- (1) For the purpose of selection of the candidates for the interview, the appointing authority shall prepare a list of names of candidates on the basis of percentage of the total marks secured in the written examination in the order of merit and if two or more candidates have secured equal percentage of total marks in the written examination, the order of merit in respect of such candidates shall be fixed on the basis of their age, the person or persons older in age being placed higher in order of merit. From among the candidates whose names are included in such list, as far as may be, such number of candidates as is equal to five times the number of vacancies notified, selected in the order of merit, shall be eligible for the interview:
- (2) For the purpose of this rule,-

1 Inserted vide Government Notification no. 4/2007/448/VII-nyaya-2-2017-176G-2010, dated 21.06.2017 (U.P. State District Court Service (First Amendment) Rules, 2017)

‘Written examination’ means the competitive examination held by the Selecting Authority as per syllabus given in Schedule 'C'.

11. Interview,-

Selecting Authority shall interview the eligible candidates selected under Rule 10 and award marks on the basis of their performance in the interview. The object of such interview is to assess the suitability of the candidates for appointment to the cadre or the post applied for by them and their calibre including intellectual and social traits of personality.

12. List of Selected candidates,-

¹[(1) The Selecting Authority shall on the basis of the aggregate of the percentage of the total marks secured in the written examination as determined under Rule 10 and of the marks secured at the interview under rule 11 and taking into consideration the orders in force relating to reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes and others prepare in the order of merit a list of the candidates eligible for appointment to the category of post and if the aggregate of the percentage of total marks secured in the written examinations as determined under rule 10, and of the marks secured at the interview under rule 11, of two or more candidates is equal, the order of the merit in respect of such candidates shall be fixed on the basis of their age, the person or persons older in age being placed higher in the order of merit. The number of names of the candidates to be included in such list shall be equal to the number of the vacancies notified for the recruitment.]

(2) The Selecting Authority shall in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (1) also prepare an additional list of names of the candidates not included in the list prepared under sub-rule (1) in which the number of candidates to be included shall, as far as possible, be ten percent of the number of vacancies notified.

(3) The lists so prepared under sub-rule (1) and (2) shall be pasted on the notice board of the Judgeship on the same day on which interview is held or on the next working day and a copy of the same shall be forwarded to the High Court.

1 Substituted vide Govt. Notification no. 4/2017/448/VII-Nyaya-2-2017-176G-2010, dated 21.06.2017 (U.P. State District Court Service (First Amendment) Rules, 2017.

13. Appointment of candidates,-

(1) Subject to rules 15 and 16 candidates whose names are included in the list prepared under sub-rule (1) and published under sub-rule (3) of Rule 12 may be appointed by the appointing authority in the vacancies in the particular cadre in the order in which the names are found in the list after satisfying itself, after such inquiry as may be considered necessary that each such candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to a post in the cadre. Candidates whose names are included in the list prepared under sub-rule (2) and published under sub-rule (3) of rule 12 may be similarly appointed after the candidates whose names are included in the list prepared under sub-rule (1) of Rule 12 have been appointed.

(2) The inclusion of the name of a candidate in any list published under Rule 12, shall not confer any right of appointment.

14. Duration of operation of the lists,-

The list of names of the candidates published by the Selecting Authority under Rule 12 in respect of any cadre shall cease to be operative on appointment of the last advertised vacancy or one year whichever is earlier.

15. Conditions relating to suitability and certificates of characters,-

No person shall be appointed unless the appointing authority is satisfied that he is of good character and is in all respect suitable for appointment to the service. Every candidate selected for direct recruitment shall furnish to the appointing authority certificates given not more than six months prior to the date of selection, by two respectable persons unconnected with his school, college or university, and not related to him, testifying to his character, in addition to the certificate or certificates which may be required to be furnished from the educational institution last attended by the candidate. If any doubt arises regarding the suitability of a candidate for appointment the decision of the High Court shall be final.

16. Conditions relating to Physical fitness,-

(1) No candidate selected for appointment shall be appointed to any post unless he satisfies the appointing authority that he is physically fit to discharge the duties that he may be called upon to perform. Appointing authority may, by order, prescribe the physical standards required to be satisfied by a person for appointment and specify the medical authority which may grant the certificate of physical fitness and provide such other incidental matters as may be necessary. The opinion of the Medical Authority, regarding the physical fitness or otherwise of the candidate shall be binding on the candidates.

- (2) A candidate selected for appointment who fails to appear before the Medical Authority specified by the appointing authority under sub-rule (1) shall be given one more opportunity to appear before such authority. If the candidate fails to appear before Medical Authority even on second occasion, his name shall be deleted from the list of selected candidates and he shall cease to be eligible for appointment.

17. Fees,-

Every candidate for direct recruitment to any category of post may be required to pay such fees, as may be specified by the Appointing Authority in respect of his applications;

Provided that in the case of a candidate belonging to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe the fees payable shall be half of the fee specified under this rule.

18. Joining time for appointment,-

¹[(1) A candidate appointed by direct recruitment shall assume charge of the post specified by the appointing authority as soon as possible after the date of the order of appointment, but not later than thirty days from that date.]

Explanation.- For the purpose of this sub-rule 'the date of the order of appointment' means the date of dispatch of order of appointment by registered post to the address given by the candidate.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), the appointing authority may, on the application of the candidate and if satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for doing so, by order in writing, grant such further time but not exceeding fifteen days as it may deem necessary.

(3) The name of the candidate who fails to assume charge of the post within the time specified in sub-rule (1) or within the further time granted under sub-rule (2) shall stand deleted from the list of selected candidates and the candidate concerned shall cease to be eligible for appointment.

1 Substituted vide Government Notification no. 4/2007/448/VII-nyaya-2-2017-176G-2010, dated 21.06.2017 (U.P. State District Court Service (First Amendment) Rules, 2017)

CHAPTER-IV

PROBATION

¹[19. Probation.- (1) A person, -

(a) on substantive appointment to a post through direct recruitment shall be placed on probation for a period of two years. The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of probation in individual cases specifying the date upto which the extension is granted:

Provided that, save in exceptional circumstances, the period of probation shall not be extended beyond one year and in no circumstance beyond two years.

(b) on substantive appointment to a post by promotion, if direct recruitment is one of the sources of recruitment, shall be placed on probation for a period of two years. The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of probation in individual cases specifying the date upto which the extension is granted:

Provided that, save in exceptional circumstances, the period of probation shall not be extended beyond one year and in no circumstance beyond two years.

(c) appointed on a post by adjustment, absorption or merger in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the relevant service rules, shall be placed on probation for a period of one year. The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of probation in individual cases specifying the date upto which the extension is granted:

Provided that, save in exceptional circumstances, the period of probation shall not be extended beyond six months and in no circumstance beyond one year.

(2) It will not be necessary to place a person on probation if he is promoted to a post where promotion is the only source of recruitment.

(3) A person shall not be considered to have satisfactorily completed the period of probation unless a specific order to that effect is passed. Any delay in passing such an order shall not entitle the person to be deemed to have satisfactorily completed the period of probation.]

20. Discharge of a probationer during the period of probation:-

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 19, the appointing authority may, at any time during the period of probation, discharge from service, a probationer

on account of his unsuitability for the service.

- (2) An order under sub-rule(1) shall indicate the grounds for the discharge but no disciplinary inquiry shall be necessary.

21. Increment during the period of probation:-

(1) A probationer or promotee may draw the increments that fall due during the period of probation. He shall not, however, draw any increment after the expiry of the period of probation unless and until he is declared to have satisfactorily completed his probation.

(2) When a probationer or promotee is declared to have satisfactorily completed his probation, he shall draw, as from the date such order takes effect, the pay he would have drawn had he been allowed the increments for the whole of his service from the date of his appointment on probation.

CHAPTER – V

Determination of seniority

22. Seniority.

(1) Seniority where appointments by direct recruitment only:- Where according to the rules appointments are to be made only by the direct recruitments, the seniority inter-se of the persons appointed on the result of any one selection, shall be the same as it is shown in the merit list prepared:

Provided that a candidate recruited directly may lose his seniority, if he fails to join without valid reasons when vacancy is offered to him. The decision of the appointing authority as to the validity of reasons, shall be final:

Provided further that persons appointed on the result of subsequent selection shall be Junior to the persons appointed on the result of a previous selection.

Explanation- Where in the same year separate selection for regular and emergency recruitment are made, the selection for regular recruitment shall be deemed to be previous selection.

- (2) Seniority where appointments by promotion only from the Single feeding cadre:- Where according to the service rules, appointments are to be made only by promotion from a single feeding cadre, the seniority inter-se of person so appointed shall be the same as it was in the feeding cadre.

Explanation- A person senior in the feeding cadre shall, even though promoted after the promotion of a person junior to him in the feeding cadre shall, in the cadre to which they are promoted, regain the seniority as it was in the feeding cadre.

(3) Seniority where appointments by promotion only from several feeding cadre:- Where according to service rules, appointments are to be made only by promotion but from more than one feeding cadre, the seniority inter-se of persons appointed on the result of any one selection shall be determined according to the date of the order of their substantive appointment in their respective feeding cadre.

Explanation- Where the order of the substantive appointments in the feeding cadre specifies a particular back date with effect from which, a person is substantively appointed, that date will be deemed to be the date of the order of substantive appointment and, in other cases it will mean the date of issuance of the order:

Provided that where the pay scales of the feeding cadre are different, the persons promoted from the feeding cadre having higher pay scale shall be senior to the persons promoted from the feeding cadre having lower pay scale:

Provided further that the person appointed on the result of a subsequent selection shall be junior to the person appointed on the result of a previous selection.

(4) Seniority where ¹[appointments] made by promotion and direct recruitments- (i) Where according to service rules appointments are made from both by the promotion and by Direct Recruitment, the seniority of persons appointed shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule be determined from the date of the order of their substantive appointments, and if two or more persons are appointed together in the order in which, their names are arranged in the appointment orders:

Provided that if the appointment order specifies a particular back date, with effect from which a person is substantively appointed, that date will ²[be]

1 amended vide Government Notification no. 4/2007/448/VII-nyaya-2-2017-176G-2010, dated 21.06.2017 (U.P. State District Court Service (First Amendment) Rules, 2017)

2 Inserted vide Government Notification no. 4/2007/448/VII-nyaya-2-2017-176G-2010, dated 21.06.2017 (U.P. State District Court Service (First Amendment) Rules, 2017)

deemed to be the date of order of substantive appointment and, in other cases, it will mean the date of issuance of the order:

Further provided that a candidate recruited directly may lose his seniority, if he fails to join without valid reasons, when vacancy is offered to him and the decision of the appointing authority as to the validity of reasons, shall be final.

(ii) The seniority inter-se of the persons appointed on the result of any one selection-

(a) through direct recruitment, shall be the same as it shown in the merit list prepared:

(b) By promotion, shall be determined in accordance with the principles laid down in Rule 22 (2) or Rule 22 (3), as the case may be, accordingly as the promotions are to be made from a single feeding cadre or several feeding cadre.

(iii) Where appointments are made by promotion and direct recruitment on the result of any one selection, the seniority of promotees vis-vis Direct Recruits shall be determined in cyclic order (the first being a promotee) so far as may be in accordance with the quota prescribed for the two sources.

Illustration- where the quota of promotees and direct recruits is in proportion of 1 : 4 seniority shall be in the following order:-

First----- Promotee.

Second to Fifth ----- Direct recruits.

And so on :

Provided that-

(a) Where appointments from any source are made in excess of the prescribed quota, the persons appointed in excess of the quota shall be pushed down, for seniority, to subsequent year or years in which there are vacancies in accordance with the quota:

(b) Where appointments from any source fall short of the prescribed quota and appointment against such unfilled vacancies are made in subsequent year or years, the persons so appointed shall not get seniority of any earlier year but shall get the seniority of the year in which there appointments are made, so that their name shall be placed at the top followed by the names, in the cyclic order of the other appointees.

(c) Where in accordance with the service rules the unfilled vacancies from any source could, in the circumstances mentioned in the relevant service rules, be filled from other source, and appointment in excess of quota are so made, the persons so appointed shall get the seniority of that very year as if they are appointed against the vacancies of their quota.

(5) Preparation of seniority list:-(i) As soon as may be after appointments are made to the service, the appointing authority shall prepare a tentative seniority list of persons appointed substantively to the service in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(ii) The tentative seniority list shall be circulated among the persons concerned inviting objections, by a notice of reasonable period, which shall not be less than 7 days from the date of circulation of the tentative seniority list.

(iii) No objection against the vires or validity of these rules shall be entertainable.

(iv) The appointing authority after disposing of the objection by a reasoned order, issue a final seniority list.

(v) It shall not be necessary to prepare a seniority list of the cadre to which, appointments are made only by promotion from a single feeding cadre.

(6) Every year in the month of July, seniority list of officials in all cadres in a District shall be prepared and published by the appointing authority and the lists so published shall be used for the purpose of making promotions to the next higher cadre in the District.

CHAPTER- VI

computed from the commencement of the imprisonment after the conviction and for this purpose, internment periods of imprisonment, if any, shall be taken into account.

(v) Where the penalty of dismissal or removal from service imposed upon an employee is set aside in appeal under these rules or under rules rescinded by these rules and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or with any other directions;

(a) If he was under suspension immediately before the penalty was awarded to him, the order of his suspension shall, subject to any such directions as aforesaid, be deemed to have continued in force on or from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal;

(b) If he was not under suspension, he shall, if so directed by the appellate authority, be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the appointing authority on or from the date of original order of dismissal or removal:

Provided that nothing in this sub rule shall be construed as affecting the power of disciplinary authority, in a case where a penalty of dismissal or removal from service imposed upon a Government servant is set aside in appeal under these rules on grounds other than the merits of the allegations on the basis of which, the said penalty was imposed and the case is remitted for further enquiry or action or for any other direction, to pass an order of suspension, it being further enquiry against him on those allegations, however any such suspension shall not have retrospective effect

(vi) Where penalty of dismissal or removal from service imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by decision of a Court of law and the appointing authority, on a consideration of circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further enquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal or removal was originally imposed, whether the allegations remain in their original form or are clarified or their particulars better specified or any part thereof of a minor nature omitted ;

(a) If he was under suspension immediately before the penalty was awarded to him, the order of his suspension shall, subject to any direction of the appointing authority, be deemed to have continued in force on or from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal;

(b) If he was not under suspension, he shall, if so directed by the appointing authority, be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the competent authority on and from the date of the original order of dismissal or removal.

(vii) Where an employee is suspended or is deemed to have been suspended (whether in connection with any disciplinary proceedings or otherwise) and any other disciplinary proceedings is commenced against him during the continuance of that suspension, the authority competent to place him under suspension may, for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, direct that the employee shall continue to be under suspension till the termination of all or any of such proceedings.

(viii) Any suspension ordered or deemed to have been ordered or to have continued in force under this rule shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the competent authority.

(ix) An employee placed under suspension or deemed to have placed under suspension under this rule shall be entitled to subsistence allowance in accordance with the provisions of Fundamental Rule 53 of the Financial Hand Book, Vol. II, Part II to IV.

(3) Pay and Allowance etc. of the suspension period”-

After the order is passed in the departmental enquiry on the basis of criminal case, as the case may be, under these rules, the decision as to the pay and allowances of the suspension period of the concerned employees and also whether the said period shall be treated as spent on duty or not, shall be taken by the disciplinary authority after giving a notice to the said employee and calling for his explanation within a specified period under Rule 54 of the Financial Hand Book, Vol. II Part II to IV.

(4) Disciplinary authority- The appointing authority of the member of the service shall be the disciplinary authority, who subject to the provisions of these rules, may impose any of the penalties specified in rule 23:

Provided that no person shall dismissed or removed by an authority subordinate to that by which he was actually appointed:

(5) Procedure of imposing major penalties: Before imposing any major penalty on an employee, an enquiry shall be held in the following manner:-

- (i) he disciplinary authority may himself enquire into the charges or appoint any authority subordinate to him as enquiry officer to enquire into the charges.
- (ii) The fact constituting the misconduct on which is proposed to take action shall be reduced in the form of definite charge or charges to be called Charge-sheet.

The charge-sheet ¹[shall] be approved by the disciplinary authority:

- (iii) The charges framed shall be so precise and clear as to give sufficient indication to the charged employee of the facts and circumstances against him. The proposed documentary evidences and the name of the witnesses proposed to prove the same along with the oral evidences, if any, shall be mentioned in the charge-sheet.

- (iv) The charged employee shall be required to put in written statement of his defence in person on a specified date which shall not be less than 15 days from the date of issue of charge-sheet and to state whether he desires to cross examine any witness mentioned in the charge-sheet and whether he desires to give or produce evidence in his defence. He shall also be informed that in case he does not appear or file written statement on the specified date, it shall be presumed that he has none to furnish and enquiry officer shall proceed to complete the enquiry ex-parte.

- (v) The charge-sheet alongwith the copy of documentary evidences mentioned therein and list of witnesses and their statements if any shall be served on the charged employee personally or by registered post at the address mentioned in the official record. In case the charge-sheet could not be served in the aforesaid manner the charge-sheet shall be served by publication in a daily newspaper having wide circulation:

Provided that where the documentary evidence is voluminous, instead of furnishing its copy with charge-sheet, the charged employee shall be permitted to inspect the same before the enquiry officer.

- (vi) Where the charged employee appears and admits the charges, the enquiry officer shall submit his reports to the disciplinary authority on the basis of such admission.

(vii) Where the charged employee denies the charges, the enquiry officer shall proceed to call the witnesses proposed in the charge sheet and record their ¹[oral] evidence in presence of the charged employee who shall be given opportunity to cross examine such witnesses. After recording the aforesaid evidences, the enquiry officer shall call and record the oral evidence which the charged employee desires in his written statement to be produced in his defence:

Provided that enquiry officer may for reasons to be recorded in writing refused to call a witness.

(viii) The enquiry officer may summon any witness to give evidence or require any person to produce documents before him in accordance with the provisions of Uttar Pradesh Departmental Enquiries (Enforcement of Attendance of Witness and Production of Documents) Act, 1976.

(ix) Enquiry Officer may ask any question he pleases, at any time from any witness or from person charged with a view to discover the truth or to obtain proper proof of facts relevant to charges.

(x) Where the charged employee does not appear on the date fixed in the enquiry or at any stage of proceedings inspite of service of notice upon him or having knowledge of the date, the enquiry officer shall proceed with the enquiry ex-parte. In such a case the enquiry officer shall record the statements of witnesses mentioned in the charge-sheet in absence of the charged employee.

(xi) The disciplinary authority, if it considers necessary to do so, may appoint an officer or a legal practitioner, to be known as 'Presenting Officer' to present on its behalf the case in support of the charge.

(xii) The charged employee may take assistance of any officer to present a case on his behalf but shall not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose unless the presenting officer appointed by the disciplinary authority is a legal practitioner or the disciplinary authority having regard to the circumstances of the case so permits.

Provided that this rule shall not apply in following cases:

(a) Where any major penalty is imposed on a person on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge; or

- (b) Where the disciplinary authority is satisfied, that for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is not reasonably practicable to hold an enquiry in the manner provided in these rules; or
- (c) Where the High Court is satisfied, in the interest of security of State, that it is not expedient to hold an enquiry in the manner provided in these rules.

(6) Submission of enquiry report- When the enquiry is complete, the enquiry officer shall submit its enquiry report to the disciplinary authority alongwith all the records of the enquiry. The enquiry report shall contain sufficient record of the facts, the evidence and statement of the findings on each charge and the reasons thereof. The enquiry officer shall not make any recommendation about the penalty.

(7) Action on enquiry report-

- (i) The disciplinary authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, remit the case for re-enquiry to the same or any other enquiry officer under intimation to the charged employee. The enquiry officer shall thereupon proceed to hold the enquiry from such stage as directed by the disciplinary authority according to the provisions of Rule 23 (5).
- (ii) The disciplinary authority shall, if it disagrees with the findings of enquiry officer on any charge, record it's finding thereon for reasons to be recorded.
- (iii) In case the charges are not proved, the charged employee shall be exonerated by the disciplinary authority, of the charges and would be informed accordingly.
- (iv) If the disciplinary authority, having regard to its finding on all or any of the charges is of the opinion that any penalty specifies in Rule 23 (1) should be imposed on the charged employee, he shall give a copy of the enquiry report and its finding recorded under sub rule (ii) to the charged employee and require him to submit his representation if he so desires, within reasonable specified time. The disciplinary authority shall, having regard to all the relevant record relating to the enquiry and representation of the charged employee, if any, pass a reasoned order imposing one or more penalties mentioned in Rule 23 (1) of these rules and communicate the same to the charged employee.

(8) Procedure for imposing minor penalty-

(i) Where the disciplinary authority is satisfied that good and sufficient reasons exists for adopting such a ¹[course], it may, subject to the provisions of sub rule ²[(ii)] impose one or more of the minor penalties mentioned in Rule 23 (1).

(ii) The concerned employee shall be [informed]³ of the substance of the imputations against him and shall be called upon to submit his explanation within a reasonable time. The disciplinary authority after considering the said explanation, if any, and relevant record, pass such orders as he considers proper and where a penalty is imposed, reasons there ⁴[of] shall be given. The order shall be communicated to the concerned employee.

(9) Appeals-

(i) A person against whom an order imposing a penalty specified in rule 23 (1) (i) & (v) of Minor Penalties has been passed by the Presiding Officer of subordinate court other than the court of District & Sessions Judge, may file an appeal before the Appointing Authority i. e. the District Judge.

(ii) A person against whom an order;

(a) Imposing a penalty specified in any of the clauses (i) to (v) of ⁵[minor] penalties and clauses (i) to (iv) of major penalties of Rule 23 (1), have been passed by the appointing authority, i. e. the District Judge; or

(b) Of enhancement of punishment has been made by the appointing authority i. e. the District Judge in an appeal filed under Clause (i) of this sub-rule, he may file an appeal before the High Court.

(iii) The period during which an appeal may be filed shall be 30 days in case of an appeal filed under Clause (i) of this sub-rule, and 90 days in the case of an appeal filed under ⁶[Clause (ii)] of this sub-rule. The period of limitation shall count from the date on which the appellant is informed of the order appealed against.
