St.ment of co-accused – however, bail application of one of co-accused was rejected by co-ordinate bench of this Court while considering the injury report of victim, CCTV footage, call details as well as criminal history of twenty cases registered against him – grounds of bail is that, applicants are languishing in jail since long time, - motive & conspiracy was not supported by any cogent evidence, - no any eye witness and other co-accused has already been granted bail – court while considering the nature and manner of occurrence, takes note that (i) victim being a lady has suffered acid attack, (ii) she still recovering from scars of it, (iii) she has to pay cost for not being succumbed to pressure to undertake an illegal act to sanction such loan applicants which were not qualified for it, (iv) this court has transferred the trial to judgeship at Allahabad, (v) evidence collected during investigation about purchase of acid and actual involvement of some applicants and supporting role assigned to other applicants, (vi) certain relevant facts were not brought into notice of co-ordinate bench, which have granted bail to some co-accused – hence, bail applications are accordingly rejected - directions issued for conclude the trial expeditiously and if St.ment of victim has not been recorded, it may be recorded within a period of six months – further Victim is permitted to avail protection under witness protection Scheme, 2018. (Para – 8, 9, 18, 19)

Bail Application Rejected. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Shivani Tyagi Vs St. of U.P. & ors, 2024 INSC 343,

2. Parivartan Kendra vs U.O.I. & ors., (2016) 3 SCC 571,

3. Suresh Chandra Jana vs St. of West Bengal & ors., (2017) 16 SCC 466,

4. St. of Himachal Pradesh & anr. vs Vijay Kumar alias Pappu & anr., (2019) 5 SCC 373,

5. Deepak Yadav Vs St. of U.P. (2022) 8 SCC 559,

6. Manoj Kumar Khokar Vs St. of Raj. & anr.(2022) 3 SCC 501,

7. St. of Jharkhand Vs Dhananjay Gupta @ Dhananjay Prasad Gupta: Order Dt. 7.11.2023 in SLP (Crl) No.10810/2023,

8. Shiv Kumar Vs St. of U.P. & ors. - Order dt. 12.9.2023 in Criminal Appeal No.2782/2023,

9. Ramayan Singh Vs The St. of U.P & anr., 2024 SCC Online SC 563), (Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery, J.)

1. Heard Sri Vishnu Murti Tripathi, learned counsel for applicant-Man Singh, Sri Kripa Shankar Pandey, learned counsel for applicant-Santlal, Sri Pawan Shukla, learned counsel for applicant- Dharmendra, Sri Sunil Chaudhary, learned counsel for informant and Sri Roshan Kumar Singh, learned A.G.A. for State.

2. None appeared on behalf of applicant-Dilip Kumar.

3. Applicants are seeking bail arising out of Case Crime No.191 of 2022 under Sections 307, 352, 326A/34 and 420 of I.P.C. Police Station-Charwa, District-Kaushambi.

4. All the bail applications are arising out of same case crime number, therefore, decided by this common order.

5. Present case is arising out of an occurrence of an Acid attack.

6. Victim was working as a Bank Manager. On day of occurrence while she was travelling, two unknown persons came on a motorcycle and threw acid on her. A prompt F.I.R. was lodged by her father.

7. During investigation, name of applicant and other co-accused came into light that they all act as Brokers in the bank to facilitate sanctioning of loan etc and when the victim while exercising her duties as Bank Manager rejected some of loan applications, she was pressurized. However, when she did not succumb to their pressure it led her to suffer an acid attack.

8. It has been brought on record that some of co-accused have been granted bail mainly on ground that their names were disclosed in confessional statement of co-accused. However, bail application of one of co-accused namely Mohd. Azam was rejected by co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 20.2.2023, Neutral Citation No.2023:AHC:41353.

9. According to prosecution story, all accused persons hatched a conspiracy to commit crime of acid attack to deter the victim to succumb to pressure and to pass loan illegally. Victim has submitted various applications that not only she, but her family was pressurized to withdraw the case. However, it appears that cognizance has not been taken of it. Documents in this regard are being part of counter affidavit which is filed by son of informant.

10. Co-ordinate Bench while rejecting bail application of co-accused Mohd. Azam has also taken note of injury report of victim, CCTV Footage, call detail reports as well as criminal history of twenty cases registered against him.

11. Arguments have been raised by counsel for applicants that motive assigned was not supported by any cogent evidence. Theory of conspiracy also does not have support of any cogent evidence. There was no eye witness that applicants were involved in actual crime, other co-accused have already been granted bail and that victim has not suffered any grievious injury.

12. Learned counsel for the applicants further submits that applicants are languishing in jail since 17.8.2022 and 18.8.2022 respectively i.e. about one year and eight months and there is no likelihood of early disposal of trial and the applicants undertake that if enlarged on bail, they will never misuse their liberty and will co-operate in the trial.

13. Learned A.G.A. as well as learned counsel for informants have vehemently opposed the bail applications and referred documents placed on record by way of above referred counter affidavit, wherein there is discharge summary of the victim that she was given treatment at a hospital with history of chemical burn for surgical management in the Department of Plastic Surgery of Apollo Hospital.

14. Legislature has taken note that incidents of acid attack frequently occurred, therefore, in the year 2013, Section 326A of IP.C. was inserted by an Act 13 of 2013 and for reference same is mentioned hereinafter:

"S.326A : Voluntarily causing grievous hurt by use of acid, etc.

[Whoever causes permanent or partial damage or deformity to, or burns or maims or disfigures or disables, any part or parts of the body of a person or causes grievous hurt by throwing acid on or by administering acid to that person, or by using any other means with the intention of causing or with the knowledge that he is likely to cause such injury or hurt, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which shall not be less than ten years but which may extend to imprisonment for life, and with fine:

Provided that such fine shall be just and reasonable to meet the medical expenses of the treatment of the victim;

Provided further that any fine imposed under this section shall be paid to the victim.]"

15. As referred above, aforesaid section not only makes a crime where due to acid attack there is some damage to body of victim, but is also includes an act if undertaken with intention of causing or with the knowledge that accused is likely to cause such injury or hurt. Aforesaid section provides that in case of conviction, punishment of imprisonment of either description for a term which shall not be less than ten years but which may extend to imprisonment for life, and with fine could be awarded. It further provides that such fine shall be paid within reasonable time to meet the medical expenses for treatment of the victim. It further provides that any fine imposed under this section shall be paid to the victim.

16. In this regard, few paragraphs of a recent judgement passed by Supreme Court in the case of Shivani Tyagi Vs. State of U.P. & Ors, 2024 INSC 343, would be relevant wherein while considering challenge to suspension of sentence in a burn acid attack, the Supreme Court has observed (as per Hon'ble Rajesh Bindal, J), in its paras 9 to 11 that:

"9. This court had been taking the offence of acid attacks, which are on increase, seriously. It is even to the extent of regulating the sale of the acid with stringent action so that the same is not easily available to the people with perverse mind. Observations made by this court in paragraph 13 of Parivartan Kendra vs Union of India and Others, (2016) 3 SCC 571 being appropriate is extracted below:

"13. We have come across many instances of acid attacks across the country. These attacks have been rampant for the simple reason that there has been no proper implementation of the regulations or control for the supply and distribution of acid. There have been many cases where the victims of acid attack are made to sit at home owing to their difficulty to work. These instances unveil that the State has failed to check the distribution of acid falling into the wrong hands even after giving many directions by this Court in this regard. Henceforth, stringent action be taken against those erring persons supplying acid without proper authorisation and also the authorities concerned be made responsible for failure to keep a check on the distribution of the acid."

10. In Suresh Chandra Jana vs State of West Bengal and Others, (2017) 16 SCC 466*, while rejecting the acquittal of an accused as ordered by the High Court in an acid attack case, this Court observed that the acid attack has transformed itself to a gender-based violence, which causes immense psychological trauma resulting in hurdle in overall development of the victim. Paragraph 30 thereof is extracted below:*

"30. At the outset, certain aspects on the acid attack need to be observed. Usually vitriolage or acid attack has transformed itself as a gender based violence. Acid attacks not only cause damage to the physical appearance of its victims but also cause immense psychological trauma thereby becoming a hurdle in their overall development. Although we have acknowledged the seriousness of the acid attack when we amended our laws in 2013 [The Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2013 (13 of 2013).] , yet the number of acid attacks are on the rise. Moreover, this Court has been passing various orders to restrict the availability of corrosive substance in the market which is an effort to nip this social evil in the bud. [Parivartan Kendra v. Union of India, (2016) 3 SCC 571 : (2016) 2 SCC (Cri) 143] It must be recognised that having stringent laws and enforcement agencies may not be sufficient unless deep-rooted gender bias is removed from the society."

11. In another case reported as State of Himachal Pradesh and Another vs Vijay Kumar alias Pappu and Another, (2019) 5 SCC 373, regarding acid attack on a young girl of 19 years, in which this Court observed in paragraph 13 thereof, that the victim had suffered 16% burn injuries and that such a victim cannot be compensated by grant of any compensation. Paragraph 13 is thereof extracted below:

"13. Indeed, it cannot be ruled out that in the present case the victim had suffered an uncivilised and heartless crime committed by the respondents and there is no room for leniency which can be conceived. A crime of this nature does not deserve any kind of clemency. This Court cannot be oblivious of the situation that the victim must have suffered an emotional distress which cannot be compensated either by sentencing the accused or by grant of any compensation."

17. I have considered the above mentioned rival submissions in referred factual and legal background and in view of established principle of jurisprudence of bail i.e 'bail is rule and jail is exception' as well as relevant factors for consideration of a bail application such as (i) whether there is any prima facie or reasonable ground to believe that the accused had committed the offence; (ii) nature and gravity of the accusation; (iii) severity of the punishment in the event of conviction; (iv) danger of the accused absconding or fleeing, if released on bail; (v) character, behaviour, means, position and standing of the accused;(vi) likelihood of the offence being repeated; (vii) reasonable apprehension of the witnesses being influenced; (viii) danger of course, of justice being thwarted by grant of bail etc. and that an order to grant or not to grant bail must assigned reasons (see Deepak Yadav Vs. State of U.P. (2022) 8 SCC 559, Manoj Kumar Khokar Vs. State of Rajasthan and Anr (2022) 3 SCC 501, The State of Jharkhand Vs. Dhananjay Gupta @ Dhananjay Prasad Gupta: Order dated 7.11.2023 in SLP (Crl) No.10810/2023 and Shiv Kumar Vs The State of U.P. and Ors: Order dated 12.9.2023 in Criminal Appeal No.2782 of 2023; Ramayan Singh Vs. The State of U.P. and Anr, 2024 SCC Online SC 563), therefore, I am of considered opinion that present is not a fit case to grant bail to applicant.

18. In the aforesaid circumstances considering nature and manner of occurrence, where victim being a lady has suffered acid attack and is still recovering from scars of it as well as taking note of other factors of law in regard to bail which is mentioned above, that she has to pay cost for not being succumbed to pressure to undertake an illegal act to sanction such loan applications which were not qualified for it. The Court also takes note that this Court has transferred the trial to Judgeship at Allahabad. The Court also takes note of evidence collected during investigation about purchase of acid and actual involvement of some applicants and supporting role assigned to other applicants. There are CDR details as well as all applicants and other co-accused are part of large conspiracy. The Court also takes note that certain relevant facts were not brought into notice of co-ordinate Bench, which have granted bail to some co-accused.

19. Bail applications are accordingly rejected. However, learned Trial Court is directed to take all endeavour to conclude the trial expeditiously and in case statement of victim has not been recorded till date, it may be recorded within a period of six months from today. Victim is permitted to avail protection under Witness Protection Scheme, 2018.

20. Registrar (Compliance) to take steps.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2258
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J.
THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHSRA, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 2325 of 2010
And other connected cases

Shankar @ Daddi & Anr. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Rakesh Kumar Mishra, Anshul Tiwari, Sanyukta Singh A.C.

Counsel for the Respondent:
Govt. Advocate, A.K. Tripathi

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section 313 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 34, 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 379 & 411 - Criminal Law Amendment Act, - Section – 7 - Appeals – against conviction & sentence – offence of murder by forming unlawful assembly – Accused persons had allegedly assaulted upon complainant side resulting one died & anr. injuries – proof – in one set of Appeals (filed by Shankar Yadav alias Daddi, Santosh Singh, Kalloo alias Kalyan & Raghubir Yadav) – evaluation of evidence – court finds that, appellant witnesses including the injured St.d that accused persons who were carrying rifle, country made gun and axe, encircled deceased, opened fire with rifle and gave axe blows to deceased and when injured tried to save her husband and lie down on his body, accused again opened fire that hit her on her thigh - Presence of witnesses on spot was proved - Testimony of witnesses was corroborated by medical evidence - Delay in recording St.ment of injured was of no consequence since she had suffered firearm injury and only when she returned home, her St.ment was recorded - moreover, her testimony regarding description of offence and manner in which offence was committed, could not be shattered by defence - Accused persons had prior enmity with deceased - Weapons of offence were recovered from accused persons - Motorcycle of deceased which was taken away by accused was also recovered – hence, being find no merit in one set of appeals - conviction was proper. (Para – 51, 51-a,b,c,d,e,g,h, i,j)

(B) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Section – 313 - Indian Penal Code,1860 - Sections 34, 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 379 & 411 - Criminal Law Amendment Act(E-11) Section – 7 - Appeals – against conviction & sentence – offence of murder by forming unlawful assembly – co-accused persons had allegedly assaulted upon complainant side resulting one died & anr. injuries – common intention - proof - another Appeal (filed by Ballu alias Balak Das, Toran Yadav & Bhan Singh) – evaluation of evidence – court finds that, neither motive nor enmity was attributed to co-accused persons by witnesses – no recovery was effected from them – further, record did not shows that co-accused persons had meeting of minds or sharing of common intention with accused persons for committing murder – Prosecution witnesses have not specifically St.d how they (co-accused persons) had exactly caused injuries to deceased – held, offence under section 302/34 IPC is not proved – hence, appeal is allowed - conviction was set aside - directions issued accordingly.(Para – 51, 51-l, n, 52, 53)

One Appeal is allowed & anr. is allowed dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Suresh Sakharam Nangare Vs St. of Mah. (2012 9 SCC 249),

2. Chhota Ahirwar Vs St. of M.P. (2020 4 SCC 126),

3. Vinod & ors. Vs St. of UP (2023 0 Supreme (All) 1217),

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan, J.)

1. These appeals have been filed against the judgment of conviction dated 16.03.2010 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge/F.T.C. 1st, Lalitpur in Sessions Trial No. 25 of 2009 arising out of Case Crime No. 356 of 2008, under Section 147, 148, 149, 302, 307, 379, 411 IPC, Police Station – Poorakala, District – Lalitpul vide which all the appellants namely (1) Santosh Singh (2) Kalloo alias Kalyan Singh (3) Shankar alias Daddi (4) Ballu alias Balak Das (5) Toran Yadav (6) Rabuvir Yadav and (7) Bhan Singh have been found guilty of offence punishable under Section 147, 148, 302/149 IPC read with Section 149, 307/149 IPC and additionally accused Shankar alias Daddi was held guilty under Section 379 and 411 IPC and the order of sentence dated 17.3.2010 vide which, appellants were directed to undergo substantive sentence of life imprisonment under Section 302/149 IPC with fine of Rs. 10,000/- each, further ten years' rigorous imprisonment under Section 307/149 IPC with fine of Rs.30,000/- each, and one year sentence under Section 147 and 148 IPC each. Shankar alias Daddi was additionally awarded two years rigorous imprisonment with fine of Rs. 500/- under Section 379/411 of IPC and in default of payment of fine, they have to undergo two years more rigorous imprisonment. All the sentences were directed to run concurrently.

2. Trial Court's record is received and paper books are ready. With the help of all the learned counsels for the appellants Sri Sita Ram Patel and Sri Anshul Tiwari and learned A.G.A. for the State, the entire evidence is re-scrutinized and re-appreciated.

3. As per prosecution version, the informant-Bhoori Raja gave a complaint that she is resident of village Chaubara, Police Station – Poora Kala, District – Lalitpur, Her son, Rajbhan Singh alias Baderaja, was having enmity with Santosh Singh and Shankar Yadav who are residents of the same village. Her son had gone to meet his Advocate at Jhansi on a motorcycle about two years ago and he was returning back from Jhansi at about 3:30 pm and while passing near to the Hanuman Temple of the village, Santosh Singh, Bhan Singh and Kalloo @ Kalyan Singh who were on another motorcycle, driven by Santosh Singh had followed and encircled her son Rajbhan Singh. From the other side of the village, Shankar Yadav, Ballu Yadav, Toran Yadav and Raghubir Yadav, carrying axe and country made pistol, came there. Santosh Singh was carrying rifle and opened fire on her son Rajbhan Singh who fell down. Thereafter Shankar Yadav also opened fire on him with his rifle and other accused, in conspiracy with each other, attacked the son of the complainant with their weapon and gave multiple strokes and her son died at the spot. The informant alongwith her daughter-in-law, Rajju, Mulayam Singh and Mohan, resident of village, reached on the spot. Her daughter-in-law lie down on the body of her husband to save him and Santosh Singh also fired on her and she suffered bullet injury on her thigh. While running away the accused-Shankar Yadav took away the red colour "Apache - motorcycle" of her son. She took her daughter-in-law to the hospital and then came to the police station to register the F.I.R..

4. On the written complaint (Ex-ka-1) , Chick FIR No. 41/08 (Ex-Ka-7) under Section 147, 148, 149,302, 307, 379 IPC and Section 7 of Criminal Law Amendment Act, was registered at 17:15 pm on 24.7.2008. The same was entered vide report No. 21 (Ex-Ka-8) on 24.7.2008 at about 17:15 pm. Thereafter the Inquest/Panchayatnama of the dead body was conducted. Sub Inspector Ghasi Ram reached at the spot and completed Panchayatnama and through constables Jai Prakash and Babulal, the dead body was sent for postmortem and From the place of occurrence bloodstained earth was recovered. Near the dead body of Rajbhan Singh, one brass empty cartridge and three cartridges of small size were recovered in presence of the witnesses and taken in possession vide recovery memo the other documentation was entered in the case diary. During the investigation, the statement of witnesses were recorded. After the arrest of the accused persons, on the pointing out of Raghubir, an axe used in the crime, was recovered vide a separate recovery memo. Thereafter, investigation was conducted by one Balvir Singh, SHO, who submitted the charge sheet (EX-Ka-11) on 25.8.2009. Thereafter, CJM, Lalitpur committed the case to the court of Sessions.

5. Charges under Sections 147, 148, 302 read with Section 149, 307 read with Section 149 of IPC were framed by the Additional Sessions Judge on 1.7.2009. Additional charge under Section 379/411 of IPC was also framed against accused-Shankar Yadav. The accused did not plead guilty and claimed trial.

6. In prosecution evidence, Smt Bhoori Raja (PW-1) appeared and stated on line of information given to the police as recorded in the FIR. She stated that firstly Santosh Singh who was carrying rifle opened fire on her son Rajbhan Singh and her son fell down. Thereafter Shankar Yadav also opened fire on him with his rifle and other accused, in conspiracy with each other, attacked the son of the complainant with axes and multiple strokes were given and her son died on the spot. At that time, PW-1 alonwith her daughter-in-law Basant Raja (PW-2) and three persons of the village namely Rajju, Mulayam Singh and Mohan reached on the spot. Her daughter-in-law Basant Raja lie down on the body of her husband and in her presence, Santosh Singh also fired on her and she suffered bullet injury on her thigh. While running away, accused Shankar Yadav took away the red colour "Apache - motorcycle " of her son.

This witness further stated that she has gone to the police station alongwith her son Jitendra and Basant Raja and on way they met Narayan Singh who wrote the complaint and after it was read over to her, she put thumb impression on the same which is Ex-Ka-1.

7. Thereafter, Trial court opened a bundle received from the Malkhana from which this witness identified the clothes of the deceased i.e. trouser (paint), shirt, underwear, west sleeper, one black string, one ring which was Ex-Ka-1 to Ka-8. She further stated that motive for committing murder of her elder son Rajbhan Singh was that Gajraj, brother of the accused Santosh Singh ,was murdered by the father-in-law of Rajbhan Singh namely Bahadur Singh alongwith Jaibhan, Manohar, Balwant and Mardan Singh and due to that enmity her elder son was murdered. She further stated that Santosh Singh has doubt that Rajbhan Singh was having a hand in murder of his brother Gajraj. Other Brother of Santosh Singh i.e. Rudrapal was having illicit relations with Bua (father's sister) namely Harendra Raja of the deceased and thereafter, Shankar Yadav was keeping her. It was also the reason for keeping grudge with Rajbhan Singh and due to this reason they have committed murder of her son Rajbhan Singh. Santosh Singh and Shankar Yadav who forms a group had even previously fired upon one Chhote Singh who is friend of Rajbhan Singh.

8. In a lengthy cross examination by the accused persons, she has clearly stated about the manner in which occurence took place. She stated that Raghubir was carryng axe, Shankar Yadav was carrying country made rifle and Toran was carrying an axe and after firing upon her daughter-in-law, they ran away. She pleaded ignorance about the cases pending against the deceased Rajbhan Singh. She also pleaded ignorance that Rajbhan Singh faced a trial for committing dacoity at the house of Pancham Theemar of Vrindanvan Bagh at PS-Talbaihat. She also pleaded ignorance that Rajbhan was an accused of looting and attacking on SHO Ramshumar Malik. She stated that she does not know if in the murder of Brijraj Singh, Rajbhan Singh was an accused or not. Regarding identity of Santosh Singh, she stated that even prior to the incident she has seen Santosh Singh in village.

9. She further stated that she had gone to the house of one Hindupat aongwith her daughter-in-law Basant Raja. On specific question as to how much was the distance from the house of Hindupat to the place where dead body of Rajbhan Singh was lying, this witness answered that Rajbhan Singh was murdered in front of her eyes and therefore, dead body was lying in front of her.

10. In further cross examination, she has given details of the clothes worn by Basant Raja who was taken to hospital on a tractor. She denied the suggestions that in conspiracy with other witnesses, Santosh Singh and Kalyan have been falsely implicated.

11. Basant Raja (PW-2), widow of the deceased Rajbhan Singh stated that on the date of the incident at about 3-3:30 pm, her husband Rajbhan Singh was coming on a motorcycle and near Hanuman Temple he was followed by another motorcycle which was driven by Santosh Singh and Bhan Singh & Kalyan Singh were pillion riders and they encircled her husband Rajbhan Singh and from the side of the village Shankar Yadav, Ballu Yadav, Toran Yadav and Raghubir Yadav carrying axes and country made pistol came there. Santosh Singh was carrying a rifle and opened fire on her husband Rajbhan Singh who fell down. Thereafter, Shankar Yadav also opened fire on him with his rifle and other accused, in conspiracy with each other, attacked the husband of PW-2 by giving multiple strokes with their respective weapons and her husband died on the spot. PW-2 laid down on the body of her husband and Santosh Singh also fired on her and she suffered bullet injury on her thigh. While running away, accused-Shankar Yadav took away the red colour "Apache - motorcycle " of her husband. Thereafter the police admitted her in Talmohar Government hospital and then she was referred to Jhansi medical college for further treatment.

12. This witness further stated that her maternal uncle had committed the murder of Gajraj Singh who was the brother of Santosh Singh, therefore, Santosh Singh used to doubt Rajbhan and because of this enmity, he committed murder of Rajbhan Singh @ Baderaja. She also stated that paternal (Bua) aunt of Rajbhan, namely, Harendra Raja was kept by Rudra Pal, brother of accused-Santosh Singh, and thereafter, Shankar Yadav was keeping her. This was also a reason that the accused were keeping enmity with deceased-Rajbhan. She also stated that one Chotey Singh who used to accompany Rajbhan Singh @ Bade Raja was also assaulted by Shankar Yadav along with Rajbhan, Raghubir Yadav, Kallu @ Kalyan Singh. As Chotey Singh used to help the deceased, accused were keeping enmity with her husband. She stated that she was married to Rajbhan about eight years ago and since then she is residing with her in-laws. She pleaded ignorance about involvement of Rajbhan Singh in criminal cases. She also pleaded ignorance about number of motorcycle, however, she stated that motorcycle was purchased by Rajbhan Singh about three months ago which was returned by the police to her brother-in-law. She stated that after the gunshot injury, she was bleeding and her blouse and sari etc. were soaked in blood. She also stated that one bullet is still inside her body and was not removed.

13. Further in her cross examination, she stated that even the Investigating Officer had seen her injuries. It is also stated that she stayed in the Government Hospital, Jhansi for about four days and her mother-in-law had gone there to see her. After she returned from Jhansi, the Investigating Officer came and recorded her statement.

14. Nepal, S.O.(PW-3) has stated that he knew Rajbhan Singh @ Baderaja and after murder of Rajbhan Singh @ Baderaja, he reached at the spot and then the Investigating Officer and other police officials prepared the Panchanama in which, informant, her son Jitendra, Rajpal Singh, Arvind Singh and Bhuri Raja were 'Panchs' who had signed the same. The Investigating Officer collected the bloodstained earth in two separate plastic box. After 20-22 days, the Investigating Officer came along with Shankar Yadav and informed that Shankar Yadav wants to get the revolver recovered from the place where he had concealed the same. When they reached near a pond abutting the Hanuman Temple, Shankar Yadav told that the revolver used by Santosh was thrown in the water at that place. With the help of some persons, they tried to recover the revolver but the villagers told that as many animals move inside the pond, therefore, due to their foot movement, it is not possible to recover the revolver. Thereafter, Shankar Yadav by reaching near a nursery, recovered the read colour Apachi motorcycle of Rajbhan concealed under bushes.

15. In cross examination, he has stated that there were three injuries on the head of deceased and the blood of Basant Raja and Rajbhan was lying nearby and the Investigating Officer has collected the bloodstained earth of Rajbhan only.

16. Dr. Ajay Bhale (PW-4), an Eye Surgeon who conducted the medico legal report of Basant Raja, reported that injury no.1 is an abrasion having blue mark 1 x 4.5 cm in red colour, on the right side of the back. Injury No. 2 was a lacerated wound of 2x 1.5 cm. muscle deep on left thigh, 2.4 cm. above the knee on posterolateral. Injury No.3 was near injury no.2, of 2 x 3 cm. with tattooing which is due to burning of gun powder and there was scratch mark. Injury no.4 some hard article was present on the middle of left thigh which is 2/3 on upper side and 1/3 on lower side of the joint of the thigh. He stated that injury no. 3 and 4 can be caused with firearm, again stated that injury no. 2 and 3 can be caused by firearm. He further stated that the injured informed that the injury no. 1 is a gunshot injury. This witness proved the MLR as Exhibit-Ka-4. In his cross examination, he stated that injury no. 1 and 2 can be caused by a lathi and injury no. 4 was not an apparent wound and on checking, it was found that some thing is there inside the body which may be an old bullet. Basant Raja was in senses when she came to the doctor.

17. Dr. Pankaj Tripathi (PW-5), Eye Surgeon, who conducted the postmartum of Rajbhan Singh, found the following injuries : -

"1- Lacerated wound 4 x 1 cm, deep to bone, on the back side of skull.

2- Lacerated wound 4 x1 cm x deep to bone, 3 cm below and distant to injury no. 1.

3- Incised wound 5 x 1.5 cm x deep to bone, behind left ear on skull.

4- Incised wound 5 x 3 cm, running through and through above left ear.

5 – Incised wound 5 x 1.5 cm, deep to bone, right side on forehead.

6- Mark of contusion with swelling of size 15 x 12 cm, irregular in movement above left cheek.

7- Entry wound of bullet, size 1 x 1 cm x deep to muscle, on chest 2 cm below to collar bone having trajectory downwards.

8- Entry wound of bullet, 1 x1 cm in circle form, around which black marks of charring were present which was deep to muscles, situated on the back side of left elbow.

9- Entry wound of bullet, 1 x 1 cm deep to muscles, on medial part of left hand below injury no. 8.

10- Entry wound of bullet, 1 x 1 cm deep to muscles, around which black marks of charring were present, whose trajectory was medio superior (sic), ahead to injury no. 8.

11- Exit wound of bullet, 2.5 x 2.5, deep to muscles, on anterior medial aspect of left hand, 6 cm above left elbow.

12- firearm wound of exit 1.5 cm x 1.5 cm x muscle deep on pedial aspect above 2 cm from injury no. 11"

18. This witness stated that the cause of death was the injuries sustained by the victim .

19. During recording the statement of this witness, it was noticed that the original postmortem report was not there, therefore, the photocopy of the same was proved by this witness as Exhibit-Ka-5 and the objection regarding admissibility of the secondary evidence was kept open. This witness stated that injury nos. 1, 2, 13 and 14 can be caused by sharp edged weapon. In cross examination, he stated that the bullets which were removed from the body of the deceased, are not shown to him in the Court at the time of recording his statement.

20. Ghasiram (P.W.-6), Sub Inspector, stated about the registration of the FIR and the manner in which the investigation was conducted and the Panchayatnama was prepared. The dead body was sent for postmortem. This witness also stated that from the spot one empty cartridge made of brass and three small bullet cartridges were recovered in the presence of witnesses, Rajbhar and Rajpal Singh Singh and were sealed in an empty match box which is Exhibit- 7 Ka/2. He also stated that one riffle 315 bore, one empty cartridge and one live cartridge were recovered from Santosh Singh on 1.8.2008 during the police encounter when police tried to arrest accused persons and a separate case was registered. Copies of chick report, rapat, panchayatnama, recovery of bloodstained earth, empty cartridges and the case diary were exhibited as Exhibit–Ka-9 to Ka-11. In cross examination, this witness stated that in a bundle opened in the Court, rifle and bullets are same which were recovered which and were sealed. He further stated that one cartridge kept in a bottle is of 315 bore and five empty cartridges and one cartridge on a plastic bag are of 315 bore. This witness stated that the documents, Exhibit Ka-7/1 and Ka-7/2 neither bear time nor signature / thumb mark of any witness.

21. Constable Bharat Singh (PW-7) stated that he recorded the chick FIR No.41/08 which is in his handwriting, the same was proved as Exhibit Ka-7. In his cross examination, he stated that Bhuri Raja alongwith Basant Raja (injured) came with her son Jeetu @ Jitendra, and FIR was recorded. This witness denied that Rajbhan Singh was a history sheeter.

22. Constable Jai Prakash (PW-8) proved that he was deputed by Sub-Inspector Ghasiram Sonkar to take the dead body for postmortem and he had taken the dead body to mortuary on 25.7.2008 where the postmortem was conducted. In cross examination, this witness reiterated the version given in the FIR.

23. Surendra Singh, SHO, Pali, District Lalitpur (PW-9) stated that naksa nazri (site plan) was prepared by him, photocopies of which is Exhibit Ka-8, however, he do not know where the original naksha nazri (site plan) is, as it may be lost . This witness further stated about recording the statement of the witnesses, arrest of the accused, recovery effected and the recovery of axe recovered on pointing out of accused-Raghubir Yadav along with other accused in a police encounter on 1.8.2008. The recovery memo of Axe was marked as Exhibit Ka-9. A bundle was open and the axe which was recovered from accused Raghubir Yadav was identified by this witness as Exhibit -Ka- 12. In cross examination, this witness stated that the original naksa nazri is not on record and the photocopy which is on record, was not certified by S.O. Balveer Singh in his presence. However, two carbon copies of naksa nazri were prepared.

24. Balbeer Singh-SHO, Police Station Jakhaura (PW-10) stated that he has undertaken the investigation and accused-Shankar surrendered on 8.8.2008 and thereafter on 11.8.2008 by taking permission from Chief Judicial Magistrate, Lalitpur, statement of Shankar was recorded in jail, in which he stated that he can get recovered the country made pistol from a pond near the Hanuman Temple as well as motorcycle of Rajbhan Singh and thereafter, he was taken in police custody (in remand) and was taken to the pond as well as other place from where the revolver could not be recovered however, the motorcycle was recovered.

25. He further stated that on 15.8.2008, accused-Shankar alias Daddi was taken on police remand and Section 411 of IPC was added. On 17.08.2018 he recorded the statement of injured-Basant Raja and the other witnesses of Panchayatnama. After preparing khaka/plan of the recovered articles, the articles were sent to Forensic Science Laboratory, Agra through Constable Jai Prakash and submitted charge-sheet against the accused persons. He also took the Postmortem report and Medico Legal Report from the hospital.

26. This witness stated that on 11.09.2008, he sought permission from Chief Judicial Magistrate that pages nos. 1 to 9 of the original Case Diary, during the custodial investigation of Shankar were misplaced as these were given to the prosecution officer and, therefore, he sought permission of the C.J.M. to prepare certified copy of the same which was granted by CJM, Lalitpur on 11.9.2008 which is Ex.Ka-12. This witness also proved the recovery of bloodstained earth and the weapons. In cross examination, this witness stated that one axe was recovered from the accused. In lengthy cross examination by the defence about the manner of committing the offence, this witness stated on the line as informed by the informant and no dent could be made on the deposition of this witness.

27. In cross examination, this witness further stated that deceased-Rajbhan Singh alias Bade Raja is having criminal history of 21 cases in Police Station Purakala which was regarding murder, attempt to murder, N.S.A., Dacoity, Gangster Act and under Gundas Act apart from making an attempt to commit murder of one SHO Ramshumar Malik.

28. Thereafter, the Trial Court closed the prosecution evidence and the statement of accused persons under Section 313 Cr.P.C. was recorded and all the incriminating evidence was put to the accused. In his statement, accused-Santosh Singh denied that the gun was recovered from him and stated that he has been falsely implicated by the complainant as deceased-Rajbhan Singh was a history-sheeter and was murdered by some other person having enmity with him. Similar is the statement of all other accused persons.

29. Shankar alias Daddi with regard to a question that he got recovered the motorcycle, denied the same and stated that he has been falsely implicated. However, no defence evidence was led.

30. Thereafter, the Trial Court vide impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence held the appellants guilty offences as discussed above and awarded them life sentence with fine. Thereafter, the present four appeals were filed challenging the impugned judgment dated 16.3.2010 and order of sentence dated 17.3.2010.

31. The argument of all the learned counsels for the appellants have been heard. The common argument raised by all the counsel is that deceased-Rajbhan Singh was having criminal antecedents as it has come in the statement of PW-10 that he was involved in 21 criminal cases regarding murder, attempt to murder, N.S.A., Dacoity, Gangster Act and under Gundas Act and, therefore, he was having enmity with many persons and only after he was murdered by some unknown persons, the informant has falsely named the appellants.

32. It was also argued that both PW-1 and PW-2 are not eye-witnesses and they had reached the spot after the incident. Counsel argued that there is huge distance between the house of the appellant and place of occurrence and, therefore, the story put forward by PW-1 and PW-2 that they immediately reached at the spot and had witnessed the occurrence is not sustainable. Reference is drawn to the cross examination of the witnesses to submit that they have admitted that their house is far away from the place of occurrence which is near the temple.

33. It was also argued by all the counsels that the injuries sustained by Basant Raja (PW-2) are self inflicted injuries and she is also not an eye-witness. Counsel further argued that reason for falsely implicating the appellant is that it has come in the statement of PW-1 and PW-2 that the real paternal aunt (Bua) namely, Harendra Raja was illegally kept by Rudrapal, the real brother of accused-Santosh Singh, and thereafter Shankar Yadav was keeping her and due to this reason, the appellants have been falsely implicated.

34. Counsel for the appellants, Kallu alias Kalyan Singh, Ballu alias Balakdas, Toran Yadav, Raghubir Yadav and Bhan Singh, have argued that no motive or enmity was attributed towards them and, therefore, there was no occasion for them to commit murder of Rajbhan. It was also argued on behalf of aforesaid five accused that even as per the F.I.R. version, first Santosh Singh opened fire on Rajbhan Singh and thereafter Shankar Yadav had opened fire. Counsel submits that deceased-Rajbhan Singh died due to firearm injuries which were given by Santosh Singh and Shankar Yadav.

35. It is also submitted that it has come in the statement of PW-10 that Rajbhan has even made an attempt of life of one SHO Ramshumar Malik and therefore he had criminal antecedents of many cases.

36. Next argument raised by the counsels are that it has come in the statement of Balbir Singh, IO, (PW-10) that all the accused persons except Shankar Yadav were arrested during a police encounter, however, with regard to police encounter, no evidence has come on record to show that the police personnel were present at the alleged place of encounter and his oral statement to prove this fact is not sufficient.

37. It is next argued that as per the cross examination of Balbir Singh, IO, (PW-10), only one gun was recovered on the identification of Santosh Singh and one axe was recovered from Raghubir Singh and Motorcycle from accused-Shankar Yadav. Therefore, the allegation against other accused are not proved beyond doubt.

38. It is also argued that it has come in the statement of PW -9 SHO Surendra Singh that no axe was recovered from accused-Raghubir Yadav. Counsel further submitted that statement of injured witness Basant Raja was recorded by Investigation Officer (PW-10) on 17.8.2008 as admitted by Balbir Singh, IO, (PW-10) in which he has stated that he when the investigation was transferred only on 8.8.2008.

39. Counsel submitted that statement of Basant Raja was recorded after about 26 days of the incident i.e. 24.7.2008 and, therefore, she has made improvements in her statements.

40. Counsel further submits that there are material discrepancies in the statement of PW-1 and PW-3 regarding the place of occurrence, clothes worn by the deceased, recovery effected from the spot and regarding recovery of bloodstained earth. PW-2 had failed to give description of motorcycle used by deceased-Rajbhan.

41. It is thus argued that both PW-1 and PW-2 are not the eye-witnesses rather they reached at the spot after incident had taken place and have falsely implicated the appellants.

42. It is also argued that it has come in the statement of PW-4 Dr. Ajay Bhale, an eye surgeon, who conducted the medico legal report that injury no.4 was an old injury as no fresh injury was seen. A reference is drawn to the cross examination of this witness who has stated that injury No.3 and 4 are caused by firearm and injury No.2 & 3 are caused by firearm. In further cross examination, this witness stated that injury No.1 and 2 can be caused with a lathi blow whereas injury no.4 is relating to some old bullet inside the body and she has not suffered any injury on the vital part.

43. It is submitted that both Dr. Ajay Bhale (PW-4) and Dr. Pankaj Tripathi (PW-5) who conducted the medico legal report of Basant Raja and postmortem report of Rajbhan Singh are eye surgeons and are not expert to give opinion about the weapon with which the injuries were caused. A reference is drawn to the statement of PW-5 who conducted the postmortem of deceased Rajbhan who has stated that injury No.1 and 2 and 13 & 14 were cause with sharp edged weapon (Kundalaya).

44. In reply, learned A.G.A. for the State has argued that both the eye witnesses i.e. PW-1 and PW-2 have not only supported the prosecution version but also clearly deposed about the manner in which the incident took place.

45. Learned A.G.A submits that both the witnesses have stated that accused Santosh Singh and Shankar Yadav were having enmity with deceased Rajbhan Singh and on account of the same, they committed his murder.

46. Learned counsel submits that though it is argued by the learned counsel for the appellants that PW-1 and PW-2 are not eye witnesses and they reached after the incident had taken place. However, in cross examination of both the witnesses i.e. PW-1 and PW-2, no suggestion has been given by either of the accused that they were not present at the spot or they have not witnessed the incident.

47. Learned counsel submits that a prompt FIR has been registered by the prosecution and the ocular version of the prosecution is duly supported by medical version. Prosecution witnesses have explained about the injuries sustained by the deceased and even by PW-2, an injured eye witness.

48. Learned counsel submits that trial court has granted permission to record the secondary evidence vide Ex. Ka-11 and only thereafter, some document shows the original version were duly proved by PW-9, the Investigating Officer.

49. Learned counsel also argued that the deceased suffered as many as 14 injuries, out of which, injury nos. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are firearm injuries and injury nos. 3, 4 and 5 are incised wounds which are caused by sharp edged weapon like axe and injury no.1 and 2 are lacerated wound and, therefore, it is proved that same were caused by the country made pistol and from the sharp edged side of axe or from the blunt side of the axe.

50. Learned counsel submits that mere fact that the deceased was having criminal history is no ground to hold that prosecution version is false as it is duly supported by two prosecution witnesses out of which PW-2 herself is an inured witness, who suffered firearm injury on her thigh.

51. After hearing learned counsel for the parties, we find no merit in appeals of Shankar Yadav alias Daddi, Santosh Singh, Kalloo alias Kalyan Singh, and Raghubir Yadav, however, we find merit in the appeals of Ballu alias Balak Das, Toran Yadav and Bhan Singh for the following reasons:

(a) We find no merit in the argument advanced on behalf of the accused persons that PW-1 – Bhoori Raja and PW-2-Basant Raja are not the eye witness. Firstly, both the witnesses, in clear terms, have stated that they reached the spot and found that the accused persons namely Santosh Singh, carrying rifle, Shankar Yadav carrying country made gun and another accused, carrying axe, encircled deceased Rajbhan Singh. Santosh Singh opened fire with the rifle which hit Rajbhan Singh and he fell down. Thereafter, Shankar Yadav opened fire with his rifle to Rajbhan Singh and other accused gave axe blow to Rajbhan Singh. Presence of both these witnesses on the spot is also proved from the fact that when PW-2 Basant Raja tried to save her husband deceased Rajbhan Singh and lie down on the body of her husband. Santosh Singh again opened fire that hit PW-2, Basant Raja on her thigh. Morever, in cross examination of both the witnesses no suggestion was given by either of the accused that neither they are the eye witnesses nor they were present on the spot. Therefore, the argument raised by the learned counsel for the appellant is not sustainable.

(b) The medical evidence ie. post mortem report of deceased Rajbhan Singh prove that he sustained as many as 14 injuries out of which, injury nos. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 are firearm injuries and injury nos. 3, 4 and 5 are incised wounds which are caused by sharp edged weapon like axe and injury no. 2 is lacerated wound and, therefore, it is proved that same was caused by the country made pistol and from the sharp edged side of axe or from the blunt side of the axe which shows that on pre meditated mind, the accused persons firstly opened fire on deceased Rajbhan Singh, and then gave him multiple axe blows.

(c) Even the statement of PW-4 , Doctor, who conducted the MLR of PW-2 Basant Raja prove that she suffered firearm injury which as per ocular version was caused by Santosh Singh from his rifle when she tried to save her husband.

(d) Recovery of rifle from Santosh Singh is also proved from the statement of PW-6, the Investigating Officer, in whose presence, sealed parcels were opened and chick report, inquest report, recovery of blood stained earth, empty cartridge and case diary i.e. Ex-Ka-9 to K-11 and the rifle of 315 bore with bullets were recovered and he proved that these weapons are the same which were recovered from Santosh Singh.

(e) The police, during investigation, on the pointing out of Shankar Yadav alias Daddi, tried to recover the gun used in the crime which was thrown in a village pond, but despite best efforts could not recover the same. However, on the same date, the motorcycle of the deceased which was taken away by Shankar Yadav was recovered as proved by PW-10, who after seeking permission from the Chief Judicial Magistrate, took his custody and recovered motorcycle.

(f) The argument raised by the learned counsel for the appellant that original document of the investigation were not produced, is also not correct as it has come in the statement of PW-10 that vide order dated 11.9.2008, the Chief Judicial Magistrate had granted permission to lead secondary evidence recorded on page no. 128 of the original case diary and the order was produced on record as Ex-Ka-12, and thereafter, the prosecution has led the secondary evidence.

(g) It is also proved on record by PW-1 and PW-2 that accused Santosh Singh and Shankar Yadav were having enmity with deceased Rajbhan Singh. Gajraj Singh, elder brother of the accused Santosh Singh was murdered by father-in-law of Rajbhan Singh namely Bahadur Singh alongwith three other persons and Santosh Singh having a doubt that even Rajbhan Singh was also involved in the murder of his brother, and was keeping enmity with the deceased. Santosh Singh even fired upon Basant Raja (PW-2) who is the daughter of Bahadur Singh. Accused-Kalloo alias Kalyan Singh is real brother of Santosh Singh and both came together on one motorcycle.

(h) It has also proved on record that Shaankar Yadav was having illicit relationship with real Bua namely Harendra Raja (father's sister of the deceased) and, therefore, even Shankar Yadav was having enmity with the family of Rajbhan Singh.

(i) The argument raised by the learned counsel for the appellant that FSL report is not proved, though may be an instance in favour of the appellants, however, PW-10, Investigating Officer, has duly proved the weapon of offence which were recovered by him from the accused persons, by opening sealed parcel, he proved that the articles recovered, are the same which were recovered from Santosh Singh and from Shakar Yadav and Raghubir Yadav. Therefore, the primary evidence proves the recovery of weapons of offence from the accused persons.

(j) The argument raised by the counsel for the appellant that statement of PW-2 was recorded after much delay of the incident is also of no consequence as it has come on record of the Medical college, Jhansi that she has suffered firearm injury and only when she returned home, her statement was recorded. Moreover, in a lengthy cross examination, her testimony regarding description of offence and the manner in which the offence was committed, could not be shattered by the defence.

(k) The argument raised by the appellant that no evidence of police encounter is on record is also misplaced as it has come in the statement of prosecution witness that a separate case was registered regarding the police encounter. No further cross examination was offered on this point.

(l) However, there is merit in the contention raised by the learned counsel on behalf of Toran Yadav, Bhan Singh and Ballu alias Balak Das. Firstly, neither any motive nor any enmity is attributed to these three accused persons by PW-1 and PW-2. Secondly, no recovery has been effected from them and thirdly nothing has come on record that they, a meeting of mind with the above four accused persons had committed murder of Rajbhan Singh. PW-1 and PW-2 have not specifically stated how they have exactly caused injuries to Rajbhan Singh even during their custodial investigation nothing was recovered from them.

(m) Counsel for these appellant has relied on the judgment of Supreme Court in Suresh Sakharam Nangare Versus State of Maharashtra, (2012) 9 Supreme Court Cases 249, wherein it is held as under :-

"21. Since the conviction of the appellant is based only with the aid of Section 34 of IPC, it is useful to refer the same:

"34. Acts done by several persons in furtherance of common intention – When a criminal act is done by several persons in furtherance of the common intention of all, each of such persons is liable for that act in the same manner as if it were done by him alone." A reading of the above provision makes it clear that to apply Section 34, apart from the fact that there should be two or more accused, two factors must be established: (i) common intention, and (ii) participation of accused in the commission of an offence. It further makes clear that if common intention is proved but no overt act is attributed to the individual accused, Section 34 will be attracted as essentially it involves vicarious liability but if participation of the accused in the crime is proved and common intention is absent, Section 34 cannot be invoked. In other words, it requires a pre-arranged plan and pre-supposes prior concert, therefore, there must be prior meeting of minds."

(n) Counsel for the appellants submits that from the prosecution evidence neither the common intention of the appellants, namely, Toran Yadav, Bhan Singh and Ballu alias Balak Das is there with the remaining four accused persons nor their active participation is proved.

(o) Reliance is also placed on the decision of Supreme Court in Chhota Ahirwar Versus State of Madhya Pradesh, (2020) 4 Supreme Court Cases 126, the Supreme Court has observed as under :-

"25. Mere participation in crime with others is not sufficient to attribute common intention. The question is whether, having regard to the facts and circumstances of this case, it can be held that the Prosecution established that there was a common intention between the accused appellant and the main accused Khilai to kill the complainant. In other words, the Prosecution is required to prove a premeditated intention of both the accused appellant and the main accused Khilai, to kill the complainant, of which both the accused appellant and the main accused Khilai were aware. Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, is really intended to meet a case in which it is difficult to distinguish between the acts of individual members of a party and prove exactly what part was played by each of them."

(p) Learned counsel for the appellants submits that the statements of PW-1 & PW-2 only states that the other accused has caused injuries to the deceased without assigning specific roll and in absence of common intention between two sets accused persons, the appellants cannot be held guilty.

(q) Counsel for the appellant has relied on the judgment of Supreme Court in Vinod and Others Versus State of U.P.,

2023 0 Supreme(All) 1217, wherein it is held as under :-

"38. Thus, in such facts and circumstances, the ingredients of Section 34 I.P.C., i.e. the common intention to kill the deceased Om Prakash is not established from the evidences. At best, as per prosecution case, the exhortation was to beat. No evidence was led by the prosecution that during the course of alleged beating, any of the accused appellants herein have exhorted or instigated the accused Rekhpal Singh to kill the deceased Om Prakash. In such facts and circumstances, even if it is assumed that the accused Rekhpal fired by his licensed DBBL gun to kill Om Prakash, then it was an unilateral act of the accused Rekhpal. Thus, the alleged gun shot injury allegedly caused by the accused Rekhpal to the deceased Om Prakash, is not in furtherance of common intention shared by the accused appellants Vinod and Pramod. In the absence of any common intention of the accused anterior in time to kill the deceased, showing a pre-arranged plan and prior concert. No evidence could be led by the prosecution to establish a prior conspiracy or pre-meditation or common intention formed either prior to or in the course of occurrence of the crime, to kill the deceased Om Prakash. In the absence of meeting of minds or sharing of common intention by the accused appellants to kill the deceased, Section 34 I.P.C. could not be invoked. Consequently, the accused appellants cannot be convicted under Section 302 I.P.C. inasmuch as it is not the case of the prosecution that the accused appellants have killed the deceased Om Prakash."

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that in absence of clear evidence from the prosecution regarding meeting of minds or sharing of common intention by all the accused to kill the deceased, Section 34 IPC cannot be invoked.

52. In view of the judgments in Suresh Sakharam Nangare's Case (Supra), Chhota Ahirwar Case (Supra) and Vinod and others' Case (Supra), we find that charge against appellants-Toran Yadav, Bhan Singh and Ballu alias Balak Das under Section 302/34 of IPC is not proved.

53. In view of above, we dismiss the appeal for Shankar Yadav alias Daddi, Santosh Singh, Kalloo alias Kalyan Singh and Raghubir Yadav However, we allow the appeal on behalf of Toran Yadav, Bhan Singh and Ballu alias Balak Das as these three appellants were convicted in the aid of section 34 of IPC and therefore they are acquitted of the charges. All the three appellants-Toran Yadav, Bhan Singh and Ballu alias Balak Das are on bail. Their bail stands discharged. The impugned judgment of conviction and order of sentence shall stand modified to the aforesaid extent.

54. Record and proceedings be sent to the Trial Court forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2271
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 08.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ BAJAJ, J.

Criminal Appeal No. 10230 of 2023
With other connected cases

Smt. Usha ...Appellant
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Ashutosh Sharma

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A., Subedar Mishra

(A) Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 164, 156(3), 173(2), 157, 190, 193, 202, 203, 313, 386, 397 & 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 147, 148, 307, 323, 324, 325, 504 & 506 – Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 - Sections 3(1)(r), 3(1)(s), 14-A & 14-A(1) - Appeals – against order of cognizance - named FIR – investigation - final report against accused for offence u/s 324 IPC – complainant, filed Application for addition of offences u/s 325, 327 IPC – allowed – hence appeals – examination of evidence - court finds that, reliance placed upon by the appellants on the pendency of the civil dispute between the parties in the given set of facts and circumstances of the case is misplaced, as the offence contained in FIR relates to the offences against a human body, which is also supported by the medical evidence thus, it cannot be said that ingredients to constitute the offences are not made out against accused – However, as far as the addition of offences in final report is concern – same is apparently not sustainable – held, (i) Trial court is well within its jurisdiction and powers to frame charges against the accused – (ii) offences cannot be either added or subtracted in the Police Report at the stage of taking cognizance u/s 190 Cr.P.C. – Hence, impugned order to the extent of whereby the claim of the complainant has been accepted for additions of offence is not sustainable – and – it is open for the accused to press their respective claims before the Special Court at the stage of consideration of the final report for framing charges – Appeals are partly allowed.
(Para – 37, 38, 39, 40)

Appeals are partly allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal (1992 SCC (CR.) 426),

2. In re Provision of Section 14-A of SC/ST Act 2015 Vs NIL (2018 SCC Online All 2087),

3. Ghulam Rassol Khan & ors.Vs St. of UP & ors.(Cri. Appeal No. 1000/2018),

4. Shantaben Burabhai Bhuriya Vs Anand Athabhai Chaudhari (2021 SCC Online SC 974),

5. Gyandendra Maurya @ Gollu Vs UOI & ors.(Cri. Misc. WP No. 7522 of 2022),

6. Ajay Kumar Parmar Vs St. of Raj. (2012 12 SCC 406),

7. Raj Kapoor & ors. Vs St. & ors. (AIR 1980 SC 258),

8. St. of Orissa Vs Debendra Nath Padhi (AIR 2005 SC 359),

9. Amit Kapoor Vs Ramesh Chander & ors. (2012 9 SCC 460),

10. Ramawatar Vs St. of Madhya Pradesh (2022 13 SCC 635),

11. Gulam Mustafa Vs The St. of Karnataka & ors. (AIR 2023 SC 2999),

12. Gian Singh Vs St. of Punj. & anr. (2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543), (Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Bajaj, J.)

1. Appellants-Accused have filed the above separate appeals under Section 14-A(1) Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 to challenge the impugned order dated 17.8.2023 passed by Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Mathura in Case Crime No. 321 of 2022, under Sections 147, 148, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C. and Sections 3(1)(r), 3(1)(s) Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, whereby while taking cognizance of the offences contained in final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. dated 2.1.2023, additionally cognizance in respect of the offences punishable under Section 325, 307 I.P.C. has also been taken, by allowing the application filed by respondent no.2-complainant.

2. Briefly, the facts leading to the appeals are that complainant-Lekhi S/o Lachchi got lodged F.I.R. dated 24.10.2022 bearing Case Crime No. 321 of 2022 (Annexure No.6), wherein it is alleged that on 24.10.2022 at around 4:00 p.m., he reached on his tractor at his land comprised in Khasra No. 71 measuring 0.405 hectare for ploughing, which was taken by him on lease from Mohan Singh S/o Ratiram. When the complainant started the work, suddenly Badani, Lakhkhi S/o Nandram, Kanhiya S/o Raggo, Usha W/o Keshav, Parwati W/o Lakhkhi, Pooran Devi W/o Badani, Rajkumar S/o Laxman, Vishnu S/o Lakhkhi, Keshav S/o Lakhkhi, Lalaram S/o Gyasi, Tejpal S/o Gyasi, all residents of Gazipur armed with sticks, sharp edged weapon (Farsa) and rods arrived there and attacked the complainant. The assault resulted in head injury and fractures to the complainant, who fell down and turned unconscious. When complainant gained consciousness, the accused persons abused him in the name of his caste and also threatened him. On these broad allegations, the F.I.R. was registered for alleged commission of offences punishable under Section 147, 148, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C. and Section 3(1)(r), 3(1)(s) Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 (hereinafter referred to as 'Atrocities Act, 1989').

3. After registration of the F.I.R., the investigation in the case was conducted and upon conclusion of the same, a final report dated 2.1.2023, under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. was filed against the accused-appellants, wherein during investigation, in addition to the offences contained in F.I.R., the offence punishable under Section 324 I.P.C. was also incorporated.

4. Thereafter, the complainant moved an application dated 7.8.2023 (Annexure No.11) before the Special Court, Mathura and prayed that cognizance in respect of the offences punishable under Sections 325, 307 I.P.C. be also taken, and the Special Court, Mathura vide impugned order dated 17.10.2023 allowed the application moved by the complainant and proceeded to take cognizance of offences contained in the final report dated 2.1.2023, under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. as well as for the offences punishable under Sections 325, 307 I.P.C. Hence, these appeals.

5. Pursuant to the notice issued in these appeals, the opposite parties were served and complainant filed his counter affidavit in Criminal Appeal No. 10230 of 2023, wherein he refuted the grounds raised by the appellants. It is pleaded that the record of the case, including the medical examination report of the injured-complainant clearly a case for alleged commission of offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 307, 323, 324, 325, 504, 506 I.P.C. and Section 3(1)(r), 3(1)(s) of "Atrocities Act, 1989" is made out, therefore, Special Court, Mathura has rightly accepted the application of the complainant while passing the cognizance order dated 17.8.2023. In the end, it is prayed that appeals be dismissed.

6. Learned counsel for appellants has argued that the land comprised in Khata No. 29, Khasra No. 2 measuring 2.651 hectare and land comprised in Khasra No. 71 measuring 1.554 hectare situated at Mauja Ghazipur, Tehsil Gowardhan, District Mathura is a subject matter of civil dispute between the parties and in this regard, a civil suit bearing O.S. No. 192 of 2022 (Annexure No.1), titled Nandram Vs. Mohan Singh, is pending adjudication before Civil Judge (J.D.), Chhata, Mathura, wherein the gift deed dated 8.4.2022 relied upon by Mohan Singh has been challenged. Learned counsel submits that after filing of the suit, defendant-Mohan Singh also filed a civil suit bearing O.S. No. 234 of 2022 (Annexure No.2), titled Mohan Singh Vs. Kushagra Gupta and others, seeking permanent injunction. Learned counsel refers to the report dated 15.7.2022 by Ameen (Annexure No. 3) to contend that the appellants were found in possession of the suit property.

7. Learned counsel for appellants has further pointed out that on 24.10.2022 Tara and Sunil along with other unknown persons were consuming liquor in the agriculture field of appellants and when Usha Devi confronted them, they molested her and her mother-in-law. According to the learned counsel, Tara is maternal uncle of defendant-Mohan Singh, and in this regard, a case F.I.R. dated 24.10.2022 bearing Case Crime No. 320 of 2022 (Annexure No.5) was registered against accused persons for alleged commission of offences punishable under Sections 354, 323, 504, 506 I.P.C. Learned counsel for appellants has vehemently argued that in retaliation to the civil litigation and criminal case, opposite party no.2-complainant has falsely implicated the appellants through Case Crime No. 321 of 2022, wherein investigation was not conduced properly, as while filing the charge sheet, the offence punishable under Section 324 I.P.C. was also added.

8. Learned counsel for appellants submits that Special Court, Mathura while considering the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. for the purposes of taking cognizance of the offences has erroneously allowed the claim of the complainant and has also taken the cognizance in respect of the offences punishable under Sections 325 and 307 I.P.C. Learned counsel submits that Special Court, Mathura has not examined the facts and circumstances of the case carefully and has wrongly passed the impugned order dated 17.8.2023, whereas no offence as alleged would be made out against the accused, as the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offences are missing. In support of his arguments, learned counsel has placed reliance upon the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court State of Haryana Vs. Bhajan Lal 1992 SCC(Cr.) 426. Learned counsel submits that if, the allegations contained in the prosecution case are taken to be true on its face value, no offence would be made out, therefore, he prayed that impugned order dated 17.8.2023 be set aside and the criminal proceedings against the appellants be dropped.

9. The prayer is opposed by learned A.G.A., who is assisted by learned counsel for complainant-respondent no.2. Learned counsel for respondent no.2 has argued that merely because a civil dispute between the parties is pending, that alone would not be a ground to disbelieve the case of the prosecution, as the evidence regarding injuries suffered by the injured are supported with documentary evidence. Learned counsel for opposite party no.2 submits that since the investigation in the case was not conducted properly and the charge sheet was not filed in respect of the serious offences committed by the accused, therefore, the complainant-respondent no.2 rightly availed his right to seek indulgence of the Special Court, Mathura for redressal of his grievance. According to learned counsel, while passing the cognizance order dated 17.8.2023, the Special Court, Mathura has given valid reasons and no interference is warranted by this Court. He prays that appeals be dismissed.

10. Learned counsel for the parties have been heard and with their assistance case file has been perused carefully.

11. Amid growing confusion on choice of availing the remedy by a litigant, against an order taking cognizance of the offence(s) based upon police report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C., passed by Special Court constituted under "Atrocities Act, 1989" i.e. either to file a statutory appeal under Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act 1989" or by invoking inherent powers under Section 482 Code of Criminal Procedure, this Court deems it appropriate to analyse this question before adjudicating the appeal on its merits. Previously, twice this question has been examined by two full benches of this Court in In re Provision of Section 14A of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 Vs. Nil, 2018 SCC OnLine All 2087 and Ghulam Rassol Khan and others Vs. State of U.P. And others, passed in Criminal Appeal No. 1000 of 2018, but, the conflicting views by the co-ordinate Benches of this Court are still continuing.

12. Full Bench of this Court in the case of re Provision of Section 14A of SC/ST (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015, (Supra) had formulated five questions for consideration and question 'B' related to the exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. by the High Court and the same reads as under:-

B. Whether in view of the provisions contained in Section 14-A of the Amending Act, a petition under the provisions of Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India or a revision under Section 397 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (in short 'Cr.P.C.) or a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., is maintainable. OR in other words, whether by virtue of Section 14-A of the Amending Act, the powers of the High Court under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution or its revisional powers or the powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. stand ousted ? "

13. Upon considering the various decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the High Courts, the Full Bench answered the said question in the following manner:-

"We therefore answer Question (B) by holding that while the constitutional and inherent powers of this Court are not "ousted" by Section 14A, they cannot be invoked in cases and situations where an appeal would lie under Section 14A. Insofar as the powers of the Court with respect to the revisional jurisdiction is concerned, we find that the provisions of Section 397 Cr.P.C. stand impliedly excluded by virtue of the special provisions made in Section 14A. This, we hold also in light of our finding that the word "order" as occurring in sub-section(1) of Section 14A would also include intermediate orders."

14. The subsequent decision by Full Bench of this Court in Gulam Rasool Khan's case (Supra), also echoes the voice of the decision by the earlier Full Bench, wherein it is held that in view of Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989" aggrieved person cannot be allowed to invoke the inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

15. Frequently, the petitions originally filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. challenging such an order taking cognizance of offences based on police report have been received for adjudication, after those were converted as appeals under Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989". Recently, to solve the puzzle, another co-ordinate Bench of this Court has again referred this issue before the larger Bench vide order dated 20.9.2023 passed in Application U/S 482 No. 8635 of 2023, which is pending consideration.

16. The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 provides for two modes of criminal prosecution, one based upon police investigation report, whereas other is founded on directly instituted private complaint before the Magistrate and these procedures are contained in Chapter XII and XV, respectively. The prosecution in a complaint case begins with the filing of the complaint directly before the court of competent jurisdiction and in the said procedure, the police has no role, except to hold an inquiry under Section 202 Cr.P.C., if, directed by the court. The said inquiry is also for an extremely limited purpose of ascertaining the truth in the allegations contained in the complaint. The procedure meant for a complaint case contemplates that Magistrate shall record the statements of complainant and other witnesses under Section 200 Cr.P.C. and upon considering the same the Magistrate may either dismiss the complaint under Section 203 Cr.P.C. or may issue process against accused. After appearance of the accused, the trial would progress further based upon the classification of the offences i.e. either before the court of Sessions or the Magistrate.

17. Unlike the complaint case, the prosecution based upon police report consists of two stages; First- upon an information to the police, a First Information Report is registered, regarding alleged commission of cognizable offence(s) followed by submission of special report to the concerned court as envisaged under Section 157 Cr.P.C. and thereafter a thorough investigation in the alleged crime is conducted. After completion of investigation, the final report is prepared as contemplated under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. for submission before the court of competent jurisdiction for consideration. Second- The trial court examines the final report, and, if, a prima facie case is made out against the accused, the cognizance of offence(s) is taken and then comes the stage of framing of charges against the accused. After commencement of trial, the prosecution witnesses are examined and after discharge of onus by prosecution, the accused is called upon for explanation, if, so required and thereafter, the defence evidence, if any, is recorded. Lastly, the trial court delivers the final judgment of conviction or acquittal.

18. Ordinarily, the trial before the court of sessions commences after committal of the case by the Magistrate as the cognizance of offences directly by Sessions Court is prohibited by Section 193 Cr.P.C., but Section 14 of "Atrocities Act, 1989" contains an exception to Section 193 Cr.P.C. in respect of offences punishable under "Atrocities Act, 1989", as it provides that the courts established or specified under the "Atrocities Act of 1989" shall have power to directly take cognizance of the offences. Section 14 reads as under:-

14. Special Court and Exclusive Special Court.—

(1) For the purpose of providing for speedy trial, the State Government shall, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish an Exclusive Special Court for one or more Districts:

Provided that in Districts where less number of cases under this Act is recorded, the State Government shall, with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of the High Court, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify for such Districts, the Court of Session to be a Special Court to try the offences under this Act:

Provided further that the Courts so established or specified shall have power to directly take cognizance of offences under this Act.

(2) It shall be the duty of the State Government to establish adequate number of Courts to ensure that cases under this Act are disposed of within a period of two months, as far as possible.

(3) In every trial in the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court, the proceedings shall be continued from day-to-day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court finds the adjournment of the same beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded in writing:

Provided that when the trial relates to an offence under this Act, the trial shall, as far as possible, be completed within a period of two months from the date of filing of the charge sheet.

19. Thus, by virtue of this statutory provision, the powers vested with the Magistrate to either direct registration of case for investigation contained in Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. or cognizance of offences contemplated by Section 190 Cr.P.C. can also be exercised by the Special Court constituted under Atrocities Act, 1989. This issue has already been dealt with by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shantaben Burabhai Bhuriya vs. Anand Athabhai Chaudhari, (2021) SCC Online SC 974, which has been followed by this Court in Gyanendra Maurya @ Gullu Vs. Union of India and others, passed in Criminal Misc. Writ Petition No. 7522 of 2022. In this regard, the relevant observations contained in Gyanendra's case (Supra) read as under:-

"34. We have already held that Section 156(3) of Code 1973 will apply to investigation of an offence under the Act 1989 and as per Section 156(3) of Code 1973 a Magistrate empowered under Section 190 of Code 1973 can order such investigation and as, in view of proviso to Section 14 of the Act 1989 read with Section 190 of Code 1973, it is the Courts established or specified under the Act 1989 which can take cognizance directly in respect of an offence under the Act 1989, therefore, the Magistrate can not and should not take cognizance of an offence under the Act 1989 as such power when specifically vested with the Special Courts under the Act 1989 should be exercised by the latter as held in Shantaben Burabhai Bhuriya vs. Anand Athabhai Chaudhari1, therefore, this power under Section 156(3) of Code 1973 has to be exercised by such Exclusive or Special Courts and not the Magistrate.

20. The expression "cognizance" as contained in Section 190 Cr.P.C. has not been defined in the Code of Criminal Procedure, but the same has been analyzed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as various High Courts, and consistently it has been held that whenever a court of competent jurisdiction applies its judicial mind to the complaint or the police report, as the case may be, the cognizance of offences is said to be taken. Here it becomes relevant to examine Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989", which provides for a remedy of appeal in respect of judgment and other decisions passed by Special Court. The Section 14-A reads as under:-

"14-A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure,1973, an appeal shall lie, from any judgment, sentence or order, not being an interlocutory order, of a Special Court or an Exclusive Special Court, to the High Court both on facts and on law.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) of section 378 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, an appeal shall lie to the High Court against an order of the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court granting or refusing bail.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, every appeal under this section shall be preferred within a period of ninety days from the date of the judgment, sentence or order appealed from:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of ninety days if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the period of ninety days:

Provided further that no appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of the period of one hundred and eighty days.

(4) Every appeal preferred under sub-section (1) shall, as far as possible, be disposed of within a period of three months from the date of admission of the appeal.".

21. At this juncture, it would be apt to note that many orders like refusing or granting bail to an accused, discharge of accused or framing charges against an accused are not appealable as per the provisions of Cr.P.C., but by virtue of Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989" even an appeal lies against such orders. Of course, the remedy of appeal is provided by the "Atrocities Act, 1989", but such appeals are to be adjudicated by following the procedure of adjudication of appeals enshrined under Chapter XXIX Cr.P.C., particularly the Section 386 Cr.P.C., which defines the powers of appellate court. The said Section 386 Cr.P.C. reads as under:-

386. Powers of the Appellate Court.

- After perusing such record and hearing the appellant or his pleader, if he appears, and the Public Prosecutor, if he appears, and in the case of an appeal under Section 377 or Section 378, the accused, if he appears, the Appellate Court may, if it considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering, dismiss the appeal, or may –

(a) in an appeal from an order of acquittal, reverse such order and direct that further inquiry be made, or that the accused be re-tried or committed for trial, as the case may be, or find him guilty and pass sentence on him according to law;

(b) in an appeal from a conviction -(i)reverse the finding and sentence and acquit or discharge the accused, or order him to be re-tried by a Court of competent jurisdiction subordinate to such Appellate Court or committed for trial, or(ii)alter the finding, maintaining the sentence, or(iii)with or without altering the finding, alter the nature or the extent, or the nature and extent, of the sentence, but not so as to enhance the same;

(c) in an appeal for enhancement of sentence -(i)reverse the finding and sentence and acquit or discharge the accused, or order him to be re-tried by a Court competent to try the offence, or(ii)alter the finding maintaining the sentence, or(iii)with or without altering the finding, alter the nature or the extent, or the nature and extent, of the sentence, so as to enhance or reduce the same;

(d) in an appeal from any other order, alter or reverse such order;

(e) make any amendment or any consequential or incidental order that may be just or proper :

Provided that the sentence shall not be enhanced unless the accused has had an opportunity of showing cause against such enhancement :

Provided further that the Appellate Court shall not inflict greater punishment for the offence which in its opinion the accused has committed, than might have been inflicted for that offence by the Court passing the order or sentence under appeal.

22. A reading of the above section would show that Clauses (a), (b) and (c) of the above section are only relating to the appeals against acquittal, conviction and enhancement of sentence, respectively, therefore, an appeal challenging the order taking cognizance of offences would fall with the ambit of Clause (d). The above Section also indicates that appellate jurisdiction can be effectively exercised, if, an appeal is founded on substance, coupled with reasoning, whereupon the impugned decision of the trial court is based. Of course, trial proceedings may carry more procedural aspects, but the appellate court is not supposed to pay much importance to the procedural aspect over and above the material substance. In criminal law there is only one remedy of criminal appeal, therefore, it is incumbent for the appellate court to examine the substance threadbare to test the correctness and validity of an order under challenge in an appeal.

23. Most importantly, at the stage of considering the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. for the purposes of taking cognizance, neither the complainant is heard nor any opportunity of hearing is provided to the accused, and this exercise only consists of examining the police report carefully to find out, if, the same is complete in all respects and contains the relevant material such as statements of witnesses recorded under Sections 161 and 164 Cr.P.C., other documentary evidence collected during investigation etc. and makes out a case for further proceedings. Thus, assuming the conclusion of Investigating Officer to be correct, the court passes the cognizance order only to indicate the initiation of criminal proceedings in respect of the alleged commission of offences.

24. Time and again it has been held that at the stage of passing the cognizance order detail reasons are not required to be given by the court and in this regard reference can be made to the decision of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ajay Kumar Parmar Vs. State of Rajasthan, (2012) 12 SCC 406, wherein the following observation have been made:-

"19. The Magistrate, in exercise of its power under Section 190 CrPC, can refuse to take cognizance if the material on record warrants so. The Magistrate must, in such a case, be satisfied that the complaint, case diary, statements of the witnesses recorded under Sections 161 and 164 CrPC, if any, do not make out any offence. At this stage, the Magistrate performs a judicial function. However, he cannot appreciate the evidence on record and reach a conclusion as to which evidence is acceptable, or can be relied upon. Thus, at this stage appreciation of evidence is impermissible. The Magistrate is not competent to weigh the evidence and the balance of probability in the case."

25. Besides, by now it is also a settled law that while examining the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C., even at the stage of framing of charges against the accused, the trial court is not required to examine the proposed defence of the accused. Since, the examination is confined to the material collected during investigation, therefore, appeal against the order taking cognizance filed on the strength of the proposed defence by the accused would otherwise contain a material, which was neither before the trial court nor was examined while passing the order taking cognizance of offences. But, strangely the appellate jurisdiction is frequently invoked by the accused persons under Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989" by relying upon the proposed defence or other relevant material, whereas the same cannot be analyzed for the first time, that too by the appellate court in exercise of appellate powers.

26. Comparatively, as far as the trial proceedings based upon a complaint case is concerned, the same is different in nature as in the said procedure, the evidence of complainant and other witnesses is recorded by the trial court itself, whereupon it forms an opinion to find out, if, a prima facie case for alleged commission of offences is made out for issuance of the process against the accused, or the complaint is dismissed under Section 203 Cr.P.C. Thus, any order passed by Special Court in a complaint case can be effectively assailed in an appeal provided under Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989". In other words, the appellate court would be examining the evidence on record and the reasons given by the Special Court while passing the order under challenge in appeal.

27. Doubtlessly, the nature of the order taking cognizance of offences on a police report cannot be construed as an interlocutory order to hold that in terms of Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989", no appeal against such an order would lie, but in essence the remedy of appeal may not be effective, particularly when the order under challenge does not contain elaborate reasoning. Examining this issue from another angle, it is noticed that in many cases under other penal laws, the challenge to such orders taking cognizance of offences by the court of competent jurisdiction, are made by filing a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., and not by availing the alternative statutory remedy of revision.

28. Now, here the question arises that even if, the remedy of appeal is available to the litigant in terms of Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989" against an order of taking cognizance of offences, whether inherent powers of this Court envisaged under Section 482 Cr.P.C. can be invoked to challenge such an appealable order as well as the entire criminal proceedings? The inherent powers vested with the High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is extraordinary in nature and the same has been examined by the Hon'ble Supreme Court on numerous occasions and in the various decisions it has been invariably held that these powers can be exercised irrespective of the availability of the alternative remedy, if, the case falls within the guidelines and parameters laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. As far as the maintainability of a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is concerned, there is no bar to exercise the said inherent powers. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Raj Kapoor and others Vs. State and others, AIR 1980 SC 258, while discussing the inherent powers of the High Court vested under Section 482 Cr.P.C., made the following observations:-

The first question is as to whether the inherent power of the High Court under Section 482 stands repelled when the revisional power under Section 397 overlaps. The opening words of Section 482 contradict this contention because nothing in the Code, not even Section 397 can affect the amplitude of the inherent power preserved in so many terms by the language of Section 482. Even so, a general principle pervades this branch of law when a specific provision is made; easy resort to inherent power is not right except under compelling circumstances. Not that there is absence of jurisdiction but that inherent power should not invade areas set apart for specific power under the same Code.

In Madhu Limaye's case this Court has exhaustively and, if I may say so with great respect, correctly discussed and delineated the law beyond mistake. While it is true that Section 482 is pervasive it should not subvert legal interdicts written into the same Code, such, for instance, in s. 397(2). Apparent conflict may arise in some situations between the two provisions and a happy solution:

"would be to say that the bar provided in sub- section (2) of section 397 operates only in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court meaning thereby that the High Court will have no power of revision in relation to any interlocutory order. Then in accordance with one or the other principle enunciated above, the inherent power will come into play, there being no other provision in the Code for the redress of the grievance of the aggrieved party. But then if the assailed is purely on an interlocutory character which could be corrected in exercise of the revisional power of the High Court under the 1898 Code, the High Court will refuse to exercise its inherent power. But in case the impugned order clearly brings about a situation which is an abuse of the process of the Court or for the purpose of securing the ends of justice interference by the High Court is absolutely necessary, then nothing contained in Section 397(2) can limit or affect the exercise of the inherent power by the High Court. But such cases would be few and far between. The High Court must exercise the inherent power very sparingly. One such case would be the desirability of the quashing of a criminal proceeding initiated illegally, vexatiously or as being without jurisdiction."

In short, there is no total ban on the exercise of inherent power where abuse of the process of the court or other extra-ordinary situation excites the court's jurisdiction. The limitation is self-restraint, nothing more. The policy of the law is clear that interlocutory orders, pure and simple, should not be taken up to the High Court resulting in unnecessary litigation and delay. At the other extreme, final orders are clearly capable of being considered in exercise of inherent power, if glaring injustice stares the court in the face. In between is a tertium quid, as Untwalia, J. has pointed out as for example, where it is more than a purely interlocutory order and less than a final disposal. The present case falls under that category where the accused complain of harassment through the courts process. Can we state that in this third category the inherent power can be exercised ? In the words of Untwalia. J.:

"The answer is obvious that the bar will not operate to prevent the abuse of the process of the Court and/or to secure the ends of justice. The label of the petition filed by an aggrieved party is immaterial. The High Court can examine the matter in an appropriate case under its inherent powers. The present case undoubtedly falls for exercise of the power of the High Court in accordance with Section 482 of the 1973 Code, even assuming, although not accepting, that invoking the revisional power of the High Court is impermissible."

29. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Bhajan Lal's case (Supra) laid down the guidelines for exercise of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The relevant observation reads as under:-

8.1. In the exercise of the extra-ordinary power under Article 226 or the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the following categories of cases are given by way of illustration wherein such power could be exercised either to prevent abuse of the process of any Court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice, though it may not be possible to lay down any precise, clearly defined and sufficiently channelised and inflexible guide- ï7 myriad kinds of cases wherein such power should be exer- cised:

(a) where the allegations made in the First Information Report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused;

(b) where the allegations in the First Information Report and other materials, if any, accompanying the F.I.R. do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investi- gation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2) of the Code;

(c) where the uncontroverted allegations made in the FIR or 'complaint and the evidence collected in support of the same do not disclose the commission of any offence and make out a case against the accused;

(d) where the allegations in the FIR do not constitute a cognizable offence but constitute only a non-cognizable offence, no investigation is permitted by a police officer without an order of a Magistrate as contemplated under Section 155(2) of the Code;

(e) where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused;

(f) where there is an express legal bar engrafted in any of the provisions of the Code or the concerned Act (under which a criminal proceeding is instituted) to the institu- tion and continuance of the proceedings and/or where there is a specific provision in the Code or the concerned Act, providing efficacious redress for the grievance of the aggrieved party;

(g) where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge.

30. As discussed in the preceding paragraphs that at the stage of framing charges, the trial court is required to look into the material relied upon by the prosecution alone, and the proposed defence of the accused cannot be analyzed, and while examining this issue, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Orissa Vs. Debendra Nath Padhi, AIR 2005 SC 359, has observed that in exceptional cases, the High Court may consider unimpeachable evidence relied upon by accused while exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The relevant observation reads as under:-

16. All the decisions, when they hold that there can only be limited evaluation of materials and documents on record and sifting of evidence to prima facie find out whether sufficient ground exists or not for the purpose of proceeding further with the trial, have so held with reference to materials and documents produced by the prosecution and not the accused. The decisions proceed on the basis of settled legal position that the material as produced by the prosecution alone is to be considered and not the one produced by the accused. The latter aspect relating to the accused though has not been specifically stated, yet it is implicit in the decisions. It seems to have not been specifically so stated as it was taken to be well settled proposition. This aspect, however, has been adverted to in State Anti-Corruption Bureau, Hyderabad and Another v. P. Suryaprakasam [1999 SCC (Crl.) 373] where considering the scope of Sections 239 and 240 of the Code it was held that at the time of framing of charge, what the trial court is required to, and can consider are only the police report referred to under Section 173 of the Code and the documents sent with it. The only right the accused has at that stage is of being heard and nothing beyond that (emphasis supplied). The judgment of the High Court quashing the proceedings by looking into the documents filed by the accused in support of his claim that no case was made out against him even before the trial had commenced was reversed by this Court. It may be noticed here that learned counsel for the parties addressed the arguments on the basis that the principles applicable would be same whether the case be under Sections 227 and 228 or under Sections 239 and 240 of the Code.

xx xx xx xx xx
xx xx xx xx xx

20. Reliance placed on behalf of the accused on some observations made in Minakshi Bala v. Sudhir Kumar and Others [(1994) 4 SCC 142] to the effect that in exceptional cases the High Court can look into only those documents which are unimpeachable and can be legally translated into relevant evidence is misplaced for the purpose of considering the point in issue in these matters. If para 7 of the judgment where these observations have been made is read as a whole, it would be clear that the judgment instead of supporting the contention sought to be put forth on behalf of the accused, in fact, supports the prosecution. Para 7 of the aforesaid case reads as under:-

"If charges are framed in accordance with Section 240 CrPC on a finding that a prima case has been made out - as has been done in the instant case - the persons arraigned may, if he feels aggrieved, invoke the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court or the Sessions Judge to contend that the charge-sheet submitted under Section 173 CrPC and documents sent with it did not disclose any ground to presume that he had committed any offence for which he is charged and the revisional court if so satisfied can quash the charges framed against him. To put it differently, once charges are framed under Sections 240 CrPC the High Court in its revisional jurisdiction would not be justified in relying upon documents other than those referred to in Sections 239 and 240 CrPC; nor would it be justified in invoking its inherent jurisdiction under section 482 CrPC to quash the same except in those rare cases where forensic exigencies and formidable compulsions justify such a course. We hasten to add even in such exceptional cases the High Court can look into only those documents which are unimpeachable and can be legally translated into relevant evidence."

21. It is evident from the above that this Court was considering the rare and exceptional cases where the High Court may consider unimpeachable evidence while exercising jurisdiction for quashing under Section 482 of the Code. In the present case, however, the question involved is not about the exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code where along with the petition the accused may file unimpeachable evidence of sterling quality and on that basis seek quashing, but is about the right claimed by the accused to produce material at the stage of framing of charge. (emphasis supplied)

31. Again in Amit Kapoor Vs. Ramesh Chander and others, (2012) 9 SCC 460, the Hon'ble Supreme Court after discussing the scope of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. laid down the principles to be considered for proper exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The relevant observations are as under:-

19. Having discussed the scope of jurisdiction under these two provisions, i.e., Section 397 and Section 482 of the Code and the fine line of jurisdictional distinction, now it will be appropriate for us to enlist the principles with reference to which the courts should exercise such jurisdiction. However, it is not only difficult but is inherently impossible to state with precision such principles. At best and upon objective analysis of various judgments of this Court, we are able to cull out some of the principles to be considered for proper exercise of jurisdiction, particularly, with regard to quashing of charge either in exercise of jurisdiction under Section 397 or Section 482 of the Code or together, as the case may be :

1) Though there are no limits of the powers of the Court under Section 482 of the Code but the more the power, the more due care and caution is to be exercised in invoking these powers. The power of quashing criminal proceedings, particularly, the charge framed in terms of Section 228 of the Code should be exercised very sparingly and with circumspection and that too in the rarest of rare cases.

2) The Court should apply the test as to whether the uncontroverted allegations as made from the record of the case and the documents submitted therewith prima facie establish the offence or not. If the allegations are so patently absurd and inherently improbable that no prudent person can ever reach such a conclusion and where the basic ingredients of a criminal offence are not satisfied then the Court may interfere.

3) The High Court should not unduly interfere. No meticulous examination of the evidence is needed for considering whether the case would end in conviction or not at the stage of framing of charge or quashing of charge.

4) Where the exercise of such power is absolutely essential to prevent patent miscarriage of justice and for correcting some grave error that might be committed by the subordinate courts even in such cases, the High Court should be loathe to interfere, at the threshold, to throttle the prosecution in exercise of its inherent powers.

5) Where there is an express legal bar enacted in any of the provisions of the Code or any specific law in force to the very initiation or institution and continuance of such criminal proceedings, such a bar is intended to provide specific protection to an accused.

6) The Court has a duty to balance the freedom of a person and the right of the complainant or prosecution to investigate and prosecute the offender.

7) The process of the Court cannot be permitted to be used for an oblique or ultimate/ulterior purpose.

8) Where the allegations made and as they appeared from the record and documents annexed therewith to predominantly give rise and constitute a 'civil wrong' with no 'element of criminality' and does not satisfy the basic ingredients of a criminal offence, the Court may be justified in quashing the charge. Even in such cases, the Court would not embark upon the critical analysis of the evidence.

9) Another very significant caution that the courts have to observe is that it cannot examine the facts, evidence and materials on record to determine whether there is sufficient material on the basis of which the case would end in a conviction, the Court is concerned primarily with the allegations taken as a whole whether they will constitute an offence and, if so, is it an abuse of the process of court leading to injustice.

10) It is neither necessary nor is the court called upon to hold a full-fledged enquiry or to appreciate evidence collected by the investigating agencies to find out whether it is a case of acquittal or conviction.

11) Where allegations give rise to a civil claim and also amount to an offence, merely because a civil claim is maintainable, does not mean that a criminal complaint cannot be maintained.

12) In exercise of its jurisdiction under Section 228 and/or under Section 482, the Court cannot take into consideration external materials given by an accused for reaching the conclusion that no offence was disclosed or that there was possibility of his acquittal. The Court has to consider the record and documents annexed with by the prosecution.

13) Quashing of a charge is an exception to the rule of continuous prosecution. Where the offence is even broadly satisfied, the Court should be more inclined to permit continuation of prosecution rather than its quashing at that initial stage. The Court is not expected to marshal the records with a view to decide admissibility and reliability of the documents or records but is an opinion formed prima facie.

14) Where the charge-sheet, report under Section 173(2) of the Code, suffers from fundamental legal defects, the Court may be well within its jurisdiction to frame a charge.

15) Coupled with any or all of the above, where the Court finds that it would amount to abuse of process of the Code or that interest of justice favours, otherwise it may quash the charge. The power is to be exercised ex debito justitiae, i.e. to do real and substantial justice for administration of which alone, the courts exist. (emphasis supplied)

32. Recently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Ramawatar Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, (2022) 13 SCC 635, again examined the inherent powers of the High Court contained in Section 482 Cr.P.C., specifically in the context of the "Atrocities Act, 1989" and held that where the proceedings are attended with mala fide intentions and would be abuse of the process of law, the High Court can exercise its powers to quash the proceedings. The relevant observations read as under:-

15. Ordinarily, when dealing with offences arising out of special statutes such as the SC/ST Act, the Court will be extremely circumspect in its approach. The SC/ST Act has been specifically enacted to deter acts of indignity, humiliation and harassment against members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. The Act is also a recognition of the depressing reality that despite undertaking several measures, the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes continue to be subjected to various atrocities at the hands of uppercastes. The Courts have to be mindful of the fact that the Act has been enacted keeping in view the express constitutional safeguards enumerated in Articles 15, 17 and 21 of the Constitution, with a twin-fold objective of protecting the members of these vulnerable communities as well as to provide relief and rehabilitation to the victims of caste-based atrocities.

16. On the other hand, where it appears to the Court that the offence in question, although covered under the SC/ST Act, is primarily private or civil in nature, or where the alleged offence has not been committed on account of the caste of the victim, or where the continuation of the legal proceedings would be an abuse of the process of law, the Court can exercise its powers to quash the proceedings. On similar lines, when considering a prayer for quashing on the basis of a compromise/settlement, if the Court is satisfied that the underlying objective of the Act would not be contravened or diminished even if the felony in question goes unpunished, the mere fact that the offence is covered under a 'special statute' would not refrain this Court or the High Court, from exercising their respective powers under Article 142 of the Constitution or Section 482 Cr.P.C.

33. The above view of the Hon'ble Supreme court is again reiterated in Gulam Mustafa Vs. The State of Karnataka and Others, AIR 2023 SC 2999, wherein the offences including the offence under "Atrocities Act, 1989" were quashed. Relevant part is reproduced:-

36. What is evincible from the extant case-law is that this Court has been consistent in interfering in such matters where purely civil disputes, more often than not, relating to land and/or money are given the colour of criminality, only for the purposes of exerting extra-judicial pressure on the party concerned, which, we reiterate, is nothing but abuse of the process of the court. In the present case, there is a huge, and quite frankly, unexplained delay of over 60 years in initiating dispute with regard to the ownership of the land in question, and the criminal case has been lodged only after failure to obtain relief in the civil suits, coupled with denial of relief in the interim therein to the respondent no.2/her family members. It is evident that resort was now being had to criminal proceedings which, in the considered opinion of this Court, is with ulterior motives, for oblique reasons and is a clear case of vengeance.

37. The Court would also note that even if the allegations are taken to be true on their face value, it is not discernible that any offence can be said to have been made out under the SC/ST Act against the appellant. The complaint and FIR are frivolous, vexatious and oppressive.

38. This Court would indicate that the officers, who institute an FIR, based on any complaint, are duty- bound to be vigilant before invoking any provision of a very stringent statute, like the SC/ST Act, which imposes serious penal consequences on the concerned accused. The officer has to be satisfied that the provisions he seeks to invoke prima facie apply to the case at hand. We clarify that our remarks, in no manner, are to dilute the applicability of special/stringent statutes, but only to remind the police not to mechanically apply the law, dehors reference to the factual position.

39. For the reasons aforesaid, the Court finds that the High Court fell in error in not invoking its wholesome power under Section 482 of the Code to quash the FIR. Accordingly, the Impugned Judgment, being untenable in law, is set aside. Consequent thereupon, the FIR, as also any proceedings emanating therefrom, insofar as they relate to the appellant, are quashed and set aside.

34. Also, in many cases where during pendency of the cases, if, the parties arrive at a compromise, even then the appeals are filed before this Court under Section 14-A of "Atrocities Act, 1989" for setting aside the entire criminal proceedings including the order taking cognizance of the offences on the strength of the said compromise. But, in the considered opinion of this Court, such an appeal cannot be construed as an appropriate remedy, particularly when the said compromise between the parties is not a part of the record of the case pending before the Special Court. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has injected some elasticity in laying down the principles for quashing of the criminal proceedings even in non compoundable offences on the basis of compromise, but all such decisions relate to the exercise of inherent powers vested with High Courts under Section 482 Cr.P.C. In Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has also discussed the powers of High Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and the relevant portion reads as under :-

"The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. In what cases power to quash the criminal proceeding or complaint or F.I.R may be exercised where the offender and victim have settled their dispute would depend on the facts and circumstances of each case and no category can be prescribed. However, before exercise of such power, the High Court must have due regard to the nature and gravity of the crime. Heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity, etc. cannot be fittingly quashed even though the victim or victim's family and the offender have settled the dispute. Such offences are not private in nature and have serious impact on society. Similarly, any compromise between the victim and offender in relation to the offences under special statutes like Prevention of Corruption Act or the offences committed by public servants while working in that capacity etc; cannot provide for any basis for quashing criminal proceedings involving such offences. But the criminal cases having overwhelmingly and predominatingly civil flavour stand on different footing for the purposes of quashing, particularly the offences arising from commercial, financial, mercantile, civil, partnership or such like transactions or the offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry, etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. In this category of cases, High Court may quash criminal proceedings if in its view, because of the compromise between the offender and victim, the possibility of conviction is remote and bleak and continuation of criminal case would put accused to great oppression and prejudice and extreme injustice would be caused to him by not quashing the criminal case despite full and complete settlement and compromise with the victim. In other words, the High Court must consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceeding or continuation of the criminal proceeding would tantamount to abuse of process of law despite settlement and compromise between the victim and wrongdoer and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate that criminal case is put to an end and if the answer to the above question(s) is in affirmative, the High Court shall be well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceeding."

35. Consequently, in view of the above discussion, as well as in the light of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court it is abundantly clear that even if, Section 14A "Atrocities Act, 1989" provides for a remedy of appeal against an order taking cognizance of the offences, but in a given case, which falls within the guidelines and parameters laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court for exercise of powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the said remedy can be availed by the litigant, and availability of alternative statutory remedy cannot be a ground for refusal to exercise the inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., if the merits of the case makes out a case for exercise of inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

36. Since, the jurisdiction of the appellate court is limited, therefore, at least in cases where the trial is either yet to commence or pending, the appellate powers cannot be exercised for setting aside the criminal proceedings on the basis of compromise between the parties. In such cases also the appropriate remedy would be to invoke inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

37. Now, while turning back to the merits of these appeals, this Court finds that reliance placed upon by the appellants on the pendency of the civil dispute between the parties in the given set of facts and circumstances of the case is misplaced, as the offence contained in F.I.R. relates to the offences against human body. Further, the case of the prosecution is also supported by the medical evidence of the injured-Lekhi (Annexure No.5), which reveals that in all he suffered ten injuries on various parts of his body. The case of the prosecution is further supported by the statement of Dr. Sushil Kumar, Civil Hospital, Mathura, thus, it cannot be said that ingredients to constitute the offences are not made out against the accused, who are specifically named in the F.I.R.

38. However, as far as the addition of offences in the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. by Special Judge (SC/ST Act), Mathura is concerned, the same is apparently not sustainable in the eyes of law. Again it is observed that at the stage of taking cognizance of offences on the basis of police report, hearing is not provided to the complainant or the accused and addition of the offences under Section 325 and 307 I.P.C. without hearing the accused would certainly result in prejudice to them. Apart from this, in-depth evaluation of the charge sheet under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. is conducted at the stage of considering the prosecution case for the purposes of framing charges against the accused, and if, the material on record indicates that some other offence, which is not contained in the charge sheet is also prima facie made out against the accused, the trial court is well within its jurisdiction and powers to frame charges against the accused in respect of such offences. Consideration of the final report at the stage of taking cognizance of offences is for a limited purposes and while analyzing the similar issue, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Gujarat Vs. Girish Radhakrishnan Varde, 2013 (0) Supreme (SC) 1070, held that the offences cannot be either added or subtracted in the police report at the stage of taking cognizance under Section 190 Cr.P.C. In this regard, the relevant observations made by Hon'ble Supreme Court are reproduced below:-

14. The question, therefore, emerges as to whether the complainant/ informant/prosecution would be precluded from seeking a remedy if the investigating authorities have failed in their duty by not including all the sections of IPC on which offence can be held to have been made out in spite of the facts disclosed in the FIR. The answer obviously has to be in the negative as the prosecution cannot be allowed to suffer prejudice by ignoring exclusion of the sections which constitute the offence if the investigating authorities for any reason whatsoever have failed to include all the offence into the chargesheet based on the FIR on which investigation had been conducted. But then a further question arises as to whether this lacunae can be allowed to be filled in by the magistrate before whom the matter comes up for taking cognizance after submission of the chargesheet and as already stated, the magistrate in a case which is based on a police report cannot add or substract sections at the time of taking cognizance as the same would be permissible by the trial court only at the time of framing of charge under section 216, 218 or under section 228 of the Cr.P.C. as the case may be which means that after submission of the chargesheet it will be open for the prosecution to contend before the appropriate trial court at the stage of framing of charge to establish that on the given state of facts the appropriate sections which according to the prosecution should be framed can be allowed to be framed. Simultaneously, the accused also has the liberty at this stage to submit whether the charge under a particular provision should be framed or not and this is the appropriate forum in a case based on police report to determine whether the charge can be framed and a particular section can be added or removed depending upon the material collected during investigation as also the facts disclosed in the FIR and the chargesheet.

39. In view of above discussion, this Court has no hesitation in holding that only to the limited extent, whereby the claim of the complainant has been accepted by taking cognizance of the offences punishable under Sections 325 and 307 I.P.C. is not sustainable, thus, to that extent, the impugned order dated 17.8.2023 is set aside. However, it shall be open for the complainant/ prosecution as well as the accused to press their respective claims before the Special Court, Mathura at the stage of consideration of the final report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C. for framing of charges.

40. Resultantly, without meaning any expression of opinion on the merits of the case, these appeals are partly allowed and while upholding the impugned order dated 17.8.2023 only to the extent of taking cognizance of offences contained in police report under Section 173(2) Cr.P.C., the remaining part is hereby set aside.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2290
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 03.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MAYANK KUMAR JAIN, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 2700 of 2024

Heera Lal & Anr. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Applicants:
Imran Ullah, Vineet Vikram

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
G.A., Rishikesh Tripathi

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 156(3), 200, 202 & 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 323, 504, 506, 390 & 392 - Application u/s 482 - for quashing the summoning order – issued in a complaint case to face trial u/s 392, 323, 504, 506 IPC – plea has taken by the applicants that applicant no. 1 is a retired judicial officer and is about 87 years old, residing at Kanpur Nagar and suffering from leukoderma a skin disease, it is not possible for him to travel up to Banda to commit such incident - court finds that, opposite party no. 2 is the son-in-law of the applicant no. 1, - after death of daughter of applicant no. 1 his grandson is residing with him, - a civil proceedings to obtain custody of child is pending, - and an application for granting temporary custody of his son is already been dismissed by the concern court – these facts did not disclosed in his complaint – one of the witnesses in his complaint was not produced as witness which creates suspicion about the incident – Moreover, did not immediately seek police assistance by making a call to police help line number – he filed moved a complaint to the SP through registered post after around five weeks of the incident and filed the complaint u/s 156 (3) around two and half month after the alleged incident – held, present case is squirely covered under clause (7) of the judgment of Bhajan lal Vs St. of Har. and the present proceedings are manifested with malafide and are instituted with an ulterior motive due to private and personal grudge – accordingly, the present application is allowed – entire proceedings against the applicants is hereby quashed. (Para – 21, 23, 24, 25)

Application u/s 482 Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Pramod Suryabhan pawar Vs St. of Mah. & anr. (2019 vol 9 SCC 608),

2. Mohammad Wajid & anr. Vs St. of up & ors.(2023 SCC Online SC 951),

3. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal (1992 Supp. 1 SCC 335)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mayank Kumar Jain, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the applicants, learned Additional Government Advocate for the State.

2. Present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed to set aside the impugned order dated 21.7.2023 in Special Criminal Case No. 108 of 2022 passed by the Additional District and Sessions Judge/Special Judge (Dacoit Affected Area), Banda, whereby the applicants have been summoned to face trial under Section 392, 323, 504 and 506 I.P.C. It is also prayed to stay further proceeding of the aforesaid case during pendency of present application.

3. The case of the complainant as set out in this complaint is that:-

3.1. That the marriage of the first informant was solemnized in 2005 with the daughter of applicant no. 1. Out of this wedlock, one son namely Harshit was born. The son is residing with the applicants after the death of his mother.

3.2. The first informant is working as a professor/doctor in Government Hospital, Banda.

3.3. The applicants are keeping Harshit with them without any authority and have fetched thousands of rupees from the first informant.

3.4. On 9.3.2022, at around 3:40 P.M., applicant no. 1 armed with a rifle, applicant no. 2 carrying a hockey stick along with 3-4 unknown persons possessing lathi, danda in their hands, arrived at the house of opposite party no. 2.

3.5. Applicant no. 1 made a demand of Rs. 10 lacs for the education and welfare of Harshit.

3.6. When opposite party No. 2 expressed inability to give such money, applicant no.1 became furious. He exhorted other persons to kill him. The complainant was badly beaten up by all persons with kicks, fists, lathi danda and butt of the rifle.

3.7. Applicant No. 2 snatched gold chain worth Rs. 1,00,000/- and applicant no. 1 took Rs. 50,000/- cash from the drawer. When opposite party No. 2 raised alarm, witnesses Hub Lal and Asha came there. When they challenged the applicants, the applicants ran away threatening the complainant with life.

4. The application under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. was treated as complaint. The statement of complainant was recorded under Section 200 Cr.P.C. The statements of the witnesses such as PW-1 Hub Lal and PW-2 Pavitri Devi were recorded under Section 202 Cr.P.C.

5. The learned Special Judge (DAA), Banda, vide summoning order dated 21.07.2023 summoned the applicants to face trial under Sections 392, 323, 504, and 506 I.P.C.

6. Mr. Imran Ullah, learned counsel for the applicants submitted that applicant no. 1 is a senior citizen aged 87 years. He is a retired Judicial Officer. He retired as Additional District and Sessions Judge in 2004. Opposite party no. 2 is son-in-law of applicant no. 1. Applicant no. 2 is son of applicant no. 1.

7. It is submitted by learned counsel that the applicants are residing in District Kanpur Nagar. It is not possible for applicant no. 1, who is 78 years old to travel up to Banda to commit such incident. He is bracketed an accused by his son-in-law. Opposite party no. 2 instituted proceedings against applicant no.1 to obtain custody of Harshit. The same proceedings are still pending. The interim application of the first informant had been dismissed.

8. It is vehementally argued by the learned counsel for the applicants that date of occurrence, as alleged in the complaint, is 09.03.2022. whereas, the medical examination was allegedly conducted on 12.03.2022. Opposite party No. 2 was posted in the same district hospital at Banda. Therefore, it is highly improbable that one person who is a doctor in the same hospital is not examined at the first opportunity. It is also submitted that application to S.S.P. was given on 16.04.2022, i.e. one month after the date of alleged incident. The complaint has been filed after two and half month from the date of occurrence. These facts demonstrate that the entire proceedings have been initiated as a counter blast on the basis of concocted facts and forged medical report.

9. It is further submitted that the applicant had no reason to go to Banda to demand money for the welfare and education of Harshit. Harshit is happily residing with applicants. The applicant No.1 is suffering with skin disease Leukoderma, and his medical prescriptions are brought on record which indicate that he is continuously on medicine. Due to old age complications, he is unable to walk without any support/assistance.

10. It is also submitted that opposite party no. 2 has performed second marriage after the demise of the daughter of applicant no. 1. Opposite party no. 2 had moved an application for temporary custody of Harshit for 20 days during his summer vacation. The said application was rejected by the Court.

11. It is further submitted that complaint has also been filed against three unknown persons and allegation of maar-peet committed by them is also made. During his statement under Section 200 Cr.P.C., opposite party no. 2 stated that he fell down on floor and sustained injuries. It is submitted that medical examination was conducted after three days of the alleged occurrence and no plausible explanation is offered by the complainant for such inordinate delay. No application to any Superior Authority was given immediately after the alleged incident. He did not make any call to 112 Police Help Line. Names of the unknown persons were not disclosed in primary evidence. The entire story narrated in the complaint is fabricated, unbelievable, and concocted.

12. It is vehemently argued that witness Pavitri Devi is not named as witness in the complaint while the named witness Asha is not produced by the applicant to support the version of the complaint. It is submitted that on the basis of the allegation and evidence available on record, no offence under Sections 392, 323, 504, and 506 I.P.C. is made out against the applicants.

13. Per contra, learned counsel for opposite party no. 2 vehemently opposed the prayer made by learned counsel for the applicant. He submitted that since opposite party no. 2 sustained six injuries, including fracture in his wrist, therefore the incident cannot be considered to be false. When the complainant refused to meet the demands of the applicants, they beat him up with lathi danda and butt of the rifle. Upon exortation by applicant no.1, applicant no. 2 snatched gold chain from the first informant and applicant no. 1 took Rs. 50,000 from the drawer. Therefore, prima facie, offence under Sections 392, 504, 506 I.P.C. is made out.

14. It is further submitted that all the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the applicants are to be examined at the time of trial. It is also submitted that proceedings pending about the custody of the child in Kanpur District Court are civil proceedings, therefore, it cannot be said that opposite party no. 2 instituted the present proceedings as a counter blast.

15. Perused the record.

16. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Pramod Suryabhan Pawar VS State of Maharashtra and another, (2019) 9 SCC 608 has considered the principles, scope, and ambit of the powers of the Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. and held that:

"6. Section 482 is an overriding section which saves the inherent powers of the court to advance the cause of justice. Under Section 482 the inherent jurisdiction of the court can be exercised (i) to give effect to an order under CrPC; (ii) to prevent the abuse of the process of the court; and (iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice. The powers of the court under Section 482 are wide and the court is vested with a significant amount of discretion to decide whether or not to exercise them. The court should be guarded in the use of its extraordinary jurisdiction to quash an FIR or criminal proceeding as it denies the prosecution the opportunity to establish its case through investigation and evidence. These principles have been consistently followed and reiterated by this Court. In Inder Mohan Goswami v. State of Uttaranchal [Inder Mohan Goswami v. State of Uttaranchal, (2007) 12 SCC 1 : (2008) 1 SCC (Cri) 259] , this Court observed : (SCC p. 10, paras 23-24):

"23. This Court in a number of cases has laid down the scope and ambit of courts' powers under Section 482 CrPC. Every High Court has inherent powers to act ex debito justitiae to do real and substantial justice, for the administration of which alone it exists, or to prevent abuse of the process of the court. Inherent power under Section 482 CrPC can be exercised:

(i) to give effect to an order under the Code;

(ii) to prevent abuse of the process of the court, and

(iii) to otherwise secure the ends of justice.

24. Inherent powers under Section 482 CrPC though wide have to be exercised sparingly, carefully and with great caution and only when exercise is justified by the tests specifically laid down in this section itself. Authority of the court exists for the advancement of justice. If any abuse of the process leading to injustice is brought to the notice of the court, then the court would be justified in preventing injustice by invoking inherent powers in absence of specific provisions in the statute."

7. Given the varied nature of cases that come before the High Courts, any strict test as to when the court's extraordinary powers can be exercised is likely to tie the court's hands in the face of future injustices. This Court in State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal [State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal, 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 : 1992 SCC (Cri) 426] conducted a detailed study of the situations where the court may exercise its extraordinary jurisdiction and laid down a list of illustrative examples of where quashing may be appropriate. It is not necessary to discuss all the examples, but a few bear relevance to the present case. The Court in Bhajan Lal [State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal, 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335 : 1992 SCC (Cri) 426] noted that quashing may be appropriate where: (SCC pp. 378-79, para 102)

"102. ... (1) Where the allegations made in the first information report or the complaint, even if they are taken at their face value and accepted in their entirety do not prima facie constitute any offence or make out a case against the accused.

(2) Where the allegations in the first information report and other materials, if any, accompanying the FIR do not disclose a cognizable offence, justifying an investigation by police officers under Section 156(1) of the Code except under an order of a Magistrate within the purview of Section 155(2).

***

(7) Where a criminal proceeding is manifestly attended with mala fide and/or where the proceeding is maliciously instituted with an ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance on the accused and with a view to spite him due to private and personal grudge."

8. In deciding whether to exercise its jurisdiction under Section 482, the Court does not adjudicate upon the veracity of the facts alleged or enter into an appreciation of competing evidence presented. The limited question is whether on the face of the FIR, the allegations constitute a cognizable offence. As this Court noted in Dhruvaram Murlidhar Sonar v. State of Maharashtra [Dhruvaram Murlidhar Sonar v. State of Maharashtra, (2019) 18 SCC 191 : 2018 SCC OnLine SC 3100], (Dhruvaram Sonar) : (SCC para 13)

"13. It is clear that for quashing the proceedings, meticulous analysis of factum of taking cognizance of an offence by the Magistrate is not called for. Appreciation of evidence is also not permissible in exercise of inherent powers. If the allegations set out in the complaint do not constitute the offence of which cognizance has been taken, it is open to the High Court to quash the same in exercise of its inherent powers."

17. In the case of Mohammad Wajid and Another Vs. State of U.P. and Others, reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 951, the Hon'ble Apex Court observes that:-

"34. At this stage, we would like to observe something important. Whenever an accused comes before the Court invoking either the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) or extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution to get the FIR or the criminal proceedings quashed essentially on the ground that such proceedings are manifestly frivolous or vexatious or instituted with the ulterior motive for wreaking vengeance, then in such circumstances the Court owes a duty to look into the FIR with care and a little more closely. We say so because once the complainant decides to proceed against the accused with an ulterior motive for wreaking personal vengeance, etc., then he would ensure that the FIR/complaint is very well drafted with all the necessary pleadings. The complainant would ensure that the averments made in the FIR/complaint are such that they disclose the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence. Therefore, it will not be just enough for the Court to look into the averments made in the FIR/complaint alone for the purpose of ascertaining whether the necessary ingredients to constitute the alleged offence are disclosed or not. In frivolous or vexatious proceedings, the Court owes a duty to look into many other attending circumstances emerging from the record of the case over and above the averments and, if need be, with due care and circumspection try to read in between the lines. The Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 482 of the CrPC or Article 226 of the Constitution need not restrict itself only to the stage of a case but is empowered to take into account the overall circumstances leading to the initiation/registration of the case as well as the materials collected in the course of investigation....."

35. In State of Andhra Pradesh v. Golconda Linga Swamy, (2004) 6 SCC 522, a two-Judge Bench of this Court elaborated on the types of materials the High Court can assess to quash an FIR. The Court drew a fine distinction between consideration of materials that were tendered as evidence and appreciation of such evidence. Only such material that manifestly fails to prove the accusation in the FIR can be considered for quashing an FIR. The Court held:—

"5. ...Authority of the court exists for advancement of justice and if any attempt is made to abuse that authority so as to produce injustice, the court has power to prevent such abuse. It would be an abuse of the process of the court to allow any action which would result in injustice and prevent promotion of justice. In exercise of the powers court would be justified to quash any proceeding if it finds that initiation or continuance of it amounts to abuse of the process of court or quashing of these proceedings would otherwise serve the ends of justice. When no offence is disclosed by the complaint, the court may examine the question of fact. When a complaint is sought to be quashed, it is permissible to look into the materials to assess what the complainant has alleged and whether any offence is made out even if the allegations are accepted in toto."

6. In R.P. Kapur v. State of Punjab, AIR 1960 SC 866 : 1960 Cri LJ 1239, this Court summarised some categories of cases where inherent power can and should be exercised to quash the proceedings : (AIR p. 869, para 6)

(i) where it manifestly appears that there is a legal bar against the institution or continuance e.g. want of sanction;

(ii) where the allegations in the first information report or complaint taken at its face value and accepted in their entirety do not constitute the offence alleged;

(iii) where the allegations constitute an offence, but there is no legal evidence adduced or the evidence adduced clearly or manifestly fails to prove the charge.

7. In dealing with the last category, it is important to bear in mind the distinction between a case where there is no legal evidence or where there is evidence which is clearly inconsistent with the accusations made, and a case where there is legal evidence which, on appreciation, may or may not support the accusations. When exercising jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code, the High Court would not ordinarily embark upon an enquiry whether the evidence in question is reliable or not or whether on a reasonable appreciation of it accusation would not be sustained. That is the function of the trial Judge. Judicial process, no doubt should not be an instrument of oppression, or, needless harassment. Court should be circumspect and judicious in exercising discretion and should take all relevant facts and circumstances into consideration before issuing process, lest it would be an instrument in the hands of a private complainant to unleash vendetta to harass any person needlessly. At the same time the section is not an instrument handed over to an accused to short-circuit a prosecution and bring about its sudden death....."

18. Perusal of record goes to show that the complaint was filed against the applicants alongwith 3 unknown persons. It has been alleged that the applicants along with 3 unknown persons had beaten up opposite party no. 2 with lathi danda and butt of the rifle. Participation of unknown persons is not substantiated during the statements adduced as primary evidence. Besides this, their names and identification was also not disclosed by the complainant and his witnesses. Therefore, it appears to be unbelievable that all the injuries, sustained by opposite party no. 2, were caused by applicant no. 2 only.

19. Section 390 I.P.C. provides thus:

390. Robbery.—

"In all robbery there is either theft or extortion.When theft is robbery.— Theft is "robbery" if, in order to the committing of the theft, or in committing the theft, or in carrying away or attempting to carry away property obtained by the theft, the offender, for that end, voluntarily causes or attempts to cause to any person death or hurt or wrongful restraint, or fear of instant death or of instant hurt, or of instant wrongful restraint.When extortion is robbery.— Extortion is "robbery" if the offender, at the time of committing the extortion, is in the presence of the person put in fear, and commits the extortion by putting that person in fear of instant death, of instant hurt, or of instant wrongful restraint to that person or to some other person, and, by so putting in fear, induces the person so put in fear then and there to deliver up the thing extorted."

20. In the case of Mohammad Wajid and Another Vs. State of U.P. and Others (supra), the Hon'ble Apex Court observes that:

"15. Theft amounts to 'robbery' if, in order to the committing of the theft, or in committing the theft, or in carrying away or attempting to carry away property obtained by the theft, the offender for that end, voluntarily causes or attempts to cause to any person death or hurt or wrongful restraint, or fear of instant death or of instant hurt, or of instant wrongful restraint. Before theft can amount to 'robbery', the offender must have voluntarily caused or attempted to cause to any person death or hurt or wrongful restraint, or fear of instant death or of instant hurt, or of instant wrongful restraint. The second necessary ingredient is that this must be in order to the committing of the theft, or in committing the theft, or in carrying away or attempting to carry away property obtained by the theft. The third necessary ingredient is that the offender must voluntarily cause or attempt to cause to any person hurt etc., for that end, that is, in order to the committing of the theft or for the purpose of committing theft or for carrying away or attempting to carry away property obtained by the theft. It is not sufficient that in the transaction of committing theft, hurt, etc., had been caused. If hurt, etc., is caused at the time of the commission of the theft but for an object other than the one referred to in Section 390, IPC, theft would not amount to robbery. It is also not sufficient that hurt had been caused in the course of the same transaction as commission of the theft.

16. The three ingredients mentioned in Section 390, IPC, must always be satisfied before theft can amount to robbery, and this has been explained in Bishambhar Nath v. Emperor, AIR 1941 Oudh 476, in the following words:—

"The words "for that end" in sec. 390 clearly mean that the hurt caused by the offender must be with the express object of facilitating the committing of the theft, or must be caused while the offender is committing the theft or is carrying away or is attempting to carry away the property obtained by theft. It does not mean that the assault or the hurt must be caused in the same transaction or in the same circumstances."

17. In Karuppa Gounden v. Emperor, AIR 1918 Mad 821, which followed two Calcutta cases of Otaruddi Manjhi v. Kafiluddi Manjhi, (1900-01) 5 CWN 372, and King Emperor v. Mathura Thakur, (1901-02) 6 CWN 72, it has been observed at page 824 as follows:—

"Now it is our duty to give effect to the words "for that end". It would have been open to the legislature to have used other words which would not raise the difficulty that arises here. The Public Prosecutor has been forced to argue that "for that end" must be read as meaning 'in those circumstances'. In my opinion we cannot do that in construing a section in the Penal Code. Undoubtedly, words 'in those circumstances' would widen the application of the section and we are not permitted to do that. The matter has been considered in two judgments of the Calcutta High Court one of which is reported as Otaruddi Manjhi v. Kafiluddi Manjhi (1900-01) 5 CWN 372. Their Lordships put the question in this way:

"It seems to us that the whole question turns upon the words "for that end". Was any hurt or fear of instant hurt, that was caused in the present case, caused for the end of the commission of the theft? We think not. It seems to us that whatever violence was used for the purpose of dispossessing the persons who were already in possession of the premises in question and had no relation to the commission of theft, although theft was committed at the same time."

18. Ordinarily, if violence or hurt is caused at the time of theft, it would be reasonable to infer that violence or hurt was caused for facilitating the commission of the theft or for facilitating the carrying away of the property stolen or for facilitating the attempt to do so. But there may be something in the evidence to indicate that hurt or violence was caused not for this purpose but for a different purpose....."

****

28. Section 504 of the IPC contemplates intentionally insulting a person and thereby provoking such person insulted to breach the peace or intentionally insulting a person knowing it to be likely that the person insulted may be provoked so as to cause a breach of the public peace or to commit any other offence. Mere abuse may not come within the purview of the section. But, the words of abuse in a particular case might amount to an intentional insult provoking the person insulted to commit a breach of the public peace or to commit any other offence. If abusive language is used intentionally and is of such a nature as would in the ordinary course of events lead the person insulted to break the peace or to commit an offence under the law, the case is not taken away from the purview of the Section merely because the insulted person did not actually break the peace or commit any offence having exercised selfcontrol or having been subjected to abject terror by the offender. In judging whether particular abusive language is attracted by Section 504, IPC, the court has to find out what, in the ordinary circumstances, would be the effect of the abusive language used and not what the complainant actually did as a result of his peculiar idiosyncrasy or cool temperament or sense of discipline. It is the ordinary general nature of the abusive language that is the test for considering whether the abusive language is an intentional insult likely to provoke the person insulted to commit a breach of the peace and not the particular conduct or temperament of the complainant.

29. Mere abuse, discourtesy, rudeness or insolence, may not amount to an intentional insult within the meaning of Section 504, IPC if it does not have the necessary element of being likely to incite the person insulted to commit a breach of the peace of an offence and the other element of the accused intending to provoke the person insulted to commit a breach of the peace or knowing that the person insulted is likely to commit a breach of the peace. Each case of abusive language shall have to be decided in the light of the facts and circumstances of that case and there cannot be a general proposition that no one commits an offence under Section 504, IPC if he merely uses abusive language against the complainant. In King Emperor v. Chunnibhai Dayabhai, (1902) 4 Bom LR 78, a Division Bench of the Bombay High Court pointed out that:—

"To constitute an offence under Section 504, I.P.C. it is sufficient if the insult is of a kind calculated to cause the other party to lose his temper and say or do something violent. Public peace can be broken by angry words as well as deeds."

30. A bare perusal of Section 506 of the IPC makes it clear that a part of it relates to criminal intimidation. Before an offence of criminal intimidation is made out, it must be established that the accused had an intention to cause alarm to the complainant."

21. Admittedly, opposite party no. 2 is the son-in-law of applicant no. 1. The daughter of applicant no. 1 has passed away. The grandson of applicant no. 1 is residing with him after her death. Opposite party no. 2 has instituted civil proceedings in Kanpur Nagar to obtain custody of his son. The application for granting temporary custody of Harshit has already been dismissed by the concerned Court. The first informant did not disclose these facts in his complaint.

22. Pertinent to mention here that the first informant name Asha as one of the witnesses in his complaint. She was not produced under Section 202 Cr.P.C. as witness. PW-2 Pavitri Devi, instead, was produced as witness. This fact creates suspicion about the incident.

23. It is worthy to note that applicant no. 1 is aged 87 years old. He is suffering with "Leukoderma", a skin disease. Besides this, several documents relating to his treatment are brought on record. Considering the age and health condition of applicant no. 1, it seems unbelievable that he could travel from Kanpur Nagar to Banda along with his rifle and to commit alleged incident.

24. It is also taken into consideration that opposite party No. 2 was working as Assistant Professor/Doctor at District Hospital, Banda in which he was medically examined on 12.3.2022. The date of occurrence is mentioned in the complaint filed by opposite party no. 2 as 9.3.2022. It is highly improbable that a doctor who is posted in the same hospital, was examined after three days of the incident. Moreover, opposite party no. 2 did not immediately seek police assistance by making a call to police help line number 112. The complainant moved an application to S.P Hamirpur through registered post on 16.04.2022 i.e. after around five weeks of the incident. The complaint is filed by him on 28.5.2022 i.e. around two and half month after the alleged incident. Opposite party no. 2 did not offer any plausible explanation for such inordinate delay.

25. On the basis of the facts and circumstances of the case, the present case is squarely covered under clause (7) of the judgement Bhajan Lal vs. State of Haryana (supra). In view of the foregoing discussion, the Court is of the view that present proceedings are manifested with malafide and are instituted with an ulterior motive due to private and personal grudge. Therefore, the application deserved to be allowed.

26. Accordingly, the present application U/s 482 is allowed.

27. The entire proceedings against the applicants in aforesaid case is hereby quashed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2299
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIKRAM D. CHAUHAN, J.

Application U/S 482 No. 36921 of 2018

Shabban Khan & Ors. ...Applicants
Versus
State of U.P. & Anr. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Applicants:
Mukhtar Alam, Saquib Mukhtar

Counsel for the Respondents:
G.A., Pankaj Satsangi

Criminal Law - Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 212, 213 & 482 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections – 323, 506 & 498-A - The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 – Sections – 3 & 4 - Application on behalf of the Sisters-in-law & Brother-in-law – for quashing the entire criminal proceeding – FIR – as per prosecution case, allegations are that, after marriage, when the informant come to her matrimonial home, accused persons are taunted her for brining less dowry and further demanded more dowry – court finds that, the law contemplates demand of dowry as punishable, however, the taunting for giving less gifts by itself is not a penal offence – more so, the demand alleged to have been made against the accused persons are general and wholly vague in nature - the date, time and manner in which the demand was made is also not been St.d in prosecution case – in terms of section 498-A IPC the cruelty would be any wilful conduct which is of such a nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health of the woman are also not shown by the prosecution – even during investigation no specific role has been assigned to the applicants – held, criminal proceedings against applicants are absurd and improbable that no prudent mind can arrived at conclusion for proceedings against applicants in view of the vague allegations – hence, entire proceedings is hereby set-aside – present application is accordingly partly allowed.
(Para – 23, 31, 32, 33, 34)

Application u/s 482 partly Allowed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Kahkashan Kausar Vs St. of Bihar (2022 6 SCC 599),

2. Achin Gupta Vs St. of Har. (2024 INSC 369),

3. Neelu Chopra Vs Bharti (2009 10 SCC 184),

4. St. of Har. Vs Bhajan Lal (1992 Supp. 1 SCC 335),

5. SMS Pharmaceuticals Ltd. Vs Neeta Bhalla (2005 8 SCC 89).

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vikram D. Chauhan, J.)

1. Heard Sri Saquib Mukhtar, learned counsel for the applicants and learned AGA for the State.

1-A. No one has appeared on behalf of opposite party no.2. Previously on 20.02.2024, the case was proceeded ex-parte against opposite party no. 2.

2. This application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed by the applicants for quashing the entire proceedings of Criminal Case No. 6213 of 2018 (State vs. Shabban Khan and others) under Sections 498A, 323, 506 IPC and Section 3/4 of D.P. Act, P.S. Bilsi, District Budaun arising out of Case Crime No. 689 of 2017 as well as charge-sheet dated 20.05.2018.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that initially the present application was filed by five applicants, however, relief in respect of applicant no. 1-Shabban Khan (husband) has been rejected vide order dated 11.10.2018 and during pendency of the application, applicant no. 2-Shahidan Khan has died. As such, counsel for the applicants is not pressing the application in respect of applicant nos. 1 and 2, namely Shabban Khan and Smt. Shahidan Khan, respectively.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that he is pressing the application only on behalf of applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5, who are married sister-in-law, brother-in-law and unmarried sister-in-law.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the applicants that the first information report was lodged on 04.12.2017 by the opposite party no. 2-wife with allegations that on 07.05.2017, the opposite party no. 2 was married with applicant no. 1-Shabban Khan and dowry was given at the time of marriage. Thereafter, husband and other accused persons were harassing the opposite party no. 2 and her family members for dowry. Learned counsel for applicants submits that allegations are also with regard to assault, however, there is no injury report in respect of the same.

6. It is further submitted by learned counsel for the applicants that allegations with regard to threatening have also been levelled in the first information report. Statement of the informant recorded under Section 161 Cr.P.C. is verbatim to the allegations in the first information report. He submits that general and vague allegations have been made in the FIR against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5, however, no specific role has been assigned. Reliance has been placed on the judgment of Supreme Court rendered in Kahkashan Kausar @ Sonam and others vs. State of Bihar and others1, to submit that the present criminal proceedings against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 are liable to be quashed.

7. Learned A.G.A. has opposed the present application, however, he does not dispute the fact that no specific role has been assigned in the present case in respect of applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5.

8. Criminal law is set in motion by lodging of the First information report or complaint. The investigation is carried upon to find the truth in allegations. Setting in motion criminal law entails consequences including curtailing of liberty of individual. The criminal prosecution is based on the nature of allegations and the evidence found during investigation. It is important for the prosecution to provide material details of the allegations and evidence to support their allegations.

9. Vague and ambiguous allegation can violate the right of the accused to due process of law and fair trial. It is fundamental principal of law that accused is subjected to fair trial. Vague allegation has significant effect on defence by creating uncertainty. Without specific details and evidence, the defence of accused may be prejudiced or accused may not be able to effectively defend himself.

10. Vague allegations can affect the defence of accused by making it difficult to formulate a targeted defence strategy. Without clear specifics or evidence to address, accused may struggle to refute the allegations or present a compelling counter argument. Lawyers typically rely on specific information to prepare their case, such as dates, time, location, and witnesses. Vague allegations lack these crucial details, leaving the defence to speculate or generalize their response, which can weaken their defence in court. The mere suggestion of wrongdoing, without substantiation, can lead to stigma and prejudice against the accused, making it harder for them to receive a fair trial. Moreover, vague allegations may prolong legal proceedings as the defence attempts to gather more information to understand the allegations.

11. In State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal2, the supreme court has has laid down the categories of cases by way of illustration wherein power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. could be exercised either to prevent abuse of process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. One of the categories pointed out in the said judgement is stated in para 102 (5) which is quoted herein below :

"(5) Where the allegations made in the FIR or complaint are so absurd and inherently improbable on the basis of which no prudent person can ever reach a just conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused."

12. In law, prudent person is a hypothetical person who in the facts and circumstances would conduct in a reasonable, just and fair manner. In the context of vague allegations at the stage of cognizance or summoning of accused, it is to be examined whether on the basis of the allegations in the complaint or the first information report and the evidence collected during investigation it can be said that a prudent person would come to the conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the accused. The insufficiency of ground for proceedings against an accused may also arise when material particulars in respect of the alleged offence are absent. The sufficiency of material against an accused is a condition precedent for proceedings against an accused.

13. In S.M.S. Pharmaceuticals Ltd. v. Neeta Bhalla3, the Supreme Court has laid emphasis that the complaint must contain material to enable the court to make up mind for issuing process.

"5.Section 203 of the Code empowers a Magistrate to dismiss a complaint without even issuing a process. It uses the words "after considering" and "the Magistrate is of opinion that there is no sufficient ground for proceeding". These words suggest that the Magistrate has to apply his mind to a complaint at the initial stage itself and see whether a case is made out against the accused persons before issuing process to them on the basis of the complaint. For applying his mind and forming an opinion as to whether there is sufficient ground for proceeding, a complaint must make out a prima facie case to proceed. This, in other words, means that a complaint must contain material to enable the Magistrate to make up his mind for issuing process. If this were not the requirement, consequences could be far-reaching. If a Magistrate had to issue process in every case, the burden of work before the Magistrate as well as the harassment caused to the respondents to whom process is issued would be tremendous. Even Section 204 of the Code starts with the words "if in the opinion of the Magistrate taking cognizance of an offence there is sufficient ground for proceeding". The words "sufficient ground for proceeding" again suggest that ground should be made out in the complaint for proceeding against the respondent. It is settled law that at the time of issuing of the process the Magistrate is required to see only the allegations in the complaint and where allegations in the complaint or the charge-sheet do not constitute an offence against a person, the complaint is liable to be dismissed."

14. The question therefore arises what is the material which is required to be before the court to issue process under criminal law. The material facts and particulars to constitute an offence are required to be shown by the prosecution before the court proceeds to issue the process. The material facts and particulars are those facts which essentially would be required to constitute an offence. These facts would also include such facts which the law recognizes as important facts for proceeding with the trial of the case. These facts are also necessary to bring fairness in the process of trial.

15. The rule of law requires that the accused is visited with specific allegations in criminal prosecution. Specific allegation under criminal law would require that date, time and place of alleged offence is specified. The details of the person against whom the offence is committed or the thing in respect of which the offence was committed are disclosed. The allegations should also describe the manner in which the offence is committed.

16. In Neelu Chopra v. Bharti4, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has emphasised the need for specific and proper allegation in criminal law.

"9.In order to lodge a proper complaint, mere mention of the sections and the language of those sections is not be all and end all of the matter. What is required to be brought to the notice of the court is the particulars of the offence committed by each and every accused and the role played by each and every accused in committing of that offence."

17. The Criminal procedure code not only provide the procedure to proceed against any person under criminal law. It also provides various checks to ensure that the criminal law is applied fairly on any accused person. The aforesaid aspect of fairness in criminal trial is essential in view of Article 21 of the Constitution. One of the essential part of criminal trial after the cognizance is taken is the framing of charge against an accused person. The object of framing of charge is to enable an accused to have a clear idea of what he is being tried for and the essential facts which the accused is required to meet in the trial. Section 212 of the criminal procedure code mandates that the charge shall contain such particulars as to the time and place of the alleged offence and the person against whom or the thing in respect of which it was committed as a reasonably sufficient to give accused notice of the matter with which he is charged. Section 213 of the criminal procedure code further requires that the manner of committing offence must be stated in the charge.

18. The aforesaid requirement of law indicate that the aforesaid information is required to be disclosed to accused so that he is able to meet out the same at the trial. An incomplete, vague and omnibus allegation without specific details would violate section 212 and 213 of the Cr.P.C. It is after the Magistrate/court takes cognizance of the offence at a subsequent stage there is no possibility of supplying the aforesaid details to the accused if the same is not part of the final report/charge-sheet. It is therefore imperative that when the summons are issued the requirement of law is seen by the court concerned to have been fulfilled prior to taking cognizance.

19. It is true that the first information report is not an Encyclopedia and may not contain all material details however once an investigation is carried out it is the duty of the investigating officer to investigate into the material facts and particulars before submission of charge-sheet. The aforesaid material particulars would be necessary at the time of framing of charge. Once the material particulars are missing then in the event the trial is proceeded with the same would be in violation of the mandate under section 212 and 213 of the Cr.P.C. It is the duty of the investigating officer to investigate whether the material particulars are available in respect of the offence in question.

20. The material particular form the foundation for proceeding against an accused person under criminal law. It would be wholly impermissible under law for the informant/complainant to make allegation with regard to committing of an offence by an accused person without the material particulars as to how the offence has been committed being stated. A prudent man would never reach a conclusion for proceeding against accused person when the material particulars has not been provided by the prosecution. It is to be reminded that criminal law machinery has traits of curtailing liberty of an individual as such allegations against accused person must have factual foundation. Mere mention of the language of the section by itself would not be sufficient for the prosecution to proceed against the accused person. The particulars of offence committed by each accused person and the role played by each person in committing the offence is essentially required.

21. The effect of absence of specific allegations have been considered by the Supreme Court in Achin Gupta Vs State of Haryana5, which is quoted herein below:

"25. If a person is made to face a criminal trial on some general and sweeping allegations without bringing on record any specific instances of criminal conduct, it is nothing but abuse of the process of the court. The court owes a duty to subject the allegations levelled in the complaint to a thorough scrutiny to find out, prima facie, whether there is any grain of truth in the allegations or whether they are made only with the sole object of involving certain individuals in a criminal charge, more particularly when a prosecution arises from a matrimonial dispute"

22. The Supreme Court has laid down that general and omnibus allegations without any specification are prima facie indicative of matrimonial dispute between the parties and as such do not warrant prosecution. In this respect attention is drawn to the observations made by Supreme Court in Kahkashan Kausar v. State of Bihar6,, which is quoted herein below:

"18. Coming to the facts of this case, upon a perusal of the contents of the FIR dated 1-4-2019, it is revealed that general allegations are levelled against the appellants. The complainant alleged that "all accused harassed her mentally and threatened her of terminating her pregnancy". Furthermore, no specific and distinct allegations have been made against either of the appellants herein i.e. none of the appellants have been attributed any specific role in furtherance of the general allegations made against them. This simply leads to a situation wherein one fails to ascertain the role played by each accused in furtherance of the offence. The allegations are, therefore, general and omnibus and can at best be said to have been made out on account of small skirmishes. Insofar as husband is concerned, since he has not appealed against the order of the High Court, we have not examined the veracity of allegations made against him. However, as far as the appellants are concerned, the allegations made against them being general and omnibus, do not warrant prosecution."

23. In the present case, applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 are proceeded with under section 498A, 323, 506 I.P.C. and ¾ Dowry Prohibition Act. As per the prosecution case, informant–wife was married to applicant no. 1 on 07.05.2017. The first information report is lodged on 04.12.2017. The first information report is lodged against accused person under the above mentioned sections. It is alleged that at the time of marriage the parents of the informant has given to applicant no. 1 rupees 4 lakhs for purchase of plot, one motorcycle, fridge, cooler, television, double bed, washing machine and to the informant Jewellary. After marriage when the informant went to the house of her husband all the accused person started harassing for giving less dowry in the marriage. The accused person demanded one car in dowry and assaulted the informant. When the informant confronted the accused person in respect of demand of dowry, the accused persons assaulted the informant. The conduct of accused person was disclosed to the parents of informant by the informant herself and when the parents of informant intervened it was stated by accused person that without giving car they will not keep the informant at her matrimonial home. It is further alleged that the accused persons were harassing the informant and were making the informant do the daily work of household. It is further alleged in first information that accused persons have administered medicine to the informant as a result of the same she became sick and thereafter the informant was thrown out of house just before the festival of Eid and threatened not to come back to matrimonial home without fulfilling the demand of car otherwise the informant would be killed. Thereafter conciliation meetings have been held however the accused person are not ready to keep informant with them.

24. The statement of the victim under Section 161 Cr.P.C. has been recorded during investigation a copy of the same has been filed along with the present 482 application. A perusal of the aforesaid statement of the informant during investigation would demonstrate that the informant has reiterated the allegations made in first information report. The informant has also stated that no medical examination was made as she had not received any external injury.

25. The investigating officer has also recorded statement of Nirale Khan who is father of the informant. The aforesaid witness has stated that as daughter was married on 07.05.2017 with the applicant no. 1 and in the marriage he had given rupees 400,000/- for purchase of plot and other gift items to the tune of rupees 10 lakhs. He has further stated that when his daughter reached her matrimonial home then the accused person were harassing the informant for less dowry given at the time of marriage and demanded for the dowry and assaulted the informant. He has further stated that the aforesaid incident was informed by his daughter. It is also alleged that the accused persons had thrown out informant from the matrimonial home just before the festival of Eid and has stated not to come back without demand of car being fulfilled. It is also alleged that accused persons have administered some medicine to the informant as a result of same informant became sick. The aforesaid witness has further stated that the receipt of the item given in dowry is lost and is not available.

26. The investigating officer has further recorded the statement of Smt Junaida who is mother of informant. The aforesaid witness has stated that informant was married to applicant no 1 on 07.05.2017. It is further stated that in the marriage rupees 4 lakh was given for purchase of plot. It is also stated that fridge, cooler, washing machine, television, double bed, jewellery and other items were given at the time of marriage. In the marriage rupees 10 lakh was spent. It is further stated that when the informant went to the matrimonial home after marriage she was harassed by the accused person for bringing less dowry and demanded one car. Before the festival of Eid accused persons assaulted the informant and thrown her out of the house and had threatened not to come back without fulfilling the demand for car otherwise she would be killed. It is also stated that the conciliation process was also undated, however, accused persons did not agree.

27. Thereafter the investigating officer has submitted charge-sheet on 20.05.2018 and the cognizance has been taken by the court concerned on 27.07.2018. The applicants in the charge-sheet has been proceeded under section 498A, 323, 506 of the IPC and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

28. It is further to be seen that section 498A IPC provides penal consequences where the husband or relative of the husband of a woman subjects such woman to cruelty. The cruelty has been explained in explanation appended to provisions of section 498A IPC. There are two explanations provided under the aforesaid provision for interpretation of the word cruelty provided under the aforesaid section. The explanation (a) provides that the cruelty would mean any willful conduct which is of such nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health (whether mental or physical). The explanation (b) provides cruelty would mean harassment of the woman where such harassment is with a view to coerce her or any person related to her to meet any unlawful demand for any property or valuable security or is on account of failure of her or any person related to her to meet such demand.

29. The law contemplates a woman to cruelty by the husband or relative of the husband where the demand are unlawful for any property or valuable security and the woman is harassed in respect of the same. The demand for property or valuable security is required to be unlawful. The demand would be unlawful where the same is prohibited by law or the law punishes the aforesaid demand. The demand for dowry is prohibited under the law and is also a punishable offence. The demand of an amount or thing by the husband or the relative of the husband is required to be unlawful. Where the demand has been made by the husband or his relative after marriage, however, not in connection with the marriage of the parties the same may not amount to dowry in accordance with the definition of Dowry under Section 2 of Dowry Prohibition Act. However, where any demand for property or valuable security is made before or any time after marriage in connection with the marriage of the parties, the same would come within the mischief of section 498A IPC. The words in connection with the marriage of the parties has significance that the demand for dowry is made by parties to the marriage.

30. A perusal of the first information report, as well as, the statement of the witnesses, above mentioned, would demonstrate that there is allegation with regard to payment of rupees 4 lakhs to applicant no.1 for purchase of plot at the time of marriage. The first information report and the statement of the witness does not allege that the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 demanded the aforesaid amount from the informant or her family members. In the first information report or the statement of the witness it has not been stated that the various items given at the time of marriage were demanded by the applicant no. 3, 4 and 5.

31. As per prosecution case, it is alleged that after marriage when the informant came to the matrimonial home, accused persons taunted for bringing less dowry and further demanded one car and have assaulted the informant. The law contemplates demand of dowry as punishable, however, the taunting for giving less gifts by itself is not a penal offence. The demand alleged to have been made by the accused person is wholly vague in nature. The date, time and manner in which the demand was made is not been stated in the prosecution case. General and vague allegations with regard to demand of dowry by the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 after marriage has been made. It has not been stated that what role has been played by each accused person in respect of the alleged offence.

32. There are allegations against the accused person for physical assault, however, neither the date has been stated when the assault took place nor the role assigned to each accused person is stated in the prosecution case. It has not been shown by the State that there was any injury report in respect of the alleged incident. In terms of section 498A IPC the cruelty would be any willful conduct which is of such a nature as is likely to drive the woman to commit suicide or to cause grave injury or danger to life, limb or health of the woman. It has not shown by the prosecution whether the informant has suffered any grave injury or danger to life, limb or health. The omnibus allegations have been made against the applicant no 3, 4 and 5, however, what role has been played by the aforesaid applicants is not stated in prosecution case.

33. It is also alleged in first information report that the applicants have threatened for life if the car is not given in dowry. The applicants are proceeded under section 506 IPC in this respect. Even in this respect allegations are general in nature and during investigation no specific role has been assigned to the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5. The allegations against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 are not such that a prudent man can arrive at the conclusion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding against the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5. Learned AGA could not show any material to substantiate that specific allegations existed against the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5. The State has also not brought on record any injury report in respect of allegation of assault nor it is shown that during investigation specific allegations have been found by investigating officer against the applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5.

34. In view of the fact that allegations in the present case are vague in nature and lacks specification in respect of applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5, the criminal proceedings against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 are absurd and improbable that no prudent mind can arrive at conclusion for proceeding against applicants in view of the vague allegations.

35. In view thereof, the present criminal proceedings against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5 are bad in law, therefore, entire proceedings of Criminal Case No. 6213 of 2018 (State vs. Shabban Khan and others) under Sections 498A, 323, 506 IPC and Section 3/4 of D.P. Act, P.S. Bilsi, District Budaun arising out of Case Crime No. 689 of 2017 as well as charge-sheet dated 20.05.2018, is hereby set aside and quashed against applicant nos. 3, 4 and 5, namely, Smt. Mehtab, Achchan Khan and Kumari Nida, respectively.

36. The present application under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is, accordingly, partly allowed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2307
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR NIGAM, J.

Writ-B No. 1596 of 2024

Smt. Madeena ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Krishna Kant Dwivedi

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
Abhishek Kumar Yadav, Bhola Nath Yadav, C.S.C., Deepak Gaur

A. U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 - Sections 35(2) & 207 – Mutation – Appeal When Mutation Proceedings Are Transferred to Another Tehsil – Territorial Jurisdiction – Whether the territorial jurisdiction to entertain or decide an appeal against an order passed in a mutation proceeding transferred outside the Tehsil will lie in the transferred Tehsil or the Tehsil where the subject matter of dispute/unit is situated. Held – Under Section 35(2) of the Code, a person aggrieved by an order of the Tehsildar may prefer an appeal to the Sub-Divisional Officer. The Sub-Divisional Officer of the Tehsil where the holding (unit) is situated has jurisdiction to correct the judgment of the Tehsildar.

The word 'subordinate' has not been used in Section 35 of the Code; therefore, the Full Bench judgment in Shabbar Husain and Others v. Dy. Director of Consolidation, Muzaffarnagar and Another, 2019 (4) ADJ 88, does not apply to an appeal filed under Section 35(2) of the Code in mutation proceedings. (Para 20)

B. U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 - Section 206(3) - Objection to Jurisdiction of Revenue Court: An objection regarding the jurisdiction of a court will not be entertained by any appellate, revisional, or executing court unless the following three conditions co-exist: (i) the objection must have been raised before the court of first instance, (ii) it must be raised at the earliest opportunity, and (iii) the party raising the objection must demonstrate that the irregular exercise of jurisdiction has resulted in a failure of justice. All three conditions must coexist for the objection to be entertained (Para 36).

C. U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 - Sections 35(2) & 207 - Mutation Proceedings – Provision under which Appeal is maintainable Sections 35(2) or 207 - both provisions S. 35(2) as well as S. 207 allow for appeals against orders passed by the Tehsildar in mutation cases - S. 207 provides for a first appeal by any party aggrieved by a final order in specified proceedings. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Tahsildar in mutation cases of succession or transfer may prefer an appeal to the Sub-Divisional Officer u/s 35(2) of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006. In the present case, the rejection of the mutation application by the Tehsildar led respondent No. 5 to file an appeal u/s 207 of the Code before the Sub-Divisional Officer. Petitioner contended that the appeal was not maintainable as it was filed u/s 207 and not S. 35(2). Held: Petitioner's contention was misconceived; mere reference to a section, whether Section 207 or Section 35(2), does not affect the maintainability of the appeal, as both provisions allow for appeals against orders passed by the Tehsildar in mutation cases. (Para 38)

D. U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 - Sections 34 - Mutation Proceedings - Appeal - objection as to the territorial jurisdiction - Property in dispute situated within the jurisdiction of Tehsil Mauranipur, District Jhansi. Respondent No. 5 moved mutation application u/s 34 in the court of the Naib Tehsildar, Rewan, District Jhansi. Case was transferred to the court of the Tehsildar, Garautha, District Jhansi. Tehsildar, Garautha, rejected the mutation application. Aggrieved, respondent No. 5 preferred an appeal before the Sub-Divisional Officer (S.D.O.), Mauranipur. Petitioner filed transfer application, and the appeal was transferred to the court of the S.D.M., Jhansi. S.D.M., Jhansi, allowed the appeal. Petitioner challenged the order in revision before the Board of Revenue, which was dismissed. Before writ court it was contended that the appeal against the Tehsildar Garautha's order could have been entertained only by the S.D.O., Garautha, and thus, the appeal before the S.D.M., Mauranipur & S.D.M., Jhansi was not maintainable. Held: Once the appeal was transferred on the application filed by the petitioner from the court of S.D.M., Mauranipur, District- Jhansi to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi such an objection cannot be taken by the petitioner as to the territorial jurisdiction of the S.D.M., Jhansi to entertain and decide the appeal. Further objection as to the territorial jurisdiction of S.D.M., Mauranipur was not taken by the petitioner in his objections filed to the appeal and it was only in the written arguments the said objection was taken. Petitioner also failed to demonstrate any failure of justice occurred because of the entertainment of the appeal by the S.D.M., Jhansi. Since the property in dispute was situated in Tehsil Mauranipur, even though the order in the mutation proceedings was passed by the Tehsildar, Garautha, part of the cause of action was present for respondent No. 5 to file an appeal before the S.D.M., Mauranipur. The writ petition was dismissed. (Para 40, 41)

Dismissed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

1. Shabbar Husain & ors. Vs Dy. Director of Consolidation Muzaffarnagar & anr. 2019 (4) ADJ 88

2. Hira Lal Patni Vs Sri Kali Nath reported in AIR 1962 SC 199

3. Pathumma & ors. Vs Kuntalan Kutty Dead by Lrs. & ors. Reported in AIR 1981 SC 1683

4. R.S.D.V. Finance Co. Pvt. Ltd. Vs Shree Vallabh Glass Works Ltd. Reported in AIR 1993 SC 2094

5. Rakhi & ors. Vs 1st A.D.J., Firozabad & ors. in AIR 2000 All 166

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar Nigam, J.)

1. Heard Sri Krishna Kant Dwivedi, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Abhishek Kumar Yadav, learned counsel appearing for the respondent no. 5, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents and perused the record.

2. This writ petition has been filed for following reliefs:-

"i. issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of Certiorari Quashing the impugned order dated 21.12.23 passed by the respondent no. 2 in Revision no. 3434/2023 (Ann. 1 to the writ petition) and order dated 21.08.23 passed by the respondent no. 3 in Case no. 1987/ 2023 (Ann. 7 to the writ petition).

ii. issue a writ, order or direction in the appropriate nature directing and commanding the Tehsildar, Tehsil Mauranipur, District Jhansi, i.e. respondent no. 4, to stay the further proceeding going on by him in Case no. 6802/2023, Meharban Singh Vs. Smt. Sandal."

3. Brief facts of the case as mentioned in the writ petition are that the land in dispute i.e. land no. 1362 area 0.3820, 1260 area 1.4320, 1363 area 0.1080 situated as Mauza Dewari Singhpur, Tehsil Mauranipur, District Jhansi was recorded in the name of one Noor Khan. After the death of Noor Khan, the property came to his son, namely, Natthu. Natthu was married to Smt. Sandal. Petitioner is the daughter of Natthu and Smt. Sandal. After the death of Natthu, the recorded tenure holder, name of Smt. Sandal was recorded in the revenue record being widow of Natthu. The petitioner was minor at the time of death of her father namely, Natthu. The mother of the petitioner Smt. Sandal contracted, second marriage with Sakur Khan, son of Ilahi Khan on 11.04.1975 after the death of her husband, Natthu and because of the second marriage, Smt. Sandal, the widow of Natthu was left with no right, title or interest in the land in question. Name of Smt. Sandal continued in revenue records and taking advantage of the same Smt. Sandal executed a sale deed dated 31.08.2017 of land number 1260, area 1.4320 in favour of respondent no. 5. After coming to know about the sale deed executed by Smt. Sandal in favour of respondent no. 5, the petitioner instituted Original Suit No. 114 of 2017 for cancellation of the sale dated 31.08.2017, executed by Smt. Sandal in favour of respondent no. 5. The aforesaid suit is pending and the trial court i.e. Civil Judge (Junior Division) Mauranipur, Jhansi by its order dated 23.08.2022 has directed the parties to maintain status quo. After the execution of sale deed on 31.08.2017 by Smt. Sandal in favour of respondent no. 5, the respondent no. 5 moved an application under section

34 of the UP Revenue Code, 2006 (hereinafter referred to as 'Code') for mutation of his name over the land in dispute on the basis of the registered sale deed dated 31.08.2017 in the court of Naib Tehsildar, Rewan, District- Jhansi. The aforesaid case was transferred by order dated 26.04.2018 passed by Additional Commissioner (Administration), Jhansi to the court of the Tehsildar, Garautha, District- Jhansi on an application moved by the respondent no. 5. The Tehsildar, Garautha, District-Jhansi by an order dated 04.03.2023 has rejected the mutation application filed by the respondent no. 5. Against the order dated 04.03.2023 passed by Tehsildar, Garautha, the respondent no. 5 preferred an appeal under Section 207 of the Code before the Sub- Divisional Officer, Mauranipur, District-Jhansi. The appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 was allowed by the S.D.M., Jhansi by its order dated 21.08.2023 and order passed by the Tehsildar, Garautha dated 04.03.2023 was set aside and the court below was directed to consider the case afresh on merits after providing an opportunity of hearing to all parties. The petitioner filed a revision before the Board of Revenue- respondent no.2 against the order dated 21.08.2023 passed by S.D.M., Jhansi, which was registered as Revision No. 3434 of 2023, Smt. Madeena versus Meharban Singh and others. By order dated 21.12.2023, the respondent no. 2 dismissed the revision filed by the petitioner. Hence, the present petition.

4. Primary contention raised by the counsel for the petitioner is that once the order dated 04.03.2023 was passed by the Tehsildar, Tehsil Garautha, District- Jhansi rejecting the application for mutation filed by the respondent no. 5, the appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 before the S.D.M., Mauranipur, District- Jhansi was not maintainable as it was only the S.D.M., Garautha had the jurisdiction to entertain the appeal against an order passed by Tehsildar, Garautha. It has also been contended that the S.D.M., Jhansi had erroneously allowed the appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 against the order dated 04.03.2023 passed by Tehsildar, Garautha ignoring the objection, which was taken by the petitioner in his written submissions as to the maintainability of appeal. In this regard, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgment of this Court in case of Shabbar Husain and others Vs. Dy. Director of Consolidation Muzaffarnagar and another reported in 2019 (4) ADJ 88. It is further contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that against an order passed under Section 34 of the Code, an appeal lies under Section 35(2) of the Code. In the present case, the appeal has been filed by the respondent no. 5 under Section 207 of the Code and not under Section 35(2) of the Code and therefore, the appeal as filed by the respondent no. 5 is not maintainable.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for respondent no. 5 submitted that the property in dispute is situated within the jurisdiction of Tehsil- Mauranipur, District- Jhansi and as the application filed by the respondent no. 5 under Section 34 of the Code was transferred by the order of Additional Commissioner, Jhansi to the court of Tehsildar, Garautha, the same was decided by Tehsildar, Garautha. It has been further submitted that since part of cause of action arose at Tehsil, Mauranipur, the appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 was maintainable before the S.D.M., Mauranipur, District- Jhansi. It has also been submitted by the counsel for the respondent no. 5 that objection as to the territorial jurisdiction of S.D.M., Mauranipur was not taken by the petitioner in his objections filed to the appeal filed by the respondent no. 5. It was only in the written arguments the said objection was taken. It is also contended by learned counsel for the respondent that petitioner herself filed Transfer Application No. 384 of 2023 (Smt. Madeena Vs. Meharban Singh and others) under Section 212(2) of the Code. The aforesaid transfer application filed by the petitioner was allowed by order dated 18.05.2023 passed by Commissioner Jhansi and appeal was transferred to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi and it was only thereafter, the appeal was decided by the S.D.M., Jhansi by order dated 21.08.2023. It has been pointed out by learned counsel for the petitioner that this fact regarding moving of transfer application as well as order dated 18.05.2023 passed on the transfer application moved by the petitioner has not been mentioned in the writ petition.

6. Learned counsel for the respondent has produced the photocopy of the certified copy of the order dated 18.05.2023 passed on transfer application filed by the petitioner in Case No. 384 of 2023 (Smt. Madeena Vs. Meharban Singh and others) which is taken on record. It has also been contended by learned counsel for the respondent that once the appeal was transferred on the application filed by the petitioner from the court of S.D.M., Mauranipur, District- Jhansi to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi such an objection cannot be taken by the petitioner as to the territorial jurisdiction of the S.D.M., Jhansi to entertain and decide the appeal.

7. Before considering the rival submissions raised by the counsel for the parties, it would be appropriate to look into the relevant provisions of the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006. Section 35 of the Code provides for mutation in cases of succession or transfer. Section 35 of the Code is quoted as under:-

"35. Mutation in cases of succession or transfer.---(1) On the receipt of a report under Section 33 or Section 34, or upon facts otherwise coming to his knowledge, the Tahsildar shall issue a proclamation and make such inquiry as appears to be necessary and –

(a) if the case is not disputed, he shall direct the record of rights (Khatuani) to be amended accordingly; and []

[(c) if the case is disputed, he shall decide the dispute and direct, if necessary, the record of rights (khatauni) to be amended accordingly.]

[(2) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Tahsildar under sub-section (1) may prefer an appeal to the Sub-Divisional Officer within a period of thirty days from the date of such order.]"

8. Section 207 of the Code provides for first appeals and is quoted as under:-

" 207. First appeal--(1) Any party aggrieved by a final order or decree passed in any suit, application or proceeding specified in 1(column 2) of the Third Schedule, may prefer a first appeal to the Court or officer specified against it in 2(column 4), where such order or decree was passed by a Court or officer specified against it in 3(column 3) thereof.

(2) A first appeal shall also lie against an order of the nature specified –

(a) in Section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; or

(b) in Section 104 of the said Code; or

(c) in Order XLIII Rule 1 of the First Schedule to the said Code.

(3) The period of limitation for filing a first appeal under this section shall be thirty days from the date of the order or decree appealed against.

9. Section 212 of the Code provides for transfer of cases and the same is quoted as under:-

"212. Power to transfer cases.--(1) Where it appears to the Board that it will be expedient for the ends of justice to do so, it may direct that any case be transferred from one revenue officer to another revenue officer of an equal or superior rank in same district or any other district.*

(2) The Commissioner, the Collector or the Sub-Divisional Officer may make over any case or class of cases arising under the provisions of this Code or any other enactment for the time being in force, for decision from his own file to any revenue officer sub-ordinate to him and competent to decide such case or class of cases, or may withdraw any case or class of cases from any such revenue officer and may deal with such case or class of cases himself or refer the same for disposal to any other revenue officer competent to decide such case or class of cases."

10. Section 214 of the Code provides as under:-

"214. Applicability of Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and Limitation Act,1963.- Unless otherwise expressly provided by or under this Code, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and the Limitation Act, 1963 shall apply to every suit, application or proceedings under this Code."*

11. Rule 33 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 is reproduced below:-

"33. Report regarding transfer (Section 34.) (1) Every report by or on behalf of a person obtaining possession of any land by transfer referred to in section 34 shall, as soon as possible, be made in R.C. Form-11.*

(2) The provisions of sub-rules (3) to (6) of Rule 29 shall mutatis mutandis apply to every report submitted under this rule.

(3) While submitting a report under this rule, the applicant shall also file an affidavit to the effect that the transfer under reference does not contravene the provisions of section 89 of the Code, but where such declaration has been made in the deed, the affidavit under this sub-rule would not be required.

(4) The transferee submitting report for mutation on the basis of transfer shall pay the mutation fee fixed by Government Order issued from time to time."

12. Rule 29 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 is quoted as under:-

"29. Report regarding succession (Section 33(1))---(1) Every report by or on behalf of a person obtaining succession possession of any land by succession referred to in section [Section 33(1)] shall be made, as soon as possible, in R.C. Form-9.*

(2) In the application/report for mutation on the basis of Will or intestate succession, the deceased shall not be impleaded as opposite party. In the case of report on the basis of Will, the heir of clause (a) of section 108 or section 110 as the case may be and if there is no heir of the aforesaid clause and in the case of intestate succession, the heir of the succeeding clause of section 108 or section 110 as the case may be, shall be impleaded as opposite party.

(3) Separate reports shall be made for each village and if the land lies in more than one Tahsil, the Collector shall decide in which Tahsil, the proceedings shall be held.

(4) The aforesaid report may be submitted to the Revenue Inspector through the Lekhpal. The Lekhpal shall immediately issue a receipt therefor. No stamp duty is required to be paid for such report.

(5) If the person obtaining possession by succession is a minor, then such report may be submitted by his guardian or through next friend. (6) If more than one person jointly obtain possession over the land by succession, a report by any one of them shall be deemed to be sufficient compliance for the purposes of section 33(1)."

13. Rule 188 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 is quoted as under:-

" Provisions of the Code to apply (Section 214)--Where in relation to any suit, application or proceedings under the Code, any express provision has been made in the said Code or these rules or Regulations made thereunder, the provisions of the Code, these rules or regulations will apply, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or the Limitation Act, 1963."*

14. Rule 192 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 is as under:-

"192. Deterimination of questions in summary proceedings (Section 225 A). (1) All the questions arising for determination in any summary proceeding under this Code or these rules shall be decided upon affidavits.*

(2) The following proceedings shall be treated as summary proceedings, namely:

Section	Particulars
24	Demarcation proceedings
25	Proceeding regarding rights of way and other easements.
26	Proceeding regarding removal of obstacle.
30(2)	Proceeding regarding physical division of minjumla number.
31(2)	Proceeding regarding determination of shares.
32	Proceeding regarding correction of records.
35	Mutation proceedings.
38	Proceeding regarding correction of error or omission.
49	Proceeding regarding revision of map and records.
58	Proceeding regarding dispute arising in respect of any property referred to in sections 54, 56 or 57.
66	Proceeding regarding inquiry into irregular allotment of Abadi sites.
67	Proceeding regarding eviction of unauthorised occupants.
80	Proceeding regarding declaration for non-agricultural use.
82	Proceeding regarding cancellation of declaration.
98	Proceeding regarding permission to transfer

	Bhumidhari land to person other than Scheduled Caste.
101	Proceeding for exchange.
105(2)	Proceeding for possession of Land.
128	Proceeding for cancellation of allotment and lease.
149 & 150	Proceeding for eviction of Government lessee.
193	Proceeding to set aside sale for irregularity.
195	Proceeding for setting aside of sale by Collector or Commissioner.
212	Proceeding for transfer of cases.

(3) The State Government or the Board may declare any other proceeding except the suits under the Code or these rules as the summary proceeding.

(4) The procedure for disposal of summary proceedings is contained in Revenue Court Manual."

15. R.C. Form -11 is reproduced as under:-

R.C. FORM-11
[See Rule-33(1)]
Report regarding transfer of land u/s 34 of U.P. Revenue Code, 2006

To,

The Tahsildar
…….Tahsil
……..District

1. Name, parentage and address of applicant……

2. Particulars of land acquired by transfer (including area and land revenue……..)

3. Name, parentage and address of transferor……...……
……

4. Name, parentage and address of other transferee if any ……

5. Nature of transfer (sale, gift etc.……)

6. Date of execution and registration of deed of transfer……

7. Amount of consideration…….……
……

8. Any other details.

Date:

……..
Signature of applicant

16. The judgment in the case of Shabbar Husain (supra) relied upon by the petitioner deals with revision filed under Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 therefore,s it will be useful to look into provisions of Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act. Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 provides for revision and reference under the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 and the same is quoted as under:-

"48. Revision and reference. - (1) The Director of Consolidation may call for and examine the record of any case decided or proceedings taken by any subordinate authority for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the regularity of the proceedings; or as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any order (other than an interlocutory order) passed by such authority in the case or proceedings, may, after allowing the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, make such order in the case or proceedings as he thinks fit.*

(2) Powers under sub-section (1) may be exercised by the Director of Consolidation also on a reference under sub-section (3).

(3) Any authority subordinate to the Director of Consolidation may, after allowing the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, refer the record of any case or proceedings to the Director of Consolidation for action under sub-section (1).

Explanation (I) For the purposes of this section, Settlement Officers, Consolidation, Consolidation Officers, Assistant Consolidation Officers, Consolidator and Consolidation Lekhpals shall be subordinate to the Director of Consolidation.

Explanation (II) - For the purposes of this section the expression 'interlocutory order' in relation to a case or proceedings, means such order deciding any matter arising in such case or proceeding or collateral thereto as does not have the effect of finally disposing of such case or proceeding.

Explanation (III). - The power under this section to examine the correctness, legality or propriety of any order includes the power to examine any finding, whether of fact or law, recorded by any subordinate authority, and also includes the power to re-appreciate any oral or documentary evidence."

17. In the case of Shabbar Husain (supra) the following question was referred to the Full Bench of this Court, which is quoted in para 2 of the judgment and the same is reproduced as under:-

"The question for determination is thus stated in the referring order:
"Whether the territorial jurisdiction to entertain/decide appeal or revision, against the order passed on the objection or appeal transferred outside the district will be at the transferred district or at the district where the subject matter of dispute/unit situates?"

18. Interpreting the provisions of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 the aforesaid question was answered by the Full Bench in following terms:-

"35. If an appeal or objection is transferred outside of the district, an application (revision) under section 48 of the Act would lie before the Deputy Director of Consolidation of the same District, where the matter was transferred and not in the District where holding or unit situates."

19. In paragraph 14 of the judgment in the case of Shabbar Husain and others Vs. Dy. Direction of Consolidation Muzaffarnagar and another (supra); this court has held as under:-

"....the Director of Consolidation may call for and examine the record of any case or proceeding taken by any subordinate authority. The word 'subordinate' in the section assumes significance. It clearly denotes that the revisional court can correct the order of its subordinate authority. Therefore, the Deputy Director of Consolidation of the district, where the case was transferred can correct the order of the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, who is his subordinate authority. In case revision is filed in the district where the holding (unit) situates, the revisional authority, in our opinion, has no jurisdiction to correct the judgment of the appellate authority of another district, who is not his subordinate authority."

20. The judgement in case of Shabbar Husain (supra) will not apply to the present proceedings as the Full Bench was interpreting a provision i.e. Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953, which is different than the Section 35 of the Code. Under Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, word 'subordinate authority' has been used whereas in the Section 35(2) of the Code, it has been provided that a person aggrieved by an order of the Tehsildar under sub-Section (1) may prefer an appeal to Sub-Divisional Officer. Word 'subordinate' has not been used in the Section 35 of the Code, therefore, the judgment in case of Shabbar Husain (supra) will not apply to an appeal filed under Section 35(2) of the Code.

21. Unlike Code of Civil Procedure, (hereinafter referred to as C.P.C.), (Section 15 to Section 21), the U.P. Revenue Code, 2006 does not provide for place of suing, but from the reading of provisions of Sections 34, 35, Rule 33 and RC Form 11, it is apparent that an application or the report has to be submitted to the Tehsildar of the Tehsil, within whose jurisdiction the land is situated.

22. Thus, it is the place where the property i.e. land lies, an application has to be made to the concerned Tehsildar having jurisdiction over the area. Section 214 of the Code quoted above provides that the provisions of C.P.C. will apply to every suit, application or proceedings under this Code. Rule 186 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 provides that the provisions of C.P.C. shall not be applicable to the summary proceedings under the Code or these Rules, but the principles enshrined in the C.P.C., 1908, shall be observed in the disposal of such proceedings. Rule 192 of the U.P. Revenue Code Rules, 2016 provides that the proceedings under Section 35 of the Code shall be treated as summary proceedings and therefore, even if the provisions of the C.P.C. are not to be applied, the principles enshrined in the C.P.C. have to be followed while deciding the proceeding under Section 35 of the Code.

23. Section 21 of the C.P.C. provides that no objection as to place of suing shall be allowed by any Appellate or Revisional court unless such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice.

24. Section 21 of the C.P.C. is quoted as under:-

"4[(1)] No objection as to the place of suing shall be allowed by any Appellate or Revisional Court unless such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice.

2.....

3....."

25. Section 206 of the Code provides for jurisdiction of civil court and the revenue courts. Section 206 of the Code is quoted as under:-

"206. Jurisdiction of civil court and revenue courts.---(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, but subject to the provisions of this Code, no civil court shall entertain any suit, application or proceeding to obtain a decision or order on any matter which the State Government, the Board, any Revenue Court or revenue Officer is, by or under this Code, empowered to determine, decide or dispose of.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), and save as otherwise expressly provided by or under this Code-

(a) no Civil Court shall exercise jurisdiction over any of the matters specified in the Second Schedule; and

(b) no Court other than the revenue Court or the revenue officer specified in 5(column 3) of the Third Schedule shall entertain any suit, application or proceeding specified in 6(column 2) thereof.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, an objection that a Court or officer mentioned in sub-section (2)(b) had or had no jurisdiction with respect to any suit, application or proceeding, shall not be entertained by any appellate, revisional or executing Court, unless the objection was taken before the Court or officer of the first instance, at the earliest opportunity, and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice."

26. Sub-clause 3 of Section 206 of the Code provides that objection as to jurisdiction that a court or officer mentioned in sub-Section 2 (b) has or has no jurisdiction with respect to any suit, application or proceeding, shall not be entertained by any appellate, revisional or executing court, unless the objections is taken before the court or officer of the first instance, at the earliest opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice. Though, Section 206 of the Code deals with the jurisdiction of the Civil Court viz. a viz. Revenue Court, but the principle underlying the said provision will also apply to the facts of the present case.

27. The Supreme Court in the case of Hira Lal Patni Vs. Sri Kali Nath reported in AIR 1962 SC 199, in paragraph no. 4 has held as under:-

"4. The only ground on which the decision of the High Court is challenged is that the suit instituted on the original side of the Bombay High Court was wholly incompetent for want of territorial jurisdiction and that therefore, the award that followed on the reference between the parties and the decree of Court, under execution, were all null and void. Strong reliance was placed upon the decision of the Privy Council in the case of Ledgard v. Bull, 13 Ind. App. 134 (P. C.). In our opinion, there is no substance in this contention. There was no inherent lack of jurisdiction in the Bombay High Court where the suit was instituted by the plaintiff-decree-holder. The plaint had been filed after obtaining the necessary leave of the High Court under Cl. 12 of the Letters Patent. Whether the leave obtained had been rightly obtained or wrongly obtained is not a matter which can be agitated at the execution stage. The validity of a decree can be challenged in execution proceedings only on the ground that the court which passed the decree was lacking in inherent jurisdiction in the sense that it could not have seizin of the case because subject matter was wholly foreign to its jurisdiction or that the defendant was dead at the time the suit had been instituted or decree passed, or some such other ground which could have the effect of rendering the court entirely lacking in jurisdiction in respect of the subject matter of the suit in over the parties to it. But in the instant case there was no such inherent lack of jurisdiction.

The decision of the Privy Council in the case of 13 Ind. App. 134 (P. C.) is an authority for the proposition that consent or waiver can cure defect of jurisdiction but cannot cure inherent lack of jurisdiction. In that case, the suit had been instituted in the court of the subordinate Judge, who was incompetent to try it. By consent of the parties, the case was transferred to the Court of the District Judge for convenience of trial. It was laid down by the Privy Council that as the Court in which the suit had been originally instituted was entirely lacking in jurisdiction, in the sense that it was incompetent to try it, whatever happened subsequently was null and void because consent of parties could not operate to confer jurisdiction on a court which was incompetent to try the suit. That decision has no relevance to a case like the present where there could be no question of inherent lack of jurisdiction in the sense that the Bombay High Court was incompetent to try a suit of that kind. The objection to its territorial jurisdiction is one which does not go to the competence of the Court and can, therefore, be waived. In the instant case, when the plaintiff obtained the leave of the Bombay High Court on the original side, under Cl. 12 of the Letters Patent, the correctness of the procedure or of the order granting the leave could be questioned by the defendant or the objection could be waived by him. When he agreed to refer the matter to arbitration through Court, he would be deemed to have waived his objection to the territorial jurisdiction of the Court, raised by him in his written statement. It is well settled that the objection as to local jurisdiction of a court does not stand on the same footing as an objection to the competence of a court to try case. Competence of a court to try a case goes to the very root of the jurisdiction, and where it is lacking, it is a case of inherent lack of jurisdiction. On the other hand an objection as to the local jurisdiction of a court can be waived and this principle has been given a statutory recognition by enactments like S. 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure."

28. The objection has to be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and if the same is not taken, the objection cannot be taken before the appellate or the revisional court. Apart from this, the party raising the objection has to demonstrate that because of irregular exercise of jurisdiction has resulted in failure of justice. Keeping in view the provisions of Section 206 of the Code as well as Section 21 of the C.P.C., the objection as to place of suing has to be taken at the first opportunity and failure to take such an objection will result that the person/party cannot take this objection at appellate or revisional stage.

29. In the facts of the present case, the original application under Section 35(2) of the Code was moved within the jurisdiction of Tehsildar, Tehsil-Mauranipur, where the property in dispute was situated. On a transfer application moved by the respondent no. 5, the application under Section 35 of the Code filed by the respondent no. 5 was transferred to the court of Tehsildar-Garautha, another sub-division of District-Jhansi where the said proceedings were decided. Being aggrieved by the judgment passed by the Tehsildar- Garautha, respondent no. 5 filed an appeal before the S.D.M. Mauranipur under Section 35(2) of the Code.

30. Learned counsel for respondent no. 5 submitted that it was open to the defendants to waive the objection and if they did so, they could not subsequently take the objection. The petitioner has failed to take objection at the earliest possible opportunity as to the jurisdiction of Sub-Divisional Officer, Mauranipur to entertain the appeal has forfeited his right and he cannot be permitted to take such objection at this stage or before the revisional court. It has also been pointed out by learned counsel for the respondent that it was only on a transfer application moved by the petitioner herself being Case No. 384 of 2023 under Section 212(2) of the Code, appeal which was filed before the S.D.M. Mauranipur was transferred to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi. It is the S.D.M., Jhansi which has ultimately decided the appeal. Once the appeal itself has been transferred on an application filed by the petitioner to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi, now it is not open for the petitioner to challenge that the S.D.M. Jhansi or S.D.M. Mauranipur has no jurisdiction to entertain the appeal and it was only the S.D.M. Garautha has jurisdiction to decide the appeal as the order was passed by the Tehsildar, Garautha. The factum of filing transfer application has not been denied by the petitioner rather in his written submissions made before the Tehsildar- Jhansi which are filed along with the supplementary affidavit, this fact has been admitted in paragraph number (झ)of the written submissions that the appeal was transferred from the court of S.D.M. Mauranipur to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi, by order passed by the Commissioner, Jhansi, Mandal-Jhansi, Jhansi. When the appeal was filed in the court of S.D.M., Mauranipur, no such objection was taken by the petitioner. Rather taking an objection in this regard, the petitioner choose to file a transfer application and got the appeal transferred from the court of S.D.M., Mauranipur to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi. At the stage of final hearing, the petitioner submitted written submissions before the S.D.M., Jhansi wherein this objection has been taken for the first time by the petitioner.

31. The submission of learned counsel appearing for the respondent no. 5 is well founded. As a general rule, neither consent nor waiver (sis), acquiescence can confer jurisdiction upon a Court, otherwise incompetent to try the suit or appeal. But Section 21 of the Code provides an exception, and a defect as to the place of suing, that is to say, the local venue for suits/ appeals cognizable by the Courts under the Code may be waived under this section. The waiver under Section 21 is limited to the objections in the appellate and revisional Courts. But Section 21 is a statutory recognition of the principle that the defect as to the place of suing under Section 15 to 20 may be waived. Independently of this section, the defendant may waive the objection and may be subsequently precluded from taking it.

32. In case of Pathumma and Ors. Vs. Kuntalan Kutty Dead by Lrs. And Ors. Reported in AIR 1981 SC 1683, in paragraph no. 3, the Supreme Court has held as under:-

"3. We have heard learned counsel for the parties on the question of jurisdiction. An unfortunate aspect of this litigation has been that although that question has been agitated already in three courts and has been bone of contention between that parties for more than a decade, the real provision of law which clinches it was never put forward on behalf of the appellant before us nor was adverted to by the learned District Judge or the High Court. That provision is contained in sub-section (1) of Section 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure which runs thus:

21 (1) No objection as to the place of suing shall be allowed by any Appellate or Revisional Court unless such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement, and unless there has been a consequent failure of justice.

In order that an objection to the place of suing may be entertained by an appellate or revisional court, the fulfilment of the following three conditions is essential:

(1) The objection was taken in the Court of first instance.

(2) It was taken at the earliest possible opportunity and in cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement.

(3) There has been a consequent failure of justice.

All these three conditions must co-exist. Now in the present case conditions Nos. 1 and 2 are no doubt fully satisfied; but then before the two appellate Courts below could allow the objection to be taken, it was further necessary that a case of failure of justice on account of the place of suing having been wrongly selected was made out."

33. In case of R.S.D.V. Finance Co. Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Shree Vallabh Glass Works Ltd. Reported in AIR 1993 SC 2094, the Supreme Court has held as under:-

"...It may be further noted that the Learned Single Judge trying the suit had recorded a finding that the Bombay Court had jurisdiction to entertain and decide the suit. Sub- sec.(1) of Section 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides that no objection as to the place of suing shall be allowed by any appellate or revisional Court unless such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement and unless there has been consequent failure of justice. The above provision clearly lays down that such objection as to the place of suing shall be allowed by the appellate or revisional court subject to the following conditions :-

(i) That such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at the earliest possible opportunity;

(ii) in all cases where issues are settled then at or before such settlement of issues;

(iii) there has been a consequent failure of justice.

8. In the present case though the first two conditions are satisfied but the third condition of failure of justice is not fulfilled. As already mentioned above there was no dispute regarding the merits of the claim. The defendant has admitted the deposit of Rs. 10,00,000 by the plaintiff, as well as the issuing of the five cheques. We are thus clearly of the view that there is no failure of justice to the defendant decreeing the suit by the Learned Single Judge of the Bombay High Court, on the contrary it would be totally unjust and failure of justice to the plaintiff in case such objection relating to jurisdiction is to be maintained as allowed by the Division Bench of the High Court in its appellate jurisdiction."

34. It has also been contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that while deciding the appeal as well as revision, the courts below have not recorded any finding on the objection raised by the petitioner as to the fact that the appeal was not maintainable before the S.D.M., Mauranipur or S.D.M., Jhansi as the order was passed by Tehsildar, Garautha, the appeal was maintainable before the S.D.M., Garautha.

35. Per contra, it has been contended by the learned counsel appearing for the respondent no. 5 that since the objection was not taken by the petitioner at the very early stage and it was only at the time of hearing, the said objection was taken in the written submissions filed by the petitioner, the said objection is deemed to have been waived by the petitioner. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is misconceived. In this regard a reference may be made to judgment of this Court in Rakhi and Ors. Vs. 1st Additional Distict Judge, Firozabad and Ors in AIR 2000 All 166, paragraph no. 26 of the judgment is quoted as under:-

"In the present case, it is admitted that such objection was not taken in the written statement. It is also admitted that no issue was framed. It is also admitted that this objection was raised at the time of argument. It is further admitted that this objection was dealt with by the learned trial court. Admittedly, if no issue is framed in that event, it had sprung surprise on the respondents when raised at the bar at the time of argument. In as much, the applicant had no opportunity to take objection to it. It could be argued by Mr. Diwakar that the applicant did not have any opportunity to adduce sufficient evidence to defend such objection. The Court was never called upon to decide the issue. Unless an issue is framed, it cannot be said that it was in issue. Then again, the absence of objection does not make the decision by the Court wholly without Jurisdiction. It is an irregularity and not an illegality affecting the merit or the validity of the decree. One may acquiesce to the jurisdiction. Therefore, in the present case, the objection raised and adverted to by the Court would not cure the mischief of Section 21 of the Code. On the other hand by reason of Section 21 of the Code such objection would not hit at the root of the decree that have been passed and Could not be said to be without jurisdiction. Therefore, the omission of the appellate court to advert to the question is not fatal. It was neither an objection properly raised in terms of Section 21 of the Code of Civil Procedure nor was in issue. Therefore, the Courts were not called upon to decide the same."

36. As per the judgments of the Supreme Court referred above, all the three conditions must co-exist i.e. firstly the objection has to be taken in the court of first instance, secondly, the objection has to be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and thirdly, there has been a consequent failure of justice. I called upon the learned counsel for the petitioner to point out to me even at this stage any reason why I should hold that a failure of justice has occurred by reason of entertainment of appeal by the S.D.O., Jhansi but he was unable to put forward any.

37. In this view of the matter, I must hold that the appellate court and the revisional court has rightly not entertained the objection whether or not it was otherwise well founded.

38. So far as contention of learned counsel for the petitioner that appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 was under Section 207 of the Code whereas the appeal ought to have been filed under Section 35(2) of the Code and as such the appeal filed by the respondent no. 5 was not maintainable is also misconceived. Section 35(2) of the Code provides for filing of an appeal against an order passed by Tehsildar under sub-Section 1 of Section 35 of the Code. Section 207 of the Code provides for an appeal by any party aggrieved by final order or decree passed in a suit, application or proceedings specified in column 2 of the Third Schedule, may prefer a first appeal to the Court or officer specified against it in Column 4, where such order or decree was passed by a Court or officer specified against it in Column 3 thereof.

39. From the perusal of the Third Schedule, it is clear that in mutation cases, against an order passed by the Tehsildar, the first appeal has to be filed before the Sub-Divisional Officer. Thus, in my view, there is no illegality in filing an appeal under Section 207 of the Code, merely mentioning of a section whether Section 207 or Section 35(2) of the Code will not make any difference as both the sections provide for filing an appeal against the orders passed by Tehsildar in mutation cases.

40. In the facts of the case, since the petitioner has got herself transferred the appeal, by moving a transfer application before the Commissioner from the court of S.D.M., Mauranipur to S.D.M., Jhansi and further she has taken objection as to jurisdiction only at the time of final hearing while submitting the written submissions, this plea is not open for the petitioner to be raised either before the revisional court or before this Court. Further the petitioner has also failed to demonstrate that any failure of justice has occurred because of entertainment of appeal by the S.D.M., Jhansi or by the S.D.M.,Mauranipur. Since the property in dispute was situated in Tehsil-Mauranipur, though the order in mutation proceedings were passed by the Tehsildar-Garautha as the mutation case was transferred to the court of Tehsildar- Garautha, part of cause of action was there for the respondent no. 5 to file an appeal before the S.D.M., Mauranipur. Thereafter, the appeal was transferred to the court of S.D.M., Jhansi on an application moved by the petitioner herself and ultimately the appeal was decided by the S.D.M., Jhansi. From the perusal of the orders impugned i.e. the appellate order as well as the revisional order, it appears that though, the petitioner has taken objection before the appellate court in the written submissions and before the revisional court in paragraph no. 18 of the memo of revision, but the same has not been pressed by the petitioner either before the appellate court or before the revisional court as there is no mention of such objection being taken by the petitioner in the judgment. Even in the writ petition there is no averment by the petitioner that the objection which was taken by the petitioner was pressed before the appellate court as well as before the revisional court and the same has not been considered by the courts below.

41. In view of the same, I am of the opinion that the appellate court as well as the revisional court have committed no illegality in not considering the plea of the petitioner that the appeal was not maintainable before S.D.M., Mauranipur or Jhansi and it was only maintainable before the S.D.M., Garautha.

42. Accordingly, the writ petition fails and is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2322
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 23.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ-B No. 2714 of 1982

Munder ...Petitioner
Versus
D.D.C. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
R.S. Pandey, Ankit Pande, Dr. Ramsurat Pande, P.C. Ararwal

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Edward Sam Julius Paul, Panna Lal Gupta, T.N. Gupta

A. Registration Act, 1908 - Sections 171(b) & 35 - Transfer of Property Act, 1882 - Section 54 - Adoption deed - Adoption deed is not the sale, hence Section 54 of the T.P. Act, is not applicable - Provisions of Registration Act, 1908, is not applicable, as the adoption deed is not a transaction or declaration of any transfer of property. Adoption is a devolution and not a transfer of the property of the adoptee. From the date of adoption, all the ties of the adopted child in family of his or her birth shall be deemed to be severed. On adoption, the adoptee gets transplanted in the family in which he is adopted with same rights as that of a natural born child. (Para 20)

B. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 - Section 9A(2) - Belated objection to adoption deed. Land of Abhilakh was inherited by Bhonu through an adoption deed dated 15.05.1931. The petitioner, in 1972, challenged the deed's validity, on the ground that it was neither stamped nor registered. The petitioner did not dispute the execution of the deed itself. Held: Adoption deeds executed before 1951 did not require registration. The objection raised 45 years later, without challenging the 1934 mutation order, is impermissible. Petition dismissed. (Para 23)

Dismissed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

1. Suraj Lamp & Industries Pvt Ltd Vs St.of Har. & anr., SLP (C) No. 13917 of 2009, reported in 2011 (29) LCD 2083

2. Mohammed Akram Husain & anr. Vs Brij Nath & anr. in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 674 of 2005, 2007 (25) LCD 11

3. Vinod Kumar & ors. Vs Sudha Land Ventures & Homes Pvt. Ltd, First Appeal from Order No. 2222 of 2015.

4. Yellapu Uma Maheswari & anr. Vs Buddha Jagadheeswararao & ors., in Civil Appeal No. 8441 of 2015 (Arising out of Special Leave Petition (Civil) No. 12788 of 2014.

5. Ramnath Singh & anr. Vs D.D.C. reported in [2014(32) LCD 659].

6. Lal Behari vs. Ram Adhar; 1985 LCD 415

7. A. Raghavamma & anr. Vs A. Chenchamma & anr., Civil Appeal No. 165 of 1961, reported in 1964 AIR (Supreme Court) 136

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for petitioner, Shri Panna Lal Gupta, learned counsel for respondent no. 4 as well as Shri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned State Counsel.

2. The present writ petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned Revisional order dated 27.01.1982 passed by respondent no. 1 i.e. Deputy Director Consolidation, the impugned appellate order dated 17.07.1979 passed by respondent no. 2 i.e. Assistant Settlement Officer Consolidation and the judgment and order dated 03.10.1978 passed by respondent no. 3 i.e. Consolidation Officer.

3. During the pendency of present writ petition, the petitioner Munder had expired and in his place, his legal heirs have been substituted and they will be addressed as petitioners. Similarly, after the demise of respondent no. 4, Bhonu, his legal heirs have been substituted and they will be addressed as respondents.

4. Learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that Raghunandan had five sons namely Abhilakh, Kabbil, Badri, Cheekhur and Ram Narayan. Abhilakh was issueless, Kabbil has three sons namely Bhonu, Ram Saran and Ram Samujh. Bhonu is respondent no. 4 in the present writ petition. Badri has one son Munder i.e. the petitioner in the present writ petition. For the rest, it is not necessary to mention as they are not party to the dispute.

5. It is further submitted that after the demise of Abhilakh (issueless), the uncle of the petitioner, the petitioner has a right in the property of Abhilakh.

6. It is further submitted that the land/property of Abhilakh was inherited by Bhonu alleging himself as an adopted son of Abhilakh by adoption deed dated 15.05.1931.

7. The petitioner filed an objection under Section 9A(2) of the Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred as Act, 1953) when the village had come under Consolidation in the year 1972 by moving an application on 17.07.1978 and raised an objection regarding the validity of the adoption deed dated 15.05.1931 on two counts, firstly, the adoption deed was not stamped and secondly it was not registered. The said objection was rejected by the Consolidation Officer by its judgment and order dated 03.10.1978, against which the petitioner had preferred an appeal which was also dismissed by impugned judgment and order dated 17.07.1979. Against the appellate order, the petitioner preferred a revision which was also dismissed by impugned judgment and order dated 27.01.1982, hence, the present writ petition has been preferred.

8. It is further submitted that the adoption deed is mandatorily required to be registered for the reason that by the said adoption deed, the immovable property was going to be transferred in favour of respondent no. 4 Bhonu which is of the value of more than 100 Rupees, as required under Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 in which it has been provided that in the case of tangible immovable property of a value less than one hundred rupees, such transfer may be made either by a registered instrument or by delivery of the property. Here, the transaction by the adoption deed is more than hundred rupees. In support of his submission, learned counsel for petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the Case of A. Raghavamma and another versus A. Chenchamma and another, Civil Appeal No. 165 of 1961, reported in 1964 AIR (Supreme Court) 136.

9. It is further submitted that as per Section 17(b) of the Registration Act, 1908, which provides that documents of which registration is compulsory and sub-section 1(b) of Section 17, provides that other non-testamentary instruments which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent to or in immovable property and Sub-Section provides any other instrument required by law for the time being in force, to be registered and the effect of non-registration has been provided under Section 49 of the Registration Act, 1908, that document will not be admissible in evidence. In support of his submission, learned counsel for petitioner has placed reliance upon the judgments quoted below:-

(1) Suraj Lamp & Industries Pvt Ltd versus State of Haryana and another, SLP (C) No. 13917 of 2009, reported in 2011 (29) LCD 2083.

(2) Mohammed Akram Husain and another versus Brij Nath and another in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 674 of 2005, reported in 2007 (25) LCD 11.

(3) Vinod Kumar and others versus Sudha Land Ventures and Homes Pvt. Ltd, First Appeal from Order No. 2222 of 2015.

(4) Yellapu Uma Maheswari and another versus Buddha Jagadheeswararao and others, in Civil Appeal No. 8441 of 2015 (Arising out of Special Leave Petition (Civil) No. 12788 of 2014.

10. It is further submitted that Section 35 provides that the instruments not duly stamped are inadmissible in evidence and in the present case, the adoption deed executed on 15.05.1931 was neither registered nor stamped as per the provisions of the Act, hence it could not be admissible evidence and on the basis of which any judgment and order passed in favour of respondent no. 4 is a nullity and liable to be quashed.

11. On the other hand, learned Standing Counsel and Shri Panna Lal Gupta, learned counsel for respondent no. 4 have submitted that the submission made by learned counsel for petitioner relying upon provisions of different acts are not applicable in the present case as the adoption deed was executed on 15.05.1931. At that time, the registration was not mandatory and it had come by amendment in the year 1977, in the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956.

12. Learned Standing Counsel has further submitted that it is a devolution of property and not the transfer of property. In support of his submission, he has relied upon following judgments quoted below:-

(1) Raj Kumar Saxena versus Basic Shiksha Parishad, U.P. and others, in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 66944 of 2006.

(2) Ravindra Kumar versus State of U.P. and others, in Writ A No. 40700 of 2014.

13. After hearing learned counsel for the parties, going through the records of the case and the judgments relied upon by the learned counsels for the parties, existence of adoption deed dated 15.05.1931 is not disputed between the parties. The petitioner filed his objections on 17.07.1978, before the Consolidation Officer challenging the validity of the adoption deed as it was neither registered nor stamped. In support of his submission, learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that the adoption deed was required to be registered and stamped and has drawn attention of this Court to Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, which is quoted hereinbelow:-

'Section 54:- "Sale" is a transfer of ownership in exchange for a price paid or promised or part-paid and part-promised.

Such transfer, in thte case of tangible immovable property of the value of one hundred rupees and upwards, or in the case of a reversion or other intangible thing, can be made only by a registered instrument.

In the case of tangible immovable property of a value less than one hundred rupees, such transfer may be made either by a registered instrument or by delivery of the property.'

14. A perusal of Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, which is very clear and there is no ambiguity and is defining the word 'sale' i.e. transfer of ownership in exchange for a price paid or promised. The adoption deed is not the sale, hence Section 54 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 relied by the learned counsel for petitioner is not applicable in the present case. Placing reliance by learned counsel for petitioner on Section 17 (1)(b) and 17(1)(f) to establish his case that registration of the adoption deed is compulsory is quoted hereinbelow:-

Section 17 Documents of which registration is compulsory

Section 17(1) The following documents shall be registered, if the property to which they relate is situate in a district in which, and if they have been executed on or after the date on which, Act XVI of 1864, or the Indian Registration Act, 1866, or the Indian Registration Act, 1871, or the Indian Registration Act, 1877, or this Act came or comes into force, namely,

Section 17(1)(b):- other non-testamentary instruments which purport or operate to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, of the value of one hundred rupees and upwards, to or in immovable property;

Section 17(1)(f):- any other instrument required by any law for the time being in force, to be registered.

15. The said provisions of Registration Act, 1908, relied upon by learned counsel for petitioner is not applicable in the present case as the adoption deed is not a transaction or declaration of any transfer of property. Adoption deed is a devolution and the said issue has already been decided by this Court in the case of Ravindra Kumar and others versus State of U.P. and others in Writ A No. 40700 of 2014*, wherein it has been held, that from the bare perusal of Section 17 of the Registration Act, 1908, nowhere it has been mentioned that for adoption deed registration is compulsory. Compulsory registration of adoption deed has come into force on 26.01.1951 and prior to that, there was no such requirement. This issue has also been decided by this Court in the case of* Raj Kumar Saxena versus Basic Shiksha Parishad, U.P and others in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 66944 of 2006*, wherein it has been held, that deed regarding adoption of petitioner is subsequent to 26.01.1951, consequently, the deed was required to be compulsorily registered in the State of Uttar Pradesh and it is an undisputed case between the parties in the present case that the adoption deed was executed on 15.05.1931. The petitioner is not disputing the execution of adoption deed but challenging the validity of the same on the ground that it was neither stamped nor registered. And as discussed above, both the things were not required at the time when adoption deed was executed.*

16. The petitioner had not challenged the order of mutation passed in the year 1934, in favour of respondent no. 4 under Section 34 of the L.R. Act, 1901 which is also admitted by the counsel for the petitioner that the name of respondent no. 4 was entered in the revenue records and the same was never challenged under the provisions of either Land Reforms Act, 1950 or in the U.P. Tenancy Act. It is also admitted by learned counsel for petitioner that when the U.P.Z.A and L.R. Act, 1950 had come into force w.e.f 26.01.1951, the entry in the name of respondent no. 4 was intact and the petitioner had not challenged the entry under the provisions of the Act, 1950. When the village had come under consolidation in the year 1972, then for the first time on 17.07.1978 i.e. after about more than 45 years the validity of the adoption deed was challenged by the petitioner in the consolidation proceedings.

17. The judgments relied by the learned counsel for petitioner are not applicable in the facts and circumstances of the present case, as far as the judgment relied upon by learned counsel for petitioner in the Case of A. Raghavamma (supra) quoting paragraph-14 of the said judgment, that too is not applicable in the present case for the reason that in paragraph-14 of the judgment, the procedure or the custom for adoption was not followed and it was not on the point that the adoption deed was neither registered nor stamped.

18. The judgments relied upon by learned counsel for petitioner in the case of Suraj Lamp & Industries Pvt Ltd (supra), Mohammed Akram Husain (supra) & Vinod Kumar (supra) deal with validity of an unregistered sale deed as admissible in evidence, so all these judgments pertains to sale deed and not the adoption deed hence the judgments are not applicable.

19. The other judgment relied by learned counsel for petitioner in the case of Yellapu Uma Maheswari (supra) also deals with agreement to sale and not related to the adoption deed.

20. The adoption is a devolution and not a transfer of the property of the adoptee. The adopted child for all purposes from the date of adoption, all the ties of the child in family of his or her birth shall be deemed to be severed. On adoption, the adoptee gets transplanted in the family in which he is adopted with same rights as that of a natural born child.

21. The law is otherwise as held by this Court in the case of Lal Behari vs. Ram Adhar; 1985 LCD 415, wherein this Court has dismissed the petition wherein the petitioner was claiming his co-tenancy rights under the Consolidation proceedings after 11 years without challenging or making any claim during the first settlement and the second settlement.

22. Here, the petitioner has not raised any objection when the application under Section 34 of the Land Reforms Act, 1901 was allowed in favour of respondent no. 4 whereafter, his name was mutated. Then, the Act, 1950 has come into force on 26.01.1951 and the entry was intact, even at that time, the petitioner had not challenged and for the first time after about more than 45 years, in the consolidation proceedings, the petitioner had raised the objections regarding the validity of the adoption deed, cannot be raised at such a belated stage in the light of the law laid down by this Court in the case of Ramnath Singh and another vs. D.D.C. reported in [2014(32) LCD 659].

23. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made hereinabove, the present writ petition is devoid of merit and no interference is called for in the judgments dated 27.01.1982 passed by respondent no. 1 i.e. Deputy Director Consolidation, the impugned appellate order dated 17.07.1979 passed by respondent no. 2 i.e. Assistant Settlement Officer Consolidation and the judgment and order dated 03.10.1978 passed by respondent no. 3 i.e. Consolidation Officer.

24. The present writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2328
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SAURABH LAVANIA, J.

Writ-B No. 4151 of 2016

Jagat Pal & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
D.D.C. Lakhimpur Kheri & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Satendra Nath Rai

Counsel for the Respondent:
C.S.C., Ashok Kumar, D.P. Singh

A. Constitution of India,1950 - Article 226 - While exercising discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226, the High Court must ensure that justice is done, equity is upheld, and injustice is eliminated. One of the objectives of equity is to promote honesty and fair play. If any unfair advantage has been gained by a party prior to invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court can take into account such an unfair advantage and may require the party to relinquish the gain before granting relief. Court should not set aside an order that appears to be illegal if the effect is to revive another illegal order, as such an action would perpetuate illegality and confer an undue benefit on the undeserving party or person. (Para 9, 14)

B. Civil Law - Compromise - New Right cannot be created - If a person had no right under the statute, then in such position, any such right could not be recognised or admitted by a compromise or new right could not be created throughout compromise or conciliation.

C. U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954, Rule 25-A - Compromise – Genuineness of the Compromise - In the present matter, the claimant, Jagannath (predecessor-in-interest of the petitioners), failed to prove before the S.O.C. that Bhawani was the original tenure holder of the disputed land. No documents or evidence were placed on record to establish Bhawani as the original tenure holder. The division of shares in the land was not accorded to all legal heirs of Bhawani, and no justifiable reasons were provided for the distribution of land solely between Jagannath and Rambilas, excluding other heirs. All parties to the compromise, including Rambilas/respondent, were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate, who was engaged by the claimant. The identification casts doubt on the authenticity of the compromise. Rambilas was assaulted by Shrichand (predecessor-in-interest of petitioners No. 2 to 7). S.O.C. failed to record satisfaction regarding the genuineness of the compromise, including the legal validity of the agreement between the parties. Compromise dated 06.03.1979, which forms the basis of the S.O.C.'s order dated 18.06.1985, was neither lawful nor genuine.

Dismissed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

1. Gadde Venkateswara Rao Vs Govt. of A.P AIR 1966 SC 828

2. Maharaja Chintamani Saran Nath Shahdeo Vs St. of Bihar AIR 1999 SC 3609;

3. Mallikarjuna Mudhagal Nagappa Vs St. of Karn. AIR 2000 SC 2976;

4. Chandra Singh Vs St. of Raj. AIR 2003 SC 2889;

5. St. of Uttaranchal Vs Ajit Singh Bhola 2004 6 SCC 800;

6. St. of Orissa Vs Mamata Mohanty 2011 3 SCC 436)

7. Mohammad Swalleh Vs Third A.D.J., Meerut; (1988) 1 SCC 40

8. Shangrila Food Products Ltd. Vs LIC, (1996) 5 SCC 54

9. Roshan Deen Vs Preeti Lal; (2002) 1 SCC 100

10. Ramesh Chandra Sankla & ors.Vs Vikram Cement & ors.(2008) 14 SCC 58

11. Shiv Prasad Vs Deputy Director of Consolidation, Ghazipur & ors., 2006 (101) RD 624

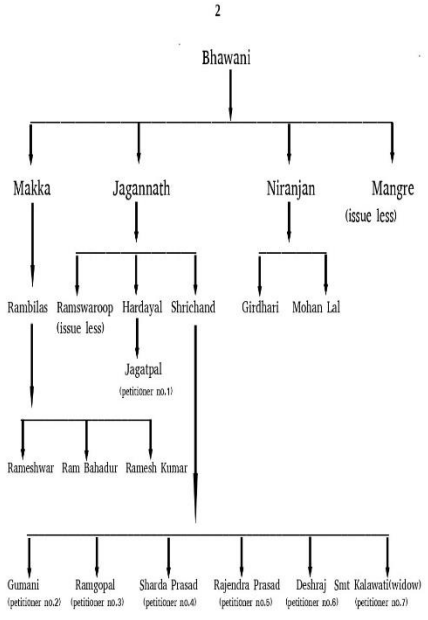
(Delivered by Hon'ble Saurabh Lavania, J.)

1. Heard Sri Satendra Nath Rai, learned counsel for the petitioners, Sri Hemant Kumar Pandey, learned counsel for the State as also Sri D.P. Singh, learned counsel for the private respondents.

2. By means of the present petition, a challenge has been made to the order dated 19.01.2016 passed by respondent No.1/Deputy Director of Consolidation, Lakhimpur Kheri (in short 'D.D.C.'), in Revision No. 340 of 2011 (Rameshwar & Others vs. Shrichand & Others).

3. Brief facts of the case are as follows:

(i) One Bhawani died leaving behind his four sons namely Jagannath, Niranjan, Makka and Mangre (issue less). The pedigree indicated in Para 4 of the petition is as under:-



(ii) It is alleged that Bhawani was the original tenure holder of the land in issue i.e. Khata No.371 but to establish this fact, no document has been placed on record.

(iii) The name of Makka S/o Bhawani was recorded in the basic year Khatauni of Khata No.371. At the time of initiation of consolidation proceedings in the village namely Khaithava, Pargana-Nighasan, District- Lakhimpur Kheri, in terms of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings, Act, 1953 (is short the 'Act') and Rules of 1954 made thereunder, the name of Makka S/o Bhawani was recorded in revenue records.

(iv) A compromise was filed on 31.07.1975 before Assistant Consolidation Officer (A.C.O.) in regard to Khata No.371. In this Compromise it was prayed that in place of late Makka S/o Bhawani, the names of Rambilas S/o Makka, Girdhari

S/o Niranjan, Mohanlal S/o Niranjan and Jagannath S/o Bhawani be mentioned in revenue records of Khata No. 371.

(v) The A.C.O. rejected the proposal of CH Form 4 and directed to enter the name of Rambilas S/o Makka in revenue records.

(vi) It would be apt to indicate that contesting respondents No.4 to 6 namely Rambilas, Ram Bahadur and Ramesh Kumar are sons of Rambilas.

(vii) Being aggrieved by the order of A.C.O, Jagannath S/o Bhawani and others filed an Appeal No. 1675 under Section 11 of the Act before the Settlement Officer of Consolidation (S.O.C.)/respondent No.2 and vide order dated 09.09.1976, the S.O.C./respondent No.2 allowed the appeal and remanded the matter back to Consolidation Officer (C.O.)/respondent No.3.

(viii) Before the C.O./respondent no.3, a fresh compromise dated 21.08.1978 was filed in Misc. case no.1705/5859 of 1978 u/s 9A(2) of the Act. As per this compromise, the land of Khata no.371 was of late Bhawani and accordingly, the same be provided to Jagannath S/o Bhawani-1/3 share, Girdhari S/o Niranjan-1/6 share, Mohanlal S/o Niranjan-1/6 share, Rambilas S/o Late Makka-1/3 share.

(ix) It would be apt to indicate that all the parties (claimants and opposite party/Rambilas) of the compromise dated 21.08.1978 filed in the case aforesaid were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate, who was engaged by the claimants.

(x) The C.O./ respondent No.3 vide order dated 17.11.78 rejected the compromise dated 21.08.1998 filed in Misc. Case No.1705/5859 of 1978 and directed to record the name of Rambilas in place of Makka, being his legal heir, in revenue records.

(xi) The C.O./respondent No.3, rejected the compromise after observing that it has not been established that land in issue is an ancestral land and as such if compromise is accepted, then it would amount to transfer of property, which is not permissible.

(xii) Being aggrieved by order dated 17.11.78 passed by C.O/respondent No.3 in Misc. Case No.1705/5859 of 1978, Jagannath S/o Bhawani, Girdhari and Mohanlal both sons of Niranjan filed an Appeal No.163 (Jagannath and others vs. Rambilas) before S.O.C/respondent no.2.

(xiii) Before proceeding further, it would be relevant to mention that following question was put to the counsel for the petitioner during course of hearing.

"Whether without establishing/proving the fact that the property/land is an ancestral property, the rights in land can be provided by the authorities under the Act or the co-option is permissible under the Act or under U. P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (in short 'Z. A. & L. R. Act') and compromise of such nature would be lawful and the same could be acted upon and the same would be enforceable in law and such nature of agreement/compromise will confer any right"

(xiv) In response to aforesaid, the counsel for the petitioner could not place any provision of law or authority to establish that by way of a compromise, rights in the land can be provided without establishing/ proving the fact that the land is an ancestral property.

(xv) Being aggrieved by the order dated 17.11.1978 passed by Consolidation Officer (C.O.)/ respondent No. 3 in Misc. Case No. 1705. 75859 of 1978 (Jagannath S/o of Bhawani, Girdhari Lal and Mohan Lal both sons of Niranjan) filed an appeal no. 163 (Jagannath and Ors vs. Rambilas) before the S.O.C./ respondent No. 2.

(xvi) In the aforesaid Appeal No. 163, again a fresh compromise dated 06.03.1979 was filed.

(xvii) The parties to the compromise dated 06.03.1979, including the respondent in appeal namely Rambilas, were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate, who was engaged by the appellants namely Jagannath, Girdhari and Mohan Lal.

(xviii) It is to be noted that parties to the compromise dated 21.08.1978 filed before the C.O./ respondent No. 3 and parties to the compromise dated 06.03.1979 filed before the S.O.C./ respondent No. 2 were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate, who was engaged by the persons claiming right over Khata No. 371 i.e. predecessors-in-interest of the petitioners.

(xix) On aforesaid fact related to identification of the parties to compromise, the following question was put to the counsel for petitioner:

"Whether on compromise, an advocate appearing for claimant/plaintiff also can also identify respondent/defendant?"

(xx) In response to the aforesaid question, the counsel for petitioner stated that he cannot.

(xxi) The identification, aforesaid, as also the observations of C.O./ respondent No. 3 in the order dated 17.11.1978 that it has not been established that land in issue is ancestral land and as such if compromise is accepted then it would amount to transfer of property which is not permissible, creates doubt regarding entering into the compromise by Rambilas.

(xxii) The Appeal No. 163, referred above, was decided on the basis of the compromise on 31.03.1979.

(xxiii) As per compromise dated 06.03.1979, 1/3 share was to be provided to Jagannath and 2/3 share was to be provided to Rambilas in Khata No. 371.

(xxiv) The Appellate Court/S.O.C./respondent No.2 vide order dated 31.03.1979 passed in Appeal No. 163 provided 1/3 share to Jagannath, 1/6 share each to Girdhari and Mohan Lal and 1/3 share to Rambilas.

(xxv) Rambilas, challenging the order dated 31.03.1979, filed a revision before the D.D.C./respondent No.1 under Section 48 of the Act registered as Revision No. 3900 of 1979 (Rambilas vs. Jagannath and Ors).

(xxvi) The D.D.C./respondent No.1, after considering the terms of compromise and order dated 31.03.1979, vide order dated 17.09.1989 allowed the revision and set aside the order dated 31.03.1979 passed in Appeal no. 163 and remanded the matter back to S.O.C./ respondent no. 2 for deciding the appeal afresh.

(xxvii) The S.O.C./respondent No.2, thereafter, vide order dated 18.06.1885 allowed the appeal, which at relevant point of time was registered as Appeal No.1136, on the basis of terms of compromise dated06.03.1979, vide order dated 18.06.1885.

(xxviii) Being aggrieved by order dated 18.06.1985 passed in Appeal No. 1136 by S.O.C./respondent No.2, Rambilas preferred an application dated 24.07.1985 praying therein that order dated 18.06.1885 be set aside and matter be heard and decided on its own merits.

(xxix) Moving of application dated 18.07.1885 by Rambilas fortifies the view of this Court that the compromise dated 21.08.1978 & 06.03.1979, respectively, are/ were doubtful.

(xxx) The application preferred by Rambilas dated 24.07.1985 for recall and setting aside the order dated 18.06.1985 was dismissed for want of prosecution vide order dated 23.03.1990 on the statement given by Rambilas. This further, creates doubt regarding compromise dated 21.08.1978.

(xxxi) Rambilas on coming to know about the order dismissing the application for restoration for want of prosecution preferred an application dated 04.06.1992 for recall of order dated 23.03.1990, inadvertently indicated as order dated 14.10.1990.

(xxxii) The application dated 31.06.1992 was again dismissed for want of prosecution on 02.07.1998.

(xxxii) To recall the order dated 02.07.1998, Rambilas preferred an application dated 02.07.1998.

(xxxiv) During the pendency of the application dated 02.07.1998, Rambilas died and thereafter substitution application dated 03.05.1999 was preferred by the legal heirs of Rambilas and the same was allowed on the same day i.e on 03.05.1999.

(xxxv) The aforesaid application for restoration dated 02.07.1998 preferred by Rambilas was again dismissed for want of prosecution on 05.02.2003.

(xxxvi) After expiry of several years from the date of rejection of restoration application for want of prosecution vide order dated 05.02.2003, an application under Rule 109 of the Rules of 1954 was filed, whereupon an order was passed on 06.04.2011 and thereafter the private respondents no.4 to 6, legal heirs of Rambilas, preferred an appeal dated 11.07.2011 which was dismissed being not maintainable vide order dated 01.01.2015 passed by S.O.C./respondent no.2.

(xxxvii) After order dated 01.01.2015 passed by S.O.C./respondent No.2, indicated above, the private respondents filed the Revision No. 340 of 2011 challenging the order(s) dated 18.06.1885, 23.03.1990 and 05.02.2003.

(xxxviii) The revision aforesaid was filed alongwith an application for condonation of delay. A perusal of the application of condonation of delay reflects that the same was not properly drafted. The delay in challenging the order dated 18.06.1885, 23.03.1990 & 05.02.2003 was not properly explained.

(xxxix) It would be apt to indicate that all the revisionists/private respondents are rustic villagers and in this view of the matter, their application for condonation of delay has to be dealt with.

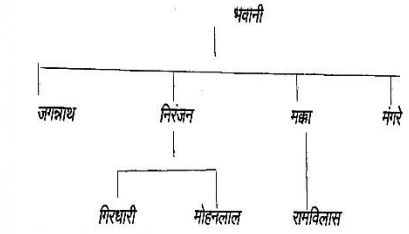
(xl) In the objection to the application for condonation of delay, the petitioners specifically pleaded that the revisionists/private respondents No.4 to 6 were aware about the order dated 18.06.1985 as their application for substitution was allowed vide order dated 03.05.1999 and accordingly the application is liable to be rejected and consequently, the revision filed after delay of about 26 years questioning the order dated 18.06.1885 be also dismissed. In this objection, petitioners also stated that the appeal was decided in terms of compromise on 18.06.1985 that too in compliance of the order dated 17.09.1981 passed in Revision No.3900 of 1979 filed by Rambilas (predecessor-in-interest of the private respondents) and as such also the revision is liable to be dismissed.

(xli) The D.D.C./respondent No.1 after considering the relevant aspect of the case allowed the revision vide impugned order dated 19.01.2016, which is an order of remand. The relevant portion of this order reads as under:-

"पक्षों द्वारा प्रस्तुत तर्क तथा पत्रावली के अवलोकन से विदित है कि प्रतिपक्षी द्वारा जो विधि-व्यवस्थायें प्रस्तुत की गई हैं,

वह सभी मियाद विन्दु पर ही प्रस्तुत की गई हैं। जिसमें माननीय उच्चतम न्यायालयों ने यह विचार व्यक्त किये हैं कि धारा-5 के अन्तर्गत विलम्ब मर्षण के लिये प्रस्तुत आवेदन-पत्र वर्णित लेकिन न्यायालय को विलम्ब को माफ करने की शक्ति, यदि पर्याप्त कारण दर्शाते हुए आवेदन किया गया है। लेकिन पर्याप्त कारण के अभाव एवं आवेदक ने स्पष्ट भावना से आवेदन नहीं किया, तो आवेदन निरस्त किये जाने योग्य । चूंकि निगरानीकर्तागण द्वारा विलम्ब के सम्बन्ध में जो कारण दिये गये हैं, वह सन्तोषजनक है, अस्तु निगरानीकर्तागण धारा 5 भा०परिसी०अधि० का लाभ पाने के हकदार हैं। अन्य माननीय न्यायालयों द्वारा पारित आदेशों के सम्बन्ध में जो विधि-व्यवस्थायें प्रस्तुत की गई हैं, उनमें भी न्यायालयों ने कहा है कि यदि न्यायालय के समक्ष प्रस्तुत आवेदन से न्यायालय इस निष्कर्ष पर पहुंचता है कि आवेदक ने उचित एवं स्पष्ट भावना से मांग की है, तो न्यायिक दृष्टिकोण से उसे धारा-5 का लाभ भी दिया जा सकता है। चकबन्दी में स्वत्व के विवाद सदैव के लिये निर्णीत किये जाते हैं। यदि निगरानीकर्तागण को धारा-5 का लाभ नहीं दिया जाता है तो वह न्याय से वंचित रहेगा, यह नैसर्गिक सिद्धान्त का उल्लंघन होगा। अतएव निगरानीकर्तागण को धारा- भा०परिसी०अधि० का लाभ देकर निगरानी अन्दर मियाद स्वीकार करके उसका निस्तारण गुण-दोष पर किया जाता है।

विवाद आधार वर्ष के खाता संख्या-371 के सम्बन्ध में है, जो मक्का पुत्र भवानी के नाम अंकित था। तस्दीक खतौनी के समय मक्का मृतक के वारिस रामविलास बताये गये तथा खाते में गिरधारी, मोहन लाल पुत्रगण निरंजन व जगन्नाथ पुत्र भगवानी का नाम बतौर सहखातेदार दर्ज होना बताया गया। सहायक चकबन्दी अधिकारी के न्यायालय में दिनांक 31-07-1975 को समझौता दाखिल हुआ। सहायक चकबन्दी अधिकारी ने साक्ष्य के अभाव में सहखातेदारी का तनाजा खारिज कर दिया तथा मृतक मक्का के स्थान पर रामविलास का नाम बतौर वारिस अंकित कर दिया। सहायक चकबन्दी अधिकारी के आदेश के विरूद्ध जगन्नाथ ने अपील दायर की, जो दिनांक 09-09-1976 को चकबन्दी अधिकारी को प्रत्यावर्तित की गई। चकबन्दी अधिकारी के न्यायालय में खाता संख्या-371 में सहखातेदारी दर्ज करने हेतु दिनांक 21-08-1978 को सुलहनामा प्रस्तुत किया गया, जो चकबन्दी अधिकारी ने दिनांक 17-11-1978 को कागजी साक्ष्य के अभाव में तथा अवैधानिक हस्तान्तरण मानकर निरस्त कर दिया। आराजी रामविलास के नाम अंकित रही। चकबन्दी अधिकारी के आदेश के विरुद्ध जगन्नाथ आदि ने अपील दायर की, जिसमें दिनांक 06-03-1979 को सुलहनामा दाखिल हुआ, जिसमें अंकित किया गया कि खाते में 1/3 भाग जगन्नाथ व 2/3 रामविलास के नाम रहेगा। बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी ने अपील में दिनांक 31-03-1979 को गिरधारी व मोहन लाल का भी 1/3 अंश प्रत्येक दर्ज कर दिया। इस आदेश के विरुद्ध रामविलास ने निगरानी दायर की, जो दिनांक 17-09-1981 को बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी को प्रत्यावर्तित कर दी गई। बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी ने सुलहनामा के आधार पर अपील में आदेश पारित कर दिया। यद्यपि सहायक संचालक चकबन्दी ने अपने आदेश दिनांक 17-09-1981 में इस तथ्य का उल्लेख किया है कि सुलहनामे में यह अंकित नहीं है कि विवादित भूमि पैतृक है, परन्तु बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी ने बिना किसी आधार के आदेश पारित कर दिया है, इसलिए आदेश निरस्त करके रिमाण्ड किया जाता है। पक्षों द्वारा जो सुलहनामा बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी के न्यायालय में दाखिल किया गया है, उसमें निम्न शजरा प्रस्तुत किया है-



सुलहनामे में उल्लेख किया है कि खाता संख्या-371 में 1/3 जगन्नाथ व 2/3 रामविलास के नाम भूमि दर्ज होगी। गिरधारी व मोहनलाल को कोई हिस्सा नहीं मिलेगा। यद्यपि इस तथ्य का उल्लेख नहीं है कि भूमि पैतृक है अथवा किस आधार पर दो खातेदारों का अंश ही खाते में निर्धारित किया गया है। यदि पत्रावली को चकबन्दी अधिकारी के न्यायालय को प्रत्यावर्तित किया जाता है, तो सभी पक्ष अपना-अपना साक्ष्य प्रस्तुत कर सकेंगे तथा वाद का गुण-दोष पर निर्णय हो जायेगा, जो न्याय संगत प्रतीत होता है। पत्रावली चकबन्दी अधिकारी को प्रत्यावर्तित किये जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

उपरोक्तानुसार रामेश्वर, रामबहादुर, रमेश कुमार पुत्रगण रामविलास द्वारा याजित निगरानी संख्या-340/11 स्वीकार की जाती है। चकबन्दी अधिकारी द्वारा वाद संख्या-1705/5659 धारा-9क (2) में पारित आदेश दिनांक 17-11-1978 तथा बन्दोबस्त अधिकारी चकबन्दी द्वारा अपील संख्या-1136 में पारित आदेश दिनांक 18-06-1985/23-03-1990/05-02-2003 खण्डित किये जाते हैं। पत्रावली चकबन्दी अधिकारी को इस

निर्देश से प्रत्यावर्तित की जाती है कि पक्षों को साक्ष्य का अवसर देकर वाद का निस्तारण गुण-दोष पर करें। पक्ष चकबन्दी अधिकारी के न्यायालय में दिनांक 27-01-2016 को उपस्थित हों। पत्रावली बाद आवश्यक कार्यवाही दाखिल दफ्तर हो।"

4. Assailing the impugned order dated 19.01.2016, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted as under:

(i) Challenging the order(s) dated 18.06.1985, 23.03.1990 and 05.02.2003 passed by the S.O.C/respondent No.2 in an Appeal No.1163 the revision was filed in the month of August 2015, and that too without proper explanation for condoning the huge delay.

(ii) The order dated 31.03.1979 was passed on the basis of compromise deed dated 06.03.1979 entered into between the parties, which was filed before the S.O.C./respondent No.2 and this compromise was admitted to Rambilas (predecessor-in-interest of the private opposite parties namely Rameshwar, Ram Bhadur and Ramesh Kumar, all sons of Late Rambilas), as would appear from the memo of revision filed by Rambilas challenging the order dated 31.03.1979 passed by S.O.C./respondent No.2 on limited ground related to share in the land in issue as share indicated in the compromise dated 06.03.1979 i.e. 2/3 share was not provided to Rambilas by S.O.C./respondent No.2, and the same is apparent from the memo of revision filed by Rambilas wherein he specifically indicated that while passing the order dated 31.03.1979, the S.O.C./respondent No.2 ignored the Clause/Para-5 of the compromise.

(iii) As per the Clause/Para-5 of the compromise deed dated 06.03.1979, Rambilas was entitled to 2/3 of the land in issue, however, the S.O.C./respondent No.2 provided only 1/3 of the share to Rambilas and for this reason, Rambilas approached the revisional authority challenging the order dated 31.03.1979 passed by S.O.C./respondent No.2 and vide order dated 17.09.1989 the D.D.C./respondent No.1 remanded the matter back to the S.O.C./respondent No.2 to pass fresh order after taking note of the terms of the compromise entered into between the parties.

(iv) The S.O.C./respondent No.2 in compliance of order dated 17.09.1981 passed by D.D.C/respondent No.1 in the revision filed by Rambilas decided the Appeal in terms of the compromise deed dated 06.03.1979 vide order dated 18.06.1985 and provided 2/3 share in the land/property in issue to Rambilas.

(v) Rambilas, for the reasons best known to him, filed an application for recall of order dated 18.06.1985, which was dismissed for want of prosecution on 23.03.1990 and thereafter Rambilas preferred an application on 04.06.1992 praying therein to recall the order dated 14.10.1990, which was dismissed for want of prosecution on 02.07.1998 and thereafter on 02.07.1998 itself the application for recall of order dated 02.07.1998 was moved.

(vi) During the pendency of the application dated 02.07.1998, Rambilas died and the respondents no.4 to 6 moved an application for substitution on 03.05.1999, which was allowed on the same day.

(vii) From the aforesaid, it is evident that since 03.05.1999 the respondents No.4 to 6 were aware about the order dated 18.06.1985 and in the application for condonation of delay, the date of knowledge of order dated 18.06.1985 has been indicated as 05.07.2011.

(viii) In view of above, the delay in filing the revision challenging the order(s) dated 18.06.1985, 23.03.1990 and 05.02.2003 was not properly explained and as such in in view of the same also the facts aforesaid the D.D.C./respondent No.1 committed error of law and facts both in allowing the revision vide impugned order dated 19.01.2016.

5. Opposing the present petition, Sri D.P. Singh, learned counsel for the private respondents, submitted that the order dated 18.06.1985, whereby 1/3 share of the land in issue was provided to Jagannath (predecessor-in-interest of the petitioners No.1 to 7), was obtained by Jagannath by playing fraud before the authorities under the Act. To substantiate the same, he submitted as under:

(i) Initially a compromise was filed before the A.C.O. on 31.07.1975, however, the same was rejected for want of evidence pertaining to co-tenancy and therefore in place of Makka the name of Rambilas(predecessor-in-interest of respondents No.4 to 6) was recorded in the revenue records.

(ii) The order of A.C.O. was challenged in Appeal and the appellate authority vide order dated 09.09.1976 remanded the matter back to the C.O.

(iii) Before the C.O. a fresh compromise dated 21.08.1978 was filed by Jagannath, Mohan Lal, Girdhari and Rambilas and as per this compromise deed, Jagannath was entitled to 1/3 share; Girdhari was entitled to 1/6 share, Mohan Lal was entitled to 1/6 and Rambilas son of Makka was entitled to 1/3 share. This compromise dated 21.08.1978 was also rejected vide order dated 17.11.1978 by the C.O.

(iv) Thereafter, the order dated 17.11.1978 was challenged before the S.O.C. In the appeal, another compromise dated 06.03.1979 was filed. As per this compromise, Jagannath S/o Bhawani was entitled to 1/3 share and Rambilas S/o Makka was entitled to 2/3 share and the share as indicated in compromise dated 06.03.1979 was provided by the S.O.C./respondent No.2 vide order dated 18.06.1985, which was passed in compliance of order dated 17.09.1981 passed by the D.D.C./respondent No.1 in the revision alleged to be filed by Rambilas/(predecessor-in-interest of respondents No.4 to 6), and on coming to know about the order dated 18.06.1985 and fraud played by Jagannath, Rambilas filed the application for recall which was dismissed on 23.03.1990 and thereafter an application dated 04.06.1992 was preferred, which also was dismissed on 02.07.1998 and on 02.07.1998 itself an application for recall was preferred by Rambilas.

(v) During the pendency of the application for recall of order dated 02.07.1998, Rambilas was assaulted on 07.04.1999 by Shrichand/(predecessor-in-interest of the petitioners No.2 to 7) and Gumani/petitioner No.2 as also by Gopal/petitioner No.3 and Rambilas succumbed to the injuries sustained and in relation to the said incident, the trial court after considering the material evidence on record convicted three persons under Section 304(2) IPC vide judgment dated 07.09.2001 passed in Sessions Trial No.51 of 2000 (State Vs. Shrichand and two others) which is annexed as Annexure No. CA-1 to the counter affidavit filed by the private respondents No.4 to 6.

(vi) From the aforesaid, it can be deduced that on account of the dispute pertaining to the land in issue i.e. Khata No.371, the above-named persons assaulted Rambilas with intention to cause death, who ultimately expired on account of the injuries sustained.

(vii) The parties to the compromise dated 21.08.1978 and 06.03.1979 were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate, who was engaged from the side of the petitioners, and as such it creates doubt regarding signing of compromise by Rambilas. In fact, Rambilas never signed the compromise and for this reason, on coming to know about the final order dated 18.06.1885, the application for recall was filed by Rambilas.

(viii) The compromise dated 06.03.1989 appears to be a forged document for the reason(s) that in the first compromise before the A.C.O., it was prayed that in place of Makka, the name of Rambilas S/o Makka, Girdhari S/o Niranjan, Mohanlal S/o Niranjan and Jagannath S/o Bhawani be mentioned in the revenue record of Khata No.371 and in the subsequent compromise dated 21.07.1978 filed before the C.O./respondent no.3, it was prayed that 1/3 share of the land in issue be provided to Jagannath S/o Bhawani, 1/6 share be provided to Girdhari S/o Niranjan and the same share be provided to Mohanlal S/o Niranjan and 1/3 share to be provided to Rambilas S/o Makka and in the last compromise dated 06.03.1989, it was prayed that 1/3 share be provided to Jagannath S/o Bhawani and 2/3 share be provided to Rambilas S/o Makka in the land indicated in Khata No.371.

(ix) All the compromise, in fact, were unlawful because in none of the compromise, it was pleaded that land in issue is an ancestral property in which pleading is required for getting a share in holdings and in this regard, the C.O/respondent No.3 while rejecting the compromise dated 21.08.1978 vide order dated 17.11.1978 specifically observed that it has not been established that land in issue is an ancestral land and as such, if compromise is accepted, then it would amount to transfer of property, which is not permissible and while passing order dated 18.06.1985, the S.O.C./respondent No.2 completely ignored this aspect of the case.

(x) If the order is interfered on the ground that delay was not properly explained, then that eventuality illegality and fraud would perpetuate.

(xi) The impugned order dated 19.01.2016 is not liable to be intreferred on the ground that proper explanation was not given in regard to condoning the delay in filing the revision as by the same the D.D.C./respondent No.1 has done substatial justice between the parties and if this order is set aside or quashed the illegal order dated 18.06.1985 would revive.

(xii) A wrong order on fact and law, if provides substantial justice between the parties, is not liable to be interfered in exercise of power under Article 226/ 227 of the Constituion of India.

(xiii) It is settled principle of law that discretion, if exercised to provide right of hearing, then it should not be interfered by the appellate court or the higher court and as such, the impugned order dated 19.01.2016 is not liable to be interfered by this Court in exercise of power under Article 226/ 227 of the Constitution of India.

6. Considered the aforesaid and perused the record.

7. After taking note of aforesaid, this Court finds that following question has arisen and is to be answered.

"Whether the order dated 19.01.2016 passed by the D.D.C./respondent no.1 is liable to be interefered by this Court despite insufficient explanation given by the respondents No.4 to 6 (legal heirs of Rambilas) in challenging the order dated 18.05.1985, whereby rights in the land indicated in Khata No.371 were provided to Jagannath/(precessor-in-interest of petitioners) and order(s) dated 23.03.1990 and 05.02.03, whereby application(s) for restoration filed by Rambilas and respondents No.4 to 6, respectively, were dismissed for want of prosecution."

8. Before proceeding further, this Court finds it appropriate to indicate some settled proposition of law on the aforesaid.

9. It is a settled legal proposition that the court should not set aside the order which appears to be illegal, if its effect is to revive another illegal order. It is for the reason that in such an eventuality the illegality would perpetuate and it would put a premium to the undeserving party/person. (Vide Gadde Venkateswara Rao v. Govt. of A.P AIR 1966 SC 828; Maharaja Chintamani Saran Nath Shahdeo v. State of Bihar AIR 1999 SC 3609; Mallikarjuna Mudhagal Nagappa v. State of Karnataka AIR 2000 SC 2976; Chandra Singh v. State of Rajasthan AIR 2003 SC 2889; State of Uttaranchal v. Ajit Singh Bhola 2004 6 SCC 800; and State of Orissa v. Mamata Mohanty 2011 3 SCC 436).

10. In a catena of judgments, both this Court and Supreme Court have emphasised that while exercising discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226, the High Court must ensure that justice is done, equity be upheld and injustice is eliminated.

11 . In Jodhey vs State, reported as AIR 1952 All 788, this Court considered the discretionary and equitable jurisdiction of the High Court and the manner in which the same ought to be exercised. Relevant portion of the same reads:-

"There are no limits, fetters or restrictions placed on this power of superintendence in this Clause and the purpose of this Article seems to be to make the High Court the custodian of all justice within the territorial limits of its jurisdiction and to arm it with a weapon that could be wielded for the purpose of seeing that justice is meted out fairly and properly by the bodies mentioned therein."(emphasis supplied)

12. In Gadde Venkateswara Rao v. Govt. of A.P.; AIR 1966 SC 828, a three judges Bench of the Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the Andhra Pradesh High Court where it refused to interfere into a matter on merit even when the appellant alleged violation of principles of natural justice. The Supreme Court observed that if the impugned order passed by the Government would have been set aside by the High Court, it would have restored an illegal order. Paragraph 19 of the judgment reads:-

"19. The result of the discussion may be stated thus: The Primary Health Centre was not permanently located at Dharmajigudem. The representatives of the said village did not comply with the necessary conditions for such location. The Panchayat Samithi finally cancelled its earlier resolutions which they were entitled to do and passed a resolution for locating the Primary Health Centre permanently at Lingopalem. Both the orders of the Government, namely, the order dated March 7, 1962, and that dated April 18, 1963, were not legally passed: the former, because it was made without giving notice to the Panchayat Samithi, and the latter, because the Government had no power under Section 72 of the Act to review an order made under Section 62 of the Act and also because it did not give notice to the representatives of Dharmajigudem village. In those circumstances, was it a case for the High Court to interfere in its discretion and quash the order of the Government dated April 18, 1963? If the High Court had quashed the said order, it would have restored an illegal order it would have given the Health Centre to a village contrary to the valid resolutions passed by the Panchayat Samithi. The High Court, therefore, in our view, rightly refused to exercise its extraordinary discretionary power in the circumstances of the case." (emphasis supplied)

13. In Mohammad Swalleh v. Third Additonal District Judge, Meerut; (1988) 1 SCC 40 the Supreme Court dismissed an appeal against an order passed by the High Court wherein the High Court refused to interfere with the order of the District Court which had no jurisdiction to entertain an appeal from the Prescribed Authority under the scheme of the Act on the ground that setting aside District Court's order would mean restoring the erroneous order of the Prescribed Authority. Paragraph 7 of the above referred judgment of the Supreme Court reads:-

"7. It was contended before the High Court that no appeal lay from the decision of the prescribed authority to the District Judge. The High Court accepted this contention. The High Court finally held that though the appeal laid (sic no appeal lay) before the District Judge, the order of the prescribed authority was invalid and was rightly set aside by the District Judge. On that ground the High Court declined to interfere with the order of the learned District Judge. It is true that there has been some technical breach because if there is no appeal maintainable before the learned District Judge, in the appeal before the learned District Judge, the same could not be set aside. But the High Court was exercising its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. The High Court had come to the conclusion that the order of the prescribed authority was invalid and improper. The High Court itself could have set it aside. Therefore in the facts and circumstances of the case justice has been done though as mentioned hereinbefore, technically the appellant had a point that the order of the District Judge was illegal and improper. If we reiterate the order of the High Court as it is setting aside the order of the prescribed authority in exercise of the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution then no exception can be taken. As mentioned hereinbefore, justice has been done and as the improper order of the prescribed authority has been set aside, no objection can be taken." (emphasis supplied)

14. In Shangrila Food Products Ltd. v. LIC, (1996) 5 SCC 54 the Supreme Court reiterated that while exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution, a duty is casted upon the High Courts to see to it that equity is upheld. High Court must ensure that any undue advantage gained by a party prior to invoking discretionary jurisdiction of the High Court ought to be taken into account before granting it any relief. Relevant paragraph 11 of the same reads:-

"11. It is well settled that the High Court in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution can take cognisance of the entire facts and circumstances of the case and pass appropriate orders to give the parties complete and substantial justice. This jurisdiction of the High Court, being extraordinary, is normally exercisable keeping in mind the principles of equity. One of the ends of the equity is to promote honesty and fair play. If there be any unfair advantage gained by a party priorly, before invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court can take into account the unfair advantage gained and can require the party to shed the unfair gain before granting relief. What precisely has been done by the learned Single Judge, is clear from the above emphasised words which may be reread with advantage. The question of claim to damages and their ascertainment would only arise in the event of the Life Insurance Corporation, respondent, succeeding to prove that the appellant Company was an unlawful sub-tenant and therefore in unauthorised occupation of public premises. If the findings were to go in favour of the appellant Company and it is proved to be a lawful sub- tenant and hence not an unauthorised occupant, the direction to adjudge the claim for damages would be rendered sterile and otiose. It is only in the event of the appellant Company being held to be an unlawful sub- tenant and hence an unauthorised occupant that the claim for damages would be determinable. We see therefore no fault in the High Court adopting such course in order to balance the equities between the contestants especially when it otherwise had power of superintendence under Article 227 of the Constitution in addition. We cannot be oblivious to the fact that when the occupation of the premises in question was a factor in continuation of the liability to pay for the use and occupation thereof, be it in the form of rent or damages, was also a continuing factor. The cause of justice, as viewed by the High Court, did clearly warrant that both these questions be viewed interdependently. For those who seek equity must bow to equity." (imphasis supplied)

15. In Roshan Deen vs. Preeti Lal; (2002) 1 SCC 100, the Supreme Court while setting aside an order passed by the High Court observed that the High Courts while exercising power of superintendence under Article 226 and 227 should ensure that such exercise must ensure that justice is done and at the same time injustice is eliminated. Paragraph 12 of the same reads:-

"12. We are greatly disturbed by the insensitivity reflected in the impugned judgment rendered by the learned Single Judge in a case where judicial mind would be tempted to utilize all possible legal measures to impart justice to a man mutilated so outrageously by his cruel destiny. The High Court non-suited him in exercise of a supervisory and extraordinary jurisdiction envisaged under Article 227 of the Constitution. Time and again this Court has reminded that the power conferred on the High Court under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution is to advance justice and not to thwart it (vide State of U.P. v. District Judge, Unnao [(1984) 2 SCC 673: AIR 1984 SC 1401]). The very purpose of such constitutional powers being conferred on the High Courts is that no man should be subjected to injustice by violating the law. The lookout of the High Court is, therefore, not merely to pick out any error of law through an academic angle but to see whether injustice has resulted on account of any erroneous interpretation of law. If justice became the by-product of an erroneous view of law the High Court is not expected to erase such justice in the name of correcting the error of law,"

16. The Supreme Court in the case of Ramesh Chandra Sankla and Others vs. Vikram Cement and Others and other connected matters, reported as (2008) 14 SCC 58 has considered, affirmed, and reiterated all the aforesaid judgments and held in paragraphs 98 that:-

"98. From the above cases, it clearly transpires that powers under Articles 226 and 227 are discretionary and equitable and are required to be exercised in the larger interest of justice. While granting relief in favour of the applicant, the Court must take into account balancing interests and equities. It can mould relief considering the facts of the case. It can pass an appropriate order which justice may demand and equities may project. As observed by this Court in Shiv Shankar Dal Mills v. State of Haryana, (1980) 1 SCR 1170, Courts of equity should go much further both to give and refuse relief in furtherance of public interest. Granting or withholding of relief may properly be dependent upon considerations of justice, equity and good conscience."(emphasis supplied).

17. The Supreme Court in Shangrila (supra) has held that "One of the ends of the equity is to promote honesty and fair play. If there be any unfair advantage gained by a party, priorly, before invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Court can take into account the unfair advantage gained and can require the party to shed the unfair gain before granting relief."

18. Now reverting to the relevant facts of the case:-

(i) In the first compromise filed on 31.07.1975 before the A.C.O for providing share in land indicated in Khata No.371, as appears from the record, the prayer was made that in the revenue record of Khata No.371, in place of Makka (father of Rambilas, predecessor-in-interest of respondents No.4 to 6) the name of Girdhari and Mohanlal, both sons of Niranjan, and Jagannath S/o Bhawani be mentioned.

(ii) The aforesaid compromise was rejected by the A.C.O and thereafter Jagannath and others, impleading Rambilas as respondent, filed an Appeal No.1675 before the S.O.C./respondent No.2, which was allowed vide order dated 09.09.1976 and the matter was remanded to the C.O./respondent No.3.

(iii) Before the C.O./respondent No.3, in Misc. Case No.1705/58/59 of 1978, a fresh compromise was filed. As per this compromise, the land indicated in Khata No.371 has to be provided in following manner:-

(a) Jaggannath S/o Bhawani 1/3 share

(b) Girdhari S/o Niranjan 1/6 share

(c) Mohan Lal S/o Niranjan 1/6 share

(d) Rambilas S/o Makka 1/3 share.

(iv) The C.O./respondent No.3 rejected the compromise dated 21.08.1978 after observing that it has not been established that the land in issue is an ancestral land and as such if the compromise is accepted, then it would amount to transfer of property, which is not permissible.

(v) In Appeal No.163, preferred before the S.O.C./respondent No.2 challenging the order dated 17.11.1978 passed by the C.O./respondent No.3, again a fresh compromise dated 06.03.1979 was filed.

(vi) As per compromise dated 06.03.1979, 1/3 share was to be provided to Jagannath S/o Bhawani and 2/3 share was to be provided to Rambilas S/o Makka in the law indicated in Khata No.371.

(vii) The compromise dated 06.03.1979 is the basis of order dated 18.06.1985 passed by the S.O.C./respondent No.2 and by this order 1/3 share was provided to Jagannath (predecessor-in-interest of petitioners) and 2/3 share was provided to Rambilas predecessor-in-interest of respondents No.4 to 6) in the land indicated in Khata No.371.

(viii) The compromise dated 06.03.1979, the basis of final order dated 18.06.1985, to the view of this Court was not a lawful/ genuine compromise. It is for the following reasons:-

(a) It is settled principle that claimant/plaintiff has to prove/establish his case.

(b) In the instant case it was not proved before the authorities under the Act, including S.O.C./respondent No.2, who passed the order dated 18.06.1985, by the claimant namely Jagannath(predecessor-in-interest of petitioners) that Bhawani was the original tenure holder of the land indicated in Khata No.371.

(c) No document/evidence has been placed on record to prove/establish that Bhawani was the original tenure holder of the land indicated in Khata No.371.

(d) The shares in the land indicated in Khata No.371 were not provided to all the legal heirs of Bhawani, alleged to be the original tenure holder, and there is no justifiable reason on record to justify the division of land in issue between Jagannath and Rambilas and excluding other legal heirs, though according to earlier compromise(s) i.e. compromise filed on 31.07.1975 and compromise filed on 21.08.1978, all the legal heirs of Bhawani were entitled to shares in the land in issue i.e. the land indicated in Khata No.371..

(e) All the parties to the compromise dated 21.08.1978 and compromise dated 06.03.1979, including Rambilas/ respondent, before the C.O./ respondent No.3 and S.O.C./ respondent No.2, were identified by Sri Triveni Sahai Gupta, Advocate who was engaged by the claimant/ predecessor-in-interest of petitioners.

(f) The aforesaid identification creates doubt regarding entering into the compromise by Rambilas.

(g) Compromise dated 06.03.1979, the basis of order dated 18.06.1985 passed by S.O.C./respondent No.2, was not lawful/genuine can also be inferred from the fact that during the pendency of the application for recall of order dated 02.07.1998, Rambilas was assaulted on 07.04.1999 by Shrichand/(predecessor-in-interest of the petitioners No.2 to 7) and Gumani/petitioner No.2 as also by Gopal/petitioner No.3 and Rambilas succumbed to the injuries sustained and in relation to the said incident, the trial court after considering the material evidence on record convicted these persons under Section 304(2) IPC vide judgment dated 07.09.2001 passed in Sessions Trial No.51 of 2000 (State Vs. Shrichand and two others).

(h) Without establishing/proving the fact that the land is an ancestral property, the rights based upon compromise dated 06.03.1979 were provided only to Jagannath and Rambilas excluding other legal heirs of Bhawani in the land indicated in Khata No.371, which in basic year Khatauni was recorded in the sole name Makka (predecessor-in- interest of Rambilas and respondents No.4 to 6), vide order dated 18.06.1985 passed by S.O.C./respondent No.2.

(i) The S.O.C./respondent No.2 in the order dated 18.06.1985 has not recorded the satisfaction regarding genuineness of the compromise which includes the satisfaction on the lawfulness of the agreement/compromise between the parties as required under the law including Rule 25-A of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Rules, 1954.

(j) If a person had no right under the statute, then in such position, any such right could not be recognised or admitted by a compromise or new right could not be created throughout compromise or conciliation. On this aspect, the observations made by this Court in the judgment passed in the case of Shiv Prasad vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Ghazipur and others, 2006 (101) RD 624 are extracted hereinunder:-

...11. It is well settled that even if a disclosure has been truthfully made by the applicant, the employer has the right to consider antecedents and fitness and cannot be compelled to appoint a candidate. While doing so, the fact of conviction and background facts of the case, nature of offence, etc. have to be considered. Even if the acquittal has been made, the employer may consider the nature of offence, whether acquittal is honourable or giving benefit of doubt on technical reasons, and decline to appoint a person, who is unfit or is of dubious character. Further, in case employer comes to conclusion that conviction or grounds of acquittal in criminal case would not affect the fitness for employment, incumbent may be appointed or continued in service.

12. The observations in Avtar Singh v. Union of Indiam [Avtar Singh v. Union of India, (2016) 8 SCC 471 : (2016) 2 SCC (L&S) 425] in aforesaid context are also pertinent to be noticed: (SCC pp. 505-506, para 31)

"31. Coming to the question whether an employee on probation can be discharged/refused appointment though he has been acquitted of the charge(s), if his case was not pending when form was filled, in such matters, employer is bound to consider grounds of acquittal and various other aspects, overall conduct of employee including the accusations which have been levelled. If on verification, the antecedents are otherwise also not found good, and in number of cases incumbent is involved then notwithstanding acquittals in a case/cases, it would be open to the employer to form opinion as to fitness on the basis of material-on-record. In case offence is petty in nature and committed at young age, such as stealing a bread, shouting of slogans or is such which does not involve moral turpitude, cheating, misappropriation, etc. or otherwise not a serious or heinous offence and accused has been acquitted in such a case when verification form is filled, employer may ignore lapse of suppression or submitting false information in appropriate cases on due consideration of various aspects."

3. The conclusions in Avtar Singh case [Avtar Singh v. Union of India, (2016) 8 SCC 471 : (2016) 2 SCC (L&S) 425] as summarised may also be beneficially reproduced: (SCC pp. 507-508, para 38)

"38. We have noticed various decisions and tried to explain and reconcile them as far as possible. In view of the aforesaid discussion, we summarise our conclusion thus:

38.1. Information given to the employer by a candidate as to conviction, acquittal or arrest, or pendency of a criminal case, whether before or after entering into service must be true and there should be no suppression or false mention of required information.

38.2. While passing order of termination of services or cancellation of candidature for giving false information, the employer may take notice of special circumstances of the case, if any, while giving such information.

38.3. The employer shall take into consideration the government orders/instructions/rules, applicable to the employee, at the time of taking the decision.

38.4. In case there is suppression or false information of involvement in a criminal case where conviction or acquittal had already been recorded before filling of the application/verification form and such fact later comes to knowledge of employer, any of the following recourses appropriate to the case may be adopted:

38.4.1. In a case trivial in nature in which conviction had been recorded, such as shouting slogans at young age or for a petty offence which if disclosed would not have rendered an incumbent unfit for post in question, the employer may, in its discretion, ignore such suppression of fact or false information by condoning the lapse.

38.4.2. Where conviction has been recorded in case which is not trivial in nature, employer may cancel candidature or terminate services of the employee.

38.4.3. If acquittal had already been recorded in a case involving moral turpitude or offence of heinous/serious nature, on technical ground and it is not a case of clean acquittal, or benefit of reasonable doubt has been given, the employer may consider all relevant facts available as to antecedents, and may take appropriate decision as to the continuance of the employee.

38.5. In a case where the employee has made declaration truthfully of a concluded criminal case, the employer still has the right to consider antecedents, and cannot be compelled to appoint the candidate.

38.6. n case when fact has been truthfully declared in character verification form regarding pendency of a criminal case of trivial nature, employer, in facts and circumstances of the case, in its discretion, may appoint the candidate subject to decision of such case.

38.7. In a case of deliberate suppression of fact with respect to multiple pending cases such false information by itself will assume significance and an employer may pass appropriate order cancelling candidature or terminating services as appointment of a person against whom multiple criminal cases were pending may not be proper.

38.8. If criminal case was pending but not known to the candidate at the time of filling the form, still it may have adverse impact and the appointing authority would take decision after considering the seriousness of the crime.

38.9. In case the employee is confirmed in service, holding departmental enquiry would be necessary before passing order of termination/removal or dismissal on the ground of suppression or submitting false information in verification form.

38.10. For determining suppression or false information attestation/verification form has to be specific, not vague. Only such information which was required to be specifically mentioned has to be disclosed. If information not asked for but is relevant comes to knowledge of the employer the same can be considered in an objective manner while addressing the question of fitness. However, in such cases action cannot be taken on basis of suppression or submitting false information as to a fact which was not even asked for.

38.11. Before a person is held guilty of suppressio veri or suggestio falsi, knowledge of the fact must be attributable to him."

14. Reverting back to the facts of the present case, it may be noticed that there is no dispute that the petitioner had truthfully disclosed involvement in FIR No. 424 of 2011 under Sections 498-A/304-BIPC and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act registered at PS: Samthar, U.P. at the time of filling of attestation form.

15. A bare perusal of the judgment of acquittal passed in FIR No. 424 of 2011 under Sections 498-A/304-BIPC and 3/4 of the Prohibition of Dowry Act reveals that the marriage of the petitioner with deceased Kanti was solemnised on 5-5-2007. The deceased expired on 4-7-2011 after period of about four years of marriage on consumption of poison which is alleged to have been administered by her husband (petitioner), father-in-law, mother-in-law and brother-in-law in furtherance of common intention of non-fulfilment of demand of dowry. The FIR was registered after filing of a complaint under Section 156(3)CrPC. However, it is pertinent to note that at the stage of evidence, the material prosecution witnesses did not support the prosecution case. Complainant Shiv Kumar (PW 1) stated that his sister prior to marriage was under depression due to illness and her mental balance was not fit. The complaint under Section 156(3)CrPC was stated to have been given by him on the instigation of others. The witness was also duly cross-examined and admitted that the accused had never harassed the deceased or demanded any dowry. He also admitted that his sister had died since she was continuously having pain in her stomach. Similarly, PW 2 Smt Meena (mother of the deceased) and PW 4 Sanjay (brother of the deceased) did not support the prosecution version and were also declared hostile.

16. It cannot be ignored that omnibus allegations had been made against all the family members of petitioner with reference to unfortunate death of deceased within seven years of marriage. However, in the witness box, none of the witnesses supported, who were the close family members of the deceased. The levelling of allegations at the instigation of others has been admitted by PW 1 and it is not out of place that in the Indian context, out of love and affection for deceased and minor differences in matrimonial relations at times allegations are made against the entire family. It is definitely unfortunate that deceased died within seven years of marriage but an adverse inference cannot be drawn under all circumstances against the accused if the same have not been supported in any manner by the witnesses, who were the close family members of the deceased. It has also come on record in evidence of PW 5 Dr Sant Ram Verma that the accused themselves had taken the deceased to the Primary Health Centre and she was in senses at aforesaid time. Further, the deceased did not disclose any other fact except of her illness. The operative portion whereby the accused had been acquitted, giving the "benefit of doubt" is to be appreciated in the light of the evidence on record and the words "benefit of doubt" cannot be mechanically read and applied. The present case is not wherein a "benefit of doubt" was extended on account of discrepancies in the evidence but since the allegations in no manner were supported by the prosecution witnesses. There is no evidence to presume that the petitioner had any role in winning over the witnesses. The findings by the Screening Committee are merely based on involvement of the petitioner in aforesaid FIR and wrong presumption that petitioner had no respect for women without appreciating the judgment of acquittal in correct perspective.

17. In the facts and circumstances, we are of the considered view that having regard to the evidence on record and the fact that the petitioner had already been considered suitable for appointment as SI (EXE) in CISF, the Screening Committee was not justified in concluding that the petitioner was not suitable for appointment to the post in Delhi Police. The Screening Committee failed to appreciate the entirety of facts and was merely swayed by invocation of Section 304-BIPC in FIR which was never supported on record by the material witnesses who were the close relations of the deceased.

8. The court needs to be alive to the realities in such cases as an exaggeration of allegations in such unfortunate incidents, out of minor matrimonial differences cannot be ruled out. In the present case, the benefit of doubt has not been granted by the learned Sessions Judge merely for some discrepancies in evidence or technical reasons but since no cogent evidence was brought on record to support the allegations of demand of dowry soon before the death of deceased

19. In trial for criminal offences, the accused is presumed to be innocent unless proved guilty and it is the duty of the prosecution for establishing the actus reus of the crime as well as the mens rea. When the accused is acquitted after full consideration of prosecution evidence and the prosecution miserably fails to prove the charges levelled against the accused, it can possibly be said that the accused was honourably acquitted as held in Inspector General of Police v. S. Samuthiram [Inspector General of Police v. S. Samuthiram, (2013) 1 SCC 598 : (2013) 1 SCC (Cri) 566 : (2013) 1 SCC (L&S) 229]

20. There can be no second opinion that each case is to be scrutinised on its own facts through the designated officers and in case of the police force, the scrutiny needs to be more closer since the police officials are under a duty to tackle lawlessness. However, at the same time, generalisations cannot be made to deny the offer of appointment merely on the basis of registration of FIR without considering the reasoning in the judgment and the relevant facts and circumstances. Apart from the registration of the aforesaid FIR, there is nothing on record to reflect that the antecedents or the conduct of the petitioner disqualified him in any manner for the appointment to the post of SI (EXE), Delhi Police. It may be difficult to presume that the petitioner would be a threat to the discipline of the police force merely on account of aforesaid FIR and also considering the fact that petitioner had already joined on selection as SI (EXE) in CISF in an exam conducted by SSC. It does not appear to be logical that the petitioner who was found fit for appointment to the post of SI in CISF may be held to be unsuitable for appointment in Delhi Police on the basis of exam conducted by the same recruiting agency i.e. SSC.

19. Having considered the aforesaid, this Court is of the view that order dated 18.06.1985, based upon the ingenuine compromise dated 06.03.1979, was not a lawful order and accordingly considering the principles embodied above, this Court is not inclined to interefere in the order dated 19.01.2016 passed by the D.D.C./respondent No.1, as intereference in the same would revive an another illegal order dated 18.06.1985.

20. For the aforesaid reasons, the present writ petition is dismissed.

21. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2346
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE CHANDRA KUMAR RAI, J.

Writ-B No. 9357 of 1978

Smt. Rani Jai Ratan Kaur ...Petitioner
Versus
D.D.C. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Swaraj Prakash, S. Shekhar, Sushil Kumar Mishra. V.B. Upadhyaya, V.K. Singh, Vinod Kumar

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
Anil Bhushan, Arpan Srivastava, C.P. Singh, Neelabh Srivastava, S.C., V.K. Upadhyay

A. Civil Law - Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, Chapter IX-A - Sections 240-G & 240-H - Compensation statement amounts to adjudication of title between the land holder and the person claiming Adhivasi right and principles of res-judicata and constructive res-judicata will apply only to Adhivasi who was party to proceedings. Judgment passed u/s 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act operate as res-judicata in the consolidation proceeding.

B. The court examined the order sheet of the case u/s 240-G of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, as well as the judgment passed by the Additional S.D.O. dated 13.8.1958 in Suit No. 191 of 1957-58, which showed that issues were framed, reference was made, objections were filed by respondent nos. 3 & 4, and evidence was adduced by both parties. Additional S.D.O. held that respondent nos. 3 & 4 were entitled to be recorded as Asami, and their claim for Sirdari rights was rejected. Based on the order dated 13.8.1958, which had attained finality, petitioner no. 1 remained recorded as Bhumidhar, even in the basic year of the consolidation operation, i.e., 1971. Judgment dated 13.8.1958, passed u/s 240-G of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, operated as res judicata in the consolidation proceedings. Held: The court found that there was proper compliance with Section 240-H of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act. The finding of Deputy Director of Consolidation, that the record does not establish that the judgment u/s 240-G of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was passed by a competent authority was wholly illegal. Consolidation Officer's order directing that respondent no. 3 shall be recorded as Asami and not as Sirdar was upheld. (Para 15)

Allowed. (E-5)

List of cases cited:

1. Awdhesh Singh & anr. Vs Bikarma Ahir & ors. A.I.R. 1975 Allahabad 324

2. Sukhram Singh & anr. Vs Smt. Harbheji A.I.R. 1969 Supreme Court 1114

3. Mirdad & ors. Vs Board of Revenue & ors. A.I.R. 1977 Supreme Court 94

4. Maqbool Raza Vs Joint Director of Consolidation, U.P., Lucknow & ors. 1967 RD 440

5. Sukhram Singh Vs Smt. Harbheji 1969 RD 165

6. Amba Prasad Vs Mahaboob Ali Shah & ors. A.I.R. 1965 Supreme Court 54

7. Smt.Sonawati & ors. Vs Sri Ram & ors. A.I.R. 1968 Supreme Court 466

8. Preetam Singh (Dead) by Lrs & ors. Vs Assistant Director of Consolidation & ors. JT 1996 (1) SC 471

(Delivered by Hon'ble Chandra Kumar Rai, J.)

1. Heard Shri V.K. Singh, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Shri S. Shekhar, learned Counsel for the petitioner, Shri Anil Bhushan, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Shri Arpan Shrivastav, learned counsel for contesting respondent Nos.3 and 4 and Shri Sharad Chandra Singh, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. Brief facts of the case are that village Patka Bogha, Pargana, Khairagarh, District Allahabad came under consolidation operation by way of notification issued under Section 4 of U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953, (hereinafter referred to as "U.P.C.H. Act") in the year 1971. According to petitioner No.1 a patta was executed by Raja Sahab in favour of petitioner No.1 in 1929 for maintenance as petitioner No.1 was living separately from her husband and petitioner No.1 being disable to do cultivation sublet the land to respondent Nos. 3 and 4. In the Basic Year of Consolidation Operation, petitioners were recorded as Bhumidhar of the plots of Khata No.3 situated in aforementioned village as mentioned in paragraph No.5 of the writ petition and respondent No.3 was recorded in class-7 as Asami. During consolidation partal, Plot No. 110/3 and 240/2, one Deotadin claimed to be in possession of the plot in dispute. Plots of Khata No. 3/1 was recorded in the name of respondent No.3-Sampat in Class-7 as Asami. Plot of Khata No.1 as mentioned in paragraph No.4 of the writ petition was recorded in the name of petitioner No.1, Rani Jai Ratan Kaur as bhumidhar and respondent No.3-Sampat was recorded in Class-7 as Asami. Plot of Khata No.3 were also recorded in the name of petitioner No.1-Rani Jai Ratan Kaur and respondent No.3-Sampat was recorded in Class-7 as asami. One plot No.73/3 area 3 biswa 10 biswansi of khata No.3 was recorded in Class-9 category in the name of respondent No.3-Sampat. Plots of Khata No.8 were recorded in the name of Shri Sant Bux Singh as Bhumidhar. The disputed plots which were recorded in the name of petitioner No.1-Rani Jai Ratan Kaur was stated to be transferred later on in favour of petitioner Nos. 2 and 3. Against Basic Year Entry an objection under Section 9-A(2) of U.P.C.H. Act was filed by respondent No.3/Sampat for expunging the entry of class-7 and for recording his name as sirdar. Respondent No.3 contested his claim on the ground that he was recorded in 1356 fasli and 1359 fasli, as such, he became Adhivasi and later on Sirdar. It was also pleaded by opposite party No. 3 that Petitioner No. 1, who is the wife of Raja Bhagwati Prasad Singh, is not a disabled person and the entry of Class-7 as Asami in respect to respondent No. 3 is incorrect and is liable to be expunged. On behalf of petitioner No.1. the claim was set up that petitioner No.1 is a disabled person in view of adjudication took place by a competent court, as such the judgment passed by competent court declaring petitioner No.1 is a disabled person will operate as res-judicata between the parties. It was further pleaded on behalf of petitioners that petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 obtained a disputed land by exchanged from petitioner No.1. Consolidation Officer vide order dated 23.03.1972 rejected the objection filed by contesting respondents and ordered to record their name as Asami as well as the name of Ramhit was ordered to be expunged from Plot No. 73/3, area 3 biswa, 10 biswansi and the name of Deotadin was also ordered to be expunged from Plot No. 110/3, area 2 biswa & Plot No. 240/2 area 10 biswa. Respondent Nos.3 and 4 challenged the order of Consolidation Officer dated 23.03.1972 by way of four appeals under Section 11 of U.P.C.H. Act before Settlement Officer Consolidation which were registered as Appeal Nos.86 to 89. The aforementioned appeals were consolidated and decided by common judgment dated 03.07.1972 dismissing the aforementioned appeals. Respondent Nos.3 and 4 filed four revisions under Section 48 of U.P.C.H. Act before Deputy Director of Consolidation which were registered as revision Nos. 47/3, 48/35, 49/36, and 50/37. The aforementioned revisions were consolidated and heard together. The Deputy Director of Consolidation by order dated 07.07.1973 allowed the aforementioned revisions setting aside the orders of Consolidation Officer and Settlement Officer of Consolidation and remanded the matter back before Consolidation Officer for considering the questions of estoppel etc. In pursuance of the remand order passed by Deputy Director of Consolidation dated 07.07.1973, the Consolidation Officer heard the matter and rejected the objection of respondent Nos.3 and 4 vide order dated 15.10.1974. In appeal filed under Section 11 of U.P.C.H. Act by respondent Nos. 3 and 4 against the order of Consolidation Officer dated 15.10.1974 the Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation vide order dated 25.03.1975 allowed the appeal setting aside the order of Consolidation Officer dated 15.10.1974. Revision filed by petitioners under Section 48 of U.P.C.H. Act against the appellate order dated 25.3.1975 was dismissed by Deputy Director of Consolidation vide order dated 9.8.1978. Hence this writ petition on behalf of the petitioners challenging the order dated 09.08.1978 passed by Deputy Director of Consolidation and order dated 25.03.1975 passed by Settlement Officer of Consolidation.

3. In respect to proceedings under Section 240-G and 240-H of U.P.Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 (hereinafter referred to as U.P.Z.A.& L.R. Act) brief facts of the case are that in Suit No. 191 of 1957-58 under Section 240-G and 240-H of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act an objection was filed by petitioner No.1 on the ground that in view of the provisions contained under Section 157 of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act she should be declared disabled and separated wife and the claim of respondent Nos.3 and 4 for Adhivasi/ Sirdari rights is not tenable as respondent Nos.3 and 4 are Asami and petitioner No.1 is Bhumidhar of plot in question. The Compensation Officer framed issues and referred the matter to the Court of Sub-Divisional Officer Meja, Allahabad who was competent to decide the issue of title. The Additional Sub-Divisional Officer vide judgment dated 13.08.1958 decided the matter in a judicial proceeding considering the objection of respondent Nos.3 and 4 holding that the claim of respondent Nos.3 and 4 for Adhivasi/ Sirdari right is rejected and the claim of petitioner No.1 is accepted. One suit under Section 202 of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act was also filed against respondent Nos.3 and 4 which was abated under Section 5 of U.P.C.H. Act.

4. This court on 06.11.1978 admitted the writ petition and issued notice to respondent No.4.

5. In pursuance of the order dated 06.11.1978, parties have exchanged their pleadings.

6. Learned Senior Counsel for petitioners submitted that Deputy Director of Consolidation as well as Settlement Officer Consolidation has committed manifest error of law in holding that adjudication took place under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act will not operate as res-judicata in the consolidation proceeding. He further submitted that Sub-Divisional Officer Meja, Allahabad in suit under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A.& L.R. Act has held vide judgement dated 13.08.1958 that petitioner No.1 is disabled person and the entry of respondent Nos. 3 and 4 is liable to be expunged. He further placed the proceeding which took place before the Compensation Officer under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act in order to demonstrate that proceeding has taken place in proper manner by referring the dispute to the competent authority, framing issues, giving opportunity to the parties to lead evidence in support of their case and deciding the matter with respect to the title of the parties, accordingly, the adjudication took place under Section 240-H of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act will operate as res-judicata in the subsequent consolidation proceeding in view of full Bench decision of this Court reported in A.I.R. 1975 Allahabad 324 Awdhesh Singh and another versus Bikarma Ahir and others. He further submitted that even in the oral evidence before the Consolidation Authorities petitioners' witness namely Ram Kripal has not stated that Raja Sahab is in possession over the land in dispute but Settlement Officer Consolidation as well as Deputy Director of Consolidation has misread the oral evidence adduced by petitioners' witnesses Ram Kripal. He further submitted that petitioner No.1 was held to be disabled person in view of the provision contained under Section 157 of U.P.Z.A.& L.R. Act, as such the same will operate as res judicata in the consolidation proceeding. He further submitted that after adjudication of the claim under Section 240-H of U.P.Z.A.&L.R. Act, no claim was raised by respondent Nos.3 and No.4 till 1972 when the consolidation intervened in the village in question. He further submitted that impugned judgment passed by Deputy Director of consolidation and Settlement Officer of Consolidation are wholly illegal as such, the same are liable to be set aside and judgment of Consolidation Officer be affirmed. He placed reliance upon judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court reported in A.I.R. 1969 Supreme Court 1114 Sukhram Singh and another Vs. Smt. Harbheji as well as A.I.R. 1977 Supreme Court 94 Mirdad and others Vs. Board of Revenue and others in support of his argument.

7. On the other hand, learned Senior Counsel for respondent nos.3 & 4 submitted that respondent nos.3 & 4 are in possession over the land in dispute since before 30 years from the date of filing of objection under Section 9 of U.P.C.H. Act that is before date of vesting, as such, they became Sirdar of the land in dispute. He further submitted that the petitioner no.1 is not a disabled person and order passed in the proceeding under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act would not operate as res-judicata in the subsequent title proceeding under Section 9 of U.P.C.H. Act. He next submitted that the dispute under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was decided by the Sub-Divisional Officer as the Compensation Officer, as such, the same will not come in the way of Consolidation Courts to decide the title dispute according to the evidence adduced before the Consolidation Officer rather on the basis of adjudication took place under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act. He further submitted that the Deputy Director of Consolidation while deciding the first revision filed by respondent nos.3 & 4 against the earlier order of Settlement Officer of Consolidation dated 3.7.1972 has held that Additional Divisional Officer has exercised his power as Compensation Officer and not as Judicial Officer as such the same will not operate as res-judicata in Consolidation proceeding, the aforementioned judgment of Deputy Director of Consolidation dated 7.7.1973 has not been challenged by the petitioners before any Court, as such, the finding recorded under the earlier revisional judgment of Deputy Director of Consolidation dated 7.7.1973 is binding on the Courts as well as the parties. He next submitted that in the year 1967 petitioners have filed a suit for eviction of the respondents from the land in dispute before the revenue Court under Section 202 of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act but the same was abated due to consolidation operation took place in the village in question. He further submitted that theory of separation setup by the petitioner no.1 is for the purposes of the case as age of Santbux Singh being 40 years in the year 1973 indicate that he was born after execution of patta in the year 1929. He further submitted that there is no illegality in the judgment passed by respondent nos.1 & 2, as such, no interference is required in the matter and the writ petition filed by the petitioners is liable to be dismissed. He further placed reliance upon the judgement passed by full Bench of this Court in the case reported in 1967 RD 440 (Maqbool Raza Vs. Joint Director of Consolidation, U.P., Lucknow & others as well as the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court reported in 1969 RD 165, Sukhram Singh vs. Smt. Harbheji in order to demonstrate that the Consolidation Officer are competent to look into the question as to who is Adhivasi & thereafter Sirdar in spite of the adjudication took place under Section 240-J of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act. He further submitted that in view of entry of 1356 fasli & 1359 fasli, the right & title of the respondent Nos.3 and 4 cannot be negatived in view of the law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case reported in A.I.R. 1965 Supreme Court 54 Amba Prasad Vs. Mahaboob Ali Shah and others as well as A.I.R. 1968 Supreme Court 466 Smt.Sonawati and others vs. Sri Ram and others.

8. I have considered the argument advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

9. There is no dispute about the fact that the plot in dispute was recorded in the name of the petitioner no.1 as bhumidhar and the name of respondent no.3 was recorded as Asami in the basic year of the consolidation operation. There is also no dispute about the fact that the objection under Section 9-A (2) of U.P.C.H. Act filed by respondent no.3 for recording his name as Sirdar after expunging the entry of Class 7/ Asami in respect to the plot in question has been rejected by the Consolidation Officer directing that respondent no.3 shall be recorded as Asami and not as Sirdar. There is also no dispute about the fact that in appeal filed by respondent nos.3 & 4, the order of Consolidation Officer was set aside and respondent nos.3 & 4 was ordered to be recorded as Sirdar after expunging the entry of Jaman-7 from revenue records. There is also no dispute about the fact that the revision filed by the petitioners has been dismissed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

10. In order to appreciate the controversy involved in the matter perusal of Section 240-G & 240-H of Chapter IX-A of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act will be relevant for perusal, which are as under:

Conferment of Sirdari rights on Adhivasi

"240G. Filing of objections. - Any person interested or the State Government may in the manner prescribed file before the Compensation Officer an objection upon such statement within the period of one month from the date of its publication.

240H. Disposal of Objections. - (1) Except as provided in subordered to record the name-section (2), the Compensation Officer shall after hearing the parties, if necessary, on the objections filed under Section 240- G, dispose of the objections in the manner prescribed.

(2) Where the objection filed under sub-section (1)-

(a) is that the land is not land referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 240-A the Compensation Officer shall frame an issue to that effect and refer it for disposal to the Court which would have jurisdiction to decide a suit under Section 229-B read with Section 234-A in respect of the land and thereupon all the provisions relating to the hearing and disposal of such suits shall apply to the reference as if it were suit;

(b) involves a question of title and such question has not already been determined by a competent court, the Compensation Officer shall, [except in cases in which Section 240-HH applies] refer the question for determination to the [court of competent jurisdiction]. Explanation. - Whether a person is or is not an adhivasi shall not be deemed to raise a question of title within the meaning of this clause.

(3) [The court of competent jurisdiction] shall determine the question referred to him under Clause (b) of sub-section (2) in the manner prescribed and his decision thereon shall be final."

The Chapter IX of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was inserted by U.P. Act No.20 of 1954.

11. In the instant matter order sheet of the proceeding under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, which took place between 12.2.1957 to 12.8.1957 will be also relevant for perusal, which are as under:

"नकल फर्द एहकाम रानी जैरतन कुवर बनाम आदित्य प्रसाद वगैरह दफा 240जी० मौजा पटखा बागेहा

फै० 13-8-58

12-2-57

आज मुकदमा पेश हुआ पुकार कराई गई। उज्रदार हाजिर हुआ राम करन वगैरह ने बयान तहरीरी दाखिल किया कार्यवाही रिपोर्ट शामिल मिसिल की गई।

14-3-57

ह० चतुरलाल सिंह

मुकदमा ब ता० 14-3-57 को पेश हो और यदि कोई अधिवासी हाजिर न हो तो मुकदमा की कार्यवाही परगना धीश मेजा के यहाँ भेज दिया जावे।

14-3-57

आज मुकदमा पेश हुआ पुकार कराई उजुरदार हाजिर हुआ अधिवासी गण हाजिर हुये।

मुकदमा निजाई है वास्ते कार्यवाही परगना धीश मेजा भेजा जाय और उजुरदार व अधिवासी गण व ता० 5-4-57 को परगनाधीश के इजलास हाजिर हों।

हा० चतुरलाल सिंह

5.4.57

5-4-57

आज मुकदमा मौसूफ होकर पेश हुआ वकील फरीक खाली में 24 काश्त कारान हाजिर आये वाकी गैर हाजिर हैं। फरीक अव्वल की तरफ से कोई भी हाजिर नहीं आया। इस बुल हुकुम

उजुरदारी अदमखारिज 5-4-57के बाद 11-7-57, 25-7-57

22-8-57

वास्ते सूबूत कागजी

Issues

(1) Whether the objections suffers under disability provided under section 157 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act.

(2) Whether the order objections we re Adhisasis and have become Sirdar of the land, in dispute.

S.d. Illegible

S.D.O.

22-8-57"

12. The perusal of the relevant portion of the order of Additional S.D.O. Meja, Allahabad dated 13.8.1958 in Suit No.191 of 1957-1958 under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act are also relevant for perusal, which is as under:

"In the Court of Addl. S.D.O. Meja, Allahabad.
Suit NO.191 of 57-58 under Section 240G.
Village-Patkha Bagna Pargana Khairagarh,
Tahsil Meja, District- Allahabad.
Rani Jai Ratan Kunwar Vs. Aditya Prasad
Decided on 13.5.1958
Copy of order
In the court of Shri Chauhal Singh Additional S.D.O. Meja
Case No.191 of V. Patkha Bangna Rani Jai Ratan Kunwar vs. Aditya Prasad and Others

This is an objection ..... ……Rani Sahiba's case therefore fully covered under Sub-Section (a) of Section 157 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act under separation. She is entitled to its benefit. Issue no.I is therefore decided in the affirmative.

Issue No.2:-

Since the applicant objector has been adjudged to be entitled to the benefit under Section 157 (a) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act the occupants of her lands is not acquire Adhivasi rights but would be Assamis under Section 21 (h) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act and the issue is decided accordingly.

I, therefore, allow this objection of Rani Jai Ratan Kunwar and order that the names of opposite party be expunged from Adhivasi now Sirdar Khatas and they be entered as sub-tenants. Rani Jai Ratan Kunwar would not be entitled to any compensation.

…… would be cancelled ……may be restored to

.....Rani Jai Ratan Kunwar according to the entry of 1362 F.

Sd/-Chauhal Singh Add. S.D.O. Meja

13.8.1958

13. The ratio of law of full Bench decision of this Court in the case of Avdhesh Singh (Supra) will be also relevant. Paragraph no.12 of the judgment is as under:

"12. My answer to the first four questions referred to us are as follows:--

(1) Finality of Compensation Statement under Section 240-J, U. P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act extinguishes the rights and title of the land-holder and the land-holder is debarred from showing in collateral or separate proceedings that the land is not held by an Adhivasi, except in cases where the provisions of the Act have not been followed or where the Compensation Statement has been prepared in disregard of the fundamental principles of judicial procedure (Katikara Chintamani Dora v. G`uatreddi Annamanaidu MANU/SC/0336/1973 : [1974]2SCR655 . If the requirements of the Act have not been complied with or the fundamental principles of judicial procedure have been disregarded, the Compensation Statement signed and sealed by the Compensation Officer under Section 240-J (2) of the Act can be assailed in collateral proceedings.

(2) The Compensation Statement signed and sealed under Section 240-J (2) of the Act is final between the land-holder and the State alone.

(3) The Compensation Statement amounts to an adjudication of title between the land-holder and the person claiming Adhivasi rights and the principle of res judicata and constructive res judicata will apply only to an Adhivasi who has been a party to proceedings consequent on an objection of the nature contemplated by Section 240-H (2) (a) of the Act.

(4) The land-holder against whom Compensation Statement has become final and who has received compensation has no locus standi to reagitate his rights in respect of the land in question."

14. The perusal of Paragraph no.12 (3) of the judgment rendered in Awadhesh Singh (Supra) as quoted above, demonstrates that the compensation statement amounts to adjudication of title between the land holder and the person claiming Adhivasi right and principles of res-judicata and constructive res-judicata will apply only to Adhivasi who was party to proceedings.

15. The perusal of order sheet of case under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act as well as judgment passed by the Additional S.D.O. dated 13.8.1958 passed in Suit No.191 of 1957-58 fully demonstrate that issues were framed, reference was made, objections were filed by respondent nos.3 & 4 as well as evidences were adduced by both parties including revenue entry of 1356 fasli, 1359 fasli, 1363 fasli, accordingly, Additional S.D.O. Meja, Allahabad has held that respondent nos.3 & 4 are entitled to be recorded as Asami & claim for Sirdari right of respondent nos.3 & 4 was rejected.

16. On the basis of the order dated 13.8.1958, which had attained finality, the petitioner no.1 remained recorded as bhumidhar even in the basic year of the consolidation operation i.e. 1971.

17. In view of the paragraph no.12 (3) of the full Bench decision of this Court in the case of Awadesh Singh (supra), the judgment dated 15.8.1958 passed under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act will operate as res-judicata in the consolidation proceeding.

18. So far as the argument advanced by learned Senior Counsel for respondent nos.3 & 4 that in view of the finding recorded by Deputy Director of Consolidation while passing the earlier remand order dated 7.7.1973 that judgment dated 13.8.1958 passed under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act will not operate as res-judicata in consolidation proceeding cannot be accepted in view of ratio of law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case reported in JT 1996 (1) SC 471, Preetam Singh (Dead) by Lrs & Others Vs. Assistant Director of Consolidation & Others. Paragraph nos.5 & 6 of the judgment rendered in Preetam Singh (supra) will be relevant for perusal, which are as under:

"5. We have heard learned Counsel for the appellants. We can safely say on the strength of the two precedents of the Court in Jasraj Inder Singh v. Hemraj Multanchand : [1977]2SCR973 and Smt. Sukhrani (dead) by LRs. and Ors. v. Hari Shankar and Ors. : [1979]3SCR671 that the appellant should succeed. In the former case this Court expressed its view that "the remand order by the High Court is a finding at an intermediate stage of the same litigation. The appeal before the Supreme Court is from the suit as a whole and therefore, the entire subject matter is available for adjudication before it.... Otherwise the whole lis for the first time came to the Supreme Court and the High Court's finding at an intermediate stage does not prevent examination of the position of law by the Supreme Court. Intermediate stages of the litigation and orders passed at those stages have a provisional finality.... The contention barred before the High Court is still available to be canvassed before this Court when it seeks to pronounce finally on the entirety of the suit...." In the later case this Court expressed the view "that though a decision given at an earlier stage of the suit will bind the parties at a later stage of the same suit, it is equally well settled that because a matter has been decided at an earlier stage by an interlocutory order and no appeal has been taken there from or no appeal did lie, a higher court is not precluded from considering the matter again at a later stage of the same litigation."

6. When the matter was in revision before the Assistant Director (Consolidation), he had the entire matter before him and his jurisdiction was unfettered. While in seisin of the matter in his revisional jurisdiction, he was in complete control and in position to test the correctness of the order made by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) effecting remand. In other words, in exercise of revisional jurisdiction the Assistant Director (Consolidation) could examine the finding recorded by the Settlement Officer as to the abandonment of the land in dispute by those tenants who had been recorded at the crucial time in the Khasra of 1359 Fasli. That power as a superior court the Assistant Director (Consolidation) had, even if the remand order of the Settlement Officer had not been specifically put to challenge in separate and independent proceedings. It is noteworthy that the Court of the Assistant Director (Consolidation) is a court of revisional jurisdiction otherwise having suo moto power to correct any order of the subordinate officer. In this situation the Assistant Director (Consolidation) should not have felt fettered in doing complete justice between the parties when the entire matter was before him. The war of legalistics fought in the High Court was of no material benefit to the appellants. A decision on merit covering the entire controversy was due from the Assistant Director (Consolidation)."

19. The Deputy Director of Consolidation while passing the impugned order has recorded finding that from the record of the proceeding it is not established that judgment dated 13.8.1958 under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was passed by competent authority from the order sheet of the proceedings as well as the judgment dated 13.8.1958 passed in Suit No.191 of 1957-58, under Section 240-G of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, which is quoted above in the earlier part of this judgment fully demonstrates that each & every requirement Section 240-H of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act are fulfilled, as such, impugned judgment passed by revisional Court is wholly illegal. The appellate Court has also passed the impugned judgment contrary to the ratio of law laid down by full Bench of this Court in Awadhesh Singh (supra).

20. The full Bench judgment of this Court in the case of Maqbool Raza (supra) & judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Sukh Ram (supra) cited by learned Senior Counsel for the respondent nos.3 & 4 will not apply in the instant matter as there was proper compliance of Section 240-H of U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act in the instant matter and in the full Bench decision of this Court in Awadhesh Singh (supra) the full Bench decision of Maqbool Raza (supra) was taken into consideration.

21. Considering the entire facts and circumstances of the case, the impugned judgment dated 25.3.1975 passed by respondent no.2/ Assistant Settlement Officer of Consolidation & judgment dated 9.8.1978 passed by respondent no.1/ Deputy Director of Consolidation are liable to be set aside and the same are hereby set aside.

22. The writ petition stands allowed and order of Consolidation Officer dated 15.10.1974 is maintained by which basic year entry was maintained.

23. No order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2355
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ASHUTOSH SRIVASTAVA, J.

Writ-C No. 9568 of 2024

Murtja ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Pradeep Kumar Rai, Prajyot Rai

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
C.S.C., Kaushal Kishore Mani

Civil Law - U.P.Z.A.LR Act-Sections 132, 194, 195 & 198-the plot in question is recorded as 'Zohad' (pond) in the Revenue Records-such category is covered u/s 132 of the Act-no bhumidhari right can accrue-certain land covered u/s 132 of the Act can be allotted as Aasami by the land Management Committee as per the Act-The committee has exercised power u/s 195 in allotting the land to the vendor of the Petitioner-lease granted to petitioner rightly rejected-no right accrued to Petitioner by sale deed-allotment in favour of vendor was Aasami lease year to year-Petitioner being a transferee from the original Aasami cannot acquire rights over the land.

W.P. dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jitendra Kumar Vs St. of U.P. & ors., reported in 2018(8) ADJ 503

2. Vakila Vs St. of U.P. & ors., reported in 2008(3) ADJ 444

(Delivered by Hon'ble Ashutosh Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Pradeep Kumar Rai, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Abhishek Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State Respondents and Sri Kaushal Kishore Mani, learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of the Respondent No. 4, Land Management Committee.

2. The writ petition has been filed questioning the legality, propriety and correctness of the order dated 06.12.2023 passed by the Additional Commissioner (Administration-II) Saharanpur Division, Saharanpur in Case No. 629 of 2023, under Section 333 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 as also the order dated 12.12.2023 passed by the Additional Collector (Finance & Revenue) Saharanpur in Case No. 13 of 2012-13 under Section 115-P of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950.

3. By the order dated 12.12.2023, the Additional Collector (F & R) Saharanpur after registering a case against the petitioner under Section 115-P of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act has expunged the name of the petitioner and directed the land in dispute to be recorded as 'Johad' at the same time has cancelled the proposal of the Land Management Committee dated 24.02.1976 and approval dated 06.03.1976. The Revision preferred by the petitioner against the said order has also been dismissed by the order dated 06.12.2023.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the dispute in the present writ petition relates to Plot No. 110M area 0.1740 which was recorded in the name of one Mohd. Ali son of Faimuddin, as Bhumidhar with Transferable Rights in Khatauni 1419F to 1424F since 1403F. After the death of the said Mohd. Ali, his sons Zulifikar and Mustafa and widow Shakila were recorded under PA-11 by the order of the Revenue Inspector dated 29.04.2008 and their names were also reflected in the Khatauni 1419F to 1424F. Mst. Shakila widow of Mohd. Ali, Zulfikar and Mustafa executed a sale deed dated 18.01.2008 in favour of Mustafa and Murtaza sons of Abdul Latif of the Plot No. 110/1M area 0.174 hectare and the names of Mustafa and Murtaza came to be recorded in the Khatauni 1419F to 1424F by order of the Tehsildar Nakur, Saharanpur dated 29.02.2009.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the Deputy Collector, Saharanur submitted a report dated 30.06.2012 to the effect that the Plot No. 110 area 14 Biswa was recorded as 'Zohad' (Pond). The Land Management Committee under its resolution dated 24.02.1976 approved on 06.03.1976 allotted Plot No. 110 area 1 bigha in favour of Mohd. Ali under an agricultural lease. After the death of Mohd. Ali, the land stood recorded in the names of his heirs. The heirs transferred the land in favour of Mustafa and Murtaza, sons of Abdul Latif. In the allotted plot, an area of 0.031 hectare stands recorded as road and remaining area 0.174 hectare is recorded as 'Johad' (Pond) and the allotment in favour of Mohd. Ali was irregular as the land is covered by Section 132 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act. On the strength of the report dated 30.06.2012, proceeding under Section 115-P of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act was initiated which culminated in order dated 12.12.2013. The Appeal preferred by Mustafa against the order dated 12.12.2013 was dismissed and the Revision under Section 333 was also dismissed. The writ petition filed by Mustafa was also dismissed. Thereafter the petitioner preferred a Revision against the order dated 12.12.2013, which has been dismissed by the order dated 06.12.2023.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner has assailed the orders impugned primarily on the ground that the Plot No. 110M area 1 Bigha was allotted to Mohd. Ali son of Faimuddin under the proposal of the Land Management Committee dated 12.12.1976 which allotment was also approved on 06.03.1976. The name of the Vendor of the petitioner was recorded over the land as Class-2 since 1395F. Out of total area 1 Bigha, 14 Biswa of Plot No. 110 was recorded as 'Johad' (Pond). Mohd. Ali became Bhumidhar of the plot of area 1 Bigha under Section 131-B of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950. The petitioner purchased the plot after inspection of the records on 18.01.2008. The petitioner was also recorded over the plot as Bhumidhar. The proceedings under Section 115-P of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 are ex-facie illegal and the impugned orders are liable to be set aside and the writ petition deserves to be allowed. The sale deed in favour of the petitioner is still valid and the entry in the revenue records could be corrected only after the sale deed as set aside. Reliance is placed upon the decision of Coordinate Bench of this court in the case of Jitendra Kumar Vs. State of U.P. and others, reported in 2018(8) ADJ 503 and in the case of Vakila Vs. State of U.P. & others, reported in 2008(3) ADJ 444.

7. Sri Abhishek Shukla, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State Respondents submits that the Additional Collector (F & R) Saharanpur after considering all aspects has recorded finding of fact that the land allotted to the Vendor of the petitioner was 'Zohad' (Pond) Category 6(1) and covered by Section 132 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 and over which no Bhumidhari Rights could accrue. The said finding of fact has also been upheld in Revision and in such view of the matter no interference is warranted by this Court in exercise of its extra ordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of India and the writ petition is liable to be dismissed at the threshold.

8. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel appearing for the State Respondents and have perused the record as also the case laws cited by learned counsel for the petitioner at the Bar.

9. Admittedly, the Plot No. 110 is Category 6(1) land recorded as 'Zohad' (Pond) in the Revenue Records. Such category of land is covered under Section 132 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 and no Bhumidhari right can be said to accrue in respect of such land.

10. The Khatauni extracts pertaining to the Fasli year 1389 to 1394, 1395 to 1400 filed as Annexure No. 5 to the writ petition depicts that the original allottee Mohd. Ali son of Faimuddin was recorded as Class/ Category-2 Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights over the land of Plot No. 110/1 as lease holder. Land, which is covered under Section 132 of the Act, no Bhumidhari Right can be said to accrue as provided in the Section itself. However, certain land which are covered under Section 132 of the Act can be allotted as Aasami by the Land Management Committee but by virtue of Section 197 sub-Section (2) of the Act, the right to admit any person as Aasami of any tank, pond or other land covered by water shall be regulated by the Rules made under the Act. The allotment of tank, pond or other land are governed by Government Orders issued under Section 126 of the Act. The case at hand is not a case where the allotment has been done under Section 197(2) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, as allotment is as Asankramani Bhumidhar and not as Aasami. In the present case, the Land Management Committee has exercised power under Section 195 of the Act in allotting the land to the Vendor of the petitioner. The Additional Collector under the impugned order dated 12.12.2013 has rightly came to the conclusion that the lease could not have been granted of land which is covered by Section 132 of the Act.

11. In the opinion of the Court, no rights could have accrued to the petitioner by virtue of his sale deed dated 18.01.2008 as his vendor had limited rights ad could not have transferred the leased plots. There is no dispute as to the fact that Johad Land (Pond) is land covered by Section 132 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950. The status of the vendor of the petitioner can be of an Aasami year to year. I am fortified in my view by the provisions of Section 198(9) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 which contains a deeming clause with regard to any land specified in Section 132 leased out to a tenure holder as Sirdar or Bhumidhar with non-transferable rights prior to a specified date. The Section 198(9) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 is reproduced below:-

"Section 198(9) of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 :- Where any person has been admitted to any land specified in Section 132 as a sirdar or bhumidhar with non-transferable rights at any time before the said date and such admission was made with the previous approval of the Assistant Collector-in-charge of the sub-division in respect of the permissible area mentioned in sub-section (3), then notwithstanding anything contained in other provisions of this Act or in the terms and conditions of the allotment or lease under which such person was admitted to that land, the following consequences shall, with effect from the said date ensure, namely-

(a) the allottee or lessee shall be deemed to be an asami of such land and shall be deemed to be holding the same from year to year and the allotment or lease of the land to the extent mentioned above shall not be deemed to be irregular for the purposes of sub-section (4);

(b) the proceedings, if any, pending on the said date before the Collector or any other Court or authority for the cancellation of the allotment or lease of such land, shall abate.]"

12. The above provisions indicates that allotments made prior to November 10, 1980 of land specified under Section 132 as Sirdar or Bhumidhar shall be treated to be a Aasami year to year. Thus the allotment in favour of Mohd. Ali Vendor of the petitioner was in the nature of an Aasami lease year to year. There is no provision under the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 whereunder an Aasami can be granted Bhumidhari rights in respect of the land leased to him and thus permitting him to transfer the land by way of sale deed. The petitioner being a transferee from the original Aasami cannot acquire any rights over the land. The sale deed dated 18.10.2008 executed in favour of the petitioner is in fact void ab-initio and no rights can be said to accrue to the petitioner therefrom. The Court is not impressed by the argument of learned counsel for the petitioner that he is a bonafide purchaser of the plot for consideration and the impugned orders could not have been passed till the sale deed stood cancelled. The Court is also not impressed with the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that possession of the plot in question could not be taken except by filing a suit for eviction.

13. Section 194 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act provides that the Land Management Committee shall be entitled to take possession of land comprised in a holding or part thereof in certain situations including a situation where the land covered by Section 132 of the Act was held by an Aasami and the Aasami has been ejected or his interest therein has otherwise extinguished. Section 194 of the U.P.Z.A. & L.R. Act, 1950 is reproduced here under:-

"194. Land Management Committee to take over land after extinction of interest therein.

- The [Land Management Committee] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 37 of 1958.] shall be entitled to take possession of land comprised in a holding or part thereof if-

(a) [the land was held by a bhumidhar, and his interest in such land is extinguished under Clause (a) or Clause (aa) of Section 189 or Clause (a), Clause (b), Clause (c), Clause (cc) or Clause (e) of Section 190;] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1977 (w.e.f. 28.01.1977).]

(b) [* ] [Omitted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1977 (w.e.f. 28.01.1977).]

(c) the land being land falling in any of the classes mentioned in Section 132, was held by an asami and the asami has been ejected or his interest therein have otherwise extinguished under the provisions of this Act."

14. Thus the Land Management Committee/Gaon Sabha concerned is within its powers to take possession of the land after interest of Aasami in any land gets extinguished.

15. In view of the above, this Court is not inclined to interfere in the orders impugned. Consequently, the writ petition is dismissed. However, there will be no order as to costs,.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2359
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 20.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

Writ-C No. 12796 of 2024

Hem Chandra ...Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sanjay Kumar Mishra

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
C.S.C., Nipun Singh

Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 - U.P. Avas Evam Vikash Parishad Adhiniyam, 1965 - Petitioner was bhumidhar with transferable rights –by virtue of section 55 of the Adhiniyam-provision of Land Acquisition Act subject to modifications provided under the schedule alone would apply-repeal of LA Act would not affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, incurred under the said enactment-present case acquisition proceedings were not finalized before 01.01.2014 as no award was declared by parishad at that time-award declared in 2024-compensation should be determined as per the provisions of the new Act, 2013 by treating the reference date of 20214-date of enforcement of the New Act-impugned award quashed.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. U.P. Avas Evam Vikas Parishad Vs Chandra Shekhar & ors. , (2024) 3 SCR 585

2. Atul Sharma & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2017 (10) ADJ 308

3. Gauri Shankar Gaur Vs St. of U.P., (1994) 1 SCC 92

4. U.P. Avas Ewam Vikas Parishad Vs Jainul Islam & anr., (1998) 2 SCC 467

5. Nagpur Improvement Trust, AIR 1962 SC 955

6. St. of M.P. Vs G.C. Mandawar, AIR 1954 SC 493

7. Union of India & ors. Vs Tarsem Singh & ors., (2019) 9 SCC 304

8. Executive Engineer, Gosikhurd Project Ambadi, Bhandara, Maharashtra Vidarbha Irrigation Development Corporation v. Mahesh & ors., (2022) 2 SCC 772

9. Hori Lal Vs St. of U.P. & ors., 2019 SCC OnLine SC 129

10. Pyare Lal & ors. Vs U.O.I. & ors., 2024 (153) ALR 771

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Kumar Gupta, J.)

1. Heard Sri Shiv Kant Mishra, holding brief of Sri Sanjay Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Rajiv Gupta, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for the State-respondents and Sri Nipun Singh, learned counsel for respondent no.4.

2. The petitioner has prayed for quashing of the award dated 27.02.2024 passed by Additional District Magistrate (Land Acquisition), Agra in respect of Khasra Nos. 109/1, area 0.2910 hectare, 109/2, area 0.6450 hectare, 70M, area 0.0890 hectare, 72, area 0.2150 hectare, 74, area 0.1900 hectare, 67, area 0.1900 hectare, 68, area 0.0510 hectare, 69, area 0.4170 hectare, 70M, area 0.5560 hectare, 71, area 0.3920 hectare situated at Village Bhood, Tehsil and District Bulandshahr and for a further direction to the said authority to prepare a fresh award treating 'relevant date' with reference to which market value is to be determined as 01.01.2014, i.e. the date of enforcement of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (for short 'the New Act, 2013').

3. The petitioner, indisputably, was bhumidhar with transferable rights of the aforesaid plots. A notification under Section 28 of U.P. Avas Evam Vikash Parish Adhiniyam, 1965 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Adhiniyam') was issued on 11.08.1979. It was followed by notification under Section 32 of the Adhiniyam dated 07.07.1982. The petitioner filed Writ Petition No.6695 of 1983 for putting a restraint on the respondents from enforcing Grihstha Yojana No.1 Scheme in pursuance of the aforesaid notifications and to declare Sections 55(1) and 32(2) of the Adhiniyam as ultra vires of the Constitution. The writ petition was dismissed in default on 15.03.2000 and, thereafter, the restoration application was also dismissed on 19.07.2002. Possession of the land was taken by the Parishad on 28.06.2002, however, award of the subject land was not made until 27.02.2024.

4. In the impugned award dated 27.02.2024, the reference date for calculating compensation for the acquired land has been taken to be the date of notification under Section 28 dated 11.08.1979 treating it to be at par with notification under Section 4 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (for short 'the LA Act'). Accordingly, the exemplar sale deeds of the period three months prior to notification under Section 28 dated 11.08.1979 alone have been considered in determining compensation for the subject land. Market value of the acquired land has been determined by applying the principle of betting system. For the land situated upto a distance of 100 feet from the road, compensation determined is at the rate of Rs.31.42 per sqr. yard, for the land upto 600 feet at the rate of Rs.21.05 per sqr yard and beyond it, at the rate of Rs.15.71 per sqr yard, apart from other statutory benefits.

5. The sole contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that after coming into force of New Act of 2013, the compensation has to be determined with reference to the date of enforcement of the said Act, i.e. 01.01.2014. In support of his contention, he places reliance on Section 24(1) of the New Act, 2013 and the recent judgment of Supreme Court in U.P. Avas Evam Vikas Parishad Vs. Chandra Shekhar and others (Civil Appeal No.3855 of 2024 arising out of SLP (C) No.779 of 2016, decided on 05.03.2024)[1].

6. On the other hand, Sri Nipun Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Parishad, submits that by virtue of Section 55 of the Adhiniyam, the provisions of Land Acquisition Act, 1894 applies, subject to modifications specified in the Schedule. There has been no amendment in the said provision so as to make applicable the provisions of the New Act, 2013, therefore, the claim of the petitioner is unsustainable. In support of his submissions, he places reliance on a Division Bench judgment of this Court in Atul Sharma and another Vs. State of U.P. and others[2].

7. We have considered the rival submissions and perused the material on record.

8. It is noteworthy that by virtue of Section 55 of the Adhiniyam read with the Schedule, the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as amended in the State of Uttar Pradesh, subject to modifications specified in the Schedule, have been made applicable. Section 55 of the Adhiniyam is as follows:

"55. Power to acquire land.–(1) Any land or any interest therein required by the Board for any of the purposes of this Act, may be acquired under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Act No. 1 of 1894), as amended in its application to Uttar Pradesh, which for this purpose shall be subject to the modification specified in the Schedule to this Act.

(2) If any land in respect of which betterment fee has been levied under this Act is subsequently required for any of the purposes of this Act, such levy shall not be deemed to prevent the acquisition of the land under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (Act No. 1 of 1894)."

9. By Act No. 68 of 1984, drastic amendments were made in the LA Act. The Statement of Objects and Reasons – emphasizes the need to balance individual interest with larger interest of the community. Two main features of the Amending Act, 1984 was to provide (i) timelines in initiating and concluding various stages of the proceedings so as to avoid delay of long periods which 'renders unrealistic the scale of compensation offered to the affected persons' and (ii) to provide adequate measures to compensate for the delay. To meet these concerns, main proposals for amendments, inter alia, are as follows:

"(iii) A time-limit of one year is proposed to be provided for completion of all formalities between the issue of the preliminary notification under Section 4(1) of the Act and the declaration for acquisition of specified land under Section 6(1) of the Act.

(v) It is proposed to provide for a period of two years from the date of publication of the declaration under Section 6 of the Act within which the Collector should make his award under the Act. If no award is made within that period, the entire proceedings for the acquisition of the land would lapse. He has also been empowered to correct clerical or arithmetical mistakes in the award within a certain period from the date of the award.

(viii) Solatium now payable at the rate of fifteen per centum of the market value of the land acquired in consideration of the compulsory nature of the acquisition, is proposed to be increased to thirty per centum. Similarly, the rate of interest payable on the excess compensation awarded by the Court and on the compensation in cases where possession of land is taken before payment of compensation, are also proposed to be increased substantially.

(ix) Considering that the right of reference to the civil court under Section 18 of the Act is not usually taken advantage of by inarticulate and poor people and is usually exercised only by the comparatively affluent landowners and that this causes considerable inequality in the payment of compensation for the same or similar quality of land to different interested parties, it is proposed to provide an opportunity to all aggrieved parties whose land is covered under the same notification to seek re-determination of compensation, once any one of them has obtained orders for payment of higher compensation from the reference court under Section 18 of the Act.

(x) As a large number of cases for the acquisition of land are pending before various authorities for a very long time and payment of the market value of the land obtaining on the date of the preliminary notification under Section 4 of the Act in respect of such land is likely to be unrealistic and iniquitous, it is proposed to provide for payment of simple interest at ten per centum per annum on the amount of compensation for the period commencing from the date of issue of the notification under Section 4 of the Act to the date of tender of payment or deposit of compensation awarded by the Collector in respect of all pending proceedings on the 30th April, 1982, the date when the earlier Bill for the amendment of the Act was introduced in the House of the People."

10. After amendments in LA Act, question arose before the Supreme Court in Gauri Shankar Gaur v. State of U.P.[3] whether the provisions of LA Act as amended by Amending Act, 1984 stood incorporated in the Adhiniyam by virtue of Section 55 read with the Schedule. There was difference of opinion in the Two Judges Bench and the matter was referred to Larger Bench of Three Judges. The issue came to be decided by Three Judges Bench in U.P. Avas Ewam Vikas Parishad v. Jainul Islam and Another.[4] In paragraph 13 of the judgment, the point of difference between the Two Judges was noted as follows:

"13. Ramaswamy,J. was of the view that Section 55 of the Adhiniyam read with the Schedule made an express incorporation of the provisions of Section 4(1) and Section 6 as modified and incorporated in the Schedule and that the Schedule effected necessary structural amendments to Sections 4, 5, 17 and 23 incorporating therein the procedure and principles with necessary modifications and that it is a complete code in itself. He, therefore, held that Section 55 and the Schedule adopted only by incorporation Sections 4(1) and 6(1) and the subsequent amendments to Section 6 did not become part of the Adhiniyam and they have no effect on the operation of the provisions of the Adhiniyam. Sahai,J. however, took a contrary view. He was of the opinion that whether a legislation was by way of incorporation or by way of reference is more a matter of construction by the courts keeping in view the language employed by the enactment, the purpose of referring or incorporating provisions of an existing Act and the effect of it on the day-to-day working. According to the learned Judge such legislation by incorporating is subject to exceptions and that one such situation where legislation by incorporation is excluded is if it creates difficulty in day-to-day working. The learned Judge was of the view that in our constitutional set-up the exception can be extended further and the courts should lean against a construction which may result in discrimination. He, therefore, held that the amendments introduced in the LA Act by the 1984 Act would be applicable to acquisition of land for the purpose of the Adhiniyam and restriction of three years added by the first proviso to Section 6 of the LA Act was applicable to acquisition for the purposes of the Adhiniyam also. The learned Judge, however, took note of the fact that the Parishad had entered into possession and had constructed housing colonies as there was no interim order in favour of the landowners during pendency of the writ petitions in the High Court and observed that larger social interest requires this Court to mould the relief in such a manner that justice may not suffer. He, therefore, held that even though publication of declarations under the Act were beyond the period of three years it was not in the interest of justice to quash the proceedings but the landowners should be paid compensation of the land acquired on market value prevalent in the year in which the declaration analogous to Section 6 of the earlier Act was published/issued by fictionally assuming that fresh notification under the Act analogous to Section 4 was issued in that year."

11. The Supreme Court considered the plea of the Parishad that by virtue of Section 55 of the Adhiniyam, the provisions of the LA Act, subject to modifications provided under the Schedule alone would apply as it is legislation by incorporation. On behalf of the land owners, it was contended that the provisions of the Amending Act at least to the extent the same relates to award of additional statutory benefits if not applied would offend Article 14 of the Constitution and would render Section 55 of the Adhiniyam unconstitutional. The Supreme Court relied on its previous judgment in Nagpur Improvement Trust[5] decided by a Special Bench of Seven Judges. Therein, Section 61 of the Nagpur Improvement Trust Act, 1936, which is identical to Section 55 of the Adhiniyam, was under consideration and it was ruled that –

"Article 14 confers an individual right and in order to justify a classification there should be something which justifies a different treatment to this individual right. It seems to us that ordinarily a classification based on the public purpose is not permissible under Article 14 for the purpose of determining compensation. The position is different when the owner of the land himself is the recipient of benefits from an improvement scheme, and the benefit to him is taken into consideration in fixing compensation. Can classification be made on the basis of the authority acquiring the land? In other words can different principles of compensation be laid if the land is acquired for or by an Improvement Trust or Municipal Corporation or the Government? It seems to us that the answer is in the negative because as far as the owner is concerned it does not matter to him whether the land is acquired by one authority or the other.

* * *

It is equally immaterial whether it is one Acquisition Act or another Acquisition Act under which the land is acquired. If the existence of two Acts enables the State to give one owner different treatment from another equally situated the owner who is discriminated against, can claim the protection of Article 14."

12. The contention that when acquisition is under two different Legislations, Article 14 cannot be invoked, was repelled relying on State of M.P. v. G.C. Mandawar[6] by observing as follows –

"28. The principle laid down by this Court in State of M.P. v. G.C. Mandawar that Article 14 cannot be invoked when the alleged discrimination is on account of laws made by two different legislatures has no application in the present case because under the LA Act as well as under the provisions of the Adhiniyam the acquisition is to be made by the same authority, viz., the State Government of Uttar Pradesh, and discrimination arises on account of action taken by the same authority."

13. The Supreme Court after considering the rival contentions held that the provisions of the Amending Act in so far as it relates to determination of compensation, if not applied to acquisitions made under the Adhiniyam, "the consequence would be that the provisions of the LA Act, as applicable under the Adhiniyam, would suffer from the vice of arbitrary and hostile discrimination". Such a consequence could be avoided if the provisions of the Adhiniyam are construed to mean that the provisions of the LA Act, as amended by the 1984, Act, relating to determination of compensation would apply to acquisitions of land for the purposes of the Adhiniyam. The relevant discussion is in paragraphs no.31 and 32 and the same is extracted below:-

"31. Since the present case involves acquisition of land under the provisions of the L.A. Act as applicable under the Adhiniyam, it is fully covered by the law laid down by this Court in Nagpur Improvement Trust Vs. Vithal Rao: (1973) 1 SCC 500. Keeping in view the principles laid down in the said decision of this Court, it has to be held that if the provisions of the Adhiniyam are so construed as to mean that the provisions of the L.A. Act, as they stood on the date of enactment of the Adhiniyam, would be applicable to acquisition or land for the purpose of the Adhiniyam and that the amendments introduced in the L.A. Act by the 1984 Act relating to determination and payment of compensation are not applicable, the consequence would be that the provisions of the L.A. Act, as applicable under the Adiniyam, would suffer from the vice of arbitrary and hostile discrimination. Such a consequence would be avoided if the provisions of the Adhiniyam are construed to mean that the provisions of the L.A. Act, as amended by the 1984 Act, relating to determination and payment of compensation would apply to acquisition of land for the purposes of the Adhiniyam. There is nothing in the Adhiniyam which precludes adopting the latter construction. On the other hand, the provisions of the Adhiniyam show that the intention of the Legislature, while enacting the Adhiniyam, was to confer the benefit of solatium @ 15% by modifying Section 23(2) in the Schedule, which benefit was not available under the provisions of the L.A. Act as it was applicable in the State of Uttar Pradesh at the time of enactment of the Adhiniyam. It cannot, therefore, be said that the intention of the Legislature, in enacting the Adhiniyam, was to deny to the landowners the benefits relating to determination and payment of compensation which would be available to them under any amendment made in the L.A. Act after the enactment of the Adhiniyam. We are, therefore, of the opinion that on a proper construction of Section 55 of the Adhiniyam it must be held that while incorporating the provisions of the L.A. Act in the Adhiniyam the intention of the legislature was that amendments in the L.A. Act relating to determination and payment of compensation would be applicable to acquisition of lands for the purposes of the Adhiniyam. This means that the amendments introduced in the L.A. Act by the 1984 Act relating to determination and payment of compensation, viz, Section 23(1-A) and Section 23(2) and 28 as amended by the 1984 Act would be applicable to acquisitions for the purpose of the Adhiniyam under Section 55 of the Adhiniyam.

32. In view of the construction placed by us on the provisions of Section 55 of the Adhiniyam that the provisions of the L.A. Act, as amended by the 1984 Act relating to determination and payment of compensation, would be applicable to acquisition of land for the purposes of the Adhiniyam, it is not necessary to deal with the submission that if the provisions of the 1984 Act are held to be not applicable in the matter of acquisition of land for the purposes of the Adhiniyam the provisions of the L.A. Act, as applicable under the Adhiniyam, would be void on the ground of repugnance under Article 254 of the Constitution."

(emphasis supplied)

14. The effect of aforesaid enunciation of law is that even though Section 11-A of the Act of 1894, which stipulated that the acquisitions would lapse in case award is not declared within two years, would not have the effect of acquisitions made under the Adhiniyam getting lapsed but the beneficial provisions relating to determination of compensation would apply.

15. In Union of India and others Vs. Tarsem Singh and others[7] the Supreme Court considered the vires of Section 3-J of the National Highways Act, 1956 as amended by National Highways Laws (Amendment) Act, 1997. It excluded the applicability of Land Acquisition Act, 1894 to acquisitions made under the said Act. It was held that the said provisions resulting in non-grant of solatium and interest in respect of lands acquired under National Highways Act, which were available if lands were acquired under Land Acquisition Act, 1894 was violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. The plea based on Article 31-C read with Article 39(b) of the Constitution was held to be not tenable. The classification between landowners, whose land were acquired for National Highways under the National Highways Act, 1956 and landowners whose land was acquired for other public purposes was held to have no rational nexus with the object sought to be achieved by the National Highways Laws (Amendment) Act, 1997. Again the fundamental principle reiterated in the said case was that the State cannot accord different treatment to affected persons based on legislation under which acquisition is made. In arriving at the said conclusion, once again reliance was placed on Nagpur Improvement Trust (supra). The beneficial provisions of LA Act relating to solatium and interest were held to be applicable to acquisitions made under the National Highways Act, 1956. The relevant conclusion contained in para-52 of the Law Report is as follows:

"We therefore declare that the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act relating to solatium and interest contained in Sections 23(1-A) and (2) and interest payable in terms of Section 28 proviso will apply to acquisitions made under the National Highways Act. Consequently, the provision of Section 3-J is, to this extent, violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India and, therefore, declared to be unconstitutional."

16. Here, it is worthwhile to note the relevant provisions of the New Act, 2013. Section 24 of the Act contemplates lapsing of certain acquisition proceedings and also determination of compensation as per provisions of the New Act in cases where no award had been made under Section 11 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894. For ready reference, Section 24 is extracted below:-

"24. Land acquisition process under Act No. 1 of 1894 shall be deemed to have lapsed in certain cases.(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, in any case of land acquisition proceedings initiated under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894,--

(a) where no award under section 11 of the said Land Acquisition Act has been made, then, all provisions of this Act relating to the determination of compensation shall apply; or

(b) where an award under said section 11 has been made, then such proceedings shall continue under the provisions of the said Land Acquisition Act, as if the said Act has not been repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), in case of land acquisition proceedings initiated under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), where an award under the said section 11 has been made five years or more prior to the commencement of this Act but the physical possession of the land has not been taken or the compensation has not been paid the said proceedings shall be deemed to have lapsed and the appropriate Government, if it so chooses, shall initiate the proceedings of such land acquisition afresh in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that where an award has been made and compensation in respect of a majority of land holdings has not been deposited in the account of the beneficiaries, then, all beneficiaries specified in the notification for acquisition under section 4 of the said Land Acquisition Act, shall be entitled to compensation in accordance with the provisions of this Act."

17. Section 114 repeals the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 but, at the same time, saves the action taken under the said Act by applying Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897. Section 114 is extracted below:-

"(1) The Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894) is hereby repealed.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act the repeal under sub-section(1) shall not be held to prejudice or affect the general application of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897) with regard to the effect of repeals."

18. In this regard, we may also take note of Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, which is as follows:-

"6. Effect of repeal. Where this Act, or any [Central Act] or Regulation made after the commencement of this Act, repeals any enactment hitherto made or hereafter to be made, then, unless a different intention appears, the repeal shall not-

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any enactment so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any enactment so repealed; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment so repealed; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the repealing Act or Regulation had not been passed."

(emphasis supplied)

19. A combined reading of Section 114 of the New Act along with Section 6 of the General Clauses Act 1897 would establish beyond doubt that the repeal of Land Acquisition Act, 1894 would not affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said enactment, consequent to its repeal. Thus, the acquisition made by U.P. Avas Evam Vikas Parishad in the instant case would not lapse but, at the same time, the right of the petitioner to receive compensation also gets saved.

20. Under the New Act, undoubtedly, the rate of compensation is much higher as compared to LA Act. Thus, while repealing LA Act, the New Act, by virtue of Section 24(1)(a) mandates determination of compensation in cases where no award has been made, as per the provisions of the New Act. Obviously, it is a balancing act of the legislature. While it saves acquisitions under the LA Act in larger interest of the community, it protects the interest of the affected persons by providing them with compensation as per the principles enshrined under the New Act.

21. In Executive Engineer, Gosikhurd Project Ambadi, Bhandara, Maharashtra Vidarbha Irrigation Development Corporation v. Mahesh and others[8], the Supreme Court considered the issue as to whether limitation of two years prescribed under Section 11-A for making award under LA Act, 1894 would apply even after repeal of the said Act, or the twelve months period specified in Section 25 of the New Act, 2013 will apply for award made under clause (a) of Section 24(1) of LA Act, 1894? Giving a purposive interpretation, the Supreme Court ruled that in such cases, the limitation of twelve months prescribed under Section 25 of the New Act, 2013 would apply. In so holding, the Supreme Court held that notification under Section 6 of the LA Act, 1894 is to be treated at par with notification under Section 19 of the Act. Consequently, the award is to be made in such cases within twelve months from 01.01.2014, the date of commencement of New Act, 2013 if the limitation had not expired as per Section 11-A of the LA Act. We may usefully refer to the relevant extract from the said judgment –

"30. A rational approach so as to further the object and purpose of Sections 24 and 26 to 30 of the 2013 Act is required. We are conscious that Section 25 refers to publication of a notification under Section 19 as the starting point of limitation. In the context of clause (a) to Section 24(1) of the 2013 Act there would be no notification under Section 19, but declaration under Section 6 of the 1894 Act. When the declarations under Section 6 are valid as on 1-1-2014, it is necessary to give effect to the legislative intention and reckon the starting point. In the context of Section 24(1)(a) of the 2013 Act, declarations under Section 6 of the 1894 Act are no different and serve the same purpose as the declarations under Section 19 of the 2013 Act.

31. Consequently, we hold that in cases covered by clause (a) to Section 24(1) of the 2013 Act, the limitation period for passing/making of an award under Section 25 of the 2013 Act would commence from 1-1-2014, that is, the date when the 2013 Act came into force. Awards passed under clause (a) to Section 24(1) would be valid if made within twelve months from 1-1-2014. This dictum is subject to the caveat stated in paras 20 to 23* (supra) that a declaration which has lapsed in terms of Section 11-A of the 1894 Act before or on 31-12-2013 would not get revived."

22. Where the award is declared under the saving clause embodied in Section 24(1)(a) of the New Act, 2013, it has been held in several judgments of Coordinate Benches that the reference date for making the award would be 01.01.2014, the date of commencement of New Act. While coming to the said conclusion, reliance has been placed on the judgment of Supreme Court in Hori Lal vs. State of U.P. & others[9] and D.O. letter of the State Government dated 26.10.2015 clarifying that the reference date in such cases would be 01.01.2014. In Pyare Lal and 24 others vs. Union of India and 4 others[10], we have taken the same view. The relevant paragraphs from the said judgment are extracted below:

"10. In Smt. Sabita Sharma (supra), a Co-ordinate Bench of this Court, after examining various earlier Division Bench judgements of this Court and most of which were upheld with the dismissal of special leave petitions filed before the Supreme Court and in one case, namely, Hori Lal vs. State of U.P. and 3 Others with dismissal of Civil Appeal No.1462 of 2019, held that the relevant date would be 01.01.2014 i.e., the date of commencement of the new Act, 2013. The judgement takes notice of Section 113 of the new Act, 2013, which empowers the Central Government to make such provisions or give such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of the new Act, 2013, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removal of the difficulty. It has been held that in exercise of said power, the Central Government had issued a D.O. No.13013/01/2014-LRD(Pt) dated 26.10.2015 wherein the issue at hand was specifically answered in reference to a query raised by the Government of Maharashtra. The relevant part of the said D.O. is extracted below:

S. No.	Issues raised by the Government of Maharashtra	Opinion of the DoLR
1.	While determining the amount of compensation under Section 27 of the RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013 of Hon'ble Supreme Court's orders are followed or cost of assets have to be separately computed in addition to cost of land?	Under Section 26 of the RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013 market value of land is determined while under section 27, value of all assets attached to the land is added to the market value to determine the amount of compensation. Thus, it is not contradictory to the Supreme Court's orders quoted in the letter of Maharashtra Government.
2.	Under Section 24(1), the reference date for calculating 12% interest should be date of preliminary notification under Land Acquisition Act, 1894.	Under section 24(1), the reference date for calculating 12% interest should be date of preliminary notification under Land Acquisition Act, 1894. Department of Land Resources agrees to this, as there is no other reference date, that can be treated as equivalent to date of SIA notification under the RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013.
3.	For calculation of market value, under Section 24(1)(a), reference date should be 01.01.2014 (commencement of RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013) or date of issuing preliminary notification under Land Acquisition Act, 1894?	The reference date for calculation of market value, under Section 24(1)(a) should be 01.01.2014 (commencement of RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013), as the Section reads "in any case of land acquisition proceedings initiated under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, where no award under section 11 of the said Land Acquisition Act has been made, then, all provisions of this Act relating to the determination of compensation shall apply. Under section 26 reference date is date of preliminary notification, but section 24 is a special case of application of the Act in retrospective cases, and a later date of determination of market value is suggested (i.e., 01.01.2014) with a view to ensure that the land owners/farmers/affected families get enhanced compensation under the provisions of the RFCTLAR&R Act, 2013 (as also recommended by Standing Committee in its 31st report).

11. The Division Bench, thereafter, concluded as follows:

"From a perusal of the D.O. letter dated 26th October, 2015, issued by the concerned Ministry of the Central Government forwarded to the Principal Secretary of the State of U.P., for information and necessary action, it is evident that the said direction was made in order to remove difficulty arose in giving effect to the provisions of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013, in the matter of calculation of market value under Section 24(1)(a), in the land acquisition proceedings initiated under the Act, 1894. The said directions issued by the Central Government being in exercise of the power under Section 113 of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013 have statutory force and are binding on all the State Government being in view of the power conferred on the Central Government to make such provision or give such directions which are not inconsistent with the provisions of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013, for removal of any difficulty arising in giving effect to the provisions of the RFCTLARR Act, 2013."

12. It is noteworthy that when same view was taken by an earlier Division Bench in Hori Lal (supra), the matter travelled to Supreme Court and the Civil Appeal No.1462 of 2019 (Hori Lal vs. State of U.P. and Others) was dismissed by the Supreme Court repelling the contention that the relevant date would be the date on which the award was made. The view taken by the Division Bench of this Court that relevant date would be 1st of January, 2014 was thereby upheld. The relevant extract from the said judgement of the Supreme Court is as follows:

"20. We, therefore, find no good ground to accept the submission of the learned counsel for the appellant when he contended that the date for determining the compensation should be the date on which the Land Acquisition Officer passed the award. This argument does not have any basis and is, therefore, not acceptable for the simple reason that such date is not provided either in the old Act, 1894 or in the Act, 2013.

21. Indeed, how the compensation is required to be determined and with reference to what date, is provided under the Act and admittedly the date suggested by the learned counsel is not the date prescribed either in the old Act or the new Act. This submission has, therefore, no merit and deserves to be rejected. It is accordingly rejected.

22. We, therefore, find no good ground to take a different view than what was taken by the High Court in the impugned order"

13. In view of the above discussion, we are of the opinion that the issue is no more res integra. The relevant date for determining the compensation in respect of acquisition initiated under the old Act but where award could not be made by the time the new Act, 2013 came into force, would be 1st of January, 2014 i.e., the date of commencement of the new Act, 2013. "

23. In the instant case, admittedly, the notification under Section 32 of the Adhiniyam, which is at par with Section 6 notification under LA Act, was made on 07.07.1982. However, award was not made for almost 42 years. This became possible because the timelines under the Amending Act are held to be inapplicable. Now, should the Parishad continue to delay the awards taking benefit of the non-applicability of the timelines and at the same time, also not pay compensation according to the New Act?

24. This controversy has now been settled by the Supreme Court in Chandra Shekhar (supra). The said case also arose out of the acquisition made under the Adhiniyam. The notification under Section 28 was issued on 17.07.2004. It also appears that the subsequent action of the Parishad was subjected to challenge and it was held that the same was not valid as proper opportunity, as contemplated under Section 5-A of the Land Acquisition Act 1894, was not given. The Supreme Court upheld the judgment of the High Court quashing the subsequent action of Parishad on the ground of non compliance of the procedure. The Supreme Court, however, held that since substantial development had already taken place, therefore, it would not be proper to quash the acquisition but the land holder should be substantially compensated. It specifically considered the impact of Section 55 of Adhiniyam and held that the New Act shall be deemed to be read in place of Old Act, 1894 on the ground that the acquisition had not attained finality before 01.01.2014. The relevant observations in this regard are as follows:-

"18. Having held so, the question that falls for further consideration is as to what should be the future course of action for the appellant-Board, so that neither the public interest to utilize the subject-land for the Scheme that has been substantially developed is frustrated nor the true tenure holders are deprived of the adequate compensation for their land. It may be seen from Section 55 of the 1965 Act that the compensation for the acquired land was required to be assessed in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act 1894, which stood repealed w.e.f. 01.01.2014 by the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as "the 2013 Act"). Section 55 of the 1965 Act cannot be given effect unless it is declared by way of a deeming fiction that instead of 1894 Act which now stands repealed, the compensation shall be assessed in accordance with the provisions of the 2013 Act. We hold accordingly. Since the acquisition could not attain finality before 01.01.2014, we are of the considered opinion that the Acquiring Authority/Board are obligated to pay compensation to the ex-propriated owners, as is to be assessed in accordance with Section 24(1) of the 2013 Act.

19. Consequently, we hold that the tenure-holders/owners of Khasra No.673, which was still under the acquisition process when 2013 Act came into force, shall be entitled to be paid compensation in accordance with Section 24(1) of the 2013 Act."

25. The Supreme Court, at the same time, did not make applicable the procedure relating to carrying out of Social Impact Assessment Study under the New Act and only determination of compensation was directed to be made as per the New Act.

26. In the instant case also, admittedly, the acquisition proceedings were not finalized before 01.01.2014 as no award was declared by the Parishad by that time. The award has been declared, as noted above, on 27.02.2024 and, therefore, in our opinion, the Competent Authority should have determined compensation as per the provisions of the New Act, 2013 by treating the reference date as 01.01.2014, i.e. the date of enforcement of the New Act as emerges from combined reading of Chandra Shekhar (supra) and EE, Gosikhurd Project (supra).

27. In Jainul Islam (supra), the Larger Bench of Supreme Court has held that the beneficial provisions of the Amending Act, 1984 relating to determination of compensation would apply to the acquisitions made under the Adhiniyam to save it from arbitrariness and discrimination. As the Act, 1894, as amended from time to time, stands replaced by the New Act, 2013, we are of the considered opinion that the affected persons would be entitled to compensation as per the New Act, 2013, again to save Section 55 of the Adhiniyam from being rendered unconstitutional on the touchstone of Article 14 of the Constitution.

28. In the impugned award, reliance has been placed on Division Bench decision of this Court in Atul Sharma (supra), which in view of the judgment of Supreme Court in Chandra Shekhar (supra) stands impliedly overruled in so far as it holds that compensation for acquired land under the Adhiniyam would be payable under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 even in respect of acquisition which could not be finalized until the enforcement of the said Act, i.e. 01.01.2014. The judgment in Jainul Islam (supra), in our opinion, has wrongly been interpreted in the impugned award and the said judgment, when read with the recent pronouncement made in Chandra Shekhar (supra), clarifies the legal position that the acquisitions made under the Adhiniyam which could not be finalized until coming into force of New Act, 2013, would be governed by the New Act in respect of determination of compensation.

29. Accordingly, the impugned award is hereby quashed and the matter is remitted back to the Additional District Magistrate (Land Acquisition), Agra (respondent no.3) for determining the compensation afresh in the light of observations made herein above.

30. The writ petition stands allowed. There is no order as to costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2372
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DINESH PATHAK, J.

Writ-C No. 16608 of 2024

Amity Int. School ...Petitioner
Versus
Presiding Officer Labour Court & Anr. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Rahul Chaudhary

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
--

Natural justice-Application by the Petitioner to decide issue no.1 as preliminary issue rejected-impugned-workman (Respondent no.2) has been terminated after departmental enquiry-aggrieved-he moved claim petition under U.P.

Industrial Disputes Act, 1947-labour court framed two issues-first adhering to natural justice-second as to legality and validity of terminating the services –issue qua violation of principles of natural justice and fair play during the domestic enquiry should be decided as a preliminary issue.

W.P. allowed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Shankar Chakravarti Vs Britannia Biscuit Co. Ltd & anr. reported in 1979 AIR 1652

2. M.L. Singla Vs Punjab National Bank reported in 2018 (18) SCC 21

3. Kurukshetra University Vs Prithvi Singh reported in AIR 2018 S.C. 973

4. Shamli Distillery & Chemical Works Shamli Vs St. of U.P. & ors. in Writ-C No.31147 of 2019

5. Gregory Patrao & ors. Vs Mangalore Refinery and Petrochemicals Ltd. & ors. reported in (2022) 10 SCC 461

6. M/s. Swarup Vegetable Product Industries Ltd. Vs Labour Court II, Meerut reported in 1998 (1) AWC 491

7. H.R. Sugar Factory Vs St. of U.P. reported in 1997 (76) FLR 355

8. D.P. Maheshwari Vs Delhi Administration & ors., AIR 1984 SC 153

9. Cooper Engineering Ltd. Vs Shri P.P. Mundhe (1975) 2 SCC 661

10. Karnataka St. Road Transport Corpn. Vs Lakshmidevamma (Smt.) & anr. (2001) 5 SCC 433

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dinesh Pathak, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Standing Counsel for respondent no.1 and Shri Shekhar Srivastava, Advocate who has assisted the Court without filing his memo of appearance on behalf of respondent no.2.

2. In view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of the present case and the order proposed to be passed hereunder, this Court proceeds to decide the instant writ petition finally, without calling for respective affidavits of the parties concerned, with the consent of learned counsel for the parties present in the Court.

3. The petitioner has invoked the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India assailing the order dated 18.11.2023 passed by the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Ghaziabad whereby application dated 08.08.2023 (Paper No.13-D) moved on behalf of the petitioner to decide the issue no.1 as a preliminary issue has been rejected.

4. Facts culled out from the record are that the workman (respondent no.2) has been terminated from service after departmental enquiry vide order dated 20.05.2020 w.e.f. 01.06.2020. Having been aggrieved, respondent no.2 has moved claim petition under the U.P. Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (in brevity 'Act, 1947'). On the said application, question has been referred for adjudication with respect to termination of respondent no.2 since 01.06.2020. During pendency of adjudication case, labour court, vide order dated 27.01.2023, has framed two issues, first, qua adhering to the principles of natural justice while conducting the domestic enquiry and, second, legality and validity of terminating the services of workman with effect from 01.06.2020. At later stage, the petitioner has moved an application dated 08.08.2023 (Paper No.13-D) to decide the issue no.1 as a preliminary issue. The labour court has rejected the said application, vide order dated 18.11.2023, which is under consideration before this Court.

5. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the labour court has illegally rejected the said application (Paper No.13-D) without properly considering the gravity of issue no.1. The question relating to violation of principles of natural justice while conducting the domestic enquiry is a paramount consideration for deciding the adjudication case under the Act, 1947, therefore, same is liable to be decided as a preliminary issue. In support of his submission, learned counsel for the petitioner has cited the following cases :-

(i) Shankar Chakravarti vs. Britannia Biscuit Co. Ltd & Another reported in 1979 AIR 1652 (Full Bench decision).

(ii) M.L.Singla vs. Punjab National Bank reported in 2018 (18) SCC 21.

(iii) Kurukshetra University vs. Prithvi Singh reported in AIR 2018 S.C. 973.

(iv) Shamli Distillery And Chemical Works Shamli vs. State of U.P. And 2 Others decided by Coordinate Bench of this Court on 13.11.2019 in Writ-C No.31147 of 2019.

6. Per contra, Shri Shekhar Srivastava, Advocate vehemently opposed the submissions advanced by counsel for the petitioner and contended that issue no.1 regarding violation of principles of natural justice in domestic enquiry cannot be considered as preliminary issue inasmuch as it is a question of fact and requires evidence to decide the same. It is further contended that intention of the establishment is only to protract the litigation. Both the issues, as framed by the labour court, vide order dated 27.01.2023, requires common evidence to be adduced by the parties, therefore, once the evidence are adduced by the parties, there is no justification to decide one issue as a preliminary issue inasmuch as both the issues can be decided simultaneously. In support of his case he has cited the following cases :-

(i) Judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Gregory Patrao & Others vs. Mangalore Refinery and Petrochemicals Limited & Others reported in (2022) 10 SCC 461.

(ii) Full Bench judgment of this Court in the case of M/s. Swarup Vegetable Product Industries Ltd. vs. Labour Court II, Meerut reported in 1998 (1) AWC 491.

(iii) Division Bench of this Court in the case of H.R. Sugar Factory vs. State of U.P. reported in 1997 (76) FLR 355.

7. Having considered the rival submissions advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perusal of record, it is manifested that question for consideration in the instant matter lies in a narrow compass as to whether issue relating to the violation of principles of natural justice, while conducting domestic enquiry, can be tried/examined as a preliminary issue.

8. The Labour Court has rejected the application dated 08.08.2023 moved in this regard citing the Full Bench judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of D.P. Maheshwari vs. Delhi Administration & Others reported in AIR 1984 SC 153. In the said judgment, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has raised concern qua protraction of litigation before the Labour Court/Labour Tribunal which may led to misery and jeopardize industrial peace. Consequent thereto, ultimately workman is the sufferer. It is apposite to mention that equal Bench strength (Hon'ble Three Judges Bench) of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of Cooper Engineering Ltd. vs. Shri P.P. Mundhe reported in (1975) 2 SCC 661 and Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) has emphasized that violation of principles of natural justice, during the domestic enquiry, should be decided first as a preliminary issue. In the subsequent judgments passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the case of Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) has been followed as a law of the land. Case of D.P. Maheshwari (Supra) has been decided subsequent to the cases of Cooper Engineering Ltd. (Supra) and Shankar Chakravarti (Supra). However, while deciding the case of D.P. Maheshwari (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court has observed that with the change of time, the policy to decide the preliminary issue first should be reversed. For ready reference observation made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court is quoted herein below :-

"There was a time when it was thought prudent and wise policy to decide preliminary issues first. But the time appears to have arrived for a reversal of that policy. We think it is better that tribunals, particularly those entrusted with the task of adjudicating labour disputes Where delay may lead to misery and jeopardise industrial peace, should decide all issues in dispute at the same time without trying some of them as preliminary issues. Nor should High Courts in the exercise of their jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution stop proceedings before a Tribunal so that a preliminary issue may be decided by them. Neither the jurisdiction of the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution nor the jurisdiction of this Court under Article 136 may be allowed to be exploited by those who can well afford to wait to the detriment of those who can ill afford to wait by dragging the latter from Court to Court for adjudication of peripheral issues, avoiding decision on issues more vital to them. Article 226 and Article 136 are not meant to be used to break the resistance of workmen in this fashion. Tribunals and Courts who are requested to decide preliminary questions must therefore ask them selves whether such threshold part-adjudication is really necessary and whether it will not lead to other woeful consequences. After all tribunals like Industrial Tribunals are constituted to decide expeditiously special kinds of disputes and their jurisdiction to so decide is not to be stifled by all manner of preliminary objections journeyings up and down. It is also worth while remembering that the nature of the jurisdiction under Article 226 is supervisory and not appellate while that under Article 136 is primarily supervisory but the Court may exercise all necessary appellate powers to do substantial justice. In the exercise of such jurisdiction neither the High Court nor this Court is required to be too astute to interfere with the exercise of jurisdiction by special tribunals at interlocutory stages and on preliminary issues."

9. It is pertinent to mention that in the case of D.P. Maheshwari (supra), no independent consideration has been made by the Hon'ble Supreme Court to the ratio decided in the previous cases i.e. Cooper Engineering Ltd. (Supra) and Shankar Chakravarti (Supra). Besides this Full Bench of this Court has occasioned to consider and decide the question in this respect in the case of M/s. Swarup Vegetables (Supra). Before the Full Bench, two questions were referred which are quoted herein below :-

"1. Whether the Labour Court/Industrial Tribunal have any statutory or legal obligation to decide any issue as preliminary issue while adjudicating an industrial dispute in accordance with procedure provided under Rules framed under U.P. Industrial Disputes Act ?

2. Whether the High Court can in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution mandate a Court or Tribunal to follow a procedure contrary to statutory Rules ?"

10. Question no.1 is relevant for the purposes of deciding the instant writ petition. While answering the question no.1, the Full Bench of this Court has considered the relevant judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court including the case of Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) and D.P. Maheshwari (Supra) and concluded in paragraph 16 of the judgment that all the issues should be decided simultaneously. For ready reference paragraph no.16 of the judgment passed by the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Swarup Vegetables (Supra) is quoted herein below :-

"16. From the conspectus of views expressed by the Supreme Court in the aforementioned decisions, the position that emerges is that once a reference has been made to an Industrial Tribunal, then all the issues which arise, whether jurisdictional or merit, must be decided together. The process of adjudication by the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court must be completed as expeditiously as possible. It is not obligatory on the Industrial Tribunal or Labour Court to frame a preliminary issue. Law does not enjoin the Tribunal to decide if the enquiry was fair and proper initially and then to grant an opportunity to the management if the finding went against it, to adduce evidence on the delinquency of the workmen and the punishment imposed. On the other hand the law casts a duty on the Industrial Tribunal/Labour Court to decide not only whether the domestic enquiry was fair and proper but also whether the punishment imposed by the employer was justified in the facts and circumstances of the case. The Industrial Tribunal/Labour Court should consider the entire case in the light of the evidence adduced before it. The Industrial Tribunal/Labour Court should particularly bear in mind the provisions of Section 11A of the Central Act and Section 6(2-A) of the U.P. Act' and remember that the main purpose of creating a forum for industrial adjudication is to avoid delay in disposal of proceedings. Viewed in this angle, we hold the Division Bench of this Court in the case of D.C.M. Shriram Industries Ltd. (1996 (72) Fac LR 713) was not right in holding that the management can lead evidence to establish the charges against the workman only after decision on the issue whether domestic enquiry was fair and proper and, therefore, such issue should be taken as a preliminary issue. It is, accordingly, overruled. The decision of the single Judge in M/s. Star Paper Mills Ltd. (1987 Lab IC 1854) (supra) is also overruled. The decision of the single Judge in the case of M/s. Vikram Cotton Mills (1989 (59) Fac LR 386) (supra) has our approval."

11. However, the ratio decided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) was subsequently affirmed by the Constitution Bench (Hon'ble Five Judges Bench) of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Karnataka State Road Transport Corpn. vs.

Lakshmidevamma (Smt.) and Another reported in (2001) 5 SCC 433. The relevant paragraph no.41 of the said judgment upholding the correctness of law laid down in the case of Shankar Chakravarti is quoted herein below :-

"In view of the above, I am of the opinion that Shambhu Nath Goyal case does not lay down correct law. The law has been correctly laid in Shankar Chakravarti case and Rajendra Jha case. The correct procedure is as stated in Shankar Chakravarti case subject to further safeguards for workman as already indicated above."

12. Importance of deciding the issue relating to violation of principles of natural justice during domestic enquiry as a preliminary issue has succinctly been decided and upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in both the cases i.e. Cooper Engineering Ltd. and Shankar Chakravarti (Supras). In all the subsequent judgments, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has followed the judgment of Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) and upheld that the preliminary issue qua violation of principles of natural justice during the domestic enquiry has to be decided first. In the matter of M.L.Singla (Supra) the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that it would obligatory upon the labour court to first frame the preliminary issue on the question of legality and validity of the domestic enquiry and confined its discussion only for examining the legality and proprietory of the enquiry proceeding. For ready reference paragraph nos. 20 to 32 and 46 of the said judgment are quoted herein below :-

"20. The first error was that it failed to decide the validity and legality of the domestic enquiry. Since the dismissal order was based on the domestic enquiry, it was obligatory upon the Labour Court to first decide the question as a preliminary issue as to whether the domestic enquiry was legal and proper.

21. Depending upon the answer to this question, the Labour Court should have proceeded further to decide the next question.

22. If the answer to the question on the preliminary issue was that the domestic enquiry is legal and proper, the next question to be considered by the Labour Court was whether the punishment of dismissal from the service is commensurate with the gravity of the charges or is disproportionate requiring interference in its quantum by the Labour Court.

23. If the answer to this question was that it is disproportionate, the Labour Court was entitled to interfere in the quantum of punishment by assigning reasons and substitute the punishment in place of the one imposed by respondent No.1-Bank. This the Labour Court could do by taking recourse to the powers under Section 11A of the ID Act.

24. While deciding this question, it was not necessary for the Labour Court to examine as to whether the charges are made out or not. In other words, the enquiry for deciding the question should have been confined to the factors such as-what is the nature of the charge(s), its gravity, whether it is major or minor as per rules, the findings of the Enquiry Officer on the charges, the employee's overall service record and the punishment imposed etc.

25. If the Labour Court had come to a conclusion that the domestic enquiry is illegal because it was conducted in violation of the principles of natural justice thereby causing prejudice to the rights of the employee, respondent No.1-Bank was under legal obligation to prove the misconduct (charges) alleged against the appellant (employee) before the Labour Court provided he had sought such opportunity to prove the charges on merits.

26. The Labour Court was then under legal obligation to give such opportunity and then decide the question as to whether respondent No.1-Bank was able to prove the charges against the appellant on merits or not.

27. If the charges against the appellant were held proved, the next question to be examined was in relation to the proportionality of the punishment given to the appellant.

28. If the charges against the appellant were held not proved, the appellant was entitled to claim reinstatement with back wages either full or partial depending upon the case made out by the parties on the issue of back wages.

29. The second error was that the Labour Court called upon the parties to lead evidence on all the issues including the charge of misconduct in the first instance itself.

30. The third error committed by the Labour Court was that it proceeded to examine the findings of the Enquiry Officer on the charges like an Appellate Court, appreciated the evidence adduced before the Enquiry Officer and the one adduced before it and then came to a conclusion that the findings of the Enquiry Officer are perverse. This the Labour Court could not do.

31. Assuming that the Labour Court had the jurisdiction to direct the parties in the first instance itself to adduce evidence on merits in support of the charges yet, in our opinion, it was obligatory upon the Labour Court to first frame the preliminary issue on the question of legality and validity of the domestic enquiry and confined its discussion only for examining the legality and propriety of the enquiry proceedings.

32. Depending upon the finding on the preliminary issue on the legality of the enquiry proceedings, the Labour Court should have proceeded to decide the next questions. The Labour Court while deciding the preliminary issue could only rely upon the evidence, which was relevant for deciding the issue of legality of enquiry proceedings but not beyond it.

46. In our view, the reasoning, which we have given while dealing with the first three errors committed by the Labour Court in Paras 20 to 33, are based on the law laid down in aforementioned cases, which are approved in Shankar Chakravarti's case (supra).”

13. In the case of Kurukshetra University (Supra), the Hon’ble Supreme Court has discussed this issue in detail in light of the ratio decided in the case of Shankar Chakravarti (Supra) and came to conclusion that preliminary issue with regard to legality of the domestic enquiry should be decided first. Relevant paragraph nos. 14 to 24 of the said judgment is quoted herein below :-

“14. The question as to what are the powers of the Labour Court and how it should proceed to decide the legality and correctness of the termination order of a workman under the Labour Laws in reference proceedings and what are the rights of the employer while defending the termination order in the Labour Court remains no more res integra and is settled by series of decisions of this Court beginning from AIR 1958 SC 130 (Indian Iron & Steel Co. Ltd. & Anr. Vs. Their Worken) till AIR 1979 SC 1653 (Shankar Chakravarti vs. Britannia Biscuit Co. Ltd. & Anr.) and also thereafter in several decisions as mentioned below.

15. In between this period, this Court in several leading cases examined the aforesaid questions. However, in Shankar's case (supra), this Court took note of entire case law laid down by this Court in all previous cases and reiterated the legal position in detail.

16. The legal position, in our view, is succinctly explained by this Court (two-Judge Bench) in the case of Delhi Cloth & General Mills Co. vs. Ludh Budh Singh, 1972(3) SCR 29-1972(Lab IC) 573 in Propositions 4, 5 and 6 in the following words:

"(4) When a domestic enquiry has been held by the management and the management relies on the same, it is open to the latter to request the Tribunal to try the validity of the domestic enquiry as a preliminary issue and also ask for an opportunity to adduce evidence before the Tribunal, if the finding on the preliminary issue is against the management. However elaborate and cumbersome the procedure may be, under such circumstances, it is open to the Tribunal to deal, in the first instance, as a preliminary issue the validity of the domestic enquiry. If its finding on the preliminary issue is in favour of the management, then no additional evidence need be cited by the management. But, if the finding on the preliminary issue is against the management, the Tribunal will have to give the employer an opportunity to cite additional evidence and also give a similar opportunity to the employee to lead evidence contra, as the request to adduce evidence had been made by the management to the Tribunal during the course of the proceedings and before the trial has come to an end. When the preliminary issue is decided against the management and the latter leads evidence before the Tribunal, the position, under such circumstances, will be, that the management is deprived of the benefit of having the finding of the domestic Tribunal being accepted as prima facie proof of the alleged misconduct. On the other hand, the management will have to prove, by adducing proper evidence, that the workman is guilty of misconduct and that the action taken by it is proper. It will not be just and fair either to the management or to the workman that the Tribunal should refuse to take evidence and thereby ask the management to make a further application, after holding a proper enquiry, and deprive the workman of the benefit of the Tribunal itself being satisfied, on evidence adduced before it, that he was or was not guilty of the alleged misconduct.

(5) The management has got a right to attempt to sustain its order by adducing independent evidence before the Tribunal.

But the management should avail itself of the said opportunity by making a suitable request to the Tribunal before the proceedings are closed. If no such opportunity has been availed of, or asked for by the management, before the proceedings are closed, the employer can make no grievance that the Tribunal did not provide such an opportunity. The Tribunal will have before it only the enquiry proceedings and it has to decide whether the proceedings have been held properly and the findings recorded therein are also proper.

(6) If the employer relies only on the domestic enquiry and does not simultaneously lead additional evidence or ask for an opportunity during the pendency of the proceedings to adduce such evidence, the duty of the Tribunal is only to consider the validity of the domestic enquiry as well as the finding recorded therein and decide the matter. If the Tribunal decides that the domestic enquiry has not been held properly, it is not its function to invite suo motu the employer to adduce evidence before it to justify the action taken by it."

17. The aforesaid principle of law was quoted with approval in Shankar's case (supra) by a Bench of three Judges in Para 23 observing, "..... After an exhaustive review of the decisions bearing on the question and affirming the ratio in R.K. Jain's case (1972 Lab IC 13) this Court extracted the emerging principles from the review of decisions. Propositions 4, 5 and 6 would be relevant for the present discussion."

18. The aforementioned decisions were extensively discussed by the Constitution Bench in the case of Karnataka State Road Transport Corpn. vs. Lakshmidevamma(Smt.) & Anr., 2001 (5) SCC 433 wherein the law laid down in the aforementioned two cases was approved.

19. When we examine the facts of this case in the light of the aforementioned principles of law, we find that the termination of the respondent was by way of punishment because it was based on the adverse findings recorded against the respondent in the domestic enquiry.

20. So the question, which the Labour Court was expected to decide in the first instance as a "preliminary issue", was whether the domestic enquiry held by the appellant (employer) was legal and proper. In other words, the question to be decided by the Labour Court was whether the domestic enquiry held by the appellant was conducted following the principles of natural justice or not.

21. If the domestic enquiry was held legal and proper then the next question which arose for consideration was whether the punishment imposed on the respondent(delinquent employee) was proportionate to the gravity of the charge leveled against him or it called for any interference to award any lesser punishment by exercising the powers under Section 11-A of the ID Act.

22. If the domestic inquiry was held illegal and improper then the next question, which arose for consideration, was whether to allow the appellant (employer) to prove the misconduct/charge before the Labour Court on merits by adducing independent evidence against the respondent (employee). The appellant was entitled to do so after praying for an opportunity to allow them to lead evidence and pleading the misconduct in the written statement. (see- also Para 33 at page 1665/66 of Shankar's case (supra)).

23. Once the appellant(employer) was able to prove the misconduct/charge before the Labour Court, then it was for the Labour Court to decide as to whether the termination should be upheld or interfered by exercising the powers under Section 11-A of the ID Act by awarding lesser punishment provided a case to that effect on facts is made out by the respondent(employee).

24. We are constrained to observe that first, the Labour Court committed an error in not framing a "preliminary issue" for deciding the the legality of domestic enquiry and second, having found fault in the domestic inquiry committed another error when it did not allow the appellant to lead independent evidence to prove the misconduct/charge on merits and straightaway proceeded to hold that it was a case of illegal retrenchment and hence the respondents' termination is bad in law."

14. Having considered the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases, as discussed above, and precisely the observations made by the Constitutional Bench of Hon'ble Supreme in the case of Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (Supra), this Court has no doubt in mind that the issue qua violation of principles of natural justice and fair play during the domestic enquiry should be decided first as a preliminary issue. There is no need to discuss the merits of the case or other points inasmuch as matter referred to the labour court is still sub judice, therefore, any observation made by this Court would effect the merits of the case. As such, instant writ petition succeeds and is allowed. Order impugned dated 18.11.2023 passed by the Presiding Officer, Labour Court is hereby quashed. Application dated 08.08.2023 (Paper No.13-D) filed on behalf of the petitioner is allowed and the labour court is directed to decide the issue no.1 as a preliminary issue. It is expected that unnecessary adjournment/delay shall be avoided by the parties concerned and the labour court shall make endeavour to decide the adjudication case, as early as possible.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2381
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE JAYANT BANERJI, J.

Writ-C No. 21022 of 2021

M/S Pragyason Cons. Pvt. Ltd....Petitioner
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sr. Advocate, Udayan Nandan

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
C.S.C.

A. U.P. Minor Minerals (Concessions) Rules, 1963 - G.O. dated 14.08.2017 - Clause 17 - Forfeiture of Earnest Money - Conditions - Letter of Intent - Non-submission of Documents - Refund of Earnest Money - Right to Claim Refund - As per Clause 17 of G.O. dated 14.08.2017, forfeiture of earnest money can only be ordered if, upon verification, any document or certificate submitted by the individual is found to be false, fabricated, or incorrect. No letter of intent shall be issued to such a person. Further, G.O. dated 09.10.2017, provides that no person in the State of U.P. shall be granted more than two mining leases aggregating an area in excess of 50 hectares. In case information is provided to the authority by the applicant himself that the applicant has been issued two letters of intent for two or more mining leases or for areas exceeding 50 hectares, he has the right to choose one of the mining lease areas, and the amount deposited for the remaining areas would be refunded upon verification. (Para 21)

B. U.P. Minor Minerals (Concessions) Rules, 1963 - G.O. dated 14.08.2017 - Condition of Submission of Documents - Directory or Mandatory - G.O. mandates that the relevant documents are to be submitted by the highest bidder within three days of acceptance of his bid. However, the provision does not prescribe any penalty for non-compliance. It is a settled principle that in the absence of any penal provision, such a requirement is considered directory and not mandatory. (Para 22)

C. Facts: Petitioner participated in an e-auction and deposited an earnest money of Rs. 90 lakhs - Upon the acceptance of his bid, a letter was issued to the petitioner to furnish relevant documents for the issuance of a letter of intent - Instead of submitting the documents, the petitioner sought a refund of the earnest money, stating that he had been granted more than two mining leases - District Magistrate rejected the refund application on the ground that the petitioner's failure to furnish documents caused a loss of revenue to the State - Held - Forfeiture of earnest money is not sustainable as no document or certificate was ever furnished by the petitioner - Impugned order forfeiting the petitioner's security deposit was quashed - Respondents were directed to refund the security deposit of Rs. 90 lakhs. (Paras 21, 23)

Allowed. (E-5)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anjani Kumar Mishra, J. & Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.)

1. Heard Shri Udayan Nandan, for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the state respondents.

2. The petitioner by means of this writ petition seeks a writ of certiorari for quashing the order dated 16.07.2020 passed by the District Magistrate, respondent no. 2 (annexure 9 to the writ petition) and the order dated 20.11.2020 (annexure 11 to the writ petition) passed by the Secretary, Mines and Minerals, U.P.

3. By the order dated 16.07.2020, the District Magistrate has rejected petitioner's application for refund of earnest money deposited by him for participating in an e-auction for grant of a lease in District Hamirpur for which an advertisement had been issued on 03.01.2020.

4. The order of the District Magistrate has been affirmed in revision by the first respondent, hence, this petition.

5. The facts of the case briefly stated are that an advertisement was issued on 03.01.2020 inviting bids for grant of mining leases in District Hamirpur. The petitioner submitted its bid along with earnest money of Rs. 90 lakhs on 24.04.2020. The bid of the petitioner, being the highest, was accepted. On 05.03.2020, a letter was issued calling upon the petitioner to furnish relevant documents so that a letter of intent could be issued in his favour.

6. In the meantime, the petitioner on 07.03.2020 participated in the bidding for grant of leases in District-Fatehpur which was, however, cancelled.

7. Since, the letter dated 05.03.2020 could not be complied with, allegedly on account of the prevailing pandemic, yet another reminder was issued to the petitioner on 16.05.2020 requiring submission of the relevant documents within three days.

8. It appears that in the meantime, on 14.05.2020, yet another advertisement was published, inviting tenders for grant of mining leases in District Fatehpur. The petitioner participated in the bidding and was issued a letter of intent on 18.06.2020.

9. After this letter of intent was issued, the petitioner on 19.06.2020 represented to the District Magistrate, Hamirpur for refund of the earnest money of 90 lakhs deposited by him for participation in the bidding held consequent to the advertisement dated 3.01.2020. It is this application which has been rejected holding that the petitioner deliberately failed to furnish the required documents within three days after acceptance of his bid as was provided in the tender. This has caused huge loss of revenue to the State. Therefore, petitioner is not entitled to a refund. Accordingly, the earnest money of 90 lakhs deposited by the petitioner was forfeited in favour of the State. Thus order has been affirmed by the revisional authority.

10. The submission of learned counsel for the the petitioner is that the application dated 19.06.2020 seeking refund of earnest money was in accordance with Rule 10(3) of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concessions) Rules, 1963, as amended by the 47th Amendment Rules, 19.10.2019, which provided that no person in the State of U.P. can be granted leases in excess of an area of 50 hectares. The Government Order dated 19.10.2019 provides the modalities for refund of earnest money in cases where more than two mining leases have been granted in favour of one entity or the aggregate of leases granted is in excess of 50 hectares.

11. It is additionally reiterated that Rule 10(3) of 47th Amendment Rules limits the maximum number of leases that can be granted in favour of one entity to two and the other condition is that the aggregate area of these two leases cannot exceed 50 hectares.

12. Since, the petitioner had been granted two leases in District-Fatehpur consequent to the advertisement issued on 14.05.2020, the petitioner informed the authorities opting to operate two leases granted in Fatehpur which option was with the petitioner.

13. This amended provision has not been taken into consideration by the respondent while passing the impugned orders. The earnest money would be forfeited, if at all, if the information of grant of more than two leases having an aggregate area in excess of 50 hectares had not been communicated by the petitioner and was discovered by the authorities on their own. Such is not the position in the case at hand. The petitioner intimated the respondent no.1 immediately on obtaining two leases in District-Fatehpur and therefore, exercised his option of not going ahead with his bid offered for the mining lease in District-Hamirpur.

14. Learned Standing Counsel has opposed the writ petition and has reiterated what has been stated in the impugned order especially that the petitioner was required to submit documents prior to grant of letter of intent in his favour within three days of the acceptance of his bid. This specific condition mentioned in the tender was not complied with by the petitioner despite issuance of the reminders on 05.03.2020 and 16.05.2020. This inaction of the petitioner resulted in huge loss to the exchequer and therefore, the earnest money deposited by the petitioner has been rightly forfeited as lease could not be operated by any other person also.

15. Learned Standing Counsel has also referred to GO No. 1875/86-2017-57 (सामान्य)/2017 which is dated 14.08.2017. This very same GO also find mention in the order passed by the revisional authority. He has specifically refered the Clause 17 of this Notification which reads as follows:-

"17- ई- निलामी समाप्त होने के पश्चात 03 कार्य दिवस के अन्दर सफल बोलीदाता को अपने मूल अभिलेख का सत्यापन उस जनपद के जिलाधिकारी जहाँ क्षेत्र स्थित है, के द्वारा अथवा निदेशक, भूतत्व एवं खनिकर्म, निदेशालय के द्वारा कराना होगा। निदेशक द्वारा मूल अभिलेख की सत्यापन की स्थिति में अभिलेख सत्यापन की आख्या ई-मेल के माध्यम से संबंधित जिलाधिकारी को प्रेषित की जायेगी। अभिलेख सत्यापन के पश्चात ही जिलाधिकारी द्वारा लेटर आफ इन्टेंट जारी किया जायेगा। सत्यापन में यदि कोई अभिलेख अथवा प्रमाण पत्र कूटरचित, असत्य अथवा गलत पाया जाता है तो लेटर आफ इन्टेंट जारी नही किया जायेगा तथा बयाने की धनराशि (अर्नेस्ट मनी) जब्त कर ली जायेगी।"

16. He has also referred to Clause 19 of the tender notice dated 03.01.2020 which reads as follows:-

"विज्ञप्ति की शर्त संख्या-19 मे उल्लेख किया गया है कि- ई- नीलामी समाप्त होने के पश्चात 03 कार्य दिवस के अन्दर सफल बोलीदाता को अपने मूल अभिलेख का सत्यापन उस जनपद के जिलाधिकारी, जहाँ क्षेत्र स्थित है, के द्वारा अथवा निदेशक, भूतत्व एवं खनिकर्म निदेशालय के द्वारा कराना होगा। निदेशक, द्वारा मूल अभिलेख के सत्यापन की स्थिति में अभिलेख-सत्यापन की आख्या ई-मेल के माध्यम से सम्बन्धित जिलाधिकारी को प्रेषित की जायेगी। अभिलेख-सत्यापन के पश्चात ही जिलाधिकारी द्वारा आशय पत्र (लेटर आफ इन्टेट) जारी किया जायेगा। सत्यापन में यदि कोई अभिलेख अथवा प्रमाण पत्र कूटरचित, असत्य अथवा गलत पाया जाता है तो लेटर आफ इन्टेंट जारी नही किया जायेगा तथा बयाने की धनराशि (अर्नेस्ट मनी) जब्त कर ली जायेगी। आप द्वारा शासनादेश दिनांक- 09.10.2019 में दिये गये निर्देशों एवं विज्ञप्ति दिनांक- 03.01.2020 में दी गयी शर्तों के अनुसार अभिलेख प्रस्तुत नही किया गया है, जिस कारण आपके प्रकरण में अग्रेतर कार्यवाही किया जाना सम्भव नहीं है।"

17. In rejoinder, the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that Clause 17 of the GO dated 14.08.2017, relied upon by learned Standing Counsel, does not empower the respondents to forfeit the earnest money deposited by the petitioner. Forfeiture of earnest money under the this provision is provided only in case the documents or certificates submitted by a person are found forged, fabricated or false. Additionally, no letter of intent would be issued in favour of such person. This condition does not apply because it is the admitted case of the respondents that no documents or certificates were ever furnished by the petitioner.

18. It is next submitted that in any case, the condition that relevant documents are to be submitted by the person whose bid is found highest within three days after such acceptance does not provide any penal clause for its non-compliance. The provision is, therefore, merely directory and not mandatory. In support of this contention, learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon the decision of the Apex Court in State of Bihar and others v. Bihar Rajya Bhumi Vikas Bank Samiti, (2018) 9 SCC 472 wherein it has been held that any requirement under a statute in the absence of a penal clause or provision for its non-compliance, the provision is deemed to be directory and not mandatory. Therefore, also the earnest money deposited by the petitioner could not be forfeited especially in the absence of any quantification of loss suffered by the State on account of petitioner not having furnished relevant documents within three days from acceptance of this bid.

19. We have considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties. From the narration of the facts above and submission made by learned counsel for the parties, the point which arises for consideration in the writ petition is whether the respondents were empowered to order forfeiture of the earnest money deposited by the petitioner in favour of the State.

20. The State has relied upon the GO No GO No. 1875/86-2017-57 (सामान्य)/2017 which is dated 14.08.2017, relevant part whereof has already been quoted hereinabove.

21. We are in agreement with the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that forfeiture of earnest money could be ordered only when, upon the verification, any document or certificate filed by an individual was found false, fabricated or incorrect.

22. There does not appear to be any penal consequence provided for non-compliance of the earlier part of this provision which requires the highest bidder to submit relevant documents within a period of three days from acceptance of his bid. Therefore, in view of the judgment relied upon by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the provision has to be held to be directory and not mandatory. This view is further supported by the fact that in case this provision was mandatory, non-compliance would have resulted in adverse consequences having visited the petitioner on the 4th day itself. The authorities, on the contrary, have issued at least two reminders to the petitioner on 05.03.2020 and 16.05.2020.

23. Under the circumstances, reliance upon GO No. 1875/86-2017-57 (सामान्य)/2017 which is dated 14.08.2017 for forfeiture of his earnest money deposited by the petitioner is unsustainable.

24. In the context of the arguments, it is necessary to refer to GO No. 2168/86-2019-57(सामान्य)/2017, dated 09.10.2017, copy whereof has been filed as annexure 8 to this writ petition, which states that it has been issued to amend the notification dated 14.08.2017, No. 1875/86-2017-57(सामान्य)/2017TC1 on account of the amendments incorporated in the UP Minor Minerals (Concessions) (47th Amendment) Rules 2019. The relevant portion of this notification for the purposes of this writ petition whereby clause 13 of the Government Order dated 14.08.2017 was amended, is quoted below:-

"13(9)- अधिकतम दो खनन पट्टे या 50 हे० से अधिक के क्षेत्र को, उ० प्र० राज्य में किसी व्यक्ति/फर्म कम्पनी के पक्ष में स्वीकृत नही किया जायेगा। यदि किन्ही परिस्थितियों में एक व्यक्ति/ फर्म/ कम्पनी द्वारा अपने पक्ष में दो खनन पट्टे या 50 हे० से अधिक के खनन पट्टे स्वीकृत करा लिया जाता है, तो अन्त में स्वीकृत खनन पट्टे निरस्त कर पट्टा अन्तर्गत जमा सम्पूर्ण धनराशि जब्त कर ली जायेगी तथा केवल प्रारम्भ के दो क्षेत्र अथवा 50 हे० के खनन पट्टे ही अनुमन्य होंगे। परन्तु यदि आवेदक स्वयं अपने पक्ष में दो खनन पट्टे या 50 हे० से अधिक के खनन पट्टे हेतु जारी लेटर ऑफ इटेन्ट की सूचना देता है, तो उक्त सीमा के अन्तर्गत कोई भी खनन पट्टा क्षेत्र के चयन का उसे अधिकार होगा तथा शेष क्षेत्रों की जमा धनराशि पुष्टि के उपरान्त यथावत वापस कर दी जायेगी।"

25. A bare perusal of the provision cited above reveals that it provides that a person in the State of U.P. cannot be granted more than two mining leases for an aggregate area in excess of 50 hectares. It further provides if in a case this condition stands violated, the last lease shall stand cancelled and the earnest money deposited for the same will also stand forfeited and only the first two leases which are not for more than 50 hectares shall remain approved. This provision is subject to proviso that if information is provided by the applicant that he has been issued two letters of intent for two or more mining leases or that their areas are in excess of 50 hectares, he will have right to choose any of the mining lease areas and the amount deposited for the remaining areas would be returned after verification.

26. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner that the intimation of two choices of the petitioner getting more than two leases whose an area of aggregate was intimated to the authorities by the petitioner and therefore, he had, under the relevant provision, option to retain any of the two leased areas for which letter of intent had been issued in his favour. Under the circumstances, the respondents had no option but to refund the earnest money deposited by the petitioner, regarding the mining area in District-Hamirpur.

27. In view of the forgoing discussion, this Court is constrained to hold that the forfeiture of the petitioner's security deposit of Rs. 90 lakhs is without any authority of law. Accordingly, this petition is hereby allowed and the impugned orders 16.07.2020 and 20.11.2020 are hereby quashed.

28. The respondents are directed to refund the security deposit of Rs. 90 lakhs to the petitioner expeditiously, positively within a period of four weeks from the date a certified copy of this order is filed before them.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2386
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 29.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ANJANI KUMAR MISHRA, J.
THE HON'BLE JAYANT BANERJI, J.

Writ-C No. 33710 of 2021

M/S Deep Builders & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Opp. Parties

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Ashish Malhotra, Syed Mohd. Fazal

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
C.S.C.

Civil Law - Mining Lease - Cancellation of Letter of Intent - Forfeiture of Security Deposit and Royalty - U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) Rules, 2017 [As amended by the 43rd Amendment] - Rule 29 - U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Seventh Amendment) Rules, 2019, w.e.f. 13.08.2019 - Rule 34(4) – Petitioner participated in the bidding for the grant of a mining lease of ordinary sand, a Letter of Intent was issued, and the petitioner deposited 25% of the bid amount as security and an equivalent amount as the first installment of royalty. Subsequently, the Letter of Intent was cancelled, and by the order of the District Magistrate, the security deposit and first instalment towards royalty were forfeited in favor of the State - Held - There exists no power under the relevant rules to forfeit the security deposit or the first instalment once the Letter of Intent has been cancelled - Impugned order was without the sanction of law and hence quashed - State was directed to refund the security deposit and the first instalment of royalty deposited by the petitioner, along with simple interest at the rate of 9% thereon (Para 21, 25, 26)

Allowed. (E-5)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Anjani Kumar Mishra, J. & Hon'ble Jayant Banerji, J.)

1. Heard Shri Syed Mohd. Fazal, learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

This writ petition seeks a writ of certiorari for quashing the order dated 28.08.2021 passed by the third respondent, the District Magistrate/District Officer, Ghaziabad.

2. By this order and in purported exercise of powers conferred by Rule 34 (4) of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Seventh Amendment) Rules, 2019 and for their non compliance, the security deposited by the petitioner as also the first instalment consequent to the issuance of Letter of Intent with regard to Plot Nos. 290M, 301M, 303M, 304M, 310M, 311M, 314M area 12.512 hectares has been forfeited in favour of the State.

3. The facts of the case briefly stated are that the petitioner participated in the bidding for grant of mining lease of ordinary sand for a period of five years over plots situated in Village Pachayra, Tehsil Loni, District Ghaziabad having a total area of 12.512 hectares. The auction was for a mining of annual quantity of 2,50,240 cubic meters of sand.

4. Since the bid of the petitioner was the highest, a Letter of Intent was issued in its favour on 31.10.2017. The petitioner thereafter deposited 25% of the bid amount as security and an equal amount as the first instalment of royalty in accordance with Rule 28(2)(i) of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) Rules, 1963.

5. The Letter of Intent was cancelled on 28.01.2019. However, no order was passed for refund of the security amount or the first instalment forcing the petitioner to approach this Court by means of Writ – C No.19354 of 2021.

6. During the pendency of the said writ petition, the order dated 28.08.2021 was passed. The petitioner thereafter withdrew his earlier Writ – C No.19354 of 2021 and the instant writ petition is being filed challenging the order of the District Magistrate dated 28.08.2021, whereby the security and first instalment towards royalty has been forfeited in favour of the State.

7. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner primarily is that there exists no power with the respondents to forfeit the security deposit or the first instalment deposited by him, once the Letter of Intent has been cancelled. The impugned order therefore, is without any sanction of law and is liable to be quashed. The amount deposited by the petitioner is liable to be refunded along with interest, thereon.

8. Elaborating further, it has been submitted that at the time, the Letter of Intent was issued in favour of the petitioner, the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) Rules, 2017 as amended by the 43rd Amendment, therein, were in force.

9. On the date, the Letter of Intent was cancelled namely 28.01.2019, it is the 44th Amendment Rules, which were operational. Neither the 43rd nor the 44th Amendment Rules contain any provision for forfeiture of the security deposit and/or the royalty paid by the petitioner on cancellation of the Letter of Intent. He has reiterated that after issuance of the Letter of Intent, a mining plan was submitted by the petitioner within the time prescribed for the same. This mining plan was also granted approval by the respondents. Thereafter, the petitioner applied for environmental clearance and before the same could be granted, the Letter of Intent has been cancelled. No order for forfeiture was passed at the time of cancellation of the Letter of Intent and this order has been passed after the petitioner had preferred a revision to the State Government, wherein the matter was remitted back to the third respondent to pass appropriate orders on the prayer of the petitioner for refund for security deposit and also the royalty deposited by him. However, no order was passed and, therefore, the petitioner approach this Court by means of Writ – C No.19354 of 2021 and during the pendency of this writ petition, the impugned order has been passed.

10. He has also submitted that the order of forfeiture if at all can only be passed at the time of the order passed for cancelling the Letter of Intent. This cannot be done subsequently.

11. Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon various provisions of law during arguments.

12. The first provision placed by learned counsel for the petitioner is Rule 29 of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Third Amendment) Rules, 2017 to submit that forfeiture of security deposit is provided where lease deed is not executed within three months due to a fault on the part of the Lease holder. In the case at hand no lease deed was ever executed. Hence this provision is not at all attracted. Rule 29(1) thereof reads as follows:-

"29. Execution of lease deed (1) The successful bidder/tenderer after receiving letter of intent of concerned e-tender/e-auction/e-tender cum c-auction shall produce, approved Mining Plan and Clean. Environment Certificate prescribed as per rule, and a lease deed concerning the same will be executed in form MM-6 or in similar format. The registration of the said executed lease deed will be registered within three months period. The period of lease will be counted from the date of execution of the concerned lease deed. If due to fault on the part of lease holder, registration of the said executed lease deed is not registered within three months, then the said lease deed will be treated as null and void and the amount of security will be seized by the District Magistrate."

13. Rule 34(4), non compliance whereof is the basis of the impugned order reads as follows:-

"(4) Mining operations shall in respect of all minor mineral be undertaken in accordance with the mining plan, detailing, yearly development schemes, aspect of reclamation and rehabilitation of mined out areas including progressive mine closure scheme duly approved by the Director:

Provided that the lessee shall start the mining operation after obtaining environmental clearance if required under the provisions of Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 issued by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Calamite change Government of India as amended from time to time:

Provided further that an application seeking prior environmental clearance in all cases shall be made by the project proponent or end user agency as the case may be, in as provided in paragraph-6 of the Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 as amended from time to time."

14. Relying upon the provisions quoted above, he has submitted that the proviso to Rule 34(4) requires a lessee to start mining operations only after obtaining environmental clearance and that the proviso casts a duty upon the lessee or the proponent to apply for environmental clearance.

15. Rule 34(5) provides that a mining lease shall be executed only after environmental clearance has been obtained.

16. Rule 34 of the Uttar Pradesh Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Fourth Amendment) Rules, 2017 reads as follows:-

"34. (1) The 'Selected Applicant' before the execution of mining lease deed under the provisions of Chapters II, IV and IX or issuing a mining permit under Chapter VI of these rules, shall get prepared a mining plan by the person, recognized and registered by the Director, having the qualification and experience namely:-

(i) a degree in Mining Engineering or post-graduate degree in Geology granted by university established or incorporated by or under Central Act or a Provincial Act or a State Act, including any institution recognized by the University Grants Commission established under section 4 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; and

(ii) professional experience of 05 years of working in a supervisory capacity in the field of mining after obtaining the degree.

(2) The selected applicant of e-tender/ bidder of e-auction shall submit the mining plan for approval to the Director, who may within thirty days from the date of receipt of mining plan approve, modify or reject it positively.

(3) The mining plan once approved shall be valid for entire duration of the mining lease/license or for five years whichever is earlier. If the lease period is more than five years then in that case the lease holder will resubmit mining plan before the Director, Geology and Mining, Uttar Pradesh.

(4) Mining operations shall in respect of all minor mineral be undertaken in accordance with the mining plan, detailing, yearly development schemes, aspect of reclamation and rehabilitation of mined out areas including progressive mine closure scheme duly approved by the Director: Provided that the lessee shall start the mining operation after obtaining environmental clearance if required under the provisions of Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 issued by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Calamite change Government of India as amended from time to time : Provided further that an application seeking prior environmental clearance in all cases shall be made by the project proponent or end-user agency as the case may be, in as provided in Paragraph 06 of the Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 as amended from time to time."

17. He has therefore, submitted that the relevant Rule 34 was identical in both the 43rd and 44th Amendment, Rules.

18. The U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Seven Amendment) Rules 2019 came into force from 13.08.2019. Rule 34, therein reads as follows:-

"34 Mining operations to commence within six months –

(1) The 'Selected Applicant' before the execution of mining lease deed under the provision of chapter II, IV and IX or issuing a mining permit under chapter VI of these rules, shall get prepared a mining plan by the person, recognized and registered by the Director, having the qualification and experience namely:-

(i) a degree in Mining Engineering or post-graduate degree in Geology granted by university established or incorporated by or under Central Act or a Provincial Act or a State Act, including any institution recognized by the University Grants Commission established under section 4 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956; and

(ii) Professional Experience of 05 years of working in a Supervisory Capacity in the field of mining after obtaining the degree.

(2) The Selected applicant shall, within one month of issuance of letter of intent, submit the mining plan for approval to the Officer authorized by notification in this behalf by the State Government, who may within thirty days from the date of receipt of mining plan approve, modify or reject it positively. The project proponent shall, within one month of approval of mining plan, submit the application for grant of Environment Clearance to the competent authority.

(3) The mining plan once approved shall be valid for entire duration of the mining lease/permit or for five years whichever is earlier. If the lease period is more than five years, then in that case the lease holder will resubmit mining plan before the Officer authorized by notification in this behalf by the State Government.

(4) Mining operations shall in respect of all minor mineral be undertaken in accordance with the mining plan, detailing yearly development schemes, aspect of reclamation and rehabilitation of mined out areas including progressive mine closure scheme duly approved by the Officer authorized by notification in this behalf by the State Government.

Provided that the lessee shall start the mining operation after obtaining environmental clearance if required under the provisions of Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 issued by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and climate change, Government of India as amended from time to time. During the process of grant of Environment clearance, the proponent shall be bound to complete all desired formalities to resolve the objections raised by the competent authority within the required time frame.

Provided further that an application seeking prior environmental clearance in all cases shall be made by the project proponent or end-user agency as the case may be, in as provided in Paragraph 06 of' the Environment Impact Assessment Notification, dated September 14, 2006 as Amended from time to time.

(5) The mining lease deed will be executed only after approval of mining plan by the Officer authorized by notification in this behalf by the State Government and within one month from the date of issuance of environment clearance certificate in favour of the proponent. Mining operation shall commence, immediately for the lessee of river bed mineral within 03 (three) months from the date of the execution of the lease deed by the lessee of other minor minerals and the lessee shall thereafter conduct such operations without deliberate intermission in a proper, skillful in work-man like manner.

(6) Financial assurance has to be furnished by every lease holder. The amount of financial assurance shall be Rupees Twenty five thousand for insitu-rock deposit and Rupees Fifteen thousand for sand or morrum or bajari or boulder or any of these in mixed state exclusively found in the river bed mines per acres of the mining lease area put to use for mining and allied activities. However, the minimum amount of financial assurance to be furnished in any of the forms referred to in sub-rule (7) shall be Rupees Two Lacs. For each category of mines be respective of area."

19. It is submitted that not only are the Rules of 2019 applicable because the Letter of Intent in favour of the petitioner stood cancelled on 28.01.2019, more than six months prior to the enforcement of the Forty Seven Amendment Rules.

20. Learned Standing Counsel has submitted that the impugned order has been passed for violation of Rule 34(5) of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) (Forty Seven Amendment) Rule, 2019 but has not been able to point out from the said Rule, no power of the State Government to either forfeit the security deposit or the first instalment.

21. Upon a consideration of the submissions made and upon a careful scrutiny of the U.P. Minor Minerals (Concession) Rules, 2017 and 2019, we are unable to discern any power of forfeiture.

22. Under the circumstances therefore, the impugned order cannot be sustained and the petition deserves to be allowed.

23. The deposit made by the petitioner in the year 2017 as the Letter of Intent was cancelled on 28.01.2019, the security deposit as also the first instalment of royalty, which had been deposited by the petitioner upon cancellation of the Letter of Intent is liable to be refunded. The respondents instead of refunding this amount have forfeited the same, wrongly and illegally and in the absence of any power to do so.

24. Under the circumstances, the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner, he is entitled to interest on this delayed payment has substance.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has placed reliance upon a judgment of the Apex Court in Dharmendra Kumar Singh vs. State of U.P. AIR 2020 SC 5360, especially paragraph 43, therein, wherein in similar circumstances 9% interest is payable.

25. Accordingly, we allow the writ petition and quash the impugned order dated 28.08.2021 and direct the respondents to refund the security deposit and the first instalment of royalty deposited by the petitioner within a period of three weeks from today.

26. This refund shall be accompanied with simple interest at the rare of 9%, calculated from the date of cancellation of the Letter of Intent till actual payment is made.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2391
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 03.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J.
THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Capital Case No. 20 of 2021

Rajendar & Anr. ...Appellants
Versus
State of U.P. ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellants:
Sri Aditya Gupta, Sri G.S. Chaturvedi (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondent:
A.G.A., Sri Kuldeep Johri, Sri Kuldeep Kumar Dixit

(A) Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code,1973 - Sections 161, 164, 173 (2), 207, 293, 311, 313, 315, 319, 354(3), 366(1), 374(2) & 415 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 302, 307 & 34 - Conviction and Sentenced - Complaint - FIR - offence of Murdered of three minor daughters of informant - were of six persons inflicting injuries using an axe - Capital sentence - reference and jail appeals - Appreciation of evidence – convicted appellants on the account of enmity – they have been held guilty under section 302/34 IPC – they killed three minor daughters of informant – lapse in investigation – trial court held that shoddy and suspicious investigation was conducted by the IO in giving clean chit to the accused persons - finding of the trial court is based on appreciation of the medical jurisprudence is correct – held, court uphold the judgment of conviction of the appellants – appeal qua conviction is dismissed. (Para – 95, 98, 99, 100)

(B) (A) Criminal Law – Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 - Sections 161, 173 (2), 311, 313, 315, 366(1), 374(2) & 415 - Indian Penal Code, 1860 - Sections 302, 307 & 34 - Conviction and Sentenced - Complaint - FIR - Conviction – Sentence – Capital punishment - jail Appeal - murder of three minor girl child – Capital case and the death reference – Whether rarest of rare Case – Held, appellants are aged about 75 & 50 yeas - no any previous criminal history – trial court not recorded any aggravating circumstances and has even not scrutinized the case in the light of mitigating circumstances – no any finding that awarding of severest punishment is the only possibility in the case – trial court also no recorded any finding that accused persons are menace to the society - there is no mens rea of the appellant to killed the three daughters as motive was killed to informant who succeeded in running away - - held, instant case cannot be termed as 'rarest of rare case', even though accused has committed a grave offence - hence, capital punishment awarded to both the appellants should be commuted to life imprisonment for a fixed term of 20 years – appeal qua sentence is modified.
(Para – 95, 96, 98, 99)

Capital Case Dismissed. (E-11)

List of Cases cited:

1. Vadivelu Thevar Vs St. of Madras, 1957 0 AIR (SC) 614,

2. Javed Shaukat Ali Qureshi Vs St. of Guj., (2023) 9 SCC 164,

3. n Tarun Tyagi Vs C.B.I. reported in (2017) 4 SCC 490,

4. St. of Mah. Vs Nisar Ramzan Sayyed, 2017(2) R.C.R.(Criminal) 564,

5. St. of U.P. Vs Ram Kumar & ors., 2017(5) R.C.R.(Criminal)785,

6. Chhannu Lal Verma Vs St. of Chhattisgarh, 2019(5) R.C.R.(Criminal) 192,

7. Dnyaneshwar Suresh Borkar Vs St. of Mah., 2019(2) R.C.R.(Criminal) 302,

8. Manoharan Vs St. by Inspector of Police, Variety Hall Police Station , Coimbatore, 2019AIR (Supreme Court) 3746,

9. Veerendra Vs St. of Madhya Pradesh, 2022(3)R.C.R. (Criminal) 254,

10. The St. of Har. Vs Anand Kindo & anr. etc., 2022(4)R.C.R. (Criminal)735,

11. Framing Guidelines Regarding Potential Mitigating Circumstances to be Considered While Imposing Death Sentences, 2023(1) R.C.R.(Criminal) 571, 12. Sundar @ Sundarrajan Vs St. by Inspector of Police, 2023 Cri.L.R.(SC) 473,

13. Ravindar Singh Vs The St. Govt. of NCT of Delhi, 2023 AIR (Supreme Court)2220,

14. Digambar Vs The St. of Mah., 2023 Cri. L.R. (SC) 564,

15. Bhaggi @ Bhagirah @ Naran Vs The St. of M. P., 2024(1) Crimes 121,

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan, J.)

1. Reference No. 17 of 2021 is made by the Additional Sessions Judge, Court No. 43, Shahjahanpur for confirmation of capital punishment in Sessions Trial No. 853 of 2003. The Jail Appeal being Capital Case No. 20 of 2021 has been filed by the appellants challenging the judgment of conviction dated 22.11.2021 holding the appellants-Rajendar and Narvesh guilty of offence punishable under Section 302 of IPC and order of sentence of the same date vide which both the accused-appellants were sentenced to death under Section 302 of IPC.

2. The Reference and Appeal were admitted. The Trial Court's record is received and paper books are ready.

3. Heard Sri G.S. Chaturvedi, learned Senior Advocate assisted by Sri Aditya Gupta, learned counsel for the appellant, Sri Kuldeep Johri, learned counsel for the informant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

4. With the aid of learned counsel for the parties, the entire evidence is re-scrutinized and re-appreciated. After judgement was reserved, certain clarification were again sought by both the learned counsels for the parties by giving hearing in open Court.

5. The case of the prosecution is that on the intervening night of 15.10.2002/16.10.2002, a complaint was given by the informant-Avdhesh Kumar (who was later on charge sheeted as an accused). The written complaint (Ex.Ka-2) reads as under :

"...one Chutkannu alias Nathulal of our village harbours enmity towards me since I have given evidence as a witness in a criminal case against him. Due to this reason on dated 15-10-2002 at around 6 PM when after giving fodder to my milch animals, I was lying on a cot in my house, just at that time Chutkannu alias Nathulal having his licensed gun, alongwith one Rajendarr who was having a local made gun and Narvesh Kumar who was having a local made Rifle, came to my house and opened fire at me to commit my murder. I ran away from there to save my life. On hearing the sound of gunshot fire, my neighbour Ramesh s/o of Kanauji Lal, his wife Alka, Devesh Kumar, Hari Sharan s/o of Ram Chander came over there. On raising the hue and cry, all the accused persons hit my three daughters who were sleeping near me, in the mosquito net, vizually, Rhohini 09years, Neeta 08 years, both of whom died on the spot due to the gunshot injuries while my third daughter Surbhi 07 years also passed away in the way, while I was coming to the police station. I, my wife Shashi and the witnesses mentioned above besides other people of our village have seen the accused persons commit the murder. Due to fear of the accused persons I have come hiding to the police station. The dead bodies of my daughters are lying in my house.."

6. On the basis of the aforesaid written complaint (Ex.Ka-2), the police registered formal F.I.R. (Ex.Ka-26), against three accused persons namely Chutkannu alias Nathulal and his brother Rajendar and son - Narvesh Kumar. Accused-Chutkannu died around the year 2010 as verified by the Trial Court.

7. During the course of investigation, a site plan of the crime was prepared as pointed out by complainant-Avdhesh Kumar. The same was exhibited as Ex.Ka-7. The dead body of all three daughters of informant were sent for postmortem examination which was also done on 16.10.2002. The Postmortem reports of Rohini aged 09 years is Exhibit A-5, Neeta aged about 08 years is Exhibit A-4 and Surbhi aged about 07 years is Exhibit A-6. During investigation, the Investigating Officer did not arrest any of the above named three accused persons and rather started investigating of the case in a manner that, Avdhesh Kumar, the father of three girls, had in fact committed the gruesome murder in presence of his wife namely Shashi Devi (PW-5). Accordingly by giving a clean chit to the three accused persons, at initial stage itself, the Investigating Officer namely Hoshiyaar Singh (PW-13) submitted report under Section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. against accused-Avdhesh Kumar which was exhibited as Exhibit A-25. Charge under Section 302 of IPC was framed against accused-Avdhesh Kumar on 12.3.2004 which reads as under :

"...that on dated 15-10-2002 at around 18:00 hours in village Jeva Mukundpur in your own house which is within the territorial jurisdiction of PS Nigohi Shahjahanpur, you opened fire from your licensed firearm, possessed by you, at your own 03 daughters vizually, Rohini, Neeta and Surbhi and thereby you ave committed their murder. Thus, you have committed an offence which is punishable under Section 302 I.P.C. and which is within the cognizance of this Court"

8. In the evidence, initially 06 prosecution witnesses were examined. Har Saran Lal (PW-1) stated that he knew accused-Avdhesh Kumar and he had no knowledge who committed murder of the three daughters of Avdhesh Kumar. However, he came to know from the villagers that Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Rajendarr and Narvesh Kumar had killed the three daughters of Avdhesh Kumar. This witness was declared hostile and was cross examined by A.D.G.C. and when confronted with his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., he refused having made such statement. He further stated that Chutkannu alias Nathulal was a previous convict in a case of murder where he has been granted bail by the High Court.

9. Kali Charan (PW-2) is a witness to three Panchayatnama which were exhibited as Ex.Ka-1 to Ex.Ka-3. In cross examination, this witness stated that Avdhesh Kumar was a witness in an F.I.R. under Section 307 IPC registered against Chutkannu. Chutkannu was putting pressure on Avdhesh Kumar for not giving evidence against him. However, Avdhesh did not accept it and therefore, Chutkannu was extending threat to Avdhesh Kumar.

10. Sarvesh Kumar (PW-3) is real brother of Avdhesh who stated that three daughters of Avdhesh were murdered at night and on that day, he was in village-Nigohi. At midnight, Avdhesh along with Har Saran Lal, Ram Niwas, Rajiv and Mukesh came on a tractor and informed him that his daughters were murdered. Thereafter, the Panchayatnama was done in his presence. In cross examination, this witness stated that people told him that Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh committed murder of the three daughters of Avdhesh.

11. Dinesh Kumar (PW-4) stated that he knew Avdhesh Kumar. He had heard the noise of firearm on the night of incident. He visited the house of Avdhesh in the morning where he found that the three daughters of Avdhesh were lying dead. He had seen Avdhesh carrying a licensed gun and he has no knowledge who had committed the murder of the three girls. This witness was declared hostile. In cross examination by ADGC, he denied that he has given a statement to the Investigating Officer that on the intervening night of 15/16.10.2002, he had heard the noise of three fire shots. He also denied that he had gone to the house of Avdhesh and had not seen any person running from the spot. This witness was further confronted with his statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., to which he replied that he has not made such statement and had no knowledge as to how the Investigating Officer had recorded the same.

12. In cross examination by defence, he stated that initially Chutakannu was arrested but under the influence of one Prem Awasthi, the police had released him.

13. Smt. Shashi Devi (PW-5), wife of Avdhesh Kumar and mother of the three girls who were murdered, stated that her three daughters, Rohini, Neeta and Surbhi were sleeping on one cot. At about 7.00 PM, Chutkannu carrying a licensed gun, Rajendar carrying country made double barrel gun and Narvesh carrying country made pistol, came, stated kill them and started firing. PW-5 was washing utensils and when she raised voice, the accused persons ran away. When she came near her daughters, she found that Rohini and Neeta had died and she along with her husband took Surbhi to the Police Station, however, she died on way. This witness was also declared hostile and was cross examined by ADGC. She denied having made any statement to police under Section 161 Cr.P.C. which was read over to her. She denied the suggestion that she insisted with her husband-Avdhesh Kumar to bring winter clothes for their daughters and due to anger and under the influence of liquor, her husband opened fire and killed his three daughters. She denied suggestion that being wife of Avdhesh Kumar she was not giving correct statement. In further cross examination by defence, she stated that apart from three girls which were murdered, she has five more children out of which, three are daughters and two are sons, who are alive.

14. Ashok Kumar (PW-6) stated that on hearing the noise of gunshot, he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar where three girls were found dead. He stated that wife of Avdhesh Kumar told him that Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Rajendarr and Narvesh Kumar who were also the resident of her village had come to kill her husband-Avdhesh and the gunshots hit her daughters. Avdhesh Kumar was having enmity with Chutakannu. Thereafter, Avdhesh Kumar got an F.I.R. registered against Chutkannu etc. Chutkannu had a licensed gun and he has died about 4 to 5 years ago. In cross examination, this witness stated that Avdhesh had sufficient agricultural land and had no shortage of any finance.

15. After initially recording the statements of these six witnesses, the prosecution moved an application under Section 319 Cr.P.C. for summoning Rajendar and Narvesh as additional accused which was allowed and de novo trial started. The above statements of PW-1, PW-4 and PW-5 were recorded before de novo trial referred to in this judgment as these witnesses were later on confronted and corroborated with their earlier statements when they again appeared after framing of charge against Rajendar and Narvesh.

16. In de novo trial, fresh charges were framed against Rajendar and Narvesh under Section 302/34 IPC on 24.1.2018.

17. Therefore, the prosecution, out of six witnesses whose statements were already recorded, recorded statement of PW-1 again. The first statement was recorded on 3.2.2007 and for the second time, it was recorded on 13.12.2018 that is after a period of about 11 years. In the second statement, PW-1 stated that sixteen years ago, at the evening time, he heard the noise of firing. When he went to the house of Avdhesh Kumar, he saw that his one daughter was lying dead on one cot and two daughters on another cot. He stated that Narvesh, Chutkannu and Rajendar were seen coming. They were carrying guns and many people gathered. In cross examination, this witness stated that his elder brother's name is Ram Saran and he has two sons namely Ram Niwas and Shree Niwas. Chutkannu was murdered and his both nephews are accused in the said murder case. He denied the suggestion that due to enmity, he is making a false statement. He further stated that Ram Bharose was murdered and Vinod was injured in an incident and in that case, on account of murder of Ram Bharose, he (PW-1) was sentenced to life imprisonment and he is on bail from the High Court. This witness stated that accused-Avdhesh Kumar has two real brothers namely Sarvesh and Narendra Dev who are residing at Village-Nigohi. This witness further stated that his real niece Prema is married in Village-Akholi. He also stated that the elder daughter of Avdhesh namely Archana has been married to his niece-Prema's son namely, Chhotu and thus he is related to Avdhesh Kumar. This witness further stated that he has made statement to the Investigating Officer that he has heard noise of firing in night but he has not seen anybody firing or running away and he had not witnessed the incident.

18. Dinesh Kumar (PW-4) whose first statement was recorded on 7.1.2009, again appeared for the second time on 4.2.2019 and stated that on hearing the noise of firing, he went to the house of Avdhesh Kumar which is situated 4 to 5 houses away. Avdhesh Kumar was carrying double barrel gun from which smoke was emitting out. In the morning at about 8.00 AM, Avdhesh Kumar came and told him that he had killed his three daughters and PW-4 should help him as he was under the influence of liquor at night. Liquor was kept under his cot and two empty cartridges were lying there. This witness further stated that Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh have not killed the three girls rather Avdhesh Kumar, under the influence of liquor, killed his own daughters.

19. This witness stated that at the time of incident, his wife was Village Pradhan. Avdhesh Kumar was having enmity with Chutkannu, Narvesh and Rajendar and, therefore, he has named them in the F.I.R.

20. In cross examination on behalf of accused-Avdhesh Kumar, he stated that his wife-Nirmala contested election against Pratima Devi who is wife Narender Dev, the real brother of Avdhesh Kumar. When confronted with his previous statement, this witness stated that it is correct that his statement was previously recorded in the Court and in that statement he had stated that he had not heard any noise of firing and he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar in the morning and found that his three daughters were lying dead. He further stated that previous statement was made because accused-Avdhesh Kumar had threatened him to kill. When the Court asked a question that why he has made false statement on oath, this witness stated that under the threat of Avdhesh Kumar, he has not made the same statement which he has made at the time of recording the present statement.

21. In further cross examination on behalf of accused-Narvesh, he stated that the Investigating Officer recorded his statement twice and on second occasion, he told that Avdhesh Kumar had killed his three daughters and requested for help. He further stated that at night when he reached at the house of Avdhesh Kumar, no petromax gas was lightening and he was carrying a torch. This witness stated that at the time when the accident took place, Avdhesh Kumar had only five daughters and his financial condition was very poor and he used to ply Tanga to earn his livelihood.

22. In her second statement, Shashi Devi, PW-5, (wife of Avdhesh Kumar and mother of the three girls who were murdered) stated that about sixteen years ago, her husband-Avdhesh Kuamr had enmity with Chutkannu. Chutkannu had given gunshot injury to one Rajnessh and her husband-Avdhesh Kumar was witness in the said case. She stated that Chutkannu was putting pressure on Avdhesh Kumar not to appear as witness against him otherwise he would be killed. She stated that at about 6-7 PM, petromax gas was lightening, her husband-Avdhesh Kumar was lying on a cot and her three daughters namely Rohini, Neeta and Surbhi were also lying on another cot. Her two daughters, Pooja and Archana, were lying inside the room and she was washing utensils. At that time, Chutkannu, carrying single barrel licensed gun, Rajendar, carrying double barrel country made gun and Narvesh, carrying country made pistol, came and shot dead the three daughters of Shashi Devi and Avdhesh Kumar. Her husband escaped and ran away from door of the room which was in a dilapidated condition. She stated that accused fired on his husband-Avdhesh Kumar which hit his three daughters. Rohini and Neeta died on the spot and Surbhi got injured and when she raised voice, the accused persons ran away and her neighbours, Har Saran and Kali Charan came there. Thereafter, she along with her husband took Surbhi to Police Station but she also died on her way. The complaint was given by her husband. After the postmortem of the deceased-girls was conducted, the Police arrested Avdhesh Kumar by saying that he has killed his daughters rather she had made a statement that Chutkannu, Narvesh and Rajendar have killed her daughters. She further stated that in the case where her husband was a witness and Chutkannu was an accused, Chutkannu was convicted.

23. In cross examination, this witness stated that when she was washing utensils her face was towards north. The Investigating Officer has colluded with accused-Rajendar, Narvesh and Chutkannu and has recorded her false statement in this regard though she has made a categoric statement to the Investigating Officer that aforesaid three persons had killed his daughters. She stated that her husband never used to consume liquor and at the time of incident, he was lying on a cot and on hearing the noise of firing, he succeeded in running away from a passage of small room and she had seen the accused persons in the light of burning a petromax gas. She further stated that the Investigating Officer by himself firing from the gun, took away the gun of her husband and empty cartridges.

24. This witness further stated that in her previous statement if the factum of petromax gas is not mentioned, she cannot tell the reason. This witness further stated that she has not given any such statement that before Dussehra, she insisted upon her husband-Avdhesh Kumar to get winter clothes for her daughters and due to that reason her husband was disturbed and stated that he would not get it. This witness categorically stated that she has told to the Investigating Officer that when she was washing utensils, Chutkannu, carrying single barrel licensed gun, Rajendar, carrying double barrel country made gun and Narvesh, carrying country made pistol, came and killed her daughters and her husband ran away from the door of a dilapidated room. This witness stated that she has no knowledge if elder brother of her husband namely Narendra Dev has been convicted for life and is on bail. She pleaded ignorance that her father-in-law, Damodar Das was murdered but she has no knowledge.

25. Narendra Dev (PW-7) is a witness who had written the complaint and read over the same to his brother Avdhesh Kumar and submitted the same under the signature of Avdhesh Kumar to police. In cross examination, he stated that his son Gyandev is an Advocate and he himself is a convict in the case under Section 302 of IPC. He denied the suggestion that after due consideration, in order to save life of Avdhesh, a false FIR has been registered. In further cross examination, this witness stated that his father died in an accident.

26. Rajneesh (PW-8) stated that he has no knowledge about the incident and who committed the murder of daughters of Avdhesh Kumar as he was out of the village. This witness was declared hostile and in cross examination by ADGC was confronted with the statement under Section 161 of Cr.P.C. to which he stated that he has not made any such statement. In cross examination by defence, this witness stated that Narendra Dev has even scribed a complaint in another FIR against Chutkannu @ Nathulal.

27. Lal Bahadur (PW-9) clearly denied any knowledge of the incident. This witness was also declared hostile and in cross examination by ADGC, he denied having given a statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. In cross examination on behalf of accused persons, he stated that when he reached the house of Avdhesh Kumar, he has not seen anyone running from the place, his daughters were lying dead and he was sitting with his gun.

28. Ram Bahore (PW-10) has also denied having any knowledge about the incident by saying that he came 4-5 days after the incident. He was also declared hostile and in cross examination by ADGC, he denied making any statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. In cross examination by accused-Narvesh Kumar, he denied that in statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., he has stated that he apprehended that the fires were shot from the gun of Avdhesh.

29. Bade Lalla (PW—11) also stated that he has no knowledge about the incident and he was also declared hostile. In cross examination by ADGC, he denied the statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. In cross examination of accused Narvesh Kumar, he denied that under the influence of Avdhesh Kumar, he has not given any statement.

30. Dr. Anil Sood (PW-12) conducted the postmortem of three girls, namely, Rohini, Neeta and Surbhi and found the following injuries :-

"Name Rohini Age 09 years

Ante Mortem Injuries

1. A gunshot would of entry 2 cm. x 0.5 cm into skull cavity deep (to and through). It was on the right side fo the skull about 5 cm above the right ear. The margins were inverted. Blackening and Tattooing present.

2. Gunshot injury of Exit 10 cm x 5 cm Bone deep communicating to injury no.1 of entry was present on the left side of the face. The margins were everted. Left Frontal, Mandible and Maxilla Bones were broken.

3. Contusion 4 cm x 2 cm and 3 cm x 2 cm on right arm 9 cm below right shoulder is seen

Lungs were both Pale.

Liver – Lacerated.

Spleen – Pale.

Kidney – both Pale.

Time since death – Died on dated 15.10.2002, about one day old.

Cause and manner of death – Immediate cause- Shock and hemorrhage.

Death due to – ante mortem firearm injury….'

'Name- Neeta Age 08 years, Height- cm

Ante Mortem Injuries-

1. A Gunshot Wound of Entry 0.3 cm x 0.2 cm Brain Cavity Deep on Right Side of Skull 4 cm above Right ear present. Margins are inverted. No Blackening and Tattooing present.

2. A Gunshot Wound of Exit 8 cm x 9 cm Brain Cavity Deep which communicated to injury no. 1 was on Left Temporal Parietal side. Margins were everted.

3. A Gunshot Wound of Entry size 0.3 cm x 0.2 cm x Muscle deep to 0.4 cm x 0.2 cm x skin deep in front of right hand. No Blackening or Tattooing.

4. A Gunshot Wound of Exit 10 cm x 5 cm x cavity deep on Right side of Stomach and 4 cm above Right Iliac crest. Margins everted. Blackening and Tattooing present. The Right Parietal and Temporal bone were fractured. The Brain matter was lacerated.

Lungs were both Pale.*

Liver – lacerated.*

Spleen – Pale

Kidney – both Pale.*

Time since death – Died on dated 5.10.2002*

Cause and manner of death – Immediate cause – Shock and hemorrhage.*

Death due to – ante mortem firearm injury….'*

"Name – Surbhi Age 07 years, Height - cm,

Ante Mortem Injuries-

1. A Gunshot Wound of Entry 1 cm x 0.2 cm Stomach cavity deep (to and through) which was in the Left and went upto the Left buttock. It was 4 cm below Iliac crust. Margins were inverted. No Blackening and Tattooing.

2. A Gunshot Wound of Exit 10 cm x 6 cm x Abdominal Cavity deep. The injury communicated with the injury no.1. It was above the Iliac crust. Margins were everted.

Lungs were both Pale.

Liver – Lacerated.

Spleen – Pale.

Kidney – Both Pale.

Time since death – Died on dated 15.10.2002

Cause and manner of death Immediate cause – Shock and hemorrhage.

Death due to – ante mortem firearm injury …"

31. In cross examination, this witness stated that injury no. 1 of Surbhi was mentioned as a firearm injury and death occurred about six hours prior to the postmortem.

32. Hoshiyar Singh (PW-13), retired Sub Inspector, the Investigating Officer stated that on 15.10.2002 at about 6.00 p.m., the incident took place and after taking the chick report, he reached the place of occurrence and recorded the statement of informant. Site plan was prepared as Exhibit-Ka-10. A recovery of blood stained earth, a mosquito net and the pellets of empty cartridges etc. were taken in possession by separate recovery memo which are Exhibits Ka-8 to Ka-10. A double barrel licensed gun along with ten live cartridges were recovered in presence of the witnesses, Hari Sharan and Sarvesh Kumar which is Exhibit Ka-11.

33. Upon the identification of the licensed gun of 12 bore No.5344/80 it was also taken in possession vide Exhibit-Ka-12.

34. The Panchayatnama of all the three dead girls was prepared which are Exhibit Ka-1 to Ka-3. The photographs of the deceased, Neeta, Rohini and Surbhi which is Exhibit Ka-13 along with letter of Chief Medical Officer, sample-C is exhibited as Ka-13 to K-24. On 21st October, 2002, the articles which were taken in possession i.e. blood stained earth, mosquito net, 12 bore gun, pellets were sent to Forensic Science Lab, Agra. Statement of Doctor Anil Sood who conducted the postmortem was also recorded. The statement of Smt. Shashi was recorded in case diary who stated that the offence was committed by the Avdhesh Kumar. Avdhesh Kumar was arrested in presence of Bade Lalla and he confessed having committed murder of his three daughters who were sleeping on a single cot. His confession statement was sent to the Court. The statements of Chutkannu @ Nathulal, Rajendar and Narvesh Kumar were also recorded. Similarly statement of other witness was also recorded. Thereafter, charge-sheet was presented against Avdhesh Kumar vide Exhibit Ka-25 and his previous criminal history was also recorded on the charge sheet.

35. The chick FIR and GD CC were exhibited as Ka-26 and Ka-27. He further stated that he enquired from the Avdhesh Kumar about the time then he stated that it was time of sunset and started crying by saying that he has committed the offence and, therefore, PW-13 found that Chutkannu @ Nathulal, Rajendar and Narvesh Kumar were falsely implicated. This witness further denied that PW-5-Shashi wife of Avdhesh Kumar did not make any such statement that her husband was a witness in an incident when Chutkannu @ Nathulal gave gun shot injury to one Rajneesh and that when he recorded the statement of Shashi, a petromax gas was on. He further denied that Shashi has not given any such statement that her husband Avdhesh Kumar was lying on a cot in Baramada (Courtyard) and two daughters, Pooja & Archana were lying on a cot inside the room. This witness even denied that Shashi has not given the statement that Chutkannu alias Nathulal carrying a single barrel licensed gun, Rajendar carrying country made double barrelled gun, Narvesh Kumar carrying country made pistol came and killed the three daughters of Shashi and thereafter, her husband ran away from the door.

36. He further stated that Shashi has not given statement that she was washing utensils in the courtyard and her face was towards north side. Shashi (PW-5) told him that she insisted upon Avdhesh Kumar that as winter season is coming after Diwali, he should get the winter clothes for his daughters. Shashi has stated that she had five daughters and no son, therefore, her husband was disturbed. He also stated that Shashi has given statement that under the influence of liquor, her husband opened fire and hearing the noise, she woke up and found that her husband- Avdhesh Kumar was standing near the cot of her dead daughters, when she asked her husband, he started crying.

37. In further statement, this witness by opening seal of a packet which carried a 12 barrel licensed gun, this witness stated that this is a licence gun of Avdhesh Kumar which was recovered, the same was exhibited as Ex-1, four cartridge of 12 bores were Exhibit TC-1 to TC-4 as this witness stated that these are the same empty cartridges which were sent to F.S.L. and two empty cartridges marked as EC-1 and EC-2 were stated to be recovered at the spot. These were exhibited as Ex.2 and Ex.3, one cartridge was Exhibited-4 and some pellets from one packet were exhibited as Ex.5 to Ex.11.

38. In cross examination, he stated that after recovery of the gun and empty cartridges, the cartridges were deposited in the police station but were never produced before the Magistrate. He also stated that the empty cartridges and the gun were not deposited in the Sadar Malkhana. This witness also stated that on 16.10.2002, he made the recovery of gun and empty cartridges and after two days, he deposited the same in the police station on 18.10.2002 vide G.D. No.25 at 18:15 a.m.. and for two days, the gun and empty cartridges remained in his custody before these were deposited to the Malkhana. This witness further stated that sample seal was prepared on simple paper and no copy was prepared. The sample seal is not present on the letter prepared by him. The bundle carrying the gun and empty cartridges which were opened in the Court did not carry the sample seal prepared by him. He denied the suggestion that by firing from the gun of Avdhesh Kumar himself, he has made fake recovery of empty cartridges. He further stated that before sending the gun and empty cartridges to Ballistic Expert, he has not produced the same before Magistrate even before the Superintendent of Police. He also denied that with regard to keeping the case property in safe custody of the head Moharrir, he did not record his statement in CD and he cannot tell the name of head Moharrir, in whose custody, the same were kept.

39. This witness also stated that the G.D. by which the case property was taken out from the Malkhana is not available on record and the C.D. in which the case details of case property is mentioned, is not the copy of G.D. This witness further stated that constable-Tikaram who has taken the case property to Ballistic Expert, his statement is also not recorded in CD. This witness also stated that in the recovery memo(Exhibit-Ka-9), he has not mentioned that there was fresh smell of gun powder on the empty cartridges. This witness also stated that in none of the Panchayatnama of three girls, he recorded about recovery of empty cartridges or its time and on 16.10.2002, witness Dinesh did not make statement to him that Avdhesh Kumar came to his house on the same morning at about 8:00 a.m. and told him that he has committed murder of three daughters under the influence of liquor and that the liquor and two empty cartridge were lying under the cot, rather stated that the statement was recorded on 22.10.2002.

40. In cross examination on behalf of Avdhesh Kumar, this witness stated that none of the witnesses whose statements recorded in CD have stated that Avdhesh Kumar or Narvesh Kumar and Rajendar, have committed the offence. The statement of PW-13 concluded on 14.3.2019.

41. The prosecution evidence was closed on 14.3.2019 and the case for the first time was fixed for recording statement of accused under Section 313 Cr.P.C. on 16.3.2019.

42. On 16.3.2019, finding the F.S.L. Report not on record, a direction was issued that the FSL report through special messenger be requisitioned from FSL, Agra. The case was adjourned for this purpose on two occasions.

43. On 27.3.2019, another order was passed and prosecution was directed to produce the FSL report, but an application was moved from the side of the prosecution that regarding the concerned report of the present session case, there is no entry available in the police station therefore as per order of the Court, special messenger was sent for obtaining report at FSL, Agra but the report was not provided and an objection was raised that case file is not traceable, therefore, correct date of deposit of the parcel in the laboratory and its number be informed. The prosecution was directed that the case number and the correct date be informed and the report be submitted before the next date and the case was adjourned for 29.3.2019.

44. On 29.3.2019, the following order was passed :

"आरोप पत्रावली पेश हुई। मुल० अवधेश व नरवेश जेरे जमानत हाजिर है। मुल राजेन्द्र जेल से तलब होवे अभियोजन को Forensic report दाखिल करने के निर्देश थे परन्तु Prosecution की ओर से एक प्रा०पत्र इस आशय का प्रेषित किया गया कि मौजूदा सत्र परीक्षण से संबंधित अभिलेखों का इंद्राज थाने पर उपलब्ध नहीं है और न्यायालय के आदेश के अनुपालन में विशेष वाहक का० 1509 सरोज यादव को विधि विज्ञान प्रयोगशाला आगरा भेजा गया था परन्तु रिपोर्ट नही दी गई और इस टिप्पणी के साथ प्रा०पत्र प्रस्तुत किया गया कि अभियोगTrace नहीं हो पा रहा है। प्रयोगशाला में जमा करने का सही दिनांक व लाट नं० के साथ भेजने का कष्ट करे।

अभियोजन को निर्देशित किया जाता है कि लाट नं० व सही दिनांक अंकित कर Prosecution Report नियत दिनांक तक प्रस्तुत करे।

पत्रावली दि० 29.3.19 को पेश है। "

45. On 1.4.2019, trial court passed following order:

"Put up case. File is taken up Rajendar as accused and other co-accused on bail. The FSL report is received. Same be kept on the file for recording statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. Adjourned to 2.4.2019."

46. Thereafter on 2.4.2019 statement of the accused was recorded under section 313 Cr.P.C. and the case was adjourned for 5.4.2019 when accused side moved an application that they do not want to lead any evidence. However, accused Avdhesh sought time to file written argument.

"Case called out. Accused present. Learned ADGC Cr.) has today filed a copy of the FSL report which pertains to the blood stained an application 144-A has also been moved stating that the FSL report is incomplete and the report regarding the weapon of the offence is missing. He has prayed that he be given time to call for the FSL report regarding the weapon of the offence. This is an old case and previously time was granted to the prosecution to file the FSL report but instead of filing the complete report the prosecution has filed an incompleted one.

A last opportunity is being awarded to the prosecution to file the remaining FSL report positively by date fixed 1.4.2019".

47. Thereafter the statement of the accused persons were recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C.. All the incriminating evidence were produced and were put to the witness. In the statement Avdhesh Kumar it is stated that Sarvesh is not an eye witness and Dinesh has given a false statement as wife of Dinesh and real sister-in-law of Avdhesh had contested village Pradhan election and due to that enmity he has given false statement. It is stated that his wife Shashi was told him that correct statement is made against accused persons. He further stated that he has been falsely implicated. The police is not trying to find out the truth under the influence of Block Pradhan, namely Vinod who was using political pressure, therefore, he has been named in the FIR. In their statement Rajendar and Navesh have stated that they have been falsely implicated by Avdhesh on account of previous enmity in a criminal case.

48. Thereafter, the Trial Court acquitted the accused-Avdhesh Kumar of the charges and held accused-appellants, Rajendar and Narvesh guilty of offence punishable under Section 302 IPC as the third accused-Chutkannu had died during pendency of case in 2010. Both the appellants were sentenced to death as noticed above.

49. Learned Senior Advocate has argued that statement of PW-1, PW-4 & PW-5 are not trustworthy.

50. It is argued that statements of all the aforesaid three witnesses were recorded twice i.e. firstly, when the charges against Avdhesh were framed on 12.3.2004 and secondly, after summoning of the appellant under Section 319 Cr.P.C. when charges were again framed on 24.01.2018, under Section 302/34 IPC. It is argued that statements of these witnesses were recorded after a gap of more than 10 years after their statements were recorded for the first time and there are material improvements and contradiction in the statements recorded in the second time as confronted during cross examination by accused – Narvesh and Rajendar.

51. With reference to PW-1, it is argued that while recording his first statement, he has stated that he had no knowledge who committed murder of three daughters of Avdhesh Kumar and he had come to know this fact from the villagers that Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Rajendar and Narvesh had killed the three daughters of Avdhesh Kumar. This witness was declared hostile and when confronted, he even denied having made any statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C.. Learned Senior Advocate submits that the first statement of PW-1 was recorded on 03.02.2007 and post de novo trial, it was recorded on 13.12.2018, when this witness made improvements and stated that when he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar on hearing the noise of firing, he had seen one daughter of Avdhesh was lying dead on one cot and two daughters on the other cot. He had seen Narvesh, Chutkannu and Rajendar coming from that side and they were carrying guns and many people gathered.

52. It is argued by the counsel for the appellant that once this witness was declared hostile at the first instance when only Avdhesh Kumar was facing trial, his second statement after 11 years levelling allegation against the three additional accused is not at all trustworthy. It is submitted that this witness has admitted that one Ram Bharose was murdered and Vinod was injured and he i.e. PW-1 was an accused in the aforesaid incident and was sentenced to life and he is on bail from the High Court. This witness further stated that Avdhesh Kumar has two real brothers namely Sarvesh and Narendra Dev. Real niece of this witness namely Prema is married in village-Akholi and elder daughter of Avdhesh Kumar namely Archana is married to his niece Prema's son namely Chhotu and he is in direct relationship with Avdhesh Kumar. Learned Senior counsel argued that after 11 years of recording of first statement, on account of new development in the family and PW-1 himself being convicted to life, he has changed his statement and, therefore, his statement cannot be relied upon as he has motive to falsely implicate Narvesh and Rajendar.

53. It is next argued that even first statement of PW-4 was recorded on 07.01.2009. In the first statement, PW-4 had stated that he had visited the house of Avdhesh Kumar in the morning and found that his three daughters were lying dead and he had seen Avdhesh Kumar carrying a licensed gun but he had no knowledge who had committed murder. At that stage, this witness was also declared hostile and denied having made any statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. Learned counsel argued that while making statement again this witness made improvements by stating that when he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar, he was carrying a double barrel gun from which smoke was emitting and Avdhesh Kumar told him that he had killed his three daughters and PW-4 should help him as he was under the influence of liquor at night and had kept liquor and two empty cartridges under his cot.

54. Learned counsel for the appellant has further submitted that this witness has stated that his wife was Village Pradhan and Avdhesh Kumar was having enmity with Chutkannu, Narvesh and Rajendar and, therefore, he had named them in the F.I.R. In cross examination, this witness admitted that his wife Nirmala contested and won the Election of Village Pradhan against Pratima Devi who is wife of Narendra Dev, real brother of Avdhesh Kumar. When confronted with his earlier statement recorded before the Court, he admitted the same to be correct. Counsel submits that even this witness, in view of the changed circumstances and because of the political enmity against Avdhesh Kumar, has changed his version and, therefore, he is not a reliable witness.

55. Learned Senior Counsel argues that the star witness namely Shashi Devi (PW-5) who is wife of Avdhesh Kumar and (mother of the three girls who were murdered), in her first statement, had stated that Chutkannu, carrying a licensed gun, Rajedra, carrying a country made double barrel gun and Narvesh, carrying a country made pistol, came and started firing. At that time she was washing utensils and when she heard the noise of firing, the accused persons ran away. She came near her daughters and found that Rohini and Neeta had died and she along with her husband took her third daughter namely Surbhi to Police Station but she died on her way. Even this witness was declared hostile at the time of first statement and denied having made any statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. wherein she had stated that she was demanding winter clothes from her husband for her five daughters which he could not bring and due to anger and under the influence of liquor, he committed murder of his three daughters.

56. Learned counsel for the appellant has referred to her second statement recorded after about 10 years to submit that even PW-5 has made improvements. She has stated that her husband Avdhesh Kumar was a witness to a case wherein Chutkannu had given gunshot injury to one Rajneesh and Chutkannu was putting pressure on Avdhesh Kumar not to appear as a witness, however, he did not bow to his demand and Chutkannu was later on convicted in the said case. This witness further stated that at about 6-7 PM, the Petromax Gas was lighting, her husband was lying on a cot and her three daughters were lying on another cot when three accused persons came carrying their respective weapons and fired towards Avdhesh who ran away and they shot dead her three daughters. Her husband succeeded in running away through a passage from a dilapidated room. This witness stated that accused persons came to fire upon her husband but killed her three daughters. In cross examination, this witness stated that the Investigating Officer, in collusion with the three accused persons, recorded her false statement against her husband as narrated above and rather the Investigating Officer took the licensed gun of her husband by firing upon two shots and also took the empty cartridges. In cross examination with regard to her previous statement recorded in the Court, she pleaded ignorance about non mentioning of Petromax Gas Light as well as denied that she had demanded winter clothes for her five daughters and being disturbed by the same and under the influence of liquor, her husband murdered her three daughters. It is submitted that save her husband, she has levelled false allegation.

57. Counsel for the appellant thus submits that in view of the variation and improvements made by PW-5, even her statement is not reliable. Learned counsel has relied upon the judgment of Supreme Court in Vadivelu Thevar Vs. State of Madras, 1957 0 AIR (SC) 614 wherein the Supreme Court has held that generally speaking, oral testimony may be classified into three categories namely (i) Wholly reliable; (ii) Wholly unreliable and (iii) Neither wholly reliable nor wholly unreliable. Counsel submits that this judgment is consistently upheld by the Supreme Court and even in a recent judgment in Javed Shaukat Ali Qureshi vs. State of Gujarat, (2023) 9 SCC 164, the Vadivelu Thevar Case (Supra) has been reiterated. Learned counsel has argued that in view of the same, statements of all the three witnesses namely PW-1, PW-4 & PW-5 being inconsistent statements are liable to be held as totally unreliable.

58. Learned counsel has next argued that even the statement of PW-7, Narendra Dev, who has written the complaint (Tehrir) and on behalf of Avdhesh which was given to the police under the signature of Avdhesh Kumar, being real brother of Avdhesh Kumar is also an interested witness as he has admitted that he himself is a convict and is undergoing life sentence in a case under Section 302 of IPC.

59. Counsel then referred to the statement of PW-8 who though declared hostile, in cross examination has admitted that Chutkannu alias Nathulal was murdered during the trial and even in that case, the complaint was scribed by Narendra Dev. Counsel submits that Narendra Dev being an interested witness having enmity with family of Chutkannu, his statements cannot be relied upon.

60. Counsel submits that PW-9 & PW-10 have denied having seen the incident or giving any statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C.

61. It is further submitted that the last witness of fact is Bade Lalla (PW-11) in whose presence the accused-Avdhesh Kumar had made confession statement before Investigation Officer (PW-13) has also not supported the prosecution version and he was also declared hostile.

62. Learned counsel has even referred to the site plan (Ex.Ka-7) to submit that it was prepared at the instance of Avdhesh Kumar also did not prove the prosecution version against accused Narvesh and Rajendar as in the Site Plan (Ex.Ka-7), the place marked 'X' from where accused have opened fire on Avdhesh Kumar who was lying on a cot marked 'C' and the place where cot 'A' & 'B' on which the three girls were shot dead, do not fall in the line of firing range if, from the place 'X', the three accused persons had fired upon the point 'C' where accused-Avdhesh was sitting on a cot. It is submitted that site plan itself do not prove that the firing had occurred at the instance of the appellants in the manner as stated in the site plan detailed by Avdhesh Kumar.

63. It is next argued that none of the three accused persons were arrested by the police after the registration of the F.I.R. and upon verification, the Investigating Officer, Hoshiyaar Singh (PW-13), had come to a conclusion, after recording statements of witnesses under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that it is Avdhesh Kumar who had murdered his own three daughters as he was seen at the place of incident carrying a gun which was emitting smoke and made confession statement in presence of PW-11 that he has killed his three daughters.

64. Counsel submits that no recovery was effected from any of the accused and, therefore, in the absence of recovery of any weapon of offence, convicting the appellants on the basis of unreliable statements of PW-1, PW-4 & PW-5, is unsustainable as the Trial Court has not adopted a correct approach. Learned counsel for the appellant has further submitted that at page 3 of the impugned judgment, the Trial Court has made the following observations :

"At this (initial) stage of writing the judgement, it is 'highly' imperative to divulge here that the instant case is a glaring example where due to a botched investigation carried out by an investigating officer, an innocent father who was a victim of dastardly act committed by the actual accused persons in which his 3 small daughters were gruesomely murdered in his presence and in the presence of his wife. Yet more, as if this was not enough this innocent father, who was the complainant of this case, was turned into a murderer by the purposely designed defective investigation of the investigating officer. A complainant of a case ensures that the accused persons are brought to face the consequence of their offence. However, the complainant himself became 'hunted' in this case due to the contorted investigation (of the case). In other words, 'Sh. Hoshiyar Singh' the 'investigating officer' of this case, most shamelessly, did a complete 'turn around' in this case. 'Avdhesh' who was the 'complainant' of this case, 'in whose house' the 'alleged incident' of crime 'occurred' and 'whose 03 minor daughters' were 'killed' in that incident, was himself made the 'culprit' by 'Sh. Hoshiyar Singh', the investigating officer. According to him (the investigating officer), it was Avdhesh/the complainant who had actually carried out the murder of his own 03 daughters and not the accused persons vizually, Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Narvesh and Rajendar (against whom the FIR was got registered by the complainant Avdhesh) on that fateful day. How this complete turn around of the facts transpired in the investigation is something which this Court shall deal with, in detail, in the later part of the judgment. For now, it is sufficient to divulge here, cursorily that after accusing the complainant (Avdhesh) of having murdered his own three daughters, the investigation was completed by the investigating officer. Thereafter, even the 'Chargesheet', which is on record as 'Exhibit A-25' was filed 'only' against Avdhesh (Complainant) before the Court in Crime No. 224 of 2002 under Section 302 IPC PS Nigohi, Shahjahanpur. In other words, solely the complainant was named in the Chargesheet whereas, the original three accused persons, namely, Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Narvesh and Rajendar, against whom all, 'Tehrir' was given and F.I.R. 'was' registered were dropped out in the report, under Section 173 (3) Cr.P.C., by the Investigating Officer."

65. Learned counsel submits that the Trial Court, at the very beginning of impugned judgement, has drawn conclusion that Avdhesh Kumar has been falsely implicated as the Investigation Officer (PW-13) in a shameless manner did not conduct a proper investigation against the three accused persons including the appellants. It is submitted that the Trial Court, before recording findings in the judgment, has concluded that Avdhesh Kumar is an innocent person. It is next argued that Trial Court did not follow the correct procedure. Counsel submits that after framing of fresh charges against the appellants on 24.01.2018, de novo trial started and statement of all the 13 witnesses were recorded. Counsel submits that last statement of PW-13 was concluded on 14.3.2019 when prosecution evidence was closed and the case was fixed for recording statement of accused under Section 313 Cr.P.C. on 16.3.2019. Counsel laid emphasis on the fact that it is only at that stage, the Trial Court in the order dated 16.3.2019 observed that in fact ballistic/F.S.L report is not on record and, therefore, three successive orders were passed on 16.3.2019, 27.3.2019 & 29.3.2019 directing the prosecution to procure the report from Forensic Science Laboratory, Agra. In these orders, it is observed that the Police as well as Forensic Science Laboratory at one point of time has raised objection that there is no entry available either in the police station or in the Forensic Science Laboratory regarding the case number or F.I.R. vide which the report was sent and through special messenger, the report was produced before the Court for the first time on 1.4.2019 when observing that the F.S.L Report is received and the case was fixed for recording statement of accused under Section 313 Cr.P.C. on the next date i.e. 2.4.2019. Counsel submits that the order dated 1.4.2019 is silent if this F.S.L. report was supplied to the accused persons and therefore there is non compliance of Section 207 Cr.P.C.

66. Learned counsel with reference to the F.S.L. Report has submitted that neither this document was exhibited by the prosecution either by re-recording statement of PW-13 or by tendering the same by the Public Prosecutor as an exhibit on record.

67. Counsel submits that a careful perusal of the statement recorded under Section 313 Cr.P.C. of Avdhesh Kumar, Rajendar and Narvesh show that this F.S.L. Report was never put to them and, therefore, none of the accused was given adequate opportunity to rebut the said report as it was neither part of the report submitted under Section 173 (2) Cr.P.C. nor it was proved exhibited in the statement of PW-13 nor it was tendered to be exhibited. Counsel submits that in such circumstance, the accused were denied a valuable right to examine the Investigating Officer regarding the F.S.L. Report.

68. Reliance has been placed by the counsel for the appellant in the decision of Supreme Court in Tarun Tyagi vs. C.B.I. reported in (2017) 4 SCC 490 wherein the Supreme Court has held that where a scientific report is not supplied to the accused under Section 207 Cr.P.C. and is not put to an accused under Section 313 Cr.P.C., it amounts to denying the valuable right as accused had no occasion to cross examine the Investigating Officer on the point.

In the present case, expert who prepared the FSL report, has not been examined and after the report was produced before the Trial Court, the same has been taken into consideration under Section 293 Cr.P.C., therefore, in the absence of FSL report ever supplied to either of the accused at any stage and no application was filed by the prosecution under Section 311 Cr.P.C. to summon the Investigating Officer for further cross examination, an important right of the accused is taken away.

69. Learned counsel has argued that all the witnesses are highly interested witnesses and having enmity with the family of the Chutkannu, therefore, the appellants have been falsely implicated. It is also argued that against submission of challan report against accused Avdhesh, no complaint was filed before any authority for further investigation or reinvestigation of the case to suggest that the police authorities recording statement of witnesses under Section 161 Cr.P.C., has drawn wrong or biased conclusion that primarily Avdhesh has committed the offence.

70. Learned counsel submits that the licensed gun which was recovered from Avadhesh alongwith two cartridges were sent to FSL and as per the FSL report, it was found that the empty cartridge were fired from the same licensed gun of Avdhesh. It is submitted that investigation is highly shoddy as all victims suffered bullet injuries i.e. one injury by Rohini having entry/exit wound, two injuries by Neeta with entry/exit wound and one injury by Surbhi with entry/exit wound but no bloodstained bullets were recovered at the spot and this raises a suspicion that Avdhesh has committed the murder and has destroyed this important evidence.

71. Learned counsel submits that though the trial court has recorded finding that 13 prosecution witnesses were called for into two halves i.e. there was two sets of witnesses for recording the statements so as to prove the manner in which murder of three daughter of Avdhesh was committed. One set of two witnesses stated that Chutkannu and others have stated Avdhesh committed murder.

The learned counsel submitted that in view of the two set of evidence, the evidence which is scrutinized and relied upon by the Trial Court against appellants, in fact is not sufficient to hold them guilty because the first informant-Avdhesh, himself being accused was never examined as prosecution witness against appellants. He being an eye-witness to the evidence against appellants was never examined and appellants were never afforded opportunity to cross examine him. It is submitted that if Avdesh was examined as a prosecution witness, the truth would have come on record as to who had committed murder. It is submitted that to save skin of Avdhesh, neither prosecution nor the trial Court made any effort to examine him as a witness.

72. Learned counsel submits that trial court has wrongly relied upon the statement of the witness who had stated that it is the appellants Narvesh and Rajendar who have committed murder by holding that the motive proved against the appellant was that Avdhesh was witness against Chutkannu and in that case Chutkannu was convicted.

73. Learned counsel submits that motive set up by the prosecution against Avdhesh is that he has five daughters and no son and he had a poor financial condition. When his wife asked him to bring winter clothes for the daughters and he being unable to buy the clothes, has committed murder of his three minor daughters by his licensed gun.

74. Learned counsel has argued that since the trial court has at initial formed opinion that Avdhesh was not the accused, therefore, no effort was made to bring FSL report on record in accordance with law though same suggested that the empty cartridges were fired by the licensed gun of Avdhesh and he was acquitted of the charges.

75. Learned counsel submits that even as per the FIR motive was attributed only to Chutkannu that he was accused in a case where Chutkannue had caused firearm injury to one Rajneesh and Avdhesh Kumar was the witness of that case and Chutkannu was putting pressure on Avdhesh Kumar not to depose against him. It is submitted that no motive is attributed towards the appellants-Rajendar and Avdhesh and admittedly Chutkannu was murdered somewhere in the year 2010.

76. Learned counsel submits that in the absence of any motive against the appellants Rajendar and Narvesh, trial court has wrongly drawn a conclusion that they have committed offence.

77. Learned counsel submits that it has come in the statement of PW-1 that Chutkannu was murdered and his elder brother Ram Saran and his two sons Ram Niwas and Sriniwas are accused in the said murder case.

78. Learned counsel submits that on account of enmity, prosecution witness have deposed against the appellants and the prosecution has failed to prove the motive against the appellant.

79. Learned counsel lastly argued that severest punishment of death penalty has been awarded to the appellant without recording any finding that how it is a ‘rarest of rare case’. It is submitted that Rajendar is presently 75 years of age and Narvesh is 50 years of age and trial Court did not examine the aggravating or mitigating circumstance before awarding death penalty.

80. In reply learned State counsel has argued that even in the absence of any scientific evidence against the appellants Rajendar and Narvesh if the Court finds that the statement of prosecution witnesses are trustworthy, the same have been rightly relied upon by the trial court. It has also been argued that on account of any fault on the part Investigation Officer (PW-13), prosecution case does not become weak when the eye witnesses have supported the prosecution version.

81. Learned counsel has argued that Chutkannu, the deceased, has enmity with the appellant Avdhesh, therefore, he alongwith his son Narvesh and brother Rajendar have committed offence.

82. It is submitted that in view of protection given under Article 20 (3) of the Constitution of India read with Section 315 of Cr.P.C., Avdhesh could not be examined as a prosecution witness as he himself was facing trial as accused and, therefore, statement of PW-5 as eye-witness is rightly relied upon by the Trial Court.

83. It will be relevant to note down that the Trial Court while recording the finding has acquitted Avdhesh and no appeal against acquittal has been filed by the State. The Trial Court while convicting the appellants, Narvesh and Rajendar, has heavily relied upon the postmortem of the three girls and has also recorded the finding that the firing was not done by Avdheh from his double barrel gun and rather it was fired upon by a different weapon. The operative part of the judgment of the Trial Court is reproduced as under :

"Now the Court shall deal with the post mortem examination report of Rohini, Neeta and Surbhi, the 3 daughters of Avdhesh who were gunned down on the evening of 15.10.2002. This discussion will make it clear as to what kind of 'ante mortem firearm injuries' did those 3 girls suffer and also that 'could those 'all' ante mortem firearm injuries have possibly come by the use of 'one' single (kind of) firearm weapon or 'more than one' (kind of) firearm weapon was used in the firing on dated 15.10.2002, inside the house of Avdhesh. This Court is of the most considered opinion that the discussion about the nature of injuries sustained by the 3 deceased daughters of Avdhesh will cast ample light on the perpetrators of this crime. It will certainly not be out of the context to reiterate here that accused Avdhesh had just 'one licensed DBBL shot gun'. If it was Avdhesh who had committed the crime on dated 15.10.2002 then the nature of injuries and the weapon used to give those injuries must have been one. But on the other hand, if the nature of injuries sustained by all the 3 girls were the result of different types of fire arms or more than one type of guns/ rifles, then it will certainly help this Court in drawing an inference that 'on dated 15.10.2002, more than one kind of deadly firearm were used in the firing due to which different (kinds of) injuries were suffered by the daughters of Avdhesh. This will also be indicative of an inevitable inference that 'whether on dated 15.10.2002 it was more than one person who opened fire on the 3 daughters inside the house of Avdhesh and also that whether the firing was done from more than one type of firearms or from a single firmarm. But, much, before the Court gets down to discuss the post mortem examination report of Rohini 9 years, Neeta 8 years and Surbhi 7 years, it is equally imperative for this Court to first quote a few relevant excerpts from the various Books/ Journals of 'Medico-Legal Jurisprudence and

Toxicology'. These relevant extracts will potentially make it clear as to what (particular) kinds of injuries can only ensue by the use of a particular kind of firearms only. Thereafter, the Court shall apply those well settled rules discussed in the excerpts (below) to the facts and circumstances of the instant case in order to arrive at a just and reasonable conclusion. It will certainly not be out of the context to also divulge here that according to Avdhesh and his wife, Smt. Shashi (since it is their version) that their 3 daughters had been shot dead by the 3 named accused persons in the FIR, Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh who were having a Rifle, a desi gun and a tamancha. At this point, for the discussion, it is not relevant as to which of the 3 named accused persons was having which particular kind of firearm since it will be seen by the Court in the later part of the judgment when it will deal with the oral evidence. Therefore, as of now, from the deposition of Avdhesh and his wife, Smt. Shashi, it is apparent that 3 different kinds of weapons were used by the assailants/ 3 named accused persons in the FIR, Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh. Whereas, on the other hand it is the version of the prosecution that since the murder of the 3 girls had been committed by their father/ Avdhesh, who owns only a DBBL shotgun, therefore, it was only one 'single shot gun' that was used in committing the murder of the 3 daughters of Avdhesh. In view of the above, this Court shall first discuss the kinds of injuries these differently named weapons cause on the surface of the skin and then compare them with the post mortem examination of the 3 deceased girls. To begin with, in 'Parikh's Textbook of Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology (for classrooms & Courtrooms), Medical Publication' it is stated and I quote, "Shot Gun Injuries – The characteristics of shotgun injuries are due to (1) multiplicity of the projectiles including shots and wads (2) shot dispersion with the distance and (3) unusual projectiles in refilled cartridges or in muzzle loaders. The wounding by the shot gun is both due to shot or pellets and at appropriate distance, due to the wad.

When a shot gun is fired, the projectiles travel in a compact mass. As the stage increases, the individual pellets continue at their own speed and direction but spreading in a cone like manner ignoring the loss in velocity with distance and drop due to gravity. A rough calculation of the 'rate of spread' is '1 inch per yard' from the 'muzzle'.

When a shot gun is fired with the muzzle in contact with or near the body, the shot enters as a mass and the gases produced by the explosion cause considerable laceration of the surface skin, destruction of the deeper tissues, and often fragmentation of bone. Scorching of the skin, singeing of hair and blackening are seen around the wound. The powder residues are driven into the skin wound often very deeply and tattooing may be seen around and also in the depth of the wound. With smokeless powder, there is relatively less blackening and tattooing. The wad is often found in the wound and this may prove an important clue to the type of cartridge used. The exit wound, when present, may show greater disruption of tissues than is seen in the entrance wound, a number of exit wounds due to multiple pellets and bony fragments may be seen. Occasionally, even in contact or near injuries, the shot and wad may remain in the body and there is no exit wound. Shot gun projectiles which generally do not exit out of the body, may when the shot size is sufficiently large and the firing has taken place from sufficiently near distance, give rise to a single entrance and multiple exit wounds.

In shot gun injuries, close distance phenomenon such as burning, scorching and blackening are generally seen upto about a yard. The halo of tattooing also gradually widens upto about a yard but upto about three yards, a few particles of powder grains may still be found on careful search. Infrared photography for the determination of powder marks particularly on dark colour clothing is of considerable assistance in the estimation of range.

The shot enters as a single mass upto about a yard. Upto about two yards, the overshot wad may be seen in the body. The wadding can produce an injury about three yards. Upto 2-3 yards, the shot produces an entrance hole with individual pellets holes round the periphery. An independent injury may be caused by the wad. As the range of fire increases, in separate pellets entering the body, appears round the central opening caused by the main mass of the shot. With further increase in the range, this is followed by more even distribution of pellet injuries with disappearance of the central aperture. At still longer ranges, the shot depending upon its size and velocity, may not lodge in the body.

Rifled Firearm Injuries- Rifled weapons may produce two wounds, one of entry and one of exit. Their dimensions vary with the calibre of the weapon. The Power of penetration of the tissues is generally greater with 'rifle and pistol' bullets than with the revolver bullets...when a bullet makes an entry into the human body, it first stretches the skin, then effects penetration of the skin and subsequently depending upon the energy, effects penetration soft tissues or bones and either lodges in the body or comes out causing an exit wound. After the entry of the bullet, the skin partially returns to its original position. The size of the entry wound may therefore, be smaller than the size of the bullet, especially at lower speed.

Entry wound- the entry wound are in relation to the distance of the muzzle of a firearm from the body. When a weapon is discharged, the projectile leaves the muzzle at its maximum velocity and is followed by a flame, burning and unburnt particles from the propellant charge together with metallic particles and by gases formed by explosion under tremendous pressure. At close range, all these will cause injury to the body giving the entry wound many special characteristics which the exit wound will lack...In a close contact, discharge from the muzzle consisting of the flame, powder, metallic particles and gases under pressure may be blown into the track taken by the bullet through the body. In a close shot, within the range of flame and powder blast, within a few inches from the muzzle the entrance wound is circular, singed by flame. In case of smokeless powder, there will be less blackening and shows tattooing. However, the blackening and tattooing may be absent on the body if the injury is on a clothed part. In a near shot within the range of powder blast but outside the range of flame, within 1-2 feet, in case of handguns and more in case of other weapons, the deposit of tattooing is spread out over a larger area but there is no singeing of har or charring of the skin. As the range increases tattooing from the powder becomes more sparse until no trace of powder marks can be found which is normally beyond a yard. In a distant shot there is no burning, no tattooing, no soot. The wound is circular with inverted margins and may be same size or even slightly smaller than the bullet owing to the initial stretching of the skin.

Exit wound- this is free from the signs of burning, blackening or tattooing.

The fibres of the clothes are turned out at the exit. The wound is usually split form within outwards. It has everted irregular edges. It is often bigger than the missile...usually there is more bleeding at the exit wound than at the entrance. In a close contact shot the entry wound being split by blast is larger than the exit unless the bullet comes out sideways or carrying bone with it. In a distant shot, the entry wound may be slightly smaller than or the same size as the exit wound. The wound edges may be inverted at the entry and everted at the exit.

When the projectile traverses the skull, the angle struck is ascertained from the way the track has opened up. An entrance bullet hole bevels inwards and therefore, the entrance is usually clean cut and the defect on the inner surface of the bone is larger than that on the outer surface. An exit hole in the skull is bevelled outwards. It is larger on the outer than on the inner surface of the bone and may justly be referred to as crater shaped...as the obliquity of the fire is increased, the wound becomes elongated in shape, and if the skin is struck at a tangent, penetration may fail to occur and only a slight linear furrowing of the skin may be produced..."

According to 'Field's Expert Evidence (Expert Evidence and opinions of third person – Medical and non- medical) 3rd Edition, 1988', and I quote,

"there is one more method which is sometimes considered as possible help towards the determination of the range of a fatal shot, namely the effect of the striking velocity of the bullet. A bullet travelling with a very high velocity will cause greater damage to tissues and make a larger wound one travelling at a very low velocity."

In ' Modi's Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology, 20th Edition by N.J. Modi', it has been stated and I quote,

"Distance of the Firearm- if a firearm is discharged very close to the body or in actual contact, subcutaneous tissues over the area of two or three inches around the wound of entrance are lacerated and the surrounding skin is usually scorched and blackened by smoke and tattooed with unburned gunpowder or smokeless propellant powder...blackening is found if a firearm like shotgun is discharged from a distance of not more than 8 feet and a revolver or pistol is discharged within about 2 feet...blackening with a high power rifle can occur upto about one feet...at a distance of one to three feet, small shot makes a single aperture with irregular and lacerated edges corresponding in size to the bore of the muzzle of the gun as the shot enter as one mass but are scattered after entering the wound and cause great damage to the internal tissues...on the other hand, at a distance of six feet, the central aperture is surrounded by separate openings in an area of about two inches in diameter made by few pellets of the shot which spread out before reaching the mark. The skin surrounding the aperture may not be blackened or scorched but is tattooed to some extent. At a distance of twelve feet the charge of shot spreads widely and enters the body as individual pellets producing separate openings in an area of five to eight inches in diameter..."

In 'H.W.V. Cox's Medical Jurisprudence and Toxicology revised by Dr. Bernard Knight, 5th Edition',

"...upto about one yard/ one meter, the wound is likely to be single, due to the shot entering the body in one mass. Beyond this satellite pellet holes begin to appear around the main wound margins. Even wads are also present in the wound at this distance...at a moderate range, between one and five yards (one to five meters) the wound will begin to enlarge due to the spread of the pellets...".

It will not be out of the context to also refer to 'Medical Jurisprudence by R. M. Jhala and V. B. Raju, 4th Edition',

"...the wounds of entrance caused by a shotgun have characteristics of their own. Upto the distance of one yard the whole charge fired from the gun enters the body en masse. This produces a round wound with ragged edges. When inflicted close vicinity there is also blackening and burning around the wound as with other firearm injuries. Beyond one yard, there is dispersion of pellets in the cartridge. The extent of dispersion offers a valuable guide in assessing the distance. According to Taylor, the dispersion of pellets in inches equals about 1 and a half times distance in yards. According to him, the dispersion is less if the barrel is choked...whereas, the characteristic of Rifle firearm shot is the fact that usually the wound of exit is larger and sometimes many times larger than the wound of entry...

Wound of exit- the bullet together with the core of tissue ahead, acquires larger size and bigger mass...this mass has an opportunity to act on unsupported skin. This leads to the skin yielding to a tearing force and hence the wound is lacerated and turned outwards, i.e., everted. The conventional larger size of the wound of exit is essentially attributable to larger mass carried ahead by the bullet..."

Having quoted the relevant excerpts from the various textbooks on MedicoLegal Jurisprudence and Toxicology, this Court shall now venture to discuss various case laws keeping in mind the subject matter of discussion 'ante mortem gunshot injuries', at this stage of writing the judgment. In 'Jaibir and others vs. State' '(Criminal Appeal no. 1056 of 1978) decided on September 23, 1986', following ante mortem injuries were found on the dead body of the deceased.

1. Gunshot wound of entry 4 cm x 3 cm on right side forehead 2 cm above the right eye brow. No blackening or charring present around the wound. Wound was brain cavity deep.

2. Gunshot wound of exit 5 cm x 4 cm on back of head in middle. It communicates with injury no. 1.

3. Gunshot wound of entry 2 cm x 2 cm into abdominal cavity deep back of right side abdomen upper part 4 cm from lumber and spine. No blackening charring present around the wound.

4. Gunshot wound of exit in mid axillary line on left side (3cm x 3 cm) chest 16 cm below the axilla. Communicates to injury no. 3.

5. Gunshot wound of entry 1 cm x 1 cm bone deep on back of left forearm upper part. No blackening or charring present underneath.

6. Gunshot wound of exit 2 cm x 2 cm infront of left forearm, middle point. It communicates with injury no. 5"

Internal examination revealed that all the skull bones were fractured. Membrane and brain were lacerated. All cranial fossae were fractured..."

It was so observed (under similar circumstances as in here before this Court) by 'the Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad' and I quote,

"...it is noteworthy that out of the six gun-shot wounds found on the dead body of deceased, three were wounds of entry and the remaining three were the wounds of exit. There is thus no dispute that the deceased had received three gunshot wounds, one of which was received on right side forehead, the second on back of right side of abdomen and the third on back of left forearm and all the three bullets had passed through and through. The post mortem report also shows that there was no blackening or charring present around any of these wounds which indicates that the shots had been fired from a distance. From looking at the injuries, it must be inferred that all the three wounds had been caused by some powerful firearm with a long barrel such as rifle...none of these injuries could have been caused by a country made pistol, which is comparatively less powerful with low velocity and small barrel...Injury no. 1 which has a gunshot wound of entry on the forehead and its wound of exit (injury no. 2) evidently appear to have been caused by a powerful weapon such as rifle because all the skull bones underneath this injury had been fractured. It is common knowledge that the skull bones are thick and stronger and require more power for being fractured...so far as injury no. 3 and 5 are concerned, in our opinion, could have been easily caused by the shot fired from a country made pistol or revolver fired from a distance of more than 5 to 6 feet but less than 10 or 12 feet..."

Keeping in mind the above stated established principles of the Medico-Legal Jurisprudence and Toxicology and also relevant excerpts from the case law quoted above, the Court shall analyze the post mortem examination report of the 3 deceased daughters of Avdhesh and assess as to what kind of injuries did the deceased sustain and from what (kind of) weapon could those injuries have come to them. This will sufficiently indicate whether different kinds of firearms were used in the killing of the 3 deceased girls on dated 15.10.2002 or was it just one kind of firearm weapon that killed the 3 daughters of Avdhesh.

First the Court shall take up the post mortem examination report of deceased Rohini aged 09 years on the date of incident.]

Ante Mortem Injuries

1. A Gunshot wound of entry 2 cm x 0.5 cm into skull cavity deep (to and through). It was on the right side of the skull about 5 cm above the right ear. The margins were inverted. Blackening and Tattooing present.

2. Gunshot injury of Exit 10 cm x 5 cm Bone deep communicating to injury no. 1 of entry was present on the left side of the face. The margins were everted. Left Frontal, Mandible and Maxilla Bone were broken.

It is the most considered opinion of this Court that 'injury no. 1 communicates with the injury no. 2. One is an entry wound while the other is an exit wound which indicates the fact that these 1 & 2 injuries to the deceased have been caused by 'one bullet' and not from any shotgun, which accused Avdhesh owns. A shot gun cannot cause so much of damage as is caused in the injury no. 2. A shotgun does not create so much of force, once fired that it could fracture a skull bone which arguably is one of the strongest bone in the body. The injury no. 1 and 2 are clean cut injuries of one single 'Rifle' bullet since one is an entry and second is the exit wound. In the most considered opinion of the Court a shotgun cartridge cannot cause such an injury as is divulged in injury no. 1 and 2 of deceased Rohini. Since, the above injuries have been caused in the skull and by looking at the injuries, it must be inferred that these two wounds had been caused by a 'powerful firearm' with a 'long barrel' such as 'rifle'. None of these injuries could have been caused by a shotgun or a country made pistol, which is comparatively 'less powerful' with 'low velocity' and 'small barrel'...Injury no. 1 which has a gunshot wound of entry on the skull and its wound of exit (injury no. 2) evidently appear to have been caused by a powerful weapon such as 'rifle' because 'the Maxilla, Mandible and tempo parietal bones in and around the skull' underneath this injury have been fractured. It is common knowledge that the 'skull bones' are 'thick' and 'stronger' and 'require more power for being fractured. Under these circumstances, it is next to impossible that the assailant could have been Avdhesh who only had a DBBL shot gun at the time of the incident, according to the prosecution version. A DBBL shotgun inconceivably cannot cause such a fatal injury.

3. Contusion 4 cm x 2 cm and 3 cm x 2 cm on right arm 4 cm below right shoulder is seen. Brain matter was lacerated.

So far as injury no. 3 is concerned, it is the most considered opinion of the Court that when a person gets such life taking injuries then such an injured person before he dies must be bearing extreme pain and agony. While the perosn is dying of such brutal injuries, it is not inconceivable that the injured in those few minutes of for that matter a few seconds of the final moments of his life will throw his arms and legs around in pain thinking of anyone who can save his life. During these final countdowns of his life the person during the course of throwing around his arms and legs in extreme pain might have struck his hands to some hard object which might cause contusion in his. Even in this case, the victim has a contusion in her hand. It is very human to throw around arms and legs in pain. The victim is a small girl of 09 years. When she sustained these injuries, it might be that Rohini had threw her arms around in extreme pain in those final moments of her life when she was attacked barbrously by the assailants. In that reaction, it is common for the deceased to have got those contusions.

Now I shall take up the post mortem examination report of second daughter Neeta, aged 08 years on the date of the incident.

Ante Mortem Injuries

1. A Gunshot Wound of Entry 0.3 cm x 0.2 cm Brain Cavity Deep on Right Side of Skull 4 cm above Right ear present. Margins are inverted. No Blackening and Tattooing present.

2. A Gunshot Wound of Exit 8 cm x 9 cm Brain Cavity Deep which communicated to injury no. 1 was on Right Temporal and Parietal side. Margins are everted.

The Right Parietal and Temporal bones were fractured. The Brain matter was lacerated.

So far as deceased Neeta is concerned, it is the most considered opinion of this Court that 'injury no. 1 communicates with the injury no. 2. One is an entry wound while the other is an exit wound which indicates the fact that these 1 & 2 injuries to the deceased have been caused by one bullet. Further, the above injuries have been caused in the skull. From looking at the injuries, it must be inferred that these two wounds had been caused by some 'powerful firearm' with a 'long barrel' such as 'rifle' because it is only a metallic missile fired from a Rifle is capable of fracturing Parietal and Temporal bones. Even the brain matter was lacerated. These injuries could not have been caused by a shotgun or a country made pistol, which is comparatively 'less powerful' with 'low velocity' and 'small barrel'...Injury no. 1 which has a gunshot wound of entry on the skull and its wound of exit (injury no. 2) evidently appear to have been caused by a powerful weapon such as 'rifle' because 'the tempo parietal face bone has been fractured. It is common knowledge that even this bone is considered as a 'thick' and 'stronger' and 'requires more power' for being fractured. This amount of energy can only be generated from a metallic projectile fired from a powerful firearm like 'Rifle'. Only a metallic bullet fired from a Rifle can cause such a lethal injury. So much so, the deceased was a small and tender girl of barely 08 years. Her facial/skull tempo-parietal bones were pierced and fractured and it can only be due to the force of a metallic bullet/ projectile that was generated from being fired from a 'Rifle'.

Moreover, the ante mortem injuries in the post mortem report of Neeta shows that there is absence of blackening and tattooing. In the instant case, according to the prosecution version, accused Avdhesh was standing in front of the cot where his three (deceased) daughters were sleeping. Further according to the prosecution version, in the middle of the night, Smt. Shashi, wife of Avdhesh, woke up upon hearing the gunshot sounds. Also according to the prosecution version, when Shashi/ Pw5 woke up, she allegedly saw Avdhesh, 'drunk', 'standing' with his licensed DBBL gun in his hands from which he allegedly shot his daughters, in front of the cot of deceased girls. Under these circumstances, when the accused Avdhesh was standing in front of the cot of the girls, the distance in such case between Avdhesh and the girls should not have been more than 3-4 feet. Firstly, the firing which caused injury no. 1 and 2 are the result of Rifle firing and not a shotgun, however, even if Avdhesh had fired from his DBBL shotgun having a cartridge, then why in the world, there is no blackening and tattooing on the body of deceased Neeta according to injury no. 1 and 2. It is just impossible that if accused Avdhesh had allegedly fired from his DBBL shotgun from a distance of 3-4 feet, still then there is devoid of blackening and tattooing. This only confirms the conclusion of the Court that deceased Neeta was fired from a 'Rifle' and not from a 'Shotgun', whereas accused Avdhesh was only having a DBBL shotgun and not 'Rifle'. This shows that in the incident dated 15.1.2002 there was not just 'Rifle' firearm that was used but also a 'shotgun' firearm that was used separately by the assailants. Now the million dollar question is that if according to the prosecution, accused Avdhesh 'only' had a 'DBBL shotgun' who had fired from a close distance as his wife Shashi saw him standing with his 'DBBL shotgun' in front of the cot on which their daughters were, then blackening and tattooing should have been there, but as things stand, neither there is no blackening or tattooing, which indicates that the firing was done from a distance of more than 5-6 feet and also, at the cost of repetition, the injury no. 1 and 2 could only come from a Rifle and not a shotgun DBBL. If that is the case, then in the most considered opinion of this Court, the person/ accused who fired at the three daughters of Avdhesh could not have been accused Avdhesh himself, for all the reasons discussed above, rather the person who fired was having a 'Rifle' and not a 'shot gun'. So much so, the attacker even stood at a distance of more than 6 feet from the deceased and therefore, that person was someone other than, Avdhesh. In other words, one of the persons who fired from a 'Rifle' on the fateful night of 15.10.2002 was someone else and not Avdhesh. The firing was not done by Avdhesh from his DBBL Shotgun but this other person was someone else who was having a Rifle and even stood at a distance of more than 6 feet from the 3 girls, especially, deceased Neeta, since there is absence of Blackening and tattooing on her body. 3. A Gunshot Multiple Wound of Entry size 0.3 cm x 0.2 cm x Muscle deep to 0.4 cm x 0.2 cm x skin deep in front of Right hand. No Blackening or Tattooing.

This injury shows that these are 'pellet' injuries since there are multiple wounds of entry. These entries are very small of the size 0.3 x 0.2 cm x muscle deep upto 0.4 cm x 0.2 cm x skin deep. This injury could have only been caused by a shotgun firing. Having said that, this injury shows no 'blackening' or 'tattooing' which is further indicative of the fact that the assailant who fired from his gun stood at a distance of more than 6 feet. It is this reason that the pellets when they travelled after being fired from the shotgun by the assailant did not form the tattooing on the skin of the deceased Neeta. This is self explanatory of the distance between deceased Neeta and her assailant which was more than 6 feet. The post mortem examination report of Neeta divulges that in the ante mortem injuries, there were total of 23 pellets that were found inside the body of the deceased, out of which there were 18 small pellets while there were 5 wads. Inspite of total 23 pellets that were found in the body of Neeta, aged 08 years, still there is absence of tattooing goes to show that the distance between Neeta and her killer was beyond 6 feet or even more. If that is the case, then how in the world that assailant can be accused Avdhesh who was standing in front of the cot of his 3 daughters when his wife Shashi woke up suddenly hearing the gunshots in the middle of the night, according to the prosecution version. At the cost of repetition, if accused Avdhesh had shot dead Neeta, from his DBBL shotgun from such a close distance of 3-4 feet, then blackening or tattooing must have been there on the body of Neeta, so far as injury no. 3 is concerned. Absence of blackening and tattooing, only formidable the conclusion of the Court that the alleged shooter was not Avdhesh but was someone who stood at distance of more than 6 feet and so he could not have been accused Avdhesh himself.

4. A Gunshot Wound of Entry 10 cm x 5 cm x cavity deep on Right side of Stomach and 4 cm above Right Iliac crest. Margins Inverted. Blackening and Tattooing present. In the most considered opinion of this Court, injury no. 4 is only a gunshot wound of entry. There is no gunshot wound of Exit which is communicating with injury no. 4. therefore, in the most considered opinion of this Court, injury no. 4 could have been caused by some less powerful firearm like a shot gun which was fired from a closer distance of less than 3-4 feet which is why there is presence of blackening and tattooing. Moreover, there were several pellets that were found in an around this injury. However, since the said firearm was not a Rifle whose metallic projectile goes through and through, that is out of the body, the missile from the firearm that caused injury no. 4 could not make an exit from the body due to the less force created in the bullet that is fired from it. In the instant case, out of the 3 named accused persons in the FIR, Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh, it is alleged that accused Chutkannu had a licensed shot gun of 12 bore, Rajendar was carrying a desi katta while Narvesh was carrying a desi Rifle. Injury no. 4 might appears to have been caused from that firearm which does not create as lethal force in the projectile if fired from it, as does a Rifle. Therefore, this injury appears to have been caused a shot gun and not a Rifle.

Now I shall take up the post mortem examination report of third daughter Surbhi, aged 07 years on the date of the incident.

Ante Mortem Injuries

1. A Gunshot Wound of Entry 1 cm x 0.2 cm Stomach cavity deep (to and through) which was in the Left and went up to the Left buttock. It was 4 cm below Iliac crust. Margins were inverted. No Blackening and Tattooing.

2. A Gunshot Wound of Exit 10 cm x 6 cm x Abdominal Cavity deep. The injury communicated with the injury no. 1. It was above the Iliac crust. Margins were everted.

Even, in case of deceased Surbhi, aged 07 years, in the most considered opinion of this Court that 'injury no. 1 communicates with the injury no. 2. One is an entry wound while the other is an exit wound which itself is indicative of the fact that injuries 1 and 2 have been caused by one bullet. Further, the above injury has been caused in the stomach. From looking at the injuries, it must be inferred that these two wounds have also been caused by some 'powerful firearm' with a 'long barrel' such as 'rifle', reason being that there is an 'exit wound' which goes to show that the force of the projectile was such that the bullet had made an exit. Only in case of 'Rifle' with a long barrel can produce such effect. The injury further denounces the probability completely that it may have been caused by a shotgun for the reason that there is absence of blackening and tattooing. Furthermore, the injuries 1 and 2 also suggest that the assailant must have stood at a distance of more than 6 feet from the deceased Surbhi. Had if this distance was less than 6 feet, then in that situation there must have been blackening or at least tattooing on the body of deceased Surbhi. It is the most considered opinion of this Court that even in case of Surbhi, the assailant was neither having a shotgun nor was he standing at a closer distance of less than 3-4 feet from her. Having said so, rather the shooter was having a lethal firearm like 'Rifle' which could only produce such force in the projectile causing these injuries as in this case. So much so, the shooter was also standing at a distance of more than 5-6 feet from the cot on which the deceased 3 girls of Avdhesh were sleeping. Therefore, it is equally the most considered opinion of this Court that considering the above analysis, it is next to impossible that the assailant could have been accused Avdhesh who at the time of the incident was allegedly having a DBBL shot gun and was also standing very close rather in front of the cot on which the 3 of his daughters were sleeping. Since it is the prosecution version that on the sound of the gunshot firing in the middle of the night, Smt. Shashi wife of accused Avdhesh woke up and she saw accused Avdhesh drunk and was standing in front of the cot on which their 3 daughters lay dead and Smt. Shashi saw (allegedly) accused Avdhesh was having his DBBL shot gun in his hands. In view of the analysis carried out above, None of these injuries could have been caused by DBBL shotgun, owned by accused Avdhesh, as he is said to be having in his hands at the time of incident (according to the prosecution version). Put in other words, Injury no. 1 which is reportedly a gunshot wound of entry on the skull and its wound of exit (injury no. 2) evidently appear to have been caused by a powerful weapon such as 'rifle' because 'the tempo parietal face bone has been fractured. It is common knowledge that even this bone is considered as a 'thick' and 'stronger' and 'requires more power or force' in order to be fractured. This amount of energy can only be generated from a metallic projectile fired from a powerful firearm like 'Rifle'. Only a metallic bullet fired from a Rifle can cause such a lethal injury. So much so, the deceased was a small and tender girl of barely 09 years. Her facial bones were pierced and fractured with the force of a bullet that was generated from that gunshot. The ante mortem injuries in the post mortem report of Surbhi shows that there is no blackening and tattooing. In the instant case, according to the prosecution version, accused Avdhesh was standing in front of the cot where his three (deceased) daughters were sleeping. Further according to the prosecution version, in the middle of the night, Smt. Shashi, wife of Avdhesh woke up upon hearing the gunshot sounds. Also according to the prosecution version, when Shashi/Pw5 woke up, she allegedly saw Avdhesh, drunk, standing with his licensed DBBL gun in his hands from which he allegedly shot his daughters, in front of the cot of deceased girls. Under these circumstances, when the accused Avdhesh was standing in front of the cot of the girls, the distance in such case between Avdhesh and the girls should not have been more than 3-4 feet. If Avdhesh had fired from his DBBL shotgun having a cartridge, then why in the world, there is no blackening and tattooing on the body of deceased Surbhi according to injury no. 1 and 2. It is just impossible that if accused Avdhesh had allegedly fired from his DBBL shotgun from a distance of 3-4 feet, still then there is devoid of blackening and tattooing. This only confirms the conclusion of the Court that deceased Surbhi was fired at from a 'Rifle' and not from a 'Shotgun'. Having said that accused Avdhesh only had a DBBL shotgun and not 'Rifle'. This shows that in the incident dated 15.1.2002, there was not just 'Rifle' firearm that was used but also 'shotgun' firearm that was put to use. Now the million dollar question is that if according to the prosecution, accused Avdhesh only had a DBBL shotgun who had fired from a distance, then blackening and tattooing should have been there, but as things stand, there is no blackening or tattooing, which indicates that the shotgun was fired from a distance of more than 5- 6 feet. If that is the case, then in the most considered opinion of this Court, the person/ accused who fired at the three daughters of Avdhesh could not have been accused Avdhesh himself, for all the reasons discussed above, rather the person who fired from a 'shot gun' was a person/ accused who stood at a distance of more than 6 feet from the deceased and that person was someone other than, Avdhesh. In other words, the person who fired from shotgun on the fateful night of 15.10.2002 was someone else but not Avdhesh. The firing was not done by Avdhesh from his DBBL Shotgun but this other person was someone else who stood at a distance of more than 6 feet from the 3 girls, especially, deceased Surbhi, since there is absence of Blackening and tattooing on her body."

84. It will also be relevant to refer to certain recent judgments of the Supreme Court on capital punishment on award of capital punishment.

85. The Supreme Court in the case State of Maharashtra Vs. Nisar Ramzan Sayyed, 2017(2) R.C.R.(Criminal) 564, has held that in case where a pregnant woman who along with a minor child was murdered, there are various circumstances pointing out certain lacuna, the death penalty should not be awarded and the judgment of Trial Court was modified to life imprisonment till natural life of the accused.

86. The Supreme Court in State of U.P. Vs. Ram Kumar and others, 2017(5) R.C.R.(Criminal)785, has held that taking consideration of facts and circumstances of the case, the capital punishment is to be converted into life imprisonment.

87. The Supreme Court in Chhannu Lal Verma Vs. State of Chhattisgarh, 2019(5) R.C.R.(Criminal) 192, has discussed the aggravating circumstances as well as mitigating circumstances which read as under : -

"Aggravating circumstances*: A court may, however, in the following cases impose the penalty of death in its discretion:*

(a) if the murder has been committed after previous planning and involves extreme brutality; or

(b) if the murder involves exceptional depravity; or

(c) if the murder is of a member of any of the armed forces of the Union or of a member of any police force or of any public servant and was committed—

(i) while such member or public servant was on duty; or

(ii) in consequence of anything done or attempted to be done by such member or public servant in the lawful discharge of his duty as such member or public servant whether at the time of murder he was such member or public servant, as the case may be, or had ceased to be such member or public servant; or

(d) if the murder is of a person who had acted in the lawful discharge of his duty under Section 43 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, or who had rendered assistance to a Magistrate or a police officer demanding his aid or requiring his assistance under Section 37 and Section 129 of the said Code."

Mitigating circumstances*: In the exercise of its discretion in the above cases, the court shall take into account the following circumstances:*

(1) That the offence was committed under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance.

(2) The age of the accused. If the accused is young or old, he shall not be sentenced to death.

(3) The probability that the accused would not commit criminal acts of violence as would constitute a continuing threat to society.

(4) The probability that the accused can be reformed and rehabilitated. The State shall by evidence prove that the accused does not satisfy the conditions (3) and (4) above.

(5) That in the facts and circumstances of the case the accused believed that he was morally justified in committing the offence.

(6) That the accused acted under the duress or domination of another person.

(7) That the condition of the accused showed that he was mentally defective and that the said defect impaired his capacity to appreciate the criminality of his conduct."

In this case, after upholding the conviction of the accused who were held guilty of committing murder of four persons with a knife, the Supreme Court commuted the death penalty to life imprisonment.

88. In Dnyaneshwar Suresh Borkar Vs. State of Maharashtra, 2019(2) R.C.R.(Criminal) 302, it is held by Supreme Court that if the Court is inclined to award death penalty, then there must of exceptional circumstances warranting imposition of excess penalty. The Court should consider probability of reformation and rehabilitation of convict in the society as this is one of the mandates of special reason as per requirement of Section 354(3) Cr.P.C. It is also held in the judgment that when the DNA report is not done, an adverse inference should not be drawn. It is also held that the antecedents of the convict or that the pendnecy of one or more criminal cases against the convict, cannot be a factor of consideration for awarding death sentence and, therefore, has held that looking to the conduct of the convict, the capital sentence can be commuted .

89. The Supreme Court in Manoharan Vs. State by Inspector of Police, Variety Hall Police Station , Coimbatore, 2019AIR (Supreme Court) 3746, has held that a balance sheet of aggravating and mitigating circumstances should be drawn while awarding death penalty and in doing so mitigating circumstances have to be accorded full weightage and a just balance has to be struck between the aggravating and the mitigating circumstances while exercising judicial discretion. The Supreme Court while commuting death sentence to life imprisonment till his natural death without remission by upholding the conviction.

90. In Veerendra Vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2022(3)R.C.R. (Criminal) 254, the Supreme Court while upholding conviction under Section 364A, 376(2)(i), 302, 201 IPC regarding murder and rape of a minor girl, commuted the death sentence to life imprisonment with stipulation that the convict is not entitled to premature release or remission before undergoing imprisonment of thirty years.

91. In The State of Haryana Vs. Anand Kindo & Another etc., 2022(4)R.C.R. (Criminal)735, the Supreme Court has again held that if there is any circumstance favouring the accused such as lack of intention to commit the crime, possibility of reformation, young age of the accused, accused not being a menance to the society and his clearly criminal antecedents, the death sentence can be commuted to life for a actual period of thirty years.

92. In Re: Framing Guidelines Regarding Potential Mitigating Circumstances to be Considered While Imposing Death Sentences, 2023(1) R.C.R.(Criminal) 571 , the Supreme Court while deciding the issue regarding the same day sentence of capital sentence, held that the conviction will not be vitiated, however held that the hearing under Section 325(2) Cr.P.C., requires the accused and the prosecution, at their option, be given the meaningful opportunity which in usual course is not conditional upon time or dates granted for the same and should be qualitatively and quantitatively.

93. In Sundar @ Sundarrajan Vs. State by Inspector of Police, 2023 Cri.L.R.(SC) 473, the Supreme Court held that it is the duty of the Court to enquire into mitigating circumstances as well as to foreclose the possibility of reformation and rehabilitation before imposing the death penalty. It is also held that even though the crime committed by the accused is unquestionably grave and unpardonable, it will not be appropriate to affirm the death sentence as 'rarest of rare' doctrine requires that the death sentence not be imposed only by taking into account the grave nature of crime but only if there is no possibility of reformation.

94. In Ravindar Singh Vs. The State Govt. of NCT of Delhi, 2023 AIR (Supreme Court)2220, Digambar Vs. The State of Maharashtra, 2023 Cri. L.R. (SC)

564, Bhaggi @ Bhagirah @ Naran Vs. The State of Madhya Pradesh, 2024(1) Crimes 121, the Supreme Court has commuted the death sentence despite holding that the offence committed was brutal or barbaric, however, considering the mitigating circumstances, the capital sentence was commuted to life for a fixed term of sentence.

95. After hearing the learned counsel for appellants, learned counsel for the informant as well as learned AGA for State and on perusal of the paper book as well as on the appraisal of the entire Trial Court's record as noticed above, we find that there is a limited scope of interference in the present appeal for the following reasons :

(a) It is the consistent stand of the prosecution that immediately after the incident, the informant Avdhesh Kumar got the FIR registered. It was scribed by his brother-Narendra Dev (PW-7) who has categorically stated that he had drafted the complaint as directed by Avdhesh Kumar, which was read over to him and, thereafter he had signed the same and submitted to the police. In this complaint, the informant has stated that accused Chutkannu alias Nathulal had enmity towards him as Avdhesh was a witness in a criminal case against him. On the date of incident, at about 6:00 p.m., after giving fodder to his milch cattle he was lying on a cot when due to this enmity Chutkunnu alias Nathulal having his licensed gun along with his brother, Rajendar who has having a country made double barrel gun and son- Narvesh Kumar who was also having country made pistol, came to his house and opened fire at him with intention to kill him. He ran away to save his life. All the three accused persons hit his three daughters who were sleeping on a nearby cot, in the mosquito net and killed them. Two of them died on the spot and the youngest was critically injured who passed away on way to police station. This witness has stated that he and his wife have witnessed the incident and other people have seen the accused persons at spot.

(b) A perusal of the record show that Hoshiyaar Singh (PW-13), the Investigating Officer, without initiating any investigation against the three accused persons, named in the FIR, gave them a clean chit and proceeded in a manner as if Avdhesh Kumar (father of the girls) has committed the murder. This witness has recovered the licensed gun of Avdhesh Kumar along with ten live cartridges and two empty cartridges and then recorded statements of witnesses, to come to a conclusion of investigation that it is Avdhesh Kumar who has committed the murder. However, in the detailed judgment as noticed above, the Trial Court found that Avdhesh Kumar is innocent and rather the entire mischief is played by Hoshiyaar Singh (PW-13), Investigating Officer in giving clean chit to three accused persons who were named in the FIR.

(c) Perusal of the postmortem report, the three minor girls; nature of gun shot injuries sustained by them having entry and exit wound show that the entry wound size is of different sizes, which suggest that different weapons were used in commission of offence. This corroborate the version of the prosecution as per F.I.R. and, therefore, this Court finds that the finding of the Trial Court which is based on appreciation of the medical jurisprudence is correct that the gun shots were not fired by the double barrel licensed gun of Avdhesh Kumar.

(d) At the cost of repetition, it is again held that the shoddy and suspicious investigation was conducted by PW-13 in giving clean chit to Chutkannu alias Nathulal, Rajendar and Narvesh Kuamr even in the absence of recovery of the gun made from them which in ordinary course, he was required to do the proper custodial investigation by arresting them in such a heinous crime. PW-13 himself had drawn a conclusion that they are innocent persons and, therefore, they were not even arrested and no charge-sheet was filed against three named persons in the F.I.R.

Therefore, this aspect of the mala fide investigation cannot absolve the appellants Rajendar and Narvesh Kumar of the commission of offence.

(e) The star witness of the prosecution i.e. Shashi Devi (PW-5), the wife of Avdhesh Kumar and the mother of the three girls who were murdered, is consistent in her statement that the above named three accused persons carrying their respective weapons came to the house of the informant who was lying on a cot and his three minor daughters were lying on two different cots and by opening fire with intention to kill her husband, they (accused persons) killed the three daughters of the informant and her husband succeeded in running away.

The argument of the counsel for the appellant that the PW-5 was declared hostile when she was examined at the first instance when only Avdhesh Kumar was facing trial is of no consequence as she was not supporting the chargesheet submitted against Avdhesh Kumar which is contrary to the allegation in the F.I.R. and, therefore, she was declared hostile in that circumstance as she did not depose against her husband who is informant in the F.I.R naming the three accused person.

A perusal of the statement of Shashi Devi (PW-5) after the de novo trial started, is clear that at about 7.00 PM, accused-Chutkannu, carrying a licensed gun, Rajendar, carrying a double barrel country made gun and Narvesh, carrying country made pistol came and shouted to kill them and started firing. The defence could not put a dent on her testimony as this witness stated that she was very much present there and was washing utensils and on hearing the noise of gunshot, she raised voice and many people gathered. The Trial Court has rightly noticed that when this witness was confronted with her statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. recorded by Investigating Officer, Hosiyar Singh (PW-13), she consistently stated that she has not made any such statement and rather she has told him that the above named three accused persons had killed her three daughters.

This witness also denied the suggestion that she has made statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C. that she had insisted upon her husband to bring winter clothes for her daughters. The Trial Court has rightly recorded finding that the financial condition of Avdhesh Kumar was not poor as he is owner of agricultural land and was having two more daughters namely Pooja and Archana. Therefore, in our opinion, if investigation of IO Hosiyar Singh (PW-13) concluded that it was Avdhesh Kumar who has killed his three daughters due to poverty, do not find weight with the Court as he had two more daughters who were sleeping in the same premise but, no damages were caused to them by Avdhesh Kumar.

Therefore, we find the statement of Shashi Devi (PW-5) as reliable statement in terms of the decision in Vadivelu Thevar Case (Supra). Some minor discrepancies with regard to non mentioning of burning of petromax gas at the time of incident, is not a serious discrepancy as a lady who has just lost her three minor daughters may not be mentally in a position to give each minute details while recorded her statement.

(f) It has come in the statement of Har Saran Lal (PW-1) that when he had gone to the house of Avdhesh on hearing the noise of firing, Chutkannu, Rajendar and Narvesh were seen coming carrying guns and many people had gathered. He had seen that two daughters of Avdhesh were lying on one cot and one daughter was lying on another cot.

A suggestion was given to this witness that in the intervening period, accused Chutkannue was murdered, in which his nephews were accused and, therefore, he is making a false statement is of no consequence as this witness has deposed with regard to the incident which occurred much prior to the death of Chutkannu and he has categorically stated that he had seen the three accused at the place of occurrence with there respective guns. Even the suggestion given to this witness that the elder daughter of Avdhesh namely Archana is now married to his niece's son and, therefore, he is giving a false statement is again of no consequence as the marriage took place much after the incident and Court is to asses the motive, if it exists prior to the date incident when the three girls were murdered.

(g) The Trial Court has recorded finding that Dinesh Kumar (PW-4) is not trustworthy as in his first statement, when only Avdhesh Kumar was facing the Trial, he has stated that he has not heard any noise of firing and when he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar in the morning, he saw that his three daughters were lying dead, when confronted with the statement after the de novo stage of trial, when this witness again appeared, has stated that when he had gone to the house of Avdhesh Kumar, he was carrying a double barrel licensed gun from which smoke was emitting out and Avdhesh told him that under the influence of liquor, he had committed the murder of his own three daughters.

This witness stated that he has not made any such statement on the earlier occasion under the threat extended by Avdhesh. However, it is worth noticing that statement was recorded after 11 years and in the intervening period, he had not lodged any complaint before the police that Avdhesh Kumar was extending threat to him and, therefore, testimony of PW-4 is not trustworthy because only this witness has stated that the financial condition of Avdhesh was very poor and he used to ply a Tanga to earn his livelihood, is contrary to the revenue record produced on behalf of Avdhesh Kumar that he is land owner and his financial condition is not poor that he had committed murder of his three daughters.

(h) Narendra Dev (PW-7) who is brother of informant-Avdhesh has also categorically stated that he had drafted a complaint on asking of Avdhesh Kumar and after it was read over to him, he has signed the same and has given to the police.

Though it has come in the cross examination that he was convicted in a case under Section 302 IPC, however, that incident being subsequent to the present incident will have no bearing regarding conduct of this witness at the relevant time.

(i) Rajneesh (PW-8), Lal Bahadur (PW-9) and Ram Bahore (PW-10) have not supported the case of the prosecution as against Avdhesh Kumar and when confronted with their statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C., they have denied that they have made any such statement to police that Avdhesh Kumar has committed murder of his three daughters.

(j) This also suggest that the Investigating Officer (PW-13) has not conducted the investigation in proper and fair manner. Even Bade Lalla (PW-11), a witness set up by the prosecution against Avdhesh Kumar that in his presence, Avdhesh Kumar had recorded confession of killing of his three daughters, has not supported the prosecution version and denied having made any such statement under Section 161 Cr.P.C.

96. The argument raised by the learned counsel for the appellant is that the trial court at the initial stage has recorded finding that Avadhesh has been falsely implicated may be an irregularity in dictating the judgment but it is not an illegality. So far as the argument with regard to FSL report of the gun recovered from Avadhesh is concerned, the same was neither supplied to any of the accused nor it was put to the accused persons in their statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C.. Therefore, in view Tarun Tyagi's Case (Supra), no reliance can be placed on this report.

97. Even otherwise this report was only against Avdhesh Kumar as PW-13 by not conducting custodian investigation of Chhutkan alias Nathulal Rajendar and Narvesh did not try to recover the weapon of offence from them though the postmortem report suggests that more than one type of weapons were used in commission of offence which supports the FIR version as stated by PW-5.

98. Another argument raised by the counsel for the appellant that Avdhesh Kumar has not given any statement against appellant Rajendar and Narvesh by appearing as prosecution witness is of no consequence, in view of the protection under Section 315 Cr.P.C. read with Article 20(3) of the Constitution of India. Therefore, we uphold the judgment of conviction of appellant Rajendar and Narvesh. However, we are unable to uphold the capital punishment awarded by the trial court as it is not a "rarest of rare" case for the following reasons:-

(a) The appellant Rajendar is presently aged about 75 years whereas Narvesh is aged about 50 years. As per prosecution version they came alongwith Chutkannu who was having enmity with informant Avdhesh Kumar. Therefore, they have been held guilty under Section 302/34 IPC.

(b) The trial court has not recorded any aggravating circumstances and has even not scrutinized the case of the appellants in the light of mitigating circumstances. Nothing has come on record that both the appellants had any previous criminal history though co-accused Chutkannu (since deceased) had criminal history.

(c) Trial court has not recorded any finding that awarding of severest punishment, is the only possibility in the case as no finding is recorded that there is no possibility of reformation and rehabilitation of the convicts in the society.

(d) The trial court has also not recorded any finding that accused persons are menace to the society or are having criminal antecedents of multiple cases as nothing has come on record that both the appellants are having any criminal history.

(e) There is no mens rea of the appellant to kill the three daughters as the motive was to kill Avdhesh who succeeded in running away.

(f). As noticed above, it has been held by the Supreme Court in Nisar Ramzan Sayyed Case (Supra), Ram Kumar and others, Chhannu Lal Verma, Dnyaneshwar Suresh Borkar, Manoharan Case (Supra), Veerendra Case (Supra), Anand Kindo & Another Case (Supra), Ravindar Singh Case (Supra), Digambar's Case (Supra) and Bhaggi @ Bhagirah @ Naran's Case (Supra) that if the Court is inclined to award death penalty, there must be exceptional circumstance warranting imposition of excess penalty which cannot be reversed.

99. Therefore, finding that the case of the appellants can not be termed as "rarest of rare" case even though accused has committed a grave offence, we are of the opinion that capital punishment awarded to both the appellants should be commuted to life imprisonment for a fixed term of 20 years.

100. With the aforesaid modification, the appeal qua conviction is dismissed. However, the appeal qua sentence is modified.

101. The accused-appellants are already in custody. They will undergo the remaining sentence in accordance with law.

102. Record and proceedings be sent back to the Trial Court forthwith.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2427

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION

CRIMINAL SIDE

DATED: ALLAHABAD 22.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN KUMAR SINGH DESHWAL, J.

Application U/S 482. No. 6343 of 2024

Jitendra Mangala ...Applicant

Versus

State of U.P. & Anr. ...Opposite Parties

Counsel for the Applicant:
Bhuvnesh Kumar Singh, Sangeeta Shukla

Counsel for the Opposite Parties:
G.A., Sushil Kumar Chaturvedi

A. Criminal Law-Criminal Procedure Code, 1973-Section 482-Negotiable Instruments Act 1881-Section 138-quashing of entire proceedings-the case involved a cheque issued on behalf of one M/s Prerna Construction, but the complaint named only the applicant, the proprietor of the company, without impleading the company itself as an accused-section 141 of the NI Act requires the company to be impleaded when a cheque is issued on its behalf-since the company was not made a party in the complaint the proceedings were defective-The court quashed the complaint as they were not maintainable due to non-impleading of the company-However, the court permitted the opposite party to file a fresh complaint within one month, properly impleading the company.(Para 1 to 14)

The application is allowed. (E-6)

List of Cases cited:

1. Himanshu Vs B. Shivamurthi & anr.(2019) 3 SCC 797

2. Aneeta Hada Vs M/S God Father Travels & Tours Pvt Ltd (2012) 5 SCC 661

3. Dilip Hariramani Vs Bank of Baroda (2022) Live Law SC 457 N. Harihare Krishnan Vs J. Thomas (2018) 3 SCC 663

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Kumar Singh Deshwal, J.)

1. Heard Sri Bhuvnesh Kr. Singh, learned counsel for the applicant, Sri Sushil Kr. Chaturvedi, learned counsel for opposite party No.2 and Sri Rajeev Kr. Singh, learned A.G.A. for the State.

2. The instant application has been filed seeking quashing of entire proceeding of Complaint Case No. 14 of 2018 (Smt. Manju Sharma vs. Jitendra Mangala), u/s 138 N.I. Act, P.S. Tajganj, District Agra, pending before the Additional Court No.1, Agra as well as summoning order dated 1.9.2018.

3. The factual matrix giving rise to the present case are that the complaint was filed by opposite party No.2 against the applicant u/s 138 N.I. Act. In the aforesaid complaint, it was mentioned that cheque was issued by M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd., but only the present applicant who is the proprietor of the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd. was impleaded as accused. The court below after perusal of the record, summoned the present applicant by summoning order dated 1.9.2018 and by way of present application, the proceeding of aforesaid complaint case is under challenge.

4. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that it is undisputed that the cheque in question was issued on behalf of the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd., but while filing the impugned complaint, the company in question was not impleaded as accused. Therefore, the proceeding cannot be proceeded against the accused who is the proprietor of the company who is vicariously liable only when the company is impleaded as a party in the complaint. Therefore, the impugned complaint is barred by Section 141 N.I. Act. Learned counsel for the applicant also argued that in case paragraphs No. 6 of 13 of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi and another; (2019) 3 SCC 797, Hon'ble Apex Court observed that the complaint, in absence of the company, is defective and at this stage company cannot be arrayed. Therefore, fresh complaint is also barred because fresh notice is required to be given to the company which is necessary for arising of the cause of action.

5. per contra learned counsel for opposite party No.2 and learned A.G.A. submitted that the cheque in question was issued on behalf of the company by the applicant, therefore, he is personally liable, therefore, there is no illegality in the summoning order and the impugned proceeding.

6. Considering the rival submissions of the parties and on perusal of the record, it appears that the cheque in question was issued on behalf of the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd. to opposite party No.2, but while filing the impugned complaint, opposite party No.2 did not implead the company as accused which is the basic requirement u/s 141 N.I. Act.

7. The Apex Court also in the cases of Aneeta Hada vs. M/S God Father Travels and Tours Pvt. Ltd.; (2012) 5 SCC 661, Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi and another; (2019) 3 SCC 797, Dilip Hariramani vs. Bank of Baroda; 2022 LiveLaw (SC) 457 as well as N. Harihara Krishnan vs. J. Thomas 2018 (3) SCC 663 observed that without impleading the body corporate which includes the company itself, proceeding u/s 141 N.I. Act cannot be proceeded.

8. So far as the contention of learned counsel for the applicant that fresh complaint after impleading the company is also barred because Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) has observed that in absence of notice of demand, being served on the company, the company cannot be arrayed as accused, is concerned, in the case of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) the issue was whether on objection raised by the accused that company was not impeaded as party in the complaint filed for dishonoring of the cheque on behalf of the company but the High Court has permitted to implead the company and Hon'ble Court observed that as the statutory demand notice was not issued to the company, therefore, at this stage company cannot be proceeded by impleading the same in the complaint. Paragraphs No. 6, 11 & 13 of the Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) are being quoted as under:-

"6. The judgment of the High Court has been questioned on two grounds. The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellant submits that firstly, the appellant could not be prosecuted without the company being named as an accused. The cheque was issued by the company and was signed by the appellant as its Director. Secondly, it was urged that the observation of the High Court that the company can now be proceeded against in the complaint is misconceived. The learned counsel submitted that the offence under Section 138 is complete only upon the issuance of a notice of demand and the failure of payment within the prescribed period. In absence of compliance with the requirements of Section 138, it is asserted, the direction of the High Court that the company could be impleaded/arraigned at this stage is erroneous.

11. In the present case, the record before the Court indicates that the cheque was drawn by the appellant for Lakshmi Cement and Ceramics Industries Ltd., as its Director. A notice of demand was served only on the appellant. The complaint was lodged only against the appellant without arraigning the company as an accused.

13. In the absence of the company being arraigned as an accused, a complaint against the appellant was therefore not maintainable. The appellant had signed the cheque as a Director of the company and for and on its behalf. Moreover, in the absence of a notice of demand being served on the company and without compliance with the proviso to Section 138, the High Court was in error in holding that the company could now be arraigned as an accused."

9. In the case of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) drawer of the cheque during the pendency of the proceeding before the Apex Court also deposited the entire cheque amount showing his bona fide which was also directed to be paid to the complainant at the time of disposal of the case. However, in the present case situation is totally different. In the impugned complaint, the applicant was not impleaded in his personal capacity but was impleaded as proprietor of the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd. and notice was also served upon the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd. through the applicant, being its proprietor/executive director. It is not in dispute that the applicant is active director of the company in question as per the allegation of the complaint and also involved in its day to day business. Therefore, notice upon the applicant, being director of the company, will be deemed to be notice upon the company itself.

10. Therefore, facts of the Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) are different from the present case. Therefore, ratio of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) will not be applied in the present case. Even otherwise, the applicant can raise all his defence during trial.

11. Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of NEPC Micon Ltd. vs. Magma Leasing Ltd.; 1999 (4) SCC 253, observed that it is the duty of court to interpret Section 138 N.I. Act consistent with the legislature intent and purpose so as to suppress the mischief and advance the remedy. Therefore, second complaint by impleading the company is not barred for bouncing of the cheque in question issued by the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd.

12. Even otherwise, the drawer of the cheque in the case of Himanshu vs. B. Shivamurthi (supra) deposited the cheque amount before Hon'ble Supreme Court, showing his bone fide. However, in the present case order sheet shows that though the complaint was filed in the year 2018, the applicant as well as his company tried their best to avoid facing trial, despite issuance of summons and bailable warrant, therefore, such type of drawer of cheque should not be allowed to take benefit of technicality at the cost of justice.

13. In view of the above legal position, the present complaint is not maintainable as the company M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd. was not impleaded as a party. In view of the above, the proceeding of Complaint Case No. 14 of 2018 (Smt. Manju Sharma vs. Jitendra Mangala), u/s 138 N.I. Act, P.S. Tajganj, District Agra is hereby quashed.

14. Accordingly, the application is allowed.

15. However, opposite party No.2 is permitted to filed fresh complaint by impleading the company, namely, M/s Prerana Construction Pvt. Ltd., within a period of one month.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2430
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.05.2024
BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MAHESH CHANDRA TRIPATHI, J.
THE HON'BLE ANISH KUMAR GUPTA, J.

Special Appeal No. 345 of 2024

Ram Pratap Singh ...Appellant
Versus
Union of India & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Avneesh Tripathi

Counsel for the Respondents:
A.S.G.I., Rohan Gupta

Civil Law - Service Matter- Appellant-appointed as Junior Engineer (Trainee) on adhoc basis - for a period of two years - extended further for six months – Appellant applied again - selected on the post of Assistant Engineer (Civil) on regular basis - He was accorded the first financial upgradation and later on was promoted to the post of Senior Assistant Engineer (SG) - Board of Directors had approved the Recruitment and Promotion Rules in respect of non-academic staff- Appellant claims that his right to promotion got affected by the new policy - represented the matter - Institute Level Grievance Redressal Committee and the Board-Sub Committee refused – Appellant filed Writ – Rejected – Hence, appellant preferred Special Appeal – Dismissed (Para - 3,4,5,9,49)

HELD: The suitability for the job, for which the selection and appointment is to be made, is an area of technical experts of the field and generally the Court does not inhere such expertise and skills to assess the suitability and eligibility vis-a-vis selection & appointment had to be made. The Court cannot embark upon any enquiry by way of judicial review to prescribe, which qualifications would be better qualification for the employer to provide as an essential qualification for the post. Prescription of qualifications and other conditions of service pertains to the field of policy is within the exclusive discretion and jurisdiction of the authority. In the instant appeal there was no challenge to the Rules/Regulations, which were duly adopted by the Competent Authority, therefore, the recruitment process which was adopted by the employer cannot be held to be an arbitrary exercise. (Para - 30, 31, 46)

Appeal is dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh & ors. Vs Dr. H.N.Nabachandra Singh & ors., (2020) 20 SCC 312

2. P.U. Joshi Vs Accountant General, 2003 2 SCC 632

3. Maharashtra Public Service Commission Vs Sandeep Shriram Warade, (2019) 6 SCC 362

4. Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank Vs Anit Kumar, (2021) 12 SCC 80

5. Deepak Singh Vs St. of U.P, 2019 SCC Online ALL 4471 (FB)

6. Vincent Nirmala Vs U.O.I.& ors (W.P. (C) 2742/2021)

7. P.Chitranjan Menon & ors. Vs A. Balakrishnan & ors, AIR 1977 SC 1720

8. Roshan Lal & ors. Vs International Airport Authority of India & ors, AIR 1981 SC 597

9. Edukanti Kistamma Vs S. Venkatareddy, AIR 2010 SC 313

(Delivered by Hon'ble Mahesh Chandra Tripathi, J.)

1. Heard Sri Avneesh Tripathi, learned counsel for the appellant-petitioner and Sri Rohan Gupta, learned counsel for the opposite party nos.2 to 4.

2. Present Special Appeal has arisen from a judgment and order of the learned Single Judge dated 11th March, 2024 passed in Writ A No.19126 of 2023 (Ram Pratap Singh and another vs. Union of India and 3 others) by which the writ petition filed by the appellant-petitioner has been dismissed.

FACTS

3. The facts giving rise to this appeal in a nutshell are that the Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur1 is an engineering institute. Initially, it was a society and subsequently, it was incorporated by the Central Government under the Institutes of Technology Act, 19612. Initially, the appellant-petitioner was appointed as a Junior Engineer (Trainee) in the pay scale of Rs.1400-2600 in IIT-Kanpur on April 27, 1988 on temporary and adhoc basis for a period of two years from the date of his joining and the said period was extended for a further period of six months vide Office order dated 10.05.1990. Subsequently, his pay scale of Rs.1400-2600 was changed to Rs.5000-8000/-. In January, 1991 the IIT-Kanpur had published an advertisement for appointment on the post of Junior Engineer and finally, the appellant was selected on the said post.

4. Thereafter, the appellant applied against the advertisement No.2/2005 and he was duly selected on the post of Assistant Engineer (Civil) on regular basis with effect from 14.12.2005 (F/N) or the date of assumption of charge on the position of Assistant Engineer (Civil), whichever is later. He was accorded the first financial upgradation in the Grade Pay of Rs.4600/- vide Office Order dated 08.05.2014 and later on was promoted to the post of Senior Assistant Engineer (SG) in the pay scale of Rs.33100-187800 Level-9 with Grade Pay of Rs.5400/-, with effect from 01.01.2018, vide Office Order dated 30.01.2019. The pay scale of Rs.33,100-1,87,800/- was the same pay scale as given to the promoted Senior Assistant Engineer/Assistant Engineer.

5. Meanwhile, the Board of Directors in its 227th meeting dated 11.10.2018 had approved the Recruitment and Promotion Rules in respect of non-academic staff. The IIT Kanpur decided to adopt and implement the Recruitment and Promotion Rules as per procedures approved by the Board. Thereafter, the promotion policy was notified vide Office Order dated 27.11.2018. The appellant claims that his right to promotion got affected by the new policy and as such, he represented the matter before the IIT Kanpur on 14.06.2019. The same was examined by the Institute Level Grievance Redressal Committee and the Board-Sub Committee, constituted for grievance examinations, wherein it was found that there is no merit in the claim set up by the appellant and he was advised to apply for the promotion as and when the post is advertised, subject to meeting the eligibility criteria. Therefore, the Board of Governors in its 244th meeting dated 12th January, 2022 had refused to accept his request and the same was communicated to him vide letter dated 28.02.2022 issued by the Deputy Registrar (Admin.) of IIT Kanpur.

6. It is claimed that the appellant possessed all the essential qualifications required for being considered for appointment on the post of Executive Engineer. It transpires that in the earlier advertisement dated 25.05.2015 at serial no.3 the posts of Executive Engineer (Electrical) (reserved for OBCs) & Air-conditioning (UR) were mentioned and the applications were invited from the Assistant Executive Engineer with 5 years service in the grade; or Graduate Assistant Engineers with 8 years service in the grade or Diploma holders Assistant Engineers with outstanding records & ability and 10 years service in the grade. Thereafter, the IIT Kanpur had published an advertisement no.1/2023 dated 16.9.2023 inviting applications for recruitment on various posts including five posts of Executive Engineer, wherein the essential qualification for the post of Executive Engineer were changed and now the qualification was added that the applicants holding the rank of Assistant Executive Engineer at Level-10 would alone be eligible for the recruitment.

7. The appellant and other similarly situated employees represented the matter before IIT Kanpur on 25.9.2023. Consequently, a corrigendum was issued on 20.9.2023 whereby the recruitment process for the post of Executive Engineer was kept in abeyance. Meanwhile, the Director of IIT Kanpur had retired from service and the charge of the Director was given to Senior-most Professor, who is now acting as Officiating Director. He had published the advertisement dated 04.09.2023 for various posts including five posts of Executive Engineer at serial no.18, wherein the incumbents were required to possess the essential qualifications, (i) Master's Degree in Civil Engineering from a recognized University/Institute with at least 55% in the qualifying degree; (ii) At least eight years relevant experience out of which at least three years of regular clear service at Assistant Executive Engineer level or equivalent (Level 10, 7th CPC) OR (i) A first-class degree in Civil Engineering from a recognized University/Institute; (ii) At least ten years relevant experience out of which at least 5 years of regular clear service at Assistant Executive Engineer level or equivalent (Level 10, 7th CPC).

8. Aggrieved with the aforesaid advertisement, the appellant had filed Writ A No.19126 of 2023 praying for the following reliefs:-

"i) to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of certiorari quashing the advertisement dated 04.09.2023 bearing Advertisement No.1/23 issued by the Recruitment Section of the respondent no.2 in so far as it relates to the selection on the post of Executive Engineer at Serial No.18 (Annexure-1 to the instant writ petition);

ii) to issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing respondent No.2 to allow the petitioner to participate in the recruitment process.

(iii) to issue any other suitable writ, order or direction which the Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the instant case.

(iv) to award costs of this petition to the petitioner."

9. The learned Single Judge after extensively considering the pleadings; submissions of the parties and the import of judgement & order passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh and Others v. Dr. H.N.Nabachandra Singh and Others3, proceeded to dismiss the writ petition vide order dated 11.3.2024, which is under challenge in the present Special Appeal.

SUBMISSION ON BEHALF OF THE APPELLANT

10. Sri Avneesh Tripathi, learned counsel for the appellant vehemently argued that the impugned judgement and order dated 11.3.2024, passed by the learned Single Judge suffers from manifest error of law and accordingly, the same is liable to be set aside. He submitted that the appellant had approached to this Court and asked for the relief to participate in the selection process and not for promotion on the post in question. The petitioner-appellant had also questioned the proprietary and legality of the conditions imposed in the impugned advertisement and submitted that the impugned advertisement is made just to preclude the appellant from appearing in the direct recruitment for the post of Executive Engineer. He submitted that learned Single Judge has failed to appreciate the controversy in hand. Even though the issues were framed in paragraph 12 of the judgement but the same were contrary to the assertions made in the writ petition and in particular, the reliefs, which were sought in the writ petition. Learned Single Judge has also failed to appreciate the core issue of arbitrariness of the Board of Governors while putting the conditions in the advertisement, which were nowhere prescribed in any other IITs. He submitted that learned Single Judge has heavily relied upon the fact that the petitioner had not questioned the power of the Board of Directors in adherence to which the impugned conditions of the advertisement were prescribed. He submitted that the impugned order on this score is also unsustainable as the specific pleading has been set up by the petitioner in paragraph Nos.18, 25, 36, 37, 41 & 42 of the writ petition.

11. It was further argued by Sri Tripathi that the order impugned is also unsustainable as the learned Single Judge has expressed an opinion that in absence of challenge being made to the Recruitment & Promotion Rules, 2018 of IIT Kanpur4 and also without challenge to the resolution of the Board of Governors dated 23.12.2022, no relief can be accorded to the petitioner. He submitted that in fact, Rules, 2018 would have no bearing or relevance as the same do not talk about the post in question i.e. Executive Engineer. Neither, the same has prescribed the qualification for the post in question nor the resolution of the Board of Governors prescribes as such, and for the first time, the alleged Rules, 2018 had been brought on record alongwith the counter affidavit with an endorsement as confidential document and the same was not available in public domain. Therefore, in absence of relevant resolution available in public domain, the same could not be challenged by the applicant. Moreover, in most arbitrary manner the qualifications were imposed through the advertisement in question.

12. Sri Avneesh Tripathi vehemently submitted that learned Single Judge had taken note of Section 33 (2) (b) of the IT Act, 1961 which provides to lay down the policy regarding cadres, methods of recruitment and conditions of service of employees but in most arbitrary manner, learned Single Judge has failed to appreciate that the Board of Governors prescribed qualifications in the impugned advertisement without any authority. He had also stated that in most arbitrary manner, the Board of Governors had taken note of resolution of the IIT Council dated 19.10.2009, wherein it is manifestly clear that no such power inheres the Board of Governors to determine the service conditions, rather it is only limited to creation of new posts. Learned Single Judge had also utterly failed to take note of this very submission that the impugned conditions were imposed in such arbitrary manner solely for the reason that the rightful claim of the petitioner appellant could be denied. The precise observation of learned Single Judge to the extent, that in absence of any challenge to the Rules or resolution passed by the Board of Governors, no relief could be accorded to the petitioner, is also misconceived as the said document had been placed by the IIT Kanpur alongwith counter affidavit with a note that the said document is confidential and the same is not in public domain.

SUBMISSION ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENTS

13. Replying to the aforesaid submission made by the learned counsel representing the appellant-petitioner, Shri Rohan Gupta, learned counsel for the IIT Kanpur has strenuously argued that the appellant is working as Senior Assistant Engineer (Special Grade), which is Level-9 post and he cannot be promoted to the post of Executive Engineer, which is a Level-11 post. Admittedly, the age of the appellant is 59 years while the maximium age in the advertisement was given as 55 years, therefore the appellant is not eligible for direct recruitment. The advertisement in question further prescribes the essential qualifications as determined by the Board of Governors of the IIT-Kanpur in the meeting dated 11.12.2022. Both the prescriptions i.e. age as 55 years, and the eligibility criteria as laid down by the Board, had not been assailed in the writ petition. He has placed reliance on the judgement in the case of Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh and others vs. Dr. H. Nabachandra Singh and others5, in which it was held that in absence of challenge to the Rules laying down the eligibility criteria, the consequential advertisement could not be challenged.

14. Sri Rohan Gupta further submitted that the Writ Court has proceeded to decide the matter on the basis of the fact that Rule 6 of the Rules, 2018 clearly provides that the direct recruitment would generally be done at the entry level posts and it also prescribes the eligibility criteria for the entry level posts. The post of Executive Engineer is, therefore, a promotional post. Rule 6 itself further provides that lateral entry of external candidates may sometimes be permitted by the Board for special needs. Rules, 2018 do not prescribe the eligibility criteria for the post of Executive Engineer. However, the Board has the powers to permit lateral entry and has done so in its meeting dated 11.12.2022. Rule 6 of the Rules, 2018 empowers the Board to permit lateral entry of external candidates even on the post of Executive Engineer, which is to be normally filled up by promotion. It was essential for the petitioner to have challenged the Rules, 2018 and the resolution of the Board of Governors dated 11.12.2022 prescribing the essential qualifications for the post of Executive Engineer and as such, any claim, in absence of challenge, is not tenable in the eyes of law.

15. It was further submitted that the petitioner has not challenged the eligibility criteria as prescribed by the Board and therefore, this question was not considered by the Writ Court. The petitioner had set up his claim in the writ petition that the CPWD Rules for direct recruitment would apply to IIT Kanpur and the ground qua the competence of the Board to frame the rules was only taken in the rejoinder affidavit without moving any amendment application to challenge the Rules or the Resolution of the Board dated 11.12.2022. The IIT Council is a separate entity and it was not made a party in the writ petition and as such, the Union of India could not clarify the stand of the IIT Council.

16. We have carefully considered the rival submissions placed by the learned counsels representing the respective parties at the bar and perused the record.

FINDINGS OF THE LEARNED SINGLE JUDGE

17. Learned Single Judge after noticing the arguments advanced on behalf of the parties formulated three categorical points and issues to be addressed namely (a) whether Board of Governors, IIT Kanpur is justified in adopting resolution dated 23rd December, 2022 to hold direct recruitment drive in respect of 5 posts of Executive Engineer to the disadvantage of the petitioners, who claim departmental promotion; (b) whether in absence of any challenge to the rules taking aid of which resolution dated 23rd December, 2022 has been adopted and whether in the absence of challenge to the resolution, the same can be held bad; and (c) whether five posts of Executive Engineer advertised by respondents do fall under promotion quota.

18. Learned Single Judge in his wisdom had taken the first and second points together as both were interrelated.

Firstly, he had considered whether there is an authority vested under the rules with the Board of Governors, whether challenge or no challenge, the resolution will be valid and conversely if the Court finds there to be no such power under the rules vested with Board of Governors, the resolution would get rendered null and void and the Court even in the absence of any challenge hold that to be so and consequential action even if not under challenge would become bad and can be struck down. Learned Single Judge had considered the petitioner's argument to the effect that there lies no such power with Board of Governors and during the argument, the Advocates appearing for the respective parties do agree that the Rules, 2018, which were adopted by modifying earlier Rules, 2013, notified on 27th November, 2018 were the rules in existence and they had also accepted that these rules came to be further modified and notified on 28th May, 2021, which had been brought on record alongwith counter affidavit filed by the respondents.

19. Learned Single Judge has also taken into consideration the objection of the petitioner that the Board of Governors is responsible only for general superintendence and control qua affairs of the institute but is not vested with the powers to formulate or approve rules and regulations for recruitment and laying down accordingly eligibility criteria etc. for selection and appointment upon faculty and non-faculty positions in the institute. The objection, which was taken in the rejoinder to the extent that Recruitment and Career Progression Scheme, which was floated by the IIT Council, the top composite body for different IITs, way back in the year 1999, would prevail as this authority is superior to the Board. Learned Single Judge has considered Section 33 (2) (b) of the IT Act, 1961 and accepted that Section 33 (2) (b) provides for laying down policy regarding cadres, methods of recruitment and conditions of service of employees etc. The learned Single Judge had also considered the relevant question qua the legal position, if there are no such policies laid down. Section 33 of the IT Act, 1961 is reproduced hereunder:-

"33. (1) It shall be the general duty of the Council to co- ordinate the activities of all the Institutes.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub. section (1), the Council shall perform the following functions, namely: -

a) to advise on matters relating to the duration of the courses, the degrees and other academic distinctions to be conferred by the Institutes, admission standards and other academic matters;

b) to lay down policy regarding cadres, methods of recruitment and conditions of service of employees, institution of scholarships and freeships, levying of fees and other matters of common interest;

c) to examine the development plans of each Institute and to approve such of them as are considered necessary and also to indicate broadly the financial implications of such approved plans;

d) to examine the annual budget estimates of each Institute and to recommend to the Central Government the allocation of funds for that purpose;

e) to advise the Visitor, if so required, in respect of any function to be performed by him under this Act; and

f) to perform such other functions as are assigned to it by or under this Act."

(emphasis supplied)

20. For considering the aforesaid provisions learned Single Judge has considered Sections 10, 11 and 13 of the IT Act, 1961, which are reproduced hereunder:-

"10. The following shall be the authorities of an Institute,

a) a Board of Governors;

b) a Senate; and

c) Such other authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be the authorities of the Institute.

11. The Board of an Institute shall consist of the following persons, namely:-

a) the Chairman, to be nominated by the Visitor;

b) the Director, ex officio,

(c) one person to be nominated by the Government of each of the States comprising the zone in which the Institute is situated, from among persons who, in the opinion of that Government, are technologists or industrialists of repute;

(d) four persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of education, engineering or science, to be nominated by the Council; and

(e) two professors of the Institute, to be nominated by the Senate.

Explanation:- In this section, the expression "zone" means a zone as for the time being demarcated by the All-India Council for Technical Education for the purposes of this Act

13. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board of any Institute shall be responsible for the general superintendence, direction and control of the affairs of the Institute and shall exercise all the powers of the Institute not otherwise provided for by this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances, and shall have the power to review the acts of the Senate.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub- section (1), the Board of any Institute shall-

(a) take decisions on questions of policy relating to the administration and working of the Institute;

(b) institute courses of study at the Institute;

(c) make Statutes;

(d) institute and appoint persons to academic as well as other posts in the Institute;

(e) consider and modify or cancel Ordinances;

(f) consider and pass resolutions on the annual report, the annual accounts and the budget estimates of the Institute for the next financial year as it thinks fit and submit them to the Council together with a statement of its developments plans;

(g) exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be conferred or imposed upon it by this Act or the Statutes.

(3) The Board shall have the power to appoint such committees as it considers necessary for the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties under this Act."

21. As far as the submission of the counsel for the appellant-petitioner that the power of the Board of Governers is limited , we are in consonance with the view taken by the Learned Single Judge, as the Sections 25, 26 and 27 of the IT Act 1962 explicitly lays down the power of the Board which are repoduced hereunder:-

" 25 - Appointments

All appointment on the staff of any Institute, except that of the Director, shall be made in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes, by----

(a) the Board, it the appointment is made on the academic staff in the post of Lecturer or above or if the appointment is made on the non-academic staff in any cadre the maximum of the pay-scale for which exceeds six hundred rupees per month;

(b) by the Director, in any other case."

" 26 - Statutes

Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes may provide for all or any of he following matters, namely:---

.....

(e) the term of office and the method of appointment of officers of the Institute;

(f) the qualifications of teacher of the Institute;

(g) the classification, the method of appointment and the determinations of the terms an conditions of service of, teachers and other staff of the Institute;

(h) the constitution of pension, insurance and provident funds for the benefit of the officers, teachers and other staff of the Institute;

(I) the constitution, powers and duties of the authorities of the Institute;

..."

" 27 - Statutes how made

(1) The first Statutes of each Institute shall be framed by the Council with the previous approval of the Visitor and a copy of the same shall be laid as soon as may be before each House of Parliament.

(2) The Board may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes in the manner hereafter in this section provided.

(3) Every new Statute or addition to the Statutes or any amendment or repeal of a Statute shall require the previous approval of the Visitor who may assent thereto or withhold assent or remit it to the Board or consideration.

(4) A new Statute or a Statute amending or repealing an existing Statute shall have no validity unless it has been assented to by the Visitor."

22. Heavy reliance has also been placed by learned counsel for the appellant-petitioner before learned Single Judge that All India Council for Technical Education has the general powers over and above the Institutes of Technology and the IT Act, 1961 does vest power in the IITs to inform Ministry of Human Resources and Development to create post by virtue of delegated power. Executing this power a resolution, as adopted by All India Council at item no. 40.4, was placed before the Board on 19th October, 2009, wherein it was decided that flexibility would be given to the IITs for creation of posts. IITs may be delegated the power to create posts subject to the ratio of 10:1.1.1 between students, faculty and non-faculty. However, the IITs would be required to inform the Ministry while creating the posts under these delegated powers. This aspect of the matter has also been considered by the learned Single Judge. The relevant paras 21, 22 and 23 of the judgement is extracted below:-

"21. According to aforesaid provisions, residuary power lies with Board, which is not provided elsewhere. The first statute and ordinances have to be framed vide Section 6(1) of the IT Act, 1961 and that power lies with both the Board and the Council both. Section 38-(c) provides that so long as statutes and ordinances are not framed for each of the institutes of colleges, the statute and ordinance of the Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur will prevail.

22. In total circumspect of the provisions as discussed above, it is clear that either rules are framed by the council as Apex Body on all India basis or Board for the IIT Kanpur, the provisions of the IIT Kharagpur provide for such conditions to which Rule 6 of the recruitment and promotion rules can be said to be repugnant, the rules as famed by the Board of Governors exercising power under Section 13(1) would prevail. 13(2)-c also empower the Board to frame statutes, therefore, taking recourse to the harmonious constructions of the provisions as contained under Section 13(1) and 13(2) c and 33(1) (b) and 38-(C) of the IT Act, 1961, it can safely be concluded that Board of Governors being Apex Body of the IIT Kanpur under the Act, 1961 is fully empowered to frame recruitment and promotions rules and since it has framed such rules right from 2013 onwards as amended Rules 2021, such rules are held to be valid.

23. As the argument has been advanced that All India Council has the general powers over and above institutes of Technology and the Act, 1961 does vest power in the IITs to inform Ministry of Human Resources and Development to create post by virtue of delegated power, executing this power a resolution as adopted by All India Council as item no. 40.4 placed before the Board date 19th October, 2009 is reproduced hereunder:

"Item No. 40.4: Autonomy of the Institutes - financial, functional and managerial:

The issue of autonomy is closely linked with the capacity of the institutions to raise their own resources. In order to suggest ways and means of achieving more autonomy, it was decided to constitute a Committee comprising Dr. Anil Kakodkar, Chairman, BoG, lIT Bombay and four other members to be nominated by the Chairman to suggest a roadmap for the autonomy and future of the lITs. The Committee would inter alia examine the issue of increase in fees by the IITS in a gradual manner. While doing so, the interest of weaker sections of society i.e. SCs/STs/OBCs would be taken care of. It should be ensured that any student entering the IIT system should be able to avail educational loan and the same must be facilitated by the Institutes. The Committee could suggest an interest loan waiver scheme for students who continue to do research and take up teaching assignments. In fact a portion of the loan could be even considered for being written off for every year of teaching in a publicly funded institution in such a way that the entire loan could be written off if one has served in publicly funded institutions for more than 30 years or so. Any person who does Ph.D. must be supported. The Non Plan grants to be given to the lITs, which are in the process of being raised through the Block Grant scheme, should be linked to the actual students' strength. The ratio of B.Tech.

Post Graduate and Research students in the Institutes should be maintained at optimum levels, while affecting increase in students' strength. The Institutes should be entitled for matching grants from the Government in case they generate more resources through research projects from the industry, consultancy, donations from alumni and others etc. All these issues will be examined by the above Committee which will submit its report within 4 months and will also follow up on the implementation of its recommendations.

It was also decided that flexibility would be given to the IITs for creation of posts. ITs may be delegated the power to create posts subject to the ratio of 10:1:1.1 between students, faculty and non-faculty. However the ITs would be required to inform the Ministry while creating the posts under these deligated powers. Addl. Secretary (MHRD) was asked to get this processed for issue of appropriate orders in this regard, after obtaining the approval of the Ministry of Finance.

The Directors of Ilts expressed that there was a need for more laboratory staff. AS & FA stated that clarifications have been issued to the ITs that requirement of increased number of technical staff due to OSC expansion only could be allowed even if the ratio exceeds the norms of 1:1.1 between faculty to non-faculty staff.

It was also clarified that for the purpose of new cars for the Directors of new ITs, the BoG of the concerned Institute was competent to approve.

It was also decided that every II'T would present its vision document at the Retreat proposed in January, 2010."

(emphasis supplied)

23. Learned Single Judge has considered the objection of the counsel for IIT, Kanpur that the Rules do not provide the post of Superintending Engineer and in such situation the resolution was adopted by the Board of Governors to create a post as required as the Board inheres the residuary powers and in view of the provisions contained under Section 2 (b) of Section 33 of IT Act, 1961, the Board had passed the resolution on 23.12.2022 and the resolution of the Board of Governors was a valid act within the ambit and scope of powers vested in it. Learned Single Judge has exhaustively considered the first and second issues and rejected the relief to the appellant-petitioner while answering the points (a) and (b). Learned Single Judge has also considered the additional ground, which was taken at the time of argument qua the question of consideration of age and had opined that even otherwise, prescribed qualification is a pure administrative policy decision of employer either by framing rules or otherwise by executing instructions to meet the requirements as per suitability. Relevant paragraph nos.25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31 & 32 of the judgement are reproduced hereunder:-

"25. In view of above, in respect of both point nos. 1 and 2, I hold that Board of Governors of IIT Kanpur is justified in framing recruitment Rules 2018 as modified/ amended in 2021 and since Rule 6 of rules provides for powers for the direct recruitment even upon post falling in lateral entries (P-19) that includes post of Executive Engineer, the resolution adopted by it to make a direct recruitment upon such post dated 23rd December, 2022 is also valid. Besides the above, I also find that petitioners are not eligible for the post of Executive Engineer for the simple reason that they are not working as Assistant Executive Engineer.

26. So for the post of Executive Engineer is concerned, there should be no quarrel because Rules vide P-19 to the schedule make post of Executive Engineer at pay matrix level- 11 in the Group- A to be filled up by promotion only from Assistant Executive Engineer, pay matrix level 10 and the essential qualification under the advertisement is also three years of regular clear service at Assistant Executive Engineer, level- 10 or equivalent level. So essential qualification prescribed under the advertisement, rules are same.

27. Under the circumstances, therefore, petitioners cannot question the advertisement as far as post of Executive Engineer is concerned because they have nothing to put on stake, being not eligible even by way of promotion upon the posts in question. There is no prayer in the writ petition seeking promotion to the post of Assistant Executive Engineer, so no relief as such can be granted to promote them first as Assistant Executive Engineer if lying vacant then to direct to consider their claim for the post of Executive Engineer.

28. The question of consideration of age would have arisen had petitioners been working at pay matrix level-10 which is not a case in hand even otherwise prescribed qualification is a pure administrative policy decision of employer either by framing rules or otherwise by executing instructions to be meet requirements as per suitability required.

29. In my above view, I find support from paragraph 16 of the judgment of the Supreme Court in the case of Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh and Others (Supra) Paragraph 16 runs as under:

"16.So far as relaxation of upper age-limit, as sought by the petitioners in one of the writ petitions is concerned, the High Court has directed the competent authority and Executive Council of the Society to consider for providing such relaxation clause. We fail to understand as to how such direction can be given by the High Court for providing a relaxation which is not notified in the advertisement. While it is open for the employer to notify such criteria for relaxation when sufficient candidates are not available, at the same time nobody can claim such relaxation as a matter of right. The eligibility criteria will be within the domain of the employer and no candidate can seek as a matter of right, to provide relaxation clause."

30. Admittedly, there is no challenge to the rules. The pleading in the writ petition are absolutely silent about validity of these rules. In fact these rules have though been not annexed with writ petition but a particular table has been annexed which is P-19, which is provided under the schedule of the recruitment and selection Rules 2018 amended in 2021. This table has been relied upon by the petitioner to take the plea that post in question is a promoted post.

31. In the rejoinder affidavit although plea has been taken vide paragraph 8 that IIT Council shall be laying down the rules of recruitment shall be providing for conditions of service as per Institutes of Technology Act, 1961, but neither any policy has been annexed or even referred to by the petitioner in the rejoinder affidavit, nor even recruitment and Career Progression Scheme as referred to in paragraph 8 of the rejoinder affidavit has been brought on record.

32. In the same judgment of Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh and Others (Supra), the Court has held merely because rules are not in public domain notifying it, cannot itself be a ground to challenge and further if the rules are not challenged the Court will not embark upon an enquiry as to the validity of such rules. Vide paragraph 13 and 14, the Court has held thus:

"13.At the outset, it is to be noticed that though, in none of the writ petitions, Rules governing appointment to the post of Director was under challenge, the High Court has gone into the validity of the Rules, as amended, and held that amendments to the Rules were not carried out by following the Rules, Regulations and Bye-laws of the Society. The specific plea of the respondent authorities in the writ petitions, that there is no challenge to validity of the Rules but same has been brushed aside by the High Court by merely stating that such an objection is of technical nature. At this stage, it is relevant to note that such objection raised should not have been brushed aside by the High Court by holding that such objection is of a technical nature. In all these writ petitions in which common order [H. Nabachandra Singhv.Union of India, 2017 SCC OnLine Mani 52] is passed by the High Court, validity of advertisement dated 16-8-2016 alone was under challenge. We are of the view that the High Court has committed an error in going into the validity of the Rules, in absence of any challenge to the same. In any event, it was the case of the respondent authorities that the Rules governing appointment were amended by following the Rules and such amendment was also approved by the competent authority, of Ministry of Health & Family Welfare.

14. Further, the fact of not notifying the amended Rules has also been made basis for grant of relief by the High Court. In this regard, the High Court has held that not notifying the amended Rules would strike at the root of the amendment process of the recruitment rules, as such, unless such Rules are notified, the same cannot be enforced. It appears from the impugned order itself that it was the specific plea in the counter-affidavit filed before the High Court that the said Rules were not framed under Article 309 of the Constitution of India and further there is no specific provision in the Rules, Regulations and Bye-laws of RIMS for notifying the same. It is true that in a public institution, rules are required to be made available, but at the same time not notifying to public at large cannot be the ground to invalidate the notification, in the absence of any provision to that effect in the Bye-laws of the Society or the Rules and Regulations framed for recruitment to the post of Director."

24. Learned Single Judge has also considered the third point whether these five posts of Executive Engineer would have fallen in promotion quota and rejected the same on the ground that since these are lateral positions and the Board of Governors is vested with the power to fill up within vacancies by direct recruitment.

FINDINGS BY THE COURT

25. The IIT Kanpur is a body corporate established under the IT Act, 1961 and declared as an institute of national importance to provide for education and research in various branches of Engineering, Technology, Science and Arts and also for advancement of learning and dissemination of knowledge in such branches. The governing body of the IIT Kanpur consists of a Chairman, a Director and other members of the Board of the institute. The Chairman of the Board is nominated by the Visitor (Hon'ble President of India) and the Director of the institute is appointed by the IIT Council with the prior approval of the Visitor. Section 13 of the IT Act, 1961 provides that the Board of the IIT Kanpur is responsible for the general superintendence, direction and control of the affairs of the institute and is required to exercise all the powers of the institute not otherwise provided in the IT Act, 1961, the Statutes and the Ordinances. The Board is empowered to formulate, approve all rules or regulations for recruitment and/or to lay down the eligibility criteria for academic and non-academic staff of the institute. In view of Section 25 of the IT Act, 1961 the Board is the appointing authority for academic staff as well as for all non-academic staff in any cadre.

26. Considering the rival submissions, we find that the core issues before this court are:-

"(i) whether this Court may take a judicial review of the qualification prescribed by the employer for direct recruitment or for promotion and

(ii) whether in absence of serious challenge to the Rules/Regulations, which are duly adopted and enacted by the Competent Authority, the challenge to consequential recruitment process can be entertained by this Court."

ISSUE NO.I

27. The record reflects that the Board in its meeting dated 11.10.2018 had approved the Recruitment and Promotion Rules qua the non-academic staff of the IIT Kanpur. Consequently, the IIT Kanpur decided to adopt and implement the Recruitment and promotion Rules as per the procedures approved by the Board and constituted the Promotion Committee vide Office Order dated 27.11.2018. In IIT Kanpur Recruitment and Promotion Rules, all the non-teaching/non-academic posts in the institute are categorized into three groups (Group A, Group B and Group C). Under each group there will be a number of cadres, each cadre having a ladder with multiple levels of posts. The lowest post in a ladder will be called the entry post and the remaining posts within a ladder will be called selection posts. The direct recruitment will normally be done at the entry post in a ladder. However, in the interest of institute, lateral entry of external candidates may sometimes be permitted by Board for special needs under Groups A and B posts. The promotions of institute employees can be made on both the entry posts and selection posts. However, the promotion of institute employees to entry level posts will be vacancy based.

28. The aforesaid Rule was modified/amended by the Board in its 238th meeting dated 09.04.2021 in exercise of its powers conferred by Section 13 (1) & (2) of the IT Act, 1961. Thereafter the Board in its 251st meeting dated 11.12.2022 had also considered and approved the creation of a new designation for a Senior Engineer position namely Senior Superintending Engineer against the sanctioned Group 'A' Officers' positions and consequently approved the advertisement to fill up the 05 positions of Executive Engineer apart from other positions on mission mode recruitment drive on account of the urgent requirement of expansion of infrastructure in the institute. Suffice to indicate that the advertisement qua the Executive Engineer contained the same eligibility criteria, as has been duly approved by the Board in its 251st meeting dated 11.12.2022.

29. It is reflected from the record that the appellant was initially inducted as Junior Engineer (Trainee) w.e.f. 06.05.1988 to 05.11.1990 on contractual basis. Fresh recruitment drive was taken by the IIT Kanpur and in response thereof, the appellant got an appointment as Junior Engineer from 18.01.1991. Thereafter, on 01.07.2003 he was accorded the first promotion on the post of Assistant Engineer (Level-7 post). Later on he was also accorded the second promotion and became Senior Assistant Engineer on 01.01.2014 and continued till 31.12.2017. Thereafter, he got his third promotion on the post of Senior Assistant Engineer (Selection Grade) on 01.01.2018. Meanwhile, the Board of Governors, which is the Apex Body of IIT Kanpur, had adopted resolution, which was required to expedite the dedicated task of recruitment drive on a mission mode and under the IT Act, 1961 the consequential resolution was adopted by the Board of Governors on 23.12.2022. Accordingly, consequential advertisement was issued for direct recruitment on the various posts including the post of Senior Superintending Engineer, and the Executive Engineer, by prescribing essential qualifications, which falls under the domain of the employer and the recruiting authority to cater the most suitable candidate to accomplish the task.

30. The present matter relates to the premier institution of the country. The suitability for the job, for which the selection and appointment is to be made, is an area of technical experts of the field and generally the Court does not inhere such expertise and skills to assess the exact suitability and eligibility vis-a-vis selection & appointment had to be made. Generally, the Court cannot embark upon any enquiry by way of judicial review to prescribe, which qualifications would be better qualification for the employer to provide as an essential qualification for the post upon which the selection and appointment has to be made.

31. Prescription of qualifications and other conditions of service pertains to the field of policy and is within the exclusive discretion and jurisdiction of the authority. It is not open to the Courts to direct the authority to have a particular method of recruitment or eligibility criteria. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.U. Joshi vs. Accountant General6 had initally dealt with the issue in regard to the limitation of the courts in deciding the qualification for requitment on a post. The relevent is extracted hereunder;-

"8. ..... The stand on behalf of the appellants private parties is that their service rights are to be governed by the rules relating to their service as on the date of bifurcation on 1.3.1984 and that the rules and the services conditions cannot be altered to their detriment by the subsequent rules. It is also contended that the appellants, working as Supervisors, are also performing duties that are discharged by the Assistant Accounts Officers and they would, therefore, be entitled to the scale of pay of Rs. 2000-3200 of A.A.Os. (earlier SG Supervisors) on the principle of 'equal pay for equal work'. The denial of promotional prospects to the category of Supervisors, like the appellants, is also challenged on the ground of arbitrariness and hostile discrimination. Lastly, it was contended that before bifurcation though it was assured that the pay structure for the Accounts and Entitlement offices would be the same as the one before bifurcation and the existing promotional prospects and selection grade will be applicable mutatis mutandis, it was not actually adhered to after bifurcation and for this reason also, relief as prayed for ought to be granted. "

While dealing with the aforesiad issue the court held,

"..... prescription of qualifications and other conditions of service including avenues of promotions and criteria to be fulfilled for such promotions pertain to the field of policy and is within the exclusive discretion and jurisdiction of the State and it is not for the Courts to direct the Government to have a particular method of recruitment or eligibility criteria or avenues of promotion or impose itself by substituting its views for that on the State. It is also open and within the compete17ncy of the State to change the rules relating to a service and alter or amend and vary by addition/subtraction the qualifications, eligibility criteria and other conditions of service including avenues of promotion, from time totime, as the administrative exigencies may need or necessitate. There is no right in any employee of the State to claim that rules governing conditions of his service should be forever the same as the one when he entered service for all purposes and except for ensuring or safeguarding rights or benefits already earned, acquired or accrued at a particular point of time, a government servant has no right to challenge the authority of the State to amend, alter and bring into force new rules relating to even an existing service."

32. The same issue arose before the Hon'ble Apex Court in Maharashtra Public Service Commission vs. Sandeep Shriram Warade 7 in para no 3 of the judgement , which is extracted as below ;-

" 3 . Learned Counsel for the Appellants submitted that academic qualifications coupled with the requisite years of practical experience in the manufacturing and testing of drugs were essential qualifications for appointment. Research experience in a research and development laboratory was a desirable qualification which may have entitled such a person to a preference only. The latter experience could not be equated with and considered to be at par with the essential eligibility to be considered for appointment.The High Court erred in misreading the advertisement to redefine the desirable qualification as an essential qualification by itself."

33. The issue, which was arisen before Hon'ble Apex Court in Maharashtra Public Service Commission vs. Sandeep Shriram Warade (supra), has been answered in paragraph-9 of the judgement as under:-

"9. The essential qualifications for appointment to a post are for the employer to decide. The employer may prescribe additional or desirable qualifications, including any grant of preference. It is the employer who is best suited to decide the requirements a candidate must possess according to the needs of the employer and the nature of work. The court cannot lay down the conditions of eligibility, much less can it delve into the issue with regard to desirable qualifications being on a par with the essential eligibility by an interpretive re-writing of the advertisement. Questions of equivalence will also fall outside the domain of judicial review. If the language of the advertisement and the rules are clear, the court cannot sit in judgment over the same. If there is an ambiguity in the advertisement or it is contrary to any rules or law the matter has to go back to the appointing authority after appropriate orders, to proceed in accordance with law. In no case can the court, in the garb of judicial review, sit in the chair of the appointing authority to decide what is best for the employer and interpret the conditions of the advertisement contrary to the plain language of the same."

34. Similar issue has been dealt with by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank vs. Anit Kumar8 where the Apex Court held:

"7.3. Thus, as held by this Court in the aforesaid decisions, it is for the employer to determine and decide the relevancy and suitability of the qualifications for any post and it is not for the Courts to consider and assess. A greater latitude is permitted by the Courts for the employer to prescribe qualifications for any post. There is a rationale behind it. Qualifications are prescribed keeping in view the need and interest of an Institution or an Industry or an establishment as the case may be. The Courts are not fit instruments to assess expediency or advisability or utility of such prescription of qualifications. However, at the same time, the employer cannot act arbitrarily or fancifully in prescribing qualifications for posts. In the present case, prescribing the eligibility criteria/educational qualification that a graduate candidate shall not be eligible and the candidate must have passed 12th standard is justified and as observed hereinabove, it is a conscious decision taken by the Bank which is in force since 2008. Therefore, the High Court has clearly erred in directing the Appellant Bank to allow the Respondent-original writ Petitioner to discharge his duties as a Peon, though he as such was not eligible as per the eligibility criteria/educational qualification mentioned in the advertisement."

35. A Full Bench of this Court in Deepak Singh Vs. State of U.P.9 has observed:-

"52. Now we proceed to deal with the reference in the case of Himani Singh v. State of U.P., the advertisement in question prescribed the qualification of Graduate in Commerce "O' level Diploma issued by any Government Recognised Institution. The petitioners were non-suited as they hold a Post-Graduate Diploma in Computer Application. Thus, the claim of the petitioners, before the learned Single Judge, was that their qualifications are superior to the prescribed qualification i.e. "O' level Diploma in Computer Application. In the said case, the Uttar Pradesh Subordinate Services Selection Commission, Lucknow had issued a Notification on 27.8.2018 notifying 13 that the "O' level Diploma in Computer Application had been specified as essential eligibility qualification and it further provided that there does not exist any Government Order specifying the equivalent of qualification with "O' level Diploma in Computer Operation and that National Institute of Electronics and Information Technology (hereinafter referred to "NIELIT'), earlier DOEAC Society had informed that apart from NIELIT no other institution was authorized to grant "O' level Certificate in Computer Operation. The learned Single Judge, in his judgement dated 04.12.2018, rejected the contention of the petitioners therein relying upon the earlier decision of the learned Single Judge in Civil Misc. Writ Petition No. 19687 of 2018 (Yogendra Singh Rana v. State of U.P.). While dismissing the said writ petition, learned Single Judge held that the assessment with regard to the suitability of the higher qualification with a higher proficiency in the field of Computer Operation is in the field of policy and would not justify interference by the Writ Court. Before the Special Appeal Court, the petitioners had argued that the judgement of the Yogendra Rana (supra) is subject matter of pending appeal in which interim order has also been passed. It was thus argued before the Special Appeal Court that in view of decision in the case of Jyoti K.K. (supra) and Parvez Ahmad Parry (supra), the matter requires to be considered by the larger Bench that is how the matter was referred vide order dated 15.2.2019.

36. A Division Bench of Delhi High Court in Vincent Nirmala vs. Union of India & ors10 , came across the following question :

" Petitioner impugns condition at Serial No. 9 in Schedule I of the National Company Law Tribunal (Recruitment, Salary and other Terms and Conditions of Service of Officers and other Employees) Rules, 2020 (hereinafter referred to as the Rules), issued by Respondent No. 1, to the extent that they prescribe a degree in law as a qualification for an Assistant to be promoted to the post of Court Officer in Respondent No. 3, National Company Law Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as the NCLT)."

The Division Bench while relying on the judgement passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in P.U. Joshi held :

" Supreme Court in P.U. Joshi (supra) has held that prescription of qualifications and other conditions of service including avenues of promotions and criteria to be fulfilled for such promotions pertain to the field of policy and is within the exclusive discretion and jurisdiction of the State and it is not for the Courts to direct the Government to have a particular method of recruitment or eligibility criteria or avenues of promotion or impose itself by substituting its views for that of the State. It is also open and within the competency of the State to change the rules relating to a service and alter or amend and vary by addition/subtraction the qualifications, eligibility criteria and other conditions of service including avenues of promotion, from time to time, as the administrative exigencies may need or necessitate. There is no right in any employee of the State to claim that rules governing conditions of his service should be forever the same as the one when he entered service for all purposes and except for ensuring or safeguarding rights or benefits already earned, acquired or accrued at a particular point of time, a government servant has no right to challenge the authority of the State to amend, alter and bring into force new rules relating to even an existing service."

37. In view of the aforementioned law as pronounced by the Apex Court, this Court proceeds to answer the point no.I as follows.

38. In the facts as enumerated in detail we do not find that the present matter is fit to take a judicial review of the qualification prescribed by the employer/IIT, Kanpur under direct recruitment.

ISSUE NO.II

39. It is reflected from the record that the maximum age prescribed for direct recruitment qua the post in question was 55 years, whereas admittedly, the appellant has crossed 59 years' age. Even on this score, the appellant is not eligible for direct recruitment for this reason alone. Other than the above criteria, the other essential qualification had also been determined by the Board of Governors of the IIT Kanpur in its 251st meeting held on December 11, 2022, (as is evident from page 299 and 301 of the paper book), wherein the Board had approved the creation of a new designation for a Senior Engineer position (Senior Superintending Engineer) against the sanctioned Group A Officers' positions and the advertisement to fill up one post of Senior Superintending Engineer, one post of Superintending Engineer and five posts of Executive Engineer, as a part of the mission mode recruitment drive.

40. We find that since Rule 6 of IIT Rules, 2018 empowers the Board of Governors to permit the lateral entry of external candidates and the essential qualification was also provided under the Board's resolution dated 11.12.2022, wherein the essential qualification for the post of Executive Engineer was also laid down and in absence of any challenge to the same, no relief could be accorded to the appellant-petitioner. As in latin it says

Subla Fundamento cadit opus i.e. A foundation being removed, the superstructure falls. Hence till the root cause is not struck down the concequential act cannot be washed away.

41. The Hon'ble Apex Court in Dr. Thingujam Achouba Singh and others v. Dr. H.N. Nabachandra Singh and others11, dealt with the issue, the relevent question is extracted hereunder ;

" Inspite of the fact that in all the three writ petitions, advertisement dated 16.08.2016 inviting applications to fill up the post of Director was under challenge, and no challenge to the Rules and Regulations governing the recruitment to the post of Director was made; the High Court however has gone into the validity of recruitment Rules and recorded finding that Rules were not amended as per the Rules, Regulations and Bye Laws of the Society. Further, notification is quashed on the ground that after amendment to the Rules, such Rules were not notified to public at large, as such, they were not in the public domain. The High Court has also held that the experience criteria as prescribed by the Medical Council of India Regulations was not prescribed in the advertisement and such Regulations would have a binding effect, for filling up the post of Director in RIMS. Consequently, further direction is issued to the competent authority to consider providing relaxation in respect of upper age limit or the qualification as sought by the writ Petitioner therein."

The Hon'ble Apex Court, while testing the legality of challenge to the consequential order without any challenge to the validity of the Rules and Regulations, held;

"..... We are of the view that the High Court has committed, an error in going into the validity of the Rules, in absence of any challenge to the same. In any event, it was the case of the Respondent authorities that the Rules governing appointment were amended by following the Rules and such amendment was also approved by the competent authority, of Ministry of Health & Family Welfare. Further, the fact of not notifying the amended Rules has also been made basis for grant of relief by the High Court. In this regard, the High Court has held that not notifying the amended Rules would strike at the root of the amendment process of the recruitment rules, as such, unless such Rules are notified, the same cannot be enforced. It appears from the impugned order itself that it was the specific plea in the counter affidavit filed before the High Court that the said Rules were not framed Under Article 309 of the Constitution of India and further there is no specific provision in the Rules, Regulations and Bye-Laws of RIMS for notifying the same. It is true that in a public institution, Rules are required to be made available, but at the same time not notifying to public at large cannot be the ground to invalidate the notification, in the absence of any provision to that effect in the Bye-Laws of the Society or the Rules and Regulations framed for recruitment to the post of Director."

42. In P.Chitranjan Menon & ors. Vs. A. Balakrishnan & ors.12, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that in absence of challenge to the basic order, subsequent consequential order cannot be challenged. The relevent para is reproduced as below:-

" 9 . While the earlier judgments were all decided against the respondents, the Kerala High Court in the judgment under appeal took a different view. The decision under appeal proceeds on the basis that a regrettable mistake crept into the judgment in O.P. No. 1431 of 1970 and the earlier decision proceeded on the basis that there was a III Grade mentioned in G.O. 814 dated 17th November, 1962. The High Court was of the view that there was a III Grade under the G O. above referred to, the earlier decision missed the fact that these Grades were not applicable on 1st January, 1962. Though G.O. 814 of 1962 was not placed before us we are not sure whether there was any mistake in the earlier judgment for the G.O. MS 97/67 dated 11th March, 1967, refers to persons being transferred from the Malabar District Board as Panchayat Executive Officers III Grade. Be that as it may we are satisfied that the respondents are not entitled to the reliefs prayed for by them in the writ petitions. As the appellants were promoted to a higher post before the respondent were integrated into the Government Service on 1st January, 1962. Further throughout the appellants have been treated as occupying a higher post and respondents much lower post. Though the promotion of the appellants was before 1st January, 1962, and was confirmed by various orders of the Government the respondents herein did not choose to challenge the orders till the year 1974. In the circumstances, we are satisfied that the order of the Kerala High Court has to be set aside and the appeal is allowed with costs. "

43. Roshan Lal & ors. Vs. International Airport Authority of India & ors.13, wherein the petitions were primarily confined to the seniority list and the Apex Court held that challenge to appointment orders could not be entertained because of inordinate delay and in absence of the same, validity of consequential seniority cannot be examined. In such a case, a party is under a legal obligation to challenge the basic order and if and only if the same is found to be wrong, consequential orders may be examined.

44. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Edukanti Kistamma v. S. Venkatareddy14 held as follows:-

"12. It is a settled legal proposition that challenge to consequential order without challenging the basic order/statutory provision on the basis of which the order has been passed cannot be entertained. Therefore, it is a legal obligation on the part of the party to challenge the basic order and only if the same is found to be wrong, consequential order may be examined (vide P. Chitharangja Menon v. A Balakrishnan (1977) 3 SCC 255; H.V. Pardasani v. Union of India (1985) 2 SCC 46 and Govt. of Maharashtra v. Deokar's Distillery (2003) 3 SCC 669."

45. In the light of the discussions, as above and in absence of serious challenge to the Rules, 2018 and the Board of Governor's resolution dated 23.12.2022, we find that learned Single Judge has not erred in law to appreciate the belated attempt.

46. While considering the facts and law as elucidated above and relevant Rules/Regulations, which have been brought on record by the contesting respondents through the counter affidavit before learned Single Judge, we are of the opinion, that for the reason best known to the appellant-petitioner, there was no such challenge to the Rules/Regulations, which were duly adopted and enacted by the Competent Authority, therefore, the consequential recruitment process which was adopted by the employer/IIT Kanpur, cannot be held to be an arbitrary exercise which may warrant any interference in the intra court appeal.

CONCLUSION

47. In view of the facts and relevant authorities of Apex Court holding the field and in view of the discussion made above, we are of the considered opinion that there is no infirmity in the recruitment process adopted by the employee/IIT Kanpur.

48. In an Intra-Court Special Appeal, no interference is usually warranted unless palpable infirmities or perversities are noticed on a plain reading of the impugned judgment and order. In the facts and circumstances of the instant case, on a plain reading of the impugned judgment and order, we do not notice any such palpable infirmity or perversity. As such, we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned judgment and order dated 11.3.2024. The judgement and order of learned Single Judge dated 11.3.2024 dismissing the writ petition suffers from no error of law and same is upheld.

49. For reasons stated above, the Special Appeal is liable to be dismissed and stands, accordingly, dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2450
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 09.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARUN BHANSALI, C.J.
THE HON'BLE VIKAS BUDHWAR, J.

Special Appeal Defective No. 358 of 2024

Jagran Prakashan Ltd. ...Appellant
Versus
Shri Krishna Mohan Trivedi & Ors. ..Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Chandra Bhan Gupta

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Man Mohan Singh

Labour Law - Uttar Pradesh Industrial Disputes Act - 4-K- Reference of disputes to Labour Court or Tribunal – Maintainability - The impugned order neither in the category of judgment, order or award passed by the Tribunal, Court or Statutory Arbitrator nor an order passed in exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction by the Government or Officer or Authority – Title of an application/claim and reference does not determine the jurisdiction of a forum- The same only depends on the substance of the application/claim/demand. (Para - 11, 27)

Respondent-workman approached Deputy Labour Commissioner - demand illegal and unjustified termination of service - Appellant filed written St.ment before the Authority and Authority referred the dispute to the Labour Court, under Section 4-K of the UPID Act - The workman filed his St.ment of claim - During the pendency of the proceedings - already pending for over four years - Writ Petition filed on 11.12.2023 - questioning the very reference before the Labour Court – Writ Court - Held, reference can be made by the St. Government - dismissed – Hence, instant special appeal - Dismissed (Para - 13, 14, 15, 32)

Held: The provisions of section 4-K reveal that industrial dispute, contained in the First Schedule, is required to be referred to a Labour Court. The reference was made to provisions of Section 16-A of the WJ Act and 2A of the Central ID Act in the demand, before the Deputy Labour Commissioner and in the claim before the Labour Court, which led to the dismissal of the workman, wherein reference has been made to the dispute pertaining to the recommendations and implementation of the Wage Board, it cannot bring the subject matter of dispute as that of wages, i.e., instead of the same being in relation to the dismissal, the same would be that of wages. As the dispute is pending before the Labour Court for over four years and it has not yet proceeded even to the stage of cross-examination. (Para - 29,33)

Appeal is dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. M/s Vajara Yojana Seed Farm, Kalyanpur & ors. Vs Presiding Officer, Labour Court II, U.P., Kanpur & anr.: (2003) 1 UPLBEC 496

2. Sheet Gupta Vs St. of U.P. & ors. : AIR 2010 ALL 46 (FB)

3. Central Mine Planning and Design Institute Limited Vs U.O.I.& anr.: (2001) 2 SCC 588.

4. Jagaran Prakashan Limited Vs Presiding Officer, Labour Court : 2020 (167) FLR 412

5. Bureau Chief Rastriya Sahara & anr.Vs Labour Commissioner, U.P. & ors. (Writ C No. 23241 of 2016)

6. Hind Filters Limited & anr.Vs Hind Filters Employees' Union & anr.: 2023 INSC 799

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arun Bhansali, C.J.)

1. Heard Shri Sanjay Kaushal, learned Senior Counsel, assisted by Shri Chandra Bhan Gupta and Shri Manoj Kumar Dubey, learned counsel for the appellant, Shri Man Mohan Singh, learned counsel for respondent No. 1 and Shri Manish Goyal, learned Additional Advocate General, assisted by Shri Ankit Gaur, learned Standing Counsel for the State-respondents.

2. This special appeal, under Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Allahabad High Court Rules (for short 'Rules'), is directed against order dated 11.12.2023, passed by learned Single Judge in Writ – C No. 39505 of 2023, whereby the said writ petition along with 60 other connected writ petitions, filed by the appellant/petitioner-Company, aggrieved of the reference made by the State Government to the Labour Court, Gautam Buddh Nagar, under Section 4-K of the Uttar Pradesh Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short 'UPID Act'), has been dismissed.

3. The office has reported the appeal as barred by 98 days.

4. An application, supported by affidavit, seeking condonation of delay in filing the appeal has been filed.

5. Though the affidavit, giving out reasons for condonation of delay, is very cursory and only formality sake, as the application is not contested by learned counsel for the respondents, the delay in filing the appeal is condoned.

6. The office has also raised objection that the appeal appears to be not maintainable, in view of the Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Rules. Learned counsel for the respondents has also raised objection to the maintainability of the appeal and placed reliance on M/s Vajara Yojana Seed Farm, Kalyanpur and others Vs. Presiding Officer, Labour Court II, U.P., Kanpur and another : (2003) 1 UPLBEC 496.

7. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the issue raised about the maintainability has no substance as the present case does not fall in any of the categories, wherein the special appeal has been held to be not maintainable. Reliance is placed on Sheet Gupta Vs. State of U.P.

and Others : AIR 2010 ALL 46 (FB) and Central Mine Planning and Design Institute Limited Vs. Union of India and Anothers : (2001) 2 SCC 588.

8. We have considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties on the aspect of maintainability of the special appeal. The provisions of Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Rules, inter alia, read as under:

"5. Special Appeal: - An appeal shall lie to the Court from a judgment (not being a judgment passed in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction) in respect of a decree or order made by a Court subject to the superintendence of the Court and not being an order made in the exercise of revisional jurisdiction or in the exercise of its power of superintendence or in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction or in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by Article 226 or Article 227 of the Constitution in respect of any judgment, order or award – (a) of a tribunal, Court or statutory arbitrator made or purported to be made in the exercise or purported exercise of jurisdiction under any Uttar Pradesh Act or under any Central Act, with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the State List or the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, or (b) of the Government or any officer or authority, made or purported to be made in the exercise or purported exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction under any such Act of one Judge."

9. A Full Bench of this Court, in the case of Sheet Gupta (supra), wherein on account of conflict in two Division Bench Judgement of this Court including in Vajara Yojana Seed Farm (supra), relied on by learned counsel for the respondent, came to the following conclusion:

"18. Having given our anxious consideration to the various plea raised by the learned counsel for the parties, we find that from the perusal of Chapter VIII Rule 5 of the Rules a special appeal shall lie before this Court from the judgment passed by one Judge of the Court. However, such special appeal will not lie in the following circumstances:

1. The judgment passed by one Judge in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction, in respect of a decree or order made by a Court subject to the Superintendence of the Court;

2. The order made by one Judge in the exercise of revisional jurisdiction;

3. The order made by one Judge in the exercise of the power of Superintendence of the High Court;

4. The order made by one Judge in the exercise of criminal jurisdiction;

5. The order made by one Judge in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by Article 226 or Article 227 of the Constitution of India in respect of any judgment, order or award by

(i) the Tribunal,

(ii) Court or

(iii) Statutory Arbitrator

made or purported to be made in the exercise or purported exercise of jurisdiction under any Uttar Pradesh Act or under any Central Act, with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the State List or the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India;

6. The order made by one Judge in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by Article 226 or 227 of the Constitution of India in respect of any judgment, order or award of

(i) the Government, or
(ii) any Officer or
(iii) Authority made or purported to be made in the exercise or purported exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction under any such Act, i.e., under any Uttar Pradesh Act or under any Central Act, with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the State List or the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India."

10. A perusal of the above would reveal that the order made by one Judge in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by Article 226 or Article 227 of the Constitution of India, in respect of any judgement, order or award by (i) the Tribunal, (ii) Courts or (iii) Statutory Arbitrator, made or purported to be made in exercise or purported exercise of jurisdiction under any Uttar Pradesh Act or under any Central Act with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the State List or the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India and the order made by one Judge in the exercise of jurisdiction by Article 226 or Article 227 of the Constitution of India in respect of any judgment, order or award of (i) the Government or (ii) any Officer or (iii) Authority made or purported to be made in the exercise or purported exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction under any such Act, i.e., under any Uttar Pradesh Act or under any Central Act with respect to any of the matters enumerated in the State List or the Concurrent List in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India, the appeal would not be maintainable.

11. In the present case, the order impugned has been passed by the State Government exercising powers under the UPID Act and against the said order, the judgment impugned has been passed by learned Single Judge. The said impugned order would fall neither in the category of judgment, order or award passed by the Tribunal, Court or Statutory Arbitrator nor an order passed in exercise of appellate or revisional jurisdiction by the Government or Officer or Authority and therefore, it cannot be said that the present appeal, against the order passed by learned Single Judge, would not be maintainable. The judgment in the case of Vajara Yojana Seed Farm (supra), would have no application to the present case, wherein the Division Bench was dealing with appeals arising out of writ petitions in which the award of Labour Court was challenged, which is not the case in the present appeal.

12. Having cleared the decks about the maintainability of the appeal, the appeal is being considered on merit.

13. The respondent-workman approached the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Department of Labour, Uttar Pradesh, Gautam Buddh Nagar (NOIDA), raising demand regarding illegal and unjustified termination of his service vide order dated 05.03.2016. In the application, made by the workman/claimant, reference was made to Section 16-A of the Working Journalists and Other Newspaper Employees (Conditions of Service) and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1955 (for short 'WJ Act') and Section 2-A of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (for short 'Central ID Act'). The appellant-Management, filed its written statement before the Authority and the Authority, by its order dated 01.08.2019, referred the dispute to the Labour Court, Gautam Buddh Nagar under Section 4-K of the UPID Act. The respondent-workman filed his statement of claim before the Labour Court, Gautam Buddh Nagar and the same was contested by the appellant. A rejoinder was filed, list of documents were submitted and preliminary issue as to whether the domestic enquiry was held against the principles of natural justice was framed on 20.09.2021, whereafter it appears that the matter is stuck at the said stage, wherein the same is fixed for cross-examination of the workman by the appellant-employer.

14. During the pendency of the proceedings before the Labour Court, which was already pending for over four years, present writ petition came to be filed on 11.12.2023 questioning the very reference before the Labour Court under provisions of Section 4-K of the UPID Act.

15. Learned Single Judge, with reference to judgment in Jagaran Prakashan Limited Vs. Presiding Officer, Labour Court : 2020 (167) FLR 412 and Bureau Chief Rastriya Sahara and another Vs. Labour Commissioner, U.P. and others: Writ – C No. 23241 of 2016 and other connected matters decided on 03.04.2023, wherein the petitioner -Jagaran Prakashan was also a petitioner in Writ – C No. 22872 of 2016, came to the conclusion that the Court has already taken a view that reference can be made by the State Government and the said orders having not been assailed by the appellant, came to the conclusion that no case for interference was made out and consequently, dismissed the writ petitions.

16. Learned counsel for the appellant made vehement submissions that the two judgments, relied on by the learned Single Judge, only deal with the issue of the State Government being the appropriate Government, which was not the issue raised in the present writ petition. The core issue was as to whether the reference could be made under the UPID Act or the same was required to be made under the Central ID Act by the State Government and that too to the Industrial Tribunal and not the Labour Court. Further submissions have been made that the workman, in his demand before he Deputy Labour Commissioner, made specific reference to provisions of Section 16-A of the WJ Act and Section 2A of the Central ID Act and that as the plea, in the demand notice, before the Deputy Labour Commissioner and the claim, before the Labour Court, are based on the provisions of WJ Act in relation to the wages, the said subject matter would fall within the Third Schedule of the Central ID Act and in terms of Section 10(1)(d) of the Central ID Act, the dispute could only be referred to the Industrial Tribunal and as, admittedly, the Labour Court at NOIDA is not an Industrial Tribunal, the matter could not have been referred to the Labour Court. Submissions have also been made that the proviso to Section 10(1)(d) of the Central ID Act would not be attracted in the present case as according to the respondent's own assertion, 150 workmen are affected by the demand of wages raised, which resulted in his termination and therefore, the judgment impugned passed by learned Single Judge as well as the reference made by the State Government deserves to be set aside. Reliance has been placed on Hind Filters Limited and Another Vs. Hind Filters Employees' Union and Another : 2023 INSC 799.

17. Learned counsel for the respondent-workman contested the submissions made. It was reiterated that the issue raised is squarely covered by orders passed in appellant's own challenge laid earlier to the jurisdiction of the State Government and referring the dispute to the Labour Court and as such, the learned Single Judge was justified in dismissing the writ petitions. It is emphasized that irrespective of making reference to the provisions of WJ Act and Central ID Act, the crux of the matter is that the respondent-workman had questioned the validity of his dismissal by the appellant-employer, which dispute squarely falls within the Second Schedule of Central ID Act and First Schedule of UPID Act and has rightly been referred to the Labour Court by the State Government under provisions of Section 4-K of the UPID Act, which is, in substance, pari materia with provisions of Section 10 of the Central ID Act and therefore, the appeal deserves dismissal.

18. We have considered the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record.

19. It is surprising, as to how, after four years of the reference made by the State Government on 01.08.2019, in the year 2023, after contesting the matter before the Labour Court, the issue of reference being without jurisdiction has dawned on the petitioner-appellant.

20. Be that as it may, the plea, raised is that the present dispute, could not have been referred to the Labour Court though the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Gautam Buddh Nagar had the jurisdiction to refer the matter, which could only be referred to an Industrial Tribunal. The foundation of the said arguments, as noticed hereinbefore, lies in the fact that the demand raised, before the Deputy Labour Commissioner, by the workman made reference to provisions of Section 16-A of the WJ Act and Section 2A of the Central ID Act. The said aspect was reiterated in the claim, filed before the Labour Court, pursuant to the reference made by the State Government.

21. A perusal of the demand raised before the Deputy Labour Commissioner as well as the claim filed before the Labour Court would reveal that though the same in the title/subject matter makes reference to the said two statutes, in the demand raised and claim filed, reference to the provisions of WJ Act has been made only as a pre-cursor, which led to the dispute and ultimate dismissal of the workman.

22. The prayer made before the Deputy Labour Commissioner, inter alia, reads as under:

"PRAYER

In view of the submissions made hereinabove and also in view of the facts and circumstances of the case, the Claimant/workman prays for intervention as per law for facilitating justice to the Claimant/workman in getting back his employment with the management/opposite party who deprived him from that. The management be made to see reason and recall the impugned order alleged to have been issued on 05.03.2016 along with the report of the sham enquiry conducted by it and advised to reinstate the Claimant/workman in service with full back wages and consequential benefits of service. The Claimant/workman also prays for any other order or orders as the Esteemed Authority may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case.

The Claimant/workman prays accordingly."

23. Similarly, in the claim filed before the Labour Court, the following prayer was made:

"PRAYER

In view of the submissions made hereinabove by the Workman/Applicant, it is most respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to direct the Management to:

i) Reinstate the Workman in service by quashing and setting aside alleged order dated 05.03.2016 passed on the basis of the findings of defective enquiry conducted by a biased and prejudiced Enquiry Officer and by quashing and setting aside the illegal suspension/termination of the workman by allowing him to resume his duties with back wages and continuity of service and with all other consequential reliefs applicable to his service with the Management as if his services were never terminated;

ii) Make payment of Pay and Allowances for the period of illegal suspension/termination with admissible interest;

iii) Pay costs of this litigation; and

iv) Pass any other order/orders as may be deemed fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case."

24. A bare perusal of the above would reveal that the workman has sought setting aside of the order of termination, agitating the enquiry as defective and has claimed back wages and continuity in service with other consequential reliefs along with pay and allowances for the period of suspension/termination with admissible interest. No relief worth the name in relation to the wages in terms of the provisions of the WJ Act and the implementation of the recommendation of the Wage Board and payment of the revised wages has been sought/made.

25. The order of reference made by the Deputy Labour Commissioner dated 01.08.2019, inter alia, reads as under:

"औद्योगिक विवाद का विवरण

क्या सेवायोजक द्वारा अपने कर्मचारी कृष्ण मोहन त्रिवेदी, पुत्र श्री अनिल कुमार तिवारी, पद इलेक्ट्रिशियन की सेवाएं दिनांक 05–03–2016 को समाप्त किया जाना उचित अथवा वैधानिक है? यदि नहीं, तो संबंधित कर्मचारी अपने सेवायोजक से किस हित लाभ/ आनुतोष (रिलिफ) पाने का अधिकारी है एवं अन्य किस? विवरण सहित।

(पी0के0सिंह)
उप श्रमायुक्त, उ0प्र0
नोएडा, गौतमबुद्ध नगर
दिनांक 1.8.19"

26. A perusal of the above would also reveal that the reference made is in relation to the validity of the order of termination dated 05.03.2016 and no reference whatsoever has been made to the element of wages. Admittedly, the Second Schedule of the Central ID Act, which enumerates matters within the jurisdiction of the Labour Court provides 'discharge or dismissal of workmen including reinstatement of, or grant of relief to, workmen wrongfully dismissed' and similar is the position in the UPID Act, wherein in the First Schedule, identical entry has been indicated.

27. It is well settled that the title of an application/claim and reference made therein does not determine the jurisdiction of a forum. The same only depends on the substance of the application/claim/demand. As such the reliance placed solely on the reference made to provisions of WJ Act and Central ID Act by the appellant, cannot be accepted.

28. Provisions of Section 4-K of the UPID Act, inter alia, reads as under:

"4-K. Reference of disputes to Labour Court or Tribunal – Where the State Government is of opinion that any industrial dispute exists or is apprehended, it may at any time by order in writing refer the dispute or any matter appearing to be connected with, or relevant to, the dispute to a Labour Court if the matter of industrial dispute is one of those contained in the First Schedule, or to a Tribunal if the matter of dispute is one contained in the First Schedule or the Second Schedule for adjudication.

Provided that where the dispute relates to any matter specified in the Second Schedule and is not likely to affect more than one hundred workmen, the State Government may, if it so thinks fit, make the reference to a Labour Court."

29. A perusal of the above provisions reveal that industrial dispute, contained in the First Schedule, is required to be referred to a Labour Court. The plea, sought to be raised by the appellant-petitioner only on account of the fact that reference was made to provisions of Section 16-A of the WJ Act and 2A of the Central ID Act in the demand, before the Deputy Labour Commissioner and in the claim before the Labour Court, enumerating the events, which led to the dismissal of the workman, wherein reference has been made to the dispute pertaining to the recommendations and implementation of the Wage Board, by itself, cannot bring the subject matter of dispute as that of wages, i.e., instead of the same being in relation to the dismissal, the same would be that of wages. The very fact that the Labour Court has framed preliminary issue about validity of the domestic enquiry also substantiates the said aspect.

30. Insofar as, reliance placed on the judgment in the case of Hind Filters Limited (supra) is concerned, the subject matter of the dispute referred by the Labour Commissioner as noticed in para 10 of the judgment, pertains to wages only, which is not the case in the reference made in the present case, as such, the said judgment has no application to the present case.

31. In view of the above facts situation, the plea, raised by the appellant, wherein there is an admission pertaining to the appropriate Government being the State Government in light of the decided cases of the appellant-organization as laid down by learned Single Judge, the fresh plea raised, based only on the indications made in the demand and the claim, has no substance.

32. Consequently, no case is made out for interference in the judgment impugned passed by the learned Single Judge though on different grounds. The appeal is, therefore, dismissed.

33. As the dispute is pending before the Labour Court for over four years and it has not yet proceeded even to the stage of cross-examination on the aspect of fairness of the enquiry, the Labour Court is directed to proceed with the matter with utmost expedition as the termination pertains to the year 2016.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2457
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 15.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIVEK KUMAR BIRLA, J.
THE HON'BLE SYED QAMAR HASAN RIZVI, J.

First Appeal No. 373 of 2024

Dheeraj ...Appellant
Versus
Smt. Chetna Goswami ...Respondent

Counsel for the Appellant:
Satyendra Narayan Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:

Family Law - Family Courts Act, 1984 – Section 19 - Respondent (Wife) filed petition - Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 - Section 25 - Family Court, Ghaziabad seeking custody of her child - Appellant in Writ Petition came to know through Court Notice published in newspaper - Filed application under Order VII Rule 11 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 – Raised Objection-Lacks territorial jurisdiction to entertain the case – Application Rejected – Hence, instant appeal (Para - 1,3,4,5)

Held: The question whether the minor is ordinarily residing at a given place is a question of fact which cannot be decided without an enquiry into the factual aspects of the case. Moreover, the residence by volition or by compulsion within the territorial jurisdiction of the Court cannot be treated as place of ordinary residence. The words "ordinarily resides" are not identical and cannot have the same meaning as residence at the time of filing of the application for grant of custody. The purpose of using the expressions "where the minor ordinarily resides" is perhaps to avoid the mischief that minor may be forcibly removed to a distant place, but still the application for minor's custody could be filed within the jurisdiction of the Court from whose jurisdiction he had been removed. The scope of scrutiny at the stage of consideration of an application under Order VII, Rule 11 of Civil Procedure Code 1908 is confined only to the averments made in the petition. (Para - 30, 32)

Appeal is dismissed. (E-13)

List of Cases cited:

1. Jagdish Chandra Gupta Vs Dr. Ku. Vimla Gupta, reported in AIR 2003 All 317

2. Manish Sehgal Vs Meenu Sehgal reported in (2013) 202 DLT 87

3. Ruchi Majoo Vs Sanjeev Majoo reported in (2011) 6 SCC 479

4. Jagir Kaur Vs Jaswant Singh reported in AIR 1963 SC 1521 : (1963) 2 Cri LJ 413

5. Prashant Chanana Vs Mrs. Seema alias Priya, reported in AIR 2010 P&H 99

6. Kamla & ors. Vs KT Eshwara Sa & ors., reported in (2008) 12 SCC 661

7. Saleem Bhai & ors. Vs St. of Mah. and another & ors., reported in (2003) 1 SCC 557

8. Srihari Hanumandas Totala Vs Hemant Vithal Kamat & ors. reported in (2021) 9 SCC 99

(Delivered by Hon'ble Syed Qamar Hasan Rizvi, J.)

1. This Appeal under Section 19 of the Family Courts Act, 1984 arises out of the judgment and order dated 18.03.2024 passed by the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court No. 4, Ghaziabad in Misc. Case No. 15/2021 under section 25 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 (Smt. Chetna Goswami versus Dheeraj).

2. The grievance of the appellant is that the learned Court below, vide impugned order dated 18.03.2024, has rejected his application filed under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

3. The relevant facts of the case, in brief, are that the respondent, Smt. Chetna Goswami filed a petition having Case No. 15 of 2021 under section 25 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, before the learned Family Court at Ghaziabad seeking custody of her child, namely, Master Kunj having date of birth as 18.08.2013.

4. The case of the appellant as narrated in the writ petition is that after coming to know about the case through

Court Notice published on 22.10.2021 in the newspaper 'Rastriya Sahara', he preferred an application under Order VII Rule 11 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in Case No. 15 of 2021 pending before the Court of Additional Principal Judge, Family Court No. 4, Ghaziabad, inter alia, praying for the dismissal of the aforesaid case filed by the respondent under Section 25 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890. The ground taken by the Appellant in the said application filed under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 was that Family Court at Ghaziabad lacks territorial jurisdiction to entertain the said case, as the minor is currently studying at K.M. Public School (Senior Secondary), Bhiwani, Haryana.

5. The learned Court below on the basis of the averments made in the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, passed a detailed order dated 18.03.2024 whereby the application filed by the appellant was rejected. For a ready reference, extract of the said order dated 18.03.2024 passed by the Additional Principal Judge, Family Court, Court No. 4, Ghaziabad is being reproduced below:

"6- पत्रावली के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि प्रार्थनी की ओर से प्रस्तुत वाद विपक्षी के विरुद्ध अंतर्गत धारा 25 गार्जियन वार्ड्स एक्ट प्रस्तुत वाद विपक्षी के विरुद्ध अंतर्गत धारा 25 गार्जियन वार्ड्स एक्ट प्रस्तुत करके अपने नाबालिग पुत्र कुंज की अभिरक्षा विपक्षी से हटाकर प्रार्थनी को दिए जाने के अनुतोष हेतु प्रस्तुत किया गया है। पत्रावली के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि विपक्षी का स्थाई पता आवास सं० जी-133, संजयनगर, सेक्टर-23 थाना कविनगर, जनपद गाजियाबाद है। विपक्षी द्वारा पत्रावली में दाखिल अपना आधार कार्ड की छायाप्रति के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि उसका स्थाई पता जनपद गाजियाबाद है, जिससे विपक्षी इन्कार नहीं करता है। प्रार्थना पत्र 27 में के माध्यम से विपक्षी का यह कहना है कि वर्तमान में उसका पुत्र भिवानी, हरियाणा में शिक्षा ग्रहण कर रहा है व विपक्षी का अस्थायी पता भितानी, हरियाणा है, जिसके समर्थन में उसने कागजात 36 ग/2 ता ग 36 / 5 दाखिल किए है। उक्त कागजात के अवलोकन से यह स्पष्ट होता है कि भिवानी, हरियाणा में विपक्षी का पता अस्थाई है जबकि उसका स्थाई पता जनपद गाजियाबाद में है।

7- Section 9(1) Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 deals with Court having jurisdiction to entertain application. It confers that if the application with respect to the guardianship of the person of the minor, it shall be made to the District Court having jurisdiction in the place where the minor ordinarily resides.

8- उक्त प्राविधान से स्पष्ट है कि न्यायालय की क्षेत्राधिकारिता कथित नाबलिग के स्थाई निवास से ही निर्धारित होगी व इस कारण ही माननीय प्रधान न्यायाधीश द्वारा प्रस्तुत वाद दर्ज रजिस्टर कर विपक्षी को नोटिस प्रेषित किया गया। कथित नाबालिग का स्थाई पता उसके पिता का स्थाई पता है, जो जनपद गाजियाबाद का है, जिसे उभयपक्ष स्वीकार भी करते है। नाबालिग को पढ़ाई के प्रयोजन से कही बाहर जनपद भिवानी हरियाणा ले जाए जाने से उसके स्थाई निवास के पते में कोई विपरीत प्रभाव नहीं पड़ता है विपक्षी के आधार व कागज सं० 36 ग /2 में भी पता अस्थाई ही दर्ज है। धारा 25 गार्जियन एण्ड वार्ड्स एक्ट के प्रार्थना पत्र के निस्तारण में न्यायालय को यह देखना है कि बच्चे का भविष्य किसके पास सुरक्षित है व कौन उसके भलाई के लिए उत्तम पक्ष होगा। जनपद गाजियाबाद के परिवार न्यायालय उक्त आदेश गुणदोष पर पारित करने का क्षेत्राधिकार हासिल है।

9- उपरोक्त सम्पूर्ण विवेचना के आधार पर यह निष्कर्ष निकलता है कि इस न्यायालय को प्रस्तुत वाद के सुनवाई का क्षेत्राधिकार हासिल है व प्रस्तुत दावा आदेश 7 नियम 11 सिविल प्रक्रिया संहिता के प्राविधान में बाधित नहीं कहा जा सकता है व तदनुसार प्रार्थना पत्र 27 में अन्तर्गत आदेश 7 नियत 11 सिविल प्रक्रिया संहिता निरस्त किये जाने योग्य है।

आदेश

विपक्षी का प्रार्थना पत्र 27ग अंतर्गत आदेश 7 नियम 11 सिविल प्रक्रिया संहिता निरस्त किया जाता है।

पत्रावली वास्ते सनुवाई प्रार्थना पत्र 26 ग जवाबदावा/तनकी दिनांक 30-04-2024 को पेश हो/"

6. Being aggrieved by the aforesaid order dated 18.03.2024, the appellant preferred the instant appeal. While pressing the appeal, the learned Counsel for the appellant most emphatically argued that the learned Court below, without taking into consideration the fact that when on 25.10.2023, the application under Order VII Rule 11 read with Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 was filed raising the question of territorial jurisdiction on account of the fact that the child lives in Bhiwani, Haryana and is receiving his education there. As such, petition under section 25 of the Guardians and Wards Act,1890 could not be filed or entertained in the Court having its jurisdiction at Ghaziabad.

7. It has further been pleaded that on 18.03.2024, the learned Family Court has dismissed the application filed under Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 on the ground that the jurisdiction for filing the Case shall be ascertained from the permanent residence, which does not mean permanent address of the ward. The appellant has further submitted that the Family Court has misinterpreted the provisions of Section 9 (1) of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 and has misconstrued the expression "where the minor ordinarily resides". It has further been submitted that the question vested in the expression "where the minor ordinarily resides" is a mixed question of fact and law and the same cannot be answered without holding enquiry into the factual aspect of the controversy.

8. Heard Sri Satyendra Narain Singh, learned counsel for the appellant and perused the material available on record.

9. The question that has culled out for consideration in the instant appeal is whether the learned court below has committed any illegality while deciding the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 by interpreting the provisions of Section 9 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890.

10. For the better appreciation of the case, Section 9 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 is being reproduced below:

"9. Court having jurisdiction to entertain application

(1) If the application is with respect to the guardianship of the person of the minor, it shall be made to the District Court having jurisdiction in the place where the minor ordinarily resides.

(2) If the application is with respect to the guardianship of the property of the minor, it may be made either to the District Court having jurisdiction in the place where the minor ordinarily resides or to a District Court having jurisdiction in a place where he has property.

(3) If an application with respect to the guardianship of the property of a minor is made to a District Court other than that having jurisdiction in the place where the minor ordinarily resides, the Court may return the application if in its opinion the application would be disposed of more justly or conveniently by any other District Court having jurisdiction."

11. From a bare reading of section 9 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, it is evident that sub-section (1) of Section 9 identifies the Court competent to pass an order for the custody of the minor. Sub-sections (2) and (3) thereof deal with Courts that can be approached for guardianship of the property owned by the minor.

12. For determining the territorial jurisdiction of the Court under section 9 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, the expression "where the minor ordinarily resides" is the pivotal point for consideration. The said expression has been used in different contexts and has often come up for interpretation before the courts of law. While reading the said expression "where the minor ordinarily resides", it is imperative to see whether the minor is ordinarily residing at a given place? This is primarily a question of intention which, in turn, is a question of fact. It may at best be a mixed question of law and fact but unless jurisdictional facts are admitted, it can never be a pure question of law, capable of being answered without any enquiry into the factual aspects of the controversy.

13. While explaining the expression "where the minor ordinarily resides", the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jagdish Chandra Gupta versus Dr. Ku. Vimla Gupta, reported in AIR 2003 All 317, has been pleased to hold as under:

"19. The expression ordinarily resides and residing at the time of the application are not synonymous and stipulate different situations which are not inter-changeable. The place where the minor ordinarily resides indicates a place where the minor is expected to reside but for the special circumstances. It excludes places to which the minor may be removed) at or about the time of the filing of the application for the enforcement of the guardianship and custody of the minor. The place has to be determined by finding out as to whether the minor was ordinarily residing and where such residence would have continued but for the recent removal of the minor to different place."

14. Further, in the case of Manish Sehgal versus Meenu Sehgal reported in (2013) 202 DLT 87, rendered by the High Court of Delhi and affirmed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India vide its order dated 30.01.2014 in Manish Sehgal versus Meenu Sehgal, S.L.P. (Civil) No(s). 1590-1590 of 2014; it has been held as follows:

"16. It is settled law that the place of residence at the time of the filing of the application under the Act does not help to ascertain whether a particular court has jurisdiction to entertain the proceedings or not. The moving of minors from one place to another and consequently from one jurisdiction to another does not help the party who raises the plea of jurisdiction. The main question i.e. whether the minors were ordinarily residing in any particular place has to be primarily decided on the facts of the particular case.

17. In view of the abovesaid facts and circumstances as explained earlier, I am of the view that the impugned order cannot be interfered with. In view of facts stated in the petition, it is clear that the place where the children have gone to study cannot be presumed to be place of their ordinary residence."

15. In the case of Ruchi Majoo versus Sanjeev Majoo reported in (2011) 6 SCC 479, the Hon'ble Apex Court has examined the purpose of the expression "ordinarily resident" appearing in section 9 (1) of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 and observed as under:

"26....We may before doing so examine the true purpose of the expression "ordinarily resident" appearing in Section 9(1). This expression has been used in different contexts and statutes and has often come up for interpretation. Since liberal interpretation is the first and the foremost rule of interpretation it would be useful to understand the literal meaning of the two words that comprise the expression. The word "ordinary" has been defined by Black's Law Dictionary as follows:

"Ordinary (adj.).—Regular; usual; normal; common; often recurring; according to established order; settled; customary; reasonable; not characterised by peculiar or unusual circumstances; belonging to, exercised by, or characteristic of, the normal or average individual."

The word "reside" has been explained similarly as under:

"Reside.—Live, dwell, abide, sojourn, stay, remain, lodge. (Western-Knapp Engg. Co. v. Gilbank [129 F 2d 135 (CCA 9th Cir 1942)] , F 2d at p. 136.) To settle oneself or a thing in a place, to be stationed, to remain or stay, to dwell permanently or continuously, to have a settled abode for a time, to have one's residence or domicile; specifically, to be in residence, to have an abiding place, to be present as an element, to inhere as a quality, to be vested as a right. (Bowden v. Jensen [359 SW 2d 343 (Mo Banc 1962)] , SW 2d at p. 349.)"

16. The Webster's Dictionary also gives the word "reside" a similar meaning, which may be gainfully extracted as follows:

"1. To dwell for a considerable time; to make one's home; live. 2. To exist as an attribute or quality with in. 3. To be vested: with in."

17. In the case of Jagir Kaur versus Jaswant Singh reported in AIR 1963 SC 1521 : (1963) 2 Cri LJ 413, the Hon'ble Apex Court while dealing with a case under Section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and the question of jurisdiction of the court to entertain a petition for maintenance. The Court noticed a near unanimity of opinion as to what is meant by the use of the word "resides" appearing in the said provision and held that "resides" implies something more than a flying visit to, or casual stay at a particular place. The legal position was summed up in the following words: (AIR p. 1524, para 8)

"8. ... Having regard to the object sought to be achieved, the meaning implicit in the words used, and the construction placed by decided cases thereon, we would define the word 'resides' thus: a person resides in a place if he through choice makes it his abode permanently or even temporarily; whether a person has chosen to make a particular place his abode depends upon the facts of each case."

18. Further, in the case of Prashant Chanana versus Mrs. Seema alias Priya, reported in AIR 2010 P&H 99, it has been observed that Section 9 (1) makes it clear that it is the ordinary place of residence of the minor which determines the jurisdiction of a particular Court to entertain an application for guardianship of the minor. Such jurisdiction cannot be taken away by temporary residence elsewhere at the date of presentation of the challan.

19. Thus, a bare perusal of section 9 (1) of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 makes it apparent that it is the ordinary place of residence of minor which determines the jurisdiction of the Court for entertaining an application for guardianship of the minor. Such jurisdiction cannot be taken away by temporary residence elsewhere on the date of presentation of the petition. The fact that the minor is found actually residing at the place when the application for the guardianship of the minor is made does not determine the jurisdiction of the Court.

20. Coming to the factual matrix of the case, it would be apt to refer to the pleadings made in the application as preferred by the applicant under Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 before the Court below. In Paragraph 4 of affidavit filed in support of application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the appellant has deposed that the minor is currently residing at House No. 2644, Sector 13, Bhiwani, Haryana for the purpose of pursuing his studies at K.M. Public School (Senior Secondary), Bhiwani, Haryana. Further, in Paragraph No. 5 of the said affidavit, the appellant has stated that the minor is presently residing at House No. 2644, Sector 13, Bhiwani, Haryana and was residing at the same place on the date of filing of the said case. He has further stated that since the minor is not residing within the territorial jurisdiction of the Family Court at Ghaziabad, the respondents/plaintiff has no cause of action against him and the learned Family Court at Ghaziabad has no jurisdiction to entertain the said case.

22. Furthermore, the appellant has also mentioned in Paragraph 3 of the application filed under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, that the minor is presently residing at House No. 2644, Sector 13, Bhiwani, Haryana for the purpose of education. For a better appreciation of the case, Paragraph 3 of the said application is reproduced hereinbelow:

"3. यह कि मास्टर कुंज वर्तमान में के०एम० पब्लिक स्कूल सीनियर सैकेंडरी भिवानी हरियाणा में अपनी पढाई करने के लिये मकान नं0-2644. सैक्टर-3 भिवानी हरियाणा में विपक्षी के पास रहता है। और मकान नं0-2644 सेक्टर 13 भिवानी हरियाणा से ही प्रतिदिन शिक्षा पाने के लिये अपने स्कूल में आता जाता है/" (emphasis supplied)

23. From the description of address of the appellant/defendant as mentioned in the affidavit filed in support of the application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, it is evident that House No. 2644, Sector-3, Bhiwani, Haryana is his current address while he mentioned his address as G-133, Sanjay Nagar, Sector-23, Police Station Kavi Nagar, District Ghaziabad. The relevant portion of the affidavit is being extracted below:

"शपथपत्र ओर से धीरज पुत्र श्री ओमप्रकाश आयु करीब 35 वर्ष निवासी जी- 133 संजयनगर सैक्टर-23, थाना कविनगर जिला गाजियाबाद उत्तर प्रदेश हाल निवासी मकान नं0-2644 सैक्टर-13, भिवानी हरियाणा निम्न प्रकार है/"

(emphasis supplied)

24. Moreover, from a perusal of the pleadings, it is crystallised that the appellant himself has admitted that Master Kunj is currently residing at House No-2644 Sector-13, Bihwani, Haryana for the purpose of pursuing his Education at K.M. Public School (Senior Secondary) along with him.

25. Be that as it may, it is noteworthy that the question of jurisdiction has been challenged by the appellant by way of filing of an application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 which provides for rejection of plaint under certain specified conditions. Rule 11 of Order VII of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 is extracted below:

"11. Rejection of plaint. -

The plaint shall be rejected in the following cases:-

(a) where it does not disclose a cause of action;

(b) where the relief claimed is undervalued, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct the valuation within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so;

(c) where the relief claimed is properly valued, but the plaint is returned upon paper insufficiently stamped, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to supply the requisite stamp-paper within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so;

(d) where the suit appears from the statement in the plaint to be barred by any law:

(e) where it is not filed in duplicate

(f) where the plaintiff fails to comply with the provisions of rule 9

Provided that the time fixed by the Court for the correction of the valuation or supplying of the requisite stamp-paper shall not be extended unless the Court, for reasons to be recorded, is satisfied that the plaintiff was prevented by any cause of an exceptional nature form correcting the valuation or supplying the requisite stamp-paper , as the case may be, within the time fixed by the Court and that refusal to extend such time would cause grave injustice to the plaintiff."

26. In the case of Kamla and others versus KT Eshwara Sa and others, reported in (2008) 12 SCC 661, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been pleased to observe as under:

"21. Order 7 Rule 11(d) of the Code has limited application. It must be shown that the suit is barred under any law. Such a conclusion must be drawn from the averments made in the plaint. Different clauses in Order 7 Rule 11, in our opinion, should not be mixed up. Whereas in a given case, an application for rejection of the plaint may be filed on more than one ground specified in various sub-clauses thereof, a clear finding to that effect must be arrived at. What would be relevant for invoking clause (d) of Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code are the averments made in the plaint. For that purpose, there cannot be any addition or subtraction. Absence of jurisdiction on the part of a court can be invoked at different stages and under different provisions of the Code. Order 7 Rule 11 of the Code is one, Order 14 Rule 2 is another.

22. For the purpose of invoking Order 7 Rule 11(d) of the Code, no amount of evidence can be looked into. The issues on merit of the matter which may arise between the parties would not be within the realm of the court at that stage. All issues shall not be the subject-matter of an order under the said provision."

27. It is settled law that for invoking clause (d) of Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, only the averments made in the plaint would be relevant and thus, for this purpose, there cannot be any addition of subtraction. The issue of merits of the matter would not be within the realm of the court as the court at that stage will not consider any evidence or enter a disputed question of fact or law. While dealing with the application under Order 7, Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908, the averments made in the plaint alone are to be seen. It is also trite that jurisdiction is a mixed question of law and fact, and a plaint should not ordinarily be rejected on the ground of jurisdiction, without framing a distinct issue and taking evidence.

28. In the case of Saleem Bhai and Others versus State of Maharashta and Others, reported in (2003) 1 SCC 557, the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that the averments in the plaint are germane and the relevant facts which need to be looked into for deciding an application under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 are the averments in the plaint. For a ready reference, Paragraph 9 and 10 of the said judgment is quoted hereinbelow,

"9. A perusal of Order VII Rule 11 C.P.C. makes it clear that the relevant facts which need to be looked into for deciding an application thereunder are the averments in the plaint. The trial court can exercise the power under Order VII Rule 11 C.P.C. at any stage of the suit-before registering the plaint or after issuing summons to the defendant at any time before the conclusion of the trial. For the purposes of deciding an application under clauses (a) and (d) of Rule 11 of Order VII C.P.C. the averments in the plaint are germane; the pleas taken by the defendant in the written statement would be wholly irrelevant at that stage, therefore, a direction to file the written statement without deciding the application under Order VII Rule 11 C.P.C. cannot but be procedural irregularity touching the exercise of jurisdiction by the trial court. The order, therefore, suffers from non-exercising of the jurisdiction vested in the court as well as procedural irregularity. The High Court, however, did not advert to these aspects.

10. We are, therefore, of the view that for the aforementioned reasons, the common order under challenge is liable to be set aside and we, accordingly, do so. We remit the cases to the trial court for deciding the application under Order VII Rule 11 C.P.C. on the basis of the averments in the plaint, after affording an opportunity of being heard to the parties in accordance with law."

29. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Srihari Hanumandas Totala versus Hemant Vithal Kamat and Others reported in (2021) 9 SCC 99, has been pleased to deal the scope of Order VII Rule 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and has laid down as under:

"24. In a more recent decision of this Court in Shakti Bhog Food Industries Ltd. v. Central Bank of India and Another, a three Judge bench of this Court, speaking though Justice AM Khanwilkar, was dealing with the rejection of a plaint under Order 7 Rule 11 by the Trial Court, on the ground that it was barred by limitation. The Court referred to the earlier decisions including in Saleem Bhai v. State of Maharashtra, Church of Christ Charitable Trust (supra), and observed that: (Church of Christ Charitable Trust case, SCC p. 714, para 11)

"11..... It is clear that in order to consider Order 7 Rule 11, the court has to look into the averments in the plaint and the same can be exercised by the trial court at any stage of the suit. It is also clear that the averments in the written statement are immaterial and it is the duty of the Court to scrutinize the averments/pleas in the plaint. In other words, what needs to be looked into indeciding such an application are the averments in the plaint. At that stage, the pleas taken by the defendant in the written statement are wholly irrelevant and the matter is to be decided only on the plaint averment. These principles have been reiterated in Raptakos Brett & Co. Ltd. v. Ganesh Property, (1998) 7 SCC 184 and Mayar (H.K.) Ltd. v. Vessel M.V. Fortune Express, (2006) 3 SCC 100."

25. On a perusal of the above authorities, the guiding principles for deciding an application under Order 7 Rule 11(d) can be summarized as follows:

25.1. To reject a plaint on the ground that the suit is barred by any law, only the averments in the plaint will have to be referred to;

25.2. The defense made by the defendant in the suit must not be considered while deciding the merits of the application;

25.3. To determine whether a suit is barred by res judicata, it is necessary that (i) the 'previous suit' is decided, (ii) the issues in the subsequent suit were directly and substantially in issue in the former suit; (iii) the former suit was between the same parties or parties through whom they claim, litigating under the same title; and (iv) that these issues were adjudicated and finally decided by a court competent to try the subsequent suit; and

25.4. Since an adjudication of the plea of res judicata requires consideration of the pleadings, issues and decision in the 'previous suit', such a plea will be beyond the scope of Order 7 Rule 11 (d), where only the statements in the plaint will have to be perused."

30. The question whether the minor is ordinarily residing at a given place is primarily a question of fact which cannot be decided without an enquiry into the factual aspects of the case. Moreover, the residence by volition or by compulsion within the territorial jurisdiction of the Court cannot be treated as place of ordinary residence. The words "ordinarily resides" are not identical and cannot have the same meaning as residence at the time of filing of the application for grant of custody. The purpose of using the expressions "where the minor ordinarily resides" is perhaps to avoid the mischief that minor may be forcibly removed to a distant place, but still the application for minor's custody could be filed within the jurisdiction of the Court from whose jurisdiction he had been removed or in other words where the minor would have continued to remain but for his removal.

31. In the case of Ruchi Majoo versus Sanjeev Majoo reported in (2011) 6 SCC 479, the Hon'ble Supreme Court while considering section 9(1) of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 has held that solitary test for determining the jurisdiction of the Court under section 9 Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 is ordinary residence of the minor. The expression used in section 9 (1) is "where the minor ordinarily resides". Whether the minor is ordinarily residing at a given place is primarily a question of intention which in turn is a question of fact. It may at best be mixed question of law and fact. It has further been held that unless jurisdictional facts are admitted, the question "where the minor ordinarily resides" can never be pure question of law, capable of being answered without an enquiry into the factual aspects of the controversy. (emphasis supplied)

32. In the instant case, the factum of 'ordinary residence' of the minor is a disputed question of fact and thus, the question whether the Court at Ghaziabad has territorial jurisdiction to entertain the petition under Section 25 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 is a mixed question of law and fact. The aforesaid question cannot be determined without holding an enquiry into the factual aspects of the controversy and without framing a distinctive issue in this regard. The scope of scrutiny at the stage of consideration of an application under Order VII, Rule 11 of Civil Procedure Code 1908 is confined only to the averments made in the petition. Thus, the question whether the Court has territorial jurisdiction being mixed question of law and fact cannot be decided by way of an application under Order VII, Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908.

33. In view of the deliberations made in preceeding paragraphs and also the factual matrix of the case, this court is of the considered opinion that the learned Court below has rightly rejected the application filed by the appellant-defendant under Order VII Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, 1908. The present Appeal does not call for any interference by this Court. Accordingly, the same is dismissed, being devoid of merits.

34. However, it is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case and the observations in the present judgment are only for the purpose of deciding the present appeal and will have no bearing on the adjudication of the case and/or any other related proceedings. It is further provided that while deciding the issue of its' territorial jurisdiction, the learned Court below shall not, in any manner, be influenced by the finding recorded by it on the subject regarding the place of residence in the impugned order dated 18.03.2024 and shall decide the same on merit, strictly in accordance with law.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2467
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 21.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SUBHASH VIDYARTHI, J.

Writ-C No. 1002479 of 2010

Smt. Mridula Singh ...Petitioner
Versus
L.D.A. ...Opp. Party

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sudeep Seth, Brijesh Kumar Singh

Counsel for the Opp. Parties:
D.K. Upadhyaya, Ajaay Kumar Singh, Dipesh Shukla, Mahendra Pratap Singh, Naveen Chandra Upadhyay, Rajesh Singh Chauhan

A. Transfer of Property Act, 1882 - Sections 105 & 107 - Registration Act, 1908 - Sections 17(1)(d) & 49 - Effect of Non-Registration of Lease Deed - A lease deed dated 05.12.2000, executed in favor of the petitioner for a period of 30 years, with an annual rent reserved, required mandatory registration under S. 17(1)(d) of the Registration Act and S. 107 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882. The Court held that in the absence of such registration, the lease deed did not confer any right, title, or interest in the property upon the petitioner. Further, as per S. 49 of the Registration Act, the unregistered lease deed is not admissible in evidence to establish any right under the transaction of the lease between the parties. (Para 42)

B. Transfer of Property Act, 1882 – Sections 113 & 116 – Waiver of Notice to Quit – Effect of Holding Over: Mere acceptance of rent by the L.D.A. does not constitute an act of intention to treat the garden lease as subsisting, nor does it create a tenancy by holding over. Despite rent acceptance, the L.D.A. repeatedly asked the petitioner to vacate the land and initiated eviction proceedings. After issuing a notice to vacate, no further rent was accepted by the L.D.A. Held, acceptance of rent cannot be construed as a waiver of notice or an intention to continue the lease. The petitioner's intention to use the land not for its original gardening purpose but to retain it with her residential plot renders Section 116 inapplicable. (Para 47, 50)

C. Constitution of India, Art. 12 – State - Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 - Section 4 - Registration Act, 1908 - Section 90(1)(d) - Exemption of Certain Documents Executed by or in Favor of Government: Held: The Lucknow Development Authority (L.D.A.), though falling within the definition of 'St.' under Article 12, is not "Government." The L.D.A. is a statutory body corporate, having perpetual succession and a common seal, and vested with the power to acquire, hold, and dispose of property. A lease deed executed by the L.D.A. is not a sanad, inam, title deed, or any other document evidencing a grant or assignment by the Government of land or any interest therein under S. 90(1)(d) of the Registration Act, 1908, so as to be exempt from registration. There exists a clear distinction between "St." and "Government" under law. (Para 56)

D. U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973—Section 26-A(4)—Show Cause Notice—Incorrect Mention of Statutory Provision—Effect of: Issuance of a show cause notice citing the incorrect statutory provision (Section 26(4) instead of Section 26-A(4)) does not invalidate the notice or the subsequent proceedings. It is settled law that a wrong reference to a provision of law does not invalidate an order or notice, provided the authority has the power to issue it under another relevant provision of the statute. Mere mention of a non-existent provision does not affect the legality of the proceedings initiated by the notice when the competent authority acts within its powers. An order made under an incorrect provision remains valid if it can be traced back to a valid provision under which the order could have been legitimately made. Petitioner submitted reply to the notice, and the impugned order was passed after considering his reply. The Court upheld the proceedings initiated under the 1973 Act despite the incorrect mention of the wrong provision, as the L.D.A. adhered to due process as per Section 26-A(4) and afforded the petitioner a fair hearing. (Paras 69, 71)

E. Constitution of India, Article 226—Judicial Review—Motive of Authority: The court has no jurisdiction to examine the motive that induced the authority to exercise its powers. (Para 72, 73)

F. Evidence Act - Estoppel - No Estoppel Against Statutory Provisions: The Court reaffirmed that there can be no estoppel against the provisions of a statute. The petitioner argued that since the L.D.A. executed the lease deed and accepted lease rent from the petitioner, it was estopped from challenging the validity of the lease deed. The Court rejected this submission, and held that statutory mandates cannot be overridden by conduct or acceptance of payments. (Para 43, 44)

G. Post-Hearing Submission of Additional Written Arguments - Practice Disapproved: After the conclusion of oral submissions, the matter was posted for delivery of judgment/order on 21.05.2024. However, on 17.05.2024, the petitioner submitted written arguments introducing several new submissions that were not argued during the hearing. A copy of the written arguments was not served upon the other side. The Court disapproved the conduct of introducing new arguments after the hearing had concluded and without the knowledge of the opposite side. Nevertheless, in the interest of justice, the Court proceeded to consider the new submissions made through the written arguments while adjudicating the matter.

H. U.P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 - Government Order dated 05.03.1996—Allotment of Additional Land - Petitioner's Plot No. 3/84 measures 300 square meters. She was granted a garden lease for Plot No. 3/85, measuring 352 square meters. The petitioner challenged the legality of the order directing her to vacate land granted on a garden lease and prayed that the L.D.A. be directed to allot the land under the garden lease for residential purposes. Held: The land bearing Plot No. 3/85, which is larger than Plot No. 3/84 allotted to the petitioner, cannot be treated as additional land. It is a separate residential plot, larger than the one allotted to the petitioner. Petitioner subsequent lease deed was not registered and conferred no enforceable rights to the petitioner to retain possession of the land. Mere existence of two graves on the land of the L.D.A. does not create any legal bar against the land being sold by the L.D.A. as residential property. The order directing her to vacate, issued after providing an opportunity to respond and considering her explanation, cannot be held to be invalid, even if it is alleged to have been passed with some ulterior motives (Para 75)

Dismissed. (E-5)

List of Cases cited:

1. St. of M.P. Vs Bhailal Bhai, 1964 SCC OnLine SC 10

2. Kale & ors. Vs Deputy Director Of Consolidation ors.: (1976) 3 SCC 119

3. Sarup Singh Gupta Vs S. Jagdish Singh: (2006) 4 SCC 205,

4. Satrudhan Sahani Vs St. of Bihar, 1990 SCC OnLine Pat 281,

5. Kallingal Moosa Kutti Vs Secretary of St. for India in Council, 1919 SCC OnLine Mad 299,

6. Daso Kewat Vs St. of Bihar, 1995 SCC OnLine Pat 314,

7. R.S. Grewal Vs Chander Parkash Soni, (2019) 6 SCC 216,

8. St. of W.B. Vs Vishnunarayan & Associates (P) Ltd., (2002) 4 SCC 134,

9. Dr. Virendra Kumar Dixit Vs St. of U.P., 2014 SCC OnLine All 16476

10. Food Corpn. of India Vs V.K. Traders: (2020) 4 SCC 60

11. Sevoke Properties Ltd. Vs W.B. St. Electricity Distribution Co. Ltd.: (2020) 11 SCC 782

12. Yogendra Kumar Vs St. of U.P.: 2012 SCC OnLine All 410

13. The Field Council of Norwegian Evangelical Mission & ors. Vs. St. of U.P. & ors. 2018 (9) ADJ 649

14. Corpn. of the City of Bangalore Vs Kesoram Industries & Cotton Mills Ltd., 1989 Supp (2) SCC 753

(Delivered by Hon'ble Subhash Vidyarthi, J.)

1. Heard Sri B.K. Singh Advocate, the learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Mahendra Pratap Singh Advocate, the learned State Counsel, and perused the record.

2. By means of the Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has prayed for quashing of an order dated 13.04.2010 passed by the Prescribed Authority/Joint Secretary, Lucknow Development Authority (L.D.A), whereby the petitioner has been directed to remove her possession over plot number 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, failing which the L.D.A will remove the encroachment made by the petitioner on the aforesaid plot. The petitioner has also prayed for issuance of a Writ of Mandamus, commanding the opposite parties not to interfere in possession of the petitioner in respect of Plot No. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow.

Order on Amendment Application

3. On 08.08.2023, the petitioner has filed an application for amendment of the Writ Petition seeking to add a prayer for issuance of a Writ in the nature of Mandamus, commanding the L.D.A to allot an additional land area of 180 square meters to the petitioner in pursuance of a Government Order dated 05.03.1996 read with a Government Order dated 20.04.1998. An application dated 22.03.2023 submitted by the petitioner, to the Vice Chairman L.D.A has been annexed with the affidavit in support of the amendment application, wherein she stated that the Government Order dated 05.03.1996 provides that if standard plots could not be carved out, the allottee of adjacent land will be given the land. She stated that all the plots situated in the row, where the petitioner's house is situated, measure 300 Square meters, whereas the land in question (Plot No. 3/85) measures less than 300 Square meters and it is merely 180 Square meters additional land.

4. A copy of a Government Order dated 05.03.1996 has been annexed with the affidavit filed in support of the amendment application and it provides that as far as possible, in case the additional land can be used as a new plot, it should be allotted as a new plot. Where it is not possible to create a new plot as per the layout plan, the land should be offered to the allottees of both the adjacent plots or to allottee of one adjacent plot, whichever is practical.

5. The petitioner has also annexed a copy of a Government Order dated 20.04.1998, which inter alia provides that in case any allottee wants to purchase an additional land, he will be charged price at the current rate, but where the development authority itself offers additional land to the transferee, price thereof shall be taken at the rate prevalent at the time of original allotment along with simple interest.

6. In the written arguments filed after closure of the submissions, the learned Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon a judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of M.P. versus Bhailal Bhai, 1964 SCC OnLine SC 10, in which it has been held that: -

"14…The jurisdiction conferred by Article 226 is in very wide terms. This article empowers the High Court to give relief by way of enforcement of fundamental rights and other rights by issuing directions, orders or writs, including writs in the nature of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition, quo warranto and certiorari. According to the petitioners a writ in the nature of mandamus can be appropriately used where money has been paid to the Government by mistake to give relief by commanding repayment of the same. That in a number of cases the High Courts have used the writ of mandamus to enforce such repayment is not disputed. …

15. We see no reason to think that the High Courts have not got this power. If a right has been infringed — whether a fundamental right or a statutory right — and the aggrieved party comes to the court for enforcement of the right it will not be giving complete relief if the court merely declares the existence of such right or the fact that that existing right has been infringed. Where there has been only a threat to infringe the right, an order commanding the Government or other statutory authority not to take the action contemplated would be sufficient. It has been held by this Court that where there has been a threat only and the right has not been actually infringed an application under Article 226 would lie and the courts would give necessary relief by making an order in the nature of injunction. It will hardly be reasonable to say that while the court will grant relief by such command in the nature of an order, of injunction where the invasion of a right has been merely threatened the court must still refuse, where the right has been actually invaded, to give the consequential relief and content itself with merely a declaration that the right exists and has been invaded or with merely quashing the illegal order made.]

16. For the reasons given above, we are clearly of opinion that the High Courts have power for the purpose of enforcement of fundamental rights and statutory rights to give consequential relief by ordering repayment of money realised by the Government without the authority of law."

7. In Bhailal Bhai the petitioner was claiming a consequential relief of refund of money paid to the Government by mistake, which is not the case here. The principle laid down in Bhailal Bhai would apply if the petitioner establishes existence of a fundamental right or a statutory right and infringement thereof and by way of amendment he seeks to add a relief of that wrong being undone consequent to a declaration that his right was infringed. In such circumstances, the courts will give necessary consequential relief. Where the petitioner cannot establish the existence of a Fundamental or a Statutory right and the infringement or violation thereof, there would be no occasion to claim any new relief by way of amendment of the Writ Petition claiming the same to be a consequential relief.

8. The Writ Petition was filed in the year 2010 challenging cancellation of garden lease and by way of amendment application filed in the year 2023, the petitioner is seeking to add a new prayer for allotment of Plot No. 3/85 to the petitioner for residential purpose claiming the same to be additional land appurtenant to her Plot No. 3/84. The amendment will change the nature of the Writ Petition, which was filed challenging cancellation of the garden lease. The prayer sought to be amended is not for a consequential relief and the petitioner does not have a Fundamental or Statutory right of the prayer sought to be incorporated by way of amendment. Therefore, the application for amendment of the Writ Petition is rejected.

Order on the Writ Petition

9. Briefly stated, the facts pleaded in the Writ Petition are that the petitioner is the owner of plot number 3/84 Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, on which she has constructed a house. Plot No. 3/85 measuring 352 Square meters with two graves existing thereon, is adjacent to the petitioner's Plot No. 3/84.

10. Vide order dated 16.10.1986, the L.D.A had allotted Plot No. 3/85 to the petitioner for a garden lease. The allotment letter states that on the request made by the petitioner, 352 Square meters land available near Plot No. 3/84, was being allotted to her on garden lease. The rate of rent and other conditions of lease will be communicated to the petitioner separately.

11. On 02.09.1989, the L.D.A. executed a garden lease in favour of the petitioner in respect of Plot No. 3/85. The lease deed dated 02.09.1989 states that the allotted land was being transferred to the petitioner on a temporary garden lease at the rate of Rs.415/- per year. The land will be used for the purpose of gardening only and no construction of any kind will be raised thereon. The period of garden lease was 10 years. The petitioner would not have the right to sublet the land. It was a condition of the lease that the petitioner will not raise any permanent construction on the land and she could merely erect a fence of barbed wires and in case the L.D.A. needed the land, the allotment of the land could be cancelled at any time. The description of allotted land mentioned in the lease deed is Plot No. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow measuring 352.80 Square meters.

12. A copy of the layout plan has also been annexed with the Writ Petition, which shows the land of garden leases bearing Plot No. 3/85 Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, having an area of 352.80 square meters.

13. The petitioner has pleaded in the Writ Petition that she had constructed a boundary wall surrounding Plot No. 3/85 and the garden lease was renewed on 15.12.2000 for a further period of 20 years. A copy of the lease deed dated 15.12.2000 has been annexed as Annexure No. 4 to the Writ Petition, which mentions that the land was being transferred on garden lease for a period of 30 years, as against a period of 20 years pleaded in para 6 of the petition. This lease deed dated 15.12.2000 was not registered.

14. On 28.07.2005, L.D.A issued a notice to the petitioner stating that she had constructed a boundary wall in violation of the conditions of garden lease and that she had deposited lease rent for one year only. Therefore, the Vice Chairman L.D.A had cancelled the allotment of land made in favour of the petitioner.

15. On 04.04.2009, the Joint Secretary, L.D.A issued a letter to the petitioner stating that she had been granted garden lease of Plot No. 3/85 as at that time, the number of plots available was in excess of the demand of the plots. Subsequently the demand of plots had increased. It was one of the conditions of the lease agreement that in case of need of land, the L.D.A could cancel the allotment of the land. The cancellation of allotment had already been communicated to the petitioner by means of the earlier letter dated on 28.07.2005. The letter dated 04.04.2009 sent by the Joint Secretary of L.D.A directed the petitioner to handover possession of the land to L.D.A., failing which L.D.A. will recover possession of the land.

16. The petitioner filed Writ Petition No. 4147 (M/B) of 2009, in which an interim order was passed on 29.07.2009 directing the parties to maintain status quo regarding Plot No. 3/85. The aforesaid petition was disposed off finally by means of an order dated 06.08.2009, directing the opposite parties not to dispossess the petitioner without following the due process of law.

17. Thereafter, the Prescribed Authority/Joint Secretary of L.D.A issued a notice dated 03.02.2010 giving the petitioner an opportunity to submit her explanation as to why L.D.A. should not take possession of the land under Section 26(4) of Uttar Pradesh Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 (hereinafter referred as “the Act of 1973”).

18. The petitioner submitted a detailed reply to the aforesaid show cause notice stating that she had not raised any permanent construction such as any room on Plot No. 3/85 and she had raised a low boundary wall surrounding the Plot, which cannot be treated as a permanent construction. She further stated that she had deposited lease rent of the land and the lease had been renewed for a further period of 20 years upto the year 2020 through an agreement dated 15.10.2000. Thereafter the petitioner has deposited rent for a period of 10 years from 2001 to 2010. The petitioner alleged that the reason for cancellation of the lease was that L.D.A. wanted to transfer the land in favour of a Cabinet Minister of the State Government. She further stated that the reason mentioned in the letter dated 04.04.2009 was different from the reason mentioned in the earlier letter dated 28.07.2005. The petitioner also stated that the notice had been issued under Section 26(4) of the Act of 1973, whereas Section 26 of the Act of 1973 contains only 3 sub-sections and there was no sub-section (4) in Section 26.

19. On 13.04.2010, the Prescribed Authority passed the impugned order wherein it is recorded that the learned counsel for the petitioner had contended that Section 26 of Act of 1973 does not apply to any private land and it relates to public lands only whereas the leased property is not a public property and that even if it is assumed that the lease has been cancelled, status of the petitioner would be of tenant as sufferance and not of an encroacher. It was further contended on behalf of the petitioner that two graves existed on the land in question and, therefore, the land could not used for residential purpose. On the other hand, the learned counsel for L.D.A. had submitted that the land was not recorded in the revenue records as Kabristan.

20. The Prescribed Authority recorded that Plot Nos. 3/84 and 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar were carved out from land forming a part of Khasra Nos. 1210 P, 1229 P, 1230 P and 1267 P. The lands bearing Khasra Nos. 1210 and 1267 were lands of Sullage Farm, which had been transferred by Nagar Nigam to L.D.A in the year 1982. Land bearing Khasra No. 1229 and 1230 had been acquired in the year 1983 for Ujariyaon Residential Scheme, Part 1. No graveyard is recorded in any of the Khasra numbers in the revenue record. The Prescribed Authority concluded that the aforesaid facts established that the land bearing No. 3/85 is not a graveyard and it is a residential land.

21. The Prescribed Authority further held that the original file of L.D.A regarding the plot in question had gone missing. Even if the garden lease had been renewed, the officer who had signed the renewal deed as the transferor, has signed it on 12.01.2001, whereas the first line of the renewal deed mentioned the date 15.12.2000, which contradiction makes the lease deed suspicious, more so in absence of the original file. The officer who had signed the renewal deed dated 15.12.2000, had himself issued the letter dated 28.07.2005 cancelling the allotment of Plot No. 3/85 in favour of the petitioner, which establishes that the lease stands cancelled.

22. It is also recorded in the impugned order dated 15.04.2010 that the petitioner has given a letter dated 15.12.2008 requesting that Plot No.3/85, which is adjacent to her Plot No. 3/84, be allotted to her for residential purpose and be transferred to her on freehold basis. She had given a reminder letter dated 12.10.2009 also to the Vice-Chairman L.D.A. The Vice-Chairman had made a noting on the file on 19.06.2009 stating that as the agreement executed in the year 2000 had not been registered, no effective lease existed in favour of the petitioner. As the petitioner violated the condition of lease deed and raised a boundary wall and did not handover possession of the land to L.D.A. even after giving notice, the Vice-Chairman passed an order dated 19.06.2009 for taking possession of the land.

23. The Prescribed Authority held that no lease in favour of the petitioner is in existence and, therefore, the land has reverted to the L.D.A and it falls in the category of public property. Regarding the contention of the petitioner that she has already deposited the lease rent, the Prescribed Authority stated that the petitioner had deposited lease rent for a period of one year only in the year 1989. Thereafter, she deposited Rs.3,320/- towards lease rent for 8 years on 08.02.2008. She did not deposit any other amount from 1989 to 2008 and thereafter she deposited Rs.830/- towards lease rent for a period of 2 years, on 13.02.2009. The amount was deposited by the petitioner towards arrears of lease rent and the contention of the petitioner's learned counsel had become a tenant at sufferance, was rejected.

24. The Prescribed Authority directed the petitioner to remove her possession from Plot No. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, otherwise L.D.A will take possession of the land.

25. The L.D.A has filed a counter affidavit stating that the garden lease granted to the petitioner had been cancelled by means of an order dated 15.04.1989 but the order dated 15.04.1989 was recalled by means of an order dated 06.05.1989 in furtherance of a representation submitted by the petitioner. Thereafter the garden lease was cancelled by means of an order dated 28.07.2005 on the ground that the petitioner had erected a boundary wall and she had deposited lease rent for a period of one year only. The notice dated 03.02.2010 had wrongly made a mention of Section 26(4) of Act of 1973 but the petitioner had submitted a reply to the notice and the Prescribed Authority has passed the order dated 13.04.2010 after considering the petitioner's reply.

26. The petitioner has stated in the rejoinder affidavit that Fateh Bahadur Singh had moved an application dated 26.02.2004 for registration in L.D.A for allotment of Plot No. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, which was even before cancellation of the petitioner's lease. As per the procedure laid down by the L.D.A for registration/ allotment of residential plots/houses, an advertisement for registration of any scheme for residential plots/houses shall be published in at least two newspapers of State/National level. Any person who or any member of whose family has a plot/house in any colony developed by L.D.A., Uttar Pradesh Avas Vikas Parishad, the Improvement Trust or any local body or cooperative society, shall not be eligible for allotment of any plot/house. Clause 30.1 of the procedure for registration/allotment of plot/house provides that the allottee will have to take possession of the plot as per actual measurement. In case the area or dimensions are different, the allottee will have to make payment as per the modified situation.

27. Submissions of the learned Counsel were heard on 16.05.2024, during which the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the notice dated 03.02.2010 was issued under Section 26(4) of the Act of 1973, whereas there is no such provisions in the aforesaid Act and no proceedings could be initiated and no orders could be passed in furtherance of the notice issued under a non-existent provision. He has submitted that the petitioner's lease deed was cancelled arbitrarily as the authorities wanted to transfer the land to a Cabinet Minister, who already holds 4 - 5 plots of land of L.D.A. and who is not entitled to be transferred any other plot from L.D.A. as no persons is entitled to get more than one plot of L.D.A.

28. The Court put a query to the learned counsel for the petitioner as to whether the lease deed dated 15.12.2000 executed in favour of the petitioner had been registered, to which he replied that the L.D.A. having executed the lease dated 15.12.2000 and having accepted rent under this deed, is estopped from challenging its validity.

29. After hearing of oral submissions, the matter was posted for 21.05.2024 for delivery of judgment/order. On 17.05.2024, the learned counsel for the petitioner supplied written arguments containing several new submissions which had not been advanced during hearing of the case. The written arguments filed do not contain any acknowledgment of its receipt by the learned Counsel for the respondents. This conduct of adding new arguments after close of the hearing of the case behind the back of the other side cannot be appreciated by the Court. Yet, in the interest of justice, the Court proceeds to examine the submissions made through written arguments.

30. It has been submitted in the written arguments that although Section 17 of the Registration Act, 1908 bars the admissibility of an unregistered lease deed executed for a period of more than one year, it is not open the for the L.D.A to deny the relationship of the lesser and lessee as it has never denied the due execution of the lease deed and it has accepted the lease rent from time to time.]

31. The learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that a conjoint reading of Section 105 to107 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, clarifies that a lease can be created simply where the lesser grants a right and interest to a lessee to enjoy an immovable property for a consideration and puts a lessee into possession of the land while accepting periodic consideration. He has submitted that the present case fulfills all the requirements of Section 105 to 107 even in absence of registration of the lease deed.

32. Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act provides that, "a lease of immovable property from year to year, or for any term exceeding one year, or reserving a yearly rent, can be made only by a registered instrument." Therefore, there is no room to doubt that the L.D.A could not have granted any leasehold rights to the petitioner without execution of a registered lease deed as per the provisions contained in Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1908.

33. Section 17 (1)(d) of the Registration Act, 1908, provides that "leases of immovable property from year to year, or for any term exceeding one year, or reserving a yearly rent, are required to be registered compulsorily."

34. Section 49 of the Registration Act, 1908 provides as follows: -

"49. Effect of non-registration of documents required to be registered*.—No document required by Section 17 or by any provision of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), to be registered shall—*

(a) affect any immovable property comprised therein, or

(b) confer any power to adopt, or

(c) be received as evidence of any transaction affecting such property or conferring such power, unless it has been registered:

Provided that an unregistered document affecting immovable property and required by this Act or the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), to be registered may be received as evidence of a contract in a suit for specific performance under CHAPTER II of the Specific Relief Act, 1877 (1 of 1877), or as evidence of any collateral transaction not required to be effected by registered instrument."

35. The learned counsel for the petitioner has referred to the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Kale & Others versus Deputy Director Of Consolidation Ors: (1976) 3 SCC 119, Sarup Singh Gupta versus S. Jagdish Singh: (2006) 4 SCC 205, Satrudhan Sahani versus State of Bihar, 1990 SCC OnLine Pat 281, Kallingal Moosa Kutti versus Secretary of State for India in Council, 1919 SCC OnLine Mad 299, Daso Kewat versus State of Bihar, 1995 SCC OnLine Pat 314, R.S. Grewal versus Chander Parkash Soni, (2019) 6 SCC 216, State of W.B. versus Vishnunarayan & Associates (P) Ltd., (2002) 4 SCC 134, Dr. Virendra Kumar Dixit versus State of U.P., 2014 SCC OnLine All 16476,

36. The question involved in Kale (Supra) was if any title was conveyed to the appellant under a family arrangement, whether the said conveyance can only be by a registered instrument under the provisions of the Registration Act and the Transfer of Property Act. Before proceeding to decide the question, the Hon'ble Supreme Court discussed in general the effect and value of family arrangements entered into between the parties with a view to resolving disputes once for all, in the following words: -

"9. Before dealing with the respective contentions put forward by the parties, we would like to discuss in general the effect and value of family arrangements entered into between the parties with a view to resolving disputes once for all. By virtue of a family settlement or arrangement members of a family descending from a common ancestor or a near relation seek to sink their differences and disputes, settle and resolve their conflicting claims or disputed titles once for all in order to buy peace of mind and bring about complete harmony and goodwill in the family. The family arrangements are governed by a special equity peculiar to themselves and would be enforced if honestly made. In this connection, Kerr in his valuable treatise Kerr on Fraud at p. 364 makes the following pertinent observations regarding the nature of the family arrangement which may be extracted thus:

"The principles which apply to the case of ordinary compromise between strangers do not equally apply to the case of compromises in the nature of family arrangements. Family arrangements are governed by a special equity peculiar to themselves, and will be enforced if honestly made, although they have not been meant as a compromise, but have proceeded from an error of all parties, originating in mistake or ignorance of fact as to what their rights actually are, or of the points on which their rights actually depend."

The object of the arrangement is to protect the family from long-drawn litigation or perpetual strifes which mar the unity and solidarity of the family and create hatred and bad blood between the various members of the family. Today when we are striving to build up an egalitarian society and are trying for a complete reconstruction of the society, to maintain .and uphold the unity and homogeneity of the family which ultimately results in the unification of the society and, therefore, of the entire country, is the prime need of the hour. A family arrangement by which the property is equitably divided between the various contenders so as to achieve an equal distribution of wealth instead of concentrating the same in the hands of a few is undoubtedly a milestone in the administration of social justice. That is why the term "family" has to be understood in a wider sense so as to include within its fold not only close relations or legal heirs but even those persons who may have some sort of antecedent title, a semblance of a claim or even if they have a spes successionis so that future disputes are sealed for ever and the family instead of fighting claims inter se and wasting time, money and energy on such fruitless or futile litigation is able to devote its attention to more constructive work in the larger interest of the country. The courts have, therefore, leaned in favour of upholding a family arrangement instead of disturbing the same on technical or trivial grounds. Where the courts find that the family arrangement suffers from a legal lacuna or a formal defect the rule of estoppel is pressed into service and is applied to shut out plea of the person who being a party to family arrangement seeks to unsettle a settled dispute and claims to revoke the family arrangement under which he has himself enjoyed some material benefits. The law in England on this point is almost the same. In Halsbury's Laws of England, Vol. 17, Third Edition, at pp. 215-216, the following apt observations regarding the essentials of the family settlement and the principles governing the existence of the same are made:

"A family arrangement is an agreement between members of the same family, intended to be generally and reasonably for the benefit of the family either by compromising doubtful or disputed rights or by preserving the family property or the peace and security of the family by avoiding litigation or by saving its honour.

The agreement may be implied from a long course of dealing, but it is more usual to embody or to effectuate the agreement in a deed to which the term "family arrangement" is applied. Family arrangements are governed by principles which are not applicable to dealings between strangers*. The court, when deciding the rights of parties under family arrangements or claims to upset such arrangements, considers what in the broadest view of the matter is most for the interest of families, and has regard to considerations which, in dealing with transactions between persons not members of the same family, would not be taken into account. Matters which would be fatal to the validity of similar transactions between strangers are not objections to the binding effect of family arrangements."*

37. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held in light of the facts of Kale (Supra) that: -

"the family settlement arrived at by the parties was oral, and the petition filed by them on August 7, 1956 before the Assistant Commissioner, was merely an information of an already completed oral transaction. In other words, the petition was only an intimation to the Revenue Court or authority that the matters in dispute between the parties had been settled amicably between the members of the family, and no longer required determination and that the mutation be effected in accordance with that antecedent family settlement. Since the petition did not itself create or declare any rights in immovable property of the value of Rs 100 or upwards, it was not hit by Section 17 (1)(b) of the Registration Act, and, as such, was not compulsorily registrable."

38. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has specifically held in Kale (Supra) that Family arrangements are governed by principles which are not applicable to dealings between strangers, and further, that as the document in question did not itself create or declare any rights in immovable property of the value of Rs 100 or upwards, it was not hit by Section 17 (1)(b) of the Registration Act, it was not compulsorily registrable. Therefore, the decision in the aforesaid case is not at all relevant for decision of the instant Writ Petition which asserts the existence of lease hold rights on the basis of an unregistered lease deed executed by L.D.A. in favour of the petitioner for a period of 30 years.

39. Per Contra, the learned Counsel for the respondents has relied upon the decisions in the cases of Food Corpn. of India versus V.K. Traders: (2020) 4 SCC 60 and Sevoke Properties Ltd. versus W.B. State Electricity Distribution Co. Ltd.: (2020) 11 SCC 782.

40. In Food Corpn. of India versus V.K. Traders (Supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that no reliance can be placed upon the lease deeds which do not satisfy the statutory requirements of Section 17(1)(d) of the Registration Act, 1908 as these lease deeds thus cannot be accepted as evidence of valid transfer of possessory rights.

41. In Sevoke Properties Ltd. versus W.B. State Electricity Distribution Co. Ltd., (2020) 11 SCC 782, it was held that in terms of the provisions of Section 107, a lease of immovable property for a term exceeding one year can only be made by a registered instrument. Where the indenture of lease has not been registered, the contents of the indenture would be inadmissible in evidence for the purpose of determining the terms of the contract between the parties. This is the plain consequence of the provisions of Sections 17 and 49 of the Registration Act, 1908. The only purpose for which the lease can be looked at is for assessing the nature and character of the possession of the respondent.

42. Having considered the submissions advanced and the case-laws placed by the learned Counsel for the parties, this Court is of the considered view that the lease deed dated 05.12.2000 executed in favour of the petitioner for a period of 30 days, reserving an yearly rent, was necessarily required to be registered in view of the Statutory mandate contained in Section 17 (1) (d) of the Registration Act and Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act. In absence of registration, it conferred no right, title or interest in the property upon the petitioner as per the statutory provision contained in Section 49 of the Registration Act, 1908 and it will not be admissible in evidence of the transaction of lease between L.D.A. and the petitioner.

43. The learned counsel for the petitioner next submitted that the L.D.A having executed the lease deed and having accepted the lease rent from the petitioner, is estopped from challenging validity of the lease deed.

44. In this regard, it would be sufficient to refer to the well established principle of law that there can be no estoppel against the provisions of a Statue. When Section 17(1)(d) of the Registration Act and 107 of the Transfer of Property Act clearly provides that a lease for a term exceeding one year or reserving a yearly rent can be made by a registered instrument only, and Section 49 of the Registration Act provides that an unregistered lease deed conferes no right, title or interest in the property upon the petitioner and it will not be admissible in evidence of the transaction of lease between L.D.A. and the petitioner, there can be no estoppel against the plea of invalidity of an unregistered lease deed.

45. The learned Counsel for the petitioner next relied upon the case of Sarup Singh Gupta versus S. Jagdish Singh, (2006) 4 SCC 205 wherein after serving a notice upon the appellant terminating the lease under Section 106 of the Transfer of Property Act, the respondent instituted a suit for his eviction on 02.06.1979. Before filing the suit two notices were given to the appellant on 10.02.1979 and 17.03.1979. According to the appellant, despite notice terminating the tenancy, the respondent accepted rent for the months of April and May 1979 and thereafter. The Hon'ble Supreme Court referred to Section 113 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 which reads as follows: -

"113. Waiver of notice to quit.—A notice given under Section 111 clause (h), is waived, with the express or implied consent of the person to whom it is given, by any act on the part of the person giving it showing an intention to treat the lease as subsisting."

46. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"6. ...A mere perusal of Section 113 leaves no room for doubt that in a given case, a notice given under Section 111 clause (h), may be treated as having been waived, but the necessary condition is that there must be some act on the part of the person giving the notice evincing an intention to treat the lease as subsisting. Of course, the express or implied consent of the person to whom such notice is given must also be established. The question as to whether the person giving the notice has by his act shown an intention to treat the lease as subsisting is essentially a question of fact. In reaching a conclusion on this aspect of the matter, the court must consider all relevant facts and circumstances, and the mere fact that rent has been tendered and accepted, cannot be determinative.

* * *

8. In the instant case, as we have noticed earlier, two notices to quit were given on 10-2-1979 and 17-3-1979. The suit was filed on 2-6-1979. The tenant offered and the landlord accepted the rent for the months of April, May and thereafter. The question is whether this by itself constitutes an act on the part of the landlord showing an intention to treat the lease as subsisting. In our view, mere acceptance of rent did not by itself constitute an act of the nature envisaged by Section 113, Transfer of Property Act showing an intention to treat the lease as subsisting. The fact remains that even after accepting the rent tendered, the landlord did file a suit for eviction, and even while prosecuting the suit accepted the rent which was being paid to him by the tenant. It cannot, therefore, be said that by accepting rent, he intended to waive the notice to quit and to treat the lease as subsisting. We cannot ignore the fact that in any event, even if rent was neither tendered nor accepted, the landlord in the event of success would be entitled to the payment of the arrears of rent. To avoid any controversy, in the event of termination of lease the practice followed by the courts is to permit the landlord to receive each month by way of compensation for the use and occupation of the premises, an amount equal to the monthly rent payable by the tenant. It cannot, therefore, be said that mere acceptance of rent amounts to waiver of notice to quit unless there be any other evidence to prove or establish that the landlord so intended. In the instant case, we find no other fact or circumstance to support the plea of waiver. On the contrary, the filing of and prosecution of the eviction proceeding by the landlord suggests otherwise."

47. Applying the law laid down in Sarup Singh Gupta (Supra) to the facts of the present case, it is clear that the mere acceptance of rent by L.D.A. did not by itself constitute an act of the nature envisaged by Section 113, Transfer of Property Act showing an intention to treat the garden-lease as subsisting. The fact remains that even after accepting the rent, the L.D.A. initiated proceedings for eviction and after giving the notice, it did not accept any rent. It cannot, therefore, be said that by accepting rent, L.D.A. intended to waive the notice to handover possession of the land and to treat the lease as subsisting. Even if rent was neither tendered nor accepted, the L.D.A. would be entitled to the payment of the arrears of rent for the period the land remained in occupation of the petitioner. Therefore, Sarup Singh Gupta (Supra) does not in any manner helps the petitioner, rather it supports the case of the respondent.

48. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment in the case of Shanti Prasad Devi versus Shankar Mahto, (2005) 5 SCC 543, wherein the question involved was of interpretation of Section 116 of the Transfer of Property Act, which reads thus: -

"116. Effect of holding over.—If a lessee or under-lessee of property remains in possession thereof after the determination of the lease granted to the lessee, and the lessor or his legal representative accepts rent from the lessee or under-lessee, or otherwise assents to his continuing in possession the lease is, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, renewed from year to year, or from month to month, according to the purpose for which the property is leased, as specified in Section 106."

(emphasis added by the Hon'ble Supreme Court)

49. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"18. ... on expiry of period of lease, mere acceptance of rent for the subsequent months in which the lessee continued to occupy the lease premises cannot be said to be a conduct signifying "assent" to the continuance of the lease even after expiry of lease period...."*

50. Even as per the law laid down in Sarup Singh Gupta and Shanti Prasad

Devi (Supra), the mere deposit of rent in the bank account of L.D.A. will not make the petitioner a tenant by holding over, unless it is established that the rent had been accepted by a legal representative of L.D.A. competent to assent to the petitioner continuing in possession, which is not the case here, as the competent authorities of L.D.A. have repetitively asked the petitioner to vacate the land occupied by her and the petitioner wants to continue in possession of the land not for the purpose for which it was initially granted to her, i.e. for gardening purpose, but she wants to retain it as an additional land forming a part of her residential plot. In these circumstances, neither Section 116 of the Transfer of Property Act, nor the judgments in the cases of in Sarup Singh Gupta and Shanti Prasad Devi (Supra) support the petitioner's claim.

51. The learned counsel for the petitioner has also submitted that Section 90 of the Registration Act exempts lease deeds executed by any statutory body.

52. Section 90 of the Registration Act 1908 provides as follows:-

"90. Exemption of certain documents executed by or in favour of Government.—(1) Nothing contained in this Act or in the Indian Registration Act, 1877 (3 of 1877), or in the Indian Registration Act, 1871 (8 of 1871), or in any Act thereby repealed, shall be deemed to require, or to have at any time required, the registration of any of the following documents or maps, namely—

(a) documents issued, received or attested by any officer engaged in making a settlement or revision of settlement of land-revenue, and which form part of the records of such settlement; or

(b) document and maps issued, received or authenticated by any officer engaged on behalf of Government in making or revising the survey of any land, and which form part of the record of such survey; or

(c) documents which, under any law for the time being in force, are filed periodically in any revenue-office by patwaris or other officers charged with the preparation of village-records; or

(d) sanads, inam, title-deeds and other documents purporting to be or to evidence grants or assignments by Government of land or of any interest in land; or

(e) notices given under Section 74 or Section 76 of the Bombay Land-Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay Act 5 of 1879), of relinquishment of occupancy by occupants, or of alienated land by holders of such land.

(2) All such documents and maps shall, for purposes of Sections 48 and 49, be deemed to have been and to be registered in accordance with the provisions of this Act."

53. Section 3 (23) of the General Clauses Act provides that "Government" or "the Government", shall include both the Central Government and any State Government;"

54. "Central Government" is defined in Section 3(8) of the general Clauses Act as follows: -

"(8) "Central Government" shall,—

(a) in relation to anything done before the commencement of the Constitution, mean the Governor-General or the Governor-General-in-Council, as the case may be; and shall include,—

(i) in relation to functions entrusted under sub-section (1) of Section 124 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the Government of a Province, the Provincial Government acting within the scope of the authority given to it under that sub-section; and

(ii) in relation to the administration of a Chief Commissioners' Province, the Chief Commissioner acting within the scope of the authority given to him under sub-section (3) of Section 94 of the said Act; and

(b) in relation to anything done or to be done after the commencement of the Constitution mean the President; and shall include,

(i) in relation to functions entrusted under clause (1) of Article 258 of the Constitution to the Government of a State, the State Government acting within the scope of the authority given to it under that clause;

(ii) in relation to the administration of a Part C State before the commencement of the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956, the Chief Commissioner or the Lieutenant-Governor or the Government of a neighbouring State or other authority acting within the scope of the authority given to him or it under Article 239 or Article 243 of the Constitution as the case may be;

(iii) in relation to the administration of a Union territory the administrator thereof acting within the scope of the authority given to him under Article 239 of the Constitution;"

55. The "State Government" is defined in Section 3(60) of the General Clauses Act as follows: -

"(60) "State Government,"—

(a) as respects anything done before the commencement of the Constitution, shall mean, in a Part A State, the Provincial Government of the corresponding Province, in a Part B State, the authority or person authorized at the relevant date to exercise executive government in the corresponding Acceding State, and in a Part C State, the Central Government;

(b) as respects anything done after the commencement of the Constitution and before the commencement of the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956, shall mean, in a Part A State, the Governor, in a Part B State, Rajpramukh, and in a Part C State, the Central Government;

(c) as respects anything done or to be done after the commencement of the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956, shall mean, in a State, the Governor, and in a Union territory, the Central Government; and shall, in relation to functions entrusted under Article 253-A of the Constitution to the Government of India, include the Central Government acting within the scope of the authority given to it under that article;"

56. L.D.A. has been notified by the State government under Section 4 of the Act of 1973 and it is a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and it has the power to power to acquire, hold and dispose of property. A bare reading of the aforesaid statutory provisions makes it manifest that L.D.A. is not "Government", although it falls within the definition of 'State' under Article 12 of the Constitution of India. "State" and "Government" are not one and the same. A lease deed executed by the L.D.A is not a sanad, inam, title-deed or other document evidencing a grant or assignment by Government of land or of any interest in land, as referred to in Section 90 (1) (d) of the Registration Act so as to be deemed to have been registered. The submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is without any merit and the same is turned down.

57. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon a judgment of Patna High Court in Satrudhan Sahani versus State of Bihar: AIR 1991 Pat 211, wherein an advertisement was published in the newspapers inviting applications for settlement of a tank for fishing purpose for a period of ten years with effect from 01.04.1985. The petitioners and the respondents filed applications and the selection agency recommended settlement in favour of the respondents. The selection committee approved the suggestion. The petitioners filed an objection before the Collector of the district objecting to settlement in favour of the respondents. The Collector sought a report from the Additional Collector, who submitted a report that three out of the four respondents had completed the training given by the Agency and as such they had a better claim for taking settlement. The Collector directed that the settlement be made in favour of the respondents. In this factual background, the Patna High Court held that: -

"13. In view of series of judgments of the Supreme Court, now it is not possible to dismiss, a writ application filed on behalf of a person who feels that he has been discriminated by the State Government or an Authority which can be held to be a 'State' within the meaning of Art. 12 of the Constitution, in matters of settlement of fishery rights in tanks and jalkars belonging to the State, only on the ground that no registered document has been executed in favour of such petitioner by the competent authority. When the Supreme Court, by the aforesaid order passed in connection with this case itself, directed that the writ application be heard on merit after setting aside the earlier order passed by this Court, in my view the decision of the Full Bench in Chetlal Sao's case (AIR 1986 Pat 267) (supra) on the question of maintainability of a writ application in absence of a registered document stands overruled."

58. However, the provisions of Section 17 (1) (d), Section 49, Section 90 of the Registration Act, or Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act were not considered by the Patna High Court while deciding Satrudhan Sahani (Supra). Therefore, besides the point the decision of Patna High Court is not binding on this Court, this decision is not an authority on the question of effect of Section 17 (1) (d), 49, Section 90 of the Registration Act, or Section 107 of the Transfer of Property Act.

59. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon Kallingal Moosa Kutti versus Secretary of State for India in Council, 1919 SCC OnLine Mad 299, in which the first defendant had taken a lease of certain lands taken from the Government under Section 3 of the Government Grants Act contained a clause that the defendant should not erect buildings on the land, but the Grantee violated this condition. The Secretary of State filed a suit for ejectment. The lessee pleaded that the lease deed was not registered and it was not admissible in evidence. The High Court held that a lease granted by the Government was covered by Section 90 (1) (d) of the Registration Act. In the present case, the lease deed has not been executed by the Government under the Government Grants Act and, therefore, Kallingal Moosa Kutti (Supra) does not apply to a lease deed executed by the L.D.A.

60. Reliance has also been placed by the learned Counsel for the petitioner on Daso Kewat versus State of Bihar, 1995 SCC OnLine Pat 314, in which the Patna High Court held that a lease of land granted by the Crown under the Crown Grants Act, 1895 or the Government Grants Act, 1895 was outside the operation of Section 107, Transfer of Property Act, 1882 which provided that a lease of a movable property from year to year, or for any term exceeding one year or reserving a yearly rent could be made only by a registered instrument and it was covered by Section 90 (1) (d) of the Registration Act. However, the lease deed in favour of the petitioner has not been executed by the by the Crown under the Crown Grants Act, 1895 or the Government Grants Act, 1895 and it has been executed by the L.D.A. and not by the Government. Therefore, Daso Kewat (Supra) also does not apply to the present case.

61. Regarding the notice having been issued by the L.D.A quoting a wrong statutory provision, the petitioner has relied upon the decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the cases of R.S. Grewal versus Chander Parkash Soni, (2019) 6 SCC 216 and State Of West Bengal & Ors versus Vishnunarayan And Associates (P) Ltd.: (2002) 4 SCC 134.

62. In R.S. Grewal (Supra) a suit for possession had been filed against the first respondent, who was a tenant inducted by Shiv Dev Kaur Grewal, in the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Ludhiana. The defendant claimed that he had taken the shop in his possession on rent as a tenant from Dr Shiv Dev Kaur Grewal, who was not a limited owner of the property. Moreover, it was pleaded that the defendant was in occupation as a tenant and a suit for possession treating him to be a trespasser was not maintainable. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that Shiv Dev Kaur fulfilled the description of a "landlord" under Section 2(c) of the East Punjab Urban Rent Restriction Act, 1949; the first respondent who was covered by the expression "tenant" under Section 2(i) of the East Punjab Urban Rent Restriction Act, 1949 acquired the character of a statutory tenant and was protected under it; the statutory protection afforded to the tenant did not cease to exist upon the death of Shiv Dev Kaur; a suit for possession on the basis that the tenant was a trespasser after the death of Shiv Dev Kaur was not maintainable and the remedy of the appellants was to pursue eviction proceedings on the grounds contemplated by the East Punjab Urban Rent Restriction Act, 1949. The aforesaid decision was given in view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of that case, where the suit was filed wrongly treating the defendant to be a trespasser whereas he was a statutory tenant and proceedings for his eviction could be initiated under the East Punjab Urban Rent Restriction Act, 1949 only. This principle would not apply to the mention of a wrong provision in issuing a notice by the L.D.A., where the proceedings have rightly been initiated under the Act of 1973.

63. The learned Counsel for the petitioner has also placed reliance on the judgment in the case of State of W.B. versus Vishnunarayan & Associates (P) Ltd., (2002) 4 SCC 134, in which it was held that in the absence of specific statutory provision a person cannot be evicted by force by the State or its executive officers without following due course of law, on the ground of public interest and without any opportunity to show cause. In that case, proceeding for eviction of a lessee was initiated under Section 6-A of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) Act, 1976, which provides for Eviction of unauthorised occupants and penalty for such occupation. The Hon'ble Supreme Court held that: -

"23. Section 6-A Eviction of unauthorised occupants can be invoked against any person, who is not a tenant or who remains in occupation of any government premises without written order of the prescribed authority. The respondents were tenants under the erstwhile Company and continued to be so, as held by us. Therefore, they cannot be evicted by invoking powers conferred on the authority under Section 6-A of the Act of 1976. However, we are not deciding the controversy as to whether this Act would apply only to residential premises, as held by the High Court".

64. In the present case, the term of garden lease granted on 02.09.1989 stood expired and the subsequent lease deed dated 15.12.2000 has not been registered and it conferred no right, title or interest on the petitioner as per Section 49 of the Registration Act. Therefore, the petitioner is not a lessee of L.D.A. and she has no legally enforceable right in respect of the land which is a prerequisite for maintaining a Writ Petition.

65. Sri. M. P. Singh, the learned counsel for the opposite parties has submitted that a wrong mention of the statutory provisions will not invalidate the notice, if the power to issue notice is traceable to some other provision of the statue and the notice has been issued by the Competent Authority. He has relied upon the judgments in the cases of Yogendra Kumar versus State of U.P.: 2012 SCC OnLine All 410 and The Field Council of Norwegian Evangelical Mission and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors. 2018 (9) ADJ 649.

66. In Yogendra Kumar versus State of U.P.: 2012 SCC OnLine All 410, Rule 17(1)(a) of the Rules provides that a police officer against whom an enquiry is contemplated or is proceeding, may be placed under suspension. However, in the said order of suspension, in place of Rule '17(1)(a)', Rule '17(1)(b)' has been mentioned. A Division Bench of this Court held that: - "It is well settled legal position that merely because an order has been made under a wrong provision of law, it does not become invalid so long as there is some other provision of law under which the order could be validly made. Mere recital of a wrong provision of law does not have the effect of invalidating an order which is otherwise within the power of the authority making it."

67. In The Field Council of Norwegian Evangelical Mission and Ors. Vs. State of U.P. and Ors. 2018 (9) ADJ 649, a coordinate Bench of this Court held that: -

"35. It is settled law that merely mentioning of a wrong provision or a Section of the Act at the time of exercising power, which could have been validly exercised otherwise by an officer, does not invalid or vitiate such an order. If the power exists under the Act and the Rules for an officer to act in a particular manner, mere wrong mention of a provision of the Act/Section under which such power is exercised would not invalidate such an order."

68. Section 26-A of the U. P. Urban Planning and Development Act, 1973 contains provision regarding encroachment or obstruction on public land. Sub-section (4) of Section 26-A of the Act of 1973 provides that: -

"26-A. Encroachment or obstruction on public land.—
* * *
(4) If there are grounds to believe that a person has made any encroachment or obstruction on a land in a development area which is not a private property, the Authority or an officer authorised by it in this behalf may serve upon the person making encroachment or obstruction, a notice requiring him to show cause why he shall not be required remove the encroachment or obstruction within such period not being less than fifteen days as may be specified in the notice, and after considering the cause, if any, shown by such person, may order removal of such encroachment or obstruction for reason to be 'recorded in writing Provided that ..."

69. The mere fact that in place of Section 26-A(4), the notice issued by L.D.A. wrongly made a mention of Section 26(4) of the Act, which is in fact a non-existent provision, will not affect the legality of the proceedings initiated by the notice, more particularly when the petitioner has given a reply to the notice and the explanation given by her has been taken into consideration by the authority.

70. The learned counsel for the petitioner has next relied upon a decision of this Court in Dr. Virendra Kumar Dixit versus State of U.P., 2014 SCC OnLine All 16476, wherein it was held that even if the petitioners had encroached upon the acquired land and had constructed boundary wall, then too the L.D.A. had no right to demolish the boundary wall without adopting due procedure of law.

71. In the present case, the L.D.A. has taken recourse to the due process of law provided in Section 26-A(4) of the Act of 1973 and has passed the impugned order after giving opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and after taking into consideration her explanation. Therefore, it cannot be said that the L.D.A. has proceeded to take back possession of the land from the petitioner without adopting due process of law.

72. This Court is not inclined to accept the submission of the petitioner that the reason for cancellation of the lease was that L.D.A. wanted to transfer the land in favour of a Cabinet Minister of the State Government and that the Cabinet Minister has owns plots of L.D.A. and he is not entitled to get the land in question. Firstly, neither the land has been allotted to any person, nor the validity of the subsequently allotment is being adjudicated in this Writ Petition. The petitioner has assailed the legality of the impugned order directing her to vacate the land that was given on garden lease for a period of 10 years from 02.09.1989. The subsequent lease deed dated 05.12.2000 executed in favour of the petitioner was not registered and it confers no right upon her. If the petitioner has no right to continue in possession of the land, the order passed after giving her an opportunity to show cause and after taking into consideration the explanation offered by the petitioner, directing her to vacate the land, cannot be said to be bad in law even it it had been passed with some ulterior motive.

73. In Corpn. of the City of Bangalore versus Kesoram Industries and Cotton Mills Ltd., 1989 Supp (2) SCC 753, it was held that "The court has no jurisdiction to examine the validity of the reasons that goes into the decision or the motive that induced the delegated authority to exercise its powers."

74. Secondly, the allegation that the person whom the L.D.A. wanted to allot the land, was not eligible to get the land as he already has 4-5 plots of L.D.A., is as vague as it can be, as the Writ Petition does not contain any particulars of any other Plot / House owned by that person in any colony developed by L.D.A. or Housing Board etc. That person has not been arrayed as a party to the Writ Petition. No plea founded on such vague allegations can be adjudicated by this Court.

75. The petitioner now wants to get the land of garden lease allotted for residential purpose in terms of Government Order dated 05.03.1996, which provides in unequivocal terms that as far as possible, in case the additional land can be used as a new plot, it will be used in that manner only. The petitioner's Plot No. 3/84 measures 300 Square meters and the Plot No. 3/85, regarding which garden lease had been granted to the petitioner, measures 352 Square meters, as is apparent from the allotment letter dated 16.10.1986. Therefore, as per the Government Order dated 05.03.1996, the land bearing No. 3/85, which measures more than the Plot No. 3/84 allotted to the petitioner, cannot be treated merely as an additional land, and it is a separate residential plot, larger than the plot allotted to the petitioner. In case L.D.A wants to transfer it as a residential plot, the petitioner has no right to claim its allotment as additional land. The land is a residential land and the mere existence of two graves on the land of L.D.A. does not create any legal bar against the land being sold by the L.D.A. as a residential land and it does not give rise to any right in favour of the petitioner for getting the land allotted to her as additional land appurtenant to her plot no. 3/85.

76. In view of the aforesaid discussion, I am of the considered view that the impugned order dated 13.04.2010 passed by the Prescribed Authority/Joint Secretary, L.D.A., whereby the petitioner has been directed to remove her possession over plot number 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, failing which the L.D.A will remove the encroachment made by the petitioner on the aforesaid plot, does not suffer from any illegality.

77. The petitioner does not have any legal right to retain possession of Plot No. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow. As none of the legally enforceable rights of the petitioner has been violated by the respondents, the petitioner is not entitled to get any relief in this Writ Petition. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed.

78. Before parting with the case, it is observed that L.D.A. is free to transfer Plot no. 3/85, Vishwas Khand, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow, to any person, but the Plot has to be transferred in accordance with the relevant laws and the applicable rules. The L.D.A. shall ensure that the public property is transferred in a manner so as to ensure that all eligible persons get a chance to purchase it and L.D.A. gets the highest possible consideration for the same.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2488
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: LUCKNOW 10.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANISH KUMAR, J.

Writ B No. 1968 of 1978

Raj Bahadur & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
Deputy Director of Consolidation Faizabad & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
R.K. Srivastava, A.R. Khan, Dr. Ramesh Kumar Srivasta, Prem Chandra, Vijay Kumar Dixit

Counsel for the Respondent:
Bireshwar Nath, Ashok Kumar Misra

When village had come under the consolidation-objections were filed by the Petitioners and Respondents claiming their rights on Khata no.23-Consolidation officer partly allowed the claim in favor of the Petitioners-Two Appeals filed Petitioner's Appeal rejected-Revision filed-rejected-Impugned-Contending that the Revision Court has exceeded its jurisdiction u/s 48 of the Act, 1953-but the revisional Court had not admitted any new fact either in the form of document or otherwise -held that the deputy Director of Consolidation has unfettered powers in doing complete justice between the parties- Deputy Director of Consolidation is having jurisdiction to arrive at a different conclusion on same evidence but cannot exceed its jurisdiction by admitting new facts.

Writ Petition dismissed. (E-9)

List of Cases cited:

1. Ram Dular Vs Deputy Director of Consolidation, Jaunpur & ors. reported in 1994 Supp (2) SCC 198.

2. Moti & ors. Vs Deputy Director of Consolidation & ors. reported in 2005 (99) RD 222

3. Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) Thr. LRs. & ors. Vs Kripa Shankar (Dead), Thr. LRs & ors. reported in 2014 STPL (Web) 239 SC.

4. Preetam Singh (dead) by LRs. & ors. Vs Assistant Director of Consolidation & ors. reported in (1996) 2 SCC 273

5. Sheo Nand & ors. Vs Deputy Director of Consolidation Allahabad & ors. reported in 2000 (3) SCC 103

6. Sher Singh Vs Joint Director of Consolidation & ors. reported in 1978 (3) SCC 172

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manish Kumar, J.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the record of the case.

2. During the pendency of the present writ petition, petitioner nos. 1, 2, 4, 5 & 6 had died and their legal representative/heirs have already been substituted (hereinafter referred to as the petitioners). Similarly, the respondent nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 9/1, 10, 13, 14, 15, 15/1, 16 & 17 had died and their legal representatives/heirs have also been substituted (hereinafter referred to as the respondents).

3. The present petition has been preferred for quashing of the impugned revisional order dated 03.03.1978 passed by the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the original tenure holder was Angad Rai and thereafter his son Purai. Purai had three sons namely Horilal, Rikhai and Sheo Charan. The petitioners belong to the family of Horilal whereas the respondents belong to the family of Sheo Charan. The dispute is between the descendants of Horilal and Sheo Charan for Khata No. 23 situated at Danpur, Tanda, District Faizabad.

5. It is further submitted that when the village had come under the consolidation, the objections were filed by the petitioners and the respondents claiming their rights on Khata No. 23.

6. It is further submitted that the Consolidation Officer had decided the objections of the objectors and partly allowed the claim in favour of the petitioners with regard to certain Gatas of Khata No. 23 treating it as a sole tenancy of the petitioners.

7. It is further submitted that against the said order, two appeals under Section 11 (1) of the Consolidation and Holdings Act, 1953 (hereinafter referred to as, the Act, 1953) were filed by the both the parties as both were aggrieved. The appeal preferred on behalf of the petitioners was rejected vide order dated 04.04.1972 and the appeal preferred on behalf of the respondents was allowed. Against the appellate order dated 04.04.1972, the petitioners preferred a revision under Section 48 of the Act, 1953, which was also dismissed and feeling aggrieved the present writ petition has been preferred.

8. It is further submitted that the revisional Court has exceeded its jurisdiction by re-appreciating the evidence and substituting the findings given by the Consolidation Officer by its own finding which is not within the jurisdiction of Deputy Director of Consolidation under Section 48 of the Act, 1953.

9. It is further submitted that Section 48 of the Act, 1953 only empowers the Director of Consolidation to examine the record of any case decided or proceedings taken by any subordinate authorities for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the regularity of the proceedings; or as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any order and not empowered for appreciating the evidence and substituting it by his own findings, hence the impugned order passed by the revisional court is without jurisdiction and in support of his submissions, learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon several judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court as well as this Court, which are as follows:-

(i) Firstly, learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the para no. 3 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ram Dular vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Jaunpur and Ors. reported in 1994 Supp (2) SCC 198.

(ii) Secondly, he has placed reliance upon the para no. 6 of the judgment passed by this Court in the case of Moti and Ors. vs. Deputy Director of Consolidation and Ors. reported in 2005 (99) RD 222.

(iii) Lastly, the learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the para nos. 13 and 14 of the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) Thr. LRs. & Ors. vs. Kripa Shankar (Dead), Thr. LRs and Ors. reported in 2014 STPL (Web) 239 SC.

10. On the other hand, learned counsel for respondents and the learned State Counsel has submitted that Section 48 of the Act, 1953 has been amended and Explanation-III has been added by Act No. 3 of 2002 and giving it a retrospective effect w.e.f 10.11.1980, whereby the Director of Consolidation/Deputy Director is empowered to examine the correctness, legality or propriety of any order to examine any finding whether of fact or by law, recorded by any subordinate authority with power to re-appreciate oral or documentary evidence.

11. At this stage, learned counsel for petitioner has submitted that Act No. III of 2002 has come into force with effect from 10.11.1980 empowering the Director of Consolidation to examine any finding whether of fact or law with power to reappreciate oral or documentary evidence whereas the order passed by the Revisional Court is of the year 1978 when there was no such amendment or power given to the Deputy Director of Consolidation.

12. Learned State Counsel in reply to the aforesaid has submitted that the submission of learned counsel for petitioner is not tenable. In support of his submission, he has relied upon the certain relevant paragraphs of the judgments of Hon'ble Supreme Court. The details of which are as follows :-

(i) Preetam Singh (dead) by LRs. and Ors. vs. Assistant Director of Consolidation and Ors. reported in (1996) 2 SCC 273.

(ii) The second judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court, which has been relied by learned Standing Counsel is in the case of Sheo Nand And Others versus Deputy Director of Consolidation Allahabad and others reported in 2000 (3) SCC 103.

13. It is further submitted that the judgment in the case of Sheo Nand (supra) given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court by referring to the Section 48 of the Act, 1953, when explanation-III was not added to the same.

(iii) Lastly, the learned Standing Counsel has relied upon paragraph 15 of the judgment in the case of Sri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) (Supra), which has been relied by learned counsel for the petitioners also.

14. The court has asked the learned counsel for petitioners that except that legal submission any other submission if he wanted to make on the merits of the case, learned counsel for petitioner has replied that he is confining his submission only to the power of the Deputy Director of Consolidation as per Section 48 of the Act, 1953, except that the Deputy Director of Consolidation had not considered the agreement entered into between the parties for division of shares.

15. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the record of the case, it is an admitted case between the parties that they are descendents of Purai- the original tenure holder and the dispute is with regard to the Khata No. 23 situated at Village Danpur, Tanda, District Faizabad. The controversy involved in the present petition which is to be adjudicated by this Court is whether under Section 48, the Deputy Director of Consolidation is empowered to pass an order by appreciating the evidence and substituting the findings in the order passed by the Consolidation Officer. For that Section 48 alongwith explanation III is quoted hereinbelow:-

"48. Revision and reference. - (1) The Director of Consolidation may call for and examine the record of any case decided or proceedings taken by any subordinate authority for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the regularity of the proceedings; or as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any order [other than an interlocutory order] passed by such authority in the case or proceedings, and may, after allowing the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, make such order in the case or proceedings as he thinks fit.

(2) Powers under sub-section (1) may be exercised by the Director of Consolidation also on a reference under sub-section (3).

(3) Any authority subordinate to the Director of Consolidation may, after allowing the parties concerned an opportunity of being heard, refer the record of any case or proceedings to the Director of Consolidation for action under sub-section (1)].

.....[Explanation (III). - The power under this section to examine the correctness, legality or propriety of any order includes the power to examine any finding, whether of fact or law, recorded by any subordinate authority, and also includes the power to re- appreciate any oral or documentary evidence"

16. Explanation (III) has come into force by U.P. Act No. 3 of 2002 w.e.f. 10.11.1983 whereby the Director/Deputy Director of Consolidation has been empowered to re-appreciate any oral or documentary evidence but prior to that the such power was not with the Director/Deputy Director of Consolidation but in the light of the judgment cited by learned Standing Counsel in the case of Sheo Nand (supra) wherein it has been held that Deputy Director of Consolidation would have full power under Section 48 to re-appreciate or reevaluate the evidence on record. The said finding was given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court when explanation-III was not added to the Section 48.

17. For proper adjudication of the controversy involved in the present petition, it is apt to reproduce the relevant paras relied by learned counsel for the petitioners as well as by the learned Standing Counsel.

18. Firstly, the judgments relied by learned counsel for the petitioners is being reproduced hereunder:-

(a) relevant extract of para no. 3 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Ram Dular (supra) is extracted hereinbelow:-

".....It is clear that the Director had power to satisfy himself as to the legality of the proceedings or as to the correctness of the proceedings or correctness, legality or propriety of any order other than interlocutory order passed by the authorities under the Act. But in considering the correctness, legality or propriety of the order or correctness of the proceedings or regularity thereof it cannot assume to itself the jurisdiction of the original authority as a fact-finding authority by appreciating for itself of those facts de novo. It has to consider whether the legally admissible evidence had not been considered by the authorities in recording a finding of fact or law or the conclusion reached by it is based on no evidence, any patent illegality or impropriety had been committed or there was any procedural irregularity which goes to the rest (sic root) of the matter, had been committed in recording the order or finding. ...."

(b) para no. 6 of the judgment passed by this Court in the case of Moti (supra) is reproduced hereinbelow:-

"6. It is well settled that Deputy Director of Consolidation while exercising the revisional power conferred by Section 48 of the Act can only interfere with the finding recorded by Consolidation Officer and Settlement Officer, if they are found to be illegal, irregular, improper or correct, but he has no jurisdiction to substitute his own findings after re-appraisal of evidence. Reference may be made to the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Gaya Deen and Ors. vs. Hanuman Prasad reported in 2001 (92) RD 79 (SC) and that of learned Single Judge of this Court in the case of Jangi Lal v. Deputy Director of Consolidation, Allahabad reported in 2000 (1) AWC 59."

(c) para nos. 13 and 14 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (dead) supra is quoted hereinbelow:-

"13. Based on the rival factual and legal contentions raised by the parties, the following points would arise for our consideration :

1. Whether the Revisional Authority exceeded its jurisdiction under Section 48 of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings Act, 1953 in entertaining additional document at revision stage?

2. Whether the High Court was correct in concurring with the findings of the Revisional Authority?

3. 3. What order the appellants are entitled to?

Answer to Point No. 1

14. Section 48 of the Act is pari materia to Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. It is pertinent to mention at this point the decision of this Court given in the case of Sher Singh v. Joint Director of Consolidation & Ors. [(1978) 3 SCC 172]. The relevant paragraphs read as under:

"4. The principal question that falls for our determination in this case is whether in passing the impugned order, the Joint Director of Consolidation, exceeded the limits of the jurisdiction conferred on him under Section 48 of the 1953 Act. For a proper decision of this question, it is necessary to advert to Section 48 of the 1953 Act as it stood on the relevant date before its amendment by Act VIII of 1963:

" Section 48 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act.— The Director of Consolidation may call for the record of any case if the Officer (other than the Arbitrator) by whom the case was decided appears to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in him by law or to have failed to exercise jurisdiction so vested, or to have acted in the exercise of his jurisdiction illegally or with substantial irregularity and may pass such orders in the case as it thinks fit."of the U.P. Consolidation of Holdings Act.— The Director of Consolidation may call for the record of any case if the Officer (other than the Arbitrator) by whom the case was decided appears to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in him by law or to have failed to exercise jurisdiction so vested, or to have acted in the exercise of his jurisdiction illegally or with substantial irregularity and may pass such orders in the case as it thinks fit."

5. As the above section is pari materia with Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, it will be profitable to ascertain the scope of the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court. It is now well-settled that the revisional jurisdiction of the High Court is confined to cases of illegal or irregular exercise or non-exercise or illegal assumption of the jurisdiction by the subordinate courts. If a subordinate court is found to possess the jurisdiction to decide a matter, it cannot be said to exercise it illegally or with material irregularity even if it decides the matter wrongly. In other words, it is not open to the High Court while exercising its jurisdiction under Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure to correct errors of fact howsoever gross or even errors of law unless the errors have relation to the jurisdiction of the court to try the dispute itself."

19. Now, the judgments on which reliance has been placed by learned Standing Counsel are being quoted:-

(a) Para no. 6 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Preetam Singh (dead) (supra) is quoted:-

"When the matter was in revision before the Assistant director (Consolidation), he had the entire matter before him and his jurisdiction was unfettered. While in seisin of the matter in his revisional jurisdiction, he was in complete control and in position to test the correctness of the order made by the Settlement Officer (Consolidation) effecting remand. In other words, in exercise of revisional jurisdiction the Assistant Director (Consolidation) could examine the finding recorded by the Settlement Officer as to the abandonment of the land in dispute by those tenants who had been recorded at the crucial time in the Khasra of 1359 Fasli. That power as a superior court the Assistant Director (Consolidation) had, even if the remand order of the Settlement Officer had not been specifically put to challenge in separate and independent proceedings. It is noteworthy that the Court of the Assistant Director (Consolidation) is a court of revisional jurisdiction otherwise having suo moto power to correct any order of the subordinate officer. In this situation the Assistant Director (Consolidation) should not have felt fettered in doing complete justice between the parties when the entire matter was before him. The war of legalistics fought in the High Court was of no material benefit to the appellants. A decision on merit covering the entire controversy was due from the Assistant Director (Consolidation)."

(emphasis supplied)

(b) para nos. 20 and 21 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Sheo Nand (supra) is quoted hereinbelow:-

"20. The section gives very wide powers to the Deputy Director. It enables him either suo motu on his own motion or on the application of any person to consider the propriety, legality, regularity and correctness of all the proceedings held under the Act and to pass appropriate orders. These powers have been conferred on the Deputy Director in the widest terms so that the claims of the parties under the Act may be effectively adjudicated upon and determined so as to confer finality to the rights of the parties and the revenue records may be prepared accordingly.

21. Normally, the Deputy Director, in exercise of his powers, is not expected to disturb the findings of fact recorded concurrently by the Consolidation Officer and the Settlement Officer (Consolidation), but where the findings are perverse, in the sense that they are not supported by the evidence brought on record by the parties or that they are against the weight of evidence, it would be the duty of the Deputy Director to scrutinise the whole case again so as to determine the correctness, legality or propriety of the orders passed by the authorities subordinate to him. In a case, like the present, where the entries in the revenue records are fictitious or forged or they were recorded in contravention of the statutory provisions contained in the U.P. Land Records Manual or other allied statutory provisions, the Deputy Director would have full power under Section 48 to reappraise or re-evaluate the evidence-on-record so as to finally determine the rights of the parties by excluding forged and fictitious revenue entries or entries not made in accordance with law."

(emphasis supplied)

(c) para no. 15 of the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (supra) is quoted hereunder:-

"According to the legal principle laid down by this Court in the case mentioned above, the power of the Revisional Authority under Section 48 of the Act only extends to ascertaining whether the subordinate courts have exceeded their jurisdiction in coming to the conclusion. Therefore, if the Original and Appellate Authorities are within their jurisdiction, the Revisional Authority cannot exceed its jurisdiction to come to a contrary conclusion by admitting new facts either in the form of documents or otherwise, to come to the conclusion. Therefore, we answer point no. 1 in favour of the appellants by holding that the Revisional Authority exceeded its jurisdiction under Section 48 of the Act by admitting documents at revision stage and altering the decision of the subordinate courts."

20. In the light of the judgment cited by learned Standing Counsel in the case of Sheo Nand (supra) wherein it has been held that Deputy Director of Consolidation would have full power under Section 48 to re-appreciate or re-evaluate the evidence on record. The said finding was given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court when explanation-III was not added to the Section 48. The para nos. 20 and 21 of the said judgment has already been quoted in preceding paragraph no. 19 (b) of the present judgment.

21. The judgment relied by learned Standing Counsel in the case of Preetam Singh (supra) wherein it has been held that the Assistant Director of Consolidation should not have fettered in doing complete justice between the parties when the entire matter was before him. The relevant para no. 6 of the said judgment has already been quoted in the preceding paragraph no. 19 (a) of the present judgment.

22. As far as the judgments cited by learned counsel for the petitioners are concerned, thereafter in subsequent judgments, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held that the Deputy Director of Consolidation has unfettered power in doing complete justice between the parties, as mentioned above.

23. Paragraph nos. 13 & 14 of the judgment in the case of Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) (supra), relied by learned counsel for the petitioners where the Hon'ble Supreme Court has made reference of the judgment in the case of Sher Singh Vs. Joint Director of Consolidation and others reported in 1978 (3) SCC 172, wherein the power/jurisdiction of Deputy Director of Consolidation was confined to cases of illegal or irregular exercise or non exercise or illegal assumption of jurisdiction but para no. 15 of the same judgment which has been relied by learned Standing Counsel has clarified the earlier settled position of law. The relevant extract of the said judgment has already been quoted in the preceding paragraph no. 18 (c) of this judgment.

24. In the judgment of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) supra, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has distinguished the earlier settled position of law by giving jurisdiction to the revisional authority to arrive at contrary conclusion on the same evidence but has held that revisional authority cannot exceed its jurisdiction to come to a contrary conclusion by admitting new facts either in the form of document or otherwise to come to conclusion and it is not the case of the petitioners that the revisional Court in the revision had admitted any new fact either in the form of document or otherwise so the said judgment is not of any help to the petitioner.

25. The submission of learned counsel for the petitioners that the compromise was not considered by the revisional Court, the said submission was replied by the learned counsel for the respondents that there was no agreement /compromise between the petitioners and the respondents. The compromise which was relied by the petitioners was in between Baburam and Ram Narain- the real brothers and the decedents of the family of Horilal at the time of suit between the Baburam and Ram Narain in the year 1883 A.D. when Baburam and Ram Narain sought partition of the certain groves in the Court of learned Munsif and it was the partition between two real brothers i.e. decedents of the Horilal i.e. the family of the petitioners and not between the family of Horilal and Sheo Charan and this finding in the order of Consolidation Officer is not disputed by the learned counsel for the petitioners.

26. The reading of all the judgments relied by learned Standing Counsel in the cases of Preetam Singh (dead) (supra), Sheo Nand (supra) and the judgment in the case of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) (supra) (which has been relied by both the counsels), clarified the position that the Deputy Director of Consolidation can decide the matter after appreciating the evidence to do complete justice to the parties.

27. From the aforesaid, the position which emerges out is that the Deputy Director of Consolidation is having jurisdiction to arrive at a different conclusion on the same evidence but the revisional authority cannot exceed its jurisdiction by admitting new facts either in the form of document or otherwise so the paragraph nos. 13 & 14 of the judgment in the case of Shri Jagdamba Prasad (Dead) (supra) is not of any help to the petitioner in the light of paragraph 15 of the same judgment, as the revisional court in the said case had admitted new and fresh evidence.

28. In view of the facts, circumstances and discussion made hereinabove, the writ petition is dismissed.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2495
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Appeal Under Section 37 of Arbitration and Conciliation Act No. 8 of 2020

Bhartia Rashtriya Rajmarg Pradhikaran ...Appellant

Versus

Neeraj Sharma & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri Pranjal Mehrotra

Counsel for the Respondents:
Ms. Shalini Goel

A. Arbitration Law – Non-receipt of signed copy of arbitral award - Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 - Section 31 - National Highways Act, 1956 - Sections 3A & 3D -- The delivery of an arbitral award is substantive, as it activates the commencement of several critical timelines. This stage marks the termination of the arbitral proceedings and sets the clock ticking for any remedial actions available under the Arbitration Act. (Para 8, 10)

Several procedural timelines include the periods within which parties may seek to correct, interpret, or request an additional award u/s 33 of the Arbitration Act, or challenge the award u/s 34 of the Arbitration Act. The delivery of the signed copy of the arbitral award is not a mere formality; it is a substantive requirement that marks the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings and the commencement of potential post-award actions.

A literal interpretation, which ignores the practical reality that the party was aware of the arbitral award and acted upon it, would be contrary to the spirit of the Arbitration Act. A narrow view of Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act would defeat the Arbitration Act's purpose (expeditious dispute resolution) if it allowed a party to delay proceedings unjustly by claiming non- receipt of a signed copy despite having knowledge of the award's contents. (Para 11, 14, 15)

B. If a party begins to comply with the award's directives or uses the award's findings in subsequent actions, it indicates a de facto acceptance of the award. Such actions provide clear evidence that the party has understood and accepted the award's contents, thus making any later claims of non-receipt appear disingenuous. (Para 16)

In the instant case, the appellant has assailed the order of the Learned District Judge based asserting that they never received a signed copy of the arbitral award. As per the order of the Learned District Judge, the appellant was fully aware of the contents of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 and had acted on it, thereby demonstrating a practical acknowledgement of the arbitral award. In view of the award dated July 28, 2016, the Appellant through its letter dated May 22, 2017 asked the Special Land Acquisition officer to calculate the compensation amount and publish a supplementary award. In compliance of the same, the Competent Authority that is the Special Land Acquisition Officer calculated the amount of compensation to be paid and sent it to the Appellant on May 31, 2017. It is evident that, the Appellant, even despite the non-receipt of a signed copy of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 accepted the same and acted upon it. Therefore, the appellant cannot now evade the consequences by exploiting a procedural technicality regarding the non-receipt of a signed copy. It is crucial to interpret S. 31(5) of the Arbitration Act in a matter that aligns with the Arbitration Act's overarching goals of promoting fairness and expeditious dispute resolution. (Para 12, 13)

C. Doctrine of estoppel is vital in maintaining procedural fairness and integrity within the arbitration process. Estoppel prevents a party from taking inconsistent positions that would harm the opposing party or undermine the legal process's credibility. In arbitration, this doctrine ensures that a party cannot claim ignorance or non-receipt of an award after having acted upon it. Estoppel operates to uphold fairness by ensuring that parties cannot benefit from their own wrongdoing or negligence. If a party, aware of the award, delays raising objections or seeks to take advantage of procedural nuances to avoid compliance, estoppel can prevent such tactics. This doctrine aligns with the fundamental principles of justice and equity, ensuring that parties engage with the arbitration process honestly and transparently. (Para 17)

The Learned District Judge, Mathura, was justified in dismissing the appellant's application u/s 34 of the Arbitration Act as time- barred. The appellant's awareness of the award and its subsequent actions negate the claim of non-receipt of a signed copy. The principle of estoppel further prevents the appellant from contradicting their previous acknowledgment of the award. A balanced interpretation of S. 31(5) of the Arbitration Act supports the Learned District Judge's decision, ensuring procedural fairness and upholding the Arbitration Act's objectives of expeditious dispute resolution. The appellant's claim of patent illegality in the Learned District Judge's judgment lacks substance. The decision to dismiss the S. 34 application as time-barred was grounded in the appellant's evident awareness of the award and their subsequent actions. (Para 19)

The arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 having attained finality, cannot be questioned at this stage.

Application dismissed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. U.O.I., Vs Bhola Prasad Agrawal, 2022 SCC OnLine Chh 1644 (Para 4)

2. U.O.I. Vs Tecco Trichy Engineers, (2005) 4 SCC 239 (Para 7)

3. Rahul Vs Akola Janta Commercial Cooperative Bank Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Bom 814 (Para 9)

Present application assails the judgment and order dated 16.11.2019, passed by the District Judge, Mathura rejecting the application filed by the appellant herein u/s 34 of the Arbitration Act.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. The instant application has been filed under Section 37 of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Arbitration Act') against the judgment and order dated November 16, 2019 passed by the District Judge, Mathura rejecting the application filed by Bharatiya Rashtriya Rajmarg Pradhikaran (hereinafter referred to as the 'Appellant') under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act.

FACTS

2. I have laid down the factual matrix of the instant lis below:

(a) A notification was issued under Section 3A of the National Highways Act, 1956 (hereinafter referred to as the 'NHAI Act') on December 4, 2009 followed by a declaration dated June 25, 2010 under Section 3D of the NHAI Act in respect of the land in question. Thereafter, the Competent Authority declared the award determining the amount of compensation in respect of the land in question under Section 3G of the NHAI Act.

(b) Against the award of the Competent Authority, the Respondents filed a petition under Section 3G(5) of the NHAI Act before the Arbitrator (Additional Commissioner (Administration), Agra Division, Agra). The Arbitrator published an award on July 28, 2016 and remanded the matter to the Competent Authority.

(c) The appellant filed an application under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act against the award dated July 28, 2016 which was rejected vide judgment and order dated November 16, 2019.

(d) Against the judgment and order dated November 16, 2019, the appellant has filed the instant application under Section 37 of the Arbitration Act before this Court.

CONTENTIONS OF THE APPELLANT

3. Shri Pranjal Mehrotra, learned counsel appearing for the appellant has made the following submissions before this Court:

(i) As per the provisions of Section 3G(5) of the NHAI Act, the Arbitrator ought to have determined the amount itself. As such, the Arbitrator was not justified in remitting the matter back to the Competent Authority.

(ii) Learned District Judge acted with patent illegality in passing the impugned judgment and order dated November 16, 2019.

(iii) The appellant never received a signed copy of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 which is a mandatory requirement under Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act. As such, the Learned District Judge was not justified in dismissing the application filed by the appellant as time barred.

CONTENTIONS OF THE RESPONDENT

4. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondents has made the following submission before this Court:

The appellant had knowledge of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 and was fully aware of the same. As such, it is not open for it to now argue that since the appellant did not receive a signed copy of the award dated July 28, 2016, the period of limitation for challenging an arbitral award under Section 34 of the Act never started. Learned District Judge did not err in dismissing the application filed by the appellant under Section 34 of the Act as time barred. Reliance in this regard is placed upon the judgment of the High Court of Chhattisgarh in Union of India -v- Bhola Prasad Agrawal reported in 2022 SCC OnLine Chh 1644.

ANALYSIS

5. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the materials on record.

6. The primary issue raised in the instant case is that whether or not the Learned District Judge was justified in dismissing the application filed by the appellant under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act since the appellant was never served with a signed copy of the arbitral award, which is a mandatory requirement under Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act. Relevant parts of Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act have been extracted herein below for ease of reference:

"31. Form and contents of arbitral award. —

(1) ...

(2) ...

(3) ...

(4) ...

(5) After the arbitral award is made, a signed copy shall be delivered to each party."

7. Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act while seemingly procedural in nature, embodies broader objectives. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union of India -v- Tecco Trichy Engineers reported in (2005) 4 SCC 239 propounded the importance of the requirement to deliver a signed copy of the arbitral award on parties. Relevant paragraph of the said judgment reads as under:

"8. The delivery of an arbitral award under sub-section (5) of Section 31 is not a matter of mere formality. It is a matter of substance. It is only after the stage under Section 31 has passed that the stage of termination of arbitral proceedings within the meaning of Section 32 of the Act arises. The delivery of arbitral award to the party, to be effective, has to be "received" by the party. This delivery by the Arbitral Tribunal and receipt by the party of the award sets in motion several periods of limitation such as an application for correction and interpretation of an award within 30 days under Section 33(1), an application for making an additional award under Section 33(4) and an application for setting aside an award under Section 34(3) and so on. As this delivery of the copy of award has the effect of conferring certain rights on the party as also bringing to an end the right to exercise those rights on expiry of the prescribed period of limitation which would be calculated from that date, the delivery of the copy of award by the Tribunal and the receipt thereof by each party constitutes an important stage in the arbitral proceedings."

8. Delivery of an arbitral award under Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act plays a pivotal role by initiating various stages of the arbitration process, setting limitation periods, and conferring rights upon the parties. In the realm of sports, where victory and defeat hang in balance, arbitration serves as the referee adjudicating disputes on the field of play. Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act acts as the final whistle, signalling the end of the match and the declaration of the winner. For the prevailing party, the delivery of the award marks the culmination of their efforts and provides them with a means of enforcing their rights against the losing party. Conversely, for the losing party, the delivery of the award represents the beginning of the period within which they may challenge the award on specified grounds under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act.

9. The Bombay High Court in Rahul -v- Akola Janta Commercial Co-operative Bank Ltd. reported in 2023 SCC OnLine Bom 814 espoused on the significance of delivering the signed copy of an award under Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act to the party, relevant paragraphs thereof read as under:

"24. The entire object and purport of Section 31(5) of the A & C Act, when it states that a signed copy of the award shall be delivered to each party, appears to be, that the party to the award should be made known the nature, effect and import of the award, so that each party, may then take a decision whether to challenge the award further by instituting appropriate proceedings under Section 34 of the A & C Act, before the Court, or in case there are any inaccuracies, corrections, interpretations or need for an additional award therein, to get it corrected by filing an application under Section 33 of the A & C Act, before the Arbitrator. This also so, for the reason that both Section 33(1) and 34(3) of the A & C Act, provide for limitations of time in this regard to approach either the Arbitral Tribunal or the Court for the said purpose and therefore the delivery of the award as contemplated in Section 31(5) has the effect of setting in motion these time periods, within which the remedies available are to be availed of by the party. It is in this context it has to be understood that the signed copy of the award has to be delivered to the 'party', as defined in Section 2(h) of the A & C Act, so that a decision can be taken by the 'party' regarding the future course of action to be adopted, within the time frame as stipulated by the provisions of the Statute. The delivery of the signed copy of the award, is therefore information, brought to the notice and knowledge of each party, as to the contents of the award, so as to make the 'party', aware that the limitation to raise a challenge, has started to run, which knowledge/information is equally available to the 'party', when it receives the certified copy of the award signed by the Arbitrator. The purpose of the provision, of imparting knowledge to the 'party', as to the contents of the award, is achieved whether a signed copy is delivered or the certified copy of the signed award is obtained by the 'party'. In either case knowledge/information as to the contents of the award stands attributed to the 'party', and the time as provided in Section 33(1) and 34(3) of the A & C Act, begins to run therefrom. The situation is quite different when the award is not delivered to the 'party', or obtained by the 'party', but is delivered or obtained to/by the counsel or agent of the 'party' as the knowledge of the 'party', as defined in Section 2(1)(h) of the A & C Act, is what is contemplated by Section 31(5), as in that circumstances a plea can successfully be raised by the 'party', of non-compliance with the requirement of Section 31(1) which would entitle it to claim that the time for challenging the award under Section 34(3) or for correction/interpretation/modification of the award or passing of an additional award did not begin to run.

25. All the judgments cited by Mr. Bhattad, learned counsel for the petitioner, contemplate the requirement of Section 31(5) vis-a-vis the time as prescribed in Section 34(3) for challenging of the award. In fact, the factual position in Anilkumar Jinabhai Patel (supra) is quite similar to the factual position as extant in the present matter.

26. Section 32(1) of the A & C Act pressed into service by Mr. Bhattad, learned counsel for the petitioner, merely contemplates that the arbitration proceedings stand terminated by the final arbitral award, or by an order of the Arbitral Tribunal under sub-section (2) thereof. It does not contemplate that the arbitral proceedings stand terminated, only upon delivery of the arbitral award, as contemplated by Section 31(5) and therefore nothing turn around the language of Section 32(1) insofar as the present issue is concerned.

27. Section 36(1) of the A & C Act, provides that when the time for making an application to set aside the arbitral award under Section 34 has expired, then subject to Section 36(2) the award shall be enforced as a decree under the Code of Civil Procedure. The contention of Mr. Bhattad, learned counsel for the petitioner, is that since the signed copy of the award was not delivered to the petitioner, in terms of Section 31(5) of the A & C Act, the time for making the application for setting aside the arbitral award had not expired and the execution proceedings were therefore infirm, is in my considered opinion taking a too literal and narrow view of the language of Section 31(5) of the A & C Act, which would defeat the very purpose and object of the Act itself, as once a 'party', is held to have received/obtained the signed copy of the award, maybe a certified copy, as indicated above the information regarding the contents of the award stands attributed to the party, and therefore the time, would begin to run for raising a challenge to the award. Once that time has expired, it cannot be permitted to be said that though a certified signed copy was obtained by the 'party', from the Arbitrator, still the time under Section 31(1) or 34(3) of the A & C Act, did not run and expire, as a signed copy of the award, in terms of Section 31(5) was not delivered to the 'party'. It is a settled position of law, that where the literal meaning of a provision, entails in doing violence to the meaning, intent and purpose of the Act, it would call for a purposeful and constructive meaning to be given to the language of the provision."

10. The importance of Section 31(5) cannot be overstated as it initiates several procedural timelines. These include the periods within which parties may seek to correct, interpret, or request an additional award under Section 33 of the Arbitration Act, or challenge the award under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act. The delivery of the signed copy of the arbitral award is not a mere formality; it is a substantive requirement that marks the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings and the commencement of potential post-award actions. In Union of India v. Tecco Trichy (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court emphasized that the delivery of an arbitral award is substantive, as it activates the commencement of several critical timelines. This stage marks the termination of the arbitral proceedings and sets the clock ticking for any remedial actions available under the Arbitration Act.

11. However, interpreting Section 31(5) too literally in all cases may lead to unjust outcomes, undermining the fundamental objectives of arbitration. The literal adherence to this provision might be used strategically by parties to delay the enforcement of the award, thus defeating the principle of expeditious dispute resolution that arbitration seeks to promote.

12. In the instant case, the appellant has assailed the order of the Learned District Judge based on the assertion that they never received a signed copy of the arbitral award. However, as highlighted by the Learned District Court, it is essential to consider several critical facts. Relevant portions from the impugned order dated November 16, 2019 passed by the Learned District Judge Court under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act are delineated below:

"इस पत्र से यह स्पष्ट है कि, मध्यस्थ के निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 के परिप्रेक्ष्य में परियोजना निदेशक, राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण, सी०एम०यू०, मथुरा द्वारा अपने पत्रांक 44271 दिनांकित 22.05.2017 द्वारा विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी को अनुपूरक अभिनिर्णय घोषित कर उपलब्ध कराने हेतु पत्र भेजा गया है एवं उसके अनुपालन में सक्षम प्राधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी द्वारा धनराशि का गणना प्रपत्र तथा धनराशि की गणना दिनांक 31.05.2017 को परियोजना निदेशक, राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण, सी०एम०यू०, मथुरा द्वारा प्रेषित की गयी है, जिससे यह स्पष्ट है कि , मौजूदा आपत्तिकर्ता यानि परियोजना निदेशक, राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण, सी०एम०यू०, मथुरा द्वारा मध्यस्थ के निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 को स्वीकार किया गया है एवं उसके अनुपालन में प्रतिकर की गणना करने हेतु सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी, संयुक्त संगठन, मथुरा को पत्र प्रेषित किया गया है एवं इस पत्र के तथा मध्यस्थ महोदय के पंचाट निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 के अनुपालन में सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी, संयुक्त संगठन ने तहसीलदार छाता से स्थलीय जाँच कर एवं इस जाँच की आख्या के अनुसार स्थल का निरीक्षण कर जाँच आख्या परियोजना निदेशक, राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण, फरीदाबाद को प्रेषित की। स्थलीय जाँच आख्या एवं सर्वेयर की जाँच आख्या के अनुसार मध्यस्थ महोदय के निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 के अनुपालन में सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी द्वारा अनुपूरक अधिनिर्णय घोषित कर मुवलिग 29,04,000/- का प्रतिकर विपक्षीगण संख्या 1 लगायत 4 हेतु निर्धारित किया गया है एवं उक्त प्रतिकर निर्धारण मध्यस्थ महोदय के अनुमोदन हेतु भी प्रेषित किया गया है, जिसके सम्बन्ध में मध्यस्थ ने अनुमोदन का कोई प्रावधान न होने का कथन करते हुए सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी, संयुक्त संगठन, मथुरा को पत्र वापस प्रेषित किया गया है, जिससे स्पष्ट है कि, मध्यस्थ पंचाट निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 का क्रियान्वयन हो चुका है। इस प्रकार प्रश्नगत मध्यस्थ निर्णय दिनांकित

28.07.2016 की पहले से ही जानकारी होने तथा इसके अनुपालन हेतु दिनांक 22.05.2017 को सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी, संयुक्त संगठन, मथुरा को मौजूदा आपत्तिकर्ता द्वारा पत्र भेजने तथा सक्षम अधिकारी/विशेष भूमि अध्याप्ति अधिकारी, संयुक्त संगठन, मथुरा के पत्रावली पर मौजूद पत्र दिनांकित 31.05.2017 एवं गणना प्रपत्र के अवलोकन से स्पष्ट है कि, मध्यस्थ के पंचाट निर्णय दिनांक 28.07.2016 का क्रियान्वयन हो चुका है, अतः मध्यस्थ के पंचाट निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 का दिनांक 31.05.2017 से पूर्व अनुपालन हो जाने के कारण दिनांक 01.11.2017 को भारतीय राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण द्वारा मध्यस्थ निर्णय दिनांकित 28.07.2016 के विरुद्ध प्रस्तुत मौजूदा आपत्ति अंतर्गत धारा 34 मध्यस्थ सुलह अधिनियम 1996 कानूनन अपोषणीय हो जाती है, अतः मौजूदा आपत्ति अंतर्गत धारा 34 मध्यस्थ सुलह अधिनियम 1996 द्वारा, भारतीय राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण द्वारा परियोजना निदेशक, सी०एम०यू० मथुरा, फरीदाबाद, हरियाणा कानूनन पोषणीय न होने के कारण निरस्त होने योग्य है।

आदेश

आपत्तिकर्ता भारतीय राष्ट्रीय राजमार्ग प्राधिकरण की आपत्ति कानूनन पोषणीय न होने के कारण निरस्त की जाती है।

पत्रावली नियमानुसार अभिलेखागार प्रेषित हो।"

13. What emerges from the order of the Learned District Judge is that the appellant was fully aware of the contents of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 and had acted on it, thereby demonstrating a practical acknowledgement of the arbitral award. In view of the award dated July 28, 2016, the Appellant through its letter dated May 22, 2017 asked the Special Land Acquisition officer to calculate the compensation amount and publish a supplementary award. In compliance of the same, the Competent Authority that is the Special Land Acquisition Officer calculated the amount of compensation to be paid and sent it to the Appellant on May 31, 2017. What is evident is that, the Appellant, even despite the non-receipt of a signed copy of the arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 accepted the same and acted upon it. Therefore, the appellant cannot now evade the consequences by exploiting a procedural technicality regarding the non-receipt of a signed copy. It is crucial to interpret Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act in a matter that aligns with the Arbitration Act's overarching goals of promoting fairness and expeditious dispute resolution.

14. A literal interpretation, which ignores the practical reality that the party was aware of the arbitral award and acted upon it, would be contrary to the spirit of the Arbitration Act. This was aptly summarized by the Bombay High Court in Akola Janta (supra) when it remarked that a narrow view of Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act would defeat the Arbitration Act's purpose if it allowed a party to delay proceedings unjustly by claiming non-receipt of a signed copy despite having knowledge of the award's contents.

15. In Bhola Prasad (supra), the High Court of Chhattisgarh while dealing with a case wherein the signed copy of the award was not delivered to the appellant therein in accordance with Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act, held that the Court under Section 34(2) of the Arbitration Act was justified in dismissing the application as time barred since the appellant therein despite non delivery of the signed copy of the arbitral award was aware of its contents. Relevant paragraph is extracted herein:

"21. True, in the instant case, the Appellant had not received or was not delivered signed copy of the award as contained in Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act, but, when Respondent 1 moved the application before Respondent 2 for enhancement of the compensation on the basis of the arbitral award dated 7.3.2018 the Appellant became aware of passing of the arbitral award and on 20.1.2019 on which he got legal opinion from the Advocate he became aware that he had to file an appeal/objection against the arbitral award. Meaning thereby, on 20.1.2019 itself, the Appellant was very well aware that he had to prefer an appeal/objection against the arbitral award. True, as per the provisions of Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act, it is necessary to deliver a signed copy of the arbitral award to each of the parties after passing of the arbitral award, but, in the instant case, it has not been done so by the Arbitrator. This Court is of the view that provision of delivery of a signed copy of the arbitral award to each of the parties to the proceeding is meant for the purpose that the parties should aware of the contents of the award passed and if any of them has grievance, he can proceed further in accordance with law. As observed earlier, the Appellant had already become aware of the award when Respondent 1 moved the application before Respondent 2 for enhancement of the compensation on the basis of arbitral award dated 7.3.2018 and a legal opinion on this had also been obtained by the Appellant from the Advocate on 20.1.2019. Therefore, mere non-delivery of a signed copy of the award as contained in Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act does not create any prejudice to the Appellant. Accordingly, in my considered view, the District Judge has rightly rejected the appeal/application moved under Section 34(2) of the Arbitration Act on the ground of limitation."

16. A party which has knowledge of the contents of an arbitral award, understands its implications, and begins to act upon it demonstrates practical acknowledgment of the arbitral award. This behaviour effectively nullifies any subsequent claims of non-receipt of a signed copy, as the party has already engaged with the award substantively. Courts have often observed that practical engagement with an arbitral award signifies awareness, which should trigger the timelines for any further legal action. The emphasis on acting upon the award is crucial. For instance, if a party begins to comply with the award's directives or uses the award's findings in subsequent actions, it indicates a de facto acceptance of the award. Such actions provide clear evidence that the party has understood and accepted the award's contents, thus making any later claims of non-receipt appear disingenuous.

17. The doctrine of estoppel is vital in maintaining procedural fairness and integrity within the arbitration process. Estoppel prevents a party from taking inconsistent positions that would harm the opposing party or undermine the legal process's credibility. In arbitration, this doctrine ensures that a party cannot claim ignorance or non-receipt of an award after having acted upon it. Estoppel operates to uphold fairness by ensuring that parties cannot benefit from their own wrongdoing or negligence. If a party, aware of the award, delays raising objections or seeks to take advantage of procedural nuances to avoid compliance, estoppel can prevent such tactics. This doctrine aligns with the fundamental principles of justice and equity, ensuring that parties engage with the arbitration process honestly and transparently.

18. Courts have often highlighted that a purely literal interpretation, ignoring the practical realities and broader legislative objectives, can lead to unjust outcomes. A strict literal interpretation could enable parties to delay or obstruct the arbitration process by claiming non-receipt of a signed copy despite being aware of the award's contents and having acted upon it. The legislative intent behind Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act is to ensure that parties are adequately informed about the award to take necessary legal actions within prescribed timelines. Therefore, an interpretation that considers the party's actual awareness and actions, even if a signed copy was not formally received, aligns better with the legislative intent and the principles of justice and equity.

19. The Learned District Judge, Mathura, was justified in dismissing the appellant's application under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act as time-barred. The appellant's awareness of the award and its subsequent actions negate the claim of non-receipt of a signed copy. The principle of estoppel further prevents the appellant from contradicting their previous acknowledgment of the award. A balanced interpretation of Section 31(5) of the Arbitration Act supports the Learned District Judge's decision, ensuring procedural fairness and upholding the Arbitration Act's objectives of expeditious dispute resolution. The appellant's claim of patent illegality in the Learned District Judge's judgment lacks substance. The decision to dismiss the Section 34 application as time-barred was grounded in the appellant's evident awareness of the award and their subsequent actions.

20. In light of the same, this Court finds no reason to interfere with the impugned judgment and order dated November 16, 2019 passed by the Learned District Judge, Mathura under Section 34 of the Arbitration Act. The arbitral award dated July 28, 2016 having attained finality, cannot be questioned at this stage.

21. Accordingly, the instant application is dismissed. There shall be no order as to the costs.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2504
APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 24.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE VIPIN CHANDRA DIXIT, J.

First Appeal from Order No. 2664 of 2016

Saroj ...Appellant
Versus
M/S Mangla Oil Carier Pvt. Ltd. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Vikash Singh, Nigamendra Shukla

Counsel for the Respondents:
Anand Pati Tiwari, Bhartednu Pathak

A. Insurance Law – Compensation - The amounts, therefore, which were required to be paid to the deceased by his employer by way of perks, should be included for computation of his monthly income as that would have been added to his monthly income by way of contribution to the family as contradistinguished to the ones which were for his benefit. However, the Court hastened to add that from the said amount of income, the statutory amount of tax payable thereupon must be deducted. (Para 4)

B. Words and Phrases – 'income' - If the dictionary meaning of the word "income" is taken to its logical conclusion, it should include those benefits, either in terms of money or otherwise, which are taken into consideration for the purpose of payment of income tax or professional tax although some elements thereof may or may not be taxable or would have been otherwise taxable but for the exemption conferred thereupon under the statute. (Para 4)

Appellant submitted that a very meager amount has been awarded by the claims tribunal. The claimant has fully proved his income by producing cogent evidence and the claims tribunal has erred in awarding compensation accepting Rs. 4,153/-as monthly income of the claimant and amount of Rs. 1,765/-received by the claimant under the head of H.R.A. was deducted by the tribunal from the income of the deceased. The claims tribunal has erred in deducting amount of H.R.A., whereas the house rent allowance includes in the income of the claimant.

C. In assessing the compensation payable the settled principles need to be borne in mind. A victim who suffers a permanent or temporary disability occasioned by an accident is entitled to the award of compensation. The award of compensation must cover among others, the following aspects:

(i) Pain, suffering and trauma resulting from the accident;
(ii) Loss of income including future income;
(iii) The inability of the victim to lead a normal life together with its amenities;
(iv) Medical expenses including those that the victim may be required to undertake in future; and
(v) Loss of expectation of life. (Para 5)

Compensation can be granted for disability as well as for loss of future earnings for the first head relates to the impairment of a person's capacity while the other relates to the sphere of pain and suffering and loss of enjoyment of life by the person himself.

The benefit of future prospects should not be confined only to those who have a permanent job and would extend to self-employed individuals. In the case of a self-employed person, an addition of 40% of the established income should be made where the age of the victim at the time of the accident was below 40 years. (Para 5)

The claimant had received grievous injuries in the accident and has become permanent disable. As per disability certificate there was disability of 45%. So far as income of the claimant-injured is concerned, the claims tribunal has erred in excluding the amount received towards H.R.A. from the monthly income of the injured. The amount of Rs. 1,765/-received by claimant under the head of H.R.A. is included in his monthly income for the purposes to calculate the just compensation. The claimant-appellant is also entitled for 50% future prospects. (Para 8)

Appeal allowed. Compensation awarded by the claims tribunal has been modified and enhanced. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. National Insurance Co. Ltd. Vs Indira Srivastava, 2008 (2) SCC 763 (Para 4)

2. Jagdish Vs Mohan & ors., 2018 (2) T.A.C. 14 (Para 5)

Present appeal challenges the judgment and award dated 18.04.2016, passed by Additional District Judge, Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Ghaziabad in M.A.C.P. No. 380 of 2013 by which compensation of Rs.6,10,068/- along with 6% interest has been awarded in favour of claimant-appellant on account of injuries received by him.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Vipin Chandra Dixit, J.)

1. List has been revised.

2. Heard Sri Nigamendra Shukla, learned counsel for the appellant and Sri Bhartendu Pathak, learned counsel for the respondent no.3 and perused the record. No one is present on behalf of respondent nos. 1 and 2, who are owner and driver of vehicle.

3. This first appeal from order has been filed by the appellant against the judgement and award dated 18.04.2016 passed by Additional District Judge, Court No.- 13/ Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Ghaziabad in M.A.C.P. No. 380 of 2013 (Sanoj Kumar Vs. M/s Mangala Oil Carrier Pvt. Ltd. and others) by which compensation of Rs. 6,10,068/- along with 6% interest has been awarded in favour of claimant-appellant on account of injuries received by him.

4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the appellant that a very meager amount has been awarded by the claims tribunal. The claimant has fully proved his income by producing cogent evidence and the claims tribunal has erred in awarding compensation accepting Rs. 4,153/- as monthly income of the claimant and amount of Rs. 1,765/- received by the claimant under the head of H.R.A. was deducted by the tribunal from the income of the deceased. The claims tribunal has erred in deducting amount of H.R.A., whereas the house rent allowance includes in the income of the claimant. Learned counsel for the appellant has placed reliance on the judgement of Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of National Insurance Co. Ltd. Vs. Indira Srivastava reported in 2008 (2) SCC 763. The relevant paragraph nos. 19 and 21 are reproduced hereinbelow:-

"19. The amounts, therefore, which were required to be paid to the deceased by his employer by way of perks, should be included for computation of his monthly income as that would have been added to his monthly income by way of contribution to the family as contradistinguished to the ones which were for his benefit. We may, however, hasten to add that from the said amount of income, the statutory amount of tax payable thereupon must be deducted.

21. If the dictionary meaning of the word "income" is taken to its logical conclusion, it should include those benefits, either in terms of money or otherwise, which are taken into consideration for the purpose of payment of income tax or professional tax although some elements thereof may or may not be taxable or would have been otherwise taxable but for the exemption conferred thereupon under the statute."

5. It is further submitted that nothing has been awarded towards future prospects, wheres, the claimant-appellant is entitled for 50% future prospects as the claimant was in permanent job and was below 40 years at the time of accident in view of law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Jagdish Vs. Mohan and others reported in 2018 (2) T.A.C. 14. The relevant paragraph nos.8, 9 and 10 are reproduced herein below:-

"8 In assessing the compensation payable the settled principles need to be borne in mind. A victim who suffers a permanent or temporary disability occasioned by an accident is entitled to the award of compensation. The award of compensation must cover among others, the following aspects:

(i) Pain, suffering and trauma resulting from the accident;

(ii) Loss of income including future income;

(iii) The inability of the victim to lead a normal life together with its amenities;

(iv) Medical expenses including those that the victim may be required to undertake in future; and

(v) Loss of expectation of life.

In Sri Laxman @ Laxman Mourya v Divisional Manager, Oriental Insurance Co. Ltd., this Court held:

"The ratio of the above noted judgments is that if the victim of an accident suffers permanent or temporary disability, then efforts should always be made to award adequate compensation not only 2011 (12) SCALE 658 for the physical injury and treatment, but also for the pain, suffering and trauma caused due to accident, loss of earnings and victim's inability to lead a normal life and enjoy amenities, which he would have enjoyed but for the disability caused due to the accident." In K Suresh v New India Assurance Company Ltd., this Court adverted to the earlier judgments in Ramesh Chandra v Randhir Singh and B Kothandapani v Tamil Nadu State Transport Corporation Limited. The Court held that compensation can be granted for disability as well as for loss of future earnings for the first head relates to the impairment of a person's capacity while the other relates to the sphere of pain and suffering and loss of enjoyment of life by the person himself. In Govind Yadav v New India Insurance Company Limited , this Court adverted to the earlier decisions in R D Hattangadi v Pest Control (India) (Pvt) Ltd., Nizam's Institute of Medeical Sciences v Prasanth S Dhananka, Reshma Kumari v Madam Mohan, Arvind Kumar Mishra v New India Assurance Company, and Raj Kumar v Ajay Kumar and held thus:

"18. In our view, the principles laid down in Arvind Kumar Mishra v. New India Assurance3 Co. Ltd. and Raj Kumar v. Ajay Kumar must be followed by all the Tribunals and the High Courts in determining the quantum of compensation payable to the victims of accident, who are disabled either permanently or temporarily. If the victim of the accident suffers permanent disability, then efforts should always be made to award adequate compensation not only for the physical injury and treatment, but also for the loss of earning and his inability to lead a normal life and enjoy amenities, which he would have enjoyed but for the disability caused due to the accident." (Id at page 693) (2012)12SCC274 (1990) 3 SCC 723 (2011) 6 SCC 420 (2011) 10 SCC 683 (1995) 1 SCC 551 (2009) 6 SCC 1 (2009) 13 SCC 422 (2010) 10 SCC 254 (2011) 1 SCC 343 These principles were reiterated in a judgment of this Court in Subulaxmi v MD Tamil Nadu State Transport Corporation12 delivered by one of us, Justice Dipak Misra (as the learned Chief Justice then was).

9 Having regard to these principles, it would be now appropriate to assess the case of the appellant for enhancement of compensation. The accident took place on 24 November 2011. The appellant was a skilled carpenter and self-employed. The claim of the appellant that his earnings were Rs. 6,000/- per month cannot be discarded. This claim cannot be regarded as being unreasonable or contrary to a realistic assessment of the situation on the date of the accident.

10 In the judgment of the Constitution Bench in Pranay Sethi (supra), this Court has held that the benefit of future prospects should not be confined only to those who have a permanent job and would extend to self-employed individuals. In the case of a self-employed person, an addition of 40 per cent of the established income should be made where the age of the victim at the time of the accident was below 40 years. Hence, in the present case, the appellant would be entitled to an enhancement of Rs. 2400/- towards loss of future prospects."

6. On the other hand, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent-Insurance Company submits that the compensation awarded by the claims tribunal is almost just and proper and no ground for enhancement is made out. Learned counsel for the Insurance Company submits that since the age of claimant was 33 years at the time of accident, the appropriate multiplier would be 16 and the claims tribunal has erred in applying the multiplier of 17, however he has not disputed that the claimant is entitled to receive 50% towards future prospects. It is further submitted that the claims tribunal has recorded the finding that the vehicle was plied in violation of terms and conditions of Insurance Policy as the permit of the vehicle was not filed either by claimant or by owner of the vehicle and right of recovery has rightly been given to the Insurance Company. If the compensation is enhanced, then respondent-Insurance Company may be permitted to recover the same from the owner of the vehicle.

7. Considered the rival submissions of learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. As per the case of the claimant, the claimant had received grievous injuries in the accident and has become permanent disable. As per disability certificate there was disability of 45%. So far as income of the claimant-injured is concerned, the claims tribunal has erred in excluding the amount received towards H.R.A. from the monthly income of the injured. The amount of Rs. 1,765/- received by claimant under the head of H.R.A. is included in his monthly income for the purposes to calculate the just compensation. The claimant-appellant is also entitled for 50% future prospects in view of law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Jagdish (supra).

9. In view of above, the appeal preferred by claimant-appellant is partly allowed. The compensation awarded by the claims tribunal is reassessed as under:-

i. Monthly Income= Rs. 4,153/- + Rs. 1765/- = Rs. 5,918/-

ii. Annual Income= Rs. 5,918 x 12= Rs. 71,016/-

iii. Future prospects (50%)= Rs. 35,508/-

iv. Total Annual Income= Rs. 71,016/- + Rs. 35,508/- = Rs. 1,06,524/-

v. Loss of income (45%) = Rs. 47,935.8 /- = Rs, 47,936/-

vi. Multiplier applicable(16) = Rs. 47,936/- x 16 = Rs. 7,66,976/-

vii. Medical expenses = Rs.2,21,823/- viii. Pain and suffering = Rs. 7,000/-

ix. Total compensation = Rs. 7,66,976/- + Rs. 2,21,823/- + Rs. 7,000 /- = Rs. 9,95,799/-

10. In view of above the judgment and award of the claims tribunal is modified and compensation is enhanced from Rs. 6,10,068/- to Rs. 9,95,799/-.

11. The claimant-appellant is also entitled for 6% interest on the enhanced amount from the date of judgement and award dated 18.04.2016.

12. The respondent-Insurance Company is directed to pay the enhanced amount along with interest to the claimant within a period of two months from today. In case of default in depositing the amount as indicated above, the Insurance Company is liable to pay interest @ 10% on the enhanced amount till payment.

13. However, the respondent-Insurance Company is at liberty to recover the deposited enhanced amount from the respondent no.1, who is owner of the offending vehicle.

14. No order as to cost.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2509
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DR. YOGENDRA KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 146 of 2024

Shiv Singh & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Akshay Raghuvanshi, Pulkit Srivastava, Ritesh Kumar Singh, Shivendra Singh

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

A. Family Law – Child custody - The writ of habeas corpus, as is legally well settled, is a prerogative writ and an extraordinary remedy. It is a writ of right and not a writ of course and may be granted only on reasonable ground or probable cause being shown. (Para 9)

The role of the High Court in examining cases of custody of a minor, in a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, would have to be on the touchstone of the principle of parens patriae jurisdiction and the paramount consideration would be the welfare of the child. In such cases the matter would have to be decided not solely by reference to the legal rights of the parties but on the predominant criterion of what would best serve the interest and welfare of the minor. (Para 10, 14)

B. In cases of child custody, a petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus may be entertained in a case where it is established that the custody of the child is illegal or without authority. There may also be cases where the custody of the child has been forcibly altered, which renders the present custody illegal, and in the said circumstance, the Court may be persuaded to issue a writ of habeas corpus. (Para 7, 8, 23)

In a child custody matter, a writ of habeas corpus would not be entertainable unless it is established that the detention of the minor child by the parent or others is illegal and without authority of law. (Para 23)

In a petition for a writ of habeas corpus concerning a minor child, the Court, in a given case, may direct to change the custody of the child or decline the same keeping in view the attending facts and circumstances. For the said purpose it would be required to examine whether the custody of the minor with the private respondent, who is named in the petition, is lawful or unlawful. (Para 19)

There is absolutely no material on record, which may suggest that the custody of the petitioner no.1 (corpus) was taken away by the respondent no.5, from the petitioner no.2, at any point of time. The question of the custody, therefore, being illegal, would not arise in the facts of the case. (Para 20)

In a case such as this, where the custody of the minor child is with his biological mother ever since birth and there is no material to suggest that the custody was altered illegally, at any point of time, it may be presumed that the custody of the child with his mother is not, prima facie, unlawful. (Para 21)

C. In a writ court, where rights are determined on the basis of affidavits, in a case where the court is of a view that a detailed enquiry would be required, it may decline to exercise the extraordinary jurisdiction and direct the parties to approach the appropriate statutory forum. (Para 16, 24)

It would only be in an exceptional situation that the custody of a minor may be directed to be taken away from the mother for being given to any other person-including father of the child, in exercise of writ jurisdiction. This would be so also for the reason that the other parent, in the present case, the father, can take resort to the substantive statutory remedy in respect of his claim regarding custody of the child. (Para 22)

Petitioners have not disputed the aforesaid legal and factual position, and the only grievance, sought to be raised, is w.r.t. a claim for visitation rights on behalf of the father. (Para 24, 25)

Petition dismissed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

Master Prakhar @ Palash & anr. Vs St. of U.P. & ors., (2022) ILR 5 All 1459 (Para 7)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dr. Yogendra Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Akshay Raghuvanshi, learned counsel for the petitioners and Sri Pankaj Saxena, learned AGA-I appearing for the State-respondents.

2. Pleadings in the petition indicates that the respondent no.5, wife of the petitioner no.2, went back to her maternal home, on 10.08.2018, shortly after her marriage with the petitioner no.2, on 03.05.2018. The respondent no.5 is stated to have been pregnant at that point of time, and she was blessed with a baby boy on 11.01.2019.

3. It is submitted that during this period, the respondent no.5 throughout stayed at her maternal home, and the child was born during the period of her stay at her maternal home.

4. It has also been pleaded that the respondent no.5, after birth of the petitioner no.1 (corpus), stayed at her maternal home, and the child has been under her custody continuously.

5. A case is sought to be set up that the petitioner no.2, father of the petitioner no.1, attempted to meet his son on a number of occasions, but has not been permitted to do so by his father-in-law, respondent no.4.

6. Learned AGA-I pointed out that the petitioner no.2 is stated to have left her matrimonial home, in the month of August, 2018, and thereafter, the petitioner no.1 (corpus) was born on 11.01.2019, while the mother was at her maternal home, and since then the infant is continuously under the custody of her mother; accordingly, the custody of the petitioner no.1 (corpus), a minor child, with his mother, cannot, prima facie, be stated to be illegal and the present petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus would not be entertainable.

7. Counsel for the petitioner has sought to controvert the aforesaid assertion by placing reliance upon a decision in Master Prakhar @ Palash and another Vs. State of UP and others[1], to contend that in a child custody matter, a petition filed by a parent, seeking a writ of habeas corpus would be entertainable.

8. There can be no quarrel with the aforesaid proposition that in cases of child custody, a petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus may be entertained in a case where it is established that the custody of the child is illegal or without authority. There may also be cases where the custody of the child has been forcibly altered, which renders the present custody illegal, and in the said circumstance, the Court may be persuaded to issue a writ of habeas corpus.

9. The writ of habeas corpus, as is legally well settled, is a prerogative writ and an extraordinary remedy. It is a writ of right and not a writ of course and may be granted only on reasonable ground or probable cause being shown.

10. The principal duty of the Court in such matters is to ascertain whether the custody of the child is unlawful and illegal and whether the welfare of the child requires that his present custody should be changed and the child be handed over to the care and custody of any other person. The principle is well settled that in such matters the welfare of the child is of paramount consideration.

11. In child custody matters, habeas corpus proceedings may not be utilized to justify or examine the legality of the custody. The power of the Court in granting the writ is qualified only in cases where detention of a minor is by a person not entitled to his/her legal custody. For the exigence of a writ, it would be required to be proved that the detention of the minor child is illegal and without any authority of law, and that the welfare of the child requires that the present custody should be changed.

12. In an application seeking a writ of habeas corpus for custody of minor child, as is the case herein, the principal consideration for the court would be to ascertain whether the custody of the child can be said to be unlawful and illegal and whether his welfare requires that the present custody should be changed and the child should be handed over in the care and custody of somebody else other than in whose custody he presently is.

13. Proceedings in the nature of habeas corpus may not be used to examine the question of the custody of a child. The prerogative writ of habeas corpus, is in the nature of extraordinary remedy, and the writ is issued, where in the circumstances of a particular case, the ordinary remedy provided under law is either not available or is ineffective. The power of the High Court, in granting a writ, in child custody matters, may be invoked only in cases where the detention of a minor is by a person who is not entitled to his/her legal custody.

14. The role of the High Court in examining cases of custody of a minor, in a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, would have to be on the touchstone of the principle of parens patriae jurisdiction and the paramount consideration would be the welfare of the child. In such cases the matter would have to be decided not solely by reference to the legal rights of the parties but on the predominant criterion of what would best serve the interest and welfare of the minor.

15. In a given case, while dealing with a petition for issuance of a writ of habeas corpus concerning a minor child, directions may be issued for return of the child or the Court may decline to change the custody of the child, keeping in view all the attending facts and circumstances and taking into view the totality of the facts and circumstances of the case brought before the Court; the welfare of the child being the paramount consideration.

16. In a case where facts are disputed and a detailed inquiry is required, the Court may decline to exercise its extraordinary jurisdiction and may direct the parties to approach the appropriate legal forum.

17. In the facts of the present case, it is undisputed that the respondent no.5 had left her matrimonial home soon after her marriage, and the petitioner no.1 (corpus) was born during the period of her stay at her maternal home on 11.01.2019.

18. It is also not disputed that the petitioner (corpus) has throughout been under the custody of his mother, who has continuously stayed at her maternal home, and is presently, also, staying there.

19. In a petition for a writ of habeas corpus concerning a minor child, the Court, in a given case, may direct to change the custody of the child or decline the same keeping in view the attending facts and circumstances. For the said purpose it would be required to examine whether the custody of the minor with the private respondent, who is named in the petition, is lawful or unlawful.

20. There is absolutely no material on record, which may suggest that the custody of the petitioner no.1 (corpus) was taken away by the respondent no.5, from the petitioner no.2, at any point of time. The question of the custody, therefore, being illegal, would not arise in the facts of the case.

21. In a case such as this, where the custody of the minor child is with his biological mother ever since birth and there is no material to suggest that the custody was altered illegally, at any point of time, it may be presumed that the custody of the child with his mother is not, prima facie, unlawful.

22. It would only be in an exceptional situation that the custody of a minor may be directed to be taken away from the mother for being given to any other person-including father of the child, in exercise of writ jurisdiction. This would be so also for the reason that the other parent, in the present case, the father, can take resort to the substantive statutory remedy in respect of his claim regarding custody of the child.

23. In a child custody matter, a writ of habeas corpus would not be entertainable unless it is established that the detention of the minor child by the parent or others is illegal and without authority of law.

24. In a writ court, where rights are determined on the basis of affidavits, in a case where the court is of a view that a detailed enquiry would be required, it may decline to exercise the extraordinary jurisdiction and direct the parties to approach the appropriate statutory forum.

25. Counsel for the petitioners has not disputed the aforesaid legal and factual position, and the only grievance, sought to be raised, is with regard to a claim for visitation rights on behalf of the father.

26. The petition stands dismissed accordingly.

27. Needless to say that the dismissal of the writ petition would not preclude the petitioner no.2 from agitating his right with regard to guardianship and custody, and also seeking visitation rights, by initiating appropriate proceedings before the proper statutory forum.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2513
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 28.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE DR. YOGENDRA KUMAR SRIVASTAVA, J.

Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 797 of 2023

Ayra Khan & Anr. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Akhilesh Kumar Tiwari

Counsel for the Respondent:
G.A.

A. Family Law – Guardians and Wards Act, 1890- Section 17-
Mulla, Principles of Mahomedan Law, 22nd Edition- Chapter XVIII - A writ of habeas corpus is prerogative process for securing the liberty of the subject by affording effective means of immediate release from an illegal or improper detention. The writ also extends its influence to restore the custody of a minor to his guardian when wrongfully deprived of it. The detention of a minor by a person who is not entitled to his legal custody would have to be treated as equivalent to illegal detention for the purpose of granting a writ directing custody of the minor child. (Para 10)

In a petition seeking issuance of a writ of habeas corpus relating to the custody of a minor child, the principle duty of the Court would be to ascertain whether the custody of the child is unlawful or illegal and whether the welfare of the child requires that the present custody should be changed and the child be handed over to the care and custody of some other person. In doing so, the paramount consideration would undoubtedly be the welfare of the child and the role of the High Court in examining such cases would have to be on the touchstone of principles of parens patriae jurisdiction. (Para 16)

Habeas corpus proceedings would not ordinarily lie to justify or examine the legality of the custody of the minor child, and the question in this regard would have to be addressed by the Court in exercise of its discretionary jurisdiction. The prerogative writ of habeas corpus, is in the nature of an extraordinary remedy, and is to be issued taking into consideration, the circumstances of a particular case. (Para 17)

In child custody matters, the remedy ordinarily lies under the statutory law, or the personal law, as applicable in the facts of the case; however, in cases which justify the exercise of the extraordinary discretionary jurisdiction u/Article 226, a writ of habeas corpus would be issued where it is demonstrated that the detention of minor child, is illegal or without any authority of law. (Para 18)

In the present case, parties have not disputed the legal position that in the case of a female child of 2-1/2 years, her biological mother would be legally entitled to her custody as per the personal law. The detention of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) by the respondent no. 5 (grandmother), in the said circumstances, cannot, prima facie, be legally supported. (Para 22)

In the entirety of the facts and circumstances of the case, it would be in the paramount interest of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) that the interim arrangement, as per terms of the previous order dated 16.04.2024, permitting the petitioner-corpus to go along with the petitioner no. 2, her biological mother, be continued. (Para 23)

B. The provisions of the personal law are to be applied consistently with the provisions of the GWA, and insofar as the question of custody is concerned, the rights of parties in the present case, are to be governed by the personal law. Section 17 of the GWA relates to matters to be considered by the court in appointing a guardian, and in terms thereof it is provided that the court while deciding the question of guardianship of a minor, shall, as far as possible, do so consistently with the law to which the minor is subject, keeping in view the welfare of a minor. (Para 11)

The matters relating to 'Guardianship of Person and Property' are provided under Chapter XVIII of Principles of Mahomedan Law and Part-A thereof pertains to 'Appointment of Guardians'. In terms of Section 349, all applications for the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or both of a minor, are to be made under the GWA. (Para 12)

Section 351 of Principles of Mahomedan Law, which is in terms of Section 17 of the GWA, imposes a duty upon the court in appointing guardian to make the appointment consistently with the law to which the minor is subject, keeping in view the welfare of the minor. (Para 13)

The subject matter relating to 'Guardianship of a Person of a Minor' is dealt with under Part-B of Chapter XVIII of Principles of Mahomedan Law, and Sections 352 thereof, which relates to the right of mother to custody of infant children states that the mother is entitled to custody (hizanat) of her male child until he has completed the age of seven years. (Para 14, 15)

Petition disposed of. (E-4)

(Delivered by Hon'ble Dr. Yogendra Kumar Srivastava, J.)

1. Heard Sri Akhilesh Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel for the petitioners, Ms. Harshita Rani, learned A.G.A. appearing for the State-respondents and Sri Faizan Siddiqui, learned counsel appearing for the respondent nos. 4 and 5.

2. The present petition has been filed with the assertion that the petitioner no. 2, mother of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus), was ousted from her matrimonial home, on 08.09.2023, by her husband, respondent no. 4, and the petitioner no. 1 (corpus), minor daughter, who at that point of time was less than two years, was detained.

3. It has been further asserted that the respondent no. 4 had thereafter gone out of the country and the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) was being illegally detained by the respondent No. 5, mother-in-law of the petitioner no. 2.

4. Pursuant to the rule nisi issued earlier, the petitioner no. 1 (corpus), was produced before the Court, on the previous date i.e. 16.04.2024, by the State authorities, along with the respondent no. 5.

5. Taking into consideration the age of the petitioner-corpus and that the petitioner no. 2 being her biological mother would be legally entitled to have her custody, by way of an interim arrangement, and as agreed by counsel for the parties, the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) was permitted to go along with the petitioner no. 2.

6. Today, upon the case case being taken up, it has been pointed out that the petitioner no. 2 is present in Court, along with the petitioner no. 1 (corpus).

7. The petitioner no. 1 (corpus), and the petitioner no. 2 have been identified Sri Akhilesh Kumar Tiwari, learned counsel.

8. Sri Faizan Siddiqui, learned counsel appearing for the respondent nos. 4 and 5 has stated that the respondent no. 4 is out of the country, and that there are no instructions as to when he would return.

9. Learned A.G.A., on the basis of an enquiry made from the petitioner no. 2, in Court, submits that she has stated that the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) is being taken care of by her, since the previous date, when the corpus was permitted to go along with her in terms of the order passed by the Court by way of an interim arrangement. She has further stated that she has sufficient means to take good care of her minor child, petitioner no. 1 (corpus).

10. A writ of habeas corpus is prerogative process for securing the liberty of the subject by affording effective means of immediate release from an illegal or improper detention. The writ also extends its influence to restore the custody of a minor to his guardian when wrongfully deprived of it. The detention of a minor by a person who is not entitled to his legal custody would have to be treated as equivalent to illegal detention for the purpose of granting a writ directing custody of the minor child.

11. The law relating to guardians and wards is governed in terms of the Guardians and Wards Act, 18901. Section 17 of the GWA relates to matters to be considered by the court in appointing a guardian, and in terms thereof it is provided that the court while deciding the question of guardianship of a minor, shall, as far as possible, do so consistently with the law to which the minor is subject, keeping in view the welfare of a minor. Thus, the provisions of the personal law are to be applied consistently with the provisions of the GWA, and insofar as the question of custody is concerned, the rights of parties in the present case, are to be governed by the personal law.

12. The matters relating to 'Guardianship of Person and Property' are provided under Chapter XVIII of Principles of Mahomedan Law2 and Part-A thereof pertains to 'Appointment of Guardians'. In terms of Section 349, all applications for the appointment of a guardian of the person or property or both of a minor, are to be made under the GWA.

13. Further, Section 351 of Principles of Mahomedan Law, which is in terms of Section 17 of the GWA, imposes a duty upon the court in appointing guardian to make the appointment consistently with the law to which the minor is subject, keeping in view the welfare of the minor.

14. The subject matter relating to 'Guardianship of a Person of a Minor' is dealt with under Part-B of Chapter XVIII of Principles of Mahomedan Law, and Sections 352 thereof, which relates to the right of mother to custody of infant children, is set out hereinbelow:-

"352. Right of mother to custody of infant children.—The mother is entitled to the custody (hizanat) of her male child until he has completed the age of seven years and of her female child until she has attained puberty. The right continues though she is divorced by the father of the child (e), unless she marries a second husband in which case the custody belongs to the father (f).”

15. It would be seen that in terms of Section 352, abovementioned, the mother is entitled to custody (hizanat) of her male child until he has completed the age of seven years.

16. In a petition seeking issuance of a writ of habeas corpus relating to the custody of a minor child, the principle duty of the Court would be to ascertain whether the custody of the child is unlawful or illegal and whether the welfare of the child requires that the present custody should be changed and the child be handed over to the care and custody of some other person. In doing so, the paramount consideration would undoubtedly be the welfare of the child and the role of the High Court in examining such cases would have to be on the touchstone of principles of parens patriae jurisdiction.

17. Habeas corpus proceedings would not ordinarily lie to justify or examine the legality of the custody of the minor child, and the question in this regard would have to be addressed by the Court in exercise of its discretionary jurisdiction. The prerogative writ of habeas corpus, is in the nature of an extraordinary remedy, and is to be issued taking into consideration, the circumstances of a particular case.

18. In child custody matters, the remedy ordinarily lies under the statutory law, or the personal law, as applicable in the facts of the case; however, in cases which justify the exercise of the extraordinary discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226, a writ of habeas corpus would be issued where it is demonstrated that the detention of minor child, is illegal or without any authority of law.

19. The facts regarding which there is no dispute, and which were noticed in the previous order, are that the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) is a minor girl of age about 2-1/2 years. The respondent no. 4, father of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) is presently living abroad, where he is stated to be having a job, and there is no indication of the time frame within which he is to return.

20. The petitioner no. 2 is stated to have left her matrimonial home due to some differences with her husband and her in-laws, and the petitioner-corpus was stated to be with the respondent no. 5, her grand mother, an elderly lady.

21. Counsel for the parties agree that looking to the age of the petitioner-corpus, it may be difficult to ascertain her wishes, and the questions with regard to her custodial rights would have to be examined on the principles of parens patriae jurisdiction by seeking to ascertain what would be in the best interest of the corpus.

22. Counsel for the parties have not disputed the legal position that in the case of a female child of 2-1/2 years, her biological mother would be legally entitled to her custody as per the personal law. The detention of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) by the respondent no. 5, in the said circumstances, cannot, prima facie, be legally supported.

23. It has, also, not been disputed by counsel for the parties that in the entirety of the facts and circumstances of the case, it would be in the paramount interest of the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) that the interim arrangement, as per terms of the previous order dated 16.04.2024, permitting the petitioner-corpus to go along with the petitioner no. 2, her biological mother, be continued.

24. Having regard to the aforesaid, the rule issued earlier, is made absolute.

25. The arrangement, in terms of which the petitioner no. 1 (corpus) was permitted to go along with the petitioner no. 2, her mother, would continue.

26. Counsel for the parties have stated that the parties would continue to explore the possibilities of reconciliation.

27. It is made clear that in case of any dispute with regard to guardianship or custody, or any claim with regard to visitation rights, it would be open to the parties concerned to take recourse to appropriate statutory remedy.

28. The petition stands disposed of.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2517
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 14.05.2024 & 20.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J.
THE HON'BLE RAM MANOHAR NARAYAN MISHRA, J.

Habeas Corpus Writ Petition No. 271 of 2024

Faizan Khan ...Petitioner
Versus
Adhikshak Janpad/Kendriya Karagar, Bareilly & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioner:
Sri Chandrakesh Mishra, Sri Daya Shankar Mishra (Sr. Advocate)

Counsel for the Respondent:
A.S.G.I., Sri Alok Ranjan Mishra, G.A.

A. Criminal Law – Detention – The Prevention of Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1988 - Section 3(1) - The competent authority under COFEPOSA and PIT NDPS Act is required to consider the representation submitted by the detenue which is an additional right to his right to make representation to the State Government and Central Government. (Para 15)

The detention of the petitioner is based on two F.I.Rs. i.e. C.C. No. 65 of 2021 and 1091 of 2021. Admittedly, the petitioner after facing full length trial stand acquitted in first F.I.R. i.e. C.C. No. 65 of 2021 vide judgment dated 09.06.2023 passed by Special Judge (NDPS Act)/Additional Sessions Judge, Bareilly and, therefore, this very base of this F.I.R. in both impugned orders stand vitiated. (Para 17A)

(1) In the impugned rejection order dated 12.3.2024, no reasons has been assigned for dealing with the judgment of acquittal of petitioner. On the face of it, this order is totally non speaking order as in one line it has been stated that the representation of the petitioner stand rejected. Even nothing has been stated in this order that any opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioner before passing of this order.

(2) With regard to second F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 1091 of 2021, it is admitted case of the prosecution that the petitioner was not named in the F.I.R. and his name surfaced on the disclosure of an accused who was arrested at the spot. Therefore, the petitioner was neither arrested at the spot by the police nor any recovery of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances was effected from him. In the absence of the Court verdict holding him guilty of offence, impugned order of detention is very harsh.

B. Where the ground of detention were vague or based on stale event or there is delay in decision on the representation, the detention order can be set aside. (Para 16)

Fact which needs consideration is that Case Crime No. 65/2021 where the petitioner stands acquitted relates to 2021 and second and third F.I.R. also pertains to same year within short span of time. The petitioner surrendered on 12.1.2022 in F.I.R. No. 1091 of 2021 and in the intervening period he has not committed any new offence under the NDPS Act. Even the third F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 28 of 2021 26.01.2021 which though not relied upon in the impugned orders is also of same District i.e. Bareilly. Therefore, from 2021 till 12th January 2024 when the detention period of the petitioner started, despite gap of three years, there was no fresh F.I.R. registered against the petitioners and this fact was not recorded in the rejection order though a detailed representation was given by the petitioner. (Para 17B)

Grounds taken in the impugned orders that petitioner was hiding himself is apparently incorrect and this aspect is not at all considered while passing both the impugned orders as it is apparent that when his name surfaced in second F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 1091 of 2021, the petitioner surrendered before the Special Judge, NDPS Act on 12.01.2022 and was again granted bail. (Para 17C)

When the petitioner was facing trial of Case Crime No. 65 of 2021 and on various dates, he regularly appeared before the Special Judge, NDPS Act, Bareilly where the prosecution evidence was recorded and then his statement u/s 313 Cr.P.C. was recorded and in between at least 13-14 dates were given. Therefore, (Para 17C)

C. When vital material or vital facts are withheld and not placed by the Sponsoring Authority before the Detaining Authority, it vitiate the procedure. Petitioner submits that admittedly in the instant case, till date the vital material relied upon by the Sponsoring Authority or by the Screening Authority had not been disclosed to the petitioner and, therefore, detention of the petitioner under PIT NDPS Act is illegal. (Para 14)

D. Right provided u/Article 22 (5) of the Constitution of India is a substantive right and, if there is violation of the same, the detention order is liable to be quashed. (Para 13)

Thus, it is apparent that the material forming basis of the opinion of the competent authority i.e. proposal of the Sponsoring Authority and recommendation of the Screening Authority, to pass impugned orders were never supplied to the petitioner and he has not been afforded proper opportunity of hearing and the impugned order of rejection is totally non speaking order w.r.t. the pleas raised by the petitioner. (Para 18)

E. It will be matter of trial whether confession recorded by the police of a co-accused while in police custody will be admissible against the co-accused i.e. petitioner when after his arrest, no recovery of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances is effected. (Para 17A)

Accordingly, the impugned orders are set aside. The petitioner be released forthwith if he is not required in any other case on furnishing surety bond and personal bond. (Para 19)

Petition allowed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

1. Smt. Icchu Devi Choraria Vs U.O.I.& ors., 1980 0 AIR (SC) 1983 (Para 13)

2. Mohinuddin Vs D.M., Beed & ors., 1987 0 AIR (SC) 1977 (Para 13)

3. Smt. Shalini Soni Vs U.O.I.& ors., 1981 0 AIR (SC) 431 (Para 13)

4. S. Gurdip Singh Vs U.O.I.& ors., 1981 0 AIR (SC) 362 (Para 13)

5. Sushanta Kumar Banik Vs St. of Tripura & ors., 2022 0 AIR (SC) 4715 (Para 14)

6. Kamleshkumar Ishwardas Patel Vs U.O.I.& ors., 1995 0 Supreme (SC) 538 (Para 15)

7. Kamalveer Singh Vs Adhikshak Janpad Karagar & ors., 2024 0 Supreme (All) 466 (Para 16)

8. Tofan Singh Vs St. of T. N., (2013) 16 SCC 31 (Para 17(A))

Present petition is to issue a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus for quashing the order dated 22.07.2022 u/s 3 (1) of PIT NDPS Act and to release the petitioner from judicial custody.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan, J.)

1. Heard Shri Daya Shankar Mishra, learned Senior Counsel assisted by Shri Chandrakesh Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Alok Ranjan Mishra, learned counsel for the Union of India, learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the record.

2. In this petition is to issue a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus for quashing the order dated 22.07.2022 under Provision 3 (1) of PIT NDPS Act and to release the petitioner from judicial custody.

3. Brief facts of this case are that the petitioner Faizan Khan @ Raja Babu was arrested in F.I.R. No. 65 of 2021 registered under Section 8/ 21 of NDPS Act, Police Station- Qila, District- Bareilly on 01.03.2021. The petitioner was granted bail on 04.06.2021 and was released from custody.

4. As per the first additional affidavit filed on behalf of the petitioner, vide judgement dated 09.06.2023 passed by the Special Judge, NDPS Act/ Additional Sessions, Court No.8, Bareilly after a full length trial, the petitioner was acquitted of the charge.

5. It is further stated that later on the petitioner was nominated as an accused in F.I.R. No. 1091 of 2021 registered on 27.11.2021, on the disclosure of a co-accused. The petitioner was neither named in the F.I.R. nor arrested at the spot and, therefore, no recovery of either Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances was affected from him. It is stated that the petitioner later on surrendered before the Court on 18.01.2022 and, thereafter, he was granted bail on 04.03.2022. It is further stated that the charge sheet has been submitted and case is pending trial and no adverse order has been passed against the petitioner.

6. It is further stated that the impugned order dated 22.07.2022 is passed invoking the provisions of PIT NDPS Act is based upon the aforesaid two FIRs Nos. 65 of 2021 and 1091 of 2021. It is submitted that copy of the order was never served upon the petitioner, who was released from the custody on 4.3.2022 in the second F.I.R., till 12.01.2024. It is submitted that intervening period against the petitioner neither any proceedings under Sections 82/ 83 of the Cr.P.C. was pending nor any such proceeding is pending before the trial court where the second F.I.R. is pending. It is also submitted that the petitioner, who was on bail in the first F.I.R. No. 65 of 2021, where he has already been acquitted vide judgement dated 09.06.2023, was regularly appearing and his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. was recorded, well within the knowledge of the prosecuting agency as per dates described in paragraph no.11 of the petition. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that it has been wrongly noticed in the impugned order that the petitioner was absconding though he was facing the trial and appearing before the court in the first F.I.R. It is submitted that while passing impugned order on 06.03.2024. It is stated that the order dated 22.07.2022 is served upon the petitioner on 12.01.2024 when he was arrested and lodged in the District Jail Bareilly on 12.01.2024 and, therefore, he will remain in preventive detention for one year w.e.f. 12.01.2024 till 11.01.2025. Learned counsel for the petitioner has assailed that both these orders by way of filing this writ petition.

7. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that one of the ground taken is that the opinion formed by the counseling authority for sending the proposal to the screening committee; the report prepared by the screening committee and the material relied upon both the counseling authority and screening committee were never supplied to the petitioner and, therefore, he was denied his right for making an effective representation against the impugned orders.

8. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that after a gap of two months vide order dated 12.03.2024, the representation filed by the petitioner stands rejected by the Deputy Secretary to Government of India, Department of Revenue PIT NDPS Division by passing a totally non speaking order and without assigning any reasons and the grounds taken by the petitioner in his representation.

9. Two separate replies by the learned counsel for the State-respondent nos. 1 & 4 as well as learned counsel for the Union of India-respondent nos. 2 & 3 are filed by way of affidavit. In the reply filed by State, it is stated that the petitioner is lodged in Central Jail Bareilly in compliance of the order passed by the Competent Authority under Provision of PIT NDPS Act. It is submitted that representation of the petitioner stands rejected by the Competent Authority.

10. In reply filed by the Union of India, the details of F.I.R. No. 65 of 2021 is given. Wherein, it was admitted that the petitioner was granted bail by the trial court. Learned counsel for the respondent nos. 2 & 3 could not dispute that the petitioner stands acquitted in this F.I.R. after facing full length trial. With regard to the second F.I.R. No. 1091 of 2021, it is stated that persons, namely, Parvez Alam, Moinuddin, Avinash and Babu Gora @ Ansaar along with Shaan Khan were arrested and they nominated the petitioner as their associate. However, it is admitted that the petitioner was not arrested at the spot and he surrendered before the Special Judge, NDPS Act, Bareilly on 18.01.2022 and was later on released on bail. However, it is submitted that subsequently the petitioner was nominated in one more F.I.R., the details of which are placed on record vide second supplementary affidavit filed by the petitioner i.e. F.I.R. No.0028 of 2021 dated 26.01.2021 under Section 8/ 21/ 29 of NDPS Act, 1985, Police Station Qila, District Bareilly. In this F.I.R., three persons, namely, Parvez Alam, Moinuddin and Avinash were arrested and they informed that they have purchased ten small packets of 10 gms/ 20 gms of smack from Sahib Raza, Kadir and Faizan (present petitioner) for the purpose of selling to general public.

11. However, it is submitted that the petitioner was not arrested in this F.I.R. and he is on bail. It is further submitted that report dated 20.06.2022 of counseling authority and NCB Zonal Unit, Lucknow was received by Ministry on 04.07.2022, which was sent to Screening Committee on 04.07.2022 Screening Committee recommended the proposal for preventive detention under PIT NDPS Act and accordingly the detention order dated 22.07.2022 was passed under Section 3 (1) of PIT NDPS Act by the Detaining Authority that the Joint Secretary to Government of India. It is also submitted that the petitioner was concealing himself from the process of law and surrendered on 12.01.2024 and the order became operative from the date of said order for one year. It is submitted that all the grounds of detention was duly served upon the petitioner as he was found involved under the NDPS Act. It is also submitted that the representation of the petitioner after due consideration stands rejected by the Competent Authority on 12.03.2024 by following due process of law and the same stands communicated to the petitioner.

12. In reply, counsel for the petitioner submits that mere mentioning of ground in the order of detention do not comply with the mandate of providing the material on the basis of which, the Sponsoring Authority has prepared the proposal and Screening Authority has submitted a report to the competent authority. In the absence of supplying the same, the representation filed by the petitioner in which this ground is specifically taken, is rejected by passing a non speaking order as mere formalities and do not protect the legal right of the petitioner.

13. Counsel for the petitioner has referred to the decision in Smt. Icchu Devi Choraria Vs. Union of India and others, 1980 0 AIR (SC) 1983, to submit that it is held by the Supreme Court of India that right provided under Article 22 (5) of the Constitution of India is a substantive right and, if there is violation of the same, the detention order is liable to be quashed. Similar view is taken by the Supreme Court in Mohinuddin Vs. District Magistrate, Beed and others, 1987 0 AIR (SC) 1977, Smt. Shalini Soni vs. Union of India and others, 1981 0 AIR (SC) 431 and in S. Gurdip Singh vs. Union of India and others, 1981 0 AIR (SC) 362.

14. Counsel has then relied upon another decision in Sushanta Kumar Banik Vs. State of Tripura and Ors., 2022 0 AIR (SC) 4715, whereby the Supreme Court has held that when vital material or vital facts are withheld and not placed by the Sponsoring Authority before the Detaining Authority, it vitiate the procedure. Counsel submits that admittedly in the instant case, till date the vital material relied upon by the Sponsoring Authority or by the Screening Authority had not been disclosed to the petitioner and, therefore, detention of the petitioner under PIT NDPS Act is illegal.

15. Learned counsel has relied upon another judgment of Supreme Court in Kamleshkumar Ishwardas Patel vs. Union of India and others, 1995 0 Supreme (SC) 538 wherein it has been held that the competent authority under COFEPOSA and PIT NDPS Act is required to consider the representation submitted by the detenue which is an additional right to his right to make representation to the State Government and Central Government.

16. Counsel has also relied upon the judgment of this Court in Kamalveer Singh Vs. Adhikshak Janpad Karagar and Others, 2024 0 Supreme (All) 466, wherein it has been held that where the ground of detention were vague or based on stale event or there is delay in decision on the representation, the detention order can be set aside.

17. After hearing the counsels for the parties, we find merit in the present writ petition for the following reasons :

A. The detention of the petitioner is based on two F.I.Rs. i.e. Case Crime No. 65 of 2021 and 1091 of 2021. Admittedly, the petitioner after facing full length trial stand acquitted in first F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 65 of 2021 vide judgment dated 09.06.2023 passed by Special Judge (NDPS Act)/Additional Sessions Judge, Court No.8 Bareilly and, therefore, this very base of this F.I.R. in both impugned orders stand vitiated.

In the impugned rejection order dated 12.3.2024, no reasons has been assigned for dealing with the judgment of acquittal of petitioner. On the face of it, this order is totally non speaking order as in one line it has been stated that the representation of the petitioner stand rejected. Even nothing has been stated in this order that any opportunity of hearing was granted to the petitioner before passing of this order.

With regard to second F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 1091 of 2021, it is admitted case of the prosecution that the petitioner was not named in the F.I.R. and his name surfaced on the disclosure of an accused who was arrested at the spot. Therefore, the petitioner was neither arrested at the spot by the police nor any recovery of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances was effected from him. In the absence of the Court verdict holding him guilty of offence, impugned order of detention is very harsh.

Though no reliance can be placed on the third F.I.R. which is brought to the notice of this Court by way of reply on behalf of respondent Nos.2 & 3, Union of India. However, perusal of the F.I.R. No. 28 of 2021 dated 26.01.2021 also reflects that police arrested three persons from a car and recovered 10/20 grams of smack in small packets and again recorded their confession in which, it has come that they received the same from three persons namely Sahab Raja, Nazim and petitioner-Faizan Khan Alias Raja Babu. It is admitted by respondent No.2 & 3 that petitioner is on bail in the said case as well and nothing was recovered from him. In both these F.I.Rs. i.e. Case Crime No. 1091 of 2021 dated 27.11.2021 and Case Crime No. 28 of 2021 dated 26.01.2021, it will be matter of trial whether confession recorded by the police of a co-accused while in police custody will be admissible against the co-accused i.e. petitioner when after his arrest, no recovery of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances is effected in view of the decision of Supreme Court in Tofan Singh vs. State of Tamil Nadu, (2013) 16 SCC 31.

B. Another fact which needs consideration is that Case Crime No. 65/2021 where the petitioner stands acquitted relates to 2021 and second and third F.I.R. also pertains to same year within short span of time. The petitioner surrendered on 12.1.2022 in F.I.R. No. 1091 of 2021 and in the intervening period he has not committed any new offence under the NDPS Act. Even the third F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 28 of 2021 26.01.2021 which though not relied upon in the impugned orders is also of same District i.e. Bareilly. Therefore, from 2021 till 12th January 2024 when the detention period of the petitioner started, despite gap of three years, there was no fresh F.I.R. registered against the petitioners and this fact was not recorded in the rejection order though a detailed representation was given by the petitioner.

C. Another fact which is highlighted by the petitioner is that the petitioner was facing trial of Case Crime No. 65 of 2021 and on various dates, he regularly appeared before the Special Judge, NDPS Act, Bareilly where the prosecution evidence was recorded and then his statement under Section 313 Cr.P.C. was recorded and in between at least 13-14 dates were given. Therefore, grounds taken in the impugned orders that petitioner was hiding himself is apparently incorrect and this aspect is not at all considered while passing both the impugned orders as it is apparent that when his name surfaced in second F.I.R. i.e. Case Crime No. 1091 of 2021, the petitioner surrendered before the Special Judge, NDPS Act on 12.01.2022 and was again granted bail.

18. Thus, from the above, it is apparent that the material forming basis of the opinion of the competent authority i.e. proposal of the Sponsoring Authority and recommendation of the Screening Authority, to pass impugned orders were never supplied to the petitioners in terms of the decisions in Smt. Icchu Devi Choraria's Case (Supra), Mohinuddin's Case (Supra), Smt. Shalini Soni's Case (Supra) and S. Gurdip Singh's Case (Supra) and he has not been afforded proper opportunity of hearing and the impugned order of rejection is totally non speaking order with regard to the pleas raised by the petitioner.

19. Accordingly, this petition is allowed. The impugned orders are set aside. The petitioner be released forthwith if he is not required in any other case on furnishing surety bond and personal bond.

20. However, it is made clear if petitioner is found involved in any subsequent F.I.R., it will be open for the authorities to initiate fresh proceedings against the petitioner.

Hon'ble Arvind Singh Sangwan,J.
Hon'ble Ram Manohar Narayan Mishra,J.

(Order on Correction Application No.3 of 2024.)

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.G.A. for the State and perused the material available on record.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner prays for correction in the order dated 14.05.2024 passed by this Court.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that due to typographical mistake in the order dated 14.05.2024 in the tenth line of paragraph No.11 of the order the date of surrender is mentioned as 12.01.2024, where as it is 10.01.2024. Similar mistake has occurred in fourth line of paragraph No.17 B date of surrender is wrongly mentioned 12.01.2024, whereas the correct date of surrender is 10.01.2024.

4. Counsel further submitted that in paragraph No.19 inadvertently it is mentioned that "the petitioner be released forthwith if he is not required in any other case, on furnishing surety bond and personal bond."

5. It is submitted that since the petitioner was detained under the preventive detention, therefore, there is no provision for furnishing surety bond and personal bond.

6. Accordingly, paragraph No.19 is recast as follows- Accordingly, this petition is allowed. The impugned orders are set-aside. The petitioner be set at liberty forthwith if he is not required in any other case.

7. With the aforesaid modification/ correction in the order dated 14.05.2024, the application for correction stands disposed of.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2523
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 27.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE MANOJ KUMAR GUPTA, J.
THE HON'BLE KSHITIJ SHAILENDRA, J.

Writ C No. 10525 of 2024

Tamilnadu Generation & Distribution Corp. Ltd. & Ors. ...Petitioners
Versus
State of U.P. & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Petitioners:
Sri P.K. Upadhyay

Counsel for the Respondents:
C.S.C., Sri Kartikeya Saran, Sri Prabhav Srivastava

A. Arbitration Law – Maintainability - Alternative remedy - Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 - Sections 18 & 19 - Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 - Section 34 - A person cannot be permitted to bypass the statutory requirement of depositing 75% of the decretal amount by invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court u/Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India. (Para 9)

A bare perusal of Section 18(3) of the MSME Act, 2006 would reveal that the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 have been made applicable to the dispute as if the arbitration was in pursuance of an arbitration agreement referred to S.7(1) of the Act of 1996. Thus, remedy of filing objection u/s 34 of the Act of 1996 is available to the petitioner to get the award set aside. (Para 7)

Section 19 of the MSME Act, 2006, in unequivocal terms, provides that no application for setting aside the award made by the Council shall be entertained by any court unless the appellant has deposited 75% of the amount in terms of the award or, as the case may be, in the manner directed by such court. Thus, in case the petitioners avail the remedy u/s 34 of the Act of 1996, they would be required to deposit 75% of the amount in terms of the award before the challenge is entertained. (Para 8)

In view of the provisions of Section 18(4), where the Facilitation Council proceeds to arbitrate upon a dispute, the provisions of the Act of 1996 are to apply to the dispute as if it is in pursuance of an arbitration agreement u/s 7(1) of that Act. Hence, the remedy which is provided u/s 34 of the Act of 1996 would govern an award of the Facilitation Council. However, there is a super added condition which is imposed by S. 19 of MSMED Act, 2006 to the effect that an application for setting aside an award can be entertained only upon the appellant depositing with the Council 75% of the amount in terms of the award. S. 19 has been introduced as a measure of security for enterprises for whom a special provision is made in the MSMED Act by Parliament. (Para 9)

Thus, the instant petition, without making pre-deposit as per statutory provision, would not be maintainable. In case of breach of principles of natural justice, alternative remedy is not an absolute bar. The writ petition would have been entertained without relegating the petitioners to the alternative remedy u/s 34 of the Act of 1996, had the petitioners agreed to deposit 75% of the amount in terms of impugned award in this Court. (Para 10)

Petition dismissed. (E-4)

Precedent followed:

M/s India Clycols Limited & anr. Vs Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council, Medchal - Malkajgiri & ors. in Civil Appeal No.7491 of 2023, arising out of SLP (C) No.9899 of 2023, decided on 06.11.2023 (Para 4)

Present petition challenges the order dated 01.01.2024, whereby respondent no.2 (Zonal MSEFC, Meerut Zone, Meerut) (for short 'the Facilitation Council') has declared an award of a total sum of Rs.1,49,48,762/- in favour of respondent no.3, in exercise of powers u/s 18 of the MSME Act, 2006.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Manoj Kumar Gupta, J.
&
Hon'ble Kshitij Shailendra, J.)

1. Heard Sri S.T. Raja, learned counsel assisted by Sri P.K. Upadhyay, for the petitioners, Sri Rajiv Gupta, learned Additional Chief Standing Counsel for respondents no.1 and 2 and Sri Kartikeya Saran, learned counsel for respondent no.3.

2. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed challenging the order dated 01.01.2024 whereby respondent no.2 (Zonal Micro and Small Enterprises, Facilitation Council (MSEFC), Meerut Zone, Meerut) (for short 'the Facilitation Council') has declared an award of a total sum of Rs.1,49,48,762/- in favour of respondent no.3, in exercise of powers under Section 18 of the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 (for short 'the MSME Act, 2006).

3. The case of the petitioners is that respondent no.3, being a registered firm, approached the petitioners pursuant to an e-tender dated 04.01.2021 for supply of 11 KV Vertical Gang Operated Air breaks switch with composite polymer insulator, single square pole transformer structure material with clamp and 11 KV Solid Core type GH fuse sets for HVDS and a contract deed/ purchase order No.146 dated 19.01.2021 came to be executed. The petitioners issued purchase order dated 26.02.2021 asking respondent no.3 to supply the goods and it is alleged that respondent no.3 failed to supply the goods as per the terms and conditions of the supply order. The petitioners, accordingly, issued a letter dated 15.03.2022 to respondent no.3 with regard to non supply of goods, however, respondent no.3 approached the Facilitation Council by making a reference on 05.04.2022 under Section 18 of the MSME Act, 2006. While the reference was pending, respondent no.3 approached this Court by filing Writ-C No.11981 of 2022 claiming various reliefs. The writ petition was disposed of by a Coordinate Bench of this Court by order dated 19.07.2022 with an observation that the Authority under Section 18 of the MSME Act, 2006 shall decide the reference application in accordance with law within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of the order. It is in pursuance of the order dated 19.07.2022 passed by this Court that the impugned award has been declared by the Facilitation Council.

4. Respondent no. 3 raised preliminary objection with regard to maintainability of the writ petition on the ground of availability of alternative remedy of filing objections against the impugned award under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, read with Section 18(3) of the MSME Act, 2006. Additionally, it is also contended that unless 75% of the amount in terms of impugned award is deposited by the petitioners, the challenge would not be maintainable in view of Section 19 of the MSME Act, 2006. In support of his submission, he places reliance on the judgment of Supreme Court in the case of M/s India Clycols Limited and another Vs. Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council, Medchal - Malkajgiri and others in Civil Appeal No.7491 of 2023, arising out of SLP (C) No.9899 of 2023, decided on 06.11.2023.

5. Per contra, learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the impugned award is ex parte as on the last date of hearing, the video link was not sent to the counsel for the petitioners. According to him, the video link was sent at the head office of the petitioner-company and to its officers, ignoring the request of the counsel to send video link to him, as arguments were to be advanced by him only. It is urged that since the impugned award has been rendered in violation of principles of natural justice, therefore, availability of alternative remedy of filing objection under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 would not debar the petitioners from invoking the writ jurisdiction. In respect of condition relating to pre-deposit of 75% of the amount, he submits that since the petitioner is a Government company, therefore, the said condition be dispensed with. He even did not accept the suggestion of the Court to deposit the amount as contemplated under Section 19 before advancing arguments on merits and submitted that the case be decided.

6. In order to deal with the submissions advanced, the Court may refer to the provisions of Sections 18 and 19 of the MSME Act, 2006. The same are quoted below:-

"18. Reference to Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any party to a dispute may, with regard to any amount due under section 17, make a reference to the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council.

(2) On receipt of a reference under sub-section (1), the Council shall either itself conduct conciliation in the matter or seek the assistance of any institution or centre providing alternate dispute resolution services by making a reference to such an institution or centre, for conducting conciliation and the provisions of sections 65 to 81 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (26 of 1996) shall apply to such a dispute as if the conciliation was initiated under Part III of that Act.

(3) Where the conciliation initiated under sub-section (2) is not successful and stands terminated without any settlement between the parties, the Council shall either itself take up the dispute for arbitration or refer to it any institution or centre providing alternate dispute resolution services for such arbitration and the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (26 of 1996) shall then apply to the dispute as if the arbitration was in pursuance of an arbitration agreement referred to in sub-section (1) of section 7 of that Act.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council or the centre providing alternate dispute resolution services shall have jurisdiction to act as an Arbitrator or Conciliator under this section in a dispute between the supplier located within its jurisdiction and a buyer located anywhere in India.

(5) Every reference made under this section shall be decided within a period of ninety days from the date of making such a reference.

19. Application for setting aside decree, award or order.— No application for setting aside any decree, award or other order made either by the Council itself or by any institution or centre providing alternate dispute resolution services to which a reference is made by the Council, shall be entertained by any court unless the appellant (not being a supplier) has deposited with it seventy-five per cent of the amount in terms of the decree, award or, as the case may be, the other order in the manner directed by such court:

Provided that pending disposal of the application to set aside the decree, award or order, the court shall order that such percentage of the amount deposited shall be paid to the supplier, as it considers reasonable under the circumstances of the case subject to such conditions as it deems necessary to impose."

(emphasis supplied)

7. A bare perusal of Section 18(3) of the MSME Act, 2006 would reveal that the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 have been made applicable to the dispute as if the arbitration was in pursuance of an arbitration agreement referred to sub-section (1) of Section 7 of that Act, i.e. the Act of 1996. Thus, remedy of filing objection under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 is available to the petitioner to get the award set aside.

8. Section 19 of the MSME Act, 2006, in unequivocal terms, provides that no application for setting aside the award made by the Council shall be entertained by any court unless the appellant has deposited 75% of the amount in terms of the award or, as the case may be, in the manner directed by such court. Thus, in case the petitioners avail the remedy under Section 34 of the Act of 1996, they would be required to deposit 75% of the amount in terms of the award before the challenge is entertained.

9. In M/s India Clycols Limited (supra), the Supreme Court held that a person cannot be permitted to bypass the statutory requirement of depositing 75% of the decretal amount by invoking the jurisdiction of the High Court under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India. The writ petition was held to be not maintainable for the said reason. The relevant observations made in this regard in paragraphs 10, 12 and 13 of the judgment are reproduced below:-

"10. In terms of Section 19, an application for setting aside an award of the Facilitation Council cannot be entertained by any court unless the appellant has deposited seventy-five per cent of the amount in terms of the award. In view of the provisions of Section 18(4), where the Facilitation Council proceeds to arbitrate upon a dispute, the provisions of the Act of 1996 are to apply to the dispute as if it is in pursuance of an arbitration agreement under sub-section (1) of Section 7 of that Act. Hence, the remedy which is provided under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 would govern an award of the Facilitation Council. However, there is a super added condition which is imposed by Section 19 of MSMED Act, 2006 to the effect that an application for setting aside an award can be entertained only upon the appellant depositing with the Council seventy-five per cent of the amount in terms of the award. Section 19 has been introduced as a measure of security for enterprises for whom a special provision is made in the MSMED Act by Parliament. In view of the provisions of Section 18(4), the appellant had a remedy under Section 34 of the Act of 1996 to challenge the award which it failed to pursue.

12. The appellant failed to avail of the remedy under Section 34. If it were to do so, it would have been required to deposit seventy-five per cent of the decretal amount. This obligation under the statute was sought to be obviated by taking recourse to the jurisdiction under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution. This was clearly impermissible.

13. For the above reasons, we are in agreement with the view of the Division Bench of the High Court that the writ petition which was instituted by the appellant was not maintainable."

(emphasis supplied)

10. Thus, in view of law laid down by Supreme Court in M/s India Clycols Limited (supra), we are of considered opinion that the instant petition, without making pre-deposit as per statutory provision, would not be maintainable. We hold so being fully aware of the legal position that in case of breach of principles of natural justice, alternative remedy is not an absolute bar. We would have entertained the writ petition without relegating the petitioners to the alternative remedy under Section 34 of the Act of 1996, had the petitioners agreed to deposit 75% of the amount in terms of impugned award in this Court. As counsel for the petitioners is not agreeable to comply with the said condition, therefore, we decline to examine the challenge and uphold the preliminary objection of learned counsel for respondent no. 3.

11. The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed as not maintainable, however, without prejudice to the rights of the petitioners to avail such other remedy as may be available to them under the law.

(2024) 5 ILRA 2528
ORIGINAL JURISDICTION
CIVIL SIDE
DATED: ALLAHABAD 17.05.2024

BEFORE

THE HON'BLE SHEKHAR B. SARAF, J.

Civil Misc. Arbitration Application No. 4 of 2024
With
Civil Misc. Arbiration Application No. 5 of 2024

M/S Geo Miller & Co. Pvt. Ltd. ...Appellant
Versus
U.P. Jal Nigam & Ors. ...Respondents

Counsel for the Appellant:
Sri S.D. Singh with Sri Shadab Alam, Advocates Sri Sujeet Kumar with Ms. Chhaya Gupta, Advocates

Counsel for the Respondents:
Sri Vimlesh Kumar Rai, Advocate for U.P. Jal Nigam, Sri Anand Prakash Paul, Advocate for Kanpur Development Authority

A. Arbitration Law – Extension of mandate of the arbitrator - When a bench of coequal strength is faced with conflicting judgments of other coequal benches, the judgment delivered earlier will continue to govern the field of law, till such time, the same is overturned or in case the question(s) of law, if referred to the larger bench is answered. This will also hold true when a lower court is faced with conflicting judgments of a higher court, or a coordinate bench is faced with conflicting judgments of a division bench. (Para 24)

Precedents are not mere legal doctrines; they are the embodiment of centuries of legal wisdom and collective judicial experience. When courts deviate from established precedents without due consideration, they risk undermining the credibility and legitimacy of the legal system. Therefore, it is imperative for courts to uphold the sanctity of legal precedents and adhere to established principles of judicial discipline, even in the face of conflicting opinions or pressures to depart from precedent. (Para 22)

B. The judgments in Lucknow Agencies (infra) and Indian Farmers Fertilizers (infra) having been delivered under different factual scenarios will continue to govern the field of law as far as Section 29A of the Act is concerned before this Court. All applications filed u/s 29A of the Act till such time as the Larger Bench, reference to which was made vide this Court's order dated February 26, 2024, returns its decision on the questions of law, will have to be decided in accordance with the law laid down in Lucknow Agencies and Indian Farmers Fertilizers. The judgment in A'Xykno Capital Services (infra) having been delivered after the aforesaid judgments, will not hold any precedential value. Needless to say, this position will be subject to the decision of the Larger Bench. (Para 33)

The doctrine of per incuriam is based on the latin phrase meaning "thorough lack of care". It allows the courts to depart from established precedent when a previous decision was made without proper consideration of relevant statutes, regulations, or binding authorities. However, the doctrine of per incuriam must be exercised with caution to ensure that it is not used as a pretext for disregarding inconvenient precedent. The principle should only be invoked in exceptional cases where the error is clear and unequivocal, and where adherence to the precedent would result in a grave injustice. Per incuriam should be used sparingly and only in exceptional cases. (Para 32)

C. It has been held in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (infra) that where an arbitrator has been appointed u/s 11 of the Act, an application for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal u/s 29A of the Act will lie before the court which appointed the arbitrator. (Para 27)

In light of the aforesaid, since the appointment of the arbitrator in ARBT NOS. 4 and 5 of 2024 was made by this Court in exercise of its powers u/s 11 of the Act, the instant applications filed u/s 29A(4) and S. 29(A(5) of the Act are maintainable before this Court. (Para 34)

ARBT NO.4 of 2024 is allowed and the mandate of the arbitrator is extended for a period of 8 months from the date of this judgment. ARBT NO. 5 of 2024 is also allowed and the mandate of the arbitrator is extended for a period of 8 months from the date of this judgment. (Para 35, 36)

Applications allowed. (E-4)

Precedent discussed:

1. M/s. Jaypee Infratech Ltd. Vs Ehbh Services Private Ltd. & anr., 26.02.2024 (Para 5(i))

2. Lucknow Agencies LKO Vs UP Awas Vikas Parishad & ors., MANU/UP/0885/2019 (Para 5(iv))

3. Indian Farmers Fertilizers Cooperative Ltd. Vs Manish Engineering Enterprises, MANU/ UP/ 0515/2022 (Para 5(v))

4. National Insurance Co. Ltd. Vs Pranay Sethi & ors., (2017) 16 SCC 680 5 (Para 5(vii))

5. Union Territory of Ladakh & ors. Vs Jammu and Kashmir National Conference & anr., 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1140 (Para 5(vii))

6. State of Uttar Pradesh & ors. Vs Ajay Kumar Sharma, (2016) 15 SCC 289 (Para 11)

7. Mary Pushpam Vs Telvi Curusumary, (2024) 3 SCC 224, (Para 20)

Present applications have been filed u/s 29(A)(4) and S. 29(A)(5) of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996, praying for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal.

(Delivered by Hon'ble Shekhar B. Saraf, J.)

1. These applications have been filed under Section 29(A)(4) and Section 29(A)(5) of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as the 'Act') praying for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal.

2. Since the instant applications (ARBT – 4 of 2024 and ARBT – 5 of 2024) involve similar issues, they are being taken up together.

FACTS

3. The brief factual matrix involved in ARBT – 4 of 2024 has been delineated below:

(a) M/s Geo Miller and Co. Pvt. Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the 'Petitioner – ARBT 4') and U.P. Jal Nigam and Others (hereinafter referred to as the 'Respondents - ARBT 4') entered into a contract. Disputes and differences arose between the parties which were referred to arbitration.

(b) Petitioner – ARBT 4 filed an application under Section 11 of the Act for appointment of an arbitrator before this Court.

(c) Vide orders dated September 16, 2021 and October 6, 2021, this Court appointed Mr. Justice R.D. Khare (Former Judge of this Court) as the sole arbitrator.

(d) The time limited for making an arbitral award as provided under Section 29A of the Act expired on February 29, 2024. The arbitrator could not publish his award within the statutory time limit, and therefore, he asked the parties to seek extension of time in accordance with the law.

(e) Hence, the Petitioner – ARBT 4 filed the instant application being Civil Misc. Arbitration Application No. – 4 of 2024 under Section 29A of the Act.

4. The brief factual matrix involved in ARBT – 5 of 2024 has been delineated below:

(a) Disputes and differences arose between GPT Infraprojects Limited (hereinafter referred to as the 'Petitioner – ARBT 5) and Kanpur Development Authority (hereinafter referred to as the 'Respondent – ARBT 5') which were referred to arbitration.

(b) The arbitrator in the case was appointed by this Court under Section 11 of the Act vide orders dated June 18, 2021 and July 29, 2021.

(c) Since the time limit to make an arbitral award in accordance with Section 29A of the Act was about to expire on March 7, 2024, the Petitioner – ARBT 5 filed the instant application being Civil Misc. Arbitration Application No. – 5 of 2024 seeking extension of time before this Court.

CONTENTIONS OF THE APPLICANT IN ARBT NO. 4 OF 2024

5. Sri S.D. Singh, learned counsel appearing for the applicant has made the following submissions:

(i) This Court vide its order dated February 26, 2024 passed in M/s. Jaypee Infratech Limited -v- Ehbh Services Private Limited and Another had referred the issue regarding Section 29A of the Act before the Larger Bench in light of various conflicting judgments passed by different Coordinate Benches of this Court.

(ii) The question which arose in the present matter was that what will be the situation for deciding the cases during the pendency of the issues referred to the Larger Bench.

(iii) According to various judgments of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, earlier decision can be relied upon during the pendency of the reference before the Larger Bench unless there is a specific order restraining the Court from deciding any matter on the issues that have been referred to the Larger Bench.

(iv) Judgment of this Court in Lucknow Agencies LKO -v- UP Awas Vikas Parishad and Ors. reported in MANU/UP/0885/2019 deals with a different situation and as such the said judgment is not in conflict of any of the judgments delivered by other Coordinate Benches of this Court. In the said case it has been held by this Court that when the arbitrator has not been appointed under Section 11 of the Act, an application under Section 29A of the Act would be maintainable only before the court as defined under Section 2(1)(e) of the Act.

(v) The issue that "Whether an application filed under Section 29A of the Act for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal is maintainable before this Court or before the Court as defined under Section 2(1)(e) of the Act, when this Court has appointed the arbitrator under Section 11 of the Act" arose before this Court for the first time in Indian Farmers Fertilizers Cooperative Limited -v- Manish Engineering Enterprises reported in MANU/UP/0515/2022.

(vi) It has been held in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) that when this Court has exercised its jurisdiction under Section 11 of the Act to appoint the arbitrator, an application under Section 29A of the Act would be maintainable before this Court only. Therefore, it is clear that the first judgment on this issue is Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra).

(vii) The instant matter or any other similar matter are not required to be kept pending till such time the reference made to Larger Bench is answered. The instant matter or any other similar matter is needed to be decided by this Court based on its judgement in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra), as per the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in National Insurance Co. Ltd. -v- Pranay Sethi & Ors. reported in (2017) 16 SCC 680 and Union Territory of Ladakh & Ors. -v- Jammu and Kashmir National Conference and Anr. reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1140.

(viii) The Constitution Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Pranay Sethi (supra) held that there can be no scintilla of doubt that an earlier decision of co-equal Bench binds another Bench of the same strength".

(ix) The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Union Territory of Ladakh & Ors. -v- Jammu and Kashmir National Conference and Anr. (supra) dealt with the issue that what will be the course of action for deciding the pending matters or the matters which have been filed during the interregnum period, when any issue is pending before the Larger Bench.

(x) Based on the facts and circumstances of this case, it is prayed that this Court may be pleased to exercise its jurisdiction under Section 29(A) of the Act and extend the time period for making the arbitral award.

ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSION

6. I have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the material on record.

7. The question of law involved in the instant applications is as to which of the judgments in light of the conflicting position of law on Section 29A of the Act espoused by different coordinate Benches of this Court would hold the field till such time as the reference to Larger Bench made vide this Court's order dated February 26th, 2024 is answered. Hence, for the better adjudication of the matter, I have divided the instant judgment into two issues:

Issue No. 1: When there are conflicting judgments of different benches of coequal strength of a court on a similar question of law, which one assumes the status of binding precedent when the said question of law has been referred to a larger bench for adjudication ?

Issue No. 2: Which judgment will govern the field of law on Section 29A of the Act as far as this Court is concerned ?

ISSUE NO. 1

8. The principle of judicial discipline is a cornerstone of the legal system, essential for maintaining the integrity, coherence, and predictability of judicial decisions. One of the key mechanisms through which judicial discipline is maintained is the doctrine of stare decisis, which literally means "to stand by things decided". Under this doctrine, courts are bound to follow their own previous decisions when confronted with similar legal issues. This principle serves several important purposes. Firstly, it promotes consistency and predictability in the law, ensuring that similar cases are decided in a uniform manner. This fosters legal certainty and promotes the rule of law by providing litigants with a clear understanding of their rights and obligations. Secondly, stare decisis promotes respect for judicial authority and fosters public confidence in the legal system. By adhering to established legal precedents, courts demonstrate a respect for the decisions of their predecessors and the principle of continuity in the law. This enhances the legitimacy of judicial decisions and reinforces the notion that courts are impartial arbiters of legal disputes, guided by established legal norms rather than personal preferences or biases.

9. Additionally, the doctrine of stare decisis promotes judicial efficiency by reducing the need for courts to revisit settled legal issues. By following established legal precedents, courts can focus their attention on resolving new and novel legal questions, rather than re-litigating issues that have already been decided. This streamlines the judicial process and enables the courts to operate more effectively, ensuring that scarce judicial resources are allocated efficiently.

10. When a Coordinate Bench issues a judgment on a particular legal issue, that judgment becomes binding precedent for subsequent cases involving a similar issue before another Coordinate Bench. This ensures that similar cases are decided in a consistent and uniform manner, regardless of the particular composition of the Bench.

11. In State of Uttar Pradesh and Others -v- Ajay Kumar Sharma reported in (2016) 15 SCC 289, the Hon'ble Supreme Court espoused on the significance of the doctrine of stare decisis as follows:

"13. Time and again this Court has emphatically restated the essentials and principles of "precedent" and of stare decisis which are a cardinal feature of the hierarchical character of all common law judicial systems. The doctrine of precedent mandates that an exposition of law must be followed and applied even by coordinate or co-equal Benches and certainly by all smaller Benches and subordinate courts. That is to say that a smaller and a later Bench has no freedom other than to apply the law laid down by the earlier and larger Bench; that is the law which is said to hold the field. Apart from Article 141, it is a policy of the courts to stand by precedent and not to disturb a settled point. The purpose of precedents is to bestow predictability on judicial decisions and it is beyond cavil that certainty in law is an essential ingredient of rule of law. A departure may only be made when a coordinate or co-equal Bench finds the previous decision to be of doubtful logic or efficacy and consequentially, its judicial conscience is so perturbed and aroused that it finds it impossible to follow the existing ratio. The Bench must then comply with the discipline of requesting the Hon'ble Chief Justice to constitute a larger Bench.

14. If binding precedents even of coordinate strength are not followed, the roots of continuity and certainty of law which should be nurtured, strengthened, perpetuated and proliferated will instead be deracinated. Although spoken in a totally different context, we are reminded of the opening stanza of the poem "The Second Coming" authored by William Butler Yeats. The lines obviously do not advert to the principle of precedent but they are apposite in bringing out the wisdom of this ancient and venerable principle.

"Turning and turning in the widening gyre

The falcon cannot hear the falconer;

Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold;

Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world."

12. What follows from the aforesaid decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court is that the doctrine of stare decisis holds paramount importance. The adherence to precedent is not merely a matter of legal formalism but serves the vital function of bestowing predictability on judicial decisions, thereby fostering certainty in the law. The analogy drawn by the Hon'ble Supreme Court to William Butler Yeats' poem "The Second Coming" poignantly captures the essence of the doctrine of stair decisis. Just as the falcon in Yeats' poem struggles to maintain its courts amidst chaos and disarray, so too does the legal system face the risk of fragmentation and disintegration when courts fail to uphold established precedents. Without the anchor of precedent to guide its decisions, the judiciary risks descending into a state of "mere anarchy", where the fundamental principles of justice and equity are cast aside in favour of individual whim or caprice.

13. Indeed, the parallels between Yeats' evocative imagery and the principles of stare decisis are striking. The image of "things fall apart" when the centre cannot hold resonates with the chaos that ensues when legal precedent is disregarded, leading to uncertainty, inconsistency, and a loss of faith in the judicial system. In contrast, the preservation of precedent serves as a bulwark against the tide of legal tumult, anchoring the law in a bedrock of stability and continuity.

14. Justice Benjamin N. Cardozo eloquently stated "The labor of judges would be increased almost to the breaking point if every past decision could be reopened in every case, and one could not lay one's own course of bricks on the secure foundation of the courses laid by others who had gone before him." Thus, while precedent provides a foundation for legal reasoning, it also allows for the exercise of judicial wisdom and discretion in exceptional cases.

15. In the intricate tapestry of legal precedent, one of the most formidable challenges facing the judiciary is the dilemma of conflicting precedents. At the hear of the dilemma lies the clash of titans – two or more precedents that stand in direct opposition to one another. This clash may arise due to a variety of reasons, including divergent interpretations of statutory language, conflicting judicial philosophies, or evolving societal norms. When confronted with conflicting precedents by earlier benches of coequal strength, courts usually have limited options before them. One such option is the principle of distinguishing, whereby a court seeks to identify meaningful differences between the conflicting precedents and apply the one that is most applicable to the case at hand. This approach allows courts to preserve the integrity of both precedents while harmonizing their application to the facts before them. In addition to the same, another option available to courts in cases of conflicting precedents is to make a reference to a bench of larger strength. This option recognizes the complexity and significance of the issue at hand. Take for example, the practice of en blanc review present in the United States. En blanc review involves rehearing a case before all the judges of a court, rather than a smaller panel, and is typically reserved for cases of exceptional importance or complexity. By convening a larger bench, courts ensure that decisions of significant consequences are made with the benefit of a wider range of perspectives and expertise.

16. However, the question remains as to the path that must be followed till such time as the larger bench returns its decision.

17. Reference in this regard can be made to the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in National Insurance Company Limited -v- Pranay Sethi (supra) wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court grappled with a similar question and concluded as follows after making a reference to precedents:

"16. In State of Bihar v. Kalika Kuer [State of Bihar v. Kalika Kuer, (2003) 5 SCC 448] , it has been held :

"10. ... an earlier decision may seem to be incorrect to a Bench of a coordinate jurisdiction considering the question later, on the ground that a possible aspect of the matter was not considered or not raised before the court or more aspects should have been gone into by the court deciding the matter earlier but it would not be a reason to say that the decision was rendered per incuriam and liable to be ignored. The earlier judgment may seem to be not correct yet it will have the binding effect on the later Bench of coordinate jurisdiction. ..."

The Court has further ruled :

"10. ... Easy course of saying that earlier decision was rendered per incuriam is not permissible and the matter will have to be resolved only in two ways — either to follow the earlier decision or refer the matter to a larger Bench to examine the issue, in case it is felt that earlier decision is not correct on merits."

17. In G.L. Batra v. State of Haryana [G.L. Batra v. State of Haryana, (2014) 13 SCC 759 : (2015) 3 SCC (L&S) 575] , the Court has accepted the said principle on the basis of judgments of this Court rendered in Union of India v. Godfrey Philips India Ltd. [Union of India v. Godfrey Philips India Ltd., (1985) 4 SCC 369 : 1986 SCC (Tax) 11] , Sundarjas Kanyalal Bhatija v. Collector, Thane [Sundarjas Kanyalal Bhatija v. Collector, Thane, (1989) 3 SCC 396] and Tribhovandas Purshottamdas Thakkar v. Ratilal Motilal Patel [Tribhovandas Purshottamdas Thakkar v. Ratilal Motilal Patel, AIR 1968 SC 372] . It may be noted here that the Constitution Bench in Madras Bar Assn. v. Union of India [Madras Bar Assn. v. Union of India, (2015) 8 SCC 583] has clearly stated that the prior Constitution Bench judgment in Union of India v. Madras Bar Assn. [Union of India v. Madras Bar Assn., (2010) 11 SCC 1] is a binding precedent. Be it clarified, the issues that were put to rest in the earlier Constitution Bench judgment were treated as precedents by the later Constitution Bench.

18. In this regard, we may refer to a passage from Jaisri Sahu v. Rajdewan Dubey [Jaisri Sahu v. Rajdewan Dubey, AIR 1962 SC 83] :

"10. Law will be bereft of all its utility if it should be thrown into a state of uncertainty by reason of conflicting decisions, and it is therefore desirable that in case of difference of opinion, the question should be authoritatively settled. It sometimes happens that an earlier decision [Dasrath Singh v. Damri Singh, 1925 SCC OnLine Pat 242 : AIR 1927 Pat 219] given by a Bench is not brought to the notice of a Bench [Ram Asre Singh v. Ambica Lal, AIR 1929 Pat 216] hearing the same question, and a contrary decision is given without reference to the earlier decision. The question has also been discussed as to the correct procedure to be followed when two such conflicting decisions are placed before a later Bench. The practice in the Patna High Court appears to be that in those cases, the earlier decision is followed and not the later. In England the practice is, as noticed in the judgment in Gundavarupu Seshamma v. Kornepati Venkata Narasimharao [Gundavarupu Seshamma v. Kornepati Venkata Narasimharao, 1939 SCC OnLine Mad 367 : ILR 1940 Mad 454] that the decision of a Court of Appeal is considered as a general rule to be binding on it. There are exceptions to it, and one of them is thus stated in Halsbury's Laws of England,

'1687. ... the court is not bound to follow a decision of its own if given per incuriam. A decision is given per incuriam when the court has acted in ignorance of a previous decision of its own or of a court of a coordinate jurisdiction which covered the case before it, or when it has acted in ignorance of a decision of the House of Lords. In the former case it must decide which decision to follow, and in the latter it is bound by the decision of the House of Lords.'

In Katragadda Virayya v. Katragadda Venkata Subbayya [Katragadda Virayya v. Katragadda Venkata Subbayya, 1955 SCC OnLine AP 34 : AIR 1955 AP 215] it has been held by the Andhra High Court that under the circumstances aforesaid the Bench is free to adopt that view which is in accordance with justice and legal principles after taking into consideration the views expressed in the two conflicting Benches, vide also the decision of the Nagpur High Court in D.D. Bilimoria v. Central Bank of India [D.D. Bilimoria v. Central Bank of India, 1943 SCC OnLine MP 97 : AIR 1943 Nag 340] . The better course would be for the Bench hearing the case to refer the matter to a Full Bench in view of the conflicting authorities without taking upon itself to decide whether it should follow the one Bench decision or the other. We have no doubt that when such situations arise, the Bench hearing cases would refer the matter for the decision of a Full Court."

19. Though the aforesaid was articulated in the context of the High Court, yet this Court has been following the same as is revealed from the aforestated pronouncements including that of the Constitution Bench and, therefore, we entirely agree with the said view because it is the precise warrant of respecting a precedent which is the fundamental norm of judicial discipline.

20. In the context, we may fruitfully note what has been stated in Pradip Chandra Parija v. Pramod Chandra Patnaik [Pradip Chandra Parija v. Pramod Chandra Patnaik, (2002) 1 SCC 1] . In the said case, the Constitution Bench was dealing with a situation where the two-Judge Bench [Pradip Chandra Parija v. Pramod Chandra Patnaik, Civil Appeal No. 791 of 1993, order dated 24-10-1996 (SC)] disagreeing with the three-Judge Bench [Nityananda Kar v. State of Orissa, 1991 Supp (2) SCC 516 : 1992 SCC (L&S) 177] decision directed the matter to be placed before a larger Bench of five Judges of this Court. In that scenario, the Constitution Bench stated :

"6. ... In our view, judicial discipline and propriety demands that a Bench of two learned Judges should follow a decision of a Bench of three learned Judges. But if a Bench of two learned Judges concludes that an earlier judgment of three learned Judges is so very incorrect that in no circumstances can it be followed, the proper course for it to adopt is to refer the matter before it to a Bench of three learned Judges setting out, as has been done here, the reasons why it could not agree with the earlier judgment. ..."

21. In Chandra Prakash v. State of U.P. [Chandra Prakash v. State of U.P., (2002) 4 SCC 234 : 2002 SCC (L&S) 496] , another Constitution Bench dealing with the concept of precedents stated thus :

"22. ... The doctrine of binding precedent is of utmost importance in the administration of our judicial system. It promotes certainty and consistency in judicial decisions. Judicial consistency promotes confidence in the system, therefore, there is this need for consistency in the enunciation of legal principles in the decisions of this Court. It is in the above context, this Court in Raghubir Singh [Union of India v. Raghubir Singh, (1989) 2 SCC 754] held that a pronouncement of law by a Division Bench of this Court is binding on a Division Bench of the same or smaller number of Judges. ..."

Be it noted, Chandra Prakash [Chandra Prakash v. State of U.P., (2002) 4 SCC 234 : 2002 SCC (L&S) 496] concurred with the view expressed in Raghubir Singh [Union of India v. Raghubir Singh, (1989) 2 SCC 754] and Pradip Chandra Parija [Pradip Chandra Parija v. Pramod Chandra Patnaik, (2002) 1 SCC 1] .

22. In Sandhya Educational Society v. Union of India [Sandhya Educational Society v. Union of India, (2014) 7 SCC 701] , it has been observed that judicial decorum and discipline is paramount and, therefore, a coordinate Bench has to respect the judgments and orders passed by another coordinate Bench. In Rattiram v. State of M.P. [Rattiram v. State of M.P., (2012) 4 SCC 516 : (2012) 2 SCC (Cri) 481] , the Court dwelt upon the issue, what would be the consequent effect of the later decision which had been rendered without noticing the earlier decisions. The Court noted the observations in Raghubir Singh [Union of India v. Raghubir Singh, (1989) 2 SCC 754] and reproduced a passage from Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd. v. Municipal Corpn. [Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd. v. Municipal Corpn., (1995) 4 SCC 96] which is to the following effect : (Rattiram case [Rattiram v. State of M.P., (2012) 4 SCC 516 : (2012) 2 SCC (Cri) 481] ,

"27. ... '8. ... The Division Bench of the High Court in Municipal Corpn., Indore v. Ratnaprabha Dhanda [Municipal Corpn., Indore v. Ratnaprabha Dhanda, 1988 SCC OnLine MP 116 : 1989 MP LJ 20] was clearly in error in taking the view that the decision of this Court in Ratnaprabha [Municipal Corpn., Indore v. Ratnaprabha, (1976) 4 SCC 622] was not binding on it. In doing so, the Division Bench of the High Court did something which even a later co-equal Bench of this Court did not and could not do. ...' (Indian Oil Corpn. case [Indian Oil Corpn. Ltd. v. Municipal Corpn., (1995) 4 SCC 96] , SCC p. 100, para 8)"

23. It also stated what has been expressed in Raghubir Singh [Union of India v. Raghubir Singh, (1989) 2 SCC 754] by R.S. Pathak, C.J. It is as follows : (Rattiram case [Rattiram v. State of M.P., (2012) 4 SCC 516 : (2012) 2 SCC (Cri) 481] ,

"26. ... '28. We are of opinion that a pronouncement of law by a Division Bench of this Court is binding on a Division Bench of the same or a smaller number of Judges, and in order that such decision be binding, it is not necessary that it should be a decision rendered by the Full Court or a Constitution Bench of the Court. ...' (Raghubir Singh case [Union of India v. Raghubir Singh, (1989) 2 SCC 754] , SCC p. 778, para 28)"

24. In Rajesh [Rajesh v. Rajbir Singh, (2013) 9 SCC 54 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 179 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 817 : (2014) 1 SCC (L&S) 149] the three-Judge Bench had delivered the judgment on 12-4-2013. The purpose of stating the date is that it has been delivered after the pronouncement made in Reshma Kumari case [Reshma Kumari v. Madan Mohan, (2013) 9 SCC 65 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 191 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 826] . On a perusal of the decision in Rajesh [Rajesh v. Rajbir Singh, (2013) 9 SCC 54 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 179 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 817 : (2014) 1 SCC (L&S) 149] , we find that an attempt has been made to explain what the two-Judge Bench had stated in Santosh Devi [Santosh Devi v. National Insurance Co. Ltd., (2012) 6 SCC 421 : (2012) 3 SCC (Civ) 726 : (2012) 3 SCC (Cri) 160 : (2012) 2 SCC (L&S) 167] . The relevant passages read as follows : (Rajesh case [Rajesh v. Rajbir Singh, (2013) 9 SCC 54 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 179 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 817 : (2014) 1 SCC (L&S) 149] , SCC p. 61, paras 8-9)

***

27. We are compelled to state here that in Munna Lal Jain [Munna Lal Jain v. Vipin Kumar Sharma, (2015) 6 SCC 347 : (2015) 3 SCC (Civ) 315 : (2015) 4 SCC (Cri) 195] , the three-Judge Bench should have been guided by the principle stated in Reshma Kumari [Reshma Kumari v. Madan Mohan, (2013) 9 SCC 65 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 191 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 826] which has concurred with the view expressed in Sarla Verma [Sarla Verma v. DTC, (2009) 6 SCC 121 : (2009) 2 SCC (Civ) 770 : (2009) 2 SCC (Cri) 1002] or in case of disagreement, it should have been well advised to refer the case to a larger Bench. We say so, as we have already expressed the opinion that the dicta laid down in Reshma Kumari [Reshma Kumari v. Madan Mohan, (2013) 9 SCC 65 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 191 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 826] being earlier in point of time would be a binding precedent and not the decision in Rajesh [Rajesh v. Rajbir Singh, (2013) 9 SCC 54 : (2013) 4 SCC (Civ) 179 : (2013) 3 SCC (Cri) 817 : (2014) 1 SCC (L&S) 149] ."

18. What emerges from the wisdom of the Hon'ble Supreme Court is that the doctrine of precedent, is not without its nuances and complexities. As elucidated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, an earlier decision, even if considered incorrect by a later Bench, retains its binding effect on subsequent Benches of coordinate jurisdiction. The principle which emerges is that the earlier decision must be followed until the decision of the larger bench is returned. This principle is rooted in tradition, certainty, and the integrity of precedent itself. As articulated by the Apex Court, the law would be bereft of utility if thrown into a state of uncertainty by conflicting decisions. Throughout history, the stability and continuity of law have been upheld through adherence to established precedent. By following the earlier decision, even in the face of conflicting precedents, courts preserve the integrity of the legal system and uphold the principle of stare decisis – the notion that like cases should be decided like. From a practical standpoint, following the earlier decision until the decision of the larger bench is returned serves to promote certainty and predictability in the administration of justice. When conflicting precedents arise, uncertainty abounds, and litigants may be left in a state of limbo, unsure of their rights and obligations under the law. By adhering to the earlier decision, courts provide a measure of stability and clarity, allowing parties to proceed with confidence while awaiting resolution from the larger bench.

19. In Union Territory of Ladakh & Others -v- Jammu and Kashmir National Conference (supra), the Hon'ble Supreme Court reiterated the principle laid down in Pranay Sethi (supra) and propounded that when conflicting decisions of coequal benches exist, the earlier one is to be followed as binding precedent. Relevant paragraph is extracted herein:

"35. We are seeing before us judgments and orders by High Courts not deciding cases on the ground that the leading judgment of this Court on this subject is either referred to a larger Bench or a review petition relating thereto is pending. We have also come across examples of High Courts refusing deference to judgments of this Court on the score that a later Coordinate Bench has doubted its correctness. In this regard, we lay down the position in law. We make it absolutely clear that the High Courts will proceed to decide matters on the basis of the law as it stands. It is not open, unless specifically directed by this Court, to await an outcome of a reference or a review petition, as the case may be. It is also not open to a High Court to refuse to follow a judgment by stating that it has been doubted by a later Coordinate Bench. In any case, when faced with conflicting judgments by Benches of equal strength of this Court, it is the earlier one which is to be followed by the High Courts, as held by a 5-Judge Bench in National Insurance Company Limited v. Pranay Sethi, (2017) 16 SCC 6805. The High Courts, of course, will do so with careful regard to the facts and circumstances of the case before it."

20. Recently, in Mary Pushpam -v- Telvi Curusumary reported in (2024) 3 SCC 224, the Hon'ble Supreme Court reiterated the significance of the doctrine of judicial discipline and propriety:

"Vikram Nath, J.— The rule of "Judicial Discipline and Propriety" and the doctrine of precedents has a merit of promoting certainty and consistency in judicial decisions providing assurance to individuals as to the consequences of their actions. The Constitution Benches of this Court have time and again reiterated the rules emerging from judicial discipline. Accordingly, when a decision of a coordinate Bench of the same High Court is brought to the notice of the Bench, it is to be respected and is binding subject to right of the Bench of such co-equal quorum to take a different view and refer the question to a larger Bench. It is the only course of action open to a Bench of co-equal strength, when faced with the previous decision taken by a Bench with same strength."

21. The Hon'ble Supreme Court's aforesaid pronouncements serve as a clarion call, admonishing against the perils of judicial vacillation and indecision. The directive to accord precedence to earlier judgments, notwithstanding doubts cast by subsequent coordinate benches, elucidates the unwavering commitment to upholding the rule of law and preserving the sanctity of legal precedent. The Supreme Court's assertion that decisions of coordinate benches of the same High Court are to be respected and considered binding, subject to the right of coequal benches to refer the question to a larger bench, reflects the delicate balance between adherence to precedent and the pursuit of legal evolution by reaffirming the authority of precedent while acknowledging the judiciary's prerogative to revisit established doctrines when warranted.

22. Precedents are not mere legal doctrines; they are the embodiment of centuries of legal wisdom and collective judicial experience. When courts deviate from established precedents without due consideration, they risk undermining the credibility and legitimacy of the legal system. Therefore, it is imperative for courts to uphold the sanctity of legal precedents and adhere to established principles of judicial discipline, even in the face of conflicting opinions or pressures to depart from precedent.

23. This is reminiscent of Shakespeare's "Hamlet", where the protagonist grapples with the weight of inherited wisdom and the demands of his own conscience. Hamlet's dilemma mirrors the judicial predicament faced by courts when confronted with conflicting precedents. Like Hamlet, judges must navigate the intricate web of legal doctrines and precedents, weighing the authority of past decisions against the exigencies of the present moment. In embracing the rule of precedent, the judiciary echoes Hamlet's famous soliloquy (To be, or not to be, that is the question), acknowledging the enduring power of tradition while grappling with the imperatives of justice and fairness.

24. In light of the aforesaid, Issue No. 1 is answered as follows:

"When a bench of coequal strength is faced with conflicting judgments of other coequal benches, the judgment delivered earlier will continue to govern the field of law, till such time, the same is overturned or in case the question(s) of law, if referred to the larger bench is answered. This will also hold true when a lower court is faced with conflicting judgments of a higher court, or a coordinate bench is faced with conflicting judgments of a division bench."

ISSUE NO.2

25. In Lucknow Agencies (supra), which was delivered on March 15, 2019, a Coordinate Bench of this Court while considering an application under Section 29A(4) and Section 29(A)(5) of the Act held that given the fact that the arbitrator in the case was not appointed by the High Court under Section 11 of the Act, and that the Allahabad High Court does not exercise ordinary original civil jurisdiction, it does not have the power to hear an application under Section 29A of the Act, and the same will have to be made before the Court as defined under Section 2(1)(e) of the Act. Relevant paragraphs from the aforesaid judgment are extracted herein:

"3. In the instant case an Arbitrator was appointed by the Housing Commissioner of the Housing Board, U.P. and not by this Court under Section 11 of the Act, 1996. The proceedings could not be concluded within the time limit specified for rendering the arbitral award under Section 29-A but the parties by their consent extended the period for six months as has been recorded in the proceedings before the Arbitral Tribunal dated 13.01.2018, however, the proceedings could not be concluded even during this extended period of six months, therefore, this application has been filed.

***

11. On a bare reading of the aforesaid provision it is evident that if an Arbitration is other than an international commercial arbitration, all applications or appeals arising out of such arbitration under the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (26 of 1996) that have been filed on the original side of the High Court, shall be heard and disposed of by the Commercial Division where such Commercial Division has been constituted in such High Court. Now, this provision applies where the High Court exercises original civil jurisdiction to try suits involving commercial dispute as deferred in Section 2(1)(c) of the Act, 2015 as is evident from the use of the words 'filed on the original side of the High Court'. The Allahabad High court does not exercise original civil jurisdiction involving commercial disputes as defined in Section 2(1)(c) of the Act, 2015 as is evident from Rule 1 to 9 of Chapter VIII of the Allahabad High Court Rules, 1952. Moreover, Sub-section 3 of Section 10 of the Act, 2015 very categorically provides that if an arbitration is other than an international commercial arbitration, all applications or appeals arising out of such arbitration under the Act, 1996 that would ordinarily lie before any principal civil court of original jurisdiction in a district (not being a High Court) shall be filed in, and heard and disposed of by the Commercial Court exercising territorial jurisdiction over such arbitration where such Commercial Court has been constituted. Therefore, in the facts of the present case as the Allahabad High Court does not exercise original civil jurisdiction involving commercial disputes the application under Section 29-A of the Act, 1996 relating to a commercial dispute would lie before the Commercial Court exercising territorial jurisdiction over such arbitration where such Commercial Court has been constituted and in an Arbitration relating to a non commercial dispute it would lie before the principal civil court of original jurisdiction i.e. the Court of District Judge as referred hereinabove. This is how the Act of 1996 and the Act, 2015 have to be read together to arrive at a harmonious understanding of the two Acts in matters of Arbitration."

26. This Court in Lucknow Agencies (supra) did not deal with a situation wherein the arbitrator was appointed under the powers contained in Section 11 of the Act, and hence this Court, did not deal with the potential conflict between Section 11 of the Act and Section 29A of the Act which might arise in such a situation.

27. The aforesaid issue was dealt with for the first time by this Court in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra), which was delivered on March 11, 2022. This Court held that where an arbitrator has been appointed under Section 11 of the Act, an application for extension of the mandate of the arbitral tribunal under Section 29A of the Act will lie before the court which appointed the arbitrator. Relevant paragraphs are extracted herein:

"43. Here, we are concerned with the extension of time limit for the arbitral award under Section 29A, wherein an arbitrator has been appointed by the High Court exercising power under Section 11 of the Act. Section 42 will not be attracted and it is only the High Court which has the power to grant extension to the Arbitral Tribunal for making award.

44. Reliance placed on the various decisions by the respondent's counsel relate to the definition of the word "court" under Section 2(1) (e) prior to the amendment of year 2015. In none of the judgment placed before the Court Sections 11 and 29A of the Act has been taken into consideration.

45. As far as decision of coordinate Bench of this Court in case of M/s. Lucknow Agencies and Another (supra) is concerned, the arbitrator was appointed by the Housing Commissioner and not by the High Court exercising power under Section 11 of the Act. The Court while considering the provisions of Section 29A(4) and (5) held that it was the principal Civil Court where the application for extension of time for arbitral award was maintainable and not before the High Court. In the said judgment there was no consideration as to subsection (6) and (7) of Section 29A of the Act. The said decision is distinguishable on the facts of the present case.

46. In the present case this Court exercising power under Section 11 of the Act has appointed the arbitrator way back in the year 2014.

47. Thus, the question framed above stand answered holding that the application for extension of time for arbitral award moved under Section 29A is maintainable before this Court."

28. Unlike Lucknow Agencies (supra), this Court in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra), squarely addressed the issue of arbitrators appointed under Section 11 of the Act and the corresponding jurisdiction of this Court to grant extensions of time under Section 29A of the Act. The different approach adopted by this Court in Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) underscores the contextual specificity inherent in legal interpretation. The judgment in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) clarified the the jurisdictional contours in cases involving arbitrators appointed under Section 11 of the Act.

29. At first glance, the judgments in Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) may appear to be at odds with each other. However, a closer examination reveals that they are not conflicting but rather complementary expressions of judicial wisdom. The divergence in factual scenarios necessitates different interpretative approaches. Context serves as the lens through which legal principles are applied to real – life scenarios, ensuring that the law remains relevant and responsive to the complexities of human affairs. Legal interpretation is not a mechanical exercise but a nuanced art that requires judges to consider the underlying facts and circumstances. As Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes famously remarked, "The life of the law has not been logic; it has been experience". In other words, the law must reflect the lived experiences of individuals and communities to be meaningful and just. Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Farmer Fertilizers (supra) exemplify this principle by taking into account the different factual scenarios before them and tailoring their interpretation accordingly. In Lucknow Agencies (supra), where the arbitrator was not appointed by the High Court under Section 11 of the Act, this Court recognized the jurisdictional limitation of the Allahabad High Court and directed the parties to the appropriate forum as defined under the Act. On the other hand, Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra), dealt with a different factual scenario wherein the arbitrator was appointed by this Court under Section 11 of the Act.

30. However, this Court in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra), this Court took a divergent view. After discussing the doctine of per incuriam , this Court held that the judgment in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) cannot be considered as a binding precedent. This Court further held that irrespective of who appointed the arbitrator, it is only the court as defined under Section 2(1)(e) of the Act that can entertain an application under Section 29A of the Act. Relevant paragraphs are extracted below:

"68. Upon applicability of aforesaid judgment, clearly the ratio decidendi enunciated not only by previous Coordinate Benches of this Court but also by Hon'ble the Supreme Court as indicated hereinabove as well as specific provisions of statute, in the considered opinion of this Court and with all due respect could not be considered in the case of Indian Fertilizers (supra) due to which it cannot be said to have attained the status of a binding precedent.

69. In the light of aforesaid aspects as indicated hereinabove, the question is answered as follows:-

'The concept of 'Court' as envisaged under Section 29A read with Section 2(1)(e) of the Act of 1996 does not include a High Court not having original civil jurisdiction as in the case of Allahabad High Court and an application as such under Section 29A of the Act of 1996 would be maintainable only in the Principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction in a district.'"

31. In Jaypee Infratech (supra), I had discussed why the reasoning adopted in A'Xykno Capital Servies (supra) was flawed:

"50. The reasoning as adopted in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra), will lead to a situation wherein although not intended by the legislature, power of substitution under Section 29A(6) would be bestowed upon the Court as defined under Section 2(1)(e) of the Act even when the initial appointment of the arbitrator(s) may have been made under Section 11 of the Act by the High Courts or the Supreme Court. Each provision in the Act, is required to be interpreted in the context under which it has been used. Literal rule of interpretation is not the only rule of interpretation. Section 29A of the Act, as interpreted in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra), creates absurdity by putting two provisions of the Act, in direct conflict with each other. Section 29A of the Act, cannot be read in isolation with Sections 11 and 14 of the Act. The judgment in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra) further goes against the principle of judicial hierarchy.

51. In A'Xykno Capital Services (supra), this Court also held that the power to substitute an arbitrator under Section 29A of the Act is not akin to the power to appoint an arbitrator under Section 11(6) of the Act. This, in my view, is an erroneous reasoning. The usage of the term "appointed" in Section 29(7) of the Act indicates that substitution under Section 29(6) of the Act amounts to appointment:

"(7) In the event of arbitrator(s) being appointed under this section, the arbitral tribunal thus reconstituted shall be deemed to be in continuation of the previously appointed arbitral tribunal."

52. Furthermore, the distinguishing of the judgment of Lucknow Agencies (supra), in Indian Fertilizers (supra), was held as erroneous by this Court in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra). To my view, this could not have been done. The judgments in Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Fertilizers (supra) were delivered on different factual scenarios and therefore, the varying interpretation of Section 29A of the Act in the said judgments was not in conflict with each other. Where a High Court or the Supreme Court has not appointed the arbitrator, the Court within the meaning of Section 2(1)(e) of the Act can exercise the powers contained under Section 29A of the Act as the same would not lead to a conflict with the provisions contained under Section 11 of the Act and will also not go against the principal of judicial hierarchy. However, in case, where the appointment of the arbitrator(s) has been made under Section 11 of the Act, it is only the Court which appointed the arbitrator(s) that can hear an application under Section 29A of the Act."

32. In my view, the judgment of this Court in Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) ought to have been followed in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra). The doctrine of per incuriam is based on the latin phrase meaning "thorough lack of care". It allows the courts to depart from established precedent when a previous decision was made without proper consideration of relevant statutes, regulations, or binding authorities. However, the doctrine of per incuriam must be exercised with caution to ensure that it is not used as a pretext for disregarding inconvenient precedent. The principle should only be invoked in exceptional cases where the error is clear and unequivocal, and where adherence to the precedent would result in a grave injustice. Per incuriam should be used sparingly and only in exceptional cases.

33. In light of the above, the Issue No. 2 is answered as follows:

"The judgments in Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra) having been delivered under different factual scenarios will continue to govern the field of law as far as Section 29A of the Act is concerned before this Court. All applications filed under Section 29A of the Act till such time as the Larger Bench, reference to which was made vide this Court's order dated February 26, 2024, returns its decision on the questions of law, will have to be decided in accordance with the law laid down in Lucknow Agencies (supra) and Indian Farmers Fertilizers (supra). The judgment in A'Xykno Capital Services (supra) having been delivered after the aforesaid judgments, will not hold any precedential value. Needless to say, this position will be subject to the decision of the Larger Bench."

DIRECTIONS

34. In light of the aforesaid, since the appointment of the arbitrator in ARBT NOS. 4 and 5 of 2024 was made by this Court in exercise of its powers under Section 11 of the Act, the instant applications filed under Section 29A(4) and Section 29(A(5) of the Act are maintainable before this Court.

35. Accordingly, ARBT NO.4 of 2024 is allowed and the mandate of the arbitrator is extended for a period of 8 months from the date of this judgment.

36. ARBT NO. 5 of 2024 is also allowed and the mandate of the arbitrator is extended for a period of 8 months from the date of this judgment. There shall be no order as to the costs.
