10. Service of notice of lodgement of petition :- On receipt from the Supreme Court of the copy of the petition of appeal:-

(a) a notice of lodgement of the petition of appeal shall be served on the respondent and as soon as the notice is served a certificate as to date or dates on which the said notice was served shall be sent to the Supreme Court.

(b) Cost of transmission of record and balance to be refunded on an application :- Unless otherwise ordered by the Supreme Court, a notice shall issue to the appellant requiring him to deposit within a week from the date of service of this notice a sum of rupees ten on account of costs of transmission of record to the Supreme Court provided that, after meeting the cost of transmission of the record of the Court below as well as this Court, the balance, if any, shall be refunded to the appellant, on an application in this behalf being made by him.

Default to be reported to Supreme Court :- Any default on the part of the appellant to deposit the amount to cover the cost of transmission of the record as above shall be reported to the Supreme Court for orders; and

(c) Summoning of record :- The record and proceedings of the case shall be summoned from the Court below, if the same are not already in the High Court.

(i) Filing of list of documents :- On receipt of the records a notice shall issue to the appellant calling upon him to file, within four weeks of the service upon him of the said notice a list of documents which he proposes to include in the paper book, after serving a copy thereof on each of the respondents. The appellant shall produce an acknowledgment in writing from each of the respondents that a copy of the list has been served on him.

(ii) Contents of notice to respondent :- The notice to the respondent under sub-rule (a) of Rule 10 shall also intimate to him the fact that a notice has already been issued to the appellant for filing the list of documents, and requiring him (the respondent) to file, within three weeks from the service of a copy of the list on him by the appellant, a list of such additional documents as he desires to be included in the paper book.

(2) In settling the index, the Registrar, as well as the parties concerned, shall endeavour to exclude from the record all documents that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal and generally to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable.

10. Procedure where respondent objects to inclusion of documents.-

Where the respondent objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is not necessary or is irrelevant and the appellant nevertheless insists upon its inclusion, the record as finally printed shall, with a view to subsequent adjustment of cost of or incidental to the printing of the said document, indicate in the index of the paper book or otherwise the fact that the respondent has objected to the inclusion of the document and that it has been included at the instance of the appellant.

11. Procedure where appellant objects to the inclusion of document.-

(1) Where the appellant objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is not necessary or is irrelevant and the respondent nevertheless insists upon its inclusion, the Registrar, if he is of the opinion that the document is not relevant, may direct that the said document be printed separately at the expenses of the respondent and require the respondent to deposit within such time as he may prescribe, the necessary charges therefor.

(2) If the amount so deposited is found insufficient, the Registrar may call upon the respondent to deposit additional amount or amounts within such further time as he may deem necessary.

(3) The question of the costs thereof will be dealt with by the Supreme Court at the time of the determination of the appeal.

12. Estimate of costs of the preparation of the transcript of record, etc.—

(1) As soon as the index of the record is settled, the Registrar shall cause an estimate of the costs of the preparation of the record to be prepared and served on the appellant and require him to deposit, within 30 days of such service, the said amount. Such costs shall include the costs of transmission of transcript and translation, if any. The appellant may deposit the said amount in lump sum or in such installments as the Registrar

11. (i) Inclusion of records :- Where the decision of the appeal is likely to turn exclusively on a question of law, the appellant may apply for inclusion of such parts only of the record as may be necessary for the discussion of the same.

(ii) List to accompany application.- The application mentioned in sub-rule (i) shall in a case in which a printed record has already been prepared for the use of this Court, be accompanied by;

a list of documents already printed but considered as not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal; a list of documents printed on behalf of the opposite party and included in the list under Clause (i); and a list of documents not already printed but the printing of which is considered essential for the prosecution of the appeal, a short note being entered against each document in the list showing in what respect its inclusion is essential.

The petitioner shall serve copies of these lists on the Advocate for the opposite party.

12. Settling of index.- After the expiry of the time fixed for the list of additional documents by the respondent, the case shall be listed before the Registrar General for the settlement of the list (hereinafter referred to as the Index) of documents to be included in the transcript of the record of appeal and shall notify the same on the notice board of the Court. No separate notices will be issued to the parties or their Advocates. In settling the index, the Registrar General as well as the parties concerned shall endeavor to exclude from the record all documents that are not relevant to the subject-matter of the appeal and generally to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable.

13. Procedure where respondent objects to inclusion of document :- Where the respondent objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is not necessary or is irrelevant and the appellant nevertheless insists upon its inclusion, the transcript of the record as finally prepared shall, with a view to subsequent adjustment of costs of or incidental to the printing of the said document, indicate in the index of the transcript or otherwise the fact that the respondent has objected to the may prescribe.

(2) After meeting the costs of the preparation and transmission of the record, the balance of the deposit, if any, shall be refunded to the appellant.

13. Where record is printed for appeal before the Court, no fresh transcript necessary.— Where the record has been printed for the purpose of the appeal before the Court and sufficient number of copies of the said printed record is available, no fresh transcript of the record shall be necessary except of such additional papers as may be required.

14. Registrar may call for additional deposit if deposit made is insufficient.— If at any time during the preparation of the record the amount deposited is found insufficient, the Registrar shall call upon the appellant to deposit such further sum as may be necessary within such further time as may be deemed fit, but not exceeding twenty eight days in the aggregate.

15. Procedure on appellant making default in making deposit.- (1) Where the appellant fails to make the required deposit, the preparation of the record shall be suspended and the Registrar shall not proceed with the preparation thereof without an order in this behalf of this Court.

(2) The Court may give such accommodation in the matter of time for making the deposit as it deems proper and if the appellant continues the default in spite of the orders of this Court, the Registrar shall obtain an order from the Court for reporting the default to the Supreme Court and report accordingly.

16. Preparation of record.- (1) Unless the Supreme Court so directs, the record shall not be printed or photocopied in this Court.

(2) Where the Supreme Court directs that the record be printed in this Court, the same shall be printed in accordance with the rules contained in the First Schedule to the Supreme Court Rules, 2013.

(3) Where the paper-book pertaining to the appeal is not likely to consist of more than 200 pages, the Registrar may, instead of having the record printed, have it photocopied.

inclusion of the document and that it has been included at the expense of the appellant.	(4) Unless a party informs its requirements before the printing or the photocopying is undertaken, each party shall be entitled to three copies of the record for its use.
14. Procedure where appellant objects to inclusion of documents :- Where the appellant objects to the inclusion of a document on the ground that it is not necessary or is irrelevant and the respondent nevertheless insists upon its inclusion, the Registrar General, if he is of the opinion that the document is not relevant, may direct that the said document be included separately at the expense of the respondent and require the respondent to deposit within such time as he may prescribe the necessary charges thereof. If the amount so deposited is found insufficient the Registrar General may call upon the respondent to deposit additional amount or amounts within such further time as he may deem necessary. The question of the costs thereof will be dealt with by the Supreme Court at the time of the determination of the appeal.	(5) Where the records are printed for the purpose of the appeal before this Court and the said record be in English, this Court shall prepare 10 extra copies in addition to the number of copies required by this Court for use in the Supreme Court.
15. Estimate of costs of the preparation of the transcript of record, etc. :- As soon as the index of the record is settled, the Registrar General shall cause an estimate of the costs of the preparation of the transcript of the record (and of printing or cyclostyling the record, where it is required to be printed or cyclostyled) to be prepared and served on the appellant and shall require him to deposit within thirty days of such service the said amount. Such costs shall include the costs of translation, if any. The appellant may deposit the said amount in lump sum or in such installments as the Registrar General may prescribe.	17.
