

Notice

In continuation of earlier notice dated 09.09.2016, the learned Counsels, who have not yet updated their respective case data, are hereby again requested to undertake a one time exercise of updating their respective case data with advocate roll number on the online application developed for the purpose. The personalized cause list, through SMS and email, will be sent to only those counsels who have updated their respective case data with advocate roll number on the said online application. All the counsels are requested to update their respective case data on the online application at the earliest.
